it I should sell Bill & have sell

There was a horse, from at Middlebury last - Thursday old Miles O. Riley lent them all out to the Chambers was their
This is Court week and Shanklin & Hammonds case was the first one on and will take until the middle of this week to get through to have 5 or 6 Lawyers on each side. Shanklin swore that he couldn't get any evidence. There is a good excitement about it. Need to keep a Police force to keep them from crowding the jury & jury out of the court house.
I could write a lot about it but I must go to bed

Brother Lewis:

We received your letter about Aunt Susan and I have had no time to answer it until now. we are all usually well here at home.
It is for Charles now-a-days Mary is about sick.

We have all been up to meeting to the School House this forenoon and I saw a fine lot of Cabs & Mifs. Cox came down with us & the last a day. I am disappointed his two colts for the wagon you used to have with Bill. Their But let Ezra have his old Wagon. Dan has lost his Dunkling Colt.

I have sheered sheep 5 or 6 days besides my own and they all went to shear about next week. I have promised only two days for this week shall go to Marshall Smiths next week I expect. I am going to finish weeding my Garden to-morrow if nothing happens besides cleaning up & Oiling
growing finely looks the best for several many years Alb has agreed to help me in hayry I am keeping my
summer feed is good Billy is in Halls lot his old coat is about off and he is getting fat as a pig I got him up a week ago & pulled his shoes off

can keep him in Halls lot all summer if he dont bother the Elder Ormrod. The offer to keep him for what he could get out of him.
Bill says may be you would like to let him. Talk him and break him decently my horses are looking pretty well for this I went to Vergennes yesterday carried two boxes of butter sold for 30 cts lb. I think of going over to Lake with 2000 one of these days and see if I cant - tried her for a cold or sell her if I dont I think I shall let her raise a colt
