Dear Lucy

I have took my pen in haste to write a few lines. This writing too we are all well as usual we had a letter from Myron last week their children have had the measles but have got over them he is expecting you he said he wished he could go down there but I do not think he will. I think you had better go before you come home if you think it for the best to stay longer you can consult duty about it I hope you will not get sick how do you like the little ants or are they all gone do you hear any screamers in the trees well we have dug & scratched along almost worn out with work & hot weather have made I cheer tell us I want some time you or she should send us a plan of the new house I have left all dishes not washed & have got my milk dishes washed have got to shorn Mr Ware staid with us all night a week ago had an excellent visit he is a nice man well we shall look for Charlotte & Maria shall have some company this fall have not done any thing but eat & drink have a plenty cucumbers peas & beans new potatoes there is a circus to vergennes Gideon is going to carry a calf down so we can send this by him we would be glad to see you all hope E will get better well I must say good by all love to all M & Willie yourself Mary Maria & all from your unworthy Mother write often tell C to write when she can A S W
