THE 1992 EDITION of the University of Kentucky Football Media Guide is a source of information for the media covering the Wildcats during the upcoming season. Additional information is available upon request — releases, photographs, film clips, and slides. Contact the UK Sports Communications Office at (606) 257-3838 for various needs. Please take a moment to review pages two and three of this publication to help answer any questions regarding media services and policies.

DAILY/WEEKLY SERVICES

TUESDAY PRESS CONFERENCE

University of Kentucky Coach Bill Curry will conduct a weekly press conference each Tuesday during the course of the 1992 football season. The press conferences will be conducted in the Wildcat Den at Commonwealth Stadium. Media members please enter the UK Football Office complex to access the Wildcat Den at Gate Three of Commonwealth Stadium. Any member of the media is invited to attend.

The opposing coach will be available via a telephone hook-up in most cases. Generally, five to seven Wildcats football players are in attendance at the press conference and are available for interviews. If you would like to request a particular player to be present at the Tuesday press conferences, media members must contact the UK Sports Communications Office no later than 3 p.m. ET on Monday.

The weekly press conferences will begin on Tuesday, Sept. 1. Press conferences are scheduled each Tuesday throughout the season, concluding on Nov. 17. No press conference is scheduled for Oct. 6, which is UK's open date.

The press conference schedule is as follows — lunch is set from 11:30 a.m. to Noon; Curry press conference from Noon to 12:30 p.m.; and UK player interviews from 12:30 p.m. to 1 p.m.

SUNDAY TELECONFERENCE

UK Coach Bill Curry will again conduct a weekly Sunday teleconference following Wildcats football games. The teleconferences are 20 minutes in length and originate from the Wildcat Den at Commonwealth Stadium. Teleconferences begin at 3 p.m. ET.

Media members can participate in the teleconference by dialing a MEDIA ONLY telephone number which is given out by the UK Sports Communications Office. The Sunday teleconferences will begin on Sept. 6 and run through Nov. 22. No teleconference is planned for Oct. 11, the week of UK's open date.

Radio sportscasters should note the teleconference is broadcast quality. Media members wishing to participate in person are welcome. Please contact the UK Sports Communications Office (606) 257-3838 for further information.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE SERVICES

The Southeastern Conference Communications Office, headed by publicity director Mark Whitworth, offers a variety of services to the media throughout the academic calendar year.

Statistics and league standings are available to the media on a 24- hour bulletin board. Media members can access the bulletin board via computer by a telephone hook-up, a similar process which a newspaper reporter transmits information over the telephone by computer. For parameters and further information, contact the SEC Communications Office at (205) 458- 3010.

All SEC head football coaches are available each Wednesday via a teleconference. Each coach is given a period of five-to-10 minutes every Wednesday to address media questions about the upcoming football game. The starting date and telephone number will be available to the media by contacting the SEC Communications Office.

Video highlights by satellite are offered on a weekly basis through the SEC Communications Office. A 30-minute satellite feed, which includes player interviews and highlights, is available to television stations each Wednesday morning. For further information, contact the SEC Communications Staff.

WILDCATS PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews must be coordinated through the UK Sports Communications Office. Players are available to the media during gameweek, Monday through Wednesday. The best times to conduct interviews with the players are during the lunch hour or following practice. Interviews will be conducted at the Nutter Football Training Center or by telephone. On gamedays, interviews will only be granted after the conclusion of the contest.

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a "call-back" basis only. Individual player telephone numbers WILL NOT be given to members of the media. Players are instructed NOT to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The UK Sports Communications Office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete. Generally, the UK Sports Communications Office has found the most popular time for call backs on telephone interviews is between 6 and 7 p.m. ET.

The Kirwan I dormitory, the Donovan Hall dining area, team locker rooms and team training rooms are considered private team areas. These areas are OFF-LIMITS to the media unless accompanied by UK Sports Communications Office personnel.

FOOTBALL PRACTICE

Kentucky football practices will be open to the media for the first 30 minutes of each session. Following the 30-minute segment, the remainder of practice will be CLOSED to all media members.

Media members must pick up a practice credential through the UK Sports Communications Office for identification at all practices.

The above policy may change following the Sept. 5 opener against Central Michigan. Contact Joey Howard of the UK Sports Communications Office for practice procedures after Sept. 5.

GAME SERVICES

PRESS BOX

COVERING KENTUCKY FOOTBALL IN 1992

Requests for media credentials — season or single-game — should be submitted in writing by sports editors or sports directors of accredited media outlets on company letterhead. Requests for season passes should be submitted to Joey Howard no later than August 21. Requests for single games should arrive at the UK Sports Communications Office at least one week in advance.

The University of Kentucky follows guidelines set forth by the NCAA and the Southeastern Conference in governing the issuance of working credentials. The UK Sports Communications Office attempts to fill each accredited media request, however, space in the Commonwealth Stadium press box or on the sidelines does become a problem occasionally. In those cases, the NCAA and SEC guidelines will be used to determine the issuance of credentials.

Season credentials will ONLY be granted to daily newspapers, radio stations, and television stations which cover the UK Football Program on a regular basis — weekly press conferences and all home games. Due to limited space, season credentials to radio stations will be limited to one per station (sports director). Otherwise, newspapers (daily and weekly), radio and television stations will be accommodated on a single-game basis.

All credential requests should be sent to: Joey Howard, Associate Sports Communications Director, UK Sports Communications Office, Memorial Coliseum, Lexington, KY 40506.

Admission to the Commonwealth Stadium sidelines is by a combination of photo pass and wristband. Photographers must sign-in and present their own credential at the UK Press Will Call table, located inside Gate Seven of Commonwealth Stadium, to obtain an armband.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking at Commonwealth Stadium is available on a limited basis. Requests for parking should be made when submitting press and/or photo credentials. The media parking area is located in the Blue Lot just behind the West side (Alumni Drive) of Commonwealth Stadium. The Blue Lot is accessible via Alumni Drive.

PRESS BOX

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is for working media members ONLY. It is located on the West side (Alumni Drive) of Commonwealth Stadium between the upper and lower grandstands. The media entrance to Commonwealth Stadium is Gate Seven. Two press box elevators are located just to the left of the Gate Seven entrance.

The photo deck, radio booths, television booths, coaches booths, and VIP booths are located on the press box level of Commonwealth Stadium. All can be accessed via the press box elevator.

MEDIA WILL CALL

Media or photo credentials which have not been mailed can be obtained at the Media Will Call table, located just inside Gate Seven of Commonwealth Stadium. Media Will Call opens two hours prior to kickoff and closes 15 minutes following kickoff.

TELEPHONES

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is equipped with eight courtesy telephones with long-distance capabilities for use by the media on a first-come, first-served basis. The UK Sports Communications Office strongly suggests each media outlet with deadline restrictions should order their individual telephone line. Members of the media wishing to order phone lines can do so by contacting — John Fuller of the UK Phone Services Department. His telephone number is (606) 257-7727. Please order phone lines at least one week in advance.

DARKROOM FACILITIES

Limited darkroom facilities are available in the Commonwealth Stadium press box. Photographers wishing to use the darkroom facilities should make arrangements with Joey Howard of the UK Sports Communications Offices at (606) 257-3838.

VISITING RADIO

The official visiting radio broadcast network should be designated in writing by the visiting team's sports information director or athletics director. Four phone lines will be made available, including two in the locker room area, at a cost of $70 per line unless a prior agreement has been arranged through Mike Dodson of Host Communications (606) 253-3230.

Those networks wishing to install additional telephone lines, either in the press box booth or locker room, can do so by contacting John Fuller of the UK Phone Services Department at (606) 257-7727.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

UK Coach Bill Curry will conduct his postgame press conference in the Wildcat Den, located under the East grandstand in the UK Football Office complex. Curry generally begins his postgame press conference approximately 15 minutes following the conclusion of the contest. The media entrance to the Wildcat Den is located in the northeast corner (nearest flagpole) of Commonwealth Stadium.

The Kentucky locker room is CLOSED to all members of the media. UK players requested for interviews are brought to the Wildcat Den following the conclusion of Curry's press conference. Interview cards are distributed in the press box during the second half of the contest in order for members of the media to request Wildcats players.

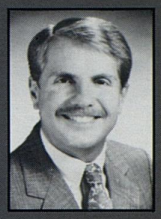

The visitors locker room is located at the northwest corner of Commonwealth Stadium. A press conference area is located just outside the visitor locker room entrance. The visiting coach and players generally conduct their respective post-game comments from that area.

PRESS SERVICES

The UK Sports Communications Office will provide a complete pregame packet (including fact sheets, flip card, and game program) approximately 30 minutes prior to kickoff. A complete running play-by-play, drive charts and team and individual statistics are made available at the conclusion of the contest. Quotes from coaches and players of both teams are also available.

A FAX service is also available. FAX request forms will be issued during the second half to media members wishing them.

WHEN TALK ARISES ABOUT SPORTS IN THE COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY, chances are the talk surrounds the University of Kentucky Wildcats.

The University of Kentucky will again package one of the most comprehensive radio and television networks among Division 1-A institutions. Both radio and television networks will blanket the Commonwealth and touch much of the nation.

Sports Communications, Inc., which owns the radio rights for UK football and basketball, expects to compile a radio network with over 90 stations. WVLK-AM/FM of Lexington will once again serve as the flagship station for the UK Football Radio Network. The feature attraction of the network is clear-channel WHAS (840 AM) of Louisville. WHAS, a 50,000-watt radio station, blankets over two-thirds of the United States and can be heard in 40 states.

The UK Football Television Network features full-game, tape-delay action of all Wildcats home football games which are not televised by a network affiliated with the CFA Package (ABC, ESPN or Jefferson-Pilot). The Network is also one of the nation's largest and serves approximately 14 markets in and around the Commonwealth. Sports Communications, Inc., administers the network with WKYT-TV of Lexington as the telecast's producer.

Talent-wise, the UK Radio and Television Networks will both take on a new look beginning this fall. Legendary play-by-play announcer Cawood Ledford stepped down from the microphone at the conclusion of the 1991-92 basketball season. And with him went 39 years of calling Wildcats football and basketball action in a way which UK faithful will always cherish.

This fall, Ralph Hacker will step to the play-by-play microphone on the UK Radio Network. Hacker is joined by newcomer Charlie McAlexander, a 14-year veteran as the Vanderbilt play-by-play announcer, Dave Baker and Rob Bromley. Mike Dodson, general manager of the UK Radio and Television Networks, enters his first year as technical engineer for all football broadcasts. Dodson replaces long-time technical director Tom Divine.

On the television side, McAlexander is set for play-by-play duty with Dick Gabriel providing color commentary. Bromley will double as sideline reporter for both radio and television networks.

RALPH HACKER

Ralph Hacker enters his first season on the UK Radio Network this fall as play-by-play announcer. Hacker slides over from color commentary duties to play-by-play, filling the void left by his long-time broadcast partner Cawood Ledford who retired after 39 years last spring.

Hacker, who is in his 21st year on the UK Radio Network, will call the play-by-play action for the UK Radio Network in all 11 Wildcats football games. The past three years, Hacker split time as color commentator on the UK Radio Network and play-by-play announcer on the UK Television Network. In 1992, Hacker will devote his exclusive attention to radio during football season.

Hacker, president and general manager of Lexington radio station WVLK AM/FM, will also handle the Bill Curry pregame and postgame shows. Last season, Hacker served as television co-host with Rob Bromley on the Bill Curry and Rick Pitino Shows.

In addition to his experience on the UK Radio and Television Networks, Hacker has ventured into network television during the past eight years. He has called football and basketball games for Jefferson-Pilot, ESPN, the NCAA, and CBS.

CHARLIE McALEXANDER

Charlie McAlexander joins the University of Kentucky broadcast teams after spending the past 14 seasons as play-by-play announcer at Vanderbilt University.

McAlexander will team with Ralph Hacker to form the new UK broadcast team following the retirement of Cawood Ledford. McAlexander will serve as color analyst for radio broadcasts of UK football games when the Wildcats play on the road or appear on television as part of the CFA package. He will move over to the television side as play-by-play announcer for all UK football games featured on the UK Television Network.

McAlexander, who handles the day-to-day operations of Cawood Ledford Productions, has won two Sportscaster of the

KENTUCKY ON THE AIR

Year awards. In 1975, McAlexander won the Mississippi Sportscaster of the Year award. McAlexander captured the 1990 Tennessee Sportscaster of the Year honors as selected by the National Sportwriters and Sportscasters Association.

DAVE BAKER

Dave Baker, a native of Franklin, Ohio, joins the UK Radio Network for color commentary on most Wildcats home games. He fills the vacancy as radio color analyst when Charlie McAlexander steps over to the television side to handle play-by-play duties on UK Television Network games.

Baker, beginning his fourth year on the UK broadcast team, became a sports reporter for WKYT-TV in 1982 following his graduation from Georgetown (Ky.) College.

Baker was named WKYT-TV weekend anchor in 1984. He played an instrumental part in the founding of WKYT's "Sports Spectrum", a 20-minute comprehensive sports show on Saturday evenings. Sports Spectrum has been named best sports program in Kentucky by the Associated Press on two occasions — 1988 and 1989.

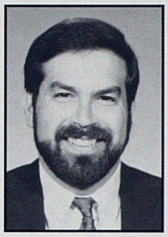

ROB BROMLEY

Rob Bromley begins his first year as a member of the UK Radio Network and his 13th season on the UK Television Network.

Bromley will serve as sideline reporter for both the UK Radio and Television Networks this fall. Bromley has served as sideline reporter for the UK Television Network the past three seasons, but is scheduled to handle the sideline duties on the radio side as well in 1992. Bromley replaces former sideline reporter Dick Gabriel, who moves into the broadcast booth as color analyst on UK Television Network games.

Bromley, sports anchor at WKYT-TV since 1980, is a graduate of Butler University in Indianapolis. He worked as a sports anchor in Lima, Ohio, prior to joining the WKYT-TV staff in 1977.

Bromley will once again serve as producer and co-host with Ralph Hacker on the 30-minute weekly television program — The Bill Curry Show — which is shown on most UK Television Network stations.

DICK GABRIEL

Dick Gabriel begins his first year as a member of the UK Television Network and his fourth year overall on the UK broadcast team.

Gabriel, a 1978 graduate of Kentucky, will serve as color analyst on all UK Television Network games this fall and joins play-by-play announcer Charlie McAlexander in the booth. During the past three seasons, Gabriel has been the sideline reporter on the UK Radio Network.

Gabriel, sports manager for WKYT-TV the past six years, came to Lexington from Dallas, Texas, where he was executive producer of Host Commuications' Southwest Conference Football Radio Network.

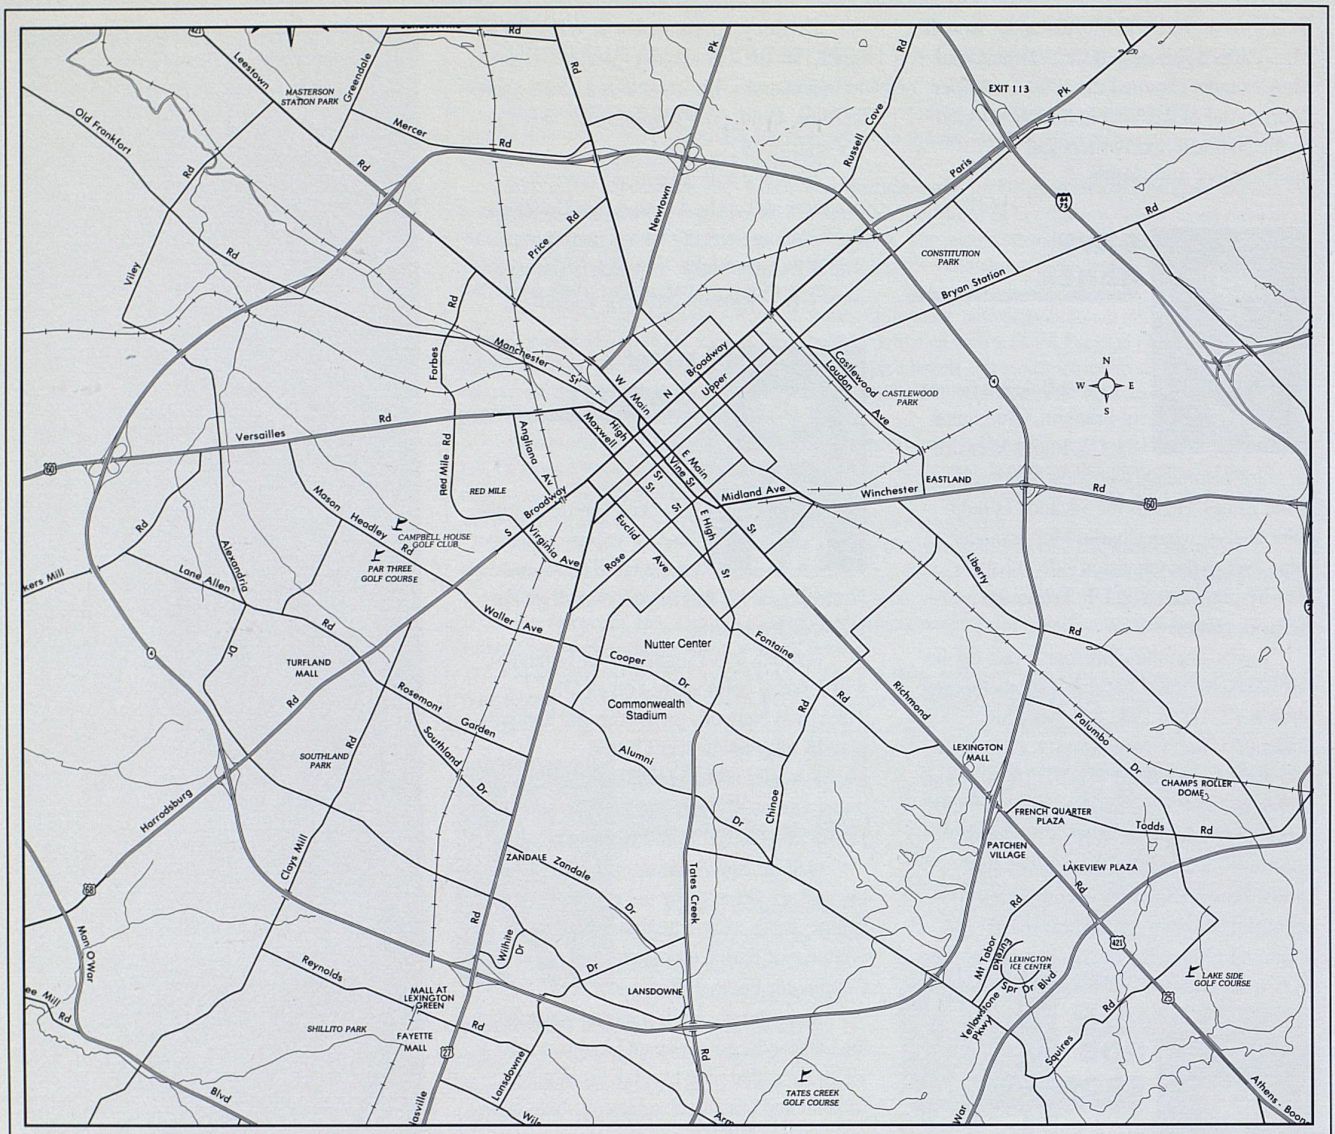

As a student at UK, Gabriel was named the Outstanding Journalism Graduate in 1978. He called play-by-play for Wildcats football and basketball games on student-radio station WBKY and served as sports editor for the Kentucky Kernel, UK's student newspaper. Following graduation, he was named as sports director for WVLK AM/FM in Lexington.

1992 OUTLOOK

KENTUCKY MIXES OLD

LOOK FOR A LITTLE OLD AND A LITTLE NEW

when the University of Kentucky Wildcats take to the football field this 1992 season.

First for the old. No fewer than 55 lettermen return this fall. Among those returnees, 17 earned starting positions a year ago.

"The program grew enormously (last season) because so many young people were forced to play,' said UK Coach Bill Curry, who begins his third season at the Wildcats helm. "Players like a Melvin Johnson, Adrian Sherwood, Don Robinson, Mark Askin and Pookie Jones, all got a taste of competition on the SEC level. Now this program has some veteran folks that are still young."

Now for the new. Curry closed a majority of practice to the media during the '92 spring drills, a first since his arrival two seasons ago. The reason was the installation of a new offense equipped with a wide-open passing game and the dangerous triple option.

"We're going to combine some things offensively which should present some problems in preparations for the opponents," Curry said. "We have the personnel to do it. Our staff just didn't think it was wise to advertise our intentions last spring. That's why we closed practice."

If Kentucky is to improve on last year's 3-8 record, it must do so facing an additional "eighth" Southeastern Conference game and non-conference foes such as Indiana, Central Michigan and improving Cincinnati.

"Yes, (the schedule) is tougher than last year," said Curry. "We've got a brutal opponent, followed by a brutal opponent, followed by another brutal opponent. We have to be better than we've been, a lot better.

KENTUCKY OFFENSE

The Wildcats offense will operate from multiple sets and feature weapons such as a wide-open passing game and triple-option. Offensive coordinator Rick Rhoades directs the UK offense, which averaged 312 yards per game last season. The Wildcats did churn for 400 total yards on four occasions in 1991 (Ole Miss, LSU, Georgia and Florida). In all, Kentucky returns nine starters and 27 lettermen to the offensive unit.

NOTING THE QUARTERBACKS

Starting quarterback Pookie Jones, a sophomore, returns along with senior backup Ryan Hockman. Jones started the last seven games in '91 beginning with his first collegiate start against Mississippi State. Hockman came off the bench in the last five games and led the Wildcats to a 20-17 victory over Cincinnati as a reliever. Redshirt freshman Antonio O'Ferral, who is expected to return from knee surgery, redshirt freshman Jeremy Niece and true freshman Jeff Speedy make up the candidates in serious contention for duties this fall.

Jones led the Wildcats in passing last fall, completing 81 of 138 for 954 yards and three touchdowns... His completion percentage of .587 ranked second on the UK list for a single season... Finished second on squad in rushing with 271 yards, trailing only fullback Terry Samuels (307)... Career-high 87 yards rushing and one touchdown to go along with 16 of 29 passing for 199 yards and another score vs. LSU... Rushed for 81 yards and scored three touchdowns against Florida... Also completed 17 of 29 passes for 216 stripes vs. Gators.

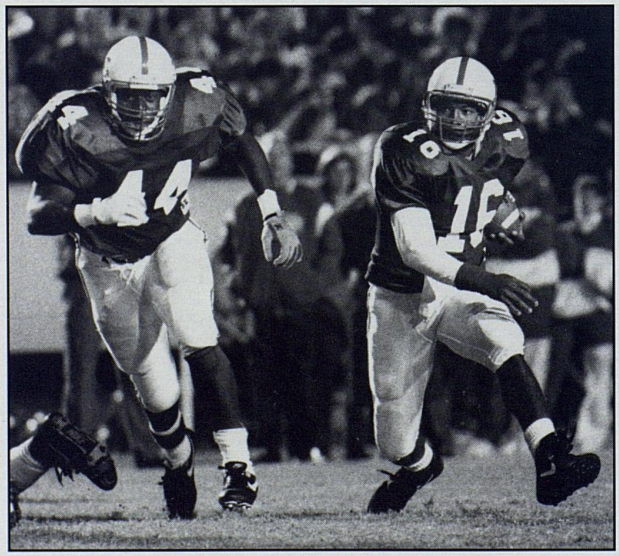

Hockman became an ace reliever in the Wildcats quarterback bullpen last year... Completed 41 of 77 passes for 496 yards (.533 pct.) and three touchdowns... Came off the bench vs. Georgia to connect on nine of 16 passes for 137 yards, including a 52-yard TD strike to Clyde Rudolph... Rallied UK from a 14-0 deficit and completed 14 of 23 passes for 166 yards and one TD vs. Cincinnati.

NOTING THE FULLBACKS

Three bonafide starters are in contention at the Wildcats fullback slot, a position which has increased in importance with the addition of the triple-option — co-starters Terry Samuels (junior) and Damon Hood (sophomore) and Craig Walker (senior).

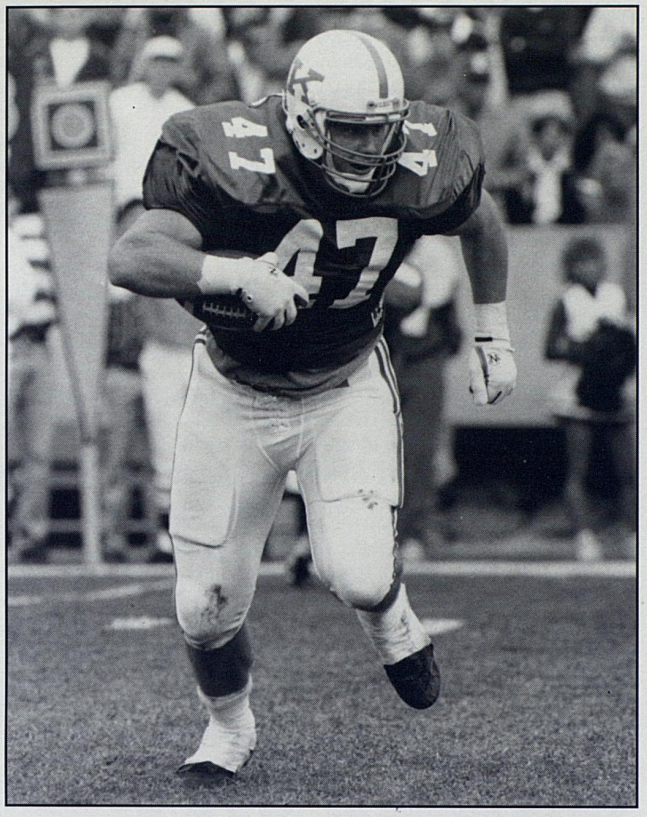

Samuels was bitten somewhat by the sophomore jinx after a stellar performance as a freshman in 1990... Samuels fought through a series of nagging injuries to still lead the Wildcats in rushing with 307 yards (4.0 avg.) on 77 carries and one touchdown... He was third on the squad in receiving with 16 receptions (105 yards), down from the 34 receptions for 223 yards as a Freshman All-SEC performer in '90.

Hood finished fourth on the squad in rushing (221 yards) and fifth in receiving (10 rec.) despite missing the final five games of the

The Wildcats offense will look to FB Terry Samuels (44) and QB Pookie Jones (16) for leadership in '92.

WITH THE NEW IN '92

Senior TE Neil Page caught nine passes last season as a starter.

'91 campaign with an ankle injury... Moved from tailback to fullback in the spring... Earned starting assignment in his first collegiate game as a true freshman, the first Wildcats true freshman to accomplish that feat since the early 1970s...Career-high 87 yards rushing on 14 carries and one TD vs. LSU.

Walker split time at fullback and tailback last season... Nicknamed "Mr. Dependable" as he was voted squad's Most Outstanding Back in 1991... Third on squad in rushing with 235 yards and a team-high six rushing TDs... Is Wildcats' third back when UK goes to full-house set.

NOTING THE TAILBACKS

Four lettermen return at tailback including a trio of sophomores in Carlos Collins (co-starter), Donnie Redd (co-starter), and Clyde Rudolph and junior Matt Riazzi. Redshirt freshman Dan Hicks and former rover Bill Campbell make up the list of candidates in serious contention to carry the pigskin in '92.

Collins rushed for 143 yards on 39 carries as a true freshman last fall... In addition, he caught seven passes... Career-high 66 yards rushing on nine carries vs. Kent State... Voted by UK Coaching Staff as Most Improved Offensive Back during the '92 spring drills.

Redd showed no effects of a quadriceps strain during the spring which sidelined him for nine games last year... His injury occurred on a courageous 13-yard TD run vs. Indiana when his quadriceps muscle snapped as he approached the end zone, forcing him to run-over a Hossier defender at the goal-line to give UK a 7-0 lead in the fourth quarter... Also had a 30-yard pass reception vs. Indiana.

Rudolph, also a sprinter on the UK track team, gives the Wildcats a threat to go the distance each time he touches the football... Saw limited duty in eight games last season, but gained 90 yards on 28 carries... Caught 11 passes for 161 yards (14.6 avg.)... Career-high four receptions for 92 yards vs. Georgia, including TD receptions of 52 and 21 yards.

NOTING THE RECEIVERS

This contingent of Wildcats receivers was tagged with the nickname of "Mighty Mites" last year for their average aggregate size of 5-8, 154 pounds. All receivers return in 1992 with one exception, split end Neal Clark who established the UK single-season record with 47 receptions for 647 yards last year before graduating. At flanker, senior starter Kurt Johnson (5-7, 145) heads the group and is joined by junior Scott Gilley (5-10, 188) and redshirt freshman Leon Smith (5-10, 181). Four juniors, led by co-starters Mark Chatmon (5-8, 158) and Tim Calvert (5-9, 165), make up the split end corps along with Troy Hobbs (5-9, 133) and Brian Evans (6-0, 181).

Johnson led the Wildcats in all-purpose yardage (88.4 ypg) last fall and is considered one of the SEC's best all-purpose performers... Was second on squad in receiving (28-385), and led UK in kickoff returns (21-406) and punt returns (17-129)... Caught career-high five passes vs. Indiana (54 yards) and Ole Miss (88 yards) in 1991.

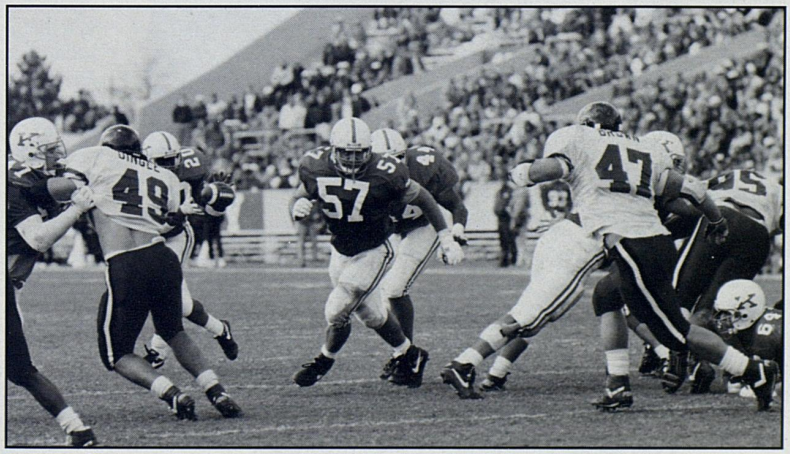

Gilley saw increasingly more playing time as '91 season wore on... Had one reception for 13 yards, that coming against Mississippi State... Made a sensational diving catch on 49-yard TD toss from Ryan Hockman in '92 Blue-White Spring game.

Smith would have played as a true freshman, but a quadriceps ailment forced him to redshirt... Played on high school squad (Trinity) which posted a 42-0 record and three state championships during prep career.

Chatmon was named Most Improved Receiver during '92 spring drills... Credited with four pass receptions for 66 yards and one touchdown last fall... Caught a 22-yard TD strike from QB Brad Smith against Miami (Ohio).

Calvert gives UK a possession-type receiver... Caught at least one pass in six of last seven games in '91, including season total of nine for 145 yards (16.1 avg)... Biggest catch was a 10-yard reception with one second left against Cincinnati which set up Doug Pelfrey's game-winning 53-yard field goal.

Hobbs also caught nine passes last year for 122 yards... Perhaps the lightest player in the SEC at 133 pounds... Evans missed most of the '91 campaign coming back from a knee injury.

Offensive guard Jody Matthews (57) is one of the nation's strongest players with a bench press of 560 pounds.

KENTUCKY MIXES OLD

NOTING THE TIGHT ENDS

After losing five tight ends to graduation before the 1991 season, Coach Bill Curry has the luxury of returning three lettermen in '92. Senior starter Neil Page and a pair of sophomores, Corey Reeves and Omri Meek, make up the Wildcats tight ends.

Page started nine games last fall... Caught nine passes for 84 yards... Had season-high three receptions for 29 yards against Indiana... Outstanding blocker.

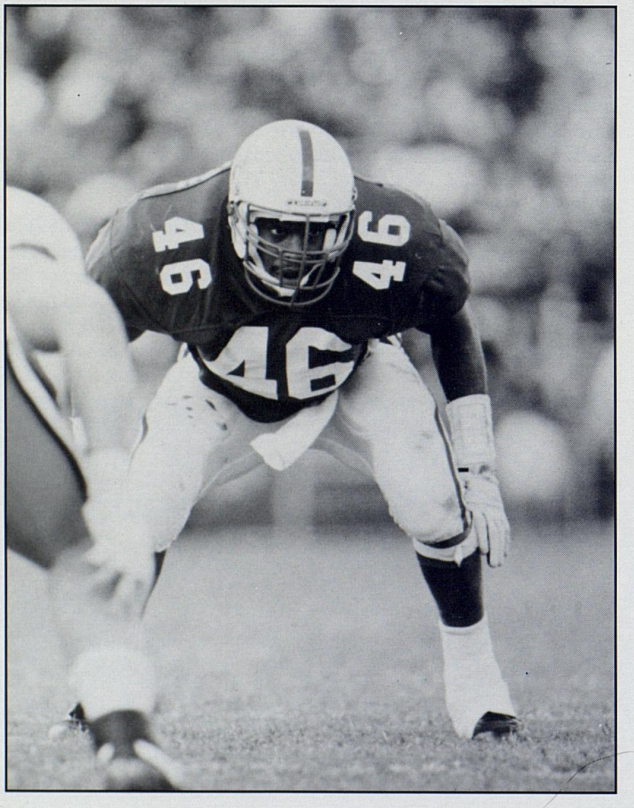

Reeves appeared in all 11 games as a true freshman in '91, including one start against Georgia... Used in most UK two-tight end sets... Good blocker... Did not catch a pass last season.

Meek, who switched from strike to tight end in '91, caught three passes for 36 yards last fall... One start, that coming against LSU... Career-high two pass receptions for 26 stripes vs. Georgia.

NOTING THE OFFENSIVE LINE

The Kentucky offensive line improved steadily during the 1991 season, helping the Wildcats post 400 yards of total offense against four SEC opponents, including champion Florida. UK returns four of five starters to its front wall unit, losing only four-year letterman Greg Lahr at tackle. Returning starters include preseason All-SEC Todd Perry at left guard, LT Chuck Bradley, C Matt Branum and RG Jody Matthews.

At left tackle, Bradley (6-5, 305) began to perform on an All-SEC level midway through the '91 season... He started 11 games at right tackle in 1990, then switched to left tackle for 11 starts in '91... Backups include senior T.J. Maynard (6-4, 272) and redshirt freshman Barry Jones (6-5, 282).

Senior LB Reggie Smith hopes to turn it up a notch after posting 104 tackles last year.

Perry (6-5, 292) has started 25 games at left guard for the Wildcats... Bench presses 400 pounds... Timed at 4.97 seconds in 40... Three-time Academic All-SEC Honor Roll selection... Named UK's Most Outstanding Offensive Lineman last fall... Backups include junior David Parks (6-2, 262) and redshirt freshman Andy Britt (6-4, 258).

Branum (6-2, 275) owns 19 career starts as center for the Wildcats... Has been steady force in the middle at a position closely scrutinized by UK Coach Bill Curry, a former All-Pro center... Backups include sophomore Shane King (6-5, 305), Dude Harper (6-0, 244) and Scott Crosley (6-4, 250).

Matthews (6-0, 270) is considered one of the strongest players in the country... Started the last six games at right guard in '91... Bench presses 560 pounds, cleans 400, and squats 675... Timed in 40 at 4.70 seconds... Backups include juniors Wesley Jackson (6-3, 281) and Barry Rich (6-1, 265).

Sophomore Mark Askin (6-5, 295) was a part-time starter last season as is listed No. 1 at right tackle entering '92 season... Freshman All-SEC team... Started first five games at right guard, then moved to right tackle with improvement of Matthews and Jackson, along with depth need at tackle... Earned Offensive Leadership Award for efforts during '92 spring... Backup is redshirt freshman Chris Page (6-7, 310).

KENTUCKY DEFENSE

Kentucky features a multiple defensive scheme with a basic alignment of 4-4-3. The multiplicity of the defense means UK could show as many as 20-25 different fronts in one half. Coordinator Larry New heads up the Wildcats defense. In the Bill Curry era, Kentucky is 5-1 when holding opponents to 350 yards-or-less in a game. The Wildcats return eight starters and 25 lettermen to their defensive unit.

NOTING THE STRIKES AND ENDS

The Kentucky strikes and ends are a combination of outside linebackers and defensive ends. The strikes and ends primarily line up as "bookends" on UK's defensive front wall, either standing up or in a three-point stance. Senior Dean Wells and junior Zane Beehn head up the list of returnees as the Wildcats lost two-year starter Derrick Thomas (DE) to graduation.

Wells, a Black Watch member, enters the '92 season listed as the No. 1 strike (strongside)... He missed spring drills due to a shoulder injury but is expected at 100 percent this fall... Started eight games last fall, including three at tackle when Jerry Bell underwent knee surgery... Credited with 43 tackles, four QB sacks and two TFLs... Team-high 14 quarterback pressures... His backups include redshirt freshman Donte' Key (6-3, 222) and sophomore Shane Ball (6-2, 217).

Beehn moves from strike to starter at defensive end this fall, as the Wildcats attempt to get best 11 players on the field... Has five career starts under his belt... Made 46 tackles, three QB sacks, and six TFLs while splitting time with Wells at strike last fall... His backups include redshirt freshman Mike Schlegel (6-4, 240) and junior Sean Smith (6-0, 231).

NOTING THE NOSE GUARDS & TACKLES

These two positions, the nose guard and tackle, are the only true down lineman spots among the UK defensive front. The Wildcats lost the bulk of their defensive front to graduation in four-year lettermen Joey Couch and Jerry Bell. Returnees Damon Betz and Robert Stinson, in addition to junior college transfers Billy Lofton, Jim Brown and Howard Carter, should help fill the voids left by Couch and Bell.

Betz (6-4, 275), a sophomore, steadily improved as he gained experience last year... Enters '92 as No. 1 nose guard... Freshman All-SEC honors after posting 24 tackles, one TFL, and one QB sack... His backups include sophomores Roger Sullivan (6-3, 250) and John Merkle (6-3, 253).

Stinson (6-4, 267) came out of nowhere to start two games at tackle last season... Enters '92 as No. 1 tackle... Credited with 16 stops and two TFLs a year ago... Backup is sophomore Aaron Purdie (6-4, 260).

NOTING MIKE AND WILL LINEBACKERS

The entire inside linebacking unit returns from 1991, including returning starters in junior Marty Moore and senior Reggie Smith.

Moore, a Black Watch member, is back at No. 1 mike linebacker... He led the SEC with a school-record 183 tackles in '91... Ranked third nationally in total tackles (183) and tackles-per-game (16.6)... Posted over 20 tackles on three occasions, including career-highs of 21 in back-to-back contests vs. Vanderbilt and Florida... His backups include sophomore James "Stink-Rat" Simpson, who made nine tackles and one QB sack in '91, and redshirt freshman Matt Neuss.

Smith started all 11 games last season at will linebacker... Second on squad behind Moore in tackles with 104... Double-digit tackles on five occasions — Miami (10), Mississippi State (10), LSU (15), Cincinnati (10) and Vanderbilt (14)... His backups include junior Ken Johnson and redshirt freshman Jeff Cipp... Johnson had 10 tackles and one forced fumble, that resulting in a 54-yard fumble recovery for a TD by UK's Adrian Sherwood against Cincinnati.

NOTING THE BANDITS AND ROVERS

The bandit and rover positions in Kentucky's defensive schemes are what football experts would generally call "strong safeties". In most situations, the bandit lines up on the strong side and the rover goes to the weak side.

Both starters are back from 1991 — bandit Duce Williams and rover Sterling Ward. A pair of promising redshirt freshmen (David Snardon and James Tucker), junior Salim Shahid and senior Travis Powers are the most serious candidates for playing time at either spots.

Williams, a junior, started all 11 games at bandit last season... Tied for fifth on squad in tackles with 63, including one QB sack and two TFLs... Missed spring drills with shoulder injury, but is expected to be at 100 percent this fall... His backups are Snardon and walk-on Mike Thomas. Snardon was named Most Improved Linebacker following the '92 spring... Would have played last season as a true freshman, but asked to be redshirted.

Ward, a senior, moved from starting corner to rover during the early portion of the '91 campaign... Ward, a member of the Black Watch, started five of the last six games a year ago and finished with 44 tackles... Earned the Defensive Big Hitter award for his efforts during '92 spring... His backups include Tucker, Shahid, and Powers.... Tucker switched from split end to rover in the spring... Coaches like his aggressive style of play... Shahid started three games at rover in '91 and made 25 tackles and one QB sack... Powers picked up his first varsity letter last season, but most of his playing time came as a holder on field goals and PATs.

NOTING THE DEFENSIVE BACKS

The Kentucky defensive backfield is composed of the hit (strongside corner), free safety and corner. In 1992, the Wildcats return the entire starting unit from the last half of the '91 campaign — junior Don Robinson, senior Brad Armstead and junior Adrian Sherwood.

Sherwood begins the '92 season listed at No. 1 hit... Was moved from corner to hit during spring to take advantage of his man-to-man coverage skills... Started six games at corner last fall and was credited with 42 tackles and two interceptions... Returned a fumble 54 yards for touchdown in UK's 20-17 victory over Cincinnati... Walk-on junior Willie Cannon and redshirt freshman Jabbar Pipkin are listed behind Sherwood at hit... Cannon earned his first varsity letter after making 11 tackles in '91... Credited with two big plays against Florida which led to 14 UK points by recovering a fumble and blocking a Gator punt.

Armstead, a Black Watch member, is a preseason All-SEC candidate as a free safety... Was voted by the league's sports information directors as the second-best safety in the SEC, behind only Will White of Florida... Fourth on squad with 72 tackles last year... Led team in interceptions with four, all coming against SEC opponents... His backup is sophomore Melvin Johnson, a Freshman All-SEC selection last year... Johnson made 38 tackles and led team with 10 tackles on special teams in '91.

Robinson started 10 games last fall, mostly at hit... Moved to corner during spring to take advantage of his ability to play the run... Credited with 63 tackles last fall and two interceptions... Named SEC Defensive Player of the Week last season after recording 11 tackles and two interceptions (70 yards) against Florida... Sophomore Steven Hall and redshirt freshman D'Andre' Jenkins serve as backups... Hall lettered as a true freshman a year ago and was credited with nine stops... Got first collegiate start vs. Georgia and responded with five tackles.

KENTUCKY KICKING GAME

Senior Doug Pelfrey returns again to handle all placement duties for the Wildcats. The biggest hole to fill will be replacing three-year punter Bill Hawk who has graduated.

Pelfrey is one of the nation's best long-distance kickers... Good on 10 of 14 field goals (.710 pct.) last season, including four of 50 yards-or-more... Established school record with 53-yard field goals vs. Indiana and Cincinnati... Owns UK career record for most successful field goals 50 yards-or-more (five)... Has kicked two game-winning field goals — 32-yarder vs. Georgia with seven seconds left in 26-24 win (1990); and 53-yarder vs. Cincinnati as time expired in 20-17 win last year.

Senior walk-on Jason Todd has the edge on the No. 1 punting spot coming out of the spring... No punter in the UK camp has attempted a punt on the collegiate level... Todd did serve as field goal/PAT holder vs. Miami (Ohio) last season... Signee Nicky Nickels and walk-ons Brian Scott, Dan Thompson and Dan Ariza will also challenge.

HOCKMAN NAMED MVP IN'92 BLUE-WHITE GAME

Senior quarterback Ryan Hockman was named Most Valuable Player of the 1992 Blue-White Spring Football Game after leading the Blue team to a 20-10 victory before a crowd of 5,400 at Commonwealth Stadium.

Hockman, a senior from Harrison, Ohio, completed 13 of 17 passes for 182 yards and two touchdowns. Hockman connected on TD passes to TB Donnie Redd (15 yards) and FL Scott Gilley (49 yards).

The Blue team also picked up a pair of field goals, including a 28-yarder by Don Rubin and a 33-yarder by Brent Claiborne.

The White team scoring came in the form of a 28-yard field goal by Doug Pelfrey and a four-yard run from FB Craig Walker.

1992 outlook

UK Football Column Notes

•••When FL Troy Hobbs of Miami, Fla. (Southridge) was awarded a scholarship by UK Coach Bill Curry on Oct. 19, 1991, it marked the 9th former walk-on Curry has awarded a grant-in-aid since his arrival to the Lexington campus in January of 1990.... Last August, Curry placed five former walk-ons on scholarship — SE Mark Chatmon, HIT Willie Cannon, FB Dale See, FL Tim Calvert, and TB Matt Riazzi.... In 1990, Curry awarded SE Neal Clark, PK Doug Pelfrey, and TE Pat Porter with scholarships.... Of those nine walk-ons, four have worked their way into starting roles — Clark, Pelfrey, Chatmon (co-starter) and Calvert (co-starter).

•••Kentucky defenders blocked four kicks during the 1991 season — Willie Cannon (blocked punt vs. Florida); Steven Hall (blocked FG vs. Mississippi State); Joey Couch (blocked PAT vs. Kent) and Dean Wells (blocked punt vs. Kent).... In the last 36 games, UK defenders have blocked or tipped 18 kicks.... During his career, Wells has blocked 4 kicks.

ABOUT THE BLACK WATCH

Coach Bill Curry first introduced the idea of the "Black Watch" unit while at Georgia Tech in 1985.

The Black Watch is an elite unit which presently defends Edinburgh Castle in Scotland. Curry encountered the Black Watch by coincidence on vacation with his family in England and Scotland.

"I was so impressed by the precision and the discipline of the Black Watch that I came back and suggested to our staff we use the name for our elite defensive unit," Curry said. "It worked very well with the players. We developed a kind of pride in our defensive unit which was an added dimension to our team. We went on to have an outstanding season and the rest of it is history. We're seeking to do the same thing here at Kentucky."

Curry's Yellow Jacket squad finished 9-2-1 and defeated Michigan State in the All-American Bowl in '85, the season the Black Watch was installed.

Curry and his staff introduced the Black Watch to Kentucky in July, 1990. It is under the supervision of defensive coordinator Larry New. All-Southeastern Conference linebacker Randy Holleran was the first player chosen to the Black Watch at UK. Nose guard Joey Couch was added in mid-September (1990). With the graduation of Holleran, strike Dean Wells was voted in at the conclusion of the '91 spring drills. Free safety Brad Armstead was admitted to the Black Watch during the middle of the '91 season. Once again, graduation claimed a member (Joey Couch), but LB Marty Moore and ROV Sterling Ward were added at the end of the '92 spring drills. The total number of Black Watch members entering the '92 season is four – Wells, Armstead, Moore and Ward – the most Black Watch members at one time since Curry initiated the group back in the summer of '90.

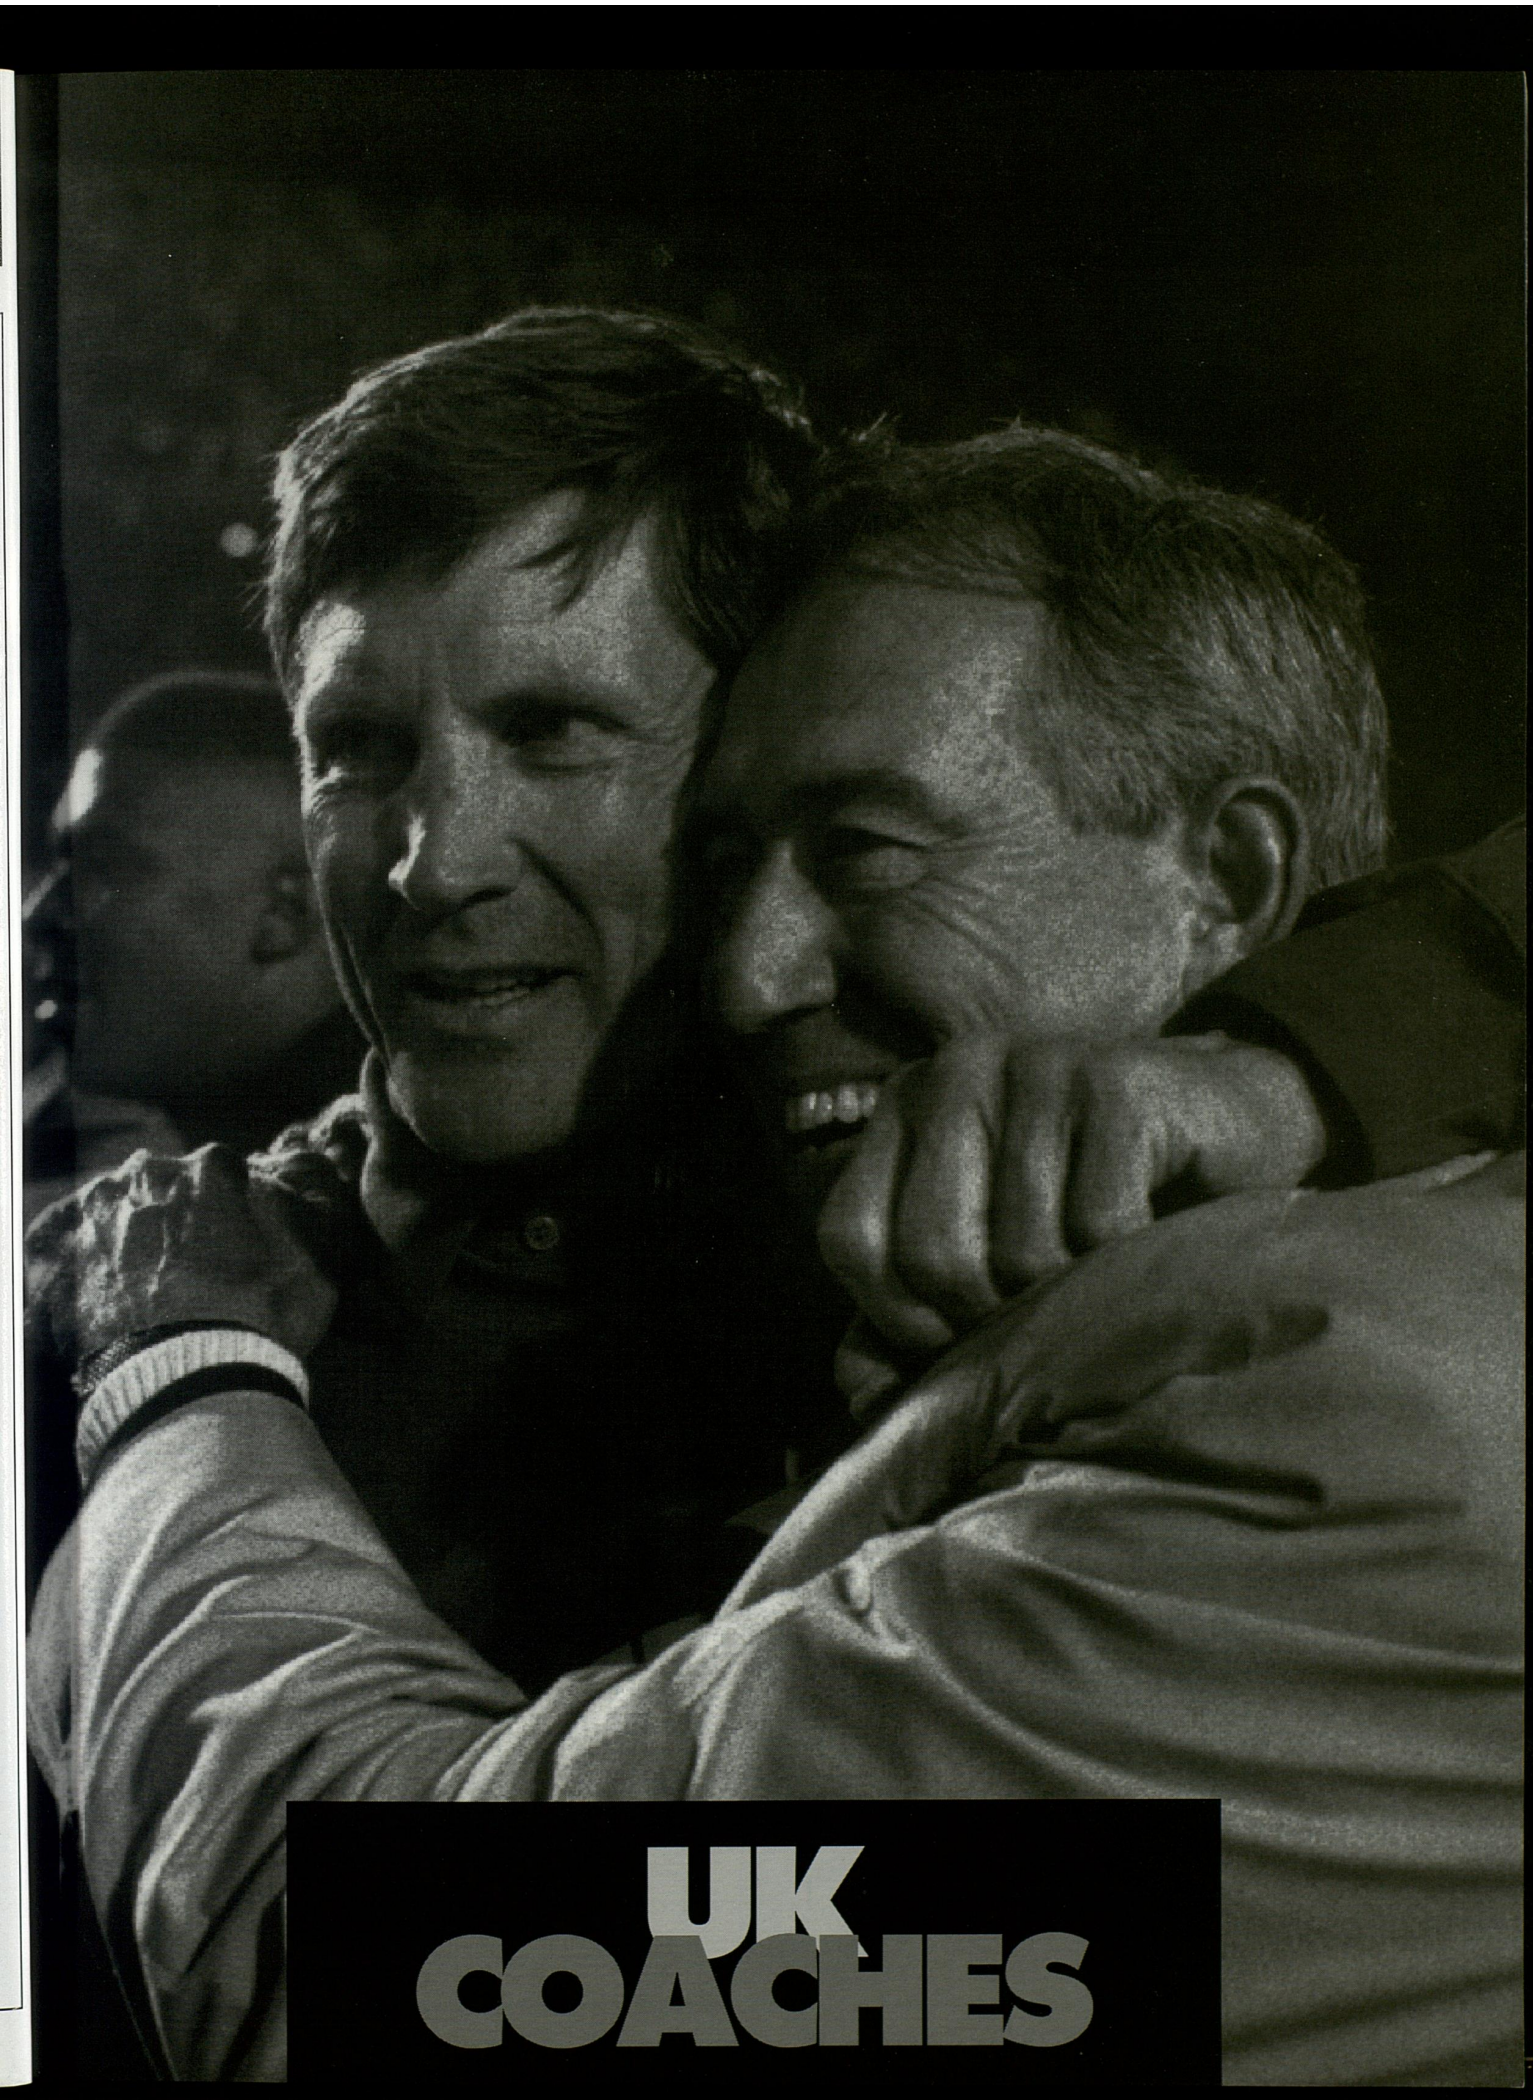

"Members of this elite unit can only be selected by its own membership," Curry said. "Coach New, along with the present members will select the next members."

"Black Watch" members are recognized by their unique helmet features. The members wear black face masks and have thin, black striping around the helmet's blue "K" and single stripe.

The origination of the Black Watch began in Scotland during the early 1700s as bands of outlaws and cattle raiders infested the Highland border country. Fueds developed among the Highland chiefs, thus these leaders began advocating the stealing of cattle or levying of black-mail against their neighboring rivals then turning around and blaming the crimes on "broken men and common criminals".

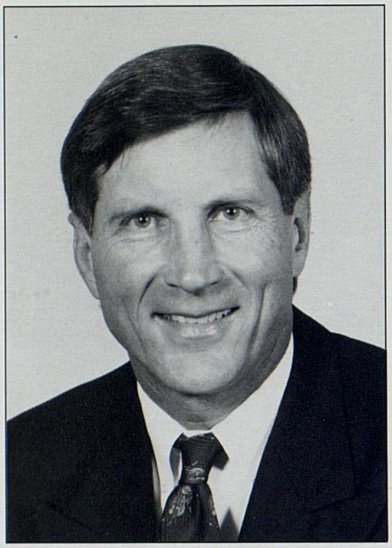

Black-mail had become an out-of-control old Border and Highland custom. Mails were the rents paid on Scottish estates, and black-mail was the payment of law-abiding men to raiders or "freebooters" in return for a promise their stock would not be lifted or their estates burned.

Such lawlessness usually went unchecked by the Highland chiefs and unpunished by the Scottish government generally because there was no army large enough to police the mountain regions. In 1725, a few of the chiefs in the central and southwestern Highlands were given commissions to raise six companies of a "Watch", a police force for the supression of cattle-stealing. These eager young men, from the Jacobite and Whig clans, took service in the "Am Freiceadan Dubh" or the Black Watch. The group took its name from both the putting down of the black-mail levied against the Highlanders and from the somber black, navy and dark green colors of its tartan uniforms.

UK COACHES

Head Coach - Bill Curry

Head Coach (Georgia Tech, 1965)

One consistent detail has followed Bill Curry in these collegiate coaching ranks. Beginning with Georgia Tech, moving to Alabama, and now at Kentucky, the theme has remained the same — program builder.

To some, those two words mean only a set number of victories on various Saturday afternoons sprinkled throughout the fall. To Bill Curry, "program building" goes much deeper. It goes into the inner souls of young people and touches their every angle.

"I'd like to say that I'm a person that really lives to serve young people," said Curry, a 1965 graduate of Georgia Tech. "It is my wish to have every single one of them be the best they can be in every aspect of their lives, and that certainly includes a championship football program."

"When we're successful with that, then we build a program which would not require my presence or any one person's presence. It would just be understood that we are into championships and championship people."

Case in point, his alma mater Georgia Tech. Curry took over the reigns of the Yellow Jacket program in 1980 as a first-year collegiate head coach. The building process began. During the 1985 season, Georgia Tech posted a 9-2-1 record which included a 17-14 victory over Michigan State in the All-American Bowl. It marked the Yellow Jackets first bowl appearance since 1978 and only their second bowl game in 14 years. The nine victories were the most for a Tech squad in 15 seasons.

The building process began once more. This time, Curry inherited the position of head football coach at tradition-rich Alabama. Though the Crimson Tide had captured a league-high 18 Southeastern Conference championships, Alabama had come up empty since Paul "Bear" Bryant's last SEC and national title in 1979. It took Curry three years to work his magic. His 1989 Crimson Tide squad, which ended the regular season 10-1 and earned a berth in the USF&G Sugar Bowl, entered the season's last weekend in the midst of a national title chase. Along the way, Curry delivered Alabama its first SEC crown in 10 years.

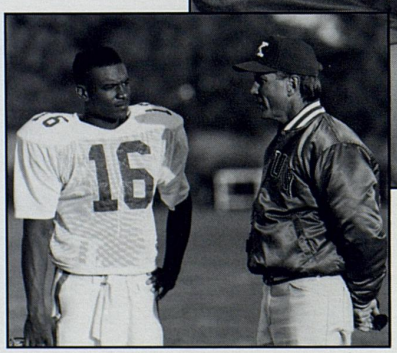

"It is just piece by piece and it's painful," said Curry, who turns 50 on Oct. 21. "It's painstaking and sometimes it is embarrassing to fall on your face. But you just get up everytime and you keep going until it's done. Once it is done, then the program will serve alot of young people for a long, long time. It's worth doing."

A quick glance back as to how the Georgia Tech and Alabama programs are doing after the building process is worth mentioning. The Yellow Jackets captured the 1990 United Press International National Championship. In 1991, Alabama went 10-1 and earned a berth in the Blockbuster Bowl.

"Each person is unique, so everybody has got a gift," said Curry. "An education or an experience like this should allow each person to find his or her gift, develop it and then give it. Now, a football program or a football team is a good model for that. I mean if you're a blocker, then man, you must block every play, every time. You must protect your quarterback or your ball carrier every snap. If you're a tackler, you must tackle every play. That's a principle which should run through every part of your life."

"Then, you hopefully learn that it goes to the classroom with you or into your spiritual life. And when you are around a large group of people that learn to think that way, the stuff is contagious. And that is what a program is. That's what we're building here at Kentucky."

Just minutes before Curry was named the University of Kentucky's 32nd head football coach on Jan. 8, 1990, he told his first Wildcats squad about the intricacies of a building a program.

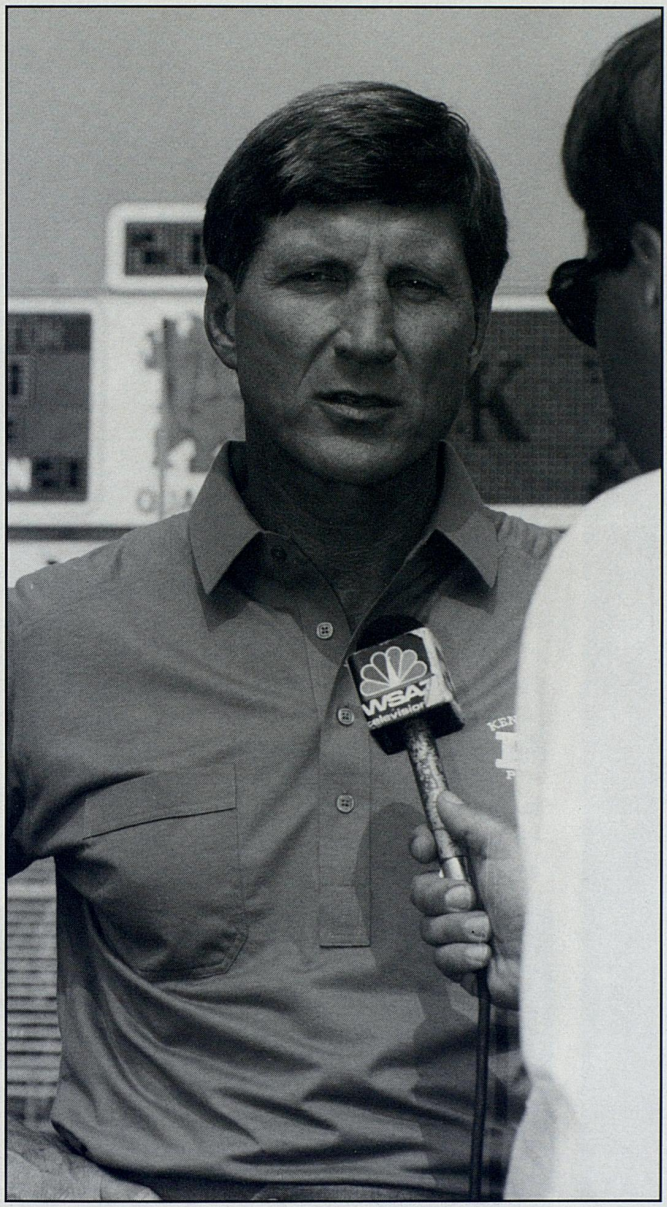

"I told our squad I'm interested in championship performance, championship people, championship academics, and championship football," Curry said. "I'm not interested in anything less than that. That's what we are about. A championship performance in everything."

Curry's football pedigree weighs heavily in his expectations of championship peformance. After all, he did play and work under three of the most successful coaches the game of football has ever known — Bobby Dodd, Vince Lombardi, and Don Shula.

Curry lettered three years (1962-64) as a collegian at Georgia Tech under Dodd and served as team captain his senior campaign. Dodd compiled an impressive 22-year record of 165-64-8, including Southeastern Conference titles in 1951 and 1952, at Georgia Tech.

After earning his bachelor's degree in industrial management from Georgia Tech in 1965, Curry began his professional career under Lombardi with the Green Bay Packers. He played on two Packer teams which won National Football League titles (1965-66), including the first Super Bowl on Jan. 15, 1967. The legendary Lombardi guided Green Bay to five NFL championships in seven years during the 1960s.

And following the 1967 season, Curry was traded to the Baltimore Colts and eventually became All-Pro in 1971 and 1972. His mentor for three seasons at Baltimore was Don Shula, who today is the winningest active coach in the NFL and has appeared in more Super Bowls (6) than any other coach.

Curry is one of the most accessible coaches in the country when dealing with the media. Once the season begins, the media has a minimum of four interview opportunities with Curry each week.

Those credentials alone have made Curry into the type of coach that really understands what demands must be met in order to succeed in building a complete football program.

Indeed, those qualities opened the eyes of UK Athletics Director C.M. Newton when his search began to replace Jerry Claiborne, who stepped down after eight seasons with the Wildcats at the conclusion of the 1989 season. But Newton took an interest in another side of Curry. The side which Newton said reflected these three words — dignity, class and integrity.

"William A. (Bill) Curry is recognized by many to be at the very top of his profession," said Newton, during his introduction of Curry to the media. "He has been credited for the dignity, class and integrity with which he conducts his football programs, both on and off the playing field."

Curry has that rare mix of both worlds.

"We intend to be champions here at the University of Kentucky on the football field," Curry said. "We've been champions here at UK in the classroom and will continue to do so. And we will do it with dignity, and do it the right way."

Curry came to Kentucky from the University of Alabama. His overall record of 26-10 at Alabama was the Crimson Tide's most successful three-year total since Paul "Bear" Bryant compiled a 27-8-3 record his final three campaigns (1980-82). During the building process, Curry marched Alabama to three consecutive bowls — 1987 Hall of Fame, 1988 Sun and 1990 USF&G Sugar. The building process culminated with the share of the SEC crown in 1989.

The building plans reached Kentucky after his three-year stint at Tuscaloosa. His 1990 Wildcats squad finished at 4-7, but gained respectability in the SEC with a 3-4 record. The fifth place finish was the best at Kentucky since 1984. Injuries and youth caused the Wildcats to slip in 1991, finishing 3-8 overall and winless in the league.

In all, Curry owns a 64-68-4 record in 12 seasons as a collegiate head coach with almost all work coming amid the building process.

Academically, Curry's Wildcats continue to set the pace among league schools. Kentucky led the SEC in both 1990 and 1991 in Academic All-SEC Honor Roll selections, a feat which the Wildcats have done in seven of the last eight years.

Curry, a native of College Park, Ga., signed a scholarship with the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets after a fine prep career at College Park High School. At Georgia Tech, Curry helped lead the Yellow Jackets to a 21-9-1 record and a Bluebonnet Bowl berth during his final three seasons. He shared team captain honors with Johnny Gresham during the 1964 campaign.

His professional football career began at Green Bay in 1965. Before his professional career was over 10 seasons later, Curry played at Green Bay (1965-66), Baltimore (1967-72), Houston (1973) and with the Los Angeles Rams (1974). Curry was a member of three Super Bowl teams, one National Football League Championship team and was selected to the 1971 and 1972 Pro Bowls. A knee injury forced him to retire in 1975.

A year later, Curry was back at his alma mater as an assistant coach under Pepper Rodgers. Then in 1977, Curry returned to the pro ranks as an offensive line coach with the Green Bay Packers under former teammate, Bart Starr.

Curry began his initial building process when he answered Georgia Tech's call once again in 1980, this time as head football coach. The task was not simple. The Yellow Jackets were coming off a 4-6-1 record under Rodgers. It did not get easier, especially with an '80 schedule loaded with Alabama, Florida, North Carolina, Tennessee, Auburn, Notre Dame and Georgia. The '81 slate was a mirror-image.

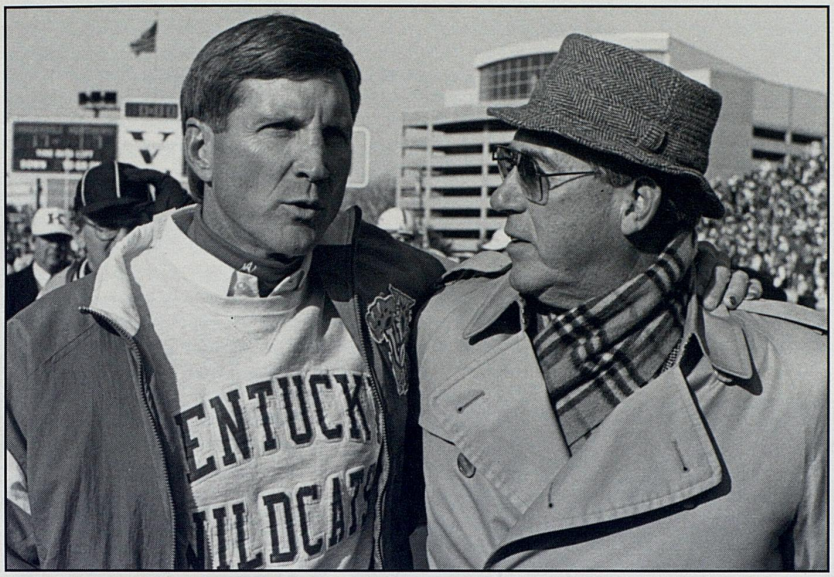

Understandably, Curry and Tech turned in 1-9-1 and 1-10 records those first two seasons. But things begin to change in 1982. During his final five years at Tech, Curry produced a 29-24-3 ledger which included a sparkling season in 1985. The successful '85 campaign earned Tech its All-American Bowl bid and subsequent victory over Michigan State. From there, Curry moved to Alabama to work for then-athletics director Steve Sloan.

Curry holds the unique distinction of being named Coach of the Year in two different conferences. He was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year in 1985 by the Associated Press and ACC Sportswriters while at Georgia Tech. At Curry and UK Athletics Director C.M. Newton (above) are committed to the "building process" at Kentucky.

Alabama, Curry was named the 1987 Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year by United Press International, and the 1989 SEC Coach of the Year by A.P. and the NASHVILLE BANNER.

A special honor came Curry's way following the 1989 season as well. Curry was named the '89 Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year, in honor of his former collegiate mentor. The award stands for a more noble aspect of college coaching.

"Nothing could mean as much to me as this award," Curry said. "Coach Dodd had such a tremendous influence on my life." Curry is not comfortable in recognizing individuals in a team game. He points to the motto his first Kentucky Wildcats squad followed: "Together We Win!".

"There is really no such thing as a coach of the year," Curry says. "There is a such thing as a staff of the year. Our American system tends to recognize individuals for what teams really accomplish and to be recognized that way in 1985, 1987 and 1989 in two different conferences, with different faces on our staff and with different teams, must really mean the family idea must work."

"A large part of what we're trying to promote in our young people of America is the importance to recapture the family emphasis. A good team or a good staff is nothing but a good family."

It is that type of family that has also shaped Curry into the coach and into the man he is. That credit belongs to his parents -Mr. and Mrs. Bill Curry, Sr.

"The older I get, the more I understand how much my dad shaped me coaching-wise, and both my mom and dad as a human being," Curry said. "And also my high school coach, Bill Badgett. He truly was the toughest, most demanding of all the coaches that I have played for."

Curry has served as past president (1973-75) of the NFL Players' Association and on the American Football Coaches Rules Committee for two terms. Presently, Curry is a member of the NFL Former Players Advisory Committee and is serving his second term on the AFCA Ethics Committee. Last February, Curry was inducted into the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame.

Curry is married to the former Carolyn Newton of College Park, Ga. Carolyn has a Ph.D. in history and has taught in the history department at UK. They have two children — Kristin, 25, a 1989 graduate of the University of Virginia, and Billy, 21, who is a fourth-year offensive guard/long snapper on the University of Virginia football team.

And thus, the building process continues.

Questions & Answers with Bill Curry

Question: What are your thoughts about the upcoming 1992 schedule? On paper, is the 1992 schedule tougher than the 1991 schedule?

Curry: "Yes, it is tougher than last year. We've gone from six Southeastern Conference games to eight in a matter of three years time. That is obviously a huge increase. The eight SEC games reduce the flexibility a team has in adjusting its schedule. There is almost no room for us to make schedule adjustments to try and help ourselves with our record. When you thrown in Indiana and Cincinnati, you've got two close-by, fierce rivalries and leaves us a grand total of one game to more-or-less play with. Kentucky has traditionally been locked into the Mid-American Conference for that game and those people are also tough as nails on everybody, just ask Michigan State and others. Therefore, we have 11 very tough football games. Now let me quickly add, this is one place we apply our policy and maybe the most important place — "when things are out of our control, we never complain about them". The Southeastern Conference made that decision (on the eight-game league schedule) and the contracts have long since been signed with these other schools. They are on the schedule, we're going to play them and we're going to expect to win. It's foolishness to look at the schedule and act like it is not very demanding. General Bob Neyland at Tennessee had the theory in that the most important thing in football was scheduling when it came to winning. He felt you could not expect a team to get ready two consecutive weeks to play a real tough opponent, so he and others of that era were able to adjust their schedule where they had a brutal opponent and a not-so-hard opponent on alternating weeks. We've got a brutal opponent, followed by a brutal opponent, followed by another brutal opponent. So we've just got to be better than we've been, a lot better."

Question: What is the one thing that the addition of Arkansas and South Carolina does for the Southeastern Conference?

Curry: "One of the main things the addition of Arkansas and South Carolina does for the SEC, among many things, is they give us the flexibility to have a championship game because you must have 12 teams in your league to be able to do it. This allows the SEC to be innovators. We're the first league to do this. I sincerely believe it will be the biggest college football game of the year, with the possible exception if one of the four major bowls ends up with a national championship game or something. It gives us a great deal of excitement about the SEC. It also gives people like Kentucky a much better opportunity to get into the hunt. In other words, we don't have to have a better record than 11 other teams. We have to have a better record than five of those other 11 to get into the championship game. Even though those five are very good, very tough opponents, that is nowhere near as tough as having to finish with a better record than 11 teams. Once you get into the championship game, anything can happen. And you might can just imagine how I would feel about taking my team to that place (Birmingham) on December 5."

Question: In your words, did this Kentucky football program grow during the 1991 season despite its 3-8 record?

Curry: "The program grew enormously because so many young people were forced to play. As everybody who has followed us knows, we did not come to Kentucky and sweep the cupboard clean. We didn't say, 'Okay, we're going to play the young guys and take our lumps for four years and then maybe we'll win someday'. No, we came in and said, 'We're going to compete with the guys who are the most qualified to play. We'll line up with the old players, the young players, whatever'. It was unfortunate that Damon Hood was forced into action last year and we ended up losing him for about half the season. It was unfortunate Clyde Rudolph missed so much. It was unfortunate Donnie Redd was injured during his brilliant debut against Indiana and we lost him for the year. All those things are too bad, but that's life. Those types of things contributed to the record. But what really happened last year was all those young people got a taste of competition on the SEC level. Each player now understands he can play and win on this level. And you throw in some people who did not get injured and played and played and played through some long afternoons. Players like a Melvin Johnson, Adrian Sherwood, Don Robinson, Mark Askin, and Pookie Jones, now this program has some veteran folks that are still young. But they are veterans. They've proved beyond a shadow of a doubt, they can compete in this league. And so all of that, as painful as it was, was preparation for what happens next."

Question: People talk about winning with defense, and obviously, defensive improvement is high on the priority list this season. Could you talk about some of your leaders on the defensive side of the football?

Curry: "Well, let's take a person like Sterling Ward who began last year as our starting corner. I found it necessary to move him to rover during the season and it was a real tough adjustment for him. But now, he is an experienced rover and a very good one. He's a Black Watch member. Marty Moore has become a Black Watch guy. So now we have Dean (Wells), Brad (Armstead), Marty and Sterling on our Black Watch unit. We've never had more than two players who we felt were big-time hitters on this team. Those people are more experienced and will know what to do when the chips are down. When you have a program and you are fighting up from the bottom of the league, there are several steps and stages you must get into. You've got to get into the fourth quarter and be in the game — we've done that the first two years here at Kentucky. Then, you have to get into the fourth quarter, be in the game, and win most of them. The next step is to get to the stage that anytime you're in a game, everybody knows who is going to win. When that happens, it is hopeless for the other team. You only do that after years and years of winning. That is a real winning tradition, like what happens at Rupp Arena now. Like when we're down by four with 45 seconds left, nobody in there thinks we're going to lose, nobody leaves. Everybody stays because they are going to watch us win another. You can only do that by performance."

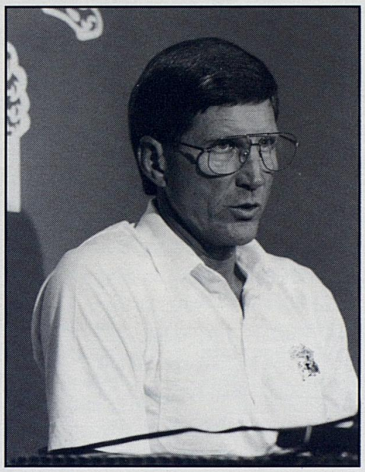

Question: What about this team, offensively and defensively? What are you doing new on offense?

Curry: "We're going to combine some things offensively which should present some serious problems in preparations for the opponents. When you only have Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday really to prepare against an offense which can throw a great variety at you, a coaching staff has a tendancy to spend an awful lot of time worrying about that variety instead of getting ready to block and tackle. We want to be able to make people do that. We have the personnel to handle that type of offensive package. Defensively, our staff wants to pick it up where we left off in the spring. We were just so much more aggressive in the spring. Well, what does that mean? That just means we had a whole lot more blue shirts flying to the football. Part of that reason is because we really do run faster. Another part of the reason is our players are now more comfortable with our coaching staff. When you are in your third spring, you really should know each other and not have to worry about what the coach is thinking and why is this coach yelling and whatever it is that you go through. Finally, another part of it is we just have an exuberant type of personality. People like Reggie Smith, who has always been a quiet leader, has picked it up a notch. Sterling Ward has picked it up a notch. Throw in James Tucker, David Snardon, and Damon Betz, and people like that, those people are aggressive people."

QUESTION: What are you looking for in the six junior college transfers that will be entering the Kentucky football program this fall?

CURRY: "From people like Jim Brown, Billy Lofton, and Howard Carter, we need a lot of production. Junior college players are signed because of specific position needs. I am proud of the fact we happen to graduate our junior college transfers here, like Alfred Rawls, Rodney Jackson and Bobby Henderson. Those guys graduated and so did others. But they also come to play football. All of them need to show up in shape and need to step up and be counted from day one. We need them."

QUESTION: How would you best describe what type of program you and your staff are building here at Kentucky?

CURRY: "Well, I'd say I'm a person that really lives to serve young people. I want every single one of them to be the best they can be in every aspect of their lives, and that certainly includes a championship football team. When we're successful with that, then we build a program which would not require my presence or any one person's presence. It would just be understood that we are into championships and championship people. Each person is unique. If you went around the world and took fingerprints from every human being, no two sets would be the same. That's always blown me away. It just amazes me. So everybody has got a gift. An education or an experience like this should allow each person to find his or her gift, develop it and then give it. Now a football program or a football team is a good model for that. I mean if your a good blocker, then man you've got to block every play, every time. If you're a tackler, you've got to tackle every play. Well, that's a principle which should run through every part of your life. Then, you hopefully learn that it goes into the classroom with you or into your spiritual life. Whatever that means for you. And when you are around a large group of people that learn to think that way, that stuff is contagious. And that is what a program is. That's what we are building here. It is just piece by piece. And its painful and its painstaking and sometimes it is embarrassing to fall on your face but you just get up everytime and you keep going until it is done. Once it is done, then the program will serve alot of young people for a long, long time. It's worth doing."

QUESTION: Has your concept of the huddle changed recently with what has happened in regard to the subject of racism?

CURRY: "It has just intensified. The huddle takes young people out of the middle of Los Angeles and out of the middle of Corbin and puts them in the same huddle. That's going to happen in August, right here on our campus. As long as I'm the leader, then I can put those people from different backgrounds into the posture they have no choice but to get along. If I've chosen my people well, and if I do a good job of teaching the principles of teammwork, then they buy it and each learns how to get along. The football field is the most honest place in the world. You can't be a racist out there. Racism is a form of mental illness. It is a mental illness that says a person is inferior or feels so inferior that he/she has to put another human being down so that he/she does not feel so inferior about themselves. Well in football, if you got an inferiority complex, you'll get your head torn off and never make the starting unit on a good team. The huddle teaches each individual to be aggressive and work together. It teaches you to care about your teammates no matter if he is black or white because you want to win. America is the same way. We've always admired the courageous person that can stand up and be counted for in what he or she really believes. Put your name on it, let your face show. Don't cover it up with some hood or something. That's sick. That's mental illness at work. Football says just the opposite of that. Each player has his name on their back. Each player runs out on the field, 'Here I am, I'm going to do my best and let the whole world see what I am. I will show you my courage and my skill and all of that. I'm going to do it with my teammates, no matter what color they are'. That's exciting stuff. It works too. The illusion of one superstar like a Michael Jordan or a Darryl Strawberry is going to be our savior in these types of problems, that's wrong. But, he can make a difference if he relates well. If you see him smiling at other people, things like that, especially Michael. I really think he does so many things that send the right messages. I don't even know him. Or you take a great player like Willie Davis. He was a superstar who changed people's lives including terrified rookies from College Park, Ga., who were white. He changed my life because he treated me with kindness and I probably would not have responded the same way had he not been an All-Pro. I don't know. I was 22 years old."

QUESTION: This staff has put together three top-notch recruiting classes in a row. Is that enough to turn the corner?

CURRY: "You've gotta have at least six recruiting classes to have a solid program. And you can't miss one in the six. We are absolutely on the right track, but it needs to get better. We've been in the Top 20, now we want to get into the Top Five, and that's from recruiting services that actually know the players. Some of these services don't even know what position these kids play. We're talking size, speed, and skill. You can do everything else right, but if you cannot run, you cannot win in the Southeastern Conference. We haven't been able to run well enough yet. This year we'll be faster. Last year, we were faster than we were the first year. Football people who came to our spring game in April, their most frequent comment was team speed, 'Wow, it's better'. It almost jumps out to the untrained eye. I'll tell you this, though. You can honestly say if we do all these other wonderful things that are going on here, but don't continue to recruit on this level, then it's not going to work. That is why we are fortunate to have a very strong recruiting staff and a very strong recruiting coordinator in Tommy Limbaugh, who works on it about 18 hours every day, all year."

QUESTION: What kind of impact will the new indoor practice facility have on the Kentucky football program?

CURRY: "Dynamite. You will not believe it. When you walk in there after its completed in December, it will literally knock your eyeballs out. It is going to be so huge and beautiful, it'll be overwhelming. The fieldhouse will allow our indoor track people to really get a chance to work. Our off-season program will be able to use it, although we don't mind going outdoors if its rough weather because we have to play in it. And ultimately, it'll help us prepare for the Sugar Bowl because its played indoors."

QUESTION: Would you like to see any changes made to the game of college football?

CURRY: "Well, I'm very liberal in alot of things and very conservative in alot of other things. I'm very conservative when it comes to the game of football. I wish we would not change any rules or change anything.I think we have the greatest game on the face of the Earth. I'm glad we didn't fool with it much this year. We didn't change much of anything this year and that thrilled me to death. Doug Dickey is the chairman of the rules committee and I'm proud of him. He took all the emphases that the coaches wanted emphasized and got it done. It was just a few things. Some of the penalities that we think haven't been called enough and some that have been called too much. He took note of that. He sat in the meeting with us and he also didn't let them change too much about a great game. I'm happy with what we got."

WHY NOT KENTUCKY?

by Billy Reed,
Sports Illustrated

A LOOK AT THE FINAL COLLEGE FOOTBALL RANKINGS OVER THE PAST DECADE OR SO REVEALS THAT MANY OF THE TRADITIONAL POWERS HAVE REMAINED STRONG: NOTRE DAME, NEBRASKA, MICHIGAN, PENN STATE, TO NAME A FEW. BUT THERE ALSO HAS BEEN AN INFLUX OF NEW NAMES, PROGRAMS THAT WENT THROUGH LONG PERIODS OF DEFEAT AND DESPAIR BEFORE FINALLY GETTING TURNED AROUND: MIAMI, GEORGIA TECH, AND COLORADO, AMONG OTHERS.

So . . . why not Kentucky? Why can't Bill Curry turn the Wildcat program into one of the new kids on the Top 20 block? Why shouldn't UK fans look forward to the glorious fun of someday cheering their team in a bowl game on New Year's Day?

No good reason, really. In this, the university's 102nd season of varsity competition, the opportunity for success may be greater than ever. Consider the good news:

Commonwealth Stadium ranks among the nation's finest and can be easily expanded when the time comes. Even in lean years, UK has enjoyed a large and loyal following.

The UK practice and training facilities are excellent, with a new indoor facility on the horizon.

The Wildcat program ranks high nationally in academics, consistently challenging the likes of Notre Dame, Duke, Virginia, and Penn State for the award given by the College Football Association to the university that graduates the highest percentage of its players.

High school football in the state has never been better, meaning that more blue-chip prospects are being produced.

And the Southeastern Conference's expansion to 12 teams and two divisions will mean a post-season championship playoff, beginning in 1992, that will only further certify the league as the nation's best.

Clearly, it's an exciting time for UK football, rife with more anticipation and optimism than has ever been felt around Lexington since the early 1950s, when the young Paul "Bear" Bryant was taking the Wildcats to the Sugar, Orange and Cotton bowls. After almost four decades of indifferent results, Kentucky football seems to be moving inexorably in the right direction.

When Curry talks about playing football at "a championship level", he's referring to the caliber of play and quality of attitude that he learned as a college player under Bobby Dodd at Georgia Tech and as an All-Pro center under Vince Lombardi at Green Bay and Don Shula at Baltimore. Sine becoming a head coach in 1980, he has rebuilt winners, first at his alma mater, where he took the Yellow Jacket program from 1-9-1 to 9-2-1 in six years, and then at Alabama, where his third Crimson Tide team made the university's first Sugar Bowl trip in a full decade.

"To men such as Curry, football men through and through, perspiration is the sweetest perfume of all, a bloody nose the ultimate badge of honor. And there are no excuses in defeat, just as there is no gloating in victory. The game is fair and the scoreboard tells no lies."

Now, at Kentucky, Curry is in his second year of building upon the foundation laid by Jerry Claiborne, whose eight-year reign always will be remembered as a time in which UK football regained respectability both on and off the field. Curry was the perfect choice to replace Claiborne in that both cling dearly to the same kind of fundamental, old-fashioned values. Both believe that all things are possible through hard work, that every player is a student first and an athlete second, and that winning is important only if it's achieved fairly and within the rules.

Having said all that, it also should be pointed out that Curry understands completely that all coaches ultimately are judged mostly by the won-lost record. He would have it no other way. Everything else aside, Curry loves football for the sheer competition of it. He believes it's the best game of all because it tests a man's body and mind unlike any other. To men such as Curry, football men through and through, perspiration is the sweetest perfume of all, a bloody nose the ultimate badge of honor. And there are no excuses in defeat, just as there is no gloating in victory. The game is fair and the scoreboard tells no lies.

What's interesting about Curry's elemental love of the game is that football coaching has become so much more complex and demanding. The modern coach must be as much of a corporate CEO as he is a sideline strategist, and Curry fits the role easily. Handsome, articulate, polished, and intelligent, Curry can put on his business suit and make a slick impression on recruits, alumni, donors and the media. He doesn't mind this part of the job, understands it's a crucial part of it, but he also will tell you that he's most at home on the sidelines, amid the sound and fury of a game, where every Saturday is a test of a man's ability, determination, and will.

Passion. And urgency. Those are the things you notice most about Curry. They are always there, lurking beneath the surface, even when he's relaxing. He wants to give UK fans, especially all those who have persevered through so many years of disappointment, a winner of which they can be proud. He wants to deliver it right now, today, even though he knows it will take time. He refuses to accept mediocrity and has no time for those who don't share his vision what Wildcat football can be.

Why not Kentucky?

That's the question that brought Curry to Lexington and the one that will drive him until he's able to share the answer with the rest of the college football world. Kentucky will get there. You can count on it. At least, that's what Bill Curry says, and who's to argue with a man who just won't abide any effort that's not directed toward the championship level?

1992 Kentucky Assistant Coaches

DARYL DICKEY

Quarterbacks (Tennessee, 1985)

Daryl Dickey begins his third season as an assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. His responsibilities include coaching the UK quarterbacks and coordinating film exchange with opponents.

Dickey, 31, is in his fourth year as a collegiate assistant coach. He officially became part of the Kentucky staff on Jan. 21, 1990, after spending one season as quarterback coach at Florida State.

Most Kentuckians remember Dickey from his collegiate days as quarterback of the Tennessee Volunteers. In 1985, Dickey helped lead the Vols to a 9-1-2 record and the Southeastern Conference title. He was named Most Valuable Player in the 1986 USF&G Sugar Bowl after engineering Tennessee's 35-7 victory over Miami (Fla.).

Following a brief stint with the San Diego Chargers of the National Football League in 1986, Dickey returned to his alma mater as graduate assistant coach for two years (1987-88). He moved to Florida State for the 1989 season.

At Florida State, Dickey helped mold Seminole quarterback Peter Tom Willis who ended the '89 season ranked seventh nationally in total offense (273.1 ypg) and passing efficiency (150.7 pts). For the season, Willis threw for 3,124 yards and 20 touchdowns as FSU posted a 10-2 record and a victory over Nebraska in the Fiesta Bowl.

Dickey has been instrumental in the development of several quarterbacks at Kentucky. Under Dickey, Freddie Maggard ended his career ranked seventh on the UK all-time passing list (2,566 yards) and second in career completion percentage (.570). Brad Smith ended his career ranked 14th on the UK passing list with 1,371 yards. Sophomore Pookie Jones completed 58.7 percent of his passes as a freshman in 1991, a figure which ranks second on the UK season list. And senior Ryan Hockman completed 53.3 percent of his passes while throwing for nearly 500 yards last fall.

Under Dickey, Kentucky threw for 2,151 yards in 1990 and 2,017 yards in 1991 which ranks second and third, respectively, on the UK season charts. It also marks the only time in Wildcats history UK quarterbacks have thrown for over 2,000 yards in a season for two consecutive years.

Dickey is married to the former Kendall George of Knoxville. They have one daughter, Karis, who was born on June 12, 1990. His father, Doug Dickey, is the athletics director at the University of Tennessee.

BILL GLASER

Defensive Line (Bellarmine, 1965)

Bill Glaser begins his 16th season as an assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. Overall, Glaser enters his 17th season as an assistant on the collegiate level.

His responsibilities at UK include coaching the Wildcats defensive line -- tackles and nose guards -- and serving as the special teams coordinator. Glaser is directly responsible for the entire UK punting game and is coordinator the annual Bill Curry Football Camp during the summer.

Glaser, 49, came to the University of Kentucky in 1977 from Morehead State University. He has worked for three head coaches at UK -- Fran Curci, Jerry Claiborne, and Bill Curry. Glaser was the only full-time UK assistant retained by both Claiborne and Curry.

Glaser, a native of Louisville, graduated in 1965 from Bellarmine College and participated in baseball while completing his undergraduate studies. He graduated in 1961 from St. Xavier High School and lettered three years as an offensive guard and linebacker.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, St. Xavier, in 1965 as an assistant football and baseball coach. Glaser was named head baseball coach in 1970 and in four seasons, compiled a 112-48 record. In 1974, Glaser was named head football coach and promptly led St. Xavier to back- to-back state titles and a two-year slate of 25-0-0.

Glaser was named defensive coordinator at Morehead State in 1976 where he completed work on a master's degree. A year later, he moved to UK as defensive line coach under Curci. In the Claiborne era, Glaser coached the UK defensive guards.

Glaser has coached three All-Southeastern Conference performers while at Kentucky -- nose guards Richard Jaffe (1977-79) and Joey Couch (1988-91) and tackle Jerry Blanton (1977).

He is married to the former Mary Ann Jensen of Louisville. They have three children -- Angie (25), David (24), and Clare (12).

Assistant Head Coach/Recruiting

Tight Ends (Alabama, 1967)

Tommy Limbaugh begins his second season as assistant head football coach and his third campaign as football recruiting coordinator at the University of Kentucky. On the field, Limbaugh will serve as a full-time assistant coach in charge of the Wildcats tight ends.

Limbaugh is responsible for coordinating the complete recruiting efforts for the UK football program, both on-and off-campus. His status as a full-time assistant coach allows him, by NCAA rules, to recruit off-campus. As assistant head coach, Limbaugh speaks for Bill Curry on football-related matters in the absence of the Wildcats head coach.

Overall, Limbaugh enters his 18th year in intercollegiate athletics and his 10th season as a college assistant coach. He was the first member to be named to Curry's staff at UK, becoming official on Jan. 11, 1990.

At Kentucky, Limbaugh spent the 1990 football season in the dual capacity of assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator. He was responsible for the Wildcats tight ends and helped starter Rodney Jackson earn second team All-Southeastern Conference accolades.

Limbaugh stepped off the field in 1991 to serve not only as recruiting coordinator for UK football, but for the entire UK Athletics program. Limbaugh moved back into the dual capacity as assistant head coach and football recruiting coordinator following the conclusion of the '91 campaign.

The Wildcats recruiting under Limbaugh has gained national attention the past three years. In fact, the 1991 UK signee class rated 13th in the country by National High School Football Magazine (Max Emfinger). The 1992 class was rated 19th by the same publication.

Limbaugh, a native of Childersburg, Ala., came to Kentucky from the University of Alabama where he was associate athletics director since April 1988. He initially came to Alabama in 1987 as assistant athletics director and was promoted to associate a year later.

Limbaugh began his coaching career as a graduate assistant baseball coach at his alma mater (Alabama, 1967) and helped lead Alabama to the 1968 Southeastern Conference title. A year later, Limbaugh jumped into the high school ranks as an assistant coach at Westminster High in Atlanta, Ga. Westminster won three regional titles and one state championship during his four-year stay at the Atlanta school. In 1972, he took his first head coaching job at Talladega (Ala.) High School and compiled a 19-11 record in three seasons. He was named "North Alabama Coach of the Year" in 1974.

Following the 1974 campaign, Limbaugh moved back into collegiate athletics and joined Steve Sloan's staff as an assistant coach at Texas Tech (1975-77). He then served as administrative assistant and recruiting coordinator during Sloan's next two stops -- Ole Miss (1978-82) and Duke (1983- 86). Several of his recruiting classes at both Ole Miss and Duke were ranked among the nation's Top 10.

After earning All-State honors in football and baseball at Childersburg, Limbaugh was a three-year letterman (1965-67) as catcher under Coach Joe Sewell at Alabama. He was president of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and was an active member in Alabama's "A" Club.

Limbaugh is married to the former Marcia Bynum of Talladega. They have two daughters -- Leslie (21) and Lauren (14).

LARRY NEW Defensive Coordinator

LBs and Bandits (Illinois, 1965)

Larry New begins his third season as defensive coordinator and assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. Overall, New begins his 28th season as a collegiate assistant coach.

His responsibilities include complete supervision of the Wildcats defense and field goal/PAT block teams. New is also responsible for coaching the UK inside linebackers and bandits, and serving as the off-season conditioning program liaison. This is the second time during the course of his coaching career to serve as defensive coordinator. The previous occasion came at Wheaton College (1965-67).

New, 48, came to Kentucky from the University of Alabama where he was a defensive line coach three years (1987-89) under Bill Curry. He officially joined the UK staff on Jan. 14, 1990.

He began his collegiate coaching career at Wheaton College as defensive coordinator in 1965. After three years at Wheaton, New moved up to Division I coaching and joined Dan Devine as defensive line coach at the University of Missouri (1968-70). He later filled the same capacity under Frank Broyles at the University of Arkansas (1971-74).

In 1975, New began a seven-year coaching stint under Jim Carlen at South Carolina. New served as defensive line coach during his tenure under Carlen.

New joined Bill Curry at Georgia Tech in 1982 as defensive line coach. He remained on Curry's Yellow Jacket staff through the 1986 season. He left Georgia Tech with Curry following the '86 campaign to be a part of the Alabama staff. He served as defensive line coach with the Crimson Tide for three seasons before again moving with Curry, this time to Kentucky.

At Kentucky, New has coached one All-Southeastern Conference performer -- Randy Holleran (1990). Junior Marty Moore did set a new UK season record with 183 tackles last fall under the tutelage of New.

New lettered two seasons (1962-63) as nose guard at the University of Illinois. He helped lead the Illini to a 17-7 victory over Washington in the 1964 Rose Bowl and played in the now-defunct College All-Star game at Soldier Field in Chicago. One of his teammates at Illinois was Dick Butkus, a former NFL All-Pro linebacker. Prior to his final two seasons at Illinois, New garnered All-America honors at Conners State Junior College in Werner, Okla.

Education-wise, New owns an associate degree in music from Conners State Junior College (1962). He earned both a B.A. degree in music and a B.S. degree in physical education at Illinois in 1965. New also owns a master's degree in physical education and a specialist's degree in physiology of exercise at Northern Illinois (1968).

He is married to the former Mary Kilbert of Morgantown, W.Va.

JOKER PHILLIPS

Wide Receivers (Kentucky, 1986)

Joker Phillips begins his second season as an assistant football coach with the University of Kentucky. Overall, this will be Phillips' fourth season as an on-the-field collegiate coach though he spent two of those years as a graduate assistant.

His responsibilities include coaching the Wildcats receivers -- split ends and flankers. He also works with the Wildcats kickoff return team, the "Hand's Team" (on-side kicks), and serves as the athletics dorm liaison.

Phillips, a 1986 graduate of Kentucky, joined the UK Coaching Staff officially as an on-the-field coach on Dec. 12, 1990.

Upon his joining the staff, UK Coach Bill Curry had this to say: "Joker has shown his commitment to our program. He did a fine job as assistant recruiting coordinator for us the first year." Curry also added after the initial spring, "As expected, he did that same type of quality job with our receivers during the spring."

Phillips began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Kentucky under former mentor Jerry Claiborne in 1988. He was responsible for the Wildcats receivers for two years (1988-89) before joining Bill Curry's staff at Kentucky as an assistant recruiting coordinator in 1990. Phillips assisted UK recruiting coordinator Tommy Limbaugh with all recruiting efforts for the Wildcats football program and also served in the capacity as the "Walk-On Program" coordinator.

With the departure of UK's offensive coordinator and receivers coach Tommy Bowden in December, 1990, Phillips was promoted to a full-time, on-the-field coaching position with the wide receivers. Under Phillips' guidance last fall, split end Neal Clark broke the Wildcats season record for pass receptions with 47, a mark previously held by Felix Wilson for 14 seasons.

Phillips was a four-year letterman (1981-84) as a Wildcats receiver and helped lead UK to a pair of bowl games -- the 1983 and 1984 Hall of Fame Bowls. His best season was in 1984 with 28 receptions for 305 yards and five touchdowns. Currently, Phillips ranks sixth on the UK career list with 75 pass receptions for 935 yards (12.5 avg.) and nine touchdowns.

He played briefly in the National Football League and the Canadian Football League. In 1987, Phillips was a member of the Washington Redskins who captured Super Bowl XXII.

In recent summers, Phillips has participated in the National Football League Coaching Fellowship program with the Redskins. He assisted Washington receivers coach Jack Burns during training camp and preseason.

Phillips lettered three years in football, basketball and track at Franklin-Simpson High School in Franklin.

RICK RHOADES

Offensive Coordinator

Runningbacks (Central Missouri State, 1970)

Rick Rhoades begins his third year as an assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky and his second campaign as offensive coordinator. His responsibilities include the complete supervision of the Wildcats offense and coaching the runningbacks.

Rhoades, 45, came to Kentucky from the University of Alabama where he was offensive tackle/tight end coach for one year under Bill Curry. He officially joined the UK staff on Jan. 14, 1990.

At Kentucky, Rhoades began as offensive line coach for the 1990 season. He was named offensive coordinator/offensive line coach after previous coordinator Tommy Bowden departed for Auburn. Following the '91 season, Rhoades switched from offensive line to runningbacks coach in order to fill a void left by Walter Lewis.

In all, Rhoades begins his 12th season as a collegiate football coach. This will be only his seventh year as an assistant coach due to spending four years as a head football coach. He spent three years as head coach at Division II Troy (Ala.) State and one year as head mentor at Southern Illinois.

In 1981, Rhoades began his collegiate coaching career as offensive coordinator at North Alabama. He left after two seasons to become defensive coordinator at Troy State (1983-84), where he helped lead the Trojans to the 1984 NCAA II National Championship.

Rhoades was named head coach at Troy State in time for the 1985 season. In three seasons as head mentor of the Trojans, Rhoades led TSU to the 1986 Gulf South Conference championship and the 1987 NCAA II National Championship. As a result, Rhoades was chosen as NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association and by The Sporting News.

In 1988, Rhoades accepted the head coaching position at I-AA Southern Illinois at Carbondale. He led the Salukis to a 4-7 record during his only season at SIU, which included a 24-10 loss to Kentucky at Commonwealth Stadium. Rhoades left Southern Illinois in 1989 for Alabama to join Curry's staff.

Rhoades lettered three years in football and baseball at Central Missouri State. After earning his Bachelor's degree in education from Central Missouri in 1970, he began coaching on the high school level at Mountain Brook in Birmingham, Ala. His 1976 squad, which included former Alabama star Major Ogilvie, captured the state title with a 14-0-0 record.

He and his wife, Ames, have two sons -- Robert (17) and John (11).

DON RILEY

Offensive Line (East Tennessee State, 1956)

Don Riley begins his first season as an assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. Overall, Riley will begin his 28th season as a collegiate football coach when the Wildcats open the 1992 season against Central Michigan in September.

Riley officially became a member of the UK football coaching staff on Feb. 29, 1992. He comes to Kentucky after spending the past four years as head football coach at his alma mater, East Tennessee State.

His responsibilities with the Wildcats include coaching the offensive line and coordinating the field goal/PAT teams. He will also directly work with the UK kickers, holders and deep-snappers.

Riley, a 1956 graduate of East Tennessee State, fills the spot on the UK staff which was vacated when Rick Rhoades assumed the duties of coaching the Wildcats runningbacks. He compiled a 10-34 record as head coach of the Buccaneers, which included one of the school's best finishes (4-3, third place) in the Southern Conference during the 1989 season.

Prior to his stint at ETSU, Riley spent 12 years as offensive line coach at UCLA under Terry Donahue. He was part of the Bruin program which posted a 98-36-7 record during that span, including a sparkling 6-2-1 record in nine bowl appearances. When he left for ETSU, Riley was the only assistant coach to remain off the original Donahue staff who came to UCLA in 1976.

His coaching career began in 1956 as head football coach at his prep alma mater, Lynch High School. After three years, Riley moved to East Tennessee State for one year as a graduate assistant coach under his former collegiate mentor, Star Wood. He then moved back into the high school ranks as athletics director and head football coach at Greeneville (Tenn.) High School (1960-65).

In 1966, Riley moved into collegiate athletics on a permanent basis as an assistant coach at Vanderbilt. He served a dual capacity as receivers coach and head freshman coach. In fact, his 1968 Commodore freshman squad recorded the first unbeaten record in school history.

Riley accepted another assistant coaching job in 1972 at Oklahoma State. In four years with the Cowboys, Riley coached the OSU linebackers, defensive backs, quarterbacks and served as offensive coordinator. He remained at OSU until his position at UCLA in 1976.

Following his prep career at Lynch High School, where he was tabbed Honorable Mention All-State in football, Riley played one season at Lamar (Colo.) Junior College. He transferred to East Tennessee State and played football and baseball.

Riley is married to the former Carol Pierce of Lynch. They have three children -- Donna Jones, Karen Lies, and Roger Riley -- and three grandchildren.

LOVIE SMITH

Strikes & Ends (Tulsa, 1980)

Lovie Smith begins his first year as assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. Overall, Smith will enter his 10th season as a collegiate coach when the Wildcats open play this fall.

Smith, 34, officially became a member of the UK football coaching staff on March 2, 1992. He fills the void on the Wildcats staff when former assistant John Guy joined the Pittsburgh Steelers football organization in February. Smith spent the past four years as an assistant coach at Arizona State under Larry Marmie.

His responsibilities at Kentucky include coaching the strikes and ends (outside linebackers) and coordinating the punt return and punt block teams.

Smith, a 1980 graduate of Tulsa, coached the outside linebackers as a member of the Sun Devil staff. Ironically, Smith coached the positions called "devil and leo" at Arizona State and inherits another system with unique terminology at Kentucky with the likes of "strikes, hits, and bandits". During his four seasons at ASU, the Sun Devils posted a 22-21-1 record.

As a player, Smith was a three-time All-State selection as a linebacker at Big Sandy (Texas) High School. He was a member of squads which compiled a 41-0-1 record during his three years, which also included a trio of state championships and a national team scoring record with 820 points in a single season.

Following high school, Smith signed a grant-in-aid with Tulsa University. He ended his career as a four-year starter (1976-79) at linebacker with the Golden Hurricane. Smith was a two-time All-America (1978-79) selection and a three-time All-Missouri Valley Conference (1977- 78-79) choice at Tulsa. He was named the MVC "Newcomer of the Year" in 1976.

He began his coaching career in 1980 at his prep alma mater, Big Sandy (Texas) High School as an assistant coach. After one season, Smith accepted a similar position at Cascia High School in Tulsa, Okla., and worked with the secondary. In 1982, Smith worked as a teacher of special education at the Town and Country School in Tulsa.

Smith returned to the coaching ranks, this time on the collegiate level, for good in 1983 and joined the Tulsa football staff as outside linebackers coach. In all, Smith remained on the Golden Hurricane staff for four years -- two each under John Cooper (1983-84) and Don Morton (1985- 86). He followed Morton to the University of Wisconsin in 1987 as outside linebackers coach and was also responsible for the Badgers' kicking game.

Smith and his wife, Mary Anne, have three children -- Mikal (15), Matthew (6) and Miles (3).

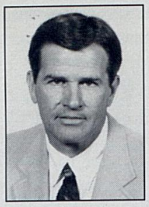

SMITH'S COLLEGE EXPERIENCE

1992 Kentucky Assistant Coaches

RICK SMITH

Defensive Backs (Florida State, 1971)

Rick Smith begins his third season as an assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. His responsibilities include coaching the Wildcats defensive backs and rovers, working with both the kickoff and punt coverage teams, and serving as UK's pro scout liaison.

Smith, 44, came to Kentucky from Baylor University after spending three seasons as defensive backfield coach of the Bears. He officially became a member of the Wildcats coaching staff on Jan. 21, 1990.

Overall, Smith begins his 13th season as a collegiate assistant coach. His collegiate coaching career includes stops at Georgia Tech, East Tennessee State, Alabama and Baylor.

Smith earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Florida State University in 1971. While at FSU, he played four seasons of football and two of baseball for the Seminoles. He was drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates in the annual amatuer draft following his college career.

His start in coaching actually came in 1970 at Godbey High School in Tallahassee, Fla. Smith spent three seasons at Godbey High before he was named athletics director/head football coach at Wakulla (Fla.) High School in 1973.

Smith joined the collegiate coaching ranks after four seasons at Wakulla High. He was tabbed head junior varsity football coach at Georgia Tech in 1977 under Pepper Rodgers. A season later, he moved to East Tennessee State as an assistant coach in charge of the defensive backs.

Smith briefly stepped back into high school coaching in 1979 at Marianna (Fla.) High. At Marianna, he served in the dual capacity as athletics director and head football coach through the spring of 1982 when he left for Georgia Tech to join Bill Curry's Yellow Jacket staff.

He remained at Tech for the next four seasons. During that four-year span, Smith helped the Yellow Jackets post a 24-19-2 record including a 17-14 victory over Michigan State in the 1985 All-American Bowl.

In 1986, Smith moved to Alabama under Ray Perkins for one season as defensive backfield coach. His Crimson Tide secondary ranked third in the Southeastern Conference in pass defense.

Smith moved to Baylor in 1987 as defensive backfield coach under Grant Teaff. The Baylor secondary quickly became one of the most respected in the nation during his three-year stint at Waco, Texas. His secondary ranked No.1 in the nation in pass defense allowing a mere 117.8 yards a game and completion percentage of .409 in 1988. The Bears finished No.6 in pass defense (148.5 ypg) during the '89 campaign. Overall, the Bears pass defense accounted for 63 interceptions during Smith's three seasons at Baylor.

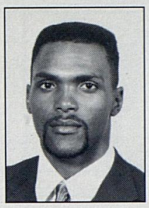

Smith is married to the former Barbara Reddick. They have three children -- Beth, Steve, and Billy.

MURRY HILL

Graduate Assistant

Murry Hill begins his second season as graduate assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky.

Hill, a 1991 graduate of Alabama, will work as the offensive graduate assistant during the 1992 football season. The NCAA mandated last January the reduction of graduate assistants on each Division I staff to two. As a result, Hill is responsible for assisting the Wildcats offensive coaching staff this fall. He is pursuing a master's degree in physical education.

Last season, Hill worked with the UK runningbacks and the defensive scout team. He assisted runningbacks coach Walter Lewis, also a former Alabama graduate.

Hill, a native of Atmore, Ala., was a two-year letterman (1989-90) as a fullback-tailback for the Crimson Tide under current UK Coach Bill Curry. He was named to the 1988 Academic All-Southeastern Conference Honor Roll.

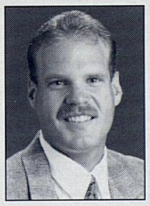

As a player, Hill averaged 5.3 yards per carry in 24 games during his career. He rushed for 1,398 yards, including a season-best 778 yards in 10 contests during the '88 campaign. His fourth quarter, 76-yard touchdown run against Kentucky at Commonwealth Stadium in 1988 helped the Crimson Tide overcome a 17-point deficit to claim a 31-27 victory over the Wildcats.

Hill was an All-State selection as a senior at Escambia High School in 1985. He led his prep squad to a 10-2 record that season.

MONTY LEWIS

Graduate Assistant

Monty Lewis begins his first season as graduate assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky.

Lewis, a 1986 graduate of Southwestern (Kan.) College, will work as the defensive graduate assistant during the 1992 season. The NCAA mandated last January the reduction of graduate assistants on each Division I staff to two. As a result, Lewis is responsible for assisting the Wildcats defensive staff this fall. He will be pursuing a second master's degree in administration while at UK.

Lewis, a native of Greeley, Colo., was a two-time (1983-84) NAIA All-American as offensive tackle at Southwestern College in Winfield, Kan. He began his coaching experience at his alma mater as a student assistant in 1985 working with the Bulldogs offensive line. Other graduate assistant stops have included Fort Hays (Kan.) State in 1986, and Northeastern Oklahoma State University from 1987-88. At Northeastern, Lewis earned his master's degree in education.

His first full-time coaching stop was at MacMurray College in Jacksonville, Ill. Lewis served as offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at MacMurray for two seasons (1989-90).

Last season, Lewis returned to the graduate assistant ranks at Colorado State University. He coached the Rams linebackers under head coach Earle Bruce.

UK Football Support Staff

DAVID COMBS
Video Director

David Combs begins his ninth year as video director for the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

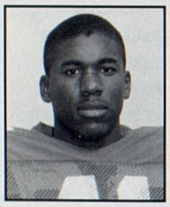

Combs, a native of Bay City, Mich., is responsible for coaching films and video operations of the UKAA. He also works with the UK Sports Communications Office on a weekly basis during the year producing and distributing video, including game highlights, press conferences and interviews.

Combs earned his undergraduate degree in telecommunications and marketing from the University of Kentucky in 1984. As a student, he worked as cinematographer and editor of game films for the UK Coaching Staff.

Following graduation, Combs served as a TV-Film producer/director for the UK Office of Instructional Resources with his primary responsibility of serving the UKAA. He transferred to athletics in August of 1989 as sports video director.

Combs is married to the former Charlotte Preece of Paintsville. They have one son — Zachary.

DELANDUAL CONWELL
Student Coach

Delandual Conwell begins his second year on the University of Kentucky football staff.

Conwell, a native of Ironton, Ohio, was a 1990 UK signee as an All- State tailback and defensive back at Ironton High School. As a senior, he helped lead the Fighting Tigers to a perfect 14-0 record and Division Three state championship.

Conwell was redshirted as a true freshman during the Wildcats '90 campaign. His playing career came to an end on January 5, 1991, when he underwent surgery to remove a tumor from his spinal column. The extensive nature of the surgery forced Conwell into giving up his athletic eligibility.

Last season, the Kentucky football team wore his initials "DC" on the sleeves of their game jerseys in honor of Conwell.

JOHN CROPP
Athletics Recruiting Coordinator

John Cropp begins his first year as the recruiting coordinator for the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

Cropp, a 1961 Vanderbilt graduate, will coordinate the recruiting of student-athletes for all UK sports. He takes over the position of recruiting coordinator after spending one season as an assistant football coach on Bill Curry's staff. Cropp replaces Tommy Limbaugh who held the position until returning to on-the-field football coaching duties last November.

His coaching career began while in the Army (1963-64). Cropp coached Army division football for two years while stationed in Germany. After fulfilling his service requirements, Cropp was named assistant football coach at Southwest High School in Atlanta (1965-66). Two years later, Cropp got his first head coaching position at Tennessee High School in Bristol, Tenn. Cropp's squads compiled an impressive 48-15-3 record with two state AAA titles (1971-72) and the '72 mythical national championship. He won 35 of his last 36 games at Tennessee High, including a stretch of 25 consecutive victories.

Cropp returned to his alma mater in 1973 as an assistant coach under Steve Sloan. He helped lead the Commodores to the 1974 Peach Bowl and a 7- 3-2 record.

He followed Sloan as an assistant coach to Texas Tech (1975-77), Ole Miss (1978-82) and Duke (1983). In 1984, Cropp became an assistant coach at Vanderbilt under George MacIntyre. He entered private business for two years (1986-87) before returning to Vanderbilt for a third time. Cropp served as Assistant Athletics Director for Compliance at Vanderbilt for three years before accepting an on-the-field coaching position with Kentucky on April 9, 1991. His responsibilities at UK included coaching the Wildcats tight ends.

As a player, Cropp earned three varsity letters (1959-61) at Vanderbilt as a guard/linebacker. He received the 1961 Wade-Looney Memorial Award as a senior.

Cropp and his wife, Mary Ann, have two grown children — Karen, a graduate of Ole Miss, and David, a graduate of Vanderbilt.

BARBARA DONNELLY
Ticket Manager

Barbara Donnelly is in her 17th year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

Donnelly, a native of Flatwoods, was named ticket manager for the UKAA in October of 1987. She had served as assistant ticket manager since 1984.

Donnelly began her employment with UKAA as secretary to Frank Ham of the Blue-White Fund office in December, 1975.

She graduated from Russell High School in 1971 and owns an associate degree from Ashland Community College. She is the daughter of Jean Siple of Flatwoods.

Donnelly is single.

JACK FLIGG
Assistant Athletics Director/ Football Operations

Jack Fligg begins his third year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association. He was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Football Operations on March 11, 1991, after serving one year as administrative assistant with the UK Football program.

His primary responsibilities include coordinating football operations and the major administrative duties of Coach Bill Curry.

Fligg came to Kentucky from the University of Alabama where he spent three years as an administrative assistant. He officially became a member of the UK staff on Jan. 14, 1990.

Overall, Fligg begins his 27th year in intercollegiate athletics.

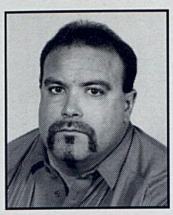

Prior to his administrative appointments, Fligg spent 22 years as an assistant coach at four schools — Georgia Tech (1964, 1984-86); West Virginia (1966- 69), Texas Tech (1970-74), and South Carolina (1975-82). He served under Jim Carlen for 16 of those seasons at West Virginia, Texas Tech and South Carolina. Prior to the collegiate level, Fligg coached high school football for 11 years in the Atlanta area — West Fulton High School and Grady High School.

Fligg played two seasons (1950-51) of college football at Auburn. He received his undergraduate degree from Oglethorpe in 1955 and his master's degree from George Peabody College in 1959.

UK Football Support Staff

He is married to the former Jonell Upchurch of Hapeville, Ga. They have three children — Matt, Joanna, and Mrs. Terri Carter — and four grandchildren.

MIKE FLORENCE
Strength Coach

Mike Florence begins his fourth season as strength coach for the University of Kentucky football program.

Florence, a 1983 graduate of Kentucky, was named the UK strength coach on May 18, 1989, replacing Pat Etcheberry. He had served as assistant UK strength coach for five years prior to his promotion.

During his collegiate days, Florence participated in weight lifting at UK. As a senior, he was a NCAA qualifier.

Florence, a native of Lexington, was a three-year letterman in football at Tates Creek High as offensive guard and linebacker. He also lettered twice in wrestling and posted a 23-2 record as a senior in the 185-pound division.

AL GREEN
Trainer

Al Green begins his 13th season as trainer for the University of Kentucky Athletics Association. His primary responsibility is football, but Green also supervises the 18 other sports at UK.

Green, a native of Brooklyn, N.Y., came to the University of Kentucky in 1979 after working five years as assistant trainer at Michigan (1974- 78).

Following his graduation from John F. Kennedy High School in Bellmore, N.Y., Green attended Lea (Minn.) College for two years. He transferred to Michigan and completed his undergraduate work, earning his bachelor's degree in education in 1973.

Green participated in the University of Arizona graduate program the following year, earning his master's degree (1974) in education, specializing in athletic training.

Green worked the Olympic Sports Festival in Oklahoma City, Okla., in 1989 and he is a member of the National Athletics Trainers Association. He has served as a past president of the Kentucky Athletics Trainers Society. He has three children — Douglas, Jennifer and Tracy Beth.

JOEY HOWARD
Associate Sports Communications Director/Football

Joey Howard is beginning his sixth year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association. He was named Associate Sports Communication Director for Football on July 1, 1991, after serving as assistant sports communications director for four years.

Howard, a 1985 graduate of Ole Miss, is responsible for the public relations efforts of the University of Kentucky football program. He has served on the media coordination committee for several Southeastern Conference championship events, as media relations assistant for the USF&G Sugar Bowl (1988-92), and as assistant media coordinator for the 1989 NCAA Southeast Regional Men's Basketball Tournament. This past year, Howard was the media coordinator for the 1992 NCAA Southeast Regional held at Rupp Arena. His publications have won numerous national awards, including CoSIDA top seven finishes on the last three Kentucky Football Media Guides — 1989 (seventh), 1990 (second) and 1991 (sixth).

Howard, a native of Poplarville, Miss., spent four years as an intern in the Ole Miss sports information office while pursuing his undergraduate degree. Following graduation, Howard was named associate sports information director at Ole Miss on July 1, 1985, and spent two years under SID Langston Rogers before moving to Kentucky.

He earned eight varsity letters during his prep playing days at Poplarville High School (three in football, three in basketball and two in baseball). He played football and baseball at Pearl River Junior College.

Howard is married to the former Kathy Wells of Corbin. He has one son, Drew (6).

TOM KALINOWSKI
Equipment Manager

Tom Kalinowski begins his 14th year as equipment manager for the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

Kalinowski, a native of Middleton, Conn., received his undergraduate degree from Kentucky in 1978. He had served as a student manager at UK, beginning in 1974 until his graduation. Kalinowski was named head football equipment manager in 1978.

He graduated from Xavier High School in 1974. At Xavier, Kalinowski was student manager for the football, baseball and basketball programs.

Kalinowski and his wife, Vicki, were married in March 1990.

JOE MATTHEWS
Assistant Video Director

Joe Matthews begins his second year as assistant video director with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

Matthews, a native of Mexia, Texas, is responsible for the day-to-day managing of the UK Athletics video facilities, which are located in the E.J. Nutter Football Training Facility. He is also responsible for coordinating all coaching films.

Matthews earned his bachelor's degree in telecommunications from the University of Kentucky in 1990. During his final semester as a student, he worked on a part-time basis as videographer for the UKAA.

After graduating from Shape American High School in Shape, Belgium, Matthews attended Navarro Colllege in Corsicana, Texas, for one year. He then transferred to UK and completed his undergraduate studies.

Matthews is the son of Lieutenant Colonel Bill and Carol Matthews of Fort Knox. He is married to the former Rene' Waggoner.

SUE STANLEY
Associate Trainer

Sue Stanley begins her 10th year as associate trainer at the University of Kentucky. Her main responsibility includes football and assisting in the supervision of the other 18 sports at UK.

Stanley, a native of Smithville, Ohio, came to Kentucky on a full-time basis in 1982. Prior to UK, Stanley had spent one year with the Sports Medicine Clinic at East Carolina.

She earned her bachelor's degree in physical education from The Ohio State University in 1979. Stanley later received her master's degree in exercise physiology from Purdue in 1981.

POOKIE JONES

Quarterback, 6-1, 192, So-1L
Murray (Calloway County)

JONES FACT: Became the first "Mr. Kentucky Football" to sign with the University of Kentucky.

OUTLOOK: Nine games, seven starts ... Will begin his sophomore year bracketed as co-starter at quarterback with fifth-year senior Ryan Hockman ... Best athletic ability of all quarterbacks in UK camp ... Most Wildcats fans compare him to former All-SEC signal-caller Derrick Ramsey (1975-77) ... His skills fit nicely in UK's new offensive schemes — combining triple option with wide-open passing game ... Pleasant surprise around Southeastern Conference circles with his performance during '91 campaign ... Most people knew of his outstanding mobility, but he surprised everyone with his passing ability ... Owned a completion percentage of .587, second-best season percentage in UK history ... Could become first UK quarterback to rush for 100 yards in a contest since QB Terry Henry gained 112 yards vs. Utah State in 1980 ... Missed a majority of spring drills as a member of the UK baseball team ... One of four Wildcats footballers who play two varsity sports, others include Clyde Rudolph, Don Robinson and D'Andre' Jenkins ... Will continue playing baseball at UK as per agreement with UK Coach Bill Curry during high school recruiting process ... Batted .283 with eight home runs and 24 RBIs with Coach Keith Madison's Bat Cats... Bench presses 345 pounds ... Squats 455.

1991 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN): Played in nine games, drawing seven starting assignments at quarterback ... Led the Wildcats in pass completions (81), pass attempts (138), passing yards (954), total offense (1225) and total offense per game (136.1) ... Ranked second on squad in rushing with 271 yards and four touchdowns ... Came onto collegiate scene late in second quarter vs. Kent State and promptly marched Wildcats on a five-play, 30-yard scoring drive ... Rushed onto Southeastern Conference stage against Ole Miss, rushing for 77 yards on nine carries and passing for 152 yards coming off the bench ... Set up Wildcats second TD against Rebels with electrifying 51-yard run to the Ole Miss one ... Turned in his career-best effort against SEC champion Florida ... Rushed 20 times for 77 yards and scored three touchdowns against the Gators ... Also completed 17 of 29 passes for 216 yards vs. Florida as Wildcats fell just short in upset attempt ... Career-high rushing effort vs. LSU with 87 yards on 15 carries and one touchdown ... Member of UK Leadership Committee ... Earned Wildcats Pride honors on three occasions — Ole Miss, Mississippi State and Florida ... Appeared in 33 games for the baseball Wildcats, including 25 starts ... Played both left and right field ... Also used as designated hitter ... Batted .283 (26 of 92) with eight homers and 24 RBIs ... Ranked second on squad in slugging percentage (.609) ... Also had six doubles ... Hit a grand slam against Howard University for his first collegiate hit ... Blasted two home runs and drove in five RBIs in a 16-5 victory over Kentucky State.

1990 (FRESHMAN): Redshirted.

MARTY MOORE

Mike Linebacker, 6-1, 239, Jr-2L, Fort Thomas (Highlands)

MOORE FACT: Set UK's single season record for tackles last fall with an amazing 183 stops, bettering the old mark of 180 held by Jeff Kremer (1987).

OUTLOOK: 20 games, 11 starts ... Projected to begin junior season as the Wildcats No. 1 mike linebacker ... One of the top linebackers in the Southeastern Conference ... Defensive leader ... Makes defensive calls in huddle ... Filled the void last fall which had been left due to graduation of All-SEC linebacker Randy Holleran ... All Moore did was promptly set a UK single season record for tackles while averaging over 16 stops per game ... Expected improvement of UK's defensive line will likely cut down his total number of tackles in '92 ... Bench presses 380 pounds ... Squats 520 pounds ... Timed at 4.75 seconds in the 40 ... Earned "Leadership Award on Defense" for his efforts during '92 spring ... Selected to UK's defensive elite — The Black Watch — at the conclusion of '92 spring drills and joins members Dean Wells, Brad Armstead and Sterling Ward ... Two-time UK Leadership Committee member ... Named to Athletics Director's Honor Roll after compiling a perfect 4.0 GPA in vocational education during '91 fall semester ... Was one of 24 Wildcats footballers to post a 3.0-or-higher GPA during '92 spring semester ... Only member of present UK football squad to be recruited by Alabama when UK Coach Bill Curry was the head coach of the Crimson Tide.

1991 (SOPHOMORE): Started all 11 games at mike inside linebacker ... Named to the FOOTBALL NEWS Sophomore All-America first team ... Led the Southeastern Conference with 183 tackles, including one quarterback sack and a team-high seven tackles-for-losses ... Also recorded two fumble recoveries, five quarterback pressures, and three passes broken up ... His 183 stops set a UK single season record, bettering old mark of 180 held by Jeff Kremer (1987) ... Ranked third nationally in total tackles (183) and tackles-per-game (16.6) ... Credited with double-digit tackles in all 11 contests, including a career-high 21 stops against run-oriented Vanderbilt and pass-happy Florida ... In his first collegiate start, Moore responded with 19 tackles vs. Miami (Ohio) ... Posted 15 tackles, one quarterback sack and one TFL at Mississippi State ... Named UK's Outstanding Linebacker and Wildcats Pride ... Earned single-game Wildcats Pride honors on six occasions ... Member of UK Leadership Committee.

1990 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN): Played in nine games as a backup mike linebacker and on UK special teams ... Missed LSU and Georgia contests with a lower back injury ... Credited with 15 tackles ... Also posted an additional eight hits on kick coverage teams ... Had a career-high six tackles against Florida ... Tallied four stops at Rutgers ... Best efforts on special teams were two stops vs. Rutgers and Vanderbilt ... Member of UK Leadership Committee.

1989 (FRESHMAN): Redshirted.

HIGH SCHOOL: Three-year letterman as fullback and middle linebacker at Fort Thomas Highlands under Coach Tom Duffy ... First team All-State by COURIER-JOURNAL ... Second team All-State by Associated Press ... Participated in Kentucky-Tennessee All-Star game ... Honorable Mention ORLANDO SENTINEL All-Southern team ... Two-time All-District and All-Region ... Led Highlands to 10-2 record and spot in regional finals as senior ... Rushed for 986 yards (5.2 avg.) on 189 carries and 10 TDs during final prep campaign ... Career-best 268 yards rushing and three TDs vs. Bell County ... Top defensive game was 16 tackles, five TFLs, and one sack vs. Erlanger Lloyd as senior ... Had over 800 yards on ground and 10 TDs as junior ... Led Bluebirds to 28-7 record during his three-year career ... Also lettered in basketball.

DOUG PELFREY
Edgewood (Scott)

PELFREY FACT: Tied his school record with a 53-yard field goal as time expired to give Kentucky a 20-17 victory over Cincinnati last season.

OUTLOOK: 22 games ... Projected to handle all placekicking duties for Kentucky during the upcoming 1992 season ... Preseason All-Southeastern Conference by Birmingham News ... The SEC sports information directors named Pelfrey as the league's "Best Kicker" entering the '92 campaign ... Right-footed, soccer-style kicker ... Is perhaps college football's best long-distance kicker ... Had four successful field goals of 50 yards-or-more as a junior, including a pair of 53-yarders ... His 53-yard field goal vs. Cincinnati as time expired was a three-fold sensation for Pelfrey — 1) the field goal gave UK the 20-17 victory for its eighth consecutive Homecoming win, 2) the field goal tied his school record for longest field goals, and 3) the winning field goal came on the day his girlfriend, Carla Wilson, was named Homecoming Queen ... Has two game-winning field goals — the 53-yarder vs. Cincinnati last season and a 32-yarder with seven seconds left against Georgia in 1990 ... Began the 1990 season as placekicker/cornerback but gave up his defensive duties to work solely on kicking ... Originally came to UK as a walkon ... Awarded scholarship following his game-winning field goal against Georgia during the '90 season ... Has handled both rule changes in last four years dealing with kicking as Rules Committee voted to narrow upright width to 18 feet, 6 inches in 1991 and remove kicking tee in 1989 ... Admitted to the UK Dental School this fall ... Seeking to specialize in orthodontics ... Earned his undergraduate degree in biology during '92 spring semester ... Bench presses 270 pounds ... Squats 390 ... Timed in 40 at 4.55 seconds.

1991 (JUNIOR): Handled all placements for the Wildcats ... Named first team All-Southeastern Conference by Associated Press, Birmingham News and TBS Sports ... Led UK in scoring with 50 points (10 field goals and 20 PATs) ... Connected on 10 of 14 field goals (.710 pct.) and 20 of 22 PATs ... His .710 percentage in field goals was second-best in the Southeastern Conference ... Successful on four of six field goal attempts from 50-or-more yards ... Broke the UK record for longest field goals with a 53-yarder to give the Wildcats a 10-7 lead in the fourth quarter against Indiana ... The 53-yarder broke the old mark of 52 yards held by four players, the most recent being Joey Worley vs. Wisconsin (1984) ... Later, tied his record with the 53-yarder vs. Cincinnati ... His two misses from 50 yards included a 57-yarder to end the first half against Kent State and a 50-yarder into a 14 miles-per-hour wind vs. Tennessee ... Given the AT&T Long Distance Award for the nation's longest field goal on two occasions — vs. Cincinnati (53) and Florida (52) ... Academic All-Southeastern Conference Honor Roll ... One of 30 Wildcats football players to earn a 3.0-or-higher GPA during '91 fall semester ... UK Fellowship of Christian Athletes Award ... Earned Wildcats Pride honors on four occasions.

1990 (SOPHOMORE): Handled all placements for the Wildcats ... Was good on 10 of 16 fields (.630 pct.) with a season-long of 50, that coming against Central Michigan on his very first collegiate FG attempt ... Very accurate inside the 40, connecting on eight of nine field goals (.889 pct.) ... Booted game-winning 32-yard field goal with seven seconds left to give Kentucky a 26-24 victory over Georgia ... Hit 24 of 25 PATs ... His lone miss, ironically, came against the Bulldogs ... Had four games with two successful field goal attempts — Central Michigan, North Carolina, LSU and Georgia ... Longest consecutive streak for successful field goals was four ... Displayed his athletic ability against Ole Miss, beating the Rebels' Camp Roberts to the football on an attempted on-side kick and giving Wildcats possession late in the fourth quarter ... Earned Wildcats Pride honors for efforts vs. Central Michigan, North Carolina, Ole Miss and Georgia ... Voted squad's Most Valuable Defensive Walkon for '90 spring drills ... One of 24 Wildcats footballers to post 3.0-or-higher GPA during '91 spring semester.

1989 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN): Did not see action ... Was also a member of UK baseball team as a pitcher ... No pitching appearances during spring season.

1988 (FRESHMAN): Redshirted.

HIGH SCHOOL: Three-year letterman at Scott High School under Coach Tevis Gray ... Earned four letters in baseball and three in basketball ... Permanent team captain and All-Conference in all three sports as senior ... Named to Northern Kentucky's Top 22 team ... Mr. Scott High School as senior.

PERSONAL: Full name is William Douglas Pelfrey ... Born 9-25-70 at Fort Thomas ... Son of Bill and Karen Pelfrey ... Owns a bachelor's degree in biology ... Admitted to UK Dental School for '92 fall semester ... His hometown of Edgewood is located just south of Cincinnati on the Kentucky side of the Ohio River.

CIVIC SERVICE: National Kidney Foundation Wildcats Walk and Run (1991-92) ... Celebrity visitor to Veterans Administration Hospital (1991) ... Big Buddy Program with Maxwell Elementary (1992) ... SMART program which assists children with science experiments in hopes of stimulating interests in math and science (1991) ... Special Olympics volunteer (1991) ... Guest speaker at various churches — Owingsville Baptist (1991), Cecilia Baptist (1991), and Oak Ridge Baptist (1991) ... Guest speaker at Berea College Sports Banquet (1991).

The Nickname "Wildcats"

The official nickname for the University of Kentucky athletic teams, "Wildcats", became synonymous with UK shortly after a 6-2 victory over Illinois in 1909 on the road. Commandant Carbusier, then head of the military department of old State University, told a group of students in a chapel service following the game that the Kentucky football team "fought like Wildcats".

Later, the name Wildcats became more and more popular with UK followers and members of the press and as a result, was adopted as the school's official nickname.

DEAN WELLS

ADRIAN SHERWOOD

Hit, 5-11, 172, Jr-2L,
Texas City, Texas (High)

SHERWOOD FACT: His 54-yard fumble return for a touchdown helped spark Kentucky to a 20-17 Homecoming victory over Cincinnati last season.

OUTLOOK: 22 games, six starts ... Projected to begin junior season in the Wildcats camp as the starter at hit (strongside cornerback) ... Should also see duty on some kick coverage teams ... UK Coaching Staff feels Sherwood is UK's best in man-to-man coverage ... Moved from corner to hit during '92 spring drills to take advantage of his man coverage ... Took his game up a notch in the latter stages of the '91 season ... Has a shot at All-Southeastern Conference accolades if he has the type of season the UK Staff feels he is capable of ... Limited Tennessee All-American Carl Pickens to only 32 yards (6.4 avg.) receiving on five catches, his lowest yards-per-reception average in a game during the '91 season ... Bench presses 315 pounds ... Cleans 275.

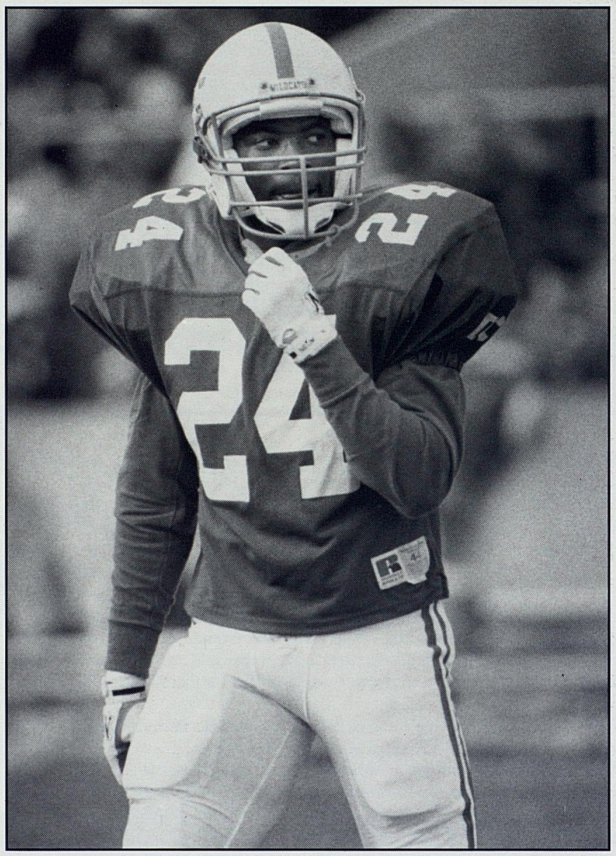

1991 (SOPHOMORE): Played in all 11 games as corner, getting the starting nod in six games (Indiana, LSU, Cincinnati, Vanderbilt, Florida, Tennessee) ... Credited with 42 tackles, one fumble recovery and three passes broken up ... Tied for second on squad with Don Robinson in interceptions (2) ... Scooped up a fumble by Cincinnati runner Vince Powell and dashed down the left sideline 54 yards for a touchdown to give Kentucky a 17-14 lead early in the fourth quarter, on its way to a 20-17 Homecoming victory ... Career-high nine tackles against run-oriented Mississippi State ... Season-best outing in opener vs. Miami (Ohio) with four tackles, three passes broken up and one pass interception ... Also had one interception vs. Kent State ... Had six tackles vs. Tennessee and five each vs. Indiana and Florida ... Named to Wildcats Pride on three occasions — Miami (Ohio), Cincinnati, and Vanderbilt.

1990 (FRESHMAN): Played in all 11 games as backup corner ... Was one of four true freshmen (Sherwood, Zane Beehn, Darryl Conn, Don Robinson) to earn a varsity letter ... Made 14 tackles and tied for team-high with one interception ... Posted one additional stop on UK special teams ... Season-high four tackles and one pass broken up in UK's 17-15 victory over Mississippi State ... Had first career interception against Tennessee ... Picked off an Andy Kelly pass, intended for Carl Pickens, in end zone to thwart Vol scoring drive.

HIGH SCHOOL: Two-year letterman as quarterback and free safety at Texas City High School ... All-District second team ... Squad's Most Valuable Player and permanent team captain as a senior ... Led Stingrays to a 6-3-1 record in final season ... Rushed for 656 yards and 10 touchdowns and threw for additional four TDs ... Coached at Texas City by Joe George ... Also lettered two years in track ... Participated in 200 meters, relays and triple jump.

PERSONAL: Full name is Adrian Delany Sherwood ... Born 10-18-71 at Galveston, Texas ... Son of Lamar Sherwood and Pinky Warren ... Computer science major ... His hometown of Texas City, Texas, is located on the Gulf Coast approximately five miles from Galveston.

JAMES SIMPSON

Mike Linebacker, 6-1, 254-So, 1L, Louisville (Pleasure Ridge Park)

SIMPSON FACT: Owns one of the most colorful nicknames in all of college football — "Stink-Rat".

OUTLOOK: 11 games, zero starts ... Projected to begin his sophomore season with the Wildcats listed as the No. 2 mike linebacker behind starter Marty Moore ... Should also see duty on UK kick coverage teams ... Picked up valuable experience last season in spot duty at mike linebacker ... Aggressive demeanor ... Acquired the nickname "Stink-Rat" from his aunt while he was in middle school ... Coach Bill Curry admits, "I still have trouble calling him Stink-Rat" ... Was originally listed at 270 pounds when he signed with Kentucky, but shed approximately 30 pounds before the '91 season began ... Lost an "informal" bet with defensive coordinator Larry New during '91 summer as to who could lose the most weight by reporting date ... Bench presses 390 pounds ... Credited with four tackles in '92 Blue-White Spring game.

1991 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN): Played in all 11 games primarily as a backup mike linebacker ... Saw action on UK kick coverage teams as well ... Earned first varsity letter ... Credited with nine tackles, one quarterback sack and one tackle-for-loss ... Posted one special team stop ... Career-high four tackles in 24-6 victory over Kent State ... Best overall outing vs. Indiana with three stops, including one TFL, and one pass broken up ... Credited with first collegiate sack against Cincinnati, dropping Bearcat QB Lance Harp for a nine-yard loss on a key third down play midway through the fourth quarter in UK's 20-17 victory ... Knocked football loose from Cincinnati TB Vince Powell on the Bearcat 29, setting up Ryan Hockman's seven-yard TD strike to Neal Clark just before halftime.

1990 (FRESHMAN): Redshirted.

HIGH SCHOOL: Four-year letterman as linebacker and tight end at Pleasure Ridge Park High School ... All-State first team by COURIER-JOURNAL ... Selected to the Kentucky-Tennessee All-Star team ... LEON SMITH

Flanker, 5-10, 181, Fr-RS, Louisville (Trinity)

SMITH FACT: Helped lead the Trinity Shamrocks to a perfect 42-0 record and three consecutive 4A state championships during his prep varsity career.

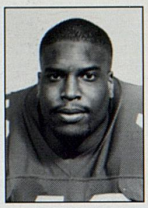

OUTLOOK: Zero games, zero starts ... Projected to begin his redshirt freshman campaign with the Wildcats in battle for No. 2 spot at flanker behind starter Kurt Johnson ... Will compete with junior Scott Gilley for sole possession of No. 2 peg on depth chart ... Could also see action on kickoff returns ... UK Coaching Staff feels Smith has a chance to develop into an outstanding collegiate receiver ... Gives Wildcats "big-play" ability at the wide-out position ... Does not have sprinter's speed, but is extremely quick and has good acceleration off the line of scrimmage ... UK faithful would say Smith is a larger version of former Wildcat receiver, Neal Clark ... Has same toughness and desire to win as Clark ... Will only get better in reading coverages and making route adjustments with game experience ... Soft hands ... A quadriceps strain during '91 August workouts kept him from playing as a true freshman ... Bench presses 290 pounds ... Has vertical jump of 32.5 inches ... His high school team, the Trinity Shamrocks, never lost a game during his three years of varsity football.

1991 (FRESHMAN): Redshirted ... Member of UK Leadership Committee.

HIGH SCHOOL: Three-year letterman as wide receiver, free safety and kick return specialist at Trinity High School ... Consensus first team All-State selection ... Was "Mr. Kentucky Football" finalist ... Member of Kentucky-Tennessee All-Star team ... Had two receptions for 59 yards, including a long of 44 yards, for Kentucky in the '91 Kentucky-Tennessee All-Star game ... THS Athlete of the Year for football as a senior ... Squad's Most Valuable Offensive Player ... Was instrumental in leading Shamrocks to a perfect 42-0 record and three consecutive state 4A titles during prep career ... Never lost a prep football game as Shamrocks post a trio of 14-0 ledgers ... Caught 37 passes for 692 yards (18.7 avg.) and four touchdowns as a senior ... Averaged 20.9 yards (17-355) and scored three TDs on punt returns ... Also averaged 33.6 yards (10-336) and scored two TDs on kickoff returns as a senior ... His 99-yard kickoff return for a touchdown sparked victory over Damon Hood-led Warren Central in state 4A championship game in 1990 ... As a junior, Smith had 32 pass receptions for 710 yards (22.1 avg.) and eight TDs ... Coached at Trinity by Dennis Lampley ... Four-year letterman in track ... Involved in long jump, triple jump, sprints and relays ... Student council president.

PERSONAL: Full name is Leon Ashford Smith ... Born 6-12-72 at Louisville ... Son of Arthur and Jewell Smith ... Marketing major.

CIVIC SERVICE: National Kidney Foundation Wildcats Run and Walk (1992) ... Copy-Cat Penpal Program (1992) ... Wildcat Cub Club (1992).

REGGIE SMITH

Cleveland, Ohio (Benedictine)

SMITH FACT: Enters 1992 campaign as one of the top returning linebackers in the Southeastern Conference after posting 104 tackles last fall.

OUTLOOK: 33 games, 11 starts ... Projected to begin his senior season with the Wildcats as starter at will linebacker ... Could see spot duty on UK kick coverage teams ... Fifth-year senior ... Is expected to be one of the leaders for the Wildcats defenders ... Filled the void nicely last season left by two-year starter Billy Swanson who had graduated ... Expected improvement of UK defensive line with addition of three junior college transfers should make Smith an even better linebacker, even though it might mean a fewer number of tackles in '92 ... Excellent quickness and good strength ... Bench presses 370 pounds ... Cleans 325 and squats 535 ... Two-time member of UK's Leadership Committee which serves as "players' voice" in discussions with Coach Bill Curry ... Was one of 24 Wildcats footballers to compile a 3.0-or-higher GPA during '92 spring semester.

1991 (JUNIOR): Started all 11 games at will linebacker ... Ranked second on squad in tackles with 104 ... Credited with two TFLs, two forced fumbles, and one pass interception ... Had three quarterback pressures and three passes broken up ... Double-digit tackles on five occasions — Miami (10), Mississippi State (10), LSU (15), Cincinnati (10), and Vanderbilt (14) ... Posted his first collegiate interception against Mississippi State after picking off a William "Sleepy" Robinson pass attempt late in the first quarter ... Credited with one caused fumble against Mississippi State and Florida ... Best overall outing against LSU with a career-high 15 tackles, one TFL and one pass broken up ... Named to Wildcats Pride on four occasions — Miami, Indiana, Kent State and Cincinnati ... Member of UK Leadership Committee ... One of 30 Wildcats footballers to earn 3.0-or-higher GPA during '91 fall semester.

1990 (SOPHOMORE): Played in all 11 games as backup will linebacker ... Ended season with 22 tackles ... Had an additional eight stops on UK kick coverage teams ... Credited with season-high four stops vs. Central Michigan and Georgia ... Made two tackles on UK special teams on three occasions — Indiana, Vanderbilt and Tennessee ... Member of UK Leadership Committee.

1989 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN): Played in all 11 games as backup linebacker ... Also doubled on kick coverage teams ... Finished season with 40 tackles, 17 solos and 23 assists ... DUCE WILLIAMS

Bandit, 6-0, 205, Jr-2L,
Bethel Park, Pa. (High)

WILLIAMS FACT: UK Coaching Staff selected Williams as the "Most Improved Linebacker" following the 1991 spring drills.

OUTLOOK: 22 games, 11 starts ... Projected to begin his junior season with the Wildcats as starter at bandit (strongside outside linebacker/strong safety) ... Could possibly see duty on UK kick coverage teams ... Missed contact work during '92 spring drills due to a shoulder injury ... Underwent arthroscopic surgery (Dec. 19) on right shoulder to repair rotator cuff tear ... Injury occurred toward the latter stages of sophomore season ... Is expected at 100 percent when Wildcats report in August ... Consistent performer ... Inherited starting spot at bandit last season, which had been vacated by '90 starter Jeff Brady, and never relinquished No. 1 role ... Bench presses 315 ... Cleans 305 and squats 425.

1991 (SOPHOMORE): Started all 11 games at bandit for the Wildcats ... Tied with Don Robinson for fifth on squad in tackles with 63 ... Posted one quarterback sack and two tackles-for-losses ... Picked up his first collegiate quarterback sack late in the first quarter vs. Indiana, dumping QB Trent Green for a four-yard loss as IU faced a third-and-two situation at the Wildcat 43 ... Credited with a career-high 10 tackles, one tackle-for-loss, and one fumble recovery against LSU ... Recovered fumble by LSU's Todd Kinchen at the Tiger 37, setting up Doug Pelfrey's third-quarter, 50-yard field goal which gave UK a 17-9 lead... Made nine stops, one sack and one QB pressure against the Hoosiers ... Also had fine showings against Florida (eight tackles), Vanderbilt (eight) and Mississippi State (seven) ... Named to Wildcats Pride on three occasions — Ole Miss, Mississippi State and LSU ... Named by UK Coaching Staff as "Most Improved Linebacker" following '91 spring drills ... Was one of 24 Wildcats to compile a 3.0-or-higher GPA during the '91 spring semester.

1990 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN): Played in all 11 games as a backup bandit and earned first varsity letter ... Credited with 11 tackles from his bandit position ... Made five tackles on UK special teams ... Turned in a career-high five stops and one QB pressure vs. Rutgers at Giants Stadium ... Had two hits vs. North Carolina and Tennessee ... Earned Wildcats Pride honors for his special teams play vs. LSU.

1989 (FRESHMAN): Redshirted.

HIGH SCHOOL: Four-year letterman as tailback and outside linebacker at Bethel Park High under Coach Bernie Storer ... Named to PITTSBURGH PRESS "Finest 44" and PITTSBURGH POST-GAZETTE "Fabulous 22" ... Honorable Mention All-State ... Rushed for 808 yards on 144 carries (5.6 avg.) and scored six TDs as senior ... Career-best 175 yards rushing on 32 attempts and three TDs vs. Shaler in 1988 ... Gained 709 yards and scored six TDs as junior ... Two-time All-Conference selection ... Team captain and squad's Most Valuable Player in both junior and senior seasons ... Lettered three years in track.

PERSONAL: Full name is Duce Lawrence Williams ... Born 11-10-70 at Williamsport, Pa. ... Son of Phillip and Gertrude Williams ... Physical education major with a business option ... His dad, Phillip, was a standout tailback at Youngstown State University ... His hometown of Bethel Park, Pa., is a suburb of Pittsburgh, Pa.

CIVIC SERVICE: National Kidney Foundation Wildcats Run and Walk (1991-92).

1991 REVIEW

A Look Back At

INJURIES AND YOUTH ARE PERHAPS THE BEST TWO WORDS TO USE WHEN DESCRIBING THE 1991 FOOTBALL SEASON FOR THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY WILDCATS.

Before the '91 campaign got underway, UK Coach Bill Curry was forced to place seven Wildcats on medical scholarship due to various career-ending injuries — most notably projected starters Travis Hahn (C/G) and Mike Thomas (TB). No fewer than 15 Wildcats starters or top reserves missed at least one game over the course of the season once it began. Such starters as QB Freddie Maggard, TE Neil Page, Hit Gary Willis, ROV Sterling Ward, FS Brad Armstead, TB Damon Hood, TB Clyde Rudolph, TB Donnie Redd, DT Jerry Bell and SN Chris Reedy, to name a few, had to surrender playing time because of ailments.

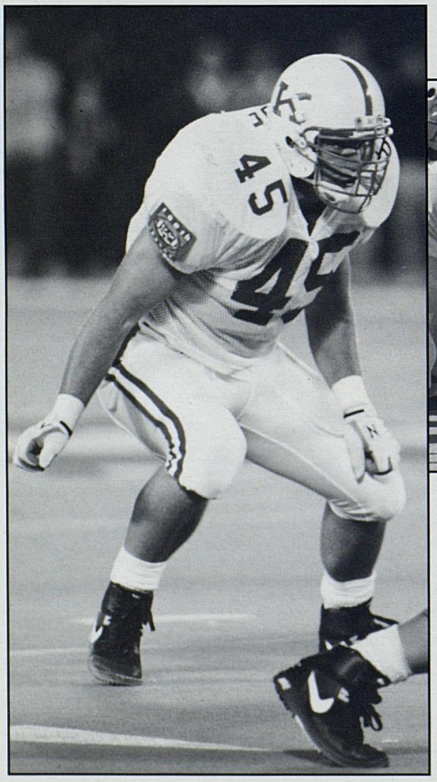

The Wildcats already faced a so-called "youth movement" due to its small senior class (11) entering the season. In fact, only seven seniors dotted the UK roster who were original scholarship signees back in 1987 — Jerry Bell, Joey Couch, Jim Graves, Larry Jackson, Freddie Maggard, Derrick Thomas, and Gary Willis. As a result, a minimum of 31 freshmen or sophomores regularly found their way into the Wildcats lineup.

No matter what UK's circumstances were in '91, opponents were not in a sympathizing mode. Neither was Curry.

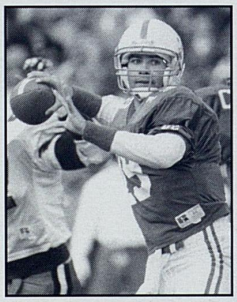

"We cannot talk about injuries or youth movements," Curry said. "We just did not get the job done. I believe our performance in the last two games — Florida and Tennessee — were indicative that our team is learning somewhat how to expect to win against championship opponents. We fought, we scratched and we were in both games, but were not quite good enough to get the job done."

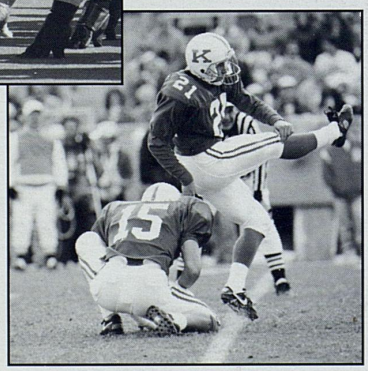

"It would have been very easy after the Vanderbilt game to cash it in and get beat 40 to nothing by Florida and Tennessee and just go home. Nobody on our team did that. Now for me to run around and say, 'I think that is wonderful', I don't think that's wonderful. But I do think it is a step forward and it's an obvious sign in the direction of our program for football people."

Kentucky ended the frustrating 1991 campaign with a 3-8-0 record and winless in Southeastern Conference play. Still, the Wildcats battled and battled hard. Kentucky earned its victories over three non-conference opponents — Miami (Ohio), Kent State and Cincinnati.

The injuries and youthfulness came into play in a couple of tough, three-point decisions to Indiana (13-10) and LSU (29-26). And later when the Wildcats pushed third-ranked Florida (35-26) and 10th-ranked Tennessee (16-7) to the limit before falling in a pair of nine-point tilts. And looking even closer, Kentucky was in striking distance during the fourth quarter in Southeastern Conference losses to Ole Miss and Vanderbilt.

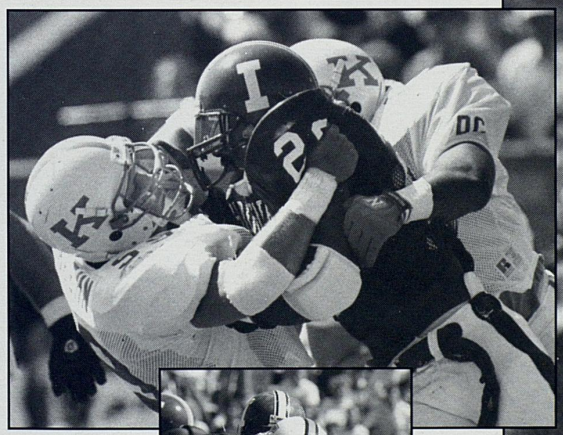

Individually, the '91 campaign was rewarding for several Wildcats. Junior placekicker Doug Pelfrey and senior nose guard Joey Couch were both named to the Associated Press All-SEC first and second teams, respectively. Offensive tackle Greg Lahr, a senior from Pickerington, Ohio, was selected to play in the Japan Bowl and also earned a spot on the 1991 College Football Association Scholar-Athlete team.

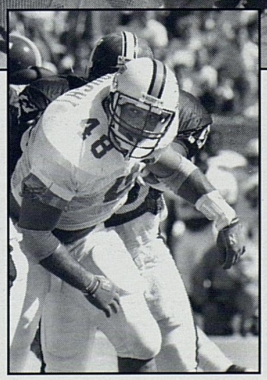

Senior split end Neal Clark established a new school record for pass receptions in a season. Clark caught 47 passes which shattered the mark of 43 held for 14 seasons by Felix Wilson (1978). Pelfrey, who connected on four field goals of 50 yards-or-more last season, set the UK record for longest field goals with a pair of 53 yarders — one each vs. Indiana and Cincinnati.

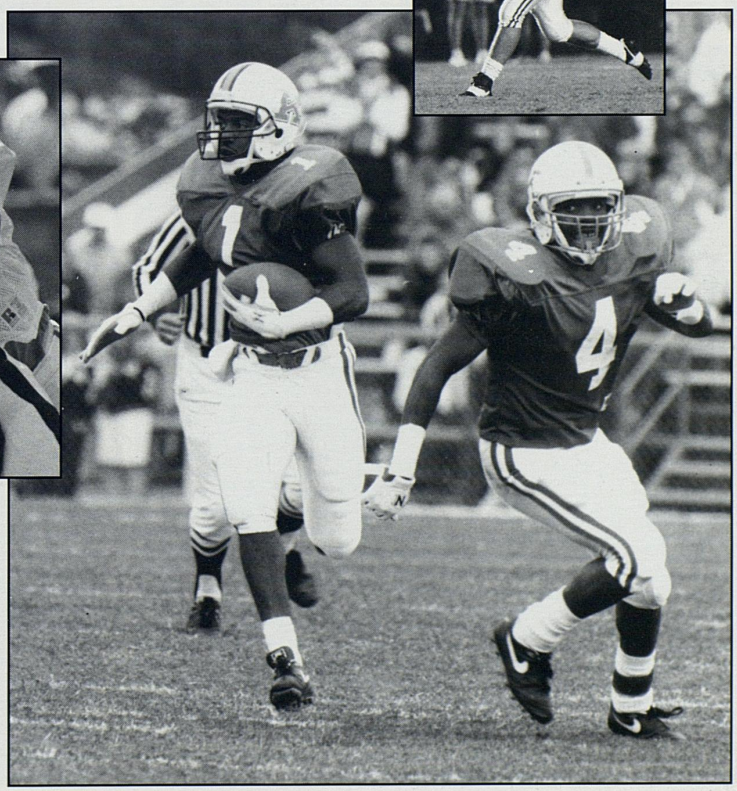

Sophomore linebacker Marty Moore broke the UK record for tackles in a season with 183. Moore ranked third nationally in total tackles (183) and tackles-per-game (16.6). Senior punter Bill Hawk established a new school mark for punting average in a contest (min. five punts). Hawk averaged 56.5 yards per punt vs. Tennessee including a career-long of 75 yards and four punts over 60 yards.

Academically, Kentucky once again led the Southeastern Conference in Honor Roll selections. The Wildcats placed 15 players on the All-SEC Academic Honor Roll to lead the league for the seventh time in the last eight years. In fact, UK has a league-leading 97 players selected to the All-SEC Academic Honor Roll since 1980.

1991 Kentucky Game-by-Game

Kentucky 23, Miami (Ohio) 20

September 7 at Lexington ■ Attendance — 58,100

The Kentucky Wildcats used a pair of big plays on offense to earn a hard-fought 23-20 victory over the Miami (Ohio) Redskins of the Mid- American Conference at Commonwealth Stadium in the 1991 season-opener.

A crowd of 58,100, the sixth-largest in stadium history, witnessed UK quarterback Brad Smith throw two touchdown strikes in leading the Wildcats to their fifth consecutive season-opening victory. Smith, who completed 14 of 25 passes for 198 yards, connected with flanker Kurt Johnson on a 34- yard scoring toss with just under four minutes to play to ensure the victory.

Placekicker Doug Pelfrey staked Kentucky to a 3-0 lead on its first offensive drive of the season. The big play in the scoring march was a 27- yard pass from Smith to split end Neal Clark, who ended with a game-high four receptions for 83 yards, which put UK on the Redskins' 20. Four plays later, Pelfrey knocked in a 37-yard field goal with 12:52 left in the opening period.

Miami took its only lead of the contest on the first play of the second quarter. Tailback Terry Carter scored on an eight-yard pass from quarterback Jim Clement to give the Redskins a 6-3 edge after the PAT failed.

A couple of series later, Kentucky moved back in front for good as tailback Craig Walker found the endzone on a two-yard dive. Walker's score capped a 66-yard drive in 10 plays, giving the Wildcats a 10-6 lead with 7:56 left in the half. Another Smith to Clark connection, this time for 20 yards, was the key play in the march.

Following a 37-yard field goal by the Redskins Bryan Lucas, Kentucky answered with just four seconds left in the half. Smith hit split end Tim Calvert for a 19-yard gain, then nailed Clark with a 22-yard strike to move the Wildcats to the MU 22. One play later, Smith found split end Mark Chatmon on a corner route for a 22-yard score. Pelfrey missed the PAT but UK headed to the locker room at intermission with a 16-9 advantage.

The score remained the same until two plays into the fourth quarter when Lucas hit his second field goal of the evening — a 25-yarder — capping an 88-yard march in 17 plays. The field goal sliced UK's lead to 16-12.

Kentucky secured the victory later in the quarter. Wildcats punter Bill Hawk put the Redskins in a hole as he landed a 45-yard punt on the MU 6. Four plays later, the Wildcats got the ball on the Redskins 35 following a short punt by Jon Valente. It took two plays before Smith drilled Johnson for the game-winner, a 34-yard toss on a post pattern to make it 23-12 with 3:57 left to play.

Indiana 13, Kentucky 10

September 21 at Bloomington ■ Attendance — 48,994

This was just another chapter of the intense and exciting Kentucky- Indiana football series. On this day, the Kentucky Wildcats came up short in the Battle for the Bourbon Barrel as the Indiana Hoosiers slipped by 13- 10 before a crowd of 48,994 at Memorial Stadium and a national cable (ESPN) television audience.

Though this was only the 22nd meeting between the schools, the true colors of this rivalry once again appeared. It marked the fourth year in a row which the outcome was decided in the final stanza. And the victory kept the Bourbon Barrel in the Hoosiers' hands for the second consecutive year.

Kentucky used a pair of goal-line stands in thwarting Hoosier drives and turned one of those into a 99-yard scoring march to break a scoreless deadlock early in the fourth quarter. After the Wildcats stopped IU tailback Vaughn Dunbar on a fourth-and-goal try from the one, Kentucky methodically marched the length of the field in 18 plays to take the lead.

The scoring drive consumed 8:56 of the scoreboard clock and was keyed by three, third-down pass completions from quarterback Brad Smith to tight end Neil Page (eight and 12 yards) and flanker Kurt Johnson (16 yards). Kentucky found the end zone when tailback Donnie Redd darted 13 yards around left end giving UK a 7-0 lead with 13:09 left to play. The touchdown was bittersweet for the Wildcats as Redd tore a quadriceps muscle and did not return to action the remainder of the season.

Indiana quickly answered. The Hoosiers knotted the score at 7-7 on a 42-yard pass from quarterback Trent Green to flanker Eddie Thomas just three minutes later.

Placekicker Doug Pelfrey etched his name into the UK record books on the Wildcats next possession. Pelfrey booted a school-record 53-yard field goal with 6:25 left to play to give the Wildcats a 10-7 lead. His field goal broke the old record of 52 yards held by four former Wildcats, the most recent being Joey Worley vs. Wisconsin in 1984.

The Hoosiers fought back with a 77-yard scoring march to take the lead for good. It took Indiana 10 plays to punch in the pigskin as Dunbar went around right end from one yard. The score gave IU only a 13-10 lead as a result of a missed PAT by Scott Bonnell with 1:52 remaining.

Kentucky picked up three first downs on its last drive, moving the football to the UK 49. But Smith's long pass to Johnson was intercepted by Damon Watts on the last play of the game to give IU the victory.

1991 Kentucky Game-by-Game

Kentucky 24, Kent State 6

September 28 at Lexington ■ Attendance — 56,150

Kentucky built a 21-point first-half lead and coasted to a 24-6 victory over Mid-American foe Kent State before 56,150 at Commonwealth Stadium.

The Wildcats got a pair of touchdowns on runs from tailback Craig Walker and another on a scoring toss to Neal Clark in building the early cushion. Defensively, UK limited the Golden Flashes to only 290 yards of total offense and six points as the Wildcats moved to 2-1 on the season.

Strike Dean Wells got things started on the opening drive of the evening. Wells broke through to partially block a punt by Kent's Mike Benzy and enabled the Wildcats to get started from the KSU 46. Seven running plays later, Walker raced around left end for a one-yard score and UK led 7-0 with 10:32 left in the opening quarter.

Quarterback Brad Smith, who completed eight of 16 passes for 78 yards, made the Wildcats a perfect two-for-two as he led UK to a touchdown on its next possession. Smith connected with Clark on a simple stop pattern on the left side. Clark eluded two tacklers and raced 33 yards to paydirt to give Kentucky a 14-0 lead with 5:04 left in the first period.

Flanker Kurt Johnson ignited the Commonwealth Stadium crowd late in the second quarter. Johnson hauled in a punt from Benzy at the UK 31 and returned it 39 yards to the Kent 30, leaving the Wildcats offense in excellent scoring position.

At that point, UK Coach Bill Curry inserted Pookie Jones at quarterback for his first collegiate action. Jones promptly marched the Wildcats to the end zone in five plays as Walker capped off the drive with a two-yard sweep around left end. A key play in the series came on an 11-yard toss from Jones to flanker Troy Hobbs. Pelfrey added the PAT and it was 21-0 with 3:14 left until intermission.

Kent State got on the scoreboard just before halftime. Quarterback Joe Dalpra found Shawn Barnes in the end zone for a 23-yard scoring strike to make it 21-6 with 39 seconds left. Nose guard Joey Couch blocked the PAT.

Pelfrey added the only second-half points of the game midway through the third quarter. Johnson returned a Benzy punt 33 yards to set up the Wildcats on the KSU 12. Four plays later, Kentucky settled for a 25-yard field goal by Pelfrey to end the night's scoring.

Ole Miss 35, Kentucky 14

October 5 at Lexington ■ Attendance — 56,375

Ole Miss broke open a close game with a pair of touchdown passes in the fourth quarter to take a 35-14 victory over Kentucky in the Wildcats Southeastern Conference opener.

Rebel quarterbacks Russ Shows and Tom Luke each completed a scoring toss to bust open a tight, seven-point contest in the final stanza. Shows, who completed 13 of 27 passes for 292 yards, turned in the back-breaker with a 60-yard strike to Tyrone Montgomery as 9:11 remained. Then with just under two minutes left, Luke connected on his only pass of the evening — a 26-yarder to Marvin Courtney — for the final margin of victory.

A Commonwealth Stadium crowd of 56,375 witnessed the Wildcats rally from a 21-7 deficit midway in the third quarter behind the running and passing of backup quarterback Pookie Jones. His 51-yard scramble put Kentucky in position at the UM 1 before tailback Craig Walker dove in with 4:07 left in the period to slice the lead to 21-14.

UK free safety Brad Armstead made his second interception of the game on the Rebels next drive. Armstead stepped in front of a Shows pass in the end zone to turn back an Ole Miss scoring attempt and gave UK new life at their own 16.

Jones scampered 23 yards on the Wildcats first play following the interception. Then following a holding penalty, Jones hit split end Neal Clark for a 22-yard completion giving the Wildcats a first down at the UM 49. UK moved to the Rebel 35 before the drive stalled and Bill Hawk came in to punt the football away.

It took Ole Miss just seven plays to put the game on ice. Facing a second-and-10 at the UM 40, Shows dropped straight back and found Montgomery streaking down the left sideline behind UK corner Gary Willis. Shows hit Montgomery with a perfect strike and the clinching 60-yard touchdown. Kicker Brian Lee added the PAT as Ole Miss secured its first-ever win at Commonwealth Stadium.

1991 Kentucky Game-by-Game

Mississippi State 31, Kentucky 6

October 12 at Starkville ■ Attendance — 32,103

Mississippi State got a lift from quarterback William "Sleepy" Robinson as the Bulldogs broke open a tight contest with 21 second-half points to claim a 31-6 Southeastern Conference victory over visiting Kentucky before 32,103 at Scott Field.

Robinson directed a Bulldog offense which gained 591 total yards on the afternoon, including 426 on the ground and 165 through the air. The 426 stripes were the most yards rushing given up by a Kentucky squad in school history. Robinson accounted for 299 yards of total offense (134 rushing, 165 passing) and two touchdowns.

But despite the large numbers from Mississippi State, the Wildcats hung close until early in the fourth quarter. UK quarterback Pookie Jones, making his first collegiate start, passed for 196 yards and gained an additional 20 on the ground for the Wildcats. Jones led Kentucky into MSU territory on four occasions in the first half, but the Wildcats could only muster two Doug Pelfrey field goals (26 and 38 yards).

Jones led the Wildcats on the game's opening drive to the MSU eight, picking up large chunks of real estate on runs of 14, 10 and 14 yards. Pelfrey converted a 26-yard field goal and UK led 3-0 with 8:44 to go in the first quarter.

Robinson quickly put the Bulldogs in front. It took State just five plays to cover 93 yards as Robinson scored on a 31-yard option keeper to give MSU a 7-3 lead with 6:28 left.

Both squads added a field goal in the second quarter — Chris Gardner of MSU a 30-yarder and Pelfrey a 38-yarder with 12 seconds left — to make the count 10-6 at halftime.

Mississippi State took the second half kickoff and promptly marched 75 yards in 11 plays. Tailback Karl Williamson scored on a one-yard dive to stretch the Bulldog margin to 17-6 with just over nine minutes left in the third period. The big play in the drive was a 40-yard scamper by fullback William Prince which moved the pigskin from the MSU 28 to the UK 32.

Two series later, the Bulldogs started their next scoring drive from the MSU 14. Robinson found Treddie Anderson for a 21-yard toss to begin things. And following a pair of Williamson runs, Prince again struck the Wildcat defense, this time with a 53-yard touchdown run to give the 'Dogs a 24-6 advantage with 13 minutes left.

Kentucky punted the ball back to State on its next possession, but once again, Robinson led the Bulldogs on a scoring march. MSU used 15 plays to cover the necessary 72 yards as Robinson hit Anderson on a four-yard scoring toss to make the final count, 31-6 with five minutes left.

LSU 29, Kentucky 26

October 19 at Lexington ■ Attendance — 53,650

LSU quarterback Chad Loup connected on a 20-yard touchdown pass to flanker Marcus Carter with just over a minute remaining to give the Tigers a come-from-behind, 29-26, victory over the Kentucky Wildcats in a wild Southeastern Conference affair at Commonwealth Stadium.

A national cable audience (TBS Sports) watched as Kentucky took a 26-22 lead on a 33-yard dash by freshman tailback Damon Hood. Kicker Doug Pelfrey added the PAT and the Wildcats held a four-point margin with 7:14 remaining.

The Wildcats got the football back after holding LSU without a first down on four plays. Kentucky took over on its 26, but four plays later Hood, who had a career-high 87 yards rushing, fumbled off right tackle and Tiger free safety Anthony Marshall recovered to give LSU new life at the UK 41 with just 3:42 left to play.

Tailback Odell Beckham carried the football four consecutive plays to help the Tigers pick up a first down. Then following a four-yard run by fullback Sammy Seamster, Loup found Carter in the left corner of the end zone for the game-winning, 20-yard scoring toss.

Jones led the Wildcats on a last-minute drive, completing passes to Craig Walker (nine yards), Kurt Johnson (seven) and Omri Meek (15) before the clock ran out with UK on the Tiger 38.

LSU held a 6-0 lead early in the second quarter on the strength of two Pedro Suarez field goals. But Kentucky erased the deficit to go up, 14-6, as Jones accounted for two touchdowns, a one-yard dive and a 24-yard scoring toss to Johnson. Suarez added his third field goal of the first half, a 30-yarder, to make the score 14-9 at halftime.

The Wildcats extended their lead to 17-9 midway through the third stanza on a 50-yard field goal by Doug Pelfrey. But LSU receiver Todd Kinchen personally rallied the Tigers to a 22-19 advantage with a pair of scores. Kinchen first grabbed a 14-yard scoring toss from Loup on the first play of the fourth quarter. And following a safety which gave the Wildcats two points, Kinchen returned a Bill Hawk punt 74 yards to paydirt as the Tigers led by three with 11:19 left to play in the contest.

Kentucky got the lead back on its next possession. A key play in the march was a 22-yard pass from Jones to split end Neal Clark. On the drive's eighth play, Hood scampered almost untouched up the middle for 33 yards and the go-ahead touchdown.

GEORGIA 49, KENTUCKY 27

October 26 at Athens ■ Attendance — 85,312

Freshman quarterback Eric Zeier threw for 302 yards and two touchdowns to the lead the Georgia Bulldogs to a 49-27 victory over the Kentucky Wildcats before a crowd of 85,312 at Sanford Stadium.

Zeier completed 19 of 23 passes on the afternoon, including touchdown strikes of 22 yards to Arthur Marshall and six yards to Andre' Hastings. Both of his TD passes came in a wild second quarter as both teams combined to score 48 points, including 27 points in the final 2:45 of the half.

The Bulldogs built a 14-0 lead early in the second quarter, thanks to an 11-yard run by Mack Strong and the 22-yard toss from Zeier to Marshall. Kentucky closed the gap to 14-7 with 12:52 remaining in the second period when backup quarterback Ryan Hockman found tailback Clyde Rudolph in the left flat. Rudolph then raced 52 yards down the left sideline for the touchdown.

The contest went back-and-forth for the next two periods as each Georgia score was answered by a Kentucky score and vice versa. Strong got his second TD of the day on a three-yard run with 9:55 left in the first half to make the count, 21-7. The Wildcats countered later in the period to start a wild offensive display in the final three minutes.

Kentucky tailback Craig Walker got things started with a two-yard scoring dive. PK Doug Pelfrey had his PAT attempt blocked, so Kentucky trailed 21-13 with 2:45 to go.

Runningback Garrison Hearst quickly tallied for the Bulldogs, capping a 72-yard drive in three plays with a 32-yard run. A 26-yard pass from Zeier to Hastings helped set up the dash by Hearst as Georgia led 28-13 at the 2:01 mark. UK quarterback Pookie Jones brought the Wildcats back, ending a 72-yard march in six plays with a 13-yard toss to split end Neal Clark. The PAT by Pelfrey made it 28-20 with 39 seconds showing.

But Georgia wasn't finished. Three consecutive pass completions by Zeier put the Bulldogs in scoring position. With three seconds left, Zeier hit Hastings in the right corner of the end zone for the six-yard score to give Georgia a 35-20 advantage at halftime.

Kentucky again sliced the lead to eight points midway in the third quarter. Jones, who completed 10 of 12 passes for 120 yards and two scores, directed the Wildcats on a 75-yard scoring drive. The scoring march was capped by a 21-yard toss from Jones to Rudolph, closing the gap to 35-27 with 4:42 left in the third stanza.

It was as close as the Wildcats would get as Hearst scored on a seven-yard run late in the third and Larry Ware added a 20-yard scamper early in the fourth quarter to put the game out of reach.

KENTUCKY 20, CINCINNATI 17

November 2 at Lexington ■ Attendance — 45,850

Kicker Doug Pelfrey booted a game-winning 53-yard field goal as time expired to give the Kentucky Wildcats a 20-17 Homecoming victory over the Cincinnati Bearcats in chilly Commonwealth Stadium.

Pelfrey's kick tied the UK record for longest field goal, a mark which he set earlier in the season against Indiana, and gave the Wildcats their eighth consecutive Homecoming victory. But for Pelfrey, his game-winning kick was not the only cause for celebration on this day. Earlier in the afternoon, his girlfriend Carla Wilson had been crowned UK's Homecoming Queen.

The Wildcats began their game-winning march following a 24-yard field goal by David Rowe with just 22 seconds remaining. The Bearcats had to settle for the field goal and 17-17 tie at that point due to an illegal procedure penalty after UC had reached the Wildcats two.

Reserve tailback Matt Riazzi took the kickoff at the UK 26 and returned the football 11 yards to the 37 as 17 seconds remained. Immediately, Kentucky was flagged for illegal procedure and forced to move back five yards to the UK 32. On first down, backup quarterback Ryan Hockman connected with split end Neal Clark on a tipped pass which covered 22 yards. The Wildcats called their third and final timeout with six seconds left and the football sitting on the UC 46.

On the next play, Hockman drilled split end Tim Calvert on a sideline pattern. Calvert quickly stepped out of bounds at the UC 36 to stop the clock with but one tick remaining and setting the stage for Pelfrey.

Pelfrey drilled the 53-yard field goal as the horn sounded to give Kentucky the victory and snapping a four-game losing streak.

Cincinnati had built a 14-0 lead in the first half on scoring runs by Mike Britford (four yards) and Vince Powell (20). Kentucky got on the scoreboard just before halftime as Hockman hit Clark on a seven-yard toss in the left corner of the end zone to make the count 14-7 at halftime.

Pelfrey added a 30-yard field goal midway through the third quarter, cutting the deficit to 14-10. Then on the opening play of the fourth quarter, UK cornerback Adrian Sherwood picked up a fumble by Powell and returned the miscue 54 yards down the left sideline for the go-ahead touchdown. Pelfrey added the PAT and UK led 17-14.

1991 Kentucky Game-by-Game

Vanderbilt 17, Kentucky 7

November 9 at Nashville ■ Attendance — 40,168

The Vanderbilt Commodores played "keep away" from the Kentucky Wildcats on this crisp afternoon at Vanderbilt Stadium. And in the process, the Commodores scored their fourth consecutive victory by taking a 17-7 Southeastern Conference decision over the Wildcats before a crowd of 40,168.

A quick glance at several numbers gives an indication to just how good Vanderbilt and its "I-Bone" offense was in keeping the football away from Kentucky. The Commodores owned the football one and one-half quarters longer (41:51 to 18:09) than the Wildcats. Vanderbilt also held advantages in first downs (25-12), total yards (431-216) and offensive plays (79-48). Individually, the Commodores placed two runners with over 100 yards rushing — Corey Harris (157) and Marcus Wilson (107).

Despite the above numbers, Kentucky hung around. The Wildcats trailed just 3-0 at halftime and later 10-0 after three periods. Vanderbilt, however, put the game on ice early in the fourth period with a short, 16-yard drive as a result of a Pookie Jones fumble. Wilson lifted the Commodores to a 17-0 lead with 12:14 left on a two-yard keeper to diminish any UK comeback hopes.

The Commodores took a 3-0 lead into halftime, getting a 20-yard field goal from Jeff Owen as time expired in the first half. The kick capped a 76-yard scoring drive in 13 plays and eating up the last 4:36 of the second quarter. Carlos Thomas provided a spark in the march with a 21-yard run up the middle.

After an exchange of punts to open the third quarter, Wilson directed an impressive 94-yard drive to put Vandy up 10-0 with 1:11 left in the period. The drive took 18 plays and just over 11 minutes as Wilson scored on a five-yard run. Wilson accounted for 55 yards in the march, including 18 on a key third-and-long pass play to Clarence Sevillian.

After Wilson gave Vandy its 17-0 cushion, Kentucky threatened on its next two possessions. Backup quarterback Ryan Hockman led the Wildcats on both drives but each stalled on the Commodore 24. One ended on a fourth-down incomplete pass and the other when cornerback Robert Davis picked off a Hockman toss.

Kentucky did manage to cut the deficit to 17-7 with 59 seconds left. Hockman drove the Wildcats 75 yards in eight plays, culminating with a 28-yard TD strike to flanker Kurt Johnson. In the drive, Hockman connected with split end Neal Clark for two passes (17 and 10) and found Tim Calvert on a 20-yarder to set up the scoring toss.

Florida 35, Kentucky 26

November 16 at Gainesville ■ Attendance — 84,109

The Florida Gators captured their first official Southeastern Conference title with a thrilling 35-26 victory over the Kentucky Wildcats at sunny Florida Field before a crowd of 84,109.

Kentucky did its best at playing the "spoiler" on this afternoon, erasing a 28-3 deficit and pulling to within two, 28-26 with 7:53 left to play. But Florida showed why it was the 1991 SEC champion by marching 71 yards in 12 grueling plays to clinch the win as tailback Errict Rhett scored from two yards with only 2:22 remaining.

Florida quarterback Shane Matthews, who completed 26 of 39 passes for 362 yards, tossed three touchdown passes and caught a TD toss to stake the Gators to a comfortable 28-3 lead in the first half. His first scoring strike covered eight yards to receiver Aubrey Hill. He then found speedster Tre Everett for a pair of scores — 65 and 33 yards — before catching a 19-yard screen pass from receiver Alonzo Sullivan for a TD.

The Wildcats gained a bit of momentum as the first half ended when kicker Doug Pelfrey nailed his second field goal, this one from 40 yards, to make the count 28-6 at halftime. His 52-yarder put UK on the board at the 5:46 mark of the first quarter.

Kentucky owned most of the second half, thanks in part to forcing the Gators into turnovers on six consecutive drives. The first Wildcats scoring march was set up when defensive back Willie Cannon blocked a Shayne Edge punt giving UK the football on the Gator four. Three plays later, quarterback Pookie Jones sneaked in from one yard to make it 28-13 with 1:42 left in the third.

Cannon recovered a Gator fumble on the UK 15 on the ensuing drive and Jones promptly marched the Wildcats to another score. Two key completions from Jones to tailback Clyde Rudolph (22 yards) and split end Neal Clark (17 yards) kept the drive alive. Jones finished the march with an eight-yard run off an option-keeper to cut the deficit to 28-19 with 10:50 left. A two-point pass attempt failed.

Hit Don Robinson set up UK's next score. Robinson stepped in front of a Matthews pass on the Gators next drive and raced 53 yards to the UF 22 to give the Wildcats an excellent scoring opportunity. It took Jones just one play to find the end zone as he scrambled the 22 yards to paydirt. Pelfrey added the PAT and the Wildcats trailed by two, 28-26, with 7:53 left.

Florida overcame a first-and-26 situation from its own 13 following the kickoff. Matthews hit on three consecutive passes to give the Gators a first down. It sparked Florida as Rhett later scored the game-winner on the 12th play of the drive.

Kentucky still did not quit. When the game ended, Jones had directed the Wildcats to the Florida 11 as time expired.

1991 Kentucky Game-by-Game

Tennessee 16, Kentucky 7

November 23 at Lexington ■ Attendance — 57,125

Tennessee retained the Beer Barrel Trophy for the seventh consecutive year as the Volunteers held off the Kentucky Wildcats, 16-7, before a crowd 57,125 at Commonwealth Stadium.

Outstanding punting by UK's Bill Hawk and a gallant effort by the Wildcats defensive unit kept the contest close throughout. Hawk established a new school record for punting average (minimum five punts) against the Vols, averaging 56.5 yards on six punts. He had four punts of at least 60 yards, thanks in part to a 14 miles-per-hour wind, and a career-long 75-yarder. Defensively, Kentucky limited Tennessee to just 143 yards through the air and 355 overall.

The Wildcats let two golden scoring opportunities slip away in the first half. Kicker Doug Pelfrey could not convert on a 50-yard field goal and quarterback Pookie Jones fumbled with UK sitting on the Vol five to open the second quarter.

As a result, Tennessee got three field goals from John Becksvoort to take a 9-0 lead at halftime. Becksvoort knocked in a 22-yard field goal midway through the first quarter and added two (35 and 28) field goals in the second stanza.

The Volunteers received the kickoff to open the second half and promptly moved 65 yards in 10 plays to take a 16-0 lead. Tailback James Stewart, who accounted for 44 yards rushing in the drive, picked up the score on an eight-yard run off right tackle. Becksvoort added the PAT and Tennessee had a 16-point cushion with 9:47 left in the third period.

Backup quarterback Ryan Hockman sparked Kentucky to its lone score, beginning on the UK 20 late in the third quarter. Hockman connected with tight end Neil Page for a 13-yard gain to start the march. The key play of the drive was a 29-yard scramble by Hockman, who raced down the left sideline after being forced out of the pocket.

Tailback Craig Walker dove over for the touchdown from one yard to end the march, leaving the score 16-7 with 13:50 remaining in the contest.

From that point on, the Tennessee defense took over. Kentucky did not pick up a first down on three separate possessions down the stretch as the Volunteers secured the Beer Barrel Trophy once again.

The Southeastern Conference exclaimed another first during the 1990-91 academic year—the addition of Arkansas and South Carolina to the 10-team league—which marked the first invitations extended since the league's inception in 1933.

These 12 institutions head into the '90s with new-look league formats and scheduling. The SEC adopted an eight-game football schedule beginning in 1992. In addition, the 12 schools will divide into two, six-team divisions. And in football, the two division winners will square-off in a championship game on Dec. 5, 1992 at Birmingham.

Arkansas and South Carolina will become eligible for a football championship in the '92 campaign. Both institutions competed for all other league titles during the 1991-92 academic year.

The 12 universities of the Southeastern Conference began athletic competition with each other almost 100 years ago when most were members of the Southeastern Intercollegiate Athletics Association (SIAA). Seven institutions attended the SIAA organizational meeting of faculty representatives called by Dr. William L. Dudley of Vanderbilt in Atlanta on Dec. 22, 1894.

The seven-member SIAA expanded to 19 institutions in 1895 and by 1920 there were 30 members. The larger schools reorganized as the Southern Conference at a meeting in Gainesville, Fla., Dec. 12-13, 1920. Professor S.V. Sanford of Georgia called the meeting and served as the first president. Despite an original limit of 16, the membership grew to 23 by 1928. At one time or another the SIAA and the SC included most of the Southern colleges from Virginia to Texas.

The 13 members west and south of the Appalachian Mountains reorganized as the Southeastern Conference at the annual SC meeting of Dec. 8-9, 1932, in Knoxville, Tenn. The 10 coast members remained in the Southern Conference. Dr. Frank L. McVey of Kentucky was elected president of the new conference whose charter members were: Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Louisiana State, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt. (Sewanee withdrew Dec. 13, 1940, while Georgia Tech and Tulane followed on June 1, 1964, and June 1, 1966, respectively). McVey held an informal meeting of the school presidents Feb. 16, 1933, in Birmingham, Ala., then the first full meeting in Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 27.

The new SEC discovered both stature and stability by designating voting power to the presidents of the member institutions. They determined the policies of the league and through the years it has been the principal source of strength in the evolution of the league, with particular reference to eligibility regulations and academic requirements. The office of the commissioner was formed in 1940 in Jackson, Miss., due to the great amount of detail work developing, especially in recruiting and eligibility. Former Mississippi Governor Martin S. Conner took office as commissioner Aug. 21, 1940, as an extension of the authority of the presidents.

The office was moved to Birmingham, Ala., with the appointment of Bernie H. Moore as the second full-time commissioner on Feb. 21, 1948.

The conference office has remained in Birmingham ever since. In that span from 1946 to 1991, the SEC has had four commissioners—A.M. (Tonto) Coleman, Dr. H. Boyd McWhorter, Dr. Harvey W. Schiller and Roy F. Kramer.

Current commissioner Roy F. Kramer came into office in 1990. Kramer had spent the last 12 years as athletics director at Vanderbilt and had served on numerous NCAA committees.

The first SEC champions were crowned in 1933 in four sports (baseball, basketball, football and outdoor track). The league's inaugural championship event a basketball tournament held Feb. 24-28, 1933, in Atlanta, Ga. Records show the first men's team title for cross-country was awarded in 1935, while golf and swimming were added in 1937. The league later began hosting championships in tennis (1953) and indoor track (1957).

In 1973-74 the SEC first awarded the Bernie Moore Trophy, symbolic of the league's premier men's athletic program. Points are awarded based on the member institutions' conference finish in all sports.

In the 1979-80 academic year SEC championships for women were recognized in basketball, tennis and volleyball. The following year golf, gymnastics, swimming and track and field were added. The administration of women's athletics officially came under the auspices of the conference office on Sept. 1, 1984. A women's all-sports champion has been awarded every year since 1983-84.

As the SEC continues its seventh decade of competition in 1992, the conference regulates nine sports for both its men's and women's programs as follows:

Men - baseball, basketball, football, golf, swimming, tennis and track (cross country, indoor and outdoor).

Women - basketball, golf, gymnastics, swimming, tennis, track (cross country, indoor and outdoor) and volleyball.

SEC Announces Divisions/Scheduling Formats

The presidents of the new-look Southeastern Conference voted on Nov. 29, 1990, to adopt an eight-game football schedule beginning in 1992.

Arkansas and South Carolina, added Aug. 1, 1990, and Sept. 25, 1990 respectively, have extended the SEC from 10 to 12 teams. Both Arkansas and South Carolina will compete for the league championship in football beginning in '92. As a result, the conference will now be divided into two divisions — East and West. The East division has Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, South Carolina, Tennessee and Vanderbilt. The West divisionincludes Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, LSU, Ole Miss and Mississippi State.

The football schedule, which will feature a championship game on Dec. 5, 1992, between divisional winners, is set for Birmingham's Legion Field. A 5-2-1 scheduling format in league games will allow each school to play all five of its divisional opponents along with two permanent opponents and one rotating opponent for the other division every year. Below are the non-divisional permanent opponents for each school:

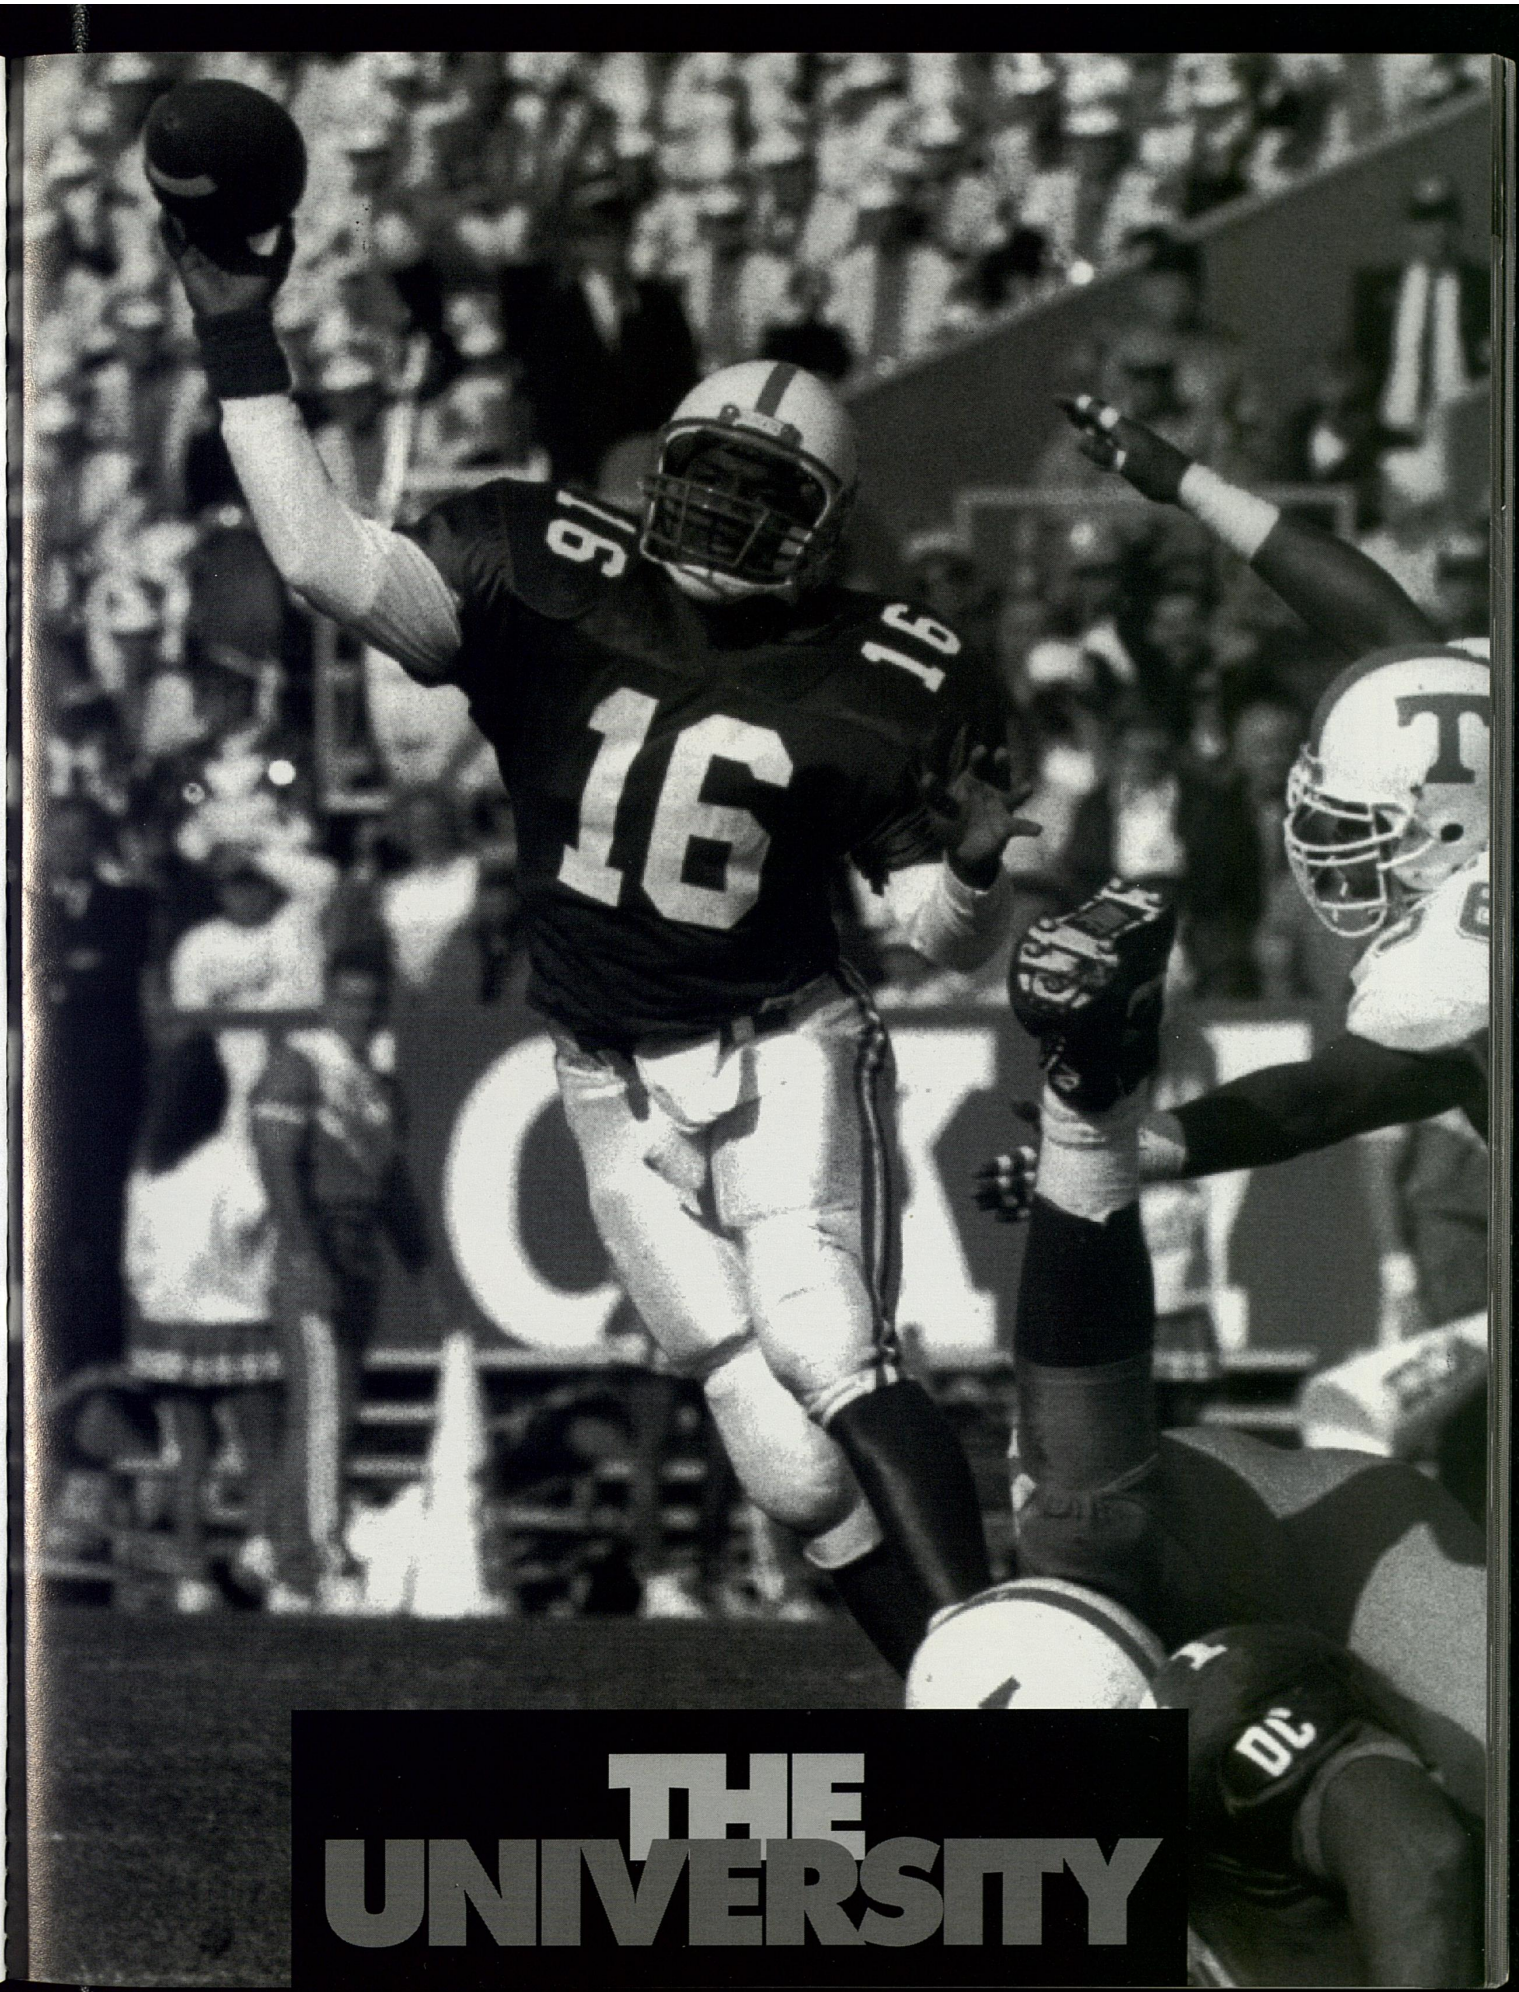

East Division
Florida (Auburn, LSU)
Georgia (Ole Miss, Auburn)
Kentucky (LSU, Mississippi State)
South Carolina (Mississippi State, Arkansas)
Tennessee (Arkansas, Alabama)
Vanderbilt (Alabama, Ole Miss)

West Division
Alabama (Tennessee, Vanderbilt)
Arkansas (South Carolina, Tennessee)
Auburn (Georgia, Florida)
LSU (Florida, Kentucky)
Ole Miss (Vanderbilt, Georgia)
Mississippi State (Kentucky, South Carolina)

The remaining four non-divisional opponents will be played on a rotating basis, ensuring an institution will play every conference member at least twice during an eight-year period.

THE UNIVERSITY

THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

From its modest beginnings in 1865, when it was known as State College, the University of Kentucky has grown into one of the nation's most outstanding institutions of higher learning. As a comprehensive land-grant university, UK offers an educational experience that cannot be matched anywhere in the Commonwealth.

In fact, only a small number of institutions across the nation can offer the wealth of opportunities that awaits students at UK. At Kentucky, there is a tradition of value.

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY FACTS

History

UK was founded in 1865 as a land-grant institution, and the present name dates to 1916. The Lexington campus has 673 acres. Dr. Charles T. Wethington, Jr., is UK's 10th president.

Students

The University of Kentucky now has more than 70,000 students with 24,000 on the Lexington campus and 46,000 at the 14 community colleges across the state. UK now educates 38 percent of all students in Kentucky attending a public or private college or university. There are 5,000 students now enrolled in graduate school with 92 master's and 57 doctoral programs offered.

Faculty

There are 1,566 full-time faculty on the Lexington campus and another 1,050 faculty in the community colleges. Faculty brought in more than $80 million in grants, contracts and gifts to the University during the last academic year, a 15 percent increase over the previous year.

Academic Programs

Currently, there are 17 academic colleges and a graduate school. Students have a choice of 108 undergraduate majors from which to choose. The University is recommended in five publications for its value in providing higher education.

Research

UK ranks among the Top 100 research institutions in the nation, and is one of only 45 public universities in the United States - the only one in Kentucky - to be classified as a Research University of the First Class.

Medical Center

The Albert B. Chandler Medical Center, including a 461-bed hospital, is located on the Lexington campus. Over 2,700 students are enrolled in its five colleges - medicine, dentistry, nursing, pharmacy, and allied health professions.

Library

The UK Library System contains more than two million volumes and is inter-connected by computer with each of the 14 community colleges. The library is ranked 53rd among all university research libraries in the U.S. and the University has announced a fund-raising campaign to build a new $58 million state-of-the-art library.

Sports

With the addition of men's and women's soccer last year, the current number of UK sports on the varsity level is 19 — 9 men's sports, 9 women's sports, and 1 coed sport. The men's sports consist of football, basketball, baseball, cross country, indoor/outdoor track, tennis, swimming, golf, and soccer. For the women, UK sponsors basketball, volleyball, swimming, golf, tennis, gymnastics, cross country, indoor/outdoor track, and soccer on the varsity level. The single coed sport is rifle.

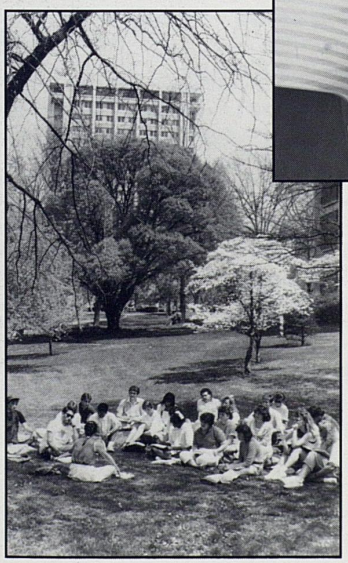

The UK's men basketball team has been prominent nationally for 50 years under the leadership of four coaches, ranging from Adolph Rupp to Rick Pitino. The UK football program also offers the excitement of top-level competition in the Southeastern Conference and is headed by Coach Bill Curry.

CHARLES T. WETHINGTON, UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Charles T. Wethington Jr., was elected the 10th president of the University of Kentucky on September 18, 1990.

Wethington began his career in higher education in 1965 as an educational psychology instructor on the Lexington campus of the University and two years later when he was named chief administrator of Maysville Community College. In 1971 he moved to Lexington as assistant vice president, becoming vice president of the Community College System in 1981.

In the University reorganization of 1982 he was named chancellor of the UK Community College system, one of the three major sectors of UK. In 1987 he was given university-wide responsibilities for public and governmental relations in addition to his community college role, and his title was changed to Chancellor for the Community College System and University Relations.

Wethington earned his master's and doctorate degrees at the University of Kentucky.

The Kentucky native has been active on the national higher education scene. He has been a member of the Executive Council of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools' Commission on Colleges, and served as its vice chairman in 1984. He served as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools from 1986-1989.

Wethington is a member of the Southern Regional Education Board and its Executive Committee and currently serves as vice chairman. He currently serves as vice president of the Southeastern Conference Presidents' group.

During 1957-61 he served in the U. S. Air Force Security Service. He studied Russian at Syracuse University, 1958-59.

Wethington is married to the former Judy Woodrow Wethington, from Danville. They have a son, Kennan, and a daughter, Lisa.

C.M. Newton, UK Director of Athletics

When Charles Martin (C. M.) Newton became the University of Kentucky's seventh Director of Athletics on April 1, 1989, he hit the ground running.

After a little more than three years on the job, Newton has become one of the most popular public figures in the Commonwealth of Kentucky. In addition to a lengthy, impressive list of credentials, Newton brought to Kentucky a sparkling reputation of integrity at a crucial time in the history of UK Athletics. In accepting the position at his alma mater, Newton summarized his goals and objectives by saying, "I have a resolve to try very hard to continue that great tradition, and at the same time, to totally do it within the NCAA and SEC rules and not sacrifice the academic integrity of this University."

Newton capped an illustrious basketball coaching career by leading his final Vanderbilt University team to a 19-14 record, a second-place SEC finish and its second consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance during the 1988-89 season. He was named SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and also received the Kodak NABC District IV Coach of the Year award. Newton served as head basketball coach and associate athletics director at the Nashville school from 1982 to 1989, compiling a 129-115 record. In 32 years of coaching at Transylvania, Alabama and Vanderbilt, Newton compiled a 509-375 record overall, ranking among the top 10 active coaches in the game in terms of total victories. His Alabama teams won three consecutive Southeastern Conference championships.

Perhaps more impressive, however, was Newton's ability to produce winning teams that also possessed exceptional academic credentials. During Newton's tenure at Vanderbilt, 18 Commodores were named to the Academic All-SEC team, over 50 percent more than any other league school. And including his last graduating class, all 21 seniors received their diplomas.

Newton is highly regarded on the national level. He has served on the board of directors of the National Association of Basketball Coaches. He worked six years on the NCAA Basketball Rules Committee, serving as chairman of that elite group for five of those years. He currently serves as vice president of USA Basketball, the nation's governing body for international basketball, and as chairman of its Games Committee, which is responsible for all international competition, including the Olympic Games.

Newton has literally circled the globe to promote the game of basketball. He served as team manager, a combination coaching and administrative position, on the 1984 U.S. Olympic team that won the gold medal. Indiana coach Bob Knight, who tabbed Newton for the Olympic staff, called him "the finest gentleman in our business." In 1983 and 1987, Newton took his Vanderbilt squads to the Republic of China (Taiwan) to represent the United States in the R. William Jones Cup International Tournament, winning the gold medal in 1983 and the silver in 1987. He has also conducted coaching clinics in numerous countries.

Newton began his coaching career at Transylvania College (now Transylvania University) in Lexington. Recommended for the job by Coach Rupp, Newton guided Transy to a 169-137 record in his 12 years at the helm despite the handicap of a limited scholarship program.

In 1969, once again with the backing of Rupp, Newton answered a call from Paul "Bear" Bryant to take on the challenge of building the downtrodden Alabama basketball program. During his 12-year tenure, Newton orchestrated a complete turnaround in the Crimson Tide's basketball fortunes, compiling a sparkling 211- 123 record. In addition to the three SEC championships, Newton guided the Tide to two trips to the NCAA Tournament and four berths in the NIT. A satisfied Bryant once remarked "C. M. Newton is a winner, and that's important, but more than anything else, he wins or loses with class, and that's more important."

With few horizons left to conquer at Alabama, Newton resigned at the end of the 1980 season to accept a job as assistant commissioner of the Southeastern Conference. A year later, when Vanderbilt athletics director Roy Kramer was searching for a coach of national stature to head the Commodore basketball program, Newton was the obvious man for the job.

Newton was born Feb. 2, 1930, in Rockwood, Tenn. He grew up in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., where he was eventually named a charter member of that city's Sports Hall of Fame, along with Chris Evert, Julius Boros, and the late Brian Piccolo. After high school, Newton enrolled at UK on a basketball scholarship. He was a letterman on the Wildcats' 1951 national championship team. Also a standout baseball pitcher, Newton hurled in the New York Yankees minor league system before entering college coaching.

Newton and his wife, Evelyn, have three grown children — son Martin, and daughters Deborah and Tracy — and four grandchildren.

UKAA Administrative Staff

JOHN BOSTICK
Assistant Director of Athletics/Compliance

John Bostick is in his fourth year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association as Assistant Athletics Director for Compliance.

Bostick, a native of Winfield, Ala., was named to his post on June 1, 1989. Prior to that, he had spent eight years as an assistant basketball coach at Vanderbilt University under C. M. Newton.

In all, Bostick was an assistant coach under Newton for 20 years (12 at Alabama, eight at Vanderbilt). He has spent 32 years as a coach on either the high school or collegiate level. His head coaching record in the prep ranks was 178-102 in 10 seasons.

Bostick, who earned his bachelor's degree from Florence State in 1957, earned a master's degree from Alabama in 1969. He picked up 11 varsity letters during his collegiate playing days, which is a school record at Florence State (four in baseball and basketball, three in football). He was inducted into the University of North Alabama Athletics Hall of Fame in 1991.

Bostick served as an officer in the U.S. army in 1957-58. He served as head football coach of the VII Corps Jayhawks in Germany in 1957, and as backfield coach of the Ft. Benning Doughboys in 1958.

He is married to the former Betty Cotton of Florence, Ala.

BOB BRADLEY
Assistant Director of Athletics/Academics

Bob Bradley is in his 15th year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association, coming aboard in 1977.

Bradley, a native of Hornell, N.Y., supervises all academic affairs regarding the UK Athletics program, including the operation of the CATS (Center for Academic and Tutorial Services) Center. He has also instituted a career development program for UK student-athletes.

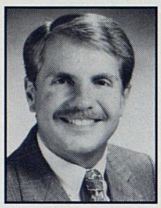

During Bradley's tenure, UK student-athletes have consistently been honored for their academic achievements, both on a conference and national level. In 1989, the UK football program won the College Football Association's prestigious Academic Achievement Award, given to the University with the highest graduation rate among its football players over a five-year period. UK received Honorable Mention status in 1991.

Last year, the University of Kentucky placed more student-athletes on the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll (63) than any league school.

Bradley graduated from Hornell High School and earned his degree at Salem College in 1971. He earned his Master's degree in 1972 from the University of Kentucky in educational psychology and counseling. He is a past president of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletes (NYA).

Prior to joining the UKAA staff, he served as coordinator of career counseling and director of financial aid for the Lexington Technical Institute.

Bradley is the son of Delores Bradley and the late Charles Bradley of Hornell. He is married to the former Robin Stewart.

CHRIS CAMERON
Assistant Director of Athletics/Communications

Chris Cameron is in his fifth year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association. He was named Assistant Athletics Director for Communications in April of 1991 after serving as Sports Information Director for three years.

Cameron, a native of Ashland, directs all public relations efforts for UK's 19 varsity sports, as well as day-to-day operation of the UK Sports Information office. He has served as a media coordinator for several Southeastern Conference and NCAA championship events, including the 1989 NCAA Southeast Regional, the United States Olympic Festival and the Kentucky Derby. His publications have won numerous national awards, including a "Best in the Nation" award for the 1991-92 Wildcats basketball media guide. He is a former national chairman for the CoSIDA/GTE Academic All-America program, and a former member of the CoSIDA publications committee.

Cameron is a 1982 UK graduate, where he was a student assistant in the SID office for three years. He served as assistant and associate sports information director, then director of promotions at the University of Florida from 1982 to 1987. He was communications director at Production Ink, a Gainesville, Fla., public relations firm, from 1987 to 1988.

KATHY DeBOER
Assistant Director of Athletics/Individual & Selected Team Sports

Kathy DeBoer is in her seventh year as Assistant Athletics Director at the University of Kentucky.

DeBoer, who doubles as the women's volleyball coach, supervises the operation and administration of non-revenue sports at UK.

In eight years at Kentucky, DeBoer has led her Wildcats volleyball squads to an impressive 187-87 record, including three Southeastern Conference titles, two SEC Tournament championships, and the 1991 National Invitational Volleyball Championship. DeBoer, the 1987 Tachikara National Coach of the Year, has taken UK to the NCAA Final Eight in 1987 and the NCAA Final 16 in 1988 and 1990. Several of her assistants have moved on to head coaching positions at other Division I schools, including Mary Wise at Florida, Sharon Dingman at Butler, and Nona Richardson at Eastern Michigan.

DeBoer spent four seasons as volleyball coach at Ferris State University prior to coming to UK. She led Ferris State to a pair of Great Lakes Conference championships.

DeBoer received her bachelor's degree from Michigan State in 1978 and finished her MBA at Kentucky in 1988.

GENE DEFILIPPO
Associate Director of Athletics/External Affairs

Gene DeFilippo is in his sixth year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

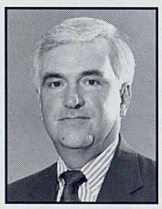

DeFilippo, a native of Florence, Mass., was named Assistant Athletics Director for Marketing, Promotions and Fundraising in January, 1987 and promoted to Associate Athletics Director in 1989. His main responsibilities include all marketing, licensing, and promotional matters concerning UK Athletics and fundraising as director of the Blue-White Fund.

During DeFilippo's tenure, private donations to the Athletics Association have increased from $850,000 a year to more than $2.1 million. DeFilippo was also instrumental in fundraising to pay for the $1.26 million renovation of Memorial Coliseum and the $600,000 scoreboard at Commonwealth Stadium. He also headed the fundraising for UK's new indoor practice facility.

He earned his undergraduate degree and graduated with cum laude honors from Springfield College in 1973. The following year, he served as a graduate assistant coach at Tennessee, where he earned his Master's degree in educational administration (1974).

DeFilippo served as football offensive coordinator from 1975-79 at Youngstown (Ohio) State, then was an assistant coach at Vanderbilt the next three years. He moved from coaching to administrative assistant at Vanderbilt under athletics director Roy Kramer. After two years, he was named director of athletics at the University of South Carolina at Spartanburg.

He and his wife, Anne, have three children — Christine, John and Mary.

LARRY IVY
Associate Director of Athletics/Internal Affairs

Larry Ivy is in his 16th year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association. He was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Internal Affairs in 1989 after serving as Assistant AD for 13 years.

Ivy, a native of Huntsville, Ala., joined the University of Kentucky in 1969 as Director of Student Housing, moving from the University of Alabama. He joined the UKAA staff in 1976. He is responsible for all activity related to the internal affairs of the Association, including the ticket office, accounting, payroll, purchasing, data processing, facilities, maintenance and grounds.

Aside from those duties, Ivy serves as game manager for all UK home basketball games. He has also served as tournament manager for the 1985 NCAA Final Four, 1982 and 1986 Southeastern Conference Basketball Tournaments, and five NCAA Mideast/Southeast Regionals (1977, '80, '84, '89, '92). He currently serves as chairman of the SEC Basketball Tournament ticket committee.

Ivy earned his undergraduate degree (1967) and MBA (1968) from the University of Alabama. He is married to the former Lorain Darnell of Paducah. He has one daughter, Kim.

1991-92 UK ATHLETICS REVIEW

With the goal of producing a broad-based, competitive athletics program that exudes class and keeps the student-athlete at its heart, UK coaches and administrators successfully achieved success on the field and in the classroom.

In the classroom, the success was obvious. Sixty-three University of Kentucky student-athletes were named to the Southeastern Conference's Academic Honor Roll, giving UK more selections to the prestigious team than any league school.

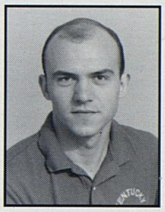

And in athletics, several UK teams and individuals reaped the rewards of their hard work. Four Wildcats teams — men's basketball (sixth), women's golf (17th), men's tennis (tie for fifth), and women's tennis (19th) finished in the nation's top 20. Another, the women's volleyball team, won the National Invitational Volleyball Championship.

UK FOOTBALL

The E.J. Nutter Training Facility

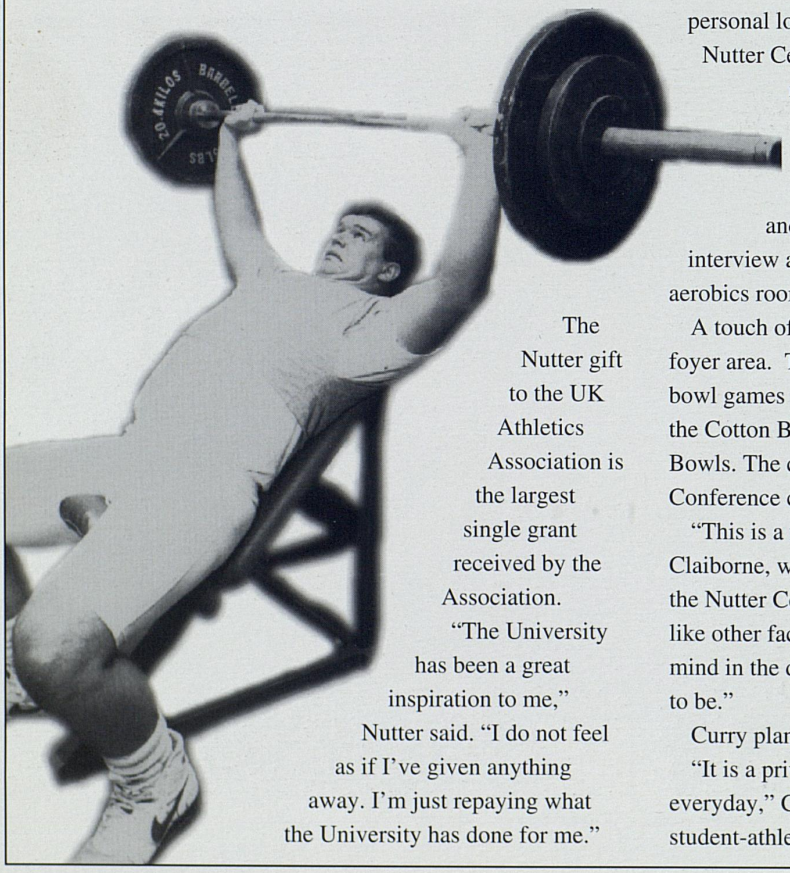

One of the nation's showcase football facilities rests on the southeast corner of the University of Kentucky campus.

The ultra-modern E.J. Nutter Football Training Facility ranks among the best in the country, bar-none. Built at a cost of $5.7 million, the facility officially became the home of Kentucky Wildcat Football in September 1987.

The Nutter Center, as it is called on the UK campus, encompasses over 48,000 square feet and is built adjacent to the Shively Sports Complex. It is located on Sports Center Drive, just a rock's throw away from Commonwealth Stadium.

"I have not seen everyone's new facilities, but the Nutter Center is the finest that I have seen," UK coach Bill Curry says. "It is the best planned and the most spacious facility I know of. Combined with our spacious practice area, the Nutter Center gives us the most beautiful football complex that I have ever been associated with."

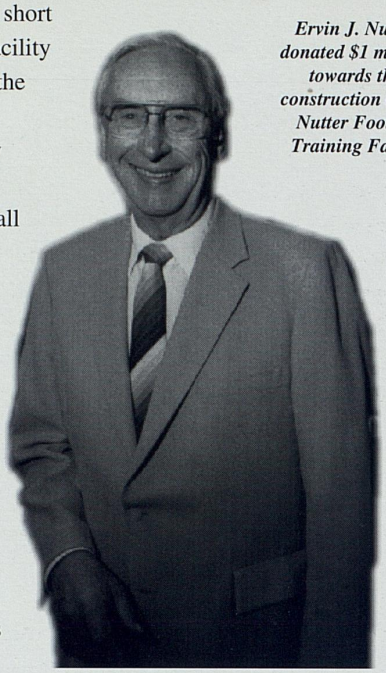

The new Wildcat facility is named after Ervin J. Nutter, a UK alumnus who contributed one million dollars to get the fund-raising campaign started for construction to begin.

The Nutter gift to the UK Athletics Association is the largest single grant received by the Association.

"The University has been a great inspiration to me," Nutter said. "I do not feel as if I've given anything away. I'm just repaying what the University has done for me."

Now, just five short years after the facility was completed, the Nutter Center is beginning to pay dividends to the Kentucky Football Program.

Ervin J. Nutter donated $1 million towards the construction of the Nutter Football Training Facility.

"It definitely helped us in recruiting," former UK coach Jerry Claiborne said. "Of course, the number one thing in recruiting is winning, but this beautiful facility will really amaze you."

Aside from new dressing facilities which feature large, personal lockers for every Kentucky football player, the Nutter Center is highlighted by a 9,000 square foot weight room. The weight room has over 100,000 pounds of equipment alone. The Nutter Center also has 11 meeting rooms, a state-of-the-art video and editing room for coaches' film, equipment and training rooms, staff and player lounges, an interview area, a 60-yard sprint track, sauna and jacuzzi, an aerobics room, and three raquetball courts.

A touch of Kentucky Football history is on display in the foyer area. The memorabilia case holds UK trophies from bowl games such as the Great Lakes Bowl, the Sugar Bowl, the Cotton Bowl, the Peach Bowl and the Hall of Fame Bowls. The case displays the 1950 and 1976 Southeastern Conference championship trophies which the Wildcats earned.

"This is a facility built with the players in mind," said Claiborne, who helped spearhead the financial drive to make the Nutter Center possible. "It does not have coaches' offices like other facilities. Instead, we had the student-athlete in mind in the design and planning and that's how we wanted it to be."

Curry plans no changes in that respect.

"It is a priviledge to get to work in a facility such as this everyday," Curry said. "The planning and design with the student-athletes at heart is what we're about today.

THE E.J. NUTTER TRAINING FACILITY

"Jerry Claiborne's most important accomplishments during his eight years at Kentucky were in the human arena. But his picture, which hangs in the Nutter Center, is a reminder to us just how much he loved this University. For Jerry and Mr. Nutter and the other contributors who helped make this facility possible, they have left a legacy that will surely be exciting to build on."

Nutter, a graduate of Hamilton (Ohio) High School, participated in the ground-breaking ceremonies in August 1986. Nutter entered the UK College of Engineering following high school and worked his way through college as an electrician. He left UK before graduation and passed the State of Ohio's examination for stationary engineers, becoming the youngest licensed stationary engineer in the state.

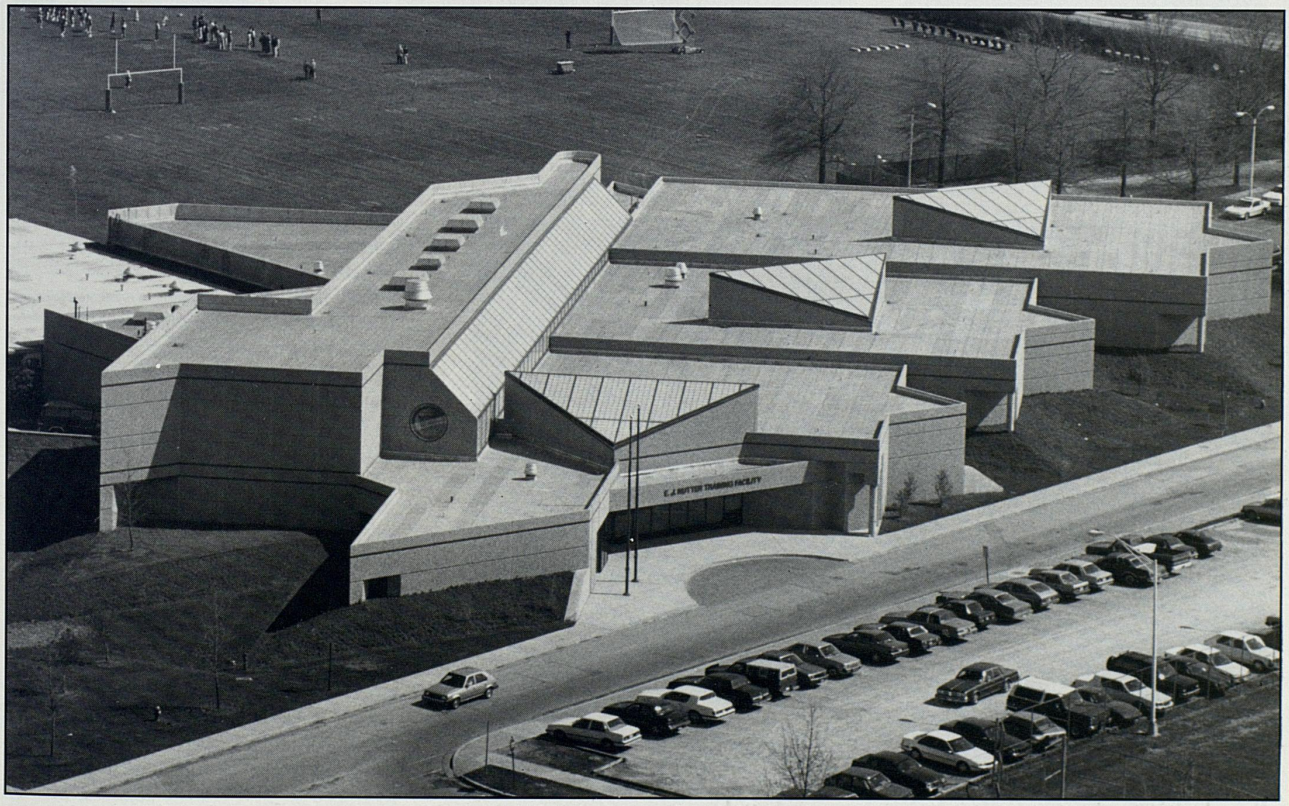

He worked three years for Proctor & Gamble's Power Division before returning to UK to receive his bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering in 1943.

After serving with distinction with the engineering division at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Nutter became president of Elano Corporation. He later became president of Acme Screw Products of Dayton, Ohio.

While the unprecedented gift represents Nutter's love for the UK athletics program, his love for the University as a whole is well documented. Nutter served two terms (1966-68) as president of the UK National Alumni Association and four years recently as chairman of the UK Development Council Board.

Another important part in building the Nutter Center was the donation of $300,000 by Seth Hancock, a central Kentucky horseman. Hancock also played a key role in raising the necessary dollars for the facility as chairman of the united effort to raise $2.7 million from private donors.

The ceremonial dedication of the Nutter Center took place on Sept. 11, 1987, with Nutter, Hancock, Claiborne, Cliff Hagan (then UK athletics director), and Otis Singletary (former UK president) all in attendance.

The Nutter Center is over 48,000 square feet in size.

CATS Center

"We are extremely proud of what we have accomplished in the academic arena".

The University of Kentucky continues to keep the term "student-athlete" in the proper prospective — student first, athlete second.

For that reason, the University of Kentucky opened the nation's first academic center for student-athletes in 1981. The academic center is known as the Center for Academic and Tutorial Services or simply "CATS".

CATS is located inside Memorial Coliseum. The center, specifically designed with the student-athlete in mind, contains a large general study area along with numerous smaller rooms used for tutoring. CATS expanded during the past academic year and added a language library, additional tutoring rooms, a media center and a new computer facility.

"Our CATS is one of the best academic services in the land and that's based on results," UK coach Bill Curry said. "For Kentucky to be up there with Duke and Virginia and Notre Dame is a real tribute to first, the student-athletes, but also to our academic support staff headed by Bob Bradley."

What Curry is refering to when talking about Duke, Virginia, and Notre Dame is the annual College Football Association award which goes out to the institution with the highest graduation rate for 1-A football programs. The award, named the CFA Academic Achievement Award, was given to Kentucky in 1989 for graduating 90 percent of its incoming 1983 freshman class. Prior to 1991, Kentucky was the only other school to win the award outside that trio.

"We get more response from parents who visit us on the CATS program than any other part of our program," Curry says. "Parents are really excited about it."

Curry is also excited about the combined effort former UK coach Jerry Claiborne and his staff put forth as well. Since 1980, Kentucky has placed 97 players on the All-Southeastern Conference Honor Roll which is more than any league school in that period. In 1989, the Wildcats set a new league record with 17 players named to the SEC Honor Roll.

"With winning the CFA award and leading the SEC in Honor Roll picks, it certainly let everyone know we were serious and still are serious about making sure our athletes receive their degree," Claiborne said.

Bob Bradley, Assistant Athletics Director for Academics, supervises the CATS program. Bradley is assisted by Barbara Deniston, Director of Student-Athlete Development, her assistant, Sheila Breeding, and two Academic Counselors, Mike Jenkins and Mike Haley. CATS also employs six graduate assistants and numerous tutors, both from the University and surrounding community. Currently, the UKAA budgets close to $500,000 per year for CATS.

"We are extremely proud of what we have accomplished in the academic arena," Bradley says. "The CATS program is focused on winning in the classroom. We look at each student-athlete's individual needs, set goals and develop strategies to attain those goals. Our Center (CATS) provides our student-athletes with a definite advantage over student-athletes at many other institutions. Our goal is to show that we care about the student as well as the athlete."

Bradley also says its helps to have head coaches like Claiborne and Curry that place such a strong emphasis on academics.

"Many support systems across the nation do an excellent job at helping their student-athletes," Bradley said. "I have been blessed at Kentucky in having Jerry Claiborne. He really believed in the student-athlete concept. The same holds true for Bill Curry. We are in total sync in the business of educating our student-athletes."

The philosophy at the University of Kentucky is this: Colleges should be able to afford the student-athlete with every opportunity to succeed not only in athletics, but in academics as well. Looking at recent statistics in Academic Honor Roll selections and graduation rates, Kentucky is standing by its philosophy.

"We will continue to support our academic staff to the hilt," Curry said. "We're very excited about the work Bob Bradley and his staff have done. We will not accept anything less from our players. We talk about championship performance, we expect championship academics, too."

At UK, CATS will certainly play an instrumental part in keeping student-athletes at championship performance in the classroom and on the field.

124 Wildcats Achieve 3.0 GPA During '92 Spring

Eighteen University of Kentucky student-athletes have been named to the Athletics Director's Honor Roll for achieving the highest grade point average in their respective sports for the 1992 spring semester, according to Athletics Director C. M. Newton. In addition, Newton announced that six student-athletes achieved a perfect 4.0 average for the spring semester, and that a total of 124 achieved an average of 3.0 or above.

"As always, we are proud to honor these student-athletes for their achievements," Newton says. "They have successfully balanced their academic pursuits with their athletic endeavors."

COMMONWEALTH STADIUM

"Aesthetically, Commonwealth Stadium is the prettiest in America".

When it comes to football, Kentucky-style, there is certainly no better place than home — Commonwealth Stadium.

Beautiful Commonwealth Stadium, built in 1973, is one of the nation's showcases for football arenas. The stadium is located on the southeast corner of the University of Kentucky campus, convenient to both Cooper and Alumni Drives.

Commonwealth Stadium was built at a cost of $12 million by the firm of Huber, Hunt and Nichols, Inc. The stadium, including parking areas, rests on an 86-acre plot of what was once the UK Experimental Station Farm grounds.

"Aesthetically, Commonwealth Stadium is the prettiest in America", UK coach Bill Curry said. "I've always thought this since I first witnessed a game here in 1975 as a pro scout."

"In just a year's time, I learned there is simply not another place I'd rather be on a Football Saturday than Commonwealth Stadium. The atmosphere, especially on a Saturday night, is magical and very conducive to winning. It's an ideal college setting."

The stadium took on a new look in 1990 with the addition of a $600,000 scoreboard and message center located in the North end zone. The scoreboard is 19 by 78 feet in size, almost 3.5 times the size (12 by 19) of the original scoreboards which had been in place since 1973.

The stadium was officially opened on Sept. 15, 1973, as the Wildcats moved into their new home after spending 48 years at Stoll Field/McLean Stadium across from Memorial Coliseum. Kentucky defeated Virginia Tech in the stadium-opener, 31-26, as quarterback Ernie Lewis accounted for three touchdowns to lead the Wildcats.

Since its opening, Kentucky has played 119 games within the friendly confines of Commonwealth Stadium. And indeed, a 68-47-4 record and a .588 winning percentage can attest Commonwealth is a "home-field advantage" for the Wildcats.

Excellent attendance figures have also gone hand-in-hand with Kentucky football and Commonwealth Stadium. The Wildcats have averaged 55,183 spectators in the 119 contests at Commonwealth since its inception. In fact, 6,566,789 spectators have witnessed Kentucky football at Commonwealth Stadium — that's approximately 1.7 times the population of Kentucky.

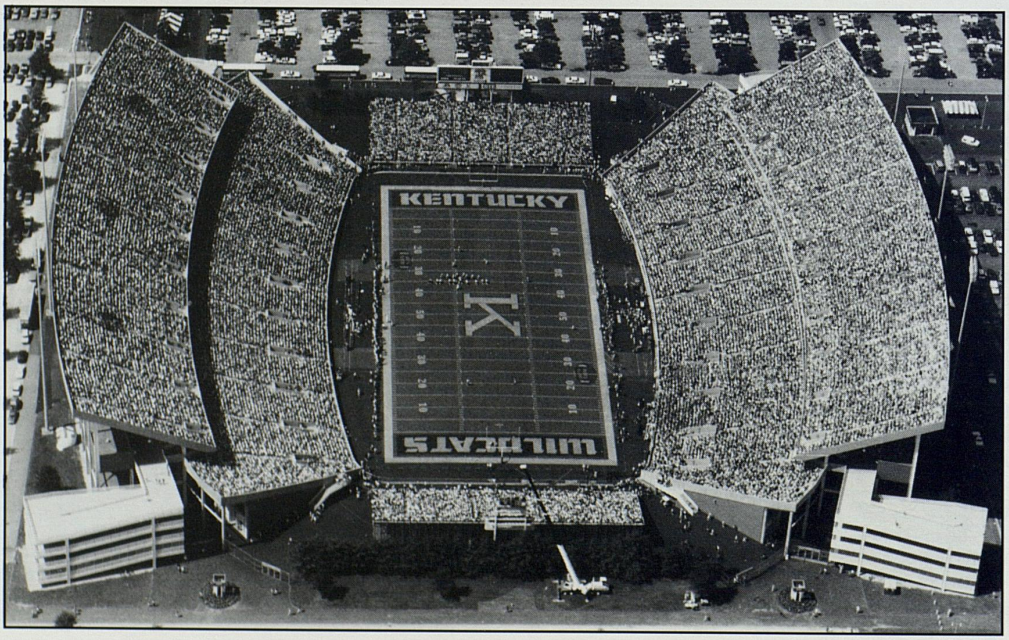

The five-millionth person to attend a UK football game in Commonwealth Stadium was Jack Crowe of Lexington. Mr. Crowe walked through the turnstile as number 5,000,000 at 1 pm on Oct. 3, 1987, as Kentucky hosted Ohio.

The official seating capacity at Commonwealth Stadium is 57,800, though standing-room only crowds will exceed that figure. As was the case on Oct. 12, 1985, as a Commonwealth Stadium-record crowd of 58,345 witnessed the Wildcats defeat Mississippi State 33-19. The second largest crowd, incidently, was a week earlier as 58,230 watched Kentucky defeat Clemson 26-7 on Oct. 5.

All seating in Commonwealth Stadium is aluminum, with more than 30 percent of the aluminum seating either chair-back or bench-back.

An enclosed press box, which comfortably seats 110 members of the media, is located underneath the upper deck on the stadium's west side. Included in the press box area are eight private booths (four VIPs), a photography deck, and two dining areas. The press box is served by two elevators.

Plans call for eventually enclosing the south end (Tates Creek Road) of Commonwealth Stadium to bring its capacity to 72,000. Also, the addition of luxury suites and boxes is in UK's plans.

Commonwealth Stadium is home sweet home for the Wildcats.

GENERAL FACTS

Location: Southeast section of the University of Kcntucky campus, adjacent to Commonwealth Stadium ... Site is current game day Yellow parking lot, which is behind the South (Tates Creek Road) end zone.

Cost: $8,500,000.

Size: Approximately 132,000 square feet (present Nutter Center structure is 48,000 square feet) ... Height will be 65 feet at apex.

Features:
Actual playing-field area of 108,000 square feet (450 x 240).
Full-size artificial turf football field.
Six-lane, 317-yard track (290 meters).
Areas for track and field events (high jump, pole vault, shot put).
Computerized Net System which forms baseball batting cages; Portable nets will be used for golf driving range.
Gymnastics room of 9,000 square feet.
Men's and Women's transient locker rooms.
Storage area of 4,000 square feet.
Gymnastics, track, and building operator's offices and lobby totaling 3,000 square feet.

Notes: The height (65 feet) and netting system will allow punting and placement kicks for football practice ... The average indoor track size across the country is 200 meters, while the UK indoor track will be approximately 290 meters ... The unique netting system will also allow for two full baseball infields ... Commonwealth Stadium's football playing field will run perpendicular to the playing field inside the indoor facility.

Construction Dates: Began - Nov. 4, 1991
Completion: Dec., 1992

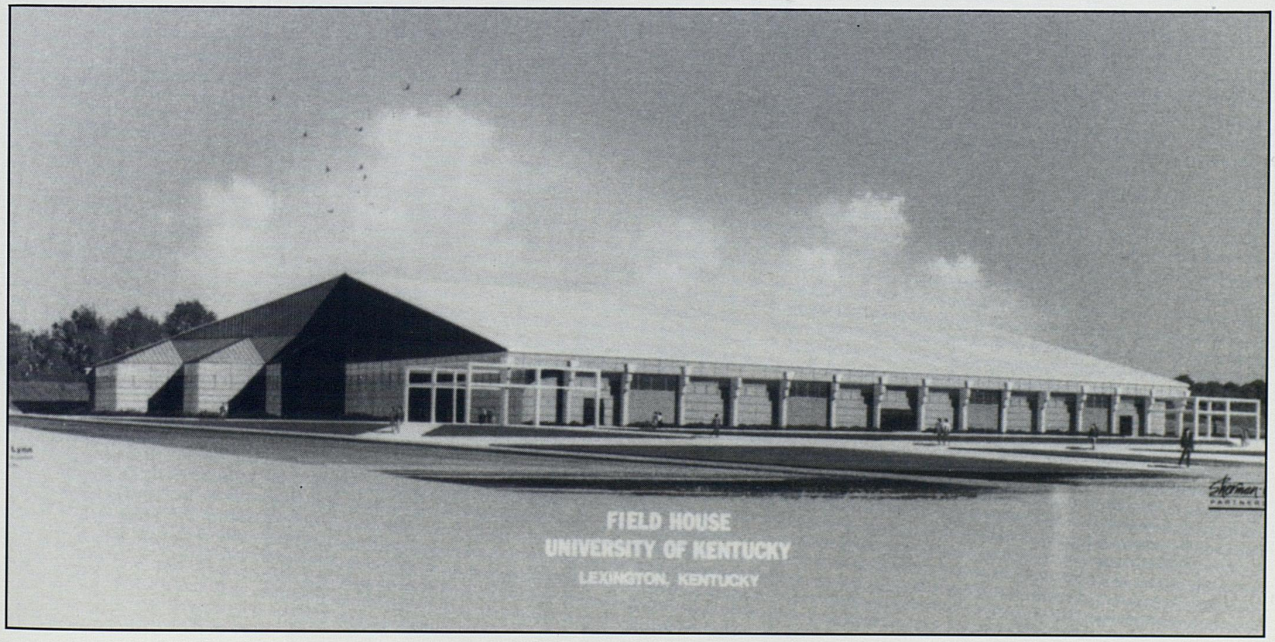

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING

Dr. Charles Wethington, Jr., University of Kentucky President
"This facility is very significant not only to UK Athletics, but to the entire University of Kentucky community. The indoor facility should aid Bill Curry in taking our football program to another level."

C.M. Newton, UK Director of Athletics
"We already have the finest coaches in the country, and with the addition of the indoor facility, which I consider the final piece of the puzzle, we will have what we need to attract the finest student-athletes. The facility will be a multi-purpose building, something that will be a tremendous boost to our football, men's and women's track, men's and women's golf, gymnastics, baseball and other programs."

Bill Curry, UK Football Coach
"The indoor practice facility is extremely valuable to us from three perspectives — 1) togetherness of our athletics programs, 2) performance, and 3) recruiting. In recruiting, what this facility says to all prospective student-athletes is that Kentucky intends on winning in football also. We have made a $7 million commitment in that direction. The unique thing about a facility such as this one is the ability to do everything indoors we could do outdoors. The computerized net system would even allow punting. We will never miss another practice because of weather."

Tom Simpson, Men's Golf Coach
"The indoor facility will be the biggest addition to our athletics department since Commonwealth Stadium."

KENTUCKY STRENGTH PROGRAM

Just a quick glance at the weight room in the Nutter Football Training Facility is enough to know the University of Kentucky is serious about strength training.

The addition of Coach Bill Curry has not diminished the importance strength training plays in Southeastern Conference football. If anything, the significance of the UK strength program under Curry has magnified.

Curry, a former center at Georgia Tech and in the National Football League, knows the edge in football lies in the weight room.

"We have a sign mounted in the Nutter Center weight room," Curry says. "The statement says 'There is no substitute for strength and no excuse for the lack of it'.

"Our players are required to read it everyday. That sums up our approach to strength training. We want to be the best conditioned football team, not only in the Southeastern Conference, but in the country. Games are won in the fourth quarter and that's where great physical conditioning comes into play."

As far as facilities go, Wildcats football players have one of the nation's best weight rooms to work with.

"There is no substitute for strength and no excuse for the lack of it".

"The facility is unbelievable," Curry said. "I can't imagine anyone needing anymore than what we have in our weight facility."

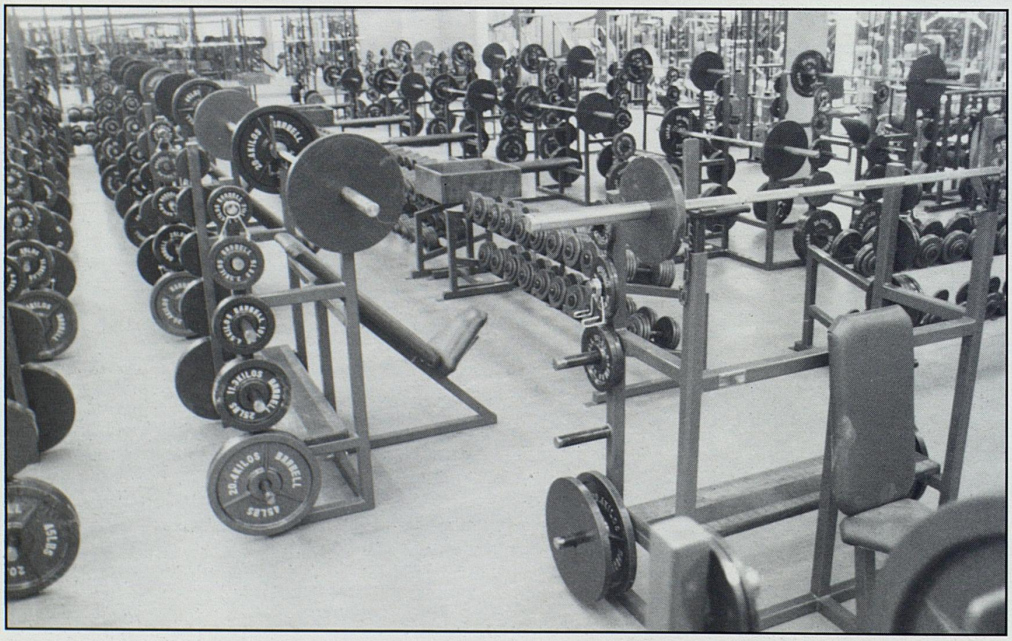

For starters, the UK weight room is 9,000 square foot. In free weights alone, UK has 100,000 pounds of equipment — 75,000 in free weights and an additional 25,000 in dumb bells.

To complement the free weights, UK has an abundance of Nautilus equipment, stationary bikes and treadmills.

According to Curry, another aspect which is a plus for UK is strength coach Mike Florence. Curry thinks Florence is the perfect individual for the task at hand.

"We're very blessed here at Kentucky to have Mike Florence as our strength coach," Curry says. "My first indication to the type of job he does is that our squad is relatively strong, even though we lost a lot of strong players to graduation. But after watching him work, I know Mike has that rare blend of a calm presence but with a driving discipline. That's exactly what a strength coach has to have."

As far as UK records go, former All-Southeastern Conference tackle Oliver Barnett holds the dubious honor of the strongest Cat. In 1989, Barnett set a UK mark by lifting a total of 1,655 pounds in three lifts (bench, squat and clean). He shattered the old mark of 1,570 by Dermontti Dawson. Both are on NFL rosters, Barnett with the Atlanta Falcons and Dawson with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

For the current Cats, below is a list of 1992 leaders in several categories.

Bench Press:
560, by Jody Matthews.

Clean:
400, by Jody Matthews and Dean Wells.

Olympic Squat:
675, by Jody Matthews.

Total Lifts:
1,635, by Jody Matthews.

Health and Equipment

The Kentucky medical staff takes a back seat to no one. Four team physicians — Dr. Spencer Turner, Dr. James Andrews, Dr. Mary Lloyd Ireland, and Dr. John Perrine — and a first class training staff handle all athletes' needs on a daily basis. Headed by trainer Al Green and associate Sue Stanley, the UK Football training staff also consists of six graduate assistants and 20 student assistants.

"I think our training staff — our trainers, graduate assistants, student assistants and team physicians — are among the very best in the business," former UK coach Jerry Claiborne said. "We've had some serious injuries, but the rehabilitation of those injuries was outstanding.

"On a day-to-day basis, our training staff does as good a job with our athletes as anyone in the country."

Current UK coach Bill Curry concurs.

"I've been extremely impressed with our medical staff headed by Al Green," Curry says. "Our staff has an excellent rapport with our players and that's important. Our team physicians are outstanding."

The Nutter Center training room is also first rate. The training room is over 5,000 square feet and includes ample space for taping and treatment, as well as a separate rehabilitation room, physician's and trainer's offices.

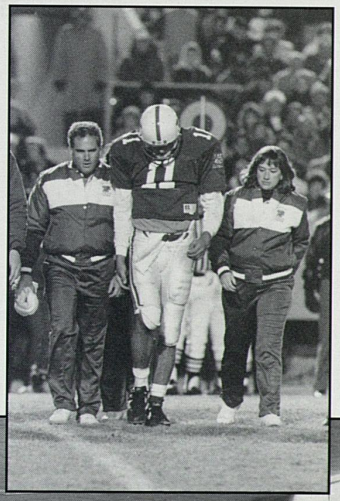

Equipment and proper fitting is another key element in an athlete's health. UK equipment manager Tom Kalinowski personally fits each player with the appropriate equipment — helmet, shoes, shoulder pads, etc... — according to height, weight and position.

In all, Kalinowski estimates UK spends $2000 per player on equipment ranging from practice to game gear — another area which UK does not take a backseat.

Kalinowski and his staff of 10 student assistants are involved in daily maintainance, repair and cleaning of each athlete's equipment. These procedures are necessary as another measure in prevention of injuries.

Indeed, an athlete's health is important at Kentucky.

"On a day-to-day basis, our training staff does as good a job with our athletes as anyone in the country."

Trainer Al Green and Associate Trainer Sue Stanley assist injured QB Brad Smith.

"Our Old Kentucky Home"

LEXINGTON

This is Lexington, home of the University of Kentucky.

Lexington is one beauty of a city. John O. Simonds, a nationally-known landscape architect and the author of several books on land use, calls the Bluegrass area a "national treasure. The Bluegrass area is superlative countryside." Lexington is the heart of the Bluegrass, the metropolitan shopping, commercial and entertainment hub of eastern Kentucky.

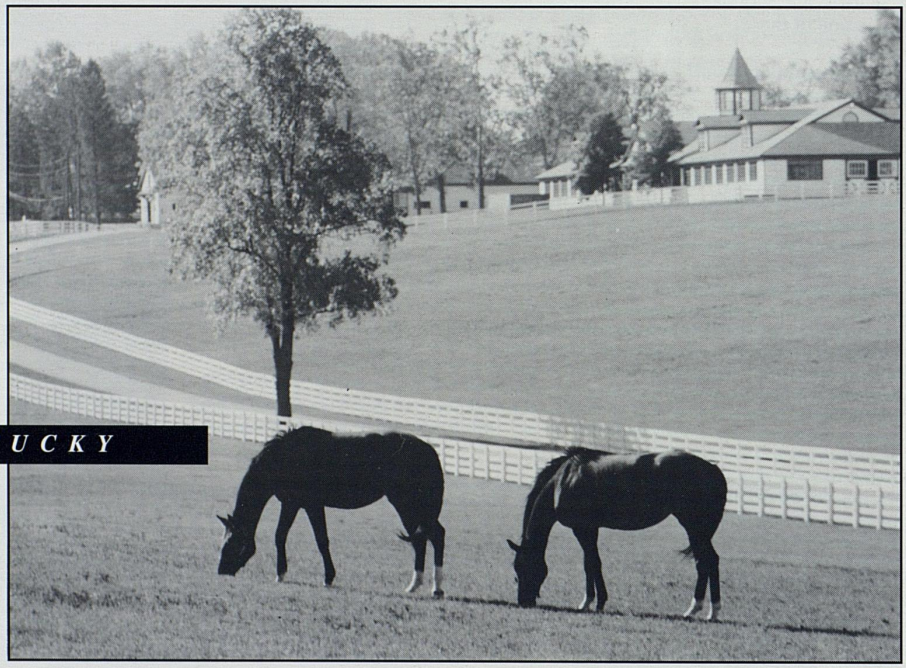

Lexington has all the attractive qualities of a major metropolitan area, but it is small...and there is an overlay of what can be described as Blue Grass tradition to go along with such major companies as IBM, Ashland Oil (Valvoline), Jerrico, Island Creek Coal, Toyota and many other nationally known firms that have major plants or headquarters in the area.

With a population of around 225,000, Lexington is small enough to provide the perfect college atmosphere for the University of Kentucky. But it is also large enough to offer the cultural opportunities usually reserved for larger cities.

The city offers UK students much in the way of entertainment: a Philharmonic Orchestra, Chamber Music Society, the Lexington Singers, a Council of the Arts, and a local Ballet Company. Movie theaters, international restaurants, coffee-houses, top-ranked acts of all types at fabulous Rupp Arena in the Lexington Center, historical landmarks, parks, thoroughbred and harness racing, fine fishing in lakes, ponds, and streams, and the internationally famous Kentucky Horse Park, all in easy distance of the UK campus, are just a few attractions of Lexington and the University of Kentucky.

A recent statewide poll indicated that the Lexington area is the most popular place to live, work and play in Kentucky, and it's an area most residents would not seriously consider leaving.

Lexington, Kentucky — one beauty of a city.

KENTUCKY

If these United States can be called a body... then Kentucky can be called its heart." — Jesse Stuart

Though the above words were written by one of Kentucky's favorite sons, any one of the millions of visitors to the Bluegrass State each year might nod in agreement.

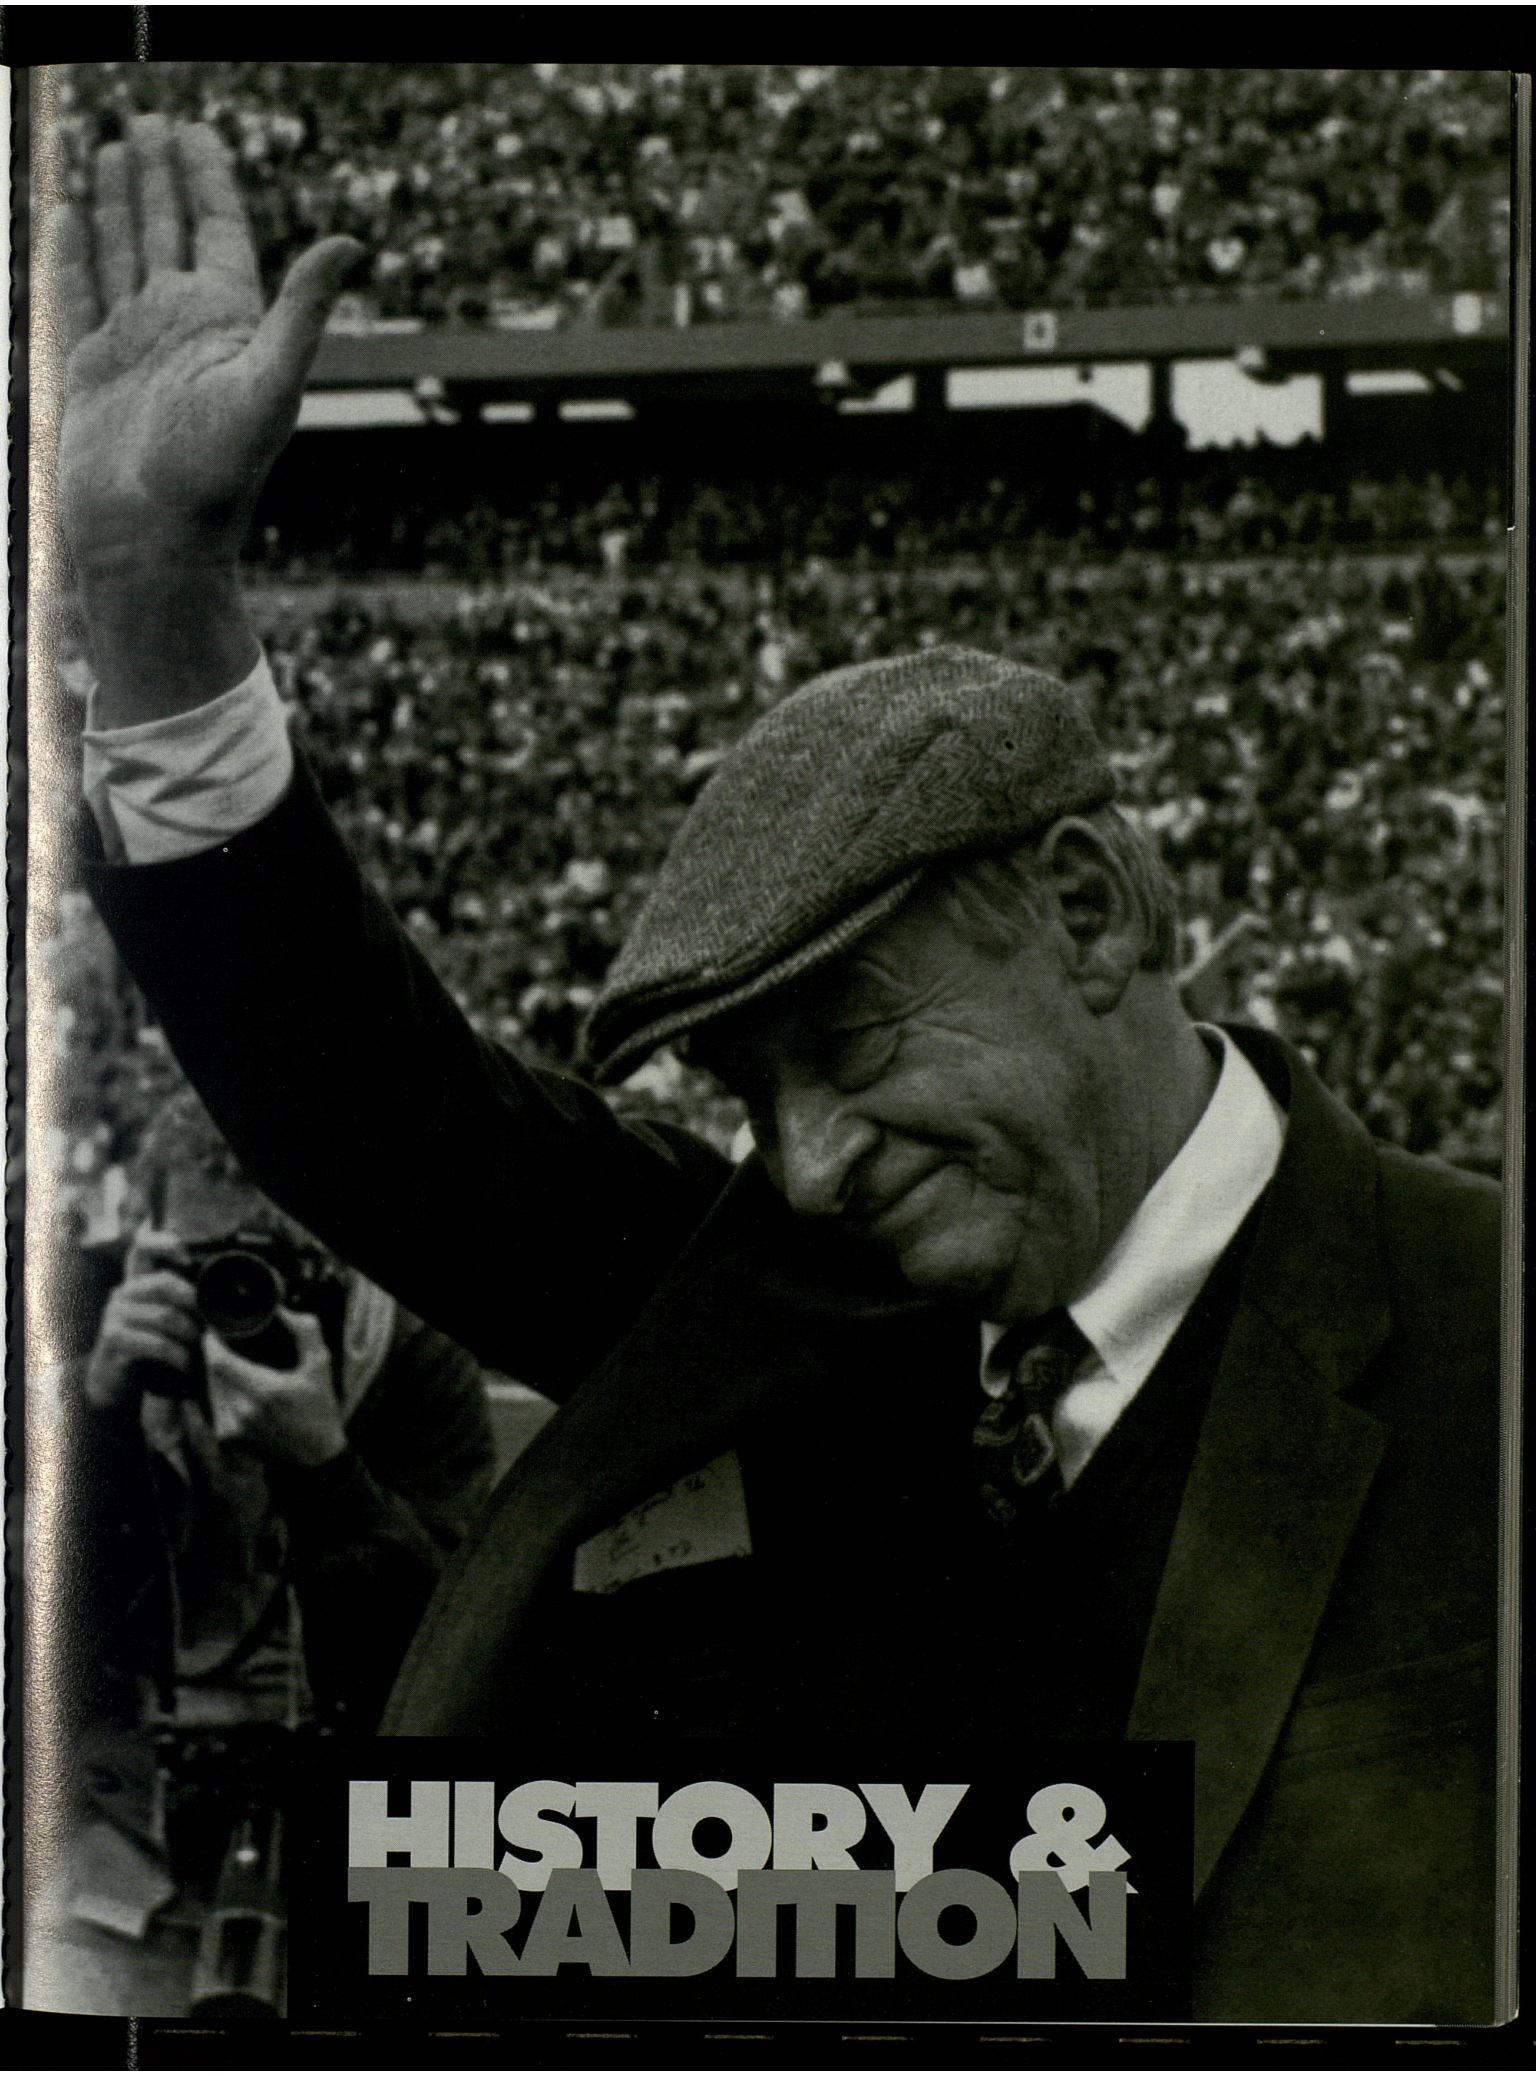

Kentucky embodies the very essence of America, from majestic mountains and forests to vast sparkling lakes, from rolling acres of farm and pastureland to the hustle and bustle of major metropolitan centers. And around every turn in the road, Kentucky's colorful past, which helped shape our country's character, is preserved and maintained for all to enjoy. The result is a state so diverse in travel and recreational opportunities that one is hard pressed to name its equal.

If asked to describe Kentucky, the first word to come to mind would probably be horses. And the description would be accurate, since the Bluegrass region of central Kentucky is internationally recognized as the Horse Capital of the World. Lexington, in the heart of the Bluegrass, preserves the romantic tradition of the horse farms and is the hub of the multi-billion dollar horse industry.

Kentucky is also a land steeped in the rich history of our nation. Legendary pioneer Daniel Boone laid out Kentucky's second settlement at Fort Boonesborough, and nearby, a hundred years later, the Shaker religious sect prospered at picturesque Shaker Village of Pleasant Hill.

Abraham Lincoln was born in Hodgenville (the one-room cabin is part of a National Historic Site). The plantation home that inspired Stephen Foster to write "My Old Kentucky Home" still stands at a state park of the same name. And the region that 200 years ago gave birth to one of Kentucky's most famous exports — bourbon whiskey — is dotted with world-famous distilleries.

KENTUCKY FACTS: Kentucky is one of only four states in the nation designated as a commonwealth... The state capital is Frankfort...Kentucky has 40,395 square miles of land...Population of the state is 3,728,000...The three largest cities in the state are Louisville, Lexington and Owensboro...The state bird is the cardinal... The state song is "My Old Kentucky Home"... The state flower is the golden rod...The state tree is the Kentucky Coffee tree...Kentucky has more miles of running water than any other state except Alaska...Kentucky has 44 state parks which annually draws 15.8 million visitors... Kentucky has the world's longest known cave system — Mammoth Cave — with over 300 miles of mapped passageways.

Kentucky Football enters its 102nd season of competition on Sept. 5, as the Wildcats host Central Michigan.

From UK's first All-American Clyde Johnson to its last Mike Pfeifer, from Professor A.M. Miller to Bill Curry, from old Stoll Field to modern Commonwealth Stadium, from the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association to the Southeastern Conference, and everything else along the way, Kentucky Football holds a unique and storied tradition which began in 1881.

UK Football holds a captivating list of firsts. For starters, UK was the first Southeastern Conference team to introduce football, which it did in 1881. Secondly, UK played in the first and only Great Lakes Bowl in 1947 while defeating Villanova, 24-14. Thirdly, Kentucky tackle Bob Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy making him the first player from the SEC to claim the honor. In another first, the Wildcats' Nat Northington was the first black player to sign with a Southeastern Conference institution and the first to play in a league contest, that vs. Ole Miss in 1967. And finally, UK became the first SEC school to win the coveted College Football Association Academic Achievement Award for highest graduation rate, doing so in 1989.

In 101 seasons, Kentucky has participated in 958 contests and owns 480 wins, 434 losses and 44 ties. The 480 victories rank 38th among Division 1-A programs in most wins. UK's overall winning percentage is a nice .524 in all games played.

Kentucky football has won one national championship, two Southeastern Conference championships and appeared in seven bowls. The national title came on the academic side as UK claimed the CFA Academic Achievement Award on May 8, 1989. The Wildcats owned a graduation rate of 90 percent after 18 of 20 of their 1983 incoming freshmen signees left UK with a diploma.

Other numbers for fodder include UK football with 32 head coaches, 12 National Football League first-round draft choices, one Outland Trophy winner, 18 first-team All-Americans, five Academic All-Americans, 46 first team All-SEC players and 113 Academic All-SEC selections.

Kentucky football got its start on Nov. 12, 1881. Kentucky, known in those days as A&M College, Kentucky State College and/or State University of Kentucky, defeated Kentucky University by the clumsy score of 7 1/4 to 1. The game of football resembled more of a rugby form and the scoring procedure is still unclear.Though football came to Kentucky in 1881, it quickly vanished after the three-game season. UK finished 1-2 in the inaugural campaign, but the lid was shut on UK football for the next nine seasons.

UK is a member of Southern Intercollegiate Athletics Association.

1898
The Immortals finish 7-0-0 for UK's only unbeaten, unscored upon team.

1900
UK edges Louisville YMCA 12-6 without running a single offensive play.

1903
Kentucky blanks Miami (Ohio) 47-0 in its 100th game.

1905
St. Louis applies largest defeat to UK by a 82-0 count.

1906
Earl Stone attempts UK's first forward pass.

1908
J. White Guyn ends longest UK coaching tenure to date (3 years) with 17-7-1 record.

1909
"Wildcats" adopted as official nickname.

chronology 1880 - 1991

Football returned permanently to the University of Kentucky in 1891. UK defeated Georgetown College, 8-2, on April 10, 1891, to signify the rekindling of the pigskin to Lexington. The sport would not again be interrupted until the 1943 season because of World War II.

The first known head football coach at Kentucky was Professor A.M. Miller, a Princeton graduate. Miller began the 1892 season as head coach and led UK to a 2-2-1 ledger through five games. He was replaced by John A. Thompson at the conclusion of the 1892 campaign.

Football Scores

Some successful years in the early 1900s dot the UK record book. Kentucky finished 7-1 in 1903 under Coach C.A. Wright; 9-1 in 1904 under Coach F.E. Schact; 9-1-1 in 1907 with Coach J. White Guyn, and 9-1 in 1909 under E.R. Sweetland.

The greatest UK team of that era was the 1898 squad, known simply to Kentuckians as "The Immortals". To this day, the Immortals remain the only undefeated, untied, and unscored upon team in UK football history. The Immortals were coached by W.R. Bass and ended the year a perfect 7-0-0, despite an average weight of 147 pounds per player. Victories came easy for this squad, as the Immortals raced by Kentucky University (18-0), Georgetown (28-0), Company H of the 8th Massachusetts (59-0), Louisville Athletic Club (16-0), Centre (6-0), 160th Indiana (17-0) and Newcastle Athletic Club (36-0).

Besides Bass, two of the most successful coaches in the early stages of UK Football were E.R. Sweetland and Harry Gamage. Sweetland compiled a 23-5 mark in three seasons (1909-10, 12). His best year was 9-1 in '09. Gamage, on the other hand, had the longest tenure of any head coach during the first 43 years of Kentucky football. Gamage took the reigns of the UK program in 1927 and remained until following the 1933 campaign. In between, Gamage led the Wildcats to a combined 32-25-5 record. His best season was 6-1-1 in '29.

One of Gamage's brightest moments came during the 1930 season. During the 57-0 blanking of Maryville, UK runningback Shipwreck Kelly rushed for a school- record 280 yards in leading the Cats.

More than a decade after Gamage had left UK, a young man by the name of Paul "Bear" Bryant arrived on the scene at Lexington in 1946. All Bryant did was quickly grab the UK program by the collar and turn the Cats into a national power.

Bryant took UK to eight consecutive winning seasons (1946-53) and helped the Wildcats claim their first Southeastern Conference championship in 1950. He also sent UK squads to four bowl games which included the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl, 1950 Orange Bowl, 1951 Sugar Bowl, and the 1952 Cotton Bowl.

Kentucky picks up its 100th victory with 13-0 win over Maryville.

1914
Jim Park scores 5 TDs and throws for 5 TDs in 81-3 victory over Earlham.

1916
UK's football playing field dedicated as Stoll Field.

1924

The biggest win in UK football history came under Bryant. After leading Kentucky to its first SEC title and a 10-1 regular-season record, UK found itself matched with national champion Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl. The Wildcats scored early and held off the Sooners, 13-7, breaking Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak which is currently the seventh-longest in NCAA history.

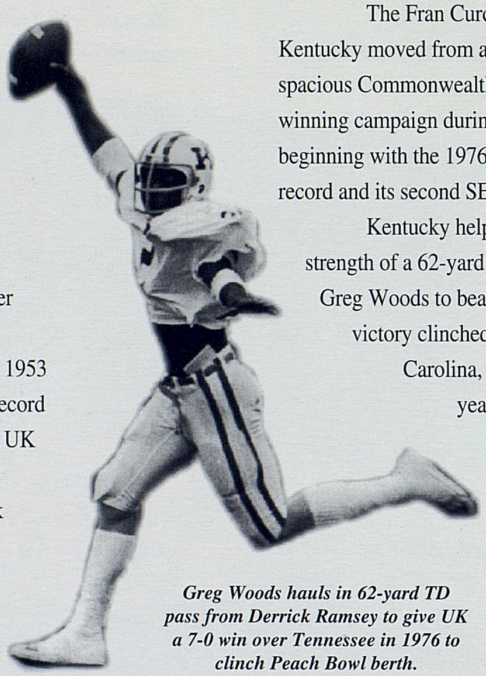

Also under Bryant, tackle Bob Gain became the first UK and SEC player to win the Outland Trophy in 1950. Other standouts in the Bryant era included George Blanda, All-American Babe Parilli, and former UK coach Jerry Claiborne.

Bryant left Kentucky following the 1953 season. He compiled an impressive 60-23-5 record in eight years. Bryant's 60 victories are still a UK football record for head coaches.

Blanton Collier had the uneasy task of following in Bryant's footsteps. Collier took over the Kentucky football program in 1954 and promptly led the Wildcats to a 7-3 record during his initial campaign.

Collier stayed eight years at UK as well, etching a 41-36-3 record from 1954 to 1961. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his 5-2-1 record against arch-rival Tennessee. He coached All-Americans Lou Michaels (1957-58) and Howard Schnellenberger (1955) at UK.

Charlie Bradshaw became the head mentor at UK in time for the 1962 season. Bradshaw, a UK graduate who lettered four years (1946-49), managed only a 25-41-4 record in seven seasons. One highlight of his coaching career featured an upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss early in the 1964 season. Bradshaw's Cats held off the Rebels, 27-21, in Memorial Stadium at Jackson, Miss., and ranks as one of UK's all-time biggest victories.

Greg Woods hauls in 62-yard TD pass from Derrick Ramsey to give UK a 7-0 win over Tennessee in 1976 to clinch Peach Bowl berth.

John Ray entered the scene in 1969 as head coach. In four years, Ray was 10-33. His biggest win came during his first year as Kentucky again victimized Ole Miss and Archie Manning. The Cats upset the Rebels, 10-9, at Lexington.

The Fran Curci era began in 1973, the same year Kentucky moved from ancient Stoll Field/McLean Stadium to spacious Commonwealth Stadium. Though Curci had only one winning campaign during his first three years, things got interesting beginning with the 1976 season. UK ended the '76 year with an 8-3 record and its second SEC championship.

Kentucky helped secure its second league title on the strength of a 62-yard touchdown pass from Derrick Ramsey to Greg Woods to beat Tennessee, 7-0, at Knoxville, Tenn. The victory clinched a berth in the Peach Bowl against North Carolina, UK's first postseason appearance in 25 years. Before a UK contingent estimated at 25,000, the Cats blanked the Tar Heels, 21-0.

The following year, Kentucky went in facing probation. No SEC title or bowl hopes. Despite an early season loss at Baylor, the Wildcats rolled to an impressive 10-1 record doing it the hard way. Kentucky defeated Penn State (24-20) at University Park, Pa., defeated LSU (33-13) at Baton Rouge, La., blanked Georgia (33-0) at Athens, Ga., beat Florida (14-7) at Gainesville, Fla., and defeated Tennessee (21-17) at Lexington.

In the Curci era, players like Sonny Collins (UK career leader with 3,835 yards rushing), All-Americans Warren Bryant and Art Still and multi-talented Derrick Ramsey, wore the blue and white.

Curci stepped down following the 1981 season. In all, Curci worked nine years as UK head coach (longest of any UK football coach) and was 47-51-2 overall.

Harry Gamage takes over as head coach and remains for 7 seasons, longest tenure of any UK coach until Paul Bryant.

1936
Bert Johnson hits Bob Davis on 84-yard TD pass vs. Xavier, longest in UK early era.

1936

1937

chronology 1880 - 1991

Jerry Claiborne answered the call of his alma mater in December of 1981 and was named the school's 31st head football coach. Claiborne had played at UK from 1946-49 and was an assistant coach under Bryant at UK in 1952-53.

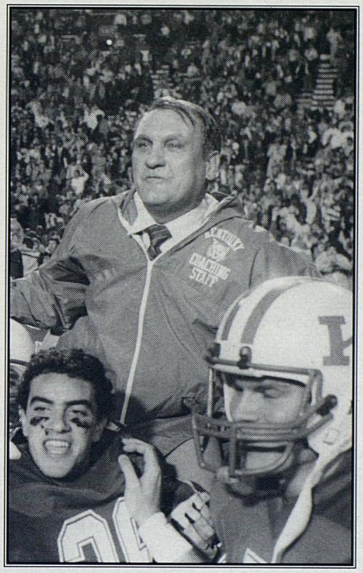

His first campaign, 1982, was murderous from a schedule standpoint. The '82 UK schedule was rated as the nation's 2nd-toughest and featured the likes of Oklahoma, Clemson, Auburn, LSU, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Kansas and Kansas State. The Cats were caught in the process of rebuilding and stumbled to an 0-10-1 record.

The winless mark would not deter Claiborne, however. In fact, his 1983 squad tied for the nation's most improved program with a regular-season record of 6-4-1. As a reward, the Hall of Fame Bowl offered an invitation and UK accepted to give the Cats their 6th bowl appearance.

Kentucky improved in 1984, finishing with a 9-3 record which included a thrilling 20-19 victory over Wisconsin in the '84 Hall of Fame Bowl. The nine victories were the most by a UK squad since the 1977 season.

After the '84 campaign, Kentucky strung together 5-6, 5-5-1, 5-6, 5-6, and 6-5 records to close out Claiborne's career. He stepped down with a 41-46-3 record in eight seasons at UK. Claiborne and Bryant, to this date, ended their careers as the only two coaches to win at least five games in seven consecutive seasons.

During Claiborne's tenure, Kentucky captured its first national title by winning the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. UK led the SEC in Academic All-SEC Honor selections (68) during the Claiborne era, including a league record of 17 players named to the 1989 Academic All-SEC Honor Roll.

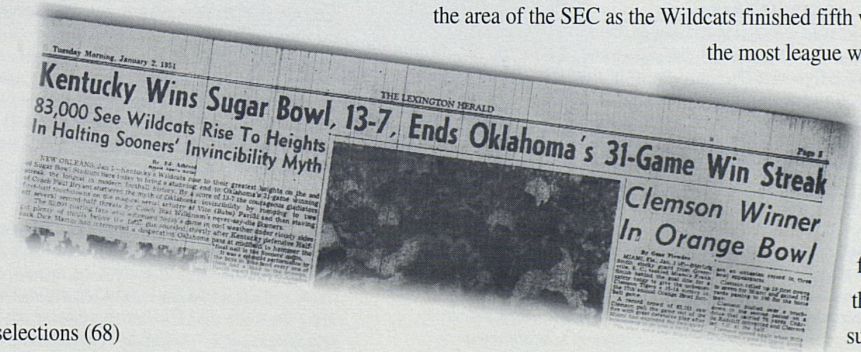

UK Coach Jerry Claiborne gets a free ride after the Cats' victory in the 1984 Hall of Fame Bowl.

Individually, quarterback Bill Ransdell played under Claiborne and left as UK's all-time leader in passing and total offense. Mark Higgs departed as the school's 2nd-leading rusher and tackle Oliver Barnett set a UK record with 26 quarterback sacks.

On Jan. 8, 1990, Kentucky began a new era by hiring its 32nd head football coach in Bill Curry. The hiring came only a week after Curry guided his Alabama squad in the 1990 USF&G Sugar Bowl. Curry had led the Crimson Tide to a share of the SEC title and a 10-1 regular-season mark in 1989.

Curry led the Wildcats to a 4-7-0 mark during the '90 campaign, UK's 100th season. The biggest improvement came in the area of the SEC as the Wildcats finished fifth with a 3-4 mark, the most league wins since 1984.

Below is a closer look at some of the traditions and history which has molded the past 100 seasons of Kentucky football. Some of the anecdotes were derived from the book, "The Wildcats", which was written by former UK Sports Information Director Russell Rice.

1A AND 1B

During the course of his legendary career, Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant was known as an innovator of introducing changes in the game of football. One change Bryant introduced during his tenure at Kentucky was the use of a unique number system to identify twins Harry and Larry Jones, who both lettered three years (1950-52) with the Wildcats. Harry wore 1A and Larry wore 1B. Harry led the Wildcats in all-purpose yardage in 1951 with 964 while Larry led UK in kickoff returns (21.1 avg) in 1952.

BEER BARREL

The traditional Battle for the Beer Barrel is the annual football game between Kentucky and Tennessee. Currently, the series is the third-longest of SEC teams vs. SEC teams (87 games) and trails only the Auburn-Georgia (95) and Ole Miss-Mississippi State (88) rivalries. The Beer Barrel Trophy is actually an old beer barrel painted blue, orange and white and is presented to the winner of the annual contest. Every score, since the origination of the trophy in 1925, is printed on the barrel. Two Wildcat followers, Guy Hugelet and Rollie Guthrie, wanted to come up with something symbolic to represent the great rivalry. Originally, they decided to use an old whiskey barrel as the trophy but the Women's Temperance Union made a stand against it since it was during the time of Prohibition. The duo went to another distributer, John Galvin, and settled on a beer barrel. Then as the Anti-Saloon League stepped in, Hugelet and Guthrie compromised by painting the words "ice water" on the barrel. The first time the trophy was awarded was in 1925 as UK defeated the Vols, 23-20. In 87 meetings overall, Tennessee leads the series 55-23-9.

BIG THREE BOWLING

Soon after Paul Bryant arrived at Kentucky in 1946, the Kentucky Football Program quickly hit the bowl scene. Kentucky made its initial postseason appearance in the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl in Cleveland. Two years later, UK Football began arriving on the doorsteps of the Big Four, well, three of the Big Four. Kentucky made consecutive trips to the 1950 Orange Bowl, the 1951 Sugar Bowl and the 1952 Cotton Bowl under Bryant. The Wildcats were 2-1 in the Big Three. By today's standards, consecutive trips to the Cotton, Sugar, and Orange Bowl would be a powerful measuring stick for a collegiate football program. The only Big Four Bowl missing is the Rose Bowl.

BROWN GRASS

The turning of seasons occur in Commonwealth Stadium, too. From September when the Wildcats open a football campaign to the close in November, Commonwealth Stadium takes on a different look. That different look is in the turf. The natural grass playing surface at Commonwealth Stadium is a thick layer of bermuda. As the season slowly begins to turn from fall to winter, so does the bermuda from green to brown. The early-morning frosts in late October start the seasonal changes in the bermuda. As a result, the Wildcats play their November home games on brown grass.

BOURBON BARREL

The famed Bourbon Barrel is the trophy presented to the winner of the Kentucky-Indiana football game. This series, though beginning in 1893, is only 22 games old but has quickly become one of the fiercest, most competitive contests in the region. As far as the origination of the Bourbon Barrel is concerned, no one is certain where the idea started. A possible answer stems from the great distillery industry located in Kentucky and southern Indiana. The Bourbon Barrel is mounted on a board for traveling purposes. The trophy is actually a half-barrel and lists all scores of the 22-game series. A blue stripe is painted in the background for a Kentucky win and a red stripe for an Indiana victory. Indiana leads the series, 14-7-1. Several years ago, both schools agreed contractually to extend the series annually through the year 2000.

PAUL "BEAR" BRYANT

Paul Bryant is still the most successful coach in UK Football History. Bryant spent eight years at UK (1946-53) and produced a 60-23-5 (.710 pct.) record. The 60 victories are the most by any UK football coach. He led the Wildcats to four bowl games and their first Southeastern Conference title in 1950. He coached such UK stars as George Blanda, Jerry Claiborne, Bob Gain, Babe Parilli, Doug Moseley, Wilbur Jamerson, and Steve Meilinger.

JERRY CLAIBORNE

After lettering three years (1946-49) as a player and serving two seasons (1952-53) as an assistant coach at Kentucky, Jerry Claiborne returned to his alma mater in 1982 as UK's 31st head football coach. Claiborne stepped down after 28 years as a collegiate head coach last November. He led the Wildcats to two bowls and four non-losing seasons. During his era, Kentucky placed more players (68) on the Academic All-SEC Honor Roll than any league school, including a record 17 in 1989. Claiborne also led UK to a national academic title by capturing the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. His eight-year UK record was 41-46-3. Overall, Claiborne finished 21st among Division I coaches with 179 career victories and 179-122-8 in all games.

CFA ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

The University of Kentucky became the first Southeastern Conference institution to win the College Football Association Academic Achievement Award after claiming the prestigious honor in 1989. The Academic Achievement Award is given to the CFA institution with the highest graduation rate of its football program based on a five-year period. UK had graduated 90 percent (18 of 20) of its incoming freshman signee class of 1983, thus earning the honor in May, 1989. A year earlier (1988), UK finished second with a graduation rate of 90.5 percent. Kentucky earned Honorable Mention honors in 1991 with a graduation rate of 70.0 percent.

BLANTON COLLIER AND THE STAFF

Blanton Collier had the misfortune of following Paul Bryant as head football at the University of Kentucky. But, Collier posted a fine 41-36-3 record in eight seasons at UK. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his record against arch-rival Tennessee which stood at 5 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie. Standouts such as Howard Schnellenberger, Lou Michaels, Tom Hutchinson, Bobby Cravens, Calvin Bird and Irv Goode played under Collier. One fascinating item in Collier's tenure was the football coaching staff he assembled in 1959. The 1959 UK Coaching Staff included Collier, Ed Rutledge, Howard Schnellenberger, Ermal Allen, Don Shula, John North, Bob Cummings, and Bill Arnsparger.

Northington is 1st black player to play in SEC vs. SEC game.

1966

FRAN CURCI

The Fran Curci era (1973-81) was one of ups and down at the University of Kentucky. Curci remained at UK for nine seasons, the longest tenure of any UK football coach, and posted a 47-51-2 record. The ups consisted of sharing the 1976 Southeastern Conference title with Georgia, a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina in the '76 Peach Bowl, and a 1977 squad which boasted a 10-1 record and No. 5 national ranking. The down was probation which forced the '77 squad to miss a certain bowl invitation.

FORWARD PASS

The first forward pass attempted by a University of Kentucky football player was thrown on Oct. 13, 1906, by quarterback Earl Stone as the Wildcats faced Eminence Athletic Club. This was the first year the forward pass was legalized by national rules. Accounts from this early contest do not indicate if the first forward UK pass was completed.

GREAT LAKES BOWL

The first bowl appearance by the University of Kentucky football program came in 1947 in the inaugural Great Lakes Bowl at Cleveland, Ohio. Kentucky, led by George Blanda and Bill Boller, rolled past Villanova, 24-14, in front of 14,908 people at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium. The unique item about this particular bowl game is the Great Lakes Bowl folded the next year, thus leaving UK and Villanova as the only two schools to ever appear in the bowl.

HOMECOMING GAMES

As in the case of most institutions, Homecoming football games are special. Kentucky is no exception. Alumni and old friends converge on the UK campus each fall for Homecoming Day, highlighted by a Kentucky football game. The Homecoming Queen and her court are presented in horse-drawn carriages which gives the event a distinct, Kentucky flavor. The first Homecoming Day occurred on Nov. 25, 1915, as Kentucky defeated Tennessee, 6-0. Though records are sketchy, Kentucky has hosted a Homecoming game every year since 1946 and owns a 36-10-0 record in those 46 contests.

THE IMMORTALS

Simply known as "The Immortals", the 1898 University of Kentucky football squad still remains as the only undefeated, untied, and unscored on Wildcats club in school history. The Immortals outscored opponents 180-0 while posting a perfect 7-0-0 record. Roscoe Severs served as team captain under coach W.R. Bass. The closest of all seven games was a 6-0 victory over Centre College.

CAWOOD LEDFORD

The legendary "Voice of the Wildcats" was none other than Cawood Ledford. For the last 39 years, Cawood called Wildcats Football and Basketball. His voice alone, symbolized UK Athletics. Current UK Coach Bill Curry has fond memories of Cawood. "I remember those Saturday nights at College Park, Ga. I'd turn on the radio and listen to Cawood calling the action from old Stoll Field. He certainly is a huge part of Kentucky Football." Cawood called his last UK football game vs. Tennessee on Nov. 23, 1991, and retired from the microphone following the 1991-92 basketball season

MINUS NINETY-THREE

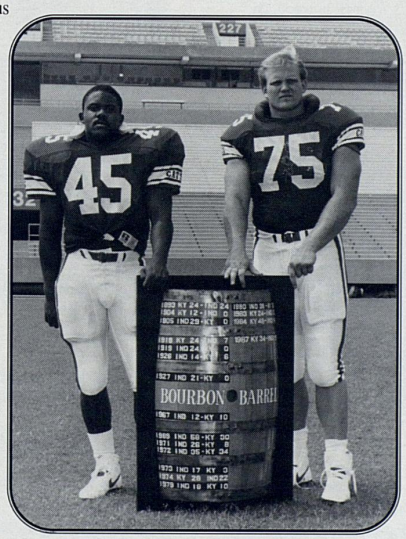

The University of Kentucky holds the Southeastern Conference record for fewest yards allowed rushing in a single game. Kentucky limited Kansas State to a minus-93 yards on the ground as UK defeated Kansas State, 16-3, on Sept. 19, 1970, at Lexington. Kentucky defenders sacked KSU quarterbacks Lynn Dickey (2) and Max Arreguin (5) a total of seven times while intercepting three of their passes. Ironically, KSU outgained UK in total offense 214-107 as Dickey and Arreguin combined for 307 yards in the air.

NIGHT GAME

The University of Kentucky was one of the first institutions to play intercollegiate football at night. The first UK home night game was played on Oct. 5, 1929, at Stoll Field as Kentucky defeated Maryville, 40-0. Kentucky did not play more than one home night game per season until 1947.

NAT NORTHINGTON

Nat Northington of Louisville became the first black player to sign with the University of Kentucky and a Southeastern Conference institution. Northington signed a national letter-of-intent with UK in December of 1965. He later became the first black football player to play in a SEC vs. SEC game, appearing in the UK-Ole Miss game at Lexington on Sept. 30, 1967.

Former Wildcats Mike Pfeifer (75) and Chris Chenault (45) display the UK-IU Bourbon Barrel.

OCTOBER NIGHT GAMES

The University of Kentucky began holding its October home football games during the evening hours in 1949. UK and Keeneland Race Course, located in Lexington, have enjoyed a close relationship through the years and assist in giving UK faithful an opportunity to enjoy two of the Commonwealth's best-loved events in October — football and horse racing. With the traditional post time at Keeneland for the thoroughbred races at 1 p.m., UK began moving its October home games to night during the 1949 season. The only occasion UK has not conducted its October home games in the evening is to accomodate television.

OUTLAND TROPHY

Two-time All-American Bob Gain is the only player in University of Kentucky football history to be awarded "The Outland Trophy", signifying the best interior lineman in collegiate football. Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy after helping lead UK to its first Southeastern Conference title and a 10-1 regular-season record. Besides being the first UK player to claim the award, Gain was also the first SEC player to be given the award.

PRINCE CHARLES OF WALES

The Kentucky Wildcats gave Prince Charles of Wales his first taste of American football on Oct. 22, 1977. That's right, Prince Charles first football game was the UK-Georgia matchup at Athens. Prince Charles was introduced to UK Coach Fran Curci and All-American Art Still at halftime. After looking at the 6-6 Still, Charles said, "You're a tall one aren't you?" Still and Co. blanked the Bulldogs on this day, 33-0, on their way to a 10-1 record.

1970

25-year bowl drought ends with win in Peach Bowl.

1977

1977
UK serves 1-year probation with no bowl appearances.

1982
Jerry Claiborne replaces Fran Curci as head coach.

1983
UK goes 6-4-1 for nation's best turnaround.

1983
West Virginia defeats UK 20-16 in Hall of Fame Bowl.

1984
Joey Worley's 52-yard FG leads UK to win in Hall of Fame Bowl.

1986
Ivy Joe Hunter sets modern UK record with 238 yards rushing vs. Vandy.

RED DOC, BLACK DOC

A pair of cousins named William Rodes played football for the University of Kentucky during the early 1900s. To distinquish one from the other, one was nicknamed "Red Doc" and the other "Black Doc". William "Red Doc" Rodes lettered three years (1909, 11-12) as a 140-pound halfback and defensive end. William "Black Doc" Rodes lettered two years (1915-16) as quarterback. Black Doc was considered by many to be one of the best open-field runners in that era. He also placekicked and personally delivered UK's 6-0 victory over Tennessee in 1915 with field goals of 45 and 43 yards.

RUSSELL RICE

Longtime UK sports information director Russell Rice is the walking, talking historian when its comes to Wildcats Football. Rice retired from the UK Athletics Department in 1989 after serving 18 years as sports information director. He came to UK in 1967 as assistant SID under Ken Kuhn, then was named sports information director in 1969. Rice authored the book, "The Wildcats, Kentucky Football", which details Kentucky football and its history. At his retirement party, Rice was given a lifetime "Press Pass" to the Commonwealth Stadium press box.

STOLL FIELD/McLEAN STADIUM

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was the first home for Kentucky Football. The stadium was located adjacent to Memorial Coliseum and served as UK's football home since 1916. The University Board of Trustees voted to name the playing field as "Stoll Field" and the actual grandstand structures as "McLean Stadium", thus the often confusing double names. Stoll Field was named in honor of the late Judge Richard C. Stoll, a prominent alumnus, trustee and benefactor of UK. Stoll Field was dedicated on Oct. 14, 1916. McLean Stadium was dedicated on Nov. 1, 1924, in memory of Price Innes McLean, a regular center on the 1923 UK squad who died as a result of injuries sustained in the Kentucky-Cincinnati game on Nov. 6, 1923. The final seating capacity of Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was 37,000 during its last year of use, 1972.

THE THIN THIRTY

When Blanton Collier stepped down as head football coach at Kentucky following the 1961 season, UK promptly named former Wildcats' player Charlie Bradshaw as its 28th coach. Bradshaw inherited a squad of 88 players left from Collier's 5-5-0 team in '61. Bradshaw promised his new UK squad hard work and talked of training to an absolute peak of condition. His conditioning tactics took their toll as over 50 players left the squad, leaving 30 to open the season against Florida State and prompting the name "Thin Thirty". The Thin Thirty finished 3-5-2 on the season with victories over Detroit (27-8), Vanderbilt (7-0) and arch-rival Tennessee (12-10). The ties were against Florida State (0-0) and Georgia (7-7).

TURNAROUNDS

One of the biggest turnarounds in collegiate football happened at the University of Kentucky during the 1982 and 1983 seasons. Jerry Claiborne had replaced Fran Curci as head coach prior to the '82 campaign. Claiborne inherited a program in shambles and faced the nation's 2nd-toughest schedule which featured Oklahoma, Clemson, Auburn, LSU, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Kansas and Kansas State. Not surprisingly, Kentucky finished 0-10-1 in 1982 with only a 13-13 tie with Kansas keeping the Wildcats from an 0-11 slate. However, Claiborne turned the heat up in 1983 and went to work. UK reeled off consecutive wins against Central Michigan (31-14), Kansas State (31-12), Indiana (24-13), and Tulane (26-14) to start the season. The Cats also defeated LSU (21-13) and Vanderbilt (17-8) to finish the campaign with a 6-4-1 record. The turnaround, which tied Memphis State for the biggest turnaround in 1983, earned Kentucky a berth in the 1983 Hall of Fame Bowl.

VICTORY KICKS

The University of Kentucky defeated the Louisville YMCA, 12-6, in 1900. What is so unique about this contest is Kentucky did not run a single offensive play. Instead, Kentucky punted on first down each time it had the football and eventually scored on a pair of fumbles by the Louisville YMCA club which had occurred in their own endzone.

WINNING STREAK

For the most part, the most famous winning streak in Kentucky football history is the one the Wildcats ended. The stage was set as UK faced Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl. Kentucky was coming off its first Southeastern Conference title and brought in a 10-1 record. Oklahoma entered as national champions and riding a 31-game winning streak. A pair of Wilbur Jamerson scores - a 22-yard pass from Babe Parilli and a one-yard run - was all UK needed in picking up a 13-7 upset of the Sooners and thus ending the 31-game streak. Today, the 31-game winning streak by Oklahoma ranks as the 7th-longest in NCAA history.

THE YEAR (1977-78)

Perhaps the most successful year in UK Athletics occurred during the 1977-78 academic year at the University of Kentucky. The 1977 Wildcats football squad, under Fran Curci, raced to a 10-1 record and ended the year ranked No. 5 by THE SPORTING NEWS. Highlights were victories over North Carolina (10-7), West Virginia (28-13), Penn State (24-20), LSU (33-13), Georgia (33-0), Florida (14-7) and Tennessee (21-17). On the basketball side, UK wrapped up its 5th NCAA Title by defeating Duke, 94-88, at St. Louis. The UK Basketballers ended the campaign with a 30-2 record under Joe B. Hall.

THE YEAR (1950-51)

An argument to the most successful year in UK Athletics is the 1950-51 academic year. UK Football, under Paul Bryant, ended the 1950 regular season with a 10-1 record and ranked No. 7 nationally by both A.P. and U.P.I. The Wildcats then proceeded to snap national champion Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak with a 13-7 victory in the Sugar Bowl. On the basketball front, Adolph Rupp gave UK its 3rd national title by defeating Kansas State, 68-58, at Minneapolis, Minn. The Wildcats ended the year 32-2. Current UK Athletics Director C.M. Newton was a letterman on that squad.

1989
Kentucky sets SEC record with 17 players on Academic All-SEC team.

1990
Bill Curry becomes UK's 32nd head football coach.

1985
Record 58,345 at Commonwealth Stadium vs. Miss. State.

1989
UK earns CFA Academic Acheivement Award.

1990

All-Southeastern Conference

DICKY LYONS 22, WEST VIRGINIA 7

That's correct, when Kentucky met the West Virginia Mountaineers on Nov. 4, 1967, at Lexington, halfback Dicky Lyons did a little of everything in helping the Wildcats earn their first victory of the season.

UK entered the contest with an 0-6 record, with its highest offensive output of 14 points in a 24-14 loss to Virginia Tech a couple of weeks earlier. On this afternoon, Lyons scored all 22 points to lead the Cats to a 22-7 victory over West Virginia.

Lyons put Kentucky ahead first, 6-0, with a three-yard run in the first quarter. After the Wildcats had fallen behind, 7-6, Lyons booted a 33-yard field goal with 27 seconds left in the half to give UK a 9-7 lead at intermission.

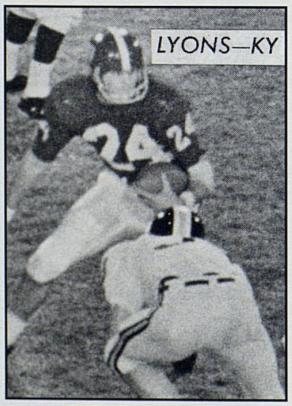

The score remained the same until the fourth quarter. In the final period, Lyons hit paydirt with two additional runs – one and three yards – and added a PAT to make the final margin, 22-7.

On the afternoon, Lyons carried the football 19 times for 51 yards. Lyons also returned two kickoffs for 33 yards, returned 1 punt for 26 yards and punted 7 times for 260 yards, averaging 37 yards per punt. Lyons hit 1 of 1 field goals and 1 of 2 PATs.

Lyons was named Southeastern Conference Back of the Week after leading UK to its first victory of 1967. The Wildcats finished the year 2-8. By the way, Lyons' 22 points was the most points scored by UK during the '67 campaign. In the final three games of the year, Kentucky defeated Vandy 12-7, but scored only 12 points against Florida and seven vs. Tennessee.

WILDCAT MASCOT

The Wildcat mascot originated during the 1976-77 academic year at the University of Kentucky and serves as a friendly ambassador for the University at all football and basketball events and several academic functions.

The original Wildcat mascot was Gary Tanner. He set the precedent for future Wildcat mascots in dazzling and entertaining the huge crowds at Commonwealth Stadium and Rupp Arena.

In the 1980's, Terry Barney served as the Wildcat mascot and began a tradition that is carried out at every UK football game. After each UK score, Barney ran to the endzone in front of the Wildcats student section and did one-arm push ups for every point Kentucky had scored.

Today, that custom still applies. The crowd counts simultaneously with each push up. Then, once the push ups are finished, the Wildcat mascot leads the spelling of C-A-T-S.

The most one-arm push ups delivered by the Wildcat mascot in most recent seasons came in UK's 41-0 blanking of Utah State to open the 1987 season. In all, the Wildcat mascot did 184 one-arm pushups on the afternoon which included 105 in the first half alone.

BLUE AND WHITE

The University of Kentucky adopted Blue and White as its official colors in 1892. Ironically, blue and white were not the original colors UK had used for its athletics teams.

UK students had decided on blue and yellow prior to the Kentucky-Centre football game on Dec. 19, 1891. The shade of blue, which is between a royal and navy blue, came about when a student asked the same question, "What color blue?"

At that time, Richard C. Stoll (who lettered in football at UK in 1893-94) pulled off his necktie and held it up. The students then proceeded to adopt that particular shade of blue in Stoll's necktie. A year later, UK students dropped yellow for white.

For printing purposes, the UK athletic teams use PMS 293 blue.

GREAT LAKES BOWL

Kentucky 24, Villanova 14

1947 The Kentucky Wildcats made their first appearance on the bowl scene in the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl and came away with a 24-14 victory over Villanova before a crowd of 14,908 at Cleveland Municipal Stadium.

Kentucky, in its second year under head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, finished at 8-3 on the season with the victory.

Quarterback-placekicker George Blanda gave Kentucky an early 3-0 lead in the first quarter. Blanda connected on a 27-yard field goal to put the Cats up and it remained that way until halftime.

SCORING SUMMARY

VILLANOVA	0	0	0	14	- 14

UK - Blanda, 27 FG
UK - Howe, 29 run (Blanda PAT)
UK - Boller, 15 run (Blanda PAT)
UK - Boller, 49 interception return (Blanda PAT)
VU - Shehhan, 9 pass from Gordon
VU - Pasqunriello, 10 run
Attendance - 14,908

In the third quarter, UK's Jim Howe scampered 29 yards for a score. Blanda added the PAT and Kentucky led 10-0 after three periods.

Bill Boller scored both Kentucky touchdowns in the fourth period, romping 15 yards on a handoff from Blanda and racing 49 yards to paydirt with an interception. Blanda added both PATs to round out the Kentucky scoring.

Villanova also added a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns, but it was not enough as Kentucky captured its first bowl victory in school history.

ORANGE BOWL

Santa Clara 21, Kentucky 13

1950 Kentucky committed three turnovers and let a seven-point halftime lead slip away in dropping its first major bowl game, 21-13, to Santa Clara in the 1950 Orange Bowl before a crowd of 64,816.

The Wildcats, 9-3, scored their first touchdown early in the second quarter as a result of a Santa Clara turnover. UK's John Netoskie recovered at fumble at the Wildcat 49 to set up Kentucky's first score. The Wildcats drove 51 yards in 14 plays as Wilbur Jamerson hammered over from two yards. Bobby Brooks added the PAT to make it 7-0.

Kentucky wasted a golden scoring opportunity late in the second quarter when Babe Parilli found Bill Leskovar for a 45-yard completion to the SC 3 with time running out. Leskovar and runningmate Don Phelps each were stopped short on their respective rush attempts and the clock ran out before UK could score. The Wildcats led 7-0 at halftime.

SCORING SUMMARY

KENTUCKY	0	7	0	6	- 13
SANTA CLARA	0	0	14	7	- 21

UK - Jamerson, 2 run (Brooks PAT)
SC - Pasco, 1 run (Vargas PAT)
SC - Haynes, 4 run (Vargas PAT)
UK - Clark, 52 pass from Parilli (PAT missed)
SC - Wraith, 16 run (Vargas PAT)
Attendance - 64,816

UK coach Paul "Bear" Bryant said afterward he should have sent in a pass play just before the half. "If it failed," he said, "the clock was killed then we could have tried a field goal."

A short, 9-yard punt by Phelps set up Santa Clara's first score in the third quarter. After taking over on the SC 46, Bronco quarterback John Pasco hit Larry Williams on a 25-yard pass. Santa Clara eventually scored on a one-yard sneak by Pasco to tie the game, 7-7.

Santa Clara scored again later in the third period, thanks in part to a pass interference call against Kentucky. Hall Haynes went over from 4 yards to make it, 14-7, after three quarters.

Parilli led Kentucky right back, hitting Emery Clark on a 52-yard touchdown strike. Brooks, however, missed the tying PAT breaking a personal streak of 18 straight as Santa Clara led 14-13 with 12 minutes left in the contest.

Santa Clara managed to hold off the Cats and added an insurance score with less than a minute left, a 16-yard TD run by Buster Wraith.

SUGAR BOWL

Kentucky 13, Oklahoma 7

1951 Kentucky arrived on the national football scene and stunned national champion Oklahoma, 13-7, to capture the 1951 Sugar Bowl before 82,000 at New Orleans.

The Wildcats, 11-1, displayed a tough defense and opportunistic offense in snapping Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak, the longest in the nation at that time. More than 13,000 Kentucky fans made the long trip to New Orleans to watch the Southeastern Conference champions pick up their school record 11th win.

Inflicting the most damage on the Sooners was Walt Yowarsky, a tackle who had played less than five minutes on the defensive side of the football in 1950. Yowarsky operated at left end, next to Outland Trophy winner Bob

Yowarski recovered a fumble on the OU 22 that set up UK's first touchdown. On the very next play, Babe Parilli hit Wilbur Jamerson in the right corner of the end zone for the touchdown. Gain added the PAT to make it 7-0 in the first quarter.

Kentucky marched 81 yards in the second quarter to go up 13-0. Jamerson dove over from the one to cap the drive, but Gain missed wide on the PAT.

The Wildcat defense, ranked number two in the nation, showed Oklahoma why late in the third quarter. The Sooners drove 67 yards with the second-half kickoff, sitting at the UK 3 with a first-and-goal. Yowarsky helped UK turn back the Sooners, throwing an OU runner for a five-yard loss on third down and Oklahoma eventually turned the ball over on downs.

Yowarsky, voted the game's MVP, thwarted another OU threat in the fourth quarter as he recovered a fumbled punt.

Oklahoma did score with seven minutes to play as Billy Vessels hit Merrill Green on a 17-yard pass for the touchdown. Jim Weatherall added the PAT.

The Wildcats managed to hold on to the football for all but one play the rest of the way to claim a stirring 13-7 win.

COTTON BOWL

Kentucky 20, TCU 7

1952 Quarterback Babe Parilli threw for two touchdowns to lead the Kentucky Wildcats to a 20-7 victory over the TCU Horned Frogs in the 1952 Cotton Bowl before a crowd of 75,349 at Dallas, Texas.

Parilli, who completed 8 of 20 passes for 85 yards, tossed both touchdown strikes to Emery Clark. With the victory, the Wildcats end the season at 8-4.

Kentucky got on the scoreboard first, as Parilli found Clark for the first of two TDs. Parilli hit Clark with a five-yard toss to culminate a 53-yard scoring march. Harry Jones added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after one quarter.

In the second period, UK got its second touchdown when Parilli and Clark hooked up again. This time, Parilli found Clark on a 13-yard TD strike to cap a 57-yard drive. Jones missed on the PAT attempt and UK settled for a 13-0 lead in the second period with a little over 10 minutes left.

The Wildcat defense made that 13-point lead stand up until halftime as the Horned Frogs drove four times deep into UK territory. Led by All-American guard Ray Correll, the Wildcats turned TCU away on drives to the UK 4, 24, 5 and 2-yard lines to take a 13-0 lead at intermission.

TCU's Bobby Jack Floyd sliced the UK lead to 13-7 when he galloped 43 yards on a sweep. Floyd's run capped an 80-yard scoring drive which took only four plays. Keith Flowers added the PAT with 1:12 left in the third period.

Kentucky ended any thoughts of a TCU comeback, thwarting the only two Horned Frog offensive drives in the fourth period and scoring an insurance touchdown as well. Ed Hamilton sealed the UK victory with a three-yard score off left tackle with 3:33 left. Jones added the PAT for the final 20-7 score.

PEACH BOWL

Kentucky 21, North Carolina 0

1976 Kentucky tailback Rod Stewart scored three touchdowns to lead the Wildcats to a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina before a sellout crowd of 54,132 in the 1976 Peach Bowl at Atlanta, Ga.

The Wildcats, after a 25-year absence from the post-season bowl scene, returned in fine fashion as Kentucky completely smothered the Tar Heels. Kentucky outgained North Carolina 334-108 in total yards, limiting the Tar Heels to just five first downs and forcing five UNC turnovers.

After a scoreless first half, Kentucky went to work in the third period after UNC quarterback Matt Kupec fumbled at the Tar Heel 21. UK's James Ramey recovered and the Wildcats were in business.

Seven plays later, Stewart busted over from the one for the touchdown. John Pierce added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after three quarters.

Stewart sent the 37,000-plus Kentuckians, who had followed UK to the Peach Bowl, into a frenzy with his second touchdown early in the fourth quarter. The Wildcats marched 57 yards in 9 plays as Stewart capped the drive with a 13-yard gallop behind All-American tackle Warren Bryant. Pierce was good on the PAT and Kentucky led 14-0 with 13:01 left to play.

The Big Blue had to go only 47 yards for their final score. Kentucky faced a fourth-and-one from the UNC 3 with a little over three minutes remaining. Once again, Stewart (104 yards on 19 carries) got the call and he picked up both - the first down and the touchdown. Pierce was true on the PAT and UK had put the game away.

Stewart tied the Peach Bowl record for most touchdowns and scoring with the 3 TDs and 18 points. He was named the game's MVP. The Most Valuable Defensive Player of the game was UK linebacker Mike Martin, who helped hold the Tarheels to just over 100 yards.

HALL OF FAME BOWL

West Virginia 20, Kentucky 16

1983

Kentucky won much of the statistical battle but lost the war in dropping a tough 20-16 decision to the West Virginia Mountaineers in the 1983 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham.

The Wildcats, in a bowl for the first time since 1976, outgained West Virginia 306-288 in total offense and held the edge in first downs 19-18 and passing yards 216-88. But 17 second-half points by West Virginia were too much for the Wildcats to overcome.

West Virginia scratched first as placekicker Paul Woodside connected on a 39-yard field goal late in the first quarter.

Kentucky countered with 10 points in the second stanza to take a 10-3 lead at halftime.

The Wildcats marched 54 yards in eight plays for their first score. Facing a third-and-three from the WV 26, Kentucky used some razzle-dazzle as Tony Mayes swept right, then threw-back to quarterback Randy Jenkins in the left corner of the endzone for the TD. John Hutcherson added the PAT and UK led 7-3 with 10:59 left in the second period.

Jenkins hit two big passes late in the second quarter to help set up a 32-yard field goal by Hutcherson. Jenkins connected with Joe Phillips for a 19-yard pass play and then hit George Adams for a 14-yarder as Hutcherson connected with but 38 seconds left in the half.

WV - Woodside, 23 FG 9:18-4Q
UK - Phillips, 13 pass from Ransdell (PAT missed) 5:50-4Q

Attendance - 42,000

WVU kicker Paul Woodside fooled everyone to begin the second half. Woodside tried and on-side kick to start the half and then recovered it to give the Mountaineers the football at the UK 48. Eight plays later, QB Jeff Hostetler found Rich Hollins for a 16- yard TD strike. Woodside added the PAT and it was 10-10 with 11:10 left in the third quarter.

West Virginia scored twice in a span of two minutes early in the fourth quarter to take a commanding 20-10 lead. Hostetler capped off a 10-play, 81-yard drive with a 2-yard scoring toss to Rob Bennett to make it 17-10 with 11:15 left to play.

Two plays later, West Virginia took over after an interception of a Jenkins pass at the UK 16. The interception set up a 23-yard field goal by Woodside at the Mountaineers went up 20-10 with 9:18 remaining.

Kentucky freshman quarterback Bill Ransdell led the Wildcats back, marching UK 92 yards in 11 plays following the kickoff. Ransdell hit Phillips for a 13-yard scoring toss to make it 20-16 with 5:50 left. Hutcherson missed the PAT.

The Wildcats got one more shot, but could get no further than the UK 37.

HALL OF FAME BOWL

Kentucky 20, Wisconsin 19

1984

Kentucky's Joey Worley booted a career-long 52-yard field goal with just under nine minutes remaining to give the Wildcats a thrilling 20-19 victory over the Wisconsin Badgers in the 1984 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham.

Worley, a freshman, helped Kentucky overcome a nine-point deficit in the second half with his school and bowl record field goal.

Wisconsin jumped on top early, scoring twice in the first quarter. Todd Gregoire nailed a 40-yard field goal just under four minutes into the game and Michael Howard hit Thad McFadden with a 3-yard TD pass. Gregoire added the PAT and the Badgers led 10-0 with 5:34 left in the opening period.

Gregoire added another field goal, this one from 27 yards, to make it 13-0 with 7:05 left in the second period.

Kentucky got on the board after safety Paul Calhoun intercepted a Howard pass to give UK possession at the Badger 42. It took Kentucky just five plays to score as Marc Logan went over from nine yards. Worley added the PAT to cut the deficit to 13-7 with 1:29 left in the half.

Wisconsin was not through. The Badgers used four running plays, two passes and a costly 15-yard penalty to move the football to the UK 3 with two seconds left in the half. From there, Wisconsin decided on a Gregoire field goal (20-yarder) to take a 16-7 edge at halftime.

UK - Worley, 52 FG 8:55-4Q

Attendance - 47,300

Kentucky narrowed the gap to 16-10 on a 22-yard field goal by Worley with 11:28 left in the third quarter. But Gregoire responded with a 40-yarder two minutes later to move the count back to nine, 19-10.

Behind UK quarterback Bill Ransdell, the Wildcats marched 82 yards in 11 plays later in the quarter to get within two, 19-17. Ransdell hit Logan on a screen pass to cover the final 27 yards and with the Worley PAT, UK was back in it with 26 seconds left in the third quarter.

The next time Kentucky got the ball, Ransdell moved the Cats into position for Worley's 52-yarder. Starting from the UK 22, tailback Mark Higgs got the call four consecutive times, then it was Adams turn the next four plays. Facing a fourth-and-two at the UW 34, Worley nailed the game-winner with 8:55 left.

Wisconsin came back and marched to the UK 8 with less than two minutes left. With the Badgers facing a fourth-and-six, Gregoire was called on for his 5th field goal attempt. This time, the snap from center was bobbled and UK had sealed the victory.

Claiborne's emphasis on classroom brings UK football academic award

By SCOTT FOWLER
Staff Writer

LEXINGTON, Ky. — Although Jerry Claiborne doesn't follow his football players to every class, they study as though he is sitting on their shoulders.

More evidence of that came yesterday when the University of Kentucky won the College Football Association Academic Achievement Award. By graduating 90 percent of its players out of the incoming class of 1983, UK placed itself in the select company of Duke, Notre Dame and Virginia — who until yesterday had been the only recipients of the award since it was created in 1981.

"I know how important academics are, and our staff knows how important they are," Claiborne said yesterday. "Most of our players want to be in that 1 percent of players who go on to play professional football. But 99 percent of them won't get that, and you've got to have that academic background to fall back on. ... We're very interested in our players obtaining that degree, and they know it."

1986	Virginia	88.8
1987	Duke	95.8
1988	Notre Dame	100.0
1989	Kentucky	90.0

Honorable mention (70 percent or above): Boston College, Colorado, Duke, Kansas State, North Carolina, Notre Dame, Penn State, Rice, Tennessee, Tulane, Vanderbilt, Virginia.

Bob Bradley, an assistant UK athletics director and the head of the school's Center for Academic and Tutorial Services, supervises the academic-support system for all sports, which includes tutoring and monitoring each player's academic progress.

UK's football players attend mandatory study halls, punching a time card to show how much time they have spent there.

The system has worked. Eighteen of the 20 players who entered UK in 1983 had graduated by the summer of 1988, which the survey specified as the cutoff date. A year ago UK reported it graduated 19 of 21 players from the incoming class of 1982 (90.5 percent), only to be beaten out by Notre Dame, which had a 100 percent graduation rate. UK was among the top five schools last year.

Those two years haven't been a fluke. During Claiborne's seven-year tenure at UK, the school also has led the Southeastern Conference in academic all-SEC selections.

The College Football Association includes 66 Division I-A programs, with Big Ten and Pacific 10 schools being the most prominent non-members. The organization received 53 survey responses to this year's questionnaire. The overall graduation rate reported was 49.7 percent, a slight decline from last year's all-time high of 50.7 percent.

UK officials hailed the football team's achievements yesterday, as well as Claiborne's role.

"This is a fitting tribute to the kind of football program we have at the University of Kentucky," UK President David Roselle said. "It is also a fitting tribute to coach Claiborne, whose emphasis on academics in a competitive athletics program has made this award possible.

UK athletics director C. M. Newton said he would be proud of the award even if he hadn't moved to UK from Vanderbilt recently.

"As an alumnus of the university, it's really a great source of pride," Newton said. "Even if I weren't here, I'd feel that. It all goes back to that one guy, the head coach. If education is not important to the head coach, then his players don't graduate. If it is important to him, it will be important to his players. I couldn't be prouder of Jerry and his team."

Claiborne said Bradley and his staff at the CATS center deserve much of the credit for the award. Bradley said, "I think congratulations have to go to coach Claiborne. ... Many support systems across the country do an excellent job at helping their student-athletes. I am blessed at Kentucky in having Jerry Claiborne. He really believes in the student-athlete. We are totally in sync."

The Memphis Touchdown Club will present the award to UK officials in December at the Liberty Bowl luncheon in Memphis, Tenn. Claiborne hopes his team will be preparing for a bowl game of its own then.

"We're all delighted to win this award," said Claiborne, who has a 35-41-3 record during his career at Kentucky. "But we want to win that other championship, too."

KENTUCKY HOMECOMING RECORD

(Since 1946)

36 Wins, 10 Losses, 0 Ties

Homecoming is a special occasion at the University of Kentucky as alumni and old friends converge on campus and Commonwealth Stadium each fall. The horse-drawn carriages assist in presenting the Homecoming Queen and her court, a distinctive taste of Kentucky indeed.

On the football field, the Wildcats have won nine Homecoming games in a row and own a 36-10-0 record since 1946 in these contests. This year, Mississippi State will serve as the UK annual Homecoming foe.

BEGINNING IN 1956, the University of Kentucky football program has played in 41 games before "live" network television audiences. The Wildcats faced Georgia Tech in the very first telecast of a Kentucky football game on Sept. 22, 1956, by NBC at Stoll Field in Lexington. In all, Kentucky has appeared the most on national cable station, TBS of Atlanta, a total of 25 times. The most major network appearances have been on ABC with eight. The UK record in the 41 games televised is 10-30-1.

Ransdell Passes UK to Upset of Florida

BILL RANSDELL of Elizabethtown put on the most accurate aerial show in UK history by completing 20 of 23 passes (.869 pct.) for 161 yards as Kentucky upset Florida, 10-3, on Nov. 15, 1986, at Commonwealth Stadium . . . Ransdell helped the Wildcats utilize a ball-control passing game on this day as Kentucky held the football for 41 minutes to just 18 for the Gators . . . His 20 completions were spread among eight different UK receivers . . . Ransdell ended the contest strong, hitting on his last seven passing attempts.

UK Upsets No. 1 Ole Miss Behind Kestner

RICK KESTNER of Stone had the best day of any Kentucky receiver during his junior campaign in 1964 . . . Kestner hauled in nine passes for 185 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Wildcats to a 27-21 upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss at Mississippi Memorial Stadium in Jackson . . . In the third quarter, Kestner was on the receiving end of a 32-yard halfback pass from Rodger Bird to give UK a 13-7 lead . . . Kestner added two additional scores on tosses from QB Rick Norton (60 and 23) as the Wildcats rallied from 14-13 and 21-20 deficits late in the second half for the upset.

Willis Puts Toe in Victory Over Rutgers

KEN WILLIS of Owensboro scratched the UK Record Book on Oct. 14,1989, by scoring 15 points via the kicking game which eclipsed the old mark of 14 held by Joey Worley . . . The 15 points established a new Wildcats mark for most points scored by a kicker in a single game . . . Willis connected on four of four field goals (20, 19, 28, 20) and three PATs for the record . . . His record-breaking kick came following a 69-yard TD run by Alfred Rawls with 3 minutes remaining . . . Willis added the PAT for his 15th point of the night.

Bishop's Theft Gives UK Victory

DARRYL BISHOP of Louisville remains as the UK leader in career interceptions with 14, despite the fact his final campaign was some 18 years ago in 1973 . . . The most unusual interception in his career took place on Nov. 6, 1971, at Dudley Field in Nashville . . . With UK and Vanderbilt knotted at 7-7 and less than 50 seconds to play, Kentucky elected to punt facing a 4th-and-8 situation from its own 44 . . . Walter Overton made a fair catch at the Commodore 30, giving Vandy a first down . . . After QB Steve Burger lost four yards on the first play, the Commodores elected not to use a timeout . . . Then as time expired, Burger lofted a pass toward receiver Gary Chesley . . . The ball never got to Chesley as Bishop picked off the aerial and raced 43 yards for the winning score, giving UK a 14-7 victory on the game's final play.
