MEDIA INFORMATION

1988 UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY MEDIA SERVICES

The University of Kentucky Athletics Association is pleased to publish the 1988 UK Football Media Guide. This publication is intended as a primary source of information for members of the media. Please take a moment to review the following procedures which will assist you in covering the '88 Wildcats.

CREDENTIALS

PRESS BOX: Requests for press credentials should be submitted in writing in advance to Joey Howard, Assistant SID, Commonwealth Stadium, University of Kentucky, Lexington, KY 40506. Credentials for working space in the press box and photo passes for the sidelines will be granted to sports editors of Daily newspapers and sports directors of television stations. Because of limited space, requests from radio stations will be granted only to stations in the Lexington area and the two originating broadcast crews. Any other radio station and weekly newspaper request will be honored ONLY from those who will be attending the game in a working capacity and ONLY on a space-available basis.

SIDELINE: Media members with sideline credentials must pick up an armband to be admitted to the Commonwealth Stadium sidelines. Armbands will be available for pickup at the Press Will Call at Gate 7. Just present your sideline credential and an armband will be issued. Photographers are reminded that the University of Kentucky follows NCAA and SEC regulations regarding media members on the sidelines. Photographers are not permitted to enter the bench areas, between the 25-yard lines.

PRESS BOX

The press box is located between the two stadium decks on the West side (Alumni Drive) of Commonwealth Stadium. Members of the media should use Gate 7 (press entrance) to enter the stadium. Two elevators serve the press box. The working area of the press box can accommodate 105 media members, bowl scouts and visiting officials. Both radio booths are located on the press box level. The photo deck, which runs the entire length of the press box, is easily accessible via the press box elevators. A buffet-style meal is served approximately 90 minutes before gametime.

PRESS WILL CALL

Press credentials that have not been mailed can be picked up at the Press Will Call, located at Gate 7 at Commonwealth Stadium. Press Will Call should be open approximately two hours before kickoff and will remain open 15 minutes after kickoff.

PRESS SERVICES

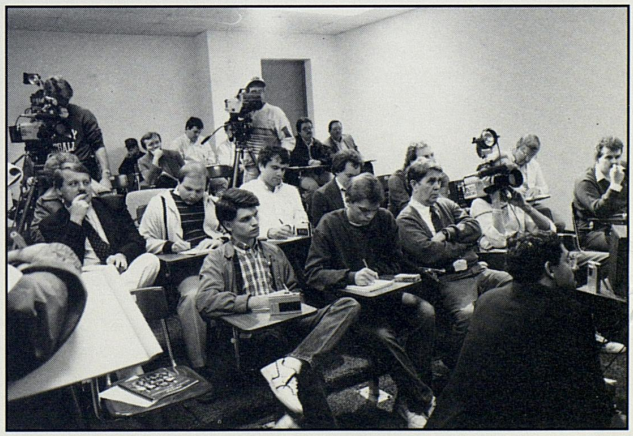

The University of Kentucky Sports Information Office will provide a complete packet of pregame information, including flip card and game program. During the contest, UK will also provide complete play-by-play and statistical reports of the game with coaches' and players' quotes. Several telephones are also provided for the media on a first-come, first-served basis as well as a telecopier service.

PARKING

Media parking is located in the Blue Lot behind the West side (Alumni Drive) of Commonwealth Stadium. Please request your parking credential at the same time you request your game credential. The Blue Lot entrance is located just off Alumni Drive, which is accessible via Tates Creek or Nicholasville Roads.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

After a 10-15 minute cooling off period, the UK locker rooms are open to members of the media and UK head coach Jerry Claiborne will be available for a post-game press conference.

Media attend post-game Jerry Claiborne press conference adjacent to UK dressing rooms

MEDIA INFORMATION

The Kentucky locker rooms (one for offense, one for defense) are located on the East side of Commonwealth Stadium and are connected with the football office complex underneath the East grandstands. Claiborne will conduct his post-game conference in the offensive film room, adjacent to the UK locker rooms. The visiting locker room is located on the West side of Commonwealth Stadium. The visiting coach will conduct his post-game press conference from that area.

TELEPHONES

Several telephones will be available to the media inside the Commonwealth Stadium press box on a credit card or collect basis. These telephones are on a first-come, first-served basis. If you are under deadline restrictions, the UK SID staff strongly suggests ordering your personal telephone line. Members of the media may do so by contacting John Fuller of the University Phone Services at 606-257-7727.

COACH CLAIBORNE WEEKLY PRESS LUNCHEONS

UK head coach Jerry Claiborne will conduct a weekly press luncheon every Tuesday of a game week during the course of the season. The press luncheon will be held at the Wildcat Den (Cooper Drive) inside Commonwealth Stadium. When possible, the opposing head coach will be available via telephone hook-up. Also, 4-8 UK players will be in attendance for interviews. If you would like to request a particular player, please contact the UK Sports Information Office by 1 pm the day before. The luncheons begin at 11:30 am ET.

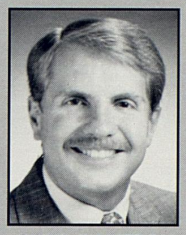

COACH CLAIBORNE INTERVIEWS

UK head coach Jerry Claiborne will be available to the media several times during the course of a week in the 1988 season. On Sundays, following a game, Claiborne will have a short press conference at Commonwealth Stadium at 4:15 p.m. ET. On Tuesdays, Claiborne is available at his press luncheon beginning at 11:30 a.m. ET. Then, on Wednesdays, Claiborne participates in the SEC teleconference at a time to be announced. The best time to reach Claiborne, aside from those slots, are from 11 am to 1 pm on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays during game week. Please call Joey Howard at the SID Office to arrange the interview (606-257-3838).

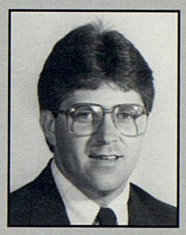

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

ALL player interviews must be coordinated through the UK Sports Information Office with at least a 24-hour notice. No player interviews will be conducted after Wednesday of each game week. We strongly recommend for media members to use the media room at the Nutter Center for one-on-one interviews, before or after practice. In regard to telephone interviews, the player will be asked to return the call to the media member COLLECT at an agreeable time. The Kirwan I dormitory, team locker-rooms and training areas in the Nutter Center, are considered private team areas. These areas are off-limits to members of the media unless accompanied by SID Office personnel.

1988 OUTLOOK

1988 OUTLOOK

1988 KENTUCKY FOOTBALL PROSPECTUS

When the University of Kentucky opens its 98th football season on Sept. 3, against Central Michigan, several question marks will quickly surface surrounding this 1988 Wildcat team.

One question is can head coach Jerry Claiborne find replacements for four, fifth-year offensive linemen that started all 11 games in 1987? Another question is can UK find a replacement for all-time leading scorer and placekicker Joey Worley? And finally, can the Wildcats withstand a murderous schedule which features seven bowl teams from a year ago?

Claiborne hopes to have at least two of the answers prior to making the season-opening appearance against Central Michigan at Commonwealth Stadium. Certainly, Claiborne is quick to point to a stout defensive unit which returns 8 starters and finished 3rd in the Southeastern Conference in total defense (301.2 ypg) during 1987. He is hoping that defense can carry the offense through the early portion of the schedule and buy some time for a very inexperienced offensive line.

And if Claiborne is successful relying on his defensive squad, then his Wildcats have a chance to better their 5-6 mark from a year ago.

OFFENSE

QUARTERBACK

Senior Glenn Fohr (6-2, 214) returns to his familiar place behind center. Fohr played in 9 games during the 1987 season and got the starting nod on 4 occasions. He completed 74 of 163 passes for 973 yards and 6 TDs. Two areas which Fohr and QB coach Jerry Eisaman feel he must improve is completion percentage (.454) and interceptions thrown (8). A more pass-oriented offense, something UK flirted with in the spring, is just what Fohr would like to order. He did wonders at Hudson Valley Community College with the run-and-shoot prior to coming to Kentucky.

Emerging as serious candidates to challenge Fohr during the spring were senior Bill Allen (6-0, 201), junior Chuck Broughton (6-4, 228) and freshman Freddie Maggard (6-2, 220). Allen and Broughton both played in 4 games during the 1987 season, but completed just 1 pass between them. Maggard was redshirted. So aside from Fohr, no other quarterback has starting experience.

RUNNING BACK

In most seasons, the loss of a standout running back like Mark Higgs would be a tremendous blow. All Higgs did a year ago was set a new UK single season rushing record with 1,278 yards and finished 2nd on the career list. But, there is an exception to the rule in 1988.

The exceptions are the return of senior tailback Ivy Joe Hunter (6-0, 218), sophomore Al Baker (5-11, 225) and the addition of junior college tailback Alfred Rawls (5-10, 201). Hunter played in just 10 games last season and was hampered by a knee injury. However, Hunter did rush for 503 yards on 100 carries (5.0 ypc) in 1987 and led UK in rushing a year earlier with 621 yards. If Hunter, who was named 2nd team Preseason All-SEC by the Birmingham Post-Herald, can stay healthy, he can almost carry the Wildcat offense by himself.

Baker, hampered by injuries as well throughout his career, did rush for 107 yards in 1987. He came on to have an outstanding spring and led all rushers in the Bank One Blue-White game with 89 yards on 17 carries. Rawls, a junior college transfer from Northeastern Oklahoma A&M, was impressive in the spring before an ankle injury forced him to the sideline. His blazing 4.4 speed makes him a legitimate breakaway threat any time he touches the football.

At fullback, juniors Andy Murray (6-1, 237) and Darren Bilberry (6-2, 211) return to solidify that position. Murray played in 8 games last year before suffering a season-ending knee injury against Vanderbilt. He had rushed for 181 yards on just 28 carries (6.5 ypc) before the injury. Murray missed all of spring drills, but is expected back at 100 percent when UK opens its fall workouts.

Bilberry played in all 11 games last season and started 5 contests. He finished the season with 37 yards rushing, but his strength is blocking. Against Vanderbilt, Bilberry was credited with 18 knockdown blocks.

Two other candidates may also help in 1988, junior walkon Mike Knox (5-10, 209) and juco transfer Rodney Shepard (6-1, 225).

RECEIVERS

Until the loss of Dee Smith, the Wildcats looked solid at both wide out positions and tight end. After all, Kentucky would return 4 of its top 5 pass catchers from 1987. But that was then and this is now.

The Wildcats will look to 3 solid tight ends in Preseason All-SEC pick Charlie Darrington (6-3, 224), sophomore Mike Meece (6-5, 227) and senior Martin Pennington (6-1, 226). Darrington led UK and all SEC tight ends in receiving last year with 26 receptions for 365 yards and 2 TDs. He averaged 14.0 yards per catch. He is dangerous once he catches the pigskin with his 4.6 speed. Meece came on during the spring and emerged as a serious challenger. All he did was grab 2 passes for 51 yards in the Bank One Blue-White game for 1 TD, including a 42-yard reception. Pennington played in 10 games last season, catching 9 passes for 173 yards and 1 TD. He owned a team-high 19.2 yards per catch average.

At flanker, sophomore Phil Logan (6-2, 203) looks like the ample replacement for Smith. Logan caught only 4 passes for 59 yards (14.8 ypc) in 1987, but possesses big-play ability. Logan will likely return punts as well.

Another possibility at flanker is senior Ray Gover (6-3, 196). Gover had 2 receptions for 32 yards last year, but needs a solid August to seriously push for the starting berth.

Split end features sophomore John Bolden (6-0, 172) and tough-as-nails soph Steve Phillips (6-2, 203). Bolden emerged from the pack toward the latter stages of the spring to win the number 1 spot entering the fall. He did a little of everything last fall, receiving (1 for 14), rushing (3 for 25) and kickoff returns (13 for 216). Phillips missed the entire 1987 season because of a knee injury. He looked impressive at times during the spring catching the football, but his durability is his big question mark.

1988 OUTLOOK

Junior college transfer Alfred Jones (6-5, 190) and the possible move of tailback Tim Smith (6-1, 196) to split end will add quality depth.

OFFENSIVE LINE

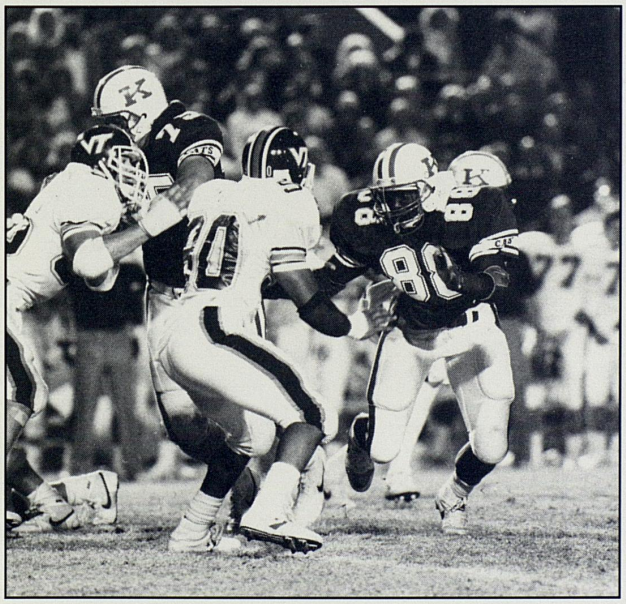

Possibly the biggest question mark surrounding the 1988 Kentucky Wildcats is the development of the offensive line. Only 1 starter returns to the UK offensive interior from a year ago. Dermontti Dawson, Greg Kunkel, Brad Myers and Butch Wilburn started every game last fall but have since graduated.

The lone returnee is Preseason All-SEC tackle Mike Pfeifer (6-7, 290). Pfeifer started all 11 games at left tackle last season and was moved to right tackle during the spring. He is solid, bench pressing 425 pounds, squatting 575 pounds and runs the 40 in 5.0. Pfeifer is an excellent player to build a foundation around.

At left tackle, look for sophomore Mike Nord (6-7, 278) and senior Bo Smith (6-3, 267) to battle it out for the starting spot. Nord and Smith have little experience, but Smith had put himself in position to contribute in 1987 before a stress fracture sidelined him.

At left guard, three candidates are in the running. Sophomore Dean Wilks (6-3, 292), and senior Brian Denham (6-1, 254) all have a shot at starting. Wilks did play in all 11 games and did letter, but it was as a long snapper. Denham is a walkon.

Junior Brian Cralle (6-1, 280) is listed at number 1 at center entering the fall. Cralle has good upper body strength, bench pressing 405 pounds and squatting 575 pounds. He will be pushed by junior David Crane (6-2, 254) and freshman Courtney Longacre (6-2, 235).

TE Charlie Darrington (88) and OT Mike Pfeifer (75) will anchor the Wildcat offensive line in 1988.

Sophomore Bill Hulette (6-2, 255) and freshman Kevin Disotelle (6-3, 255) appear to be the front-runners at right guard. Hulette, who came to UK as a walkon, had the best spring of any of the offensive guards. Disotelle came on as well, after redshirting last season.

Behind Pfeifer at right tackle will be Tom Crumrine (6-4, 276) and Tony Nash (6-5, 274), both juniors.

DEFENSE

DEFENSIVE ENDS

Both starters, senior Jay Dortch (6-1, 212) and junior Tony Massey (6-2, 221), return from 1987 to give the Wildcats a solid, one-two punch at end. Dortch finished 5th on squad a year ago with 71 tackles, including 2 QB sacks and 7 behind-the-line. He is a solid number 1 at right end.

Massey was 9th on the team in tackles last fall with 62, including 4 QB sacks and 7 behind-the-line. Surprisingly, it was Massey who led UK in interceptions with 4 for 69 yards. He returned one of those 38 yards for a TD against Ole Miss. Massey is also solid at left end.

Behind Dortch, sophomore Billy Swanson (6-0, 216) is listed at number 2. Swanson played in 6 games as a true freshman in 1987, making a pair of tackles. He did have a good spring.

On the other side in back of Massey is sophomore Jeff Brady (6-1, 230) and junior Tony Zigman (6-2, 204). Brady moved from linebacker to defensive end during the spring and made a very smooth transition. His 4.5 speed in the 40 will be a huge asset in pass coverage. Brady played in all 11 games last fall and made 10 tackles, mostly on special teams. Zigman also played in all 11 contests and finished with 11 tackles on the season. He will likely be used on special teams again this fall, too.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Replacing All-SEC tackle Jerry Reese is the biggest piece of puzzle Claiborne has to find among his interior defensive line. Claiborne does have 2 of 4 starters returning in the interior unit, plus some talented backups from a year ago.

The best athlete in the bunch is junior left tackle Oliver Barnett (6-3, 285). An all-star candidate, Barnett started all 11 games last season and led UK in QB sacks with 6. He also gobbled up an interception off a tipped pass against Utah State. Barnett bench presses 380 pounds and runs the 40 in 4.9.

Behind Barnett is sophomore Gary Ralston (6-3, 256).

At right tackle, juniors Doug Houser (6-3, 261) and Donnie Gardner (6-4, 236) are engaged in a battle for the starting berth. Houser lettered and played in all 11 games last season at left defensive guard and made 22 tackles, including 2 QB sacks. He switched to tackle in the spring to help alleviate the loss of Reese. Gardner came on strong toward the end of the spring and had a super Bank One Blue-White game with 5 tackles and 3 QB sacks. He also played in all 11 games last season and was credited with 24 tackles.

Right guard will be anchored by all-star candidate Vic Adams (6-1, 269). Adams started 9 games in 1987 and finished the season with 61 tackles, including 1 QB sack. He bench presses 390 pounds and will be a solid roadblock in the middle. Behind Adams is junior Mike Meiners (6-2, 261) who will indeed contribute this fall.

The left guard spot will be manned by redshirt freshman Jerry Bell (6-3, 284) and junior Mike Chism (6-0, 262). Bell received a hardship after suffering a stress fracture early last season. He has ability to dominate the line of scrimmage. Chism came on in the spring and will see action in a relief role in 1988.

LINEBACKERS

This group, from top-to-bottom, may make Kentucky's linebacking corps the strongest position on the team. That is difficult to say, generally, when you lose the squad's leading tackler to graduation in Jeff Kremer (180 tackles in 1987). But, this group may be that talented.

1988 OUTLOOK

Returning at left linebacker is three-year starter Chris Chenault (6-2, 240). Chenault, selected to the Birmingham Post-Herald Preseason All-SEC team, posted a whopping 160 tackles a year ago. Included is a 28-tackle effort and interception against Vanderbilt. He has the tools - bench press of 365 pounds and 40 time of 4.6 - to become a dominating figure in SEC play this fall.

His runningmate at right linebacker is scheduled to be sophomore Randy Holleran (6-1, 233). Holleran appeared in all 11 games, including 1 start against Florida, and was credited with 44 tackles and 2 QB sacks last season. He may be the top "hitter" on this team as well.

Behind Chenault, sophomore Steve Kelley (6-1, 228) and senior walkon Jay Amshoff (6-0, 217) will both see action in the Wildcat 6-linebacker rotation. Kelley managed 13 tackles in 6 games as a true freshman last season, but was hampered by a leg injury. Amshoff appeared mostly on special teams in 9 games, but did record 8 tackles and 1 QB sack.

Backing up Holleran is junior Craig Benzinger (6-0, 221) and freshman Derrick Thomas (6-2, 228). Benzinger missed all of 1987 because of knee surgery, but came back and had a good spring session. He is the strongest player on the Wildcat team, bench pressing 440 pounds. Thomas showed lots of promise in the spring and with more experience, promises to be a good one for LB coach Terry Strock.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Defensive Backfield coach Chip Garber must be smiling when thoughts of 1988 roll around. After all, everyone returns to the Wildcat secondary from last fall.

Overall, the top 5 players in the secondary are back. Included in the list are cornerbacks David Johnson (6-0, 190), Ron Mack (5-10, 188) and Chris Tolbert (5-10, 182) and free safeties Ron Robinson (6-1, 189) and Mark Sellers (6-3, 204).

Johnson will handle the number 1 spot at left cornerback. He is one of the premier corners, though underrated, in the Southeastern Conference. Johnson started all 11 games last fall and finished with 65 tackles, 11 passes broken up, and 1 interception. He will be backed up by freshman Gary Willis (6-0, 172) who redshirted last season.

The other corner features two potential starters in Mack and Tolbert. Mack started all 11 games last fall at right cornerback and had 41 tackles and 2 interceptions. Shoulder surgery kept him out of spring training, but Mack should be at 100 percent when he reports in the fall. Tolbert lettered as a true freshman in 1987, recording 32 tackles in 11 contests. He has the chance to be an outstanding cornerback before his career is through at Kentucky.

At free safety, "hit man" Ron Robinson is the center fielder. Robinson, a Preseason All-SEC selection, played in just 9 games last season because of injuries. He still managed to finish 4th on the squad in tackles with 74 and had 2 interceptions. According to the UK coaching staff, he and LB Randy Holleran, are the 2 hardest "hitters" on the 1988 squad. Behind Robinson is verteran Mark Sellers. Sellers started 4 games and played in 9 before a thigh muscle tear against Vanderbilt sidelined him for the remainder of the season. Before the injury, Sellers was credited with 25 tackles and 2 interceptions. He is also an outstanding special teams player.

KICKING GAME

FIELD GOALS/PATS

Replacing the Kentucky scoring and field goal career record-holder will be no small chore, but that is what Claiborne has to do in 1988. Placekicker Joey Worley is gone as well as his 246 career points and 57 field goals.

His likely replacement is junior Ken Willis (5-11, 184). Willis, also a right-footed soccer-style kicker, handled all kickoffs during the 1987 season but did not attempt a field goal or PAT. He has the range, as evidence by several plus-60 yard field goals during the spring. Accuracy is the concern.

Freshman Scott Gillum (5-8, 145) probably has the best shot of several to backup Willis this fall.

PUNTING

Senior Jay Tesar (6-1, 175) and senior Jeff Nelson (5-10, 165) return from 1987. Tesar handled all of the punting last fall, averaging 39.9 yards on 54 punts. His best asset was hang time and placing the football inside the opponent's 20. Tesar helped Kentucky to the 2nd-best net punting average (37.63) in the SEC a year ago, plus pinned the football inside the 20 a total of 20 times. However, he missed all of spring drills because of knee surgery to his non-punting left knee. Tesar should be at 100 percent by August.

Nelson also missed the spring because of an academic internship. Although he did not punt once in 1987, he did lead Kentucky a year earlier by averaging 40.2 yards on 41 punts.

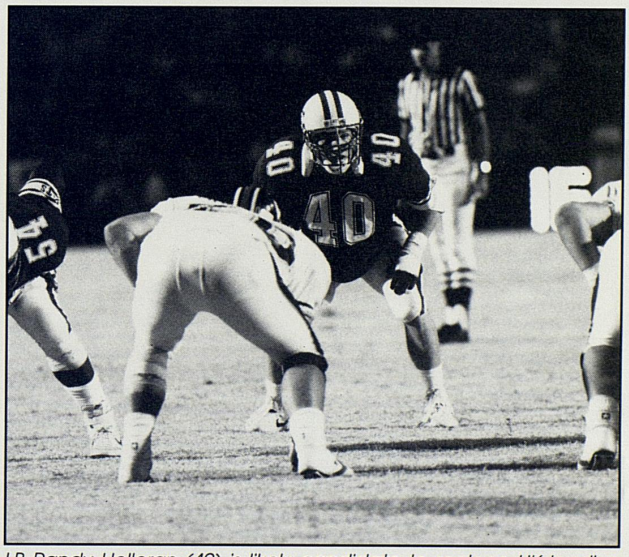

KICK RETURNS

With Dee Smith gone, most of the kick return responsibilities will likely go to John Bolden (6-0, 172) and Phil Logan (6-2, 203).

Bolden returned 13 kickoffs in 1987 for 216 yards (19.6 avg.). His long return was 35 yards in the 34-15 victory over Indiana. He has 4.5 speed in the 40.

Logan will probably double-dip on kickoff and punt returns. In 1987, Logan did return 1 kickoff for 16 yards. He did not return a punt. In the spring, Logan did work on the punt return unit and has the same big-play ability that Smith had.

Another possibility for punt returns is cornerback Chris Tolbert (5-10, 182). Tolbert did a good job handling punts during the spring, plus being a former high school running back, he knows what to do with the football.

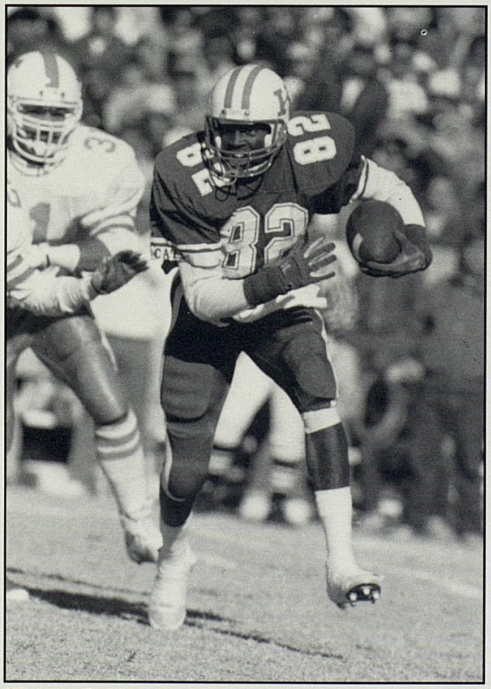

LB Randy Holleran (40) is likely candidate to replace UK leading tackler Jeff Kremer from a year ago.

1988 OUTLOOK

DT Oliver Barnett led UK in sacks with 6 in 1987.

SE John Bolden will also double as a kick returner in 1988.

1988 OUTLOOK

CLAIBORNE TALKS ABOUT 1988 AND UK FOOTBALL

Head coach Jerry Claiborne begins his 7th year at the University of Kentucky. Below, he talks about 1988 and UK football in general.

QUESTION: After going through spring training, what remains your main concern entering the 1988 season?

CLAIBORNE: "The biggest question mark is the offensive line, no doubt. At the end of spring practice, we knew we still had to improve in our offensive line. We only had 1 player who had lettered in the offensive line participate in our spring practice and that was Mike Pfeifer. Mike had a good spring and we think he'll have to really anchor our offensive line. During the spring, we had to go with some players who really had no experience at all. None of those had lettered and the big key for them coming back after the summer months is strength improvement. They must increase their maximums by 20 to 30 pounds over the course of the summer."

QUESTION: Is this the first time in your 26 years as a head coach, that you've had to replace 4 starters in the offensive line?

CLAIBORNE: "Yes, this is really the first time we've had to make that much of an adjustment in there (offensive line). The offensive line is one of the toughest areas to come up with players and the toughest area to teach."

QUESTION: What area will your squad be improved in 1988?

CLAIBORNE: "Our 8 returning starters on defense should be better football players, simply through experience. We lost John Shannon, Jerry Reese and Jeff Kremer off that defense. They were 3 of our leaders and 3 of our better players. If the people who replace them will play up to the capability of those 3, then we certainly should be a stronger defensive team. (Vic) Adams, (Randy) Holleran, and (Ron) Robinson all had outstanding spring practices as did Oliver Barnett. We're hoping Barnett will give us a type of year that Jerry Reese gave us last season."

QUESTION: Does your 1988 squad have any other question marks besides the offensive line?

CLAIBORNE: "Depth. We lack depth in both our offensive and defensive lines, of course, we're hurting for a first team offensive line and the depth behind that team. But, we lack depth in the defensive line positions as well. We've got (Oliver) Barnett, (Vic) Adams, (Doug) Houser and (Donnie) Gardner back and those players are the only lettermen we have in the defensive line."

QUESTION: How are the 1988 Wildcats approaching this season's schedule which includes 7 bowls teams and adds Alabama and Auburn to an already tough Southeastern Conference schedule?

CLAIBORNE: "I think our players know, and certainly our coaching staff knows, that our schedule is probably the toughest that it has been around here in a long time. We'll definitely know something about our football team after the 1st month because after opening up with a fine Central Michigan team, we're then playing 3 bowl teams in our next 4 games in Auburn, Indiana, and Alabama. All 3 of them will probably be ranked in most preseason polls and probably in the Top 10. We understand this as a coaching staff and our players understand this. Hopefully our players would have worked hard during the summer months and report back in great physical condition because we have a real challenge on our hands. But, we're looking forward to it. I know I am, and I hope the rest of the coaching staff and the players are."

QUESTION: Any thoughts lingering about last season's 5-6 team?

CLAIBORNE: "It was one of the most frustrating and dissappointing seasons I've ever been associated with. I really felt like as far as our starting team, not depth-wise but our starting team (offensively, defensively, and kicking game), we had the best personnel and ability that we've had since coming back in 1982. And I definitely felt that our season should have been in the 9-2 or 8-3 category, but it didn't turn out that way because of mental errors and dropped passes at inopportune times prevented us from winning. We've got to get the mental attitude that we're thinking about making the play that wins for us rather than worrying about the play that loses for us."

Claiborne is concerned about losing 4 starters in his offensive line.

QUESTION: Kentucky has led the Southeastern Conference consistently in the last several years in placing people on the All-SEC Academic team. Is placing players on the Academic Honor Roll a high priority at UK?

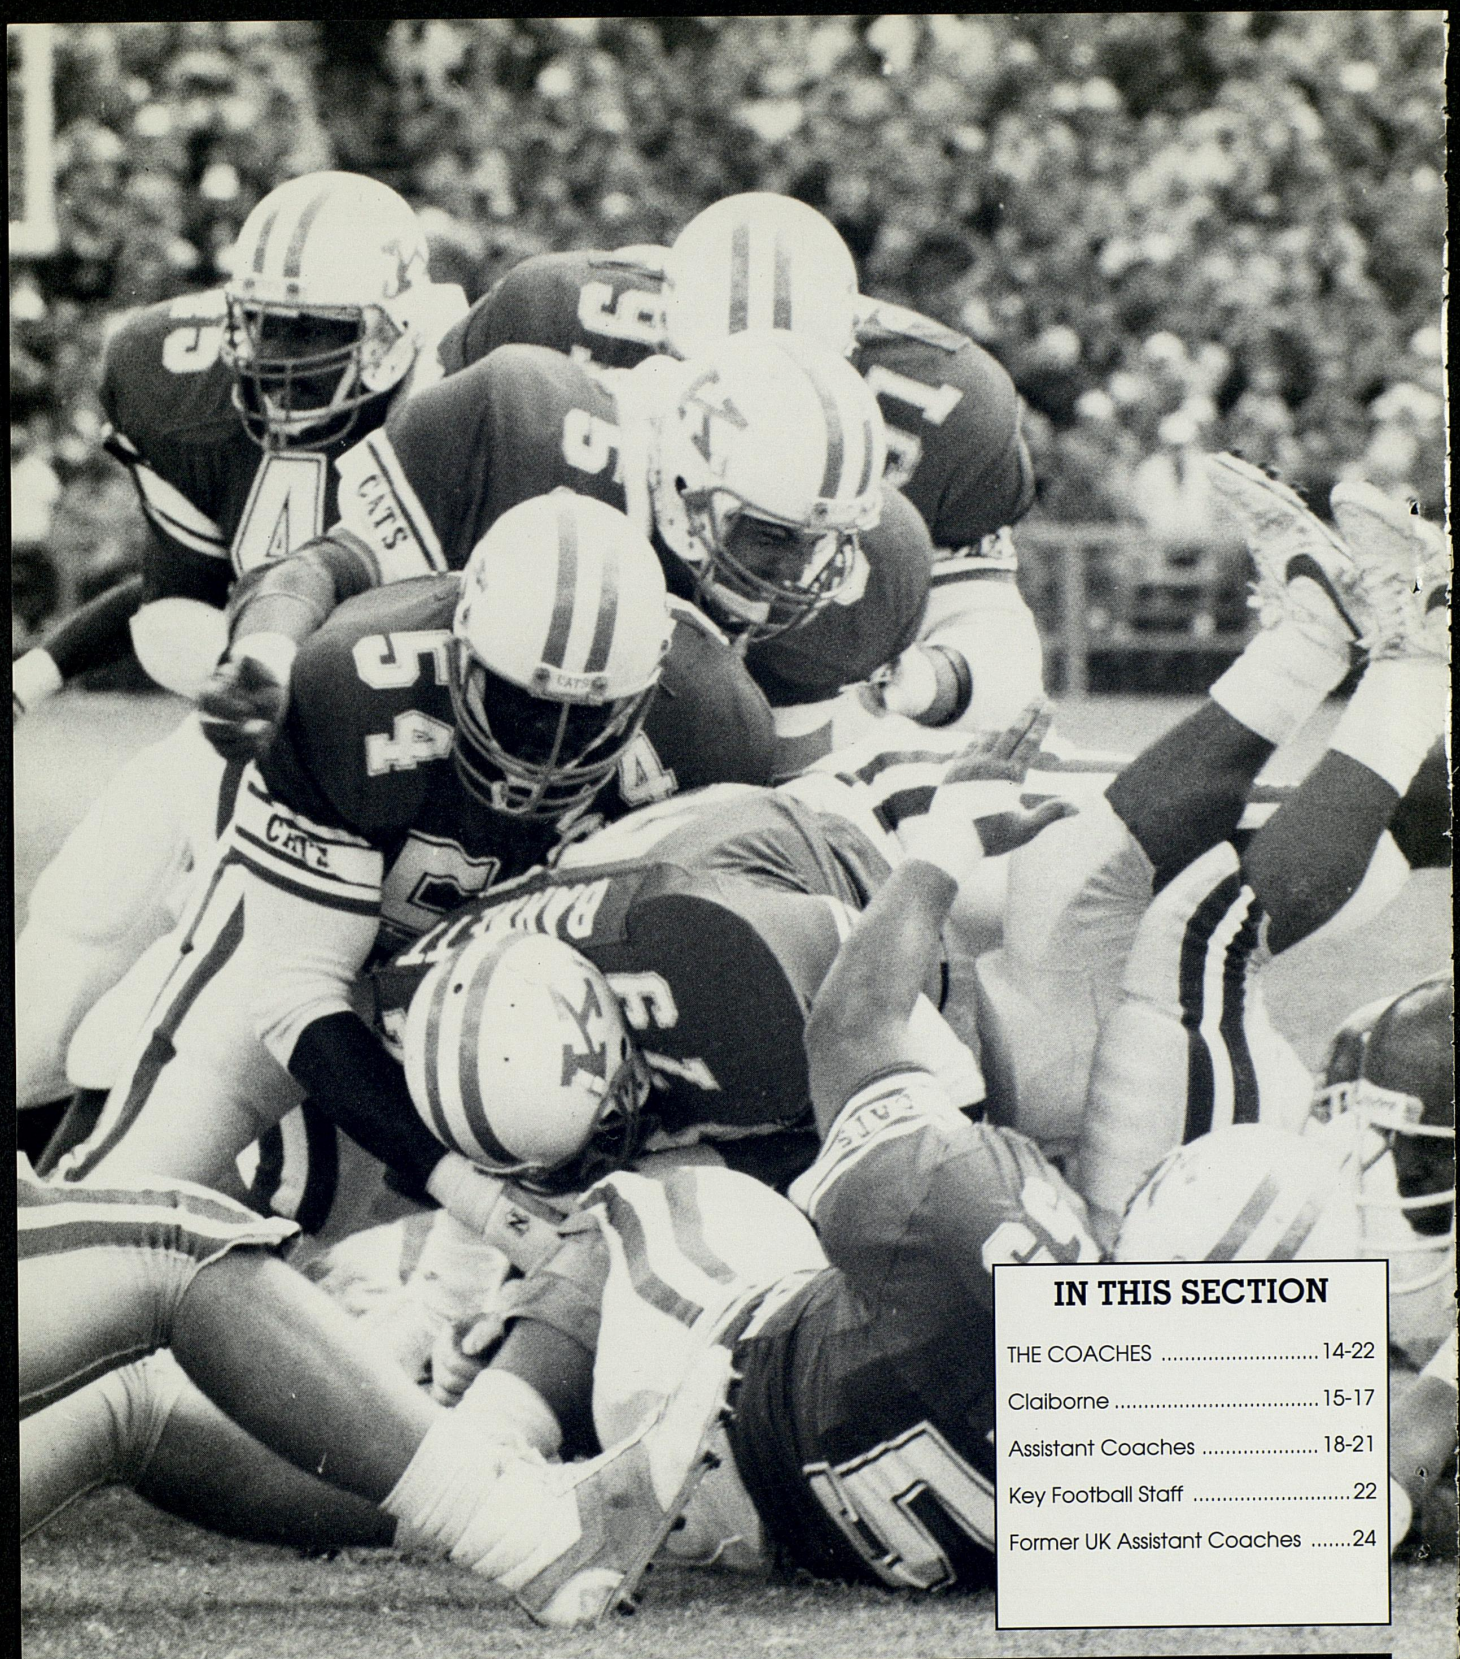

CLAIBORNE: "We're very proud of that fact, but we're not so much as worried about leading the conference in Academic All-SEC selections as we are in making sure our players graduate. In the last CFA survey, we were 1 of 12 schools to have a graduation rate above 70 percent, which was based on the 1982 freshman class. The national graduation rate average of the 56 schools surveyed was 50.3 percent. We graduated 19 of 21 players from that 1982 freshman class which is 90.4 percent. That's a figure we want to continue to keep high."

QUESTION: How much of a factor does the CATS center at UK play in this high graduation rate?

CLAIBORNE: "The CATS center plays a big role. Bob Bradley and his staff do an outstanding job of keeping on top of study hall attendance, class attendance, and progress the players are making during the semester. That way, a youngster doesn't get too far behind before we know something about it to get him some help. Plus, having a centralized place where we know they are getting a certain number of hours of studying in a week, helps out a great deal, too."

QUESTION: Has the new Nutter Training Facility been an influence on your football program?

CLAIBORNE: "The Nutter Center has given our players a feeling of pride when they walk into their meeting rooms or their dressing room. To me for what it was built for, it is as good as any in the United States because of the meeting room and dressing room space. Our weight room is certainly as big as we need and a player can get as strong as he wants to get, if he's willing to work. Also, our training room and rehabilitation area has the most modern equipment available."

JERRY CLAIBORNE
HEAD COACH

To find the true meaning of college athletics, look no further than Jerry Claiborne.

Claiborne, who turns 60 on Aug. 26, begins his 7th season as head football coach at the University of Kentucky in 1988. Overall, Claiborne will enter his 27th campaign as a collegiate head coach.

His players and teams have been successful in both areas - academics and athletics. The reason is simple: Claiborne's ability to instill the equal mix of academics and athletics into his program.

In those 26 years, Claiborne has produced 1 Outland Trophy winner, 1 Lombardi Trophy winner, 13 All-Americans, 4 Academic All-Americans, 50 All-Conference performers, and 76 Academic All-Conference performers. Claiborne has also posted 168 career victories, 3 conference championships, and 11 bowl appearances.

Claiborne, a native of Hopkinsville, currently ranks 5th among active 1-A collegiate coaches in career victories (168). He only trails Bo Schembechler (215) of Michigan, Joe Paterno (207) of Penn State, Vince Dooley (192) of Georgia and Bobby Bowden (174) of Florida State. His overall record is 168-111-8 with a winning percentage of .600.

He began his head coaching career at Virginia Tech in 1961, moved on to Maryland in 1972, then returned to his alma mater, Kentucky, in 1982. Since arriving back in Lexington, Claiborne and his Wildcats have turned out some impressive numbers as well.

Since his first campaign at UK (1982), Claiborne has had 40 players achieve Academic All-Southeastern Conference status, that is more than any other league school during those 6 years. The UK graduation rate for its freshman class of 1982, Claiborne's first class, ranked among the national leaders at 90.5 percent as 19 of 21 players left the University of Kentucky with a degree. The national graduation rate of the 56 schools surveyed was only 50.3 percent.

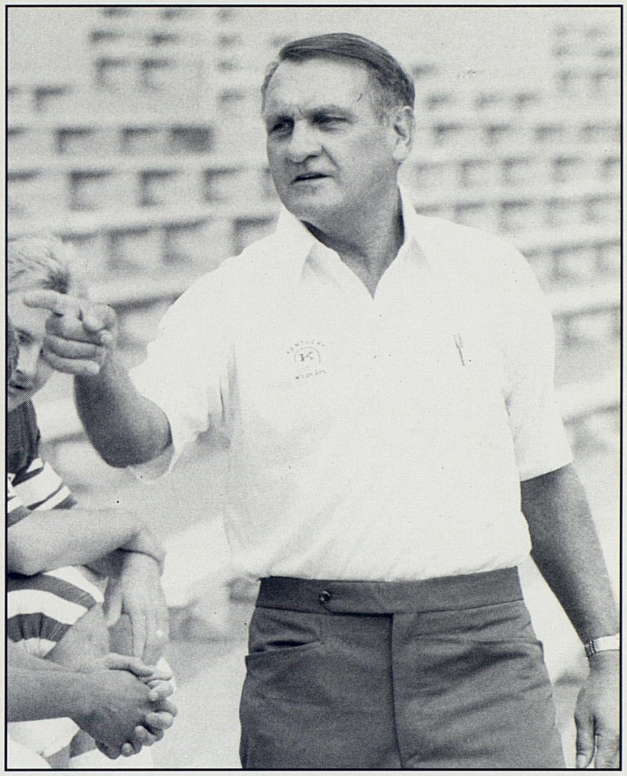

Claiborne has guided the Wildcat football program to 2 bowl games and at least 5 victories in each of the last 5 years. Only Claiborne's former mentor, Paul "Bear" Bryant, has been the only other coach able to do both at Kentucky. Bryant guided UK to 4 of its 7 bowl games and is the only other coach ever to win at least 5 games in 5 consecutive years (1949-53).

Claiborne graduated from Hopkinsville High School in 1946. At Hopkinsville High, he was a 4-sport standout lettering in football, basketball, track and tennis.

His collegiate days followed at the University of Kentucky. Claiborne lettered 3 years (1946, 1948-49) at UK in football and earned 1 letter in tennis. During those 3 years, the Wildcats posted a 21-9-2 record and earned an appearance in the 1950 Orange Bowl. His 9 interceptions during the 1949 season is still a UK record.

Academically, Claiborne accumulated a 2.7 GPA out of a possible 3.0 to graduate with "High Distinction" as a mathematics and physical education major. He was named Outstanding Senior in the College of Education.

After graduation, Claiborne began his coaching career at Augusta Military Academy in Ft. Defiance, Va., as head football and basketball coach. In 2 short years, Claiborne guided each team to a respective state championship.

Claiborne begins his 27th season as a collegiate head coach in 1988.

Bryant then called and Claiborne answered in 1952. Claiborne returned to his alma mater as an assistant coach on Bryant's staff. Kentucky proceeded to post 5-4-2 and 7-2-1 records in 1952 and 1953, respectively.

In 1954, Claiborne moved with Bryant to Texas A&M as defensive coordinator. He helped the Aggies go from a 1-9 record in 1954 to Southwest Conference champions and a 9-0-1 record in 1956.

Claiborne accepted the defensive coordinator job at Missouri in 1957 under Frank Broyles. He remained there one season, helping the Tigers record a 5-4-1 mark and their 1st winning campaign in 4 seasons.

The following year, Claiborne rejoined Bryant at the University of Alabama in time for the 1958 season. Again, Claiborne served as defensive coordinator for teams that posted a 20-7-5 record in three years and appeared in the 1959 Liberty and 1960 Bluebonnet Bowls.

His immediate success at Kentucky, Texas A&M, Missouri, and Alabama prompted Virginia Tech to make him its head football coach in 1961.

Claiborne stayed at Virginia Tech for 10 seasons, leaving after the 1970 season. In that decade, he led the Gobblers to a 61-39-2 record (.608 pct.) and 2 Liberty Bowl (1966, 1968) appearances. His 1963 squad finished 8-2-0 and captured Tech's only Southern Conference football title. He was named the Southern Conference Coach of the Year in 1963 and the District III Coach of the Year in 1966.

Following the 1970 football season, Claiborne left Virginia Tech to accept a job as assistant coach at the University of Colorado under Eddie Crowder. The Buffaloes ended the 1971 year at 10-2, ranked 3rd nationally and defeated Houston in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

Note: Year-by-year totals include bowl results.

Claiborne left Colorado and arrived in College Park, Md., the following year in 1972. He was named head football coach for the Terrapin football program, one which had suffered through 5 head coaches in 16 years previous for a combined 60-100-1 record and no bowls games since 1955.

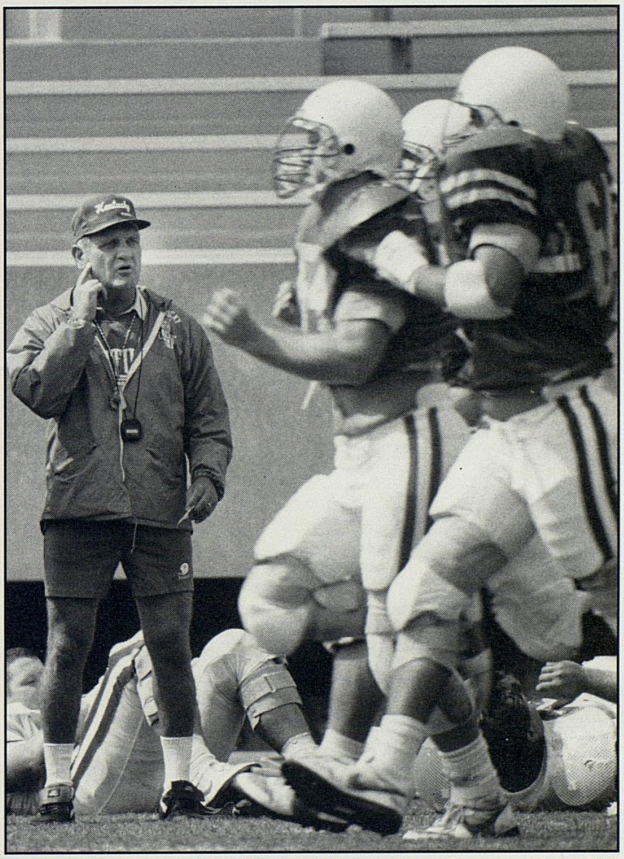

In 10 years, Claiborne had turned the Maryland program into a contender for national honors. His first squad finished at 5-5-1 (1972), but only once in the next 8 years did the Terrapins win fewer than 8 games. In all, Claiborne led Maryland to three Atlantic Coast Conference titles and 7 bowl games, including 6 consecutive trips (1973-78).

He was named the Sporting News National Coach of the Year in 1974 and the ACC Coach of the Year in 1973, 1975 and 1976. Claiborne also tutored All-American defensive player Randy White, who was honored as the Outland and Lombardi Trophy winner in 1974.

Academically, Claiborne's Maryland squads produced 36 Academic All-ACC selections and 4 Academic All-Americas. One of those Academic All-America selections was his son, Jonathan, who started at safety in 1976 and 1977.

Finally, the University of Kentucky called for one of its own to come home. Claiborne accepted the job as head football coach in December of 1981, after a 9-year stint by Fran Curci.

Success did not come quickly at UK, as Claiborne suffered through a rebuilding 0-10-1 year during his initial 1982 campaign against a schedule rated the second-toughest (.643 pct.) in the nation. The 11 UK opponents combined that season to compile a 63-34-5 record.

Claiborne's 168 career wins rank 5th among Division I-A active coaches.

Claiborne's program began to take shape in 1983. Kentucky got off the mat and raced to a 5-1 record before finishing 6-4-1. The turnaround, which tied Memphis State for the nation's most improved football program in '83, caught the eye of the Hall of Fame Bowl and the Wildcats were invited. It was the first time since 1976 that a Kentucky football team had appeared in a bowl. Claiborne was named the Associated Press Co-SEC Coach of the Year.

In 1984, Claiborne and the Wildcats ended the regular season 8-3 and thus earned a return-visit to the Hall of Fame Bowl. A thrilling 20-19 victory over Wisconsin in the Hall of Fame Bowl gave UK a 9-3 record and a final ranking of 19th nationally.

Since then, Kentucky has put together a string of 5-6, 5-5-1, and 5-6 records during the last 3 seasons. Take away his first year at UK and the 0-10-1 record during the rebuilding process, and Claiborne has posted a 30-25-2 record during the last 5 years.

In all, Claiborne has produced 14 All-Southeastern Conference performers, 1 Academic All-American, and 40 Academic All-SEC honorees since coming to Kentucky in 1982.

Claiborne is married to the former Fay Hooks of Hopkinsville, who is also a University of Kentucky graduate. They have 4 children - David, Jonathan, Mrs. Katie Newell, and Eileen.

THE COACHES

KENTUCKY ASSISTANT COACHES

JERRY EISAMAN
QUARTERBACKS

Jerry Eisaman begins his 7th season as an assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky in 1988. Overall, this begins his 23rd year as a collegiate assistant coach.

Eisaman, 52, came to Kentucky in 1982 when head coach Jerry Claiborne took over. Eisaman was the quarterback coach for Claiborne at the University of Maryland for 10 seasons prior to coming back to his alma mater, UK.

His main responsibilities at Kentucky are handling the Wildcat quarterbacks and coordinating the offensive play-calling on game days from the press box.

Eisaman, a native of Bethel Park, Pa., is a 1961 graduate of the University of Kentucky. He played quarterback and safety for the Wildcats under head coach Blanton Collier and lettered 3 years (1958-60). Career-wise, Eisaman completed 94 of 191 passes for 1,308 yards and 13 TDs.

He was co-captain for the Wildcat 1960 squad and played in the Blue-Gray game. Eisaman also was awarded the Sam Huey Award, an honor which went to the UK football player who maintained the highest academic average for four years.

In high school, Eisaman graduated from Bethel Park High in 1956. He lettered 3 years in football and was an honorable mention All-State pick. Eisaman also lettered 2 years in basketball and was named permanent team captain for both football and basketball.

After graduation from UK, Eisaman served as an officer in the Army. There, he coached the First Cavalry Division to the Far East Championship. He also coached the Fort Knox Tankers while in the service.

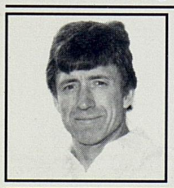

Eisaman officially began his coaching career as an assistant at Seneca High School in Louisville in 1965. Shortly after, Eisaman joined Claiborne for the first time on his Virginia Tech staff in 1966. At Virginia Tech, Eisaman was the offensive backfield and receivers coach for 3 years.

From there, he took over offensive coordinator duties at the University of Cincinnati in 1969. Eisaman spent 3 years with the Bearcats before rejoining Claiborne at Maryland in 1972. He remained with the Terrapins for the next 10 seasons.

Eisaman moved with Claiborne to Kentucky in 1982. He has been with Claiborne a total of 19 years before the 1988 season.

Eisaman has coached several quarterbacks who have reached the National Football League. At Cincinnati, he coached Al Johnson (Houston Oilers). At Maryland, Eisaman sent 3 players to the NFL - Bob Avellini (Chicago Bears), Mark Manges (St. Louis Cardinals), and Boomer Esiason (Cincinnati Bengals). While at Kentucky, Eisaman coached the Wildcat career passing leader Bill Ransdell (Tampa Bay Buccaneers).

Eisaman is single.

PAT ETCHEBERRY
STRENGTH COACH

Pat Etcheberry begins his 20th year at the University of Kentucky, his 15th year as strength coach.

Etcheberry, a native of Santiago, Chile, began his coaching career in 1968 as graduate assistant track coach at Kentucky. He was hired as a part-time assistant track coach in 1969 and added the title of strength coach, also on a part-time basis, in 1973. In 1978, Etcheberry was named UK's head track (men and women) coach and head strength coach. He relinquished his track duties in 1984.

As a collegian, Etcheberry lettered in track and field at the University of Kentucky from 1963-66. At UK, Etcheberry cap tured the 1966 Southeastern Conference championship in the javelin. He earned a B.S. degree in physical education from UK in 1968 and owns a master's degree in secondary education from Georgetown College (1976).

Etcheberry represented his home country (Chile) in several international athletic events. Etcheberry participated for Chile in the 1964 Olympics in Tokyo. He also threw the javelin in the South American Games (1963, 1965, 1967) and the Pan American Games (1967, 1971). He set a South American Games record in the javelin with a throw of 260-4.

Currently, Etcheberry supervises the total UK strength and conditioning program. His office is located in the Nutter Center weight room, which consists of 9,000 square feet and 100,000 pounds of strength equipment.

CHIP GARBER
DEFENSIVE BACKS

Chip Garber begins his 7th season as an assistant football coach. Garber is beginning his 9th season as a collegiate assistant coach.

Garber, 33, came to the University of Kentucky when head coach Jerry Claiborne arrived in 1982. Garber had previously worked as an assistant coach at Southern Methodist University for 2 years prior to coming to UK.

His main responsibility this season is coaching the Wildcats' defensive secondary.

Garber, a native of Winchester, Va., earned a B.A. degree in communications from the University of Maryland in 1978. While at Maryland, Garber lettered 3 years in football as a defensive end and 1 year in track, specializing in the pole vault. As a freshman, he finished 3rd in the Atlantic Coast Conference Outdoor championships in the pole vault.

He graduated in 1973 from Hadley High School in Winchester, Va. He lettered 2 years in football and basketball and 3 years in track. As a quarterback-defensive back, Garber earned All-Area and All-District honors. He finished as state runner-up in the pole vault.

Garber stayed in collegiate athletics after graduating from Maryland. He was named group sales director in the promotions office at Southern Methodist University in 1978. After two years in that capacity, Garber moved back to the gridiron as an assistant coach at SMU. He handled defensive ends and backs for 2 years, beginning in 1980.

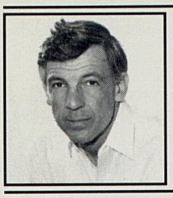

After the two years at SMU, Garber accepted a similar position with Kentucky in 1982.

Garber has coached 1 All-Conference player since coming to Kentucky. Free safety Paul Calhoun earned first team All-Southeastern Conference honors in 1984 under the direction of Garber.

He has been associated with Claiborne for 10 years entering 1988, 4 as a player at Maryland and 6 as an assistant coach at Kentucky.

Garber is married to the former Linda Grindle of Plano, Texas. They have 2 children - Rusty, 2, and Lori Beth, 2 months.

THE COACHES

BILL GLASER
DEFENSIVE GUARDS

Bill Glaser begins his 12th year as an assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. Overall, Glaser is entering his 13th season as a collegiate assistant football coach.

Glaser, 45, came to the University of Kentucky in 1977 from Morehead State University. He was the only full-time coach from the Fran Curci staff that was retained by UK head coach Jerry Claiborne when he arrived in 1982.

His main responsibility during the 1988 season is coaching the Wildcat defensive guards.

Glaser, a native of Louisville, graduated in 1965 from Bellarmine College in Louisville. He did participate in baseball while working on his undergraduate degree.

He attended St. Xavier High School and graduated in 1961. While at St. Xavier, Glaser lettered 3 years as an offensive guard and linebacker.

Glaser began his coaching career at his alma mater, St. Xavier, in 1965. He began as an assistant football coach and assistant baseball coach. In 1970, he took over as head baseball coach and in 4 years, compiled a 112-48-0 record. Glaser was named head football coach in 1974 and promptly led St. Xavier to back-to-back state championships and a sparkling, two-year record of 25-0-0.

In 1976, Glaser moved to the collegiate level and was named defensive coordinator at Morehead State University. The following year, he joined Fran Curci's staff at Kentucky as the Wildcats rolled to an impressive 10-1 season. Glaser was responsible for the defensive line under Curci.

When Curci and his staff left after the 1981 season, Glaser was retained at UK by Claiborne. He has been responsible for the UK defensive guards since Claiborne arrived.

He is married to the former Mary Ann Jensen of Louisville. They have 3 children – Angie, 21, David, 20, and Clare, 8. Angie is a student at the University of Kentucky and works on the UK equipment staff for football. David attends Lexington Community College.

JAKE HALLUM
OFFENSIVE GUARDS

Jake Hallum begins his 7th season as an assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. Overall, Hallum enters his 21st season as a coach on the collegiate level.

Hallum, 49, came to the University of Kentucky in 1982 when head coach Jerry Claiborne arrived. He was on the University of Maryland staff as offensive line coach for Claiborne prior to coming to UK.

His main responsibility in 1988 is coaching the offensive guards.

Hallum, a native of Pickens, S.C., earned a B.S. degree from Newberry (S.C.) College in 1960. He lettered 2 years at Newberry as an offensive guard and linebacker. Hallum was awarded the game ball for his performance against East Carolina as a senior.

He attended Pickens High School and graduated in 1956. There, Hallum lettered 4 years in football and baseball, and 3 years in basketball. In football, he was named the squad's most valuable player and a two-time All-Conference pick. He was a member of the North All-Star team in the 1956 Shrine Bowl.

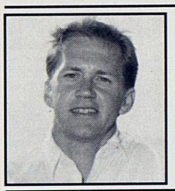

Hallum coached in the prep ranks for 8 years before moving on to collegiate athletics. He began his coaching career in 1960 as an assistant football and head baseball coach at his alma mater, Pickens High. After 2 years, Hallum moved to Hopkinsville (Ky.) High School in the same capacity in 1962. Then after 4 years at Hopkinsville, he took his first head coaching job at Ashland (Ky.) Blazer High, in both football and track in 1966.

In 2 years, Hallum posted an impressive 20-6 record at Ashland Blazer. After the 1967 season, Hallum accepted an assistant coach position at Morehead State University. Two months after accepting the job in April, Hallum was elevated to head football coach at Morehead State. He remained at that post for four years and owned an overall record of 22-17-1.

Hallum left Morehead State to become an assistant coach on Claiborne's staff at Maryland in 1972. He remained at Maryland for 10 seasons, then moved with Claiborne to Kentucky in 1982. In all, Hallum has been associated with Claiborne in a coaching capacity for 16 years entering the 1988 season.

Hallum has coached 6 players who have been named to respective All-Conference teams. At Maryland, guards Bart Purvis, Ed Fulton and Ron Solt made the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team as well as center Ron Kecman, and tackle Stan Rogers. At Kentucky, Hallum coached second team All-SEC guard Dermontti Dawson.

1987 IN REVIEW

KENTUCKY OPENS IN GRAND FASHION, 41-0

By John Clay
Herald-Leader Staff Writer

LEXINGTON, Ky. – Let's see. There were long passes and a longer punt return and a near coast-to-coast run. There was an amazing halftime score and an astounding point total, as in zero. And, oh yes, an early shower.

And who knows what all else happened at Commonwealth Stadium as the Kentucky Wildcats celebrated the opening of their 1987 football season with, well, a celebration.

"I had a sense we were gonna have fun," said defensive tackle Jerry Reese. "But I didn't know we were gonna have this much fun."

Fun? This was four quarters of near glee. This was Mark Higgs rushing for 158 yards on 11 carries, including an 85-yard, flash-from-the-past touchdown run. This was Dee Smith scoring on a 64-yard punt return. This was Joey Worley becoming the school's career scoring leader. This was 530 yards of total offense - with zero turnovers - and a defense that recorded five sacks, intercepted two passes and never allowed the visitors inside the UK 46.

This was Kentucky 41, Utah State 0.

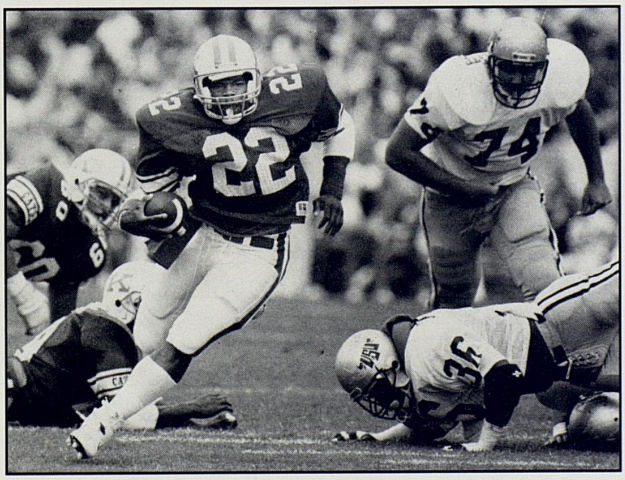

"This", said linebacker Jeff Kremer, "is the way the game is supposed to be played."

Just as this was the way the Wildcats, well aware of past openers that led to empty endings, wanted to win. History told them so. In '84, they opened with a 42-0 win over Kent State and went 9-3. In '85, they were stung by Bowling Green and wound up 5-6. Last year they let Rutgers escape with a tie and finished 5-5-1.

"We knew (yesterday) was gonna set the tempo for the rest of the season," said defensive back David Johnson.

"Our goal was to win the opener," said offensive tackle Mike Pfeifer. "That was the first goal we set in the first meeting we had."

They added others: more big plays, fewer mistakes, hard work brings good luck. They even got an emotional boost Monday when the team finally moved into the new $6 million E.J.Nutter Training Facility. "The new feeling in the new building," Kremer called it.

TB Mark Higgs begins his 85-yard TD run, third longest in UK history.

Yet the feeling in the locker room was decidedly different. "Everybody," said Johnson, "was kind of low key, kind of mellow and just really thinking about what they had to do. And we went out there and did it."

Nearly from the coin toss. Second play Kevin Dooley, the senior quarterback, hit Smith, the fleet wide receiver, for a 50-yard gain. That's 17 yards longer than any quarterback-to-wideout connection last season. The Cats failed to score but the stage was set. "That really calmed me down," Dooley said, making just his fourth career start. "I started thinking this isn't that hard."

Then Higgs took off. Starting at the 15, he broke up the middle, veered to the right sideline and kicked past the remaining defender inside the final 10, bettering his 84-yard touchdown run as a freshman, to put the Cats up 7-0 and startle the crowd of 55,279 into a frenzy.

"That was a tremendous blow to us," said Utah State coach Chuck Shelton. "We didn't make anything big happen, and they did."

...The Cats kept going, marching 69 yards in 10 plays to go up 14-0. The key was a 21-yard Dooley pass to tight end Charlie Darrington that took the ball to the 28. Higgs carried to the 17, then to the 6, where Dee Smith, on the business end of a full-house backfield, got his first score.

Twenty seconds into the second quarter, Smith got No.2. Taking an Aggie punt on his own 36, the sophomore swooped left, moved to the middle and churned home for UK's first touchdown off a punt return since Brian Williams' 57-yarder in 1985. "I caught it and I looked up and they were setting the wall up," said Smith. "I just took the ball and did the best I could do with it."

Worley's point-after-touchdown made it 21-0 and made the senior the school's all-time scoring leader. Worley kicked two field goals and five extra points in the game, bringing his career total to 189, passing Bob Davis' 180 points for 1935-37.

Another 69-yard march and it was 28-zip. Two big plays again kept the Cats driving, Dooley hitting Tim Jones for 30 yards, then Darrington for 24. Higgs rumbled in from the 13 and the lead was four touchdowns.

And counting. Suddenly, the defense wanted in on the act. Tackle Oliver Barnett, a close companion of Aggie quarterback Brent Snyder most of the day, this time stayed back, got his hands on a Snyder pass and snatched his own deflection at the Utah State 20. First play, Ivy Joe Hunter followed the right sideline to the end zone and it was 35-0 Kentucky with 4:41 to go in the first half.

"I thought the first half we played very, very well," said Coach Jerry Claiborne. "We probably had more big plays in the first half than we've had in two years."

KENTUCKY-UTAH STATE NOTES...
 Mark Higgs' 85-yard touchdown run was the third-longest scoring run in UK history. The 85-yarder was also the fourth longest run from scrimmage in UK history.

1987 IN REVIEW

 Kentucky improved its record 69-24-5 in season-opening games.

 Of the 69 season-opening wins, 36 have been shutouts.

 Higgs rushed for a career-high 158 yards vs. Utah State, some 30 yards better than his old mark of 128 against Vanderbilt during the 1984 season.

 Joey Worley became the UK's all-time leading scorer on his third PAT attempt. Worley, now with 189 career points, broke the old record of 180 held by Bob Davis (1935-37).

 The last time UK recorded a shutout on opening day was Sept. 8, 1984 when the Cats blanked Kent State, 42-0.

 Dee Smith's 64-yard punt return was the first TD punt return by a Wildcat since Brian Williams returned a punt 57 yards for a score against Clemson on Oct. 5, 1985.

Placekicker Joey Worley broke the UK career scoring record with this second quarter PAT.

The Wildcat offense helps Dee Smith celebrate his first quarter 6-yard TD run to put UK up 14-0.

WILDCATS SHOCK INDIANA, 34-15

By Larry Vaught
The Kentucky Advocate Asst. Sports Editor

LEXINGTON - Indiana was supposed to provide Kentucky with its first major test of the season.

Instead, Kentucky's defense dominated the Hoosiers and the Wildcats again cranked up the offense in a 34-15 victory at Commonwealth Stadium.

Indiana and Kentucky entered the game ranked first and second, respectively, in total offense. The Wildcats kept their offense rolling but the UK defense limited IU to just 232 yards, including just 130 in the first three quarters.

"We got outplayed," said IU Coach Bill Mallory. "We had our butts kicked. They played a good football game and we didn't. Kentucky came after us defensively, and they controlled the line of scrimmage much better than I thought they could."

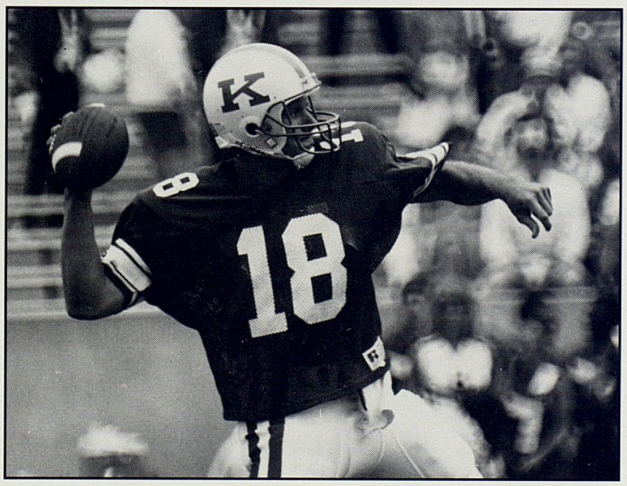

Kentucky had dominated Utah State in its 41-0 season-opening win. The Wildcats, though, knew they had to beat Indiana to prove they were for real this season.

All Kentucky did was limit IU to 35 net yards rushing and hold tailback Anthony Thompson, who had rushed for over 100 yards in six straight games, to 44 yards. IU starting quarterback Dave Schnell, 12 of 16 for 224 yards in Indiana's win over Rice, was lifted after completing just 7 of 15 tosses.

Kentucky's offense amassed 428 total yards. Tailbacks Ivy Joe Hunter and Mark Higgs rushed for 100 and 86 yards, respectively. Hunter, who carried 16 times, reached the 100-yard mark for the third time at UK.

Senior quarterback Kevin Dooley also did his part by completing 13 of 15 passes for 166 yards.

"This was just a great win," said offensive tackle Greg Kunkel. "We proved today we could play with the so-called big boys. Indiana is from the Big Ten and they think they play the best football. We think the SEC is the best and we proved it." Kentucky jumped in front 10-0 on a 23-yard field goal by Joey Worley and a two-yard plunge by Higgs, who now needs just 142 more rushing yards to become only the third Wildcat to reach 2,000 yards.

QB Kevin Dooley was brilliant hitting 13 of 15 passes for 166 yards and 1 TD.

Indiana, though, got back in the game when Ernie Jones took a short pass from Schnell and turned it into a 66-yard scoring play only 28 seconds after Higgs' score.

Kentucky responded by driving 50 yards in five plays to score when flanker Dee Smith tallied on a 24-yard reverse with 12:15 left in the first half.

"We just put that play in Thursday," said Smith. "It was a great call and I got some great blocking."

Kentucky's defense, however, secured the win later in the quarter. Higgs took a short pass from Dooley but fumbled at his own eight and IU recovered.

The Hoosiers couldn't score. On fourth down at the one, Schnell fumbled the snap from center and was stopped for no gain. "We just fouled up on the fourth down play," said Mallory. "That's the way we were today. If I had it to do over, I would still try for the touchdown because we needed the touchdown."

Kentucky's defense knew that, too. "When Higgs fumbled, we told him not to worry," said junior linebacker Chris Chenault. "We knew we could stop them and we did."

"That's what a coach dreams of," said Claiborne, who again was drenched with a cooler of water after the win, when asked about the goal line stand. "To be an outstanding team, you've got to make goal line stands when a break goes against you. Today we did that."

Kentucky's offense took over again in the third quarter. Dooley lofted a perfect 23-yard touchdown strike to Tim Jones after Ron Mack intercepted a Schnell pass.

On the next series, Uk lost a touchdown when Hunter's 52-yard run with a screen pass was nullified with a penalty. Still, Kentucky made sure it took advantage of the field position defensive end Tony Massey had given it with his interception when Worley booted a 22-yard field goal for a 27-7 lead.

Smith capped an 82-yard scoring drive in period four when he scored on an eight-yard sweep with 6:40 to play. Indiana answered with a score against Kentucky's second defense when backup quar-terback Dave Kramme threw 10 yards to Jones with 3:13 to play. "We beat a good football team today," said Claiborne, who has UK off to its first 2-0 start since 1984. "We played very, very good in the first half and we stayed a step ahead of them most of the day. This was a big win."

KENTUCKY-INDIANA NOTES...

 The crowd of 57,924 was the ninth largest crowd in Commonwealth Stadium history.

 The 2-0 start by Kentucky was its best since the 1984 season when the Wildcats beat Kent State 42-0 and Indiana 48-14.

 Quarterback Kevin Dooley completed 13 of 15 passes for a completion percentage of .867, second highest in a single game in UK history.

1987 IN REVIEW

 Tailback Ivy Joe Hunter, who rushed for 100 yards in 16 carries, reached the 100-yard mark for the third time in his career.

 Kentucky improved its record to 3-5-1 vs. Indiana in games played at Lexington.

 Indiana entered the contest ranked number one, nationally, in total offense with a 539.0 yard average. Kentucky entered ranked number two, nationally, with a game average of 530.0 yards.

 With the win, Kentucky extended its win streak to three games over the Hoosiers. UK defeated IU in 1983 (24-13), in 1984 (48-14), and in 1987 (34-15).

RUTGERS HOLDS OFF CATS, 19-18

By Scott Fowler
Courier-Journal Staff Writer

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — A fired-up Rutgers football team took it to Kentucky in the first half, then held off a determined UK effort in the second 30 minutes to post a thrilling 19-18 victory at Giants Stadium.

Rutgers flanker Brian Cobb broke a 94-yard kickoff return and caught a key third-down pass to keep the ball out of Kentucky's hands late to help the Scarlet Knights upset UK.

Kentucky safety Mark Sellers also didn't help UK's last hopes, denying the Wildcats a final chance for the ball when he roughed kicker Carmen Sclafani while he was attempting a 26-yard field goal with 1:08 left.

The penalty allowed Rutgers, which tied UK 16-16 last season in Commonwealth Stadium, to run out the clock with three plays and pull the rug out from under the Wildcats again.

The Wildcats dropped to 2-1 with the loss, while Rutgers improved to 2-1.

"We just didn't play with the aggressiveness and enthusiasm we did in our first two games," UK coach Jerry Claiborne said. "We came out flat. We made too many mistakes. Rutgers was very well prepared."

Joe Worley hit a 37-yard field goal with 6:42 left to pull UK within a point in the tense game played before 21,232 fans at Giants Stadium in the Meadowlands. But the Wildcats never got the ball back again.

UK had its chances before the fourth quarter. Down 12-7 at halftime, UK dominated the third quarter but still entered the fourth on the short end. The reason: Cobb's electrifying 94-yard kickoff return. Only Ken Willis' tackle saved a TD, as he knocked Cobb out at the UK four-yard line. One play later, Dwight Giles swept in on a reverse. Sclafani's extra point gave Rutgers a 19-15 lead.

The Wildcats had taken the opening kickoff of the second half and driven to the Rutgers seven, only to be stopped on a fourth-and-one when Mark Higgs' dive was short. Then on UK's next possession, it drove 64 yards in 13 plays and took the lead when Kevin Dooley hit Charlie Darrington with a 10-yard TD pass.

That TD gave UK a 13-12 lead, and when Dooley hit Dee Smith for the two-point conversion, some might have thought the favored Wildcats were taking control.

But Cobb made sure the lead was short-lived, as the Knights kept providing an answering score whenever UK threatened, despite an offense that had only scored 13 points in two games.

UK came into the game unsure of the attack the Scarlet Knights would use. Rutgers had concentrated on the run in a 10-7 victory over Cincinnati, then thrown more than 60 percent of the time in a 20-3 loss to Syracuse.

The defensive unit, which entered the game second in the nation in total defense and left nowhere near that high, stayed confused during Rutgers opening drive.

The Knights came out using both the run and pass effectively and shredding UK's defense. On the game's first play, Rutgers blitzed UK as quarterback Scott Erney drill Cobb with a 21-yard strike. Then tailback Henry Henderson, who had burned Cincinnati for 199 yards, ran 13 yards through a gaping hole.

One play later, Erney dropped back and found a wide-open Eric Young at UK's 20. Young ran untouched into the endzone on the blown coverage. With many fans still trying to find their seats among the thousands of empty ones, Rutgers had already scored.

....Relying primarily on the run, Rutgers ground out a 16-play, 71-yard drive that consumed six and a half minutes. UK finally toughened at its own 10, forcing Sclafani to come on and kick a 28-yard field goal that gave Rutgers a 9-0 lead.

UK got something going late in the second quarter, when Dooley ineffective passing, began scrambling for yardage. He ran three times for first downs during key situations, and along with a 24-yard Ivy Joe Hunter run, that was what the Wildcats needed to break into the scoring column.

Dooley's most spectacular run was his six-yard plunge for the TD in which he broke four tackles and dove into the end zone. Worley's point-after kick made it 9-7 with 2:15 left in the half.

Rutgers immediately came back, as Cobb took the kickoff 38 yards and Erney completed a 28-yard strike to Tyrone McQueen. That put the ball on the UK 29, and Sclafani hit a 46-yard field goal after three more Knight plays netted no yardage to give Rutgers a 12-7 lead at halftime.

KENTUCKY-RUTGERS NOTES.....

 This was the first Kentucky-Rutgers contest played away from Commonwealth Stadium. UK had won the first meeting at Lexington in 1984 (27-14) and tied Rutgers in 1986 at Lexington (16-16).

Wildcats Ray Gover and David Johnson (24) rough up Scarlet Knight return man Derek Baker on this second quarter punt.

1987 IN REVIEW

 With the loss, UK coach Jerry Claiborne is 1-1-1 vs. Rutgers.

 In all three UK-Rutgers meetings, the Wildcats have still never led at halftime.

 UK tailback Mark Higgs, who had averaged 96.5 yards in two outings against Rutgers, was limited to just 77 yards in 16 carries.

 In the Jerry Claiborne era, Kentucky has only lost three times when it has rushed for 150 yards-or-more. This was one of those three losses as the Wildcats rushed for 257 yards.

 This was the Wildcats' first of three contests in 1987 on artificial turf.

 Giants Stadium, which lists its seating capacity at 76,000, seemed like an empty stadium when Kentucky and Rutgers met. Only 21,232 were in attendance with more than 54,000 empty seats. Kentucky was well represented with an entourage of approximately 3,500 UK supporters in attendance.

HIGGS AND CO. BLANKS OHIO, 28-0

By Jim Easterwood
The Cats' Pause

LEXINGTON, Ky. — Unlike the legendary Tom Dooley, the University of Kentucky Wildcats refused to hang down their heads and die when their own Dooley was knocked out of Saturday's game with Ohio University.

At first the Cats wanted to get mad when quarterback Kevin Dooley, their leader, was crushed in a brutal tackle by linebacker Doug Mangen.

But Cat tailback Mark Higgs wouldn't let them. Instead he talked his teammates into getting even.

"When Kevin went down, it made me mad," said Higgs. "I knew he was hurt bad because I heard him holler. And Kevin can take some hits. Everybody was ready to fight but I told them to relax. It was then we started moving the ball."

And move the ball the Cats did. Like, say, 400 yards on the ground and 142 in the air enroute to a 28-0 whitewash of the Bobcats from Athens, Ohio.

But, until the smooth quarterback went down with six minutes left in the first quarter, the Cats were going nowhere. However, when Dooley came out with a bruised kidney, it gave the Kentucky offensive coaches an opportunity to call "Fohr" - Glenn Fohr, the junior backup from Phillipsburg, N.J.

Fohr was equal to the task. Not brilliant. Not even steady. Erratic might be a better word for a player who had taken few snaps in the previous three games.

But Fohr did have one thing going for him. He had the confidence of the players.

Fohr ripped off a five-yard gain on his first play - a busted pass call - after Dooley's injury, and then missed a wide-open Martin Pennington on a play the Bobcats received a penalty for defensive holding. It gave the Cats a first down at their own 44.

Fohr, a shade quicker than Dooley, continued a rather inauspicious start by fumbling the next snap from center. But he seemed to gain confidence when he hit flanker Dee Smith with a 13-yard pass to the Ohio 37.

The Kentucky drive stalled after a clipping penalty at the Ohio 33, but Fohr directed a 77-yard drive in Kentucky's next of-fensive series. His confidence bolstered, Fohr wound up hitting 6 of 12 passes for 84 yards and rushed four times for 14 yards. And, while a true cynic would say all he did was hand off, at least he did it well enough to give his teammates confidence.

"Everybody has confidence in Glenn," said bruising fullback Andy Murray. "We hated to see Kevin get hurt and everybody did get frustrated after (the injury) happened. But that really got us going. We told ourselves, 'Hey, we've got to rise up and play with our leader out.' Glenn did a heckuva job, a great job, if you ask me."

"Fohr did some good things but our passing was erratic," said Kentucky coach Jerry Claiborne. "He missed the open receiver at times but this will come with experience. He made some big plays for us. He has a good, strong arm but sometimes had the man open...but he didn't get the ball to him."

Linebackers Chris Chenault and Jeff Kremer, tackle Oliver Barnett and guards Scott Endris, John Shannon and Doug Houser led a Kentucky defense that limited Ohio to just 36 yards on the ground.

With the defense exerting that kind of pressure, the offense didn't need much. Just a sure hand from Fohr, the dashing feet of Higgs, who scored thrice, and the bullish runs of Murray.

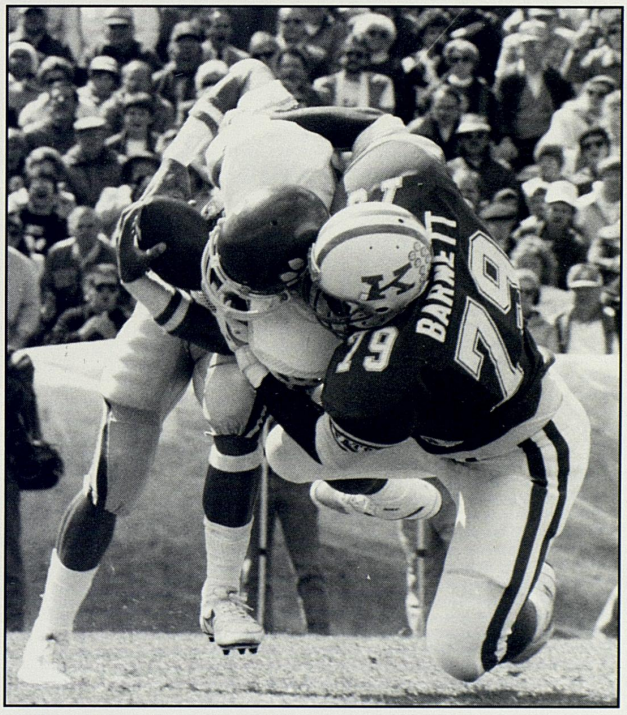

The skill of all three players was exhibited on the first touchdown drive which began at the UK 23. Fohr hit flanker Ray Gover and split end Tim Jones for 20 and eight yards, respectively, but it was left up to Murray's 24 yard scamper with a screen pass to set up Higgs' first touchdown from the 10 with 10:17 left in the second period.

Leading 7-0 after Joey Worley's PAT, the Wildcats quickly upped it to 14-0 when Murray's 51-yard dash on a draw set up a two-yard touchdown plunge by tailback Ivy Joe Hunter. Worley's PAT made it 14-0 at the half.

...Higgs, who finished with a career-high 169 yards and wound up going over 2,000 for his career, accounted for 53 yards, including the last three of the third Kentucky march.

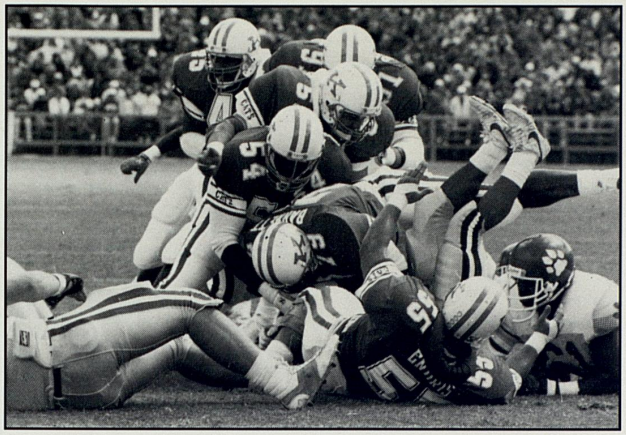

...Higgs scored from the three on the first play of the fourth quarter and Worley's PAT made it 21-0.

Higgs then capped a brilliant afternoon - perhaps his best as a Wildcat - with a 45-yard touchdown run after Murray again had set it up with a 30-yard screen pass.

DT Oliver Barnett sacks Ohio QB Anthony Thornton for this 13-yard loss in the first half.

1987 IN REVIEW

Ohio had just 36 yards rushing, mainly because of Wildcat defensive efforts like this with Scott Endris (55), Jeff Kremer (53), Jerry Reese (54), Oliver Barnett (79), John Shannon (91), and Chris Chenault (45) all in on the stop.

"It was play 46 and I just bounced to the outside," said Higgs of his 45-yard scoring scamper. "(UK flanker) John Bolden gave me a good block and I cut back to the left, only to see some defenders waiting at the 10. I told myself I couldn't let them get me since I had come so far, so I cut back again to score."

KENTUCKY-OHIO NOTES

 Tailback Mark Higgs became only the third player in UK history to rush for over 2,000 yards with his 169 against Ohio. Only Sonny Collins (3,835) and George Adams (2,648) had rushed for over 2,000 before Higgs reached the mark.

 Higgs' rushed for a career-high 169 yards against Ohio, bettering his previous high of 158 against Utah State earlier this season.

 With the victory, Kentucky has now won its 5th straight Homecoming game and is now 31-9 since 1948 in Homecoming affairs.

 Kentucky registered its second shutout this season, the first time that has happened at UK since 1977.

 For the third time in 1987, the Wildcats held an opponent to less than 50 yards rushing. UK limited Ohio to only 36 yards rushing, as well as Utah State to 20 and Indiana to just 35.

 The 5-millionth fan in attendance for a UK home game in Commonwealth Stadium was Jack Crowe of Lexington.

 Fullback Andy Murray rushed for a career-high 96 yards against Ohio. Murray also had a career-long rush of 51 yards, which led directly to UK's second touchdown.

HIGGS, UK RACE BY OLE MISS, 35-6

By Dave Koerner
Courier-Journal Staff Writer

LEXINGTON, Ky. – With tailback Mark Higgs turning heads and defensive tackle Jerry Reese removing them, the University of Kentucky opened its Southeastern Conference football season last night with the subtlety of a thunderbolt.

Higgs ran for 192 yards and two touchdowns on only 14 carries, and Reese sacked Mississippi quarterback Mark Young four times for losses of 25 yards as an aroused UK team paid a year-old debt by tattooing the Rebels 35-6 before a capacity Common-wealth Stadium crowd of 57,832.

Ole Miss returned 18 starters from the squad that leveled Kentucky 33-13 last season in Jackson, but on this night the avenging Wildcats dominated things practically from start to finish.

UK launched its first salvo with a 16-point second quarter, then tacked on 19 more in the second half to raise its record to 4-1 heading into successive road dates against SEC rivals Louisiana State and Georgia.

For the mystifying Rebels, 8-3-1 last year, the loss dropped their worksheet to 1-5 overall and 0-2 in the league.

UK padded its lead to 22-0 at 2:05 in the third quarter when defensive end Tony Massey got his second interception of the game and returned it 38 yards after the ball was tipped by end Carwell Gardner.

Then Joey Worley, who ended a string of 64 collegiate consecutive point-after kicks in the first half, extended the lead to 25-0 at 11:03 in the fourth quarter with a 49-yard field goal.

At 10:43, Higgs broke loose for a 40-yard touchdown run to establish personal season-high and career-high rushing marks. Earlier he had sprung free for a 22-yard scoring run and also had dashes of 22, 14 and 47 yards. His previous season-high running figure had been 611 yards set in 1985.

UK players celebrate in end zone after 6-yard TD reception by Dee Smith.

Finally at 5:20, Worley kicked his third field goal of the game, this one from 27 yards following a fumble recovery by cornerback David Johnson.

Ole Miss averted the shutout at 1:04 when reserve quarterback John Darnell plunged two yards for the TD. Had UK held, it would have been the first time since 1976 the Wildcats had recorded three shutouts.

"It's a shame we lost a shutout because of a poor punt, but I'll take a 29-point win any day," UK coach Jerry Claiborne said. Ole Miss was knocking again at the end of the game, reaching the UK 21. But the Rebels were turned away cold, just as Claiborne must have felt when a host of Wildcat players sneaked up from behind a poured a cooler full of ice on his head.

But as good as Higgs and Reese were, Kentucky also received a clutch performance from junior college quarterback Glenn Fohr, who was filling in for regular Kevin Dooley, out with an injured kidney.

Fohr completed 9 of 22 passes for 100 yards and one touchdown with one interception.

Both teams fired blanks at each other in the first quarter - each missing a field goal - before UK exploded for 16 points in the second period.

Worley misfired wide left from 32 yards out at 10:16, then Bryan Owen, who nailed four field goals against Kentucky last season, was wide right on a 49-yard attempt at 6:18.

It was only the eighth time in 43 tries that Worley has missed inside the 40, but his biggest boo-boo was yet to come. That occurred with 14 seconds left in the first half when the senior missed his first collegiate point-after kick.

Replays were unclear, but Worley and many of his teammates protested long and hard - though to no avail - that the kick was good.

"We will have to wait to see the TV replay to make a judgement on the call," Claiborne said. "It's a shame his string was broken."

Worley, however, enabled UK to draw first blood when he booted a 48-yard field goal at 13:40. The score was set up when end Massey intercepted a Mark Young pass and returned it two yards to the Ole Miss 35.

But a play that looms even bigger unfolded just moments earlier when Fohr tackled Ole Miss linebacker Jeff Herrod on the Rebels' 32. Herrod had recovered Higgs' fumble on the one and was separated from the goal line only by Fohr.

Nonetheless, it was a nonparell first-half performance by Higgs. The senior from Owensboro ran only 10 times but gained 123 yards, with romps of 47, 22 and 22 yards.

Higgs' second 22-yard gainer came at 5:38 and pushed the Wildcats' lead to 10-0. The drive covered 56 yards with UK needing only 52 seconds to score. Tight end Charlie Darrington, who had four catches in the half for 49 yards, got things rolling with a one-handed, 18-yard reception. Higgs then caught a 16-yard shovel pass before skirting into the end zone on his 22-yard jaunt.

The Wildcats capped their scoring when Fohr tossed a six-yard alley-oop touchdown pass into the end zone to flanker Dee Smith.

KENTUCKY - OLE MISS NOTES...

 Tailback Mark Higgs rushed for a career-high 192 yards against Ole Miss, bettering his previous high of 169 set last week vs. Ohio.

 Through only five games, Higgs has now rushed for 682 yards in 1987. His previous season-high was 611 yards in the entire 1985 season.

 With 259 yards rushing against Ole Miss, Kentucky has now rushed for over 200 yards in each of its five contests in 1987.

 The last time a Kentucky player returned an interception for a touchdown was during the 1986 season when David Johnson galloped 95 yards for a score against Cincinnati.

 Joey Worley missed his first collegiate PAT attempt late in the second quarter. Worley owns the UK record for most consecutive PATs made with 64.

 Kentucky improved its record to 24-2-2 in the Jerry Claiborne era when it has rushed for over 150 yards in a contest. UK rushed for a net 259 against Ole Miss.

DE Tony Massey returned this interception 38 yards for TD to give UK 22-0 lead.

LSU DOWNS SCRAPPY CATS, 34-9

by John Clay
Herald-Leader Staff Writer

BATON ROUGE, La. — It has taken on the characteristics of an annual event. They arrive full of great expectations. They depart defeated adn deflated. Same old story. Same old act. Same old outcome.

For the fourth straight year the Kentucky football Wildcats brought an impressive record and dreams of respectability into their annual battle with LSU. And, for the fourth straight year the Tigers provided a lethal dose of reality, whipping the Cats 34-9 yesterday at Tiger Stadium.

LSU quarterback Tommy Hodson threw for one touchdown and hit his All-American receiver Wendell Davis with several clutch passes. Halfback Harvey Williams rushed for two touchdowns. And third-string tailback Eddie Fuller went 45 yards for another as the Tigers snapped a daytime jinx - 0-4-2 in previous day games at home - and moved to 6-0-1 on the season and 3-0 in the Southeastern Conference.

Kentucky fell to 4-2 and 1-1 in league play. And did so with a thump. Tailback Mark Higgs, averaging 136 yards per game, was held to 52 and fumbled inside his own 5. Quarterback Glenn Fohr was intercepted twice. The UK defense, rated fourth nationally, allowed 391 yards, 171 on the ground, exactly 100 more than its average.

"I thought we played hard; we just made some mistakes we hadn't been making," said UK coach Jerry Claiborne. "LSU made the big plays and we didn't. That's why they're a great football team."

Cat TB Mark Higgs tries to elude LSU's Eric Hill.

And why the Cats keep coming up empty. UK has now lost fourstraight to the Tigers, games it has entered 5-0, 4-1, 3-1-1, and 4-1. But if there were any chances of turning history around yesterday, the Cats were too busy squandering them with the little things it did and did not do.

"You take four, five or six plays out of this game," Claiborne said. "and it was a whole lot closer than 34-9."

In fact, at intermission, Kentucky trailed only 14-9 after making several key errors. They let a 68-yard punt be downed at their own 2. They promptly fumbled at the 4. They missed a sure pass for six points. They let another punt roll to their own 5.

Start with the first killer kick. UK had started slowly, watching LSU march 69 yards on its first drive for a 7-0 lead -Williams covering 12 yards for the score. But the Cats came back, getting a 45-yard field goal from Joey Worley, then stuffing the Tigers on three plays forcing a Matt DeFrank punt.

DeFrank then nailed the kick, sending it high and deep for a backpedaling Dee Smith. Smith decided to let the ball bounce. It did - to the Kentucky 2. The very next play, Higgs was hit by Tiger defensive end Tommy Clapp. The ball popped loose. LSU's Ron Sancho recovered.

One play later, on the first snap of the second quarter, the Tigers lined up in a triple I - Hodson behind center, wide receiver Rogie Magee behind him, followed by the fullback and tailback. "It was just something different," said LSU coach Mike Archer, "to try and create a little more interest."

Not to mention confusion. "We weren't expecting that," said Claiborne.

Apparently not. The Cats blew the coverage, leaving Magee wide open for Hodson's floater. Touchdown. LSU led 14-3. There was 14:56 left in the second quarter. Was the rout on?

Not yet. Kentucky got back in it, but slowly, with good drives that stopped just short of six points. "We moved the ball on them," said center Brad Myers. "We just couldn't put it in the end zone."

...A 29-yard Worley field goal made it 14-6. After a 50-yard DeFrank punt pushed them back tothe 5, the Cats got a 23-yard run by Ivy Joe Hunter, a pair of 19-yard passes from Fohr - the first to Charlie Darrington, the second to Hunter - and three plays later, eight seconds before halftime, Worley booted a 41-yarder to bring Kentucky within five, 14-9.

"We felt like we couldn't have been in a better situation," said defensive back Ron Mack.

LSU did. "That last drive woke us up," said LSU linebacker Nicky Hazard. "We realized that with one touchdown they're winning the game."

...Caught holding on first down, the Tigers faced a third-and-goal from the 6. But again, the Cats missed the coverage and cornerback David Johnson ran into wide receiver Tony Moss at the goal line - "He wasn't my man. They kind of picked on the play," said Johnson -for a pass interference penalty and a first-and- goal at the 2. Williams dived in and the lead was 21-9.

The game was never the same after that. Fullback Eddie

Fuller blew it wide open, taking off on an end run. "The outside linebacker pinched in, so I took it outside," he said. "That's one of our favorite plays."

No wonder. Forty-five yards later, with some great downfield blocking from Magee and Davis, Fuller scored. David Browndyke added a couple of fourth-quarter field goals and LSU had beaten Kentucky for the ninth time in the last 10 meetings.

"They're ranked number six in the country and I'm not so sure they're not better than that," said Myers.

KENTUCKY - LSU NOTES...

 For the second consecutive game, UK placekicker Joey Worley had three field goals in the contest. Worley connected from 45, 29 and 41 against the Tigers.

 This was the first of three Kentucky football games televised live nationally by TBS of Atlanta.

 This was the first of two consecutive trips to Baton Rouge and Tiger Stadium for Kentucky. The Wildcats will also return in 1988 to help offset back-to-back road games in the future with LSU and Georgia.

 For the first time in six games, Kentucky did not rush for over 200 yards in a 1988 contest.

 Kentucky fell to 9-15-1 in live televised games.

 Tailback Mark Higgs, who had rushed for over 100 yards in three of five games entering the LSU contest, was limited to just 52 yards on the ground by the Tigers.

GEORGIA GETS AWAY, 17-14

By John Clay
Herald-Leader Staff Writer

ATHENS, Ga. — They had it. Not for a minute or a quarter or even a half. For all but 68 seconds yesterday, the Kentucky Wildcats had it, a momentous upset within reach; a ride so high it made the end so low.

"This," said Coach Jerry Claiborne, his eyes windows of dejection, "was a tough, tough loss."

This was Kentucky leading the Georgia Bulldogs, a team it had not downed in a decade, by two touchdowns early, by 11 points at the half, by four points with six minutes left when the Wildcat defense stopped a 91-yard drive with a tremendous goal-line stand.

And, ultimately, this was Kentucky losing yesterday at Sanford Stadium, 17-14, when the Cat offense failed in the clutch and Georgia's Lars Tate rambled 5 yards for the winning score with 1:08 left, the Bulldogs' one and only lead of the game.

"It's been a long time," Claiborne said, "since a loss hurt that bad."

And no wonder. The Cats led 14-3 at the half. They had one touchdown and one near-touchdown called back by penalties. They bottled up Georgia's tailback tandem of Tate and freshman Rodney Hampton, only to let Hampton shake loose for a 50-yard, third-quarter run that put Georgia back in it.

And they did nearly everything right for nearly a half only to have the offense go sour the second half, producing just 33 yards and three first downs. "We just missed some passes that we hit in the first half," said Claiborne, "and we couldn't move the ball."

Thus, though they tried to the bitter end, the Cats could not hold an early, shocking 14-0 lead. A 40-yard, 10-play drive made it 7-0 with tailback Mark Higgs scoring from a yard out. Then UK hit the big play - and a big break when tackle Mike Pfeifer's early movement wasn't spotted - as wide receiver Dee Smith made a tumbling touchdown catch of Glenn Fohr's 41-yard bomb for a 14-0 lead.

Not 10 minutes had elapsed. "I saw it in their eyes," said UK tackle Greg Kunkel. "Georgia didn't want this game."

And UK did. The defense held the Bulldog offense to three points in the first half, stuffing Tate, Georgia's top back, to 14 yards on eight carries, bothering quarterback James Jackson so much that he was benched after two first-half fumbles.

Meanwhile, Fohr was hitting 10 of 13 for 134 yards the first two quarters and the Cats were marching 70 yards in 12 plays -plus a TD pass to tight end Charlie Darrington that was called back for holding - toward a commanding 21-3 lead, when play 13 proved unlucky and Kentucky's engine stopped.

It was a flair pass to Higgs, a play the Cats had put in during the week. It had picked up yardage early in the game, but now it picked up coverage. It was second-and-six from the Bulldog 9 with 1:30 left, and as Higgs turned toward the right sideline, the ball came in - into the hands of Georgia rover Will Jones. "A poor read," Fohr called it. "I threw to the wrong guy (open was tight end Charlie Darrington). It was my fault."

"But that didn't really bother us," Higgs said. "We still thought we could move the ball."

They couldn't. "We started playing Georgia defense," said Bulldog linebacker John Brantley, and the Cat offense got stuck in its own tracks. Fohr was two of nine with an interception the second half. Higgs, averaging 122 yards a game, had 32 yards on 10 carries as Ivy Joe Hunter, his ankle injured, was unable to play.

"That penalty on that pass to Jimmie O'Neal," Higgs said, "that really hurt us."

"I'll take the blame for that," said Claiborne.

The Cats were faced with a third-and-17 from their own 29 when the play came late to the huddle, the clock approaching zero when Fohr brought UK to the line of scrimmage. A Cat started in motion before the line was set. A flag dropped. And Fohr proceeded to hit O'Neal, a little-used but speedy senior, for a gain that carried all the way to the Georgia 3.

"That's seven or eight first downs right there," said center Brad Myers. "That's a touchdown."

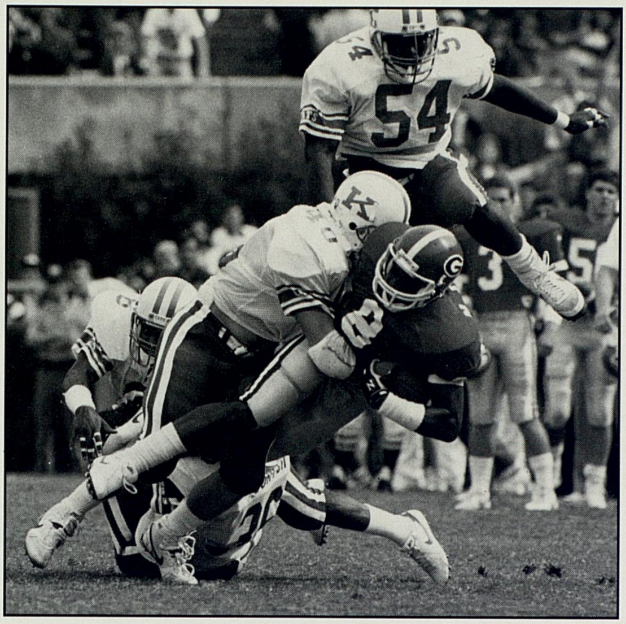

A TD that would have carried the lead back to 11. After UK's Joey Worley missed wide right on a 50-yard field goal, Hampton shook loost, bolting down the right sideline for the same distance, to the UK 13. Quarterback Wayne Johnson, Jackson's replacement, went 13 yards for the score and it was 14-10 Kentucky with 6:07 left in the third quarter.

The momentum changed. Field position swung in the Bulldogs' direction. "I think we realized," said Georgia coach Vince Dooley, "that Kentucky had an awfully good football team."

Just not as good as Georgia's. And with just under three minutes left in the third period, the UK offense produced its last first down of the game, and set the pressure directly on the defense. "I thought we did a helluva job," said cornerback David Johnson. "We were on the field the whole second half."

KENTUCKY - GEORGIA NOTES.....

 Injured UK quarterback Kevin Dooley, who suffered a bruised kidney against Ohio, was given permission to play against Georgia for his first action since the injury on Oct. 3. Dooley dressed but did not see action.

 The 17-14 loss to Georgia was Kentucky's 10th straight defeat at the hands of the Bulldogs.

 Kentucky completely sold out their allotment of 5,000 tickets for the contest at Sanford Stadium. Over 5,000 Big Blue supporters, including Kentucky Governor Martha Lane Collins were in attendance.

 Rodney Hampton's 123 yards rushing was the first time an opponent had rushed for over 100 yards against Kentucky in 1987.

 Kentucky gained just 233 total yards of offense against Georgia, the first time in the last 10 games the Wildcats have not gained over 300 yards on offense.

 This was the second of three Kentucky games televised live by TBS.

KENTUCKY STARTS FAST, WINS 14-7

By Tom Wallace
Cawood on Kentucky Editor

LEXINGTON, Ky. — It was ugly, but it goes in the win column.

That's about all you can say concerning Kentucky's 14-7 victory over Virginia Tech in front of a less-than-full Commonwealth Stadium Saturday night. If any football game can ever be said to be a cure for insomnia, this one was it.

Oh, it started off spectacular, especially if you're a Wildcat fan. Two quick touchdowns, one on a patented Mark Higgs burst up the middle, and a 14-0 lead before the Halloween goblins could say "boo!"

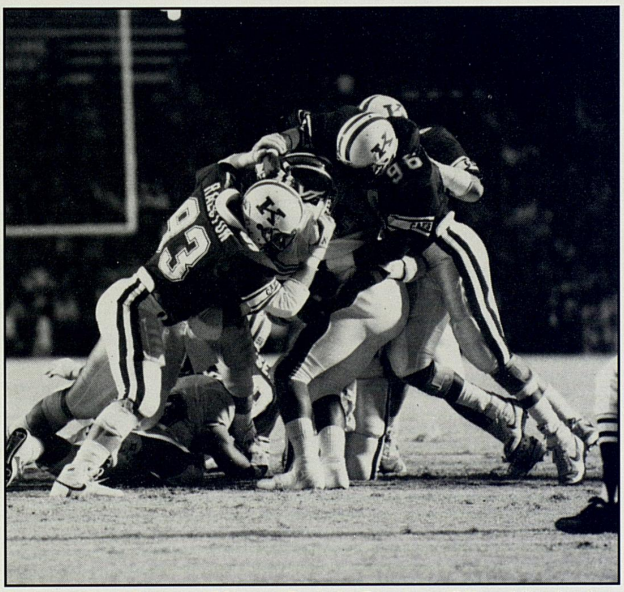

However, what started out to be an easy blowout for the Wildcats would eventually dissolve into a shabby, stagnant and penalty-ridden struggle against a clearly outmanned Hokie club.

Again, had it not been for a gritty effort by Jerry Reese, Jeff Kremer, David Johnson and the rest of the defensive Crunch Bunch, the Wildcats could have easily seen their record slip to the break-even point. As it is , UK goes into the Vanderbilt game with a 5-3 record.

"There's not really a whole lot you can say," UK coach Jerry Claiborne said. "We started off super. The defense was playing well. The offense was moving the ball. Then we began to commit those penalties, and that destroyed the offense."

Indeed. By the time the final whistle blew - and there were many - the Cats had been penalized 12 times for 103 yards.

Fortunately for Kentucky, the strong early play - two TDs in the game's first five minutes - along with the great defensive effort was able to hold up for what would prove to be 55 minutes of bad football.

Tackles Gary Ralston (93) and Donnie Gardner (96) put the hurt on Tech TB Ralph Brown.

The Wildcats scored on their first two possessions - one coming after Kevin Dooley had engineered an excellent drive and the second coming like a lightning bolt on a breathtaking run by Higgs.

The opening drive covered 40 yards in four plays and ended when Dooley connected with Jimmie O'Neal for a 14-yard scoring strike. Earlier, Dooley had teammed with Higgs for an 18-yard pickup on second-and-13.

After stopping the Hokies, UK scored again on its first play when Higgs broke free and rambled up the middle for 52 yards to paydirt.

Higgs would finish the day with 168 yards rushing on 22 carries.

Dooley, making his first start after being sidelined for three games with a kidney injury, seemed to mirror the play of the entire team. He started strong, making good on his first five passes, but then began to struggle, eventually failing to connect on 11 of his last 15 aerial attempts.

"Words can't explain the way I feel right now," Dooley said. "Words can't explain the way I feel tonight. I have no excuses. I played the way I did and that's the way it is. I just didn't know what I was doing."

Claiborne, however, defended his senior quarterback, while also defending his own decision not to bring in Glenn Fohr, who had started the last three outings.

"Kevin needed the game," Claiborne noted. "He didn't play as well as he can, but then, it's not always the passer's fault. We started to play him (Fohr), but we just felt like Dooley was going all right and that we ought to go with him."

While the UK offense was sputtering, their counterparts on the defensive side were turning in another gritty performance. They limited the Hokies to just 10 first downs (only one in the first half) and 177 yards in total offense.

However, their dream of a third shutout this season went down the drain when a Dooley fumble late in the game led to a Hokie touchdown on a two-yard Erik Chapman-to-Earnie Jones pass. "It's been a long time since we've had three shutouts in a season," Reese said. "It would have been nice. I really hated to see them score."

Johnson echoed Reese's thinking.

"It's frustrating, but we got a win," Johnson said. "We were capable of getting that shutout. It's really nobody's fault. We were hanging with our offense, but it was just one of those days. So the defense had to play well, and overall, I think we gave a helluva performance."

But for Claiborne, who saw his offense pick up a season-low 225 yards in total net offense, it was a team effort that clearly left him shaking his head.

"Execution is what it is," Claiborne said. "If you drop a pass with the ball in your hands, if you catch a ball out of bounds, it's just mental preparation. And that was lacking. Everything but the defense went to sleep. We've just got to do a better job of playing."

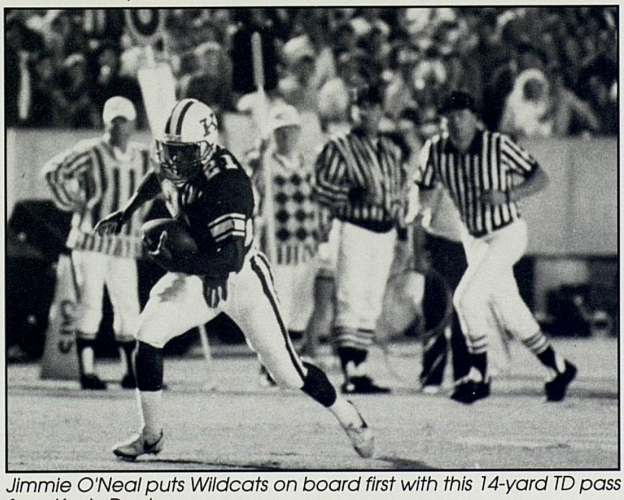

Claiborne did, however, have high praise for his team's kicking game.

"(Jay) Tesar kicked the ball well, and our coverage was good," Claiborne pointed out. "And Ken Willis kicked off very well for us."

KENTUCKY - VIRGINIA TECH NOTES....

 UK head coach Jerry Claiborne, who began his head coaching career at Virginia Tech, picked up his first victory in three tries against the Hokies.

 Kentucky recorded a season-high seven quarterback sacks for a minus 56 yards.

 For the fourth time in 1987, the Wildcats held an opponent to less than 50 yards rushing. UK also limited Utah State, Indiana, and Ohio to less than 50 yards. The Hokies had but 47 yards rushing against UK.

 Mark Higgs' 168 yards rushing was the fourth time in 1987 to go over 100 yards in a single game.

 Despite winning 14-7, Kentucky had the football only 24 minutes. The Hokies had a time of possession of 35:55.

 Kentucky recorded a season-low 1 of 13 in third down conversions against Virginia Tech.

VANDY OUTSCORES CATS, 38-29

By Scott Fowler
Courier-Journal Staff Writer

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — If Albert Einstein had ever dabbled as a football offensive coordinator, he would have concocted something close to what Vanderbilt used yesterday in its 38-29 victory over the University of Kentucky.

Kentucky - No. 8 in the nation in scoring defense - might as well have been trying to build an atomic bomb as slow down Vanderbilt's unstoppable "thinking man's" attack, which rolled up 521 yards and controlled the ball for nearly 40 of the game's 60 minutes.

Einstein's famous E=MC2 formula was even in evidence, as quarterback Eric Jones (E), fullback Andy McCarroll (M), wide receiver Carl Parker and tailback Everett Crawford (C2) combined to tear through a UK defense that had been allowing only 12.3 points a game.

Jones was the primary number-cruncher, passing for 244 yards and four touchdowns, rushing for 101 more, often changing plays at the line of scrimmage and generally making UK's defense look silly before a Vanderbilt Stadium crowd of 40,892. Jones said Vanderbilt's offensive success may have had to do with the fact that his teammates could digest the complicated schemes provided by head coach Watson Brown. "A lot of it may have to do with intelligence," said Jones, who leads the Southeastern Conference in total offense. "We can out-think a lot of teams."

Parker, who caught eight passes for 169 yards and two touchdowns, agree. "We pride ourselves here at Vanderbilt at being an intelligent group," he said. "You could look at a computer printout of our offense and find no tendencies to key on."

TB Mark Higgs once again reached the 100-yard mark with 133 stripes vs. the Commodores.

Kentucky dropped to 5-4 with the loss and well back in the bowl pack. The defeat also left UK coach Jerry Claiborne shaking his head about the defense's inability to contain Jones, who didn't have to pitch the ball on the option run all day.

"We knew exactly what they'd do, and they did it," said Claiborne, whose teams have now lost seven straight road games. "We told them to keep the quarterback inside, and the quarterback never stayed inside."

Brown attributed much of Vandy's success to a rushing attack that compiled 277 yards. "This is the first time we've been able to run the ball like that," he said. McCarroll gained 81 yards and Crawford 50 to go along with Jones' second straight 100-yard effort.

Vanderbilt, now 3-6 overall and 1-4 in the SEC, broke an 11-game conference losing streak.

UK's offense was fairly effective, although it completed only seven passes. After Kevin Dooley fell down to stop one possible touchdown drive and fumbled on another possession, Glenn Fohr came in and led Kentucky to its final 19 points.

UK couldn't convert, however, on a crucial series late in the fourth quarter. The Wildcats trailed 35-29 with eight minutes remaining and had a first-and-10 at the Commodore 20. Three plays produced only five yards, and on fourth-and-five UK decided to go for it.

Fohr dropped back in the shotgun and called the signals. Center Brad Myers couldn't hear them, didn't snap the ball and drew a five-yard delay of game penalty.

On fourth-and-10, Fohr backpedaled and lofted a pass over the middle to Tim Jones, who had his hands on the ball inside the five but then was separated from it by cornerback Allan Roman's jarring hit.

The Commodores then ran 7:02 off the clock in a 14-play drive, finally getting Johnny Clark's 28-yard field goal with 50 seconds left to put the game out of reach.

"We felt like we needed to score every time we had the ball," said UK tailback Mark Higgs, who rushed for 118 yards in the second half and 133 overall. "We should have gotten 40-some points."

But the Wildcats' passing game left something to be desired. Fohr was just 4 of 19 with an interception after replacing Dooley, who had gone 3 for 3.

Kentucky's Dee Smith was involved in the Wildcats' two first half touchdowns, scoring from four yards out for the first and taking a kickoff return 75 yards to set up the second - a 13-yard run by Fohr. Vanderbilt countered with two more scoring passes from Jones to take a 21-16 lead at the half.

The Commodores went up 28-16 in the third quarter when Parker hauled in a 74-yard bomb from Jones, but UK came back on a 46-yard TD pass to Martin Pennington from Fohr and a 12-yard run by Ivy Joe Hunter, taking its last lead of the game 29-28 on Hunter's run late in the third quarter.

Vanderbilt quickly went ahead again on a one-yard plunge by Crawford that culminated a 72-yard, 14-play drive that was kept alive when UK's Chris Chenault drew a 15-yard personal foul that gave Vandy a first down after it had apparently been forced into a punting situation.

KENTUCKY - VANDERBILT NOTES

 The Kentucky defense allowed several season-highs against Vanderbilt. The Commodores had 27 first downs, 244 yards passing, 521 yards passing and 38 points - all season-highs allowed by the UK defense.

 With 133 yards, UK tailback Mark Higgs reached the 100-yard mark for the fifth time in 1987.

 Martin Pennington scored his first collegiate touchdown when he scampered 46 yards on a delay pattern off a pass from QB Glenn Fohr in the third quarter.

 Vanderbilt had the football a ratio of almost 2-1 against Kentucky. The Commodores held an advantage in time of possession of 39:55 to 20:05.

 Two Wildcats suffered season-ending injuries against the Commodores. Fullback Andy Murray seriously injured his right knee (requiring surgery) after making a reception in the first quarter. Free safety Mark Sellers tore a thigh muscle in his left leg in the second quarter.

 Fullback Darren Bilberry was credited with a season high 18 knockdown blocks against Vanderbilt.

This 12-yard TD run by Ivy Joe Hunter gave UK a 29-28 lead in 3rd quarter.

GATORS HOLD ON FOR 27-14 WIN

By John Clay
Herald-Leader Staff Writer

GAINESVILLE, Fla. — The clock started and the Gators were going, going, gone. Stacey Simmons raced 94 yards with the opening kickoff. Touchdown. Florida danced. Kentucky dropped. Into the same old hole in the ground.

A hole that grew deeper. Soon it was 10-0, then 17-0 thanks to another Simmons spectacular. By the third quarter it was 27-0 Florida, a margin even a courageous Cat comeback couldn't overcome.

No, Kentucky didn't quit. It could have. But it didn't. But its rally was riddled with flaws, enabling the Florida Gators to ride their early success to a 27-14 victory yesterday at Florida Field.

Simmons, a sophomore wide receiver, broke the Cats' back not once, but twice. He scored six points on the opening kickoff. Then in the second quarter, he turned a Kerwin Bell floater into a 39-yard touchdown pass, making an acrobatic catch of a ball tipped by a tumbling Chris Tolbert, UK's freshman cornerback.

Bell, the Gators' senior leader, completed 12 of 20 passes for 160 yards and two scores, making him the Southeastern Conference's all-time leader in TD passes with 56. Emmitt Smith, Florida's freshman flash, gained 112 yards on 24 carries. And the Florida defense silenced the Cat attack for 39 minutes as the Gators climbed to 6-4 and reported clinched an invitation to the Aloha Bowl.

"They're a good team," said UK coach Jerry Claiborne. "No question about it. They've got good talent. But I didn't think we played badly, we just made some bad mistakes that hurt us."

Quarterback Glenn Fohr dropped the snap at the Gator 1, ending an 86-yard, third-quarter march. Tailback Mark Higgs twice fumbled away the football; the first ending a Wildcat drive, the second setting up a Gator score. Ray Gover dropped a fourth-quarter TD pass. The next play, UK was intercepted. It was a fitting scenario for a now 5-5 team.

"We had our chances," said Fohr, the junior, who directed Kentucky's second-half charge, hitting 11 of 23 passes for 152 yards overall. "We just didn't make enough things happen."

And Florida did. The good things that weren't there the past two weeks for Galen Hall's team. Auburn romped 29-6. Georgia rolled 23-10. "I don't like the team we've become," Hall said last week.

Then Florida won the coin toss yesterday, and instead of delaying the option to the second half, decided to receive. Which Simmons did at his own 6. And took off.

...Twenty seconds had elapsed. Florida led Kentucky 7-0 after the extra-point kick. "The first good thing to happen to us in two weeks," Hall said.

For Kentucky, it was all bad. Starting quarterback Kevin Dooley missed an open Jimmie O'Neal with his second pass - "We hit that and it's 7-7," said Claiborne - and the UK offense went nowhere. Higgs averaging 121 yards per game, had 3 yards on six carries the first quarter. Dooley hit one of seven passes the first half. A half which UK had 81 total yards. Florida had 205.

Not that the Gators ran all over the Cats. A 44-yard Robert

McGinty field goal made it 10-0. Then came Bell's TD pass to Simmons. "You mean 'throw'", said UK linebacker Jeff Kremer. "It wasn't a pass. It was a throw."

"I had him covered," said Tolbert, truthfully. "But I couldn't get it, so I tried to bat it away. I batted it up in the air. I wasn't expecting him to catch it."

But he did. "None of what they did really hurt us, except the TD pass," said Claiborne. "That killed us."

..."But I still thought we could win the football game. Then we come out and on the first play get a penalty and the second we fumbled."

Higgs fumbled; Oliver recovered one more and Higgs was never heard from again, the victim of a possible concussion.

Three plays later, Bell hit Ernie Mills with an 11-yard touchdown pass and the lead was 24-0 Gators. Another McGinty field goal, this from 45 yards with 8:16 left in the quarter, made it 27-0.

1987 IN REVIEW

To its credit Kentucky didn't quit. Fohr came out firing on a 93-yard march. He hit Phil Logan for a 22-yard gain, took off on a 38-yard scramble, then found tight end Charlie Darrington for a 10-yard TD. There was 5:50 left in the third.

Three minutes later, the Cats had the ball back. They drove. Darrington made catches of 22, 14 and 13 yards. On a fourth-and-two from the Florida 4, Dee Smith swept left for a three-yard gain to the 1. First-and-goal at the 1.

Then Fohr fumbled the snap.

..."We score there and we're right back in it," said Claiborne.

But they didn't and they weren't. Three straight incomplete passes killed the following drive. The next possession, Fohr found an open Gover in the end zone, but the junior flanker couldn't handle it. The next play, Gator linebacker Joey Nicoletto intercepted.

Kentucky did score late, cashing in when Florida fumbled at its own 40. Fohr hit Martin Pennington with a 28-yard pass, Dee Smith with a 20-yarder. Darren Bilberry scored from the 2 to make it 27-14 with 5:09 remaining.

But it wasn't enough.

KENTUCKY-FLORIDA NOTES....

 Kentucky broke a school record for a single game against the Gators with 6 first downs via a penalty. The old record was 4 against Villanova (1951) and Houston (1965).

 When Kentucky did not score in the first half, it marked the first time in 1987 the Wildcats were shutout during the first two quarters of a game.

 UK offensive guard Dermontti Dawson was credited with 9 knock-down blocks against the Gators.

 Tailback Mark Higgs moved into 15th place on the all-time Southeastern Conference rushing list with 2,755 career yards.

 Placekicker Joey Worley moved into 5th place on the all-time SEC scoring list (kickers only) with 236 points.

 Three UK linebackers were credited with double-figure tackles. Jeff Kremer had 17, Chris Chenault 14, and Randy Holleran 11.

WILDCATS COME UP SHORT TO VOLS, 24-22

By Scott Fowler
Courier-Journal Staff Writer

LEXINGTON, Ky. — Mark Higgs took the high road and Michael Whitehead the low road on the most crucial play of Tennessee's 24-22 victory over Kentucky yesterday.

"And in this game, the low man always wins," Whitehead said later in a joyous Tennessee locker room. The Vols' third-string middle guard submarined in and stopped Higgs' leap on fourth-and-goal with 1:59 left to seal Peach Bowl-bound Tennessee's triumph. With first-and-goal from the five-yard line and down 24-20, the Wildcats gave the ball to Higgs four straight times up the middle. The senior tailback came up about 18 inches short of the goal and came off the field sobbing unashamedly.

Quarterback Glenn Fohr, who threw 68-and 50-yard touchdown passes to wide receiver Dee Smith, put his arm around Higgs and comforted the tailback after the final running play fell inches short.

"I said, 'Did you do your best?'", Fohr recounted. "He said he did, and I told him he had nothing to be ashamed of."

That sequence of plays provided a good metaphor for the UK season, as the Wildcats lost their third game by a field goal or less. "We're always so close and still so far away," said right guard Dermontti Dawson, whose block Higgs was trying to follow on the fourth-down play.

As a final touch to this frustrating season, the Wildcats had to chase Tennessee punter Bob Garmon for the game's final seven seconds, before Garmon stepped out of the same end zone Higgs couldn't find only two minutes earlier. That intentional safety, taken so UK wouldn't get a chance to block the punt and score a touchdown, accounted for the final margin.

Kentucky finished the season 5-6, its third straight non-winning campaign, after stumbling to losses in five of its final six games. Tennessee is now 8-3-1 and officially accepted a Peach Bowl bid yesterday to play Indiana on Jan. 2.

..."Needless to say, I'm upset," said UK coach Jerry Claiborne, who has two years left on his contract. "We've been short so many times this season. It's been a dissappointing year for the players and the fans."

...Claiborne almost had his eighth straight home win as well yesterday. The Wildcats led until Tennessee quarterback Jeff Francis - playing for the first time in nearly a month after an ankle injury - hit Terence Cleveland with a 10-yard TD pass with 6:25 to play.

Fohr, who played the entire game at quarterback, marched UK 79 yards on the ensuing possession, only to be victimized by Tennessee's goal-line stand.

"Fohr was outstanding for us," said Claiborne of his junior quarterback, who completed 14 of 31 passes for 240 yards with no interceptions.

Half of Fohr's completions and 170 of his passing yards were courtesy of Smith, who exploded on two first-half TD bombs and was UK's clutch receiver all afternoon.

"It was my birthday today," said the 20-year old Smith, "and I really thought I was going to have a win to celebrate. There's not much to celebrate now."

In the Vols' locker room, Tennessee's emotions ran at the other extreme. "To stop (Higgs) down there on the goal line was one of the all-time great defensive jobs for us," Vols coach Johnny Majors said. "There was so much relief after they didn't make it on fourth-and-one."

It was little consolation to Higgs that he set the UK record for yards in a single season yesterday. Higgs' 137 yards on 30 carries gave him 1,278 total yards, which eclipsed Sonny Collins' mark of 1,213 set in 1973.

"I'd much rather have the win than the record," said Higgs, whose 30 carries were a career high.

Freshman tailback Reggie Cobb was the Vols' mainstay as he gained 144 yards on 26 carries. Cobb, the SEC's leading scorer with 19 touchdowns, failed to dent the end zone, however.

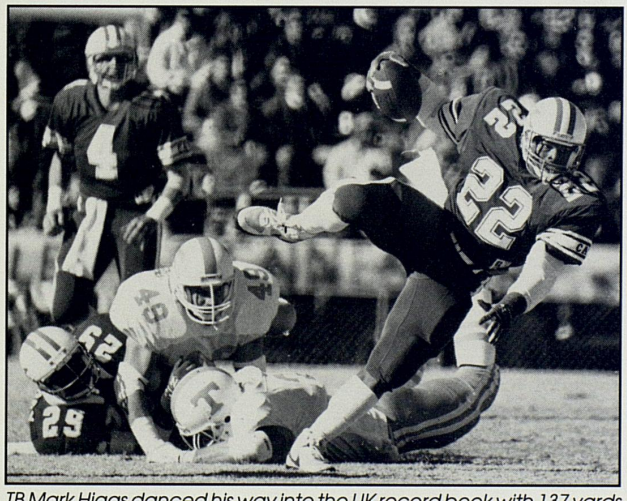

KENTUCKY-TENNESSEE NOTES.....

 Tailback Mark Higgs broke the UK single season record for rushing yards with his 137 yards against Tennessee. Higgs finishes the 1987 season with 1,278 yards, bettering the old mark of 1,213 by Sonny Collins in 1973.

 Higgs finishes his career 11th on the all-time Southeastern Conference rushing list with 2,892 yards. Higgs started the day in 15th place but passed Brent Fullwood of Auburn (2789), Walter Packer of Mississippi State (2852), and Johnnie Jones of Tennessee (2852).

 Placekicker Joey Worley finishes his career at UK ranked 4th in the Southeastern Conference in field goals (57), and field goal attempts (85). Worley passed Rex Robinson of Georgia in both instances.

 Scoring-wise, Worley finished his career as the all-time leading scorer in UK history with 246 points. Worley finished 5th on all-time SEC list for kickers and 9th on the overall SEC scoring list.

 With his 137 yards rushing against Tennessee, Mark Higgs rushed for over 100 yards on six occasions during the 1987 season, tying a school season record. George Adams (1984) and Sonny Collins (1975) also hold the record with Higgs at six in a season.

 The 170 yards receiving by Dee Smith against Tennessee was the first time a UK player has had over 100 yards receiving since Andy Murray had 106 yards vs. LSU in 1986.

 Glenn Fohr passed for a career-high 240 yards against the Vols. That is the most yards passing by a UK quarterback since Bill Ransdell threw for 322 yards vs. Vanderbilt in 1985.

UK staff discuss with QB Glenn Fohr final call on 4th-and-goal.

FL Dee Smith hauls in 68-yard TD pass from Fohr.

UK FOOTBALL HISTORY

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY FOOTBALL HISTORY

The University of Kentucky officially begins its 98th season of collegiate football on Sept. 3 as the Wildcats host Central Michigan to kickoff the 1988 season.

Since Kentucky started playing football in 1881, UK has played in 914 games and compiled an overall record of 462-408-44 (.529 pct.). The 462 victories rank 37th on the national list for collegiate victories.

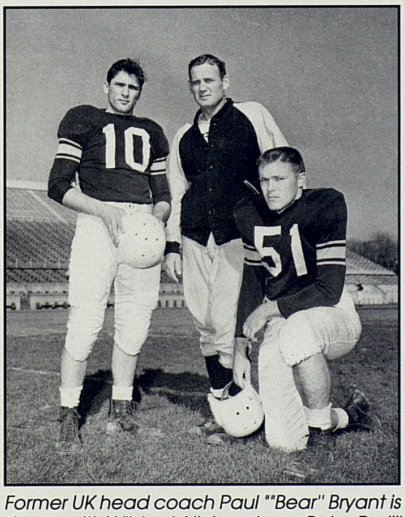

The Kentucky football program has had 31 head coaches, produced 2 conference championships and appeared in 7 bowl games. The program has also produced 12 National Football League 1st-Round draft choices, 1 Outland Trophy winner, 17 first-team All-Americans, 4 Academic All-Americans, 41 first-team All-Southeastern Conference players and 58 Academic All-SEC selections.

Kentucky football got its start on Nov. 12, 1881. Kentucky, known in those days as A&M College, Kentucky State College and/or State University of Kentucky, defeated Kentucky University by the score of 7 1/4 to 1 that November afternoon. Football resembled more of a rugby form and the scoring procedure is still unclear.

Kentucky did finish its inaugural season at 1-2, though football did not exist for the next 9 years at Kentucky.

It did, however, reappear in 1891. Kentucky defeated Georgetown College, 8-2, on April 10, 1891, to signify the return of football. The sport would not be interrupted again until the World War II days.

The first known head coach at Kentucky was Professor A.M. Miller, a Princeton graduate. Miller began the 1892 season as the head coach and led UK to a 2-2-1 record through 5 games. He was replaced by John A. Thompson after the 5th game.

Former UK head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant is shown with Wildcat All-Americans Babe Parilli and Doug Moseley in 1951.

The 1898 UK Football team, known as the Immortals, remains the only undefeated, untied and unscored upon team in Wildcat history.

Some successful years in the early 1900s dot the UK record book. Kentucky finished 7-1 in 1903 under coach C.A. Wright; 9-1 in 1904 under F.E. Schact; 9-1-1 in 1907 under J. White Guyn; and 9-1 in 1909 under E.R. Sweetland.

However, the most successful team in that era was in 1898. The Immortals, as Kentuckians refer to that team. The Immortals remain to this day as the only undefeated, untied, and unscored upon team in Kentucky football history. Coached by W.R. Bass, the Immortals raced through their 1898 schedule by victories over Kentucky University (18-0), Georgetown (28-0), Company H of the 8th Massachusetts (59-0), Louisville Athletic Club (16-0), Centre (6-0), 160th Indiana (17-0) and Newcastle Athletic Club (36-0). The squad ended the season a perfect 7-0-0, despite an average weight of only 147 pounds per player.

Two of the more successful coaches in those early years were E.R. Sweetland and Harry Gamage. Sweetland compiled a 23-5 record in 3 seasons (1909-10, 1912). His best year was 9-1 in 1909. Gamage, on the other hand, had the longest tenure of any head coach in the first 43 years of Kentucky football. Gamage took over in 1927 and remained until after the 1933 season. In between, Gamage posted a 32-25-5 record, with the best coming in a 6-1-1 year in 1929.

One of Gamage's brightest moments had to come during the 1930 season in the 57-0 shellacking of Maryville. In that contest, his runningback, Shipwreck Kelly, rushed for a school record 280 yards to lead the Wildcats.

A young man by the name of Paul "Bear" Bryant made his way to the University of Kentucky in 1946. He quickly grabbed the football program by the collar and turned the Wildcats into a national power.

Bryant took UK to 8 consecutive winning seasons during his tenure (1946-53) and helped the Wildcats claim their 1st Southeastern Conference championship in 1950. Also, Bryant sent squads to 4 bowl games, including the 1947 Great Lakes, 1950 Orange, 1951 Sugar and 1952 Cotton.

The biggest win in UK history took place in that 1951 Sugar Bowl contest. Kentucky had just ended its regular season as SEC champions at 10-1 and faced national champion Oklahoma, who owned a 31-game win streak. The Wildcats scored early and held off the Sooners to claim a 13-7 victory, snapping the NCAA's 7th-longest winning streak in history.

Tackle Bob Gain became the 1st UK player ever to receive the Outland Trophy in 1950. Other standouts in the Bryant era included George Blanda, All-American Babe Parilli, and UK's present coach Jerry Claiborne.

Bryant left Kentucky following the 1953 season. He had compiled a school record 60 victories while posting a 60-23-5 record in those 8 years.

Blanton Collier had the uneasy task of following in Bryant's footsteps. Collier took over the Kentucky program in 1954 and proceeded to lead UK to a 7-3 record during his 1st season.

He left Kentucky after the 1961 season with a 41-36-3 record in 8 years. Collier will also be remembered for his 5-2-1 record against arch rival Tennessee.

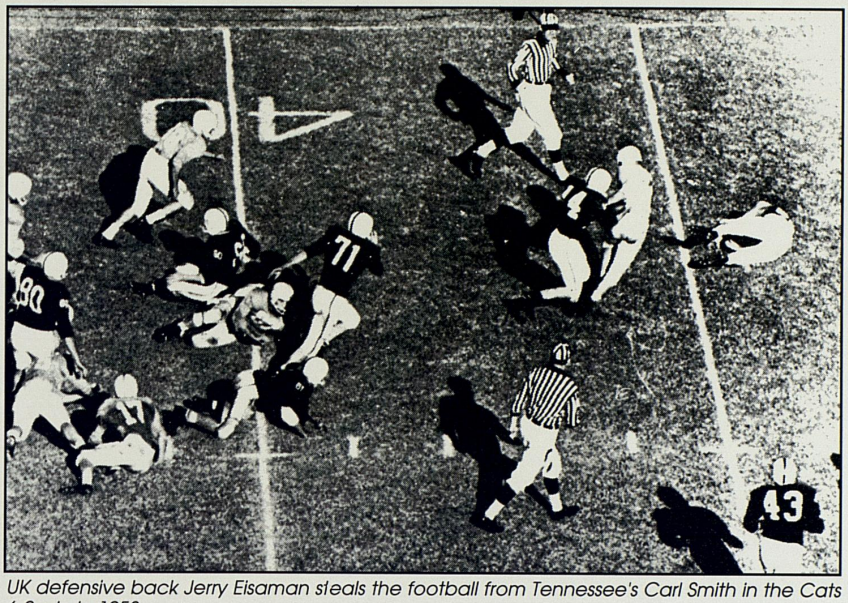

Charlie Bradshaw became the head mentor in time for the 1962 year. Bradshaw, a UK graduate, could manage a record of only 25-41-4 during his 7 years. One highlight of his UK coaching career did come in 1964 at Jackson, Miss. His Wildcats upset top-ranked Ole Miss, 27-21, at Memorial Stadium in one of the biggest victories in UK history.

John Ray followed Bradshaw after the 1968 campaign. Ray turned in records of 2-8, 3-8, 3-8 and 3-8, in 4 consecutive years and was 10-33 in that period. His biggest win, however, came in his initial season in 1969. Kentucky once again victimized an Archie Manning-led Ole Miss with a 10-9 victory at Lexington.

The Fran Curci era began in 1973. Curci had only 1 winning season during his first 3 years before things quickly took off. In 1976, Kentucky finished the season at 8-3 and won its 2nd SEC title on the strength of a 76-yard TD pass from Derrick Ramsey to Greg Woods to beat Tennessee, 7-0, at Knoxville. That clinched the league title and a spot in the Peach Bowl.

Kentucky, making its first bowl appearance in 25 years, drubbed North Carolina, 21-0.

The following year, Kentucky went in facing probation. No league championship or bowl game on the line. But, despite an early loss on the road to Baylor, the Wildcats rolled impressively to a 10-1 record doing it the hard way. Along that road, Kentucky defeated Penn State (24-20) at University Park, Pa., LSU (33-13) at Baton Rouge, Georgia (33-0) at Athens, Florida (14-7) at Gainesville, and Tennessee (21-17) at Lexington.

UK defensive back Jerry Eisaman steals the football from Tennessee's Carl Smith in the Cats 6-2 win in 1958.

In the Curci era, players like Sonny Collins (UK career leader in rushing with 3,835 yards), All-Americans Warren Bryant and Art Still, and Derrick Ramsey played huge parts in putting Kentucky on top.

The Curci era ended following the 1981 season. In all, Curci worked 9 years (longest of any UK coach) and was 47-51-2 overall.

Jerry Claiborne returned to his alma mater as head coach in 1982. Claiborne had played at UK from 1946-49 and was an assistant coach under Bryant at UK in 1952-53.

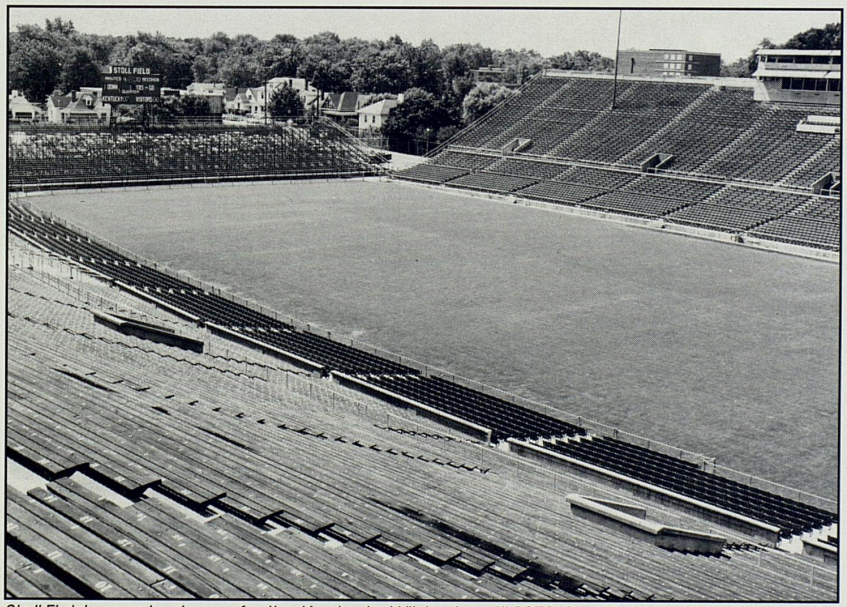

His 1982 season was murderous, from a schedule point, that is. The UK '82 schedule rated as the nation's 2nd-toughest and featured the likes of Oklahoma, Clemson, Auburn, LSU, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Kansas and Kansas State.

In the process of rebuilding, UK and Claiborne had to suffer through an 0-10-1 record that initial season. But, it would not deter Claiborne at all. In fact, his 1983 squad tied for the nation's most improved program with a regular season record of 6-4-1. And waiting was a trip to the '83 Hall of Fame Bowl.

Claiborne bettered that in 1984 as Kentucky finished the season with a 9-3 record, including a thrilling 20-19 victory over Wisconsin in the '84 Hall of Fame Bowl.

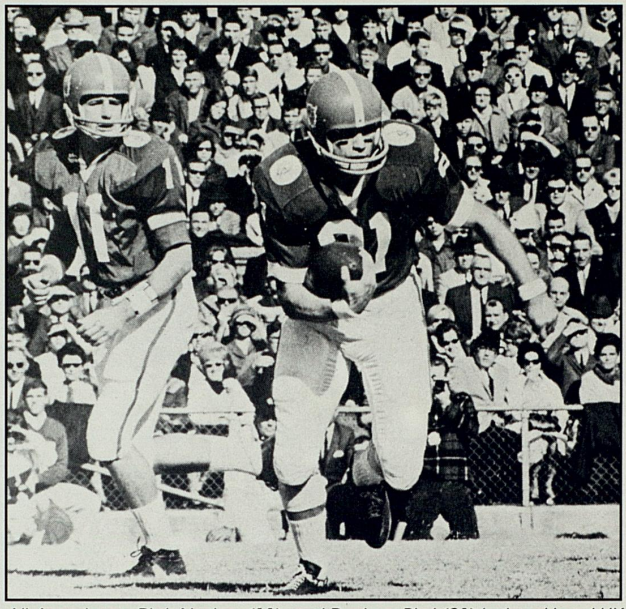

Since then, Claiborne has strung together seasons of 5-6, 5-5-1, and 5-6. Claiborne and only 1 other coach, Paul "Bear" Bryant, have been able to win at least 5 games in 5 consecutive years at Kentucky.

During Claiborne's tenure, several players have etched their name in the UK record book. Bill Ransdell left UK as the school's career leader in passing and total offense, Mark Higgs departed as the school's 2nd-leading career rusher (2,892 yards) and George Adams left as the 3rd-leading rusher (2,648 yards).

Stoll Field served as home for the Kentucky Wildcats until 1973. Stoll Field was the site of the 1st collegiate football game played in the South in 1880.

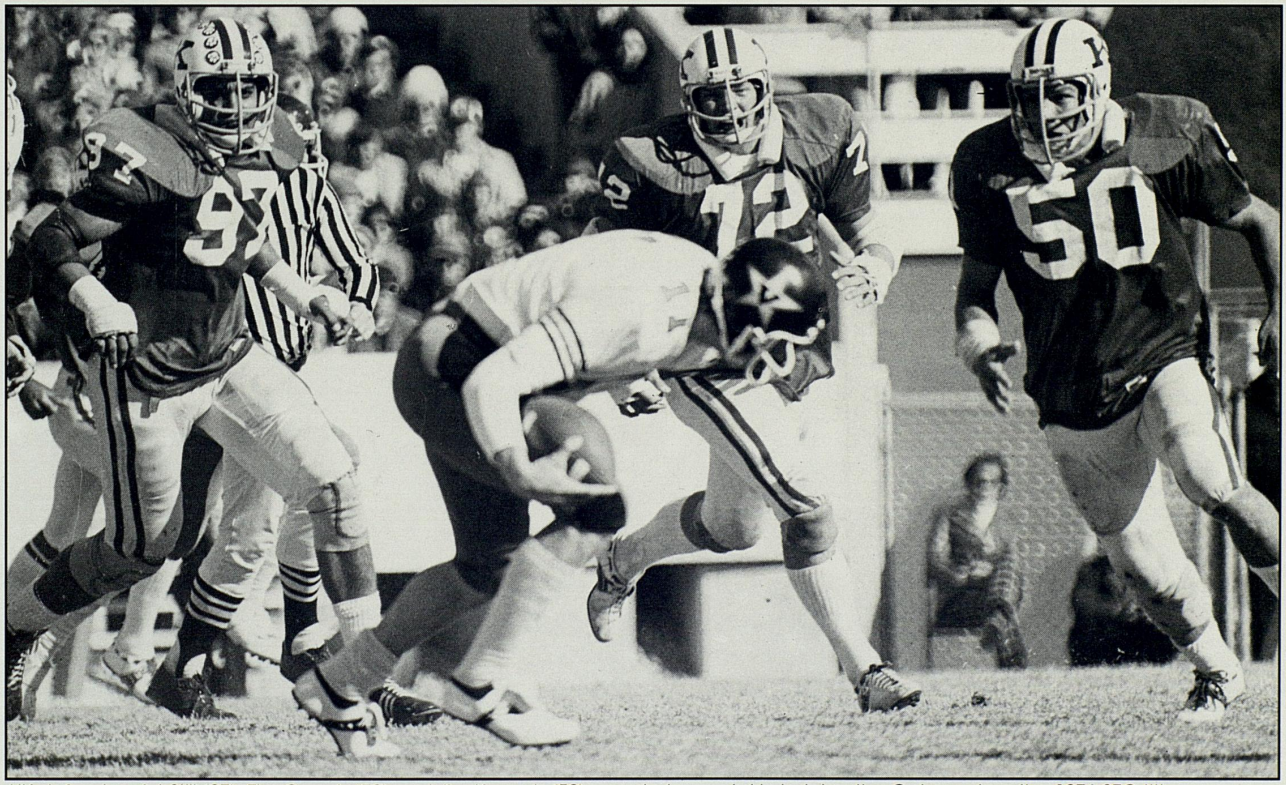

UK FOOTBALL HISTORY

All-Americans Rick Norton (11) and Rodger Bird (21) helped lead UK to a 6-4 record in 1965.

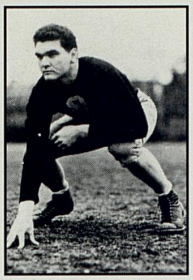

QB Derrick Ramsey led the Cats to the 1976 SEC championship and a 10-1 record in 1977.

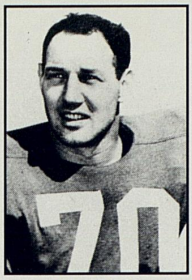

UK defenders Art Still (97), Tim Gooch (72) and Jim Kovach (50) were instrumental in helping the Cats capture the 1976 SEC title.

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY BOWL GAMES

1947 GREAT LAKES BOWL
KENTUCKY 24, VILLANOVA 14

December 6, 1947 Cleveland Stadium Att. 14,908

The Kentucky Wildcats made their first appearance on the bowl scene in the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl and came away with a 24-14 victory over Villanova before a crowd of 14,908 at Cleveland Municipal Stadium.

Kentucky, in its second year under head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, finished at 8-3 on the season with the victory.

Quarterback-placekicker George Blanda gave Kentucky an early 3-0 lead in the first quarter. Blanda connected on a 27-yard field goal to put the Cats up and it remained that way until halftime.

In the third quarter, UK's Jim Howe scampered 29 yards for a score. Blanda added the PAT and Kentucky led 10-0 after three periods.

Bill Boller scored both Kentucky touchdowns in the fourth period, romping 15 yards on a handoff from Blanda and racing 49 yards to paydirt with an interception. Blanda added both PATs to round out the Kentucky scoring.

Villanova also added a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns, but it was not enough as Kentucky captured its first bowl victory in school history.

1950 ORANGE BOWL
SANTA CLARA 21, KENTUCKY 13

January 2, 1950 Orange Bowl Stadium Att. 64,816

Kentucky committed three turnovers and let a seven-point halftime lead slip away in dropping its first major bowl game, 21-13, to Santa Clara in the 1950 Orange Bowl before a crowd of 64,816.

The Wildcats, 9-3, scored their first touchdown early in the second quarter as a result of a Santa Clara turnover. UK's John Netoskie recovered at fumble at the Wildcat 49 to set up Kentucky's first score. The Wildcats drove 51 yards in 14 plays as Wilbur Jamerson hammered over from two yards. Bobby Brooks added the PAT to make it 7-0.

Kentucky wasted a golden scoring opportunity late in the second quarter when Babe Parilli found Bill Leskovar for a 45-yard completion to the SC 3 with time running out. Leskovar and runningmate Don Phelps each were stopped short on their respec-tive rush attempts and the clock ran out before UK could score. The Wildcats led 7-0 at halftime.

UK coach Paul "Bear" Bryant said afterward he should have sent in a pass play just before the half. "If it failed," he said, "the clock was killed then we could have tried a field goal."

A short, 9-yard punt by Phelps set up Santa Clara's first score in the third quarter. After taking over on the SC 46, Bronco quarterback John Pasco hit Larry Williams on a 25-yard pass. Santa Clara eventually scored on a one-yard sneak by Pasco to tie the game, 7-7.

Santa Clara scored again later in the third period, thanks in part to a pass interference call against Kentucky. Hall Haynes went over from 4 yards to make it, 14-7, after three quarters.

Parilli led Kentucky right back, hitting Emery Clark on a 52-yard touchdown strike. Brooks, however, missed the tying PAT breaking a personal streak of 18 straight as Santa Clara led 14-13 with 12 minutes left in the contest.

Santa Clara managed to hold off the Cats and added an insurance score with less than a minute left, a 16-yard TD run by Buster Wraith.

1951 SUGAR BOWL
KENTUCKY 13, OKLAHOMA 7

January 1, 1951 Tulane Stadium Att. 82,000

Kentucky arrived on the national football scene and stunned national champion Oklahoma, 13-7, to capture the 1951 Sugar Bowl before 82,000 at New Orleans.

The Wildcats, 11-1, displayed a tough defense and opportunistic offense in snapping Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak, the longest in the nation at that time. More than 13,000 Kentucky fans made the long trip to New Orleans to watch the Southeastern Conference champions pick up their school record 11th win.

UK FOOTBALL HISTORY

Under the direction of coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, Kentucky continually confused the favored Sooners with different defensive looks. The Wildcats used three tackles much of the time, causing OU quarterback Claude Arnold to hasten his playmaking.

Inflicting the most damage on the Sooners was Walt Yowarsky, a tackle who had played less than five minutes on the defensive side of the football in 1950. Yowarsky operated at left end, next to Outland Trophy winner Bob Gain, and repeatedly sliced into the Sooner backfield to break up passes and to make Arnold hurry his hand-offs and laterals.

Yowarski recovered a fumble on the OU 22 that set up UK's first touchdown. On the very next play, Babe Parilli hit Wilbur Jamerson in the right corner of the end zone for the touchdown. Gain added the PAT to make it 7-0 in the first quarter.

Kentucky marched 81 yards in the second quarter to go up 13-0. Jamerson dove over from the one to cap the drive, but Gain missed wide on the PAT.

The Wildcat defense, ranked number two in the nation, showed Oklahoma why late in the third quarter. The Sooners drove 67 yards with the second-half kickoff, sitting at the UK 3 with a first-and-goal. Yowarsky helped UK turn back the Sooners, throwing an OU runner for a five-yard loss on third down and Oklahoma eventually turned the ball over on downs.

Yowarsky, voted the game's MVP, thwarted another OU threat in the fourth quarter as he recovered a fumbled punt.

Oklahoma did score with seven minutes to play as Billy Vessels hit Merrill Green on a 17-yard pass for the touchdown. Jim Weatherall added the PAT.

The Wildcats managed to hold on to the football for all but one play the rest of the way to claim a stirring 13-7 win.

1952 COTTON BOWL
KENTUCKY 20, TCU 7

January 1, 1952 Cotton Bowl Stadium Att. 75,349

Quarterback Babe Parilli threw for two touchdowns to lead the Kentucky Wildcats to a 20-7 victory over the TCU Horned Frogs in the 1952 Cotton Bowl before a crowd of 75,349 at Dallas, Texas.

Parilli, who completed 8 of 20 passes for 85 yards, tossed both touchdown strikes to Emery Clark. With the victory, the Wildcats end the season at 8-4.

Wilbur Jamerson scores winning TD on 1-yard dive as UK upsets national champion Oklahoma in 1951 Sugar Bowl.

Kentucky got on the scoreboard first, as Parilli found Clark for the first of two TDs. Parilli hit Clark with a five-yard toss to culminate a 53-yard scoring march. Harry Jones added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after one quarter.

In the second period, UK got its second touchdown when Parilli and Clark hooked up again. This time, Parilli found Clark on a 13-yard TD strike to cap a 57-yard drive. Jones missed on the PAT attempt and UK settled for a 13-0 lead in the second period with a little over 10 minutes left.

The Wildcat defense made that 13-point lead stand up until halftime as the Horned Frogs drove four times deep into UK territory. Led by All-American guard Ray Correll, the Wildcats turned TCU away on drives to the UK 4, 24, 5 and 2-yard lines to take a 13-0 lead at intermission.

TCU's Bobby Jack Floyd sliced the UK lead to 13-7 when he galloped 43 yards on a sweep. Floyd's run capped an 80-yard scoring drive which took only four plays. Keith Flowers added the PAT with 1:12 left in the third period.

Kentucky ended any thoughts of a TCU comeback, thwarting the only two Horned Frog offensive drives in the fourth period and scoring an insurance touchdown as well. Ed Hamilton sealed the UK victory with a three-yard score off left tackle with 3:33 left. Jones added the PAT for the final 20-7 score.

1976 PEACH BOWL
KENTUCKY 21, NORTH CAROLINA 0
December 31, 1976 Atlanta Stadium Att. 54,132

Kentucky tailback Rod Stewart scored three touchdowns to lead the Wildcats to a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina before a sellout crowd of 54,132 in the 1976 Peach Bowl at Atlanta, Ga.

The Wildcats, after a 25-year absence from the post-season bowl scene, returned in fine fashion as Kentucky completely smothered the Tar Heels. Kentucky outgained North Carolina 334-108 in total yards, limiting the Tar Heels to just five first downs and forcing five UNC turnovers.

After a scoreless first half, Kentucky went to work in the third period after UNC quarterback Matt Kupec fumbled at the Tar Heel 21. UK's James Ramey recovered and the Wildcats were in business.

Seven plays later, Stewart busted over from the one for the touchdown. John Pierce added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after three quarters.

Stewart sent the 37,000-plus Kentuckians, who had followed UK to the Peach Bowl, into a frenzy with his second touchdown early in the fourth quarter. The Wildcats marched 57 yards in 9 plays as Stewart capped the drive with a 13-yard gallop behind All-American tackle Warren Bryant. Pierce was good on the PAT and Kentucky led 14-0 with 13:01 left to play.

The Big Blue had to go only 47 yards for their final score. Kentucky faced a fourth-and-one from the UNC 3 with a little over three minutes remaining. Once again, Stewart (104 yards on 19 carries) got the call and he picked up both - the first down and the touchdown. Pierce was true on the PAT and UK had put the game away.

Stewart tied the Peach Bowl record for most touchdowns and scoring with the 3 TDs and 18 points. He was named the game's MVP. The Most Valuable Defensive Player of the game was UK linebacker Mike Martin, who helped hold the Tarheels to just over 100 yards.

1983 HALL OF FAME BOWL
WEST VIRGINIA 20, KENTUCKY 16
December 22, 1983 Legion Field Att. 42,000

Kentucky won much of the statistical battle but lost the war in dropping a tough 20-16 decision to the West Virginia Mountaineers in the 1983 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham.

The Wildcats, in a bowl for the first time since 1976, outgained West Virginia 306-288 in total offense and held the edge in first downs 19-18 and passing yards 216-88. But 17 second-half points by West Virginia were too much for the Wildcats to overcome.

West Virginia scratched first as placekicker Paul Woodside connected on a 39-yard field goal late in the first quarter.

Kentucky countered with 10 points in the second stanza to take a 10-3 lead at halftime.

The Wildcats marched 54 yards in eight plays for their first score. Facing a third-and-three from the WV 26, Kentucky used some razzle-dazzle as Tony Mayes swept right, then threw-back to quarterback Randy Jenkins in the left corner of the endzone for the TD. John Hutcherson added the PAT and UK led 7-3 with 10:59 left in the second period.

Jenkins hit two big passes late in the second quarter to help set up a 32-yard field goal by Hutcherson. Jenkins connected with Joe Phillips for a 19-yard pass play and then hit George Adams for a 14-yarder as Hutcherson connected with but 38 seconds left in the half.

WVU kicker Paul Woodside fooled everyone to begin the second half. Woodside tried and on-side kick to start the half and then recovered it to give the Mountaineers the football at the UK 48. Eight plays later, QB Jeff Hostetler found Rich Hollins for a 16- yard TD strike. Woodside added the PAT and it was 10-10 with 11:10 left in the third quarter.

West Virginia scored twice in a span of two minutes early in the fourth quarter to take a commanding 20-10 lead. Hostetler capped off a 10-play, 81-yard drive with a 2-yard scoring toss to Rob Bennett to make it 17-10 with 11:15 left to play.

Two plays later, West Virginia took over after an interception of a Jenkins pass at the UK 16. The interception set up a 23-yard field goal by Woodside at the Mountaineers went up 20-10 with 9:18 remaining.

Kentucky freshman quarterback Bill Ransdell led the Wildcats back, marching UK 92 yards in 11 plays following the kickoff. Ransdell hit Phillips for a 13-yard scoring toss to make it 20-16 with 5:50 left. Hutcherson missed the PAT.

The Wildcats got one more shot, but could get no further than the UK 37.

1984 HALL OF FAME BOWL
KENTUCKY 20, WISCONSIN 19
December 29, 1984 Legion Field Att. 47,300

Kentucky's Joey Worley booted a career-long 52-yard field goal with just under nine minutes remaining to give the Wildcats a thrilling 20-19 victory over the Wisconsin Badgers in the 1984 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham.

Worley, a freshman, helped Kentucky overcome a nine-point deficit in the second half with his school and bowl record field goal. The victory gave Kentucky its first bowl win since the 1976 Peach Bowl when the Cats downed North Carolina, 21-0.

Wisconsin jumped on top early, scoring twice in the first quarter. Todd Gregoire nailed a 40-yard field goal just under four minutes into the game and Michael Howard hit Thad McFadden with a 3-yard TD pass. Gregoire added the PAT and the Badgers led 10-0 with 5:34 left in the opening period.

Gregoire added another field goal, this one from 27 yards, to make it 13-0 with 7:05 left in the second period.

Three possessions later, Kentucky got on the board after safety Paul Calhoun intercepted a Howard pass to give UK possession at the Badger 42. It took Kentucky just five plays to score as Marc Logan went over from nine yards. Worley added the PAT to cut the deficit to 13-7 with 1:29 left in the half.

Wisconsin was not through. The Badgers used four running plays, two passes and a costly 15-yard penalty to move the football to the UK 3 with two seconds left in the half. From there, Wisconsin decided on a Gregoire field goal (20-yarder) to take a 16-7 edge at halftime.

Kentucky narrowed the gap to 16-10 on a 22-yard field goal by Worley with 11:28 left in the third quarter. But Gregoire responded with a 40-yarder two minutes later to move the count back to nine, 19-10.

Behind UK quarterback Bill Ransdell, the Wildcats marched 82 yards in 11 plays later in the quarter to get within two, 19-17. Ransdell hit Logan on a screen pass to cover the final 27 yards and with the Worley PAT, UK was back in it with 26 seconds left in the third quarter.

The next time Kentucky got the ball, Ransdell moved the Cats into position for Worley's 52-yarder. Starting from the UK 22, tailback Mark Higgs got the call four consecutive times, then it was Adams turn the next four plays. Facing a fourth-and-two at the UW 34, Worley nailed the game-winner with 8:55 left.

Wisconsin came back and marched to the UK 8 with less than two minutes left. With the Badgers facing a fourth-and-six, Gregoire was called on for his 5th field goal attempt. This time, the snap from center was bobbled and UK had sealed the victory.

UK FOOTBALL HISTORY

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL TRADITIONS

"BLUE AND WHITE"

The University of Kentucky adopted as its official colors Blue and White in 1892. Originally, however, UK students had decided on blue and light yellow prior to the Kentucky-Centre football game on Dec. 19, 1891. The shade of blue, which is close to a royal blue, came about when a student asked the same question, "What color blue?" At that time, Richard C. Stoll (who lettered in football at UK in 1893-94) pulled off his blue necktie and held it up. The students then adopted that particular shade of blue of Stoll's necktie. A year later, UK students officially dropped the color light yellow for white.

For printing purposes, the UK athletic teams use PMS 293 blue.

WILDCAT MASCOT

The Wildcat mascot originated during the 1976-77 academic year at the University of Kentucky. Gary Tanner was the original "Wildcat", who danced and entertained thousands of UK fans at Commonwealth Stadium and Rupp Arena during athletic events. Today, the Wildcat mascot also attends several academic functions as well and generally serves as a friendly ambassador for the University. In the early '80s, Terry Barney began a Kentucky football tradition as Wildcat mascot. After every Wildcat score, he ran to the endzone in front of the UK students and began doing one-arm pushups for every point UK had scored. Today, that tradition is still in existence at Commonwealth Stadium as the entire crowd counts with the Wildcat as he churns out the pushups. This season, Lexington native Jay McChord, will serve as the Wildcat mascot.

"WILDCATS"

The official nickname for the University of Kentucky athletic teams is "Wildcats". The nickname became synonymous with UK shortly after picking up a 6-2 victory over Illinois on Oct. 9, 1909, on the road. Commandant Carbusier, then head of the military department of old State University, told a group of students in a chapel service following the game that the Kentucky football team had "fought like Wildcats". Later, the name Wildcats became more and more popular among UK followers as well as with members of the press. As a result, the nickname has been adopted by the University.

BATTLE FOR THE BEER BARREL

The Beer Barrel, painted blue, orange and white, is the trophy awarded each year to the winner of the annual Kentucky-Tennessee football game. Although the series began in 1893, the actual Beer Barrel was not awarded until 1925. Two Wildcat supporters, Guy Hugelet and Rollie M. Guthrie, wanted to come up with something symbolic to represent the great rivalry between Kentucky and Tennessee. Originally, Hugelet and Guthrie decided to use an old whiskey barrel as the trophy but the Women's Christian Temperance Union (WCTU) made a stand against it, since it was during the Prohibition period. Hugelet and Guthrie then decided to go to a local distributor, John G. Galvin, and settled on a beer barrel for the trophy. At that time, the Anti-Saloon League stepped in and voiced their displeasure with the beer barrel. Hugelet and Guthrie compromised, painting the words "ice water" on the barrel. Kentucky was awarded the first Beer Barrel, winning the 1925 affair 23-20.

Since its induction into the series, the Beer Barrel has changed hands without necessarily a football game being played. Tennessee students stole the Barrel from the UK campus in 1953 and returned it only when threats were made against the UT mascot, Smokey. Vanderbilt got into the act of stealing the barrel in 1961, taking the barrel from Lexington to gain UT support for the Commodore basketball team, scheduled to meet Kentucky in a playoff basketball game in Knoxville.

In all, 83 games have been played between Kentucky and Tennessee. It is the longest series in UK history. Tennessee leads the series, 51-23-9.

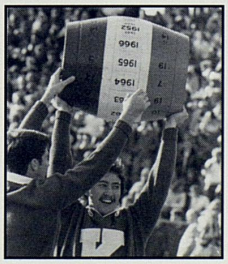

BATTLE FOR THE BOURBON BARREL

The Bourbon Barrel is awarded to the winner of the Kentucky-Indiana football game. The series, which began in 1893, was interrupted in 1927 and not continued for 40 years. In 1967, the series began again as Indiana captured a 12-10 victory at Bloomington.

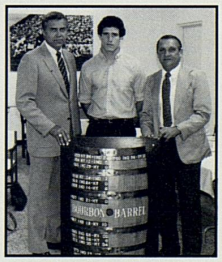

The origination of the Bourbon Barrel is unclear. A possible answer is it may represent the great distillery industry located in Kentucky and southern Indiana.

Mounted on a board for traveling purposes, the half-barrel lists all the scores in the 18-game series. A blue stripe is painted in the background for a Kentucky victory with the score reversed out, likewise, a red stripe is painted for an Indiana victory.

Indiana leads the series 11-6-1, but Kentucky has won the last three outings. Both schools have signed a contract to meet every year through 2000.

UK FOOTBALL HISTORY

HISTORY OF THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

The ten universities comprising the Southeastern Conference began athletic competition with one another as members of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association, organized at a meeting of the faculty representatives, called by Dr. William L. Dudley of Vanderbilt, in Atlanta, Dec. 22, 1894.

Student teams from the schools were meeting in various sports with little pattern to their contests. Baseball was the most popular campus sport at the time, but the American adaptation of the English game, rugby, called "football," was drifting down from the East and Midwest. Southerners were quickly attracted to this sport formalized by Princeton and Rutgers in 1869.

Kentucky A&M (now UK) liked what they saw, organized a team, and in November of 1881 played Transylvania a three-game series, winning the first 7-1/2 to 1, then losing 1 to 2 and 2-1/2 to 3-3/4. By 1895, nine schools now SEC members were playing.

Basketball moved quickly to the South. Originated by Dr. James Naismith at Springfield College, Mass., in 1891, it was being played at the Nashville, Tenn., YMCA by Vanderbilt University in 1893. The Commodores won 9-6 in a game with nine players on each team. It became an intercollegiate sport in 1901, and by 1908, Vanderbilt was meeting Columbia and Yale intersectionally.

Representatives of seven schools attended the SIAA organizational meeting and twelve more joined during the first year of operation. Dr. Dudley was elected president and served until his death in 1914. By 1920 the SIAA had expanded to 30 members, so on Dec. 12-13 of that year, in a meeting at Gainesville, Fla., the larger schools reorganized as the Southern Conference. Professor S. V. Sanford of the University of Georgia, who called the meeting, served as the first president. Despite an original limit of 16, the membership grew to 23 by 1928. At one time or another the SIAA and the SC included most of the Southern colleges, ranging all the way from Virginia to Texas.

At the annual SC meeting of Dec. 8-9, 1932, in Knoxville, Tenn. the 13 members west and south of the Appalachians reorganized as the Southeastern Conference, with ten coast members remaining as the Southern. Dr. Frank L. McVey of Kentucky was elected President of the new conference. He held an informal meeting of the presidents of the schools Feb. 16, 1933 in Birmingham, Ala., then the first full meeting in Atlanta, Feb. 27.

Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Ga. Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi, Miss. State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt were the charter members off the SEC. On December 13, 1940, however, Sewanee withdrew, then on June 1, 1964, Ga. Tech, and on June 1, 1966, Tulane.

The office of Commissioner was created in 1940, due to the great amount of detail work developing, especially in recruiting and eligibility. Martin S. Conner of Jackson, Miss., a former governor of the state, took office August 21 of that year as an extension of the authority of the presidents.

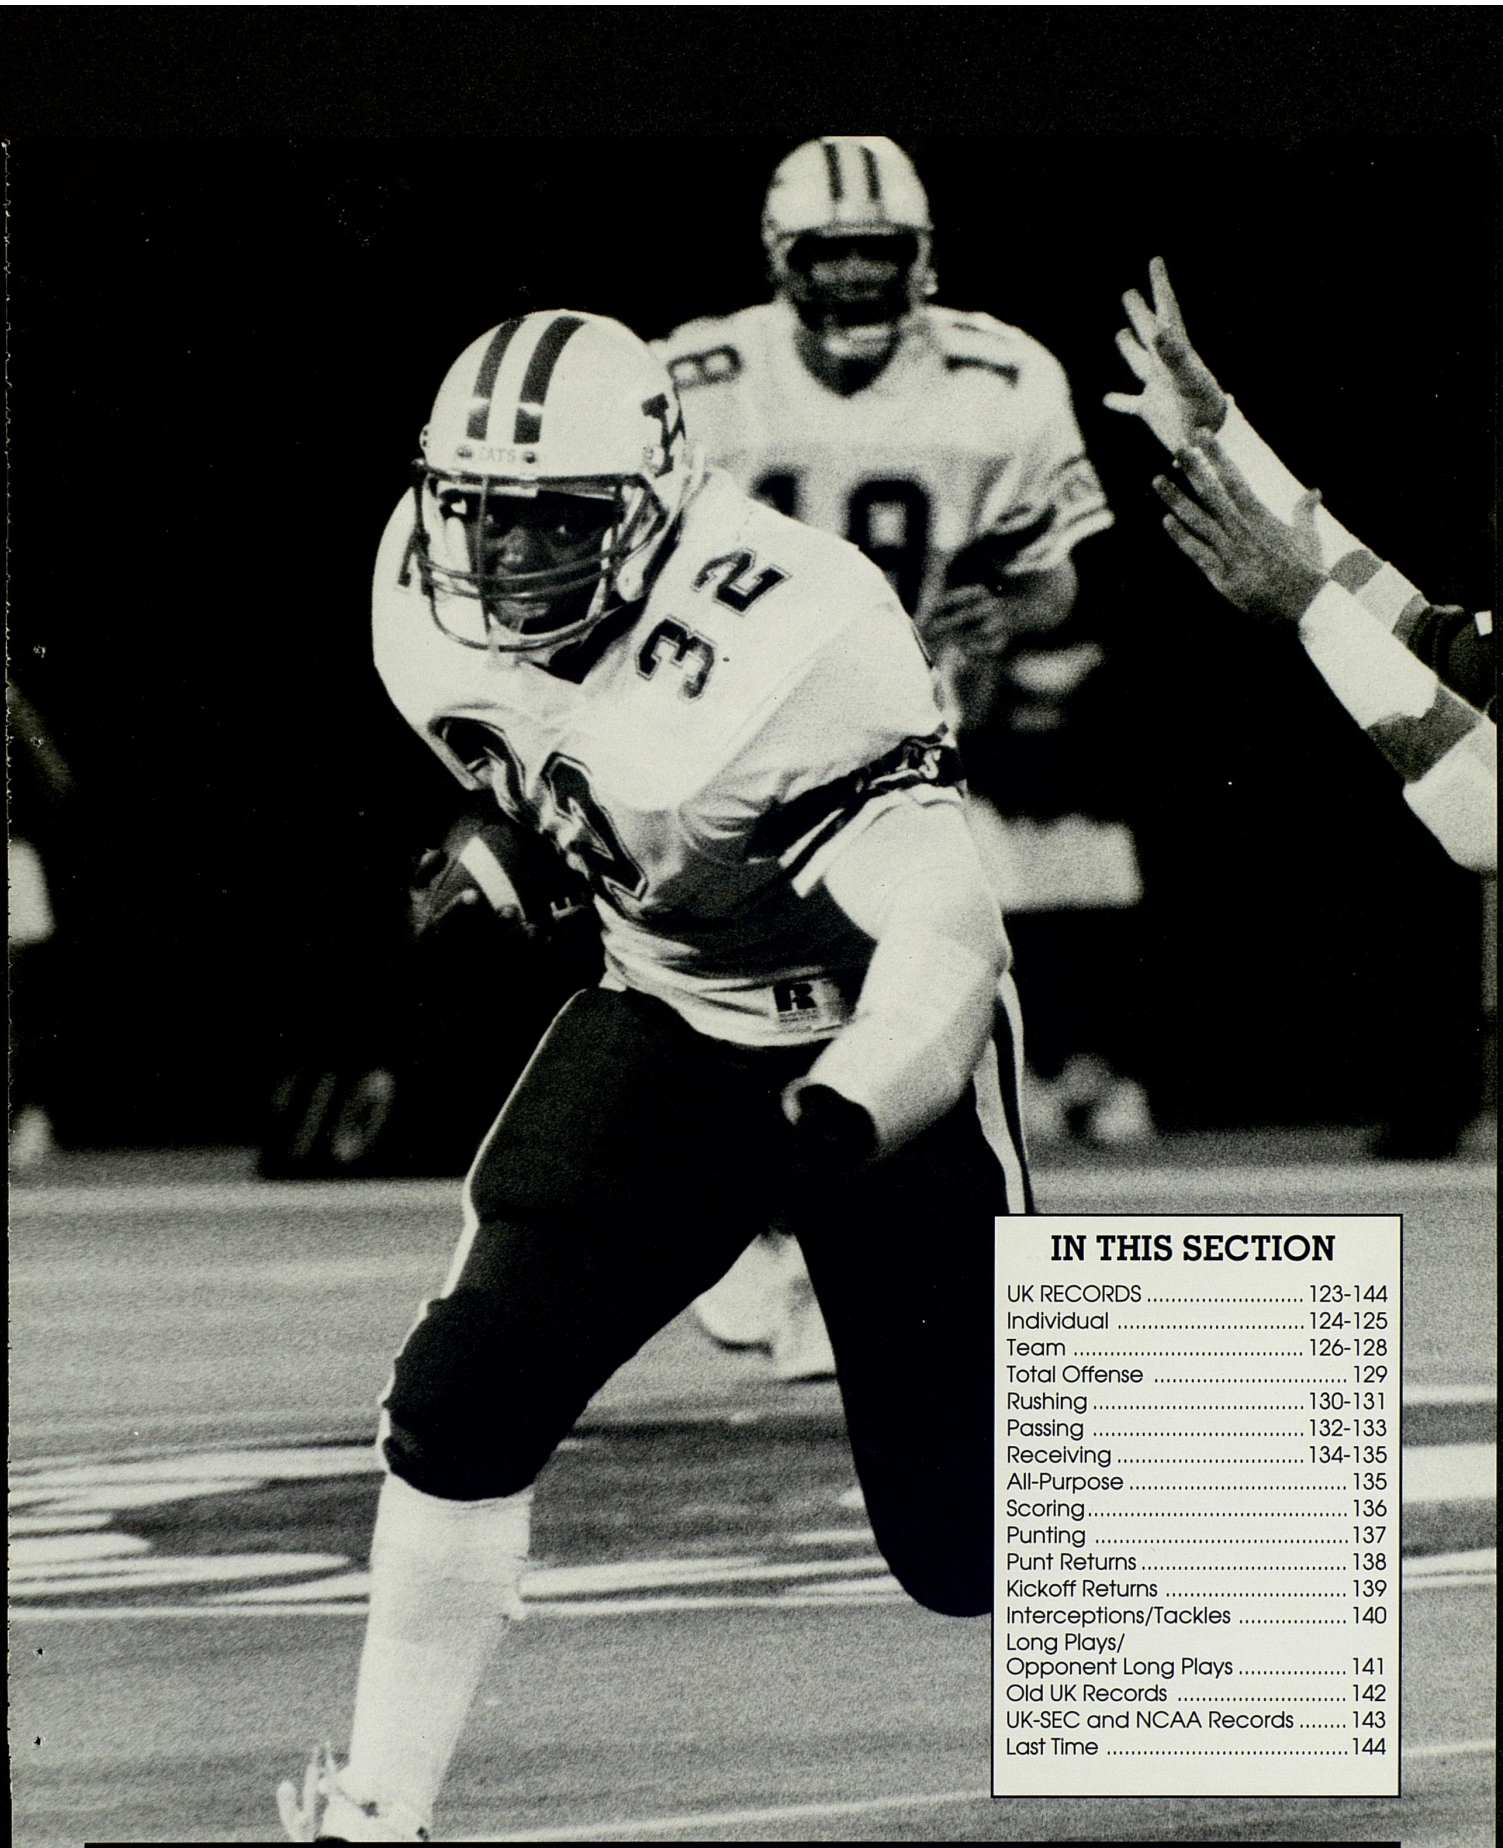

Late in 1946 Mr. Conner became incapacitated due to illness and the Secretary of the Conference, Dean N. W. Daugherty of Tennessee, served as Acting Commissioner during the fall of 1947. Bernie H. Moore, former coach of LSU was appointed as second fulltime commissioner Feb. 21, 1948, and guided the league to national respect in his 18 years of service. A.M. (Tonto) Coleman succeeded Moore on his retirement April 1, 1966. The native of Alabama, reared in Texas, and experienced in coaching and administering athletics in both the Southwest and Southeast, served 6-1/2 years.

Dr. Boyd McWhorter, Dean of Arts and Sciences at the University of Georgia and Secretary of the SEC since January, 1967, succeeded Coleman August 1, 1972. Under his leadership the SEC experienced growth in every way possible. McWhorter's first year, the SEC distributed $1,570,591.40; 14 years later in 1986, the SEC distributed $15,000,000 to its schools.

Dr. Harvey W. Schiller, an Air Force Colonel and Faculty Chairman at the Air Force Academy, succeeded McWhorter September 15, 1986.

UK RECORDS

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY FOOTBALL RECORDS (1881-1945)

The University of Kentucky began playing football in 1881. Since that beginning, many UK athletes and teams have turned in some outstanding performances. However, due to the lack of consistency in recording those events, accurate records cannot be ascertained in some cases of those early years. This section documents someof those outstanding accomplishments before the 1946 season.

THE UNIVERSITY

THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

From its modest beginnings in 1865, when it was known as State College, the University of Kentucky has grown into one of the nation's most outstanding institutions of higher learning.

As a comprehensive land-grant university, UK offers an educational experience that cannot be matched anywhere in the Commonwealth. In fact, only a small number of institutions across the nation can offer the wealth of opportunities that await students at UK.

At Kentucky, there is a tradition of value:

 UK EDUCATES ONE-THIRD OF THE COLLEGE STUDENTS IN KENTUCKY

Enrollment on the University's campus in Lexington is more than 22,000, while about 30,000 attend UK's 14 community colleges throughout the Commonwealth. That represents one-third of all students attending public or private colleges, business schools and universities in the state.

 INCOMING FRESHMEN ARE BEST IN STATE

Average entrance exam scores for UK freshmen are 22+ on the ACT, higher than those for any public university in the state and about three points higher than the national average. The result is a better quality student body each year.

 APPLICATIONS TO ATTEND UK INCREASING

The number of students wanting to attend UK increases each year with applications for admission this fall well above the 10,000 mark.

 ACADEMIC SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM IS GROWING

The University's academic scholarship program – scholarships awarded on merit alone – has grown from $70,000 a year in 1983 to more than $1 million in 1988.

 UK HAS REACHED THE TOP CATEGORY OF RESEARCH UNIVERSITIES

The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching has classified UK as a "Research University of the First Class," the only such institution in Kentucky and one of only 45 in the nation.

 UK HAS ENTERED THE WORLD OF SUPERCOMPUTERS

The University is now one of only a small number of universities in the nation to acquire a "supercomputer." UK's IBM 300E, with three "vectors," will attract not only more research funding and grants, but it also will be made available to undergraduate students, a rarity at any university.

 UK HAS SOME OF THE BEST FACULTY IN THE NATION

Some examples:

ROBERT SHEPHERD, plant pathology, was elected to the National Academy of Sciences, the only Kentucky resident ever to receive that prestigious honor.

ANTHONY DEMARIA is president of the American College of Cardiology.

DAVID KAO, civil engineering, was named one of the nation's Top 100 researchers by Science Digest Magazine.

VIRGIL HAYES, animal sciences, is president-elect of the Council for Agricultural Science and Technology in the United States.

PEGGY MESZAROS, dean of the College of Home Economics, is national president of Kappa Omicron Phi, a home economics honorary society.

GUY DAVENPORT, an English professor who is a Rhodes Scholar, is internationally known in his field.

R. DAVID COBB, Pharmacy, is chairman-elect of the board of trustees of the American Pharmaceutical Association.

 THE FACULTY AT UK ARE AN IMPORTANT STATE "INDUSTRY"

UK faculty brought to the University and the state last year more than $50 million in research grants and sponsored programs – a valuable resource to the economic development of the Commonwealth. UK ranks among the Top 100 research universities in federal research funding, the only one so ranked in the state.

THE UNIVERSITY

 UK HAS SOME OF THE MOST OUTSTANDING PROGRAMS IN THE NATION

* The sociology department received the American Sociological Association's award for teaching, the first time this prize has gone to an entire department.

* The College of Communications ranked among the Top 10 programs in the country based on papers presented at the International Communications Association convention.

* The Gaines Center for the Humanities is unique among undergraduate programs and facilities found in public universities in the nation.

* University cancer research and treatment programs have been enhanced by two new modern facilities.

* The equine research program, for a long time a research hallmark at UK, has one of the top research facilities in the world, the new Maxwell Gluck Equine Research Center.

* The Patterson School of Diplomacy and International Commerce is the only such graduate program of its kind in the South.

* More than 40,000 people annually enjoy music, theater and art programs of the College of Fine Arts.

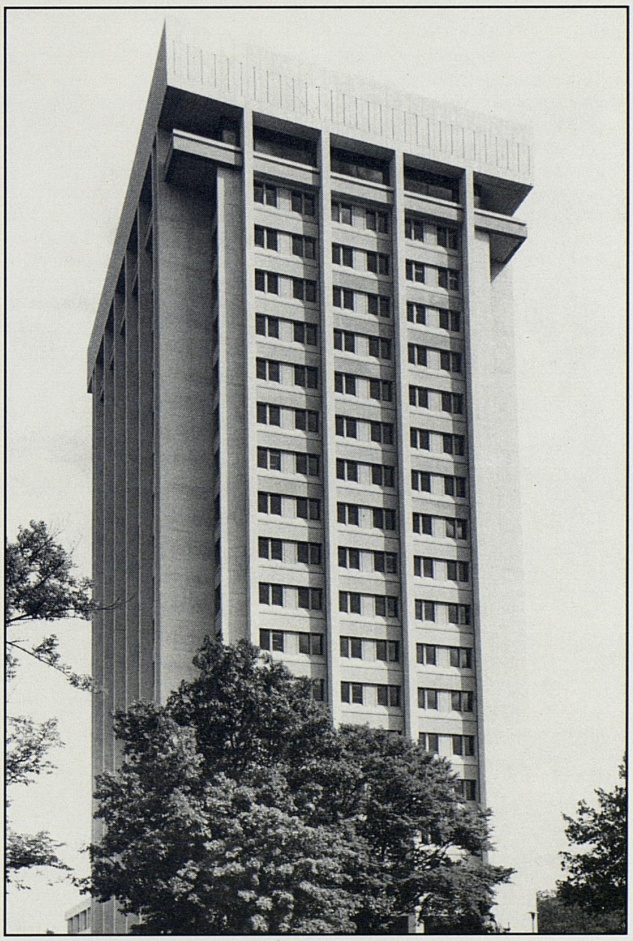

* The award-winning Community College System of 14 colleges across the state provide technical and transfer programs to more than 30,000 Kentuckians annually.

 UK HAS AN IMPRESSIVE LIST OF ALUMNI

Included in the University's long list of more than 100,000 alumni are seven governors, two Nobel Prize winners, an astronaut, and several chief executive officers of national corporations.

THE UNIVERSITY

DR. DAVID P. ROSELLE
PRESIDENT

Dr. David P. Roselle became the ninth president of the University of Kentucky on July 1, 1987.

In his first year as president he quickly became acquainted with the University's alumni and friends, and thousands of Kentuckians, by traveling the state extensively. He has met with hundreds of clubs and organizations from one end of the Commonwealth to the other.

On campus, he meets frequently with faculty and staff groups, and shortly after assuming the presidency announced a new program of free tuition for University employees.

Dr. Roselle came to UK from Virginia Tech in Blacksburg, Va., where he served for four years as provost, the No. 2 administrative position there.

He had a reputation as an innovator at Virginia Tech and has shown this same innovative style at UK.

He has been one of the main participants in the University's efforts to attract adequate public funding of the University, and his leadership was recognized by a top national award from the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education.

Dr. Roselle believes that the new technology in computation and communications is important not only to academia, but also to business, government, and industry. Consistent with the belief, he helped design and implement a strategy at UK to provide wider access to the new technology. As a result, computing and communications are increasingly an important part in the management of the University, in the academic programs, and in the service programs that support all the citizens of the Commonwealth.

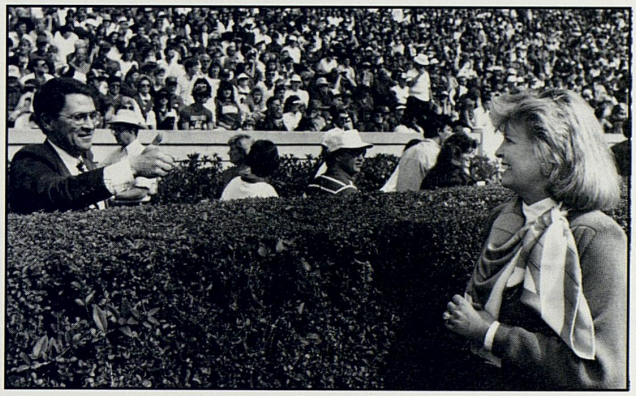

Thanks to Dr. Roselle's efforts, UK is one of a small number of universities in the country to have a "supercomputer" operating for the benefit of faculty researchers and students.

Dr. Roselle's announced goal is to make the University of Kentucky recognized nationally for the quality of its scholarship, research, and graduates.

A native of Pennsylvania, Dr. Roselle earned a Ph.D. in mathematics from Duke University. He was a mathematics professor and researcher at the University of Maryland and Louisiana State University before going to Virginia Tech, where he moved up through the administrative ranks.

He is a nationally-known mathematics scholar and editor of two books, and was on the editorial board of a third.

He and his wife, Louise, have two children – a son, Arthur, 17, and a daughter Cynthia, 16. The Roselles lives at the traditional home of UK Presidents on the UK campus, Maxwell Place.

THE UNIVERSITY

CLIFF HAGAN
Director of Athletics

As Cliff Hagan enters his 13th year as Director of Athletics, the University of Kentucky Athletics Association is undergoing an era of success and unprecedented growth.

Under his guidance, the University of Kentucky rose to new horizons during the 1987-88 academic year in Southeastern Conference competition. The UK men's programs tallied 43 points to finish 4th in the Bernie Moore Trophy standings. Also, the UK women's programs placed 4th in the Women's All-Sports Trophy standings with 41.5 points. Both 4th-place finishes were the highest in UK history.

For the second consecutive year, the University of Kentucky led the Southeastern Conference in Academic All-SEC Honor Roll selections during the 1987-88 year. Kentucky placed 56 student- athletes on the various league honor rolls, more than any other SEC school.

Facility improvements under Hagan's direction in recent years include the $6 million E.J. Nutter Football Training Facility, the $5.5 million Harry C. Lancaster Aquatics Center, the Hillary J. Boone Indoor Tennis Center, the lighting of the Shively Baseball Field and the resurfacing and seating expansion of the Shively Track, bringing the the total expenditures in capital expansion projects to nearly $15 million.

This past June, the UK Athletics Association Board of Directors approved a record $13.5 million budget for the 1988-89 fiscal year. In a time when many athletic departments are facing budget crises, UKAA continues to be totally self-supporting, with no tax dollars from the University's general funds. In fact during the spring of 1988, Hagan and UKAA earmarked $4 million to contribute to the University for academic purposes. The Athletics Association had previously contributed $2 million to the university in 1987-88 for academics.

Hagan, a native of Owensboro, replaced the late Harry C. Lancaster as athletics director on July 1, 1975. Since then, UK athletics has enjoyed a tremendous amount of success, both on the playing field and in the classroom. Hagan has seen UK basketball teams win an NCAA championship, an NIT championship and make another appearance in the Final Four. The football teams have appeared in 3 bowl games and this past year, 8 Wildcat teams made it to their respective NCAA championship events.

Academically, Hagan helped establish the Center for Academic and Tutorial Services (CATS). The University of Kentucky was the first university in the nation to open an academic center for student-athletes. The efforts have indeed paid off, as UK has consistently been among the leaders in the Southeastern Confernence in the number of student-athletes named to the league's Academic Honor Roll.

Hagan's involvement in college athletics extends beyond the University of Kentucky. He serves on the Executive Committee of the Southeastern Conference and is also on the Executive Committee of the NCAA Division 1A Athletics Directors Association.

A two-time All-America basketball center at UK (1952, 54), Hagan helped the Wildcats win 86 of 91 games during his career. Included in his career is a 1951 national championship under legendary coach Adolph Rupp.

As a senior, Hagan helped lead UK to a perfect 25-0 record and the Southeastern Conference title. That season, Hagan averaged 29 points per game and led the nation in rebounding (13.5 rpg).

After graduating from UK in 1954 and serving two years at Andrews Air Force Base as a commissioned officer, Hagan began a highly successful National Basketball Association career with the St. Louis Hawks. In 10 seasons, he posted 12,433 career points in 672 games (18.5 ppg) and played in five NBA All-Star games. Hagan played on the St. Louis teams which claimed six division titles. In 1958, Hagan helped lead the Hawks to the World Championship by defeating the Boston Celtics. Hagan was voted All-Pro from 1957-62.

Between basketball seasons at St. Louis, Hagan earned his M.S. degree from Washington University in 1958.

He also had a stint as player-coach of the Dallas Chapparals during his professional basketball days. In fact, Hagan was chosen as the Texas Professional Coach of the Year in 1968. His record at Dallas was 109-90. In 1975, Hagan was named to the Kentucky Athletic Hall of Fame. Three years later, he became the first UK player inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. Hagan was inducted into the National High School Sports Hall of Fame in July 1988.

Hagan is married to the former Martha Milton of Owensboro. They have four children — Mrs. Lisa Thaxton, Mrs. Laurie Hill, Mrs. Amy Burdette and Kip.

THE UNIVERSITY

UKAA ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

LARRY IVY
Assistant Athletics Director/Finance

Larry Ivy begins his 12th year with the University ofKentucky Athletics Association as Assistant Athletics Director for Finance.

Ivy, a native of Huntsville, Ala., joined the UKAA staff in 1976. He assists the athletics director in all areas of the overall Association's administration, with primary interest in management of the business operations.

Aside from his above duties, Ivy serves as game manager for all UK home basketball games. He has also served as tournament manager for the 1985 NCAA Final Four, the 1982 Southeastern Conference Basketball Tournament, and 3 NCAA Mideast Regionals (1977, 1980, 1984).

Also, Ivy has served in the capacity as assistant tournament coordinator and ticket chairman for the SEC Basketball Tournament the last 6 years.

Ivy attended and graduated from Huntsville High School in 1961. He earned his undergraduate (1967) degree and MBA (1968) from the University of Alabama.

He came to the University of Kentucky in 1969 as director of housing before joining the UKAA staff.

Ivy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack F. Ivy of Huntsville. He has one daughter, Kim, 18.

BOB BRADLEY
Assistant Director of Athletics/NCAA-SEC Compliance and Academic Affairs

Bob Bradley begins his 11th year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association, coming aboard in 1977.

Bradley, a native of Hornell, N.Y., was named Assistant Director of Athletics/NCAA-SEC Compliance and Academic Affairs on July 1, 1988. His primary duties include assisting the athletics director in NCAA and Southeastern Conference compliance matters and overseeing the CATS (Center for Academic and Tutorial Services) program.

He attended and graduated from Hornell (N.Y.) High School and earned his undergraduate degree at Salem College in 1971. Bradley then earned his master's degree in 1972 from the University of Kentucky in educational psychology and counseling.

Prior to joining the UKAA staff, Bradley served as coordinator of career counseling and director of financial aid for the Lexington Technical Institute.

Bradley is the son of Delores Bradley and the late Charles Bradley of Hornell, N.Y. He is currently single.

GENE DeFILIPPO
Assistant Director of Athletics/Marketing and Promotion

Gene DeFilippo begins his 2nd year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

DeFilippo, a native of Florence, Mass., was named Assistant Director of Athletics for Marketing and Promotions in January, 1987. His main responsibilities include handling all marketing and promotional matters concerning UK athletics and fund-raising as the director of the Blue-White Fund.

He earned his undergraduate degree and graduated with cum laude honors from Springfield College in 1973. The following year, DeFilippo served as a graduate assistant football coach at Tennessee and earned his master's degree in educational ad- ministration (1974).

DeFilippo served as football offensive coordinator from 1975-79 for Youngstown (Ohio) State, then was an assistant coach at Vanderbilt the next three years. He moved from coaching to administrative assistant at Vanderbilt under athletics director Roy Kramer. After two years, DeFilippo was named the director of athletics at the University of South Carolina at Spartanburg. DeFilippo attended Northhampton High School and Williston Academy.

He and his wife, Anne, have three children—Christine, John and Mary.

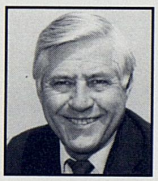

KATHY DeBOER
Acting Assistant Athletics Director/Women

Kathy DeBoer begins her third year as Acting Assistant Athletics Director for Womens programs at the University of Kentucky.

DeBoer, who also doubles as the women's volleyball coach, received the 1987 Tachikara National Coach of the Year award in guiding the Wildcats to a 31-2 record and a Southeastern Conference championship. In DeBoer's four years at Kentucky, she has captured two SEC championships and compiled a record of 89-45.

Before coming to Kentucky, DeBoer spent four seasons as volleyball coach at Ferris State College in Big Rapids, Mich., winning two Great Lakes Conference championships.

DeBoer received her Bachelors degree from Michigan State in 1978, and is currently finishing up her Masters degree in Business Administration at Kentucky.

RUSSELL RICE
Assistant to the Athletics Director

Russell Rice begins his 21st year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

Rice, a native of Paintsville, was named Assistant to the Athletics Director in June 1987 after serving 18 years as sports information director. His primary duties include working on special projects and research.

He came to UK in 1967 as assistant sports information director after 16 years in the newspaper field with the Whitesburg Mountain Eagle, the Hazard Herald and the Lexington Leader. Rice was sports editor at the Lexington Leader for five years. He was named sports information director at UK in 1969. After graduation from Van Lear High School, he was involved in overseas service with the Marines in WWII. Rice later attended Kentucky Wesleyan College and eventually earned his undergraduate degree at the University of Kentucky in 1951.

He has authored four books on Kentucky basketball and football: "The Wildcats" (Kentucky Football), "The Big Blue Machine (Kentucky Basketball), Joe B. Hall: My Own Kentucky Home", and "The Wildcat Legacy" (Pictorial History of Kentucky Basketball)."

Rice is married to the former Doris Marie Thacker of Knott County. They have four children — Mrs. Dan Gardiner of Louisville, Mrs. Mike Covington of Georgetown, Russell James of Salisbury, Md., and Kim of Lexington.

KENTUCKY ATHLETICS ENJOYS BANNER 1987-88 YEAR

The University of Kentucky enjoyed a banner 1987-88 athletic year as both the men's and women's programs finished fourth in the race for the Southeastern Conference all-sports trophies.

In the men's programs, UK had 43 points (based on final standings in each sport) in the Bernie Moore Trophy standings. The Kentucky basketball team captured the SEC title and baseball and tennis each finished in second place to highlight the men's achievements. The 4th-place finish by the men's programs was the highest in UK history.

In the women's programs, UK had 41.5 points in the battle for the Women's All-Sports Trophy. The UK volleyball team won the SEC championship and tennis finished 3rd in the league to highlight the women's achievements. Again, the 4th-place finish by the UK women was the highest in school history.

THE UNIVERSITY

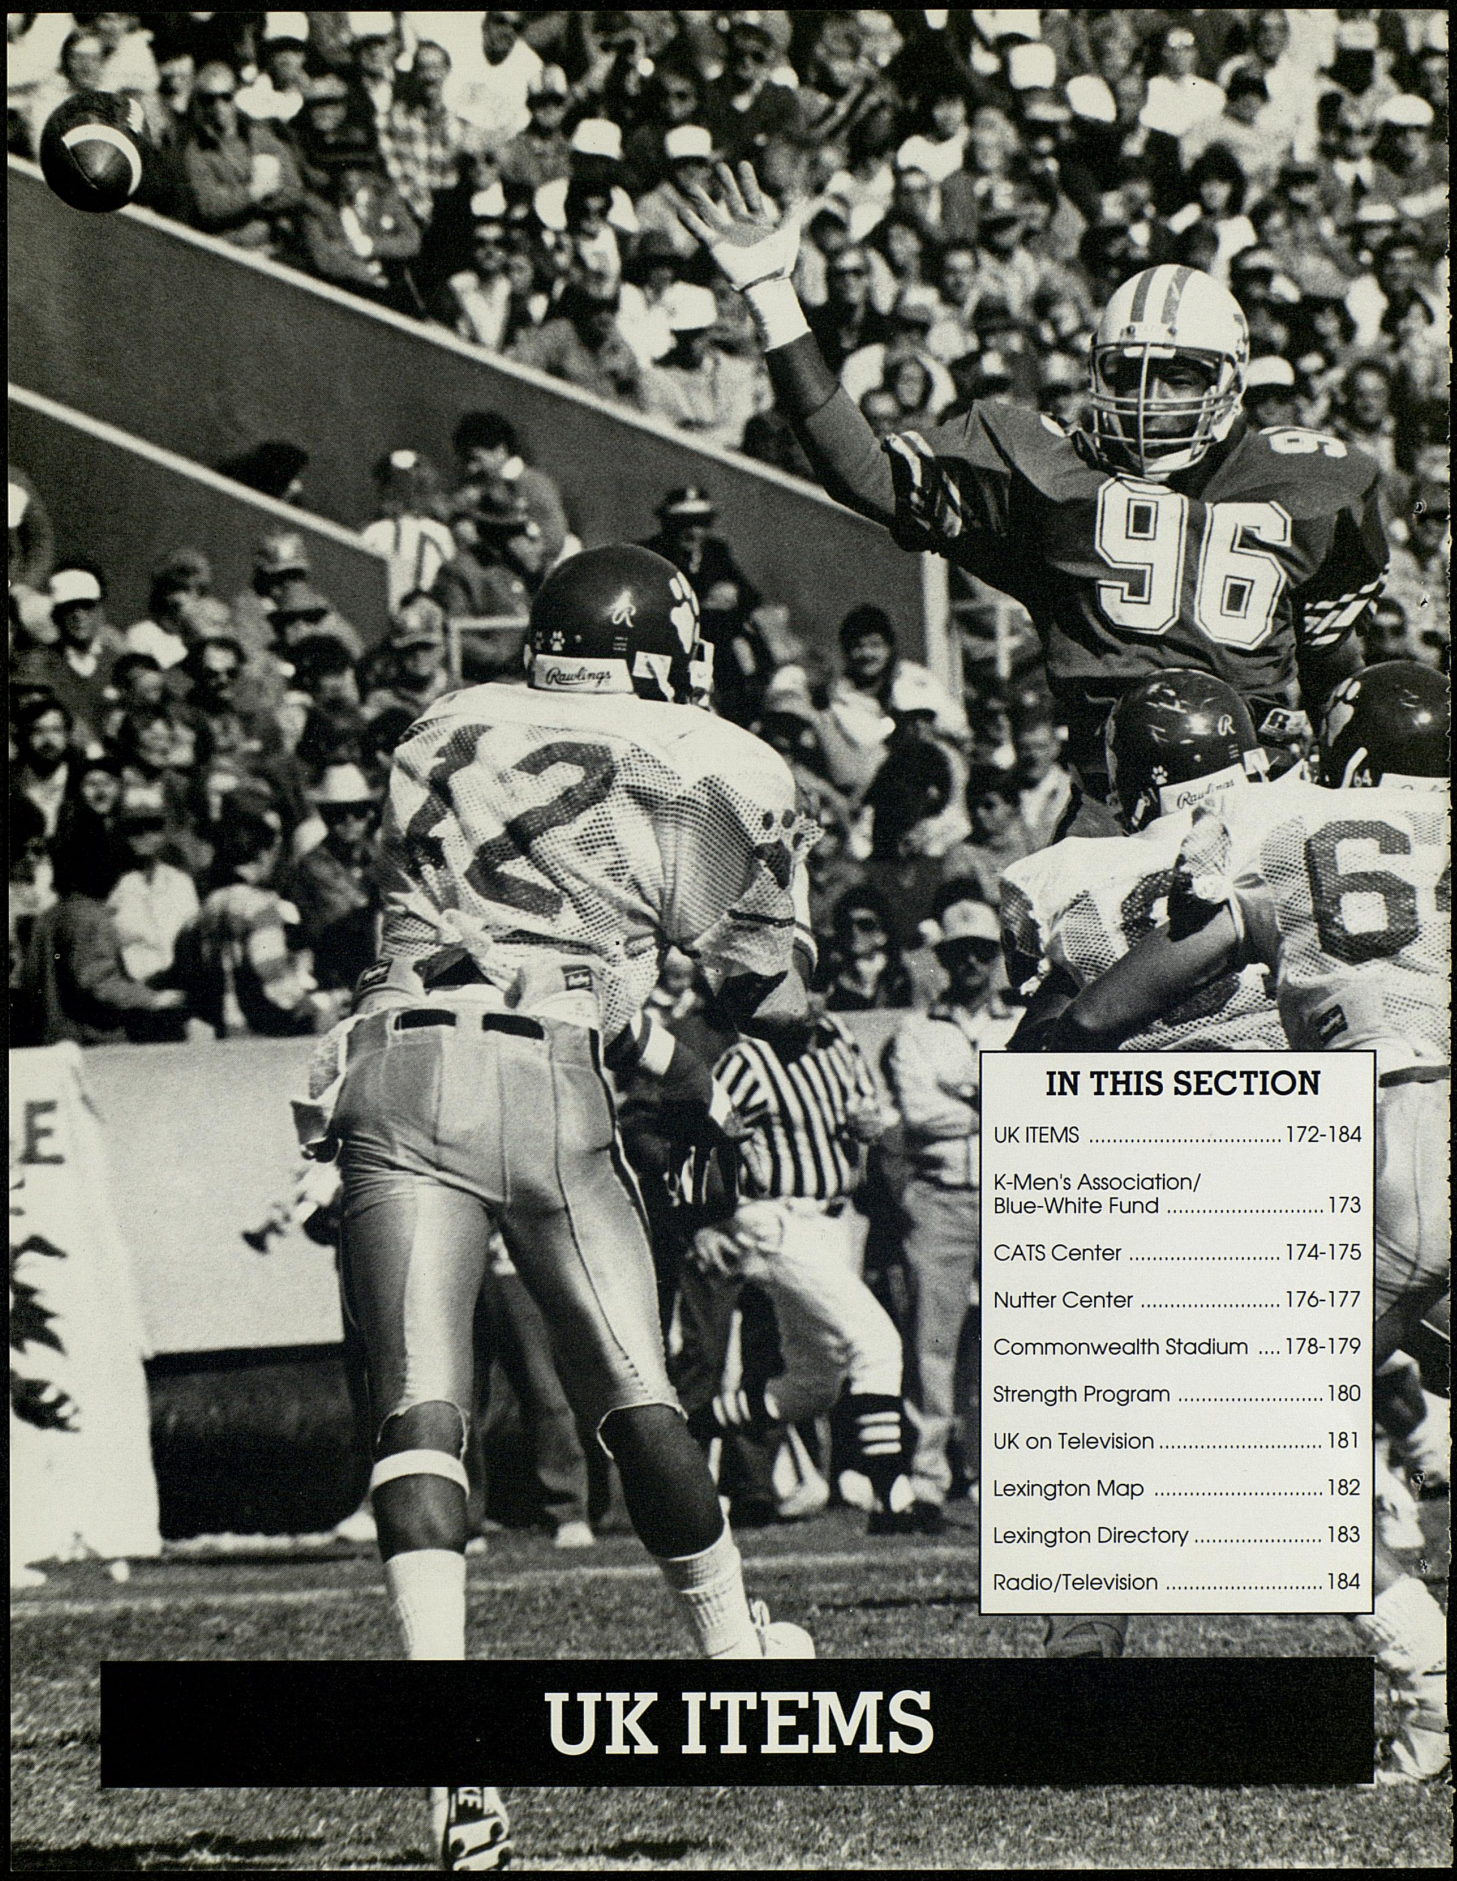

1988-89 UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY CHEERLEADERS: The University of Kentucky Cheerleaders are annually one of the top cheerleading squads in the nation. In fact, Kentucky has won the national cheerleading title in 3 of the last 4 years, including back-to-back titles in 1987 and 1988. This year's squad is pictured above (Front): Wildcat Jay McChord; (Back, left to right): Yavon Griffin, Rick Dynis, Kelli Williamson, Chance Maguire, Bobbi Wilson, Evan Eilliott, Dave Harvey, Tricia Wood, Pat Jordan, Tracy Neal, John Jackson, and Suzie Rahimi.

THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY MARCHING BAND: The 1988 edition of the University of Kentucky Marching Band will continue the fine entertainment traditions established over the years by previous UK bands. UK's Marching Band is one of the nation's leading college bands - well known for its innovative marching, overpowering sound and unique use of flags, majorettes and percussion. The 275-member band includes a 24-member flag corps, 10 majorettes, 2 feature twirlers and 3 drum majors. The director of bands is W. Harry Clark.

THE 1988-89 UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY CHARMS: The University of Kentucky charms is an organization designed to assist the UK football coaching staff in on-campus recruiting visits. The Charms are in their 4th year of existence and serve as UK hostesses at all Wildcat home football games and during official visits by recruits after football season. They answer questions of parents as well as recruits, and show the prospective student-athlete and his family the facilities at the University. Janetta Owens and Susan Renaker, both members of the UK Football Office, supervise the Kentucky Charms program.

THE K-MEN'S ASSOCIATION

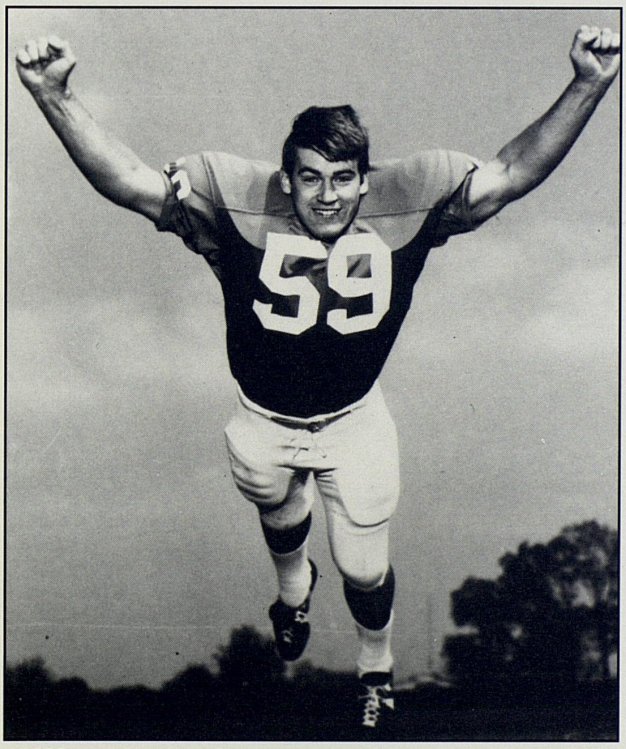

The K-Men's Association has been helping the University of Kentucky athletics department for a quarter-century with moral and financial support.

Originally started to keep former athletes involved with the university, the Association's goals are to: promote and develop fellowship among UK varsity lettermen; aid and assist UK in its athletics programs in ways that are consistent with SEC and NCAA regulations; equip, furnish and maintain the K-Men's House on the UK campus; award scholarships to deserving UK athletes; feature an annual "K-Day" at a varsity event.

The idea for organizing a K-Men's Association originated in a May 1961 conversation between Frank Seale and Robert Montgomery, two teammates on the UK football team in the early 1930's. Their main idea was to establish an organization that would promote fellowship among UK varsity lettermen, while still helping UK athletics.

UK athletics director Bernie A. Shively welcomed the idea and organizational plans were discussed by a small group of UK lettermen in June 1961. Shively sent a letter to all K-Men announcing that the Kentucky-Florida football on Nov. 4, 1961, had been designated the first "K-Day".

From those early beginnings the association grew steadily, now boasting more than 600 dues-paying members. The constitution was so drafted that lettermen from all varsity sports could become members.

All-SEC linebacker Joe Federspiel (1971) served as K-Men's Association President during the 1986-87 year.

From its early days, the K-Men's Association established traditions including the K-Man of the Year award, K-Day at varsity events, and K-Day at Paintsville. The latter is a two- day golf outing at the Paintsville Country Club that was originally conceived by Dr. Paul B. Hall, a Wildcat baseball letterman in the 1920's.

However, the K-Men not only supply moral support for UK, but they also make financial contributions, including athletic scholarships. The scholarships are financed by private donations from K-members.

The K-Men's Association also acknowledges outstanding academic achievements by athletes. The K-Men sponsor awards for academic excellence in a number of UK sports. In football, center Jim Hill was awarded the 1987 K-Men Senior Scholastic Award for maintaining the highest GPA during his final year.

The pride of the association is the K-House, located on a plot near Commonwealth Stadium. Land was obtained from the University and a concerted drive raised over $100,000 from K- Members and friends. Ground was broken on Nov. 12, 1976 and the house was in use the following autumn.

Ground was broken in May 1988 for the remodeling of the K- House. The K-House will be expanded to almost double its current size.

THE BLUE AND WHITE FUND

Originated in 1973 by athletics director Cliff Hagan, the Blue and White Fund's main purpose is to provide financial assistance to the UK athletics program.

Today, producing and maintaining a quality athletics program is a never-ending process. And for that reason, the University of Kentucky Athletics Association is renewing its efforts to raise the funds necessary to be competitive on the national level in every sport.

The major purpose of the Blue and White Fund is to provide scholarships for UK's student-athletes. Last year, 315 student-athletes received grants-in-aid from the University of Kentucky which allowed them to continue their education.

The Fund also helps underwrite costs associated with the nationally-recognized Center for Academic and Tutorial Services (CATS) located in Memorial Coliseum. In addition, the Fund provides dollars necessary to upgrade the entire athletic physical plant and to plan for future projects.

Some of the future projects for which the Blue and White Fund would assist include expansion of Commonwealth Stadium from 57,800 to 72,000, the construction of an indoor football practice facility, and the construction of an athletics administration building.

Last year, more than $800,000 was raised through the Blue and White Fund. Under the direction of assistant athletics director Gene DeFilippo, the goal next year will double as UKAA becomes more aggresive in its fund-raising efforts.

Membership in the Blue and White Fund is open to anyone interested in helping the University of Kentucky student-athletes who participate in one or more of the 19 sports for which UK fields a team.

For more information on the Blue and White Fund, contact Gene DeFilippo at (606) 257-5611.

CENTER FOR ACADEMIC & TUTORIAL SERVICES (CATS)

The University of Kentucky is proud to be the first university in the nation to open an academic center for student-athletes. We call it CATS- Center for Academic and Tutorial Services.

We, like all universities, tell parents and recruits that the student-athletes education is of utmost importance. The difference is that at the University of Kentucky, we have made a sincere effort to provide the best possible educational environment, one that is conducive to academic success.

Those efforts have paid off. Since Coach Claiborne's arrival and the opening of CATS, the Wildcat football team has placed 37 players on the league's Academic Honor Roll.

In all sports combined, UK placed more student-athletes (56) on the SEC's Academic Honor Rolls in 1987-88 THAN ANY OTHER SCHOOL. The Wildcat Football program boasts over a 90 percent graduation rate, one of the best in the country.

As a result, our CATS program is a model that other universities have used as a blueprint in forming their own programs. We are one of the few schools in the country to have an Assistant Athletics Director for Academics, Bob Bradley, who is president of the NCAA's National Association of Academics Advisors for Athletics (N4A). Plans are on the drawing boards for an expansion of our CATS facility, which will include a language laboratory, additional tutoring rooms, an expanded computer facility and a media center.

Annually, the University of Kentucky Athletics Association budgets nearly a half-million dollars to maintain CATS—the premier athletic counseling center in the country.

CATS provides our student-athletes with many advantages over the student-athletes at other universities. Examine the list below:

1. ADVISING—It is not unusual for freshman student-athletes to be confused about courses, campus, or any number of academic procedures. In addition to our study center, the CATS facility houses the office of the Assistant Affairs, a full-time assistant, a Reading Coordinator and four Academic Graduate Assistants (AGA's). These trained staff members are there for one purpose—to help student-athletes be successful out of the arena of athletic competition.

2. STUDY SKILLS—CATS provides us with an area where we can conduct organized weekly study skills classes. Many schools give their student- athletes a crash course in study skills. This is not enough. We have a Freshman Orientation Handbook and Study Skills workbook that each freshman student-athlete receives. The student-athletes attend organized classes in CATS, where they learn to utilize proven classroom study skills and university resources.

3. STUDY HALL—Most major colleges have required study hall for their freshman student-athletes. These study halls are almost always in the evening after practice and are held in campus facility borrowed by the Athletic Association. This is probably the time period least conducive to study or meeting with tutors. NOT AT KENTUCKY!

The CATS facility not only provides us with our own large area for quiet study but it is also equipped with tutoring and small group rooms.

Our center was specifically designed to meet the study needs of student-athletes.

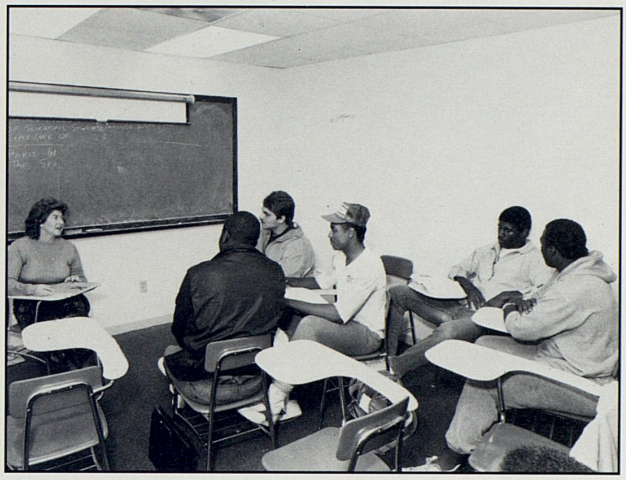

The CATS Center is open all day and until 10:00 each night. This means that student-athletes at Kentucky are not restricted to attending required study hall virtually any time of day. Research has shown that the best time to study is immediately after class. Our center provides the student-athletes the oppurtunity to study at that time. This is definitely a CATS advantage.

4. TUTORING—We have tutors available for any subject. Our tutors come from the University and the community. We utilize the services of professors, graduate students and graduates who are well qualified. We screen our tutors and although we hire many more than we need, we develop a core list of those most effective with our students. This core group works closely with us and thus we are able to monitor the progress of the student-athletes more closely. CATS provides the proper atmosphere for tutoring. Sound proof rooms are available where the student and the tutor can meet. They don't have to worry about being bothered by others or bothering others while discussing important concepts. Our system is most conducive to learning.

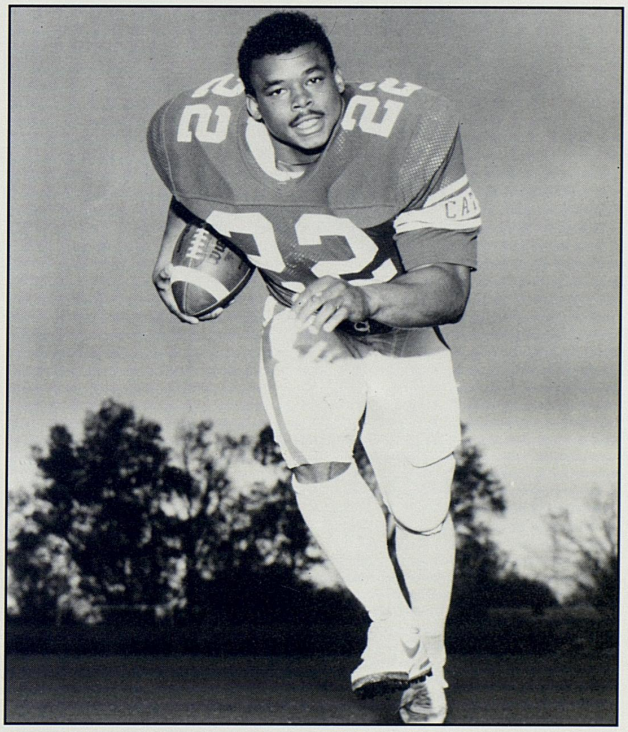

5. READING COMPONENT—The reading program at CATS is designed to meet the needs of all student-athletes. Upon entering the University each student-athlete is given a reading test that measures that individual's strengths and weaknesses. Based upon the results, a student-athlete may be encouraged to participate in the reading program, which provides both individual and small-group tutoring in a variety of areas such as reading improvement and advanced vocabulary development. It is the goal of the reading program to provide student-athletes with tools necessary to become more effective readers and studiers.

WHY CATS?

All major colleges spend a lot of time, effort and money recruiting student-athletes. All coaches and athletics administrations express concern for the recruit's education. Most schools use athletic funds freely to build better athletic facilities to attract better athletes. The problem is that those same schools would find it unbearable to spend those same large sums on an academic facility. Our philosophy at the University of Kentucky is that colleges should be willing to provide funds not only to recruit the athletes and develop their physical talents, but also to afford the student-athlete every oppurtunity to succeed academically.

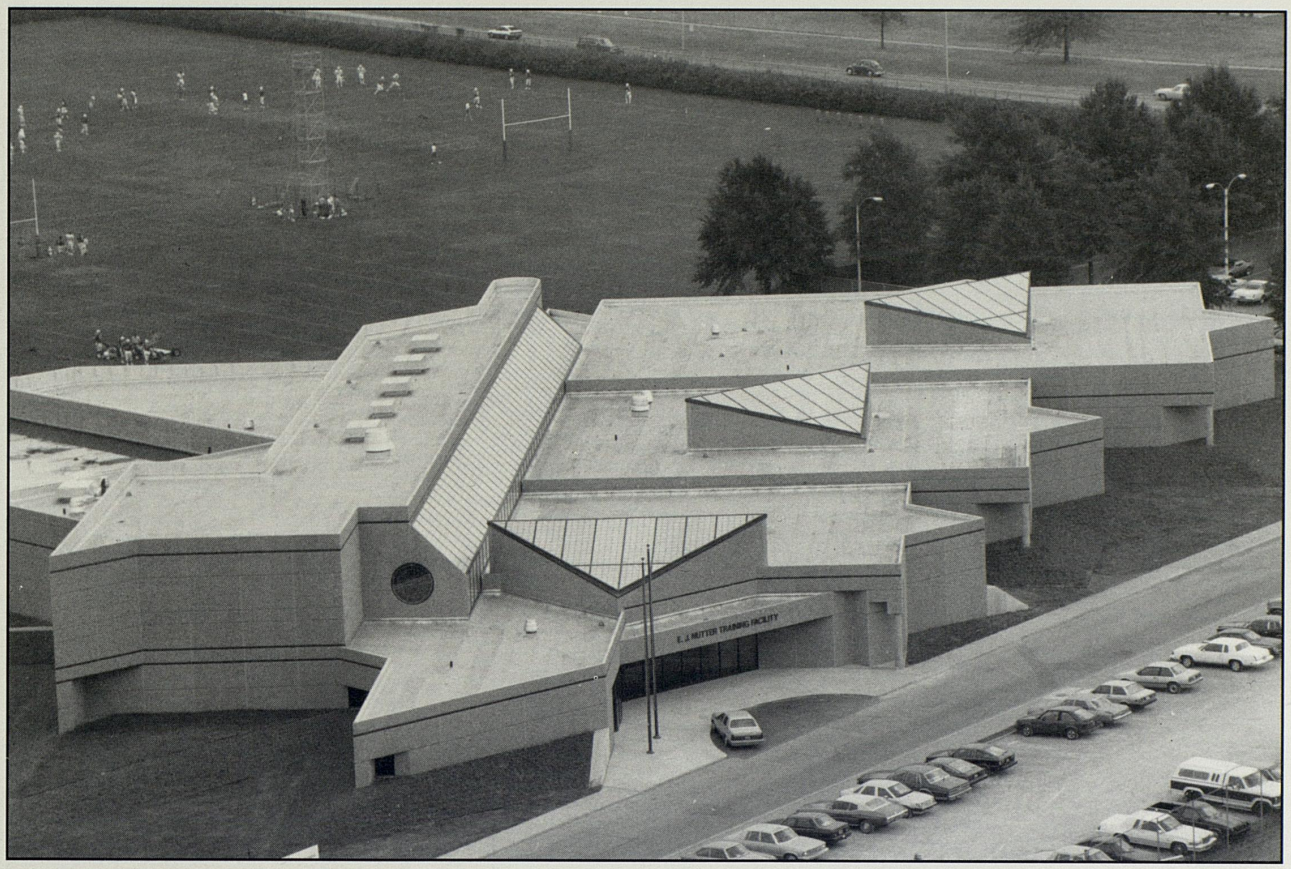

The CATS Center provides UK athletes the facility to conduct a session of quiet study or tutoring.

THE E.J. NUTTER TRAINING FACILITY

One of the nation's showcases for football facilities rests on the campus of the University of Kentucky.

That facility is none other than the ultra-modern Ervin J. Nutter Football Training Center. Last September, the Nutter Center doors opened and welcomed its new residents, the University of Kentucky Football Wildcats.

The Nutter Center was built at a cost of $5.7 million and is considered among the finest of its kind in the nation. The new Wildcat facility is named for Ervin J. Nutter, a UK alumnus who contributed one million dollars to get the fund-raising campaign for the building started. The Nutter Center encompasses over 48,000 square feet and is adjacent to the Shively Sports Center complex, longtime training facility for Wildcat athletics.

"FOR THE PURPOSES THIS BUILDING WAS BUILT FOR, IT HAS TO RANK AMONG THE NATION'S BEST, IF NOT THE BEST."

JERRY CLAIBORNE
UK HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Aside from new dressing facilities, the Nutter Center houses a spacious weight room, 12 meeting rooms, equipment and training rooms, staff and player lounges, a media interview room, a 60-yard sprint track, a sauna and jacuzzi, and an aerobic excercise room. To add to the atmosphere, a display area containing UK football memorabilia is located near the front entrance.

"For the purposes this building was built for, it (Nutter Center) has to rank among the nation's best, if not the best," UK head football coach Jerry Claiborne said. "It gives our players a sense of pride to be able to use a facility of this magnitude."

The Nutter gift to the UK Athletics Department is the largest single grant ever received by the University of Kentucky Athletics Association. During the groundbreaking ceremonies for the facility in August of 1986, Erv Nutter discussed the motivations behind his generosity. "The university has been a great inspiration (to me). I don't feel as if I've given anything away," said Nutter. "I'm just repaying what the university has done for me."

After graduating from Hamilton High School in Ohio, Nutter entered the UK College of Engineering and worked his way through college as an electrician. He left UK before graduation and passed the State of Ohio's examination for stationary engineers, becoming the youngest licensed stationary engineer in the Buckeye State.

He worked for three years in Proctor and Gamble's Power Division before returning to UK to receive his bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering in 1943.

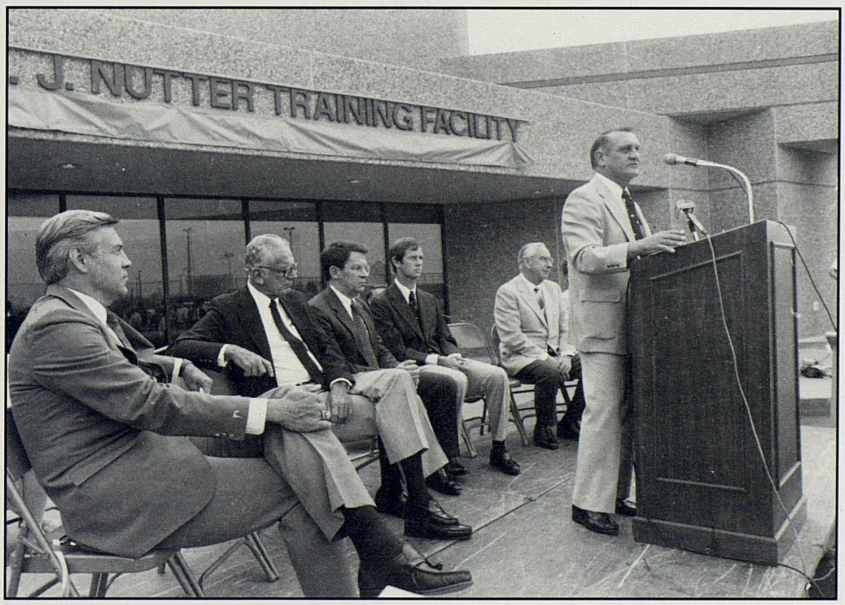

After serving with distinction with the Engineering Division at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, he became president of the Elano Corporation. He later became president of Acme Screw Products in Dayton, Ohio.

While the unprecedented gift represents Nutter's love for the UK athletics program, his love for the university as a whole is well-documented. Nutter served two terms (1966-68) as president of the UK National Alumni Association and the past three years has served as chairman of the UK Development Council Board.

Seth Hancock, a prominent Central Kentucky horseman, also made a significant contribution of $300,000 to the Nutter Center. Hancock served as chairman of the united effort to raise $2.7 million from private donors. The building was opened to the football Wildcats in mid-August. A ceremonial dedication of the Nutter Center took place on September 11, 1987.

Beautiful Commonwealth Stadium on the campus of the University of Kentucky is one of the showcase football facilities, not only in the South, but in the entire nation.

Commonwealth Stadium, built at a cost of $12 million by Huber, Hunt & Nichols, Inc., has served as home of Wildcat football teams for the last 14 seasons. Kentucky has played 93 games inside the friendly confines of Commonwealth Stadium and owns an impressive 51-39-3 (.564) record. Just a year ago, Kentucky won five of six games at Commonwealth.

The stadium was officially opened on Sept. 15, 1973, as the Wildcats defeated Virginia Tech, 31-26. Since its opening, more than 5 million fans have attended UK home games at Commonwealth Stadium. In fact, the 5-millionth fan attended the Kentucky-Ohio contest on Oct. 3, 1987.

The seating in Commonwealth Stadium is all aluminum. More than 30 percent of the aluminum seats are either of the chairback or bench-back variety.

An enclosed press box, which seats 105 members of the working press, is located underneath the upper deck on the stadium's west side. Included in the press box area are eight private booths (four VIPs), a photographer's deck, and two dining areas. The press box is served by two elevators.

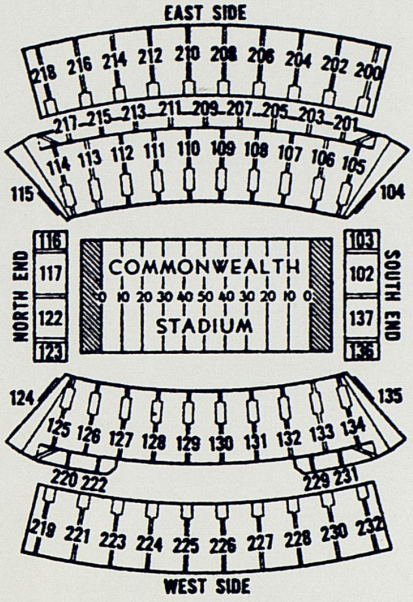

The official seating capacity at Commonwealth Stadium is 57,800. The largest crowd to witness a UK football game at home was 58,345 on Oct. 12, 1985, as the Wildcats defeated Mississippi State, 33-19. A week earlier, the second-largest crowd (58,230) was in attendance at Commonwealth Stadium as UK defeated Clemson, 26-7, on Oct. 5.

Commonwealth Stadium replaced Stoll Field/McLean Stadium as home of Wildcat football. Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was located just across the street from Memorial Coliseum on the UK campus. That area had been dedicated on Oct. 14, 1916, as Stoll Field and the Wildcats played there until Commonwealth Stadium was completed in 1973.

WILDCAT STRENGTH TRAINING

The Southeastern Conference continues to be the best conference from top to bottom. There are many factors that help keep the SEC at the top, however, the most unsung key may be the strength and conditioning program's at each school. In today's game there is more emphasis on strength and speed which calls for the best possible training facilities available.

"The Nutter Center weight room gives the players a feeling of pride and a feeling of success."
Jerry Claiborne
UK Head Coach

At the University of Kentucky, the 48,000 square-foot E.J. Nutter Football Training Center provides the Wildcat football team with one of the nations finest training facilities. Included in the Nutter Center is a 9,000 square-foot weight room.

"A player can get as strong as he wants here," UK head coach Jerry Claiborne said, "We have the most modern equipment available in our weight room for our athletes."

The weight room consists of 100,000 lbs of weights, currently the heaviest weight training room in the conference.

"We have only been in this facility for just over a year now and the results are starting to show," said Pat Etcheberry, strength coach for Kentucky.

The results have begun to show, as early as last spring. When Etcheberry conducted his annual Pro Day testing on March 9, 1988, the Wildcat results ere pleasing.

Compared to test results from the last 3 years, Wildcat players improved the mose in the squats and total average weight lifted. The 1988 squad averaged 496 pounds in the squats, almost 12 pounds more that the next-best of 484 pounds in 1987. Also, the Wildcats players bettered the 3-year average for weight lifted in the squats, cleans and bench press with 1093.80 pounds. The previous high during the 3-year period was 1093.08 pounds in 1987.

The newfacility provides a good atmosphere for the athletes. It indeed makes the long hours of hard work on the weights more pleasant to the athlete.

Claiborne, who begins his 27th season as a collegiate head coach, says the new facility has a tendency to make a player work a little harder.

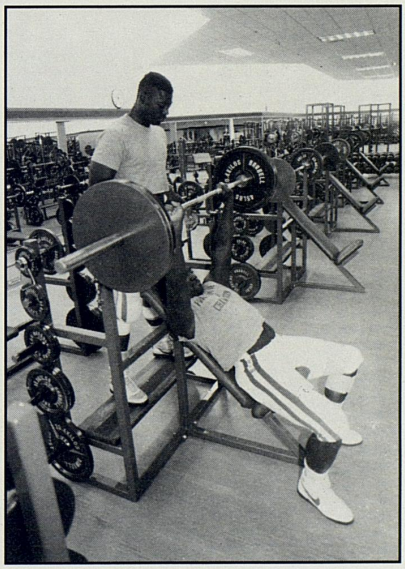

"The Nutter Center weight room gives the players a feeling of pride and a feeling of success."

KENTUCKY ON TELEVISION

Beginning in 1956, the University of Kentucky football program has played in 27 games before "live" television audiences. The Wildcats faced Georgia Tech in the very first telecast of a Kentucky football game on Sept. 22, 1956, by NBC at Stoll Field in Lexington. In all, Kentucky has appeared the most on national cable station, TBS of Atlanta, a total of 13 times. The most major network appearances have been on ABC with eight. The UK record in the 27 games televised is 9-17-1.

CBS has televised 3 UK football games through the years. The last time CBS brought its cameras to Commonwealth Stadium was during this 1983 Kentucky victory over Indiana.

THE KENTUCKY FOOTBALL NETWORK

CAWOOD LEDFORD

RALPH HACKER

Kentucky football can be heard on approximately 90-plus stations throughout Kentucky, West Virginia, Tennessee, Ohio and Indiana on the Kentucky Network. Games are distributed across the network via satellite.

Cawood Ledford, now entering his 36th season, handles the play-by- play. Honored 18 times as Kentucky's "Sportscaster of the Year", Cawood's brisk, informative style has won him a spot in the hearts of Kentuckians for years.

A sports director with WHAS Radio and Television for 20 years, Cawood came to Lexington in 1979 and started his own company, Cawood Ledford Productions Inc. Ledford's commentaries can be heard weekdays locally on WKYT-TV in Lexington and WYMT-TV in Hazard. His radio commentaries are syndicated on 30 stations statewide and his 15-week summer talk show, "Conversation with Cawood," is heard on 40 stations.

His efforts and contributions to Kentucky sports have been recognized by his induction into the Kentucky Journalism Hall of Fame.

Working with Ledford on game day is Ralph Hacker who begins his 17th season as color analyst for Kentucky Football. Hacker, president and general manager of radio station WVLK in Lexington, also handles all pregame, halftime and post-game programs. In addition to his UK Radio duties, Hacker has crossed over into television in the last three years, calling basketball and football games for the SEC, the NCAA, and CBS.

The third member of the broadcast crew is Doug Ormay, who is the sports director for the Kentucky Network. Ormay who is in his third year of reporting Kentucky football, provides a sideline report to keep the listener updated on key factors occurring throughout the game.

The Kentucky Network has one of the most comprehensive pregame and postgame shows in the Southeastern Conference and across the country. Cat Calls begin one and one-half hours before kickoff. A Look at Football with Cawood Ledford, followed by the Jerry Claiborne Pregame Show and Wildcat Warmup round out the pregame show.

The postgame show begins with Wildcat Wrapup and Wildcat Scoreboard which leads into the Jerry Claiborne Postgame Show lasting approximately one hour after the final play of the game.

Technical director for each broadcast, in his 9th year is Tom Devine. Alan White is the studio engineer, Roger Mirabito handles the scoreboard show and Tom Stevens is the executive producer.

UK play-by-play announcer Cawood Ledford interviews LB coach Terry Strock during Media Day last year.

PROPOSED COMMONWEALTH STADIUM ENLARGEMENT

Pictured above is the drawing of the proposed enlargement of Commonwealth Stadium. The enlargement will increase stadium capacity from 57,800 to 72,000 and will include the installation of "Sky Boxes" between the upper and lower decks. Another priority at UK is to construct an indoor practice facility for the Wildcat football team. Along with the recently completed Nutter Center, the new practice facility will make UK one of the best-equipped football programs in the country.
