Dedication

Dedicated to—John Augustus Williams, James Desha Pickett, James Kennedy Patterson, Henry S. Barker, Frank LeRond McVey, and Herman L. Donovan, our present president.

Through your guidance and cooperation the University has arisen from a small insignificant beginning to the nationally known institution that it is today.

Foreword

When the pages of this book are slowly turned in future years, may your memory of your school days at the University of Kentucky be recalled.

If they are, when this book is removed from some dark and obscure corner, our purpose will have been accomplished.

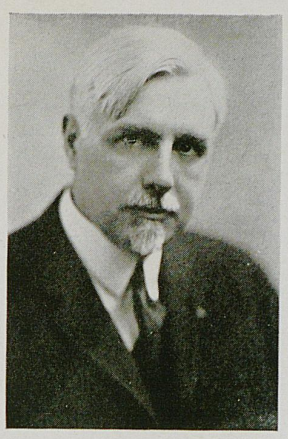

To all former students and faculty members who gave their lives in World War I and World War II so that their Alma Mater and all alma maters might remain free.

Dr. Amry Vandenbosch

Dr. Amry Vandenbosch, head of the political science department on the campus, was named the "Distinguished Professor" of the College of Arts and Sciences for the year 1945-'46.

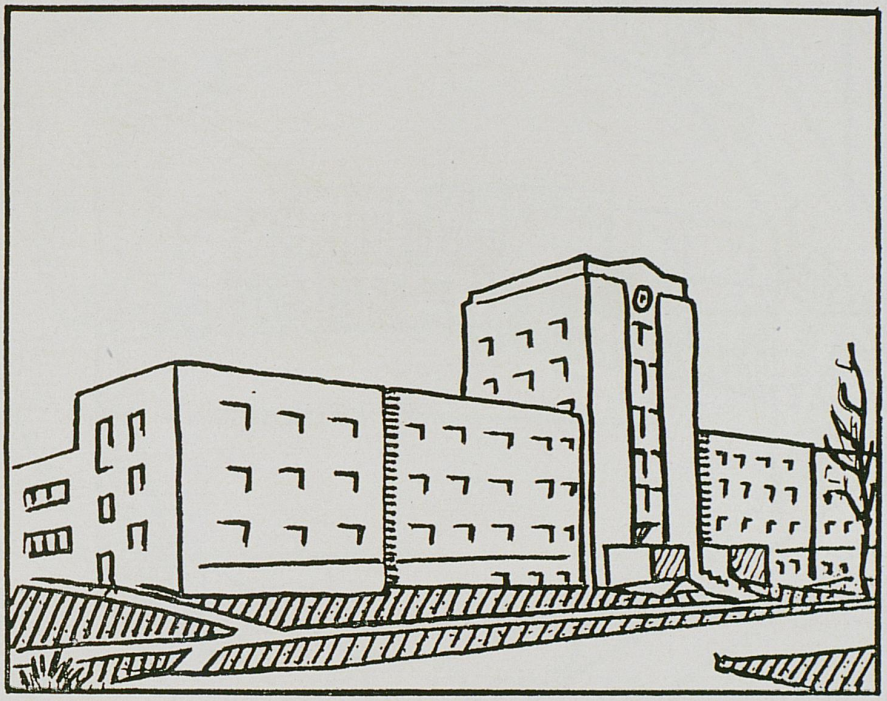

Dr. Vandenbosch has been a member of the University political science department since 1926. He was a member of the International Secretariat at the recent San Francisco United Nations conference.

Professor of the Year

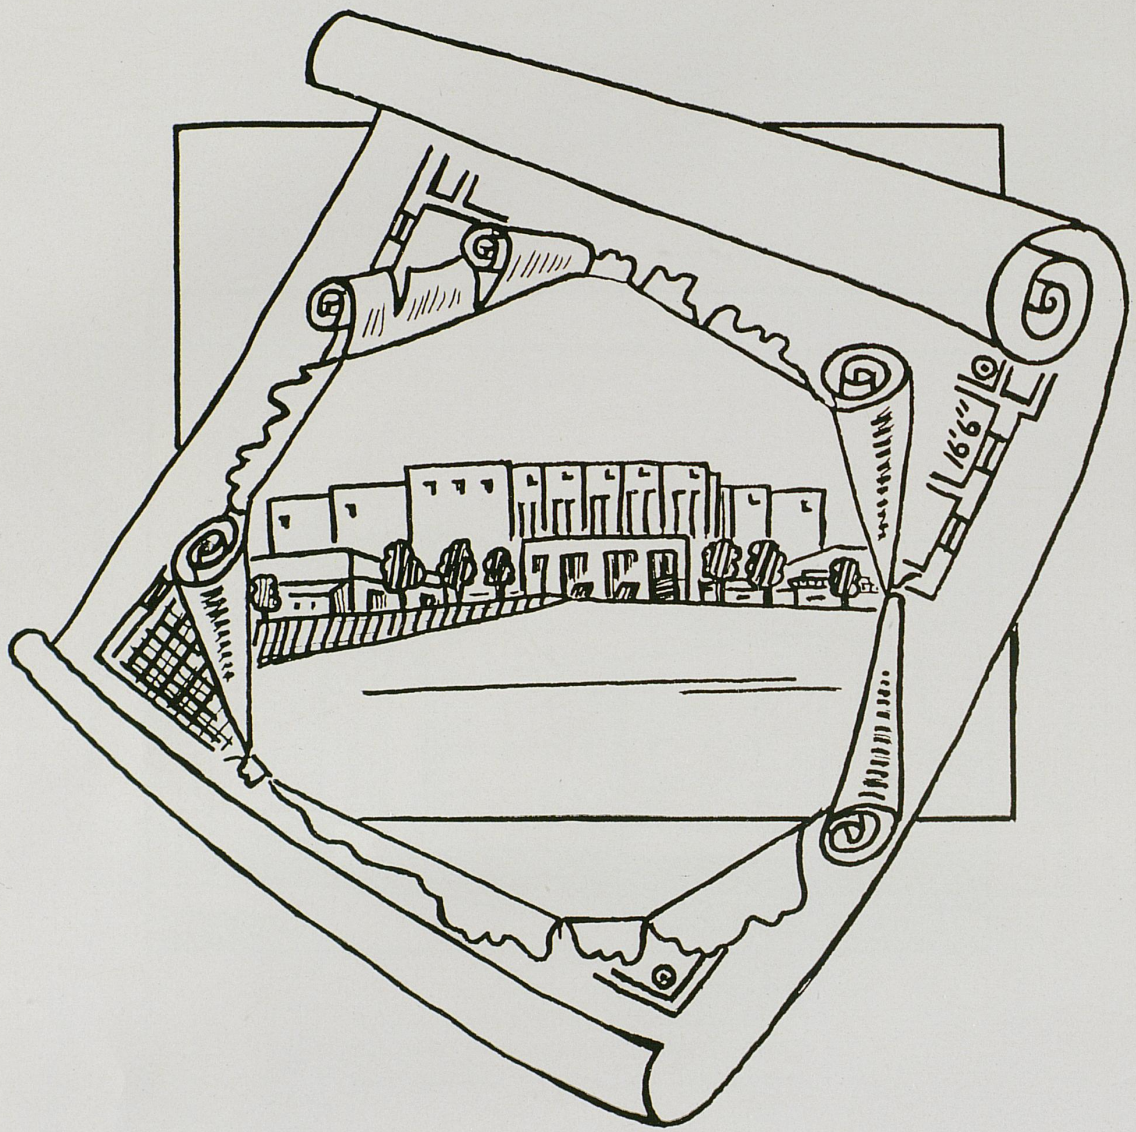

A few decades ago, there was no University of Kentucky. Arising from a combination of many schools, it answered the need for higher education in Kentucky and filled its purpose admirably.

The University has done its job well. Today with an enrollment of 3,600 the University is a thriving, well-regulated school.

To the people at the University now, the future seems more important than either the past or the present. The new field house, the men's and women's dorms, and all the improvements that are to come will make the University into an even larger and better school than it is today.

BEAUTY

Beauty

This year the Kentuckian queen was chosen a little differently than she has been in the past. Instead of an open contest at Memorial Hall, it was held in the ballroom of the Union with only the judges and a few members of the Kentuckian staff present. The judges were all connected with the University and it was difficult to choose among the thirty-three contestants.

The original plan was to keep the identity of the Queen a secret until the Kentuckian came out but the plans were changed and the Queen was presented at the Veterans' Club Dance.

While a different method of selecting the Queen was used this year, the Kentuckian has gone back to the old custom of having five attendants to the queen.

ATHLETICS

KENTUCKY

Jacobs, Gilb, Shively, Bostick, Walker

Football

Coach Bernie Shively took over as Head Coach of the Kentucky football team after Ab Kirwan resigned to devote more time to teaching history. Shively, Athletic Director for many years at the University, started spring practice and his urgent plea for players was heeded by over 100 fellows. He cut down his team to a workable 65 and started serious practice, pairing off the linesmen, the ends and the backfield. He appointed as his assistants Lew Bostick, "Baldy" Gilb, "Sully" Jacobs, and Paul Walker.

Bostick, a former star and assistant coach at the University of Alabama, took over the duties as Head Line Coach with "Sully Jacobs, former linesman at Kentucky, helping him. "Baldy" Gilb coached the ends and was to be Coach Rupp's assistant when the basketball season started. Walker, high school coach at Portsmouth, Ohio, helped Shively with the backfield.

The coaches and team chalked up the season to experience as they won only two games on a ten-game schedule.

MISSISSIPPI 21 — KENTUCKY 7

Approximately 18,000 perspiring spectators saw the Wildcats suffer a surprising and somewhat humiliating 21-7 defeat from Ole Miss in the Southeastern Conference opener September 21, at Memphis, Tennessee.

Surprising speed, power, and deception along with two intercepted passes helped the outplayed Mississippians win. Their first touchdown came with only fifteen seconds left in the first half, with Bob McCain making the score. Their second tally came in the final period when center Bud Gerrard intercepted Blanda's pass and ran 50 yards for the touchdown.

Fullback Jim Barnett ran 44 yards on an off tackle play behind beautiful down field blocking to score and put Kentucky back in the game. Fred Ferris kicked the extra point.

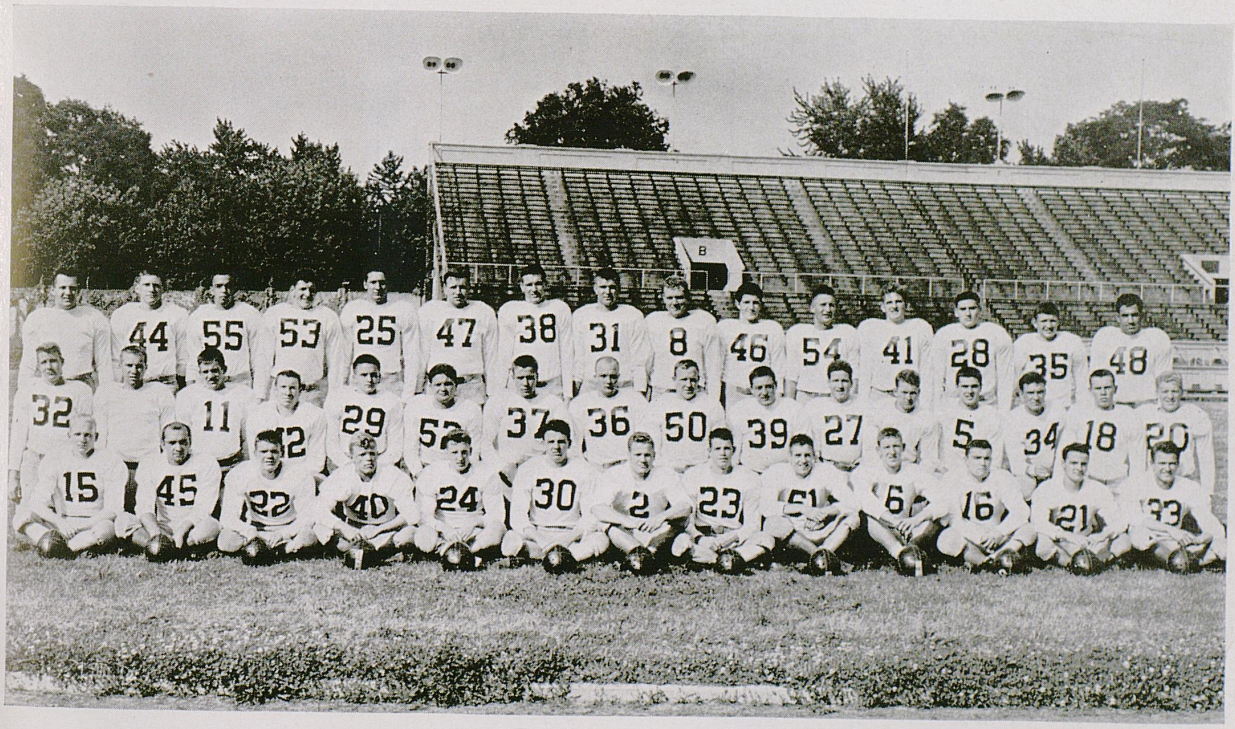

However, with four minutes to go, McCain scored again. Kauer made the three extra Rebel points.

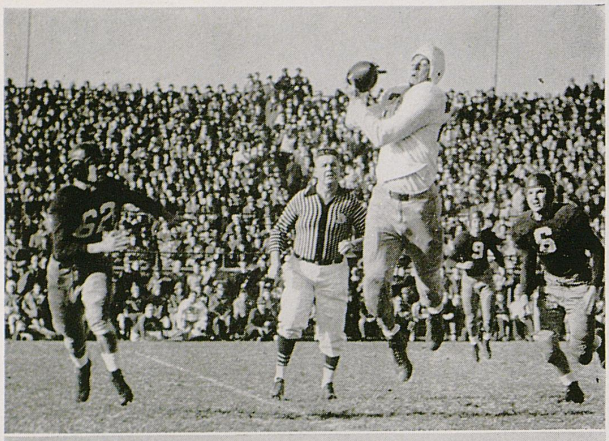

KENTUCKY 13 — CINCINNATI 7

Scoring twice in the fourth quarter, Kentucky came from behind to defeat a hard-charging Cincinnati team 13-7 before approximately 11,000 fans.

The Wildcats drove deep into Bearcat territory twice during the first half, but their attacks failed on the five and six-yard lines, and the half ended 0-0. In the third quarter Cincy recovered a behind-the-line pass on their 27 and three plays later Klusman found his way to pay dirt.

Jim Barnett scored early in the fourth period and Fred Ferris kicked the extra point to tie up the game at 7-7. Later Tunstill and Phillips moved the ball to the Kentucky 41, and Barnett took it around end for 59 yards and the last touchdown. Ferris' kick was wide and the score remained 13-0.

MICHIGAN STATE 7 — KENTUCKY 6

Playing against "old lady luck" the Wildcats lost a thrill-packed game to the Spartans by one point on a rain-drenched turf. In almost a replica of what happened last year on Stoll field, the Kentuckians outgained and outrushed the Michigan team, but muffed a scoring opportunity in the final minutes and came out on the short end of a 7-6 count.

The high light of the game came in the second quarter when Jesse Tunstill cut through a hole made by Serini and Paul for a 57-yard touchdown run.

Late in the game Blanda passed to Chambers in the end-zone, and what looked like interference by Michigan was ruled illegal use of the hands by Chambers, and Kentucky's attack faltered.

GEORGIA 48 — KENTUCKY 6

Charles "Rabbit" Smith and three dozen fierce, fighting ferocious Bulldogs from Georgia whipped the Wildcats, 48-6, before 11,000 spectators.

Georgia scored once in the first quarter, four times in the second, and once each in the third and fourth. Kentucky's lone marker came with only a minute and a half left in the game, when George Blanda made five out of six consecutive passes good.

Blanda's passes to Jones, Hensley, and Campbell were good and moved the ball to the Bulldog's 29. He missed Phillips, but hit Chambers for a 15-yard aerial. His sixth pass connected with Phillips for the score. Late in the game he flung the pigskin 66 yards to Chambers who juggled it with a Georgia back but made the catch as the final gun sounded.

VANDERBILT 19 — KENTUCKY 6

An alert Vanderbilt team took advantage of every mistake the fumble-weary Wildcats made, to score three touchdowns and hold Kentucky to one.

The 'Cats' lone marker came late in the game when Wallace Jones snagged a long pass to put the ball in scoring position. Kentucky fumbled on the next play, Vandy recovered, but luck was against the Commodores as they juggled the ball on their first attempt and Kentucky recovered. A penalty followed by "Rusty" Granitz's line buck gave the 'Cats six points.

The Commodores scored twice through the air and once on the ground, Tommy Gray carrying the leather over for the first touchdown. Schlant and Malsberger accounted for the other two on passes from Jimmy Allen. Williams kicked the extra point.

TENNESSEE 14 — KENTUCKY 0

An inspired Kentucky team covered themselves with glory on Stoll Field against Tennessee before going down in defeat 14-0. The Vols with three deep in every position, won with a steady stream of reserves against only three substitutions made by Kentucky.

Kentucky, playing their best game of the season, outplayed Tennessee during the first half, and held them to a 0-0 count. But the Vols started the second half with fresh reserves and after wearing the 'Cats down pushed over two touchdowns. Stephenson kicked both points.

Bernie Shively, coaching his last game, turned out a bunch of game lads that deserve a lot of credit for holding the 1944 Rose Bowl team to two markers. By doing this the team redeemed themselves in the eyes of all Kentucky fans.

CINCINNATI 16 — KENTUCKY 7

The Cincinnati Bearcats, eager to revenge the 13-7 defeat handed them by Kentucky earlier in the season, scored in the first five minutes of play and converted to take a 7-0 lead.

However, the 'Cats came back with Babe Ray and Rusty Granitz moving the ball to the Bearcats' six as the first period ended. On the first play of the new stanza, George Blanda carried the ball through center for the marker. Wash Serini kicked the point to tie the score. Later Granitz intercepted a pass and was tackled behind the Kentucky goal giving Cincy a safety.

In the second half, the Bearcats recovered a Kentucky fumble on the three and Klusman carried it over for the final touchdown. The conversion was good and the score stood 16-7.

KENTUCKY 19 — WEST VIRGINIA 6

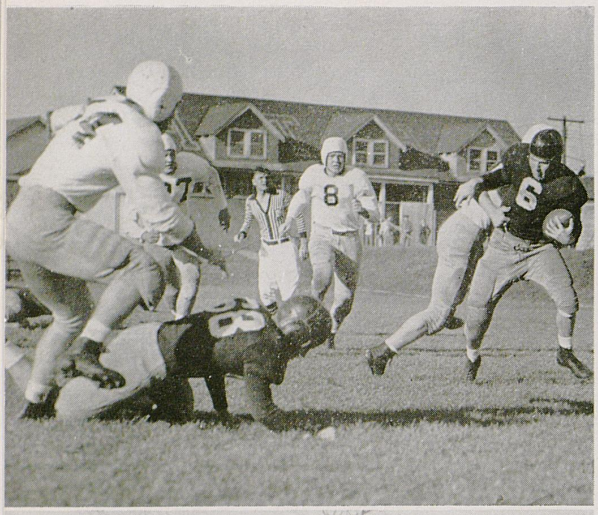

A rejuvenated Kentucky team chalked up their second win of the season by trouncing West Virginia, 19-6. Playing on a rain-drenched field before 11,000 West Virginia spectators, the Wildcats scored all three touchdowns on the ground.

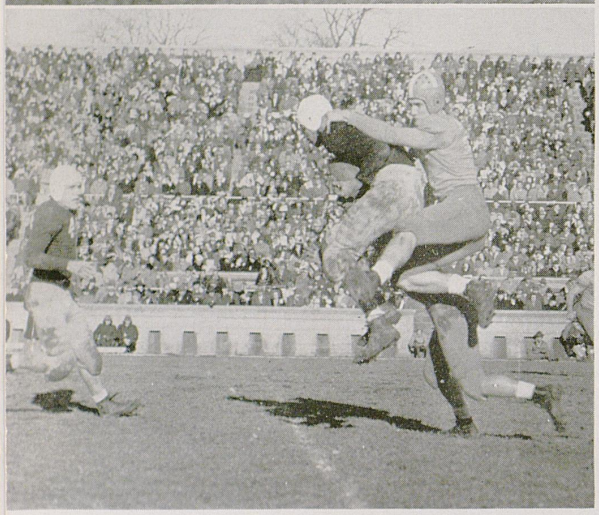

At half time, the score read 0-0 in the muddy battle. However, the bogged-down Kentucky machine began to click when Serini blocked a Mountaineer punt in the third quarter and Bernie Pavlovich fell on it across the goal for a touchdown. Ferris kicked the point.

Ray skirted end from the seven for the next marker, but Ferris' kick was wide. Yost scored the last touchdown on an intercepted pass, but again the wet ball went wide on the kick.

West Virginia's lone tally came with 11 seconds left in the game.

ALABAMA 60 — KENTUCKY 19

The passing of George Blanda, Bill Chambers, and Rusty Granitz to Wah Wah Jones and Dick Hensley along with Babe Ray's ground gaining netted 19 points for the Wildcats—the largest amount scored against the Rose Bowl champions in the 1945 season.

A pass to Hensley gave Kentucky their first touchdown. Late in the half, Ray went over from the seven. Serini missed both kicks. The 'Cats' last marker came about midway of the third period on a pass from Granitz to Jones. Fred Ferris made the kick and Kentucky had 19 points.

With Gilmer, Hodges, Tew, and Pettus leading the way, Alabama scored at will, eight times on the ground and once via the air. Morrow kicked six of the extra points for the Tide's total of 60.

MARQUETTE 19 — KENTUCKY 13

Kentucky was listed as the underdog before the game, but played exceptionally good ball even though they came out on the short end of a 19-13 count.

On the last play of a scoreless first quarter, Bill Chambers streaked 40 yards down the field and made a spectacular diving catch of a pass from George Blanda. Blanda carried the ball over, and Ferris kicked the point to give Kentucky a 7-0 lead. The Hilltoppers converted a Kentucky fumble into a touchdown near the end of the half. Dams's kick tied the score.

Marquette scored in the third and early in the final stanza, but Kentucky bounced back with Yost scoring from the one-foot line. The clock stopped another Kentucky drive and a gallant team lost, 19-13.

Basketball

Coach Adolph Rupp of Kentucky, rated for years among the nation's top basketball coaches, recently returned from Europe, where he assisted the United States Army in the development of a sports and recreation program for soldiers overseas.

The Wildcats' basketball mentor is now in his 16th year as coach of the famed Kentucky team, that has ranked year after year as one of the top basketball aggregations in the nation.

Rupp started developing winning basketball teams for Kentucky in 1930. In 1944, he won the highest honor in the basketball world—election to the basketball hall of fame. He was the 10th coach so honored in the history of the court sport.

In the last 15 seasons the 'Cats have won 225 games, while losing but 62, an average of better than 80 percent. Since Rupp has been at the University, the Wildcats have lost but eight games on their home floor.

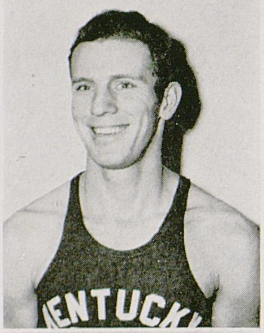

Coach Rupp is as colorful as the teams that he produces. He plays the game, and he instills that spirit into the men who fight for Kentucky victories.

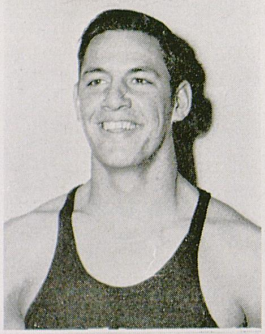

The coach is a native of Halstead, Kansas, and attended the University of Kansas, playing basketball under Dr. Phog Allen.

The University of Kentucky started the 1945-46 basketball season only a few days after Coach Adolph Rupp returned from a trip overseas as athletic director for overseas troops and peoples of the conquered nations. "The Baron," after returning home, started immediately to build what is turning out to be one of the nation's best basketball teams. After tireless effort and long afternoon and night practices on the part of both the coach and the players, it looked as though the Ruppmen were ready to take on their first opposition.

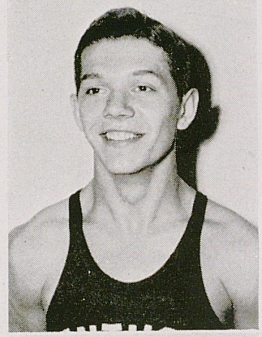

In the previous season Kentucky lost what was thought to be one of the top-ranking players of the nation—Alex Groza, who was drafted into the army. Also lost were Johnny Stough, a guard, who was also called into the Army and George Vulich, a center, who left the University. Groza was first string center until he was called. Most men of the national sports circles claim that Groza would have been acclaimed All-American had he stayed in school.

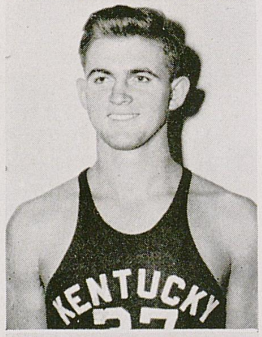

Lettermen remaining on the Kentucky squad from last year are Wilbur Schu and Bill Sturgill, seniors; Jack Tingle, Jack Parkinson, Buddy Parker, and Ed Allin, juniors; Rudy Yessin and Kenton Campbell, sophomores. Of the above mentioned—Jack Parkinson and Jack Tingle were chosen as All-Southeastern Conference players for the seasons of 1943-44 and 1944-45. Kenton Campbell was chosen as All-Southeastern center for the season of 1944-45, and Wilbur Schu was chosen as All-Southeastern second team forward for the season of 1943-44.

New men on the team include Ralph Beard, Wallace (Wah-Wah) Jones, Joe Holland, Darrell Lorance, Malcolm MacMullen, Jim Weber, Zeb Blankenship, and Barkley Sturgill. Other men back from the last season's squad are Deward Compton and Singleton Yeary.

Jack Tingle, captain of the 1944-45 team, is again first string forward. Jack Parkinson, newly elected captain, is one of the starting guards, and ranks high on the list of high scorers for the Southeastern Conference. Newcomer Wallace (Wah-Wah) Jones has taken over the center position. Jones, who hails from Harlan, was proclaimed the greatest player of American high school basketball and also established a record by scoring 2,398 points in four years of high school participation. Wilbur Schu, Tingle's running mate, is one of the best rebound artists in the nation. Schu won letters in 1943, 44, and 45 for basketball at Kentucky. At the other guard position is newcomer Ralph Beard from Male High School at Louisville. Beard, like Jones, was placed on the All-State team during his junior and senior years at high school. Beard has proved to be one of the fastest men to ever hit the UK court. He is well known as a "ball stealer" and has also proved to be an excellent floor shot.

Jack Parkinson, who was elected captain of the squad shortly before the team left for their Christmas trip to New York and Philadelphia, has been named one of basketball's best long-shot artists. Jack is usually the player that starts the ball rolling for Kentucky.

Other lettermen who head the sub list are Buddy Parker, Bill Sturgill, Ed Allin, Deward Compton, and Kenton "Dutch" Campbell. Newcomers who have shared the spotlight as substitutes are Joe Holland, Malcolm MacMullen, Darrell Lorance, and Jim Weber.

On December 1 the Wildcats took on their first opposition when they played the cagers from Ft. Knox. In this game, the Wildcats gave the fans only a preview of the material and the strength that they had. They easily defeated Ft. Knox, 59-36. The Ft. Knox team has not beaten the Wildcats in five games.

The following week the squad played a doubleheader with Western Ontario. In the first game, it looked for a few minutes as if the Kentucky team might be defeated. They finally managed to pull away to win by a score of 51-42. The following night the Kentucky boys stepped out to show what they had and to also avenge the close game of the night before, so they ran over the quint from Canada, 71-28. In this game the Kentucky squad made few mistakes and the fans were well satisfied seeing the Blue and White hit the pace that had been expected for so long.

On December 15 the Kentuckians were host to the University of Cincinnati. The Bearcats had defeated the Kentuckians in a gridiron contest earlier in the season so the basketball team beat the Cincy boys by a large margin to avenge the earlier defeat.

The next four contests were termed by assistant coach "Baldy" Gilb as "four tough games." The first was the game with the favored Arkansas team. Favoritism did not help the Arkies however, since the Wildcats won the contest by a large margin of 67-42. The Kentucky men showed great improvement in this game, and fans, expecting to see a close tilt, were rather disappointed.

Only three days after defeating the Arkansas quintet the powerful Ruppmen came in contact with Oklahoma. This game proved to be tougher than previous games, but still the Kentucky team over-ran the Oklahoma squad, 43-33.

Shortly after Christmas the Kentucky team packed up and hit the road for the annual Madison Square Garden game with St. Johns. This game was also quite close until the final minutes when the Kentucky men took a strong lead to win 73-59.

From Madison Square Garden the Wildcats traveled to Philadelphia to tangle with the strong Temple team. Temple had their original team from last year back with them and thus proved too much for the travel-weary Kentuckians. Temple beat the Kentucky Wildcats 53-45 to spoil the undefeated record of the so-called "mountain boys."

On January 5 the Wildcats returned to their home court to defeat Ohio University by a score of 57-48.

Following this game the Kentucky boys played for the benefit of the fans who were not fortunate enough to get tickets for the other games. The Ruppmen smashed into the Army team of Ft. Benning, defeating them by the large margin of 81-25.

Next the Wildcats smashed an age-old jinx of not being able to defeat the Michigan State team on the Michigan floor by downing the Michigan State quintet 55-44. Beard of the Wildcats led the scorers by ringing up 18 for the Wildcats.

Following the trip to East Lansing, the Wildcats again took the road to Cincinnati where they met Xavier. They went in with lightning speed, defeating the Xavier squad, 62-36.

With this victory over Xavier, the Wildcats brought their record to eleven victories and one defeat. Each game for the Kentucky team seemed to bring better results. In fact, the boys of UK played with the intention of again winning the Southeastern Conference and going high in the national tourney at Madison Square Garden.

Kentucky finished up the regular season by adding nine additional victories and one defeat to the ledger making their season count 20 wins and two losses. The Wildcats overcame Tennessee 50-32; Georgia Tech 68-43; then lost to Notre Dame 56-47; but came back with victories over Georgia Tech 54-26; Michigan State 59-51; Vanderbilt 59-37, and 64-31; Ohio U. 60-52, and Xavier 83-40.

The Wildcats started post season play by downing four Southeastern Conference opponents to take their third successive crown. It was their eighth tournament and ninth conference championship. In 1935 no tournament was played, but Kentucky was conceded the championship on a percentage basis.

Kentucky had little trouble overcoming Auburn in the first round. At half time Kentucky was on top 29-14. In the second half the Kentuckians added 40 points to their score and held Auburn to 10 and thus the final score read 69-24.

In the quarter-finals, Kentucky met Florida. The 'Cats jumped to an early lead and were ahead 35-17 at the half. The 'Gators tried hard but the final score still favored the Wildcats 69-32.

Alabama upset Tennessee in the other round of the quarter finals and thus were pitted against Kentucky in the semi-finals. The Crimson Tide hopped to an 8-1 lead as the 'Cats began to move slowly. After 11 minutes of the first half had passed the Wildcats took the lead and moved it to 32-18 by the rest period. The second team played most of the last half outscoring Alabama better than two to one to give Kentucky a 59-30 victory and the right to play in the finals.

It was Kentucky vs. Louisiana State in the finals as most of the prognosticators had predicted. Kentucky quickly accumulated a 7-1 lead as the Bengal Tigers, suffering from food poisoning the night before, looked ragged. LSU's play improved and the half-time score was 31-17. However, the Tigers just couldn't compete with Kentucky and a 59-36 victory went to the Wildcats.

Another fact that proved Kentucky's might was that four of the Wildcats' starting five were selected on the Associated Press' all-Southeastern Conference team and the remaining player won a berth on the second team. Captain Jack Parkinson was the only unanimous choice. Wallace Jones got 37 votes out of a possible 40, while Jack Tingle collected 33, and Ralph Beard received 30. Wilbur Schu made the second team. Bobby Lowther of LSU was the other player on the first team.

The Wildcats followed through a week later in Louisville and avenged their earlier loss to Temple by handing the Owls a 54-43 setback. Kentucky was behind 28-25 at the half, but the stubborn 'Cats turned loose their fury and pulled ahead shortly after the start of the final period.

Next on their schedule was the Metropolitan Invitational Tournament. The Kentuckians entered the tourney as strong favorites and had little trouble disposing of their first-round opponents, the Arizona Wildcats, 77-53.

In the semi-finals they met the West Virginia Mountaineers in a game that was nip and tuck all the way. The score was tied 14 times before Kentucky got hot with about two and a half minutes left in the game and scored eight successive points to take a 59-51 decision.

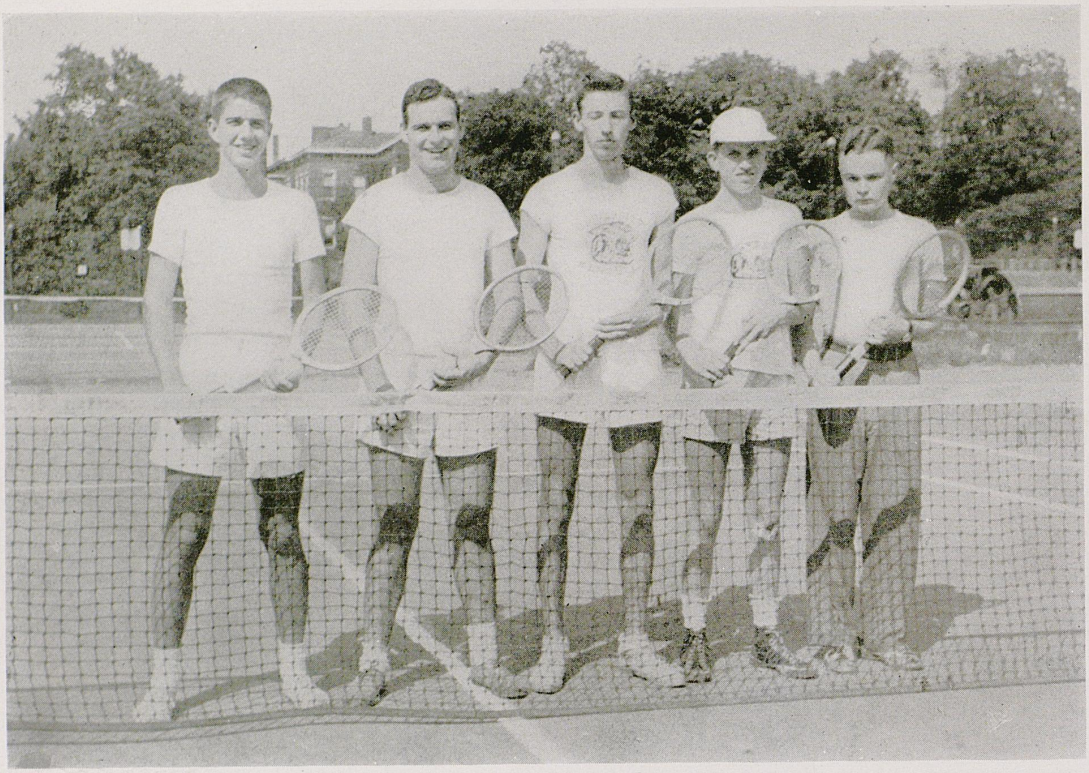

The finals proved to be another thriller when the Rhode Island Rams, 20-1 bets before the tourney, matched Kentucky point for point and held a 27-26 lead at half time. The score in this game was tied an even dozen times. Then in the closing minutes Ralph Beard dropped through the winning point on a charity toss, while 18,000 fans screamed and shouted in an effort to rattle him. The Rams made several desperate flings at the basket in the fleeting seconds, but with no luck, and the Wildcats won their first Invitational tourney, 46-45.

This year's team broke numerous Kentucky records for points scored and became the first Wildcat team to win 28 games in one season. Jack Parkinson accounted for 143 field goals and 53 free throws to amass a total of 339 points and break the individual scoring record at Kentucky for one season.

Wilbur Schu wound up the basketball season for Kentucky by representing them on the West all-Stars in the East-West charity game in Madison Square Garden.

Tennis

The University of Kentucky tennis team took to the court early last spring to resume practice and competition for the first time in several seasons. Organized matches had ceased as part of the school's athletic program. However, Coach Downing, thinking of the future, arranged six matches for his raquetters. The season was a success when the firing had ceased, with the team winning four matches while losing two.

Al Reynolds from East Orange, N. J., was the number one man of the team and in the words of the wise and seasoned coach, "One of the best first-year men to ever grace the courts for a Kentucky team." Jack Scharstein, of Covington, Bill Sturgill of Prestonsburg, Bill Long of Mayfield, Tom Asbury of Lexington, and "Rats" Bowen of Elizabeth completed the squad.

The team defeated Eastern State Teachers College, 3-0, Georgetown, 4-2 and 5-1, and the Lexington Country Club, 4½ to 1½, but were taken in stride by the powerful club from Cincinnati, 5-1 and 5-1.

Reynolds, a member of the Eastern Lawn Tennis Association, was defeated in the finals in the Eastern Intercollegiate Tournament by Mark Brown from the University of Miami. He was ranked as number two man of the tournament.

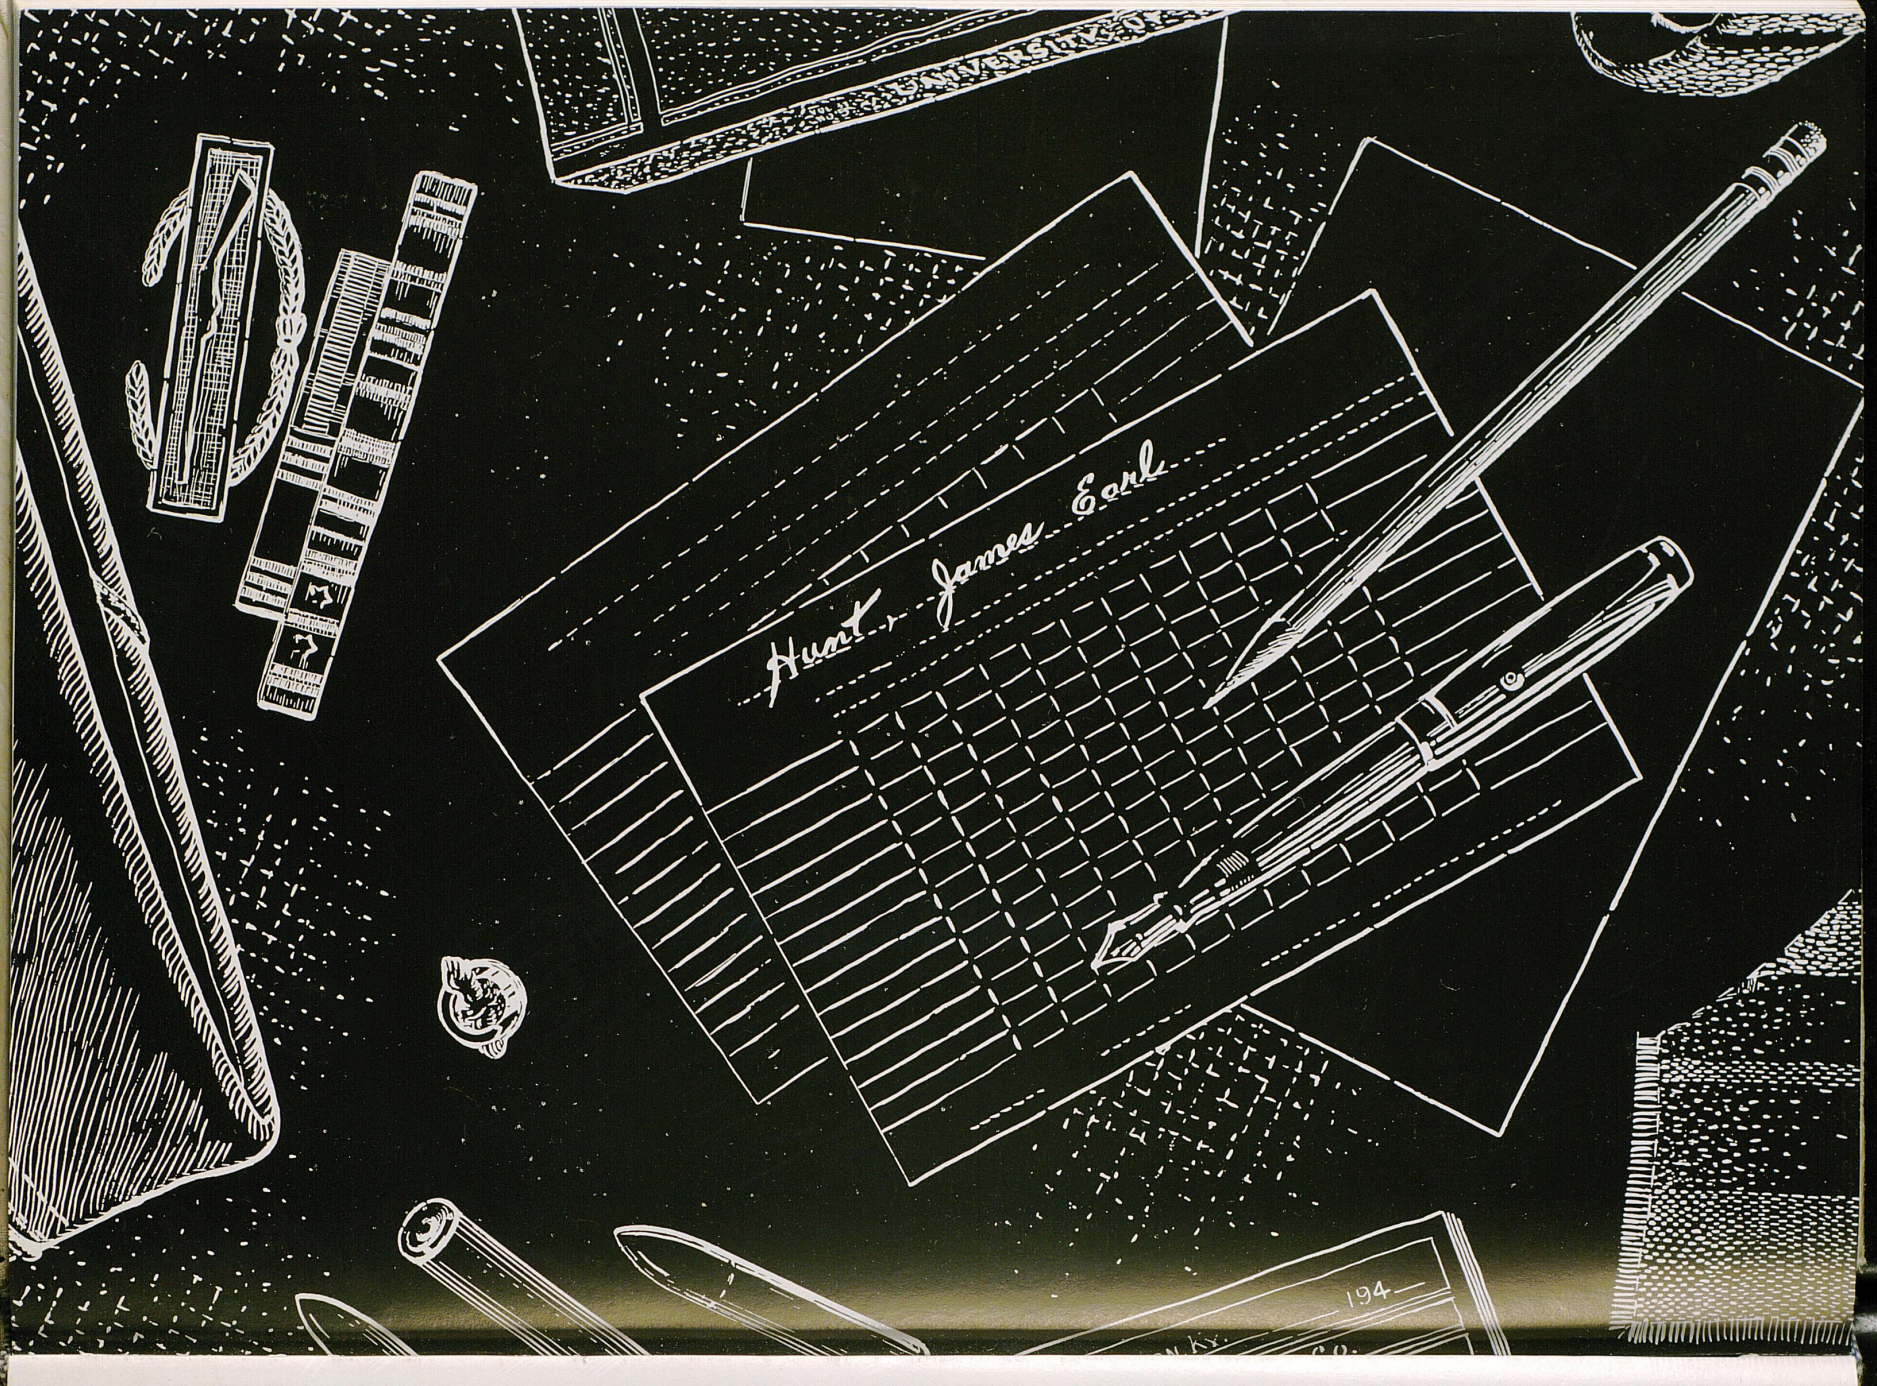

Coach Downing, who has been head of the tennis teams for 25 years, is looking forward to a good season this spring. Several men of his former teams have returned to school and he is hoping to arrange a schedule of 10 or 12 games. Matches with Notre Dame, Michigan State, and Cincinnati have been arranged.

When the staff of the 1946 annual met early in October, plans for the book were very vague. We did not know whether we would be able to take pictures or not. Finally after much delay the film arrived. Many other necessary materials were also hard to obtain.

To Tommy Gish, Libby Hayden and Lilly Baker, associate editors; Mildred Sparks, managing editor; and the general staff, go my thanks. Without their cooperation, willingness, and dependability the annual could not have come out.

To Doctor Plummer, LaFayette Studios, the Kernel printing plant, the Kingsport Press, and Artscraft Engravers go our appreciation for all they have done.

So here it is after much hard work – – – – the 1946 KENTUCKIAN.

Once again the job is done and the 1946 KENTUCKIAN has gone to press. The long hours of collecting, assembling, and mounting are over, and we hope the result is a book you will like.

It is only through the complete cooperation of the staff that this annual is possible and we have attained this cooperation. No associate editors could have worked harder than Tommy Gish, Lilly Baker, and Libby Hayden, and no editor could have contributed more time than Mary Lillian Davis. Moreover, to the general staff go our heartiest thanks for the grand job they have accomplished. The interest and effort of such people as Tom Duncan, Helen Dorr, Dick Lowe, Floye Mullinaux, and Joe Ward are greatly appreciated. Each staff member has contributed generously of time and energy and once again we thank you.

Now the job is over and we hope you will enjoy the 1946 KENTUCKIAN as much as we have enjoyed preparing it for you.

The business staff is proud of the University of Kentucky's first post war yearbook, the 1946 KENTUCKIAN. It reflects the trend of our school in the increased number of pages of new organizations and of reactivated organizations. Records were set both in the sale of organization pages and in the number of yearbooks sold in advance.

THE KENTUCKIAN may boast of the fact that there is no advertising within its covers and that it is still presented to the students at a low cost. Much credit must be given to Marjean Hill, Mary Keith Dosker, Billie Dale, Elise Meyer, Hazel Kennedy, Eleanor Van Arsdell, Virginia Minter, Shirley Stoltz, Janet Wallingford, Lesley Stalker and Judith Jackson for their loyal and untiring efforts.

It has been a pleasure to aid in the publishing of this year's annual.

What The Kernel has meant to the student body which has owned the paper and to the staff that has written and edited its weekly editions during its 31 years couldn't be measured in a page of column inches.

To the 3,509 students and 1,500 alums all over the state who read the news of their campus in The Kernel, and to the 25 undergraduate staff members who consider it an honor to pound the typewriters in the McVey hall offices, the official University publication has been many times worth its weight in linotype slugs.

Like every campus activity, The Kernel suffered during the war but it came through with its feminine staff without any ribbons around the copy baskets—and with money in the bank. The Kernel was first financed by student investment, and has expanded through its campus job printing revenue until the plant is worth at present about $65,000. Bank reserves will be used to help build a new journalism building and buy needed newspaper equipment.

Truly a student paper, The Kernel is free to print what it pleases without faculty or administrative interference. Summing up the paper's policy in an editorial in this year's first issue, the ideal was stated thusly: "To help in building a stronger University, a finer student and a better journalist by writing the truth."

With the opening of school this fall, life on a peace-time campus was something new for many of the college students. Ex-servicemen had returned to pick up their studies and everyone's outlook on life was a little more serious.

And The Kernel business staff continued its attempts to keep The Kernel up to par with its pre-war status. Through the long period of rationing, depleted stocks, and increased buying the advertising has been kept on its same high quality level.

This is due largely to the persistent efforts of four solicitors: Bettie Tuttle, Tilly Thompson, Allene Reinschreiber, and Miriam Cohen, who make up the second all-girl staff in the history of The Kernel.

Military

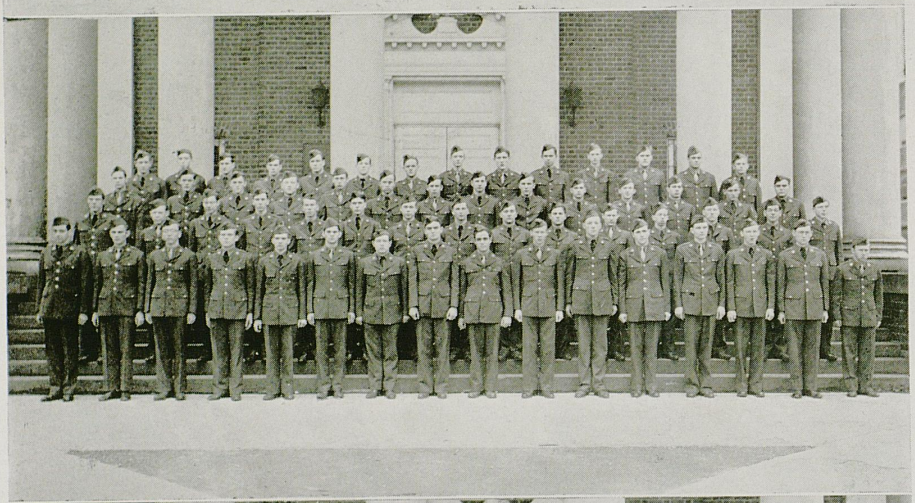

On January 26, 1946, the last of the A. S. T. R. P. students left the campus. Since then the lack of familiar uniforms has seemed strange to students who were here when the familiar one—two—three—four of the marching squad was heard many times in a day. The A. S. T. R. P. students followed A. S. T. P. students into the regular army. The last of the A. S. T. P. left on November 25, 1945.

With the termination of the A. S. T. R. P. and A. S. T. P. training units, the advanced R. O. T. C. unit, which has been missing from the campus for several years, has returned.

The military department has done a fine job in training the approximately 3,500 soldier students who were here at various times.

Cheerleaders

To the eight cheerleaders go the ardent thanks from the whole University. Whether faced with a small or large group at Stoll Field or at the Gymnasium, this group put on an excellent show.

The cheerleaders introduced new cheers and songs throughout the entire athletic season. Attired in white skirts and blue sweaters, these girls were able to arouse much enthusiasm and school spirit.

Founded at the University of Kentucky in 1939

PURPOSE

1. To bring together the members of the student body of the College of Law in an effective organization better able to express the spirit and attitude of the college and to promote the general welfare of the college.

2. To bring to the College of Law as often as possible prominent citizens and members of the legal profession to speak to the college on subjects of interest to law students.

3. To act as a social unit in giving an annual dance for members of the Association, graduates of the College, pre-legal students of the University, and guests; to assist in planning the annual banquet of the College; and to arrange any other events that may seem desirable.

4. To interest pre-legal students in the College of Law at the University of Kentucky.

5. To enter athletic teams in intra-mural competition when enough members express a desire to participate.

6. To improve the students' smoking-room of the College of Law.

SORORITIES

Name

Deans of Women

Mrs. Sarah B. Holmes, Dean of Women, is a graduate of the University of Kentucky. She spent five years at Sayre School for Girls as principal. Receiving her M. A. degree from the University, Dean Holmes came to the University in 1939 as Assistant Dean of Women. She was made Acting Dean in 1941 and Dean of Women in 1942.

As Dean of Women, Mrs. Holmes is personal adviser to women students and adviser to several student groups.

Assistant Dean of Women Jane Haselden attended Hamilton Junior College for two years, and is a graduate of Transylvania College. She began her graduate work at the University of Michigan and received her M. A. degree from Columbia University. She received her Ph. D. degree at the University in 1941.

Dean Haselden spent a year in France at the Sorbonne, a part of the University of Paris. She taught at Centre College and was Assistant Professor of French and Dean of Women at both Transylvania and Murray Colleges before becoming Assistant Professor of French and Assistant Dean of Women at the University.
