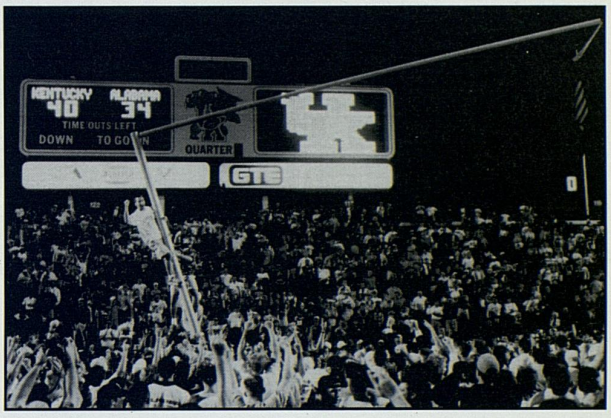
"It has come that far this fast. Saturday nights with Hal. What a blast."

These words, written in the Louisville Courier-Journal following Kentucky's dramatic overtime win against Alabama, tell the story of the 1997 season and point toward the hope of 1998.

A year ago, Kentucky fans took an immediate liking to their personable new coach, Hal Mumme. Local songwriters wrote ballads about him ... fans wore "Mumme masks" to the games ... and even before the first game was played, Lexington Mayor Pam Miller renamed a street alongside Commonwealth Stadium "Hal Mumme Pass." ("I didn't know if it was an honor or an order," Mumme quipped.)

Pass he did, and the turnaround of the team was immediate. The Wildcats zoomed from 109th in the nation in total offense in 1996 to sixth nationally in Mumme's first season. Fifty-one school records, 15 Southeastern Conference records, and UK's attendance records were smashed. The Wildcats put themselves into bowl contention. Quarterback Tim Couch placed ninth in the Heisman Trophy voting, the first Wildcat in the Heisman top 10 since 1957. The Wildcats surprised everyone by winning five games, and the Knoxville News-Sentinel called Kentucky "the most exciting 5-6 team in SEC history."



Wildcats fans tore down the goalposts following UK's first win over Alabama in 75 years.

Prospects noticed, too, and Kentucky's 1998 recruiting class was listed in the top 20 by three national recruiting rankings.

As one might expect, enthusiasm for the coming season is at fever pitch. Season tickets are sold out. Commonwealth Stadium will be expanded to a capacity of 68,000 in time for the 1999 season.

The fans will watch an offense that returns nine starters. The Wildcats will be young on defense, but will be faster and quicker than a year ago. Both starting kickers are back, along with a record-setting kick returner in Craig Yeast.

"Air Raid '98 - Reload" is the theme for the coming season, as the Wildcats hope to produce more magic moments like the one pictured above.

Covering Kentucky Football

The 1998 edition of the University of Kentucky Football Media Guide is a comprehensive source of information for media covering the Wildcats. Additional information or photos can be obtained by calling UK Media Relations at (606) 257-3838. Our fax number is (606) 323-4310.

Daily/Weekly Services

Monday Press Conference

University of Kentucky Coach Hal Mumme will conduct a weekly press conference each Monday during the 1998 football season. The press conferences will be conducted in the Wildcat Den at Commonwealth Stadium. Media members may access the Wildcat Den at Gate Three of Commonwealth Stadium.

The opposing coach is usually available via telephone hook-up. Selected Wildcats football players will be available at the press conferences.

The weekly press conferences will begin on Monday, Aug. 31. Press conferences conclude on Nov. 16. No press conference is scheduled for Oct. 26, which is the Monday prior to UK's open date.

The press conference schedule is as follows — lunch is set from 11:30 a.m. to noon; Mumme press conference from noon to 12:30 p.m.; UK player interviews from 12:30 p.m. to 12:50 p.m.

Sunday Teleconference

UK Coach Hal Mumme will conduct a weekly Sunday teleconference following Wildcats football games. The teleconferences are up to 30 minutes in length and begin at 5:30 p.m. ET.

Media members can participate in the teleconference by dialing a MEDIA ONLY telephone number which can be obtained from the UK Media Relations Office. The Sunday teleconferences will begin on Sept. 6 and run through Nov. 15. No teleconference is planned for Nov. 1, the week of UK's open date.

The teleconference is broadcast quality. Please contact the UK Media Relations Office (606) 257-3838 for further information.

Southeastern Conference Services

The Southeastern Conference Media Relations Office, headed by Charles Bloom, offers a variety of services to the media throughout the academic calendar year.

Statistics and league standings are available to the media on a 24-hour bulletin board. Media members can access the bulletin board via computer by a telephone hook-up. For parameters and further information, contact the SEC Media Relations Office at (205) 458-3010.

All SEC head football coaches are available each Wednesday via a teleconference. Each coach is given a period of seven minutes to address media questions about his upcoming football game. The starting date and telephone number will be available to the media by contacting the SEC Media Relations Office.

Video highlights by satellite are offered on a weekly basis through the SEC Media Relations Office. A 30-minute satellite feed, which includes player interviews and highlights, is available to television stations each Wednesday morning. For further information, contact the SEC Media Relations Office.

Wildcats Player Interviews

All player interviews must be coordinated through the UK Media Relations Office. Players are available to the media during game week, Monday through Wednesday. The best times to conduct interviews with the players are at the Monday press conference or after practice. Interviews will be conducted at the Nutter Football Training Center or by telephone. On game days, interviews will be granted only after the conclusion of the contest.

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a "call-back" basis only. Individual player telephone numbers WILL NOT be given to members of the media. Players are instructed NOT to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The UK Media Relations Office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete.

The university dormitories, dining halls, team locker rooms and team training rooms are considered private team areas. These areas are OFF-LIMITS to the media unless accompanied by UK Media Relations Office personnel.

Internet

The official University of Kentucky athletics internet site is www.ukathletics.com

Fax-on-Demand

University of Kentucky football statistics and game notes are available to the media via fax-on-demand. Contact the UK Media Relations Office at (606) 257-3838 for the phone number and access codes.

The Southeastern Conference football statistics and notes also are available via fax-on-demand. Contact the conference office at (205) 458-3010 for the phone number and access codes.

Football Practice

Kentucky football practices are open to the media, including photographers and videographers.

Media members should contact the UK Media Relations Office, (606) 257-3838, for practice times.

Game Services

Press Box

Credentials for working media and photographers for Kentucky's home football games should be directed to Rena Vicini, Assistant AD/Media Relations.

Requests for media credentials — season or single-game — should be submitted in writing by sports editors or sports directors of accredited media outlets on company letterhead. Requests for season passes should be submitted no later than August 17. Requests for single games should arrive at the UK Media Relations Office at least one week in advance.

The University of Kentucky follows guidelines set by the NCAA and the Southeastern Conference in issuing credentials. The UK Media Relations Office attempts to fill each accredited media request.

Season credentials will be granted only to daily newspapers, radio stations, and television stations that cover the UK football program on a regular basis — i.e., weekly press conferences and all home games. Because of limited space, season credentials to radio stations will be limited to one per station (sports director).

All credential requests should be sent to: Rena Vicini, Assistant AD/Media Relations, UK Media Relations Office, Memorial Coliseum, Lexington, KY 40506.

Photo Credentials

Photo credentials will be issued only to accredited media outlets — daily newspapers, specialized publications and television stations.

Admission to the Commonwealth Stadium sidelines is by a combination of photo pass and armband. Photographers must sign in and present their credential at the UK Press Will Call table, located inside Gate Seven of Commonwealth Stadium, to obtain an armband.

Media Parking

Media parking at Commonwealth Stadium is available on a limited basis. Requests for parking should be made when submitting press and/or photo credentials. The media parking area is located in the Yellow Lot just behind the West side (Alumni Drive) of Nutter Field House. The Yellow Lot is accessible via Alumni Drive.

Press Box

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is for WORKING media members only. It is located on the West side (Alumni Drive) of Commonwealth Stadium between the upper and lower grandstands. The media entrance to Commonwealth Stadium is Gate Seven. Two press box elevators are located just to the left of the Gate Seven entrance.

The photo deck, radio booths, television booths, coaches booths, and VIP booths are located on the press box level of Commonwealth Stadium. All can be accessed via the press box elevator.

Media Will Call

Appropriately requsted media or photo credentials which have not been mailed can be obtained at the Media Will Call table, located just inside Gate Seven of Commonwealth Stadium. Media Will Call opens two hours prior to kickoff and closes 15 minutes following kickoff.

Telephones

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is equipped with eight courtesy telephones with long-distance capabilities for use by the media on a first-come, first-served basis. The UK Media Relations Office strongly suggests each media outlet with deadline restrictions should order its own individual telephone line. Members of the media wishing to order phone lines can do so by contacting John Fuller of the UK Phone Services Department. His telephone number is (606) 257-7727. Please order phone lines at least one week in advance.

Darkroom Facilities

Limited darkroom facilities are available in the Commonwealth Stadium press box. Photographers wishing to use the darkroom facilities should make arrangements with Tony Neely of the UK Media Relations Office at (606) 257-3838.

Visiting Radio

The official visiting radio broadcast network personnel should be designated in writing by the visiting team's sports information director or athletics director. Four phone lines will be made available, including two in the locker room area, at a cost to be determined by Mike Dodson of Host Communications (606) 226-4678.

Networks wishing to install additional telephone lines, either in the press box booth or locker room, can do so by contacting John Fuller of the UK Phone Services Department at (606) 257-7727.

Postgame interviews

UK Coach Hal Mumme will conduct his postgame press conference in the Wildcat Den, located under the East grandstand in the UK football office complex. Mumme begins his postgame press conference approximately 15 minutes following the conclusion of the contest. The media entrance to the Wildcat Den is located in the northeast corner (nearest flagpole) of Commonwealth Stadium.

The Kentucky locker room is CLOSED to all members of the media. UK players requested for interviews are brought to the Wildcat Den following the conclusion of Mumme's press conference. Interview cards are distributed in the press box during the second half of the contest in order for members of the media to request Wildcats players.

The visitors' locker room is located at the northwest corner of Commonwealth Stadium. A press conference area is located just outside the visitors' locker room entrance. The visiting coach and players generally conduct their respective post-game comments from that area.

Stats 'n' Stuff

The UK Media Relations Office will provide a complete pregame packet (including facts sheets, flip card, and game program) approximately 30 minutes prior to kickoff. A complete running play-by-play, drive charts and team and individual statistics are made available at the conclusion of the contest. Quotes from coaches and players of both teams are also provided.

A FAX service is also available. FAX request forms will be issued during the second half to media members requesting them. Statistics and play-by-play may be accessed after the game via fax-on-demand. Contact the Media Relations Office (606) 257-3838 for details.

1998 Kentucky Wildcats Outlook

"Air Raid '98 - RELOAD" is a fitting theme for the upcoming Kentucky football season.

With nine starters back on offense, the Wildcats seek to re-light the aerial fireworks that led to a No. 6 national ranking in total offense a year ago. Defensively, UK is reloading a scrappy bunch of veterans that is small in numbers - but big in heart - and reinforcing with a talented, athletic set of freshman defenders.

Following a 1997 season that included stirring victories, a barrage of yards and points, and the unbridled enthusiasm of attendance records built and goalposts torn down, football fever is burning in the Bluegrass.

Now in his second season at UK, Coach Hal Mumme plans to fan the flames with the strength of 45 returning lettermen, including 14 starters and the starting kicker and punter.

A year ago, Mumme handed the controls of his passing offense to quarterback Tim Couch. Couch responded by completing 363 of 547 passes (66.4 percent) for 3,884 yards, leading the nation in all four categories. Couch also passed for 37 touchdowns, second best in the country, and is a preseason All-American as he returns for his junior season.

One of the strengths of Couch's passing game is the number of suitable targets. Heading the list is senior wide receiver Craig Yeast, who set school records last season by catching 73 passes for 873 yards and 10 touchdowns. Wide receivers Kevin Coleman, Lance Mickelsen, and Jimmy Robinson each caught at least 31 passes a year ago. Joining the receiving rotation are wideouts Quentin McCord and Garry Davis. Also watch for tight end Jimmy Haley, who hopes to be at full speed after missing much of last season with a foot injury.

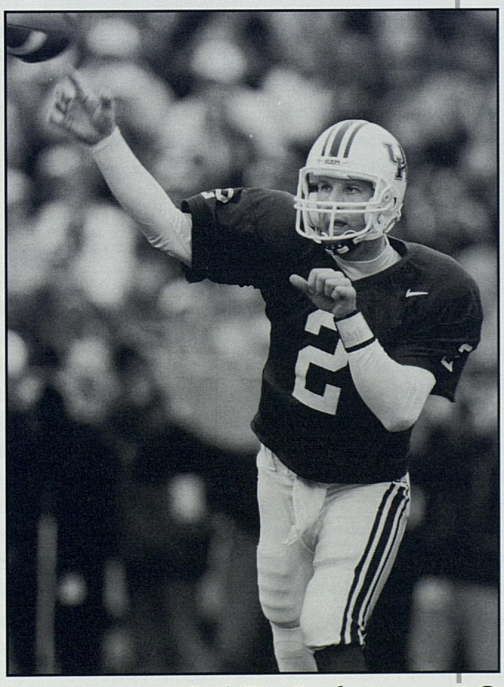
Sophomore Derek Homer is expected to lead the UK ground game from the fullback position. He gained 502 yards last season and averaged 5.7 yards per carry. At halfback, Anthony White is a versatile threat. He led the team in rushing with 723 yards, caught 59 passes for 453 stripes, and totaled eight touchdowns.

The offensive line is a veteran group with five seniors expected to be in the starting lineup. The returning regulars, left tackle Jonas Liening, center Jason Watts, right guard Mike Webster, and right tackle Kris Comstock will be joined by another senior, Jeremy Streck.

"Overall, we did a good job on offense last season. With a year of experience, I think we'll be more consistent and make fewer mistakes," Mumme said.

The biggest story of spring practice was the apparent progress of the Wildcats defense. A lack of speed and sheer lack of numbers caused a lot of struggles last season, but the UK defenders played much more competitively during the spring workouts.

One noticeable improvement is the amount of speed on the field. UK's average 40-yard dash time for the starting lineup has been lowered from 4.75 seconds (1997 starters) to 4.57 seconds (1998 starters).



Junior quarterback Tim Couch returns to the controls of the "Air Raid" offense. Couch threw for 3,884 yards and 37 touchdowns last season while leading the nation in four passing categories.

The numbers problem is still there - only 19 scholarship defenders were on hand by the end of spring practice - but an aggressive recruiting effort will result in an influx of freshman talent when practice resumes in August.

Solidifying the defensive line are senior tackles Marvin Major and Mark Jacobs. Jacobs is entering his fourth year as a starter and Major will be a three-year regular. The top returning pass rusher is end Robert Jones, who notched six quarterback sacks last season.

Unquestionably, the leader of the Wildcats defense is junior Jeff Snedegar, who paced the squad last season with 97 tackles. He moves from outside linebacker to middle linebacker for the 1998 season. Flanking Snedegar at outside linebacker are Lee Wesley and Marlon McCree. Wesley made 88 tackles last season and the play of McCree was one of the most pleasant developments of the spring.

Also making their mark during the spring were a pair of sophomore cornerbacks, Eric Kelly and Jeremy Bowie, who appear ready for full-time action. Senior Jeff Zurcher, a special teams stalwart, also played well in the spring and is penciled in the lineup at strong safety. Anchoring the secondary is sophomore free safety Willie Gary, who earned Freshman All-America honors in his debut campaign.

"We got considerably better in the spring and we're very optimistic on defense, but we're still thin," Mumme said. "When you go beyond the first 14 or 15 guys, we'll be counting on the guys who are coming in. It's still better than it was last year."

Special teams play could be a team strength. Senior punter Jimmy Carter and soph kicker Seth Hanson are returning starters. Wide receiver Craig Yeast is an explosive return man who brought back a punt and a kickoff for touchdowns last season.

Position-by-Position Outlook

An In-depth Look at How the Cats Line Up

(Returning players only; incoming freshmen will join the depth chart in August; returning starters in ALL CAPS)

Wildcats Offense

Wide Receivers

X	CRAIG YEAST	5-9	166	Sr-3L
	Garry Davis	6-2	201	So-1L
	Mitt Crowe	6-2	178	So-1L
Y	Kevin Coleman	5-10	195	Sr-3L

Z	Jimmy Robinson	6-3	198	Jr-1L
	Lance Mickelsen	6-3	175	Sr-1L
	Jermaine White	6-6	200	So-1L

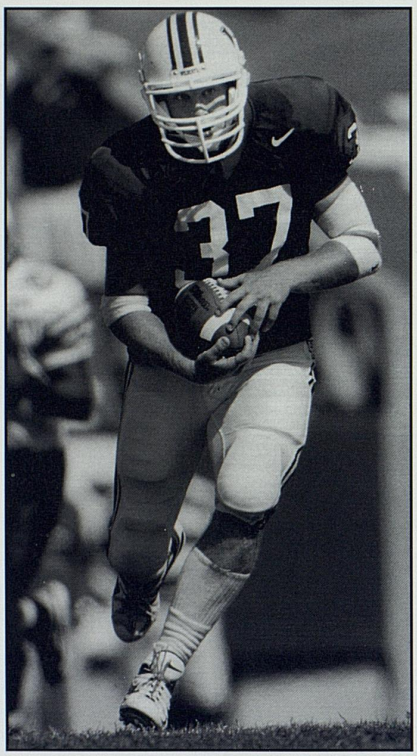
Unproven going into last season, one of the most exciting developments of 1997 was the play of the Wildcats wide receivers. Now, Kentucky appears to be blessed with quality and quantity as nine lettermen return, including four wideouts who caught at least 31 passes a year ago.

Senior Craig Yeast heads the list of returnees at the "X" receiver. Yeast has led UK in receiving each of his three seasons. A year ago he caught a school-record 73 passes for 873 yards and 10 touchdowns while earning second-team All-SEC honors. Already, he's caught more passes in his career than any player in Wildcats history ... Kevin Coleman and Jimmy Robinson are the tentative starters at "Y" and "Z." Coleman caught 52 passes for 621 yards and eight touchdowns last season and Robinson snared 35 aerials for 366 yards and two scores.

Reserves see plenty of action. Senior Lance Mickelsen hauled in 31 passes for 377 yards and six TDs last season ... Sophomore Garry Davis emerged as an up-and-comer during the spring after catching five passes a year ago ... Quentin McCord should be a factor despite sitting out last season. He caught 12 passes as a true freshman in 1996 ... Mitt Crowe and Jermaine White provide depth, although it is hoped that both will be able to redshirt this season.

Coach Mumme ...

"I feel better about this group than the one a year ago. We have a lot of players who have caught balls in games.



Tight end Jimmy Haley hopes to be fully recovered from the foot injuries that sidelined him last season.

"I thought we had a good spring and accomplished what we wanted with the receivers. Garry Davis came on and had the most consistent spring of all the receivers, which gives us a good backup for Craig Yeast. We wanted Craig and Jimmy Robinson to work on catching deep balls from Tim (Couch) and that went well.

"Quentin McCord had a good spring and he and Kevin Coleman give us two good receivers at the slot (Y) position. Lance Mickelsen missed the spring (because of injury) but we'll get him back in the fall. That should give us the luxury of redshirting Jermaine White, barring injuries."

Tight Ends

TE	JIMMY HALEY	6-3	228	Jr-2L
	James Whalen, Jr.	6-4	214	Jr-1L
	Paul McGonagle	6-4	264	Sr-1L
	Cheddi Acham	6-3	196	Jr-Sq

Jimmy Haley was leading the nation's tight ends in pass receptions last season before suffering a foot injury that slowed him for the remainder of the campaign. He finished 1997 with 24 receptions for 195 yards. He participated in spring practice and hopes to be fully ready in August ... All three of the reserve tight ends have been moved from other positions ... James Whalen, Jr., looked very good in the spring. He caught seven passes for 66 yards last season as a wide receiver ... Cheddi Acham also is a former wide receiver ... Ex-center Paul McGonagle gives blocking punch to the position.

Coach Mumme ...

"We were really impressed with the progress James Whalen made this spring, both as a blocker and as a receiver. He's really putting the heat on Jimmy Haley for the starting tight end job. Haley is still suffering the effects of his injury. We hope he works hard over the summer and comes back strong in the fall. He's probably going to inherit our long-snapping chores."

Offensive Tackles

LT	JONAS LIENING	6-8	299	Sr-3L
	Omar Smith	6-3	285	Jr-1L
RT	KRIS COMSTOCK	6-8	304	Sr-3L
	David Berringer	6-4	278	Sr-3L

The Wildcats are well-fortified at the tackle positions with the return of seniors Jonas Liening and Kris Comstock. Liening will be a four-year starter and Comstock is entering his third year as a regular. Each responded well to the demands of pass blocking last season in the new "Air Raid" offense. Liening had off-season knee reconstruction surgery and missed the spring, but is expected to be fully ready in August ... Senior David Berringer and junior Omar Smith give UK experienced backups, although it is hoped that Smith will be able to redshirt the 1998 season ... Guard Matt Brown also can play left tackle.

Coach Mumme ...

"Jonas Liening sat out the spring, but we expect him to come back this fall and play better than he did last year because his knee is fixed. He played with a bad knee all last year (after suffering a torn ACL in the second game). We'll probably try to redshirt Omar this year. On the other side, Kris Comstock had a good spring, and David Berringer did, too. We're pretty pleased with our tackles."

Offensive Guards

LG	Jeremy Streck	6-5	313	Sr-2L
	Matt Brown	6-5	304	Fr-RS
	Brad Ferguson	6-4	297	Sr-Tr
RG	MIKE WEBSTER	6-6	281	Sr-1L
	Josh Parrish	6-6	327	Fr-RS

Mike Webster, who saw his first game action as the starting left guard in 1997, moves to right guard for the 1998 campaign ... Jeremy Streck, a starter two years ago, moves into the lineup at left guard ... He will be pushed by impressive redshirt freshman Matt Brown, who also can play left tackle if needed ... Another redshirt freshman, Josh Parrish, is the backup right guard ... Brad Ferguson, a transfer from Marshall, gives the team some experienced depth ... Center Nolan DeVaughn also might see some time at guard.

Coach Mumme ...

"Mike Webster is over (at right guard) where (John) Schlarman played last year, and that turned out to be a good move. Jeremy Streck and Matt Brown are probably going to battle. Both of them had good days this spring. Some of the young guys, like Josh Parrish and (center) Nolan DeVaughn, really came on."

Centers

C	JASON WATTS	6-3	271	Sr-3L
	Nolan DeVaughn	6-5	306	Fr-RS
	Aaron Daniel	6-3	267	So-1L
	Mike Riddle	6-0	260	Sr-Sq

Senior Jason Watts, a two-year starter, is an outstanding center. He handles the shotgun snap well. His notable quickness helps him excel at making downfield blocks after short passes ... The backup role is between Aaron Daniel and Nolan DeVaughn, who also can play guard ... Senior Mike Riddle saw his first extensive game action last season on the junior varsity team.

Coach Mumme ...

"Jason Watts could be an all-conference player and he didn't do anything to hurt his chances this spring. He has gotten better command of the offense. Aaron Daniel will back him up, although we looked at Nolan DeVaughn there some. Nolan may be a guy who can move in there in the future."

Quarterbacks

QB	TIM COUCH	6-5	225	Jr-2L
	Matt Mumme	6-3	175	Sr-Tr
	Dusty Bonner	6-2	203	So-1L
	Corry Doyle	6-0	170	So-Sq

Junior Tim Couch flourished last season in the new pass-oriented offense. He completed 363 of 547 passes (66.4 percent) for 3,884 yards and 37 touchdowns. He led the nation in completions, attempts, percentage, and yardage. He broke or tied 17 school records and 10 Southeastern Conference records. Already a master of the "Air Raid" attack, his year of experience should make him even better at reading defenses and finding the best target. He did not throw an interception in 91 pass attempts during the spring scrimmages ... Matt Mumme, who transferred from Valdosta State, is eligible for his senior season and is projected to be the backup ... Barring injury to the other QBs, Dusty Bonner could be redshirted ... Corry Doyle gained experience last season with the junior varsity team.

Coach Mumme ...

"I thought Tim Couch had a solid spring. There were some areas we wanted him to improve, such as throwing the deep ball, working on play-action passes, some of his checks, staying on some reads longer, and I think he improved on all of them. I thought he was really at ease with the offense. I thought Matt Mumme knocked some of the rust off and had a solid spring. He'll be the backup, which will let us redshirt Dusty Bonner, who also had a good spring. We want Dusty and the two young guys coming in to work on the fundamentals of our offense without the pressure of having to prepare for a game."

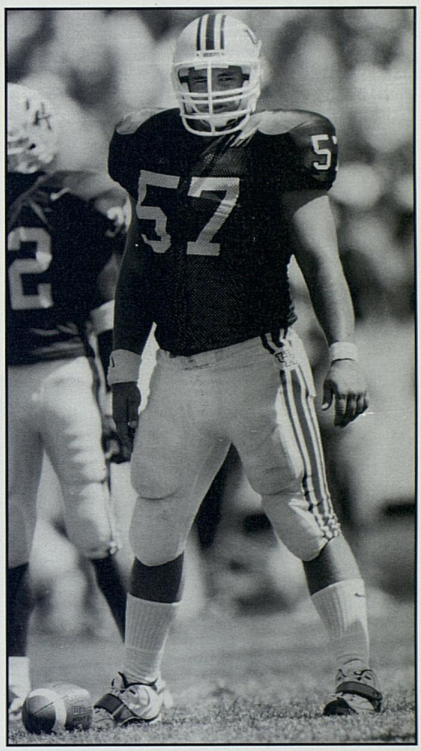
Fullbacks

FB	DEREK HOMER	5-11	203	So-1L
	A. J. Simon	5-11	225	Jr-1L
	Mike Kamphake	6-0	200	Fr-HS
	Larry Morris	6-2	232	Jr-Sq

The fullback is the primary ballcarrier in the offensive scheme ... Derek Homer played well last season for a true freshman as he split the fullback and halfback positions with Anthony White. Homer rushed for 502 yards, including 137 yards in the season finale against Tennessee, and averaged 5.7 yards per attempt. He also caught 31 passes for 364 yards and two scores and was named to the Freshman All-SEC team. He is expected to play mostly at fullback in the coming season ... A. J. Simon is a heady player who handles his assigned roles well ... Mike Kamphake, who joined the team last January, and Larry Morris, who moved over from defensive end, have begun learning the offense.

Coach Mumme ...

"Derek Homer is going to be the focus of our ballcarrying responsibilities. I thought he had a good, solid spring. We asked him to work on some fundamental things and he did. He's one of the hardest workers on the team. A. J. Simon worked on his blocking and pass catching. He also improved his speed. A. J. has certain roles to fill and I feel like he got better at them."



Center Jason Watts anchors the all-senior Wildcats offensive line.

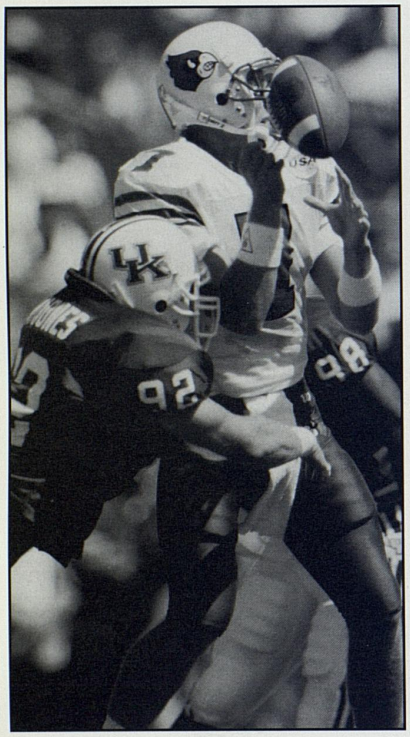
Halfbacks

HB	ANTHONY WHITE	6-1	191	Jr-1L
	Alex Herman	5-10	180	So-Sq

Anthony White split time at fullback and halfback last season and played both very well, combining for 1,176 yards. He led the team in rushing with 723 yards and four touchdowns and averaged 5.6 yards per carry. He also set a school record for receptions by a running back with 59, good for 453 yards and four TDs ... Walk-on Alex Herman is the only backup on the roster, but incoming freshmen could play a key role here

Coach Mumme ...

"We'll use Anthony White a little more in the receiver capacity and a little less as a ballcarrier. I felt like he had a good spring. We'll take a look at some of the freshmen at this position."



Defensive end Robert Jones had six quarterback sacks last season.

Defensive Tackles

DT	MARK JACOBS	6-3	274	Sr-3L
	Gordon Crowe	6-3	288	Jr-2L
DT	MARVIN MAJOR	6-3	281	Sr-2L
	George Massey	6-3	272	Jr-2L
	Derrick Johnson	6-2	298	Fr-RS

All five players are likely to see action in the playing rotation ... Senior Mark Jacobs enters his third year as a starter and senior Marvin Major enters his third season as a regular. Major led the Wildcats linemen with 60 tackles last season, including three for loss. Jacobs had 21 stops, including three for loss ... With juniors Gordon Crowe and George Massey, these are the only positions on defense with experienced depth. Crowe, who had 17 tackles last season, has a knack for the big play as he made six tackles for loss. Massey made three tackles last season ... Derrick Johnson, who has impressive strength and athletic ability, moved over from the offensive line during the spring.

Coach Mumme ...

"I thought Marvin Major and Mark Jacobs really had an outstanding spring. They showed some good leadership skills and got quicker. George Massey made a lot of improvement and Derrick Johnson showed us some things. I thought Derrick worked hard to get on the field, and he impressed us this spring. He has some pretty good skills."

Defensive Ends

DE	Matt Layow	6-3	238	So-1L
	Brandon White	6-3	220	So-Sq
DE	Robert Jones	6-3	240	Sr-1L
	Grayson Smith	6-1	233	So-1L

Robert Jones is the only end with significant game experience. He played very well as a reserve last season, showing a knack for making big plays. He sacked the quarterback six times last season, caused two fumbles, had two pass breakups, and totaled 18 tackles ... Sophomores Matt Layow, Grayson Smith, and Brandon White all have limited game experience. Layow made some big plays during the spring and enters August as the starter at the other end ... Incoming freshmen are likely to be a factor at the end slots.

Coach Mumme ...

"Robert Jones had a great spring and has really become a leader on the team in terms of his play. Matt Layow is a very athletic guy and we were hoping he would make some strides this spring. He really gave us some trouble knocking down the ball. He's still a little green at that position, but we expect him to contribute in the fall and be a good player for us. Grayson Smith came on and has earned a scholarship. He'll help us some on special teams and he's a guy who always gives you great effort."

Linebackers

OLB	LEE WESLEY	6-0	218	Jr-2L
	Stephan Walters	6-0	218	Sr-2L
MLB	JEFF SNEDEGAR	6-2	240	Jr-2L
	John Rader	6-5	233	So-1L
	Teddy Neptune	6-2	210	So-Sq
OLB	Marlon McCree	6-1	205	So-1L
	Gus Jacobs	6-0	214	So-Sq

Junior Jeff Snedegar moves from outside linebacker to the middle for 1998. He missed spring practice while rehabilitating an injured shoulder, so he will have to do some quick on-the-job training come August. Snedegar led the team in tackles last season with 97, adding 10 tackles for loss, three quarterback sacks, two interceptions, and an assortment of other big plays ... Junior outside linebacker Lee Wesley was third on the team in tackles last season with 88, including nine for loss, and had five pass breakups ... Former safety Marlon McCree was one of the pleasant developments of spring practice. He played very well during the spring and claimed a starting berth at outside linebacker. McCree has a taste of game experience and made 11 tackles last season.

The reserves are mostly inexperienced ... Sophomore John Rader played briefly last season at middle linebacker and appeared to make good progress during the spring ... Senior Stephan Walters moved from safety to outside linebacker in the spring ... Teddy Neptune and Gus Jacobs got experience on the junior varsity team last season ... Some of the talented incoming freshmen are likely to contend for backup roles.

Coach Mumme ...

"Jeff Snedegar is a premier linebacker and we look forward to getting him back in the fall. There's no question that he's our defensive leader. Two guys who really came on in the spring were Marlon McCree and John Rader. We're hoping they'll come back in the fall and continue their play. Lee Wesley also was very solid this spring."

Cornerbacks

CB	Eric Kelly	5-11	190	So-1L
	Kenneth Grant	6-0	198	So-1L
CB	Jeremy Bowie	5-10	176	So-1L
	Marvin Love	5-10	161	Sr-1L

A big story of the spring was the play of the Wildcats' young cornerbacks, Eric Kelly and Jeremy Bowie, who turned in strong performances during the spring drills. Each player got some good game experience a year ago. Kelly started four games and made 26 tackles. Bowie played as the team's nickel back in passing situations. He made 12 tackles and pounced on the fumble that ended Alabama's possession in overtime.

The backup corners, Marvin Love and Kenneth Grant, have moved over from offense. Both players have great speed and are former dash champions in track. Given his lack of experience, Love showed good aptitude during the spring and Grant has a tremendous amount of potential.

Coach Mumme ...

"That was a spot where I felt we needed to improve and we moved some people. Marvin Love and Kenneth Grant had good, solid spring practices, Marvin in particular. Both of them have tremendous speed. Jeremy Bowie, who played some last year and also can play nickel back, had a good spring. Eric Kelly played well, too. We're a little more experienced than meets the eye. We have tremendous speed there, and you obviously can't coach that. All those guys can run 4.4 (seconds in the 40-yard dash) or better."

Safeties

SS	Jeff Zurcher	6-1	207	Sr-2L
	Brackston Poitier	5-10	190	Fr-RS
FS	WILLIE GARY	5-10	190	So-1L
	Chris Gayton	6-1	206	Fr-RS

Free safety Willie Gary is the only returning starter in the secondary. He started all 11 games last season and made 82 tackles. He was named to the Freshman All-America team by The Sporting News and the Freshman All-SEC team by the Knoxville News-Sentinel ... Senior Jeff Zurcher came on strong during the spring in his first significant action with the first team. He led the defense with two interceptions during the four scrimmages and made a number of other big plays. He made 12 tackles last season and was a stalwart on special teams ... Redshirt freshman Chris Gayton has good speed but needs experience ... Walk-on Brackston Poitier joined the team during the spring ... The incoming freshmen will help the numbers situation.

Coach Mumme ...

"Willie Gary is obviously the big name that's back. He had an outstanding spring. I thought Jeff Zurcher came on and produced for us. He looked good and we're pleased with that. Chris Gayton had a good spring and gives us a little bit of depth back there."

Special Teams

K	SETH HANSON	6-2	198	So-1L
	Marc Samuel	5-10	160	So-1L
P	JIMMY CARTER	6-0	175	Sr-3L
	Andy Smith	6-3	207	Jr-Sq
KOR	CRAIG YEAST	5-9	166	Sr-3L
	Derek Homer	5-11	203	So-1L
PR	CRAIG YEAST	5-9	166	Sr-3L
SNAP	Jimmy Haley	6-3	228	Jr-2L

Sophomore Seth Hanson was the starting kicker for the final eight games last season. He made 30-of-31 extra points with the only miss coming on a blocked kick. He made 4-of-7 field goals with a long of 30 yards and was chosen for the Freshman All-SEC team. One of the most exciting plays of spring practice was his 56-yard field goal attempt that hit the right upright but bounced away, no good. Still, the kick showed Hanson's considerable range ... Marc Samuel handled most of the kickoffs last season and will contend with Hanson for that duty this year.

Jimmy Carter is back for his fourth season as the starting punter. He averaged a career-best 40.2 yards per punt last season, despite adopting the technique of kicking out of bounds or near the sidelines on most punts ... The Wildcats have a fine backup in junior Andy Smith, who was Western Kentucky's starting punter in 1995.

Wide receiver Craig Yeast has the speed and elusiveness necessary to be a top-notch kickoff returner. He has returned a kickoff for a touchdown in each of the last two seasons. He averaged 23 yards per return last season, including the 97-yarder for a TD at Vanderbilt ... Derek Homer gained some experience on kickoff returns last season with eight returns for a 12.4 average.

Yeast also is a danger on punt returns. He averaged 15.6 yards per return a year ago, including an 85-yard touchdown jaunt at South Carolina ... No one else on the team has returned a punt.

The long snapper's role is open following the graduation of reliable Darrin Clark. Tight end Jimmy Haley is the top candidate to assume that duty.

Coach Mumme ...

"I think Seth Hanson and Marc Samuel have both gotten stronger. I thought their kickoffs were better during the spring, deeper with more hang time. Seth, in particular, really improved his field goals. We'll probably use both of them like we did last year.

"We have Jimmy Carter back at punter and he averaged over 40 yards a punt. If you check the return stats, you'll see that's where he really helped us. We expect him to do the same this year. Andy Smith had a good spring as a backup. He might not get to punt much this year if Jimmy stays healthy, but he gives us a guy who can step in next year. He'll be a good punter for us.

"We felt we did a good job with punt and kickoff returns last year, so we'll stay with pretty much the same guys. What will help us is that a lot of the incoming freshmen are kick returners. We have some really talented guys coming in the fall. There are several who can bring them all the way back."

The play of Eric Kelly and the young cornerbacks will be crucial to the progress of the Wildcats' defense.

Wildcats Bulletin Board

"Mummeball"

Coach Hal Mumme is known for his unconventional ways. Here are some examples of his off-the-beaten path approach:

Throwing the football: Mumme's offensive goal is to throw the ball to set up the run. His run-pass ratio in 1997 was 36 percent run and 64 percent pass.

Taking risks: The Wildcats attempted 38 fourth down conversions and made 21, including three out of four on fake punts. Put another way, UK punted 39 times last year, but went for it on fourth down 38 times. The Cats also tried seven onside kicks, recovering one.

Limited hitting in practice: The Wildcats scrimmage four times during the spring and none in August. Hitting in practice is limited to work on technique; there is no full-scale hitting or tackling to the ground. Mumme's approach was rewarded with far fewer injuries for the Wildcats in 1997 than in previous seasons.

"We're not going to get anybody hurt if we can help it," Mumme says. "Why have a car wreck during the week when you're going to have one on Saturday?"

"Mummeball is more classroom than battlefield," wrote John Clay of the Lexington Herald-Leader. "The head coach is not a Schwarzkopf but an alchemist, busy turning ordinary metals into gold."

Open practices: All practices are open to fans and media. "I think the guys like crowds," Mumme says. "I know when I was playing that I liked to perform in front of crowds. I think it makes them practice better." As for the fear of having his plays stolen, Mumme replies, "There aren't many secrets anymore. Everybody pretty much knows what everybody is doing."

Punting the ball out of bounds: UK's punts are designed to go near the sideline or out of bounds. "Look at the guy on the other end of the field (returning the punt)," Mumme says of the strategy. "It's usually the best athlete on the team. In this league, that means his future is N-F-L. Now, the guy I'm sending to tackle him, his future is C-P-A. That's not a good matchup."

Playing true freshmen: Other than offensive linemen, Mumme believes in playing true freshmen. Twelve scholarship true freshmen played in 1997 and only five redshirted.

Junior varsity team: Mumme started a junior varsity team in 1997. The JV is comprised primarily of walk-ons, in addition to a few scholarship players who are not being redshirted. The JV team, headed by graduate assistant coach Chris Hatcher, posted a 2-3 record. "Having a JV team gives our walk-ons a chance to play games in our system and not just be on the scout team all year," Mumme says.

Commonwealth Stadium to be Expanded

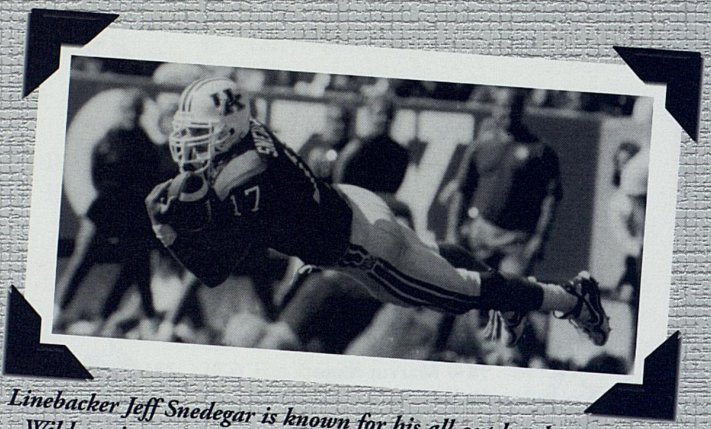
Another milestone for Kentucky football will occur soon as Commonwealth Stadium will be expanded following the 1998 season.

Plans for an expansion have been researched in recent years, and the excitement and record crowds generated in Hal Mumme's first season pushed the project to the front burner.

The plan calls for both ends of Commonwealth Stadium to be enclosed, along with the construction of 40 luxury boxes, 10 in each corner of the stadium. The total number of seats is expected to be about 68,000.

In preparation for the new construction, the south end zone bleachers will be dismantled prior to the 1998 campaign, but the addition of extra bleachers in the north end zone will help compensate for the loss. Capacity for the upcoming season will be 55,453.

The phenomenal response to last season's exciting Wildcats helped UK set a single-season record average attendance of 59,110.



Linebacker Jeff Snedegar is known for his all-out hustle. He led the Wildcats in tackles with 97 and nabbed a pair of interceptions.

1997 Highlights

Sparked by an offense that rewrote the UK and Southeastern Conference record books, Hal Mumme's first Wildcats football team generated numerous highlights:

- Kentucky won five games, most since 1993.
- UK started the season with a bang as the Wildcats reclaimed the Governor's Cup with a 38-24 win over intrastate rival Louisville. It was the 500th win in school history.
- Kentucky retained the Bourbon Barrel trophy by defeating Indiana 49-7. It was UK's third consecutive win over the Hoosiers.
- UK's 40-34 overtime win over No. 20-ranked Alabama was the first time since 1922 that the Wildcats had defeated the Crimson Tide. It was UK's first win over a ranked opponent since 1993 and the first win over a top-20 ranked foe since 1988. It also was the first overtime game in school history. After the win, the Wildcats' fans tore down both goalposts, the first time that had happened in Commonwealth Stadium.
- The Wildcats won all three non-conference games in 1997, UK's first non-conference sweep since 1989.
- Kentucky broke or tied 51 school records and 15 Southeastern Conference records.
- Kentucky set a home attendance record with an average of 59,110 fans per home game. Four of the top five single-game attendances in school history came last season.

Air Raid on the Scoreboard

Kentucky's "Air Raid" offense put up some impressive scoring numbers in the 1997 season. For instance:

- 1997 marked the first season since 1951 that Kentucky scored 40 or more points in three games. The Wildcats tallied 49 at Indiana, 40 vs. Alabama, and 49 vs. Northeast Louisiana.
- UK's 348 points during the season is the second-highest total in school history.
- 38 points vs. Louisville were the most UK scored in a season opener since 1987.
- 49 points at Indiana were the most for a Kentucky team since the Wildcats defeated Vanderbilt, 53-2, in 1978. It was the most the Wildcats had scored in an away game since thumping Centre College, 53-0, in 1927. It also marked the most points Kentucky had scored against Indiana in the history of the 28-game series.
- 40 points vs. Alabama were the most the Wildcats had scored against the Crimson Tide in the history of the 34-game series.
- 49 points vs. Northeast Louisiana set a school record for most points in a Homecoming game.
- 31 points vs. Tennessee was UK's second-highest total in the history of the 93-game series.

Cats in the Stats

Kentucky's "Air Raid" offense made a national impact in its first season.

The Wildcats were second in the nation in passing offense in 1997 at 365.4 yards per game. UK was sixth nationally in total offense with 474 yards per contest and the Cats were 26th in scoring with 31.6 points per game.

Individually, quarterback Tim Couch led the nation in passing yardage (3,884) and completion percentage (66.4 percent) and was second in touchdown passes (37) and total offense (341.7 yards per game). Wide receiver Craig Yeast tied for ninth nationally in receptions with 6.6 per game.

On the Southeastern Conference level, UK led the league in passing offense and first downs and was second in total offense. Couch led the SEC in passing yardage, completion percentage, touchdown passes, and total offense. Yeast led the league in receptions per game and was second in touchdown catches (10).

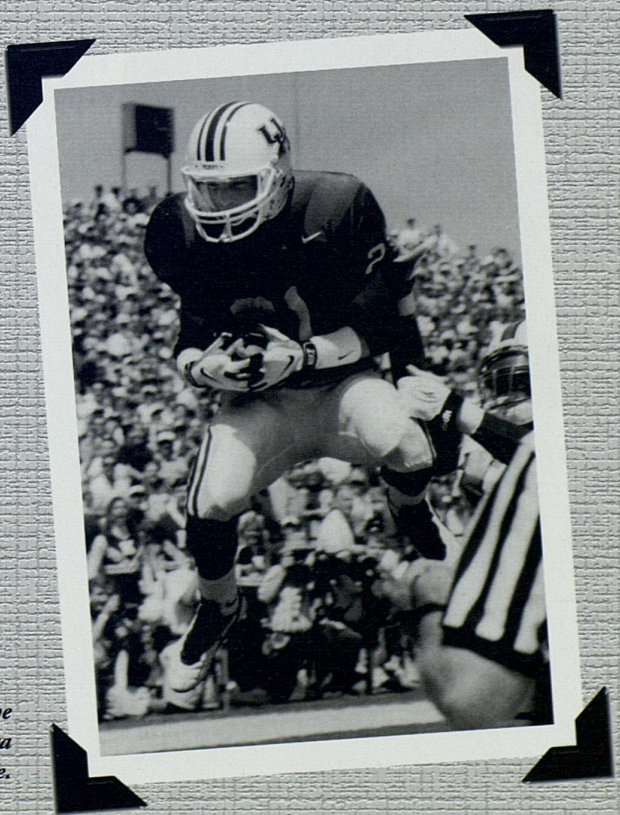
It was also a record-breaking season as UK tied or broke 51 school records and 15 conference marks. Couch tied or broke 10 SEC marks, eclipsing such luminaries as Danny Wuerffel, Eric Zeier, John Reaves, and Steve Taneyhill.

Checking the Schedule

Here is Kentucky's 1998 schedule, including the opponents' 1997 overall records, conference records, and postseason results:

Sept. 5	at Louisville, 1-10, 0-6
Sept. 12	Eastern Kentucky, 8-4, 7-0, lost in first round of I-AA playoffs
Sept. 19	Indiana, 2-9, 1-7
Sept. 26	at Florida, 10-2, 6-2, won the Citrus Bowl
Oct. 3	at Arkansas, 4-7, 2-6
Oct. 10	South Carolina, 5-6, 3-5
Oct. 17	at Louisiana State, 9-3, 6-2, won the Independence Bowl
Oct. 24	Georgia, 10-2, 6-2, won the Outback Bowl
Oct. 31	open
Nov. 7	Mississippi State, 7-4, 4-4
Nov. 14	Vanderbilt, 3-8, 0-8
Nov. 21	at Tennessee, 11-2, 7-1, lost the Orange Bowl

Schedule notes: Kentucky plays at Louisville for the first time since 1915 ... Despite the schools' proximity, less than 25 miles from each other, this will be the first meeting between UK and Eastern Kentucky. If UK wins, the Wildcats will be able to count the victory toward the minimum of six wins necessary to advance to a bowl game. A new NCAA rule allows Division I-A teams to count a game against a I-AA school once every four years ... UK and Arkansas will be playing each other for the first time ... Six Wildcats opponents won seven or more games in 1997.



Wide receiver Lance Mickelsen caught the first touchdown pass of the Hal Mumme era with this TD grab against Louisville.

Kentucky Football History

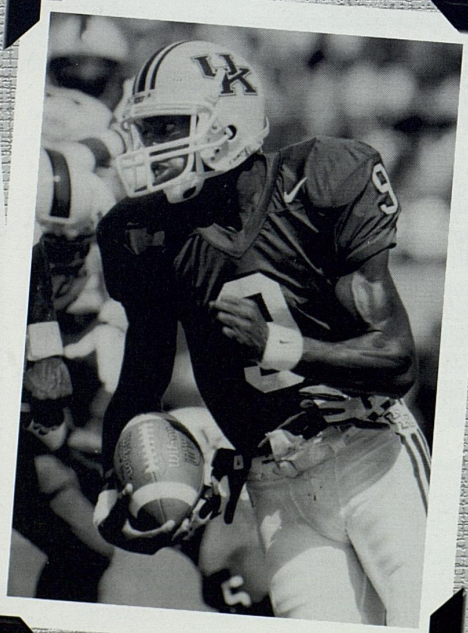
The University of Kentucky was the first Southeastern Conference school to introduce football (1881). After a nine-year lull from 1882-1890, the school resumed the sport and has fielded a team since 1891, with the exception of the 1943 war year. UK has completed 107 seasons and has an all-time record of 504 wins, 477 losses, and 44 ties for a winning percentage of .513.

Kentucky is a charter member of the Southeastern Conference, beginning in the 1933 football season, and won SEC championships in 1950 and 1976. The Wildcats have played in eight bowl games, the last in 1993, and won five.

Check This Out !!!

- Hal Mumme was selected the 1997 GTE Region 2 Coach of the Year by his peers in the American Football Coaches Association.
- Kentucky has the best bowl-game winning percentage - .625 - of any Southeastern Conference school.
- Six Kentucky games were selected for national or regional television last year, a school record.
- UK has led or tied for the league lead with most players on the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 10 of the last 14 years. UK set a league record in 1996 when 20 players earned a place on the honor roll.
- UK cheerleaders won an unprecedented eighth national championship - their third in a row - at the 1998 competition hosted by the Universal Cheerleaders Association.
- Coach Hal Mumme believes in the value of walk-on players. Going into his second season as head coach of the Wildcats, Mumme has awarded full scholarships to 11 walk-ons, including two of the 1997 seniors and nine players on the 1998 roster.
- UK plays three games in which trophies are awarded to the winning teams. UK plays Louisville for the Governor's Cup, Indiana for the Bourbon Barrel, and Tennessee for the Beer Barrel.
- There is excellent continuity on the UK coaching staff. All nine of the Wildcats' full-time assistant coaches return for the 1998 season.
- There are two changes of assignment on the UK coaching staff. Tom Adams, who coached the defensive ends last season, takes charge of the entire defensive line in 1998. Mike Fanoga, who handled the defensive tackles last season, moves over to offense for 1998. Fanoga will coach the tight ends and assist Guy Morriss with the offensive line.

The UK cheerleaders won an unprecedented eighth national championship - their third in a row - at the 1998 competition hosted by the Universal Cheerleaders Association.



Jimmy Robinson was one of seven Wildcats who caught 31 or more passes a year ago. Six of those players return for 1998.

The Coaches

Head Coach

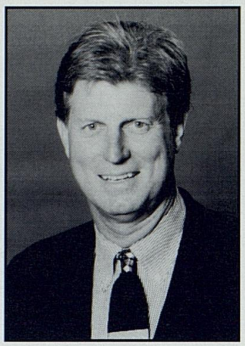
Hal Mumme

Watching one of Hal Mumme's football teams is like watching an Indiana Jones adventure movie - you don't know what's going to happen next, but you know it's going to be exciting.

In his first season at Kentucky, Mumme's mix of winning football, passing wizardry, fourth-down gambles, fake punts, and onside kicks produced an unprecedented level of football enthusiasm in the Bluegrass.

Mumme's trademark passing offense rewrote the record books. The Wildcats erased 51 school records in 1997 and set 15 Southeastern Conference records. Quarterback Tim Couch led the nation in passing yardage with 3,884 and was second in touchdown passes (37) and total offense (341.7 yards per game).

Fourth down is no longer a time to go to the concession stand at Commonwealth Stadium. The Wildcats attempted almost as many fourth-down conversions (38) as they did punts (39) during the season. The Wildcats converted 21 of those fourth-down tries, including three out of four on fake punts. And, once the Wildcats scored, it was no time to relax. Kentucky attempted seven onside kicks during the season.



Mumme's brand of football excitement was foretold when he was introduced as the Kentucky coach on Dec. 2, 1996. UK Athletics Director C. M. Newton - a former basketball coach - described his hire in hoops terms.

"I told Hal that what we're looking for here is someone who will press, fast break, and shoot the threes on grass ... I also gave Hal the challenge of putting the fun back into Kentucky football," Newton said.

It took Mumme only one quarter to fulfill his boss's directive.

In the season opener against archrival Louisville, the Wildcats stunned the Cardinals with a 21-0 blitzkrieg in the opening period. Soon, the Governor's Cup trophy returned to Lexington via a 38-24 Wildcats victory.

Two weeks later, the Wildcats traveled to Bloomington, Ind., to meet border rival Indiana. Kentucky thrashed the home team 49-0 in the first three quarters before posting a 49-7 victory.

Mumme's first Southeastern Conference triumph was one for the ages. Kentucky defeated Alabama for the first time in 75 years with a 40-34 overtime win. After the victory, the Commonwealth Stadium fans stormed the field and tore down the goalposts, the first time in stadium history that the Wildcats supporters had been so frenzied.

Indeed, the fans were an integral part of the story of Mumme's first season. The 1997 season saw UK set a record for attendance and four of the top five crowds in school history came during Mumme's inaugural campaign.

Along the way, Kentucky also posted a Homecoming win over Northeast Louisiana and an SEC road triumph at Vanderbilt. By season's end, Kentucky had won five games, second most this decade for the Wildcats. Since 1938, only two Wildcats coaches - legendary Paul "Bear" Bryant and eventual NFL head coach Blanton Collier - have posted a better first-year record than Mumme.

Mumme's achievements were rewarded when his peers in the American Football Coaches Association elected him the GTE Region 2 Coach of the Year. Having won the same award in 1996, Mumme became one of only five coaches to win the regional coach of the year award in consecutive years at different schools.

Mumme came to UK from Valdosta (Ga.) State University, where he was head coach from 1992-96. He guided the Blazers to five consecutive winning seasons and compiled a record of 40-17-1. He took the Blazers to the NCAA Division II playoffs in 1994 and 1996 and advanced to the quarterfinals (final eight) each time.

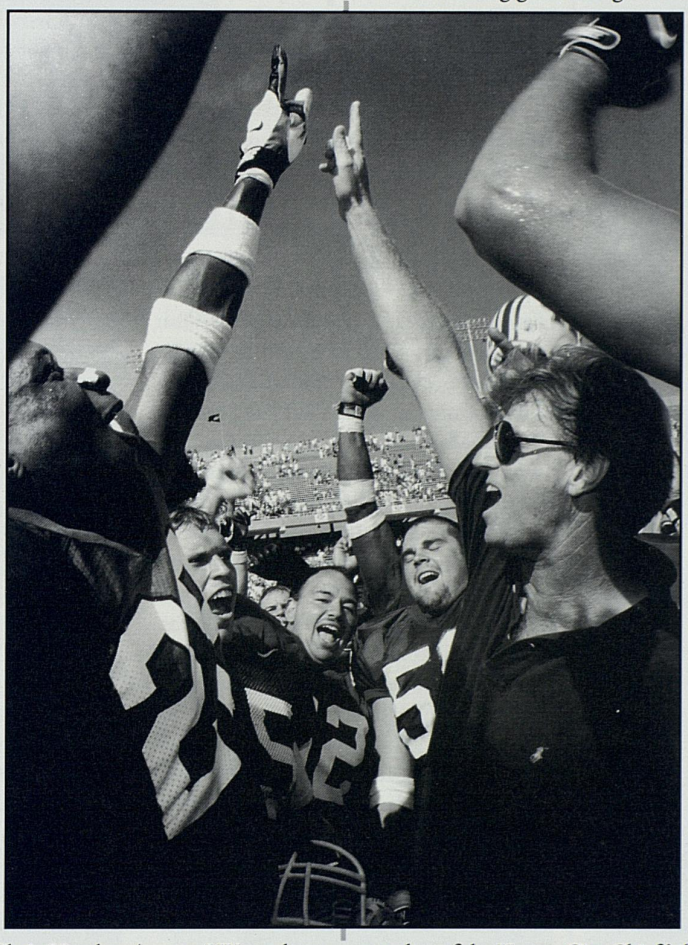
Mumme's teams achieved numerous milestones during his years at VSU. Five consecutive winning seasons is the longest streak in school history. The Blazers were ranked in the national top 20 consistently, including a No. 1 ranking at one point in the 1996 season. VSU finished second or higher in the Gulf South Conference in four of the five seasons, including the school's first conference championship in 1996. The '94 and '96 playoff appearances are the only ones in school history. Twenty-six Blazers were named first-team all-conference under Mumme.

In 1992, Mumme's first squad at Valdosta State went 5-4-1. The 1993 season saw the Blazers go 8-3, the second-highest single-season win total in school history. In that season, VSU broke 66 school records, 22 conference records, and seven national marks.



The 1994 season was a breakthrough campaign for Mumme. His team set a school record for wins with an 11-2 mark. During the regular season, VSU posted a 31-14 upset of Central Florida, Sports Illustrated's pre-season national champion in Division I-AA. It was VSU's first victory over a Division I-AA team. The Blazers' first national playoff entry began with a victory over Albany State before losing in the quarterfinals in overtime, 27-24, to eventual champion North Alabama. VSU was ranked sixth in the nation in the final poll, the first top 10 final ranking in school history. Along the way, VSU broke 80 school records, 35 conference records, and seven national marks. Quarterback Chris Hatcher (now a UK graduate assistant coach) was the Gulf South Conference Player of the Year and won the Harlon Hill Award as the Player of the Year in Division II. Mumme was chosen Georgia Coach of the Year by the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame.

Despite the loss of 20 starters, and a schedule that included four top-20 teams away from home and a Div. I-A team on the road, Mumme was able to put together a 6-5 record in 1995. The Blazers returned to national prominence in 1996 with a 10-3 record, including a playoff victory. Valdosta State won its first conference championship and Mumme was named Conference Coach of the Year. Mumme was honored by his peers as in the American Football Coaches Association as the Region 2 Coach of the Year.

Throwing the football has been Mumme's trademark. From 1991-94, Hatcher completed 1,047 of 1,529 passes (68.5 percent) for 11,363 yards and 121 touchdowns. Hatcher continues to hold several national records for passing and total offense. Hatcher's successor, Lance Funderburk, threw for 7,932 yards and 64 touchdowns in his last two seasons. Funderburk was runner-up for the 1996 Harlon Hill Award and played in the East-West Shrine Game — only the fourth Division II player ever to be selected for that all-star contest. Funderburk also played in the Kelly Tires Blue-Gray Classic.

The running game also got its share of attention under Mumme. From 1992-94, running back Dominique Ross rushed for 3,237 yards and 36 touchdowns. Ross also set a Gulf South Conference record with 256 rushing attempts. In 1996, Vontrell Mitchell rushed for 1,355 yards.

During his tenure at VSU, Mumme's defenses were known as bold, combative units. Mumme's 1994 team allowed a school-record low of 162 points, despite playing more games than any season in school history. Andre Hampton set a school career record with 36 sacks. Antonio Edwards notched 34 sacks as a Blazer and was named Gulf South Conference Player of the Year in 1992.

Edwards, who became a starting defensive end for the Seattle Seahawks, is an indication of Mumme's success in player development at Valdosta. Ross has been a member of the Dallas Cowboys' developmental squad, and wide receiver Robert Williams has been a member of the Kansas City Chiefs' developmental squad. Seven players from Mumme's 1994 team signed contracts with National Football League or Canadian Football League teams.

Mumme arrived at Valdosta from Iowa Wesleyan College, where he orchestrated a complete turnaround in the NAIA school's football fortunes from 1989-91. Mumme inherited only three returning players from the '88 group that had posted an 0-10 record. The immediate reversal began with a 7-4 record in 1989. In 1990, Iowa Wesleyan went 7-5, followed by a 10-2 mark in 1991.

All three of Mumme's IWC teams made a postseason appearance. The 1989 team played in the inaugural Steamboat Classic. In 1990, the Tigers played once again in the Steamboat Bowl, and posted a victory. The 1991 team made the first national playoff appearance in school history and lost in the quarterfinals.

With the help of star quarterback Dustin Dewald, Mumme's 1990 team led the NAIA in passing offense and the 1989 and 1991 teams finished second nationally in passing. Dewald and Valdosta's Chris Hatcher are two of only eight quarterbacks in collegiate history who have thrown more than 100 touchdown passes in their careers.

In three years, Mumme's Iowa Wesleyan teams posted a 25-10 record. He was named NAIA District Coach of the Year following the 1989 and 1991 seasons. Mumme now has a career mark of 70-33-1 in nine seasons as a collegiate head coach.

Born March 29, 1952, in San Antonio, Texas, Hal Clay Mumme graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School in Dallas. He was a wide receiver at New Mexico Military Institute for two seasons, then played at Tarleton State, a Division II school in Stephenville, Texas. He graduated from Tarleton in 1975 with a degree in history. Mumme's debut as a coach came at Moody High School in Corpus Christi, Texas, from 1976-78. He was head coach at Aransas Pass (Texas) HS in 1979.

Mumme entered the collegiate ranks as the quarterbacks and receivers coach at West Texas State in 1980-81. He was the offensive coordinator at Texas-El Paso from 1982-85. While at UTEP, he developed a relationship with Brigham Young head coach LaVell Edwards, who had a profound impact on Mumme's offensive philosophy.

After leaving UTEP, Mumme became head coach and athletics director at Copperas Cove (Texas) HS. He coached at Copperas Cove from 1986-88 before moving to Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, for the head coaching position at Iowa Wesleyan.

Mumme is married to the former June Leishman and they have three children: Matt, Karen, and Leslie.

Quarterback Success Under Hal Mumme

Coach Hal Mumme has had notable success in the development of quarterbacks. Here are some of Mumme's quarterbacks and their achievements:

Victor Magee, West Texas, 1981—Newcomer of the Year in the Missouri Valley Conference; played professionally in the Canadian Football League.

Sammy Garza, Texas-El Paso, 1983-85—Set school record for completion percentage; enjoyed an 11-year career in the National Football League and the Canadian Football League.

Dustin Dewald, Copperas Cove High School, 1986, and Iowa Wesleyan College, 1989-91— Played for Mumme in high school, then earned NAIA All-America honors under Mumme at Iowa Wesleyan.

James Ritchey, Copperas Cove High School, 1988—Ritchey was a center until Mumme converted him to quarterback; Ritchey went on to Stephen F. Austin University and was a rookie with the Houston Oilers in 1996.

Chris Hatcher, Valdosta State, 1992-94—A two-year All-American, he won the Harlon Hill Award as the national player of the year in NCAA Division II.

Lance Funderburk, Valdosta State, 1995-96—Earned All-America honors and was runner-up for the Harlon Hill Award; now plays with Montreal in the CFL.

Tim Couch, Kentucky, 1997 - In his first season as the starting quarterback, Couch led the nation in four passing categories and broke or tied 17 school records and 10 Southeastern Conference records.

Quoting Hal Mumme

A Conversation with the Kentucky Coach

How do you evaluate your first season at Kentucky?

"We're pretty disappointed we didn't win a couple more games. Defensively, we did about as good as we could do; we played well enough to win seven games. Offensively, I thought we played well enough to win five games. Considering there was a lot of on-the-job training, and the fact that we had only 27 or 28 defensive players on scholarship, it was okay. I thought the seniors gave good effort and we did turn a couple of corners, but we still have a long way to go."

What were the positives from the first season?

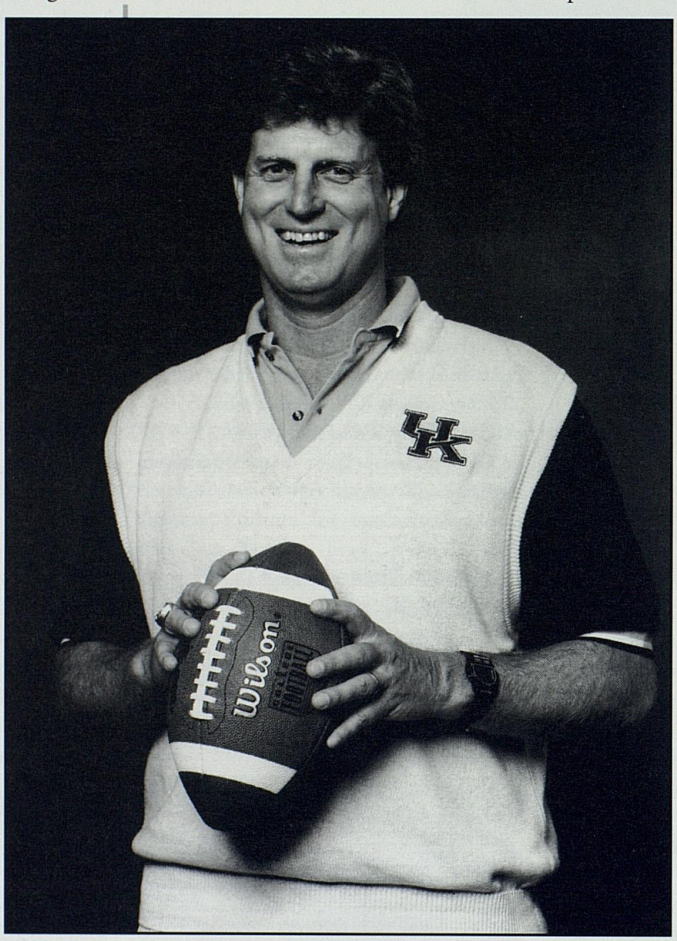
"We got our system implemented offensively. We got our system in defensively, too, but we had a lot of players who were seniors, so we're basically starting over with that. We did get some experience for some of the young guys. I think the high points were that we seasoned a few players on defense, we seasoned a lot of guys on offense, and I think our special teams came a long way."

What enabled the immediate offensive success?

"I think the most visible reason is Tim Couch, but I think there were a lot of less obvious ones, too. Coach (Guy) Morriss did a tremendous job putting together a line that could play and Coach (Mike) Leach did a great job with the receivers. We really didn't have a proven back going into the season. Anthony White gave a courageous effort and had a good year and Coach (Tony) Franklin really did a nice job bringing along Derek Homer."

What else did you accomplish defensively?

"I think the players understand our system and understand the attitude we want. I wish we could have stayed healthy over there. If Jeff Snedegar hadn't gotten hurt, it could have made a difference in a couple of games. For the most part, the teaching was there and the attitude was there. We just have to go out and recruit for a couple of years and bring in some more guys who can play. I think we were aggressive enough and the recruits that saw us on film liked it."



Was the move from Division II to Division I-A what you thought it would be?

"I found it easier to coach at this level, not harder. We have so many great support people around us that it just allows you to coach. The everyday things, such as video and equipment, are so much better that it makes your life so much easier.

"There's always the question about pressure at this level, but there's just as much pressure at the other level. If you're a coach or a player, there's always enough self-inflicted pressure that anything from the outside that's added by the media or fans is just overkill anyway. That part was pretty much what I expected."

You often speak about the chemistry of the staff. How did that develop?

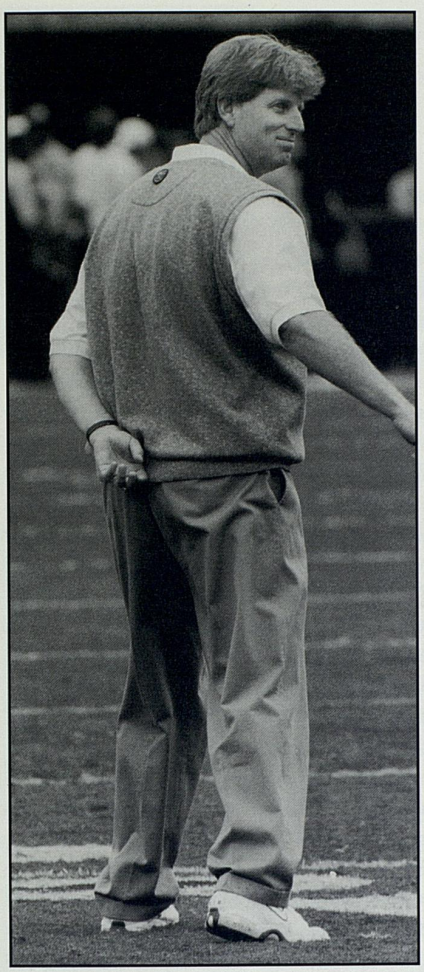
"It's one of the best years we've ever had. I think our staff really did a great job adjusting to all the situations we had. In the heat of battle, when we had to make adjustments, we made them. It's a tremendous plus that we've stayed intact."

Tell us about your fourth-down philosophy - last season you punted 39 times and went for it on fourth down 38 times.

"If I'd known that at the end, I would have gone for it one more time (laughing). We've always had the attitude we can attack and I think we had a pretty good success ratio on it. It'll always be something the fans can look for. When we cross the 50-yard line, there's a good chance we're going for it."

How did you develop that philosophy?

"It's kind of evolved from running this attack. We've always had the idea that we were going to keep attacking. It's different each game depending on who we're playing. We go into each game with a plan.



The harder the opponent, probably the more times we're going to do it. Sometimes we feel we need four chances to make it, but we're going to make it. It's just a philosophy. I don't think you can preach 'attack' all the time with the kids and then as a coach go out there and not do it."

Talk about the progress of the junior varsity program.

"We got the team implemented and got the word out on it. Hopefully, we'll get more people involved this year. We're doing it for two reasons - number one, it gives our walk-ons a chance to play in our system and show what they can do without having to play on the scout team all year. The second thing it does is give some of those down-the-line guys, those third-teamers, some seasoning so they can play for you at the end of the year. I think we really accomplished some things right there. I'd like to see us have a few more people involved with it this year."

The fan response was amazing last season with the record crowds at Commonwealth Stadium, naming a street after you, the popularity of the Hal Mumme masks, and so on. How did that make you feel?

"It makes you want to win for 'em. C. M. Newton told me about them when we were going through the hiring process. They're great people and have always followed the team. We're going to try to get better at it for them."

Why do you open your practices to media and fans?

"I think that players like crowds. I know when I was playing I liked to perform in front of crowds. It makes you practice better."

What is your philosophy on coaching your players?

"We endeavor to teach honest effort, communication, and loyalty to our team. If a young person comes to this university, gets a degree, and learns traits of honest effort in everything they do on and off the field, learns how to communicate with people around them, and learns to be loyal to a great cause - in this case, Wildcats football - then we've taught them things they can carry into their lives and chosen occupations.

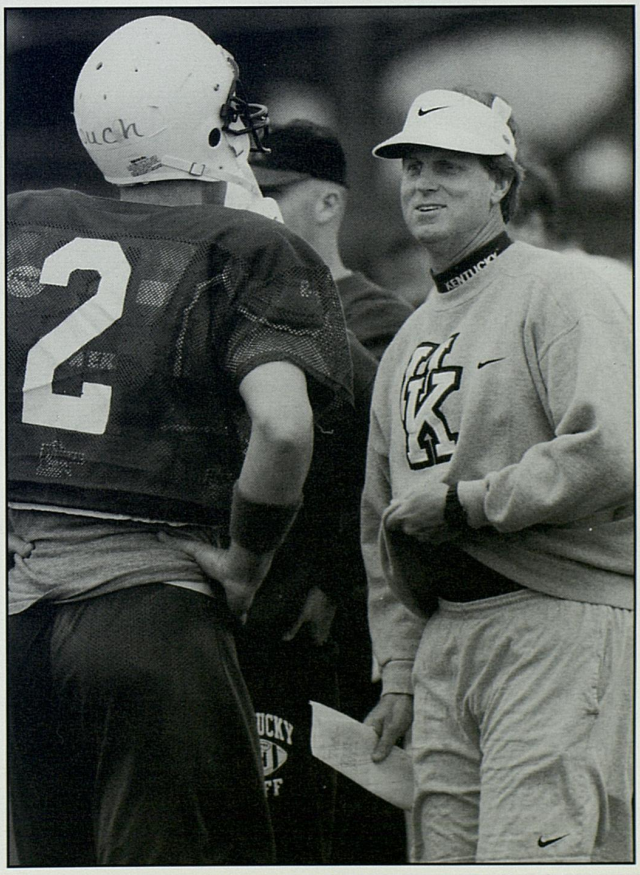
"To me, every team is like a piece of artwork. It's like a canvas and I get to be the artist and put all these things on there. I want to leave all these great memories for the kids, so they can come back 20 years from now, look on the wall, and say, 'Wasn't that a great team - that team was a work of art.' That's the way I think of it."

You have emphasized your staff's relationship with high school coaches. How have you progressed with that?

"Coach (Claude) Bassett and the other coaches have worked very hard to begin developing relationships with the high school coaches. I think their efforts are paying off already. We had more than 300 coaches at our spring coaching clinic, which was a record for UK. We had 30 or 40 staffs visit us during the spring. We had more than twice as many players at our summer camps this year than last year. I believe the high school coaches feel comfortable with us and they feel welcome when they visit."

You have stated that your goal for the Kentucky football program is to win the Southeastern Conference. Now that you have a year's experience at UK, what needs to be done to reach that objective?

"Winning the Southeastern Conference is always our number one goal. We have to keep recruiting well and keep taking care of our grades. Those are the two biggest things that need to be done."



Assistant Coaches

Tom Adams

Defensive Line

Tom Adams III has expanded responsibilities in his second season at Kentucky as he takes over the Wildcats' defensive line.

Adams coached the defensive ends in 1997. With Adams' guidance, Bamidele Ali ranked third in the Southeastern Conference in quarterback sacks with seven, even though Ali was in his first season as a defensive lineman. Reserve end Robert Jones became a force as the season progressed and notched six sacks. All totaled, Wildcats ends accounted for 17 of UK's 21 sacks.

Adams faces several challenges in 1998. He doubles his duties by taking over the tackles, but he has the good fortune of inheriting four veteran performers, including returning starters Mark Jacobs and Marvin Major. At the ends, however, Robert Jones is the only player with significant game experience.

"Tom is a very smart coach and is well-versed in our style of pressure defensive play," Coach Hal Mumme said. "I've known him since 1985 when he was at Sam Houston State and we have stayed in contact over the years. We have always talked about coaching together."

Adams came to UK from Southern Methodist University. While at SMU, Adams coached the defensive line for three years and the defensive tackles one year, including 1993 All-Southwest Conference performers Chad Patton and Adam Voyles.

From 1985-92, Adams guided the defensive line at Sam Houston State. In his final season at SHSU, Adams' defensive line helped set a single-season school record with 47 quarterback sacks. In 1991, Sam Houston State won the Southland Conference and made the NCAA I-AA playoffs. Adams coached seven all-conference players and one All-American at Sam Houston State.

Adams got his first full-time coaching position at Wharton County (Texas) Junior College, where he led the offensive and defensive lines from 1982-85.

Adams played his college football at Rice. He won the team's Most Valuable Defensive Lineman Award in 1979 and 1980 and was the team captain during his senior season. He spent the 1981 season as a student assistant coach with the Owls' defensive line. He completed his bachelor's degree, with a double major in psychology and physical education, in 1982.

Adams and his wife, Rita, have three children - son Branch (15), and daughters Brandi (5) and Beth (3).

1998-	Kentucky	Assistant (Defensive Line)

Mike Fanoga

Assistant Offensive Line, Tight Ends

Mike Fanoga takes a new turn in his coaching career this season, his second year at Kentucky, as he moves from defense to offense.

In his new duties, Fanoga will coach the Wildcats tight ends and help Guy Morriss coach the offensive line. As tight ends coach, Fanoga will work with talented junior Jimmy Haley and will develop three other players who have moved from other positions to tight end. Fanoga also will work with an offensive line that could feature five senior starters.

Fanoga coached the defensive line from 1994-96 under Hal Mumme at Valdosta State, helping the Blazers advance to the NCAA Division II playoffs in '94 and '96. Fanoga helped coach the 1994 VSU defense that allowed the fewest points (162) in school history. He also served as the team's recruiting coordinator in 1994-95.

Under Fanoga's guidance at VSU, defensive end Andre Hampton finished his career in 1994 with a school-record 36 quarterback sacks. Hampton was named All-Gulf South Conference. In 1996, Fanoga coached another first-team all-conference player, defensive tackle Artie Ulmer, who was selected in the 1997 NFL draft by the Minnesota Vikings.

Fanoga coached the defensive line at Iowa Wesleyan from 1990-93, including the 1990-91 seasons under Coach Hal Mumme. IWC went to the NAIA national playoffs for the first time during the 1991 season.

Before IWC, he coached at Livingston (Ala.) University in 1989.

Fanoga earned his bachelor's degree (1987) and master's degree (1988) at Texas El-Paso, where he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant in 1987-88. He also played defensive end and linebacker for the Miners and was a letterman in the 1985-86 seasons. He played two years at Snow College before transferring to UTEP.

"Mike is a tireless worker," Mumme said. "He's loyal, dependable, and a good role model for the players. He's very enthusiastic about his coaching."

Mike and his wife, Soana, have a two-year-old daughter, Sydney.

Tony Franklin

Running Backs

Tony Franklin should have another productive season in 1998, his second as running backs coach at the University of Kentucky.

Franklin enjoyed immediate success last season with Anthony White and Derek Homer, both of whom were unproven on the collegiate level. White caught 59 passes, more than any running back in school history, and totaled 1,176 rushing and receiving yards. Homer rushed for 502 yards and was named to the Freshman All-Southeastern Conference team by the Knoxville News-Sentinel. Altogether, White and Homer accounted for 2,042 rushing and receiving yards.

Franklin expects excellent production again, as White and Homer return for the '98 season. Franklin also helped develop A. J. Simon into a dependable role player and will add some talented incoming freshmen to the nucleus already in place.

Prior to UK, Franklin spent 15 of the previous 18 years as a head coach or assistant at six high schools within Kentucky. Franklin has been head coach at Mercer County HS (1996), Calloway County HS (1989-91), and Murray HS (1983-85). Franklin's stops as an assistant include Mayfield HS (1993-95), Calloway County HS (1988), Daviess County HS (1981-82), Owensboro Catholic HS (1980), and Murray HS (1979).

"I've known Tony since 1989 and have recruited his schools since then," Coach Hal Mumme said. "He is very knowledgeable in the passing game. I tried to get him to join us at Iowa Wesleyan and Valdosta State, but he never wanted to leave Kentucky."

As a head coach, Franklin led Mercer County to the 1996 playoffs. At Calloway County, he coached quarterback Pookie Jones, the state's 1989 "Mr. Football." Jones signed with Kentucky and became the Wildcats' starting quarterback. Franklin made significant improvements in the program during his time at Murray and was nominated by his coaching peers for the Kentucky Coach of the Year Award. Franklin's teams set records for passing at all three schools where he was head coach.

Another highlight of his high school coaching career came at Mayfield, where he was an assistant coach for the 1993 and 1995 state championship teams. Franklin also was nominated for the Ashland Oil Teacher of the Year Award while at Mayfield.

In 1986-87, he was president of Scouting Report of Texas, Inc., a company which helped more than 200 high school seniors obtain college scholarships. Franklin built the No. 2 organization among 38 nationwide franchises.

Franklin, a native Kentuckian, was an all-state running back/linebacker at Caldwell County HS.

He signed at Murray State and was the team's leading rusher as a freshman in 1976. He played two years at MSU before injuries ended his career. Franklin graduated from Murray with a degree in history and political science and obtained a master's from MSU in education and history.

Tony and his wife, Laura, have three daughters Chelsea (13), Caroline (10), and Caitlin (9).

Tim Keane

Cornerbacks

Tim Keane celebrates his 25th season in collegiate coaching in this, his second year as cornerbacks coach of the Wildcats.

With the departure of both starting cornerbacks from last season, Keane must develop young talent into competitive players. He made tremendous progress during spring practice as sophomores Eric Kelly and Jeremy Bowie played very well during the spring drills. Keane also oversaw the transition of former offensive players Marvin Love and Kenneth Grant into cornerbacks. In the fall, he will add several incoming freshmen.

"Tim has a tremendous knowledge of our brand of the 4-3 defense," Coach Hal Mumme said. "I've known Tim for a long time. He's a natural fit for our staff."

Keane came to UK from Louisiana Tech, where he coached defensive backs from 1995-97. Keane helped develop All-America cornerback Willie Smith, who led the nation in interceptions in 1995 and also was a two-year All-Big West selection.

As a team, Tech improved from 3-8 to 5-6 to 6-5 during Keane's three campaigns.

Prior to his stint at Tech, Keane coached the secondary at Tennessee from 1990-92. Tennessee posted a 27-8-2 record during that time, won the 1990 SEC championship, and played in the Sugar, Fiesta, and Hall of Fame Bowls.

Safety Dale Carter was consensus All-American in 1991 and a two-year All-SEC choice. Cornerback Jeremy Lincoln was a first-team All-SEC pick in 1991. Both Lincoln and Carter are playing in the National Football League. Keane also helped develop safety Jason Parker, who was named to the Freshman All-SEC team in 1992.

For 18 seasons prior to coaching at Tennessee, Keane coached at his alma mater, Arkansas State. He began as receivers and quarterbacks coach in 1972 and moved to the secondary in 1974. He was defensive coordinator from 1981-89.

Under Keane's guidance as the coordinator, Arkansas State led Division I-AA in total defense in 1985. His 1988 unit led Division I-AA in turnover ratio. Arkansas State advanced to the I-AA playoffs from 1984-87 and finished as the national runner-up in 1986. Six of his Arkansas State defensive backs went on to play in the National Football League.

Keane was a three-year letterman at quarterback for ASU from 1965-67.

Following his graduation in 1968, Keane began his coaching career at the junior high level. He was an assistant football coach at North Little Rock (Ark.) High School in 1970-71 before returning to Arkansas State. He earned a master's at ASU in 1973.

Keane has a 14-year-old daughter, Ashley.

Mike Leach

Offensive Coordinator, Receivers

Mike Leach, who helped light the fuse on Kentucky's offensive explosion in 1997, serves as UK's offensive coordinator and receivers coach.

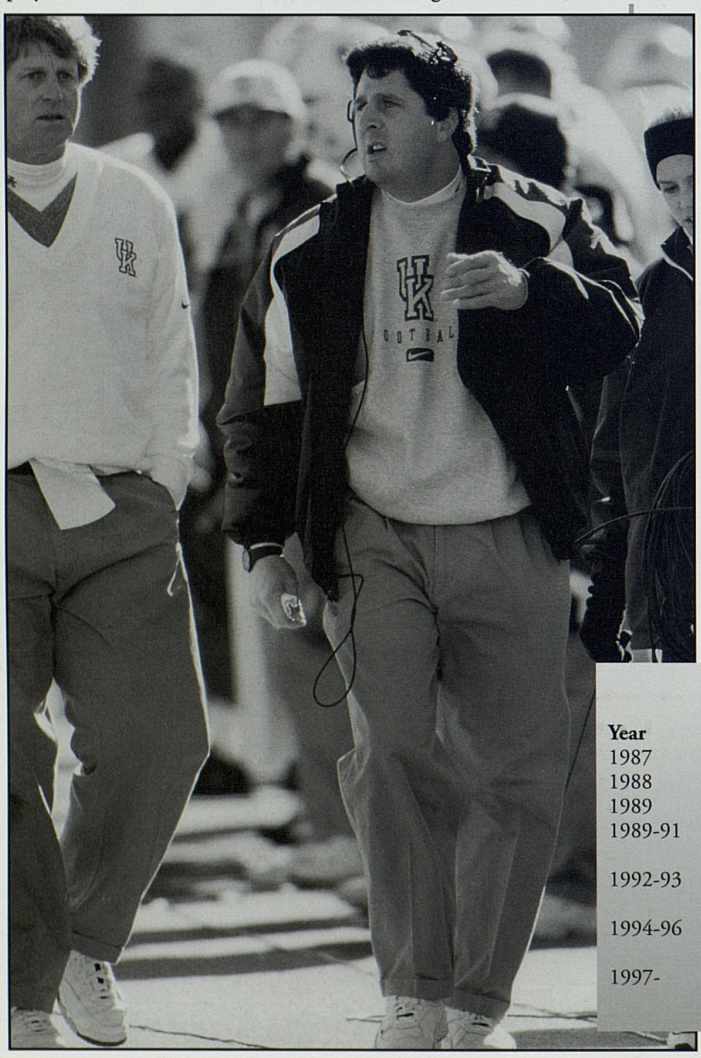
With the return of nine offensive starters, the Wildcats offense could be a high-power outfit once again. And, Leach has five proven veteran wide receivers available, along with some up-and-coming returnees and promising true freshmen.

As offensive coordinator at Valdosta State, Leach helped Coach Hal Mumme guide the Blazers to a 40-17-1 record from 1992-96. The 1993 VSU offense broke 66 school records, 22 conference records, and seven national marks. VSU advanced to the national playoffs in 1994, with Leach's offense breaking 80 school records, 35 conference marks, and seven national standards. VSU returned to the NCAA Division II playoffs again in 1996.

In 1996, Leach was given the Division II Offensive Coordinator of the Year award by American Football Quarterly magazine. Leach and his coaching drills have been profiled in AFQ magazine and he is on the faculty of AFQ University, a continuing education program for collegiate coaches. The innovative Leach also has produced his own coaching video that teaches drills and training for all aspects of the Wildcats' passing game.

In addition to team and personal success, Leach also mentored successful players at VSU. Quarterback Chris Hatcher won the 1994 Harlon Hill Award as the player of the year in Division II and QB Lance Funderburk was the Harlon Hill runner-up in 1996. Seventeen of his offensive players earned first-team All-Gulf South Conference honors.

Leach first coached with Mumme at Iowa Wesleyan College from 1989-91. Leach was offensive coordinator and line coach at IWC, which led the NAIA in passing yardage in 1990 and finished second the other two seasons. The IWC offense passed for more than 11,000 yards in those three seasons and broke 26 national records. Winless the year before Mumme and Leach arrived, IWC battled its way into the NAIA national playoffs in 1991. IWC quarterback Dustin Dewald and VSU's Hatcher are two of only eight quarterbacks in collegiate history to pass for more than 100 touchdowns.



Leach also gained experience as head coach of the Pori, Finland, team in the European Football League (spring 1989), as an assistant coach at College of the Desert (1988) and at Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo (1987).

Leach graduated from Brigham Young University with honors in 1983 and earned a master's degree from the United States Sports Academy.

He also earned a law degree and graduated in the top one-third of his class at the Pepperdine University School of Law.

"The great thing about Mike is that he can coach any position on offense," Mumme said. "He's extremely bright as evidenced by his achievements in law school. He is invaluable at helping organize the practice schedule and our yearly routine for coaching offense.

"He's a tireless recruiter and a lot of fun for our players."

Mike and his wife, Sharon, have three children - daughters Janeen (13) and Kim (8), and son Cody (2).

Mike Major

Defensive Coordinator, Linebackers

Mike Major enters his second season as defensive coordinator at Kentucky.

For the second consecutive year, Major will deal with significant inexperience on his defensive unit. Just five starters return from last season and UK finished spring practice with only 19 scholarship players on defense. The numbers will get better in August with the influx of a defensive-dominated freshman class.

The play of Major's stop troops in 1997 drew praise from Coach Hal Mumme.

"Our defense gave us a chance to win as many as seven games," Mumme said. "Considering there was a lot of on-the-job training, and given the number of players we had available, we did about as well as we could do."

The play of Major's group of linebackers should improve. Jeff Snedegar and Lee Wesley enter their second season as starters and one of the real finds of spring practice was the play of Marlon McCree at outside linebacker.

Major came with Mumme from Valdosta State, where he was the defensive coordinator from 1991-96.

As a position coach, Major guided the linebackers four years and the defensive backs during the 1993 season. The Blazers had a 40-17-1 record during those five years and advanced to the NCAA Division II playoffs in 1994 and 1996.

Major's defense set a school record in 1994 by allowing only 162 points - the fewest in VSU history. His defensive units led the Gulf South Conference in numerous statistical categories and achieved top 10 national rankings for defense. His teams posted six shutouts in five years. VSU had produced only four shutouts in the 10 years preceding Major's arrival.

Nine VSU defensive players were named first-team All-GSC under Major's tutelage. Antonio Edwards was GSC Defensive Player of the Year in 1992 and went on to become a starting defensive end for the Seattle Seahawks. Four other Major-coached Blazers also signed professional contracts, including tackle Artie Ulmer, who was selected in the 1997 NFL draft by the Minnesota Vikings.

"Since I work so closely with the offense, I need a defensive coordinator I can turn it over to and trust," Mumme said. "There's nobody I trust on the sidelines more than Mike. He's a true student of the game and is a perfectionist. He's also great at making adjustments during the game."

Major earned his bachelor's degree from Stephen F. Austin in 1973 and also holds a master's from SFA. Major's coaching career began at several high schools in Texas, including Moody HS in Corpus Christi, where he first coached with Mumme. He also was with Mumme one year as an assistant coach at Texas-El Paso. Major rejoined Mumme at Copperas Cove (Texas) HS from1986-88 and was the defensive coordinator at Iowa Wesleyan in 1989. Major helped transform Iowa Wesleyan from an 0-10 team to a 7-4 team in his one season there. Major was an assistant coach for two years at Stephen F. Austin before going to Valdosta State.

Mike and his wife, Laura, have two sons, Patrick (18) and Jordan (16).

Guy Morriss

Assistant Head Coach, Offensive Line

One of the most pleasant developments of Kentucky's 1997 football season was the play of the Wildcats' offensive line - a tribute to Guy Morriss, UK's assistant head coach and offensive line coach.

Sparked by much-improved line play, Kentucky averaged 474 yards per game last season and finished sixth in the nation in total offense. In 1996, the year before Morriss' arrival, UK finished 109th in the nation in total offense.

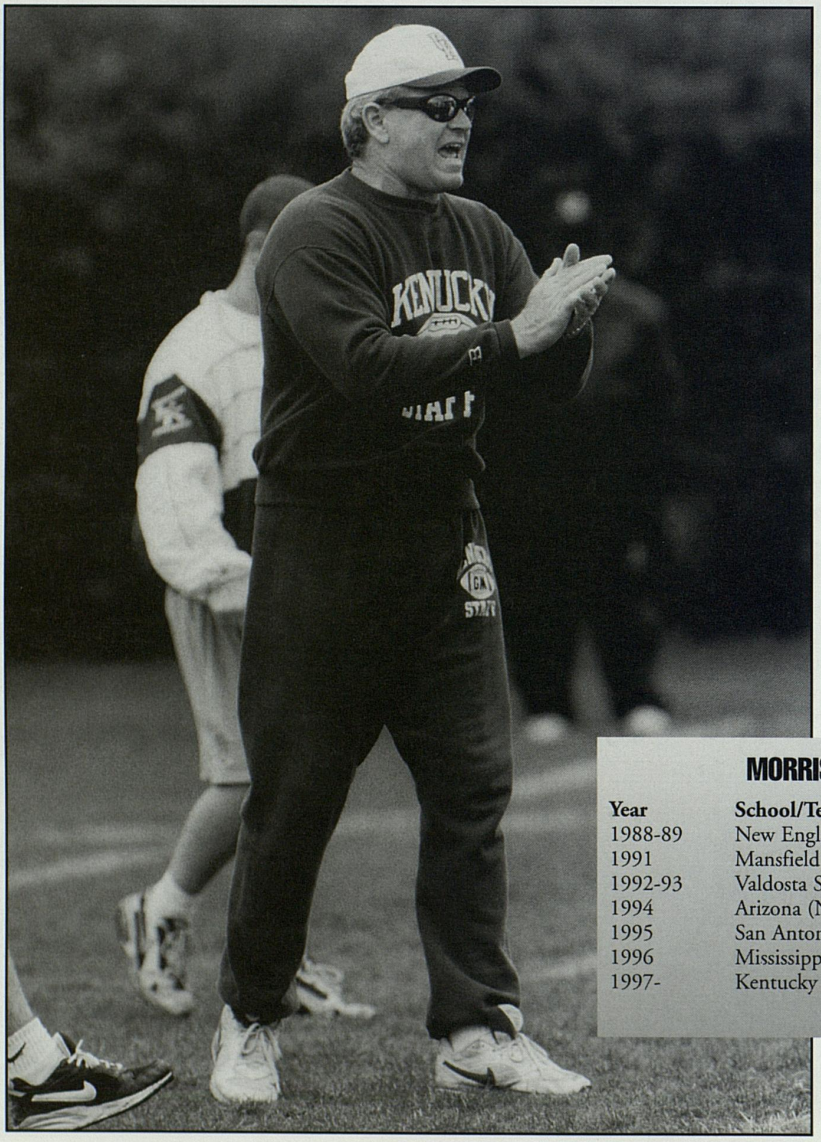
The Wildcats' attack also accounted for 51 school records and 15 Southeastern Conference records. Guard John Schlarman was awarded first-team All-SEC honors by the Associated Press and second-team All-SEC by the league coaches.

The upcoming season looms as another fine campaign for Morriss. The tentative starting offensive line features five seniors, including four returning starters.

Offensive success is nothing new for Morriss, who has 18 years of National Football League experience, 15 years as a player and three as a coach.

"Guy knows more about pass protection than anybody I've ever coached with," Coach Hal Mumme said. "He has coached successfully on every level, from high school to the NFL. He's truly a player's coach, the type of person I'd want my son to be around."

Although Morriss is in his second season at Kentucky, this will be his third year of experience in the Southeastern Conference. Morriss coached the offensive line at Mississippi State in 1996. One of his Bulldog tackles, Brent Smith, earned first-team All-Southeastern Conference honors and was a second-round selection of the Miami Dolphins in the NFL draft.



After his days as an All-Southwest Conference guard at Texas Christian University, Morriss went on to his 15-year career in the NFL. He spent 11 years with the Philadelphia Eagles and four with the New England Patriots.

He was an All-Pro selection in 1981 and played in two Super Bowls.

Morriss began his coaching career with the Patriots in 1988-89. He was the offensive coordinator at Mansfield (Texas) HS in 1991, then joined forces with Mumme at Valdosta State in 1992-93. He returned to the professional ranks with the Arizona Cardinals in 1994 and the Canadian Football League's San Antonio Texans in 1995.

Guy and his wife, Jackie, have five daughters - Colleen (28), Melanie (27), Kerry (25), Savannah Rae (11), and Austin Leigh (9).

Darrell Patterson

Safeties

Darrell Patterson, who is in his second season as the safeties coach at Kentucky, saw both of his 1997 starters earn significant awards.

Strong safety Tremayne Martin earned second-team All-Southeastern Conference honors by the league coaches and the Associated Press after totaling 96 tackles and five interceptions. Free safety Willie Gary made 82 tackles and was named to the Freshman All-America team by The Sporting News and the Freshman All-SEC team by the Knoxville News-Sentinel.

Gary, of course, returns for the 1998 season and is expected to anchor the secondary. Senior Jeff Zurcher finished the spring as the starter at strong safety, but is seeing his first significant game action at that post. Redshirt freshman Chris Gayton and a host of incoming freshmen will compete for the reserve slots.

"Darrell has a unique blend of coaching and recruiting abilities that we're very thankful to have," Coach Hal Mumme said. "He has a variety of coaching and playing experiences in the NFL, CFL, and colleges."

A native of Canonsburg, Pa., Patterson was an all-state linebacker in high school. He was named the 1979 Southwest Conference Newcomer of the Year at Texas Christian University and was an All-SWC linebacker during his career at TCU (1979-82).

Patterson was a sixth-round pick of the New York Giants in the 1983 NFL draft. He was with the Giants and Buffalo Bills before enjoying a seven-year career in the Canadian Football League. Patterson played for Winnipeg from 1984-87 and helped lead the Blue Bombers to the 1984 Grey Cup championship. He played for Hamilton from 1988-90 and the Tiger-Cats were the Grey Cup runners-up in 1989.

Patterson began his coaching career in 1991 as an assistant coach who helped the British Columbia Lions advance to the playoffs. After a year with the Lions, he entered the collegiate ranks at Akron in 1992-93 as an assistant under Coach Gerry Faust. With the Zips, Patterson coached outside linebackers, nickel backs, and special teams. There, he helped develop New York strong safety Victor Green, who was second in the AFC in tackles in 1996, and linebacker Jason Taylor, who was selected in the third round of the 1997 NFL draft by the Miami Dolphins.

Patterson returned to the CFL in 1994 as special teams coordinator and defensive line coach for Ottawa. The Rough Riders advanced to the Grey Cup semifinals and two of his players - ends John Cropke and Dave Benefield - were named to the All-CFL team.

In 1995-96, Patterson was at Temple University in Philadelphia, Pa. He coached the defensive line for the Owls.

Darrell and his wife, Julie, have a son, Michael (8), and daughters Monika (4) and Meghan (3).

Claude Bassett

Recruiting Coordinator

Claude Bassett produced noteworthy results in his first full year as recruiting coordinator for the Wildcats football team.

Kentucky's 1998 recruiting class was ranked in the nation's top 20 by CNN/SI, PrepStar magazine, and the Tampa Tribune. Highlighted by the signing of Dennis Johnson, National Player of the Year, the class also is impressive in its depth of quality players. The performance by Bassett and the Wildcats coaches was significant, but it is only a step in a task that Bassett calls "the rebirth of Kentucky football."

"We have the best facilities, the best staff, the best conference, and the most special people in the world," Bassett said. "We are proud to be at the University of Kentucky and look forward to sharing all of this with the best student-athletes the Commonwealth and the country have to offer."

Bassett is a 24-year coaching veteran. He came to UK from Memorial High School in McAllen, Tex., where he was head coach from 1994-96. He took over a program that had been winless for two years prior to his arrival. By Bassett's second season, Memorial had improved to a 10-1 record, the first time that the school had won more than six games in one year. It also marked the school's first entry in the rugged Texas Class AAAAA playoffs.

Bassett coached under LaVell Edwards at Brigham Young University from 1983-93 as the Cougars compiled a record of 103-37-2 (.732), won eight Western Athletic Conference championships, and a national championship in 1984. He coached the offensive line from 1983-86 and the linebackers from 1987-93.

At BYU, Bassett was responsible for recruiting quarterback Ty Detmer, who still holds 58 NCAA records for passing and total offense. BYU had two Outland Trophy winners and 13 All-Americans (including six consensus All-Americans) during his years there.

Bassett was the offensive coordinator at Mountain View HS in Mesa, Ariz., from 1980-82. Mountain View won the Class AAA (highest classification) state championship in 1980 and 1982. Bassett began his coaching career while he was an undergraduate student at Brigham Young. He was an assistant coach at Spanish Fork (Utah) HS and Pleasant Grove (Utah) HS. Bassett was a standout football and baseball player at Shasta Junior College, but an injury at BYU ended his football career.

Claude and his wife, Leslie, have four children - Jed (20), Annette (19), Camille (17), and Rebecca (15).

To contact Bassett, call (606) 257-3611. His fax number is (606) 323-3639. His e-mail address is bassett@pop.uky.edu.

Bob Brush

Defensive Assistant, Linebackers

Bob Brush joins the Kentucky staff as a defensive assistant and will help coordinator Mike Major coach the linebackers.

Brush's previous coaching assignment came at Georgetown (Ky.) College, where he compiled a 20-19 record in four seasons. He was named NAIA District 32 Coach of the Year. His tenure at Georgetown produced one appearance in the national playoffs, one Mid-South Conference championship, and five All-Americans.

Prior to Georgetown, Brush worked as defensive coordinator at Wake Forest, Tulsa, Virginia Tech, Vanderbilt, and West Texas State. He helped guide Wake Forest to a victory in the 1992 Independence Bowl. While at Virginia Tech, the Hokies were second nationally in scoring and rushing defense, placed third in overall defense, and played in the Peach and Independence bowls. At Vanderbilt, Brush was the coordinator for the defense the last time the Commodores posted a winning record and went to a bowl game. He helped West Texas State win two Missouri Valley Conference championships.

Brush helped send 13 players to the National Football League, including Outland Trophy winner Bruce Smith from Virginia Tech.

A native of Cherry Hill, N. J., Brush played linebacker and fullback at Rutgers. He began his coaching career at Cherry Hill East High School. He entered the collegiate ranks at Maryland and also coached at Virginia Military and Duke before ascending to his defensive coordinator and head coaching roles.

Brush and his wife, Marjorie, have two children - Tamara and Lee.

Chris Hatcher

Offensive Assistant, Quarterbacks

In his second year as an offensive assistant with UK, Chris Hatcher assists Hal Mumme in coaching the quarterbacks and is head coach of the Wildcats junior varsity team.

Hatcher enjoyed significant success during his first season with the Wildcats. Formerly a quarterback under Mumme, Hatcher helped familiarize Tim Couch with the nuances of Mumme's passing offense. Couch responded by throwing for 3,884 yards and 37 touchdowns while leading the nation in pass attempts, completions, completion percentage, and yardage. In the process, Couch broke or tied 17 school and 10 Southeastern Conference records.

Hatcher also got the new junior varsity team off the ground, posting a respectable 2-3 record in the team's first season of existence.

Hatcher was the starting quarterback at Valdosta State University from 1991-94, including the last three seasons under Mumme. During his career (including playoff games), Hatcher completed 1,047 of 1,529 passes for 11,363 yards and 121 touchdowns. He won the Harlon Hill Award - signifying the national player of the year in Division II - in 1994 and led the Blazers to the first national playoff appearance in school history. He continues to hold several national records for passing and total offense.

He spent the 1995 season as a student coach at VSU before moving to Central Florida as a quarterbacks coach.

A native of Macon, Ga., Hatcher was an all-state quarterback and baseball pitcher at Macon's Mt. de Sales Academy. Chris is working on his master's in kinesiology and health promotions at UK.

Kentucky Strength Coaches

Rob Oviatt

Strength and Conditioning Coach

The work of Rob Oviatt (pronounced OH-vee-utt) drew special attention when he was named 1997 Southeastern Conference Strength Coach of the Year for football as selected by the league's 12 strength coaches.

Oviatt is the first UK strength coach to win the award. The Wildcats have made obvious gains in strength and in the physical nature of their play since Oviatt became the UK strength and conditioning coach in 1995.

On defense, for example, the Wildcats have been much improved against the run. In Oviatt's three seasons, UK has allowed opponents an average of 4.1 yards per rushing play, the team's best mark for a three-year period since the 1987-89 seasons. In addition, UK's single-season sack record, 10.5 by Chris Ward in 1996, came under Oviatt's watch.

The offensive line also has earned its share of glory during Oviatt's tenure. In 1995, running back Moe Williams led the SEC in rushing and scoring, broke or tied 15 school records, and broke three SEC marks. In 1997, UK's offensive line kept quarterback Tim Couch injury-free as the pass-oriented Wildcats broke or tied 51 school records and 15 SEC records.

Oviatt is a 20-year veteran of strength and conditioning coaching. He came to UK from Oregon State, where he had been the strength coach for the football team and fitness director for the entire athletic program since 1985.

While at Oregon State, Oviatt showed dedication to his craft by attending a number of special weightlifting clinics. Among the most interesting was a 1988 trip to Moscow, where he attended the Sport Science Institute and took courses in all phases of Soviet training. Prior to Oregon State, Oviatt was an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Utah (1985), Houston (1984), and Texas A&M (1983). He was a volunteer assistant strength coach at Mississippi (1980-82) while earning his master's degree in education. His experience began at the University of Alabama (1978-79) as a volunteer assistant strength coach. He graduated from Alabama with a degree in physical education in 1980.

Oviatt was born in Delaware, Ohio. He graduated from Wooster (Ohio) High School, where he played football and was a wrestler.

Married to the former Carolyn Berki, Rob has three daughters - Lindsay (20), Allison (8), and April (4).

Brett Brungardt

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Brett Brungardt, who has worked at the professional and collegiate levels, begins his first season as UK's Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach.

In addition to assisting Coach Rob Oviatt with the Wildcats' strength and conditioning, Brungardt will be responsible for all aspects of team nutrition. He brings a wide variety of knowledge to the program, arriving at UK after serving on the board of directors of Strength Advantage, Inc. Brungardt served as a clinician and consultant to member schools and colleges. He has lectured at more than 100 institutions, covering a spectrum of strength and conditioning topics. He also developed Strength Advantage publications and is co-author of four books. Brungardt is a certified specialist by the National Strength and Conditioning Association and was the winner of the 1985 NSCA Challenge Award.

Brungardt is no stranger to the coaching field, serving as the strength and conditioning coordinator for the San Antonio Spurs in 1989-90. Before his term in San Antonio, Brungardt served one year as assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Wyoming.

A baseball player in college, Brungardt received his undergraduate degree in business administration at Fort Hays State University in Hays, Kansas. He served as the graduate assistant coach for the men's and women's teams at the University of Houston while obtaining his master's degree in exercise science.

Jeff Allen

Assistant Athletics Trainer

Jeff Allen enters his second season as Assistant Athletics Trainer at Kentucky, working primarily with the football team and assisting with other sports as needed.

Allen came to UK from Valdosta State, where he was an assistant trainer for two years under Jim Madaleno. His main duties were with the football and baseball teams. He also was a teacher for two years in Valdosta State's sports medicine curriculum. He also worked at VSU from 1993 to 1995 as a graduate assistant trainer with the football team. He earned his master's in education.

Allen earned his bachelor's degree in 1993 at Georgia Southern. He was a student assistant trainer for four years. Among other duties, he worked with the Georgia Southern football team that won the Division I-AA national championship in 1989 and 1990.

A native of Atlanta, Allen graduated from North Cobb High School in Marietta. Jeff is married to the former Mary Ray.

David Combs

Video Director

David Combs enters his 15th year as Video Director for the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

Combs, a native of Bay City, Mich., is responsible for coaching films and video operations of the UKAA. He also works with the UK Athletics Media Relations Office on a weekly basis during the year producing and distributing video, including game highlights, press conferences and interviews.

In addition to his duties for UK, Combs freelances for NFL Films. His film footage is used for NFL commercials and highlight films. Combs was responsible for shooting the main footage of Reebok's 1994 Super Bowl commercial featuring Emmitt Smith.

Combs earned his undergraduate degree in telecommunications and marketing from the University of Kentucky in 1984. As a student, he worked as cinematographer and editor of game films for the UK coaching staff.

Following graduation, Combs served as a TV-film producer/director for the UK Office of Instructional Resources with his primary responsibility of serving the UKAA. He transferred to athletics in August of 1989 as Sports Video Director.

Combs is married to the former Charlotte Preece of Paintsville. They have two sons — Zachary (5) and Luke (1).

Jack Fligg

Assistant Athletics Director/ Football Operations

Jack Fligg, UK's Assistant Athletics Director for Football Operations, has announced that the upcoming season will be the last of his distinguished 33-year career in intercollegiate athletics.

Fligg plans to retire following the '98 season, his ninth year at UK. He joined the Wildcats staff as an administrative assistant in 1990 and was promoted to Assistant AD in 1991. His primary responsibilities include coordinating football operations and the major administrative duties of Coach Hal Mumme.

Fligg came to Kentucky from the University of Alabama, where he spent three years as an administrative assistant under Coach Bill Curry. Fligg came with Curry to Kentucky.

Prior to his administrative appointments, Fligg spent 22 years as an assistant coach at four schools - Georgia Tech (1964, 1984-86), West Virginia (1966-69), Texas Tech (1970-74), and South Carolina (1975-82). He served under Jim Carlen for 16 of those seasons at West Virginia, Texas Tech, and South Carolina and was offensive coordinator at Tech and Carolina. Thirteen of Fligg's teams participated in bowl games.

Prior to the collegiate level, Fligg coached high school football for 11 years in the Atlanta area - West Fulton High School and Grady High School.

Fligg played two seasons (1950-51) of football at Auburn. He received his undergraduate degree from Oglethorpe in 1955 and his master's from George Peabody College in 1959.

He is married to the former Jonell Upchurch of Hapeville, Ga. They have three children - Matt, a high school coach in the Atlanta area, Mrs. Joanna Trump, and Mrs. Terri Carter - and four grandchildren. Following retirement, Jack and Jonell plan to move to Atlanta in order to be closer to their family.

Gary Foxworth

Coaching Video Coordinator

Gary Foxworth enters his second year as Coaching Video Coordinator for the Wildcats football team.

Foxworth joined UK from Eastern Kentucky University, where he was the production manager for the school's media resources department. He supervised the school's television needs and also handled the broadcast production of EKU's football and basketball games. In addition, Foxworth helped EKU win several government grants and was the technical director and videographer for federal and state television productions. He earned a degree in broadcasting from EKU in 1989. He was a student assistant for two years in the media resources department before joining the staff full-time upon his graduation.

Foxworth is a native of Lexington and a graduate of Lafayette High School. Gary and his wife, Kimber, have two children – Austin (2) and a newborn daughter, Jessica Ann.

Tom Kalinowski

Equipment Manager

Tom Kalinowski enters his 20th year as Equipment Manager for the Kentucky football program.

Kalinowski, a native of Middleton, Conn., received his undergraduate degree from Kentucky in 1978. He had served as a student manager at UK, beginning in 1974 until his graduation. Kalinowski was named Head Football Equipment Manager in 1978.

He graduated from Xavier High School in 1974. At Xavier, Kalinowski was student manager for the football, baseball and basketball programs.

Kalinowski and his wife, Vicki, have two sons, Ian (5) and Cody (3).

Jim Madaleno

Head Athletics Trainer

Jim Madaleno, who has experience on the professional and collegiate levels, is in his second season as the Head Athletics Trainer for the University of Kentucky football team.

Madaleno came to UK from Valdosta State University, where he was head athletic trainer from 1989-97 and also served as Assistant Athletics Director for Sports Medicine. Madaleno also worked as the undergraduate curriculum director for an athletic trainer education program that has been nationally accredited.

Madaleno began his athletic training career as a student trainer at Michigan State, where he graduated in 1980. He was a graduate assistant trainer at Florida State in 1980-81 and earned a master's in movement science.

Madaleno first went to Valdosta State in 1982 with the inception of the school's football program as the school's first full-time athletic trainer.

In 1985, Madaleno took an assistant trainer's position with the New York Giants. He was with the team when the Giants defeated Denver in the 1987 Super Bowl.

In 1988, Madaleno joined the renowned Hughston Sports Medicine Clinic in Columbus, Ga. He specialized in high school relations and promoted the need for certified athletic trainers on the high school level. However, Madaleno missed the day-to-day relationships with athletes and the excitement of competition, so he returned to Valdosta State in 1989.

In addition to his bachelor's and master's degrees, Madaleno is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association. He is a native of Dearborn, Mich. Jim and his wife, Paddy, have two children — Kiley Ann, age eight, and Ryan James, age five.

Tony Neely

Media Relations Director

Tony Neely enters his fifth year as Media Relations Director at the University of Kentucky.

Neely handles the day-to-day media relations and publicity efforts for the UK football team. His 1995, 1996, and 1997 football media guides have been judged in the top 10 in the nation by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). In addition, Neely has won five CoSIDA district awards and one national award for excellence in writing.

Neely has served as media coordinator for the 1996 and 1998 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournaments held in Lexington.

Neely is in his 21st year in the collegiate sports information field. After serving four years as a student assistant (1978-82) at Vanderbilt, Neely was hired as a full-time assistant SID. He also held the title of associate SID before being promoted to Sports Information Director in 1992. Three of his publications won national awards from CoSIDA. He graduated with honors from Vanderbilt with a degree in business administration.

Neely is married to the former Terri Thomason, a native of Paducah, Ky. They are on the board of directors of the Central Kentucky chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. The Neelys have a three-year-old daughter, Grace.

Barbara Osborne

Ticket Manager

Barbara Osborne enters her 23rd year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

Osborne was named Ticket Manager for the UKAA in October of 1987 after serving as Assistant Ticket Manager since 1984. She began her employment with the UKAA as secretary to Frank Ham of the Blue-White Fund office in December, 1975.

In addition to handling all UK ticket sales, Osborne also has coordinated ticket sales for UK's 1993 Peach Bowl trip, eight appearances in the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, and several NCAA and SEC Men's Basketball Tournaments hosted by UK.

Osborne graduated from Russell High School and owns an associate degree from Ashland Community College. A native of Flatwoods, Ky., she is married to Dave Osborne.

Janetta Owens

Administrative Assistant

Janetta Owens begins her 18th year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

Owens was hired in July 1980 as the administrative assistant to the head football coach and has held that position under four head coaches — Fran Curci (1980-81), Jerry Claiborne (1982-89), Bill Curry (1990-96), and Hal Mumme (1997-98).

Owens, a native of Corbin, Ky., is married to Lewis Owens, who is publisher emeritus at the Lexington Herald-Leader. They have one son, Wade Mitchell, and two grandchildren, Anthony and Jonah.

Kevin Coleman

Wide Receiver, 5-10, 195, Sr-3L
Niceville, Fla. (Niceville)

Enters fall practice as the starter at the "Y" wide receiver ... Played very well in that role last season and should be even more comfortable now that he has a year of experience in the offense ... Has played in 25 games, starting seven.

1997 (JUNIOR): Played in all 11 games, starting three ... Caught 52 passes for 621 yards and eight touchdowns ... Third on the team in receptions and second in yardage and touchdown catches ... Single-game highs included eight receptions at South Carolina, 89 yards at Mississippi State, and two touchdowns each against Indiana, Florida, and Louisiana State.
1996 (SOPHOMORE): Played in 11 games with three starts ... Caught seven passes for 73 yards ... Best game was three catches for 22 yards at Cincinnati.
1995 (FRESHMAN): Coaches had hoped to redshirt this outstanding prospect but injuries forced him into game action the last three games of the season ... Had a big game against Cincinnati with five catches for 87 yards and two touchdowns ... Started the season finale against Tennessee and set up UK's first touchdown with a 59-yard reception ... Was one of five true freshmen to see game action.

The Coleman Senior File

My best non-athletic talent is: Sleeping

My greatest moment in sports was: When I gave up my redshirt my freshman year and caught two touchdown passes against Cincinnati

My greatest moment outside of sports was: When I got baptized

The best thing about being a Wildcat is: The chance to play in the best conference in the country.

The one thing I like most about football is: The adrenaline rush of playing

Before a football game, I like to: Talk to myself about the upcoming game

My nickname is: "K-Cole" and "Baby Bear Cub"

The best class I've taken at UK is: EDU 305, because it taught me that not everybody has it made and we have responsibilities to other people

A great professor I've had at UK is: Philip Todd, because he taught us not to worry about what people say but believe in yourself

What I like most about Coach Mumme is: He's a perfectionist, he wants everything to be perfect; also, he never lets you doubt yourself

My advice to youngsters is: Believe in the Lord

My goal in life is to: Help people do things they believe they can't do

Halfback, 6-1, 191, Jr-1L
Twinsburg, Ohio (Chamberlin)

Slated to play the majority of his time at halfback after splitting time between the fullback and halfback positions last season ... Emerged as one of the top running backs in the Southeastern Conference last season ... Dangerous as a runner and pass receiver and has excellent mobility in the open field ... Has played in 15 games, starting eight.

1997 (SOPHOMORE): A breakthough season for White ... Playing the fullback position primarily, he led the team in rushing with 723 yards yards on 129 carries, averaging 5.6 yards per carry, and scored four touchdowns ... Topped the century mark in rushing against Indiana (131 yards) and Alabama (117) ... Ran for two TDs against Tennessee ... Set a school record for most pass receptions by a running back with 59, good for 453 yards and four touchdowns ... Only Fred Taylor of Florida, Kevin Faulk of LSU, and Jamal Lewis of Tennessee had a higher total of rushing and receiving yards.

1996 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN): Played in four games at tailback and started at Alabama ... Gained 36 yards on 17 carries, including a long run of 16 yards at Cincinnati ... Caught one pass for 16 yards.

1995 (FRESHMAN): Redshirted.

HIGH SCHOOL: Gained approximately 3,400 rushing yards during his three years as a starter at Chamberlin HS ... Gained 1,100 yards and eight touchdowns as a senior, despite missing three and one-half games because of injury ... Scored two touchdowns each on punt returns and interception returns ... Time missed because of injury limited him to second-team all-city, all-conference, and all-county honors ... A better indicator is his junior year, when he rambled for 1,400 yards and 19 TDs, earning first-team all-conference and All-Northeast Ohio honors, along with honorable mention all-state ... Helped his team advance to the state playoffs two years ... Coached by Dennis Zolciak ... Also a three-year letterman in basketball (all-league as a senior) and two-year letterman in track ... A Merit Roll student.

PERSONAL: Full name is Anthony Davis White ... Born 5/1/77 in Garfield, Ohio ... Son of Estella White ... Major is kinesiology.

THE CATS' CAUSE: Encouraged elementary students to read as a "Copi-Cat" pen pal (1995-96).

- Knoxville News-Sentinel Freshman All-SEC (1995)
- AT&T Long Distance Award for 85-yard punt return vs. South Carolina (1997)
- Honorable mention All-America by Football News (1997)
- First-team All-SEC by Football News (1997)
- Second-team All-SEC by Associated Press and SEC Coaches (1997)

UK's starter at the "X" wide receiver ... The top returning pass catcher in the SEC in receptions and receiving yardage ... Has led UK in receiving for the last three years ... Has uncommon speed and elusiveness and is a breakaway threat any time he has his hands on the ball ... A dangerous kick returner who has brought back two kickoffs and one punt for touchdowns during his career ... Has played in 32 games, starting 19.

1997 (JUNIOR): The pass-oriented UK offense was tailor-made for Yeast, as he earned first-team All-SEC and honorable mention All-America honors from Football News ... A second-team all-league pick by Associated Press and SEC coaches ... Caught 73 passes for 873 yards and 10 touchdowns, all of which were school records ... Led the SEC and ranked ninth nationally in receptions per game with 6.6 ... Ranked third in the SEC in receiving yardage per game with 79.4 and was second in the league in touchdown catches with 10 ... Had 100-yard receiving games against Florida (125) and Northeast Louisiana (131) ... Broke the UK records for receptions in a season and career and receiving yardage in a season and career ... Tied school marks for touchdowns in a season (10) and game (four vs. Indiana) ... Also made his mark as a kick returner ... Averaged 23 yards on kickoff returns, including a 97-yard TD jaunt at Vanderbilt ... Averaged 15.6 yards on punt returns, including an 85-yard return for a touchdown at South Carolina ... Became the first Wildcat since 1967 to return a punt and a kickoff for a touchdown in the same season ... His punt return TD won the AT&T Long Distance Award as the longest punt return of the week in Division I-A football ... All totaled, he broke or tied 11 school records, see below for complete list.

1996 (SOPHOMORE): Led the team in receiving with 26 catches for 378 yards and two touchdowns ... Caught fire after a slow start and had 23 of those receptions in the final six games ... Had single-game highs of seven catches at LSU and 89 yards vs. Mississippi State ... Turned a short pass into a 57-yard touchdown against Vanderbilt, the longest reception of his career ... Averaged 34.6 yards on five kickoff returns, including a 95-yard jaunt for a TD against South Carolina ... Averaged 11.5 yards on six punt returns ... Played in 11 games and had four starts.

1995 (FRESHMAN): Made an immediate impression as a true freshman, earning Freshman All-SEC honors from the Knoxville News-Sentinel ... Played in 10 games and drew four starting assignments ... Team's leading receiver with 24 catches for 337 yards and two touchdowns, averaging 14 yards per catch ... Returned eight kickoffs for 117 yards, averaging 14.6 yards per return ... Had five rushing attempts for a net of six yards.

HIGH SCHOOL: Four-year letterman and starter at Harrodsburg (Ky.) HS ... Played quarterback and running back ... As a senior, completed 43 of 84 passes for 739 yards and eight touchdowns, also rushing for 1,629 yards and 29 TDs ... Had two punt returns for TDs and had five interceptions as a defensive back, returning three for scores ... Totaled 212 points, including four two-point conversions ... Two-year all-state choice and a finalist for "Mr. Football" as a senior ... Team posted a 12-2 record as a senior and advanced to the state semifinals ... Rushed for 1,000 yards as a junior ... Scored an 83-yard kickoff return for a touchdown the first time he touched the ball as a freshman ... Coached by Alvis Johnson ... Also a four-year letterman in track, three-year letterman in basketball, and two-year man in baseball ... 1994 state champion in the 400-meter dash and was part of a relay unit that won the state in 1993 and 1994.

PERSONAL: Full name is Craig Nelson Yeast ... Born 11/20/76 in Danville, Ky. ... Son of Bobbi Jo Yeast ... Has five relatives who have played college football - uncles George Yeast (Louisville), Nick Yeast (Eastern Kentucky), and Bo Yeast (Morehead State) and cousins Terry Yeast (Morehead State) and Donald Smith (Western Kentucky) ... Major is social work

The Yeast Senior File

My best non-athletic talent is: Singing
My greatest moment in sports was: Catching the winning TD pass against Alabama
My greatest moment outside of sports was when: My little sister was born. I had to wait 17 years for her.
When I played football as a kid, I pretended I was: My uncle, Nick Yeast, who played for national championship teams at Eastern Kentucky
The one thing I like most about football is: Life inside the lines
Before a football game, I like to: Have a conversation with my grandmother and grandfather, who passed away when I was in high school
The best thing about being a Wildcat is: It gives me the honor to say I was here though good times and bad times
My nickname is: "Franchise"
The best nicknames of other players on the team are: "Here I go" (Quentin McCord), "#85" (James Whalen)
The best class I've taken at UK is: Social Work 523, because it dealt with a lot of racial problems in America, all aspects
A great professor I've had at UK is: Dr. Beth Rompf, because she is a very understanding lady and she wants everyone to succeed
The best piece of coaching advice I've ever received is: To improve my work habits and that will give me a chance to go a long way
What I like most about Coach Mumme is: He is very encouraging. When you make a mistake, he says, "Play the next play!"
My advice to youngsters is: Have faith in the Lord and believe in yourself, because with these two things you can always go far in life. Also, always stay in your books and get your education - it is important.
My goal in life is: To be as successful as I can and come back and help troubled youth. I want to help keep kids off the street because they are our future.

Jeff Zurcher

Strong Safety, 6-1, 207, Sr-2L
Berne, Ind. (South Adams/Bethel)

- SEC Academic Honor Roll (1996, 1997)
- University of Kentucky Nominee for the Rhodes Scholarship (1997)

His progress during the spring, his first regular action at strong safety, was one of the pleasant developments of spring practice ... Was the star of one scrimmage when he had an interception, blocked a punt, picked up a blocked field goal and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown, and had a pass breakup on a fourth-down play ... Enters fall drills as the starter at strong safety ... Also expected to see duty on the special teams, where he made several big plays last season ... A courageous performer who often plays in pain because of persistent back and leg injuries ... A former walk-on who has been placed on full scholarship by Coach Hal Mumme ... An extraordinary student who completed his bachelor's degree in May with a double major in English and advertising and a 4.0 grade point average ... In June, 1998, helped lead a team of UK students to the finals of a national advertising contest that was sponsored by the American Advertising Federation ... Also in June, he traveled to San Diego to present a research paper to the national convention of syndicated newspaper columnists ... In the fall, he will begin working on a master's degree in diplomacy from UK's Patterson School of Diplomacy and International Commerce ... Has played in 21 games.

1997 (JUNIOR): Became a special teams stalwart for the Wildcats ... Played in all 11 games and made 12 tackles ... Knocked loose a fumble on a South Carolina punt return that was recovered by the Wildcats ... Blocked a field goal at Georgia ... Caught a 20-yard pass on a fake punt against Louisiana State ... Was one of two University of Kentucky nominees for the Rhodes Scholarship, one of the world's most prestigious academic honors ... Made the SEC Academic Honor Roll for the second time.

1996 (SOPHOMORE): Played in 10 games, mostly as a special teamer ... Made one tackle ... Named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

1995 (SOPHOMORE): Joined the team as a walk-on ... Redshirted.

AT BETHEL: Went to Bethel College in Mishawaka, Ind., in 1994-95 as a basketball player ... Was the sixth man on the Bethel team that won the NAIA Division II national championship with a 38-2 record.

HIGH SCHOOL: Three-year letterman and starter at South Adams High School in Berne, Ind. ... Played defensive back and running back, helping the team go undefeated in the regular season three straight years ... All-state and all-conference as a senior ... Rushed for approximately 1,100 yards and 15 touchdowns and made seven interceptions ... Also a member of the academic all-state team and team captain ... Scholarship award winner from the Northern Indiana chapter of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame ... Set school records for most interceptions in a game and career and also set a school record with an 80-yard punt return ... Coached by Kirk Sorg ... Four-year letterman in basketball who was chosen third-team all-state as a senior and a three-year all-conference pick ... Two-year letterman in baseball ... Had a 4.0 grade point average ... Class president and National Honor Society president ... Member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Who's Who Among American High School Students.

PERSONAL: Full name is Jeffrey Ryan Zurcher ... Born 4/21/76 in Bluffton, Ind. ... Son of Steve and Lauretta Zurcher ... Steve played basketball at Taylor University and uncle Kim played basketball at Minnesota ... Has completed his bachelor's degree with a double major in English and advertising and is now working on his master's in diplomacy.

THE CATS' CAUSE: Worked at the UK Hospital "Breakfast With Santa" (1997) ... Guest speaker at several elementary schools (1997-98) ... Participated in UK's "Schoolhouse Rock" academic pep rally for 2,000 fourth- and fifth-grade students (1998).

The Zurcher Senior File

My best non-athletic talent is: Writing

My greatest moment in sports was: On the field, I hugged my father and put my brother on my shoulders after we defeated Alabama last season

My greatest moment outside of sports was when: I received Christ; received nomination to represent UK as a Rhodes Scholar candidate

When I played football as a kid, I pretended I was: Walter Payton

The one thing I like most about football is: The high levels of discipline, emotion, and teamwork required to be successful

Before a football game, I like to: Hang out on the field and toss the ball around, trying to alleviate tension

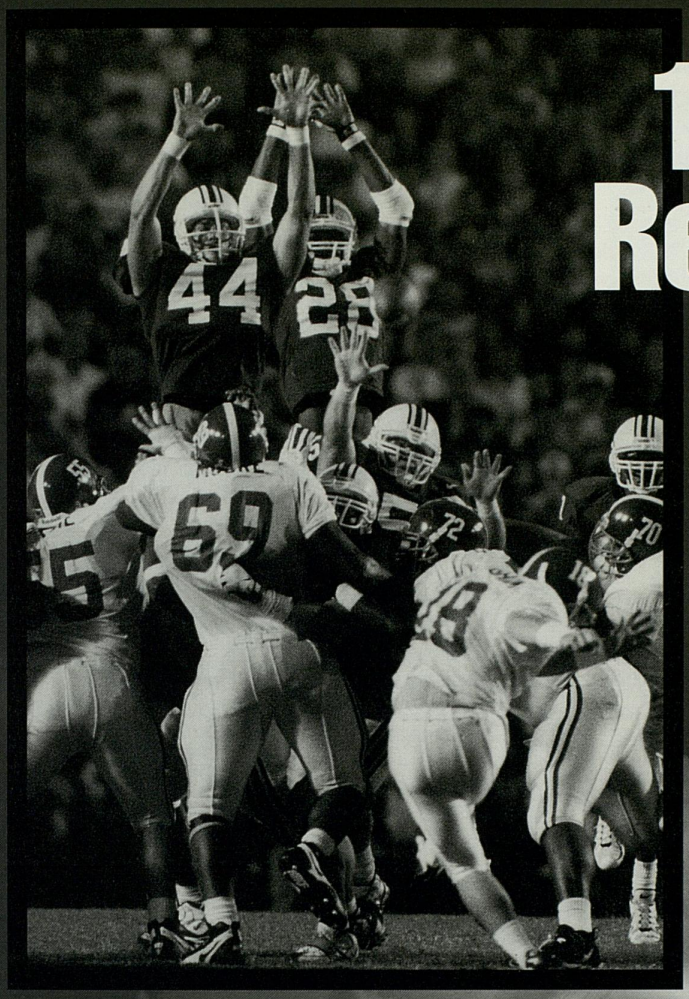
1997 Review



One of the most memorable moments of the 1997 season came when David Ginn (44) blocked this Alabama field goal attempt, which the Wildcats returned for a touchdown.

1997 Game Reviews

The Louisville Game

(Attendance 59,186)

A new era in Kentucky football dawned as Coach Hal Mumme and the Wildcats debuted their new "Air Raid" offense, defeating the University of Louisville 38-24.

UK struck quickly, tying a school record for points in the first quarter with 21, as sophomore quarterback Tim Couch threw for three touchdowns in the opening 11:07. Louisville scored 17 unanswered points to bring the score to 21-17 in the third quarter, but the Cardinals would get no closer.

On the next play from scrimmage, Couch hit wide receiver Kio Sanford for an 80-yard touchdown strike. The score stretched the lead to 28-17, and the Cats never looked back. UK tacked on a Brian Johnson field goal, and a 7-yard touchdown scamper by Anthony White closed out the scoring.

For the game, Couch completed 36 of 50 passes for 398 yards and four touchdowns. Couch's 398-yard passing performance broke Rick Norton's 32-year-old UK record. Couch's 36 completions set another school record. The Wildcats' 38 points were the most UK had scored since defeating Kent State, 38-14, on Sept. 24, 1988.

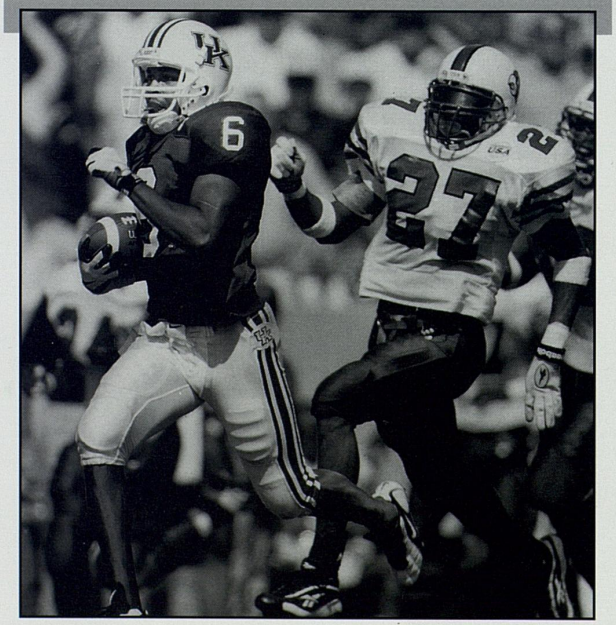
Couch and Sanford Score National Honors

Tim Couch and Kio Sanford's 80-yard touchdown strike versus Louisville put six on the board for the Cats and thrust the two into the national spotlight, as the play garnered the AT&T Long Distance Award for the longest pass play of the week.

With 5:11 left in the third quarter, Louisville scored to shrink UK's lead to four at 21-17. Following the kickoff, the Cats took over at their own 20. On first down, Couch threw a short pass to Sanford for what looked to be a short gain. Sanford, however, thought otherwise and weaved deftly through the Cardinal defense before a crushing block by UK center Jason Watts set him free. Sanford rushed down the right sideline before cutting back to the middle and crossing the goal line for the Cat score. The touchdown pushed the UK lead to 28-17, and the Cats never looked back.

Couch's outstanding performance went beyond the one score, as the Hyden, Ky., native threw for 398 yards and four touchdowns on 36-of-50 passing. The 398 yards of passing broke a 32-year-old Kentucky record. Couch's debut in UK's "Air Raid" offense was noticed outside the Bluegrass as well, as CNN/Sports Illustrated tabbed him as the national player of the week. This marked the first time a Cat had claimed a national player of the week honor since 1995, when Moe Williams was chosen following his 429 all-purpose yardage performance versus South Carolina.

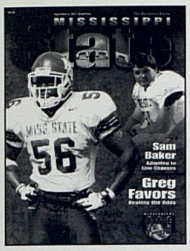
Couch was also picked as the SEC Offensive Player of the Week, the first Wildcat chosen since Williams' great game at South Carolina in 1995.



Kio Sanford streaks for the end zone with the pass from Tim Couch. The 80-yard play won the AT&T Long Distance Award for the longest pass play of the week.

The Mississippi State Game

(Attendance 30,121)



Mississippi State outscored Kentucky 25-6 in the second half en route to a 35-27 victory at Scott Field in Starkville.

The Cats jumped out to a 21-10 halftime lead behind three early Tim Couch touchdown passes, and seemed in control as the teams headed to the locker rooms. A determined Mississippi State team emerged for the second half, however, scoring two quick touchdowns to claim a 22-21 lead.

The Cats scratched back with 3:04 left in the third, as Couch found Kio Sanford for a 19-yard scoring strike and UK reclaimed the lead, 27-22. The Bulldogs refused to play dead, and responded with two Brian Hazelwood field goals to retake the lead, 28-27. The MSU defense thwarted UK's fourth-quarter attack and the Bulldogs tacked on a late touchdown to ground the Cats.

Couch set school records by completing 39 passes on 61 attempts.

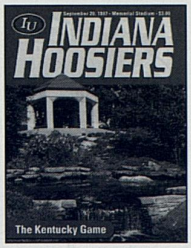
The Indiana Game

(Attendance 41,149)



Tim Couch continued his assault on the record books and the Wildcats held on to the Bourbon Barrel, crushing Indiana 49-7 at Memorial Stadium in Bloomington.

Couch threw for seven touchdowns, shattering a 47-year-old UK record and tying the SEC record. For the game, Couch hit on 24-of-32 passes for 332 yards. Couch and the Cats dominated from the opening kickoff, breaking out to a 49-0 lead by the end of the third quarter.

The Cats' defense played a big role as well, limiting the Hoosier ground attack to only 47 yards. Defensive end Bamidele Ali registered two sacks of IU quarterback Jay Rodgers, and the UK secondary intercepted Rodgers twice. Bob Holmberg recorded UK's first blocked punt since 1991. The Hoosiers could muster only one late score, bringing the final tally to 49-7.

Craig Yeast hauled in four of Couch's touchdown tosses, tying a UK record set in 1950. Kevin Coleman caught two TD aerials, and Anthony White rushed for 131 yards, his first 100-yard game.

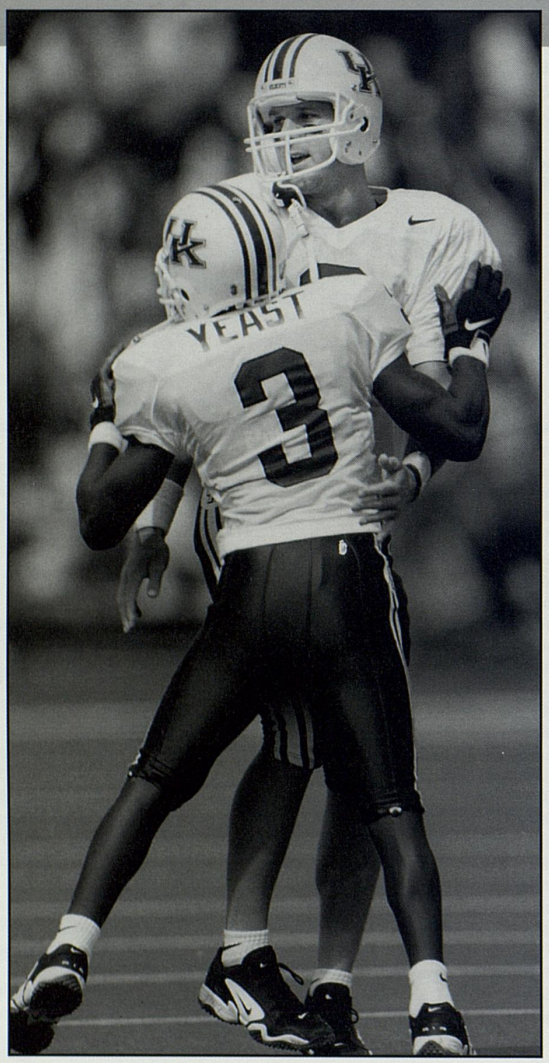
CNN/Sports Illustrated Tabs Couch Player of the Week

A 49-7 victory over the Indiana Hoosiers claimed more than Bourbon Barrel for Kentucky, as Tim Couch's spectacular performance brought the Wildcat quarterback the CNN/Sports Illustrated Player of the Week Award for the second time of the season. Couch also won the honor from CNN/SI after the Louisville game.

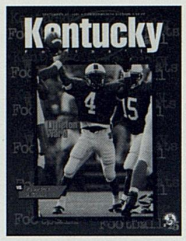
For the game, Couch completed 24 of 32 passes for 334 yards with no interceptions. Couch broke a 47-year-old UK record and tied an SEC record by throwing for an incredible seven touchdowns against the Hoosiers. The performance also marked the third consecutive game Couch threw for at least 300 yards and four touchdowns.



Tim Couch and Craig Yeast hooked up for four touchdown passes against Indiana. Yeast tied the UK single-game record for TD receptions. Couch completed 24-of-32 passes for 334 yards and seven touchdowns. He was named CNN/Sports Illustrated Player of the Week.

The Florida Game

(Attendance 59,224)



The second-largest crowd in Commonwealth Stadium history and a national television audience saw the University of Kentucky Wildcats struggle early and fight back valiantly before falling 55-28 to the top-ranked Florida Gators.

The Cats had high hopes for this matchup, but Florida quickly squashed any chance of an upset. A controversial interception on UK's first possession gave Florida the ball at the UK 16, and Gator tailback Fred Taylor scampered into the end zone on Florida's first offensive play. This opened the floodgates for the Gators, who went on to post a 28-0 lead by the end of the first quarter.

The Cats refused to roll over, and Coach Hal Mumme reached into his bag of tricks to get the Cats on the board. On fourth down from UK's own 14, A.J. Simon took the snap on a fake punt and hit James Whalen, Jr. for a first down. The UK "Air Raid" took over from there, and quarterback Tim Couch directed the Cats on a 10-play, 94-yard touchdown march. The Cats and Gators battled evenly for the remainder of regulation, with UK outscoring Florida 28-27 over the final three quarters.

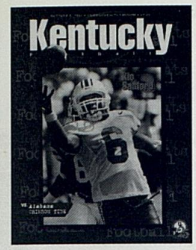
The Alabama Game

(Attendance 59,226)



In a thriller that featured one tie and five lead changes, Kentucky posted a 40-34 overtime win over Alabama, marking the Wildcats' first victory over the Crimson Tide in 75 years.

The two teams traded blows for the first three quarters. With a little over seven minutes remaining in the game, Alabama, leading 31-27, set up for a field goal. David Ginn blocked the three-point try, and Anwar Stewart caught the football and returned it 68 yards for a touchdown. The Cats held the 34-31 lead until Tide kicker Brian Cunningham nailed a 37-yard field goal with 0:04 left on the clock, sending the game into overtime, the first overtime in UK history.

In the extra period, the Tide took the ball first but Tremayne Martin knocked loose a fumble and Jeremy Bowie made the recovery. UK then took over, and on third-and-11, Tim Couch hit a streaking Craig Yeast for a 26-yard touchdown strike. For the game, Couch threw for 355 yards and four TDs and Anthony White rushed for 117 yards.

After Yeast's game-winning touchdown, the fans stormed the field and tore down the goalposts.

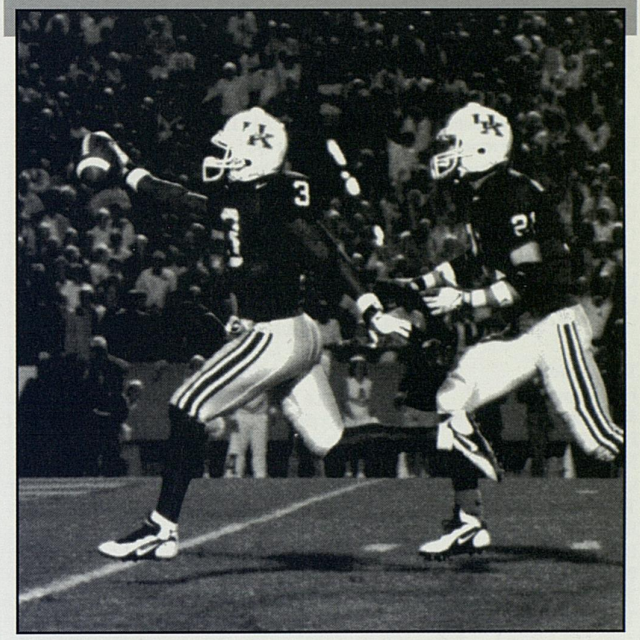
Couch Named National, SEC Player of the Week

The University of Kentucky's upset of Alabama focused media attention on Lexington, and the New York Daily News took note, naming Tim Couch its national player of the week. Couch's 355-yard, 4-TD showing led the Cats to their first victory over the Tide in 75 years, and Couch was rewarded with a national player of the week award for the third time of the 1997 season.

Couch completed 32-of-49 passes in the game, but none was more important than his 26-yard scoring strike to Craig Yeast in overtime. The game-winning touchdown created euphoria for the fans, as the Cats faithful stormed the field to congratulate the UK team and tear down the Commonwealth Stadium goalposts.

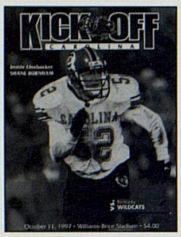
In addition, Couch was selected the SEC Offensive Player of the Week for the second time of the 1997 campaign, also claiming the award after the Louisville game.



Craig Yeast races into the end zone with the game-winning 26-yard touchdown pass against Alabama.

The South Carolina Game

(Attendance 75,936)



Kentucky came up short on its bid to ruin the Gamecocks' homecoming, falling 38-24 to host South Carolina at Williams-Brice Stadium in Columbia.

The Wildcats jumped out to a 14-0 lead with 7:44 left in the first quarter, thanks to a two-yard touchdown pass from Tim Couch to Anthony White and an 85-yard TD punt return by Craig Yeast. South Carolina rallied with a 24-point second quarter, capitalizing on two key Wildcat mistakes. After recovering a Wildcat fumble, USC marched 49 yards for a touchdown, and on the next UK possession, Gamecock safety Arturo Freeman intercepted a pass and returned it 47 yards for another score.

Twice in the second half the Cats moved inside the South Carolina 10-yard line, but returned with only one field goal to show for their efforts. The Gamecocks kept moving forward, though, tacking on two second half touchdowns and shutting the door on the Cats.

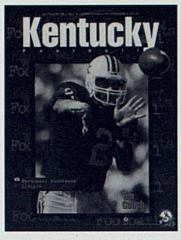
The Northeast Louisiana Game

(Attendance 57,500)



Kentucky scored touchdowns on each of its first six possessions and cruised to a 49-14 homecoming win over Northeast Louisiana.

Quarterback Tim Couch opened the scoring with a one-yard run on the game's first possession and he threw touchdown passes the next five times that the Wildcats got their hands on the ball. Couch finished the game by completing 34 of 43 passes for a school-record 428 yards and six touchdowns. He tied an SEC record by being responsible for seven touchdowns (six passing, one rushing) during the game.

Wide receivers Lance Mickelsen and Craig Yeast were the primary beneficiaries of the passing explosion. Mickelsen caught six passes for 131 yards and three touchdowns while Yeast snagged seven balls for 130 yards and two scores. It was the first time since 1969 that two Wildcats receivers broke the 100-yard mark in the same game.

The win completed a sweep of UK's non-conference opponents, the first time that had happened since 1989. Kentucky's 586 yards of total offense was the second-highest total in school history. The Kentucky defense allowed just 218 yards, its best showing of the season.

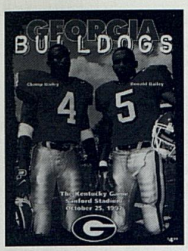
The Georgia Game

(Attendance 85,672)



A rain-soaked crowd of 85,672 saw University of Georgia running back Robert Edwards have a career day, rushing for 186 yards and two scores, as the Bulldogs defeated Kentucky, 23-13.

Edwards broke a scoreless tie with 13:59 left in the second quarter when he burst up the middle for an 80-yard touchdown dash. Georgia took a 14-7 lead at the half, and stretched the lead to 17-7 with 6:27 left in the third. UK's "Air Raid," hindered by the Athens rain, then struck back as Tim Couch directed a 13-play, 66-yard scoring drive, culminating with a two-yard TD toss to Craig Yeast. Seth Hanson's extra point try was blocked, however, and the scoreboard read 17-13.

The Cats recovered the ensuing onsides kick, but were penalized for touching the ball before it traveled the required 10 yards. Georgia took over on the UK 44, and on the next play, Edwards broke the Cats' back with a 44-yard burst up the middle for a score.

The loss was frustrating for the Kentucky, as the Wildcats outgained the Bulldogs, 436-275, and held a 28-11 edge in first downs. Kentucky also had a touchdown pass called back by a penalty.

The LSU Game

(Attendance 58,450)

For the second week in a row a wet field and an opposing tailback stung the Cats, as the LSU Tigers handed Kentucky a 63-28 defeat.

Tiger tailback Kevin Faulk rushed for 212 yards and five touchdowns in a shootout at Commonwealth Stadium. The matchup seemed even at halftime, with UK clinging to a 21-20 lead, but LSU brought out the big guns for the second half, outscoring the Cats 43-7 over the final two periods.

As UK marched down the field to begin the second stanza, the Cats seemed poised for another SEC upset. LSU quickly turned the tables, however, as Tiger linebacker Joe Wesley forced a fumble at the LSU 22. LSU took the ball down the field for a touchdown and two-point conversion, and the Tigers led 28-21. The next two UK possessions also ended in turnovers, and LSU converted both into scores, pushing the lead to 42-21.

UK closed out the third quarter with an 8-yard TD toss from Couch to Kevin Coleman, but LSU pulled away with three fourth-quarter touchdowns.

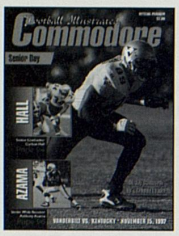
The Vanderbilt Game

(Attendance 40,256)



In a game that pitted the SEC's No. 1 offense versus its No. 1 defense, the University of Kentucky pulled out a 21-10 victory over perennial nemesis Vanderbilt in Nashville.

Blustery conditions hampered the Cat attack until midway through the second quarter, when Couch hit Craig Yeast for a 25-yard touchdown. The Cats kept the 7-0 lead until the start of the second half, when Vandy took the kickoff and worked its way down field for a 37-yard John Markham field goal, bringing Vandy within four. Quick to the rescue was Yeast, who took the ensuing kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown. The score stretched the lead to 14-3, but Vandy scratched back with a 55-yard scoring strike from Damian Allen to Tavarus Hogans.

The score remained 14-10 until, with 8:12 left in the fourth, UK strong safety Tremayne Martin recovered a Vandy fumble at the VU 40. With any remaining UK bowl hopes hanging in the balance, the Cats turned to Derek Homer, who responded by breaking two Commodore tackles and sprinting 31 yards for the final score.

Kentucky posted its best defensive effort of the season in a conference game, limiting Vanderbilt to 10 points and 262 yards. The Wildcats forced five turnovers, including two interceptions and a fumble recovery by Tremayne Martin.

The Tennessee Game

(Attendance 61,076)

A new Commonwealth Stadium record crowd of 61,076 looked on as UK's upset bid and bowl hopes came up short, dropping a 59-31 decision to the Tennessee Volunteers. It was definitely a day for offense, as the teams combined for 1,329 total yards.

Two Heisman contenders, Tim Couch and Peyton Manning, put on an exciting aerial exhibition, as the two combined to throw for 999 yards. Couch's showing was an impressive one, completing 35-of-50 passes for 476 yards and two scores, but fell short of Manning's display, as the NFL's No.1 draft pick threw for a whopping 523 yards and five TDs.

The Cats struck first, with Couch hitting Derek Homer for a 37-yard score, but Tennessee rallied, taking a 17-7 lead at the end of the opening quarter. UK outscored UT 14-7 in the second quarter, a comeback highlighted by Kio Sanford's ESPY-nominated 87-yard touchdown scramble. Tennessee held a 24-21 halftime lead, and pulled away in the second half.

Tennessee running back Jamal Lewis' two fourth-quarter touchdowns closed out the Cats' season and helped the Volunteers keep the Beer Barrel in Knoxville.

A pioneer in the integration of higher education and athletic competition, the Southeastern Conference stands ready to advance intercollegiate athletics into the 21st century.

Throughout its 65-year history, the SEC has provided leadership on the vital issues facing intercollegiate competition. In 1993, the member institutions adopted The Principles of Gender Equity. Committed to increasing the quantity and quality of women's athletic opportunities, each school will provide at least two more women's intercollegiate programs than the number of men's.

Faced with the task of conference realignment after competing with 10 members since 1966, the SEC welcomed the University of Arkansas on Aug. 1, 1990, and the University of South Carolina on Sept. 25, 1990. Joining charter members Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Tennessee and Vanderbilt, on July 1, 1991, Arkansas and South Carolina became the first schools added in conference history.

SEC schools began athletic competition with one another over 100 years ago as members of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. Seven institutions (Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, Sewanee and Vanderbilt) attended the SIAA organizational meeting of faculty representatives, called by Dr. William L. Dudley of Vanderbilt, in Atlanta Dec. 22, 1894.

Kentucky joined the SIAA in 1895. By 1920, the SIAA had 30 members and the larger schools, including Kentucky, reorganized as the 14-member Southern Conference. By 1928, the SC grew to 23 members and realignment occurred again.

The 13 members west and south of the Appalachian Mountains reorganized as the Southeastern Conference at the annual SC meeting of Dec. 8-9, 1932, in Knoxville. The 10 coast members remained in the Southern Conference. Dr. Frank L. McVey of Kentucky was elected president of the new conference whose charter members were: Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Louisiana State, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt. (Sewanee withdrew Dec. 13, 1940, Georgia Tech on June 1, 1964, and Tulane on June 1, 1966.) McVey held an informal meeting of the school presidents in Birmingham Feb. 10, 1933, then the first full meeting in Atlanta Feb. 27.

The office of the commissioner was formed in 1940 in Jackson due to the great amount of detail work developing, especially in recruiting and eligibility. Former Mississippi Governor Martin S. Connor took office as commissioner Aug. 21, 1940. Connor later became ill and the secretary of the conference, Dean N.W. Dougherty of Tennessee, served as acting commissioner during the fall of 1946.

The office moved to Birmingham with the appointment of Bernie H. Moore as the second full-time commissioner on Feb. 21, 1948. Moore, a former LSU coach, guided the SEC to national respect in his 18-year tenure.

A.M. (Tonto) Coleman succeeded Moore upon his retirement April 1, 1966. The Alabama native, who was reared in Texas and experienced in athletic coaching and administration, served six and a half years.

Dr. H. Boyd McWhorter, then Dean of Arts and Sciences at Georgia and secretary of the league since 1967, accepted the position upon retirement of Coleman Aug. 1, 1972. Under his leadership the SEC experienced unparalleled growth. In McWhorter's first year the SEC distributed $1.57 million and 14 years later (1986) the league distributed $15 million in revenue to the member institutions.

Dr. Harvey W. Schiller, an Air Force colonel and faculty chair at the U.S. Air Force Academy, followed McWhorter upon retirement, taking office Sept. 15, 1986.

Roy F. Kramer succeeded Schiller on Jan. 10, 1990. Kramer, who has served on numerous NCAA committees, joined the league office after spending 12 years as athletic director at Vanderbilt.

The first SEC champions were crowned in 1933 in baseball, basketball, football and outdoor track. The leagues inaugural championship event was a basketball tournament in Atlanta Feb. 24-28, 1933. Records show the first men's team title for cross country was awarded in 1935, while golf and swimming were added in 1937. The league later began hosting championships in tennis (1938) and indoor track (1957).

In the 1979-80 academic year SEC championships for women were recognized in basketball, tennis and volleyball. The following year golf, gymnastics, swimming and track and field were added. Soccer was added in 1993 and softball began in 1997. The administration of women's athletics officially came under the auspices of the conference office on Sept. 1, 1984.

The SEC currently regulates nine men's sports and 11 women's sports: Men - baseball, basketball, football, golf, swimming, tennis and track (cross country, indoor and outdoor). Women's - basketball, golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis, track (cross country, indoor and outdoor) and volleyball.

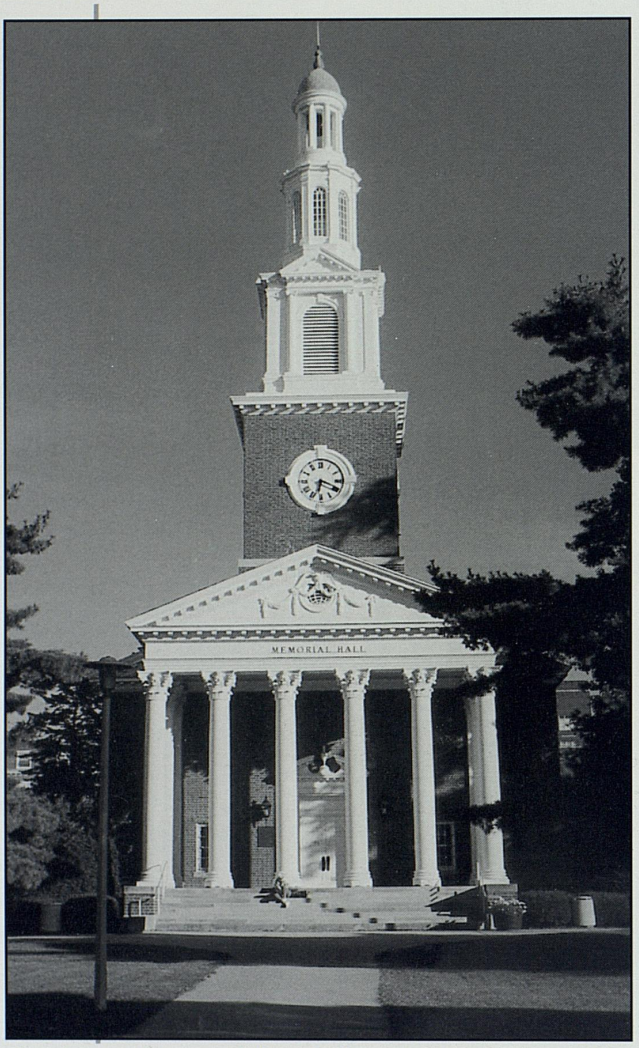
The University of Kentucky has opened the $58 million William T. Young Library. The UK Athletics Department is contributing $3.2 million a year toward paying off the library.

The University

The University of Kentucky

A Tradition of Value



The University of Kentucky was founded in 1865 as a land-grant institution, and the present name dates to 1916.

The campus in Lexington has 673 acres and is located just south of downtown. It consists of a graduate school, the University hospital and 16 colleges. The colleges are: allied health professions, architecture, arts and sciences, agriculture, business and economics, communications and information studies, dentistry, engineering, education, fine arts, human environmental sciences, law, medicine, nursing, pharmacy and social work. The graduate school offers 97 master's degree programs and 59 doctoral programs.

Enrollment on the campus in Lexington is more than 24,000 and includes students from every Kentucky county, every state, and more than 100 foreign countries. Full-time faculty numbers 1,796. Approximately 98 percent of the full-time faculty hold the highest possible degrees in their field. UK's faculty and staff attract more than $120 million annually in grants, gifts and contracts; and the University has been designated a Research University of the First Class by the Carnegie Foundation — one of just 59 such public universities in the country.

The University attracts excellent students. The number of National Merit Scholars entering UK consistently ranks among the top 20 public universities in the country. The average ACT score for first-year students is four points above the national average.

The number of UK alumni is more than 160,000. Private support from alumni and friends of the University exceeds $40 million annually.

The new William T. Young is a library of tomorrow for Kentuckians of today. The $58 million structure is a repository of knowledge as well as a symbol of the University's commitment to academic excellence. It is a building that appeals to the eye and the intellect.

"Public buildings, especially libraries, should be something above the ordinary," says President Charles T. Wethington, Jr,. "We wanted this building to make a statement about the importance of a library. I feel we have done that."

This library, he adds, is a symbol to our students and faculty, now and later, and to all Kentuckians that academic excellence is our top priority, and that we "are committed to becoming one of the nation's top 20 public research universities."

In addition, UK maintains 23 research centers which conduct applied research in areas as diverse as tobacco and health, aging, cancer, toxicology, equine health, mineral production, manufacturing systems, and public policy.

Several excel in the services offered to the public. The Center for Manufacturing Systems has assisted more than 500 small and mid-sized industrial firms in Kentucky. The Gluck Equine Research Center is recognized as one of only two of its kind in the world, offering continuing research into diseases of the horse.

The UK College of Medicine is consistenly ranked among the top schools nationally in the quality of primary care training. The UK College of Pharmacy is ranked third in the country by U.S. News and World Report and is one of the few pharmacy schools in the country with the capability of developing a drug "from bench to bedside" due to its drug product evaluation unit.

The University is in the process of developing the Coldstream Research Campus, a 750-acre complex designed to attract high-tech companies desiring ties to the University. Negotiations are under way to execute leases with developers to construct several new commercial facilities on the research campus.

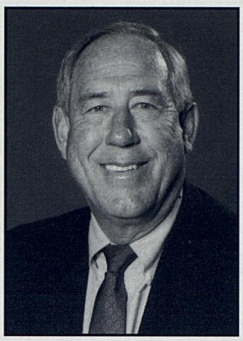
C.M. Newton

UK Director of Athletics



The 1997-98 school year marked yet another year of achievement for C. M. Newton, Director of Athletics at the University of Kentucky.

Newton's hiring of Hal Mumme, and the exciting play of the Wildcats, unleashed a lightning bolt of enthusiasm for the UK football program. As chairman of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament Committee, he had the pleasure of handing the 1998 championship trophy to Tubby Smith, Newton's hand-picked successor to Rick Pitino. And, Newton's financial acumen has made it possible for the UK Athletics Association to assume financial responsibility for paying the $3 million a year necessary to retire the construction bonds of UK's new William T. Young Library.

Hired on April 1, 1989, Newton had a lengthy, impressive list of credentials and brought a sparkling reputation for integrity at a crucial time in the history of UK athletics.

In accepting the position, Newton outlined his goals by saying, "I have a resolve to try very hard to continue that great tradition, and at the same time, to do it totally within the NCAA and SEC rules and not sacrifice the academic integrity of this University."

Newton's term of service has been marked by athletic and academic achievement, dedication to rules compliance, the addition of three sports, expansion of facilities, and growth in revenues in response to the increasing financial pressures of collegiate athletics.

Newton came to UK after an illustrious basketball coaching career. In his last two seasons (1988 and 1989), he was named SEC Coach of the Year while leading Vanderbilt to a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances. He was also chosen the Kodak NABC District IV Coach of the Year in 1989. Newton was the head basketball coach and associate athletics director at Vanderbilt from 1982-89, compiling a 129-115 record. In 32 years of coaching at Transylvania, Alabama, and Vanderbilt, Newton compiled a 509-375 record. His Alabama teams won three consecutive Southeastern Conference championships.

Just as impressive was Newton's ability to produce winning teams that also possessed exceptional academic credentials. During Newton's tenure at Vanderbilt, 18 Commodores were named to the Academic All-SEC team, over 50 percent more than any other league school. In addition, all 21 of his seniors earned their diplomas.

Newton is highly regarded on the national level. He served 11 years on the board of directors of the National Association of Basketball Coaches. He worked six years on the NCAA Basketball Rules Committee, serving as chair of that elite group for five of those years. He was president of USA Basketball, the nation's governing body for all international basketball, from 1992-96. He is also a member of the prestigious NCAA Division I Basketball Committee and became chair of that group in 1997-98. He is a member (and former chair) of the NCAA Committee on Basketball Issues.

Newton is prominent in international basketball circles as well. Currently, he represents North America on the 14-member FIBA Central Board. FIBA is the governing body for international basketball. He is a member of the COPABA Executive Board, which oversees international basketball in North, Central, and South America.

Newton also has international coaching accomplishments. He served as team manager, a combination coaching and administrative position, on the 1984 U.S. Olympic team that won the gold medal. Indiana coach Bob Knight, who tabbed Newton for the Olympic staff, called him "the finest gentleman in our business." In 1983 and 1987, Newton took his Vanderbilt squads to the Republic of China (Taiwan) to represent the United States in the R. William Jones Cup International Tournament, winning the gold medal in 1983 and the silver in 1987. He has also conducted coaching clinics in numerous countries.

In 1997, Newton was given the John Bunn Award by the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. The award recognized Newton for his lifetime of contributions to the sport, and is the highest honor given by the Hall of Fame other than induction.

Newton began his coaching career at Transylvania College (now Transylvania University) in Lexington. Recommended for the job by Coach Rupp, Newton guided Transy to a 169-137 record in his 12 years at the helm despite the handicap of a limited scholarship program.

In 1969, once again with the backing of Rupp, Newton answered a call from Paul "Bear" Bryant to take on the challenge of building the downtrodden Alabama basketball program. During his 12-year tenure, Newton orchestrated a complete turnaround in the Crimson Tide's basketball fortunes, compiling a sparkling 211- 123 record. In addition to the three SEC championships, Newton guided the Tide to two trips to the NCAA Tournament and four berths in the NIT. A satisfied Bryant once remarked "C. M. Newton is a winner, and that's important, but more than anything else, he wins or loses with class, and that's more important."

With few horizons left to conquer at Alabama, Newton resigned at the end of the 1980 season to accept a job as assistant commissioner of the Southeastern Conference. A year later, when Vanderbilt athletics director Roy Kramer was searching for a coach of national stature to head the Commodore basketball program, Newton was the obvious man for the job.

Newton was born Feb. 2, 1930, in Rockwood, Tenn. He grew up in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., where he was eventually named a charter member of that city's Sports Hall of Fame, along with Chris Evert, Julius Boros, and the late Brian Piccolo. After high school, Newton enrolled at UK on a basketball scholarship. He was a letterman on the Wildcats' 1951 national championship team. Also a standout baseball pitcher, Newton hurled in the New York Yankees minor league system before entering college coaching.

Newton and his wife, Evelyn, have three grown children — son Martin, and daughters Deborah and Tracy — and five grandchildren.

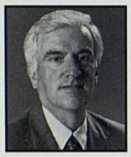
Administrative Staff

University of Kentucky Athletics Association



Larry Ivy

Senior Associate Director of Athletics

One needs only to look at the 1995 NCAA Convention to understand the high level of respect earned by Larry Ivy, Senior Associate Athletics Director at the University of Kentucky.

At the convention, Ivy was named the 1994 NCAA Business Manager of the Year. The award is the highest and most prestigious honor given by the College Athletic Business Managers of America (CABMA). The recipient of the annual award is selected by a vote of the CABMA membership from nominations submitted by more than 600 NCAA member institutions. The award serves as national recognition for Ivy's astute performance in managing the finances of the University of Kentucky Athletics Association (UKAA).

The talented Ivy, however, does much more in addition to his fiscal duties. As Senior Associate Athletics Director, Ivy serves in the absence of the Athletics Director in the day-to-day operation of the Athletics Association. He has daily responsibilities for the football and men's basketball programs as well as responsibility for operation of the ticket office, accounting, purchasing, data processing, facilities, maintenance, and grounds. In addition to those duties, Ivy is the game management director for all UK home football and basketball games. He has served as tournament manager for nine rounds of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament held in Lexington, including the 1985 Final Four, and for three Southeastern Conference Men's Basketball Tournaments. He currently serves as chair of SEC Men's Basketball Tournament Ticket Committee.

Now in his 22nd year with the Athletics Association, Ivy was named Senior Associate Athletics Director in 1993 after being promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Internal Affairs in 1989. He had served as Assistant AD for 13 years after joining the UKAA staff in 1976. Ivy came to the University of Kentucky in 1969 as Director of Student Housing, moving from the University of Alabama.

A native of Huntsville, Ala., Ivy earned his undergraduate degree (1967) and master's in business administration (1968) from the University of Alabama.

He is married to the former Dorene Manchester of Paducah, Ky. They have one daughter, Kim Ivy, and one son, Rob Manchester.

Kathleen DeBoer

Associate Director of Athletics/ Senior Women's Administrator

Kathleen DeBoer, who is in her 14th year at the University of Kentucky, was promoted to Associate Director of Athletics in 1993.

DeBoer is the director of the Athletics Association's Blue and White Fund and supervises the fundraising and development activities of the department. She has been instrumental in raising funds for UK's recently completed softball/soccer complex, and the expansion of the Ohio Casualty Center for Academic and Tutorial Services. DeBoer is also in charge of personnel matters for the Athletics Association and acts as the department liasion with Alumni Affairs and University Development.

In 1997 she was appointed as the Southeastern Conference representative to the NCAA Budget and Finance Cabinet, where she serves on the administrative committee and chairs the finance committee.

Prior to her promotion, DeBoer was the Assistant Athletics Director for UK's non-revenue sports and the women's volleyball coach. In her nine seasons with the volleyball team, DeBoer led her Wildcats to an impressive 212-96 record, including three Southeastern Conference titles, two SEC Tournament championships, and the 1991 National Invitational Volleyball Tournament championship. DeBoer, the 1987 Tachikara National Coach of the Year, took UK to the Final Eight in 1987 and the NCAA Final 16 in 1988, 1990 and 1992. Several of her assistants moved on to head coaching positions at other Division I schools, including Mary Wise at Florida, Sharon Dingman at Butler, and Nona Richardson at Valparaiso University.

DeBoer spent four seasons as volleyball coach at Ferris State University prior to coming to UK. She led Ferris State to a pair of Great Lakes Conference championships. She was an advisor to the 1996 U.S. Olympics Volleyball Team and chaired the search committee for the 2000 Olympic Games coach.

DeBoer is also active on the UK campus. She has served the honorary chair for the United Way campaign and is a popular speaker at conferences and awards programs.

DeBoer received her bachelor's degree from Michigan State in 1978 and her MBA from Kentucky in 1988.

Bob Bradley

Associate Director of Athletics/ Student Services

Bob Bradley was promoted to Associate Athletics Director in the summer of 1997.

As Assistant Athletics Director for Student Services for the past 20 years, Bradley has managed the daily operations of the Athletics Department's academic-athletics advising program.

During his tenure as Assistant Athletics Director, Bradley oversaw the opening of the Center for Academic and Tutorial Services (CATS) in 1981, the first academic center for student-athletes in the nation. Under Bradley's direction, many UK student-athletes have been honored for their academic achievements, both on conference and national levels. In 1989, UK won the College Football Association's (CFA) prestigious academic achievement award, given to the university with the highest graduation rate among its football players.

Bradley is a past president of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics (N4A) and currently serves on the executive board of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS), a division of the Center for the Study of Sport in Society. Bradley has twice been honored as "Academic Advisor of the Year," once in 1989 by the College Football Association and again in 1992 by the N4A.

Thanks to a one million dollar donation from the Ohio Casualty Insurance Group, UK opened a new academic center for student-athletes in 1998, continuing the University's national prominence as a university that places the student-athlete at the heart of the program. In addition, UK has been selected as a regional site for the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS). Bradley serves as the Director of the new NCAS Regional Office.

As Associate Athletics Director, Bradley will also supervise the career development program, develop a sports counseling program, implement life skills programs for student-athletes and assist in departmental fundraising activities.

Bradley is a former high school English teacher, counselor and coach. He and his wife Robin have a newborn son, Rob.

Sandy Bell

Assistant Director of Athletics/Compliance

Sandy Bell was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Compliance in the summer of 1996.

As Asst. AD for Compliance, Bell is responsible for ensuring that University of Kentucky coaches and athletes adhere to National Collegiate Athletic Association and Southeastern Conference rules and regulations. Bell monitors recruitment, eligibility, financial aid, awards, and benefits. She also serves as UK's principal contact with the NCAA Initial Eligibility Clearinghouse.

In addition to her duties in athletics, Bell also served as the campus liaison to the NCAA Division I Certification Steering Committee that was completed in 1997.

Bell is in her ninth year with the UK Athletics Association. She joined the UK staff in 1989 as Compliance Coordinator. She was promoted to Director of Compliance in 1993 before being elevated to her present position.

Prior to coming to UK, Bell served as the Director of Guidance at Hendersonville (Tenn.) High School. She has taught algebra, geometry, and trigonometry at the high school and collegiate levels.

A native of Lexington, Bell received her bachelor's degree in mathematics from George Peabody College in Nashville and her master's degree in educational psychology from Middle Tennessee State University.

Sandy is married to Stuart Bell and has two daughters, Deana and Lori.

John Cropp

Assistant Director of Athletics/ Non-Revenue Sports

John Cropp is in his eighth year at the University of Kentucky and his 23rd overall involving collegiate athletics.

As Assistant Athletics Director for Non-Revenue Sports, Cropp oversees the administration of 15 of UK's 22 athletic teams. He assumed his current position in April, 1995, after having served previously as Assistant AD for Special Projects (1994-95), Athletics Recruiting Coord-inator (1992-93), and Assistant Football Coach (1991).

For the first 22 years of Cropp's athletics career he was involved in coaching football. His first head coaching position came at Tennessee High School in Bristol, Tenn. Cropp's squads compiled an impressive 48-15-3 record with two state AAA titles (1971-72) and the '72 mythical national championship.

Cropp returned to his alma mater, Vanderbilt, in 1973 as an assistant coach under Steve Sloan. He followed Sloan as an assistant to Texas Tech (1975-77), Ole Miss (1978-82) and Duke (1983). In 1984, Cropp returned to Vanderbilt under head coach George MacIntyre. He entered private business for two years (1986-87) before returning to Vanderbilt for a third time. Cropp served as Assistant Athletics Director for Compliance at Vanderbilt for three years before coming to Kentucky.

Cropp earned three varsity letters at Vanderbilt as a guard/linebacker. He received the Wade-Looney Memorial Award as a senior and graduated in 1961. He earned his Masters of Arts in teaching in 1962.

Cropp and his wife, Mary Ann, have two grown children, Karen and David.

Alvis Johnson

Assistant Director of Athletics/ Administration

Alvis Johnson became UK's Assistant Athletics Director for Administration on July 1, 1998.

Johnson's four primary duties include: planning, implementing, and monitoring student-athlete employment under the new guidelines approved by the NCAA; working with the student body to promote student attendance at all sports; supervising the use of the 40 suites that will be part of the Commonwealth Stadium expansion; and assisting with, and eventually assuming responsibility for, the administration of the athletics department's contract with Nike.

Johnson came to UK from Harrodsburg (Ky.) High School, where he handled multiple responsibilities as director of athletics, football head coach, track head coach, and social studies teacher from 1973-98. He had a 194-77 record as head football coach, compiling a winning percentage of 71.6 percent. His teams won several district and regional titles and were runners-up in three state championship games. Johnson's track teams won six state championships, were runners-up twice, and his individual performers won 48 state titles.

Johnson won numerous Coach of the Year honors, including state Coach of the Year in football and track. Among his many honors is the Distinguished Service Award for Amateur Football, given by the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame in 1994.

In his work as athletics director, Johnson was highly active in national and state governing bodies. Among others, his extensive administrative experiences included being president of the Kentucky High School Athletics Association Board of Control; chairman of the KHSAA executive committee; member of the National Federation of State High School Associations Board of Control; president of the National Federation; and member of two NCAA/high school joint committees.

Johnson's classroom work also was recognized when he was a finalist for the National Teacher of the Year in 1996. Prior to his stint at Harrodsburg, Johnson taught and coached football, track, and wrestling for three years at Christian County (Ky.) High School. Johnson holds bachelor's and master's degrees from Western Kentucky University.

Alvis and his wife, Rosetta, have two sons - Derrick, a redshirt freshman defensive lineman on the UK football team; and Dennis, who will be a freshman defensive end/linebacker with the Wildcats in the fall of 1998.

Kyle Moats

Assistant Director of Athletics/Marketing

As Assistant Athletics Director for Marketing, Moats is responsible for marketing, promotions, licensing, and corporate partnerships for the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

Moats is in his 10th year at the UKAA. He joined the staff in 1989 as the first graduate assistant in UK's athletics administration. In 1991, he was promoted to Coordinator of Promotions and Special Events. In 1993, he was named Director of Marketing, Promotions, and Licensing and was promoted to Asst. AD for Marketing in 1996. Under Moats' guidance, licensing revenues for the University increased to $2.4 million in 1996-97 and are expected to approach $3.0 million when the final tallies for 1997-98 are available.

Moats also is actively involved in game management at many UK athletics events. He served as Tournament Manager for the 1996 and 1998 NCAA Men's Basketball Regional championships in Lexington.

A native of Dixon, Ill., Moats is a 1988 graduate of Southern Illinois with a bachelor's degree in physical education. He is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators.

Moats and wife Leeann have two children, Kirk and Lauren.

Russ Pear

Assistant Director of Athletics/Facilities

Russ Pear was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Facilities in the summer of 1998.

Pear, entering his seventh year with the athletics department, was the Director of Intramurals from 1978-82 and then the Associate Director of Campus Recreation from 1982-92. He served as the Facilities Coordinator for the University of Kentucky Athletics Association from 1992-1998.

His responsibilities include supervision for planning, maintenance, renovation, future construction and operation of all UKAA facilities. Currently, he is overseeing the $24 million expansion and renovation of Commonwealth Stadium.

Pear has coordinated the construction of the Nutter Field House, soccer/softball stadium, the Hilary J. Boone outdoor tennis stadium, the Ohio Casualty Center for Academic and Tutorial Services and the renovation of the Shively Track field event areas.

Pear earned a bachelor's degree in education from Northern Illinois in 1976 and a master's degree in education from Colorado State in 1977.

Pear and his wife Kathy have two children — Leah (13) and Clay (10).

Rena Vicini

Assistant Director of Athletics/ Media Relations

Rena Vicini enters her 18th year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association. She was named Assistant Athletics Director for Media Relations on June 11, 1993, replacing Chris Cameron.

Vicini, a native of Lynch, directs all public relations efforts for UK's 22 varsity men's and women's sports. She had served as Associate Director for Communications at UK since July, 1991.

Through the years, Vicini has won numerous awards in publications contests sponsored by the College Sports Information Directors of America. In 1994, she authored a national-selling true crime book. She also taught a class at UK on sports media relations in the spring semester of 1996.

She worked as a sportswriter and reporter before joining the UK staff in 1981. Vicini, a 1977 graduate of Kentucky, worked as a reporter for the Harlan Daily Enterprise, as a sportswriter for the Louisville Courier-Journal, and as a sportswriter/columnist for the Lexington Herald-Leader.

Vicini came to the UK Athletics Association in 1981 as Assistant Sports Information Director under then-SID Russell Rice. She had worked as Assistant SID until the promotion to Associate SID in 1991.

Frank Ham

Special Assistant to the Athletics Director

Frank Ham joined the University of Kentucky Athletics Association in 1968 and now works as Special Assistant to the Athletics Director. He handles requests from charitable organizations and assists with preparations for the annual Football Kickoff Banquet. In his tenure at UK, Ham has served in various positions, including a stint as assistant athletics director from 1975-86.

A native of Scranton, Pa., Ham graduated from Olivet College and did graduate work at Indiana University. He coached high school football and track in South Bend, Ind., before returning to Olivet as athletics director, head football coach, and head basketball coach from 1947-52. He entered private business in 1954 before returning to athletics in 1968.

Ham resides in Lexington and has two grown sons, Michael and Craig, and two grown daughters, Sue Ann and Jennifer.

Micki King

Special Assistant to the Athletics Director

Micki King enters her sixth year with the UK Athletics Association. Since being named Special Assistant to the Athletics Director in 1992, King has overseen the men's and women's swimming and diving teams, men's and women's tennis teams, rifle team, and cheerleading and pom squads.

A native of Pontiac, Mich., King served 26 years in the United States Air Force before retiring with the rank of colonel in 1992. During her years of service, King saw assignments in Michigan, California, Washington, Colorado, Kentucky, and Germany. In fact, in 1973, King was the first woman to teach physical education at a military academy when she served at the United States Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs.

Prior to her military service, King was an accomplished diver. She graduated from the University of Michigan in 1966, where she was coached by five-time U.S. Olympic coach Dick Kimball. King was the 1972 springboard diving Olympic gold medalist and also participated in the 1968 Summer Games, where she finished fourth. In her decorated career, King also competed in two Pan American Games and won international diving titles in 15 countries. She is an inductee in seven Halls of Fame, including the prestigious United States Olympic Hall of Fame.

After her diving career, King turned to coaching and served at the Air Force Academy from 1973-77 before taking a leave to work as a commentator for NBC Sports. King returned to the Academy in 1983 and was named assistant athletics director and diving coach. During this stint, she was named NCAA Division II coach of the year three times. Under King's tutelage, 11 divers were honored as All-Americans and two claimed national titles. In 1988, King traveled to the Seoul Games as a staff member of the U.S. Olympic diving team, and later served in the same capacity at the Centennial Olympic Games in Atlanta.

King resides in Lexington and has two children, Michelle and Kevin.

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

From UK's first All-American, Clyde Johnson, to its most recent, Mike Pfeifer; from Professor A.M. Miller to Hal Mumme; from old Stoll Field to modern Commonwealth Stadium; from the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association to the Southeastern Conference; and with all the ensuing changes, Kentucky football holds a unique and storied tradition that began in 1881.

UK football holds a captivating list of firsts: UK was the first Southeastern Conference team to introduce football, which it did in 1881; UK played in the first and only Great Lakes Bowl in 1947, defeating Villanova, 24-14; Kentucky tackle Bob Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy, making him the first player from the SEC to claim the honor; the Wildcats' Nat Northington was the first African-American player to sign with a Southeastern Conference institution and the first to play in a league contest – vs. Ole Miss in 1967. And in 1989, UK became the first SEC school to win the coveted College Football Association Academic Achievement Award for highest graduation rate.

In 107 seasons, Kentucky has participated in 1025 contests and owns 504 wins, 477 losses and 44 ties. The 504 victories rank 41st among Division 1-A programs in most wins. UK's overall winning percentage is .513.

Kentucky football has won two Southeastern Conference championships and appeared in eight bowls, claiming the CFA Academic Achievement Award on May 8, 1989. The Wildcats owned a graduation rate of 90 percent after 18 of 20 of their 1983 incoming freshman signees left UK with a diploma.

UK football has had 12 National Football League first-round draft choices, one Outland Trophy winner, 18 first-team All-Americans, five Academic All-Americans, 51 first-team All-SEC players and 202 Academic All-SEC selections.

Kentucky football got its start on Nov. 12, 1881. Kentucky, known in those days as A&M College, Kentucky State College and/or State University of Kentucky, defeated Kentucky University by the clumsy score of 7 1/4 to 1. The game of football resembled more of a rugby form and the scoring procedure is still unclear. Though football came to Kentucky in 1881, it quickly vanished after the three-game season. UK finished 1-2 in the inaugural campaign, but the lid was shut on UK football for the next nine seasons.

Football returned to the University of Kentucky in 1891, when UK defeated Georgetown College, 8-2, on April 10, 1891. The sport would not again be interrupted until the 1943 season because of World War II.

The first known head football coach at Kentucky was Professor A.M. Miller, a Princeton graduate. Miller began the 1892 season as head coach and led UK to a 2-2-1 ledger through five games. He was replaced by John A. Thompson at the conclusion of the 1892 campaign.

Some successful years in the early 1900s dot the UK record book. Kentucky finished 7-1 in 1903 under Coach C.A. Wright; 9-1 in 1904 under Coach F.E. Schact; 9-1-1 in 1907 with Coach J. White Guyn, and 9-1 in 1909 under E.R. Sweetland.

The greatest UK team of that era was the 1898 squad, known simply to Kentuckians as "The Immortals." To this day, the Immortals remain the only undefeated, untied, and unscored upon team in UK football history. The Immortals were coached by W.R. Bass and ended the year a perfect 7-0-0, despite an average weight of 147 pounds per player. Victories came easy for this squad, as the Immortals raced by Kentucky University (18-0), Georgetown (28-0), Company H of the 8th Massachusetts (59-0), Louisville Athletic Club (16-0), Centre (6-0), 160th Indiana (17-0) and Newcastle Athletic Club (36-0).

Besides Bass, two of the most successful coaches in the early stages of UK football were E.R. Sweetland and Harry Gamage. Sweetland compiled a 23-5 mark in three seasons (1909-10, 12). His best year was 9-1 in '09. Gamage, on the other hand, had the longest tenure of any head coach during the first 43 years of Kentucky football. Gamage took the reigns of the UK program in 1927 and remained until following the 1933 campaign. In between, Gamage led the Wildcats to a combined 32-25-5 record. His best season was 6-1-1 in '29.

One of Gamage's brightest moments came during the 1930 season. During the 57-0 blanking of Maryville, UK running back Shipwreck Kelly rushed for a school-record 280 yards in leading the Cats.

More than a decade after Gamage had left UK, a young man by the name of Paul "Bear" Bryant arrived on the scene at Lexington in 1946. Bryant quickly grabbed the UK program by the collar and turned the Cats into a national power.

Bryant took UK to eight consecutive winning seasons (1946-53) and helped the Wildcats claim their first Southeastern Conference championship in 1950. He also sent UK squads to four bowl games which included the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl, 1950 Orange Bowl, 1951 Sugar Bowl, and the 1952 Cotton Bowl.

The biggest win in UK football history came under Bryant. After leading Kentucky to its first SEC title and a 10-1 regular-season record, UK found itself matched with national champion Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl. The Wildcats scored early and held off the Sooners, 13-7, breaking Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak which is currently the seventh-longest in NCAA history.

Coach Bryant led UK to eight consecutive winning seasons and four bowl games.

Also under Bryant, tackle Bob Gain became the first UK and SEC player to win the Outland Trophy in 1950. Other standouts in the Bryant era included George Blanda, All-American Babe Parilli, and eventual UK coach Jerry Claiborne.

Bryant left Kentucky following the 1953 season. He compiled an impressive 60-23-5 record in eight years. Bryant's 60 victoriesare still a UK football record for head coaches.

Blanton Collier had the uneasy task of following in Bryant's footsteps. Collier took over the Kentucky football program in 1954 and promptly led the Wildcats to a 7-3 record during his initial campaign.

Collier stayed eight years at UK as well, etching a 41-36-3 record from 1954 to 1961. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his 5-2-1 record against arch-rival Tennessee. He coached All-Americans Lou Michaels (1957-58) and Howard Schnellenberger (1955) at UK Charlie Bradshaw became the head mentor at UK in time for the 1962 season. Bradshaw, a UK graduate who lettered four years (1946-49), managed only a 25-41-4 record in seven seasons. One highlight of his coaching career featured an upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss early in the 1964 season. Bradshaw's Cats held off the Rebels, 27-21, in Memorial Stadium at Jackson, Miss., and ranks as one of UK's all-time biggest victories.

John Ray entered the scene in 1969 as head coach. In four years, Ray was 10-33. His biggest win came during his first year as Kentucky again victimized Ole Miss and Archie Manning. The Cats upset the Rebels, 10-9, at Lexington.

The Fran Curci era began in 1973, the same year Kentucky moved from ancient Stoll Field/McLean Stadium to spacious Commonwealth Stadium. Though Curci had only one winning campaign during his first three years, things got interesting beginning with the 1976 season. UK ended the '76 year with an 8-3 record and its second SEC championship.

Kentucky helped secure its second league title on the strength of a 62-yard touchdown pass from Derrick Ramsey to Greg Woods to beat Tennessee, 7-0, at Knoxville, Tenn. The victory clinched a berth in the Peach Bowl against North Carolina, UK's first postseason appearance in 25 years. Before a UK contingent estimated at 25,000, the Cats blanked the Tar Heels, 21-0.

The following year, Kentucky went on NCAA probation. Despite an early season loss at Baylor, the Wildcats rolled to an impressive 10-1 record doing it the hard way. Kentucky defeated Penn State (24-20) at University Park, Pa., defeated LSU (33-13) at Baton Rouge, La., blanked Georgia (33-0) at Athens, Ga., beat Florida (14-7) at Gainesville, Fla., and defeated Tennessee (21-17) at Lexington.

In the Curci era, players like Sonny Collins (UK career leader with 3,835 yards rushing), All-Americans Warren Bryant and Art Still and multi-talented Derrick Ramsey, wore the blue and white.

Curci stepped down following the 1981 season. In all, Curci worked nine years as UK head coach (longest of any UK football coach) and was 47-51-2 overall.

Jerry Claiborne answered the call of his alma mater in December of 1981 and was named the school's 31st head football coach. Claiborne had played at UK from 1946-49 and was an assistant coach under Bryant at UK in 1952-53.

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

His first campaign, 1982, was murderous from a schedule standpoint. The '82 UK schedule was rated as the nation's second-toughest and featured the likes of Oklahoma, Clemson, Auburn, LSU, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Kansas and Kansas State. The Cats were caught in the process of rebuilding and stumbled to an 0-10-1 record.

The winless mark would not deter Claiborne, however. In fact, his 1983 squad tied for the nation's most improved program with a regular-season record of 6-4-1. As a reward, the Hall of Fame Bowl offered an invitation and UK accepted to give the Cats their sixth bowl appearance.

Kentucky improved in 1984, finishing with a 9-3 record which included a thrilling 20-19 victory over Wisconsin in the '84 Hall of Fame Bowl. The nine victories were the most by a UK squad since the 1977 season.

After the '84 campaign, Kentucky strung together 5-6, 5-5-1, 5-6, 5-6, and 6-5 records to close out Claiborne's career. He stepped down with a 41-46-3 record in eight seasons at UK. Claiborne and Bryant, to this date, ended their careers as the only two coaches to win at least five games in seven consecutive seasons.

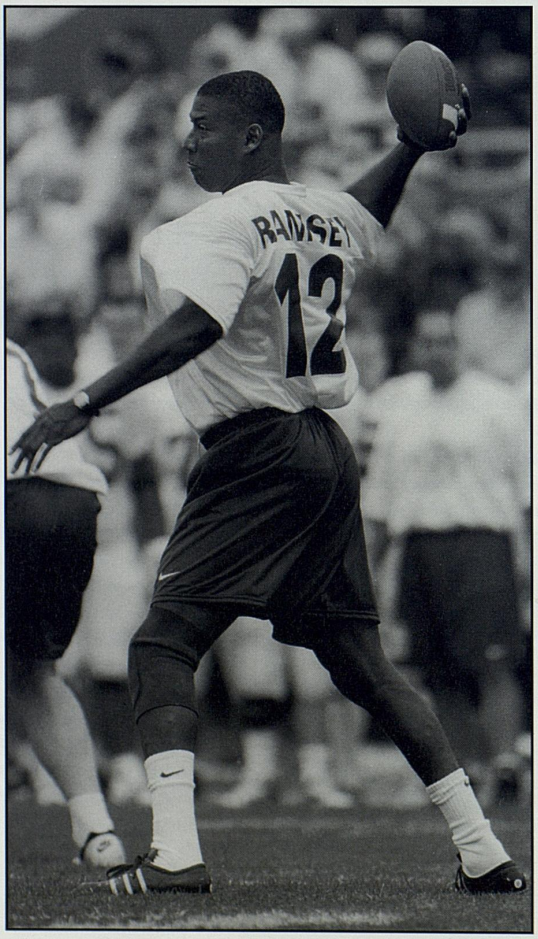
During Claiborne's tenure, Kentucky captured its first national title by winning the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. UK led the SEC in Academic All-SEC Honor Roll selections (68) during the Claiborne era, including a league record of 17 players named to the 1989 Academic All-SEC Honor Roll.

Individually, quarterback Bill Ransdell played under Claiborne and left as UK's all-time leader in passing and total offense. Mark Higgs departed as the school's second-leading rusher and tackle Oliver Barnett set a UK record with 26 quarterback sacks.

On Jan. 8, 1990, Kentucky began a new era by hiring its 32nd head football coach in Bill Curry. The hiring came only a week after Curry guided his Alabama squad in the 1990 USF&G Sugar Bowl. Curry had led the Crimson Tide to a share of the SEC title and a 10-1 regular-season mark in 1989.

Curry led Kentucky back to post-season play for the first time in nine years as the 1993 Wildcats finished third in the SEC Eastern Division (fourth overall) and qualified for the Peach Bowl in Atlanta, Ga., when the Wildcats lost to Clemson, 14-13, to finish 6-6 on the season.

Under Curry in 1993, UK recorded its first win over a ranked opponent since 1988, its first two-game SEC road winning streak since 1984, its first three-game SEC win streak and the most SEC wins since 1977. UK also recorded its first regular-season winning record since 1989.



In 1994, the Wildcats faced intrastate rival Louisville for the first time in 70 years and defeated the Cardinals 20-14 in front of a record 59,162 fans in Commonwealth Stadium.

The 1995 season was highlighted by tailback Moe Williams, who rushed for 1,600 yards, broke three SEC records, and broke or tied 15 school records. Williams had 429 all-purpose yards in a win at South Carolina, the second-highest single-game total in NCAA history.

Kentucky has maintained the high level of achievement in the classroom which was started by Jerry Claiborne. In 1996, UK led the league with 20 players on the SEC Academic Honor Roll, the 10th time in the past 14 years that UK led or tied for the league lead in most players honored.

Fans responded with great enthusiasm following the hiring of Coach Hal Mumme. UK set an attendance record in 1997 by averaging 59,110 fans per home game. The new "Air Raid" offense helped break or tie 51 school records and 15 Southeastern Conference records.

Former Wildcats quarterback Derrick Ramsey completed 8-of-10 passes during the alumni portion of the 1998 Blue/White Spring Game. Ramsey led the 1976 Wildcats to the SEC championship.

CHRONOLOGY • 1880-1997

Below is a closer look at some of the traditions and history which has molded the past 107 seasons of Kentucky football. Some of the anecdotes were derived from the book, "The Wildcats," which was written by former UK Sports Information Director Russell Rice.

1A AND 1B

During the course of his legendary career, Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant was known as an innovator of introducing changes in the game of football. One change Bryant introduced during his tenure at Kentucky was the use of a unique number system to identify twins Harry and Larry Jones, who both lettered three years (1950-52) with the Wildcats. Harry wore 1A and Larry wore 1B. Harry led the Wildcats in all-purpose yardage in 1951 with 964 while Larry led UK in kickoff returns (21.1 avg) in 952.

ALUMNI GAME

Wildcats Coach Hal Mumme started a new tradition by instituting an alumni game as part of the Blue-White Spring Football Game festivities. The alumni open the spring game by playing one quarter of touch football. A unique twist is that the score counts as part of the varsity game.

BEER BARREL

The traditional Battle for the Beer Barrel is the annual football game between Kentucky and Tennessee. Currently, the series is the third-longest of SEC teams vs. SEC teams (93 games) and trails only the Auburn-Georgia (101) and Ole Miss-Mississippi State (94) rivalries. The Beer Barrel Trophy is actually an old beer barrel painted blue, orange and white and is presented to the winner of the annual contest. Every score, since the origination of the trophy in 1925, is printed on the barrel. Two Wildcat followers, Guy Hugelet and Rollie Guthrie, wanted to come up with something symbolic to represent the great rivalry. Originally, they decided to use an old whiskey barrel as the trophy but the Women's Temperance Union made a stand against it since it was during the time of Prohibition. The duo went to another distributor, John Galvin, and settled on a beer barrel. Then as the Anti-Saloon League stepped in, Hugelet and Guthrie compromised by painting the words "ice water" on the barrel. The first time the trophy was awarded was in 1925 as UK defeated the Vols, 23-20. In 93 meetings overall, Tennessee leads the series 61-23-9.

BLUE AND WHITE

The University of Kentucky adopted blue and white as its official colors in 1892. Originally, UK students had decided on blue and yellow prior to the Kentucky-Centre football game on Dec. 19, 1891. The shade of blue came about when a student asked the question, "What color blue?" Richard C. Stoll, who lettered on the 1893-94 football teams, pulled off his necktie and held it up. The students adopted that particular shade of blue in Stoll's necktie. A year later, UK students dropped yellow for white.

BOURBON BARREL

The famed Bourbon Barrel is the trophy presented to the winner of the Kentucky-Indiana football game. This series, though beginning in 1893, is only 28 games old but has quickly become one of the fiercest, most competitive contests in the region. As far as the origination of the Bourbon Barrel is concerned, no one is certain where the idea started. A possible answer stems from the great distillery industry located in Kentucky and southern Indiana. The Bourbon Barrel is mounted on a board for traveling purposes. The trophy is actually a half-barrel and lists all scores of the 28-game series. A blue stripe is painted in the background for a Kentucky win and a red stripe for an Indiana victory. Indiana leads the series, 16-11-1. Several years ago, both schools agreed contractually to extend the series annually through the year 2000.

PAUL "BEAR" BRYANT

Paul Bryant is still the most successful coach in UK football history. Bryant spent eight years at UK (1946-53) and produced a 60-23-5 (.710 pct.) record. The 60 victories are the most by any UK football coach. He led the Wildcats to four bowl games and their first South- eastern Conference title in 1950. He coached such UK stars as George Blanda, Jerry Claiborne, Bob Gain, Babe Parilli, Doug Moseley, Wilbur Jamerson, and Steve Meilinger.

CHEERLEADERS

The Kentucky cheerleading squad won an unprecedented eighth national cheerleading championship in January at the competition sponsored by the Universal Cheerleaders Association. The cheerleaders have won the UCA national title in 1985, 1987, 1988, 1992, 1995, 1996, 1997 and 1998, and have been the runners-up on four occasions. Saleem Habash is coach of the cheerleaders and T. Lynn Williamson is the cheerleader advisor. A total of 40 students comprise the squad, 16 of whom represent the school at the championship. In addition, the Wildcat mascot, portrayed by Gavin Duerson, finished third nationally in the mascot division of the competition.

JERRY CLAIBORNE

After lettering three years (1946-49) as a player and serving two seasons (1952-53) as an assistant coach at Kentucky, Jerry Claiborne returned to his alma mater in 1982 as UK's 31st head football coach. Claiborne stepped down after 28 years as a collegiate head coach in 1989. He led the Wildcats to two bowls and four non-losing seasons. During his era, Kentucky placed more players (68) on the Academic All-SEC Honor Roll than any league school, including a record 17 in 1989. Claiborne also led UK to a national academic title by capturing the 1989 CFA Academic Achieve-ment Award. His eight-year UK record was 41-46-3. Overall, Claiborne finished 21st among Division I coaches with 179 career victories and 179-122-8 in all games.

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

CFA ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

The University of Kentucky became the first Southeastern Conference institution to win the College Football Association Academic Achievement Award after claiming the prestigious honor in 1989. The Academic Achievement Award is given to the CFA institution with the highest graduation rate of its football program based on a five-year period. UK had graduated 90 percent (18 of 20) of its incoming freshman signee class of 1983, thus earning the honor in May, 1989. A year earlier (1988), UK finished second with a graduation rate of 90.5 percent. Kentucky earned honorable mention honors in 1988, '91, '93 and '94, for having graduated better than 70 percent of its players.

BLANTON COLLIER AND THE STAFF

Blanton Collier had the challenge of following Paul Bryant as head football coach at the University of Kentucky. But, Collier posted a fine 41-36-3 record in eight seasons at UK. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his record against arch-rival Tennessee which stood at 5 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie. Standouts such as Howard Schnellenberger, Lou Michaels, Tom Hutchinson, Bobby Cravens, Calvin Bird and Irv Goode played under Collier. One fascinating item in Collier's tenure was the football coaching staff he assembled in 1959. The 1959 UK coaching staff included Collier, Ed Rutledge, Howard Schnellenberger, Ermal Allen, Don Shula, John North, Bob Cummings, and Bill Arnsparger.

FRAN CURCI

The Fran Curci era (1973-81) was one of ups and down at the University of Kentucky. Curci remained at UK for nine seasons, the longest tenure of any UK football coach, and posted a 47-51-2 record. The ups consisted of sharing the 1976 Southeastern Conference title with Georgia, a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina in the '76 Peach Bowl, and a 1977 squad which boasted a 10-1 record and No. 5 national ranking. The down was probation which forced the '77 squad to miss a certain bowl invitation.

DiGIURO SCHOLARSHIP

The Trent DiGiuro Memorial Scholarship was established in the autumn of 1994 in honor of the Wildcat offensive guard who died in July of that year. The scholarship is awarded each year to a walk-on football player who has completed his eligibility, maintained a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.5, and has exemplified the dedication, determination, hard work, and leadership typified by Trent DiGiuro. If there is no suitable walk-on candidate that year, the scholarship will go to a team manager or trainer who meets the above criteria. The scholarship was established by DiGiuro's family and friends. The 1998 winner of the scholarship is strong safety Stephan Walters.

FORWARD PASS

The first forward pass attempted by a University of Kentucky football player was thrown on Oct. 13, 1906, by quarterback Earl Stone as the Wildcats faced Eminence Athletic Club. This was the first year the forward pass was legalized by national rules. Accounts from this early contest do not indicate if the first forward UK pass was completed.

GOVERNOR'S CUP

The Governor's Cup was created in 1994 as the trophy for the winner of the Kentucky-Louisville game. Donated by Kroger at a cost of $23,000, the Governor's Cup stands 33 inches tall and weighs 110 pounds. The trophy's base and upright columns are hand-milled black marble. The glass components are comprised of Optic grade crystal. All metal parts are 23-karat, gold-plated brass. The cup itself is solid pewter with a 23-karat gold-plated finish. The Governor's Cup was designed by Kendall Costner and sculpted by James Corcoran of Bruce Fox, Inc. The UK-U of L series was renewed in 1994 with the Wildcats winning the game, 20-14.

HOMECOMING GAMES

As in the case of most institutions, Homecoming football games are special. Kentucky is no exception. Alumni and old friends converge on the UK campus each fall for Homecoming Day, highlighted by a Kentucky football game. The Homecoming Queen and her court are presented in horse-drawn carriages which gives the event a distinct, Kentucky flavor. The first Homecoming Day occurred on Nov. 25, 1915, as Kentucky defeated Tennessee, 6-0. Though records are sketchy, Kentucky has hosted a Homecoming game every year since 1946 and owns a 40-12-0 record in those 52 contests.

THE IMMORTALS

Simply known as "The Immortals," the 1898 University of Kentucky football squad still remains as the only undefeated, untied, and unscored on Wildcats club in school history. The Immortals outscored opponents 180-0 while posting a perfect 7-0-0 record. Roscoe Severs served as team captain under coach W.R. Bass. The closest of all seven games was a 6-0 victory over Centre College.

CAWOOD LEDFORD

The legendary "Voice of the Wildcats" was none other than Cawood Ledford. For 39 years, Cawood called Wildcats football and basketball. His voice alone symbolized UK Athletics. Cawood called his last UK football game vs. Tennessee on Nov. 23, 1991, and retired from the microphone following the 1991-92 basketball season.

MINUS NINETY-THREE

The University of Kentucky holds the Southeastern Conference record for fewest yards allowed rushing in a single game. Kentucky limited Kansas State to a minus-93 yards on the ground as UK defeated Kansas State, 16-3, on Sept. 19, 1970, at Lexington. Kentucky defenders sacked KSU quarterbacks Lynn Dickey (2) and Max Arreguin (5) a total of seven times while intercepting three of their passes. Ironically, KSU outgained UK in total offense 214-107 as Dickey and Arreguin combined for 307 yards in the air.

CHRONOLOGY • 1880-1997

THE FIRST NIGHT GAME

The University of Kentucky was one of the first institutions to play intercollegiate football at night. The first UK home night game was played on Oct. 5, 1929, at Stoll Field as Kentucky defeated Maryville, 40-0. Kentucky did not play more than one home night game per season until 1946.

NIGHT GAMES

The University of Kentucky began holding its October home football games during the evening hours in 1949. UK and Keeneland Race Course, located in Lexington, have enjoyed a close relationship through the years and assist in giving UK faithful an opportunity to enjoy two of the Commonwealth's best-loved events in October — football and horse racing. With the traditional post time at Keeneland for the thoroughbred races at 1 p.m., UK began moving its October home games to night during the 1949 season. The only occasion UK has not conducted its October home games in the evening is to accommodate television. Kentucky's all-time record in night games is 94-94-4.

NAT NORTHINGTON

Nat Northington of Louisville became the first black player to sign with the University of Kentucky and a Southeastern Conference institution. Northington signed a national letter-of-intent with UK in December of 1965. He later became the first African-American football player to play in an SEC vs. SEC game, appearing in the UK-Ole Miss game at Lexington on Sept. 30, 1967.

OUTLAND TROPHY

Two-time All-American Bob Gain is the only player in University of Kentucky football history to be awarded the Outland Trophy, signifying the best interior lineman in collegiate football. Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy after helping lead UK to its first Southeastern Conference title and a 10-1 regular-season record. Besides being the first UK player to claim the award, Gain was also the first SEC player to be given the award.

PRINCE CHARLES OF WALES

The Kentucky Wildcats gave Prince Charles of Wales his first taste of American football on Oct. 22, 1977. That's right, Prince Charles' first football game was the UK-Georgia matchup at Athens. Prince Charles was introduced to UK Coach Fran Curci and All-American Art Still at halftime. After looking at the 6-6 Still, Charles said, "You're a tall one aren't you?" Still and Co. blanked the Bulldogs on this day, 33-0, on their way to a 10-1 record.

RED DOC, BLACK DOC

A pair of cousins named William Rodes played football for the University of Kentucky during the early 1900s. To distinguish one from the other, one was nicknamed "Red Doc" and the other "Black Doc." William "Red Doc" Rodes lettered three years (1909, 11-12) as a 140-pound halfback and defensive end. William "Black Doc" Rodes lettered two years (1915-16) as quarterback. Black Doc was considered by many to be one of the best open-field runners in that era. He also placekicked and personally delivered UK's 6-0 victory over Tennessee in 1915 with field goals of 45 and 43 yards.

RUSSELL RICE

Longtime UK sports information director Russell Rice is the walking, talking historian when its comes to Wildcats Football. Rice retired from the UK Athletics Department in 1989 after serving 18 years as sports information director. He came to UK in 1967 as assistant SID under Ken Kuhn, then was named sports information director in 1969. Rice authored the book, "The Wildcats, Kentucky Football," which details Kentucky football and its history. At his retirement party, Rice was given a lifetime "Press Pass" to the Commonwealth Stadium press box.

STOLL FIELD/McLEAN STADIUM

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was the first home for Kentucky football. The stadium was located adjacent to Memorial Coliseum and served as UK's football home since 1916. The University Board of Trustees voted to name the playing field "Stoll Field" and the actual grandstand structures as "McLean Stadium," thus the often confusing double names. Stoll Field was named in honor of the late Judge Richard C. Stoll, a prominent alumnus, trustee and benefactor of UK. Stoll Field was dedicated on Oct. 14, 1916. McLean Stadium was dedicated on Nov. 1, 1924, in memory of Price Innes McLean, a regular center on the 1923 UK squad who died as a result of injuries sustained in the Kentucky-

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was home to Kentucky football for 56 years (1916-1972). The seating capacity was 37,000 when the Wildcats played their final game inside the stadium in 1972, defeating Vanderbilt 14-13 on November 11.

1970...UK sets SEC record holding Kansas State to -93 yards rushing.

1976 UK shares second SEC title with Georgia.

1977 The Wildcats finish season ranked No. 5 with 10-1 record.

1977 UK serves 1-year probation with no bowl appearances.

1983 West Virginia defeats UK 20-16 in Hall of Fame Bowl.

1983 UK goes 6-4-1 for nation's best turnaround.

1984 Joey Worley's 52-yard FG leads UK to win in Hall of Fame Bowl.

1989 UK earns CFA Academic Achievement Award.

1989 Jerry Claiborne resigns after eight seasons.

1990 Bill Curry becomes UK's 32nd head football coach.

1990 UK opens 100th season with win over Central Michigan.

1993 Clemson defeats UK 14-13 in Peach Bowl.

1994 Kentucky and Louisville resume their rivalry after 70 years. UK wins the renewal game, 20-14.

1995 Moe Williams rushes for 299 yards and breaks three SEC and five school records at South Carolina

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY CHRONOLOGY • 1880-1997

Cincinnati game on Nov. 6, 1923. The final seating capacity of Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was 37,000 during its last year of use, 1972.

THE THIN THIRTY

When Blanton Collier stepped down as head football coach at Kentucky following the 1961 season, UK promptly named former Wildcats player Charlie Bradshaw as its 28th coach. Bradshaw inherited a squad of 88 players left from Collier's 5-5-0 team in '61. Bradshaw promised his new UK squad hard work and talked of training to an absolute peak of condition. His conditioning tactics took their toll as more than 50 players left the squad, leaving 30 to open the season against Florida State and prompting the name "Thin Thirty." The Thin Thirty finished 3-5-2 on the season with victories over Detroit (27-8), Vanderbilt (7-0) and arch-rival Tennessee (12-10). The ties were against Florida State (0-0) and Georgia (7-7).

TURNAROUNDS

One of the biggest turnarounds in collegiate football happened at the University of Kentucky during the 1982 and 1983 seasons. Jerry Claiborne had replaced Fran Curci as head coach prior to the '82 campaign. Claiborne inherited a program in shambles and faced the nation's second-toughest schedule which featured Oklahoma, Clemson, Auburn, LSU, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Kansas and Kansas State. Not surprisingly, Kentucky finished 0-10-1 in 1982 with only a 13-13 tie with Kansas keeping the Wildcats from an 0-11 slate. However, Claiborne turned the heat up in 1983 and went to work. UK reeled off consecutive wins against Central Michigan (31-14), Kansas State (31-12), Indiana (24-13), and Tulane (26-14) to start the season. The Cats also defeated LSU (21-13) and Vanderbilt (17-8) to finish the campaign with a 6-4-1 record. The turnaround, which tied Memphis State for the biggest turnaround in 1983, earned Kentucky a berth in the 1983 Hall of Fame Bowl.

VICTORY KICKS

The University of Kentucky defeated the Louisville YMCA, 12-6, in 1900. What is so unique about this contest is Kentucky did not run a single offensive play. Instead, Kentucky punted on first down each time it had the football and eventually scored on a pair of fumbles by the Louisville YMCA club which had occurred in their own end zone.

WILDCATS NICKNAME

The nickname "Wildcats" became synonymous with UK shortly after a 6-2 football victory at Illinois on Oct. 9, 1909. Commandant Carbusier, then head of the military department, told a group of students in a chapel service following the game that the Kentucky football team had "fought like wildcats." The nickname grew in popularity and was adopted by the university.

WINNING STREAK

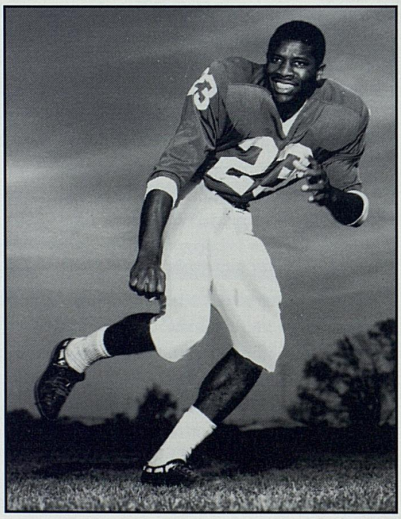
For the most part, the most famous winning streak in Kentucky football history is the one the Wildcats ended. The stage was set as UK faced Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl. Kentucky was coming off its first Southeastern Conference title and brought in a 10-1 record. Oklahoma entered as national champions and riding a 31-game winning streak. A pair of Wilbur Jamerson scores - a 22-yard pass from Babe Parilli and a one-yard run - was all UK needed in picking up a 13-7 upset of the Sooners and thus ending the 31-game streak. Today, the 31-game winning streak by Oklahoma ranks as the seventh-longest in NCAA history.

THE YEAR (1977-78)

Perhaps the most successful year in UK Athletics occurred during the 1977-78 academic year at the University of Kentucky. The 1977 Wildcats football squad, under Fran Curci, raced to a 10-1 record and ended the year ranked No. 5 by The Sporting News. Highlights were victories over North Carolina (10-7), West Virginia (28-13), Penn State (24-20), LSU (33-13), Georgia (33-0), Florida (14-7) and Tennessee (21-17). On the basketball side, UK wrapped up its fifth NCAA title by defeating Duke, 94-88, at St. Louis. The UK basketballers ended the campaign with a 30-2 record under Joe B. Hall.

THE YEAR (1950-51)

An argument to the most successful year in UK Athletics is the 1950-51 academic year. UK football, under Paul Bryant, ended the 1950 regular season with a 10-1 record and ranked No. 7 nationally by both A.P. and U.P.I. The Wildcats then proceeded to snap national champion Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak with a 13-7 victory in the Sugar Bowl. On the basketball front, Adolph Rupp gave UK its third national title by defeating Kansas State, 68-58, at Minneapolis, Minn. The Wildcats ended the year 32-2. Current UK Athletics Director C.M. Newton was a letterman on that squad.



Nat Northington was the first African-American football player to sign with a Southeastern Conference school and in 1967 was the first to play in an SEC vs. SEC game.

A Recap of Kentucky Bowl Games

GREAT LAKES BOWL

Kentucky 24, Villanova 14

1947 The Kentucky Wildcats made their first appearance on the bowl scene in the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl and came away with a 24-14 victory over Villanova before a crowd of 14,908 at Cleveland Municipal Stadium.

Kentucky, in its second year under head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, finished at 8-3 on the season with the victory.

Quarterback-placekicker George Blanda gave Kentucky an early 3-0 lead in the first quarter. Blanda connected on a 27-yard field goal to put the Cats up and it remained that way until halftime.

In the third quarter, UK's Jim Howe scampered 29 yards for a score. Blanda added the PAT and Kentucky led 10-0 after three periods.

Bill Boller scored both Kentucky touchdowns in the fourth period, romping 15 yards on a handoff from Blanda and racing 49 yards to paydirt with an interception. Blanda added both PATs to round out the Kentucky scoring.

Villanova also added a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns, but it was not enough as Kentucky captured its first bowl victory in school history.

ORANGE BOWL

Santa Clara 21, Kentucky 13

1950 Kentucky committed three turnovers and let a seven-point halftime lead slip away in dropping its first major bowl game, 21-13, to Santa Clara in the 1950 Orange Bowl before a crowd of 64,816.

The Wildcats, 9-3, scored their first touchdown early in the second quarter as a result of a Santa Clara turnover. UK's John Netoskie recovered at fumble at the Wildcat 49 to set up Kentucky's first score. The Wildcats drove 51 yards in 14 plays as Wilbur Jamerson hammered over from two yards. Bobby Brooks added the PAT to make it 7-0.

Kentucky wasted a golden scoring opportunity late in the second quarter when Babe Parilli found Bill Leskovar for a 45-yard completion to the SC 3 with time running out. Leskovar and runningmate Don Phelps each were stopped short on their respective rush attempts and the clock ran out before UK could score. The Wildcats led 7-0 at halftime.

UK coach Paul "Bear" Bryant said afterward he should have sent in a pass play just before the half. "If it failed," he said, "the clock was killed then we could have tried a field goal."

A short, 9-yard punt by Phelps set up Santa Clara's first score in the third quarter. After taking over on the SC 46, Bronco quarterback John Pasco hit Larry Williams on a 25-yard pass. Santa Clara eventually scored on a one-yard sneak by Pasco to tie the game, 7-7.

Santa Clara scored again later in the third period, thanks in part to a pass interference call against Kentucky. Hall Haynes went over from 4 yards to make it 14-7 after three quarters.

Parilli led Kentucky right back, hitting Emery Clark on a 52-yard touchdown strike. Brooks, however, missed the tying PAT, breaking a personal streak of 18 straight, as Santa Clara led 14-13 with 12 minutes left in the contest.

Santa Clara managed to hold off the Cats and added an insurance score with less than a minute left, a 16-yard TD run by Buster Wraith.

SUGAR BOWL

Kentucky 13, Oklahoma 7

1951 Kentucky arrived on the national football scene and stunned national champion Oklahoma, 13-7, to capture the 1951 Sugar Bowl before 82,000 at New Orleans.

The Wildcats, 11-1, displayed a tough defense and opportunistic offense in snapping Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak, the longest in the nation at that time. More than 13,000 Kentucky fans made the long trip to New Orleans to watch the Southeastern Conference champions pick up their school record 11th win.

Under the direction of coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, Kentucky continually confused the favored Sooners with different defensive looks. The Wildcats used three tackles much of the time, causing OU quarterback Claude Arnold to hasten his playmaking.

Inflicting the most damage on the Sooners was Walt Yowarsky, a tackle who had played less than five minutes on the defensive side of the football in 1950. Yowarsky operated at left end, next to Outland Trophy winner Bob Gain, and repeatedly sliced into the Sooner backfield to break up passes and to make Arnold hurry his hand-offs and laterals.

Yowarsky recovered a fumble on the OU 22 that set up UK's first touchdown. On the very next play, Babe Parilli hit Wilbur Jamerson in the right corner of the end zone for the touchdown. Gain added the PAT to make it 7-0 in the first quarter.

Kentucky marched 81 yards in the second quarter to go up 13-0. Jamerson dove over from the one to cap the drive, but Gain missed wide on the PAT.

The Wildcat defense, ranked number two in the nation, showed Oklahoma why late in the third quarter. The Sooners drove 67 yards with the second-half kickoff, sitting at the UK 3 with a first-and-goal. Yowarsky helped UK turn back the Sooners, throwing an OU runner for a five-yard loss on third down and Oklahoma eventually turned the ball over on downs.

Yowarsky, voted the game's MVP, thwarted another OU threat in the fourth quarter as he recovered a fumbled punt.

Oklahoma did score with seven minutes to play as Billy Vessels hit Merrill Green on a 17-yard pass for the touchdown. Jim Weatherall added the PAT.

The Wildcats managed to hold on to the football for all but one play the rest of the way to claim a stirring 13-7 win.

COTTON BOWL

Kentucky 20, TCU 7

1952 Quarterback Babe Parilli threw for two touchdowns to lead the Kentucky Wildcats to a 20-7 victory over the TCU Horned Frogs in the 1952 Cotton Bowl before a crowd of 75,349 at Dallas, Texas.

Parilli, who completed 8 of 20 passes for 85 yards, tossed both touchdown strikes to Emery Clark. With the victory, the Wildcats ended the season at 8-4.

UK - Clark, 13 pass from Parilli (PAT missed)
TC - Floyd, 43 run (Flowers PAT)
UK - Hamilton, 3 run (Jones PAT)
Attendance - 75,349

Kentucky got on the scoreboard first, as Parilli found Clark for the first of two TDs. Parilli hit Clark with a five-yard toss to culminate a 53-yard scoring march. Harry Jones added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after one quarter.

In the second period, UK got its second touchdown when Parilli and Clark hooked up again. This time, Parilli found Clark on a 13-yard TD strike to cap a 57-yard drive. Jones missed on the PAT attempt and UK settled for a 13-0 lead in the second period with a little over 10 minutes left.

The Wildcat defense made that 13-point lead stand up until halftime as the Horned Frogs drove four times deep into UK territory. Led by All-American guard Ray Correll, the Wildcats turned TCU away on drives to the UK 4, 24, 5 and 2-yard lines to take a 13-0 lead at intermission.

TCU's Bobby Jack Floyd sliced the UK lead to 13-7 when he galloped 43 yards on a sweep. Floyd's run capped an 80-yard scoring drive which took only four plays. Keith Flowers added the PAT with 1:12 left in the third period.

Kentucky ended any thoughts of a TCU comeback, thwarting the only two Horned Frog offensive drives in the fourth period and scoring an insurance touchdown as well. Ed Hamilton sealed the UK victory with a three-yard score off left tackle with 3:33 left. Jones added the PAT for the final 20-7 score.

PEACH BOWL

Kentucky 21, North Carolina 0

1976 Kentucky tailback Rod Stewart scored three touchdowns to lead the Wildcats to a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina before a sell-out crowd of 54,132 in the 1976 Peach Bowl at Atlanta, Ga.

The Wildcats, after a 25-year absence from the post-season bowl scene, returned in fine fashion as Kentucky completely smothered the Tar Heels. Kentucky outgained North Carolina 334-108 in total yards, limiting the Tar Heels to just five first downs and forcing five UNC turnovers.

After a scoreless first half, Kentucky went to work in the third period after UNC quarterback Matt Kupec fumbled at the Tar Heel 21. UK's James Ramey recovered and the Wildcats were in business.

Seven plays later, Stewart busted over from the one for the touchdown. John Pierce added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after three quarters.

Stewart sent the 37,000-plus Kentuckians, who had followed UK to the Peach Bowl, into a frenzy with his second touchdown early in the fourth quarter. The Wildcats marched 57 yards in 9 plays as Stewart capped the drive with a 13-yard gallop behind All-American tackle Warren Bryant. Pierce was good on the PAT and Kentucky led 14-0 with 13:01 left to play.

The Big Blue had to go only 47 yards for their final score. Kentucky faced a fourth-and-one from the UNC 3 with a little over three minutes remaining. Once again, Stewart (104 yards on 19 carries) got the call and he picked up both - the first down and the touchdown. Pierce was true on the PAT and UK had put the game away.

Stewart tied the Peach Bowl record for most touchdowns and scoring with the 3 TDs and 18 points. He was named the game's MVP. The Most Valuable Defensive Player of the game was UK linebacker Mike Martin, who helped hold the Tarheels to just over 100 yards.

HALL OF FAME BOWL

West Virginia 20, Kentucky 16

1983 Kentucky won much of the statistical battle but lost the war in dropping a tough 20-16 decision to the West Virginia Mountaineers in the 1983 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham.

The Wildcats, in a bowl for the first time since 1976, outgained West Virginia 306-288 in total offense and held the edge in first downs 19-18 and passing yards 216-88. But 17 second-half points by West Virginia were too much for the Wildcats to overcome.

West Virginia scratched first as placekicker Paul Woodside connected on a 39-yard field goal late in the first quarter.

Kentucky countered with 10 points in the second stanza to take a 10-3 lead at halftime.

The Wildcats marched 54 yards in eight plays for their first score. Facing a third-and-three from the WV 26, Kentucky used some razzle-dazzle as Tony Mayes swept right, then threw-back to quarterback Randy Jenkins in the left corner of the endzone for the TD. John Hutcherson added the PAT and UK led 7-3 with 10:59 left in the second period.

Jenkins hit two big passes late in the second quarter to help set up a 32-yard field goal by Hutcherson. Jenkins connected with Joe Phillips for a 19-yard pass play and then hit George Adams for a 14-yarder as Hutcherson connected with 38 seconds left in the half.

WVU kicker Paul Woodside fooled everyone to begin the second half. Woodside tried an on-side kick to start the half and then recovered it to give the Mountaineers the football at the UK 48. Eight plays later, QB Jeff Hostetler found Rich Hollins for a 16-yard TD strike. Woodside added the PAT and it was 10-10 with 11:10 left in the third quarter.

West Virginia scored twice in a span of two minutes early in the fourth quarter to take a commanding 20-10 lead. Hostetler capped off a 10-play, 81-yard drive with a 2-yard scoring toss to Rob Bennett to make it 17-10 with 11:15 left to play.

Two plays later, West Virginia took over after an interception of a Jenkins pass at the UK 16. The interception set up a 23-yard field goal by Woodside as the Mountaineers went up 20-10 with 9:18 remaining.

Kentucky freshman quarterback Bill Ransdell led the Wildcats back, marching UK 92 yards in 11 plays following the kickoff. Ransdell hit Phillips for a 13-yard scoring toss to make it 20-16 with 5:50 left. Hutcherson missed the PAT.

The Wildcats got one more shot, but could get no further than the UK 37.

HALL OF FAME BOWL

Kentucky 20, Wisconsin 19

1984 Kentucky's Joey Worley booted a career-long 52-yard field goal with just under nine minutes remaining to give the Wildcats a thrilling 20-19 victory over the Wisconsin Badgers in the 1984 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham.

Worley, a freshman, helped Kentucky overcome a nine-point deficit in the second half with his school and bowl record field goal.

Wisconsin jumped on top early, scoring twice in the first quarter. Todd Gregoire nailed a 40-yard field goal just under four minutes into the game and Michael Howard hit Thad McFadden with a 3-yard TD pass. Gregoire added the PAT and the Badgers led 10-0 with 5:34 left in the opening period.

Gregoire added another field goal, this one from 27 yards, to make it 13-0 with 7:05 left in the second period.

Kentucky got on the board after safety Paul Calhoun intercepted a Howard pass to give UK possession at the Badger 42. It took Kentucky just five plays to score as Marc Logan went over from nine yards. Worley added the PAT to cut the deficit to 13-7 with 1:29 left in the half.

Wisconsin was not through. The Badgers used four running plays, two passes and a costly 15-yard penalty to move the football to the UK 3 with two seconds left in the half. From there, Wisconsin decided on a Gregoire field goal (20-yarder) to take a 16-7 edge at halftime.

Kentucky narrowed the gap to 16-10 on a 22-yard field goal by Worley with 11:28 left in the third quarter. But Gregoire responded with a 40-yarder two minutes later to move the count back to nine, 19-10.

Behind UK quarterback Bill Ransdell, the Wildcats marched 82 yards in 11 plays later in the quarter to get within two, 19-17. Ransdell hit Logan on a screen pass to cover the final 27 yards and with the Worley PAT, UK was back in it with 26 seconds left in the third quarter.

The next time Kentucky got the ball, Ransdell moved the Cats into position for Worley's 52-yarder. Starting from the UK 22, tailback Mark Higgs got the call four consecutive times, then it was Adams' turn the next four plays. Facing a fourth-and-two at the UW 34, Worley nailed the game-winner with 8:55 left.

Wisconsin came back and marched to the UK 8 with less than two minutes left. With the Badgers facing a fourth-and-six, Gregoire was called on for his fifth field goal attempt. This time, the snap from center was bobbled and UK had sealed the victory.

PEACH BOWL

Clemson 14, Kentucky 13

1993 The Wildcats met the 24th-ranked Clemson Tigers in the 26th annual Peach Bowl and came within one minute of winning their sixth bowl in eight tries. But a Clemson TD in the closing seconds sent UK home with a 14-13 loss.

Kentucky took the opening kickoff and marched down the field to the Clemson two-yard line, where what appeared to be a QB Pookie Jones-to-WB Alfonzo Browning TD was instead a turnover when Browning fumbled the ball while attempting to extend it over the goal line.

Clemson took over on its own one and proceeded to march 99 yards for the game's first score, a two-yard TD plunge by TB Emory Smith. The PAT gave the Tigers a 7-0 lead. Clemson ran the ball 15 times and attempted only three passes in the drive.

Kentucky was stopped again at the one-yard line before the Wildcats finally scored on Nicky Nickels' 34-yard FG in the second period, making the score Clemson 7, Kentucky 3.

UK captured the lead early in the fourth quarter when Jones hit WR Mark Chatmon with a five-yard TD pass, making it UK 10, Clemson 7. Nickels added another FG, this one from 26 yards, to extend UK's lead to 13-7. But after Dan Ariza's 55-yard punt pinned the Tigers inside their own 18-yard line, QB Patrick Sapp hit Smith with a 57-yard screen pass to move Clemson into scoring position. With less than a minute remaining, LB Marty Moore intercepted a Sapp pass, but fumbled it back, giving Clemson a second chance. The Tigers capitalized when Sapp hit WR Henry Smith with the game-winning 21-yard TD pass. Kentucky got the ball back with less than 20 seconds remaining, but could move no farther than its own 40.

PEACH BOWL

Clemson 14, Kentucky 13

1993 The Wildcats met the 24th-ranked Clemson Tigers in the 26th annual Peach Bowl and came within one minute of winning their sixth bowl in eight tries. But a Clemson TD in the closing seconds sent UK home with a 14-13 loss.

Kentucky took the opening kickoff and marched down the field to the Clemson two-yard line, where what appeared to be a QB Pookie Jones-to-WB Alfonzo Browning TD was instead a turnover when Browning fumbled the ball while attempting to extend it over the goal line.

Clemson took over on its own one and proceeded to march 99 yards for the game's first score, a two-yard TD plunge by TB Emory Smith. The PAT gave the Tigers a 7-0 lead. Clemson ran the ball 15 times and attempted only three passes in the drive.

Kentucky was stopped again at the one-yard line before the Wildcats finally scored on Nicky Nickels' 34-yard FG in the second period, making the score Clemson 7, Kentucky 3.

UK captured the lead early in the fourth quarter when Jones hit WR Mark Chatmon with a five-yard TD pass, making it UK 10, Clemson 7. Nickels added another FG, this one from 26 yards, to extend UK's lead to 13-7. But after Dan Ariza's 55-yard punt pinned the Tigers inside their own 18-yard line, QB Patrick Sapp hit Smith with a 57-yard screen pass to move Clemson into scoring position. With less than a minute remaining, LB Marty Moore intercepted a Sapp pass, but fumbled it back, giving Clemson a second chance. The Tigers capitalized when Sapp hit WR Henry Smith with the game-winning 21-yard TD pass. Kentucky got the ball back with less than 20 seconds remaining, but could move no farther than its own 40.

Ransdell Passes UK to Upset of Florida

BILL RANSDELL of Elizabethtown put on the most accurate aerial show in UK history by completing 20 of 23 passes (.869 pct.) for 161 yards as Kentucky upset Florida, 10-3, on Nov. 15, 1986, at Commonwealth Stadium . . . Ransdell helped the Wildcats utilize a ball-control passing game on this day as Kentucky held the football for 41 minutes . . . His 20 completions were spread among eight different UK receivers . . . Ransdell ended the contest strong, hitting on his last seven passing attempts.

UK Upsets No. 1 Ole Miss Behind Kestner

RICK KESTNER of Stone had the best day of any Kentucky receiver during his junior campaign in 1964 . . . Kestner hauled in nine passes for 185 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Wildcats to a 27-21 upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss at Mississippi Memorial Stadium in Jackson . . . In the third quarter, Kestner was on the receiving end of a 32-yard halfback pass from Rodger Bird to give UK a 13-7 lead . . . Kestner added two additional scores on tosses from QB Rick Norton (60 and 23) as the Wildcats rallied from 14-13 and 21-20 deficits late in the second half for the upset.

Bishop's Theft Gives UK Victory

DARRYL BISHOP of Louisville, whose final season was 1973, remains the UK leader in career interceptions with 14 . . . One of his most notable interceptions took place on Nov. 6, 1971, at Dudley Field in Nashville . . . With UK and Vanderbilt knotted at 7-7 and less than 50 seconds to play, Kentucky elected to punt facing a 4th-and-8 situation from its own 44 . . . Walter Overton made a fair catch at the Commodore 30, giving Vandy a first down . . . After QB Steve Burger lost four yards on the first play, the Commodores elected not to use a timeout . . . Then as time expired, Burger lofted a pass toward receiver Gary Chesley . . . The ball never got to Chesley as Bishop picked off the aerial and raced 43 yards for the winning score, giving UK a 14-7 victory on the game's final play.

The Media

Coach Hal Mumme was all smiles after last season's win over Alabama. Thanks to Mumme's policy of open practice for reporters, photographers, and videographers, Kentucky is one of the nation's most media-accessible teams.

When talk arises about sports in the Commonwealth of Kentucky, chances are the talk surrounds the University of Kentucky Wildcats.

Once again, the University of Kentucky will package one of the most comprehensive radio and television networks among Division I-A institutions. Both radio and television networks will blanket the Commonwealth and touch much of the nation.

Sports Communications, Inc., which owns the radio rights for UK football and men's basketball, had compiled a radio network of 80 stations as this book went to press. More stations will be added before the season begins.

WVLK-AM/FM of Lexington again serves as the flagship station for the UK Football Radio Network. Two stations on the network feature a clear-channel 50,000-watt signal, including WHAS (840 AM) in Louisville and WSAI (1530 AM) in Cincinnati.

As a member of the Southeastern Conference, Kentucky participates in the three national and regional television agreements signed by the league. The SEC contract with CBS provides for a regionally- or nationally-televised SEC Game of the Week. Kentucky had two games televised by CBS last season.

ESPN and espn2 also have a contract with the SEC and pick up a number of league games. Kentucky had two games televised by espn2 last season and the UK at LSU game in October already has been selected in 1998.

Another Southeastern Conference television package is produced and regionally sydicated by Jefferson-Pilot Sports. Each league school makes at least two appearances on JP Sports during the 1998-99 contract period. Kentucky had two games on the JP Sports SEC Game of the Week during the 1997 season, plus a third game that was simulcast with espn2.

All totaled, the Wildcats appeared six times on live national or regional television in 1997 - a school record.

In addition to the SEC TV pacts, the university has negotiated its own contract for televised games. The UK Football Television Network features full-game, tape-delay action of all Wildcats home games and selected away games that are not televised by CBS, ESPN, espn2, or JP Sports. The network serves approximately 13 markets in and around the Commonwealth. Sports Communications, Inc., administers the network with WKYT-TV of Lexington as the telecasts' producer.

For the 1998 football season, the UK Radio/Television Broadcast Team consists of eight members, including Tom Leach, Jeff Van Note, Dick Gabriel, Dave Baker, Larry Glover, Rob Bromley, Derrick Ramsey, and Mike Dodson.

Leach begins his second season calling the radio play-by-play. A 1983 graduate of Kentucky, Leach is in his 10th season as a member of the UK broadcast team. Previously, he had anchored the halftime and postgame scoreboard shows on the UK Radio Network.

Leach currently serves as news/sports director for radio station WVLK-AM/FM in Lexington. He began as a news/sports reporter for WVLK in 1984. Leach, a native of Paris, Ky., is a three-time winner of the Associated Press "Best Sports Program" award. He also won an Eclipse Award in 1993 for his thoroughbred racing coverage and is known for his knowledge of the racing industry.

Former UK letterman Jeff Van Note (1966-68) enters his fifth season as the expert analyst on the UK radio broadcasts. Van Note had an 18-year NFL career with the Atlanta Falcons.

Dave Baker, a native of Franklin, Ohio, begins his 10th year on the UK broadcast team. He is involved with the programming of "Countdown to Kickoff," the one-hour pregame radio show.

Baker has spent 16 years on the sports staff of WKYT-TV in Lexington. He began at WKYT in 1982 following his graduation from Georgetown (Ky.) College. He was named WKYT's weekend anchor in 1984 and played an instrumental part in the founding of his station's award-winning "Sports Spectrum," a 20-minute comprehensive sports show on Saturday evenings. Baker also hosts a popular Sunday morning radio talk show.

Gabriel, a 1978 graduate of Kentucky, enters his 10th year as a member of the UK broadcast team. He works in the dual capacity of sideline reporter for both the UK Radio and Television Networks, an intriguing task he has handled during the 1992-93 and 1995-97 seasons. Previously, he spent four years (1989-91, 1994) on the broadcast team solely as sideline reporter for the UK Radio Network.

Gabriel, sports manager for WKYT-TV, came to Lexington from Dallas, Tex., where he was executive producer of Host Communications' Southwest Conference Football Radio Network.

As a student at UK, Gabriel was named the Outstanding Journalism Graduate in 1978. He called play-by-play for Wildcats football and basketball games on student radio station WBKY and served as sports editor for the Kentucky Kernel, UK's student newspaper. Following graduation, he served as sports director for WVLK AM/FM in Lexington.

Larry Glover joined the radio crew last season. He provides the postgame scoreboard reports and assists in the production of the pregame and postgame shows. Glover is in his second year as a news and sports reporter at WVLK. He is a native of Hawesville, Ky., and a graduate of UK.

On the delayed television broadcasts, play-by-play is provided by Rob Bromley. Bromley is set for his 19th year on the UK Television Network. He has also handled the roles of analyst and sideline reporter in the past. Bromley also has served as producer and co-host of the Kentucky football and men's basketball coaches' television shows.

Bromley has been a member of the WKYT-TV sports staff for 20 years, including the past 17 as sports anchor. Bromley is a graduate of Butler University in Indianapolis and worked as a sports anchor in Lima, Ohio, prior to joining the WKYT-TV staff in 1977.

Assisting Bromley with the delayed television broadcasts is expert analyst Derrick Ramsey. A first-team All-SEC quarterback in 1977 as a Wildcat senior, Ramsey is in his fifth season providing opinion and commentary on the delayed television broadcasts. Ramsey enjoyed a 10-year NFL career with the Oakland/Los Angeles Raiders (1978-83), New England (1983-85), and Detroit (1987).

Ramsey returned to the university full-time in 1995 as a member of the community relations office. He earned a promotion in 1996 and now serves as Director of Development and Community Relations for the Lexington campus.

Working behind the scenes to pull the broadcasts together is the job of Mike Dodson, who enters his sixth year as a member of the UK broadcast team. Dodson, director of broadcast operations of the UK Radio and Television Networks, is the technical engineer for all game-day Wildcats football and men's basketball broadcasts.

What They Wrote

News Clippings About the 1997 Kentucky Football Team

Billy Reed, Lexington Herald-Leader:
"Football fever is running so high in the Bluegrass these days that Keeneland's attractive opening-day (racing) card will serve as the warm-up act for the Cats-Tide game under the lights of Commonwealth Stadium."

Coach and Athletic Director magazine:
"Joe Namath, watching virtuoso kid QBs like Tim Couch and Peyton Manning amassing astronomical statistics every Saturday afternoon: 'It's depressing to watch these kids obliterate all your career stats in one afternoon.'"

Josh Barr, Washington Post:
"(Kentucky was) the nation's most entertaining team."

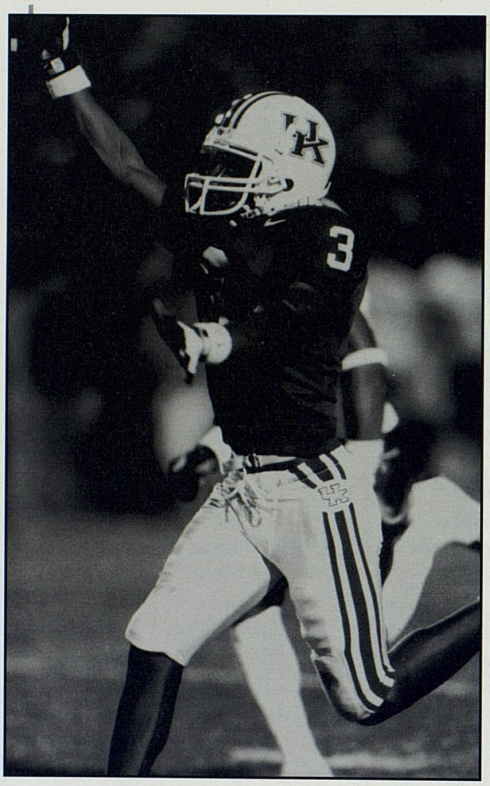
Steve Wieberg, USA Today:
"At Kentucky, the passing game that served Hal Mumme so well at NAIA Iowa Wesleyan and Division II Valdosta State has produced instant results."

John Clay, Lexington Herald-Leader:
"Mummeball is more classroom than battlefield. The head coach is not a Schwarzkopf but an alchemist, busy turning ordinary metals into gold."

Samantha Stevenson, New York Times, in a feature on Tim Couch:
"He's bigger than we ever dreamed of," said Omus Shepherd, the Leslie County High School principal. "When Tim is playing, he is as dangerous as a broken fruit jar."

Chip Cosby, Lexington Herald-Leader:
"Confidence. It's everywhere around the UK camp ... What a difference a year makes."

Mark Woods, Louisville Courier-Journal:
"On defense, Mumme-ball - or perhaps it should be called Major-ball after longtime friend and defensive coordinator Mike Major - is about pressure ... the emphasis is on speed and pushing upfield."



"I never thought playing wide receiver at Kentucky would become the most glamorous position in the game. But it has."
– Rick Bozich, Louisville Courier-Journal

Chuck Culpepper, Lexington Herald-Leader:
"The word 'fun' is acceptable in the same sentence with 'football,' thanks to Mumme and his staff."

Tom Weir, USA Today:
"A look at the football facilities suggests Kentucky just might be a sleeping giant in that sport. The 48,000-square-foot E. J. Nutter Training Facility meets every NFL standard, and the 132,000-square-foot Nutter Field House provides a full-sized, indoor, artificial turf football field."

John Clay, Lexington Herald-Leader:
"Midway through Air Raid '97, new coach Hal Mumme has performed a magical makeover, transforming the Kentucky offense from ugly duckling to dangerous dragon."

Rick Bozich, Louisville Courier-Journal:
"When this college football season began, I never thought playing wide receiver at Kentucky would become the most glamorous position in the game. But it has."

Chuck Culpepper, Lexington Herald-Leader:
"Other teams are said to be in 'four-down territory' at certain times. For Mumme, America is four-down territory."

Pat Forde, Louisville Courier-Journal:
"C. M. Newton appears to have made the national Hire of the Year ... Mumme is on his way to treasure status, and C. M. is the smartest guy named Newton since Sir Isaac."

Mark Story, Lexington Herald-Leader, in a story on Tim Couch being selected Kentucky Sportsman of the Year in a statewide poll of sports journalists:
"(Couch) threw for more yards, produced more touchdowns and - arguably - provided more thrills than anyone ever to wear Kentucky blue and white ... Wrote Bob White of the Louisville Courier-Journal, 'Couch is an ideal role model for young kids. Everybody should be proud he is a Kentucky native.'"

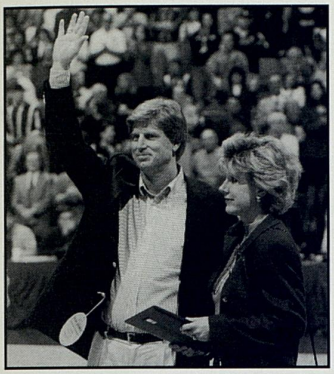
Chuck Culpepper, Lexington Herald-Leader:
"He (Craig Yeast) does have a way of making plays, from catches in traffic to runs through traffic to runs away from traffic. He has left a litany of sterling moments strewn across this fine autumn."

Billy Reed, Lexington Herald-Leader:
"I like a football coach who thinks for himself, who's confident enough to do things differently and who holds to the radical idea that the players should enjoy practice instead of dreading it."

Kentucky Wildcats

UK

It's a new beginning



Hal Mumme and his wife, June, accept the 1997 Region 2 Coach of the Year Award as chosen by the American Football Coaches Association.

Dear Student-Athlete,

I welcome you to the University of Kentucky and am proud to present to you the 1998 Kentucky Wildcats football team. I am equally proud to show off our beautiful campus, our athletics facilities, and I am most proud of our greatest asset, our people.

My coaching staff and I wish you and all young people the very best years you can have in high school. To those of you who are seniors, we wish you the greatest of successes in your final year, both in the classroom and on the field. To those of you who are juniors, sophomores, and freshmen, we hope that you will work harder than ever to make the most of your days in high school.

One of the most important and difficult decisions you will make in your life will be, "Where do I go to college?" I sincerely hope that you will research the benefits that come to anyone who attends the University of Kentucky.

First and foremost is the fact that anyone who earns a degree from UK will have an extremely marketable degree that is international in scope. The University is at the forefront of every social, legal, medical, economic, agricultural, artistic, and athletic endeavor that this country will face in the next century. The phrase is true - "The Future is Now." You are in an extremely competitive arena and the future demands an extremely well-rounded individual.

Many experts, periodicals, and educational services recognize UK as one of the "best buys" in college education. The many nationally ranked colleges within the University have their own story to tell, to which I cannot do justice in this short letter. However, I do want to make you aware of the completion of the new William T. Young Library. It is the most technologically advanced library in America and its features are too numerous to mention in this space. The nationally ranked schools of Medicine, Engineering, Agriculture, and Business have successful athletes in them and graduating from them.

Our commitment to our athletes' academic excellence is exemplified by our new Ohio Casualty Center for Academic and Tutorial Services, which opened in March at a cost of $2.4 million.

Our athletes are groomed for success. We have had the highest number of players on the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 10 of the last 14 years. We have won national awards for our graduation rate.

In summary, the University of Kentucky has the faculty, facilities, the total resources, and the overall environment to put you above the competition on and off the field.

A second reason to come to Kentucky is athletics. No one can compare to UK for the total athletic experience. Our facilities are second to none and our stadium expansion is rapidly proceeding to completion for the 1999 season. Our facilities are so unique, functional, and impressive that we can only hope that you'll take time to see them before one of our home games. The picture our facilities create is worth a thousand words and many more emotions than words can describe.

A third reason is the social environment. College life needs to be fun and Lexington has all the social life you'd ever want. Lexington is truly a great place to live or visit, but most important is that Lexington is safe. Lexington and UK have received many awards and rankings from national organizations and publications for being very livable and very safe.

We have it all for anyone who will come and share those important college years with us. We have the facilities, environment, and resources, but most important, we have the people.

Fourth is the people. Our coaches, support staff, faculty, administration, and gracious fans will put the icing on the cake for you. You will never be treated in any way but fairly, consistently, and with deep convictions to the pride and the class that make the Commonwealth what it is today and will be for years to come.

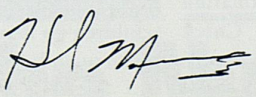
In conclusion, UK offers any student-athlete the following:

- Nationally marketable degree
- Outstanding academic facilities
- Unparalleled academic support
- Exceptional athletic facilities and schedules
- Playing in the Southeastern Conference
- The great people of the Commonwealth

UK football players are trained to compete for national prominence both on and off the field. They are trained to be productive citizens. We commit to them the people, resources, and facilities that will allow them to compete in such lofty arenas.

If you choose Kentucky, you become a member of the greatest extended family around. Remember - it is a 40-year decision you are making, not a four-year decision.

May God grant you all that you deserve and more.



Hal Mumme
Head Football Coach

"The University of Kentucky places strong emphasis on developing the skills, the character, and the intellect of all our student-athletes. Head football coach Hal Mumme and his staff work very hard to motivate their players on the playing field, in the classroom, and in the community to be the best they can be. UK provides facilities that help inspire students to become well-rounded athletes and successful scholars. We invite student-athletes to join our teams at UK and to experience the pride of being part of UK's first-class athletic and academic programs."

Dr. Charles Wethington Jr.
President
University of Kentucky

"I always welcome the opportunity to talk about the University of Kentucky. I hope that many high school athletes will choose to live the 'Kentucky experience' as Wildcat football players. The 'Kentucky experience' emphasizes the proper balance between athletics and academics.

"Academically, graduation is an expectation for those who complete their eligibility. The CATS program provides the support system necessary to reach that goal.

"Our coaches and support personnel help our student-athletes realize their athletic potential. They have the opportunity to become the best college football players possible during their career.

"Our program is made-to-order for student-athletes who are serious about football and academics."

C. M. Newton
Director of Athletics

Dear Student-Athlete,

You are experiencing the "Rebirth of Kentucky Football." In the last 50 years, Kentucky football has had many glorious moments and many more are ahead in the near future. I hope that you sense the excitement that exists already.

The decision of which school you select you further your academic and athletic goals in life is a very important one, indeed. No matter how simple the decision appears to those who aren't athletes, only great athletes know how emotional a decision it is. I would like to lend some credible advice from my 20-plus years in and around college football.

1) Don't make an uninformed decision. Many student-athletes do not take the time to obtain all the information available to make such a decision. Check out web sites, call football offices, make unofficial visits, and invest some time and energy into fact-finding.

2) Never underestimate the importance of your CORE GRADE POINT AVERAGE and take the ACT or SAT tests during your junior year and your senior year. Set up a meeting with your school's counselor, principal, your parents, your coach, and yourself NOW! At this meeting, establish clearly for everyone where you are with the NCAA-required 13 core courses and the college entrance exams.

3) Have the courage to look ahead and dream about the best years of your life. You know what you want; now, just how badly do you want it? Great things don't happen by accident. What you put into your years of college will ultimately be what you receive from college. But if you read Coach Mumme's letter on the previous page you'll have the standard with which to measure all other schools.

The University of Kentucky is the standard to use to measure your future college choices. My goal is to have all my children go here - I can't give you a better recommendation than that.

Claude Bassett
Recruiting Coordinator

UK is Unique

UK is unique, a university on the move, with everything a student needs for a great education. Here are some of the unique facts about the University of Kentucky:

— Jeff Zurcher, strong safety

Kentucky by the Numbers

Most schools believe in taking freshmen and immediately putting them on the bench.

At Kentucky, we believe in taking freshmen and putting them immediately on the field.

Take the 1997 season, for example. Except for the offensive linemen and one injured player, all 11 of the other signees played as true freshmen. Three went on to earn SEC or national honors:

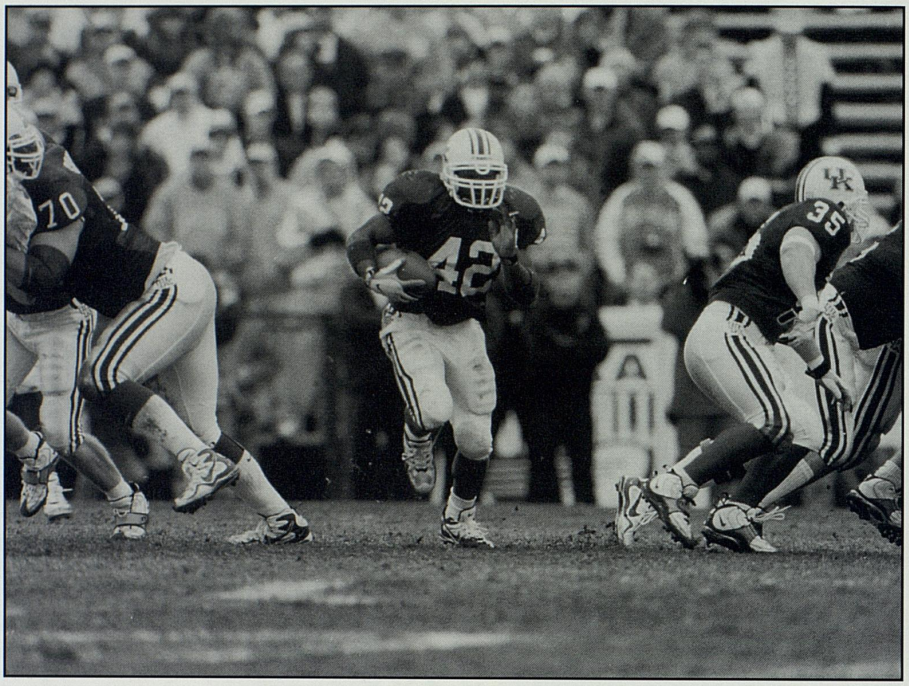
— Jermaine White, wide receiver



Running back Derek Homer rushed for 137 yards in this game against Tennessee. He was chosen for the Freshman All-SEC team.

Want to play as a freshman?

Then come play at Kentucky!

- Willie Gary, Free Safety - Willie started all 11 games and ranked fourth on the team in tackles with 82. He was named to the Freshman All-America team by The Sporting News and to the Freshman All-SEC team.
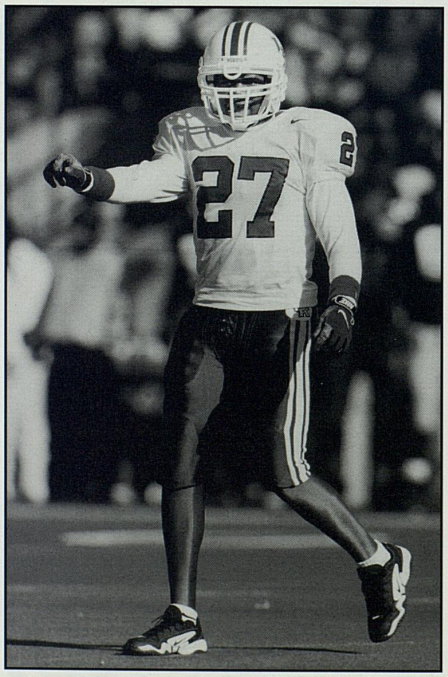
- Seth Hanson, Kicker - Seth was the team's starting kicker for the final eight games. He made 4-of-7 field goals and 30-of-31 extra points and was named to the Freshman All-SEC team.
- Derek Homer, Running Back - Derek rushed for 502 yards. He also caught 31 passes for 364 yards and scored three touchdowns. He was named to the Freshman All-SEC team.

"One of the biggest changes in football the last 25 years is the development and coaching of high school football players. We recognize that at UK. That's why we play true freshmen. We value the intensity and excitement that freshmen bring."

— UK Recruiting Coordinator Claude Bassett



Free safety Willie Gary was named to the 1997 Freshman All-America and Freshman All-SEC teams.

One word describes the offensive and defensive playing systems at Kentucky . . .

In Coach Hal Mumme's first season at Kentucky, UK's "Air Raid" offensive attack produced record numbers of points and yards. The Wildcats rolled up an average of 474 yards and 31.6 points per game.

"I don't think you can preach 'attack' all the time with the players and then, as a coach, not go out there and do it."

— Coach Hal Mumme, explaining why he often refuses to punt on fourth down.

And, if you like to take chances in order to win football games, then UK is the place for you. The Wildcats went for it on fourth down 38 times during the season - almost twice as many times as any other team in the Southeastern Conference.

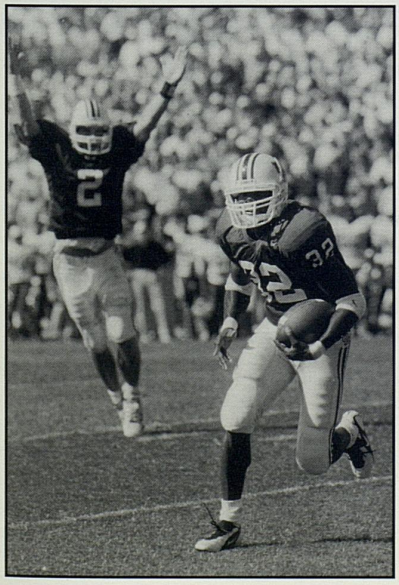
If you're a defender and love to make "The Big Play," then Kentucky is the place for you.

Kentucky plays a daring, aggressive system of defense. It's based on penetration - attacking the offense - and the Wildcats made their share of big plays during the 1997 season. As a team, UK had 63 tackles for loss, most in a decade. Bob Holmberg had 11 tackles for loss - most ever by a UK linebacker. And, strong safety Tremayne Martin's five interceptions were the second-most for a Wildcat since 1984.

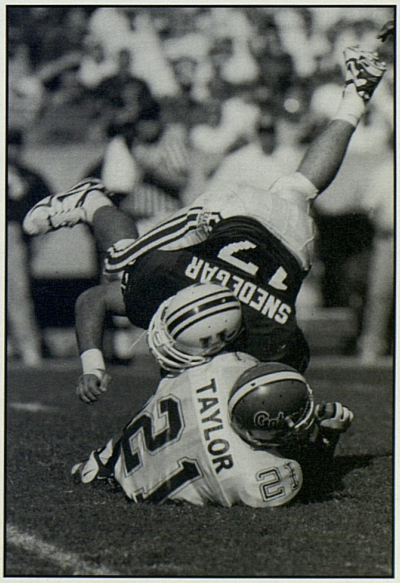
"It's attack football. We attack offensively. We attack defensively. It's just now getting exposure, but we've been doing it this way a long time. What we tell our players is this: 'Don't just stop a play, make a play.'"

— Mike Major, defensive coordinator

Attack!



Linebacker Jeff Snedegar is an example of UK's attack attitude on defense. Here's a list of Snedegar's big plays from 1997: three quarterback sacks, 11 other tackles for loss, two fumbles caused, one fumble recovered, four pass breakups, two interceptions, and countless opponents bruised.



Running back Anthony White heads for the end zone. In the background, quarterback Tim Couch already knows it's another Wildcats touchdown.

Wildcats Wear Nike

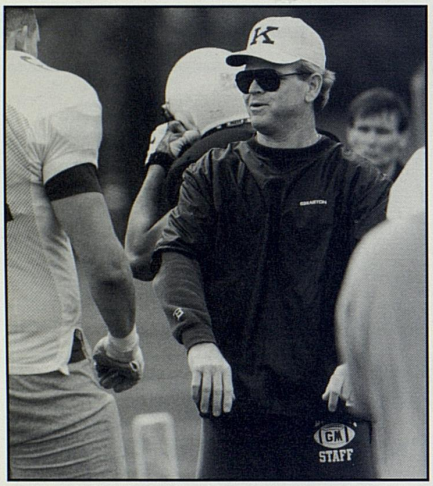
Across the nation, only 14 schools have an exclusive all-sports contract with Nike, the athletic apparel and equipment manufacturer. Kentucky is one of those 14 schools.

UK signed a five-year deal with Nike in 1997. The Wildcats' uniforms, shoes, shorts, sweatshirts, and other athletic clothing are provided by Nike. Thanks to Nike's extensive research and product development, UK athletes stay on the leading edge with the quality and style of their gear.

All 22 UK sports teams will use Nike shoes and equipment through the 2001-2002 school year. UK will receive more than $11 million in clothing, equipment, and cash during the contract.

Wildcats merchandise also is being seen around the world as never before, thanks to the strength of Nike's national and international marketing.

Learn From the UK Coaches at Summer Camp!



UK Assistant Coach Guy Morriss played 15 years in the NFL and also coached in the NFL for three years. All of the Wildcats coaches are actively involved in the UK summer camps.

One way to make the most of your ability is to receive instruction from the Wildcats' coaching staff at the UK summer football camps.

As interest grows in UK football - and enthusiastic campers themselves spread the word - the number of players attending has grown rapidly.

In the summer of 1998, a total of 1,872 players took advantage of the UK coaches and facilities at summer camp. That was a big increase from the 826 campers who participated in 1997.

UK offers a variety of camps during the month of June, from players age eight through players who have not yet begun their senior year in high school. Contact and non-contact camps are offered, along with specialized quarterback and offensive line schools and team passing tournaments.

A special feature of the camps is the direct involvement of the UK coaching staff. At some schools' summer camps, large numbers of outside coaches are brought in and the host coaches have minimal involvement with the campers. Not at UK. From registration until the end of camp, the UK coaches are directly involved with the campers.

"As a coaching staff, we set aside the month of June to work with campers," Coach Hal Mumme said. "We believe that it is important to invest our time in young football players."

For specific dates, costs of camp, and other camp information, call the UK football office at 606-257-3611 or write to

Walk-Ons Play at UK

Another unique feature of Kentucky football is the junior varsity team.

At most schools, the majority of walk-ons spend their time watching from the sidelines, holding tackling dummies, or perhaps playing on the scout team. At UK, walk-ons play in games.

The junior varsity team is comprised primarily of walk-ons in addition to a few scholarship players. The team forms at the beginning of the fall semester and practices for a month before playing a five-game schedule.

"This gives the players the opportunity to show that they can play at UK," Coach Hal Mumme said. "A player gets to run our offense and our defense instead of running some other team's plays on the scout team. And, if they don't make the varsity, the players can transfer to a Division I-AA or Division II school and know that they had a chance at a I-A program."

UK quarterbacks coach Chris Hatcher is the head coach of the JV team.

Attendance Booming at Kentucky!

The Wildcats fans responded in record numbers to the excitement of "Air Raid '97."

UK set a school record with an average attendance of 59,110 fans per game. Kentucky ranked in the nation's top 25 in attendance for the first time since 1981.

In addition, four of the top five single-game crowds in school history came during the 1997 season, topped by the 61,076 that turned out for the Tennessee game.

Those records will likely be broken again, beginning in 1999, when UK opens the expanded Commonwealth Stadium (see inside back cover of this media guide for drawings of the expansion.)

Four of the Top Five Crowds in Commonwealth Stadium History Came in 1997

4. Florida, 1997	59,224
5. Louisville, 1997	59,186

Fans turned out in record numbers to see the Wildcats last season. Kentucky set school records for single-game and season attendance in 1997.

Hi, Mom, We're on TV!

Being a Wildcat ensures plenty of television exposure.

As a member of the Southeastern Conference, Kentucky has television contracts with CBS, ESPN, ESPN2, and Jefferson-Pilot Sports to broadcast the Wildcats' games.

The media's interest in Hal Mumme's team generated six appearances on national or regional television in 1997. Nationally, two games were telecast by CBS and two were on ESPN2. Two more games were selected for regional telecast by Jefferson-Pilot as the SEC Game of the Week.

Play the Best in America

When you play at Kentucky, you play against the best teams the nation has to offer.

Great players like to play against great players, and as a member of the Southeastern Conference, Kentucky is assured of playing among the best.

Kentucky's 1998 schedule includes six bowl teams, including four teams that were ranked in the national Top 25 at the end of the 1997 season. Kentucky plays eight SEC games every season. UK's permanent opponents each year are Florida, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, South Carolina, Tennessee, and Vanderbilt.

Kentucky's non-conference schedule also is exciting. Each year, the Wildcats take on a pair of nearby rivals - Louisville and Indiana - that are fierce battles for state and regional supremacy. Fans pack the stadium for these intense, emotional rivalries.

UK Practice Schedule

Reduces Risk of Injury

Want to be on a team that reduces your risk of injury - and has you most ready for game day on Saturday - by playing it smart in practice? That team is Kentucky.

Coach Hal Mumme follows the National Football League model of being ready for game day by limiting contact work in practice. This is how UK's practices are scheduled:

Hal Mumme's practice schedule greatly reduces the risk of injury.

- Hitting in practice is limited to work on technique; there is no tackling to the ground.
- There are only four full-contact scrimmages during spring practice, including the spring game.

Obviously, many football injuries come when joints are twisted during tackling or in pile-ups at the end of plays. These practice plans greatly reduce the number of these injuries.

How did the plan work during Mumme's first season at UK? Let the numbers speak for themselves:

	1996*	1997+	% fewer injuries
Number of players who missed at least one game because of injury	18	4	-77.8 %
Number of practice days or game days missed because of injury	72	56	-22.2 %
Number of joint injuries (shoulder, knee, ankle/foot)	32	22	-31.3 %
Number of ligament sprains	33	14	-57.6 %
Number of heat-related illnesses	10	0	-100 %
Total number of new (non-recurrent) injuries	63	47	-25.4 %

* 1996 featured a traditional practice schedule with heavy hitting during the spring practices and during the season

The Southeastern Conference

SECond to None

In the ever-changing world of collegiate athletics, the tradition of excellence in the Southeastern Conference has remained constant.

It is this consistency that has made the Southeastern Conference a leader in college football. SEC rivalries are some of the most revered in the country. Auburn and Georgia have met on the gridiron 101 times. Ole Miss and Miss. State have battled 94 times. Kentucky and Tennessee have played 93 times and Tennessee and Vanderbilt have met 91 times. Rivalries among SEC opponents are considered the fiercest in college football.

Winning - on and off the field - is another SEC trademark. Since 1951, SEC teams have won 13 national championships. The 12 schools currently in the SEC have appeared in 284 post-season bowl games - the most of any conference in the country. The SEC has posted a winning non-conference record every year since 1933 with the exception of one season (1979).

Off the field, 894 football players have made the SEC Academic Honor Roll in the 1990s. The SEC has had 118 of its own football student-athletes named to the Academic All-America first team since 1954.

The NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship, given to student-athletes who maintain a cumulative 3.0 grade-point average during their collegiate careers and perform with distinction in varsity football, has been awarded to 61 former SEC gridiron standouts.

What will the 1998 season bring to the Southeastern Conference? Several things are for sure - fans will pack SEC stadiums in record numbers to watch exciting college football and conference teams will enjoy a record-number of national television exposures. It promises to be another great year of SEC football in 1998!

SEC is Tops in Total Attendance in 1997

For 17 straight seasons, the SEC has recorded the largest total attendance figure of any conference in the nation. In 1997, nearly five million fans passed through the turnstiles at SEC stadia. A total of 4,939,275 fans attended 75 games in 1997, an average of 65,857. SEC stadiums were filled to an average of 95.61 percent of capacity for each home game in 1997, highest in the nation.

SEC Football Televised by CBS

For the third straight season in 1998, CBS will be the national network provider of Southeastern Conference football. CBS will televise a minimum number of 12 games per year through the year 2000. The network will also carry SEC men's and women's basketball games. In a recent announcement, the SEC and CBS extended its current contract through the 2008-2009 season. The new agreement will expand CBS Sports current SEC football commitment and provide exclusive national network broadcasts of SEC home games throughout the season.

1998 SEC Football Championship Game

The SEC was the first to develop the conference championship football game on the NCAA Division I-A level in 1992. The seventh SEC Football Championship Game will be played on December 5 at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta. The game will again be televised nationally by ABC.

SEC to Send Seven Teams Bowling

The SEC will send at least seven of its teams to post-season bowls in 1998. The conference champion will be part of the College Football Championship Series, which includes the Rose, Sugar, Orange and Fiesta Bowls. The CompUSA Florida Citrus Bowl has the SEC's second selection while the Outback Bowl picks third from the SEC. The Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl has the fourth choice from the SEC. The Sanford Independence Bowl, the AXA/Equitable Liberty Bowl, and the new American General Music City Bowl will have the SEC's fifth, sixth, and seventh teams.

Here is the 1998 SEC bowl arrangement.

Bowl	Selection
• Bowl Championship Series (Fiesta, Orange, Sugar, Rose)	Champion
• CompUSA Florida Citrus Bowl Jan. 1, Orlando	Second
• Outback Bowl Jan. 1, Tampa	Third
• Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl Dec. 31, Atlanta	Fourth
• Sanford Independence Bowl Dec. 31, Shreveport	5th/6th/7th
• AXA/Equitable Liberty Bowl Dec. 31, Memphis	5th/6th/7th
• American General Music City Bowl Dec. 29, Nashville	5th/6th/7th

SEC Sets NCAA Record for Winning Percentage vs. Non-Conference Teams

For the 14th time in the last 18 seasons, no league has posted a better non-conference regular season winning percentage than the SEC. The SEC was 32-4 (.889) in non-conference games last season, an NCAA record. In the 1990s, the SEC is 246-83-5 (.744) in non-conference contests.

SEC Dominates AP Top 10 in the 1990s

The Southeastern Conference has dominated the Associated Press Top 10 during the 1990s. The SEC has had its teams in the AP Top 10 a total of 18 times since the 1990 season.

University of Kentucky Football

The finest indoor practice facility in the nation is on the campus of the University of Kentucky.

"The field house gives us the opportunity to practice under any conditions. We're not limited by Mother Nature. It's great when we're preparing to play a team that plays on artificial turf. We're very fortunate to have it."

— Jeff Zurcher, strong safety

Even when the weather turns cold, there's a place where Kentucky football is hot.

That place is the Nutter Field House, a marvelous $8.5 million structure that is the home of the Wildcats on occasions of inclement weather.

The Nutter Field House has many benefits for the football team. First, it is the team's headquarters during the off-season winter conditioning program. When other teams are shivering in cold weather, or trying to run inside in cramped conditions, the Wildcats have a spacious, climate-controlled place for conditioning. Each athlete receives the maximum benefit from his workout.

Second, the Kentucky football team never has to miss a practice, or have the effectiveness of practice reduced, because of bad weather. The indoor facility is always ready.

Third, the field house assists in game preparation. When Kentucky plays an opponent whose field is artificial turf, the Wildcats can practice on the surface and be ready to play on Saturday.

Fourth, the players have a place to sharpen their individual skills whenever the Wildcats aren't practicing as a team.

"I don't think anyone has better facilities than Kentucky," Coach Hal Mumme says. "The Nutter Field House is the big diamond in the midst of a lot of jewels.

"Because of the field house, our guys can work out for football all year-round, regardless of the weather. It's critical in our off-season program."

Even more than an indoor practice field, the field house can accommodate the year-round needs of 12 Kentucky sports — football, baseball, softball, gymnastics, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track, men's and women's golf, and men's and women's soccer.

"In my opinion, we already have in place the finest coaches in the country," UK Athletics Director C. M. Newton said. "The indoor facility means we have the ability to attract the finest student-athletes.

An outdoor view of the Nutter Field House.

"This multi-purpose building has been a tremendous boost to all of our programs."

The Nutter Field House, which was dedicated in a ceremony on Sept. 2, 1993, covers more than 132,000 square feet and is located adjacent to the south end zone of Commonwealth Stadium. It is named for E.J. Nutter and his family for their support of and service to the university.

The Nutter Field House paid immediate dividends to the Kentucky football program. In its first year of existence, it served as the team's practice headquarters when the team earned a berth in the 1993 Peach Bowl.

"When the weather is bad, we can go inside and get just as good a workout. It would hurt our performance on Saturdays if we didn't have it available."

— Jeremy Streck, offensive guard

The indoor facility features an actual playing field of 108,000 square feet, including a full-size artificial turf football field. The football field is surrounded by a six-lane, 290-meter track which expands to nine lanes down the straight-aways. Areas for field events are also included for the pole vault, high jump, and long jump. A 9,000-square foot gymnastics room is located in the front of the building and serves as the UK GymCats' home.

One of the most unique features of this multi-million dollar showplace is the electronic netting system. This system allows for different combinations of sports to practice safely, at the same time, by dividing the playing field. The nets can be lowered to separate the entire playing field from the track, or form four batting cages for baseball or driving ranges for golf. The playing field can be divided in halves to create two football, soccer, or baseball playing areas.

UK president Dr. Charles Wethington noted that the facility is used by the faculty, staff, and students, as well as varsity athletes.

"This facility is very significant, not only to UK athletics, but to the entire University of Kentucky community," Wethington said. "The indoor facility should aid us in taking our football program to another level."

The height of the indoor facility is 72 feet at its apex. This height allows punting, and field goal targets sewn into the nets permit realistic PAT/field goal kicking during practices.

Also included in the facility is 3,000 feet of office space for the facility manager, receptionist, and coaches. The building also includes another 4,000 square feet of storage space.

Below: The field house has an auxiliary training room.

Commonwealth Stadium

The Lair of the Wildcats

Expansion is on the horizon for Commonwealth Stadium as the Wildcats and their fans look ahead to their 26th year in the lair of the Wildcats.

The University of Kentucky is moving ahead with the renovation and expansion of Commonwealth Stadium. Plans call for both ends of the stadium to be enclosed, along with the construction of 40 suites, 10 in each corner of the stadium. The total number of seats is expected to be approximately 68,000.

Construction actually will be taking place during the 1998 season as the south end zone bleachers will be removed and preliminary work done in that area. The addition of extra bleachers in the north end zone will help compensate for the loss of the south end zone. Capacity for the coming season will be 55,453. Full-scale construction will begin following the Nov. 15 home finale in anticipation of being ready for the 1999 season.

"It's the highlight of the world (to play in Commonwealth). People are so electrified on Saturday. I love playing at home."

— Robert Jones, defensive end

A total of $24 million has been allocated for the stadium. Phase I of the project was completed during the summer of 1997. Several of the restroom areas were renovated and water service for the entire stadium was expanded.

The 1997 season marked UK's first under Hal Mumme, and the new coach was pleased with the UK stadium.

"Commonwealth Stadium is a beautiful place," Mumme said. "It's a very clean stadium, with great sight lines for the fans. The grass surface is topnotch. It's a great place for football."

When constructed in 1973, Commonwealth Stadium had a capacity of 57,800. It was completed at a cost of $12 million by the firm of Huber, Hunt, and Nichols. The stadium and parking areas rest on an 86-acre plot that was once part of the UK Experimental Station Farm Grounds.

The stadium was officially opened on Sept. 15, 1973, as the Wildcats moved into their new home after spending 48 years at Stoll Field/McLean Stadium across from Memorial Coliseum. Kentucky defeated Virginia Tech in the stadium opener, 31-26, as quarterback Ernie Lewis ran for two touchdowns and threw for another TD to lead the Wildcats.

Since its opening, Kentucky has played 156 games within the friendly confines of Commonwealth Stadium. And indeed, an 85-64-4 record and a .558 winning percentage is evidence that Commonwealth is a home field advantage for the Wildcats.

Excellent attendance figures also have gone hand-in-hand with Kentucky football and Commonwealth Stadium. The Wildcats have averaged 54,232 fans in those 156 contests at Commonwealth Stadium. In fact, 8,460,172 spectators have witnessed Kentucky football at Commonwealth Stadium - that's more than twice the population of Kentucky.

The five-millionth person to attend a UK football game at Commonwealth Stadium was Jack Crowe of Lexington. Mr. Crowe walked through the gate as number 5,000,000 at 1 p.m. on Oct. 3, 1987, as Kentucky played host to Ohio.

"You can feel the electricity and excitement in Commonwealth Stadium better than anywhere else."

— Mark Jacobs, defensive tackle

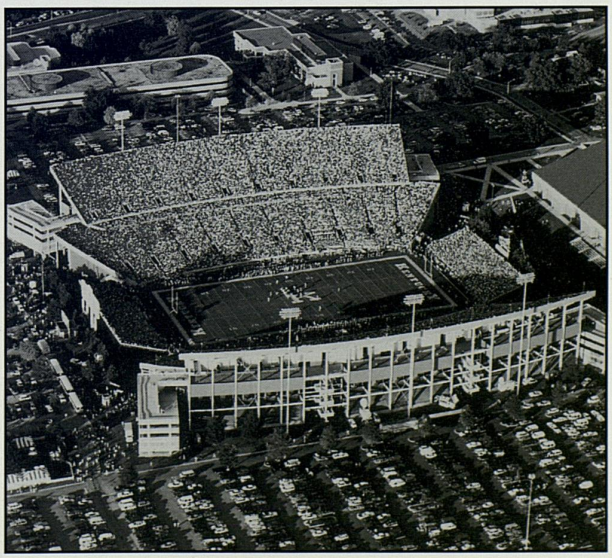
"It's really exciting to play in Commonwealth Stadium. I think we have the most loyal fans in the country."

— Tim Couch, quarterback

The enthusiasm generated by Coach Hal Mumme and his "Air Raid" attack boosted attendance last season. The Wildcats averaged a record average of 59,110 fans. A single-game record of 61,076 were on hand for the UK-Tennessee game, thanks to the addition of temporary bleachers in the north end zone.

An enclosed press box, which seats 110 members of the media, is located between the decks of the stadium's west side. Included in the press box area are 10 private booths (five for VIPs), a photography deck, and two dining areas. The press box is serviced by two elevators.

Commonwealth Stadium has been home for the Kentucky Wildcats since 1973.



E.J. Nutter Training Center

One of the nation's showcase football facilities rests on the southeast corner of the University of Kentucky campus.

The modern E.J. Nutter Football Training Facility ranks among the best in the country. Built at a cost of $5.7 million, the facility officially became the home of Kentucky Wildcat football in September 1987.

The Nutter Center, as it is called on the UK campus, encompasses over 48,000 square feet. It is located on Sports Center Drive, just across Cooper Drive from Commonwealth Stadium.

"You'll be hard-pressed to find a place that is better or more functional for players and coaches," said Coach Hal Mumme. "It's all in one place. The weight room is terrific. The training room is terrific. The video people are right there. The equipment room is the best I've ever seen. There are so many things that are helpful to players — racquetball courts, whirlpool, and so on. It's one of the top places in the nation."

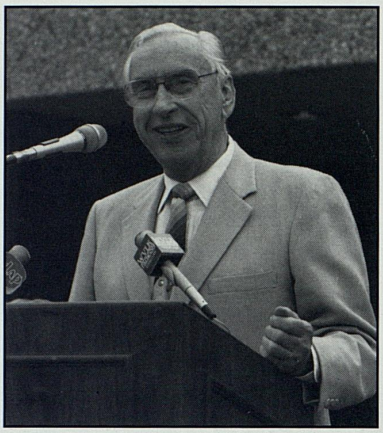
Aside from dressing facilities, which feature large, personal lockers for every Kentucky football player, the Nutter Center is highlighted by a 9,000 - square foot weight room. The weight room has 100,000 pounds of free weights alone in addition to numerous strength and conditioning machines.

The Nutter Center also has 11 meeting rooms, a state-of-the-art video and editing room for coaches' film, equipment and training rooms, staff and player lounges, a 60-yard sprint track, sauna and jacuzzi, an aerobics room, and three racquetball courts.

A touch of Kentucky history is on display in the foyer area. The memorabilia case holds UK trophies from such games as the Great Lakes Bowl, the Sugar Bowl, the Cotton Bowl, the Peach Bowl, and the Hall of Fame Bowls. The case also displays UK's 1976 Southeastern Conference championship trophy.

The facility is named in honor of Ervin J. Nutter, a UK alumnus who contributed one million dollars to start the fund-raising campaign. The Nutter gift to the UK Athletics Association was one of the largest gifts ever received by the UKAA.

"The University has been a great inspiration to me," Nutter said. "I do not feel as if I've given anything away. I'm just repaying what the University has done for me."



Ervin J. Nutter donated $1 million toward the construction of the Nutter Football Training Facility.

Nutter, a graduate of Hamilton (Ohio) High School, entered the UK College of Engineering and worked his way through college as an electrician. He left UK before graduation and passed the State of Ohio's examination for stationary engineers, becoming the youngest licensed stationary engineer in the state.

"Having everything in one area is great. I loved it the first time I saw it when I was being recruited. It's a wonderful, beautiful place."

— Craig Yeast, wide receiver

He worked three years for Procter and Gamble's Power Division before returning to UK to receive his bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering in 1943.

After serving with distinction with the engineering division at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Nutter became president of Elano Corporation. He later became president of Acme Screw Products of Dayton, Ohio.

While his unprecedented gift represented Nutter's love for the UK athletics program, his love for the University as a whole is well-documented. Nutter served two terms (1966-68) as president of the UK National Alumni Association and four years as chairman of the

"After traveling and seeing some of the other schools, and talking with friends at other schools, our facility (the Nutter Training Center) beats theirs hands down. It's a privilege to use that facility."

UK Development Council Board.

Another important part in building the Nutter Center was the donation of $300,000 by Seth Hancock, a central Kentucky horseman. Hancock also played a key role in raising the necessary dollars for the facility as chairman of the united effort to raise $2.7 million from private donors.

The ceremonial dedication of the Nutter Center took place on Sept. 11, 1987, with Nutter, Hancock, Jerry Claiborne (then UK head coach), Cliff Hagan (then UK athletics director), and former UK president Otis Singletary in attendance.

Kentucky Strength Program

Just how good is the strength program designed by Rob Oviatt, 1997 SEC Strength Coach of the Year? Let the players tell you.

"Coach Oviatt is the Strength Coach of the Year, which reflects his abilities. The strength program is set up to make you a total athlete, not just strong in one area. It's a complete package."

– Jonas Liening, offensive tackle

"Coach Oviatt is really dedicated. He's always willing to be there and do what is necessary to win. He fits his time around our schedule and what we need, not the other way around."

– Lance Mickelsen, wide receiver

"Coach Oviatt demands so much and that's why our players excel in the weight room. It's definitely top-of-the-line."

— Robert Jones, defensive end

"I've come a long way with the strength program. When I came here out of high school, I weighed about 200 pounds. I've added about 25 or 30 pounds of 'good' weight, so they've helped me a lot."

– Tim Couch, quarterback

"Coach Oviatt is a great strength coach. He really cares about you as an individual and about the team."

— David Berringer, offensive tackle

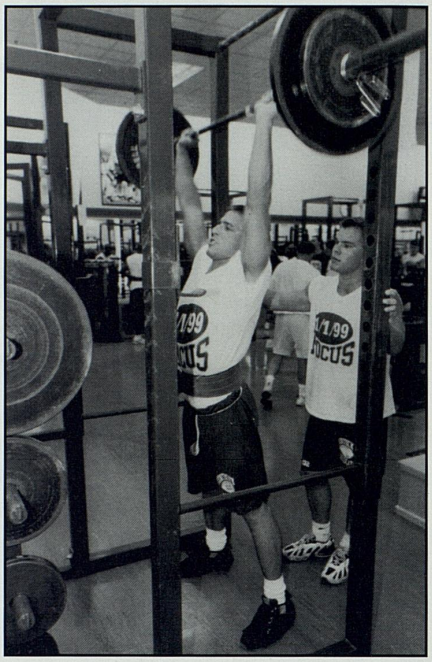
Given the obvious gains in strength and conditioning that the Wildcats have made under Rob Oviatt, it's easy to see why he was named the 1997 SEC Strength Coach of the Year. Since he arrived at UK in the spring of 1995, Oviatt has methodically implemented a plan for power that includes athletes bodies and minds.

"My role is to motivate athletes to motivate themselves," Oviatt explains. "The self-motivated person has endless possibilities in any area of life.

"If the players know that you care about them as people, and they see results (in the weight room), they'll do just about anything for you. I definitely care about them as people first, and hopefully my staff and I have put together a plan that will get them results."

Oviatt's blueprint for success combines goals of strength, speed, conditioning, and prevention of injury.

"Football is a game of the hips, legs, and lower back. Every movement on the field is initiated by those muscle groups," Oviatt says. "But strength alone is not enough. It's the speed at which you exert your strength that is the key to performance, the result being explosive power.



Jeff Zurcher locks it up in the Olympic push press.

"Olympic-style lifts get the highest priority because they're the most specific to football - you must move heavy weights with speed. These are the most athletic lifts because they require coordination, balance, and flexibility in addition to strength."

"Coach Oviatt is a great strength coach. He really cares about you as an individual and about the team."

— David Berringer, offensive tackle

The well-rounded Oviatt outlook also emphasizes:

- cardiovascular training;
- daily abdominal work;
- plyometric training, which teaches muscles to contract more quickly, efficiently, and powerfully;
- speed and agility training; and
- prevention of injury by training the entire body, with emphasis on the knee, ankle, and shoulder/neck areas.

Oviatt's strength and conditioning team includes assistant Brett Brungardt, graduate assistant Jamie Givens, and volunteer assistant Jennifer Jameson. Brungardt, co-author of four books on strength training, also brings nutritional expertise to the staff.

"A strength program is a team effort," Oviatt says. "We have great assistants in the weight room, great support from the coaches and administration, and most important, hard-working and committed players. They're the ones doing the work. It all starts with the players."

The strength staff also has the complete support of Coach Hal Mumme, who is an enthusiastic fan of his strength coaches.

"Rob Oviatt is a great strength coach," Mumme says. "He's knowledgable, diligent, hard-working, and he's a great teacher. When you combine Rob, his assistants, and our tremendous weight room, you have the makings of a great strength program."

In terms of facilities, Wildcats football players have one of the nation's best weight rooms.

For starters, the Nutter Center's weight room is 9,000 square feet. In free weights alone, UK has 100,000 pounds of equipment - 75,000 pounds of free weights and 25,000 in dumbbells. Oviatt has added seven Olympic lifting platforms.

To complement the free weights, UK has an abundance of Nautilus equipment, stationary bicycles, and treadmills.

Walk-ons Earn Scholarships

at the University of Kentucky

UK Coach Hal Mumme believes in the value of walk-ons - non-scholarship players - on his team.

Not only does Mumme give walk-ons the chance to play in varsity and junior varsity games, he also believes in rewarding walk-ons with scholarships. Although he has coached only one season at Kentucky, Mumme already has placed 10 players on full scholarship.

"It's just something I believe in," Mumme says about his policy of opportunity for walk-ons. "I've always had walk-on players be able to make the team and contribute on the field. It's one of the joys of coaching to be able to reward those players with scholarships."

A player doesn't have to be a star to win a grant-in-aid. Eight players on the 1998 team are walk-ons who have been awarded scholarships; but only three of them - punter Jimmy Carter, defensive end Robert Jones, and strong safety Jeff Zurcher - are projected starters.

Medical Staff and Services

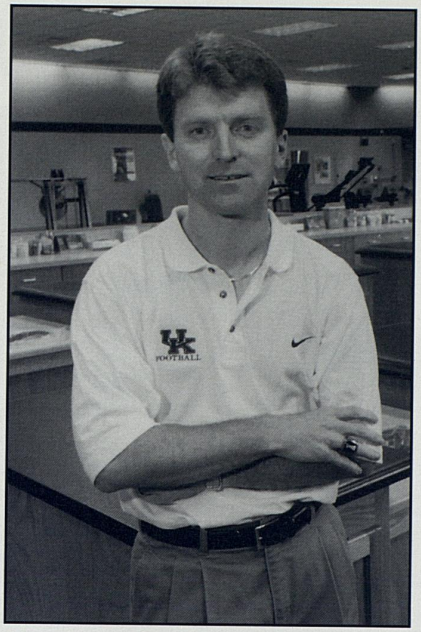
In the game of football, there is no substitute for proper health care and medical treatment.

UK football is blessed to have a first-class medical staff, led by Head Athletics Trainer Jim Madaleno and Assistant Trainer Jeff Allen.

The UK training staff is comprised of six full-time trainers, additional graduate assistants, and approximately 20 student assistants. The trainers work closely with UK's five team physicians, Dr. David Caborn, Dr. Kim Clawson, Dr. Darren Johnson, Dr. John Perrine, and Dr. H. Spencer Turner. A variety of consultants, covering every medical specialty, are available. Altogether, the medical team handles the needs of athletes in 22 sports at UK.

"Jim Madaleno is the best in the business. He's proved that wherever he's been," says Coach Hal Mumme, who worked with Madaleno at Valdosta State. "We trust Jim implicitly. His decisions are never questioned by our coaching staff. No one decides who will practice or play except the trainers.

"In Jim, we have a trainer who's gotten Lawrence Taylor and Phil Simms ready to play in the Super Bowl," says Mumme, referring to Madaleno's time in the 1980s as a trainer with the New York Giants.



UK Trainer Jim Madaleno proudly displays the Super Bowl ring he earned during his years with the New York Giants.

"Our trainer, Jim Madaleno, is on top of everything and the trainers are there day and night. The training room is like having a miniature hospital available."

— Kevin Coleman, wide receiver

"The medical staff does what is best for you, not just as a football player, but as a person. They have all the right equipment and they are very dedicated."

— Jonas Liening, offensive tackle

The UK trainers work in a superb area. The Nutter Center training room covers more than 5,000 square feet and includes ample space for taping and treatment. Inside the training room is a modern rehabilitation area and whirlpool therapy area, as well as physicians' and trainers' offices.

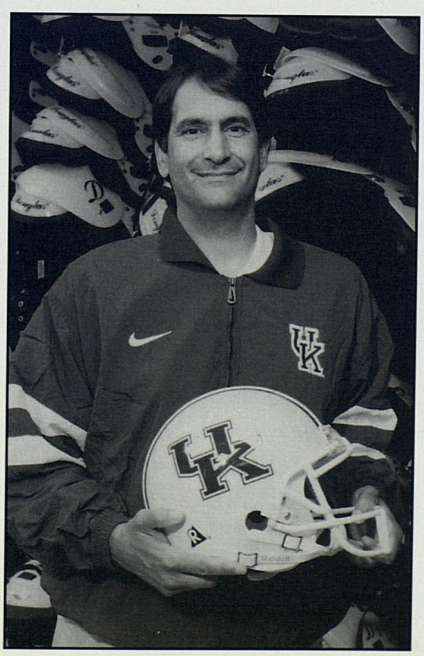
Equipment

The University of Kentucky football equipment room is under the able direction of veteran Equipment Manager Tom Kalinowski.

Kalinowski is in his 24th year at UK, including four years as a student manager and 20 years in his current role. Kalinowski and his staff of approximately 12 student managers are involved in the daily maintenance of the student-athletes' equipment.

Proper fitting of equipment is a key component of injury prevention, and Kalinowski personally fits each player with the appropriate equipment — helmet, shoulder pads, shoes, etc. — according to height, weight, and position. Much of the uniforms and practice gear is supplied to UK through its contract with Nike.

Maintenance, repair, and cleaning of equipment is also vital in the prevention of injury, and the UK staff performs those duties on a daily basis.



Equipment Manager Tom Kalinowski is responsible for the distribution and maintenance of the Wildcats' equipment. UK's game uniforms, shoes, and practice gear are provided through UK's contract with Nike.

"Everything we get is the best and we get a wide variety of equipment. And, if something doesn't fit exactly right, Tom will order it for you."

Ohio Casualty Center for Academics and Tutorial Services (CATS)

One of the cornerstones in the philosophy of University of Kentucky Athletics is a commitment to academic success.

Wildcats football players have done more than their share to achieve that goal. Here is a list of their accomplishments:

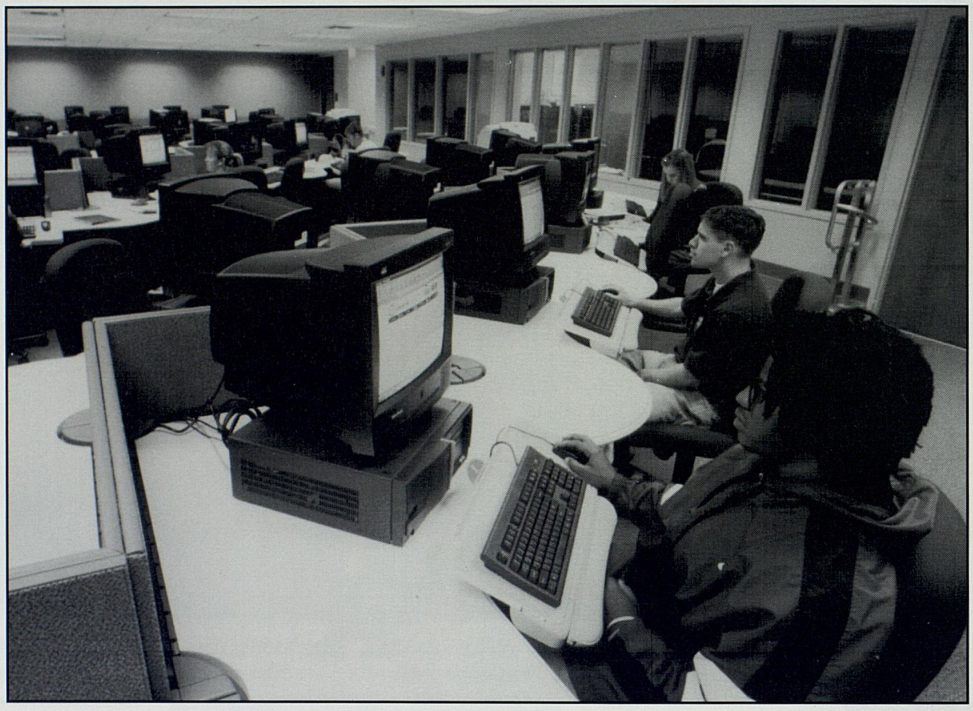
- Since 1980, Kentucky has placed 186 players on the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll, more than any other league school in that period;
- In 1996, Kentucky had 20 players qualify for the SEC Honor Roll - a league record;
- Kentucky won the 1989 College Football Association Academic Achievement Award for having the highest graduation rate among Division I-A football programs. UK was the first SEC school to win the award and the Wildcats achieved honorable mention status in four other years.

"One of the strengths of Kentucky football has been the academic performance of our players," Coach Hal Mumme says. "Our coaching staff is dedicated to recruiting student-athletes who will succeed in the classroom as well as on the field. We are thankful to have such a great support system available for players."

Much of the credit for UK's academic success goes to the Athletics Association's academic support system - the Center for Academic and Tutorial Services, or simply, "CATS."

UK opened CATS in 1981, the nation's first academic center dedicated exclusively to student-athletes. Over the years, as the services offered by CATS have grown, so did the need for additional space.

As a result, UK has built a new facility - the Ohio Casualty Center for Academic and Tutorial Services, thanks to a one-million dollar grant from the Ohio Casualty Insurance Group. The new Ohio Casualty Center opened in 1998 at a total cost of $2.4 million.



The computer room at CATS houses 35 computers.

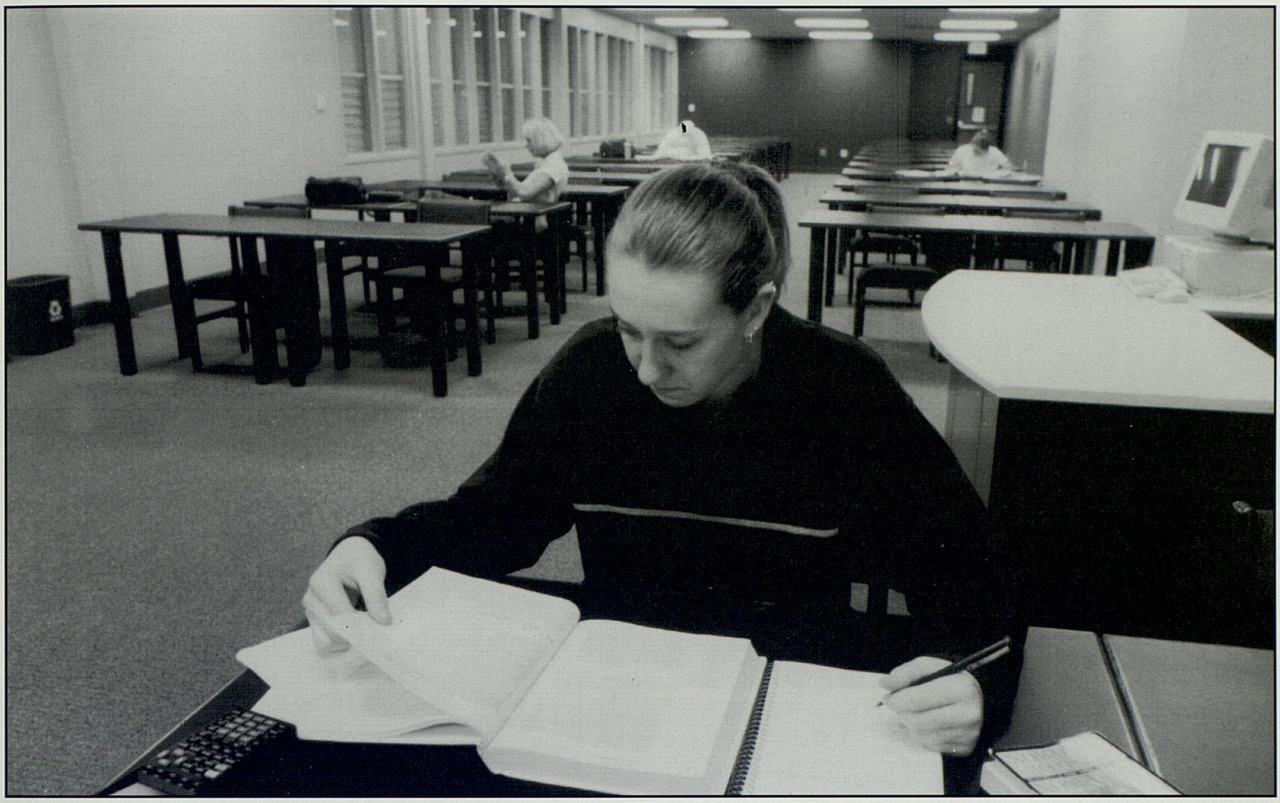
"One thing that really stands out about my time at Kentucky is CATS. Mr. Bradley, Barb Deniston, and the staff did a great job. We had access to computers, tutors, study halls ... It was very nice to have those resources available. Academically, it was great."

— Dermontti Dawson, former Wildcat and current All-Pro center with the Pittsburgh Steelers

The new CATS, constructed in Memorial Coliseum, includes:

- 20,000 square feet of space - more than double the size of the former CATS facility;
- a computer room housing 35 computers;
- a study area which accommodates 90-100 people;
- 24 tutoring rooms;
- a career development and life skills resource center;
- a community outreach office; and
- offices for the staff.

Certainly, a facility is a good start, but any program - especially in academics - is



One of the many study rooms in CATS. The new CATS was opened in 1998 at a cost of $2.4 million.

"I couldn't have graduated without them. Everything you need is there. They keep up with you and make sure you get what you need."

— Mark Jacobs, defensive tackle, has already completed his bachelor's degree only as good as the people who run it. And UK is fortunate to have outstanding leaders in its academics support system.

Bob Bradley, Associate Athletics Director for Student Services, oversees the CATS program. Bradley was named National Academic Advisor of the Year in 1989 and 1992.

CATS has a staff of nine people. In addition to Bradley, they are:

- Barb Deniston, Director of Academic Services;
- Mike Haley, Lisa Buchanan, and Amy Craiglow, Academics Counselors;
- Melissa Dawson and LaVonna Floreal, Academics Skills Coordinators;
- Mike Stone, Executive Assistant NCAS, and
- Ann Sampson and D'Ann Blankenship, Staff Assistants.

CATS also employs six graduate assistants and numerous tutors, both from the University and the surrounding community. UK has budgeted more than $1,000,000 for the operation of CATS in the coming year.

"We are extremely proud of what we have accomplished in the academic arena," Bradley says. "The CATS program is focused on winning in the classroom. We look at each student-athlete's individual needs, set goals, and develop strategies to attain those goals. Our center provides our student-athletes with a definite advantage over student-athletes at many other institutions. Our goal is to show that we care about the student as well as the athlete."

For the CATS staff, showing you care means more than helping athletes maintain eligibility, graduate, or win awards. The academics staff also prepares student-athletes for life after college with the Wildcat Career Development Program.

The Career Development Program helps student-athletes look to the future through a step-by-step process which includes:

- Mentoring and internships, which help determine career interests;
- career counseling;
- resume writing; and
- forming a career plan.

"College is a big jump for any student. CATS helps you with your schedule and tutors. It has to be the best in the nation. It's great."

— Willie Gary, free safety

The Wildcat Career Development Program works closely with the University's Career Planning and Placement Center in order to provide additional assistance when needed.

The William T. Young Library

$58 Million Facility Opens its Doors

In addition to providing the finest in athletic facilities, the University of Kentucky also provides student-athletes with the best in academic facilities. The latest addition to the educational landscape at UK is the $58 million William T. Young Library, which opened earlier this year.

• Size: The new library covers 365,350 square feet - more than six football fields. The building is five stories high, plus a basement.

• Shelf capacity: If laid end-to-end, the bookshelf space would stretch 198,828 linear feet - that's more than 37 miles of shelf space. The shelves will house 1.2 million books.

• Seating capacity: The new library can seat more than 4,000 patrons at one time, a 355 percent increase over the old library. The seating on the fifth floor of the new library equals the capacity of the former library.

• Computer connections: Every study table and study carrel in the new library will have an electrical outlet and a computer jack connected to the university's computer system.

• Flexibility: The library has a state-of-the-art electronic infrastructure that will enable UK to take full advantage of current and emerging technology. In addition, the five floors and basement of the structure are designed as open, flexible spaces, enabling the library to adapt its services and facilities to the future changes in needs of UK students.

• Financing: The athletics department has its own special investment in the new library. UK Athletics is providing $3,200,000 each year to pay for the $58 million building.

Community Cats

UK's Community Outreach Program

Student-athletes at the University of Kentucky have the opportunity for community involvement through the Community Outreach Program, also known as "The Cats' Cause."

Through "The Cats' Cause," community involvement has grown dramatically in recent years. Each athletic team receives questionnaires at the beginning of each semester to determine its players' interests in participating in civic and educational programs.

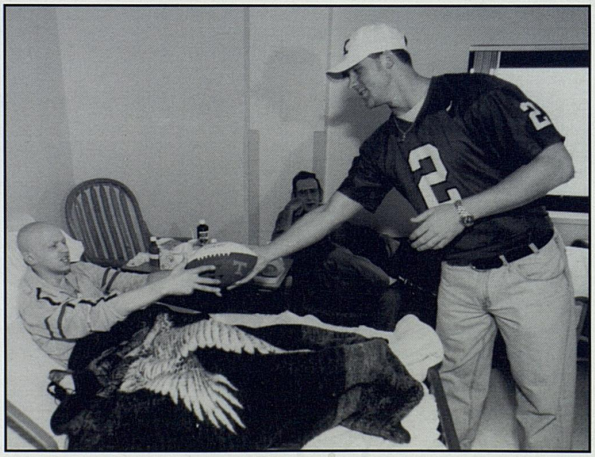
The Community Outreach Program got its start in 1990 when it was developed and coordinated by UK student-athletes. This project was established when student-athletes adopted the fifth-grade classes at a local inner-city school. The semester-long project matched athletes one-on-one with the school children. With the assistance of a UK athlete, the children were asked to set a goal for themselves. Then each week, the student-athletes met with the children and helped them accomplish their goals. The program was expanded to other Fayette County schools.

The Outreach Program has grown in several directions and student-athletes have participated in the following programs:

AMERICORPS: ATHLETES IN SERVICE TO AMERICA - This program, which began in 1995, addresses the issues of school success and violence prevention in hopes of keeping youth on the right track. It is sponsored by the UK Athletics Association, the Center for the Study of Sport in Society, and AmeriCorps, a national service project designed to help communities meet their education, public safety, human, or environmental needs through service. Ten former UK student-athletes are assigned to two elementary schools, one middle school, and one high school. The corps members work between 30-35 hours each week, serving as mentors, facilitators, and instructors. The corps members also conduct interactive workshops in the areas of media literacy, conflict resolution, cultural diversity, and the prevention of violence against women. The presentations are conducted at local schools, community agencies, and summer youth programs.

Wide receiver Lance Mickelsen was a celebrity guest on the 1998 Children's Miracle Network television special. Approximately $650,000 was raised for the UK Children's Hospital. The interviewer was Bill Bryant of WKYT.

BUDDY PROGRAM (College of Education) - Student-athletes serve as role models for elementary students at local schools. Athletes help younger students develop self-esteem through weekly interaction.



Kentucky quarterback Tim Couch visits a patient at UK hospital as part of the Community Cats' Outreach Program.

CELEBRITY VISITOR TO HOSPITAL - Student-athletes visit patients at local hospitals, including rehabilitation facilities and veterans hospitals.

COMPREHENSIVE CARE - Student-athletes talk to 12-15-year-old emotionally disturbed youths about goal-setting.

COPI-CAT PEN PAL - Student-athletes who are matched with elementary students correspond throughout the academic year. As a pen pal to an elementary student, athletes encourage students to read.

D.A.R.E. GRADUATION SPEAKER - Student-athletes give motivational speeches to youth as part of the Drug Awareness Resistance Education Program.

HOSPITAL BREAKFAST WITH SANTA - Each year, UK student-athletes assist the UK Hospital with a special Christmas breakfast for children at the hospital.

KENTUCKY EXCEL MENTOR PROGRAM - UK student-athletes serve as mentors for high school students participating in the Kentucky Excel Program. Kentucky Excel provides college scholarships for students who complete the program.

PARTNERS FOR YOUTH - UK student-athletes helped the Partners for Youth organization hold a summer festival for Lexington children.

SCHOOL SPEAKER - Student-athletes visit a number of local schools, speaking to children on a variety of topics, including the importance of an education, staying off drugs and promoting reading.

SCHOOLHOUSE ROCK - An "academic pep rally" in which UK student-athletes encourage youngsters in academic and social skills. More than 2,000 fourth- and fifth-graders, representing approximately 15 schools, came to Memorial Coliseum for the first Schoolhouse Rock in April, 1997.

The Cats' Cause and effect:

"The best program we have going at our school."

—School Teacher

"I like my buddy a lot. She helps me with my homework."

—Elementary School Student

"Please do not ever stop this wonderful program. It is one of the most beneficial that our students have ever experienced."

—School Teacher

"On Thursday, March 5, 1998, a UK football player presented his thoughts and ideas with regard to leadership to a group of approximately 50 fourth- and fifth-grade students. He presented himself very well and quickly established rapport with our students. We found him to be sincere and genuine. We are proud to have him as a representative to our Commonwealth."

Rick Mattox, Principal of Mapleton Elementary (Mount Sterling, Ky)

"It was a pleasure working with your two Corps Members. They had a great deal of knowledge to offer in their conflict resolution workshop. You have a phenomenal program."

Christine Faas, AmeriCorps Center for School Success

"Please thank the athletes that talked to our students on their visit to UK. The field trip was a wonderful opportunity for the children to experience academic and athletic success at UK."

Cathy Stuphen, Family Resource Coordinator

"The program is so beneficial to our school, community, and most of all to our students who don't have much hope because of the lack of role models."

—School Teacher

"We as teachers often say the same things the college students do, but they listen to them many times when they don't hear us. I look forward to this great program each semester."

—School Teacher

"Thanks for all your help! UK athletes have helped Bluegrass Impact to provide innovative ideas to meet the needs of families who have children with severe emotional problems. The athletes always make the kids feel better and bring a smile to their faces."

Libby Feindley, Bluegrass Impact

"Copi-Cat is a wonderful program. It's the best way to get my children to read books."

—Elementary School Parent

"If our students want to do something important in life, they have to study as much as play. UK has one of the highest graduation rates and we emphasize that."

—School Teacher

"We talk about a lot of things. He (UK student-athlete) helps me to understand why I should get a good education."

—Elementary School Student

Kentucky

Though the above words were written by one of Kentucky's favorite sons, any one of the millions of visitors to the Bluegrass State each year might nod in agreement.

Kentucky embodies the very essence of America, from majestic mountains and forests to vast sparkling lakes, from rolling acres of farm and pastureland to the hustle and bustle of metropolitan centers. And around every turn in the road, Kentucky's colorful past, which helped shape our country's character, is preserved and maintained for all to enjoy. The result is a state so diverse in travel and recreational opportunities that one is hard-pressed to name its equal.

If asked to describe Kentucky, one word that quickly comes to mind is horses. The Bluegrass region of Lexington and central Kentucky is internationally recognized as the Horse Capital of the World. Lexington is at the heart of the Bluegrass and it preserves the romantic tradition of the horse farms and is the hub of the multi-billion dollar horse industry.

Kentucky also is a land steeped in the rich history of our nation. Legendary pioneer Daniel Boone laid out Kentucky's second settlement at Fort Boonesborough and nearby, a hundred years later, the Shaker religious sect prospered at picturesque Shaker Village of Pleasant Hill.

Abraham Lincoln was born in Hodgenville (the one-room cabin is part of a National Historic Site). The plantation home that inspired Stephen Foster to write "My Old Kentucky Home" still stands at a state park of the same name. And the region that 200 years ago gave birth to one of Kentucky's most famous exports — bourbon whiskey — is dotted with world-famous distilleries.

"My Old Kentucky Home" in Bardstown is a Kentucky landmark.

Kentucky Facts:

Kentucky is one of only four states in the nation designated as a commonwealth ... The state capital is Frankfort ... Kentucky has 40,395 square miles of land ... Population of the state is 3,713,000, according to the 1990 census ... The three largest cities in the state are Louisville, Lexington, and Owensboro ... The state bird is the cardinal ... The state flower is the goldenrod ... The state tree is the Kentucky Coffee Tree ... The state song is "My Old Kentucky Home" ... Kentucky has more miles of running water than any other state except Alaska ... Kentucky has 44 state parks which annually draw 15.8 million visitors ... Kentucky has the world's longest known cave system — Mammoth Cave — with over 300 miles of mapped passageways.

The Kentucky Derby — called "The Most Exciting Two Minutes in Sports" — is run each year at Louisville's Churchill Downs. Louisville is about a one-hour drive from Lexington.

Lexington

This is Lexington, home of the University of Kentucky. Located at the heart of Kentucky's famous scenic Bluegrass region, Lexington combines the excitement of a metropolitan area with the hospitality of a Southern hometown atmosphere.

With a population of 235,000, Lexington's size makes for the perfect college environment for the University. The city provides a wide range of activities for UK students and their visiting friends and families. For example, among other activities, Lexington visitors can:

"I love Lexington. The fans have made it great because they take to you so well. It's not too big and not too small, it's just right."

— Craig Yeast, wide receiver

- play golf on championship courses;
- tour the world-famous horse farms or visit the Kentucky Horse Park;
- visit the historic homes;
- cheer on numerous sporting events, including UK's 22 sports teams and Lexington's pro hockey team, the Kentucky Thoroughblades.
- sample the city's night life at the numerous restaurants and music clubs;
- explore the beautiful countryside;
- enjoy horse racing at the Keeneland Race Course and Red Mile Track;

Thanksgiving through New Year's Eve is an especially beautiful time to visit Lexington, when the Horse Park's animated light display, "Southern Lights," warms the holiday season.

Lexington is a city to explore, from shopping and entertainment to one-of-a-kind restaurants and enjoyable accommodations — all within minutes of the UK campus.

The city of Lexington is surrounded by beautiful countryside and horse farms.

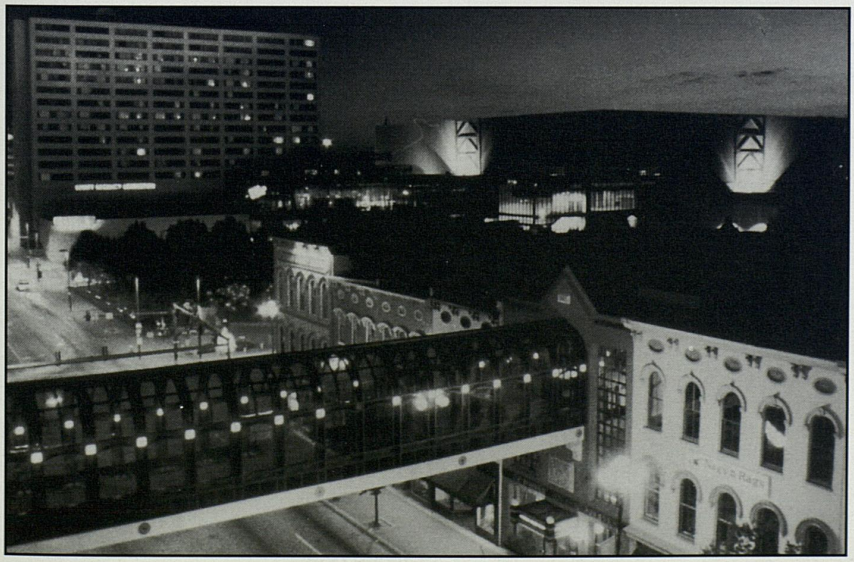
— Kevin Coleman, wide receiver



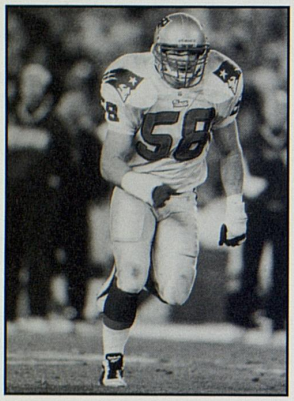
Downtown Lexington at night.

The surrounding Bluegrass Region also has numerous tourist options: visit the Kentucky state capital in Frankfort; take a riverboat ride and revisit 19th-century America at the Shaker Village at Pleasant Hill; shop in Berea, the arts and crafts capital of Kentucky; see how bourbon is made at one of the area distilleries; or search for treasures from the past at one of 200 area antique shops.

Lexington residents and visitors to the area enjoy the hospitable, cosmopolitan environment. Lexington was rated as the 17th safest city in America, according to a 1995 report.

For more information on the entertainment opportunities in Lexington, call the Lexington Convention and Visitors Bureau at 1-800-845-3959.

What the Pros Say About UK



Marty Moore - New England Patriots

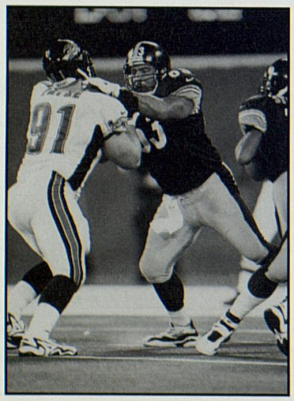
"At Kentucky, I learned a lot about discipline, hard work, and what it takes to play in this league, but they wanted you to get your education before you thought about playing pro football. Playing at UK was a great experience for me."

Moore is in his fifth season with the Patriots and has played in the Super Bowl.

Doug Pelfrey - Cincinnati Bengals

"Like a lot of other kids in Kentucky, I grew up wanting to play for the Wildcats. I was lucky enough to live out my childhood dream to play for UK. Academically and athletically, UK is a great institution."

Pelfrey enters the 1998 season ranked No. 2 on the NFL's all-time field goal accuracy list (80.6 percent).



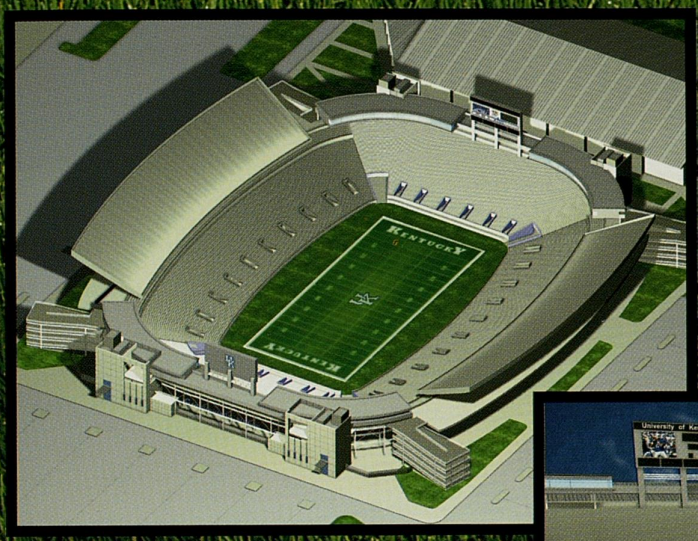
Dermontti Dawson - Pittsburgh Steelers

"I enjoyed immensely my time at Kentucky. The basics I learned at UK helped me get started in the NFL. UK helped showcase what I could do as a player ... Academically, it was great."

Dawson is an All-Pro center and has played in the last six Pro Bowls.

UK

Commonwealth Stadium Expansion



Commonwealth Stadium, home of the Wildcats since 1973, will be expanded following the 1998 season.

The plan calls for both ends of the stadium to be enclosed, along with the construction of 40 suites, 10 in each corner of the stadium. The total number of seats is expected to be approximately 68,000.
