

THE LARUE COUNTY HERALD,

OFFICIAL COUNTY PAPER.

Hodgenville, Ky., Oct 9 1886.

James K. Patterson

Dear Sir:- I in acceptance of your offer of Oct. 28, I will say that Mr. Kirkpatrick, a young man of this county wishes to secure the benefits of your offer, and has applied to me for appointment. He is a steady, sober young man and will apply himself well to his duties. He is only in moderate circumstances, and he wishes to know on what terms he can secure board etc. and if he can pay any of it in work. He is of one of our "first" families and I think will be a good advertisement for your school. I take pleasure in recommending him, & in fact, know of no one more worthy. If you can arrange agreeable terms etc, as perhaps you will understand better than I do, it will place me as well as others under obligations

Prof. Jas K. Patterson,

Dear Sir:

Lucien my son has been through Arithmetic twice and has been in Algebra as far as fractions. He has not studied Eng. Gram. since year before last. He had at that time a pretty general knowledge of the subject. He took up the study of Latin and is quite familiar with Bullion's Latin Gram. as far as Syntax, and has read about half or a little more of the exercises in Bullion's Latin Reader before fables. Don't know if he is examined what kind of an examination he can pass in Eng. Gram. and Arithmetic. He is quite timid and is easily confused. I would judge that his knowledge of Arithmetic and of Eng. Gram. is such that he might take up Algebra and the study of Latin. This latter study will throw further light on the subject of Eng. Gram. But I leave the matter with you to do with him what you think best. Still I would like him to be put in his studies as far as he is capable of being, as he is getting along in age. He has had only very ordinary advantages, or he would be further along in his studies and more perfect in them.

Sincerely Yours

Dear Sir.

I would like to know something in regard to my son Ethelbert. It seems to be impossible to hear from him since my return. I cannot help but feel uneasy about him when he neglects to write to his mother. I would be glad if you would ascertain if he is in his room at night and when out of it something of his whereabouts. I think it is certainly right and proper to notice a boy in these two very important particulars. Ethel may be led off is the fear I have for him. Knowing how many boys are always ready

Dear Sir
I presume ^{and} that you have read account of my brother's death who died on the first of inst. He had to quit the Law School at Lincolnati East Dec, on the account of his delicate health ^{and} weak eyes I guess you remember how it was when ^{he} you attended your school four or five years ago this is ^{the} fifth time he had to quit school on the account of bad
health ^{and} weak eyes he was 28 years ^{at last} Christmas he ^{it was} thought high time for him to be up and doing something but his health and eyes would not admit so.

You can imagine it was very discouraging as he very often remarks since he returned from school last time though he was cheerful at times and we could not see that there was any thing wrong with his ^{mind} ~~mind~~ we never had suspected at the least he would ever suicide but on the first inst.
he borrowed a 38 calibre pistol and went up stairs to his own bed and we imagine he sat down and ^{took} deliberate aim and shot himself rite through the center of the brain he lived two hours but was not conscious never spoke Oh! it was so hard to give him up but there is some ^{great} consolation and that is we know he is in the

Pres. J. K. Patterson.

Dear Sir,

I write to ascertain if there is a student in the college who would like to work out his board in a private family. We live just at the city limits on the Versailles Pike. I have a horse to attend to, and two cows to feed and milk.

This is about all the work he would have to do. The kindest reason for wanting him however is because I desire a young boy who would always be here at night.

My husband's business (assistant attorney for the Kentucky & Ohio Rail Road) keeps him from home most of the time. My family consists of two small children and a niece who attends your college. Knowing there were always some young men who desired to attend college with as little expense as possible, and being so alone I thought perhaps I ^{could} get one who would like to board here for the help he could render me.
In inclement weather I find it quite inconvenient, with my little ones to attend to, to always take our niece to school and then go after ^{her}. But I am not willing to trust a negro boy to drive her to and from the school with her.

If you have such a young man among your students it would be a great accommodation to me. If you would be so kind as to let me know at your earliest convenience.

I remain

Yours respectfully
Mrs. Sarah Phipps.

Dear Sir: At the request of my sister - Mrs. Mary Fitzhugh Johnson I write to inform you of the death of her son, Azim O. Johnson.

He was taken sick the first of Oct. with Typhoid Fever and after a long & painful illness passed away night before last. His oldest sister died on the 23rd of Oct. of the same disease.

Both of them we think took the fever from their mother whom they nursed through it during the summer.

Azim was a dear, good boy & much loved by all his family relatives & friends.
He had been studying hard for some months & in March erected a Telegraph wire connecting his own home with four other farm houses & had eight pupils in Telegraphy. He was just ready to take an Office when he was taken sick. He was a Christian having made a very bright profession a year ago last Feb.
Has been praying in public ever since & the oldest Church members in the neighborhood tell me they had looked forward to the time when they should be called away & were relying on Azim as the most promising one to fill a vacant place.
He was a devoted son, a loving tender brother, an affectionate stepson, a true friend, and we feel his loss deeply. We have no fears or doubts as to his future. He never forgot, but spoke of you very, very often in terms of highest praise & in the sweet affectionate manner - so much so that his Mother urged me to write you today. His funeral will be preached this P.M. & he will be buried in a beautiful spot by the Church he so much loved.

The family wish to thank you for the kindly interest you manifested in Azim's behalf - & in which I join them for I loved Azim & was proud to know.

Yours respectfully

Sir, inclosed please find six cents, for which please answer the following questions, for my information:

I am a candidate for membership of the state college of Ky. If I am selected, "can I enter at any time?" What advantage does the one student sent by the board of examiners, have over any other person, preparing to teach who is admitted free of tuition? Do the four students sent from the county have the privilege of boarding in the dormitory, and do they have access to the compensated labor system? Will I have to pay the whole amount of my board on entering the college?

Can I go half the term, then return home and teach five months and after wards, return and finish my course?

You will greatly oblige me, by giving the desired information

On receipt of your favor of Friday, I visited my son. Also called on you at your residence but as you were lying down did not disturb you. I have had a serious talk with John, concerning his studies and from his promises, hope he will give you no further trouble. He says that you shall have no further occasion to write me concerning his lack of diligence. Please put him in Physics at once and hold him to it; and to whatever you deem proper for him to study. Do not hesitate to reprimand him for idleness or other faults if necessary. I have his well doing very much at heart, and cannot give up the idea of stopping his education now.

Please to tell him the consequences of idleness, and call his attention to your rules with many thanks I remain yours truly S. F. Rock.

Dear Sir, I received your statement of my sons standing in two classes. I am very sorry that it is so ~~low~~ low. Jim has had no opportunity of going to school in our common schools in the last 4 or 5 years. Caused by having very weak eyes. I thought they ^{had} gotten well, but he tells me the Dr has been prescribing for them since he went to Lexington. I hope you will have his teachers give him some private lectures on his studies. I hope he will do better this year. Yours truly J. B. Haydon

Dear Sir:-

Will you kindly send to my address, a catalogue containing curriculum names of students in attendance yesterday and especially do I want a list of the Alumni of your institution.

Can you refer me to some one who can give me something of the antecedents and record of one C. S. Perry who is said to have been a student of your institution in 1878-79-80,?

I have written once before but without getting a reply, and as the importance is urgent I write again.

Dear Sir,

I am glad the Crandle trouble, has been disposed of. And as matters had gone so far, probably in the only way possible. I trust no permanent harm will result. Am glad to hear a good report of my nephew. He is a bright boy & I hope to make of him a useful man. I parted with Prof. Seavey at Auburn on the evening of the 13th. That being the last of our series of meetings. That great good has been accomplished for the Station & College I have no doubt. I took occasion at every place to explain the working of the College. & tell how students could be sent. Cost &c. Prof. Seavey's lucid explanations of his experiments work. was a revelation to the farmers. & will do more to bring them into sympathy with the College. than all the news paper advertising we could do in twelve months.

has made a splendid impression on the people. Modest, affable, and capable, he has fully demonstrated to us all, that he is the right man in the right place. He endeared himself to us all by his genial & kindly manners. we had splendid meetings at almost every place. And at several a perfect ovation. A few more trips of this kind, in different parts of the State, will so fix the usefulness and importance of the College & Station in the hearts of the people that no adverse legislation need be feared. I explained every where that more room was needed, that more boys might be cheaply boarded and cheaply educated.

Farmers Institutes, such as we have been holding should be provided for by the State, as they are now in many other States. But in our State, especially in regard to legislation for the benefit of Agriculture, we are miles behind the procession. Thanks for your invitation, but the kind of lectures I give is scarcely suited to college folk. Say to M. S. we are all well.
