GENERAL ORDERS, } HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY,
No. 46. } ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, June 28, 1887.

I...The Secretary of War having approved of the following transfers of troops, they are hereby directed; the movements to commence not later than July 25, 1887:

II...The 11th Infantry will be concentrated at Fort Abraham Lincoln, Dakota Territory, and then moved by rail to Duluth, Minnesota, and by boat to Buffalo, New York, from which point they will be moved to the stations in the Division of the Atlantic that the commanding general of that division may designate.

III...The 12th Infantry will be concentrated at Buffalo, New York, embarked immediately, and then moved by boat to Duluth, Minnesota, and by rail to Bismarck, Dakota Territory, from which point they will be moved to the stations in the Department of Dakota that the commanding general of that department may designate.

IV...The headquarters, band, and four troops of the 7th Cavalry at Fort Meade, Department of Dakota, that the colonel of the regiment may designate (accompanied by the colonel and second major) will change station by marching to Fort Riley, Department of the Missouri.

V...The headquarters, band, and the field officers of the 5th Cavalry now at Fort Riley, to such posts in the Indian Territory as the commanding general of the department may designate; two of the troops of the regiment now at Fort Riley to Fort Sill, Indian Territory, and the other two to Fort Elliott, Texas; these transfers to be made by marching.

VI...The field officers and troops of the 3d Cavalry now at Fort Sill, Indian Territory, and Fort Elliott, Texas, will be transferred by marching to the Department of Texas, and then the 8th and 3d Cavalry will exchange stations by marching within that department.

VII...As far as practicable all regimental, company, and the authorized allowance of officers' baggage will be shipped by rail or water from initial points to the new stations of the different detachments of each regiment.

VIII...The commanding generals Divisions of the Atlantic and of the Missouri will assign the regiments in their respective divisions, except where other instructions have herein been given, to their new stations as soon as practicable after receipt of this order, and arrange all further details with due regard to economy and the comfort of officers and men.

GENERAL ORDERS, } HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY,
No. 39. } ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, June 7, 1887.

By direction of the Secretary of War paragraph 786 of the Regulations is amended to read as follows:

786. In accepting recruits at rendezvous, Greenleaf's Epitome of Tripler's Manual gives the required standard of qualifications, and is also the standard for inspection after the recruits arrive at the depot; except that the following instructions will govern in examining the eye and ear:

1. No recruit shall be enlisted who cannot see well, at six hundred yards distance, a black center three feet in diameter on a white ground. The test will be made by means of cards bearing the twenty feet test-types and test-characters of Snellen, which will be supplied by the Surgeon General; the types to be used for men who can read and the characters for those who cannot read.

After arrival at the depot, the medical officer shall make further examination of the recruit with the charts, glasses, and other visual tests furnished him, with the view of determining the existence of astigmatism or other defects of vision which have not been discovered at rendezvous, and any defect which would disqualify the recruit for rifle service is cause for rejection.

2. Recruits will also be examined for color-blindness. Any defect observed will be noted on the descriptive list of the soldier, but will not of itself constitute a cause of rejection, except in the case of enlistments for the Signal Corps. The examination for this defect will be made by the method of Holmgren. Test-wools for the purpose, accompanied with printed directions for their use, will be issued to the principal recruiting depots by the Surgeon General.

3. All men enlisted for the artillery arm of the service at a military post, or assigned to that arm from a depot, shall, before such enlistment or assignment, besides undergoing the ordinary examination, be examined especially with a view to establishing the fact of the patency of the Eustachian tubes and the integrity of the tympanic membranes, in default of which the men are unfit for that arm.

Washington, July 2, 1902.

The following order has been received from the War Department and is published to the Army for the information and guidance of all concerned:

WAR DEPARTMENT, Washington, July 2, 1902.

Whereas, the act entitled "An act temporarily to provide for the administration of the affairs of civil government in the Philippine Islands and for other purposes," approved July 1, 1902, provides that the treasury of the Philippine Islands shall be a depository of public money of the United States, subject to the provisions of existing law governing such depositories in the United States: "Provided, That the treasury of the government of said islands shall not be required to deposit bonds in the Treasury of the United States, or to give other specific securities for the safe-keeping of public money except as prescribed, in his discretion, by the Secretary of War."

Now, in the exercise of such discretion, I direct that the said treasury act as depository of the public money of the United States without being required to deposit bonds in the Treasury of the United States or to give any other specific securities for the safe-keeping of public money until the further direction of the Secretary of War.

The following order from the War Department is published to the Army for the information and guidance of all concerned:

WAR DEPARTMENT, Washington, July 4, 1902.

The insurrection against the sovereign authority of the United States in the Philippine Archipelago having ended, and provincial civil governments having been established throughout the entire territory of the archipelago not inhabited by Moro tribes, under the instructions of the President to the Philippine Commission, dated April 7, 1900, now ratified and confirmed by the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, entitled "An act temporarily to provide for the administration of affairs of civil government in the Philippine Islands, and for other purposes," the general commanding the Division of the Philippines is hereby relieved from the further performance of the duties of military governor, and the office of military governor in said archipelago is terminated. The general commanding the Division of the Philippines and all military officers in authority therein will continue to observe the direction, contained in the aforesaid instructions of the President, that the military forces in the Division of the Philippines shall be at all times subject, under the orders of the military commander, to the call of the civil authorities for the maintenance of law and order and the enforcement of their authority.

By direction of the Secretary of War, the following proclamation by the President of the United States is published to the Army for the information and guidance of all concerned:

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

A proclamation.

Whereas, Many of the inhabitants of the Philippine Archipelago were in insurrection against the authority and sovereignty of the Kingdom of Spain at divers times from August, eighteen hundred and ninety-six, until the cession of the archipelago by that Kingdom to the United States of America, and since such cession many of the persons so engaged in insurrection have until recently resisted the authority and sovereignty of the United States; and

Whereas, The insurrection against the authority and sovereignty of the United States is now at an end, and peace has been established in all parts of the archipelago except in the country inhabited by the Moro tribes, to which this proclamation does not apply; and

Whereas, During the course of the insurrection against the Kingdom of Spain and against the Government of the United States, persons engaged therein, or those in sympathy with and abetting them, committed many acts in violation of the laws of civilized warfare; but it is believed that such acts were generally committed in ignorance of those laws, and under orders issued by the civil or insurrectionary leaders; and

Whereas, It is deemed to be wise and humane, in accordance with the beneficent purposes of the Government of the United States towards the Filipino people, and conducive to peace, order, and loyalty among them, that the doers of such acts who have not already suffered punishment shall not be held criminally responsible, but shall be relieved from punishment for participation in these insurrections and for unlawful acts committed during the course thereof by a general amnesty and pardon;

Now, therefore, be it known that I, THEODORE ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution, do hereby proclaim and declare without reservation or condition, except as hereinafter provided, a full and complete pardon and amnesty to all persons in the Philippine Archipelago who have participated in the insurrections aforesaid or who have given aid and comfort to persons participating in said insurrections for the offenses of treason or sedition and for all offenses political in their character committed in the course of such insurrections pursuant to orders issued by the civil or military insurrectionary authorities, or which grew out of internal political feuds or dissensions, between Filipinos and Spaniards, or the Spanish authorities, or which resulted from internal political feuds or dissensions among the Filipinos themselves during either of said insurrections;

Provided, however, that the pardon and amnesty hereby granted shall not include such persons committing crimes since May first, nineteen hundred and two, in any province of the archipelago in which at the time civil government was established, nor shall it include such persons as have been heretofore finally convicted of the crimes of murder, rape, arson or robbery, by any military or civil tribunal organized under the authority of Spain, or of the United States of America, but special application may be made to the proper authority for pardon by any person belonging to the exempted classes and such clemency as is consistent with humanity and justice will be liberally extended; and

Further provided, That this amnesty and pardon shall not effect the title or right of the Government of the United States, or that of the Philippine Islands to any property or property rights heretofore used or appropriated by the military or civil authorities of the Government of the United States, or that of the Philippine Islands, organized under authority of the United States by way of confiscation or otherwise; and Provided further, That every person who shall seek to avail himself of this proclamation shall take and subscribe the following oath before any authority in the Philippine Archipelago authorized to administer oaths, namely:

"I,, solemnly swear (or affirm) that I recognize and accept the supreme authority of the United States of America in the Philippine Islands and will maintain true faith and allegiance thereto; that I impose upon myself this obligation voluntarily without mental reservation or purpose of evasion. So help me God."

Given under my hand at the City of Washington this fourth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and two, and in the one hundred and twenty-seventh year of the Independence of the United States.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

The department and army infantry competitions, provided for in the "Firing Regulations for Small Arms, 1898," will be resumed.

The department and army cavalry competitions and the officers' competitions will not be held this year.

The department infantry competitions will be timed so as to terminate before August 7.

The army infantry competition will take place at Fort Sheridan, Illinois, commencing August 18, preceded by the usual preliminary practice, and will be under the supervision of the commanding general, Department of the Lakes, who is charged with the arrangements of all necessary details, and upon completion of the competitions will order all connected with them to return to their respective stations.

The competitors will be directed to report by their respective department commanders at Fort Sheridan not later than August 14.

So far as practicable details of officers and enlisted men for duty in connection with the competitions will be made from the garrison of the post at which the competition is held. Where it is not possible to complete the details from the post at which the competition is to take place additional details may be made from a post or posts nearest to the place of contest.

The travel herein directed is necessary for the public service.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF THE COMPTROLLER OF THE TREASURY,
Washington, July 3, 1901.

The Honorable the SECRETARY OF WAR, Washington, D. C.

SIR: I am in receipt of your communication of the 7th ult. as follows:

I have the honor to transmit herewith, together with other papers, a letter from the Chief Paymaster, Department of South Philippines, Cebu, P. I., dated April 5, last, submitting a mileage and expense account presented by Lieut. Col. J. N. Morrison, Judge Advocate, Department of South Philippines, stated at $19.82.

It appears from these papers that payment of the said account was declined under circular issued by the Paymaster's Department dated November 22, 1901, and attention is invited to the statements contained in Col. Morrison's letter addressed to you under date of March 7th last, in which he takes exception to the action of the Pay Department.

The matter is submitted to you with request for decision as to whether or not Col. Morrison can be reimbursed for expenses incurred in the sum above named? The return of the accompanying papers with your reply is also requested.

The letter of Major J. A. Watrous, Chief Paymaster, is as follows:

I have the honor to enclose herewith a Mileage and Expense account presented by Lieut. Col. J. N. Morrison, Judge Advocate, Department of South Philippines, and to request a decision on the same. I also enclose an exhaustive statement made by Col. Morrison on the same subject.

Unless the decision is made and the papers returned by the first of July of this year, I would suggest that they be sent to my address at San Francisco.

The ruling of the Paymaster General, U. S. A., under date of Nov. 22, 1901, referred to in your communication, reads:

Respectfully returned to Lieut. Col. Chas. H. Whipple, Paymaster, Manila, P. I.

The law prescribes (page 11, G. O., 26, A. G. O., 1901), mileage for land travel and actual expenses for sea travel to, from or between our island possessions. Therefore, if an officer journeys by land to the port of departure, and is delayed at the port, or at intermediate points, on land, he could receive only the mileage allowance for the actual distance traveled by land. If traveling by sea, and changing steamers at some port he is compelled to delay on shore, he is not then traveling either by sea or land and there can be no allowance while so delayed.

There is a demand of Lieut. Col. Jasper N. Morrison for the balance of actual expenses alleged to be due him for a journey performed under proper military authority during the period from Dec. 20, 1901, to Jan. 8, 1902 from Zamboanga, P. I., to Cebu, P. I. Lieut. Col. Morrison alleges that he went from Zamboanga to Manila on the U. S. transport "Relief," and from Manila to Cebu on the U. S. transport "Sumner"; that on arriving at Manila on or about Dec. 25, 1901, he went ashore to await the sailing of the "Sumner," which took place on or about Jan. 4, 1902; and that while thus waiting on shore he incurred necessary living expenses amounting to $19.82, for which he asks reimbursement, provided that it is held by the accounting officers that actual expenses, and not mileage, are legally payable for a journey of this character.

The mileage law in force at the time the journey was performed was the act of May 26, 1900 (31 Stat., 210), which provides:

For mileage to officers and contract surgeons, when authorized by law, five hundred thousand dollars; * * * And provided further, That actual expenses only shall be paid to officers for sea travel when traveling, as herein provided for, to, from, or between our island possessions: * * *

Under this law, I am of opinion that this was a journey for which actual expenses only are payable, and that Lieut. Col. Morrison's stay on land at Manila was an incident of his journey from Zamboanga to Cebu, for which he was in no way responsible, and that he is entitled to his reasonable actual expenses while ashore awaiting the sailing of the transport, the same as while actually on the transport, and moving, until he arrived at his destination. Paymaster Watrous is authorized to pay Lieut. Col. Morrison his actual expenses as claimed. All papers herewith returned.

L. P. MITCHELL,
Assistant Comptroller.

Adjutant General,
Major General, U. S. Army.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, July 19, 1884.

[Extract from the Revised Statutes of the United States, as amended by the act of Congress approved July 5, 1884.]

SEC. 1225. The President may, upon the application of any established college or university within the United States, having capacity to educate, at the same time, not less than one hundred and fifty male students, detail an officer of the Army to act as president, superintendent, or professor thereof; but the number of officers so detailed shall not exceed * * * [forty] at any time, and they shall be apportioned throughout the United States, as nearly as may be practicable, according to population. Officers so detailed shall be governed by general rules prescribed, from time to time, by the President. The Secretary of War is authorized to issue at his discretion and under proper regulations to be prescribed by him, out of any small-arms or pieces of field-artillery belonging to the Government and which can be spared for that purpose, such number of the same as may appear to be required for military instruction and practice by the students of any college or university under the provisions of this section; and the Secretary shall require a bond in each case, in double the value of the property, for the care and safe-keeping thereof, and for the return of the same when required.

I...The following regulations, in regard to the detail of officers of the Army at established colleges and universities within the United States, are prescribed by the President, under the above law:

1. Details "shall be apportioned throughout the United States as nearly as may be practicable according to population;" such States as do not contain sufficient population to entitle them to one officer will be grouped with one or more contiguous States or Territories, so that the combined population of the group will allow the detail of one or more officers, to the extent of forty officers in all.

2. As a rule, captains of companies, regimental staff officers, or officers who have served less than three years with their regiments or corps, or who have recently completed a tour of detached duty, will not be eligible. No details will be made that will leave a battery, troop, or company without two officers for duty with it. The period of detail will not be longer than three years.

3. No officer will be detailed at any institution except upon an application from its proper representatives.

4. Applications for details of officers should be addressed to the Secretary of War, and should be accompanied by a certificate as to the number of male students the college or university has the capacity to educate, and also by the last printed catalogue.

5. Officers of the Army desiring a detail at colleges or universities may make application therefor to the Adjutant General, through the

The record of the proceedings of the general court-martial in the foregoing case of Brigadier General Jacob H. Smith, U. S. Army, having been submitted to the President, the following are his orders thereon:

WHITE HOUSE, Washington, July 14, 1902.

The findings and sentence of the court are approved. I am well aware of the danger and great difficulty of the task our Army has had in the Philippine Islands and of the well-nigh intolerable provocations it has received from the cruelty, treachery, and total disregard of the rules and customs of civilized warfare on the part of its foes. I also heartily approve the employment of the sternest measures necessary to put a stop to such atrocities and to bring this war to a close. It would be culpable to show weakness in dealing with such foes or to fail to use all legitimate and honorable methods to overcome them. But the very fact that warfare is of such character as to afford infinite provocation for the commission of acts of cruelty by junior officers and the enlisted men, must make the officers in high and responsible position peculiarly careful in their bearing and conduct so as to keep a moral check over any acts of an improper character by their subordinates. Almost universally the higher officers have so borne themselves as to supply this necessary check; and with but few exceptions the officers and soldiers of the Army have shown wonderful kindness and forbearance in dealing with their foes. But there have been exceptions; there have been instances of the use of torture and of improper heartlessness in warfare on the part of individuals or small detachments. In the recent campaign ordered by General Smith, the shooting of the native bearers by the orders of Major Waller was an act which sullied the American name and can be but partly excused because of Major Waller's mental condition at the time; this mental condition being due to the fearful hardship and suffering which he had undergone in his campaign. It is impossible to tell exactly how much influence language like that used by General Smith may have had in preparing the minds of those under him for the commission of the deeds which we regret. Loose and violent talk by an officer of high rank is always likely to excite to wrongdoing those among his subordinates whose wills are weak or whose passions are strong.

General Smith has behind him a long career distinguished for gallantry and on the whole for good conduct. Taken in the full, his work has been such as to reflect credit upon the American Army and therefore upon the nation; and it is deeply to be regretted that he should have so acted in this instance as to interfere with his further usefulness in the Army. I hereby direct that he be retired from the active list.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

By direction of the President, under the provisions of section 1244, Revised Statutes, the retirement of Brigadier General Jacob H. Smith, U. S. Army, is ordered by the Secretary of War to take effect this date.

General Smith will repair to his home. The travel enjoined is necessary for the public service.

BY COMMAND OF LIEUTENANT GENERAL MILES:

H. C. CORBIN,
Adjutant General,
Major General, U. S. Army.

GENERAL ORDERS, } HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
No. 80. } Washington, July 16, 1902.

Before a general court-martial, convened at Manila, Philippine Islands, pursuant to Special Orders, No. 1, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, District of Columbia, April 21, 1902, and of which Major General LOYD WHEATON, U. S. Army, was president, and Major HARVEY C. CARBAUGH, judge advocate, U. S. Army, was judge advocate, was arraigned and tried—

Brigadier General Jacob H. Smith, U. S. Army.

CHARGE—"Conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline."

Specification—"In that Brigadier General Jacob H. Smith, U. S. Army, commanding general of the Sixth Separate Brigade, Division of the Philippines, did give instructions in regard to the conduct of hostilities in the Island of Samar, P. I., to his subordinate officer, Major L. W. T. Waller, U. S. Marine Corps, the said Waller being under his command and commanding at the time a subterritorial district in the Island of Samar, P. I., in language and words to wit: 'I want no prisoners' (meaning thereby that giving of quarter was not desired or required) and 'I wish you to kill and burn. The more you kill and burn, the better you will please me,' and 'the interior of Samar must be made a howling wilderness,' and did further give instructions to said Major Waller, that he, General Smith, wanted all persons killed who were capable of bearing arms, and did, in reply to a question by said Major Waller, asking for an age limit, designate the age limit as ten years of age. This at or near the Island of Samar, P. I., between the 28d day of October, 1901, and the 30th day of November, 1901."

To which charge and specification the accused, Brigadier General Jacob H. Smith, U. S. Army, pleaded as follows:

To the Specification, "Not guilty."

To the CHARGE, "Not guilty."

FINDING.

Of the Specification, "Guilty, except the words 'meaning thereby that giving of quarter was not desired or required,' and of the excepted words, 'not guilty'; and substituting for the words 'capable of bearing arms' the words 'capable of bearing arms and in actual hostilities against the United States,' and of the excepted words not guilty and of the substituted words, guilty."

Of the CHARGE, "Guilty."

SENTENCE.

And the court does therefore sentence him, Brigadier General Jacob H. Smith United States Army, "To be admonished by the reviewing authority." The court is thus lenient in view of the undisputed evidence that the accused did not mean everything that his unexplained language implied; that his subordinates did not gather such a meaning; and that the orders were never executed in such sense notwithstanding the fact that a desperate struggle was being conducted with a cruel and savage foe.

WAR DEPARTMENT, Washington, July 12, 1902.

To the PRESIDENT.

I transmit herewith the record and proceedings upon the trial of Brigadier General Jacob H. Smith by court-martial convened under your order dated April 21, 1902, and now brought before you as reviewing authority.

General Smith was found guilty of conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in that he gave in the fall of 1901 to Major L. W. T. Waller, of the Marine Corps, then serving with a battalion of marines under his orders as commander of the Sixth Separate Brigade in Samar, the following oral instructions:

"I want no prisoners. I wish you to kill and burn, the more you kill and burn the better you will please me;" and further that he wanted all persons killed who were capable of bearing arms and in actual hostilities against the United States; and did in reply to a question by Major Waller asking for an age limit designate the age limit as ten years of age.

The court sentenced him to be admonished by the reviewing authority, and the court appended to the sentence the following explanation:

"The court is thus lenient in view of the undisputed evidence that the accused did not mean everything that his unexplained language implied; that his subordinates did not gather such a meaning; and that the orders were never executed in such sense notwithstanding that a desperate struggle was being conducted with a cruel and savage foe."

An examination of the evidence has satisfied me that the conviction was just, and that the reasons stated for the very light sentence imposed are sustained by the facts. General Smith, in his conversation with Major Waller, was guilty of intemperate, inconsiderate, and violent expressions, which, if accepted literally, would grossly violate the humane rules governing American armies in the field, and if followed would have brought lasting disgrace upon the military service of the United States. Fortunately they were not taken literally and were not followed. No women or children or helpless persons or noncombatants or prisoners were put to death in pursuance of them.

An examination of the record and proceedings upon the trial of Major Waller, which immediately preceded that of General Smith, shows that the instructions in question bore no relation to the acts for which Major Waller was tried, and were not alleged by him as justification for those acts. Major Waller was tried for causing certain natives, who had acted as bearers or guides of one of his expeditions, to be put to death for treachery without proper trial; and he defended his action not upon the ground of any orders received from General Smith, but upon the ground that as commanding officer he was justified by the laws of war.

General Smith's written and printed orders, and the actual conduct of military operations in Samar, were justified by the history and conditions of the warfare with the cruel and treacherous savages who inhabited the island, and their entire disregard of the laws of war, were wholly within the limitations of General Orders, No. 100, of 1863, and were sustained by precedents of the highest authority. Thus, in 1779, Washington ordered General Sullivan in the campaign against the Six Nations to seek the total destruction and devastation of their settlements. He wrote, "But you will not by any means listen to overtures of peace before the total ruin of their settlement is effected." * * * Our future security will be in their inability to injure us, the distance to which they are driven, and in the terror with which the severity of the chastisement they receive will inspire them." The Fort Phil Kearney massacre in 1886, for base treachery, revolting cruelty, and the conditions of serious danger which followed it did not approach the massacre at Balangiga in Samar in September, 1901. There the natives had been treated with kindness and confidence, liberty and self-government had been given to them. Captain Connel, the American commander, was of the same faith and had been worshipping in the same church with them. With all the assurance of friendship our men were seated at their meal unarmed among an apparently peaceful and friendly community, when they were set upon from behind and butchered and their bodies when found by their comrades the next day had been mutilated and treated with indescribable indignities. Yet there was no such severity by American soldiers in Samar as General Sherman proposed towards the Sioux after Fort Phil Kearney.

It is due, however, to the good sense and self-restraint of General Smith's subordinates, and their regard for the laws of war, rather than to his own self-control and judgment, that his intemperate and unjustifiable verbal instructions were not followed, and that he is relieved from the indelible stain which would have resulted from a literal compliance with them.

It is the duty of a general officer whose age and experience have brought him to high command not to incite his subordinates to acts of lawless violence, but to so explain to them the application of the laws of war and the limitations upon their conduct as to prevent transgressions upon their part and supplement their comparative inexperience by his wise control. In this General Smith has signally failed, and for this he has been justly convicted. Although the sentence imposed is exceedingly light, it carries with it a condemnation which, for an officer of his rank and age, is really a severe punishment. For this reason, and for the further reason that General Smith has served his country long and faithfully, has exhibited high courage and good conduct in many battles, has been seriously wounded in the civil war and in the war with Spain, and is about concluding a long and honorable career as a faithful and loyal servant of his country, I recommend that the mild sentence imposed be confirmed.

Should you approve the findings and sentence of the court in accordance with this recommendation, I feel bound to say further that, in view of the findings and sentence, and of the evident infirmities which have made it possible that the facts found should exist, it is not longer for the interest of the service that General Smith should continue to exercise the command of his rank. His usefulness as an example, guide, and controlling influence for the junior officers of the Army is at an end; and as he is already upwards of 62 years of age, I recommend that you exercise the discretion vested in you by law and now retire him from active service.

ELIHU ROOT,
Secretary of War.

GENERAL ORDERS, } HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY,
No. 73. } ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, July 10, 1902.

The following act of Congress is published for the information and government of all concerned:

An Act Making appropriations for the support of the Military Academy for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and three, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following sums be, and the same are hereby, appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the support of the Military Academy for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and three:

PERMANENT ESTABLISHMENT.

For pay of seven professors, twenty-two thousand five hundred dollars;

For pay of one chaplain, two thousand dollars;

For pay of one associate professor of mathematics, two thousand dollars;

Provided, That the professors and the associate professor of the United States Military Academy shall have the actual rank in the United States Army now assigned to them by assimilation in the regulations of the Military Academy prescribed by the President of the United States, and that they shall exercise command only in the academic department of the United States Military Academy.

For pay of the master of the sword, one thousand six hundred dollars;

For pay of cadets, two hundred and thirty thousand dollars;

Provided, That hereafter the pay of cadets shall be fixed at five hundred dollars per annum and one ration per day, or commutation therefor, such commutation to be thirty cents per day, to be paid from the appropriation for the subsistence of the Army.

Provided further, That hereafter the actual and necessary traveling expenses of candidates while proceeding from their homes to the Military Academy for qualification as cadets shall, if admitted, be credited to their accounts and paid after admission from the appropriation for the transportation of the Army and its supplies: And provided further, That the number of cadets authorized to be appointed by the President from the United States at large shall not at any one time exceed forty.

* * * * *

To increase the efficiency of the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York, and to provide for the enlargement of buildings and for other necessary works of improvement in connection therewith, and to provide for an increased water supply at a cost not to exceed one hundred thousand dollars, made necessary by the increased number of cadets now authorized by law, immediately available and to remain so until expended, two million dollars: Provided, That before any part of this amount is expended, except so much as may be necessary to provide an immediate increased water supply; to install a heating and lighting plant, and to complete the improvements begun on the cadet mess building, complete plans shall be prepared and approved by the Secretary of War, covering all necessary buildings and improvements at West Point, and for each and every purpose connected therewith, which plans shall involve a total expenditure of not more than five million five hundred thousand dollars, including the sum herein appropriated: Provided further, That after the preparation and approval of the plans herein provided, the Secretary of War is authorized to enter into a contract or contracts for any part or all of the improvements herein authorized within the said limit of cost, to be paid for from the appropriations annually made for this purpose: Provided further, That no money shall be expended or obligation incurred for architects after the plans for improvements above provided for have been approved by the Secretary of War, except, that the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to employ, in his discretion, a consulting architect at a compensation not exceeding five thousand dollars per annum.

GENERAL ORDERS, } HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY,
No. 71. } ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, July 8, 1902.

By direction of the Secretary of War, the regulations published in General Orders, No. 156, August 24, 1899, from this office, to carry into effect a provision of law regarding the appointment of persons in civil life to be 2d lieutenants in the Army, having been amended by the President to read as follows, are published for the information of all concerned:

[Extract from act of Congress approved March 2, 1899.]

Vacancies in the grade of 2d lieutenant shall be filled as now provided by law, except that no person shall be appointed from civil life before he shall have reached the age of twenty-one years nor after he shall have reached the age of twenty-seven years, nor until he shall have passed a satisfactory examination as to his moral, physical, and educational qualifications.

I.—No person shall be examined unless he has a letter from the War Department authorizing his examination.

If the candidate has been graduated at an institution where he received military instruction, he must present a diploma or a recommendation from the faculty of the institution.

If a member of the National Guard, he must present recommendations from the proper National Guard authorities.

II.—Every candidate will be subjected to a rigid physical examination, and if there be found to exist any cause of disqualification which might in the future impair his efficiency as an officer of the Army he will be rejected. The board will inquire and report concerning each applicant whether he is of good moral character or addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors. Examination as to physical qualifications will conform to the standard required of recruits, and include a certificate of physical examination by two medical officers to accompany the proceedings of the board (which will embrace all the information required by the form for the examination of recruits).

III.—No candidate will be examined who is married, or under twenty-one or over twenty-seven years of age; who is not a citizen of the United States; who, in the judgment of the board, is not physically qualified to discharge all the duties of an officer in active service; who has any deformity of body or mental infirmity, or whose moral habits are bad.

IV.—The board being satisfied as to these preliminary points, will proceed to examine each candidate separately—

1. In his knowledge of English grammar, and his ability to read, write, and spell with facility and correctness.

2. In his knowledge of arithmetic and his ability to apply its rules to all practical questions; in his knowledge of the use of logarithms and ability to apply them to questions of practice; in his knowledge of algebra, to include the solution of simple equations, and in his knowledge of geometry, plane trigonometry, and the elements of surveying.

3. In his knowledge of geography, particularly in reference to the northern continent of America.

4. In his knowledge of the outlines of general history, and particularly the history of his own country.

5. In his knowledge of the Constitution of the United States and the organization of the Government under it, and the elements of international law.

6. The board, having examined into the mental qualifications of each candidate and his moral character and habits, will also inquire into his general qualifications, aptitude, and probable efficiency as an officer of the Army.

7. Physical aptitude, as determined by the medical examination, and other evidence submitted to the board.

V.—In awarding marks the board will give to each subject in the examination the relative weight given in the form following below. The general average of the candidate will be computed as follows:

Mark each question according to its relative weight, and reduce the aggregate of marks thus obtained in each subject to a scale of 100. The result will give the average of proficiency in the subject. Multiply the average in each subject by the number indicating the relative weight of the subject and divide the sum of the products by the sum of the relative weights, the quotient will be the general average. No candidate will be passed by the board who shall not have attained an average of 65 per cent in each subject of examination and a general average of at least 70 per cent.

Example.

No.	Subjects.	Averages.	Relative weights.	Products of multiplication by relative weights.
1	English grammar, etc.	83	3	249
2	Mathematics.	78	4	312
3	Geography.	80	3	240
4	History.	73	3	219
5	Constitutional and international law.	65	3	195
6	Moral character and probable efficiency.	95	3	285
7	Physique.	87	3	261
General average.			20	1,605
				80.25

VI.—When an examining board shall have passed upon more than one candidate, the order of relative merit of all the candidates examined by the board will be reported.

VII.—Boards for the examination of applicants from civil life for appointment to the position of 2d lieutenant in the Army will be appointed by the Secretary of War, and will consist of five commissioned officers, including two medical officers. The duties of the medical officers will be confined to inquiring into and reporting upon the physical qualifications of the candidates.

The proceedings of the board will be forwarded to the Adjutant General.

REGULATIONS.

1. The appropriation made by section 1661, Revised Statutes, as amended by the act of Congress received by the President February 1, 1887, will be credited to the several States and Territories on the books of the War Department in accordance with the provisions of said act.

2. The Adjutant General of the Army shall annually, on or before July 1st of each year, report to the War Department the number of regularly enlisted, organized, and uniformed active militia in each State and Territory, and this report will be the basis of the action to be taken, under the provisions of section 2 of said act, for the ensuing year.

3. Requisitions for any or all of the public property provided for in this act will be made by the governors of the several States and Territories on the War Department.

4. When a requisition is received at the War Department, the Ordnance Department and the Quartermaster's Department will be required to give the money value of the stores called for, and the War Department will determine and order which of said stores, number and character, shall be issued, and will so advise the Chief of Ordnance and Quartermaster General, and supply these bureaus with the money covering the issue.

5. All the public property issued under the provisions of this act shall be accounted for under the same regulations which now govern the accountability for public property in the Army, and the Chief of Ordnance and the Quartermaster General will furnish the governors of the several States and Territories the necessary blank forms for making the required returns of the public property issued under the provisions of said act, and said annual returns shall be made on the 31st of December of each year, and shall be sent to the War Department for examination and settlement.

6. The Chief of Ordnance and the Quartermaster General will issue the necessary instructions for the safe-keeping, preservation, and accountability of all public property issued.

7. The examination of the unserviceable or unsuitable public property provided for in section 4 of said act shall be made, at least, annually, and the proceedings of the board of officers of the militia will show in detail, opposite each article on the inspection report, in what respect the property is unserviceable or unsuitable, and will also indicate in each case the disposition recommended by the board of inspection. And in the case of any public property rendered unserviceable through causes other than the ordinary incidents of service, the board will investigate and report the causes and recommend to the Secretary of War the necessary action as to personal responsibility for the damages in each case.

WAR DEPARTMENT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, Washington, June 9, 1887.

The following act of Congress, amending section 1661, Revised Statutes, making an annual appropriation to provide arms and equipments for the militia, and the regulations which have been made by the President and the Secretary of War respecting the distribution of the arms and equipments therein provided for, are published for the information of all concerned:

WAR DEPARTMENT, Washington City, June 1, 1887.

Under section 1661, Revised Statutes, as amended by the act of February 11, 1887, governors of the several States and Territories and the senior general of the District of Columbia Militia will, after June 30, 1887, make requisitions for arms, ordnance stores, quartermaster's stores, and camp equipage direct to the Secretary of War.

Issues will be made by the Chief of Ordnance and the Quartermaster General and receipts will be made to those officials by the respective governors.

WM. C. ENDICOTT,
Secretary of War.

An act to amend section sixteen hundred and sixty-one of the Revised Statutes, making an annual appropriation to provide arms and equipments for the militia.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section sixteen hundred and sixty-one of the Revised Statutes be, and the same is hereby, amended and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

"SECTION 1. That the sum of four hundred thousand dollars is hereby annually appropriated, to be paid out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of providing arms, ordnance stores, quartermaster's stores, and camp equipage for issue to the militia.

"SEC. 2. That said appropriation shall be apportioned among the several States and Territories under the direction of the Secretary of War, according to the number of Senators and Representatives to which each State respectively is entitled in the Congress of the United States, and to the Territories and District of Columbia such proportion and under such regulations as the President may prescribe: Provided, however, That no State shall be entitled to the benefits of the appropriation apportioned to it unless the number of its regularly enlisted, organized, and uniformed active militia shall be at least one hundred men for each Senator and Representative to which such State is entitled in the Congress of the United States. And the amount of said appropriation which is thus determined not to be available shall be covered back into the Treasury.

"SEC. 3. That the purchase or manufacture of arms, ordnance stores, quartermaster's stores, and camp equipage for the militia under the provisions of this act shall be made under the direction of the Secretary of War, as such arms, ordnance and quartermaster's stores and camp equipage are now manufactured or otherwise provided for the use of the Regular Army, and they shall be receipted for and shall remain the property of the United States, and be annually accounted for by the governors of the States and Territories, for which purpose the Secretary of War shall prescribe and supply the necessary blanks and make such regulations as he may deem necessary to protect the interests of the United States.

"SEC. 4. That all arms, equipments, ordnance stores, or tents which may become unserviceable or unsuitable shall be examined by a board of officers of the militia, and its report shall be forwarded by the governor of the State or Territory direct to the Secretary of War, who shall direct what disposition, by sale or otherwise, shall be made of them; and, if sold, the proceeds of such sale shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States."

Received by the President, February 1, 1887.

[NOTE BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.—The foregoing act having been presented to the President of the United States for his approval and not having been returned by him to the house of Congress in which it originated within the time prescribed by the Constitution of the United States, has become a law without his approval.]

EXECUTIVE MANSION, April 22, 1887.

Regulations for the distribution of arms, ordnance stores, quartermaster's stores, and camp equipage to the Territories and the District of Columbia prescribed by the President of the United States in conformity with the second section of the act entitled "An act to amend section 1661 Revised Statutes making an annual appropriation to provide arms and equipments for the militia."

1. Each Territory shall, if included within the provisions of said act, annually receive arms, ordnance stores, quartermaster's stores, and camp equipage equivalent to the quota of a State having the least representation in Congress, and the District of Columbia shall annually receive arms, ordnance stores, quartermaster's stores, and camp equipage not exceeding double the quota of a State having the least representation in Congress.

2. Arms, ordnance stores, quartermaster's stores, and camp equipage shall be issued to the Territories on requisitions of the governors thereof, and to the District of Columbia on requisitions approved by the senior general of the District Militia present for duty. Returns shall be made annually by the senior general of the District Militia in the manner as required by sections 3 and 4 of the act above referred to, in the case of States and Territories.

3. It is forbidden to make issues to States and Territories in excess of the amount to their credit under the provisions of section 1161 [1661], Revised Statutes, as amended by the above act.

4. The regulations established by President Pierce, April 30, 1855, under the act approved March 30, 1855, are hereby revoked.

CIRCULAR, } HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY,
No. 5. } ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, June 10, 1887.

The following decisions, rulings, &c., have been made during the month of May, 1887, and are published to the Army for the information of all concerned:

FUEL FOR SALE TO OFFICERS.

Under the decision published in Circular, No. 2, current series, from this office, that the cheapest fuel should be purchased and supplied by the Quartermaster's Department for sale to officers, it lies within the province of the Quartermaster General to determine, after due consideration of the circumstances attending each case, what fuel should be purchased and supplied for the purpose mentioned at the various military posts.—[Decision Sec. War, letter May 17, 87—1638 A. G. O., 1887.]

FULL PAY TO OFFICER TAKING LEAVE WHILE UNDER ORDERS TO CHANGE STATION.

In case an officer avails himself of leave of absence while under orders to change station, it is held that the leave of absence merely suspends the execution of the order for change of station, and at the expiration of the leave the officer comes under the operation of said order, and, in obeying it, is entitled to full pay for the time necessary to perform the journey from his old station to his new one.—[Decision Sec. War, letter May 27, 87—2421 A. C. P., 1887.]

TRANSPORTATION OF BAGGAGE OF REGIMENTAL QUARTERMASTER SERGEANTS.

Regimental quartermaster sergeants will be allowed transportation on change of station of 500 pounds baggage.—[Decision Sec. War—3533B A. G. O., E. B., 1887.]

DETAIL OF NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICER AS TRAIN-MASTER.

Under Circular, No. 1, Adjutant General's Office, February 15, 1886, a non-commissioned officer may be detailed on extra duty as train-master (the duties being virtually those of an overseer) and receive extra-duty pay; the subsequent General Orders, No. 42, of June 28, 1886, Adjutant General's Office, does not in the least conflict with this. The approval of such detail by the Secretary of War is therefore not required.—[Decision Sec. War—4394A A. G. O., E. B., 1887.]

DETAIL OF CLERKS OR MESSENGERS AT DIVISION, DEPARTMENT, OR DISTRICT HEADQUARTERS.

No enlisted men shall be "detailed" for duty as clerks or messengers at any division, department, or district headquarters until authority for such detail shall have been obtained from the Secretary of War.—[Decision Sec. War—5130b A. G. O., E. B., 1887.]

TACTICS.

The seventh tactical decision published in Circular, No. 3, current series, from this office, is modified as follows:

To re-form the line after advance by right of wings: At the command "Left front into line," markers should be established for both wings and the guides should come out. The markers established by the field officer of the directing wing give the line of direction for the markers of the other wing.—[2596 A. G. O., 1887.]

Company in line at halt, arms at "carry," command "Right (or left) oblique, double time." The half face is executed at the command "Right (or left) oblique;" the arms are brought to a "right shoulder" at the command "Double time."—[2699 A. G. O., 1887.]

To form column of platoons to the right or left (paragraph 255): The guides on the marching flanks of platoons do not come to a "carry" at the first command.—[2699 A. G. O., 1887.]

On the parade for review of a brigade or battalion, or other body of troops less than a brigade, the commanding officer, when presenting his command to the reviewing officer, will have his sword drawn, and all officers of the command on parade will likewise have their swords drawn. The swords will remain drawn throughout the review, and will not be sheathed until the parade is dismissed. The commanding officer of the troops to remain at attention in front of his command, facing to the front while the reviewing party passes around the lines. For the review of a body of troops greater than a single brigade, it should be left to the general commanding to arrange all details so as to conform to the existing situation.—[Decision Lieut. Gen.—6780 A. G. O., 1886.]

At the review of a brigade each battalion is brought to a "carry" when the head of the battalion is fifty yards from the "post of review." The point where the battalions of a brigade are brought to a "carry" is indicated by a camp color. At the review of a single battalion the arms are at a "carry" all the time during the march past.—[2594 A. G. O., 1887.]

GENERAL ORDERS, }	HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY,
No. 74. }	ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
	Washington, July 19, 1884.

[Extract from the Revised Statutes of the United States, as amended by the act of Congress approved July 5, 1884.]

SEC. 1225. The President may, upon the application of any established college or university within the United States, having capacity to educate, at the same time, not less than one hundred and fifty male students, detail an officer of the Army to act as president, superintendent, or professor thereof; but the number of officers so detailed shall not exceed * * * [forty] at any time, and they shall be apportioned throughout the United States, as nearly as may be practicable, according to population. Officers so detailed shall be governed by general rules prescribed, from time to time, by the President. The Secretary of War is authorized to issue at his discretion and under proper regulations to be prescribed by him, out of any small-arms or pieces of field-artillery belonging to the Government and which can be spared for that purpose, such number of the same as may appear to be required for military instruction and practice by the students of any college or university under the provisions of this section; and the Secretary shall require a bond in each case, in double the value of the property, for the care and safe-keeping thereof, and for the return of the same when required.

I...The following regulations, in regard to the detail of officers of the Army at established colleges and universities within the United States, are prescribed by the President, under the above law:

1. Details "shall be apportioned throughout the United States as nearly as may be practicable according to population;" such States as do not contain sufficient population to entitle them to one officer will be grouped with one or more contiguous States or Territories, so that the combined population of the group will allow the detail of one or more officers, to the extent of forty officers in all.

2. As a rule, captains of companies, regimental staff officers, or officers who have served less than three years with their regiments or corps, or who have recently completed a tour of detached duty, will not be eligible. No details will be made that will leave a battery, troop, or company without two officers for duty with it. The period of detail will not be longer than three years.

3. No officer will be detailed at any institution except upon an application from its proper representatives.

4. Applications for details of officers should be addressed to the Secretary of War, and should be accompanied by a certificate as to the number of male students the college or university has the capacity to educate, and also by the last printed catalogue.

5. Officers of the Army desiring a detail at colleges or universities may make application therefor to the Adjutant General, through the usual military channels, and their names will, if the officers are available, be furnished to such institutions as may desire such details.

II...The following are the regulations prescribed by the Secretary of War for the issue of arms, &c., required for military instruction and practice at colleges and universities, under section 1225, Revised Statutes:

1. The number of pieces of field artillery, with necessary implements, and of small-arms and accouterments, which may be issued for the purpose of military instruction to each selected college and university having an officer of the Army stationed thereat, is limited to the following, viz:

2 3-inch rifled guns, wrought-iron, model 1861, at $450..	$900 00
2 carriages and limbers, 3-inch gun, at $325.....	650 00
2 gunner's haversacks, at $3.35.....	6 70
2 handspikes, trail, at $1.....	2 00
4 lanyards, at 10 cents.....	40
2 priming-wires, at 10 cents.....	20
4 sponges and rammers, 3-inch, at $1.....	4 00
4 sponge-covers, 3-inch, at 30 cents.....	1 20
2 tube-pouches, at $1.50.....	3 00
4 thumbstalls, at 20 cents.....	80
2 tompions, 3-inch, at 30 cents.....	60
2 vent-covers, at 40 cents.....	80
1 pendulum hausse, 3-inch.....	2 50
1 pendulum hausse seat.....	60
1 pendulum hausse pouch.....	75
2 paulins, 12 by 15 feet, at $11.75.....	23 50
150 Springfield "cadet" rifles, cal. .45, with appendages, &c., at $18.....	2,700 00
150 bayonet-scabbards, steel, cadet, at 91 cents.....	136 50
150 waist belts and plates, at 50 cents.....	75 00
150 cartridge-boxes, cal. .45, at $1.25.....	187 50

2. Issue of the above stores will be made by the Chief of Ordnance to any selected institution upon its filing a bond in the penal sum of double the value of the property, conditioned that it will take good care of and safely keep and account for the same, and will, when required by the Secretary of War, duly return the same, within thirty days, in good order, to the Chief of Ordnance United States

Army, or such officer or person as the Secretary of War may designate to receive it.

3. To conform to the requirements of the law, the terms "college" and "university" herein used are held to relate to "State institutions, incorporated or public," and not to "mere schools, private or municipal."

4. The following is the blank form of bond to be executed previous to the issue of ordnance and ordnance stores, viz:

Form of bond.

Know all men by these presents, that we [name of the college or university, if an incorporated institution; if not, the name of a person described as president or other officer of the college or university, naming it. In case nobody should be legally empowered to bind the college, &c., by a bond, the obligors may be any person or persons who may be willing to answer for the performance of the obligation by the college, and who will then execute as principals, without any further sureties], as principal, and ————, of ————, and ————, of ————, as sureties, are held and bound to the United States of America in the penal sum of [double the value of articles], for the payment of which, well and truly to be made to the Secretary of War, or to such officer or person as he may designate, we do bind ourselves and each of us, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Given under our hands and seals at [place of execution] this ——— day of ———, A. D. 18—.

The condition of this obligation is such, that whereas the [name of "college" or "university"] is an established [college or university] within the United States, having capacity to educate at the same time not less than one hundred and fifty male students; and whereas the said [college or university] has heretofore applied to the President of the United States to detail an officer of the Army to act as [president, superintendent, or professor] thereof, and the President, by virtue of the authority vested in him by section 1225, Revised Statutes, has detailed such an officer to so act accordingly; and whereas the Secretary of War, by the authority vested in him by said section, is about to issue to the said [college or university], for the military instruction and practice of the students thereof, the following [small-arms and (or) pieces of field artillery], to wit [naming and describing the articles in detail, adding value of each where practicable], being together of the value of [the total value]; all of which property, when issued, the said [college or university] hereby agrees to account for quarterly on blank forms to be prescribed by the Chief of Ordnance, and to return all of said property to the Chief of Ordnance, or such officer or person as may be designated to receive the same, within thirty days after demand by the Secretary of War:

Now, therefore, if the said [college or university] shall take good care of and safely keep and account for the said [small-arms and (or) pieces of field artillery], and shall, when required by the Secretary of War, duly return the same within thirty days in good order to the Chief of Ordnance United States Army, or such officer or person as the Secretary of War may designate to receive them, then this obligation shall become inoperative and void; otherwise, shall be and remain in full force and virtue.

5. For practice-firing, the following allowances of ammunition will be made annually to each of the various institutions, viz :

- 1,000 carbine metallic ball-cartridges, cal. .45.
- 1,000 metallic blank cartridges, cal. .45.
- 100 rounds blank cartridges for 3-inch gun.
- 300 friction primers.

This ammunition will be issued upon requisitions to be forwarded to the Chief of Ordnance by the presidents or superintendents of the institutions ; and as annual allowances date in all cases from July 1st of each year, requisitions should be forwarded before or as soon after that date as practicable for the prospective year's supply. Undrawn allowances of one year cannot be drawn in the succeeding year.

6. Regular property returns will be rendered quarterly to the Chief of Ordnance by each president or superintendent of an institution supplied with arms, &c., accounting for all ordnance and ordnance stores issued to the institution under his charge. These returns will be made on the blank forms to be supplied by the Chief of Ordnance.

7. Whenever any institution shall fail to return the public property in its charge within thirty days after demand made by the Secretary of War, the delinquency will be promptly referred to the Attorney General, that the bond of the institution may forthwith be put in suit.

8. All expense of repairs of stores are to be borne by the institution using the same, the Ordnance Department supplying spare parts for repairs at cost price.

III...The act of Congress approved May 4, 1880, relating to the detail of retired officers at colleges, provides :

That upon the application of any college, university, or institution of learning incorporated under the laws of any State within the United States, having capacity at the same time to educate not less than one hundred and fifty male students, the President may detail an officer of the Army on the retired list to act as president, superintendent, or professor thereof; and such officer may receive from the institution to which he may be detailed the difference between his retired and full pay, and shall not receive any additional pay or allowance from the United States.

The details authorized by this act will be in addition to the forty allowed by section 1225, Revised Statutes, as amended by the act of

Congress approved July 5, 1884, and may be made to institutions of learning of the requisite grade in any State, without reference to population or to the number of officers already serving therein.

[Circular.]

Addenda to the Epitome of Tripler's Manual.

The attention of recruiting officers is called to the following, in connection with paragraphs 1, 2, and 3, page 10, Epitome of Tripler's Manual, as important conditions to be considered in determining the maturity as well as the majority of applicants for enlistment:

1. Observe the proportions of age, height, weight, &c., as given further on.

2. At twenty-one years of age the wisdom-teeth are usually cut, and on each side of both jaws there should be found five grinders, viz., three large double or molar teeth and two smaller double or bicuspid teeth. In case of the loss of teeth the spaces originally occupied by them may be seen.

Under twenty-one years of age the wisdom-teeth are seldom to be found, and there will, therefore, be but four grinders on each side of both jaws, viz., two molars and two bicuspids.

3. At maturity there should be some beard upon the face and hair under the arms, a full growth around and above the genital organs, and some scattered hairs in the neighborhood of the anus. The hair of the body is generally fine and silky.

After maturity the hair is thick and coarse in the various places mentioned.

4. After maturity the skin of the scrotum is somewhat darker in color than the surrounding parts, is opaque, and is marked in various directions by wrinkles or folds.

Before maturity this skin retains the soft, velvety condition of youth, its pink or fresh flesh color, and is more or less translucent, while the wrinkles or folds are not well pronounced, or entirely absent, particularly at the sides. This condition of the scrotum is the most valuable of the signs of maturity.

The following alterations and additions are made in paragraphs 4, 5, and 6 of the same page (10); in the section, on page 14, headed "The chest should be ample;" and in the section, on page 26, headed "The ears:"

Page 10, paragraph 4. After "five feet ten inches" add "that for infantry and artillery is governed by the maximum of weight, to which should be applied the rule for proportion in height."

Paragraph 5. Strike out the whole paragraph and substitute the following: "The minimum weight for all recruits is 128 pounds; the maximum for infantry and artillery is 190 pounds; for cavalry and light artillery, 165 pounds."

Paragraph 6. Add at end of paragraph:

These standards are based upon results obtained by skilled observers who, after careful study and the examination of large numbers of men in civil and military life, have established the fact that there is an average proportion in healthy, fully developed men, between the height, weight, chest measurement, and chest mobility, which will admit of slight variations without indicating a departure from health. The rules of this proportion may be formulated as follows:

For each inch of height from 5 feet 4 inches to 5 feet 7 inches, inclusive, there should be calculated 2 pounds of weight; there should be a minimum "chest measurement" of 34 inches, and a minimum "chest mobility" of 2 inches.

It must be clearly understood that by "chest measurement" is meant the mean of the measures of chest circumference during expiration and inspiration.

When the height exceeds 5 feet 7 inches, calculate 2 pounds of weight for the whole number of inches of height; add to this product 5 pounds of weight for each inch of difference between 5 feet 7 inches and the actual height; the sum will be the normal weight in pounds.

For each inch of height above 5 feet 7 inches one-half an inch should be added to the minimum "chest measurement;" the minimum "chest mobility" should be $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches.

The following table shows this concisely:

Height.	Allow for each inch of height.	Minimum chest measurement.	Minimum chest mobility.
5 ft. 4 to 5 ft. 7	2 lbs	34 inches	2 inches.
5 ft. 7 to —	2 lbs., and 5 lbs. additional for each inch over 5 ft. 7 in.	34 inches, and add $\frac{1}{2}$ inch for each inch over 5 ft. 7 in.	$2\frac{1}{2}$ inches.

For example: A man who measures 5 feet 4 inches should weigh 128 pounds, i. e., 5 feet 4 inches=64 inches; $64 \times 2=128$, the normal weight; he should have a "chest measurement" of 34 inches, i. e., circumferential measures at inspiration and expiration being, respectively, 35 and 33 inches, the mean would be 34 inches: $35 + 33 = 68 : 68 \div 2 = 34$, the mean; the chest mobility is 2 inches.

A man who measures 5 feet 9 inches should weigh 148 pounds, i. e., 5 feet 9 inches = 69 inches: $69 \times 2 = 138$: difference between 5 feet 9 inches and 5 feet 7 inches is 2: $2 \times 5 = 10$: $138 + 10 = 148$, the normal weight in pounds; he should have a chest measurement of 35 inches and a chest mobility of at least $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches.

It is not necessary that the applicant should conform exactly to the weights indicated in the rules, a variation of a few pounds from either side of the standard being permissible in the minimum, medium, and maximum weights, if the applicant is otherwise in good health and desirable as a recruit. The rules are given in order to show what is regarded as a fair proportion; but the minimum weight must be at least 125 pounds, except when less is especially authorized by the superintendent.

In such cases the recruiting officer's reasons, and the superintendent's order, should be noted in full on the enlistment papers. Any considerable disproportion, however, of height over weight is cause for rejection. For a marked disproportion of weight over height do not reject, unless the applicant is positively obese.

In order that an intelligent application of these rules and their variations may be made, the attention of recruiting officers is called to the manner in which a man's height is made up.

The chest, containing the heart and lungs, is the most important division of the body. It contains the vital machinery and represents the staying power of the man; it must, therefore, be ample. The function of the legs is to transport the body; they should be well formed and sufficient, but not unduly long, for length of limb at the expense of the chest is a disadvantage. A long-legged, long-necked man, with a short chest, is objectionable as a recruit.

The average height of a youth of 18 years of age, a "growing lad," is a little over 5 feet 4 inches, and increases gradually until he reaches the age of 25 years—the stage of physical maturity or manhood—when his average height is between 5 feet 7 inches and 5 feet 8 inches.

During the growing period the frame-work and vital organs receive their proper development, and considerable departures from the given average of proportionate height to weight indicate an impairment of these organs which may, and probably will, develop into positive disease after exposure to the hardships incident to the life of a soldier ; hence they are of greater significance in men of these heights than in taller men, who are, presumably, of greater age and more mature growth.

After 25 years of age, the body being fully developed, the excess of nutritive material over and above that required for its maintenance in health is deposited in the tissues as fat, and it will be found that a disproportion of weight over height occurs usually in adults, or men in middle life. It is rare to meet, in the recruiting rendezvous, with very fleshy young men.

The following table is given for convenience of reference :

Table of physical proportions for height, weight, and chest measurement.

the fifteenth is the fact that the at inspiration should be read from the tape. He is then to expel the air from his chest, by counting slowly and steadily from one onward, until he can no longer resist the urgent demand for inspiration, when the record of chest circumference at expiration should be read. This should be repeated several times to insure accuracy.

A man whose chest measures less than 32 inches in circumference at expiration should be rejected.

On page 26, strike out the paragraphs following "Deafness of either ear constitutes an absolute cause of rejection," and substitute:

As the distance at which the natural tone of voice may be heard in a closed room, when both ears are normal, is about 50 feet, the distance at which the applicant is to stand from the examiner must be as great as the apartments will allow, not to exceed 50 feet.

The applicant will stand with his back to the examiner, who is to address him in a natural tone of voice. When the distance is less than 40 feet, it should be specified on the examination form, and the tone of voice will be lowered. Failure of the applicant to respond to the address of the examiner will demonstrate a defect.

The personal attention of the recruiting officer or sergeant must be given to closing the entrance to each ear separately, by pressing with the thumb the small lobe (tragus) situated in front of the opening to the inner ear.

Advantage should be taken of the absence of other sounds to make the examination. Recruiting officers should remember that a man may be totally deaf in one ear, and yet may hear all ordinary conversation perfectly if the sound ear is not completely stopped. Deafness of one ear is a bar to enlistment, but in ordinary occupations it might not be observed.

Deafness may be caused by an accumulation of hardened wax, therefore an otherwise desirable recruit should have his ears well cleansed before final action is taken in his case.

The test established by General Orders, No. 82, of August 13, 1879, from this office, for determining normal acuteness of vision in applicants for enlistment, having been found to admit men unable to qualify as marksmen by reason of defective eye-sight, has been discontinued, and the following rules will govern the examination of recruits in this particular and take the place of the directions contained in the paragraphs headed "The eyes," on pages 27 and 28 of the Epitome, which follow the word "bloodshot," page 27:

Myopia (near-sightedness).

Hypermetropia (over-sightedness), except when moderate and free from organic disease.

Astigmatism.

Inability to read or describe WITH FACILITY the types or characters on the test-cards. This examination requires the greatest care and patience on the part of the recruiting officer; it is made with cards bearing the twenty feet test-types and test-characters.

To use the cards, measure off a distance of twenty feet in a straight line; place the applicant with his back to the light at one end of the line, while the examiner stands at the other and holds the card exhibiting the test types or characters in full view of the applicant and so that a good light falls on the card. Each eye should be examined separately, one being covered with a card (not with the hand) by an assistant who, standing behind the applicant, directs him to read the types on the card held by the examiner; if he cannot read, the card bearing the characters is presented to him, which he is directed to describe. The types should be read first from left to right and then from right to left; the characters should be described as to the number of arms seen on each and the direction in which they are pointed, whether upward or downward, to the right or left.

If the applicant should be unable to read the test-types or describe the test-characters correctly with either eye, he must be rejected.

BY COMMAND OF LIEUTENANT GENERAL SHERIDAN:

R. C. DRUM,

Adjutant General.

GENERAL ORDERS, } HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY,
No. 62. } ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, July 1, 1902.

I.—By direction of the Secretary of War, the target year for all arms of the service will commence July 1, and terminate June 30.

II.—In compliance with paragraphs 413 and 418, Army Regulations, the annual allowance of ammunition for the instruction of companies of coast artillery, batteries of field artillery, and cavalry, infantry, and engineer troops, and the charges for blank firing, are until further orders fixed by the Secretary of War as follows:

Seacoast artillery table of annual allowance of ammunition for target practice and instruction per company per annum.

Class.	Guns.	Full service charges.		Practice charges.		Subcaliber.		Additional primers for drill.
		Br. pris.	Smokeless.	Br. pris.	Smokeless.	1-pounder rounds.	0.30-caliber rounds.

		---	---	---	---	---	---	Electric obturating 100
		---	---	---	---	---	---	Friction common radial 100

All projectiles will be full service weight and form.

All subcaliber ammunition will be fixed ammunition.

* This charge to be fired for information rather than for practice; to be carefully observed, but not necessarily fired at a target.

† Hexagonal or sphero-hexagonal powder.

1. The Commandants of the Artillery School at Fort Monroe, Va., and the School of Submarine Defense at Fort Totten, N. Y., are authorized to expend ammunition at such times and in such quantities as they may deem necessary for the purposes of the schools, provided the ammunition so expended is not in excess of 50 per cent of the amount allowed the respective posts where the schools are located.

2. The reserve supply of ammunition to be kept on hand at posts will be as follows:

Ten rounds per gun for 8-inch, 10-inch, and 12-inch B. L. rifles and 12-inch B. L. mortars.

One hundred rounds per gun for 4-inch, 4.7-inch, 5-inch, and 6-inch R. F. guns.

Two hundred rounds per gun for 6 and 15 pounder R. F. guns.

This ammunition will be required for only at posts where suitable magazines or other proper storage places are provided.

3. Owing to the deterioration of brown powders in store, it is necessary to use the supply on hand as soon as possible. For this reason service charges of this powder are still prescribed for target practice, as also for the reason that powder of this class is not well adapted for use with reduced charges. When the supply of this powder for any caliber is exhausted, it will be replaced by smokeless powder.

4. Service and practice charges of the necessary weight to give the initial velocities required by the range tables for the various seacoast guns will be issued by the Ordnance Department, ready for immediate use, except for 12-inch B. L. mortars, for which charges will be issued corresponding to velocities given in table on page 7 of this order. If it should be found necessary to increase or reduce the weight of any of the charges as issued, the instructions given in the pamphlet, "Instructions for Regulating Powder Charges of Coast Artillery in Target Practice," issued by the Ordnance Department, will be followed.

5. The assignment of companies of coast artillery to the different caliber guns and mortars for target practice for the next target year will be reported to the Chief of Ordnance as soon as possible after the close of the present target year, to insure the preparation of the necessary estimates.

6. The practice charge of smokeless powder with the service projectile gives the same energy of recoil with the 8 and 10 inch rifles as the Parrott projectile with its practice charge; hence the instructions contained in G. O., No. 80, A. G. O., June 12, 1901, with reference to recoil cylinders and counterweights, are applicable.

7. After the expenditure of ammunition in target practice with rapid-fire guns using metallic cartridge cases, the empty cases will be taken up on the property returns of post as "Empty metallic cartridge cases," under the heading provided for that purpose. Immediately after firing, the cases will be decapped, well cleaned by washing inside and out, and dried, prior to storage. These cases are to be turned in to Frankford Arsenal to be reloaded.

8. An adapter or bushing, made to permit the use of the common friction primer with any caliber of the modern sea-coast guns, Ordnance Department pattern, for drill purposes and subcaliber practice, has been devised, and will be furnished by the Ordnance Department upon application.

9. All obturating electric and friction primer cases should be cleaned immediately after firing and turned in to the post ordnance officer for shipment to Frankford Arsenal, as provided for 0.30-caliber shells.

MACHINE GUNS, MOUNTAIN, FIELD, AND SIEGE ARTILLERY.

III.—For each battery of mountain, field, and siege artillery and for machine guns, the allowance of ammunition per annum will be as follows:

Table of annual allowance of ammunition, for target practice and instruction for batteries of mountain, field, and siege artillery, and for machine guns.

Gun.	Service projectiles and charges.			Subcaliber ammunition, caliber 0.30, rounds per gun.	Blank cartridges per gun.	Additional primers (friction) per gun for drill.	Additional percussion primers for drill.

7-inch B. L. howitzer	50	40	10	1,000	35	200
Machine and automatic guns	2,000

* Allowance of shrapnel to be furnished only when it can be used with safety, otherwise shell will be used exclusively.
† With 28-second fuses.
‡ Old models of these guns use obturating (screw) friction primers.

1. Each battery of field artillery will be allowed such charges and primers as may be necessary for firing authorized salutes. These will be made a separate item of expenditure.

IV. An addition of 50 per cent to the allowance given in the tables will be made for each company of coast artillery and each battery of field artillery which may have been, from any cause, deprived of target practice in the preceding year, but no additional allowance beyond the 50 per cent will be made in case the period during which the battery may have been deprived of target practice shall exceed one year.

BLANK CHARGES.

V.—For instruction, salutes, and for morning and evening gun, the following will be the charges:

Gun.	Charge.
6-pounder (2.24-inch) rapid-fire gun -----	2 pounds saluting powder.
2.95-inch Vickers-Maxim mountain gun -----	1 $\frac{1}{8}$ pounds saluting powder.
15-pounder (3-inch) rapid-fire gun -----	2 pounds saluting powder.
3-inch Hotchkiss mountain gun -----	1 $\frac{1}{8}$ pounds saluting powder.
3-inch rifle (M. L.) -----	1 pound mortar or saluting powder.
3.2-inch B. L. rifle -----	2 $\frac{1}{2}$ pounds I. K. powder or 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ pounds saluting powder.
3.6-inch B. L. rifle -----	2 pounds saluting powder.
6-pounder (3.67-inch) bronze -----	1 pound mortar or saluting powder.
4-inch rapid-fire gun -----	4 pounds saluting powder.
4 $\frac{1}{2}$ -inch siege rifle -----	3 $\frac{1}{2}$ pounds cannon powder or 2 pounds saluting powder.
Light 12-pounder (4.62-inch) bronze -----	13 $\frac{1}{4}$ pounds mortar or saluting powder.
4.72-inch rapid-fire gun, Armstrong -----	5 pounds saluting powder.
5-inch siege rifle -----	3 pounds I. K. or saluting powder.
5-inch rapid-fire gun (Ord. Dept.) -----	5 pounds saluting powder.
6-inch rapid-fire gun Armstrong -----	5 pounds saluting powder.
6-inch rapid-fire gun (Ord. Dept.) -----	8 pounds saluting powder.
7-inch siege howitzer -----	3 pounds I. K. or saluting powder.
8-inch converted rifle -----	7 pounds saluting powder.
8-inch smooth-bore gun -----	7 pounds saluting powder.
10-inch smooth-bore gun -----	10 pounds saluting powder.

Smokeless powder will not be used in blank charges.

1. Salutes with cannon will be fired under the charge of a commissioned officer, who shall be present at the firing and direct it.

2. Guns using metallic case ammunition will be employed whenever practicable in firing salutes; in their absence breech-loading guns should preferably be used. Muzzle-loaders will be used only when breech loaders are not available. When using muzzle-loading guns a sufficient number should be employed, if practicable, to avoid the necessity of firing the same gun a second time.

1. Each battery of field artillery will be allowed such charges and primers as may be necessary for firing authorized salutes. These will be made a separate item of expenditure.

IV. An addition of 50 per cent to the allowance given in the tables will be made for each company of coast artillery and each battery of field artillery which may have been, from any cause, deprived of target practice in the preceding year, but no additional allowance beyond the 50 per cent will be made in case the period during which the battery may have been deprived of target practice shall exceed one year.

BLANK CHARGES.

V.—For instruction, salutes, and for morning and evening gun, the following will be the charges:

Gun.	Charge.
6-pounder (2.24-inch) rapid-fire gun-----	2 pounds saluting powder.
2.95-inch Vickers-Maxim mountain gun-----	1 $\frac{1}{8}$ pounds saluting powder.
15-pounder (3-inch) rapid-fire gun-----	2 pounds saluting powder.
3-inch Hotchkiss mountain gun-----	1 $\frac{1}{8}$ pounds saluting powder.
3-inch rifle (M. L.)-----	1 pound mortar or saluting powder.
3.2-inch B. L. rifle-----	2 $\frac{1}{2}$ pounds I. K. powder or 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ pounds saluting powder.
3.6-inch B. L. rifle-----	2 pounds saluting powder.
6-pounder (3.67-inch) bronze-----	1 pound mortar or saluting powder.
4-inch rapid-fire gun-----	4 pounds saluting powder.
4 $\frac{1}{2}$ -inch siege rifle-----	3 $\frac{1}{2}$ pounds cannon powder or 2 pounds saluting powder.
Light 12-pounder (4.62-inch) bronze-----	1 $\frac{3}{4}$ pounds mortar or saluting powder.
4.72-inch rapid-fire gun, Armstrong-----	5 pounds saluting powder.
5-inch siege rifle-----	3 pounds I. K. or saluting powder.
5-inch rapid-fire gun (Ord. Dept.)-----	5 pounds saluting powder.
6-inch rapid-fire gun Armstrong-----	5 pounds saluting powder.
6-inch rapid-fire gun (Ord. Dept.)-----	8 pounds saluting powder.
7-inch siege howitzer-----	3 pounds I. K. or saluting powder.
8-inch converted rifle-----	7 pounds saluting powder.
8-inch smooth-bore gun-----	7 pounds saluting powder.
10-inch smooth-bore gun-----	10 pounds saluting powder.

Smokeless powder will not be used in blank charges.

1. Salutes with cannon will be fired under the charge of a commissioned officer, who shall be present at the firing and direct it.

2. Guns using metallic case ammunition will be employed whenever practicable in firing salutes; in their absence breech-loading guns should preferably be used. Muzzle-loaders will be used only when breech loaders are not available. When using muzzle-loading guns a sufficient number should be employed, if practicable, to avoid the necessity of firing the same gun a second time.

NOTE.—The weight of powder charges are average weights; charges vary with different lots of powder.

* Ounces.

3. For breech-loading guns with separate loading, or for muzzle-loading guns, cartridge bags for saluting purposes will be made of silk. The cartridges for muzzle-loading guns will be made to measure in length at least one and one-half times the diameter. Care will be taken that the sponges are not worn, and that they thoroughly fill the chamber or bore of the gun, and when the same gun is fired more than once, the intervals between discharges will be sufficient to allow the chamber or bore to be thoroughly sponged and examined. Unless all of these conditions be fulfilled, salutes will not be fired with these classes of guns.

4. Metallic ammunition saluting charges will be assembled at the posts. For this purpose there are issued saluting charges in bags, felt wads, primers, adapters, etc. In assembling, the case is first properly primed, and the bag containing the saluting charge is then placed in the case and the felt wad inserted and pressed down against the bag to hold it in place against the primer.

VI.—The average powder charges, velocities, and pressures for rapid-fire, mountain, field, siege, and seacoast guns are shown in Tables A and B.

VII.—The charges, kinds of powder and corresponding velocities for the 800-pound projectile in the 12-inch B. L. mortars are as follows:

*In addition to regular allowance.

1. The necessary ammunition for the authorized department competitions will be furnished by the Ordnance Department in addition to the regular allowances.

2. If it is desirable to fire caliber 0.30 rifle or carbine ammunition, ball or blank, in lieu of revolver ball or blank ammunition, or vice versa, such exchange may be made on the following basis:

1,000 rounds of rifle or carbine ball, caliber 0.30, for every 3,000 revolver ball, caliber 0.38.

445 rounds of rifle or carbine blank, caliber 0.30, for every 1,000 revolver blank, caliber 0.38.

3. Caliber 0.30 service ammunition will not be reloaded at posts, and reloading tools for this purpose are not issued to the service.

4. Each company or troop will be given, in addition to the allowance in table, 110 rounds of caliber 0.30 rifle or carbine ball cartridges for each 1,000 empty shells caliber 0.30, and 115 rounds of caliber 0.38 revolver ball cartridges for each 1,000 empty shells caliber 0.38, turned in.

5. All empty shells will be promptly turned in to the acting ordnance officer of the nearest post immediately upon completion of target practice, first carrying out the following instructions as to the treatment of the shells:

As soon as practicable after firing, decap the shells and throw them into water. The cleaning will be much facilitated if the shells can be thrown into water immediately after firing. Then clean the inside thoroughly with a brush wiper or piece of rag on the end of a wiping stick; dry and place loosely in empty ammunition boxes.

6. The acting ordnance officer of the post will, upon the accumulation of convenient lots of such shells, pack them in ammunition boxes and ship to the commanding officer, Frankford Arsenal, in time to reach that arsenal before the close of the third quarter of the fiscal year, if possible; at which time report will be made to the Chief of Ordnance from the arsenal of the number of shells to be credited to each company or troop. Upon receipt of this report the company or troop commander will be notified of the additional allowance of ammunition due him, which allowance will be available for the next target year.

The post ordnance officer will notify the commanding officer Frankford Arsenal, at the time of shipment, of the name of company or troop turning in shells, and this name will be clearly marked on the inside of the lid of the ammunition box containing the shells.

7. The dropping from returns of any ball or blank ammunition, until the same has been actually expended, is prohibited.

GALLERY PRACTICE.

IX.—Special caliber 0.30 shells and reloading materials are issued upon requisition for gallery practice. These shells will bear about 100 firings without resizing. After firing 100 times they may be sent in lots to the Frankford Arsenal for inspection and resizing, and will then, if serviceable, be returned to the commanding officers of the companies or troops.

1. Reloading tools for gallery practice ammunition are issued, one set to a company or troop. The set of reloading tools comprises the following articles:

- (a) Priming tool without spindles.
- (b) Primer extracting spindle with 5 extra pins.
- (c) Primer inserting spindle.
- (d) Charger, hand reloading (capacity 5 grains black powder).
- (e) Loading anvil.
- (f) Loading die.
- (g) Loading punch.
- (h) Ball mold (5 balls).
- (i) Melting ladle (for lead alloy or lubricant).
- (j) Pouring ladle (for filling ball mold).
- (k) Strainer (for lubricating balls by dipping in melted Japan wax).
- (l) Brush wiper.
- (m) Brass wiping rod (cleaning fired cases, dies, etc.).
- (n) Brass mouthpiece or funnel (for use with brush wiper and charger).

Tools (b), (l), (m), and (n) constitute, when necessary, a separate set for decapping and cleaning service caliber 0.30 fired cases before turning them into Frankford Arsenal. If necessary, the case can be decapped by inserting the spindle in it and striking the butt of the latter on a bench or block, but when the priming tool is available the decapping is done with it and the spindle.

2. The annual allowance per company or troop of caliber 0.30 reloading ammunition will be sufficient to load 10,000 rounds of ammunition for gallery practice, as follows:

- 1,000 gallery cartridge cases, unprimed.
- 10,000 cartridge primers.
- 10,000 round balls, lubricated.
- 7½ pounds small-arms powder.

X.—Shotguns will be issued only to troops stationed west of the Mississippi River, for hunting purposes. The annual allowance of ammunition will be 500 loaded cartridges per company or troop.

XI.—For use in guarding prisons, the Springfield carbine, caliber 0.45, with the necessary supply of multi-ball cartridges will be issued upon requisition.

XII.—The allowance of ammunition for all target practice under this order will commence July 1, 1902, and will be for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, instead of continuing through the calendar year as now provided.

XIII.—All orders or circulars heretofore issued relative to allowance of ammunition, or information therein published, in conflict with this order are hereby revoked.

BY COMMAND OF LIEUTENANT GENERAL MILES:

H. C. CORBIN,
Adjutant General,
Major General, U. S. Army.

For subsistence of the masters, officers, crews, and employees of the vessels of the army transport service; for difference between the cost of the ration at thirty cents per day and the amount of forty cents per day to be expended by commissaries on request of medical officers for special diet to enlisted patients in hospital who are too sick to be subsisted on the army ration; for difference between the cost of the ration at thirty cents and the cost of the rations differing in whole or in part from the ordinary ration, to be issued to enlisted men in camp in the United States during periods of recovery from low conditions of health consequent upon service in unhealthy regions or in debilitating climates (to be expended only under special authority of the Secretary of War); and for ice to organizations of enlisted men stationed in island possessions; in all, eleven million dollars, to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of War, and accounted for as "Subsistence of the Army," and for that purpose to constitute one fund.

QUARTERMASTER'S DEPARTMENT.

REGULAR SUPPLIES: Regular supplies of the Quartermaster's Department, including their care and protection, consisting of stoves and heating apparatus required for heating offices, hospitals, barracks, and quarters, and recruiting stations; also ranges and stoves and appliances for cooking and serving food, and repair and maintenance of such heating and cooking appliances; of fuel and lights for enlisted men, including recruits, guards, hospitals, storehouses, and offices, and for sale to officers; and including also fuel and engine supplies required in the operation of modern batteries at established posts; for post bakeries; for ice machines and their maintenance where required for the health and comfort of the troops in the insular possessions; for the necessary furniture, textbooks, paper, and equipment for the post schools and libraries; for the tableware and mess furniture for kitchens and mess halls, each and all for the enlisted men, including recruits; of forage in kind for the horses, mules, and oxen of the Quartermaster's Department at the several posts and stations and with the armies in the field, and for the horses of the several regiments of cavalry, the batteries of artillery, and such companies of infantry and scouts as may be mounted, and for the authorized number of officers' horses, including bedding for the animals; of straw for soldiers' bedding, and of stationery, including blank books for the Quartermaster's Department, certificates for discharged soldiers, blank forms for the Pay and Quartermaster's Departments, and for printing department orders and reports, five million five hundred thousand dollars: Provided, That no part of the appropriations for the Quartermaster's Department shall be expended on printing unless the same shall be done by contract after due notice and competition, except in such cases as the emergency will not admit of the giving notice of competition; and in cases where it is impracticable to have the necessary printing done by contract the same may be done, with the approval of the Secretary of War, by the hire of the necessary labor for the purpose: Provided further, That hereafter, except in cases of emergency or where it is impracticable to secure competition, the purchase of all supplies for the use of the various departments and posts of the Army and of the branches of the Army service shall only be made after advertisement, and shall be purchased where the same can be purchased the cheapest, quality and cost of transportation and the interests of the Government considered; but every open-market emergency purchase made in the manner common among business men which exceeds in amount two hundred dollars shall be reported for approval to the Secretary of War under such regulations as he may prescribe.

INCIDENTAL EXPENSES: Postage, cost of telegrams on official business received and sent by officers of the Army; extra pay to soldiers employed on extra duty, under the direction of the Quartermaster's Department, in the erection of barracks, quarters, and storehouses, in the construction of roads, and other constant labor for periods of not less than ten days, and as clerks for post quartermasters at military posts, and for prison overseers at posts designated by the War Department for the confinement of general prisoners; for expenses of expresses to and from frontier posts and armies in the field, of escorts to paymasters and other disbursing officers, and to trains where military escorts can not be furnished; expenses of the interment of officers killed in action or who die when on duty in the field, or at military posts or on the frontiers, or when traveling under orders, and of noncommissioned officers and soldiers; and in all cases where such expenses would have been lawful claims against the Government reimbursement may be made of expenses heretofore or hereafter incurred by individuals of burial and transportation of remains of officers, including acting assistant surgeons, not to exceed the amount now allowed in the case of officers, and for the reimbursement in the cases of enlisted men not exceeding the amount now allowed in their cases may be paid out of the proper funds appropriated by this act, and the disbursing officers shall be credited with such reimbursement heretofore made; but hereafter no reimbursement shall be made of such expenses incurred prior to the twenty-first day of April, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight; authorized office furniture; hire of laborers in the Quartermaster's Department, including the hire of interpreters, spies, or guides for the Army; compensation of clerks and other employees to the officers of the Quartermaster's Department, and incidental expenses of recruiting; for the apprehension, securing, and delivering of deserters, including escaped military prisoners and the expenses incident to their pursuit, and no greater sum than fifty dollars for each deserter or escaped military prisoner, shall, in the discretion of the Secretary of War, be paid to any civil officer or citizen for such services and expenses; for a donation of five dollars to each dishonorably discharged prisoner upon his release from confinement under court-martial sentence involving dishonorable discharge; for the following expenditures required for the several regiments of cavalry, the batteries of light artillery, and such companies of infantry and scouts as may be mounted, the authorized number of officers' horses, and for the trains, to wit, hire of veterinary surgeons, purchase of medicines for horses and mules, picket ropes, blacksmiths' tools and materials, horseshoes and blacksmiths' tools for the cavalry service, and for the shoeing of horses and mules, and such additional expenditures as are necessary and authorized by law in the movements and operations of the Army and at military posts, and not expressly assigned to any other department, two million three hundred thousand dollars.

HORSES FOR CAVALRY AND ARTILLERY: For the purchase of horses for the cavalry and artillery, and for the Indian scouts, and for such infantry and members of the Hospital Corps in field campaigns as may be required to be mounted, and the expenses incident thereto, six hundred thousand dollars: Provided, That the number of horses purchased under this appropriation, added to the number now on hand, shall be limited to the actual needs of the mounted service, and unless otherwise ordered by the Secretary of War, no part of this appropriation shall be paid out for horses not purchased by contract after competition duly invited by the Quartermaster's Department, and an inspection under the direction and authority of the Secretary of War.

BARRACKS AND QUARTERS: For barracks and quarters for troops, storehouses for the safe-keeping of military stores, for offices, recruiting stations, and for the hire of buildings and grounds for summer cantonments, and for temporary buildings at frontier stations, for the construction of temporary buildings and stables, and for repairing public buildings at established posts, including the extra-duty pay of enlisted men employed on the same, three million three hundred and fifty thousand dollars; and whenever in the opinion of the President the lands and improvements, or any portion of them, of the military posts or reservations at Indianapolis, Indiana, Columbus, Ohio, and Buffalo, New York, have become undesirable for military purposes he may, in his discretion, cause the same to be appraised and sold at public sale at not less than the appraised value, either as a whole or in subdivisions, under such regulations as to public notice and terms and conditions of sale as he may prescribe, and the proceeds to be deposited in the Treasury. And a sum of money not exceeding the proceeds of such sale or sales at each of such places respectively is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purchase of such land at or in the vicinity of Indianapolis, Indiana, Columbus, Ohio, and Buffalo, New York, respectively, as may be required for military purposes, and for building barracks or quarters on such lands to be devoted to military purposes; and the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to make such purchases of lands for the establishment of military posts at or in the vicinity of such places, respectively: Provided, That no part of the moneys so appropriated shall be paid for commutation of fuel or for quarters to officers or enlisted men: Provided further, That the number of and total sum paid for civilian employees in the Quartermaster's Department, including those paid from the funds appropriated for regular supplies, incidental expenses, barracks and quarters, army transportation, clothing, camp and garrison equipage, shall be limited to the actual requirements of the service, and that no employee paid therefrom shall receive a salary of more than one hundred and fifty dollars per month, except upon the approval of the Secretary of War.

POST EXCHANGES: For the construction, equipment, and maintenance of suitable buildings at military posts and stations for the conduct of the post exchange, school, library, reading, lunch, amusement rooms, and gymnasium, to be expended in the discretion and under the direction of the Secretary of War, five hundred thousand dollars.

For the proper shelter and protection of officers and enlisted men of the Army of the United States lawfully on duty in the Philippine Islands, including the acquisition of title to building sites where necessary, to be expended in the discretion of the President, and to be immediately available, one million five hundred thousand dollars; and the President is directed to report a detailed statement of the expenditure of this sum to each session of Congress until the entire appropriation is expended.

TRANSPORTATION OF THE ARMY AND ITS SUPPLIES: Transportation of the Army, including baggage of the troops when moving either by land or water, and including also the transportation of recruits and recruiting parties heretofore paid from the appropriation for "Expenses for recruiting;" of supplies to the militia furnished by the War Department; of the necessary agents and employees; of clothing, camp and garrison equipage, and other quartermaster stores, from army depots or places of purchase or delivery to the several posts and army depots, and from those depots to the troops in the field; of horse equipments and subsistence stores from the places of purchase and from the places of delivery under contract to such places as the circumstances of the service may require them to be sent; of ordnance, ordnance stores, and small arms from the foundries and armories to the arsenals, fortifications, frontier posts, and army depots; freights, wharfage, tolls, and ferriages; the purchase and hire of draft and pack animals and harness, and the purchase and repair of wagons, carts, and drays, and of ships and other vessels and boats required for the transportation of troops and supplies and for garrison purposes; for drayage and cartage at the several posts; hire of teamsters and other employees; extra-duty pay of enlisted men driving teams, repairing means of transportation, and employed as trainmasters and in opening roads and building wharves; transportation of funds of the Army; the expenses of sailing public transports on the various rivers, the Gulf of Mexico, and the Atlantic and Pacific oceans; for procuring water, and introducing the same to buildings, at such posts as from their situation require it to be brought from a distance, and for the disposal of sewage and drainage, and for constructing roads and wharves; for the payment of army transportation lawfully due such land-grant railroads as have not received aid in Government bonds (to be adjusted in accordance with the decisions of the Supreme Court in cases decided under such land-grant acts), but in no case shall more than fifty per centum of full amount of service be paid: Provided, That such compensation shall be computed upon the basis of the tariff or lower special rates for like transportation performed for the public at large, and shall be accepted as in full for all demands for such service: Provided further, That in expending the money appropriated by this act a railroad company which has not received aid in bonds of the United States and which obtained a grant of public land to aid in the construction of its railroad on condition that such railroad should be a post route and military road, subject to the use of the United States for postal, military, naval, and other Government services, and also subject to such regulations as Congress may impose restricting the charge for such Government transportation, having claims against the United States for transportation of troops and munitions of war and military supplies and property over such aided railroads, shall be paid out of the moneys appropriated by the foregoing provision only on the basis of such rate for the transportation of such troops and munitions of war and military supplies and property as the Secretary of War shall deem just and reasonable under the foregoing provision, such rate not to exceed fifty per centum of the compensation for such Government transportation as shall at that time be charged to and paid by private parties to any such company for like and similar transportation; and the amount so fixed to be paid shall be accepted as in full for all demands for such service, twenty-five million dollars: Provided, That the balance of the appropriation of one hundred thousand dollars made by the act of May twenty-sixth, nineteen hundred, for construction of military roads and bridges in Alaska remaining unexpended on June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and one, is hereby reappropriated and made available for such construction: Provided further, That the number of draft animals purchased from this appropriation, added to those now on hand, shall be limited to such numbers as are actually required for the service.

GENERAL ORDERS, } HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY,
No. 70. } ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, July 8, 1902.

By direction of the Secretary of War, the regulations published in General Orders, No. 79, November 26, 1892, from this office, to carry into effect an act approved July 30, 1892, having been amended by the President to read as follows, are published for the information and guidance of all concerned:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President be, and he is hereby, authorized to prescribe a system of examination of enlisted men of the Army, by such boards as may be established by him, to determine their fitness for promotion to the grade of second lieutenant: Provided, That all unmarried soldiers under thirty years of age, who are citizens of the United States, are physically sound, who have served honorably not less than two years in the Army, and who have borne a good moral character before and after enlistment, may compete for promotion under any system authorized by this act.

SEC. 2. That the members and recorder of such boards as may be established by the President, under the provisions of the preceding section, shall be sworn in every case to discharge their duties honestly and faithfully; and the boards may examine witnesses, and take depositions, for which purposes they shall have such powers of a court of inquiry as may be necessary.

SEC. 3. That the vacancies in the grade of second lieutenant heretofore filled by the promotion of meritorious noncommissioned officers of the Army, under the provisions of section three of the act approved June eighteenth, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, shall be filled by the appointment of competitors favorably recommended under this act, in the order of merit established by the final examination. Each man who passes the final examination shall receive a certificate of eligibility, setting forth the subjects in which he is proficient and the especial grounds upon which the recommendation is based: Provided, That not more than two examinations shall be accorded to the same competitor.

SEC. 4. That all rights and privileges arising from a certificate of eligibility may be vacated by sentence of a court-martial, but no soldier, while holding the privileges of a certificate, shall be brought before a garrison or regimental court-martial or summary court.

SEC. 5. That sections three and four of the act approved June eighteenth, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, providing for the promotion of meritorious noncommissioned officers, be, and the same are hereby, repealed.

Approved, July 30, 1892.

I. For the purpose of computing age and length of service, the first day of September of each year, commencing with 1893, is fixed as the date of competition.

Any soldier, otherwise qualified, whose age will not exceed thirty years on the first of September following, and who shall have served honorably not less than two years in the Army, on or before that date, may (on or before the first day of February of any year after 1902), make application, through the regular military channels, to his department commander, for preliminary examination, with a view to determine his eligibility for entering the competitive examination.

PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION.

II. As soon as practicable after the fifteenth of March the department commander will convene a board of five commissioned officers, including two medical officers, for the preliminary examination of applicants, and will order the applicants in his command to appear before it. This board will institute a rigid inquiry into the character, capacity, record, and qualifications of the several candidates, and will recommend none for competitive examination who are not able to establish their fitness for promotion to the entire satisfaction of the board. To that end the procedure of the department boards will be based upon that of retiring boards. Evidence will be obtained from the certificates of officers, from witnesses under oath, and by means of sworn interrogatories. The military record of each candidate will be closely examined and his antecedents before entering the service will be made the subject of special inquiry.

Every applicant will be subjected to a rigid physical examination, and if there be found to exist any cause of disqualification to such a degree as might in the future impair his efficiency as an officer in the Army, he will be rejected. Examination as to physical qualifications shall conform to the standard required of recruits, and a certificate of physical examination by the medical officers of the board shall accompany the proceedings of the board.

The preliminary examination will embrace the following subjects:

1. English grammar, including orthography, reading, and writing from oral dictation.
2. Mathematics, including arithmetic, algebra, to include the solution of equations of the first degree containing one unknown quantity, the use of logarithms, the elements of plane geometry, plane trigonometry, and surveying.
3. Geography, particularly in reference to the United States and North America.
4. The outlines of general history, and particularly the history of the United States.
5. The Constitution of the United States and the organization of the Government under it, and the elements of international law.
6. Army regulations, and the drill regulations of the arm from which he is selected. The examinations in drill regulations will be practical, extending through the schools of the soldier, squad, and platoon, and shall take place on the parade ground in the presence of the board.
7. The military record of the candidates as certified to by their company, post, and regimental commanders.
8. Physical aptitude, as determined by the medical examination; proficiency in athletics, skill in field sports, etc.
9. Moral character and civil record as verified by the investigations of the board.

In awarding marks the board will give to each subject in the examination the relative weight given in the following example. The weight to be given to each question will be determined by its importance, and will be set opposite the question in the papers furnished the candidates:

Example.

1. English grammar, orthography, etc	100
2. Mathematics.....	200
3. Geography.....	100
4. History	100
5. Constitution and international law.....	100
6. Army and drill regulations and military capacity and aptitude as determined therefrom.....	200
7. Military record.....	100
8. Physique	100
9. Moral character and antecedents	200
	1200

The duty of making the preliminary examination of applicants is one involving, in a high degree, the welfare and character of the service, and all officers of departmental boards are enjoined to exercise the utmost circumspection and care, not only that no unworthy applicant be recommended, but also that the most worthy shall be recommended. All statements and certificates as to moral character, general aptitude and fitness, should be carefully verified by disinterested evidence.

Separate records will be submitted in each case to the department commander, who will forward them, with all papers presented in relation to the applicant, to the Adjutant General of the Army.

COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION.

III. A board to consist of five commissioned officers (including two medical officers, whose duties will be confined to inquiring into and reporting upon the physical qualifications of the applicants), will be convened by the War Department, to meet at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, on the first of September of each year, commencing with 1902, to conduct the final competitive examination of the applicants who have successfully passed the departmental boards, in conformity with the following regulations:

IV. Every applicant will be subjected to a rigid physical examination, and if there be found to exist any cause of disqualification to such a degree as might in the future impair his efficiency as an officer in the Army, he will be rejected. Examination as to physical qualifications shall conform to the standard required of recruits, and shall include a certificate of physical examination by the medical officers of the board to accompany the proceedings of the board.

The board being satisfied as to these preliminary points will proceed to examine each candidate separately in the following subjects:

1. English grammar, including orthography, reading, and writing from oral dictation.
2. Mathematics, including arithmetic, algebra, to include the solution of equations of the first degree containing one unknown quantity, the use of logarithms, the elements of plane geometry, plane trigonometry, and surveying.
3. Geography, particularly in reference to the United States and North America.
4. The outlines of general history, and particularly the history of the United States.
5. The Constitution of the United States and the organization of the Government under it, and the elements of international law.

6. Army regulations and the drill regulations of the arm from which the candidate is selected. The examination in drill regulations will be practical, extending through the school of the soldier, squad and platoon, and shall take place on the parade ground in the presence of the board.

7. The military records of the candidates as certified to by their company, post, and regimental commanders.

8. Physical aptitude, as determined by the medical examination; proficiency in athletics, skill in field sports, etc.

9. Moral character and civil record as verified after a thorough investigation by the board.

In awarding marks the board will give to each subject in the examination the relative weight given in the form following below. The general average of the candidate will be computed as follows: Mark each question according to its relative weight, and reduce the aggregate of marks thus obtained in each subject to a scale of 100. The result will give the average of proficiency in the subject. Multiply the average in each subject by the number indicating the relative weight of the subject and divide the sum of the products by the sum of the relative weights, the quotient will be the general average. No candidate will be passed by the board who shall not have attained an average of 65 per cent in each subject of examination and a general average of at least 70 per cent.

Example.

No.	Subject.	Average.	Relative weights.	Products of multiplication by relative weights.
1	English grammar, etc.....	82	3	246
2	Mathematics	76	4	304
3	Geography	80	2	160
4	History	73	3	219
5	Constitutional and international law.	67	2	134
6	Army and drill regulations, etc.....	75	3	225
7	Military record.....	80	2	160
8	Physique	75	3	225
9	Moral character and antecedents.....	85	3	255
			25	1,928
General average.....				77.12

V. When the board shall have examined and passed upon all the applicants it will prepare a tabulated statement showing the order of their relative merit as developed by the examination, and forward the proceedings, with all papers pertaining thereto, to the Adjutant General.

Soldiers who successfully pass the final examination, and receive certificates as required by law will be known in the service as "candidates for promotion," and will have the title of "candidate" prefixed to that of their rank on all rolls, returns, orders, and correspondence. They will be entitled to this privilege so long only as they maintain the specially honorable position of "candidate."

An applicant who fails to pass the competitive board at his first examination will not be required to pass a departmental board a second time. In order to secure a reexamination he will forward an application therefor through his regular military commanders (whose remarks will be indorsed thereon), to the Adjutant General, at least three months in advance of the time of holding the annual competitive examination. After reexamination he will take his place in the relative merit list with those examined at the time of his reexamination.

No soldier will be reexamined who shall have passed the age limit prior to the date set for such reexamination.

"Candidates" who may be guilty of misconduct will be promptly reported to the Adjutant General of the Army, through regimental and department headquarters, the report to give a full statement of the misconduct alleged, with names of witnesses. Before forwarding such report to the Adjutant General of the Army, the department commander will see that the "candidate" has a fair and impartial hearing, that the merits of the case may be carefully and accurately determined and reported on for the decision of the Secretary of War.

Candidates will not be deprived of the privileges of their position except by sentence of court-martial as required by the law, or by the decision of the Secretary of War.

BY COMMAND OF LIEUTENANT GENERAL MILES:

H. C. CORBIN,
Adjutant General,
Major General, U. S. Army.

For clothing for all of the Branches, namely: Expenditures for clothing, underclothing, hats, caps, boots, shoes, socks, and overalls; also all sums expended for labor, materials, machines, tools, and appliances employed, and for use in the tailor shops, knitting shops, and shoe shops, or other Home shops in which any kind of clothing is made or repaired, three hundred and ten thousand dollars.

For salaries for officers and employees of the Board of Managers, and for outdoor relief and incidental expenses, namely:

For president of the Board of Managers, four thousand dollars; secretary of the Board of Managers, two thousand dollars; general treasurer, who shall not be a member of the Board of Managers, four thousand dollars; inspector-general, three thousand dollars; assistant general treasurer and assistant inspector-general, two thousand five hundred dollars; two assistant inspectors-general, at two thousand five hundred dollars each; clerical services for the offices of the president and general treasurer, ten thousand five hundred dollars; messenger service for president's office, one hundred and forty-four dollars; clerical services for managers, three thousand nine hundred dollars; agents, one thousand eight hundred dollars; for traveling expenses of the Board of Managers, their officers and employees, fifteen thousand dollars; for outdoor relief, one thousand dollars; for rent, medical examinations, stationery, telegrams, and other incidental expenses, six thousand dollars; in all, fifty-eight thousand eight hundred and forty-four dollars.

In all, three million seven hundred and twenty-three thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine dollars.

Hereafter the officers of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, and officers under the Board of Managers thereof, shall be appointed, so far as may be practicable, from persons whose military or naval service would render them eligible, if disabled and not otherwise provided for, for admission to the Home, and they may be appointed, removed, and transferred, from time to time, as the interests of the institution may require, by the Board of Managers.

STATE OR TERRITORIAL HOMES: For continuing aid to State or Territorial Homes for the support of disabled volunteer soldiers, in conformity with the act approved August twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, including all classes of soldiers admissible to the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, nine hundred and fifty thousand dollars: Provided, That one-half of any sum or sums retained by State Homes on account of pensions received from inmates shall be deducted from the aid herein provided for.

BACK PAY AND BOUNTY: For payment of amounts for arrears of pay of two and three year volunteers, for bounty to volunteers and their widows and legal heirs, for bounty under the act of July twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, and for amounts for commutation of rations to prisoners of war in rebel States, and to soldiers on furlough, that may be certified to be due by the accounting officers of the Treasury during the fiscal year nineteen hundred and three, three hundred thousand dollars: Provided, That hereafter members of the Fourth Arkansas Mounted Infantry and their heirs shall be paid from the appropriation for "Arrears of pay, bounty, and so forth (certified claims)," the pay and allowances due them in accordance with the findings and report made by the referee, appointed under the provisions of the act approved February twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, entitled "An act for the relief of the Fourth Arkansas Mounted Infantry."

For payment of amounts for arrears of pay and allowances on account of service of officers and men of the Army during the war with Spain and in the Philippine Islands that may be certified to be due by the accounting officers of the Treasury during the fiscal year nineteen hundred and three, and that are chargeable to the appropriations that have been carried to the surplus fund, two hundred thousand dollars.

* * * *

PUBLIC PRINTING AND BINDING.

For the public printing, for the public binding, and for paper for the public printing, including the costs of printing the debates and proceedings of Congress in the Congressional Record, and for lithographing, mapping, and engraving for both houses of Congress, the Supreme Court of the United States, the supreme court of the District of Columbia, the Court of Claims, the Library of Congress, the Executive Office, and the Departments, including salaries or compensation of all necessary clerks and employees, for labor (by the day, piece, or contract), for rents, not exceeding fifty dollars for technical books of reference, and for all necessary materials which may be needed in the prosecution of the work, five million two hundred and fifty-seven thousand dollars; and from the said sum hereby appropriated printing and binding shall be done by the Public Printer to the amounts following, respectively, namely:

* * * *

For the War Department, two hundred and twenty-four thousand five hundred dollars, of which sum twelve thousand dollars shall be for the index catalogue of the library of the Surgeon General's Office.

* * * *

And no more than an allotment of one-half of the sum hereby appropriated shall be expended in the first two quarters of the fiscal year, and no more than one-fourth thereof may be expended in either of the last two quarters of the fiscal year, except that, in addition thereto, in either of said last quarters, the unexpended balances of allotments for preceding quarters may be expended: Provided, That so much as may be necessary for printing and binding the Annual Report of the Secretary of Agriculture, as required by the act approved January twelfth, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, shall not be included in said allotment.

The Public Printer is authorized hereafter to procure and supply, on the requisition of the head of any Executive Department or other Government establishment, complete manifold blanks, books, and forms, required in duplicating processes; also complete patented devices with which to file money-order statements, or other uniform official papers, and to charge such supplies to the allotment for printing and binding of the Department or Government establishment requiring the same.

* * * * *

SEC. 2. That all sums appropriated by this act for salaries of officers and employees of the Government shall be in full for such salaries for the fiscal year nineteen hundred and three, and all laws or parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this act be, and the same are hereby, repealed.

GENERAL ORDERS, } HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY,
No. 94. } ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, August 9, 1902.

I.—By direction of the Acting Secretary of War the following laws, regulations, and instructions governing the detail of officers of the Army at educational institutions are published for the information and government of all concerned:

[As amended by act approved September 26, 1888.]

"SEC. 1225. The President may, upon the application of any established military institute, seminary or academy, college or university, within the United States, having capacity to educate at the same time not less than one hundred and fifty male students, detail an officer of the Army or Navy to act as superintendent, or professor thereof; but the number of officers so detailed shall not exceed fifty from the Army, and ten from the Navy, being a maximum of sixty, at any time, and they shall be apportioned throughout the United States, first, to those State institutions applying for such detail that are required to provide instruction in military tactics under the provisions of the act of Congress of July second, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, donating lands for the establishment of colleges where the leading object shall be the practical instruction of the industrial classes in agriculture and the mechanic arts, including military tactics; and after that, said details to be distributed, as nearly as may be practicable, according to population. The Secretary of War is authorized to issue, at his discretion and under proper regulations to be prescribed by him, out of ordnance and ordnance stores belonging to the Government, and which can be spared for that purpose, such number of the same as may appear to be required for military instruction and practice by the students of any college or university under the provisions of this section, and the Secretary shall require a bond in each case, in double the value of the property, for the care and safe keeping thereof, and for the return of the same when required": Provided, That nothing in this act shall be so construed as to prevent the detail of officers of the Engineer Corps of the Navy as professors in scientific schools or colleges as now provided by act of Congress approved February twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and seventy-nine, entitled "An act to promote a knowledge of steam-engineering and iron-ship building among the students of scientific schools or colleges in the United States;" and the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to issue ordnance and ordnance stores belonging to the Government on the terms and conditions hereinbefore provided to any college or university at which a retired officer of the Army may be assigned as provided by section twelve hundred and sixty of the Revised Statutes.

An Act To amend section twelve hundred and twenty-five of the Revised Statutes, concerning details of officers of the Army and Navy to educational institutions.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Section twelve hundred and twenty-five of the Revised Statutes, concerning details of officers of the Army and Navy to educational institutions, be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to permit the President to detail, under the provisions of said act, not to exceed seventy-five officers of the Army of the United States; and the maximum number of officers of the Army and Navy to be detailed at any one time under the provisions of the act passed September twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, amending said section twelve hundred and twenty-five of the Revised Statutes, is hereby increased to eighty-five: Provided, That no officer shall be detailed to or maintained at any of the educational institutions mentioned in said act where instruction and drill in military tactics is not given: Provided further, That nothing in this act shall be so construed as to prevent the detail of officers of the Engineer Corps of the Navy as professors in scientific schools or colleges as now provided by Act of Congress approved February twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and seventy-nine, entitled "An act to promote a knowledge of steam-engineering and iron ship-building among the students of scientific schools or colleges in the United States."

Approved January 13, 1891.

An Act To increase the number of officers of the Army to be detailed to colleges.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section twelve hundred and twenty-five of the Revised Statutes, concerning details of officers of the Army and Navy to educational institutions, be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to permit the President to detail under the provisions of said act not to exceed one hundred officers of the Army of the United States; and no officer shall be thus detailed who has not had five years' service in the Army and no detail to such duty shall extend for more than four years and officers on the retired list of the Army may upon their own application be detailed to such duty and when so detailed shall receive the full pay of their rank; and the maximum number of officers of the Army and Navy to be detailed at any one time under the provisions of the act approved January thirteenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, amending section twelve hundred and twenty-five of the Revised Statutes as amended by an act approved September twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, is hereby increased to one hundred and ten.

Approved, November 3, 1893.

II.—The following regulations, in regard to the detail of officers of the Army at established colleges, universities, &c., within the United States, are prescribed by the President, under the above laws:

1.—All institutions, within the meaning of section 1225, Revised Statutes of the United States, and of the acts of Congress amendatory thereof, shall, for purposes of the detail of officers of the Army as military instructors and of the course of military instruction to be pursued thereat, be divided into three classes, as follows:

FIRST CLASS.—All schools to which officers of the Army, active or retired, may be detailed under the provisions of existing law, except schools of the second and third classes.

SECOND CLASS.—Agricultural schools established under the provisions of the act of Congress of July 2, 1862, and which are required by said act to include military tactics in their curriculum.

THIRD CLASS.—Military schools or colleges, i. e., those whose organization is essentially military and one of whose primary objects is the acquisition of a high degree of military drill and discipline.

2.—No officer who has not had five years' service as such, nor any officer not of the line of the Army, shall be eligible for detail as military instructor, nor shall any officer above the grade of lieutenant be so detailed so long as there are eligible lieutenants available; nor shall any officer on the retired list of the Army be detailed in the limited number authorized by the act of November 3, 1893, so long as any eligible officer on the active list be available, except at institutions of the first class, for detail to which competent officers on the retired list shall have the preference. All details from the retired list will, under the provisions of said act, be included in the limited number of details authorized by that act.

3.—Details shall be made, first, from lieutenants who have graduated at one of the service schools; second, from those recommended by their regimental commanders. After September 1, 1903, no lieutenant shall be recommended by his regimental commander who has not successfully taken the course at an officers' post school.

4.—Details shall be made to begin with the school term and shall be for a period of two years, except that in case of retired officers the detail may be for four years.

5.—When an officer is detailed to relieve another as military instructor, he shall report at the institution to which assigned not less than two weeks prior to the departure of his predecessor.

6.—Applications for the detail of officers must be addressed by the president of the institution to the Adjutant General of the Army and be accompanied by the last printed catalogue and a certificate as to the number of male students the institution has the capacity in buildings, apparatus, and instructors to educate at one and the same time; the number of such students in actual attendance at the time of application, or, if the application be made during vacation, the number actually in attendance during the session immediately preceding it; and the number over 15 years of age. The certificate must also show the grade of the institution, the degrees it confers, and whether or not it is a land-grant school, or a military school as defined in the preceding Paragraph II, section 1.

7.—Where a State has more than one school endowed by the national land grant, under the act approved July 2, 1862, the school which is reported by the governor of the State as most nearly meeting the requirements of existing law will be held to have the first claim to the officer allotted to the State for detail at a land-grant college.

8.—When application is made for the detail of an officer of the Army at an institution to which an officer had not theretofore been assigned, it shall be visited by an inspector or other suitable officer, who, after explaining to the president and the faculty the requirements of these regulations, shall satisfy himself as to the intention and ability of the school authorities to comply with them, and whether the general sentiment of the faculty is cordially in favor of military instruction as herein required. The inspector shall then report to the War Department whether such a detail should be made.

9.—Officers detailed as military instructors shall, at the end of each quarter, report in writing to the Adjutant General of the Army as to the exact compliance by the school authorities with these requirements of the regulations, for such action as the Secretary of War may direct. A similar report shall be made annually by an officer of the Inspector General's Department, after a careful inspection of the military department of each institution, and if in any case the report is adverse the military instructor shall be withdrawn.

10.—No detail of military instructor shall be made at any institution which does not guarantee to maintain at least 100 pupils under military instruction.

11.—Pupils under military instruction shall be organized into companies and battalions of infantry, the drill and administration of which shall conform in all respects to that of the Army. The officers and the noncommissioned officers shall be selected by the military instructor according to the principles governing such selection at the United States Military Academy, and shall receive their commissions and warrants from the president of the institution.

12.—Pupils organized for military instruction shall be known as "The company (or, battalion) of cadets of —— Institution." Upon occasions of military ceremony, in the execution of drills, guard duty, and when students are receiving any other practical military instruction, they shall appear in the uniform prescribed by the institution. They shall be held strictly accountable for the arms and accouterments issued to them.

13.—At every institution of the first class (see Paragraph III) at which a military instructor is detailed there shall be allowed a minimum of four hours each week during each school term to the department of military science and tactics; at every institution of the second class there shall be allowed a minimum of five hours; and at every institution of the third class there shall be allowed a minimum of six hours. This time shall be occupied as the military instructor, in view of the hereinafter prescribed curriculum and such instructions as he may from time to time receive from the War Department, may deem best.

14.—The officer detailed as military instructor shall reside at or near the institution to which assigned, and when in the performance of his military duties shall appear in proper uniform. He shall, in his relations to the institution, observe the general usages and regulations therein established affecting the duties and obligations of other members of the faculty. Except at institutions of the first class as defined in Paragraph II, section 1, he shall not perform any other duties than those of instructor in military science and tactics.

III.—All rules and orders relating to the organization and government of the military students; the appointment, promotion, and change of officers, and all other orders affecting the military department, except those relating to routine duty, shall be made and promulgated by the professor of military science and tactics after being approved by the president or other administrative officer of the institution.

IV.—It is the duty of the professor of military science and tactics to enforce proper military discipline at all times when students are under military instruction, and in case of serious breaches of discipline, or misconduct, to report the same to the proper authorities of the institution, according to its established methods. In case no suitable action is taken by the authorities of the school, the military instructor will report the facts to the Adjutant General of the Army with a view to his being relieved from an institution where discipline can not be maintained.

V.—The following is prescribed as the minimum course of military instruction, practical and theoretical, at all institutions to which a military instructor is assigned:

1.—INSTITUTIONS OF THE FIRST CLASS.

(a) Practical:

Infantry Drill Regulations, through the school of the battalion in close and extended order.

Advance and rear guards, and outposts.

Marches.

The ceremonies of battalion review, inspection, parades, guard mounting, and escort of the colors.

Infantry target practice.

Instruction in First Aid to the Injured.

Weather permitting, there shall be not less than one parade and one guard mount during each week of the school term; and one battalion inspection and review each month.

In no case shall target practice, to the extent permitted by the allowance of ammunition, be omitted during the school year except on authority given in each case by the Secretary of War.

Target practice on the range should be preceded by instruction in gallery practice, and at those institutions where range practice can not be had, every effort must be made to substitute gallery practice for it.

(b) Theoretical:

The Infantry Drill Regulations covered by the practical instruction.

The Manual of Guard Duty.

Small-Arms Firing Regulations, Parts I, II, and VII.

The Articles of War, with special reference to Articles 4, 8, 15, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 32, 38, 39, 40, 42, 44, 46, 47, 50, 55, 57, 61, and 65.

And the following records:

Enlistment and discharge papers, including descriptive lists.

Morning reports.

Field and monthly returns.

Muster rolls.

Rosters.

Ration returns.

Requisitions.

Property returns.

The articles of war specifically mentioned are among the most important for the young officer to know on first entering the service.

The records prescribed for study should be thoroughly understood by all graduating cadets, because they show how the soldier enters and leaves the service, how he is accounted for, paid, fed, clothed, armed, and how his military duties are regulated.

2.—INSTITUTIONS OF THE SECOND CLASS.

(a) Practical:

Same as the practical course for institutions of the first class, and, in addition—

A guard shall be mounted five times (weather permitting) in each week of the school year and the guard shall be practically instructed for one hour in the posting and relief of sentinels and their duties.

(b) Theoretical:

Same as the theoretical course for institutions of the first class, and, in addition—

Ten lectures each year upon the following subjects, notes to be taken by the students and to be made the basis of subsequent recitations:

Two lectures on the organization of the United States Army, including volunteers and militia.

One lecture on patrols and outposts.

One lecture on marches.

One lecture on camps and camp hygiene.

Three lectures on lines and bases of operations.

Two lectures on the attack and defense of advance and rear guards and outposts, and convoys.

All of the foregoing to be illustrated by historical examples.

3.—INSTITUTIONS OF THE THIRD CLASS.

(a) Practical:

Same as the practical course for institutions of the second class, and, in addition—

Light Artillery Drill Regulations in the school of the cannoneer.

Mechanical maneuvers.

Aiming drill and, where practicable, target practice.

There should be a guard mount and parade daily (weather permitting), except Saturdays and Sundays.

One-fourth of the time devoted to practical work should be given to advance guard and outpost drill, reconnoissances and patrols, conducted as prescribed in any work accepted by the War Department as a standard on Security and Information.

Instruction in First Aid to the Injured.

(b) Theoretical:

Same as the theoretical course for institutions of the second class, and, in addition—

The elements of field engineering, to include practical exercises in the determination of the military crest and the profiling of hasty intrenchments for infantry; the study of an elementary work on the art of war.

VI.—The following apportionment, in accordance with the foregoing laws and the census of 1900, having received the approval of the Acting Secretary of War, is adopted, and details will be made in accordance therewith:

Apportionment of details at colleges, universities, etc., under section 1225, Revised Statutes, and the amendments thereof, based upon the number of officers of the Army available for such details.

VII. The following are the regulations prescribed by the Secretary of War for the issue of arms, etc., required for military instruction and practice at colleges, universities, etc., under section 1225, Revised Statutes, and the amendments thereof:

1. As the appropriations for the supply of ordnance and ordnance stores to the Army are very limited, and as the language of the law restricts the issues that can be made to colleges to such as "can be spared for that purpose," issues of ordnance and ordnance stores to colleges will be limited to arms and the equipments and implements necessary to enable them to be used by the students for purposes of drill, parade, and similar exercises, but not for field and encampment purposes.

2. Only such ordnance and ordnance stores as are enumerated in the following paragraphs will be issued for the purpose of military instruction to each selected college and university having an officer of the Army stationed thereat.

3. The field pieces of artillery, with their carriages and implements, will be limited to the following, viz:

- 2 muzzle-loading wrought-iron rifled guns, caliber 3 inches.
- 2 carriages and limbers for 3-inch gun.
- 2 gunner's haversacks.
- 2 trail handspikes.
- 4 lanyards.
- 2 priming wires.
- 4 sponges and rammers, 3-inch.
- 4 sponge covers, 3-inch.
- 2 tube pouches.
- 4 thumb stalls.
- 2 tompions, 3-inch.
- 2 vent covers.
- 1 pendulum hausse, 3-inch.
- 1 pendulum-hausse seat.
- 1 pendulum-hausse pouch.
- 2 paulins, 12 by 15 feet.

4. When in the opinion of the Chief of Ordnance the supply on hand will permit, there may be issued in lieu of the foregoing two of the 3.2-inch breech-loading steel field guns, with their carriages and implements, as above.

5. The small arms issued to any college will be the Springfield "Cadet" rifles, similar to those which were supplied the United States Military Academy at West Point, but in no case will the number of rifles issued be in excess of the number of male students in regular attendance and actually receiving military instruction.

6. The accouterments to be issued with the Cadet rifles will consist of a bayonet scabbard, cartridge box, gun sling, waist belt, and waist-belt plate.

7. The service noncommissioned officer's sword can be issued for the use of the officers and noncommissioned officers of the Corps of Cadets. The sliding frog will enable these swords to be worn on the ordinary waist belt.

8. A limited number of cavalry sabers and belts (for purposes of instruction only) will be issued when satisfactory evidence of their necessity is presented.

9. Issue of the above stores will be made by the Chief of Ordnance to any selected institution upon its filing a bond in the penal sum of double the value of the property, conditioned that it will fully insure, take good care of, and safely keep and account for the same, and will, when required by the Secretary of War, duly return the same, within thirty days, in good order, to the Chief of Ordnance, United States Army, or such other officer or person as the Secretary of War may designate to receive them.

10. For practice firing, the following allowances of ammunition will be made annually to each of the various institutions, viz: One hundred blank cartridges and 300 friction primers for 3-inch, or for 3.2-inch breech-loading gun, as the case may be. Projectiles will not be issued for the field guns.

11. Ammunition for rifle target practice will be issued annually at the rate of 50 carbine ball cartridges (or their equivalent value in reloading material, reloading tools, or target supplies) for each cadet actually engaged in target practice, but there shall not be issued to any college more than 7,500 ball cartridges in any one year. Where it is not deemed practicable to have target practice, a limited quantity of rifle blank cartridges will be furnished for instruction in firing. This ammunition will be issued upon requisition to be forwarded to the Chief of Ordnance by the presidents or superintendents of the institutions; and as annual allowances date in all cases from July 1 of each year, requisitions should be forwarded before or as soon after that date as practicable for the current year's supply. Undrawn allowances of one year can not be drawn in the succeeding year.

12. The reloading material, reloading tools, and target supplies which can be drawn as part of the ammunition allowance for target practice are:

(a) Reloading materials, consisting of—

Small-arms powder.
Carbine bullets.
Round balls.
Cartridge primers.

(b) Reloading tools, consisting of—

1 set of hand reloading tools (bench reloading tools are not issued to colleges).

(c) 1 bullet mold, casting 4 balls.

1 melting ladle.
1 pouring ladle.

(d) Target supplies, consisting of—

Paper targets A and B, and centers for these targets.
Paper targets for gallery practice.
Pasters, white and black.

13. When tools for reloading rifle cartridges or implements for casting lead balls for gallery practice have been issued to colleges, the parts required to keep them in good order may be issued when requested, and charged against the money value of the annual ammunition allowance.

14. All ordnance and ordnance stores issued to colleges must be kept insured by the college authorities for their full invoice value, as shown in the bond, and the Chief of Ordnance promptly informed when and where the insurance is placed.

15. The transportation of ordnance and ordnance stores from the Government arsenals to institutions of learning, and from institutions of learning back to Government arsenals, is always without expense to the United States.

16. The colleges to which issues of ordnance and ordnance stores are made, under bonds given as required by law, will be required to keep said property in like good and serviceable condition as when issued by the Government, and for this purpose the spare parts, implements, and appendages necessary for this purpose will be sold to them at cost price on application to the Chief of Ordnance.

17. When ordnance and ordnance stores are returned to the Ordnance Department by any institution of learning, they will be carefully examined when received at the arsenal, and if they are found imperfect or unserviceable by reason of carelessness or other causes than legitimate use in service, the damage will have to be made good to the United States.

18. The cost of all missing property must be made good to the United States.

19. When any of the ordnance or ordnance stores become unfit for further use the president of the college will report the fact to the Chief of Ordnance and he will authorize the college to send them to an arsenal without expense to the United States. On reaching the arsenal the property will be inspected by an officer of the Ordnance Department and if its condition is found to be due to the ordinary incidents of service it may be replaced with serviceable stores of like character, but if its condition is found to be due to carelessness or other than legitimate causes the extent of damage or value of missing stores will be determined by the Chief of Ordnance and must be paid by the college before any new issue of stores is made.

20. The guns and carriages must not be allowed to remain out doors with only the paulins as a protection from the weather, but they must be housed in a suitable shed and habitually kept there except when used for drills or saluting purposes.

21. Regular property returns will be rendered quarterly to the Chief of Ordnance by each president or superintendent of an institution supplied with arms, etc., accounting for all ordnance and ordnance stores issued to the institution under his charge. These returns will be made on the blank forms to be supplied by the Chief of Ordnance.

22. Failure on the part of any institution of learning to comply with the foregoing regulations, or any others that may be prescribed by the Chief of Ordnance for the care, preservation, or accountability of any ordnance or ordnance stores issued to it by the United States, will be considered sufficient cause for the prompt withdrawal by the Secretary of War of the Government property in its possession.

23. Whenever any institution shall fail to return the public property in its charge within thirty days after demand made by the Secretary of War, the delinquency will be peremptorily referred to the Attorney General, that the bond of the institution may forthwith be put in suit.

24. The following is the form of bond to be executed previous to the issue of ordnance and ordnance stores, viz:

FORM OF BOND.

Know all men by these presents that we, the Knox College, located at Galesburg, Illinois, a corporation duly organized under the laws of the State of Illinois, as principal, and Clark E. Carr, of Galesburg, Illinois, and Edgar A. Bancroft, of Galesburg, Illinois, as sureties, are held and bound to the United States of America in the penal sum of *eight thousand four hundred and seventy-two dollars and ninety cents ($8,472.90), for the payment of which well and truly to be made to the Secretary of War, or to such officer or person whom he may designate, we do bind ourselves and each of us, our successors, heirs, executors and administrators, for and in the whole, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Given under our hands and seals at Galesburg, Illinois, this 10th day of May, A. D. 1888.

The condition of the above obligation is such that, whereas, the Knox College is an established †college within the United States having capacity to educate at the same time not less than one hundred and fifty male students, and whereas the said †college has heretofore applied to the President of the United States to detail an officer of the Army to act as professor of military science and tactics thereof, and the President by virtue of the authority vested in him by section 1225, Revised Statutes, as amended by the act of September 26, 1888, has detailed such officer to act accordingly; and whereas the Secretary of War by the authority vested in him by said section is about to issue to the said †college for the military instruction and practice of the students thereof the following ordnance and ordnance stores, to wit:

2 muzzle-loading wrought-iron rifled guns, caliber 3 inches, at $450	$900.00
2 carriages and limbers, for 3-inch gun, at $325	650.00
2 gunner's haversacks, at $2.20	4.40
2 trail handspikes, at $1.10	2.20
4 lanyards, at 10 cents	.40
2 priming wires, at 10 cents	.20
4 sponges and rammers, 3-inch, at $1	4.00
4 sponge covers, 3-inch, at 30 cents	1.20
2 tube pouches, at $1.50	3.00

* Double the value of the property.

† College or university.

On this 10th day of May, 1888, personally appeared before me, a notary public for the county aforesaid, Edgar A. Bancroft, one of the sureties named in the within bond, who made oath that he is worth eight thousand five hundred dollars over and above all his debts and liabilities.

EDGAR A. BANCROFT.

Sworn and subscribed before me on the day and date aforesaid.

GEORGE A. LAWRENCE,
 Notary Public.

I, Elmer S. Dundy, hereby certify that the sureties who have signed the foregoing bond are personally known to me, and that each is responsible and sufficient to insure the payment of the entire penalty named therein.

ELMER S. DUNDY,
 Judge of the District Court of the United States in and for the State of Illinois.

THE FOLLOWING INSTRUCTIONS MUST BE STRICTLY OBSERVED IN PREPARING THE BOND REQUIRED TO BE FURNISHED THE CHIEF OF ORDNANCE, U. S. A., BEFORE ANY ARMS, ETC., CAN BE OBTAINED BY ANY COLLEGE:

25. A copy of the record of the adoption of the resolution of the board of directors or governing body of the institution, including also the record of the resolution itself, authorizing the president to execute the bond on behalf of the corporation, authenticated by the signature of the secretary and the corporate seal, must accompany the bond.

26. A copy of the charter or articles of incorporation, authenticated by the secretary of state, is also required.

27. The sureties must sign and seal the bond. The seal must be attached opposite the signature of each person and must be a seal of wax, wafer, or other adhesive substance, not a mere scroll with a pen. Their names must be written in the body of the bond, together with their residence, including town, county, State or Territory.

28. Two witnesses are required to each signature.

29. There must be two sureties when individuals are the sureties. Each surety must make oath that he is worth some specific sum, equal to the full amount of the penalty, over and above all his debts and liabilities. Two persons must not join in one affidavit. Each one must subscribe and acknowledge his own oath separately. The sufficiency of the sureties must be certified to by some United States judge or district attorney, whose official character must be certified to by the clerk of his court, such certificate to be on or attached to the bond.

30. Incorporated surety companies which have complied with the requirements of the War Department will also be accepted as surety on the bond, and in this case only one surety is required.

31. A college corporation desiring ordnance or ordnance stores for the use of the college must furnish evidence that some one is authorized to execute in its behalf the bond which the law requires.

32. This authority can only be given by the governing body of the corporation, i. e., the body invested with authority to employ the faculty and make all other contracts in its behalf, and designated in the charter of the corporation as board of regents, board of trustees, etc., and this body must give the authority in the formal way in which it does other business, the action taken being recorded as a part of the proceedings of the meeting at which it was taken. The evidence of this authority required to be furnished to this office will be an extract from the record of the proceedings of the board of regents, or board of trustees, showing that the board met in its official capacity, that a resolution was offered authorizing some person by name to execute the required bond for the corporation, and that this resolution was adopted; and this extract must be certified, under the corporate seal, to be a true extract from the record of the proceedings of the board, by the secretary or other custodian of the records. His certificate that the authority has been conferred, or that such a resolution was passed, is not sufficient. The record speaks for itself, and a copy of so much of it should be furnished as will show that it purports to be a record of the board, that the resolution was offered, and that it was passed.

33. Great pains should be taken to use the name given the corporation by its charter, and to mention in the resolution the particular bond to be given.

34. It is desired that a copy of the charter be sent to the Chief of Ordnance, United States Army, Washington, D. C.; also, a copy (accompanied by certificate under corporate seal) of so much of the record of the election of the officers of the corporation as will show the election of the particular officer who is to execute the bond.

In calling for form of bond it should be stated—

First. If the principals and sureties are individuals.

Second. If the principal is a corporation and surety an individual.

Third. If principal is an individual and surety a corporation.

Fourth. If both principal and surety are corporations.

As indicated above, there are four forms of bond, as follows:

Form K. When both principal and sureties are individuals.

Form L. When principal is a corporation and sureties are individuals.

Form M. When principal is an individual and surety is a corporation.

Form N. When both principal and surety are corporations.

In calling for the blank forms of bond, they may be called for as "Form K," "Form L," etc.

VIII.—In the administration of each cadet battalion the adjutant, assisted by the sergeant major, shall keep a letter book, an order book, a roster, and a consolidated morning-report book. The quartermaster, assisted by the quartermaster sergeant, shall keep a book containing a record of all issues of Government property with the receipts of those to whom issued. Each captain shall keep a morning-report book and, where necessary for the regulation of duty, a roster. At institutions of the third class the morning report shall be made out by the captains daily; at the other institutions on drill days or when the cadets are ordered to parade.

IX.—The professor of military science and tactics shall render a quarterly report to the Adjutant General of the Army of the whole number of undergraduate students in the institution capable of performing military duty, the number required by the institution to be enrolled as military students, the average attendance at drills, the number absent, and number and kind of drills, recitations and lectures, or other instruction had during the quarter, and the number reported for discipline. He will retain copies of all reports and correspondence and transfer them to the officer who may succeed him, or forward them to the Adjutant General's Office should the detail expire. On the graduation of every class he shall obtain from the president of the college and report to the Adjutant General of the Army the names of such students belonging to the class as have shown special aptitude for military service, and furnish a copy thereof to the adjutant general of the State for his information. At those institutions which grade the department of military science and tactics equally with the other important branches of instruction, and which make proficiency in that department a requisite for securing a diploma, the names of the three most distinguished students in said department shall, when graduated, be inserted in the United States Army Register.

X.—The military department shall be subject to inspection under the authority of the President of the United States; such inspections to be made, when practicable, near the close of the college year. The inspecting officer shall, upon his arrival at the institution, report to the president or other administrative officer, in order to obtain from him the necessary facilities for the performance of his duty. A copy of the report of inspection will be furnished the president of the institution by the War Department.

XI.—The following are the laws providing for the detail of retired officers at colleges, universities, etc.:

Section 1260, Revised Statutes.

Any retired officer may, on his own application, be detailed to serve as professor in any college. (But while so serving, such officer shall be allowed no additional compensation.)

Extract from the act of Congress approved May 4, 1880.

That upon the application of any college, university, or institution of learning incorporated under the laws of any State within the United States, having capacity at the same time to educate not less than one hundred and fifty male students, the President may detail an officer of the Army on the retired list to act as president, superintendent, or professor thereof; and such officer may receive from the institution to which he may be detailed the difference between his retired and full pay, and shall not receive any additional pay or allowance from the United States.

Extract from the act of Congress approved August 6, 1894.

Provided, That nothing in the Act entitled "An Act to increase the number of officers of the Army to be detailed to colleges," approved November third, eighteen hundred and ninety-three, shall be so construed as to prevent, limit, or restrict the detail of retired officers of the Army at institutions of learning under the provisions of section twelve hundred and sixty, Revised Statutes, and the Act making appropriations for the support of the Army, and so forth, approved May fourth, eighteen hundred and eighty, nor to forbid the issue of ordnance and ordnance stores, as provided in the Act approved September twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, amending section twelve hundred and twenty-five, Revised Statutes, to the institutions at which retired officers may be so detailed; and said Act of November third, eighteen hundred and ninety-three, and said Act of May fourth, eighteen hundred and eighty, shall not be construed to allow the full pay of their rank to retired officers detailed under said section twelve hundred and sixty, Revised Statutes, and said Act of May fourth, eighteen hundred and eighty.

Extract from the act of Congress approved February 26, 1901.

SECTION 1. * * * That section twelve hundred and twenty-five of the Revised Statutes, concerning the detail of officers of the Army and Navy to educational institutions be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to permit the President to detail under the provisions of that Act, and in addition to the detail of the officers of the Army and Navy now authorized to be detailed under the existing provisions of said Act, such retired officers of the Army and Navy of the United States as in his judgment may be required for that purpose, to act as instructors in military drill and tactics in schools in the United States, where such instruction shall have been authorized by the educational authorities thereof, and where the services of such instructors shall have been applied for by said authorities.

SEC. 2. That no detail shall be made under this Act to any school unless it shall pay the cost of commutation of quarters of the retired officers detailed thereto and the extra-duty pay to which the latter may be entitled by law to receive for the performance of special duty: Provided, That no detail shall be made under the provisions of this Act unless the officers to be detailed are willing to accept such position without compensation from the Government other than their retired pay.

The details authorized by section 1260, Revised Statutes, as amended by the act approved May 4, 1880, and by the act approved February 26, 1901, will be in addition to the number allowed by section 1225, Revised Statutes, and the amendments thereof, and may be made to incorporated institutions of learning of the requisite grade in any State, without reference to population or to the number of officers already serving therein.

WHY AMERICA SHOULD HOLD NAVAL SUPREMACY.

RICHMOND PEARSON HOBSON.

GREENSBORO, ALA., Nov. 25, 1903.

Hon. A. A. WILEY, M. C.,

House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.

DEAR SIR: I have the honor to request that upon the convening of Congress in regular session, you introduce "by request" the enclosed bill providing for the consecutive increase in the vessels of the U. S. Navy.

The question of proportionate increase in auxiliary material and in personel is left for additional legislation.

The provision leaving the determination of the types of vessels, the number of each type and the characteristics of each vessel, to the President, under professional and technical advice, is intended to insure homogeneous fleets and up-to-date vessels.

I estimate that the program provided for would make the United States the first naval power of the world in about eighteen years after its adoption and inauguration.

The commanding position guaranteed by naval supremacy is the natural, logical position for a great nation that has no enemies and hates no people. America, holding this position, marked out for her by manifest destiny, would secure her own protection and peace and would advance, by a mighty stride, the cause of peace and justice among all nations. Her movement forward into this position should be hailed with gladness by all peoples not bent on plunder and oppression.

Europe, Asia and Africa are joined by land; America is the Ocean's continent, and Nature, in shaping this continent, gave her bays, harbors, navigable rivers and great lakes as she did not give to the rest of the world combined.

The homes of twenty millions of America's citizens and more than half of America's manufacturing industries are located within gunshot of the water. On her seventeen thousand miles of coast line, on her bays, harbors, rivers and lakes, there is accumulated more American coastwise property and water-carried commerce calling for naval protection than there is similar property and commerce for all the continent of Europe combined, while America sends across the high seas to foreign markets more export property than any nation of the earth. America has the greatest interests in the world's new markets. With thousands of miles of coast line on the Pacific Ocean, and with thousands of miles of coast line on the Atlantic Ocean and water ways that approach the Pacific through the Isthmus of Panama, with the productiveness that equals that of all Europe combined, and with the highest elasticity of methods of production permitting readier response to new requirements, America has greater commercial interests at stake than any other nation in the mighty coming market of China and likewise in the coming new markets of South America and in the new markets of other undeveloped lands.

Thus, as a matter of insurance, to protect these vast maritime interests against injury, America should have the largest navy in the world. Indeed the true proportion would be more nearly maintained if America's navy approached in size the combined navies of the earth.

The United States is irrevocably committed to the fundamental principle of the Monroe doctrine, the protection of the weak in South America against conquest and oppression by the unjust strong. Our armies cannot march to South America; the enforcement of this principle, therefore, rests with the Navy.

In the alignment over this doctrine, as indicated by the recent Venezuelan incident, Great Britain is liable to be ranged with the Continental powers, placing America alone in front of combined Europe.

To make the doctrine permanently effective and secure, the American of French descent hasn't the slightest uncordial feeling for the American of German descent. America represents the coming together of the warring nations of Europe, their reconciliation for the higher life, for the new era of peace and industrialism. Great strides in spiritual progress have been made, till America stands not only as a nation of peace, a nation of almost unlimited individual liberty, but also as an altruistic nation, unique in all the world. When America opened up Japan, as referred to above, she never fired a gun, but left Japan free. When Japan paid three millions of dollars to the four powers taking part in the demonstration off Shimonoski the United States voluntarily returned to Japan every dollar of her fourth part. Neither Great Britain nor France nor the Netherlands returned a single dollar. In 1858, when an International Commission awarded to the United States $753,000 damages against China, the United States spontaneously returned $435,000 to the Chinese Government, finding that the Commissioner's awards were excessive. Not a European power returned a single dollar. In the recent disturbances in North China the European powers stood out for heavy damages. America again and again urged reduction. The Germans about Paris in 1870-71, acting like other European armies, starved the city into surrendering; the Americans, surrounding Santiago, invited the non-combatants out, as numerous as the investing army, and fed them on their own rations. After victorious battles the German armies hastened forward to Paris. After the battle of Santiago the American fleet was restrained at Guantnamo. When France sued for terms the Germans demanded the provinces of Alsace-Lorraine and five billions of francs for war indemnity. When Spain sued for terms America paid her twenty millions of dollars for what had already fallen by force of arms and transported her soldiers back to Spain. After pouring out blood and treasure in Cuba (and the same thing would have followed if a hundred times more blood and treasure had been required), America, with a helping hand and a hearty "God speed," gave Cuba her independence. If any international calamity occurs, the world expects to see the first relief ships—and the deepest-laden relief ships—sail forth from American harbors.

America's protest in behalf of the oppressed in Roumania and the massacred in Russia has great significance for the world as showing the way the wind is blowing. Armenian massacres, Macedonian massacres, shall not always blot the chart of civilization. America, rising in world greatness, will force new paragraphs into the laws of nations. Protesting in the name of humanity, and reminded in terms of old laws that it is none of her business, that she has no interests, America will reply that she claims interests wherever any section of the human race is made to suffer wrongly and unjustly.

Being the one great peace nation, America should progressively assume the duties of keeper of the world's peace. After preventing the farther extension of military systems, then, in stopping war, America will take away from militarism the spoils of war, the foods that feed it, and with the continuance of justice and peace, militarism could not compete with industrialism, so that economic conditions would force disarmament. While Europe cannot disarm itself, disarmament can be imposed from without. America is destined to disarm Europe by providing for the free play of the mighty forces of commerce and industry. This is America's glorious destiny. The embodiment herself of the new era. Heaven has allotted to America the task of peacefully overthrowing militarism and thereby extending the blessings of peace and industrialism until they reach all the peoples that dwell upon the earth.

It is evidently through the agency of her navy alone that America can fulfill all these her high duties to mankind. Thus, sacred duty, together with the security of vast interests, call for American naval supremacy.

It will be found, too, that the objections to her naval expansion are untenable. On the score of expense, America has unmeasured resources and at the same time is not burdened by a great national debt and does not have the expense of great standing armies, leaving the men to productive pursuits, increase of productiveness being the watchword of all.

A great navy, in preventing war, would be an important factor of economy. Millions for warships will save billions for war.

The various European powers ought now to prefer that America, neutral, friendly, peaceful America, rather than one of their own number, should hold naval supremacy. But in any event they must realize that all combined cannot ultimately compete with America. Therefore, the proposed program in which America proclaims that she intends to be first, will prevent competition.

Objection is raised by some who superficially confound naval power with military power, that naval expansion would tend to lead the nation into militarism. As a matter of fact, security through naval power permits a nation to dispense with military organization of its people. Naval power is simply a question of resources, capacity to pay for building and maintaining fleets, where the advantage comes from peace and uninterrupted industry.

With a navy equal to the combined navies of the world, the number of men required in her naval organization would only be a negligible handful, and that handful would dwell far away on the sea, where it could not influence the vast body of our population. No navy has ever usurped civil power or overthrown a home government. Further, in preventing war, a great navy would prevent tendencies to militarism.

Some fear that in holding naval power we should incur temptation to go to war. If America does not hold this power the military nations will hold it, and if there were a temptation involved surely it would be safer for us than for military powers to be called on to meet the temptation.

As a matter of fact, the responsibilities that go with naval power, particularly the protection of the weak, would steady America and make her more careful and tolerant, would ennoble her life.

The one besetting sin and inherent weakness and danger in our free institutions is that, as individuals and as a nation, we tend too much to live unto ourselves. The individual absorbed in personal affairs tends to forget and neglect his duty to the State. The nation absorbed in domestic affairs tends to forget world affairs and neglect world duties. The neglect of the individual entails maladministration, glaring in municipal governments. The neglect of the nation entails decay of the navy and the relegation of America to an inferior role in world affairs where America's influence is so much needed.

No man can live unto himself, neither can a nation. America is the nation with the ten talents. She cannot dig a hole in the ground and bury ten talents; on the contrary, she must live the life of the good and faithful servant; and it is only in living such a life, in the fulfillment of duty, that the nation can expect the smile and continued blessing of Heaven.

In conclusion, I wish to add that in the course of speeches developing the above arguments, addressed to more than five hundred thousand American citizens, in forty-four States and Territories, I have never yet found one citizen, man or woman, who, after hearing the arguments, differed as to the conclusion. If the people's Representatives will act, the people will sustain them in making effective a program like the one in the enclosed bill, which only meets the requirements necessary to safeguard our country's vast, vital, material business interests and to fulfill her sacred duties to mankind.

With assurance of high esteem, I remain,

Very truly yours,

(Signed)

Richmond Pearson Hobson

PARAMOUNT IMPORTANCE
OF
IMMEDIATE ADOPTION
OF
PROGRESSIVE NAVAL PROGRAM.

RICHMOND PEARSON HOBSON.

COPY OF LETTER TO MEMBERS OF CONGRESS.

GREENSBORO, ALA., Jan. 9th, 1904.

DEAR SIR:

Extended technical study of naval construction and naval warfare has convinced me that the conditions which now confront the United States call for the immediate adoption of a naval program, which when carried out will put the United States in a position of supremacy on the sea.

I have requested Hon. Edmund W. Pettus, Senator from Alabama, to introduce a bill which will accomplish this, and which is a counterpart to a similar bill already introduced in the House by Hon. A. A. Wiley (by request).

I beg leave to hand you herewith a copy of my letter to Senator Pettus, with a few alterations, and trust that you may find yourself in accord with the reasons therein given for the passage of this bill, and be able to give the measure your support.

In addition to what is there said, permit me to add that the endorsement of the idea of American naval supremacy does not seem to me at all inconsistent with the advocacy of treaties of arbitration, such as are now before the Senate, nor with participating in a General Conference of Nations, such as has been called by the President upon request of the Interparliamentary Union, nor with the advocacy in such Conference of the establishment of a Permanent Congress of Nations, to supplement the Hague Court, as suggested by the Resolution of the Interparliamentary Union. On the contrary, these seem to me to be the three great steps called for by existing conditions.

If the execution of perpetual treaties of arbitration without reservation, between the United States and all Nations, and the establishment of a Permanent Congress of Nations, were now adopted as the policy of the United States, it would require a long time to accomplish these things. And until they are accomplished facts, the United States can not neglect its Navy without being unfaithful to the interests of the American people and of human liberty, of which this Nation is the chief exponent and champion, as is evidenced by its very constitution, and its successful maintenance of the Monroe Doctrine. The treaties of arbitration now before the Senate include a very limited class of controversies. Questions not included are reserved for trial by war when diplomacy fails, and these reserved questions are the vital ones. Reserving vital questions from treaties of arbitration necessitates naval preparation for making our idea on these questions prevail. And if any preparation for war ought to be made it should be adequate. It is not worth doing at all, unless it is worth doing well.

The vital questions most apt to call for the use of our armed forces are those with which the Navy alone can deal. We can assemble an Army on short notice. But it requires several years to build one battleship. And the time required to carry out a naval program necessitates its formulation years in advance. A change in conditions calling for naval expenditures can be met at any time by decreasing the appropriation already made. But when the crisis comes, it is too late to make naval preparations. It must be met with the vessels already afloat. The United States will, it is to be hoped, push forward as rapidly as other Nations can be induced to co-operate to that end, treaties of arbitration and an International Congress, as means of administering justice among Nations. But, meanwhile, navies are the basis of the Foreign policies of Nations and particularly of the United States, lying isolated over theseas. And while this is true, the United States should put herself and keep herself in a position to see that her idea as to what is just and right shall not fail for want of an adequate Navy.

If the United States fails to adopt now a naval program which would give this Government controlling influence on the sea, we will have to take the consequences of neglecting to use proper foresight in what are perhaps the vitalest political questions of the day.

Requesting your consideration of this bill and the accompanying reasons for its passage, and trusting that it may receive your support, I remain,

Very truly yours,

Richmond Pearson Hobson.

COPY OF LETTER TO HON. EDMUND W. PETTUS, SENATOR FROM ALABAMA.

WITH SLIGHT MODIFICATIONS.

GREENSBORO, ALA., Dec. 3d, 1904.

SENATOR E. W. PETTUS,
U. S. SENATE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

DEAR SIR:

I have the honor to request that upon the convening of Congress in regular session, you introduce "by request" the enclosed bill, providing for the consecutive increase in the vessels of the United States Navy.

This bill is the same as the bill introduced "by request" by Representative A. A. Wiley of Alabama, December 9th, 1903, H. R. Bill No. 6490, 58th Congress, 2d Session, after striking out on page 1 lines 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7, and substituting the word "current" for the word "next" in line 11, and on page 2 substituting the word "next" for the word "following" in line 3.

I beg to enclose herewith, for your consideration, a reprint of my letter of Nov. 25th, 1903, to Mr. Wiley, setting forth the reasons why America should hold naval supremacy, as provided for by the bill.

Since the writing of that letter two world events of the first magnitude have occurred: the undertaking of the Panama Canal, and the breaking out of war in the Orient, which emphasize the importance and urgency of this question, as having a fundamental bearing upon the security of our vast interests, of our peace, and, in large measure, the peace of the world and the progress of civilization.

The building of the Panama Canal will greatly affect the commerce and trade routes of the world, but the profoundest effect will be felt on the shores of the Pacific, in shortening the distances to the great commercial and industrial centers.

After careful calculation based on much study and on an extended sojourn in China, where I inspected the work of hundreds of Chinese laborers, which gave me an insight into their industrial capacity, I estimate that by 1950, China properly opened up will add nearly five billion dollars to the World's commerce, and that on a fair footing, with an open door and equal chances for all, America should easily secure three billions of this, or one-fifth more than her total present commerce. I estimate that by the middle of the present century, the Pacific will be the seat of a commerce greater than the present commerce of the World, that of the Eastern Pacific exceeding five billions, and that of the Western Pacific exceeding ten billions, yearly.

The United States from her location, natural resources, and productive capacity of her people is entitled to a very large share in this commerce. And in fact is more vitally interested than all other Nations combined. In order to properly protect her interests, the U. S. must become the paramount power on the sea. Decisive action must now be taken to secure our proportionate part of this vast business and the first glance shows that all our policies in this field must be founded on an adequate Navy. A closer examination shows a startling situation, what is practically a conspiracy by the military powers of Europe to keep America out of this coming market in China, the greatest of all markets, which can be thwarted only by immediate action for the development of an adequate Navy. The military powers have combined to seize China by force, and partition it among themselves, thus fixing their system upon the Chinese people and leaving the industrial Nations out of the Chinese market.

The first step in this direction was taken at the conclusion of the war between China and Japan, when the Continental Powers intervened to despoil Japan of the fruits of victory, preventing the consummation of the treaty of Shimonoseki, that would have ceded to Japan part of Manchuria, including the Liaoting Peninsula with Port Arthur. They foresaw in Japan a stumbling-block in the way of their designs on China, and prevented her from obtaining a foothold on the Continent. In this action there was no thought of protecting China and preserving a market open to all, for soon Russia came to occupy the same territory refused Japan, Germany seized Kiaochao and part of the Shantung Peninsula, Italy attempted to seize a Chinese port, and France became active on the frontier of Indo-China.

The next step in the seizure of China is planned as the outcome of the present war, and from indications it appears that Austria-Hungary is in the agreement with the other Continental Powers. Indeed, the seizure of China is the very purpose of the war, and to this end Russia is conducting her war operations.

The chief aim of this year's campaign has been to change the public opinion of Europe, which at the outset was in sympathy with Japan, so that the peoples would stand with their Governments for siding at a later date with Russia. Thus it is that Russia has conducted a pre-arranged system of retreats, and that the German inspired press has led the hue and cry of Yellow Peril, pretending that Japan is attempting to incite the Chinese to a joint uprising to drive the white race out of the Orient, and possibly menace the World.

As a matter of fact, Japan, being an Island Kingdom, could be cut off from China on twenty-four hours' notice, and could not produce a Chinese menace without the consent of the Maritime Powers. Furthermore, Japan has thrown all of her own territory open to the commerce of the World, and has made a deliberate proposition as a basis of peace to have Manchuria and the rest of China opened free to all Nations on an equal footing.

Nevertheless, the Russian and Continental campaign has been eminently successful. The press of all the Continental Powers has changed sides, and the peoples now stand with their Governments on the side of Russia. The combination is ready to move as a unit in the program laid out for the coming campaigns, and we might expect renewed reports of Chinese disturbances and Japanese intrigues in China, Russia reporting upon the affairs in Mongolia, France upon the affairs in Kwangsi, and Germany in Shantung and Chili. The agents of these powers will probably facilitate and exaggerate the Chinese disturbances, and then, upon the pretext of preventing massacre and a general Chinese uprising, the armies, by pre-arranged program, will enter and occupy the Provinces of China, never again to leave, and the dismemberment of China may then be regarded as an accomplished fact, for the Powers would proceed gradually to absorb the commerce, each one of the part it had seized, the industrial powers would be left out of the greatest of all markets, and one-third of mankind would be curtailed in development, and pass under the military yoke. Opposition on the part of Great Britain is evidently anticipated, and the seizure of British ships, followed later by the firing upon British fishing vessels, appears as part of a plan to excite British indignation, so that at the opportune moment the British may be the more easily provoked to commit an act of war which would at once put into operation the Russian treaty of alliance with France, and this would be the signal for Germany, Austria-Hungary and Italy to join Russia and France.

Now, the British Navy could probably cope with the Russian and French Navies united, being maintained on this basis, but even with the Japanese Navy added it could not meet the combined Navies of the Continent.

Thus the present war is producing a grouping that imperils the balance of power, placing a heavy preponderance on the side of the military as against the industrial nations, or on the side of war as against peace forces. No thoughtful observer can fail to see here all the elements of a World war. It is idle to imagine that the United States, the foremost industrial Power, with more at stake in the Orient than any Nation, could look on with indifference. It is time for Americans to awaken to the fact that our Nation is marked by inevitable destiny to be the great stabilizing and peace force for the World, to extend the dominion of growing industrialism until it becomes universal.

These two antagonistic systems, Militarism, the old system where might rules, and Industrialism, the new system that requires peace, have now met for their death struggle. The Orient is the battleground. China is the objective. If militarism succeeds in intrenching itself upon the Yellow Race, securing the myriads upon which to levy for men and for means, then it will perpetuate its harsh reign for centuries yet to come, at least throughout the Eastern Hemisphere.

On the other hand, if thwarted from obtaining the spoils of war and left simply to a fair competition, since they must take strong men away from productive pursuits, militarism will be unable to hold its own, and will be compelled to capitulate to industrialism, and to enter into political as well as industrial organizations which give equal opportunities to all and promote the cause of general peace.

As we have treaties guaranteeing to the United States the privileges of the most favored Nation in trading with China, we have an indisputable right to a fair and equal chance in that great neutral market; not only is our prosperity at stake, but our peace and the peace of the World, and the cause of civilization. Therefore, at this critical juncture we cannot fail to do our duty, and we must take a stand against any move towards the seizure of China, even at the risk of war.

It must be clear to any intelligent observer that our influence here is simply in direct proportion to the size of our Navy. Were our Navy only commensurate with our resources, with our needs and duties, the situation would become simple. Our influence would keep the balance on the side of peace and insure all the blessings of general peace, but unfortunately, our Navy is so inadequate, our influence may not be sufficient, and as a consequence we may now stand upon the verge of a World war. But this makes it all the more imperative that we now formulate a naval program which will speedily place this Nation in its rightful position in World politics.

The poise is so evenly balanced that even now peace and war may hinge upon the naval program now to be adopted by the United States. We cannot ignore the titanic efforts of Russia to hasten her naval preparations. It is folly to think that this has only Japan in view.

Apart from these special designs on China, the present relation of Nations to each other necessitates National preparation for war. When the advocates of treaties of arbitration and of a perfect political organization for the administration of justice among Nations, through duly constituted international Courts and Congresses, shall have carried their plans to a successful conclusion, then decrease in naval appropriations by the United States will be in order. But under existing conditions, it is perfectly consistent to advocate American naval supremacy and at the same time treaties of arbitration and a Congress of Nations to discover the principles of law which the Hague Court must apply to particular controversies. And it is only by making adequate naval preparation at this time that the United States can prevent the perpetration of international crimes and also succeed in its efforts to perfect a system for the administration of justice among Nations through political and governmental agencies. The fact that the United States has made a distinct move for the accomplishment of this by the invitation for the assembling of the Nations in a second conference at The Hague, has brought to light an opposition to this movement by Russia and her continental allies, who have designs on China. Though Russia's initiative brought the first Hague Conference together, she has declined to take part in the Conference called by this Government until after the present war is over, though this present war may precipitate a World war in bringing about the dismemberment of China. In this connection it must be remembered that the European powers proceeded to ignore the Hague Court even after they had joined with the United States in its creation. The attitude of Russia and her continental allies to the movement which has been set on foot by the President, at the request of the Interparliamentary Union, for continuing the work begun at The Hague five years ago, should make it plain to the advocates of peace that the hope of their cause rests upon America, and not upon the Nations under the sway of militarism. With America leading and the Nations that have abandoned militarism following, the cause of peace can be won.

I am persuaded that America's successful accomplishment of her mission in this great cause rests upon her adoption at this time of a naval program which will put her in a commanding position upon the sea. Armed with the right idea for administering international justice, and for the perpetuation of peace, and, at the same time, armed with an invincible Navy, ready for use until such time as all Nations are prepared to adopt, for international affairs, the political principles for which the United States stands, this Nation can go forward to the accomplishment of her Twentieth Century work with confidence that it will be as successfully performed as her work in the past century has been. And for the accomplishment of these things the minimum size of her Navy must be such as to keep the balance of power on the side of the Nations that stand for the "open door," the integrity of the Asiatic Kingdoms, and for peace on this basis, in any alignment of the Nations of Europe against these ideas.

Therefore, in view of the evident advantage, and in fact the necessity, of consecutiveness in the naval program, I earnestly recommend the passage of the enclosed bill or its equivalent, and certainly that not less than sixty millions be appropriated at the present session for new construction.

In view of the present critical condition in the East, I would recommend a supplemental appropriation for overtime work to hasten the completion of all vessels now building and of vessels to be authorized by the present session of Congress.

May I add that since the original bill was introduced last year, I have had occasion to deliver over 300 speeches in all parts of the country advocating a strong foreign policy and the speedy upbuilding of the Navy, and everywhere there have been conclusive evidences that the public mind would endorse and sustain the proposed legislation by Congress.

With assurances of highest personal esteem, I remain,

Very truly yours,

Richmond Pearson Hobson.

AN ACT regulating the hours of labor, leaves of absence, and transportation of officers and employes in the Philippine Civil Service, and repealing act numbered eighty and all acts amendatory thereof.

By authority of the United States, be it enacted by the Philippine Commission, that:

SECTION 1. The required office hours of all bureaus and offices in the Philippine Civil Service shall be fixed by Executive Order, but they shall not be less than six and one-half hours of labor each day, not including time for lunch and exclusive of Sundays and of days declared public holidays by law or Executive Order: Provided, That, when the nature of the duties to be performed or the interests of the public service require it, officers and employes may, by direction of the head of the bureau or office, be required to work on Sundays and holidays without additional compensation unless otherwise specifically authorized by law. It shall be the duty of heads of bureaus or offices to require of all employes, of whatever grade or class, not less than the number of hours of labor authorized by law or Executive Order, but the head of any department, bureau or office may, in the interests of the public service, extend the daily hours of labor therein specified for any or all of the employes under him, and in case of such extension it shall be without additional compensation unless otherwise provided by law: Provided, however, That during the heated term from the first day of April to the fifteenth day of June in each year and on Saturdays throughout the year, the Civil Governor may by Executive Order reduce the required number of hours of labor on each day to five hours. This Executive Order shall not oblige the head of a department, bureau or office in the Philippine Civil Service to reduce the hours of labor to five hours, but it shall be within his discretion to reduce the number of hours if consistent with the needs of the public service; nor shall this provision be regarded as conferring a right upon officers or employes. This reduction of the required hours of labor shall not apply to the officers or employes of any bureau or office to whom an overtime wage is allowed and paid. The length of sessions of the Courts shall be regulated by existing law, but the provisions of this Act shall apply to all officers and employes in the Bureau of Justice except judges. The number of hours for the daily sessions of the public schools shall be fixed by the Secretary of Public Instruction, but they shall not be less than five hours a day.

SEC. 2. (a) After at least two years' continuous, faithful and satisfactory service, the Civil Governor or proper head of a department shall, subject to the necessities of the public service, and upon proper application therefore, grant each regularly and permanently appointed officer or employe in the Civil Service, Insular or Provincial, or of the city of Manila, except as hereinafter provided, accrued leave of absence with full pay, inclusive of Sundays and of days declared public holidays by law or Executive Order, for each year of service in accordance with the following schedule: An employee receiving an annual salary of less than nine hundred dollars shall be granted twenty days' leave; an employe receiving an annual salary of from six hundred to nine hundred dollars with board and quarters, and an officer or employe receiving an annual salary of nine hundred dollars or more but less than eighteen hundred dollars, shall be granted thirty days' leave; an officer or employe receiving an annual salary of eighteen hundred dollars or more shall be granted thirty-five days' leave. Leave shall accrue while an officer or employe is on duly authorized leave of absence with pay.

(b) If an officer or employe elects to postpone the taking of any or all of the leave to which he is entitled under this section, such leave may accumulate until January one, nineteen hundred and five, after which date no person shall at any time have to his credit more than the accrued leave allowed for five years' service, and if his salary changes he shall receive the same amount of leave and pay as if he had taken the leave while receiving the salary at which it accrued.

(c) An officer or employe who has served in the Islands for three years or more, or two years if appointed under the provisions of Act numbered eighty as amended, and who has accumulated to his credit the accrued leave allowed for two full years, may be granted permission to visit the United States: Provided, That such permission shall not be granted oftener than once in every three years.

(d) A person in the teaching service shall not be granted accrued leave in accordance with the schedule provided in this section, but in lieu thereof he may be granted leave on full pay during vacation periods, with permission to spend a vacation period in the United States not oftener than once in every three years.

(e) In case an officer, teacher or other employe is granted leave to visit the United States, he shall be allowed with half pay, in addition to the leave granted, sixty days for the time occupied by him in going to and returning from the United States if he is serving in Manila, and if serving in the provinces sixty days plus the actual and necessary time consumed from date of departure from station to date of departure from Manila, and on returning from date of arrival at Manila to date of arrival at station; such half salary to be paid on return to duty. On the completion of two years of continuous, faithful and satisfactory service, after returning to the Islands from leave of absence to visit the United States granted for three or more years' service, he shall be allowed his actual and necessary traveling expenses from his place of residence in the United States to Manila if he come by the route and steamer directed.

(f) Semiskilled and unskilled laborers, temporary and emergency employes, persons receiving a daily wage or salary, persons enlisted for a term of years, persons in the United States Civil Service who are paid in whole or in part from Insular funds, and persons who receive compensation for official duties performed in connection with private business, vocation or profession, such duties requiring only a portion of their time, shall not be entitled to the leave provided in this section.

(g) The provisions of this section shall be retroactive in effect so as to entitle officers and employes of the Philippine Civil Service, whether serving as such by regular appointment or by detail from the Army, the Navy, or the Civil Service of the United States, previous to the passage of this Act, to any accrued leave to which they would have been entitled had Act numbered eighty, as amended, been applicable to them at the date of their employment or detail, computing the leave in the case of an officer on the basis of the salary and allowances received while on detail, and in the case of an enlisted man on the basis of first salary received in the Philippine Civil Service. No application for leave of absence presented by an officer or employe who has heretofore resigned without applying for leave shall be considered if presented after July first, nineteen hundred and four, or by an officer or employe who resigns after January first, nineteen hundred and four, if his application is not presented within six months of the date of the acceptance of his resignation.

SEC. 3. After at least six months' continuous, faithful and satisfactory service the Civil Governor or proper head of a department may, in his discretion, grant each officer or employe entitled to the accrued leave provided in section two of this Act in addition to such accrued leave, vacation leave of absence with full pay, inclusive of Sundays and of days declared public holidays by law or Executive Order, for each calendar year of service, in accordance with the following schedule: An employe receiving an annual salary of less than one thousand dollars may be granted twenty-one days' vacation leave; an officer or employe receiving an annual salary of one thousand dollars or more may be granted twenty-eight days' vacation leave. Vacation leave must be taken within the calendar year in which it is earned. The vacation leave provided for only one calendar year may be allowed in connection with accrued leave granted with or without permission to visit the United States. In cases of resignation vacation leave shall not be allowed in addition to accrued leave. All applications for vacation leave shall be made on a form prescribed by the Philippine Civil Service Board.

SEC. 4 (a) Absence from duty of teachers due to illness shall be charged against their vacations, and with the consent of the Secretary of Public Instruction they may remain on duty during vacations for a period equal to that lost on account of illness, in which case no deduction of pay shall be made on account of absence caused by illness.

(b) Absence of other regularly and permanently appointed officers and employes in the Philippine Civil Service on account of illness shall be charged first against vacation leave and then against accrued leave, until both are exhausted, when further absence shall be without pay.

(c) Payment of salary to an officer or employe for any absence during his first six months of service properly chargeable to vacation leave or during his first two years of service properly chargeable to accrued leave shall be withheld until such leave may properly be taken under the provisions of section two or three of this Act: Provided, however, That in case of absence due to illness the Civil Governor or proper head of department may direct that payment for such absence be not withheld if not in excess of the vacation and accrued leave to his credit. In case absence is on account of wounds or injuries incurred in the performance of duty and extends beyond the vacation leave to his credit the Civil Governor or proper head of department may direct that such further absence shall be on full pay. If the absence caused by illness, wounds, or injuries shall exceed six months in any twelve months the officer or employe shall be immediately separated from the service.

SEC. 5. If a regularly appointed officer or employe in the Philippine Civil Service who has rendered faithful and satisfactory service shall die while in the service, the unused accrued leave that might have been granted at the time of death shall be determined, and the salary equivalent of the accrued leave shall be paid to the person or persons entitled by law to receive the same.

SEC. 6. Whenever upon the resignation or death of an officer or employe it is necessary to the interests of the public service that the position occupied by him shall be immediately filled, the Civil Governor or proper head of department may direct that all accrued leave granted him be commuted from the funds of the Government, Insular or Provincial, or of the city of Manila, in which he was serving at the time of his resignation or death. If he was in the service of the Insular Government payment shall be made by settlement warrant from the Insular Salary and Expense Fund; if he was in the service of the city of Manila payment shall be made by settlement warrant from the Salary and Expense Fund of the city of Manila; and if he was in the service of a province, the Provincial Board of such province is hereby authorized, upon direction of the Civil Governor as above provided, to commute from the provincial funds the accrued leave of absence granted such officer or employe. If there is no urgent necessity for filling the position at once, payment for the accrued leave granted shall be made from the salary appropriated for the position last filled by him.

This section shall be retroactive in effect so far as necessary to authorize in cases now pending the procedure herein provided.

SEC. 7. All applications for accrued leave of absence shall be made on a form prescribed by the Civil Service Board, and shall first be acted upon by the Chief of the bureau or office, and by him submitted to the Civil Service Board for its recommendation. The application shall then be forwarded by the Board to the head of the department in which the applicant is employed for his final decision, except in respect to those bureaus or offices not under any department, in which cases the recommendations of the Board shall be forwarded to the Civil Governor for his final decision.

SEC. 8. The Civil Governor is authorized to promulgate Executive Orders regulating the method of enforcing the provisions of this Act, including the withholding of salary for leave granted.

SEC. 9. The appointment of all persons residing in the United States to the Philippine Civil Service, whether by transfer from the United States Civil Service or otherwise, shall be subject to the following conditions:

(a) A person residing in the United States who is appointed to the Philippine Civil Service may pay his traveling expenses from the place of his residence in the United States to Manila: Provided, That if any part of his traveling expenses is borne by the Government of the Philippine Islands, ten per cent. of his monthly salary shall be retained until the amount retained is equal to the amount borne by the Government: And provided further, That if he shall come by the route and steamer directed, his actual and necessary traveling expenses shall be refunded to him at the expiration of two years' satisfactory service in the Philippines.

(b) He shall be allowed half salary from the date of embarkation and full salary from the date of his arrival in the Islands: Provided, That he proceed directly to the Islands; otherwise, he shall be allowed half salary for such time only as is ordinarily required to perform the journey by the route directed: And provided further, That such half salary shall not be paid until after the expiration of two years of satisfactory service in the Philippines.

(c) A person residing in the United States accepting an appointment to a position in the Civil Service of the Government of the Philippine Islands, under the conditions named in this Act, shall, before receiving such appointment, execute a contract and deliver it to the Chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs, War Department, wherein the appointee shall stipulate that he will remain in the service of the Government of the Philippine Islands for at least two years, unless released by the Civil Governor or proper head of a department. A breach of the conditions provided in the contract or a removal for cause shall require the proper officer to withhold payment of all salary and traveling expenses due to the person employed and who has violated the conditions of his contract or been removed for cause, and shall debar such person from ever entering again the public service of the Philippine Government in any of its branches. In such case, an action shall lie for the recovery of the amount expended by the Government in bringing the employe to the Philippine Islands.

(d) Irrespective of leave granted, a regularly appointed officer or employe who has rendered continuous, faithful and satisfactory service for three years or more after arrival in the Philippine Islands shall, upon his retirement from the service, be allowed half salary for thirty days in addition to full salary for the period which may be granted him as leave of absence under the provisions of this Act, and if appointed prior to the passage of this Act, he shall also be furnished transportation from Manila to San Francisco, or transportation of equal cost to the Government by any other route.

SEC. 10. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to Judges of the Supreme Court, the Courts of First Instance, the Court of Land Registration and the Court of Customs Appeals, but their leaves of absence and traveling expenses shall be governed by existing law or such law as may be hereafter enacted.

SEC. 11. All special contracts made with appointees of the Philippine Civil Service prior to the passage of this Act shall remain unaffected by the terms and provisions of this Act.

SEC. 12. Act numbered eighty and all amendments thereof and all other Acts or parts of Acts in conflict with the provisions hereof are hereby repealed: Provided, however, That all leaves of absence accruing prior to January first, nineteen hundred and four, shall be computed under the schedule provided in section two of said Act numbered eighty as amended.

SEC. 13. The public good requiring the speedy enactment of this bill, the passage of the same is hereby expedited in accordance with section two of "An Act prescribing the order or procedure by the Commission in the enactment of laws," passed September twenty-sixth, nineteen hundred.

SEC. 14. This Act shall take effect on its passage, but its provisions shall be retroactive and effective as of January first, nineteen hundred and four.

Enacted, January 12, 1904.
