DAILY/WEEKLY SERVICES

MONDAY PRESS CONFERENCE

University of Kentucky Coach Bill Curry will conduct a weekly press conference each Monday during the 1995 football season. The press conferences will be conducted in the Wildcat Den at Commonwealth Stadium. Media members may access the Wildcat Den at Gate Three of Commonwealth Stadium.

The opposing coach is usually available via telephone hook-up. Selected Wildcats football players will be available at the press conferences.

The weekly press conferences will begin on Monday, Aug. 28. Press conferences conclude on Nov. 13. No press conference is scheduled for Oct. 2, which is the Monday prior to UK's open date.

The press conference schedule is as follows — lunch is set from 11:30 a.m. to noon; Curry press conference from noon to 12:30 p.m.; UK player interviews from 12:30 p.m. to 1 p.m.

SUNDAY TELECONFERENCE

UK Coach Bill Curry will again conduct a weekly Sunday teleconference following Wildcats football games. The teleconferences are up to 30 minutes in length and begin at 3:30 p.m. ET.

Media members can participate in the teleconference by dialing a MEDIA ONLY telephone number which can be obtained from the UK Media Relations Office. The Sunday teleconferences will begin on Sept. 3 and run through Nov. 19. No teleconference is planned for Oct. 8, the week of UK's open date.

The teleconference is broadcast quality. Please contact the UK Media Relations Office (606) 257-3838 for further information.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE SERVICES

The Southeastern Conference Media Relations Office, headed by Assistant Commissioner Mark Whitworth, offers a variety of services to the media throughout the academic calendar year.

Statistics and league standings are available to the media on a 24-hour bulletin board. Media members can access the bulletin board via computer by a telephone hook-up. For parameters and further information, contact the SEC Media Relations Office at (205) 458-3010.

All SEC head football coaches are available each Wednesday via a teleconference. Each coach is given a period of five-to-10 minutes to address media questions about his upcoming football game. The starting date and telephone number will be available to the media by contacting the SEC Media Relations Office.

Video highlights by satellite are offered on a weekly basis through the SEC Media Relations Office. A 30-minute satellite feed, which includes player interviews and highlights, is available to television stations each Wednesday morning. For further information, contact the SEC Media Relations Office.

WILDCATS PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews must be coordinated through the UK Media Relations Office. Players are available to the media during game week, Monday through Wednesday. The best times to conduct interviews with the players are at the Monday press conference or at practice. Interviews will be conducted at the Nutter Football Training Center or by telephone. On game days, interviews will only be granted after the conclusion of the contest.

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a "call-back" basis only. Individual player telephone numbers WILL NOT be given to members of the media. Players are instructed NOT to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The UK Media Relations Office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete. Generally, the UK Media Relations Office has found the most convenient time for call-backs on telephone interviews is between 6 and 7 p.m. ET.

The Kirwan I dormitory, the Donovan Hall dining area, team locker rooms and team training rooms are considered private team areas. These areas are OFF-LIMITS to the media unless accompanied by UK Media Relations Office personnel.

FOOTBALL PRACTICE

Policies for covering Kentucky football practices had not been finalized as this media guide went to press.

Media members should contact the UK Media Relations Office, (606) 257-3838, for practice information.

GAME SERVICES

PRESS BOX

Credentials for working media and photographers for Kentucky's home football games should be directed to Rena Vicini, Assistant AD/Media Relations.

Requests for media credentials — season or single-game — should be submitted in writing by sports editors or sports directors of accredited media outlets on company letterhead. Requests for season passes should be submitted no later than August 18. Requests for single games should arrive at the UK Media Relations Office at least one week in advance.

The University of Kentucky follows guidelines set by the NCAA and the Southeastern Conference in issuing credentials. The UK Media Relations Office attempts to fill each accredited media request.

Season credentials will be granted only to daily newspapers, radio stations, and television stations that cover the UK football program on a regular basis — i.e., weekly press conferences and all home games. Because of limited space, season credentials to radio stations will be limited to one per station (sports director).

All credential requests should be sent to: Rena Vicini, Assistant AD/Media Relations, UK Media Relations Office, Memorial Coliseum, Lexington, KY 40506.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS

Photo credentials will be issued only to accredited media outlets — daily newspapers, specialized publications and television stations.

Admission to the Commonwealth Stadium sidelines is by a combination of photo pass and armband. Photographers must sign in and present their credential at the UK Press Will Call table, located inside Gate Seven of Commonwealth Stadium, to obtain an armband.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking at Commonwealth Stadium is available on a limited basis. Requests for parking should be made when submitting press and/or photo credentials. The media parking area is located in the Blue Lot just behind the West side (Alumni Drive) of Commonwealth Stadium. The Blue Lot is accessible via Alumni Drive.

PRESS BOX

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is for working media members ONLY. It is located on the West side (Alumni Drive) of Commonwealth Stadium between the upper and lower grandstands. The media entrance to Commonwealth Stadium is Gate Seven. Two press box elevators are located just to the left of the Gate Seven entrance.

The photo deck, radio booths, television booths, coaches booths, and VIP booths are located on the press box level of Commonwealth Stadium. All can be accessed via the press box elevator.

MEDIA WILL CALL

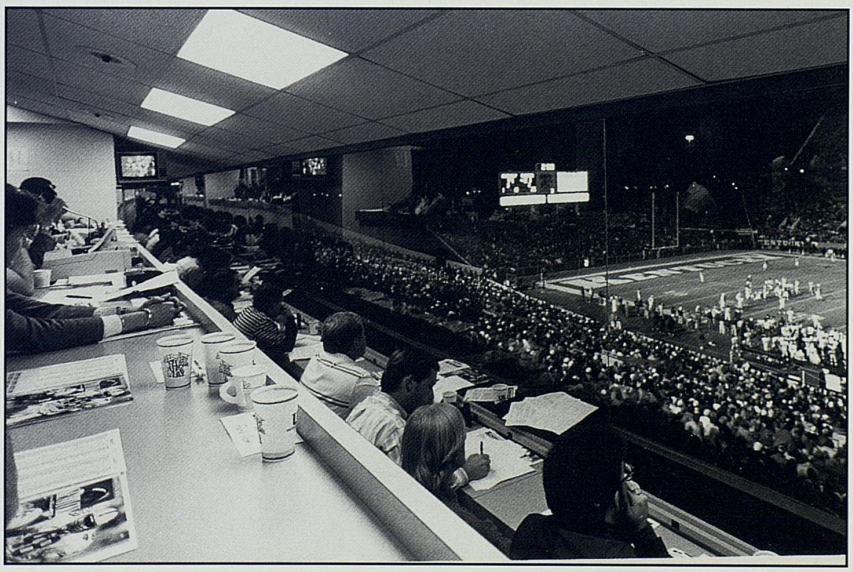

Media or photo credentials which have not been mailed can be obtained at the Media Will Call table, located just inside Gate Seven of Commonwealth Stadium. Media Will Call opens two hours prior to kickoff and closes 15 minutes following kickoff.

TELEPHONES

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is equipped with eight courtesy telephones with long-distance capabilities for use by the media on a first-come, first-served basis. The UK Media Relations Office strongly suggests each media outlet with deadline restrictions should order its own individual telephone line. Members of the media wishing to order phone lines can do so by contacting John Fuller of the UK Phone Services Department. His telephone number is (606) 257-7727. Please order phone lines at least one week in advance.

DARKROOM FACILITIES

Limited darkroom facilities are available in the Commonwealth Stadium press box. Photographers wishing to use the darkroom facilities should make arrangements with Tony Neely of the UK Media Relations Offices at (606) 257-3838.

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is located between the upper and lower grandstands on the West side.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

UK Coach Bill Curry will conduct his postgame press conference in the Wildcat Den, located under the East grandstand in the UK Football Office complex. Curry begins his postgame press conference approximately 15 minutes following the conclusion of the contest. The media entrance to the Wildcat Den is located in the northeast corner (nearest flagpole) of Commonwealth Stadium.

The Kentucky locker room is CLOSED to all members of the media. UK players requested for interviews are brought to the Wildcat Den following the conclusion of Curry's press conference. Interview cards are distributed in the press box during the second half of the contest in order for members of the media to request Wildcats players.

The visitors' locker room is located at the northwest corner of Commonwealth Stadium. A press conference area is located just outside the visitors' locker room entrance. The visiting coach and players generally conduct their respective post-game comments from that area.

PRESS SERVICES

The UK Media Relations Office will provide a complete pregame packet (including facts sheets, flip card, and game program) approximately 30 minutes prior to kickoff. A complete running play-by-play, drive charts and team and individual statistics are made available at the conclusion of the contest. Quotes from coaches and players of both teams are also provided.

A FAX service is also available. FAX request forms will be issued during the second half to media members requesting them. Statistics and play-by-play may be accessed after the game via fax-on-demand. Contact the Media Relations Office (606) 257-3838 for details.

New Offense, Maturing Defense Headline 1995

The evolution of a new offensive scheme and the progress of a maturing defense are the elements to watch as the Kentucky Wildcats head into the 1995 football season.

The Wildcats are working to ease the disappointments of last year's bewildering 1-10 season, a campaign made even more puzzling by the fact that the team had earned a trip to the Peach Bowl just one year before.

Head Coach Bill Curry took swift action after the '94 season, revamping his program with four new assistant coaches, a new strength coach, and a new offense.

"Our immediate goals are very simple," Curry said. "We must drastically improve every aspect of our performance."

One of the new assistants, offensive coordinator Elliot Uzelac, has installed the multiple offense he used with great success the last two seasons at Colorado. The base formation of the new attack is a balanced set, featuring two wide receivers, two tight ends, and one running back. The goal is to be able to strike in any direction, taking initiative away from the defense, and to achieve a balance in rushing and passing yardage.

"The new offense is a natural evolution from what we've been doing," Curry said. "I like the alignment and the system of plays. We feel that we'll be able to use it to our advantage.

"As with any offense, however, our success will depend on properly executing the fundamentals."

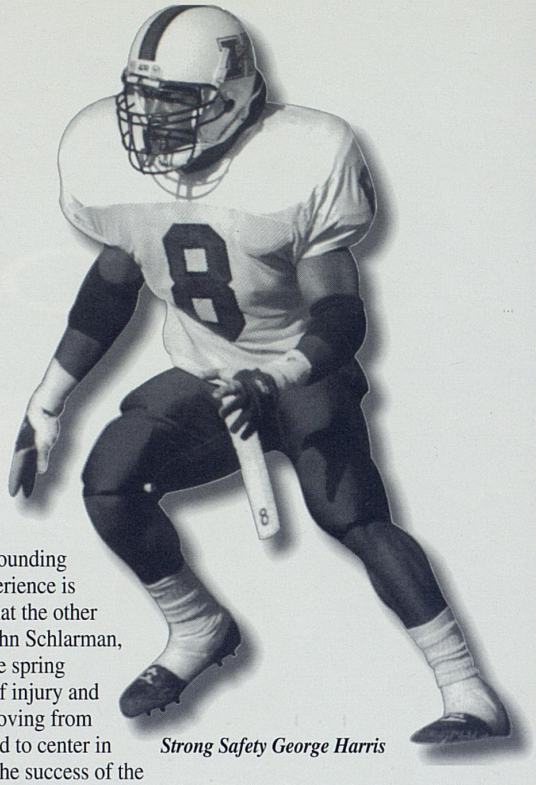

The question of who will run the attack will be answered in August. Returning starter Jeff Speedy received a strong challenge from rapidly-improving sophomore Billy Jack Haskins during the spring. Their competition ended in a virtual dead heat and will resume in the fall.

Competition for playing time at tailback also will be heated. Ray McLaurin had a great spring and begins fall practice No. 1 at the position, but will be challenged by last year's starter and backup, Moe Williams and Donnell Gordon, who missed the spring because of injuries. Another quality back, Michael Woodfork, can also play tailback and will be the fullback when the Wildcats utilize a two-back set.

The situation is similar at the wide receiver posts, where six returning lettermen are vying for playing time. Leon Smith, last year's leading pass catcher, heads the list of returnees.

The tight ends are expected to see greater roles as pass catchers in the new offense. Chris Davis and Marcus Cross ended the spring as the starters, but must reaffirm that in August. Former wideout Isaac Curtis III has moved to tight end and is another receiving threat.

Senior guard Barry Jones was UK's top lineman last season but is one of only two returning regulars in the offensive line.

Strong Safety George Harris

Compounding the inexperience is the fact that the other starter, John Schlarman, missed the spring because of injury and will be moving from right guard to center in the fall. The success of the offense might hinge on the ability of the inexperienced linemen to mature rapidly.

Inexperience was a problem on defense last season, but with the exception of one position, defensive coordinator Mike Archer should be able to field a veteran starting lineup in 1995.

Twenty-two returning lettermen are available. Thirteen of those players have been on the field as starters and three others have seen significant game action at their positions.

In the defensive line, tackle Mike Schlegel and ends Kurt Supe and Chris Ward should be improved after another year's experience. The tentative starting linebackers, Chad Hudson, Donté Key, and David Snardon, are veteran hands.

There are four seasoned returnees at cornerback, including Carlos Collins, Steven Hall, Van Hiles, and Kiyo Wilson. Senior George Harris and junior Leman Boyd share the strong safety spot. The Wildcats will miss the leadership of free safety Melvin Johnson, a second-team All-American, but senior Reggie Rusk is expected to handle the position capably.

"We are much more experienced on defense than we were a year ago," Curry said. "We have several positions where players are battling for starting jobs. It should be very interesting to see how it works out."

Special teams play was fair to good last season. Kicker Brian Sivinski, who made three field goals from 40 yards or beyond last year, is back for his senior season. A new punter must be decided upon. Soph Kio Sanford gives the team a breakaway threat on kickoff and punt returns.

The Wildcats will be challenged by a schedule that includes three preseason top-10 teams (Florida, Auburn, Tennessee) among a total of eight opponents that posted winning records in 1994.

Kentucky Offensive Coaching Staff

Ray Dorr — Quarterbacks
Mike Drake — Running Backs
Dave Magazu — Centers and Guards
Joker Phillips — Receivers
Elliot Uzelac — Coordinator/ Tackles/Tight Ends
Bill Curry, Jr. — Graduate Assistant

Kentucky will have a new offensive approach this season as coordinator Elliot Uzelac installs the one-back attack he used with great effectiveness the past two seasons at Colorado.

The basic set features two wide receivers, two tight ends, and one running back, but there are many variations in this multiple offense. The goals of the offense are to be able to strike in any direction and maintain a balance between rushing and passing yardage.

In order to achieve balanced yardage, UK will have to improve a passing attack that has been outpaced by the ground game the past two years.

The offense returns 20 lettermen, including six starters. There appears to be good depth at the running back and wide receiver positions. However, UK must depend on some talented but inexperienced young linemen in order to rebuild a forward wall that lost three regulars.

Here's a position-by-position look at the new one-back offense, with comments by each position coach.

Coach Uzelac . . .

"We definitely improved on offense during the spring and our overall effort improved as the spring went on. We're not where we want to be but we took a step in the right direction. I'm pleased with the effort of the players and their willingness to work and achieve success.

"The key for the success of our offense is what they accomplish during the summer in the weight room and in the running program. We need more strength and explosive power, which must be acquired during the summer.

"We want to pick up where we left off in the spring and need a good carryover from that time. We must continually improve as a more physical offensive team. This is something we will constantly stress."

WIDE RECEIVERS

Brent Allen	5-11	187	So-Sq
Harold Dennis	5-9	169	Jr-Sq
Trevor Hypolite	6-2	194	So-1L
Stuart Lackey	6-1	177	So-Sq
Antonio O'Ferral	5-10	179	Sr-3L
Ryan Prewitt	6-1	198	Jr-Sq
Kio Sanford	5-11	172	So-1L
Tyler Siddens	5-11	163	So-Sq
Jaysuma Simms	6-0	176	Jr-2L
Leon Smith	5-10	178	Sr-2L
James Tucker	6-2	204	Sr-3L
Alexander Wunder	6-0	165	So-Sq

Playing time at the wide receiver slots will be very competitive. Twelve veteran players are available, not counting several incoming freshmen who will make these positions even stronger.

Senior Leon Smith was named UK's Most Outstanding Receiver last season after making 27 catches for 375 yards. His 27 catches were the most for a UK receiver since Neal Clark set the school record with 47 in 1991. Smith missed contact portions of spring practice while rehabilitating an injury and will return to the depth chart in August ... Kio Sanford caught 12 passes for 145 yards in 1994 and his record-setting kickoff return exploits helped him earn Freshman All-SEC honors ... Jaysuma Simms (5 for 61 yards) and Trevor Hypolite (3 for 20) also saw significant action.

Former LB James Tucker and ex-QB Antonio O'Ferral each moved to receiver during spring practice. Tucker was named the team's Most Improved Receiver after leading all pass catchers with 12 grabs for 227 yards during the spring scrimmages. O'Ferral made the move midway through spring and showed good aptitude for the role ... Six other receivers are available, including speedy Harold Dennis and sure-handed Tyler Siddens ... The group of highly-regarded incoming freshmen could put these positions in good hands for a long time to come.

Coach Phillips . .

"We spent the spring learning the new offense but must be more consistent this fall in executing our assignments. Antonio O'Ferral and James Tucker moved to receiver during the spring and they can help us. Now we have six returning lettermen at wide receiver and it's going to be interesting how that works out. There is going to be great competition for playing time."

TIGHT ENDS

Darrin Clark	6-5	238	So-Sq
Marcus Cross	6-4	227	So-1L
Isaac Curtis III	6-3	231	Jr-2L
Chris Davis	6-7	246	Jr-2L
Brian Parker	6-5	220	Fr-RS
J. D. Reed	6-1	221	So-Sq

The new one-back offense is a boon for the Kentucky tight ends. The basic set uses two tight ends and the "spread 'em out" plan calls for the tight ends to be pass catchers as well as blockers.

Junior Chris Davis is a returning starter at one tight end slot. The 6-7 junior caught three passes last season but would like to increase that total significantly in the coming campaign. He has lost 27 pounds since last season in order to improve his pass route mobility ... Junior Isaac Curtis III made the move from a wide receiver post to tight end during the spring. Curtis was UK's second leading receiver last season with 13 catches for 176 yards and a team-best three touchdowns. He could become a significant factor as a receiver.

Sophomore Marcus Cross has good athletic ability and showed improvement as a pass catcher last spring. He finished spring drills as the starter at the other tight end slot ... Sophomore Darrin Clark took advantage of the new passing schemes with seven receptions for 45 yards during the spring scrimmages ... J. D. Reed and Brian Parker are converted offensive linemen who have begun learning the tight end positions.

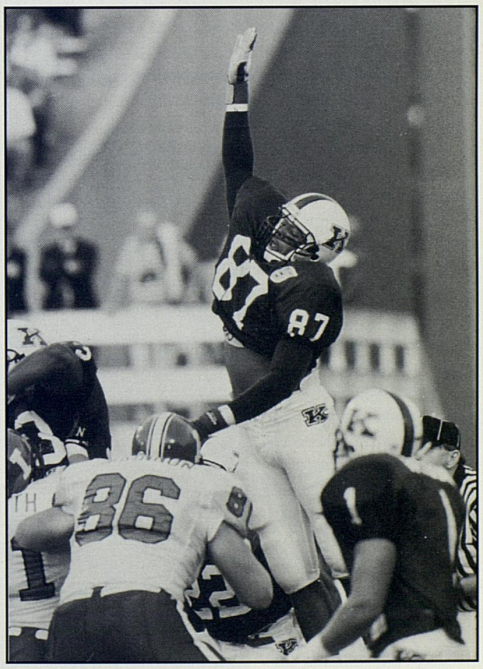

Coach Uzelac . . .

"Marcus Cross and Chris Davis were the leaders at the end of spring practice but they must get stronger and more physical. As of now, Darrin Clark and Isaac Curtis are the top backups. Isaac, who moved from wide receiver to tight end, is a very physical player and that is pleasing to see. He just needs to get the size and strength necessary to play tight end."

OFFENSIVE TACKLES

Andy Britt	6-4	262	Sr-2L
Kris Comstock	6-8	278	Fr-RS
Jason Cook	6-4	334	So-Sq
Jonas Liening	6-8	285	Fr-RS
Rob Reynolds	6-6	284	So-Sq
Victor Rivers	6-4	276	Fr-RS
Ryan Wassil	6-6	267	Fr-RS

Plenty of work to do here in order to replace four-year starter Mark Askin and two-year regular Aaron Purdie ... The coaching staff is encouraged by the potential shown by redshirt freshman Jonas Liening, who finished the spring as the starting left tackle ... Sophomore Rob Reynolds began making significant progress toward the end of spring practice and hopefully will push for playing time this fall ... Redshirt freshman Ryan Wassil continues to develop.

Senior Andy Britt gives the line some veteran presence at right tackle. He appears to have overcome the knee injury that shelved him for most of the 1994 season ... Two excellent prospects, redshirt freshmen Kris Comstock and Victor Rivers, are vying for the backup role.

Coach Uzelac . . .

"We got better in the spring. With the exception of Andy Britt, it's a young group. We need a lot of work in the weight room."

OFFENSIVE GUARDS

Cliff Bailey	6-3	274	Fr-RS
Carey Barlow	6-3	278	Fr-RS
Brandon Jackson	6-4	295	So-1L
Barry Jones	6-5	286	Sr-3L
Johnathan LaFollette	6-2	250	Fr-RS
Mike Riddle	6-0	244	Fr-RS
Joey Sackett	6-3	252	Fr-RS

Senior Barry Jones, a team captain for 1995, returns at left guard and is the leader of the line. He was UK's Most Outstanding Offensive Lineman last season while starting at left guard and backing up both tackles. Jones, a member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, knows every position in the line and could be plugged in anywhere if needed ... Sophomore Brandon Jackson emerged as UK's Most Improved Lineman during the spring and looms as the starter at right guard. His development led the coaches to move Freshman All-SEC performer John Schlarman from guard to center. Backups at guard are inexperienced, with sophomore Cliff Bailey and redshirt freshman Joey Sackett currently the top candidates ... The unknown factor is redshirt freshman Carey Barlow, who missed the spring while recovering from a broken ankle.

Coach Magazu . . .

"As the spring went on we became more physical once we got an idea of what we were trying to accomplish in the new offense. We want to become more physical and more attacking. We have the ability to be physical and that's half the battle.

"We have to come back physically ready, and most of all, mentally ready to play football. If we have a 'tough guy' attitude and feel good about what we're trying to accomplish, then we can get in the physical position to be successful."

CENTERS

David Berringer	6-4	265	So-1L
DeAnthony Honaker	6-1	285	Jr-1L
John Schlarman	6-2	263	So-1L

Sophomore David Berringer moved from the defensive line to offense and finished spring drills as the No. 1 man at center ... Berringer will be challenged strongly, however, by sophomore John Schlarman. Schlarman started last season at right guard and was a member of the Freshman All-SEC team. He missed spring practice while rehabiliting a knee injury, but should be fully ready in August ... DeAnthony Honaker has continued to progress and could be used at either guard or center.

Coach Magazu . . .

See above quote on the guards.

QUARTERBACKS

Chris Ford	6-1	175	So-1L
Billy Jack Haskins	6-1	185	So-Sq
Jeff Speedy	6-2	185	Jr-2L

Jeff Speedy started seven games last season, completing 54-of-119 passes for 580 yards. He showed promise last August but was hurt in the season opener and battled injuries the rest of the way ... Billy Jack Haskins played briefly last season, completing 5-of-12 passes for 38 yards. He came on strong during the spring and will enter the fall bracketed with Speedy for the starting job. Ironically, Haskins and Speedy each completed 50 percent of his passes during the four spring scrimmages ... Sophomore Chris Ford will try his hand at quarterback in the fall. A QB in high school, Ford lettered last year at cornerback as a true freshman. He missed the spring because of a knee injury.

Coach Dorr . . .

"At the conclusion spring practice, the starting quarterback position was still looking to be established. The two primary candidates, Billy Jack Haskins and Jeff Speedy, did an outstanding job of executing the fundamentals of the position but neither established himself as the number one man.

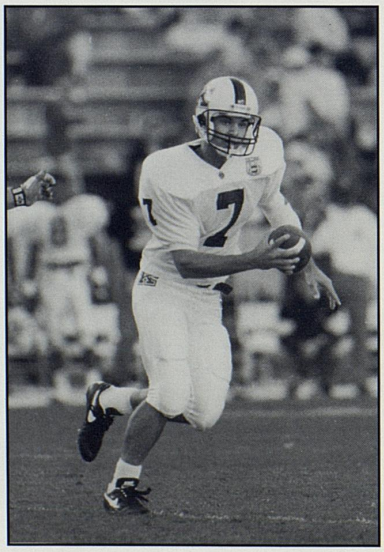

"Chris Ford, unfortunately, was injured during the spring and did not get to physically participate. He has learned the position and is mentally ready to challenge.

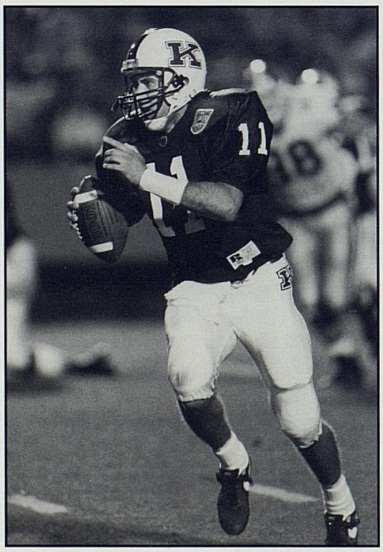

"The quarterback position requires a variety of qualities from the intangible to the tangible. As a coaching staff, we are looking for the individual who exhibits the intangibles on and off the field and who can accomplish the tangibles on a day-to-day, game-to-game basis in order to make the Kentucky offense successful. The individual who exhibits these characteristics in fall practice will be the starter in the opening game."

TAILBACKS

Donnell Gordon	5-10	206	Jr-2L
Ray McLaurin	6-0	195	Jr-2L
Moe Williams	6-2	200	Jr-2L
Michael Woodfork	6-1	206	Jr-2L

The Wildcats are blessed with a number of quality tailbacks ... Junior Ray McLaurin had a great spring practice, rushing for 459 yards on 81 carries (5.7 average) and six touchdowns during UK's four scrimmages. He was named the team's Most Improved Offensive Back and won the Offensive Make-a-Difference Award for his spring efforts. McLaurin showed improved speed and has projected himself into contention for playing time ... Last season's top two tailbacks, Moe Williams and Donnell Gordon, missed the contact portions of spring practice while rehabilitating injured shoulders. Williams has gained 1,733 yards in two seasons and already ranks sixth in UK history in career rushing yardage. He picked up 805 yards a year ago, averaging 5.0 per carry, had two 100-yard games, and was picked as UK's Most Outstanding Offensive Back for the second year in a row. He's also a dangerous pass receiver out of the backfield. Gordon shined as Williams' backup last season, picking up 231 yards on only 38 carries, averaging a sparkling 6.1 yards per tote.

Junior Michael Woodfork is another talent at the crowded position. He gained 60 yards in 21 carries last season as the backup fullback and crashed the end zone for two touchdowns. He's also slated as the number one fullback in two-back sets.

Coach Drake . . .

"It's difficult to make judgments about how the position is going to stack up because two of our backs (Donnell Gordon, Moe Williams) were not in the contact parts of spring practice. I'm encouraged by our quality of depth, which will lead to a very competitive situation in the fall.

"I'm pleased with what I saw from our injured players. I've seen some ability in them. I was very pleased with the consistent development of Raymond McLaurin through the entire spring and that excited me. I was also pleased with Michael Woodfork. It will be extremely competitive in the fall, a healthy environment which can be a very good thing for the team."

FULLBACKS

Carl Daley	5-9	202	Jr-Sq
Mike Fisher	5-7	213	Fr-RS
Mike Schellenberger	6-0	230	Jr-2L
Michael Woodfork	6-1	206	Jr-2L

A fullback will be inserted when UK uses a two-back set ... Last year's backup fullback, Michael Woodfork, has first dibs on the position with the graduation of Damon Hood. Woodfork gained 60 yards on 21 carries last season, including two touchdowns ... Junior Mike Schellenberger spends most of his time at middle linebacker, but could also see action at the fullback spot. Schellenberger played fullback in high school and has good athletic ability packed into his linebacker frame ... A pair of walk-ons, Carl Daley and Mike Fisher, provide depth. The dependable Daley was the Most Valuable Walk-on of spring practice.

Coach Drake . . .

"We use a fullback in our two-back sets. We have a solid group of fullbacks and I believe we will be effective when we go to our two-back offense."

KENTUCKY DEFENSIVE COACHING STAFF

Mike Archer — Assoc. Head Coach/Coordinator/Linebackers
Bill Glaser — Defensive Tackles
Calvin Miller — Defensive Ends
Rick Smith — Defensive Backs
Mike Chism — Graduate Assistant

Mike Archer returns for his third year as coordinator of the Kentucky defense. The Wildcats will stick with the 4-3 scheme used during the past two seasons.

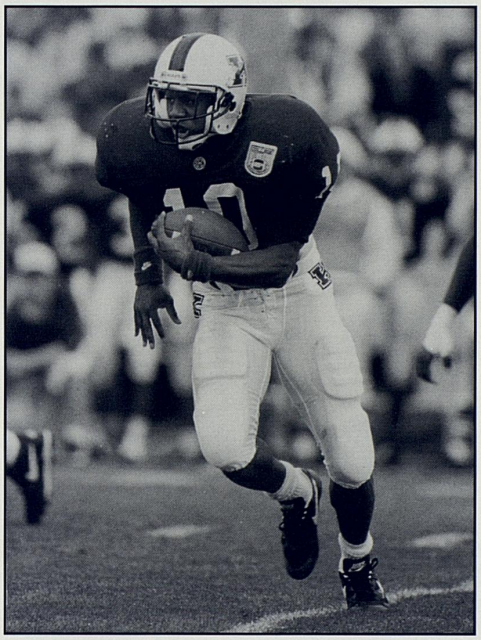

As a whole, the 1995 defensive unit will be more experienced than the young group that struggled much of last season. Hopefully, the experience gained a year ago will pay off in improved play in the upcoming battles.

Coach Archer . . .

"We must improve in all areas of our defense. We're striving for improvement in the technical aspects, the basic fundamentals. The players are older (than last year's team) and that will be a big boost."

DEFENSIVE TACKLES

Thad Corbin	6-3	252	So-1L
Mark Jacobs	6-3	261	Fr-RS
Marvin Major	6-3	265	Fr-RS
Mike Schlegel	6-5	249	Sr-3L
Jeremy Streck	6-5	262	Fr-RS

Tailback Moe Williams has led the team in rushing the last two seasons and has 1,733 yards in his career.

The graduation of starting tackles Robert Stinson and Roger Sullivan leaves these positions as the youngest on the UK defense ... Senior Mike Schlegel, a '95 team captain, will be counted on to anchor one tackle. He was the top reserve last year, totaling 43 tackles, including one sack and four tackles for loss, and added one caused fumble, one fumble recovery, and two pass breakups ... Sophomore Thad Corbin made 12 tackles last season, including two for loss, and looms as the top reserve. A former walk-on, Corbin has been rewarded for his efforts with a scholarship.

Three redshirt freshmen, Mark Jacobs, Marvin Major, and Jeremy Streck, are in contention at the other tackle. Major had the edge at the end of spring drills, but must defend his first-team status in the fall.

Two junior college transfers, Harold Bell and Eddie Blakley, will play either tackle or end and could move into the picture for playing time.

Coach Glaser . . .

"We are rebuilding after graduating our two starters from last season. Only Mike Schlegel and Thad Corbin have ever played a down in college.

"The good thing in spring was that we were working with only five players, which helped everybody get the repetitions necessary to make improvement. We have to improve our techniques in order to stop the run better this year. And we must work harder than other teams do during the summer in order to gain an advantage.

"The two junior college transfers could be tackles or ends, so we could get some help from them."

DEFENSIVE ENDS

John Harris	6-4	252	Fr-RS
Kurt Supe	6-3	247	Jr-2L
Jeff Tanner	6-2	245	Jr-2L
Jason Thomas	6-5	259	Fr-RS
Chris Ward	6-4	247	Jr-2L

Three juniors, Kurt Supe, Jeff Tanner, and Chris Ward, should handle the majority of action at the end positions. Fall practice will begin with Supe and Ward as the starters and Tanner the top sub at both terminals ... Supe led the ends last year in tackles with 29. His three sacks and five tackles for loss led the team in those categories ... Ward had 17 stops last season, including two and one-half sacks and two tackles for loss. He had an outstanding spring and was given the team's Defensive Make-a-Difference Award ... Tanner added 11 stops as a reserve in '94 ... Redshirt freshmen John Harris and Jason Thomas continue to make progress and Thomas earned the team's Most Improved Defensive Lineman Award during spring practice ... Junior college transfers Harold Bell and Eddie Blakley will arrive in August and could fit in the defensive line picture at tackle or end.

Coach Miller . . .

"We had a really good spring with a lot of learning. I thought they made tremendous progress and responded very well to what we were teaching them.

"With as tough a conference as we have, we'll try to play four-to-six players. We need our young players to come along and give us competitive depth. Our incoming junior college players could help us with our depth."

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Harvey Clay	6-3	208	Fr-RS
David Ginn	6-5	211	So-1L
Raymond Jones	5-8	200	So-1L
Donté Key	6-3	222	Sr-3L
Lamont Smith	6-2	227	So-1L
David Snardon	6-2	239	Sr-3L

Seniors Donté Key and David Snardon each have significant starting experience and are being counted on for leadership on the 1995 defense ... Key is the starter on the left side. He accounted for 61 tackles last season and led the team in pass breakups with eight. He was named the National Defensive Player of the Week by Sports Illustrated for his performance in the win over Louisville ... Lamont Smith lettered as a true freshman last season and will back up Key, seeing more playing time as he improves his consistency ... Redshirt freshman Harvey Clay can earn more playing time as he develops physically.

Snardon was second on the team last year in tackles with 71 and was named the team's Most Outstanding Linebacker. He is expected to be the regular on the right side and is a team captain for 1995 ... Backing Snardon is sophomore David Ginn, an earnest performer who has made steady improvement ... Sophomore letterman Raymond Jones returns to action after redshirting last season.

Coach Archer . . .

"Experience is a plus. We have four guys who have started games (Hudson, Key, Schellenberger, Snardon). David Ginn, Lamont Smith, and Miguel Viera have grown up over the last year and can help. We could go three-deep at some of the linebacker positions, so depth is a plus.

"What we've got to get out of this group is more big plays—turnovers, sacks, fumbles, and so on. We have to have guys step up and make the plays when we need them."

MIDDLE LINEBACKERS

Bob Holmberg	6-0	231	So-Tr
Chad Hudson	6-3	234	So-1L
Mike Schellenberger	6-0	230	Jr-2L
Miguel Viera	6-2	216	Fr-RS

Chad Hudson came on strong last season, starting the last six games and earning Freshman All-SEC honors. He finished the season with 57 tackles and solidified his hold on the middle linebacker post during spring practice ... Mike Schellenberger is a veteran reserve who accounted for 20 tackles last season ... An intriguing story during spring practice was the arrival of Bob Holmberg, a transfer from Indiana State. A former all-state linebacker from Louisville, Holmberg made an immediate name for himself and could push his way into some playing time in the fall ... Redshirt freshman Miguel Viera continues to progress, but must battle three veterans ahead of him.

Coach Archer . . .

See quotes at outside linebacker.

CORNERBACKS

Buddy Berry	5-10	169	Fr-RS
Carlos Collins	6-0	206	Sr-3L
Steven Hall	6-1	205	Sr-4L
Van Hiles	6-0	191	Jr-2L
Timothy Holmes	5-11	201	Fr-RS
Littleton Ward	5-9	164	So-1L
Kiyo Wilson	5-11	191	Jr-2L

Secondary coach Rick Smith has plenty of options from which to choose with five experienced cornerbacks ... Senior Steven Hall is a two-year starter in the secondary. He made 57 tackles and one interception last season ... Junior Tailback Ray McLaurin was outstanding in spring practice.

Kiyo Wilson started five game a year ago, made 33 tackles, and broke up three passes ... Junior Van Hiles started four games in '94 and led the team in interceptions with three. He had a 61-yard interception return for a touchdown against Georgia ... Former running back Carlos Collins has made a good adjustment to the corner. He started twice last season and broke up two passes ... Sophomore Littleton Ward saw some action last season and made nine tackles ... Redshirt freshman Timothy Holmes has moved to cornerback after winning the team's 1994 Outstanding Offensive Scout Team Player Award as a running back ... Redshirt freshman Buddy Berry is learning the secondary after playing linebacker in high school.

Coach Smith . . .

"As a group, the secondary has a chance to be good. The biggest thing we have to do is make the interception when we have a chance to do it. Last year we had some chances for interceptions and didn't finish. This year we have to make the interception when we get the opportunity.

"I expect Steven Hall to have a great year. He has all the tools. Van Hiles is a playmaker and can make more. (Converted running back) Carlos Collins is a guy I'd wish I'd had for five years. He had an exceptional spring and is going to push for playing time as a starter. Kiyo Wilson is a fine football player and may be our best hitter. Littleton Ward may be the best athlete of our cornerbacks. He's working to improve his consistency."

STRONG SAFETIES

Leman Boyd	5-10	195	Jr-2L
George Harris	5-11	190	Sr-1L
Rob Manchester	6-0	204	Sr-3L

Senior George Harris and junior Leman Boyd shared this position last year and likely will do so again in 1995 ... The hard-hitting Harris starting five games last season and accumulated 70 tackles, plus an interception against Georgia ... Boyd started six games, totaling 58 tackles (including four for losses), and broke up one pass ... Senior Rob Manchester plays extensively on special teams in addition to spot duty at strong safety.

Coach Smith . . .

"George Harris is a really good football player who has worked extremely hard in the weight room. Leman Boyd is a very good player and has the ability to play both safety positions. I look for him to have a good year. Rob Manchester gives us experienced depth."

FREE SAFETIES

Dele Ali	6-3	199	So-1L
Reggie Rusk	6-2	182	Sr-1L
Shawn Smith	6-3	195	Fr-RS
Stephan Walters	6-0	187	Fr-RS

These players face a formidable challenge in replacing graduated Melvin Johnson, who was a second-team All-American, first-team All-SEC performer, and second-round draft pick of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers ... The heir apparent is senior Reggie Rusk, a juco transfer who made 39 tackles in his first season of major college action. Rusk made great progress during the spring and was named the team's Most Improved Defensive Back at the conclusion of spring drills ... The backup is sophomore Dele Ali, a former walk-on who earned a scholarship with outstanding special teams play last year. Ali showed a knack for anticipating the pass during spring practice ... Redshirt freshmen Shawn Smith and Stephan Walters provide depth.

Coach Smith . . .

"Reggie Rusk got a little experience last season and played very well during the spring. He has the ability to be an outstanding free safety. Leman Boyd can play both safety positions. I hope that Dele Ali and Shawn Smith will step up and give us more depth."

SPECIAL TEAMS

Bill Glaser — Coordinator

On the whole, Kentucky's special teams were much improved in 1994 but there is plenty of room for more progress.

The Wildcats did not allow a kick return for a touchdown in 1994 but the coaches hope to lower the opponents' return averages, especially on punt returns ... Thanks to Kio Sanford and some unsung blocking heroes, UK enjoyed a solid kick return game that was at times outstanding ... Kicker Brian Sivinski and punter Nicky Nickels improved the team in their areas, but a replacement must be found for Nickels.

KICKERS

Bill Coleman	6-0	173	So-Tr
Brian Johnson	5-8	162	So-Tr
Brian Sivinski	5-11	180	Sr-2L
Matt Welch	5-9	130	Fr-RS

Senior Brian Sivinski returns as the Wildcats' kicker. He made 5-of-10 field goals in 1994, including three of more than 40 yards. Sivinski connected on 11 of 15 field goal tries during spring scrimmages ... Bill Coleman, Brian Johnson, and Matt Welch walked-on during the spring and compete for the backup role.

Coach Glaser . . .

"Brian Sivinski is our leader. He got better as the spring went on, which is encouraging from a fifth-year senior. As with any kicker, he's striving for more consistency and greater distance on his kickoffs."

PUNTERS

Stephen Brown	5-11	177	Fr-RS
Jimmy Carter	5-10	173	Fr-RS
Ryan Prewitt	6-1	198	Jr-Sq
Brad Wulfeck	6-2	198	So-Tr

Four players are vying to replace the departed Nicky Nickels, who averaged 39.9 yards per punt last season ... Morehead State transfer Brad Wulfeck emerged as the leader in spring practice. Wulfeck averaged 38.1 yards per punt at Morehead in 1993 ... Ryan Prewitt has been with the team three years while Stephen Brown and left-footed Jimmy Carter walked-on during the 1994 season.

Coach Glaser . . .

"Brad Wulfeck led at the end of spring practice. He's the only player who's ever punted in a college game. We must find another long snapper to back up Leon Smith. We also must do a better job with our net punting statistics by covering punts better."

KICKOFF RETURNERS

Kio Sanford	5-11	172	So-1L

Kio Sanford set four SEC records for kickoff returns last season, including most returns in a game (7) and season (33), most yardage in a season (820), and highest average (24.9, minimum 30 returns). His kickoff return exploits helped him earn a place on the Freshman All-SEC team. His 96-yard touchdown return against Northeast Louisiana was the third-longest in school history and won the AT&T Long Distance Award for longest return of the week.

Coach Glaser . . .

"Clyde Rudolph really helped us last season and we need to develop another threat to go along with Kio Sanford. Most of our blockers return, so we have the potential to be good again there."

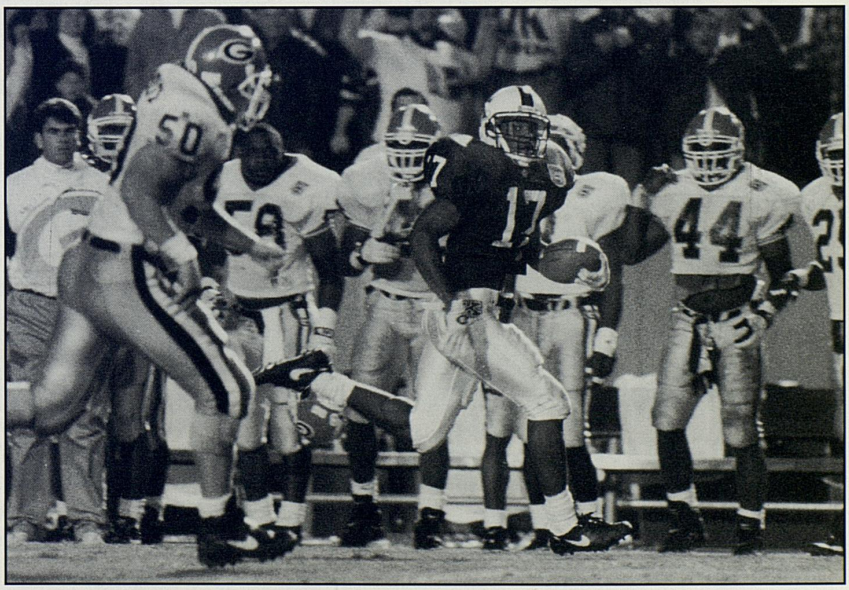

PUNT RETURNERS

Antonio O'Ferral	5-10	179	Sr-3L
Kio Sanford	5-11	172	So-1L

Kio Sanford handled every punt return last season. He ran back 24 for 202 yards, averaging 8.4 yards per return. His long return was 36 yards against Northeast Louisiana and he had a 33-yarder against South Carolina. He got off to a slow start and got better as the season went along, giving hope that he might improve his average during the 1995 season ... Antonio O'Ferral also worked with punt returns during the spring. He's at his best in an open-field situation.

Coach Glaser . . .

"Kio Sanford is back and now has some experience. Antonio O'Ferral worked there during the spring and showed some ability."

Cornerback Van Hiles led the team in interceptions last season with three, including this 61-yard return for a touchdown against Georgia.

Kentucky Football Bulletin Board

UK Football History

The University of Kentucky was the first Southeastern Conference school to introduce football (1881). After a nine-year lull from 1882-90, the school resumed the sport and has fielded a team since 1891, with the exception of the 1943 war year.

UK has completed 104 seasons and has an all-time record of 491 wins, 457 losses, and 44 ties for a winning percentage of .517. Kentucky is a charter member of the Southeastern Conference, beginning in 1933, and won SEC championships in 1950 and 1976.

Moe Williams is sixth on the UK career rushing list with 1,733 yards. He has six 100-yard games during his career and ranks fourth in school history in that category.

New Assistant Coaches

Kentucky has added four new assistant coaches since last season. The first addition was Elliot Uzelac, former offensive coordinator at Colorado, who will be UK's offensive coordinator and coach the tackles and tight ends. Uzelac also was head coach at Western Michigan (1975-81) and Navy (1987-89).

The second hiring was former Navy assistant Mike Drake, who will coach the UK running backs. Drake also was a head coach, from 1984-86 at Western New Mexico, and guided his teams to the second-best three-year period in school history.

Next came Calvin Miller, formerly an assistant at Oklahoma State. Miller, who will coach the defensive ends, has sent three of his players to the National Football League.

Completing the impressive group of new assistants is Dave Magazu, who helped guide Colorado State to the Western Athletic Conference championship last season. A 15-year veteran of the coaching ranks, Magazu will coach the UK centers and guards.

New Offense Planned

Kentucky will implement a new offensive plan this season. It is the multiple offense developed by UK's new offensive coordinator, Elliot Uzelac, while Uzelac was at Colorado. The scheme uses varying numbers of running backs, wide receivers, and tight ends, with the goals of spreading the defense and achieving a balance between rushing and passing yardage.

Colorado used the attack with great success the last two seasons. In 1994, Colorado rolled up 495.3 yards per game, ranking third nationally, en route to an 11-1 record. Uzelac's offense helped Rashaan Salaam win the Heisman Trophy after leading the nation in rushing, all-purpose yardage, and scoring. Quarterback Kordell Stewart ranked 10th nationally in total offense and 11th in passing efficiency.

In 1993, the Buffaloes again led the Big Eight in offense and rated 10th nationally with 470.5 yards per game. Colorado finished the season 8-3-1.

Checking the Schedule

Eight of Kentucky's 1995 opponents had a winning record last season, including four which went to bowl games. Kentucky's opponents had a combined record of 71-51-4 (.579) last season, a mark which improves to 51-31-2 (.619) when you subtract the games that UK's opponents played against each other. Here's how Kentucky's 1995 opponents fared during the 1994 season:

	'94 Overall	'94 Conf. Record, Bowl Game
Louisville	6-5	—
Florida	10-2-1	7-1, USF&G Sugar Bowl
Indiana	6-5	3-5
South Carolina	7-5	4-4, Carquest Bowl

Playing For The Trophies

Three of Kentucky's regular season games have trophies that are awarded to the winning team. Kentucky is in possession of the Governor's Cup, which goes to the winner of the newly-reinstated Kentucky-Louisville game. UK won the renewal game last season, 20-14.

Indiana is in possession of the Bourbon Barrel and Tennessee holds the Beer Barrel after defeating the Wildcats last season.

Do You Know?

- The Oct. 28 game against Mississippi State will be the 1000th game in school history.
- Kentucky sold out its public allotment of season tickets in 1994 for the first time in school history. A total of 39,169 season tickets were sold.
- Kentucky's bowl game winning percentage of .625 is the highest of any school in the Southeastern Conference.
- The UK cheerleaders won an unprecedented fifth national championship at the Universal Cheerleaders Association competition last April.
- Three Wildcats, LB Chad Hudson, WR/KR Kio Sanford, and offensive lineman John Schlarman were named to the 1994 Freshman All-SEC team as selected by the Knoxville News-Sentinel.
- Kentucky is one of the nation's most popular schools, as evidenced by UK's No. 7 national ranking in licensing revenues as compiled by the Collegiate Licensing Company of Atlanta.

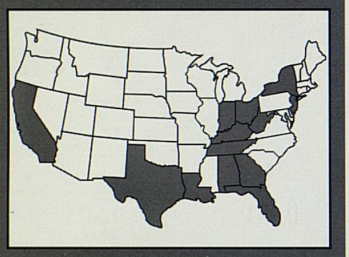

Kio Sanford set SEC single-season records in 1994 for most kickoff returns (33), kickoff return yardage (820) and kickoff return average (24.9, min. 30 returns). Sanford, linebacker Chad Hudson, and offensive lineman John Schlarman were named to the Freshman All-SEC team.

Head Coach BILL CURRY

Head Coach – Bill Curry

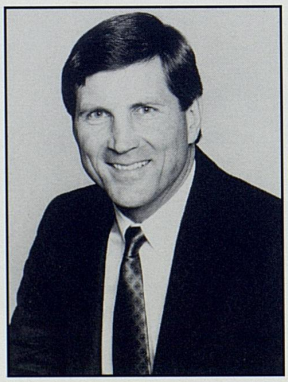

BILL CURRY
HEAD COACH

Last winter, Bill Curry achieved a feat that is a testimony to the high level of esteem and respect in which the University of Kentucky coach is held.

In the process of realigning his coaching staff, Curry's reputation enabled him to go literally across the country in order to bring in four knowledgeable, veteran assistant coaches, including two with head coaching experience.

From the West came Elliot Uzelac, architect of Colorado's offensive success the last two seasons and former head coach at Western Michigan and Navy. The next hiring came from the East—Navy assistant Mike Drake, former head coach at Western New Mexico.

From the Midwest came Oklahoma State defensive line specialist Calvin Miller, who has sent three proteges into the National Football League. Again heading west, Curry brought in Dave Magazu, a Colorado State assistant who is a 15-year veteran of college coaching.

It is Curry's philosophy—a sincere dedication to serve student-athletes through winning football, quality academic performance, and integrity—that is a beacon to others who share his ideals. All four of the new coaches mentioned Curry's prominence and reputation as major motivations for their decisions.

"I'd like to say that I'm a person that really lives to serve young people," said Curry of his philosophy. "It is my wish to have every single one of them be the best they can be in every aspect of their lives, and that certainly includes a championship football program. When we're successful with that, then we build a program that would not require my presence or any one person's presence. It would just be understood that we are into championships and championship people.

"Each person is unique, so everybody has a gift," Curry said. "An education or an experience like this (college football) should allow each person to find his or her gift, develop it and then give it. Now, a football program or a football team is a good model for that. If you're a blocker, then you must block every play, every time. You must protect your quarterback or your ball carrier every snap. If you're a tackler, you must tackle every play. That's a principle which should run through every part of your life.

"Then, hopefully you learn that it goes to the classroom with you or into your spiritual life. And when you are around a large group of people that learn to think that way, the stuff is contagious. And that is what a program is. That's what we're building here at Kentucky."

Curry's reputation as a person and accomplishments as a player and coach are what caught the attention of UK Athletics Director C. M. Newton in Dec. 1989, when Newton was searching for a replacement for the retired Jerry Claiborne. Newton's impressions of Curry were reflected in the athletics director's comments when the new coach was formally introduced on Jan. 8, 1990.

"William A. Curry is recognized by many to be at the very top of his profession," Newton said. "He has been credited for the dignity, class, and integrity with which he conducts his football programs, both on and off the playing field."

Head Coach – Bill Curry

Curry then outlined his goals for the program. "We intend to be champions at the University of Kentucky on the football field," he said. "We've been champions here at UK in the classroom and will continue to do so. And we will do it with dignity, and do it the right way."

Curry inherited a Kentucky program that had not won more than two conference games in a season in five years. His 1990 Wildcats squad finished at 4-7, but gained respectability in the SEC with a 3-4 record. The fifth-place finish was the best at Kentucky since 1984. Injuries and youth contributed to the Wildcats going 3-8 in 1991 and 4-7 in 1992.

The 1993 Wildcats, a preseason pick to finish last in the SEC, posted a 6-5 regular season record, placing fourth overall in the SEC and earning the conference's bid to the Peach Bowl. The fourth-place finish was UK's best since the 1977 squad came in second with a 6-0 mark. In addition to earning UK's first bowl trip in nine years, the 1993 squad posted the school's first three-game SEC win streak since 1977, and won two SEC road games in a season for the first time since 1984.

High hopes for the 1994 season were dimmed when the inexperienced Wildcats fell to 1-10. The lone victory, however, was a big bright spot as the Wildcats defeated Louisville, 20-14, in an intrastate rivalry that had been dormant for 70 years.

Academically, Curry's Wildcats continue to set the pace among league schools. Kentucky led the SEC in 1990, 1991, and 1993 in SEC Academic Honor Roll selections, a feat the Wildcats have accomplished in eight of the past 11 years. In Curry's other two seasons, the Wildcats have finished second (1992) and third (1993) in that category.

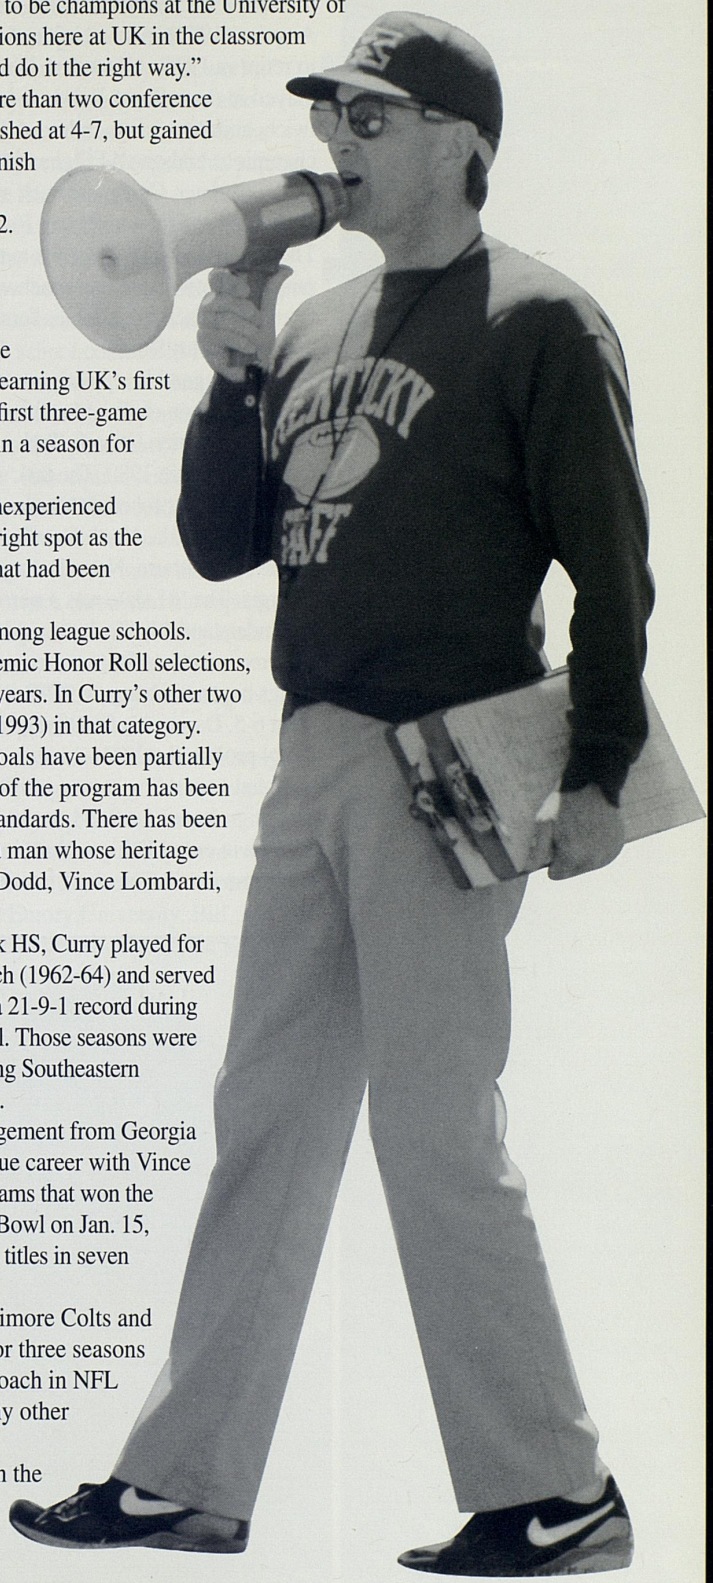

Thus, five years into his tenure, Curry's championship goals have been partially accomplished. The players are graduating and the integrity of the program has been upheld. Only the win-loss record has not yet met Curry's standards. There has been one bowl season, but occasional success is not enough for a man whose heritage includes association with coaching legends such as Bobby Dodd, Vince Lombardi, and Don Shula.

A native of College Park, Ga., and graduate of College Park HS, Curry played for Dodd at Georgia Tech. Curry was a three-year letterman at Tech (1962-64) and served as team captain his senior year. The Yellow Jackets compiled a 21-9-1 record during Curry's three seasons and played in the 1962 Bluebonnet Bowl. Those seasons were part of Dodd's impressive 22-year record of 165-64-8, including Southeastern Conference championships in 1951 and 1952, at Georgia Tech.

Curry completed his bachelor's degree in industrial management from Georgia Tech in 1965, then began his 10-year National Football League career with Vince Lombardi and the Green Bay Packers. He played on Packer teams that won the NFL championship in 1965 and 1966 and won the first Super Bowl on Jan. 15, 1967. The legendary Lombardi guided Green Bay to five NFL titles in seven years during the 1960s.

Following the 1966 season, Curry was traded to the Baltimore Colts and eventually became All-Pro in 1971 and 1972. His mentor for three seasons at Baltimore was Don Shula, who today is the winningest coach in NFL history and has appeared in more Super Bowls (six) than any other coach.

The Colts won the NFL championship in 1968 but lost in the Super Bowl; the 1970 season featured an AFC championship and another Super Bowl title. He finished his career with Houston (1973) and Los Angeles (1974). A knee injury forced him to retire in 1975. All totaled, Curry's teams played in three Super Bowls, winning twice, and he was a member of three NFL champions and one AFC champ.

A year later, Curry was back at Georgia Tech as an assistant to Pepper Rodgers. Then, in 1977, Curry returned to the pro ranks as an offensive line coach with the Green Bay Packers under his former teammate, Bart Starr.

Curry began his reputation as a coach eager to take on challenges when he returned to his alma mater, Georgia Tech, as head football coach in 1980. The task was not simple. His first schedule was loaded with Alabama, Florida, North Carolina, Tennessee, Auburn, Notre Dame, and Georgia. The '81 slate was a mirror image.

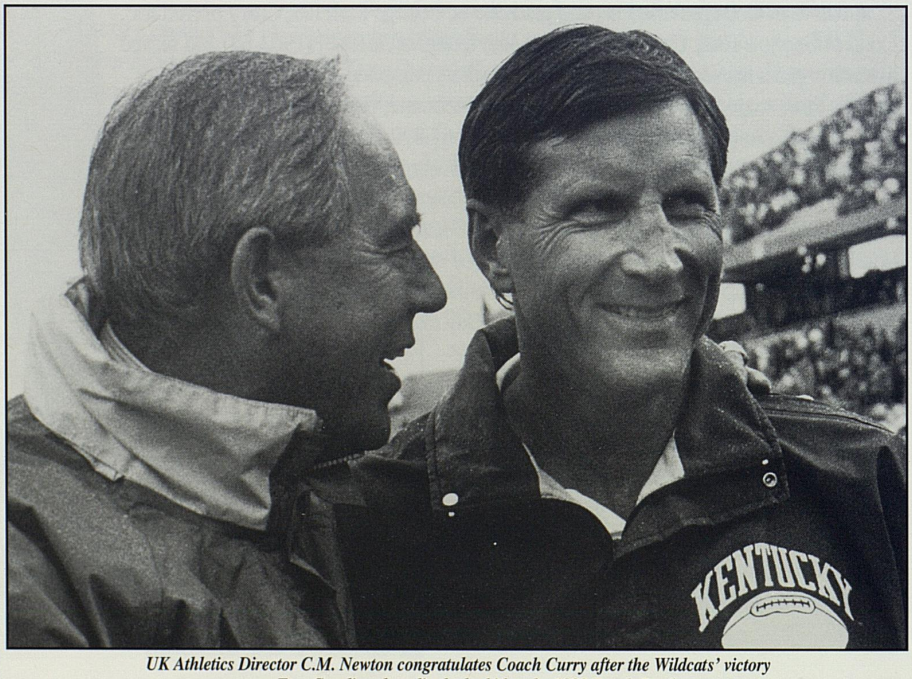

Understandably, Tech turned in 1-9-1 and 1-10 records those first two seasons. But things began to change in 1982 when Tech went 6-5. During his final five years at Tech, Curry produced a 29-24-3 ledger that included a sparkling season in 1985. The '85 campaign featured a 9-2-1 mark, including a 17-14 win over Michigan State in the All-American Bowl. The nine victories were the most for a Tech squad in 15 seasons and first bowl trip since 1978.

In 1987, Curry took on another building challenge at the tradition-rich University of Alabama. Although the Crimson Tide had captured a league-high 18 Southeastern Conference championships, Alabama had come up empty since Paul "Bear" Bryant's last SEC and national titles in 1979.

Curry's Alabama record improved each season, culminating in 1989 with a 10-2 record and SEC championship — the Tide's first league crown in 10 years. Curry's three-year record of 26-10 was the best three-year period at Alabama since the Bear's final three seasons in 1980-82 (27-8-3). The Tide played in three consecutive bowl games, the 1987 Hall of Fame, the 1988 Sun, and the 1990 USF&G Sugar.

"It (rebuilding a program) is piece-by-piece and it's painful," Curry said. "It's painstaking and sometimes it is embarrassing to fall on your face. But you just get up every time and keep going until it's done. Once it is done, then the program will serve a lot of young people for a long, long time. It's worth doing."

after Curry's building process is worth doing. In 1990, four years after his departure, Georgia Tech won the United Press International national championship. In 1992, three years after Curry, Alabama captured the national championship with a perfect 13-0 record.

Curry holds the distinction of being named Coach of the Year in two different conferences. He was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year in 1985 by the Associated Press and ACC Sportswriters while at Georgia Tech. At Alabama, Curry was named the 1987 Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year by United Press International, and the 1989 SEC Coach of the Year by AP and the Nashville Banner.

Another special honor came Curry's way following the 1989 season. Curry was named the '89 Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year, a citation that recognizes both character and accomplishment on the football field.

"Nothing could mean as much to me as this award," Curry said. "Coach Dodd had such a tremendous influence on my life.

"There is really no such thing as a coach of the year," Curry said. "There is such a thing as a staff of the year. Our American system tends to recognize individuals for what teams really accomplish. To be recognized that way in 1985, 1987, and 1989 in two different conferences, with different faces on our staff and with different teams, must really mean the family idea works."

It is that type of family that has also shaped Curry into the coach and into the man he is. That credit belongs to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Curry, Sr.

"The older I get, the more I understand how much my dad shaped me coaching-wise, and how both my mom and dad shaped me as a human being," Curry said. "And also my high school coach, Bill Badgett. He truly was the toughest, most demanding of all the coaches that I have played for."

Curry served as president (1973-75) of the NFL Players' Association and on the American Football Coaches Rules Committee for two terms. In 1977, with George Plimpton, he co-wrote the book "One More July," which chronicled his experiences as an NFL player. Presently, Curry is serving his second term on the AFCA Ethics Committee. In 1992, Curry was inducted into the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame.

Curry is married to the former Carolyn Newton of College Park, Ga. Carolyn has a Ph.D. in history and teaches at the University of Kentucky. They have two children. Kristin, 28, has just completed her doctorate at Emory University. Bill, Jr., 24, is in his second year as a graduate assistant on the UK coaching staff.

"There is really no such thing as a coach of the year," Curry said. "There is such a thing as a staff of the year. Our American system tends to recognize individuals for what teams really accomplish. To be recognized that way in 1985, 1987, and 1989 in two different conferences, with different faces on our staff and with different teams, must really mean the family idea works."

It is that type of family that has also shaped Curry into the coach and into the man he is. That credit belongs to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Curry, Sr.

"The older I get, the more I understand how much my dad shaped me coaching-wise, and how both my mom and dad shaped me as a human being," Curry said. "And also my high school coach, Bill Badgett. He truly was the toughest, most demanding of all the coaches that I have played for."

Curry served as president (1973-75) of the NFL Players' Association and on the American Football Coaches Rules Committee for two terms. In 1977, with George Plimpton, he co-wrote the book "One More July," which chronicled his experiences as an NFL player. Presently, Curry is serving his second term on the AFCA Ethics Committee. In 1992, Curry was inducted into the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame.

Curry is married to the former Carolyn Newton of College Park, Ga. Carolyn has a Ph.D. in history and teaches at the University of Kentucky. They have two children. Kristin, 28, has just completed her doctorate at Emory University. Bill, Jr., 24, is in his second year as a graduate assistant on the UK coaching staff.

A Conversation with Bill Curry

Q: You've added four new assistant coaches. How have they changed the makeup of the staff and your approach to coaching the team?

"We're coaching with a great deal more aggressiveness. That's necessary in the '90s. To be successful we will be the most demanding of staffs. That's not to say that we were not demanding in the past but we are more demanding now. That's what this situation calls for."

Q: Has this change of approach changed your goals?

"Our goals are always the same—championship performance in every way, which means the best that everybody has to give at all times. That has more powerful emphasis when you go through a year when you clearly didn't get that. Nothing will cause us to change from that goal."

Q: You've been through spring practice with your new offense. What do you think about it after having seen it in practice?

"It's a natural evolution from what we've done and the next proper step for Kentucky football. Because of its alignment, it helps spread the defense and can be an equalizer when you play a physically dominant, top five kind of team, the kind of teams we have on our schedule.

"But it's not just the way we line up, but also the ways plays are called and executed. We feel we can use it to our advantage."

Q: What has new strength coach Rob Oviatt brought to the program?

"Attention to detail and iron-willed discipline. He brings an understanding that it is in the details that growth occurs.

"Rob's assistant, Aaron Shelley, is also going to help us. He brings a special expertise in athletic nutrition. He has been a championship weightlifter and he understands power, which is what football demands."

Q: What has the revival of the Louisville series meant to the sport of football in Kentucky?

"It has helped stoke interest in football in the state to a higher level. If we are going to compete with other entertainments in this state, such as horse racing and basketball, we have to be at their level of excellence. Playing the game first on the schedule helps keep football in the forefront from April until August."

Q: The spring practice moves of Antonio O'Ferral and James Tucker to wide receiver seemed to go well. Tell us about the moves.

"Antonio is a guy we need to get on the field. The good thing about this move is that he knows coverages and he knows the routes, he just has to get where it comes easily to him. He is so tough and aggressive. He's a blocker. He catches the ball in traffic. He's hard to tackle in the open field. He really has a chance to do well.

"James is basically the same thing. He's a larger version (of Antonio). Both of them showed big play capability quickly."

Q: You're entering your 16th season as a college head coach. What are some ways that coaching has changed since 1980?

"Maintaining the ability to keep your focus on what is real is far more difficult than 15 years ago. There are many more distractions for coaches.

"Players are far more questioning about the process and about their leaders. They ask 'Why do we do this drill?' or 'Why do we run this play this way?' That's not to say that this is a negative. Our leaders in society, whether they be political leaders, teachers, coaches, or some other leader, are questioned much more frequently today.

"The ethics of college athletics are improving. The presidents have said, 'Enough of trashing young people's lives.' Slowly and surely, they are taking back control of college athletics. That's very encouraging.

"The reduction of scholarship limits helps programs that are trying to build. The established programs can't take as many top players, leaving more available for aggressive recruiters."

1995 Kentucky Assistant Coaches

Mike Archer

Associate Head Coach, Defensive Coordinator, Linebackers

Mike Archer, the Wildcats defensive coordinator and linebackers coach, was given additional responsibility last spring when he was named Associate Head Coach. In that role, he will be in charge of football-related matters in the absence of Head Coach Bill Curry.

Archer is entering his third year on the UK staff. In addition to his defensive duties, Archer will work with the team's punt return specialists and coach the PAT/field goal rush units. His rush unit blocked one field goal attempt and one extra point attempt last season.

During the 1993 season, Archer's troops posted two shutout victories, 35-0 over Kent and 21-0 over Ole Miss, and held two other opponents, Vanderbilt and East Carolina, without an offensive touchdown.

Archer, a 1975 graduate of the University of Miami (Fla.), came to UK in 1993 following a two-year stint as linebackers coach at the University of Virginia under George Welsh.

Archer, 41, served as head football coach at Louisiana State University from 1987 to 1990 (four seasons) prior to his appointment at Virginia. He led the Tigers to a 27-18-1 record as head coach with two bowl appearances — 1987 Gator Bowl and 1989 Hall of Fame Bowl — and one Southeastern Conference Championship in 1988. As the nation's youngest (34) Division I-A head football coach in 1987, Archer led the Tigers to a 10-1-1 record and 30-13 Gator Bowl victory over South Carolina. A year later, Archer directed the Tigers to the SEC title with a 6-1 league slate and an 8-4 overall record.

Archer, a native of State College, Pa., lettered three seasons (1973-74-75) in football at Miami. He started at free safety for two seasons for the Hurricanes and also punted. As a senior, Archer was named UM's Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

His coaching career began the following year as a graduate assistant at Miami under Carl Selmer in 1976. He worked with the Hurricanes special teams and served as defensive coordinator for the Miami freshman team. Archer remained in the same position in 1977 under Lou Saban, then was named administrative assistant to the head coach in 1978.

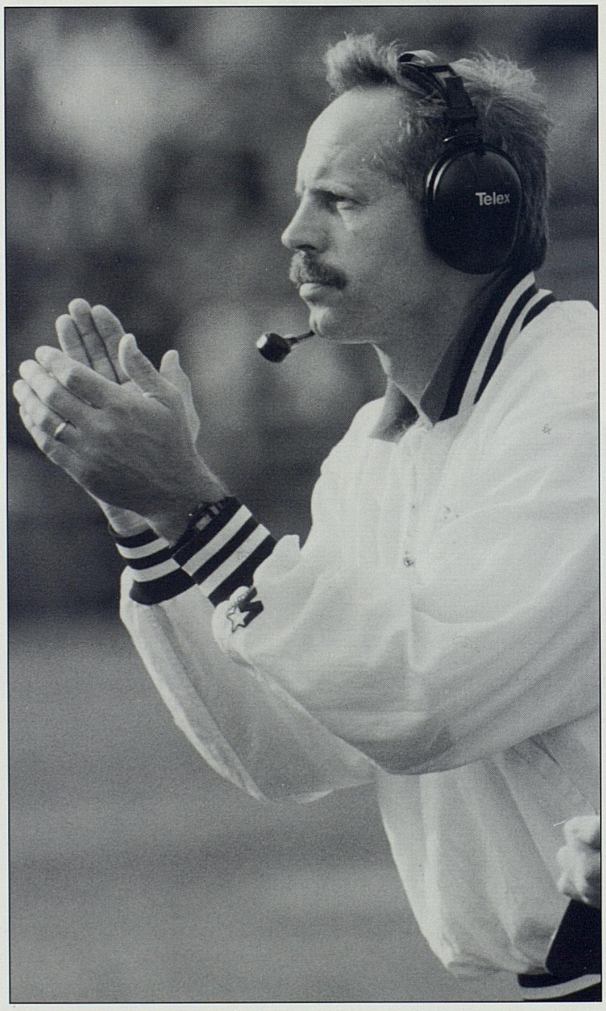

Archer was promoted in 1979 to the Hurricanes full-time coaching staff, directed by head coach Howard Schnellenberger. In all, Archer spent five seasons as defensive backs coach for the Hurricanes (1979-83). He helped Miami post a 41-16 record in that span, which included a 31-30 Orange Bowl victory over Nebraska and subsequent 1983 national championship.

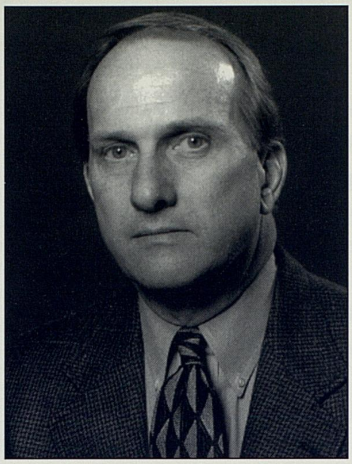

Archer joined the LSU coaching staff, headed by Bill Arnsparger, in 1984 as the Tigers defensive backfield coach. He spent three seasons as an assistant under Arnsparger at LSU, including the 1985 and 1986 campaigns as the Tigers defensive coordinator. Archer and his defensive units played integral parts in building a 26-8-2 record for LSU during that period with appearances in three bowl games — 1985 Sugar, 1985 Liberty, and 1987 Sugar — and the 1986 Southeastern Conference championship. His '85 LSU defensive unit ranked third nationally in scoring defense (10.3 ppg) and eighth nationally in rushing defense (107.1 ypg). His 1986 Tiger defensive backfield led the SEC in interceptions and tied the school record (27) for most interceptions during a single season.

Archer is married to the former Barbara Pollak of Kansas City, Mo. They have two children — Jeffrey Matthew, 13, and Betsy Anne, 10.

Ray Dorr
Quarterbacks

Ray Dorr is in his third season as an assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. Overall, Dorr has spent 28 years on the sideline as either a collegiate assistant or head football coach.

Dorr has a change of responsibility this season, moving from the running backs coach to the coach of the quarterbacks. He has coached quarterbacks at Kent State, Washington, and Southern California.

As the running backs coach the last two seasons, Dorr has helped UK tailback Moe Williams achieve several milestones. As a freshman in 1993, Williams ran for 928 yards, more than any other first-year player in school history. He also set the freshman single game rushing record with 159 yards against Georgia. As a team, UK finished 24th nationally in rushing yardage with 210.5 yards per game.

Last season, Williams added 805 more yards. In two seasons, Williams totaled 1,733 yards, already sixth-best in school history, and his six 100-yard games rates fourth-best in school history.

Dorr, 52, came to UK following a five-year stint as an assistant coach at the University of Southern California. Dorr joined the Trojans staff under Larry Smith in 1988 as receivers coach. After one year, he was named quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator (1989 to 1991) and then served as offensive coordinator for USC in 1992.

As an assistant, Dorr has coached at Akron, Kent State, Washington and Southern California. He served as head coach at Southern Illinois from 1984 to 1987 prior to joining the USC staff.

As quarterbacks coach at Southern California, Dorr tutored Trojan signal-caller Todd Marinovich for two seasons. Marinovich finished his career ranked No. 2 on the USC career charts for passing with 5,001 yards and 29 touchdowns and was a first-round National Football League draft choice. Dorr also coached first-team All-America split end Erik Affholter in 1988. Affholter grabbed 68 receptions for 952 yards and eight touchdowns while earning first-team All-America honors under Dorr's guidance as receivers coach.

Dorr posted a four-year record of 17-27 as head football coach at Southern Illinois prior to joining USC. His best season mark came in 1986 as his squad finished 7-4 on the season, including a second-place effort (4-2) in the Gateway Conference.

Dorr began his coaching career as an assistant at Wadsworth High School in Akron, Ohio. Dorr spent two seasons (1965-66) at Wadsworth before accepting a position as graduate assistant coach at the University of Akron in 1967 under head coach Gordon Larson. After one year, Dorr was named to the full-time staff at Akron and spent three seasons as the Zips' offensive backfield coach.

In 1971, Dorr began his first of 13 consecutive years as an assistant coach under Don James when he accepted the position of quarterbacks coach at Kent State. Dorr helped lead the Golden Flashes to a 25-19-1 record in four years (1971-74), which included Kent State's only Mid-American Conference title in 1972.

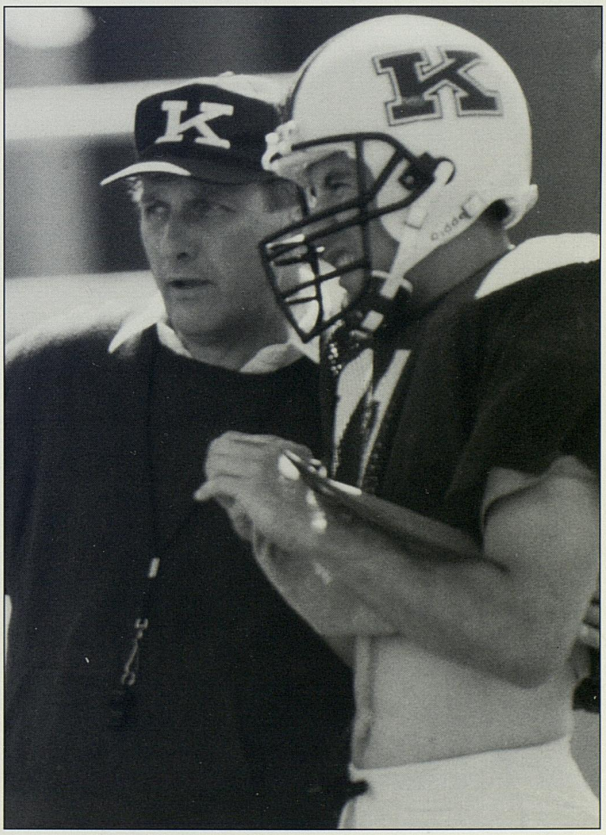

Dorr moved to Washington with James in 1975 as quarterbacks coach and helped lead the Huskies to a 75-30 mark in nine years (1975-83). Washington appeared in six bowl games during that span, including three Rose Bowls. Dorr coached three future NFL quarterbacks while at Washington — Warren Moon, Tom Flick and Steve Pelluer.

Dorr was a four-sport standout at McKinley High School in Sebring, Ohio, and started at quarterback for three years (1962-64) at West Virginia Wesleyan. His record as starting quarterback at West Virginia Wesleyan was 19-6-2.

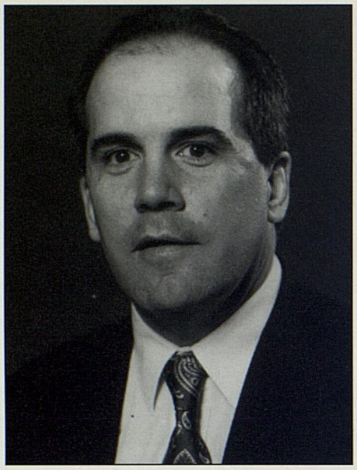

Dorr and his wife, Karen, have two sons — Stephen, 22, a junior quarterback/wide receiver at West Virginia Wesleyan, and David, 18.

1995 Kentucky Assistant Coaches

Mike Drake

Running Backs

Mike Drake joined the University of Kentucky football coaching staff last February and his primary duty will be to coach the Wildcats running backs.

Drake is a 15-year veteran of the collegiate coaching ranks. He will work with a strong group of Wildcats running backs, including veterans Donnell Gordon, Ray McLaurin, Moe Williams, and Michael Woodfork. Drake also will spend time working with the Wildcats punters.

Drake came to UK from the United States Naval Academy, where he had been an assistant coach since 1989. His duties have included the defensive secondary (1994), cornerbacks and free safeties (1993), quarterbacks (1992), offensive tackles and tight ends (1990-91), and running backs (1989).

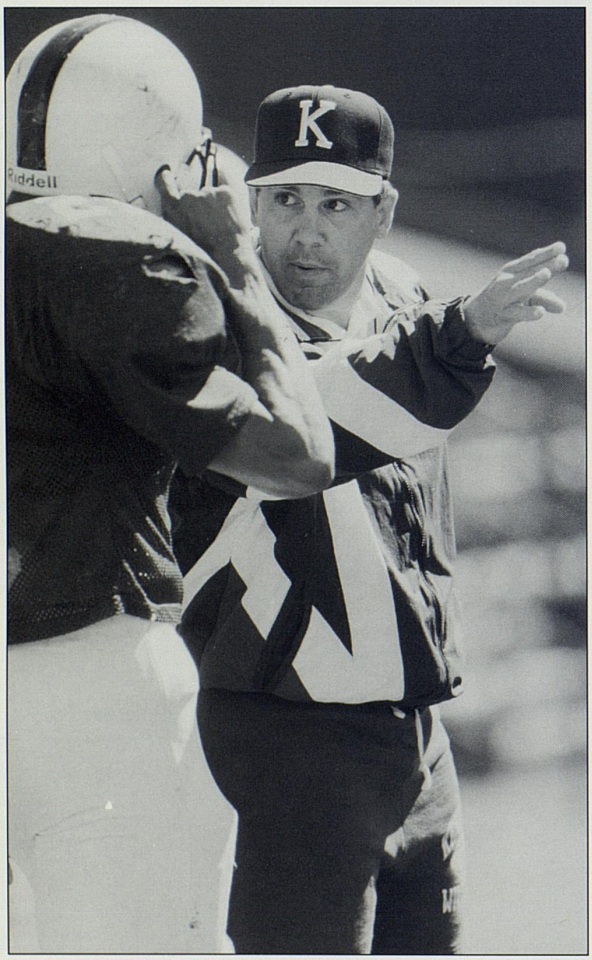

Drake also spent two years as the head coach at the Naval Academy Prep School (1987-88). In 1988, he directed NAPS to its first victory over Army Prep in 11 years.

Prior to his time at Navy, Drake had a five-year stint at Western New Mexico. Drake was defensive coordinator in 1982-83 before serving as head coach from 1984-86. As head coach, his teams had an overall record of 14-15-1, the second best three-year period in school history, including a 7-0-1 conference record in 1984 that was the best ever at WNM.

Drake entered college coaching in 1980-81 as the defensive ends coach at Western Michigan. He spent one season as an assistant at Otsego (Mich.) High School and the 1978 campaign as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Western Michigan. Drake began his playing days at Central Michigan and was there one year before transferring to WMU.

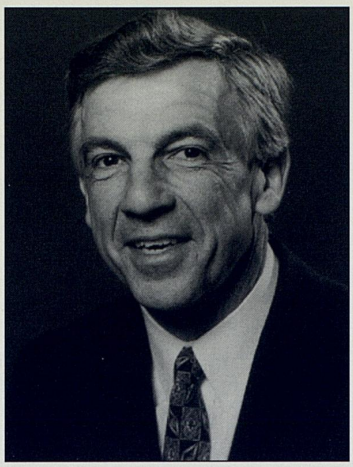

At Kentucky, Drake is reunited with new UK offensive coordinator Elliot Uzelac. Uzelac was head coach at Western Michigan when Drake played there (1975-77) and was a student assistant coach (1978). The pair crossed paths again in 1989 when Drake joined Uzelac's Navy staff as an assistant coach.

Drake and his wife, Patricia, have two daughters, Abigail (9) and Hannah (5), and a son, Michael (3).

Bill Glaser

Defensive Tackles, Special Teams Coordinator

Bill Glaser is in his 19th season as an assistant coach at the University of Kentucky — the longest streak of any current assistant coach in the Southeastern Conference.

Glaser coaches the Wildcats defensive tackles and as special teams coordinator, organizes all special teams activity. He is directly responsible for the punt protection and coverage team and also is in charge of the annual University of Kentucky Football Camp during the summer.

Glaser, 51, came to the University of Kentucky in 1977 from Morehead State University. He has worked for three head coaches at UK — Fran Curci, Jerry Claiborne, and Bill Curry. Glaser was the only full-time UK assistant retained by both Claiborne and Curry.

Glaser, a native of Louisville, graduated in 1965 from Bellarmine College and participated in baseball while completing his undergraduate studies. He graduated in 1961 from St. Xavier High School and lettered three years as an offensive guard and linebacker.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, St. Xavier, in 1965 as an assistant football and baseball coach. Glaser was named head baseball coach in 1970 and in four seasons, compiled a 112-48 record. In 1974, Glaser was named head football coach and promptly led St. Xavier to back-to-back state titles and a two-year slate of 25-0-0.

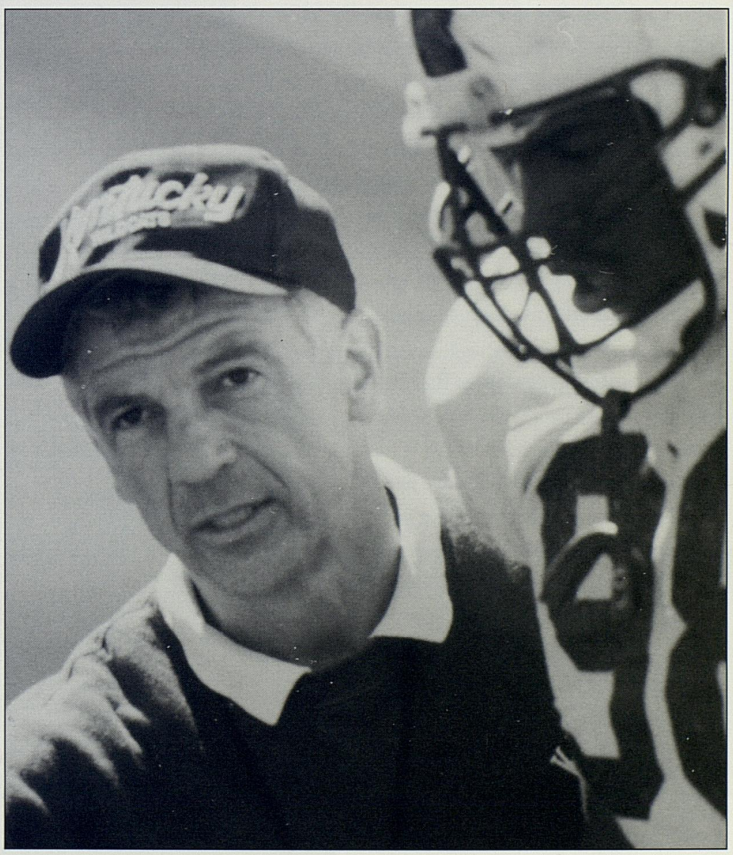

Glaser was named defensive coordinator in 1976 at Morehead State, where he completed work on a master's degree. A year later, he moved to UK as defensive line coach under Curci. In the Claiborne era, Glaser coached the UK defensive guards.

Glaser has coached three All-Southeastern Conference performers while at Kentucky — nose guards Richard Jaffe (1977-79) and Joey Couch (1988-91) and tackle Jerry Blanton (1977).

He is married to the former Mary Ann Jensen of Louisville. They have two grown children — Angie, David, and Clare (15).

Dave Magazu

Centers and Guards

Dave Magazu (pronounced MAG-uh-zoo) came on board the University of Kentucky coaching staff last March and his main duty will be to handle the Wildcats centers and guards.

In that role, Magazu will be coaching UK's Most Outstanding Lineman of 1994, left guard Barry Jones, and Freshman All-SEC performer John Schlarman, who will be making the move from right guard to center in August. Magazu also must bring along several talented but inexperienced linemen. In addition to his line duties, Magazu will coach the PAT/field goal unit.

Magazu is a 15-year veteran of college coaching. He spent the last three seasons at Colorado State, handling the team's centers and guards in 1992 before assuming responsibility for the entire offensive line in 1993. Two of his players earned first-team All-Western Athletic Conference honors. Colorado State won the WAC last season, finishing with a 10-2 overall record and a berth against Michigan in the Holiday Bowl.

Before his term at Colorado State, Magazu was the offensive coordinator at Indiana State (1990-91). From 1987-89, he coached the offensive line and special teams at Navy.

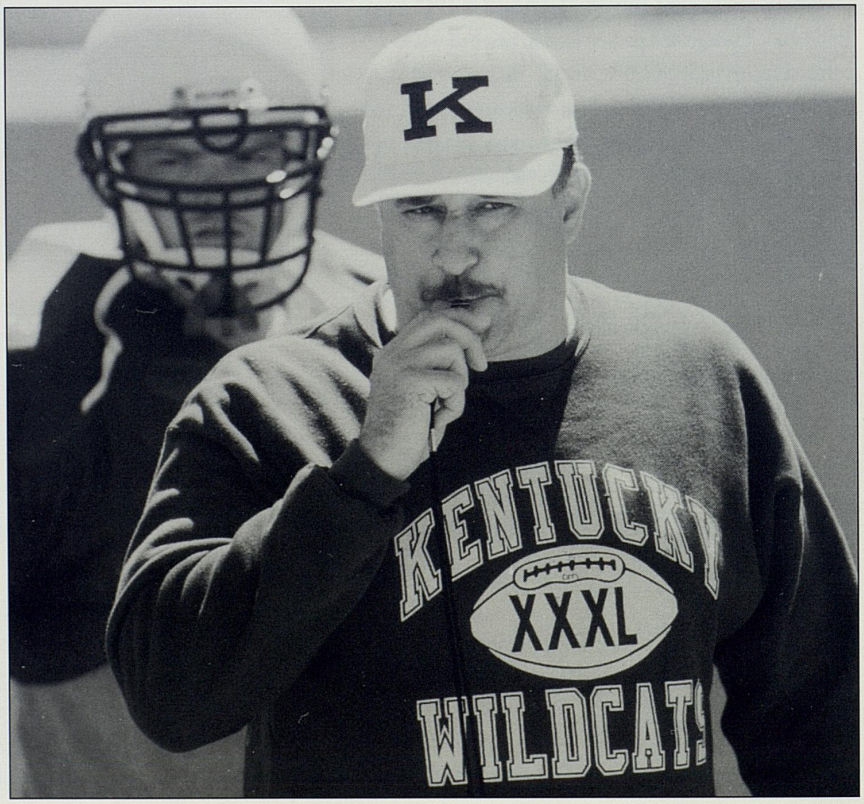

Magazu also has coached at Ball State (offensive coordinator, 1985-86), Northern Illinois (tackles and tight ends, 1984), Michigan (grad. assistant/offensive line, 1983), Eastern Michigan (offensive line and tight ends, 1982), Western Michigan (offensive tackles and tight ends, 1981), and Ithaca College (graduate assistant, 1980).

Magazu has crossed paths with new UK offensive coordinator Elliot Uzelac on four occasions. Magazu was an assistant under head coach Uzelac at Western Michigan and Navy. They were assistants together at Michigan and are now reunited on the Kentucky staff. Magazu also got to know UK assistant Mike Drake when they were both assistants at Navy.

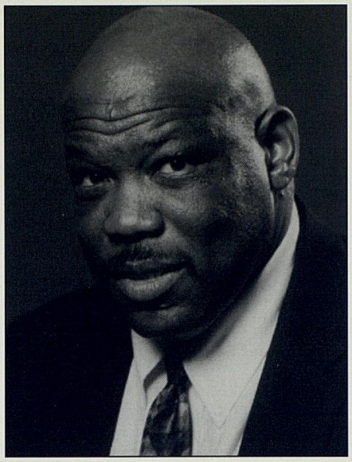

Magazu earned his bachelor's degree in 1980 at Springfield College, where he was a four-year letterman at defensive tackle. Dave and his wife Carrie have three sons, Anthony (9), Dominick (7), and Damon (4).

Calvin Miller

Defensive Ends

Calvin Miller joined the University of Kentucky football coaching staff last March and will be in charge of the Wildcats defensive ends.

Miller begins his work at UK with two returning part-time starters, Kurt Supe and Chris Ward, and veteran reserve Jeff Tanner. He is also challenged with developing some talented but inexperienced young players who will have to provide the depth necessary for the Wildcats to win in the Southeastern Conference.

In addition to the defensive ends, Miller will handle UK's punt return team.

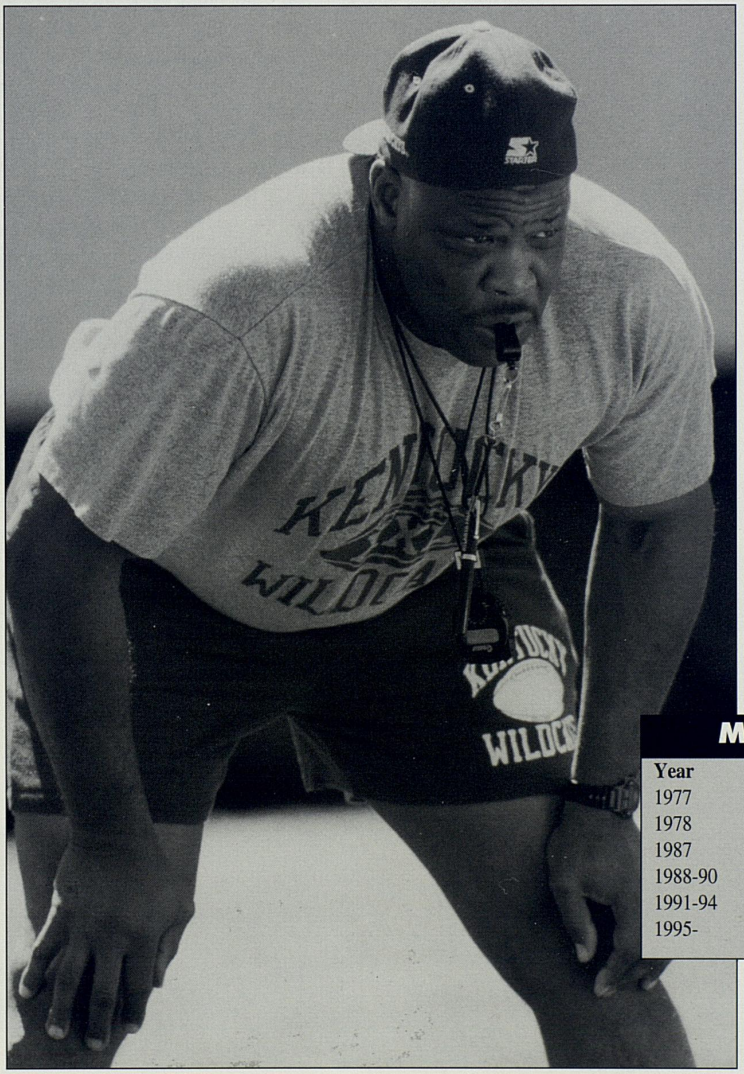

Miller moved to Kentucky from Oklahoma State, his alma mater, where he coached the defensive ends from 1991-94. Two of his former Cowboys advanced to the National Football League, Jason Gildon of the Pittsburgh Steelers and Wendell Gaines of the Phoenix Cardinals.

Miller coached the defensive line at Tulsa from 1988-90. One of his accomplishments was helping develop Dennis Byrd, who went on to play for the NFL's New York Jets. Prior to Tulsa, he coached at Langston (Okla.) University in 1987.

A 1975 graduate of Oklahoma State, Miller was a graduate assistant coach at OSU in 1977 and at Tulsa in 1978. He then returned to the playing ranks and spent three years in the NFL, playing with the New York Giants in 1979 and the Atlanta Falcons in 1980-81. After his playing career, he spent five years in the oil business before returning to coaching.

The 41-year-old Miller was born in Collins, Miss. He was named the Mississippi Defensive Player of the Year as a senior at Harrison High School in Gulfport. He was a two-year standout at Gulfcoast (Miss.) Junior College before going on to play two years at Oklahoma State.

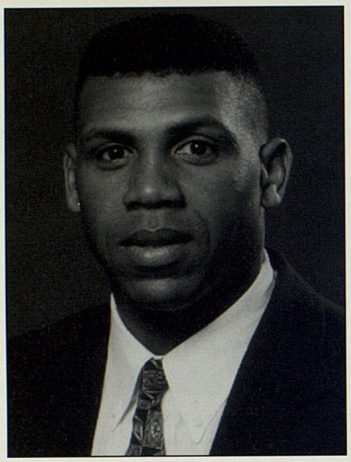

Calvin and his wife, Delores, have two sons, Benjamin (14) and Chris (13), and a daughter, Crystal (2). A member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Miller is highly active in church work, and served as as the pulpit minister during the winter, spring, and summer months at a congregation in Oklahoma.

1995 Kentucky Assistant Coaches

Joker Phillips

Wide Receivers

Joker Phillips is in his eighth season on the coaching staff at the University of Kentucky, and enters his fifth year as a full-time assistant coach.

In 1995, Phillips will have the enviable task of coaching a corps of receivers that includes six returning lettermen and some talented incoming freshmen.

As a special teams coach, Phillips handles UK's kickoff return unit. Last season, Kentucky led the Southeastern Conference by averaging 23.4 yards per return. It was the first time in school history that the Wildcats had led the league in that category.

Individually, Phillips protege Kio Sanford set SEC single-season records for most kickoff returns (33), kickoff return yardage (820), and highest return average (24.9, min. 30 returns).

Phillips, a 1986 graduate of Kentucky, began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Kentucky under former mentor Jerry Claiborne in 1988. He was responsible for the Wildcats receivers for two years (1988-89) before joining Bill Curry's staff at Kentucky as an assistant recruiting coordinator in 1990. Phillips assisted with all recruiting efforts for the Wildcats football program and also served in the capacity as the "Walk-On Program" coordinator.

With the departure of UK's offensive coordinator and receivers coach Tommy Bowden in December, 1990, Phillips was promoted to a full-time coaching position with the wide receivers. Under Phillips' guidance in 1991, split end Neal Clark broke the Wildcats season record for pass receptions with 47, a mark previously held by Felix Wilson for 14 seasons.

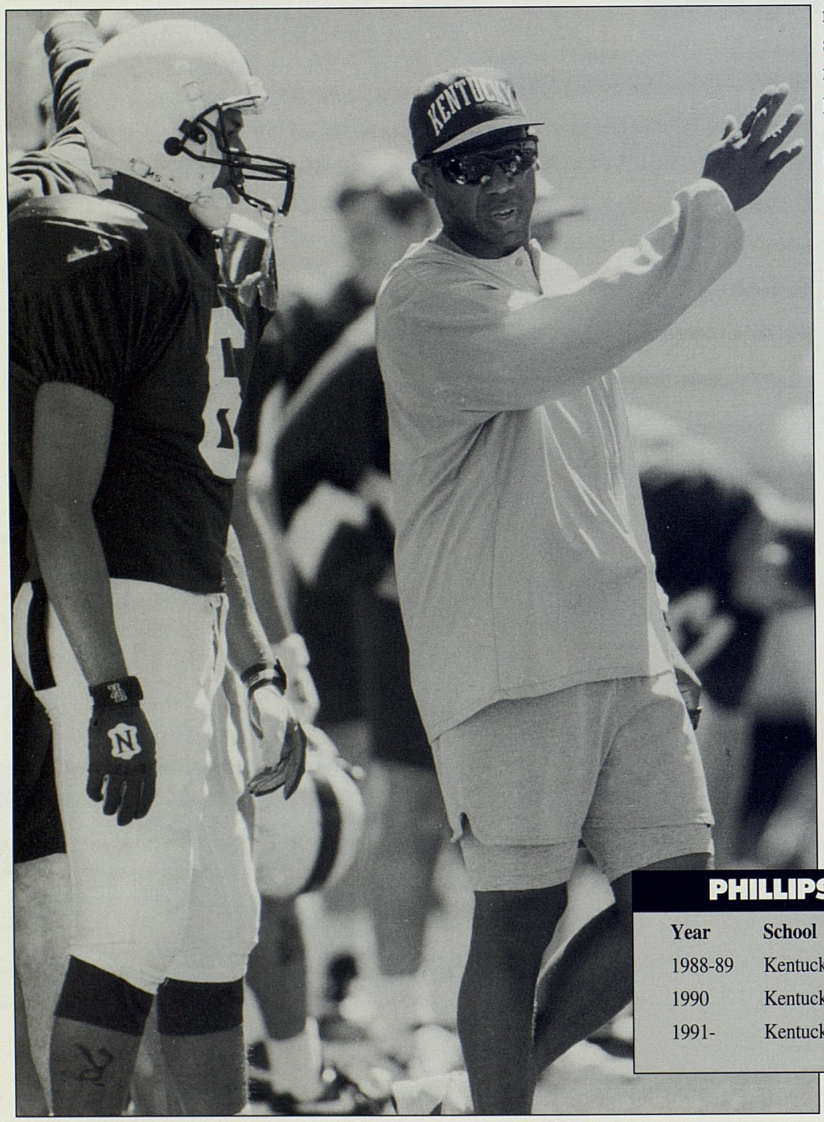

Phillips was a four-year letterman (1981-84) as a Wildcats receiver and helped lead UK to a pair of bowl games — the 1983 and 1984 Hall of Fame Bowls. His best season was in 1984 with 28 receptions for 305 yards and five touchdowns. Currently, Phillips ranks seventh on the UK career list with 75 pass receptions for 935 yards (12.5 avg.) and nine touchdowns.

He played briefly with the Washington Redskins of the National Football League and the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League.

In recent summers, Phillips has participated in the National Football League Coaching Fellowship program with the Redskins. He assisted Washington receivers coach Jack Burns during training camp and preseason.

Phillips lettered three years in football, basketball and track at Franklin-Simpson High School in Franklin.

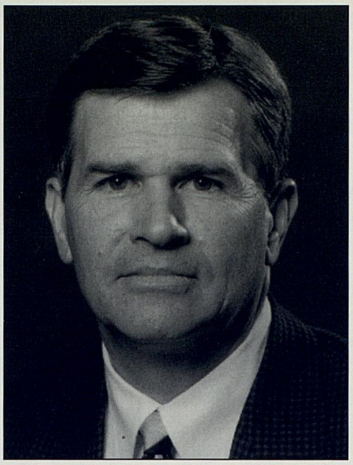

Phillips is single and resides in Lexington.

Rick Smith

Defensive Backs

Defensive backs coach Rick Smith is entering his sixth year on the University of Kentucky coaching staff and his 10th year of association with Wildcats Head Coach Bill Curry.

In addition to coaching the UK secondary, Smith works with the kickoff coverage team. Last year, Wildcats opponents were limited to 17.9 yards per kickoff return and no kickoff was returned for more than 28 yards.

The 1994 season also saw the emergence of Melvin Johnson as one of the nation's top free safeties. Johnson was named second-team All-America, first-team All-Southeastern Conference, and was a second-round draft pick by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Smith, 46, came to Kentucky from Baylor University after spending three seasons as defensive backfield coach of the Bears. He officially became a member of the Wildcats coaching staff on Jan. 21, 1990.

Overall, Smith is in his 15th season as a collegiate assistant coach. His collegiate coaching career includes stops at Georgia Tech, East Tennessee State, Alabama and Baylor.

Smith earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Florida State University in 1971. While at FSU, he played four seasons of football and two of baseball for the Seminoles. He was drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates in the annual amateur draft following his college career.

His start in coaching came in 1970 at Godby High School in Tallahassee, Fla. Smith spent three seasons at Godby High before he was named athletics director/head football coach at Wakulla (Fla.) High School in 1973.

Smith joined the collegiate coaching ranks after four seasons at Wakulla High. He was tabbed head junior varsity football coach at Georgia Tech in 1977 under Pepper Rodgers. A season later, he moved to East Tennessee State as an assistant coach in charge of the defensive backs.

Smith briefly stepped back into high school coaching in 1979 at Marianna (Fla.) High. At Marianna, he served in the dual capacity as athletics director and head football coach through the spring of 1982, when he left for Georgia Tech to join Bill Curry's Yellow Jacket staff.

He remained at Tech for the next four seasons. During that four-year span, Smith helped the Yellow Jackets post a 24-19-2 record, including a 17-14 victory over Michigan State in the 1985 All-American Bowl.

In 1986, Smith moved to Alabama under Ray Perkins for one season as defensive backfield coach. His Crimson Tide secondary ranked third in the Southeastern Conference in pass defense.

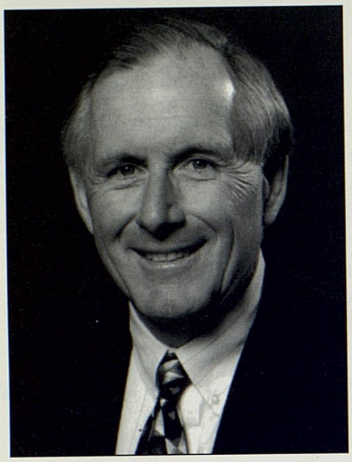

Smith moved to Baylor in 1987 as defensive backfield coach under Grant Teaff. The Baylor secondary quickly became one of the most respected in the nation during his three-year stint at Waco, Texas. His secondary ranked No.1 in the nation in pass defense, allowing a mere 117.8 yards a game and a completion percentage of .409 in 1988. The Bears finished No. 6 in pass defense (148.5 ypg) during the '89 campaign. Overall, the Bears pass defense accounted for 63 interceptions during Smith's three seasons at Baylor.

Smith is married to the former Barbara Reddick. They have three children — Beth (20), Steve (18), and Billy (16).

Elliot Uzelac

Offensive Coordinator, Offensive Tackles and Tight Ends

Elliot Uzelac, entering his first season as on the Kentucky staff, will be the offensive coordinator and coach the tackles and tight ends.

Last spring, Uzelac installed the multiple offense that he used with great success the last two seasons at Colorado. Under Uzelac's direction, the Buffaloes led the Big Eight in total offense both seasons. Colorado broke 51 school records and tied four others during the last two years.

In 1994, the Buffaloes rolled up 495.3 yards per game of total offense, ranking No. 3 nationally. Colorado compiled an 11-1 record, losing only to national champion Nebraska, and defeated Notre Dame 41-24 in the Fiesta Bowl.

Uzelac's offense helped running back Rashaan Salaam win the Heisman Trophy after Salaam led the nation in rushing, all-purpose yardage, and scoring. Quarterback Kordell Stewart ranked 10th in the nation in total offense and 11th in passing efficiency.

In 1993, Colorado amassed 470.5 yards per game and ranked 10th nationally in total offense. Colorado finished 8-3-1 after a 41-30 triumph over Fresno State in the Aloha Bowl.

Prior to Colorado, Uzelac coached for the Cleveland Browns (1992), Ohio State (1991), Indiana (1990), Navy (head coach 1987-89 and assistant 1971-72), Michigan (1973-74 and 1982-86), Western Michigan (head coach 1975-81), and Bowling Green State (1965 and 1968-70). He gained experience on the high school level at Chesterton (Ind.) High School as an assistant in 1965 and as head coach at Logan (W.V.) High School in 1966-67.

Uzelac's first college head coaching position came at his alma mater, Western Michigan. After going 1-10 in his first season, 1975, he guided the Broncos to a 37-29 mark during the next six campaigns. He had five winning seasons, was named Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year in 1976, and won more MAC games than any other coach in school history.

Uzelac also was head coach at the United States Naval Academy from 1987-89, compiling an 8-25 record during that span. His last season included road wins at North Carolina and Boston College, plus an upset of Army in the season finale.

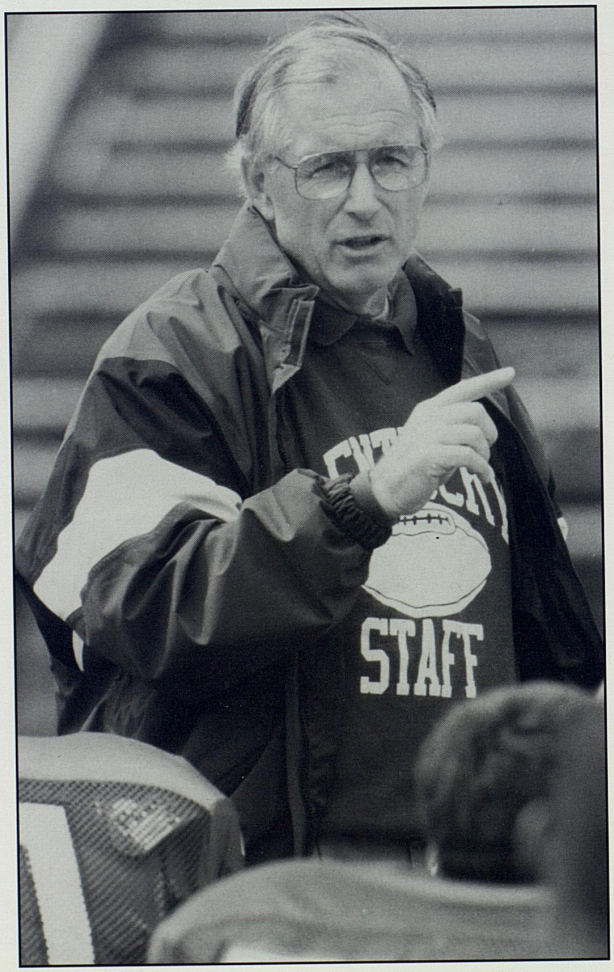

Uzelac has coached in nine bowl games, including five at Michigan, one each at Indiana and Ohio State, and two at Colorado. Uzelac has been an assistant under such notables as Don Nehlen at Bowling Green, Rick Forzano at Navy, Bo Schembechler at Michigan, Bill Mallory at Indiana, John Cooper at Ohio State, and Bill McCartney at Colorado.

Uzelac, 54, was born in Gary, Ind. He lettered in football, basketball, and track at Tulleston HS in Gary before going to Western Michigan. He played one season of football at Western before suffering a career-ending knee injury. He earned four letters in track, winning the 1964 MAC championship in the shot put and setting the school record in that event. He earned his bachelor's degree with a double major in physical education and Russian history. He holds a master's degree in physical education from Bowling Green.

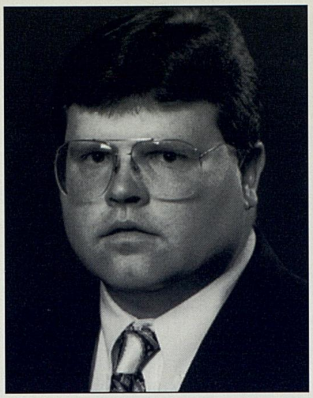

Elliot is married to the former Wendy Hollingsworth, a native of California. Elliot and Wendy met during their days as students at Western Michigan. They have two grown children, Lisa and Nick, and one granddaughter.

Mike Chism

Graduate Assistant

Mike Chism (pronounced CHIS-um) enters his first year as a graduate assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky.

Chism will work as a defensive assistant under coordinator Mike Archer, helping compile the opponent scouting report and tendencies. He will take charge of the offensive scout team and assist Bill Glaser with the defensive tackles and Calvin Miller with the defensive ends. Chism is currently working toward a master's degree in sports management.

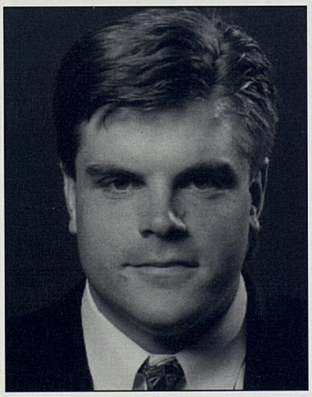

For the past five seasons, Chism was an assistant coach at Kutztown University in Eastern Pennslyvania. At the Division II school, Chism was responsible for the defensive line, the offensive line, the special teams and recruiting. He coached four all-conference linemen at Kutztown.

Chism played football at the University of Kentucky from 1985-89, where he lettered two seasons as a defensive guard. He made 37 tackles as a junior and 40 stops as a senior. He received a degree in communications.

Chism played football at Oldham County (Ky.) High School as an offensive and defensive lineman and was named all-state as a senior. He also wrestled, compiling a 35-0 record and winning the state heavyweight championship as a senior. Chism, 29, is single.

Bill Curry, Jr.

Graduate Assistant

Bill Curry Jr. enters his second season as a graduate assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky.

Curry works with the offensive coaching staff, helping prepare the scouting report on the upcoming opponent, assisting with the tackles and tight ends, and is responsible for the defensive scout team. After coming to UK in July of 1994 as an adminstrative intern, Curry moved to a graduate assistant post for the '94 season when Mike Griffiths left to take a high school head coaching job. Last spring, Curry worked with offensive coordinator Elliot Uzelac and helped coach the tackles and tight ends.

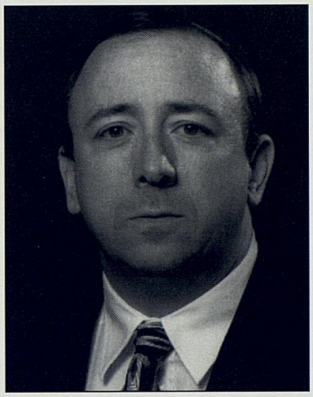

Curry was a four-year letterman (1990-93) at the University of Virginia. He played guard, center and was the long snapper for punts and field goals. Originally a walk-on, Curry was awarded a scholarship by Coach George Welsh. The Cavaliers played in four bowl games during Curry's five years with the program. He graduated in Dec. 1993 with a degree in government and international relations.

Curry played his last two seasons of high school football at Tuscaloosa (Ala.) Central High School. After sitting out his junior year with a knee injury, Curry started his senior season as a offensive tackle. He received all-region honors and twice was named West Alabama's Coca-Cola Lineman of the Week that season. As a freshman and sophomore, he attended the Lovett School in Atlanta, Ga., and was the starting center as a soph.

Curry, 24, is a native of Baltimore, Md. He single and is an avid guitar enthusiast.

Rob Oviatt

Strength Coach

Rob Oviatt (pronounced OH-vee-utt) is in his first season with the University of Kentucky after being named Strength Coach for the Wildcats last February.

Oviatt is a 17-year veteran of strength and conditioning coaching. He came to UK from Oregon State, where he had been the strength coach for the football team and fitness director for the entire athletic program since 1985.

While at Oregon State, Oviatt showed dedication to his craft by attending a number of special weightlifting clinics. Among the most interesting was a 1988 trip to Moscow, where he attended the Sport Science Institute and took courses in all phases of Soviet training.

Prior to Oregon State, Oviatt was an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Utah (1985), Houston (1984), and Texas A&M (1983). He was a volunteer assistant strength coach at Mississippi (1980-82) while earning his master's degree in education. His experience began at the University of Alabama (1978-79) as a volunteer assistant strength coach. He graduated from Alabama with a degree in physical education in 1980.

The 41-year-old Oviatt was born in Delaware, Ohio. He graduated from Wooster (Ohio) High School, where he played football and was a wrestler.

Married to the former Carolyn Berki, Rob has three daughters—Lindsay (17), Allison (5), and April (1).

SANDY BELL
Director of Compliance

Sandy Bell is in her sixth year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

A native of Lexington, Bell joined the UK staff in 1989 as Compliance Coordinator and was promoted to Director of Compliance in November, 1993.

Bell is responsible for insuring that UK coaches and athletes adhere to SEC and NCAA rules and regulations. This involves monitoring recruitment, eligibility, financial aid, awards and benefits. Bell also serves as UK's principal contact with the NCAA Initial Eligibility Clearinghouse.

Prior to coming to UK, Bell served as the Director of Guidance at Hendersonville High School in Hendersonville, Tenn. She has taught algebra, geometry and trigonometry at the high school and collegiate levels.

Bell received her bachelor's degree in mathematics from George Peabody College and her master's degree in educational psychology from Middle Tennessee State.

Bell is married to Stuart Bell, and has two daughters, Deana (22) and Lori (20).

DARIN CARR
Coaching Video Director

Darin Carr enters his third year with Kentucky's Sports Video Department. Prior to becoming Coaching Video Director, Carr served one year as Assistant Video Director.

Carr, a native of Owensboro, Ky., earned his Bachelor of Science degree in telecommunications from the University of Kentucky in 1991. After working part time for the UK video department for a year he was promoted to full time in August 1993.

Carr, the son of Gary and Shirlyn Carr, is single and resides in Lexington.

DAVID COMBS
Video Director

David Combs enters his 12th year as Video Director for the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

Combs, a native of Bay City, Mich., is responsible for coaching films and video operations of the UKAA. He also works with the UK Athletics Media Relations Office on a weekly basis during the year producing and distributing video, including game highlights, press conferences and interviews.

In addition to his duties for UK, Combs freelances for NFL Films, where he has shot footage for highlight films and commercials.

Combs boasts the honor of shooting the main footage of Reebok's 1994 Super Bowl commercial featuring Emmitt Smith.

Combs earned his undergraduate degree in telecommunications and marketing from the University of Kentucky in 1984. As a student, he worked as cinematographer and editor of game films for the UK coaching staff.

Following graduation, Combs served as a TV-film producer/director for the UK Office of Instructional Resources with his primary responsibility of serving the UKAA. He transferred to athletics in August of 1989 as Sports Video Director.

Combs is married to the former Charlotte Preece of Paintsville. They have one son — Zachary (3).

BARBARA DONNELLY
Ticket Manager

Barbara Donnelly enters her 20th year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

Donnelly, a native of Flatwoods, was named Ticket Manager for the UKAA in October of 1987. She had served as Assistant Ticket Manager since 1984.

Donnelly began her employment with UKAA as secretary to Frank Ham of the Blue-White Fund office in December, 1975.

She graduated from Russell High School in 1971 and owns an associate degree from Ashland Community College. She is the daughter of Jean Siple of Flatwoods.

JACK FLIGG
Assistant Athletics Director/ Football Operations

Jack Fligg is in his sixth year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association. He was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Football Operations on March 11, 1991, after serving one year as administrative assistant with the UK Football program.

His primary responsibilities include coordinating football operations and the major administrative duties of Coach Bill Curry.

Fligg came to Kentucky from the University of Alabama where he spent three years as an administrative assistant. He officially became a member of the UK staff on Jan. 14, 1990.

Overall, Fligg begins his 30th year in intercollegiate athletics.

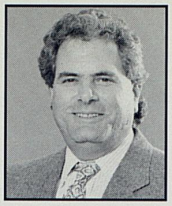

Prior to his administrative appointments, Fligg spent 22 years as an assistant coach at four schools — Georgia Tech (1964, 1984-86); West Virginia (1966-69), Texas Tech (1970-74), and South Carolina (1975-82). He served under Jim Carlen for 16 of those seasons at West Virginia, Texas Tech and South Carolina. Prior to the collegiate level, Fligg coached high school football for 11 years in the Atlanta area — West Fulton High School and Grady High School.

Fligg played two seasons (1950-51) of college football at Auburn. He received his undergraduate degree from Oglethorpe in 1955 and his master's degree from George Peabody College in 1959.

He is married to the former Jonell Upchurch of Hapeville, Ga. They have three children — Matt, Mrs. Joanna Trump, and Mrs. Terri Carter — and four grandchildren.

AL GREEN
Trainer

Al Green enters his 16th season as Trainer for the University of Kentucky Athletics Association. His primary responsibility is football, but Green also supervises the 20 other sports at UK.

Green, a native of Brooklyn, N.Y., came to the University of Kentucky in 1979 after working five years as Assistant Trainer at Michigan (1974-78).

Following his graduation from John F. Kennedy High School in Bellmore, N.Y., Green attended Lea (Minn.) College for two years. He transferred to Michigan and completed his undergraduate work, earning his bachelor's degree in education in 1973.

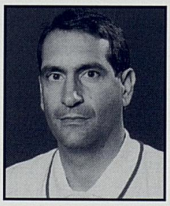

Green participated in the University of Arizona graduate program the following year, earning his master's degree (1974) in education, specializing in athletic training.

Al is currently President of the College Athletic Trainers Society and Chairman of the Board and a volunteer fireman with the Jessamine County Fire Department. He has also been a past president of the Kentucky Athletics Trainers Society.

In 1989 he worked the Olympic Sports Festival in Oklahoma City, Okla., and in 1993 he worked the Olympic Sports Festival in San Antonio, Texas.

Green is married to UK's associate trainer Sue Stanley. He has three children — Douglas, Jennifer and Tracy Beth.

TOM KALINOWSKI
Equipment Manager

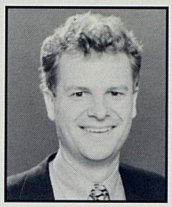

Tom Kalinowski enters his 17th year as Equipment Manager for the University of Kentucky football program.

Kalinowski, a native of Middleton, Conn., received his undergraduate degree from Kentucky in 1978. He had served as a student manager at UK, beginning in 1974 until his graduation. Kalinowski was named Head Football Equipment Manager in 1978.

He graduated from Xavier High School in 1974. At Xavier, Kalinowski was student manager for the football, baseball and basketball programs.

Kalinowski and his wife, Vicki, were married in March 1990. They have one son, Ian (2).

TONY NEELY
Sports Information Director

Tony Neely enters his second year as Sports Information Director at the University of Kentucky.

Neely, who was previously the Sports Information Director at Vanderbilt University, handles the day-to-day media relations efforts and publicity for the UK football team.

Neely, 35, has spent nearly 17 years in the collegiate sports information field. After serving four years as a student assistant (1978-82) at Vanderbilt, Neely was promoted to Assistant SID and also held the title of Associate SID before being promoted to Sports Information Director in 1992.

A graduate of Vanderbilt (cum laude) in 1982, Neely handled all game programs and men's basketball and baseball publicity while assisting with football publicity. He handled the 1984-85 Vanderbilt basketball media guide, which was judged third in the nation. Neely's 1982 and 1983 baseball media guides were voted second and third in the nation, respectively.

Neely, a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America, is married to the former Terri Thomason, a native of Paducah, Ky.

THE TUCKER SENIOR FILE

When I'm not playing football, I enjoy: Listening to gospel music, playing basketball
If I were not playing college football, I would be: Working and attending school to get a degree
When I played football as a kid, I pretended I was: "Tony Pearson," a combination of Tony Dorsett and Drew Pearson
The one thing I like most about football is: It teaches responsibility and discipline
The best thing about being an athlete is: You get a lot of opportunities to meet people
My nickname is: "Tuck"
The best nicknames of other players on the team are: "Gap" (Steven Hall)
The best class I've taken at UK is: Prejudice and Racism in America, because it addressed issues that society must face but sometimes puts aside
The best professor I've had at UK is: Felix Chima, because he lets students give input on problems, then teaches us how to think of other solutions as well
The fastest player on our team is: Kio Sanford
The hardest hitter on our team is: George Harris
Our offensive player who will surprise people in 1995 is: Ray McLaurin
Our defensive player who will surprise people in 1995 is: Carlos Collins
My favorite football phrase or term is: "You can tell a man by how he gets up." Falling down is a part of life and when a man falls he can get up quick or slow. The slower you get up, the more you miss.
The best piece of coaching advice I've ever received is: The race is not won by the swift, but by the one who endures
My advice to youngsters is: Life hands people many trials and tribulations but everything is done for a reason; always remember that you hold you own fate

1994 Game-By-Game

Game One: UK 20, Louisville 14

(Attendance: 59,162)

Lexington, Ky.— Kentucky opened the 1994 season on Sept. 3, defeating intrastate rival Louisville 20-14 in front of a record crowd at Commonwealth Stadium. The series, which had been idle for 70 years, was promoted as "Game One," signifying the first game of the season for both teams and the first game between the two schools in modern times.

Each team managed to hold its ground in the scoreless first quarter. UK got on the board in the second quarter (14:38) on a three-yard run from tailback Moe Williams, capping an 85-yard drive. However, Louisville countered with a 77-yard march, finished by a one-yard run from Anthony Shelman to tie the score 7-7 at the half.

In the third quarter, UL stormed 97 yards and scored on a six-yard run by Calvin Arrington, pushing Louisville ahead 14-7. Kentucky gave fans something to cheer about with :58 remaining in the third as QB Antonio O'Ferral unleashed a 64- yard pass to speedster Clyde Rudolph to keep the Cats in contention with the score tied 14-14.

LB Mike Schellenberger recovered a fumble at the Louisville 32 with 7:09 left in the game. The recovery set up a TD run (3:18) by QB Antonio O'Ferral to give UK its 20-14 lead. Louisville moved the ball into Kentucky territory but LB Donte Key intercepted Marty Lowe's pass with :19 left on the UK 15 to halt the drive and end the game.

UK's Damon Hood had the best performance of his career, gaining 108 yards on 13 carries. Shelman led all ballcarriers with 123 yards on 25 attempts. Governor Brereton Jones awarded Kentucky the Governor's Cup following the game.

Game Two: Florida 73, UK 7

(Attendance: 85,238)

Gainesville, Fla.— The No. 2 Florida Gators proved that they were one of the best teams in the nation, if not the best, on Sept. 10, defeating the Wildcats 73-7 at the Swamp.

The Gators' offense was credited with 582 net yards and 10 touchdowns. The Gators scored their first two TDs in the first quarter on a 16-yard pass from QB Terry Dean to WR Aubrey Hill (9:00) and TB Elijah Williams' 15-yard run (4:36).

Florida reached paydirt again with 14:54 in the second quarter on a four-yard pass from Dean to Hill. The Cats got on the board at the 12:04 mark on a 36-yard pass from QB Antonio O'Ferral to WB Issac Curtis III to bring the score to 21-7. However, the Gators' offense never relinquished its hold, scoring two more times before the end of the half on a Shayne Edge 31-yard field goal and a five-yard pass from Dean to WR Chris Doering. The Gators led at the half, 31-7.

Florida continued its attack in the third and fourth quarters, scoring three times in the third and three times in the fourth quarters. Florida's defense held UK to 130 yards passing and only 68 yards on the ground for 198 net yards.

O'Ferral was credited with 124 of UK's 130 passing yards, completing 12 of 29 attempts. He also led in rushing with 32 yards on seven attempts.

Game Three: Indiana 59, UK 29

Attendance (57,825)

Lexington, Ky.— Kentucky's passing attack had its best game of the season, as the Cats gained 244 yards by air, but Indiana's ground attack was overwhelming, as the Hoosiers totaled 578 yards on the ground to beat the Wildcats 59-29 and keep the Bourbon Barrel in their possession for another season.

Indiana scored on its first two possessions on a nine-yard rush from TB Alex Smith (12:55) and a one-yard run from QB John Paci in the first quarter. Brian Sivinski nailed a 48-yard field goal, the first attempt of his career, with 3:37 left in the first quarter to put UK on the board with the score 14-3.

Indiana's offense took charge in the second quarter, scoring twice from the air and twice on the ground. TB Brett Law made a two-yard run with 48 seconds left to take the teams to halftime and the score, 35-10.

Kentucky's George Harris recovered an Indiana fumble on the Hoosiers' first possession of the second half, which resulted in a 23-yard TD pass from O'Ferral to FL Clyde Rudolph (13:21). Indiana's Smith saw nothing but paydirt on the team's third possession, running the ball 63 yards on the first play of the series. UK countered, taking the ball 76 yards up field and scoring on a four-yard run (5:21) from Moe Williams (42-28). Paci responded with his third touchdown of the day, keeping the ball for a 12-yard run (1:22) to bring the third quarter to an end, 49-23.

The Hoosiers would score two more times in the fourth. UK had the final score of the game on a 20-yard connection to SE Leon Smith (4:54).

Game Four: South Carolina 23, UK 9

(Attendance: 56,900)

Lexington, Ky.—A pair of fourth quarter touchdowns by South Carolina broke open a tight defensive struggle and gave the Gamecocks a 23-9 win at Commonwealth Stadium.

Brian Sivinski made the only score of the first quarter, putting the Wildcats on the board with a 45-yard field goal (9:15). South Carolina came back in the second quarter to knot the score 3-3 following a 48-yard field goal by Reed Morton that edged inward after hitting the crossbar, the right upright, and the crossbar again. South Carolina got the ball back following an intercepted pass by DB Reggie Richardson. The Gamecocks were able to find the end zone, scoring off a nine-yard pass from Steve Taneyhill to WR Monty Means to put USC up 10-3. Kentucky back Moe Williams showed his versatility, catching a 35-yard pass from O'Ferral with 4:20 remaining in the half (10-9). Williams also rushed for 117 yards during the game, the fifth 100-yard game of his career.

Defense was the answer in the second half as both teams held their ground in the scoreless third quarter. South Carolina RB Brandon Bennett found the endzone on a 29-yard run, however a missed PAT found the Gamecocks only ahead 16-9 with 13:58 remaining. The Gamecocks' defense managed to hold the Cats, while Taneyhill and Means led the offense, connecting on a 52-yard TD pass with 3:38 left to secure the game for South Carolina, 23-9.

Game Five: Auburn 41, UK 14

(Attendance: 74,315)

Auburn, Ala.— Auburn continued its 15-game winning streak as its defense, ranked No. 1 in the SEC and No. 7 nationally, held the Wildcats to only 14 points in a Thursday night game televised nationally by ESPN.

The Tigers managed to hold UK scoreless in the first half, while scoring one touchdown in the first quarter and two in the second. QB Patrick Nix put the Tigers on the board late in the first quarter on a one-yard TD run. The Tigers took advantage of both of their second quarter possessions, scoring in each. The first was a one-yard run by TB Stephen Davis with 6:26 left in the half. The second came off an intercepted pass, returned 37 yards for a touchdown by SS Ken Alvis. The Tigers went to halftime ahead, 21-0.

The evening got longer for Kentucky following a fumble on the UK four-yard line and an Auburn recovery. Auburn RB Joe Frazier made a two-yard leap to push Auburn ahead 28-0. A missed UK lateral was recovered in the endzone by Auburn DT Mike Pelton, resulting in another touchdown.

Kentucky scored on its next possession as O'Ferral made a 16-yard connection to SE Leon Smith to put the Cats on the board at the end of the third quarter. Kentucky got another opportunity to score when the Wildcats recovered an Auburn fumble. The Cats drove 55 yards to set up a FB Michael Woodfork one-yard TD run with 2:51 left in the game. Auburn made the final score of the game at the two-minute marker on a QB Dameyune Craig 15-yard bootleg.

Game Six: LSU 17, UK 13

(Attendance: 61,764)

Baton Rouge, La.— Kentucky jumped out to a 10-0 lead, but Louisiana State gradually gained the advantage and held on for a 17-13 win at Tiger Stadium in Baton Rouge.

The Wildcats took action early, as Steven Hall intercepted a pass five minutes into the game, resulting in a 32-yard Brian Sivinski field goal. UK struck again in the second quarter with a three-yard run by Moe Williams to increase the lead to 10-0. Williams was held just under 100 yards for the day, gaining 99 yards on the ground in 14 carries.

LSU's first score came on a 39-yard field goal from Andre LaFleur with 6:03 remaining in the half. The Tigers reached the endzone on a six-yard pass from QB Melvin Hill to SE Brett Bech to end the half knotted 10-10.

The Tigers made their final score of the game on a 34-yard pass from Hill to FL Eddie Kennison with 3:19 left in the third quarter. CB Van Hiles intercepted a pass from Hill with 11:29 left in the game, which resulted in a 40-yard Sivinski field goal with 5:07 remaining. UK got the ball back with 2:12 remaining in the game and made a last effort attempt to take the lead, but an LSU interception clinched the win for the Tigers.

Game Seven: Georgia 34, UK 30

(Attendance 56,125)

Lexington, Ky.— In a game which saw the lead change five times, Georgia defeated Kentucky 34-30 in Commonwealth Stadium.

The Wildcats got on the board in their first possession, stemming from a 55-yard run from back Moe Williams on the fourth play of an 80-yard drive. Williams would have his second 100-plus game of the year, gaining 147 yards on 25 carries for the evening.

The teams traded scores during the remainder of the half. Georgia tied the game at 13-13 on the half's final play, a 36-yard field goal by Kanon Parkman.

UK's first drive of the second half resulted in a 27-yard field goal (Sivinski) to put UK ahead by three. However, Georgia made good on its next drive, marching 66 yards for Terrell Davis' second touchdown of the day (20-16).

The Bulldogs opened the fourth quarter with another touchdown, going 86 yards in only four plays (27-16). The next six minutes belonged to Kentucky as FB Michael Woodfork made a one-yard run at 9:20 to bring the Cats to within three. On Georgia's next possession, Heisman Trophy hopeful Eric Zeier's pass was intercepted by CB Van Hiles, who returned the ball for a 61-yard touchdown to put UK back in front 30-27 with 6:30 left to play.

Zeier showed his mettle by moving the Bulldogs 66 yards, striking Hason Graham from 28 yards away to make the score 34-30. Kentucky received the ball again and drove to the Georgia 25-yard line, but a Bulldog interception put the game on ice. Speedy had his most productive games of the season, as he completed 13 of 25 attempts for 190 yards passing.

Game Eight: Mississippi State 47, UK 7

(Attendance: 49,500)

Lexington, Ky.— A mammoth Mississippi State team showed a powerful offense and tough defense in defeating Kentucky and upsetting Wildcat fans' hopes for jubilant Homecoming.

Mississippi State opened the scoring in the first quarter on a one-yard TD run by back Kevin Bouie. MSU broke the game open in the second quarter, with three touchdowns.

State continued its attack in the third quarter, going up 34-0 on a 31-yard pass from QB Derrick Taite to RB Keffer McGee. Kentucky held State four downs at the goal line, which resulted in three points, instead of six, on a 29-yard attempt Tim Rogers (37-0). Rogers kicked a 42-yard field goal on State's next possession to end the quarter 40-0. State scored once more in the fourth on a one-yard run by Michael Davis. Kentucky got on the board on a 22-yard TD run from QB Matt Hobbie. MSU's strong ground attack proved to be a determinant, as the Bulldogs gained 390 yards on the rush, including 217 yards by Bouie.

Game Nine: Vanderbilt 24, UK 6

(Attendance: 40,500)

Lexington, Ky.— Kentucky outgained the visitors on this day but Vanderbilt took advantage of five UK turnovers to defeat the Wildcats, 24-6, in Commonwealth Stadium.

Vanderbilt got the only touchdown of the first half on a 10-yard run by Jermaine Johnson, which had been set up by a Commodore interception.

Vanderbilt opened the third quarter with a 50-yard interception return by Matt Anderson, putting the Commodores in prime scoring position. Kentucky's defense answered the call, holding Vanderbilt on four downs and forcing the team to kick a field goal (10-0). Vanderbilt scored once more in the quarter on a eight-yard run by Johnson with 4:14 left.

The fourth quarter had Vandy scoring on its first possession on a two-yard TD run from QB Ronnie Gordon and a two-point conversion from Gordon to WB Eric Lewis. Kentucky got on the board with :47 left in the game on a 21-yard TD pass from Speedy to WB Issac Curtis. Despite the loss, a couple of Wildcats had notable individual performances—Donnell Gordon gained a career-high 99 yards on nine carries and Moe Williams picked up 81 yards on 15 attempts.

(Attendance: 32,000)

Lexington, Ky.— Kentucky made a strong second half rally but was stopped just two yards short on the game's final play as

Northeast Louisiana defeated the Wildcats, 21-14. Northeast Louisiana scored the only points of the first half on a 13-yard run from FB Eric Foster in the team's first possession of the game.

The Indians opened the second half with another score, moving 70 yards in 11 plays to score its second touchdown on a two-yard pass from QB Ray Philyaw to RB Markee Lockett. But UK kickoff returner Kio Sanford returned the ensuing kickoff for a 96-yard touchdown to put UK back in contention, 14-7. Sanford's return was the third longest in school history and and won the national AT&T Long Distance Award for the longest kickoff return of the week.

The Cats tied the score early in the fourth quarter, marching 94 yards downfield and scoring on a five-yard run by Jeff Speedy with 11:29 remaining. However, the Indians regained the lead 21-14 on their next possession, driving 85 yards in only five plays. Kentucky made a last-minute effort to win the game, but a pass to Clyde Rudolph on the game's final play was stopped two yards short of the goal line as time expired.

Game Eleven: Tennessee 52, UK 0

(Attendance: 95,066)

Knoxville, Tenn.— Tennessee won the traditional season-ending "Battle for the Beer Barrel" by a score of 52-0 in Neyland Stadium.

Kentucky's defense held the Volunteers to one touchdown in the first quarter, a one-yard run by Aaron Hayden, but Tennessee tallied 17 points in the second quarter to shoot ahead 24-0 at the half.

The Volunteers had their momentum going in the third quarter and managed to add three more touchdowns to their score. The first came on a 38-yard pass from Manning to WR Joey Kent. Hayden scored from eight yards out and James Stewart tallied on a one-yard run. The final score of the game came in Tennessee's first possession of the fourth quarter, as the team drove 54 yards for RB Jay Graham to make a one-yard run to the end zone.

Although the Cats were shut down, Moe Williams did gain 46 yards, giving him 1,733 yards in two seasons and moving into sixth place on the UK career rushing list. Kickoff returner Kio Sanford finished the season with 33 returns, tying an SEC record, and set league records for most KO return yardage in a season (820) and highest average return (24.9, min. 30 returns).

A pioneer in the integration of higher education and athletic competition, the Southeastern Conference stands ready to advance intercollegiate athletics into the 21st century.

Since its formation in 1933, the SEC achieved both stature and stability by designating governing/voting power to the presidents of the member institutions. They have determined the policies of the conference and through the years this involvement has been the principal source of strength in the evolution of the SEC.

Throughout its 63-year history, the SEC has provided leadership on the vital issues facing intercollegiate competition. In 1993, the member institutions adopted The Principles of Gender Equity. Committed to increasing the quantity and quality of women's athletic opportunities, each school will provide at least two more women's intercollegiate programs than the number of men's.

Faced with the task of conference realignment after competing with 10 members since 1966, the SEC welcomed the University of Arkansas on Aug. 1, 1990, and the University of South Carolina on Sept. 25, 1990. Joining charter members Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Tennessee and Vanderbilt, on July 1, 1991, Arkansas and South Carolina became the first schools added in conference history.

Fully incorporated into conference competition by 1992, Arkansas and South Carolina participated in SEC championships for all sports except football during the 1991-92 academic year. The SEC was again at the forefront, introducing football, basketball and baseball divisional play and the nation's first ever Division I football championship game.

SEC schools began athletic competition with one another almost 100 years ago as members of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. Seven institutions (Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, Sewanee and Vanderbilt) attended the SIAA organizational meeting of faculty representatives, called by Dr. William L. Dudley of Vanderbilt, in Atlanta Dec. 22, 1894.

Student teams from the schools began meeting in various sports with little pattern to their contests. The American adaptation of the English game rugby, called "football" was drifting down from the East and Midwest. Southerners were quickly attracted to this sport formalized in 1869.

The first football game in the Southeast was played April 9, 1880, on the ground now called Old Stoll Field at the University of Kentucky. Kentucky A & M (now UK) organized a team and in November 1881, played Transylvania College in a three-game series. By 1895 11 current SEC members were playing football.

Basketball moved quickly to the South as Vanderbilt was playing at the Nashville YMCA in 1893, just two years after Dr. James Naismith originated the game at Springfield (Mass.) College.

Track was organized on a conference level at the 1895 SIAA meeting presided over by President Dudley, who served until his death in 1914. The first championship meet was held at Vanderbilt May 15, 1896. By 1900 eight of the 13 charter SEC members were participating.

The seven-member SIAA expanded to 19 institutions in 1895 (Alabama, Auburn, Central, Clemson, Cumberland, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Mercer, Mississippi State, Nashville, North Carolina, Sewanee, Southwestern Presbyterian, Tennessee, Texas, Tulane and Vanderbilt) and by 1920 there were 30 members.

The larger schools reorganized as the Southern Conference at a meeting in Gainesville Dec. 12-13, 1920. Professor S.V. Sanford of Georgia called the meeting and served as the first president. Charter members of the Southern Conference included: Alabama, Auburn, Clemson, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Maryland, Mississippi State, North Carolina, North Carolina State, Tennessee, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Washington & Lee.

Despite an original limit of 16, the membership grew to 23 by 1928. In 1922 Florida, Louisiana State, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tulane, Vanderbilt and Virginia Military joined, while Sewanee and Duke became members in 1923 and 1928 respectively. At one time or another the SIAA and the SC included most of the Southern colleges from Virginia to Texas.

The 13 members west and south of the Appalachian Mountains reorganized as the Southeastern Conference at the annual SC meeting of Dec. 8-9, 1932, in Knoxville. The 10 coast members remained in the Southern Conference. Dr. Frank L. McVey of Kentucky was elected president of the new conference whose charter members were: Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Louisiana State, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt. (Sewanee withdrew Dec. 13, 1940, Georgia Tech on June 1, 1964 and Tulane on June 1, 1966). McVey held an informal meeting of the school presidents in Birmingham Feb. 16, 1933, then the first full meeting in Atlanta, Feb. 27.

The office of the commissioner was formed in 1940 in Jackson due to the great amount of detail work developing, especially in recruiting and eligibility. Former Mississippi Governor Martin S. Conner took office as commissioner Aug. 21, 1940. Conner later became ill and the secretary of the conference, Dean N.W. Dougherty of Tennessee, served as acting commissioner during the fall of 1946.

The office moved to Birmingham with the appointing of Bernie H. Moore as the second full-time commissioner on Feb. 21, 1948. Moore, a former LSU coach, guided the SEC to national respect in his 18-year tenure.

A.M. (Tonto) Coleman succeeded Moore upon his retirement April 1, 1966. The Alabama native, who was reared in Texas and experienced in athletic coaching and administration, served six and a half years.

Dr. H. Boyd McWhorter, then Dean of Arts and Sciences at Georgia and secretary of the league since 1967, accepted the position upon the retirement of Coleman Aug. 1, 1972. Under his leadership the SEC experienced unparalleled growth. In McWhorter's first year the SEC distributed $ 1.57 million in revenue to the member institutions.

Dr. Harvey S. Schiller, an Air Force colonel and faculty chair at the U.S. Air Force Academy, followed McWhorter upon retirement, taking office Sept. 15, 1986. Under his guidance the SEC established itself as a leader in the areas of athletic scholarship and marketing.

Roy F. Kramer succeeded Schiller on Jan. 10, 1990. Kramer, who has served on numerous NCAA committees, joined the league office after spending 12 years as athletic director at Vanderbilt.

The first SEC champions were crowned in 1933 in baseball, basketball, football and outdoor track. The league's inaugural championship event was a basketball tournament in Atlanta Feb. 24-28, 1933. Records show the first men's team title for cross-country was awarded in 1935, while golf and swimming were added in 1937. The league later began hosting championships in tennis (1953) and indoor track (1957).

In the 1979-80 academic year SEC championships for women were recognized in basketball, tennis and volleyball. The following year golf, gymnastics, swimming and track and field were added. The administration of women's athletics officially came under the auspices of the conference office on Sept. 1, 1984.

The SEC currently regulates nine men's sports and 10 women's sports: Men - baseball, basketball, football, golf, swimming, tennis and track (cross country, indoor and outdoor). Women - basketball, golf, gymnastics, soccer, swimming, tennis, track (cross country, indoor and outdoor) and volleyball.

The University

THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

From its modest beginnings in 1865, when it was known as State College, the University of Kentucky has grown into one of the nation's most outstanding institutions of higher learning. As a comprehensive land-grant university, UK offers an educational experience that cannot be matched anywhere in the Commonwealth. In fact, only a small number of institutions across the nation can offer the wealth of opportunities that awaits students at UK. At Kentucky, there is a tradition of value.

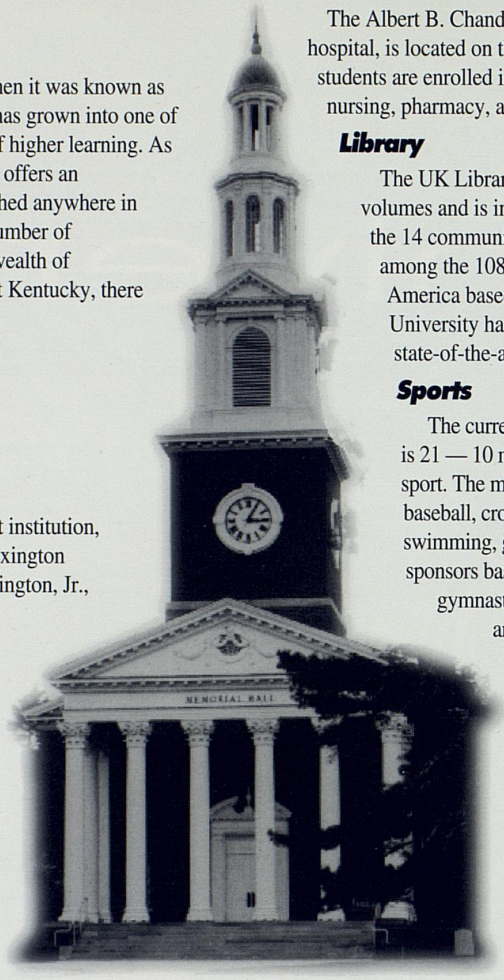

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY FACTS

History

UK was founded in 1865 as a land-grant institution, and the present name dates to 1916. The Lexington campus has 673 acres. Dr. Charles T. Wethington, Jr., is UK's 10th president.

Students

The University of Kentucky now has more than 70,000 students with 24,000 on the Lexington campus and 46,000 at the 14 community colleges across the state. UK now educates 40 percent of all students in Kentucky attending a public or private college or university. There are 5,077 students now enrolled in graduate school with 95 master's and 57 doctoral programs offered.

Faculty

There are 1,720 full-time faculty on the Lexington campus and another 1,125 faculty in the community colleges. Faculty brought in more than $100 million in grants, contracts and gifts to the University during the last academic year.

Academic Programs

Currently, there are 16 academic colleges and a graduate school. Students have a choice of 108 undergraduate majors from which to choose. The University is recommended in seven publications for its value in providing higher education.

Research

UK ranks among the Top 100 research institutions in the nation, and is one of only 59 public universities in the United States — the only one in Kentucky — to be classified as a Research University of First Class.

Medical Center

The Albert B. Chandler Medical Center, including a 473-bed hospital, is located on the Lexington campus. More than 2,800 students are enrolled in its five colleges—medicine, dentistry, nursing, pharmacy, and allied health professions.

Library

The UK Library System contains more than two million volumes and is inter-connected by computer with each of the 14 community colleges. The library is ranked 34th among the 108 top university research libraries in North America based upon the number of volumes held. The University has begun construction of a new $58 million state-of-the-art library.

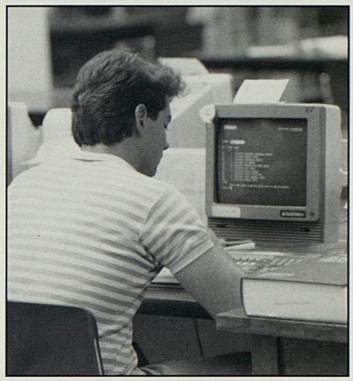

Sports

The current number of UK sports on the varsity level is 21 — 10 men's sports, 10 women's sports, and 1 coed sport. The men's sports consist of football, basketball, baseball, cross country, indoor and outdoor track, tennis, swimming, golf, and soccer. For the women, UK sponsors basketball, volleyball, swimming, golf, tennis, gymnastics, cross country, indoor and outdoor track, and soccer on the varsity level. The single coed sport is rifle.

The UK football program offers the excitement of top-level competition in the Southeastern Conference and is headed by Coach Bill Curry. The UK men's basketball team has been prominent nationally for 60 years under the leadership of four coaches, ranging from Adolph Rupp to Rick Pitino.

Charles T. Wethington Jr., UK President

Charles T. Wethington Jr., was elected the 10th president of the University of Kentucky on September 18, 1990.

Wethington began his career in higher education in 1965 as a faculty member on the Lexington campus of the University and two years later he was named chief administrator of Maysville Community College. In 1971 he moved to Lexington as assistant vice president, becoming vice president of the Community College System in 1981.

In the University reorganization of 1982 he was named chancellor of the UK Community College System, one of the three major sectors of UK. In 1987 he was given university-wide responsibilities for public and governmental relations in addition to his community college role, and his title was changed to Chancellor for the Community College System and University Relations.

Wethington earned his master's and doctoral degrees at the University of Kentucky.

The Kentucky native has been active on the national higher education scene. He has been a member of the Executive Council of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools' Commission on Colleges, and served as its vice chairman. He served as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools from 1986-1989.

Wethington is a member of the Southern Regional Education Board and the Southern Growth Policies Board. He is a past-president of the Southeastern Conference Presidents' group.

During 1957-61 he served in the U. S. Air Force Security Service. He studied Russian at Syracuse University, 1958-59.

Wethington is married to Judy Woodrow Wethington from Danville. They have a son, Kennan, and a daughter, Lisa.

C.M. Newton, UK Director of Athletics

When Charles Martin (C. M.) Newton became the University of Kentucky's seventh Director of Athletics on April 1, 1989, he hit the ground running.

After a little more than six years on the job, Newton has become one of the most popular public figures in the Commonwealth of Kentucky. In addition to a lengthy, impressive list of credentials, Newton brought to Kentucky a sparkling reputation of integrity at a crucial time in the history of UK Athletics. In accepting the position at his alma mater, Newton summarized his goals and objectives by saying, "I have a resolve to try very hard to continue that great tradition, and at the same time, to totally do it within the NCAA and SEC rules and not sacrifice the academic integrity of this University."

Newton capped an illustrious basketball coaching career by leading his final Vanderbilt University team to a 19-14 record, a second-place SEC finish and its second consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance during the 1988-89 season. He was named SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and also received the Kodak NABC District IV Coach of the Year award. Newton served as head basketball coach and associate athletics director at the Nashville school from 1982 to 1989, compiling a 129-115 record. In 32 years of coaching at Transylvania, Alabama and Vanderbilt, Newton compiled a 509-375 record overall. His Alabama teams won three consecutive Southeastern Conference championships.

Perhaps more impressive, however, was Newton's ability to produce winning teams that also possessed exceptional academic credentials. During Newton's tenure at Vanderbilt, 18 Commodores were named to the Academic All-SEC team, over 50 percent more than any other league school. And including his last graduating class, all 21 seniors received their diplomas. Newton is highly regarded on the national level. He has served on the board of directors of the National Association of Basketball Coaches. He worked six years on the NCAA Basketball Rules Committee, serving as chairman of that elite group for five of those years. He currently serves as president of USA Basketball, the nation's governing body for international basketball, and as chairman of its Games Committee, which is responsible for all international competition, including the Olympic Games. He is also a member of the prestigious NCAA Division I Basketball Committee, and is chair of the NCAA Committee on Basketball Issues.

Newton has literally circled the globe to promote the game of basketball. He served as team manager, a combination coaching and administrative position, on the 1984 U.S. Olympic team that won the gold medal. Indiana coach Bob Knight, who tabbed Newton for the Olympic staff, called him "the finest gentleman in our business." In 1983 and 1987, Newton took his Vanderbilt squads to the Republic of China (Taiwan) to represent the United States in the R. William Jones Cup International Tournament, winning the gold medal in 1983 and the silver in 1987. He has also conducted coaching clinics in numerous countries.

Newton began his coaching career at Transylvania College (now Transylvania University) in Lexington. Recommended for the job by Coach Rupp, Newton guided Transy to a 169-137 record in his 12 years at the helm despite the handicap of a limited scholarship program.

In 1969, once again with the backing of Rupp, Newton answered a call from Paul "Bear" Bryant to take on the challenge of building the downtrodden Alabama basketball program. During his 12-year tenure, Newton orchestrated a complete turnaround in the Crimson Tide's basketball fortunes, compiling a sparkling 211-123 record. In addition to the three SEC championships, Newton guided the Tide to two trips to the NCAA Tournament and four berths in the NIT. A satisfied Bryant once remarked "C. M. Newton is a winner, and that's important, but more than anything else, he wins or loses with class, and that's more important."

With few horizons left to conquer at Alabama, Newton resigned at the end of the 1980 season to accept a job as assistant commissioner of the Southeastern Conference. A year later, when Vanderbilt athletics director Roy Kramer was searching for a coach of national stature to head the Commodore basketball program, Newton was the obvious man for the job.

Newton was born Feb. 2, 1930, in Rockwood, Tenn. He grew up in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., where he was eventually named a charter member of that city's Sports Hall of Fame, along with Chris Evert, Julius Boros, and the late Brian Piccolo. After high school, Newton enrolled at UK on a basketball scholarship. He was a letterman on the Wildcats' 1951 national championship team. Also a standout baseball pitcher, Newton hurled in the New York Yankees minor league system before entering college coaching.

Newton and his wife, Evelyn, have three grown children — son Martin, and daughters Deborah and Tracy — and four grandchildren.

UKAA Administrative Staff

LARRY IVY

Senior Associate Director of Athletics

One needs only to look at the 1995 NCAA Convention to understand the high level of respect earned by Larry Ivy, Senior Associate Athletics Director at the University of Kentucky.

At the convention, Ivy was named the 1994 NCAA Business Manager of the Year. The award is the highest and most prestigious honor given by the College Athletic Business Managers of America (CABMA). The recipient of the annual award is selected by a vote of the CABMA membership from nominations submitted by more than 600 NCAA member institutions. The award serves as national recognition for Ivy's astute performance in managing the finances of the University of Kentucky Athletics Association (UKAA).

The talented Ivy, however, does much more in addition to his fiscal duties. As Senior Associate Athletics Director, Ivy serves in the absence of the Athletics Director in the day-to-day operation of the Athletics Association. He has daily responsibilities for the football and men's basketball programs as well as responsibility for operation of the ticket office, accounting, purchasing, data processing, facilities, maintenance, and grounds. In addition to those duties, Ivy is the game management director for all UK home football and basketball games. He has served as tournament manager for seven rounds of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament held in Lexington, including the 1985 Final Four, and for three Southeastern Conference Men's Basketball Tournaments. He currently serves as chair of SEC Men's Basketball Tournament Committee.

Now in his 19th year with the Athletics Association, Ivy was named Senior Associate Athletics Director in 1993 after being promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Internal Affairs in 1989. He had served as Assistant AD for 13 years after joining the UKAA staff in 1976. Ivy came to the University of Kentucky in 1969 as Director of Student Housing, moving from the University of Alabama.

A native of Huntsville, Ala., Ivy earned his undergraduate degree (1967) and master's in business administration (1968) from the University of Alabama. He is married to the former Lorain Darnell of Paducah, Ky. He has one daughter, Kim.

KATHY DEBOER

Associate Director of Athletics/ Senior Women's Administrator

Kathy DeBoer, who is in her 11th year at the University of Kentucky, was promoted to Associate Director of Athletics in 1993.

DeBoer is the director of the Athletics Association's Blue and White Fund and supervises the fundraising and development activities of the department.

Prior to her promotion, DeBoer was the Assistant Athletics Director for UK's non-revenue sports and the women's volleyball coach. In her nine seasons with the volleyball team, DeBoer led her Wildcats to an impressive 212-96 record, including three Southeastern Conference titles, two SEC Tournament championships, and the 1991 National Invitational Volleyball Tournament championship. DeBoer, the 1987 Tachikara National Coach of the Year, took UK to the Final Eight in 1987 and the NCAA Final 16 in 1988, 1990, and 1992. Several of her assistants moved on to head coaching positions at other Division I schools, including Mary Wise at Florida, Sharon Dingman at Butler, and Nona Richardson at Eastern Michigan.

DeBoer spent four seasons as volleyball coach at Ferris State University prior to coming to UK. She led Ferris State to a pair of Great Lakes Conference championships. She currently serves as an advisor to the 1996 U.S. Olympics Volleyball Team.

DeBoer received her bachelor's degree from Michigan State in 1978 and her MBA from Kentucky in 1988.

She is married to Mark Pittman of Lexington.

BOB BRADLEY

Assistant Director of Athletics/Academics

Bob Bradley is in his 18th year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association, coming aboard in 1977.

Bradley, a native of Hornell, N.Y., supervises all academic affairs regarding the UK Athletics program, including the operation of the CATS (Center for Academic and Tutorial Services) Center. He has also instituted a career development program for UK student-athletes. In addition, he has worked as Compliance Coordinator at the UKAA.

During Bradley's tenure, UK student-athletes have consistently been honored for their academic achievements, both on a conference and national level. In 1989, the UK football program won the College Football Association's prestigious Academic Achievement Award, given to the University with the highest graduation rate among its football players over a five-year period. UK received honorable mention status in 1988, 91, 93 and 94.

Bradley graduated from Hornell High School and earned his degree at Salem College in 1971. He earned his Master's degree in 1972 from the University of Kentucky in educational psychology and counseling. He is a past president of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletes (N4A) and has served as chair of the association's Long Range Planning Committee. He also serves on the advisory board of the National Consortium of Academics and Sports, a division of the prestigious Center for the Study of Sport in Society at Northeastern University.

Prior to joining the UKAA staff, he served as coordinator of career counseling and director of financial aid for the Lexington Community College. He also has been a high school teacher, counselor, and coach.

He is married to the former Robin Stewart.

JOHN CROPP

Assistant AD/Non-Revenue Sports

John Cropp is in his fifth year at the University of Kentucky and his 18th overall involving collegiate athletics.

As Assistant Athletics Director for Non-Revenue Sports, Cropp oversees the administration of 14 of UK's 21 athletic teams. He assumed his current position in April, 1995, after having served previously as Assistant AD for Special Projects (1994-95), Athletics Recruiting Coordinator (1992-93), and Assistant Football Coach (1991).

For the first 14 years of Cropp's athletics career he was involved in coaching. His first head coaching position came at Tennessee High School in Bristol, Tenn. Cropp's squads compiled an impressive 48-15-3 record with two state AAA titles (1971-72) and the '72 mythical national championship.

Cropp returned to his alma mater in 1973 as an assistant coach under Steve Sloan. He followed Sloan as an assistant to Texas Tech (1975-77), Ole Miss (1978-82) and Duke (1983). In 1984, Cropp returned to Vanderbilt under head coach George MacIntyre. He entered private business for two years (1986- 87) before returning to Vanderbilt for a third time. Cropp served as Assistant Athletics Director for Compliance at Vanderbilt for three years before coming to Kentucky.

Cropp earned three varsity letters at Vanderbilt as a guard/linebacker. He received the Wade-Looney Memorial Award as a senior and graduated in 1961.

Cropp and his wife, Mary Ann, have two grown children, Karen and David.

RENA VICINI

Assistant Director of Athletics/Media Relations

Rena Vicini enters her 15th year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association. She was named Assistant Athletics Director for Media Relations on June 11, 1993, replacing Chris Cameron.

Vicini, a native of Lynch, directs all public relations efforts for UK's 21 varsity men's and women's sports. She had served as Associate Director for Communications at UK since July, 1991.

She had worked as a sportswriter and reporter before joining the UK staff in 1981. Vicini, a 1977 graduate of Kentucky, worked as a reporter for the Harlan Daily Enterprise, as a sportswriter for the Louisville Courier-Journal, and as a sportswriter/ columnist for the Lexington Herald-Leader.

Vicini came to the UK Athletics Association in 1981 as Assistant Sports Information Director under then-SID Russell Rice. She had worked as Assistant SID until the promotion to Associate SID in 1991.

The Wildcats who played for Coach PAUL "BEAR" BRYANT hold a reunion every two years.

Nick Odlivak is the president of the group and John Griggs is the reunion chairman. Fern Jacobs, former secretary under Coach Bryant, serves as the secretary-treasurer of the organization.

Bryant was the Kentucky head coach from 1946-53, compiling a record of 60-23-5 and taking the Wildcats to four bowl games.

From UK's first All-American, Clyde Johnson, to its last, Mike Pfeifer, from Professor A.M. Miller to Bill Curry, from old Stoll Field to modern Commonwealth Stadium, from the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association to the Southeastern Conference, and with all the ensuing changes, Kentucky football holds a unique and storied tradition that began in 1881.

UK Football holds a captivating list of firsts: UK was the first Southeastern Conference team to introduce football, which it did in 1881; UK played in the first and only Great Lakes Bowl in 1947, defeating Villanova, 24-14; Kentucky tackle Bob Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy, making him the first player from the SEC to claim the honor; the Wildcats' Nat Northington was the first black player to sign with a Southeastern Conference institution and the first to play in a league contest vs. Ole Miss in 1967. And in 1989, UK became the first SEC school to win the coveted College Football Association Academic Achievement Award for highest graduation rate.

In 104 seasons, Kentucky has participated in 992 contests and owns 491 wins, 457 losses and 44 ties. The 491 victories rank 39th among Division 1-A programs in most wins. UK's overall winning percentage is .517.

Kentucky football has won two Southeastern Conference championships and appeared in eight bowls, claiming the CFA Academic Achievement Award on May 8, 1989. The Wildcats owned a graduation rate of 90 percent after 18 of 20 of their 1983 incoming freshmen signees left UK with a diploma.

UK football has had 12 National Football League first-round draft choices, one Outland Trophy winner, 18 first-team All-Americans, five Academic All-Americans, 49 first team All-SEC players and 152 Academic All-SEC selections.

Kentucky football got its start on Nov. 12, 1881. Kentucky, known in those days as A&M College, Kentucky State College and/or State University of Kentucky, defeated Kentucky University by the clumsy score of 7 1/4 to 1. The game of football resembled more of a rugby form and the scoring procedure is still unclear.Though football came to Kentucky in 1881, it quickly vanished after the three-game season. UK finished 1-2 in the inaugural campaign, but the lid was shut on UK football for the next nine seasons.

Football returned permanently to the University of Kentucky in 1891, when UK defeated Georgetown College, 8-2, on April 10, 1891. The sport would not again be interrupted until the 1943 season because of World War II.

The first known head football coach at Kentucky was Professor A.M. Miller, a Princeton graduate. Miller began the 1892 season as head coach and led UK to a 2-2-1 ledger through five games. He was replaced by John A. Thompson at the conclusion of the 1892 campaign.

Some successful years in the early 1900s dot the UK record book. Kentucky finished 7-1 in 1903 under Coach C.A. Wright; 9-1 in 1904 under Coach F.E. Schact; 9-1-1 in 1907 with Coach J. White Guyn, and 9-1 in 1909 under E.R. Sweetland.

The greatest UK team of that era was the 1898 squad, known simply to Kentuckians as "The Immortals." To this day, the Immortals remain the only undefeated, untied, and unscored upon team in UK football history. The Immortals were coached by W.R. Bass and ended the year a perfect 7-0-0, despite an average weight of 147 pounds per player. Victories came easy for this squad, as the Immortals raced by Kentucky University (18-0), Georgetown (28-0), Company H of the 8th Massachusetts (59-0), Louisville Athletic Club (16-0), Centre (6-0), 160th Indiana (17-0) and Newcastle Athletic Club (36-0).

Besides Bass, two of the most successful coaches in the early stages of UK Football were E.R. Sweetland and Harry Gamage. Sweetland compiled a 23-5 mark in three seasons (1909-10, 12). His best year was 9-1 in '09. Gamage, on the other hand, had the longest tenure of any head coach during the first 43 years of Kentucky football. Gamage took the reigns of the UK program in 1927 and remained until following the 1933 campaign. In between, Gamage led the Wildcats to a combined 32-25-5 record. His best season was 6-1-1 in '29.

One of Gamage's brightest moments came during the 1930 season. During the 57-0 blanking of Maryville, UK running back Shipwreck Kelly rushed for a school-record 280 yards in leading the Cats.

More than a decade after Gamage had left UK, a young man by the name of Paul "Bear" Bryant arrived on the scene at Lexington in 1946. All Bryant did was quickly grab the UK program by the collar and turn the Cats into a national power.

Bryant took UK to eight consecutive winning seasons (1946-53) and helped the Wildcats claim their first Southeastern Conference championship in 1950. He also sent UK squads to four bowl games which included the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl, 1950 Orange Bowl, 1951 Sugar Bowl, and the 1952 Cotton Bowl.

The biggest win in UK football history came under Bryant. After leading Kentucky to its first SEC title and a 10-1 regular-season record, UK found itself matched with national champion Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl. The Wildcats scored early and held off the Sooners, 13-7, breaking Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak which is currently the seventh-longest in NCAA history.

Also under Bryant, tackle Bob Gain became the first UK and SEC player to win the Outland Trophy in 1950. Other standouts in the Bryant era included George Blanda, All-American Babe Parilli, and eventual UK coach Jerry Claiborne.

Bryant left Kentucky following the 1953 season. He compiled an impressive 60-23-5 record in eight years. Bryant's 60 victories are still a UK football record for head coaches.

Coach Bryant led UK to eight consecutive winning seasons and four Bowl games.

Blanton Collier had the uneasy task of following in Bryant's footsteps. Collier took over the Kentucky football program in 1954 and promptly led the Wildcats to a 7-3 record during his initial campaign.

Collier stayed eight years at UK as well, etching a 41-36-3 record from 1954 to 1961. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his 5-2-1 record against arch-rival Tennessee. He coached All-Americans Lou Michaels (1957-58) and Howard Schnellenberger (1955) at UK.

Charlie Bradshaw became the head mentor at UK in time for the 1962 season. Bradshaw, a UK graduate who lettered four years (1946-49), managed only a 25-41-4 record in seven seasons. One highlight of his coaching career featured an upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss early in the 1964 season. Bradshaw's Cats held off the Rebels, 27-21, in Memorial Stadium at Jackson, Miss., and ranks as one of UK's all-time biggest victories.

John Ray entered the scene in 1969 as head coach. In four years, Ray was 10-33. His biggest win came during his first year as Kentucky again victimized Ole Miss and Archie Manning. The Cats upset the Rebels, 10-9, at Lexington.

The Fran Curci era began in 1973, the same year Kentucky moved from ancient Stoll Field/McLean Stadium to spacious Commonwealth Stadium. Though Curci had only one winning campaign during his first three years, things got interesting beginning with the 1976 season. UK ended the '76 year with an 8-3 record and its second SEC championship.

Kentucky helped secure its second league title on the strength of a 62-yard touchdown pass from Derrick Ramsey to Greg Woods to beat Tennessee, 7-0, at Knoxville, Tenn. The victory clinched a berth in the Peach Bowl against North Carolina, UK's first postseason appearance in 25 years. Before a UK contingent estimated at 25,000, the Cats blanked the Tar Heels, 21-0.

The following year, Kentucky went on NCAA probation. Despite an early season loss at Baylor, the Wildcats rolled to an impressive 10-1 record doing it the hard way. Kentucky defeated Penn State (24-20) at University Park, Pa., defeated LSU (33-13) at Baton Rouge, La., blanked Georgia (33-0) at Athens, Ga., beat Florida (14-7) at Gainesville, Fla., and defeated Tennessee (21-17) at Lexington.

In the Curci era, players like Sonny Collins (UK career leader with 3,835 yards rushing), All-Americans Warren Bryant and Art Still and multi-talented Derrick Ramsey, wore the blue and white.

Curci stepped down following the 1981 season. In all, Curci worked nine years as UK head coach (longest of any UK football coach) and was 47-51-2 overall.

Jerry Claiborne answered the call of his alma mater in December of 1981 and was named the school's 31st head football coach. Claiborne had played at UK from 1946-49 and was an assistant coach under Bryant at UK in 1952-53.

His first campaign, 1982, was murderous from a schedule standpoint. The '82 UK schedule was rated as the nation's 2nd-toughest and featured the likes of Oklahoma, Clemson, Auburn, LSU, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Kansas and Kansas State. The Cats were caught in the process of rebuilding and stumbled to an 0-10-1 record.

The winless mark would not deter Claiborne, however. In fact, his 1983 squad tied for the nation's most improved program with a regular-season record of 6-4-1. As a reward, the Hall of Fame Bowl offered an invitation and UK accepted to give the Cats their sixth bowl appearance.

Kentucky improved in 1984, finishing with a 9-3 record which included a thrilling 20-19 victory over Wisconsin in the '84 Hall of Fame Bowl. The nine victories were the most by a UK squad since the 1977 season.

After the '84 campaign, Kentucky strung together 5-6, 5-5-1, 5-6, 5-6, and 6-5 records to close out Claiborne's career. He stepped down with a 41-46-3 record in eight seasons at UK. Claiborne and Bryant, to this date, ended their careers as the only two coaches to win at least five games in seven consecutive seasons.

During Claiborne's tenure, Kentucky captured its first national title by winning the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. UK led the SEC in Academic All-SEC Honor selections (68) during the Claiborne era, including a league record of 17 players named to the 1989 Academic All-SEC Honor Roll.

Individually, quarterback Bill Ransdell played under Claiborne and left as UK's all-time leader in passing and total offense. Mark Higgs departed as the school's 2nd-leading rusher and tackle Oliver Barnett set a UK record with 26 quarterback sacks.

On Jan. 8, 1990, Kentucky began a new era by hiring its 32nd head football coach in Bill Curry. The hiring came only a week after Curry guided his Alabama squad in the 1990 USF&G Sugar Bowl. Curry had led the Crimson Tide to a share of the SEC title and a 10-1 regular-season mark in 1989.

In just four seasons, Curry led Kentucky back to post-season play for the first time in nine years as the 1993 Wildcats finished third in the SEC Eastern Division (fourth overall) and qualified for the Peach Bowl in Atlanta, Ga., when the Wildcats lost to Clemson, 14-13, to finish 6-6 on the season.

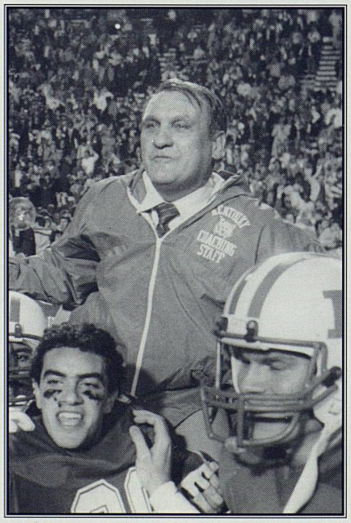

Under Curry in 1993, UK recorded its first win over a ranked opponent since 1988, its first two-game SEC road winning streak since 1984, its first three-game SEC win streak and the most SEC wins since 1977. UK also recorded its first regular-season winning record since 1989.

In 1994, Bill Curry and his Wildcats faced intrastate rival Louisville for the first time in 70 years and defeated the Cardinals 20-14 in front of a record 59,162 fans in Commonwealth Stadium.

Senior free safety Melvin Johnson led the team in individual honors, earning second-team All-America and first-team All-SEC accolades. In April, Johnson was selected in the second round of the National Football League draft by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, becoming the highest UK draft pick since Dermontti Dawson (2nd round) in 1988.

In addition, Curry has maintained the high level of achievement in the classroom which was started by Jerry Claiborne. Twelve Wildcats were named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 1994.

Under Curry, UK is working to establish a solid foundation of football success which could return the Wildcats to the storied tradition of their glory days.

chronology 1880 - 1994

Below is a closer look at some of the traditions and history which has molded the past 104 seasons of Kentucky football. Some of the anecdotes were derived from the book, "The Wildcats", which was written by former UK Sports Information Director Russell Rice.

1A AND 1B

During the course of his legendary career, Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant was known as an innovator of introducing changes in the game of football. One change Bryant introduced during his tenure at Kentucky was the use of a unique number system to identify twins Harry and Larry Jones, who both lettered three years (1950-52) with the Wildcats. Harry wore 1A and Larry wore 1B. Harry led the Wildcats in all-purpose yardage in 1951 with 964 while Larry led UK in kickoff returns (21.1 avg) in 1952.

BEER BARREL

The traditional Battle for the Beer Barrel is the annual football game between Kentucky and Tennessee. Currently, the series is the third-longest of SEC teams vs. SEC teams (90 games) and trails only the Auburn-Georgia (98) and Ole Miss-Mississippi State (91) rivalries. The Beer Barrel Trophy is actually an old beer barrel painted blue, orange and white and is presented to the winner of the annual contest. Every score, since the origination of the trophy in 1925, is printed on the barrel. Two Wildcat followers, Guy Hugelet and Rollie Guthrie, wanted to come up with something symbolic to represent the great rivalry. Originally, they decided to use an old whiskey barrel as the trophy but the Women's Temperance Union made a stand against it since it was during the time of Prohibition. The duo went to another distributor, John Galvin, and settled on a beer barrel. Then as the Anti-Saloon League stepped in, Hugelet and Guthrie compromised by painting the words "ice water" on the barrel. The first time the trophy was awarded was in 1925 as UK defeated the Vols, 23-20. In 90 meetings overall, Tennessee leads the series 58-23-9.

BLUE AND WHITE

The University of Kentucky adopted blue and white as its official colors in 1892. Originally, UK students had decided on blue and yellow prior to the Kentucky-Centre football game on Dec. 19, 1891. The shade of blue came about when a student asked the question, "What color blue?" Richard C. Stoll, who lettered on the 1893-94 football teams, pulled off his necktie and held it up. The students adopted that particular shade of blue in Stoll's necktie. A year later, UK students dropped yellow for white.

BOURBON BARREL

The famed Bourbon Barrel is the trophy presented to the winner of the Kentucky-Indiana football game. This series, though beginning in 1893, is only 25 games old but has quickly become one of the fiercest, most competitive contests in the region. As far as the origination of the Bourbon Barrel is concerned, no one is certain where the idea started. A possible answer stems from the great distillery industry located in Kentucky and southern Indiana. The Bourbon Barrel is mounted on a board for traveling purposes. The trophy is actually a half-barrel and lists all scores of the 25-game series. A blue stripe is painted in the background for a Kentucky win and a red stripe for an Indiana victory. Indiana leads the series, 16-8-1. Several years ago, both schools agreed contractually to extend the series annually through the year 2000.

PAUL "BEAR" BRYANT

Paul Bryant is still the most successful coach in UK Football History. Bryant spent eight years at UK (1946-53) and produced a 60-23-5 (.710 pct.) record. The 60 victories are the most by any UK football coach. He led the Wildcats to four bowl games and their first Southeastern Conference title in 1950. He coached such UK stars as George Blanda, Jerry Claiborne, Bob Gain, Babe Parilli, Doug Moseley, Wilbur Jamerson, and Steve Meilinger.

CHEERLEADERS

The Kentucky cheerleading squad won an unprecedented fifth national cheerleading championship in April at the competition sponsored by the Universal Cheerleaders Association. The cheerleaders have won the UCA national title in 1985, 1987, 1988, 1992, and 1995 and have been the runners-up on four occasions. Glenn Cook is entering his fifth season as coach of the cheerleaders and T. Lynn Williamson is the cheerleader advisor. A total of 36 students comprise the squad, 14 of whom represent the school at the championship. In addition, the Wildcat mascot, portrayed by former UK kicker Brent Claiborne, finished eighth nationally in the mascot division of the competition.

JERRY CLAIBORNE

After lettering three years (1946-49) as a player and serving two seasons (1952-53) as an assistant coach at Kentucky, Jerry Claiborne returned to his alma mater in 1982 as UK's 31st head football coach. Claiborne stepped down after 28 years as a collegiate head coach in 1989. He led the Wildcats to two bowls and four non-losing seasons. During his era, Kentucky placed more players (68) on the Academic All-SEC Honor Roll than any league school, including a record 17 in 1989. Claiborne also led UK to a national academic title by capturing the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. His eight-year UK record was 41-46-3. Overall, Claiborne finished 21st among Division I coaches with 179 career victories and 179-122-8 in all games.

CFA ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

The University of Kentucky became the first Southeastern Conference institution to win the College Football Association Academic Achievement Award after claiming the prestigious honor in 1989. The Academic Achievement Award is given to the CFA institution with the highest graduation rate of its football program based on a five-year period. UK had graduated 90 percent (18 of 20) of its incoming freshman signee class of 1983, thus earning the honor in May, 1989. A year earlier (1988), UK finished second with a graduation rate of 90.5 percent. Kentucky has earned honorable mention honors in 1988, '91, '93 and '94, for having graduated better than 70 percent of its players.

BLANTON COLLIER AND THE STAFF

Blanton Collier had the misfortune of following Paul Bryant as head football coach at the University of Kentucky. But, Collier posted a fine 41-36-3 record in eight seasons at UK. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his record against arch-rival Tennessee which stood at 5 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie. Standouts such as Howard Schnellenberger, Lou Michaels, Tom Hutchinson, Bobby Cravens, Calvin Bird and Irv Goode played under Collier. One fascinating item in Collier's tenure was the football coaching staff he assembled in 1959. The 1959 UK Coaching Staff included Collier, Ed Rutledge, Howard Schnellenberger, Ermal Allen, Don Shula, John North, Bob Cummings, and Bill Arnsparger.

FRAN CURCI

The Fran Curci era (1973-81) was one of ups and down at the University of Kentucky. Curci remained at UK for nine seasons, the longest tenure of any UK football coach, and posted a 47-51-2 record. The ups consisted of sharing the 1976 Southeastern Conference title with Georgia, a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina in the '76 Peach Bowl, and a 1977 squad which boasted a 10-1 record and No. 5 national ranking. The down was probation which forced the '77 squad to miss a certain bowl invitation.

DiGIURO SCHOLARSHIP

The Trent DiGiuro Memorial Scholarship was established in the autumn of 1994 in honor of the Wildcat offensive guard who died in July of that year. The scholarship is awarded each year to a walk-on football player who has completed his eligibility, maintained a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.5, and has exemplified the dedication, determination, hard work, and leadership typified by Trent DiGiuro. If there is no suitable walk-on candidate that year, the scholarship will go to a team manager or trainer who meets the above criteria. The scholarship was established by DiGiuro's family and friends. The 1994 winner of the scholarship was former Wildcats kicker Brent Claiborne.

FORWARD PASS

The first forward pass attempted by a University of Kentucky football player was thrown on Oct. 13, 1906, by quarterback Earl Stone as the Wildcats faced Eminence Athletic Club. This was the first year the forward pass was legalized by national rules. Accounts from this early contest do not indicate if the first forward UK pass was completed.

GOVERNOR'S CUP

The Governor's Cup was created in 1994 as the trophy for the winner of the Kentucky-Louisville game. Donated by Kroger at a cost of $23,000, the Governor's Cup stands 33 inches tall and weighs 110 pounds. The trophy's base and upright columns are hand-milled black marble. The glass components are comprised of Optic grade crystal. All metal parts are 23-karat, gold-plated brass. The cup itself is solid pewter with a 23-karat gold-plated finish. The Governor's Cup was designed by Kendall Costner and sculpted by James Corcoran of Bruce Fox, Inc. The UK-U of L series was renewed in 1994 with the Wildcats winning the game, 20-14.

HOMECOMING GAMES

As in the case of most institutions, Homecoming football games are special. Kentucky is no exception. Alumni and old friends converge on the UK campus each fall for Homecoming Day, highlighted by a Kentucky football game. The Homecoming Queen and her court are presented in horse-drawn carriages which gives the event a distinct, Kentucky flavor. The first Homecoming Day occurred on Nov. 25, 1915, as Kentucky defeated Tennessee, 6-0. Though records are sketchy, Kentucky has hosted a Homecoming game every year since 1946 and owns a 37-12-0 record in those 49 contests.

THE IMMORTALS

Simply known as "The Immortals", the 1898 University of Kentucky football squad still remains as the only undefeated, untied, and unscored on Wildcats club in school history. The Immortals outscored opponents 180-0 while posting a perfect 7-0-0 record. Roscoe Severs served as team captain under coach W.R. Bass. The closest of all seven games was a 6-0 victory over Centre College.

LEADERSHIP COMMITTEE

Head Coach Bill Curry continued a tradition started at Georgia Tech and Alabama by implementing a football leadership committee at the University of Kentucky. Each year representatives are either elected or selected from each of the classes (Fr., RFr., So., Jr., Sr.) plus walk-ons to give players a direct line of communication to the coaches. "A leader is a consistent, powerful, positive presence," Curry said. "The reason it is good for our football team is because anyone can be a leader. You don't have to be an All-American or first-stringer."

CAWOOD LEDFORD

The legendary "Voice of the Wildcats" was none other than Cawood Ledford. For 39 years, Cawood called Wildcats Football and Basketball. His voice alone symbolized UK Athletics. Current UK Coach Bill Curry has fond memories of Cawood. "I remember those Saturday nights at College Park, Ga. I'd turn on the radio and listen to Cawood calling the action from old Stoll Field. He certainly is a huge part of Kentucky Football." Cawood called his last UK football game vs. Tennessee on Nov. 23, 1991, and retired from the microphone following the 1991-92 basketball season.

MINUS NINETY-THREE

The University of Kentucky holds the Southeastern Conference record for fewest yards allowed rushing in a single game. Kentucky limited Kansas State to a minus-93 yards on the ground as UK defeated Kansas State, 16-3, on Sept. 19, 1970, at Lexington. Kentucky defenders sacked KSU quarterbacks Lynn Dickey (2) and Max Arreguin (5) a total of seven times while intercepting three of their passes. Ironically, KSU outgained UK in total offense 214-107 as Dickey and Arreguin combined for 307 yards in the air.

THE FIRST NIGHT GAME

The University of Kentucky was one of the first institutions to play intercollegiate football at night. The first UK home night game was played on Oct. 5, 1929, at Stoll Field as Kentucky defeated Maryville, 40-0. Kentucky did not play more than one home night game per season until 1946.

NIGHT GAMES

The University of Kentucky began holding its October home football games during the evening hours in 1949. UK and Keeneland Race Course, located in Lexington, have enjoyed a close relationship through the years and assist in giving UK faithful an opportunity to enjoy two of the Commonwealth's best-loved events in October — football and horse racing. With the traditional post time at Keeneland for the thoroughbred races at 1 p.m., UK began moving its October home games to night during the 1949 season. The only occasion UK has not conducted its October home games in the evening is to accommodate television. In 1991, athletics director C.M. Newton moved September home games to night as well to give Kentucky faithful a more consistent start time.

NAT NORTHINGTON

Nat Northington of Louisville became the first black player to sign with the University of Kentucky and a Southeastern Conference institution. Northington signed a national letter-of-intent with UK in December of 1965. He later became the first African-American football player to play in a SEC vs. SEC game, appearing in the UK-Ole Miss game at Lexington on Sept. 30, 1967.

OUTLAND TROPHY

Two-time All-American Bob Gain is the only player in University of Kentucky football history to be awarded "The Outland Trophy", signifying the best interior lineman in collegiate football. Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy after helping lead UK to its first Southeastern Conference title and a 10-1 regular-season record. Besides being the first UK player to claim the award, Gain was also the first SEC player to be given the award.

PRINCE CHARLES OF WALES

The Kentucky Wildcats gave Prince Charles of Wales his first taste of American football on Oct. 22, 1977. That's right, Prince Charles first football game was the UK-Georgia matchup at Athens. Prince Charles was introduced to UK Coach Fran Curci and All-American Art Still at halftime. After looking at the 6-6 Still, Charles said, "You're a tall one aren't you?" Still and Co. blanked the Bulldogs on this day, 33-0, on their way to a 10-1 record.

RED DOC, BLACK DOC

A pair of cousins named William Rodes played football for the University of Kentucky during the early 1900s. To distinguish one from the other, one was nicknamed "Red Doc" and the other "Black Doc". William "Red Doc" Rodes lettered three years (1909, 11-12) as a 140-pound halfback and defensive end. William "Black Doc" Rodes lettered two years (1915-16) as quarterback. Black Doc was considered by many to be one of the best open-field runners in that era. He also placekicked and personally delivered UK's 6-0 victory over Tennessee in 1915 with field goals of 45 and 43 yards.

RUSSELL RICE

Longtime UK sports information director Russell Rice is the walking, talking historian when its comes to Wildcats Football. Rice retired from the UK Athletics Department in 1989 after serving 18 years as sports information director. He came to UK in 1967 as assistant SID under Ken Kuhn, then was named sports information director in 1969. Rice authored the book, "The Wildcats, Kentucky Football", which details Kentucky football and its history. At his retirement party, Rice was given a lifetime "Press Pass" to the Commonwealth Stadium press box.

STOLL FIELD/ McLEAN STADIUM

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was the first home for Kentucky Football. The stadium was located adjacent to Memorial Coliseum and served as UK's football home since 1916. The University Board of Trustees voted to name the playing field "Stoll Field" and the actual grandstand structures as "McLean Stadium", thus the often confusing double names. Stoll Field was named in honor of the late Judge Richard C. Stoll, a prominent alumnus, trustee and benefactor of UK. Stoll Field was dedicated on Oct. 14, 1916. McLean Stadium was dedicated on Nov. 1, 1924, in memory of Price Innes McLean, a regular center on the 1923 UK squad who died as a result of injuries sustained in the Kentucky-Cincinnati game on Nov. 6, 1923. The final seating capacity of Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was 37,000 during its last year of use, 1972.

THE THIN THIRTY

When Blanton Collier stepped down as head football coach at Kentucky following the 1961 season, UK promptly named former Wildcats' player Charlie Bradshaw as its 28th coach. Bradshaw inherited a squad of 88 players left from Collier's 5-5-0 team in '61. Bradshaw promised his new UK squad hard work and talked of training to an absolute peak of condition. His conditioning tactics took their toll as over 50 players left the squad, leaving 30 to open the season against Florida State and prompting the name "Thin Thirty". The Thin Thirty finished 3-5-2 on the season with victories over Detroit (27-8), Vanderbilt (7-0) and arch-rival Tennessee (12-10). The ties were against Florida State (0-0) and Georgia (7-7).

TURNAROUNDS

One of the biggest turnarounds in collegiate football happened at the University of Kentucky during the 1982 and 1983 seasons. Jerry Claiborne had replaced Fran Curci as head coach prior to the '82 campaign. Claiborne inherited a program in shambles and faced the nation's 2nd-toughest schedule which featured Oklahoma, Clemson, Auburn, LSU, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Kansas and Kansas State. Not surprisingly, Kentucky finished 0-10-1 in 1982 with only a 13-13 tie with Kansas keeping the Wildcats from an 0-11 slate. However, Claiborne turned the heat up in 1983 and went to work. UK reeled off consecutive wins against Central Michigan (31-14), Kansas State (31-12), Indiana (24-13), and Tulane (26-14) to start the season. The Cats also defeated LSU (21-13) and Vanderbilt (17-8) to finish the campaign with a 6-4-1 record. The turnaround, which tied Memphis State for the biggest turnaround in 1983, earned Kentucky a berth in the 1983 Hall of Fame Bowl.

VICTORY KICKS

The University of Kentucky defeated the Louisville YMCA, 12-6, in 1900. What is so unique about this contest is Kentucky did not run a single offensive play. Instead, Kentucky punted on first down each time it had the football and eventually scored on a pair of fumbles by the Louisville YMCA club which had occurred in their own endzone.

WILDCATS NICKNAME

The nickname "Wildcats" became synonymous with UK shortly after a 6-2 football victory at Illinois on Oct. 9, 1909. Commandant Carbusier, then head of the military department, told a group of students in a chapel service following the game that the Kentucky football team had "fought like wildcats." The nickname grew in popularity and was adopted by the university.

WINNING STREAK

For the most part, the most famous winning streak in Kentucky football history is the one the Wildcats ended. The stage was set as UK faced Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl. Kentucky was coming off its first Southeastern Conference title and brought in a 10-1 record. Oklahoma entered as national champions and riding a 31-game winning streak. A pair of Wilbur Jamerson scores - a 22-yard pass from Babe Parilli and a one-yard run - was all UK needed in picking up a 13-7 upset of the Sooners and thus ending the 31-game streak. Today, the 31-game winning streak by Oklahoma ranks as the 7th-longest in NCAA history.

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was home to Kentucky football for 56 years (1916-1972). The seating capacity was 37,000 when the Wildcats played their final game inside the stadium in 1972, defeating Vanderbilt 14-13 on November 11.

THE YEAR (1977-78)

Perhaps the most successful year in UK Athletics occurred during the 1977-78 academic year at the University of Kentucky. The 1977 Wildcats football squad, under Fran Curci, raced to a 10-1 record and ended the year ranked No. 5 by The Sporting News. Highlights were victories over North Carolina (10-7), West Virginia (28-13), Penn State (24-20), LSU (33-13), Georgia (33-0), Florida (14-7) and Tennessee (21-17). On the basketball side, UK wrapped up its 5th NCAA title by defeating Duke, 94-88, at St. Louis. The UK basketballers ended the campaign with a 30-2 record under Joe B. Hall.

THE YEAR (1950-51)

An argument to the most successful year in UK Athletics is the 1950-51 academic year. UK football, under Paul Bryant, ended the 1950 regular season with a 10-1 record and ranked No. 7 nationally by both A.P. and U.P.I. The Wildcats then proceeded to snap national champion Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak with a 13-7 victory in the Sugar Bowl. On the basketball front, Adolph Rupp gave UK its 3rd national title by defeating Kansas State, 68-58, at Minneapolis, Minn. The Wildcats ended the year 32-2. Current UK Athletics Director C.M. Newton was a letterman on that squad.

GREAT LAKES BOWL

Kentucky 24, Villanova 14

1947 The Kentucky Wildcats made their first appearance on the bowl scene in the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl and came away with a 24-14 victory over Villanova before a crowd of 14,908 at Cleveland Municipal Stadium.

Kentucky, in its second year under head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, finished at 8-3 on the season with the victory.

Quarterback-placekicker George Blanda gave Kentucky an early 3-0 lead in the first quarter. Blanda connected on a 27-yard field goal to put the Cats up and it remained that way until halftime.

SCORING SUMMARY

VILLANOVA	0	0	0	14	- 14
KENTUCKY	3	0	7	14	- 24

UK - Blanda, 27 FG
UK - Howe, 29 run (Blanda PAT)
UK - Boller, 15 run (Blanda PAT)
UK - Boller, 49 interception return (Blanda PAT)
VU - Shehhan, 9 pass from Gordon
VU - Pasqunriello, 10 run

Attendance - 14,908

In the third quarter, UK's Jim Howe scampered 29 yards for a score. Blanda added the PAT and Kentucky led 10-0 after three periods.

Bill Boller scored both Kentucky touchdowns in the fourth period, romping 15 yards on a handoff from Blanda and racing 49 yards to paydirt with an interception. Blanda added both PATs to round out the Kentucky scoring.

Villanova also added a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns, but it was not enough as Kentucky captured its first bowl victory in school history.

ORANGE BOWL

Santa Clara 21, Kentucky 13

1950 Kentucky committed three turnovers and let a seven-point halftime lead slip away in dropping its first major bowl game, 21-13, to Santa Clara in the 1950 Orange Bowl before a crowd of 64,816.

The Wildcats, 9-3, scored their first touchdown early in the second quarter as a result of a Santa Clara turnover. UK's John Netoskie recovered at fumble at the Wildcat 49 to set up Kentucky's first score. The Wildcats drove 51 yards in 14 plays as Wilbur Jamerson hammered over from two yards. Bobby Brooks added the PAT to make it 7-0.

Kentucky wasted a golden scoring opportunity late in the second quarter when Babe Parilli found Bill Leskovar for a 45-yard completion to the SC 3 with time running out. Leskovar and runningmate Don Phelps each were stopped short on their respective rush attempts and the clock ran out before UK could score. The Wildcats led 7-0 at halftime.

UK coach Paul "Bear" Bryant said afterward he should have sent in a pass play just before the half. "If it failed," he said, "the clock was killed then we could have tried a field goal."

A short, 9-yard punt by Phelps set up Santa Clara's first score in the third quarter. After taking over on the SC 46, Bronco quarterback John Pasco hit Larry Williams on a 25-yard pass. Santa Clara eventually scored on a one-yard sneak by Pasco to tie the game, 7-7.

Santa Clara scored again later in the third period, thanks in part to a pass interference call against Kentucky. Hall Haynes went over from 4 yards to make it 14-7 after three quarters.

Parilli led Kentucky right back, hitting Emery Clark on a 52-yard touchdown strike. Brooks, however, missed the tying PAT, breaking a personal streak of 18 straight, as Santa Clara led 14-13 with 12 minutes left in the contest.

Santa Clara managed to hold off the Cats and added an insurance score with less than a minute left, a 16-yard TD run by Buster Wraith.

SUGAR BOWL

Kentucky 13, Oklahoma 7

1951 Kentucky arrived on the national football scene and stunned national champion Oklahoma, 13-7, to capture the 1951 Sugar Bowl before 82,000 at New Orleans.

The Wildcats, 11-1, displayed a tough defense and opportunistic offense in snapping Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak, the longest in the nation at that time. More than 13,000 Kentucky fans made the long trip to New Orleans to watch the Southeastern Conference champions pick up their school record 11th win.

Inflicting the most damage on the Sooners was Walt Yowarsky, a tackle who had played less than five minutes on the defensive side of the football in 1950. Yowarsky operated at left end, next to Outland Trophy winner Bob Gain, and repeatedly sliced into the Sooner backfield to break up passes and to make Arnold hurry his hand-offs and laterals.

Yowarsky recovered a fumble on the OU 22 that set up UK's first touchdown. On the very next play, Babe Parilli hit Wilbur Jamerson in the right corner of the end zone for the touchdown. Gain added the PAT to make it 7-0 in the first quarter.

Kentucky marched 81 yards in the second quarter to go up 13-0. Jamerson dove over from the one to cap the drive, but Gain missed wide on the PAT.

The Wildcat defense, ranked number two in the nation, showed Oklahoma why late in the third quarter. The Sooners drove 67 yards with the second-half kickoff, sitting at the UK 3 with a first-and-goal. Yowarsky helped UK turn back the Sooners, throwing an OU runner for a five-yard loss on third down and Oklahoma eventually turned the ball over on downs.

Yowarsky, voted the game's MVP, thwarted another OU threat in the fourth quarter as he recovered a fumbled punt.

Oklahoma did score with seven minutes to play as Billy Vessels hit Merrill Green on a 17-yard pass for the touchdown. Jim Weatherall added the PAT.

The Wildcats managed to hold on to the football for all but one play the rest of the way to claim a stirring 13-7 win.

COTTON BOWL

Kentucky 20, TCU 7

1952 Quarterback Babe Parilli threw for two touchdowns to lead the Kentucky Wildcats to a 20-7 victory over the TCU Horned Frogs in the 1952 Cotton Bowl before a crowd of 75,349 at Dallas, Texas.

Parilli, who completed 8 of 20 passes for 85 yards, tossed both touchdown strikes to Emery Clark. With the victory, the Wildcats end the season at 8-4.

Kentucky got on the scoreboard first, as Parilli found Clark for the first of two TDs. Parilli hit Clark with a five-yard toss to culminate a 53-yard scoring march. Harry Jones added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after one quarter.

In the second period, UK got its second touchdown when Parilli and Clark hooked up again. This time, Parilli found Clark on a 13-yard TD strike to cap a 57-yard drive. Jones missed on the PAT attempt and UK settled for a 13-0 lead in the second period with a little over 10 minutes left.

The Wildcat defense made that 13-point lead stand up until halftime as the Horned Frogs drove four times deep into UK territory. Led by All-American guard Ray Correll, the Wildcats turned TCU away on drives to the UK 4, 24, 5 and 2-yard lines to take a 13-0 lead at intermission.

TCU's Bobby Jack Floyd sliced the UK lead to 13-7 when he galloped 43 yards on a sweep. Floyd's run capped an 80-yard scoring drive which took only four plays. Keith Flowers added the PAT with 1:12 left in the third period.

Kentucky ended any thoughts of a TCU comeback, thwarting the only two Horned Frog offensive drives in the fourth period and scoring an insurance touchdown as well. Ed Hamilton sealed the UK victory with a three-yard score off left tackle with 3:33 left. Jones added the PAT for the final 20-7 score.

PEACH BOWL

Kentucky 21, North Carolina 0

1976 Kentucky tailback Rod Stewart scored three touchdowns to lead the Wildcats to a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina before a sellout crowd of 54,132 in the 1976 Peach Bowl at Atlanta, Ga.

The Wildcats, after a 25-year absence from the post-season bowl scene, returned in fine fashion as Kentucky completely smothered the Tar Heels. Kentucky outgained North Carolina 334-108 in total yards, limiting the Tar Heels to just five first downs and forcing five UNC turnovers.

After a scoreless first half, Kentucky went to work in the third period after UNC quarterback Matt Kupec fumbled at the Tar Heel 21. UK's James Ramey recovered and the Wildcats were in business.

Seven plays later, Stewart busted over from the one for the touchdown. John Pierce added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after three quarters.

Stewart sent the 37,000-plus Kentuckians, who had followed UK to the Peach Bowl, into a frenzy with his second touchdown early in the fourth quarter. The Wildcats marched 57 yards in 9 plays as Stewart capped the drive with a 13-yard gallop behind All-American tackle Warren Bryant. Pierce was good on the PAT and Kentucky led 14-0 with 13:01 left to play.

The Big Blue had to go only 47 yards for their final score. Kentucky faced a fourth-and-one from the UNC 3 with a little over three minutes remaining. Once again, Stewart (104 yards on 19 carries) got the call and he picked up both - the first down and the touchdown. Pierce was true on the PAT and UK had put the game away.

Stewart tied the Peach Bowl record for most touchdowns and scoring with the 3 TDs and 18 points. He was named the game's MVP. The Most Valuable Defensive Player of the game was UK linebacker Mike Martin, who helped hold the Tarheels to just over 100 yards.

HALL OF FAME BOWL

West Virginia 20, Kentucky 16

1983 Kentucky won much of the statistical battle but lost the war in dropping a tough 20-16 decision to the West Virginia Mountaineers in the 1983 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham.

The Wildcats, in a bowl for the first time since 1976, outgained West Virginia 306-288 in total offense and held the edge in first downs 19-18 and passing yards 216-88. But 17 second-half points by West Virginia were too much for the Wildcats to overcome.

West Virginia scratched first as placekicker Paul Woodside connected on a 39-yard field goal late in the first quarter.

Kentucky countered with 10 points in the second stanza to take a 10-3 lead at halftime.

The Wildcats marched 54 yards in eight plays for their first score. Facing a third-and-three from the WV 26, Kentucky used some razzle-dazzle as Tony Mayes swept right, then threw-back to quarterback Randy Jenkins in the left corner of the endzone for the TD. John Hutcherson added the PAT and UK led 7-3 with 10:59 left in the second period.

Jenkins hit two big passes late in the second quarter to help set up a 32-yard field goal by Hutcherson. Jenkins connected with Joe Phillips for a 19-yard pass play and then hit George Adams for a 14-yarder as Hutcherson connected with but 38 seconds left in the half.

Attendance - 42,000

WVU kicker Paul Woodside fooled everyone to begin the second half. Woodside tried and on-side kick to start the half and then recovered it to give the Mountaineers the football at the UK 48. Eight plays later, QB Jeff Hostetler found Rich Hollins for a 16-yard TD strike. Woodside added the PAT and it was 10-10 with 11:10 left in the third quarter.

West Virginia scored twice in a span of two minutes early in the fourth quarter to take a commanding 20-10 lead. Hostetler capped off a 10-play, 81-yard drive with a 2-yard scoring toss to Rob Bennett to make it 17-10 with 11:15 left to play.

Two plays later, West Virginia took over after an interception of a Jenkins pass at the UK 16. The interception set up a 23-yard field goal by Woodside as the Mountaineers went up 20-10 with 9:18 remaining.

Kentucky freshman quarterback Bill Ransdell led the Wildcats back, marching UK 92 yards in 11 plays following the kickoff. Ransdell hit Phillips for a 13-yard scoring toss to make it 20-16 with 5:50 left. Hutcherson missed the PAT.

The Wildcats got one more shot, but could get no further than the UK 37.

HALL OF FAME BOWL

Kentucky 20, Wisconsin 19

1984 Kentucky's Joey Worley booted a career-long 52-yard field goal with just under nine minutes remaining to give the Wildcats a thrilling 20-19 victory over the Wisconsin Badgers in the 1984 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham.

Worley, a freshman, helped Kentucky overcome a nine-point deficit in the second half with his school and bowl record field goal.

Wisconsin jumped on top early, scoring twice in the first quarter. Todd Gregoire nailed a 40-yard field goal just under four minutes into the game and Michael Howard hit Thad McFadden with a 3-yard TD pass. Gregoire added the PAT and the Badgers led 10-0 with 5:34 left in the opening period.

Gregoire added another field goal, this one from 27 yards, to make it 13-0 with 7:05 left in the second period.

Kentucky got on the board after safety Paul Calhoun intercepted a Howard pass to give UK possession at the Badger 42. It took Kentucky just five plays to score as Marc Logan went over from nine yards. Worley added the PAT to cut the deficit to 13-7 with 1:29 left in the half.

Wisconsin was not through. The Badgers used four running plays, two passes and a costly 15-yard penalty to move the football to the UK 3 with two seconds left in the half. From there, Wisconsin decided on a Gregoire field goal (20-yarder) to take a 16-7 edge at halftime.

Kentucky narrowed the gap to 16-10 on a 22-yard field goal by Worley with 11:28 left in the third quarter. But Gregoire responded with a 40-yarder two minutes later to move the count back to nine, 19-10.

Behind UK quarterback Bill Ransdell, the Wildcats marched 82 yards in 11 plays later in the quarter to get within two, 19-17. Ransdell hit Logan on a screen pass to cover the final 27 yards and with the Worley PAT, UK was back in it with 26 seconds left in the third quarter.

The next time Kentucky got the ball, Ransdell moved the Cats into position for Worley's 52-yarder. Starting from the UK 22, tailback Mark Higgs got the call four consecutive times, then it was Adams' turn the next four plays. Facing a fourth-and-two at the UW 34, Worley nailed the game-winner with 8:55 left.

Wisconsin came back and marched to the UK 8 with less than two minutes left. With the Badgers facing a fourth-and-six, Gregoire was called on for his fifth field goal attempt. This time, the snap from center was bobbled and UK had sealed the victory.

PEACH BOWL

Clemson 14, Kentucky 13

1993 The Wildcats met the 24th-ranked Clemson Tigers in the 26th annual Peach Bowl and came within one minute of winning their sixth bowl in eight tries. But a Clemson TD in the closing seconds sent UK home with a 14-13 loss.

Kentucky took the opening kickoff and marched down the field to the Clemson two-yard line, where what appeared to be a QB Pookie Jones-to-WB Alfonzo Browning TD was instead a turnover when Browning fumbled the ball while attempting to extend it over the goal line.

Clemson took over on its own one and proceded to march 99 yards for the game's first score, a two-yard TD plunge by TB Emory Smith. The PAT gave the Tigers a 7-0 lead. Clemson ran the ball 15 times and attempted only three passes in the drive.

Kentucky was stopped again at the one-yard line before the Wildcats finally scored on Nicky Nickels' 34-yard FG in the second period, making the score Clemson 7, Kentucky 3.

UK captured the lead early in the fourth quarter when Jones hit WR Mark Chatmon with a five-yard TD pass, making it UK 10, Clemson 7. Nickels added another FG, this one from 26 yards, to extend UK's lead to 13-7. But after Dan Ariza's 55-yard punt pinned the Tigers inside their own 18-yard line, QB Patrick Sapp hit Smith with a 57-yard screen pass to move Clemson into scoring position. With less than a minute remaining, LB Marty Moore intercepted a Sapp pass, but fumbled it back, giving Clemson a second chance. The Tigers capitalized when Sapp hit WR Henry Smith with the game-winning 21-yard TD pass. Kentucky got the ball back with less than 20 seconds remaining, but could move no farther than its own 40.

The finest indoor practice facility in the nation is on the campus of the University of Kentucky.

Even when the weather turns cold, there's a place where Kentucky football is hot.

That place is the Nutter Field House, a magnificent $8.5 million structure that is the home of the Wildcats on occasions of inclement weather.

More than just an indoor football field, the field house can accommodate the year-round needs of 11 Kentucky sports — football, baseball, gymnastics, men's indoor and outdoor track, women's indoor and outdoor track, men's and women's golf, and men's and women's soccer.

"In my opinion, we already have in place the finest coaches in the country," Newton said. "The addition of the indoor facility means we have the ability to attract the finest student-athletes.

"This multi-purpose building has been a tremendous boost to all of our programs."

The Nutter Field House, which was dedicated in a ceremony on Sept. 2, 1993, covers more than 132,000 square feet and is located behind the south end zone of Commonwealth Stadium. It is named for E. J. Nutter and his family for their support of and service to the university.

"The Nutter Field House is crucial in the expansion of our facilities base," UK Head Football Coach Bill Curry said. "I consider this indoor practice facility to be the finest of its kind in the world. Being the northern-most school in the Southeastern Conference, we have needed a facility of this magnitude. This enables us to attract great speed for our program, players such as Kio Sanford and Randy Wyatt.

"We also have needed the indoor facility to allow our skill-position players to work on their respective skills, so we can measure up to the rest of the league. The one thing our staff understands about our skilled athletes today — whether its throwing and catching or shooting threes — is the importance of practicing every day. Our young men will now be able to do that."

The Nutter Field House immediately paid dividends to the Kentucky football program. In its first year of existence, it served as the team's practice headquarters when the team earned a berth in the 1993 Peach Bowl.

"It was simply wonderful," Coach Curry said, "to be calling recruits from a cellular phone while watching our team prepare for the Peach Bowl in this incredible facility."

The indoor facility features an actual playing field area of 108,000 square feet, including a full-size artificial turf football field. The football field is surrounded by a six-lane, 290-meter track which expands to nine lanes down the straightaways. Areas for field events are also included for the pole vault, high jump, and long jump. A 9,000-square foot gymnastics room is located in the front of the building and serves as the UK GymCats home.

One of the most unique features of this multi-million dollar field house is the electronic netting system. This system allows for different combinations of sports to practice safely, at the same time, by dividing the playing field. The nets can be lowered to separate the entire playing field from the track, or form four batting cages for baseball or driving ranges for golf. The playing field can be divided in halves to create two football, soccer, or baseball playing areas.

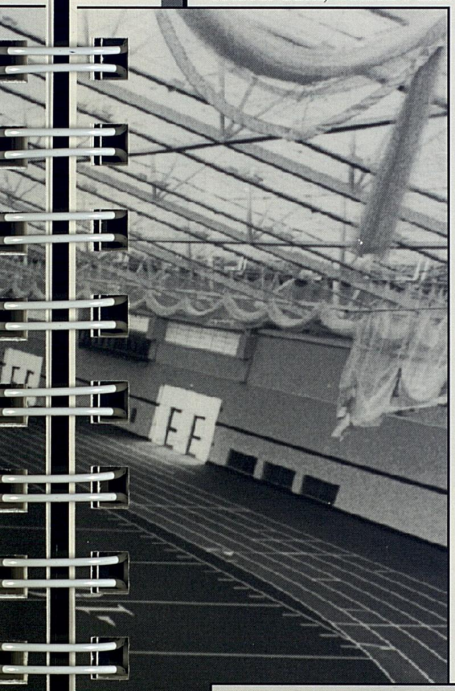

"This type of facility is also important for the togetherness of our athletics program," Curry said. "It allows us to have everyone participating under one roof."

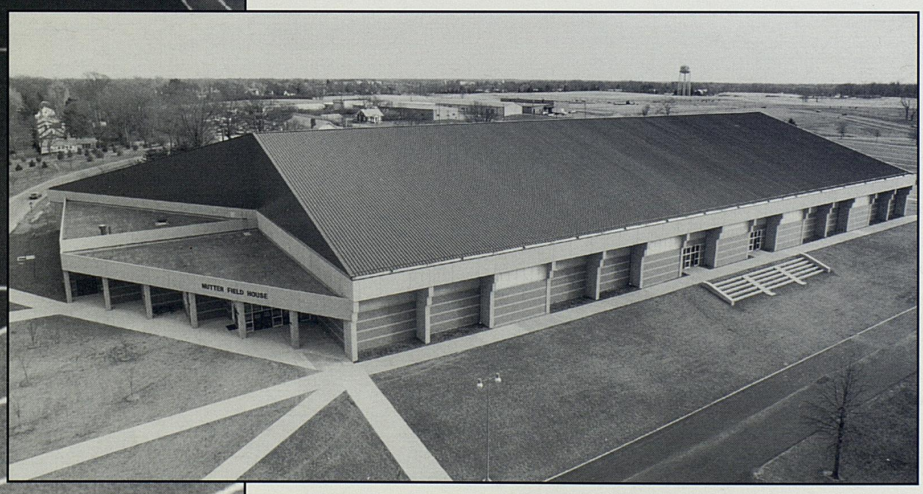

UK President Dr. Charles Wethington noted that the facility is used for the faculty, staff, and students, as well as varsity athletes.

"This facility is very significant, not only to UK athletics, but to the entire University of Kentucky community," Wethington said. "The indoor facility should aid Bill Curry in taking our football program to another level."

The height of the indoor facility is 72 feet at its apex. Inside the netting clearance is approximately 65 feet. This height allows punting, and field goal targets sewn into the nets permit realistic PAT/field goal kicking during practices.

Also included in the facility is 3,000 square feet of office space for the facility manager, receptionist, and coaches. The building also includes an additional 4,000 square feet of storage space.

Commonwealth Stadium

When it comes to football, Kentucky-style, there is certainly no better place than home — Commonwealth Stadium.

Beautiful Commonwealth Stadium, built in 1973, is one of the nation's showcases for football. The stadium is located on the southeast corner of the University of Kentucky campus, convenient to both Cooper and Alumni Drives.

Commonwealth Stadium was built at a cost of $12 million by the firm of Huber, Hunt and Nichols, Inc. The stadium, including parking areas, rests on an 86-acre plot of what was once the UK Experimental Station Farm grounds.

"Aesthetically, Commonwealth Stadium is the prettiest in America," UK Coach Bill Curry said. "I've always thought this since I first witnessed a game here in 1975 as a pro scout.

"In just a year's time, I learned there is simply not another place I'd rather be on a football Saturday than Commonwealth Stadium. The atmosphere, especially on a Saturday night, is magical and very conducive to winning. It's an ideal college setting."

The stadium took on a new look in 1990 with the addition of a $600,000 scoreboard and message center located in the North end zone. The scoreboard is 19 by 78 feet in size, almost 3.5 times the size (12 by 19) of the original scoreboards which had been in place since 1973.

The stadium was officially opened on Sept. 15, 1973, as the Wildcats moved into their new home after spending 48 years at Stoll Field/McLean Stadium across from Memorial Coliseum. Kentucky defeated Virginia Tech in the stadium-opener, 31-26, as quarterback Ernie Lewis accounted for three touchdowns to lead the Wildcats.

Since its opening, Kentucky has played 138 games within the friendly confines of Commonwealth Stadium. And indeed, a 76-58-4 record and a .565 winning percentage is evidence Commonwealth is a "home field advantage" for the Wildcats.

Excellent attendance figures have also gone hand-in-hand with Kentucky football and Commonwealth Stadium. The Wildcats have averaged 54,796 spectators in the 138 contests at Commonwealth since its inception. In fact, 7,561,854 spectators have witnessed Kentucky football at Commonwealth Stadium — that's approximately 1.8 times the population of Kentucky.

The five-millionth person to attend a UK football game in Commonwealth Stadium was Jack Crowe of Lexington. Mr. Crowe walked through the turnstile as number 5,000,000 at 1 pm on Oct. 3, 1987, as Kentucky hosted Ohio.

The official seating capacity at Commonwealth Stadium is 57,800, though standing-room only crowds will exceed that figure. When Kentucky hosted Louisville in the 1994 renewal of the rivalry, a record crowd of 59,162 witnessed the Wildcats nip the Cardinals, 20-14.

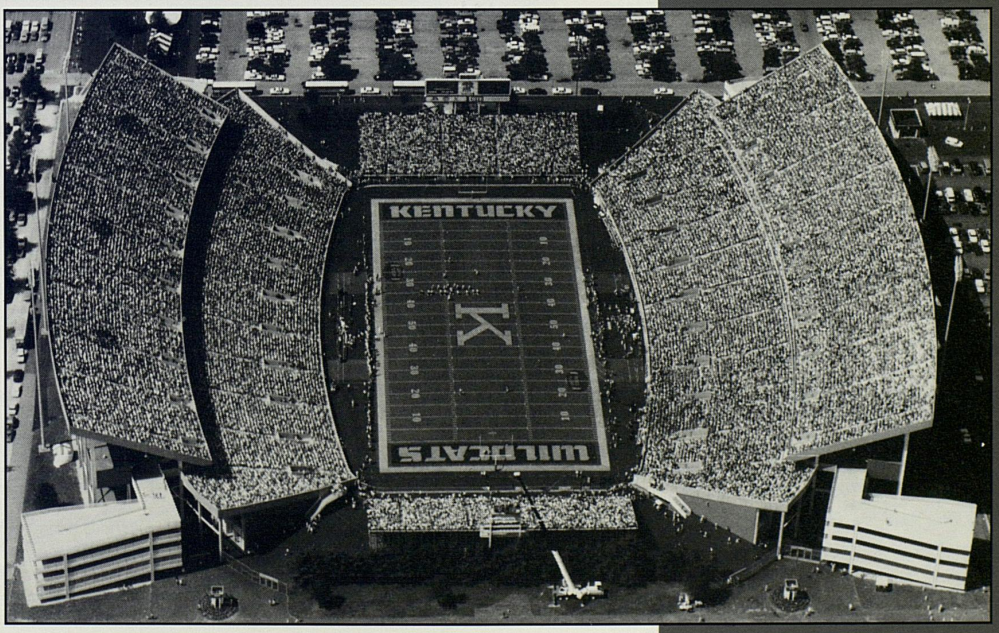

All seating in Commonwealth Stadium is aluminum, with more than 30 percent of the aluminum seating either chair-back or bench-back.

An enclosed press box, which comfortably seats 110 members of the media, is located underneath the upper deck on the stadium's west side. Included in the press box area are eight private booths (four VIPs), a photography deck, and two dining areas. The press box is served by two elevators.

Plans call for eventually enclosing the south end (Tates Creek Road) of Commonwealth Stadium to bring its capacity to 72,000. Also, the addition of luxury suites and boxes is in UK's plans.

"Aesthetically, Commonwealth Stadium is the prettiest in America".

The E.J. Nutter Training Facility

One of the nation's showcase football facilities rests on the southeast corner of the University of Kentucky campus.

The ultra-modern E.J. Nutter Football Training Facility ranks among the best in the country. Built at a cost of $5.7 million, the facility officially became the home of Kentucky Wildcat football in September 1987.

The Nutter Center, as it is called on the UK campus, encompasses over 48,000 square feet and is built adjacent to the Shively Sports Complex. It is located on Sports Center Drive, just across Cooper Drive from Commonwealth Stadium.

"I have not seen everyone's new facilities, but the Nutter Center is the finest that I have seen," UK coach Bill Curry says. "It is the best planned and the most spacious facility I know of. Combined with our spacious practice area, the Nutter Center gives us the most beautiful football complex that I have ever been associated with."

The new Wildcat facility is named after Ervin J. Nutter, a UK alumnus who contributed one million dollars to get the fund-raising campaign started for construction to begin.

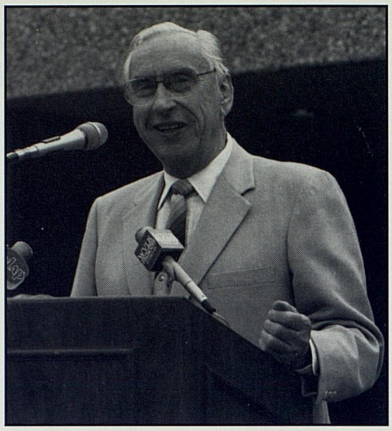

The Nutter gift to the UK Athletics Association was one of the largest gifts ever received by the Association.

"The University has been a great inspiration to me," Nutter said. "I do not feel as if I've given anything away. I'm just repaying what the University has done for me."

Aside from dressing facilities, which feature large, personal lockers for every Kentucky football player, the Nutter Center is highlighted by a 9,000 square foot weight room. The weight room has over 100,000 pounds of equipment alone. The Nutter Center also has 11 meeting rooms, a state-of-the-art video and editing room for coaches' film, equipment and training rooms, staff and player lounges, an interview area, a 60-yard sprint track, sauna and jacuzzi, an aerobics room, and three raquetball courts.

A touch of Kentucky football history is on display in the foyer area. The memorabilia case holds UK trophies from bowl games such as the Great Lakes Bowl, the Sugar Bowl, the Cotton Bowl, the Peach Bowl and the Hall of Fame Bowls. The case displays the 1950 and 1976 Southeastern Conference championship trophies.

"This is a facility built with the players in mind," said retired UK Head Coach Jerry Claiborne, who helped spearhead the financial drive to make the Nutter Center possible. "It does not have the coaches' offices like other facilities. Instead, we had the student-athlete in mind in the design and planning and that's how we wanted it to be."

Ervin J. Nutter donated $1 million towards the construction of the Nutter Football Training Facility.

Curry plans no changes in that respect.

"It is a privilege to get to work in a facility such as this everyday," Curry said. "The planning and design with the student-athletes at heart is what we're about today.

"Jerry Claiborne's most important accomplishments during his eight years at Kentucky were in the human arena. But his picture, which hangs in the Nutter Center, is a reminder to us just how much he loved this University. For Jerry and Mr. Nutter and the other contributors who helped make this facility possible, they have left a legacy that will surely be exciting to build on."

Nutter, a graduate of Hamilton (Ohio) High School, participated in the ground-breaking ceremonies in August 1986. Nutter entered the UK College of Engineering following high school and worked his way through college as an electrician. He left UK before graduation and passed the State of Ohio's examination for stationary engineers, becoming the youngest licensed stationary engineer in the state.

He worked three years for Procter & Gamble's Power Division before returning to UK to receive his bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering in 1943.

After serving with distinction with the engineering division at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Nutter became president of Elano Corporation. He later became president of Acme Screw Products of Dayton, Ohio.

While the unprecedented gift represents Nutter's love for the UK athletics program, his love for the University as a whole is well documented. Nutter served two terms (1966-68) as president of the UK National Alumni Association and four years recently as chairman of the UK Development Council Board.

Another important part in building the Nutter Center was the donation of $300,000 by Seth Hancock, a central Kentucky horseman. Hancock also played a key role in raising the necessary dollars for the facility as chairman of the united effort to raise $2.7 million from private donors.

The ceremonial dedication of the Nutter Center took place on Sept. 11, 1987, with Nutter, Hancock, Claiborne, Cliff Hagan (then UK athletics director), and Otis Singletary (former UK president) all in attendance.

The Nutter Center is over 48,000 square feet in size.

Kentucky Strength Program

Iron-willed discipline. Attention to detail.

David Snardon handles the lateral dumbbell raises.

Those are the qualities that new Strength Coach Rob Oviatt brings to the Nutter Training Center weight room, according to Coach Bill Curry.

Oviatt, a veteran strength mentor with experience in the Southeastern Conference and the Pacific 10 Conference, came on board last spring. He has methodically implemented a plan for power that includes athletes' bodies and minds.

"My role is to motivate athletes to motivate themselves," Oviatt explains. "The self-motivated person has endless possibilities in any area of life.

"If players know you care about them as people, and they see results (in the weight room), they'll do just about anything for you. I definitely care about them as people first, and hopefully my staff and I have put together a plan that will get them results."

Oviatt's blueprint for success combines goals of strength, speed, conditioning, and prevention of injury.

"Football is a game of the hips, legs, and lower back. Every movement on the field is initiated by those muscle groups," Oviatt says. "But strength alone is not enough. It's the speed at which you exert your strength that is the key to performance, the result being explosive power.

"Olympic-style lifts get the highest priority because they're the most specific to football — you must move heavy weights with speed. These are the most athletic lifts because they require coordination, balance, and flexibility in addition to strength."

The well-rounded Oviatt outlook also emphasizes:

- cardiovascular training;
- daily abdominal work;
- plyometric training, which teaches muscles to contract more quickly, efficiently, and powerfully;
- speed and agility training; and
- prevention of injury by training the entire body, with emphasis on the knee, ankle, and shoulder/neck areas.

Oviatt's strength and conditioning team includes assistants Aaron Shelley, Chad Hutsko, and John Leindecker. Shelley, a bodybuilding and weightlifting champion, also brings nutritional expertise to the staff.

"A strength program is a team effort," Oviatt says. "We have great assistants in the weight room, great support from the coaches and administration, and most important, hard-working and committed players. They're the ones doing the work. It all starts with the players."

The strength staff has the complete support of Curry, a former National Football League center who knows that an edge in football lies in the weight room.

"We have a sign mounted in the weight room," Curry says. "The statement reads, 'There is no substitute for strength and no excuse for the lack of it.'

"That sums up our approach to weight training. We want to be the best conditioned football team, not only in the Southeastern Conference, but in the country. Games are won in the fourth quarter and that's when great physical conditioning comes into play."

In terms of facilities, Wildcats football players have one of the nation's best weight rooms.

"The facility is unbelievable," Curry says. "I can't imagine anyone needing any more than what we have in our weight facility."

For starters, the Nutter Center's weight room is 9,000 square feet. In free weights alone, UK has 100,000 pounds of equipment — 75,000 in free weights and an additional 25,000 in dumbbells.

To complement the free weights, UK has an abundance of Nautilus equipment, stationary bicycles, and treadmills.

As far as records go, former offensive guard Jody Matthews holds the honor of being the strongest Wildcats football player to date. He owns personal records of 585 pounds in the bench press, 440 pounds in cleans, 735 pounds in Olympic squats, and 1,760 in total lifts.

Matthews broke the records held by Dermontti Dawson and Oliver Barnett, both of whom are residing on National Football League rosters.

CATS Center

Since 1980, Kentucky has placed 136 players on the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll, more than any league school in that period.

One of Bill Curry's central themes for the University of Kentucky football program is championship performance, especially in the classroom.

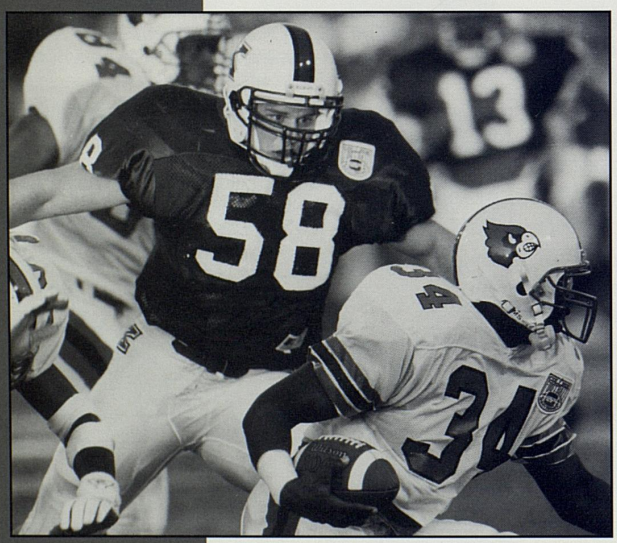

Wildcat football players have a history of academic excellence, a tradition that has continued under Coach Curry.

Since 1980, Kentucky has placed 136 players on the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll, more than any league school in that period. In 1989, the Wildcats set a league record with 17 players named to the SEC Honor Roll.

In addition to Curry's emphasis on the subject, much of the credit for UK's academic success goes to the Athletics Department's academic support system —the Center for Academic and Tutorial Services, or simply, "CATS."

CATS opened in 1981, the nation's first academic center dedicated exclusively to student-athletes. It is located in Memorial Coliseum. Specifically designed for the student-athlete, the center contains a large general study area along with a computer facility, a classroom, and numerous rooms used for tutoring.

"Our CATS is one of the nation's best academic services in the land and that's based on results," Curry says. "For Kentucky to be up there with Duke, Virginia, and Notre Dame is a real tribute, first to the student-athletes, but also to our academic support staff."

Linebacker Mike Schellenberger is a two-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

What Curry refers to when talking about Duke, Virginia, and Notre Dame is the annual College Football Association Academic Achievement Award. The award was given to Kentucky in 1989 for having the highest graduation rate among Division I-A football programs. Prior to 1991, Kentucky was the only other school to win the award outside the trio mentioned above.

"We get more response from parents who visit us on the CATS program than any other part of our program," Curry says. "Parents are really excited about it."

Certainly a facility is a good start, but any program is only as good as the people who run it. And UK is fortunate to have outstanding leaders in its academics support system.

Bob Bradley, Assistant Athletics Director for Academics, supervises the CATS program. Bradley is assisted by Barbara Deniston, Director of Student-Athlete Development; Sheila Breeding, Academic Skills Coordinator; and two Academics Counselors, Darren Bilberry and Mike Haley. CATS also employs six graduate assistants and numerous tutors, both from the University and surrounding community. UK budgets almost $500,000 per year for CATS.

"We are extremely proud of what we have accomplished in the academic arena," Bradley says. "The CATS program is focused on winning in the classroom. We look at each student-athlete's individual needs, set goals and develop strategies to attain those goals. Our Center (CATS) provides our student-athletes with a definite advantage over student-athletes at many other institutions. Our goal is to show that we care about the student as well as the athlete."

For the CATS staff, showing you care means more than helping athletes maintain eligibility, graduate, or win awards. The academics staff also prepares student-athletes for life after college with the Wildcat Career Development Program.

The Career Development Program helps student-athletes look to the future through a step-by-step process which includes:

- mentoring and internships, which help determine career interests;
- career counseling;
- resume writing; and
- forming a career plan.

The Wildcat Career Development Program works closely with the University's Career Planning and Placement Center in order to provide additional assistance when needed.

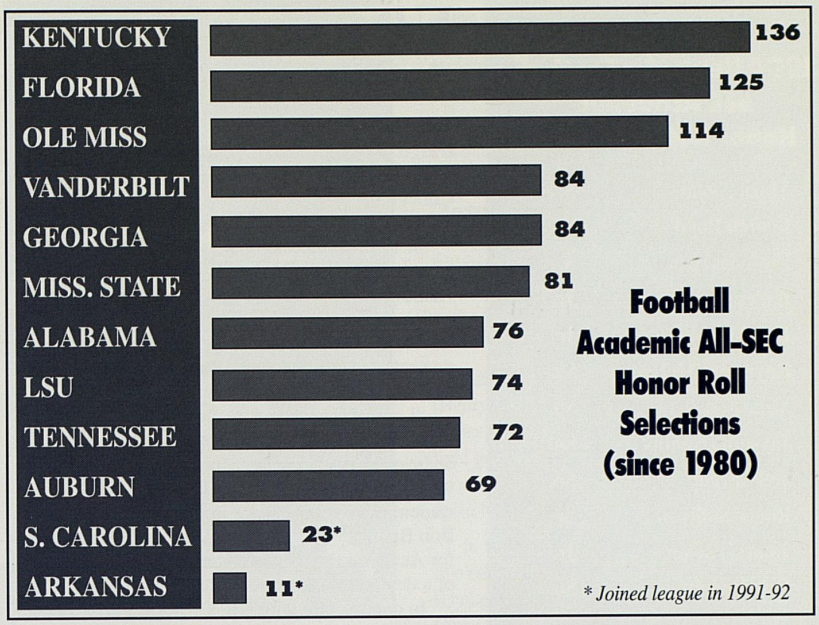

CATS Center

The success of UK's Career Development Program and other support services happens because of the emphasis placed on academics by Coach Curry and his assistant coaches.

"I have been blessed at Kentucky to have Bill Curry," Bradley says. "He really believes in the student-athlete concept. We are in total agreement on the business of educating our student-athletes."

"We continue to support our academic staff to the utmost," Curry says. "We're very excited about the work Bob Bradley and his staff have done. We expect championship academics and we will not accept anything less from our players."

At UK, CATS does its part to keep student-athletes at a championship level in the classroom.

UK Football Earns CFA Academic Achievement Honors

Five times during the past eight years, the University of Kentucky football team has been among a handful of schools honored by the College Football Association for its high graduation rate.

In 1989, UK became only the fourth university to earn the prestigious CFA Academic Achievement Award for having the highest graduation rate in the nation. The Wildcats have won honorable mention status, signifying a graduation rate of 70 percent or better, on four occasions — 1988, 1991, 1993, and 1994.

"I am very proud of the fact that the University of Kentucky Athletics Association is dedicated to the development of the student as well as the athlete, and that BIll Curry keeps the student-athlete experience in perspective," said Bob Bradley, UK Assistant Athletics Director for Academics. "He understands the importance of a degree to the future of these young people."

In conjunction with UK's 1989 national award, Bradley was named the CFA Academic Advisor of the Year.

The CFA Academic Achievement Award was established in 1981 and is presented annually by the Touchdown Club of Memphis. The award recognizes the CFA member institution with the highest graduation rate among members of its football team. Over the years, Kentucky is one of only seven schools that have won the CFA Award.

An interesting note is how graduation rates have risen over the years. In 1981, the first year of the survey, graduation rates among CFA members was 49 percent. The overall rate in the CFA in 1995 was 58.6 percent, the second highest ever, just shy of the 1993 record of 59.1 percent. It is obvious that NCAA requirements for initial and continuing eligibility are having the desired effects.

The University of Kentucky football program also has been a leader on the conference level in addition to national honors. Since 1980, Kentucky has had 136 players earn a place on the SEC Academic Honor Roll, more than any other league school. Twelve Wildcats were named to the Honor Roll in 1994 (see list at left).

Kentucky should be well-represented again in 1995. A total of 25 Wildcats earned a 3.0-or-better grade point average for the spring '95 semester, including returning players Cliff Bailey, Buddy Berry, Jimmy Carter, Harold Dennis, Van Hiles, Bob Holmberg, Barry Jones, Jonas Liening, Rob Manchester, Raymond McLaurin, J. D. Reed, Mike Schellenberger, Mike Schlegel, Tyler Siddens, Leon Smith, Jeff Speedy, Kurt Supe, James Tucker, Miguel Viera, Stephan Walters, and Alexander Wunder.

Walk-Ons Welcome at UK

Just because a young man doesn't have a football scholarship doesn't mean he can't play football at the University of Kentucky.

A total of 26 non-scholarship players — popularly known as "walk-ons" — completed 1995 spring practice with the Wildcats football team. A new group of walk-ons will increase that number in the fall.

With scholarship levels reduced from 105 to 85 over the past few years, walk-ons have become increasingly important to major college programs for their contributions in games and practices.

"We would have a hard time functioning without walk-ons," UK Head Coach Bill Curry says. "With the new numbers restrictions, they have become even more important.

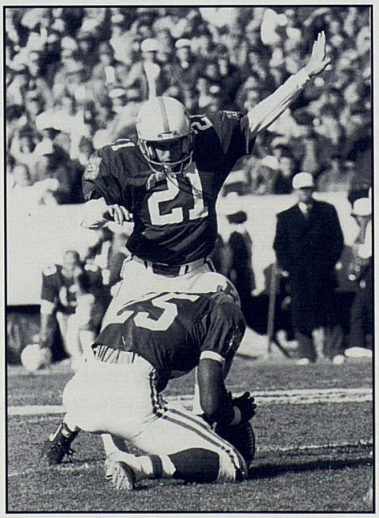

"In my opinion, walk-ons are the ultimate example of the virtues football can teach today. They are not rewarded immediately, and may not be rewarded at all except for the chance to participate, yet they work their guts out every day.

"One of the highlights of my life is rewarding a walk-on with a scholarship because I know what it means to him and his family."

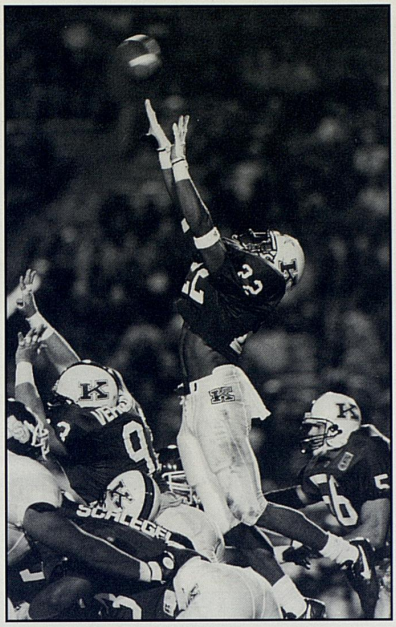

Curry has had that pleasure on nine occasions during his coaching tenure at Kentucky, including three current Wildcats who have been placed on full scholarship — Dele Ali, Thad Corbin, and Brian Sivinski.

"I've never had a team that didn't have a starting player who was a walk-on or a former walk-on," notes Curry.

The following is a list of the nine walk-ons who have earned scholarships at UK under Curry.

Doug Pelfrey set several UK kicking records and now kicks for the Cincinnati Bengals. Pelfrey came to UK as a walk-on.

Free safety Dele Ali earned a scholarship during his first year at Kentucky.

Dele Ali, Free Safety, Marianna, Fla. (Marianna HS) — Entered UK in the fall of 1994 and immediately won playing time on special teams. He earned a varsity letter and was placed on scholarship after the season.

Tim Calvert, Flanker, Mount Washington, Ky. (Bullitt East) — Key member of the receiving corps at UK from 1991-93. Tim's career totals include 34 receptions for 606 yards and two touchdowns.

Willie Cannon, Cornerback, Miami, Fla. (Southridge HS) — Three-year letterman who started at cornerback as a senior in 1993. Willie made four interceptions as a Wildcat, plus one in the 1993 Peach Bowl, and broke up 11 passes.

Mark Chatmon, Split End, Milwaukee, Wisc. (South Division HS) — Three-year letterman who started as a senior in 1993. Mark caught 33 passes for 471 and two touchdowns and also caught a TD pass in the 1993 Peach Bowl.

Thad Corbin, Defensive Tackle, Springfield, Tenn. (Springfield HS) — Thad made 12 tackles, including two for losses, as a reserve for the 1994 Wildcats. He is being put on scholarship for the 1995 season.

Troy Hobbs, Split End, Miami, Fla. (Southridge) — Three-year letterman for the Wildcats (1991-93) who caught 18 passes for 207 yards during his career.

Doug Pelfrey, Kicker, Edgewood, Ky. (Scott HS) — Doug virtually re-wrote the record book during his three seasons (1990-92) as the Wildcats' kicker. He made 34-of-52 field goals, including eight from 50 yards or beyond. He won two games with last-second field goals. He was named first-team All-Southeastern Conference and is currently in the National Football League with the Cincinnati Bengals.

Matt Riazzi, Wingback, Kettering, Ohio (Archbishop Alter HS) — Four-year letterman from 1990-93. Matt's career totals feature 351 rushing yards on 57 carries (6.2 avg.) and 14 pass receptions for 145 yards. He also handled punt returns as a senior, bringing back 26 punts for 140 yards.

Brian Sivinski, Kicker, Lexington, Ky. (Henry Clay HS) — Brian became the starting kicker for the 'Cats in 1994, nailing 5-of-10 field goals and 12-of-15 extra points. He will be on scholarship for 1995, when he is expected to again handle the kicking duties.

In addition to the nine players listed above, two other walk-ons who had been awarded scholarships were already on the team when Curry arrived in 1990.

Jeff Brady, Linebacker, Melbourne, Ky. (Newport Catholic) — Played four years at UK, 1987-90, and emerged as a starter as a junior and senior. He made 178 tackles during his career, including 11 for losses, and intercepted four passes. He has played four years in the National Football League and is currently with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Bill Hawk, Punter, Santa Ynez, Calif. (Cal-Lutheran) — UK's punter three years (1989-91). His career average of 39.7 still ranks as the fourth-best in school history.

Bill Curry is a coach who enjoys working with walk-ons and has had the unique perspective of both coaching walk-ons and being the parent of one.

"I always thought I was a good coach with walk-ons until my son became one," says Curry, whose son, Bill, Jr., was a walk-on at Virginia, and earned a scholarship. "Being a parent gave me a different perspective. Watching George Welsh and the Virginia program, and how they treated them, taught me more about how I should treat my own walk-ons. Billy and I will always be indebted to them."

University of Kentucky Outreach Program

Coach Curry and Wildcats football players participate in community service, including visits to children's hospitals.

Student-athletes at the University of Kentucky have the opportunity for community involvement through the Community Outreach Program, also known as "The Cats' Cause."

Through "The Cats' Cause," community involvement has grown dramatically in recent years. Each athletic team receives questionnaires at the beginning of each semester to determine its players' interests in participating in civic and educational programs.

The Community Outreach Program got its start in 1990 when it was developed and coordinated by UK student-athletes. This project was established when student-athletes adopted the fifth-grade classes at a local inner-city school. The semester-long project matched athletes one-on-one with the school children. With the assistance of a UK athlete, the children were asked to set a goal for themselves. Then each week, the student-athletes met with the children and helped them accomplish their goals. The program was expanded in 1992-93.

The Outreach Program has grown in several directions and student-athletes have participated in the following programs:

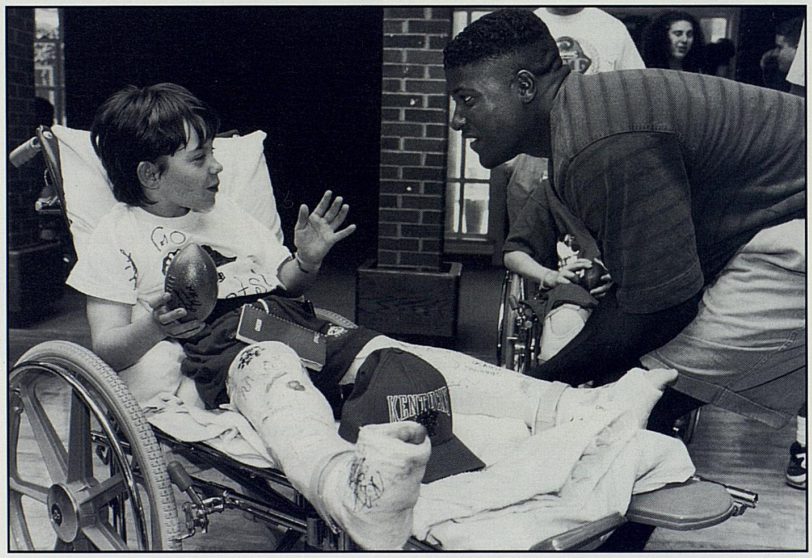

BIG BUDDY PROGRAM (College of Education) - Student-athletes serve as role models for elementary students at local schools. Athletes help younger students develop self-esteem through weekly interaction.

CELEBRITY VISITOR TO HOSPITAL - Student-athletes visit patients at local hospitals, including rehabilitation facilities and veterans hospitals.

COMPREHENSIVE CARE - Student-athletes talk to 12-15-year-old emotionally disturbed youths about goal-setting.

COPI-CAT PEN PAL - Student-athletes who are matched with elementary students correspond throughout the academic year. As a pen pal to an elementary student, athletes encourage students to read.

D.A.R.E. GRADUATION SPEAKER - Student-athletes give motivational speeches to youth as part of the Drug Awareness Resistance Education Program.

Tailback Donnell Gordon listens to a young fan.

Tailback Moe Williams and friend.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL SPEAKER - Student-atheltes visit a number of local schools, speaking to children on a variety of topics, including the importance of an education, staying off drugs and promoting reading.

FCEA SPELLING BEE JUDGE - Fayette County Education Association sponsors an annual spelling bee with UK student-athletes as judges.

SMART PARTICIPANT - After participating in a training program, student-athletes conduct science experiments with elementary students. The purpose of the program is to motivate minorities and disadvantaged youth to enter science and math-related careers.

SPECIAL OLYMPICS VOLUNTEER - Activities include assisting with specific events as well as participating in the opening and closing ceremonies.

University of Kentucky Outreach Program

Linebacker Donte' Key was one of numerous Wildcats who visited Lexington's Shriners Children's Hospital.

The Cats' Cause . . . and effect:

"You wouldn't believe how Jimmy has blossomed since Freddie (UK football player) has worked with him. We never were able to get him to even try to learn to read. Now he brings us articles from the paper about Freddie and can actually read most of the content to us."

—School Teacher

"Your Wildcat Cub Club is really neat. When I get into college, I want to have a club like yours."

—5th-grade student

Wide receiver James Tucker lends a helping hand to some elementary school students.

"Please do not ever stop this wonderful program. It is one of the most beneficial that our students have ever experienced."

—School Teacher

"I like her (UK student-athlete) because she will sit down and listen to what I have to say."

—5th-grade student

Offensive guard Barry Jones and former Wildcat Bill Verdonk enjoy a table game with some youngsters.

"The program is so beneficial to our school, community, and most of all to our students who don't have much hope because of the lack of role models."

—School Teacher

"We as teachers often say the same things the college students do, but they listen to them many times when they don't hear us. I look forward to this great program each semester."

—School Teacher

Wide receiver Leon Smith shoots a promotional commercial for a United Way campaign. Smith is deeply involved with a number of community service projects and was one of only 11 student-athletes chosen for the College Football Association's national "Good Works Team." Leon also was one of 12 student-athletes chosen for the Southeastern Conference "Good Works Team."

"I like to see young people succeed. It's a high to see kids working together and accomplishing their goals. Participating in the Community Outreach Program allowed me to see kids reach their goals."

—Sterling Ward, former player

Medical Staff and Services

In the game of football, there's no substitute for proper health care and medical treatment. UK football is blessed to have a first-class training and medical staff, led by Trainer Al Green and Associate Trainer Sue Stanley.

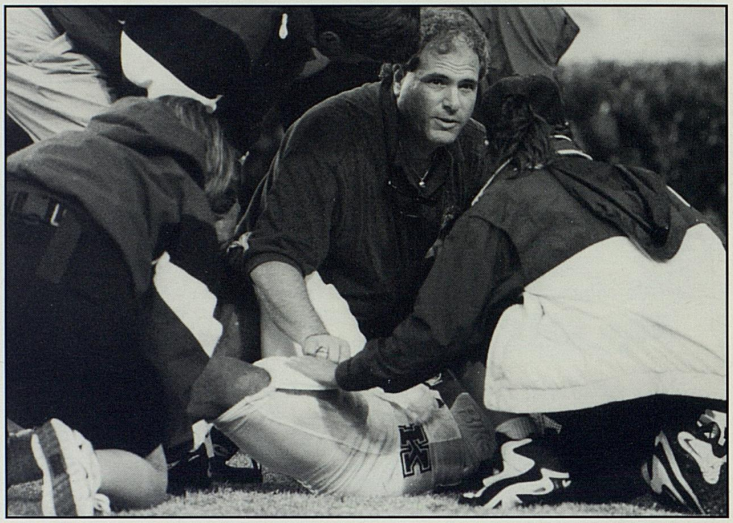

Green and Stanley direct a staff which includes five full-time trainers, four graduate assistants, and approximately 20 student assistants. The trainers work closely with UK's six team physicians, Dr. James Andrews, Dr. David Caborn, Dr. Kim Clawson, Dr. Mary Lloyd Ireland, Dr. John Perrine, and Dr. H. Spencer Turner. A variety of consultants covering every medical specialty are available, including a sports psychologist, Dr. Dennis Sprague. Altogether, the medical team handles the needs of athletes in 21 sports at UK.

"In today's collegiate athletics, our staff not only deals with on-the-field injuries but the various national health problems which society faces on an everyday basis," UK Coach Bill Curry says. "A collegiate football program must have not only a hard-working, qualified staff, but above all, they must be able to handle a variety of challenges.

"We are very fortunate to have a medical and training team which is superb. Our team physicians are the best I've been around on any level. Al (Green) and Sue (Stanley) are very advanced in the techniques required today and knowledgable in areas such as strength and conditioning, protective devices, substance abuse, and drug testing.

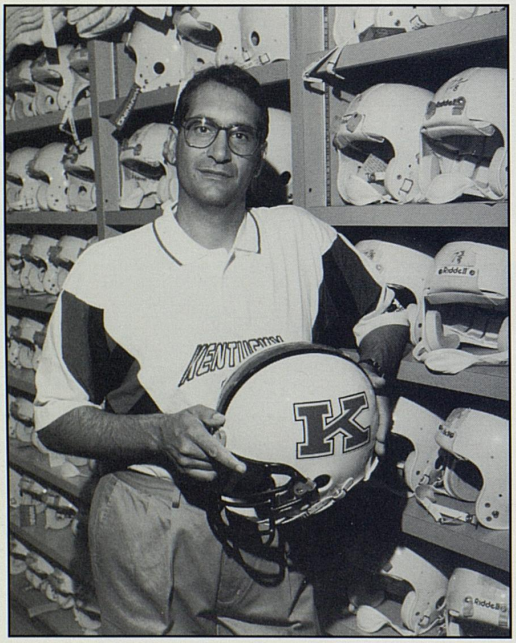

"Overall, our medical staff is outstanding from top to bottom."

The Nutter Center training room is also top-of-the-line. The training room covers more than 5,000 square feet and includes ample space for taping and treatment. Inside the training room is a modern rehabilitation area as well as physicians' and trainers' offices.

Trainer Al Green and staff, shown here evaluating a potential injury, coordinate the outstanding medical service received by the Wildcats.

Equipment

Equipment Manager Tom Kalinowski is known for his orderly equipment room.

The University of Kentucky football equipment room is under the able direction of veteran Equipment Manager Tom Kalinowski.

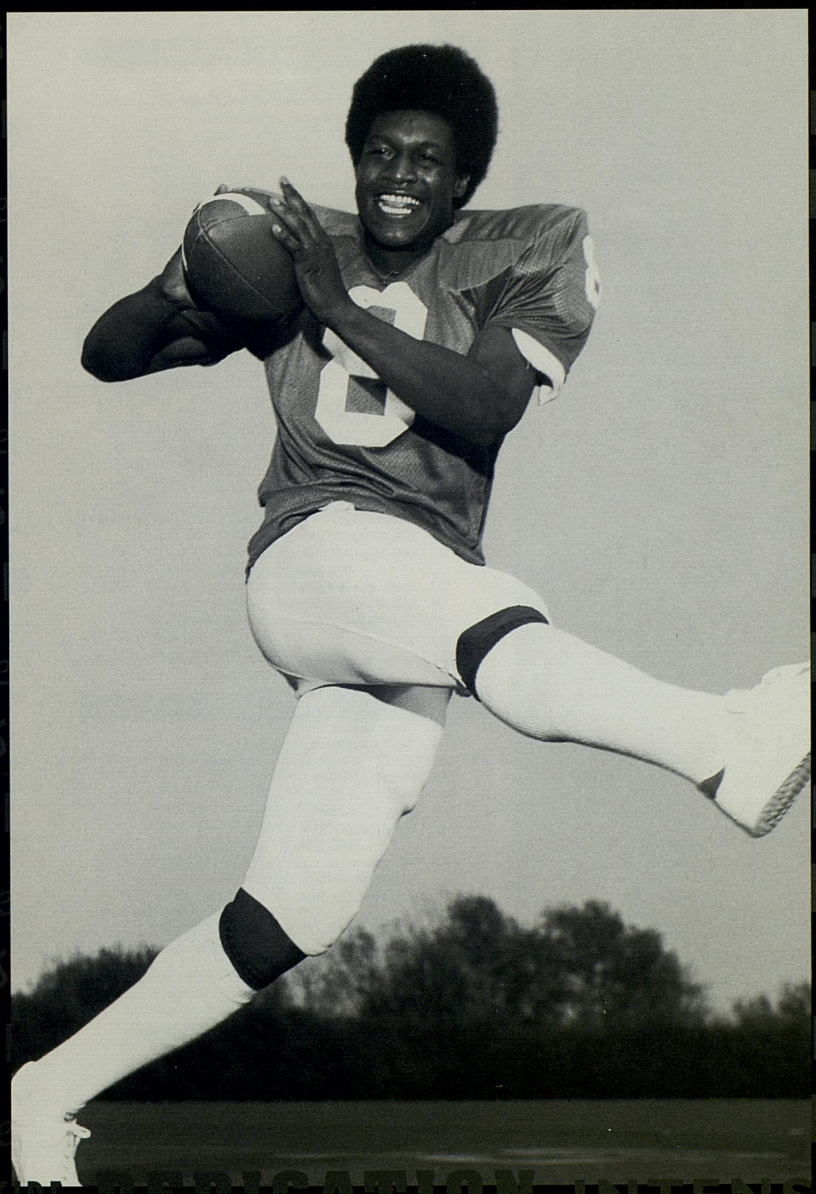

Kalinowski is in his 21st year at UK, including four years as a student manager and 17 years in his current role. Kalinowski and his staff of approximately 12 student managers are involved in the daily maintenance of the student-athletes' equipment.

Proper fitting of equipment is a key component of injury prevention, and Kalinowski personally fits each player with the appropriate equipment — helmet, shoulder pads, shoes, etc. — according to height, weight, and position.

In all, Kalinowski estimates that UK spends $2,100 per player on equipment, including practice gear and game gear. Kentucky spares no expense in making sure that each player is fitted with the most modern, up-to-date equipment available.

Maintenance, repair, and cleaning of equipment is also vital in the prevention of injury, and the UK staff performs those duties on a daily basis.

Ransdell Passes UK to Upset of Florida

BILL RANSDELL of Elizabethtown put on the most accurate aerial show in UK history by completing 20 of 23 passes (.869 pct.) for 161 yards as Kentucky upset Florida, 10-3, on Nov. 15, 1986, at Commonwealth Stadium . . . Ransdell helped the Wildcats utilize a ball-control passing game on this day as Kentucky held the football for 41 minutes . . . His 20 completions were spread among eight different UK receivers . . . Ransdell ended the contest strong, hitting on his last seven passing attempts.

UK Upsets No. 1 Ole Miss Behind Kestner

RICK KESTNER of Stone had the best day of any Kentucky receiver during his junior campaign in 1964 . . . Kestner hauled in nine passes for 185 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Wildcats to a 27-21 upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss at Mississippi Memorial Stadium in Jackson . . . In the third quarter, Kestner was on the receiving end of a 32-yard halfback pass from Rodger Bird to give UK a 13-7 lead . . . Kestner added two additional scores on tosses from QB Rick Norton (60 and 23) as the Wildcats rallied from 14-13 and 21-20 deficits late in the second half for the upset.

Bishop's Theft Gives UK Victory

DARRYL BISHOP of Louisville, whose final season was 1973, remains the UK leader in career interceptions with 14 . . . One of his most notable interceptions took place on Nov. 6, 1971, at Dudley Field in Nashville . . . With UK and Vanderbilt knotted at 7-7 and less than 50 seconds to play, Kentucky elected to punt facing a 4th-and-8 situation from its own 44 . . . Walter Overton made a fair catch at the Commodore 30, giving Vandy a first down . . . After QB Steve Burger lost four yards on the first play, the Commodores elected not to use a timeout . . . Then as time expired, Burger lofted a pass toward receiver Gary Chesley . . . The ball never got to Chesley as Bishop picked off the aerial and raced 43 yards for the winning score, giving UK a 14-7 victory on the game's final play.

When talk arises about sports in the Commonwealth of Kentucky, chances are the talk surrounds the University of Kentucky Wildcats.

The University of Kentucky will again package one of the most comprehensive radio and television networks among Division 1-A institutions. Both radio and television networks will blanket the Commonwealth and touch much of the nation.

Sports Communications, Inc., which owns the radio rights for UK football and basketball, expects to compile a radio network with approximately 90 stations. WVLK-AM/FM of Lexington will once again serve as the flagship station for the UK Football Radio Network. A feature attraction of the network is station WHAS (840 AM) of Louisville, which has a 50,000-watt clear channel signal.

Kentucky also participates in the College Football Association national television package carried by ABC-TV and ESPN. Kentucky had games selected for telecast by both ABC and ESPN last season and three games were carried by ESPN in 1993.

The Southeastern Conference has its own television package that is produced and regionally syndicated by Jefferson-Pilot Sports. Each league school has at least one appearance on JP Sports each season. The Wildcats' game at South Carolina on Sept. 23 already has been chosen by JP and other UK games might be picked as the season continues.

The UK Football Television Network features full-game, tape-delay action of all Wildcats home football games which are not televised by a network affiliated with the CFA package (ABC, ESPN or Jefferson-Pilot). The network is also one of the nation's largest and serves approximately 15 markets in and around the Commonwealth. Sports Communications, Inc., administers the network with WKYT-TV of Lexington as the telecasts' producer.

For the 1995 football season, the UK broadcast team will consist of eight members, including Ralph Hacker, Jeff Van Note, Dick Gabriel, Dave Baker, Rob Bromley, Tom Leach, Derrick Ramsey, and Mike Dodson.

Hacker, who attended Eastern Kentucky University, begins his fourth season as radio play-by-play announcer this fall and his 24th year overall on the UK Radio Network. He moved from color analyst to play-by-play duties three years ago, filling the void left by his long-time broadcast partner Cawood Ledford. Ledford stepped away from the microphone at the conclusion of the 1991-92 basketball season after 39 years of calling Wildcats football and basketball action.

Hacker, president and general manager of Lexington radio station WVLK AM/FM, hosts the Bill Curry pregame and postgame radio shows on game days. And for the past four years, Hacker has worked as co-host with Rob Bromley on the Bill Curry and Rick Pitino Television Shows.

In addition to his experience on the UK Radio and Television Networks, Hacker has ventured into network television in recent years. He has described football and basketball games for Jefferson-Pilot, ESPN, the NCAA, and CBS.

Both the Kentucky radio and delayed television broadcasts had new expert analysts in 1994. Former UK letterman Jeff Van Note (1966-68), who had an 18-year NFL career with the Atlanta Falcons, handles the analysis on radio. Derrick Ramsey, a first-team All-SEC quarterback in 1977 as a Wildcat senior, provides opinion and commentary on the delayed television broadcasts. Ramsey enjoyed a 10-year NFL career with the Oakland/Los Angeles Raiders (1978-83), New England (1983-85), and Detroit (1987). Both Van Note and Ramsey garnered good reviews in 1994, their first with the UK broadcasts.

Bromley is set for his seventh season as a member of the UK broadcast team and his 16th year, overall, on the UK Television Network.

Bromley has a change of assignment this year, moving from sideline reporter to the play-by-play announcer for the delayed TV broadcasts. He also has handled the analyst's role in the past. Once again, Bromley will serve as producer and co-host of the Bill Curry and Rick Pitino Television Shows.

Rob has been a member of the WKYT-TV sports staff for 18 years, including the past 15 as sports anchor. Bromley is a graduate of Butler University of Indianapolis and worked as a sports anchor in Lima, Ohio, prior to joining the WKYT-TV staff in 1977.

Baker, a native of Franklin, Ohio, begins his seventh year on the UK broadcast team. He will be involved with the programming of "Countdown to Kickoff," the one and one-half hour pregame radio show.

Baker has spent 13 years on the sports staff at WKYT-TV in Lexington. He began at WKYT-TV in 1982 following his graduation from Georgetown (Ky.) College. He was named WKYT's weekend anchor in 1984 and played an instrumental part in the founding of his station's "Sports Spectrum," a 20-minute comprehensive sports show on Saturday evenings. Sports Spectrum has been named best sports program in Kentucky by the Associated Press on two occasions — 1988 and 1989.

Gabriel, a 1978 graduate of Kentucky, enters his seventh year as a member of the UK broadcast team. This year he returns to the dual capacity of sideline reporter for both the UK Radio and Television Networks, an intriguing task he has handled during the 1992-93 seasons. Previously, he spent four years (1989-91, 1994) on the broadcast team as sideline reporter solely for the UK Radio Network.

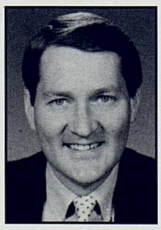

Gabriel, sports manager for WKYT-TV the past nine years, came to Lexington from Dallas, Texas, where he was executive producer of Host Communications' Southwest Conference Football Radio Network.

As a student at UK, Gabriel was named the Outstanding Journalism Graduate in 1978. He called play-by-play for Wildcats football and basketball games on student radio station WBKY and served as sports editor for the Kentucky Kernel, UK's student newspaper. Following graduation, he served as sports director for WVLK AM/FM in Lexington.

Leach, a 1983 graduate of Kentucky, begins his seventh season as a member of the UK broadcast team. He anchors the halftime and postgame scoreboard shows on the UK Radio Network. Leach also serves as host of the popular postgame radio call-in show, "Wildcats Sportsline."

Leach currently serves as news/sports director for radio station WVLK-AM/FM in Lexington. He began as news/sports reporter for WVLK in 1984. Leach, a native of Paris, Ky., is a three-time winner of the Associated Press "Best Sports Program" award.

Dodson enters his fourth year as a member of the UK broadcast team. Dodson, director of broadcast operations of the UK Radio and Television Networks, is the technical engineer for all game-day Wildcats football and basketball broadcasts.

"My Old Kentucky Home"

LEXINGTON

This is a place where the past and present meet and mesh gracefully.

Where downtown skyscrapers overlook thousands of acres of lush pastures, home to Kentucky's most loved resource - the horse.

This is Lexington, home of the University of Kentucky.

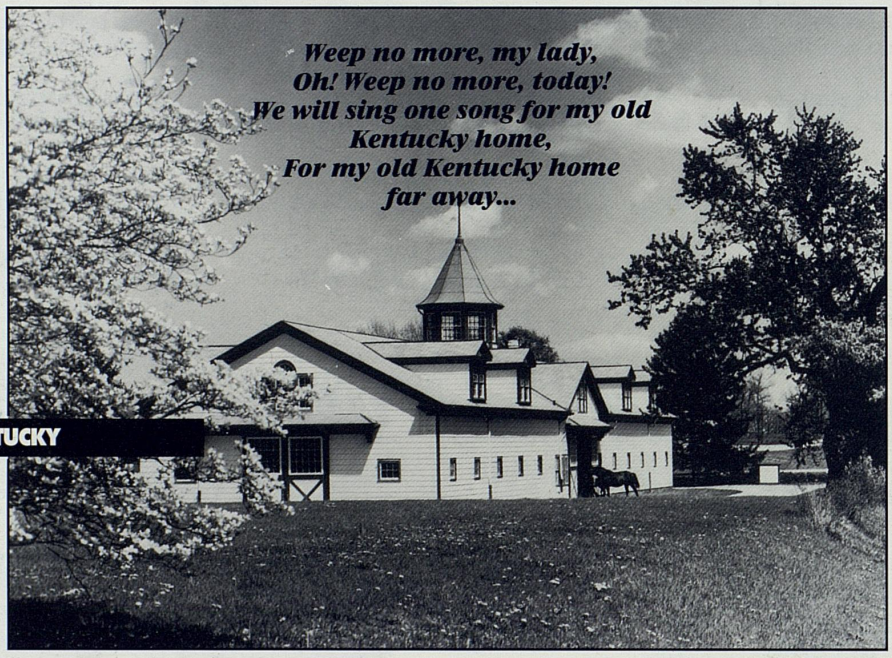

Lexington is a beautiful city. John O. Simonds, a nationally-known landscape architect and the author of several books on land use, calls the Bluegrass area a "national treasure. The Bluegrass area is superlative countryside." Lexington is the heart of the Bluegrass, the metropolitan shopping, commercial and entertainment hub of eastern Kentucky.

Lexington has all the attractive qualities of a major metropolitan area, but it is small...and there is an overlay of what can be described as Blue Grass tradition to go along with such major companies as IBM, Lexmark, Ashland Oil (Valvoline), Long John Silvers, Toyota and many other nationally known firms that have major plants or headquarters in the area.

With a population of around 225,000, Lexington is small enough to provide the perfect college atmosphere for the University of Kentucky. But it is also large enough to offer the cultural opportunities usually reserved for larger cities.

The city offers UK students much in the way of entertainment: a Philharmonic Orchestra, Chamber Music Society, the Lexington Singers, a Council of the Arts, and a local Ballet Company. Movie theaters, international restaurants, coffee-houses, top-ranked acts of all types at fabulous Rupp Arena in the Lexington Center, historical landmarks, parks, thoroughbred and harness racing, fine fishing in lakes, ponds, and streams, and the internationally famous Kentucky Horse Park, all in easy distance of the UK campus, are just a few attractions of Lexington and the University of Kentucky.

A recent statewide poll indicated that the Lexington area is the most popular place to live, work and play in Kentucky.

KENTUCKY

"If these United States can be called a body... then Kentucky can be called its heart." —
Jesse Stuart

Though the above words were written by one of Kentucky's favorite sons, any one of the millions of visitors to the Bluegrass State each year might nod in agreement.

Kentucky embodies the very essence of America, from majestic mountains and forests to vast sparkling lakes, from rolling acres of farm and pastureland to the hustle and bustle of metropolitan centers. And around every turn in the road, Kentucky's colorful past, which helped shape our country's character, is preserved and maintained for all to enjoy. The result is a state so diverse in travel and recreational opportunities that one is hard pressed to name its equal.

If asked to describe Kentucky, the first word to come to mind would probably be horses. The Bluegrass region of central Kentucky is internationally recognized as the Horse Capital of the World. Lexington, in the heart of the Bluegrass, preserves the romantic tradition of the horse farms and is the hub of the multi-billion dollar horse industry.

Kentucky is also a land steeped in the rich history of our nation. Legendary pioneer Daniel Boone laid out Kentucky's second settlement at Fort Boonesborough, and nearby, a hundred years later, the Shaker religious sect prospered at picturesque Shaker Village of Pleasant Hill.

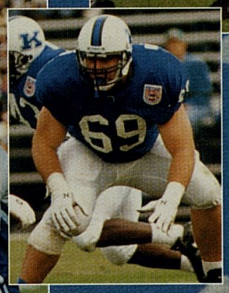

Abraham Lincoln was born in Hodgenville (the one-room cabin is part of a National Historic Site). The plantation home that inspired Stephen Foster to write "My Old Kentucky Home" still stands at a state park of the same name. And the region that 200 years ago gave birth to one of Kentucky's most famous exports — bourbon whiskey — is dotted with world-famous distilleries.

KENTUCKY FACTS: Kentucky is one of only four states in the nation designated as a commonwealth... The state capital is Frankfort...Kentucky has 40,395 square miles of land...Population of the state is 3,728,000...The three largest cities in the state are Louisville, Lexington and Owensboro...The state bird is the cardinal... The state song is "My Old Kentucky Home"... The state flower is the goldenrod...The state tree is the Kentucky Coffee tree...Kentucky has more miles of running water than any other state except Alaska...Kentucky has 44 state parks which annually draws 15.8 million visitors... Kentucky has the world's longest known cave system — Mammoth Cave — with over 300 miles of mapped passageways.
