Dedicated to the Famous

KENT
TRAD

To Kentucky Traditions, which have made this State famous throughout the world, we dedicate The 1936 Kentuckian. The name "Kentucky" wherever mentioned is synonymous with Beautiful Women, Fast Horses, Stately Colonels, Mint Juleps, Burley Tobacco, and Sturdy Pioneers

Dean T. T. Jones

T. T. Jones, dean of men, was born in Clay County, Kentucky. He attended the University where he obtained his A. B. degree in 1902, being the honor graduate that year; he later went to Harvard where he obtained his Ph. D. degree. He has been head of the Department of Ancient Languages since 1904; was acting dean of the Graduate School until 1934, when he was appointed dean of men upon the retirement of Dean Melcher.

June, 1936, will mark the completion of the third year of office for T. T. Jones as dean of men of the University, and in that short period of time, he has endeared himself to everyone with whom he has come in contact. His friendship, geniality, and impartiality have made him honored and respected by all the men of the University.

The two major problems which have confronted Dean Jones have been the administration of student relief work in the form of FERA and NYA, and the financial situation of the fraternities on the campus. Both projects have been handled in a very commendable manner. The fraternities were required to submit financial statements and a council composed of the presidents of all the fraternities was formed by Dean Jones.

Another innovation which has been a boon to the social life of the University are the Wednesday night dances inaugurated by the genial dean, the proceeds from which have been used to buy a piano for the gymnasium and also add to the Student Union Building fund.

His achievements have been outstanding during the four years spent at the University by the Class of '36.

DEANS

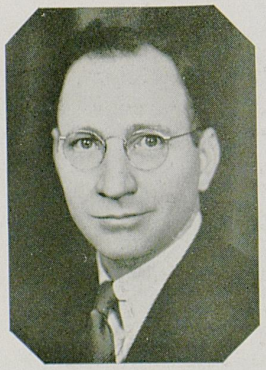

W. D. Funkhouser, dean of the Graduate School, was born in Rockport, Indiana, in 1881. He obtained his A. B. degree from Wabash College in '05, M. A. from Cornell in '12, Ph. D. from Cornell in '16, and Sc. D. from Wabash in '29. He has travelled around the world in his incessant search for rare and strange specimens of bugs, snakes, and dead Indians.

In spite of the fact that he is married, Dr. Funkhouser has written about 300 books and scientific publications. Not being a very busy man, he was appointed chairman of the Athletic Council and secretary of the Southeastern Conference. He is a member of Kappa Sigma, Phi Beta Kappa, the Rotary Club, and many scientific organizations.

Thomas P. Cooper, dean of the College of Agriculture, was born in Pekin, Illinois, in 1881. He is an expert gardner, and also enjoys traveling. He received his A. B. and A. B. in Agriculture from the University of Minnesota.

Before coming to the university, Dean Cooper taught at the University of Minnesota, was connected with the United States Department of Agriculture, and Director of North Dakota Better Farms Association. Besides being an author of a book, he has also written several bulletins on agriculture. He is a member of Sigma Xi, Alpha Zeta, Masons, Rotary Club, and other clubs.

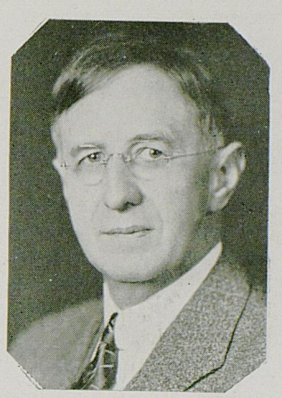

L. J. Horlacher, assistant dean of the College of Agriculture, was born at Frankfort, Indiana, in 1894. He received his B. S. degree at Purdue in 1917, his M. S. at Kansas State College in 1919, and did graduate work at the University of Chicago. Professor Horlacher is the author of several books on livestock, and is a renowned authority on sheep.

While in school Professor Horlacher was a member of Alpha Tau Omega, Sigma Xi, Gamma Sigma Delta, Tau Kappa Alpha, and O. D. K.

DEANS

P. P. Boyd, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, was born in Cameron, West Virginia, in 1877. He received his A. B. from Oberlin in 1898, A. M. from Park College, and M. A. and Ph. D. from Cornell. He is married and has two daughters, Virginia and Bettie.

Reading, long trips, and college sports interest him very much. Dean Boyd is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma Xi, Omicron Kappa Delta, and Sigma Delta Chi, besides being prominent in various societies. He has written several articles on education and was co-author of a textbook. Before coming to Kentucky he was connected with Hanover College and Park College.

Edward Wiest, dean of the College of Commerce, was born in Florida, 1878. He received his A. B. from George Washington University in 1912, his A. M. from Columbia, and his Ph. D. from Columbia in 1916.

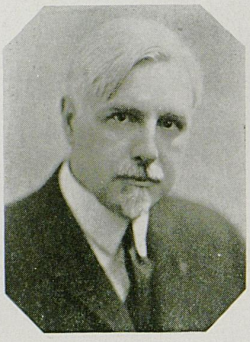

Dean Wiest was connected with the United States Weather Bureau, has taught at the University of Vermont, and is the author of several publications. He is a member of Phi Sigma Kappa, Beta Gamma Sigma, and several academies of sciences.

William S. Taylor, dean of the College of Education, since 1923, was born in Beaver Dam in 1885. He obtained his B. S. from Kentucky in '12, M. S. from the University of Wisconsin in '13, and Ph. D. from Columbia in '24. He is an ardent golfer and quite naturally, is also quite a gardener (always digging).

He is a member of Phi Delta Kappa, Kappa Delta Pi, Alpha Zeta, Kiwanis Club, Masons, N. E. A., A. A. A. S., and K. E. A. Dean Taylor has written several books on education, in addition to being a member of the Federal Board of Vocational Education.

DEANS

James Hiram Graham, dean of the College of Engineering, was born in Louisville in 1879. He received his B. C. E. in '00, and C. E. in '03 from the University of Kentucky. After the armistice was signed terminating the World War, he was in charge of the engineering operations of the A. E. F. in France. He was awarded an office in the Legion of Honor in France and the Distinguished Service Medal by the United States. He is a member of the Pendennis Club, Masons, and Kappa Alpha.

This is Dean Graham's first year at the university, but he has shown much enthusiasm in the proposed campus improvements which include the Student Union Building, remodeling Mechanical Hall, improvements on the stadium, and construction of a central heating plant.

W. E. Freeman, assistant dean of the College of Engineering, is a native of Lexington. He obtained his A. B. from Transylvania in '01, B. M. E. from U. of K. in '04, and E. E. from Kentucky in '12. Dean Freeman is another member of the staff who is an ardent gardener, and strangely enough, he too is a golfer.

Dean Freeman was acting dean of the College of Engineering during the past year, prior to the arrival of the new dean, Colonel Graham, and was active in the installation of a new credit system in the college. He is a member of Tau Beta Pi, Omicron Delta Kappa, A. I. E. E., Rotary Club, and Kappa Alpha.

Alvin E. Evans, dean of the College of Law, was born in Valley, Nebraska, in 1880, and spent his early life on the farm. He attended the University of Nebraska, where he received his A. B. and A. M. degrees. He then married and now has two children, Palmer and Patrica.

He started his teaching career at the University of Washington, then went to the State College of Washington, University of Idaho, and later to George Washington University. He is a member of the Rotary Club, Delta Theta Phi, Kentucky Bar Association and other legal societies.

DEANS

Sarah G. Blanding, dean of women and assistant professor of political science, was born in Fayette County, Kentucky, in 1898. She received her A. B. at the university and her A. M. at Columbia. Before becoming dean of women, she was instructor in physical education and assistant dean of women.

She spends her summers as director at Trail's End Camp, located on the Kentucky River. While in school, Dean Blanding was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma, and active in campus life. She is a member of the American Association of University Women and prominent in the field of political science.

Mrs. Sarah B. Holmes, assistant dean of women, was born at Shawnee on the Delaware, Pennsylvania, and attended the University of Kentucky where she obtained her A. B. degree. Before she came to the university as a member of the faculty, she taught at East Stroudsburg and Sayre College. She is a member of Kappa Delta Pi and Mortar Board.

Mrs. Holmes' popularity among the students of the university can probably be attributed to the fact that she really knows how to get along with young people, being the mother of four, Kendall, Mildred, Lillian, and John, all of whom have made very fine records at the university.

The campus politicians were at their peak, reveling in their arguments, gloating over their successful ruses, and looking crestfallen when their crafty schemes were a failure. This proved to be the last of the "Old Regime" elections, due to the fact that the Student Council wisely declared the subsequent elections null and void, thereby putting an end to such practices

WILDCATS FACE MARYVILLE IN OPENING GAME

Varsity Reported to Be in Fine Shape for Test Against Weaker Eleven

Bringing to a climax three hard weeks of intensive training, Coach Chet Wynne's high-geared Wildcat football machine will face Maryville's Mountaineers at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow on Stoll field in the season's opening game.

Starting on Labor Day, the Cats have been working twice each day at Greentree Farm, and once every day this week on the practice field and should be in fine physical shape. Injuries have been few and it appears that the entire squad will have an opportunity to see action against the Mountaineers.

Coach Wynne has not decided on a regular lineup for the opening fracas and expects to substitute freely in order to find the proper combination to carry on the remainder of the campaign.

A number of veterans are returning and these along with a group of promising graduates of last season's frosh squad are expected to furnish Kentucky with a vastly improved outfit.

Among the probable starters will be Captain Jimmy Long at one end, with Gene Bryant, Duke Ellington, Red Hagan, and Big Jim Goforth all battling for the other position. The most promising tackle aspirants are Stan Nevers and Arperd Olah, with Dusty Rhodes, Joe Bosse, J. F. Wallace, Skaggs, and McIntyre sure to get into action.

Coach Wynne will probably have his most difficult job in selecting his first string guards, with several good smart players from which to choose, including three or four lettermen. Sam and Lexie Potter, Joe Huddleston, Frank McClurg, Homer Nichols, and Bill Jobe, converted from tackle, will be available for duty and give the guard berths the strongest reserve material of any line spot.

At center, the veteran Gene Myers, whose work as a sophomore last season was outstanding, will get the call over Sherman Hinkebein and Pete Kurachek, both of whom will play in their first varsity game tomorrow.

In the backfield, the Cats will present a fast first string group with some capable reserve strength. Heading the list will be Bert Johnson, whose gridiron feats in 1934 made him the most feared running back in the South and one of the outstanding performers in the country.

As a running mate to Johnson the Blue team will have Bob Davis, who will be making his varsity debut this year, after turning in some sensational performances with last season's freshman team. Two more sophomores will be likely to complete the starting backfield, with Elmore Simpson at fullback and Dick Robinson calling signals.

Any one of the several fine backs may be inserted into the starting line up and in any event are sure to handle the ball against Maryville. Wadlington, McCool, Boland, Hay, Sympson, Sherman, Craig, or McMillan may all find regular spots in the Cat lineup before the season is over.

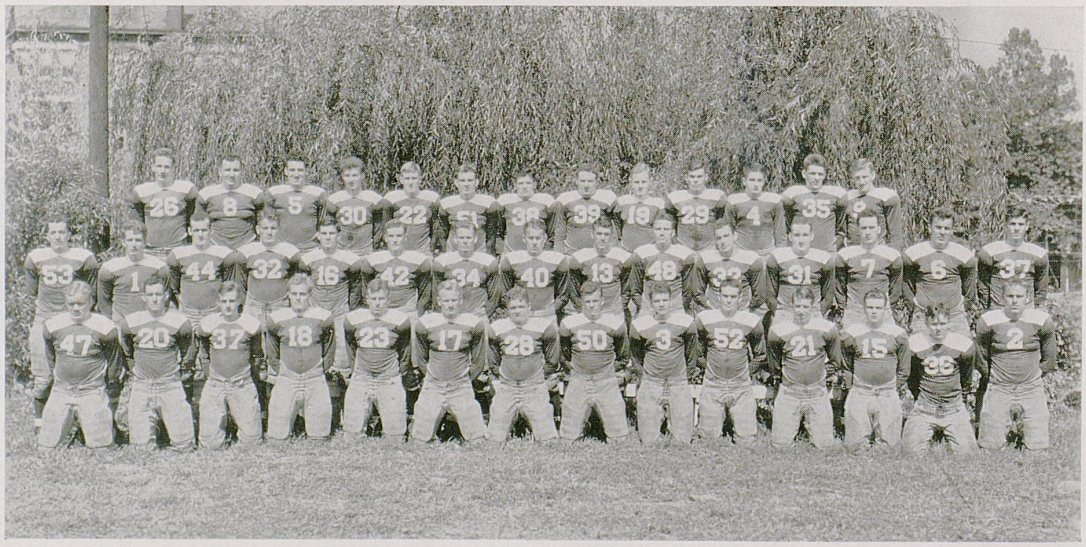

Ted Twomey, line coach, has been selected as a tackle on Notre Dame's all-time team during the period the Irish were coached by the immortal Knute Rockne.

Bob Davis, sophomore halfback, won the middleweight boxing championship of Ohio in 1934.

Bert "Man O'War" Johnson, Kentucky's outstanding candidate for All-American honors this season, and James Long, Wildcat captain, are the only married men on the Wildcat squad. Both lost their freedom during the past summer. Johnson is a halfback and Long is an end.

DAVIS LEADS U. K. 60-0 ROUT OF MARYVILLE

Sophomore Back Scores With Ease as U. K. Wins Opener

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 21—With Bob Davis, a sophomore fram Dayton, Ky., showing the way, the University of Kentucky Wildcats this afternoon romped through the Highlanders of Maryville College, Tenn., by 60 to 0. The Cats were hard pressed a year ago to win from Maryville by 26 to 6.

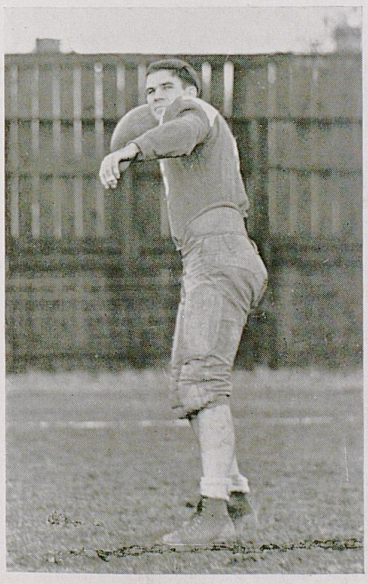

Scoring two touchdowns in the first quarter, the Kentuckians went on to mark up three more in the second, another in the third, and three more in the fourth, and probably would have reached a much larger margin had Head Coach Wynne decided to leave his regulars in longer.

Starting a brand new sophomore team, Coach Wynne allowed the youngsters to remain in the battle until they had scored a touchdown, before he sent in his regulars in the old Notre Dame manner, after which it was just a question of how many points the regulars would score.

The sophomores hesitated a bit before scoring a touchdown, but they halted the Maryville outfit without gain. Craig and Jones carried the ball to Maryville's 3-yard stripe, from which point Craig tossed a pass to Jones for a touchdown, after which Simpson placekicked the extra point and the Wildcats were leading 7 to 0.

Maryville, classed just as strong as last year, was able to make only two first downs against Kentucky, and was lucky at that.

It was Kentucky from the opening kickoff. Maryville practically gave the Wildcats their first score. A poor punt by Maryville gave the Kentuckians a first down on the 25-yard line. This punt was almost straight up and was first down on the 25-yard stripe. "Red" Craig, a youngster from Ashland, bounced six yards through the line, after which Billy Jones whipped off seventeen more. Craig then tossed a nice pass to Jones.

BOB DAVIS, sensational sophomore halfback, outdistances the entire Maryville team on one of his brilliant runs

After the second team had made its touchdown, Wynne sent in his shock troops, and, after a few plays, Bob Davis broke through the line for 61 yards for the second marker. Langan Hay, a senior fullback from Irvine, place-kicked the extra point.

Davis and Johnson alternated in making first downs until the Wildcats had a first down on the eight-yard line in the second period. Bert Johnson ploughed through the line to the three-yard stripe. Johnson hit the line, Hay repeated and Johnson broke through the line for the marker. Hay's try for the extra point missed the uprights by inches.

The next Kentucky touchdown was easy. Maryville punted to the Kentucky 42-yard line, after which Davis broke through right tackle for another marker. Hay made a beautiful place kick for the extra point.

A few more plays and Bert Johnson broke through for 38 yards and a first down on Maryville's 26-yard marker, ending up with a lateral to Lutz for three more. Johnson then tossed an easy pass to Davis for another touchdown and it was 33 to 0.

Wynne started his sophomores in the third quarter. A couple of intercepted passes and Kentucky had the ball on Maryville's 45. Simpson then reeled off 24 yards, Craig cut through to the 22 and Frank McCool circled end for another touchdown, and Simpson made the extra point.

The eighth touchdown was easy. Davis made a 47-yard run through the line without a Maryville man touching him. Boland made the final Kentucky touchdown when he reeled off 39 yards around right end and Lutz, a sophomore, made good the extra point.

GENE MYERS, center, intercepted a pass in the Xavier game and accounted for one of Kentucky's three touchdowns

SLOPPY FIELD MARS PLAYING AS CATS WIN

Xavier's "Mighty Line" Wilts Under Cats Powerful Drives

Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 27—Thwarted on most of their running plays by Xavier University's "Iron Line," the University of Kentucky Wildcats tonight reversed the adage that a good offense is the best defense and scored three tingling touchdowns by intercepting a pair of Xavier passes and by running a Musketeer punt across the goal line to whip Joe Meyer's green shirted lads 21 to 7.

And, strange as it may seem, the Xavier marker was made while the home lads were on the defensive, when little Leo Sack, brilliant quarterback of the Catholics, gave the Musketeer rooters their biggest thrill of the night by returning a Wildcat punt 46 yards for the Xavier touchdown.

It was almost one for Ripley this hair-raising battle in a drizzling rain tonight—for all of the four touchdowns made were scored on runs of more than 45 yards and not one was made on a scrimmage play. This same drizzle knocked Kentucky out of two more almost certain touchdowns as the Wildcat backs fumbled on two occasions when it appeared that certain scores were in the offing.

Longer than 55 Yards

All three of Kentucky's touchdowns were made on runs of more than 55 yards. Myers, fiercely scrapping center, accounted for the first when he intercepted a pass and tore along for 65 yards, the longest sprint of the engagement; Davis, brilliant sophomore halfback from just across the river in Dayton, Ky., made the second when he returned a punt for 60 yards, and Johnson, Kentucky's candidate for All-American, scored the final Kentucky marker by intercepting a pass and reeling off 55 yards.

It was one of the few games on record in which so many touchdowns were made that all of the points after touchdown were converted. Hay of Kentucky making three perfect place kicks, and Schmeig, halfback on the Xavier team, making a beautiful goal from placement for his team's extra point.

The game was just what many of the experts had predicted. Most of the prognosticators figured the Wildcats to make three touchdowns, for Xavier to score, for Xavier's line to outplay the Wildcat forward wall and for Kentucky's backfield to outshine the ball carriers of the Cincinnati team. They were correct.

Leo Sack, the mite who generaled the Xavier outfit, was expected to be a thorn in Kentucky's side, and he was. Bert "Man O'War" Johnson and Bob "Twenty Grand" Davis, famous Kentucky halfbacks, were expected to be rank poison to Xavier and they were. Gene Myers, Wildcat center, was expected to turn on and he disappointed nobody.

10,000 See Game

A crowd estimated at between 10,000 and 12,000 cash customers braved a miserable evening to get more than their money's worth in thrills which left many of them almost too weak to leave the stadium.

The final period was scoreless and evenly fought, with Kentucky making four first downs to three for the Muskies. The only thing of importance was that Xavier's heralded passing attack was not good enough to bother the Kentucky raiders. Most of this period was played in the middle of the field.

Things began to happen in the second stanza. Joe Schuhman, a Louisville boy and the big offensive threat in the Xavier backfield, began to worry the Kentuckians by crashing through their line and the Wildcat fans were preparing for the worst when Myers stepped forward and made his beautiful run, receiving great help from his blocking teammates. Outside of that run, the Xavier boys outclassed the Wildcats that period despite the fine defensive line play of Captain James Long and Joe Bosse, a sophomore tackle.

Still More Action

The third quarter was filled with more action than Joe Louis. The Xavier crowd went wild when Sack made his sensational touchdown run but the Xaverian joy was short lived for Davis neutralized Sack's performance just a few plays later when he caught Bucklew s punt and, almost without help, reeled off his 60-yard touchdown run. All the credit for the Xavier score cannot be given to Sack, for it was a 70-yard punt by Bucklew which went out of bounds on Kentucky's three-yard stripe that put Kentucky in the hole, causing Johnson to punt from behind his own goal line.

After Sack's score, which enraged the Wildcats, the Kentuucky halfbacks really turned on, featuring a 27-yard end run by Davis and a 28-yard dash by Johnson, but, with the ball on Xavier's nine-yard stripe, Johnson fumbled and Xavier stopped the drive.

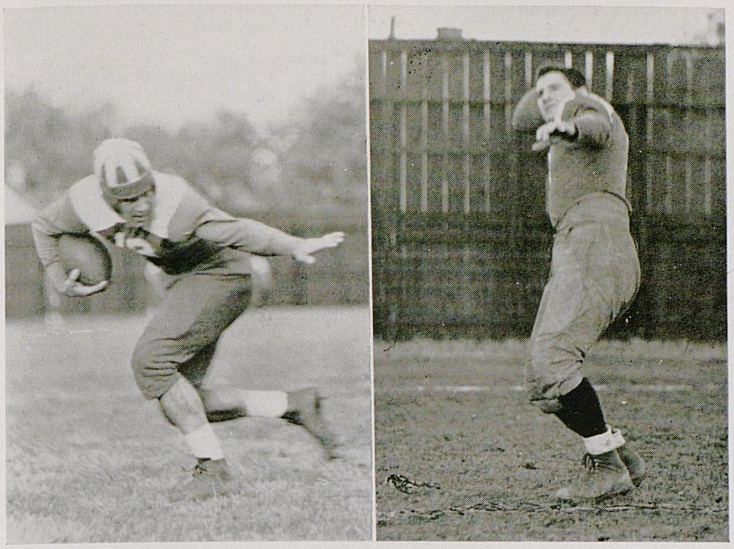

Johnson's long run came in the last frame and it made victory certain. Intercepting Haffey's pass, the big Wildcat terror, shook off half a dozen Muskies as he lugged the leather to the goal. Not long afterward, Kentucky, by dint of a 35-yard punt return by Davis and a 30-yard pass from Johnson to Davis, had a first down on Xavier's one-yard line but Davis fumbled and Xavier recovered on the next play.

Johnson showed that he is still the mighty "ManO'War" by his consistent gains, his accurate passes, his nice punts, and his vicious defensive work. Xavier had too much of Johnson and Coach Francis Schmidt of Ohio State, Kentucky's next opponent, after scouting the game, left the press box talking to himself.

The 1935 University of Kentucky football squad of 42 men, includes players from 10 states—Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio, Mississippi, Tennessee, Connecticut, West Virginia, Illinois, Alabama and New York.

DAVIS SCORES ON POWERFUL BUCKEYES

Kentucky Hold Ohio State To Three Touchdowns

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 5—Staging a magnificent game against a team ranked as one of the best in the nation, the University of Kentucky Wildcats this afternoon thrilled a record crowd of 56,686 when they held the Buckeyes of Ohio State to a 19 to 6 victory.

It was a soul-satisfying game for the thousands of Kentuckians who came here expecting to see their Wildcats drubbed unmercifully. They saw those Kentucky boys give the Buckeyes just about all they could handle despite the celebrated tricks resorted to by Coach Francis A. Schmidt's warriors.

Ohio State earned two touchdowns, but one was a pure gift on the part of the Wildcats, whereas, the only Kentucky marker was the result of a 40-yard drive culminating in a break through the massive Buckeye line by Bob "Twenty Grand" Davis, Dayton sophomore. Ohio's first marker was made by passing, the second after a Kentucky fumble and the third through the line after "Jumping Joe" Williams, star Buckeye halfback, found the Wildcat ends vulnerable.

The Wildcat halfbacks, Davis and Bert "Man O'War" Johnson, kept the Buckeyes worried stiff all during the game, Johnson gaining a total of 108 yards and Davis picking up 62.

Johnson was easily the outstanding player on the field, although Williams, who gained 76 yards for the Bucks, displayed a world of class. But it was the all-around playing of Johnson that caused the fans to give him a mighty roar of applause when he was taken out of the game for a brief period after having the wind knocked out of him. Not only did Bert steal the show in carrying the mail, including a 30-yard dash, the longest run of the game, but his punting was perfect and his defense work was a joy to behold.

Stops Two Ohio Threats

Although he did not score a touchdown, Johnson single-handed prevented two Buckeye markers. Bert stepped into the breach just as the first half was about to end and nailed a fleet Ohio State back who was tearing out around end from the four-yard line. Another time he hurled his body through the air and knocked down a pass which, if completed, would have meant another tally. Kentucky's line, which didn't look so good against Xavier a week ago, fought a valiant battle. Out-weighed nearly 20 pounds to the man, the Kentucky forwards gave the Buckeye line a right merry afternoon, although Sam Potter, a starting guard, had to be carried off the field after the second play of the game when his bad knee was re-injured.

The Kentucky line did not wilt at any stage and most of Ohio State's yardage was picked up through the air and around the ends, especially in the final period, when the Wildcat flankmen, one of whom, Captain Jimmy Long, was nursing a fractured toe, began to tire.

Use Fancy Plays

The victory was hard-earned and the game was not safe until after the third Buckeye marker was made. Leading by 6 to 0, the Bucks used all kinds of fancy plays in a desperate attempt to widen the margin. Then, when they lucked into their second touchdown, but failed to kick the goal, Kentucky still was threatening to break away. After Davis made Kentucky's touchdown and the score was 12 to 6, Coach Schmidt still wasn't comfortable enough to begin to substitute freely until the final score was accomplished.

The opposing lines played grand football, with Gene Meyers, Kentucky's battling center, and Stan Nevers, 205-pound Wildcat tackle, taking off their hats to none of the enemy forwards.

Statistics of the game show the Cats gained 187 yards by rushing to 208 gained by the Buckeyes and made ten first downs against 18.

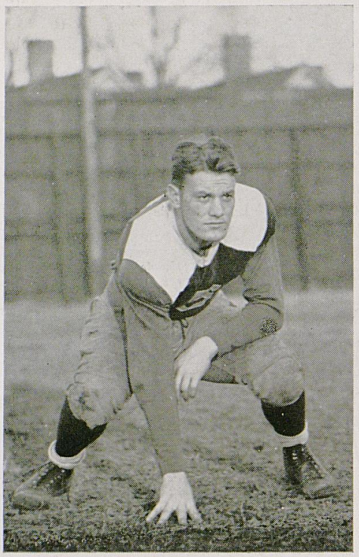

Neither Chet Wynne, coach of the Wildcats, nor Schmidt of the Buckeyes seemed pleased with the game. "My boys fought hard during the first part of the game. They shoved us around in the latter part," Wynne said. Schmidt said, "They have got a darn good team. We've got to do better than this."

With Johnson back in the game as the final frame began, the Wildcats took fresh hope. Then "South Paw" Dick Robinson, sophomore Kentucky quarterback, intercepted one of Bill Dye's passes on Ohio State's 40-yard line, and brought it up to the 34. Featuring sharp advances by Johnson and Davis, Kentucky soon had a first down on Ohio State's five-yard stripe and Davis went through left tackle to score. Ayers' place kick for the extra point went wide.

Williams came into his own in the last stanza, demonstrating why he is ranked as one of the best baks in the Big Ten. He reeled off two end runs, one for 24 and another for 20 yards, placing the Bucks in position to score.

U. OF K. BEATS TECH RAMBLER ELEVEN, 26-6

75 Yard Run By Davis Scores For Cats; Jackets Tally First

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 12—Although Kentucky's big shot, Bert "Man O' War" Johnson, was in a hospital today, the Wildcats, bidding for recognition in the Southern gridiron circles, made good use of their sparkling sophomore halfback, Bob Davis, to give Georgia Tech a sound thrashing by 26-6 on Stoll Field here this afternoon before 11,000 persons.

Kentucky missed its great halfback, Johnson, but "Twenty Grand" Davis, with the burden on his shoulders, came through like a thoroughbred, reeling off sensational runs, making fine tackles and punting the ball so high and so far that twice the Tech safety man was forced to signal for fair catches. This sophomore from Dayton, who scored on Ohio State last Saturday, picked up 169 yards from scrimmage and scored three times.

Davis Makes Long Run

In scoring Kentucky's second touchdown Davis reeled off 75 yards, one of the longest runs on any gridiron this season. His second marker was on a run of nine yards and his third was on a pass which he accepted from little Abie Ayers, a total of 33 yards on the pass and run combined.

That puts Davis right up among the leading scorers of the Southeastern conference. He made four touchdowns against Maryville and one each against Xavier and Ohio State.

But Davis wasn't the only player on the field. That long-legged sophomore, "Dutch" Konemann, of Tech, who rambled through the Kentucky team like a manifest freight, 43 yards to score Tech's marker, could play on anybody's football team. And Lawrence Hays, left halfback on Bill Alexander's eleven, did some inhuman passing until the Wildcats developed a defense against it.

Ayers, who scored the touchdown that might have won the game for Kentucky, showed that, on offense, Kentucky will go on having a fairly good team even with Johnson out. Ayers was the spark plug behind Kentucky's first scoring drive. He ripped off a 28-yard end run while the Wildcats were trailing by 6 to 0, then after Elmore Simpson, husky fullback, had made 27 at the opposite flank, pushed and wiggled his way around end for 16 yards to score.

Line Play Vicious

The line play was vicious, both sides playing sparkling football, but the honors must go to the forward wall of the Kentuckians, who, although a bit smaller than the Technicians, outrushed their opponents. The Kentucky tackles Stan Nevers and Wendell Skaggs, and their center, Gene Myers, were the class of the linemen by far.

For three quarters it was anybody's game, and during that time the fans, melting in the Indian summer heat, were brought to their feet again and again by thrilling and daring feats by both elevens.

It was a lateral that brought Kentucky's second touchdown when Davis accepted one from Ayers behind the line and ran 75 yards. Then soon afterwards Davis figured in another lateral pass play which brought a roar of applause.

Little "Double O" McMillan, Cat quarterback, received Konemann's punt on his own 10-yard line and whipped up the field for 30 yards, but was trapped. Looking around while in full swing, he located Davis on his left, some five yards away, and threw the ball to him. Davis nabbed the pass and came on to mid-field, where he was run out of bounds. The overzealous Tech boys piled on him and knocked him out for the time.

Unable to Continue

Davis was unable to continue, but returned in the second half.

Kentucky trailed for half a quarter, but finally generated power enough to score in the initial frame, and Ayers put Kentucky in the lead when he place-kicked the extra point. Kentucky scored again in the second, was outplayed in part of the third, neither side scoring, and then, with Davis going into high gear again, piled up two more markers in the fourth quarter.

Kentucky could have rolled up a larger score but Wynne used just about all his subs in the last quarter.

AUBURN BLASTS CATS HOPE OF GRID SPOILS

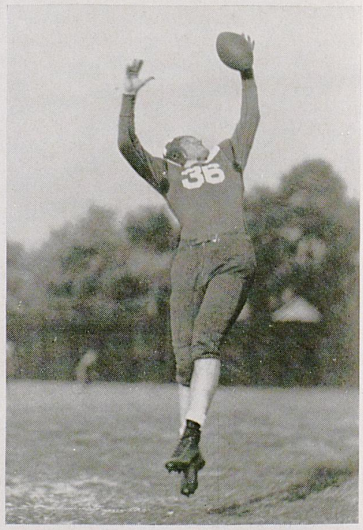

Johnson and Davis Held in Check by Fast Charging Line

Montgomery, Ala., Oct 19—Kentucky's hopes for a share in the Southern gridiron spoils were rudely blasted here this afternoon by a hard charging Auburn line that got its backs into the clear to help them on to a bristling 23 to 0 victory. While Auburn's "Sparkplugs" were matched against Kentucky's thoroughbreds—"Man O'War" Johnson and "Twenty Grand" Davis—the Tiger line made the path smoother in a surging display of power and co-ordination.

Kentucky's line was visibly weak on the left side, but Captain Jimmy Long came out of the battle with all the honors that could be heaped on an end. His defensive exhibition was superb, but the small leader of the Wildcats was effectively covered on offense.

Auburn started off with a fine attack. After bottling up Johnson and Davis, the Tigers took the ball in the first period on the Wildcat's 30 as a result of Johnson's kick that was partly blocked. Bunky O'Rourke, who subbed for the supposedly irreplaceable Wilton Hilgores at fullback for Auburn, slashed out 11 yards and Billy Hitchcock weaved his way out wide to the right, sucked Johnson over and then cut inside of the great Wildcat back for a touchdown. His swift exhibition of running at this point rocked the Cats back on their heels.

Auburn's team was fighting Chet Wynne, Kentucky coach, formerly of Auburn, whose line on the left side was badly weakened without Potter and Nevers. The Plainsmen riddled the line and shot down the Wildcat secondary in an offensive display that dumbfounded some 10,000 partial grid customers.

Bert Johnson and Bob Davis could not be denied in the third period. They did a job that was magnificent to behold. The Wildcats, catching the Tigers slightly relaxed, began a passing and running attack that started on the Kentucky 26 and only an alert Auburn secondary checked the drive after the Wildcats had churned up more than fifty yards in a wild fury. John Tipper leaped into the picture to snag a pass from Ayers on the Tiger goal line. He managed to work his way out of this almost two-pointer for Kentucky, as Wildcat tacklers lunged for him and missed as he tore wildly out of the close corner.

Paterson failed to kick this goal. The quarter ended with Auburn so far ahead it was apparent to the customers they would see some spectacular stuff—with Kentucky going into the air. Kentucky did go into the air, but to no avail. Auburn had taken the ball to midfield as the third stanza ended, and on the second play, which was a buildup play, Joe Bob Mitchell found an opening. He shot slightly to his left, hurdled over two prostrate Auburn men who had tried to block out Red Hagan and Abie Ayers and he did an African "Death" dance as he kept on for a 50-yard touchdown.

After a year's lay-off, the University of Kentucky and Georgia Tech will enter on a four-year football series this fall. In the three games between the two teams, Kentucky has won two. One was a 3 to 3 tie.

CRIMSON TIDE COASTS OVER WILDCATS 13-0

Big Alabama Line Holds Kentucky in Own Territory

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 2—A hard-charging Alabama line pushed Kentucky aside before 14,476 persons at Legion Field here today, and the Crimson Tide won by 13 to 0.

"Man O'War" Johnson and "Twenty Grand" Davis, Kentucky's two principal threats, never were able to get the ball past mid-field.

Thrusts for Alabama touchdowns came in the first and third periods. In the middle of the opening period, Alabama marched 67 yards for a counter.

Nisbet and Kilgrow smacked the line for 11 in two plays and then Kilgrow shot a pass to Captain Jimmy Walker, who took it out of a Kentucky player's hands for 22 more. Angelich and Nisbet made another first down in two plunges and Kilgrow swept around left end for 10 yards to the Kentucky five.

Nisbet Counts First

Nisbet crashed over on the third play and Riley Smith kicked the extra point from placement.

As the second half opened, Alabama launched another drive from Kentucky's 42 to score. Kilgrow started it with a 14-yard dash through left guard, and three plays made another first down on the 16. After two nice gains, a 15-yard holding penalty set Alabama back on its 22, but Kilgrow shot a long pass to J. Walker, who took it in the end zone.

McMillan blocked the try for extra point.

Kentucky battled valiantly for a score for the remainder of the game, but Alabama's backs broke up passes when it looked as if the invaders might cross mid-field, and the Alabama line held, even with many substitutes playing.

Just before the end of the game, Kentucky completed two passes to work the ball out near mid-field after Smith's punt had placed it on the Kentucky three-yard line, but Nisbet ended the threat by intercepting the next toss on Alabama's 45.

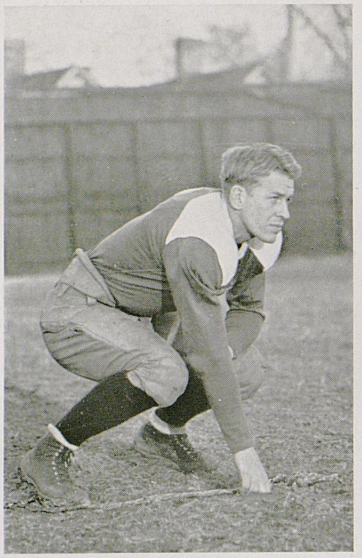

Nevers Kentucky Star

For Kentucky, the work of Nevers at left tackle and the defensive tackling of the backfield, kept the game from being more one-sided.

Lateral passes, one by each team, worked without real advantage. Kentucky tried one on the kick-off after Alabama's first touchdown, McMillan tossing the oval to Davis, but the latter was smacked down hard on his own 23.

The Wildcats couldn't penetrate the Alabama line, however, and the remainder of the first half was principally a punting duel, with Big Riley Smith holding a slight edge in yardage.

Bert Johnson, All-Southeastern conference halfback last year as a sophomore in the Wildcat backfield, caused the Rose Bowl winning Alabama team more grief in 1934 than any other player. In one game he scored two touchdowns against the Crimson Tide. One of these was a 69-yard run, the longest individual gain made against Alabama all season.

HOLIDAY CROWD THRILLED BY 59-YARD RUN

Large Crowd of Alumni Watch Kentucky Win, 15 to 6

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 9—A last minute touchdown run of 59 yards by Kentucky's great sophomore halfback, Bob "Twenty Grand" Davis, made a perfect homecoming for throngs of alumni, former University of Kentucky students who returned today to Lexington to see their Wildcats lick Florida by 15 to 6.

It was a nip and tuck battle. Kentucky forged into a 9 to 6 lead in the second quarter, only to allow the boys from Florida to come within striking distance in the final frame when the invaders took advantage of a Wildcat fumble to score a touchdown.

The score stood at 9 to 6 in Kentucky's favor with a minute and a half to play and the Alligators were playing almost superhuman football in a desperate effort to win when Davis was hurt. Ordered out of the game, the Dayton sophomore walked to the sidelines, threw his headgear to the ground in chagrin and then stalked to his place in the lineup when the Kentucky coach, Chet Wynne, nodded that it was all right.

Kentucky was in a tough spot at the time, lacking 12 yards of having the ball where it was only two plays before. With 10 yards to go for a first down, Davis had been thrown for a five -yard loss on an attempted left end run. Then little Abie Ayers, who had played a bang-up game all afternoon, tried another end run and was nailed for an additional seven-yard loss by Al Hickland, sterling 'Gator left tackle.

Davis went back into short punt formation. All afternoon the Wildcat right halfback who leads the South in scoring, had been halted for short gains or for no gains at all, although playing a fine game both on offense and defense. But this time he rang the bell. He started around left end, cut back toward the right, found himself in the clear and straightened out to gallop the last 20 yards with no one in rock throwing distance of him.

Helped By Teammates

Davis received some fine assistance from his mates as he began his dash, but before long he had outdistanced his interferers as well as out-dodged the Alligator secondary defensive men who tried to corner him. Davis did all this without the use of a stiff-arm, so valuable to a halfback, for he played while suffering from a nerve injury which rendered his right arm practically useless.

The nerve injury did not interfere with Davis' leg motion, which not only accounted for that touchdown, but kept Florida's back to the wall with superb punting. Many of Davis' punts went out of bounds deep in Florida territory, and one of them was downed on the Alligators' one-yard stripe by Gene Myers, Wildcat center.

Bert "Man O'War" Johnson, regular left halfback, who has not been in shape since the Ohio State game, played only a short time and, although he was a constant threat to the Floridans, his costly fumble let the invaders make their touchdown and get within striking distance after Kentucky had what appeared to be a safe lead at the half.

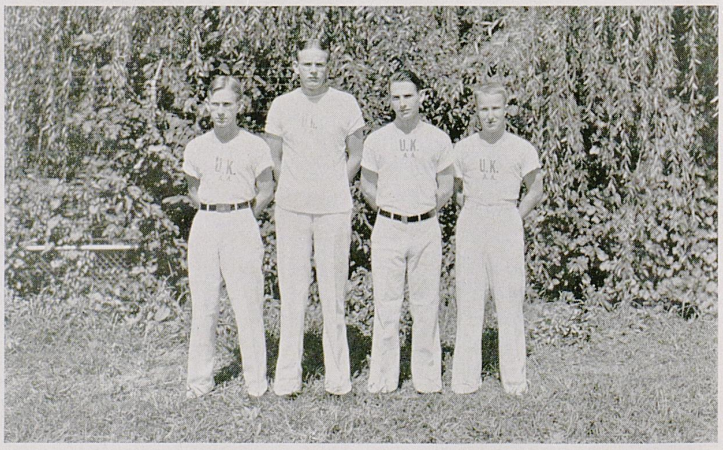

Johnson received a faulty pass from Sherman Hinkebein, reserve Wildcat center who had replaced Myers, and was starting on an off-tackle smash when the ball slipped out of his hands on Kentucky's 14. Hughes, substitute Florida guard, pounced on the leather and for the only time the 'Gators were in really dangerous territory.

BO "OO" McMILLAN, who played so brilliantly in the Ohio State game, is another senior on the team

On the next play the Kentucky fans —most of the 10,000 in the stands were pulling for the Wildcats—were heartened when Skaggs, a sophomore tackle, smeared Chase, Florida's excellent halfback, for no gain. But Christian, on an end around play, caught the Cats off guard and picked up five yards. Chase then split the right side of Kentucky's line for an almost first down, and McAnly made it a first down on a line plunge to the two-yard stripe.

McAnly tried a terrifiic buck at the Big Blue wall on the next play but gained only half a yard, and when Chase tried the same place again for no gain the crowd went wild. But on the next play McAnly found a huge opening on the right side of Kentucky's line and went sailing through with hardly a hand laid on him.

TULANE PASSES PROVE TOO MUCH FOR CATS

Sophomore Halfback Leads Green Wave to Victory

New Orleans, La., Nov. 16—Tulane's Green Wave swept to a brilliant 20 to 13 victory today over the University of Kentucky Wildcats behind the rifle-like passing of Troy Odom, 185-pound sophomore halfback.

Odom, ably assisted by another sophomore, Dick Watson, was on the tossing end of two of the Wave's scoring thrusts and figured materially in the third.

Kentucky's high powered scoring combination, Bob Davis and Bert Johnson, provided Coach Ted Cox's men with a full afternoon of trouble, but they were unable to match the Wave's scintillating first-year backs.

Temperatures ranging in the low 40s contributed to many fumbles and kept the 10,000 spectators under blankets.

Odom Peps Up Wave

Odom, who has not started a game this year, entered the fray at the beginning of the second period and quickly transformed the Wave from an apparently hopelessly outclassed eleven to a fiery crew.

The first quarter was all Kentucky's. The Cats, spurred by the knife-like thrusts of Ayers and Davis, lost no time making their first touchdown. Taking the ball on the Cats' 40, Ayers circled right end for 22 and Davis added 20 around the opposite end. Two more stabs and Ayers was over. Ayers missed his try from placement, after a good kick was nullified by a Kentucky holding penalty.

Tulane's first touchdown came early in the second period after Odom recovered Simpson's fumble on the Wildcats' 37. Odom then passed to Watson, who snatched the ball from three Kentucky backs and dashed five yards for the score. Watson failed to convert.

The Wave's second counter was tabulated at the end of the period after it had stopped a Cat drive on its own 16. Odom faded back and hurled a pass to "Doc" Schneidau, who was dropped on the Kentucky 26. With less than a minute of the half left Odom again dropped back and tossed squarely into the arms of Memtsas, Tulane end, who scampered the remaining eight yards for the touchdown. Watson's placement split the uprights for the extra point.

Andrews, plunging fullback, tallied Tulane's final touchdown from the one-foot line after a quick kick and a poor punt had given the Wave the ball on Kentucky's 26. Slices off tackle and end sweeps executed by Watson, Odom and Andrews accounted for the push from the 26 to the one-foot stripe. Watson's placement was good.

Davis scored Kentucky's last touchdown after taking a short pass from Johnson on Tulane's 40 and weaving through a half-dozen Wave tacklers. Hay added the extra point. The Cats threatened again late in the period when Robinson recovered a Tulane fumble on the Wave's 31, but Moreau, Greenie quarterback, put the game on ice for the locals by intercepting Johnson's pass behind his own goal line for a touchback.

KERNEL COLUMNIST DEFENDS JOHNSON

Editor's note: The following article was clipped from THE KERNEL, November 22

From Remember Us

He was the one who circled the end,
Scoring the winning play.
He was the one who blocked the ball,
And the one who saved the day.
But he is only your forgotten one
Yielding to the stars of today.

We refer to Bert Johnson. It seems as though a few on our campus have already forgotten those breath-taking, heart-testing gallops that featured our games last year, and the two touchdowns made against the great Rose Bowl champions of 1934, a team which was supposed to be six or seven touchdowns better than the Wildcats of a year ago . . . . and they would have had it not been for this one man . . . . who could forget for a moment those long punts, those bullet-like passes, and those bone-crushing plunges that stood out in the Ohio State game this year? . . . . He was the one who was patted on the back and given "sweet" words of praise, but who is now called by a few "know it all men," a quitter, —if he can't do any better than he did in the Florida game. These few who say such as this have never had a uniform on or they would know how torn muscles ache when running at full speed, how boils are irritated by pads, or how badly an infection can cause a person to feel. They do not stop to take these things into consideration for they would rather attract attention at the games by shouting out "What is the matter with Johnson?"

On the other side of the fence there are those who have idolized Bert to the extent that they think he does everything just right, and who are prone to criticize Coach Wynne for jerking him out of the Florida game after he fumbled, and also for not allowing him to play more in the Tulane game. Coach Wynne knew the condition that Bert was in. After he was taken from the Florida game, the fellow had the jitters so bad that he could not sit still. Johnson was the most feared back in the South last year; consequently he is "on the spot" whenever Kentucky meets an opponent. They are out to stop him and if he is not at his best, he is unable to overcome such odds. Then it is to the greater advantage to have a man in there who is less conspicuous.

Bert, old fellow, if a player ever had tough luck, you have had it but the majority of us still think you're the "tops," and know that you will come through.

Inspired Wildcats Truimph Easily Over Volunteers

KENTUCKY SWAMPS TENNESSEE BY SCORE 27-0 IN ANNUAL GAME

Cat Victory Marred By Injury To Vol Center

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 28—Playing a glistening brand of football, the University of Kentucky Wildcats this afternoon completely outclassed their ancient rivals, the University of Tennessee Volunteers, piling up four touchdowns to win by 27 to 0.

The Kentuckians waited 10 long years to whip the Vols, but when they finally crashed through they made a thorough job of it and at no time was the enemy in close proximity of the Wildcat's goal. The last Kentucky victory over the Orange and White was a thrilling 23 to 0 win in 1925.

Scoring a pair of touchdowns in the second period and two more in the final frame, the Wildcats displayed a smoothly working machine that did everything correctly, and Coach Chet Wynne was highly pleased at the manner in which they ended their season. The Kentucky team has won five games and lost four.

Vol Center Critically Hurt

An unfortunate accident added a tragic touch to the game when Herbert Tade, 21-year-old Volunteer center, from Paducah, Ky., suffered a fractured skull late in the game which physicians fear may cost his life. His condition was described as critical Thursday night at the Good Samaritan hospital.

Tade was injured on a play near the goal line in the final period when Simpson, Kentucky fullback, drove four yards to within a yard of the Tennessee goal.

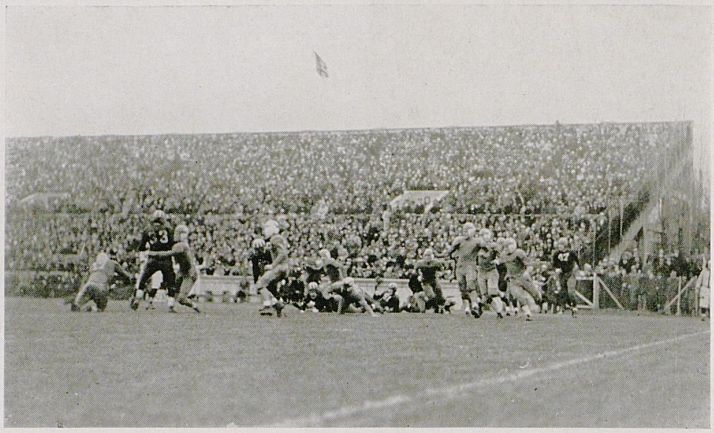

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Tade, were being driven to Lexington tonight by Philip A. Bevarly, Tade's coach at Tilghman high school several years ago.

Kentucky's smashing victory regained for the Blue and White the "beer keg" emblematic of gridiron supremacy between the two universities. Kentucky fans injected the keg into the picture in 1925, when the Wildcats won 23 to 20. The next year Kentucky took the keg to Knoxville and left it there to the accompaniment of a 6 to 0 defeat at the hands of their old rivals.

Cats Flash Teamwork

It would be a hard matter to single out any Kentucky players as individual stars, for it was grand teamwork that accounted for the victory which set Lexington wild tonight.

Kentucky's superiority is reflected by statistics showing that the Cats made 15 first downs to six for the Volunteers, gained 225 yards to 41 on scrimmage plays and annexed 80 yards to 64 by passes. The alertness of the Cat secondary is demonstrated in the six times that Volunteer passes were intercepted.

JOHNSON gains on a spinner around Tennessee's end in the Cats' first victory over the Vols in a decade

Johnson, Davis On Rampage

Although the Wildcat victory was considered an upset by some, Coach Wynne had said that if Johnson was in shape he believed his boys would win.

And was Johnson in shape? One might ask that question to any of the Vols or to any of the 15,000 fans who shivered in the raw wind that whipped through the stadium here today. The big halfback from Ashland turned in one of the finest performances of his career to give plenty of impetus to the demoraliaztion of Major Bill Britton's gallant lads.

Always consistent, Davis equaled Johnson's work, rarely failing to gain whenever he was given the ball. It was his interception of Phil Dickens' pass in midfield on the third play of the game that seemed to give his team the confidence it needed to slap down the Vols a bit later.

Kentucky Touchdown Voided

No scoring took place in the first quarter, although Kentucky, after receiving the ball in midfield, marched right down to the nine-yard stripe before losing the ball. They actually scored a touchdown in that period but it did not count.

That was a peculiar play, demonstrating the flexibility of the "slow whistle" rule. Davis tried to skirt around Tennessee's left end but was trapped. Halted for an instant but still on his feet, the Dayton flash whipped out a lateral to Norris "Double O" McMillan, Kentucky quarterback, who picked his way across the line. The officials ruled, however, that the whistle had blown before the lateral was made and so it didn't count.

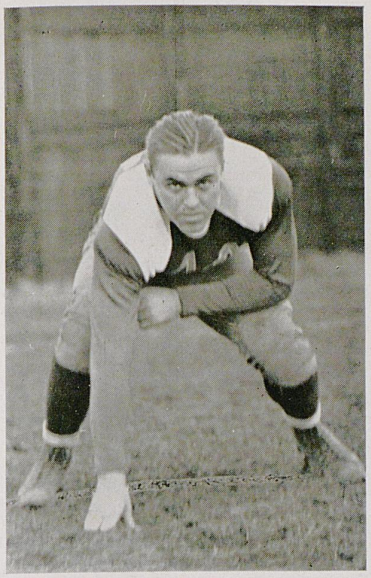

Kentucky's initial marker came at the end of a 62-yard march. Taking the ball on their own 38, the Cats declined to be headed off until they had chalked up a touchdown. Johnson, Davis and Elmore "Suitcase" Simpson, fullback, alternated in ripping through Tennessee's line for gain of two to eight yards until it was first down on the four-yard stripe. Davis picked up two on a vicious smack at right guard and then there occurred a fancy trick play that caught the Vols napping.

Coming out of their huddle, the Cats, with the exception of three backs, went into position. These three backs were apparently arguing with each other when McMillan received the ball from Myers and scooted through the center of the line to score. The opposing center was laid flat on his back by Myers on that play. Simpson place-kicked the extra point. That touchdown was the first time Kentucky had scored on Tennessee since 1931.

Second Score By Johnson

Kentucky had a bit of luck in scoring the second time a few minutes after that first marker. The Cats had the ball on their own 49. In two plays Johnson ran 10 yards for a first down on the Tennessee 39. Johnson then drifted back and heaved a long pass which Moses almost intercepted. The ball bounced out of his hands and landed into the arm of Russell Ellington, sophomore Kentucky end from Louisville, for whom it was intended, on the 11-yard line. Simpson hit the line for two yards and Johnson slithered around right end for nine yards and a touchdown. Again Simpson place-kicked for the extra point.

During the entire first half the Vols failed to make a single first down and most of their six came in the final minutes while the Kentucky second team was on the field.

There was no great excitement in the third quarter although the Wildcats were continually in Volunteer territory. The period, from the standpoint of a Tennessean, was marked by a 46-yard punt by Derryberry, which went out of bounds on the Kentucky 20. From a Kentucky standpoint it was featured by the fine defensive work of Captain Long and the interception of a Tennessee pass by Myers, who brought the ball to the Vol's 20 before he was dragged down.

Vol's Center Weak

The interception of another Tennessee pass by Skaggs, a sophomore Wildcat tackle, paved the way for Kentucky's third marker. This youngster nabbed a pass heaved by Dickens on Tennessee's 18. Then Bert Johnson went to work again. Kentucky had found a weakness in the center of Tennessee's line, and with Myers plowing ahead of him, the "Warhorse" kept smashing through center until he had the ball on the one-yard line. Simpson then hit right guard for the touchdown and once more made good the extra point.

A lot of crazy things happened to bring Kentucky its final marker. First Simpson's kick-off went haywire, traveling only to Tennessee's 40 where two Volunteers tried to pick it up but they failed to hold on to it and Captain Long piled on the leather on the 33. Two plays failed to net any yardage and the Wildcats went into the lateral business in a big way. Johnson took the ball and forwarded it to Davis, who took a few steps and then shot a lateral to McMillan, who ran the remaining 15 yards to score with no Volunteer close to him. Simpson's placekick went wide.

Bands Stage Maneuvers

Thus Kentucky's final touchdown against Tennessee today was made by a lad from Tennessee. McMillan's home is at Millington, near Memphis. He is a senior. After the fourth touchdown, Coach Wynne sent in his subs, who managed to hold the Vols scoreless for the remaining five minutes. It was then, however, that Tennessee pierced deepest into Kentucky territory, marching from their own 38 down to Kentucky's 29 when the game ended.

The Kentucky and Tennessee bands, nearly 100 pieces in each, staged their maneuvers between halves, going through fancy formations.

Governor-elect A. B. Chandler paid a visit to the press box between halves.

The game today was the thirtieth of a series that began in 1892. It marked the close of a successful season for the Cats in their second year under the leadership of Coach Wynne. It was their third Southeastern Conference victory against the same number of defeats.

NEVERS, MYERS CHOSEN '36 U. K. GRID CAPTAINS

Lettermen at Annual Football Banquet Select Linemen as Football Captains

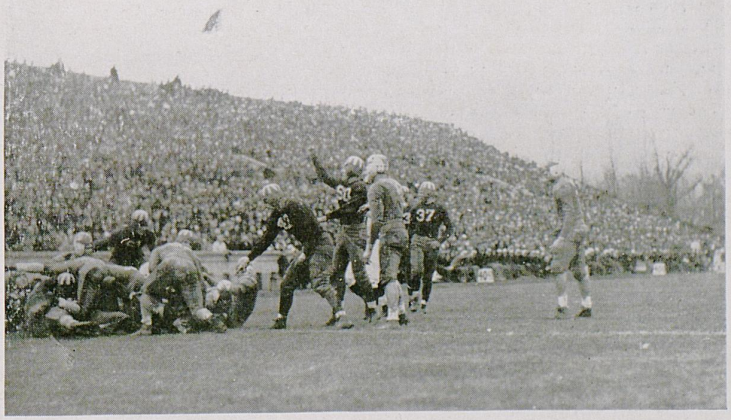

Stanley Nevers, New Britain, Conn., was elected to captain the 1936 Kentucky football team after a vote by the lettermen at the annual football banquet held Wednesday night at the Phoenix Hotel. Gene Myers, Harlan, was named alternate-captain.

This is the second honor conferred upon Nevers in the past few weeks. Just before the Tennessee game, he was voted the most valuable player to the team. He is a junior in the College of Education. Throughout the season Nevers was outstanding at his tackle position and won mention on many of the all-star teams selected by coaches and sports writers.

Dr. W. D. Funkhouser, chairman of the Athletic Council, acted as toastmaster at the banquet, and introduced Coach Chet Wynne, who, in turn, introduced the senior letter men. Jimmy Long, Clarence "Abie" Ayers, Arperd Olah, Charles McClurg, Frank McCool, Norris "Bo" McMillan, Langan Hay, and Sam Potter, all spoke briefly.

Dr. Funkhouser announced that the Athletic Council had granted a petition presented by the football team, allowing the senior lettermen to choose white monogram sweaters if they desired.

Twenty-three players and the senior manager were awarded letters. The players included Jimmy Long, Russell Ellington, Joe Hagan, Joe Orr, Stanley Nevers, Arperd Olah, Wendell Skaggs, Joe Bosse, Joe Huddleston, Charles McClurg, Lexie Potter, Sam Potter, Gene Myers, Sherman Hinkebein, Norris McMillan, Dick Robinson, Bert Johnson, Abie Ayers, Elmore Simpson, Langan Hay, Bob Davis, Frank McCool, James Wadlington, and Manager Gates McCauley.

1935 FRESHMAN SQUAD

SANDS LEADS KITTENS IN SEASON'S FIRST VICTORY

Kentucky Frosh Show Power By Easily Winning Opening Game

Led by Earl Sands and Tommy Coleman, the University of Kentucky freshman football team defeated the Morehead College frosh, 20-6, Friday afternoon on Stoll field.

The lighter Morehead team surprised the Kittens by pushing the ball to the one-foot mark as the opening period closed from where they scored on the first play of the second quarter. The pass for the extra point was incomplete.

After this score the Kentuckians got started and with Sands and Hodge carrying the ball, marched down the field on successive plays for 60 yards and a score. Hodge missed the attempt to convert.

Morehead received the kickoff but lost the ball on downs. Coleman made 10 yards through tackle, Sands made 10 more, and Boaz ran 52 yards to the one-yard line. The Kittens were penalized 15 yards, but Boaz and Sands alternated to put the ball back on the one-yard stripe. Sands carried it over and added the extra point from placement.

Coach Pribble, substituted freely in the third quarter, giving all the players an opportunity to perform.

Howering passed to Garland for a gain of 30 yards, giving the Kittens a first down on the Morehead five-yard line. Howerington plunged over from this point and Ewing added the final marker from placement.

FROSH BEAT BABY VOLS IN FOURTH QUARTER

Kittens Push Over Two Touchdowns In Final Period

Knoxville, Tenn., Oct 12—A fighting band of University of Kentucky freshmen made a gallant comeback in the fourth quarter to overcome a one-point lead and defeat the University of Tennessee yearlings 20 to 14, here today.

Going into the fourth quarter with the score 7 to 6 against them the Blue Grass boys rushed over two touchdowns while the baby Vols were only able to tally once. Taking the ball in midfield, the Kentucky Kittens marched to their opponents' 24-yard line. From here Coleman, halfback, bulleted a pass over the goal line to Hewing, substitute end, for a touchdown. Later, Coleman intercepted a Tennessee pass, raced to the Vols' 10-yard line, tossed a lateral to Sands, fullback, who crossed the goal line standing up. Sands made both extra points by placement.

Tennessee scored in the final period when Sneed, halfback, ran off right tackle for 28 yards to the visitors four-yard stripe. After two plays, Walland, halfback, carried the ball over.

A march down the field from their own 15-yard line netted the Kittens their touchdown in the first quarter.

The first pass, Hodge to Labre, gained 24 yards, placing the ball on Tennessee's 45-yard line. On consecutive plays Sands ripped through the line to the Vols' one-foot line, and Hodge plunged over.

Starting a drive on their own 33-yard line in the third quarter, the baby Vols drove to Kentucky's seven-yard line from where Sneed went through the line for Tennessee's second touchdown.

NUMERALS AWARDED

At a meeting of the Athletic Council the following freshmen football players were awarded numerals: Barnette, Black, Boaz, Boston, Brooking, Brown, Cayce, Coleman, Curtis, D'Arcy, Davis, Doyle, Dunlap, Garland, Hall, Haynes, Hewling, Hodge, Halland, Howinton, Irtz, Jones, Lebre, Lengyel, Lindon, Lynch, McCrea, Milkovich, Nelson, O'Neal, Phillips, Reusch, Sands, Sciantarelli, Shockey, Scholtz, Spiney, Spurlock, Stafford, Taylor, Tracy, Vanaman, Vertuca, and Webster.

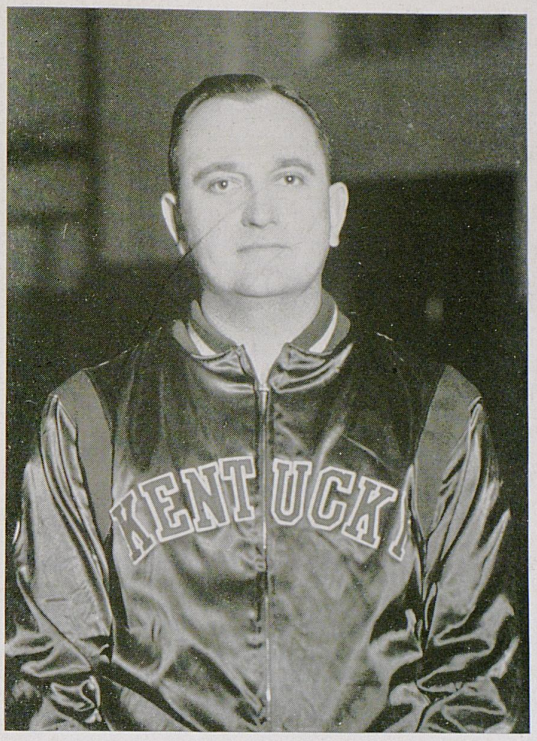

The University of Kentucky football squad boasts its own "Me and Paul." They are Sam and Lexie Potter,, brothers from the Kentucky Mountains. Both are guards and both played in the backfield of Whitesburg High School team a few years ago.

WILDCATS DOWN TIGERS 42-17 IN SEASON'S OPENER

Entire Squad Sees Action When Cats Take Big Lead At Halftime

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 6—The University of Kentucky varsity and freshman basketball teams opened their season here tonight with a double victory over the Georgetown College varsity and freshmen quintets. The Kentucky Wildcats had easy sailing in downing the Tigers by 42 to 17, but the Kittens had their hands full in trimming the Cubs by 23 to 17.

The varsity game was a mere breather for the Wildcats who were leading 21 to 7 at half time, and Coach Adolph Rupp, whose teams have made basketball history here during the last five years, sent in every man available in the second half.

The Wildcats played ragged at times and the absence of Leroy Edwards, All-American from last year's team, was noticeable, especially when it came to bat-in shots. Most of the five Tiger field goals were on shots beyond the foul line.

LEWIS LEADS CATS 58-30 WIN OVER BEREA

Mountaineers Give Kentucky Trouble With Their Defense

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 17—Led by lanky Garland Lewis, the Jeffersonville, Ind., youth who is attempting to fill the shoes vacated by the All-American Leroy Edwards, the Kentucky Wildcats submerged a plucky Berea basketball team here tonight by 58 to 30, but they looked none too impressive in doing it.

Lewis dropped in nine baskets and a couple of free throws to score 20 points, while Joe "Red" Hagan was next in scoring with 12 points.

The Wildcats had a world of trouble with Coach Gunkler's Mountaineers in the first half, which ended with Kentucky leading by 20 to 13. During the period the Cats did almost everything wrong, missing shots they should have made, passing the ball wildly out of bounds or into the hands of some Mountaineer, and allowing the Berea boys to take shots they should have stopped.

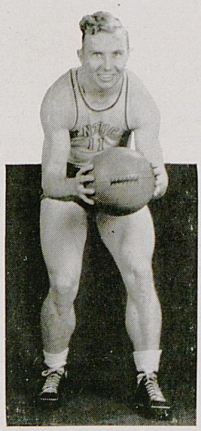

WILDCATS WRECK PITT PANTHERS IN 35-17 WIN

Kentucky Holds 22-2 Lead At Intermission; Famous "Figure Eight" Fails

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 23—Showing utter contempt for the famous "figure eight" offense brought to the South by the University of Pittsburgh's heralded Panthers, a gang of Kentucky Wildcats tonight calmly butchered the invaders by 35 to 17 before some 2,500 patrons at the Alumni gymnasium.

The fact that the panthers held a height advantage and were considered the "class" of Eastern basketball daunted Adolph Rupp's wrecking crew not a whit. To the amazement of the fans, who had risked their necks on icy streets and roads to see the encounter, scarcely hoping for the Kentuckians to make a decent showing, the nonchalant Wildcats got right down to business and started tearing the Panthers limb from limb.

The Cats had piled up 17 points before the first Pitt score was chalked up and held a 22 to 2 advantage at the half.

NEW YORK U. CRUSHES KENTUCKY CATS 41-28

Game Played In Garden Before 18,000 Howling Spectators

New York, Jan. 9—Kentucky's vaunted Wildcats were just another ball club as they headed home today, following their 41 to 28 humiliation on the basketball court by New York University here last night in Madison Square Garden before 18,000 howling fans. It was the worst defeat that the Cats have absorbed since Coach Adolph Rupp became their coach six years ago.

The game was fast and furious, both teams fouling excessivly. The play was rough and many bruises were dished out as the result. Three Kentucky players — Donohue, Anderson and Lewis—were put out of the game for too many personal fouls. Rubenstein was the only Violet man to be ejected from the game.

During the first half the New Yorkers appeared to be off their stride, although they led the Wildcats by 17 to 12. At the end of the first ten minutes the score was tied, 6 to 6. Kentucky forged to the front on the next play. Carlisle was fouled and made the free throw. Ralph Carlisle, Kentucky's ace forward, was high point man of the evening, scoring a total of 17 points, seven field goals and three free throws.

Kentucky had no excuse tonight. The officiating, handled by Frank Lane and John Murray was not questioned, with the exception of a foul called by Murray on Red Hagan of Kentucky. The ball changed hands many times during the first part of the game as each team worked into plays that didn't click. Kentucky was forced to shoot from outside the foul line and the ball usually missed the backboard by several feet.

Wth the score 20 to 18 soon after the beginning of the second half, the Violets began putting on the pressure. Kentucky, unable to pierce the N.Y.U. defense, resorted more and more to long shots with little success. The score was 23 to 22 and nine minutes were left to play. Both teams made a visible effort to turn on the steam, but this effort made Kentucky reckless and their long shots never came close to the basket. The Violets, however, continued with their accurate long shots and drew away to win easily, after Lewis and Donohue left the game on personal fouls.

WILDCATS BARELY BEAT XAVIER BY 36-32 SCORE

Ruppmen Stage Garrison Finish To Put Lid On Close Game

Cincinnati, Ohio, Jan. 14—It was Greater Louisville night at the Xavier fieldhouse here tonight as the University of Kentucky Wildcats continued their mastery over the Xavier Musketeers 36 to 32 in the third meeting in two years.

Warfield Donohue, Garland Lewis, Red Hagan, Jim Goforth of Kentucky, and Joe Kruse, Xavier center, demonstrated the Greater Louisville brand of basketball to 4,000 net fans.

Kentucky, favored to win by ten points, had tough going after the first ten minutes, but managed to rally in the final minutes and whip the frenzied Ohio boys.

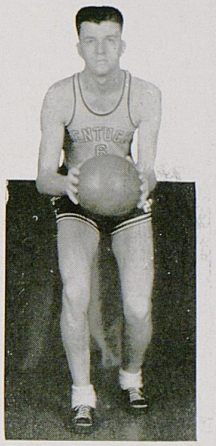

The game was over-officiated and until the coaches and officials conferred at the half, every member of both teams threatened to go out on fouls. Coach Rupp, Kentucky, and Coach Clem Crowe, Xavier, agreed that five fouls would be necessary to eliminate a player.

Living up to his advance reputation, Ralph Carlisle dropped in two bunnies and a free throw in the opening minutes of the game. The lanky forward contributed most of Kentucky's points in this half, scoring five goals and a free throw for a total of 11 points. The first 13 minutes of play found the Musketeers without a floor shot to their credit, but they finally found the range and little Leo Sack scored twice in quick succession to bring the Muskies within two points of the visitors.

After that both teams scored intermittently from the foul line and with a minute to go in the first period, the score was tied 18-18. Goforth dropped in two charity throws to put Kentucky ahead at the half.

Sack Leads Attack

Sack electrified the crowd in the opening minute of the second stanza by dropping three straight shots to put his mates ahead 24 to 20, a lead which they sustained until the final two minutes of the contest.

WARFIELD DONOHUE, regular guard, is one of the best ball-handlers ever to don a Kentucky uniform

With five minutes to go and the score knotted at 30-30, both teams were playing desperate ball and bunny shots were missed by both. Carlisle and Sweeney connected and the score remained tied at 32-32 with two minutes to play.

Andy Anderson Scores

The long-shooting Donohue scored from near the center of the floor and Captain Anderson capped the evening's entertainment with a bunny as the final whistle blew.

TULANE FALLS BEFORE WILDCATS OFFENSE 49-24

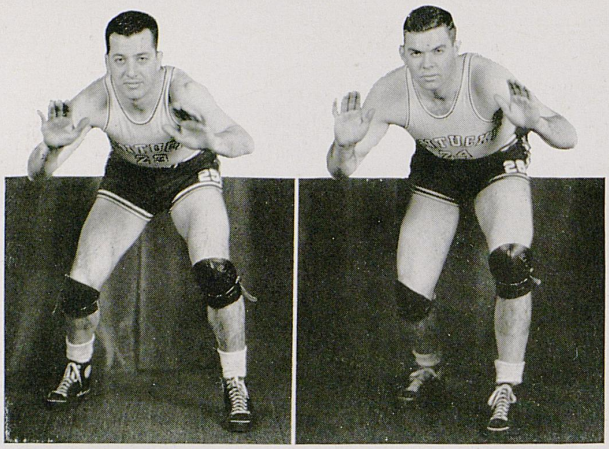

Captain Anderson Is Sparkplug For Kentucky's Fifth Victory

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 17—Chunky Milerd Anderson, the orchestra leader who captains the University of Kentucky basketball team, demonstrated his worth to the Wildcats tonight in his team's easy 49 to 24 victory over the Green Wave of Tulane on the Kentucky court before some 3,000 fans.

The visitors were giving the home lads plenty of trouble during the first eight minutes of the scrap but Captain Anderson was on the bench at the time. Kentucky was clinging to a slim 9 to 6 lead when Coach Adolph Rupp sent Anderson into the fray. From that instant on it was a rout, the Kentuckians scoring almost at will. Although Anderson made only one point during the game, his presence converted the Wildcats from a mediocre quintet into a power plant.

Goforth Is Starter

For the first time this season Coach Adolph Rupp broke up his regular starting combination of Hagan, Carlisle, Lewis, Donohue and Anderson.

"DUKE" ELLINGTON and "BIG JIM" GOFORTH are reserve guards on the squad this year, and will be valuable to Coach Rupp next year

Big Jim Goforth started in place of Anderson tonight.

Anderson was sent into the fray when the Cats were holding a meager 9-6 lead, and in the next four minutes they counted 11 points, running their total to 20 while Tulane's remained stationary at six. Carlisle and Hagan tossed baskets to give the Kentucky lads a 24-7 margin at the end of the half.

Coach Rupp kept a steady stream of substitutes running into the game most of the last half, using 15 men in all, 13 of whom broke into the scoring column.

Ralph Carlisle, playing slightly over half the game was high point man with 10 markers, one more than made by Lewis and Hagan.

WILDCATS TRIP GREEN WAVE BY 39-21 SCORE

Kentucky Is Hard Pushed For Second Consecutive Victory

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 18—Showing a vast improvement over their exhibition of last night, the Tulane basketball team outplayed the Kentucky Wildcats for the first half of the game tonight at the University gymnasium, but succumbed to a withering Kentucky attack in the last period, and ended on the short end of a 39 to 21 score.

For the first time in years the Wildcats were behind at the half in a Conference game, the determined Greenies nursing a 17 to 13 advantage at the intermission.

Up to that time the visitors made Kentucky look like a high school team. The Wildcats, except for the brilliant showing of Ralph Carlisle, could do nothing right in that first stanza. The Cats passed wildly, and blew their opportunities to count, whereas the invaders took advantage of every opportunity and sank an unusually large percentage of their shots.

Ruppmen Start Hitting

Hagan, who was considerably off form in the opening period came back with a bang as the second half started tossing in a crip shot with ridiculous ease. Then came a follow shot and a free throw by Carlisle and two free throws by Walker. McClosky broke Kentucky's stride momentarily, tossing in a gratis shot, but Walker came right back and looped in a beauty from the west side of the floor. Carlisle swished in a couple more free throws and Walker came back with a looping shot from the side. Hagan scored another crip and Lewis hit a free throw before Tulane was able to count again. The final eight minutes of the contest saw Kentucky in complete control.

WILDCATS TROUNCE MICHIGAN STATE, 27-19

Kentucky Avenges Last Year's Defeat At Hands Of Spartans

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 21 — The far-famed, high powered Wildcat quintet performed the supposedly impossible tonight here in the Alumni gymnasium when they defeated the highly touted Michigan State College cagers by 27 to 19 after trailing the green shirted Michigan lads 13-12 at the half time.

Coming out for the second period with renewed vigor, the Wildcats immediately put themselves into a two point lead, and a lead which they kept the rest of the evening, when Carlisle and Donohue scored a crip shot and a free throw in succession. After gaining this margin the Big Blue team limited the Michigan Staters to one field goal and four free throws for the second half.

It was the inimitable Ralph Carlisle Kentucky's sparkling forward, who led the Wildcats to this scintillating victory over the East Lansing lads when he scored 16 markers to be high point man of the game. The next man to receive high point honors in this nip and tuck court tilt was Garlock, captain of the Michigan team, who managed to garner a total of seven counters in the 40 minutes of play.

Rice Walker, sophomore center, who replaced Garland Lewis at the pivot post near the end of the first half, turned in a good floor game for the winners and aided greatly in the victory by getting the tip-off most of the time during the final period.

Defensive Work Good

The defensive work of Anderson and Donohue, veteran guards, was nearly perfect in the second half. The visitors failed to connect with a field goal in that stanza until Smith popped in a shot from the center of the floor with only about 15 seconds of playing time remaining. Kentucky had four reserves on the floor at the time.

The first half ended with Michigan State leading by 13-12, but after about two minutes of play in the second period, the Wildcats took the lead when Carlisle followed in Hagan's unsuccessful long shot for a basket.

Donohue's free throw made it 15-13, but Garlock knotted the count on two gratis heaves after eight minutes of the period had passed. In the next 11 minutes of play the Michigan State team failed to add to its total, while the Kentuckians chalked up 12 points.

Playing cautiously and taking up as much time as possible, Kentucky maintained possession of the ball most of the remainder of the period and with the score standing 27 to 15 Coach Rupp sent in a number of substitutes to finish the game.

WILDCATS SCORE 40-31 WIN OVER VOLUNTEERS

Tennessee Causes Kentucky Much Trouble Before Succumbing

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 25 — The Volunteers of Tennessee tonight gave Adolph Rupp's Kentucky Wildcats plenty of grief before finally succumbing by 40 to 31 in probably the roughest basketball game ever played on the Kentucky court.

Each side lost two regulars, one for slugging and one for accumulating four perosnal fouls. Kentucky lost the services of Ralph Carlisle, sharp-shooting expert, at the opening of the second half when Referee Frank Lane caught him taking a poke at Johnson, Volunteer guard. Tennessee lost this same Johnson late in the game when he was seen taking a jab at "Red" Hagan, Wildcat forward.

Walker, substitute Kentucky center, and Rice, Volunteer guard, went out by the personal foul route.

Red Hagan was playing faultless ball, scoring 15 of Kentucky's points and playing a whale of a floor game. He started slowly, but was whooping it up as the game progressed. Garland Lewis, Kentucky's lanky center, closely followed the erd-thatched forward with 10 of the Wildcat markers.

Dope Favored Cats

Tennessee had been touted this year as one of those to watch in the Southeastern Conference race, but after the Vols' 39-20 loss to Xavier at Cincinnati Friday night, Kentucky fans breathed more easily, as the Ruppmen had trimmed the Mustketeers 36-32 a short time before. But as quickly as Referee Lane had tooted his opening whistle, it was obvious that the Cats were way off form, and the Tennesseans, not such a hot ball team themselves, gave the Ruppmen plenty of gray hairs.

The final period was all Kentucky with the Big Blue being just too warm for Coach Blair Gullion's lads in the closing minutes.

KENTUCKY DOWNED BY POWERFUL VANDY FIVE

First Southeastern Conference Loss For Kentucky In Four Years

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 1 — Playing brilliant basketball the Vanderbilt Commodores tonight trounced the University of Kentucky cagers 33 to 24 for the Wildcat's first defeat in a regularly scheduled conference game in four years.

More than 2,000 fans crowded all available space in the Hippodrome to see Josh Cody's boys win their seventh game within the Southeastern Conference and hand the Kentuckians their first defeat.

The playing of the Codymen was a thing of beauty, the skin tight defense they laid over the Wildcats rarely giving the visitors decent shots and almost none at all under the basket.

The victory gave the Commodores the inside track in the conference race, and for the first time in four years reduced the highly rated Kentucky five to the level of just another competitor.

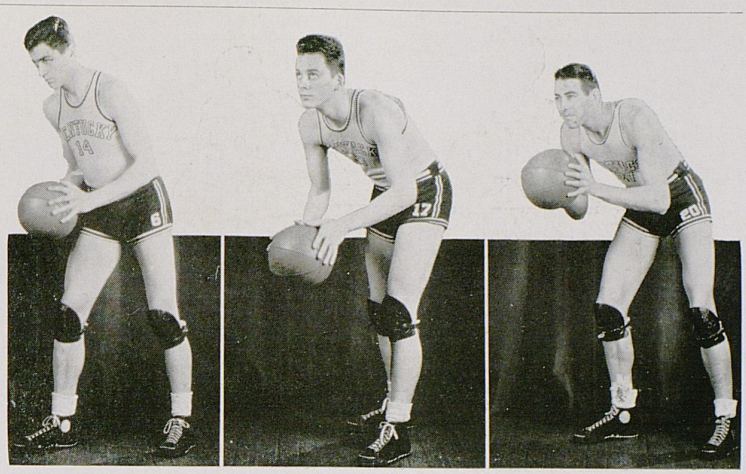

Kentucky was never ahead after the first 10 minutes of the game, Vanderbilt leading by double score for almost half the game.

The Wildcats were handicapped when Carlisle and Lewis, forward and center respectively, were ejected for exceeding the personal foul limit. The battle was full of bodily contact and furious action, especially in the second half when the Wildcats tried valiantly to catch up with Cody's fast-breaking crew. This was impossible, with Vandy's tight defense and the players' uncanny eye for the basket from all angles.

After the game, Coach Rupp, whose boys were unbeaten, save for a loss at the hands of New York University, praised the teamwork of the Tennessee team and said that he had it coming after four years of good luck.

Coming out after the rest, the Kentuckians tried their utmost to break through for short shots, but when they did, their aim was off, the Blue cagers missing several tries from an open field. The Wildcats did not begin to crawl up at all until there was less than five minutes left to play and the score standing at 31 to 18.

Goforth sank a field goal to rally the Ruppmen and then Donohue added another as Geny contributed a free shot to the Vandy cause, bring the count to 32 to 22. A few seconds later with the game almost gone, Anderson sank one from the foul line to bring the Kentuckians two points closer, but Carloss partially annulled this threat with a charity goal as the game ended.

CARLISLE and LEWIS have gained berths in the starting line-up this year, while BLISS is a reserve forward. Carlisle and Lewis are the main scoring threats

CATS DEFEAT TIDE IN FINAL MINUTES

Alabama's Last Half Rally Almost Overcomes Cats' Early Lead

Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 3—Kentucky staved off a hair-raising finish by Alabama tonight to win a 32 to 30 victory in a basketball game which kept those attending on their feet for the final five minutes.

After the invaders had run up what seemed a safe lead, 30 to 19, Alabama scored four field goals from the field in succession, two of them long tosses by Nogi, and pulled within striking distance.

Anderson, Kentucky's star guard was out of the game, and the Alabama partisans were howling for a victory that seemed almost within their grasp.

Lewis broke away for a goal and then McLeod put the Crimson back within striking distance by matching it. As the final seconds ticked off, Bouska made good on a foul shot to bring the score 32 to 30, but Kentucky held the ball until the final gun sounded.

A fast-breaking offense, which gave them many shots under the basket, brought most of Kentucky's scores, and they seemed to have the contest well in hand until Anderson went out on fouls. The winners ran up leads of 7-1, 11-5, and 15-10 before a brief Alabama rally made it 18-15 at the half.

Lewis Breaks Ice

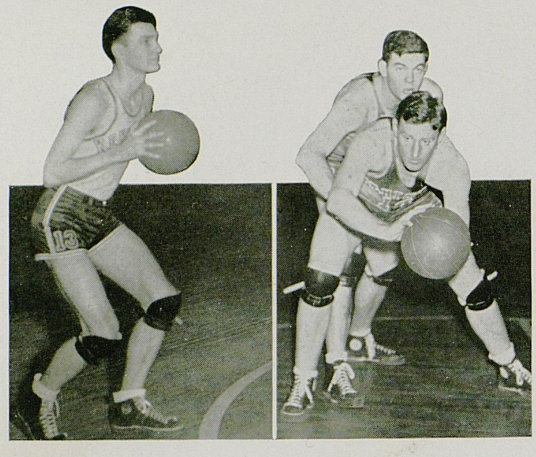

Starting slowly in the second half, the two teams sparred around with the count 18-16 for six minutes before Lewis broke the ice with a goal, and Hagan and Donohue followed suit to run the margin higher.

For the winners, Lewis, Anderson, Carlisle and Donohue were the stars. Bouska, McLeod and Whatley did excellent work for Alabama.

WILDCATS SCORE SECOND VICTORY OVER ALABAMA

Kentucky Retains Second Place Standing By Defeating Tide

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 7 — The University of Kentucky's high powered basketball team tonight retained its second place standing in the Southeastern Conference net race following its 40 to 24 defeat of Alabama here in the Alumni gymnasium. The Tide defeated Vandy, conference leaders, 32 to 20 in Nashville Thursday night, but the Commodores retained the loop lead with seven victories and one defeat to Kentucky's five wins and one loss. The Wildcats' only loss was to Vanderbilt last week.

Alabama's mighty quintet gave the Wildcats a tough struggle in the first half, although the Big Blue team led at the rest period by 15 to 14, after a last minute rally by Walker and Lewis. With the score 14 to 9 and a minute and a half to go in the first period, Walker, who replaced Hagan, dropped in one of his sideline shots, and Lewis immediately followed with a crip shot. On the next top-off, Walker took the ball and dribbled the length of the floor to make another crip basket.

WILDCATS SWAMPED BY NOTRE DAME 40-21

Carlisle Is Held Scoreless As Kentucky Fails To Get Started

South Bend, Ind., Feb. 10—Notre Dame completely outclassed Kentucky in a one-sided basketball battle here tonight, defeating the invaders by a score of 41 to 20.

Johnny Moir and Paul Nowak, sophomore forward and center, respectively, paced the Irish attack with 12 field goals, seven of which were made by Moir.

Kentucky was held to three field goals in the first half. The locals piled up a 29-7 lead in the first 20 minutes of play. They ran their advantage to 38 to 7 in the first six minutes of the second half after which Coach George Keogan substituted freely.

"Red" Hagan was Kentucky's leading luminary with six field goals for 12 of the points made by his team.

Ralph Carlisle, Kentucky's ace scoring forward, was held without a single point by Frank Wade, Irish guard, and finally was removed from the game.

After the regulars had pounded the ball through the hoop, Coach Keogan substituted freely and gave his replacements instructions to pass the ball rather than shoot.

Donohue and Lewis were the only other Wildcats to score from the field.

KENTUCKY VICTORIOUS OVER BUTLER BY 39-28

Wildcats Rebound After Notre Dame Defeat To Win Easily

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 11—The University of Kentucky team did an about-face from their play against Notre Dame last night, here tonight, and trounced the Butler University team by 39 to 28.

The Wildcats jumped into an 11 to 1 lead in a short time and were ahead by 17 to 7 at the half.

The boys of Adolph Rupp stayed ahead all during the second half, although Butler did get up to a 31 to 26 score at one time.

Lewis, center, with five field goals and three free throws, was leading scorer, but was hard pressed by Carlisle and Hagan who had five field goals and one free throw apiece.

FIGHTING VOLS DEFEAT CATS IN SURPRISE WIN

Second Conference Loss For Kentucky Wildcats This Season

Knoxville, Tenn., Feb. 15—Before a cheering crowd of 3,500 fans a fighting University of Tennessee basketball team defeated the highly rated University of Kentucky Wildcats 39 to 28 tonight in a Southeastern Conference game.

It was the first time the Volunteers had toppled a Kentucky cage team since the organization of the conference in 1932.

The surprise victory practically seats Tennessee among teams that will play in the Southeastern Conference tournament here February 28 to March 3.

It was the startled Wildcats' second conference loss of the season.

Hagan, red-haired Kentucky forward, was high scorer for the Wildcats, getting nine points. He and Goforth, guard, were outstanding for the Kentuckians.

Tennessee only missed two out of 13 free throws, while Kentucky missed five out of 13.

Kentucky got off to a fast start in the first half with Anderson, guard, and Hagan looping baskets. The game was tied four times during the half, with Marshall's four field goals keeping the Volunteers in the game. The half ended 17 to 16 in favor of the Wildcats.

WILDCATS DOWN XAVIER MUSKETEERS IN 49-40 WIN

Second Victory Over Xavier This Season; Many Fouls Called

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 18—Coach Adolph Rupp's University of Kentucky Wildcats, fighting to preserve a record that few teams can boast, put the sign of the evil eye on Coach Clem Crowe's Xavier University Musketeers tonight in the Alumni gymnasium and pot-shotted their gleeful way to a 49 to 40 triumph and their 37th consecutive victory on the home floor.

It was a weird game in which not the least of the players' concern was a slippery floor that sent them sprawling and somersaulting and stumbling all over the place. The players collided with each other with a crash, committed fouls until the officials were out of breath blowing their whistles, and threw the ball out the window. And through all this serio-comic scenario ran an under-current of goal-shooting prowess that kept the fans in an uproar and the battle thrillingly close.

The Wildcats entered last night's tilt the underdogs notwithstanding their 36 to 32 victory over the Musketeers earlier in the season, but after they burnt up the hoop with seven points in the last three minutes of the first half to wrest away the lead again from an Xavier team that had fought a gallant, uphill battle, the issue was never in doubt. Xavier fought grimly and courageously but the goal-shooting of Ralph Carlisle, "Red" Hagan and Garland Lewis, the crafty passing of Warfield Donohue, and the rebounding of diminutive, tow-headed Andy Anderson formed a combination that was too much for the Irish.

Xavier Fares Worse

The slippery floor, the pace of the game and the eel-like wiggling and squirming of the Wildcat marksmen made Xavier the heavier sufferer on the casualty list of personal fouls and no less than three Musketeers, one of them a substitute—Kucia—who played determinedly if not brilliantly, went out of the game by compulsion. This helped Xavier's cause little although the subs who went into the tilt scored, on two different occasions, enough points in succession to force Coach Rupp to send his regulars, who had been taken out of the game because it seemed that the Cats had a safe lead, scurrying back into the fray.

Carlisle, the Lawrenceburg shooter who can hit them from any angle when he's right, and can miss them when its doesn't look possible when he isn't, was right with a vengeance last night and he piled up 20 points to his credit. Eight of the points were the result of eight chances to sink free throws.

Others Hitting Well

Hagan and Lewis were hitting well, too, and their 11 points apiece were the echoes to Carlisle's ringing blows on the bell.

Donohue, Anderson's partner at guard, outshone himself as a passer and several of the field goals made by Carlisle, Lewis and Hagan followed accurate heaves from him.

U. K. CATS SNARE 'JAYS, 68 TO 38 IN FIRST GAME

Garland Lewis Leads Kentucky Victory By Scoring 22 Points

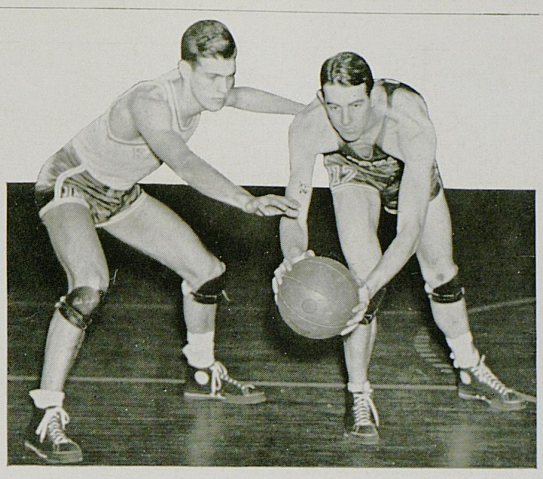

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 22—Kentucky's Wildcats and Creighton University's Bluejays will clash here tonight in a second basketball game on consecutive nights with local fans anticipating a battle royal, basing their judgment on the rough nature of last night's fray in which the Big Blue team downed the visitors by 68 to 38.

Starting with the first tip-off both teams ranted and raged up and down the floor for the entire 40 minutes of play, but it was a thrill to watch these two basketball machines work their offense and defense.

It was Garland Lewis, Jeffersonville, Indiana, Kentucky's lanky center, who led the Wildcat attack as he scored a total of 22 points. Ralph Carlisle, the Big Blue's sharp-shooting forward, ran him a close second when he dropped in 18 markers. Jack Lomax, the Blue Jays' flashy forward, and one who gave the Kentucky guards much trouble, took first place scoring honors for Creighton as he pushed 12 points through the nets.

Both teams used the fast break and they raced up and down the floor at break-neck speed. Frequent fouls resulted, and a few passes went astray, but for the most part it was an amazing exposition of skill. Field goals were made from every conceivable angle, with Kentucky popping in several, and Lomax a couple, that brought shouts of astonishment from the crowd.

Creighton made a pretty good battle of it for a brief period after Kentucky had run its total to 13 points. Trailing 13 to 4, Creighton scored five points in quick succession. It was just a flash in the pan, however, for Carlisle, Lewis and Hagan got busy and the Cats pulled away quickly.

CATS BEATEN WHEN 'JAYS REVERSE FORM

Omaha Five Hands Kentucky Its First Defeat On Home Floor in Three Years

Lexintgon, Ky., Feb. 22—The astonishing Creighton University Bluejays tonight celebrated Washington's birthday by chopping down Kentucky's cherry tree, defeating the Wildcats 31 to 29 in the most complete reversal of form ever witnessed in Lexington.

The Kentuckians had buried Creighton beneath a 68 to 38 avalanche here last night, and were doped to repeat the massacre, despite the fact that the visitors showed class even in defeat.

An amazed crowd of 2,500 people watched the in-and-out Wildcats do a lot of things with the ball, but most of them were in favor of the Bluejays. They passed wildly and muffed shot after shot, whereas the victors played a hard calculating game.

It has been long since Kentucky was defeated on its own floor—not since January, 1933, when the championship Ohio State five ran rough-shod over the Wildcats.

Joe "Red" Hagan was high point man for Kentucky with 11 points, with Carlisle gathering 10.

Cats Looked Tired

Kentucky looked tired, as well it might after the sizzling pace it maintained in the game on the preceding night, and the Wildcats' play was not up to standard. Their reckless passing and their leaky defense kept them in hot water all the way.

On the other hand, Creighton played a smart, calculating game. The Bluejays went about their work as if they had planned every move, and had studied every weakness of their opponents. When the Cats tied the score in the waning moments, Creighton for a moment looked as if it might crack, but Monteen, Lomax and Englebretson steadied themselves and their teammates and the Cats' last hope for a victory faded.

4,000 SEE CATS TROUNCE VANDY COMMODORES

Kentucky Takes Lead In Conference Race By Scoring 61-41 Victory

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 25—A crowd of 4,000 was thrilled to the point of hysteria last night in the Alumni gymnasium as they watched the Kentucky Wildcats take first place in the Southeastern Conference race by defeating the highly-touted Vanderbilt Commodores, 61 to 41. Earlier in the season the Commodores beat the Big Blue team by 33 to 24, handing Kentucky its first defeat in four years of Southern basketball competition.

Last night's game rang down the curtain on both Kentucky's and Vanderbilt's 1935-36 basketball schedule. Before the game Vanderbilt was holding the conference lead with nine victories and three losses, while the Cats had five victories and two setbacks. But last night's tilt put the Wildcats into undisputed lead, with only the Southeastern Conference tournament play-off hindering them from being the mythical champions.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL SQUAD

Kentucky's ace forwards, Joe "Red" Hagan and Ralph Carlisle, were the leaders of the Wildcats' offense, scoring 19 and 18 markers, respectively, while Lewis, the Big Blue's lanky center, took third place honors with a total of 11 counters. Overly, the Commodores' sharp-shooting forward, was Vanderbilt's ace in the hole, and he managed to drop in 15 points.

CATS WIN FIRST ROUND GAME OF TOURNAMENT

Kentucky Barely Wins From Mississippi State In Knoxville Game

Knoxville, Tenn., Feb. 28—The University of Kentucky Wildcats came through the first round of the Southeastern Conference tournament by the skin of their teeth here tonight when they managed to eke out a 41 to 39 victory over the sharp-shooting lads from Mississippi State College.

Playing a hard and furious game the Mississippi boys kept in front of the Wildcats until ten minutes of the second period had passed, and then the Big Blue team forged to the front with a 35 to 34 advantage when Donohue came in from the side to sink a beautiful crip shot. Up to this time Mississippi was always two or three points ahead of the Kentuckians.

At the half time the boys from the deep South held a 21 to 20 advantage, but the usual Wildcat precedent took place and they came out of their dressing room with renewed vigor and spark, and started to drop their shots from every place. After the Wildcats gained their one point margin late in the second period the Mississippi cagers could never again forge to the front, although many of their shots hit the rim and rolled off.

WILDCATS BEATEN BY VOLS IN SEMI-FINALS

Carlisle, Kentucky, Scores 17 Points As Tennessee Wins 39 to 28

Knoxville, Tenn., Feb. 29—The University of Kentucky basketball team—champions of the Southeastern Conference—was forced out of the conference tournament here tonight by bad officiating, bad playing, and bad breaks, and the University of Tennessee Volunteers took the Wildcats' measure by a 39 to 28 score.

It was an ill wind that blew Kentucky no good when they met the Vols tonight in what will probably be the best game of the 1936 tournament. Playing a fast and furious game, the Wildcats were unable to cope with the sharp shooting of the Tennessee lads, who were able to connect with the baskets from almost any angle. One of the main reasons that the Wildcats were on the short end of the score was the fact that they could not convert their free throws—only making 12 out of a possible 22, while the Vols dropped in 17 out of 21—a good average in any man's league.

Joe "Red" Hagan, the Kentucky forward who has had the knack of putting the ball through the nets at close intervals during the Wildcats' last three or four games, was held to four points tonight by Rice, Tennessee guard from Ashland, Ky. Hagan could not get in a position to make a shot until five minues of the second period had ticked away, and then he connected with one of his famous angle shots from the side. Ralph Carlisle, the Wildcats' sharp shooting forward, was the leading scorer of the evening—dropping in a total of 17 counters, although he had two personal fouls against him before five minutes of the game had been played.

Goforth, Ellington, Hagan, Walker, and Craig were all members of the '35 varsity football squad. All were ends except Craig who played halfback.

SOPHOMORE STAR LEADS CATS IN VANDY VICTORY

Ben Willis, Kentucky, Takes Four Firsts In Opening Meet

Lexington, Ky., April 13 — Ben Willis, University of Kentucky sophomore, took first place in the 100 and 220 yard dashes and the high and low hurdles, scoring 20 points to lead the Wildcat track team to an 85 to 32 victory over the Vanderbilt Commodores this afternoon on Stoll field in the opening meet of the season.

The Kentucky thinlies outclassed the Commodores in every event except the high jump and the discus, and the pole valut, in which Hay, Kentucky, and Campbell, Vanderbilt, tied for first place. The Cats took first place in 12 events and scored second in seven, while Vandy registered only two firsts and six seconds.

Probably the closest race of the afternoon was the mile relay, which was won by the Kentucky quartet. Nearly every lap was run neck and neck until Gates, Kentucky anchor man, pulled away from the Vanderbilt man to cross the finish line two yards ahead.

Hocker and Spragens took first and second in the two mile run for Kentucky, but they finished over a half lap behind Dave Rogan, Middlesboro, and Joe Moore, Washington, D. C., both Kentucky freshmen who were allowed to run in the race to increase the field. Rogan's time in this event was 10:59.5, and he looked extremely well as he sprinted the last half lap with apparent ease.

The summary:

100-yard dash — Willis (K), Black (V). Time, 10.5.

Mile run—Ford (K), Hocker (K). Time, 4:56.5.

Shot put—Rupert (K), Olah (K). Distance, 40 feet 3 inches.

Pole vault—Hay (K) and Campbell (V) tied for first. Height, 10 feet 6 inches.

440-yard dash—Miller (K), Stewart (V). Time :55.6.

120-yard high hurdles—Willis (K), Coffman (K). Time, :16.4.

880-yard run—Ford (K), Travis (K) Time, 2: 12.3.

Discus—Beck (V), Rupert (K). Distance, 115 feet 6 inches.

High jump—Lynn (V), Mason (V). Height, 5 feet 8 inches.

220-yard dash — Willis (K), Black (V). Time, :23.1.

Javelin — Sympson (K), McMillan (K). Distance, 158 feet 4 inches.

Broad jump — Carlisle (K), Ryan (V). Distance, 19 feet 7 inches.

Two-mile run—Hocker (K), Spragen (K). Time 11:26.9. (Rogan's time in this event was 10:59.5).

GEORGIA TECH RUNS OVER CAT CINDERMEN

Willis, Wildcat Star, Gets Two Firsts As Kentucky Loses 81 To 50

Atlanta, Ga., April 20 — Winning eleven out of fifteen events, Georgia Tech trackmen defeated the University of Kentucky cindermen by 81 to 50 here on Grant field this afternoon.

Willis, the Wildcat crack dash man, starred for the visitors with 16 points. He captured both the dashes and placed a step behind Dean, Tech ace hurdler, in both high and low obstacles. Willis got away to a big lead, but faltered slightly on the last hurdle and lost out in two thrilling finishes.

Hocker and Nevers captured Kentucky's other two victories. Hocker won the two mile run in the last 10 yards and Nevers tossed the javelin 125 feet 6 inches.

Dean was Tech's ace scorer with three firsts and one third. He won both hurdles, the shot, and got a third in the discus.

Ford of Kentucky was apparently the best man in the half mile, but a foul on the last turn, gave the race to Captain Davenport of Tech.

The time of the dashes and the runs were exceptionally fact, considering the soggy track. Rain fell during the last half of the meet.

The summary:

WILDCAT THINLIES WIN FROM HANOVER 77 TO 54

Willis, Kentucky Ace, Scores Fifteen Points To Lead Victors

Hanover, Ind., April 27—The University of Kentucky won a dual track meet from Hanover College here this afternoon, 77 to 54.

The track was heavy with mud and time in all events was slow. Kentucky was first in all but three of the fifteen events, but Hanover scored the only "slam," in the 100-yard dash. Parmenter, Haye and Krivisky finished in that order.

The high point man was Willis of Kentucky, who took the 220-yard dash and the 220-yard high and low hurdles for fifteen points. Hocker of Kentucky, who won the one and two-mile races, was second high with ten points. The Kentucky relay team clinched the victory before the last two events had been contested.

The summary:

CATS READY FOR BEREA AFTER HANOVER WIN

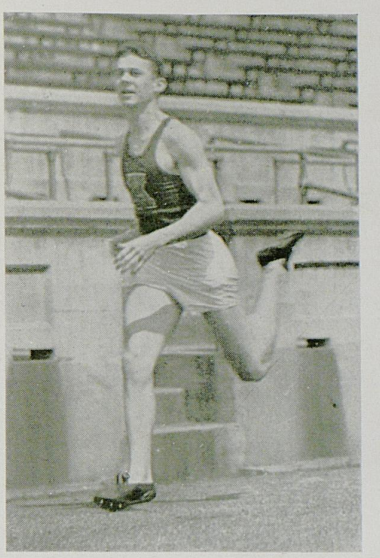

Track Team In Good Shape For Afternoon Tilt; Berea Has Strong Team

Lexington, Ky., April 30 — Fresh from their 77 to 54 victory over Hanover College Saturday, Coach Bernie Shively's varsity track team will face Berea College at 3 p. m. this afternoon on Stoll field. The freshman track team, which has been practicing for the past several weeks, will engage the Berea frosh team at the same time.

Against Hanover last Saturday the Cats were handicapped by the muddy conditions which accounted for the poor times in most of the running events. Ben Willis, sophomore dash star, was once more high point man for Kentucky with 15 points, scored in winning the 220 yard dash, and the high and low hurdles.

Walker and Willis were disqualified in the 100 yard dash when they had too many false starts. Nevers again took first place in the discus throw and Bud Hocker came through with a double victory in the mile and two mile runs. Billy Ford won handily in his favorite distance, the half mile event.

The Berea team have always given the Wildcats plenty of trouble and it is expected that they will extend Coach Shively's teams to the limit this afternoon. The varsity and freshmen events will be run simultaneously so that all the events will be concluded in regulation time.

BEN WILLIS, Wildcat speedster, is the mainstay of the thinlies this year

U. OF K. TRACKSTERS WIN DUAL MEET FROM BEREA

Varsity And Freshman Track Teams Score Easy Victories Over Mountaineers

Lexington, Ky., April 30 — Winning 12 of the 13 first places, the Kentucky Wildcats easily defeated the Berea Mountaineers by a score of 85 to 46, while the Kittens subdued the Berea frosh, 107½ to 25½, in a double meet held this afternoon on Stoll field.

Ben Willis, crack dash and hurdle sophomore, was the outstanding Wildcat performer, running the century in 10 seconds flat, and winning three other events to score a total of 20 points. Dave Rogan, by winning the half mile and mile events, besides being lead-off man on the winning relay team, was the outstanding Kitten runner. Rogan ran the mile in the excellent time of 4:31.3, bettering the old Universit record of 4:35.

Carter, covering the mile in 4:43.3, and Stewart, doing the two mile in 10:55.2, were the outstanding Berea men.

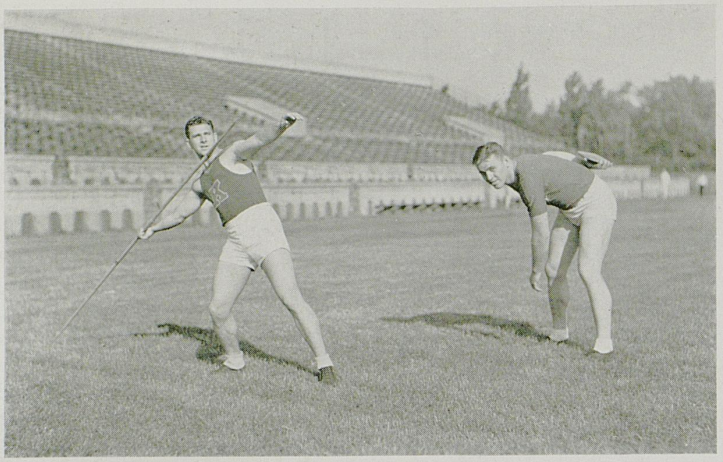

Ledridge won the 440 for Kentucky but his teammate, Gates, fouled a Berea runner on the first turn and officials ruled the Kentucky lads out, giving Berea a clean sweep in this event.

Coach Shively and his Wildcats will be hosts to the University of Tennessee Volunteers Saturday afternoon on Stoll field.

The summary:

Mile run—Carter (B), Stewart (B), McAlister (B). Time, 4:43.3.

TENNESSEE WINS FROM CATS IN FINAL MEET

Willis and Anderson Run Dead Heat in Fast Century Dash

Lexington, Ky., May 4 — With Ben Willis, Wildcat sophomore flash, and Anderson, Tennessee sprint star, holding the spotlight, the Kentucky cinder artists received a 68 1-3 to 48 2-3 defeat at the hands of the Volunteers this afternoon on Stoll field before several hundred spectators.

The outstanding event of the meet was the 100 yard dash. Willis and Anderson matched strides over the route to reach the finish line together for a perfect dead heat in the exceptional time of 9.8.

A short time later, Willis led Anderson to the tape in the 220 yard dash in the time of 21.8.

Anderson was high point man of the meet, scoring first place in the shot put and the high jump, second place in the broad jump and 220 yard dash, and a tie in the centuray for a total of 20 points. Willis was second high point man with a first in the 220 yard dash and high hurdles, second in the low hurdles and a tie in the century dash for a total of 17 points.

The Wildcats, who have gone all year without a captain, elected Joe Rupert, weight man, and former captain of the Kentucky football team, as this year's track captain. This afternoon's meet was the last dual encounter of the season for the Big Blue, but Coach Bernie Shively will take several of his stars to Birmingham for the Southeastern Conference meet May 17 and 18.

KENTUCKY IS SEVENTH IN SOUTHEASTERN MEET

Ben Willis, Wildcat Star, Scores All Of Kentucky's Points As L. S. U. Wins

Birmingham, Ala., May 18—Louisiana State University won the Southeastern Conference annual track and field meet today with 78 points, exactly double those made by Alabama, which finished second.

Scores of other teams were as follows: Georgia, 21½; Auburn 20½; Tulane, 15; Tennessee and Mississippi State, 14; Kentucky 10; Georgia Tech, 8; Florida, 5. Vanderbilt and Sewanee failed to score and Mississippi was not entered.

Willis scored all of Kentucky's points, finishing second in the 220-yard low hurdles; third in the 100-yard dash; and third in the 220-yard dash.

U. K. BUILDING MODERN QUARTER-MILE TRACK

PWA Funds To Be Used In Improvement Of Stoll Field

An appropriation of $40,000 from the Federal government will be used in improving the football field and stadium, it was announced by Professor D. V. Terrell, civil engineering department. The plans call for 1,100 feet of concrete wall, a running track, press box and a Suky stand.

In the place of the wooden fence which is now on the north side of the field a ten foot concrete wall, 500 feet long will be built. The wall, about four feet thick, will slope to the top. On the south side of the field a 600 foot retaining wall will be erected. This wall will be built out from the present fence and will include about half an acre more ground in the field.

A modern press box, accomodating seventy writers, will be built at the top of the south stand. The box will be constructed of concrete, with a large plate glass window at the front. It will be 85 feet long, 18 feet high, and will contain three tiers of tables on the inside. Included in this structure will be a broadcasting room, a place for the public address system and other facilities.

The present running track, around the outside of the playing field, will be removed and a new track put in. It will be a quarter of a mile long, with a 220-yard straight-away filled to a depth of 18 inches with crushed stone.

A drainage system will be put in, covered with 18 inches of crushed stone, topped with cinders and then coal ashes as the top layer.

BEREA FROSH LOSE TO KITTENS; SIMPSON STARS

Kentucky Yearlings Take All Places In Three Events

Lexington, Ky., April 30 — Paced by "Red" Simpson, freshman football star, the University of Kentucky yearlings easily defeated Berea frosh here this afternoon in a dual track meet on Stoll field, running up 107½ points to 25½ for the visitors.

Simpson took firsts in the javelin and discus and a second in the shot for a total of 13 points.

The Kittens took all three places in the 440, 100, broad jump, and the shot. Rogan, freshman miler, clipped 3.7 seconds off the old University record when he covered the distance in 4:31.3.

The summary:

FRESHMAN TRACK MEN AWARDED NUMERALS

Freshmen track men were awarded numerals at a meeting of the Athletic Council, yesterday. Those reeciving them were Carter, Chepeleff, Jones, Moore, Pardo, Raynor, Rigsby, Simpson, Steckmest, and Veal.

WRITER RECALLS FEATS OF "SHIPWRECK" KELLY, ONE OF KENTUCKY'S ALL-TIME TRACK STARS

John Simms "Shipwreck" Kelly is undoubtedly one of the most outstanding track stars to attend the University.

His record is outstanding, since he took part in only two years of varsity competition, due to the fact that in his senior year he suffered a cut which became infected and was forced to abstain from running until the last meet of the year.

In 1930, Kelly's sophomore year, the Big Blue track team won four out of five dual meets and made a creditable showing in the Georgia Tech relays and the Southern Conference meet. In the first meet against Georgetown, Kelly took first in the 100-yard dash, broad jump, and 220-yard dash. Against Vanderbilt he scored 15 points and ran the 100-yard dash in 10 seconds, which at that time was exceptionally fast.

The fact that Tennessee gave the Cats their only setback did not overshadow Kelly's sparkling performance in which he garnered 18 of his team's 49 points. Against Sewanee he took three firsts, and against Cincinnati he broke the tape four times and finished second once.

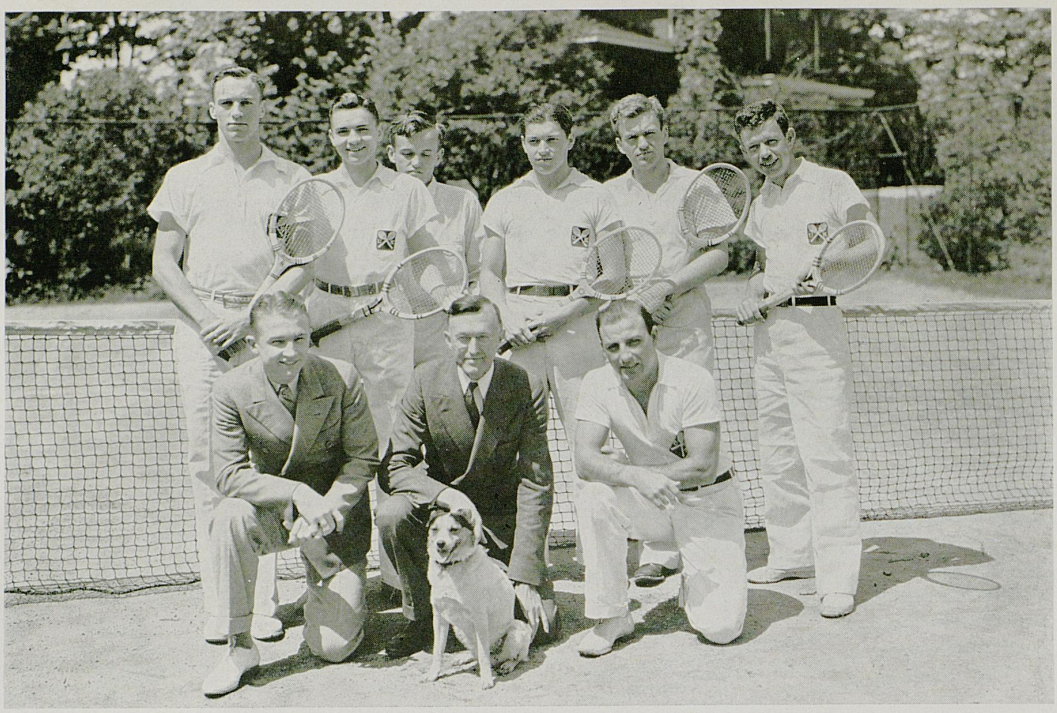

"Shipwreck" was co-captin of the 1931 thinlies who went through the season undefeated and took eighth place in the Southern Conference track meet at Birmingham. That year Kelly ran the century dash in 9.9 and won every race in which he competed. He also won every 220-yard dash in which he was entered in dual competition and took second in the conference meet. In addition to his work in the dashes Kelly showed fans that he could jump as well as sprint and set a new record of 23 feet five and three-quarters inches in the broad jump.

As was previously stated, Kelly was unable to compete in any meets in his senior year, until the Southern Conference meet, where he managed to take fifth place in the 220-yard dash in spite of his weakened condition and lack of practice.

The record of "Shipwreck" Kelly is indeed outstanding and will long be remembered in the annals of the University of Kentucky.

Freshman Tennis

Due to inclement weather all the matches which had been scheduled for the freshman tennis team were cancelled.

The team, which was coached by Thomas Rose, should add strength to the 1936 varsity squad. Although it played no matches, the team was quite valuable in its assistance in rounding the varsity into shape. Competition between members of the varsity and freshmen squads was very keen and this interest tended to keep the varsity on edge for intercollegiate competition.

Those making numerals were: Phil Englebardt, Harold Huber, Ruel Foster, W. C. Botts, John Spragens, Arthur Voll, William Edmunds, and Wayne Franz, manager.

Golf Team

Golf was established as a minor sport on the campus in 1935 and the team had a successful season, despite the fact that they had no coach. The team divided the regular season with four victories and the same number of defeats, but closed with a smashing climax by winning the State Intercollegiate Golf tournament held at Louisville. John Eversole, number one player on the team, was the medalist in this tournament.

The results of the season are as follows:

University of Louisville, there, won; here, won.
University of Tennessee, there, lost.
Western State Teachers College, here, won.
University of Dayton, there, lost; here, lost.
Eastern State Teacher College, there, lost; here, won.

Housemothers

An integral part of every fraternity and sorority on the University of Kentucky campus is its housemother. Hers is not an easy task, since she must have patience, tolerance, charm, and many other virtues. These charming ladies have so endeared themselves to everyone with whom they have come in contact, that we are indeed proud to be the first Kentuckian to have the privilege of dedicating a page to them.

Phi Mu Alpha

Phi Mu Alpha, national honorary music fraternity, was founded at the New England Conservatory of Music in 1898. The local chapter, known as the Alpha Gamma chapter, was installed on the campus in 1925.

It is a fraternity organized to advance the cause of music in America; to foster the mutual welfare and brotherhood of students of music; to develop the truest fraternal spirit among its members, and to encourage loyalty to the Alma Mater. There are fifty-eight chapters.

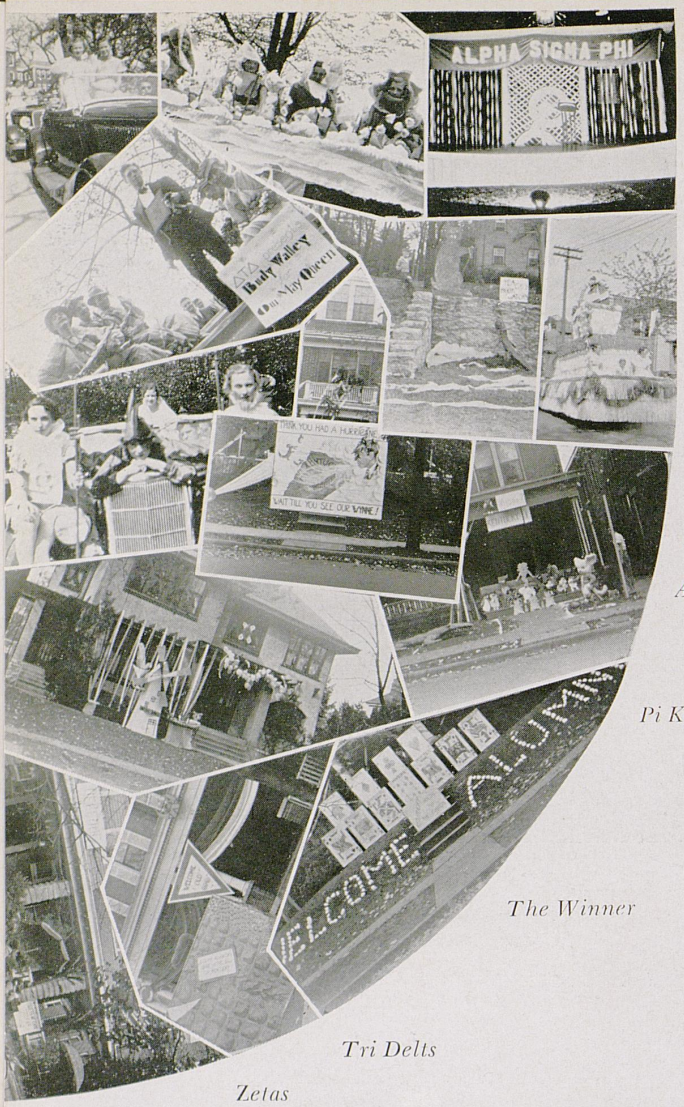

Members in the faculty are Carl Lampert, John Lewis, Dudley South, Cass Robinson, Elmer G. Sulzer, and David W. Young.

Inter-Fraternity Council

The Inter-fraternity Council of the University of Kentucky was founded in 1933. It was organized to promote better harmony among the Greek letter fraternities on the campus and to enforce rules regarding such. Each fraternity elects one representative to sit on the council and he acts and protects the interests of his group.

The R. O. T. C. Regiment

The R. O. T. C. regiment at the University of Kentucky has always been regarded as one of the most outstanding college units in the country, and this year several changes were made which will lend much to the improvement of the department. These new rulings applied mainly to the election of sponsors, selection of the Military Ball Queen, and the assignment of officers.

Under the new system of selection of the Queen of the Military Ball, which provided that a committee of newspapermen should select the queen from a group composed of representatives of each sorority and also two independent candidates, Miss Lucy Maddox, Chi Omega, was chosen to reign over the affair. This function was enhanced this year by the presence of Governor A. B. Chandler and Lieutenant Governor Keen Johnson, who were pledged to Scabbard and Blade.

In the election of sponsors, the old plan of nominating candidates for specific positions was abandoned and the candidates were voted on as a group, the highest nine being assigned to their respective ranks in the order in which they finished.

Definite assignment of members of the regimental and battalion staffs was not made this year, in order to give each officer more opportunity to gain experience in the handling of men, which is the primary purpose of the R.O.T.C.

Pershing Rifles

Pershing Rifles, national honorary basic military fraternity, was founded at the University of Nebraska in 1894 by General John J. Pershing. Its aim is to promote good citizenship and military efficiency in the universities of the nation. Company C was installed on the campus in 1931 and is known as the George A. Knight chapter, in honor of the drillmaster who enabled it to win the regimental championship three consecutive years, thereby gaining permanent possession of the trophy.

The 1936 Kentuckian

Publishing a college yearbook is by no means a small task, in spite of the fact that the general opinion is much to the contrary. However, if the editor is fortunate enough to have a shrewd and industrious business manager, several capable associate-editors, a good printer, a considerate engraver, a splendid photographer, and an alert staff, he might get through the school year without suffering a nervous breakdown.

The three associate-editors, Anderson, Dryden, and Huston were undoubtedly the noisiest and most playful group which has ever served in this capacity. Yet their assistance was most valuable and deserves a special word of commendation. The work of such departmental editors as Garling on sports, McKenney on the fraternities, Earle on the sororities, Hess on the snapshots, Brown on the classes, and Burger on the honoraries cannot pass without being complimented.

Bazil L. Baker, Editor

James L. Bersot, Business Manager

Jimmy Bersot was one of the most active men on the campus this year, but he always found time to keep his business staff functioning smoothly. This is easily understood, however, when it is learned that his chief lieutenants were Ralph "Friday" Hughett and Ernie Shovea, who served as sales and circulation, and advertising managers respectively. Hughett, aided by an unusual amount of interest in the beauty contest this year, surpassed all previous sales records.

Serving as editor of the 1936 Kentuckian has been a most enjoyable experience, due mainly to the cooperation which we received from James Shropshire, manager of student publications, and Dave Griffith, foreman of the Kernel press room. We hope that we have succeeded in publishing an annual which the class of '36 will cherish in the years to come, causing them to reflect upon their careers here at the University of Kentucky in a favorable manner whenever they come in contact with one of these books.

University of Kentucky Band

The University of Kentucky Band, long known as the "Best Band in Dixie," is now making a bid for All-American honors, following the attainment of new goals achieved this year on the football field and on the concert stage. According to Birmingham papers, the band staged the greatest exhibition of marching and playing ever witnessed in the South during the trip to the Kentucky-Alabama football game.

The only other competition afforded the band was during the annual Kentucky-Tennessee football game Thanksgiving day when the University of Tennessee band was the guest of the "Boys in Blue" and the Wildcat band again proved that their title was not fictitious.

Professor John Lewis completed his third successful year at the head of the organization and under his efficient leadership the band surpassed all previous records. Director Lewis came to the University with an excellent rating and his efforts here have added much to that record.

Rosemary Clinkscales proved to be a perfect sponsor and her charm and personality added greatly to each appearance of the band. Miss Clinkscales, an Independent from Williamstown, was elected by popular vote of the upperclassmen of the band at the beginning of the school year.

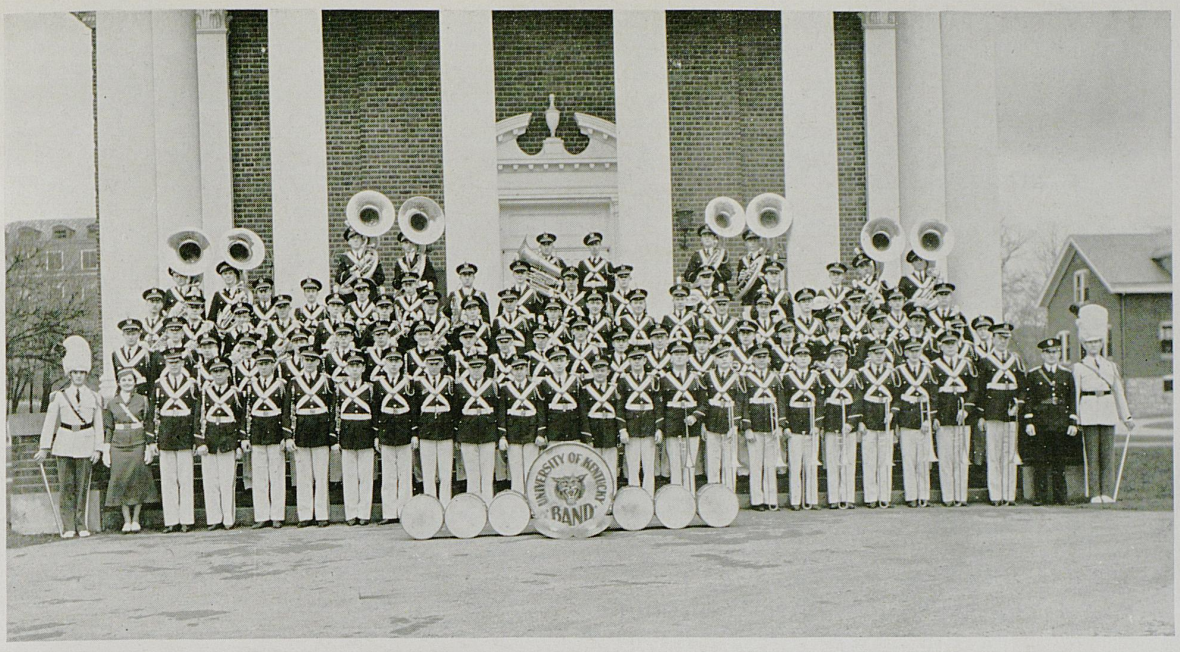

This year's drum major, Harold Stockton, worked untiringly with the musicians and he is responsible for the brilliant formations displayed during the football season.

Assistant Drum Major Berkley Benneson served his first year in this capacity and proved himself competent to fill such a position. Benneson is a sophomore from Kansas City, Missouri.

Charles Ashford, of Georgetown, acting as personnel officer and business manager, displayed ability in directing the many activities of the band.

Acknowledgments

It was quite difficult to find pictures which would illustrate perfectly the six Kentucky traditions which we have used as the theme of the 1936 Kentuckian. However, we were finally able to obtain these photographs through the courtesy of Caufield and Shook, Louisville; Frankfort Distilleries, Louisville and Baltimore; and Colonel Samuel Butler Crowder of Louisville, who very graciously allowed us to use his photograph, which is indeed a true representation of a Kentucky Colonel of the old school. We take this opportunity to thank these persons for their assistance, of which we are truly appreciative.

At this time we would also like to extend our best regards to those who have aided us in the publication of this yearbook: The Lafayette Studio, Bush-Krebs Company, Kingsport Press, and The Kentucky Kernel. Their assistance has been most valuable and their service has been faultless.

It has been the custom in the past to include in the yearbook a short summary of the accomplishments of each social organization on the campus, and mention the love affairs of the various members...However we're not going to do that this year....not because we don't think it's a good idea, but because it is against our principles to toss roses when we should be tossing brickbats...Some of the organizations on the campus did absolutely nothing to merit a compliment, yet to save our necks we would be forced to make statements which we knew were unfounded... The girls are always charming and every sorority is "one of the best" in the usual column of a yearbook...In order to get around this difficult situation we have decided to clip items out of the scandal column of the Kernel which will probably be of interest to the majority of the students...If anyone has any grievances as the result of this campus gossip, don't come looking for us...we only clipped it...It was probably written by either Bob Hess or his successor Franklin Dryden...Naturally there are too many items to include all of them, so don't feel badly if we have omitted a notice which concerned you and your "true love"...There may be a few dirty digs, but don't lose your self-control, because it was written (and clipped) in fun...We hope you like it...

SEPTEMBER

Foul Play

Another rush week, and the Chios and Kappas continue to accuse each other of dirty work at the cross roads. The Kappas say the Chios rented a big Packard in order to make a good impression on a few of these beautiful but dumb froshettes. Yea, and the Chios come right back and say that the Kappas are shown favoritism by Deaniewienie Blanding. Meanwhile, the sweet and demure Tridelts look on and wonder just what it is all about. Well, gals will be gals.

And we understand that it was only last week that the football team was running up and down the halls of the SAE house. Shucks, anything can happen during rush week.

Love Walked Out For Tea

Warren or did Sam initiate the transaction?

Birdie Bosworth walked out on poor Hunt Thomas. She is now residing in Colorado with her newly acquired spouse. Poor Hunt!

And for the third time in Lee Miles' life, his Phidelt pin was returned. This time it was Kay Combs. It seems that the moon shines pretty bright in Hazard during the summer months.

We understand from an unusually reliable source that charming little "Tong Town" Toska Ann von Borries has checked the mighty Tommie Livingston, the third Kappasig to get it in the neck. According to my calculations, that put little Tottie back in circulation. But remember, fellah, Tottie is said to be quite fickle.

We are not certain, but it seems that John Breckinridge and Josie Tunis have drifted apart.

The two champion squirrels of U. K., Fred Fugazzi and Betty Bruce Nunn, have called their romance to an end. Scotty Chambers is now an eligible. Scotty, the battler, and Langan Hay, the plunger, are somewhat on the outs with each other.

Maybe a few of these rifts will help to counterbalance the many marriages that were solemnized during the summer months.

Form Letter

Dog Endicott, Jack Crain, and Garfish Staples got together letters that each had received from Edith Reager. Yep, you're right. The only difference between the three letters was the address. We will bet money that "War" Donohue didn't receive any form letter. Edith misses a lot of dances merely because "War" doesn't like to dance.

Roses and More Roses

We have been keeping exactly one dozen roses on ice in order that we might throw one each to one dozen of the most popular and most sought after young froshettes. So, reach out a hand, gals, and grab a rose. You—Barbara Wiley, Whitty Huguelet, Ruth Ware, Sarah Rounsaval, Lois King, Martha Alexander, Sarah Gaitskill, Frances Sledd, Elizabeth Menzies, Virginia Batterton, Gladys Dimock, and Billie Holliday each take one. Maybe we will be able to throw one and all of youz gals a bouquet of gardenias later on in the year. How would you like that?

Who Said Poetry?

Dot Curtis, Tottie Borries, and Lucile Thornton got together this little concoction of words:

Be him went?
Am him gone,
Did him leave I here alone?
Ah, cruel world!
Ah, fate unkind!
To take him 'way, and leave I 'hind.
Will him ne'er comt back to me?
Ah, it cannot was!!

Muscle Man

"Homer, you have the cutest muscles." These are the words of Carrie Sebree, when feeliing of the mighty bicepts of the powerful Homer Nicholas. Say, Carrie, what happened to you and Lou Henegen?

Four Wheels and Breaks

So may people have asked how about that sputtering, long, black bit of machinery (who said machinery?) that has been racing around town, that we find it necessary to answer publicly.

Joe Scholtz and your correspondent passed out cigars last Monday, for we are now the proud fathers of a job that has tires that closely resemble Professor Fithian's bald pate.

Yea, and the wheel-base is exactly two of Spinney's Physics books and a Seagram's bottleneck longer than your automotive device, Creighton Comer. And we won't let Jack Faunce outdo us either. We can pile exactly 14 full-grown adults into the spacious back and front seats. And we're competing with Greyhound on trips to Cincinnati this afternoon, and next Friday to Columbus.

Moon Garling asked, "Grind me a half-pound, will ya?"

"Naw, we're bailin' hay this week," Joe replied. "Next week we're sowing seed through the exhaust. How 'bout October 7?"

Dear students, before you throw your old underwear out, remember that these dainty underthings would make fine side-curtains

Correction

This boy Hess seems to have been mistaken on a point or two. It is rumored that Bettie Bosworth still has the ATO pin of Sunny Day, former editor of The Kernel. This seems to be quite a serious affair, for Bettie writes exactly one letter a day to Day. We could almost make a poem out of that one.

* * *

Well, here we are back in good ole Lexington after a glorious week-end in Columbus. And it's might good to be back where not only weather is warmer, but the people are warmer.

This talk of moral victory may be a lot of bunk, but if ever a moral victory was scored, Kentucky scored it against Ohio State Saturday.

It is our contention that the many Kentuckians who wore themselves out yelling during the game were the proudest people in all the world after that game. Our boys were in there fighting every minute giving all they had. That team out there representing the state that has more colonels than Ohio State University has students, had the finest spirit that we have ever seen on the gridiron.

We have a fine bunch of boys that make up a fine team, and we are anxious to let the world know we are proud of them.

Squibs from Columbus

Georgia Turnipseed phoned "Peck" Tanner all the way from Virginia. It must have been important, for they talked about seven minutes....Bill Heath was with Dot Curtis, as usual...Billy Spicer, who escorted Midge Wheeler to the game, took Midge to her room about ten o'clock Saturday night, and then proceeded to stag it. Was it five or seven crown, Billy?...Figure this one out. By merely sliding under a door, Louis "Slurp" Brock saved six boys thirty cents...J. Franklin Wallace was cavorting around the lobby of the Neil House with a keen looking little gal just half his size...Dos Ried and Helen Young had their usual argument...Nancy Quicksall and Mary Lillian "Bright-Eyes" Sellers were escorted to the grill of the Deshler-Wallick

Two-Timing?

"Colonel" Labe Jackson has been and is certainly making a big play for that Chio brunette flash, Kay Kennady. He visited Kay in "E-town" exactly ten times this summer. Must be real romance. But we happen to know that Labe still has a decided affinity for Helen Fish, Frankfort's favorite daughter. What do you think of this, Kay?

Flash

If we are not mistaken, KA Gamble Dick is now wearing the Southern fraternity's badge that was worn by Lucile Thornton. Why the sudden change of heart? It couldn't be "Keyhole" Coffman, erstwhile journalist of Louisville. Maybe not, but why does Coffman make these Wednesday night trips to Lexington? He doesn't ride up with "Scoop" Girdler just for the ride. We wonder, Lucy, if your letters to a Mr. Ralph Harris, Endicott, N. Y., could have any bearing on the question of why you gave back Gamble's pin. You shouldn't leave personal letters lying around the Kappa house and not expect some of your snooping sisters to make something of it. Watch your step, Lucy; you'll break several little Kentucky lads' hearts by stepping around with out-of-state chaps.

Question

A question in campus activities: What little blonde girl has had such illuminaries as Hunt, Hess and Baker ga-ga over her? It's none other than the pride of the Commerce College, Evelyn Carroll. And added to this list of admirers are Freshman Frank Davis and Dean Aulick, a Pikap from Georgetown who has been a steady and jealous admirer for some time. Some girls get all the breaks.

NOVEMBER

Here I sit on the club car of the famous Pan-American of the L. & N. road. We (the team, managers, coaches, stowaways, et al) entrained from New Orleans at 8:15 Saturday night after a most disastrous defeat which took place in the Tulane stadium.

* * *

We have just pulled out of Bowling Green ...I sit at the table in the club car with Bob Davis, who had to have three teeth pulled as a result of the melee; Pete, the most ardent fan a football team ever had, and Abie Ayers. Looking over Abie's shoulder I see Dick Robinson chatting his fool head off with a dizzy New Orleans blond. The conversation started at Nashville...Haven't been able to eavesdrop as yet...Would give anything to get in on Robie's line of bull.

Coach Wynne just looked in the car. He certainly is a downcast fellow, and why shouldn't he be? He earnestly believes that he has a better ball club than Tulane, and everyone else thinks so. Just like Ohio State a few weeks ago—passes were poison.

Down at the end of the club car sits "Moon" Garling, who covered the game for the Kernel and the Louisville Herald Post. He's pecking away at his portable now, much to the chagrin of those present. Next to "Moon" is Manager Gates McCauley, who is

The Roses

Everyone who has cast their peepers upon the gorgeous countenance of Miss Genevieve "Toddy" Lyles, have unanimously agreed that she is one of the most attractive girls on the campus. And it's not only the boys who think she is so swell, but all of the girls say she is tops. These Yankee gals (she's from Cleveland) seem to fare pretty well in Ole Kentucky. So Toddy, to you we are tossing a large bouquet of roses because of your looks, because you can carry on an interesting conversation about things other than yourself, and because the leading sororities on the campus have been outdoing themselves trying to pledge you. She went Kappa.

A Curse to Humanity

In the dorm of the Sigep house there is just one double bed. In the last four years there have been just six occupants of this bed, and everyone of them has married. Those boys who have succumbed to its influence are: Leo Zeigler, Ben Stapleton, Gene Miller, Willie Stovall, and now, just about a week ago, Allen Brady stepped out and took unto himself a wife. She signed the license as Willie Ann Fraas, and is a Theta Sigma Phi from Illinois. Now all the boys are keeping pretty clear of this bed—but we understand that Dick Boyd has been trying to gain possession of it.

Congratulations to Ike Moore and Len Van Arsdale for their protest in English class... Joe Rupert was in town over the week-end with Marion Connor Dawson...Have heard lots of griping about Dr. Jennings' economic history book...Someone said Joyce Wright reminded him of Mae West...To you guys who have been so inquisitive about why your correspondent has been seen taking pictures around the campus, we say that we are getting pictures for the Kentuckian . . . Looks like it is going to be a winner . . . Heard a couple of fellows talking of going to the Alphagam house to see Ellen Coyte. One said, "Can't do it. I have to get Coyte up on my accounting." The world's slowest soda jerker is at work in the Commons. The perennial tortoise could beat her making a coke during the third hour... Betty Bruce Nunn tells us that since Mamie Maddox is now wearing Frank Cawood's pin, her eyes sparkle like the all outdoors...Billy Dennison has acquired Whit Goodwin's nickname of "Pan-Hel." He had a date with a different gal every night last week...Jane Potter is plenty sweet. The Alphagams have a new innovation in open-house entertainment. Along about five-thirty all of the lights in the house go out...An event which should call for the closing of school for a day happened last Wednesday...When Joe Quinn was told that Virginia Batterton "goes for him," Joe replied that he already knew it... Professor Clark asked Bob Davis on what Henry Clay made his first speech in Lexington. Bob replied that it was on a wagon... Frances Sledd is fooling 'em all . . . News before news: Sloppy Reis is going to give Mary Lou Stark a keen ring for her birthday the fourteenth....Has anyone figured out the point of the Kappa home-coming decorations yet?...Charlie Duerson and Stanley Elizabeth Clay have split up. Understand that she refused to take his pin, but that now she's sorry she didn't...On the way back from a band trip to Carrollton, musician Baird sang "Cheek to Cheek" to Rosie Clinkscales. Ask anyone in the band the details, it's really good...June Curd came one hundred miles to see Dick Chauvet, who was in town from U. of Illinois for home-coming, and missed him about an hour...Sickness doesn't keep Bill Smith from seeing his love, Kay Kennady. Looks like the real thing...Curt Howard and Madlyn Shively, both formerly of U. K. took a swan dive into the sea of matrimony recently, Keyhole Coffman tells us. Congratulations . . . The Roses

Have you all seen a little gal walking around the campus with brown eyes so big that there is hardly room for the nose and mouth on her face. In modified form, she looks just like a big Jersey cow—in reference to those big eyes, of course. She is KD Frances Sledd, known to some as Satchel. She has one of the smoothest line yet, and isn't the least bit particular who is at the receiving end of it. So, to you, Frances, we toss this

The Fights

The intramural fights are well under way. Boxing, wrestling and remarks from the spectators are all very interesting.

After Pete Kurachek won his first match, he jumped out of the ring and dashed over to one side where Eleanor Steele was waiting to offer him congratulations. Umm...Sam Potter was on the side lines making love (or telling Mountain feud stories) to Velma Hardesty. Velma seems to have run the gauntlet of footballers. One of her former admirers, Bob Sherman, seems to have strayed off in the direction of Clara Bush...Monday night, Referee Shively got hit and kicked. Wonder if he has his finger nails checked before each bout. The boxing ref appears to be slightly reluctant about breaking the boxers in a clinch. Who wouldn't, with fists belonging to such muscle men as Bob Forsythe and Bob Davis flying around . . . Noticed that Hargis Hughes has started a courting campaign directed against Mary Flowers. Bill Holster was with Forsythe's true love, Helen Irvine ...When the first punched nose of the bouts started to spurt blood, some gal remarked "Oh, goody, goody. Look at the blood. I love it. Break his back!" I looked around and it was Helen Rich, who was making all of these very timely remarks.

It may interest the Delts way out there where the air smells of pastures that their house boy, James Duncan, was recently married. Funny how you boys didn't know about it...Jeanne Pat Belt said that she didn't like the fact that her angel, Joe Scholtz, has had to buy larger belts (ought to make a pun out of that) to take care of his abdominal bulge, so now Joe has acquired two ten-pound dumbbells, and is working ferociously with them ...Dick Robinson, Joe Orr, Lexie Potter and others were so disgusted with a few of the decisions at the fights Thursday night that they walked out before the fights were over... John Hinkebein nearly broke a blood vessel when his roomie, Charles Morat, won his fight...

Understand that the wife of one of Kentucky's ace footballers expects a blessed event soon (apologies to Walt Winchell) . . . KA-Phidelt football game Saturday ended in a scoreless tie, so the KA boys keep the keg. What we mean, this Coleman is a holy terror

Drippings from the Quill

The beautiful slender lass seen so frequently in the company of Student Council prex Jack Howard is Mary Joe Duncan, a practicing nurse at G. S. H. She hails from Chaplin, Kentucky, a little town just four miles from Bloomfield — but whereinell is Bloomfield? . . . Franklin Foster stated that he could pin any girl on this campus. Some stuff, huh kid? . . . Lou Henegan seems to be showing Mary Flowers quite a bit of attention of late, but the SAE boys tell us that Mary has to compete for Lou's affection with a certain person whose name reminds many of a summer wind, and whose complexion is slightly sun burned. . . Richie Baker said that she studies in the law library because she can concentrate so much better. Wonder just who she is concentrating on now. . . The Alghagam plebe who pinned a certain lad now has the pin back in her possession. After much sleuthing, Goat Captain Betty Davis discovered that the naughty girl was Betty Murphy. . . big applause, and that is sumpin'. . . The gals over at Boyd hall are now using the powers of the ouiji boards to answer their love problems. That's what a college education does for us. . . Virginia Batterton is pigeon-toed, or have you noticed, too. . . "Senator" Flippin is "Courtin' up a storm" with Mary LeBus. By the by, Dos Reid now has his pin, the one which graced the bosom of Mary's dresses for about a week. When Dos's Helen Young read the little item published herein last week about the fact that Mary had Dos's pin, Dos was compelled to call Helen way up in Massachusetts to explain. He told Helen that Mary "got him" in a weak moment. . . Jimmy Smee called Betty Menzies Wednesday night to ask for a no-break (silly things) and he got Betty Murphy. He fed Murphy a good line and finally, by applying the principles of deduction, found out that it was not Menzies, but a stranger who was the recipient of his terrific line. . . Much Better Than Mine

The best college joke of the month comes from Northwestern. Here it is:

Professor—Boys, are you passing notes back there?

Rear of room—These aren't notes, they're dollar bills; we're shooting craps.

Professor—Oh, pardon me.

pan of Pat O'Rear when she is dancing with suave Bud Hunt?...Your writer's only New Year's resolution is to omit the name of Kay Kennady in this column . . . There, I've broken the resolution already...We have nothing on Harry Bullock, but merely because he said that he thought that this column was much better because his name was not included herein, we must write the name, Harry Bullock...Many are mourning the loss of Shirley "How Now, Spook" Smith, who will not return to school next semester...For a good laugh ask Ruth Cramer the circumstances surrounding the leaving behind of her books when she returned to school from the Christmas holidays .... Sexylexy Potter has had many requests to sing the "Round" song since we disclosed the fact that Lex is quite a crooner. Andy Anderson might give Lex a job singing in his band. Wouldn't Sexylexy look cute with a megaphone in his hand. Well, slap my wrist...By the way, on page thirteen of the current issue of Time will be found facts concerning the crazy "Music Goes Round" song. Very interesting...Doctor Patrick of the Extension department, calls Miss Murphy, his secretary, "Ladybug." Cute, don't you think?...Just like the postman on his day off, Johnny Ennis, the famous Tavern soda jerker, just sits himself down contentedly in the Tavern on his day off (I mean on a chair)...Friday night John Bell was heard to say, "Oh, tonight I'd like a little W. and M." W. turned out to be whiskey and M. turned out to be Martha Alexander...Wonder when the members of the League for Industrial Democracy and those charging communism will settle their troubles. Probably never...Seems as if a romance involving Sam Powell and Janet Chanslor is budding... The 1936 Kentuckian wil be the best the University has ever had. Seventeen pages of snap-shots. By the by, those organizations who have not turned in snap-shots had better do so immediately, or be left out...The current issue of the Saturday Evening Post has a story entitled "Going Through Love" which will make good reading material for any collegian...Wonder if Happy got the gum he was chewing at the game Friday night from "Beechnut" Stahr...Happy doesn't have to play handball for exercise, at least not when he can massage gum the way he did Friday... From Colgate we get a joke which is quite appropriate near the end of the semester. The painted coed went up to the young professor and said "Profy dear, what are my marks?" He put his arm around her and whispered little nothings in her ear. Ha! Ha...The game tonight promises to be a little better than those last week-end. See you all there.

Rowena Caylor he said, "It's a good thing the Lord gave her looks 'cause he forgot everything else." Now he courts her madly and calls her his "dream girl." Gosh how women breed inconsistency.

Perhaps the prize for persistence should go to Chio Anne Stevenson. Yep, she's back in school for her fourth year as a freshman. She claims to be a special student and we agree.

Another Marriage

We read by the papers that Blanche Griffin and Ralph Kercheval were married last Sunday morning. At this time we would like to offer them a wish for much happiness and many little happinesses.

Paging Mr. Crosby

The romance between Agnes Gilbert and Jerry Holstein is rapidly emerging from the embryonic stage. By Spring we prophesy love in bloom, or something.

Embarrassing Moment No. One

We hear that Jimmy "Bud" Anderson and Elizabeth Anne Ligon underwent an embarboys. Some of the girls would like it too.

Throwing Rice

J. Rice Walker was in a candy store Friday buying a Valentine. He said it was for his mother. "Mother" Lucile Thornton tells us it was darn good candy.

Please Believe Me

Lon McLoney played "Please Believe Me" on the victrola in the Tavern about twenty times the other day for Lois King's benefit, rassing few minutes at the KD house the other night over a question of feminine contours.

Among the Elite

From on interview of the more popular boys at the Paris leap year dance we get the following statements:

Dick Robinson: "It was the best yet, and was I popular."

Hugh Brent: "Gesse guy, how the girls fought over me."

Railey McConnell: "Some of those women sure did dance peculiarly."

Return of the Prodigal

Saw Dodd Best in the Tavern Wednesday accompanied by his old love, Kappa Nell Duerson. Looks like our alumni just can't stay away from the old Alma Mater.

Jackson Again

"Laby Baby Boo" Jackson says he likes these Leap Year Lopes better than the regular dances. Along with Walt Hillenmeyer, Dick Bush, and Frank McCool, he was the "Belle of the Ball" at the one last Friday. Too bad leap year doesn't come more often, boys. Some of the girls would like it too. It is one great year. Probably some of the co-eds would like it even more than the boys.

An Engagement

We get it straight from Huntington, West Virginia, that Sara Slack, one of last year's proteges of this column, is engaged.

"Is There a Doctor in the, etc."

Betty Menzies ,to ditch a date the other night, developed a sprained back or something. The news traveled and several people called to inquire about her. Now Betty has to limp to make good her story.

* * *

Another Sweet Sixteen

Dot McCammish wants us to let all the boys know that she really has been kissed twice since she's been to college.

* * *

I make a move that Louis "Slurp" Brock and Barbara Wiley find another place for their sickly love making besides Dunn's at the lunch hour. After all, us folks like to be able to digest our dinners halfway, if possible.

Ring Out, Oh Bells

Perhaps we are wrong but it is rumored that Chio Lucy Guerrant and Sigmachi Irwin Faber are to be maried in May.

Rhythm Is Their Business

Two might fine bands are scheduled to play here within the next two weeks. Harry Richman for the Phidelt dance Saturday night and Ace Brigode for the Pikaps the following Saturday.

Bazil Baker talks about Gladys Dimock as though she was a handicap horse like Discovery...Help Wanted—One of this columns favorite subjects, Mary LeBus, has dropped out of school and Doss Reid (III) states that he is open for suggestions from any real good looking girls. Adv.

Next week we will tell you about Jimmy Bersot and His Knights of the Bathtub for Those that Are Slipping...its a riot...Doug Parrish has ben caught wearing pajamas under his clothes the last few times he's been out to school for a date...must be a Boy Scout...from the Tridelt house we get it that Lib Jones is getting mighty tired of waiting for Prentiss Douglas to make up his mind between her and Anna Bain Hillenmeyer . . . but don't worry about this, Cuba, for we all believe you are the power....Bill Gorman is evidently tired of having Dorothy Hazelrigg smoke his pipe all the time as he presented her with one the other day...Lois Perry is threatening to disrupt the Chio pledges since Mary Jane Eddy was pledged the second semester and is stealing Lois' little boy, Jimmy Irvine...Harry Bullock and Mary Lou Stark are being seen a lot together lately.

MARCH

Smoothie Walter

Wonder if Walter Riddell thought he was pulling a fast one when he asked Dot McCammish to go to the Phidelt dance but asked another of Dot's Kappa sisters to go with him to the dinner party preceding the dance. Chicky Penn ought to be tops after that dirty trick.

The Everlasting Flame

Frank Dailey has finally returned to his love of former years. Being seen with Donohue's girl Edith Reager a lot lately.

Congratulations to the Pi Kaps for the fine dance they gave Saturday night...Ace Brigode and his Virginians turned out some mighty sweet music...Did you notice the guitar player? He was a past master at the art of playing that stringed instrument... And the hand was faster than the eye when he changed picks...

Have you noticed that Frank Borries, the old krauthead, is now letting his hair grow and has taken to combing it...He has also quit smoking—except on Sundays...I guess this Earle gal his put him behind the well-known "eight-ball."

* * *

Walkathon

Johnny Breckinridge isn't driving the green Pontiac any more. He prefers walking with Pat hall flashes, so they say.

Three Is a Crowd

Gamble Dick's one and only, Lucile Thornton, has led him into one of those triangle affairs. Handsome J. Rice Walker is very much "that way" about the Kappa beauty and does she like it! Clark Gable looks like an amateur when Jay puts his technique into effect. Careful, Jay, you were seen in action.

Those Marrying Tridelts

A bridal bouquet to Tridelt Scotty Chambers who became the legal one and only of Triagle Jack Faunce on this last Friday afternoon. Here's hoping that she isn't giving up a battalion sponsorship to take over a "battlin'" sponsorship.

A Lullaby

So Lois King says: "I need no make-up, when wearing pastel colors I look just like a baby." Why doesn't she enter the annual baby show sometime next week?

Attention Kappa lady...looks like Dimock would learn that the Pikaps are out for no good where she is concerned...check me there, Dailey...Why is Dick Robinson dressing up so much for lately...it's not like him at all...Doesn't Sara Hounsavall ever go to school...all I ever see her doing is sitting on the steps courting...most anybody...Wanda Strong really thinks "Tooty" Willis is the thing...so does Tooty...the Chios must be reforming or something .... didn't hear a thing bad on them all week...Maddox (Mamie) doesn't seem to miss Cawood since he threw her down...she just courts all the time, and if Jackson thinks that he's getting over with the other one he should tour down to the hall some night...Lois King can really take it...

Excerpt from the Courier-Journal

Marriage licenses issued at Jeffersonville from March 4 to March 11 included:

Philip J. Davidson, Beaver Dam Falls, Pa., to Dorothy L. Moore, Lexington. That really must have been a case of love at first sight.

Queer Set-Up Is Right

We have two brothers in school that court the same girl — which is unusual. It's Sigmachis Herman and Jimmy Dotson and they both rush through dinner, as the first to get outside gets the car and can take Aphagam Mary Stilz riding.

Virginia Alsop and Elvis Stahr must be trying to show each other just how little they care. She goes to the ATO house for dinner last Sunday and he turns around and takes Kappa Anne Payne Perry to the Guignol opening night.

Try Pleading, Bluenose

'Tis said that the only reason that Bob Forsythe hasn't pinned Helen Irvin is because his pin belongs to his brother who won't let Bob part with it, even to a fine girl like Helen.

Hit's a Mystery to Us

Now, just how did Mamie Maddox get that black eye which she has been toting around for the last four or five days? She says that it was due to a fall down the steps in the Ben Ali. Well, far be it for us to question her alibi.

New Theme Song

When did the Sigmachis get their new theme song? At the dance Saturday night for the S. C. special, Fiddler played "I Got Plenty of Nothing." Does anyone get the connection?

The Question

I guess C. T. Hertzsch will have to settle down when A. E. Fishback comes back from Florida next week — but will he?

* * *

George Tullock seems to be having trouble with his love affairs. First he started courting Tridelt Mary Walker Flowers but finding the competition too strong there, he turned to one of the good sisters. After this one we suppose it will be his old flame Kappa Edith Reager.
