

I this evening improve a little while in conversing with you, while your associates & friends are gathered in the study for a prayer meeting, your Father is on the lounge asleep here in the sitting room & I am writing to you, & I wish you was here with them to take a part in their meeting, I trust God has heard & answered your prayers, I don't know what ^{Martha} she has written, but surely the Lord is in the place by his holy spirit we had an excellent meeting wedns eve, it would do your very soul good to see Mary with streaming eyes invite the rest to come to christ, Eray, Martha, Abda, Jenny Kitty, Charles Green, Silas, Amelia Hindes & Lewis at last has asked for their prayers & says he is glad to see his young friends starting in the cause of Christ & I wish Rufel & Sarah & Albert was here to night Elder Goodspeed & wife have nothing so they can not see or hear right had better come home & hope they will all you like your mother. I wish if you had having been not out to find out you ever long down here been here to day her health is a good deal better well they are singing with you go it seems as though I could hardly stay here but may I praise God I pray for Gideon that he may be a follower of the dear savior Electa has been sick all the week she went to Henrys Saturday & took cold coming home she feels a little better to day, well we shall all be done with the things of earth in a little while may we meet around that throne that is in heaven where Christ is to praise him forever & ever O I want to be more thankful tell sister Maria it seems like old times to see the young embracing Christ O may it only a drop before a mighty shower that may run down our streets like an overflowing T well they are all gone they all prayed but Lewis that have spoken before Bona is one too how different he appears Emma & Ethel dont start yet but it does seem as though they could not stay away a great while longer George is most sick to night he has got a hard cold & has the fever his cheeks look red but I guess he will feel better by morning well I must bid you good night you or I wanted to know what your father had his wool for he has no sold he sent it to Boston to be sold sometime they advanced 3 hundred dollars he went & paid that on his note to Trues
