

Dea Brother Hunters Hill February. ²⁸ 1860

Your letter has just come to hand which always affords me great pleasure to receive them and it affords ^{me} pleasure to answer them also, As I have but few minutes to write and no much news to write you must excuse my short letter this time I shall just write what you wanted to know, well about the deed for the 80 acres of land there is eight legatees Durrett died without a will and of course mother comes in for a child's portion which makes the eighth legatee, her interest will be allotted with the perishable Proparty. I have deposited one thousand Dollars more in Bank beside mine, and Carolines, I cant say just now what all of your interest will be But as soon as we can have settlement I will let you know immediately, as soon as you get this I want you to have the deed signed and send them to me, and then they will have no excuse and will be Oblige to come forward and settle with me. I think by the first of April I shall more money for you

Yours
Robt. J. Lammack
