DEDICATION

To all former students and faculty members of the University of Kentucky who are now serving with the armed forces of the United States and to those who have given their lives for their country, we sincerely dedicate the 1943 Kentuckian.

Because of them and millions of other Americans like them, this nation and this University will continue to exist in that liberty for which the United States has stood from the very beginning.

FEATURES

This year the annual Kentuckian Beauty Contest aroused even more interest than it has for several seasons. The event was put on a war-time basis in that an entirely new system was devised for bestowing the coveted honor. . . . Some forty cuties, dressed in their finery and preened to perfection, paraded across the stage at Memorial Hall to be viewed by Lt. Col. Brannon, Colonel Brewer, Major Griffin, and Mrs. Robert Long, who adjudged seven of the group to be prospective "Miss Kentuckians." . . . Pictures of the seven were in turn sent to a group of unidentified men, members of the three branches of the armed forces. To these men was assigned the task of choosing the queen and her attendants in the order of their pulchritudinous appeal to the military men. After almost a week of deliberation they sent their decision to the Kentuckian office, and at the annual Kentuckian Ball the winners were presented to the student body.

FOOTBALL

1942 brought one of the strangest years in UK's football history—at times the 'Cat cleatmen approached the gridiron heights, at other intervals the Blues would have been easy pickings for Podunk Poly.

What caused the off-again, on-again style of performances even their most loyal followers were at a loss to explain. Maybe it was a general feeling of unrest brought on by war conditions, perhaps the schedule itself caused the trend; whatever the reason, Kentucky's grid public believes that the season just past was one of the craziest ever.

One outstanding achievement highlighted an otherwise mediocre record — for the first time in 51 years of the grid sport a Wildcat player was named on the All-American eleven. Clyde Johnson, 235-pound tackle from Ashland, was placed on the honor squad. The huge lineman also was picked on the All-Southeastern outfit.

A tabulation at the campaign's close showed three wins—over Washington and Lee, George Washington, and Xavier; six losses—to Georgia, Vanderbilt, Alabama, West Virginia, Georgia Tech and Tennessee; and one tie, with Virginia Polytechnic.

Teams that took part in four bowl classics at the season's close were met by Coach Ab Kirwan's charges . . . Georgia, Rose Bowl winner and mythical national champ; Alabama, which played in the Orange Bowl; Tech, Sun Bowl contestant, and Tennessee, Sugar Bowl victor, were among 'Cat foes.

Competition got under way in a meteoric manner when Georgia, ranked at the top of the football heap, was held to a 7-6 decision in Louisville. The Bulldogs trailed their hosts for 55 minutes before All-American Frankie Sinkwich got away in the ebbing moments to count a six-pointer. Leo Costa's famed toe gave the Georgians their margin of victory.

Next came Xavier, an annual Wildcat early-season foe. The Musketeers proved to be little more than a workout, as Kentucky annexed an easy 35-19 verdict. All of the Muskie scores were tallied when subs were in the contest for the winners. Washington and Lee bowed, 53-0, in the first night game to be held here in 10 years, and the grid world began to talk about "those guys from the Bluegrass."

So far, o.k. Their next outing found the Kirwanmen against Vanderbilt in a home clash, and once again, Kentucky found itself on the short end of a 7-6 count. Incidentally, the two kicks that Charley Kuhn missed in this and the Georgia fracas were about the only ones the Louisville back bobbled all season.

Riding high, then, on this crest of two wins and a couple of hair-breadth defeats, the Kentuckians were thrown into "Upset Row," when little Virginia Poly stunned the moleskin world by tying the 'Cats, 21-21. Apparently the Gobblers were inspired by the day's festivities, since they were playing the dedication tilt in a new $300,000 stadium at Roanoke, Va. Anyway, they disregarded an early two-touchdown lead taken by the Bluegrass visitors and came back to deadlock the count.

Throughout the entire first half of the Alabama game Kentucky outplayed the Tide, but faltered in the stretch when Tide reserves ran on and off the field like horses in a Bluegrass pasture. The final tally showed Alabama atop a 14-0 score, thanks mainly to reserve power.

Row one — Lair, Hammer, Beck, Wood, Hurst, Moseley, Eblen, Jones, Herbert, Kafoglis, Meeks, Triplett, Sengel, Hoyer, Parr.

Row two—Althaus, Ewing, Cutchin, Welborn, McAllister, Augustyn, Kuhn, P. Walker, Crouch, Tunstill, Taylor, Casner, Rhodemyre.

Row three—Mgr. Parks, C. Walker, Colvin, Kessenger, Bell, Yarutis, Browning, Minor, Drury, Kohl, Webb, Edwards, Griffin, Johnson.

George Washington caused little trouble, as Kirwan's Kats ran over the Colonials, 26-6, in a night game played in Washington, D. C. Considered now as the mystery team of Southern elevens, Kentucky ran into a team at its best while the 'Cats were off, and Georgia Tech achieved a 47-7 rout, the worst during Coach Kirwan's regime at the University.

Next week found the Kentuckians victims of a quirk of fate, when West Virginia got a 7-0 edge on a lucky last-minute pass. A Kentucky player reached up to intercept the aerial heave, but the pigskin bounced off his fingers into the arms of a Mountaineer standing innocently nearby, an dthe surprised received stepped over the goal-line.

The annual Thanksgiving extravaganza with Tennessee was all Vol, as the Knoxville lads romped to a 26-0 victory in the renewal of the ancient series.

Barber-shop talk all winter long has centered around the possibility of football this fall, with the draft causing a serious manpower shortage, and war-time restrictions on traveling presenting serious transportation troubles to colleges. Concensus has it that most schools will carry on some kind of intercollegiate program, but long trips are out for the duration, and tilts with nearby army camps will be a common thing.

As to what boys will be left in school, and even coaches for that matter, one guess is as good as another. University athletic officials maintain that they'll meet the games billed, if at all possible.

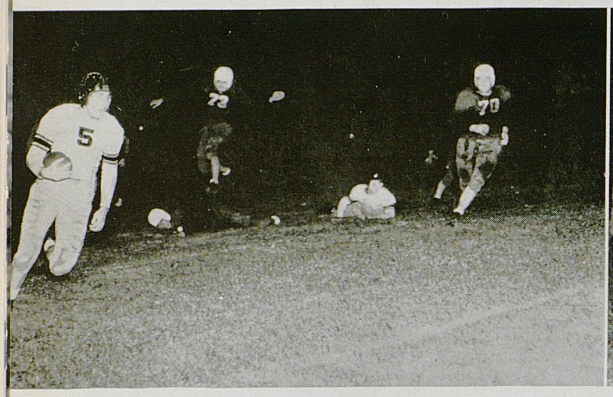

In addition to Johnson's recognition, Jay Rhodemyre, soph center, was named on the All-SEC sophomore team. Charley Bill Walker, captain and center, received honorable mention on the All-American squad. Clark Wood, Johnson's running mate at tackle, and Big Stoop participated in the Blue-Gray clash at Montgomery, Ala.

Outstanding performances were turned in by Johnny Hurst, fullback; Bill Moseley, quarter; Gene Meeks, half, and Bob Herbert, full, in the backfield. Phil Cutchin, Murray ball-toter, probably the most dependable ground-gainer, led the 'Cats in total yards, while Kuhn did most of the bootwork.

The passing combination of Cutchin to Carl Althaus, lanky Louisville flankman, formed about the best offensive thrust of the 'Cats. In the last minutes of the Vandy clash this pair completed five straight tosses and were on the Commodore 10-yard stripe when a clipping penalty by Hut Jones put them back in mid-field. They also accounted for the only score against Tech, and contributed several other six-pointers during the season.

GEORGIA 7, KENTUCKY 6

With sports writers, fans, coaches and even the stadium moles expecting a Georgia landslide, Kentucky's Wildcats upset the dope bucket by holding the Bulldogs to a 7-6 win in Louisville's duPont Manual field in the season opener. For more than 55 minutes the 'Cats more than held their own. After pushing the Deep South boys all over the field for two quarters, Kentucky reached pay dirt in the third period on Kuhn's end run, and apparently had the game under control when game-wrecker Sinkwich led a 63-yard march late in the last stanza.

Big Blue fans were cheered by the noted improvement in Wildcat blocking, the aggressive line play and general betterment evident all around. Little wonder, then, that the 'Cats were regarded as the dark horse of national grid play.

KENTUCKY 35, XAVIER 19

Kentucky's offense and defense hit a deadly one-two punch to score an easy 35-19 success over Xavier's Musketeers in a night start on Cincinnati's Corcoran Field. While the forward wall bottled the Muskies' tricky T-formation, Phil Cutchin paced the 'Cats' ground-gaining crew to five touchdowns and their first 1942 victory.

The Kirwanmen scored in every quarter, their biggest period coming in the second when they tallied two six-pointers. Two of the three Xavier markers were registered against Kentucky's third team late in the last period. Cutchin chucked three passes for touchdowns, made another on a 47-yard run, and Gene Meeks went over for the last one. Mutryn, Muskie speed merchant, led the losing attack with two, and Ravensburg made the other. Charlie Kuhn had a perfect night in the place-kicking department, successfully converting five times in five tries.

KENTUCKY 53, WASHINGTON AND LEE 0

The Kentuckians assumed a dictator role with Washington and Lee's Generals, rolled to an almost effortless 53-0 triumph over the Ol' Dominion gridders in Kentucky's first night home game in 10 years. First downs tell a fairly comprehensive story, totalling 27 for the 'Cats, 10 for Washington and Lee. In the air Kentucky completed 10 of 20 passes, the Generals only eight in the same number.

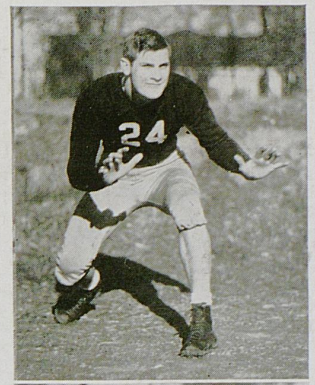

Meeks, elusive Blue scatback, topped the scorers with three touchdowns, Kuhn made two and also five points-after-touchdowns. Kentucky subs were employed freely throughout the game.

VANDERBILT 7, KENTUCKY 6

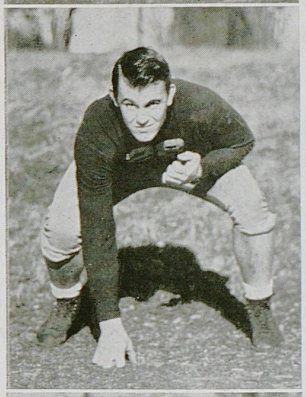

A desperate last-minute march by Kentucky that appeared goal-bound was cut short by a penalty, and Vandy's Commodores were returned a 7-6 winner before 12,000 shirt-sleeved fans on Stoll Field. Second of the one-point losses for Kentucky during the season, the tilt looked ready to change hands near the end when the Wildcats drove from their own 34 to the 15 before the officials ruled that a Kentuckian had clipped a Commodore, and erased hopes of a Big Blue success.

With Cutchin in the pitching role and Althaus on the receiving end, the aerial circus had the spectators on their feet, until sub guard Hut Jones committed his miscue. Vandy ruled the play at the game's outset, Kentucky held the upper hand toward the end.

Squirrel Simmons scooted 47 yards on a quick opening play in the second period for Vandy's marker, while the losers' tally came on Herbert's line-buck from the one, after a Cutchin-to-Althaus toss had put the pigskin there.

KENTUCKY 21, V. P. I. 21

After taking an early two-touchdown advantage, Kentucky's 'Cats were tied, 21-21, by an inspired Virginia Tech eleven dedicating a $300,000 stadium in Roanoke, Va. A 21-7 lead melted away as the Techmen came back in the second half to crumble Kentucky's forward wall.

Only seven minutes had ticked away when Cutchin made the first Kentucky touchdown on a line-buck. Kuhn converted, then ran 55 yards to score standing up. Kuhn again converted. Hurst added the other, a plunge from the two, and Kuhn's place-kick ended Kentucky scoring. V.P.I. tallies came on two runs by Blandford and another by Clark, Tech end, who grabbed a blocked kick and trekked for double-stripe territory.

ALABAMA 14, KENTUCKY 0

12,000 Homecoming fans watched the 'Cats push 'Bama's Tide all over Stoll Field during the first half, then weaken after intermission and lose, 14-0. Kentucky's offensive was noticeably lessened when Cutchin was forced to the sidelines early in the first half with bruised back muscles.

Consensus among fans was that Alabama's team was the best-blocking squad to appear on Stoll Field for several years. A fumble set up the first Red Elephant score. The Crimsons picked up Herbert's bobble on the Kentucky 22, marched over in four tries. The other touchdown came on a pass interception, and a series of line thrusts. The win was the 20th for 'Bama in its 22-year series with the Bluegrass boys.

KENTUCKY 27, GEORGE WASHINGTON 6

After trailing 6-0 at the end of the first quarter, the Big Blue came back to score two touchdowns in the second period and added two more in the third stanza.

Kentucky's first marker came on a march from the 'Cats' 43. In six plays the visitors carried the ball to the 19, where Paul Walker passed to George Sengle for the score. The next marker came on a 69-yard trek. In two plays Ramblin' Robert jammed to the Colonials' 36. Next Walker pitched to Moseley for 27 yards to the 9. Three tries via the bombers' route proved fruitless, and then Kuhn took off around his left end for a score. He then kicked for the point. The last Cat score came on a pass interception. Kuhn grabbed the oval out of the air and ran it 38 yards for a touchdown. And again Kuhn booted the extra point. The Cats were without the services of three of their key men. The injured were Cutchin, Captain Walker and Rhodemyre.

Georgia Tech 47, Kentucky 7

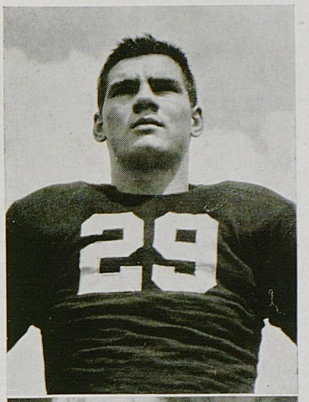

Georgia Tech did the expected—bluntly speaking, they did much more than expected by routing Kentucky, 47-7, in Atlanta. Some 20,000 fans saw unbeaten, untied Tech combine an aerial extravaganza with a potent ground attack to completely outclass the Kentuckians, who were never in the ball game.

A slippery, swivel-hipped, speedy freshman back, Clint Castleberry, Eddie Prokop, Bobby Sheldon and a host of brilliant supporting stars paced the Deep South boys to their easy win. Apparently it was Tech's day by a decree of the powers that be. Kentucky could do nothing right, Tech could do nothing wrong.

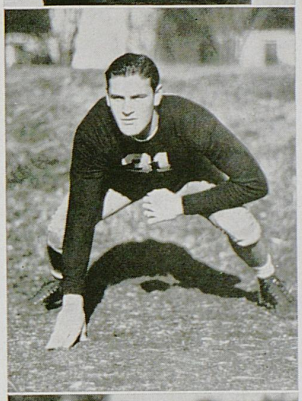

A pass from Cutchin to Althaus accounted for the only Kentucky touchdown.

West Virginia 7, Kentucky 0

A pass that luckily bounced into the arms of an unintended receiver gave West Virginia's Mountaineers a 7-0 nod over Kentucky. Dramatically enough, the incident came in the last 40 seconds of play, when Richard Leonard's toss, intended for William Bell, bounced off the fingertips of Charley Kuhn, trying to intercept it, and fell into the arms of surprised Fred Morecraft, and Morecraft stepped over the goal-line.

TENNESSEE 26, KENTUCKY 0

The Wildcats came out on the short end of the score again as they faced their fourth bowl team of the season. The 'Cats were handicapped by the absence of All-American Johnson and Phil Cutchin in the lineup. The Kirwanites threatened to score only once as they advanced to the Vol 17 in the second quarter. This was the only time that Kentucky was in Tennessee's back yard. Coach Barnhill even called on his fourth eleven to season them.

The winners registered their first score after 13 minutes of play, when Tunstill punted out weakly from deep 'Cat territory. Six plays later found the Vols ahead as Bobby Cifers went off-tackle for the few remaining yards. Charley Mitchill added the point. The second score came on a drive from the visitors' 49. Wingback reverses, straight plays and a 10-yard stripe, and Walter Slater plunged over. Slater also kicked the extra point to increase the lead 14-0. Here Kentucky's forces rallied and made their only threat of the contest. Seven plays went for 62 yards which started from the 'Cats' own 21. Herbert bucked for three. Tunstill passed to Sengle for 16. Then Tunstill tossed again to Sengle for 16 more. Then Tunstill took off around his right end for 12. Next a pass fell incomplete, then Ramblin' Robert bucked for 5. The Vols took over on downs.

Brandau started the Vols' third marker by intercepting Tunstill's pass on his own 47 and returning it to the 'Cats' 35. Slater tossed a 15-yard pass to Red Zontini, Hillmann bucked the line for three. Zontini then caught a heave from Slater and went over untouched. His try was a bit wide. The last Vol score came when Slater threw a 44-yard toss to Jim Howell and Howell eluded Tunstill to score. Slater's try again went wide, but Tennessee had massed 26 points and had little cause to worry.

CLYDE JOHNSON

ALL-AMERICAN

After 51 years of football at the University, All-American honors were attained by a Kentucky player. Clyde Johnson, 235-pound tackle from Ashland, was placed on the Associated Press first team. Prior to his selection for the All-American berth, Big Stoop accepted an invitation to play in the annual North-South game at Montgomery, Alabama. He also was awarded a position on the All-Southeastern Conference team. In addition to these other honors Johnson also was made a member of several all-opponent teams.

At high school in Ashland, Clyde was outstanding in both football and basketball. In college, however, he has participated only in the gridiron sport. In spite of his tremendous size he possesses great agility and is speedy on his feet. Through his great determination he was an immovable barrier in the line and one of the greatest defensive players Kentucky ever had.

In the opinion of his coaches and of his fellow players this six-feet, six-inch giant truly deserved all the honors which he brought to the University. He worked hard, played his best against the better teams, and accepted recognition in the same quiet manner in which he had assumed his position as a football star.

BASKETBALL

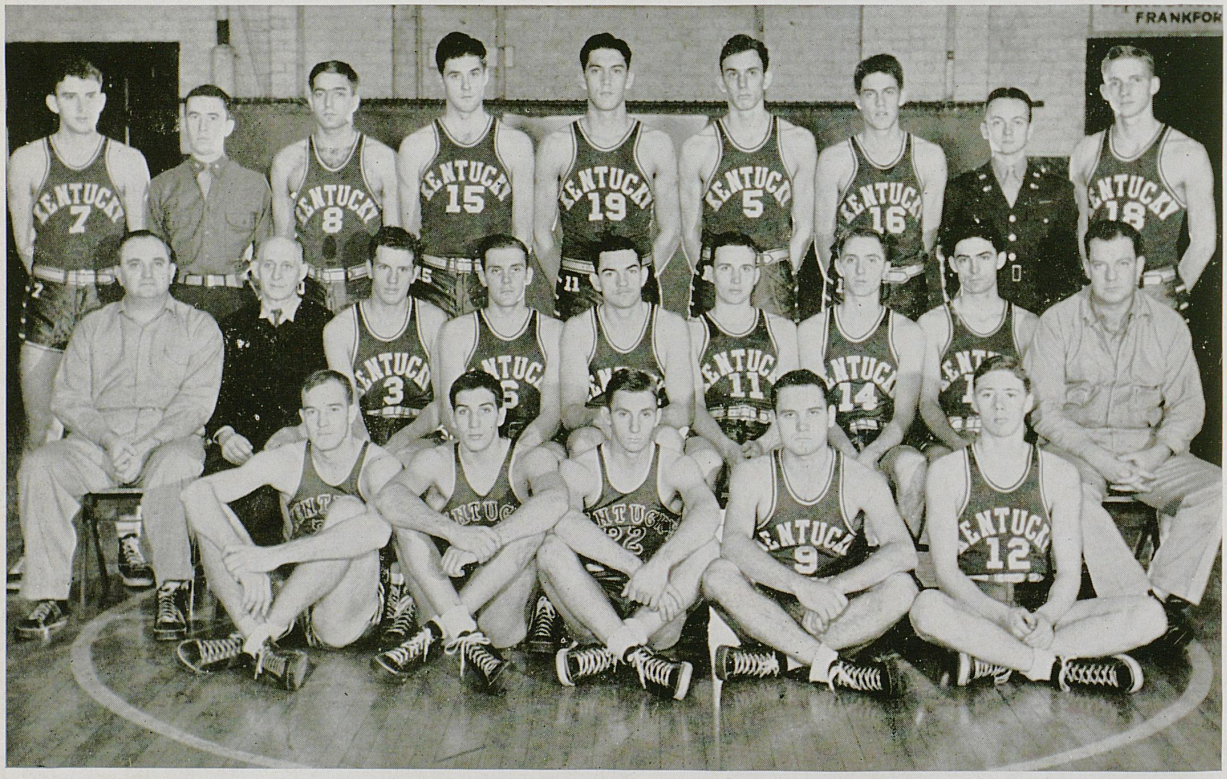

Although winding up on top of the conference with 8 wins against a lone setback, the Wildcats failed to retain the title by dropping to the Volunteers of Tennessee in the finals of the SEC tourney in Louisville by a count of 33-30. Before reaching the finals, the 'Cats whipped Tulane 48-31, eased by Georgia 59-30, and out-distanced Mississippi State 52-43. Minus the services of Ken Rollins, who developed into one of the neatest performers of the season, and handicapped by an injured arm of big Mel Brewer, the Baronites were outplayed by a revenge-seeking pack of Volunteers, who during the season had dropped two tilts to the 'Cats.

The Wildcats started the season with only three lettermen on the squad, and during the Christmas holidays were treated by Ohio State and Indiana as if they didn't have any experience, although in both contests the 'Cats led most of the way. But it's the final count that is registered in the won-loss columns. Then came the new year and with it came an improved quintet as they started bowling over opponents as had the Wildcat teams of the past. The basketeers took a jaunt down South and found the teams just as genial as the Southern hospitality.

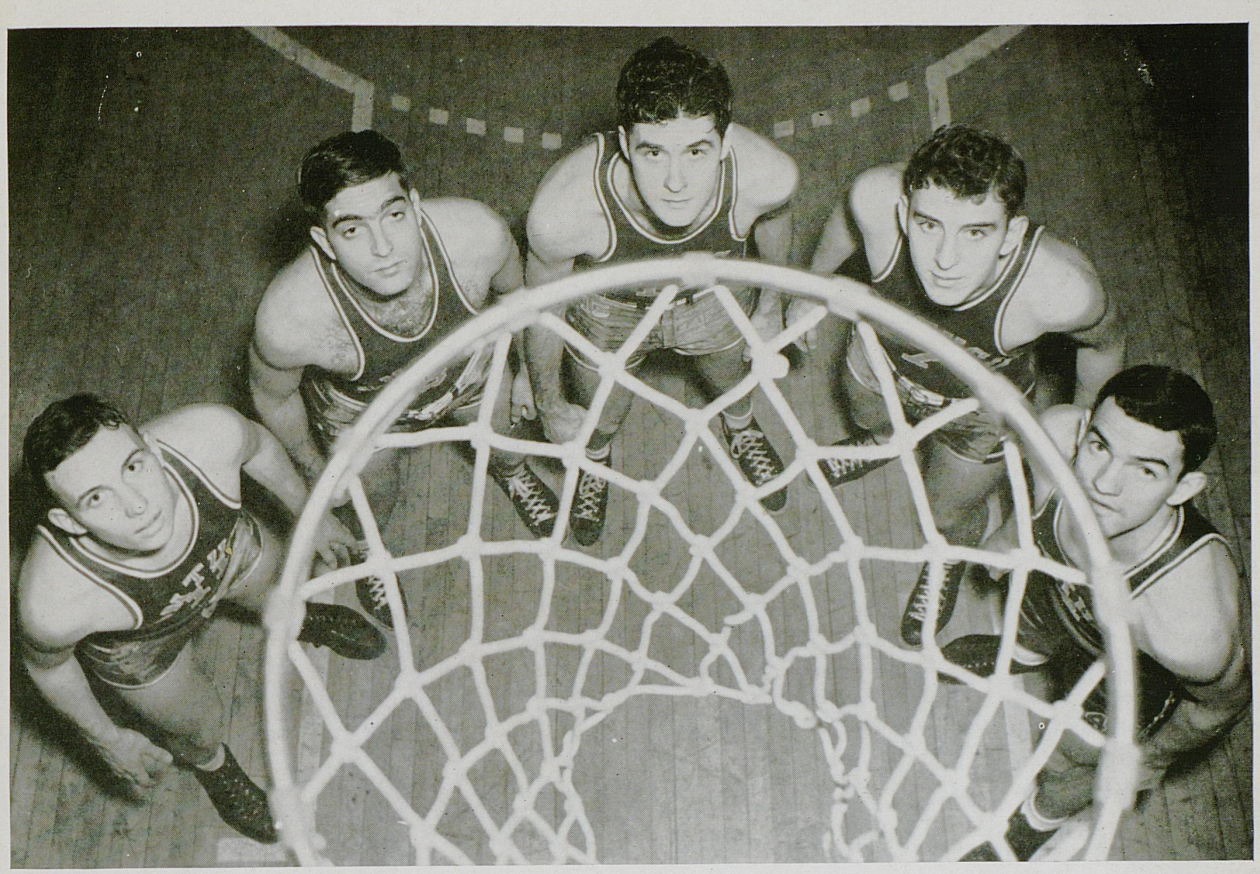

A week later the team met an undefeated Notre Dame five, one of the greatest that he had ever coached, according to the late George Keogan, and upset the apple cart in probably the greatest performance of the year. All was not joy, though, because this was the peak of Kentucky's playing and not once during the remainder of the season did they resemble the same outfit.

A week later, the 'Cats dropped their only conference setback of the season. Then up until tournament time the only Wildcat defeat of the month of February was at the hands of DePaul. The team terminated the season with Great Lakes and with thirteen wins out of eighteen tilts.

Co-captains Marvin Akers and Melvin Brewer were selected on the all-SEC team. Milton Ticco made the second team and Kenny Rollins, Muff

KENTUCKY 45, WASHINGTON U. 38

Kentucky Kage Kats slowed down the fast-breaking Washington University Bears and went on to win its second victory of the season, 45-38. The first win was over the Reserves earlier in the season.

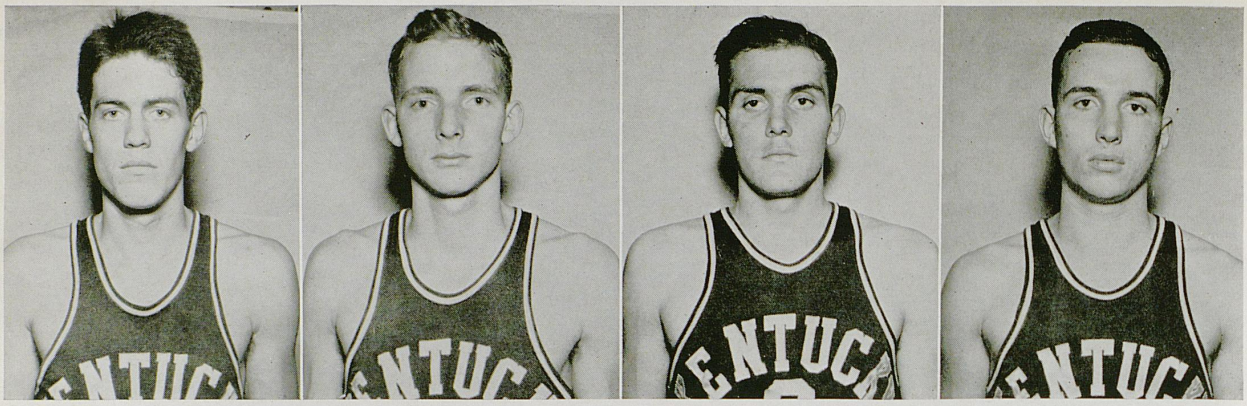

At the start the boys of Adolph Rupp were hotter than a tank in Tunisia, and were leading 6-0 at the end of two minutes of play. Center Mel Brewer paced the 'Cat attack with 13 points. Bloom blossomed out with 14 for the visitors.

and outdistanced the Wildcats, 58-52, before 5,000 fans at Louisville's Armory. The Hoosiers sliced the Wildcat lead to 33-31 with 14 minutes to play. After the 'Cats pushed their advantage to 36-31, Indiana started rolling. Brewer and Ticco led the 'Cat point getters with 10 points apiece while Hamilton with 18 and Ward Williams, brilliant soph center, with 15, paced the McCrackenmen.

Kentucky 40, Ohio State 45

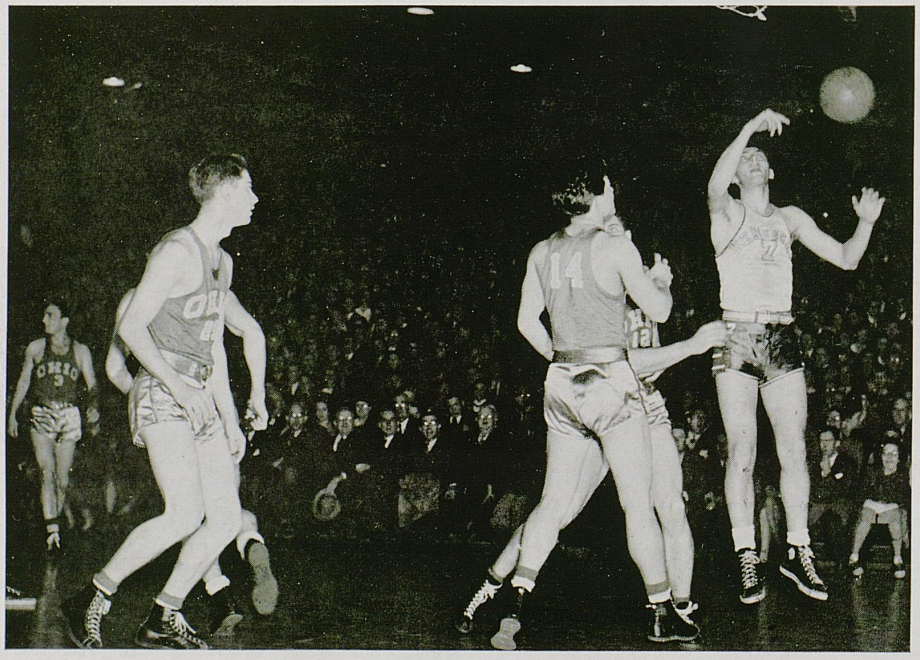

Before a capacity crowd that jammed into every available space of Alumni gym, the Wildcats faltered in the stretch and were defeated, 45-40, by a gallant band of Buckeyes from Ohio State. The Bucks were paced by a couple of forwards, Fred Miller and little Max Gecowets, who scored 14 and 11 points respectively, but it was Dick Shrider, Buckeye guard, that dealt the 'Cats the knockout blow when the chips were on the line.

Kentucky 64, Fort Knox 30

After playing a listless first half, the 'Cats came back strong in the second canto to derail a band of Fort Knox Armoraiders 64-30, before a scant crowd of 1,500. Milt Ticco, curly-topped forward, took charge of the heavy artillery and wound up the evening with eight direct hits and a free toss for a total of 17 points. Pvt. George Adams, six-foot, three-inch center, led the Armoraiders with 14 in addition to playing a bang-up rebounding game.

Kentucky 43, Xavier 38

A sellout crowd jammed every corner of Xavier's huge fieldhouse to watch the 'Cats top Xavier, after the Baron yanked Akers in favor of Ace Parker and Paul Noel for Davis, and went ahead to squeeze out a 43-38 margin. The game was close all the way, except for a brief spurt by the 'Cats after the start of the second half, when they ran up a 10-point lead. The 'Cats led, 22-19, at the intermission. Milt Ticco led the barrage with 15 tallies. Heywood led the Musketeers with 9 points.

KENTUCKY 30, TENNESSEE 28

To the top of the Southeastern Conference cage standings went Kentucky's Wildcats as they edged the Vols in the last few minutes of play. The 'Cats had to overcome a 16-8 intermission lead and this they did by scoring 22 points to the Vols' 12. Kentucky had the best of it at the free throw lane, converting eight and missing only seven, while the Vols made 10, but were unsuccessful a like number of times. Nineteen personals were called on the winners and 14 on Tennessee. Milt Ticco, veteran forward, tallied 12 markers while Paul Herman, Vol captain, led his mates with 11.

KENTUCKY 60, GEORGIA 28

After a brief parry in the opening minutes of the fracas, the Baron's blue-clad cagers were off to the races. The Baron used his entire traveling squad of 12 players in rolling up the huge score. All but two of the 'Cats contributed to the point-making. The Bluegrassers held a 22-14 count at the half. Muff Davis, soph forward, led the offensive flurry with 12 points, followed by Ticco, who netted eight.

KENTUCKY 38, GEORGIA TECH 37

Accuracy at the free throw line was the difference, the Big Blue making all their six tosses, while the Engineers converted only five in 11 tries. The timer's gun didn't end the game, since an extra five-second period was ordered by Referee Bowser Chest because of a timing error. The Kentuckians had erased an intermission lead of 26-24 to register their third straight conference win. Ticco and Brewer matched high point honors with 10 apiece. Charlie Scruggs, guard, played a wonderful floor game for the Jackets.

KENTUCKY 60, NOTRE DAME 55

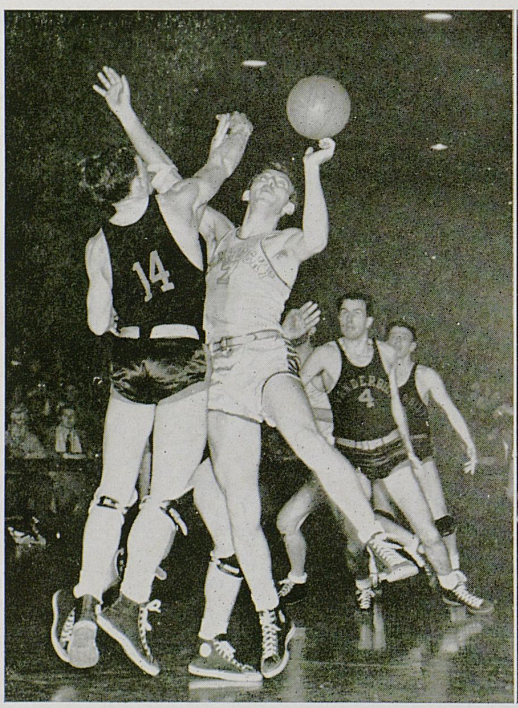

Although three starters fouled out, the Wildcats wouldn't give up and determined to "win this one" if humanly possible. For almost 40 minutes, the 'Cats and the Irish waged a see-saw duel that will probably go down as the greatest game ever played in Louisville's Armory. The 'Cat win broke the Irish seven game winning streak. Unable to penetrate the Irishs' inner defense, the Baronites converted heaves from far out on the court. No one can be singled out for individual honors, although Akers and Ticco racked up 17 and 16 points respectively. Meanwhile Rensberger and Faught ran up 17 and 16 markers for the Irish.

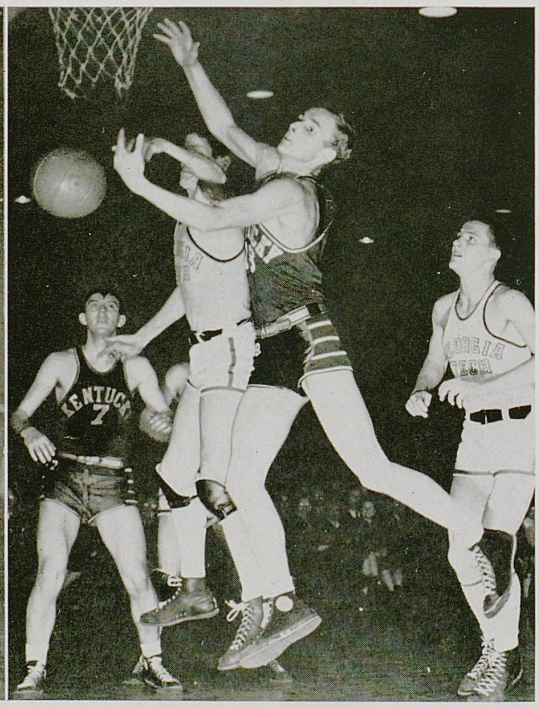

KENTUCKY 39, VANDERBILT 38

Led by a diminutive forward, the Commodores almost slipped a defeat on the Ruppmen. Scobey, who measures only five feet, nine inches, tossed in 14 points and stood out in floor play. Once in the last minute of play he stole the ball from a Kentucky player and tallied a two-pointer for the game's last bucket. Davis was replaced in the line-up by Noel, freshman, because of a cold. Ken Rollins' floor-work was the only stand-out thing of the whole 'Cat five. Vandy led at the half, 18-17. Rollins and Akers led the 'Cat attack with 10 apiece, while Scobey tallied 14 for Vandy.

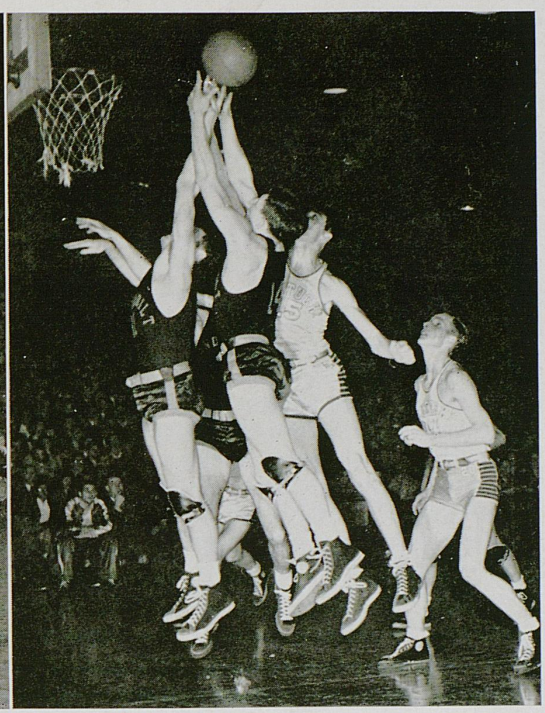

KENTUCKY 32, ALABAMA 41

The Tide handed the 'Cats their first conference defeat of the season. For the victors, it was perfect teamwork and clever guarding, similar and superior to that which enabled them to defeat Georgia Tech the week before, that gained the triumph. Eleven minutes after the beginning of the first half, the Wildcats drew up to a 9-8 count, the closest they came during the game.

KENTUCKY 54, VANDERBILT 43

Only in the first few minutes of the fray did Vandy ever hold a lead, for the 'Cat combine went in front after five minutes and stayed there. Rebounding played a large part in Kentucky's success, as Mel Brewer drew the crowd's plaudits with his stellar floor work. The 'Cats executed many set plays in the contest while Vandy cashed in on fast breaks. Brewer and Davis led the affair with 12 points per man. Ticco and Rollins came next in order with 11 and 10. For the losers, Olsen racked up 18 markers and little Scobey followed with 10.

KENTUCKY 67, ALABAMA 41

Led by Kenny Rollins' perfect floor work and Muff Davis' 19 points, Kentucky avenged their first licking at the hands of the Tidemen. The game was rougher than usual, with a total of 38 fouls being called in the fray. Kentucky, picking the Tidemen up all over the floor, gave the 'Bamans little elbow room to throw at the bucket. Meanwhile the Baronites were shaking loose for many points from the set plays. Davis led the attack and was followed by Ticco's 14 markers. Homer led the losers with 14.

KENTUCKY 48, XAVIER 36

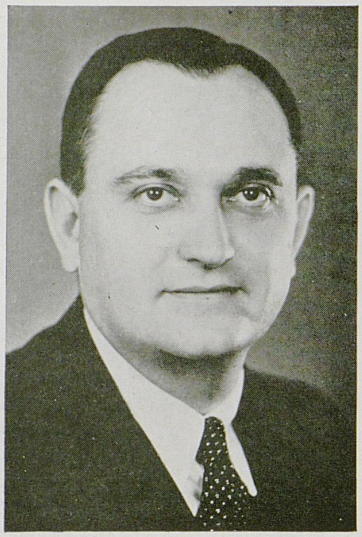

Three minutes remained in the first period when the Ruppmen went in front to stay. With the count knotted, Davis dropped in a crip and Rollins added another to make the score 20-16 at the half. The Muskies never came closer than seven points of Kentucky's lead in the second half, but they staged a last-ditch scoring spree by tossing in seven in the final three minutes of play, but fell short of overtaking the 'Cats. Ticco led the affair with 10 tallies, while for the losers O'Hara registered 11.

KENTUCKY 53, TENNESSEE 29

With Ticco racking up six points in the first two minutes of play, the Vols were never any closer during the whole affair. It took about the middle of the first half for the Vols to penetrate the 'Cat defense for a marker. The 'Cats kept the Vols so bottled up with a shifting man-to-man defense that they couldn't get at the bucket. It was a sell-out crowd of some 3,500 fans who saw the decisive defeat of the Tennesseeans. It was the worst defeat that Johnny Mauer took since handling the reins at Knoxville. Ticco led with 17 points, followed with Rollins and Davis scores of 10 each.

KENTUCKY 58, GEORGIA TECH 31

The victory was Kentucky's eighth in nine conference starts and gave the Wildcats the scheduled season title. Brewer also stood out in all-round floor play, rebounding in meteoric fashion and tipping in unsuccessful attempts. He began to look like the Brewer of old. Akers was reinserted into the starting lineup for the first time in several games.

ADOLPH RUPP
Head Basketball Coach

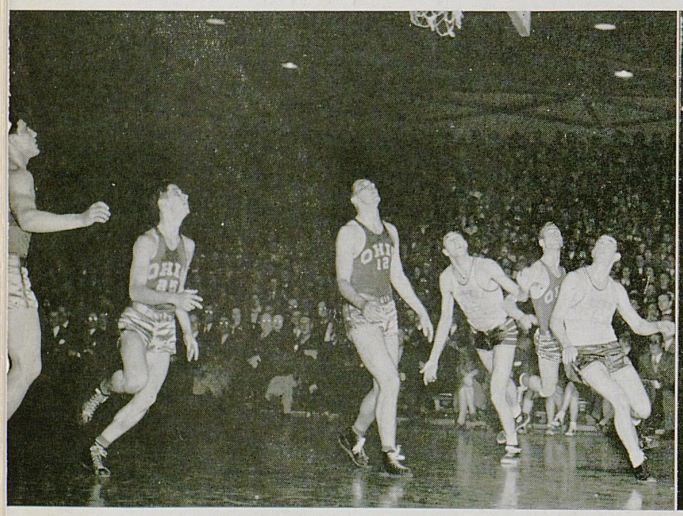

Davis led the scorers with 14, followed by Brewer and Akers who massed 13 and 10 respectively. Broyles led the Engineers with 8 points.

KENTUCKY 44, DEPAUL 53

With their six-foot, eight-inch center, George Mikan, knocking Kentucky's shots away from the basket, DePaul's Demons built up a first half lead and coasted to a 53-44 win over the 'Cats. Some 16,000 fans witnessed the fray in the Chicago Stadium. The 'Cats were unable to score a field goal in the first six minutes. After awhile the Ruppmen began to move, pulled to a 30-16 edge at half-time, but this was as close as they came to defeating the Demons. Mikan got 18 for DePaul while Ticco accounted for 13.

KENTUCKY 39, GREAT LAKES 53

Facing an array of former college stars, the Wildcats were completely outclassed in the Louisville Armory. The Navy men were a smooth-going outfit, raking in points aplenty in the first half. The Lakes team had a potent group of substitutes which determined the completeness of the defeat. Rebounding was at a standstill in this tussle. Noel, Akers, and Brewer were high men for the Ruppmen with 8 apiece. Bob Davies led the gobs with 12 points. Again Kenny Rollins and Muff Davis exhibited finesse a-la-king.

TENNIS

Coach H. H. Downing's racqueteers experienced a mediocre season in 1942, losing seven matches while winning two. They were leading in one other match with the University of Cincinnati when rain forced its conclusion.

All of the Wildcats' opponents but one proved to be much stronger than in previous years, and the Kentuckians, even though the roster was made up of experienced men, turned in one of the least successful seasons in several years. Notre Dame and Miami University, two of the strongest teams in the nation, both dropped the boys from the Bluegrass by an 8-1 score. The tennis Cats' most brilliant showing of the season was a 7-0 triumph over Berea College.

Captain Omar Ratliff, Frank Miller, Marshall Smith, Grant Lewis, Heinz Seelbach, Billy Evans and Jim Harris were the boys who saw most of the racquet service last year. From these lettermen, only Ratliff, Smith and Billy Evans will return, but Coach Downing's squad will be bolstered by Bob Rose and Bob Carrier, who saw action with the frosh team last year. Two new freshmen, Carroll Fears, Louisville high school star, and Jack Scharstein, Bellevue, who will be eligible to compete for a berth on the varsity, have also been added to the roster.

In Kentucky's inaugural outing, Georgia Tech's tennis team upset the 'Cats on the Kentucky courts, 6-3. Tech took four out of six singles and two out of three doubles matches to clinch the victory. Miami University of Coral Gables, Florida, handed the 'Cats their second defeat of the season, 8-1, on the home courts.

The Wildcats won their first match of a three-match midwest tour from Wayne University at Detroit, 5-4. Michigan State caught the tennis 'Cats on the rebound and came through with a 7-2 win over the Kentuckians. The third and final meet of the tour saw the boys from the Bluegrass lose an 8-1 decision to the Irish of Notre Dame.

Kentucky's next attempt to get back in the win column resulted in a 2-6 loss to Tennessee's Vols at Knoxville. The Wildcats then lost two more tussles in quick succession. Western State Teachers College subdued the 'Cats 4-3, and Vanderbilt dropped Dr. Downing's charges 8-1.

The final meet of the season saw the Wildcats get "on the ball" and whitewash Berea's netters, 7-0.

COACH DOWNING

BASEBALL

Creditable mound performances were turned in by Jim Mathewson and Marvin Akers. Foster Spence and Bob Herbert also worked on the hill for the 'Cats. Milt Ticco first sacker led the Kentucky batting average. He was scouted by several major league scouts during the season. Randall Hammer, outfielder, Bruce Boehler, third baseman, Charley Kuhn, catcher, and Coach Black also accounted for many Kentucky runs.

The first home appearance of the nine was plenty o.k.. Tennessee's Volunteers were licked, 12-9, on Stoll Field. Mathewson pitched a stand-out game for the victors, allowing nine singles, well scattered. Seven bobbles by his mates helped the visitors' cause. Next day the Vols revenged this loss, however, with an 11-5 success. Herbert started for the losers, was relieved by Spence in the third.

In one of those ninth-inning rallies that make baseball the thrilling game it is, Kentucky eked out a 3-2 nod over Eastern at Richmond. A mound duel between Akers of Kentucky and Gene Rall of Eastern featured the game. Akers allowed only three hits, struck out seven.

Vandy paid a two-game visit to the Bluegrass, was victorious in both contests. In the first match the Nashville school won, 20-8, due chiefly to a wildness on the part of Herbert, Wildcat hurler. The second clash was much closer, as the Commodores achieved a 5-4 triumph.

The University of Cincinnati felt the sting of a 3-1 Kentucky success in one of the best games of the entire season. Schneider did the mound work for the Bearcats. Three errors by his mates bolstered the 'Cats' work at the plate, however. Mathewson held the Queen City lad to four safeties. A few days later in Cincinnati, the 'Cats edged the Bearcats, 5-4, in 14 innings.

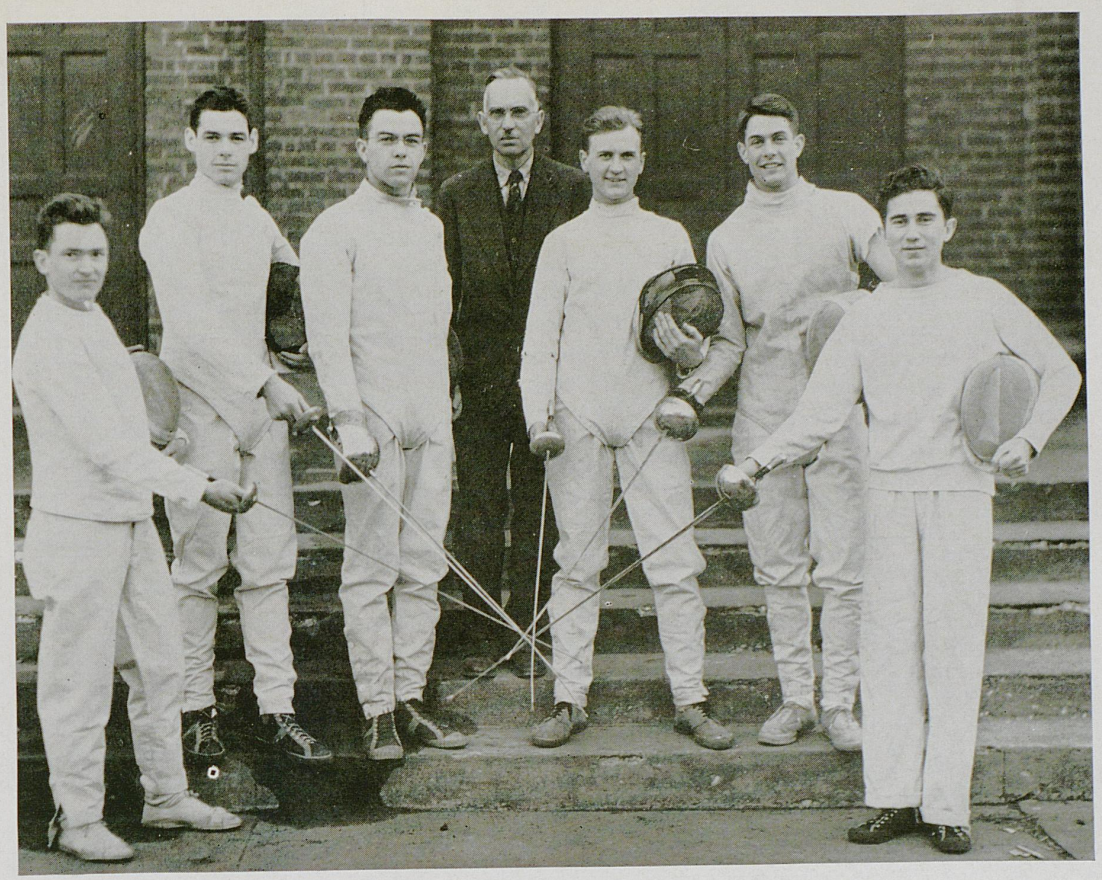

Another victory over Eastern, this time on Stoll Field, added another mark to the credit side of Kentucky's ledger, as the 'Cats topped the Maroons, 10-8. Again, it was Akers for Kentucky and Rall for Eastern, but this time the hitting on both squads was more plentiful, as the winners collected 13 safeties, the losers 11.

A victory over Marshall ended the diamond season.

FENCING

University fencing in 1943 was on a strictly balanced basis—two wins, two defeats. Ironically the duo of losses were imposed by the same foe, Georgia Tech, and both successes were scored against the University of Cincinnati. The Bearcats fell, 11½-5½, and 9½-7½, while the Ramblin' Wreck bested the 'Cat parriers, 10½-6½, and 9-8.

Dr. Charles M. Knapp, history professor who fenced at Columbia University in his undergraduate days, served as thrusting mentor, and developed a better-than-average outfit from the group of boys who reported to him in late fall. 'Twas quite a while before a schedule was arranged for the swort-wielders, but once started, they performed commendably in the ancient sport.

John Swift, Bill Carroll, Seymour Pudding, Bill Wharton, Sonny Christian, Frebert Thompson, Dee Akers, and John Hubbard were Dr. Knapp's mainstays. Swift served as team captain.

Chances for a good season seemed quite rosy for the epee-and-saber artists, following their 11½-5½ rout of the UC lads in the season opener. Only in the epee division did the Queen City youths have any measure of success, edging the 'Cats, 2½-1½, in this phase of the sport. Foil-work and saber-competition was all Kentucky. In the saber meet the Bluegrassers won three of four matches. Foils gave the Kentuckians six matches, the Bearcats three. Swift and Thompson starred in foil efforts, Carroll shone in saber, and Pudding stood out in epee.

A trek into Georgia evened the card for Kentucky, however, with Tech's 10½-6½ triumph. 'Twas only in epee that Dr. Knapp's charges edged the Engineers, beating them, 2½-1½.

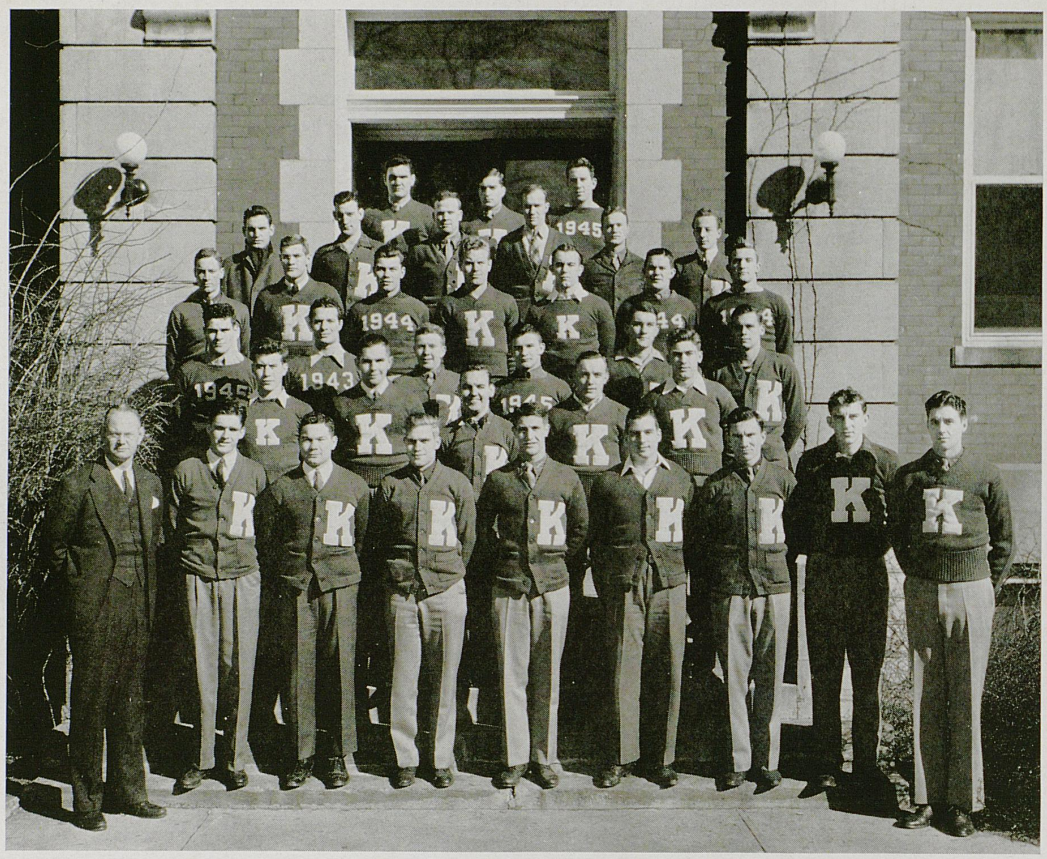

In foils Swift won two, lost one; Thompson split two matches, Hubbard won one, lost two. Saber results showed two losses and no wins for Carroll, the same for Wharton. Pudding broke even in epee, tallying 1½ points, losing the same number. Christian also split, with one and one. Tech accounted for all the other point-getting.

UC provided a bit more of competition in its second clash with the Knappmen, but succumbed, 9½-7½. Kentucky topped in foils, 5-4, won out in epee, 2½-1½, and took both of the saber matches. Thompson won all three of his foil matches easily, while Swift picked up two points in this division. In the epee ranks Pudding and Akers split even, both winning one and losing one. Carroll was tops in both of his saber engagements.

Tech put a sad note in the season swan song with a 9-8 decision. The Atlantans bested the Wildcats only in foils, 5-4. In the spee and saber departments 'Cat fencers matched the Southerners point for point.

Swift and Thompson each lost two of their foils matches while winning one apiece. Hubbard broke even with one win and one loss, and Akers won one and lost one in this division. In epee the 'Cats tied three and took one. Akers tied two, Pudding won one, tied one. In the saber ranks Carroll and Hubbard split even, each winning one and losing one.

Like most of the other University sports, fencing's future is as indefinite as can be. Chances are that UK won't be represented in the ancient art next fall, however, since the departure of most male students will probably call for a suspension of the sport.

MILITARY

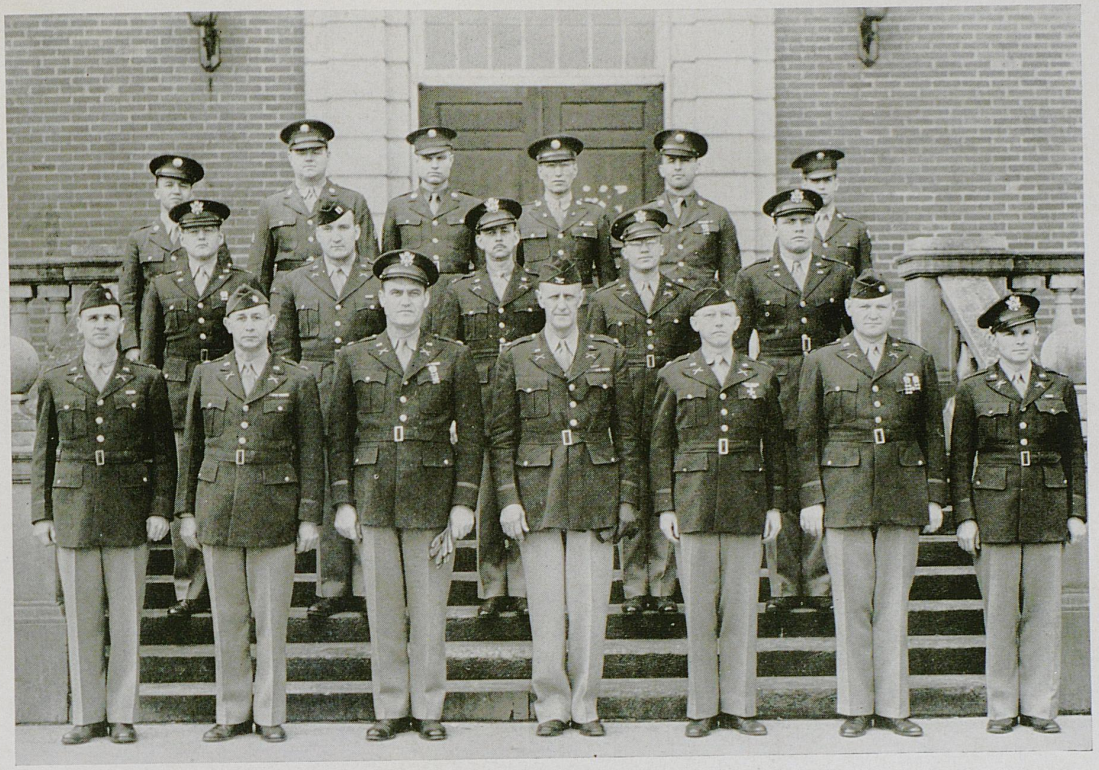

COL. B. E. BREWER, P. M. S. & T.

After graduating from the University of Kentucky in 1908, Colonel B. E. Brewer went to the Philippines in 1908 where he stayed for thirteen years. While there, he was commissioned Second Lieutenant in the Philippine Scouts in 1910, served in various posts and camps, and for a time was Deputy Military Governor of the Lubungam District of Mindanao.

In 1921 he returned to the United States and was executive officer at Fort Sneeling, Minnesota, for three years. From time to time he has been stationed at many forts throughout the country.

Colonel Brewer is a graduate of the Field Officer Course Infantry School and General Staff School. He was P. M. S. & T. at the University of Kentucky 1932-1938. From here he was transferred to 11th Infantry, Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana, for a year and then to Fort Hayes, Columbus, Ohio, where he served as chief of Ohio military area. He returned to Lexington, Kentucky, April 2, 1942, to resume once more his duties as P.M.S.& T. at the University of Kentucky.

Colonel Brewer says that he expects to make Lexington his home when he joins the unburied dead (retires from military service).

The University of Kentucky band has continued to carry its name higher and higher, and to maintain its traditional title "Best Band in Dixie" regardless of a considerably smaller organization, due to absence of the many former members who are now in the armed forces.

The band is composed of fifty musicians and four Pershing Riflemen who act as the Color Guard. It has played for all home games and has accompanied teams to Louisville, Cincinnati, and Knoxville, though it was impossible for them to make all trips with the team, as has been done in the past. The difficulty in arranging traveling facilities necessitated that they dispose of the majority of trips. However the marching band has faithfully provided the campus with music for the pep rallies and military parades. For several years the band has been the guest of the track officials at the Kentucky Derby.

The concert band presents two concerts in Memorial in conjunction with many other appearances botth on the campus and at other schools. Both concert and marching bands aid in the state high school music festival.

Much of the year's success should be attributed to the director, C. V. Magurean, whose endeavors and enthusiasm are an inspiration to all the band members. Credit is also due to his able staff, composed of Drum Majors Dirk Verhagen, Brooks Coons, and Kenneth Fincher, Manager Harold Carr; assistant Donald Galloway; and the six section heads.

Miss Barbara Rehm for two years has upheld the long traditional line of beautiful sponsors. Her appearance was of vital importance to an outstanding performance.

As one has surely noted by now, the 1943 KENTUCKIAN is dedicated not only to the former students of the University but also to the men and women of the whole country who are serving with the armed forces. We hope this book may be a lasting tribute to them.

I should like to thank Bradford Garrison, managing editor, for his exceptional assistance. The staff should also be recognized for its cooperation in making this book possible. Much credit belongs to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Long of the Lafayette Studio, Jahn and Ollier Engraving Company, Kingsport Press, Inc., and The Kernel Press. Dr. Niel Plummer, head of the Department of Journalism, has been not only an adviser but a real friend.

So, after many months, here it is—and I hope you like it.

The last precious jar of rubber cement has been emptied; the final sheet of mounting board has been cut and sent to the engraver. The members of the editorial staff under the capable direction of editor-in-chief Bob Kibler and managing editor Brad Garrison have prepared the 1943 Kentuckian for publication. The results of many hours of fun and hard work which began early last fall have become apparent.

We are proud to have enjoyed the privilege of making a permanent record of life at the University during such a significant year. The work done by the three associate editors, Chester Theiss, Ed Barnes, and Virginia Long, was unusually satisfactory this time. Each was assigned several definite tasks to complete at specified times. Chester Theiss was the only associate with experience from last year.

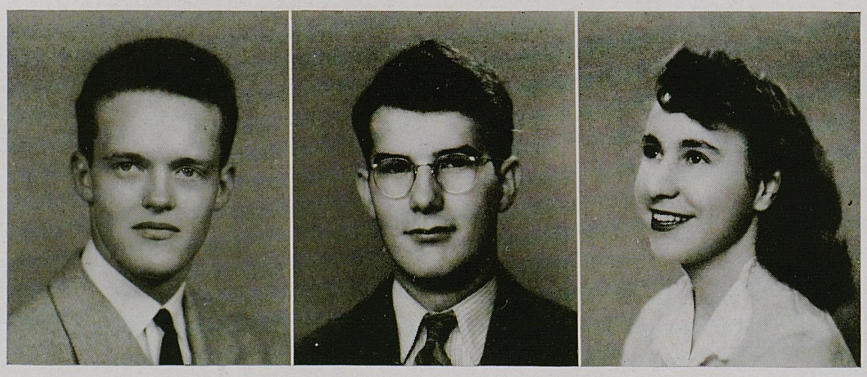

B. F. Melton and Vincent Spagnuolo, two of the outstanding sports writers on the campus, were in charge of the sports section this year. Josephine Glasscock was in charge of all mounting and made one of the outstanding contributions to the work of the editorial staff. Eloise Bennett and Edith Weisenberger are to be commended on the fine job they did on the fraternity and sorority copy.

An unusually large number of people offered their services. All were capable and eager to work. The three hardest-working members of the general staff were June Baker, Merl Baker, and John Trimble. They were always on hand when needed and their earnestness is appreciated. There is not space to mention each staff member individually, but all deserve thanks and recognition.

All of the art work was contributed by Adalin Stern, who did a very fine job. All pictures for the personality section were snapped by Bill Triplett.

Business Manager Bohnak

At the beginning of this year the business staff had its troubles: only a few students were inclined to work on the business staff; we expected a decrease in both individual and organizational sales; our engraver went out of business and we had to sign up another at the last minute; and the Army hovered over the Kentuckian, finally taking its editor, managing editor ,and two of its associate editors before the spring quarter had started.

Regardless of all this, the business staff of the 1943 Kentuckian can certainly boast of a successful year. The advance sales campaign broke previous records by more than 15 percent. Individual salesmen showing the best results were Micki Bogan, Marjorie Freeman, Mary B. Steele, Lys Wallace, Wynnette White, Chester Theiss, and Mary Saunders, all under the supervision of Sales Manager Amy Rutherford.

Credit for tracking down campus groups in the sales of organizational pages goes to Micki Bogan, Lucille Brown, Ernestine Glenn, Mary Jane Gallaher, Mary Lyle, and Wanda Scrivner. The beauty queen contest was carefully supervised by Ed Barnes.

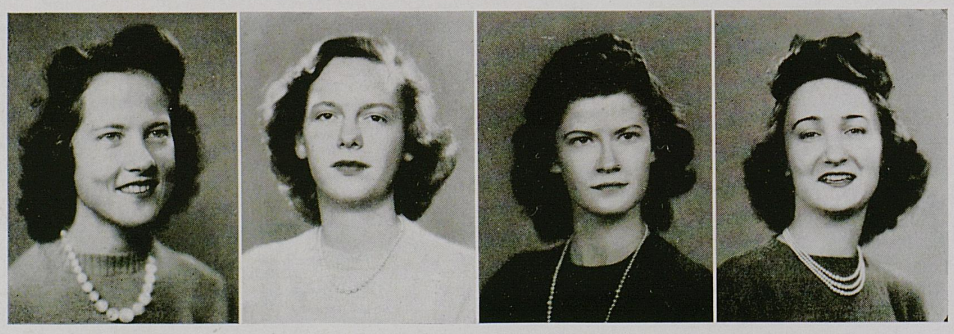

Although certain individuals may have been more competent than others, it was the untiring work of the entire business staff which insured the success of the 1943 Kentuckian from a financial standpoint. We are all justly proud of our record this year.

For the first time in many years a woman editor has occupied the swivel chair in the front office of The Kernel suite situated in the sub-basement of McVey hall, and surveyed a staff composed mostly of the feminine element.

Despite the obstacles of war—lack of man-power in the shop, less advertising, and newsprint restrictions—the press rolled twice a week and The Kentucky Kernel appeared each Tuesday and Friday morning, bringing to the students the news of the campus, of alumni, and of students serving in the armed forces.

The big event of the year was The Kernel-sponsored scrap drive in October which netted 79,900 pounds or slightly less than 40 tons of the badly needed metal. Nine hundred pounds of the scrap were collected as admission to the scrap dance sponsored by the Interfraternity council during the drive. The proceeds from the drive, although small because most of the metal was donated, were voted to the war fund.

The Kernel also backed to the limit the War Chest campaign on the campus, and was proud to be able to print that the students contributed twice as much as they had ever given to any previous cause.

May The Kernel extend good luck and best wishes to the men in the armed forces, wherever their Kentuckians may reach them.

When school opened last fall, the war, for us Americans, was rushing madly toward the end of its first year. It had lost its sparkle and glamor and a great many students attempted temporarily to bury themselves in their isolated life on the campus. For the members of the Kernel Business Staff such isolation was an impossibility. As they canvassed the Lexington stores for advertising they were faced by rationing and depleted stocks on one hand and increased business on the other.

That The Kernel did maintain a goodly percentage of its advertisers was largely due to the constant efforts of George Barker, Advertising Manager, who left school in March to enter the army. Lexington business men were also most considerate in their attitude toward the college paper under such trying circumstances.

Since the second quarter a complete all-girl staff has been trained under the leadership of Miss Betty Bohannon. These girls, who will assume full direction of The Kernel Business Staff next year, have proved themselves most efficient and have done a great deal to destroy the Business Staff's taboo against women.

The work of the entire staff under wartime strain has been highly commendable and the paper has continued to operate on a sound financial basis. Although it was thought necessary to reduce The Kernel to a weekly paper during the third quarter, this is a temporary change which will terminate with the close of the war.

FALL FESTIVAL

The usual gay festivities prevailed for two nights when the 22nd Annual Fall Festival was held by the Agriculture and Home Economics students. This celebration is annually sponsored by the Block and Bridle, Animal Husbandry Honorary Fraternity.

Entertainment for a large group of visitors included stunts by Block and Bridle pledges and among the students, contests such as milking, cornhusking, and chicken picking. A large group of exhibits almost completely running to a patriotic theme was displayed by individual clubs. This year the Block and Bridle won the trophy given each year by Alpha Zeta, for an exhibit which displayed wartime consumption of meats.

The climax of the first evening came with the presentation of the Queen, King and their attendants. The Queen, Miss Betty Proctor, Lexington, and her attendants, Miss Ruth Link and Miss Martha Adams, were selected by the men in the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, while Jim Crowley, Butler, was chosen to reign as King by the women of the college. Roy Hunt and Alex Veech were selected as Knights.

DEANS OF WOMEN

Mrs. Sarah B. Holmes, Dean of Women, attended the University. She is the widow of the late Dr. P. K. Holmes who established the Department of Health and Hygiene at the University.

After Dr. Holmes' death, Mrs. Holmes went to Sayre School for Girls to take the position of principal. After remaining there for five years, she came to the University of Kentucky in 1929 as Assistant Dean of Women. She became acting Dean of Women in 1941 and Dean of Women in 1942.

In addition to her campus activities, Mrs. Holmes serves on many national, state, and local boards. She is a member of the Educational Committee of the National Y.W.C.A., the National Association of Deans of Women, the National Vocational Guidance Association, and the Institute of Women's Professional Relations.

Dean Holmes is a member and former president of the Kentucky Vocational Guidance Association, a member of the state A.A.U.W. Board, and the Kentucky Association of Deans of Women Board.

In Lexington, Mrs. Holmes serves on the Family Welfare Board, the Red Cross Board, and the Central Kentucky Committee on Entertainment for Soldiers. She is also a member of the Red Cross Committee on Home Nursing.

Mrs. Holmes acts not only in the capacity of personal adviser to women students, but also is chairman and adviser of many student groups.

Assistant Dean of Women Jane Haselden attended Hamilton Junior College for two years. She received her A. B. from Transylvania College. She began her graduate work at the University of Michigan, but completed the requirements for an M. A. degree at Columbia University.

Miss Haselden spent a year in France at the Ecole de Preparatior de Professeurs de Francais a l'Etranger of the Sorbonne and the Institut de Phonetique of the University of Paris.

She taught at Centre College, was Assistant Professor of French and Dean of Women at both Transylvania and Murray Colleges before coming to the University of Kentucky as Assistant Professor of French and Assistant Dean of Women.

In 1941, Miss Haselden obtained her Ph.D. at the University of Kentucky. In the same year, she completed enough flying hours to receive her private pilot's license.
