Dedication

To James Kennedy Patterson

the president whose foresight and diligence laid the foundation for the development of the University of Kentucky as it is today, this volume is dedicated on this hundredth anniversary of his birth

Motif

Contrasting the proportion of his dream with the magnitude of its fulfillment, the 1933 Kentuckian offers the forward looking, fearless vision of President Patterson as an encouraging example to one depressed by any doubtful prospects of the future

You who wish may leave reality
For one enchanted moment while we turn
Backward the waves of time's unceasing sea
'Till we, upon the shore revealed, discern
No thing familiar; but the vestiges
Of a forgotten day more kind than these
Mad hours, progressional.

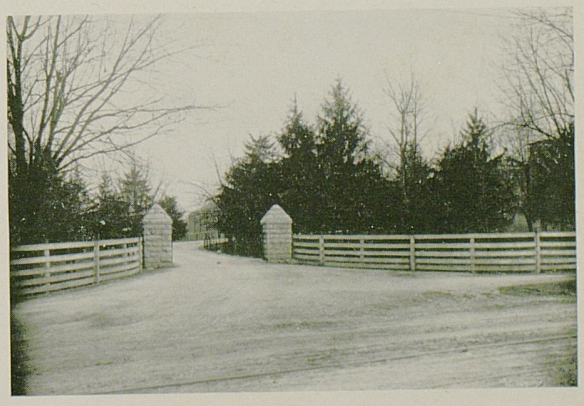

Campus

Adored of sun and moon, her purity,
Lightly arises out of worshipping earth;
And born to loveliness, in soft security,
She fills with queenly grace her right of birth.

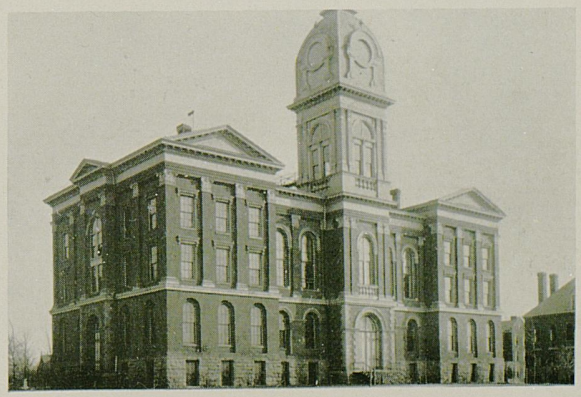

Swift sunlight splashed among the shadowy trees,
Filters in gleams upon the patterned grass;
And ivy lisps its pleasure as the breeze,
Murmurs in wonderment, of beauties soft that pass
Into the unforgettable.

Time, hovering 'round these walls, conceives no stain
To mar an innate reverenced loveliness.

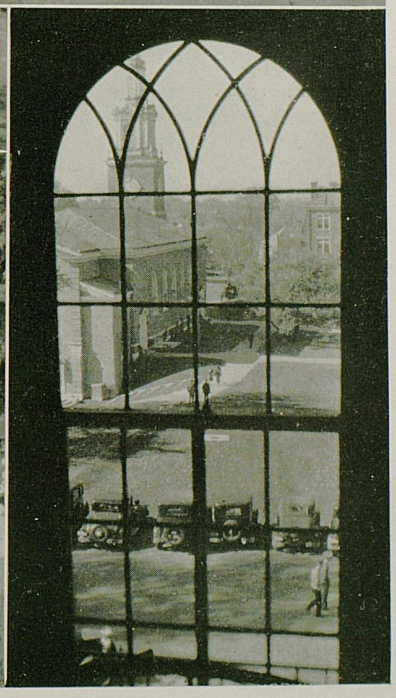

Oh new, clean beauty, in your musty tomes,
Is found no power to half describe your grace,
So well as does the sunlight on your gleaming walls.

Clashing of sabres, and the muffled thud
Of rifles brought to ground will sound alway
Across our memory; and slowing blood
Will to a retrospective cadence march for aye.

Administration

FACULTY

For us, no dawning, nor bright sunset hours,
No hours of idle noon;
In an unending vigil, time is ours,
Interminable; the boon
Of knowledge is the gift we give
To fledgling spirits wandering out to live

Frank LeRond McVey

Under whose guiding hands, evolving reality from a dream, the State College has expanded to a nationally recognized University, reflecting the broad and scholarly attitude of the man who has been its president since 1917

DEANS

Thomas Poe Cooper

Dean of the College of Agriculture; director of the Experiment Station, 1918; graduate of the University of Minnesota; a Presbyterian; 32nd Degree Mason; member of the Rotary Club and Cosmos Club; competent executive; never can be found; has a keen eye and a poker face

Levi Jackson Horlacher

Assistant dean of the College of Agriculture since 1927; B. S., Purdue, 1917; M. S., Kansas State, 1919; member of Alpha Zeta, Omicron Delta Kappa, Research Club, and Kappa Alpha; an honest-to-goodness Presbyterian elder and superintendent of the Sunday school.

Paul Prentice Boyd

Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences since 1917; acting president in that year; professor of mathematics 1912; A. B. from Oberlin, 1898; M. A., Cornell, 1905; Ph. D. from Cornell; member of Sigma Xi, Phi Mu Epsilon, Sigma Delta Chi, O. D. K., Phi Sigma Kappa; a Democrat, Presbyterian, and Mason; owner of a big gold watch chain and a dog, "Rebel."

Idie Lee Turner

Secretary and right-hand aid to Dean Boyd since 1920; A. B. at University, 1913; has the fate of all Arts students in the palm of her hand; plays truant officer for the athletes, keeping close check on them; has a hook rug that has been under construction for more than a year; plays bridge and tennis all year round.

F. Paul Anderson

Dean of College of Engineering since 1891; a native of South Bend, Ind.; B. M. E. from Purdue University, 1890; M. E., 1894; Democrat and Episcopalian; member of Tau Beta Pi, Sigma Chi, Triangle, and Ashland Golf club; exponent of truth, beauty, and publicity in the education of engineers; enthusiast on dahlias and dogs.

William Edwin Freeman

Assistant dean of College of Engineering since 1921; head of department of electrical engineering; A. B. Transylvania College, 1901; B. M. E., 1904; Electrical Engineer, 1913; member of Kappa Alpha, Tau Beta Pi, Lamp and Cross, Omicron Delta Kappa; vice-president Southern division American Institute of Electrical Engineers; Mason; Rotary Club; likes golf and brags about his garden.

Columbus Rudolph Melcher

Dean of Men since 1914; LL. B. from University of Louisville, 1896; assistant professor of modern languages, 1907; head of German department; member of Omicron Delta Kappa, Delta Tau Delta; Presbyterian and Mason; excellent back-seat driver; wears spats; likes German, pretzels, and Leipsig; enjoys raising strawberries and asparagus.

Sarah Gibson Blanding

Dean of Women since 1925; A. B. University, 1923; M. A. Columbia, 1926; member of Kappa Kappa Gamma, Pi Sigma Alpha, and Mortar Board; has a camp for girls during the summer; is a one-man track team; swims, shoots, rides, plays tennis and basketball; has trouble with the knot of hair; ends her conversation with "thank you so much."

DEANS

Edward Wiest

Dean of College of Commerce since 1925; professor of economics since 1918; Presbyterian and associated with the U. S. Weather Bureau, 1906-1914; member of Phi Sigma Kappa, Beta Gamma Sigma; likes fishing, gardening, studying, and eggs and bacon for breakfast; fancies all shades of red, but only one dog; in prosperous times promoter of an annuity for "broken" professors; now, silent, serene, saying nothing.

William Septimus Taylor

Dean of the College of Education since 1923; B. S., 1912; M. S., Uinversity of Wisconsin, 1913; Ph. D., Columbia, 1923; editor of the Kentucky Schools Journal; president of the Kentucky Educational Association; member of Phi Delta Kappa, Kappa Delta Pi, Alpha Zeta, N.E.A., A.A.A.S., and, ah—Kiwanis Club and Masons; a constant speechmaker, spending his spare time preparing for the next address.

Alvin E. Evans

Dean of the College of Law since 1927; A. B., Cotner University, 1898; Ph.D University of Michigan, 1908; assistant professor of Latin, University of Washington, 1908-1909; member of Delta Theta Phi, order of the Coif; Democrat and Wrangler; emphasizes radio talks by grabbing and shaking "mike;" tennis enthusiast; author; sleeps during court trials.

Theordore T. Jones

Acting Dean of Graduate School; head of department of ancient languages since 1904; University honor graduate, 1902; Ph. D., Harvard; member Phi Beta Kappa; pursues the classic tradition in gardening; perpetually present in periodical reading room; rationalizes the classics and carries an umbrella; generally genial; has black eyes and winking clavicles.

Edward F. Farquhar

Professor of Literature in the Department of English since 1909; by contemporary student vote, "The Most Popular Professor on the Campus"; former Chautauqua lecturer; sponsor of the former literary publication, "Letters"; was honestly unaware of the popularity contest until congratulated for his victory; attributes his victory to his strict attention to work and absence of campaigning; holds the doctrine of "Free Souls"; advises student meditation; prone to geometrical blackboard sketches as diagrams for drama lectures; believes in evolution; most frequently characterized by his "wicked eye," his pipe, his hat pulled over his ears, his delightful sarcasm and a kindly disposition.

George K. Brady

Associate professor of English since 1925; second most popular professor on the campus; instructor at Toledo University; A. B. Illinois, 1916 M. A. Harvard, 1919; member of Phi Beta Kappa; a prominent actor in Guignol circles; an inveterate stamp collector; known for his horn-rimmed specs, his pipe, his use of understatement, sometimes almost brutal to hear him tell it; has a very defined opinion of Women's clubs; a good fellow with his students.

Otto T. Koppius

Third choice of the students and yet a professor of physics since 1924; B. S., 1913, and Ph. D. in 1920 from University of Chicago; a member of Phi Kappa Tau, Sigma Xi, Sigma Pi Sigma and the Cosmopolitan club; Geo-physicist for the Sun Oil company, and likes to tell tales of his work in the oil fields; has twinkling blue eyes, is proud of the size of his shoes, and in spite of red hair is probably the best natured man on the campus.

William Snyder Webb

Head of the Department of Physics; head of the Department of Archaeology and Anthropology; third most popular professor at the University; was graduated from the University of Kentucky, 1901; was student assistant in the physics department in 1900; received his Master's degree in 1902; facetiously rumored that he came to this institution soon after the Civil War, ubiquitiously present ever since; was a Major of Artillery during the World War; hobby, archaeology, particularly the remains and mill-stones extant in Kentucky.

PROFS

Levi Jackson Horlacher

For honors, position, degrees, and qualifications please see page 27 for he is also the assistant dean of the College of Agriculture. In addition he is the author of a book, "Sheep Raising"; is decidedly sheep-minded and agreeable; seems to like plenty of work and fell in love with his wife while at college.

Henry Beaumont

Assistant Professor of Psychology; graduated from the University of Leyden, Holland; A. B. from Stanford University; Ph. D. from the University of Vienna; came to the University in 1930, where he was soon known as "The Young Apollo"; possessor of an infectious smile; is an Alfasig; instituted the "Personnel Bureau" for optimistic grads desiring jobs; classes are very popular.

James Thomas Cotton Noe

Professor of the History of Education since 1923; came to the University in 1906 as instructor in the department of Pedagogy of the Normal School; acting dean in 1909; received his A. B. from Franklin College in 1891; M. A. degree from Franklin College in 1891; studied as a graduate at Cornell University, and at the University Chicago; a member of the Canterbury club, Phi Delta Theta, Kappa Delta Pi, Phi Beta, Scribblers club, Louisville Art club.

Lloyd B. Averitt

Instructor in Economics; came to the University in 1931; received A. B. from the University in 1923; M. A. in 1925; attended the University of Richmond, Virginia, 1918-1919; member of Theta Chi, social fraternity; Beta Gamma Sigma, honorary; before coming to the University, an insurance supervisor for ten years; author of "Local Taxation of Insurance Business in the United States."

William Arnold Newman

Professor of Railroad Surveying and Goddesy; graduated from Transylvania College in 1893; received B. S. in Civil Engineering from the University in 1894; instructor in the College of Engineering since 1918; better known among engineers as "Daddy"; in the past few years has built up a touching companionship with his black "five gallon" hat.

Forrest R. Black

Professor of Law since 1926; A. B. University of Wisconsin, 1916; M. A. Columbia, 1919; LL.B. Ohio State, 1920; Ph. D. Robert Brookings Graduate School of Government, 1925; member of the Order of the Coif; Delta Theta Phi; author of "Ill-Starred Prohibition Cases," 1931; has articles in New Republic, Nation, and Plain Talk.

Seniors

Ours are the twilight hours;
Ours, alone, the peace
Of rest, before the shadowed struggle lowers
Over our hearts; a long desired release
Impends, as the soft lingering twilight ends.

Born of a gleaming bright,
Where the swift rays of noontide sun reveal
Immensity, to the incredulous sight;
Slowly a myriad hidden doubts will steal,
Into the light.

Freshmen

Lightly the hours pass—
Swift fall the sands in time's inverted glass;
Falling to build a strand of gleaming shore,
On which the waves of memory will sigh,
Forevermore.

Features

Beauties

As falls the twilight on the lovely rose
Tenderly gentle as a soft caress
But richer for its perfumed loveliness
So beauty, bathed in memory, dreaming goes
Over our souls.

'Till in each bloom and blossom, we can feel
This worship of all beauty which is part
Of the quick human yearning of the heart,
A dream of living, life may never steal
Nor time destroy.

MILLER CAMPBELL SHIVELY GAMAGE

Varsity Football

Despite five losses at the hands of Southern Conference foes, Coach Harry Gamage's Wildcat football team enjoyed a fairly good season in 1932.

Four victories over conference foes and losses to five strong foes were the results of the last football season. The losses to Tulane, and Alabama, played on Stoll field, were among the classics of modern football. In the lead up to the final minutes, the Cats were outworn and scored on after a heroic losing battle.

Hampered by the loss of such stars as John S. "Shipwreck" Kelly, Babe Wright, Ken Andrews, Dick Richards, and Jack Phipps, the Wildcat coaching staff was faced with the task of finding someone to assume the offensive load formerly carried by Kelly, and men to plug the gaps at tackle caused by the graduation of Wright and Andrews.

The so-called weak offense of the Kentucky team managed to score 116 points to 77 for its opponents. Various efforts to break the old ten-year Alabama jinx failed by only a few seconds as the Tide was forced to exert a last minute drive to gain its final touchdown and the victory. The Kentucky team played all season with the jinx pursuing it and was only beaten decisively by one team-the Tennessee Vols.

Several new stars were uncovered during the long campaign of nine Southern Conference games. "Cannonball Joe" Rupert, giant sophomore end, playing his first year on the Big Blue, flashed against every foe and was named unanimously on the second all-Southern team besides being placed on several all-star Southern teams. Alabama and Tulane named him unanimously on their all-opponents team. He was aided by Howard "Dutch" Kreuter, Newport phenomenon and captain-elect, who played at the other end.

As successor to the fleet 'Shipwreck" Kelly, Stanley "Pug" Bach, former Picadome star, for a time made fans forget the Springfield Irishman's long dashes. Bach returned punts for scores in three games and was in a good part responsible for the win over Georgia Tech.

Ralph Kercheval gave a great exhibition throughout the season; continuing his phenomenal kicking, carrying the ball with great skill and handling the team well.

Captain "Bud" Davidson, George Skinner, alternate captain, "Hoot" Gibson, guard,

DAVIDSON

Frank Seale, Bill Luther, Honue Wagner, and John Drury were the stalwarts in the Wildcat line.

Ten members of the Cats played their last time for the Blue and White against the Vols in the Thanksgiving Day battle in Knoxville. The senior linesmen were Frank Gibson, powerful little guard, George Skinner, tackle, "Walrus" Seale, center, Bill Luther, center, "Nig" Blevins, guard, Bob Montgomery, tackle, and John Drury, tackle. The backfield men lost from the 1932 team are: Darrell Darby, big-little man from Ashland, who played three years on the varsity team and at three different places, guard, end and half-back, and played them well. Then his pal and fellow townsman, Ellis Johnson, the "Skipper" of the Cats for three years and one of the most outstanding athletes in all sports to ever wear the Blue and White of Kentucky; and Bo Meyer, the smallest man on the team for the three years he performed on the Gamage-coached team.

Kentucky, 23—V. M. I., 0

In a tough opening day battle on a sun-swept gridiron the Cats stepped all over the Virginia Military Cadets to win under wraps.

Bach flashing down the field for long gains and returning punts for long jaunts along with Ralph Kercheval and Joe Rupert, shared the spotlight.

The first Cat score came early in the first quarter after Urick had sent off a poor kick. A sustained drive down to the three-yard line resulted in Kercheval finally bucking it over on fourth down. He kicked the goal and the Cats were started. After a march down the field in the third quarter the Blue was halted and Kercheval dropped back and booted a beautiful goal from placement.

In the fourth quarter Bach intercepted an enemy pass and raced 57 yards for a score. Just before the game ended Kercheval split the line for the third Big Blue touchdown after another excursion down the field.

KREUTER

Kentucky, 18—Sewanee, 0

Pug Bach enlivened an otherwise almost colorless game by returning a Sewanee punt for 51 yards through the entire Sewanee team.

Nelson, Sewanee kicker, staged a great battle with Ralph Kercheval, Kentucky's celebrated kicker for almost the whole game, and held his own well.

GIBSON

Failing to score again in the first half, although the ball rested on the six-inch stripe when the half ended, the Blue team came back strong in the third stanza and after an exchange of punts, the Sewanee safety man fumbled Kercheval's kick and Joe Rupert recovered the ball. Bach and Johnson carried the ball to the three-yard line from which point Kercheval, hitting the line like a pile driver, went over for the second Cat score.

Then later, with a host of Kentucky reserves in the game, Kercheval on a reverse sped down the sidelines 39 yards for the third and final Wildcat score. His attempts to kick goal failed on all three touchdowns.

The Sewanee team gained but 63 yards from scrimmage while the Big Blue crashed through for 197 yards. Sewanee made four first downs while the Cats accumulated 12.

Kentucky, 12—Georgia Tech, 7

Handicapped by numerous injuries the Big Blue defeated the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets in Atlanta in a very queerly played game. Both Kentucky touchdowns coming in an amazing and spectacular manner.

BACH

The first came just three minutes after the start of the struggle, following a seven-yard punt by the Tech quarterback and Kercheval outsmarted the Tech defense to cross the goal line standing up. Tech threatened throughout the second and third quarters but could not get close enough until they started their final drive that put them in a point lead as Cherry plunged through from the two-yard line.

The deciding touchdown came as a surprise to the entire crowd as well as to the two teams. Kentucky had worked the ball to Georgia Tech's 21-yard line as the third period ended. Kercheval replaced Johnson and on the first play slapped a pass down the middle to Kreuter who was smothered by a crowd of Jacket players, and he passed laterally or fumbled the ball to Pug Bach who ran the remaining ten yards for a touchdown. This touchdown caused much discussion as it looked like a forward lateral, but was said by players participating in the play to have been an unintentional fumble.

Although Georgia Tech scored 16 first downs to five for the Kentuckians, the superior defense of the Cats more than made up for their poor offense.

Kentucky, 53—Washington and Lee, 7

Starting out like they were going to give the Cats a thorough trouncing, the Generals marched to the five-yard line before the Cats could stop them and returning the punt started their march again but Ellis Johnson, leaping high into the air intercepted Seaton's pass and galloped through the whole enemy team for a touchdown, duplicating the feat of the great Kelly, who performed the same stunt in 1931.

Early in the second period Bach scored on a pass from Johnson and raced 22 yards down the sidelines to score. To turn the game into a semi-track meet, Bach scored on a 70-yard run and Darby added another score on a pass.

With a team of Wildcat reserves in the game, Mattox scored for the visitors on a series of line plunges and passes finally going over from the three-yard line.

Johnson added another score soon after on a line plunge, and Darby added six more points after running 15 yards. Then Bach returned a punt 65 yards for the final score. The Cats made 15 first downs to seven for the losers. Johnson played a great game for the Cats, and Seaton looked well for the Generals.

V. P. I., 7—Kentucky, 0

A long train ride and a long bus trip aided the V. P. I. Gobblers to give the Cats their first set-back of the season in Blacksburg.

The Cats played a rather listless type of football. Not getting their offense started until the last quarter they drove from their own 20-yard line to the Gobblers' 36-yard stripe before being stopped by the timer's pistol.

The Cats threatened early in the game after V. P. I. fumbled on its own 22-yard line. Bach, Kercheval and Johnson took the ball to the three yard line where the Virginians made a desperate stand and took it back on downs. From here on, the Orange and Red team was master of the situation and gained at will. Their sheer audacity bewildered the Big Blue. Seldom did they kick on fourth down and never on third. Instead they employed fake formations and ran the ball from punt formation all afternoon.

ALDRIDGE

RUPERT

KERCHEVAL

The winning touchdown came in the third period after Mills had passed to Seamon who was downed on the four-yard line. Three times the Blue clad line stopped Tech cold, but the fourth down, expecting a pass the line spread and Holtzclaw, Engineer back, seeped through for a score. The Virginians made their try for extra point good.

The former impregnable pass-defense of the Wildcats failed to function and their offense was neglected except in the early and late parts of the battle.

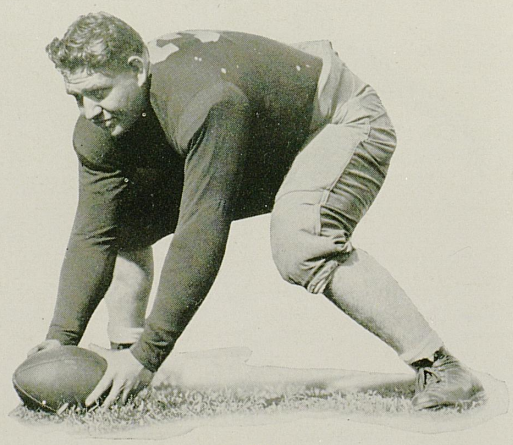

CASSADY

Alabama, 12—Kentucky, 7

One of the most brilliant exhibitions of defensive skill to ever be exhibited on Stoll field or on any other field was given the spectators by the Wildcats throughout the Alabama struggle. Extensive preparations to kill the decade old Alabama jinx were unsuccessful as the Red Elephants rallying after trailing for three periods marched the length of the field to gain the winning touchdown in the final quarter.

The Crimson Tide could not get within the 20-yard line for three quarters, but the giant Red-clad reserves proved themselves superior to the tiring Cats and gained at will in the last 10 minutes of the game. The Cats threatened as the game opened when Drury recovered Holley's fumble but failed by a foot to make a first down and then the Tide started. Holley ripped through tackle for 12 yards and first down and then toted the ball through the whole Kentucky team before being tackled on the 10-yard line. Hughes and Holley drove on again and aided by two penalties on the Cats produced their first score.

SEALE

The Cat score came quickly after the Tide's score. Kreuter and Davidson recovered after Chapelle had fumbled Johnson's punt. Johnson drilled his way through the Elephant line three times to score a first down on the eight-yard line. Johnson took the ball around right end and eluded the whole Alabama team to score the touchdown, and Captain Davidson added the extra point from placement.

The rest of the game until the middle of the last period was played in midfield and was clearly a punting duel between Buck Hughes and Ellis Johnson. Hughes, in Captain John Cain's place, played very well and Johnson, in lieu of Kercheval, played one of the greatest games of his career. The whole Kentucky team played until it was exhausted. The final Tide score came as a result of a 60-yard march with Holley carrying the ball over.

Duke, 13—Kentucky, 0

Wallace Wade's Blue Devils exemplifying the old Wade luck, were able to defeat the Wildcats in Durham by taking advantage of every break while the Big Blue, gaining consistently in midfield, could not put over a score.

Eight times the Cats threatened to score but each time the Devils rose up and repulsed their attack. Only the luck that seems to favor all Wade teams kept the Blue Devils from taking a terrible beating at the hands of the Cats. The Big Blue piled up sixteen first downs to six for their opponents, gained 269 yards while the winners were able to gain but 140 all afternoon. Kentucky completed 14 out of 21 passes.

The first Duke score came when the Demons completed two passes, the last a toss over the goal from Laney to Rossiter. The second came after Kentucky had released two bad kicks and the Wademen marched down to the goal line and, failing to gain on two line plays, swept around the end for a score.

Ellis Johnson reached the heights in the Duke game and was credited by Carolina sports writers with being the best back to play there in many years. Davidson, Darby and Rupert also played great games for the Cats.

Tulane, 6—Kentucky, 3

For upwards of three quarters the Kentucky Cats and Tulane staged a great defensive battle but two sensational plays in the last period stamped it as perhaps the most exciting game played on Stoll field.

For three periods the Cats were forced to play on the defense, and Kercheval's kicks kept the Greenie backs away from the goal. He consistently kicked 50 yards or better and none of the Tulane kickers could come close to equaling his performance.

The Cats played a waiting game, interspersed with numerous forward passes as six of the 20 tossed by Ellis Johnson were completed. Tulane's brilliant offense with Roberts and Zimmerman providing most of the punch rolled up 12 first downs to two for the luckless Cats.

DRURY

Early in the last quarter Kercheval tried for a field goal from placement on the 34-yard line but it was low. Getting the ball close to the Tulane goal a few minutes later he dropped back once more and booted a perfect placement from the 35-yard line to put the Cats out in front, 3-0. Then, on the next kickoff, Don Zimmerman, the "Flying Dutchman" of the Green Wave, took the ball and returned it 62 yards before being stopped by Johnson on the 34-yard line. Here he personally conducted the march goalward aided by a penalty. After three plays by Roberts and Zimmerman, the "Flying Dutchman" smashed his way through for the touchdown. The game ended a few seconds afterwards.

Tennessee, 26—Kentucky, 0

For the first time since the inauguration of the present coaching regime at the University the Tennessee Volunteers were able to inflict a humiliating defeat upon the Cats.

A great crowd in Shields-Watkins stadium saw the Vols outfight, out-smart and out-gain the Cats during the last three quarters. In the first stanza the Wildcats seemed to be playing their usual efficient defensive game, twice stopping the Vols within the ten-yard line.

But with the beginning of the second quarter the Vols picked up power and ran rough shod over Kentucky, scoring at will. Breezy Wynn, Robertson, and Beattie Feathers gained every time they carried the ball and a steady stream of reserves poured in until, as the game ended, Neyland had his third team in the conflict. Kercheval, Bach and Gibson played great ball for the Cats, but they seemed to have lost their usual fight and spirits.

Awarding of Letters

At the conclusion of the season the Athletic council awarded letters to Seale, Gibson, Blevins, Drury, Davidson, Skinner, Rupert, Cassady, Darby, Kercheval, Bach, Kreuter, Johnson, Aldridge, Duff, Wagner, Luther, Montgomery, Meyers, Walker, Miller, Parrish, Pribble, Asher, and Frye, besides a manager's K to Jack Strother.

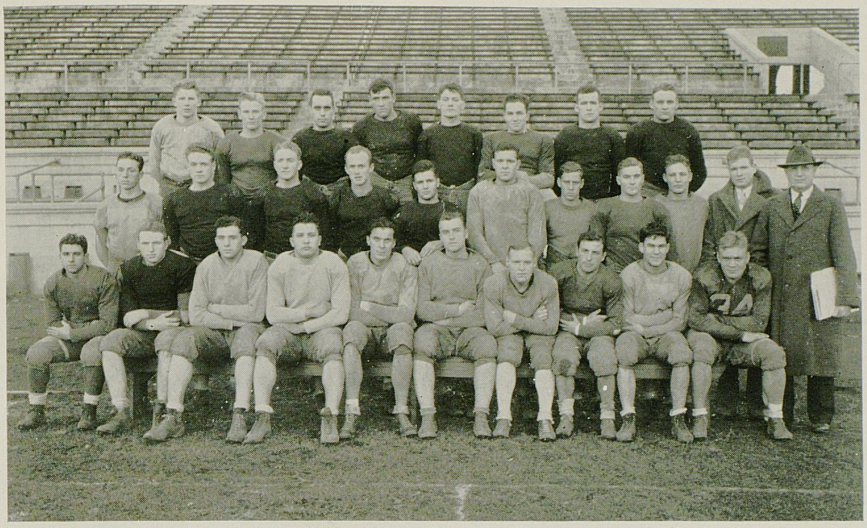

Howard "Dutch" Kreuter, Newport, was elected captain for 1933 by the lettermen, and Ralph Kercheval, Salt Lick, alternate-captain.

The results of the 1932 season:

Kentucky 23—V. M. I. 0
Kentucky 18—Sewanee 0
Kentucky 12—Georgia Tech 6
Kentucky 53—Washington and Lee 7
Kentucky 0—V. P. I. 7
Kentucky 7—Alabama 12
Kentucky 0—Duke 13
Kentucky 3—Tulane 6
Kentucky 0—Tennessee 26

BLEVINS

Freshman Football

Hailed as the best freshman team to repre sent Kentucky in many years, the Kittens played but four games during the season and emerged victorious in their first three starts and dropped a close decision in the final contest to the Vanderbilt Cubs.

Coach Birkett Pribble had a wealth of big, brawny material to work with and he made the most of his opportunity. Several line candidates reported who tipped the beams at more than 200 pounds and the majority of the backfield had both speed and aggressiveness.

Among the promising material for Coach Gamage's varsity next fall are Olah, Jobe, Bertolini, Tichenor, L. Potter, Adkins, Rhodes, and Kelley in the line, and Pritchard, Gilmer, Hay, Jackson, S. Potter, McClurg, and Simpson in the backfield.

The Kittens opened their campaign against a surprisingly strong Marshall College freshman team on October 8. After the stubborn first half defense of the young herd, Pribble's charges came back strong in the third and fourth quarter to win the struggle, 13-6.

For the first time in several years a Kitten football team was able to defeat Tennessee's Rats. In the game played on Stoll field, October 22, the Kittens completely ouplayed the Rats throughout to win handily, 14-0. Besides the brilliant defensive playing of the linemen, the ball carrying of Pritchard and Gilmer were the features.

On their first trip, the Greenies went to Sewanee and overwhelmed the Sewanee Frosh 52-6. The yearlings played the best game of the season against the Tennessee opponents, Pritchard, Gilmer, Jackson, Ayres and McMillan being outstanding.

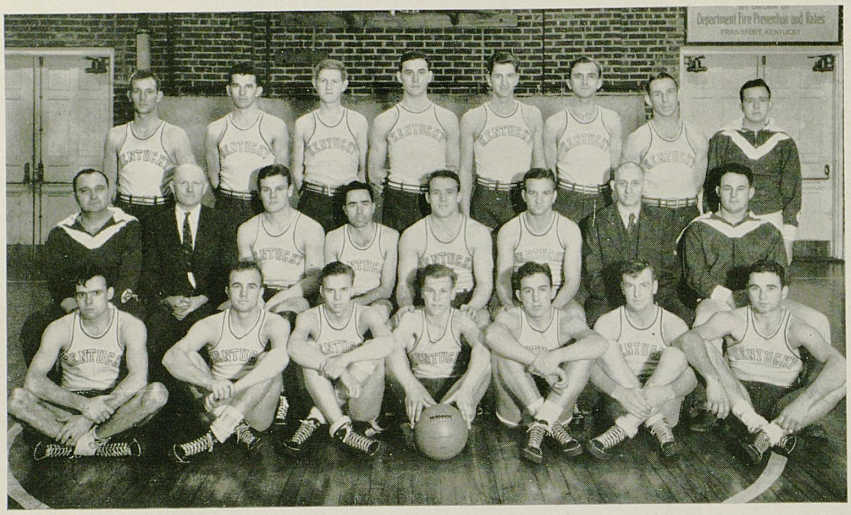

In the last contest of the year, the Kittens traveled to Nashville and were handed a 14-0 setback by the powerful Vanderbilt freshmen. The Frosh were checked in every attempt to score, one time being halted on the one-foot line. The linemen who had been playing a strong game all season, could not check the big, hard-charging Vandy backs until late in the contest when the damage had already been done.

Members of the Kitten squad who were awarded numerals at the end of the season were: Adkins, Anderson, Ayres, Bolton, Bertolini, Cobb, Dickey, Foster, Gilmer, Hay, Jobe, Jackson, Kelly, Fust, Long, McClurg, Meyers, Olah, Pritchard, S. Potter, L. Potter, Rhodes, Tichenor, Sympson, McMillan, McCool, Colston, Bryant, Phillips, and Huddleston.

Basketball

Varsity Basketball

Playing one of the hardest schedules ever attemped by a Kentucky basketball team, Coach Adolph Rupp's Wildcat netters won 21 out of 24 games they participated in during the 1932-33 season and wound up the season by winning the finals at the tournament of the Southeastern Conference at Atlanta. Winning the crown in an easy fashion, the Cats brought the championship to the Bluegrass for the first time since 1921 and were heralded by basketball experts as the greatest Southern team of all time.

Meeting members of six athletic organizations and one foreign team, the Big Blue displayed brilliant form in all their games. Teams from the Big Ten, Missouri Valley Conference, Southern Conference, Southern Intercollegiate Association, and the Southeastern Conference were played by the Cats during the year.

SALE

The play of Captain "Aggie" Sale, center and forward on the Big Blue five, and named All-American forward last year, was outstanding during the season and in the tournament, and he was again named all-Conference center. John "Frenchy" DeMoisey, forward and captain-elect for 1933-34, was named all-Southeastern forward, and Ellis Johnson was selected as all-Conference guard. In addition to being named on the all-tourney team, Johnson was picked by Frank Lane on his All-American team.

Along with "Aggie" Sale and Ellis Johnson on the varsity team were George Yates and Darrell Darby, who have played three years of excellent basketball for the Wildcats. When the next season rolls around Coach Rupp will have a mighty tough time replacing these veterans.

In the 24 games played by the Kentucky team during the season they scored 1,126 points to 646 for their opponents.

The team this season was the third coached by Adolph Rupp at the University and was probably the greatest of the three. Their play was of a sensational type depending more on close-in and rebound shots than on any preordained setup, and drew capacity audiences for every game.

By virtue of their impressive record, the Cats were ceded number one in the tournament and played Mississippi. After playing on even terms with the Delta boys in the first half, they pulled away in the last period to win going away. Florida, their second round opponent, proved easier and were defeated 48 to 24. Louisiana State university, touted to be the second strongest team in the meet, could offer little to stop the onrushing Blue and White Powerhouse and succumbed 51 to 38.

And in the grand finlae of the championship the Cats won from Mississippi A. and M., 46 to 27.

SOUTHEASTERN TOURNAMENT

Kentucky 49, Mississippi 31

Playing without the use of any of their many plays, the Cats won their way to the second round of the tourney by turning on the power in the last half after having been unimpressive in the opening twenty minutes. At the half the Powerhouse was ahead 22 to 15. Sale found the range in the last period to ring up 17 points and "Frenchy" DeMoisey scored eight times from the field to take second honors with 16 points.

Kentucky 48, Florida 24

Bewildered by the fast working Kentucky team, the Florida 'Gators were no match for the well-oiled Cat machine and offered little trouble to the Big Blue who advanced to the semi-finals with ease.

Using the reserves the greater portion of the last half, after leading at the end of the first half, 22-9, the Cats coasted. Sale played one of the best games of his career to score 20 points, while DeMoisey accounted for 11 points.

Kentucky 51, Louisiana State 38

A powerful L. S. U. team, that boasted of several star performers, could not halt the Wildcats, and after giving the Blue team a stiff battle for a few minutes, withered.

"Sparky" Wade, dynamic little guard from the Creole state, was the whole show for the losers, tallying 15 points, but "Aggie" Sale and John DeMoisey collected 20 and 17 respectively for the Blue Grass five.

Kentucky 46, Mississippi 27

Flashing a great attack and a defense that was almost perfect, the Wildcats brought home the championship of the first Southeastern basketball tournament by defeating a game team from the Mississippi A. and M. college.

Seldom did the youngsters from the Delta country get close enough to get a shot and they were forced to fire away from behind the foul circle and seldom connected. The Cats were able to penetrate their opponents' defense at will and at the end of the first 20 minutes of play the Kentuckians were in the lead 29 to 7.

Sale and DeMoisey again led the Wildcat attack with 14 and 15 points, respectively, and the defensive playing of Johnson and Davis was in good part responsible for the final result.

DARBY

DEMOISEY

WM. DAVIS

Kentucky 53, Tulane 17; Kentucky 42, Tulane 11

After defeating Georgetown 62-21, and Marshall 57-23, the Big Blue won their first two conference tilts from Tulane.

In the first of a two-game series played in the Alumni gym, the Cats easily defeated the Tulane Greenies but did not play with their accustomed form and missed innumerable easy shots.

Profiting from their lesson the previous night, the Tulane basketball team banded together to stop the Wildcat scoring ace, John DeMoisey, and to slow the attack of all the other Cats except Captain Forrest "Aggie" Sale, who showed his old-time form to register 16 points.

The Cats started out like they intended to defeat the smaller team by a bigger score than they had on their first meeting, but after leading at the half, 26-5, Tulane showed a tenacious defense and held the high scoring team to 16 points, but could score but seven points themselves.

Davis and Johnson, the Wildcat guards, played a great offensive and defensive game until they were replaced with reserves, as Rupp tried out all his promising substitutes.

Kentucky 58, Chicago 26

Employing a deceptive attack that centered around John DeMoisey, the Wildcats defeated the University of Chicago Maroons in an impressive manner in the Chicago field house.

Only once did the Maroons hold the lead and that for only a minute soon after the game got under way, obtaining a 7-6 advantage. But DeMoisey and Sale quickly found the range and looped them in from all angles.

It was a typical Western Conference game and the Chicago team's play bewildered the Big Blue for a short time, but they soon became accustomed to it and pulled away to an easy victory.

KREUTER

Kentucky 30, Ohio State 46

A giant Ohio State quintet of crack shots shattered the undefeated record of the Wildcats by administering one of the worst defeats suffered by a Big Blue Team in recent years. The battle was staged before a capacity crowd and 2,000 other fans were turned away because of lack of room.

The Ohio team breezed along and led at the end of the first half 20-12, and when Hoskett went out of the game midway of the last half on four personal fouls, the Wildcats were trailing 38-17. The style of play employed by the Red and Black team was more like football than basketball and put the Cats at a disadvantage.

Kentucky 44, Tennessee 23

Displaying a great offense and a nearly perfect defense, the Wildcats turned back a Volunteer threat with little trouble. The Vols were expected to be tough foes but they could not stop the Cats after the Blue Clad Kentuckians had found the range. The Cats topped the Orange and White team 27 to 9 at half time.

The game was more of a laughing contest than a basketball game, both teams tumbling, somersaulting, and cutting high steps between plays. Sale and DeMoisey again led the Cat attack with 12 and 11 markers respectively and Little Bill Davis counted nine points. McPherson and Phillips were the best of the Vols.

YATES

Kentucky 40, Vanderbilt 29

"Little Primer Bill" Davis and the Cats ousted the Commodores from the Big 13 Title chase by silencing all the Vandy threats by winning in the final frame.

After playing on even terms with the Cats in the first half, the Tennesseeans could not stop Davis and DeMoisey in the last minutes and the Big Blue from the Blue Grass of Kentucky hit from all sides to place the game on ice.

B. DAVIS

Kentucky 32, Creighton 26; Kentucky 22, Creighton 34

Traveling nearly a thousand miles to engage the Blue Jays of Creighton University in Omaha, Nebraska, the Big Blue won the first of a two-game series after flashing its great attack in the closing minutes.

The Cats, playing the Missouri Valley champs off their feet throughout, fired them in from all sides in the last period to win handily.

The long trip and the hard battle on the previous night proved too much for the Rupp coached machine, and they bowed to the Jays on the second meeting of the two teams. Creighton was away to a fast start and topped the Big Blue, 24-8 at the half. Kenucky came back strong in the last 20 minutes but could not overtake the Jays.

Kentucky 44, South Carolina 36

Flashing a brilliant, consistant attack, and presenting stonewall defense, the Wildcats won an impressive victory from the strong South Carolina Gamecocks in the basketball building as over 4,000 persons looked on.

The Carolinians had a clever ball-club, one that constantly threatened, but after their star Rowland became injured they could do but little. For 15 minutes the game was fairly close, until Darby and his teammates began to get the range and assured the result.

Kentucky 42, Tennessee 21

With Captain "Aggie" Sale and "Frenchy" DeMoisey hitting at top form, the Cats had an easy time defeating the Tennessee Vols in the Memorial field house in Knoxville.

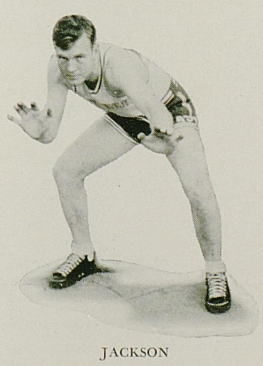

Again Johnson and Davis slowed down the enemy forwards, while the two big siege guns of the Blue Grass team, Sale and DeMoisey, roared at top speed to score 20 and 11 points respectively.

Kentucky 67, Clemson 18

A big but uncertain Clemson team could offer little opposition to the power presented by Coach Adolph Rupp's powerhouse and the Cats scored at will, ending the game with a team of reserves on the floor.

After only three minutes of playing time had elapsed, the Cats were in front 12 to 0 and were coasting 39 to 8 as the first half elapsed.

The Clemson centers controlling the tip could do little else and Sale and Yates blazed away to score 22 and nine points respectively. The entire Cat team performed with a skill and form even better than the score indicates.

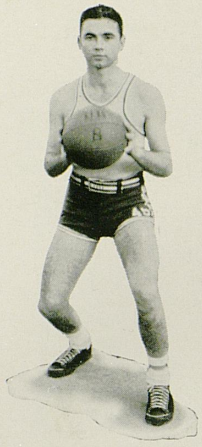

JACKSON

Kentucky 81, University of Mexico 22

Playing a foreign team for the first time, the Wildcats gave a high class performance for the Fal Club team from the University of Mexico. The visiting team thrilled the crowd at times, but were no match for Coach Rupp's crack shooting blue clad team.

The Mexican team, on a tour of good will in the United States, were good sports; agile and fast on their feet but no match for the height and basketball skill of the Cat stars, DeMoisey, Sale and Lawrence. The Blue team was off to a good start and led at the half by a goodly margin with the Cat mentor replacing with Big Blue reserves until 14 Kentucky men saw service. DeMoisey led the Cat attack with 23 points, while Sale took second honors with 22. Lawrence, a substitute, chalked up 10 points to gather third honors for the evening.

Kentucky 45, Georgia Tech 22

In a slow, cautiously played engagement, the Big Blue decisively defeated the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets in the Alumni gym.

Away to a small lead, the Wildcats protected their advantage to continue to lead as the first half closed, 16 to 7.

In the final half the cornered Techmen attempted a comeback that nearly placed them on a par with the Cats but the Blue Powerhouse turned on a little more power and began to hit the goal from all angles to win easily. "Aggie" Sale was again the Big Gun in the Wildcat attack, garnering 19 markers.

Kentucky 33, Alabama 23

Playing before a great assembly in Birmingham, the Wildcats rolled up their seventh straight Big Thirteen victory, by defeating the Crimson Tide of Alabama in a close and hard fought engagement.

The Tide took a three-point lead just before the gun ended the initial twenty minutes of playing, but Kentucky returned to the floor and unloosing an attack that swept all before it, had taken a five-point advantage before many minutes of the second half had clicked by, and added to their lead, protecting it until the game closed. "Aggie" Sale and John DeMoisey again led the Big Blue attack.

Kentucky 45, Vanderbilt 28

A Vanderbilt team that threatened constantly but could not stop a blue-clad will o' the wisp that flitted in and out under their basket, lost to the Cats in a game that was by turns well played and poorly played.

"Aggie" Sale, Wildcat captain, was too much for the Commodores, and he rebounded, sunk fouls, hit from all sides to score 26 points, almost as many as the entire Vandy team scored. The first half was an exhibition of falling and slipping that became exciting at times. Kentucky led 19 to 12 at the halfway point.

The Vanderbilt game played before a packed house, closed the home season for the Ruppmen. DeMoisey took second scoring honors with 10 points, while Foster, behemoth Commodore pivotman, was best for the visitors, scoring 10 points.

TUCKER

De Moisey Elected Captain

Members of the championship team were honored at the close of the season at a banquet given by the Lexington Alumni Association. John DeMoisey, of Walton, was elected captain for 1933-34 to succeed retiring Captain Forrest "Aggie" Sale. The five seniors on the squad were given gold basketballs by the Athletic Council.

Letters Awarded

Letters were awarded to the following: Captain Forrest "Aggie" Sale, Captain-elect John DeMoisey, Darrell Darby, Ellis Johnson, George Yates, George Skinner, Evan Settle, Dave Lawrence, William Davis, Jack Tucker, and Manager Charles Maxson.

Freshman Basketball

Although not having the unbeaten record of their predecessors, the 1932-33 Kitten basketball team won eight and lost but one game during the campaign and avenged that loss in a later contest.

Playing a preliminary to the varsity game, the green-clad proteges of Coaches Miller and Campbell opened their season with a 35-19 triumph over a strong Georgetown outfit.

The Kittens traveled to Williamsburg for their second encounter and easily disposed of the Cumberland College varsity representatives, 43-8. Although still early in the season, the yearlings were in fine form, and led by Jerome and Lewis, had little difficulty with the southern team.

Lee's College was the next victim of the accurate-shooting Kittens when they were handed a 63-18 setback in Jackson.

A sensational Eastern State Teachers' College freshman team invaded the Alumni gym and outscored the Kentucky standard bearers, 38-36, to give the Frosh their only defeat of the season. Brown, hefty visiting forward, could not be stopped by the Kittens whose rally in the second half fell short by two points.

In a return engagement, the Kittens journeyed to Georgetown and again whipped the Georgetown Cubs, this time by a 37-25 score. Every member of the winning team broke into the scoring column, with the honors fairly evenly divided.

Coach Miller's charges continued their conquest when they overwhelmed the Lee's College outfit for the second time, 65-10. The collegians offered little opposition and the entire Green team turned in scores.

Although the Coffman Red Devils of Central City came here with a big reputation, the Frosh outplayed and far outclassed their opponents.

In the best played game of the year, the Kittens avenged their single defeat by whipping the Eastern Frosh team, 37-32. The game was contested throughout and the last two minutes left the score tied, 31-31. Glen Mester was substituted and proved to be the vital spark when he cinched the victory on three successive field goals.

To close the season, the Frosh defeated a strong Athens Independent team, 32-28, at Athens. The Independents were headed by McGinnis Brothers, former Wildcat stars.

Numerals were awarded to Garland Lewis, "Slip" Jerome, Eddie Esch, Glen Mester, Linwood Arnall, Milerd Anderson, Louis Edwards, Sam Potter, and John Hershfeld.

Track

Varsity Track

Handicapped the entire year by injuries to star performers, the 1932 Wildcat track squad nevertheless enjoyed a successful season winning three meets and losing two to powerful foes. Vanderbilt and Georgia Tech took advantage of a crippled team to win easily, but the Cats, with all their injured men back in the fold, won their final meet of the year from the Tennessee Vols by a good margin.

The first meet of the season saw the Cats, with several men injured and others handicapped by sore muscles and colds, walk over the University of Louisville Cards. Then ill fortune began to stalk on the trail of Coach Shively's men. "Shipwreck" Kelly, the Big Blue's one-man track team, already suffering from a pulled muscle in his leg, suffered a cut on his leg which became infected and he was forced to abstain from running until the last meet of the year. John Hieber, rotund blond speedster from Newport, who was little slower than the Springfield flash, also was out of the first two meets, suffering from a pulled tendon in his left leg. Others on the team were slowed up by weak ankles and other minor injuries.

BAKER

The field event men were again the weakest part of the Blue track machine. Even with the addition of Johnny Mains, plump shot hurler who set a new University of Kentucky mark in the shot-put with a toss of 43 feet, 3½ inches in the Berea meet, the Big Blue was woefully weak in the field departments.

The discus and javelin throwers were very inconsistent, although they turned in several good exhibitions. "Scaley" Roberts, star high jumper, bettered his own record jump of six feet by rising to a height of six feet, one and a half inches. But Roberts was the only good high jumper in the camp and he was not up to his best form in all the meets. The absence of Kelly from the broad jump caused some difficulty at first, but Shively developed two men who looked as good as Kelly. Hubble, star pole vaulter, was entered in the broad jump, and won one first and took several lesser places. Kercheval, sophomore ace, who came out for only the javelin throw, was turned into a broad jumper and a hurler by the track chief.

Kercheval, competing in four events, amassed a total of 41 points for the season to top Captain Howard Baker by one point. Kercheval's work in the hurdles was mechanically perfect but he needed to add to his speed which he did before the finish of the campaign.

Eight seniors finished their track careers with the Tennessee meet. They were Captain Gerrold O'Bryant, John S. Kelly, John Hieber, Billy Hubble, Robert Porter, George Roberts, John Epps, and Kenneth Andrews. All these men have been mainstays of the squad for three years and will be hard to replace.

Several new star performers made their bows as Wildcats and much of the credit for the success of the 1932 season must be given to these sophomore stars. In addition to Ralph Kercheval other sophomore lettermen were Walter Hocker, John Carter, Jack Hickey, and Carroll Ball.

Ball, flashy sprinter from Elkhart, Indiana, somewhat made up for the loss of Kelly during most of the season. He won several times in the 220 and placed a number of times on the mile relay team. He ran the century consistently around 10 seconds and should do better next season.

Hickey and Carter were the two sophomore members of the relay team, which was probably the weakest event on the Cat track program. Hocker, a long striding two-miler, showed great form in most of his races. His great stamina makes up for his lack of speed but he has promise of developing much greater speed this year.

"Shipwreck" Kelly and the other men who went to the Southern Conference track meet at Atlanta were unable to finish as well as the 1931 team did in the Conference relays; finishing only 13th. Kelly took fifth place in the 220; Captain O'Bryant was fifth in the 880 yard run, and Baker scored third in the two-mile run.

MILLIKEN

HIEBER

MAINS

HOCKER

The Cats were strong in the middle and long distance track events, fairly strong in the shot put, high jump, broad jump, and dashes, but weak in all other events.

Kentucky, 101½—Louisville, 15½

Scoring first place in every event except one and taking second in practically all the others the Cats had little difficulty in defeating the University of Louisville Cards on Stoll field in their initial meet of the year.

Kelly and Kercheval led the Kentucky scorers with victories in the 100-yard dash, broad jump, and javelin throw and seconds in javelin throw and 120 high hurdles.

Blunk, Louisville captain, pulled an iron man act by running in the two-mile, mile, and 880-yard runs and then running anchor man on the mile relay team. He won the 880 yard run and took a second in the mile. The Big Blue won all the running events except the half mile run and had very little trouble in any of the races.

BALL

Vanderbilt, 70—Kentucky, 47

A crippled Big Blue machine, exhausted by a long automobile trip to Nashville, was no match for the strong Vandy Commodores and took their first loss of the season.

The Blue and White, without Kelly and Hieber, was outclassed in the dashes and broad jump. Ball, however, took seconds in both the sprints, and Kercheval took a place in the long jump. The Cats staged a surprise by winning both the half-mile and mile runs. Mahan took the 880 with a fast stretch come-back. Baker led the milers home with O'Bryant second.

"Scaley" Roberts' jump of six feet, one and a half inches, went for naught as Newton, Vandy jumper, equaled his feat and the points were split between them. Kercheval lost a heartbreaking javelin dual to Smith. Smith's throw was just an inch more than Kercheval's best throw.

Georgia Tech, 80—Kentucky, 51

EPPS

Still crippled, the Cats lost their second consecutive meet to the Yellow Jackets of Georgia Tech, in Atlanta. The Blue was unable to take more than three firsts, those coming in the two- mile, mile runs, and the broad jump. Captain O'Bryant led the pack in the mile, with Howard Baker second. Baker stepped the two-mile in 10:27, and Hocker was third.

The Cats again showed their weakness in the sprints, relay and field events, but showed up well in the hurdles and distance events.

Kentucky, 101½—Berea, 29½

Sweeping almost all the events on the card the Wildcats turned back the Berea mountaineers on Stoll field in their second and final appearance of the year. Berea had little to offer except Dodson, a talented miler and half miler, and Evans, hurdler and middle distance star. Dodson ran a great race in both the mile and half mile but in both races succumbed to a grinding stretch drive; Howard Baker came from behind to win the mile and O'Bryant flashed by to take the half mile.

The rest of the Kentucky team functioned well and scored first places easily except in the 120 high hurdles in which Evans, away to a flying start, was never headed by the Kentucky hurdlers.

The meet was held on a beautiful day with a large crowd present.

Kentucky, 68—Tennesse, 49

Returning to the team after a long layout, "Shipwreck" Kelly breezed to a win in the 220 yard dash, a second in the 100, and a first in the broad jump. Kercheval hung up a first place in the 220 low hurdles and the javelin throw.

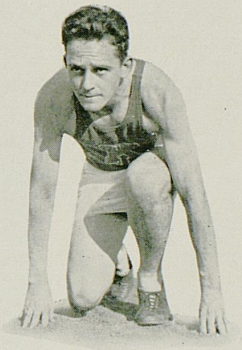

EMMERICH KERCHEVAL

The entire Kentucky squad performed well and took several first places. The field event men looked some better than in their previous appearances, but were still unimpressive. Hocker ran a great race in the two miles but was nosed out by Goddard, fast little Vol distance man.

At the close of the season the lettermen elected Howard Baker captain for the 1933 season. The lettermen were: Captain J. D. O'Bryant, Captain-elect Howard Baker, Leland Mahan, John Carter, Jack Hickey, John Mains, Kenneth Andrews, John Epps, George Roberts, S. E. Milliken, Robert Porter Jr., Ralph Kercheval, John S. Kelly, John Hieber, Carroll Ball, Billy Hubble, Harry Emmerich, Walter Hocker and Manager Chester Jolly.

Men who scored points for Kentucky, season of 1932:
Kercheval 41, Baker 40, Emmerich 29, Milliken 29, Mahan 28, Kelly 27, Ball 25, O'Bryant 25, Carter 20, Porter 19, Roberts 19, Hubble 15, Hocker 14, Hieber 13, Epps 13, Andrews 11, Hickey 10, Hand 3, Huck 1.

CARTER

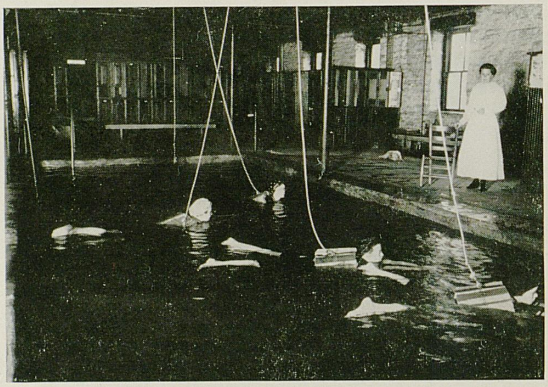

FRESHMAN TRACK

For the past few seasons the freshman track teams at the University have been unusually good and have provided excellent material for the varsity squad. In 1932 the frosh team was the best in the state, winning from the Georgetown yearlings, who later won the state S. I. A. A. title by 83-34 score.

PORTER

Among the outstanding members of the squad was Harry Noble who set a state high school record for the javelin throw while he was a member of the track team at Berea Academy. His mark of 197 feet has not been approached since. Laesslie in the hurdles and Miller in the mile run, seem like excellent prospects for the 1933 varsity. C. Gates, A. Mahan, M. Taylor, D. Laesslie, D. Andrews, J. Miller, J. Craig, and H. Noble were numeral men.

Minor Sports

Intramural Events

Under the direction of Charles W. Hackensmith, the Intramural department of the University has developed one of the most important parts of the athletic program.

Annually scores of different sports are included in the I-M program. Basketball, volleyball, cross-country, handball singles and doubles, tennis singles and doubles, horse shoe singles and doubles, fencing, golf singles and two-ball foursomes, track, mixed tennis doubles, free-throw contest and diamond ball encourage student interest.

A cup is given to the fraternity winning the most events during the season or accumulating the most points. Besides this cup, trophies are awarded in the various events to individual competitors.

In the last year the independents have taken a large part of the honors. Independent basketball teams captured the baskeball championship in both 1932 and 1933, and the volleyball crown in 1933. The annual cross-country was won by independents in 1932 and 1933, and their team won the University championship both times in easy manner. The former winners of the trophy were Sigma Chi in 1931 and 1932, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon in 1929 and 1930.

To carry out the details of organization necessary, Hackensmith has a corps of managers who, after working for four years, receive a manager's "K" for their services. At present there is no Senior manager but three Junior managers, Lowenthal, Hennessey, and Faber, who were given letters this year. Sophomore managers are Woods, Griffin, Crulf, and Conley, with Warren, Stanley, and E. Fager aspiring for the berth next year.

The fall tennis singles were won by Nathan Elliott, Phi Delta Theta, while White and Cullen, Phi Sigma Kappa, were victorious in the tennis doubles.

Banks, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, captured the crown in the singles division in the horseshoe pitching tournament, while Goebel and Morgan, Alpha Gamma Rho, won the doubles in this sport.

Two ball foursomes in golf were won by Haggard and Steele, Kappa Alpha, while in the mixed doubles division of the tennis meet, Phelps and Weil were returned victorious.

The early winter sports included handball, boxing and wrestling. In the handball doubles, Rosa and Block, Kappa Sigma, took the championship in easy style and Mauceri, Independent, won the singles division.

The Independent Athletic Club won both the basketball and volleyball trophies and the cross-country honors. Robert McGaughey and Doug Vinson, both Independents, finished first and second in the race. The fraternity crown was given to the Alpha Gamma Rho.

With Bob Goodman as the outstanding member of the team, Alpha Sigma Phi won the Intramural track meet with a score of 38½, with Alpha Tau Omega second with 21.

Alpha Tau Omega won the Intramural diamond ball champoinship last spring with the Sigma Chis following as runners-up. Arthur Ake, pitcher for the winning team, held the opponents to such a scant number of hits that the contest was easily won.

The Independent A. C. won the Intramural basketball championship, winning over the Phi Delta Theta fraternity team. The Phi Delts won the runner-up position and the fraternity championship by defeating the Phi Kappa Tau team which was runner-up in the fraternity championship.

ATHLETICS

Intramural sports began at the University of Kentucky as far back as the year 1905. At that time track was the favorite sport and competition was conducted between classes.

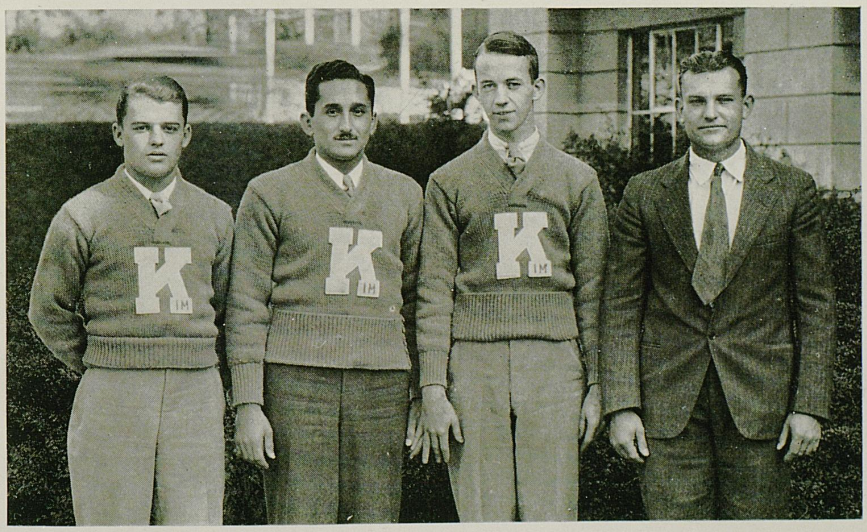

From 1916 until 1926, a period of ten years, Intramural sports were conducted by the various athletic coaches of the University. The program included football, basketball, track and baseball.

In 1926 M. E. Potter came to the University as Intramural Director, and he introduced tennis, horse-shoe pitching, volleyball, and organized the department on a more definite plan.

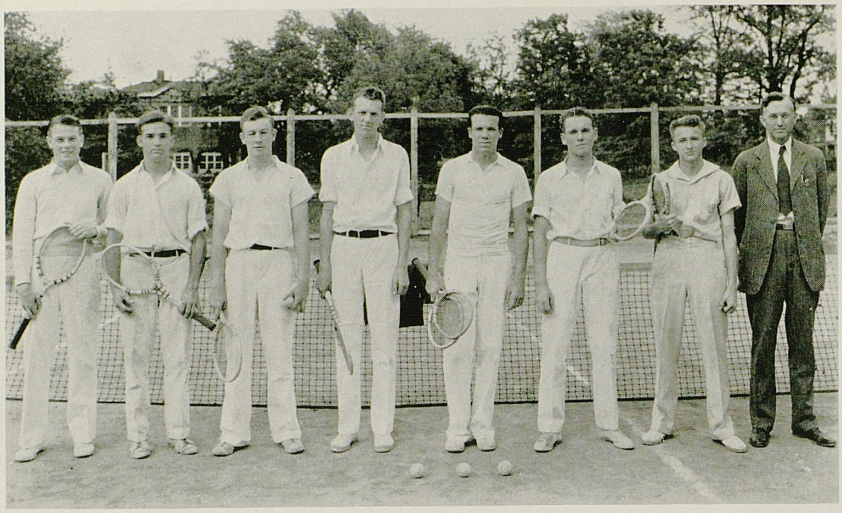

In 1929 Intramural sports were continued under the direction of Prof. Sidney Robinson, and in 1930 the department was placed under the direction of C. W. Hackensmith.

Intramural standings for 1931-32 were as follows:

Sigma Chi	640	Alpha Sigma Phi	183½
Sigma Alpha Epsilon	635	Alpha Gamma Rho	147
Kappa Alpha	479½	Sigma Phi Epsilon	139
Alpha Tau Omega	467	Delta Chi	102
Phi Sigma Kappa	349	Triangle	71
Phi Delta Theta	305½	Lambda Chi Alpha	70
Delta Tau Delta	299	Sigma Nu	43
Pi Kappa Alpha	230	Campus Club	31
Kappa Sigma	222	Alpha Lambda Tau	25
Phi Kappa Tau	213½

Varsity Tennis

Hampered by the loss of several stars from the preceding season, Coach H. H. Downing's Wildcat Tennis squad was composed of almost all new men and they developed into one of the most evenly balanced teams in the history of the sport at the University.

Farquhar, captain and number one man of the Wildcats, teamed with Howard Wilson formed one of the best doubles team, if not the best to appear on the University courts in several seasons. Only one match was lost by these boys during their hard ten-match campaign and this was lost to the number one doubles team at Sewanee, who later won laurels at several tournaments.

Don Braden, K. P. Smith, Howard Wilson, George Yost and Turner Howard, all newcomers to the squad, turned in good tennis throughout the season and every man won several matches. Jimmy Bishop, who was manager the preceding season showed form as a player and was awarded a letter. Roger Klein, the only veteran on the team besides Captain Farquhar, played erratically at times but possesses a fine game of tennis.

Coach Downing expects Howard Wilson to continue to develop. Last season he improved with every game and towards the end of the season was the best man on the team. Klein and Braden are both expected to improve and with the new material coming up from the freshmen, the varsity this season should be much better than that of last year.

The Big Blue racketeers won seven matches during the 1932 campaign, defeating Berea twice; Xavier University of Cincinnati twice; Wheaton, Marshall, and Maryville. They lost only to Tennessee, University of Cincinnati and Sewanee.

The 1933 schedule is as follows:

Emory University at Atlanta, April 11; Alabama, at Tuscaloosa, April 13; Tulane University, at New Orleans, April 15; Wheaton College, at Lexington, April 28;; Berea College, at Lexington, April 29; University of Illinois, at Lexington, May 6; Berea College, at Berea, May 8; University of Cincinnati, at Lexing-ton, May 8.

Freshman Tennis

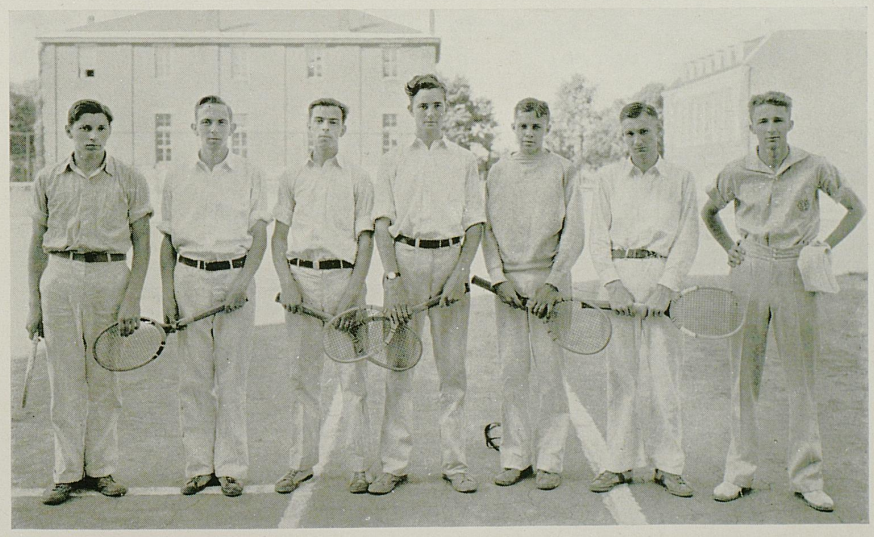

Although not having an exceedingly difficult schedule, Coach Downing's first year men, led by John St. John, captain and manager, enjoyed the most successful season in the history of freshman tennis at the University. The team, coached most of the time by Roger Klein, captain-elect of the 1933 varsity squad, completed the 1932 season with no defeats except those administered by the varsity.

Throughout the season, St. John and Rush, numbers one and two respectively, played together in the doubles, while Brown and Curtiss, and Gordon and Zug formed the other successful pairs in the doubles events. The men who received numerals were John St. John, Milton Rush, Marion Brown, James Curtiss, Norris Gordon, F. C. Zug, and Robert Buchman.

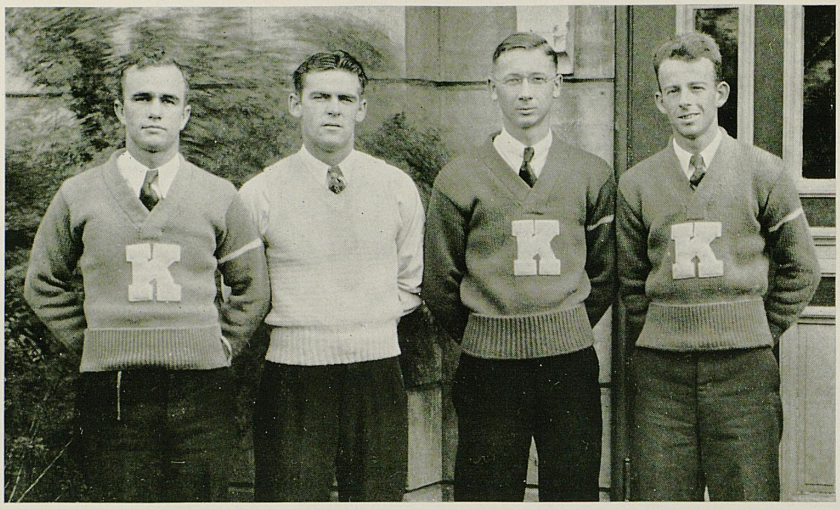

On April 25 and May 5, the team played and defeated the University High netmen 5-1 in each encounter. Going to Winchester they conquered Winchester High, 5-1, on May 16, following on the next day with a 5-2 drubbing to an all-star high school group. Georgetown was sent home on May 23 with a 4-1 loss, and the next day Morton High fell to the score of 4-0. The last match of the season was with the varsity, who removed any cockyness with an 8-0 defeat.

Since freshman tennis was inaugurated in 1925, three years after varsity tennis was established on the campus, the teams have improved each year. The schedule consists mostly of high school teams as virtually none of the southern universities have organized freshman squads, and the Big Ten have no intercollegiate competition for their first year men.

Sixteen men turned out at the first of the season and most of them had been high school stars. The number and quality of tennis men has increased from year to year, with the growing emphasis placed on tennis in the high schools.

Varsity Golf

With only one letterman around which to construct his team, and faced with several difficult matches, Coach J. C. Jones and his 1932 Wildcat golf team experienced a difficult season, winning one, losing two, and tieing one match.

The Blue and White mashie and niblic wielders lost to Ohio State University's golf team in the first contest played at the Lexington Country Club. Only a wide putt on the 18th green kept the 'Cats from defeating the University of Dayton golfers in the Ohio city when they tied their opponents 9-9. They concluded the season with a return match with the University of Cincinnati Bearcats, which they won 12-6 after losing to the same group earlier in the season.

Letters were awarded to Willard Meredith, Evans Settle, Fred Hardwick, and Robert Hickey.

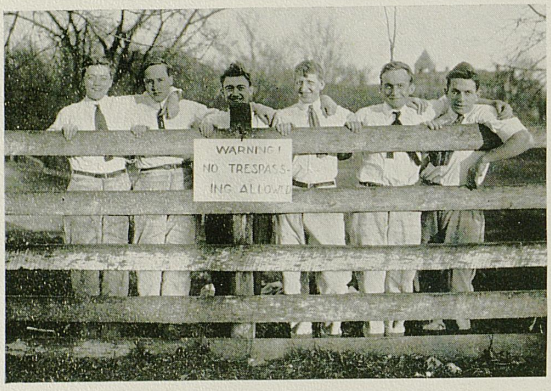

For the 1933 team Coach J. C. Jones has over a dozen golfers under his charge and with Willard Meredith, Evan Settle and Fred Hardwick, 1932 lettermen, back. In addition to these men four sophomore players, John Haggard, Dwight Pendelton, Jr., John L. Davis, and William Brown, have shown strength in the spring practice.

The Varsity schedule for 1933 includes two matches each with Eastern Teachers College and the University of Cincinnati, in addition to one with Ohio State.

The first freshman golf team at the University will be organized this year. Jack Mohney, Nath Elliott, and Louis Hillenmeyer, freshmen candidates, have had considerable experience before entering school.

INTERNATIONAL PROFESSIONAL JOURNALISTIC FRATERNITY

Founded DePaw University, 1909

Installed on Campus, 1927

The fraternity was founded to foster the better interests of journalism, higher ethics and principled news writing being the written creed of the founders of the national organization. Only those universities having a high standard journalism school are admitted to the circle of embryonic members of the Fourth Estate. Forty-four chapters.

Tis not alone from books we learn.
The age old secrets man has taught to man,
Are found upon no page where'er we turn;
But always since the human tribe began
To live in groups they've learned a lesson stern,
Man to be happy must live close to man.

Acknowledgments

Just a little space for an acknowledgment to some of the persons without whose cooperation the production of The Kentuckian would have been impossible.

The Yearbook must be the combined efforts of many students and the staff, receiving little credit, less notice, and probably less than half of the appreciation they deserve, have spent much of their time on the project. They can always feel a pride in the way they have carried out their individual assignments and in the dispatch with which they have maintained the schedule of production in spite of their studies and activities.

Professor Rannells with his suggestions concerning our art work; Miss Helen King for her aid in the publicity connections, and Professors Grehan and Portmann for their continual interest and supervision; we owe those and many others of the University staff a great deal of thanks.

Many thanks also to Mr. Charles Hoy, from our engraving concern, for his advice and criticisms; and particularly to "Dave" Griffith, the most helpful assistant any editor could hope to have, for his continuous cooperation and invaluable aid in the solution of difficulties whatever their origin.

Advertisements

To the following advertisers, the staff of the 1933 KENTUCKIAN is extremely grateful, and urge you to take note of those concerns who have aided our publication in spite of the questionable good will that they will receive from their contribution

SKELETONS IN CLOSETS

Advertisers pay for space; ads must be included; tricks must be employed to get you to look through this section; so,—we have had to rely on the usual effective means based on the desire to see your group names in print, and the relish of seeing others spoken of in the same light vein. We will not intentionally say a single thing of merit concerning anyone; and if we have been unable to do everyone justice in raking up the foolishness of the past, it will be only because that group has been clever enough to keep from the public eye of the campus gossips. From which we urge you to conclude that the least said concerning you should allow you to feel secure in your intrigues and we recommend a continuance in a measure inverse to the degree in which you have attracted the eyes of those who are looking only for the "Sweetness and Light" of your coming and going.

The introduction is over, the required space filled, and the presses need not stop. With more time on our hands we will do better now.

ALPHA DELTA THETA

The Mecca for all short co-eds with probable maximum height in the future limited to five feet in their high heels; main hangout for Deltachis and Sigepps and chief supporter of the Tavern; have difficulty with the competition of the nurses' home with such a strict housemother; with aid of Robinson, Brumagen, and Powell are getting in the public eye; have ready access to young chaperones with the marriage of Dot Strother and Lillian Gooch; even managed to buy a new radio in this year of the depression.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA

An active group of co-eds led by the fickle Nell; they have turned athletic and the once peaceful garden has been turned into an outdoor gym (daytimes only) and has improved their mettle at basketball, jacks, and jumping from one coalition to another; again gives the outstanding freshman to Alfagam Frances Kerr; have the Holmes sisters who prove useful for advance inspection trip information; successful in obtaining support of all politcial minded fraternities regardless of party and the Independents as well for Prom Queen Mary Alice Palmer.

ALPHA GAMMA RHO

A pretty good outfit of farmers, being kept in the campus view by the help of Ollie Price and Elizabeth Jones; mainstay of the Alfazee house; and winners of the cross country race (where endurance helps); long the power behind the Pikap throne and little recognized for their help; rumored to be behind a movement to move the Ag farm in front of Mechanical hall to keep in touch with University people; even won the Homecoming cup with their witchery.

ALPHA LAMBDA TAU

Yes, they are that quiet group of boys living on Maxwell; they are still going strong in an ALT way and insist that there is a considerable demand among STUDENTS for a club without the rowdyness of college fraternities; founders of the outfit graduate this year and can't find out who is going to continue the fight when Meredith, Hart, and Hays leave; they do play cards and are rumored to have a ping pong table.

PHI SIGMA KAPPA

The University track team house last year, the Phisig house will miss Baker and Emmerich, athletes and general utility men of the highest calibre (we're serious too); get high fraternity scholarship in spite of week-end celebrations; actually talked Mrs. Stinehour into acting as their house mother and she PAYS her room and board for the privilege. Bill Conley visits Phisig house during odd moments from his Zeta boarding house.

INDEPENDENTS

Thanks to their organization of athletics, there has been a more noticeable cooperation between independent men than in a number of years; they have run up a threatening score in the intramural trophy battle; have introduced meetings of a social relation (too often to discuss politics); and then to spoil it all, had to get tied up with the pikaps; hope that they will at least get the promised May Queen.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON

Finally after years of going national, the Sigmabetazees plus the Campus club have been installed as a chapter of a national; do have a pretty pin, and have passed several of them on to co-eds; thanks to Sigep Fred Sheils, they have plenty of publicity in the Casual Observations column at least; 'tis said that the rent of the Campus club was raised and the merger idea was the means of combating.

SIGMA CHI

Intramural experts primarily, the Sigchis have won the trophy for two successive years; seem to be loosing their punch, for their prospects this year are nil; the chapter as a whole nearly made a standing this past semester, occasioned by continual attendance to the Ada Meade, baldheaded row, if you please; the ladies man Thorny Helm has been much of a help; name before the public; guess there's hope.

Holding down the extreme east of Fraternity Row, the Alfasigs play ball in the park while a freshman listens to the police radio station to warn the actives when a prowl car is dispatched to break up the game; are becoming a scholarly lot and won the Lances scholarship (no, not drinking) cup; somehow did get some key positions and apparently are trying to maintain the pace; are still using their garage but never park cars in it; own two dogs that have kept them on the sympathetic side of the deans; and expect Burns and Vogel to make up for the loss of Stewart.

ALPHA TAU OMEGA

Threatened with the ruination of their athletic reputation, the association already is rehearsing the glories of their graduating heroes, Johnson, Seale, Darby, and Blevins; after being nosed out of the intramural track meet crown by the Alfasigs for two years, they won it this year with a vengeance; with the swan song for Hugh Adcock, another satellite will leave the camp and leave a real hole, "Along the Highway of Love."

ALPHA XI DELTA

Losing pretty Katherine Smoot and likeable Louise Mitchell, the Alfazees are going to have to do some powerful rushing next year; backed by the thought of losing only one senior next year, the chapter will probably again make its step to the front; they WERE one of the first sororities to be established on the campus; shunning the publicity columns leaves little to be found about their lodge, except that it is generally known that they have a chapter house on Lime.

DELTA ZETA

With the return of Sara Reynolds and the annual move to a new position (next to "Doc's" hangout for eds this year) the Deltazeta stock has rose to a new high for the decade. Dot Compton has a good voice and crazy ways, Gayle Elliott is one of those Company sponsors; and Mary (Dreamy Eyes) Higgason is the newly acclaimed Rhomba Queen and twirls a wicked red handkerchief; are now living in the old Alfasig house which may explain the high degree of cooperation between the two organizations.

Boasting of seven pins out of twelve girls in the house the C. & O.'s should be the ideal of every co-ed with serious intention concerning her college career; in fact, Winston Byron and Jean Dawson have held the interest of Sigalf Woodson Knight and Triangle Chick Kastner for two successive years each; and yet Jane Givens insists on going to Yale each spring to attend the spring dances there; we wonder if having two of the best-dressed co-eds is the secret of their success; Dame Rumor suggests a Chio May Queen, but we hear that the Independents are going to object to the decision.

DELTA CHI

Urged on by the need of keeping the chapter doing one thing a year, the Deltachis somehow or other managed to pledge the entire importation of Indiana football men, rumors vary so much as to the means employed that none of them can be even intimated; do have Carroll Ball on the track team and Charlie Arnold selling sandwiches; and Ball is a married man too.

The ideal sorority for any columnist; owners of the Golddust twins, Frye and Murphy; the undopeable acrobats Virginia Hatcher, Elizabeth Barbieux, and Virginia Pulliam; the housemother, Lettie Hoover, so often mistaken for one of the girls and considered one of the gang by them; it is understood they dislike the idea that Margaret Walker is the first Tri-delt band sponsor in nine years; thought to be the ring leaders in the Pink Drillie club movement; are going to miss the A. Lewis, Anna Meyers Ross, Virginia Pulliam as much as we outsiders on the campus will.

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA

Left leaderless by the graduation of Judge Finley, the Lambdachis pledged Monk Edwards and have pushed him for the replacement all year; they still have J. B. Croft as a potential threat in activity of other than feminine connections, provided that a man can be induced to make a standing; Bill Luther and Ira Evans are seniors and will be seen no more; but we can offer them hope, someone will probably arise and carry on.

PHI KAPPA TAU

Just a journalist club interested in working on The Kernel — Kingsbury, Wachs, Adams, Craddock, Shannon, Borries, are a few of them, and some day if we don't watch out they will get a Phitau editor and then there will be no keeping the Aylesford Placers in their place; the other few members of the lodge are tied up in SuKy; Are very proud of their faculty members, are trying to get Moreland for Dean of Men, voted in a body for Moreland and Walker as the two most popular profs in the Kentuckian election; have an inner organization known as Beta Sigma Beta, ask any member for qualifications.

KAPPA SIGMA

After feeling the need for expansion of the local chapter and moving from the haunts of other fraternities last year, it is still rumored that the hotel on Broadway still houses Kappasigs and no others; difficult to obtain any reliable information; who ever saw a Kappasig in town that was not celebrating his adventure and consequently in no mood to listen to talk of that nature; of course there is C. O. Wallace, coke fire artist and perpetuator of the nickname "Butch" applied indiscriminately, but we doubt if Harvey Mattingly can ever completely fill the odd-shaped hole left when his advisor graduates.

PI KAPPA ALPHA

And we hear so LITTLE about this fraternity that we nearly forgot them; understand that they are attempting to get chapters at Hamilton and Sayre so that they will have a greater voting strength for university elections; after sighing with relief at the graduation of the great leader of the people, we understand a new organizer is to be found in Jimmie Curtis (tactics the same); and yet this American Legion among the fraternities have a number of likeable boys living in their apartment house; John Ewing has had a tough spot to fill this year and has unsuc-

We nominate the following seniors for their achievements:

Russel Gray as a most competent senior president; Mary King Montgomery and Ruth Wehle for the maintenance of four years of popularity; Howard Baker, George Skinner, and Harry Emmerich for outstanding examples of athletes who are at the same time fine students and valuable men; Lois Neal and Katherine Jones for leadership in women activities; John Ewing as the outstanding man in the Ag college; Thorny Helm and George Stewart for their social activities; Larry Herron, Coleman Smith, and Marvin Wachs for their work on The Kernel; Hugh Adcock for his directorship of Strollers and the Blue and White; Ellis Johnson as the most outstanding athlete at the university; Aggie Sale as a great basketball player; Johnnie Craddock for his sympathetic portrayals along cartoon lines; Horace Miner for scholarship and active interest in fair play; Bliss Warren for her activities and leadership; Mary Jo Lafferty for publication work; Bob McGaughey and Robert Reed as outstanding Independent men; Anna Mae Lewis, Annie Meyers Ross, Katherine Smoot, and Winston Byron for their general likeableness; William Luther and Ollie Price for their well-rounded activities; Alyeene Razor for her competent but quiet unassuming ways; and so far on into the night, but there is room for no more.

The southern gentlemen of Linden Walk still pursue their lonely way. Says their president, Billy Phelps, "We're just a bunch of lazy boys and can't be bothered with these college activities that take up so much time." Must be something in it from the army of pledges obtained last semester. 'Tis said that every other student in school tried some sort of "apple-polishing" to get a bid to the Kaaye "Jan Garber" dance.

The house of indirect lighting, mainly from glowing cigarettes, and midnight fires; are rumored to have a high chair for President Shively in their chapter room; proud possessors of the famous "K. D. Whistle Rag"; are being carried along with the help of Elizabeth Jones, sponsor and beauty attendant.

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

Recognizing the need of a reformation from their studied superior ways, the Kahpas have maintained an extremely successful marriage bureau; Betty King, Catherine Daniels, Rebecca Shelby, Hilda Cooper, and Margaret McAllister each obtained her man; but then they have had the beauty queen twice in two years and Mary King Montgomery for four; would have an interesting sorority if the eds could ever find any of them at home.

TRIANGLE

Living in the same suburban center with the Delts, the engineers promote friendly feelings between the two lodges; pledge training includes the chant, sung on top the fire escape in the early morning, "Praise Allah! We are NOT Delts"; have their new leader Red Davis in the making and Free Lunch Faunce to maintain their social contacts; had a Founders day banquet that was sober; and are always toeing the mark under the watchfulness of Jack Dicker.

DELTA TAU DELTA

A group of country gentlemen living on their estate, complete within themseves with the exception of weekly visits to town on Saturday nights and the Kaydee and Alfagam house on Sundays; after two unsuccessful attempts to secure offices for Horace Miner, they decided that politics didn't pay and are temporarily unattached; still control the Kernel business office and have Jimmie Shropshire to aid in rushing; have two Sullivan medalion eligibles, Miner and Skinner, and even elected Skinner president of the chapter, though he was a football player and is planning on taking Law next year; apparently have bettered relations with their neighbors, for Triangle Russ Gray was heard to say that there were a few fine fellows in the outfit.
