

C. Wear, C. Jan, 1865?

King Gold Georgia

Dear sister it is a gain that I see myself to drop you a few lines to inform you that we are all well yet it through kind providence that we are still alive Dear sister I hope when these few lines reaches you they may find you in good health calla I received your kind letter some time ago oh how blad I was to here from you a gain calla I don't know hardly what to write to you as I am very a marching ~~at~~ we have bin in one fight since we left ~~burg~~ ring Gold the rebs has left there we are after them strong taking a grate many prisoners Dear sister this morning I am happy to say that we are still a live but we are a working we are still on par with of the rebels we will have a rather fight before long as they intend to make a stand at Kinston Dear sister Calla

I am in a hurry for we will have to leave here this is a nice country Calla you stated in your letter that you was ^{at} home I wish that I could say so not that I am home sick Just so we get home safe a gain Dear sister Calla I got a ~~from~~ photograph from that gal at Baltimore

I will tell you something if I live to get home

O Dear sister Calla I must close for this time

Dear sister again I set my self to drop you a few lines Calla if you look on the map you can see where we are we are 40 miles from Atlanta there we will have a fight there we are after them strong Calla I can't hardly write as I have bin in the march for we wear but Calla I hope it won't be long till the war will be over and we can come home a gain but Calla if we never meet on earth a gain may we meet where parting is no more Calla I think of you a hundred times

Miss Calla Weekly.
Basil Fairfield Co.
Ohio.