DAILY/WEEKLY SERVICES

MONDAY PRESS CONFERENCE

University of Kentucky Coach Bill Curry will conduct a weekly press conference each Monday during the 1996 football season. The press conferences will be conducted in the Wildcat Den at Commonwealth Stadium. Media members may access the Wildcat Den at Gate Three of Commonwealth Stadium.

The opposing coach is usually available via telephone hook-up. Selected Wildcats football players will be available at the press conferences.

The weekly press conferences will begin on Monday, Aug. 26. Press conferences conclude on Nov. 18. No press conference is scheduled for Sept. 9 and Oct. 28, which are the Mondays prior to UK's open dates.

The press conference schedule is as follows — lunch is set from 11:30 a.m. to noon; Curry press conference from noon to 12:30 p.m.; UK player interviews from 12:30 p.m. to 1 p.m.

SUNDAY TELECONFERENCE

UK Coach Bill Curry will again conduct a weekly Sunday teleconference following Wildcats football games. The teleconferences are up to 30 minutes in length and begin at 5:30 p.m. ET.

Media members can participate in the teleconference by dialing a MEDIA ONLY telephone number which can be obtained from the UK Media Relations Office. The Sunday teleconferences will begin on Sept. 1 and run through Nov. 17. No teleconference is planned for Sept. 15 and Nov. 3, the weeks of UK's open dates.

The teleconference is broadcast quality. Please contact the UK Media Relations Office (606) 257-3838 for further information.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE SERVICES

The Southeastern Conference Media Relations Office, headed by Assistant Commissioner Mark Whitworth, offers a variety of services to the media throughout the academic calendar year.

Statistics and league standings are available to the media on a 24-hour bulletin board. Media members can access the bulletin board via computer by a telephone hook-up. For parameters and further information, contact the SEC Media Relations Office at (205) 458-3010.

All SEC head football coaches are available each Wednesday via a teleconference. Each coach is given a period of five-to-10 minutes to address media questions about his upcoming football game. The starting date and telephone number will be available to the media by contacting the SEC Media Relations Office.

Video highlights by satellite are offered on a weekly basis through the SEC Media Relations Office. A 30-minute satellite feed, which includes player interviews and highlights, is available to television stations each Wednesday morning. For further information, contact the SEC Media Relations Office.

WILDCATS PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews must be coordinated through the UK Media Relations Office. Players are available to the media during game week, Monday through Wednesday. The best times to conduct interviews with the players are at the Monday press conference or at practice. Interviews will be conducted at the Nutter Football Training Center or by telephone. On game days, interviews will only be granted after the conclusion of the contest.

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a "call-back" basis only. Individual player telephone numbers WILL NOT be given to members of the media. Players are instructed NOT to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The UK Media Relations Office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete. Generally, the UK Media Relations Office has found the most convenient time for call-backs on telephone interviews is between 6 and 7 p.m. ET.

The Kirwan I dormitory, the Donovan Hall dining area, team locker rooms and team training rooms are considered private team areas. These areas are OFF-LIMITS to the media unless accompanied by UK Media Relations Office personnel.

FAX-ON-DEMAND

University of Kentucky football statistics and game notes are available to the media via fax-on-demand. Contact the UK Media Relations Office at (606) 257-3838 for the phone number and access codes.

The Southeastern Conference football statistics and notes also are available via fax-on-demand. Contact the conference office at (205) 458-3010 for the phone number and access codes.

FOOTBALL PRACTICE

Policies for covering Kentucky football practices had not been finalized as this media guide went to press.

Media members should contact the UK Media Relations Office, (606) 257-3838, for practice information.

GAME SERVICES

PRESS BOX

Credentials for working media and photographers for Kentucky's home football games should be directed to Rena Vicini, Assistant AD/Media Relations.

Requests for media credentials — season or single-game — should be submitted in writing by sports editors or sports directors of accredited media outlets on company letterhead. Requests for season passes should be submitted no later than August 17. Requests for single games should arrive at the UK Media Relations Office at least one week in advance.

The University of Kentucky follows guidelines set by the NCAA and the Southeastern Conference in issuing credentials. The UK Media Relations Office attempts to fill each accredited media request.

Season credentials will be granted only to daily newspapers, radio stations, and television stations that cover the UK football program on a regular basis — i.e., weekly press conferences and all home games. Because of limited space, season credentials to radio stations will be limited to one per station (sports director).

All credential requests should be sent to: Rena Vicini, Assistant AD/Media Relations, UK Media Relations Office, Memorial Coliseum, Lexington, KY 40506.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS

Photo credentials will be issued only to accredited media outlets — daily newspapers, specialized publications and television stations.

Admission to the Commonwealth Stadium sidelines is by a combination of photo pass and armband. Photographers must sign in and present their credential at the UK Press Will Call table, located inside Gate Seven of Commonwealth Stadium, to obtain an armband.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking at Commonwealth Stadium is available on a limited basis. Requests for parking should be made when submitting press and/or photo credentials. The media parking area is located in the Blue Lot just behind the West side (Alumni Drive) of Commonwealth Stadium. The Blue Lot is accessible via Alumni Drive.

PRESS BOX

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is for working media members ONLY. It is located on the West side (Alumni Drive) of Commonwealth Stadium between the upper and lower grandstands. The media entrance to Commonwealth Stadium is Gate Seven. Two press box elevators are located just to the left of the Gate Seven entrance.

The photo deck, radio booths, television booths, coaches booths, and VIP booths are located on the press box level of Commonwealth Stadium. All can be accessed via the press box elevator.

MEDIA WILL CALL

Media or photo credentials which have not been mailed can be obtained at the Media Will Call table, located just inside Gate Seven of Commonwealth Stadium. Media Will Call opens two hours prior to kickoff and closes 15 minutes following kickoff.

TELEPHONES

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is equipped with eight courtesy telephones with long-distance capabilities for use by the media on a first-come, first-served basis. The UK Media Relations Office strongly suggests each media outlet with deadline restrictions should order its own individual telephone line. Members of the media wishing to order phone lines can do so by contacting John Fuller of the UK Phone Services Department. His telephone number is (606) 257-7727. Please order phone lines at least one week in advance.

DARKROOM FACILITIES

Limited darkroom facilities are available in the Commonwealth Stadium press box. Photographers wishing to use the darkroom facilities should make arrangements with Tony Neely of the UK Media Relations Office at (606) 257-3838.

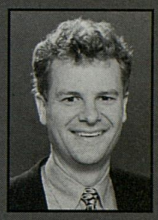

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is located between the upper and lower grandstands on the West side.

VISITING RADIO

The official visiting radio broadcast network should be designated in writing by the visiting team's sports information director or athletics director. Four phone lines will be made available, including two in the locker room area, at a cost to be determined by Mike Dodson of Host Communications (606) 226-4678.

Networks wishing to install additional telephone lines, either in the press box booth or locker room, can do so by contacting John Fuller of the UK Phone Services Department at (606) 257-7727.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

UK Coach Bill Curry will conduct his postgame press conference in the Wildcat Den, located under the East grandstand in the UK football office complex. Curry begins his postgame press conference approximately 15 minutes following the conclusion of the contest. The media entrance to the Wildcat Den is located in the northeast corner (nearest flagpole) of Commonwealth Stadium.

The Kentucky locker room is CLOSED to all members of the media. UK players requested for interviews are brought to the Wildcat Den following the conclusion of Curry's press conference. Interview cards are distributed in the press box during the second half of the contest in order for members of the media to request Wildcats players.

The visitors' locker room is located at the northwest corner of Commonwealth Stadium. A press conference area is located just outside the visitors' locker room entrance. The visiting coach and players generally conduct their respective post-game comments from that area.

PRESS SERVICES

The UK Media Relations Office will provide a complete pregame packet (including facts sheets, flip card, and game program) approximately 30 minutes prior to kickoff. A complete running play-by-play, drive charts and team and individual statistics are made available at the conclusion of the contest. Quotes from coaches and players of both teams are also provided.

A FAX service is also available. FAX request forms will be issued during the second half to media members requesting them. Statistics and play-by-play may be accessed after the game via fax-on-demand. Contact the Media Relations Office (606) 257-3838 for details.

THE Outlook

Linebacker Mike Schellenberger (49) led the team in tackles last season with 104.

Quarterback Billy Jack Haskins set a school record by completing 60.4 percent of his passes last season.

CONSISTENCY (NOUN):

Compatibility or agreement among successive acts, ideas, or events.

Just ask University of Kentucky Coach Bill Curry about his thoughts on the 1996 season and he'll discuss the ideal of doing things correctly, and doing them correctly every day.

"Consistency. Consistency. Consistency," Curry said. "It sounds like a broken record, but it's true. We have to be the same football team every time out." A glance back at the previous season explains Curry's emphasis on the topic.

The much-improved 1995 Wildcats posted a 4-7 record, 2-6 in the Southeastern Conference. A closer look shows that five of the games were lost by 10 points or less, including four in which Curry's team was ahead or tied in the fourth quarter. Thus, the Wildcats were on the verge of a breakthrough season, but inconsistent offensive and defensive play left some close games unclaimed.

"Our spring practice goals were designed with that thought in mind," Curry said. "We worked to become physically tougher, to become mentally tougher, and to better execute our systems and techniques. "Achieving those goals helps you achieve consistency and we made progress in each area. But these are goals with which you're never through. You have to work on them every day."

Curry's quest for offensive consistency should be aided by the fact that his team is entering its second season in the one-back offense installed by coordinator Elliot Uzelac.

The Uzelac attack helped UK rank second in the SEC in rushing yardage last season and the Wildcats closed the campaign with 33 points against Cincinnati and 31 versus Tennessee -- the first time Kentucky had topped the 30-point mark in consecutive games since 1987.

"We've just scratched the surface with what we can do in this offense," Curry said. "There's so much more to it than what we did last year. We can throw the ball more while keeping the same emphasis on a physical brand of running the football. When you do both well, that's what you want. That's the next step."

Junior quarterback Billy Jack Haskins returns to lead the offense. In his first season as a starter, Haskins threw for 1,176 yards and four touchdowns. He also authored a school-record 60.4 completion percentage for the season.

Haskins will throw to an exciting collection of receivers. Six returning lettermen are vying for playing time along with a pair of transfers. Sophomore Craig Yeast led the team in receiving a year ago with 24 catches for 337 yards and two touchdowns.

The running game has no more Moe after All-SEC tailback Moe Williams and his 1,600 rushing yards departed for the National Football League. But, senior Raymond McLaurin ran well as Williams' understudy last season and has the ability to be a capable replacement.

The performance of the tailbacks, of course, will be dictated in part by the play of the offensive line and tight ends. Four starters return at those positions, including left guard John Schlarman, right tackle Jonas Liening, and tight ends Isaac Curtis III and Marcus Cross. Schlarman, however, is likely to miss part of the season while rehabilitating a knee injury. Getting quality play from the newcomers will be a pressing concern and they must mature rapidly.

On defense, new coordinator Rick Smith will continue with the 4-3 scheme employed by former coordinator Mike Archer, who is now with the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers. Sticking with the same system will enhance the consistency of the Wildcat stop troops.

Smith will be able to field a relatively experienced starting lineup. Of the 20 returning defensive lettermen, 11 have started at least one game.

Senior end Kurt Supe and senior tackle Chris Ward lead a defensive line that saw intense competition for playing time during spring practice. The line appears to be one of the team's areas with the most quality depth.

Senior linebacker Mike Schellenberger and junior linebacker Lamont Smith ranked first and third on the team, respectively, in tackles last season. Additional experience is limited, however, and a new starter must be inserted at the other linebacker post.

Coach Smith has confidence in his young cornerbacks, Littleton Ward and Tony Woods. Their play in spring practice enabled the coaching staff to move former corners Kiyo Wilson and Van Hiles to free safety. The safety slots should be in good hands with Wilson, Hiles, and Leman Boyd, who is a two-year regular at strong safety.

Like their offensive and defensive counterparts, the Kentucky special teams had their ups-and-downs last season. Kio Sanford is a breakway threat on punt and kickoff returns. Soph punter Jimmy Carter returns but a new placekicker must be chosen.

Curry's plan is that consistency of play in 1996 will lead to the goal he almost reached in 1995:

Kentucky Offensive Coaching Staff

Ray Dorr — Quarterbacks
Mike Drake — Running Backs
Dave Magazu — Centers and Guards
Joker Phillips — Receivers
Elliot Uzelac — Associate Head Coach/ Coordinator/Tackles/Tight Ends
Bill Curry, Jr. — Graduate Assistant

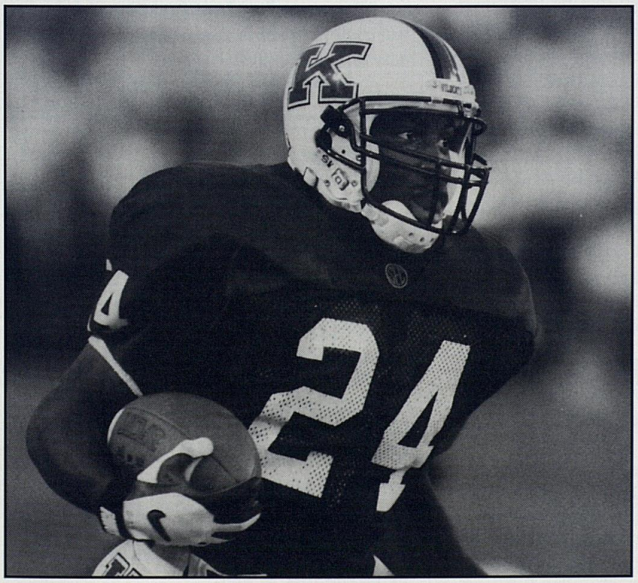

Kentucky will continue with the one-back offense installed by coordinator Elliot Uzelac at the beginning of the 1995 season.

The move to the one-back attack proved fruitful as the offense showed significant improvement over the 1994 season. Points per game increased 6.7 to 20.3 points per game. Total offense was up 42.7 yards to 322.4 yards per game. Yards per play increased from 4.6 to 4.9.

The offense also helped generate individual accomplishments. Tailback Moe Williams rushed for 1,600 yards — more than any Wildcat ever — while breaking three conference records and tying or breaking 15 school records. Quarterback Billy Jack Haskins set a school record by completing 60.4 percent of his passes during the season.

The basic set features two wide receivers, two tight ends, and one running back, but there are many variations in this multiple offense. The goals of the offense are to be able to strike in any direction and maintain a balance betwen rushing and passing yardage.

The offense returns 19 lettermen, including five starters. The quarterback, running back, and wide receiver positions have returning players with success at the collegiate level. However, UK must depend on some talented but inexperienced young linemen in order to rebuild a forward wall that lost three regulars.

Craig Yeast led the Wildcats in receiving last season with 24 catches for 337 yards and two touchdowns.

Here's a position-by-position look at the one-back offense, with comments by each position coach.

Coach Uzelac . . .

"We're better (on offense) than a year ago. The number one concern is depth, especially in the offensive line and at running back.

"(Quarterback) Billy Jack Haskins is much better than a year ago. We're much better in the receiving corps, but we looked at a lot of players during the spring and that led to some inconsistency. We have more talent and speed (at receiver) than a year ago.

"I like (tailback) Raymond McLaurin a lot. He ran the ball better in the spring. He is starting to understand the position, catch the ball better, and improve his blitz pickup.

"I think we'll be a better offensive line when we get everybody healthy. What we have to do is move forward with the second unit."

WIDE RECEIVERS

Brent Allen	5-11	183	Jr-Sq
Craig Carter	6-0	190	Fr-RS
Kevin Coleman	5-10	185	So-1L
Harold Dennis	5-9	175	Sr-1L
Dietrich Harrington	6-1	185	Fr-HS
Stuart Lackey	6-1	195	Jr-Sq
Marvin Love	5-10	175	Jr-JC
Norman Mason	5-9	179	Jr-Tr
Kio Sanford	5-11	169	Jr-2L
Tyler Siddens	5-11	175	Jr-1L
Jaysuma Simms	6-0	182	Sr-3L
Craig Yeast	5-9	175	So-1L

Playing time at the wide receiver slots will be very competitive. Six lettermen return, including four players who have started at least one game during their careers. Two transfers also figure into the mix. Overall, the group has excellent speed.

Craig Yeast was UK's leading receiver in 1995 with 24 receptions for 337 yards and two touchdowns. He was named to the Freshman All-SEC team ... Kio Sanford played through multiple injuries and caught 11 passes for 176 yards. He continued to shine on kickoff returns as well ... Potentially a redshirt, injuries forced Kevin Coleman into action last season. In the last two games, he caught six passes for 144 yards and two touchdowns.

Jaysuma Simms caught seven passes last season ... Speedy Harold Dennis saw his first action at receiver last season and caught one pass. He played well during the spring and could see more playing time this year.

Murray State transfer Norman Mason has been impressive and will contend, as will swift junior college transfer Marvin Love ... Sure-handed Tyler Siddens and freshman Dietrich Harrington provide more depth.

Coach Phillips . .

"These are probably the most competitive positions on the team, but we need to be more consistent in our play. We have several players who can make big plays and the ones who make them consistently will be the starters."

TIGHT ENDS

Darrin Clark	6-5	245	Jr-1L
Larry Coleman	6-2	255	Fr-RS
Marcus Cross	6-4	240	Jr-2L
Isaac Curtis III	6-3	250	Sr-3L
Andy Dreisbach	6-2	245	Fr-RS
Paul McGonagle	6-4	245	So-Sq
Mike Piccione	6-4	250	Fr-RS
Filmore Wester	6-0	240	Fr-RS

The one-back offense is a great opportunity for tight ends because the basic set features two tight ends in the game.

Senior Isaac Curtis III started the first eight games last year before a season-ending injury. He caught five passes for 42 yards ... Junior Darrin Clark started the final three games in place of Curtis. Clark had a good spring and enters fall practice as the starter at one slot ... Junior Marcus Cross started all 11 games last season. He caught eight passes for 54 yards and one touchdown. He enters fall practice as a backup behind Curtis.

Redshirt freshmen Andy Dreisbach and Filmore Wester moved to tight end during the spring and hope to contend for playing time ... Several tight ends were recruited this year and the incoming freshmen could figure in the mix.

Coach Uzelac . . .

"We're not where we need to be because of inconsistency. Each of our tight ends, at times, has made really good plays. We have to make them more consistently."

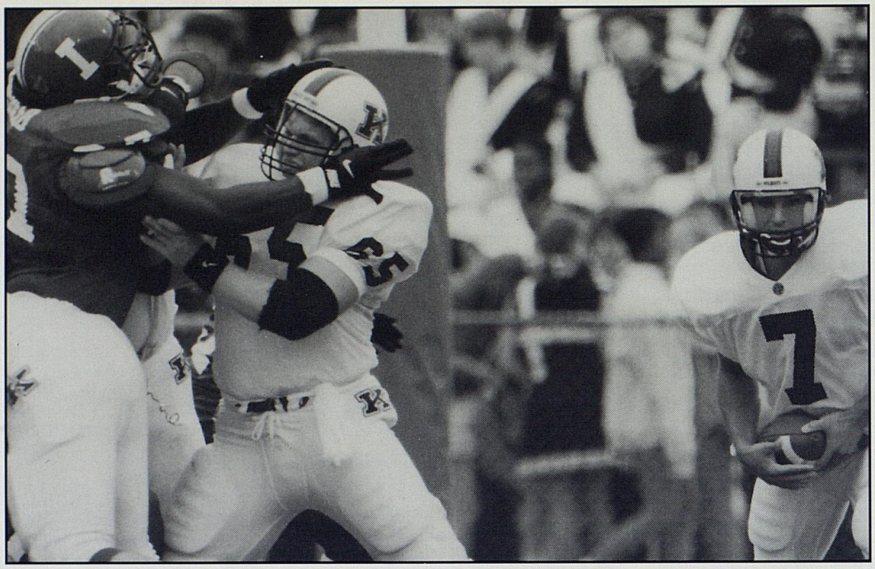

OFFENSIVE TACKLES

Kris Comstock	6-8	290	So-1L
David De La Perralle	6-6	290	Fr-HS
Jonas Liening	6-8	295	So-1L
Jeremy Streck	6-5	290	So-Sq
Jason Walker	6-5	264	Fr-RS
Ryan Wassil	6-6	285	So-Sq

Sophomore Jonas Liening returns at right tackle. Liening played every offensive play last season and was named to the Freshman All-SEC team ... The new starter at left tackle is likely to be sophomore Jeremy Streck. Streck was one of the pleasant developments of spring practice, playing well at that post after moving over from the defensive line. He should improve significantly with game experience.

Sophomores Kris Comstock and Ryan Wassil, along with freshmen David De La Perralle and Jason Walker, have the size but need game experience. At least one of the four must come through in order for the Wildcats to have quality depth.

Offensive guard John Schlarman throws a block for Billy Jack Haskins. Schlarman, UK's Most Outstanding Offensive Lineman last year, is likely to miss the early part of the 1996 season while rehabilitating a knee injury.

Coach Uzelac . . .

"We're much better (at tackle) than a year ago. The addition of Jeremy Streck was very helpful. He's not a finished product but he has potential.

"Jonas Liening has made giant strides. He got thrown into a tough situation (last season) but now he has game experience. Those two (Streck and Liening) lead the pack.

"I'm pleased with the progress of David De La Perralle. Kris Comstock has worked hard on his technique. Ryan Wassil has gotten better."

OFFENSIVE GUARDS

Cliff Bailey	6-4	275	Jr-Sq
DeAnthony Honaker	6-1	280	Sr-1L
Mike Riddle	6-0	255	So-Sq
John Schlarman	6-2	275	Jr-2L
Omar Smith	6-3	280	Fr-HS

Junior John Schlarman was UK's Most Outstanding Offensive Lineman last season. Not content to rest on his laurels, he had an outstanding spring and was named the team's Most Improved Offensive Lineman during spring drills. He is the projected starter at left guard, but is likely to miss the early part of the season because of a knee injury suffered at the end of spring practice. He is the leader of the young line and he will be missed.

Senior DeAnthony Honaker, who has seen occasional reserve action during his career, played well during the spring and looms as the regular at right guard ... Vying for Schlarman's post and reserve duty are three inexperienced players: junior Cliff Bailey, sophomore Mike Riddle, and freshman Omar Smith.

Coach Magazu . . .

"DeAnthony Honaker has made tremendous strides in his abilities. He'll be able to compete. John Schlarman is probably our best lineman. He'll be a force (when he returns).

"We have a lot of young kids who can contribute as time goes on. (Center) David Berringer can also play guard if needed."

CENTERS

David Berringer	6-4	270	So-1L
Chad Hudson	6-3	265	Jr-2L
Jason Watts	6-3	275	So-1L

Sophomore Jason Watts was pressed into service at the end of last season when John Schlarman was injured. He played well in the last two games and is slated to open as the starting center. He should improve as he gains seasoning.

David Berringer returns to game action this year. He redshirted last season after moving from the defensive line to the offensive line ... An interesting experiment in the fall is the move of Chad Hudson from linebacker to center. A center in high school, Hudson has added some 30 pounds in order to handle the bulkier assignment.

Coach Magazu . . .

"Jason Watts has a lot of ability. Playing a little last year helped him in knowing what it's going to take in this league. He's still learning and moving toward his potential.

"David Berringer and Chad Hudson are the backups at this time. One of the luxuries we have is that some of our guards can play center and vice versa. That gives us some flexibility."

QUARTERBACKS

Billy Jack Haskins	6-1	192	Jr-1L

Billy Jack Haskins is the only returning quarterback on the roster. Haskins started the last nine games of the 1995 season and led the Wildcats to four victories. He threw for 1,176 yards and four touchdowns and set a school record by completing 60.4 percent of his passes.

Haskins also showed great leadership qualities. He earned the respect of all observers of Wildcat football by playing the last three games in great pain because of a separated left shoulder.

Kentucky has two incoming freshman quarterbacks, Tim Couch and Ryan Keller. Obviously, they will provide depth while challenging for playing time.

Coach Dorr . . .

"The key ingredient is the fact that we have a proven, established quarterback who can get us to a competitive edge in the Southeastern Conference.

"Billy Jack Haskins' biggest challenges in the spring were: one, to go through every play and not miss any drills; and two, build on the leadership capabilities that he established during the 1995 season. He wasn't challenged for the starting position but more was asked of him by the coaching staff. His spring statistics (70 percent completion rate) equate his improvement.

"The summer months will be needed to improve his strength and to study the opponents for the 1996 campaign. He was much improved from last spring and he's clearly established himself as our starting quarterback.

"The remainder of our depth at quarterback will come from our incoming players, who will have an opportunity to compete."

TAILBACKS

Carl Grinter	5-10	190	Fr-RS
Raymond McLaurin	6-0	208	Sr-3L
Lee Wesley	6-0	198	Fr-RS
Anthony White	6-1	195	Fr-RS

All-SEC tailback Moe Williams and his 1,600 rushing yards have departed for the National Football League, but the tailback position should be well-handled by senior Raymond McLaurin. McLaurin gained 260 yards in a backup role last season, including 107 against LSU when an injured Williams left the game early in the third quarter. McLaurin continued to run well in the spring.

The backup position is up for grabs between redshirt freshmen Lee Wesley and Anthony White ... Talented incoming freshmen could vie for playing time as well.

Coach Drake . . .

"Raymond McLaurin has established himself as a very good football player. He improved his total game during the spring. I believe he's ready for the challenge of being the starting tailback.

"I'm encouraged by the development of our young backs but I believe we have lots of room to grow. I look forward to seeing our young backs competing with our incoming players. The competition will be healthy. It is critical that we develop some depth."

FULLBACKS

Mike Fisher	5-7	219	So-Sq
Larry Morris	6-2	229	Fr-RS
Ashley Moser	6-0	198	Fr-RS
A. J. Simon	5-11	232	Fr-RS
Michael Woodfork	6-1	225	Sr-3L

A fullback is inserted when UK goes to a two-back set ... Linebacker Mike Schellenberger pulled double duty as the starting fullback last season but did not work out there during the spring.

Senior Michael Woodfork is the projected starter. He gives the team a veteran presence at the position and could also play tailback if needed ... Redshirt freshman Larry Morris moved over from linebacker during the spring ... Three walk-ons, led by hard-working sophomore Mike Fisher, give the position depth.

Coach Drake . . .

"Michael Woodfork's added weight and strength helped him to become a more consistent fullback than a year ago at this time. His continued development is important because of the situation he will play. We're going to lean on him to get the job done in critical situations. We're looking for someone to step up and establish himself as the backup."

KENTUCKY DEFENSIVE COACHING STAFF

Rick Smith — Coordinator/Defensive Backs
Bill Glaser — Defensive Tackles
Calvin Miller — Defensive Ends
Milan Vooletich — Linebackers
Mike Chism — Graduate Assistant

Rick Smith is in his first year as defensive coordinator after Mike Archer departed for the Pittsburgh Steelers. The Wildcats will continue with the 4-3 scheme used by Archer.

Smith must replace six starters, including All-SEC free safety Reggie Rusk. A total of 19 lettermen return, including some experienced reserves who can fill most of the gaps left by the departed starters.

Coach Smith. . .

"One thing I've really stressed is that it is a privilege to play defense at the University of Kentucky. They (the players) earned a scholarship as a high school player but they do not have a right to play here. It's a privilege that they must earn. The only right they have is to expect the very best on every play from their teammates.

"That's my philosophy and I think we made some progress in the spring in terms of aggressiveness. We worked hard on fundamentals and must work hard to improve our conditioning during the summer. Physical conditioning always precedes mental toughness and gives you a chance to play hard.

"If you can get 11 players who have earned the privilege to play, and believe in each other, and believe they can win, then we can win."

DEFENSIVE TACKLES

Quincy Bell	6-3	270	So-1L
Thad Corbin	6-3	266	Jr-2L
Jim Gibson	6-5	280	Jr-JC
Mark Jacobs	6-3	260	So-1L
George Massey	6-3	265	Fr-HS
Jeff Tanner	6-2	260	Sr-3L
Chris Ward	6-4	265	Sr-3L

For the second season in a row, Coach Bill Glaser must replace both starters. However, the task should be a bit easier this season as he has more experience than this time a year ago.

Seniors Chris Ward and Jeff Tanner have moved from end to tackle and should be significant contributors .... Ward has been a two-year starter at end, making 51 stops last season, and is expected to start at left tackle ... Tanner is battling for playing time as a reserve. Sophomore Mark Jacobs started twice last season and finished the spring as the starter at right tackle. He made 19 tackles last season ... Junior Thad Corbin has been a steady reserve the last two seasons and Quincy Bell saw game action in 1995 as a true freshman ... Junior college transfer Jim Gibson brings size and strength to the middle of the line ... The coaches are excited about the potential of freshman George Massey, who enrolled in January and participated in spring practice.

Coach Glaser . . .

"This year we have more experience than we did last year. Chris Ward and Jeff Tanner have played at end. Mark Jacobs and Thad Corbin also have played some.

"We need to get Chris and Jeff as much repetition in practice as possible to get them ready to play tackle. Their quickness and mobility will be a bonus.

"George Massey and Jim Gibson will be playing their first major college games and have the most to learn. Both have the strength and size we need at that position.

"We need to improve our pass rush because the SEC has become more of a passing league. We're looking for the best combination of run defenders and pass rushers.

"This position has to set a tone for the defense and give great effort on every play. Conditioning is a premium. They must come back in the best shape of their life."

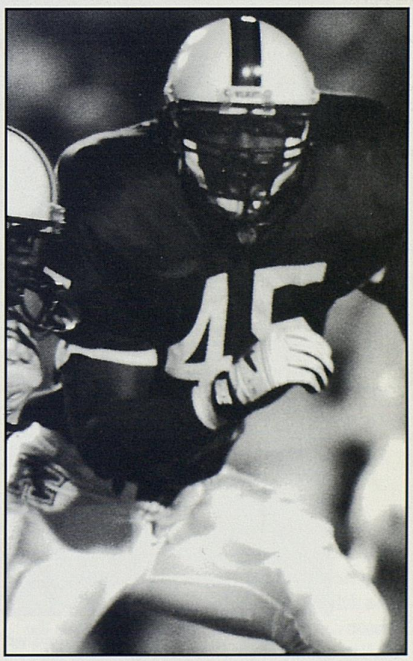

DEFENSIVE ENDS

Harold Bell	6-4	260	Jr-JC
Michael Benjamin	6-4	255	So-Tr
Ben Bird	6-3	265	Sr-1L
Kurt Supe	6-3	260	Sr-3L
Jason Thomas	6-5	270	So-1L
Anthony Watson	6-3	255	Fr-RS

The defensive end positions showed significant improvement last season under new coach Calvin Miller. The Wildcat ends had 13 sacks in 1995, doubling the total of six and one-half sacks from the 1994 season.

There was excellent competition for playing time during the spring. Senior Kurt Supe and sophomore Jason Thomas finished the spring as the starters, but they will be pushed hard and these positions should have good depth.

Supe was leading the SEC in sacks last season with five when he was sidelined by a broken arm. He made a good return during the spring ... Jason Thomas started the last two games last season and continued to improve during the spring ... Senior Ben Bird, a shot and discus man on the track team, made 14 tackles last season in his first football action ... Junior college transfer Harold Bell and redshirt freshman Anthony Watson each made strong showings during the spring. Watson was named the team's Most Improved Defensive Lineman for the spring ... Walk-on Michael Benjamin has the size but needs experience.

Linebacker Lamont Smith was third on the team in tackles last season with 86.

Coach Miller . . .

"We had a really good spring, very positive. We got a lot of learning done but have a lot of learning to accomplish.

"Jason Thomas improved considerably, enabling us to move Chris Ward and Jeff Tanner to tackle. Kurt Supe picked up where he left off and will be even better.

"Anthony Watson could be a great addition to us and it's exciting to see what Harold Bell can do. Ben Bird will help us. He came a long way last year.

"We should have senior leadership in the defensive line. I think they're tougher and more physical than a year ago. If we can get them to play like a pack of wild men, we will be successful in the coming season. They must develop themselves during the summer."

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Dele Ali	6-3	220	Jr-2L
David Ginn	6-5	225	Jr-2L
Jay McPeake	6-0	197	So-Tr
Lamont Smith	6-2	230	Jr-2L
Jeff Snedegar	6-2	220	Fr-RS
Anwar Stewart	6-3	230	Fr-RS

Lamont Smith is a returning starter but long-time regular David Snardon must be replaced. Smith made 86 tackles last season, third-best on the team ... Dele Ali emerged as the starter at the other outside post after moving from strong safety. As a former defensive back, he should provide improved pass coverage ... Junior David Ginn is an experienced reserve ... Redshirt freshmen Jeff Snedegar and Anwar Stewart have ability and need game experience ... Walk-on Jay McPeake is working to add more size and strength.

Coach Vooletich . . .

"Lamont Smith is a tough kid who plays hard and has good experience. Dele Ali is a very intense player with ability and speed.

"David Ginn has some experience and very good ability. Anwar Stewart has very good ability and speed. If he continues, he'll be another productive player. Jeff Snedegar has good size, ability, and strength.

"As a group, they have speed and toughness. They can be very productive."

MIDDLE LINEBACKERS

Bob Holmberg	6-0	230	Jr-1L
Mike Schellenberger	6-0	230	Sr-3L
Miguel Viera	6-2	225	So-Sq

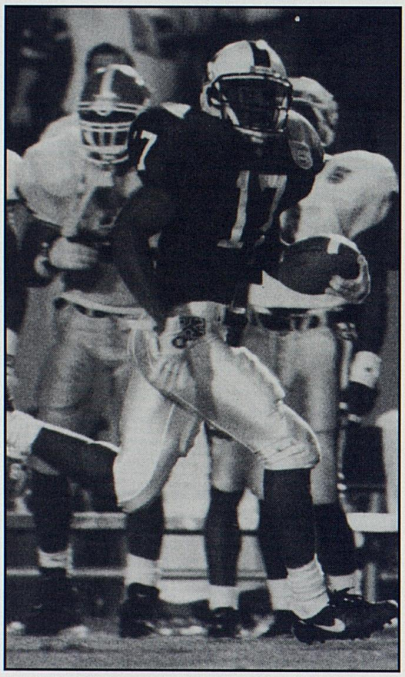

Mike Schellenberger was UK's leading tackler last season with 104 stops. The second-team Academic All-American also brings good pass defense. He had five pass breakups last season ... Junior Bob Holmberg emerged as the backup middle linebacker last season, but his claim on the position is being challenged strongly by sophomore Miguel Viera.

Coach Vooletich. . .

"These are very, very intense kids. If they keep that intensity they can be very productive players. As a group, they had a good spring and have to keep going. It's a great group of kids who execute what they're told."

CORNERBACKS

Shamseldeen Arulogun	5-10	180	Fr-RS
Buddy Berry	5-11	173	So-Sq
Frank Crossman	5-10	192	Jr-Sq
Chris Ford	6-1	185	So-1L
Littleton Ward	5-9	180	Jr-2L
Marc Wilson	5-9	183	So-Sq
Tony Woods	5-10	180	So-1L

The health of Van Hiles, shown here returning an interception for a touchdown, will be a key question for the Wildcats' defense.

The Wildcat cornerbacks will be young this season. Two starting spots are open with the graduation of Steven Hall and the move of Van Hiles to free safety ... The onslaught of cornerback injuries last season gave Littleton Ward his first significant playing time and he took full advantage. He projects to start at one corner ... Tony Woods had an excellent spring and was named the team's Most Improved Defensive Back ... Chris Ford returns to action after an injury redshirt season ... Four walk-ons also are available, with redshirt freshman Shamseldeen Arulogun seeing the most playing time during the spring.

Coach Smith . . .

"Tony Woods and Littleton Ward emerged as players good enough to play in the Southeastern Conference. Chris Ford has made significant improvement."

STRONG SAFETIES

Leman Boyd	5-10	196	Sr-3L
Michael Moss	6-0	210	Fr-RS
Given Ward	5-7	207	Fr-RS
Jeff Zurcher	6-0	195	So-Sq

Leman Boyd is a two-year starter at strong safety. A steady presence, Boyd made 79 tackles last season and led the team in interceptions with three ... Three walk-ons joined the team last season with Jeff Zurcher being the top reserve coming out of spring practice ... Incoming freshmen have a chance to make an impact here.

Coach Smith . . .

See quote below.

FREE SAFETIES

Tywone Grady	6-0	185	So-Sq
Van Hiles	6-0	195	Sr-3L
Stephan Walters	6-0	184	So-Sq
Kiyo Wilson	5-11	195	Sr-3L

All-SEC free safety Reggie Rusk went to Tampa Bay in the National Football League draft. Former cornerbacks Kiyo Wilson and Van Hiles have been moved to the position ... Wilson started four games at corner last season and made 29 tackles ... Hiles was sidelined late in the season by recurring concussions. He was held out of contact work in the spring and will return to full action in August ... Walk-ons Stephan Walters and Tywone Grady add depth.

Coach Smith . . .

"I feel good about our safeties with Kiyo Wilson and Leman Boyd. Hopefully, Van Hiles will not have any more concussion problems. Whatever we get out of him will be a plus."

SPECIAL TEAMS

Bill Glaser — Coordinator

Kentucky's special teams had mixed results during the 1995 season. Kickoff returns and kickoff/punt coverage were generally good. The Wildcats must continue that good play while improving the performance on punt returns, punting, and placekicking.

KICKERS

Tobin Anderson	6-0	195	Jr-JC
Bill Coleman	6-0	176	Jr-Sq
Brian Johnson	5-8	164	Jr-1L

Brian Sivinski has completed his eligiblity, leaving the door open for a new kicker ... Brian Johnson saw some action at the end of last season. He made his only field goal attempt, 33 yards against Tennessee, and all nine extra point tries ... Tobin Anderson was outstanding in junior college, making 20 of 27 attempts with just one miss from inside 45 yards ... Johnson and Anderson were bracketed as the starter in the spring and will continue their battle in August ... Bill Coleman is in his second year as a walk-on kicker.

Coach Glaser . . .

"Brian Johnson is very consistent and has some game experience. We feel he is dependable on short- and medium-range field goals. Tobin Anderson has a strong leg and is a very competitive guy. He has the range for long field goals and is likely to handle kickoffs."

PUNTERS

Tobin Anderson	6-0	195	Jr-JC
Stephen Brown	5-11	183	So-Sq
Jimmy Carter	6-0	174	So-1L

Jimmy Carter was the starting punter as a redshirt freshman last season and averaged 35.6 yards per punt. He had good placement and landed 20 punts inside the opponent 20-yard line ... Stephen Brown is in his third season as a walk-on with the Wildcats ... Tobin Anderson averaged 37 yards per punt in junior college.

Coach Glaser . . .

"Jimmy Carter got a lot of experience last year. Tobin Anderson has a strong leg and we'll see how he develops. Darrin Clark returns as the long and short snapper. He did a good job last season and we don't expect him to do anything but get better."

KICKOFF RETURNERS

Harold Dennis	5-9	175	Sr-1L
Marvin Love	5-10	175	Jr-JC
Kio Sanford	5-11	169	Jr-2L
Craig Yeast	5-9	175	So-1L

The Wildcats have an excellent group of kickoff returners, but don't overlook the unsung blocking heroes on the unit ... Kio Sanford ranked second in the SEC in kickoff returns last season, averaging 24.1 yards per return. He ranks second in school history in kickoff return yardage ... Harold Dennis averaged 24 yards on five returns last season ... Craig Yeast had eight returns, averaging 14.6 per runback ... Former California junior college sprint champion Marvin Love has outstanding speed.

Coach Glaser . . .

"Kio did a really good job last season. He is very experienced and capable. He does a good job reading the field.

"We use two returners and the most dependable guy will be the other one. The most important thing is hanging on to the football. Both players have to be willing to block. All of them have good speed, so we'll see who develops."

PUNT RETURNERS

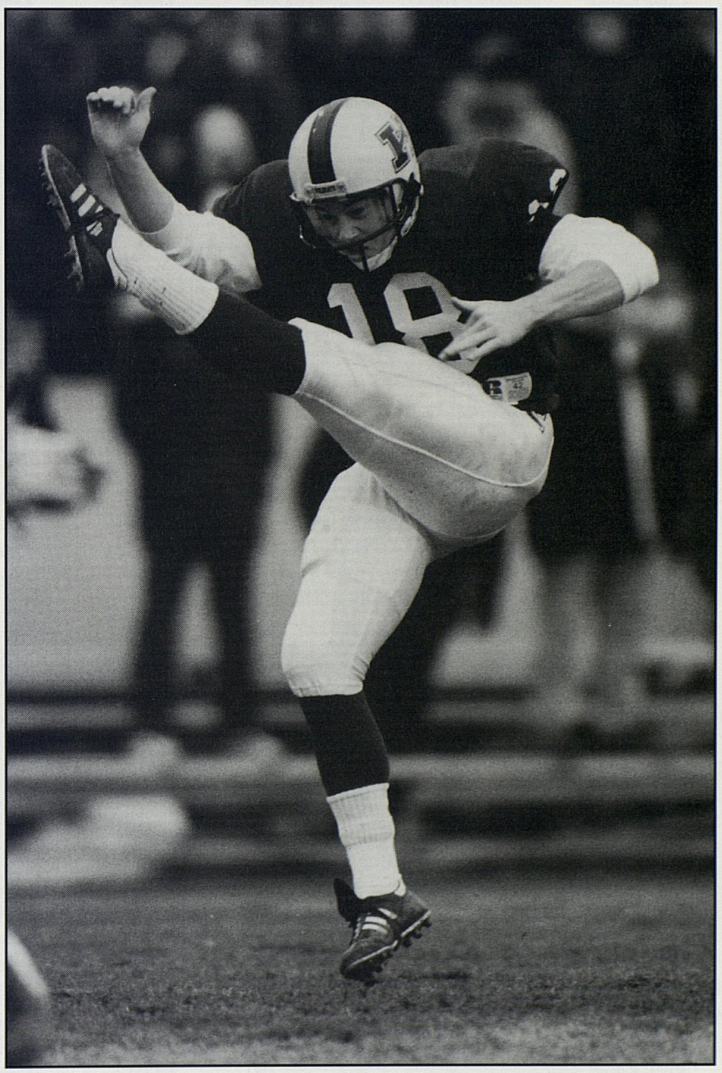

Norman Mason	5-9	179	Jr-Tr
Kio Sanford	5-11	169	Jr-2L
Craig Yeast	5-9	175	So-1L

Kio Sanford shared the duties with Antonio O'Ferral last season. Sanford averaged 4.0 yards per return and would like to return to his freshman form when he averaged 8.4 yards per return ... Norman Mason and Craig Yeast also will be tried at the punt returning duties.

Coach Glaser . . .

"Kio is good at catching the ball and will make a big play if we give him his chance. We have to do a better job of blocking for him and getting him started.

"Craig Yeast and Norman Mason have good ability in running the ball and we'll also take a look at them."

Jimmy Carter averaged 35.6 yards per punt last season.

THE OUTLOOK

Kentucky Football Bulletin Board

UK Football History

The University of Kentucky was the first Southeastern Conference school to introduce football (1881). After a nine-year lull from 1882-90, the school resumed the sport and has fielded a team since 1891, with the exception of the 1943 war year.

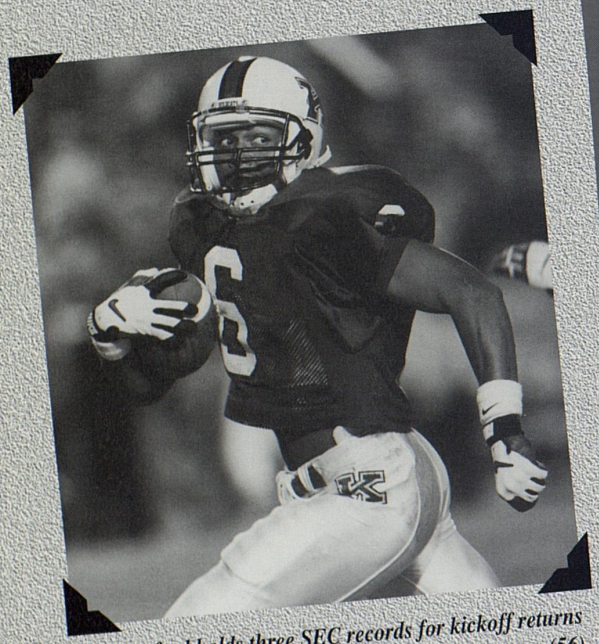

UK has completed 105 seasons and has an all-time record of 495 wins, 464 losses, and 44 ties for a winning percentage of .515. Kentucky is a charter member of the Southeastern Conference, beginning in 1933, and won SEC championships in 1950 and 1976.

Offensive Numbers Up

The new Kentucky offense, the one-back attack installed last season by offensive coordinator Elliot Uzelac, showed significant improvement over the 1994 season.

Here's how Kentucky stacked up in comparison to 1994 in some statistical categories:

	1994	1995	Difference
Points per game	13.6	20.3	+6.7
Total offense per game	279.7	322.4	+42.7
Yards per play	4.6	4.9	+0.3
Rushing yards per game	155.4	196.0	+40.6
Rushing yards per attempt	4.2	4.2	0
Passing yards per game	124.4	126.4	+2.0
Passing yards per attempt	5.4	6.4	+1.0
Turnovers lost	33	16	-17

Kio Sanford holds three SEC records for kickoff returns and ranks second in school history for most returns (56) and yardage (1,374) in a career.

Do You Know?

- The August 31 game against Louisville is the earliest starting date in school history.
- Kentucky has two open dates in the 1996 schedule, the first time that has happened since 1990.
- Rick Smith is UK's new defensive coordinator. He was promoted from within the UK staff after Mike Archer took a coaching job with the Pittsburgh Steelers. Milan Vooletich took Archer's spot as the linebackers' coach.
- Three UK assistant coaches — Ray Dorr, Mike Drake, and Elliot Uzelac — have been collegiate head coaches.
- UK committed a school-record low of 16 turnovers in the 1995 season. The previous low was 19 turnovers in 1956.
- UK led the SEC in fewest penalty yards last season, committing only 46.2 penalty yards per game in 1995.
- Kentucky drew two of the top five crowds in Commonwealth Stadium history in 1995. The Louisville game packed in 58,967 fans, the second-highest total in school history, and the Auburn attendance of 58,250 is the fifth-highest.
- Because of a large number of inquiries in January about the availability of season tickets, UK experimented by selling season tickets for a one-week period in February. The experiment was a solid success. UK sold 1,046 new season tickets for the 1996 campaign.
- Thirteen walk-ons have earned scholarships in the Bill Curry era, including three current Wildcats — LB Dele Ali, DE Ben Bird, and DT Thad Corbin.
- Kentucky has the best bowl-game winning percentage (.625) of any Southeastern Conference school.
- Kentucky's cheerleaders won an unprecedented sixth national championship at the 1996 Universal Cheerleaders Association competition in January.
- Kentucky is one of the nation's most popular schools, as evidenced by UK's No. 4 national ranking in licensing revenues as compiled by the Collegiate Licensing Company of Atlanta.

Checking the Schedule

Kentucky's 1996 opponents had a composite record of 68-56-2 (.548) in 1995, a mark that improves to 49-37 (.570) when you subtract games that the opponents played against each other. Here's how Kentucky's 1996 opponents fared in the 1995 season:

	'95 Overall	'95 Conf. Record, Bowl Game
Louisville	7-4	-
Cincinnati	6-5	-
Indiana	2-9	0-8
Florida	12-1	8-0, Fiesta Bowl
Alabama	8-3	5-3
South Carolina	4-6-1	2-5-1
Louisiana State	7-4-1	4-3-1, Independence Bowl
Georgia	6-6	3-5, Peach Bowl
Mississippi State	3-8	1-7
Vanderbilt	2-9	1-7
Tennessee	11-1	7-1, Citrus Bowl

Playing for the Trophies

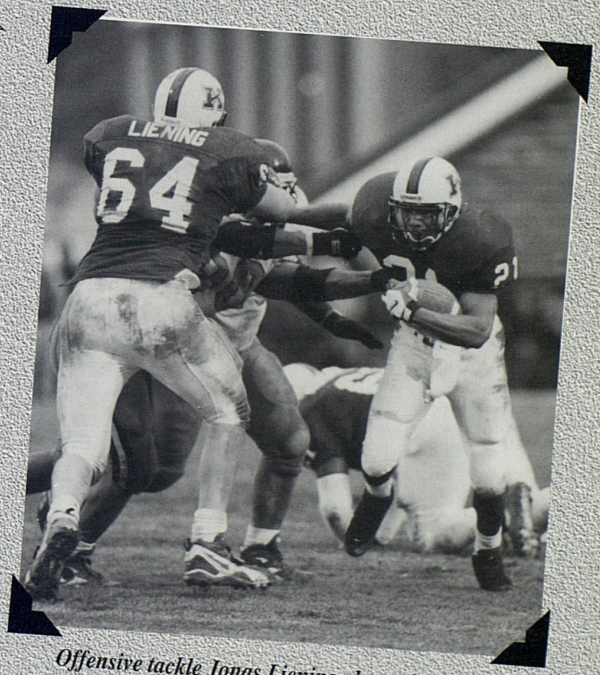

Three of Kentucky's regular season games have trophies that are awarded to the winning team. Ironically, all three of last season's trophy games were won by the visiting team.

Louisville is in possession of the Governor's Cup after winning last year's game, 13-10. Kentucky reclaimed the Bourbon Barrel with a 17-10 triumph at Indiana. Tennessee held on to the Beer Barrel with a 34-31 victory in Lexington.

Defense Made Progress, Too

The Kentucky defense made significant progress in 1995 vs. the 1994 season. Here's how the Wildcats improved:

	1994	1995	Difference
Points per game allowed	36.8	24.5	-12.3
Yardage per game allowed	450.1	354.3	-95.8
Yards per play allowed	6.2	5.3	-0.9
Rush yards per game allowed	272.2	151.3	-120.9
Rushing yards per attempt	5.7	4.0	-1.7
Pass yards per game allowed	177.9	203.0	+25.1
Passing yards per attempt	7.3	6.9	-0.4

THE Coaches

Head Coach Bill Curry is in his seventh season with the Wildcats.

Bill Curry
Head Coach

Each season, a college head coach has the responsibility of building a football team; Bill Curry had to do it twice during the 1995 campaign.

Midway through the 1995 season, the Wildcats were 3-3 and had just posted a win over bowl-bound Louisiana State. Then, a relentless succession of injuries struck the team. By the end of the season, 11 players who had started at least one game had been sidelined or seriously hampered by injury.

A combination of injuries and inconsistent play led to three consecutive close losses, all on the road. Yet when all seemed lost, Curry rebuilt his club and the Cats came off the canvas to post a 33-14 win over a good Cincinnati team. The season finale saw the Wildcats take fourth-ranked Tennessee to the wire before falling, 34-31.

The final record of 4-7 does not reflect how close Kentucky came to a breakthrough season. Five losses were by 10 points or less and in four of those games, Kentucky was ahead or tied in the fourth quarter.

The up-and-down season capped a year of major change for Curry, who had brought in four new assistant coaches and two new strength coaches during the previous winter. Curry attracted noted coaches from all over the country, including two former college head coaches, to continue working toward his goal of a consistent winner for Kentucky football.

It is Curry's philosophy—a sincere dedication to serve student-athletes through winning football, quality academic performance, and integrity—that is a beacon to others who share his ideals. All four of the new coaches mentioned Curry's prominence and reputation as major motivations for their decisions.

"I'd like to say that I'm a person that really lives to serve young people," said Curry of his philosophy. "It is my wish to have every single one of them be the best they can be in every aspect of their lives, and that certainly includes a championship football program. When we're successful with that, then we build a program that would not require my presence or any one person's presence. It would just be understood that we are into championships and championship people.

"Each person is unique, so everybody has a gift," Curry said. "An education or an experience like this (college football) should allow each person to find his or her gift, develop it and then give it. Now, a football program or a football team is a good model for that. If you're a blocker, then you must block every play, every time. You must protect your quarterback or your ball carrier every snap. If you're a tackler, you must tackle every play. That's a principle which should run through every part of your life.

"Then, hopefully you learn that it goes to the classroom with you or into your spiritual life. And when you are around a large group of people that learn to think that way, the stuff is contagious. And that is what a program is. That's what we're building here at Kentucky."

Curry's reputation as a person and accomplishments as a player and coach are what caught the attention of UK Athletics Director C. M. Newton in Dec. 1989, when Newton was searching for a replacement for the retired Jerry Claiborne. Newton's impressions of Curry were reflected in the athletics director's comments when the new coach was formally introduced on Jan. 8, 1990.

"William A. Curry is recognized by many to be at the very top of his profession," Newton said. "He has been credited for the dignity, class, and integrity with which he conducts his football programs, both on and off the playing field."

Curry then outlined his goals for the program. "We intend to be champions at the University of Kentucky on the football field," he said. "We've been champions here at UK in the classroom and will continue to do so. And we will do it with dignity, and do it the right way."

Curry inherited a Kentucky program that had not won more than two conference games in a season in five years. His 1990 Wildcats squad finished at 4-7, but gained respectability in the SEC with a 3-4 record. The fifth-place finish was the best at Kentucky since 1984. Injuries and youth contributed to the Wildcats going 3-8 in 1991 and 4-7 in 1992.

The 1993 Wildcats, a preseason pick to finish last in the SEC, posted a 6-5 regular season record, placing fourth overall in the SEC and earning the conference's bid to the Peach Bowl. The fourth-place finish was UK's best since the 1977 squad came in second with a 6-0 mark. In addition to earning UK's first bowl trip in nine years, the 1993 squad posted the school's first three-game SEC win streak since 1977, and won two SEC road games in a season for the first time since 1984.

High hopes for the 1994 season were dimmed when the inexperienced Wildcats fell to 1-10. The lone victory, however, was a big bright spot as the Wildcats defeated Louisville, 20-14, in an intrastate rivalry that had been dormant for 70 years.

Academically, Curry's Wildcats continue to set the pace among league schools. Kentucky led the SEC in 1990, 1991, 1993 and 1995 in SEC Academic Honor Roll selections, a feat the Wildcats have accomplished in nine of the past 12 years. In Curry's other two seasons, the Wildcats have finished second (1992) and third (1993) in that category.

Thus, six years into his tenure, Curry's championship goals have been partially accomplished. The players are graduating and the integrity of the program has been upheld. Only the win-loss record has not yet met Curry's standards. There has been one bowl season, but occasional success is not enough for a man whose heritage includes association with coaching legends such as Bobby Dodd, Vince Lombardi, and Don Shula.

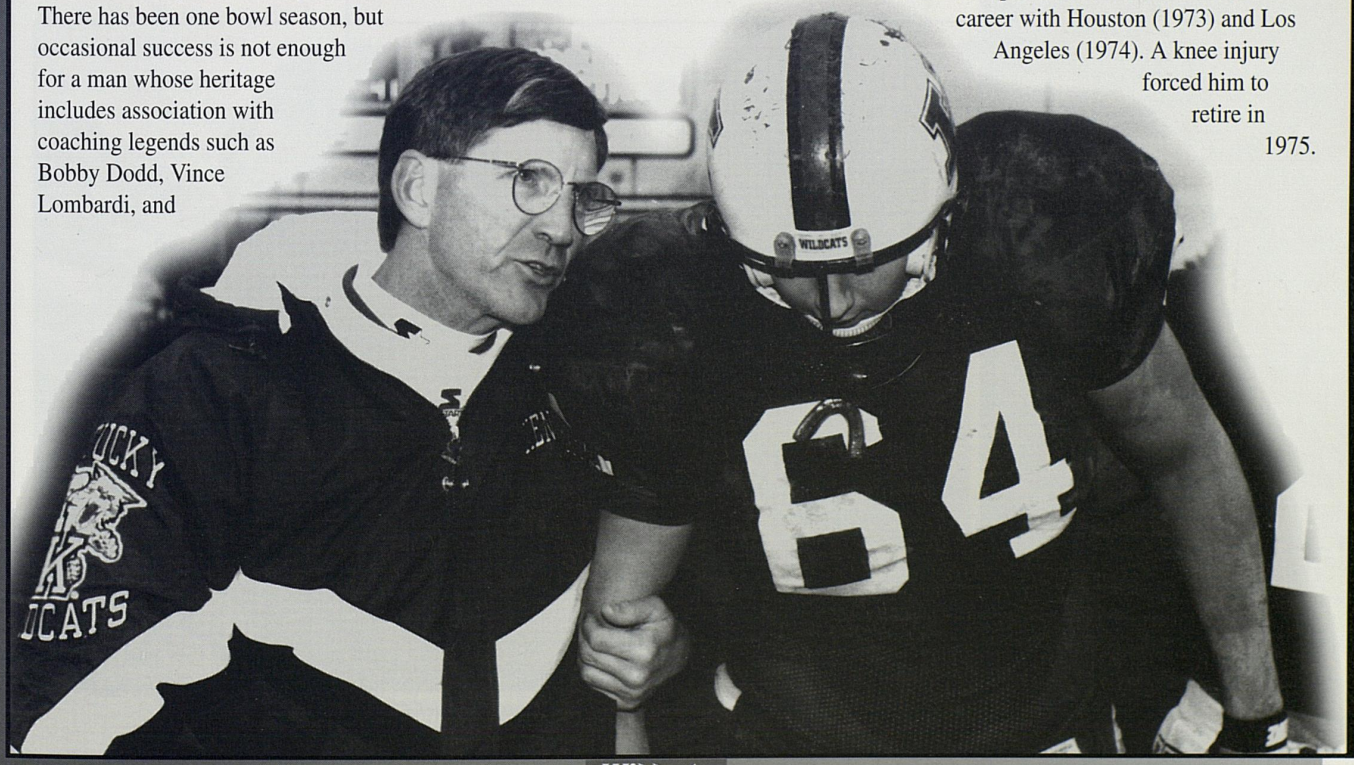

A native of College Park, Ga., and graduate of College Park HS, Curry played for Dodd at Georgia Tech. Curry was a three-year letterman at Tech (1962-64) and served as team captain his senior year. The Yellow Jackets compiled a 21-9-1 record during Curry's three seasons and played in the 1962 Bluebonnet Bowl. Those seasons were part of Dodd's impressive 22-year record of 165-64-8, including Southeastern Conference championships in 1951 and 1952, at Georgia Tech.

Curry completed his bachelor's degree in industrial management from Georgia Tech in 1965, then began his 10-year National Football League career with Vince Lombardi and the Green Bay Packers. He played on Packer teams that won the NFL championship in 1965 and 1966 and won the first Super Bowl on Jan. 15, 1967. The legendary Lombardi guided Green Bay to five NFL titles in seven years during the 1960s.

Following the 1966 season, Curry was traded to the Baltimore Colts and eventually became All-Pro in 1971 and 1972. His mentor for three seasons at Baltimore was Don Shula, who today is the winningest coach in NFL history and has appeared in more Super Bowls (six) than any other coach.

The Colts won the NFL championship in 1968 but lost in the Super Bowl; the 1970 season featured an AFC championship and another Super Bowl title. He finished his career with Houston (1973) and Los Angeles (1974). A knee injury forced him to retire in 1975.

All totaled, Curry's teams played in three Super Bowls, winning twice, and he was a member of three NFL champions and one AFC champ.

A year later, Curry was back at Georgia Tech as an assistant to Pepper Rodgers. Then, in 1977, Curry returned to the pro ranks as an offensive line coach with the Green Bay Packers under his former teammate, Bart Starr.

Curry began his reputation as a coach eager to take on challenges when he returned to his alma mater, Georgia Tech, as head football coach in 1980. The task was not simple. His first schedule was loaded with Alabama, Florida, North Carolina, Tennessee, Auburn, Notre Dame, and Georgia. The '81 slate was a mirror image.

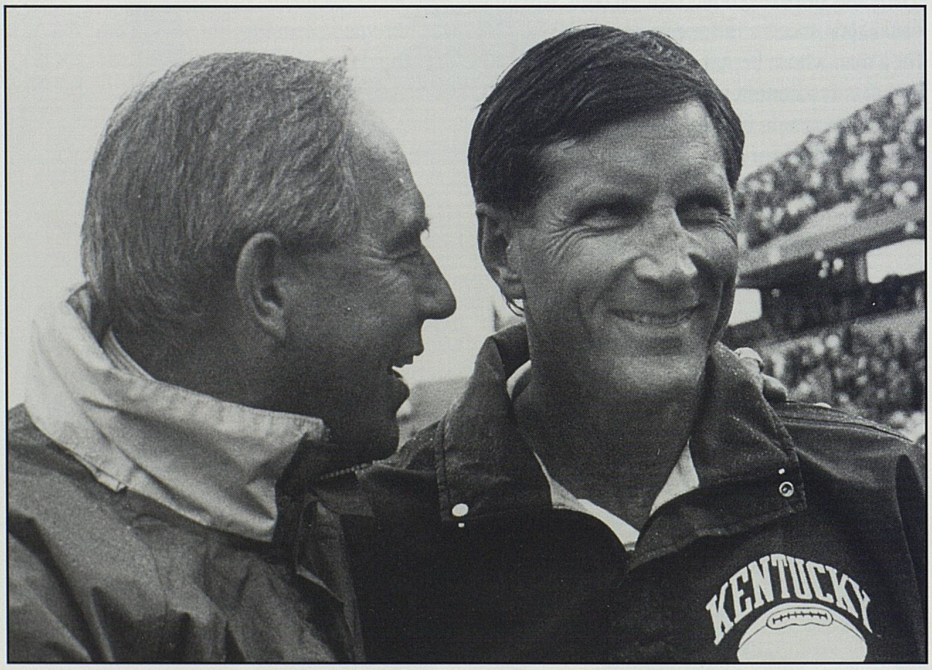

Understandably, Tech turned in 1-9-1 and 1-10 records those first two seasons. But things began to change in 1982 when Tech went 6-5. During his final five years at Tech, Curry produced a 29-24-3 ledger that included a sparkling season in 1985. The '85 campaign featured a 9-2-1 mark, including a 17-14 win over Michigan State in the All-American Bowl. The nine victories were the most for a Tech squad in 15 seasons and first bowl trip since 1978.

In 1987, Curry took on another building challenge at the tradition-rich University of Alabama. Although the Crimson Tide had captured a league-high 18 Southeastern Conference championships, Alabama had come up empty since Paul "Bear" Bryant's last SEC and national titles in 1979.

Curry's Alabama record improved each season, culminating in 1989 with a 10-2 record and SEC championship — the Tide's first league crown in 10 years. Curry's three-year record of 26-10 was the best three-year period at Alabama since the Bear's final three seasons in 1980-82 (27-8-3). The Tide played in three consecutive bowl games, the 1987 Hall of Fame, the 1988 Sun, and the 1990 USF&G Sugar.

"It (rebuilding a program) is piece-by-piece and it's painful," Curry said. "It's painstaking and sometimes it is embarrassing to fall on your face. But you just get up every time and keep going until it's done. Once it is done, then the program will serve a lot of young people for a long, long time. It's worth doing."

A quick glance back as to how the Georgia Tech and Alabama programs did after Curry's building process is worth doing. In 1990, four years after his departure, Georgia Tech won the United Press International national championship. In 1992, three years after Curry, Alabama captured the national championship with a perfect 13-0 record.

Curry holds the distinction of being named Coach of the Year in two different conferences. He was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year in 1985 by the Associated Press and ACC Sportswriters while at Georgia Tech. At Alabama, Curry was named the 1987 Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year by United Press International, and the 1989 SEC Coach of the Year by AP and the Nashville Banner.

Another special honor came Curry's way following the 1989 season. Curry was named the '89 Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year, a citation that recognizes both character and accomplishment on the football field.

"Nothing could mean as much to me as this award," Curry said. "Coach Dodd had such a tremendous influence on my life.

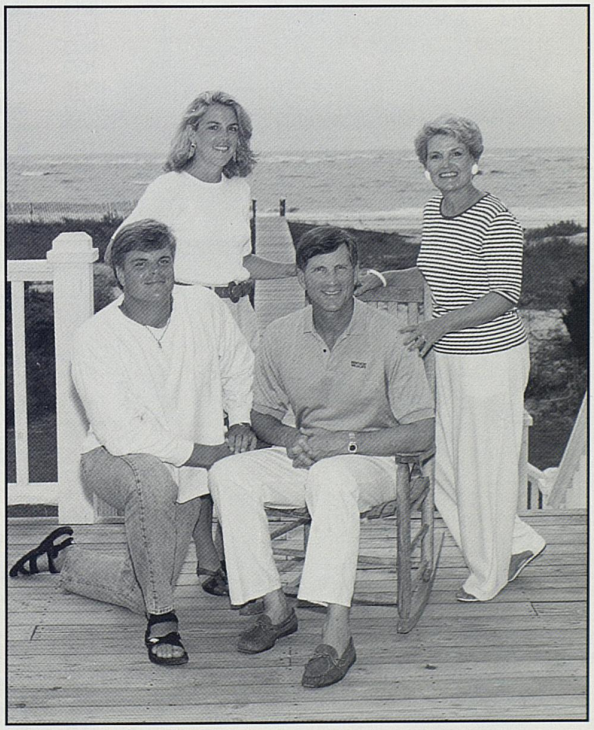

"There is really no such thing as a coach of the year," Curry said. "There is such a thing as a staff of the year. Our American system tends to recognize individuals for what teams really accomplish. To be recognized that way in 1985, 1987, and 1989 in two different conferences, with different faces on our staff and with different teams, must really mean the family idea works."

It is that type of family that has also shaped Curry into the coach and into the man he is. That credit belongs to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Curry, Sr.

"The older I get, the more I understand how much my dad shaped me coaching-wise, and how both my mom and dad shaped me as a human being," Curry said. "And also my high school coach, Bill Badgett. He truly was the toughest, most demanding of all the coaches that I have played for."

Curry served as president (1973-75) of the NFL Players' Association and on the American Football Coaches Rules Committee for two terms. In 1977, with George Plimpton, he co-wrote the book "One More July," which chronicled his experiences as an NFL player. Presently, Curry is serving his second term on the AFCA Ethics Committee. In 1992, Curry was inducted into the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame.

Curry is married to the former Carolyn Newton of College Park, Ga. Carolyn has a Ph.D. in history and teaches at the University of Kentucky. They have two children. Kristin is a teacher, head cross country coach, and assistant track coach at The Hammond School in Columbia, S.C. In her first season as coach, the cross country team went to the state meet and the track team won the state championship. Bill, Jr., is in his third year as a graduate assistant on the UK coaching staff.

A Conversation with Bill Curry

Q A year ago you made several changes in the football program. How have those changes worked out?

A "The main change was that we had to become tougher ... physically, mentally tougher. If you're going to play this sport, you better be mentally and physically tougher than the opponent. Every change we made was made with that in mind and extended into every area — off-season conditioning, strength training, practice, academics. It's just a hard-nosed approach which we believe is necessary.

"I'm a strong believer that maximum performance, championship performance, is an all-consuming thing and you can't turn it on and off. You can't be one thing on the field and another thing off. You have to be working to do things right all the time. There are very few people who can do that and that's what we demand.

"That's a very rigorous thing but the rewards are mind-boggling if you stick with it and we're going to do that."

Q How has the addition of strength coach Rob Oviatt and assistant strength coach Aaron Shelley affected the strength program?

A "The addition of Rob, with his stern, disciplined approach and changing of the format so that there is more individual attention to the player when he lifts, has allowed us to (more successfully) teach technique and get better results from the time spent.

"There is a no-nonsense approach in the weight room and you see it any time you go in there. It's a place to work enthusiastically, joyfully, have fun, work hard. We're there for results. The first thing Rob did was have the guys in there wearing T-shirts that read, 'Reasons and Results.' He got some results and the players did respond."

Q Now that you have used it one season, how do you like the one-back offense?

A "We just scratched the surface with what we can do in this offense. There's so much more to it than what we did last year. We can throw the ball more and better while keeping the same emphasis on a physical brand of running the ball. When you do both well, that's what we want. That's the next step."

Q Your spring practice goals involved improving your mental and physical toughness, experimenting with position changes, improving your systems and techinques, and becoming more consistent. How well did you achieve those goals?

A "We made progress in each area, but those are goals with which you are never through. You have to work on them every day."

Q Tell us about some of the position changes during spring practice.

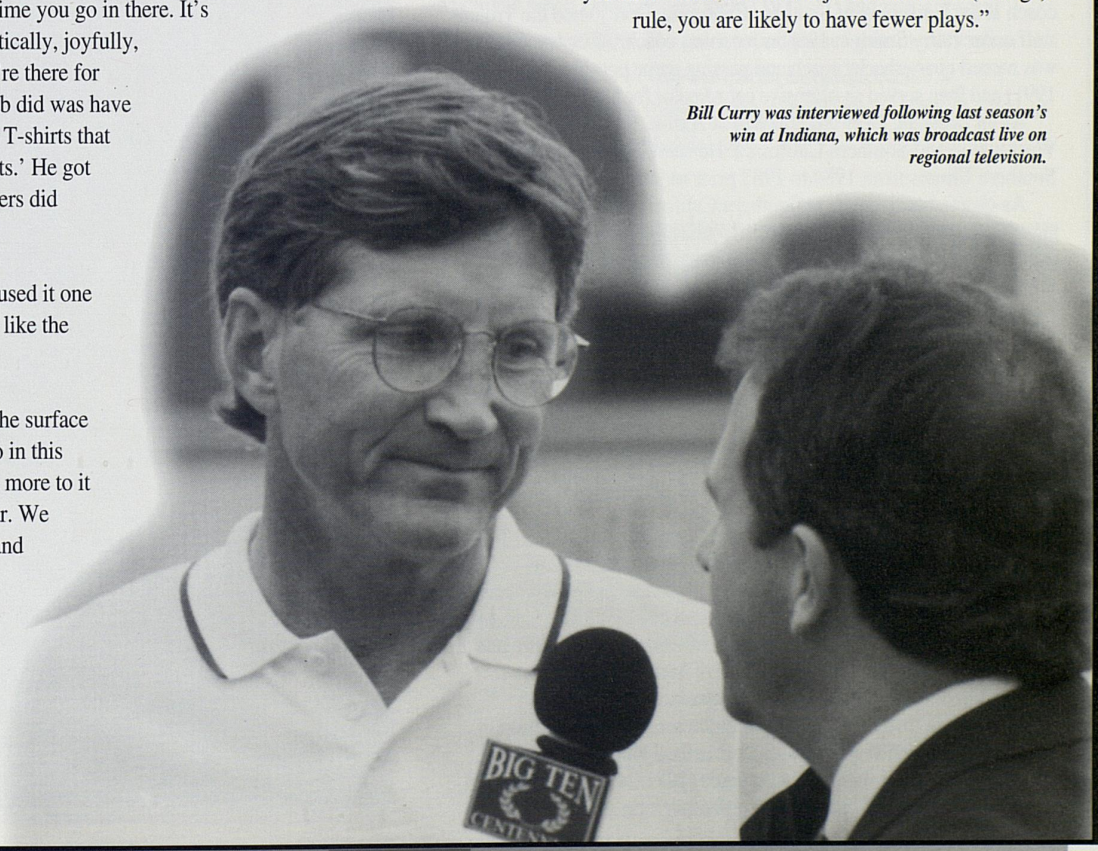

A "Jeremy Streck did very well. He made a very good transition from defensive tackle to offensive tackle. Van Hiles, who moved from cornerback to free safety, will play well anywhere you put him. Van was an incredible leader in the spring. We need him on the field as a player and leader.

"Some more players, such as (linebacker) Dele Ali and (defensive tackle) Chris Ward, showed marked improvement. That was very exciting. Those were slots where we had question marks."

Q How do you like the new rule providing for overtime in Division I-A football games?

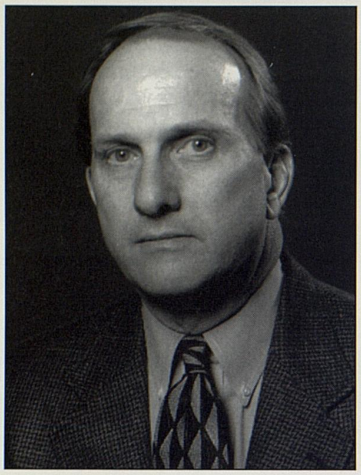

A "I like the rule. It adds a lot of excitement to the games. We had fun with it when we were preparing for the (1993) Peach Bowl. It changes your thinking at the end of a game.

"I like this better than the pro rule (sudden death overtime up to 15 minutes). Another 15 minutes is stretching it, because it gives you more chance to have injuries. With this (college) rule, you are likely to have fewer plays."

Bill Curry was interviewed following last season's win at Indiana, which was broadcast live on regional television.

1996 Kentucky Assistant Coaches

Ray Dorr
Quarterbacks

Ray Dorr is in his fourth season as an assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. Overall, Dorr has spent 29 years on the sideline as either a collegiate assistant or head football coach.

Dorr returned to one of his favorite duties — coaching quarterbacks — during the 1995 season. He helped Billy Jack Haskins blossom as a capable quarterback during Haskins' first year as a starter. Previously, Dorr had coached quarterbacks at Kent State, Washington, and Southern California.

As the running backs coach at UK in 1993-94, Dorr helped tailback Moe Williams achieve several milestones. As a freshman in 1993, Williams ran for 928 yards, more than any other first-year player in school history. He also set the freshman single-game rushing record with 159 yards against Georgia. As a team, UK finished 24th nationally in rushing yardage with 210.5 yards per game.

In 1994, Williams added 805 more yards. In two seasons, Williams totaled 1,733 yards and moved onto the school's top 10 career list in several statistical categories.

Dorr, 53, came to UK following a five-year stint as an assistant coach at the University of Southern California. Dorr joined the Trojans staff under Larry Smith in 1988 as receivers coach. After one year, he was named quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator (1989 to 1991) and then served as offensive coordinator for USC in 1992.

As an assistant, Dorr has coached at Akron, Kent State, Washington and Southern California. He served as head coach at Southern Illinois from 1984 to 1987 prior to joining the USC staff.

As quarterbacks coach at Southern California, Dorr tutored Trojan signal-caller Todd Marinovich for two seasons. Marinovich finished his career ranked No. 2 on the USC career charts for passing with 5,001 yards and 29 touchdowns and was a first-round National Football League draft choice. Dorr also coached first-team All-America split end Erik Affholter in 1988. Affholter grabbed 68 receptions for 952 yards and eight touchdowns while earning first-team All-America honors under Dorr's guidance as receivers coach.

Dorr posted a four-year record of 17-27 as head football coach at Southern Illinois prior to joining USC. His best season mark came in 1986 as his squad finished 7-4 on the season, including a second-place effort (4-2) in the Gateway Conference.

Dorr began his coaching career as an assistant at Wadsworth High School in Akron, Ohio. Dorr spent two seasons (1965-66) at Wadsworth before accepting a position as graduate assistant coach at the University of Akron in 1967 under head coach Gordon Larson. After one year, Dorr was named to the full-time staff at Akron and spent three seasons as the Zips' offensive backfield coach.

In 1971, Dorr began his first of 13 consecutive years as an assistant coach under Don James when he accepted the position of quarterbacks coach at Kent State. Dorr helped lead the Golden Flashes to a 25-19-1 record in four years (1971-74), which included Kent State's only Mid-American Conference title in 1972.

Dorr moved to Washington with James in 1975 as quarterbacks coach and helped lead the Huskies to a 75-30 mark in nine years (1975-83). Washington appeared in six bowl games during that span, including three Rose Bowls. Dorr coached three future NFL quarterbacks while at Washington — Warren Moon, Tom Flick and Steve Pelluer.

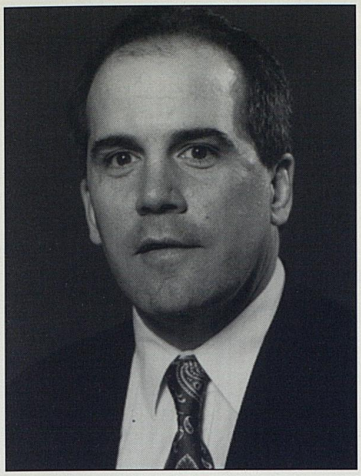

Dorr was a four-sport standout at McKinley High School in Sebring, Ohio, and started at quarterback for three years (1962-64) at West Virginia Wesleyan. His record as starting quarterback at West Virginia Wesleyan was 19-6-2.

Dorr and his wife, Karen, have two sons — Stephen, 23, a senior quarterback/wide receiver at West Virginia Wesleyan, and David, 19.

Mike Drake

Running Backs

University of Kentucky running backs coach Mike Drake certainly made his mark during his first season as an assistant coach at the University of Kentucky.

Under Drake's guidance during the 1995 season, tailback Moe Williams established himself as one of the nation's top runners. Williams rushed for 1,600 yards last season, broke three Southeastern Conference records, and broke or tied 15 school records.

With Williams now a Minnesota Viking, Drake puts his focus on seniors Raymond McLaurin and Michael Woodfork, along with a host of talented young runners. In addition, Drake also coaches the Wildcats' punters.

Drake came to UK from the United States Naval Academy, where he had been an assistant coach since 1989. His duties have included the defensive secondary (1994), cornerbacks and free safeties (1993), quarterbacks (1992), offensive tackles and tight ends (1990-91), and running backs (1989).

Drake also spent two years as the head coach at the Naval Academy Prep School (1987-88). In 1988, he directed NAPS to its first victory over Army Prep in 11 years.

Prior to his time at Navy, Drake had a five-year stint at Western New Mexico. Drake was defensive coordinator in 1982-83 before serving as head coach from 1984-86. As head coach, his teams had an overall record of 14-15-1, the second best three-year period in school history, including a 7-0-1 conference record in 1984 that was the best ever at WNM.

Drake entered college coaching in 1980-81 as the defensive ends coach at Western Michigan. He spent one season as an assistant at Otsego (Mich.) High School in 1979. Drake began his playing days at Central Michigan and was there one year before transferring to WMU.

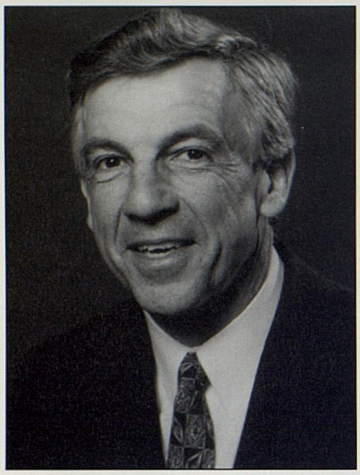

At Kentucky, Drake is reunited with new UK offensive coordinator Elliot Uzelac. Uzelac was head coach at Western Michigan when Drake played there (1975-77) and was a student assistant coach (1978). The pair crossed paths again in 1989 when Drake joined Uzelac's Navy staff as an assistant coach.

Drake and his wife, Patricia, have two daughters, Abigail (10) and Hannah (6), and a son, Michael (4).

1996 Kentucky Assistant Coaches

Bill Glaser

Defensive Tackles, Special Teams Coordinator

Bill Glaser hits a milestone this season as he enters his 20th season as an assistant coach at the University of Kentucky.

Glaser's 20 years of service is the longest term of any football coach in school history and is the longest streak of any current assistant coach in the Southeastern Conference.

Glaser coaches the Wildcat defensive tackles and as special teams coordinator, organizes all special teams activity. He is directly responsible for the punt return team and also is in charge of the annual University of Kentucky Football Camp during the summer.

Glaser, 52, came to the University of Kentucky in 1977 from Morehead State University. He has worked for three head coaches at UK — Fran Curci, Jerry Claiborne, and Bill Curry. Glaser was the only full-time UK assistant retained by both Claiborne and Curry.

Glaser, a native of Louisville, graduated in 1965 from Bellarmine College and participated in baseball while completing his undergraduate studies. He graduated in 1961 from St. Xavier High School and lettered three years as an offensive guard and linebacker.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, St. Xavier, in 1965 as an assistant football and baseball coach. Glaser was named head baseball coach in 1970 and in four seasons, compiled a 112-48 record. In 1974, Glaser was named head football coach and promptly led St. Xavier to back-to-back state titles and a two-year slate of 25-0-0.

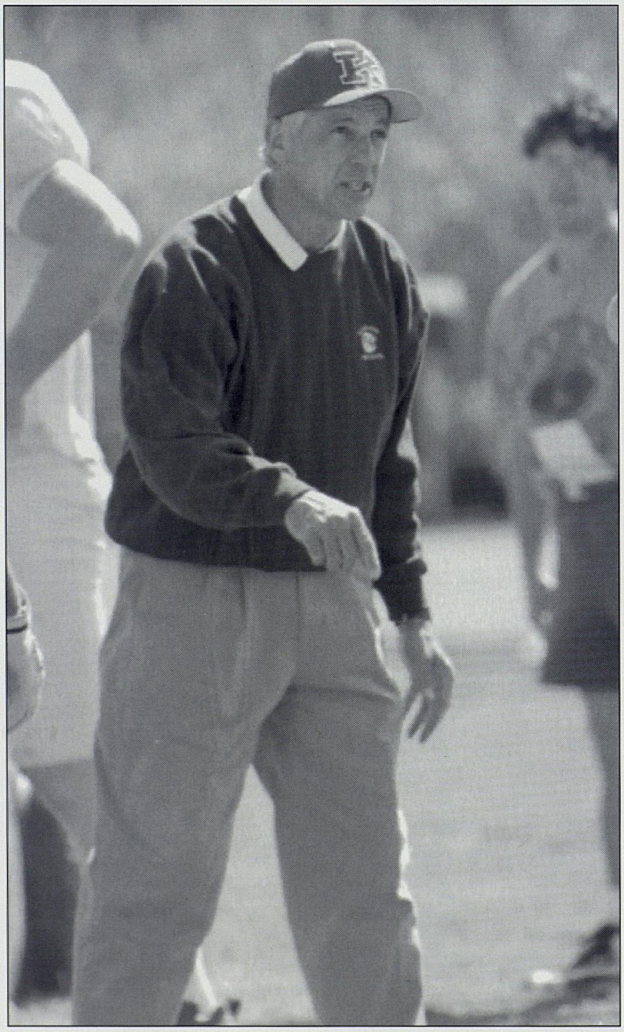

Glaser was named defensive coordinator in 1976 at Morehead State, where he completed work on a master's degree. A year later, he moved to UK as defensive line coach under Curci. In the Claiborne era, Glaser coached the UK defensive guards.

Glaser has coached three All-Southeastern Conference performers while at Kentucky — nose guards Richard Jaffe (1977-79) and Joey Couch (1988-91) and tackle Jerry Blanton (1977).

He is married to the former Mary Ann Jensen of Louisville. They have three children — Angie, David, and Clare.

Dave Magazu

Centers and Guards

Kentucky offensive guards and centers coach Dave Magazu (pronounced MAG-uh-zoo) will face a great challenge during the 1996 season.

Magazu begins the season with only two players, senior guard DeAnthony Honaker and sophomore center Jason Watts, who have taken part in an offensive play during their college careers. If last season's results are any indication, however, Magazu will be up to the task.

In 1995, his first year at UK, Magazu combined with Elliot Uzelac to make a significant improvement in the Wildcats' offensive line.

In addition to increases in points and yardage production, the offensive line helped pave the way for tailback Moe Williams to rush for 1,600 yards, break three SEC records, and break or tie 15 school records.

Magazu also coaches the PAT/field goal unit along with his offensive line duties.

Magazu is a 16-year veteran of college coaching. He spent the 1992-94 seasons at Colorado State, handling the team's centers and guards in 1992 before assuming responsibility for the entire offensive line in 1993. Two of his players earned first-team All-Western Athletic Conference honors. Colorado State won the WAC in 19942, finishing with a 10-2 overall record and a berth against Michigan in the Holiday Bowl.

Before his term at Colorado State, Magazu was the offensive coordinator at Indiana State (1990-91). From 1987-89, he coached the offensive line and special teams at Navy.

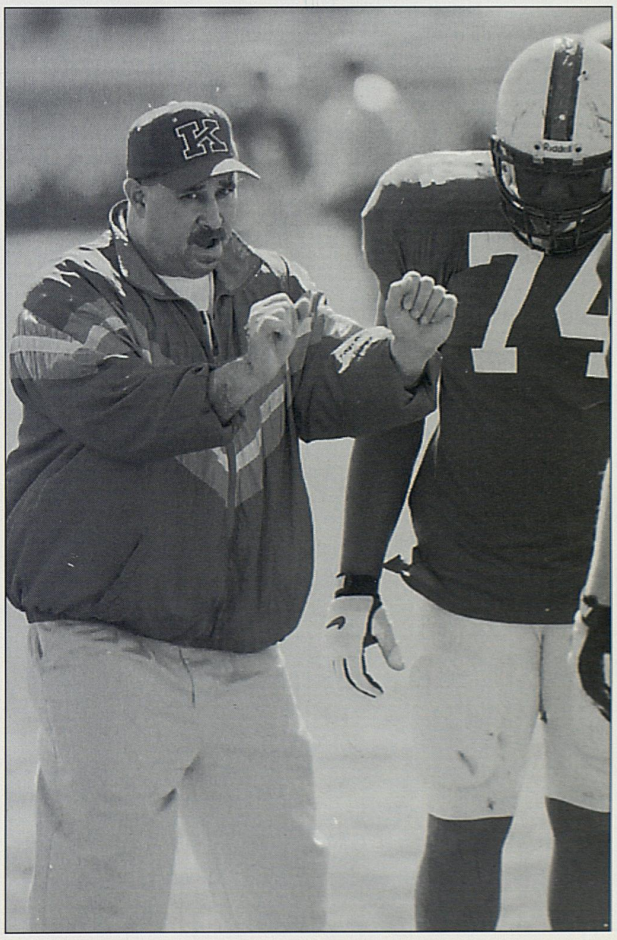

Magazu also has coached at Ball State (offensive coordinator, 1985-86), Northern Illinois (tackles and tight ends, 1984), Michigan (grad. assistant/offensive line, 1983), Eastern Michigan (offensive line and tight ends, 1982), Western Michigan (offensive tackles and tight ends, 1981), and Ithaca College (graduate assistant, 1980).

Magazu has crossed paths with new UK offensive coordinator Elliot Uzelac on four occasions. Magazu was an assistant under head coach Uzelac at Western Michigan and Navy. They were assistants together at Michigan and are now reunited on the Kentucky staff. Magazu also got to know UK assistant Mike Drake when they were both assistants at Navy.

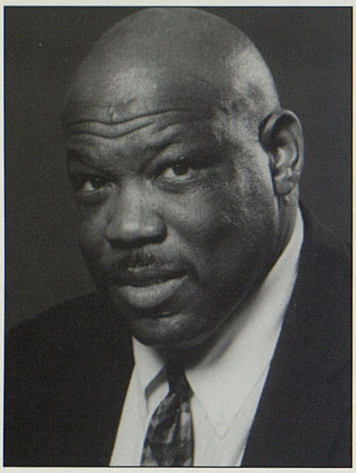

Magazu earned his bachelor's degree in 1980 at Springfield College, where he was a four-year letterman at defensive tackle. Dave and his wife Carrie have three sons, Anthony (10), Dominick (8), and Damon (5).

1996 Kentucky Assistant Coaches

Calvin Miller

Defensive Ends

Calvin Miller is in his second season as an assistant coach at the University of Kentucky and is in charge of the Wildcats' defensive ends.

Miller made an immediate impact at UK as quarterback sack production doubled during his first season. Wildcat ends made 13 sacks in 1995, doubling the total of six and one-half sacks from the previous year.

The total might have been even more if Kurt Supe had not suffered a broken arm in the fourth game of the season. Supe was leading the Southeastern Conference with five sacks in four games when he was injured.

In addition to the defensive ends, Miller will handle UK's PAT/field goal block team.

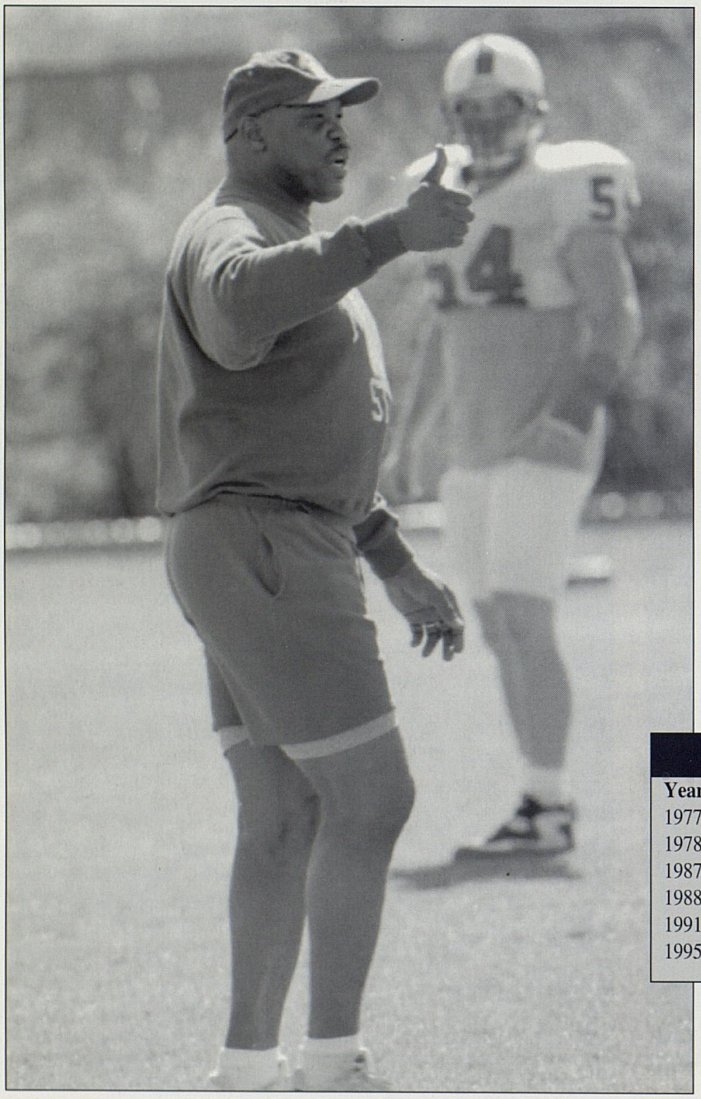

Miller moved to Kentucky from Oklahoma State, his alma mater, where he coached the defensive ends from 1991-94. Two of his former Cowboys advanced to the National Football League, Jason Gildon of the Pittsburgh Steelers and Wendell Gaines of the Phoenix Cardinals.

Miller coached the defensive line at Tulsa from 1988-90. One of his accomplishments was helping develop Dennis Byrd, who went on to play for the NFL's New York Jets. Prior to Tulsa, he coached at Langston (Okla.) University in 1987.

A 1975 graduate of Oklahoma State, Miller was a graduate assistant coach at OSU in 1977 and at Tulsa in 1978. He then returned to the playing ranks and spent three years in the NFL, playing with the New York Giants in 1979 and the Atlanta Falcons in 1980-81. After his playing career, he spent five years in the oil business before returning to coaching.

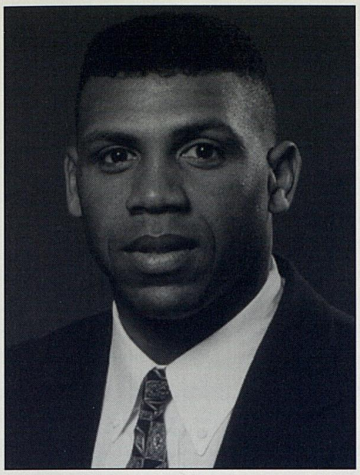

The 41-year-old Miller was born in Collins, Miss. He was named the Mississippi Defensive Player of the Year as a senior at Harrison High School in Gulfport. He was a two-year standout at Gulfcoast (Miss.) Junior College before going on to play two years at Oklahoma State.

Calvin and his wife, Delores, have two sons, Benjamin (15) and Chris (14), and a daughter, Crystal (3). A member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Miller is highly active in church work, and served as as the pulpit minister during the winter, spring, and summer months at a congregation in Oklahoma.

Joker Phillips
Wide Receivers

Joker Phillips is in his ninth season on the coaching staff at the University of Kentucky, and enters his sixth year as a full-time assistant coach.

In 1996, Phillips will have the enviable task of coaching a corps of receivers that ranks as one of the swiftest groups in school history. Last season, Phillips helped Craig Yeast earn Freshman All-SEC honors when Yeast led the Wildcats in receiving.

As a special teams coach, Phillips handles UK's kickoff return unit. In the 1994 season, Kentucky led the Southeastern Conference by averaging 23.4 yards per return. It was the first time in school history that the Wildcats had led the league in that category.

Individually, Phillips protege Kio Sanford set three SEC single-season records for kickoff returns in 1994. Sanford continued to blaze the kickoff return trail last season and already ranks among school and Southeastern Conference career leaders in several kickoff return categories.

Phillips, a 1986 graduate of Kentucky, began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Kentucky under former mentor Jerry Claiborne in 1988. He was responsible for the Wildcats receivers for two years (1988-89) before joining Bill Curry's staff at Kentucky as an assistant recruiting coordinator in 1990. Phillips assisted with all recruiting efforts for the Wildcats football program and also served in the capacity as the "Walk-On Program" coordinator.

With the departure of UK's offensive coordinator and receivers coach Tommy Bowden in December, 1990, Phillips was promoted to a full-time coaching position with the wide receivers. Under Phillips' guidance in 1991, split end Neal Clark broke the Wildcats season record for pass receptions with 47, a mark previously held by Felix Wilson for 14 seasons.

Phillips was a four-year letterman (1981-84) as a Wildcats receiver and helped lead UK to a pair of bowl games — the 1983 and 1984 Hall of Fame Bowls. His best season was in 1984 with 28 receptions for 305 yards and five touchdowns. Currently, Phillips ranks seventh on the UK career list with 75 pass receptions for 935 yards (12.5 avg.) and nine touchdowns.

He played briefly with the Washington Redskins of the National Football League and the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League.

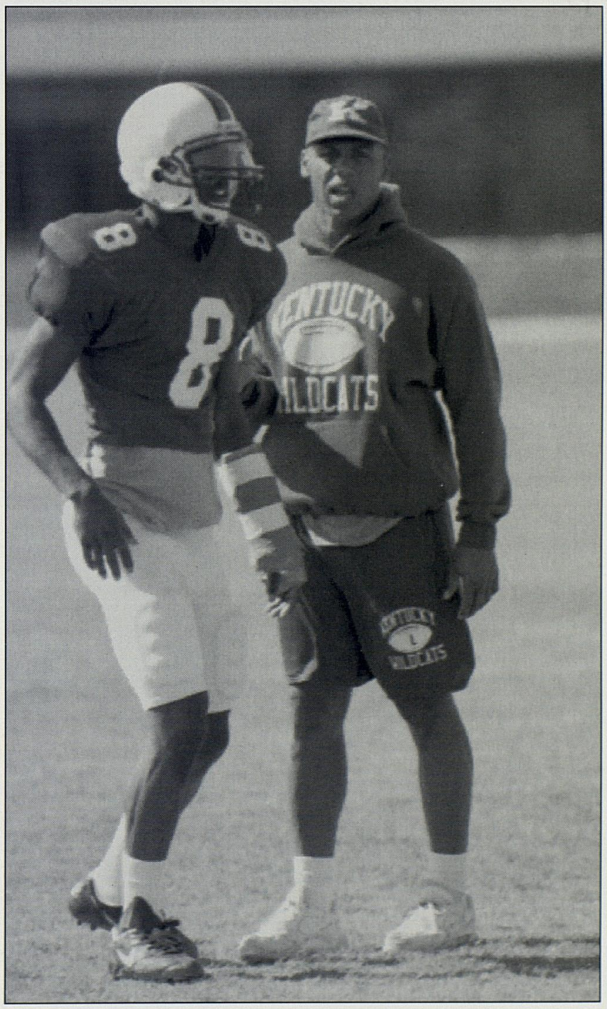

In recent summers, Phillips has participated in the National Football League Coaching Fellowship program with the Redskins.

Phillips lettered three years in football, basketball and track at Franklin-Simpson High School in Franklin.

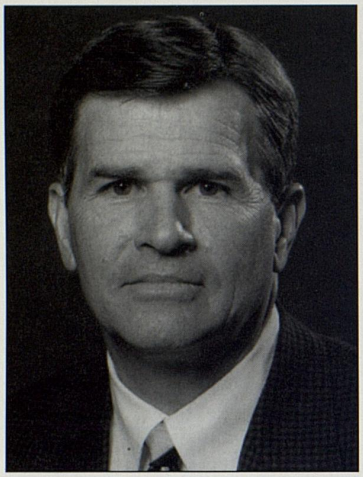

Phillips is single and resides in Lexington.

Rick Smith

Defensive Coordinator, Defensive Backs

Rick Smith received a significant promotion last March when he was named defensive coordinator in place of the departed Mike Archer.

The veteran Smith is entering his 17th year of college coaching and is beginning his 11th year of association with Bill Curry.

Smith will continue to coach the Wildcat defensive backs in addition to guiding the defense. In his role as defensive backs coach, Smith has had an All-Southeastern Conference safety in each of the last three seasons — Reggie Rusk (1995), Melvin Johnson (1994), and Marcus Jenkins (1993).

During his career, Smith has seen 22 of his defensive backs drafted by National Football League teams. Twenty of the 22 draftees have played at least three seasons in the NFL.

Smith, 47, came to Kentucky from Baylor University after spending three seasons as defensive backfield coach of the Bears. He officially became a member of the Wildcats coaching staff on Jan. 21, 1990. His collegiate coaching career includes stops at Georgia Tech, East Tennessee State, Alabama and Baylor.

Smith earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Florida State University in 1971. While at FSU, he played four seasons of football and two of baseball for the Seminoles. He was drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates in the annual amateur draft following his college career.

His start in coaching came in 1970 at Godby High School in Tallahassee, Fla. Smith spent three seasons at Godby High before he was named athletics director/head football coach at Wakulla (Fla.) High School in 1973.

Smith joined the collegiate coaching ranks after four seasons at Wakulla High. He was tabbed head junior varsity football coach at Georgia Tech in 1977 under Pepper Rodgers. A season later, he moved to East Tennessee State as an assistant coach in charge of the defensive backs.

Smith briefly stepped back into high school coaching in 1979 at Marianna (Fla.) High. At Marianna, he served in the dual capacity as athletics director and head football coach through the spring of 1982, when he left for Georgia Tech to join Bill Curry's Yellow Jacket staff.

He remained at Tech for the next four seasons. During that four-year span, Smith helped the Yellow Jackets post a 24-19-2 record, including a 17-14 victory over Michigan State in the 1985 All-American Bowl.

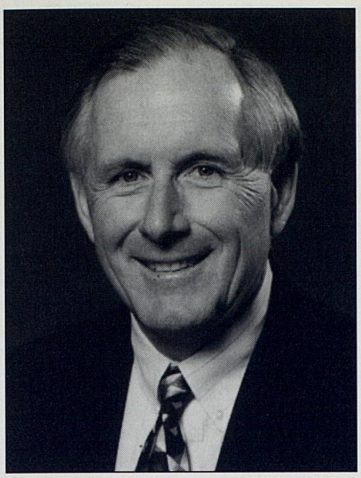

In 1986, Smith moved to Alabama under Ray Perkins for one season as defensive backfield coach. His Crimson Tide secondary ranked third in the Southeastern Conference in pass defense.

Smith moved to Baylor in 1987 as defensive backfield coach under Grant Teaff. The Baylor secondary quickly became one of the most respected in the nation during his three-year stint at Waco, Texas. His secondary ranked No.1 in the nation in pass defense, allowing a mere 117.8 yards a game and a completion percentage of .409 in 1988. The Bears finished No. 6 in pass defense (148.5 ypg) during the '89 campaign. Overall, the Bears pass defense accounted for 63 interceptions during Smith's three seasons at Baylor.

Smith is married to the former Barbara Reddick. They have three children — Beth (21), Steve (19), and Billy (17).

Elliot Uzelac

Associate Head Coach, Offensive Coordinator, Offensive Tackles and Tight Ends

Elliot Uzelac had immediate success in his first season as offensive coordinator at the University of Kentucky.

Uzelac's one-back offense and his coaching of the tackles and tight ends helped the Wildcats make several significant statistical improvements.

UK had only 16 turnovers in 1995, fewest in school history. The Wildcats' 30 offensive touchdowns were the most since 1984 and the 24 rushing TDs were the most since 1974.

In addition, UK tailback Moe Williams rushed for 1,600 yards and broke three Southeastern Conference records and broke or tied 15 school records.

Uzelac came to UK after two years at Colorado in which the Buffaloes led the Big Eight in total offense both seasons. Colorado broke 51 school records and tied four others in those two campaigns.

In 1994, the Buffaloes rolled up 495.3 yards per game of total offense, ranking No. 3 nationally. Colorado compiled an 11-1 record, losing only to national champion Nebraska, and defeated Notre Dame 41-24 in the Fiesta Bowl.

Uzelac's offense helped running back Rashaan Salaam win the Heisman Trophy after Salaam led the nation in rushing, all-purpose yardage, and scoring. Quarterback Kordell Stewart ranked 10th in the nation in total offense and 11th in passing efficiency.

In 1993, Colorado amassed 470.5 yards per game and ranked 10th nationally in total offense. Colorado finished 8-3-1 after a 41-30 triumph over Fresno State in the Aloha Bowl.

Prior to Colorado, Uzelac coached for the Cleveland Browns (1992), Ohio State (1991), Indiana (1990), Navy (head coach 1987-89 and assistant 1971-72), Michigan (1973-74 and 1982-86), Western Michigan (head coach 1975-81), and Bowling Green State (1965 and 1968-70). He gained experience on the high school level at Chesterton (Ind.) High School as an assistant in 1965 and as head coach at Logan (W.V.) High School in 1966-67.

Uzelac's first college head coaching position came at his alma mater, Western Michigan. After going 1-10 in his first season, 1975, he guided the Broncos to a 37-29 mark during the next six campaigns. He had five winning seasons, was named Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year in 1976, and won more MAC games than any other coach in school history.

Uzelac also was head coach at the United States Naval Academy from 1987-89, compiling an 8-25 record during that span. His last season included road wins at North Carolina and Boston College, plus an upset of Army in the season finale.

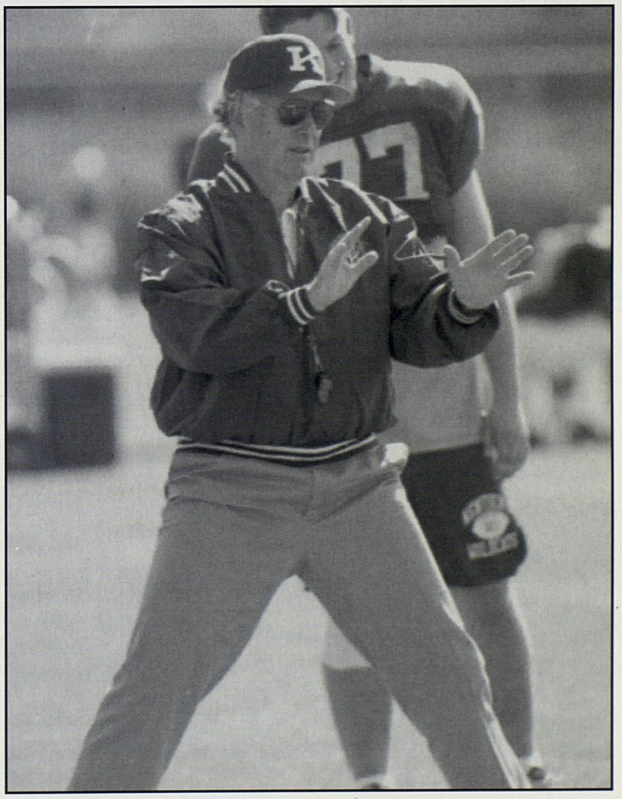

Uzelac has coached in nine bowl games, including five at Michigan, one each at Indiana and Ohio State, and two at Colorado. Uzelac has been an assistant under such notables as Don Nehlen at Bowling Green, Rick Forzano at Navy, Bo Schembechler at Michigan, Bill Mallory at Indiana, John Cooper at Ohio State, and Bill McCartney at Colorado.

Uzelac, 55, was born in Gary, Ind. He lettered in football, basketball, and track at Tulleston HS in Gary before going to Western Michigan. He played one season of football at Western before suffering a career-ending knee injury. He earned four letters in track, winning the 1964 MAC championship in the shot put and setting the school record in that event. He earned his bachelor's degree with a double major in physical education and Russian history. He holds a master's degree in physical education from Bowling Green.

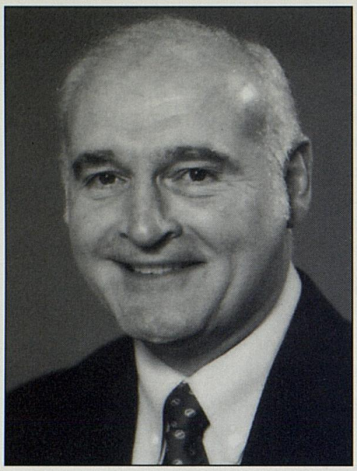

Elliot is married to the former Wendy Hollingsworth, a native of California. Elliot and Wendy met during their days as students at Western Michigan. They have two grown children, Lisa and Nick, and one granddaughter.

1996 Kentucky Assistant Coaches

Milan Vooletich

Linebackers

Milan Vooletich, a 32-year coaching veteran — including the last 27 in the collegiate ranks — joined Bill Curry's University of Kentucky football staff last spring as linebackers coach.

"Milan is a highly-respected person and coach," Curry said. "It's important that we have an experienced coach with the linebackers and he certainly fits that description. He has experience in all areas of defensive play."

In his first season at UK, Vooletich (pronounced "VOO-let-tich") inherits returning starters Mike Schellenberger and Lamont Smith, but must break in one new starter and work to improve the Wildcat reserves. Milan will also oversee the kickoff coverage team.

Vooletich comes to UK from Iowa, where he coached the defensive ends from 1990-95. Iowa played in four bowl games during his years there, including the 1990 Rose Bowl after the Hawkeyes won the Big Ten championship.

Vooletich was the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Navy from 1987-89. Vooletich coached under Elliot Uzelac, UK's current offensive coordinator. Milan spent the 1986 season at Rice as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator.

Vooletich was an assistant coach at Michigan from 1978-85. He helped guide the Wolverines to eight consecutive bowl games, including three Rose Bowls and appearances in the Sugar and Fiesta bowls. Milan coached the defensive line from 1978-80, the outside linebackers from 1981-86, and the defensive special teams for all eight seasons. Vooletich and Uzelac first became associated at Michigan, where they were assistants together from 1982-86.

Vooletich tutored the secondary at Colorado from 1974-77. The Buffaloes won the '76 Big Eight championship and advanced to the Orange Bowl.

Vooletich's first college coaching assignment came at Miami (Ohio) from 1969-73. He coached the tight ends and receivers (1969), inside linebackers (1970-72), and defensive backs (1973). His years at Miami were capped by an 11-0 season in 1973, including a Mid-America Conference championship and a win over Florida in the Tangerine Bowl.

All totaled, Vooletich's teams have played in 15 bowl games. His history includes association with head coaches such as Bill Mallory at Miami and Colorado, Bo Schembechler at Michigan, Jerry Berndt at Rice, Uzelac at Navy, and Hayden Fry at Iowa.

Vooletich got his start in coaching at Sandusky (Ohio) High School. He coached the Sandusky secondary from 1964-68. Sandusky won one state championship and was ranked no lower than third in the other four seasons.

Vooletich is a native of Pittsburgh, Pa. He is a 1964 graduate of Geneva College in Beaver Falls, Pa., with a double major in history and political science. He added a master's degree from Miami in educational administration.

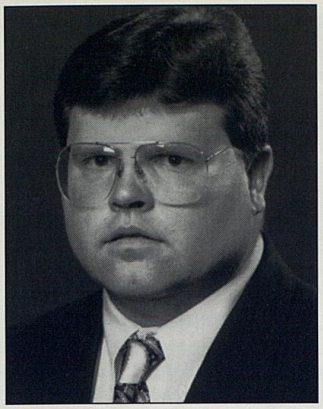

Milan and his wife, Rosemary, have two grown sons —Daniel and Brian. Daniel was captain of the football team at North Carolina and is currently an associate athletics director at the University of Houston. Brian was captain of the football team at Michigan State.

Mike Chism
Graduate Assistant

Mike Chism (pronounced CHIS-um) enters his second year as a graduate assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky.

Chism will work as a defensive assistant under coordinator Rick Smith, helping compile the opponent scouting report and tendencies. He will take charge of the offensive scout team and assist Smith with the defensive backs. Chism is currently working toward a master's degree in sports management.

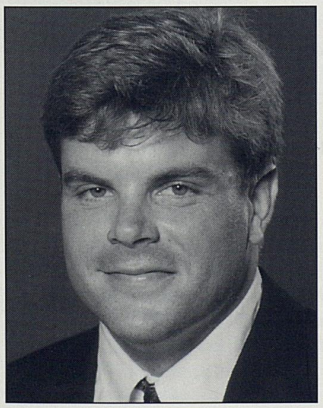

From 1990-94, Chism was an assistant coach at Kutztown University in Eastern Pennslyvania. At the Division II school, Chism was responsible for the defensive line, the offensive line, the special teams and recruiting. He coached four all-conference linemen at Kutztown.

Chism played football at the University of Kentucky from 1985-89, where he lettered two seasons as a defensive guard. He made 37 tackles as a junior and 40 stops as a senior. He received a degree in communications.

Chism played football at Oldham County (Ky.) High School as an offensive and defensive lineman and was named all-state as a senior. He also wrestled, compiling a 35-0 record and winning the state heavyweight championship as a senior. Chism, 30, is single.

Bill Curry, Jr.
Graduate Assistant

Bill Curry Jr. enters his third season as a graduate assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky.

Curry works with the offensive coaching staff, helping prepare the scouting report on the upcoming opponent, assisting with the tackles and tight ends, and is responsible for the defensive scout team. He adds new responsibilities this year as the coach of the team's long snappers. After coming to UK in July of 1994 as an administrative intern, Curry moved to a graduate assistant post for the '94 season when Mike Griffiths left to take a high school head coaching job.

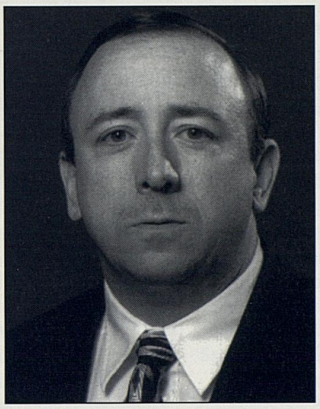

Curry was a four-year letterman (1990-93) at the University of Virginia. He played guard, center and was the long snapper for punts and field goals. Originally a walk-on, Curry was awarded a scholarship by Coach George Welsh. The Cavaliers played in four bowl games during Curry's five years with the program. He graduated in Dec. 1993 with a degree in government and international relations.

Curry played his last two seasons of high school football at Tuscaloosa (Ala.) Central High School. After sitting out his junior year with a knee injury, Curry started his senior season as a offensive tackle. He received all-region honors and twice was named West Alabama's Coca-Cola Lineman of the Week that season. As a freshman and sophomore, he attended the Lovett School in Atlanta, Ga., and was the starting center as a sophomore.

Curry, 25, is a native of Baltimore, Md. He is single and is an avid guitar enthusiast.

Rob Oviatt
Strength Coach

Rob Oviatt (pronounced OH-vee-utt) is in his second season with the University of Kentucky after being named Strength Coach in 1995. The Wildcats made obvious gains in strength in their first season under Oviatt's guidance.

Oviatt is an 18-year veteran of strength and conditioning coaching. He came to UK from Oregon State, where he had been the strength coach for the football team and fitness director for the entire athletic program since 1985.

While at Oregon State, Oviatt showed dedication to his craft by attending a number of special weightlifting clinics. Among the most interesting was a 1988 trip to Moscow, where he attended the Sport Science Institute and took courses in all phases of Soviet training.

Prior to Oregon State, Oviatt was an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Utah (1985), Houston (1984), and Texas A&M (1983). He was a volunteer assistant strength coach at Mississippi (1980-82) while earning his master's degree in education. His experience began at the University of Alabama (1978-79) as a volunteer assistant strength coach. He graduated from Alabama with a degree in physical education in 1980.

Oviatt was born in Delaware, Ohio. He graduated from Wooster (Ohio) High School, where he played football and was a wrestler.

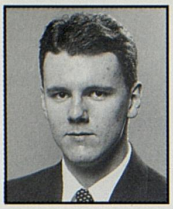

Married to the former Carolyn Berki, Rob has three daughters—Lindsay (18), Allison (6), and April (2).

DARIN CARR
Coaching Video Director

Darin Carr enters his fourth year with Kentucky's Sports Video Department. Prior to becoming Coaching Video Director, Carr served one year as Assistant Video Director.

Carr, a native of Owensboro, Ky., earned his Bachelor of Science degree in telecommunications from the University of Kentucky in 1991. After working part time for the UK video department for a year he was promoted to full time in August 1993.

Carr, the son of Gary and Shirlyn Carr, is single and resides in Lexington.

DAVID COMBS
Video Director

David Combs enters his 13th year as Video Director for the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

Combs, a native of Bay City, Mich., is responsible for coaching films and video operations of the UKAA. He also works with the UK Athletics Media Relations Office on a weekly basis during the year producing and distributing video, including game highlights, press conferences and interviews.

In addition to his duties for UK, Combs freelances for NFL Films, where he has shot footage for highlight films and commercials.

Combs boasts the honor of shooting the main footage of Reebok's 1994 Super Bowl commercial featuring Emmitt Smith.

Combs earned his undergraduate degree in telecommunications and marketing from the University of Kentucky in 1984. As a student, he worked as cinematographer and editor of game films for the UK coaching staff.

Following graduation, Combs served as a TV-film producer/director for the UK Office of Instructional Resources with his primary responsibility of serving the UKAA. He transferred to athletics in August of 1989 as Sports Video Director.

Combs is married to the former Charlotte Preece of Paintsville. They have one son — Zachary (4).

BARBARA DONNELLY
Ticket Manager

Barbara Donnelly enters her 21st year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

Donnelly, a native of Flatwoods, was named Ticket Manager for the UKAA in October of 1987. She had served as Assistant Ticket Manager since 1984.

Donnelly began her employment with UKAA as secretary to Frank Ham of the Blue-White Fund office in December, 1975.

She graduated from Russell High School in 1971 and owns an associate degree from Ashland Community College. She is the daughter of Jean Siple of Flatwoods.

JACK FLIGG
Assistant Athletics Director/ Football Operations

Jack Fligg is in his seventh year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association. He was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Football Operations on March 11, 1991, after serving one year as administrative assistant with the UK football program.

His primary responsibilities include coordinating football operations and the major administrative duties of Coach Bill Curry.

Fligg came to Kentucky from the University of Alabama where he spent three years as an administrative assistant. He officially became a member of the UK staff on Jan. 14, 1990.

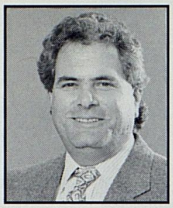

Overall, Fligg begins his 31st year in intercollegiate athletics.

Prior to his administrative appointments, Fligg spent 22 years as an assistant coach at four schools — Georgia Tech (1964, 1984-86), West Virginia (1966-69), Texas Tech (1970-74), and South Carolina (1975-82). He served under Jim Carlen for 16 of those seasons at West Virginia, Texas Tech and South Carolina. Prior to the collegiate level, Fligg coached high school football for 11 years in the Atlanta area — West Fulton High School and Grady High School.

Fligg played two seasons (1950-51) of college football at Auburn. He received his undergraduate degree from Oglethorpe in 1955 and his master's degree from George Peabody College in 1959.

He is married to the former Jonell Upchurch of Hapeville, Ga. They have three children — Matt, Mrs. Joanna Trump, and Mrs. Terri Carter — and four grandchildren.

AL GREEN
Trainer

Al Green enters his 17th season as Trainer for the University of Kentucky Athletics Association. His primary responsibility is football, but Green also supervises all 22 sports at UK.

Green, a native of Brooklyn, N.Y., came to the University of Kentucky in 1979 after working five years as Assistant Trainer at Michigan (1974-78).

Following his graduation from John F. Kennedy High School in Bellmore, N.Y., Green attended Lea (Minn.) College for two years. He transferred to Michigan and completed his undergraduate work, earning his bachelor's degree in education in 1973.

Green participated in the University of Arizona graduate program the following year, earning his master's degree (1974) in education, specializing in athletic training.

Al is in his third and final year as President of the College Athletic Trainers Association. He is in charge of overseeing all facets of the 500-member organization, including the annual convention. He is a past president of the Kentucky Athletic Trainers Society.

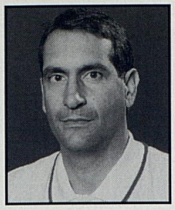

Al is also involved in community service. He is Chairman of the Board and a volunteer fireman with the Jessamine County Fire Department.

In 1989 he worked the Olympic Sports Festival in Oklahoma City, Okla., and in 1993 he worked the Olympic Sports Festival in San Antonio, Texas.

Green is married to UK's associate trainer Sue Stanley. He has four children — Douglas, Jennifer, Tracy Beth, and Logan Nicole.

TOM KALINOWSKI
Equipment Manager

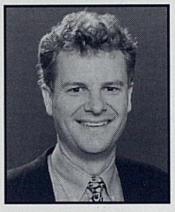

Tom Kalinowski enters his 18th year as Equipment Manager for the University of Kentucky football program.

Kalinowski, a native of Middleton, Conn., received his undergraduate degree from Kentucky in 1978. He had served as a student manager at UK, beginning in 1974 until his graudation. Kalinowski was named Head Football Equipment Manager in 1978.

He graduated from Xavier High School in 1974. At Xavier, Kalinowski was student manager for the football, baseball and basketball programs.

Kalinowski and his wife, Vicki, were married in March 1990. They have two sons, Ian (3) and Cody (1).

TONY NEELY
Sports Information Director

Tony Neely enters his third year as Sports Information Director at the University of Kentucky.

Neely handles the day-to-day media relations and publicity efforts for the UK football team. His 1995 football media guide was judged second in District IV and 10th in the nation by the College Sports Information Directors of America. In his two years at UK, Neely has won three CoSIDA District IV awards for excellence in writing.

Neely also served as media coordinator for the 1996 NCAA Men's Basketball Southeast Regional Tournament held in Lexington.

On campus, Neely is currently a member of the communications committee of President Charles Wethington's job study task force. The task force is evaluating and redesigning compensation and performance evaluation systems for more than 10,000 jobs at the University of Kentucky and in the 14 community colleges across the commonwealth.

Neely, 36, has spent 18 years in the collegiate sports information field. After serving four years as a student assistant (1978-82) at Vanderbilt, Neely was promoted to Assistant SID and also held the title of Associate SID before being promoted to Sports Information Director in 1992. Three of his publications won national awards.

Neely is married to the former Terri Thomason, a native of Paducah, Ky.

The Neelys have one daughter, Grace (1).

JANETTA OWENS
Administrative Assistant

Janetta Owens begins her 15th year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

Owens was hired in July 1980 as the administrative assistant to the head football coach and has held that position under three head coaches — Fran Curci (1980-81), Jerry Claiborne (1982-89) and Bill Curry (1990-96).

Pear, who was UK's Director of Intramurals from 1978-82 and then the Associate Director of Campus Recreation from 1982-92, became Athletic Facilities Coordinator on June 1, 1992. His immediate responsibility was to oversee the construction and opening of the Nutter Field House. His ongoing responsibilities include supervision for planning, maintenance, renovation, future construction and operation of all UKAA facilities.

Pear earned a bachelor's degree in education from Northern Illinois in 1976 and a master's degree in education from Colorado State in 1977.

Pear and his wife Kathy have two children — Leah (12) and Clay (9).

SUE STANLEY
Associate Trainer

Sue Stanley enters her 15th year as Associate Trainer at the University of Kentucky. Her main responsibility includes football and assisting in the supervision of all 22 sports at UK.

Stanley, a native of Smithville, Ohio, came to Kentucky on a full-time basis in 1982. Prior to UK, Stanley had spent one year with the Department of Intramural and Recreational Services at East Carolina.

She earned her bachelor's degree in physical education from The Ohio State University in 1979. Stanley later received her master's degree in exercise physiology from Purdue in 1981.

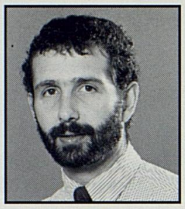

Stanley has worked as a trainer at the 1989 Olympic Sports Festival in Oklahoma City, Okla., and the 1992 Olympic Trials at Colorado Springs, Colo. She also served as trainer for the USA Women's Basketball Select Team, which toured the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia in 1990, and she worked the Olympic Sports Festival in 1993 in San Antonio, Texas. She was named the 1989 Assistant Athletics Trainer of the Year for District Nine and served a six-year term (1986-92) on the Board of Certification for the National Athletics Trainers Association. Stanley is past president of the Southeastern Conference Trainers Association.

Sue is in her third and final year as President of the Southeast Athletic Trainers Association, District 9 of the National Athletic Trainers Association. After completing her term, Stanley will spend three years on the NATA Board of Directors.

Stanley is married to UK's head trainer Al Green. They have an infant daughter, Logan Nicole.

THE '95 Review

Kio Sanford ranked second in the SEC in kickoff returns last season. Bob Holmberg (51) is a member of the stalwart blocking unit that opens the holes for Sanford's returns.

1995 Game-By-Game

Game One: Louisville 13, UK 10

(Attendance: 58,967)

Lexington, Ky. — Louisville RB Calvin Arrington scored the Cardinals' first touchdown of the game with just 1:49 left on the game clock to secure a 13-10 U of L victory over Kentucky in "The Clash of '95" in Commonwealth Stadium.

Kentucky scored first in the contest on a 48-yard Brian Sivinski field goal with 7:22 left in the first quarter. U of L's David Akers nailed a 25-yard field goal with 8:06 left in the second quarter and the game was knotted at 3-3 at the half.

In the fourth quarter, Akers booted a 36-yard field goal to push the Cardinals ahead 6-3. Following the ensuing kickoff, Kentucky marched 90 yards, scoring the game's first touchdown on a 14-yard run by QB Jeff Speedy. Sivinski connected on the point after to put the Cats in the lead 10-6 with 4:58 remaining in the game.

The Cardinals wasted no time, covering 72 yards in three minutes as Arrington took a pitch around right end for a one-yard TD with 1:49 on the clock. Akers' PAT made the score 13-10. Kentucky's last chance died when Speedy's pass intended for WR Antonio O'Ferral was picked off by U of L's Sam Madison at the UK 42 with 11 seconds left, sending the Cards back to Louisville with the Governor's Cup trophy.

Game Two: Florida 42, UK 7

(Attendance: 53,524)

Lexington, Ky. — The fifth-ranked Florida Gators lived up to their preseason billing as they marched through Commonwealth Stadium, holding Kentucky scoreless until the final six minutes of the game and handing the Cats a 42-7 loss.

The Gators scored two touchdowns in the first quarter — on a nine-yard pass from QB Danny Wuerffel to WR Chris Doering (9:15) and on RB Fred Taylor's one-yard run (1:49).

Florida reached the end zone again with 5:28 remaining in the half on a four-yard pass from Wuerffel to TB Terry Jackson to stretch the lead to 21-0. Wuerffel then connected on a 13-yard toss to Doering with 1:13 left to make the score 28-0 at the half.

Florida continued its attack in the third quarter with two scores from Jackson, one from the eight-yard line at 11:42 and another on a six-yard run at 2:41 to increase the lead to 42-0.

The Wildcats scored the last points of the game on a 30-yard pass from QB Billy Jack Haskins to WR Craig Yeast with 6:33 left.

The Gators racked up 375 of their 584 net yards through the air. The Gators also managed to take away UK's running game, holding RB Moe Williams to 64 yards and UK to a total of 127 on the ground.

Game Three: UK 17, Indiana 10

(Attendance: 37,225)

Bloomington, Ind. — The Wildcats regained possession of the Bourbon Barrel with a 17-10 win on the road over borderstate rival Indiana.

In his first collegiate start, QB Billy Jack Haskins completed eight of 12 passes for 87 yards and ran 42 yards for the go-ahead touchdown with 13:10 left in the game. RB Moe Williams netted 120 yards on 36 rushes with one touchdown.

The Hoosiers scored on their first two possessions on a 42-yard field goal from Bill Manolopoulos (9:13) and on a 19-yard rush by TB Alex Smith (4:23). Kentucky's defense then took charge, holding the Hoosiers scoreless for the remainder of the game while limiting the home team to 152 total yards, including seven sacks and three fumble recoveries. Defensive end Kurt Supe accounted for four of the sacks and caused two fumbles.

Kentucky's first TD came with 8:15 left in the first half as Williams capped a 98-yard drive with a one-yard plunge to cut the score to 10-7. The Wildcats took the lead in the fourth quarter on Haskins' 42-yard gallop to go ahead 14-10. UK added three more points on a 49-yard field goal from Sivinski with 7:32 left in the game.

Game Four: UK 35, South Carolina 30

(Attendance: 65,325)

Columbia, S.C.—The Wildcats won their second consecutive game on the road for the first time since 1984 as they downed the South Carolina Gamecocks 35-30. UK RB Moe Williams had the best game of his collegiate career, galloping for a school record 299 yards.

While Kentucky rushed for a team total of 310 yards, the Cats held South Carolina to just 90 yards on the ground.

Williams rushed for three touchdowns in the first half to give the Wildcats a 21-14 lead at halftime.

Williams continued his torrid pace in a torrential downpour in the second half, scoring yet another touchdown. The Gamecocks never gave up, however, and it took an interception by Van Hiles on the game's final play to preserve the victory.

Williams set three SEC single-game records. His 299 net rushing yards was the most ever in an SEC vs. SEC game; his 429 all-purpose yards was the most ever by an SEC player and the second-highest single-game total in NCAA history; and his 7.5 yards-per-carry broke the SEC record for rushing average in one game, minimum 40 attempts. For his performance he was named National Player of the Week by the U.S. Postal Service/National Football Foundation, National Offensive Player of the Week by Sports Illustrated and SEC Offensive Player of the Week.

Game Five: Auburn 42, UK 21

(Attendance: 58,250)

Lexington, Ky. — Kentucky managed to hold the Auburn Tigers to only one touchdown in the second half, but the damage was already done in the first half as UK could not overcome the 35-7 halftime deficit and fell 42-21.

Auburn rolled up 584 yards in total offense as QB Patrick Nix completed 18 of 27 passes for 262 yards and three touchdowns. Several Tiger running backs combined for 285 rushing yards and three touchdowns.

UK TB Moe Williams paced the Wildcats' attack by rushing 27 times for 164 yards and two touchdowns. The outing marked Williams' third consecutive 100-plus game. QB Billy Jack Haskins completed 13 of 21 passes for a career-high 158 yards and one TD.

Game Six: UK 24, LSU 16

(Attendance: 51,500)

Lexington, Ky. — The Wildcats scored 17 points in the fourth quarter to clinch a come-from-behind victory over the LSU Tigers in front of a Homecoming crowd of 51,500 in Commonwealth Stadium.

Kentucky controlled the game statistically, netting 404 yards, including 267 on the ground, while holding LSU to a net of 205 yards. UK's one-two running punch of Moe Williams and Raymond McLaurin combined for 201 yards. McLaurin led the way, netting 107 yards on 25 attempts, while Williams picked up 94 yards on 25 attempts.

Williams scored the first of UK's three touchdowns with a one-yard run in the first quarter (8:10) to put UK up 7-0. The Tigers cut the score to 7-3 in the second quarter on a 47-yard field goal from Andre' LaFleur. With 32 seconds left in the half, LSU LB Pat Rogers intercepted a pass on the LSU 34 and returned it 66 yards for a TD to put the Tigers ahead 10-7 at the half.

After LSU took a 16-7 lead in the third quarter on two LaFleur field goals (19 and 21 yards), UK began its comeback. QB Billy Jack Haskins hit WR James Tucker (9:54) with a 29-yard TD pass to cut LSU's lead to 16-14. UK immediately regained possession when LSU failed to field the following kickoff and the Cats recovered at the LSU 26. Less than two minutes later TB Ray McLaurin scored on a six-yard run (8:06) to put Kentucky up 21-16. UK kicker Brian Sivinski nailed a 32-yard field goal at 4:23 to seal the Homecoming win for the Wildcats.

Athens, Ga. — Kanon Parkman kicked four field goals as Georgia won a tight defensive battle, 12-3. Neither team reached the end zone during the game as Georgia racked up only 289 yards in total offense to UK's 247.

Parkman nailed two field goals in the second quarter (a 27-yarder at 11:03 and a 24-yarder at 7:01) to make the score 6-0 at the half.

After Parkman hit a 36-yard field goal with 6:45 in the third quarter to increase Georgia's lead to 9-0, the Wildcats finally got on the board with a 22-yard field goal from Brian Sivinski with 1:36 left in the third stanza. Parkman kicked his fourth field goal from 33 yards out (13:33 in the 4th period) to end the scoring.

Kentucky TB Moe Williams rolled up 117 rushing yards on 22 attempts. QB Billy Jack Haskins completed 16 of 24 passes for 115 yards.

State tied the score at 25-25 on a 41-yard field goal by Brian Hazelwood (10:55). McGee put State back in the lead at the 5:04 marker, following his two-yard TD run to push the 'Dogs ahead 32-25. Kentucky came back to tie the score near the end of the third quarter on a dashing 61-yard TD run by Williams (3:00). However, the Wildcats were shut out in the fourth quarter, while State delivered two blows on a one-yard run from McGee (4:51) and a 26-yard field goal by Brian Hazelwood (2:26) to clinch the win.

Kentucky netted 426 yards while holding State to 361.

Game Nine: Vanderbilt 14, UK 10

(Attendance: 26,053)

Nashville, Tenn. — Kentucky was unable to jump-start its offense after QB Billy Jack Haskins separated his shoulder early in the game, and a fourth quarter come-from-behind touchdown gave Vanderbilt a 14-10 win over the visiting Cats.

Vanderbilt won the coin toss and went to work immediately, scoring on its first possession after a 70-yard march that took almost 10 minutes off the clock. RB Jermaine Johnson scored from one yard out (5:43) to give Vandy a 7-0 lead. UK linebacker David Ginn intercepted a pass on the VU 48 and returned the ball 17 yards to put UK in scoring position with 5:41 left in the half. UK drove the ball to the Vanderbilt 14 and QB Jeff Speedy connected on a 14-yard pass to WR Craig Yeast (3:02) to tie the score 7-7 at the half.

Kentucky scored in the third quarter on a 40-yard field goal from Brian Sivinski to go ahead 10-7. But Vanderbilt responded in the fourth quarter with a 27-yard pass from QB Damian Allen to WR Kenny Simon (5:46) to go ahead for good 14-10.

Haskins completed 6-of-7 passes for 69 yards before leaving the game at the start of the second period.

Game Ten: UK 33, Cincinnati 14

(Attendance: 25,231)

Lexington, Ky. — The Wildcats held visiting Cincinnati to just 18 yards rushing and three scoreless quarters to win 33-14 in a game played in freezing temperatures and strong winds.

Kentucky RB Moe Williams rushed for 272 yards on 40 attempts and scored three touchdowns. Williams scored the first points of the day on a 37-yard run (2:48) in the first quarter. The PAT was no good and UK led 6-0. UK scored again in the second frame on a 33-yard pass from QB Billy Jack Haskins to WR Kevin Coleman (12:06) to increase the lead to 12-0 following a failed two-point attempt. Williams made his second TD run at 1:50, rushing two yards for the score to put UK up 19-0 at the half.

Cincinnati finally got on the scoreboard in the fourth quarter on a two-yard run by FB Orlando Smith (11:53), but UK answered with a 23-yard pass from QB Jeff Speedy to Coleman (8:23) to increase the lead to 26-7.

UC drove 50 yards in five plays to score its last TD on a three-yard pass from QB Eric Vibberts at 6:52. UK's Williams scored his third TD of the game on a two-yard run (2:11) to end the scoring.

Game Eleven: Tennessee 34, UK 31

(Attendance: 52,300)

Lexington, Ky. — Fans were treated to one of the best-played games of the season in Commonwealth Stadium as the Wildcats ended the year with a 34-31 loss to fourth-ranked Tennessee.

A 47-yard touchdown run by ailing UK quarterback Billy Jack Haskins (separated left shoulder) gave Kentucky the lead for the third time in the game as the Cats went up 31-27 with 14:47 left in the final period. But a 15-yard Peyton Manning-to-Greg Kyler TD toss put UT ahead with 11:37 left and the Vols held on for a 34-31 win.

UK led 17-9 at the half on the strength of two Moe Williams scoring runs and a 33-yard field goal by Brian Johnson. Tennessee countered with three field goals by Jeff Hall.

Kio Sanford brought the near-capacity Commonwealth crowd to its feet by returning the second half kick to the UT 34. Two plays later, Williams broke off center for a 26-yard TD romp. Brian Johnson's PAT made the score 24-9.

Tennessee charged back with three third quarter scores. Hall connected on his fourth FG of the game — this one from 47 yards out — at 11:10. A 20-yard UK punt led to Tennessee's first TD of the day, a one-yard run by QB Peyton Manning (7:33) to pull the Vols to within 24-19. UT then took the lead with a 70-yard TD pass from Manning to WR Joey Kent. The ensuing two-point conversion put the Vols up 27-24, setting up the dramatic ending with Haskins' gallant run and Tennessee's poised response.

"Most Inspirational Play of the Year" in College Football

Quarterback Billy Jack Haskins' 47-yard touchdown run against Tennessee was chosen "The Most Inspirational Play of the Year" in college football.

Haskins' award was one of several chosen as the "College Football Plays of the Year" as sponsored by Nu Skin International and the College Sports Information Directors of America.

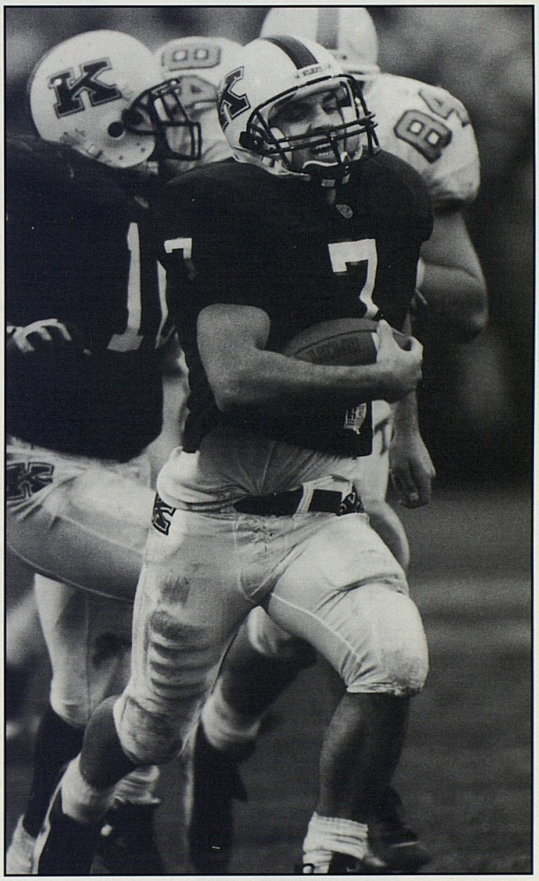

Haskins had suffered a separated left shoulder in the ninth game of the season at Vanderbilt. The next week, Haskins led Kentucky to a 19-0 lead against Cincinnati before leaving the game in great pain in the third quarter. Kentucky went on to win, 33-14.

Again playing in extreme pain, Haskins had a truly inspirational performance in the season finale against fourth-ranked Tennessee.

On the first play of the fourth quarter, with the Wildcats trailing 27-24, Haskins ran right on an option play. He broke several tackles — including one crunching hit on his ailing shoulder — and received some critical blocks before breaking into the clear for the go-ahead touchdown.

The play also was chosen as one of ESPN's "College Football Plays of the Year." Haskins also inspired the following fax from a Tennessee fan, Tony McFarland, after the game:

"This is just a quick note to Billy Jack Haskins to let him know that he played a masterful game against the Vols on Saturday. I have been a Vol fan for a number of years and I can't recall a more inspirational performance. He truly epitomizes college athletics. I hope his shoulder heals quickly and he continues to grace the field of competition."

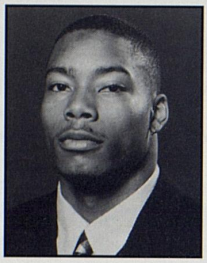

Billy Jack Haskins breaks into the clear and heads for the end zone on his 47-yard touchdown run against Tennessee. The play was chosen "The Most Inspirational Play of the Year" in college football.

A pioneer in the integration of higher education and athletic competition, the Southeastern Conference stands ready to advance intercollegiate athletics into the 21st century.

Since its formation in 1933, the SEC achieved both stature and stability by designating governing/voting power to the presidents of the member institutions. They have determined the policies of the conference and through the years this involvement has been the principal source of strength in the evolution of the SEC.

Throughout its 64-year history, the SEC has provided leadership on the vital issues facing intercollegiate competition. In 1993, the member institutions adopted The Principles of Gender Equity. Committed to increasing the quantity and quality of women's athletic opportunities, each school will provide at least two more women's intercollegiate programs than the number of men's.

Faced with the task of conference realignment after competing with 10 members since 1966, the SEC welcomed the University of Arkansas on Aug. 1, 1990, and the University of South Carolina on Sept. 25, 1990. Joining charter members Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Tennessee and Vanderbilt, on July 1, 1991, Arkansas and South Carolina became the first schools added in conference history.

Fully incorporated into conference competition by 1992, Arkansas and South Carolina participated in SEC championships for all sports except football during the 1991-92 academic year. The SEC was again at the forefront, introducing football, basketball and baseball divisional play and the nation's first ever Division I football championship game.

SEC schools began athletic competition with one another almost 100 years ago as members of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. Seven institutions (Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, Sewanee and Vanderbilt) attended the SIAA organizational meeting of faculty representatives, called by Dr. William L. Dudley of Vanderbilt, in Atlanta Dec. 22, 1894.

Student teams from the schools began meeting in various sports with little pattern to their contests. The American adaptation of the English game rugby, called "football" was drifting down from the East and Midwest. Southerners were quickly attracted to this sport formalized in 1869.

The first football game in the Southeast was played April 9, 1880, on the ground now called Old Stoll Field at the University of Kentucky. Kentucky A & M (now UK) organized a team and in November 1881, played Transylvania College in a three-game series. By 1895, 11 current SEC members were playing football.

Basketball moved quickly to the South as Vanderbilt was playing at the Nashville YMCA in 1893, just two years after Dr. James Naismith originated the game at Springfield (Mass.) College.

Track was organized on a conference level at the 1895 SIAA meeting presided over by President Dudley, who served until his death in 1914. The first championship meet was held at Vanderbilt May 15, 1896. By 1900, eight of the 13 charter SEC members were participating.

The seven-member SIAA expanded to 19 institutions in 1895 (Alabama, Auburn, Central, Clemson, Cumberland, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Mercer, Mississippi State, Nashville, North Carolina, Sewanee, Southwestern Presbyterian, Tennessee, Texas, Tulane and Vanderbilt) and by 1920 there were 30 members.

The larger schools reorganized as the Southern Conference at a meeting in Gainesville Dec. 12-13, 1920. Professor S.V. Sanford of Georgia called the meeting and served as the first president. Charter members of the Southern Conference included: Alabama, Auburn, Clemson, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Maryland, Mississippi State, North Carolina, North Carolina State, Tennessee, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Washington & Lee.

Despite an original limit of 16, the membership grew to 23 by 1928. In 1922, Florida, Louisiana State, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tulane, Vanderbilt and Virginia Military joined, while Sewanee and Duke became members in 1923 and 1928 respectively. At one time or another the SIAA and the SC included most of the Southern colleges from Virginia to Texas.

The 13 members west and south of the Appalachian Mountains reorganized as the Southeastern Conference at the annual SC meeting of Dec. 8-9, 1932, in Knoxville. The 10 coast members remained in the Southern Conference. Dr. Frank L. McVey of Kentucky was elected president of the new conference whose charter members were: Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Louisiana State, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt. (Sewanee withdrew Dec. 13, 1940, Georgia Tech on June 1, 1964 and Tulane on June 1, 1966). McVey held an informal meeting of the school presidents in Birmingham Feb. 16, 1933, then the first full meeting in Atlanta, Feb. 27.

The office of the commissioner was formed in 1940 in Jackson due to the great amount of detail work developing, especially in recruiting and eligibility. Former Mississippi Governor Martin S. Conner took office as commissioner Aug. 21, 1940. Conner later became ill and the secretary of the conference, Dean N.W. Dougherty of Tennessee, served as acting commissioner during the fall of 1946.

The office moved to Birmingham with the appointing of Bernie H. Moore as the second full-time commissioner on Feb. 21, 1948. Moore, a former LSU coach, guided the SEC to national respect in his 18-year tenure.

A.M. (Tonto) Coleman succeeded Moore upon his retirement April 1, 1966. The Alabama native, who was reared in Texas and experienced in athletic coaching and administration, served six and a half years.

Dr. H. Boyd McWhorter, then Dean of Arts and Sciences at Georgia and secretary of the league since 1967, accepted the position upon the retirement of Coleman Aug. 1, 1972. Under his leadership the SEC experienced unparalleled growth. In McWhorter's first year the SEC distributed $ 1.57 million in revenue to the member institutions.

Dr. Harvey S. Schiller, an Air Force colonel and faculty chair at the U.S. Air Force Academy, followed McWhorter upon retirement, taking office Sept. 15, 1986. Under his guidance the SEC established itself as a leader in the areas of athletic scholarship and marketing.

Roy F. Kramer succeeded Schiller on Jan. 10, 1990. Kramer, who has served on numerous NCAA committees, joined the league office after spending 12 years as athletic director at Vanderbilt.

The first SEC champions were crowned in 1933 in baseball, basketball, football and outdoor track. The league's inaugural championship event was a basketball tournament in Atlanta Feb. 24-28, 1933. Records show the first men's team title for cross-country was awarded in 1935, while golf and swimming were added in 1937. The league later began hosting championships in tennis (1953) and indoor track (1957).

In the 1979-80 academic year SEC championships for women were recognized in basketball, tennis and volleyball. The following year golf, gymnastics, swimming and track and field were added. The administration of women's athletics officially came under the auspices of the conference office on Sept. 1, 1984.

The SEC currently regulates nine men's sports and 11 women's sports: Men - baseball, basketball, football, golf, swimming, tennis and track (cross country, indoor and outdoor); Women - basketball, golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis, track (cross country, indoor and outdoor) and volleyball.

THE University

Linebacker Mike Schellenberger was named to the GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America second team last season. Schellenberger completed his bachelor's degree in finance with 3.78 grade point average. He will play his final season at UK in 1996 as a graduate student, working on his master's in business administration.

THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

The University of Kentucky was founded in 1865 as a land-grant institution, and the present name dates to 1916.

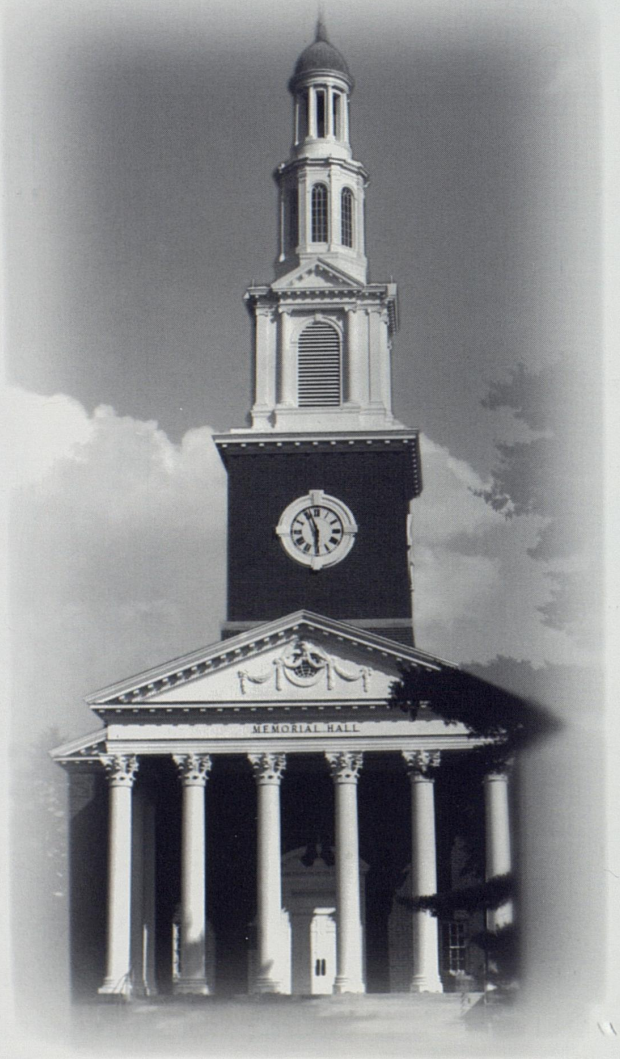

The campus in Lexington has 673 acres and is located just south of downtown. It consists of a graduate school, the University hospital and 16 colleges. The colleges are: allied health professions, architecture, arts and sciences, agriculture, business and economics, communications and information studies, dentistry, engineering, education, fine arts, human environmental sciences, law, medicine, nursing, pharmacy and social work. The graduate school offers 97 master's degree programs and 60 doctoral programs.

Enrollment on the campus in Lexington is more than 24,000 and includes students from every Kentucky county, every state, and more than 100 foreign countries. Full-time faculty numbers 1,700. Approximately 98 percent of the full-time faculty hold the highest possible degrees in their field. UK's faculty and staff attract more than $100 million in grants, gifts and contracts; and the University has been designated a Research University of the First Class by the Carnegie Foundation — one of just 59 public universities in the country.

The University attracts excellent students. The number of National Merit Scholars entering UK consistently ranks among the top 10 public universities in the country. The average ACT score for first-year students is four points above the national average.

The University of Kentucky Community College System is made up of 14 colleges throughout Kentucky. Enrollment numbers over 44,000. The colleges offer associate degrees in technical subjects, two-year programs toward a bachelor's degree, and a wide variety of continuing education, community service and business liaison programs. UK now educates 38 percent of all students going to private and public colleges in Kentucky.

The number of UK alumni is more than 145,000. Private supports from alumni and friends of the University exceeds $30 million annually.

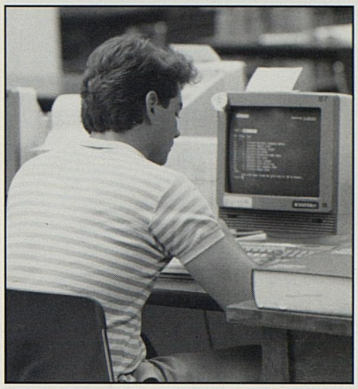

The University of Kentucky Library maintains more than 2.5 million volumes, the 51st largest collection in the country. Work is underway on a new $58 million library that will serve the entire state thanks to the wonders of computers and technology. The six-floor facility will encompass more than 350,000 square feet and have seating for 4,000 people.

In addition, UK maintains 23 research centers which conduct applied research in areas as diverse as tobacco and health, aging, cancer, toxicology, equine health, mineral production, manufacturing systems, and public policy. Several excel in the services offered to the public. The Center for Manufacturing Systems has assisted more than 500 small and mid-sized industrial firms in Kentucky. The Gluck Equine Research Center is recognized as one of only two of its kind in the world, offering continuing research into diseases of the horse.

The UK College of Medicine is ranked third in the country in the quality of primary care training. The UK Hospital is ranked among the top 100 U.S. hospitals in the country by HCIA Inc. and Mercer Management Consultants. The UK College of Pharmacy consistently is ranked third in the country by U.S. News and World Report and is one of the few pharmacy schools in the country with the capability of developing a drug "from bench to bedside" due to its drug product evaluation unit.

The University is in the process of developing the Coldstream Research Campus, a 750-acre complex designed to attract high-tech companies desiring ties to the University. Negotiations are under way to execute leases with developers to construct several new commercial facilities on the research campus.

Charles T. Wethington Jr., UK President

Charles T. Wethington Jr., was elected the 10th president of the University of Kentucky September 18, 1990.

Wethington began his career in higher education in 1965 as a faculty member on the Lexington campus of the University and two years later was named chief administrator of Maysville Community College. In 1971 he moved to Lexington as assistant vice-president, becoming vice president of the Community College System in 1981.

In the University reorganization of 1982, he was named chancellor of the UK Community College System, one of the three major sectors of UK. In 1987 he was given university-wide responsibilities for public and governmental relations in addition to his community college role, and his title was changed to Chancellor for the Community College System and University Relations.

Wethington earned his master's and doctoral degrees at the University of Kentucky.

The Kentucky native has been active on the national higher education scene. He serves as chair of the Southeastern Universities Research Association's Council of Presidents and served as president of the Southeastern Conference, 1993-95.

He has been a member of the Executive Council of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools' Commission on Colleges, and served as its vice-chairman. He served as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools from 1986-1989.

Wethington is a member of the Southern Regional Education Board and the Southern Growth Policies Board.

During 1957-61 he served in the U.S. Air Force Security Service. He studied Russian at Syracuse University, 1958-59.

Wethington is married to Judy Woodrow Wethington, from Danville, Kentucky. They have a son, Kennan, and a daughter, Lisa.

C.M. Newton, UK Director of Athletics

University of Kentucky alumnus C. M. Newton enters a new chapter in his role as Director of Athletics at his alma mater.

Having planned to retire in the summer of 1996, Newton had a change of heart and has announced that he will stay on the job four more years.

Therefore, the University will continue to benefit from Newton's brand of steady leadership and foresight during an era of significant change and growth in collegiate athletics.

Hired on April 1, 1989, Newton had a lengthy, impressive list of credentials and brought a sparkling reputation for integrity at a crucial time in the history of UK athletics.

In accepting the position, Newton outlined his goals by saying, "I have a resolve to try very hard to continue that great tradition, and at the same time, to do it totally within the NCAA and SEC rules and not sacrifice the academic integrity of this University."

Newton's term of service has been marked by athletic and academic achievement, dedication to rules compliance, the addition of three sports, expansion of facilities, and growth in revenues in response to the increasing financial pressures of collegiate athletics.

Newton came to UK after an illustrious basketball coaching career. In his last two seasons (1988 and 1989), he was named SEC Coach of the Year while leading Vanderbilt to a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances. He was also chosen the Kodak NABC District IV Coach of the Year in 1989. Newton was the head basketball coach and associate athletics director at Vanderbilt from 1982-89, compiling a 129-115 record. In 32 years of coaching at Transylvania, Alabama, and Vanderbilt, Newton compiled a 509-375 record. His Alabama teams won three consecutive Southeastern Conference championships.

Just as impressive was Newton's ability to produce winning teams that also possessed exceptional academic credentials. During Newton's tenure at Vanderbilt, 18 Commodores were named to the Academic All-SEC team, over 50 percent more than any other league school. In addition, all 21 of his seniors earned their diplomas.

Newton is highly regarded on the national level. He has served on the board of directors of the National Association of Basketball Coaches. He worked six years on the NCAA Basketball Rules Committee, serving as chair of that elite group for five of those years. He currently serves as president of USA Basketball, the nation's governing body for all international basketball. He is also a member of the prestigious NCAA Division I Basketball Committee and will become chair of that group in 1997-98. He is a member (and former chair) of the NCAA Committee on Basketball Issues.

Newton is prominent in international basketball circles as well. Currently, he represents North America on the 14-member FIBA Central Board. FIBA is the governing body for international basketball. He is a member of the COPABA Executive Board, which oversees international basketball in North, Central, and South America.

Newton also has international coaching accomplishments. He served as team manager, a combination coaching and administrative position, on the 1984 U.S. Olympic team that won the gold medal. Indiana coach Bob Knight, who tabbed Newton for the Olympic staff, called him "the finest gentleman in our business." In 1983 and 1987, Newton took his Vanderbilt squads to the Republic of China (Taiwan) to represent the United States in the R. William Jones Cup International Tournament, winning the gold medal in 1983 and the silver in 1987. He has also conducted coaching clinics in numerous countries.

Newton began his coaching career at Transylvania College (now Transylvania University) in Lexington. Recommended for the job by Coach Rupp, Newton guided Transy to a 169-137 record in his 12 years at the helm despite the handicap of a limited scholarship program.

In 1969, once again with the backing of Rupp, Newton answered a call from Paul "Bear" Bryant to take on the challenge of building the downtrodden Alabama basketball program. During his 12-year tenure, Newton orchestrated a complete turnaround in the Crimson Tide's basketball fortunes, compiling a sparkling 211-123 record. In addition to the three SEC championships, Newton guided the Tide to two trips to the NCAA Tournament and four berths in the NIT. A satisfied Bryant once remarked "C. M. Newton is a winner, and that's important, but more than anything else, he wins or loses with class, and that's more important."

With few horizons left to conquer at Alabama, Newton resigned at the end of the 1980 season to accept a job as assistant commissioner of the Southeastern Conference. A year later, when Vanderbilt athletics director Roy Kramer was searching for a coach of national stature to head the Commodore basketball program, Newton was the obvious man for the job.

Newton was born Feb. 2, 1930, in Rockwood, Tenn. He grew up in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., where he was eventually named a charter member of that city's Sports Hall of Fame, along with Chris Evert, Julius Boros, and the late Brian Piccolo. After high school, Newton enrolled at UK on a basketball scholarship. He was a letterman on the Wildcats' 1951 national championship team. Also a standout baseball pitcher, Newton hurled in the New York Yankees minor league system before entering college coaching.

Newton and his wife, Evelyn, have three grown children — son Martin, and daughters Deborah and Tracy — and four grandchildren.

UKAA Administrative Staff

LARRY IVY

Senior Associate Director of Athletics

One needs only to look at the 1995 NCAA Convention to understand the high level of respect earned by Larry Ivy, Senior Associate Athletics Director at the University of Kentucky.

At the convention, Ivy was named the 1994 NCAA Business Manager of the Year. The award is the highest and most prestigious honor given by the College Athletic Business Managers of America (CABMA). The recipient of the annual award is selected by a vote of the CABMA membership from nominations submitted by more than 600 NCAA member institutions. The award serves as national recognition for Ivy's astute performance in managing the finances of the University of Kentucky Athletics Association (UKAA).

The talented Ivy, however, does much more in addition to his fiscal duties. As Senior Associate Athletics Director, Ivy serves in the absence of the Athletics Director in the day-to-day operation of the Athletics Association. He has daily responsibilities for the football and men's basketball programs as well as responsibility for operation of the ticket office, accounting, purchasing, data processing, facilities, maintenance, and grounds. In addition to those duties, Ivy is the game management director for all UK home football and basketball games. He has served as tournament manager for eight rounds of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament held in Lexington, including the 1985 Final Four, and for three Southeastern Conference Men's Basketball Tournaments. He currently serves as chair of SEC Men's Basketball Tournament Ticket Committee.

Now in his 20th year with the Athletics Association, Ivy was named Senior Associate Athletics Director in 1993 after being promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Internal Affairs in 1989. He had served as Assistant AD for 13 years after joining the UKAA staff in 1976. Ivy came to the University of Kentucky in 1969 as Director of Student Housing, moving from the University of Alabama.

A native of Huntsville, Ala., Ivy earned his undergraduate degree (1967) and master's in business administration (1968) from the University of Alabama. He is married to the former Lorain Darnell of Paducah, Ky. He has one daughter, Kim.

KATHY DEBOER

Associate Director of Athletics/ Senior Women's Administrator

Kathy DeBoer, who is in her 12th year at the University of Kentucky, was promoted to Associate Director of Athletics in 1993.

DeBoer is the director of the Athletics Association's Blue and White Fund and supervises the fundraising and development activities of the department.

Prior to her promotion, DeBoer was the Assistant Athletics Director for UK's non-revenue sports and the women's volleyball coach. In her nine seasons with the volleyball team, DeBoer led her Wildcats to an impressive 212-96 record, including three Southeastern Conference titles, two SEC Tournament championships, and the 1991 National Invitational Volleyball Tournament championship. DeBoer, the 1987 Tachikara National Coach of the Year, took UK to the Final Eight in 1987 and the NCAA Final 16 in 1988, 1990, and 1992. Several of her assistants moved on to head coaching positions at other Division I schools, including Mary Wise at Florida, Sharon Dingman at Butler, and Nona Richardson at Eastern Michigan.

DeBoer spent four seasons as volleyball coach at Ferris State University prior to coming to UK. She led Ferris State to a pair of Great Lakes Conference championships. She was an advisor to the 1996 U.S. Olympics Volleyball Team.

DeBoer is also active on the UK campus. She is currently serving on the steering committee of President Charles Wethington's campus task force. The task force is evaluating and redesigning compensation and performance evaluation systems for 10,000 jobs at the University of Kentucky and in the 14 community colleges across the commonwealth.

DeBoer received her bachelor's degree from Michigan State in 1978 and her MBA from Kentucky in 1988.

She is married to Mark Pittman of Lexington.

SANDY BELL

Assistant Director of Athletics/Compliance

Sandy Bell was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Compliance in the summer of 1996.

As Asst. AD for Compliance, Bell is responsible for ensuring that University of Kentucky coaches and athletes adhere to National Collegiate Athletic Association and Southeastern Conference rules and regulations. Bell monitors recruitment, eligibility, financial aid, awards, and benefits. She also serves as UK's principal contact with the NCAA Initial Eligibility Clearinghouse.

Bell is in her seventh year with the UK Athletics Association. She joined the UK staff in 1989 as Compliance Coordinator. She was promoted to Director of Compliance in 1993 before being elevated to her present position.

Prior to coming to UK, Bell served as the Director of Guidance at Hendersonville (Tenn.) High School. She has taught algebra, geometry, and trigonometry at the high school and collegiate levels.

A native of Lexington, Bell received her bachelor's degree in mathematics from George Peabody College in Nashville and her master's degree in educational psychology from Middle Tennessee State University.

Sandy is married to Stuart Bell and has two daughters, Deana and Lori.

UKAA Administrative Staff

BOB BRADLEY
Assistant Director of Athletics/Academics

Bob Bradley is in his 19th year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association, coming aboard in 1977.

Bradley, a native of Hornell, N.Y., supervises all academic affairs regarding the UK athletics program, including the operation of the CATS (Center for Academic and Tutorial Services) Center. He has also instituted a career development program for UK student-athletes. In addition, he has worked as Compliance Coordinator at the UKAA.

During Bradley's tenure, UK student-athletes have consistently been honored for their academic achievements, both on a conference and national level. In 1989, the UK football program won the College Football Association's prestigious Academic Achievement Award, given to the University with the highest graduation rate among its football players over a five-year period. UK received honorable mention status in 1988, 91, 93 and 94.

Bradley graduated from Hornell High School and earned his degree at Salem College in 1971. He earned his master's degree in 1972 from the University of Kentucky in educational psychology and counseling. He is a past president of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletes (N4A) and has served as chair of the association's Long Range Planning Committee. He also serves on the advisory board of the National Consortium of Academics and Sports, a division of the prestigious Center for the Study of Sport in Society at Northeastern University.

Prior to joining the UKAA staff, he served as coordinator of career counseling and director of financial aid for the Lexington Community College. He also has been a high school teacher, counselor, and coach.

He is married to the former Robin Stewart.

JOHN CROPP
Assistant Director of Athletics/Non-Revenue Sports

John Cropp is in his sixth year at the University of Kentucky and his 22nd overall involving collegiate athletics.

As Assistant Athletics Director for Non-Revenue Sports, Cropp oversees the administration of 15 of UK's 22 athletic teams. He assumed his current position in April, 1995, after having served previously as Assistant AD for Special Projects (1994-95), Athletics Recruiting Coordinator (1992-93), and Assistant Football Coach (1991).

For the first 14 years of Cropp's athletics career he was involved in coaching. His first head coaching position came at Tennessee High School in Bristol, Tenn. Cropp's squads compiled an impressive 48-15-3 record with two state AAA titles (1971-72) and the '72 mythical national championship.

Cropp returned to his alma mater, Vanderbilt, in 1973 as an assistant coach under Steve Sloan. He followed Sloan as an assistant to Texas Tech (1975-77), Ole Miss (1978-82) and Duke (1983). In 1984, Cropp returned to Vanderbilt under head coach George MacIntyre. He entered private business for two years (1986- 87) before returning to Vanderbilt for a third time. Cropp served as Assistant Athletics Director for Compliance at Vanderbilt for three years before coming to Kentucky.

Cropp earned three varsity letters at Vanderbilt as a guard/linebacker. He received the Wade-Looney Memorial Award as a senior and graduated in 1961.

Cropp and his wife, Mary Ann, have two grown children, Karen and David.

KYLE MOATS
Assistant Director of Athletics/Marketing

Kyle Moats was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Marketing in the summer of 1996.

As Asst. AD for Marketing, Moats is responsible for marketing, promotions, licensing, and corporate sponsorships for the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

Moats is in his eighth year at the UKAA. He joined the staff in 1989 as the first graduate assistant in UK's athletics administration. In 1991, he was promoted to Coordinator of Promotions and Special Events. In 1993, he was named Director of Marketing, Promotions, and Licensing. Under Moats' guidance, licensing revenues for the University increased to $2.1 million in 1994-95 and are expected to approach $2.4 million when the final tallies for 1995-96 are available.

Moats also is actively involved in game management at many UK athletics events. He served as Tournament Manager for the 1996 NCAA Men's Basketball Southeast Regional in Lexington.

A native of Dixon, Ill., Moats is a 1988 graduate of Southern Illinois with a bachelor's degree in physical education. He is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators. An avid golfer, Moats also represents Kentucky as the State Junior Amateur Chairman for the United States Golf Association.

Moats and wife Leeann have two children, Kirk and Lauren.

RENA VICINI
Assistant Director of Athletics/Media Relations

Rena Vicini enters her 16th year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association. She was named Assistant Athletics Director for Media Relations on June 11, 1993, replacing Chris Cameron.

Vicini, a native of Lynch, directs all public relations efforts for UK's 22 varsity men's and women's sports. She had served as Associate Director for Communications at UK since July, 1991.

Through the years, Vicini has won numerous awards in publications contests sponsored by the College Sports Information Directors of America. She also taught a class at UK on sports media relations in the spring semester of 1996.

She had worked as a sportswriter and reporter before joining the UK staff in 1981. Vicini, a 1977 graduate of Kentucky, worked as a reporter for the Harlan Daily Enterprise, as a sportswriter for the Louisville Courier-Journal, and as a sportswriter/ columnist for the Lexington Herald-Leader.

Vicini came to the UK Athletics Association in 1981 as Assistant Sports Information Director under then-SID Russell Rice. She had worked as Assistant SID until the promotion to Associate SID in 1991.

LEXINGTON

This is a place where the past and present meet and mesh gracefully.

It is a place where downtown skyscrapers overlook thousands of acres of lush pastures. It is where champion horses are bred, foaled, trained, bought, sold, raced, and retired.

This is Lexington, home to the University of Kentucky.

Located at the heart of Kentucky's famous scenic Bluegrass region, Lexington combines the excitement of a metropolitan area with the hospitality of a Southern hometown atmosphere. Well-known for race horses, bourbon, and burley tobacco, Lexington also boasts major industries such as higher education, computer printers and keyboards, and telecommunications. Corporations headquartered in Lexington and the Bluegrass region include Lexmark International, Toyota, Ashland Oil, and Long John Silver's.

With a population of approximately 235,000, Lexington's size makes for the perfect college atmosphere for the University of Kentucky. The city provides a wide range of activities for UK students and their visiting friends and families.

Lexington offers opportunities to tour world-famous horse farms; explore the countryside on scenic walking and driving tours; venture through historic homes; investigate the world of horses at the Kentucky Horse Park; hike through forests; golf at championship courses; wager on horse races at Keeneland and The Red Mile race tracks; cheer on Lexington's new hockey team — the Kentucky Thoroughblades — at Rupp Arena; or celebrate the Wildcats' six national championships at the University of Kentucky Basketball Museum (slated to open in 1997).

Thanksgiving through New Year's Eve is an especially beautiful time to visit Lexington, when the Horse Park's animated light display, "Southern Lights," warms up the holiday season.

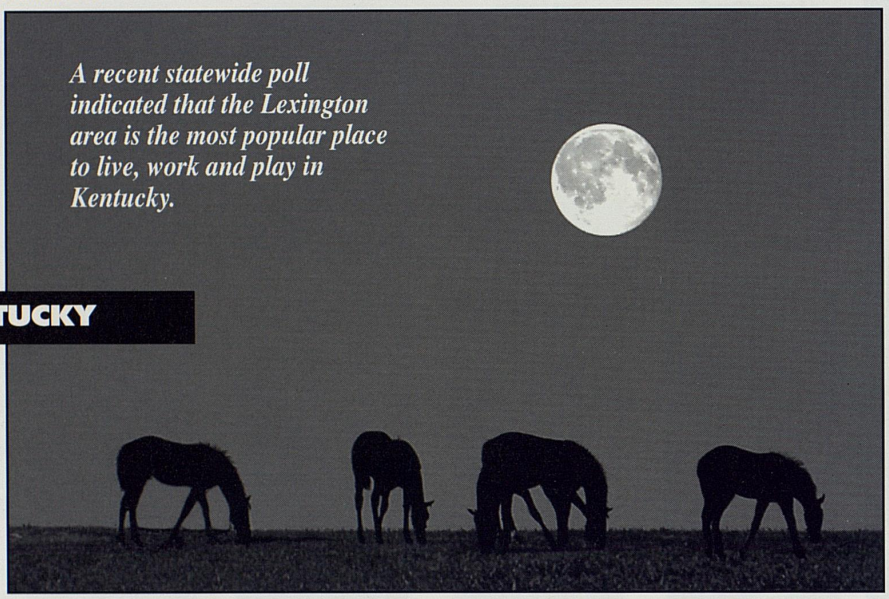

Lexington is a city to explore, from shopping and entertainment to one-of-a-kind restaurants and affordable accommodations — all within minutes of the UK campus.

The surrounding Bluegrass Region also presents numerous touring options: visit the Kentucky state capital; take a riverboat ride at Shaker Village of Pleasant Hill; shop in the Arts and Crafts Capital of Kentucky; see how bourbon is made at Labrot and Graham, Ancient Age, and Wild Turkey distilleries; or search for treasures from the past at one of 200 area antique shops.

Lexington residents and visitors to the area enjoy the hospitable, cosmopolitan environment. Lexington was ranked the 17th safest city in America, according to a 1995 national report. A recent statewide poll indicated that the Lexington area is the most popular place to live, work, and play in Kentucky.

For more information on the entertainment opportunities in Lexington, call the Lexington Convention and Visitors Bureau at 1-800-845-3959.

KENTUCKY

"If these United States can be called a body... then Kentucky can be called its heart."
— Jesse Stuart

Though the above words were written by one of Kentucky's favorite sons, any one of the millions of visitors to the Bluegrass State each year might nod in agreement.

Kentucky embodies the very essence of America, from majestic mountains and forests to vast sparkling lakes, from rolling acres of farm and pastureland to the hustle and bustle of metropolitan centers. And around every turn in the road, Kentucky's colorful past, which helped shape our country's character, is preserved and maintained for all to enjoy. The result is a state so diverse in travel and recreational opportunities that one is hard-pressed to name its equal.

If asked to describe Kentucky, the first word to come to mind would probably be horses. The Bluegrass region of central Kentucky is internationally recognized as the Horse Capital of the World. Lexington, in the heart of the Bluegrass, preserves the romantic tradition of the horse farms and is the hub of the multi-billion dollar horse industry.

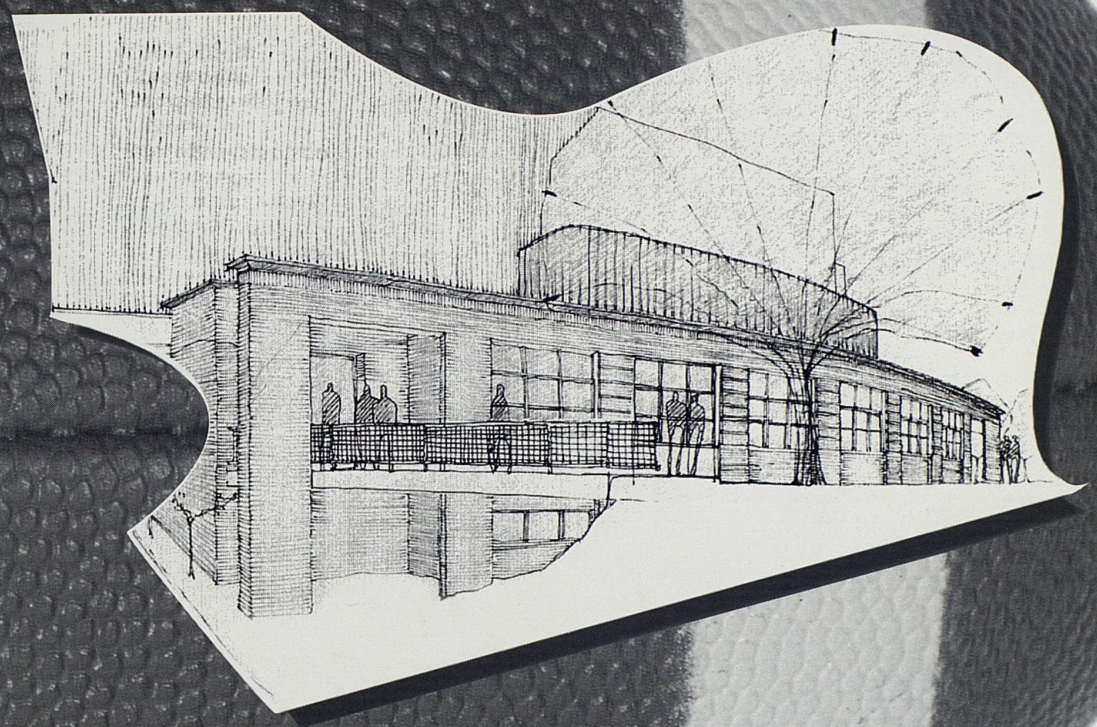

Kentucky is also a land steeped in the rich history of our nation. Legendary pioneer Daniel Boone laid out Kentucky's second settlement at Fort Boonesborough, and nearby, a hundred years later, the Shaker religious sect prospered at picturesque Shaker Village of Pleasant Hill.

Abraham Lincoln was born in Hodgenville (the one-room cabin is part of a National Historic Site). The plantation home that inspired Stephen Foster to write "My Old Kentucky Home" still stands at a state park of the same name. And the region that 200 years ago gave birth to one of Kentucky's most famous exports — bourbon whiskey — is dotted with world-famous distilleries.

KENTUCKY FACTS:

Kentucky is one of only four states in the nation designated as a commonwealth... The state capital is Frankfort...Kentucky has 40,395 square miles of land...Population of the state is 3,713,000...The three largest cities in the state are Louisville, Lexington and Owensboro...The state bird is the cardinal... The state song is "My Old Kentucky Home"... The state flower is the goldenrod...The state tree is the Kentucky Coffee tree...Kentucky has more miles of running water than any other state except Alaska... Kentucky has 44 state parks which annually draws 15.8 million visitors... Kentucky has the world's longest known cave system — Mammoth Cave — with over 300 miles of mapped passageways.

THE Program

The University of Kentucky Athletics Association will soon begin a major expansion of its Center for Academic and Tutorial Studies. Shown above is a drawing of the exterior of the expansion, which will double CATS' size from 6,000 to 12,000 square feet. Plans are to build a state-of-the-art computer center, a larger study area, more individual tutoring space, and a career development center. CATS will be renamed "The Ohio Casualty Center for Academic and Tutorial Services," thanks to a $1 million grant from the Ohio Casualty Group of Insurance Companies.

The finest indoor practice facility in the nation is on the campus of the University of Kentucky.

Even when the weather turns cold, there's a place where Kentucky football is hot.

That place is the Nutter Field House, a magnificent $8.5 million structure that is the home of the Wildcats on occasions of inclement weather.

More than just an indoor football field, the field house can accommodate the year-round needs of 12 Kentucky sports — football, baseball, softball, gymnastics, men's indoor and outdoor track, women's indoor and outdoor track, men's and women's golf, and men's and women's soccer.

"In my opinion, we already have in place the finest coaches in the country," Newton said. "The addition of the indoor facility means we have the ability to attract the finest student-athletes.

"This multi-purpose building has been a tremendous boost to all of our programs."

The Nutter Field House, which was dedicated in a ceremony on Sept. 2, 1993, covers more than 132,000 square feet and is located behind the south end zone of Commonwealth Stadium. It is named for E. J. Nutter and his family for their support of and service to the university.

"The Nutter Field House is crucial in the expansion of our facilities base," UK Head Football Coach Bill Curry said. "I consider this indoor practice facility to be the finest of its kind in the world. Being the northern-most school in the Southeastern Conference, we have needed a facility of this magnitude. This enables us to attract great speed for our program, players such as Kio Sanford and Randy Wyatt.

"We also have needed the indoor facility to allow our skill-position players to work on their respective skills, so we can measure up to the rest of the league. The one thing our staff understands about our skilled athletes today — whether its throwing and catching or shooting threes — is the importance of practicing every day. Our young men will now be able to do that."

The Nutter Field House immediately paid dividends to the Kentucky football program. In its first year of existence, it served as the team's practice headquarters when the team earned a berth in the 1993 Peach Bowl.

"It was simply wonderful," Coach Curry said, "to be calling recruits from a cellular phone while watching our team prepare for the Peach Bowl in this incredible facility."

The indoor facility features an actual playing field area of 108,000 square feet, including a full-size artificial turf football field. The football field is surrounded by a six-lane, 290-meter track which expands to nine lanes down the straight-aways. Areas for field events are also included for the pole vault, high jump, and long jump. A 9,000-square foot gymnastics room is located in the front of the building and serves as the UK GymCats home.

One of the most unique features of this multi-million dollar field house is the electronic netting system. This system allows for different combinations of sports to practice safely, at the same time, by dividing the playing field. The nets can be lowered to separate the entire playing field from the track, or form four batting cages for baseball or driving ranges for golf. The playing field can be divided in halves to create two football, soccer, or baseball playing areas.

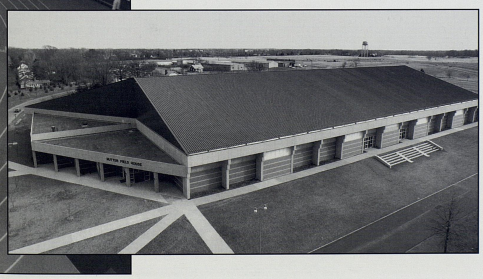

"This type of facility is also important for the togetherness of our athletics program," Curry said. "It allows us to have everyone participating under one roof."

UK President Dr. Charles Wethington noted that the facility is used for the faculty, staff, and students, as well as varsity athletes.

"This facility is very significant, not only to UK athletics, but to the entire University of Kentucky community," Wethington said. "The indoor facility should aid Bill Curry in taking our football program to another level."

The height of the indoor facility is 72 feet at its apex. Inside the netting clearance is approximately 65 feet. This height allows punting, and field goal targets sewn into the nets permit realistic PAT/field goal kicking during practices.

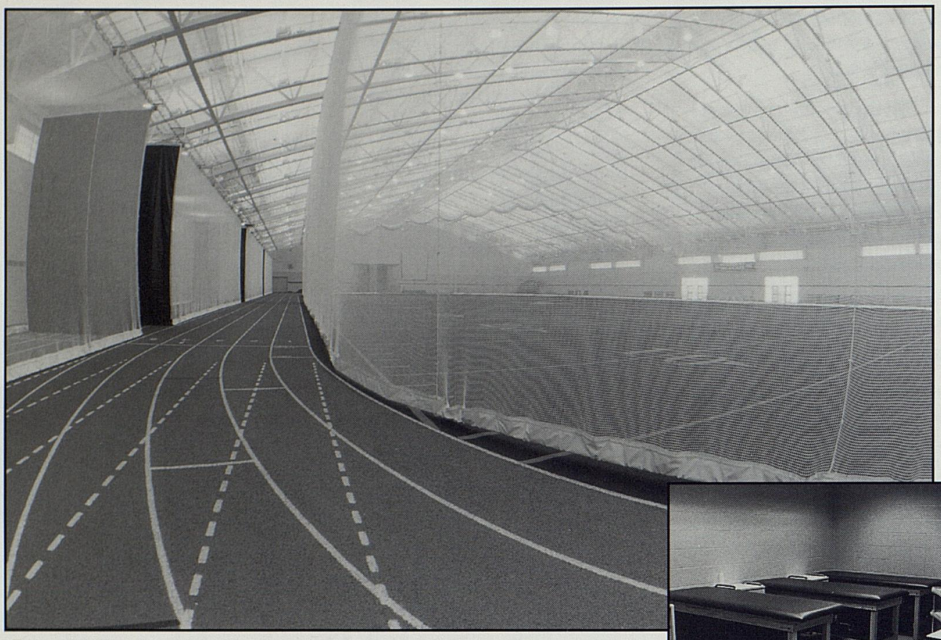

Also included in the facility is 3,000 square feet of office space for the facility manager, receptionist, and coaches. The building also includes an additional 4,000 square feet of storage space.

Commonwealth Stadium

When it comes to football, Kentucky-style, there is certainly no better place than home — Commonwealth Stadium.

Beautiful Commonwealth Stadium, built in 1973, is one of the nation's showcases for football. The stadium is located on the southeast corner of the University of Kentucky campus, convenient to both Cooper and Alumni Drives.

Commonwealth Stadium was built at a cost of $12 million by the firm of Huber, Hunt and Nichols, Inc. The stadium, including parking areas, rests on an 86-acre plot of what was once the UK Experimental Station Farm grounds.

"Aesthetically, Commonwealth Stadium is the prettiest in America," UK Coach Bill Curry said. "I've always thought this since I first witnessed a game here in 1975 as a pro scout.

"In just a year's time, I learned there is simply not another place I'd rather be on a football Saturday than Commonwealth Stadium. The atmosphere, especially on a Saturday night, is magical and very conducive to winning. It's an ideal college setting."

The stadium took on a new look in 1990 with the addition of a $600,000 scoreboard and message center located in the North end zone. The scoreboard is 19 by 78 feet in size, almost 3.5 times the size (12 by 19) of the original scoreboards which had been in place since 1973.

The stadium was officially opened on Sept. 15, 1973, as the Wildcats moved into their new home after spending 48 years at Stoll Field/McLean Stadium across from Memorial Coliseum. Kentucky defeated Virginia Tech in the stadium-opener, 31-26, as quarterback Ernie Lewis accounted for three touchdowns to lead the Wildcats.

Since its opening, Kentucky has played 144 games within the friendly confines of Commonwealth Stadium. And indeed, a 78-62-4 record and a .556 winning percentage is evidence Commonwealth is a "home field advantage" for the Wildcats.

Excellent attendance figures have also gone hand-in-hand with Kentucky football and Commonwealth Stadium. The Wildcats have averaged 54,594 spectators in the 144 contests at Commonwealth since its inception. In fact, 7,861,626 spectators have witnessed Kentucky football at Commonwealth Stadium — that's more than twice the population of Kentucky.

The five-millionth person to attend a UK football game in Commonwealth Stadium was Jack Crowe of Lexington. Mr. Crowe walked through the turnstile as number 5,000,000 at 1 pm on Oct. 3, 1987, as Kentucky hosted Ohio.

The official seating capacity at Commonwealth Stadium is 57,800, though standing-room only crowds will exceed that figure. When Kentucky hosted Louisville in the 1994 renewal of the rivalry, a record crowd of 59,162 witnessed the Wildcats nip the Cardinals, 20-14.

All seating in Commonwealth Stadium is aluminum, with more than 30 percent of the aluminum seating either chair-back or bench-back.

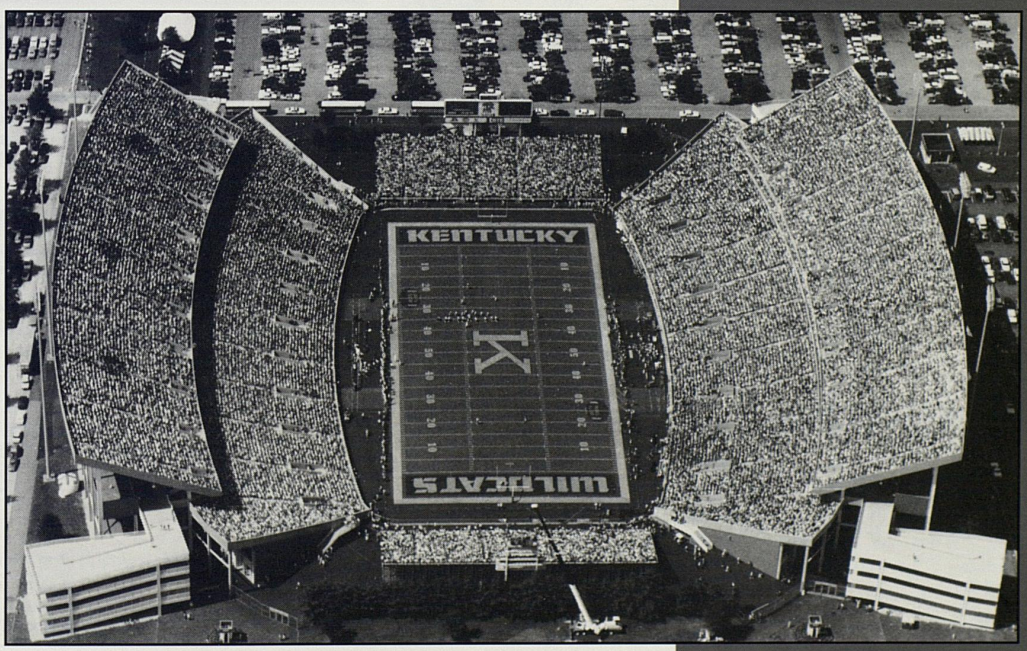

An enclosed press box, which comfortably seats 110 members of the media, is located underneath the upper deck on the stadium's west side. Included in the press box area are eight private booths (four VIPs), a photography deck, and two dining areas. The press box is served by two elevators.

Plans call for eventually enclosing the south end (Tates Creek Road) of Commonwealth Stadium to bring its capacity to 65,000. Also, the addition of luxury suites and boxes is in UK's plans.

"Aesthetically, Commonwealth Stadium is the prettiest in America".
–Bill Curry

The E.J. Nutter Training Facility

One of the nation's showcase football facilities rests on the southeast corner of the University of Kentucky campus.

The ultra-modern E.J. Nutter Football Training Facility ranks among the best in the country. Built at a cost of $5.7 million, the facility officially became the home of Kentucky Wildcat football in September 1987.

The Nutter Center, as it is called on the UK campus, encompasses over 48,000 square feet and is built adjacent to the Shively Sports Complex. It is located on Sports Center Drive, just across Cooper Drive from Commonwealth Stadium.

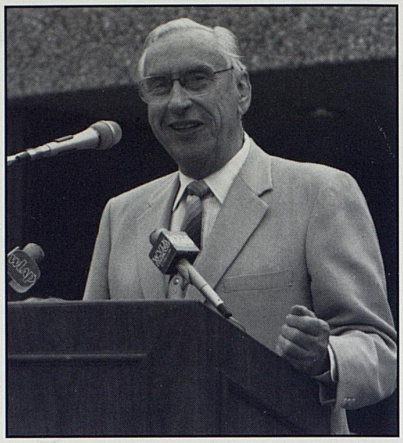

"I have not seen everyone's new facilities, but the Nutter Center is the finest that I have seen," UK coach Bill Curry says. "It is the best planned and the most spacious facility I know of. Combined with our spacious practice area, the Nutter Center gives us the most beautiful football complex that I have ever been associated with."

The new Wildcat facility is named after Ervin J. Nutter, a UK alumnus who contributed one million dollars to get the fund-raising campaign started for construction to begin.

The Nutter gift to the UK Athletics Association was one of the largest gifts ever received by the Association.

"The University has been a great inspiration to me," Nutter said. "I do not feel as if I've given anything away. I'm just repaying what the University has done for me."

Aside from dressing facilities, which feature large, personal lockers for every Kentucky football player, the Nutter Center is highlighted by a 9,000 square foot weight room. The weight room has over 100,000 pounds of equipment alone. The Nutter Center also has 11 meeting rooms, a state-of-the-art video and editing room for coaches' film, equipment and training rooms, staff and player lounges, an interview area, a 60-yard sprint track, sauna and jacuzzi, an aerobics room, and three raquetball courts.

Ervin J. Nutter donated $1 million toward the construction of the Nutter Football Training Facility.

A touch of Kentucky football history is on display in the foyer area. The memorabilia case holds UK trophies from bowl games such as the Great Lakes Bowl, the Sugar Bowl, the Cotton Bowl, the Peach Bowl and the Hall of Fame Bowls. The case displays the 1950 and 1976 Southeastern Conference championship trophies.

"This is a facility built with the players in mind," said retired UK Head Coach Jerry Claiborne, who helped spearhead the financial drive to make the Nutter Center possible. "It does not have the coaches' offices like other facilities. Instead, we had the student-athlete in mind in the design and planning and that's how we wanted it to be."

Curry plans no changes in that respect.

"It is a privilege to get to work in a facility such as this every day," Curry said. "The planning and design with the student-athletes at heart is what we're about today.

"Jerry Claiborne's most important accomplishments during his eight years at Kentucky were in the human arena. But his picture, which hangs in the Nutter Center, is a reminder to us just how much he loved this University. For Jerry and Mr. Nutter and the other contributors who helped make this facility possible, they have left a legacy that will surely be exciting to build on."

Nutter, a graduate of Hamilton (Ohio) High School, participated in the ground-breaking ceremonies in August 1986. Nutter entered the UK College of Engineering following high school and worked his way through college as an electrician. He left UK before graduation and passed the State of Ohio's examination for stationary engineers, becoming the youngest licensed stationary engineer in the state.

He worked three years for Procter & Gamble's Power Division before returning to UK to receive his bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering in 1943.

After serving with distinction with the engineering division at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Nutter became president of Elano Corporation. He later became president of Acme Screw Products of Dayton, Ohio.

While the unprecedented gift represents Nutter's love for the UK athletics program, his love for the University as a whole is well documented. Nutter served two terms (1966-68) as president of the UK National Alumni Association and four years as chairman of the UK Development Council Board.

Another important part in building the Nutter Center was the donation of $300,000 by Seth Hancock, a central Kentucky horseman. Hancock also played a key role in raising the necessary dollars for the facility as chairman of the united effort to raise $2.7 million from private donors.

The ceremonial dedication of the Nutter Center took place on Sept. 11, 1987, with Nutter, Hancock, Claiborne, Cliff Hagan (then UK athletics director), and Otis Singletary (former UK president) all in attendance.

Kentucky Strength Program

Iron-willed discipline. Attention to detail.

Those are the qualities that Strength Coach Rob Oviatt brings to the Nutter Training Center weight room, according to Coach Bill Curry.

Oviatt, a veteran strength mentor with experience in the Southeastern Conference and the Pacific 10 Conference, came on board in the spring of 1995. He has methodically implemented a plan for power that includes athletes' bodies and minds.

"My role is to motivate athletes to motivate themselves," Oviatt explains. "The self-motivated person has endless possibilities in any area of life.

"If players know you care about them as people, and they see results (in the weight room), they'll do just about anything for you. I definitely care about them as people first, and hopefully my staff and I have put together a plan that will get them results."

Oviatt's blueprint for success combines goals of strength, speed, conditioning, and prevention of injury.

"Football is a game of the hips, legs, and lower back. Every movement on the field is initiated by those muscle groups," Oviatt says. "But strength alone is not enough. It's the speed at which you exert your strength that is the key to performance, the result being explosive power.

"Olympic-style lifts get the highest priority because they're the most specific to football — you must move heavy weights with speed. These are the most athletic lifts because they require coordination, balance, and flexibility in addition to strength."

The well-rounded Oviatt outlook also emphasizes:

- cardiovascular training;
- daily abdominal work;
- plyometric training, which teaches muscles to contract more quickly, efficiently, and powerfully;
- speed and agility training; and
- prevention of injury by training the entire body, with emphasis on the knee, ankle, and shoulder/neck areas.

Oviatt's strength and conditioning team includes assistants Aaron Shelley and Ricky Thomas, graduate assistant Steve Dungan, and volunteer assistants Mark Dickinson and Jamie Givens. Shelley, a bodybuilding and weightlifting champion, also brings nutritional expertise to the staff. Thomas was a four-year football letterman at Alabama from 1983-86.

"A strength program is a team effort," Oviatt says. "We have great assistants in the weight room, great support from the coaches and administration, and most important, hard-working and committed players. They're the ones doing the work. It all starts with the players."

The strength staff has the complete support of Curry, a former National Football League center who knows that an edge in football lies in the weight room.

"We have a sign mounted in the weight room," Curry says. "The statement reads, 'There is no substitute for strength and no excuse for the lack of it.'

"That sums up our approach to weight training. We want to be the best conditioned football team, not only in the Southeastern Conference, but in the country. Games are won in the fourth quarter and that's when great physical conditioning comes into play."

In terms of facilities, Wildcats football players have one of the nation's best weight rooms.

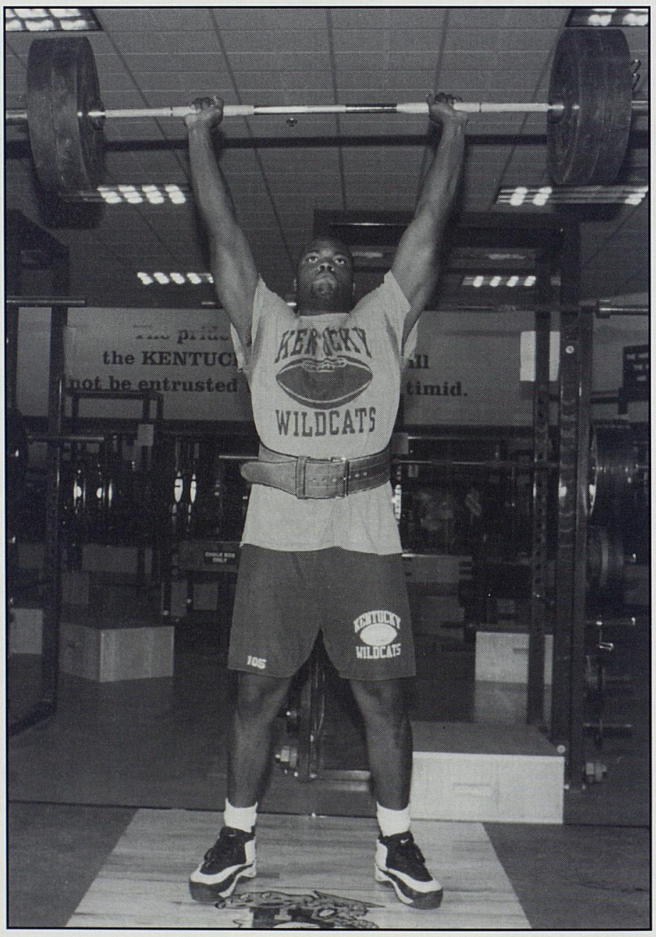

"The facility is unbelievable," Curry says. "I can't imagine anyone needing any more than what we have in our weight facility."

For starters, the Nutter Center's weight room is 9,000 square feet. In free weights alone, UK has 100,000 pounds of equipment — 75,000 in free weights and an additional 25,000 in dumbbells. Oviatt added seven Olympic lifting platforms in 1995.

To complement the free weights, UK has an abundance of Nautilus equipment, stationary bicycles, and treadmills.

As far as records go, former offensive guard Jody Matthews holds the honor of being the strongest Wildcats football player to date. He owns personal records of 585 pounds in the bench press, 440 pounds in cleans, 735 pounds in Olympic squats, and 1,760 in total lifts.

Matthews broke the records held by Dermontti Dawson and Oliver Barnett, both of whom are residing on National Football League rosters.

Center for Academic and Tutorial Services (CATS)

UK's CATS facility will undergo a major expansion that will double academic service space from 6,000 to 12,000 square feet (see page 137).

One of Bill Curry's central themes for the University of Kentucky football program is championship performance, especially in the classroom.

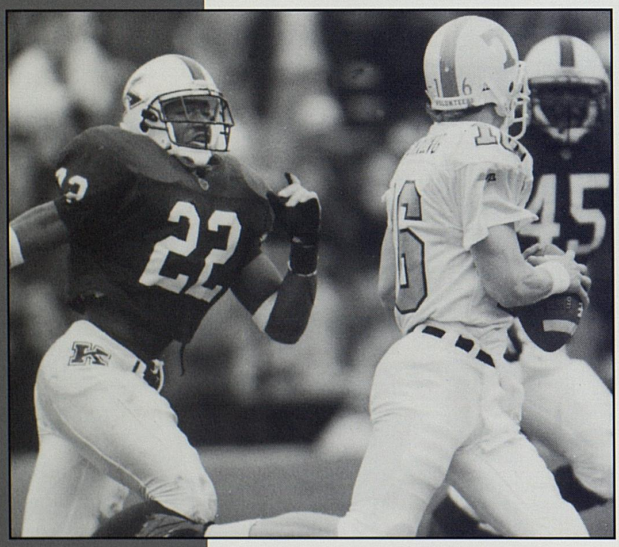

Wildcat football players have a history of academic excellence, a tradition that has continued under Coach Curry.

Since 1980, Kentucky has placed 151 players on the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll, more than any league school in that period. In 1989, the Wildcats set a league record with 17 players named to the SEC Honor Roll.

In addition to Curry's emphasis on the subject, much of the credit for UK's academic success goes to the Athletics Department's academic support system —the Center for Academic and Tutorial Services, or simply, "CATS."

CATS opened in 1981, the nation's first academic center dedicated exclusively to student-athletes. It is located in Memorial Coliseum. Specifically designed for the student-athlete, the center contains a large general study area along with a computer facility, a classroom, and numerous rooms used for tutoring.

"Our CATS is one of the nation's best academic services in the land and that's based on results," Curry says. "For Kentucky to be up there with Duke, Virginia, and Notre Dame is a real tribute, first to the student-athletes, but also to our academic support staff."

Dele Ali (22) was one of 15 Wildcats who earned a place on the 1995 SEC Academic Honor Roll.

What Curry refers to when talking about Duke, Virginia, and Notre Dame is the annual College Football Association Academic Achievement Award. The award was given to Kentucky in 1989 for having the highest graduation rate among Division I-A football programs. Prior to 1991, Kentucky was the only other school to win the award outside the trio mentioned above.

"We get more response from parents who visit us on the CATS program than any other part of our program," Curry says. "Parents are really excited about it."

Certainly a facility is a good start, but any program is only as good as the people who run it. And UK is fortunate to have outstanding leaders in its academics support system.

Bob Bradley, Assistant Athletics Director for Academics, supervises the CATS program. Bradley is assisted by Barbara Deniston, Director of Student-Athlete Development; and two Academics Counselors, Darren Bilberry and Mike Haley. CATS also employs six graduate assistants and numerous tutors, both from the University and surrounding community. UK budgets almost $750,000 per year for CATS.

"We are extremely proud of what we have accomplished in the academic arena," Bradley says. "The CATS program is focused on winning in the classroom. We look at each student-athlete's individual needs, set goals and develop strategies to attain those goals. Our Center (CATS) provides our student-athletes with a definite advantage over student-athletes at many other institutions. Our goal is to show that we care about the student as well as the athlete."

For the CATS staff, showing you care means more than helping athletes maintain eligibility, graduate, or win awards. The academics staff also prepares student-athletes for life after college with the Wildcat Career Development Program.

The Career Development Program helps student-athletes look to the future through a step-by-step process which includes:

- mentoring and internships, which help determine career interests;
- career counseling;
- resume writing; and
- forming a career plan.

The Wildcat Career Development Program works closely with the University's Career Planning and Placement Center in order to provide additional assistance when needed.

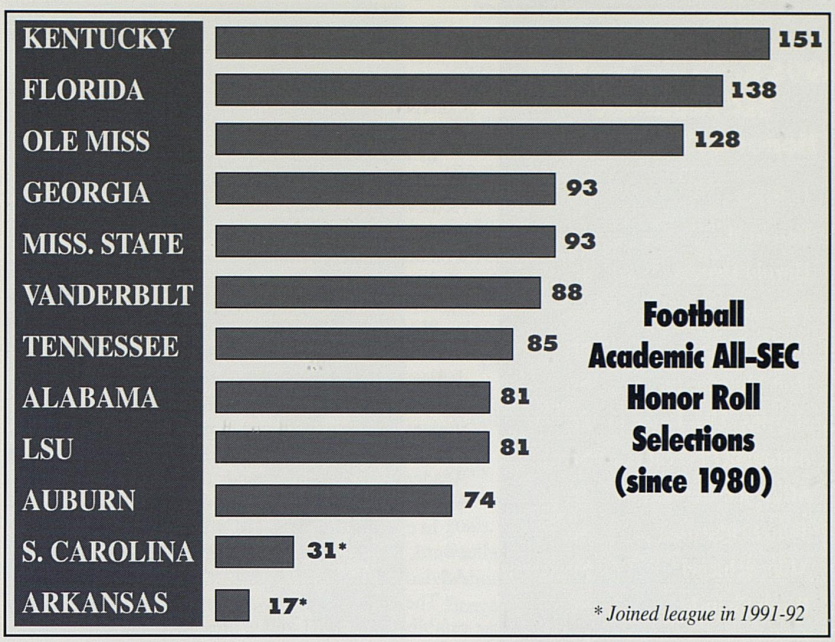

Center for Academic and Tutorial Services (CATS)

The success of UK's Career Development Program and other support services happens because of the emphasis placed on academics by Coach Curry and his assistant coaches.

"I have been blessed at Kentucky to have Bill Curry," Bradley says. "He really believes in the student-athlete concept. We are in total agreement on the business of educating our student-athletes."

"We continue to support our academic staff to the utmost," Curry says. "We're very excited about the work Bob Bradley and his staff have done. We expect championship academics and we will not accept anything less from our players."

At UK, CATS does its part to keep student-athletes at a championship level in the classroom.

Five times during the past nine years, the University of Kentucky football team has been among a handful of schools honored by the College Football Association for its high graduation rate.

In 1989, UK became only the fourth university to earn the prestigious CFA Academic Achievement Award for having the highest graduation rate in the nation. The Wildcats have won honorable mention status, signifying a graduation rate of 70 percent or better, on four occasions — 1988, 1991, 1993, and 1994.

"I am very proud of the fact that the University of Kentucky Athletics Association is dedicated to the development of the student as well as the athlete, and that Bill Curry keeps the student-athlete experience in perspective," said Bob Bradley, UK Assistant Athletics Director for Academics. "He understands the importance of a degree to the future of these young people."

In conjunction with UK's 1989 national award, Bradley was named the CFA Academic Advisor of the Year.

The CFA Academic Achievement Award was established in 1981 and is presented annually by the Touchdown Club of Memphis. The award recognizes the CFA member institution with the highest graduation rate among members of its football team. Over the years, Kentucky is one of only seven schools that have won the CFA Award.

An interesting note is how graduation rates have risen over the years. In 1981, the first year of the survey, graduation rates among CFA members was 49 percent. The overall rate in the CFA in 1995 was 58.6 percent, the second highest ever, just shy of the 1993 record of 59.1 percent. It is obvious that NCAA requirements for initial and continuing eligibility are having the desired effects.

The University of Kentucky football program also has been a leader on the conference level in addition to national honors. Since 1980, Kentucky has had 151 players earn a place on the SEC Academic Honor Roll, more than any other league school. Fifteen Wildcats were named to the Honor Roll in 1995 (see list at left).

Kentucky should be well-represented again in 1996. A total of 33 Wildcats earned a 3.0-or-better grade point average for the spring '96 semester, including returning players Brent Allen, Cliff Bailey, David Berringer, Buddy Berry, Ben Bird, Jimmy Carter, Darrin Clark, Kris Comstock, Harold Dennis, Mike Fisher, Billy Jack Haskins, Bob Holmberg, Raymond McLaurin, Ashley Moser, Kio Sanford, Mike Schellenberger, John Schlarman, Tyler Siddens, Jaysuma Simms, Kurt Supe, Miguel Viera, Stephan Walters, Given Ward, Marc Wilson, and Jeff Zurcher.

Walk-Ons Welcome at UK

Just because a young man doesn't have a football scholarship doesn't mean he can't play football at the University of Kentucky.

A total of 35 non-scholarship players—popularly known as "walk-ons"—completed 1996 spring practice with the Wildcats football team. A new group of walk-ons will increase that number in the fall.

With scholarship levels reduced from 105 to 85 over the past few years, walk-ons have become increasingly important to major college programs for their contributions in games and practices.

"We would have a hard time functioning without walk-ons," UK Head Coach Bill Curry says. "With the new numbers restrictions, they have become even more important.

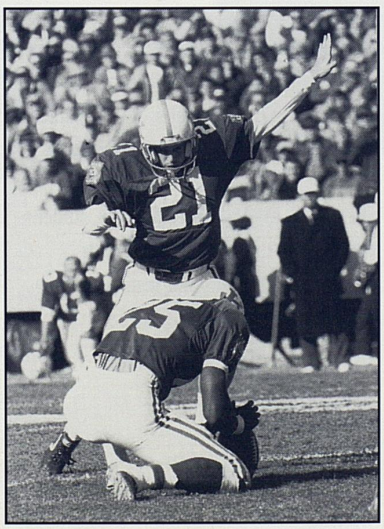

"In my opinion, walk-ons are the ultimate example of the virtues football can teach today. They are not rewarded immediately, and may not be rewarded at all except for the chance to participate, yet they work their guts out every day.

"One of the highlights of my life is rewarding a walk-on with a scholarship because I know what it means to him and his family," said Curry, whose son, Bill, Jr., earned a scholarship as a walk-on at the University of Virginia.

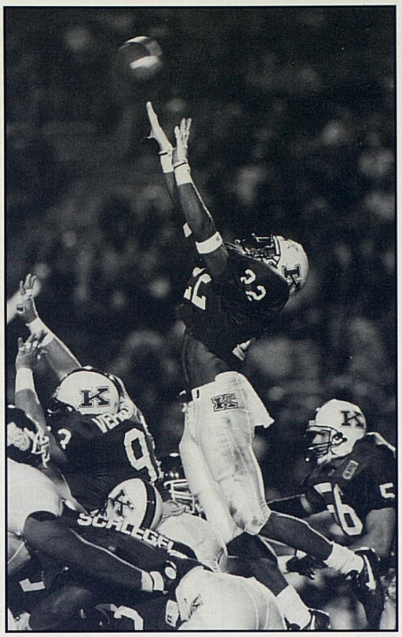

Curry has had that pleasure on 11 occasions during his coaching tenure at Kentucky, including three current Wildcats who have been placed on full scholarship—linebacker Dele Ali, defensive end Ben Bird, and defensive tackle Thad Corbin.

"I've never had a team that didn't have a starting player who was a walk-on or a former walk-on," notes Curry.

The following is a list of the 11 walk-ons who have earned scholarships at UK under Curry.

Doug Pelfrey set several UK kicking records and now kicks for the Cincinnati Bengals. Pelfrey came to UK as a walk-on.

Linebacker Dele Ali earned a scholarship during his first year at Kentucky.

Dele Ali, Linebacker, Marianna, Fla. (Marianna HS)— Entered UK in the fall of 1994 and immediately won playing time on special teams. He was placed on scholarship after his freshman season. Dele moves to linebacker this year and is a projected starter going into the 1996 season.

Ben Bird, Defensive End, New Richmond, Ohio (New Richmond HS)— A UK track and field star in the shot put and discus throw, Ben saw his first varsity action in the 1995 season. He totaled 14 tackles, including one for loss. He is being added to the scholarship list for the 1996 season.

Tim Calvert, Flanker, Mount Washington, Ky. (Bullitt East HS)— Key member of the receiving corps at UK from 1991-93. Tim's career totals include 34 receptions for 606 yards and two touchdowns.

Willie Cannon, Cornerback, Miami, Fla. (Southridge HS)— Three-year letterman who started at cornerback as a senior in 1993. Willie made four interceptions as a Wildcat, plus one in the 1993 Peach Bowl, and broke up 11 passes.

Mark Chatmon, Split End, Milwaukee, Wisc. (South Division HS)— Three-year letterman who started as a senior in 1993. Mark caught 33 passes for 471 and two touchdowns and also caught a TD pass in the 1993 Peach Bowl.

Thad Corbin, Defensive Tackle, Springfield, Tenn. (Springfield HS)— Thad enters his junior year with the Wildcats. He has totaled 19 tackles over the past two seasons and was put on scholarship in 1995.

Troy Hobbs, Split End, Miami, Fla. (Southridge HS)— Three-year letterman for the Wildcats (1991-93) who caught 18 passes for 207 yards during his career.

Rob Manchester, Free Safety, Paducah, Ky. (Tilghman HS)— Rob was a four-year letterman who saw extensive playing time on the Wildcat special teams.

Doug Pelfrey, Kicker, Edgewood, Ky. (Scott HS)— Doug virtually re-wrote the record book during his three seasons (1990-92) as the Wildcats' kicker. He made 34-of-52 field goals, including eight from 50 yards or beyond. He won two games with last-second field goals. He was named first-team All-Southeastern Conference and is currently in the National Football League with the Cincinnati Bengals.

Matt Riazzi, Wingback, Kettering, Ohio (Archbishop Alter HS)— Four-year letterman from 1990-93. Matt's career totals feature 351 rushing yards on 57 carries (6.2 avg.) and 14 pass receptions for 145 yards. He also handled punt returns as a senior, bringing back 26 punts for 140 yards.

Brian Sivinski, Kicker, Lexington, Ky. (Henry Clay HS)— Brian was the starting kicker for the Wildcats in 1994 and 1995. He made 10 field goals and 28 extra points during those two seasons.

In addition to the 11 players listed above, two other walk-ons who had been awarded scholarships were already on the team when Curry arrived in 1990.

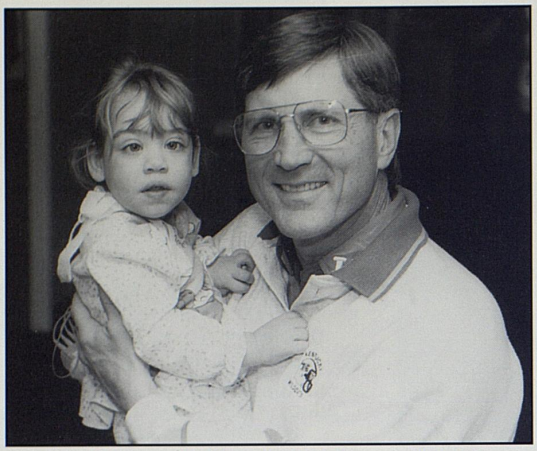

Jeff Brady, Linebacker, Melbourne, Ky. (Newport Catholic HS)— Played four years at UK, 1987-90, and emerged as a starter as a junior and senior. He made 178 tackles during his career, including 11 for losses, and intercepted four passes. He has played five years in the National Football League and is currently with the Minnesota Vikings.

Bill Hawk, Punter, Santa Ynez, Calif. (Cal-Lutheran)— UK's punter three years (1989-91). His career average of 39.7 ranks as the fourth-best in school history.

University of Kentucky Outreach Program

Coach Curry and Wildcats football players participate in community service, including visits to children's hospitals.

Student-athletes at the University of Kentucky have the opportunity for community involvement through the Community Outreach Program, also known as "The Cats' Cause."

Through "The Cats' Cause," community involvement has grown dramatically in recent years. Each athletic team receives questionnaires at the beginning of each semester to determine its players' interests in participating in civic and educational programs.

The Community Outreach Program got its start in 1990 when it was developed and coordinated by UK student-athletes. This project was established when student-athletes adopted the fifth-grade classes at a local inner-city school. The semester-long project matched athletes one-on-one with the school children. With the assistance of a UK athlete, the children were asked to set a goal for themselves. Then each week, the student-athletes met with the children and helped them accomplish their goals. The program was expanded to other Fayette County schools.

The Outreach Program has grown in several directions and student-athletes have participated in the following programs:

AMERICORPS: ATHLETES IN SERVICE TO AMERICA – This program addresses the issues of school success and violence prevention in hopes of keeping youth on the right track. It is sponsored by the UK Athletics Association, the Center for the Study of Sport in Society, and AmeriCorps, a national service project designed to help communities meet their education, public safety, human, or environmental needs through service. In 1995-96, 10 former UK student-athletes were assigned to two elementary schools, one middle school, and one high school. The corps members worked between 30-35 hours each week, serving as mentors, facilitators, and instructors. The corps members also conduct interactive workshops in the areas of media literacy, conflict resolution, cultural diversity, and the prevention of violence against women. The presentations are conducted at local schools, community agencies, and summer youth programs.

CELEBRITY VISITOR TO HOSPITAL – Student-athletes visit patients at local hospitals, including rehabilitation facilities and veterans hospitals.

COMPREHENSIVE CARE – Student-athletes talk to 12-15-year-old emotionally disturbed youths about goal-setting.

COPI-CAT PEN PAL – Student-athletes who are matched with elementary students correspond throughout the academic year. As a pen pal to an elementary student, athletes encourage students to read.

D.A.R.E. GRADUATION SPEAKER – Student-athletes give motivational speeches to youth as part of the Drug Awareness Resistance Education Program.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL SPEAKER – Student-athletes visit a number of local schools, speaking to children on a variety of topics, including the importance of an education, staying off drugs and promoting reading.

HOSPITAL BREAKFAST WITH SANTA – Each year, UK student-athletes assist the UK Hospital with a special Christmas breakfast for children at the hospital.

KENTUCKY EXCEL MENTOR PROGRAM – UK student-athletes serve as mentors for high school students participating in the Kentucky Excel Program. Kentucky Excel provides college scholarships for students who complete the program.

BUDDY PROGRAM (College of Education) – Student-athletes serve as role models for elementary students at local schools. Athletes help younger students develop self-esteem through weekly interaction.

PARTNERS FOR YOUTH – UK student-athletes helped the Partners for Youth organization hold a summer festival for Lexington children.

"Your Wildcat Cub Club is really neat. When I get into college, I want to have a club like yours."

—5th-grade student

"Please do not ever stop this wonderful program. It is one of the most beneficial that our students have ever experienced."

—School Teacher

"I like her (UK student-athlete) because she will sit down and listen to what I have to say."

—5th-grade student

"The program is so beneficial to our school, community, and most of all to our students who don't have much hope because of the lack of role models."

—School Teacher

"We as teachers often say the same things the college students do, but they listen to them many times when they don't hear us. I look forward to this great program each semester."

Leon also was one of 12 student-athletes chosen for the Southeastern Conference "Good Works Team" in 1994 and 1995.

"I like to see young people succeed. It's a high to see kids working together and accomplishing their goals. Participating in the Community Outreach Program allowed me to see kids reach their goals."

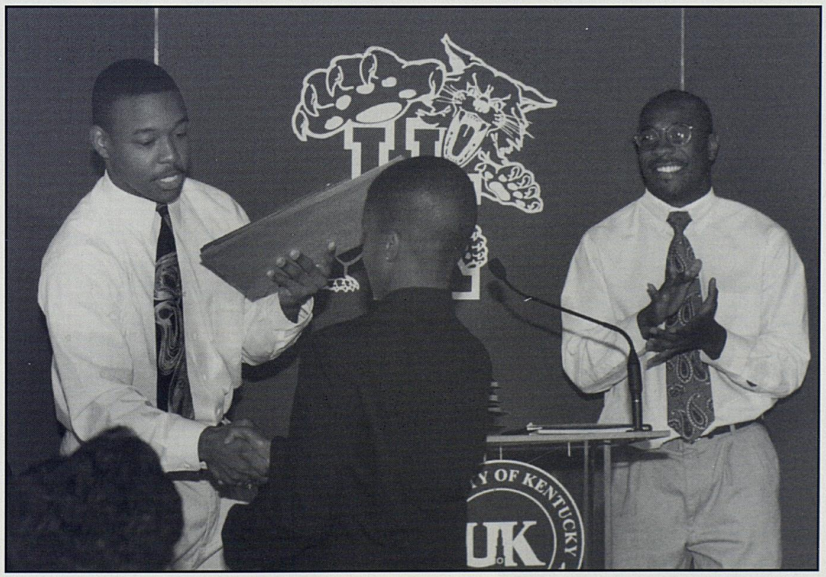

—Sterling Ward, former player

"Copi-Cat is a wonderful program. It's the best way to get my children to read books."

—Elementary school parent

"If our students want to do something important in life, they have to study as much as play. UK has one of the highest graduation rates and we emphasize that."

Medical Staff and Services

In the game of football, there's no substitute for proper health care and medical treatment. UK football is blessed to have a first-class training and medical staff, led by Trainer Al Green and Associate Trainer Sue Stanley.

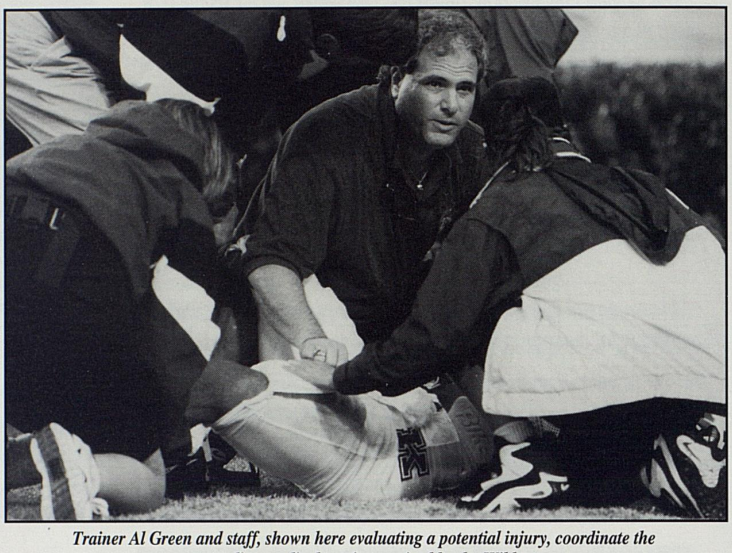

Green and Stanley direct a staff which includes five full-time trainers, four graduate assistants, and approximately 20 student assistants. The trainers work closely with UK's six team physicians, Dr. David Caborn, Dr. Kim Clawson, Dr. Mary Lloyd Ireland, Dr. Darren Johnson, Dr. John Perrine, and Dr. H. Spencer Turner. A variety of consultants covering every medical specialty are available, including a sports psychologist, Dr. Dennis Sprague. Altogether, the medical team handles the needs of athletes in 22 sports at UK.

"In today's collegiate athletics, our staff not only deals with on-the-field injuries but the various national health problems which society faces on an everyday basis," UK Coach Bill Curry says. "A collegiate football program must have not only a hard-working, qualified staff, but above all, they must be able to handle a variety of challenges.

"We are very fortunate to have a medical and training team which is superb. Our team physicians are the best I've been around on any level. Al (Green) and Sue (Stanley) are very advanced in the techniques required today and knowledgable in areas such as strength and conditioning, protective devices, substance abuse, and drug testing.

"Overall, our medical staff is outstanding from top to bottom."

The Nutter Center training room is also top-of-the-line. The training room covers more than 5,000 square feet and includes ample space for taping and treatment. Inside the training room is a modern rehabilitation area as well as physicians' and trainers' offices.

Trainer Al Green and staff, shown here evaluating a potential injury, coordinate the outstanding medical service received by the Wildcats.

Equipment

Equipment Manager Tom Kalinowski is known for his orderly equipment room.

The University of Kentucky football equipment room is under the able direction of veteran Equipment Manager Tom Kalinowski.

Kalinowski is in his 22nd year at UK, including four years as a student manager and 18 years in his current role. Kalinowski and his staff of approximately 12 student managers are involved in the daily maintenance of the student-athletes' equipment.

Proper fitting of equipment is a key component of injury prevention, and Kalinowski personally fits each player with the appropriate equipment — helmet, shoulder pads, shoes, etc. — according to height, weight, and position.

In all, Kalinowski estimates that UK spends $2,100 per player on equipment, including practice gear and game gear. Kentucky spares no expense in making sure that each player is fitted with the most modern, up-to-date equipment available.

Maintenance, repair, and cleaning of equipment is also vital in the prevention of injury, and the UK staff performs those duties on a daily basis.

THE Traditions

The 1983 and 1984 Hall of Fame Bowl teams held a reunion last season. After being introduced at halftime, former Wildcats Steve Mazza (left) and David Thompson (right) gave Coach Jerry Claiborne a victory ride off the field. The 1983 team went 6-5-1 and the 1984 squad posted a 9-3 mark, including a Hall of Fame Bowl victory over Wisconsin.

university of kentucky

From UK's first All-American, Clyde Johnson, to its last, Mike Pfeifer, from Professor A.M. Miller to Bill Curry, from old Stoll Field to modern Commonwealth Stadium, from the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association to the Southeastern Conference, and with all the ensuing changes, Kentucky football holds a unique and storied tradition that began in 1881.

UK football holds a captivating list of firsts: UK was the first Southeastern Conference team to introduce football, which it did in 1881; UK played in the first and only Great Lakes Bowl in 1947, defeating Villanova, 24-14; Kentucky tackle Bob Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy, making him the first player from the SEC to claim the honor; the Wildcats' Nat Northington was the first black player to sign with a Southeastern Conference institution and the first to play in a league contest vs. Ole Miss in 1967. And in 1989, UK became the first SEC school to win the coveted College Football Association Academic Achievement Award for highest graduation rate.

In 105 seasons, Kentucky has participated in 1003 contests and owns 495 wins, 464 losses and 44 ties. The 495 victories rank 40th among Division 1-A programs in most wins. UK's overall winning percentage is .515.

Kentucky football has won two Southeastern Conference championships and appeared in eight bowls, claiming the CFA Academic Achievement Award on May 8, 1989. The Wildcats owned a graduation rate of 90 percent after 18 of 20 of their 1983 incoming freshmen signees left UK with a diploma.

UK football has had 12 National Football League first-round draft choices, one Outland Trophy winner, 18 first-team All-Americans, five Academic All-Americans, 49 first team All-SEC players and 167 Academic All-SEC selections.

Kentucky football got its start on Nov. 12, 1881. Kentucky, known in those days as A&M College, Kentucky State College and/or State University of Kentucky, defeated Kentucky University by the clumsy score of 7 1/4 to 1. The game of football resembled more of a rugby form and the scoring procedure is still unclear. Though football came to Kentucky in 1881, it quickly vanished after the three-game season. UK finished 1-2 in the inaugural campaign, but the lid was shut on UK football for the next nine seasons.

Football returned permanently to the University of Kentucky in 1891, when UK defeated Georgetown College, 8-2, on April 10, 1891. The sport would not again be interrupted until the 1943 season because of World War II.

The first known head football coach at Kentucky was Professor A.M. Miller, a Princeton graduate. Miller began the 1892 season as head coach and led UK to a 2-2-1 ledger through five games. He was replaced by John A. Thompson at the conclusion of the 1892 campaign.

Some successful years in the early 1900s dot the UK record book. Kentucky finished 7-1 in 1903 under Coach C.A. Wright; 9-1 in 1904 under Coach F.E. Schact; 9-1-1 in 1907 with Coach J. White Guyn, and 9-1 in 1909 under E.R. Sweetland.

The greatest UK team of that era was the 1898 squad, known simply to Kentuckians as "The Immortals." To this day, the Immortals remain the only undefeated, untied, and unscored upon team in UK football history. The Immortals were coached by W.R. Bass and ended the year a perfect 7-0-0, despite an average weight of 147 pounds per player. Victories came easy for this squad, as the Immortals raced by Kentucky University (18-0), Georgetown (28-0), Company H of the 8th Massachusetts (59-0), Louisville Athletic Club (16-0), Centre (6-0), 160th Indiana (17-0) and Newcastle Athletic Club (36-0).

were E.R. Sweetland and Harry Gamage. Sweetland compiled a 23-5 mark in three seasons (1909-10, 12). His best year was 9-1 in '09. Gamage, on the other hand, had the longest tenure of any head coach during the first 43 years of Kentucky football. Gamage took the reigns of the UK program in 1927 and remained until following the 1933 campaign. In between, Gamage led the Wildcats to a combined 32-25-5 record. His best season was 6-1-1 in '29.

One of Gamage's brightest moments came during the 1930 season. During the 57-0 blanking of Maryville, UK running back Shipwreck Kelly rushed for a school-record 280 yards in leading the Cats.

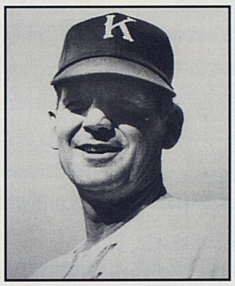

More than a decade after Gamage had left UK, a young man by the name of Paul "Bear" Bryant arrived on the scene at Lexington in 1946. All Bryant did was quickly grab the UK program by the collar and turn the Cats into a national power.

Bryant took UK to eight consecutive winning seasons (1946-53) and helped the Wildcats claim their first Southeastern Conference championship in 1950. He also sent UK squads to four bowl games which included the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl, 1950 Orange Bowl, 1951 Sugar Bowl, and the 1952 Cotton Bowl.

The biggest win in UK football history came under Bryant. After leading Kentucky to its first SEC title and a 10-1 regular-season record, UK found itself matched with national champion Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl. The Wildcats scored early and held off the Sooners, 13-7, breaking Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak which is currently the seventh-longest in NCAA history.

Also under Bryant, tackle Bob Gain became the first UK and SEC player to win the Outland Trophy in 1950. Other standouts in the Bryant era included George Blanda, All-American Babe Parilli, and eventual UK coach Jerry Claiborne.

Bryant left Kentucky following the 1953 season. He compiled an impressive 60-23-5 record in eight years. Bryant's 60 victories are still a UK football record for head coaches.

Coach Bryant led UK to eight consecutive winning seasons and four bowl games.

Blanton Collier had the uneasy task of following in Bryant's footsteps. Collier took over the Kentucky football program in 1954 and promptly led the Wildcats to a 7-3 record during his initial campaign.

Collier stayed eight years at UK as well, etching a 41-36-3 record from 1954 to 1961. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his 5-2-1 record against arch-rival Tennessee. He coached All-Americans Lou Michaels (1957-58) and Howard Schnellenberger (1955) at UK.

Charlie Bradshaw became the head mentor at UK in time for the 1962 season. Bradshaw, a UK graduate who lettered four years (1946-49), managed only a 25-41-4 record in seven seasons. One highlight of his coaching career featured an upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss early in the 1964 season. Bradshaw's Cats held off the Rebels, 27-21, in Memorial Stadium at Jackson, Miss., and ranks as one of UK's all-time biggest victories.

John Ray entered the scene in 1969 as head coach. In four years, Ray was 10-33. His biggest win came during his first year as Kentucky again victimized Ole Miss and Archie Manning. The Cats upset the Rebels, 10-9, at Lexington.

The Fran Curci era began in 1973, the same year Kentucky moved from ancient Stoll Field/McLean Stadium to spacious Commonwealth Stadium. Though Curci had only one winning campaign during his first three years, things got interesting beginning with the 1976 season. UK ended the '76 year with an 8-3 record and its second SEC championship.

Kentucky helped secure its second league title on the strength of a 62-yard touchdown pass from Derrick Ramsey to Greg Woods to beat Tennessee, 7-0, at Knoxville, Tenn. The victory clinched a berth in the Peach Bowl against North Carolina, UK's first postseason appearance in 25 years. Before a UK contingent estimated at 25,000, the Cats blanked the Tar Heels, 21-0.

The following year, Kentucky went on NCAA probation. Despite an early season loss at Baylor, the Wildcats rolled to an impressive 10-1 record doing it the hard way. Kentucky defeated Penn State (24-20) at University Park, Pa., defeated LSU (33-13) at Baton Rouge, La., blanked Georgia (33-0) at Athens, Ga., beat Florida (14-7) at Gainesville, Fla., and defeated Tennessee (21-17) at Lexington.

In the Curci era, players like Sonny Collins (UK career leader with 3,835 yards rushing), All-Americans Warren Bryant and Art Still and multi-talented Derrick Ramsey, wore the blue and white.

Curci stepped down following the 1981 season. In all, Curci worked nine years as UK head coach (longest of any UK football coach) and was 47-51-2 overall.

Jerry Claiborne answered the call of his alma mater in December of 1981 and was named the school's 31st head football coach. Claiborne had played at UK from 1946-49 and was an assistant coach under Bryant at UK in 1952-53.

His first campaign, 1982, was murderous from a schedule standpoint. The '82 UK schedule was rated as the nation's 2nd-toughest and featured the likes of Oklahoma, Clemson, Auburn, LSU, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Kansas and Kansas State. The Cats were caught in the process of rebuilding and stumbled to an 0-10-1 record.

The winless mark would not deter Claiborne, however. In fact, his 1983 squad tied for the nation's most improved program with a regular-season record of 6-4-1. As a reward, the Hall of Fame Bowl offered an invitation and UK accepted to give the Cats their sixth bowl appearance.

Kentucky improved in 1984, finishing with a 9-3 record which included a thrilling 20-19 victory over Wisconsin in the '84 Hall of Fame Bowl. The nine victories were the most by a UK squad since the 1977 season.

After the '84 campaign, Kentucky strung together 5-6, 5-5-1, 5-6, 5-6, and 6-5 records to close out Claiborne's career. He stepped down with a 41-46-3 record in eight seasons at UK. Claiborne and Bryant, to this date, ended their careers as the only two coaches to win at least five games in seven consecutive seasons.

During Claiborne's tenure, Kentucky captured its first national title by winning the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. UK led the SEC in Academic All-SEC Honor selections (68) during the Claiborne era, including a league record of 17 players named to the 1989 Academic All-SEC Honor Roll.

Individually, quarterback Bill Ransdell played under Claiborne and left as UK's all-time leader in passing and total offense. Mark Higgs departed as the school's 2nd-leading rusher and tackle Oliver Barnett set a UK record with 26 quarterback sacks.

On Jan. 8, 1990, Kentucky began a new era by hiring its 32nd head football coach in Bill Curry. The hiring came only a week after Curry guided his Alabama squad in the 1990 USF&G Sugar Bowl. Curry had led the Crimson Tide to a share of the SEC title and a 10-1 regular-season mark in 1989.

In just four seasons, Curry led Kentucky back to post-season play for the first time in nine years as the 1993 Wildcats finished third in the SEC Eastern Division (fourth overall) and qualified for the Peach Bowl in Atlanta, Ga., when the Wildcats lost to Clemson, 14-13, to finish 6-6 on the season.

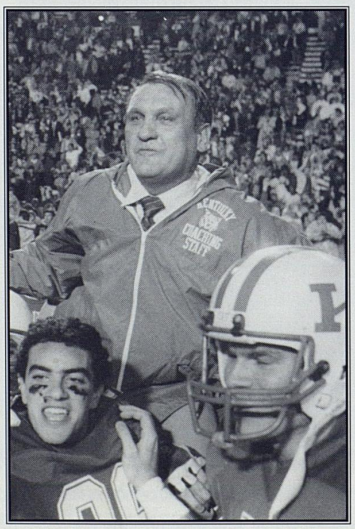

Under Curry in 1993, UK recorded its first win over a ranked opponent since 1988, its first two-game SEC road winning streak since 1984, its first three-game SEC win streak and the most SEC wins since 1977. UK also recorded its first regular-season winning record since 1989.

In 1994, Bill Curry and his Wildcats faced intrastate rival Louisville for the first time in 70 years and defeated the Cardinals 20-14 in front of a record 59,162 fans in Commonwealth Stadium.

The 1995 season was highlighted by tailback Moe Williams, who rushed for 1,600 yards, broke three SEC records, and broke or tied 15 school records. Williams had 429 all-purpose yards in a win at South Carolina, the second-highest single-game toal in NCAA history.

In addition, Curry has maintained the high level of achievement in the classroom which was started by Jerry Claiborne. In 1995, UK led the league with 15 players on the SEC Academic Honor Roll, the ninth time in the past 12 years that UK led or tied for the league lead in most players honored.

chronology 1880 - 1995

Below is a closer look at some of the traditions and history which has molded the past 104 seasons of Kentucky football. Some of the anecdotes were derived from the book, "The Wildcats," which was written by former UK Sports Information Director Russell Rice.

1A AND 1B

During the course of his legendary career, Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant was known as an innovator of introducing changes in the game of football. One change Bryant introduced during his tenure at Kentucky was the use of a unique number system to identify twins Harry and Larry Jones, who both lettered three years (1950-52) with the Wildcats. Harry wore 1A and Larry wore 1B. Harry led the Wildcats in all-purpose yardage in 1951 with 964 while Larry led UK in kickoff returns (21.1 avg) in 1952.

BEER BARREL

The traditional Battle for the Beer Barrel is the annual football game between Kentucky and Tennessee. Currently, the series is the third-longest of SEC teams vs. SEC teams (90 games) and trails only the Auburn-Georgia (98) and Ole Miss-Mississippi State (91) rivalries. The Beer Barrel Trophy is actually an old beer barrel painted blue, orange and white and is presented to the winner of the annual contest. Every score, since the origination of the trophy in 1925, is printed on the barrel. Two Wildcat followers, Guy Hugelet and Rollie Guthrie, wanted to come up with something symbolic to represent the great rivalry. Originally, they decided to use an old whiskey barrel as the trophy but the Women's Temperance Union made a stand against it since it was during the time of Prohibition. The duo went to another distributor, John Galvin, and settled on a beer barrel. Then as the Anti-Saloon League stepped in, Hugelet and Guthrie compromised by painting the words "ice water" on the barrel. The first time the trophy was awarded was in 1925 as UK defeated the Vols, 23-20. In 91 meetings overall, Tennessee leads the series 59-23-9.

BLUE AND WHITE

The University of Kentucky adopted blue and white as its official colors in 1892. Originally, UK students had decided on blue and yellow prior to the Kentucky-Centre football game on Dec. 19, 1891. The shade of blue came about when a student asked the question, "What color blue?" Richard C. Stoll, who lettered on the 1893-94 football teams, pulled off his necktie and held it up. The students adopted that particular shade of blue in Stoll's necktie. A year later, UK students dropped yellow for white.

BOURBON BARREL

The famed Bourbon Barrel is the trophy presented to the winner of the Kentucky-Indiana football game. This series, though beginning in 1893, is only 26 games old but has quickly become one of the fiercest, most competitive contests in the region. As far as the origination of the Bourbon Barrel is concerned, no one is certain where the idea started. A possible answer stems from the great distillery industry located in Kentucky and southern Indiana. The Bourbon Barrel is mounted on a board for traveling purposes. The trophy is actually a half-barrel and lists all scores of the 25-game series. A blue stripe is painted in the background for a Kentucky win and a red stripe for an Indiana victory. Indiana leads the series, 16-9-1. Several years ago, both schools agreed contractually to extend the series annually through the year 2000.

PAUL "BEAR" BRYANT

Paul Bryant is still the most successful coach in UK Football History. Bryant spent eight years at UK (1946-53) and produced a 60-23-5 (.710 pct.) record. The 60 victories are the most by any UK football coach. He led the Wildcats to four bowl games and their first Southeastern Conference title in 1950. He coached such UK stars as George Blanda, Jerry Claiborne, Bob Gain, Babe Parilli, Doug Moseley, Wilbur Jamerson, and Steve Meilinger.

CHEERLEADERS

The Kentucky cheerleading squad won an unprecedented sixth national cheerleading championship in January at the competition sponsored by the Universal Cheerleaders Association. The cheerleaders have won the UCA national title in 1985, 1987, 1988, 1992, 1995, and 1996 and have been the runners-up on four occasions. Saleem Habash is coach of the cheerleaders and T. Lynn Williamson is the cheerleader advisor. A total of 36 students comprise the squad, 14 of whom represent the school at the championship. In addition, the Wildcat mascot, portrayed by former UK kicker Brent Claiborne, finished second nationally in the mascot division of the competition.

JERRY CLAIBORNE

After lettering three years (1946-49) as a player and serving two seasons (1952-53) as an assistant coach at Kentucky, Jerry Claiborne returned to his alma mater in 1982 as UK's 31st head football coach. Claiborne stepped down after 28 years as a collegiate head coach in 1989. He led the Wildcats to two bowls and four non-losing seasons. During his era, Kentucky placed more players (68) on the Academic All-SEC Honor Roll than any league school, including a record 17 in 1989. Claiborne also led UK to a national academic title by capturing the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. His eight-year UK record was 41-46-3. Overall, Claiborne finished 21st among Division I coaches with 179 career victories and 179-122-8 in all games.

CFA ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

The University of Kentucky became the first Southeastern Conference institution to win the College Football Association Academic Achievement Award after claiming the prestigious honor in 1989. The Academic Achievement Award is given to the CFA institution with the highest graduation rate of its football program based on a five-year period. UK had graduated 90 percent (18 of 20) of its incoming freshman signee class of 1983, thus earning the honor in May, 1989. A year earlier (1988), UK finished second with a graduation rate of 90.5 percent. Kentucky has earned honorable mention honors in 1988, '91, '93 and '94, for having graduated better than 70 percent of its players.

BLANTON COLLIER AND THE STAFF

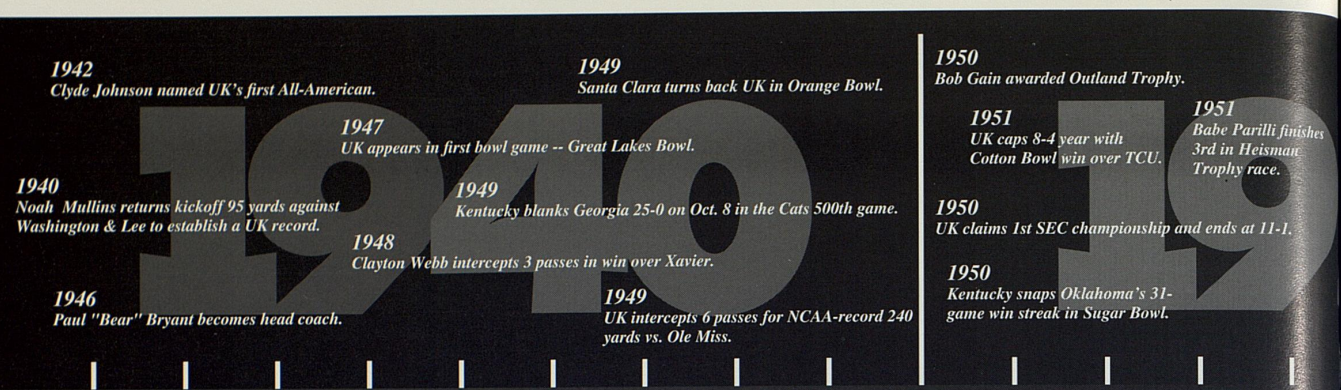

Blanton Collier had the misfortune of following Paul Bryant as head football coach at the University of Kentucky. But, Collier posted a fine 41-36-3 record in eight seasons at UK. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his record against arch-rival Tennessee which stood at 5 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie. Standouts such as Howard Schnellenberger, Lou Michaels, Tom Hutchinson, Bobby Cravens, Calvin Bird and Irv Goode played under Collier. One fascinating item in Collier's tenure was the football coaching staff he assembled in 1959. The 1959 UK Coaching Staff included Collier, Ed Rutledge, Howard Schnellenberger, Ermal Allen, Don Shula, John North, Bob Cummings, and Bill Arnsparger.

FRAN CURCI

The Fran Curci era (1973-81) was one of ups and down at the University of Kentucky. Curci remained at UK for nine seasons, the longest tenure of any UK football coach, and posted a 47-51-2 record. The ups consisted of sharing the 1976 Southeastern Conference title with Georgia, a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina in the '76 Peach Bowl, and a 1977 squad which boasted a 10-1 record and No. 5 national ranking. The down was probation which forced the '77 squad to miss a certain bowl invitation.

DiGIURO SCHOLARSHIP

The Trent DiGiuro Memorial Scholarship was established in the autumn of 1994 in honor of the Wildcat offensive guard who died in July of that year. The scholarship is awarded each year to a walk-on football player who has completed his eligibility, maintained a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.5, and has exemplified the dedication, determination, hard work, and leadership typified by Trent DiGiuro. If there is no suitable walk-on candidate that year, the scholarship will go to a team manager or trainer who meets the above criteria. The scholarship was established by DiGiuro's family and friends. The 1995 winner of the scholarship was Wildcats manager Andrew Cline.

FORWARD PASS

The first forward pass attempted by a University of Kentucky football player was thrown on Oct. 13, 1906, by quarterback Earl Stone as the Wildcats faced Eminence Athletic Club. This was the first year the forward pass was legalized by national rules. Accounts from this early contest do not indicate if the first forward UK pass was completed.

GOVERNOR'S CUP

The Governor's Cup was created in 1994 as the trophy for the winner of the Kentucky-Louisville game. Donated by Kroger at a cost of $23,000, the Governor's Cup stands 33 inches tall and weighs 110 pounds. The trophy's base and upright columns are hand-milled black marble. The glass components are comprised of Optic grade crystal. All metal parts are 23-karat, gold-plated brass. The cup itself is solid pewter with a 23-karat gold-plated finish. The Governor's Cup was designed by Kendall Costner and sculpted by James Corcoran of Bruce Fox, Inc. The UK-U of L series was renewed in 1994 with the Wildcats winning the game, 20-14.

HOMECOMING GAMES

As in the case of most institutions, Homecoming football games are special. Kentucky is no exception. Alumni and old friends converge on the UK campus each fall for Homecoming Day, highlighted by a Kentucky football game. The Homecoming Queen and her court are presented in horse-drawn carriages which gives the event a distinct, Kentucky flavor. The first Homecoming Day occurred on Nov. 25, 1915, as Kentucky defeated Tennessee, 6-0. Though records are sketchy, Kentucky has hosted a Homecoming game every year since 1946 and owns a 38-12-0 record in those 50 contests.

THE IMMORTALS

Simply known as "The Immortals," the 1898 University of Kentucky football squad still remains as the only undefeated, untied, and unscored on Wildcats club in school history. The Immortals outscored opponents 180-0 while posting a perfect 7-0-0 record. Roscoe Severs served as team captain under coach W.R. Bass. The closest of all seven games was a 6-0 victory over Centre College.

LEADERSHIP COMMITTEE

Head Coach Bill Curry continued a tradition started at Georgia Tech and Alabama by implementing a football leadership committee at the University of Kentucky. Each year representatives are either elected or selected from each of the classes (Fr., RFr., So., Jr., Sr.) plus walk-ons to give players a direct line of communication to the coaches. "A leader is a consistent, powerful, positive presence," Curry said. "The reason it is good for our football team is because anyone can be a leader. You don't have to be an All-American or first-stringer."

CAWOOD LEDFORD

The legendary "Voice of the Wildcats" was none other than Cawood Ledford. For 39 years, Cawood called Wildcats Football and Basketball. His voice alone symbolized UK Athletics. Current UK Coach Bill Curry has fond memories of Cawood. "I remember those Saturday nights at College Park, Ga. I'd turn on the radio and listen to Cawood calling the action from old Stoll Field. He certainly is a huge part of Kentucky Football." Cawood called his last UK football game vs. Tennessee on Nov. 23, 1991, and retired from the microphone following the 1991-92 basketball season.

MINUS NINETY-THREE

The University of Kentucky holds the Southeastern Conference record for fewest yards allowed rushing in a single game. Kentucky limited Kansas State to a minus-93 yards on the ground as UK defeated Kansas State, 16-3, on Sept. 19, 1970, at Lexington. Kentucky defenders sacked KSU quarterbacks Lynn Dickey (2) and Max Arreguin (5) a total of seven times while intercepting three of their passes. Ironically, KSU outgained UK in total offense 214-107 as Dickey and Arreguin combined for 307 yards in the air.

THE FIRST NIGHT GAME

The University of Kentucky was one of the first institutions to play intercollegiate football at night. The first UK home night game was played on Oct. 5, 1929, at Stoll Field as Kentucky defeated Maryville, 40-0. Kentucky did not play more than one home night game per season until 1946.

NIGHT GAMES

The University of Kentucky began holding its October home football games during the evening hours in 1949. UK and Keeneland Race Course, located in Lexington, have enjoyed a close relationship through the years and assist in giving UK faithful an opportunity to enjoy two of the Commonwealth's best-loved events in October — football and horse racing. With the traditional post time at Keeneland for the thoroughbred races at 1 p.m., UK began moving its October home games to night during the 1949 season. The only occasion UK has not conducted its October home games in the evening is to accommodate television. In 1991, athletics director C.M. Newton moved September home games to night as well to give Kentucky faithful a more consistent start time.

NAT NORTHINGTON

Nat Northington of Louisville became the first black player to sign with the University of Kentucky and a Southeastern Conference institution. Northington signed a national letter-of-intent with UK in December of 1965. He later became the first African-American football player to play in a SEC vs. SEC game, appearing in the UK-Ole Miss game at Lexington on Sept. 30, 1967.

OUTLAND TROPHY

Two-time All-American Bob Gain is the only player in University of Kentucky football history to be awarded "The Outland Trophy", signifying the best interior lineman in collegiate football. Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy after helping lead UK to its first Southeastern Conference title and a 10-1 regular-season record. Besides being the first UK player to claim the award, Gain was also the first SEC player to be given the award.

PRINCE CHARLES OF WALES

The Kentucky Wildcats gave Prince Charles of Wales his first taste of American football on Oct. 22, 1977. That's right, Prince Charles first football game was the UK-Georgia matchup at Athens. Prince Charles was introduced to UK Coach Fran Curci and All-American Art Still at halftime. After looking at the 6-6 Still, Charles said, "You're a tall one aren't you?" Still and Co. blanked the Bulldogs on this day, 33-0, on their way to a 10-1 record.

RED DOC, BLACK DOC

A pair of cousins named William Rodes played football for the University of Kentucky during the early 1900s. To distinguish one from the other, one was nicknamed "Red Doc" and the other "Black Doc". William "Red Doc" Rodes lettered three years (1909, 11-12) as a 140-pound halfback and defensive end. William "Black Doc" Rodes lettered two years (1915-16) as quarterback. Black Doc was considered by many to be one of the best open-field runners in that era. He also placekicked and personally delivered UK's 6-0 victory over Tennessee in 1915 with field goals of 45 and 43 yards.

RUSSELL RICE

Longtime UK sports information director Russell Rice is the walking, talking historian when its comes to Wildcats Football. Rice retired from the UK Athletics Department in 1989 after serving 18 years as sports information director. He came to UK in 1967 as assistant SID under Ken Kuhn, then was named sports information director in 1969. Rice authored the book, "The Wildcats, Kentucky Football", which details Kentucky football and its history. At his retirement party, Rice was given a lifetime "Press Pass" to the Commonwealth Stadium press box.

STOLL FIELD/ McLEAN STADIUM

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was the first home for Kentucky Football. The stadium was located adjacent to Memorial Coliseum and served as UK's football home since 1916. The University Board of Trustees voted to name the playing field "Stoll Field" and the actual grandstand structures as "McLean Stadium," thus the often confusing double names. Stoll Field was named in honor of the late Judge Richard C. Stoll, a prominent alumnus, trustee and benefactor of UK. Stoll Field was dedicated on Oct. 14, 1916. McLean Stadium was dedicated on Nov. 1, 1924, in memory of Price Innes McLean, a regular center on the 1923 UK squad who died as a result of injuries sustained in the Kentucky-Cincinnati game on Nov. 6, 1923. The final seating capacity of Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was 37,000 during its last year of use, 1972.

THE THIN THIRTY

When Blanton Collier stepped down as head football coach at Kentucky following the 1961 season, UK promptly named former Wildcats' player Charlie Bradshaw as its 28th coach. Bradshaw inherited a squad of 88 players left from Collier's 5-5-0 team in '61. Bradshaw promised his new UK squad hard work and talked of training to an absolute peak of condition. His conditioning tactics took their toll as over 50 players left the squad, leaving 30 to open the season against Florida State and prompting the name "Thin Thirty". The Thin Thirty finished 3-5-2 on the season with victories over Detroit (27-8), Vanderbilt (7-0) and arch-rival Tennessee (12-10). The ties were against Florida State (0-0) and Georgia (7-7).

TURNAROUNDS

One of the biggest turnarounds in collegiate football happened at the University of Kentucky during the 1982 and 1983 seasons. Jerry Claiborne had replaced Fran Curci as head coach prior to the '82 campaign. Claiborne inherited a program in shambles and faced the nation's 2nd-toughest schedule which featured Oklahoma, Clemson, Auburn, LSU, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Kansas and Kansas State. Not surprisingly, Kentucky finished 0-10-1 in 1982 with only a 13-13 tie with Kansas keeping the Wildcats from an 0-11 slate. However, Claiborne turned the heat up in 1983 and went to work. UK reeled off consecutive wins against Central Michigan (31-14), Kansas State (31-12), Indiana (24-13), and Tulane (26-14) to start the season. The Cats also defeated LSU (21-13) and Vanderbilt (17-8) to finish the campaign with a 6-4-1 record. The turnaround, which tied Memphis State for the biggest turnaround in 1983, earned Kentucky a berth in the 1983 Hall of Fame Bowl.

VICTORY KICKS

The University of Kentucky defeated the Louisville YMCA, 12-6, in 1900. What is so unique about this contest is Kentucky did not run a single offensive play. Instead, Kentucky punted on first down each time it had the football and eventually scored on a pair of fumbles by the Louisville YMCA club which had occurred in their own endzone.

WILDCATS NICKNAME

The nickname "Wildcats" became synonymous with UK shortly after a 6-2 football victory at Illinois on Oct. 9, 1909. Commandant Carbusier, then head of the military department, told a group of students in a chapel service following the game that the Kentucky football team had "fought like wildcats." The nickname grew in popularity and was adopted by the university.

WINNING STREAK

For the most part, the most famous winning streak in Kentucky football history is the one the Wildcats ended. The stage was set as UK faced Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl. Kentucky was coming off its first Southeastern Conference title and brought in a 10-1 record. Oklahoma entered as national champions and riding a 31-game winning streak. A pair of Wilbur Jamerson scores - a 22-yard pass from Babe Parilli and a one-yard run - was all UK needed in picking up a 13-7 upset of the Sooners and thus ending the 31-game streak. Today, the 31-game winning streak by Oklahoma ranks as the 7th-longest in NCAA history.

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was home to Kentucky football for 56 years (1916-1972). The seating capacity was 37,000 when the Wildcats played their final game inside the stadium in 1972, defeating Vanderbilt 14-13 on November 11.

THE YEAR (1977-78)

Perhaps the most successful year in UK Athletics occurred during the 1977-78 academic year at the University of Kentucky. The 1977 Wildcats football squad, under Fran Curci, raced to a 10-1 record and ended the year ranked No. 5 by The Sporting News. Highlights were victories over North Carolina (10-7), West Virginia (28-13), Penn State (24-20), LSU (33-13), Georgia (33-0), Florida (14-7) and Tennessee (21-17). On the basketball side, UK wrapped up its 5th NCAA title by defeating Duke, 94-88, at St. Louis. The UK basketballers ended the campaign with a 30-2 record under Joe B. Hall.

THE YEAR (1950-51)

An argument to the most successful year in UK Athletics is the 1950-51 academic year. UK football, under Paul Bryant, ended the 1950 regular season with a 10-1 record and ranked No. 7 nationally by both A.P. and U.P.I. The Wildcats then proceeded to snap national champion Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak with a 13-7 victory in the Sugar Bowl. On the basketball front, Adolph Rupp gave UK its 3rd national title by defeating Kansas State, 68-58, at Minneapolis, Minn. The Wildcats ended the year 32-2. Current UK Athletics Director C.M. Newton was a letterman on that squad.

1970
UK sets SEC record holding Kansas State to -93 yards rushing.

1973
Fran Curci replaces John Ray as head coach.

1975
Sonny Collins sets UK rushing record with 3,835 yards.

1976
UK shares 2nd SEC title with Georgia.

1976
25-year bowl drought ends with win in Peach Bowl.

1977
UK serves 1-year probation with no bowl appearances.

1983
UK goes 6-4-1 for nation's best turnaround.

1984
Joey Worley's 52-yard FG leads UK to win in Hall of Fame Bowl.

1985
Record 58,345 at Commonwealth Stadium vs. Miss. State.

1982
Jerry Claiborne replaces Fran Curci as head coach.

1983
West Virginia defeats UK 20-16 in Hall of Fame Bowl.

UK Retired Jerseys

UK Football Anniversaries

100 Years Ago (1896):

This was the seventh season for Kentucky football. Kentucky posts a 3-6 record in the team's only season under Coach Dudley Short. The biggest win was a 62-0 romp over Central University.

75 Years Ago (1921):

This was the second of three seasons that the Wildcats were coached by William J. "Injun Bill" Juneau. Kentucky posts a 4-3-1 record, beginning with a 68-0 pounding of Kentucky Wesleyan and concluding with a scoreless tie against Tennessee.

The most noteworthy game, however, is a 21-14 loss to Southern powerhouse Vanderbilt. Vanderbilt was undefeated in 1921 and the Wildcats were one of only two teams that scored on the Commodores.

50 Years Ago (1946):

A landmark year in Kentucky football as the Paul "Bear" Bryant era begins. Bryant has immediate success, turning a 2-8 1945 team into a 7-3 mark in 1946. All three of the losses are on the road against top 20-ranked teams. It is the first of eight consecutive winning seasons under Bryant.

25 Years Ago (1971):

This season features one of the most dramatic wins in school history. On the final play of the Vanderbilt game, defensive back Darryl Bishop intercepts a pass and returns it 44 yards for a touchdown and the Wildcats win 14-7. Kentucky finishes the season with a 3-8 record.

(3rd, 1,422 yards), career punting (6th, 39.6 yards per punt) ... Known as a big-play performer as a collegian ... Had four pass receptions of 70 yards or more during his career ... On 4th-and-41 yards to go against Mississippi in 1965, ran a fake punt 70 yards for a touchdown ... Played 11 years (1967-77) with the Miami Dolphins ... Currently an assistant coach with the Dolphins.

48 WASHINGTON "WASH" SERINI

Earned four varsity letters as a tackle at the University of Kentucky ... His physical stature as a player at UK was 6-1, 215 pounds ... Played under three different head coaches (A.D. Kirwan, Bernie Shively, and Paul Bryant) ... Named first-team All-Southeastern Conference by Associated Press in 1944 ... Twice named second-team All-Southeastern Conference by Associated Press (1945, 1947) ... Member of Wildcats' first bowl team (1947 Great Lakes Bowl) ... Participated in three Blue-Gray All-Star games (1944, 1946, 1947) ... Played professionally for the Chicago Bears (1948-51) and Green Bay Packers (1952).

BERNIE A. SHIVELY

Served as director of athletics at the University of Kentucky for 30 years (1938-67) ... Supervised major expansions of UK athletics facilities during his tenure ... Responsible for the expansion of Stoll Field/ McLean Stadium in 1948, 1949 and 1959 to increase seating capacity to 37,500 ... Credited with the construction of Memorial Coliseum (11,500) in 1950 ... Also responsible for what is now known as the Shively Sports Complex, which was built in 1959 ... The Shively Sports Complex includes the football practice fields and is now home to Kentucky baseball, track and soccer ... Chairman of the NCAA Basketball Tournament Committee (University Division) and later named to the NCAA Executive Committee ... Served as head football coach at UK in 1945 and posted 2-8-0 record.

97 ART STILL

Lettered 1974-75-76-77 as defensive end ... Consensus first-team All-American in 1977 ... Broke UK single season record with 22 tackles behind the line in 1977 ... Ended career with 327 tackles ... Two-time, first-team All-SEC (1976 & 1977) ... Honored by Birmingham TD Club as SEC Outstanding Senior Player in 1977 ... Honored by Columbus (Ga.) TD Club as SEC Outstanding Player in 1977 ... Named to Lakeland (Fla.) Ledger 25-year All-SEC team (1961-75) ... NFL first-round draft choice by Kansas City in 1978.

70 HERSCHEL TURNER

First-team All-American as an offensive and defensive tackle in 1963 ... First-team All-Southeastern Conference as a senior ... Logged the most minutes played on UK's 1962 squad known as the "Thin Thirty" ... Participated in the Blue-Gray Game and the Senior Bowl ... Drafted in the second round of the 1964 National Football League draft by St. Louis ... Played two seasons (1964-65) with the Cardinals as a guard and tackle.

88 JEFF VAN NOTE

Originally came to Kentucky as a fullback, but ended his career as an outstanding defensive end ... Earned second-team All-Southeastern Conference honors as a sophomore in 1966 ... Squad's Most Valuable Player as a senior in 1968 ... Participated in the Blue-Gray Game ... Coached at UK by Charlie Bradshaw ... Drafted in the 11th round by the Atlanta Falcons in 1969 ... Played 18 years in the National Football League (1969-86), all with the Falcons, as a center ... Named All-Pro in 1982 ... Earned All-National Football Conference honors in 1980 ... Played in six Pro Bowls (1974, 1975, 1979, 1980, 1981, and 1982) ... Currently the expert analyst on radio broadcasts of UK football games.

UK's 1995 retired jersey honorees were announced at the annual Kickoff Luncheon. The honorees were (from left) Joe Federspiel, Dave Roller, Rick Kestner, and Todd Seiple, who accepted for his father, Larry Seiple.

GREAT LAKES BOWL

Kentucky 24, Villanova 14

1947 The Kentucky Wildcats made their first appearance on the bowl scene in the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl and came away with a 24-14 victory over Villanova before a crowd of 14,908 at Cleveland Municipal Stadium.

Kentucky, in its second year under head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, finished at 8-3 on the season with the victory.

Quarterback-placekicker George Blanda gave Kentucky an early 3-0 lead in the first quarter. Blanda connected on a 27-yard field goal to put the Cats up and it remained that way until halftime.

SCORING SUMMARY

VILLANOVA	0	0	0	14	- 14
KENTUCKY	3	0	7	14	- 24

UK - Blanda, 27 FG
UK - Howe, 29 run (Blanda PAT)
UK - Boller, 15 run (Blanda PAT)
UK - Boller, 49 interception return (Blanda PAT)
VU - Shehhan, 9 pass from Gordon
VU - Pasqunriello, 10 run

Attendance - 14,908

In the third quarter, UK's Jim Howe scampered 29 yards for a score. Blanda added the PAT and Kentucky led 10-0 after three periods.

Bill Boller scored both Kentucky touchdowns in the fourth period, romping 15 yards on a handoff from Blanda and racing 49 yards to paydirt with an interception. Blanda added both PATs to round out the Kentucky scoring.

Villanova also added a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns, but it was not enough as Kentucky captured its first bowl victory in school history.

ORANGE BOWL

Santa Clara 21, Kentucky 13

1950 Kentucky committed three turnovers and let a seven-point halftime lead slip away in dropping its first major bowl game, 21-13, to Santa Clara in the 1950 Orange Bowl before a crowd of 64,816.

The Wildcats, 9-3, scored their first touchdown early in the second quarter as a result of a Santa Clara turnover. UK's John Netoskie recovered at fumble at the Wildcat 49 to set up Kentucky's first score. The Wildcats drove 51 yards in 14 plays as Wilbur Jamerson hammered over from two yards. Bobby Brooks added the PAT to make it 7-0.

Kentucky wasted a golden scoring opportunity late in the second quarter when Babe Parilli found Bill Leskovar for a 45-yard completion to the SC 3 with time running out. Leskovar and runningmate Don Phelps each were stopped short on their respective rush attempts and the clock ran out before UK could score. The Wildcats led 7-0 at halftime.

UK coach Paul "Bear" Bryant said afterward he should have sent in a pass play just before the half. "If it failed," he said, "the clock was killed then we could have tried a field goal."

A short, 9-yard punt by Phelps set up Santa Clara's first score in the third quarter. After taking over on the SC 46, Bronco quarterback John Pasco hit Larry Williams on a 25-yard pass. Santa Clara eventually scored on a one-yard sneak by Pasco to tie the game, 7-7.

Santa Clara scored again later in the third period, thanks in part to a pass interference call against Kentucky. Hall Haynes went over from 4 yards to make it 14-7 after three quarters.

Parilli led Kentucky right back, hitting Emery Clark on a 52-yard touchdown strike. Brooks, however, missed the tying PAT, breaking a personal streak of 18 straight, as Santa Clara led 14-13 with 12 minutes left in the contest.

Santa Clara managed to hold off the Cats and added an insurance score with less than a minute left, a 16-yard TD run by Buster Wraith.

SUGAR BOWL

Kentucky 13, Oklahoma 7

1951 Kentucky arrived on the national football scene and stunned national champion Oklahoma, 13-7, to capture the 1951 Sugar Bowl before 82,000 at New Orleans.

The Wildcats, 11-1, displayed a tough defense and opportunistic offense in snapping Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak, the longest in the nation at that time. More than 13,000 Kentucky fans made the long trip to New Orleans to watch the Southeastern Conference champions pick up their school record 11th win.

Inflicting the most damage on the Sooners was Walt Yowarsky, a tackle who had played less than five minutes on the defensive side of the football in 1950. Yowarsky operated at left end, next to Outland Trophy winner Bob Gain, and repeatedly sliced into the Sooner backfield to break up passes and to make Arnold hurry his hand-offs and laterals.

Yowarsky recovered a fumble on the OU 22 that set up UK's first touchdown. On the very next play, Babe Parilli hit Wilbur Jamerson in the right corner of the end zone for the touchdown. Gain added the PAT to make it 7-0 in the first quarter.

Kentucky marched 81 yards in the second quarter to go up 13-0. Jamerson dove over from the one to cap the drive, but Gain missed wide on the PAT.

The Wildcat defense, ranked number two in the nation, showed Oklahoma why late in the third quarter. The Sooners drove 67 yards with the second-half kickoff, sitting at the UK 3 with a first-and-goal. Yowarsky helped UK turn back the Sooners, throwing an OU runner for a five-yard loss on third down and Oklahoma eventually turned the ball over on downs.

Yowarsky, voted the game's MVP, thwarted another OU threat in the fourth quarter as he recovered a fumbled punt.

Oklahoma did score with seven minutes to play as Billy Vessels hit Merrill Green on a 17-yard pass for the touchdown. Jim Weatherall added the PAT.

The Wildcats managed to hold on to the football for all but one play the rest of the way to claim a stirring 13-7 win.

UK - Hamilton, 3 run (Jones PAT)
Attendance - 75,349

Parilli, who completed 8 of 20 passes for 85 yards, tossed both touchdown strikes to Emery Clark. With the victory, the Wildcats ended the season at 8-4.

Kentucky got on the scoreboard first, as Parilli found Clark for the first of two TDs. Parilli hit Clark with a five-yard toss to culminate a 53-yard scoring march. Harry Jones added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after one quarter.

In the second period, UK got its second touchdown when Parilli and Clark hooked up again. This time, Parilli found Clark on a 13-yard TD strike to cap a 57-yard drive. Jones missed on the PAT attempt and UK settled for a 13-0 lead in the second period with a little over 10 minutes left.

The Wildcat defense made that 13-point lead stand up until halftime as the Horned Frogs drove four times deep into UK territory. Led by All-American guard Ray Correll, the Wildcats turned TCU away on drives to the UK 4, 24, 5 and 2-yard lines to take a 13-0 lead at intermission.

TCU's Bobby Jack Floyd sliced the UK lead to 13-7 when he galloped 43 yards on a sweep. Floyd's run capped an 80-yard scoring drive which took only four plays. Keith Flowers added the PAT with 1:12 left in the third period.

Kentucky ended any thoughts of a TCU comeback, thwarting the only two Horned Frog offensive drives in the fourth period and scoring an insurance touchdown as well. Ed Hamilton sealed the UK victory with a three-yard score off left tackle with 3:33 left. Jones added the PAT for the final 20-7 score.

PEACH BOWL

Kentucky 21, North Carolina 0

1976 Kentucky tailback Rod Stewart scored three touchdowns to lead the Wildcats to a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina before a sellout crowd of 54,132 in the 1976 Peach Bowl at Atlanta, Ga.

The Wildcats, after a 25-year absence from the post-season bowl scene, returned in fine fashion as Kentucky completely smothered the Tar Heels. Kentucky outgained North Carolina 334-108 in total yards, limiting the Tar Heels to just five first downs and forcing five UNC turnovers.

After a scoreless first half, Kentucky went to work in the third period after UNC quarterback Matt Kupec fumbled at the Tar Heel 21. UK's James Ramey recovered and the Wildcats were in business.

Seven plays later, Stewart busted over from the one for the touchdown. John Pierce added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after three quarters.

Stewart sent the 37,000-plus Kentuckians, who had followed UK to the Peach Bowl, into a frenzy with his second touchdown early in the fourth quarter. The Wildcats marched 57 yards in 9 plays as Stewart capped the drive with a 13-yard gallop behind All-American tackle Warren Bryant. Pierce was good on the PAT and Kentucky led 14-0 with 13:01 left to play.

The Big Blue had to go only 47 yards for their final score. Kentucky faced a fourth-and-one from the UNC 3 with a little over three minutes remaining. Once again, Stewart (104 yards on 19 carries) got the call and he picked up both - the first down and the touchdown. Pierce was true on the PAT and UK had put the game away.

Stewart tied the Peach Bowl record for most touchdowns and scoring with the 3 TDs and 18 points. He was named the game's MVP. The Most Valuable Defensive Player of the game was UK linebacker Mike Martin, who helped hold the Tarheels to just over 100 yards.

HALL OF FAME BOWL

West Virginia 20, Kentucky 16

1983 Kentucky won much of the statistical battle but lost the war in dropping a tough 20-16 decision to the West Virginia Mountaineers in the 1983 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham.

The Wildcats, in a bowl for the first time since 1976, outgained West Virginia 306-288 in total offense and held the edge in first downs 19-18 and passing yards 216-88. But 17 second-half points by West Virginia were too much for the Wildcats to overcome.

West Virginia scratched first as placekicker Paul Woodside connected on a 39-yard field goal late in the first quarter.

Kentucky countered with 10 points in the second stanza to take a 10-3 lead at halftime.

The Wildcats marched 54 yards in eight plays for their first score. Facing a third-and-three from the WV 26, Kentucky used some razzle-dazzle as Tony Mayes swept right, then threw-back to quarterback Randy Jenkins in the left corner of the endzone for the TD. John Hutcherson added the PAT and UK led 7-3 with 10:59 left in the second period.

Jenkins hit two big passes late in the second quarter to help set up a 32-yard field goal by Hutcherson. Jenkins connected with Joe Phillips for a 19-yard pass play and then hit George Adams for a 14-yarder as Hutcherson connected with 38 seconds left in the half.

UK - Phillips, 13 pass from Ransdell (PAT missed) 5:50-4Q

Attendance - 42,000

WVU kicker Paul Woodside fooled everyone to begin the second half. Woodside tried an on-side kick to start the half and then recovered it to give the Mountaineers the football at the UK 48. Eight plays later, QB Jeff Hostetler found Rich Hollins for a 16-yard TD strike. Woodside added the PAT and it was 10-10 with 11:10 left in the third quarter.

West Virginia scored twice in a span of two minutes early in the fourth quarter to take a commanding 20-10 lead. Hostetler capped off a 10-play, 81-yard drive with a 2-yard scoring toss to Rob Bennett to make it 17-10 with 11:15 left to play.

Two plays later, West Virginia took over after an interception of a Jenkins pass at the UK 16. The interception set up a 23-yard field goal by Woodside as the Mountaineers went up 20-10 with 9:18 remaining.

Kentucky freshman quarterback Bill Ransdell led the Wildcats back, marching UK 92 yards in 11 plays following the kickoff. Ransdell hit Phillips for a 13-yard scoring toss to make it 20-16 with 5:50 left. Hutcherson missed the PAT.

The Wildcats got one more shot, but could get no further than the UK 37.

HALL OF FAME BOWL

Kentucky 20, Wisconsin 19

1984 Kentucky's Joey Worley booted a career-long 52-yard field goal with just under nine minutes remaining to give the Wildcats a thrilling 20-19 victory over the Wisconsin Badgers in the 1984 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham.

Worley, a freshman, helped Kentucky overcome a nine-point deficit in the second half with his school and bowl record field goal.

Wisconsin jumped on top early, scoring twice in the first quarter. Todd Gregoire nailed a 40-yard field goal just under four minutes into the game and Michael Howard hit Thad McFadden with a 3-yard TD pass. Gregoire added the PAT and the Badgers led 10-0 with 5:34 left in the opening period.

Gregoire added another field goal, this one from 27 yards, to make it 13-0 with 7:05 left in the second period.

Kentucky got on the board after safety Paul Calhoun intercepted a Howard pass to give UK possession at the Badger 42. It took Kentucky just five plays to score as Marc Logan went over from nine yards. Worley added the PAT to cut the deficit to 13-7 with 1:29 left in the half.

Wisconsin was not through. The Badgers used four running plays, two passes and a costly 15-yard penalty to move the football to the UK 3 with two seconds left in the half. From there, Wisconsin decided on a Gregoire field goal (20-yarder) to take a 16-7 edge at halftime.

Kentucky narrowed the gap to 16-10 on a 22-yard field goal by Worley with 11:28 left in the third quarter. But Gregoire responded with a 40-yarder two minutes later to move the count back to nine, 19-10.

Behind UK quarterback Bill Ransdell, the Wildcats marched 82 yards in 11 plays later in the quarter to get within two, 19-17. Ransdell hit Logan on a screen pass to cover the final 27 yards and with the Worley PAT, UK was back in it with 26 seconds left in the third quarter.

The next time Kentucky got the ball, Ransdell moved the Cats into position for Worley's 52-yarder. Starting from the UK 22, tailback Mark Higgs got the call four consecutive times, then it was Adams' turn the next four plays. Facing a fourth-and-two at the UW 34, Worley nailed the game-winner with 8:55 left.

Wisconsin came back and marched to the UK 8 with less than two minutes left. With the Badgers facing a fourth-and-six, Gregoire was called on for his fifth field goal attempt. This time, the snap from center was bobbled and UK had sealed the victory.

Kentucky took the opening kickoff and marched down the field to the Clemson two-yard line, where what appeared to be a QB Pookie Jones-to-WB Alfonzo Browning TD was instead a turnover when Browning fumbled the ball while attempting to extend it over the goal line.

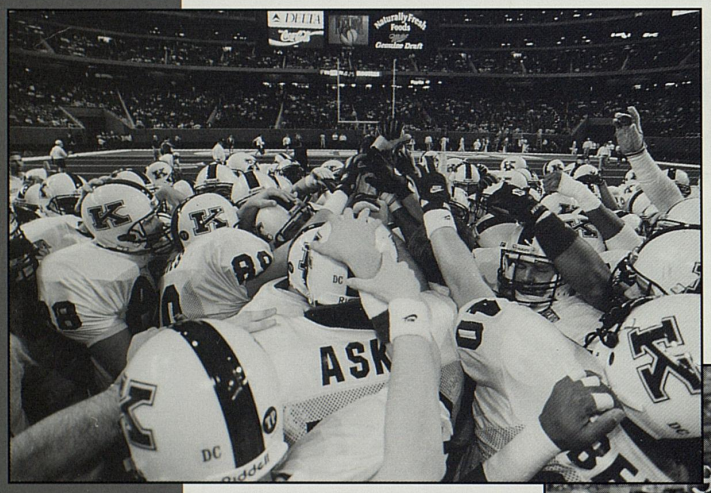

Clemson took over on its own one and proceded to march 99 yards for the game's first score, a two-yard TD plunge by TB Emory Smith. The PAT gave the Tigers a 7-0 lead. Clemson ran the ball 15 times and attempted only three passes in the drive.

Kentucky was stopped again at the one-yard line before the Wildcats finally scored on Nicky Nickels' 34-yard FG in the second period, making the score Clemson 7, Kentucky 3.

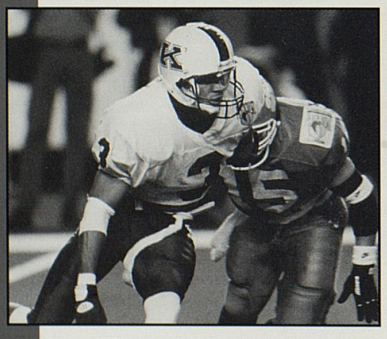

UK captured the lead early in the fourth quarter when Jones hit WR Mark Chatmon with a five-yard TD pass, making it UK 10, Clemson 7. Nickels added another FG, this one from 26 yards, to extend UK's lead to 13-7. But after Dan Ariza's 55-yard punt pinned the Tigers inside their own 18-yard line, QB Patrick Sapp hit Smith with a 57-yard screen pass to move Clemson into scoring position. With less than a minute remaining, LB Marty Moore intercepted a Sapp pass, but fumbled it back, giving Clemson a second chance. The Tigers capitalized when Sapp hit WR Henry Smith with the game-winning 21-yard TD pass. Kentucky got the ball back with less than 20 seconds remaining, but could move no farther than its own 40.

Ransdell Passes UK to Upset of Florida

BILL RANSDELL of Elizabethtown put on the most accurate aerial show in UK history by completing 20 of 23 passes (.869 pct.) for 161 yards as Kentucky upset Florida, 10-3, on Nov. 15, 1986, at Commonwealth Stadium . . . Ransdell helped the Wildcats utilize a ball-control passing game on this day as Kentucky held the football for 41 minutes . . . His 20 completions were spread among eight different UK receivers . . . Ransdell ended the contest strong, hitting on his last seven passing attempts.

UK Upsets No. 1 Ole Miss Behind Kestner

RICK KESTNER of Stone had the best day of any Kentucky receiver during his junior campaign in 1964 . . . Kestner hauled in nine passes for 185 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Wildcats to a 27-21 upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss at Mississippi Memorial Stadium in Jackson . . . In the third quarter, Kestner was on the receiving end of a 32-yard halfback pass from Rodger Bird to give UK a 13-7 lead . . . Kestner added two additional scores on tosses from QB Rick Norton (60 and 23) as the Wildcats rallied from 14-13 and 21-20 deficits late in the second half for the upset.

Bishop's Theft Gives UK Victory

DARRYL BISHOP of Louisville, whose final season was 1973, remains the UK leader in career interceptions with 14 . . . One of his most notable interceptions took place on Nov. 6, 1971, at Dudley Field in Nashville . . . With UK and Vanderbilt knotted at 7-7 and less than 50 seconds to play, Kentucky elected to punt facing a 4th-and-8 situation from its own 44 . . . Walter Overton made a fair catch at the Commodore 30, giving Vandy a first down . . . After QB Steve Burger lost four yards on the first play, the Commodores elected not to use a timeout . . . Then as time expired, Burger lofted a pass toward receiver Gary Chesley . . . The ball never got to Chesley as Bishop picked off the aerial and raced 43 yards for the winning score, giving UK a 14-7 victory on the game's final play.

When talk arises about sports in the Commonwealth of Kentucky, chances are the talk surrounds the University of Kentucky Wildcats.

The University of Kentucky will again package one of the most comprehensive radio and television networks among Division 1-A institutions. Both radio and television networks will blanket the Commonwealth and touch much of the nation.

Sports Communications, Inc., which owns the radio rights for UK football and basketball, expects to compile a radio network with approximately 80 stations. WVLK-AM/FM of Lexington will once again serve as the flagship station for the UK Football Radio Network. Two stations on the network feature a clear-channel 50,000-watt signal, including WHAS (840 AM) in Louisville and WSAI (1530 AM) in Cincinnati.

As a member of the Southeastern Conference, Kentucky enters a new era on television broadcasts this season. The SEC enters a four-year deal with CBS that provides for a regionally- or nationally-televised SEC Game of the Week. ESPN and ESPN2 also will pick up a number of league games.

The Southeastern Conference continues with the television package that is produced and regionally syndicated by Jefferson-Pilot Sports. Each league school makes at least two appearances on JP Sports during each two-year period. The Wildcats were televised twice on JP last season.

The UK Football Television Network features full-game, tape-delay action of all Wildcats games -- home and away -- that are not televised by CBS, ESPN, ESPN2, or JP Sports. The Network serves approximately 11 markets in and around the Commonwealth. Sports Communications, Inc., administers the network with WKYT-TV of Lexington as the telecasts' producer.

For the 1996 football season, the UK Broadcast Team will consist of eight members, including Ralph Hacker, Jeff Van Note, Dick Gabriel, Dave Baker, Rob Bromley, Tom Leach, Derrick Ramsey, and Mike Dodson.

Hacker, who attended Eastern Kentucky University, begins his fifth season as radio play-by-play announcer this fall and his 25th year overall on the UK Radio Network. He moved from color analyst to play-by-play duties four years ago, filling the void left by his long-time broadcast partner Cawood Ledford. Ledford stepped away from the microphone at the conclusion of the 1991-92 basketball season after 39 years of calling Wildcats football and basketball action.

Hacker, president and general manager of Lexington radio station WVLK AM/FM, hosts the Bill Curry pregame and postgame radio shows on game days. And for the past five years, Hacker has worked as co-host with Rob Bromley on the Bill Curry and Rick Pitino Television Shows.

In addition to his experience on the UK Radio and Television Networks, Hacker has ventured into network television in recent years. He has described football and basketball games for Jefferson-Pilot, ESPN, the NCAA, and CBS.

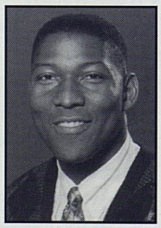

Both the Kentucky radio and delayed television broadcasts added new expert analysts in 1994. Former UK letterman Jeff Van Note (1966-68), who had an 18-year NFL career with the Atlanta Falcons, handles the analysis on radio. Derrick Ramsey, a first-team All-SEC quarterback in 1977 as a Wildcat senior, provides opinion and commentary on the delayed television broadcasts. Ramsey enjoyed a 10-year NFL career with the Oakland/Los Angeles Raiders (1978-83), New England (1983-85), and Detroit (1987). Both Van Note and Ramsey garnered good reviews in 1994, their first with the UK broadcasts.

Bromley is set for his 17th year on the UK Television Network. He will deliver play-by-play on the delayed TV broadcasts. He has handled the role of analyst and sideline reporter in the past. Once again, Bromley will serve as producer and co-host of the Bill Curry and Rick Pitino Television Shows.

Rob has been a member of the WKYT-TV sports staff for 19 years, including the past 16 as sports anchor. Bromley is a graduate of Butler University of Indianapolis and worked as a sports anchor in Lima, Ohio, prior to joining the WKYT-TV staff in 1977.

Baker, a native of Franklin, Ohio, begins his eighth on the UK broadcast team. He will be involved with the programming of "Countdown to Kickoff," the one and one-half hour pregame radio show.

Baker has spent 14 years on the sports staff at WKYT-TV in Lexington. He began at WKYT-TV in 1982 following his graduation from Georgetown (Ky.) College. He was named WKYT's weekend anchor in 1984 and played an instrumental part in the founding of his station's award-winning "Sports Spectrum," a 20-minute comprehensive sports show on Saturday evenings. Baker also hosts a popular Sunday morning radio talk show.

Gabriel, a 1978 graduate of Kentucky, enters his eighth year as a member of the UK broadcast team. He works in the dual capacity of sideline reporter for both the UK Radio and Television Networks, an intriguing task he has handled during the 1992, 1993, and 1995 seasons. Previously, he spent four years (1989-91, 1994) on the broadcast team solely as sideline reporter for the UK Radio Network.

After the games, Gabriel and Tom Leach co-host the "Wildcats Sportsline" call-in show.

Gabriel, sports manager for WKYT-TV the past 10 years, came to Lexington from Dallas, Texas, where he was excecutive producer of Host Communications' Southwest Conference Football Radio Network.

As a student at UK, Gabriel was named the Outstanding Journalism Graduate in 1978. He called play-by-play for Wildcats football and basketball games on student-radio station WBKY and served as sports editor for the Kentucky Kernel, UK's student newspaper. Following graduation, he served as sports director for WVLK AM/FM in Lexington.

Leach, a 1983 graduate of Kentucky, begins his eighth season as a member of the UK broadcast team. He anchors the halftime and postgame scoreboard shows on the UK Radio Network. Leach and Dick Gabriel co-host the postgame radio call-in show, "Wildcats Sportsline."

Leach currently serves as news/sports director for radio station WVLK-AM/FM in Lexington. He began as news/sports reporter for WVLK in 1984. Leach, a native of Paris, Ky., is a three-time winner of the Associated Press "Best Sports Program" award. He also won an Eclipse Award in 1993 for his thoroughbred racing coverage.

Dodson enters his fifth year as a member of the UK broadcast team. Dodson, director of broadcast operations of the UK Radio and Television Networks, is the technical engineer for all game-day Wildcats football and basketball broadcasts.

1976 SEC Championship Team Gathers for 20-Year Reunion

Twenty years later, they still call him Clyde. But few other than Warren Bryant remember how the monstrous offensive lineman got his nickname when he first came to the University of Kentucky as a freshman football player from Miami, Fla. Bryant, who would later help lead UK to one its most memorable seasons ever as a senior in 1976, was a 6-foot-6, 240-pound mountain of muscle when he arrived on campus as a soft-spoken freshman in 1973. One of the many gaping with awe at the young offensive lineman was senior All-SEC defensive back Darryl Bishop, who instantly blurted, "You look like one of those big Clydesdales!"

"The name just stuck," says Bryant, now a social worker in Atlanta. "Everyone I played with still calls me that. A lot of the guys thought it was my real name."

"Clyde" and many of his teammates will return to Lexington this fall for a 20-year reunion. The reunion will be held during the Oct. 26 Homecoming weekend.

Whether he was referred to as "Clyde," Warren or "Mr. Bryant," the talented tackle was always addressed with respect throughout his football career. In 1976, he led UK to a 9-3 record, a share of the Southeastern Conference championship and a 21-0 Peach Bowl victory over North Carolina. Among a team of stars, Bryant's name shone brightest. He was named first team All-America and was selected by the Atlanta Falcons as the No. 6 overall choice in the National Football League draft. More importantly, he was a critical cog in the machine that drove the Wildcats to their first bowl appearance in 25 years and helped engineer one of the most dramatic turnarounds in the program's history.

"I will argue until I die that Clyde was the most dominating lineman in football at that time," says Bryant's 1976 teammate, former quarterback and current UK television analyst Derrick Ramsey. "He just flat-out abused people — and I mean grown men. We felt safe in the backfield with Clyde up front."

Bryant, Ramsey, All-American Art Still and a supporting cast of standout athletes were driven in 1976 to erase the frustration of a 2-8-1 1975 season and the lowly image that came with playing in a program that had experienced just one winning season in the past decade.

"We were so good in '76 because we had been so disappointed in ourselves the year before," Bryant says. "We made a vow among ourselves that we would prove that we were not what people were labeling us. We had great coaches and the talent and ability to do anything. We wanted to show everyone that we were men and that our coaches were great. We brought that attitude onto the field with us. This time, we did what we had actually planned to do the year before."

The Cats opened the season with a 38-13 drubbing of Oregon State in the season opener at Commonwealth Stadium. Then came a trip to Lawrence, Kansas, where Kentucky lost to No.-13 ranked Kansas, 37-16.

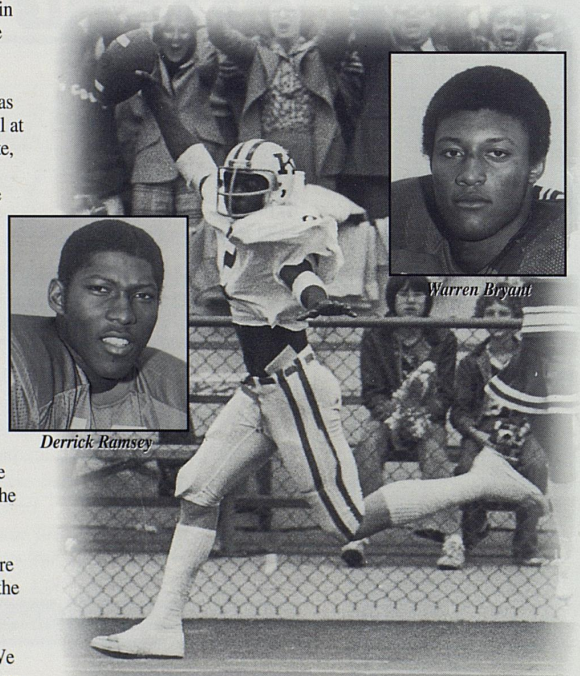

After the Cats disposed of West Virginia 14-10, they met Penn State in a game that both Bryant and Ramsey refer to as "The Turning Point." Penn State came to town with a No. 20 ranking and an awe-inspiring tradition and reputation.

"They came in, a big powerhouse, and we kicked their butts up and down the field," Ramsey says of UK's 22-6 victory.

"Penn State was THE turning point," adds Bryant. "They were known for their tough defense and we were determined to push the ball down their throats. It was also a big, big win because it made us 3-1, and Kentucky just never got off to starts like that."

The Cats went on to win their final three conference games — 14-0 over Vanderbilt, 28-9 over No. 15 Florida, and an emotional, thrilling 7-0 victory over Tennessee in Knoxville. Many considered the Tennessee win an upset, particularly since UK had not won in Knoxville since a 12-7 win in 1964. But Ramsey expected the victory.

"I thought we would win every game that year, so I didn't consider that — or any other game for that matter — an upset," Ramsey says. "People considered it an upset mainly because we hadn't beaten them down there in a long time."

Greg Woods heads for the end zone for the only touchdown in Kentucky's 7-0 win over Tennessee in Knoxville in 1976.

The game's lone score came on a 62-yard TD pass from Ramsey to running back Greg Woods in the first quarter. Today, Ramsey laughs while recalling that play.

"Woods had the most awful hands you've seen," he says with a chuckle. "He'd be fifth on my list of people to throw to. But I hit him on a little swing pass out in the flat and he had to jump high to grab it. And once Woods got it, he was gone. He was lightning fast, and no one could catch him."

The victory gave UK a share of the league title and an invitation to meet 19th-ranked North Carolina in the Peach Bowl. The unranked Cats brought 37,000 rabid fans to Atlanta for the contest.

"They said we sold 37,000 tickets to our fans," recalls Bryant. "We could have easily sold out the entire place (54,000), but they had to let North Carolina have some tickets. Our fans were the most amazing thing I've ever experienced in my entire football career."

Behind the blocking of Bryant and a ferocious defense led by Art Still, Jerry Blanton and Mike Martin, the Cats shut down the Tar Heels 21-0. Sophomore running back Rod Stewart scored all three UK touchdowns in the second half, leading Ramsey to joke: "Some called it the Peach Bowl; I call it the Stewart Bowl."

Bryant still gets emotional when recalling his final game at UK.

"It was like playing at home," he says. "And I felt as though we won 42-0, because we had the ball down at the goal line three times in the first half but didn't punch it over. The best thing about the win is that we did it for our fans."

Bryant says his heart is still in Kentucky.

"I had some especially close friends who were like family to me in Lexington," he says. "But I came to realize everyone there is like that. I've told people that if they had the opportunity to spend time in Kentucky they would know this to be true. More than anything else — the Peach Bowl, getting All-America, having my jersey retired — more than any of that I cherish the people the most. I tell everyone that I grew up there. I came in as a kid and left as an adult. I learned a lot from people who really cared about me and loved me."

Bryant says his Kentucky football experience has had a major impact on his success as a professional and in his personal life.

"My only regret after I left Kentucky is that I didn't think we did enough for the fans while we were there," he says. "I always thought we should have won a national championship, and that the fans deserved that kind of team. I really felt like we slighted them. But it made me a fighter. Looking back and knowing what I would have liked to have done has made me better at everything I've done since."
