The Historical Records Survey was initiated in January 1936 as a nation-wide undertaking of the Works Progress Administration, but did not begin operations in New Hampshire until April 7. The Survey was a part of the Federal Writers' Project until November 20 when it was set up as a separate unit. The purpose of the Survey is to make accessible to lawyers, historians, and students of government the records of state, county, municipal and town offices. In conjunction with this listing of public records, the church records (including those of defunct organizations) will be inventoried so that the ground work may be laid for research in this neglected field of social history. An integral part of this endeavor will necessitate recommendations to the custodians to encourage a more orderly arrangement and the better care and preservation of public records.

This volume is one in a series of publications by the Historical Records Survey concerning local archives in New Hampshire. This publication is concerned with Roman Catholic activities in New Hampshire: parishes, missions, schools, convents, hospitals and orphanages.

The Survey has been most happy in receiving complete cooperation from His Excellency, the Most Reverend John B. Peterson, D.D., LL.D., Ph.D., Bishop of Manchester; Reverend M. J. Hurley, Vice Chancellor and Secretary of the Diocese; Reverend William Clancy, Superintendent of the Diocesan Schools; and Right Reverend Monsignor T. J. E. Devoy, pastor of St. George's Parish, Manchester. At the same time, the Survey wishes to thank all officials within the Diocese who have contributed to this inventory. Thanks are due to the Nashua History Project for information given. Lastly, acknowledgements are made for assistance rendered by the New Hampshire Works Progress Administration and National Youth Administration.

Attention should be called to the fact that the records of the Diocese are not open to laymen. Members of the clergy desiring to consult the records should address the Chancery Office, 145 Lowell Street, Manchester, New Hampshire.

A. THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN NEW HAMPSHIRE

1. HISTORICAL SKETCH

Possibly, Mass was first said in New Hampshire on the Isles of Shoals, July 15, 1605 when Champlain was exploring the New England coast.¹ French invaders again celebrated Mass on July 18, 1694 when Sieur de Villieu and his Indians attacked Oyster River (Durham);² Father Vincent Bigot, S.J., and Abbe Thury were probably the officiating clergymen.³ These early manifestations of Catholicism did not, however, determine the religious pattern for the Province of New Hampshire which was Protestant. Upon separation from Massachusetts (1680), liberty of conscience was given to all Protestants.⁴ Officials of the Province were required to subscribe to the oath aimed against Catholic recusants.⁵

In spite of the Toleration Act of 1819, displacing the Congregational Church from its favored position,⁶ New Hampshire was slow to recognize equal rights for Catholics. As late as 1852, an attempt to amend the Constitution, abolishing the religious test, failed;⁷ this qualification was finally abolished by an amendment to the State Constitution in 1877.⁸ By some curious oversight, the provision committing towns to the "support and maintenance of public Protestant teachers of piety, religion, and morality" still remains in the Bill of Rights.⁹

Early New Hampshire baptisms into the Catholic faith were recorded in the Chancery Office at Portland, Maine, for communicants from Portsmouth (1797, 1811), and in the parish records of Whitefield, Maine (1818).¹⁰ At the turn of the century, certain priests made occasional tours of Maine and New Hampshire. Reverend Francis Matignon, coming from France, visited Portsmouth in 1792; Reverend John Cheverus, likewise, visited Portsmouth and Bedford, New Hampshire in 1798 and Portsmouth again in 1812.¹¹

Roman Catholic

Boston, including New Hampshire, was separated from the Baltimore Diocese in 1808; in 1853 New Hampshire and Maine were combined in the Diocese of Portland.¹² On June 11, 1884, Pope Leo XIII created the Diocese of Manchester which embraced the State of New Hampshire,¹³ the last state in New England to receive a resident bishop.

The history of the Roman Catholic faith would be incomplete without mention of the Barber family. Reverend Daniel Barber was a minister of the Episcopal Church in Claremont. In 1812 he visited Bishop Cheverus to obtain information on certain articles of Catholic faith; later, his son, Virgil, pursued inquiries with Father Fenwick in New York City. As a result, Reverend Virgil Barber and his son, Samuel, entered the Jesuit order, while Mrs. Barber and three daughters entered the Visitation Convent. Barber returned to Claremont in 1818 with Father French who said Mass in the Episcopal Church. Barber was ordained a priest in 1822, and sent to Claremont where he built the first Roman Catholic Church in the state (1825). He was instrumental, also, in founding the first parochial school in New Hampshire.¹⁴

When New Hampshire became a separate Diocese, the Right Reverend Denis M. Bradley, D. D., was appointed the first Bishop of Manchester. Born in 1846 at Castle Island, County Kerry, Ireland, he emigrated to America at the age of eight. He received his education at Holy Cross College (Worcester, Massachusetts), and St. Joseph's Seminary (Troy, New York) and was ordained a priest at the seminary by the Bishop of Rochester in 1871, and consecrated Bishop in 1884. His death occurred in 1903.¹⁵

The second Bishop of Manchester, Right Reverend John B. Delany, D.D., was born in Lowell, Massachusetts, in 1864. Graduating from Boston College (Boston, Massachusetts) and St. Sulpice Seminary in France, he was ordained in 1891. He succeeded to the Bishopric in 1904, but death cut short his incumbency after a two year pastorate.¹⁶

The third Bishop of Manchester was Right Reverend George Albert Guertin, D.D., who was born in Nashua in 1869. Graduating from St. Charles's College (Sherbrooke), and the College of St. Hyacinthe, (Canada), and St. John Seminary, (Brighton, Massachusetts), he was ordained in 1892. He succeeded to the Bishopric in 1907 and died in 1931.¹⁷
