"A Resolution. The dreaded alarm has again sounded at our outer door and the Angel of Death has summoned from among us Brother Allen Higgins Rodes, late a resident of El Paso, Texas, an honored member of Lexington Lodge No. 1, who died suddenly in Atlantic City, N. J. on June 16th, 1927 while in attendance at the 53rd meeting of the Imperial Council A A O N M S of North America as the representative of El Maida Temple of El Paso, Texas, of which he was potentate. Brother Rodes was in his forty third year, apparently in the prime of a vigorous young manhood, successful in business, honored, loved and esteemed by all who knew him and especially by those in the great state of Texas among whom he was associated in Commercial, social and fraternal affairs. Of kindly and genial disposition, high intellectual attainment and keen executive ability, he attained a large measure of success in his chosen field. Brother Allen Rodes was an active member of all branches of the Masonic System and gave liberally of his time, talent and purse to promulgate Masonic tenets. A frequent visitor to his old Home City and Lodge, his genial personality will be missed by all who were privileged to know him. Therefore, be it resolved: That in the death of Brother Rodes, Lexington Lodge No. L, has lost an esteemed and beloved member, his community a useful citizen and his family a kind and devoted husband, son and brother. Be it further resolved, that we extend to his bereaved family our deepest sympathy in this hour of sorrow, but that we beg them to remember that in God's ecomomy there are no mistakes and that " He doeth all things well." Be it further resolved; that a copy of these resolutions be made of permanent record in our minutes, and that copies be forwarded to his beloved wife and mother. Respectfully submitted, David P. Eastin, Theo. L. Jones , John G. Cramer, Committee.

Charity — Secretary called attention of the Lodge to the condition of Mrs. Joe Henry Woodward, wife of Brother Joe Henry Woodward. Motion was made that a committee be appointed to see Mrs. Woodward with power to spend $25.00 for immediate relief. Master appointed Brother J. Archer Gray, J. W. Mattingly and W. C. The members proceeded to the Lexington Cemetery where very impressive and solemn services were conducted by acting Master R. S. Stewart.

The Secretary has witnessed and took part in at least 50 Masonic Funeral Services and while they have all been impressive and well conducted he feels free in saying that the services for Bro. Buffinton were the most impressive and solemn he has ever witnessed. The services were well attended by Lexington Masons, notwithstanding the fact that probably only one or two of them knew Brother Buffinton personally.

Mr. Edward Bassett who made the funeral arrangements with the Secretary expresses his thanks to the Masonic Fraternity for the conducting of the Masonic Services.

All the chairs were filled by Past Masters with that great ritualist, David P. Eastin, acting as Master. It was good to see our dear Brother John W. Lancaster, Sr. at his old place which he so faithfully filled for the past half century.

No mention was made of the Committee in charge of arrangements. This was not of intentional neglect but an oversight and it is no more than proper that some mention should be made in the minutes of this meeting regarding the wonderful manner in which everything was arranged. The Banquet was one of the best, if not the best, ever given by the Lodge. The Singing by the Masonic double quartet was excellent and added much to the work.

The Grand Officers present were Hanson Peterson, GrandMaster, Guy T. Johnson, Grand High Priest, D. Bates Shackelford, Grand Commander. Past Grand Officers present were W. C. Black Past GrandMaster, John G. Cramer, Past Grand Master of the Council and John T. Kincaid, Past Grand Master of the Council. These Grand Lodge officers were introduced by Past Grand Master G. Allison Holland who was introduced by Grand High Priest Guy T. Johnson.

W. M., David P. Eastin welcomed these distinguished visitors in a very impressive way, in fact everything was so wonderful throughout the entire evening and everything went off so nicely that it would take a book much larger than this one to record them in.

Lexington, Ky. Dec. 30, 1927.

To the Worshipful Master, Wardens and Brethern of Lexington Lodge No. One, F. & A. M., Lexington, Ky.

We the undersigned, appointed as the Auditing Committee of Lexington Lodge No. One, respectfully submit herewith our report covering the auditing of Secretary and Treasurer's books for the year ending Dec. 27th 1927. After checking the Secretary's receipts and disbursements we find that all moneys have been accounted for as follows. Receipts. Received for dues $3,442.17 received for assessments $1,936.75, received for Degrees $930.00, total receipts $6,308.92 Disbursements. Paid J. W. Coleman, Jr., Treasurer, as per receipts numbered 1 to 18 inclusive $6,308.92. After checking the Treasurer's receipts and disbursements we find that all moneys turned over by Secretary has been accounted for and all vouchers covering disbursements are properly filed. Receipts. received from Secretary as per receipts numbered 1 to 18 inclusive. $6,308.92. Disbursements. Disbursements as per vouchers numbered 1 to 50 inclusive. $5,031.90. Balance in bank $1,277.02/

We desire to report at this time that the Grand Lodge Dues were paid on Sept. 28th amounting to $2,462.50. The W. & O. Home Assessment amounting to $2,933.00 will be due on March 1st, 1928, Rent amounting to $360.00 and 20% on 1927 initiation fees amounting to $308.00 will be due Jan. 1st. There is a balance due Secretary of $382.00 which makes a total indebtedness of $3,983.00. There will be ample money received in the course of the next few weeks to pay this indebtedness and we should then be conservative in our expenditures for the balance of next year in order that enough money might be laid aside for the payment of Grand Lodge Dues which will be due in September and for the final payment on the W. & O. Home Assessment which will be due in March 1929. Lexington Lodge has an excellent chance now to get on her feet financially and have funds with which to do more charity work among her members, have occasional get together meetings by way of modest banquets, etc. We also desire to call the Lodge's attention to the fact that a good many of the members have not responded to the call for dues to be paid in advance. No member can be suspended for not paying his dues in advance and it would be very unwise to do so even though it could be done by t the members should do love their obligations and the Masonic Fraternity that they will pay their dues in line with the by-laws at the earliest possible moment. Respectfully submitted. Elmer C. Murphy, Chairman, T. R. Skidmore and R. B. Hawkins."

Committee reports: The Committee appointed to adopt resolutions on the death of Brother Walter Matthews report. By unanimous vote the resolutions were adopted.

On January 27th, 1928 at 2:30 A. M. the Supreme Architect of the Universe called the immortal spirit of Brother Walter Matthews from "Labor to Refreshments", to dwell forever in "That House not made with hands, Eternal in the Heavens". For more than a score of years Brother Walter Matthews has been an ardent and consistent member of Lexington Lodge No. 1, F. & A. M., thereby endearing his good and loyal qualities more closely to his brother Masons. He received much satisfaction during the last long illness, in the knowledge that this Lodge would administer the last sacred rites over his body. "They never quite leave us, the brethern who've passed, Through the shadow of death to the sunlight above. A thousand sweet memories are holding them fast to the places they blessed with the presence and Love." Therefore be it resolved, that Lexington Lodge No. 1, F. & A. M. deeply feel the loss of Brother Matthews and unanimously extend condolence and sympathy to his wife and family; that a copy of these resolutions be sent to his wife, Mrs. Celia Birch Matthews daughter Mrs. Martha Matthews Waller of Louisville, Ky. and to his parents Mr. & Mrs. Walter Matthews of Mays Lick, Ky. and that a copy be spread upon the minutes of this Lodge. Oscar Lyne, H. M. Hubbard and Guy Johnson.

By unanimous vote the following resoutions were adopted on the death of Mr. Joshua M. Corbin.

"Whereas, it has been the Will of God to call from our midst, Mr. Joshua M. Corbin, the father of our Brother, Chester C. Corbin and Nathan M. Corbin, thus depriving them of that Fatherly comfort and companionship, and Whereas, this Lodge realizes that our Brothers have not lost only their Father but have lost one who was a true friend and adviser in their youth, and Whereas, we realize that the many tokens of sympathy by friends and loved ones will have a tendency to lessen the grief and lighten the sorrow, now, Therefore, be it resolved by Lexington Lodge No. One, F. & A. M. that she extend her sympathy to Brothers Chester C. Corbin and Nathan M. Corbin and, Be it further resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes of this meeting and a copy send to Brothers Chester C. Corbin and Nathan M. Corbin and their dear loved ones. C. Frank Cramer, T. E. Rix, Jr and R. S. Stewart.

By unanimous vote the following resolutions were adopted on the death of Mrs. Alice D. Adams.

"Whereas, it has pleased the Supreme Grand Architect of the Universe to Summon from us, Mrs. Alice D. Adams, the Mother of Brother Chester D. Adams, and Honorary Member of Lexington Lodge No. One, F. & A. M., thus depriving him of her companionship and association which was so much noticed by all, and, Whereas, this Lodge realizes that the Masonic Fraternity has lost a friend, one who was always been interest in Masonic Work and was much in sympathy with it, and, Whereas, we also realize that the sympathy of friends and Loved ones will tend to lessen the grief and sorrow, now, Therefore, be it resolved that Lexington Lodge Number One, F. & A. M. extend her sympathy to Brother Chester D. Adams in this time of grief and sorrow, and, Be it further resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be made a part of the records of this meeting and that a copy be sent to Brother Adams and his good wife, Mary Anna Adams. Whereas, on the 21st day of December, 1928, the Supreme Architect of the Universe summoned our beloved brother, M. A. Cassidy, from earthly labor to eternal reffeshment in the Paradise of God, and,

Whereas, the principal tenets of our Order, Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth, ever pervaded his thoughts and heart, molding his life according to the cardinal virtues of our Fraternity, and,

Whereas, he measured his friends and associates with the Level, Square and Plumb of Masonic Charity and spread the Cement of Industry and Learning with the Trowel of Fraternal Love, and,

Whereas, for years he had served the institutions of learning and disseminated knowledge to the youth of this City, and,

Whereas, in the home, the lodge, the church and his profession his keen mind was ever active to discover the beautiful, the useful, the intelligent and the inspiring things of life and bring them into the lives of others,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, BY LEXINGTON LODGE NO. 1, F. & A. M.,

That in the death of Brother M. A. Cassidy Lexington Lodge has lost a member beloved, one who reflected in his daily life the noblest teachings of our Fraternity, his home a gentle and loving personality and the public a man of unfaltering devotion to duty.

That we extend to his loved ones and friends our sincere sympathy, reminding them that in the fullness of time the strength of the Lion of the Tribe of Judah shall prevail and their mourning shall be turned into the joy of a heavenly reunion.

That we recommend to his brothers of the Mystic Tie the practice of those virtues and the faith that characterized his life so that they, like our beloved brother, may enjoy the happy reflections consequent upon a well spent life and die in the hope of a glorious immortality.

Georye Boorom Winslow
Grand Master
1914-1915

The M.·.W.·. Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons

of the

Commonwealth of Kentucky

Earlington, Kentucky, October 4, 1930.

To the Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky and to all Brethren throughout this Grand Jurisdiction:

My Dear Brethren:

It becomes my sad duty to announce the death of our beloved Brother

George Boorom Winslow

Past Grand Master

who entered upon eternal rest in Carrollton, on September 30, 1930.

In the presence of a sorrowing family, friends and Brethren of Carrollton Lodge No. 134 and nearby Lodges, and with the Grand Master, Past Grand Masters Fred W. Hardwick (Grand Secretary), James Garnett (Grand Treasurer), T. J. Adams, G. Allison Holland, Hanson Peterson, and J. W. Juett, and Past Grand High Priests I. T. Woodson, S. S. Pinney and A. A. Hazelrigg, and Directors of the Masonic Widows and Orphans' Home John M. Scott and John S. Akers in attendance, the body was laid to rest in the family plot of the beautiful cemetery at Carrollton, Kentucky, Thursday afternoon, October 2, 1930.

Brother Winslow was born on the 6th day of June, 1868, in Carrollton, Carroll County, Kentucky. He was initiated July 6, 1891; passed August 3, 1891, and raised September 7, 1891. He was elected Master of his Lodge December 27, 1894, and on October 18, 1911, was made Grand Junior Warden of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, succeeding to the station of Grand Master on October 21, 1914.

Brother Winslow was exalted to the degree of Royal Arch Mason on March 26, 1895, being elected High Priest of his Chapter in September, 1897. Having been appointed to the Grand Chapter line in October, 1910, he was regularly advanced until he became Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of Kentucky in October, 1916.

Brother Winslow received the Cryptic degrees in Louisville Council No. 4, May 2, 1902. He was dubbed and created a Knight Templar in DeMolay Commandery No. 12, Louisville, on April 22, 1898, receiving the 32nd degree, A. A. S. R., in the Grand Consistory of Kentucky on April 8, 1911.

On October 3, 1894, Brother Winslow was married to Miss Lucy Hafford of Carrollton, Kentucky, who survives to mourn the loss of her devoted husband.

For many years an outstanding figure in Kentucky Masonry, Brother Winslow is remembered as "a plain man of strong character and of exemplary habits, acting always with candor and courage, but courteous and considerate." He was devoted to Masonry, and his interest in and service to our cause increased with the passing of years. In his own words, he was, "at all times controlled by honesty of purpose and a great desire to promote the true principles of Freemasonry."

In addition to a conspicuous service as Grand Master, Brother Winslow continued his unselfish service for the Craft as a member of the Board of Directors of the Masonic Widows and Orphans' Home and as Vice President and member of the Board of the Old Masons' Home. His well considered opinions and careful judgment were accorded the highest respect by his associates on these Boards.

Brother Winslow was educated in the local schools of his town, graduated from the Law School of the University of Louisville in 1893, and soon took rank as one of the ablest members of the Carroll County bar. In addition to his legal work he was president of the Carrollton National Bank and was an officer or director in numerous other industries of his city and state.

Brother Winslow was an active member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and served his church in many official capacities. He espoused the cause of every worth-while activity of a civic, educational, religious or political nature having for its purpose the good of his fellowmen. Indeed we shall miss him.

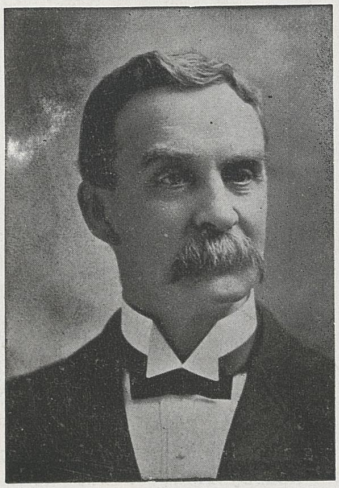

In token of our respect for the memory of our beloved Brother, it is ordered that this memorial be read at the first communication after it is received and that it be made a part of the records of the Lodge.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Grand Lodge the day and year first above written.

FRANK D. RASH,
Grand Master.

Charles Henry Fisk

Grand Master

1890-1891

The M.·.W.·. Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons

of the

Commonwealth of Kentucky

Earlington, Kentucky, October 22, 1930.

To the Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky and to all Brethren throughout this Grand Jurisdiction:

My Dear Brethren:

It is with deepest sorrow that I announce the death of our beloved Brother

Charles Henry Fisk

who passed into the Great Beyond at Covington, Kentucky, on October 20, 1930, just as the Craft from every section of our State began to assemble for the opening of the One Hundred and Thirtieth Communication of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky.

In the presence of a sorrowing family, friends and Brethren of Golden Rule Lodge No. 345 and nearby Lodges, and with the immediate Past Grand Master, Dr. J. W. Juett, representing the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, in attendance, our Brother was laid to rest this day in the beautiful City of the Dead at Covington, Kentucky.

He was initiated, passed and raised in Golden Rule Lodge No. 345, Covington, Kentucky, receiving the Master Mason degree on May 7, 1877. After faithfully serving in the various stations of his Lodge he was elected Master in December, 1880. He was chosen Grand Junior Warden of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky in 1887, regularly promoted till 1890, when he was elected Grand Master.

Brother Fisk was elected Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of Kentucky in October, 1891; Grand Master of the Grand Council of Kentucky in October, 1886; Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery of Kentucky, Knights Templar, in May, 1892.

He was a member of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, and received the 33° Honorary in December, 1884, at the time of his death being the Senior 33° Honorary Mason of the Southern Jurisdiction.

On October 23, 1866, Brother Fisk was married to Miss Maggie Emmal, daughter of William B. and Catherine S. Emmal, of Lexington, Kentucky. The union was blessed with three children, Emmal, who died in childhood; Otis Harrison and Elizabeth Sarah.

Brother Fisk's highly notable career as the head of the various branches of Masonry was followed by a continuing and abiding interest and active participation in all things Masonic down through the years. His reputation as a student of and authority on Masonic law continued ever to widen. With his brilliance and knowledge, he was ever considerate and courteous. Up to the time when failing health forbade, he had attended every meeting of the Grand Lodge after he was made a Mason. In this period, in addition to serving as an officer, he was a member of many important Grand Lodge Committees.

Brother Fisk was educated in the public school of Covington and at Miami University. He graduated at "Miami" in July, 1863, with the first honors of his class, and received the degree of Master of Arts from the same institution in 1868. While in the University he was active in various societies and was a member of the D. K. E. Greek letter Fraternity. Having attended the law school of Cincinnati College and graduating therefrom in 1864, he entered upon the practice of law at Lexington, Kentcky, and continued in his profession until his death, at which time he was the oldest member of the Covington bar, both in years and in point of service.

Brother Fisk was a member of the First Christian Church of Covington, Kentucky, from 1856, excepting one year spent in Lexington, Kentucky. He served as superintendent of his Sunday School for many years, in addition to being a member of the Board of Officers of his church. His voice and energies were ever ready for service in every activity, having for its purpose the betterment and uplift of his fellowman.

In token of our respect for the memory of our distinguished and well beloved Brother, it is ordered that this memorial be read at the first communication after it is received and that it be made a part of the records of the Lodge.

Given under my hand and seal of the Grand Lodge the day and year first above written.

FRANK D. RASH,
Grand Master.

ATTEST:

FRED W. HARDWICK,
Grand Secretary.

Lexington, Ky. Dec. 27th, 1929.

To The Worshipful Master, Wardens and Brethern of Lexington Lodge No. One, F. & A. M.

I submit herewith a detailed report covering operations for the year 1929.

We reported an increase of 7 members to the Grand Lodge this year which is an excellent showing as I find in looking over the Grand Lodge returns that a very small percent of our Lodges equaled our record.

Our total receipts for the year were divided as follows:

Dues	$4,375.00
Asst.	414.00
Fees	1,133.00

This makes a total of $5,922.00 compared with $7,729.25 for the year 1928, however, I wish to call your attention to the fact that we collected in dues $4,375.00 this year as against $3,942.75 which demonstrates to me the fact that all Masons who really believe in Masonry and their obligations are beginning to realize that the Lodge must collect the dues from her members in order to properly operate.

The reason our total receipts for the year do not equal last year is because assessments this year only amounted to $414.00 as compared with $2,291.50 last year.

The Teasurer's balance on Dec. 27th, 1928 amounted to $264.32 adding Secretary's receipts of $5,922.00 plus a loan of $3,000.00 make a total of $9,186.32 of which $9,018.46 was disbursed by checks numbered 123 to 194 inclusive. Cash balance on Dec. 26th, 1929 amounts to $167.86 which is verified hereon by the Commonwealth Bank and Trust Company, Lexington, Ky.

The total disbursements of $9,018.46 was spent as follows:

Charity	161.46
Funerals	248.50
Donations	10.00
Flowers	70.00
Grand Lodge	5,363.25
Fees Refunded	105.00
on Note	500.00
Current Exps.	1,854.31
Supplies	705.94

I wish to state that my personal Ledger is in balance with my General Ledger.

93 members owe 1929 dues; of these 93 members 17 owe 1928 dues and of these 17 members 2 owe 1927 dues, also of the 93 members who owe 1929 dues eleven owe assessments totaling $90.00. I wish to call your attention to the fact that the reason we are carrying these back dues on our books is because these Brothers were given further time in which to pay.

I submit herewith balance sheet as of December 27th, 1929.

Assets:		Liabilities and Surplus
Cash in bank	$167.86	Fees paid in advance	$105.00
Dues receivable	4,688.00	Notes Payable	2,500.00
Assessments "	90.00	Surplus	2,340.86
	$4,945.86		$4,945.86

Surety Bonds of Secretary and Treasurer will expire in March 1930 and will be renewed promptly.

Respectfully Submitted,

Frank Cramer

Secretary.

Henry Skiles McElroy
Grand Master
1919 - 1920

The M.·.W.·. Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons

of the

Commonwealth of Kentucky

Earlington, Kentucky, July 7, 1930.

To the Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky and to all Brethren throughout this Grand Jurisdiction:

My Dear Brethren:

With deep sorrow I perform the sad duty of announcing the death of our well beloved brother

Henry Skiles McElroy

who passed to his reward at his home in Lebanon, on July 3, 1930.

Lebanon Lodge No. 87 was convened in called communication at 3:30 p. m., July 6th, for the purpose of paying the last tribute of respect to our beloved brother. With Past Grand Master, Brother T. J. Adams, presiding; the Grand Master as Senior Warden, Past Grand Master, Brother James N. Saunders as Junior Warden, and Past Master, Brother John R. Thomas, as Grand Marshal, and in the presence of a very large number of Grand Officers and sorrowing friends and Brethren, with tender and touching ceremonies, the body was laid to rest with Masonic honors in the family plot of Ryder Cemetery, at Lebanon, Ky.

Brother McElroy was born September 5, 1873, at Rich Pond, in Warren County, Kentucky. He was initiated December 1, 1898; passed February 27, 1899, and raised March 30, 1899, in Lebanon Lodge No. 87. After faithfully serving in the various stations of his Lodge, he was elected Master December 27, 1912. He was elected Grand Junior Warden of the Grand Lodge in 1916, regularly promoted till 1919, when he was elected Grand Master.

Brother McElroy was exalted to the degree of Royal Arch Mason October 12, 1905, in Edmonds Chapter No. 83, at Lebanon, and received the Cryptic degrees in Lebanon Council No. 56 January 4, 1909. He received the Knights Templar degree in Marion Commandery No. 24, Lebanon, on October 24, 1905, serving as Eminent Commander in 1915. Brother McElroy was a charter member of Powell Chapter No. 266, O. E. S., and was Grand Patron of the Grand Chapter, O. E. S., in 1922-23.

Brother McElroy was married to Miss Annie Bruce, daughter of Honorable J. L. Bruce and Mrs. Elizabeth Baughman Bruce, of Danville, Kentucky, in 1897. Mrs. McElroy remains to mourn the loss of her loving and devoted husband.

Brother McElroy was for many years a distinguished figure in Kentucky Masonry. He was conspicuous for his outstanding ability, earnestness, zeal and devotion to duty. He loved the Order and gave it the highest service of which he was capable. His administration as Grand Master was marked by his avowed and continued purpose to provide funds for the new Masonic Home and his interest was ever with the things which make for the common good and the highest interest of his fellowmen.

Following his retirement as Grand Master, his interest in Masonic affairs never waned, as evidenced by his conspicuous service on the Board of Directors of the Old Masons' Home, as Chairman of the Committee on Necrology of the Grand Lodge, as well as of the Grand Commandery, and in other notable ways.

He attended Ogden College, Bowling Green, Kentucky, and later Centre College at Danville, Kentucky, where he graduated in 1895. While in college he distinguished himself as an orator and debater. Graduating from Centre College Law School in 1897, he at once began the practice of law in Lebanon, Kentucky. In his chosen profession, he was successful to a marked degree. He served as City Attorney of Lebanon, as County Attorney of Marion County for many years. He represented his district in the State Senate and at his death he was serving as Circuit Judge of the 11th Judicial District.

December 27th, 1930.

To the Worshipful Master, Wardens and Brethern of Lexington Lodge No. 1, F. & A. M.
Lexington, Ky.

I submit herewith a detailed report covering the operations of the Lodge for the year 1930.

We reported an increase of 18 members to the Grand Lodge this year compared with an increase of 7 members last year. This is an excellent showing and the Lodge should be congratulated upon its work and clearly demonstrates what a Master can do if he receives the co-operation of the officers and members.

Lexington Lodge No. One is now the third largest in the State and if she continues to prosper during the coming year should be second only to Preston Lodge of Louisville, Ky.

The finances of the Lodge are in good shape and if the officers continue to economize quite a surplus should be accumulated by the end of the 1931 fiscal year.

Our total receipts for the year 1930 were divided as follows:

Dues	$3607.50
Fees	1032.50

This makes a total of $4640.00 which was turned over to the Treasurer of the Lodge and is covered by Treasurer's receipts numbered 56 to 69 inclusive.

The Treasurer's balance on December 27th, 1929 amounted to $167.86, adding Secretary receipts of $4640.00 plus a loan of $2500.00 makes a total of $7307.86 of which $7251.12 was disbursed by checks numbered 195 to 238 inclusive. Cash balance on December 27th, 1930, amounts to $56.74 which is verified hereon by the Guaranty Bank and Trust Company, Lexington, Ky.

The total disbursements of $7251.12 was spent as follows:

Charity	$170.00
Funerals	10.00
Donations	50.00
Grand Lodge	2359.75
Fees Refd.	70.00
On notes	3100.00
Current Exps.	1235.59
Supplies	255.78

This is to certify that the sum of $56.74 was on Deposit in this Bank to the Credit of Lexington Lodge No. 1, F. & A. M. at the close of business December 27th, 1930.

Guaranty Bank & Trust Co.,

I wish to state that my personal Ledger is in balance with my General Ledger.

121 members owe 1930 dues; of these 121 members 45 owe 1929 dues; of these 45 members 12 owe 1928 dues and of these 12 members 1 owes 1927 dues. The reason we are carrying these back dues on our books is because the brothers have been granted further time from time to time in which to pay them.

I submit herewith balance sheet as of December 27th, 1930.

Assets		Liabilities and Surplus
Cash in bank	$ 56.74	Notes Payable	$1,900.00
Dues Receivable	5,764.75
Assessments "	85.00	Surplus	4,006.49
	5,906.49		5,906.49

Supplus of December 27th, 1929 amounted to $2,340;86 and a surplus of $4,006.49 at this time means that the Lodge has saved during the year 1930 a total of $1,665.63 or approximately $2.00 per member.

If we can keep up this good work during the next year or two we should have a nice sum with which to do charity work among our members when the occasion arises.

Respectfully submitted,
Frank Cramer Secretary

We, the Auditing Committee appointed to verify the report of Secretary for the year 1930 and audit the books of the Secretary and Treasurer respectfully advise that we have completed this work and find same correct, on this the 17th day of January, 1931.

Petitions acted upon. The petition of Chauncey W. Cooley, being due for action, the committee were discharged, ballot spread, found fair, and he declared a member of this lodge.

The petition of Milton Ray Miller also being due for action, the committee having reported this candidate as " Unfavorable," were discharged, the ballot spread, found black and he declared rejected.

At this time Past Master Cramer announced the Grand Officers had arrived at the Temple, and the Master, W C Heacox annonced that the regular order of business would be deferred until our next regular meeting, calling the Lodge " At Ease " retiring in favor of Past Master John G. Cramer, presiding Master who received the Grand Officers of the variuos Grand Jurisdictions of the State.

The following escort appointed by Past Master Cramer composed of Past Masters David P Eastin, Robert D. Hawkins, Bruce Davis and the present Master, W C Heacox, retired to announce the Grand Officers in waiting, that the Lodge was ready to receive them, after which they were presented in the following oreder by Past Grand Master of the State, G. Allison Holland who acted as Marshall. He first introduced Dr. Andrew Stenhouse of the Grand Supreme Roayl Arch Chapter of New Zealand and a representative of the Grand Chapter of Kentucky in New Zealand, Bro. Jno. X. Taylor Grand Master of the State, Bro. Jno L. Phillips, D.M., Richard Priest Dietzman, G J W., Fred W Hardwick, Past Grand Master and Grand Secretary, S.S.Penny, Grand Commander of The Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of the State, A W Whitehead, Grand High Priest of The Grand Chapter of the State, E T Dunigan, Grand Master of the Grand Council of the State, Past Grand Masters, William Carson Black, Sam Veach, Al Hazelrigg and Past Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter, Hugh Moore. Past Grand High Priest and Present Grand Standard Bearere of the Grand Commandery, Guy T. Johnson was also present, but was too late to be introduced.

After the introduction of these distinguished personages of Masonry, Bro Cramer tendered the Gavel to the Grand Master who made a short address, returning the Gavel to Bro. Cramer, and said that leter he would address the Craft.

Bro. Cramer next requested that each brother from a visiting Lodge rise, announce the number of his Lodge his name, and to make a brief statement as to the activity of his Lodge. This proved very interesting, and the following visiting brethren were found in attendance.

Oxford 176	3	Ghent 344	2	Stamping Ground 702	5
Eminence 207	1	Franklin 28	6	Irvine #	1
Lebanon Lodge 7, Washington D C			1	Washington 79	6
Maysville 52	2	Bell 691	9	Paris 2	4
Lansing, Saskachewan			1	Winchester 20	2
Daugherty 65	2	Williamsburg	2	Louisville 400	2
Mt. Sterling 23	3	Earlington 548	1

A total of fifty two visiting brethren.

All these brethren reported that their Lodges were active, and that although the depression had affected their growth materially, that they were still having work, and that the general condition of their Lodge was good.

Probably the most interesting talk of the evening was made by Bro. Sam Veach, who began by thanking No. 1 for thir hospitality, and explained the object of a District Meeting. He said it's purpose primarily was to engender better feeling among the brethren, to promote the growth of Masonry, recoup the losses already suffered the past three years, and for the various Lodges to be lenient with members who were not able to pay.

The next speaker was Dr. Stanhouse who made a very brief talk and closed tendering his appreciation to the members of No. 1 for their cordial reception.

Bro. S S Penny was the next speaker and the substance of his speech was that the Knights Templar were entirely dependent on the success of the Blue Lodges and he urged all members to keep in close touch with delinquent members and urge them to pay their dues.

A W Whitehead was next called on and he extended the welcome of the Grand and subordinate Chapters to Dr. Stenhouse and thanked No. 1 for their invitation.

Bro. E T Dunigan said that he would not talk and would surrender time allotted him to Fred W Hardwick, the Grand Secretary.

Fred Hardwick being the next in order, stessed the importance of the brethren paying their dues, and cited many ways and means in which a lodge could collect delinquent dues, and told of many benefits, members of this Fraternity reaped by being in good standing.

The next speakers were R P Dietzman and Jno. L. Phillips, the latter making a splendid address, beginning with a history of Lexington Lodge No. 1 and the foundation of Masonry; he encouraged visitation among brethren and ended by saying that he was alwyas glad to visit any Lodge that extended him an invitation. Brother Hardwick then suggested that our visiting brother from New Zealand extend an invitation to Bro. Phillipps.

Bro. Wm. Carson Black was then called on for a few remarks that were made with brevity, after which G Allison Holland made a few remarks, stating that the success of our Fraternity depended upon our integrity and purity of thought and with these things in mind, we would most surely succeed. He stated that he had had the honor of entertaining Bro. Stenhouse and assured him that would look forward to this pleasure again.

The gavel was then turned over to the Grand Master who spoke for about thirty minutes on " The Spirit of Masonry."

Brother Chester D. Adams then recited a poem embracing the signs, vows, cardinal virtues, etc., receiving much applause.

Brother John G. Cramer then retired in favor of the Master of No. 1, W C Heacox. Brother Heacox assured the visiting brethren that the meeting had been a most entertaining one, that he felt that many beneficial facts had been brought to light in the interest of Masonry, and that he wanted them to feel that Lexington Lodge was their Lodge and to come again when the opportunity presented itself.

Lodge was then closed in form at 10:30 P.M.

Frank C. Gerard
Grand Master
1895-1896

The M.·.W.·.Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons

of the

Commonwealth of Kentucky

Hopkinsville, Ky., July 7, 1931.

To the Grand Lodge Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge and to all the Brethren of the Grand Jurisdiction of Kentucky:

My Dear Brethren:

It is with sorrow that I announce to you the departure of our beloved Brother

Frank C. Gerard

who passed away June 11th at his home in Bowling Green.

His death cast a shadow of sorrow over a host of friends and the Craft of Kentucky. Surrounded by a large crowd of friends and his brethren, he was laid to rest in the beautiful Fairview Cemetery, Bowling Green, Saturday afternoon, June 13th, by the members of Bowling Green Lodge No. 73, F. & A. M., which he so dearly loved. Grand Master John X. Taylor, Grand Chaplain Rev. Paul Shell Powell, Grand Senior Deacon W. M. Criss assisted in the burial services.

He was born October 21, 1848, and was one of the oldest citizens of Bowling Green at the time of his death.

He was made a Master Mason in Bowling Green Lodge No. 73 July 12, 1870. He received the Scottish Rite degrees from the 4th to the 32° while Grand Master in October, 1895. He was a charter member and first Junior Warden of John C. Gerard Lodge No. 527 (now defunct), becoming its Master in 1874. Was also Master of Bowling Green Lodge No. 73 in 1888 and served for four years. Was elected Grand Master in 1895.

On his motion the assessment for the Home was raised from fifty cents to one dollar per capita, which was also to be payment for the Masonic Home Journal, to be sent to every affiliated Kentucky Mason.

His high ideals of life and wonderful knowledge of Masonry, coupled with a kind and courteous consideration for others, won for him an enviable position in the hearts of his countrymen.

He was a life member of Bowling Green Lodge No. 73, and also a life member of Aeolian Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, being the oldest member of both lodges. He devoted much of his time to the service of Humanity and Masonry. He was elected Grand Master in 1895, and served one year with marked ability. He married Miss Elizabeth Mair Etienne, of Brown County, Ohio. To this union two sons were born, John M. and Paul E. Gerard. His wife died in October, 1882, and he later married Mrs. Alice F. Prewitt, who died in April, 1930. He professed religion early in life and just before the final end came he told the visiting minister that he was ready to go.

In the death of Brother Gerard, the community sustained the loss of one of the noblest and best citizens, his family a kind and loving father, and the Craft a wise and able counsellor.

In token of our esteem for the memory of our beloved Brother, it is my order that this memorial be read in open lodge at the first communication after it is received and that it be made a part of the record of the lodge.

Given under my hand and seal of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, of the above date.

JOHN X. TAYLOR,
Grand Master.

Brother David P. Eastin stated Lexington Lodge No. 1 had in its possession some of the rarest books that could be found in any Masonic Library, and that we were becoming careless in their Handling, that the locks on the book cases were very often left open, and although the intentions of the Brethren were good, that without caution, some of these books would be misplaced or lost. He then moved that suitable locks be placed on the book cases and the Master, Secretary and librarian be given keys and be instructed to keep the cases locked at all times.

Brother J. Archer Gray stated that he was the Librarian and that the locks were good on the cases and that it was his impression that the cases were locked, and said that there must be other keys as he had recently noticed that all the cases were locked.

Brother Eastin then withdrew his motion and offered another to empower the Secretary to have locks placed on cases that needed them and that all valuable records be kept under lock and key, and other Masonic Histories such as Mackeys that were in duplicate be placed in the large case at the East end of the Club room, that they would be available to those who desired to read them. Motion seconded and carried.

Someone requested that Brother Hudson be notified when he would receive the Master's degree.

"Again we are reminded of the uncertainty of human life, and again the Death Angel has been in our midst.

This time his summons came to our beloved Brother, Edward Clark, who departed this life on Monday, March 26th, in the City of New York.

We are genuinely bereaved in the loss of Brother Clark, and are poorer for his going.

Therefore, be it resolved: That in the death of Brother Clark, our Lodge has lost a faithful and enthusiastic member; the Community a valued and useful Citizen, and his family a devoted Husband and Brother.

Be it further resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our minutes and a copy forwarded to the family of our departed Brother.

Brother Clark was a man of kindly and geniel disposition. His personality radiated kindleness and friendliness to a marked degree, and in every group of which he was a member, one could not fail to be impressed with the fact that he was in the presence of a simple gentleman, a man of the highest type.

There is a vacant chair in our Lodge room and an aching void in our hearts; but let us strive to remember that the separation will not be for long, and that he has only passed beyond the veil whither we allshall follow soon.

Respectfully submitted,
David P. Eastin,
Natt Corbin

"Whereas, on the 6th day of April, 1934,

Brother Junior Deacon, Harry G. Jones, for several years a true and faithful member of Lexington Lodge No. One, Free and Accepted Masons, was called from earthly labor to everlasting refreshment in the Paradise of God, and

Whereas, his beautiful life, his unsullied character, his loyal devotion to his friends, his Lodge and all worthy causes made him beloved by all who knew him,

Now, therefore, be it resolved that in the Death of Brother Harry G. Jones, Lexington Lodge No. One has lost one ot it's most useful and best loved members, the Community an honored citizen, his beloved wife and relatives a devoted and loved one, and his associates a true and loyal friend.

Be it further resolved, that we tender to his bereaved wife, relatives and friends our sincerest sympathy with the hope that they will find consolation by trusting in the source of infinite comfort from which our Brother drew his faith, hope and comfort while living.

Respectfully submitted,
C. Frank Cramer,

"Whereas: We have heard with deep regret of the death of Brother Frank F. Browning who died at his residence in the early morning of July 14th, 1934.
And Whereas: Brother Browning was a faithful and beloved member of our Lodge; now therefore Be it resolved: That in the death of Brother Browning our lodge has lost a useful and conscientous member; his family a devoted husband, son and brother, and the community a splendid and upright citizen.
Be it further resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our minutes and a copy forwarded to the family of our departed Brother.
We are pooper for his going and there is a vacant chair which no one else can fill.
Of a kindly and geniel disposition, he was always modest and unassuming, and yet of so wholesome and strong a personality that he impressed all with whom he came in contact with the fact that they were in the presence of an upright man, a simple and kindly gentleman.
Truly we shall miss him, but let us be reminded of one of the sublime lessons taught in our ceremonies, of a life beyond the grave where we hope to meet him the the Grand Lodge above, where there shall be no more parting, and where the Spureme Grand Master of the Universe presides.

Respectfully submitted,

Resolution

Lexington Lodge No. 1, deeply regrets the passing of Brother B.O.Vaughn who has been a faithful and ardent member for years. He was one of those rare men, that to know was to love - always kind, affable, gentle and zealous in his duties as a Citizen as well as a Mason. The following resolution expresses briefly the loss that Lexington Lodge No. 1 feels:

Whereas, It has pleased the Supreme Architect of the Universe in His infinite Wisdom to call our beloved Brother to that Home not hewn by human hands; therefore, be it -

RESOLVED, That we express our deepest sympathy to the bereaved ones. May they be comforted by the precept that true Masons never die, but live on forever in that blissful world to which we all are hastening. Let time as it heals the wounds thus inflicted upon our hearts and upon the hearts of those who were near and dear to him, not erase the salutory lessons engraved there, but let those lessons, always continuing distinct and legible, make us and them wiser and better; and be it further -

RESOLVED, That this resolution be spread upon the minutes of the Lodge and that a copy be sent to the bereaved family.

Prior to the opening of the Lodge, dinner was served at 6:30 P.M. by the ladies of the Eastern Star. The dinner itself was an enjoyable affair, but the committee on arrangements consisting of W. Emmet Milward, Ray E. Murphy and A. W. Johnson, had engaged the services of Brother Marion N. Waldrip, Pastor of the First Methodist Church South, who aside from being a wonderful speaker, qualifies equally as well as a humorist. In his address, he described the sincerity of Masonry at the time he was initiated and particularly stressed the importance of all Mason's obligations. He urged all present to faithfully live up to their performance.

Brother Waldrip was followed by Mr. Jack Severance, whose humorous witicisms were enjoyed by all and kept the entire membership in an uproar at all time.

At 8:10 P.M., the Chairman of the Committee, W. Emmet Milward, adjourned, and re uested all present to assemble in the Lodge room, which was done and Lodge opened at 8:34 P.M. The Master stated that because of the delay and so mny visitors present, that the business of the Lodge would be beferred to th next regular meeting, Dec. 3rd.

The condition of Brother J. H. Crane rported critical. The illness of Bro. D. P. Perry also reported and the Master stated that Bro. Perry was confined at the Veteran's Hospital where he had undergone an operation for hernia.

There being present a number of distinguished visitors from the Grand Lodge, the Master appointed G. All son Holland Grand Marshall to introduce the Grand Master ~~XXX~~ Hebbert Henderson and the Deputy Grand Master, Hugh Moore. Grand Masonic Honors were accorded anf thepaccepted a seat in the East.

It has been the custom ~~xxxxyx~~ of Lexington Lodge # 1 for years, to set one evening each year known as Past Masters Evening in which every chair is filled by a Past Master. This being the annual occasion of Past Masters evening, the Master declared the Lodge at ease and~~x~~ requested the Past Masters to occupy their respective stations. Those officiating were Theo L. Jones, Master, John G. Cramer, Senior Warden, Chas. W. Crum, Junior Warden, J. W. Mattingly, Senior Deacon, C. Frank Cramer, Junior Deacon and Ray S. Stewart, Secretary.

There being in waiting Bros. Thomas Williams and Roy L. Bentley, the latter being a member of Robinson Creek Lodge # 591, Lesbas, Ky., they were prepared, introduced and raised to the sublime degree of a Master Mason.

Brother Theo L. Jones conferred the first section, Bro Robert D.
