DR. OTIS A. SINGLETARY
President, University of Kentucky

The University of Kentucky has become one of the major institutions of higher learning in the United States under the leadership of Dr. Otis Singletary, the eighth president of the University.

Dr. Singletary was named president of the University in August, 1969. He had previously served as executive vice-chancellor for academic affairs in the University of Texas System and director of the Job Corps program for the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Dr. Singletary, a native of Gulfport, Miss., holds degrees from Millsaps College and Louisiana State University.

As president of the principal institution of higher learning in the Commonwealth, Dr. Singletary is greatly concerned with the University's role as a land-grant institution, a "people's university" accessible to all who can profit from education.

In the eight years he has been president, the University has grown to where there are now some 22,000 students on the Lexington campus and more than 17,000 students in UK's 13 community colleges, and the University has become one of the major research institutions in the country.

Recognition of his service to the University was evidenced by the UK Alumni Association, which presented to Dr. Singletary its Alumni Service Award—an honor rarely bestowed upon a non-alumnus of the University.

Dr. Singletary is the author of two books and several monographs.

A Navy veteran of World War II and the Korean Conflict, he is a commander in the U.S. Naval Reserve. He and Mrs. Singletary, the former Gloria Walton, have three children: Bonnie, Scot and Kendall.

The Singletarys live at Maxwell Place, traditional home of UK presidents.

CLIFF HAGAN
Director of Athletics

Progress and excitement have marked Cliff Hagan's first two years as director of athletics at the University of Kentucky, and football has been a major part of the overall success of his program.

Two of his personal "high peaks" last year were possession of the beer barrel and the Peach Bowl trophy, respectively, after the Wildcats defeated Tennessee at Knoxville and North Carolina at Atlanta.

The beer barrel, symbol of rivalry between the Wildcats and Volunteers, had been in Knoxville since about 1965; and Kentucky had not received a bid to a post-season classic since the 1952 Cotton Bowl.

Other high peaks in football were an 8-4 record, the Wildcats' best in 25 years, and a record-breaking attendance of 393,483 at seven home games in Commonwealth Stadium.

Elsewhere on the UK sports scene, the basketball Wildcats, coming off a 1976 NIT championship, were conference co-champions and advanced to the finals of the Eastern Regionals.

During the regular season, they played before 312,527 fans in 14 home games in the new Rupp Arena. The move into the arena complemented the football team's move into Commonwealth Stadium during Hagan's first year as assistant AD and gave the University two of the nation's finest facilities in which to display its major sports teams.

Prior to the football team's move into the new stadium, Hagan created and implemented the Blue & White Fund, which he also set up for Rupp Arena. Through the fund, the University has received more than a million dollars in contributions to keep the program operating in the black by carrying the burden of its grants-in-aid.

One of Hagan's primary aims since becoming AD has been to upgrade the Wildcat athletic facilities. Recent improvements include a new baseball pressbox, re-sodding of the Commonwealth Stadium field, beginning of construction of a new basketball house, completion of a 110-yard Astro-Turf practice field in the Shively Sports Center complex, installation of open-air type lockers in the dressing rooms, and a planned expansion of the main building, with the size of training and conditioning rooms to be increased.

A modernizing of offices in Memorial Coliseum is currently under way, and Hagan looks to the day when he can put on the drawing board an Olympic swimming pool and a field house, which he says are "desperately needed for our program and our students."

In his strong dedication to the scholar-athlete, Hagan continues to give support and emphasis to the academic program. "I feel a genuine commitment to provide all the academic support and encouragement we can to help our athletes leave our campus with an education and a degree," he said.

Hagan joined the Wildcat athletics staff as assistant to Harry Lancaster, with varied administrative duties, including creation and implementation of the Blue & White Fund for the then-new Commonwealth Stadium. He was named director of athletics in July 1975, while Lancaster, whose retirement was not effective until February of 1976, remained as a special assistant to Hagan.

Hagan's path to the athletics directorship began at Owensboro, Kentucky, where he established a then state high school tournament record of 41 points in leading Owensboro to victory over Lafayette in the championship game of the 1949 state high school tournament.

At UK, he played on teams that won 86 of 91 games and an NCAA championship (1951). The 1954 team, undefeated in 25 games, elected not to participate in the national tournament.

Hagan set a dozen Southeastern Conference records and an NCAA record of 528 rebounds as a junior. He averaged 24 points a game, led the nation in rebounding, and scored a UK record of 51 points against Temple in 1954.

He was a member of Sigma Nu Fraternity, Student Government, Baptist Student Union, Fellowship of Christian Athletes and twice was selected among the top ten students in the College of Education.

After graduating from UK in 1954, Hagan served two years at Andrews Air Force Base, Washington, D. C., as a commissioned officer. He led the base to two World Wide Air Force championships and won All-Service honors both years.

During ten years with the St. Louis Hawks, he ranked high among 11 players on the league scoring charts with 12,433 points in 672 games for an 18.5 mark and was selected to play in five East-West All-Star games and was named to the NBA second All-League team twice. He hit over .790 from the free throw line seven years in a row and held the NBA record for most field goals scored in a single quarter (12).

The Hawks won the Western Division six times during Hagan's playing career there and defeated the Boston Celtics in 1958 for the world championship. Hagan was All-Pro in the NBA in 1957-62, inclusive.

He received his M.S. in education from Washington University in 1958.

In 1965, a Herbert Hoover Boys Club of America was organized in Owensboro and named the Cliff Hagan Boys Club of America.

During his 11th year in St. Louis, Hagan did radio and television commentary for the Hawks' basketball team and for Anheuser Busch.

He then joined the Dallas Chaparrals as player-coach and was selected as the 1958 Texas Professional Coach of the Year. When he left Dallas, he was only 92 points shy of a regular-season career total of 15,000 points.

In 1974, he was named to the Hall of Fame Magazine's All-America second-team for the 1951-1973 period, to the Orlando (Fla.) Sentinel Star's All-Time Southeastern Conference first team, and the All-Time top collegiate player in the State of Kentucky by Inside Kentucky Sports Magazine. In 1975, he was named to the Kentucky Athletic Hall of Fame, was inducted into the UK Alumni Association Hall of Distinguished Alumni and was a recipient of the University of Kentucky Centennial "K" Medallion tendered by the UKAA for past athletic accomplishments, during UK's Centennial Year observance.

He is married to the former Martha Milton of Owensboro. They have four children: Lisa, Laurie, Amy, and Kip.

ATHLETICS AT KENTUCKY

Kentucky's athletic program, a well-balanced and ambitious activity featuring intercollegiate competition in ten different sports, is organized under the Department of Athletics and a corporation known as the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

The program is conducted without overemphasis or sacrifice of educational objectives and in strict compliance with the rules of the University, the Southeastern Conference and the National Collegiate Athletics Association.

A board of directors, headed by the President of the University in the capacity of chairman, maintains overall policy supervision of the athletic program.

Other persons, drawn from the University administrative offices, faculty, trustees, alumni and the general public, also serve on the board as appointees of the president as do two student representatives.

The Association's Board of Directors and the expiration dates of their appointments are:

1977 FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

Fran Curci is seeking to fill several spots on offense while the defense returns pretty well intact as the Peach Bowl champion Wildcats prepare for another challenging year.

Hardest hit by graduation was the offensive line, which lost All-American tackle Warren Bryant, guards Steve Slates and Ed Smolder, split end Randy Burke and tight end Charlie Dickerson.

Bryant, a four-year starter, was drafted No. 6 in the first round of the NFL draft by Atlanta. Burke, who was the team's leading receiver, tied a Senior Bowl record of 11 receptions and was drafted in the first round by Baltimore.

Greg Woods, an outstanding blocker who switched to offense after three years in the defensive backfield, also played out his eligibility and has cast his lot with Ottawa of the Canadian Football League.

On the bright side, Rod Stewart is coming off a fine sophomore season in which he gained 711 yards in 146 carries, scored five touchdowns rushing and caught six passes for 50 yards and tied a Peach Bowl record with three touchdowns scored.

Returning in the backfield with the hard-running fullback are quarterback Derrick Ramsey, Chris Hill, Randy Brooks, Joe Dipre, Chuck Servino, Robert Hawkins and Freddie Williams.

Pete Gemmill, who backed up Woods and was the team's No. 1 punter (48 for 1,847 yards—38.5 avg.) will be replaced in the kicking department by Rick Hayden, who punted 22 times for 700 yards, a 36.3 avg., last year.

Joe Bryant, who kicked off last season, is expected to step into the shoes of John Pierce, who holds UK records in career extra points attempted (68) and scored (61) and field goals attempted (56) and scored (24) and points by a kicker (133).

Cornerback Ray Carr is the only starter lost from a defensive unit that held North Carolina to 108 yards net (84 rushing, 24 passing) in the Peach Bowl. Returning at linebacker are starters Jim Kovach, MVP-Defense in the regionally televised game against Maryland at College Park; Mike Martin, who was MVP-Defense in the Peach Bowl, and Kelly Kirchbaum, along with front line substitutes Dave Fadrowski and Carl Marrillia.

Art Still, a candidate for all-star honors on the national level, returns after playing both defensive end and tight end last season. At the other end are Bud Diehl and David "Tuffskin" Stephens, who had their turns as starters last year. Noseguard Jerry Blanton and tackles Bob Winkel and James Ramey are also returning starters.

The secondary features such proven performers as Mike Siganos, who holds the UK career record (72) for punts returned, and Rick Hayden, who tied for the conference lead in interceptions (5). Hayden also intercepted two passes in the Peach Bowl.

Dallas Owens, whose two interceptions included a 56-yard TD return that turned the tide against LSU, will be back for his final year.

In summation, the Wildcats seem strong overall on defense, with Siganos, Still, Martin, Kovach, Ramey, Winkel and Blanton among all-star possibilities.

GALS' COACH FIRST UK MENTOR

Prof. A. M. Miller, who became Kentucky's first football coach in 1892, was chosen because he had learned about the game from sideline observations while a student at Princeton. His only previous coaching experience was at a girls' school in Pennsylvania. He coached four games and yielded to Jackie Thompson for the remaining three games.

Wildcat Coaches

FRAN CURCI, HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Now in his fifth year as head football coach at the University of Kentucky, Fran Curci reigns as the most successful Wildcat grid mentor since the nationally famous Paul (Bear) Bryant and Blanton Collier led the "Big Blue" during the 1946-61 years.

In addition to posting two winning seasons in the past four years, something that had not happened at Kentucky in 20 years, Curci led the Wildcats to a 7-4 regular season record, their best since Blanton Collier's 1954 team finished 7-3, and to their first post-season appearance—the Peach Bowl—in a quarter-century.

Another amazing thing about the 1976 season was a tie for third place in the Southeastern Conference after practically all experts had picked the 'Cats to finish last.

Curci's combined record at UK now is 21-23-1, compared to 35-74-4 for his two immediate predecessors. He was 5-6 his first season, best record for a UK team in seven years, and then gave the Wildcat fans a 6-5 record for their first winning season in eight years.

Plagued by injuries, failure to find a suitable quarterback and some unfortunate extemporaneous factors, the Wildcats fell to 2-8-1 in 1975 and were counted out of conference and national contention in the 1976 pre-season roundups.

Then came the 1976 season, which included victories over such national powers as Penn State, Florida and LSU, and was climaxed by a 7-0 victory over Tennessee. It was Kentucky's first victory over the Vols in 12 years.

A 21-0 victory over North Carolina in the Peach Bowl gave Curci an 8-4 record, best for a UK coach since Bryant's 1951 team finished 7-4 and then beat TCU in the Cotton Bowl.

Curci came to the University from the University of Miami, Fla., where he was head coach two years. He started his career as freshman coach at Miami in 1962 after making All-American there in 1959 and playing as a 5-foot-9, 152 lb. quarterback for the old Dallas Texans of the AFL. In four years his Hurricane frosh teams won 12 and lost two. He later served as varsity offensive assistant at Miami (1966-67) and in both of those years Miami wound up in bowl games.

He was tapped by the University of Tampa in 1968 to see what he could do about a faltering football program; in three campaigns, he wrote one of the most amazing success stories in college football.

In his first year at Tampa, he put together a 7-3 season, which included victories over Mississippi State and Tulane. That earned for him the Florida Sports Writers Association "Coach of the Year" award, a recognition repeated in 1970. Curci's 1969 season was a brilliant 8-2 affair. His 10-1 record in 1970 also included a 31-14 triumph over Miami and brought the Tampans the nation's No. 1 College Division ranking as well as bringing Curci College Division "Coach of the Year" runner-up honors.

He took over as Miami grid boss Dec. 19, 1970, and left the program there in good shape for his successor.

A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., he played his high school ball in Miami, where he lettered three years as a quarterback at Archbishop Curley High and was All-City, All-Conference, Catholic All-State and his team's Most Valuable Player.

At the University of Miami, he was known as the "Mite-y Magician." Playing at 152 pounds, he parlayed intelligence and desire to become All-America as a senior in 1959 after receiving honorable mention All-America and winning acclaim as one of the foremost sophomore football stars in the country in 1957.

His record-shattering feats at Miami included breaking of seasonal and career marks for total offense, most passes thrown, most passes completed and most yards gained on passing. He also was co-holder of the record for most TD passes thrown.

He rolled up 2,767 yards rushing and passing during his varsity career, breaking a total offense record that had stood for more than two decades.

As a senior, he captained Miami and climaxed his career by engineering a stunning upset (18-23) over Michigan State.

After graduation in 1960 with a degree in marketing, he played one year with the Dallas Texans and then served as a lieutenant in the Army, coaching and playing football for the Fort Eustis team, which won the National Service championship in the Missile Bowl.

Curci has been selected seven times to coach in all-star games. He assisted Bear Bryant with the South team in Tampa's first annual American Bowl game four years ago, then served as South head coach the next year. He helped Charlie McClendon of LSU and Alex Agase of Northwestern direct the East in the Coaches All-America football game at Lubbock, Texas, three summers ago; was co-South coach with Bill Battle of Tennessee in Miami's Shrine North-South game in 1975; assisted Lou Holtz with the East squad in the first Japan Bowl last year in Tokyo, and was on the coaching staffs of the East-West Shrine game and the Hula Bowl this year.

He played in the Chicago Trib's all-star games in 1945-48 and the 1945 Blue-Gray Classic and played professionally with Green Bay as QB in 1948.

COMMONWEALTH STADIUM

Commonwealth Stadium, the University of Kentucky's football facility, is located on an 86-acre tract on the Kentucky Experimental Station Farm grounds south of the main campus and east of Nicholasville Road. Completed in 1973, the concrete and steel cantilevered structure replaced Stoll Field, where Wildcat football teams had played since their beginning.

Constructed by Huber, Hunt & Nichols, Inc., the facility has a capacity of 50,000 sideline seats, with end zone bleachers swelling the total to 58,000. The lower stands are so constructed that the seating can be increased to 68,000 later when needed.

Bids for the stadium were opened in mid-July 1972, and construction began a short while later.

The pressbox, located between the two levels on the south side of the playing field, is serviced by two elevators and contains a main working area, radio booths, food service areas, private booths and a camera deck extending along the entire front of the box.

Thirty-four concession areas and 30 restrooms are located conveniently throughout the facility. Four first aid stations with emergency health equipment also are provided. There are four major pedestrian ramps at each corner of the stadium and 40 ramp exits to seats.

The area immediately surrounding the stadium contains 6,000 parking spaces, with half of those paved and the other half in grass with gravel driveways. Another 8,500 parking spaces are located within a mile, all north, of the stadium.

Five exits, all leading to four-lane highways, serve the facility.

The playing surface was sodded in Kentucky bluegrass in July 1973, and this was replaced with Bermuda in 1974. A fairly new scoreboard was moved from Stoll Field and installed with a similar scoreboard at the new stadium.

The new stadium does away with the seeming duplication of titles--Stoll Field and McLean Stadium--that caused much confusion among the general public and sports-writing fraternity.

By action of the University Board of Trustees, the general area encompassing the old Wildcat playing field, located first on what is now an intramural field, was dedicated Oct. 14, 1916, as Stoll Field in honor of the late Judge Richard C. Stoll, prominent alumnus, trustee and benefactor of the University. Soon after the first sections of the concrete stadium on Euclid Avenue were completed Sept. 4, 1924, the new field site and stadium were likewise officially known as Stoll Field.

The first attraction to be held on the new Stoll Field was a football game with the University of Louisville Oct. 4, 1924. A gridiron clash between Kentucky and the then-powerful Centre College team was the first game played in the fully-completed stadium Nov. 1, 1924.

HOST FIRM AGAIN TO AID KENTUCKY FOOTBALL BROADCASTS

Kentucky football has captured the imagination of fans throughout the country for years and the UK Radio Network deserves a large share of credit for popularizing Wildcat football into the far reaches of the East, Midwest and South.

Synonymous with the Wildcats is sportscaster Cawood Ledford, Sports Director of WHAS-Radio-TV, Louisville, who enters his 11th year with the network and 24th year of covering UK sports.

Assisting Ledford is Ralph Hacker, station manager of WVLK Radio in Lexington, who enters his fifth year as color commentator for the network. This year's broadcast will also include sideline comments by Rick Shaw and up-to-date scores from around the nation by John Henderson.

The Lexington-based firm of Jim Host & Associates, Inc. owns the broadcast rights to the network. Headed by a UK graduate, the Host firm is now entering its fourth year of broadcasting UK sports under a new three-year contract. The firm, which also owns the broadcast rights from the NCAA, for the NCAA basketball tournament, has built up the Wildcat network from 44 stations to 80 stations.

SERIES HISTORY: Prior to the Peach Bowl encounter last year, the 'Cats and the Tar Heels had met only six times in a series that started way back in 1910. In that opening game, held in Lexington, the Wildcats whitewashed the Tar Heels, 11-0. After a lapse of 24 years the Tar Heels won, 6-0, in Chapel Hill. Thirty-two years passed before Kentucky won, 10-0, in 1966. North Carolina evened the series in 1970 and came out on top in 1972 and 1973 making the series score 2-4 before the Tar Heels went down in defeat on New Year's Eve in Atlanta.

LAST MEETING: Dec. 31, 1976 (Atlanta—Peach Bowl) UK 21, UNC 0—Before a record Peach Bowl crowd in Atlanta Stadium, the Wildcat defense completely dominated the Tar Heel offense while the UK offense rolled to a 21-0 victory. Playing without fullback Mike Voight, ACC "Player of the Year," North Carolina compiled only 108 total yards (84 ground, 24 air) while UK had 318 yards rushing and 16 passing. The Wildcats opened the game with two first downs but were forced to punt. The Tar Heels, on their third offensive play, connected on a 50-yard Chris Kupec to Walter Lee pass that went all the way.

However, the play was nullified by an offside penalty against North Carolina's two offensive guards. The only other scoring threat in the first half was a 16-play UK drive that started on the Wildcat 34 and ended on the two, with a missed field goal by John Pierce. Kentucky scored early in the third quarter after James Ramey recovered a Kupec fumble on the UNC 21, setting up an eight-play drive climaxed by a one-yard plunge by Rod Stewart. The Wildcats scored their second touchdown early in the fourth quarter, driving 57 yards in nine plays. Stewart scored from 13 yards out and then added a third touchdown from three yards out, tying a Peach Bowl record.

1977 OUTLOOK: The Tar Heels' most difficult task this fall is replacing tailback Mike Voight, who finished his career as the fifth leading ground gainer in collegiate history. He ran for 1,407 yards and scored 18 TDs before an injury kept him out of the Peach Bowl last year. The top two candidates for Voight's position are sophomores Doug Paschal and Terence Burrell. The rest of the backfield returns intact with WB Mel Collins, FB Billy Johnson and QB Matt Kupec. North Carolina also must rebuild an offensive line that lost Mark Cantrell (C), OT Mark Griffin and All-ACC OG Craig Funk. The defense lost cornerback Russ Conley, All-ACC end Bill Perdue and All-ACC free safety Ronny Johnson. With eight starters back, the Tar Heels have a good nucleus for an outstanding defense. Heading the list of returning players on defense is All-ACC tackle Dee Hardison. Key players in a strong kicking game are SE Delbert Powell, who was the All-ACC return specialist (24.2 yds. per KO ret.), punter Johnny Elam (38.2 avg.), and place-kicker Tom Biddle, who had a school record 13 FGs.

SERIES HISTORY: Kentucky and Baylor had never faced each other prior to the 1963 encounter although there had been athletic relations between the two schools in the form of four basketball games. The UK cagers had made a clean sweep of the competition with four straight victories, including the 1948 battle for the NCAA title, and the footballers kept the record spotless as they upset the Bears in the initial meeting. The Wildcats, coached by Charlie Bradshaw, scored a 19-7 major upset over bowl-bound Baylor and completely throttled the vaunted aerial artistry of the nation's leading passer, Don Trull. Baylor came to Lexington the following year to pull out a narrow victory, (15-17), over the Wildcats.

LAST MEETING: Nov. 14, 1964, (Lexington) UK 15, Baylor 17 — On a dry, warm day before 28,000 fans at old Stoll Field, the visiting Bears got on the scoreboard first as Davies scored on a one-yard plunge and then kicked the extra point. Kentucky came back in the second quarter, tying the score on a 33-yard run by Rodger Bird and an extra point kick by Rich Tucci. Tucci missed a 25-yard field goal attempt in the third quarter, but Baylor's Purvis made good on one from 40 yards out to put the Bears ahead, 10-7. Tucci missed a 22 yarder before Davies again put the Bears on the board, scoring from seven yards and then adding the extra point. Bird scored UK's second touchdown on a one-yard plunge. Rick Norton passed to Bill Jenkins for a two-point conversion.

1977 OUTLOOK: Coach Grant Teaff begins his sixth season at Baylor with 27 lettermen returning from last year's 7-3-1 team. Five returning starters on offense are TE Ron Lee, SE Tommy Davidson, TB Gary Blair, WB Greg Hawthorne and RG Jon Kramer. The defense returns an equal number of starters—LT Gary Hutchison, AP second team All-American Gary Don Johnson, rovers Ron Burns and Tony Green and CB Scooter Reed. Gone are consensus All-American CB Gary Green, QB Mark Jackson, FB Mike Ebow and four members of the "Good Ole Baylor Line." Defensive losses other than the sensational Gary Green are ends Cris Quinn and Keavin McDonald, LBs Tim Black and Johnny Slaughter and safety Mike Nelms. "We face probably the toughest schedule we have played in the last five years," Teaff said, "and we face it with inexperienced linebackers, inexperienced defensive ends, and inexperienced offensive line, and inexperienced quarterbacks."

SERIES HISTORY: Relations between the Wildcats and the Mountaineers date back to Nov. 4, 1905. In that first game at Morgantown, the visiting Wildcats absorbed a 45-0 licking that stands as the biggest advantage either team has enjoyed. The series was interrupted after that contest for 34 years, not resuming until West Virginia visited Lexington for a return engagement in 1939 and absorbed a 13-6 revenge licking. The two teams met annually after that (with the exception of 1943 when UK did not field a team) until the series was broken off again following a game at Morgantown in 1947. Kentucky holds the edge in the series, 10-6-1. Kentucky's 20-point decision in 1965 was the biggest UK victory in the series since 1944 and the third largest win margin by either team—exceeded only by WVU's 45-0 win in 1905 and UK's 40-9 score in 1944.

LAST MEETING: Sept. 25, 1976, (Lexington) UK 14, WVU 10 — Kentucky took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter, capping a 50-yard drive in five plays as Derrick Ramsey rolled to the left, broke a couple tackles and scored standing up with 1:57 remaining in the period. The Mountaineers got no closer than the UK 40 in the first half, but had several opportunities in the second half, which began with UK fumbling the kickoff and WVU recovering on the Wildcat 24. The Mountaineers moved the ball to the 18 (3rd and 4), then were at the two as Dan Kendra hit Dewayne Woods for 16 yards. The Wildcats held and WVU settled for a 29-yard field goal. Five minutes later, the Wildcats took over on the 25 and traveled 75 yards in nine plays, with Rod Stewart scoring from the five. West Virginia ended the scoring on a one-yard plunge by Walter Easley.

1977 OUTLOOK: With WB Dan Kendra throwing (113 of 233 passes for 1,476 yards and nine TDs in 1976) and WR Steve Lewis catching (48 receptions for 737 yds. and six TDs), the Mountaineers boast one of the nation's best passing attacks to go along with a solid running attack, a more seasoned offensive line and an experienced defense. With all but one letterman returning, the offensive line will have the much-needed playing experience it lacked a year ago. The Mountaineer defense returns almost intact with only three starters missing from the '76 squad. Joe Macerelli, who made a team-leading 125 tackles last year, will again anchor the linebacking corps. The kicking game has improved steadily, with placekicker Bill McKenzie showing he can kick under pressure (a school record 12 FGs in a season) while punter Jeff Fette is averaging 38.0 yards per kick, with none blocked.

SERIES HISTORY: During the initial encounter between the Wildcats and the Nittany Lions two years ago, Kentucky led in rushing (240 net yards to 151), total yardage (295-232), passes (7-5), possession time (37 minutes to 23) and pass interceptions (three to one for PS), but the Nittany Lions had the most points (10-3). It was a different story at their second meeting when the 'Cats trounced the Lions 22 to 6.

LAST MEETING: Oct. 2, 1976 (Lexington) In one of their finest performances of the season, the Wildcats rolled up 429 yards to 212 for the highly rated Nittany Lions. Although the Wildcats completely dominated the visitors from University Park, they led only 7-0 at halftime, scoring on a drive that began with a Rick Hayden interception of a PSU pass on the UK 40 and ending with a two-yard plunge by Chris Hill. The Wildcats got their big break of the second half when they recovered a fumbled punt on the PSU 20. Derrick Ramsey hit Greg Woods for 19 yards, and Ramsey carried it over from the one. On PSU's first play after the ensuing kickoff, Dave Stutts' fumble was recovered by Dallas

Owens on the 24. Kentucky settled for a 33-yard field goal by John Pierce. The Wildcats got their final tally on a 61-yard run by Ramsey. Penn State's TD was set up by a pass interference call in the UK end zone. After two rushes from the one resulted in no gain, Chuck Fusina completed a TD pass to Mickey Shuler.

1977 OUTLOOK: Areas of concern as Joe Paterno enters his 11th year (101-23-1) at Penn State are replacements for starting offensive guards Ron Argenta and Dave Shukri and tackles Brad Benson and George Reihner. Also gone are Rich Mauti, the starting SE and the team's top kick returner the last two years; Kurt Allerman, an All-American linebacker, and Ron Crosby, a two-time All-East DE. On the plus side, the Lions have nearly all their "skill players" returning except Mauti, who shared the SE job with Tom Donovan. Chuck Fusina, who took over the starting QB job when John Andress was injured in the fourth game (Kentucky) last year, returns for his junior season. Fusina passed for 1,260 yards last year and already ranks 11th on Penn State's all-time passing yardage list. The returnees also include three men who alternated at tailback last year, Steve Geise (550 yards), Matt Suhey (487) and Mike Guman (470). Leading the wide receivers is Jim Cefalo, who averaged 21.1 yards on 14 receptions during the regular season and caught five passes in the Gator Bowl. Nine of 11 starters return on defense.

SERIES HISTORY: The Kentucky-Mississippi State gridiron rivalry began before World War I, but only 13 contests have been played to date. The series began with a 19-13 UK victory in Lexington in 1914. State won at Starkville the following year, Kentucky in Lexington and State in Starkville again before the series was discontinued from 1917 until 1944. Kentucky lost the renewal game, 26-0, but won six of the next nine games to take an 8-6 lead in the series. The Wildcats hold the biggest win margin with a 42-14 victory at Jackson in 1973.

LAST MEETING: Oct. 9, 1976, (Jackson) UK 7, MSU 14 - Completely outplaying the 'Cats in the first half, the Bulldogs scored with 5:39 left in the opening quarter on a three-yard sneak by Bruce Threadgill. Early in the second period, Raymond Peyton recovered a UK fumble at midfield, setting up a touchdown that came on a third and eight play when Dennis Johnson eluded two Wildcat defenders in his own backfield and went 29 yards for a TD. The Wildcats launched a 67-yard third quarter scoring drive, with Chris Hill going over from the six. With 6:11 left in the game, the Wildcats drove from their own 32 to the MSU 34, but a two-yard loss and an incomplete pass spoiled the drive. The Bulldogs gained 19 yards in three plays and went into punt formation on their own 47. Linebacker Jim Kovach blocked the punt and five Wildcat players were all alone as the ball bounced on the 27. David Stephens stumbled and fell on the ball with 1:47 left. A face mask penalty against MSU then gave UK the ball on the 13 with 41 seconds left. However, a six-yard loss on a reverse play, two incomplete passes and a nine-yard loss spelled doom for the Wildcats.

1977 OUTLOOK: The Bulldogs are well set at quarterback, where Bruce Threadgill, a two-year starter, returns for his final year. A left-hander, Threadgill connected on 45 of 89 passes for 807 yards and seven touchdowns. He was the team's third-ranking rusher with 554 yards on 160 carries and four touchdowns. Another prize returnee on offense is Dennis Johnson, a 6-foot-3, 235 lb. senior fullback who led the Bulldogs in rushing with 859 yards on 152 carries and also led in scoring with seven touchdowns. Missing from the offensive unit are school rushing leader Walter Packer and halfback Clarence Harmon; Richard Keys, a two-time All-SEC center; guard Fred Rainer and tackle Sam Nichols. The Bulldog defense loses LB Ray Costict, 1977 UPI SEC defensive player of the year; MG Harvey Hull; tackle John Carter, ends Will Coltharp and Wally Cox, and Stan Black. Tackle Larry Gillard, 6-5, 265 lbs., will be a defensive mainstay, along with LBs Gerald Potter and Mike Lawrence.

SERIES HISTORY: Kentucky fared fairly well in the first few years of the rivalry which began in 1949, but the Wildcats fell on hard times before finally defeating the Bayou Bengals, 20-13, in 1974. The 'Cats won 19-0 in the inaugural and 14-0 the following year. After skipping 1951, the series resumed, with LSU winning 34-7 at Lexington. Kentucky gained a tie the following year at Baton Rouge and won 7-6 in Lexington in 1954. The teams swapped victories in 1956 and 1957 and then disaster struck the Wildcats. They fell, 21-0, and 32-7 to the Tigers at Baton Rouge and 9-0 at home before winning, 3-0, at home in 1960. Then came a 13-game losing streak, beginning with a 21-14 LSU victory at Baton Rouge and running through 1973. Kentucky won in 1974 and again last year.

LAST MEETING: Oct. 16, 1976, (Lexington) UK 21, LSU 7 — An upset victory over the nationally ranked Bayou Bengals gave the Wildcats a 4-2 record, marking the first time in 10 years that a Wildcat team had won four of its first six games. Kentucky's big play came in the first quarter after a punting exchange gave the Tigers possession on their 15. Quarterback Pat Lyons' intended pass to TB Charles Alexander was underthrown on the UK 44. Dallas Owens made a spectacular one-handed interception and went all the way to paydirt. Rod Stewart later scored on a 20-yard run in the second quarter and a 10-yard run in the opening minutes of the second half. LSU's touchdown came after a pass interference call against UK gave the visitors first and 10 on the UK seven. Reserve quarterback Bobby Moreau scored on the next play.

1977 OUTLOOK: The Bayou Bengals lost some familiar and talented offensive performers in Terry Robiskie, who led the Southeastern Conference in rushing (224 attempts for 1,117 yards), per-game average (101.5) and touchdowns scored, and SBs Carl Otis Trimble and Robert Dow. The departed defensive stalwarts are DTs Dan Alexander and A. J. Duhe. Coach Charlie McClendon will build his offense around QB Steve Ensminger and TB Charles Alexander, who was third in the SEC with 218 attempts for 1,058 yards. Trimble led Bayou receivers with 14 catches for 211 yards. Defensive end John Adams and LB Blake Whitlach are solid performers on defense.

SERIES HISTORY: A 1973 victory in Athens broke a seven-year drought for the Wildcats but they lost to the Bulldogs the past three years and are now trailing 6-22-2 in a series dating back to 1939. The two schools met almost annually from that time until the series was broken off after the 1949 game and not resumed until 1956 at Athens. During the 22 years that Wally Butts coached the Bulldogs (1938-60), Georgia won nine of 14 games. The Wildcats took the initial game in 1939 and tied the following year, but did not pick up another win until 1947. Despite such Georgia superiority, the games have been interesting as reflected by the fact that Butts' four SEC champions managed an average win margin of only 11 points over the Wildcats. The 'Dogs won, 24-20, in 1974; 21-13 in 1975 and 31-7 last year.

LAST MEETING: Oct. 23, 1976 - UK 7, Georgia 31 - Kentucky won the battle of statistics, but lost the war as the Bulldogs, en route to the SEC championship and the Sugar Bowl, took advantage of many 'Cat miscues before one of the largest crowds of the season at Commonwealth Stadium. An early gift came when Chris Hill, subbing on punt returns for Mike Siganos, fumbled a punt on the 14 and Butch Box recovered for Georgia on the UK seven. On a third and goal situation, sophomore Willie McClendon skirted left end for a score with 12:00 left in the period. Derrick Ramsey engineered an 80-yard drive to tie it up for the Wildcats. The big play was a 49-yard run by Hill on the first play of the series. Ramsey scored on a third and goal from the two. Georgia got on the board again in the period with a 39-yard field goal by Allan Leavitt. On UK's first play of the second half, a Ramsey pitchout was blocked and recovered by Georgia on the UK 23. Seven plays later, Matt Robinson scored from the two. Georgia wrapped it up with an 87-yard touchdown pass from Ray Goff to Gene Washington with 37 seconds to go in the third quarter. The visitors got a final score on a one-yard run by Williams as the game drew to an end.

1977 OUTLOOK: For Georgia to repeat as SEC champion, the Bulldogs must come up with replacements for a large group of starters. Gone from the 10-2 team of 1976 (27-3 loss to No. 1 Pitt in the Sugar Bowl) are 21 seniors, 11 of them starters, plus two veteran kickers. The list includes two consensus All-Americans (OT Mike Wilson and OG Joel Parrish), the SEC Player of the Year (QB Ray Goff), an honorable mention All-America placekicker (Allan Leavitt, four-year starter and holder of two SEC and numerous school records); a first-team All-SEC DE (Dicky Clark), a second-team All-SEC flanker (Gene Washington) and a host of veteran starters. Although the offense lost seven starters, Dooley will still have All-American candidate Kevin McLee at running back, OG George Collins, OT Steve Collier and TE Ulysses North. All-American candidates LB Ben Zambiasi and Rov. Bill Krug lead the returning defensive starters.

SERIES HISTORY: The Wildcats hold a 8-3-2 edge in a series which began Oct. 30, 1926, with a 13-13 tie on old Stoll Field. Led by John (Shipwreck) Kelly, Kentucky won 20-6 the following year and did not play Tech again until five years later when the Gobblers won, 7-0, in Blacksburg. The series was resumed in the war years of 1941 and 1942, with UK winning, 37-14, at Louisville, and then settling for a 21-21 tie at Roanoke. After a 21-year intermission the series resumed with UK winning, 33-14, at Lexington. Coach Jerry Claiborne, a UK alumnus, brought his team back to Lexington three years later and beat the Wildcats of his old teammate and friend Charlie Bradshaw, 7-0. The Gobblers won, 24-14 the following year in Lexington to tie the series. Kentucky has been on a winning streak since then, defeating the Gobblers five games in a row.

LAST MEETING: Sept. 14, 1975, (Lexington) UK 27, VPI 8—Before 56,613 fans at Commonwealth Stadium, the Wildcats won their third straight opening game for Fran Curci, tying a school record of 31 first downs in the process. Sonny Collins rushed for 120 yards in 17 carries and Steve Campassi 73 yards in 14 carries for a good part of UK's 371 total ground yardage. Collins scored on a lurching, stumbling 27-yard run and Campassi scored twice from five yards out. Both left before the first half ended. Cliff Hite, starting quarterback for the Wildcats, gained 24 yards in 11 carries and completed seven of 14 passes for 90 yards and a touchdown. His replacement, 6-foot-5 sophomore Derrick Ramsey, entered the game with the Wildcats leading, 20-0, in the third quarter. Ramsey gained 82 yards on 14 carries and hit two of three passes for 26 yards. The game was marred by 16 fumbles, divided evenly between the teams. The Gobblers got on the board with a 78-yard drive that included pass completions of 23 and 30 yards, two 11-yard gains by quarterback Phil Rogers and a three-yard scoring run by Rogers, who also added a two-point conversion with 38 seconds left on the clock.

1977 OUTLOOK: With 40 returning lettermen, Tech has the potential for building a new team. The Gobblers' 5-2 defense undoubtedly will miss the leadership of a few departed seniors (notably tackle Tom Beasley and ends Stuart Patterson and Keith McCarter), but they also have such pluses as a seasoned secondary (in particular, senior Henry Bradley and juniors Gene Bunn and Gary Smith), a big interior (NG Bill Houseright, T Mike Faulkner and T Doug McDougald), and the most experienced group of linebackers in several years, led by senior Rick Razzano. The kicking game should be a plus with senior punter George Roberts, EP and FG specialist Paul Engle and kickoff man Eric King. Tech will continue to employ a variable wishbone offense, featuring the running of Roscoe Coles, who has career totals of 2,787 yards rushing and 25 TDs. The quarterbacks are untested and the fullback position seems to be wide open.

SERIES HISTORY: The Wildcats and Commodores first met on the gridiron in 1896 at Nashville and the series is one of the South's oldest from the standpoint of first meeting and number of games. The record stands solidly in Vandy's favor, 27-18-4, with the Commodores registering 12 shutouts in the first 20 years and UK failing to get into the win column until 1939. The Wildcats' 27-0 homecoming rout of Vandy in 1960 ended a three-year trend to close games, but the rivalry got back in the groove in 1961 as UK struggled for a 16-3 decision. Kentucky's biggest margin since that time was 34-0 in 1965, Vandy's 42-6 in 1969. UK had won four in a row before Vandy beat the "Cats" in 1975, but UK came back last year and conquered the Commodores, 14-0.

LAST MEETING: Nov. 6, 1976, (Lexington) UK 14, VU 0 - Although the Wildcats completely dominated Vanderbilt in registering the first UK shutout in 11 years, there were times in the first half when the game seemed destined a scoreless tie. Coming out in the air against a Vandy secondary that was ranked 11th in the nation, UK accounted for 117 yards total offense (53 by passing) to Vandy's 17 in the first 15 minutes, but the result was still 0-0 when a fumble stopped one UK march and two 15-yard penalties halted two others. The second quarter belonged to the Commodores, who got their initial first down on the first play. Their drive stopped on the UK 31. The Wildcats scored on the second series of the second half, on a six-play, 68-yard march sparked by Ramsey's 34-yard run and capped by his 16-yard scoring sprint. Vanderbilt marched from its own 15 and had first and 15 (after a penalty) on UK's 37 when Wildcat end Art Still rapped QB Randy Hampton, causing a fumble that was recovered by UK's Tim Gooch. Later, Preston Brown fumbled Pete Gemmill's punt and Lester Boyd recovered on the VU 17. On the fourth play of the final period, Rod Stewart went over from the two. Late in the game, UK marched 97 yards to the VU one, where Commodore Ronnie Myrick recovered a Randy Brooks' fumble.

1977 OUTLOOK: The Commodores, still basically young but also led by some stable seniors, expect to be improved this year, but Coach Fred Pancoast still failed to solve the quarterbacking problem to his satisfaction last spring. "Randy Hampton made some big strides from No. 3 to No. 1," Pancoast said, "but I am not sure we came out with a clear-cut lineup at that position." The big surprise on defense was Ed Smith, who "took over" at middle linebacker. On offense, Frank Mordica made good progress, gaining 100 yards or more in every major scrimmage. Pancoast feels his big concern is depth at running back. The offensive line is strong and there is lots of speed and talent at the skilled positions. Martin Cox is considered a game-breaker at split end. There is good depth at linebacker, while the secondary is proven and experienced.

SERIES HISTORY: A UK win in Lexington in 1974 put the Wildcats one game ahead of the Gators but Florida tied it up again in 1975. The Wildcats won in Lexington last year to once again take the lead. Florida tied it at 12-12 in 1973 after Kentucky had stayed ahead since whipping the Gators 52-0 in Lexington in 1917. Through 1955 the Wildcats held a 12-4 advantage, with Florida managing only a pair of victories prior to 1952. An unusual moment occurred in 1955, when Delmar Hughes, Wildcat quarterback sidelined earlier in the game with a broken nose, came off the bench and kicked a 20-yard field goal to give UK a 10-7 decision. A year later, Lou Michaels kicked a rain-soaked football 34 yards with two seconds remaining in the first half to put the Wildcats ahead to stay. After a 10-year lapse, the series was resumed in 1967, with Florida winning 28-12.

LAST MEETING: Nov. 13, 1976, (Lexington) UK 28, UF 9 - Playing what Fran Curci termed, "The most complete game I have ever been associated with as a coach," the Wildcats upset 15th ranked Florida by shutting off a Gator attack that was averaging better than 400 yards total offense and leading the SEC in scoring. In addition to limiting the Gators to 154 total yards, the Wildcats shut off Wes Chandler, who came into the game with 30 catches for 729 yards and seven touchdowns. On the second play of the game, quarterback Jimmy Fisher dropped back on second down from his own 40 and lofted a perfect pass that hit Chandler in the hands on the UK 25. Chandler dropped the ball. UK scored first when blocks by Steve Slates, Ed Smolder and Dave Hopewell sprung Rod Stewart loose for a 23-yard screen pass to the UK 14. Two plays later, Hill followed blocks by Stewart and Greg Woods for a six-yard touchdown and a 7-3 UK lead. With 3:31 left in the period, Ramsey drilled a 52-yard pass intended for Dave Trosper at the goal line. The ball bounced off Warren Gaffney's hands and into Trosper's hands for a TD. Later, when Florida closed the gap to 14-9, on a nine-yard pass from Fisher to Tony Green, Ramsey directed a 13-play, 75-yard march that ended with Ramsey throwing a scoring strike to Randy Brooks. The Wildcats ended the scoring on a 29-yard TD run by Stewart.

1977 OUTLOOK: Major concerns for Coach Doug Dickey include wide receivers, defensive linebackers, ends and secondary defenders. He feels that to be competitive in the rugged SEC the Gators must make up for lack of experience in the offensive line and total lack of depth or experience at fullback. A player of All-America caliber and perhaps Heisman Trophy material is split end Wes Chandler, who caught 44 passes for 967 yards and 10 touchdowns last year. He also returned 13 punts for 175 yards. Linebacker Scot Brantley anchors a solid defensive unit that also includes Scott Hutchinson, another all-star linebacker candidate. In addition to the usual complement of skilled veterans, the Gators list a half-dozen rookies worth watching. One of the hardest players to replace will be David Posey, who made 10 of 19 field goal attempts and 34 of 36 extra point attempts to lead the high-scoring Gators (314 to 255 points) with 64 points.

SERIES HISTORY: Tennessee holds a 43-20-9 edge in the series that is among the oldest football rivalries in the nation, dating back from a 56-0 Wildcat victory Oct. 21, 1893, in Knoxville. Except for three war years, (1917-1918 and 1943), the two schools have met annually on the gridiron. The seniors on the 1955 UK squad became the first in 43 years to graduate with the distinction of never playing in a game in which the Vols emerged victorious and they bowed out in a blaze of glory, triumphing 23-0 over the bowl-hungry Vols in the most one-sided Kentucky win since 1935. Tennessee took the 1961 meeting for its first victory in five years, but UK's courageous "Thin Thirty" fought back to win a 12-10 squeaker in 1962. The Vols caught Kentucky in a letdown in 1963 to annex a 19-0 decision, but Kentucky capped a strange 1964 campaign in glorious fashion by capturing a hard-fought 12-7 victory over the equally inconsistent Tennesseans. Without passing star Rick Norton, injured the week before in the Houston game, Kentucky could not cope with the Vols in '65 and dropped a 19-3 decision. Tennessee won 10 straight after that.

LAST MEETING: Nov. 20, 1976 (Knoxville) UK 7, UT 0—Tennessee entered the game as a seven-point favorite, but the Wildcat defense shut the door on the vaunted Volunteer attack, limiting the home team to 166 yards total offense and only six first downs. Meanwhile, Derrick Ramsey led a UK attack that rolled up 457 yards total offense and 17 first downs. The winning score came on a 62-yard pass from Ramsey to Greg Woods, who pulled the ball out of the air on the UT 45 and raced all the way.

1977 OUTLOOK: Johnny Majors' first order of business at Tennessee was the development of a new quarterback from the ranks of lettermen Pat Ryan, Joe Hough and Gary Roach and sophomores Wilbert and Jimmy Streater. Regardless of who eventually wins the nod at QB, he will have an abundance of proven backfield help in FB Bobby Emmons (6.2 avg in '76) and halfbacks Kelsey Finch (4.6 avg.), Frank Foxx (5.1 avg.) and Hubert Simpson (4.3 avg.). The dilemma is finding offensive linemen to replace Mickey Marvin, Joe Gallagher and Dave Brady. Two-time consensus SE Larry Seivers also is gone after cracking nearly every Vol pass-catching record. The Vol defense, which got stronger as 1976 ran its course, will miss big-play specialist linebacker Andy Spiva, but MLB Greg Jones will be back to head up the defensive unit.

MEMORIAL

Kentucky's athletic complex off Cooper Drive was named "The Bernie A. Shively Sports Center" in April, 1969, in memory of the distinguished Wildcat director of athletics who died of a heart attack at his home December 10, 1967.

Shively joined the Kentucky staff in 1927 as football line coach, following a brilliant athletic career at Illinois. An All-American as a blocking guard for Red Grange, he also was Big Ten heavyweight wrestling champion and a track standout. He was named to the Helms Hall of Fame in 1972.

In 1933, he was appointed head of the UK Physical Education Department, and five years later became director of athletics. He continued coaching until 1946, handling football, track and baseball at various times. Among other honors, he was inducted into the Kentucky Hall of Fame.

WILDCAT FACTS BOOKS

The Wildcat Facts Books, designed originally for Press-Radio-TV, received such a huge response when first offered to the public that they are being offered again this year. Winners and pace-setters in the sports brochure field, the Wildcat Facts Books in both football and basketball contain approximately 140 pages of statistics, facts, figures and records, along with rosters, outlooks, personal sketches of players and coaches and various other items of interest. There are also extensive scouting reports on future foes and advance schedules (in football) of future Wildcat teams, as well as a complete list of lettermen and All-American and All-Conference performers. Basketball Facts will be ready in early November.

STOLL FIELD 'COW PASTURE' BIRTHPLACE OF DIXIE FOOTBALL

University of Kentucky's campus boasts the distinction of serving as the birthplace of Dixie football. Ironically, however, the forerunners of the present day Wildcats were not involved in the early grid contest.

The first intercollegiate football game ever played in the South, and probably the first to take place west of the Alleghenies, came about April 9, 1880, on old Stoll Field. That gridiron was the site of the early tilt which saw Kentucky University (now known as Transylvania College) take the measure of Centre College, 13 to 0. The match, which was said to resemble a combination of soccer and rugby, followed by only six years the introduction of the game of football to the United States.

University of Kentucky (then called A & M College of Kentucky) did not play its first game until a year later on the same field, which once served as the private pasture for University President James Patterson's bovine herd.

Footnote A — Although numerical scoring had not yet been introduced in Rugby football, either here or in Great Britain, when Kentucky and Transylvania (then known as Kentucky University) played their series in 1881, persons in charge of the games obviously had arrived at some sort of agreement assigning values to the various scoring plays. Records never existed and men who played in the games are now deceased. All we can do is accept the scores printed in the newspapers and surmise that a touchdown perhaps counted $\frac{1}{4}$ point and that a goal or an end-kick (a punt into the modern end zone) counted 1. That seems logical, since in the ratio scoring of that day, a touchdown was worth one-quarter of a goal. The end-kick, a British heritage, undoubtedly was introduced because all realized that green players would score few goals, if any.

Footnote B — The football rules took no official position on the score of a forfeited game until 1908 when it was pegged at 1-0 to make it different from any other score possible in the game. By common consent, forfeited games prior to that were entered into the records as victories by 6-0 for the offended team—everywhere, that is, except in the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association, predecessor of the Southern Conference and the Southeastern Conference. In the S.I.A.A. the 6-0 practice was followed unless the offended team had a greater number of points. In that case, the offended team won by the greater score to nothing. Thus, Kentucky's forfeiture to Central University in 1900 is 6-0, since Kentucky led by 11-0 at the time. Kentucky led Cumberland by 12-11 in 1905 when the Tennesseans forfeited. The Blue and White, under S.I.A.A. rules, gets credit for a 12-0 victory.
