TRENT DiGIURO

July 20, 1973 - July 17, 1994

The 1994 Wildcats football media guide is dedicated to the memory of this outstanding young man whose life tragically ended much too soon. The son of Mike and Ann DiGiuro, Trent remains a member of our team and a member of the Wildcats football family.

"We all loved Trent, and we will miss him terribly in every way."

THE 1994 EDITION of the University of Kentucky Football Media Guide is a comprehensive source of information for media covering the Wildcats. Additional information or photos can be obtained by calling UK Media Relations at (606) 257-3838.

DAILY/WEEKLY SERVICES

MONDAY PRESS CONFERENCE

University of Kentucky Coach Bill Curry will conduct a weekly press conference each Monday during the 1994 football season. The press conferences will be conducted in the Wildcat Den at Commonwealth Stadium. Media members please enter the UK Football Office complex to access the Wildcat Den at Gate Three of Commonwealth Stadium.

The opposing coach will be available via telephone hook-up. Selected Wildcats football players will be available at the press conferences.

The weekly press conferences will begin on Monday, Aug. 29. Press conferences conclude on Nov. 14. No press conference is scheduled for Oct. 3, which is the Monday prior to UK's open date.

The press conference schedule is as follows — lunch is set from 11:30 a.m. to Noon; Curry press conference from Noon to 12:30 p.m.; UK player interviews from 12:30 p.m. to 1 p.m.

SUNDAY TELECONFERENCE

UK Coach Bill Curry will again conduct a weekly Sunday teleconference following Wildcats football games. The teleconferences are 20 minutes in length and begin at 3 p.m. ET.

Media members can participate in the teleconference by dialing a MEDIA ONLY telephone number which can be obtained from the UK Media Relations Office. The Sunday teleconferences will begin on Sept. 4 and run through Nov. 20. No teleconference is planned for Oct. 9, the week of UK's open date.

The teleconference is broadcast quality. Please contact the UK Media Relations Office (606) 257-3838 for further information.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE SERVICES

The Southeastern Conference Media Relations Office, headed by assistant commissioner Mark Whitworth, offers a variety of services to the media throughout the academic calendar year.

Statistics and league standings are available to the media on a 24-hour bulletin board. Media members can access the bulletin board via computer by a telephone hook-up. For parameters and further information, contact the SEC Media Relations Office at (205) 458-3010.

All SEC head football coaches are available each Wednesday via a teleconference. Each coach is given a period of five-to-10 minutes to address media questions about his upcoming football game. The starting date and telephone number will be available to the media by contacting the SEC Media Relations Office.

Video highlights by satellite are offered on a weekly basis through the SEC Communications Office. A 30-minute satellite feed, which includes player interviews and highlights, is available to television stations each Wednesday morning. For further information, contact the SEC Communications Staff.

WILDCATS PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews must be coordinated through the UK Media Relations Office. Players are available to the media during game week, Monday through Wednesday. The best times to conduct interviews with the players are during the lunch hour or following practice. Interviews will be conducted at the Nutter Football Training Center or by telephone. On game days, interviews will only be granted after the conclusion of the contest.

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a "call-back" basis only. Individual player telephone numbers WILL NOT be given to members of the media. Players are instructed NOT to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The UK Media Relations Office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete. Generally, the UK Media Relations Office has found the most convenient time for call-backs on telephone interviews is between 6 and 7 p.m. ET.

The Kirwan I dormitory, the Donovan Hall dining area, team locker rooms and team training rooms are considered private team areas. These areas are OFF-LIMITS to the media unless accompanied by UK Media Relations Office personnel.

FOOTBALL PRACTICE

Kentucky football practices will be open to the media during the 1994 season.

Media members should contact the UK Media Relations Office for practice times. Please call (606) 257-3838 for practice information.

GAME SERVICES

PRESS BOX

Credentials for working media and photographers for Kentucky's home football games should be directed to Rena Vicini, Assistant AD/Media Relations.

Requests for media credentials — season or single-game — should be submitted in writing by sports editors or sports directors of accredited media outlets on company letterhead. Requests for season passes should be submitted no later than August 21. Requests for single games should arrive at the UK Media Relations Office at least one week in advance.

The University of Kentucky follows guidelines set by the NCAA and the Southeastern Conference in issuing credentials. The UK Media Relations Office attempts to fill each accredited media request.

Season credentials will be granted only to daily newspapers, radio stations, and television stations that cover the UK Football Program on a regular basis — i.e., weekly press conferences and all home games. Because of limited space, season credentials to radio stations will be limited to one per station (sports director).

All credential requests should be sent to: Rena Vicini, Assistant AD/Media Relations, UK Media Relations Office, Memorial Coliseum, Lexington, KY 40506.

Admission to the Commonwealth Stadium sidelines is by a combination of photo pass and wristband. Photographers must sign in and present their credential at the UK Press Will Call table, located inside Gate Seven of Commonwealth Stadium, to obtain an armband.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking at Commonwealth Stadium is available on a limited basis. Requests for parking should be made when submitting press and/or photo credentials. The media parking area is located in the Blue Lot just behind the West side (Alumni Drive) of Commonwealth Stadium. The Blue Lot is accessible via Alumni Drive.

PRESS BOX

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is for working media members ONLY. It is located on the West side (Alumni Drive) of Commonwealth Stadium between the upper and lower grandstands. The media entrance to Commonwealth Stadium is Gate Seven. Two press box elevators are located just to the left of the Gate Seven entrance.

The photo deck, radio booths, television booths, coaches booths, and VIP booths are located on the press box level of Commonwealth Stadium. All can be accessed via the press box elevator.

MEDIA WILL CALL

Media or photo credentials which have not been mailed can be obtained at the Media Will Call table, located just inside Gate Seven of Commonwealth Stadium. Media Will Call opens two hours prior to kickoff and closes 15 minutes following kickoff.

TELEPHONES

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is equipped with eight courtesy telephones with long-distance capabilities for use by the media on a first-come, first-served basis. The UK Media Relations Office strongly suggests each media outlet with deadline restrictions should order its own individual telephone line. Members of the media wishing to order phone lines can do so by contacting John Fuller of the UK Phone Services Department. His telephone number is (606) 257-7727. Please order phone lines at least one week in advance.

DARKROOM FACILITIES

Limited darkroom facilities are available in the Commonwealth Stadium press box. Photographers wishing to use the darkroom facilities should make arrangements with Tony Neely of the UK Media Relations Offices at (606) 257-3838.

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is located between the upper and lower grandstands on the West side.

VISITING RADIO

The official visiting radio broadcast network should be designated in writing by the visiting team's sports information director or athletics director. Four phone lines will be made available, including two in the locker room area, at a cost to be determined by Mike Dodson of Host Communications (606) 226-4678.

Networks wishing to install additional telephone lines, either in the press box booth or locker room, can do so by contacting John Fuller of the UK Phone Services Department at (606) 257-7727.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

UK Coach Bill Curry will conduct his postgame press conference in the Wildcat Den, located under the East grandstand in the UK Football Office complex. Curry begins his postgame press conference approximately 15 minutes following the conclusion of the contest. The media entrance to the Wildcat Den is located in the northeast corner (nearest flagpole) of Commonwealth Stadium.

The Kentucky locker room is CLOSED to all members of the media. UK players requested for interviews are brought to the Wildcat Den following the conclusion of Curry's press conference. Interview cards are distributed in the press box during the second half of the contest in order for members of the media to request Wildcats players.

The visitors' locker room is located at the northwest corner of Commonwealth Stadium. A press conference area is located just outside the visitors' locker room entrance. The visiting coach and players generally conduct their respective post-game comments from that area.

PRESS SERVICES

The UK Media Relations Office will provide a complete pregame packet (including facts sheets, flip card, and game program) approximately 30 minutes prior to kickoff. A complete running play-by-play, drive charts and team and individual statistics are made available at the conclusion of the contest. Quotes from coaches and players of both teams are also provided.

A FAX service is also available. FAX request forms will be issued during the second half to media members requesting them.

The Outlook

Cats Go For Back-To-Back Winning Seasons

Rome wasn't built in a day, and neither is a Division I-A college football program.

But there's no question that the 1994 University of Kentucky Wildcats are standing on a firmer foundation, thanks to the success of their immediate predecessors.

Kentucky compiled a 6-5 regular-season record in 1993, finished fourth overall in the Southeastern Conference, and played in the Peach Bowl, the school's first postseason appearance since 1984.

The success could have been greater. Four games were lost by less than a touchdown.

What is it going to take to win those close games and construct consecutive winning seasons for the first time since 1983-84?

In a word . . . toughness:

—the toughness to overcome the loss of 16 players who started five-or-more games a year ago;

—the toughness to overcome a sobering schedule. Six Wildcat opponents won at least eight games last year;

—the toughness to overcome the raised expectations of opponents. In 1994, Kentucky will be viewed with greater respect as a team that played in a bowl last year; —the toughness to overcome the opponent when the game hangs in the balance.

"Last season made a very clear impression on anybody who is thoughtful and looks at these kinds of things," said Coach Bill Curry. "And what last season said is that we've gotten closer than most people imagined we could.

"But when it came down to the moment of truth we were not confident enough. So what we have done and will continue to do is build that toughness. It is time for us to grow up and believe in ourselves, and when we do that, then we will make those plays in the fourth quarter to win those games."

Fortunately for Curry and the Cats, a number of resources are available.

Ten players return who started at least five games last season. That's among a total of 48 returning lettermen.

The 1994 team appears to be the most athletic of Curry's five Kentucky squads.

Despite the team's relative youth, Curry believes that Strength Coach Mike Florence has the team strong enough to compete in the SEC.

And there's good continuity among the assistant coaches. The staff returns intact after three new assistants came on board a year ago.

Among the new assistants in 1993 was defensive coordinator Mike Archer, whose enthusiasm helped spark the Wildcats to a new level of hard-nosed, aggressive play. Archer's expertise and enthusiasm should again be invaluable in 1994. He has numerous holes to fill, including the sizeable gaps left by the graduation of All-SEC linebacker Marty Moore and All-SEC strong safety Marcus Jenkins. Six sophomores are in the tentative starting lineup entering fall practice. Fortunately, the 22 returning defensive lettermen are well-distributed among the various positions.

Experience also will be a premium on offense, as coordinator Daryl Dickey must find a new quarterback, decide among a new set of receivers, and rebuild the offensive line. Dual-sport star Pookie Jones, a three-year starter at quarterback, has taken his talents to professional baseball. A quartet of talented but inexperienced QBs are vying for the position.

The new quarterback may be throwing the ball more. Dickey has installed additional variations of Kentucky's Stack-I offense with the intention of beefing up the passing game.

The Wildcat running attack, which ranked 24th nationally last season with more than 200 yards per game, could be solid again. Sophomore halfback Moe Williams is the SEC's leading returning rusher after gaining 928 yards last season. Fellow sophomore Donnell Gordon showed plenty of ability last year as Williams' understudy at halfback. Daymon Carter, a junior college All-American, hopes to quickly establish himself in the SEC. Steady fullback Damon Hood provides blocking power and tough yardage up the middle.

Any offense goes only as far as the line will take it, and for the second year in a row, Kentucky must replace four starters from the forward wall. The few veterans, such as tackle Mark Askin, tackle Aaron Purdie, and guard Barry Jones, must lead an unproven group of hopefuls in the line.

Kentucky will be challenged by one of the most ambitious schedules in school history. The slate features six opponents that won eight-or-more games last season. The young team has five games in the month of September against a crew of opponents that totaled a 43-16 record a year ago.

Indeed, the foundation is being built, and the 1994 Wildcats will need every bit of toughness they can muster in order to keep the construction progressing.

Kentucky Offensive Coaching Staff

Daryl Dickey - Coordinator/Quarterbacks
Ray Dorr - Running Backs
Tommy Limbaugh - Asst. Head Coach/ Tight Ends/Recruiting Coordinator
Joker Phillips - Receivers
Don Riley - Offensive Line
Mike Griffiths - Graduate Assistant

Kentucky's 1994 offensive scheme will change significantly from 1993 as the Wildcats plan to balance their attack with more passing, as they did in the Peach Bowl ... However, Kentucky has a backfield that includes two of the best young running backs in the SEC, a senior fullback and a junior college standout, so don't look for the Cats to abandon the running game ... UK will return to the Stack-I as its base formation and add multiple sets to enhance the passing game ... UK's rushing attack, which ranked 24th nationally last season and finished third in the conference, features the SEC's leading returning rusher in Moe Williams ... The offense returns 23 lettermen, including five who started at least five games for the Wildcats ... Below is a glance at the 1994 Kentucky offense with comments from offensive coordinator Daryl Dickey.

Dickey . . .

"The biggest and most drastic improvement we have to make is in the passing game. We must be able to throw the football to create balance in our offense. We would like to maintain the rushing yardage from last year, 210.5 yards a game, and increase the passing yardage 100 percent. We want to average 200 yards passing and 200 yards rushing next season. If you look at the people who are winning consistently in our conference, you'll find that they are averaging 400 yards on offense.

"The Peach Bowl, because of the time we had to prepare for it, gave us some opportunities to explore some avenues that would lead into the 1994 season. Some of the things that we did in the Peach Bowl proved to be very successful and sound schemes. Some of those schemes you'll see this year and some you won't see. We anticipate having a wide-open offense. Is it the Peach Bowl offense? I don't know. It will vary from game-to-game based on our opponent."

SPLIT END

3	Randy Wyatt	5-10	175	Sr-1L
9	Jaysuma Simms	6-0	175	So-1L
6	Kio Sanford	5-11	170	Fr-RS
23	Donnie Redd	5-7	178	Sr-3L

The Wildcats face the unenviable task of replacing four of their top five receivers, including the popular "Mighty Mites" receiving corps of Mark Chatmon, Tim Calvert and Troy Hobbs ... Senior Randy Wyatt, who saw some action last season in the Wildcats backfield, moves exclusively outside this season ... Wyatt's breakaway speed and athletic ability make him a threat every time he touches the ball ... Wyatt is the squad's top returning receiver with 13 catches for 64 yards ... Sophomore Jaysuma Simms started one game last season and caught two passes for 50 yards ... He added 22 yards rushing on two reverses ... Redshirt freshman Kio Sanford is a promising young receiver who made a name for himself on the scout team last year ... After a solid spring, he has positioned himself to see plenty of action ... Senior Donnie Redd has moved to split end for his senior season because of the talented stable of UK running backs ... Redd was second on the squad during spring drills with eight catches for 99 yards.

FLANKER

13	Leon Smith	5-10	176	Jr-1L
27	Clyde Rudolph	5-7	173	Sr-3L
91	Jebron Farah	5-11	172	Jr-Sq
84	Mark Mason	5-10	165	Fr-RS

Junior Leon Smith and senior Clyde Rudolph lead a talented group of flankers ... Smith earned his first letter as the long snapper in 1993 but will see most of his action at flanker in '94 ... He caught two passes for 48 yards and a TD during spring drills ... Rudolph, a five-time track All-American, is probably the fastest Wildcat and the best deep threat ... He caught only two passes in '93 but one was a 44-yarder against Georgia ... Junior Jebron Farah and redshirt freshman Mark Mason made progress during the spring.

Dickey . . .

"We're not quite as experienced in this position as we were last year, but I think our talent level has improved. Randy Wyatt and Kio Sanford are tremendous talents and will be with this group full-time. Clyde Rudolph is a world-class sprinter, Jaysuma Simms is a durable player who saw action last year, Donnie Redd will add depth this year, and Leon Smith is starting to come into his own. We have a good group of players."

TACKLE

76	Mark Askin	6-5	293	Sr-3L
72	Aaron Purdie	6-5	280	Sr-3L
71	Rob Reynolds	6-6	300	Fr-RS
60	Scott Crosley	6-3	265	Jr-1L
62	Quincy Murdock	6-1	277	So-Sq
73	Cliff Bailey	6-4	280	Fr-RS

The Wildcats offensive line lost four starters from a year ago, including junior Chris Page, who was forced to give up football after a degenerative disc was discovered in his back ... Senior Mark Askin is the most experienced lineman returning, having started every game the last two seasons at right tackle ... Aaron Purdie, started five games, including the Peach Bowl, at left tackle last year ... Purdie now has completed a full year at offensive tackle, after moving over from defense during the spring of '93 ... Redshirt freshman Rob Reynolds has the size and ability to be a standout tackle in the SEC if he continues to get quicker ... Other capable players include junior Scott Crosley, who missed the entire spring season with an injury, sophomore Quincy Murdock and redshirt freshman Cliff Bailey.

GUARD

69	Barry Jones	6-5	286	Jr-2L
65	John Schlarman	6-2	281	Fr-RS
66	Andy Britt	6-4	270	Jr-2L
78	J.D. Reed	6-1	241	Fr-RS
75	Brandon Jackson	6-4	315	Fr-RS

Barry Jones is the most experienced player returning at guard ... Jones, who has two years of playing experience, was No. 1 on the depth chart last fall before an injury sidelined him ... He returned after the first game and spelled the starters the rest of the way ... Redshirt freshman John Schlarman earned UK's Outstanding Offensive Scout Team honor last fall after switching from defensive tackle ... Schlarman could fight his way into a starting position ... Junior Andy Britt was expected to start in '94 but tore his ACL during the spring and is rehabilitating ... Redshirt freshmen J.D. Reed and Brandon Jackson are quality guards who need experience.

CENTER

57	Dan Caruthers	6-3	253	Sr-1L
63	Adam Kane	6-4	264	So-Sq
61	DeAnthony Honaker	6-1	286	So-Sq

Speedy flanker Clyde Rudolph is a five-time track All-American.

1994 Kentucky Wildcats Football

Senior Dan Caruthers, who started a game last season and saw action in five, heads the list of candidates to replace graduated center Wes Jackson ... Sophomore Adam Kane, a transfer from Notre Dame, must stay healthy to fight for the starting job because back problems have kept him from needed practice time ... Sophomore DeAnthony Honaker gained valuable experience during spring drills.

Dickey . . .

"The offensive line is our biggest challenge at this point. We have to find eight, maybe nine, guys who are going to be able to compete in the Southeastern Conference every week. We have three guys who have played a lot — Aaron Purdie, Mark Askin and Barry Jones. Dan Caruthers did not see significant playing time but should be considered a veteran. So after these four, we have to come up with five other players who are going to be able to compete at our level and be a solid unit.

"For our incoming freshmen to come in and help on the line right away would be a bonus. We signed some tremendous talent, but the hardest thing for a lineman to do is to come out of high school and be able to play immediately. Hopefully we can add some depth with a few of them."

TIGHT END

89	Corey Reeves	6-3	239	Sr-3L
82	Chris Davis	6-7	273	So-1L
88	Darrin Clark	6-5	241	Fr-RS

The Wildcats' all-time third-leading receiver and starting tight end Terry Samuels has graduated but senior Corey Reeves and sophomore Chris Davis remain ... Reeves saw action in every game last year, starting one, and caught two passes for 12 yards ... Davis didn't catch a pass last year, but did appear in 10 games ... Redshirt freshman Darrin Clark has the physical size and tools to make an impact.

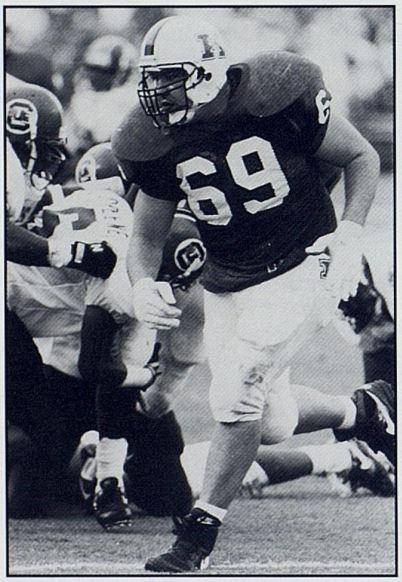

Dickey . . .

"We're excited about the tight end position. We're not quite as deep as we'd like to be but one of our incoming freshmen might be able to add depth. Corey Reeves is a three-year veteran who we expect to be a leader on the offense. Chris Davis is maturing now, trying to get stronger. And we also have Darrin Clark, another young player. We need some quality work out of this group."

QUARTERBACK

11	Jeff Speedy	6-2	186	So-1L
5	Antonio O'Ferral	5-10	180	Jr-2L
12	Matt Hobbie	5-11	180	Fr-RS
18	Billy Jack Haskins	6-1	190	Fr-RS

Pookie Jones, a three-year starter and Kentucky's second-ranked total offense leader of all time, has decided to forego his final football season after signing a major league baseball contract with the Colorado Rockies ... Sophomore Jeff Speedy and junior Antonio O'Ferral are bracketed at No. 1 entering fall camp, but coaches term the QB race "wide open" for redshirt freshmen Matt Hobbie and Billy Jack Haskins as well ... Speedy, who played in three games last season as UK's No. 3 QB, completed one pass for eight yards ... During the spring, he completed 17-of-40 passes for 124 yards and two TDs and was named UK's Most Improved Offensive Back ... Junior Antonio O'Ferral moved to free safety before spring drills but returned to QB soon after ... O'Ferral, who was the No. 2 QB last season, led UK to two come-from-behind victories (South Carolina and East Carolina) ... Hobbie spent last fall on the scout team, where he showed tremendous potential ... He connected on 16-of-34 passes for 109 yards and a TD during spring drills and showed exceptional scrambling ability ... Hobbie once again took time off during the summer to compete in minor league baseball for the Cleveland Indians ... Haskins, who missed almost the entire '93 season while rehabilitating from shoulder surgery, came back to complete 7-of-8 passes for 86 yards and a TD in the Blue-White Scrimmage.

Junior guard Barry Jones should be a leader on the young offensive line.

Dickey . . .

"We're going to have a very interesting battle when we start fall camp with four quarterbacks fighting for the position. Going into fall camp the QB position is wide open and we won't count anybody out. Everybody has a strength and everybody has a weakness at this point and it will depend on how much progress each has made over the summer. I think at this point the front-runners would be Jeff Speedy and Antonio O'Ferral. But all four candidates have a shot at playing in the Louisville game."

FULLBACK

31	Damon Hood	6-1	233	Sr-3L
21	Ray McLaurin	6-0	191	So-1L
43	Michael Woodfork	6-1	208	So-1L

Three-year starter Damon Hood returns at fullback for the Wildcats ... Hood, who missed most of the spring with a turf toe injury, was the Cats' second-leading rusher last season, gaining 367 yards on 93 carries ... He averaged 4.0 yards per carry and scored three TDs ... He also caught seven passes for 54 yards ... Sophomores Ray McLaurin and Michael Woodfork will back up Hood ... McLaurin carried the ball 19 times for 51 yards in '93 and added 45 yards on nine carries during the spring ... Woodfork appeared in every game last year backing up Hood ... He carried the ball 19 times for 57 yards.

HALFBACK

10	Moe Williams	6-2	205	So-1L
28	Donnell Gordon	5-10	194	So-1L
29	Daymon Carter	6-2	220	Jr-JC

The UK coaching staff has a talented stable of halfbacks with Moe Williams and Donnell Gordon, joined by Junior College All-America Daymon Carter ... Williams, the conference's leading returning ground gainer, became UK's all-time leading freshman rusher for a season (928 yards) and a game (159 yards) while also proving he can catch the ball out of the backfield ... His five TDs were second most on the squad ... Williams earned AP second-team All-SEC honors and was voted to the Knoxville News-Sentinel All-Freshman team ... Entering the fall he has earned preseason All-SEC honors from The Sporting News and the SEC Football Preview ... Gordon also played for UK as a true freshman ... He appeared in nine games and rushed for 89 yards on 14 carries ... Gordon also returned kicks for the Cats, averaging 17.7 yards a return ... Carter broke all City College of San Francisco rushing records after gaining 3,230 yards on 377 carries with 42 TDs ... He led his squad to a two-year record of 20-2.

Dickey . . .

"Going into fall camp this appears to be the most solid position, but we'll see how it develops. We obviously have a lot of talent in Moe Williams, Donnell Gordon, Daymon Carter, and Damon Hood, who is a three-year starter. Michael Woodfork will add some depth at the fullback position and we're excited about Ray McLaurin at fullback. We have some numbers and we have potential, but potential doesn't prove anything. We have to create a cohesive unit and get them out there.

"If we play an 80-play game then we want the halfback to touch the ball 55 to 60 percent of the time. If you're going to do that then you need three good ones, which means they're going have the ball 15-18 times each in a ball game. That's a lot of work for a halfback, but we're glad to have all three of ours and we're going to put them to use.

"We hope to at least maintain, if not improve, the running game numbers from last year — 210.5 yards a game, which was third in the conference. We would also like to have a 1,000-yard rusher this year. That is a big accomplishment and it says a lot about an offense when you can do that."

WINGBACK

85	Isaac Curtis, III	6-3	213	So-1L
38	Brent Brasher	6-2	185	Fr-RS

Sophomore Isaac Curtis, III should fill the void created by Alfonzo Browning's graduation ... He has comparable size and speed plus has a knack for getting open ... Curtis appeared in seven games last season ... Freshman Brent Brasher burst onto the scene during UK's spring practices ... Because of injuries to other players, Brasher saw a lot of action and capitalized with 134 yards rushing and three TDs on 35 carries.

Dickey . . .

"In addition to playing wingback, Isaac Curtis will be a flex tight end, which basically means he will be an additional receiver in a three-wide scheme. We are really excited about Isaac's potential and the growth he has made. He could make huge contributions this year."

KENTUCKY DEFENSIVE COACHING STAFF

Mike Archer - Coordinator/Linebackers
Bill Glaser - Defensive Line/ Special Teams Coordinator
Rick Smith - Defensive Backs
David Turner - Defensive Ends
Chip Beake - Graduate Assistant

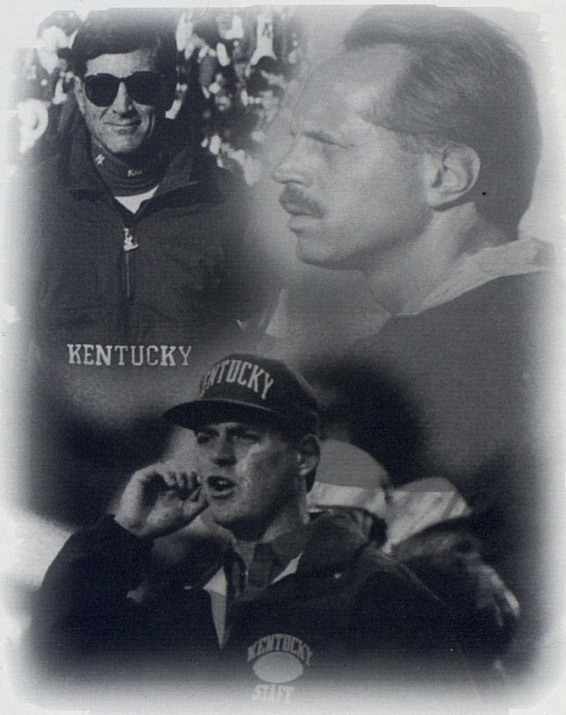

Kentucky's defense, under the direction of coordinator Mike Archer, improved from last in the conference in 1992 to seventh in the SEC and 37th nationally ... The 195 points Kentucky surrendered were the fewest since the 1987 squad gave up 189 ... And for the first time since 1987 and just the fourth time since 1965, UK recorded two shutouts ... The Wildcats finished second in the conference with 20 interceptions ... 22 lettermen return to the defense but only five were starters last year ... Below is a glance at the UK defense with comments from coordinator Mike Archer.

Archer . . .

"Going into the spring we had to replace eight starters, and from an experience standpoint, that is a big concern. From the standpoint of finding the best 11 players, we think we have that straightened out. Inexperience will be a factor, but we can't change that. We are trying to build things around Howard Carter, Robert Stinson and Melvin Johnson, who all started a bunch of games for us last year.

"Positives for us will be our athletic ability, retention of the system and our big-play capability.

"Once again we'll be in a base 4-3, but we put some new things in this spring. We're trying to take advantage of some of our people, such as

Donte' Key, Howard Carter and the defensive backs. There will be some new things added to the package. We'll do some things better than we did last year, like rushing the passer.

"This defense has an opportunity to be better than last year's defense. It's the players' second year in the system, and they have more athletic ability, speed and quickness. Whether we'll be better statistically, I don't know. But, I think we could be better as a defense. To me, the bottom line is whether you win or lose and I think we can win some games this year, defensively, with the big-play people we have."

DEFENSIVE END

54	Kurt Supe	6-3	240	So-1L
55	Jeff Tanner	6-2	240	So-1L
92	Robert Harris	6-4	247	Sr-1L
53	Howard Carter, Jr.	6-4	245	Sr-2L
47	Chris Ward	6-4	248	So-1L
51	Kareem Dailey	6-3	236	Fr-RS

Defensive end should be a strong position for the Wildcats even though standout Zane Beehn has graduated to the NFL ... Four players return with experience, including Howard Carter, Jr., Chris Ward, Kurt Supe and Jeff Tanner ... Carter, a senior, missed the spring to recover from shoulder surgery, but could be one of the top ends in the SEC ... Ward, Supe and Tanner are sophomores who earned plenty of experience in '93 ... Ward tallied 12 tackles last year with one sack and another TFL while both Supe and Tanner had excellent springs ... Supe was awarded the Defensive Make-A-Difference Award during the spring ... Robert Harris, who was a tight end in '92, returns to the Wildcats after missing the 1993 season to concentrate on academics ... Harris' pass-rushing ability has impressed coaches ... Redshirt freshman Kareem Dailey has moved to end from the linebacker slot.

Archer -

"We will miss Zane Beehn because late in the year Zane took his game to a different level. The bigger the game, the better Zane played. We're hopeful Howard Carter will become that guy. Howard did not practice in the spring but we are counting on him being healthy. He has played a lot of football and has great talent. We feel good enough about the end position that we moved Mike Schlegel inside to play tackle, which was a critical move for us. Jeff Tanner had a great spring and he does some things with his pass rush that will help us. Robert Harris has the body and the skills to be a good player. Chris Ward and Kurt Supe, both sophomores, played a lot of football for us last year. We have some numbers to work with and we have a returning starter in Howard Carter who will provide leadership for us."

DEFENSIVE TACKLE

97	Mike Schlegel	6-5	251	Jr-2L
98	Roger Sullivan	6-4	277	Sr-3L
94	Robert Stinson	6-4	283	Sr-3L
91	Bill Verdonk	6-3	240	Fr-RS
68	Thad Corbin	6-3	245	Fr-RS

Replacing Jon Collins, who finished sixth on the team in tackles despite missing the last two games, and Billy Lofton will be a tough task ... Having Robert Stinson, Roger Sullivan and Mike Schlegel back makes it a lot easier ... Stinson started seven games last year, tallying 34 tackles, a sack and two TFLs ... Sullivan recorded 17 stops in '93 with two TFLs and Schlegel moved to tackle for the Peach Bowl and looked like a natural there ... His quickness should help the Wildcats' pass rush ... Redshirt freshmen Bill Verdonk and Thad Corbin will add needed depth.

Archer . . .

"Robert Stinson, Roger Sullivan and Mike Schlegel will be counted on to play a lot but we need to develop a fourth and fifth tackle. Right now it's going to be one of the two walk-ons, Bill Verdonk or Thad Corbin. Mike Schlegel gives us an element inside that we did not have. With his height and quickness he should be able to put pressure on a quarterback from inside. Jon Collins played tremendously for us last year, but with his height he wasn't a factor in the passing lanes. Schlegel, at 6-5, Sullivan, who has done a great job in the weight room, and Stinson, who is a blue-collar guy who has played a lot of football for us, will be big factors."

BUCK LINEBACKER

87	Donte' Key	6-3	220	Jr-2L
48	David Snardon	6-2	229	Jr-2L
44	David Ginn	6-5	205	Fr-RS

Junior Donte' Key has spent time the last two seasons at linebacker and end and the coaches have settled on his potential at linebacker ... In '93, Key tallied 24 tackles with a tackle-for-loss and a pass deflection ... His speed and agility give UK's defense another "big play" threat ... Junior David Snardon has nine career starts and will battle Key for starting honors ... Snardon was slowed last season by nagging injuries after an outstanding freshman campaign ... He finished with 33 tackles and an interception ... Redshirt freshman David Ginn missed almost the entire '93 season rehabilitating a shoulder injury ... He did return for spring drills but still needs experience.

MIKE LINEBACKER

56	Matt Neuss	6-2	223	Jr-1L
58	Mike Schellenberger	6-0	237	So-1L
50	Chad Hudson	6-3	240	Fr-RS
37	Shane Ball	6-4	210	Sr-1L

Three-year starter and first-team All-SEC linebacker Marty Moore has left for the NFL, leaving junior Matt Neuss and sophomore Mike Schellenberger to fight for the right to replace him ... Neuss appeared in seven games last season before suffering a season-ending knee injury against Georgia ... He recovered well enough after surgery to compete in contact drills during the spring ... Schellenberger appeared in every game last year and logged plenty of minutes as a backup ... Redshirt freshman Chad Hudson and senior Shane Ball will fight for playing time.

WILL LINEBACKER

42	Eric Wright	5-8	202	So-1L
32	James Tucker	6-2	213	Jr-2L

Sophomore Eric Wright and junior James Tucker will see most of the playing time at Will linebacker ... Wright logged valuable minutes at linebacker last season, where he recorded 26 tackles, two sacks and four TFLs ... His quickness enabled him to make some outstanding plays behind the line of scrimmage ... Tucker earned UK's Outstanding Special Teams Award in 1993 and his play was inspiring during the spring when he was third on the squad with 19 tackles.

Archer . . .

"The three linebackers going into preseason camp will be Donte' Key at Buck, Eric Wright at Will and Matt Neuss, with the understanding that his knee is completely healed, at Mike. Backups will be David Snardon at Buck, Mike Schellenberger at Mike and James Tucker at Will. This group is a little less experienced but has more depth, athletic ability and speed. We will be a little inexperienced early, but Key, Wright, Neuss, Schellenberger and Snardon have all played a lot for us, if not as starters, as backups."

Junior linebacker David Snardon hopes to overcome the injuries that hampered his '93 campaign.

CORNERS

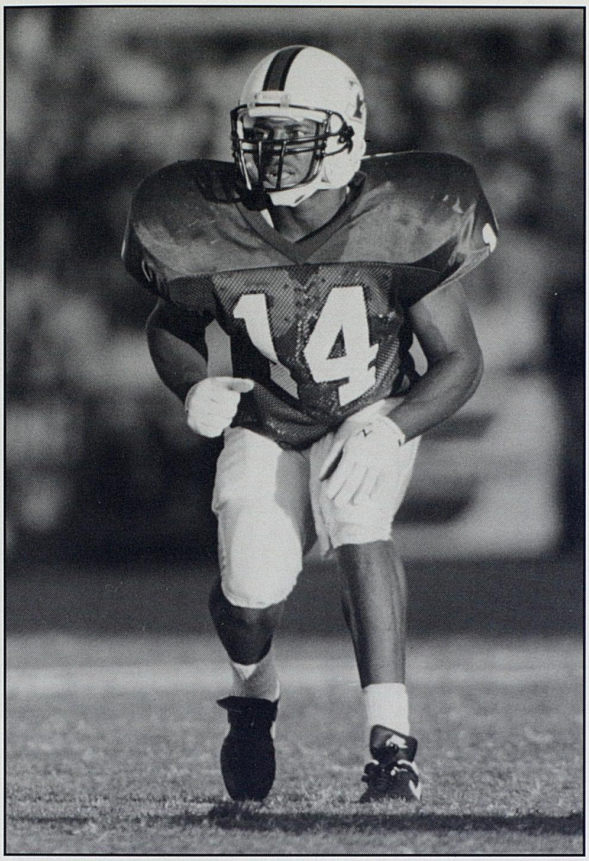

14	Steven Hall	6-1	208	Jr-3L
17	Van Hiles	6-0	175	So-1L
1	Kiyo Wilson	5-11	195	So-1L
4	Littleton Ward	5-9	162	Fr-RS
20	Carlos Collins	6-0	196	Jr-2L
2	Reggie Rusk	6-2	190	Jr-JC

Willie Cannon, Don Robinson and Adrian Sherwood, who had started a combined 60 games and had 11 letters between them, are gone ... Junior Steven Hall and sophomores Van Hiles and Kiyo Wilson will likely take their place ... Hall was a jack-of-all-trades for UK in '93 as he started five games at free safety and three at field corner while seeing action at every position in the defensive backfield ... He racked up 54 tackles, which was fourth on the team, and added two interceptions and three pass deflections ... He is Kentucky's leading returning tackler ... Hiles and Wilson appeared in every game in '93 and both showed signs of excellence ... They combined for 31 tackles and four pass deflections ... Hiles, a true freshman last season, is considered one of the best athletes on the team with "big-play" capability ... On special teams last year he was often the first player downfield to make the tackle ... His duties could also include punt returns next season ... Wilson improved a great deal as the season progressed ... Redshirt freshman Littleton Ward was the Defensive Scout Player of the Year in '93 and could crack the starting lineup ... Carlos Collins switches to corner after three years as a running back ... He was redshirted in 1993 after seeing action in 1991 and 1992 ... Reggie Rusk, a first-team junior college All-American, could see plenty of playing time as soon as he adjusts to the new system.

STRONG SAFETY

15	Leman Boyd	5-10	195	So-1L
8	George Harris	5-11	180	Jr-JC

The Wildcats must replace first team All-SEC safety Marcus Jenkins, who finished ninth in the nation with six interceptions ... Sophomore Leman Boyd and junior college transfer George Harris will battle for that right ... Boyd appeared in every game in '93, tallying 13 tackles and an interception ... Harris, an all-conference defensive back in junior college, racked up 19 tackles during spring drills — many of them notable hard hits ... Over two years at CCSF, Harris tallied 101 tackles and 14 interceptions.

Versatile defensive back Steven Hall hopes to settle at cornerback this season.

FREE SAFETY

25	Melvin Johnson	5-11	196	Sr-3L
39	Rob Manchester	6-0	194	Jr-2L

If senior All-America candidate Melvin Johnson can stay healthy an entire season he could be an exceptional player ... Even though he missed the first five games in 1993, he still finished fifth on the team in tackles with 49, a career-high 13 coming in the Tennessee game ... Junior Rob Manchester, who was UK's Most Valuable Defensive Walk-On during the spring, will back up Johnson ... Manchester appeared in every game in '93, mostly on special teams ... He returned a fumble for a TD during the Blue-White scrimmage.

Archer . . .

"Unquestionably our secondary will be our strongest asset this season. The aggressiveness, athletic ability and big-play capability of the secondary could make it even better than last season. Melvin Johnson, an All-America candidate at free safety, played a lot. Van Hiles played at corner as a true freshman and has big-play capability. Kiyo Wilson played quite a bit last year and Steven Hall, who played so many positions last year, was invaluable. At the strong safety, Leman Boyd played some last year but with George Harris coming in during the spring it created position competition and both of them got better. We have to find some depth at both safety positions, but overall our secondary will be sound."

SPECIAL TEAMS

Bill Glaser - Coordinator

The Wildcats' special teams had a tough year in 1993 as the squad ranked last in the conference in kickoff returns and punt returns ... The Cats ranked eighth in net punting with a 34.73 net average and the field goal kickers were good on only half of their tries ... The coaches feel they have solidified this area with the emergence of placekicker Brian Sivinski along with the return of punter Dan Ariza and punter/placekicker Nicky Nickels ... Below is a look at the UK special teams, with comments by special teams coordinator Bill Glaser.

Glaser . . .

"Our special teams emphasis will improve greatly in kick returns, punt returns and field goal efficiency. We have some holes to fill but we intend to get a lot better in those areas."

PLACEKICKER

41	Brian Sivinski	5-11	181	Jr-1L
19	Nicky Nickels	6-0	180	So-1L

The Wildcats placekickers were able to connect on only 9-of-18 attempts last season and none was longer than 34 yards ... Two of those kickers — Brent Claiborne and Juha Leonoff — are gone, but Nicky Nickels returns ... Last season, Nickels connected on 4-of-6 FGs, including the 29-yard game-winner against ECU ... Two of Nickels' FGs came in the Peach Bowl, one of them a 34-yarder ... Junior Brian Sivinski seemed to improve markedly last year during practice and was rewarded with the kickoff duties in the Peach Bowl ... He has emerged as the frontrunner for UK's placekicking duties ... He was good on 13-of-22 FGs during the spring, including a 49-yarder in the Blue-White Scrimmage.

Glaser . . .

"Brian Sivinski has been with us two years and really came on at the end of last year. It looks like he will be a much improved kicker next year, but he will be pushed by Nicky Nickels and Doug Clark, an outstanding kicker who we signed out of Tennessee."

PUNTER

18	Dan Ariza	5-11	180	Sr-1L
19	Nicky Nickels	6-0	180	So-1L
4	Ryan Prewitt	6-1	189	Jr-Sq

Senior Dan Ariza earned the punting job after the South Carolina game and finished the season with a 36.2-yard average ... He had seven punts of over 40 yards and nailed six inside the opponent's 20-yard line ... Nickels, who had a 38.2 yard average in '93, blasted a 68-yard punt against Indiana.

Glaser . . .

"Dan Ariza got a lot of valuable experience last year and punted well. His average wasn't great but he is unselfish and punted it inside the 20 many times for us. In punting, we are looking for more than average. We need hang time, distance and control and we believe Dan gives us all three."

PUNT RETURNS

6	Kio Sanford	5-11	170	Fr-RS
17	Van Hiles	6-0	175	So-1L
84	Mark Mason	5-10	165	Fr-RS

Kio Sanford and Van Hiles have the speed and "big-play" capability to break long returns ... Freshman Mark Mason also has shown some ability and could contend for the job.

Glaser . . .

"We lost all of our punt returners with the graduation of Matt Riazzi, Troy Hobbs and Mark Chatmon, so it will be wide open entering the fall. Kio Sanford and Van Hiles showed a lot of promise during the spring and either one of them could help us."

KICKOFF RETURN

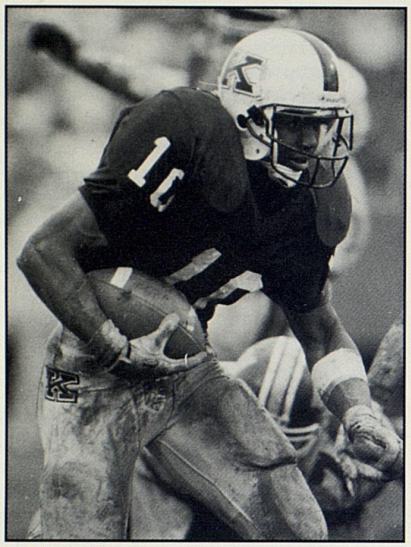

27	Clyde Rudolph	5-7	173	Sr-3L
3	Randy Wyatt	5-10	175	Sr-1L
28	Donnell Gordon	5-10	194	So-1L
10	Moe Williams	6-2	205	So-1L
6	Kio Sanford	5-11	170	Fr-RS

Senior Clyde Rudolph led the Wildcats last year with 10 kickoff returns for 209 yards ... His average of 20.9 yards a return was second only to Randy Wyatt's 21.8-yard average among players returning ... Sophomore Donnell Gordon returned six kickoffs for 106 yards and a 17.7-yard average ... Coaches also tried Moe Williams and Kio Sanford during the spring and liked the results.

Glaser . . .

"We feel Randy Wyatt and Clyde Rudolph are a fine pair of kick returners, and, of course, Donnell Gordon has had some success."

Key Returning Players

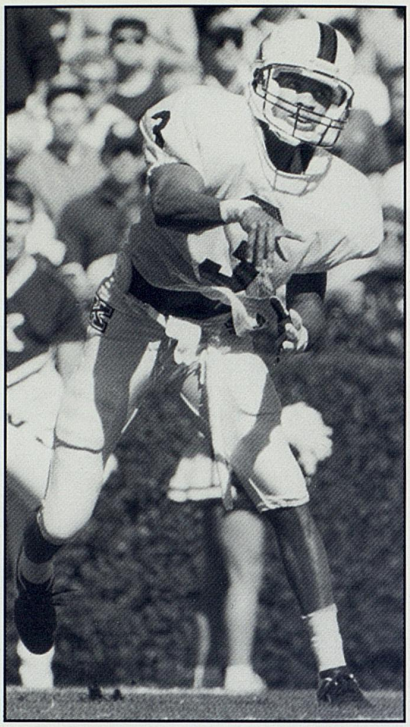

MOE WILLIAMS

Halfback, 6-2, 205, Sophomore from Columbus, Ga. — Williams is perhaps one of the most talented running backs in the Southeastern Conference ... An All-American candidate ... The conference's returning rushing leader with 928 yards on 164 carries and five TDs ... Was chosen preseason first team All-SEC by the Birmingham News ... Kentucky's all-time freshman rushing leader ... His 928-yard season in 1993 ranks sixth all-time at Kentucky ... Was fourth among freshman rushers nationally ... His 70-yard TD run against Florida was the second longest rushing TD in the SEC last season ... Set a UK freshman record with 169 yards against Georgia.

RANDY WYATT

Split End, 5-10, 175, Senior from Paducah, Ky. — One of fastest players on the Kentucky roster ... Possesses game-breaking speed as shown last season against South Carolina ... Took a pitch and sprinted 65 yards for an electrifying TD against the Gamecocks ... Split time in 1993 between halfback and receiver but will move permanently to split end this season ... Is UK's leading returning receiver and should see the ball more this season ... His most important assets are his attitude and leadership.

DAMON HOOD

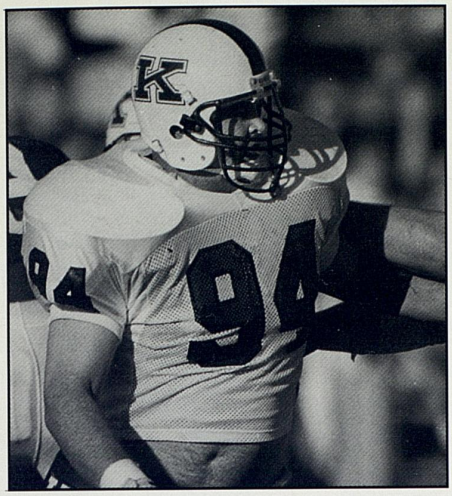

Fullback, 6-1, 233, Senior from Bowling Green, Ky. — A three-year returning starter for the Wildcats ... Possesses skills of great fullbacks — excellent blocker, breakaway speed and soft hands ... Has scored more TDs (nine) than any other current UK player ... Has amassed 909 career yards on 235 carries for a 3.9 yard-per-carry average ... Carried the ball nine times for 75 yards in a mud-drenched game against East Carolina ... A leader for Kentucky both on and off the field.

MARK ASKIN

Offensive Tackle, 6-5, 293, Senior from Louisville, Ky. — A three-year starter returning for the Wildcats ... Most experienced member of UK offensive line ... Kentucky's only three-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll ... Has improved his pass protection skills ... A large part in UK's nationally ranked (24th) rushing attack in 1993 ... Helped UK rush for more than 200 yards six times and more than 300 yards twice last season.

Key Returning Players

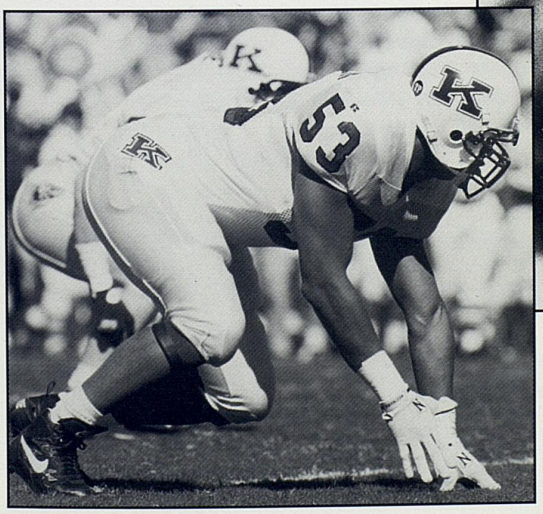

ROBERT STINSON

Defensive Tackle, 6-4, 283, Senior from Cadiz, Ky. — A two-year returning starter at defensive tackle ... Recorded 34 tackles, a 12-yard sack, two tackles-for-loss (-7) and added four pass deflections in 1993 ... Credited with four tackles in the Peach Bowl ... Plays the pass and run equally well.

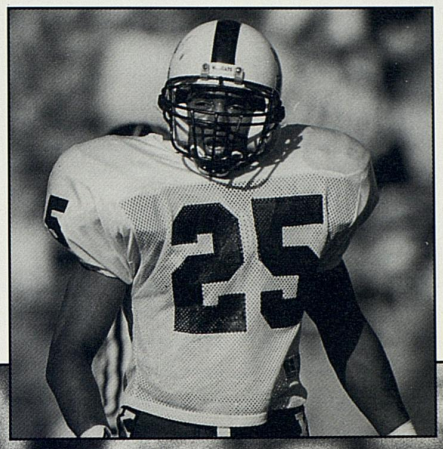

STEVEN HALL

Cornerback, 6-1, 208, Junior from New Haven, Ind. — A versatile player who can play any position in the defensive backfield ... Squad's leading returning tackler with 54 stops, including 47 unassisted ... Added two interceptions and three pass deflections in '93 ... One of the reasons UK is developing a strong tradition of excellent defensive backs.

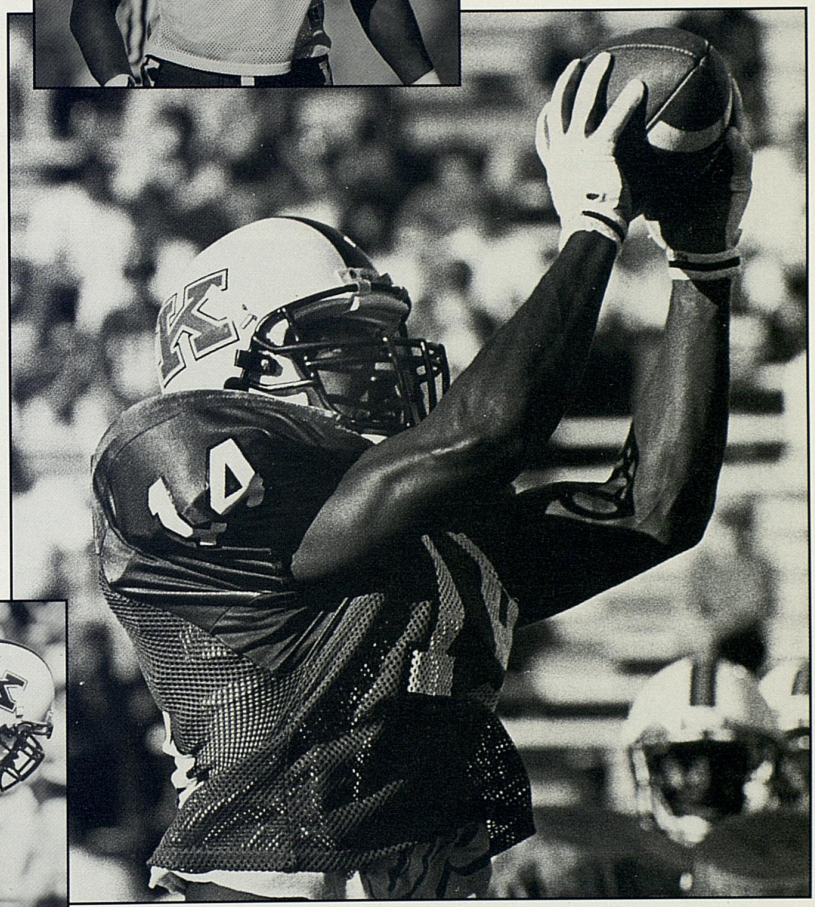

HOWARD CARTER, JR.

Defensive End, 6-4, 245, Senior from Dodge City, Kan. — A force at defensive end with the tools to be a great one ... Started last nine games and the Peach Bowl for Wildcats ... Credited with 22 tackles last season with two sacks (-6) and two tackles behind the line of scrimmage (-2) ... Added five tackles and a sack (-5) in the Peach Bowl.

MELVIN JOHNSON

Free Safety, 6-0, 198, Senior from Cincinnati, Ohio — All-American candidate ... One of hardest hitters in Southeastern Conference ... An intimidating tackler ... Earned UK's "Big Hitter" award three times ... UK's second-leading tackler returning despite missing first five games of the '93 season ... Managed 49 tackles, two for a loss (-2), in only six games ... Credited with 12 tackles in the Peach Bowl ... Has skills to become one of best defensive backs in the country if he can stay healthy.

Other Players To Watch

Donnell Gordon
Halfback, 5-10, 194, So-1L

Barry Jones
Offensive Guard, 6-5, 286, Jr-2L

Donte' Key
Linebacker, 6-3, 220, Jr-2L

Antonio O'Ferral
Quarterback, 5-10, 180, Jr-2L

Corey Reeves
Tight End, 6-3, 239, Sr-3L

Clyde Rudolph
Flanker, 5-7, 173, Sr-3L

Mike Schlegel
Defensive Tackle, 6-5, 251, Jr-2L

Jeff Speedy
Quarterback, 6-2, 186, So-1L

Roger Sullivan
Defensive Tackle, 6-4, 277, Sr-3L

The Coaches

Head Coach BILL CURRY
(Georgia Tech, 1965)

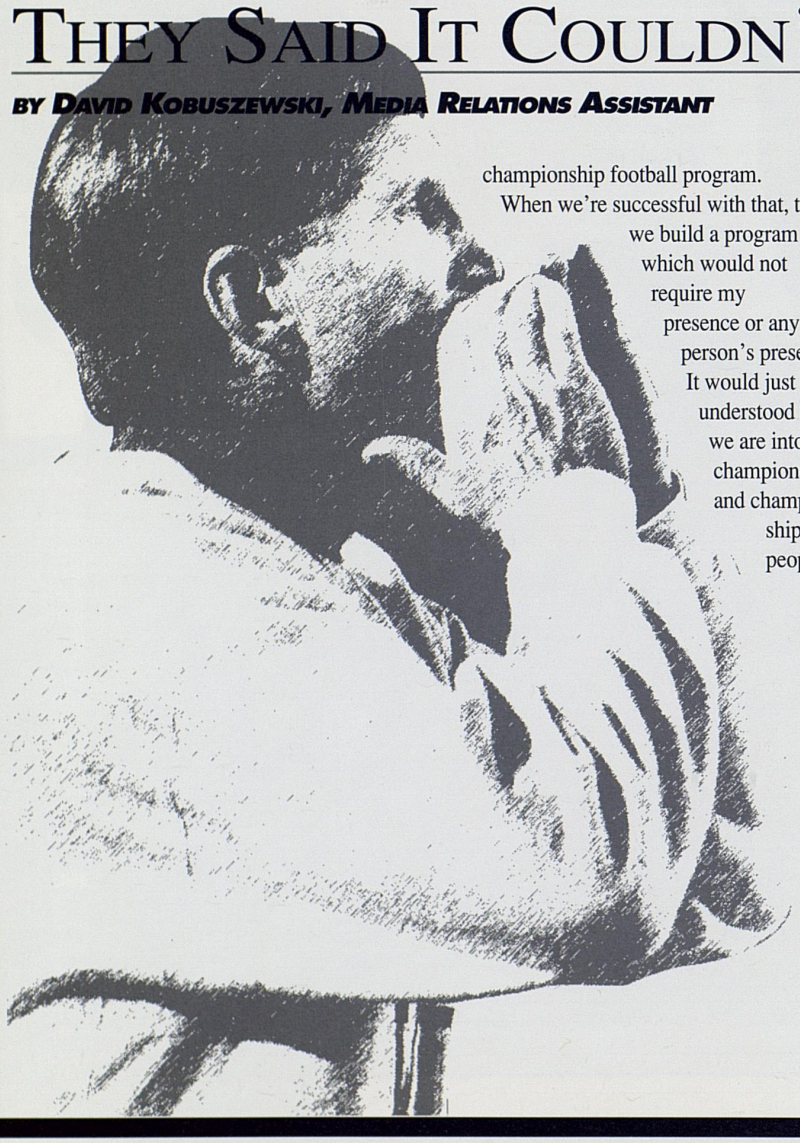

THEY SAID IT COULDN'T BE DONE...

BY DAVID KOBUSZEWSKI, MEDIA RELATIONS ASSISTANT

They said it couldn't be done. They said he was crazy to try. Football in Kentucky? No way. UK could never become competitive in the monstrous Southeastern Conference, a conference that has produced 12 national championship teams through the years. You can't recruit good athletes at Kentucky, they said. The only sport that matters there is the one James Naismith invented and Adolph Rupp perfected. Football can never succeed at a school like Kentucky, they said. They were wrong.

Bill Curry said it could and it has. In continuing with his tradition of rebuilding struggling programs, Curry has turned things around at Kentucky. In just four seasons, Curry has led Kentucky to a fourth-place finish in the SEC, its best since 1977, and a Peach Bowl berth, the school's first bowl in nine years. But Curry has done more than just win at Kentucky.

"I'd like to say that I'm a person that really lives to serve young people," said Curry, a 1965 graduate of Georgia Tech. "It is my wish to have every single one of them be the best they can be in every aspect of their lives, and that certainly includes a championship football program. When we're successful with that, then we build a program which would not require my presence or any one person's presence. It would just be understood that we are into championships and championship people."

Curry's first rebuilding took place at his alma mater Georgia Tech, where he took over the reigns of the Yellow Jacket program in 1980 as a first-year collegiate head coach. During the 1985 season, Georgia Tech posted a 9-2-1 record that included a 17-14 victory over Michigan State in the All-American Bowl. It marked the Yellow Jackets' first bowl appearance since 1978 and only their second bowl game in 14 years. The nine victories were the most for a Tech squad in 15 seasons.

The building process began once more. This time, Curry inherited the position of head football coach at tradition-rich Alabama. Though the Crimson Tide had captured a league-high 18 Southeastern Conference championships, Alabama had come up empty since Paul "Bear" Bryant's last SEC and national titles in 1979. It took Curry three years to work his magic. His 1989 Crimson Tide squad, which ended the regular season 10-1 and earned a berth in the USF&G Sugar Bowl, entered the season's last weekend in the midst of a national title chase. Along the way, Curry delivered Alabama its first SEC crown in 10 years.

"It (rebuilding a program) is just piece-by-piece and it's painful," said Curry, who turned 51 on Oct. 21, 1993. "It's painstaking and sometimes it is embarrassing to fall on your face. But you just get up every time and you keep going until it's done. Once it is done, then the program will serve a lot of young people for a long, long time. It's worth doing."

A quick glance back as to how the Georgia Tech and Alabama programs are doing after the building process is worth mentioning. The Yellow Jackets captured the 1990 United Press International National Championship. In 1992, Alabama captured the National Championship with a perfect 13-0 record.

Head Coach - Bill Curry

"Each person is unique, so everybody has a gift," said Curry. "An education or an experience like this should allow each person to find his or her gift, develop it and then give it. Now, a football program or a football team is a good model for that. I mean if you're a blocker, then you must block every play, every time. You must protect your quarterback or your ball carrier every snap. If you're a tackler, you must tackle every play. That's a principle which should run through every part of your life."

"Then, you hopefully learn that it goes to the classroom with you or into your spiritual life. And when you are around a large group of people that learn to think that way, the stuff is contagious. And that is what a program is. That's what we're building here at Kentucky."

Just minutes before Curry was named the University of Kentucky's 32nd head football coach on Jan. 8, 1990, he told his first Wildcats squad about the intricacies of building a program.

"I told our squad I'm interested in championship performance, championship people, championship academics, and championship football," Curry said. "I'm not interested in anything less than that. That's what we are about. A championship performance in everything."

Curry's football pedigree weighs heavily in his expectations of championship performance. After all, he did play and work under three of the most successful coaches the game has ever known — Bobby Dodd, Vince Lombardi, and Don Shula.

Curry lettered three years (1962-64) as a collegian at Georgia Tech under Dodd and served as team captain his senior campaign. Dodd compiled an impressive 22-year record of 165-64-8, including Southeastern Conference titles in 1951 and 1952, at Georgia Tech.

Curry earned his bachelor's degree in industrial management from Georgia Tech in 1965, then began his professional career under Lombardi with the Green Bay Packers. He played on two Packer teams that won National Football League titles (1965-66), including the first Super Bowl on Jan. 15, 1967. The legendary Lombardi guided Green Bay to five NFL championships in seven years during the 1960s.

Following the 1967 season, Curry was traded to the Baltimore Colts and eventually became All-Pro in 1971 and 1972. His mentor for three seasons at Baltimore was Don Shula, who today is the winningest active coach in the NFL and has appeared in more Super Bowls (six) than any other coach.

Those coaches helped Curry understand the demands that must be met in order to succeed in building a complete football program.

Indeed, those qualities opened the eyes of UK Athletics Director C.M. Newton when his search began to replace Jerry Claiborne, who stepped down in 1989 after eight seasons with the Wildcats. But Newton took an interest in another side of Curry. The side which Newton said reflected these three words — dignity, class and integrity.

"William A. Curry is recognized by many to be at the very top of his profession," said Newton, during his introduction of Curry to the media. "He has been credited for the dignity, class and integrity with which he conducts his football programs, both on and off the playing field."

Curry then spoke.

Coach Curry keeps his Wildcats focused on Kentucky's No. 1 goal of winning a championship.

"We intend to be champions at the University of Kentucky on the football field," he said. "We've been champions here at UK in the classroom and will continue to do so. And we will do it with dignity, and do it the right way."

Curry came to Kentucky from the University of Alabama. His overall record of 26-10 at Alabama was, until recently, the Crimson Tide's most successful three-year total since Paul "Bear" Bryant compiled a 27-8-3 record his final three campaigns (1980-82). During the building process, Curry marched Alabama to three consecutive bowls — 1987 Hall of Fame, 1988 Sun and 1990 USF&G Sugar. The building process culminated with a share of the SEC crown in 1989.

Following his three-year stint at Tuscaloosa, Curry found himself trying to revive a Kentucky program that had not won more than two conference games in a season in five years. His 1990 Wildcats squad finished at 4-7, but gained respectability in the SEC with a 3-4 record. The fifth-place finish was the best at Kentucky since 1984.

Injuries and youth contributed to the Wildcats slipping to 3-8 in 1991 and 4-7 in 1992. The 1993 Wildcats, which were a preseason pick to finish last in the SEC, posted a 6-5 regular-season record, placing fourth in the SEC and earning the conference's bid to the Peach Bowl. The fourth place finish was UK's best since the 1977 squad went 6-0 in the conference placing second. In addition to earning UK's first bowl trip in nine years, the 1993 squad posted the school's first three-game SEC win streak since 1977, and won two SEC road games in a season for the first time since 1984.

In all, Curry owns a 74-81-4 record in 14 seasons as a collegiate head coach.

Academically, Curry's Wildcats continue to set the pace among league schools. Kentucky led the SEC in 1990, 1991 and 1993 in Academic All-SEC Honor Roll selections, a feat the Wildcats have accomplished in eight of the last 10 years.

Curry, a native of College Park, Ga., signed a scholarship with the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets after a fine prep career at College Park High School. At Georgia Tech, Curry helped lead the Yellow Jackets to a 21-9-1 record and a Bluebonnet Bowl berth during his final three seasons. He shared team captain honors with Johnny Gresham during the 1964 campaign.

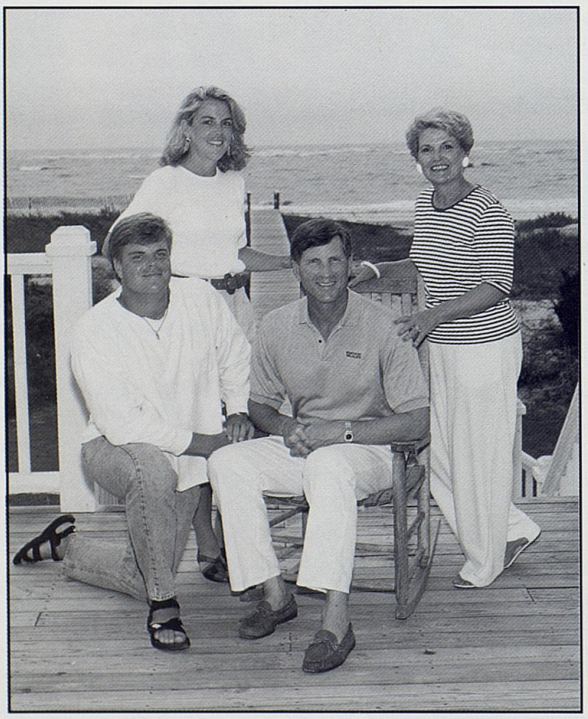

His professional football career began at Green Bay in 1965. Before his professional career was over 10 seasons later, Curry played at Green Bay (1965-66), Baltimore (1967-72), Houston (1973) and with the Los Angeles Rams (1974). Curry was a member of three Super Bowl teams, one National Football League Championship team and was selected to the 1971 and 1972 Pro Bowls. A knee injury forced him to retire in 1975.

A year later, Curry was back at his alma mater as an assistant coach under Pepper Rodgers. Then in 1977, Curry returned to the pro ranks as an offensive line coach with the Green Bay Packers under his former teammate, Bart Starr.

Curry began his initial building process when he answered Georgia Tech's call once again in 1980, this time as head football coach. The task was not simple. The Yellow Jackets were coming off a 4-6-1 record under Rodgers. It did not get easier, especially with an '80 schedule loaded with Alabama, Florida, North Carolina, Tennessee, Auburn, Notre Dame and Georgia. The '81 slate was a mirror image.

Understandably, Tech turned in 1-9-1 and 1-10 records those first two seasons. But things begin to change in 1982 when Tech went 6-5. During his final five years at Tech, Curry produced a 29-24-3 ledger that included a sparkling season in 1985. The '85 campaign earned Tech an All-American Bowl bid and subsequent victory over Michigan State. From there, Curry moved to Alabama to work for then-athletics director Steve Sloan.

Curry holds the distinction of being named Coach of the Year in two different conferences. He was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year in 1985 by the Associated Press and ACC Sportswriters while at Georgia Tech. At Alabama, Curry was named the 1987 Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year by United Press International, and the 1989 SEC Coach of the Year by A.P. and the Nashville Banner.

Head Coach - Bill Curry

UK Athletics Director C.M. Newton congratulates Coach Curry after the Wildcats' 6-3 victory over East Carolina.

A special honor came Curry's way following the 1989 season as well. Curry was named the '89 Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year.

"Nothing could mean as much to me as this award," Curry said. "Coach Dodd had such a tremendous influence on my life."

"There is really no such thing as a coach of the year," Curry says. "There is such a thing as a staff of the year. Our American system tends to recognize individuals for what teams really accomplish. To be recognized that way in 1985, 1987 and 1989 in two different conferences, with different faces on our staff and with different teams, must really mean the family idea must work.

"A large part of what we're trying to promote in our young people of America is the importance to recapture the family emphasis. A good team or a good staff is nothing but a good family."

It is that type of family that has also shaped Curry into the coach and into the man he is. That credit belongs to his parents – Mr. and Mrs. Bill Curry, Sr.

"The older I get, the more I understand how much my dad shaped me coaching-wise, and how both my mom and dad shaped me as a human being," Curry said. "And also my high school coach, Bill Badgett. He truly was the toughest, most demanding of all the coaches that I have played for."

Curry served as president (1973-75) of the NFL Players' Association and on the American Football Coaches Rules Committee for two terms. Presently, Curry is a member of the NFL Former Players Advisory Committee and is serving his second term on the AFCA Ethics Committee.

In 1992 Curry was inducted into the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame.

Curry is married to the former Carolyn Newton of College Park, Ga. Carolyn has a Ph.D. in history and teaches at the University of Kentucky. They have two children. Kristin, 27, has completed her coursework for a Ph.D. at Emory University. Billy, 23, who recently graduated from the University of Virginia, where he lettered in football, is in his first year as an intern with UK football. Billy will help with all aspects of the administration of the program.

A Conversation with Coach Curry

Q How do you see your program progressing?

"By every barometer the program is moving in the right direction. In the most important areas — the student-athletes being educated and also learning how to win — the results have improved. They are not yet what we aim for, but improved. In the area of victories we have improved, somewhat, but again not nearly to the level that we will. In the area of facilities we have improved enormously. In the area of our relationships with various entities that are critically important we have shown marked improvement. Our coaches clinic and youth camp were both the largest in the history of record-keeping here at Kentucky. Our schedule this year is the most demanding ever for a Kentucky football team. That's all good. Our talent level on our team is up and will continue to go up. So everything here at Kentucky is headed in the right direction."

Q What concerns you most about the 1994 season?

"I just don't think that way. I don't think in terms of concerns. I used to. But I learned not to do that. Everything about the season is exciting to me. If you ask me what our biggest challenges are early I would say to establish an offensive line and to establish a solid kicking game. Those would be the two things that come to mind. Obviously we have to get experience at the quarterback position but we have loads of talent there. You can't get experience without getting experience so there's no sense worrying about it. We'll just get ready to play Louisville with the quarterback that has shown he is the most ready to play."

Q Would you term this year's schedule a challenge?

"I'd say so (laughing). When you win with a challenge like that, a schedule like that, nobody can say you didn't play anybody. We've been blessed with tough schedules everywhere I've coached and this is no exception."

Q Can you comment on the talented group of running backs UK has this year? Compare or contrast the running ability of Moe Williams and Daymon Carter?

"I can't and I won't contrast players. They're both outstanding players. Looking at our group of running backs, we have a lot of talent but only one of these players has played in the SEC extensively. So they'll have to prove themselves, but they certainly have the talent to do so and we intend to give them the ball."

More on Carter?

Q

"At the time that I was recruiting Daymon he was the best high school running back that I had ever signed. Since then we have signed Donnell and Moe. All three of them are in the same category in terms of talent. He has gone out to a tough junior college league and has dominated that league. Daymon has always found a way to score touchdowns and gain yards, but so have the other two. We're very blessed."

Q The staff you have compiled seems to work well together. How important is that?

"It is critical. We've been blessed with some great staffs, very successful staffs through the years, but perhaps never one with so many victories under its belt. Perhaps never one with quite the blend of youth and experience that we have here. It's a good staff, with a chance to be even better."

Q Once again Kentucky is picked by the so-called experts to finish in the bottom half of the SEC. When do you think UK will receive the credibility it hopes for?

"After you win a couple of championships. Not one, but a couple. The first one they'll call a fluke. You need to win it two or three years and then they'll start giving you too much credit. Then you'll be called a dynasty and you'll be knocked on your rear end. It's all out of perspective. The pendulum always swings too far — too far negative, too far positive. You're either terrible or you're just awesome. The fact is that it's seldom either of those cases. It's almost always somewhere in between. And I don't care about getting credit. I care about performance. Last year they picked us 12th and we finished fourth."

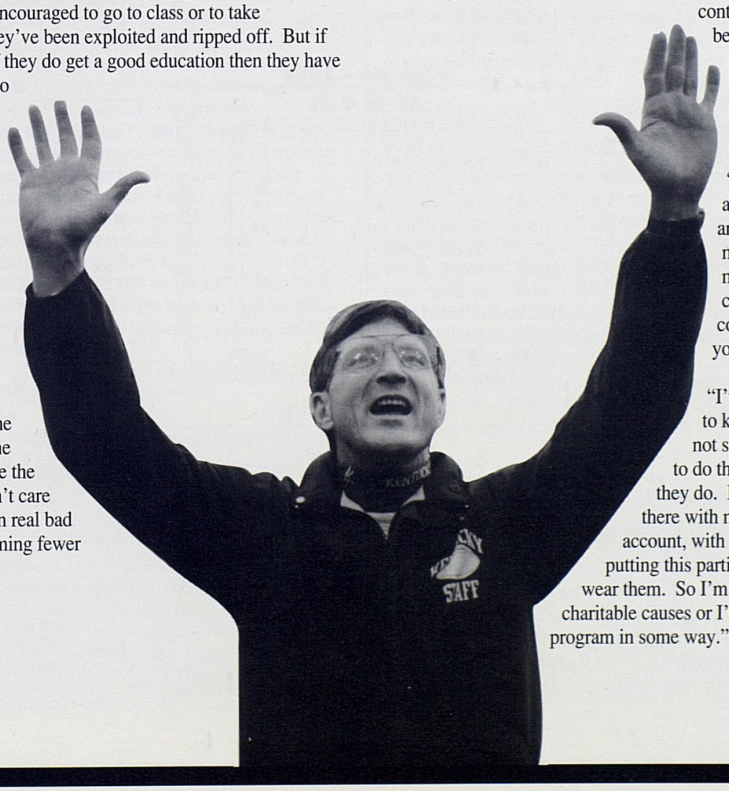

A Conversation with Coach Curry

Q You're on the NCAA Playoff Feasibility Panel. What are your feelings about the possibility of a Division 1A football playoff?

"The most important people in the process are and always will be the players. Very few people think about that. There is so much discussion about the fans deserving a champion. Well, why do the fans deserve a champion? We're all Americans and this is a free country. There are certain things that we deserve. Like freedom of religion, freedom of speech, freedom to be treated like human beings. But nobody said we deserve a football playoff. That's not in the constitution. What the players deserve is to be treated like human beings. When you cut scholarships and add pressure academically, but then add games and tell the players they're the ones who are benefiting... You're going to shorten careers. Where is the benefit for the players? I don't see it. Until I see a benefit for my players, I'm not going to endorse any kind of expansion of the season. I know we need the money and I understand all of that. And that's important, but it's not nearly as important as the human beings that I am sworn to serve and I will serve them the best I can. Right now a playoff is not the best way to serve them."

Q Should players be compensated?

"Players are compensated. They are compensated extremely well. And now that we have the NCAA emergency fund there are a lot of situations that used to be just nightmares that we can deal with. If a player loses a parent then I can send him home on an airplane and we can pay for his ticket. If he doesn't have a coat and tie and I require coat and ties on the road then we can go buy him one legally through the NCAA fund. When Willie Cannon and Troy Hobbs' homes were blown away by a hurricane I was able to send them home. What the players are getting now in terms of education is worth a lot of money. So they're being very well rewarded if they take advantage of the education. If they get out of school without a diploma and were not encouraged to go to class or to take advantage of the tutoring, then they've been exploited and ripped off. But if they have been encouraged and if they do get a good education then they have not been exploited. I would like to see us be able to provide expenses normally associated with a college education. That's not going to happen because of gender equity; it's just not going to happen, because we can't do it for the gymnasts and the volleyball players and we ought to be able to do it for everybody. But if we can't do it for everybody then we can't do it for anybody so it's not going to happen. There's no sense complaining about it anymore. The guys are in pretty good shape. The ones that are not in good shape are the ones that are in programs that don't care whether they graduate. They're in real bad shape. Those programs are becoming fewer and fewer."

Q How do you feel about Kentucky earning its fourth CFA Academic Achievement Award honorable mention after winning the award in 1989?

"It ought to be a given. It should be expected of every single program. I'm happy that we are recognized for these achievements because it's a reflection on our players, the work that they put in, the people who work with them in the academic support systems and our assistant coaches who also work with them. I'm not so sure that it ought to be such a big honor that you graduate your players. It ought to be something that you're expected to do. It's almost a shame that we honor programs that have graduated over 70% percent. Why wouldn't you just do that? Anybody that graduates at a higher percentage than their student body — and most student bodies are at about 50 percent — then I think they are doing an admirable job. Our goal is to graduate all of them. And we've been able to come close to that at the schools where we've worked."

Q Budget cuts are an issue for this athletic department right now, and some people have criticized coaches for taking money from shoe companies. Where do you stand on that?

"I think they're probably right. I said that to my old boss at Georgia Tech, Homer Rice, the first time a shoe company ever approached us. I told him, 'Homer, this is a conflict of interest. I can't tell my players to wear a shoe with me getting money from the shoe company.' And he said, 'First of all, don't make them wear the shoe. Only buy the shoe that is the best shoe.' Which is what we were doing and still do. We buy the shoes that are the best shoes to play football in, and we always will. I have turned down huge contracts that would choke a horse because I wouldn't dare put those shoes on my players. I don't think it takes any hero to do something like that. I think you're an idiot not to do that.

"What my bosses had said to me at Georgia Tech and at Alabama, and what C.M. Newton has said to me here at Kentucky is, 'This is money we see as a way to keep a competent coach in a highly competitive market. So we want you to keep it.'

"I've made a decision recently not to keep the money. And again, I'm not saying that any other coach needs to do this. It's none of my business what they do. But I am not going to be standing there with money going into my bank account, with my players wondering if I'm putting this particular kind of pressure on them to wear them. So I'm going to use the money in charitable causes or I'm going to put it back into this program in some way."

Coach Curry's Year-by-Year Record

In 14 seasons as a head coach, Bill Curry has amassed a record of 74-81-4. At Kentucky he is 17-28, at Alabama he was 26-10, at Georgia Tech he was 31-43-4.

MIKE ARCHER

Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers (Miami, Fla., 1975)

Mike Archer is in his second season as an assistant football coach and defensive coordinator at the University of Kentucky. Overall, Archer has spent 18 seasons as either an assistant or head football coach on the collegiate level.

Archer, a 1975 graduate of the University of Miami (Fla.), came to UK following a two-year stint as linebackers coach at the University of Virginia under George Welsh. At Kentucky, Archer coordinates the Wildcats defensive system and is responsible for the UK linebackers (mike-will-buck) and PAT/Field Goal rush units.

During the 1993 season, the Archer-led Kentucky defense posted two shutout victories, 35-0 over Kent and 21-0 over Ole Miss, and held two other opponents, Vanderbilt and East Carolina, without an offensive touchdown. In one season under Archer's direction, UK moved from last in the SEC in total defense to eighth, allowing 500 fewer yards and 11 fewer touchdowns.

Archer, 40, served as head football coach at Louisiana State University from 1987 to 1990 (four seasons) prior to his appointment at Virginia. He led the Tigers to a 27-18-1 record as head coach with two bowl appearances — 1987 Gator Bowl and 1989 Hall of Fame Bowl — and one Southeastern Conference Championship in 1988. As the nation's youngest (34) Division I-A head football coach in 1987, Archer led the Tigers to a 10-1-1 record and 30-13 Gator Bowl victory over South Carolina. A year later, Archer directed the Tigers to the SEC title with a 6-1 league slate and an 8-4 overall record.

Archer, a native of State College, Pa., lettered three seasons (1973-74-75) in football at Miami. He started at free safety for two seasons for the Hurricanes and also punted. As a senior, Archer was named UM's Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

His coaching career began the following year as a graduate assistant at Miami under Carl Selmer in 1976. He worked with the Hurricanes special teams and served as defensive coordinator for the Miami freshman team. Archer remained in the same position in 1977 under Lou Saban, then was named administrative assistant to the head coach in 1978.

Archer was promoted in 1979 to the Hurricanes full-time coaching staff, directed by head coach Howard Schnellenberger. In all, Archer spent five seasons as defensive backs coach for the Hurricanes (1979-83). He helped Miami post a 41-16 record in that span, which included a 31-30 Orange Bowl victory over Nebraska and subsequent 1983 national championship.

Archer joined the LSU coaching staff, headed by Bill Arnsparger, in 1984 as the Tigers defensive backfield coach. He spent three seasons as an assistant under Arnsparger at LSU, including the 1985 and 1986 campaigns as the Tigers defensive coordinator. Archer and his defensive units played integral parts in building a 26-8-2 record for LSU during that period with appearances in three bowl games — 1985 Sugar, 1985 Liberty, and 1987 Sugar — and the 1986 Southeastern Conference championship. His '85 LSU defensive unit ranked third nationally in scoring defense (10.3 ppg) and eighth nationally in rushing defense (107.1 ypg). His 1986 Tiger defensive backfield led the SEC in interceptions and tied the school record (27) for most interceptions during a single season.

Archer is married to the former Barbara Pollak of Kansas City, Mo. They have two children — Jeffrey Matthew, 12, and Betsy Anne, 9.

DARYL DICKEY

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks (Tennessee, 1985)

Daryl Dickey enters his fifth season as an assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky and his second year as the Wildcats' offensive coordinator. Overall, Dickey enters his eighth season coaching on the collegiate level.

Dickey, a 1985 graduate of the University of Tennessee, has served as Wildcats quarterback coach the past four seasons under Curry. He was promoted to offensive coordinator on Jan. 15, 1993, replacing former assistant Rick Rhoades.

In his four years at Kentucky, Dickey has been instrumental in the development of several Wildcats quarterbacks. Three of his Wildcats quarterbacks ended their respective careers ranked in the Top 15 on the UK all-time passing list — Pookie Jones (5th), Freddie Maggard (7th) and Brad Smith (15th). Jones, who started 29 of the last 30 games for the Wildcats at quarterback, ranks second in career Total Offense with 4,313 yards and is in the top six in five other offensive categories -- Pass Attempts (5th-504), Pass Completions (5th-263), Passing Yards (5th-3459), Touchdown Passes Thrown (6th-16) and Offensive Plays (2nd-871). Jones, under Dickey's tutelage, also established a new UK season record with 1,729 total yards (295 rush, 1,434 pass) in 1992.

Under Dickey, the Wildcats posted the second-highest mark for passing yards in 1990 with 2,151 and third-highest in 1991 with 2,017. In 1992, Kentucky threw for 1,684 yards (14th on UK list) and in 1993 they threw for 1,305 operating from the Stack-I formation. Also in 1993, Dickey guided the Cats to an average of 329.1 yards per game, its best offensive average since the 1987 squad totaled 360.4 yards per outing. The 1993 squad also posted UK's best rushing average (210.5 yards a game) since the 1987 team averaged 212.7. UK's third-place SEC finish in rushing yards tied the 1987 squad for the best league rushing finish since the 1974 team ended second in the conference.

Dickey began his coaching career at his alma mater, Tennessee, as a graduate assistant coach for two years (1987-88). His first full-time position came a year later (1989) as quarterbacks coach at Florida State under Coach Bobby Bowden.

At Florida State, Dickey helped mold Seminole quarterback Peter Tom Willis, who ended the '89 season ranked seventh nationally in total offense (273.1 ypg) and passing efficiency (150.7 pts). Willis threw for 3,124 yards and 20 touchdowns as Florida State posted a 10-2 record and a victory over Nebraska in the Fiesta Bowl.

Most Kentuckians remember Dickey from his collegiate days as quarterback at Tennessee. In 1985, Dickey helped lead the Volunteers to a 9-1-2 record and the Southeastern Conference championship. He was named Most Valuable Player in the 1986 USF&G Sugar Bowl after engineering the Vols' 35-7 victory over Miami (Fla.). Following a brief stint with the San Diego Chargers of the National Football League in 1986, Dickey returned to Tennessee to begin his coaching career.

Dickey is married to the former Kendall George of Knoxville. They have two children — Karis (4) and Dallas James (1 ½). His father, Doug Dickey, is the athletics director at the University of Tennessee.

1994 Kentucky Assistant Coaches

RAY DORR

Running Backs (West Virginia Wesleyan, 1965)

Ray Dorr is in his second season as an assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. Overall, Dorr has spent 27 years on the sideline as either a collegiate assistant or head football coach.

Dorr's responsibilities at Kentucky include coaching the Wildcats running backs, punters and coordinating film exchange with opponents.

In 1993, Dorr guided UK freshman tailback Moe Williams to a freshman-record 928 yards on 164 carries. Williams also set the freshman single-game rushing record with 159 yards against Georgia and totaled 100 yards or more in four games. Kentucky finished third in the conference in rushing average (210.5 yards per game), tying the school's best finish with the 1987 squad since the 1974 UK team finished second in the SEC. UK's rushing attack ranked 24th nationally.

Dorr, 51, came to UK following a five-year stint as an assistant coach at the University of Southern California. Dorr joined the Trojans staff under Larry Smith in 1988 as receivers coach. After one year, he was named quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator (1989 to 1991) and then served as offensive coordinator for USC in 1992.

As an assistant, Dorr has coached at Akron, Kent State, Washington and Southern California. He served as head coach at Southern Illinois from 1984 to 1987 prior to joining the USC staff.

As quarterbacks coach at Southern California, Dorr tutored Trojan signal-caller Todd Marinovich for two seasons. Marinovich finished his career ranked No. 2 on the USC career charts for passing with 5,001 yards and 29 touchdowns and was a first round National Football League draft choice. Dorr also coached first team All-American split end Erik Affholter in 1988. Affholter grabbed 68 receptions for 952 yards and eight touchdowns while earning first team All-America honors under Dorr's guidance as receivers coach.

Dorr posted a four-year record of 17-27 as head football coach at Southern Illinois prior to joining USC. His best season mark came in 1986 as his squad finished 7-4 on the season, including a second-place effort (4-2) in the Gateway Conference.

Dorr began his coaching career as an assistant at Wadsworth High School in Akron, Ohio. Dorr spent two seasons (1965-66) at Wadsworth before accepting a position as graduate assistant coach at the University of Akron in 1967 under head coach Gordon Larson. After one year, Dorr was named to the full-time staff at Akron and spent three seasons as the Zips' offensive backfield coach.

In 1971, Dorr began his first of 13 consecutive years as an assistant coach under Don James when he accepted the position of quarterbacks coach at Kent State. Dorr helped lead the Golden Flashes to a 25-19-1 record in four years (1971-74), which included Kent State's only Mid-American Conference title in 1972.

Dorr moved to Washington with James in 1975 as quarterbacks coach and helped lead the Huskies to a 75-30 mark in nine years (1975-83). Washington appeared in six bowl games during that span, including three Rose Bowls. Dorr coached three future NFL quarterbacks while at Washington — Warren Moon, Tom Flick and Steve Pelluer.

Dorr was a four-sport standout at McKinley High School in Sebring, Ohio, and started at quarterback for three years (1962-64) at West Virginia Wesleyan. His record as starting quarterback at West Virginia Wesleyan was 19-6-2.

Dorr and his wife, Karen, have two sons — Stephen, 21, a sophomore quarterback/wide receiver at West Virginia Wesleyan, and David, 17.

BILL GLASER

Defensive Line (Bellarmine, 1965)

Bill Glaser enters his 18th season as an assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. Overall, Glaser has coached 19 seasons as an assistant on the collegiate level.

His responsibilities at UK include coaching the Wildcats defensive line and serving as the special teams coordinator. Glaser is directly responsible for the UK punting game and is coordinator of the annual Bill Curry Football Camp during the summer.

Glaser, 50, came to the University of Kentucky in 1977 from Morehead State University. He has worked for three head coaches at UK — Fran Curci, Jerry Claiborne, and Bill Curry. Glaser was the only full-time UK assistant retained by both Claiborne and Curry.

Glaser, a native of Louisville, graduated in 1965 from Bellarmine College and participated in baseball while completing his undergraduate studies. He graduated in 1961 from St. Xavier High School and lettered three years as an offensive guard and linebacker.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, St. Xavier, in 1965 as an assistant football and baseball coach. Glaser was named head baseball coach in 1970 and in four seasons, compiled a 112-48 record. In 1974, Glaser was named head football coach and promptly led St. Xavier to back-to-back state titles and a two-year slate of 25-0-0.

Glaser was named defensive coordinator in 1976 at Morehead State, where he completed work on a master's degree. A year later, he moved to UK as defensive line coach under Curci. In the Claiborne era, Glaser coached the UK defensive guards.

Glaser has coached three All-Southeastern Conference performers while at Kentucky — nose guards Richard Jaffe (1977-79) and Joey Couch (1988-91) and tackle Jerry Blanton (1977).

He is married to the former Mary Ann Jensen of Louisville. They have two grown children — Angie, David, and Clare (14).

TOMMY LIMBAUGH

Assistant Head Coach/Recruiting

Tight Ends (Alabama, 1967)

Tommy Limbaugh is in his fourth season as assistant head football coach and his fifth campaign as football recruiting coordinator at the University of Kentucky. On the field, Limbaugh serves as a full-time assistant coach in charge of the Wildcats tight ends.

Limbaugh is responsible for coordinating the complete recruiting efforts for the UK football program, both on- and off-campus. His status as a full-time assistant coach allows him, by NCAA rules, to recruit off-campus. As assistant head coach, Limbaugh speaks for Bill Curry on football-related matters in the absence of the Wildcats head coach.

Overall, Limbaugh enters his 20th year of intercollegiate athletics and his 12th season as a college assistant coach. He was the first member to be named to Curry's staff at UK, becoming official on Jan. 11, 1990.

After spending the 1990 season in his current position, Limbaugh stepped off the field in 1991 to serve not only as recruiting coordinator for UK football, but for the entire UK Athletics program. Limbaugh moved back into the dual capacity as assistant head coach and football recruiting coordinator following the conclusion of the '91 campaign.

The Wildcats recruiting under Limbaugh has gained national attention the past five years. In 1991, 93 and 94, UK's recruited classes were ranked 13th by Max Emginger's national recruiting service. The 1992 class was ranked 19th.

Limbaugh, a native of Childersburg, Ala., came to Kentucky from the University of Alabama where he was associate athletics director since April 1988. He initially came to Alabama in 1987 as assistant athletics director and was promoted to associate a year later.

Limbaugh began his coaching career as a graduate assistant baseball coach at his alma mater (Alabama, 1967) and helped lead Alabama to the 1968 Southeastern Conference title. A year later, Limbaugh jumped into the high school ranks as an assistant coach at Westminster High in Atlanta, Ga. Westminster won three regional titles and one state championship during his four-year stay at the Atlanta school. In 1972, he took his first head coaching job at Talladega (Ala.) High School and compiled a 19-11 record in three seasons. He was named "North Alabama Coach of the Year" in 1974.

Following the 1974 campaign, Limbaugh moved back into collegiate athletics and joined Steve Sloan's staff as an assistant coach at Texas Tech (1975-77). He then served as administrative assistant and recruiting coordinator during Sloan's next two stops — Ole Miss (1978-82) and Duke (1983- 86). Several of his recruiting classes at both Ole Miss and Duke were ranked among the nation's Top 10.

After earning All-State honors in football and baseball at Childersburg, Limbaugh was a three-year letterman (1965-67) as catcher under Coach Joe Sewell at Alabama. He was president of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and was an active member in Alabama's "A" Club.

Limbaugh is married to the former Marcia Bynum of Talladega. They have two daughters — Leslie (23) and Lauren (16).

JOKER PHILLIPS

Wide Receivers (Kentucky, 1986)

Joker Phillips enters his fourth season as an assistant football coach with the University of Kentucky. Overall, this will be Phillips' sixth season as an on-the-field collegiate coach though he spent two of those years as a graduate assistant.

His responsibilities include coaching the Wildcats receivers — split ends and flankers. He also works with the Wildcats kickoff return team, the "Hands Team" (on-side kicks), and serves as the athletics dorm liaison.

Phillips, a 1986 graduate of Kentucky, began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Kentucky under former mentor Jerry Claiborne in 1988. He was responsible for the Wildcats receivers for two years (1988-89) before joining Bill Curry's staff at Kentucky as an assistant recruiting coordinator in 1990. Phillips assisted UK recruiting coordinator Tommy Limbaugh with all recruiting efforts for the Wildcats football program and also served in the capacity as the "Walk-On Program" coordinator.

With the departure of UK's offensive coordinator and receivers coach Tommy Bowden in December, 1990, Phillips was promoted to a full-time coaching position with the wide receivers. Under Phillips' guidance in 1991, split end Neal Clark broke the Wildcats season record for pass receptions with 47, a mark previously held by Felix Wilson for 14 seasons.

Phillips was a four-year letterman (1981-84) as a Wildcats receiver and helped lead UK to a pair of bowl games — the 1983 and 1984 Hall of Fame Bowls. His best season was in 1984 with 28 receptions for 305 yards and five touchdowns. Currently, Phillips ranks seventh on the UK career list with 75 pass receptions for 935 yards (12.5 avg.) and nine touchdowns.

He played briefly with the Washington Redskins of the National Football League and the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League.

In recent summers, Phillips has participated in the National Football League Coaching Fellowship program with the Redskins. He assisted Washington receivers coach Jack Burns during training camp and preseason.

Phillips lettered three years in football, basketball and track at Franklin-Simpson High School in Franklin.

Phillips is single and resides in Lexington.

DON RILEY

Offensive Line (East Tennessee State, 1956)

Don Riley enters his third season as an assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. Overall, Riley has spent 30 seasons as a collegiate football coach.

Riley officially became a member of the UK football coaching staff on Feb. 29, 1992. He came to Kentucky after spending four years as head football coach at his alma mater, East Tennessee State.

His responsibilities with the Wildcats include coaching the offensive line and coordinating the field goal/PAT teams. He also works directly with the UK kickers and holders.

Riley, a 1956 graduate of East Tennessee State, compiled a 10-34 record as head coach of the Buccaneers, including one of the school's best finishes (4-3, third place) in the Southern Conference during the 1989 season.

Prior to his stint at ETSU, Riley spent 12 years as offensive line coach at UCLA under Terry Donahue. He was part of the Bruin program which posted a 98-36-7 record during that span, including a sparkling 6-2-1 record in nine bowl appearances. When he left for ETSU, Riley was the only assistant coach to remain of the original Donahue staff who came to UCLA in 1976.

His coaching career began in 1956 as head football coach at his prep alma mater, Lynch High School. After three years, Riley moved to East Tennessee State for one year as a graduate assistant coach under his former collegiate mentor, Star Wood. He then moved back into the high school ranks as athletics director and head football coach at Greeneville (Tenn.) High School (1960-65).

In 1966, Riley moved into collegiate athletics on a permanent basis as an assistant coach at Vanderbilt. He served a dual capacity as receivers coach and head freshman coach. In fact, his 1968 Commodore freshman squad recorded the first unbeaten record in school history.

Riley accepted another assistant coaching job in 1972 at Oklahoma State. In four years with the Cowboys, Riley coached the OSU linebackers, defensive backs, quarterbacks and served as offensive coordinator. He remained at OSU until his position at UCLA in 1976.

Following his prep career at Lynch High School, where he was tabbed Honorable Mention All-State in football, Riley played one season at Lamar (Colo.) Junior College. He transferred to East Tennessee State and played football and baseball.

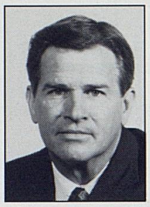

Riley is married to the former Carol Pierce of Lynch. They have three children — Donna Jones, Karen Lies, and Roger Riley — and three grandchildren.

RICK SMITH

Defensive Backs (Florida State, 1971)

Rick Smith enters his fifth season as an assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. His responsibilities include coaching the Wildcats defensive backs, working with the kickoff coverage teams, and serving as UK's pro scout liaison.

In 1993, Smith tutored strong safety Marcus Jenkins to Coaches first-team and AP second-team All-SEC honors. Jenkins ranked ninth nationally with six interceptions and broke UK's single-game interception record with three Int's against Florida. Kentucky's defense totaled 20 interceptions, which was fifth-best in school history.

Smith, 45, came to Kentucky from Baylor University after spending three seasons as defensive backfield coach of the Bears. He officially became a member of the Wildcats coaching staff on Jan. 21, 1990.

Overall, Smith is in his 15th season as a collegiate assistant coach. His collegiate coaching career includes stops at Georgia Tech, East Tennessee State, Alabama and Baylor.

Smith earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Florida State University in 1971. While at FSU, he played four seasons of football and two of baseball for the Seminoles. He was drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates in the annual amateur draft following his college career.

His start in coaching came in 1970 at Godby High School in Tallahassee, Fla. Smith spent three seasons at Godby High before he was named athletics director/head football coach at Wakulla (Fla.) High School in 1973.

Smith joined the collegiate coaching ranks after four seasons at Wakulla High. He was tabbed head junior varsity football coach at Georgia Tech in 1977 under Pepper Rodgers. A season later, he moved to East Tennessee State as an assistant coach in charge of the defensive backs.

Smith briefly stepped back into high school coaching in 1979 at Marianna (Fla.) High. At Marianna, he served in the dual capacity as athletics director and head football coach through the spring of 1982, when he left for Georgia Tech to join Bill Curry's Yellow Jacket staff.

He remained at Tech for the next four seasons. During that four-year span, Smith helped the Yellow Jackets post a 24-19-2 record, including a 17-14 victory over Michigan State in the 1985 All-American Bowl.

In 1986, Smith moved to Alabama under Ray Perkins for one season as defensive backfield coach. His Crimson Tide secondary ranked third in the Southeastern Conference in pass defense.

Smith moved to Baylor in 1987 as defensive backfield coach under Grant Teaff. The Baylor secondary quickly became one of the most respected in the nation during his three-year stint at Waco, Texas. His secondary ranked No.1 in the nation in pass defense, allowing a mere 117.8 yards a game and a completion percentage of .409 in 1988. The Bears finished No. 6 in pass defense (148.5 ypg) during the '89 campaign. Overall, the Bears pass defense accounted for 63 interceptions during Smith's three seasons at Baylor.

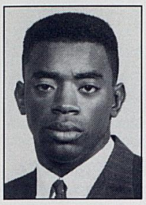

Smith is married to the former Barbara Reddick. They have three children — Beth (19), Steve (17), and Billy (15).

DAVID TURNER

Defensive Ends (Davidson College, 1985)

David Turner enters his second season as an assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. Overall, Turner is in his ninth campaign as an assistant football coach on the collegiate level.

Turner, 31, came to Kentucky following a two-year position as outside linebackers coach at James Madison University. At Kentucky, Turner's responsibilities include coaching the Wildcats defensive ends and punt return unit. He was officially named to the UK Football Staff on Feb. 20, 1993, replacing former assistant Lovie Smith.

Turner, a 1985 graduate of Davidson College, has served in the capacity of both assistant and graduate assistant coach on the collegiate level for the past eight years. His coaching stops include his alma mater, Davidson College, North Carolina State, Indiana (Pa.) University and James Madison. Turner spent two seasons at James Madison under Coach Rip Scherer where he helped lead the Dukes to a 9-4 record in 1991 and a berth in the NCAA I-AA Championships. James Madison defeated Delaware in the first round before losing to Samford in the quarterfinals. One of his players, outside linebacker Richard Bryant, earned All-Virginia honors under his tutelage.

He began his coaching career at Davidson College in 1986 as an assistant coach under Coach Vic Gatto. After two years, Turner left Davidson to join Coach Dick Sheridan as a graduate assistant at North Carolina State. He worked with the Wolfpack defensive line for two seasons and helped lead N.C. State to a 15-8-1 record and two bowl appearances (Peach and Copper).

In 1990, Turner was named an assistant coach at Division II powerhouse, Indiana (Pa.) University. Turner served as defensive line coach for Frank Cignetti as the Indians posted a 12-2 record. Indiana University defeated Winston-Salem, Edinboro, and Mississippi College before losing to North Dakota State in the Division II championship game.

Turner, a native of Goldston, N.C., earned three letters (1982-83-84) as a running back at Davidson College. He led the Wildcats in rushing and receiving as a senior for Coach Ed Farrell. Turner was a three-sport standout (football, basketball, baseball) at Chatham Central High School in Bear Creek, N.C.

He and his wife, Yvette, have one daughter — Bianca (7).

CHIP BEAKE

Graduate Assistant (South Carolina, 1992)

Chip Beake enters his second season as a graduate assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky.

Beake works as a defensive assistant under coordinator Mike Archer and is responsible for the offensive scout team, scout special teams, film breakdown and scouting.

Beake, a 1992 graduate of South Carolina, was a three-year member of the Gamecocks football squad in 1988-90, under coach Sparky Woods. Beake was a quarterback and earned a letter on special teams in 1989.

Beake was an all-state football player for Ft. Collins High School in Colorado. Football runs in the family as his father, John Beake, serves as the General Manager of the NFL's Denver Broncos. Beake is currently working on a master's degree in Kentucky's Patterson School of Diplomacy and International Commerce.

MIKE GRIFFITHS

Graduate Assistant (Eastern Kentucky, 1987)

Mike Griffiths enters his third year as graduate assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky.

Griffiths, a 1987 graduate of Eastern Kentucky, works as the offensive graduate assistant coach. His responsibilities include coordinating the defensive scout team, the scout punt and field goal rush units, as well as the varsity punt return specialists.

Griffiths originally worked his first year as graduate assistant at UK in 1991, moved to the high school coaching ranks a year later, and has returned to Coach Bill Curry's staff. In 1992, Griffiths was head football coach at Pineville High School and led his squad to a 2-8-0 record with a schedule dotted with larger classification opponents. He also spent one season (1990) as defensive coordinator at his alma mater, Green County High, in his only other prep coaching stint.

In high school, Griffiths was a two-time All-Southern Kentucky Athletics Conference selection as a runningback and defensive back at Green County High School. He was named Honorable Mention All-State during his senior campaign.

Griffiths, a native of Greensburg, served as a student-assistant coach under Roy Kidd at Eastern Kentucky for three years. Following the completion of his undergraduate degree, Griffiths then worked two years as a graduate assistant football coach for the Colonels. He earned a master's degree in physical education at EKU and is completing another master's degree in sports management at UK.

He is married to the former Heather Curry of Greensburg.

DAVID COMBS
Video Director

David Combs enters his 11th year as video director for the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

Combs, a native of Bay City, Mich., is responsible for coaching films and video operations of the UKAA. He also works with the UK Sports Communications Office on a weekly basis during the year producing and distributing video, including game highlights, press conferences and interviews.

In addition to his duties for UK, Combs freelances for NFL films, where he has shot footage for highlight films and commercials.

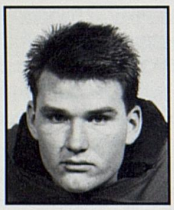

Combs boasts the honor of shooting the main footage of Reebok's 1994 Super Bowl commercial featuring Emmitt Smith.

Combs earned his undergraduate degree in telecommunications and marketing from the University of Kentucky in 1984. As a student, he worked as cinematographer and editor of game films for the UK Coaching Staff.

Following graduation, Combs served as a TV-Film producer/director for the UK Office of Instructional Resources with his primary responsibility of serving the UKAA. He transferred to athletics in August of 1989 as sports video director.

Combs is married to the former Charlotte Preece of Paintsville. They have one son — Zachary.

JASON HABERMEL
Student Assistant Coach

Jason Habermel is in his third year as a student assistant coach for the Kentucky Wildcats.

Habermel, a native of Evansville, Ind., was a defensive tackle for the Wildcats in 1990 and 1991 before a factured vertebra ended his playing career. Habermel, a four-year lettermen for North High School in Evansville, is majoring in Education at Kentucky.

JANETTA OWENS
Administrative Assistant

Janetta Owens begins her 14th year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

Owens was hired in July 1980 as the administrative assistant to the head football coach and has held that position under three head coaches — Fran Curci (1980-81), Jerry Claiborne (19812-89) and Bill Curry (1990-94).

Owens, a native of Corbin, Ky., is married to Lewis Owens, who is president and publisher of the Lexington Herald-Leader. They have one son, Wade Mitchell, and two grandchildren, Anthony and Jonah.

SANDY BELL
Director of Compliance

Sandy Bell is in her fifth year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

A native of Lexington, Bell joined the UK staff in 1989 as Compliance Coordinator and was promoted to Director of Compliance in November, 1993.

Bell is responsible for insuring that UK coaches and athletes adhere to SEC and NCAA rules and regulations. This involves monitoring recruitment, eligibility, financial aid, awards and benefits. Bell also serves as UK's principal contact with the NCAA Initial Eligibility Clearinghouse.

Prior to coming to UK, Bell served as the Director of Guidance at Hendersonville High School in Hendersonville, Tenn. She has taught algebra, geometry and trigonometry at the high school and collegiate levels.

Bell received her bachelor's degree in mathematics from George Peabody College and her master's degree in educational psychology from Middle Tennessee State.

Bell is married to Stuart Bell, and has two daughters, Deana (21) and Lori (19).

Pear, who was UK's Director of Intramurals from 1978-82 and then the Associate Director of Campus Recreation from 1982-92, became Athletic Facilities Coordinator on June 1, 1992. His immediate responsibility was to oversee the construction and opening of the Nutter Field House. His ongoing responsibilities include supervision for planning, maintenance, renovation, future construction and operation of all UKAA facilities.

Pear earned a bachelor's degree in education from Northern Illinois in 1976 and a master's degree in education from Colorado State in 1977.

Pear and his wife Kathy have two children — Leah (10) and Clay (7).

BARBARA DONNELLY
Ticket Manager

Barbara Donnelly enters her 19th year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

Donnelly, a native of Flatwoods, was named ticket manager for the UKAA in October of 1987. She had served as assistant ticket manager since 1984.

Donnelly began her employment with UKAA as secretary to Frank Ham of the Blue-White Fund office in December, 1975.

She graduated from Russell High School in 1971 and owns an associate degree from Ashland Community College. She is the daughter of Jean Siple of Flatwoods.

JACK FLIGG
Assistant Athletics Director/ Football Operations

Jack Fligg is in his fifth year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association. He was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Football Operations on March 11, 1991, after serving one year as administrative assistant with the UK Football program.

His primary responsibilities include coordinating football operations and the major administrative duties of Coach Bill Curry.

Fligg came to Kentucky from the University of Alabama where he spent three years as an administrative assistant. He officially became a member of the UK staff on Jan. 14, 1990.

Overall, Fligg begins his 29th year in intercollegiate athletics.

Prior to his administrative appointments, Fligg spent 22 years as an assistant coach at four schools — Georgia Tech (1964, 1984-86); West Virginia (1966- 69), Texas Tech (1970-74), and South Carolina (1975-82). He served under Jim Carlen for 16 of those seasons at West Virginia, Texas Tech and South Carolina. Prior to the collegiate level, Fligg coached high school football for 11 years in the Atlanta area — West Fulton High School and Grady High School.

Fligg played two seasons (1950-51) of college football at Auburn. He received his undergraduate degree from Oglethorpe in 1955 and his master's degree from George Peabody College in 1959.

He is married to the former Jonell Upchurch of Hapeville, Ga. They have three children — Matt, Joanna, and Mrs. Terri Carter — and four grandchildren.

MIKE FLORENCE
Strength Coach

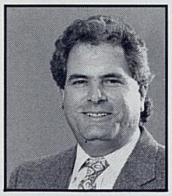

Mike Florence enters his sixth season as strength coach for the University of Kentucky football program.

Florence, a 1983 graduate of Kentucky, was named the UK strength coach on May 18, 1989, replacing Pat Etcheberry. He had served as assistant UK strength coach for five years prior to his promotion.

During his collegiate days, Florence participated in weight lifting at UK. As a senior, he was an NCAA qualifier.

Florence, a native of Lexington, was a three-year letterman in football at Tates Creek High as offensive guard and linebacker. He also lettered twice in wrestling and posted a 23-2 record as a senior in the 185-pound division. Florence is single and resides in Lexington.

AL GREEN
Trainer

Al Green enters his 15th season as trainer for the University of Kentucky Athletics Association. His primary responsibility is football, but Green also supervises the 18 other sports at UK.

Green, a native of Brooklyn, N.Y., came to the University of Kentucky in 1979 after working five years as assistant trainer at Michigan (1974- 78).

Following his graduation from John F. Kennedy High School in Bellmore, N.Y., Green attended Lea (Minn.) College for two years. He transferred to Michigan and completed his undergraduate work, earning his bachelor's degree in education in 1973.

Green participated in the University of Arizona graduate program the following year, earning his master's degree (1974) in education, specializing in athletic training.

Green worked the Olympic Sports Festival in Oklahoma City, Okla., in 1989 and he is a member of the National Athletics Trainers Association. He has served as a past president of the Kentucky Athletics Trainers Society.

Green is married to UK's associate trainer Sue Stanley. He has three children — Douglas, Jennifer and Tracy Beth.

TONY NEELY
Sports Information Director

Tony Neely assumed the duties of Sports Information Director at Kentucky on July 1. Neely, who was previously the Sports Information Director at Vanderbilt University, will handle the day-to-day media relations efforts and publicity for the UK football team.

Neely, 34, has spent nearly 16 years in the collegiate sports information field. After serving four years as a student assistant (1978-82) at Vanderbilt, Neely was promoted to assistant SID and also held the title of associate SID before being promoted to Sports Information Director in 1992.

A graduate of Vanderbilt (cum laude) in 1982, Neely handled all game programs and men's basketball and baseball publicity while assisting with football publicity. He handled the 1984-85 Vanderbilt basketball media guide, which was judged third in the nation. Neely's 1982 and 1983 baseball media guides were voted second and third in the nation, respectively.

Neely, a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America, is married to the former Terri Thomason, a native of Paducah, Ky.

DARIN CARR
Coaching Video Director

Darin Carr enters his second year with Kentucky's Sports Video Department. Carr, who spent the 1993 year as the Assistant Video Director, becomes UK's Coaching Video Coordinator.

Carr, a native of Owensboro, Ky., earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in telecommunications from the University of Kentucky in 1991. After working part time for the UK video department for a year he was promoted to full time in August 1993.

Carr, the son of Gary and Shirlyn Carr, is single and resides in Lexington.

TOM KALINOWSKI
Equipment Manager

Tom Kalinowski enters his 16th year as equipment manager for the University of Kentucky football program.

Kalinowski, a native of Middleton, Conn., received his undergraduate degree from Kentucky in 1978. He had served as a student manager at UK, beginning in 1974 until his graduation. Kalinowski was named head football equipment manager in 1978.

He graduated from Xavier High School in 1974. At Xavier, Kalinowski was student manager for the football, baseball and basketball programs.

Kalinowski and his wife, Vicki, were married in March 1990. They have one son, Ian.

SUE STANLEY
Associate Trainer

Sue Stanley enters her 13th year as trainer at the University of Kentucky. Her main responsibility includes football and assisting in the supervision of the other 18 sports at UK.

Stanley, a native of Smithville, Ohio, came to Kentucky on a full-time basis in 1982. Prior to UK, Stanley had spent one year with the Sports Medicine Clinic at East Carolina.

She earned her bachelor's degree in physical education from The Ohio State University in 1979. Stanley later received her master's degree in exercise physiology from Purdue in 1981.

Stanley has worked as a trainer at the 1989 Olympic Sports Festival in Oklahoma City, Okla., and the 1992 Olympic Trials at Colorado Springs, Colo. She also served as trainer for the USA Women's Basketball Select Team which toured the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia in 1990. She was named the 1989 Assistant Athletics Trainer of the Year for District Nine and served a six-year term (1986-92) on the Board of Certification for the National Athletics Trainers Association. Stanley is presently vice president for the Kentucky Athletics Trainers Society.

Stanley is married to UK's head trainer Al Green.

THE '93 REVIEW

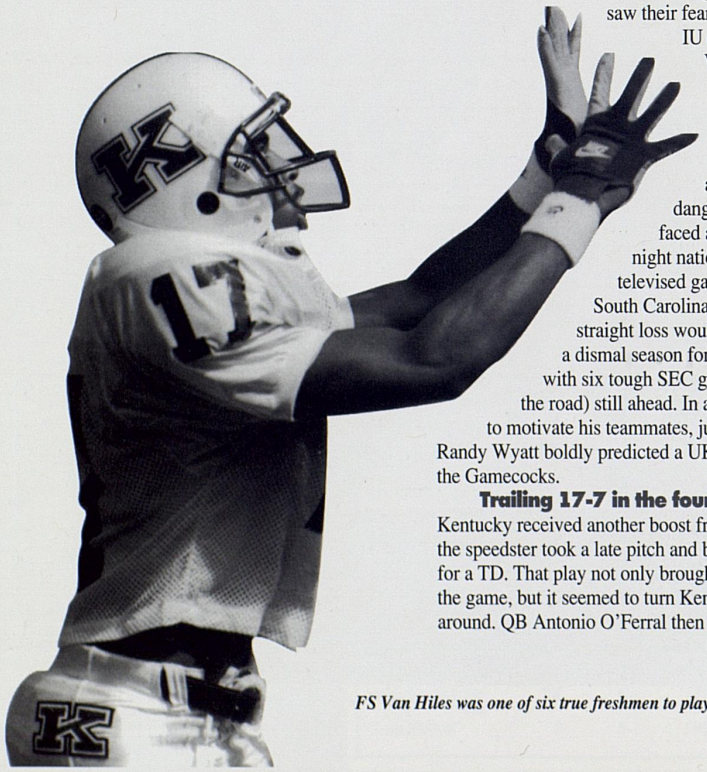

THINGS LOOK PEACHY IN KENTUCKY

BY DAVID KOBUSZEWSKI, MEDIA RELATIONS ASSISTANT

"Last season made a very clear impression on anybody who looks at these kinds of things; and that impression is that Kentucky can win football games. We were literally three plays from being in the SEC Championship game. Getting to the bowl, even though it wasn't pretty how we did it, and playing in the bowl, even though we didn't win, and the experience of being in Atlanta, because so many of our people went, generated the kind of excitement about Kentucky football that is unbelievable."

— Kentucky Head Coach Bill Curry

It's hard to believe that four 15-minute quarters of collegiate football could come down to one play to determine a winner and a loser. It's even harder to believe that four of Kentucky's games last season came down to that one play. It's upsetting to UK fans to remember that those four plays cost the Wildcats a potential 10-2 season, which would have been their most successful season since 1977 and just their third 10-win season ever. Plus, it would have provided a chance to play in the SEC Championship game. But it's reassuring to remember that the Wildcats still earned a return to the bowls for the first time since 1984.

FS Van Hiles was one of six true freshmen to play in 1993.

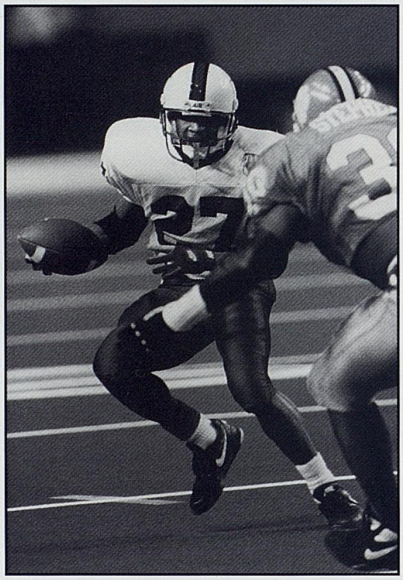

The season started on Sept. 4, when the Wildcats opened their campaign in Commonwealth Stadium against the Kent Golden Flashes. Impressive from the start, UK pounded its Mid-American Conference opponent 35-0 to record the first shutout in Bill Curry's UK tenure. QB Pookie Jones led the Cats with a career-high 138 yards rushing and 181 yards passing for a total of 311 yards and two touchdowns. Jones added two TD passes, a 56-yarder to Alfonzo Browning and a 28-yarder to Terry Samuels. The Wildcats then began preparing to host the seventh-ranked Florida Gators. Not only had UK not beaten a top-10 team since 1977, but it had not defeated the Gators in six-straight tries.

Commonwealth Stadium's sixth-largest crowd ever (58,175) witnessed the Wildcats come within one play of defeating the Gators as QB Dan Wuerffel hit a streaking Chris Doering in the end zone with the winning 28-yard TD with :03 left. UK had forced the Gators into seven interceptions — three by Marcus Jenkins — but they weren't enough as Florida survived, 24-20.

The following week UK headed to Indiana. The UK coaching staff, fearing a letdown by the Kentucky players following the heartbreaking Florida loss, saw their fears realized as IU downed the Wildcats 24-8. A once-promising season appeared in danger as UK next faced a Thursday night nationally-televised game against South Carolina. A third-straight loss would surely mean a dismal season for Kentucky, with six tough SEC games (three on the road) still ahead. In a move hoping to motivate his teammates, junior SE Randy Wyatt boldly predicted a UK victory over the Gamecocks.

Trailing 17-7 in the fourth quarter, Kentucky received another boost from Wyatt as the speedster took a late pitch and bolted 64 yards for a TD. That play not only brought UK back in the game, but it seemed to turn Kentucky's season around. QB Antonio O'Ferral then engineered the Cats' 13-play, 81-yard game-winning scoring drive which propelled Kentucky to a 21-17 victory.

Standing 2-2 overall and 1-1 in the conference, Kentucky won three of its next four games. The first win was a 21-0 shutout, UK's second of the season, over the 25th- ranked Ole Miss Rebels, who had previously boasted the nation's second-best defense. A week later, UK defeated the LSU Tigers 35- 17 to secure a third-straight SEC victory for the first time since 1977.

FL Clyde Rudolph catches a 21-yard pass in the Peach Bowl.

UK then lost a brutal 33-28 decision at Georgia in another game that came down to one play. After surrendering 24 first-half points, UK's defense allowed Georgia only a FG in the second half before a UK fumbled punt attempt gave the Bulldogs another scoring opportunity. Georgia's Eric Zeier capitalized with his third TD pass of the game, this one the game-winner. A bright spot for the Wildcats was freshman-sensation Moe Williams, who gallantly rushed for 159 yards and a TD to set a UK freshman school record.

Next for the Wildcats was a 26-17 victory over Mississippi State in damp 40-degree Starkville weather. UK took a 26-3 lead into the fourth quarter, then thwarted State's late comeback.

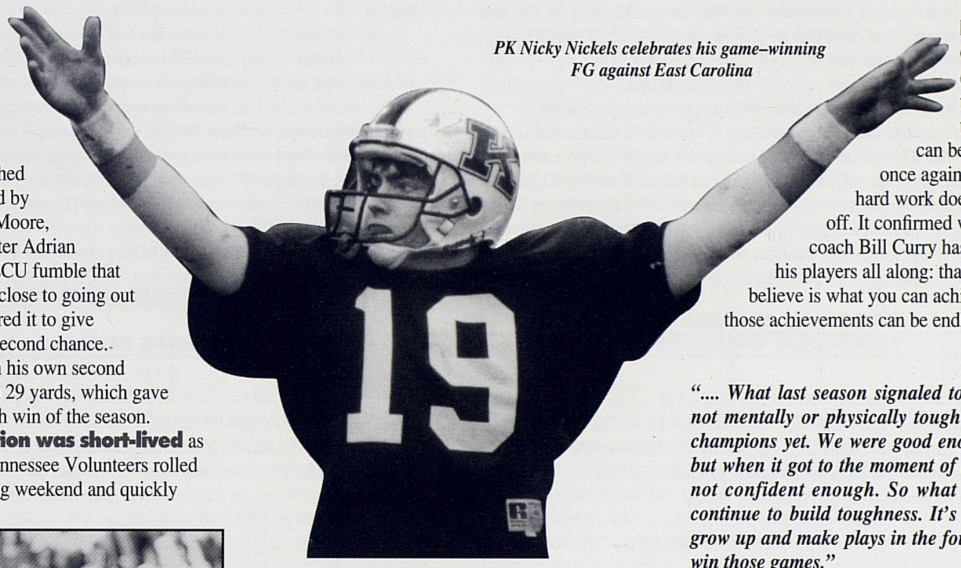

Boasting a 5-3 record overall and a 4-2 SEC mark, most thought that a bowl was inevitable for the Wildcats. But they still needed a sixth victory to secure a berth. UK hoped it would come against its nemesis, Vanderbilt, which had defeated the Wildcats the last two years. Once again, it came down to one play as the Commodores came out on top. Kentucky, which struggled offensively but dominated on defense, did not allow Vanderbilt's offense in its end zone. But an interception returned for a TD, a FG and safety gave the Commodores all the points they needed to win 12-7.

Next a 2-7 East Carolina team came to Lexington with the intention of spoiling the Wildcats' postseason hopes. And as Nicky Nickels' potential game-winning 22-yard FG sailed wide right with just 1:45 left and the score tied 3-3 it looked as if the Pirates had accomplished their goal. But UK, led by senior captain Marty Moore, refused to give up. After Adrian Sherwood forced an ECU fumble that bounced dangerously close to going out of bounds, Moore snared it to give Kentucky's season a second chance. Nickels made good on his own second chance, this time from 29 yards, which gave the Wildcats their sixth win of the season.

UK's celebration was short-lived as the seventh-ranked Tennessee Volunteers rolled into town the following weekend and quickly saddled the Wildcats with their worst loss in more than 70 years, 48-0.

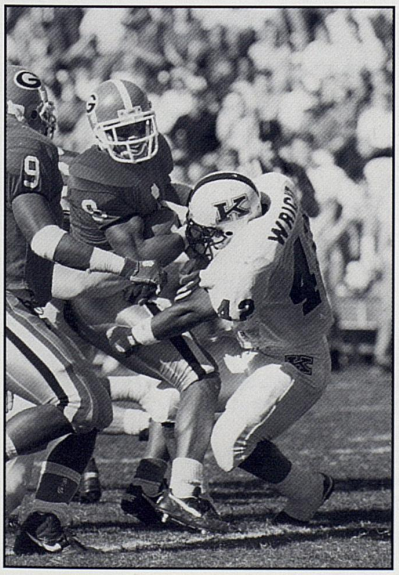

But the season wasn't over as Kentucky received a bowl bid for the first time in nine years. The Wildcats had a month to prepare to meet 25th-ranked Clemson in the 26th-annual PEACH BOWL in Atlanta, Ga. The bowl trip was a success for Kentucky in every way but the final score of the game. For the fourth and final time, a single play cost UK a chance to win. Clemson defeated the Wildcats 14-13 on a last-minute third-down 21-yard TD pass.

When the dust finally cleared, Kentucky's 1993 season was an inspiring success story. Twice, the season looked headed for disaster and twice the Wildcats resuscitated it:

PK Nicky Nickels celebrates his game–winning FG against East Carolina

First with the dramatic fourth quarter rally at South Carolina; then the miraculous muddy victory over ECU to guarantee UK its first regular-season winning record in four years. On top of that, the UK players and fans were rewarded with a trip to the PEACH BOWL. Somehow, someway the 1993 Wildcats were driven to find success.

LB Eric Wright wrestles with Georgia's Jeff Thomas.

Picked by the preseason prognosticators to finish last, UK's 4-4 league ledger placed the Cats third in the SEC Eastern division and fourth overall — both bests for UK since the 1977 squad finished second overall. UK improved from dead last in total defense in the SEC to seventh, and, with the help of two shutouts, UK improved from last to fifth in scoring defense. Offensively, UK improved its rushing average from 172.2 yards per game to 210.5 per outing, which improved the Wildcats from sixth in the conference to third in that category.

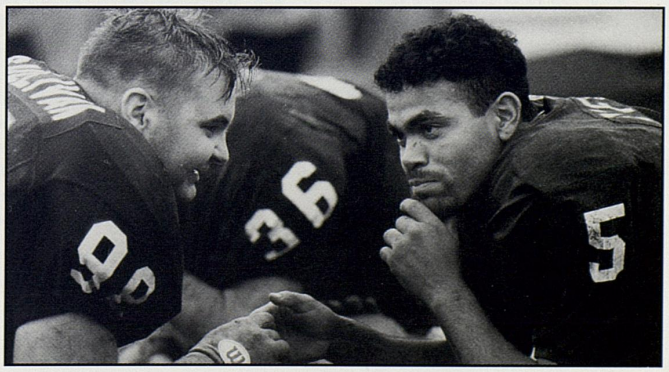

Many Wildcats made their mark in the Kentucky annals. Senior LB Marty Moore finished his stellar career fourth on the UK tackles chart with 462. Junior QB Pookie Jones became UK's second all-time total offense leader with 4,313 yards and is ranked in the top six of five other offensive categories. Freshman HB Moe Williams finished with Kentucky's sixth-best rushing season ever after compiling 928 yards on 164 carries, and his 5.7 yards-per- carry average ranks second behind Mark Higgs' 6.6 average in 1987.

Kentucky's 6-6 year demonstrated that football in the Bluegrass can be successful once again. It proved that hard work does in fact pay off. It confirmed what head coach Bill Curry has been telling his players all along: that what you believe is what you can achieve and that those achievements can be endless.

".... What last season signaled to me is we are not mentally or physically tough enough to be champions yet. We were good enough last year, but when it got to the moment of truth, we were not confident enough. So what we do now is continue to build toughness. It's time for us to grow up and make plays in the fourth quarter to win those games."

1993 Kentucky Game-by-Game

Game One: UK 35, Kent 0

(Attendance: 55,800)

Lexington, Ky. — The University of Kentucky opened the 1993 season on Sept. 4, with a 35-0 drubbing of Kent, a member of the Mid-American Conference, in front of a crowd of 55,800 at Commonwealth Stadium.

Kentucky's offense was powered by junior quarterback Pookie Jones, who tallied 311 total yards for the Cats and was responsible for four touchdowns, two on the ground and two through the air.

In the first quarter, UK's defense held Kent to 17 total yards and didn't allow the Golden Flashes a single first down, as Kent never got beyond its own 38-yard line. UK opened the scoring with 3:26 left in the first quarter when Jones found WB Alfonzo Browning for a 56-yard TD pass. The Cats' next score came after a 9-play, 64-yard drive which was capped by Jones' 9-yard TD run. The half ended with UK leading 14-0.

In the third stanza, both teams struggled offensively as each team was forced to punt three times, but in the fourth period, the Wildcats scored on three straight possessions. The first score occurred after a 7-play, 63-yard drive which ended when Jones threw a 28-yard TD strike to TE Terry Samuels. On Kent's next possession, SS Leman Boyd intercepted Mike Acie's pass and returned it to the Kentucky 40-yard line. The very next play, Jones started to option left, then reversed field for a 60-yard TD run. Jones hit Samuels for the two-point conversion, extending UK's lead to 28-0.

Freshman TB Donnell Gordon ended the scoring after taking a pitch from QB Antonio O'Ferral and darting for a 9-yard TD.

Game Two: Florida 24, UK 20

(Attendance: 58,175)

Lexington, Ky. — Saturday Sept. 11th, the University of Kentucky came within one play of defeating a top-10 team for the first time since 1977, but Florida's TD pass with three seconds left ended all hopes of a Wildcats victory.

After receiving the opening kickoff, Florida engaged in a 15-play, 66-yard drive which stalled on the UK 14-yard line, forcing the Gators to settle for a 31-yard FG. After Kentucky was forced to punt, UF quarterback Terry Dean's pass was intercepted by Marcus Jenkins and returned to the Gator 40-yard line. Six plays later quarterback Pookie Jones found WB Alfonzo Browning in the end zone for a three-yard TD to give UK a 7-3 lead.

Florida ended the scoring in the first half when the Gators gambled on a fourth-and-goal from the one-yard line as Dean leaped over the top for the TD. The conversion failed and UF went to the lockerroom leading Kentucky 9-7.

Kentucky received the kickoff to start the second half and moments later, from the Cats' 30-yard line, freshman TB Moe Williams sprinted for a 70-yard TD, giving UK a 14-9 lead. Three possessions later, after a 17-play, 82-yard drive UK's Juha Leonoff booted a 22-yard FG to extend the Wildcats' lead to 17-9. Florida answered with a 10-play, 88-yard drive capped by a 19-yard TD pass and a two-point conversion which knotted it at 17-17.

CB Willie Cannon's interception led to Leonoff's 25-yard FG, making it 20-17 with 1:23 left, but with :03 left on the clock, UF QB Dan Wuerffel found SE Chris Doering in the end zone for Florida's go-ahead TD.

Game Three: Indiana 24, UK 8

(Attendance: 43,545)

Bloomington, Ind. — Indiana extended its 17-game home winning streak against non-conference opponents by defeating Kentucky 24-8.

After receiving the opening kickoff, Indiana gained nine yards on three plays, then went for it on 4th-and-1, but the UK defense held on IU's 29-yard line. With what seemed to be a perfect opportunity to score, UK gained only four yards in two plays and on 3rd-and-6, QB Pookie Jones was sacked, forcing the Cats to punt. And so the tone was set for a frustrating day offensively for the Wildcats.

Just :46 seconds into the second period, IU's Bill Manolopoulos booted a 25-yard FG for the only score in the first half. For the remainder of the half, both teams exchanged punts four times as neither offense could muster more than one first down each.

On Indiana's first possession of the second half, IU backs touched the ball twice before scoring. Michael Batts ran for 39 yards, then Jermaine Chaney bolted for a 40-yard TD, making it 10-0 in favor of the Hoosiers.

Things looked worse for the Cats as IU recovered a UK fumble on the Cats' own 15-yard line. But the Hoosiers came away empty as Steven Hall blocked a 28-yard FG attempt. UK's offense stalled there, turning the ball over to IU at the UK 35-yard line and the Hoosiers punched it in two plays later. IU added another TD before Kentucky could manage its only points of the day, a 24-yard scoring toss from QB Antonio O'Ferral to FB Michael Woodfork with 1:24 left in the game.

Game Four: UK 21, S. Carolina 17

(Attendance: 65,326)

Columbia, S.C. — The Kentucky Wildcats overcame a 10-point deficit with less than 12 minutes remaining in the game to pull off a 21-17 upset of South Carolina in front of 65,326 fans and a nationally-televised (ESPN) Thursday night audience.

Led by first-time starter QB Antonio O'Ferral, the Wildcats received the opening kick and marched 71 yards on seven plays, capped by FB Damon Hood's one-yard plunge just 2:29 into the game. South Carolina answered with a two-yard Brandon Bennett TD in the second period, and the score was 7-7 at the half.

Bennett added another TD in the third frame, and Reed Morton's 21-yard field goal with 12:58 left in the game gave South Carolina a 17-7 lead.

After taking the ensuing kickoff, UK scored on its fourth play from scrimmage when TB Randy Wyatt took a pitch from O'Ferral and scooted 64 yards down the right sideline to make it 17-14 with 11:47 left.

O'Ferral, a sophomore who stepped in for injured QB Pookie Jones, who had started in 21 straight games, led UK on another long drive, an 81-yard, 13-play march that ended with FB Michael Woodfork's one-yard TD dive at 4:55.

USC had two more chances to score, but both drives ended with UK SS Marcus Jenkins securing South Carolina turnovers. Jenkins recovered a fumble after LB Darryl Conn stripped the ball from Bennett with 3:48 on the clock. With 2:13 left, Jenkins picked off a Steve Taneyhill pass in the end zone. With South Carolina out of timeouts, UK picked up a first down on a second-and-three play and was then able to run out the clock.

Game Five: UK 21, Ole Miss 0

(Attendance: 57,075)

Lexington, Ky. — The Kentucky Wildcats put back-to-back SEC victories together in convincing fashion as the Cats scored 21 points against Ole Miss' second-ranked defense and shut out the Rebels' offense in front of 57,075 Homecoming fans.

Kentucky opened the game with a 21-play, 77-yard drive that consumed 8:57 off the clock and ended on Juha Leonoff's 28-yard field goal. After UK's defense denied the Rebels a first down, the offense controlled the ball on another long scoring drive. This time the Cats rolled 68 yards in nine plays, ending with Moe Williams' 3-yard TD run. Key plays in the drive were a 38-yard pass from QB Pookie Jones to WB Alfonzo Browning, a 16-yard pass from Jones to Browning, and a 4th-and-1 offsides penalty on Ole Miss.

UK's defense didn't allow Ole Miss a first down until 4:00 in the second quarter and never let the Rebels inside their 30-yard line. On UK's third possession, the Cats drove 68 yards in 14 plays before settling for Leonoff's second FG, this time from 20-yards, after a Jones-to-Browning TD pass was negated by an offensive interference penalty. At the half, UK held a 13-0 advantage on the scoreboard and a 43-16 advantage in plays run.

Kentucky found the end zone once more with 3:12 left in the game as Jones hit Mark Chatmon on a 33-yard TD strike, Chatmon's first of the year, sealing the Wildcats' second SEC upset in a row. Moe Williams added the two-point conversion for UK's final points.

Game Six: UK 35, LSU 17

(Attendance: 54,750)

Lexington, Ky. — Kentucky entered the game as a rare favorite and promptly took care of business, taking a 14-0 lead on two-straight second-quarter possessions on its way to a soggy 35-17 victory over LSU.

Kentucky used a variety of weapons to defeat the Tigers and record its third-straight SEC victory. Freshman TB Moe Williams rushed for his second 100-yard performance of the year, with 106 yards on 16 carries, while FB Damon Hood added 45 yards and two TDs. TE Terry Samuels caught four passes for 51 yards and a TD, and QB Pookie Jones completed 14-of-22 passes for 164 yards, one TD, and no interceptions.

After a scoreless first quarter, Jones hit Samuels with a 19-yard TD toss over the middle, making it UK 7, LSU 0. On its next possession, UK marched 79 yards in 17 plays for Williams' two-yard TD. LSU's Andre LaFleur nailed a 46-yard FG as time expired in the first half, cutting UK's lead to 14-3.

After receiving the second half kickoff, UK marched 73 yards in eight plays and scored when Hood broke free through the middle for a 16-yard TD. Later, LB Duce Williams fell on an LSU fumble caused by DE Zane Beehn, giving the Cats the ball at the LSU 24. After Williams rumbled down to LSU's two-yard line, Jones sneaked it in for a comfortable 28-3 lead.

LSU sandwiched Hood's second TD of the game with a pair of TDs before UK held the ball for the final 5:29 of the game to seal the 35-17 win.

Game Seven: Georgia 33, UK 28

(Attendance: 81,307)

Athens, Ga. — Kentucky's last-minute come-from-behind drive fell short as did its quest to win a fourth-straight SEC game as Georgia held on to defeat the Wildcats 33-28 in front of 81,307 Sanford Stadium fans.

The Wildcats scored on their first possession for the third time this season with a 70-yard, eight-play drive that was capped by QB Pookie Jones' two-yard TD plunge. Answering quickly for Georgia was QB Eric Zeier, who threw two TD passes, a 61-yard toss to FL Brice Hunter, and a 27-yard flip to SE Hason Graham, giving the Bulldogs a 14-7 advantage. UK was able to tie the game on the first play of the second quarter as Jones sneaked in from the one-yard line. Moe Williams' 29-yard TD scamper on UK's next possession gave the Wildcats a 21-14 advantage. After a Georgia FG and a Kentucky turnover, the Bulldogs drove it down to UK's one-yard line, where they punched it in with :05 left in the half, making it Georgia 24, Kentucky 21.

Georgia opened the second half with a FG to give the Bulldogs a six-point advantage. FL Clyde Rudolph returned the ensuing kickoff 21 yards to the UK 48-yard line. Eight plays later, Jones found WB Alfonzo Browning on a 11-yard TD pass for a 28-27 UK lead. The offensive battle turned to defense for a while until a UK fumbled punt set up Zeier's eight-yard TD toss to TE Shannon Mitchell, giving Georgia a 33-28 lead. The Wildcats marched down to Georgia's 28-yard line on their last possession but couldn't get any further as Georgia's Charlie Clemons intercepted Jones' pass with nine second left.

Game Eight: UK 26, Miss. State 17

(Attendance: 28,607)

Starkville, Miss. — Kentucky used just enough offense and some timely defense to overcome frigid 40-degree weather and an MSU fourth-quarter rally to defeat Mississippi State 26-17 on the road.

After Kentucky elected to kick off, FS Melvin Johnson stripped MSU's Kevin Bouie of the ball at the 27-yard line, where it was recovered by TB Randy Wyatt. Four plays later QB Pookie Jones hit TE Terry Samuels with a two-yard TD pass as UK scored on its first possession for the fourth time this season. Two possessions later, UK was forced to punt from MSU's 38-yard line and P Dan Ariza bounced a knuckle ball down to the two-yard line. DT Jon Collins promptly hit MSU TB Michael Davis, knocking the ball out of the end zone for a safety and a 9-0 UK lead.

On the first play after the free kick, Kentucky fumbled it back to MSU at the UK 49-yard line. It took 11 plays for MSU to reach the 16-yard line, where the Bulldogs settled for a FG. Later, Kentucky LB Duce Williams intercepted a Todd Jordan pass, ending an MSU drive inside Kentucky territory. The Wildcats then marched 71 yards in nine plays, with Jones' 20-yard pass to WB Matt Riazzi setting up Jones' two-yard TD keeper.

On UK's next possession, Jones hit WB Alfonzo Browning over the middle for a 39-yard TD to extend the Wildcats' lead to 23-3. UK added a FG in the second half before the Bulldogs scored 14 unanswered points to pull within 26-17. But the Wildcats' defense stiffened, denying MSU a fourth-straight fourth-down conversion on its last drive.

Game Nine: Vanderbilt 12, UK 7

(Attendance: 35,500)

Nashville, Tenn. — A majority of the 35,500 people in attendance at Vanderbilt Stadium appeared to be Kentucky fans who traveled to Music City to cheer the Cats on to victory. But UK could not overcome a sluggish start and lost to the Commodores 12-7.

Although Vanderbilt did not score an offensive touchdown, it capitalized on UK misfortunes to put most of its points on the board. After a scoreless first quarter, Vanderbilt's Robert Davis intercepted a Pookie Jones pass attempt and returned it 45 yards for a touchdown, giving Vandy a 7-0 advantage.

On UK's next possesssion, TB Moe Williams advanced a pitch 20 yards to the Vandy 41-yard line. Then, on third-and-nine, Jones scrambled out of the pocket and threw to a wide-open Troy Hobbs for an apparent TD, but officials ruled that Jones had crossed the line of scrimmage and UK was stripped of the points. UK's only other scoring threat in the first half ended when Vandy stopped a fourth-and-one UK QB sneak at the 21-yard line and at the half it was still 7-0.

Neither team could manage to score in the third quarter as Vandy fumbled twice and UK's Juha Leonoff missed a 31-yard FG attempt.

Kentucky finally found the end zone with the help of Adrian Sherwood's interception, which gave UK the ball at the Vandy 30. Six plays later, Williams dove into the end zone, tying the game at 7-7. The Commodores managed a FG with 2:32 left in the game to take a 10-7 advantage. Kentucky's last chance at a comeback was thwarted by three Vandy sacks, the last being a safety, as the Commodores held on for a 12-7 victory.

Game Ten: UK 6, East Carolina 3

(Attendance: 34,500)

Lexington, Ky. — What was expected by many to be an easy UK victory turned out to be a hard-fought contest after a torrential downpour created swamp-like conditions. But UK survived the mire as freshman Nicky Nickels nailed a 29-yard FG with :28 left in the game to secure a 6-3 win over East Carolina.

East Carolina marched 68 yards on the very first possession and converted a 21-yard FG to take a 3-0 lead over the Wildcats. Most of the yards came on the first play from scrimmage as ECU TB Junior Smith darted 63 yards to set up the FG.

It took the Wildcats' offense two series to get on track (QB Pookie Jones left the game with a sprained ankle after UK's first series and never returned) — but when it did, UK marched 88 yards on 20 running plays (and two incomplete passes) to the ECU one-yard line. On fourth-and-goal, TB Moe Williams was tripped up for a one-yard loss. The half ended with the Pirates leading 3-0.

Turnovers and mistakes plagued the third quarter as both teams struggled to put points on the board. ECU managed a drive all the way to the UK two-yard line but it stalled on a muffed FG try. UK was guilty of an interception and a fumble inside the ECU five-yard line as, for the second week in a row, the Cats failed to score a TD.

Nickels' 24-yard FG tied the game at 3-3 in the fourth period. At the 10:23 mark, UK began an 17-play drive, which took 8:38 off the clock and set up what looked to be UK's winning FG. But Nickels' 22-yard try sailed wide right. The pressure fell on UK's defense once again and once again it responded. On third-and-seven, UK CB Adrian Sherwood forced a Junior Smith fumble, which was recovered by LB Marty Moore. Six plays later, Nickels kicked the game-winning FG (29 yards) and UK escaped with a 6-3 win.

Game Eleven: Tennessee 48, UK 0

(Attendance: 57,878)

Lexington, Ky. — Kentucky's struggles against long-time rival Tennessee continued as the Wildcats lost the traditional "Battle for the Beer Barrel" 48-0 in front of a sold-out Commonwealth Stadium. The Volunteers rolled up more than 500 yards of total offense for the second-straight year and limited Kentucky to its third-lowest offensive output of the season.

Heisman hopeful Heath Shuler got Tennessee rolling early as he directed the Vols' very first drive 81-yards in 10-plays and capped it off with a 8-yard TD flip to SE Cory Fleming. The first quarter ended with UT holding a 7-0 advantage.

In the second quarter UT's John Becksvoort nailed a 35-yard FG to make it 10-0. With 2:33 left in the half, the Vols began a 10-play, 55-yard drive that ended with Charlie Garner's 6-yard TD. The halftime score was Tennessee 17, Kentucky 0 as UK's offense struggled, managing only four first downs and never crossing midfield.

The Wildcats returned from the lockerroom prepared to get back in the game. After UK's defense forced a punt, the offense marched down to the UT 23 yard-line, but on 4th-and-3, the Cats elected to try a FG and Nicky Nickels' 40-yard attempt was wide right. Tennessee took over and marched 76-yards in 9 plays, scoring on Shuler's 19-yard pass to Fleming to extend UT's lead to 24-0. UT added a FG before the quarter ended, making it 27-0.

Kentucky's only scoring threat came as QB Pookie Jones marched the team down to the Volunteer three-yard line, but on 4th-and-goal, Jones' pass was intercepted. Tennessee added three TD's in the final 8:21 to make the score 48-0.

Peach Bowl: Clemson 14, UK 13

(Attendance: 63,416)

Atlanta, Ga. — The Wildcats met the 24th-ranked Clemson Tigers in the 26th annual Peach Bowl and came within one minute of winning their sixth bowl in eight tries. But a Clemson TD in the closing seconds sent UK home with a 14-13 loss.

Kentucky took the opening kickoff and marched down the field to the Clemson two-yard line, where what appeared to be a QB Pookie Jones-to-WB Alfonzo Browning TD was instead a turnover when Browning fumbled the ball while attempting to extend it over the goal line.

Clemson took over on its own one and proceded to march 99 yards for the game's first score, a two-yard TD plunge by TB Emory Smith. The PAT gave the Tigers a 7-0 lead. Clemson ran the ball 15 times and attempted only three passes in the drive.

Kentucky was stopped again at the one-yard line before the Wildcats finally scored on Nicky Nickels' 34-yard FG in the second period, making the score Clemson 7, Kentucky 3.

UK captured the lead early in the fourth quarter when Jones hit WR Mark Chatmon with a five-yard TD pass, making it UK 10, Clemson 7. Nickels added another FG, this one from 26 yards, to extend UK's lead to 13-7. But after Dan Ariza's 55-yard punt pinned the Tigers inside their own 18-yard line, QB Patrick Sapp hit Smith with a 57-yard screen pass to move Clemson into scoring position. With less than a minute remaining, LB Marty Moore intercepted a Sapp pass, but fumbled it back, giving Clemson a second chance. The Tigers capitalized when Sapp hit WR Henry Smith with the game-winning 21-yard TD pass. Kentucky got the ball back with less than 20 seconds remaining, but could move no farther than its own 40.

Throughout its 62-year history the Southeastern Conference has been a leader in the integration of athletic competition and higher education.

Since its formation in 1933, the SEC has achieved both stature and stability by designating governing/voting power to the presidents of the member institutions. They have determined the policies of the conference and through the years this involvement has been the principal source of strength in the evolution of the SEC.

Intercollegiate athletics has encountered many challenges in the 1990s and again the SEC provided guidance. In 1993, the member institutions adopted The Principles of Gender Equity. Committed to increasing the quantity and quality of women's athletic opportunities, each school will provide at least two more women's intercollegiate programs than the number of men's.

Faced with the task of conference realignment after competing with 10 members since 1966, the SEC welcomed the University of Arkansas on Aug. 1, 1990, and the University of South Carolina on Sept. 25, 1990. Joining charter members Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Tennessee and Vanderbilt, on July 1, 1991, Arkansas and South Carolina became the first schools added in conference history.

Fully incorporated into conference competition by 1992, Arkansas and South Carolina participated in SEC championships for all sports except football during the 1991-92 academic year. The SEC was again at the forefront, introducing football, basketball and baseball divisional play and the nation's first ever Division I football championship game.

SEC schools began athletic competition with one another almost 100 years ago as members of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association.

Seven institutions (Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, Sewanee and Vanderbilt) attended the SIAA organizational meeting of faculty representatives, called by Dr. William L. Dudley of Vanderbilt, in Atlanta Dec. 22, 1894.

Student teams from the schools began meeting in various sports with little pattern to their contests. Baseball was the most popular campus sport, but the American adaptation of the English game rugby, called "football" was drifting down from the East and Midwest. Southerners were quickly attracted to this sport formalized in 1869.

The first football game in the Southeast was played April 9, 1880, on the ground now called Old Stoll Field at the University of Kentucky. Kentucky, then known as Kentucky A&M, was host to the contest in which Transylvania College, then called Kentucky University, upset Centre College 13 3/4 to 0. Kentucky A&M (now UK) organized a team and in November 1881, played Transylvania in a three-game series (winning 7 1/2 to 1, then losing 1 to 2 and 2 1/2 to 3 3/4). By 1895 11 current SEC members were playing football.

Basketball moved quickly to the South as Vanderbilt was playing at the Nashville YMCA in 1893, just two years after Dr. James Naismith originated the game at Springfield (Mass.) College. The Commodores won 9-6 in a game with nine players on each team. Basketball became an intercollegiate sport in 1901 and in 1908 Vanderbilt was meeting Columbia and Yale intersectionally.

Track was organized on a conference level at the 1895 SIAA meeting presided over by President Dudley who served until his death in 1914. The first championship meet was held at Vanderbilt May 15, 1896. By 1900 eight of the 13 charter SEC members were participating.

The seven-member SIAA expanded to 19 institutions in 1895 (Alabama, Auburn, Central, Clemson, Cumberland, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Mercer, Mississippi State, Nashville, North Carolina, Sewanee, Southwestern Presbyterian, Tennessee, Texas, Tulane and Vanderbilt) and by 1920 there were 30 members.

The larger schools reorganized as the Southern Conference at a meeting in Gainesville Dec. 12-13, 1920. Professor S.V. Sanford of Georgia called the meeting and served as the first president. Charter members of the Southern Conference included: Alabama, Auburn, Clemson, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Maryland, Mississippi State, North Carolina, North Carolina State, Tennessee, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Washington & Lee.

Despite an original limit of 16, the membership grew to 23 by 1928. In 1922 Florida, Louisiana State, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tulane, Vanderbilt and Virginia Military joined, while Sewanee and Duke became members in 1923 and 1928 respectively. At one time or another the SIAA and the SC included most of the Southern colleges from Virginia to Texas.

The 13 members west and south of the Appalachian Mountains reorganized as the Southeastern Conference at the annual SC meeting of Dec. 8-9, 1932, in Knoxville. The 10 coast members remained in the Southern Conference. Dr. Frank L. McVey of Kentucky was elected president of the new conference whose charter members were: Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Louisiana State, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt. (Sewanee withdrew Dec. 13, 1940, Georgia Tech on June 1, 1964 and Tulane on June 1, 1966). McVey held an informal meeting of the school presidents in Birmingham Feb. 16, 1933, then the first full meeting in Atlanta Feb. 27.

The office of the commissioner was formed in 1940 in Jackson due to the great amount of detail work developing, especially in recruiting and eligibility. Former Mississippi Governor Martin S. Conner took office as commissioner Aug. 21, 1940, as an extension of the authority of the presidents. Conner later became ill and the secretary of the conference, Dean N.W. Dougherty of Tennessee, served as acting commissioner during the fall of 1946.

The office moved to Birmingham with the appointing of Bernie H. Moore as the second full-time commissioner on Feb. 21, 1948. Moore, a former LSU coach, guided the SEC to national respect in his 18-year tenure.

A.M. (Tonto) Coleman succeeded Moore upon his retirement April 1, 1966. The Alabama native, who was reared in Texas and experienced in athletic coaching and administration, served six and a half years.

Dr. H. Boyd McWhorter, then Dean of Arts and Sciences at Georgia and secretary of the league since 1967, accepted the position upon the retirement of Coleman Aug. 1, 1972. Under his leadership the SEC experienced unparalleled growth. In McWhorter's first year the SEC distributed $1.57 million and 14 years later (1986) the league distributed $15 million in revenue to the member institutions.

Dr. Harvey W. Schiller, an Air Force colonel and faculty chair at the U.S. Air Force Academy, followed McWhorter upon retirement, taking office Sept. 15, 1986. Under his guidance the SEC established itself as a leader in the areas of athletic scholarship and marketing.

Roy F. Kramer succeeded Schiller on Jan. 10, 1990. Kramer, who has served on numerous NCAA committees, joined the league office after spending 12 years as athletic director at Vanderbilt.

The first SEC champions were crowned in 1933 in four sports (baseball, basketball, football and outdoor track). The league's inaugural championship event was a basketball tournament in Atlanta Feb. 24-28, 1933. Records show the first men's team title for cross-country was awarded in 1935, while golf and swimming were added in 1937. The league later began hosting championships in tennis (1953) and indoor track (1957). A men's all-sports champion (Bernie Moore Trophy) has been awarded every year since 1973-74.

In the 1979-80 academic year SEC championships for women were recognized in basketball, tennis and volleyball. The following year golf, gymnastics, swimming and track and field were added. The administration of women's athletics officially came under the auspices of the conference office on Sept. 1, 1984. A women's all-sports champion has been awarded every year since 1983-84.

The SEC currently regulates nine men's sports and 10 women's sports: Men - baseball, basketball, football, golf, swimming, tennis and track (cross country, indoor and outdoor). Women - basketball, golf, gymnastics, soccer, swimming, tennis, track (cross country, indoor and outdoor) and volleyball.

THE UNIVERSITY

THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

From its modest beginnings in 1865, when it was known as State College, the University of Kentucky has grown into one of the nation's most outstanding institutions of higher learning. As a comprehensive land-grant university, UK offers an educational experience that cannot be matched anywhere in the Commonwealth. In fact, only a small number of institutions across the nation can offer the wealth of opportunities that awaits students at UK. At Kentucky, there is a tradition of value.

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY FACTS

History

UK was founded in 1865 as a land-grant institution, and the present name dates to 1916. The Lexington campus has 673 acres. Dr. Charles T. Wethington, Jr., is UK's 10th president.

Students

The University of Kentucky now has more than 72,000 students with 24,200 on the Lexington campus and 48,000 at the 14 community colleges across the state. UK now educates 39 percent of all students in Kentucky attending a public or private college or university. There are 5,100 students now enrolled in graduate school with 95 master's and 59 doctoral programs offered.

Faculty

There are 1,685 full-time faculty on the Lexington campus and another 1,143 faculty in the community colleges. Faculty brought in more than $100 million in grants, contracts and gifts to the University during the last academic year.

Academic Programs

Currently, there are 17 academic colleges and a graduate school. Students have a choice of 108 undergraduate majors from which to choose. The University is recommended in seven publications for its value in providing higher education.

Research

UK ranks among the Top 100 research institutions in the nation, and is one of only 45 public universities in the United States — the only one in Kentucky — to be classified as a Research University of First Class.

Medical Center

The Albert B. Chandler Medical Center, including a 473-bed hospital, is located on the Lexington campus. Over 3,789 students are enrolled in its five colleges—medicine, dentistry, nursing, pharmacy, and allied health professions.

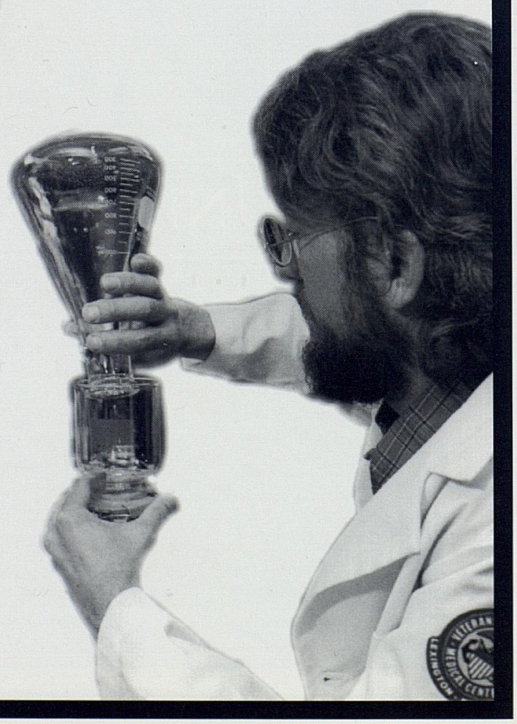

Library

The UK Library System contains more than two million volumes and is inter-connected by computer with each of the 14 community colleges. The library is ranked 34th among the 108 top university research libraries in North America based upon the number of volumes held. The University has raised $18 million in private funds toward the construction of a new $58 million state-of-the-art library.

Sports

The current number of UK sports on the varsity level is 21 — 10 men's sports, 10 women's sports, and 1 coed sport. The men's sports consist of football, basketball, baseball, cross country, indoor and outdoor track, tennis, swimming, golf, and soccer. For the women, UK sponsors basketball, volleyball, swimming, golf, tennis, gymnastics, cross country, indoor and outdoor track, and soccer on the varsity level. The single coed sport is rifle.

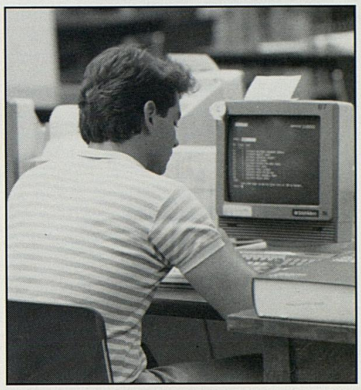

The UK men's basketball team has been prominent nationally for 50 years under the leadership of four coaches, ranging from Adolph Rupp to Rick Pitino. The UK football program also offers the excitement of top-level competition in the Southeastern Conference and is headed by Coach Bill Curry.

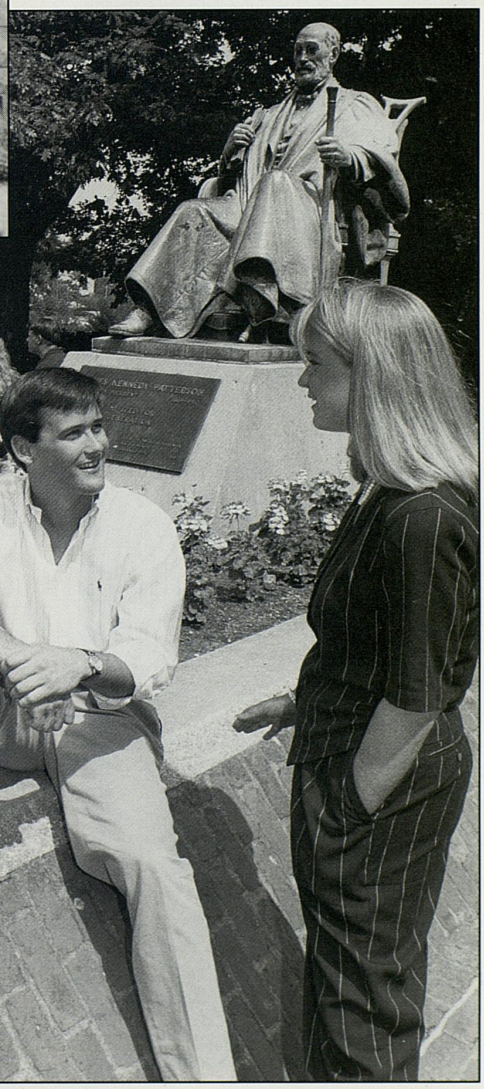

The University

The University of Kentucky boasts an enrollment of 24,000 at the Lexington campus.

Charles T. Wethington Jr., was elected the 10th president of the University of Kentucky on September 18, 1990.

Wethington began his career in higher education in 1965 as a faculty member on the Lexington campus of the University and two years later he was named chief administrator of Maysville Community College. In 1971 he moved to Lexington as assistant vice president, becoming vice president of the Community College System in 1981.

In the University reorganization of 1982 he was named chancellor of the UK Community College System, one of the three major sectors of UK. In 1987 he was given university-wide responsibilities for public and governmental relations in addition to his community college role, and his title was changed to Chancellor for the Community College System and University Relations.

Wethington earned his master's and doctoral degrees at the University of Kentucky.

The Kentucky native has been active on the national higher education scene. He has been a member of the Executive Council of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools' Commission on Colleges, and served as its vice chairman. He served as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools from 1986-1989.

Wethington is a member of the Southern Regional Education Board and the Southern Growth Policies Board. He currently serves as president of the Southeastern Conference Presidents' group.

During 1957-61 he served in the U. S. Air Force Security Service. He studied Russian at Syracuse University, 1958-59.

Wethington is married to Judy Woodrow Wethington from Danville. They have a son, Kennan, and a daughter, Lisa.

C.M. Newton, UK Director of Athletics

When Charles Martin (C. M.) Newton became the University of Kentucky's seventh Director of Athletics on April 1, 1989, he hit the ground running.

After a little more than five years on the job, Newton has become one of the most popular public figures in the Commonwealth of Kentucky. In addition to a lengthy, impressive list of credentials, Newton brought to Kentucky a sparkling reputation of integrity at a crucial time in the history of UK Athletics. In accepting the position at his alma mater, Newton summarized his goals and objectives by saying, "I have a resolve to try very hard to continue that great tradition, and at the same time, to totally do it within the NCAA and SEC rules and not sacrifice the academic integrity of this University."

Newton capped an illustrious basketball coaching career by leading his final Vanderbilt University team to a 19-14 record, a second-place SEC finish and its second consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance during the 1988-89 season. He was named SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and also received the Kodak NABC District IV Coach of the Year award. Newton served as head basketball coach and associate athletics director at the Nashville school from 1982 to 1989, compiling a 129-115 record. In 32 years of coaching at Transylvania, Alabama and Vanderbilt, Newton compiled a 509-375 record overall. His Alabama teams won three consecutive Southeastern Conference championships.

Perhaps more impressive, however, was Newton's ability to produce winning teams that also possessed exceptional academic credentials. During Newton's tenure at Vanderbilt, 18 Commodores were named to the Academic All-SEC team, over 50 percent more than any other league school. And including his last graduating class, all 21 seniors received their diplomas. Newton is highly regarded on the national level. He has served on the board of directors of the National Association of Basketball Coaches. He worked six years on the NCAA Basketball Rules Committee, serving as chairman of that elite group for five of those years. He currently serves as president of USA Basketball, the nation's governing body for international basketball, and as chairman of its Games Committee, which is responsible for all international competition, including the Olympic Games. He is also a member of the prestigious NCAA Division I Basketball Committee, and is chair of an NCAA committee on basketball issues, and a chair of the NCAA Basketball Officiating Committee.

Newton has literally circled the globe to promote the game of basketball. He served as team manager, a combination coaching and administrative position, on the 1984 U.S. Olympic team that won the gold medal. Indiana coach Bob Knight, who tabbed Newton for the Olympic staff, called him "the finest gentleman in our business." In 1983 and 1987, Newton took his Vanderbilt squads to the Republic of China (Taiwan) to represent the United States in the R. William Jones Cup International Tournament, winning the gold medal in 1983 and the silver in 1987. He has also conducted coaching clinics in numerous countries.

Newton began his coaching career at Transylvania College (now Transylvania University) in Lexington. Recommended for the job by Coach Rupp, Newton guided Transy to a 169-137 record in his 12 years at the helm despite the handicap of a limited scholarship program.

In 1969, once again with the backing of Rupp, Newton answered a call from Paul "Bear" Bryant to take on the challenge of building the downtrodden Alabama basketball program. During his 12-year tenure, Newton orchestrated a complete turnaround in the Crimson Tide's basketball fortunes, compiling a sparkling 211-123 record. In addition to the three SEC championships, Newton guided the Tide to two trips to the NCAA Tournament and four berths in the NIT. A satisfied Bryant once remarked "C. M. Newton is a winner, and that's important, but more than anything else, he wins or loses with class, and that's more important."

With few horizons left to conquer at Alabama, Newton resigned at the end of the 1980 season to accept a job as assistant commissioner of the Southeastern Conference. A year later, when Vanderbilt athletics director Roy Kramer was searching for a coach of national stature to head the Commodore basketball program, Newton was the obvious man for the job.

Newton was born Feb. 2, 1930, in Rockwood, Tenn. He grew up in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., where he was eventually named a charter member of that city's Sports Hall of Fame, along with Chris Evert, Julius Boros, and the late Brian Piccolo. After high school, Newton enrolled at UK on a basketball scholarship. He was a letterman on the Wildcats' 1951 national championship team. Also a standout baseball pitcher, Newton hurled in the New York Yankees minor league system before entering college coaching.

Newton and his wife, Evelyn, have three grown children — son Martin, and daughters Deborah and Tracy — and four grandchildren.

UKAA Administrative Staff

LARRY IVY

Senior Associate Director of Athletics

Larry Ivy is in his 18th year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association. He was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Internal Affairs in 1989 after serving as Assistant AD for 13 years, and was named Senior Associate in 1993.

As Senior Associate Athletics Director, he serves in the absence of the Athletics Director in the day-to-day operation of the Athletics Association. He has daily responsibilities for the football and men's basketball programs as well as responsibility for operation of the ticket office, accounting, purchasing, data processing, facilities, maintenance, and grounds.

In addition to those duties, Ivy serves as game management director for all UK home football and basketball games. He also has served as tournament manager for the 1985 NCAA Final Four, 1982, 1986, and 1993 Southeastern Conference Men's Basketball Tournaments, five NCAA Mideast/Southeast Regionals (1977, '80, '84, '89, '92), and the 1994 NCAA Southeast First and Second Rounds. He currently serves as chairman of the SEC Basketball Tournament ticket committee.

Ivy, a native of Huntsville, Ala., joined the University of Kentucky in 1969 as Director of Student Housing, moving from the University of Alabama. He joined the UKAA staff in 1976.

Ivy earned his undergraduate degree (1967) and MBA (1968) from the University of Alabama. He is married to the former Lorain Darnell of Paducah. He has one daughter, Kim.

BERNADETTE LOCKE-MATTOX

Assistant Director of Athletics/Primary Women's Administrator

Bernadette Locke-Mattox is in her first year as an Assistant Athletics Director at the University of Kentucky.

Locke-Mattox, who is a former UK men's basketball assistant coach, is the primary women's administrator for UK's Athletics Department. Her duties include supervising eight non-revenue sports, monitoring athletic department compliance with Title IX and gender equity guidelines and managing all games and events held in Memorial Coliseum.

As an assistant for the UK men's basketball team, Locke-Mattox earned the distinction of being one of the first females to coach on a Division I men's staff. In addition to coaching, her responsibilities included monitoring the academic progress of the student-athletes and assisting them with career placement. During her tenure, the Wildcats compiled a record of 108-24, won three consecutive SEC Tournament titles and advanced to the NCAA's Elite Eight and Final Four.

Locke-Mattox, a native of Philadelphia, Tenn., came to UK in June 1990. She was an All-America basketball player at her alma mater, the University of Georgia, before serving as assistant coach with the Lady Bulldogs program. She is married to Vincent Mattox.

KATHY DEBOER

Associate Director of Athletics

Kathy DeBoer, who is in her 10th year at the University of Kentucky, was promoted to Associate Director of Athletics in 1993.

DeBoer is the director of the Athletics Association's Blue and White Fund and supervises the fundraising and development activities of the department.

Prior to her promotion, DeBoer was the Assistant Athletics Director for UK's non-revenue sports and the women's volleyball coach. In her nine seasons with the volleyball team, DeBoer led her Wildcats to an impressive 212-96 record, including three Southeastern Conference titles, two SEC Tournament championships, and the 1991 National Invitational Volleyball Championship. DeBoer, the 1987 Tachikara National Coach of the Year, took UK to the Final Eight in 1987 and the NCAA Final 16 in 1988, 1990, and 1992. Several of her assistants moved on to head coaching positions at other Division I schools, including Mary Wise at Florida, Sharon Dingman at Butler, and Nona Richardson at Eastern Michigan.

DeBoer spent four seasons as volleyball coach at Ferris State University prior to coming to UK. She led Ferris State to a pair of Great Lakes Conference Championships.

DeBoer received her bachelor's degree from Michigan State in 1978 and finished her MBA at Kentucky in 1988.

She is married to Mark Pittman of Lexington.

RENA VICINI

Assistant Director of Athletics/Media Relations

Rena Vicini enters her 14th year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association. She was named Assistant Athletics Director for Media Relations on June 11, 1993, replacing Chris Cameron.

Vicini, a native of Lynch, directs all public relations efforts for UK's 21 varsity men's and women's sports. She had served as Associate Director for Communications at UK since July, 1991.

She had worked as a sportswriter and reporter before joining the UK staff in 1981. Vicini, a 1977 graduate of Kentucky, worked as a reporter for the Harlan Daily Enterprise, as a sportswriter for the Louisville Courier-Journal, and as a sportswriter/columnist for the Lexington Herald-Leader.

Vicini came to the UK Athletics Association in 1981 as Assistant Sports Information Director under then-SID Russell Rice. She had worked as Assistant SID until the promotion to Associate SID in 1991.

BOB BRADLEY

Assistant Director of Athletics/Academics

Bob Bradley is in his 17th year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association, coming aboard in 1977.

Bradley, a native of Hornell, N.Y., supervises all academic affairs regarding the UK Athletics program, including the operation of the CATS (Center for Academic and Tutorial Services) Center. He has also instituted a career development program for UK student-athletes.

During Bradley's tenure, UK student-athletes have consistently been honored for their academic achievements, both on a conference and national level. In 1989, the UK football program won the College Football Association's prestigious Academic Achievement Award, given to the University with the highest graduation rate among its football players over a five-year period. UK received Honorable Mention status in 1988, 91, 93 and 94.

Bradley graduated from Hornell High School and earned his degree at Salem College in 1971. He earned his Master's degree in 1972 from the University of Kentucky in educational psychology and counseling. He is a past president of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletes (NYA).

Prior to joining the UKAA staff, he served as coordinator of career counseling and director of financial aid for the Lexington Technical Institute.

He is married to the former Robin Stewart.

JOHN CROPP

Assistant AD/Special Projects

John Cropp is in his fourth year at the University of Kentucky and his 17th overall involving collegiate athletics.

Cropp, a 1961 graduate of Vanderbilt University, has held three different titles at Kentucky — Assistant Football Coach (tight ends), Athletics Recruiting Coordinator and his current title of Assistant Athletics Director/Special Projects.

For the first 14 years of Cropp's athletics career he was involved in coaching. His first head coaching position came at Tennessee High School in Bristol, Tenn. Cropp's squads compiled an impressive 48-15-3 record with two state AAA titles (1971-72) and the '72 mythical national championship.

Cropp returned to his alma mater in 1973 as an assistant coach under Steve Sloan. He followed Sloan as an assistant to Texas Tech (1975-77), Ole Miss (1978-82) and Duke (1983). In 1984, Cropp returned to Vanderbilt under head coach George MacIntyre. He entered private business for two years (1986- 87) before returning to Vanderbilt for a third time. Cropp served as Assistant Athletics Director for Compliance at Vanderbilt for three years before coming to Kentucky.

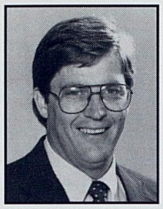

Cropp earned three varsity letters at Vanderbilt as a guard/linebacker. He received the 1961 Wade-Looney Memorial Award as a senior.

Cropp and his wife, Mary Ann, have two grown children, Karen and David.

university of kentucky

Kentucky Football enters its 104th season of competition on Sept. 3 as the Wildcats and Louisville meet for the first time in 70 years.

From UK's first All-American Clyde Johnson, to its last, Mike Pfeifer, from Professor A.M. Miller to Bill Curry, from old Stoll Field to modern Commonwealth Stadium, from the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association to the Southeastern Conference, and with all the ensuing changes, Kentucky football holds a unique and storied tradition that began in 1881.

UK Football holds a captivating list of firsts: UK was the first Southeastern Conference team to introduce football, which it did in 1881; UK played in the first and only Great Lakes Bowl in 1947, defeating Villanova, 24-14; Kentucky tackle Bob Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy making him the first player from the SEC to claim the honor; the Wildcats' Nat Northington was the first black player to sign with a Southeastern Conference institution and the first to play in a league contest vs. Ole Miss in 1967. And in 1989, UK became the first SEC school to win the coveted College Football Association Academic Achievement Award for highest graduation rate.

In 103 seasons, Kentucky has participated in 981 contests and owns 490 wins, 447 losses and 44 ties. The 490 victories rank 39th among Division 1-A programs in most wins. UK's overall winning percentage is a .522.

Kentucky football has won two Southeastern Conference championships and appeared in eight bowls, claiming the CFA Academic Achievement Award on May 8, 1989. The Wildcats owned a graduation rate of 90 percent after 18 of 20 of their 1983 incoming freshmen signees left UK with a diploma.

UK football has had 32 head coaches, 12 National Football League first-round draft choices, one Outland Trophy winner, 18 first team All-Americans, five Academic All-Americans, 48 first team All-SEC players and 140 Academic All-SEC selections.

Kentucky football got its start on Nov. 12, 1881. Kentucky, known in those days as A&M College, Kentucky State College and/or State University of Kentucky, defeated Kentucky University by the clumsy score of 7 1/4 to 1. The game of football resembled more of a rugby form and the scoring procedure is still unclear.Though football came to Kentucky in 1881, it quickly vanished after the three-game season. UK finished 1-2 in the inaugural campaign, but the lid was shut on UK football for the next nine seasons.

Football returned permanently to the University of Kentucky in 1891, when UK defeated Georgetown College, 8-2, on April 10, 1891. The sport would not again be interrupted until the 1943 season because of World War II.

The first known head football coach at Kentucky was Professor A.M. Miller, a Princeton graduate. Miller began the 1892 season as head coach and led UK to a 2-2-1 ledger through five games. He was replaced by John A. Thompson at the conclusion of the 1892 campaign.

Some successful years in the early 1900s dot the UK record book. Kentucky finished 7-1 in 1903 under Coach C.A. Wright; 9-1 in 1904 under Coach F.E. Schact; 9-1-1 in 1907 with Coach J. White Guyn, and 9-1 in 1909 under E.R. Sweetland.

The greatest UK team of that era was the 1898 squad, known simply to Kentuckians as "The Immortals". To this day, the Immortals remain the only undefeated, untied, and unscored upon team in UK football history. The Immortals were coached by W.R. Bass and ended the year a perfect 7-0-0, despite an average weight of 147 pounds per player. Victories came easy for this squad, as the

Immortals raced by Kentucky University (18-0), Georgetown (28-0), Company H of the 8th Massachusetts (59-0), Louisville Athletic Club (16-0), Centre (6-0), 160th Indiana (17-0) and Newcastle Athletic Club (36-0).

Besides Bass, two of the most successful coaches in the early stages of UK Football were E.R. Sweetland and Harry Gamage. Sweetland compiled a 23-5 mark in three seasons (1909-10, 12). His best year was 9-1 in '09. Gamage, on the other hand, had the longest tenure of any head coach during the first 43 years of Kentucky football. Gamage took the reigns of the UK program in 1927 and remained until following the 1933 campaign. In between, Gamage led the Wildcats to a combined 32-25-5 record. His best season was 6-1-1 in '29.

One of Gamage's brightest moments came during the 1930 season. During the 57-0 blanking of Maryville, UK runningback Shipwreck Kelly rushed for a school- record 280 yards in leading the Cats.

More than a decade after Gamage had left UK, a young man by the name of Paul "Bear" Bryant arrived on the scene at Lexington in 1946. All Bryant did was quickly grab the UK program by the collar and turn the Cats into a national power.

Bryant took UK to eight consecutive winning seasons (1946-53) and helped the Wildcats claim their first Southeastern Conference championship in 1950. He also sent UK squads to four bowl games which included the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl, 1950 Orange Bowl, 1951 Sugar Bowl, and the 1952 Cotton Bowl.

The biggest win in UK football history came under Bryant. After leading Kentucky to its first SEC title and a 10-1 regular-season record, UK found itself matched with national champion Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl. The Wildcats scored early and held off the Sooners, 13-7, breaking Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak which is currently the seventh-longest in NCAA history.

Also under Bryant, tackle Bob Gain became the first UK and SEC player to win the Outland Trophy in 1950. Other standouts in the Bryant era included George Blanda, All-American Babe Parilli, and former UK coach Jerry Claiborne.

Coach Bryant led UK to eight consecutive winning seasons and four Bowl games.

Bryant left Kentucky following the 1953 season. He compiled an impressive 60-23-5 record in eight years. Bryant's 60 victories are still a UK football record for head coaches.

Blanton Collier had the uneasy task of following in Bryant's footsteps. Collier took over the Kentucky football program in 1954 and promptly led the Wildcats to a 7-3 record during his initial campaign.

Collier stayed eight years at UK as well, etching a 41-36-3 record from 1954 to 1961. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his 5-2-1 record against arch-rival Tennessee. He coached All-Americans Lou Michaels (1957-58) and Howard Schnellenberger (1955) at UK.

Charlie Bradshaw became the head mentor at UK in time for the 1962 season. Bradshaw, a UK graduate who lettered four years (1946-49), managed only a 25-41-4 record in seven seasons. One highlight of his coaching career featured an upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss early in the 1964 season. Bradshaw's Cats held off the Rebels, 27-21, in Memorial Stadium at Jackson, Miss., and ranks as one of UK's all-time biggest victories.

John Ray entered the scene in 1969 as head coach. In four years, Ray was 10-33. His biggest win came during his first year as Kentucky again victimized Ole Miss and Archie Manning. The Cats upset the Rebels, 10-9, at Lexington.

The Fran Curci era began in 1973, the same year Kentucky moved from ancient Stoll Field/McLean Stadium to spacious Commonwealth Stadium. Though Curci had only one winning campaign during his first three years, things got interesting beginning with the 1976 season. UK ended the '76 year with an 8-3 record and its second SEC championship.

Kentucky helped secure its second league title on the strength of a 62-yard touchdown pass from Derrick Ramsey to Greg Woods to beat Tennessee, 7-0, at Knoxville, Tenn. The victory clinched a berth in the Peach Bowl against North Carolina, UK's first postseason appearance in 25 years. Before a UK contingent estimated at 25,000, the Cats blanked the Tar Heels, 21-0.

The following year, Kentucky went on NCAA probation. Despite an early season loss at Baylor, the Wildcats rolled to an impressive 10-1 record doing it the hard way. Kentucky defeated Penn State (24-20) at University Park, Pa., defeated LSU (33-13) at Baton Rouge, La., blanked Georgia (33-0) at Athens, Ga., beat Florida (14-7) at Gainesville, Fla., and defeated Tennessee (21-17) at Lexington.

In the Curci era, players like Sonny Collins (UK career leader with 3,835 yards rushing), All-Americans Warren Bryant and Art Still and multi-talented Derrick Ramsey, wore the blue and white.

Curci stepped down following the 1981 season. In all, Curci worked nine years as UK head coach (longest of any UK football coach) and was 47-51-2 overall.

Jerry Claiborne answered the call of his alma mater in December of 1981 and was named the school's 31st head football coach. Claiborne had played at UK from 1946-49 and was an assistant coach under Bryant at UK in 1952-53.

His first campaign, 1982, was murderous from a schedule standpoint. The '82 UK schedule was rated as the nation's 2nd-toughest and featured the likes of Oklahoma, Clemson, Auburn, LSU, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Kansas and Kansas State. The Cats were caught in the process of rebuilding and stumbled to an 0-10-1 record.

The winless mark would not deter Claiborne, however. In fact, his 1983 squad tied for the nation's most improved program with a regular-season record of 6-4-1. As a reward, the Hall of Fame Bowl offered an invitation and UK accepted to give the Cats their 6th bowl appearance.

Kentucky improved in 1984, finishing with a 9-3 record which included a thrilling 20-19 victory over Wisconsin in the '84 Hall of Fame Bowl. The nine victories were the most by a UK squad since the 1977 season.

After the '84 campaign, Kentucky strung together 5-6, 5-5-1, 5-6, 5-6, and 6-5 records to close out Claiborne's career. He stepped down with a 41-46-3 record in eight seasons at UK. Claiborne and Bryant, to this date, ended their careers as the only two coaches to win at least five games in seven consecutive seasons.

During Claiborne's tenure, Kentucky captured its first national title by winning the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. UK led the SEC in Academic All-SEC Honor selections (68) during the Claiborne era, including a league record of 17 players named to the 1989 Academic All-SEC Honor Roll.

Individually, quarterback Bill Ransdell played under Claiborne and left as UK's all-time leader in passing and total offense. Mark Higgs departed as the school's 2nd-leading rusher and tackle Oliver Barnett set a UK record with 26 quarterback sacks.

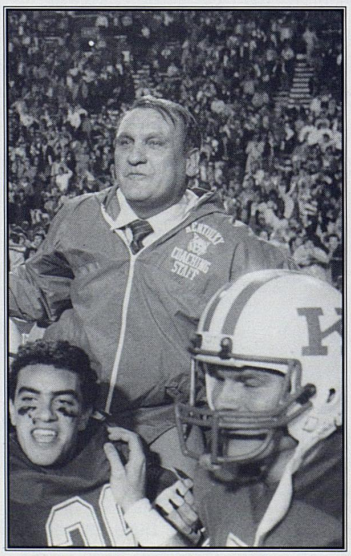

On Jan. 8, 1990, Kentucky began a new era by hiring its 32nd head football coach in Bill Curry. The hiring came only a week after Curry guided his Alabama squad in the 1990 USF&G Sugar Bowl. Curry had led the Crimson Tide to a share of the SEC title and a 10-1 regular-season mark in 1989.

In just four seasons, Curry led Kentucky back to post-season play for the first time in nine years as the 1993 Wildcats finished third in the SEC Eastern division (fourth overall) and qualified for the Peach Bowl in Atlanta, Ga., when the Wildcats lost to Clemson, 14-13, to finish 6-6 on the season.

Under Curry in 1993, UK recorded its first win over a ranked opponent since 1988, its first two-game SEC road winning streak since 1984, its first three-game SEC win streak and the most SEC wins since 1977. UK also recorded its first regular-season winning record since 1989.

In addition to succeeding on the field, Curry has maintained the high level of achievement in the classroom which was started by Jerry Claiborne as for the eighth time in 10 years, UK led the SEC in Academic Honor Roll selections.

Under Curry, UK is establishing a solid foundation of football success which could return the Wildcats to the storied tradition of their glory days.

chronology 1880 - 1993

Below is a closer look at some of the traditions and history which has molded the past 102 seasons of Kentucky football. Some of the anecdotes were derived from the book, "The Wildcats", which was written by former UK Sports Information Director Russell Rice.

1A AND 1B

During the course of his legendary career, Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant was known as an innovator of introducing changes in the game of football. One change Bryant introduced during his tenure at Kentucky was the use of a unique number system to identify twins Harry and Larry Jones, who both lettered three years (1950-52) with the Wildcats. Harry wore 1A and Larry wore 1B. Harry led the Wildcats in all-purpose yardage in 1951 with 964 while Larry led UK in kickoff returns (21.1 avg) in 1952.

BEER BARREL

The traditional Battle for the Beer Barrel is the annual football game between Kentucky and Tennessee. Currently, the series is the third-longest of SEC teams vs. SEC teams (89 games) and trails only the Auburn-Georgia (97) and Ole Miss-Mississippi State (90) rivalries. The Beer Barrel Trophy is actually an old beer barrel painted blue, orange and white and is presented to the winner of the annual contest. Every score, since the origination of the trophy in 1925, is printed on the barrel. Two Wildcat followers, Guy Hugelet and Rollie Guthrie, wanted to come up with something symbolic to represent the great rivalry. Originally, they decided to use an old whiskey barrel as the trophy but the Women's Temperance Union made a stand against it since it was during the time of Prohibition. The duo went to another distributor, John Galvin, and settled on a beer barrel. Then as the Anti-Saloon League stepped in, Hugelet and Guthrie compromised by painting the words "ice water" on the barrel. The first time the trophy was awarded was in 1925 as UK defeated the Vols, 23-20. In 89 meetings overall, Tennessee leads the series 57-23-9.

BIG THREE BOWLING

Soon after Paul Bryant arrived at Kentucky in 1946, the Kentucky Football Program quickly hit the bowl scene. Kentucky made its initial postseason appearance in the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl in Cleveland. Two years later, UK Football began arriving on the doorsteps of the Big Four, well, three of the Big Four. Kentucky made consecutive trips to the 1950 Orange Bowl, the 1951 Sugar Bowl and the 1952 Cotton Bowl under Bryant. The Wildcats were 2-1 in the Big Three. By today's standards, consecutive trips to the Cotton, Sugar, and Orange Bowl would be a powerful measuring stick for a collegiate football program. The only Big Four Bowl missing is the Rose Bowl.

LEADERSHIP COMMITTEE

Head Coach Bill Curry continued a tradition started at Georgia Tech and Alabama by implementing a football leadership committee at the University of Kentucky. Each year representatives are either elected or selected from each of the classes (Fr., RFr., So., Jr., Sr.) plus walk-ons to give players a direct line of communication to the coaches. "A leader is a consistent, powerful, positive presence," Curry said. "The reason it is good for our football team is because anyone can be a leader. You don't have to be an All-American or first-stringer."

BROWN GRASS

The changing of seasons occur in Commonwealth Stadium, too. From September, when the Wildcats open a football campaign, to the close in November, Commonwealth Stadium takes on a different look. That different look is in the turf. The natural grass playing surface at Commonwealth Stadium is a thick layer of bermuda. As the season slowly begins to turn from fall to winter, so does the bermuda from green to brown. The early morning frosts in late October start the seasonal changes in the bermuda. As a result, the Wildcats play their November home games on brown grass.

BOURBON BARREL

The famed Bourbon Barrel is the trophy presented to the winner of the Kentucky-Indiana football game. This series, though beginning in 1893, is only 24 games old but has quickly become one of the fiercest, most competitive contests in the region. As far as the origination of the Bourbon Barrel is concerned, no one is certain where the idea started. A possible answer stems from the great distillery industry located in Kentucky and southern Indiana. The Bourbon Barrel is mounted on a board for traveling purposes. The trophy is actually a half-barrel and lists all scores of the 24-game series. A blue stripe is painted in the background for a Kentucky win and a red stripe for an Indiana victory. Indiana leads the series, 15-8-1. Several years ago, both schools agreed contractually to extend the series annually through the year 2000.

PAUL "BEAR" BRYANT

Paul Bryant is still the most successful coach in UK Football History. Bryant spent eight years at UK (1946-53) and produced a 60-23-5 (.710 pct.) record. The 60 victories are the most by any UK football coach. He led the Wildcats to four bowl games and their first Southeastern Conference title in 1950. He coached such UK stars as George Blanda, Jerry Claiborne, Bob Gain, Babe Parilli, Doug Moseley, Wilbur Jamerson, and Steve Meilinger.

JERRY CLAIBORNE

After lettering three years (1946-49) as a player and serving two seasons (1952-53) as an assistant coach at Kentucky, Jerry Claiborne returned to his alma mater in 1982 as UK's 31st head football coach. Claiborne stepped down after 28 years as a collegiate head coach in 1989. He led the Wildcats to two bowls and four non-losing seasons. During his era, Kentucky placed more players (68) on the Academic All-SEC Honor Roll than any league school, including a record 17 in 1989. Claiborne also led UK to a national academic title by capturing the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. His eight-year UK record was 41-46-3. Overall, Claiborne finished 21st among Division I coaches with 179 career victories and 179-122-8 in all games.

CFA ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

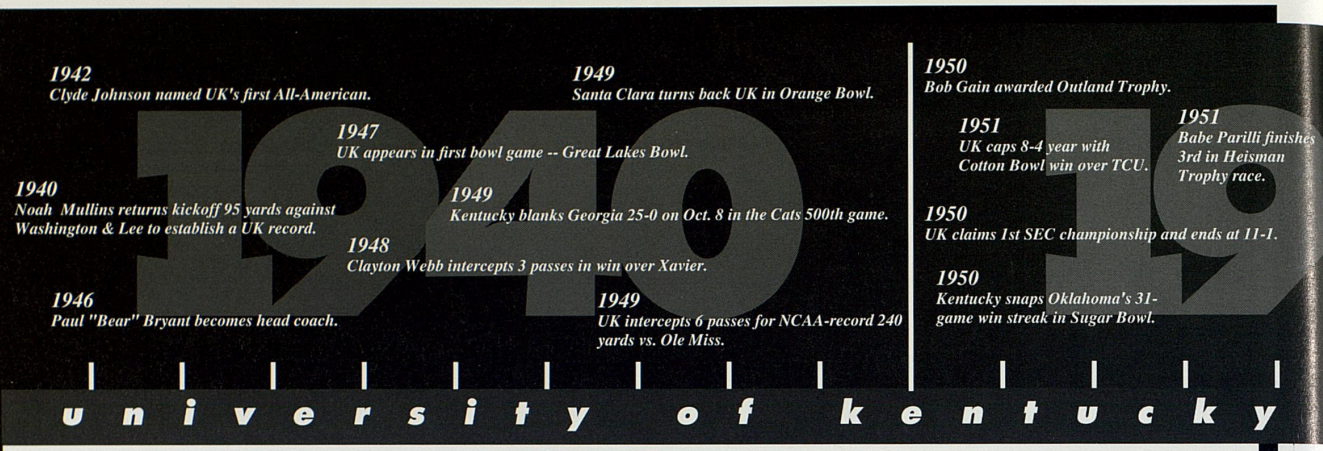

The University of Kentucky became the first Southeastern Conference institution to win the College Football Association Academic Achievement Award after claiming the prestigious honor in 1989. The Academic Achievement Award is given to the CFA institution with the highest graduation rate of its football program based on a five-year period. UK had graduated 90 percent (18 of 20) of its incoming freshman signee class of 1983, thus earning the honor in May, 1989. A year earlier (1988), UK finished second with a graduation rate of 90.5 percent. Kentucky has earned honorable mention honors in 1988, '91, '93 and '94, for having graduated better than 70 percent of its players.

Coach Curry receives Kentucky's 1994 CFA Honorable Mention Academic Award.

BLANTON COLLIER AND THE STAFF

Blanton Collier had the misfortune of following Paul Bryant as head football at the University of Kentucky. But, Collier posted a fine 41-36-3 record in eight seasons at UK. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his record against arch-rival Tennessee which stood at 5 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie. Standouts such as Howard Schnellenberger, Lou Michaels, Tom Hutchinson, Bobby Cravens, Calvin Bird and Irv Goode played under Collier. One fascinating item in Collier's tenure was the football coaching staff he assembled in 1959. The 1959 UK Coaching Staff included Collier, Ed Rutledge, Howard Schnellenberger, Ermal Allen, Don Shula, John North, Bob Cummings, and Bill Arnsparger.

FRAN CURCI

The Fran Curci era (1973-81) was one of ups and down at the University of Kentucky. Curci remained at UK for nine seasons, the longest tenure of any UK football coach, and posted a 47-51-2 record. The ups consisted of sharing the 1976 Southeastern Conference title with Georgia, a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina in the '76 Peach Bowl, and a 1977 squad which boasted a 10-1 record and No. 5 national ranking. The down was probation which forced the '77 squad to miss a certain bowl invitation.

FORWARD PASS

The first forward pass attempted by a University of Kentucky football player was thrown on Oct. 13, 1906, by quarterback Earl Stone as the Wildcats faced Eminence Athletic Club. This was the first year the forward pass was legalized by national rules. Accounts from this early contest do not indicate if the first forward UK pass was completed.

HOMECOMING GAMES

As in the case of most institutions, Homecoming football games are special. Kentucky is no exception. Alumni and old friends converge on the UK campus each fall for Homecoming Day, highlighted by a Kentucky football game. The Homecoming Queen and her court are presented in horse-drawn carriages which gives the event a distinct, Kentucky flavor. The first Homecoming Day occurred on Nov. 25, 1915, as Kentucky defeated Tennessee, 6-0. Though records are sketchy, Kentucky has hosted a Homecoming game every year since 1946 and owns a 37-11-0 record in those 47 contests.

THE IMMORTALS

Simply known as "The Immortals", the 1898 University of Kentucky football squad still remains as the only undefeated, untied, and unscored on Wildcats club in school history. The Immortals outscored opponents 180-0 while posting a perfect 7-0-0 record. Roscoe Severs served as team captain under coach W.R. Bass. The closest of all seven games was a 6-0 victory over Centre College.

CAWOOD LEDFORD

The legendary "Voice of the Wildcats" was none other than Cawood Ledford. For 39 years, Cawood called Wildcats Football and Basketball. His voice alone symbolized UK Athletics. Current UK Coach Bill Curry has fond memories of Cawood. "I remember those Saturday nights at College Park, Ga. I'd turn on the radio and listen to Cawood calling the action from old Stoll Field. He certainly is a huge part of Kentucky Football." Cawood called his last UK football game vs. Tennessee on Nov. 23, 1991, and retired from the microphone following the 1991-92 basketball season.

MINUS NINETY-THREE

The University of Kentucky holds the Southeastern Conference record for fewest yards allowed rushing in a single game. Kentucky limited Kansas State to a minus-93 yards on the ground as UK defeated Kansas State, 16-3, on Sept. 19, 1970, at Lexington. Kentucky defenders sacked KSU quarterbacks Lynn Dickey (2) and Max Arreguin (5) a total of seven times while intercepting three of their passes. Ironically, KSU outgained UK in total offense 214-107 as Dickey and Arreguin combined for 307 yards in the air.

THE FIRST NIGHT GAME

The University of Kentucky was one of the first institutions to play intercollegiate football at night. The first UK home night game was played on Oct. 5, 1929, at Stoll Field as Kentucky defeated Maryville, 40-0. Kentucky did not play more than one home night game per season until 1946.

NAT NORTHINGTON

Nat Northington of Louisville became the first black player to sign with the University of Kentucky and a Southeastern Conference institution. Northington signed a national letter-of-intent with UK in December of 1965. He later became the first African-American football player to play in a SEC vs. SEC game, appearing in the UK-Ole Miss game at Lexington on Sept. 30, 1967.

NIGHT GAMES

The University of Kentucky began holding its October home football games during the evening hours in 1949. UK and Keeneland Race Course, located in Lexington, have enjoyed a close relationship through the years and assist in giving UK faithful an opportunity to enjoy two of the Commonwealth's best-loved events in October — football and horse racing. With the traditional post time at Keeneland for the thoroughbred races at 1 p.m., UK began moving its October home games to night during the 1949 season. The only occasion UK has not conducted its October home games in the evening is to accomodate television. In 1991, athletics director C.M. Newton moved September home games to night as well to give Kentucky faithful a more consistent start time.

OUTLAND TROPHY

Two-time All-American Bob Gain is the only player in University of Kentucky football history to be awarded "The Outland Trophy", signifying the best interior lineman in collegiate football. Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy after helping lead UK to its first Southeastern Conference title and a 10-1 regular-season record. Besides being the first UK player to claim the award, Gain was also the first SEC player to be given the award.

PRINCE CHARLES OF WALES

The Kentucky Wildcats gave Prince Charles of Wales his first taste of American football on Oct. 22, 1977. That's right, Prince Charles first football game was the UK-Georgia matchup at Athens. Prince Charles was introduced to UK Coach Fran Curci and All-American Art Still at halftime. After looking at the 6-6 Still, Charles said, "You're a tall one aren't you?" Still and Co. blanked the Bulldogs on this day, 33-0, on their way to a 10-1 record.

RED DOC, BLACK DOC

A pair of cousins named William Rodes played football for the University of Kentucky during the early 1900s. To distinquish one from the other, one was nicknamed "Red Doc" and the other "Black Doc". William "Red Doc" Rodes lettered three years (1909, 11-12) as a 140-pound halfback and defensive end. William "Black Doc" Rodes lettered two years (1915-16) as quarterback. Black Doc was considered by many to be one of the best open-field runners in that era. He also placekicked and personally delivered UK's 6-0 victory over Tennessee in 1915 with field goals of 45 and 43 yards.

RUSSELL RICE

Longtime UK sports information director Russell Rice is the walking, talking historian when its comes to Wildcats Football. Rice retired from the UK Athletics Department in 1989 after serving 18 years as sports information director. He came to UK in 1967 as assistant SID under Ken Kuhn, then was named sports information director in 1969. Rice authored the book, "The Wildcats, Kentucky Football", which details Kentucky football and its history. At his retirement party, Rice was given a lifetime "Press Pass" to the Commonwealth Stadium press box.

STOLL FIELD/ McLEAN STADIUM

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was the first home for Kentucky Football. The stadium was located adjacent to Memorial Coliseum and served as UK's football home since 1916. The University Board of Trustees voted to name the playing field "Stoll Field" and the actual grandstand structures as "McLean Stadium", thus the often confusing double names. Stoll Field was named in honor of the late Judge Richard C. Stoll, a prominent alumnus, trustee and benefactor of UK. Stoll Field was dedicated on Oct. 14, 1916. McLean Stadium was dedicated on Nov. 1, 1924, in memory of Price Innes McLean, a regular center on the 1923 UK squad who died as a result of injuries sustained in the Kentucky-Cincinnati game on Nov. 6, 1923. The final seating capacity of Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was 37,000 during its last year of use, 1972.

THE THIN THIRTY

When Blanton Collier stepped down as head football coach at Kentucky following the 1961 season, UK promptly named former Wildcats' player Charlie Bradshaw as its 28th coach. Bradshaw inherited a squad of 88 players left from Collier's 5-5-0 team in '61. Bradshaw promised his new UK squad hard work and talked of training to an absolute peak of condition. His conditioning tactics took their toll as over 50 players left the squad, leaving 30 to open the season against Florida State and prompting the name "Thin Thirty". The Thin Thirty finished 3-5-2 on the season with victories over Detroit (27-8), Vanderbilt (7-0) and arch-rival Tennessee (12-10). The ties were against Florida State (0-0) and Georgia (7-7).

TURNAROUNDS

One of the biggest turnarounds in collegiate football happened at the University of Kentucky during the 1982 and 1983 seasons. Jerry Claiborne had replaced Fran Curci as head coach prior to the '82 campaign. Claiborne inherited a program in shambles and faced the nation's 2nd-toughest schedule which featured Oklahoma, Clemson, Auburn, LSU, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Kansas and Kansas State. Not surprisingly, Kentucky finished 0-10-1 in 1982 with only a 13-13 tie with Kansas keeping the Wildcats from an 0-11 slate. However, Claiborne turned the heat up in 1983 and went to work. UK reeled off consecutive wins against Central Michigan (31-14), Kansas State (31-12), Indiana (24-13), and Tulane (26-14) to start the season. The Cats also defeated LSU (21-13) and Vanderbilt (17-8) to finish the campaign with a 6-4-1 record. The turnaround, which tied Memphis State for the biggest turnaround in 1983, earned Kentucky a berth in the 1983 Hall of Fame Bowl.

VICTORY KICKS

The University of Kentucky defeated the Louisville YMCA, 12-6, in 1900. What is so unique about this contest is Kentucky did not run a single offensive play. Instead, Kentucky punted on first down each time it had the football and eventually scored on a pair of fumbles by the Louisville YMCA club which had occurred in their own endzone.

WILDCAT WALK

The University of Kentucky football team began in 1992 what could become a long-standing, game-day tradition by taking a 15-minute walk from the E.J. Nutter Football Training Center to Commonwealth Stadium approximately two hours before kickoff. A change in past pregame procedures created the Wildcats Walk. Until 1992, Kentucky football squads had spent Friday evenings before a home football game in a local motel and bused directly to Commonwealth Stadium. In 1992, UK Coach Bill Curry allowed his team to stay in their respective dormitory rooms on Friday evenings prior to a home game. The Wildcats gather at the Nutter Football Training Center for last-minute meetings and taping, then walk to Commonwealth Stadium as a team. The initial walks in 1992 attracted as many as 1,500 Wildcats faithful along the path.

WINNING STREAK

For the most part, the most famous winning streak in Kentucky football history is the one the Wildcats ended. The stage was set as UK faced Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl. Kentucky was coming off its first Southeastern Conference title and brought in a 10-1 record. Oklahoma entered as national champions and riding a 31-game winning streak. A pair of Wilbur Jamerson scores - a 22-yard pass from Babe Parilli and a one-yard run - was all UK needed in picking up a 13-7 upset of the Sooners and thus ending the 31-game streak. Today, the 31-game winning streak by Oklahoma ranks as the 7th-longest in NCAA history.

THE YEAR (1977-78)

Perhaps the most successful year in UK Athletics occurred during the 1977-78 academic year at the University of Kentucky. The 1977 Wildcats football squad, under Fran Curci, raced to a 10-1 record and ended the year ranked No. 5 by THE SPORTING NEWS. Highlights were victories over North Carolina (10-7), West Virginia (28-13), Penn State (24-20), LSU (33-13), Georgia (33-0), Florida (14-7) and Tennessee (21-17). On the basketball side, UK wrapped up its 5th NCAA Title by defeating Duke, 94-88, at St. Louis. The UK Basketballers ended the campaign with a 30-2 record under Joe B. Hall.

THE YEAR (1950-51)

An argument to the most successful year in UK Athletics is the 1950-51 academic year. UK Football, under Paul Bryant, ended the 1950 regular season with a 10-1 record and ranked No. 7 nationally by both A.P. and U.P.I. The Wildcats then proceeded to snap national champion Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak with a 13-7 victory in the Sugar Bowl. On the basketball front, Adolph Rupp gave UK its 3rd national title by defeating Kansas State, 68-58, at Minneapolis, Minn. The Wildcats ended the year 32-2. Current UK Athletics Director C.M. Newton was a letterman on that squad.

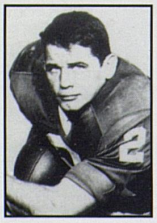

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was home to Kentucky football for 56 years (1916-1972). The seating capacity was 37,000 when the Wildcats played their final game inside the stadium in 1972, defeating Vanderbilt 14-13 on November 11.

GREAT LAKES BOWL

Kentucky 24, Villanova 14

1947 The Kentucky Wildcats made their first appearance on the bowl scene in the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl and came away with a 24-14 victory over Villanova before a crowd of 14,908 at Cleveland Municipal Stadium.

Kentucky, in its second year under head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, finished at 8-3 on the season with the victory.

Quarterback-placekicker George Blanda gave Kentucky an early 3-0 lead in the first quarter. Blanda connected on a 27-yard field goal to put the Cats up and it remained that way until halftime.

SCORING SUMMARY

VILLANOVA	0	0	0	14	- 14
KENTUCKY	3	0	7	14	- 24

UK - Blanda, 27 FG
UK - Howe, 29 run (Blanda PAT)
UK - Boller, 15 run (Blanda PAT)
UK - Boller, 49 interception return (Blanda PAT)
VU - Shehhan, 9 pass from Gordon
VU - Pasqunriello, 10 run

Attendance - 14,908

In the third quarter, UK's Jim Howe scampered 29 yards for a score. Blanda added the PAT and Kentucky led 10-0 after three periods.

Bill Boller scored both Kentucky touchdowns in the fourth period, romping 15 yards on a handoff from Blanda and racing 49 yards to paydirt with an interception. Blanda added both PATs to round out the Kentucky scoring.

Villanova also added a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns, but it was not enough as Kentucky captured its first bowl victory in school history.

ORANGE BOWL

Santa Clara 21, Kentucky 13

1950 Kentucky committed three turnovers and let a seven-point halftime lead slip away in dropping its first major bowl game, 21-13, to Santa Clara in the 1950 Orange Bowl before a crowd of 64,816.

The Wildcats, 9-3, scored their first touchdown early in the second quarter as a result of a Santa Clara turnover. UK's John Netoskie recovered at fumble at the Wildcat 49 to set up Kentucky's first score. The Wildcats drove 51 yards in 14 plays as Wilbur Jamerson hammered over from two yards. Bobby Brooks added the PAT to make it 7-0.

Kentucky wasted a golden scoring opportunity late in the second quarter when Babe Parilli found Bill Leskovar for a 45-yard completion to the SC 3 with time running out. Leskovar and runningmate Don Phelps each were stopped short on their respective rush attempts and the clock ran out before UK could score. The Wildcats led 7-0 at halftime.

SCORING SUMMARY

KENTUCKY	0	7	0	6	- 13
SANTA CLARA	0	0	14	7	- 21

UK - Jamerson, 2 run (Brooks PAT)
SC - Pasco, 1 run (Vargas PAT)
SC - Haynes, 4 run (Vargas PAT)
UK - Clark, 52 pass from Parilli (PAT missed)
SC - Wraith, 16 run (Vargas PAT)

Attendance - 64,816

UK coach Paul "Bear" Bryant said afterward he should have sent in a pass play just before the half. "If it failed," he said, "the clock was killed then we could have tried a field goal."

A short, 9-yard punt by Phelps set up Santa Clara's first score in the third quarter. After taking over on the SC 46, Bronco quarterback John Pasco hit Larry Williams on a 25-yard pass. Santa Clara eventually scored on a one-yard sneak by Pasco to tie the game, 7-7.

Santa Clara scored again later in the third period, thanks in part to a pass interference call against Kentucky. Hall Haynes went over from 4 yards to make it, 14-7, after three quarters.

Parilli led Kentucky right back, hitting Emery Clark on a 52-yard touchdown strike. Brooks, however, missed the tying PAT breaking a personal streak of 18 straight as Santa Clara led 14-13 with 12 minutes left in the contest.

Santa Clara managed to hold off the Cats and added an insurance score with less than a minute left, a 16-yard TD run by Buster Wraith.

SUGAR BOWL

Kentucky 13, Oklahoma 7

1951 Kentucky arrived on the national football scene and stunned national champion Oklahoma, 13-7, to capture the 1951 Sugar Bowl before 82,000 at New Orleans.

The Wildcats, 11-1, displayed a tough defense and opportunistic offense in snapping Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak, the longest in the nation at that time. More than 13,000 Kentucky fans made the long trip to New Orleans to watch the Southeastern Conference champions pick up their school record 11th win.

Under the direction of coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, Kentucky continually confused the favored Sooners with different defensive looks. The Wildcats used three tackles much of the time, causing OU quarterback Claude Arnold to hasten his playmaking.

Inflicting the most damage on the Sooners was Walt Yowarsky, a tackle who had played less than five minutes on the defensive side of the football in 1950. Yowarsky operated at left end, next to Outland Trophy winner Bob Gain, and repeatedly sliced into the Sooner backfield to break up passes and to make Arnold hurry his hand-offs and laterals.

Yowarski recovered a fumble on the OU 22 that set up UK's first touchdown. On the very next play, Babe Parilli hit Wilbur Jamerson in the right corner of the end zone for the touchdown. Gain added the PAT to make it 7-0 in the first quarter.

Kentucky marched 81 yards in the second quarter to go up 13-0. Jamerson dove over from the one to cap the drive, but Gain missed wide on the PAT.

The Wildcat defense, ranked number two in the nation, showed Oklahoma why late in the third quarter. The Sooners drove 67 yards with the second-half kickoff, sitting at the UK 3 with a first-and-goal. Yowarsky helped UK turn back the Sooners, throwing an OU runner for a five-yard loss on third down and Oklahoma eventually turned the ball over on downs.

Yowarsky, voted the game's MVP, thwarted another OU threat in the fourth quarter as he recovered a fumbled punt.

Oklahoma did score with seven minutes to play as Billy Vessels hit Merrill Green on a 17-yard pass for the touchdown. Jim Weatherall added the PAT.

The Wildcats managed to hold on to the football for all but one play the rest of the way to claim a stirring 13-7 win.

COTTON BOWL

Kentucky 20, TCU 7

1952 Quarterback Babe Parilli threw for two touchdowns to lead the Kentucky Wildcats to a 20-7 victory over the TCU Horned Frogs in the 1952 Cotton Bowl before a crowd of 75,349 at Dallas, Texas.

Parilli, who completed 8 of 20 passes for 85 yards, tossed both touchdown strikes to Emery Clark. With the victory, the Wildcats end the season at 8-4.

Kentucky got on the scoreboard first, as Parilli found Clark for the first of two TDs. Parilli hit Clark with a five-yard toss to culminate a 53-yard scoring march. Harry Jones added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after one quarter.

In the second period, UK got its second touchdown when Parilli and Clark hooked up again. This time, Parilli found Clark on a 13-yard TD strike to cap a 57-yard drive. Jones missed on the PAT attempt and UK settled for a 13-0 lead in the second period with a little over 10 minutes left.

The Wildcat defense made that 13-point lead stand up until halftime as the Horned Frogs drove four times deep into UK territory. Led by All-American guard Ray Correll, the Wildcats turned TCU away on drives to the UK 4, 24, 5 and 2-yard lines to take a 13-0 lead at intermission.

TCU's Bobby Jack Floyd sliced the UK lead to 13-7 when he galloped 43 yards on a sweep. Floyd's run capped an 80-yard scoring drive which took only four plays. Keith Flowers added the PAT with 1:12 left in the third period.

Kentucky ended any thoughts of a TCU comeback, thwarting the only two Horned Frog offensive drives in the fourth period and scoring an insurance touchdown as well. Ed Hamilton sealed the UK victory with a three-yard score off left tackle with 3:33 left. Jones added the PAT for the final 20-7 score.

PEACH BOWL

Kentucky 21, North Carolina 0

1976 Kentucky tailback Rod Stewart scored three touchdowns to lead the Wildcats to a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina before a sellout crowd of 54,132 in the 1976 Peach Bowl at Atlanta, Ga.

The Wildcats, after a 25-year absence from the post-season bowl scene, returned in fine fashion as Kentucky completely smothered the Tar Heels. Kentucky outgained North Carolina 334-108 in total yards, limiting the Tar Heels to just five first downs and forcing five UNC turnovers.

After a scoreless first half, Kentucky went to work in the third period after UNC quarterback Matt Kupec fumbled at the Tar Heel 21. UK's James Ramey recovered and the Wildcats were in business.

Seven plays later, Stewart busted over from the one for the touchdown. John Pierce added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after three quarters.

Stewart sent the 37,000-plus Kentuckians, who had followed UK to the Peach Bowl, into a frenzy with his second touchdown early in the fourth quarter. The Wildcats marched 57 yards in 9 plays as Stewart capped the drive with a 13-yard gallop behind All-American tackle Warren Bryant. Pierce was good on the PAT and Kentucky led 14-0 with 13:01 left to play.

The Big Blue had to go only 47 yards for their final score. Kentucky faced a fourth-and-one from the UNC 3 with a little over three minutes remaining. Once again, Stewart (104 yards on 19 carries) got the call and he picked up both - the first down and the touchdown. Pierce was true on the PAT and UK had put the game away.

Stewart tied the Peach Bowl record for most touchdowns and scoring with the 3 TDs and 18 points. He was named the game's MVP. The Most Valuable Defensive Player of the game was UK linebacker Mike Martin, who helped hold the Tarheels to just over 100 yards.

HALL OF FAME BOWL

West Virginia 20, Kentucky 16

1983 Kentucky won much of the statistical battle but lost the war in dropping a tough 20-16 decision to the West Virginia Mountaineers in the 1983 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham.

The Wildcats, in a bowl for the first time since 1976, outgained West Virginia 306-288 in total offense and held the edge in first downs 19-18 and passing yards 216-88. But 17 second-half points by West Virginia were too much for the Wildcats to overcome.

West Virginia scratched first as placekicker Paul Woodside connected on a 39-yard field goal late in the first quarter.

Kentucky countered with 10 points in the second stanza to take a 10-3 lead at halftime.

The Wildcats marched 54 yards in eight plays for their first score. Facing a third-and-three from the WV 26, Kentucky used some razzle-dazzle as Tony Mayes swept right, then threw-back to quarterback Randy Jenkins in the left corner of the endzone for the TD. John Hutcherson added the PAT and UK led 7-3 with 10:59 left in the second period.

Jenkins hit two big passes late in the second quarter to help set up a 32-yard field goal by Hutcherson. Jenkins connected with Joe Phillips for a 19-yard pass play and then hit George Adams for a 14-yarder as Hutcherson connected with but 38 seconds left in the half.

WVU kicker Paul Woodside fooled everyone to begin the second half. Woodside tried and on-side kick to start the half and then recovered it to give the Mountaineers the football at the UK 48. Eight plays later, QB Jeff Hostetler found Rich Hollins for a 16- yard TD strike. Woodside added the PAT and it was 10-10 with 11:10 left in the third quarter.

West Virginia scored twice in a span of two minutes early in the fourth quarter to take a commanding 20-10 lead. Hostetler capped off a 10-play, 81-yard drive with a 2-yard scoring toss to Rob Bennett to make it 17-10 with 11:15 left to play.

Two plays later, West Virginia took over after an interception of a Jenkins pass at the UK 16. The interception set up a 23-yard field goal by Woodside at the Mountaineers went up 20-10 with 9:18 remaining.

Kentucky freshman quarterback Bill Ransdell led the Wildcats back, marching UK 92 yards in 11 plays following the kickoff. Ransdell hit Phillips for a 13-yard scoring toss to make it 20-16 with 5:50 left. Hutcherson missed the PAT.

The Wildcats got one more shot, but could get no further than the UK 37.

HALL OF FAME BOWL

Kentucky 20, Wisconsin 19

1984 Kentucky's Joey Worley booted a career-long 52-yard field goal with just under nine minutes remaining to give the Wildcats a thrilling 20-19 victory over the Wisconsin Badgers in the 1984 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham.

Worley, a freshman, helped Kentucky overcome a nine-point deficit in the second half with his school and bowl record field goal.

Wisconsin jumped on top early, scoring twice in the first quarter. Todd Gregoire nailed a 40-yard field goal just under four minutes into the game and Michael Howard hit Thad McFadden with a 3-yard TD pass. Gregoire added the PAT and the Badgers led 10-0 with 5:34 left in the opening period.

Gregoire added another field goal, this one from 27 yards, to make it 13-0 with 7:05 left in the second period.

Kentucky got on the board after safety Paul Calhoun intercepted a Howard pass to give UK possession at the Badger 42. It took Kentucky just five plays to score as Marc Logan went over from nine yards. Worley added the PAT to cut the deficit to 13-7 with 1:29 left in the half.

Wisconsin was not through. The Badgers used four running plays, two passes and a costly 15-yard penalty to move the football to the UK 3 with two seconds left in the half. From there, Wisconsin decided on a Gregoire field goal (20-yarder) to take a 16-7 edge at halftime.

Kentucky narrowed the gap to 16-10 on a 22-yard field goal by Worley with 11:28 left in the third quarter. But Gregoire responded with a 40-yarder two minutes later to move the count back to nine, 19-10.

Behind UK quarterback Bill Ransdell, the Wildcats marched 82 yards in 11 plays later in the quarter to get within two, 19-17. Ransdell hit Logan on a screen pass to cover the final 27 yards and with the Worley PAT, UK was back in it with 26 seconds left in the third quarter.

The next time Kentucky got the ball, Ransdell moved the Cats into position for Worley's 52-yarder. Starting from the UK 22, tailback Mark Higgs got the call four consecutive times, then it was Adams turn the next four plays. Facing a fourth-and-two at the UW 34, Worley nailed the game-winner with 8:55 left.

Wisconsin came back and marched to the UK 8 with less than two minutes left. With the Badgers facing a fourth-and-six, Gregoire was called on for his 5th field goal attempt. This time, the snap from center was bobbled and UK had sealed the victory.

PEACH BOWL

Clemson 14, Kentucky 13

1993 The Wildcats met the 24th-ranked Clemson Tigers in the 26th annual Peach Bowl and came within one minute of winning their sixth bowl in eight tries. But a Clemson TD in the closing seconds sent UK home with a 14-13 loss.

Kentucky took the opening kickoff and marched down the field to the Clemson two-yard line, where what appeared to be a QB Pookie Jones-to-WB Alfonzo Browning TD was instead a turnover when Browning fumbled the ball while attempting to extend it over the goal line.

Clemson took over on its own one and proceeded to march 99 yards for the game's first score, a two-yard TD plunge by TB Emory Smith. The PAT gave the Tigers a 7-0 lead. Clemson ran the ball 15 times and attempted only three passes in the drive.

Kentucky was stopped again at the one-yard line before the Wildcats finally scored on Nicky Nickels' 34-yard FG in the second period, making the score Clemson 7, Kentucky 3.

UK captured the lead early in the fourth quarter when Jones hit WR Mark Chatmon with a five-yard TD pass, making it UK 10, Clemson 7. Nickels added another FG, this one from 26 yards, to extend UK's lead to 13-7. But after Dan Ariza's 55-yard punt pinned the Tigers inside their own 18-yard line, QB Patrick Sapp hit Smith with a 57-yard screen pass to move Clemson into scoring position. With less than a minute remaining, LB Marty Moore intercepted a Sapp pass, but fumbled it back, giving Clemson a second chance. The Tigers capitalized when Sapp hit WR Henry Smith with the game-winning 21-yard TD pass. Kentucky got the ball back with less than 20 seconds remaining, but could move no farther than its own 40.

THE PROGRAM

The finest indoor practice facility in the nation is on the campus of the University of Kentucky.

UK Athletics Director C.M. Newton has called this $8.5 million facility the final piece of the puzzle. Finally, the University of Kentucky Athletics Association has an indoor fieldhouse which can accomodate the year-round needs of 11 Wildcats sports — football, baseball, gymnastics, men's indoor/outdoor track, women's indoor/outdoor track, men's and women's golf and men's and women's soccer.

"In my opinion, we already have in place the finest coaches in the country," Newton said. "The addition of the indoor facility, which I consider the final piece of the puzzle, means we have the ability to attract the finest student-athletes."

"The facility is a multi-purpose building, something which will be a tremendous boost to all of our programs."

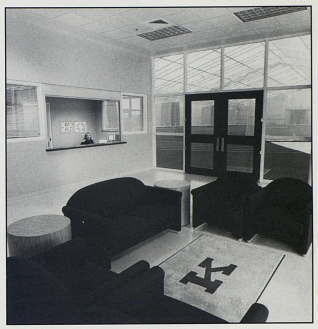

The indoor facility, which was dedicated in a ceremony on Sept. 2, 1993, encompasses over 132,000 square feet and is located adjacent to Commonwealth Stadium behind the south end zone or in the game-day Yellow Lot. For size comparison, UK's E.J. Nutter Football Training Facility is only 48,000 square feet.

"This facility was very crucial in the expansion of our facilities base," UK Head Football Coach Bill Curry said. "I consider this indoor practice facility to be the finest of its kind in the world. With our weather and being the northern-most school in the Southeastern Conference, we have needed a facility of this magnitude. This enables us to attract great speed for our program like Kio Sanford and Randy Wyatt.

"We have also needed the indoor facility to allow our skill-position players to work on their respective skills, so we can measure up to the rest of our league. The one thing our staff understands about our skilled athletes today — whether it's throwing and catching or shooting threes — is the importance of practicing every day. Great ones practice every day. Our young men will now be able to do that."

The indoor facility features an actual playing field area of 108,000 square feet, including a full-size artificial turf football field. The football field is surrounded by a six-lane, 290-meter track which expands to nine lanes down the straight-aways. Areas for field events are also included for the pole vault, high jump and long jump. A 9,000-square foot gymnastics room is located in the front of the building and will serve as the UK GymCats home.

One of the most unique features of this multi-million dollar fieldhouse is the computerized netting system. This system will allow for different combinations of sports to practice safely, all at the same time by dividing the playing field. The nets can be lowered to separate the entire playing field from the track, or form four batting cages for baseball or driving ranges for golf. The playing field can be divided in halves to create two football, soccer or baseball practice areas.

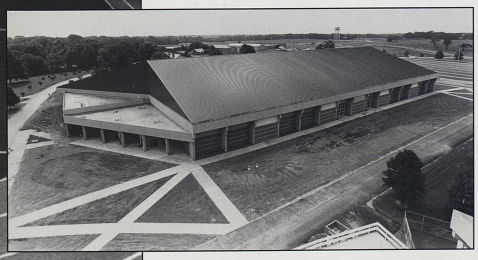

"This type of facility is also important for the togetherness of our athletics program," Curry said. "It allows us the opportunity to have everyone participating under one roof."

UK President Dr. Charles Wethington says this facility can also be utilized for faculty, staff and students in general.

"This facility is very significant not only to UK Athletics, but to the entire University of Kentucky community," Wethington said. "The indoor facility should aid Bill Curry in taking our football program to another level."

The height of the indoor facility is 72 feet at its apex. Inside, the netting clearance is approximately 65 feet. This height will allow punting (into the net system) and PAT/Field Goals during football practices. From a perspective standpoint, the playing field of the indoor facility runs perpendicular to the playing field of Commonwealth Stadium.

Also included in the facility is 3,000 square feet of office and lobby space for the facility manager, receptionist, and coaches. The building also includes an additional 4,000 square feet of storage space.

The E.J. Nutter Training Facility

Ervin J. Nutter donated $1 million towards the construction of the Nutter Football Training Facility.

One of the nation's showcase football facilities rests on the southeast corner of the University of Kentucky campus.

The ultra-modern E.J. Nutter Football Training Facility ranks among the best in the country. Built at a cost of $5.7 million, the facility officially became the home of Kentucky Wildcat Football in September 1987.

The Nutter Center, as it is called on the UK campus, encompasses over 48,000 square feet and is built adjacent to the Shively Sports Complex. It is located on Sports Center Drive, just across Cooper Drive from Commonwealth Stadium.

"I have not seen everyone's new facilities, but the Nutter Center is the finest that I have seen," UK coach Bill Curry says. "It is the best planned and the most spacious facility I know of. Combined with our spacious practice area, the Nutter Center gives us the most beautiful football complex that I have ever been associated with."

The new Wildcat facility is named after Ervin J. Nutter, a UK alumnus who contributed one million dollars to get the fund-raising campaign started for construction to begin.

The Nutter gift to the UK Athletics Association was one of the largest gifts ever received by the Association.

"The University has been a great inspiration to me," Nutter said. "I do not feel as if I've given anything away. I'm just repaying what the University has done for me."

The Nutter Center immediately paid dividends to the Kentucky Football Program as the 1993 Wildcats earned a birth to the Peach Bowl, UK's first in nine years.

"It was simply wonderful," said Coach Curry. "To be calling recruits from a cellular phone while watching our team prepare for a Peach Bowl game in this incredible facility."

Aside from dressing facilities, which feature large, personal lockers for every Kentucky football player, the Nutter Center is highlighted by a 9,000 square foot weight room. The weight room has over 100,000 pounds of equipment alone. The Nutter Center also has 11 meeting rooms, a state-of-the-art video and editing room for coaches' film, equipment and training rooms, staff and player lounges, an interview area, a 60-yard sprint track, sauna and jacuzzi, an aerobics room, and three raquetball courts.

A touch of Kentucky Football history is on display in the foyer area. The memorabilia case holds UK trophies from bowl games such as the Great Lakes Bowl, the Sugar Bowl, the Cotton Bowl, the Peach Bowl and the Hall of Fame Bowls. The case displays the 1950 and 1976 Southeastern Conference championship trophies.

"This is a facility built with the players in mind," said Claiborne, who helped spearhead the financial drive to make the Nutter Center possible. "It does not have the coaches' offices like other facilities. Instead, we had the student-athlete in mind in the design and planning and that's how we wanted it to be."

Curry plans no changes in that respect.

"It is a privilege to get to work in a facility such as this everyday," Curry said. "The planning and design with the student-athletes at heart is what we're about today.

"Jerry Claiborne's most important accomplishments during his eight years at Kentucky were in the human arena. But his picture, which hangs in the Nutter Center, is a reminder to us just how much he loved this University. For Jerry and Mr. Nutter and the other contributors who helped make this facility possible, they have left a legacy that will surely be exciting to build on."

Nutter, a graduate of Hamilton (Ohio) High School, participated in the ground-breaking ceremonies in August 1986. Nutter entered the UK College of Engineering following high school and worked his way through college as an electrician. He left UK before graduation and passed the State of Ohio's examination for stationary engineers, becoming the youngest licensed stationary engineer in the state.

He worked three years for Proctor & Gamble's Power Division before returning to UK to receive his bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering in 1943.

After serving with distinction with the engineering division at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Nutter became president of Elano Corporation. He later became president of Acme Screw Products of Dayton, Ohio.

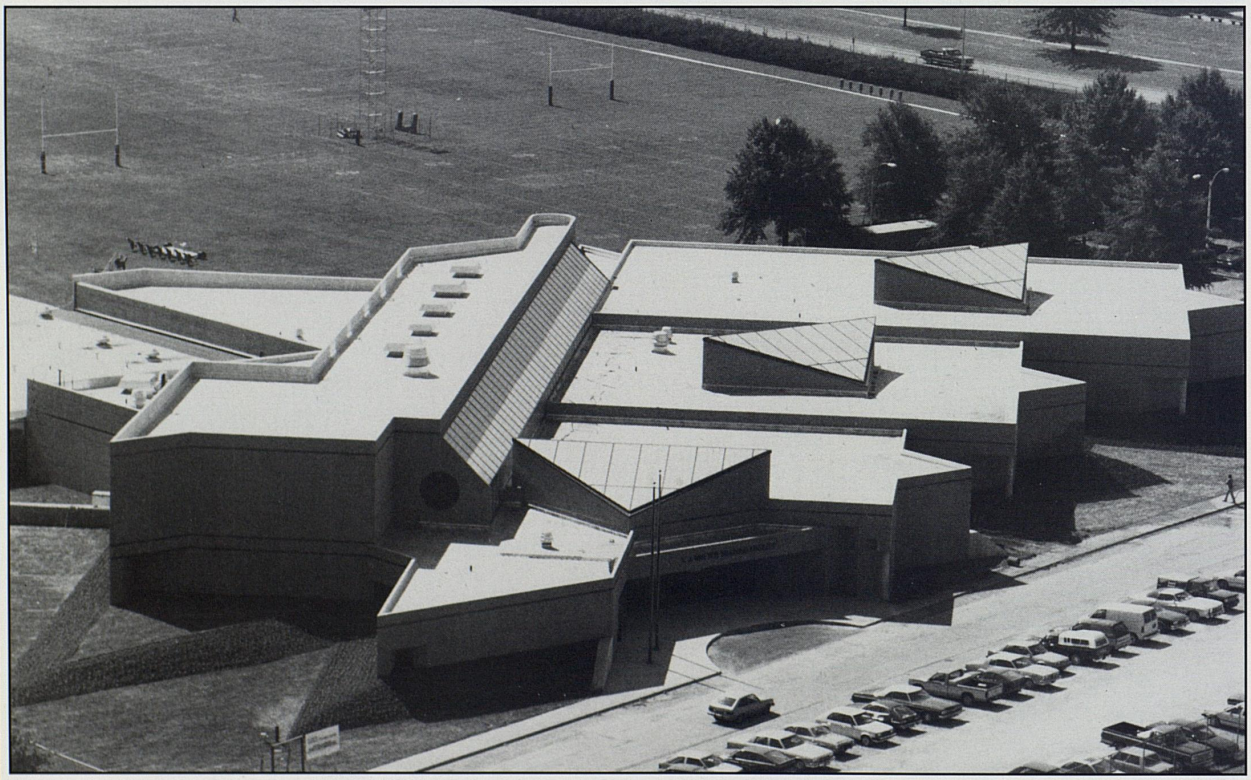

While the unprecedented gift represents Nutter's love for the UK athletics program, his love for the University as a whole is well documented. Nutter served two terms (1966-68) as president of the UK National Alumni Association and four years recently as chairman of the UK Development Council Board.

Another important part in building the Nutter Center was the donation of $300,000 by Seth Hancock, a central Kentucky horseman. Hancock also played a key role in raising the necessary dollars for the facility as chairman of the united effort to raise $2.7 million from private donors.

The ceremonial dedication of the Nutter Center took place on Sept. 11, 1987, with Nutter, Hancock, Claiborne, Cliff Hagan (then UK athletics director), and Otis Singletary (former UK president) all in attendance.

Commonwealth Stadium

When it comes to football, Kentucky-style, there is certainly no better place than home — Commonwealth Stadium.

Beautiful Commonwealth Stadium, built in 1973, is one of the nation's showcases for football arenas. The stadium is located on the southeast corner of the University of Kentucky campus, convenient to both Cooper and Alumni Drives.

Commonwealth Stadium was built at a cost of $12 million by the firm of Huber, Hunt and Nichols, Inc. The stadium, including parking areas, rests on an 86-acre plot of what was once the UK Experimental Station Farm grounds.

"Aesthetically, Commonwealth Stadium is the prettiest in America," UK coach Bill Curry said. "I've always thought this since I first witnessed a game here in 1975 as a pro scout.

"In just a year's time, I learned there is simply not another place I'd rather be on a football Saturday than Commonwealth Stadium. The atmosphere, especially on a Saturday night, is magical and very conducive to winning. It's an ideal college setting."

The stadium took on a new look in 1990 with the addition of a $600,000 scoreboard and message center located in the North end zone. The scoreboard is 19 by 78 feet in size, almost 3.5 times the size (12 by 19) of the original scoreboards which had been in place since 1973.

The stadium was officially opened on Sept. 15, 1973, as the Wildcats moved into their new home after spending 48 years at Stoll Field/McLean Stadium across from Memorial Coliseum. Kentucky defeated Virginia Tech in the stadium-opener, 31-26, as quarterback Ernie Lewis accounted for three touchdowns to lead the Wildcats.

Since its opening, Kentucky has played 131 games within the friendly confines of Commonwealth Stadium. And indeed, a 75-52-4 record and a .588 winning percentage is evidence Commonwealth is a "home field advantage" for the Wildcats.

Excellent attendance figures have also gone hand-in-hand with Kentucky football and Commonwealth Stadium. The Wildcats have averaged 55,037 spectators in the 131 contests at Commonwealth since its inception. In fact, 7,209,842 spectators have witnessed Kentucky football at Commonwealth Stadium — that's approximately 1.8 times the population of Kentucky.

The five-millionth person to attend a UK football game in Commonwealth Stadium was Jack Crowe of Lexington. Mr. Crowe walked through the turnstile as number 5,000,000 at 1 pm on Oct. 3, 1987, as Kentucky hosted Ohio.

The official seating capacity at Commonwealth Stadium is 57,800, though standing-room only crowds will exceed that figure. As was the case on September 19, 1992, as a Commonwealth Stadium-record crowd of 58,450 witnessed the Wildcats defeat rival Indiana 37-25.

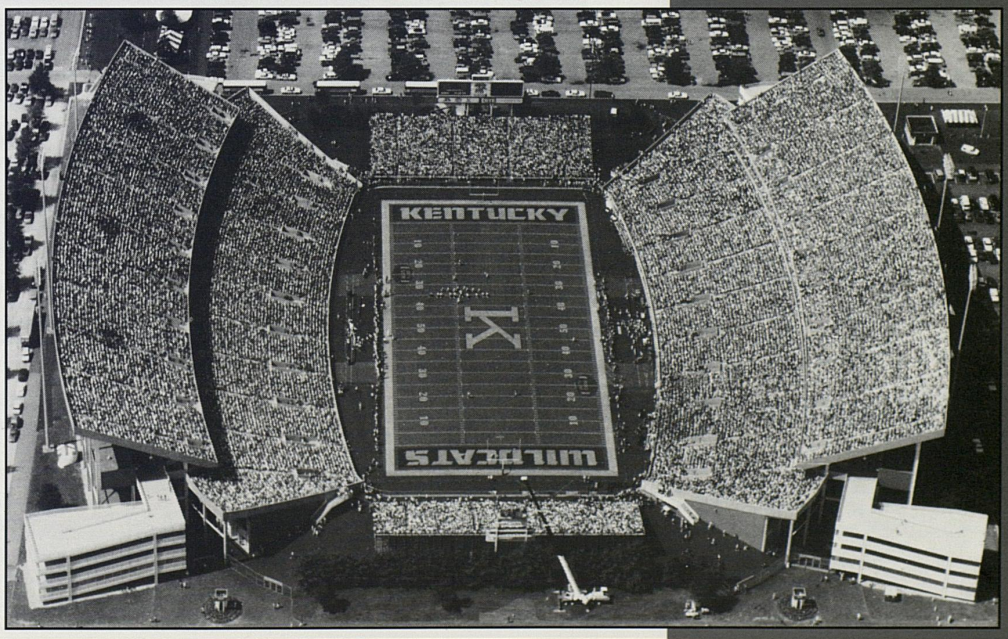

All seating in Commonwealth Stadium is aluminum, with more than 30 percent of the aluminum seating either chair-back or bench-back.

An enclosed press box, which comfortably seats 110 members of the media, is located underneath the upper deck on the stadium's west side. Included in the press box area are eight private booths (four VIPs), a photography deck, and two dining areas. The press box is served by two elevators.

Plans call for eventually enclosing the south end (Tates Creek Road) of Commonwealth Stadium to bring its capacity to 72,000. Also, the addition of luxury suites and boxes is in UK's plans.

"Aesthetically, Commonwealth Stadium is the prettiest in America".

–Bill Curry

Commonwealth Stadium has been home for the Kentucky Wildcats since 1973.

CATS Center

"We are extremely proud of what we have accomplished in the academic arena."
–Bill Curry

The University of Kentucky continues to keep the term "student-athlete" in the proper perspective — student first, athlete second. For that reason, the University of Kentucky opened the nation's first academic center for student-athletes in 1981. The academic center is known as the Center for Academic and Tutorial Services, or simply "CATS".

CATS is located inside Memorial Coliseum. The center, specifically designed with the student-athlete in mind, contains a large general study area along with numerous rooms used for tutoring, a classroom and a computer facility.

"Our CATS is one of the best academic services in the land and that's based on results," UK coach Bill Curry said. "For Kentucky to be up there with Duke and Virginia and Notre Dame is a real tribute to first, the student-athletes, but also to our academic support staff headed by Bob Bradley."

What Curry is referring to when talking about Duke, Virginia, and Notre Dame is the annual College Football Association award which goes out to the institution with the highest graduation rate for 1-A football programs. The award, named the CFA Academic Achievement Award, was given to Kentucky in 1989 for graduating 90 percent of its incoming 1983 freshman class. Prior to 1991, Kentucky was the only other school to win the award outside that trio.

"We get more response from parents who visit us on the CATS program than any other part of our program," Curry says. "Parents are really excited about it."

Curry is also excited about the combined effort former UK coach Jerry Claiborne and his staff put forth as well. Since 1980, Kentucky has placed 124 players on the All-Southeastern Conference Honor Roll which is more than any league school in that period. In 1989, the Wildcats set a new league record with 17 players named to the SEC Honor Roll.

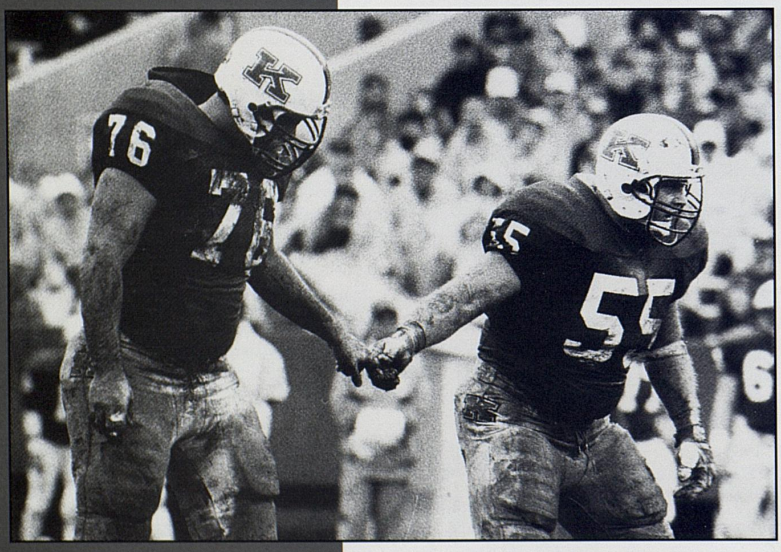

"With winning the CFA award and leading the SEC in Honor Roll picks, it certainly let everyone know we were serious and still are serious about making sure our athletes receive their degree," Claiborne said.

Bob Bradley, Assistant Athletics Director for Academics, supervises the CATS program. Bradley is assisted by Barbara Deniston, Director of Student-Athlete Development, her assistant, Sheila Breeding, and two Academic Counselors, Darren Bilberry and Mike Haley. CATS also employs six graduate assistants and numerous tutors, both from the University and surrounding community. The UKAA budgets close to $500,000 per year for CATS.

"We are extremely proud of what we have accomplished in the academic arena," Bradley says. "The CATS program is focused on winning in the classroom. We look at each student-athlete's individual needs, set goals and develop strategies to attain those goals. Our Center (CATS) provides our student-athletes with a definite advantage over student-athletes at many other institutions. Our goal is to show that we care about the student as well as the athlete."

Bradley also says its helps to have coaches like Claiborne and Curry that place such a strong emphasis on academics.

"Many support systems across the nation do an excellent job in helping their student-athletes," Bradley said. "I have been blessed at Kentucky in having Jerry Claiborne. He really believed in the student-athlete concept. The same holds true for Bill Curry. We are in total sync in the business of educating our student-athletes."

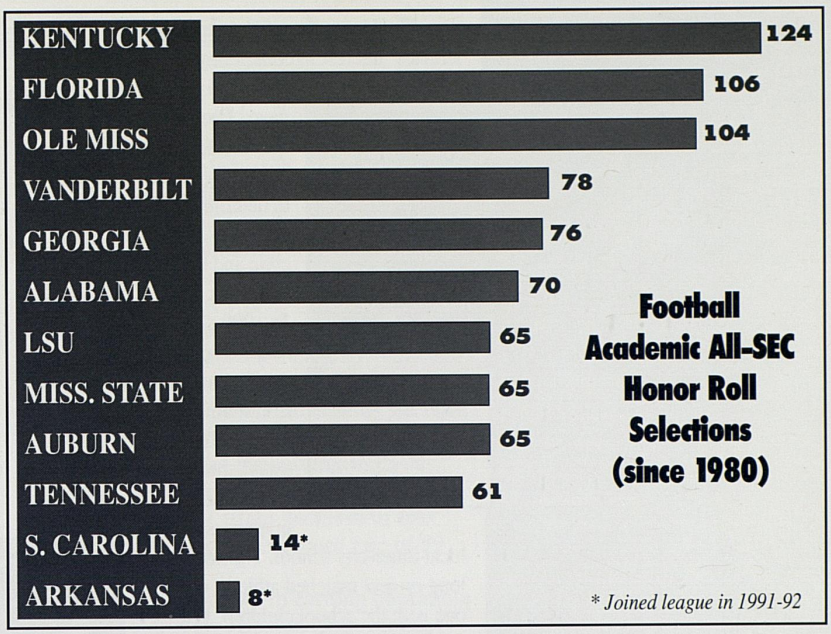

Kentucky offensive tackle Mark Askin, with Barry Rich, will try to join former Wildcats Dean Wells and Jim Kovach as the only UK players to earn Academic All Southeastern Conference Honor Roll accolades on four occasions.

CATS Center

The philosophy at the University of Kentucky is this: Colleges should be able to afford the student-athlete with every opportunity to succeed not only in athletics, but in academics as well. Looking at recent statistics in Academic Honor Roll selections and graduation rates, Kentucky is standing by its philosophy.

"We will continue to support our academic staff to the hilt," Coach Bill Curry said. "We're very excited about the work Bob Bradley and his staff have done. We will not accept anything less from our players. We talk about championship performance, we expect championship academics, too."

At UK, CATS certainly plays an instrumental part in keeping student-athletes at championship performance in the classroom.

University of Kentucky Community Outreach Program

Coach Curry and Wildcat football players participate in community services, including visits to children's hospitals.

The University of Kentucky student-athletes' interest in community involvement has increased over the past three years. Each team receives questionnaires at the beginning of each semester to determine its players' interests in participating in civic and educational programs.

In 1990 and 1991 student-athletes coordinated the development of the Community Outreach Project. This project was established when student-athletes adopted the fifth-grade classes at a local inner-city school. The semester-long project matched athletes one-on-one with the school children. With the assistance of a UK athlete, the children were asked to set a goal for themselves. Then each week, the UK student-athletes would meet with the children and help them accomplish their goals. This program was expanded during the 1992-93 school year to include three elementary schools, one middle school and a high school.

Along with the Outreach Program, UK student-athletes participate in the following programs:

BIG BUDDY PROGRAM (College of Education) - Student-athletes serve as role models for elementary students at local schools. Athletes help younger students develop self esteem through weekly interaction.

CELEBRITY VISITOR TO HOSPITAL - Student-athletes visit patients at local hospitals, including rehabilitation facilities and veterans hospitals.

COMPREHENSIVE CARE - Student-athletes talk to 12-15-year-old emotionally disturbed youths about goal-setting.

COPI-CAT PEN PAL - Student-athletes who are matched with elementary students correspond throughout the academic year. As a pen pal to an elementary student, athletes encourage students to read.

D.A.R.E. GRADUATION SPEAKER - Student-athletes give motivational speeches to youth as part of the Drug Awareness Resistance Education Program.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL SPEAKER - Student-atheltes visit a number of local schools, speaking to children on a variety of topics, including the importance of an education, staying off drugs and promoting reading.

FCEA SPELLING BEE JUDGE - Fayette County Education Association sponsors an annual spelling bee with UK student-athletes as judges.

SMART PARTICIPANT - After participating in a training program, student-athletes conduct science experiments with elementary students. The purpose of the program is to motivate minorities and disadvantaged youth to enter science and math-related careers.

SPECIAL OLYMPICS VOLUNTEER - Activities include assisting with specific events as well as participating in the opening and closing ceremonies.

UK Football Earns CFA Academic Honorable Mention

For the fifth time in eight years the University of Kentucky football team earned CFA Academic Accolades for graduating better than 70 percent of its athletes.

For the fourth time UK has earned honorable mention — along with 18 other institutions — while in 1989 UK became just the fourth university to earn the overall CFA Academic Achievement Award for having the highest graduation rate among football players. This year Duke won its second consecutive and sixth overall CFA Award with a 95.7 % graduation rate.

"I am very proud of the fact that the University of Kentucky Athletics Department is dedicated to the development of the student as well as the athlete, and that Bill Curry keeps the student-athlete experience in perspective," said Bob Bradley, UK Assistant Athletics Director for Academics. "He understands the importance of a degree to the future of these young people."

The CFA Academic Achievement Award was established in 1981 and is presented annually by the Touchdown Club of Memphis. The award recognizes the CFA member institution with the highest graduation rate among members of its football team. Last year, the CFA achieved its highest graduation rate since the program was established in 1981. This year's graduation rate remains stable and indicates that NCAA requirements for both initial and continuing eligibility are having the desired effects. According to CFA survey results, the overall graduation rate was 58 percent, a slight decrease of one percent from last year's record rate of 59 percent.

Joining Kentucky in earning honorable mention status are: Boston College, East Carolina, Florida State, Maryland, Miami, Mississippi State, Nebraska, North Carolina, Notre Dame, Penn State, Rice, Southern Methodist, Syracuse, Texas Christian, Tulane, Vanderbilt, Virginia and Wake Forest.

Kentucky Strength Program

JUST A QUICK GLANCE

at the weight room in the Nutter Football Training Facility is enough to know the University of Kentucky is serious about strength training.

The addition of Coach Bill Curry has magnified the significance of the UK strength program.

Curry, a former center at Georgia Tech and in the National Football League, knows an edge in football lies in the weight room.

"We have a sign mounted in the Nutter Center weight room," Curry says. "The statement says 'There is no substitute for strength and no excuse for the lack of it.'

> "There is no substitute for strength and no excuse for the lack of it."

"Our players are required to read it every day. That sums up our approach to strength training. We want to be the best conditioned football team, not only in the Southeastern Conference, but in the country. Games are won in the fourth quarter and that's where great physical conditioning comes into play."

As far as facilities go, Wildcat football players have one of the nation's best weight rooms.

"The facility is unbelievable," Curry said. "I can't imagine anyone needing any more than what we have in our weight facility."

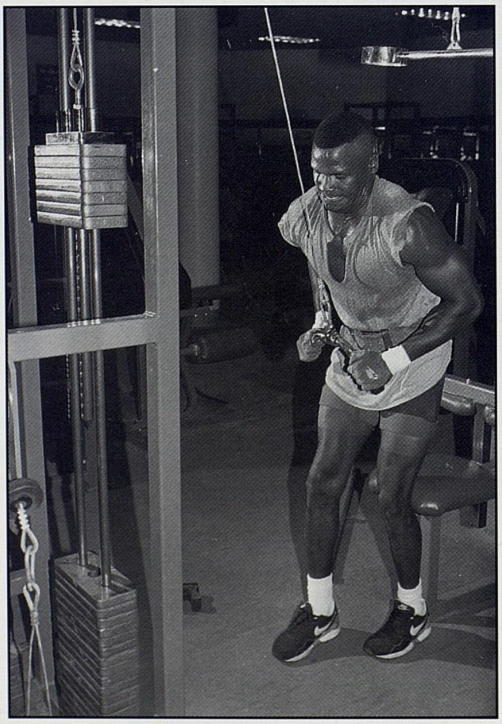

For starters, the UK weight room is 9,000 square feet. In free weights alone, UK has 100,000 pounds of equipment — 75,000 in free weights and an additional 25,000 in dumbbells.

To complement the free weights, UK has an abundance of Nautilus equipment, stationary bikes and treadmills.

According to Curry, another aspect which is a plus for UK is strength coach Mike Florence. Curry thinks Florence is the perfect individual for the task at hand.

"We're very blessed here at Kentucky to have Mike Florence as our strength coach," Curry says. "My first indication to the type of job he does is that our squad is relatively strong, even though we lost a lot of strong players to graduation. But after watching him work, I know Mike has that rare blend of a calm presence but with a driving discipline. That's exactly what a strength coach has to have."

As far as UK records go, former offensive guard Jody Matthews holds the honor of being the strongest Wildcats football player to date. Matthews shattered records in the bench press, clean, squats and total weight lifted which were held by Dermontti Dawson and Oliver Barnett, both of whom are residing on National Football League rosters. Matthews owns personal bests at UK of 585 pounds in the bench press, 440 pounds in cleans, 735 pounds in Olympic squats and 1,760 pounds in total lifts.

Health & Equipment

The 5,400 square foot Nutter Training Room has ample space for taping and treatment.

"Overall, our medical and training staff is outstanding from top to bottom."

The Kentucky football staff is very concerned about the health and safety of the Wildcat student-athletes. UK Football is blessed to have a first-class medical/training staff, headed by trainer Al Green, and an excellent equipment staff directed by Tom Kalinowski.

On the medical side, the Kentucky medical/training staff takes a back seat to no one. Six team physicians — Dr. James Andrews, Dr. David Caborn, Dr. Kim Clawson, Dr. Mary Lloyd Ireland, Dr. John Perrine and Dr. Spencer Turner — and a variety of consultants covering every medical specialty are available. Along with the medical staff, Green and associate trainer Sue Stanley direct the UK training staff, which consists of six graduate assistants and an additional 20 student trainers.

"In today's collegiate athletics, our staff not only deals with on-the-field injuries but the various national health problems which society faces on an everyday basis," UK Coach Bill Curry says. "A collegiate football program such as Kentucky must have not only a hard-working, qualified staff, but above all, they must be able to handle a variety of challenges.

"We are very fortunate to have a medical and training staff team which is superb. Our team physicians are the best I've been around on any level. Al (Green) is very advanced in the techniques required today and other areas such as strength and conditioning, protective devices and substance abuse and drug testing to name a few. Sue (Stanley) handles the rehabilitation, our insurance claims and is the 'Mom' of the training room, which is a luxury not many training rooms around the country have."

"Overall, our medical and training staff is outstanding from top to bottom."

The Nutter Center training room is also rated first class. The training room is over 5,000 square feet in area and includes ample space for taping and treatment. Inside the training room is an ultra-modern rehabilitation area as well as physicians' and trainers' offices.

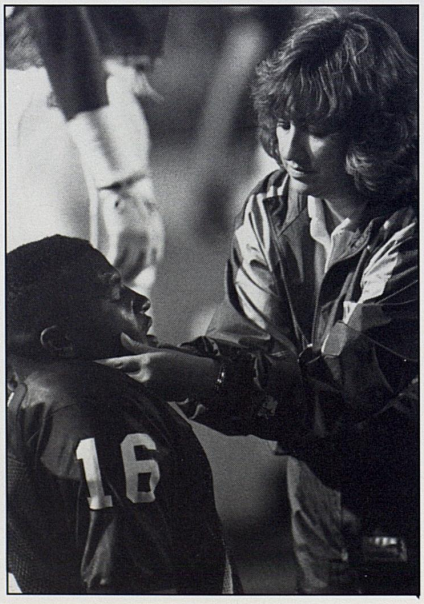

On the equipment side, Kalinowski and his staff of 19 student assistants are involved in the daily maintenance of the student-athletes' equipment. Injury prevention starts day one with UK student-athletes. Kalinowski personally fits each player with the appropriate equipment — helmet, shoes, shoulder pads, etc... — according to height, weight and position.

In all, Kalinowski estimates UK spends $2,100 per player on equipment ranging from practice gear to game gear. Kentucky makes sure each student-athlete is properly fitted with the most modern and up-to-date equipment available.

The equipment staff is involved in daily maintenance, repair and cleaning of each student-athlete's equipment as well. These procedures are another necessary measure in the prevention of injuries.

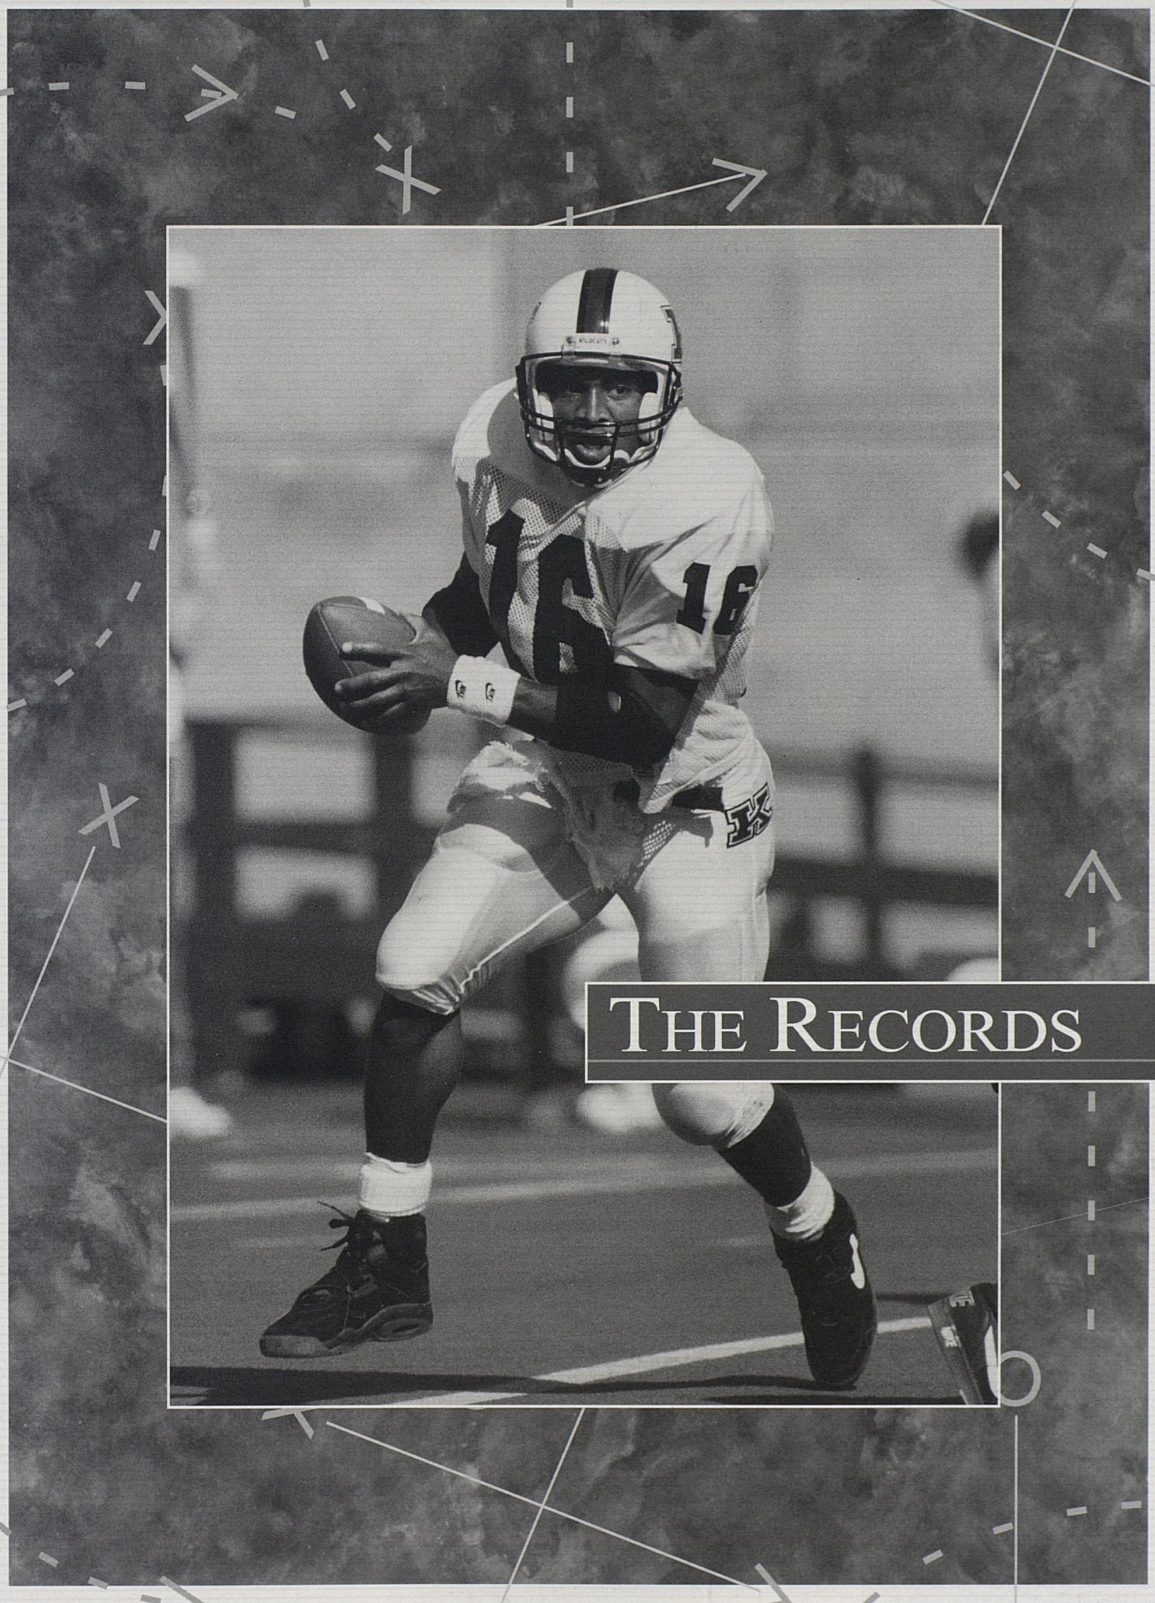

Indeed at Kentucky, a student-athlete's health is very important.

Ransdell Passes UK to Upset of Florida

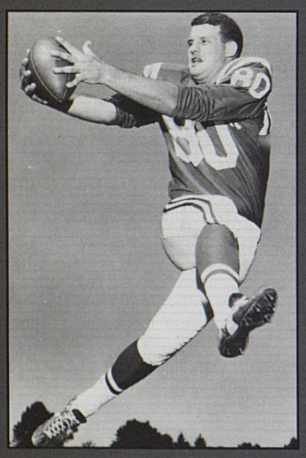

BILL RANSDELL of Elizabethtown put on the most accurate aerial show in UK history by completing 20 of 23 passes (.869 pct.) for 161 yards as Kentucky upset Florida, 10-3, on Nov. 15, 1986, at Commonwealth Stadium . . . Ransdell helped the Wildcats utilize a ball-control passing game on this day as Kentucky held the football for 41 minutes . . . His 20 completions were spread among eight different UK receivers . . . Ransdell ended the contest strong, hitting on his last seven passing attempts.

UK Upsets No. 1 Ole Miss Behind Kestner

RICK KESTNER of Stone had the best day of any Kentucky receiver during his junior campaign in 1964 . . . Kestner hauled in nine passes for 185 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Wildcats to a 27-21 upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss at Mississippi Memorial Stadium in Jackson . . . In the third quarter, Kestner was on the receiving end of a 32-yard halfback pass from Rodger Bird to give UK a 13-7 lead . . . Kestner added two additional scores on tosses from QB Rick Norton (60 and 23) as the Wildcats rallied from 14-13 and 21-20 deficits late in the second half for the upset.

Pelfrey Sets Three Kicking Records in Wild Affair vs. Mississippi State

DOUG PELFREY of Edgewood set several UK records for kickers during the course of his career, but he single-handedly established three school records in the same game during the 1992 season ... Pelfrey set Wildcats game records for most field goals made (five), most field goals attempted (seven) and most points by a kicker (18) during a wild 37-36 loss to Mississippi State on Oct. 31, 1992 ... On the evening, Pelfrey was good on field goals of 52, 21, 22, 41 and 32 yards while converting three of three PATs to total 18 points ... He missed a 46-yard field goal attempt with 12 minutes left to play and had the potential game-winning attempt, a 43-yarder, blocked as time expired to give Mississippi State the victory ... Pelfrey broke the mark for most points by a kicker held by Ken Willis with 15 against Rutgers in 1989.

Bishop's Theft Gives UK Victory

DARRYL BISHOP of Louisville, whose final season was 1973, remains the UK leader in career interceptions with 14 . . . One of his most notable interceptions took place on Nov. 6, 1971, at Dudley Field in Nashville . . . With UK and Vanderbilt knotted at 7-7 and less than 50 seconds to play, Kentucky elected to punt facing a 4th-and-8 situation from its own 44 . . . Walter Overton made a fair catch at the Commodore 30, giving Vandy a first down . . . After QB Steve Burger lost four yards on the first play, the Commodores elected not to use a timeout . . . Then as time expired, Burger lofted a pass toward receiver Gary Chesley . . . The ball never got to Chesley as Bishop picked off the aerial and raced 43 yards for the winning score, giving UK a 14-7 victory on the game's final play.

When talk arises about sports in the Commonwealth of Kentucky, chances are the talk surrounds the University of Kentucky Wildcats.

The University of Kentucky again will package one of the most comprehensive radio and television networks among NCAA Division I-A institutions. Both radio and television networks will blanket the Commonwealth and touch much of the nation.

Sports Communications, Inc., which owns the radio rights for UK football and basketball, expects to compile a network with more than 90 stations. WVLK-AM/FM of Lexington once again will serve as the flagship station for the UK Football Radio Network. A feature attraction of the network is station WHAS (840 AM) of Louisville, which has a 50,000-watt clear channel signal.

Kentucky also participates in the College Football Association national television package carried by ABC-TV and ESPN. The Wildcats' September 10 game at Florida already has been selected for telecast by ABC. UK had three games selected for television by ESPN in 1993.

The Southeastern Conference has its own television package that is produced and regionally syndicated by Jefferson-Pilot Sports. Each league school has at least one appearance on JP Sports each season.

The UK Television Network features full-game, tape-delay action of all Wildcats home football games which are not televised by a network affiliated with the CFA package (ABC, ESPN) or Jefferson-Pilot. The Network also is one of the nation's largest and serves approximately 15 markets in and around the Commonwealth. Sports Communications, Inc., administers the network with WKYT-TV of Lexington serving as the telecast producer.

For the 1994 football season, the UK broadcast team will consist of nine members, including Ralph Hacker, Charlie McAlexander, Jeff Van Note, Derrick Ramsey, Dick Gabriel, Rob Bromley, Dave Baker, Tom Leach, and Mike Dodson.

Hacker, who attended Eastern Kentucky University, begins his third season as radio play-by-play announcer this fall and his 23rd year overall on the UK Radio Network. He moved from expert analyst to play-by-play duties two years ago, filling the void left by his long-time broadcast partner, Cawood Ledford. Ledford stepped away from the microphone at the conclusion of the 1991-92 basketball season after 39 years of calling Wildcats football and basketball action.

Hacker, president and general manager of Lexington radio station WVLK-AM/FM, hosts the Bill Curry pregame and postgame radio shows on game days. And for the past three years, Hacker has worked as co-host with Rob Bromley on the Bill Curry and Rick Pitino Television Shows.

In addition to his experience on the UK Radio and Television Networks, Hacker has ventured into network television in recent years. He has described football and basketball games for Jefferson-Pilot, ESPN, the NCAA, and CBS.

McAlexander joined the UK broadcasts in 1992. Previously, McAlexander spent 13 seasons as play-by-play announcer at Vanderbilt University. He will call the play-by-play on the delayed television broadcasts.

McAlexander, a native of Holly Springs, Miss., and a 1969 graduate of Delta State University, is the first Southeastern Conference broadcaster in history to work for three different schools—Ole Miss, Vanderbilt, and Kentucky. He also holds the distinction of being the only SEC sportscaster to win "Sportscaster of the Year" honors in three different states — Mississippi (1975), Tennessee (1990-91), and Kentucky (1992).

The Kentucky Wildcats on the Air

In 1992, McAlexander was elected to the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Board of Directors. Among the 18 board members are Bob Costas, Chris Schenkel, Bob Verdi, and George Vecsey.

Both the Kentucky radio and delayed television broadcasts will have new expert analysts in 1994. Former UK letterman Jeff Van Note (1966-68), who had an 18-year NFL career with the Atlanta Falcons, will handle the analysis on radio. Derrick Ramsey, a first-team All-SEC quarterback in 1977 as a Wildcat senior, provides opinions and commentary on the delayed television broadcasts. Ramsey enjoyed a 10-year NFL career with the Oakland/Los Angeles Raiders (1978-83), New England (1983-85), and Detroit (1987).

Bromley is set for his sixth season as a member of the UK broadcast team and his 15th year, overall, on the UK Television Network.

Bromley will be the sideline reporter on the delayed television broadcasts. He has been both the sideline reporter and in the announcer booth as analyst. Once again, Bromley will serve as producer and co-host of the Bill Curry and Rick Pitino Television Shows.

He has been a member of the WKYT-TV sports staff for 17 years, including the past 14 as sports anchor. Bromley is a graduate of Butler University in Indianapolis and worked as a sports anchor in Lima, Ohio, prior to joining the WKYT-TV staff in 1977.

Gabriel, a 1978 graduate of Kentucky, enters his sixth year as a member of the UK broadcast team. He returns for his third year as the sideline reporter for the UK Radio Network. In the past, he also has handled the sideline duties on the delayed TV broadcasts.

Gabriel, sports manager for WKYT-TV the past eight years, came to Lexington from Dallas, Tx., where he was executive producer of Host Communications Southwest Conference Football Radio Network.

As a student at UK, Gabriel was named the Outstanding Journalism Graduate in 1978. He called play-by-play for Wildcats football and basketball games on student radio station WBKY and served as sports editor for the Kentucky Kernel, UK's student newspaper. Following graduation, he served as sports director for WVLK-AM/FM radio in Lexington.

Baker, a native of Franklin, Ohio, begins his sixth year on the UK broadcast team. He will be involved with the programming of the one and one-half hour pregame radio show.

Baker has spent 12 years on the sports staff at WKYT-TV in Lexington. He began at WKYT-TV in 1982 following his graduation from Georgetown (Ky.) College. He was named WKYT's weekend anchor in 1984 and played an instrumental part in the founding of his station's "Sports Spectrum", a 20-minute comprehensive sports show on Saturday evenings. Sports Spectrum has been named the best sports program in Kentucky by the Associated Press on two occasions – 1988 and 1989.

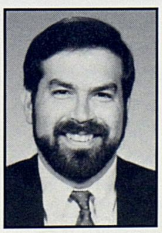

Leach, a 1983 graduate of Kentucky, begins his sixth season as a member of the UK broadcast team. He anchors the halftime and postgame scoreboard shows on the UK Radio Network.

Leach currently serves as news/sports director for radio station WVLK-AM/FM in Lexington. He began as a news/sports reporter in WVLK. Leach, a native of Paris, Ky., is a three-time winner of the Associated Press Best Sports Program Award.

Dodson enters his third year as a member of the UK broadcast team. Dodson, director of broadcast operations of the UK Radio and Television Networks, is the technical engineer for all game-day Wildcats football and basketball broadcasts.

"My Old Kentucky Home"

LEXINGTON

This is a place where the past and present meet and mesh gracefully.

Where downtown skyscrapers overlook thousands of acres of lush pastures, home to Kentucky's most loved resource - the horse.

This is Lexington, home of the University of Kentucky.

Lexington is a beautiful city. John O. Simonds, a nationally-known landscape architect and the author of several books on land use, calls the Bluegrass area a "national treasure. The Bluegrass area is superlative countryside." Lexington is the heart of the Bluegrass, the metropolitan shopping, commercial and entertainment hub of eastern Kentucky.

Lexington has all the attractive qualities of a major metropolitan area, but it is small...and there is an overlay of what can be described as Blue Grass tradition to go along with such major companies as IBM, Lexmark, Ashland Oil (Valvoline), Long John Silvers, Toyota and many other nationally known firms that have major plants or headquarters in the area.

With a population of around 225,000, Lexington is small enough to provide the perfect college atmosphere for the University of Kentucky. But it is also large enough to offer the cultural opportunities usually reserved for larger cities.

The city offers UK students much in the way of entertainment: a Philharmonic Orchestra, Chamber Music Society, the Lexington Singers, a Council of the Arts, and a local Ballet Company. Movie theaters, international restaurants, coffee-houses, top-ranked acts of all types at fabulous Rupp Arena in the Lexington Center, historical landmarks, parks, thoroughbred and harness racing, fine fishing in lakes, ponds, and streams, and the internationally famous Kentucky Horse Park, all in easy distance of the UK campus, are just a few attractions of Lexington and the University of Kentucky.

A recent statewide poll indicated that the Lexington area is the most popular place to live, work and play in Kentucky.

KENTUCKY

"If these United States can be called a body... then Kentucky can be called its heart." —
Jesse Stuart

Though the above words were written by one of Kentucky's favorite sons, any one of the millions of visitors to the Bluegrass State each year might nod in agreement.

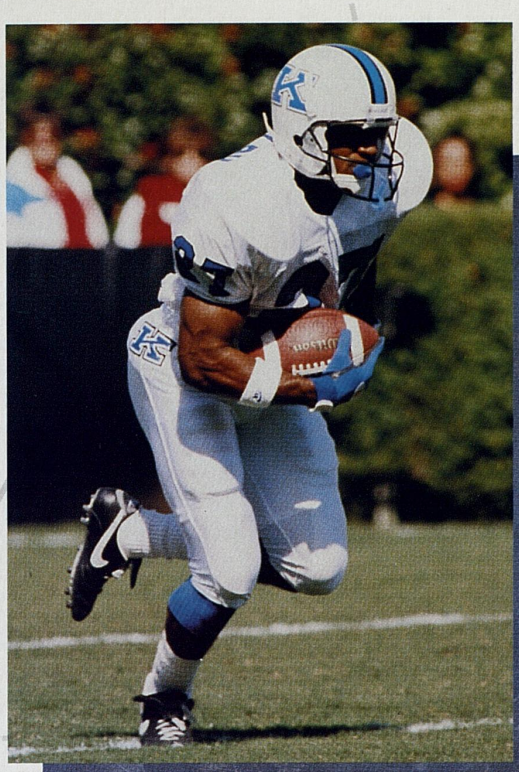

Kentucky embodies the very essence of America, from majestic mountains and forests to vast sparkling lakes, from rolling acres of farm and pastureland to the hustle and bustle of metropolitan centers. And around every turn in the road, Kentucky's colorful past, which helped shape our country's character, is preserved and maintained for all to enjoy. The result is a state so diverse in travel and recreational opportunities that one is hard pressed to name its equal.

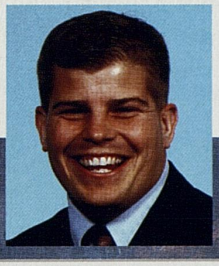

If asked to describe Kentucky, the first word to come to mind would probably be horses. The Bluegrass region of central Kentucky is internationally recognized as the Horse Capital of the World. Lexington, in the heart of the Bluegrass, preserves the romantic tradition of the horse farms and is the hub of the multi-billion dollar horse industry.

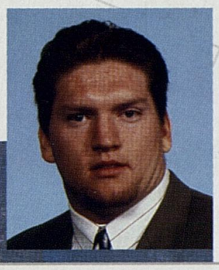

Kentucky is also a land steeped in the rich history of our nation. Legendary pioneer Daniel Boone laid out Kentucky's second settlement at Fort Boonesborough, and nearby, a hundred years later, the Shaker religious sect prospered at picturesque Shaker Village of Pleasant Hill.

Abraham Lincoln was born in Hodgenville (the one-room cabin is part of a National Historic Site). The plantation home that inspired Stephen Foster to write "My Old Kentucky Home" still stands at a state park of the same name. And the region that 200 years ago gave birth to one of Kentucky's most famous exports — bourbon whiskey — is dotted with world-famous distilleries.

KENTUCKY FACTS: Kentucky is one of only four states in the nation designated as a commonwealth... The state capital is Frankfort...Kentucky has 40,395 square miles of land...Population of the state is 3,728,000...The three largest cities in the state are Louisville, Lexington and Owensboro...The state bird is the cardinal... The state song is "My Old Kentucky Home"... The state flower is the goldenrod...The state tree is the Kentucky Coffee tree...Kentucky has more miles of running water than any other state except Alaska...Kentucky has 44 state parks which annually draws 15.8 million visitors... Kentucky has the world's longest known cave system — Mammoth Cave — with over 300 miles of mapped passageways.
