Dear Friends at home

I received your letter last eve. I am a feeling very well this morning, but have been having a hard cold, but am in hopes it is wearing off. About husking corn the boys can go as - that - as soon as it will do. Perhaps it - would be well to straighten up the stacks under the Granary before the corn is put in. The apples will want picking and storing, and leave them in Granary I take it - that - Mayflower is all right Dear Mr. ^W ⁿ Jounnays will come in tomorrow - Monday, so I'll I can can see him. If I can be spared I may ship for home next week Love to All

E. J. Brown
