

Dear Bella
June 3 1862

I received your letter this morning I had wrote one and had it closed it up so I am under marching orders to fight another battle I hope that god will keep me from danger this time the same as the last battle the fighting is only easier we have two men to every one we had last battle this great struggle that is before us and Richmond will will end the war in this part of the country if Richmond is taken the rebels are done but they will fight hard before they will give it up there are more killed laying in the woods than ever can be covered they are black and stinking and all over maggots by this time my dear wife I want you to buy a Barrell of flour you can buy your bread the same

This is a sheet i got from you this morning and your stamp and invaluable i hope you will receive it safe the same as i got it so good by and God take care of you and the children and my self so you By Dear wife i hope you will hear from me before long our Regiment is reduced down to about five hundred men sum Dead and Sick Killed and wounded and so on your affectionate and loving Husband Thomas Warner my love to all my family

Direct as usual
Thomas Warner
Co C 103 Regt Pop
Washington City
Caseys Division and by plenty of Tea and Coffee and Sausages and every thing you can and go and demand your Belife Money i have to wrong them hard a misf you can put a few Dollars up and go to Swear i dont know how soon i shall want money

Self i have one five and two dollars besides i send you this five dollars and keep it for fear i shall want i dont know When we will be paid by your self and the Children shoes and and all kind of Clothing that you want there are three months pay coming to me know that is 39 Dollars i have you this just you can send me a Dollar if want perhaps i should i have but sum little all the men are getting bare of money do no more send me a sheet of paper and a stamp and a invoice in every letter they are very scarce here sum times