VALUABLE INFORMATION FOR BUSINESS MEN.

DEMAND NOTES are payable on presentation, without grace, and bear legal interest after a demand has been made, if not so written. An endorser on a demand note is holden only for a limited time, variable in different States.

A NEGOTIABLE NOTE must be made payable either to bearer, or be properly endorsed by the person to whose order it is made. If the endorser wishes to avoid responsibility, he can endorse "without recourse."

A JOINT NOTE is one signed by two or more persons, who can each become liable for the whole amount.

NO GRACE is allowed in the majority of States on time notes after the time for payment expires. If not paid when due, the endorser, if any, should be legally notified to be holden.

NOTES FALLING DUE ON SUNDAY, or on a legal holiday, must be paid the day following as a rule.

ALTERING A NOTE in any manner, by the holder, makes it void.

NOTES GIVEN BY MINORS are void.

THE MAKER OF A NOTE that is lost or stolen is not released from payment if the amount and consideration can be proven.

NOTES OBTAINED BY FRAUD, or given by intoxicated persons, cannot be collected.

AN ENDORSER has a right of action against all whose names were previously on a note endorsed by him.

A BILL OF EXCHANGE OR DRAFT is an order drawn by one person or firm upon another, payable either at sight or at a stated future time.

A note dated on Sunday is void. An endorser of a note is exempt from liability if not served with notice of its dishonor within 24 hours of its non-payment. Notes bear interest only when so stated. Principals are responsible for their agents. Each individual in partnership is responsible for the whole amount of the debts of the firm. Ignorance of the law excuses no one. It is a fraud to conceal a fraud. It is illegal to compound a felony. The law compels no one to do impossibilities. An agreement without a consideration is void. Signatures in lead pencil are good in law. A receipt for money is not legally conclusive. The acts of one partner bind all the others. Contracts made on Sunday cannot be enforced. A contract with a minor is void. A contract made with a lunatic is void. Written contracts concerning land must be under seal.

DEPOSITS OF MONEY in a bank placed to the credit of depositors are always subject to their check for full amount due.

1000 shingles, laid 4 inches to the weather, will cover 100 square feet of surface, and 5 pounds of shingle nails will fasten them on.

One fifth more siding and flooring is needed than the number of square feet of surface to be covered, because of the lap in the siding and matching.

1000 laths will cover 70 yards of surface, and 11 pounds of lath-nails will nail them on. Eight bushels of good lime, 16 bushels of sand, and 1 bushel of hair will make enough good mortar to plaster 100 square yards.

A cord of stone, 3 bushels of lime, and a cubic yard of sand will lay 100 cubic feet of wall.

Five courses of brick will lay 1 foot in height on a chimney; 6 bricks in a course will make a flue 4×12 inches; and 8 bricks in a course will make a flue 8×16 inches.

Cement 1 bushel and sand 2 bushels will cover 3½ square yards 1 inch thick, 4½ square yards ¾ inch thick, 6¾ square yards ½ inch thick. One bushel of cement and 1 of sand will cover 2¼ square yards 1 inch thick, 3 square yards ¾ inch thick, and 4½ square yards ½ inch thick.

EXAMPLE.—To ascertain at what hour it will be high tide at Sandy Hook on the 1st of July, find first the time of high water at New-York under that date, and then subtract 32 minutes, as found in above table opposite Sandy Hook; the result is the time of high water required.

WEATHER SIGNALS.

When black triangular flag is placed above white or blue flag it indicates warmer; when placed below, colder weather. For example—3, 1, 2 indicates warmer, fair weather, followed by rain or snow.

HELP IN CASE OF ACCIDENTS

DROWNING.—1. Loosen clothing, if any. 2. Empty lungs of water by laying body on its stomach, and lifting it by the middle so that the head hangs down. Jerk the body a few times. 3. Pull tongue forward, using handkerchief, or pin with string, if necessary. 4. Imitate motion of respiration by alternately compressing and expanding the lower ribs, about twenty times a minute. Alternately raising and lowering the arms from the sides up above the head will stimulate the action of the lungs. Let it be done gently but persistently. 5. Apply warmth and friction to extremities. 6. By holding tongue forward, closing the nostrils, and pressing the "Adam's apple" back (so as to close entrance to stomach), direct inflation may be tried. Take a deep breath and breathe it forcibly into the mouth of patient, compress the chest to expel the air, and repeat the operation. 7. DON'T GIVE UP! People have been saved after HOURS of patient, vigorous effort. 8. When breathing begins, get patient into a warm bed, give WARM drinks, or spirits in teaspoonfuls, fresh air, and quiet.

SUNSTROKE.—There are two important indications for treatment—reduction of temperature and the use of stimulants. The patient should first be removed to a cooler spot if possible, or at least where shade can be secured. The treatment should be begun at once. The clothing about the neck and body must be either loosened or removed. Cold is particularly indicated in cases where there is great heat of the body, and delirium and convulsive movements are present. This means of reducing the temperature may be applied in the shape of cracked ice about the head and spine, or the use of cold water. If the heat of the body is very great, it may be necessary to wrap the patient in sheets wet with cold water. If there is, besides the great heat, evidence of serious depression, stimulants must be used while the cold is being applied.

BURNS AND SCALDS.—Cover with cooking soda, and lay wet cloths over it. Whites of eggs and olive oil. Olive oil or linseed oil, plain, or mixed with chalk or whiting. Sweet or olive oil and lime-water. Shock, which is always present in severe burns, requires the administration of stimulants. Pain is more constant and intense in burns than in any other form of injury, and requires sedatives, which should be administered by the medical attendant. Later on the appearances of inflammation and other complications are to be carefully watched for.

HÆMORRHAGE.—The usual treatment is rest in the recumbent position; small pieces of ice should be freely swallowed, and the application of ice wrapped in a towel, or in an ice-bag, or snow, cold water, etc., over the stomach; hot applications may be applied to the extremities.

FIRE IN A BUILDING.—Crawl on the floor. The clearest air is the lowest in the room. Cover head with woolen wrap, wet if possible. Cut holes for the eyes. Don't get excited.

Ground frozen hard today and the chill in the air unpleasantly suggestive of snow.

After morning work Mary & I went down to the stores. Attended to errands for Cornelia & the rest.

Helped Dorne on scrap book afternoon. Long call from Louise Condit.

Early bedtime.

Mother troubled with slight cold.

Wea. SUNDAY 16 Ther.

Much colder. Cornelia and Mother keeping company with colds.

Mary and I at church.

Louise Condit invited me home to dinner but I declined.

Robert in afternoon.

Mary and Abby, Robert and Henry at evening service.

Started in full winter underwear today.

Wea. MON. DEC. 17, 1900 Ther.

Less chilly, but slightly inclined to rain. Caught a few drops while taking my walks. Got things for the holidays. Fifth dinner had oranges again, many meal ales.

Cornelia out. Mr Peers put down oil-cloth in front entry. Lyman boys here in evening for games

Wea. TUESDAY 18 Ther.

Quite mild. Down street to do Christmas errands. Book ordered is here, - Phillips Brooks "Letters of Travel." The grand Bishop does not interest me as a letter writer, much to my disappointment. A letter from Mrs. Culbert-son, the first since John Francis died. Very busy day Abby cleaning bedroom. Many moving into winter quarters tonight. Roberts annual call

Wea. WED. DEC. 19, 1900 Ther.

Dank poisonous fog in morning, reaching through forenoon in its chill and dampness. The afternoon sun quite pleasant. A letter from Aunt Selina with word of Uncle A's death after a brief illness, on the 10th. — Cornelia quite disturbed with her cold. Abby finished bedroom.

Sore throat for me in roof of mouth. Early bedtime.

Wea. THURSDAY 20 Ther.

Severe frost last night.

I sniff and mope today with my cold. — Woolly & Aunt Selina, — did little else. Abby & Mary out in afternoon. Mr Peters & Henry gave the front of the hill a good raking & sweeping.

Mother al-repairs our per flannel wrapper. Cornelia out. Mother's coal-glasses come to sight.

Wea. FRI. DEC 21, 1900 Ther.

Another keen frost and a bother for Dorothy with frosty hide, at early day. Mr. Peers and Henry wheeled it up on the wheelbarrow. No walk. Cold annoying, having reached the cough spot. Cornelia send things to Richmonds. Two grackles gone and two more destined to our Christmas spread. Letter to Mother from Aunt Abbie Annie Callihan here tonight.

Wea. SATURDAY 22 Ther.

Milder. Cold some better. Chester C. came in for Annie. Started home about three P. M. Abby Mr. P. & John went to Groton after dinner. Home about four. A new suit for Mr Peers from Abby and an overcoat from John. Box from Ida with nice things, a lovely muff for me, collars, etc all around. Henry's hand-by car.

Wea. SUN. DEC. 23, 1900 Ther.

Slight rain. No one at church from here.

Mother beginning on a fresh cold which I hope will be less troublesome than mine, which combines so much whooping, tickling, weeping, etc., that to-day it's well worn out.

Wea. MONDAY 24 Ther.

Chilly. Frost, but not freezing.

All busy pk-Christmas doings.

Cornelia went to Collettsburg.

My cold better, but not out. Mailed letter to Ida

Letter from Aunt Selina

Henry's hand-boy carriage.

Wea. TUES. DEC. 25, 1900 Ther.

A Good day for the fireside.

Children had a tree, where Strange fruitage was dealt liberally to all by Mary. — A picture of The Youthful Christ from her. — Many things for all. Rocking chair for Mary from Hilton. Gold watch from Robert Hilton Nathan blue.

Wea. WEDNESDAY 26 Ther.

Short day. Slight Snow.

Nothing cold is annoying her in connection with an upset Stomach.

Henry's hand has been painful, but is improving.

Baby Columbian Yeast Powder

Wea. THUR. DEC. 27, 1900 Ther.

Heavy fog, but sunshine afterward.
Mother's cold better.
Mine very tiresome.
Wrote to Madge S.
and sent postal to E.
P. Dutton & Co.
Wrote to Aunt Selina
since Xmas. Wrote today to Virginia Page and mailed
her a copy of Evangeline.

Wea. FRIDAY 28 Ther.

Rain last night. The ground soft and streets very sloppy. No getting out for me. Wrote to Ida.
Mother's cold still
quite unpleasant.
Mary also having a turn and all half ailing in one way or another. Henry's hand doing well. Fellows' Hypo. doing wonders for Mr. Pease.
My cold still worrying.

Wea. SAT. DEC. 29, 1900 Ther.

Bright sunshine, tempting to shutting. Mother quite indisposed today, the catarrhal cold being at its height. She keeps her room now till better.

Sent letter to Ida, and the "Letters", - the other book not arriving. Read some in the papers and the blue book,

Wea. SUNDAY 30 Ther.

Dark morning, settling into rain which froze as it came to the ground. Mother still keeping her room and coughing freely, but seeming better than yesterday.

Rain continued at a steady rate all day.

Wea. MON. DEC. 31, 1900 Ther.

Gray, wavering awhile between clouds and sunshine, finally settling into sober tones for the afternoon.

Mother had a disturbed night with her cough and is far from comfortable today. Chester and Andrew came in this afternoon.

Letter from Cornelia

The book of the year is closed.

Look Up.

"Enough of sweet and fair
Hobnes for hope to see;
Enough for hope is the summer air
The song in the summer tree.

Fair things in plenty spread
They fill faith's quiet eye;
The heart that hungers and is fed
Fears not the by-and-by.

Fixed be the upward gaze
The lifted eyes of trust;
The green looks up from the April way
The daisy from the dust."

John Vance Cheney.

Riddle.

"Little Miss Fidget
With one eye and
a long tail, -
And as she skips
from gap to gap
She leaves a bit of her tail in the trap."

Dictated by Miss Mollie Richeson.

Rules for Computing Interest.

The following will be found to be excellent rules for finding the interest on any principal for any number of days. When the principal contains cents, point off four places from the right of the result to express the interest in dollars and cents. When the principal contains dollars only, point off two places.

Four per Cent.— Multiply the principal by the number of days to run, and divide by 90.

Five per Cent.— Multiply by number of days, and divide by 72.

Six per Cent.— Multiply by number of days, and divide by 60.

Seven per Cent.— Multiply by number of days, and divide by 52.

Eight per Cent.— Multiply by number of days, and divide by 45.

Nine per Cent.— Multiply by number of days, and divide by 40.

Ten per Cent. — Multiply by number of days, and divide by 36.

Twelve per Cent.— Multiply by number of days, and divide by 30.

Fifteen per Cent.— Multiply by number of days, and divide by 24.

Eighteen per Cent. — Multiply by number of days, and divide by 20.

Twenty per Cent.— Multiply by number of days, and divide by 18.

Twenty-four per Cent.—Multiply by number of days, and divide by 15.

Explanation of the Currencies of the various Countries.

AUSTRIA AND RUSSIA.—The Paper Currencies are continually subject to important fluctuations.

In FRANCE, BELGIUM, SWITZERLAND, AND ITALY, 1 franc = 100 centimes. GERMANY, 1 mark = 100 pfennig. HOLLAND, 1 florin or gulden = 100 cents. NORWAY, SWEDEN, AND DENMARK, 1 kroner = 100 öre. UNITED STATES, 1 dollar = 100 cents. SPAIN, 1 peseta = 100 centavos. AUSTRIA, 1 florin = 100 kreuzer. PORTUGAL, 1 milreis = 1000 reis. GREECE, 1 drachma = 100 leptas. TURKEY, 1 piaster = 40 paras. RUSSIA, 1 rouble = 100 copecks.

Italian notes and silver are not current in France, Belgium, and Switzerland, but the silver of these countries passes current in Italy.

Help in Case of Accidents.

DROWNING.— 1. Loosen clothing, if any. 2. Empty lungs of water by laying body on its stomach, and lifting it by the middle so that the head hangs down. Jerk the body a few times. 3. Pull tongue forward, using handkerchief, or pin with string, if necessary. 4. Imitate motion of respiration by alternately compressing and expanding the lower ribs, about twenty times a minute. Alternately raising and lowering the arms from the sides up above the head will stimulate the action of the lungs. Let it be done gently but persistently. 5. Apply warmth and friction to extremities. 6. By holding tongue forward, closing the nostrils, and pressing the "Adam's apple" back (so as to close entrance to stomach), direct inflation may be tried. Take a deep breath and breathe it forcibly into the mouth of patient, compress the chest to expel the air, and repeat the operation. 7. DON'T GIVE UP! People have been saved after HOURS of patient, vigorous effort. 8. When breathing begins, get patient into a warm bed, give WARM drinks, or spirits in teaspoonfuls, fresh air, and quiet.

SUNSTROKE.—There are two important indications for treatment — reduction of temperature and the use of stimulants. The patient should first be removed to a cooler spot if possible, or at least where shade can be secured. The treatment should be begun at once. The clothing about the neck and body must be either loosened or removed. Cold is particularly indicated in cases where there is great heat of the body, and delirium and convulsive movements are present. This means of reducing the temperature may be applied in the shape of cracked ice about the head and spine, or the use of cold water. If the heat of the body is very great, it may be necessary to wrap the patient in sheets wet with cold water. If there is, besides the great heat, evidence of serious depression, stimulants must be used while the cold is being applied.

HÆMORRHAGE.— The usual treatment is rest in the recumbent position; small pieces of ice should be freely swallowed, and the application of ice wrapped in a towel or in an ice-bag, or snow, cold water, etc., over the stomach; hot applications may be applied to the extremities.

FIRE IN A BUILDING.— Crawl on the floor. The clearest air is the lowest in the room. Cover head with woolen wrap, wet if possible. Cut holes for the eyes. Don't get excited.

Help in Case of Accidents.

BURNS AND SCALDS.— Cover with cooking soda and lay wet cloths over it. Whites of eggs and olive oil. Olive oil or linseed oil, plain, or mixed with chalk or whiting. Sweet or olive oil and lime-water. Shock, which is always present in severe burns, requires the administration of stimulants. Pain is more constant and intense in burns than in any other form of injury, and requires sedatives, which should be administered by the medical attendant. Later on the appearances of inflammation and other complications are to be carefully watched for.

SUFFOCATION FROM INHALING ILLUMINATING GAS. —Get into the fresh air as soon as possible and lie down. Keep warm. Take ammonia — twenty drops to a tumbler of water, at frequent intervals; also, two to four drops tincture of nux vomica every hour or two for five or six hours.

TESTS OF DEATH.— Hold mirror to mouth. If living, moisture will gather. Push pin into flesh. If dead, the hole will remain; if alive, it will close up. Place fingers in front of a strong light. If alive, they will appear red; if dead, black or dark.

MAD DOG OR SNAKE-BITE.— Tie cord tight above wound. Suck the wound and cauterize with caustic or white-hot iron at once, or cut out adjoining parts with a sharp knife. Give stimulants, as whisky, brandy, etc.

FIRE IN ONE'S CLOTHING.— Don't run — especially not downstairs or out-of-doors. Roll on carpet, or wrap in woolen rug or blanket. Keep the head down, so as not to inhale flame.

FIRE FROM KEROSENE.— Don't use water, it will spread the flames. Dirt, sand, or flour is the best extinguisher, or smother with woolen rug, table-cloth, or carpet.

CINDERS IN THE EYE.— Roll soft paper up like a lamp lighter, and wet the tip to remove, or use a medicine dropper to draw it out. Rub the other eye.

FAINTING.— Place flat on back; allow fresh air, and sprinkle with water. Place head lower than rest of body.

STINGS OF VENOMOUS INSECTS, ETC.— Apply weak ammonia, oil, salt water, or iodine.

LIGHTNING.— Dash cold water over a person struck.

Poisons and Antidotes.

FIRST.—Send for a physician.

SECOND.—INDUCE VOMITING, by tickling throat with feather or finger. Drink hot water or strong mustard and water. Swallow sweet oil or whites of eggs.

Acids are antidotes for alkalies, and vice versa.

ACIDS, MINERAL.—Chalk, magnesia (plaster off wall in emergency), solution carbonate of soda, emollient drinks, fixed oils.

ACID, CARBOLIC.—Any soluble sulphate, such as magnesia.

ACID, HYDROCYANIC.—Fresh air and artificial respiration, with cold effusion. Ammonia by inhalation and intravenously in vein of leg.

Poisons and Antidotes.

COPPER SULPH.— Yellow prussiate of potash or soap.

CROTON OIL.— Emetics; wash out stomach, followed by mucilaginous fluids, containing opium.

DIGITALIS.— Recumbent posture after emetics. Emetics and opium; give tincture aconite.

ELATERIUM.— Demulcent drinks, enemeta of opium, and external heat.

Wea. FRI. JAN. 11, 1901 Ther.

Rainy day. All shut in Mother stronger to eat and move herself, but coughing much & sad nervous. Nerves provoke the cough to worse manifestation. A helpful call from Dr. Young towards night. He considers progress assured for Mother, which has greatly restored courage to us all.
Letter from Helen McCoy. Ida has grip

Wea. SATURDAY 12 Ther.

Jan. 6, 1901.

"Be not afraid, ye waiting hearts that weep,
For still He giveth His beloved sleep.
And if an endless sleep He wills, so best."

From Browning.

"Then welcome each rebuff
That turns earth's smoothness rough,
Each sting that bids nor sit nor stand, but go.
Be our joys three parts pain
Strive & hold cheap the strain
Learn, nor account the pang; dare, never grudge the throe"

April 25, 1901

From Spurgeon

"If you ever get light, it will be in this way: Christ must be a great light to you. Nobody ever found light by raking in his own inward darkness — That is, indeed seeking the living among the dead".

EMERSON'S ADVICE TO A DAUGHTER.

Finish every day and be done with it For manners and for wise living it is a vice to remember. You have done what you could; some blunders and absurdities no doubt crept in; forget them as soon as you can. To-morrow is a new day; you shall begin it well and serenely, and with too high a spirit to be cumbered with your old nonsense. This day for all that is good and fair. It is too dear, with its hopes and invitations, to waste a moment on the rotten yesterday.

"Memory is a capricious and arbitrary creature. You can never tell what pebble she will pick up from the shore of life to keep among her treasures for what inconspicuous flower in the field she will preserve as the symbol of "thoughts that do often lie too deep for tears" She has her own scale of values for these mementos, and knows nothing of the market-price of precious stones or the costly splendor of rare orchids. The thing that pleases her is the thing that she will hold dust-

"Little Rivers."

"And yet I do not doubt that the most important things are always the best remembered; only we must learn that the real importance of what we see and hear in this world is to be measured at last by its meaning, its significance its intimacy with the needs of our heart and the life of our life. And when we find a little token of the past very safely and imperishably kept among our recollections, we must believe that memory has made no mistake. It is because that little thing has entered into our experience most deeply that it stays with us and we cannot lose it."

"The wild desire to be forever racing against old Father Time is one of the kill-joys of modern life. That ancient traveller is sure to beat you in the long run and as long as you are trying to rival him he will make your life a burden. But if you will only acknowledge his superiority and profess that you do not approve of racing at all, he will settle down quietly beside you and jog along like the most companionable of creatures. It is a pleasant pilgrimage in which the journey itself is part of the destination"

Each in His own Tongue.

"A fire mist and a planet-
A crystal and a cell,-
A jelly-fish and a saurian
And caves where the cave-men dwell;
Then a sense of law and beauty
And a face turned from the clod,
Some call it Evolution,
And others call it God.

"A haze on the far horizon,
The infinite, tender sky,
The ripe rich tint of the corn fields
And the wild geese sailing high-
And all over upland and lowland
The charm of the golden-rod,
Some of us call it Autumn,
And others call it God.

"Like tides on a crescent sea-beach,
When the moon is new and thin,
Into our hearts high yearnings
Come welling & surging in,-

Come from the mystic ocean,
Whose rim no foot has trod,—
Some of us call it Longing
And others call it God.

"A picket frozen on duty,—
A mother starved for her brood,—
Socrates drinking the hemlock,
And Jesus on the rood;
And millions who, humble & nameless,
The straight hard pathway plod,—
Some call it Consecration
And others call it God."

Prof. Wm. Hubert Carruth.

Sleep Sweet.

Sleep sweet within This quiet room
O thou, whoe'er Thou art
And let no mournful
Yesterday
Disturb Thy quiet heart.

Nor let To-morrow
Scare Thy rest
With dreams of coming ill,
Thy Maker fix Thy
changeless mind
His love surrounds Thee still.

Forget Thyself and all the world,
Put out each feverish
light,
The stars are watching overhead.

Sleep sweet, good night,
good night.

be Thy Secrets." Franklin.

Rules for Computing Interest.

The following will be found to be excellent rules for finding the interest on any principal for any number of days. When the principal contains cents, point off four places from the right of the result to express the interest in dollars and cents. When the principal contains dollars only, point off two places.

Four per Cent.— Multiply the principal by the number of days to run, and divide by 90.

Five per Cent.— Multiply by number of days, and divide by 72.

Six per Cent.— Multiply by number of days, and divide by 60.

Seven per Cent.— Multiply by number of days, and divide by 52.

Eight per Cent.— Multiply by number of days, and divide by 45.

Nine per Cent.— Multiply by number of days, and divide by 40.

Ten per Cent. — Multiply by number of days, and divide by 36.

Help in Case of Accidents.

DROWNING.— 1. Loosen clothing, if any. 2. Empty lungs of water by laying body on its stomach, and lifting it by the middle so that the head hangs down. Jerk the body a few times. 3. Pull tongue forward, using handkerchief, or pin with string, if necessary. 4. Imitate motion of respiration by alternately compressing and expanding the lower ribs, about twenty times a minute. Alternately raising and lowering the arms from the sides up above the head will stimulate the action of the lungs. Let it be done gently but persistently. 5. Apply warmth and friction to extremities. 6. By holding tongue forward, closing the nostrils, and pressing the "Adam's apple" back (so as to close entrance to stomach), direct inflation may be tried. Take a deep breath and breathe it forcibly into the mouth of patient, compress the chest to expel the air, and repeat the operation. 7. DON'T GIVE UP! People have been saved after HOURS of patient, vigorous effort. 8. When breathing begins, get patient into a warm bed, give WARM drinks, or spirits in teaspoonfuls, fresh air, and quiet.

SUNSTROKE.—There are two important indications for treatment — reduction of temperature and the use of stimulants. The patient should first be removed to a cooler spot if possible, or at least where shade can be secured. The treatment should be begun at once. The clothing about the neck and body must be either loosened or removed. Cold is particularly indicated in cases where there is great heat of the body, and delirium and convulsive movements are present. This means of reducing the temperature may be applied in the shape of cracked ice about the head and spine, or the use of cold water. If the heat of the body is very great, it may be necessary to wrap the patient in sheets wet with cold water. If there is, besides the great heat, evidence of serious depression, stimulants must be used while the cold is being applied.

HÆMORRHAGE.— The usual treatment is rest in the recumbent position; small pieces of ice should be freely swallowed, and the application of ice wrapped in a towel or in an ice-bag, or snow, cold water, etc., over the stomach; hot applications may be applied to the extremities.

FIRE IN A BUILDING.— Crawl on the floor. The clearest air is the lowest in the room. Cover head with woolen wrap, wet if possible. Cut holes for the eyes. Don't get excited.

Help in Case of Accidents.

BURNS AND SCALDS.— Cover with cooking soda and lay wet cloths over it. Whites of eggs and olive oil. Olive oil or linseed oil, plain, or mixed with chalk or whiting. Sweet or olive oil and lime-water. Shock, which is always present in severe burns, requires the administration of stimulants. Pain is more constant and intense in burns than in any other form of injury, and requires sedatives, which should be administered by the medical attendant. Later on the appearances of inflammation and other complications are to be carefully watched for.

SUFFOCATION FROM INHALING ILLUMINATING GAS. — Get into the fresh air as soon as possible and lie down. Keep warm. Take ammonia — twenty drops to a tumbler of water, at frequent intervals; also, two to four drops tincture of nux vomica every hour or two for five or six hours.

TESTS OF DEATH.— Hold mirror to mouth. If living, moisture will gather. Push pin into flesh. If dead, the hole will remain; if alive, it will close up. Place fingers in front of a strong light. If alive, they will appear red; if dead, black or dark.

MAD DOG OR SNAKE-BITE.— Tie cord tight above wound. Suck the wound and cauterize with caustic or white-hot iron at once, or cut out adjoining parts with a sharp knife. Give stimulants, as whisky, brandy, etc.

FIRE IN ONE'S CLOTHING.— Don't run — especially not downstairs or out-of-doors. Roll on carpet, or wrap in woolen rug or blanket. Keep the head down, so as not to inhale flame.

FIRE FROM KEROSENE.— Don't use water, it will spread the flames. Dirt, sand, or flour is the best extinguisher, or smother with woolen rug, table-cloth, or carpet.

CINDERS IN THE EYE.— Roll soft paper up like a lamp lighter, and wet the tip to remove, or use a medicine dropper to draw it out. Rub the other eye.

FAINTING.— Place flat on back; allow fresh air, and sprinkle with water. Place head lower than rest of body.

STINGS OF VENOMOUS INSECTS, ETC.— Apply weak ammonia, oil, salt water, or iodine.

LIGHTNING.— Dash cold water over a person struck.

Poisons and Antidotes.

FIRST.—Send for a physician.

SECOND.—INDUCE VOMITING, by tickling throat with feather or finger. Drink hot water or strong mustard and water. Swallow sweet oil or whites of eggs.

... I wuz readin' in a paper the other day, 'nd it said that in dealin' with others one's own feelin's wuz the only ones that are of no importance. That makes a mighty good rule to live by. Usually, we take the other tack, 'nd think our own feelin's are the only important ones there are. We fret because we think folks ain't doin' enough fer us, or thinkin' enough about us, 'nd all the time we never once think of doin' things fer 'em, instead. We live fer ourselves, 'nd expect others to live fer us, too; 'nd it doesn't work, fer that ain't the way the world is built.

THE personal element is the first thing always. It matters not what a man says if his character is not in harmony with his words and his profession. Emerson spoke wisely when he said, "What you are makes so much noise that I cannot hear what you say." The country needs good men, and the best any boy or young fellow can do just now is to grow into such a man.
