Kentucky has played in a school-record five consecutive bowl games, advancing to the postseason every year since 2006. Entering the 2011 season, UK is one of only 28 teams in the country that has gone to at least five-straight bowls. Kentucky joins Alabama, Florida, Georgia and LSU as one of five SEC schools to share that distinction.

Starters Lost

DT Ricky Lumpkin, DE DeQuin Evans

Junior Martavius Neloms is among nine returning starters on defense. He totaled 55 tackles and two pass breakups last season.

2011 OUTLOOK

Heading into his second season as head coach of the Kentucky Wildcats, Joker Phillips has a team that appears to be a virtual opposite of the squad he took over a year ago.

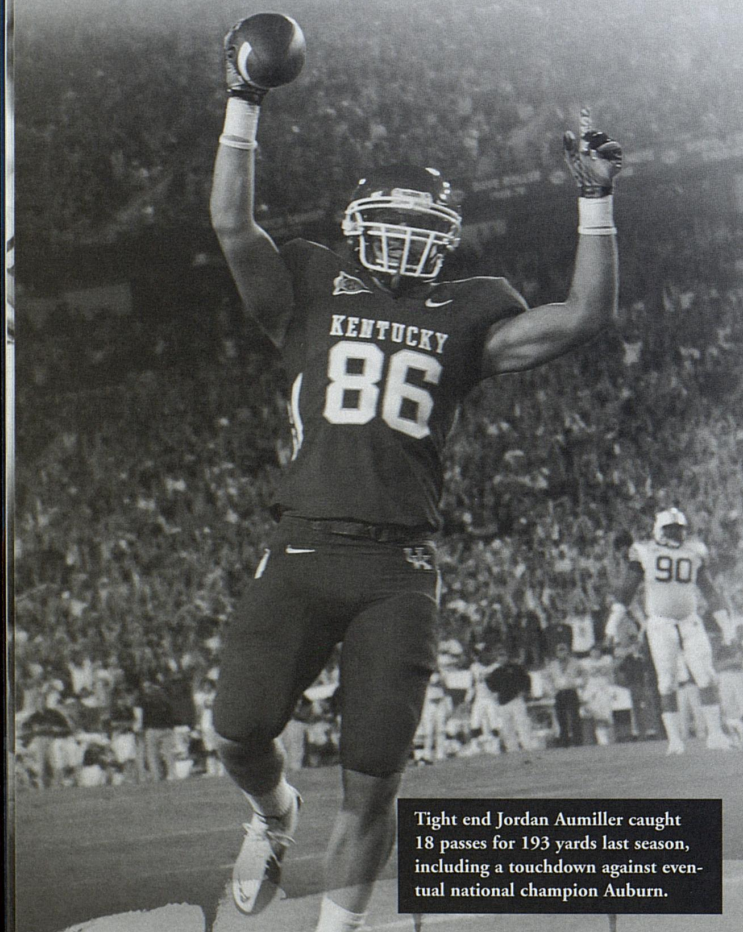

In 2010, Phillips began with a veteran set of offensive playmakers, an offensive line with four starters missing and the most inexperienced Kentucky defense in 20 years.

In 2011, Phillips has seen most of the veteran playmakers depart, an offensive line with four starters back and a defense which features the top 11 tacklers returning.

Phillips' first squad compiled a 6-7 record, including a win at in-state rival Louisville, a victory against No. 10 South Carolina and a school-record fifth-consecutive bowl appearance.

In order to extend that record string of bowl games in the coming season, Phillips says the returnees in the defense and in the O-line must improve while new playmakers are developed.

"We have to be better technicians and play more physical," Phillips said. "We made some good progress in the spring with our passing game and the addition of some new defensive schemes. We have to continue to improve in August in order to be ready for the season."

Tight end Jordan Aumiller caught 18 passes for 193 yards last season, including a touchdown against eventual national champion Auburn.

Offense

Offensive coordinator Randy Sanders and the staff have plenty of work ahead, as long-time stalwarts such as quarterback Mike Hartline, wide receivers Randall Cobb and Chris Matthews, tailback Derrick Locke, and fullback Moncell Allen must be replaced.

The departed players leave a huge hole in production, as Hartline threw for 3,178 yards last year, Cobb set the Southeastern Conference single-season record for all-purpose yardage, Matthews tied for the league lead in touchdown catches and Locke rushed for 2,618 yards in his career. All four earned various All-SEC honors and Cobb was a first-team All-American.

However, there is optimism with some experienced returnees and exciting young players on hand. The frontrunner at quarterback is junior Morgan Newton, who has started nine games over the past two seasons when Hartline was sidelined. During that time, Newton has completed 100 of 178 passes (56.2 percent) for 971 yards and six touchdowns.

"I'm really pleased with how Morgan progressed in the spring," Phillips said. "He's showing the confidence and level of concentration it takes to be a big-time quarterback. He's always been good in the huddle and he handled himself well at the line of scrimmage in spring, changing protections, and then delivered the football."

Newton is backed by freshman Maxwell Smith, who enrolled in January and showed exciting potential during spring practice. Another freshman, Bookie Cobbins, will join the competition in August.

Despite the absence of Cobb and Matthews, the quarterbacks have some tall, talented targets at wide receiver. La'Rod King, who brings 6-4 size and good speed, made big improvements during his sophomore season and caught 36 balls for 478 yards and five touchdowns. Gene McCaskill missed the 2010 season because of injury but was a part-time starter as a freshman and sophomore, totaling 32 receptions in those two seasons. McCaskill hopes to be ready in August.

Several returnees should be ready for a larger role. Swift sophomore Brian Adams came on strong in the spring. Senior Matt Roark has improved steadily during his career and caught 12 passes for 170 yards last year. Roark, at 6-5, the 6-4 Adams, and 6-4 juniors Aaron Boyd and E.J. Fields give UK more sizeable receivers.

Abundant experience returns at tight end with junior Nick Melillo (one reception for 10 yards last season) and sophomores Jordan Aumiller (18 for 193 yards, one TD), Tyler Robinson (11 catches, one TD) and Anthony Kendrick (three receptions). Redshirt freshman Ronnie Shields brings more talent to the position.

The running back slots are wide open following the departure of starters Locke and Allen. Sophomore Raymond Sanders, who rushed for 254 yards and three touchdowns last season, enters preseason practice as the tailback but the position is far from settled. Junior CoShik Williams, sophomore Jonathan George and redshirt freshman Brandon Gainer are in the mix as well. Cody Jones, a transfer from Morehead State, finished the spring as the leader at fullback.

While the returning QBs, receivers and backs now become primary performers and new faces get their chance to shine, the UK offensive line must continue to improve in order to give those players time and space to develop.

Fortunately, there are four starters back from last year's unit – senior left

Warford earned second-team All-SEC honors last season and Hines, who played through injuries last season, was a third-team All-SEC pick in 2009. Senior Billy Joe Murphy, who has started nine games during his career, fills the open slot at right tackle.

The backups have limited experience, however, with senior guard/center Jake Lanefski the only other lineman with significant playing time. Developing depth is a key element for 2011.

Defense

After fielding a youthful unit last season -- Kentucky's most inexperienced defense in 20 years -- the Wildcat defense will be much more experienced in the coming season with the return of the top 11 tacklers from a year ago.

There are some new wrinkles on defense with the addition of Rick Minter, who will be co-defensive coordinator along with Steve Brown. The immediate goal is add Minter's 3-4 defensive system to the 4-3 alignment used in recent seasons.

An intriguing element of the scheme is a pair of hybrid positions -- a safety/linebacker position and a linebacker/end position, which give the coaches the flexibility to adjust the defensive alignment without changing the personnel in the game. An immediate emphasis is creating big plays.

"We want to become a dominant defense," Phillips said. "Once we understand the schemes, (having multiple alignments) will allow us to continue to grow the defense. One of our goals this year is to create more negative yardage plays and takeaways."

Although the top 11 tacklers are on hand from last season, UK wasn't totally unscathed by graduation. Most of the departures were up front with the absence of end DeQuin Evans and tackles Ricky Lumpkin and Shane McCord.

There are several veterans available in the line. At end, juniors Collins Ukwu and Taylor Wyndham have started 16 and 13 games, respectively, during their careers. Ukwu made 26 tackles last season, including one quarterback sack. Wyndham made 27 stops, featuring 4.5 tackles for loss and 2.5 sacks. Senior Antwane Glenn provides experienced depth.

The tackle spots also have multiple contenders. Senior Luke McDermott had 17 tackles last year, including five for loss and three sacks. Senior Mark Crawford made 24 stops, including 4.5 TFL and two sacks. Donte Rumph and Mister Cobble showed noteworthy potential last season as freshmen.

Leading the defense is weakside linebacker Danny Trevathan, who led the SEC with 144 tackles last season. Trevathan also had 16 tackles for loss, three sacks and caused four fumbles. He was named first-team All-America by CollegeFootballNews.com and was a first-team All-SEC pick by multiple selectors. He brings outstanding speed and tackling ability.

Senior middle linebacker Ronnie Sneed totaled 61 tackles last season and showed an ability to get to the quarterback as the season progressed. Ridge Wilson made 30 tackles last year at the strongside linebacker, and like Sneed, played his best ball at the end of the season. Wilson will man the new hybrid linebacker/end spot.

Developing depth is a priority at linebacker, especially for the times that UK will play four linebackers in the 3-4 system. Sophomores Avery Williamson and Qua Huzzie, redshirt freshmen Malcolm McDuffen and Tyler Brause, and January enrollee Tim Patterson are seeking to increase their roles.

Depending on how the opposing offense lined up, Kentucky started five defensive backs in most games last year and the entire secondary returns intact Senior safeties Winston Guy and Mychal Bailey, senior cornerbacks Randall Burden and Anthony Mosley, and junior safety Martavius Neloms give the team plenty of experience in pass defense.

Guy made 106 tackles last season and led the team with three interceptions while earning second-team All-SEC honors. He played the safety/linebacker hybrid in the spring and he made big plays all over the field. In his first season as a junior-college transfer, Bailey made 58 stops and picked off two passes. He should improve with a year of experience.

Burden had a solid season in 2010 and paced the team in pass breakups with six and added an interception in the bowl game. Mosley had a quietly effective campaign in his first year as a regular, breaking up five passes and making the game-winning interception vs. South Carolina. Neloms moved from corner to free safety in the spring and appeared to be a natural fit in the deep role.

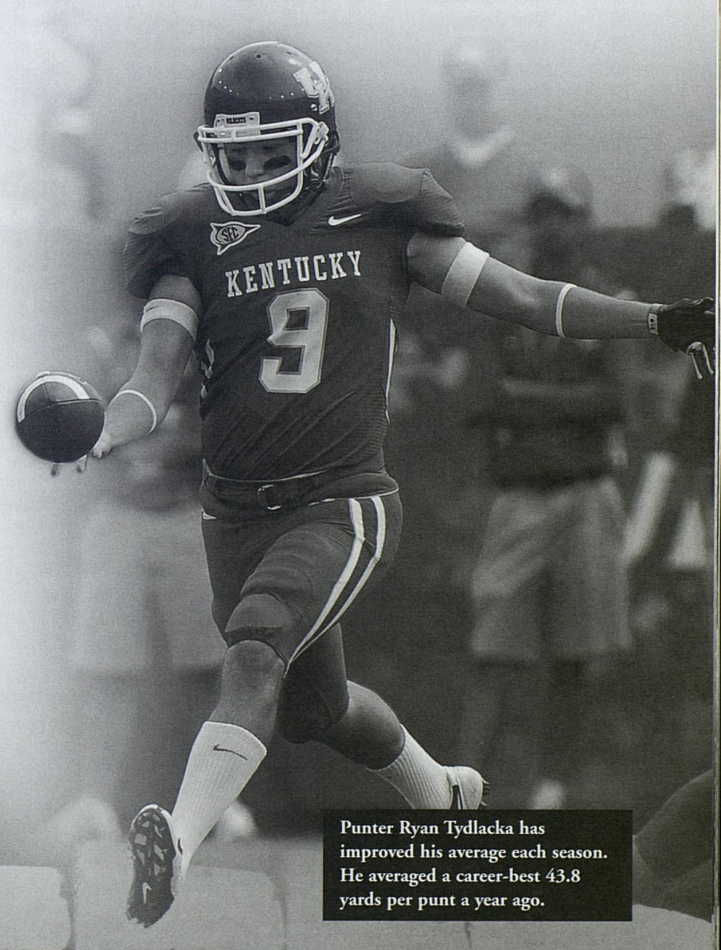

Senior safeties Taiedo Smith and Josh Gibbs, along with junior corner Cartier Rice, provide quality experience as well. With a senior-laden secondary, developing the young players will be a priority in the coming year.

Special Teams

All of UK's kickers and punters return for 2011. Senior punter Ryan Tydlacka has improved each year and averaged 43.8 per punt last season. Junior Craig McIntosh hit 11 of 15 field goals. McIntosh and talented sophomore Joe Mansour each spent time kicking off last season and will continue their placekicking competition.

Two key parts of the kicking game will be Tydlacka as the placekick holder and senior Jon Thomas as the long snapper.

With Randall Cobb and Derrick Locke departed, new punt and kickoff returners also will have to be identified. Raymond Sanders, Jerrell Priester, Winston Guy and Gene McCaskill have limited experience in those roles and other candidates could emerge.

Punter Ryan Tydlacka has improved his average each season. He averaged a career-best 43.8 yards per punt a year ago.

CAT SCRATCHES

First-Year Success of "Operation Win"

Coach Joker Phillips notched a number of successes in his first year of "Operation Win" – win on the field, win in the classroom and win in the community.

On the field, Kentucky's season was highlighted by a win at in-state rival Louisville and an upset of No. 10 South Carolina, the eventual Eastern Division champion of the Southeastern Conference.

The season was topped by a trip to the BBVA Compass Bowl, making Phillips the first coach in Kentucky history to go to a bowl game in his first season. UK's six victories were the most for a first-year Wildcat coach since Blanton Collier in 1954.

In the classroom, the overall team grade-point average has risen over the past year. A total of 22 players earned a spot on the SEC Academic Honor Roll. Offensive tackle Billy Joe Murphy was voted to the Academic All-District team and advanced to the national ballot for Academic All-America.

Phillips and the Wildcats also have been very active in community service, completing numerous personal appearances and work projects.

Raymond Sanders is an adept runner and pass receiver.

Wildcats Strive to Extend Record Streak

In 2011, the Kentucky football team is seeking to continue its school-record streak of five consecutive bowl games.

The Wildcats have advanced to postseason play each year since 2006, going to the Music City Bowl twice, followed by the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, another Music City Bowl and the BBVA Compass Bowl. The Wildcats won three of those matchups, defeating Clemson in 2006, Florida State in 2007 and East Carolina in the Liberty Bowl.

Kentucky is one of only 28 teams in the country that have gone to at least five-straight bowls. Alabama, Florida, Georgia, LSU and Kentucky are the Southeastern Conference teams that have accomplished that feat.

Coaching Staff Changes

Two new assistant coaches have come on board since the end of the 2010 regular season as Joker Phillips brought in Rick Minter as co-defensive coordinator and Steve Pardue as running backs coach.

Phillips and Minter first worked together in 1997-98 at the University of Cincinnati, where Minter was head coach and Phillips was an assistant. Minter has rich experience as a defensive coordinator at Notre Dame, South Carolina, Marshall and Ball State.

Pardue and Phillips were longtime associates on the recruiting trail. Phillips was an annual visitor to LaGrange (Ga.) High School, where Pardue was head coach from 1994-2010 and won three state championships. Several Grangers went on to outstanding careers at UK, including linebackers Wesley Woodyard and Braxton Kelley and wide receiver Quentin McCord. Six Grangers are on the current Kentucky roster.

Wildcats Add New Defensive Scheme; Look for More Big Plays

Kentucky will develop a new look on defense this season as the Wildcats are adding the 3-4 defensive system to the 4-3 alignment already in place.

UK actually got a head start on the new scheme in the practices leading up to the Wildcats' appearance in the BBVA Compass Bowl. The additional system will give the coaching staff more flexibility in defensive play calling.

Coach Joker Phillips has stated that creating more big plays on defense – turnovers and negative-yardage plays – is a goal for the 2011 season.

Turnovers have been called the most important statistic in football. It's interesting to note that Kentucky was +7 in turnover margin during the team's wins last season and had a -11 margin in the games lost.

Trevathan, Guy Call Delay of (NFL) Game

With both players citing "unfinished business" as a reason, All-America linebacker Danny Trevathan and All-Southeastern Conference safety Winston Guy went through the National Football League evaluation process in January but decided to remain at Kentucky for their senior seasons.

Trevathan led the SEC in tackles with 144 stops, most for a league player since 2002. He also had 16 tackles for loss and caused four fumbles. He was chosen first-team All-America by CollegeFootballNews.com and first-team All-SEC by multiple selectors.

Guy notched 106 tackles and led the team in interceptions with three pickoffs. He was tabbed second-team All-SEC by CollegeFootballNews.com and fourth-team All-SEC by Phil Steele's College Football.

Top 11 Tacklers Return

Kentucky fielded its most inexperienced defensive unit in 20 years in the 2010 season. The positive for the coming season is that the top 11 tacklers return from that youthful unit.

Linebacker Danny Trevathan and safety Winston Guy each topped the century mark last season with 144 and 106 tackles, respectively. The additional top stoppers returning are linebacker Ronnie Sneed (61 tackles), safety Mychal Bailey (58), cornerback-turned-safety Martavius Neloms (55), cornerback Randall Burden (36), cornerback Anthony Mosley (34), linebacker Ridge Wilson (30), end Taylor Wyndham (27), end Collins Ukwu (26) and tackle Mark Crawford (24).

Much Production to Replace

An obvious priority in 2011 will be replacing some of the most productive offensive players in Kentucky history, quarterback Mike Hartline, wide receivers Randall Cobb and Chris Matthews, and running back Derrick Locke.

Hartline threw for 3,178 yards last year, Cobb set the Southeastern Conference single-season record for all-purpose yardage, Matthews tied for the league lead in touchdown catches and Locke rushed for 2,618 yards in his career. All four earned various All-SEC honors and Cobb was a first-team All-American.

To put it in perspective, UK's returning players account for only 22 percent of last year's rushing yardage, 7.5 percent of the passing yardage and 31.1 percent of the receiving yardage.

On the bright side on offense, four starters return in the O-line, tackle Chandler Burden, guards Stuart Hines and Paul Warford and center Matt Smith. The expected new starter at right tackle is senior Billy Joe Murphy, who has significant experience in his career.

Another positive is that UK also has some experience returning at quarterback. Junior Morgan Newton has started nine games over the past two seasons when Hartline was sidelined. Newton's career stats feature 100 of 178 passing (56.2 percent) for 971 yards and six touchdowns.

Injury Update

Wide receiver Gene McCaskill is recovering from knee surgery last August and hopes to return in the fall. McCaskill, a part-time starter in 2008 and '09, has caught 32 passes in his career and looks to bring leadership to a relatively young group of Wildcat receivers.

Shoulder injuries sidelined several Cats in the spring, offensive lineman Jake Lanefski, defensive tackles Mister Cobble and Tristian Johnson, and linebacker Jabari Johnson. All of them hope to be ready in time for the start of the season.

Schedule Notes

Kentucky begins the 2011 season on Thursday, Sept. 1, as the Wildcats take on Western Kentucky University in Nashville. The teams will play at LP Field, home of the NFL's Tennessee Titans. UK had a similar scenario in 2009, when the Wildcats opened the slate in Cincinnati's Paul Brown Stadium against Miami (Ohio).

UK's home opener will be against Central Michigan on Sept. 10. UK last took on the Chippewas in 2006 … The annual game against in-state rival Louisville is Sept. 17 … Kentucky's SEC slate starts on Sept. 24 at home vs. Florida … LSU replaces Auburn as the rotating SEC opponent. The Wildcats' last game at LSU was in 2006 … UK's open date is Oct. 15, the exact midpoint of the schedule … On Oct. 22, UK begins a three-game homestand with Homecoming foe Jacksonville State, followed by Mississippi State and Ole Miss. It will be UK's first game against Jacksonville State, which gained notoriety last season for knocking off Ole Miss in Oxford.

Catscellaneous

- Over the last five seasons, Kentucky has come from behind in the fourth quarter to win 13 games. The Wildcats did it once last season vs. South Carolina. The Cats rallied from a 28-10 halftime deficit, which marked the largest comeback victory in school history.
- UK has ranked in the nation's top 25 in attendance every year but one since Commonwealth Stadium was expanded in 1999.
- The Kentucky cheerleaders have won an unprecedented 16 national cheerleading championships, including 12 of the last 15, at the annual Universal Cheerleaders Association championships.

Wide receiver Gene McCaskill (left) missed 2010 and will sit out the spring while he recovers from injury. Hoping to return in August, McCaskill can bring a needed veteran presence to the young Wildcat receivers. He caught 32 passes in the 2008 and '09 seasons.

HEAD COACH JOKER PHILLIPS

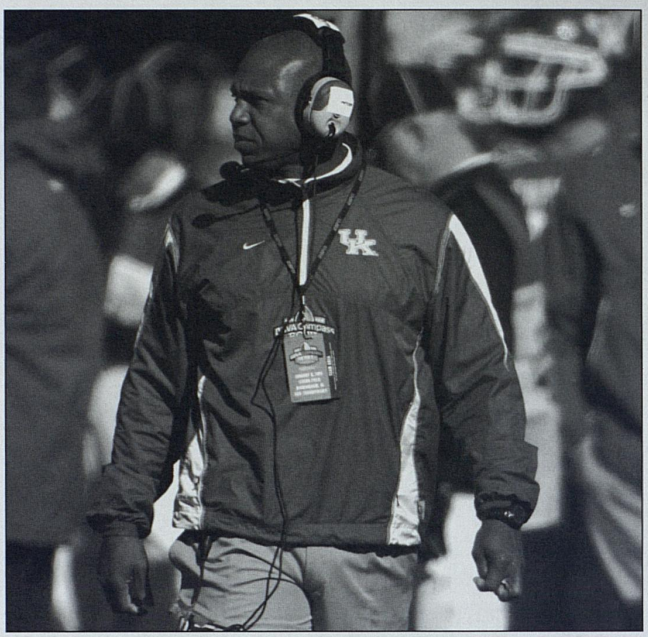

One of Joker Phillips' goals for the Kentucky football team is for his Wildcats to "play fast." It's a philosophy he embraces in coaching as well.

Phillips has been a bundle of energy since taking over the UK head coaching position on Jan. 6, 2010. From coaching to recruiting to the dozens of personal appearances he has made across the South, Phillips has been tireless in promoting the vision for his passion -- Kentucky football.

The foundation of his fervor is easy to see. A native Kentuckian and former Wildcat player, Phillips is only the fifth Kentucky alumnus to become head coach of the Wildcats. Phillips' appointment also has significance in that he is the Wildcats' first African-American head football coach and only the second in the history of the Southeastern Conference.

Phillips' first act as head coach was to imprint his personal philosophy, "Operation Win," on the team -- win on the field, win in the classroom and win in the community.

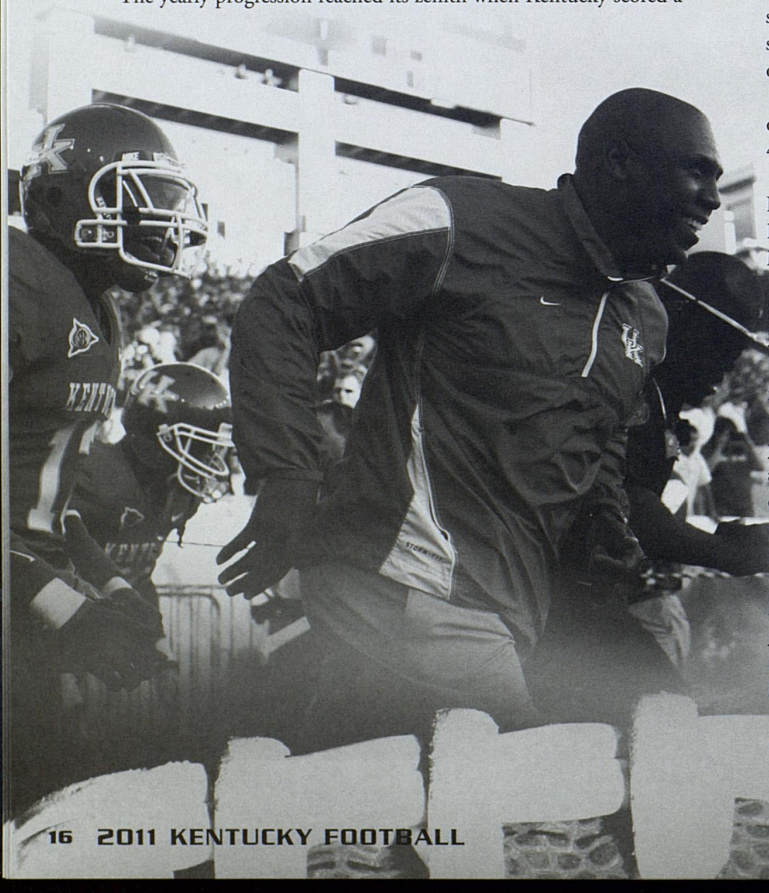

Phillips' energetic start has led to some positive results in recruiting and on the field, where Phillips became the first coach in Kentucky history to take a team to a bowl game in his first season. In addition, Phillips won more games than any first-year UK coach since Blanton Collier in 1954.

Led UK to Highest Point Total in School History

Prior to being elevated to head coach, Phillips was on the staff of Coach Rich Brooks from 2003-09, including the last five seasons as offensive coordinator. Named offensive coordinator before the 2005 season, Phillips made an immediate impact as Kentucky improved its scoring average and total offense in each of the first three years under Phillips' direction.

The yearly progression reached its zenith when Kentucky scored a school-record 475 points during its 13-game schedule in 2007, helping spark the Wildcats to a second-consecutive Music City Bowl championship. UK's average of 36.5 points per game ranked 15th nationally.

Total offense also was a highlight of the '07 season. UK's total offense of 5,764 yards was the second highest in school history. The average of 443.4 yards per game is fourth in UK annals.

Phillips was nationally acclaimed following Kentucky's 43-37 upset of No. 1 LSU. He was named National Coordinator of the Week by Rivals.com and the National Offensive Coordinator of the Week by the Master Coaches Survey.

Phillips' offensive style has shown flexibility and balance between the run and the pass. During his time as offensive coordinator, UK has had a 3,000-yard passer (André Woodson, who accomplished the feat twice), two 1,000-yard receivers (Keenan Burton and Steve Johnson) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Rafael Little, who reached the mark twice).

Balance is shown by the fact that Kentucky led the SEC in passing yardage in 2007 while also rushing for 2,021 yards, 155.5 yards per game and 4.2 yards per attempt. All three rushing marks were UK's best in a dozen seasons, since 1995. The '07 season was the first time in school history that UK averaged at least 250 passing yards per game while rushing for at least 150 yards per game.

As wide receivers coach, Phillips has mentored some of the best in school history – Burton, Johnson, Dicky Lyons Jr. and Derek Abney. With Burton, Johnson and Lyons leading the way, along with tight end Jacob Tamme and tailback Rafael Little, Kentucky was the only team in the nation in 2007 that had five players with at least 1,000 receiving yards during their careers.

Phillips' players have their names etched into the NCAA, SEC and UK record books.

Upon the recommendation of Coach Rich Brooks (right), UK Director of Athletics Mitch Barnhart (left) named Phillips as the head coach of the future in Jan. 2008. With Brooks as head coach and Phillips the offensive coordinator, Kentucky is one of only five SEC schools that have gone to bowl games each of the last four seasons.

Showed the Ability to Adapt and Adjust

After massive graduation losses from the '07 squad – losing Woodson, Burton, Johnson, Tamme and Little to the NFL – Phillips showed his ability to adapt and adjust in 2008-09, turning in some of his most astute coaching performances.

Injuries, inexperience and a disciplinary dismissal forced Phillips and quarterbacks coach Randy Sanders to juggle four QBs -- Mike Hartline, Randall Cobb, Morgan Newton and Will Fidler – in 2008 and 2009. Even though there was a rotation of players in the offense's most important position, Phillips figured out a way to generate enough points to win seven games both seasons.

Despite fielding a virtually new offensive lineup in 2008 and losing his potential starting quarterback on the first day of fall practice, Phillips still managed to finish in the top half of the SEC in scoring offense while helping the Wildcats win a third-consecutive bowl game.

The 2009 season showed more of Phillips' ability to adapt to a changing landscape. After five games, with Hartline as the starting quarterback, Phillips had the perfect balance he was looking for with 167.4 rushing yards and 167.4 passing yards per game. But when Hartline was injured and a true freshman stepped into the starting role, the Wildcats became tilted heavily toward the run.

And, even though everyone in the stadium knew UK had become a run-first offense, Phillips managed to keep the opponent off-balance and score sufficient points to win five of the last eight games, including ground-breaking victories on the road at Auburn and Georgia. For the season, Kentucky rushed for 191.2 yards per game and a 4.5 average per carry, the team's best marks in 14 years.

One of the Nation's Top Recruiters, According to Sports Illustrated, Rivals

In addition to his coaching, Phillips also is a highly effective recruiter, as his straightforward, likeable personality earns the trust of young players and their families. He served as UK's recruiting coordinator in 2003-04, giving up that post because of his additional offensive responsibilities, but continued to be deeply involved in recruiting.

Phillips' abilities in that area have become known across the country, as he has been identified as one of the nation's top recruiters by SportsIllustrated.com and Rivals.com.

Phillips has gained additional coaching experience by working postseason all-star games. He was the winning head coach in the 2005 Magnolia Classic. Following the 2006 season, he was an assistant on the winning squad in the IntaJuice North-South All-Star Game.

What They've Said and Written About Joker Phillips

Quotes from January, 2008, when Phillips was named head coach of the future. Quotes are from articles in the Lexington Herald-Leader, Louisville Courier-Journal, Danville Advocate-Messenger, The Cats' Pause, KentuckySportsReport.com, Nashville Tennessean:

- "Phillips' credentials certainly scream head coach. He's been an outstanding position coach, ace recruiter, master motivator and his (2006-07) offenses at UK have been a pair of the best in school history. (His) ability to connect with players, their families and coaches may be his greatest strength." – Matt May, The Cats' Pause

- "I just think it was a great move by the university and a great move for the program. Coach Joker was instrumental in my career. He knows how to go out and get players, and he recognizes how to get the best out of the players he brings in. You know the program will be in good hands because he cares so much about Kentucky football." – All-SEC tight end Jacob Tamme, now with the Indianapolis Colts

- "He has all the charisma a head coach would have. I'm glad Kentucky did what they had to do to keep him, because other people were going to keep coming after him. With Joker Phillips, they're not just making a good minority hire. They're making a great hire, period." – Lou Holtz, longtime head coach and current ESPN analyst

- "And when Phillips choked up Friday talking about his home state, and his hometown of Franklin, it reminded you of the Kentucky kids – Andre' Woodson, Jacob Tamme, Keenan Burton, to name three – who helped turn the program around. They were Kentucky kids who wanted to be here, succeed here and build a foundation for success. Joker Phillips is one of those Kentucky kids. He's a reason why right now, in football, Kentucky has a good thing going. It's smart to take advantage of it." – John Clay, Lexington Herald-Leader

- "I felt like he was a guy I could really relate to. When he was recruiting me, he was really open and honest the whole time about me making the best decision for myself and not downplaying anybody else. He just played up Kentucky. I liked that." – 2009 All-SEC defensive tackle Corey Peters

- "Cats are smart to name Phillips future coach" – Louisville Courier-Journal headline of a column by Rick Bozich

- "There's not a finer man than Joker Phillips. When he was a kid, he was never in trouble. He hung around the little league park to help kids when he was in high school. He was just a nice kid to be around. You knew he was going to be a good guy. I'm not surprised in the least that he has been this successful." – Gary Moyers of the Danville Advocate-Messenger, who covered Phillips for the Bowling Green Daily News during the coach's high school playing days

- "Joker Phillips is one of the finest college football coaches I know. He's a fine person, too. That's why I believe the football program will be in fine hands once current coach Rich Brooks decides to leave the program on his own terms." – Keith Taylor, KentuckySportsReport.com

Phillips (third from left) was a player and assistant coach under Hall of Fame Coach Jerry Claiborne (left). "Do right, do your best and win," said Phillips, when asked what he learned from the coaching mentor. Claiborne was known for his sound fundamental football and his high integrity.

As offensive coordinator, Phillips guided UK to a school-record 475 points in the 2007 season. Phillips coached NCAA, SEC and UK record-setters such as quarterbacks Andre' Woodson and Jared Lorenzen, running back Rafael Little and wide receivers Derek Abney, Keenan Burton, Steve Johnson and Dicky Lyons.

A Longtime Kentuckian and Wildcat

Phillips is a familiar face around Kentucky football. He played at UK from 1981-84 and was on the football staff from 1988-96. As a player, Phillips helped lead the Wildcats to appearances in the Hall of Fame Bowl in his junior and senior seasons. He finished his playing days tied for fifth on the UK career receiving list with 75 catches for 935 yards and nine touchdowns. He went on to play a total of three professional seasons with the Washington Redskins of the National Football League (1985, '87) and Toronto in the Canadian Football League (1986).

Phillips began his coaching career at his alma mater as a graduate assistant in 1988-89. In 1990, he served as an assistant recruiting coordinator. He was a full-time assistant coach, in charge of the wide receivers, from 1991-96. In 1991, under Phillips' guidance, wide receiver Neal Clark broke the single-season record for pass receptions with 47 catches. Craig Yeast, who became the SEC's all-time leading receiver, played his first two seasons under Phillips in 1995-96.

Phillips returned to UK from South Carolina, where he coached the wide receivers under Coach Lou Holtz in 2002. Gamecock newcomer Troy Williamson earned SEC All-Freshman honors that year and went on to become the No. 7 pick in the first round of the 2005 NFL Draft.

Phillips also has coached at Cincinnati (1997-98), Minnesota (1999-2000) and Notre Dame (2001). At Minnesota, he guided All-Big Ten wide receiver Ron Johnson, who went on to play for the NFL's Baltimore Ravens. In his year at Notre Dame, Phillips placed two wideouts in the NFL, Javin Hunter and David Givens.

Joker Phillips completed his Kentucky career as one of the top five pass catchers in school history. He went on to play with the Washington Redskins in the National Football League.

As a coach, nine of his teams have gone to bowl games, including UK to the 1993 Peach Bowl, 2006, '07 and '09 Music City Bowls, the Liberty Bowl following the 2008 season and the BBVA Compass Bowl after the 2010 season; Cincinnati to the 1997 Humanitarian Bowl; and Minnesota to the 1999 Sun Bowl and 2000 Micronpc.com Bowl.

Phillips is a native of Franklin, Ky., and was a three-sport standout – football, basketball and track – at Franklin-Simpson High School. He is married to Dr. Leslie Phillips, a professor at Georgetown College.

CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR, DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH

STEVE BROWN

Now in his ninth season on the Kentucky staff, Steve Brown serves as co-defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach.

Brown has been coordinating the UK defense since 2007 and the Wildcats have significantly decreased points and yardage allowed.

From 2007-10, UK allowed 24.6 points per game, the best four-year stretch of scoring defense in 17 years, since 1990-93. Also from 2007-10, the UK defense allowed 357.5 yards per game, the best four-year stretch of total defense in 20 years, since 1987-90.

On a national basis, UK's scoring defense has improved from 99th in the nation in 2006 (the year before Brown became coordinator) to as low as 35th in the country (2008). The Wildcats' total yardage allowed has moved from 118th to as low as 40th (2008) in the same time span.

UK has had at least one first-team All-SEC defender each season under Brown's guidance. Cornerback Trevard Lindley was named second-team All-America and ranks among the all-time Southeastern Conference leaders in pass breakups. He is now in his second season with the Philadelphia Eagles.

In Brown's four years as coordinator, 12 Wildcat defensive players have gone on to the National Football League.

Prior to being elevated to defensive coordinator, Brown was the defensive backs coach from 2003-06 under former head coach Rich Brooks.

As a 14-year playing and coaching veteran of the National Football League, and as a former player and coach under Brooks, Brown had been an obvious choice to join the Kentucky coaching staff in 2003.

During Brown's term as DBs coach, safety Muhammad Abdullah was named second-team All-Southeastern Conference for three consecutive years (2003-05). In addition, cornerback Antoine Huffman set the Kentucky career record for pass breakups (now broken by Lindley).

In 2006, safety Marcus McClinton was one of the nation's leaders in generating turnovers with four interceptions and five fumbles caused.

Brooks and Brown first became acquainted during the collegiate recruiting process, when Brown went to Oregon to play for the Ducks. He was a four-year letterman from 1979-82 as a defensive back and kick returner. He was a four-year choice as All-Pacific 10, first team as a senior, second team as a junior, and honorable mention as a freshman and sophomore. He played in the Hula Bowl following his senior year.

Brown was a third-round draft pick by the Houston Oilers in 1983. He played eight years for the Oilers (1983-90) as a cornerback and kick returner. He was named to the NFL All-Rookie Team by Pro Football Weekly in 1983 and was chosen the AFC Defensive Player of the Week in the '85 season. Houston advanced to the playoffs in each of his final four seasons. He joined the San Francisco 49ers in 1991 but retired because of injury.

After three years in private business, Brown returned to football when Brooks hired him for the coaching staff of the St. Louis Rams. Brown was a defensive assistant in 1995. He was promoted to cornerbacks coach in 1996-97, then was given responsibility for the entire secondary from 1998-2000.

In the 1999 season, the Rams intercepted 29 passes, the fourth-highest total in franchise history, and Todd Lyght became the first Rams defensive back to earn a Pro Bowl berth in 10 years. The season was capped with a 23-16 win over Tennessee in the 2000 Super Bowl. St. Louis also qualified for the playoffs following the 2000 season.

When Brooks called Brown again, this time to join the coaching staff at Kentucky, Brown was eager to rejoin his former coach.

Brown and his wife, Michele, have two sons, Cole and Jared. Brown graduated from Oregon with a degree in English literature.

PASSING GAME COORDINATOR, WIDE RECEIVERS COACH

TEE MARTIN

Tee Martin, former National Football League quarterback and national championship QB at Tennessee, made a big impact in his first season on the Kentucky staff.

On the field, Wildcat wide receiver Randall Cobb earned first-team All-America honors and was drafted by the NFL's Green Bay Packers. Chris Matthews was a second-team All-Southeastern Conference pick after tying for the league lead in touchdown catches.

Off the field, Martin made a huge impact in recruiting and was tabbed as one of the top-25 recruiters in the league by ESPN.com.

In recognition of his accomplishments, Martin earned a promotion to UK passing game coordinator to go along with his duties as wide receiver coach. Martin will have to replace Cobb and Matthews in 2011 but has seven returning lettermen available for the task.

Martin came to UK from the University of New Mexico, where he was quarterbacks coach during the 2009 season. Under Martin's guidance, Lobo QB Donovan Porterie threw for 2,411 yards and 12 touchdowns.

Prior to UNM, Martin was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at North Atlanta High School in the 2008 season. He was the QB coach and passing game coordinator at North Cobb High School (Kennesaw, Ga.) in 2007, helping the Warriors to a 10-1 record in the Class AAAAA ranks. Current Wildcat Matt Roark was the team's senior quarterback that year and he completed 72.1 percent of his passes for 1,552 yards and 15 touchdowns. Roark was the Cobb County Player of the Year and honorable-mention all-state by the Georgia Sportswriters Association and the Atlanta Journal-Constitution.

Martin also has been a coach for the Elite 11 Quarterback Camps (2007-08), Nike football training camps (2007-08) and the Nike Combine Tour (2008). He has mentored and evaluated more than 1,000 quarterbacks, including more than 30 Division I signees. He also created the "Dual Threat" Quarterback Camp and Academy in Atlanta in 2008.

Martin began his coaching career as the passing game coordinator at Morehouse College in Atlanta during the 2006 season, when the Maroon Tigers had the top-ranked rushing, passing and total offense in the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

In addition, Martin has some interesting experience as a member of the media. In 2007 and '08, he was a college football analyst for the Comcast Sports Southeast's twice-weekly show "Talking Football." He also did a weekly radio show about college football, "Hot Tee and Touchdowns," on the ESPN affiliate in Atlanta, 680 AM The Fan.

A native of Mobile, Ala., Martin was a four-year letterman at Tennessee from 1996-99. After serving as a backup to Peyton Manning in 1996 and '97, Martin led the Volunteers to the 1998 national championship. The Vols' 13-0 record was capped by a 23-16 win over Florida State in the Fiesta Bowl. Martin led Tennessee to another trip to the Fiesta Bowl following the '99 season. With current UK offensive coordinator Randy Sanders serving as his offensive coordinator and quarterback coach, Martin was named first-team All-Southeastern Conference as a senior.

Martin is still tied for the NCAA record for consecutive completions in one game with 23 straight completions vs. South Carolina on Oct. 31, 1998.

Martin was selected by Pittsburgh in the fifth round of the 2000 NFL Draft, beginning a six-year pro football career. After two seasons with the Steelers, he went to NFL Europe in 2002, when he led the Rhein Fire to a league-best 7-3 record and a berth in the World Bowl. He returned to the NFL with the Oakland Raiders in 2003, then moved to the Canadian Football League and spent the 2004-05 seasons with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

Martin and his wife, Toya, have a son, Kaden, and a set of twins, daughter A'Yadra and son Amari. The former Toya Rodriguez is a recording artist with hit singles "I Do!" (2001) and "No Matta What (Party All Night)" (2002).

CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

RICK MINTER

One of the most respected defensive minds in football, Rick Minter has joined the Kentucky football staff as co-defensive coordinator.

In his first season with the Wildcats, Minter is adding multiple defensive schemes to the 4-3 formation used primarily in recent years.

Minter came to UK from Indiana State, where he spent one season as the linebackers coach. The Sycamores, who had a 2-54 record the five previous years before his arrival, improved to a 6-5 mark in 2010, as the ISU defensive unit ranked second in the conference in total takeaways.

Minter spent the 2008-09 seasons as the defensive coordinator at Marshall. The Thundering Herd defense doubled its turnover rate in Minter's first season, taking the ball away 14 times after gathering only seven turnovers the year before. He was the interim head coach for his last game at Marshall, guiding the team to a 21-17 win over Ohio in the Little Caesars Pizza Bowl.

Minter spent the 2005-06 seasons as the defensive coordinator for Notre Dame, a position he also held during the 1992-93 seasons. During his four years as defensive coordinator at Notre Dame, Minter helped lead the Irish to a 40-8-1 record with four prestigious bowl games, including two Cotton Bowl berths in the '92-93 seasons and appearances in the Fiesta and Sugar Bowls during his latter term.

Minter made major improvements in the South Carolina defense in 2004 under legendary head coach Lou Holtz. The Gamecocks ranked 20th nationally in total defense and 15th nationally in pass defense. Freshman free safety Ko Simpson earned second-team All-America honors and ranked third nationally in interceptions.

As head coach at Cincinnati from 1994-2003, Minter won more games than any coach in UC history. He led the Bearcats to four postseason bowl games and was co-champion of Conference USA in 2002. His 1997 team finished 8-4 after a Humanitarian Bowl victory over Utah State, marking the first bowl appearance for Cincinnati in 47 seasons. Minter's Bearcats went to three straight bowls in 2000-02. He was named C-USA Coach of the Year in 2001 by CollegeFootballNews.com.

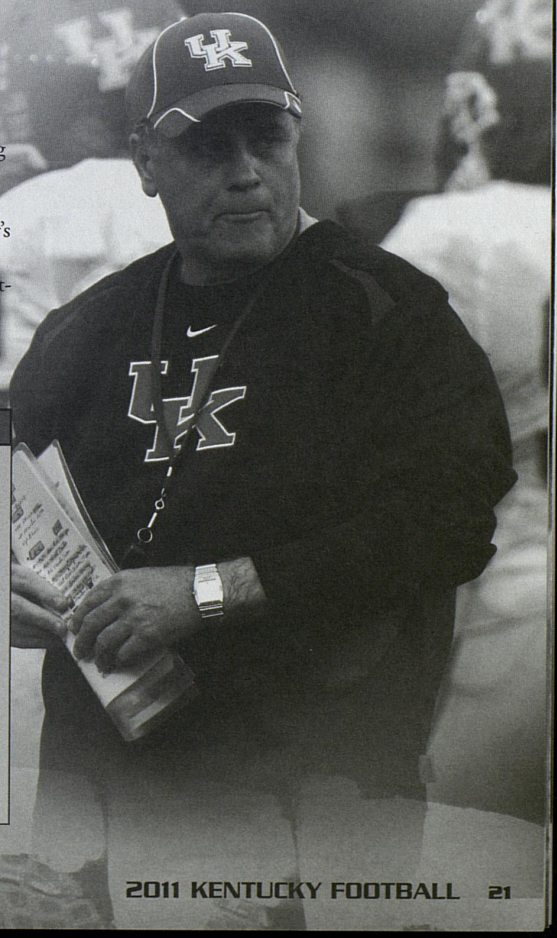

It was at Cincinnati that Minter and Phillips became well-acquainted. In 1997, Phillips coached wide receivers and in 1998 he coached defensive backs for Minter. Minter had several notable coaches on his Bearcat staff, including Phillips; current New York Jets head coach Rex Ryan, who served as Cincinnati defensive coordinator; current Baltimore Ravens head coach John Harbaugh, who was UC's special-teams coach; current Pittsburgh Steelers coach Mike Tomlin, who was a defensive backs coach at UC; and Florida State head coach Jimbo Fisher, who was an offensive coordinator at UC.

During his first stint at Notre Dame, working under Holtz, the 1993 Irish defense helped the team to an 11-1 season and runner-up finish in the national championship race. Three of Minter's defenders earned first-team All-America honors. The '92 Irish posted a 10-1-1 mark, won the Cotton Bowl and were ranked fourth in the final polls. Cornerback Tom Carter won All-America honors. During his first two seasons at Notre Dame, Minter coached 21 defensive players who went on to play in the NFL.

Prior to joining the Notre Dame staff, Minter served as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Ball State for seven seasons, annually developing units that were ranked among the national leaders. Ball State combined for a 28-15-2 mark over his final four seasons from 1988-91, including a Mid-American Conference title and California Raisin Bowl appearance in 1989. During Minter's seven seasons, Ball State produced nine All-MAC players on defense, including three-time MAC Defensive Player of the Year (1987-89) Gary Garnica.

Minter also has collegiate coaching experience at New Mexico State, North Carolina State, Louisiana Tech and Arkansas, where he was a graduate assistant under Holtz in 1978.

Born in Nash, Texas, Minter is a graduate of Texas High School in Texarkana, Texas. He was a three-year starter at defensive end at Henderson State, where he earned both his bachelor's (1977) and master's degrees (1978) in education. Minter is the father of two sons, Josh and Jesse.

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR, TIGHT ENDS COACH

GREG NORD

A former University of Kentucky player, alumnus and assistant coach under coaches Jerry Claiborne and Fran Curci, Greg Nord returned to UK in 2010 as special teams coordinator and tight ends coach.

Nord's challenge on special teams for the upcoming season will be to develop replacements for veteran punt and kickoff returners Randall Cobb and Derrick Locke. Fortunately, kicker Craig McIntosh and punter Ryan Tydlacka are back, along with many of the players who comprised the kick coverage units a year ago.

Nord's tight ends return intact for 2011. Despite playing mostly freshmen at the position, last year's tight ends combined to catch 33 passes for 306 yards and two touchdowns. Jordan Aumiller was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team and also tabbed fourth-team Freshman All-America. Tyler Robinson, Anthony Kendrick and Nick Melillo also gained significant experience last season.

Nord's career path has returned to Lexington following stops at East Carolina, Georgia Tech, Louisville and Illinois. Nord had joined Illinois in the spring of 2010 as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator after spending the previous 15 seasons at U of L.

Nord was at Louisville from 1995-2009, serving at various times as assistant head coach, recruiting coordinator, tight ends coach and running backs coach. He helped the Cardinals advance to nine bowl games, including a championship of the 2007 Orange Bowl, and win three Conference USA championships and one Big East title.

Nord's tight ends at Louisville had remarkable accomplishments. Ibn Green earned All-America honors in 1998 and '99 while setting the NCAA Division I career record for most pass receptions by a tight end (217). Ronnie Ghent became the first player in C-USA history to earn first-team all-conference honors for four-straight seasons. Ghent and three other Cardinal tight ends, Richard Owens, Gary Barnidge and Breno Giacomini, went on to play in the National Football League.

With Nord serving as running backs coach in 2004, the Cardinals set school records with 3,005 rushing yards and 47 rushing touchdowns. Eric Shelton tied the school record that year with 20 rushing TDs and went on to play for the Carolina Panthers. In 2005, Michael Bush led the nation in scoring, was a first-team All-Big East performer and now plays for the NFL's Oakland Raiders. Two more of Nord's backs also played in the NFL, Kolby Smith with Kansas City and Brock Bolen of Jacksonville.

In 1997, Nord was coaching the running backs when Frank Moreau set an NCAA record by scoring four touchdowns in one quarter vs. East Carolina. Moreau went on to play in the NFL as well.

Prior to Louisville, Nord spent three years (1992-94) as the running backs coach at Georgia Tech. He guided Dorsey Levens and William Bell, each of whom earned All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors and played professionally. Levens enjoyed an 11-year NFL career and earned All-Pro honors. Nord also coached the running backs at East Carolina in 1990-91, highlighted by a victory in the Peach Bowl following the '91 campaign.

A native of Louisville, Nord played center, tight end and long snapper for the Wildcats from 1974-78 under Fran Curci. He was a three-year letterman and a member of the '76 Southeastern Conference championship team and the '77 squad that posted a 10-1 record. He entered the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant at UK in 1979-80. He was a part-time assistant in 1981, the same season that Joker Phillips arrived as a player at UK.

Nord was promoted to full-time assistant in 1982 when Jerry Claiborne took over as head coach. Nord coached the running backs all eight years that Claiborne led the Cats, including a pair of appearances in the Hall of Fame Bowl. By the time Nord departed following the 1989 season, he had coached four of the top seven rushers in school history, Mark Higgs, George Adams, Marc Logan and Ivy Joe Hunter. All four went on to play in the NFL.

Nord and his wife, Donna, have two daughters, Amy and Angie, and five grandchildren, Luke, Nolan, Gregory, Elizabeth and Colin.

RUNNING BACKS COACH

STEVE PARDUE

Steve Pardue, longtime head coach at powerhouse LaGrange (Ga.) High School, is entering his first full season as the Kentucky running backs coach after coming on board last December prior to UK's bowl game.

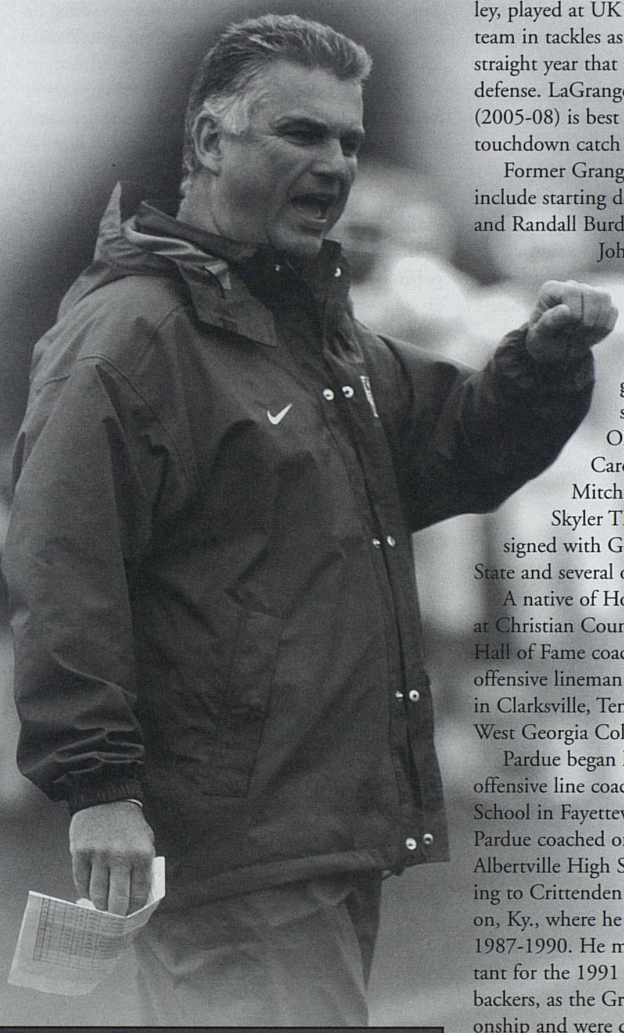

Pardue has a big challenge in 2010 following the departure of both starters from last season, tailback Derrick Locke and fullback Moncell Allen.

Pardue joined LaGrange as an assistant coach in 1991 and took over as head coach in 1994. Over the last 17 seasons, Pardue collected 161 wins, including three Class AAA state championships. The Grangers won the state title in 2001 with a 14-0 record and took home back-to-back state crowns in 2003 and 2004, featuring 14-1 and 15-0 records, respectively. LaGrange also won eight regional championships under his guidance. In addition to leading the program as head coach, Pardue coached the running backs for the last 16 seasons.

Pardue received numerous honors through the years, headlined by a pair of citations: Class AAA Coach of the Decade by the Georgia High School Daily Report and the 2003 Wright Bazemore Award for All-Classification Coach of the Year by the Touchdown Club of Atlanta. He received multiple recognitions during the state championship seasons, including Class AAA Coach of the Year by the Atlanta Journal-Constitution, Georgia Sportswriters Association, Touchdown Club of Atlanta and the Georgia Athletic Coaches Association. He garnered the GACA Region Coach of the Year Award eight times, in 1996, 1997, 2000-04 and 2006.

Phillips and Pardue became well acquainted on the recruiting trail as Pardue helped develop several outstanding players who went on to wear the Blue and White at Kentucky. The first LaGrange product at UK was Quentin McCord (1996, 1998-2000), who was recruited by Phillips and became one of the best wide receivers in Wildcat history, totaling 112 catches for 1,743 yards and 15 touchdowns.

After returning to Kentucky in 2003, Phillips tapped the LaGrange pipeline often. Linebacker Wesley Woodyard (2004-07) led Kentucky in tackles three straight seasons and earned first-team All-Southeastern Conference honors as a junior and senior. Woodyard has played three seasons with the NFL's Denver Broncos and is captain of the special teams.

Another LaGrange linebacker, Braxton Kelley, played at UK from 2005-08 and led the team in tackles as a senior, marking the fourth straight year that a Granger paced the UK defense. LaGrange product DeMoreo Ford (2005-08) is best remembered for his 70-yard touchdown catch in the 2006 Music City Bowl.

Former Grangers currently on the UK roster include starting defensive backs Mychal Bailey and Randall Burden, defensive lineman Tristian Johnson, linebacker Qua Huzzie, and kickers Joe Mansour and Patrick Simmons.

Pardue sent numerous other players into the collegiate ranks, including players such as All-SEC linebacker Sam Olajubutu at Arkansas, South Carolina quarterback Blake Mitchell and Florida running back Skyler Thornton. Additional players signed with Georgia, Auburn and Mississippi State and several other schools.

A native of Hopkinsville, Ky., Pardue played at Christian County High School under KHSAA Hall of Fame coach Fred Clayton. Pardue was an offensive lineman at Austin Peay State University in Clarksville, Tenn., and got his master's at West Georgia College.

Pardue began his coaching career as the offensive line coach at Fayette County High School in Fayetteville, Ga., in 1985. In 1986, Pardue coached offensive and defensive lines at Albertville High School in Alabama, before moving to Crittenden County High School in Marion, Ky., where he served as head coach from 1987-1990. He moved to LaGrange as an assistant for the 1991 season, coaching outside linebackers, as the Grangers won the state championship and were declared national champion by USA Today. He coached the offensive line in 1991-92 and was defensive coordinator in 1993. Pardue then took over as head coach in 1994.

Pardue is married to the former Pamela Bennett of Goodlettsville, Tenn. The couple has two children, a daughter, Morgan, and a son, Chas.

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR, QUARTERBACKS COACH

RANDY SANDERS

Randy Sanders certainly has had an eventful five years with the Kentucky football team.

As quarterbacks coach, Sanders' guidance helped Andre' Woodson develop from an inconsistent performer into one of the top quarterbacks in the nation. Seemingly overnight, Woodson blossomed as a player and a field general, leading the Wildcats to some of the most memorable victories in school history, including a pair of Music City Bowl championships.

Along the way, Woodson led the Southeastern Conference in passing yardage, total offense, and touchdown passes, including an SEC record of 40 TD tosses in 2007. He earned All-SEC honors both seasons and was drafted by the NFL's New York Giants.

Sanders went back to square one in 2008. He did a masterful job of melding the inexperienced talents of then-sophomore Mike Hartline and freshman Randall Cobb into a capable tandem. The QB duo led the Wildcats to a third-consecutive postseason victory in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

Sanders turned in another deft coaching performance in 2009. Hartline was the starting quarterback until going down with an injury in the fifth game. For the remainder of the season, Sanders juggled Cobb, seldom-used junior Will Fidler and true freshman Morgan Newton at QB. And, once again, the offense produced enough points to advance to a bowl game, along with ground-breaking victories at Auburn and Georgia.

Hartline stayed healthy in 2010, enjoying a terrific season and finishing his career among the top five in school history in every passing category.

Sanders has been offensive coordinator since 2009 and took on primary playcalling duties last season. In his first year in that role, UK averaged 6.1 yards per play, second best in school history, and 406 total points ranks third in UK history.

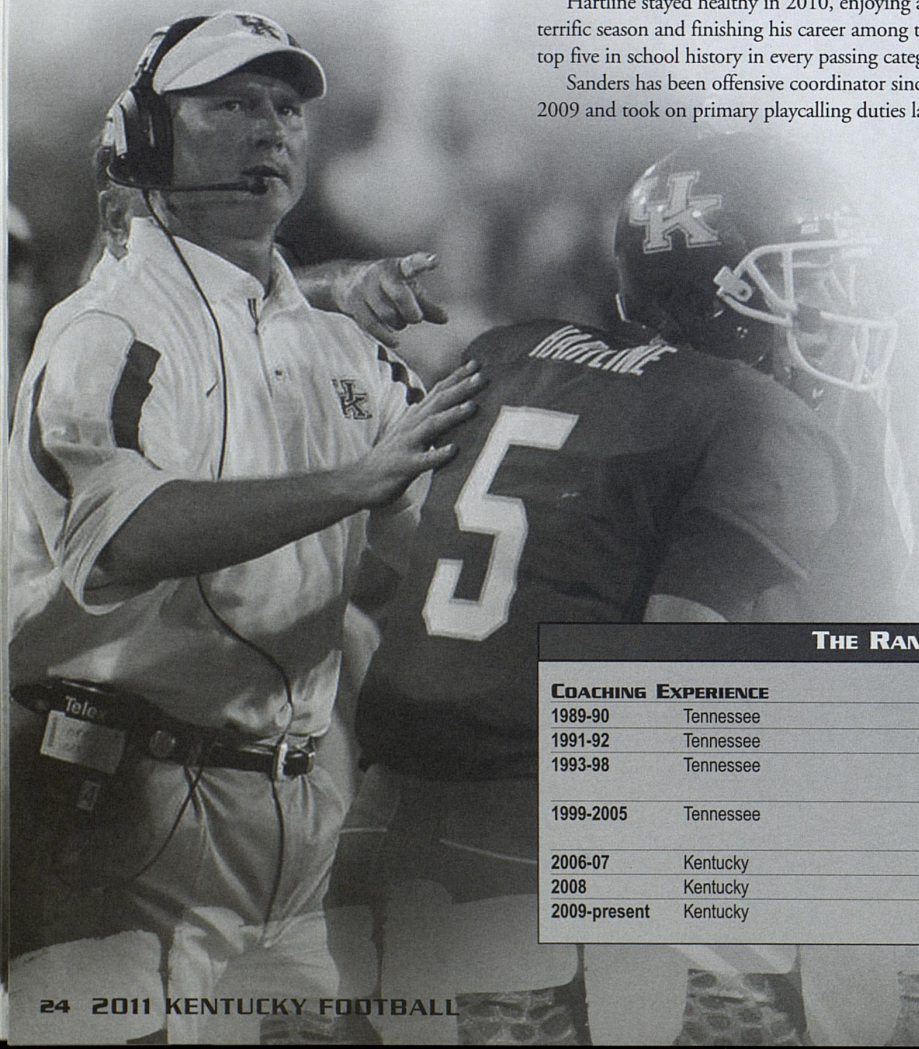

Prior to Kentucky, Sanders spent 22 seasons (1984-2005) as a player and coach at the University of Tennessee, including the last seven as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He was named offensive coordinator after the 1998 regular season when David Cutcliffe became head coach at Ole Miss. Sanders' first game as offensive coordinator was the 1999 Fiesta Bowl when the Volunteers defeated Florida State for the national championship.

A native of Morristown, Tenn., Sanders was a quarterback on the Tennessee football team from 1984-88. He earned four varsity letters and was a four-year member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll. He remained with the team as a volunteer assistant coach, helping coach the quarterbacks, in 1989-90 under Coach Johnny Majors.

Sanders was promoted to full-time assistant coach in 1991, working with the wide receivers in 1991-92. New head coach Phillip Fulmer named him running backs coach and recruiting coordinator in 1993. Sanders stayed in those roles through '98, recruiting the players that took Tennessee to the national title, before moving to offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach following Cutcliffe's departure.

While Sanders was on the Tennessee coaching staff, the Vols had a record of 162-46-2 (.776) and won four SEC championships and six Eastern Division crowns in addition to their national title. The Vols played in 16 bowl games, including four Citrus Bowls, three Fiesta Bowls, three Cotton Bowls, two Peach Bowls, and once each in the Sugar, Orange, Hall of Fame and Gator bowls.

Sanders and his wife, Cathy, have two daughters, Kelly and Kari.

LINEBACKERS COACH, RECRUITING COORDINATOR

CHUCK SMITH

Chuck Smith enters his seventh season as the linebackers coach at his alma mater.

Upon his arrival, Smith inherited a very young set of linebackers, a group whose development mirrored the progress of the team.

In 2005, Wesley Woodyard ranked fourth in the Southeastern Conference in tackles and was named honorable-mention All-SEC. Braxton Kelley was an immediate hit at middle linebacker and earned Freshman All-America accolades.

In '06, Woodyard was second in the league in tackles and earned Coaches' All-SEC honors. Micah Johnson was chosen for the SEC All-Freshman squad.

The 2007 season saw Woodyard lead the league in tackles, earn consensus first-team All-SEC honors and finish his career as one of the top-10 tacklers in school history.

Kelley, Johnson and Johnny Williams continued the productivity in '08. Johnson was chosen first-team Coaches' All-SEC and Kelley garnered second-team all-league laurels.

Johnson and Sam Maxwell were second-team all-league picks in '09. Maxwell intercepted six passes, most ever in one season by a UK linebacker.

Smith began to rebuild the unit last season. Danny Trevathan emerged as a first-team All-SEC linebacker, leading the league in tackles with 144.

Smith's unit has helped Kentucky advance to five-straight bowl games, including three wins. Woodyard, Kelley, Williams, Johnson and Maxwell all went on to sign contracts in the National Football League.

Smith added the duties of recruiting coordinator in February, 2009. Smith's organizational abilities, football smarts and likeable personality make him a natural for the responsibility. He also serves as director of the UK summer camps.

Success is familiar territory for Smith, who is one of the most accomplished coaches in the history of Kentucky high school football. He came to UK from Boyle County High School in Danville, where he compiled a 142-33 record in 13 seasons. He built Boyle County into a juggernaut in the Class AA and Class AAA ranks, winning five consecutive state championships — a state record — from 1999-2003.

Smith's teams won the Class AA titles in 1999 and 2000 with perfect 15-0 records. Reclassification changed Boyle County to Class AAA in 2001, but that was no obstacle for the Rebels, as they won the crown with another 15-0 mark. The winning streak ended at 47 games (second-longest in Kentucky history) during the 2002 regular season, but Boyle County went on to win the state championship again. The 2003 team returned to perfection with a 15-0 slate and state title. Smith's 2004 squad went 12-3, with a loss in the state finals ending the state-record streaks of five consecutive championships and 29 straight playoff victories.

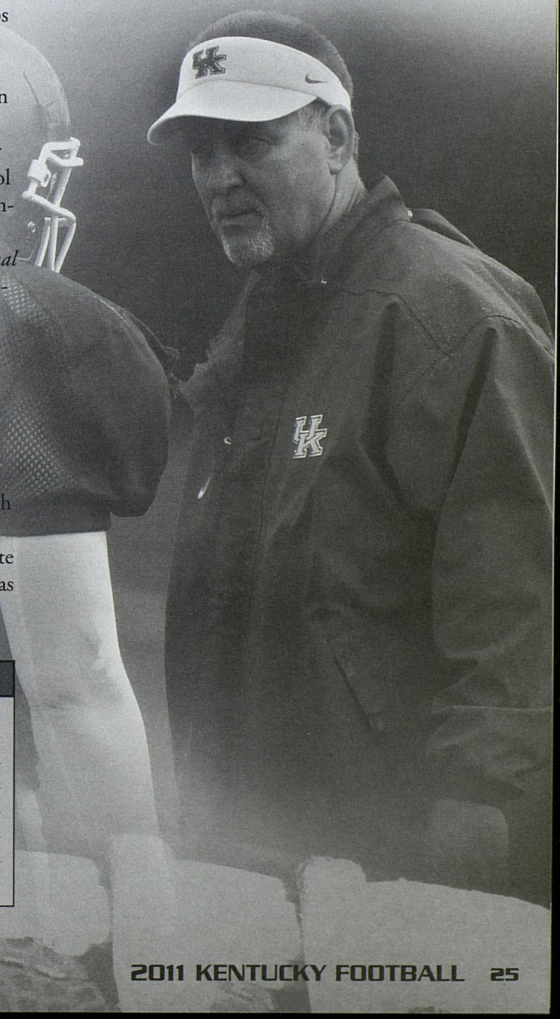

Smith, whose teams were known for their work ethic and solid fundamental play, has been recognized frequently for his accomplishments. He was named the Kentucky Coach of the Year by the National Federation of State High School Associations in 2003. He was chosen as the Kentucky Coach of the Year, covering all classifications, four times by the Louisville Courier-Journal (1999, 2000, 2001 and 2004) and by The Associated Press in 1999. He has won numerous other Coach of the Year honors for Class AA, Class AAA, and on the district and area levels.

Two of Smith's Boyle County players, tight end Jacob Tamme and kicker Taylor Begley, went on to great careers at UK. Tamme earned first-team All-SEC honors while Begley became one of the leading scorers in school history. Both players earned Academic All-America honors.

Born in Louisville, Ky., Smith was an all-state linebacker at Jeffersontown High School. He was a UK letterman from 1978-80 as a linebacker under Coach Fran Curci. Smith was second on the team in tackles as a senior with 133 stops and was third on the team in tackles his junior year with 95.

Smith's coaching career began as an assistant coach at Mercer County from 1983-86. His first head coaching position was in 1987 at Allen County, where he took over a losing program and posted a winning season in his only year at the school. He took over another struggling team at Campbellsville (1988-91) and orchestrated a turnaround, eventually guiding the team to a state playoff berth in his final season at the school. He left Campbellsville in 1992 to begin his record-setting stint at Boyle County.

Smith and his wife, Jackie, have two children, daughter Nikki, who is married to Kasey Jolly, and son Brandon, who played quarterback at Western Kentucky University.

RUNNING GAME COORDINATOR, OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

MIKE SUMMERS

As a graduate assistant coach at the University of Kentucky in 1980-81, Mike Summers helped recruit Joker Phillips to play at UK. Three decades later, Phillips returned the favor by recruiting Summers to the UK staff as offensive line coach.

It was an easy sell, as Summers -- a Lexington native -- was happy to return to his hometown when Phillips became head coach in 2010.

The results were quickly evident last season. Despite having only one returning starter in the offensive line, the Wildcat power plant blocked for an offense that averaged 6.1 yards per play, the second-best mark in school history. The 406 total points rank third all-time in UK annals.

Summers has the benefit of four returning starters in 2011. He also takes on additional responsibilities guiding the rushing attack as running game coordinator.

Summers has been involved with dynamic offenses throughout his career. He returned to Lexington from the University of Arkansas, where he was the assistant head coach and O-Line coach in 2008-09. Arkansas led the SEC in scoring offense in '09 and was champion of the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. One of his protégés, center Jonathan Luigs, was an All-SEC selection, a finalist for the 2008 Rimington Trophy and played for the Cincinnati Bengals. Guard Mitch Petrus was a first-team All-SEC honoree in '09 and is currently a member of the New York Giants.

Summers got NFL experience with the Atlanta Falcons in 2007 and was the offensive line coach at the University of Louisville from 2003-06. In his last year at Louisville, three of his linemen (Renardo Foster, Kurt Quarterman and George Bussey) earned first-team All-Big East Conference honors and center Eric Wood was a second-team pick. Summers' line fronted a unit that ranked second in the nation in total offense (475.3 yards per game), seventh in passing (290 per game) and 12th in rushing (185.3).

Two more of Summers' linemen, Jason Spitz and Travis Leffew, earned identical honors with first-team All-Big East in 2005, first-team All-Conference USA in 2004 and second-team All-Conference USA in 2003.

Foster, Spitz and Wood have played in the NFL while Quarterman, Bussey and Leffew either made active rosters or in-season developmental squads. Wood was a first-round draft pick and now starts for the Buffalo Bills.

Summers' 2004 line helped Louisville set a school record with 3,005 rushing yards and 47 touchdowns while allowing only 20 sacks and leading the nation in total offense and scoring offense. Louisville also set school records with 6,468 total offensive yards and 597 points scored. In Summers' first season, the Cardinals reduced sacks allowed from 46 to 13 and set a then-school rushing record while ranking seventh in the nation in total offense and 10th in rushing.

During Summers' time at Louisville, the Cardinals won a Conference USA championship and a Big East title while playing in the Orange Bowl, Gator Bowl, Liberty Bowl and GMAC Bowl.

Before Louisville, Summers spent two seasons at Ohio (2001-02), where his offense ranked No. 8 in the nation in rushing offense in 2002 (239.8) and No. 6 in 2001 (240.1).

In 2000, Summers was the tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at Oklahoma State. From 1996-99, he was assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at the University of the South (Sewanee), where his offense ranked as high as fifth in the nation in rushing and second in the conference in total offense during his four seasons.

Summers was at Oregon State from 1991-95, where he was assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. He also was OSU's recruiting coordinator in his first season. The Beavers led the Pacific-10 Conference in rushing four straight years and he was named the league's top "Offensive Backfield Coach" in 1993. While at Northern Illinois from 1985-90, he coordinated an offense that established 51 school records and seven NCAA records.

Summers began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Kentucky (1980-81) and Texas A&M (1982-84). The Lexington native is a graduate of Tates Creek High School and Georgetown College, where he played as a defensive back.

Summers is married to the former Kathy Hall, daughter of legendary Kentucky basketball coach Joe B. Hall. They have a daughter, Amy Lawyer and son-in-law, Ben Lawyer.

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH, DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

DAVID TURNER

David Turner, whose 25 years of coaching experience features 10 seasons at four Southeastern Conference schools, is in his second stint at Kentucky, serving as assistant head coach and defensive line coach.

Turner loses two starters from last year's line but returns four players, ends Collins Ukwu and Taylor Wyndham, along with tackles Luke McDermott and Mark Crawford, who have started at least five games in their careers.

Turner returned to UK from Mississippi State, where he guided the defensive line from 2007-09. In his first season at MSU, he helped the Bulldogs to their first postseason appearance in seven years, a championship of the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. Three of his linemen, second-team All-SEC performer Titus Brown, Jesse Bowman and Cortez McCraney, went on to sign NFL contracts. Turner had another All-SEC honoree in 2009, Pernell McPhee, and a Freshman All-SEC player in Fletcher Cox.

Turner joined the MSU staff after one season at the University of Alabama. He coached the Crimson Tide defensive ends during his lone campaign in Tuscaloosa. UA finished 23rd nationally in total defense in 2006 and advanced to the Independence Bowl.

Prior to Alabama, Turner was the defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Vanderbilt from 2002-05. One of his linemen, tackle Jovan Haye, went on to the NFL and currently plays with the Tennessee Titans. Vanderbilt had a significant upgrade in talent level during Turner's term as recruiting coordinator as he helped bring in the players for the Commodores' eventual Music City Bowl championship in 2008.

A native of Goldston, N.C., Turner also has worked in the Big Ten Conference at Minnesota (2001), where he worked with the defensive ends, and in the Atlantic Coast Conference at Virginia (1997-2000), where he coached defensive tackles and linebackers. He also was co-special teams coordinator in his final season. The Cavaliers played in the Peach Bowl, Micronpc.com Bowl and the Oahu Classic during his term there.

Turner began his collegiate coaching career in 1986 as an assistant at his alma mater, Davidson College. He worked with the running backs and tight ends over a two-year stretch. In 1988, he moved to North Carolina State, serving two years as a defensive graduate assistant. He worked with a Wolfpack unit that ranked first in the ACC in total defense in 1988 while playing in the Peach Bowl and Copper Bowl.

He spent one year as the defensive line coach at Indiana University of Pennsylvania, helping the team to a 12-2 overall record while reaching the Division II national championship game. He also worked two seasons at James Madison, helping the Dukes to a 9-4 record and a berth in the 1991 Division I-AA playoffs.

Turner returned to the Division I-A ranks in 1993. He spent two seasons as defensive ends coach at Kentucky, where he worked on the staff with Joker Phillips and helped the Wildcats advance to the '93 Peach Bowl. In 1995, he went back to N.C. State, coaching defensive ends and linebackers before going to Virginia in '97.

Turner is married to the former Yvette Modica and the couple has two daughters, Bianca and Alexyia.

GRADUATE / STUDENT ASSISTANT COACHES

TOMMY COOK

Graduate Assistant/Offense

Former Kentucky wide receiver Tommy Cook is in his second season as a graduate assistant at his alma mater. Cook will serve as a graduate assistant for the wide receivers and special teams.

Cook's duties include analysis of opponent film, preparing scouting reports, conducting "self scout" of UK tendencies, overseeing the scout team and assisting with recruiting.

Cook was a wide receiver with the Wildcats from 2000-05, including a sixth year to complete his eligibility because of medical hardship. Cook's career totals included 74 catches for 951 yards and six touchdowns. He also assisted Coach Joker Phillips in coaching the wide receivers in the 2004 season while recovering from an injury.

During his playing career, Cook earned a place on the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll, was named to the UK Athletics Society of Character and was chosen for the ESPN "All-Mayday Team" in honor of players who show extraordinary toughness and determination.

Having earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology in 2004 from UK, Cook is working on a master's degree in sport leadership. Prior to following his dream of becoming a Division I football coach, Cook spent four and a half years in the business sector in surgical sales.

Cook is a native of Victoria, Texas, where he was a standout football and baseball player at Victoria High School.

JONATHAN MARTIN

Graduate Assistant/Defense

Former South Carolina standout and Dallas Cowboy Jonathan Martin is in his first season as a graduate assistant for the defensive coaches after serving as a graduate assistant in the UK sports video department last season.

Martin's duties include analysis of opponent film, preparing scouting reports, conducting "self scout" of UK tendencies, overseeing the scout team and assisting on-campus recruiting.

Martin was a defensive back at South Carolina from 1998 to 2002. During his career, Martin posted 239 tackles, 15.5 tackles-for-loss, three quarterback sacks, six pass breakups, two interceptions and six fumbles forced.

While at USC, Martin won several awards, including the Rex Enright Captain Award and the Best Attitude Award as voted by his teammates and coaches. He was also chosen as the 14th best defensive player in history of the program. Martin, who earned his bachelor's degree in business administration, was a senior in 2002 when UK head coach Joker Phillips was an assistant coach for South Carolina.

After a stint in the Dallas Cowboys' training camp, Martin spent the next few years working as a sports talk radio host in Columbia, S.C., before returning to football in 2006 with the Roma Gladiatori in Rome, Italy. Martin served as a player-coach, helping to develop football in Italy. He held the same position with the Milano Rhinos in 2007.

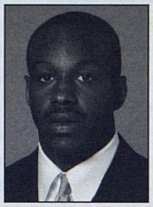

Martin moved back to the United States in 2009 as an assistant coach and head junior varsity coach for A.C. Flora High School in Columbia, S.C.

A native of Columbia, S.C., Martin played his high school football at Richland Northeast High School, where he charted 51 touchdowns and compiled 5,000 rushing yards, leading the state in rushing in 1996 and placing second in 1997.

He is currently working on a master's degree in sport leadership.

GLENN HOLT

Student Assistant

Former NFL and Kentucky wide receiver Glenn Holt is in his first season as a student assistant coach for the Wildcats, working with the wide receivers.

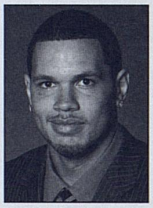

Holt, who played at Kentucky from 2002-05, totaled 88 career receptions for 810 yards and six touchdowns. He also scored two rushing touchdowns. In 2004 he was named the team MVP for catching 49 passes for 415 yards with three touchdowns on the year, including both touchdowns in UK's 14-13 comeback win over Vanderbilt.

A native of Miami, Fla., Holt signed with the Cincinnati Bengals as an undrafted free agent in 2006 and made his NFL debut against the Carolina Panthers later that season. In 2007, Holt recorded five receptions for 52 yards and a touchdown vs. the Cleveland Browns. In a game against the Buffalo Bills he returned a kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown, the second longest kickoff return in Bengals' history. Holt finished the season with 16 receptions for 143 yards and a touchdown. His career receiving totals feature 20 catches for 172 yards and two TDs.

Holt returned to UK in 2011 to complete his bachelor's degree in sociology.

ANDRE' WOODSON

Student Assistant

Former NFL and Kentucky quarterback Andre' Woodson is in his first season as a student assistant for the Wildcats, working with the quarterbacks.

Woodson, a native of Radcliff, Ky., played at UK from 2004-07. The three-year starter totaled 9,360 yards passing with 79 touchdowns en route to becoming one of the most prolific quarterbacks in UK football history. In 2006, he led the Wildcats to an 8-5 record and their first bowl win in 22 years with a victory over Clemson in the Music City Bowl. He was named MVP of that bowl game. Woodson not only led Kentucky but also led the SEC in passing yards with 3,515 and became only the second UK quarterback to throw 30 or more touchdowns in a single season.

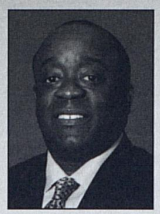

Woodson had a huge senior season in 2007, completing 63.1 percent of his passes (327 for 518) for 3,709 yards with 40 touchdowns and just 11 interceptions. The two-time All-SEC selection helped the Wildcats witness some of the most exciting moments in school history as UK notched its first win over a Top-10 opponent in 30 years with a dramatic comeback win over No. 9 Louisville. The Cats reached the Top-10 rankings for the first time since 1977 and the popular "ESPN GameDay" crew made its first visit to campus. UK also knocked off No. 1-ranked LSU – the eventual national champion – with a 43-37 triple-overtime thriller. The campaign was capped with another Music City Bowl win, this time over traditional power Florida State, and Woodson was again the MVP. Woodson broke Danny Wuerffel's SEC record for passing touchdowns in one season with 40 TDs. He also broke Jared Lorenzen's UK record of 78 career touchdown passes and held the NCAA record for consecutive pass attempts without an interception at 325 until it was broken by Russell Wilson during the 2008-09 seasons (379).

In 2008, Woodson was drafted in the sixth round by the New York Giants and was later was signed by the Washington Redskins before returning to UK in 2011 to work on his bachelor's degree in community communications and leadership development.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACHES

ROCK OLIVER

Director of Strength and Conditioning

Ray "Rock" Oliver is in his second season as the director of strength and conditioning for the UK football team.

Oliver's history includes terms in football and basketball on the collegiate and professional levels. Prior to his current stint UK, he spent six seasons as the associate strength and conditioning coach with the Cincinnati Bengals and has been the head strength coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the New Jersey Nets of the National Basketball Association.

On the collegiate level, Oliver has been the strength and conditioning coach with football and/or basketball teams at Kansas, Pittsburgh, UK, South Carolina and Memphis. He was previously at UK from 1989-92, working with the Wildcat basketball team.

A native of Cincinnati, Oliver was a defensive back at Ohio State in 1980-81 before transferring to the University of Cincinnati. While sitting out the '82 season as a transfer, he became interested in strength training under then-UC Coach Mike Gottfried.

When Gottfried moved to the University of Kansas in 1983, Oliver transferred to Kansas and began working as a strength and conditioning coach while completing his degree. He graduated in 1986.

Oliver is married and has two grown children.

TED LAMBRINIDES

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Ted Lambrinides, a long-time fitness professional with a broad range of experience in the field, enters his second season as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Kentucky. He works mainly with the football team.

Lambrinides (pronounced lam-brin-EE-des), a native of Cincinnati, Ohio, did his undergraduate studies in business marketing and graduate studies in coaching and exercise science at The Ohio State University, where he began his career as a student assistant and graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach. After OSU, Lambrinides worked as director of education for two fitness companies, Nautilus Midwest and Hammer Strength Corporation. In 2001, Lambrinides began his own enterprise as owner and president of High Performance Training, Inc. His business has expanded to three training centers in the Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky area. He has been involved extensively in helping potential NFL players train for the league combine and other evaluation events.

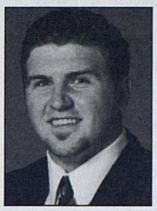

Lambrinides, a member of the NCAA Speakers Bureau, has been a consultant and guest speaker for a variety of topics, including strength training, conditioning and sports nutrition. His clients have featured NFL teams such as Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, Tampa Bay, Jacksonville, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington and Carolina; the Boston Celtics and Toronto Raptors of the NBA; and several universities, including Boston College, Florida, Michigan, Michigan State, Indiana, Stanford, Marquette, Penn State, Navy and Army.

Since 1991, Lambrinides also has been a lecturer and coordinator of the exercise science program at Thomas More College in Crestview Hills, Ky.

Lambrinides and his wife, Kim, have two daughters, Kristin and Rebecca.

BRADY COLLINS

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Brady Collins is in his second season on the strength and conditioning staff for the University of Kentucky football and men's basketball teams, helping in the daily workout regimens for each sport. He also served as the strength and conditioning coach for the 2011 NCAA national championship rifle team.

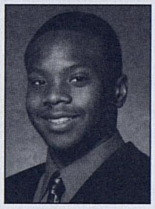

Collins graduated with a bachelor's degree from Otterbein College in 2009, majoring in health promotion and sports sciences with an emphasis in coaching and recently completed his master's degree in kinesiology at UK.

The native of Lewis Center, Ohio, served as an intern at Ohio State University and a certified public trainer at The High Intensity Training Center. While at OSU, Collins worked with 15 men's and women's sports programs, including the nationally ranked football and baseball teams.

Collins, a certified member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association, spent three years as a certified public trainer, helping implement specific individualized training programs for men and women of all ages. He also is a certified USAW Sports Performance Coach.

SHOMARI MOORE

Graduate Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Former Kentucky defensive back Shomari Moore enters his second season as a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach for the University of Kentucky football team.

Moore, a native of Camden, N.J., joined the strength staff in July of 2010 after serving one year as a personal trainer for LyonHeart Sports Academy in Lexington, Ky., which he co-owned with former UK wide receiver Dicky Lyons, Jr. He also worked on the strength and conditioning staff for the Cincinnati Bengals' training camp in 2010.

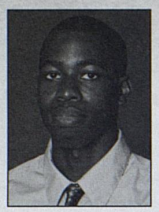

As a Wildcat from 2005-08, Moore saw action in 49 games with 11 starting assignments. He totaled 84 tackles at cornerback, including 3.5 for loss along with four interceptions and seven pass breakups.

Moore graduated with a degree in family and consumer sciences from UK in 2008 and is currently working on a master's degree in kinesiology and health promotion.

FOOTBALL SUPPORT STAFF

GABE AMPONSAH

Senior Athletic Trainer

Gabe Amponsah, a former graduate assistant at Kentucky during the 2006 and 2007 football seasons, enters his third season as senior athletic trainer. He works primarily with the Wildcat football team, including the evaluation and treatment of injuries along with the development and implementation of rehabilitation protocols.

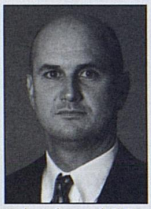

Amponsah, who was sought out by head athletic trainer Jim Madaleno when the position became available, returned to Kentucky after spending a year at Florida State, working with the Seminoles football team.

Before graduating from UK with a master's degree in athletic training in May 2008, Amponsah completed his undergraduate studies in the same discipline at Duquesne University. He also served as an athletic training intern for the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers.

Amponsah is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association and in the state of Kentucky.

DAVID ARMSTRONG

Director of Football Administration

David Armstrong enters his first season as director of football administration at the University of Kentucky. In his role, he will assist the recruiting coordinator with all aspects of operations, organization and management of recruiting.

Prior to accepting the position at Kentucky, Armstrong owned and operated SoutheastScout.com, a recruiting service for Mississippi and Alabama high schools and Mississippi, Kansas and Texas junior colleges.

A native of Brentwood, Tenn., Armstrong was a four-year letter winner at quarterback for Western Kentucky University. As a senior, he led the Hilltoppers to a 9-4 overall record and an appearance in the quarterfinals of the 1988 NCAA Division I-AA Championship.

Following his collegiate career, Armstrong spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at Northeast Louisiana before landing his first full-time coaching position at Austin Peay. With the Governors, he spent five seasons coaching the quarterbacks and fullbacks along with serving as the recruiting coordinator. Armstrong helped lead Austin Peay to the second-best pass offense in school history, while also setting a record for rushing offense in 1994 with 3,408 yards.

After leaving APSU in 1997, Armstrong coached at Bainbridge High School, North Greenville University and Copiah Lincoln Community College as offensive coordinator and Greenville College as a defensive coordinator. Armstrong held several other duties at those stops, including health instructor, recruiting coordinator and the oversight of academics.

After a three-year stint at Samford University, where he coached quarterbacks and helped with the kickoff return game, video coordination, academic and the summer youth camp coordinator, Armstrong earned his first head coaching position at Louisiana College in Pineville, La. During that year, the Wildcats led the American Southwest Conference in nearly every offensive category, including first in total offense and passing offense.

Armstrong left Louisiana College after one season to serve a one-year term as offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator at East Mississippi Community College before a three-year stint with the same title at Hinds Community College. He left Hinds in February of 2009 to begin SoutheastScout.com.

Armstrong earned his bachelor's degree in arts and speech communications from Western Kentucky University and a master's degree in health and physical education from Austin Peay State University.

He has three children, Jackson, Andrew and Isaac.

Foxworth is responsible for staffing of the athletic video office as well as the daily video of the Wildcats' practices. He also is responsible for video of all home and away football games and is the contact for the opponent video exchange and opponent film breakdowns. He also helps handle the numerous media requests for video highlights.

In 2006, Foxworth received the SEC Video Coordinator of the Year Award by the Collegiate Sports Video Association.

Foxworth joined UK from Eastern Kentucky University, where he was the production manager for the school's media resources department for eight years. He earned a degree in broadcasting from EKU in 1989. Foxworth also was a student assistant for two years in the media resources department before joining the staff full-time upon his graduation.

Foxworth is a Lexington native and a graduate of Lafayette High School. He and his wife, Kimber, have a son, Austin, and daughter, Jessica Ann.

GREG GORHAM

Sports Video Production Coordinator

Greg Gorham begins his first year as a member of the University of Kentucky staff as the Sports Video Production Coordinator.

Prior to joining UK in May, Gorham was the founder/owner of KSN Media, a video production business, located in Lexington, Ky. He also produced projects for PGA of America, CBS Sports, Lexmark and co-produced the award-winning "Inside Kentucky Basketball: All-Access" before the 2008-09 season for the Big Blue Sports Network.

From 2004-08, Gorham lived in Washington, D.C. where he served as a feature editor for the nationally syndicated "George Michael Sports Machine" while also editing "The Joe Gibbs Show."

Prior to moving to Washington, Gorham spent three years as a sports photographer/producer at WKYT-TV and 10 years in the same position at WLEX-TV in Lexington.

Gorham is a native of Nashville, Tenn., where he attended Father Ryan High School.

NOLAN JONES

Director of Football Operations

Nolan Jones enters his first season as director of football operations at UK. He assists head coach Joker Phillips in all daily football operations and administrative duties.

Jones worked the previous five years as the director of football operations at Northwestern University in Evanston, Ill. He began at Northwestern in the spring of 2005 as its assistant director of football operations before being promoted to director of football operations in 2006. Prior to working at NU, Jones served as the director of football operations at Princeton (2004-05) and Eastern Kentucky (2003). He jump started his career path at Kentucky in 2002, serving as a football operations assistant under head coach Guy Morriss.

A native of Dayton, Ohio, Jones was a first-team All-Ohio placekicker at Northridge High School. He began his collegiate career at Miami (Ohio). An injury, however, ended his kicking career before his freshman year. Jones then transferred to Eastern Kentucky, where he was an assistant coach in 2000-01 at Madison Central High in Richmond, Ky. He earned his bachelor's degree in sports management and a master's degree in sports administration from EKU.

Jones currently serves on the American Football Coaches Association national committee for directors of football operations.

He and his wife, Crystal, have two sons, Brycen and Parker.

TOM KALINOWSKI

Equipment Manager

Tom Kalinowski enters his 34th year as Equipment Manager for the Kentucky football program.

Kalinowski, a native of Middletown, Conn., received his undergraduate degree from Kentucky in 1978. He had served as a student manager at UK, beginning in 1974 until his graduation. Kalinowski was named Head Football Equipment Manager in 1978.

Kalinowski is a Certified Equipment Manager as designated by the American Equipment Managers Association. He has served on advisory boards for two equipment manufacturing companies, Shutt and Bike.

He graduated from Xavier High School in Middletown in 1974. He was the student manager there for the football, baseball and basketball programs.

Kalinowski and his wife, Vicki, have two sons, Ian and Cody.

JIM MADALENO

Director of Sports Medicine/Head Athletic Trainer Football

Jim Madaleno enters his seventh year as Director of Sports Medicine at Kentucky, his 15th year as the Head Athletic Trainer for the Wildcats' football team.

Madaleno came to UK from Valdosta State University, where he was head athletic trainer from 1989-97 and also served as Assistant Athletics Director for Sports Medicine. Madaleno also worked as the undergraduate curriculum director for an athletic training education program that has been accredited nationally.

Madaleno began his athletic training career as a student athletic trainer at Michigan State University, where he graduated in 1980. He was a graduate assistant athletic trainer at Florida State in 1980-81 and earned a master's in the department of movement science.

Madaleno first went to Valdosta State in 1982 with the inception of the school's football program as the school's first full-time athletics trainer.

In 1985, Madaleno took an assistant athletics trainer's position with the New York Giants. He was with the team when the Giants defeated Denver in the 1987 Super Bowl.

In 1988, Madaleno joined the renowned Hughston Sports Medicine Clinic in Columbus, Ga. He specialized in high school relations and promoted the need for certified athletic trainers on the high school level. However, Madaleno missed the day-to-day relationships with athletes and the excitement of competition, so he returned to Valdosta State in 1989.

In addition to his bachelor's and master's degrees, Madaleno is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association and in the state of Kentucky.

He is a native of Dearborn, Mich. Jim and his wife, Paddy, have two children, Kiley Ann and Ryan James.

AARON WASSON

Director of Equipment Operations

Aaron "Pooh" Wasson enters his second year as the director of equipment operations for Kentucky athletics and his ninth year at UK.

As the director of equipment operations for UK, Wasson handles the management of UK's Nike account, working directly with each coaching staff in UK's 22-sport intercollegiate athletics program.

A native of Winchester, Ky., Wasson began as a student assistant in the football equipment room in 1996. In 2001, he was hired to lead the equipment responsibilities for the Lexington Horsemen of the National Indoor Football League. While a member of the Horsemen staff, Wasson interned at Kentucky, assisting in the operations of the football equipment room. That internship eventually led to a full-time position in 2003 as equipment manager of UK's Olympic sports.

From 2003-06, Wasson oversaw the daily equipment responsibilities of the baseball, softball and men's and women's soccer programs while assisting in the football equipment room. He was a part of the historic 2006 baseball season that resulted in the Wildcats winning their first-ever SEC Championship and being selected as a NCAA Regional host, another first for the program.

Since 2006, Wasson has overseen the operations of the University's exclusive athletic apparel and equipment contract with Nike. His responsibilities include the purchasing, receiving, inventory and budgeting of Nike apparel and equipment for all 22 sports as well as the administrative departments at UK. In addition to his responsibilities on the equipment staff, Wasson also assists in hosting NCAA and SEC championship events, including the 2006 NCAA Baseball Lexington Regional and the 2007 NCAA Men's Basketball First and Second Rounds in Rupp Arena.

Wasson has a bachelor's degree in organizational management and a master's degree in sport leadership from UK. Wasson is married to the former Bonnie Menges and they reside in Lexington.

CRAIG McINTOSH

Kicker. 6-0. 193. Jr-2L
Lexington, Ky. (Lexington Christian Academy)

- National Kickoff Specialist of the Week by the College Football Performance Awards for the Vanderbilt game (2009)
- SEC Academic Honor Roll (2010)

Steady performer who has gradually earned the placekicking and kickoff jobs with his consistency ... Has an interesting story; kicked only one year in high school, then enrolled at Kentucky as a member of UK's Army ROTC program ... After a year as a regular student, he decided to try out in his second year on campus when he read a newspaper article that the Wildcats needed a kickoff man ... Has played in 24 games.

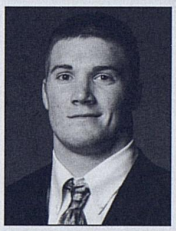

2010 (Sophomore): Second on the team in scoring with 67 points, making 11-of-15 field goals and 34-of-35 extra points … Made eight-consecutive field goals, the second-longest streak in school history ... Hit both field goal attempts at Ole Miss, including a career-long 50-yarder ... Also made 2-of-2 vs. Auburn ... Tied his career long with a 50-yarder against the wind in the BBVA Compass Bowl ... Took over kickoff duties late in the season because of his accurate kick placement ... Has good size and physical development and made two tackles in kick coverage.
2009 (Redshirt Freshman): Tried out for the team when school started in late August and won a place on the squad ... Kicked off the last 10 games of the season ... Had 51 kickoffs, 11 for touchbacks ... Even though he got off to a late start, he ranked fourth in the SEC in total touchbacks ... Had a season-high three touchbacks against Eastern Kentucky and Vanderbilt ... Named the National Kickoff Specialist of the Week for his performance against the Commodores ... Made one tackle in kick coverage.
2008 (Freshman): Enrolled at UK as a member of the ROTC program ... Did not play football, the equivalent of a redshirt season.
High School: Only played football in his senior season at Lexington Christian Academy ... Was the team's starting kicker, punter and linebacker ... Had a long field goal of 48 yards ... Helped LCA to an 11-4 record and a runner-up finish in the Class A state championship ... Coached by Paul Rains ... Two-year all-state honoree in soccer, playing the striker position ... Also participated in the pole vault for the track and field team.
Personal: Born in Rogers, Ark. ... Son of John and Lori McIntosh … Major is kinesiology.
Community Cats: Visited patients at Birmingham Children's Hospital (2011).
Craig says … When I played football as a kid, I pretended I was: Dougie Allen … The coolest thing about being at UK is: still being close to home and having the ability to see my family whenever I want … Something people might not know about me is: I want to fly helicopters in the Army after I graduate … What I like about my position coach, Coach Nord is: he tries to teach some life knowledge in addition to football … If I weren't playing football, I would be: full time committed to ROTC.

2010 GAME RECAPS

1 >> KENTUCKY 23, LOUISVILLE 16 // 09/04/10

Kentucky used three spectacular touchdown drives in the first half, jumping on in-state rival Louisville 20-3 under first-year head coach Joker Phillips, then held on to defeat the Cardinals 23-16 in the first game in the newly renovated Papa John's Cardinal Stadium.

The Wildcats received the opening kickoff and wasted no time getting on the board, scoring on a two-play 70-yard drive. La'Rod King caught a 38-yard pass on the first play and Derrick Locke blazed 32 yards for the touchdown, giving UK a 6-0 lead.

Later in the first quarter, senior quarterback Mike Hartline led a 10-play, 92-yard drive capped by Locke's second touchdown run of the game, this one from one-yard out, to give UK a 13-0 lead.

Louisville got on the board in the second quarter with a field goal. UK responded when wide receiver Randall Cobb lined up as the quarterback in the "WildCobb" formation and rushed 51 yards untouched down the sideline to give the Cats their biggest lead of the day at 20-3.

Louisville's defense held tough in the second half, allowing three points to the Wildcats when Tydlacka nailed a 41-yard field goal in UK's opening drive of the second half. The Cardinals answered quickly to the Wildcats' field goal when Bilal Powell rushed 80 yards to score the Cardinals' lone touchdown on the day and cut the UK lead to 10.

Louisville's next two possessions ended in turnovers as junior college transfer Mychal Bailey gathered an interception and Louisville native Ridge Wilson recovered a fumble. In the fourth quarter, Louisville marched 71 yards down the field, converting several third- and fourth-down conversions to tack on a 27-yard field goal from Chris Philpott and get the game within 23-16. However, the Wildcats took the kickoff with 3:16 to play and tallied three first downs to run out the clock.

The victory was the fourth in a row for the Wildcats over the Cardinals as Hartline became the first starting quarterback to go 3-0 in Governor's Cup history. Hartline completed 17 of 26 passes for 217 yards. Locke reached the century mark by rushing for 104 yards and two touchdowns.

2 >> KENTUCKY 63, W. KENTUCKY 28 // 09/11/10

Quarterback Mike Hartline accounted for four touchdowns and wide receiver Randall Cobb had a hand in three TDs in leading Kentucky to a dominating 63-28 victory over in-state foe Western Kentucky University at Commonwealth Stadium.

WKU actually got on the board first and started the scoring a minute and 13 seconds into the game, getting a 59-yard rushing touchdown from junior tailback Bobby Rainey. However, the Hilltoppers did not score again until 1:15 left in the half as Kentucky posted 35 consecutive points to take a commanding lead in the game.

The UK scoring surge started when Hartline drove the Cats down the field, setting up a two-yard touchdown pass to senior wide receiver Chris Matthews. Kentucky scored again at the end of the first quarter after walk-on defensive tackle Luke McDermott made his first career interception deep in WKU territory. Two plays later, Hartline dived into the endzone on a quarterback sweep to give UK a lead it would not relinquish.

Kentucky scored four more touchdowns in the second quarter, starting with a 50-yard punt return for a touchdown by Cobb. Senior tailback Derrick Locke poked the ball in the endzone from one-yard out for his third rushing touchdown of the season and senior fullback/tailback Moncell Allen hauled in a 15-yard scoring pass from Cobb. UK ended the half when Hartline completed a four-yard pass in the corner of the endzone to sophomore La'Rod King to give UK a 42-14 lead at halftime. It was the most points UK had scored in the first half of a game since tallying 56 vs. North Dakota in 1950.

Hartline did an excellent job leading the offense and completed 16 of 20 passes for 213 yards and three TDs while adding the rushing touchdown. Cobb totaled 207 yards and three TDs in rushing, receiving, passing and kick returns. Rainey also had an outstanding game for WKU with 184 rushing yards and two touchdowns.

3 >> KENTUCKY 47, AKRON 10 // 09/18/10

Tailback Derrick Locke rushed for a career-high 166 yards and two touchdowns, quarterback Mike Hartline threw for 250 yards and two TDs and the Kentucky defense stifled the visitors for most of the game as the Wildcats defeated Akron 47-10.

Leading 6-3 midway through the second quarter, thanks to a pair of Craig McIntosh field goals, the Kentucky offense got hot and posted touchdowns on six consecutive possessions. Hartline threw 13-yard TD passes to wide receivers Randall Cobb and Chris Matthews to give the Cats a 20-3 advantage at halftime.

Locke went to work after intermission, scoring on runs of five and 56 yards. In addition to his career-high single-game effort, Locke also became the seventh Wildcat in school history to rush for more than 2,000 yards in a career.

UK completed the scoring when freshman tailback Raymond Sanders ran for a 28-yard touchdown and sophomore tailback CoShik Williams tallied his first collegiate TD from eight yards out.

Meanwhile, the Kentucky defense limited Akron to 79 total yards in the first three quarters before substituting liberally in the final quarter. The Wildcats posted nine tackles for loss, including five quarterback sacks. Linebacker Danny Trevathan led the defense with eight tackles, including one TFL. Ten different Cats had a primary or assisted tackle for loss.

When the game clock wound down, Kentucky fans could leave Commonwealth Stadium with their Wildcats victorious and the Joker Phillips era off to a 3-0 start. It's the best start for a UK head coach in his inaugural season since 1946 when legendary Paul "Bear" Bryant did the same.

4 >> #9/8 FLORIDA 48, KENTUCKY 14 // 09/25/10

Senior wide receiver Chris Matthews hauled in a career-high six catches for 114 yards and two touchdowns, but it was not enough for the Cats, who fell to the Florida Gators 48-14 in front of a crowd of 90,574 at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium in Gainesville, Fla.

Florida freshman quarterback Trey Burton began his six-touchdown career night with an 11-yard touchdown run from behind center. On the Gators' next possession, Burton switched the tables and caught an 11-yard touchdown pass from UF starting quarterback John Brantley.

In the second quarter, the Gators' Jeremy Brown ended a Kentucky drive with a 52-yard interception return for a touchdown. The Cats responded with a drive deep into Florida territory. It was there that Kentucky pulled off a fake field goal attempt, in which junior Randall Cobb, who was the holder for the kick, threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to a wide-open Matthews. The touchdown pass capped the scoring in the first half and made the score 21-7.

After Florida's Burton rushed 10 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter, the Cats' Matt Roark blocked the Gators' point-after attempt to make the score 27-7. Just over midway through the third quarter, Kentucky senior quarterback Mike Hartline threw a gorgeous 27-yard touchdown pass to Matthews to bring the Cats within 13 points. Hartline finished the game completing 21-of-39 passes for 242 yards and a touchdown. Burton and the Gators responded, however, with a nine-yard touchdown rush from the speedy freshman. Burton continued his record-setting play in the fourth quarter with two more touchdowns.

5 >> OLE MISS 42, KENTUCKY 35 // 10/02/10

Junior wide receiver Randall Cobb totaled a career-high 267 all-purpose yards and senior running back Derrick Locke had 214 all-purpose yards, but the Cats fell on the road to the Ole Miss Rebels 42-35 on a sun-soaked afternoon in Oxford, Miss.

UK got on the board first with an eight-play, 60-yard drive with Locke accounting for all 60 yards for the Cats, including a seven-yard touchdown run on fourth-and-one. Following a fumble on the UK 11-yard line, Ole Miss used three plays to get into the end zone and tie the game at seven. UK responded with a 12-play drive, spanning 80 yards, in which senior quarterback Mike Hartline completed three third-down passes. The drive was capped by a 15-yard touchdown pass from Hartline to Cobb.

Ole Miss took advantage of a pair of UK turnovers to notch touchdowns and pull ahead 21-14. Sophomore kicker Craig McIntosh pulled the Cats within four at the end of the half with a career-long 50-yard field goal.

Following an Ole Miss touchdown to begin the second half, the Cats responded with an 11-play drive capped by a McIntosh 42-yard field goal to bring the Cats within eight. The Rebels then scored a pair of touchdowns for a 42-20 lead early in the fourth quarter.

The Cats rallied, beginning with a 41-yard pass from Hartline to Cobb to the Ole Miss three-yard line. Locke ran it in two plays later. Cobb then made a spectacular catch on the Cats' two-point conversion attempt to bring UK within 14.

UK scored again with 1:46 left on the clock on a 13-yard touchdown catch from senior wide receiver Chris Matthews. UK's on-side kick attempt was a valiant one, but just barely slipped through Kentucky's hands and went out of bounds to give Ole Miss the ball and the win.

Hartline threw for a career-best 300 yards, with Cobb and Locke each getting a career-high 108 receiving yards. Danny Trevathan led the defensive effort with a career high 15 tackles.

Randall Cobb accounted for four touchdowns – two rushing, one passing and one receiving – but Wes Byrum's 24-yard field goal as time expired provided the winning margin as No. 8 Auburn held off upset-minded Kentucky, 37-34.

Cobb opened the game with a 36-yard kickoff return into Auburn territory and finished the first possession with a two-yard touchdown run. The wide receiver/quarterback, operating from the "WildCobb" formation for parts of the game, added a six-yard touchdown pass to freshman tight end Jordan Aumiller, a 16-yard TD catch from Mike Hartline and a one-yard scoring run.

In the process, Cobb tied the Kentucky career record for most touchdowns in a career with 32. He also was the first player since Shane Boyd in 2003 to run for a touchdown, catch a touchdown pass and throw a TD pass in the same game. Cobb rang up 207 total yards during the game. Hartline had a sparkling performance as well, completing 23 of 28 passes for 220 yards and one touchdown.

Auburn also had an outstanding effort from its quarterback Cameron Newton, who had 408 yards total offense, throwing for 210 yards while rushing for 198 yards and four touchdowns.

Newton's four TD runs staked the visitors to a 31-17 halftime lead. Kentucky's defense stiffened in the second half. Safety Winston Guy stopped one possession with an interception and linebacker Danny Trevathan led the team with a career-high 17 tackles. With the spark from the defense, the Wildcats rallied to tie the game at 34-34 on a 35-yard field goal by Craig McIntosh with 7:31 left in the game.

After a muffed kickoff, Auburn took over on its own seven-yard line and methodically moved down the field. Newton drove his team 86 yards in 19 plays, converting three third-down situations, setting up Byrum for the game-winning field goal on the final play.

7 >> KENTUCKY 31, #10/12 S. CAROLINA 28 // 10/16/10

Behind a career performance from senior quarterback Mike Hartline, Kentucky rallied from an 18-point halftime deficit to top the No. 10-ranked South Carolina Gamecocks 31-28.

Hartline completed 32-of-42 passes for 349 yards, four touchdowns and no interceptions, career highs for completions, yards and TDs. Three of the scoring passes came in the second half after the Wildcats trailed 28-10 at intermission.

USC jumped on the board first with a 30-yard touchdown run from freshman running back Marcus Lattimore. The Gamecocks then scored again with 4:40 remaining in the first quarter when quarterback Stephen Garcia connected with sophomore wide receiver Alshon Jeffery.

Following an interception by Wildcat safety Winston Guy, UK cut the Gamecocks' lead in half early in the second quarter with a 10-yard strike from Hartline to La'Rod King.

Behind by 18 at the break, the Cats didn't fold. Kentucky got back in the game in the third quarter on a magnificent 14-play, 95-yard drive, finished by a five-yard pass from Hartline to King, his second touchdown of the game.

In the fourth quarter, the Cats then scored again to pull within 28-23 when Hartline threw a 38-yard touchdown pass to Matthews down the left sideline. UK took over on its own 32-yard line with 7:31 to play and Hartline methodically moved the team downfield. Facing a fourth-and-seven situation on the South Carolina 24-yard line, Hartline put the Cats ahead with a touchdown pass to Randall Cobb with 1:15 on the clock. Cobb then swept left end for a two-point conversion to make the score 31-28. South Carolina mounted its own drive, moving to the Kentucky 20-yard line with 11 seconds to play. Garcia's pass to the end zone was deflected by Cartier Rice and then intercepted by Anthony Mosley to clinch the victory.

8 >> GEORGIA 44, KENTUCKY 31 // 10/23/10

Senior quarterback Mike Hartline passed for a career high 353 yards and tied his career high with four touchdown passes, but it was not enough for the Cats as they fell to Georgia 44-31 in front of 70,884 fans at Commonwealth Stadium.

Following a Kentucky fumble on its own 26-yard line, Georgia drove down to the three-yard line where sophomore running back Washaun Ealey ran in the first of his school-record five rushing touchdowns.

UK responded with a 16-play drive spanning 56 yards to set up a 41-yard field goal from sophomore kicker Craig McIntosh. The 7-3 score didn't stay on the board long as Georgia's Brandon Boykin returned the ensuing kickoff 100 yards for the Bulldogs' second touchdown of the game.

A pair of two-yard touchdown runs from Ealey made the score 28-3 in favor of Georgia before Hartline threw the first of two touchdown passes to sophomore wideout La'Rod King. The first was a 35-yard pass to make the score 28-10 at halftime.

Georgia came out of the break strong with a seven-play, 70-yard drive capped off by a two-yard touchdown by Ealey. The extra point attempt was missed. King caught his second touchdown pass of the game in the final seconds of the third quarter to make the score 34-17.

Georgia responded with a scoring drive, including a one-yard touchdown run by Ealey. Kentucky senior wide receiver Chris Matthews followed that up with a nice catch-and-run down the left sideline for 39 yards and a touchdown. The Wildcats were successful in their two-point conversion attempt as Randall Cobb threw to Matt Roark.

Georgia tacked on a 30-yard field goal and Kentucky drove 59 yards on six plays, capped off by a nine-yard catch from freshman running back Raymond Sanders, to give the game its final score of 44-31. Sanders finished with a career-high 16 rushes for 79 yards, and a career-high seven receptions for a career-high 77 yards receiving.

9 >> #23 MISS. STATE 24, KENTUCKY 17 // 10/30/10

The Kentucky Wildcats fought back from a 10-point deficit late in the second quarter to tie the game, but Mississippi State got the final touchdown in the fourth quarter as the Bulldogs came out with the 24-17 win.

Mississippi State scored the game's opening 10 points thanks to a 33-yard field goal from Derek DePasquale and a 54-yard touchdown run from Vick Ballard.

Kentucky got on the board with 2:39 remaining in the first quarter when senior quarterback Mike Hartline connected with Randall Cobb on a 48-yard pass down the middle for a touchdown.

The Bulldogs scored with 2:39 left in the second quarter on a 21-yard pass from Chris Relf to Arceto Clark. The Cats pulled within seven just before the half, though, as Craig McIntosh hit a 43-yard field goal as time expired.

The Cats evened the score late in the third quarter when Hartline hit senior fullback Moncell Allen on a bootleg to the right. It was a two-yard reception for Allen, his third career receiving touchdown and second of the season.

MSU drove 63 yards for the game-winning touchdown, with Relf running it in from four yards out with 10:28 remaining. The Wildcats got two more possessions but were unable to get the tying score.

Hartline threw for 258 yards and two touchdowns. Cobb amassed a career-high 292 all-purpose yards, including career bests with 12 catches for 171 yards. Danny Trevathan paced the defense with 16 tackles, his fifth-consecutive game in double figures.

10 >> KENTUCKY 49, CHARLESTON SOUTHERN 21 // 11/6/10

With tailbacks Derrick Locke and Raymond Sanders nursing injuries, CoShik Williams rushed for 96 yards and three touchdowns while Donald Russell ran for 110 yards and two TDs as Kentucky defeated Charleston Southern 49-21.

Russell began the scoring for UK with a hard-nosed 25-yard run down the right sideline, fighting through numerous tackle attempts by CSU defenders. The touchdown run capped off a seven-play, 62-yard drive.

Following a Buccaneers touchdown drive, Williams then broke free for 41 yards to get the lead back for UK, 14-7. The resilient Buccaneers responded with a 10-play 80-yard drive capped by a 17-yard touchdown reception from Deon Lee. Kentucky scored the last two touchdowns of the half though, a 53-yard touchdown reception by Chris Matthews and a three-yard touchdown run from Williams that was set up by a 47-yard pass from quarterback Mike Hartline to La'Rod King.

Hartline threw for 272 yards and two touchdowns in the game, and became the fifth quarterback in UK history to throw for 5,000 yards in a career.

The Cats' offense continued to roll in the second half, racking up 21 points, including a 36-yard touchdown reception by Randall Cobb. He finished with four catches for 101 yards, his second-consecutive 100-yard receiving game.

The Kentucky defense had a season-high 10 tackles for loss. Safety Winston Guy led the way with a career-high 16 tackles. Linebacker Danny Trevathan notched 13 tackles – his sixth-consecutive game in double figures – along with a quarterback sack and tackle for loss.

Randall Cobb rushed for 170 yards and two touchdowns and Derrick Locke ran for 145 yards and two TDs in guiding Kentucky to the sixth win of the season, topping Vanderbilt 38-20 on Senior Day at Commonwealth Stadium.

Vanderbilt opened the scoring with a field goal on its first possession of the game and the teams traded scores after that, with the Commodores leading at halftime 13-10 on the strength of a four-yard touchdown run by quarterback Larry Smith.

Inspired by a fiery halftime speech by senior defensive tackle Ricky Lumpkin, Kentucky responded with 28 unanswered points to take control of the game.

Cobb started the second-half scoring for UK with an electrifying 73-yard scamper to give the Cats a 17-13 lead. On the next possession, Cobb appeared to be thrown for a big loss, only to break loose on a mercurial 52-yard run. Locke finished the six-play 80-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run.

Leading 24-13, senior quarterback Mike Hartline threw a perfect pass to senior wide receiver Chris Matthews for a 55-yard touchdown to get the crowd on its feet and give the Cats some breathing room. Hartline finished 15-of-23 for 232 yards and one touchdown. Matthews had five receptions for 97 yards and one touchdown.

A senior from Hugo, Okla., Locke's final carry at Commonwealth Stadium was a career-long 83-yard dash to put the Wildcats ahead 38-13.

The Kentucky defense played an outstanding second half. Safety Winston Guy led the way with a career-high 18 tackles, including 2.5 for loss. Linebacker Danny Trevathan had 10 stops, his seventh-consecutive game in double figures.

12 >> TENNESSEE 24, KENTUCKY 14 // 11/27/10

The University of Kentucky football team closed out the regular season at Neyland Stadium in Knoxville, Tenn., against the Tennessee Volunteers with a 24-14 loss.

After holding Tennessee on their opening drive of the game, Kentucky got on the board first with a 17-yard touchdown scamper from senior tailback Derrick Locke. The touchdown run was set up after a 12-yard pass from senior quarterback Mike Hartline to Randall Cobb on third and long that moved Kentucky to the Tennessee 37-yard line.

The Volunteers responded in the second quarter with an 11-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Tyler Bray to senior wide receiver Gerald Jones. Later in the quarter, the Volunteers took the lead when Bray connected with Denarius Moore for a 12-yard touchdown strike to go up 14-7 at the halftime break. Bray finished the day with 354 yards and two TDs.

The Cats evened the score on the first possession of the third quarter. Facing a fourth-and-one from the Tennessee two-yard line, Hartline connected with freshman tight end Tyler Robinson for the first touchdown of Robinson's collegiate career.

Tennessee took the lead for good later in the third quarter when junior tailback Tauren Poole found his way into the endzone from two yards out. Senior kicker Daniel Lincoln kicked a 36-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to give the Volunteers a 24-14 lead they would hold the remainder of the game.

Hartline completed 31 of 44 passes for 272 yards. His favorite target was Cobb, who snagged 13 catches for 116 yards. Locke added 97 rushing yards. Junior linebacker Danny Trevathan finished the game with a team-high 10 tackles, the eighth-consecutive game Trevathan has recorded double-digit tackles.

Kentucky finished the regular season with a 6-6 record, making the Wildcats bowl eligible for the fifth-straight season.

13 >> PITTSBURGH 27, KENTUCKY 10 // 1/8/11

BBVA COMPASS BOWL, BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

In what would eventually be his final game as a Kentucky Wildcat, UK All-American Randall Cobb earned a game-high 204 all-purpose yards, breaking the Southeastern Conference single-season record as Kentucky fell 27-10 to Big East tri-champion Pittsburgh in the 2011 BBVA Compass Bowl.

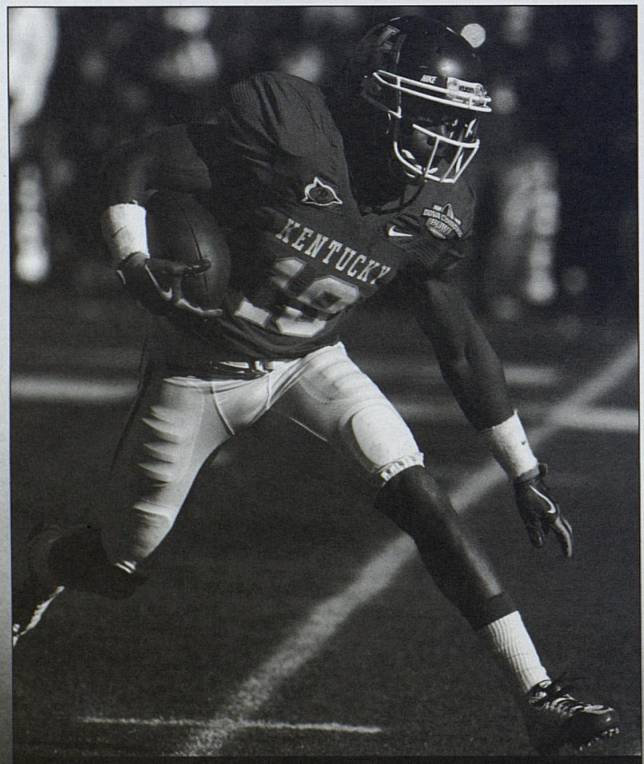

The bowl appearance was the school-record fifth consecutive for the Wildcats, who have now appeared in postseason play a total of 15 times with an 8-7 record. The bowl appearance for head coach Joker Phillips marked the first time in school history that a UK coach has gone to a bowl game in his first season on the job.

Kentucky entered the game with new faces on the coaching staff and at quarterback as co-defensive coordinator Rick Minter coached his first game with the Wildcats, while sophomore Morgan Newton gained his first start of the season at quarterback after the suspension of senior Mike Hartline.

Minter's defense performed well in the game, limiting Pittsburgh to 96 passing yards on just nine completions while Randall Burden grabbed a key interception in the first quarter. Danny Trevathan led UK in tackles with 14, while Winston Guy had eight tackles, a tackle-for-loss and a pass breakup.

On the offensive side, Newton was 21-for-36 for 211 yards, while senior Derrick Locke paced UK in rushing and receiving with 12 rushes for 71 yards and six receptions for 61 yards. Cobb ended his UK career with three rushes for 23 yards and five catches for 62 yards.

The game started with Pittsburgh receiving the ball and marching 53 yards down the field before Tino Sunseri was picked off by Burden to swing momentum to the Wildcats. After Newton completed three consecutive passes and Locke had a brilliant 28-yard rush into Pitt territory, the Wildcats made their only turnover of the game and fumbled the ball. The Panthers then went three and out and on the ensuing position, Craig McIntosh drilled a 50-yard field goal to give the Wildcats their lone lead of the game 3-0.

Randall Cobb broke the SEC single-season record for all-purpose yardage, finishing the season with 2,396 all-purpose yards.

Moncell Allen celebrates his touchdown run.

Pittsburgh took the lead late in the second quarter 6-3 after Dan Hutchins hit back-to-back field goals from 21 and 33 yards. The Panthers scored their first touchdown late in the quarter on a one-yard quarterback sneak by Sunseri to go up 13-3 at halftime.

The teams traded touchdowns in the third quarter. On Pitt's first possession of the half, Sunseri hit Brock DeCicco for a touchdown to give the Panthers their biggest lead of the game at 20-3.

The Wildcats put together a good drive later in the quarter. Newton guided the Cats 74 yards on 14 plays, capped when senior fullback Moncell Allen bulldozed in from one-yard out to cut the lead to 20-10. Pittsburgh tacked on its final touchdown in the fourth quarter.

UK

HISTORY AND TRADITION

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL HISTORY

From UK's first All-American, Clyde Johnson, to its most recent, Randall Cobb; from Professor A.M. Miller to Coach Joker Phillips; from old Stoll Field to Commonwealth Stadium; from the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association to the Southeastern Conference; and with all the ensuing changes, Kentucky football holds a unique and storied tradition that began in 1881.

UK football holds a captivating list of firsts: UK was the first Southeastern Conference team to introduce football, which it did in 1881; UK played in the first and only Great Lakes Bowl in 1947, defeating Villanova, 24-14; Kentucky tackle Bob Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy, making him the first player from the SEC to claim the honor; the Wildcats' Nat Northington was the first African-American player to sign with a Southeastern Conference institution and the first to play in a league contest – vs. Ole Miss in 1967. And in 1989, UK became the first SEC school to win the coveted College Football Association Academic Achievement Award for highest graduation rate.

In 120 seasons, Kentucky has participated in 1,182 contests and owns 573 wins, 565 losses and 44 ties. The 573 victories rank 44th among NCAA Bowl Subdivision (formerly Division I-A) programs in most wins.

Kentucky football has won one national championship, two Southeastern Conference championships and appeared in 15 bowls.

UK football has had 15 National Football League first-round draft choices, one Outland Trophy winner, 23 first-team All-Americans (selected 27 times), 14 Academic All-Americans (selected 17 times), 74 first-team All-SEC players (selected 99 times), and 475 Academic All-SEC selections.

Kentucky football got its start on Nov. 12, 1881. Kentucky, known in those days as A&M College, Kentucky State College and/or State University of Kentucky, defeated Kentucky University by the clumsy score of 7 1/4 to 1. The game of football resembled more of a rugby form and the scoring procedure is still unclear. Though football came to Kentucky in 1881, it quickly vanished after the three-game season. UK finished 1-2 in the inaugural campaign, but the lid was shut on UK football for the next nine seasons.

Football returned to the University of Kentucky in 1891, when UK defeated Georgetown College, 8-2, on April 10, 1891.

The sport would not again be interrupted until the 1943 season because of World War II.

The first known head football coach at Kentucky was Professor A.M. Miller, who the students asked to coach despite his admitted limited knowledge of the game. Miller began the 1892 season, then graciously stepped aside later in the year for John A. Thompson, who had more experience with the sport.

> Kentucky has claimed one national championship, won two SEC championships, and appeared in 15 bowls.

Some successful years in the early 1900s dot the UK record book. Kentucky finished 7-1 in 1903 under Coach C.A. Wright; 9-1 in 1904 under Coach F.E. Schact; 9-1-1 in 1907 with Coach J. White Guyn, and 9-1 in 1909 under E.R. Sweetland.

The greatest UK team of that era was the 1898 squad, known simply to Kentuckians as "The Immortals." To this day, the Immortals remain the only undefeated, untied, and unscored upon team in UK football history. The Immortals were coached by W.R. Bass and ended the year a perfect 7-0-0, despite an average weight of 147 pounds per player. Victories came easily for this squad, as the Immortals raced by Kentucky University (18-0), Georgetown (28-0), Company H of the 8th Massachusetts (59-0), Louisville Athletic Club (16-0), Centre (6-0), 160th Indiana (17-0) and Newcastle Athletic Club (36-0).

Besides Bass, two of the most successful coaches in the early stages of UK football were E.R. Sweetland and Harry Gamage. Sweetland compiled a 23-5 mark in three seasons (1909-10, 12). His best year was 9-1 in '09. Gamage took the reins of the UK program in 1927 and remained until following the 1933 campaign. In between, Gamage led the Wildcats to a combined 32-25-5 record. His best season was 6-1-1 in '29.

One of Gamage's brightest moments came during the 1930 season. During the 57-0 blanking of Maryville, UK running back Shipwreck Kelly rushed for a school-record 280 yards in leading the Cats.

More than a decade after Gamage had left UK, a young man by the name of Paul "Bear" Bryant arrived on the scene at Lexington in 1946. Bryant quickly grabbed the UK program by the collar and turned the Cats into a national power.

Bryant took UK to eight consecutive winning seasons (1946-53) and helped the Wildcats claim their first national championship and Southeastern Conference championship in 1950. He also sent UK squads to four bowl games which included the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl, 1950 Orange Bowl, 1951 Sugar Bowl, and the 1952 Cotton Bowl.

The biggest win in UK football history came under Bryant. After leading Kentucky to its first SEC title and a 10-1 regular-season record, UK found itself matched with defending national champion Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl. The Wildcats scored early and held off the Sooners, 13-7, breaking Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak which is currently the ninth-longest in NCAA history.

In the 1990s, research by Jeff Sagarin, who compiles the Sagarin Computer Ratings for USA Today, indicated that UK is the national champion for the 1950 season under that ranking system.

Also under Bryant, tackle Bob Gain became the first UK and SEC player to win the Outland Trophy in 1950. Other standouts in the Bryant era included George Blanda, All-American Babe Parilli, and eventual UK coach Jerry Claiborne.

Bryant left Kentucky following the 1953 season. He compiled an impressive 60-23-5 record in eight years. Bryant's 60 victories are still a UK football record for head coaches.

Blanton Collier had the task of following in Bryant's footsteps. He stayed eight years at UK as well, etching a 41-36-3 record from 1954 to 1961. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his 5-2-1 record against arch-rival Tennessee. He coached All-Americans Lou Michaels (1957-58) and Howard Schnellenberger (1955) at UK.

Charlie Bradshaw became the head mentor at UK in time for the 1962 season. Bradshaw, a UK graduate who lettered four years (1946-49), managed only a 25-41-4 record in seven seasons. One highlight of his term at UK came in 1964, a 27-21 upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss in Jackson, Miss.

John Ray entered the scene in 1969 as head coach. In four years, Ray was 10-33. His biggest win came during his first year as Kentucky again victimized Ole Miss and Archie Manning. The Cats upset the Rebels, 10-9, in Lexington.

The Fran Curci era began in 1973, the same year Kentucky moved from ancient Stoll Field/McLean Stadium to spacious Common-wealth Stadium. Though Curci had only one winning campaign during his first three years, things got interesting beginning with the 1976 season. UK ended the '76 year with an 8-3 record and its second SEC championship.

Kentucky helped secure its second league title on the strength of a 62-yard touchdown pass from Derrick Ramsey to Greg Woods to beat Tennessee, 7-0, at Knoxville, Tenn. The victory clinched a berth in the Peach Bowl against North Carolina, UK's first postseason appearance in 25 years. Before a UK contingent estimated at 25,000, the Cats blanked the Tar Heels, 21-0.

The following year, Kentucky went on NCAA probation. Despite an early season loss at Baylor, the Wildcats rolled to an impressive 10-1 record doing it the hard way. Kentucky defeated Penn State (24-20) in University Park, Pa., defeated LSU (33-13) in Baton Rouge, La., blanked Georgia (33-0) in Athens, Ga., beat Florida (14-7) in Gainesville, Fla., and defeated Tennessee (21-17) in Lexington.

In the Curci era, players like Sonny Collins (UK career leader with 3,835 yards rushing), All-Americans Warren Bryant and Art Still and multi-talented Derrick Ramsey, wore the blue and white. In all, Curci worked nine years, the longest term of any UK head coach.

Jerry Claiborne answered the call of his alma mater in December of 1981 and was named the school's 31st head football coach. Claiborne had played at UK from 1946-49 and was an assistant coach under Bryant at UK in 1952-53.

After an 0-10-1 mark in Claiborne's first season, his 1983 squad tied for the nation's most improved program with a regular-season record of 6-4-1. As a reward, the Hall of Fame Bowl offered an invitation and UK accepted.

Kentucky improved in 1984, finishing with a 9-3 record which included a thrilling 20-19 win over Wisconsin in the '84 Hall of Fame Bowl.

Claiborne won 41 games during his eight seasons with the Wildcats. Claiborne and Bryant are the only two UK coaches to win at least five games in seven consecutive seasons.

During Claiborne's tenure, Kentucky captured the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. UK led the SEC in SEC Academic Honor Roll selections (68) during the Claiborne era, including a then-league record of 17 players named to the 1989 honor roll.

Individually, quarterback Bill Ransdell played under Claiborne and left as UK's all-time leader in passing and total offense. Mark Higgs departed as the school's second-leading rusher and tackle Oliver Barnett set a UK record with 26 quarterback sacks.

After Claiborne's retirement, Bill Curry took over as head coach in 1990. Curry returned UK to the bowl scene in 1993 as the Wildcats played in the Peach Bowl.

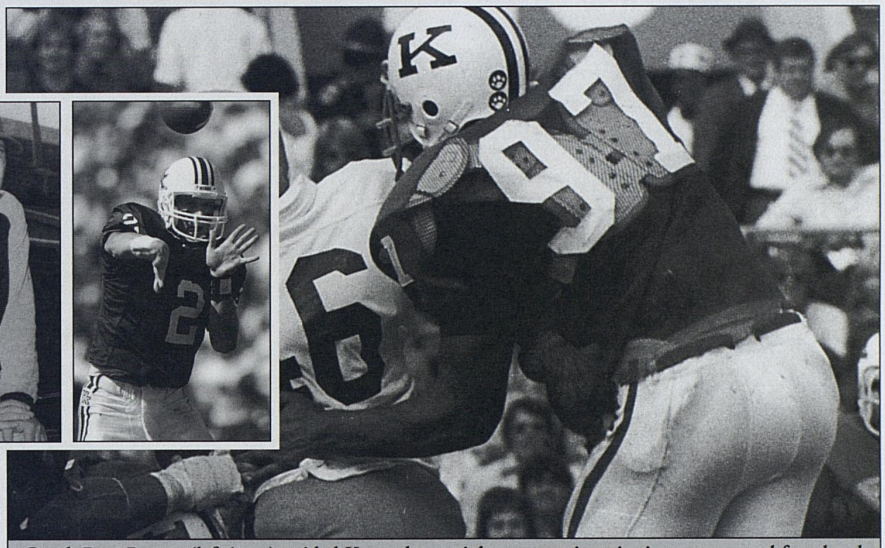

In 1994, the Wildcats faced intrastate rival Louisville for the first time in 70 years and defeated the Cardinals 20-14 in front of a then-record 59,162 fans in Commonwealth Stadium.

The 1995 season was highlighted by tailback Moe Williams, who rushed for 1,600 yards, broke three SEC records, and broke or tied 15 school records. Williams had 429 all-purpose yards in a win at South Carolina, the second-highest single-game total in NCAA history.

The arrival of Coach Hal Mumme in 1997 unleashed a lightning bolt of enthusiasm for Kentucky football. Mumme's dynamic "Air Raid" offense put UK among the national leaders in passing yardage and total offense and the '97 team broke or tied 51 school records and 15 Southeastern Conference records.

Kentucky returned to the bowl scene in 1998 when the Wildcats won seven games. Quarterback Tim Couch was a first-team All-American, SEC Player of the Year, and a finalist for the Heisman Trophy while rewriting NCAA, SEC, and UK record books. Wide receiver Craig Yeast became the leading pass catcher in SEC history. The Wildcats capped their season by playing Penn State in the Outback Bowl, the school's first New Year's Day bowl game in 47 years.

Following the Outback Bowl season, Commonwealth Stadium was expanded. UK enclosed both end zones and added personal suites in time for the 1999 season, boosting seating capacity to 67,606. The Wildcats celebrated the stadium expansion with another bowl season.

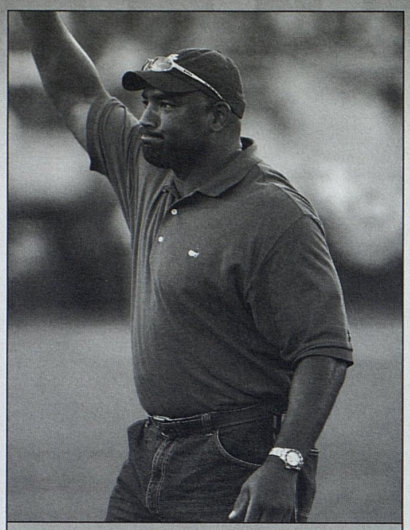

Coach Bear Bryant (left inset) guided Kentucky to eight consecutive winning seasons and four bowl games from 1946-53. Other legendary UK football names include Art Still, who earned consensus first-team All-America honors at defensive end in 1977 and All-America quarterback Tim Couch (right inset), who led Kentucky to its first New Year's Day Bowl appearance in 47 years in the 1999 Outback Bowl.

All-America tight end James Whalen helped lead UK to the 1999 HomePoint.com Music City Bowl, marking the school's first back-to-back bowl appearances since 1983-84.

Guy Morriss coached the Wildcats in 2001-02. He guided UK to seven wins in '02, but the Wildcats could not go to a bowl game because of NCAA probation. Derek Abney returned six kicks for touchdowns, more than any player in one season in NCAA history, and was named first-team All-America along with punter Glenn Pakulak. Pakulak emerged as the best punter in school history and won the Mosi Tatupu Award as National Special Teams Player of the Year.

Inheriting a roster weakened by probation was the major obstacle for Rich Brooks when he took over as head coach in 2003. Brooks' rebuilding efforts began bearing fruit in 2006. The Wildcats had their best season in 22 years by winning eight games, including a 28-20 upset of highly favored Clemson in the Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl.

Led by quarterback Andre' Woodson, tailback Rafael Little, wide receiver Keenan Burton, tight end Jacob Tamme and linebacker Wesley Woodyard, the 2007 season contained some of the most exciting moments in school history.

Seven-time NFL All-Pro center Dermontti Dawson was one of the former Wildcat football players inducted into UK Athletics' inaugural Hall of Fame class in September 2005.

UK notched its first win over a Top-10 opponent in 30 years with a dramatic comeback victory over No. 9 Louisville. UK reached the Top-10 rankings for the first time since 1977 and the popular "ESPN GameDay" crew made its first visit to campus. UK also knocked off No. 1-ranked LSU -- the eventual national champion -- with a 43-37 triple-overtime thriller. The campaign was capped with another Music City Bowl win, this time over traditional power Florida State.

Kentucky capped the 2008 season with a win over East Carolina in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, the first time in school history that UK won bowl games in three consecutive seasons.

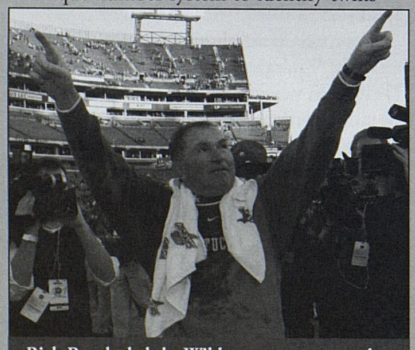

The momentum continues with a school-record streak of five-straight bowl games. Coach Rich Brooks retired following the 2009 campaign, handing the reins to former Wildcat player and long-time assistant coach Joker Phillips. Sparked by All-America receiver Randall Cobb, Phillips became the first head coach in UK history to take the Wildcats to a bowl game in his first season.

Wildcat Traditions & Legends

Below is a closer look at some of the traditions and history which has molded the past 120 seasons of Kentucky football. Some of the anecdotes were derived from the book, "The Wildcats," which was written by former UK Sports Information Director Russell Rice.

1A And 1B

During the course of his legendary career, Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant was known as an innovator of introducing changes in the game of football. One change Bryant introduced during his tenure at Kentucky was the use of a unique number system to identify twins Harry and Larry Jones, who both lettered three years (1950-52) with the Wildcats. Harry wore 1A and Larry wore 1B. Harry led the Wildcats in all-purpose yardage in 1951 with 964 while Larry led UK in kickoff returns (21.1 avg) in 1952.

Rich Brooks led the Wildcats to an unprecedented four consecutive bowl appearances and three bowl victories during his seven-year tenure (2003-09) as UK's head coach.

Blue and White

The University of Kentucky adopted blue and white as its official colors in 1892. Originally, UK students had decided on blue and yellow prior to the Kentucky-Centre football game on Dec. 19, 1891. The shade of blue came about when a student asked the question, "What color blue?" Richard C. Stoll, who lettered on the 1893-94 football teams, pulled off his necktie and held it up. The students adopted that particular shade of blue in Stoll's necktie. A year later, UK students dropped yellow for white.

Rich Brooks

Rich Brooks coached the Wildcats from 2003-09 and became the first coach in school history to go to four-straight bowl games. After enduring three years of rebuilding caused by an NCAA probation, Brooks guided UK to post-season play from 2006-09, winning a school-record three straight bowls following the 2006, '07 and '08 seasons.

Coach Jerry Claiborne gets a victory ride following UK's win at Tennessee in 1984. Claiborne was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2000.

Paul "Bear" Bryant

Paul Bryant is still the most successful coach in UK football history. Bryant spent eight years at UK (1946-53) and produced a 60-23-5 (.710 pct.) record. The 60 victories are the most by any UK football coach. He led the Wildcats to four bowl games and their first Southeastern Conference title in 1950. He coached such UK stars as George Blanda, Jerry Claiborne, Bob Gain, Babe Parilli, Doug Moseley, Wilbur Jamerson and Steve Meilinger.

UK Cheerleaders 18-Time National Champions

The Kentucky cheerleading squad won an unprecedented 18th national cheerleading championship in 2010 at the competition sponsored by the Universal Cheerleaders Association. The cheerleaders have won the UCA national title in 1985, 1987, 1988, 1992, 1995-2002, 2004-06 and 2008-10 and have been the runners-up on five occasions. Jomo Thompson is coach of the cheerleaders and T. Lynn Williamson is the cheerleader advisor. A total of 40 students comprise the squad, 16 of whom represent the school at the championship.

Jerry Claiborne

After lettering three years (1946-49) as a player and serving two seasons (1952-53) as an assistant coach at Kentucky, Jerry Claiborne returned to his alma mater in 1982 as UK's 31st head football coach. Claiborne stepped down after 28 years as a collegiate head coach in 1989. He led the Wildcats to two bowls and four non-losing seasons. During his era, Kentucky placed more players (68) on the SEC Academic Honor Roll than any league school, including a then-record 17 in 1989. Claiborne also led UK to a national academic title by capturing the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. His eight-year UK record was 41-46-3. Overall, Claiborne finished 21st among Division I coaches with 179 career victories and 179-122-8 in all games. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in Aug. 2000.

CFA Academic Achievement Award

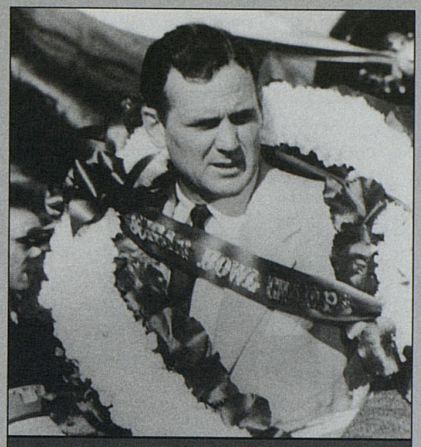

The University of Kentucky became the first Southeastern Conference institution to win the College Football Association Academic Achievement Award after claiming the prestigious honor in 1989. The Academic Achievement Award is given to the CFA institution with the highest graduation rate of its football program based on a five-year period. UK had graduated 90 percent (18 of 20) of its incoming freshman signee class of 1983, thus earning the honor in May, 1989. A year earlier (1988), UK finished second with a graduation rate of 90.5 percent. Kentucky earned honorable mention honors in 1988, '91, '93 and '94, for having graduated better than 70 percent of its incoming freshman class.

Blanton Collier And The Staff

Blanton Collier had the challenge of following Paul Bryant as head football coach at the University of Kentucky. But, Collier posted a fine 41-36-3 record in eight seasons at UK. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his record against arch-rival Tennessee which stood at 5 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie. Standouts such as Howard Schnellenberger, Lou Michaels, Tom Hutchinson, Bobby Cravens, Calvin Bird and Irv Goode played under Collier. One fascinating item in Collier's tenure was the football coaching staff he assembled in 1959. The 1959 UK staff included Collier, Ed Rutledge, Howard Schnellenberger, Ermal Allen, Don Shula, John North, Bob Cummings and Bill Arnsparger.

The goalposts came down after UK's 1997 overtime win against Alabama.

Bear Bryant's Sugar Bowl champion Wildcats earned the 1950 national title, according to the Sagarin computer ratings.

Fran Curci

The Fran Curci era (1973-81) was one of ups and downs at the University of Kentucky. Curci remained at UK for nine seasons, the longest tenure of any UK football coach, and posted a 47-51-2 record. The ups consisted of sharing the 1976 Southeastern Conference title with Georgia, a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina in the '76 Peach Bowl, and a 1977 squad which boasted a 10-1 record and No. 5 national ranking. The down was probation which forced the '77 squad to miss a certain bowl invitation.

DiGiuro Scholarship

The Trent DiGiuro Memorial Scholarship was established in the autumn of 1994 in honor of the Wildcat offensive guard who died in July of that year. The scholarship is awarded each year to a walk-on football player who has completed his eligibility, maintained a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.5, and has exemplified the dedication, determination, hard work and leadership typified by Trent DiGiuro. If there is no suitable walk-on candidate that year, the scholarship will go to a team manager or trainer who meets the above criteria. The scholarship was established by DiGiuro's family and friends. The 2011 winner of the scholarship is fullback Brian Murphy.

Forward Pass

The first forward pass attempted by a University of Kentucky football player was thrown on Oct. 13, 1906, by quarterback Earl Stone as the Wildcats faced Eminence Athletic Club. This was the first year the forward pass was legalized by national rules. Accounts from this early contest do not indicate if the first forward UK pass was completed.

Goalposts

The Commonwealth Stadium goalposts have been torn down twice since the stadium opened in 1973.

They were first toppled on Oct. 4, 1997, following Kentucky's 40-34 overtime win vs. Alabama. It was Kentucky's first victory against the Crimson Tide in 75 years, prompting the UK student body to storm the field. "If I weren't so old, I'd have torn them down myself," said then-UK Athletics Director C. M. Newton.

It happened again on Nov. 4, 2006, after the Wildcats' dramatic 24-20 triumph over Georgia. It was UK's first win over the Bulldogs in 10 years and the crowd brought down the east goalpost.

Citing safety concerns, UK has installed collapsible goalposts, which will prevent repeats of the popular -- but potentially dangerous -- celebration ritual.

Governor's Cup

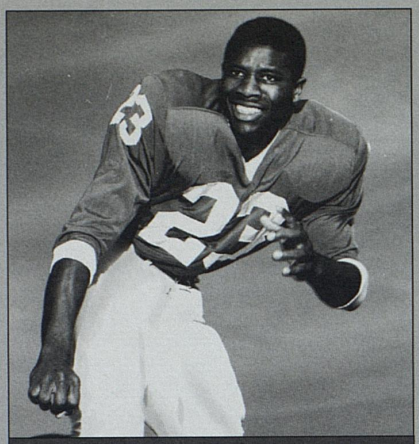

The Governor's Cup was created in 1994 as the trophy for the winner of the Kentucky-Louisville game. Donated by Kroger at a cost of $23,000, the Governor's Cup stands 33 inches tall and weighs 110 pounds. The trophy's base and upright columns are hand-milled black marble. The glass components are comprised of Optic grade crystal. All metal parts are 23-karat, gold-plated brass. The cup itself is solid pewter with a 23-karat gold-plated finish. The Governor's Cup was designed by Kendall Costner and sculpted by James Corcoran of Bruce Fox, Inc. The UK-U of L series was renewed in 1994 with the Wildcats winning the game, 20-14.

Homecoming Games

As is the case of most institutions, Homecoming football games are special. Kentucky is no exception. Alumni and old friends converge on the UK campus each fall for Homecoming Day, highlighted by a Kentucky football game. The first Homecoming Day occurred on Nov. 25, 1915, as Kentucky defeated Tennessee, 6-0. Though records are sketchy, Kentucky has hosted a Homecoming game every year since 1946 and owns a 46-19 record in those 65 contests.

The Immortals

Simply known as "The Immortals," the 1898 University of Kentucky football squad still remains as the only undefeated, untied, and unscored on Wildcats club in school history. The Immortals outscored opponents 180-0 while posting a perfect 7-0-0 record. Roscoe Severs served as team captain under coach W.R. Bass. The closest of all seven games was a 6-0 victory over Centre College.

In 1965, Nat Northington became the first African-American football player to sign with an SEC school.

Cawood Ledford

The legendary "Voice of the Wildcats" was none other than Cawood Ledford. For 39 years, Cawood called Wildcats football and basketball. His voice alone symbolized UK Athletics. Cawood called his last UK football game vs. Tennessee on Nov. 23, 1991, and retired from the microphone following the 1991-92 basketball season.

Mascots

The Wildcat mascot originated during the 1976-77 academic year at Kentucky. Gary Tanner was the original Wildcat, dancing and entertaining thousands of UK fans at Commonwealth Stadium and Rupp Arena during athletic events.

Today, the Wildcat mascot also attends academic functions and generally serves as a friendly ambassador for the University.

Scratch, another costumed mascot, was unveiled in August of 1996. During UK games, the Wildcat and Scratch entertain with enthusiastic dances and cheers.

"Blue" is UK's 'live' wildcat mascot. "Blue" has a permanent residence in the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife's Salato Wildlife Center three miles west of Frankfort on US 60 and is on display and free to view by the public. Through the years, UK has had other official live mascots with colorful names. Records indicate that the first wild animal, named "Tom," was given to the University in 1921. Other live mascots followed, including "TNT," "Whiskers," "Hot Tamale" and "Colonel."

Minus Ninety-Three

The University of Kentucky holds the Southeastern Conference record for fewest yards allowed rushing in a single game. Kentucky limited Kansas State to minus-93 yards on the ground as UK defeated Kansas State, 16-3, on Sept. 19, 1970, in Lexington. Kentucky defenders sacked KSU quarterbacks Lynn Dickey (2) and Max Arreguin (5) seven times while intercepting three of their passes. Ironically, KSU outgained UK in total offense 214-107 as Dickey and Arreguin combined for 307 yards in the air.

National Champions

Kentucky is the 1950 national champion, according to Jeff Sagarin, who handles computer rankings for USA Today. Sagarin, who has generated computer ratings since the 1970s, has reconstructed earlier seasons and his computer rates the Wildcats as tops for the 1950 campaign.

At the time, the national champs were crowned after the regular season but before the bowl games. UK finished the regular season with a 10-1 record and No. 7 ranking before knocking off No. 1 Oklahoma, 13-7, in the Sugar Bowl. Four teams can lay claim to the 1950 title, according to the official NCAA record book. Six selectors went with Oklahoma (final record 10-1), six picked Tennessee (11-1), two chose Princeton (9-0), and one – the Sagarin ratings – named Kentucky (11-1).

The First Night Game

The University of Kentucky was one of the first institutions to play intercollegiate football at night. The first UK home night game was played on Oct. 5, 1929, at Stoll Field as Kentucky defeated Maryville, 40-0. Kentucky did not play more than one home night game per season until 1946.

Night Games

The University of Kentucky began holding its October home football games during the evening hours in 1949. UK and Keeneland Race Course, located in Lexington, have enjoyed a close relationship through the years and assist in giving UK faithful an opportunity to enjoy two of the Commonwealth's best-loved events in October — football and horse racing. With the traditional post time at Keeneland for the thoroughbred races at 1:10 p.m., UK began moving its October home games to night during the 1949 season. The only occasion UK has not conducted its October home games in the evening is to accommodate live national or regional television.

Nat Northington

Nat Northington of Louisville became the first black player to sign with the University of Kentucky and a Southeastern Conference institution. Northington signed a national letter-of-intent with UK in December of 1965. He later became the first African-American football player to play in an SEC vs. SEC game, appearing in the UK-Ole Miss game in Lexington on Sept. 30, 1967.

Outland Trophy

Two-time All-American Bob Gain is the only player in University of Kentucky football history to be awarded the Outland Trophy, signifying the best interior lineman in collegiate football. Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy after helping lead UK to its first Southeastern Conference title and a 10-1 regular-season record. Besides being the first UK player to claim the award, Gain was also the first SEC player to be given the award.

The Prince of Wales

The Kentucky Wildcats gave Prince Charles, the Prince of Wales, his first taste of American football on Oct. 22, 1977. That's right, Prince Charles' first football game was the UK-Georgia matchup at Athens. Prince Charles was introduced to UK Coach Fran Curci and All-American Art Still at halftime. After looking at the 6-6 Still, Prince Charles said, "You're a tall one aren't you?" Still and Co. blanked the Bulldogs on this day, 33-0, on their way to a 10-1 record.

Red Doc, Black Doc

A pair of cousins named William Rodes played football for the University of Kentucky during the early 1900s. To distinguish one from the other, one was nicknamed "Red Doc" and the other "Black Doc." William "Red Doc" Rodes lettered three years (1909, 11-12) as a 140-pound halfback and defensive end. William "Black Doc" Rodes lettered two years (1915-16) as quarterback. Black Doc was considered by many to be one of the best open-field runners in that era. He also placekicked and personally delivered UK's 6-0 victory over Tennessee in 1915 with field goals of 45 and 43 yards.

Russell Rice

Longtime UK sports information director Russell Rice is the walking, talking historian when it comes to Wildcats football. Rice retired from the UK Athletics Department in 1989 after serving 18 years as sports information director. He came to UK in 1967 as assistant SID under Ken Kuhn, then was named sports information director in 1969. Rice authored the book, "The Wildcats," which details Kentucky football and its history. At his retirement party, Rice was given a lifetime "Press Pass" to Commonwealth Stadium.

Since his retirement from UK, Rice has written a weekly historical column for The Cats' Pause magazine and he continues to be a rich historical resource for the UK media relations office.

Kentucky Fight Song

On, on U of K, we are right for the fight today,
Hold that ball and hit that line,
Every Wildcat star will shine,
We'll fight, fight, fight,
For the blue and white,
As we roll to that goal, varsity,
And we'll kick, pass and run,
'til the battle is won,
And we'll bring home the victory.

My Old Kentucky Home

The sun shines bright on my old Kentucky home,
'Tis summer, the people are gay;
The corntop's ripe and the meadow's
in the bloom,
While the birds make music all the day.

(Chorus)
Weep no more, my lady!
Oh! Weep no more today!
We will sing one song for my
old Kentucky home,
For my old Kentucky home far away.

The young folks roll on the little cabin floor,
All merry, all happy, and bright;
By-n-by hard times come a-knocking
at the door,
Then my old Kentucky home, goodnight!

UK Alma Mater

Hail Kentucky, Alma Mater!
Loyal sons and daughters sing;
Sound her praise with voice united;
To the breeze her colors fling.
To the Blue and White be true;
Badge triumphant age on age;
Blue, the sky that o'er us bends;
White, Kentucky's stainless page.

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was the first home for Kentucky football. The stadium was located adjacent to Memorial Coliseum and served as UK's football home since 1916. The University Board of Trustees voted to name the playing field "Stoll Field" and the actual grandstand structures as "McLean Stadium," thus the often confusing double names. Stoll Field was named in honor of the late Judge Richard C. Stoll, a prominent alumnus, trustee and benefactor of UK. Stoll Field was dedicated on Oct. 14, 1916. McLean Stadium was dedicated on Nov. 1, 1924, in memory of Price Innes McLean, a regular center on the 1923 UK squad who died as a result of injuries sustained in the Kentucky-Cincinnati game on Nov. 6, 1923. The final seating capacity of Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was 37,000 during its last year of use, 1972.

The Thin Thirty

When Blanton Collier stepped down as head football coach at Kentucky following the 1961 season, UK promptly named former Wildcats player Charlie Bradshaw as its 28th coach. Bradshaw inherited a squad of 88 players left from Collier's 5-5-0 team in '61. Bradshaw promised his new UK squad hard work and talked of training to an absolute peak of condition. His conditioning tactics took their toll as more than 50 players left the squad, leaving 30 to open the season against Florida State and prompting the name "Thin Thirty." The Thin Thirty finished 3-5-2 with victories over Detroit (27-8), Vanderbilt (7-0) and arch-rival Tennessee (12-10). The ties were against Florida State (0-0) and Georgia (7-7).

Wildcats Nickname

The nickname "Wildcats" became synonymous with UK shortly after a 6-2 football victory at Illinois on Oct. 9, 1909. Commandant Philip Carbusier, then head of the military department, told a group of students in a chapel service following the game that the Kentucky football team had "fought like wildcats." The nickname grew in popularity and was adopted by the university.

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was home to Kentucky football for 56 years (1916-1972).

Winning Streak

Kentucky ended one of the longest winning streaks in college football history when the Wildcats faced Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl.

Kentucky was coming off its first Southeastern Conference title and brought in a 10-1 record. Oklahoma entered as national champions and riding a 31-game winning streak. A pair of Wilbur Jamerson scores - a 22-yard pass from Babe Parilli and a one-yard run - was all UK needed in picking up a 13-7 upset of the Sooners.

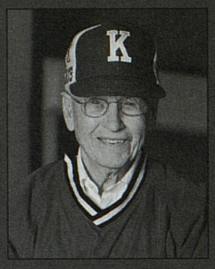

At the time, the 31-game winning streak was the fifth-longest in NCAA history and today it still ranks as the ninth-longest in NCAA history.

The Year (1977-78)

Perhaps the most successful year in UK Athletics occurred during the 1977-78 academic year at the University of Kentucky. The 1977 Wildcats football squad, under Fran Curci, raced to a 10-1 record and ended the year ranked No. 5 by The Sporting News. Highlights were victories over North Carolina (10-7), West Virginia (28-13), Penn State (24-20), LSU (33-13), Georgia (33-0), Florida (14-7) and Tennessee (21-17). On the basketball side, UK wrapped up its fifth NCAA title by defeating Duke, 94-88, at St. Louis. The UK basketballers ended the campaign with a 30-2 record under Joe B. Hall.

The Year (1950-51)

An argument to the most successful year in UK Athletics is the 1950-51 academic year. UK football, under Paul Bryant, ended the 1950 regular season with a 10-1 record and ranked No. 7 nationally by both A.P. and U.P.I. The Wildcats then proceeded to snap national champion Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak with a 13-7 victory in the Sugar Bowl. Kentucky has been named national champion for the 1950 season by the Sagarin Ratings. On the basketball front, Adolph Rupp gave UK its third national title by defeating Kansas State, 68-58, at Minneapolis, Minn. The Wildcats ended the year 32-2.

Kentucky Superfan
Jim Brown

If it has to do with Kentucky football, Jim Brown has seen it all.

When the 92-year-old Brown began attending UK football games, Franklin D. Roosevelt was president, bread cost a few cents a loaf, and Bear Bryant was just a cub.

With one exception we'll get to later, Brown was present for every UK home football game from 1938 until his streak ended during the 2009 season -- a total of 412 home games.

"I'm all for Kentucky football," Brown said. "I liked football from an early age, when I was a little kid in Western Kentucky. Football was the big thing in the 1920s and I followed UK in the sports pages."

Brown's streak began in 1938 when he enrolled as a UK freshman. A standout halfback in high school, he had hoped to play for the Wildcats, but was unable to try out for the team because he had to work his way through school. That didn't stop him from going to the games. In fact, it took a world war to separate Brown from Kentucky football.

"I was in a race with Uncle Sam to graduate before I got inducted into the service," Brown said. "I graduated in 1942 and got sent to Wright Field in Dayton. You couldn't get gasoline, and I didn't have a car anyway, so I caught the train from Dayton to Cincinnati to Lexington to see the games that season. I didn't miss any games in 1943 because, like a lot of schools, UK didn't field a team that year."

World War II finally got bigger than Kentucky football in 1944. Brown was a navigator/bombardier on a B-25 in Asia, part of a squadron called the "Burma Bridge Busters," definitely too far for a weekend excursion to catch the Cats. But he was discharged just in time for the 1945 season, and he didn't miss a home game for 64 straight seasons.

(An interesting side note is that the "Burma Bridge Busters" were the subject of a 2003 documentary by the History Channel. Brown was one of the members of the squadron who was interviewed and featured in the documentary.)

A member of what has become known as "The Greatest Generation," Brown helped build America – literally. He was involved with the construction business, a lumber company, and in real estate.

Even his marriage had a tie to Kentucky football. He married Carolyn Rodes, daughter of William "Black Doc" Rodes, a UK football star in 1915-16.

The Browns didn't always live in Lexington. They lived in Carrollton from 1952-63, and in Winchester from 1965-78. All the while, he kept turning out to see his favorite team.

"I always worked on Saturday mornings (at the lumber company). I left a lot of people standing in the store, saying 'I have to go to Lexington,'" Brown recalled with a laugh. "I wasn't trying to set a record. It just happened."

Brown's favorite gridiron memories involve the 1949-50-51 teams that played in the Orange, Sugar and Cotton Bowls, along with the mid-1970s teams that won an SEC championship and a Peach Bowl.

"People who go back that far feel that our 1950 team probably was our best," said Brown, referring to the Wildcat squad that is the 1950 national champion, according to the Sagarin computer ratings. "(Quarterback) Babe Parilli was as good at deception as anyone I've ever seen. I was in a game in Atlanta against Georgia Tech, and a Tech fan was sitting beside me. He said, 'It looks like Parilli is shaking hands with everybody in the backfield before he hands the ball off.'

"That bunch in 1977 was probably the second-best team we've had," Brown continued. "They had a lot of terrific athletes, especially (future NFL stars) Art Still and Derrick Ramsey."

As much as he enjoys talking about the past, Brown is just as excited about the present and future. After 52 years of marriage, wife Carolyn passed away in 1999. He married again in 2002, and new wife Mary Anne Goodson Brown also is a UK grad.

Brown is happy with the progress made at the University.

"We're going in the right direction with the new AD (Mitch Barnhart) ... The whole university is charting an exciting course."

Brown's streak finally came to an end when an illness forced him to miss the Alabama game in 2009. However, he continues to go Kentucky games. And, he's a model of faithfulness in more than football. He has a 45-year streak of perfect attendance at the Lexington Rotary Club. He's also a pillar of Crestwood Christian Church, where he is an elder emeritus. Asked about his consistency, Brown replied in what must be the understatement of the year.

"I've always had a tendency to be loyal," he said.

KENTUCKY BOWL SUMMARIES

1947, GREAT LAKES BOWL // KENTUCKY 24, VILLANOVA 14

The Kentucky Wildcats made their first appearance on the bowl scene in the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl and came away with a 24-14 victory over Villanova before a crowd of 14,908 at Cleveland Municipal Stadium.

Kentucky, in its second year under head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, finished at 8-3 on the season with the victory.

Quarterback/kicker George Blanda gave Kentucky a 3-0 lead in the first quarter. Blanda connected on a 27-yard field goal to put the Cats up and it remained that way until halftime.

In the third quarter, UK's Jim Howe scampered 29 yards for a score. Kentucky led 10-0 after three periods.

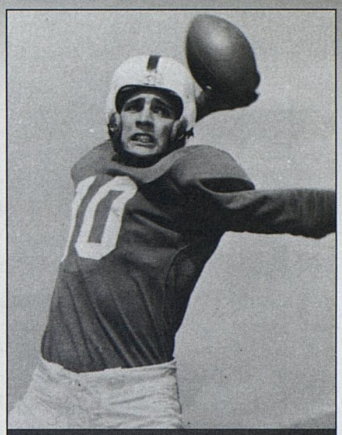

Bill Boller scored both Kentucky touchdowns in the fourth period, romping 15 yards on a handoff from Blanda and racing 49 yards to paydirt with an interception. Blanda added both PATs to round out the Kentucky scoring.

Villanova also added a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns, but it was not enough as Kentucky captured its first bowl victory in school history.

All-America quarterback Vito "Babe" Parilli led the Wildcats to the Orange, Sugar, and Cotton bowls in consecutive seasons.

1950, ORANGE BOWL // SANTA CLARA 21, KENTUCKY 13

Kentucky committed three turnovers and let a seven-point halftime lead slip away in dropping its first major bowl game, 21-13, to Santa Clara in the 1950 Orange Bowl before a crowd of 64,816.

The Wildcats, 9-3, scored their first touchdown early in the second quarter as a result of a Santa Clara turnover. UK's John Netoskie recovered at fumble at the Wildcat 49 to set up Kentucky's first score. The Wildcats drove 51 yards in 14 plays as Wilbur Jamerson hammered over from two yards. Bobby Brooks added the PAT to make it 7-0.

Kentucky wasted a golden scoring opportunity late in the second quarter when Babe Parilli found Bill Leskovar for a 45-yard completion to the SC 3 with time running out. Leskovar and runningmate Don Phelps each were stopped short on their respective rush attempts and the clock ran out before UK could score. The Wildcats led 7-0 at halftime.

UK coach Paul "Bear" Bryant said afterward he should have sent in a pass play just before the half. "If it failed," he said, "the clock was killed then we could have tried a field goal."

A short 9-yard punt by Phelps set up Santa Clara's first score in the third quarter. After taking over on the SC 46, Bronco quarterback John Pasco hit Larry Williams on a 25-yard pass. Santa Clara eventually scored on a 1-yard sneak by Pasco to tie the game, 7-7.

Santa Clara scored again later in the third period, thanks in part to a pass interference call against Kentucky. Hall Haynes went over from 4 yards to make it 14-7 after three quarters.

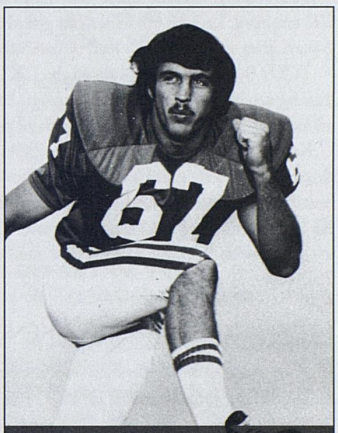

Parilli led Kentucky right back, hitting Emery Clark on a 52-yard touchdown strike. Brooks, however, missed the tying PAT, breaking a personal streak of 18 straight, as Santa Clara led 14-13 with 12 minutes left in the contest.

Santa Clara managed to hold off the Cats and added an insurance score with less than a minute left, a 16-yard TD run by Buster Wraith.

Mike Martin was the Defensive Most Valuable Player of the 1976 Peach Bowl when the Wildcats shut out North Carolina.

1951, SUGAR BOWL // KENTUCKY 13, OKLAHOMA 7

Kentucky arrived on the national football scene and stunned national champion Oklahoma, 13-7, to capture the 1951 Sugar Bowl before 82,000 in New Orleans.

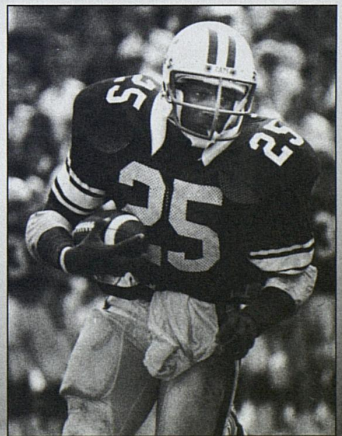

The Wildcats, 11-1, displayed a tough defense and opportunistic offense in snapping Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak, the longest in the nation at that time. More than 13,000 Kentucky fans made the long trip to New Orleans to watch the Southeastern Conference champions pick up their school record 11th win.

Under the direction of coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, Kentucky continually confused the favored Sooners with different defensive looks. The Wildcats used three tackles much of the time, causing OU quarterback Claude Arnold to hasten his playmaking.

Inflicting the most damage on the Sooners was Walt Yowarsky, a tackle who had played less than five minutes on the defensive side of the football in 1950. Yowarsky operated at left end, next to Outland Trophy winner Bob Gain, and repeatedly sliced into the Sooner backfield to break up passes and to make Arnold hurry his handoffs and laterals.

Yowarsky recovered a fumble on the OU 22 that set up UK's first touchdown. On the very next play, Babe Parilli hit Wilbur Jamerson in the right corner of the end zone for the touchdown. Gain added the PAT to make it 7-0 in the first quarter.

Kentucky marched 81 yards in the second quarter to go up 13-0. Jamerson dove over from the one to cap the drive, but Gain missed wide on the PAT.

Marc Logan was the MVP of Kentucky's 1984 Hall of Fame Bowl win over Wisconsin.

The Wildcat defense, ranked number two in the nation, showed Oklahoma why late in the third quarter. The Sooners drove 67 yards with the second-half kickoff, sitting at the UK 3 with a first-and-goal. Yowarsky helped UK turn back the Sooners, throwing an OU runner for a 5-yard loss on third down and Oklahoma eventually turned the ball over on downs.

Yowarsky, voted the game's MVP, thwarted another Oklahoma scoring threat in the fourth quarter as he recovered a fumbled punt.

Oklahoma did score with seven minutes to play as Billy Vessels hit Merrill Green on a 17-yard pass for the touchdown. Jim Weatherall added the PAT.

The Wildcats managed to hold on to the football for all but one play the rest of the way to claim a stirring 13-7 win.

1952, COTTON BOWL // KENTUCKY 20, TCU 7

Quarterback Babe Parilli threw for two touchdowns to lead the Kentucky Wildcats to a 20-7 victory over the TCU Horned Frogs in the 1952 Cotton Bowl before a crowd of 75,349 in Dallas, Texas.

Parilli, who completed 8-of-20 passes for 85 yards, tossed both touchdown strikes to Emery Clark. With the victory, the Wildcats ended the season at 8-4.

Kentucky got on the scoreboard first, as Parilli found Clark for the first of two TDs. Parilli hit Clark with a 5-yard toss to culminate a 53-yard scoring march. Harry Jones added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after one quarter.

In the second period, UK got its second touchdown when Parilli and Clark hooked up again. This time, Parilli found Clark on a 13-yard TD strike to cap a 57-yard drive. Jones missed on the PAT attempt and UK settled for a 13-0 lead in the second period with a little over 10 minutes left.

The Wildcat defense made that 13-point lead stand up until halftime as the Horned Frogs drove four times deep into UK territory. Led by All-American guard Ray Correll, the Wildcats turned TCU away on drives to the UK 4, 24, 5 and 2-yard lines to take a 13-0 lead at intermission.

TCU's Bobby Jack Floyd sliced the UK lead to 13-7 when he galloped 43 yards on a sweep. Floyd's run capped an 80-yard scoring drive which took only four plays. Keith Flowers added the PAT with 1:12 left in the third period.

Kentucky ended any thoughts of a TCU comeback, thwarting the only two Horned Frog offensive drives in the fourth period and scoring an insurance touchdown as well. Ed Hamilton sealed the UK victory with a 3-yard score off left tackle with 3:33 left. Jones added the PAT for the final 20-7 score.

1976, PEACH BOWL // KENTUCKY 21, NORTH CAROLINA 0

Kentucky tailback Rod Stewart scored three touchdowns to lead the Wildcats to a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina before a sellout crowd of 54,132 in the 1976 Peach Bowl in Atlanta, Ga.

The Wildcats, after a 25-year absence from the postseason bowl scene, returned in fine fashion as Kentucky completely smothered the Tar Heels. Kentucky outgained North Carolina 334-108 in total yards, limiting the Tar Heels to just five first downs and forcing five UNC turnovers.

After a scoreless first half, Kentucky went to work in the third period after UNC quarterback Matt Kupec fumbled at the Tar Heel 21. UK's James Ramey recovered and the Wildcats were in business.

Seven plays later, Stewart busted over from the one for the touchdown. John Pierce added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after three quarters.

Stewart sent the 37,000-plus Kentuckians, who had followed UK to the Peach Bowl, into a frenzy with his second touchdown early in the fourth quarter. The Wildcats marched 57 yards in 9 plays as Stewart capped the drive with a 13-yard gallop behind All-American tackle Warren Bryant. Pierce was good on the PAT and Kentucky led 14-0 with 13:01 left to play.

The Big Blue had to go only 47 yards for their final score. Kentucky faced a fourth-and-one from the UNC 3 with a little over three minutes remaining. Once again, Stewart (104 yards on 19 carries) got the call and he picked up both - the first down and the touchdown. Pierce was true on the PAT and UK had put the game away.

Stewart tied the Peach Bowl record for most touchdowns and scoring with the three TDs and 18 points. He was named the game's MVP. The Most Valuable Defensive Player of the game was UK linebacker Mike Martin, who helped hold UNC to just over 100 yards.

1983, HALL OF FAME BOWL // WEST VIRGINIA 20, KENTUCKY 16

Kentucky won much of the statistical battle but lost the war in dropping a tough 20-16 decision to the West Virginia Mountaineers in the 1983 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham, Ala.

The Wildcats, in a bowl for the first time since 1976, outgained West Virginia 306-288 in total offense and held the edge in first downs 19-18 and passing yards 216-88. But 17 second-half points by West Virginia were too much for the Wildcats to overcome.

WVU scratched first as placekicker Paul Woodside connected on a 39-yard field goal late in the first quarter.

Kentucky countered with 10 points in the second stanza to take a 10-3 lead at halftime.

The Wildcats marched 54 yards in eight plays for their first score. Facing a third-and-three from the Mountaineers' 26, Kentucky used some razzle-dazzle as Tony Mayes swept right, then threw-back to quarterback Randy Jenkins in the left corner of the endzone for the TD. John Hutcherson added the PAT and UK led 7-3 with 10:59 left in the second period.

Jenkins hit two big passes late in the second quarter to help set up a 32-yard field goal by Hutcherson. Jenkins connected with Joe Phillips for a 19-yard pass play and then hit George Adams for a 14-yarder as Hutcherson connected with 38 seconds left in the half.

WVU kicker Paul Woodside fooled everyone to begin the second half. Woodside tried an on-side kick to start the half and then recovered it to give the Mountaineers the football at the UK 48. Eight plays later, QB Jeff Hostetler found Rich Hollins for a 16-yard TD strike. Woodside added the PAT and it was 10-10 with 11:10 left in the third quarter.

West Virginia scored twice in a span of two minutes early in the fourth quarter to take a commanding 20-10 lead. Hostetler capped off a 10-play, 81-yard drive with a 2-yard scoring toss to Rob Bennett to make it 17-10 with 11:15 left to play.

Two plays later, West Virginia took over after an interception of a Jenkins pass at the UK 16. The interception set up a 23-yard field goal by Woodside as the Mountaineers went up 20-10 with 9:18 remaining.

Kentucky freshman quarterback Bill Ransdell led the Wildcats back, marching UK 92 yards in 11 plays following the kickoff. Ransdell hit Phillips for a 13-yard scoring toss to make it 20-16 with 5:50 left. Hutcherson missed the PAT.

The Wildcats got one more shot, but could get no further than the UK 37.

1984, HALL OF FAME BOWL // KENTUCKY 20, WISCONSIN 19

Kentucky's Joey Worley booted a career-long 52-yard field goal with just under nine minutes remaining to give the Wildcats a thrilling 20-19 victory over the Wisconsin Badgers in the 1984 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham, Ala.

Worley, a freshman, helped Kentucky overcome a nine-point deficit in the second half with his school and bowl record field goal.

Wisconsin jumped on top early, scoring twice in the first quarter. Todd Gregoire nailed a 40-yard field goal just under four minutes into the game and Michael Howard hit Thad McFadden with a 3-yard TD pass. Gregoire added the PAT and the Badgers led 10-0 with 5:34 left in the opening period.

Gregoire added another field goal, this one from 27 yards, to make it 13-0 with 7:05 left in the second period.

Kentucky got on the board after safety Paul Calhoun intercepted a Howard pass to give UK possession at the Badger 42. It took Kentucky just five plays to score as Marc Logan went over from nine yards. Worley added the PAT to cut the deficit to 13-7 with 1:29 left in the half.

Wisconsin was not through. The Badgers used four running plays, two passes and a costly 15-yard penalty to move the football to the UK 3 with two seconds left in the half. From there, Wisconsin decided on a Gregoire field goal (20-yarder) to take a 16-7 edge at halftime.

Kentucky narrowed the gap to 16-10 on a 22-yard field goal by Worley with 11:28 left in the third quarter. But Gregoire responded with a 40-yarder two minutes later to move the count back to nine, 19-10.

Behind UK quarterback Bill Ransdell, the Wildcats marched 82 yards in 11 plays later in the quarter to get within two, 19-17. Ransdell hit Logan on a screen pass to cover the final 27 yards and with the Worley PAT, UK was back in it with 26 seconds left in the third quarter.

The next time Kentucky got the ball, Ransdell moved the Cats into position for Worley's 52-yarder. Starting from the UK 22, tailback Mark Higgs got the call four consecutive times, then it was Adams' turn the next four plays. Facing a fourth-and-two at the UW 34, Worley nailed the game-winner with 8:55 left.

Wisconsin came back and marched to the UK 8 with less than two minutes left. With the Badgers facing a fourth-and-six, Gregoire was called on for his fifth field goal attempt. This time, the snap from center was bobbled and UK sealed the victory.

1993, PEACH BOWL // CLEMSON 14, KENTUCKY 13

The Wildcats met the 24th-ranked Clemson Tigers in the 26th annual Peach Bowl and came within one minute of winning their sixth bowl in eight tries. But a Clemson TD in the closing seconds sent UK home with a 14-13 loss.

Kentucky took the opening kickoff and marched down the field to the Clemson 2-yard line, where what appeared to be a QB Pookie Jones-to-WB Alfonzo Browning TD was instead a turnover when Browning fumbled the ball while attempting to extend it over the goal line.

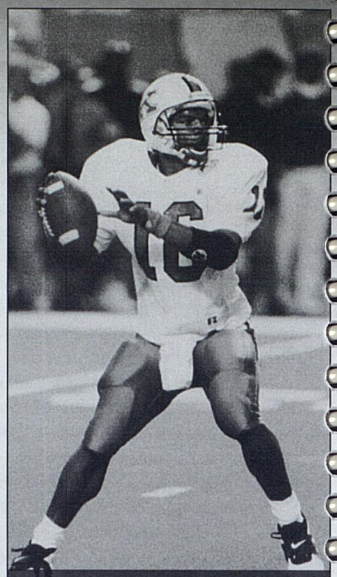

Clemson took over on its own one and proceeded to march 99 yards for the game's first score, a 2-yard TD plunge by TB Emory Smith. The PAT gave the Tigers a 7-0 lead. Clemson ran the ball 15 times and attempted only three passes in the drive. Kentucky was stopped again at the 1-yard line before the Wildcats finally scored on Nicky Nickels' 34-yard FG in the second period, making the score Clemson 7, Kentucky 3.

UK captured the lead early in the fourth quarter when Jones hit WR Mark Chatmon with a 5-yard TD pass, making it UK 10, Clemson 7. Nickels added another FG, this one from 26 yards, to extend UK's lead to 13-7. But after Dan Ariza's 55-yard punt pinned the Tigers inside their own 18-yard line, QB Patrick Sapp hit Smith with a 57-yard screen pass to move Clemson into scoring position. With less than a minute remaining, LB Marty Moore intercepted a Sapp pass, but fumbled it back, giving Clemson a second chance. The Tigers capitalized when Sapp hit WR Henry Smith with the game-winning 21-yard TD pass. Kentucky got the ball back with less than 20 seconds remaining, but could move no farther than its own 40.

1999, OUTBACK BOWL // PENN STATE 26, KENTUCKY 14

Playing on New Year's Day for the first time in 47 years, the Kentucky Wildcats jumped out to an early lead, but the Penn State Nittany Lions rallied for a 26-14 victory in the Outback Bowl in Tampa, Fla.

Although the game was played in Tampa, the Wildcats certainly felt at home. Heavy ticket demand gave the Outback Bowl its first sellout ever, as more than 40,000 UK fans were packed among the 66,005 patrons in Raymond James Stadium.

Kentucky got on the board first with 7:36 remaining in the first quarter. At the PSU 36-yard line, under heavy pressure, quarterback Tim Couch lofted a rainbow into the end zone that wide receiver Lance Mickelsen caught for a touchdown.

Later in the opening period, UK stretched the lead to 14-3 with a 64-yard drive, capped by a 16-yard TD pass from Couch to halfback Anthony White. Key plays on the drive included a 22-yard pass from Couch to wide receiver Kevin Coleman and a 30-yard aerial to Mickelsen.

From the second quarter, however, Penn State chipped away. Quarterback Kevin Thompson hit flanker Joe Nastasi with a 56-yard touchdown bomb. A second field goal from Travis Forney narrowed the UK advantage to 14-13 at halftime.

The Nittany Lions took the lead for good in the third quarter on two more field goals by Forney, giving him four on the day. Penn State put the game away in the fourth quarter with a 19-yard end-around TD run by Chafie Fields.

Meanwhile, the PSU defense shut out the Wildcats the last three quarters. Kentucky continued to move the ball, but three scoring opportunities came up empty - one on an interception, one on a missed field goal, and the other when the Wildcats were held on downs.

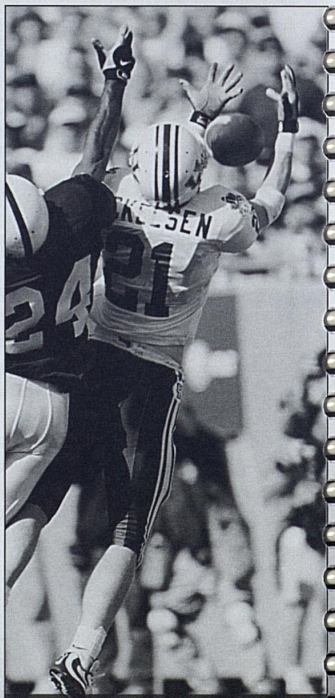

Kentucky actually outgained Penn State, 441 yards to 420. UK might have done even better, but the Wildcats offensive line was missing three senior starters, all of whom were replaced by freshmen.

Couch paced the attack by completing 30-of-48 passes for 336 yards and two TDs, completing his streak of at least 300 passing yards and at least one TD pass in every game of the season. Running backs Anthony White and Derek Homer caught seven balls each. White totaled 101 yards on the day, with eight rushes for 61 yards and seven receptions for 40 yards.

1999, HOMEPOINT.COM MUSIC CITY BOWL // SYRACUSE 20, KENTUCKY 13

Playing in back-to-back bowl games for the first time since 1983-84, the Kentucky Wildcats went down to the wire before falling to Syracuse, 20-13, in the HomePoint.com Music City Bowl in Nashville, Tenn. Kentucky played before a heavily partisan crowd, as almost all of the 59,221 fans were pulling for the Wildcats.

Kentucky blazed to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter. The Wildcats took the opening kickoff and maneuvered 79 yards for a touchdown. Tight end James Whalen set up the TD with a 45-yard reception and Kendrick Shanklin ran it in from the 3-yard line.

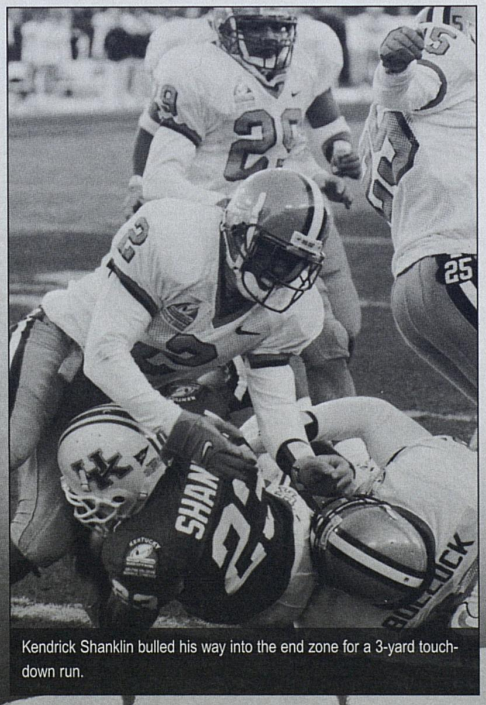

The Wildcats held on defense, forcing a punt. Quarterback Dusty Bonner again drove the Wildcats inside the 10-yard line before settling for a 22-yard field goal by Marc Samuel. Whalen, however, was injured during the series and was lost for the remainder of the game. Already having caught four passes for 79 yards midway through the first quarter, his presence was sorely missed.

The Kentucky defense continued to stop Syracuse, including two fumble recoveries and a blocked field goal, but the Orangemen got on the board late in the second quarter. The Wildcats led at halftime, 10-7.

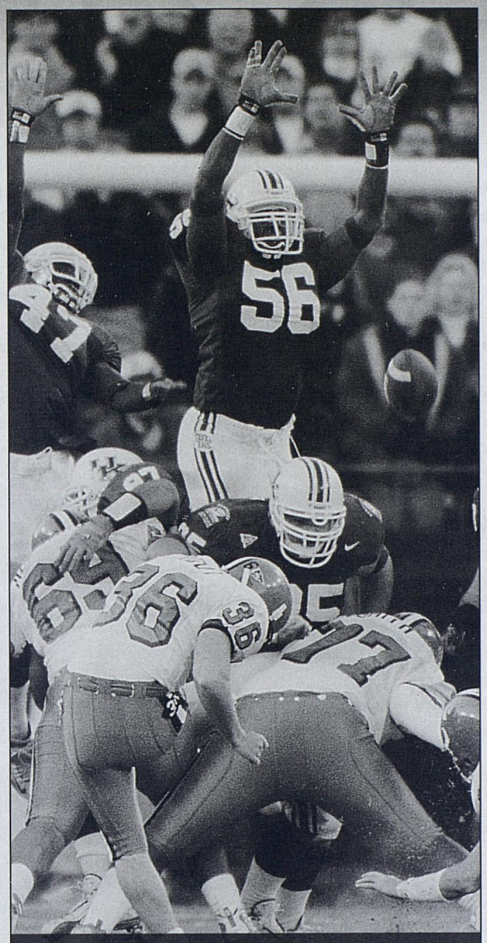

A scoreless third quarter led to a dramatic final stanza. Samuel extended the UK lead to 13-7 with a 35-yard field goal. Syracuse countered with two scoring runs by James Mungro, taking a 20-13 lead.

Kentucky got its last chance by taking over on its own 4-yard line with only 1:35 remaining and no timeouts. Bonner did a great job of moving the team to the Syracuse 41-yard line, but ran out of time, and a desperation heave on the game's final play fell incomplete.

Bonner led the UK attack by completing 30 of 43 passes for 308 yards and he also ran for 16 yards. In his final game as a Wildcat, running back Anthony White caught eight passes for 85 yards – both figures setting UK bowl records.

Kendrick Shanklin bulled his way into the end zone for a 3-yard touchdown run.

Dennis Johnson (56) blocked this Syracuse field goal attempt. Later in the game, Jamal White (47) also blocked a field goal attempt.

Linebacker Ryan Murphy led the defense in tackles with a career-high 15 stops. Linebacker Marlon McCree had an outstanding game. He tied his career high for tackles with 10, including two tackles for loss and a quarterback sack, caused two fumbles and recovered a fumble. Defensive tackle George Massey (nine) and free safety Anthony Wajda (eight) each tied his career high for tackles.

The Wildcats blocked two field goals, one each by defensive end Dennis Johnson and another by linebacker Jamal White.

2006, GAYLORD HOTELS MUSIC CITY BOWL // KENTUCKY 28, CLEMSON 20

Kentucky quarterback André Woodson threw for 299 yards with three touchdowns and the Wildcats won their first bowl game in 22 years with a 28-20 victory over Clemson in front of a record 68,024 fans at the 2006 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl in Nashville, Tenn.

Woodson, the game's Most Valuable Player, completed 20-of-28 passes and finished the season with 31 touchdown strikes, joining Tim Couch as the only Wildcats in school history to reach 30 TD tosses in a season. Woodson directed an offense that gave the Wildcats their sixth bowl win in school history by setting a UK record for most points scored in a bowl game.

Kentucky, making its first postseason appearance since 1999, used some offensive wrinkles to score its first-half points. The Wildcats quickly got on the board with a one-yard run by Micah Johnson less than four minutes into the game. Johnson, normally a linebacker, was called upon in the short-yardage situation and the 270-pounder bulldozed his way into the end zone for his first collegiate score.

The Wildcat defense gave ground early, but Clemson stayed off the scoreboard after a pair of missed field goals. The Tigers finally tallied and came within one, 7-6, after a 32-yard pass by quarterback Will Proctor to Durrell Barry in the second quarter.

From there, both teams combined for four turnovers on the next seven plays, but UK closed the half with another surprise maneuver. Facing fourth down and four yards to go from his own 20-yard line, Wildcat punter Tim Masthay faked a punt and completed a 10-yard pass to Marcus McClinton for the first down. On the next play, Woodson followed with a 70-yard bomb to receiver DeMoreo Ford to go into the locker room up 14-6.

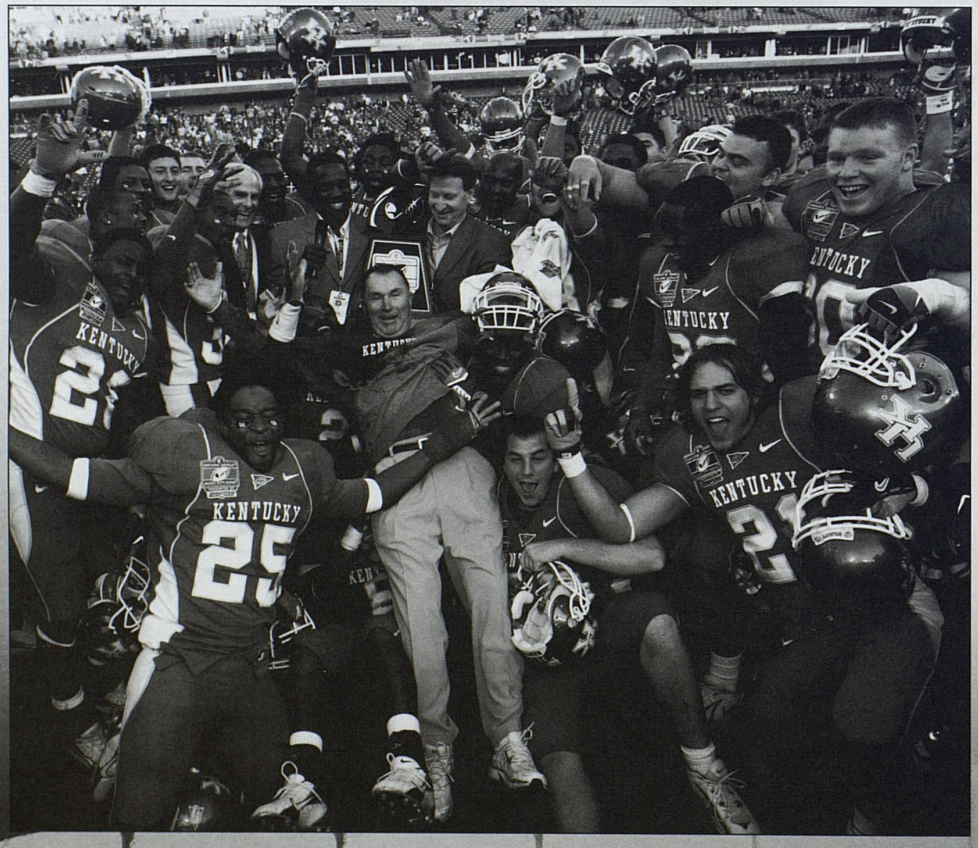

Meanwhile, the Kentucky defense stiffened, stopping the Tigers on six consecutive possessions in the second and third quarters. The Wildcat offense took advantage, making it 21-6 early in the second half after a Clemson fumble. Woodson found wide receiver Dicky Lyons Jr. on a short sideline pass and Lyons took it the rest of the way for a 24-yard score. UK built its lead to 28-6 with a touchdown pass to tight end Jacob Tamme with 11:29 remaining in the game.

Trading yardage for time, Kentucky gave up a pair of clock-eating scoring drives and clinched the victory when Tamme recovered an onside kick with less than a minute to go. That set off a wild celebration among the Wildcats and the 50,000-plus UK fans who packed LP Field.

2007, GAYLORD HOTELS MUSIC CITY BOWL // KENTUCKY 35, FLORIDA STATE 28

It was a case of "Deja Blue" as Kentucky defeated perennial national power Florida State, 35-28, in the 2007 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl.

For the second consecutive year, the Wildcats claimed the Music City Bowl championship, quarterback Andre' Woodson won the Most Valuable Player Award and a heavily blue-tinted record sellout crowd of 68,661 packed LP Field in Nashville, Tenn.

Woodson capped his UK career in fine fashion, completing 32 of 50 passes for 358 yards and four touchdowns. And, as was typical of the season, a variety of players contributed to UK tallying its most points ever in a bowl game.

Versatile tailback Rafael Little had one of his best games as a Wildcat, rushing for 152 yards while catching eight passes for 50 yards and a touchdown. Wide receiver Steve Johnson caught seven balls for 124 yards and two TDs. Not expected to participate because of a knee injury, determined wideout Keenan Burton played anyway and also snagged seven passes. Linebacker Wesley Woodyard checked in with his usual solid performance, a game-high 15 tackles.

Kentucky struck quickly and never trailed. Safety Roger Williams blocked a punt on the first possession of the game and tight end Jacob Tamme got the Wildcats on the board with a 14-yard touchdown catch. However, a fumble near the FSU goal line and a missed field goal ruined other UK scoring chances and the teams were tied at 14 apiece at halftime.

Like the year before, Kentucky took control in the third quarter. Woodson directed a pair of 80-yard touchdown drives, with Little scoring on a two-yard pass reception and tailback Tony Dixon running it home from four yards away.

Andre' Woodson was the Music City Bowl Most Valuable Player for the second-consecutive year.

UK made the score 35-21 in the fourth quarter on a 38-yard pass to Johnson, but just like the previous year, the opponent rallied late. FSU drove for a touchdown, got the ball back and was able to throw a bomb to the end zone on the game's final play, but cornerback David Jones knocked down the pass to preserve the victory.

The win marked some big milestones for the Kentucky football program. This was the first time since the 1950 and '51 seasons that the Wildcats notched bowl victories in consecutive years. It was the first time since 1976-77 that UK won eight games in back-to-back seasons.

2009, AUTOZONE LIBERTY BOWL // KENTUCKY 25, EAST CAROLINA 19

Defensive end Ventrell Jenkins scored the game-winning touchdown on a 56-yard fumble return as the Kentucky Wildcats defeated East Carolina 25-19 in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl and won their third-straight bowl game for the first time in school history.

With the game tied at 19 and less than four minutes remaining, UK defensive tackle Myron Pryor knocked the ball away from an ECU running back. The 6-foot-2, 285-pound Jenkins scooped up the ball, stiff-armed a Pirate lineman, and thundered his way down the sideline towards the end zone. The senior from Columbia, S.C., pulled a double move on East Carolina quarterback Patrick Pinkney with a devastating stiff arm – knocking an earpad out of Pinkney's helmet -- and a high step. Jenkins said the next thing he remembered was lying in the end zone with his teammates on top of him.

Jenkins' return capped a big Kentucky comeback. East Carolina led 16-3 at halftime, but senior cornerback David Jones gave a huge lift to the Wildcats by opening the second half with a 99-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. It set a record for the longest kickoff return in the 50-year history of the Liberty Bowl.

Kentucky's lone offensive touchdown came minutes after Jones' kickoff return. Sophomore wide receiver Kyrus Lanxter caught a pass from quarterback Mike Hartline, broke a tackle, and made a nice inside move to avoid another defender and get into the end zone for a 19-yard touchdown reception. Lones Seiber's extra point tied the game at 16 and the teams traded field goals before Jenkins' game-winning fumble rumble.

Following Jenkins' TD, Kentucky got a huge break when East Carolina accidentally downed the kickoff on its own one-yard line. With the help of two pass breakups from freshman cornerback Randall Burden, who was subbing for injured All-American Trevard Lindley, the UK defense forced a punt. UK took over with 2:34 to play and senior tailback Tony Dixon clinched the victory with six straight running plays, grinding out two first downs to run out the clock.

Dixon led all rushers with 89 yards on a career-high 28 carries. Hartline completed 19 of 31 passes for 204 yards and a touchdown. Lanxter set career highs with five catches for 46 yards.

Defensive end Ventrell Jenkins scored the game-winning touchdown with his 56-yard "fumble rumble," including a stiffarm that knocked an earpad out of the opponent's helmet.

Kentucky's defense held up its end of the bargain with several big plays, totaling nine tackles for loss, three quarterback sacks, seven pass breakups and the game's decisive touchdown. Senior linebacker Braxton Kelley made eight tackles, 2.5 tackles for loss and one sack. Defensive tackle Myron Pryor went out with a bang with a career-high seven tackles, one for loss, the caused fumble and a pass breakup.

East Carolina took an early 10-0 lead in the first quarter after a Ben Hartman field goal and a 28-yard rushing touchdown by Brandon Simmons. Kentucky got on the board midway through the second quarter with a 21-yard field goal by Seiber, but 12 seconds later East Carolina increased its lead with an 80-yard touchdown pass from Pinkney to Darryl Freeney. That gave the Pirates a 16-3 lead at halftime and set the stage for UK's second-half heroics.

Jenkins was named the game's overall Most Valuable player, while Hartline and Kelley were selected UK's most outstanding offensive and defensive players, respectively. After all the bowl games were completed, Jones and Pryor were named to "All-Bowl Teams" by various college football websites in honor of their outstanding performances.

David Jones changed the game's momentum by opening the second half with a 99-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, the longest return in the 50-year history of the Liberty Bowl.

2009, GAYLORD HOTELS MUSIC CITY BOWL // CLEMSON 21, KENTUCKY 13

The exciting duo of Derrick Locke and Randall Cobb combined for 224 all-purpose yards and senior Lones Seiber kicked two field goals, but Clemson downed the Kentucky 21-13 in what would turn out to be head coach Rich Brooks' final game on the sidelines.

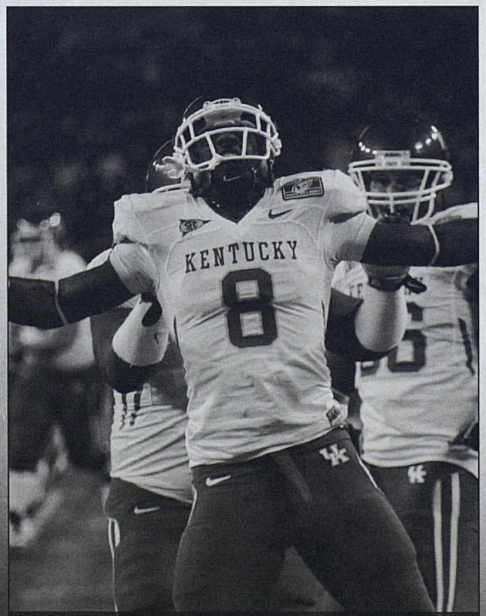

Played at Nashville's LP Field before a crowd of 57,280, the game was primarily dominated by the defenses. Kentucky gained 277 total yards and Clemson's potent attack was limited to 321 total yards.

Kentucky got on the board on its first possession of the game. True freshman quarterback Morgan Newton drove the Wildcats 61 yards, the final 17 on a touchdown pass to junior wide receiver Chris Matthews. Seiber provided the rest of the scoring for the Wildcats, booting field goals of 39 and 44 yards.

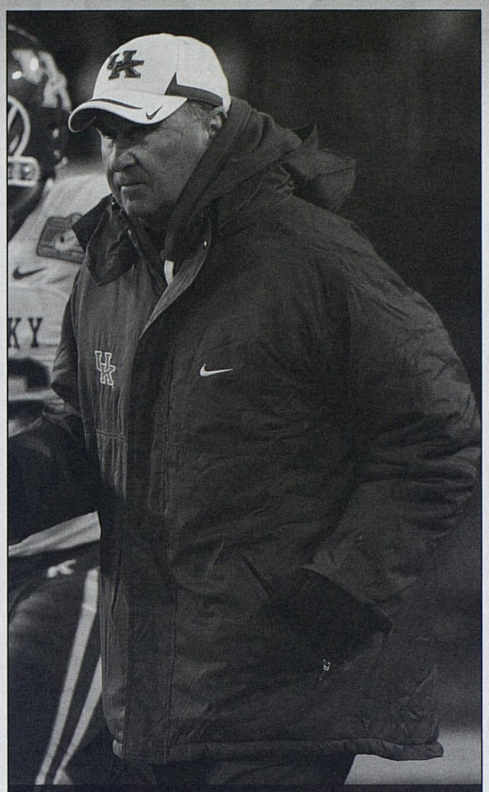

Clemson, champion of the Atlantic Division of the Atlantic Coast Conference, gradually moved back into contention. The Tigers tied the score at 7-7 on a 32-yard touchdown pass from Kyle Parker to Jacoby Ford, then went ahead 14-10 at halftime with one-yard run by Jamie Harper.

Trailing 14-13 to start the fourth quarter, the Wildcats forced a three-and-out and took over at their own 13-yard line. Newton completed a short pass, but Clemson linebacker Kavell Konnor forced the ball loose and the Tigers recovered the only turnover of the game. All-America tailback C.J. Spiller scored three plays later as Clemson went up 21-13.

Kentucky tried to battle back on the following possession, keeping the drive alive on a fourth-down conversion by punter Ryan Tydlacka. Four plays later, Newton came up inches short on a fourth-and-eight scramble, and the Wildcats turned the ball over on downs. Clemson was able to run out the remaining time on the clock.

Chris Matthews got the scoring started with a 17-yard touchdown reception from Morgan Newton.

Coach Rich Brooks concluded his career by taking Kentucky to a school-record four-straight bowl games.

Spiller, the ACC Player of the Year, was the game's Most Valuable Player. Despite his gaudy numbers entering the game and Heisman-caliber resume, the Kentucky defense did a solid job on Spiller, allowing him just 67 rushing yards and one TD.

Sophomore linebacker Danny Trevathan led the UK defense with eight tackles, including one for loss, and caused one fumble. Junior cornerback Paul Warford and senior linebacker Micah Johnson added five tackles each.

The loss snapped Kentucky's three-game bowl winning streak, the longest in school history. Following the game, Brooks announced he probably would step down as head coach and turn the headset over to offensive head coach, and selected coach-in-waiting, Joker Phillips. Brooks finalized the decision a week later.

The game marked the second time in four seasons Kentucky played Clemson in the Music City Bowl. The Wildcats won the previous meeting in 2006, 28-20.

Quarterback Derrick Ramsey led the Wildcats to a 10-1 record and No. 6 ranking in the final 1977 Associated Press poll.

The Wildcats won their first five games of the 2007 season and reached the national top-10 rankings. Dicky Lyons (above) got the Wildcats off to a fast start by catching this 51-yard touchdown bomb on the first offensive play of the season against Eastern Kentucky.

TEAM RECORDS

UK Upsets No. 1 Ole Miss Behind Kestner

Rick Kestner hauled in nine passes for 185 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Wildcats to a 27-21 upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss at Mississippi Memorial Stadium in Jackson in 1964 . . . In the third quarter, Kestner was on the receiving end of a 32-yard halfback pass from Rodger Bird to give UK a 13-7 lead . . . Kestner added two additional scores on tosses from QB Rick Norton (60 and 23) as the Wildcats rallied from 14-13 and 21-20 deficits late in the second half for the upset.

Bishop's Theft Gives UK Victory

Darryl Bishop of Louisville, whose final season was 1973, remains the UK leader in career interceptions with 14 . . . One of his most notable interceptions took place on Nov. 6, 1971, at Dudley Field in Nashville . . . With UK and Vanderbilt knotted at 7-7 and less than 50 seconds to play, Kentucky elected to punt facing a 4th-and-8 situation from its own 44 . . . Walter Overton made a fair catch at the Commodore 30, giving Vandy a first down . . . After QB Steve Burger lost four yards on the first play, the Commodores elected not to use a timeout . . . Then as time expired, Burger lofted a pass toward receiver Gary Chesley . . . The ball never got to Chesley as Bishop picked off the aerial and raced 43 yards for the winning score, giving UK a 14-7 victory on the game's final play.

COMMONWEALTH STADIUM

Commonwealth Stadium has had several upgrades over the years and the change for 2011 will be quite noticeable as new video boards are being installed in each end zone of the stadium.

The two boards, each measuring 39 by 79 feet, will bring a total of 6,162 square feet of video capability to the stadium. Installed by Daktronics, the project will cost approximately $6 million dollars. Along with the video boards, a "ribbon board" will be installed around the upper deck of the stadium, adding more information and enjoyment to the fan experience.

In addition to the new video and ribbon boards, other changes in recent years include a new locker room for the Wildcats, a new playing surface and state-of-the-art drainage system, plus numerous concourse and seating area improvements.

The updates further enhance the home of Kentucky football, which is now in its 39th season as the lair of the Wildcats. When constructed in 1973, Commonwealth Stadium had a capacity of 57,800 and was completed at a cost of $12 million by the firm of Huber, Hunt and Nichols. The stadium and parking areas rest on an 86-acre plot that was once part of the UK Experimental Station Farm Grounds.

> New video and ribbon boards are being installed at Commonwealth for the 2011 season. The new screens will put UK among the nation's largest amounts of video square footage.

The stadium was officially opened on Sept. 15, 1973, as the Wildcats moved into their new home after spending 48 years at Stoll Field/McLean Stadium across from Memorial Coliseum. Kentucky defeated Virginia Tech in the stadium opener, 31-26, as quarterback Ernie Lewis ran for two touchdowns and threw for another TD to lead the Wildcats. Since its opening, Kentucky has played 242 games in the friendly confines, including a 130-108-4 (.545) record.

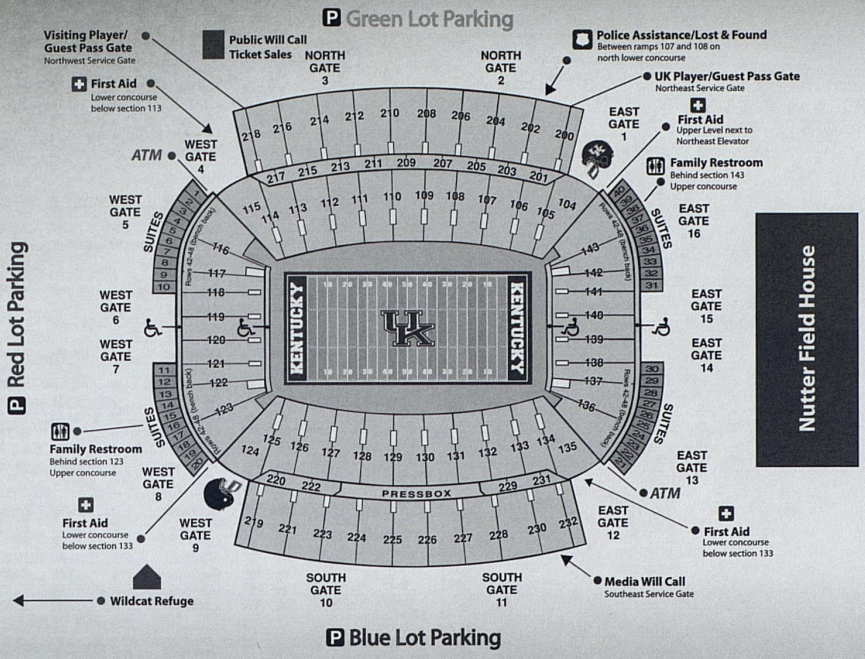

The playing area was named C.M. Newton Field, in honor of the former UK director of athletics, in 2001.

The stadium was expanded in 1999. Both end zones were enclosed, along with the construction of 40 suites, 10 in each corner of the stadium. The project was handled by HNTB of Kansas City, Mo., and Turner Construction of Cincinnati, Ohio. A total of $27.6 million was allocated for the expansion, which also included the original Mitsubishi Diamond Vision video boards, new scoreboards and additional restrooms and concession stands. Current capacity is now 67,942 and when the media, game workers, etc., are included, total attendance can exceed 71,000.

The larger stadium and additional fan amenities helped spark a rise in Kentucky football attendance. Since the 1999 expansion, UK has averaged 65,250 fans per game and ranked in the nation's top 25 teams in attendance for 11 seasons. Every single game and season attendance record has been broken in recent years. More than 14,000,000 people have attended games at Commonwealth Stadium.

Media facilities at the stadium begin with the enclosed press box, situated between the lower and upper decks of the stadium, which offers perhaps the closest media view of any major college stadium in the country. Included in the press box are a television broadcast booth, two radio broadcast booths, coaches booths, instant replay facility and three VIP booths. A spacious photo deck, featuring space for videographers and two auxiliary broadcast booths, is located in front of the press box. There is also a field-level room to service photographers, located in the same tunnel that the visiting team enters and exits the field.

THIS IS UK / THE MEDIA

THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

Did you Know ...

- UK students enjoy a great range of academic choices, with approximately 200 majors available in 16 academic colleges
- UK has earned more than 80 national rankings for academic excellence
- UK has been ranked as one of the nation's Top 25 Public Research Universities
- Numerous UK alumni have gone on to become presidents of universities and to lead Fortune 500 companies

- In the past year, three UK graduates have served as Governors of U.S. states, including Kentucky Gov. Steve Beshear, North Carolina Gov. Beverly Perdue, and Ohio Gov. Ted Strickland
- UK's diversity includes students from all 50 states and 115 countries
- UK's William T. Young Library has the largest book endowment of any public university in the nation
- UK Athletics provides $1.7 million to the university each year to support non-athletic scholarship programs

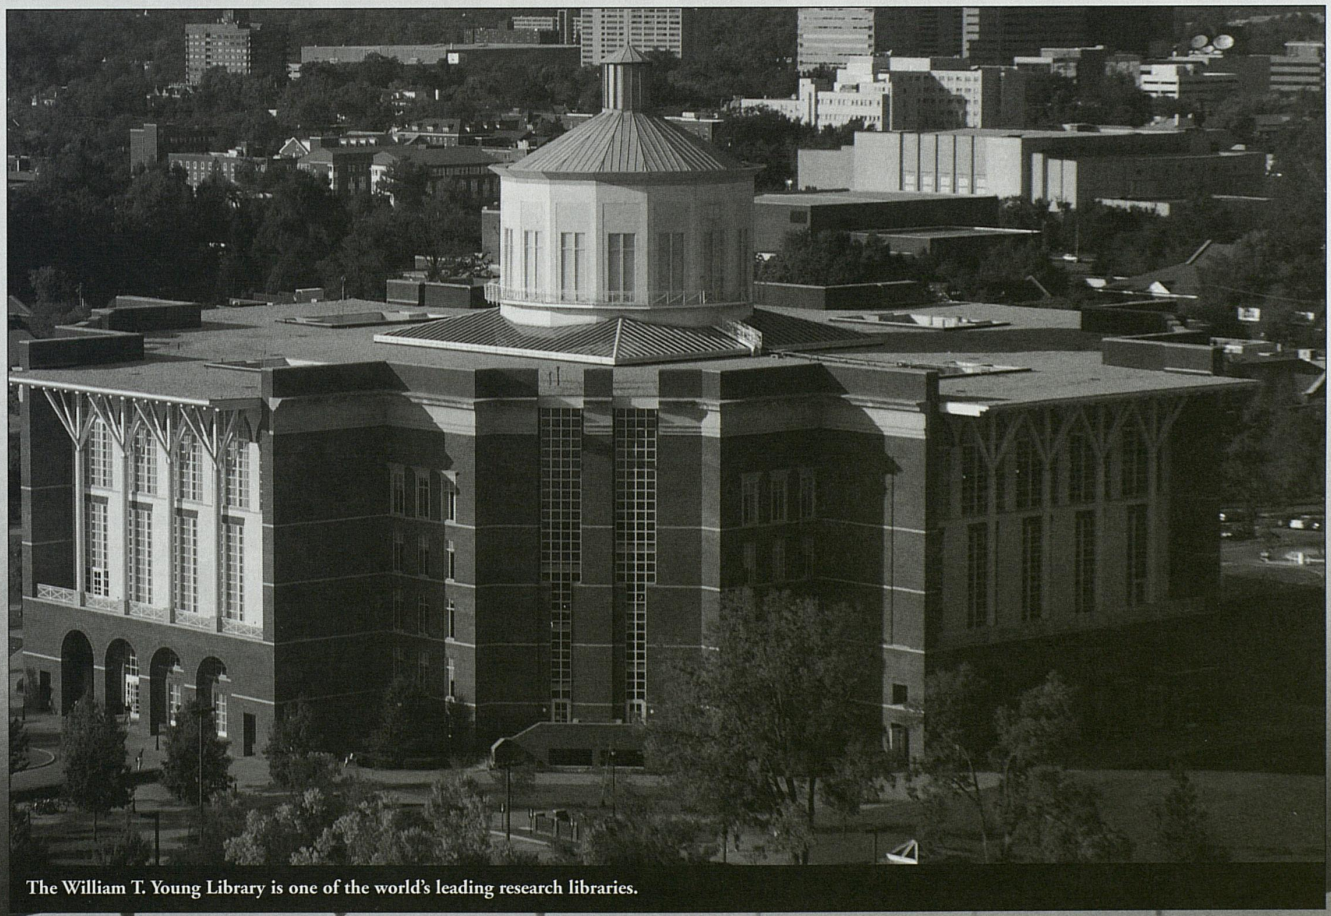

UK's new President, Dr. Eli Capilouto, will build on UK's plan to become one of the nation's Top-20 public universities.

Making Lives Better

Here are some ways that UK reaches out to improve the quality of life in the state and around the world …

- UK student-athletes make lives better through community service; UK football ranks third all-time for the most players on the National Good Works Team
- UK has been ranked as one of the nation's top 25 public research universities; UK's research expenditures increased to a record-high $368 million in 2010
- The Commonwealth Collaboratives outreach program has 47 projects focused on solving problems and changing the lives of people in Kentucky
- The UK Chandler Hospital is a Level I Trauma Center, meaning that UK cares for the most critically injured and ill patients in the region
- UK is in the midst of a $2.5 billion building program that will further enhance the university's standing as one of the best medical facilities in the country

The William T. Young Library is one of the world's leading research libraries.

DR. ELI CAPILOUTO, PRESIDENT

Dr. Eli Capilouto became the 12th president of the University of Kentucky on July 1, 2011.

A native of Montgomery, Alabama, Dr. Capilouto previously served as Provost of the University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB) and Dean of the UAB School of Public Health -- a period of remarkable growth and transformation at one of the leading academic and health sciences institutions in the South.

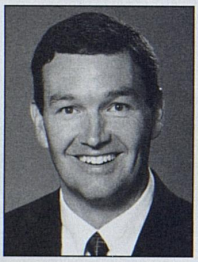

While at UAB, Dr. Capilouto helped lead the adoption of the University's Strategic Plan, an integrated and more transparent budgeting system and continued increases in research funding for an institution that is one of the nation's leading public medical and health sciences' campuses. An accomplished scholar, Dr. Capilouto has published more than 70 articles, abstracts and book chapters in a long academic career in health and higher education policy.

Passionate about public health and community engagement, Dr. Capilouto contributes his time to national boards and local philanthropy agencies. He recently served on the National Advisory Dental and Craniofacial Research Council of the National Institutes of Health and is a member of the Executive Committee of the Council on Academic Affairs of the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities. He was a member of the Pew Health Professions Advisory Panel for Dentistry and has served as a consultant to the National Academy of Sciences Institute of Medicine and the American Association of Academic Health Centers.

In Birmingham, Dr. Capilouto served in leadership roles on the boards of the YMCA, Red Cross, Ronald McDonald House and his temple. Additionally, he served eight years on the Mountain Brook City Schools Board of Education and is the current past-president of the Kiwanis Club of Birmingham, the largest Kiwanis Club in the world. He also is a member of the A+ College Ready Managing Board that oversees a state-wide initiative to increase Advanced Placement success among high school students. In 2008, he received the National Conference for Community and Justice (NCCJ) Brotherhood-Sisterhood Award for Outstanding Community Service.

Dr. Capilouto received his bachelor's, Master's in Epidemiology, and Doctor of Dental Medicine degree from schools within the University of Alabama system. In 1991, he earned his Doctorate in Health Policy and Management from the Harvard University School of Public Health. He and his wife, Dr. Mary Lynne Capilouto (D.D.S.), a former dean of UAB's dental school, have one daughter, Emily, a graduate student in the School of Public Health at UAB.

MITCH BARNHART, DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Mitch Barnhart is in his 10th year at the University of Kentucky, with unparalleled accomplishments in his past and unprecedented goals for the future.

In the last year alone, UK Athletics' success featured the school's first national championship in rifle; the men's basketball team returned to the Final Four for the first time since 1998; softball advanced to the super regional for the first time ever; and the football team continued its school-record five-year bowl streak.

Combined with other achievements, these feats are fulfilling Barnhart's ambitious course for the future, which was revealed in November 2008 with the 15 by 15 by 15 Plan. The goals are to win at least 15 conference or national championships and rank among the NCAA's top 15 athletic programs by 2015 – all of which would be unprecedented achievements for UK Athletics – while continuing to expand the department's service to the commonwealth of Kentucky. Another goal is a cumulative 3.0 grade-point average for UK's 500-plus student-athletes on an annual basis.

Barnhart's commitment to the 15 x 15 x 15 Plan, and beyond, was reinforced this year when he signed a contract extension that reaches 2019.

UK's steady improvement in the Directors' Cup standings under Barnhart was highlighted with 29th-place finish in 2009-10. It was the school's best showing since Barnhart's arrival, its top finish since 1997-98 and only three slots away from the best mark in school history.

The primary academic target was met during the 2010 spring semester as UK's student-athletes notched a composite 3.04 GPA. but Barnhart wants to continue to see academic success and improvement in the future. In addition, UK has consistently posted strong numbers in the NCAA Academic Progress Rate as every one of UK's 22 varsity sports have avoided penalties in the APR's seven-year existence. Graduation rates, which date back to classes that entered six years ago, are beginning to show the improvement Barnhart emphasized upon his arrival in 2002.

Additional initiatives begun under Barnhart's leadership include fully funding all 22 varsity sports with maximum number of scholarships and coaches; creating the UK Athletics Hall of Fame; initiating the CATSPYs, an awards program that honors the best of UK Athletics; the construction of the Joe Craft Center, a $30 million facility that includes practice and administrative space for a variety of sports; more than $14 million of football facility improvements; and the construction of a new $12 million track.

Barnhart's influence reaches far beyond the fields of competition. Despite athletics' urgent financial needs, Barnhart directs a $1.7-million annual contribution to the University's scholarship program.

Social responsibility in the Commonwealth of Kentucky also is a priority for Barnhart, who is extremely active in community service and encourages UK athletics staff and student-athletes to do the same.

Barnhart has been involved on the national level as well and in 2010 became the chair of the NCAA Basketball Issues Committee.

Barnhart arrived at UK from Oregon State, where he served four successful years (1998-2002) as athletics director. Before OSU, he worked in athletics administration posts at Tennessee (1986-98), Southern Methodist University (1983-86), Oregon (1983) and San Diego State (1982-83).

Barnhart is a native of Kansas City, Kan. He earned his bachelor's degree from Ottawa University (Kansas) in 1981 and a master's in sports administration from Ohio University in 1982.

His family includes his wife, Connie, three children, Blaire, Scott, Kirby Willoughby and her husband, McKenzie.

COVERING KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

Credential Policies

Media Credentials

Credentials for working media, videographers and photographers for UK's home football games should be requested at this website: www.sportssystems.com/Kentucky.

Requests for season passes should be submitted no later than July 31. Requests for single games should be made as far in advance as possible.

The University of Kentucky follows guidelines set by the NCAA and the Southeastern Conference in issuing credentials.

On a space-available basis, season credentials are granted to daily newspapers, magazines, radio stations and television stations that cover the UK football program on a regular basis – i.e., weekly news conferences and all home games. Additional requests are considered on a space-available basis.

Credentials will not be mailed. On game day, credentials may be picked up at media will call, located between gates 11 and 12 of Commonwealth Stadium, beginning two hours prior to kickoff. Credentials also may be picked up at the Media Relations Office in the Joe Craft Center, Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Approved parking passes will be mailed in advance.

Photographers, videographers and television reporters accompanying their cameramen must wear armbands in order to get field access. Armbands should be picked up at media call between gates 11 and 12 of the stadium.

Internet Credentials

The official Web site of each participating institution and representatives of contractual rights-fee paying media will be granted access. Other Internet representatives not earning credentials through the criteria listed above will will be considered on a game-by-game basis.

SEC Internet Real-Time Policy

By acceptance and use of an SEC media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions for any and all athletic events hosted by the SEC and its member institutions:

1. The SEC and its member institutions grant a media organization a limited license to use certain gathered information on the media organization's own Internet or online site beginning at the start of an athletic event and up to the conclusion of such event, all subject to the following limitations and conditions:

The 2011 edition of the University of Kentucky Football Media Guide is a comprehensive source of information for media covering the Wildcats. Additional information or photos can be obtained by calling UK Media Relations at (859) 257-3838. E-mail addresses and other contact info are on the next page. Our website is UKAthletics.com.

Daily/Weekly Services

Sunday Teleconference

University of Kentucky Coach Joker Phillips conducts a teleconference on most Sundays following Wildcats football games. The teleconferences are up to 20 minutes in length with the primary purpose of reviewing the previous day's game. The starting time is TBA.

Media members can participate in the teleconference by dialing a MEDIA ONLY telephone number which can be obtained from the UK Media Relations Office.

No teleconference is planned for Oct. 16, the Sunday after UK's open date, or on Nov. 27 after the final regular-season game. Please contact the UK Media Relations Office (859) 257-3838 for further information.

Monday News Conference

Coach Joker Phillips will conduct a weekly press conference on most Mondays during the season. The news conferences will be conducted in the Wildcat Den at Commonwealth Stadium. Parking is available outside Gate One of Commonwealth Stadium. Media members may access the Wildcat Den at Gate Three of the stadium.

Selected Wildcat football players will be available at the press conferences. The weekly news conferences will begin on Monday, Aug. 29 and continue on Mondays thereafter. News conferences conclude on Nov. 21. No news conference is scheduled for Oct. 10 the Monday prior to UK's open date.

The news conference schedule is as follows:

- lunch is from 11:15 a.m. to 11:45
- UK player interviews from 11:45 a.m. to 12:05 p.m.
- UK Olympic sports coach from 12:05 to 12:15 p.m.
- Coach Joker Phillips from 12:15 to 12:35 p.m.

Video excerpts from the news conference will be available by late Monday afternoon. Video will be posted on an FTP site. E-mail tneely@uky.edu for FTP information.

Quotes from the news conference will be posted on ukathletics.com by late Monday afternoon.

Southeastern Conference Services

The Southeastern Conference Media Relations Office, headed by Charles Bloom, offers a variety of services to the media throughout the year.

SEC head football coaches are available each Wednesday via teleconference. Each coach is given 10 minutes to address media questions about his upcoming football game. The starting date and telephone number will be available to the media by contacting the SEC Media Relations Office at (205) 458-3010.

This is the schedule for the Wednesday teleconferences, all times Eastern:

11:00 a.m. . . . . Les Miles, LSU
11:10 a.m. . . . . Steve Spurrier, South Carolina
11:20 a.m. . . . . Will Muschamp, Florida
11:30 a.m. . . . . James Franklin, Vanderbilt
11:40 a.m. . . . . Derek Dooley, Tennessee
11:50 a.m. . . . . Nick Saban, Alabama
12:00 p..m. . . . . Bobby Petrino, Arkansas
12:10 p.m. . . . . Houston Nutt, Ole Miss

SEC Affiliate Network / XOS Digital

The SEC now offers access to free licensed game highlights and other newsworthy event video, including select live streams, through the SEC Affiliate Network. This annual program is exclusively available to the accredited media. It covers all teams and all sports for both men's and women's teams. Video is delivered through a customizable digital video player immediately after televised games/events conclude. Participating news affiliates can also select individual clips to insert directly into online stories. Television stations also have access to an FTP account to run content on-air. The SEC Affiliate Network is managed through XOS Digital. To join, please request a participation form from the program's director, Anna Marie Neri, at aneri@xosdigital.com or at 407-670-5049.

Wildcat Player Interviews

All player interviews must be coordinated through the UK Media Relations Office.

Approximately 3-5 players are usually available at the Monday news conference. Depending on class schedules or other commitments, most players are available to the media after practice, Tuesday and Wednesday. Post-practice interviews will be conducted at the Nutter Training Facility or by telephone. On game days, interviews will be granted only after the conclusion of the contest.

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a "call-back" basis only. Individual player telephone numbers WILL NOT be given to members of the media. Players are instructed NOT to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The UK Media Relations Office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete.

(a) No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes during the event. Such still photographs must be used on a time-delayed basis that is at least five (5) minutes after the happening of the event depicted by the still photograph.

(b) Video tape may only be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly-scheduled news program.

(c) While a game is in progress, the use of textual statistical information is time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., updates pertaining to score, injuries and national, conference or institutional record-breaking performances, a condensed half-time story) so that an organization's Internet or online game coverage does not undercut the authorized and rights-paying fee organization's rights to play-by-play accounts of the game and/or exclusivity as to such rights.

2. Any proposed media use on an Internet or online sight of the game information that is more detailed and/or more than described above will require separate written authorization by the SEC and/or its member institutions. However, such written authorization will not permit the use of game information in entertainment contexts and will not authorize game coverage that, due to immediacy or detail, constitutes or approaches a play-by-play account of a game.

3. Should any of these conditions be breached, the SEC and/or its member institutions will issue a written warning for the first violation. If this violation occurs during the last game of the institutions' regularly-scheduled season, the media organization may not be credentialed for the SEC Football Championship Game. A second violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials to cover future football games hosted by the SEC and/or its member institutions.

UKathletics.com

Other special requests are handled on a case-by-case basis.

The university dormitories, dining halls, team locker and weight rooms, and team training rooms are considered private team areas. These areas are OFF-LIMITS to the media unless accompanied by UK Media Relations Office personnel.

Radio Call-in Shows/Internet Chats

As specified by the Southeastern Conference, no league players will be allowed to participate in live radio shows or on live chat sessions on a non-institutional Web site except for immediate postgame coverage.

Internet

The official University of Kentucky athletics Internet site is UKathletics.com. Statistics and game notes are available on the website.

For home games, live in-game statistics and a live blog are available on the website. After the game, notes and quotes also will be posted on the web.

Football Practice

Most Kentucky football practices are closed to the media, although interviews are available after practice. Media members should contact the UK Media Relations Office, (859) 257-3838, for practice and interview times.

Media may not shoot video or still photos during 11-on-11 sessions of practice. Video is not to be used on an Internet or online site (except that video tape may be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly scheduled news program).

Game Services

Media Parking

Media parking at Commonwealth Stadium is available on a limited basis. Requests for parking should be made when submitting media and/or photo credentials. The media parking areas are located in the Blue Lot and Purple Lot at Commonwealth Stadium. Both are accessible via Alumni Drive.

Media Will Call

Approved media or photo credentials can be obtained at the Media Will Call table, located between gates 11 and 12 of Commonwealth Stadium. Media Will Call opens two hours prior to kickoff and closes 15 minutes following kickoff.

Press Box

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is for working media members only. It is located on the south side (Alumni Drive) of Commonwealth Stadium between the upper and lower grandstands. The media entrance to Commonwealth Stadium is between gates 11 and 12.

The photo deck, radio booths, television booths, coaches booths, and VIP booths are located on the press box level of the stadium. All can be accessed via the press box elevators.

Wireless Internet

The Commonwealth Stadium press box offers free wireless Internet service to media members. Instructions will be provided in the press box on game day.

For further questions, contact Susan Lax, UK Associate Media Relations Director, in seat 94 of the press box.

Visiting Radio

The official visiting radio broadcast network personnel should be designated in writing by the visiting team's sports information director or athletics director. Two phone lines (including one ISDN) will be made available in the broadcast booth, plus one phone line and two dry pair in the locker room area, at a cost to be determined by Mike Dodson of IMG Sports, (859) 226-4678.

Networks wishing to install additional telephone lines, either in the press box booth or locker room, can do so by contacting Larry Bell or Tom Lilly of the UK Phone Services Department at (859) 257-0712.

The field-level photo area is located in Room 144, in the southwest portal leading off the field (same portal as used by the visiting team). There will be a pregame meal and soft drinks served in the room. Flip cards will be available. Statistics and play-by-play sheets will be brought to the room during the game.

Wireless Internet and a limited number of hard-wired Internet connections (first-come, first-served) are available. Access instructions are posted in the room.

Post-game Interviews

UK Coach Joker Phillips will conduct his post-game news conference in the Wildcat Den, located under the north grandstand. Phillips begins his post-game news conference approximately 20 minutes following the conclusion of the contest. The media entrance to the Wildcat Den is located in the northwest corner (nearest flagpole) of Commonwealth Stadium.

The Kentucky locker room is CLOSED to all members of the media. UK players requested for interviews are brought to the Wildcat Den following the conclusion of Phillips' news conference. Interview cards are distributed in the press box during the second half of the contest in order for members of the media to request Wildcats players.

The visitors' locker room is located at the southwest corner of Commonwealth Stadium. A press conference room is located next to the visitors' locker room. The visiting coach and players generally conduct their post-game comments from that area.

UK ON THE AIR

The University of Kentucky is in the midst of a landmark 10-year deal for the University's expanded multi-media marketing rights.

The agreement was signed in 2005 with IMG College (formerly Host Communications) and Gray Television. IMG, UK's radio and television partner for most of the past three decades, teams with Lexington TV station WKYT to pay the University $80.5 million during the term of the contract, making it one of the most lucrative deals of its kind in NCAA history.

In addition to radio and TV rights for football and men's basketball, the Big Blue Network also features women's basketball and baseball, corporate sponsorships, stadium and arena signage, and the official athletics website, UKathletics.com.

At press time, IMG has compiled 61 radio stations, including two stations – WHAS (840 AM) in Louisville and WCKY (1530 AM) in Cincinnati – with clear-channel 50,000-watt signal.

The agreement with IMG enhances UK's national and regional broadcasting presence. Also enhancing UK's national presence is the Southeastern Conference's 15-year deal with ESPN and CBS. Every SEC football and men's basketball game is available via CBS or an ESPN affiliate which began in 2009.

ESPN's deal, reportedly worth more than $2 billion, has rights to every SEC home football game not on the CBS package and all league matchups will be shown on some outlet, including at least 20 a year on ESPN or ESPN2. That includes two primetime Thursday night matchups and Saturday night games.

In addition to the SEC TV pacts, the Big Blue Network features full-game, tape-delay action of all Wildcats home and selected away games that are not televised by CBS or ESPN. The network serves eight over-the-air stations and Fox Sports Net South on cable.

For the 2011 football season, the UK radio broadcast team consists of play-by-play announcer Tom Leach (22 years with the network, 14th season on play-by-play), former Wildcat Jeff Piecoro (ninth season) as the analyst, pregame host/sideline reporter/post-game host Dick Gabriel (22nd season), and pregame analyst Oscar Combs (14th season).

RECRUITING MESSAGE TO WILDCAT FANS

From Coach Joker Phillips

"Obviously, it is of the utmost importance that our coaches, athletic staff, and fans stay compliant to the NCAA rules involving recruiting. The NCAA rules do not allow fans to call, write, send electronic messages or make in-person contact with prospective student-athletes, or their families, on behalf of the University of Kentucky.

"It is permissible for you to recommend a prospective student-athlete to us. If you would like to recommend a player, please write or call the UK football office (Nutter Training Center, 136 Sports Center Drive, Lexington, Ky., 40506-0277, phone 859-257-3611). Give us the player's name and the high school he attends. The coaching staff will take it from there. Please do not contact the player, his family or his coaches on our behalf. Thank you for your cooperation."

The NCAA Rules and You

Compliance with NCAA rules is of the highest priority for our athletics program and institution. As a member of the NCAA, the University of Kentucky is responsible for the actions of its boosters and fans. Even the best-intentioned action on your part may be a violation of NCAA rules. Please contact the UK Compliance Office if you have any questions regarding what is permissible. We encourage our boosters and fans to "Ask Before You Act."

Inquiries should be directed to Sandra Bell, UK Senior Associate Athletics Director, at this address:

Sandra Bell, Compliance Office
University of Kentucky Athletics
Joe Craft Center
338 Lexington Avenue
Lexington, KY 40506-0604
Phone: (859) 257-6482
E-mail: sbell@uky.edu

If, for any reason, you are uncomfortable reporting a violation or a concern directly to the athletics department, you may use the "ComplyCat" hotline. The ComplyCat hotline can be reached by dialing 1-877-898-6072.

Representatives of Athletic Interests — "Boosters"

A representative of Kentucky's athletic interests, or "booster," is anyone who:

- Has ever participated in or is currently a member of the various athletic department support groups;
- Has purchased season tickets;
- Has made a donation to the athletics program;
- Has assisted or been requested (by the athletics department staff) to assist in the recruitment of prospects; examples -- writing, texting or e-mailing a prospect; participating in a chat room with a prospect; posting on a prospect's personal website, such as MySpace or Facebook; talking to a prospect on the phone or in person;
- Has helped arrange summer and/or vacation employment for student-athletes or provided benefits to student-athletes; or
- Has been involved, in any way, in the promotion of UK's athletic program.

Recruiting

Only UK coaches and athletic department staff may be involved in the recruiting process. Boosters are prohibited from contacting a prospective student-athlete or members of his/her family by telephone, letter, text, e-mail, personal website posts, or in person. This prohibition remains in effect until the prospect attends class as a full-time student in a fall or spring term at UK.

Prospective Student-Athlete

In the sport of football, a prospective student-athlete is a person who has started classes for the ninth grade.

Extra Benefits

Prospective and current student-athletes may not receive extra benefits. An extra benefit is any special arrangement to provide a student-athlete or his/her family a benefit not authorized by NCAA legislation. Extra benefits would include, but are not limited to:

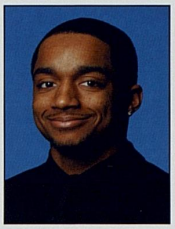

- Cash or loans in any amount;
- Co-signing or arranging a loan;
- Gifts or free services (such as airline ticket, restaurant meal, etc.);
- Use of an automobile;
- Rent-free or reduced-cost housing;
- Money for, or a guarantee of, bail or bond;
- Employment of a student-athlete at a rate higher than the wages paid for similar work; and
- Payment to a student-athlete for work not performed.

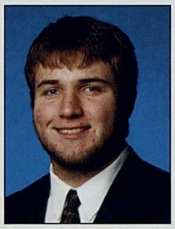

Your commitment to helping the University of Kentucky comply with the letter and spirit of the rules of the NCAA and SEC is greatly appreciated.
