given by the president

Present Augustine Eastin, William Garrard Maurice Langhorne, William Kelly Hugh Brent Thomas ~~Hughes~~ Phillips, Robert Trimble, James McCormick, Andrew Todd, John Curry, Jesse Bledsoe, and Thomas Hughes.

The Board proceeded to make choice of a Clerk in the room of William Garrard resigned whereupon John Payne was duly chosen. The Board then proceeded to take into consideration the propriety of selling the lott and buildings of the said Academy in the vicinity of the said Town purchased of John Henry and purchasing a lott of ground within the said Town and causing a building for the use of said Academy to be erected thereon. Whereupon It is resolved that it is expedient that the said lott consisting of nine acres of ground and the buildings thereon be sold provided five hundred dollars can be got for the same or four hundred dollars exclusive of the new building thereon to be removed in case of the sale for the latter price; and in either case the stone now lying on said ground for the purpose of building to be reserved; the price to be paid in money work and materials about a building to be erected in the Town of Paris for the use of said Academy; and in whatever will go in payment of a lott to be purchased in said Town for the purpose of erecting such building, or to be stipulated for at the discretion of the Commissioners hereafter appointed to sell the same. Provided however that the said Commissioners shall not take less than one hundred dollars in money admitting they can make arrangements in said sale for the purchase of a lott and in case such lott cannot be purchased without money, then not less than 160 dollars And It is further resolved that John Curry, James M'Cormick and Maurice Langhorne or any two of them be appointed Commissioners to sell said property according to the foregoing resolution.

And upon the report of Maurice Langhorne John Curry, James M'Cormick and Thomas Hughes who were appointed by a former order of this Board a committee to examine into the most eligible lott in said Town to be purchased for the erection of a schoolhouse or building for said academy they having stated therein that they think an Inlu lott on Pleasant Street adjoining the Dutch graveyard on the north and belonging to Thomas Mitchell being N.° in the platt of said Town is an eligible lott for said purpose and that said lott can be purchased for the sum of 110 dollars. It is thereupon resolved that the said Commissioners herein before appointed for the sale of the property of this academy be impowered to purchase said lott not exceeding said price and to make arrangements for payment for the same out of the proceeds of ~~said~~ said sale and be further impowered to cause said new house on the said nine acres of ground to be removed in case they should not sell it with the lott on which it is and placed on said lott so purchased and finished in a comfortable and convenient manner to be also paid for by them out of the proceeds of the sale of said property at their discretion as soon as may be reserving 50 dollars in money to pay the Debts of this academy heretofore contracted Signed Augustin Eastin

A report from the Committee appointed to examine how much lands, under the law endowing this Academy, the trustees of the institution are authorized to sell; Which report, being examined, was approved of by the board, and ordered to be recorded, as follows - to wit -

In obedience to an order of the trustees of the Bourbon Academy, made at a meeting of the board on the 11th day of November 1806, directing us to examine how much lands, under the law endowing this Academy, the trustees thereof have a right to sell - We report as follows.

1st. That under the law, the trustees are authorized to sell one eighth of the 6000 acres, for the purpose of defraying the expences of locating, and surveying the same, which eighth amounts to

Acres - - - - 750

2dly. That the trustees are authorized to sell one eighth of the residue, for other purposes which could be . . . . . 3 656 acres

3dly. That the locating and surveying the said lands, cost the trustees . . . . 3 $ 300 —

4thly. That having sold 500 acres, for the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, the trustees have expended fifty dollars more than has yet been raised, by the sale of the lands . . . . . 250 —

Balance for the use of Trustees . . . . $ 50 —

5thly We therefore think the trustees have a right to sell 250 acres, the residue of the first eighth, for the purpose of defraying, or repaying the said fifty dollars, - which, together with - 656 acres, the second eighth, will make the quantity which the trustees are now authorized to sell . . . . . Acres - 906 —

Mr. John Lyle produced to the trustees, an article of agreement, containing the terms on which he would undertake the direction of a school, to be taught in Paris, together with such rules and regulations, as shall be introduced for the government thereof, which is ordered to be recorded, and is as follows - to wit -

Articles of agreement between John Lyle, of the one part, and the trustees of Bourbon academy, of the other part - Witnesseth - That the said Lyle agrees to take the Presidency of Bourbon Academy, and to use his endeavours to teach the Students of said academy, or cause them to be taught, in the best manner, on the following terms, viz - Spelling, reading, writing and arithmetic at the rate of ten dollars a year, for each scholar. The latin and greek languages, and english grammar, at fifteen dollars; and the sciences at sixteen dollars and fifty cents.

And the said John Lyle agrees to govern the school, according to the following laws, together with such additions, or amendments, as said Lyle and the trustees may, after further experience, judge proper.

Laws —

1st. No person shall be admitted as a scholar in Bourbon Academy, for a shorter time than one session, - that is, five months and five days, unless with the consent of said Lyle, on such terms as he, the said Lyle, may think proper to teach for.

2d. Every student, more than fourteen years old, shall, in the presence of his fellow students, bind himself, by promise, to obey all the laws of the institution.

3d. Every student shall appear in the academy at eight o'clock A.M., in summer, and at nine o'clock, in winter; and shall attend morning prayers, with becoming decency, and respect. 4th Every student shall diligently attend those studies which may be prescribed to him by his tutor, until four O'Clock P.M. in summer, and four o'clock in winter; except two hours of recreation, in summer, and an hour and a half, in winter; and he shall always get the task assigned him so as to recite with his class. 5th During school hours each student shall avoid all unnecessary talking, whispering, laugh=ing, and whatever else might disturb others at study; and shall, at all times, treat his fellow students with politeness, and due respect, avoiding all names of reproach, and all kinds of quarrel=ling and contention.

6th Every student shall carefully avoid idle and vicious company, and shall abstain from drink=ing, gambling, and every kind of vice and dis=sipation. 7th At the commencement of each winter session, every student shall deposit one dollar, or one load of wood, for obtaining firewood for the institution, in the hands of the teacher; and any surplus which may remain, after a sufficien=cy has been furnished, shall be applied by the trustees, for the benefit of the institution.

8th Every student who shall persist in breaking any of the above written laws, shall be reproved, chastised, or expelled at the discretion of the president and tutors. But the president may call the trustees to decide in cases of expulsion. The said John Lyle also agrees to introduce James H. Dickey, as teacher of the latin and greek languages, and surveying; and Joel R. Lyle, as teacher of spelling, pronunciation, reading, writing, arithmetic, english grammar and geography; and the said John Lyle will teach either the languages, or sciences, as occasion may require; but will attend for the most part, to english grammar, and the sciences. The said John Lyle also agrees to superintend, and teach, or cause to be taught, by a good usher, a school for the education of young ladies, as soon as a sufficient number of scholars shall be made up, and a suitable school house provided. The prices as above. And we, the undermamed trustees, do hereby agree to give the said John Lyle, the presidency of the Bourbon Academy, on the aboventioned terms; and to resign to him the instruction and government of the students; and to finish the academy fit for the reception of the school, by the , and find the said Lyle one hundred and thirty dollars, to enable him to rent a house for one year, for the accomodation of his family. And we the said trustees, do also agree to use the funds of said Academy, and to exert our influence to raise money, in order to enlarge the academy, and furnish it with suitable apparatus for teaching the sciences &c.

And we, the said trustees, do further agree that the said John Lyle shall strictly watch over the morals of the students, and shall be at liberty to teach such general doctrines, and precepts, as are conducive to true morality, but the said John Lyle shall not attempt to produce a bias in religion on the minds of the students by teaching and inculcating the peculiar dogmas, tenets and principles of any particular church, sect or profession. In witness whereof the parties have hereunto ~~set~~ their hands this 27th day of December 1806 -

Ordered that Willis H Arnold be appointed professor in the Bourbon Academy for one year commencing on the first monday in May next for the sole purpose of teaching, Spelling reading writing and arithmetic, and english grammar, subject to the inspection and direction of a president who may hereafter be appointed by the board, and agreeably to the private rules and regulations entered into as a compact between said Arnold and the board; provided however that the board of trustees shall have liberty, at the end of the first session, or at the end of any session thereafter, to assign to the department of the president, or any professor which shall be hereafter appointed; any of the branches of literature herein assigned to said Arnold and reserving also to said Arnold the right of determining the contract when such new arrangement may be made, if he conceives himself injured thereby. Zach.a Easton appeared and took his seat. Ordered that the President P. T. prepare an advertisement to be inserted in the Western Citizen, giving notice that the next session of the Bourbon Academy will commence on the first monday in May next under the care of Willis H. Arnold, professor

Ordered that the board adjourn sine die

Vab. Pears P. P. T.

These articles of agreement between Willis H. Arnold of the one part and the board of trustees of the Bourbon Academy of the other part. Witnesseth - That whereas the said board has this day appointed said Arnold a professor of the Bourbon Academy for one year, for the sole purpose of teaching spelling, reading, writing arithmetic, and english grammar, as by their order will appear, which year shall be divided into two sessions - Now the said Arnold, on his part agrees for said year, the first session of which shall commence on the first monday of May next (subject to his election at the end of the first session, agreeably to the order of the board above referred to) to teach, and cause the Students of the said Academy to be taught, in the best manner, the said branches of spelling, reading, writing and arithmetic, and english grammar, connected with the meaning of the words used in the english language, and according to the most approved standards, and on the following terms - to wit - Spelling, reading writing and arithmetic at the rate of ten dollars per year for each student, and english grammar at fifteen dollars per annum for each scholar. And the said Arnold agrees to govern the school, or that part placed under his government according to the following laws and regulations, together with such additions or amendments as said Arnold and said trustees may, after further experience, judge necessary —

1st. No person shall be admitted as a scholar in the Bourbon Academy for a shorter period than one session, and each session shall consist of two calendar months and ten school days each, with a vacation succeeding each session of three weeks. Also one other vacation, during each session, may be allowed not exceeding one week, at such time as may be deemed expedient by the board and said professor, provided however that the professor may admit students of either of the branches under his direction, for a shorter period than one session, by express stipulation to that effect, and at such prices as he may think proper.

2. The laws of the Institution shall be read to every student capable of understanding them at his or her entrance, and frequently afterwards at convenient seasons, and such student shall be under obligations punctually to obey them, and in case of disobedience shall be subject to admonition, censure or correction at the discretion of the professor.

3. In summer, each student shall attend school punctually at one half hour past eight o'clock in the morning, and continue in study till one half hour past twelve o'clock in the day, and shall again attend at one half hour past five o'clock in the evening of each school day at the least. School hours during the winter Sepion shall commence at one half hour past nine o'clock in the morning, and continue till four o'clock in the evening, at least, with the exception of one hour for recreation, to commence at one half hour past twelve o'clock and to con=tinue till one half hour past one o'clock in the afternoon, and each student, whether in or out of school, shall get the task assigned him, so perfectly as to be allways ready to recite with his class. —

4th During school hours each scholar shall avoid all unne=cessary talking, whispering, laughing, and what=ever else might disturb others at study, and shall at all times treat his or her fellow students with politeness and all due respect, avoiding all names of reproach, and all kinds of quarrelling and contention.

5th Every student shall avoid ill and vicious company, and shall abstain from drinking, ga=ming, and every kind of vice and dissipation

6th At the commencement of each winter sessi=on, every student or his parent or guardian, shall deposit one dollar, or one good load of wood for him or her, for the purpose of furnishing firewood for the institution, in the hands of the Professor, — and any surplus which may remain after the necessity for firewood ceases, shall be appropriated by order of the board for the benefit of the institute and to enable the board to make such order, the professor shall render an account thereof to the board, at the end of each winter session.

7th The power of expelling a student shall exclusively be exercised by the board of trustees, for which purpose they shall meet at the request of the professor, whereupon the case shall be enquired.

8th Any teacher or teachers employed by the said Arnold shall first be approved by the board of trustees —

9th The professor shall have power, at his discretion to punish the students for infractions of the disciplines of the school, done or committed at any time during the session, except when at home, or in the presence of their parents or guardians —

10th The trustees reserve to themselves the power of appropriating two rooms of the academy, as they may hereafter think proper, leaving the said Arnold two rooms of said academy for the students under his control —

Whereas the present board have determined to call and engage David V. Ramsalls (who is now occupied at George town,) as President of the Bourbon academy; - and whereas, should the said David V. Ramsalls think proper to accept of said office, it will be necessary that a Kitchen shall be built and some alterations made to the said academy, for the purpose of accommodating his family, or that of any future teacher who may be employed in succession to the said Ramsalls — It is therefore resolved

That the said David V. Ramsalls be called upon to act as President of the said academy and received as such should he think proper to accept of the appointment, and that Mr. Langhorne Hugh Brent and Valentine Pers be appointed a committee of this board to communicate the same to Mr. Ramsalls and also that the said committee be, and are hereby appointed and authorised to appropriate so much of the building as may be necessary for his accomodation, reserving only two rooms for the use of the scholars in the said Seminary; and further that the 2d committee shall enter into and make such an agreement respecting the repairs of the building and other matters relating thereto as they may think proper.

Resolved that the board of trustees of said Academy will build a Kitchen on the Academy lot, of brick wood or stone, for the accomodation of the said David B. Ramsdell or any succeeding president of the academy and that Valentine Peers be appointed a commissioner to contract for and superintend the building of the said Kitchen, and also that Henry Tinmerlake shall be requested by the president of the board, to join with the said Peers in soliciting subscriptions for this purpose. It being considered by the board that as much trouble and attention will be necessary in the execution of this duty, if he the said Valentine Peers do act as as above expressed; it is not expected by the board that he should make any other contribution to the said purpose unless he shall think proper to do so.

Whereas, Willis H. Arnold has, in presence of this board, at this time met, proposed to resign his office of Professor in the Academy, (which he has hitherto held by engagement engagement with the Trustees) at the end of the present sepion, for the purpose of laying open to the President, now proposed to be engaged, All, and every department of the Schools, and the allotment of the several branches of education, to such Professors as the said President may think proper.

Resolved therefore, that the resignation of the said Willis H. Arnold be accepted

Resolved that the time for which the appropriation of the kitchen, now proposed to be built, and also that part of the house which the said president shall occupy, shall continue and be, for, and until the end of the second Sepion, and if at the end of that Sepion, or of any sepion thereafter the Board shall conceive that the state of the Institution shall require the use of the whole house, the above grant shall cease and determine

Resolved, that the Presidency of the said David V. Rannalls, shall commence at the beginning of the next Sepion of the school as regulated by the board, unless otherwise agreed upon. Resolved that this board be adjourned.

Augustine Easton President.

William Garrard, Andrew Todd and James M'Cormic. —

Resolved that so much of the regulations adopted and enforced with the late Professor W. H. Arnold as respects the government of the school shall be, and are hereby renewed, and declared to be in force as it respects the President now accepted David V. Rannalls; subject however to such alterations as the said president and may hereafter think proper. — Resolved that the said President David V. Rannalls be and is hereby empowered and required that when any of the following injuries, to wit; breaking of glass or sash, cutting of any of the wood work of the building or fences, knocking out bricks, or breaking down the plastering of the rooms, shall be done by any of the scholars, and the same could be identified, that he shall require and oblige the said scholar or scholars so offending, their Parents guardians, to repair and make good the same without delay. —

Resolved that the said David V. Rannalls shall preserve that part of the Academy which has been lately repaired and appropriated to his use, and of which he is now possessed, in as good repair as at present, and return the same to this board whenever his office of President and teacher, in the same shall expire, at his own expense and cost, and agreeably to the regulations prescribed at the last meeting of the board. — Resolved that he the said President shall subscribe to this order in proof of his assent to the same together with the temporary President as witness thereto;

Acknowledged before } David V. Rannalls,

Whereas the Phraseology of the fundamental Articles continued in the thirteenth section of the Act of Assembly, passed the twenty-second day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, "entitled, An Act for establishing the Bourbon Academy" is somewhat ambiguous, and has given rise to various interpretations of said Fundamental Articles, and has, by that means, produced a division amongst those who would otherwise unite in the support of said Academy: For remedy whereof;

Passed

Resolved by the board of Trustees of said Academy, that they will prefer this their Memorial and Petition to the next General Assembly of the State of Kentucky, praying that Honorable body to amend the said recited Act of Assembly, by repealing said Fundamental Articles as expressed in the said thirteenth section of said recited Act, and by enacting in lieu thereof, the following, to wit; "It shall be the duty of the Trustees of the Bourbon Academy to preserve inviolate the following fundamental Articles:

1st. As the extention of useful knowledge is the only object contemplated by this Institution; and in as much as the general principles of Morality, in relation to our duty towards the supreme Being, as well as our duties towards our fellow men in society unconnected with party, ought to be the only impressions United with Science that in a public Seminary should be implanted in youthful minds; No preference shall be given in the choice of Trustees, president, Professors, Tutors or Masters, on Account of Religious sentiments.

2nd. No law, Regulation or Ordinance shall be enforced by the Trustees, nor attempts to be made by the President, Professors, Tutors, or Masters, which is or shall be, calculated to give a bias to the minds of the Pupils in favour of the peculation, Tenets or Sentiments or principles of any particular religious Church or Society.

Resolved that in the same application the Legislature be also solicited to repeal so much of the Original Act incorporating this Institution, as requires ten days notice from the President, by Advertisement or otherwise, on the application of any number of members; of the called meetings of this board and that the board be allowed to set and act when convened for that purpose, at any time or place, the want of previous notice not withstanding. —

Resolved that the price of teaching Arithmetic including Addition, Subtraction, Multiplication, Division, Reduction, the Single Rule of three and Practice remain as at present, but that teaching that science in all the other branches or Rules thereof, be raised to the price of twenty dollars per year. —

Resolved that Mr. Daniel Baldwin be appointed in this Institution Professor of the Greek and Latin Languages for one year, commencing at the commencement of the next Sesion, in case he shall think proper accept said appointment and Act therein; and that in case of his acceptance the price of teaching said Languages be raised to the rate of thirty dollars per year during the next winter Sesion, Provided that the number of clases which he may superintend during said winter Sesion, shall not exceed five without the future afsent or arrangement of this board. —

Resolved that Mr. Ezra Howes be appointed in this institution professor of spelling, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic English Grammar, and other sciences not interfering with what is afsigned to Mr. Baldwin in his appointment. — Ordered that this board be adjourned till Saturday morning next at 9 O'clock A.M.

Ordered that another division be made in the branches of Education heretofore superintended by Mr Ezra Hawe, and that English Grammar, and all other Sciences, exclusive of the Clasic Languages, Spelling, Reading, writing and common Arithmetic, compose one department, and be superintended by Mr. Hawe for the present sesion.

That Spelling, Reading, Writing and Common Arithmetic compose another department, and be superintended during the present Sesion by Mr. John Stevenson.

The trustees of this Academy believing that the number of books read by pupils in the English Language, is not so important important as correct reading, which is the real object of Tuition, and conceiving that few books of the same kind in the hands of students fit to be classed together, will afford a facility to the teacher, and insure to the student a more correct knowledge of reading: —— and therefore Do order and determine, that the following books be used in that department of the school, where spelling and Reading are taught, and that the Professor shall not be bound to admit a pupil, or teach him or her, unless he or she is furnished with one of the following books, according to his capacity, at the discretion of the professor — to wit: —

Webster's spelling-book, Baldwin's Fables, New Testament, American preceptor, Weem's life of Washington; to which the Professor may add, at his discretion — the Columbian Orator: —

Ordered that the price of teaching Euclid's Elements be raised to the sum of fifteen dollars, for and during the present Sefsion, and English Grammar and Geography to the sum of twelve dollars and fifty cents for the same time.

Ordered that this board do adjourn until monday the 29th. instant, at the Academy at 8, O'clock A. M.

Ordered that the following Rules be adopted as the rules of the Academy, until otherwise changed by order of the board as follows, to wit;

1st: No person shall be admitted as a scholar in the Bourbon Academy, for a shorter period than one Sefsion— and each Sefsion shall consist of five Calendar months and ten school days, with a vacation, succeeding each sefsion of three weeks; also one other Vacation during each sefsion, may be allowed not exceeding one week, at such time as may be deemed expedient by the board and said profesors, provided however, that each profesor may admit students of either of the branches under his direction, for a shorter period than one sefsion, by expres stipulation to that effect, and at such price as he may deem proper.

2nd: A roll shall be made containing the scholars names, which roll shall be called every day immediately after the meeting of shool, the absentees marked and called to an account for their delinquency; at such time as the profesor shall deem proper.

3rd: During shool-hours each student shall avoid all unnecesary talking, whispering, laughing, and whatever else might disturb others at study; and shall at all times treat his or her fellow students with politeneſs, and due respect, avoiding all names of reproach, and all kinds of quarrelling and contention, and all profane and immodest language.

4th: The Laws of the Institution shall be read to every student, capable of understanding them, at his or her entrance, and frequently afterwards at convenient seasons; and each student shall be under obligation punctually to obey them; and in case of disobedience, shall shall be subject to Admonition, censure, or correction, at the discretion of the professor, or in case of refractory conduct, be suspended by him until a board be convened, for which purpose he shall give immediate notice to the president thereof.

5th. Every student shall carefully avoid idle and vicious company, and shall abstain from drinking, gaming, and every kind of vice and dissipation.

6th. At the commencement of each winter session every student or his parent or guardian shall deposit one dollar, or one good load of wood for him or her, the purpose of which is to furnish fire-wood for the Institution, in the hands of the professor, and the surplus which may remain after the necessary use of fire wood shall cease, shall be appropriated by order of the board for the benefit of the Institution, and to ennable the board to make such order, the professor shall render an account thereof to the board at the end of each winter session. —

7th. The power of expelling a student shall exclusively be exercised by the board of Trustees, for which purpose they shall be called at the request of the Student, or professor, to the president of the board, whenever the case shall require it. —

8th. The professors shall have power at their discretion to punish the students for infractions of the discipline of the school, done or committed at any time, during the session. ———————

9th. No student shall at any time play any kind of play, or game within the house, and should a window be broken, the person who broke it shall make --- restitution by paying the full amount of the damage sustained.

10th. A certain number of the students shall in their turn sweep the Room in which they study; and shall also make fires when necessary, or according to their ability, perform such other services as the department to which they belong requires.

11th. Every student engaged in the study of Grammar or the sciences, shall, at the discretion of the professor, write a composition every fortnight, which he shall carefully correct, and then deliver it to his tutor to be corrected by him, and he shall also speak Orations in his turn.

12th. In Summer each Student shall attend school punctually at one half hour past eight O'clock in the morning, and continue in study till one half hour past twelve O'clock in the day; and shall again attend at one half hour past two O'clock, and continue till one half hour past five O'clock in the evening of each school day, at least. School hours during the Winter session shall commence at one half hour past Nine O'clock in the morning; and continue till four O'clock in the evening, at least; with the exception of one hour for recreation, to commence at one half hour past twelve O'clock, and continue till one half hour past one O'clock in the evening; and each student, whether in or out of school shall get the task apsigned him so perfectly as to be always ready to recite with his class.

Ordered that the price of teaching the Classic Languages be at the rate of thirty dollars per year during the present Session; being the price for the last session.

Ordered that Mr. David Clarkson jun. be appointed clerk to this board, if he will accept thereof; and that Mr. Hugh Brent notify him of this appointment, and request his acceptance.

Whereas, it appears that Baldwin's Fables and the American preceptor established as school books by the last meeting, cannot be conveniently had at present: it is therefore Ordered that the professor be allowed to use at his discretion, till said books can be had, the books called Bible Stories in lieu of Baldwin's Fables, and the Columbian Orator instead of the American preceptor.

The Reverned Augustine Eastin announced his intention of resigning, at the adjournment of this meeting, the Presidency of the board, and his seat as a member: whereupon the board entered into the election of a president, when it it appeared on counting the votes that Dr. Andrew Todd was duly elected president. Ordered that the board be now adjourned.

of the Academy, in Paris on Saturday the 9th. of September 1815— Members present, Anthony Morton jun. James Garrard jun., Zacharah Easton, John G. Martin & Benjamin Mills. The President of the board being absent, the board proceeded to appoint a president protem.; when Anthony Morton jun. was duly ~~elected~~, ~~&~~ appointed.

The Board adopted the following order;

Being called upon to hear and determine on an oppasing disposion manifested by some of the students to punishment attempted to be inflicted on them by Mr. Baldwin, they feel indisposed to adjudge the Tutor and the parent in any instance. They will only observe that the object of all punishment among Students is to produce contrition and repentance, and when this is produced, punishment ought to cease; and the tutor ought to persevere in efforts to produce subordination and submision regardless of the interposition of the parent, until the main object is attained. In the present case the board recommend to the preceptor a cefsation of the punishment already inflicted and to tender to each of the aggressors an opportunity of confessing their fault, or acknowledging their error, apologizing for what they have done. That if they or any of them shall refuse to do so, that the tutor apply the more severe chastisement of the rod, or some other mode of chastisement at his discretion till the contrition of the Student shall evince that he ought to be forgiven. If the means here recommended shall not be effective, and abstinacy and rebellion shall ensue, this board, when again called, can exercise the more degrading measure of expulsion or take any other further step, which may be conducive to the interest of the Institution.

The students now inculpated being well known, the board, from delicacy to their feelings will refrain inserting their names, on record, but adopt in general terms, the resolution, that the foregoing be recommended to the professor as the mode, which he ought in their opinion to pursue.

Ordered that the board do now adjourn.

Mr. John Gayle appointed President of this Institution, having notified the board of his acceptance; his appointment to that office is hereby confirmed, the board reserving all the right of trial and the responsibility of said president vested in them by law: and it is further Ordered by the board, in the presence of, and with the assent of said Gayle, that if the board shall hereafter see cause to appoint any other in his stead, arising from any other cause than expulsion, three months notice shall be intimated to him by this board; and said Gayle shall see cause at any time to resign his appointment, he shall be bound to give the board three months previous notice thereof. The board further reserve the right of appointing any professor, or other usher appointed by said Gayle, or any division of the different branches of Education which may be necesary to cause the Institution to be well conducted, whenever there may be too many students to be taught by the present President and professors.

It is further Ordered that Mr. Benjamin W. Hayden be appointed Professor of Spelling, Reading, Writing and Arithmetic, at the prices established during last session subject to the superintendance of the President of the Institution during the present session which commences this day payable at the end of the Session.

It is further Ordered that after the branches heretofore assigned to Mr. Hayden are excepted all other branches of science, including the Latin and Greek Languages, be assigned to the immediate superintendence and direction of Mr Gayle, and that he receive exclusively the profits of the branches included in his department, payable at the end of each Session.

It is further Ordered that with the assent of the President he hereby appointed that he deliver a course of Lectures in said Institution, according as proper classes are formed, on Natural and Moral Philosophy, Rhetoric and Belles Lettres; and also at his discretion on inferior branches of science, adopted to the capacities of the existing classes.

Mr. Gayle having proposed also to furnish for the institution, an elegant pair of large Globes, Instruments for surveying for the use of the Institution during his Presidency therein, the same are accepted by the boards.

It is Ordered that the price of tuition for English Grammar & Geography be fixed at the rate of twelve dollars and fifty cents per session, & for all other branches under the immediate superintendance of said President the price of tuition shall be fifteen dollars per session, for each scholar.

And for the purposes of insuring uniformity of Rules, and the administration there of in the management of the Institution, it is Ordered that the department of the Institution hereto fore apigned to profesor Hayden be also considered under the presidency of Mr. Gayle, so far as to prescribe Rules in concert with the aforsaid profesor, regulating the behaviour of the Students, and the modes of Education, and seeing that the laws of the Institution be faithfully executed.

It is further Ordered that the south end of the Academy including the upper and lower rooms & the small middle room of the building, and the use of the garden, and Kitchen be and the same is hereby granted to the president rent free for the occupancy and use of his family, commencing when Mr. Hawes shall leave it during the term he may continue to preside, if he shall see cause to occupy it, unless the want of room for the pupils shall require a change, in which case the board reserve the right of appropriating the same to school uses.

It is further ordered that that the parents, Guardians, or superintendants of any students entered during the present sesion shall advance for each student the sum of fifty cents, to be paied to the President, and to be appropriated by him to repairing the building, and any surplus of a similar contribution made at the commencement of last sesion is hereby appropriated in the same manner, and if any residue be left, it is to be applied to making seats for the use of the students.

It is Ordered that the school hours of the morning during the present sesion, be fixed commencing at eight O'clock, and ending at 12 provided however that the President or preceptor may detain the students as much longer than any of the school-hours, as they deem necessary to complete the duties of the day.

Ordered that the Board do now adjourn sine die.

Members present were, Anthony Thornton jun. President, Hugh Brent, Jesse Bledsoe, John G. Martin, and Benjamin Mills.

Mr. John G. Martin laid before this board the proposals of Mr. Daniel Baldwin, relative to a Donation to this Institution of two Shares of Bankstock, on certain conditions, in the words following to wit, "Proposals to the Trustees of Bourbon Academy;

I would make a deed of gift to the Bourbon Academy, of two Shares to me belonging in the State Bank of Kentucky, if accepted of on the following terms, viz; The money shall be continually kept in fund, either in ~~fund~~ Banks Stock or such other way as the trustees may deem sure and productive. The income arising from the money thus infunded shall, annually or semiannually as may be most convenient, be appropriated to the purchase of premiums which premiums shall be conferred on such students in the dead Languages as may be most deserving of distinction for excelling in their progress of learning. The trustees shall devise the means whereby the merits of the students shall be determined.

If there should occur any sessions or years in which there shall be no students in the Latin or Greek or Hebrew Languages, or not more than one, then the accumulating profits arising from this fund shall be safely kept till the study of those Languages, or some of them be reassumed in the Academy, and this accumulated revenue shall be appropriated to the purchasing of premiums of merit for the Classical Students, which shall afterwards be in the Academy, in such a prolongation as the trustees may direct. But if four years should elapse whithout the dead Languages, as above named, being taught in the Academy, then the income arising from this fund after that time, shall be appropriated to the purchasing of premiums for the English Department of the School, until the study of the dead Languages be re-established.— The bestowing of premiums shall be for the same purpose in the English, as in the Classical school.

Be it well understood that no part of the profit arising from this money, shall ever be appropriated to any other object, except that of purchasing premiums of merit for the most deserving of the Students.

It shall be recided that this money was recovered, by me, from Edmund Basie, in a case of Assault and Battery.

I expect the sentiments of the Board will be taken on the above proposals, and that a committee may be appointed to confer with to confer with same."

Daniel Baldwin.

On consideration whereof,

Resolved, that this board do accede to the terms and conditions contained in said proposals, and that the Donation be accepted, and that John G Marion and Benjamin Mills be appointed a committee to confer with Mr Baldwin on the subject, to accept the transfer of the Stock, and to present to him the thanks of this board for his generous and benevolent donation. —

Ordered that Benjamin W Hayden be appointed Professor of the same branches of Literature and Science, during the next ensuing session, which he superintended during the last year, and at the same terms.
