The University of Kentucky has made great strides toward academic excellence since Dr. Otis A. Singletary assumed the office of president in August, 1969.

Two professional schools — dentistry and pharmacy — have been ranked among the best in the nation. Departments such as political science, history and mathematics have gained national attention. Dr. Singletary had previously served as chancellor at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, executive vice chancellor for academic affairs in the University of Texas system and director for the Job Corps for the Office of Economic Opportunity. He holds degrees from Millsaps College and Louisiana State University.

In the 14 years he has been president, the University has grown to more than 23,400 students on the Lexington campus and about 21,000 students in UK's 13 community colleges, and the University has become one of the major research institutions in the country.

A native of Gulfport, Miss., Dr. Singletary is the author of two books and several monographs. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa Senate.

JERRY CLAIBORNE HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

With his first year as head football coach at the University of Kentucky now a matter for the history books, Jerry Claiborne has turned his thoughts and energies to the task of recruiting players to shore up the thin Wildcat ranks. The end result so far has been a rather impressive list of signees after his first full year of recruiting for the UK program.

A native of Hopkinsville, Claiborne returned to his alma mater after successful tenures at Virginia Tech (61-39-2) and Maryland (77-37-3), where he compiled an overall record of 138-76-5 during 20 years at those two universities.

Claiborne began his coaching career at Augusta Military Academy in Virginia as head coach in both football and basketball. During his two seasons there, Augusta teams won a state championship in each sport.

He returned to UK as an assistant to coach Paul "Bear" Bryant (1952-53) and moved with Bryant to Texas A&M as defensive coordinator. Two years later he joined the Missouri coaching staff as defensive coordinator and then rejoined Bryant at Alabama the following year as assistant head coach in charge of defense. In two of the next three years, Alabama played in the Liberty and Bluebonnet bowls.

As head coach 10 years at Virginia Tech, he compiled a 61-39-2 record, with two of his teams participating in bowl games. In 1963 and 1966, he was selected Southern Conference "Coach of the Year"; in 1966, he was named District III "Coach of the Year."

He spent one year (1971) as an assistant coach at Colorado before taking over a Maryland program that had suffered seven consecutive losing seasons, including one winless season, during that period.

In 10 years at Maryland, he compiled a 77-37-3 record, winning three Atlantic Coast Conference championships and being accorded ACC "Coach of the Year" honors three times (1973, '75, '76). In one stretch, his Maryland teams won 21 straight ACC games, a conference record. They also participated in seven bowl games.

Claiborne was named "National Coach of the Year" by The Sporting News in 1974. He coached five first team wire service All-Americans while at Maryland. His 1976 team went 11-0 in regular season before losing to Houston, 30-21, in the Cotton Bowl.

He was president of the American Football Coaches Association in 1980. He has served on the coaching staffs of various all-star games, both at home and abroad, and has conducted clinics in Germany and England. He is an active member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and has served as a deacon in the Baptist Church.

A mathematics major at UK, he was one of the best students on the football team, accumulating a 2.7 out of a possible 3.0 grade point average. He was a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, leading men's honorary on campus; Lamp and Cross, senior men's leadership honorary and Scabbard and Blade, an honorary fraternity for advanced military science students.

He was selected the "Outstanding Senior" in the College of Education and graduated from UK with "High Distinction." In 1965, he received the University of Kentucky "Achievement Award."

Claiborne holds the UK record for pass interceptions in a season with nine in 1949.

CLIFFORD O. HAGAN

Athletics Director

Cliff Hagan returned to the University of Kentucky in 1972 as assistant to athletics director Harry Lancaster and was assigned the task of implementing the Blue & White Fund for 57,600-seat Commonwealth Stadium and later for the 23,000-seat Rupp Arena, home of the basketball Wildcats.

He replaced Lancaster as athletics director in July 1975; during the ensuing school year, Wildcat teams compiled one of the best records in the school's history, with the basketball team winning the National Invitational Tournament, the wrestling and rifle teams winning SEC titles and the baseball team winning the SEC Eastern Division.

The wrestling team repeated as conference champion the following year, the basketball team finished with a 26-4 record and advanced to the Eastern Regional finals while the football team won seven of 11 regular season games, shared the conference championship and defeated North Carolina in the Peach Bowl.

The football team compiled a 11-1 record and was undefeated in conference action in 1977 while the 1977-78 basketball team won the national championship.

While the athletics teams were winning championships, Hagan supervised an ever-expanding program that now operates with a budget approximating $6-1/2 million. Continued growth in practically all phases of UK athletics has been the hallmark of his reign as athletics director, with fine attendance at football and men's basketball games, increased attendance at Lady Kat basketball games (a national attendance record of 10,622 was set at the Lady Kat-Old Dominion game in Memorial Coliseum last season), and a steady upgrading of facilities.

One of the highlights of the past year was the awarding of radio rights to the UK basketball and football games to the Kentucky Network for a high bid of $319,000 per year for a three-year period that extends through the 1985-86 season. The bid was almost double the winning bid of $168,750 submitted by the network three years earlier and only $3,900 more than the 1982 bid submitted by Jim Host & Associates, which held the broadcast rights for six years prior to 1979-80.

After negotiating with the Kentucky Network, which held an option for three additional years, Hagan decided to re-bid the rights, which resulted in one of the finest radio broadcast packages in the collegiate world.

Also during the past year, the University successfully bid for the 1984 NCAA Volleyball championships to be held in December in Memorial Coliseum. The prestigious NCAA "Final Four" basketball championships will be hosted by the University in March 1985, with the Mideast Regional being held in Rupp Arena the preceding year.

Another big change on the athletics scene is elimination of wrestling as a varsity sport, a move designed to comply with federal regulations under Title IX, which also specifies that the University must increase the number of women participants and head coaches.

One of the newest additions to the department is an Academic Learning Center in Memorial Coliseum.

Hagan has been an advocate of a strong scholar-athlete program, feeling "a genuine commitment to provide all the academic support and encouragement we can to help our athletes leave our campus with a college education and a degree."

1982 IN REVIEW

UK FALLS TO KSU VETS, 23-9

In what was billed by the Kansas State sports information office as a "bold investment," Coach Jim Dickey redshirted 16 players, including eight starters from the 1980 team. That experienced group, along with defensive lineman Reggie Singletary, 1981 Big Eight "Newcomer of the Year," proved too much for the thin UK ranks as Jerry Claiborne began his first season as coach of his alma mater.

Kansas State got on the board early, forcing UK to punt on the game's first series and then advancing from the KSU 30 to the UK 20 in 11 plays, with Steve Willis kicking a 37-yard field goal.

Kentucky took the ensuing kickoff and advanced from the UK 20 to KSU's 33 before being forced to punt. KSU took a fair catch on the 19 and then advanced the ball to the 33 before quarterback Darrell Ray Dickey threw a 67-yard bomb to Mike Wallace with 0:36 left in the first quarter.

The purple-clad Wildcats got on the board again late in the second quarter, scoring on a 43-yard field goal by Willis to take a 13-0 lead into intermission. Both teams were scoreless the third quarter and midway of the final frame, when KSU recovered a UK fumble on its own three and then took a safety after failing to make a first down.

With UK failing to capitalize on the opportunity, KSU scored late in the quarter on a 37-yard field goal by Willis for a 16-2 lead. KSU then recovered a fumbled kickoff by Joe Phillips on the UK-29 and scored eight plays later on a seven-yard pass from Doug Bogue to Eric Mack. Kentucky scored its first touchdown of the season on a 10-yard pass from Randy Jenkins to Rick Massie with 0:01 left on the clock. A kick by Russell Blair cut the KSU margin to 23-9.

SOONERS TOO TOUGH FOR WILDCATS

Kentucky held mighty Oklahoma fairly in check early, limiting the powerful Sooners to a touchdown in the first quarter and a safety in the second quarter, but OU came back with 13 points in the third quarter and seven points in the final period to beat UK, 29-8.

Oklahoma scored on its second possession, marching 62 yards in six plays with Steve Sewell scoring on a 23-yard run off tackle. The Sooners got their safety by tackling UK quarterback Randy Jenkins in the end zone midway of the second quarter.

Oklahoma put the game out of reach by scoring on two consecutive possessions late in the third quarter. After covering 72 yards in nine plays to make the score, 15-0, the Sooners' Darrell Songy intercepted a Jenkins' pass and returned it 40 yards for a touchdown with 1:14 left in the third quarter.

Kentucky got on the board late in the fourth quarter, driving 80 yards in nine plays with George Adams, playing his first game of the season, skirting to his left on fourth and one from the five. (Adams carried nine times for 87 yards.)

Oklahoma came right back with a 53-yard drive for a 29-8 lead with 1:25 remaining.

KANSAS TIES UK IN LAST MINUTE

Kentucky fell behind, 3-0, late in the first quarter on a 29-yd. FG by the Jayhawks' Bruce Kallmeyer, but came back strong with a 13-point 2nd-quarter performance. The initial UK scoring drive began on the UK 42 and culminated nine plays later with George Adams driving over from the one. Chris Caudell missed the kick for point.

The Wildcats scored again just before the end of the quarter, driving for a score (Adams from the two) after Mark Paslick recovered a Kansas fumble on the UK 25.

Kansas started its rally late in the third quarter, marching from the Jayhawk 40 to the UK four, with Frank Seurer completing a four-yard scoring pass to Wayne Capers three seconds into the fourth quarter.

The Jayhawks got their big break late in the quarter, recovering a UK fumble on the Wildcat 48. Seurer drove the visitors to the UK 10, where Kallmeyer hit a 27-yard FG to tie the score with 0:20 remaining on the clock.

CLEMSON TOO STRONG FOR 'CATS

The mighty Tigers scored in every quarter, dominating the Wildcats (272 yds. to -14 yds. rushing) on the ground while UK won the air battle, 246-133.

Clemson scored first on a 5-yd. run by Cliff Austin after taking the opening kickoff and driving from the CL 36. The Tigers then drove 95 yards in 12 plays after a 60-yd. Paul Calhoun punt rolled dead on the CL 5-yd. line. Austin scored on a one-yd. plunge.

On their first possession of the second half, the Tigers drove 79 yards, with Austin skirting left end from the 10. After Bob Paulling hit a 26-yd. FG late in the fourth quarter, UK's Doug Martin led the Wildcats on an 11-play, 71-yard scoring drive, with George Adams passing to Rob Mangas for a two-yd. TD. Martin hit Mangas on the PAT try, but the TE was stopped short of the goal.

FIELD GOALS LEAD AUBURN OVER UK

The Wildcat defense kept Auburn from crossing the goal line, but the Tigers' Al Del Greco kicked UK into submission, tying an NCAA record with six field goals. He kicked three in the first half and three in the fourth quarter. Kentucky's Chris Caudell got the Wildcats' only points with a 36-yarder in the third quarter.

The first Auburn score was set up by an Andy Molls' fumble of a Tiger punt. After Auburn recovered on the UK 10, the UK's defense held, but Del Greco hit a 22-yarder. The second AU FG came after a 62-yard drive, with Del Greco connecting from the 28.

After UK was forced to punt to AU late in the second quarter, Auburn drove from the 15 to UK's eight, where Del Greco connected on a 20-yarder with 0:08 remaining.

Auburn drove the second-half kickoff from the 10 to UK's 22, where Del Greco missed a 39-yd. FG. UK was forced to punt after three downs, but Auburn fumbled the kick and Don Roe recovered for UK at the UK 40. Eight plays later, Caudell put UK on the board.

Del Greco's fourth quarter FG's were from 23, 39 and 38 yards.

LSU DISPLAYS BALANCED OFFENSE

Led by the passing of senior Alan Risher and the running of sensational freshman Dalton Hilliard, the Tigers outgunned the Wildcats both in the air (143-39) and on the ground (285-43) en route to a 34-10 victory.

LSU wasted no time getting on the board, driving 25 yards in five plays after recovering a UK fumble on the second play of the game. Risher threw to Martin for a nine-yard scoring strike.

George Adams fumbled the ensuing kickoff, LSU recovered on the UK 23, and the Tigers were ahead, 10-0, after Juan Betanzos kicked a 37-yard FG. LSU recovered another UK fumble on the UK 23 early in the second quarter and scored three plays later with Risher hitting Herman Fontenot from the six.

Chris Caudell cut the lead to 17-3 with a 45-yd. FG after UK took the ensuing kickoff and drove 51 yards in seven plays. Martin fumbled the kickoff, which UK's Mark Paslick recovered at the LSU 24. George Adams plunged over from the one for a 17-10 margin at halftime.

Betanzos hit a 32-yard FG late in the third quarter; then LSU broke it open, driving 46 yards in five plays and scoring on a two yard plunge by Jesse Miles midway of the fourth quarter.

WALKER LEADS "DAWGS" OVER CATS

Once again, the Wildcat defense "held" eventual Heisman Trophy winner Herschel Walker to less than his average as the All-American gained 152 yards on 34 carries; however, Walker took a simple pass from John Lastinger in the right flat midway of the second quarter and turned it into a 64-yd. TD.

At the time, UK was leading the highly ranked Bulldogs, 14-3, on the strength of a 56-yard touchdown pass on a screen from Doug Martin to Shawn Donigan in the opening series of the game and a 13-yard scoring run by Lawrence Lee in the second quarter.

In between UK scores, Georgia managed a 27-yd. FG by Kevin Butler. Walker's run and a PAT by Bulter cut the UK lead to 14-10 at halftime.

Georgia matched UK's game-opening drive by marching 80 yards in 13 plays, with Lastinger hitting Norris Brown on an eight-yard strike to open the second half. Kentucky held the vaunted Bulldog offense in check until early in the final quarter, when Lastinger threw completion to Chris McCarthy for a three-yard scoring strike. On their next possession, the Bulldogs drove to the UK 21 and got a 38-yard FG from Butler after Freddie Gilbert intercepted a UK pass on the Wildcat 44 and returned it 17 yards.

VPI AGAIN DEFEATS 'CATS, 29-3

Tech returned the opening kickoff 25 yards to the 27, punted on fourth down and got the ball back as John Fitzgerald recovered an Andy Molls fumble on the UK 26. Mike Giacalone then hit Mark Cox for a TD.

The Gobblers came right back to capitalize on another UK miscue, recovering a fumbled snap by QB Doug Martin on the UK nine. Cox made six yards and Billy Hite scored from the three.

Kentucky managed a 25-yd. FG from Chris Caudell before halftime, but got off to a bad start in the second half as Paul Calhoun fumbled a snap from center in a punting situation and gave up a safety.

Cox hit Alonzo Smith with a 14-yd. scoring pass and Tech led, 23-3 with 6:34 remaining in the third quarter. Then the Gobblers opened the fourth quarter with a 52-yard scoring pass from Cox to Clarence Nelson.

TAYLOR PASSES UK INTO SUBMISSION

All-Conference quarterback Whit Taylor hit 22 of 41 passes for 235 yards and two TDs as Vanderbilt's air circus overwhelmed the Wildcats; to make matters worse, the Commodores also pounced on three of UK's six fumbles while recovering four bobbles of their own.

After the teams committed a total of four fumbles and an interception (John McVeigh for UK) in first eight minutes of the game, Vandy settled down and marched 37 yards in eight plays, getting on the board with a 37-yard FG by Ricky Anderson.

Kerry Baird fumbled the kickoff, Dugan Bennett recovered on the UK 19, and Taylor hit Allama Matthews with a 10-yard scoring strike four plays later. Chris Caudell hit a 41-yard FG for UK early in the second quarter, but Vanderbilt nullified it later in the quarter as Anderson hit from 43 yards for a 13-3 Commodore lead at halftime.

Midway of the third quarter, UK put together a 10-play, 67-yard drive that culminated with Randy Jenkins hitting Joe Phillips for an 11-yard TD. UK started the fourth quarter by driving from its own 32 to the VU 28, but Manuel Young stopped the drive by intercepting a Jenkins' pass at the 22. Vandy then drove 78 yards in 10 plays, with Taylor hitting Edwards from the 31 for a 20-10 Vandy lead. Another interception of a Jenkins pass set up a 44-yard FG late in the fourth quarter and a 23-10 Vandy victory.

GATORS BEST 'CATS IN SECOND HALF

Kentucky's outmanned forces fought gallantly, limiting Florida to an 18-13 margin at halftime, but the Gators took the opening kickoff of the second half and marched 75 yards in 17 plays, with Neal Anderson leaping over center for a one-yard TD. The drive ate up 7:17 minutes of the clock.

Florida put the game out of reach on the opening play of the fourth quarter, with Anderson going off right guard for a 37-yard TD. The Gators scored again (16 yd. pass — Bob Hewko to James Jones) after Roger Sibbald intercepted a UK pass and returned it 10 yards to UK's 25 late in the game.

Florida's first score, a 36-yd. FG by Jim Gainey, was set up by a UK fumble that Keith Williams recovered on the Wildcat 24. Kentucky came back with a George Adams TD run from the 14 that was set up by a 51-yard kickoff return by Brian Williams. Guernsey hit a 20-yd. FG early in the second quarter, but Florida came back with a three-yard run by Anderson — two point Wayne Peace to James Jones failed. Kentucky concluded its scoring with a 43-yd. TD pass to Allan Watson by Calhoun on a fake punt play. A Jenkins to Rick Massie attempt for extra points failed and UK led, 13-12, but Florida took the kickoff and drove 76 yards in nine plays for an 18-13 halftime lead.

FIELD GOAL BIG WEAPON AS VOLS WIN

Fuad Reveiz started and ended the game with a field goal and had a total of five when the final horn sounded with Tennessee ahead, 28-7.

Reveiz got his first FG, a 47-yarder, on UT's first drive of the game, but UK came back and drove from its own 20 to the UT 28, where Randy Jenkins pitched back to Terry Henry, who in turn passed to Jenkins for a TD.

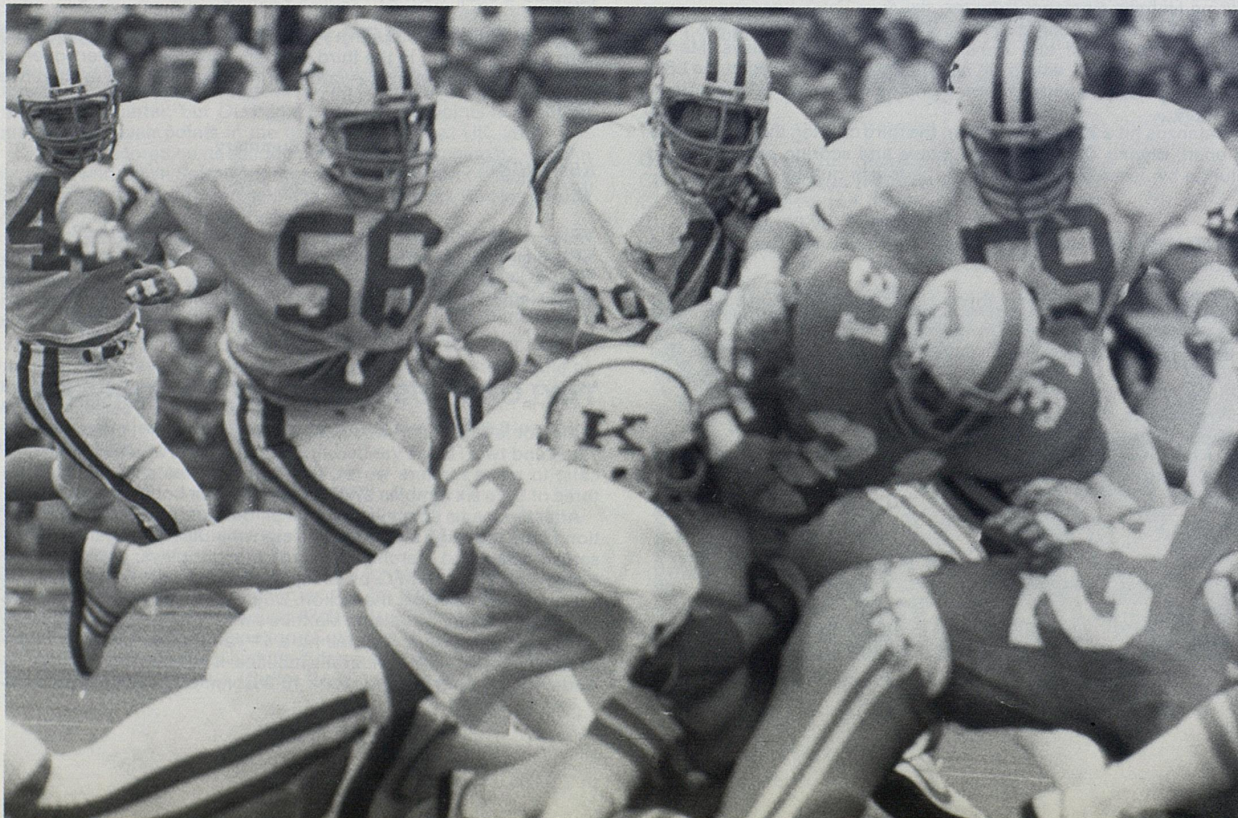

The lead vanished on UT's next drive, with the Vols returning the kickoff 20 yards to the 33 and then powering to the one, with Alan Cockrell hitting Jeff Smith for the score. Reveiz hit a 55-yd. FG with :08 to go for a 13-7 UT lead at halftime.

Tennessee took a firm 19-7 lead on a 64-yard Cockrell to Mike Miller pass midway of the third quarter and then got three FGs from Reveiz in the fourth quarter.

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY FOOTBALL OUTLOOK — 1983

Rebuilding practically the entire offensive line, shoring up a graduation-depleted defensive corps and replacing three graduated fullbacks is the task facing Jerry Claiborne as he enters his second year as head coach of the University of Kentucky football team.

Gone from the offensive front line are center John Maddox, guard Steve Williams, tackle Gerald Smyth, tight ends Rob Mangas and Todd Shadowen and split end Allan Watson. Returning starters include senior guard Ron Bojalad and senior tackle Don Corbin. Senior Don Portis was a starter at guard early last season.

Jerry Klein, a senior center, earned his first letter as a back-up last season. Junior Oliver White saw action at TE, catching 12 passes for 134 yards. James Reichwein stepped from the frosh ranks in mid-season to shore up the depleted offensive guard ranks. Junior tackle Bob Shurtleff saw reserve action in nine games.

Rick Massie, a senior who saw extensive action at both TE and SE, was second leading receiver last season with 16 catches for 172 yards. Joe Phillips started as a sophomore and finished with 16 catches for 169 yards.

Lost from the offensive backfield are fullbacks Shawn Donigan, Terry Henry and Richard Abraham, who combined for a total of 236 yards (62 carries). Returnees include quarterbacks Randy Jenkins and Doug Martin, each with experience as a starter, along with leading rusher George Adams (185 carries for 720 yards) and Lawrence Lee, who carried 29 times for 91 yards, with action limited to five games because of an injury.

Jenkins, a fifth-year senior, completed 92 of 187 passes for 933 yards and 20 interceptions, one shy of the school record 21 interceptions thrown by Davie Bair in 1967. He threw two touchdown passes.

Martin, a junior, completed 39 of 83 passes for 423 yards, six interceptions and a touchdown. Both quarterbacks had minus yards rushing.

Adams, a junior who was held out of the opening game and then pressed into service after Pete Venable was dismissed from the squad, finished as the leading scorer with 32 points. He was the only offensive back with more than one touchdown. Adams also led the team in kickoff returns with 16 for 345 and caught 12 passes for 43 yards.

Tony Mayes, a redshirt freshman last year, had a fine spring season after being switched to tailback and could be No. 2 at that position.

The defensive backfield lost Andy Molls, All-SEC safety in 1981; Tom Petty, Ben Johnson and David Meers. Molls was second-leading tackler (72 & 60) and leading punt returner (11 for 104 yds.). He also returned three kickoffs for 56 yards.

Meers had two interceptions to tie Kerry Baird for the lead in that department. Returning with Baird, a senior, are lettermen Gordon Jackson, a junior, and Brian Williams, a freshman who earned a starting berth after Petty missed the final game of last year. Williams returned five kickoffs for 102 yards and three punts for 25 yards.

The defensive line, consistently outweighed by opponents last season, returns senior guard Keith Martin (37&70), junior guards John McVeigh (44&64), and David Thompson, a starter before receiving a knee injury in the second game; junior tackle Cam Jacobs (44&17), who missed the final game and had a shoulder operation in December, and sophomore tackle Frank Hare. Sophomore Jon Dumbauld and senior Glenn Amerson also lettered at guard.

Junior tackle Jeff Smith, a mainstay on defense in 1981, was sidelined all of last season with a foot injury. Graduated is tackle Effley Brooks.

The end position lost defensive captain David Lyons, fifth leading tackler (61&65) and leader in QB sacks with eight, and Don Roe (32&35). Senior Mark Paslick and junior Stacey Burrell also return.

The kicking game should be solid, returning punter Paul Calhoun, a junior who averaged 41.5 yards on 59 kicks, and sophomore Chris Caudell, 4x4 in field goals and 7x8 in extra points. Caudell also is the kickoff specialist.

CLAIBORNE APPRAISES 'CATS

At split end, Rick Massie appears to be our best right now. He has mobility, and he has displayed his ability. But he must contribute more to our offense than he did last year. We have got to find a way to get the ball to him because he does have speed and he could be a "big play" man. We also have got to get the ball to Eric Pitts, an upcoming freshman who had spots of outstanding play in the spring. We hope that Eddie Simmons, the other person at that position, will fulfill some of his potential because he is one of the fastest persons on our squad.

At the split back position, Joe Phillips had the best spring and appears to be our leading candidate; others who give us some depth are Cisco Bryant and Jeff Piecoro.

At tackle, Don Corbin had the best spring and showed improvement. We hope that Bruce Bozick and Bob Shurtleff both will get stronger and quicker and be able to hold down the other tackle spot. Two defensive tackles, Tom Richey and Vernon Johnson, were moved to offense and had pretty good spring practices. They still have got a lot to learn about offense, but we feel both will help us this fall.

At guard, Ron Bojalad, one of our captains, is coming along real well and is probably our most consistent offensive lineman. Don Portis had a real fine spring practice and showed improvement in all phases of his game. The back-up people are Joe Prince, Jimmy Reichwein, Steve Boeckmann and Terry Williams.

At center, Jerry Klein and Ken Pietrowiak showed fine improvement and will be our No. 1 and No. 2 people, with James Dotson backing them up. Our entire offensive line needs to work hard on quickness and strength. We must get stronger and quicker to block the defensive people we will be competing against.

In the offensive backfield, tailback George Adams had an outstanding spring practice. He is a good runner, a good receiver out of the backfield and he blocks well. Tony Mayes, switched from quarterback to tailback, and Lawrence Lee will give us added depth at that position.

At fullback, where we lost all three starters from last year, Curt Cochran, a sophomore redshirt last season, and Chris Derry, who has never played in a college football game at that position, are our two leading candidates. We need to get quicker and stronger and better blocking at that position by those two plus Al Carter and Mike Shiner.

At quarterback, Randy Jenkins had a good spring practice. Billy Ransdell also picked up things pretty quick and they were our two leading candidates at the end of spring practice. Doug Martin and Mike Whitaker were hurt most of the spring and did not get to participate as much as we would have liked. But they will be the ones who will give some added depth, or maybe help will come from our incoming freshmen.

In our kicking, extra point and field goal, Chris Caudell and John Hutcherson were our two most consistent kickers. We hope Kevin Nelson maybe will come on and help us out in that spot also.

At defensive end, Brian Williams, who we moved from a defensive back, has certainly strengthened our defensive end corps. We hated to move him out of the secondary, but we felt we needed him more at the defensive end spot. He and Stacey Burrell were our two leading ends during spring practice. We hope Don Yarano will increase his quickness and help us at that spot. Those are the three who look like they can compete for us this fall. We hope to get some added depth from Mark Paslick, who was injured and did not participate during spring practice.

At defensive tackle, Cam Jacobs and Jeff Smith, who could possibly be our two starters, did not participate in spring practice due to injuries. We hope that they will be full speed and give us some much needed strength at that position. Jon Dumbauld, Frank Hare and Dan McMillan were our leading candidates at that spot this spring and definitely will see action this fall.

At defensive guard, Keith Martin could be one of the better defensive players in our conference. Other leading candidates in the spring were John McVeigh, Glenn Amerson and Chris Dorazio. Dave Thompson was injured last fall and did not participate in spring practice.

Again, in the defensive line as well as the offensive line, we need added quickness and added strength to compete against the teams on our schedule.

At linebacker, John Grimsley and Kevin McClelland had a good spring practice. Scott Schroeder did not participate in any contact drills due to knee injury suffered last year. We feel those three will be solid linebackers, but we've got to get some help at that position and right now that will have to come from Steve Mazza, Guy Neal, T.J. Wallace and Tony Czack.

In the secondary, we lost four outstanding players and experience is going to be a real problem. Kerry Baird is the only one returning who has a great deal of experience, although Gordon Jackson did participate last year.

Helping out the halfback spots will be Barry Alexander who has not played in a college game, and Carmichael Caldwell. At safety, Paul Calhoun, Russell Hairston and Gary Sexton are candidates and although Paul played last year he still doesn't have that much experience.

Our punting will be handled at this point by Paul Calhoun and Randy Jenkins. We hope that somebody will come in on the freshman squad and give us help at this position, but right now they are the ones who kicked for us last year and probably will do it again this year.

University of Kentucky Radio

The U.K. Sports Network, a division of the Kentucky Network, now in its third year of a three-year contract to broadcast UK sports was successful high bidder for a new three-year contract through the 1985-86 seasons. The network was expanded last year to 81 markets with more than 100 stations in Kentucky and across the country. Fans in more than 40 states hear the games on the network's two 50,000 watt stations — WHAS-Louisville and WCKY-Cincinnati.

Co-ordinator of the network is D. J. Everett, a 1969 graduate of the University. The "Voice of the Wildcats" is Cawood Ledford, now in his 31st year of covering Wildcat sports. Assisting Ledford is Ralph Hacker, president and general manager of radio station WVLK-Lexington, who is in his 12th year as color commentator. Tom Stevens mans the network's wireless microphone on the sidelines while Tom Devine is technical director for the broadcasts.

In the network studios, Harvey Combs, Stan Cook, Steve Bowles and Jerry Snapp are on hand to handle engineering, production and scoring.

Kentucky Television Network

The Wildcat Television Network, in its sixth year, will present via delayed telecasts, all home games on the 1983 Wildcat schedule.

Rob Bromley, WKYT-TV news director, is in his third year on play-by-play. Charlie McCullers, a former UK assistant coach, is in his second year as color commentator.

WKYT-TV Vice President Ralph Gabbard said there will be no live game coverage by his station this fall. In addition to its delayed game coverage, WKYT will air the annual Coach's Show, which was the property of WTVQ-TV last season.

Origin of "Wildcats" Nickname

Kentucky's athletic teams are known to sports fans as the Wildcats. This first and only nickname borne by University varsities had its origin in 1909 in a speech made by Commandant Corbusier, then head of the military department of old State College. Speaking to a chapel audience of students on the showing of the Kentucky football team in defeating Illinois six to two, the Commandant declared "they fought like wildcats." The tag was popularized by word of mouth and by the press with the result that it has since become synonymous with all major Kentucky athletic teams.

Transylvania College of Lexington evolved from old K.U. while A&M became Univ. of Ky. During the process, U. of K. carried successive titles of A&M College, Kentucky State College and State University of Kentucky. See footnote A for explanation of scoring in early games.)

Footnote A — Although numerical scoring had not yet been introduced in Rugby football, either here or in Great Britain, when Kentucky and Transylvania (then known as Kentucky University) played their series in 1881, persons in charge of the games obviously had arrived at some sort of agreement assigning values to the various scoring plays. Records never existed and men who played in the games are now deceased. All we can do is accept the scores printed in the newspapers and surmise that a touchdown perhaps counted 1/4 point and that a goal or an end-kick (a punt into the modern end zone) counted 1. That seems logical, since in the ratio scoring of that day, a touchdown was worth one-quarter of a goal. The end-kick, a British heritage, undoubtedly was introduced because all realized that green players would score few goals, if any.

Footnote B — The football rules took no official position on the score of a forfeited game until 1908 when it was pegged at 1-0 to make it different from any other score possible in the game. By common consent, forfeited games prior to that were entered into the records as victories by 6-0 for the offended team — everywhere, that is, except in the Southern Inter-collegiate Athletic Association, predecessor of the Southern Conference and the South-eastern Conference. In the S.I.A.A., the 6-0 practice was followed unless the offended team had a greater number of points. In that case, the offended team won by the greater score or nothing. Thus, Kentucky's forfeiture to Central University in 1900 is 6-0, since Kentucky led by 11-0 at the time. Kentucky led Cumberland by 12-11 in 1905 when the Tennesseans forfeited. The Blue and White, under S.I.A.A. rules, gets credit for a 12-0 victory.

A Great and Growing University . . .

The University of Kentucky

There is a special flavor about the University of Kentucky that defies explanation. Many students who attend the school choose to remain in the Blue Grass, and wherever fate may lead the others, there's always a special place in their hearts for Kentucky.

The University of Kentucky's 716-acre campus is located just south of downtown Lexington, Ky., which has a population of approximately one-quarter million people. There are approximately 200 buildings and other structures, walks, malls, gardens, playing fields, recreation space and parking areas on campus.

Academic Program

The University has 17 academic colleges: Arts and Sciences . . . Agriculture . . .

Engineering . . . Business and Economics . . . Education . . . Home Economics . . . Library Science . . . Social Work . . . Architecture . . . Communications . . . Fine Arts . . . Law . . . Medicine . . . Dentistry . . . Nursing . . . Allied Health Professions . . . Pharmacy.

Research

The University Library system contains approximately 1.7 million volumes and ranks 13th in the nation in micro-form holdings.

Among the major areas of research at the University are energy, engineering, medical (especially cancer research on the aging) and agriculture (especially in tobacco and equine).

Faculty

UK's faculty numbers 1,430 on the Lexington campus, including a graduate faculty of approximately 950.

Student Body

Enrollment on UK's Lexington campus is more than 23,000. The students come from every county in Kentucky and 48 other states and the District of Columbia and 78 foreign countries.

Approximately 5,400 students live in UK's resident halls with another 1,156 students in UK's 25 fraternities and 17 sororities.

Alumni

The University has approximately 70,000 alumni around the world with more than 22,500 of them paid members of UK's Alumni Association. There are 65 alumni clubs across the nation, with 34 of them in Kentucky and 31 outside the state from California to New York.

Community Colleges

The Lexington campus also is headquarters for UK's Community College System. UK has 13 of these two-year colleges across the state with a current enrollment of 20,700 students.

Medical Center

UK's Albert B. Chandler Medical Center has a wide range of programs in education and research. The five colleges — Medicine, Dentistry, Nursing, Pharmacy, and Allied Health Professions — have more than 2,000 students pursuing bachelor, master's and doctoral degrees in health-related fields.

The Medical Center also has a 470-bed University Hospital as part of its teaching and service programs.

Heart of the Blue Grass Country. Homeland of Daniel Boone and the most famous race horses in the history of the sport. A place of uncommon grace and charm. Home of the "Big Blue" . . . "Wildcat Country" . . . the University of Kentucky.

Lexington is all that. And much more. Prepare for the unexpected when you first set foot into the city or on the University of Kentucky campus. Expecting quaint old buildings? What you'll find is the best of traditional architecture in a magnificent blend of new and appealing modern architecture.

Lexington fast is becoming a model for cities seeking to solve downtown deterioration. Modern buildings include a new Radisson Hotel that adjoins the modern Hyatt Regency and the Lexington Center, which houses a modern shopping complex, convention center and the fabulous 23,000-seat Rupp Arena. The Second National Bank Plaza opened last fall while the new Marriott Resort Hotel just minutes from downtown features a golfing-condominium complex.

Triangle Park, which is flanked by the Lexington Center and the two large hotel complexes features a beautiful fountain area highlighting a downtown area that is modern, growing and alive with vitality.

Within jogging distance of downtown is the University of Kentucky campus, home of more than 20,000 students. Founded in 1865, the University has achieved an enviable record in the quality and scope of academic offerings.

There is a feel of the past in both Lexington and the University, but there also is the excitement of the future as modern shiny, new buildings continue to spring up in both areas.

The city itself is noted for high profit industries that do not pollute the air. International visitors involved with horse racing, visit the city each Spring and Fall. Lexington features Keeneland, the most beautiful track in the country, a non-profit organization that donates much to charities throughout the area. Keeneland is where the Blue Grass Stakes helps determine the Kentucky Derby favorite.

Only blocks from downtown is "The Red Mile," fastest harness-racing track in the world and home of the Kentucky Futurity, one of the premier races on the "Grand Circuit." During eight or nine days in the fall, the nation's best standardbred horses are raced over the famous red-clay oval. There is also the Kentucky Horse Park, where world equestrian events are scheduled on a regular basis.

The UK campus hums with activities — parties and picnics, stage plays, and street dances, private parties and public bonfires, football, fun and fellowship. Most national fraternities and sororities list chapters at UK.

Home football games have been pre-season sell-outs since beautiful Commonwealth Stadium was opened in 1973, which means filling approximately 58,000 seats per Saturday. That gives you an idea of the excitement of football in Kentucky.

Add to the main event, the bonfires, hayrides, street dances, pep rallies, parades and parties both public and private, and you begin to sense the total involvement of the campus community in football.

Of course, there are quiet hours, too. Lexington offers sightseeing, some of the great racing forms of the world, museums, nationally known entertainers, beautiful homes and some of the finest fishing and outdoor sports to be found anywhere.

The University of Kentucky is big, yet everyone seems to know everyone else; it is a big campus, but one where students feel they really "belong." It is a big-time university meeting major opponents, yet it is still a place that meets the needs of each individual. Students from every state in the Union and many foreign countries have found a "home" in Lexington. And wherever life takes them in later years, there's always a special place in their hearts for UK.

"They've got to get their education, and, socially, they've got to be able to meet people."

Jerry Claiborne
UK Football Coach

Kentucky has a football coach who has been described as "Not flashy, but solid as granite," a disciplinarian who insists that his players be students first, athletes second, and always an integral part of the campus scene.

"The football program is just one part of the total university," he said. "The No. 1 thing we're here for is academics. When the University has a Rhodes Scholar, that helps the football program. The better the alumni 'sell' the University in their areas, the better off the University is in all phases. In academics, in athletics, in every respect we want to be the BEST."

He wants his players to have a good presentation and to mix socially with the other students. "It looks good to the other student body," he said. "People who support your program want to see a well-kept, neat group. I think you should always look first class."

"I want them to be serious about their academics and their football," he said, "but I also want them to have fun along the way, which means totally enjoying the whole-some college experience. We want them to get a firm enough foundation so they can go out and be successful in life."

Social, Cultural and Recreational

Opportunities for UK students are not limited to the academic world. Involvement in the social and cultural aspects of University life also is important.

Recognizing this, the University provides the widest range of opportunities for personal and social development. If a student likes music, for instance, the Concert and Lecture Series brings outstanding soloists and symphonies on campus. There are chamber music concerts and hard rock concerts, impromptu bluegrass groups and flute recitals. If one likes to participate, opportunities abound — there are several choral groups, a marching band, the symphony orchestra, the symphonic band — or there is always the guitar with a few friends under the trees. Whichever one chooses, at UK it's available — and there's someone to share it.

There are 22 national fraternities and 16 national sororities on campus. "Rush," or member recruitment, takes place before classes begin, and informally throughout the year.

In addition to supporting the various Wildcat teams, men and women students take part as individuals or in groups in competitive sports and in intramural programs. The Seaton Center houses facilities for basketball, volleyball, badminton, squash, wrestling, and table tennis. An Olympic-size swimming pool, tennis courts, and several sports fields are available to students.

A similar variety of opportunities in drama, student government, athletics, service organizations, and recreation, is available.

The city of Lexington also offers UK students much in the way of entertainment. Lexington has a Philharmonic Orchestra, Chamber Music Society, the Lexington Singers, a Council of the Arts, and a local Ballet Company. Movie theaters, international restaurants, coffee-houses, top-ranked acts of all types at fabulous Rupp Arena in the Lexington Center, historical landmarks, parks, and shopping centers, thoroughbred and harness racing, fine fishing in lakes, ponds and streams . . . all in easy distance of the UK campus.

Tailgating at football games, lining up for tickets to see nationally famous Wildcat teams in Rupp Arena, participating in the "Little Kentucky Derby," attending concerts at the downtown arena or in 11,500-seat Memorial Coliseum on the UK campus, visiting the internationally famous Kentucky Horse Park . . . all just a few of the many attractions of Lexington and the University of Kentucky.

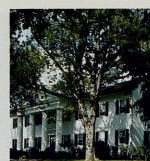

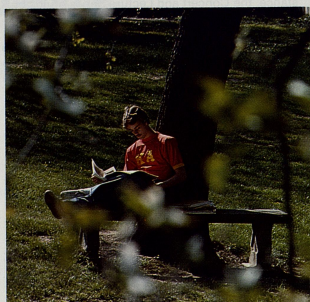

On and off the field, the place to be is Wildcat Country!

There is no other place in the world like being in the heart of the Blue Grass. You can almost hear the stored years of the thundering hoof beats of national champions. Man of War, our most famous race horse, is buried in the blue-green pastureland of Lexington. Just as great horses answer the bugle call of greatness, so do the wearers of the UK Blue & White follow in the footsteps of true champions. This is Wildcat Country. It is a big-time school with a great record to build on. And the football program is on the upswing. It's a great time to get on board and be part of a new Wildcat tradition. There's plenty to do in Wildcat Country. There are mountains and streams of incredible beauty surrounding the campus. There's big-time entertainment mixed with hometown friendliness along with a cultural environment and access to the most exciting cities in America. But most of all Wildcat Country is a fine home away from home. And that's a memory just begging to be lived.

Rupp Arena

Dedicated at the beginning of the 1976-77 season as the nation's third largest basketball facility, Rupp Arena is the fourth home for the internationally famous University of Kentucky teams that had their beginning in 1903.

The first home for the basketball Wildcats was in old Barker Hall, which also housed Buell Armory. They moved to Alumni Gym after the 1923-24 season and then to Memorial Coliseum after the 1949-50 season.

The present home is an awesome structure in sight and scope. The arena is divided in two seating areas — the lower level features 10,000 fully cushioned theater seats in block coloring of blue, red, orange and purple, offering a spectacular splash of color — and an upper level of 13,000 seats on epoxy-coated metal bleachers.

Built by the City of Lexington, the Arena is named in honor of UK's legendary coach, Adolph Rupp, and is the major portion of a $53 million Lexington Center complex that includes a convention-exhibition hall, a 50-story tri-level enclosed shopping mall, a luxury Hyatt Regency Hotel, and a block away, the historic 1,200 seat Lexington Opera House, which was renovated.

Wildcat Mascots Had Colorful Names

Before the advent of costumed mascots, Kentucky athletics teams featured numerous colorfully named live wildcat mascots. Records indicate the first animal, named "Tom," was given the University in 1921. Tom died quickly in captivity and was replaced by "TNT." Other live mascots, including "Whiskers," "Hot Tamale" and "Colonel," followed, only to pass from the scene due to death or being turned loose in the mountains after failing to thrive out of their native habitat. A stuffed mascot "Tucky," obtained from a Brooklyn taxidermist, in 1958, was displayed at UK football and basketball games for a decade before the final live mascot — "Baby" — appeared on the scene for two football games in 1969.

Old Stoll Field

Completed in 1973, Commonwealth Stadium replaced Stoll Field, which was located in the general vicinity where Wildcat football teams had played since their beginning, and did away with the seeming duplication of title — Stoll Field and McLean Stadium — that had caused much confusion among the general public and sport-writing fraternity.

The first intercollegiate football game ever played in the South, and probably the first to take place west of the Alleghenies, was played April 9, 1880, on old Stoll Field, now the site of the new Fine Arts Building and of a parking lot and the new University Book Store.

In that game, Kentucky University (now Transylvania University) beat Centre, 13/3/4-0. The University of Kentucky then called A & M College of Kentucky, did not play its first game until a year later on the same field.

By action of the Board of Trustees, the general area encompassing the old Wildcat playing field was dedicated Oct. 14, 1916, as Stoll Field in honor of the late Judge Richard C. Stoll, prominent alumnus, trustee and benefactor of the University.

The first sections of concrete stadium at Stoll Field were completed Sept. 4, 1924, and named in honor of Price Innes McLean, a 20-year-old UK engineering junior who died of a head injury received in a pile-up in the second game of the 1923 season. The stadium was completed in November 1924.

Major expansions of McLean Stadium in 1948 and 1949 resulted in an overall seating capacity of better than 36,000.

Stoll Field was razed in 1974 to make room for the new Fine Arts Building.

Academic Program Gets Firm Support From Athletics

Thanks to rewarding personal experiences at the University of Kentucky, both UK athletics director Cliff Hagan and Coach Jerry Claiborne are strong believers in student-athletes earning their college degree.

In addition to setting school, conference and national records en route to All-America honors as a basketball player at UK in the early 1950's, Hagan twice was selected among the top ten students in the College of Education. He later received his M.S. in education from Washington University at St. Louis, when he was playing professionally with the Hawks.

Claiborne was selected the "Outstanding Senior" in the College of Education and graduated from UK with "high distinction," accumulating a 2.7 out of a possible 3.0 grade point average while pursuing a major in mathematics.

At the University of Maryland he developed three Academic All-Americans — his son Jonathan in 1973, Kim Hoover in 1975 and Joe Muffler both in 1977 and '78 — along with a total of approximately three dozen players on the All-ACC Academic Football Team.

Three players from his 1982 UK team — Rob Mangas, Keith Martin and Scott Schroeder — were named to the All-SEC Academic Team. Mangas also was recipient of a National Football Foundation & Hall of Fame scholarship.

The most recent addition on the academic scene is a new Learning Center in Memorial Coliseum. Completed in 1982, it contains a large study area, a casual reading lounge, an individualized reading aids center, graduate assistant offices, a career center and several tutoring rooms.

Among the many services provided to the student-athlete by the Center is a diversified reading program that covers everything from a complete diagnosis of reading development for students to courses in critical reading, reading study skills and speed reading.

Key personnel on the staff of Robert Bradley, assistant to the athletics director for academic affairs, are the academic graduate assistants, young people in graduate school — often former athletes themselves — who devote time and effort in helping an undergraduate athlete help himself.

The formula is simple: the AGA works in a one-on-one situation with a student needing help. Together they find the areas that need the most work. It could be a problem with study habits. Or it could be a particular subject that needs additional tutoring. Whatever the need, the AGA goes about providing the needed support and encouragement.

One of the great problems facing the student-athlete is being pressed for time. That's where regular contact with individual counselors can expedite the learning process. Each relationship between the player and his AGA is a specially molded bond with but one goal in mind — a degree for the athlete.

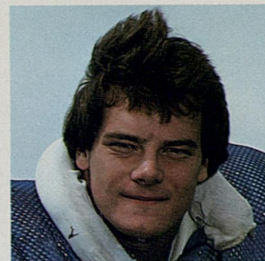

The files are filled with examples of student athletes who praise the AGA system and point with pride to the grade improvement it represents. Scholarships are not automatically easier because there is an AGA program, but for the player who sees the need and does his part, the tough road of college academics is made considerably easier by tutoring.

Parents can readily see the intrinsic value of the AGA. And countless student athletes at the University of Kentucky are thankful that someone cared when they needed help. They take pride in their UK degrees and usually think of a special AGA who played such an important part in its accomplishment.

The University and its Athletic Department also are proud of the AGA system that was developed on the Lexington campus and of continued improvement in the academic atmosphere in Wildcat Country.
