The Journal of Gladys A. Coryell for the year of 1914.
Beginning with Feb. 23.

Monday, Feb. 23, 1914. Bright & sunshiny.

I didn't know whether the schools were going to have a holiday today or not and so to be on the safe-side of matters I stayed at home. After I washed the dishes, swept the house, dusted and made the beds I went out to play with Donald and Ish. We played house and I had lots of fun though I generally don't like to play it. When it was lunch time I came home and fixed up for myself what I call "swazzled egg." After lunch I ironed mama's night-dress and then cleaned up the bathroom somewhatly. As I had noticed lots of these grassmuts in back of our house I went out and gathered a bunch. After that I went out to play again. We played, "The Queen of the Jay Region's," and Battle. Gladys Coryell.

Tuesday, Feb. 24, 1914. Nice.

Today at last I am going back to school. I feel something like the Prodigal son returning I guess. After I was already to start I took the car and got off at 28 as usual. When I called Dorothy she was so glad to see me that she had me come into the house and wait for her there. While I was in there I showed Dorothy and Mrs. Reynolds the picture of Miss Parsons that I had taken. Dorothy told me that lots of the girls and teachers had asked about me. In Latin today I didn't see a bit of sense in what they were doing and in Geometry they had had two Prop. While I was gone so I felt kind of lost. In history we all had to go to the board. I had to write about the treaty of Verdun, the date and some of the results. I didn't know anything about it either. As Wednesday in Dramatics we were supposed to give a characterization I went over to Dorothy's. We picked out, "Our Guide in Genoa, Rome," she was to be the guide and I the old gentleman. As Dorothy and I had to have a locker together I had to bring all my old books home. When I got home it was time for me to take a treatment. I brought my kimono home as this was the last treatment I was to take for a while. After supper I studied my Latin until I understood it and then read "Sentimental Tommy." Gladys Correll.

Wednesday, Feb. 25, 1914.

Nice.

I walked to school again today with Dorothy as usual. She was in sort of a bad humor as her mother made her wear her brown dress. In Latin today I was back to my old place as one of the best in the class. We took up a new Prop. in Geometry and I am beginning to catch the drift of it.

In Dramatics Milton Markwell sat over and talked with Nina Spinning. We had an election of officers. Victor Hendrick was elected President, David Clark vice-president, and Milton Markwell secretary. Dorothy and Zena and some of the other girls are mad because all the officers are boys. We don't think it is fair. When I came home today I changed my clothes and then went out and played with the kids. We played school and Ethel came over too. Had I had five problems in Geometry to do and I got three of them. Then I read "Sentimental Tommy." Gladys Coryell.

Thursday, Feb. 26, 1914.

Nice.

This morning while I was combing my hair for school I took it into my head that I was going to get a tennis racket and take tennis at school. Accordingly I set in on Daddy and was going to have him get me one today but he said we had better wait until Saturday so I could test them too. I told Dorothy the joyful news and she was tickled. But when I found out that they had signed their name to a paper, whoever wanted to take tennis, I thought I couldn't get in on it so I told Dorothy I wouldn't take it. But the fifth period in Gym today Miss Worthen asked if there was anyone who would like to take tennis. I raised my hand that I would and she asked if I were a tenth grader and I told her yes. So it was finally fixed up that Dorothy, Zenobia, Irma and myself are to take tennis the fifth period on Mondays. Dorothy and I didn't want Milton Markwell on the tryout committee anymore so we told Miss Parsons that he couldn't have both the secretaryship and be on the tryout committee and so we wanted Zena on the committee with us. So does Miss Parsons so Dorothy and I are fixing things all right now I guess. When I came home from school I ironed Mama's nightdress and then went out to play. We played school for a while and then tap the icebox. The grass is just high enough now to make good hiding places. I got a letter from Ethelind today 16 pages long. That's the kind of letters I like. Daddy and I talked to Mama over the phone this evening. Gladys Coryell. Friday, Feb. 27, 1914. Cool.

When Dorothy and I got to school today we went into the library and did our Spanish classroom period, I studied my Latin vocabulary and then we had an election for representatives for the self-government. The girls that were nominated were Virginia Moon, Zona Williams and Opal Duhammel. Zona was elected. The boys were Hilas Lehmer, Lewis Fiske & Paul Kinney. Hilas Lehmer was elected. In Latin today we had our weekly vocabulary match. I started from second from the foot and got clear to the head. Next Friday I will have to go clear to the foot as the one at the head has to start at the foot next time so as to see how quick you can get back at the head again. In English we are reading the Bluebird. I am crazy to see it given. In Geometry I was called on to prove a problem and I did. I think Geometry is easy and like it fine. After school the Italian Club was to give a short play so Dorothy and I stayed to see it. It was pretty good but the heroine laughed during some of her scenes and that spoiled it. When I came home I played tap the icebox and had lots of fun.

Hot.

This morning after the dishes were washed I started in to read the diary I kept in 1910. It proved to be so interesting that I kept on reading and let my work go. As it did prove so interesting I resolved to start a journal and keep it up so here I am writing away for all I'm worth. I was almost through reading it when Daddy called up for me to meet him down town at noon. So I put on some water, made the beds, washed, combed my hair, changed my clothes and went down to meet him. We went to Boos Bros. between fourth and fifth on Hill for lunch and then took the Sixth St. car right there on fifth and Hill. When we got to the Hospital, Mama seemed so much better from a week ago that she seemed like another person. She had gotten a whole pack of postcards and letters from Highland Park and a book, "The Lady of the Decoration" by Frances Little. We stayed about two hours and then Daddy and I went back into town. We went to Arnburgers and there I got my tennis racket and ball. The racket was two dollars and the ball was forty cents. I also got two note-books. The one that I am writing in now and a Geometry note-book. Daddy got an evening-herald and a Saturday Evening Post and then we came home. I swept a little when I got home and then went out and practised with my ball and racket. For supper to-night, Daddy and I experimented with an omelet. It turned out pretty good. I have my bath yet to take to-night. Gladys A. Conzell Sunday, March 1, 1914. Warm.

This morning Daddy and I got up late and so had to rush around in order to get off for Sunday-school in time. I wore my my pink middie and skirt for the second time today. When Sunday school was pretty near through three girls came from Mrs. Rosenburger's class and wanted to know how many there was in our class. So I suspect something is up. I sat with Ruth Hopkins in church today. After church Daddy and I went down to the cafeteria and had our lunch. Then we went over to the hospital to see Mama. While we were still there Mama was taken out in a wheel chair on the veranda. Daddy had to help lift her out of bed and help put her back in again. On our way home Daddy stopped in at the "New York Candy Kitchen" and got some candy. When we got home Daddy and I sat around and read. I sure am getting ready to have Mama back home again strong and well. Gladys Cuyell.

March 2, 1914. Monday.

Warm.

I wore my Balkan Blouse to school today. I also took my racket and ball to school and enough money to get an orange and black case and to pay for playing on the tennis courts. Dorothy and I were awfully disappointed when we got to school because the courts weren't finished. The third period I studied my Latin and then copied some of my geometry problems into my note-book. Fifth period Dorothy and I went up to Miss Worthen and paid her our fifty cents. She let us put up the volleyball net, and take some time and mark off the courts and play tennis up there. Dorothy and I had both brought our lunch but we ate in the cafeteria anyway. I had two meat sandwiches, two ham and pickle sandwiches, two pieces of cake, 1 piece of chocolate, half-a-glass of grape-juice. Dorothy and I saved our oranges for going home. Mr. Goldthwaite called on me to prove a problem again the eighth period to-day and I succeeded without much trouble. Today being Monday was Dramatic Club. David Clark makes me tired. He is trying to run everything. I like Victor Hendrick though pretty well. He seems fairer and not so inclined to boss. This afternoon I skated and then played "Touch Finger". Mama called up to-night. I just got through copying my problems in my note-book. I'll have to go to bed soon now as there are three tests slated for to-morrow. Gladys Craigell Tuesday, Mar. 3, 1914.

Moderate.

Today I got up tired and sleepy. I wore my Balkan-blouse suit today. Dorothy and I started out the day quite promisingly with a Spanish test. Dorothy and I both got 89 while Helen got 98. The third period Dorothy and I got our tennis fixed up and then studied our Latin. The fourth period we had a Latin test. Fifth period was gym again and we did some kind of adance. Dorothy and I were partners. Miss Worthen said our class as a whole did the best of any of her other classes and the little group Dorothy and I were in did the best of our class. Dorothy and I had some English candy today. In History today Miss McCarthy took the girls to see the embroidery exhibit for about five or ten minutes. This afternoon after school I worked like a trojan. I ripped the waist off my gym suit and sewed the band on the bloomers, washed a pair of stockings, my middy, & my Balkan-blouse, and ironed Mama's nightdress. Mama called up tonight and we talked together for a little while. After supper I read.

Wednesday, Mar. 4, 1914.

Hot.

Dorothy and I both wore our pink dresses today. I took my Kodak to school and took two pictures of the school. One was with Dorothy sitting in front and then she took one with me sitting in front. Third period Miss McCarthy made us all study Spelling. Dorothy and I didn't want to but we had to so Dorothy gave me the words and I spelled them out loud and Miss McCarthy had us go in a little room off the classroom. Today the ninth was Dramatics again and we didn't have to go to History. They brought up the question of giving "Ivanhoe". At first it seemed good to me but I began to think it over and there are only two girls parts and so I don't want to give it now. After I came home today I ironed the clothes that I washed yesterday then went out and played. After supper and the dishes I nearly finished "Sentimental Tommy", but let my Geometry go. Somehow or other I didn't feel like working Geometry ^(excellent reason) Gladys Coryell. Thursday, Mar 5, 1914. Very Hot.

Dorothy and I both wore our white middie, wool shirts and red-ribbons. Dorothy let me have one of her middie-ties until I get one of my own. I wore my sweater also, but it was so warm by the time I got to Dorothy's it was so warm that I just left it there. Before the second period Zena, Dorothy and I went to Miss Parsons and asked her if we couldn't call a meeting of the old members of the club for third period. She said we could and so third period we all got excused but had to disassemble because Zena had to go to self-government and couldn't be present. I had my drawer changed in the too classroom as Mr. Wadsworth nor I could get the lock to work. Fifth period today was Gym as usual. Dorothy and I had our bloomers on underneath our shirts and our gym shoes on so all we needed to do was to slip off our shirt and then we were ready. We had the ~~the~~ Indian club drill today with the music and Miss Wetheren had Dorothy and I go up to the front of the class and demonstrate because she said we were doing it right and in rhythm. Dorothy and I ate lunch with General and. After we had finished our lunch Dorothy and I went down to see how the tennis courts were progressing and joy of joys the girls' court is finished. Ezra Grubb is at the good Samaritan Hospital and has six doctors. He has spinal meningitis. The tenth period Dorothy and I copied the piece we are going to do for our characterization next Monday in Dramatics. The name of it is, "A Slight Misunderstanding." When I arrived home I immediately went out to play. We had lots of fun - Ethel, Ash and I played, "Touch Finger," I have finished "Sentimental Tommy," and Daddy is deep in it now. Until I get another book from the library I can content myself with reading magazines.

Friday, March 2, 1914.

Hot.

Daddy and I got up sort of early this morning. After breakfast I washed and wiped the dishes, straightened up the dining-room somewhatly, burned the trash and then made Daddy's bed. I didn't have time to make my own. I didn't even wear my sweater to school today as it was so warm. The third period after spelling Dorothy, Zora and I went into a little room off the classroom and planned the decoration of the table for the initiation jinx of our Dramatic Club. In Latin today we got our test papers back. There were only two A's, Tom Bolen and myself. Dorothy got a-. Lunch period all the old members of the club sat at one table in the cafeteria. We appointed several committees, The Decorating Com., the Eats committee and the Program committee. We also decided to wear white dresses and orange hair-ribbons and sashes. Seventh period we had an Aud Call and we listened to a speech. Then they told us we could watch the first game on the new tennis courts. As it was so awful hot Miss Parsons, Dorothy, Zona, Marian, Bess and I watched the games from the windows of the third floor locker room. I forgot to say back farther that Florence Bridge, Dorothy and I are on the Program committee. Eighth period I talked and smiled to Virginia and she smiled and answered back so I guess we are not mad at each other anymore. I coaxed Dorothy into making up with Virginia too though we haven't had a real chance yet of showing we have made up. I had just got home a few minutes when Mama got home. Mr. Ganahl brought her home in his machine and drove right up to the porch with her. It seems so good to have her back. I want to kiss her all the time. I have started another book, "Ben Hur." Gladys Coryell

Saturday, March 7, 1914. Hot

My mother had to call me before I got out of bed this morning. Mama ate her breakfast sitting up in bed this morning.

After breakfast Daddy washed the dishes and I wiped them. Then I washed the stove, swept the kitchen, burned the trash, washed off the front porch, made the beds, combed my hair, combed Mama's hair, and waited on ~~Papa~~ Mama. About eleven o'clock when I was sitting and with Mama Bradford came stalking in without knocking or anything and frightened Mama and I. He is dandy though. He just cleans and makes everything shine and oh her cooking! It is something magnificent. This afternoon I read a story to Mama about "The Boy Perfect." It tickled Mama so that she said we should condense it and then I could speak it for a piece. Ethel Prather came over this afternoon and talked a long time. Mama sat up in a chair a little while this evening. Bradford served dinner promptly at 5:30. Dinner we had in the dining-room, mind you. I sure did feel rich to have somebody serving me in the dining-room of my home and then to have them clear the table and wash the dishes. After supper I did my Geometry. I have my bath yet to take.

Bradford didn't have breakfast ready for quite a while after I was up. I got my hair combed before breakfast. After breakfast, I got ready, did some things for Mama and then went to Sunday-school. As there was no car in sight down at the transfer point, Daddy and I went in to have a cold drink. He took Coca-Cola and I took a Grape Phosphate. I wore my pink middie today. After church Daddy went over to see how Professor Vetter was. At the transfer-point coming back Daddy got 15¢ caramel curls. Bradford had dinner ready when we got home which was exceedingly better than waiting around about an hour before things would be done. After dinner I played some for Mama and then read the rest of the day. I forgot to say Mama was up to dinner today. She is about on the porch a little while after it got cooler. After the dinner dishes were washed, Bradford went home. She came back about seven o'clock.

Hot

Today breakfast was earlier than yesterday. Mama had her breakfast in bed this morning.

Bessie came, before I left, to do the laundry work. It will certainly seem good to have everything washed and ironed and to have clean things at hand once more. As I gathered up my books for school, I got my journal instead of my Geometry note-book and we were supposed to hand them in today. There was a decided difference in the clocks this morning and so to be on the safe side of affairs I left by the latest one. The result was that I got to Dorothy's way early. Third period Dorothy and I went to Miss Blunt to get our scholarship blanks to be filled out. Fourth period we got Miss Spencer to sign them for Latin and she gave us both a. We had a vocabulary match today. I started from the foot and worked up to fourth from the head. Fifth Zenobia, Dorothy and I played tennis. I won a set playing against Dorothy and Zenobia, and Dorothy won a set playing against Zenobia and I. Zenobia can't play at all. Ninth period in Dramatics Dorothy and I had to give our Characterization Virginia and we are made up for sure. Florence Stevens and Virginia traded places nith Dorothy and I so now Dorothy and I are on the Vals committee and they are on the Program committee. Gladys Coryell.

Warm.

I wore my pink dress again today. The second period today Dorothy and I got our Spanish signed up on our scholarship blanks. Miss Murphy gave us a -. In Gym today Dorothy and I played Volleyball. We had lots of fun. At noon today we had a meeting of the old members of the club in the cafeteria. We decided to have orange-ice instead of Jello. So the menu as it stands now is Bread, butter Cold sliced meat, jelly, olives, orange salad, orange-ice and chocolate cake.
The ninth period Dorothy and I had to go to crazy old History today. It seems like I simply can't go on with History for a whole year. I had to help with the dishes tonight. Gladys Coryell.

Wednesday, March 11.

Cool.

It was so cool this morning that I wore my blue dress. Dorothy wore her middie.

though, Miss McCarthy made us all study Spelling third period today. In Latin today we took up the Imperfect and the Future of the first two conjugations. It is awfully easy. Dorothy and I told Miss Everett at noon today that we were on speaking terms with Virginia. She said she was very glad to hear it. We finished the Bluebird in English today. Today we finished up our scholarship blanks. Dorothy and I got just the same, English A, Latin, Dramatics A, Spanish A-, History B+, Geometry B + Gym B. I think that is pretty good. In Dramatics we had lots of fun.
 For their characterization, Clarence + Milton did the Pyramus + Thisbe scene from "Midsummer Night's Dream." They did it simply killing. Bradford made a chocolate cake today. When I got home I found an invitation to a Saint Patrick's party from Ruth Gillespie. It was written in verse in green ink. Here is my answer.
 And sure I'll be coming to your party mawruen.

At the night when all Irishmen be wearing the greens,

At 3 o'clock eight,
For I'd mine be late,

My face at your house will be seen.
Two party's next week. Gladys O'Connell.
Thursday, March 12. Hot.

I wore my pink again today - I took my tennis-racket to school today. Miss Murphy read some jokes in Spanish for today. In Latin we are taking up the passive tense. Fifth in gym today Dorothy and I took our rackets up. We played volley-ball.
Right after the fifth period Dorothy and I ran down and secured the court and then played tennis between matches of lunch.
It was quite hot though. After History Dorothy and I played a set against Miss McCarthy and Fern Hester. We beat them four to one.
Miss McCarthy was just cleaning though and today was her first day. I didn't take any books home today from school.
Mrs. Wyatt came to call on Mama.
Gladys O'Connell

Friday, Mar. 13,

Warm.

I finished up my pink dress today. It is awfully dirty. We had Spelling today. I know I missed one word but I think that was all. I got a 100 in my last paper. After Spelling Dorothy, Zora, Virginia and I all went to see Miss Parsons. She told us that she had seen Mr. Kinney and he didn't want us to give it at night. (She is referring to the initiation thing). As the bell for the next period had rung we decided to leave the matter until noon and then have all the girls there. In Latin we had a vocabulary match. I was second from the head and kept my place there all period. Three times Howard who was at the head came pretty near missing but he didn't. In the period we had our meeting in the cafeteria and voted on Florence Bridge & Marian Meyers to go and see Mr. Kinney to see if we couldn't have the party at night. He said No. as there is to be something else on next Friday afternoon our party is postponed indefinitely. I got B in my Geometry notebook. In History we were supposed to bring in a list of questions of what we thought would be important to have our test on. I he read them over and added a few things to my list and is going to give the test on my questions. When I got home Mrs. Cuthbert was here. I he had some awfully good candy and gave Mama and I some. As today was Bradford's day afternoon off, I had to get the supper and dry the dishes while Daddy washed them.

I didn't have any lessons to get tonight. Gladys Cayll Saturday, March 14, Very Warm.

Today was the day Dorothy and I were to go down town to get the stationery for the club invitations. I got up quite early, I made all three beds and went across to Bryntons to borrow their electric iron. Anderson's moved out this morning. At ten o'clock I was ready to start down town. I wore my middy & blue skirt with my red hair-ribbon. Dorothy was down at twenty-eight when I got there. We got off at fourth and walked up to eighth. At half-past two we started home and we hadn't wasted a bit of time. I got a middy tie, some pleated dotted net for my party dress, some blue satin hair-ribbons, a cream pitcher, some candy and took my films down to be developed. It was the greatest joke about the cream pitcher.

 I had my arms full of bundles and dropped the cream-pitcher and of course it broke.
 It was only 10¢ so I went back and got another while Dorothy stayed and held all my bundles and her own too. As I hadn't had a bite of lunch I had some immediately when I got home. I had some hot rolls, jelly, radishes, and hot tea. Mrs.
 Butler came to see Mama this afternoon.
 Daddy brought home a Saturday Evening Post. I have to take my bath tonight. G.A.C.
 Sunday, March 15, 1904.

I wore my balcan-blouse suit, middy tie and red hair-ribbon today. I just got to Sunday-school on time today. I asked Ruth McKenzie to come down today but she couldn't as her father was sick.

When we had all adjourned to our class-rooms a delegation from Mrs. Rosenburger's came up to deliver to us an invitation. The invitation was to a Saint Patrick's Party Friday evening, at eight o'clock in the Basement of the church. I sat with Ruth Hopkins in church today. This afternoon I read mostly but for about a half-hour I played and sang hymns. Daddy went for an automobile ride this afternoon.

Monday, March 16. Hot.

Today has been about the hottest of them all. I got a Saint Patrick's post card from Auntie Dell today. I wore my middie today. Fifth I played tennis. Afterwards Dorothy and I took a shower and it sure did feel good and no two ways about it. In Dramatics today we discussed plays to be worked up and given. We have it sifted down to three now, Ivanhoe, The Road to Yesterday, and, As You Like It. I am in favor of giving The Road to Yesterday.

Gladys Coryell.

Very Warm.

I tried to find my green hair-ribbons today but couldn't so I had to be contented with my middy-tie with the little green in it. Dorothy had gone on when I got to her house but I caught up with her. Today is just about as hot as it was yesterday. In classroom period today we got our Spelling papers back. Dorothy and I both got a hundred. In Latin I got all mixed up between the passive and active tenses. Today was gym day. Miss Worthen had us do a few exercises and then let us do anything we wanted to until time to get dressed. Sixth period Dorothy and I had an awful good lunch. Dorothy had ten pennies to spend so after our solid food was over we got some ice-cream and Dorothy had some bananas in her lunch so we had Mock Banana special. Today we had an oral and written test in geometry. He asked us a few questions orally and then gave us a written test. In the oral test I had to bisect an angle. It was awfully easy. In History today we had five of the ten questions we are to have for our test. Immediately when I got home I took a cold bath and then put on all my underclothes and my kimono. Mama told me I could wear my silk stockings and my summer underwear. I had my hair combed before supper. Mama told me I could wear her gold bracelet. Immediately after supper I put on my dress the blue beads that Mama had stringed for me, my rings, Mama's bracelet and my hair ribbon. Then I put on my wraps and Daddy and I started. Daddy had to go to a brotherhood meeting. We got off at 5:30 to see if Ruth was going but she wasn't so I went down to Bessie's to go with her. Mary Annan came down also. When Bessie was ready we three went down to Gladys Johnston's house and there met Gladys, Mrs. Millbery and Elsie and Dorothy Van Buskirk. We were about the first one there at Gillespie's. Seanece was there also Ruth Zigler, Dorothy Alexander Mary Rose Clark, Grace Judson, Virginia somebody. Andra Gray, Wilma, Olive Downs and Ruth More. We had lots of fun. We played Lanyer. That is lots of fun. There are two sides and two leaders.

 The leader on one side gives any sorts of answers and the leader on the other side gives questions and then you have to ask and answer each other three times without laughing. Then two girls were blindfolded and had to feed each other sugar. Then we played Collier and Musical chairs. In Musical chairs I played until Wilma and I were left marching around one chair. We also played King of the String. Then we had refreshments. They were white ice cream with green shamrocks in the center. Two kinds of cake and candy.
 The favors were little pipes. My dinner partners were Bessie and Wilma. After refreshments we played Winkum. I was the last girl to leave. Daddy didn't come until everybody had left and when he did come he had to sit and eat and talk a long time. Ruth and I sat on the Porch and talked.

Wednesday, March 18. Warm.

Today nothing much happened in the morning except that Miss Spencer wasn't at school today. In Latin period Miss Walsh came in to sit with us. Dorothy and I did our Geometry and English because we knew our Latin. In English we were supposed to have jokes I thought of both Dorothy's and my own. Dorothy's was about the soldier and the minister telling him he was "glad to see you're back from the front." Mine was about the dead rat, "and he beat him, and beat him, and beat him, until — God — took — him — home."

In English I had to read mine and I laughed as Miss Parsons had to read it for me. In geometry we got our test papers back. Dorothy got B and I got C.

 In Dramatics Miss McCarthy had Ruth McIntosh come up with a slip to excuse us from Dramatics to finish our test. As we were trying out for "Courtship under difficulties" Dorothy and I told Miss McCarthy we would finish the test tenth period. Accordingly we had our test tenth period in History.
 As soon as we got through the test I boarded the North Broadway Car.
 I got off the bridge and seeing a car coming with a sign on top I boarded it without looking at the name. It was a North Broadway and I had to get off and walk back I got the Gar-vanza car at last though and hurried over to Briggs's hairdressing parlors. The men were tinting and at first she wasn't going to shampoo my hair but at last she started in. When I got my hair all combed again and fixed up I called Mana up and she told me to borrow 25¢ of Mrs. Briggs and to bring it some steak home.

 At Twenty a Griffin Ave. car came along but it was so crowded I let it pass and immediately behind it came another with outside seats. Gladys Coryell.
 Thursday, March 19, 1914 Warm.

I wore my middy again today.
 While I was waiting for Dorothy this morning Ruvin and Roland came out and started to play marbles. Mr. Reynolds came past and told Ruvin to stop his marbles and come down and help him.
 Ruvin said alright but kept on playing.
 Pretty soon Mr. Reynolds came along with a stick. Ruvin started to run for the barn but Mr. Reynolds told him to stop right where he was and there he was whipped in plain sight. Fifth period was gym again. We had the polka step. When you got the step right she would pick you out Dorothy and I were doing it right the first time but there were so many of us that we weren't picked out until the second time. It's lots of fun for those who can do it. My Bertha Bircher is certainly graceful. We had lunch in the cafeteria today. Nothing special happened in Geometry today. In History Miss McCarthy was going to give an assignment in ~~History~~ tomorrow and we told her that the school were to celebrate Orange Day then. So she asked us what we wanted to do and who would be willing to be on the committee. Mac suggested Dorothy and I so we became the committee. As everybody was supposed to have ^{bring} ten cents we had $1.40 to spend. Miss McCarthy excused us from History so we could go and see about things. We went right away to Mr. Dickinson and ordered two quart of Orange Ice at 50¢ and then ordered a sponge-cake with Orange icing at 25¢ and plates at 5¢. Then we had 60¢ more to spend so we went down to North Broadway after my calling Mama up on the phone. We went to several con-fectioners and finally got two pounds of orange slices. When I walked up to Griffin Ave. and took the car at 26 and Griffin. As today was Bradford's day out it was left to me to get the supper. But I didn't as I had my book review on the Bluebird to hand in tomorrow and hadn't started it yet.

Friday, March 20, 1914. Awfully hot.

I wore my Balkan - blouse suit today. When I got to Dorothy's I found that she had gone on as she didn't have any paper at home to copy her Bluebird on. When I got to school, I found Dorothy writing very busily away. She wore her pink dress. Classroom period we had spelling and I am pretty sure Dorothy missed three words. Immediately after spelling we had an aud call to tell us about the Debate and Team etc. Mae gave us an orange and we ate it while listening to the speeches. In Latin Miss Sponder asked us which we would rather do. Have the vocabulary match or hear about Roman food. We finally had the vocabulary match and Dorothy and I were glad.

 I was at the head and I kept my place all period. Dorothy got up to second place. We had lunch in the cafeteria again today. Dorothy had 10¢ and so along with the rest of our lunch we had Panernao and icecream. Seventh period those that wanted to could work on their book reviews could. I had mine done so I didn't want to but Dorothy did.
 Those that were though, had poems read to them by Miss Parsons. In History today we had an spread.
 Everybody had plenty and everybody seemed to enjoy it. We had some left over and so we filled a plate full of good things for Mr. Martin and Mr. Skinner. Mr. Skinner just thanked us nicely but Mr. Martin said he was going to send orders to Miss McCarthy to give everybody in the History class an A. As we girls got the things ready, the boys had to clean things up. There were about four or five orange slices left and so we gave them to Mrs. Bennett for wiping off the tables for us. She was very glad about it. Just as I got home Auntie Drusill got on the car to go home and so I only got to wave and speak to her. I asked Mama if I could go to the party tonight and she said I could if I would promise not to go to any next week. I wore my Balkan blouse suit to this party too. I started before it was dark yet as Mama didn't want me to be down at Ave. 20 alone after dark. I had a nickel left so I stopped at the Drug Store and got some Hershey Milk chocolate and then went over to Ruth Hopkins'. She was just sitting down to play when I got there and as I wanted to hear her play I sat down on a chair on the porch. Mrs. Hopkins saw me out there when she came to lock up but I motioned that I wanted to hear Ruth play so she didn't let on.

But Ruth caught on there was somebody out there and so I went in. Ruth played the Victor while I was there. And there were some awfully funny ones.
At eight o'clock exactly Ruth and I went over to the church parlors. The other class had decorated things up awfully nicely. Ruth McKenzie was there. But shame of shame there were only Myrtle Vaux, Juanita Turner, Ruth Hopkins, Mrs. Baker and myself from our whole class. When Mama heard about it she said she was awfully glad she let me go.
We certainly did have a lot of fun.
First we had a whole lot of jokes and things like that and then we played a game I don't know the name of. There are two sides one of animals and the other of flowers.
Each one on the flower side has a name of a certain flower and the same way on the animal side.

Each one has their partner in the opposite line. Then supposing you have a daisy and your partner has a cow, you would go up to your partner and say three times "do I look like a daisy," and your partner would answer three times, "No you look like a cow." If you do it without laughing you can take your seats but if you laugh you have to go to the end of the line and do it all over again. Ruth McKenzie was my partner and I had a geranium and she had a bear. We were the next to the last to take our seats. Then another thing we played that was a lot of fun was Church. You have to have an audience, a choir, a preacher and a pianist ^{and ushers}. Then you go through all the motions of church but you mustn't make a sound. If you laugh the ushers come and take you out. Then there's another game too that is a kind of a trick. You say "I'm going on a journey to New York and I am going to take —" and then you name an article that begins with the first letter of their last name. Then everybody names an article and if it begins with the letter it should they can go, otherwise not. For refreshments we had the same thing as at the other Saint Patrick party.

Daddy for once came at the right time to take me home. We took the car at 5:40 as we took Ruth Hopkins home. I forgot to say that Daddy brought my Spanish novel and Kodak pictures home today.
Saturday, March 21, 1914. Warm.

I was very sleepy this morning and did not feel like getting up. I combed my hair before breakfast. After breakfast I took the blankets off of my bed and put sheets on in their place. Then I started in to take my pink middy in at the bottom. After the middy had progressed a certain way dinner was ready.
Mama and I had our lunch in separate places, she had hers on a tray in the dining room and I had mine in the kitchen. After lunch Bradford finished up my middy and I let the hem down on the skirt. Then Mama gave me some money to go over to the store on Pasadena Ave. and 43. As it was quite cool I wore my sweater. Over at the store I got some coarse Dair salt, (to soak my pink dress in; some gum and some candy. By the time I got home Mama had the facing in my pink dress ready to sew up. After I did so I took my tennis-racket and ball out and played with them a while. Then I read. I am reading the Modern Chronicle and like it very much. E. H. L.

 Sunday, March 22, 1914. Warm.

I had my hair combed before breakfast again today. Mama got up for breakfast. As I only have to make my bed I had plenty of time to read before going to Sunday School. Ruth Hopkins wasn't at Sunday School today because she is going to San Dimas in an auto. There were only seven at Sunday School, Doris, Juanita and I had lots of fun. We all sat together in church. After church I gave the note to Mrs. Avery that Mama sent and then asked her if she had any good books that she would be willing to lend to Mama. She told me to go down to the house and she thought Mr. Avery could pick out one. Daddy and I went down to the Drug store first. There we got, a Sadie's Home Journal, a Pictorial Review and a Saturday Evening Post. As there was a car coming Daddy took it while I went over to Avey's. I walked across and got home before Daddy did because he transferred after dinner Uncle Jesse came over and I took some Kodak pictures. I took one of him alone, then one with Daddy and him and finally had Daddy take one of myself and him.

Today is tennis day, I wore my Balkan blouse and blue skirt today. Dorothy hadn't got her Mariamela because they were all gone when she got to the book store. We got our spelling papers back Third period today's Dorothy got 92 and I got 98. In Latin we had a test. It wasn't very hard. Fifth we played tennis and had lots of fun. In a game of singles I beat Dorothy. In Dramatics Miss Parsons talked to us about several things and then had us vote on which should be Jones, John Rittinger or Milton Maxwell. After school Dorothy and I played Tennis. We beat one game playing against Myra Wright and Cecilia. Then we played a game against Esther Wright and Clara Anchi and they beat us. Dorothy and I didn't start home until 5 o'clock.

 Tuesday, Mar. 24. Warm

I wore my Balkan again today. Fifth period we took gym again as usual. We learned the Shepherd's hey dance and some other dance that I don't know the name of. It was lots of fun. We had to go to History today. Dorothy and I didn't have our lesson either. We told Miss McCarthy why, too. The reason was that everybody we asked would just beat around the bush and wouldn't tell us. I guess Miss McCarthy kind of doubted us too because she asked who we asked. And we told her that we asked Ruth Ewald, Ruth McIntosh, & Marguerite Michelson. She told us afterwards to come and ask her third period after this. Gladys Coryell Wednesday, Mar. 25, Warm.

I wore my Balkan sweater and no hat today. When Dorothy and I got to school we met Miss Parsons in the hall and she told us that the Dramatic Club was going down to the Mason Opera House to see Merchant of Venice by the Stratford upon the Avon players. She also told us that she would lend money to any who needed it. Dorothy and I were awfully surprised. We decided finally that we would go home right after the fifth and then bring a tardy excuse from home for the seventh period. When fifth period study came around we asked Miss Seslie and Mr. Ault if we could be excused fifteen minutes before the bell rang. Of course they asked the reason and when we told them they said we could be. Immediately at fifteen minutes of twelve Dorothy and I left the school-house eating her lunch on the way home. I got home at fifteen after twelve. I hastily told mama the facts of the case and then asked her what I should wear. I could have worn my party dress if I had wanted to but I chose my pink instead. As soon as I was ready I took the car, got off at twenty-eight and hurried up to Dorothy's house but she had gone already. I was awfully mad. I went up to the locker when I got to school and got my Rhetoric and then went down to English. Dorothy was sitting with Jona. I just walked by and didn't take any notice of her and laid my excuse on Miss Parson's desk. Then I went back and took my seat without looking at Dorothy or anything. B. and Lise is someone reached me on the shoulder and I turned around. Dorothy asked me if I wanted her to come sit with me. I told her that I didn't care but I said it real cross. She came and sat with me and soon we were talking and laughing as fine as ever. This was a tragedy stopped. Soon after English was out we started down town. Dorothy and I did our Spanish on the car. Dorothy and I got seats next to each other. The play was simply enthralling. After the play was over Dorothy and I went right to Jones Book Store to see if they had any Marianelas but they were out of them. Then we went to the Broadway where Dorothy got some goods. On the way down to the car Dorothy and I each got a big chocolate egg and some marshmallow ones. Dorothy took the Griffin ave. car with me. It's awfully nice to have a bosom friend. When I got home the folks had started supper without me and Auntie Dill was here.

I had to sleep with her in Daddy's Bed and it sure was a night of agony. The springs squeak so every time you move and I was so afraid of waking Mama that I laid awake trying to be still. Another thing the bed was higher on the side I was and I was afraid I would roll down on Auntie Bess. Gladys C. Cayell.

Thursday, Mar. 26, 1914.

Cool.

I wore my Balkan again today as usual. As Dorothy and I were walking along it started to sprinkle, so we had done our Spanish on the car we didn't have to do it when we got to school. In Latin today we got our test papers back. The highest mark was A- and Dorothy and I both got A-. Dorothy and I had both borrowed tennis rackets and since nobody was going to play 5th, Dorothy asked permission from Miss Wathen for us to play tennis instead of taking gym. Dorothy and I got some pretty good practice in. Once Dorothy hit the ball ed way over the wire and cut into the street. We were just going to give up looking for it when I found it. As it wasn't our regular tennis day we didn't have to take a shower up at the gym. though the rains condescended to give us a shower out on the courts. Nothing special ever happen in English and Geometry much. In History Dorothy got her History paper back and she got B-. I am crazy to know what I got. We had a test on the Blackboard today. She would give us a question and we all had to write on the same question. She gave us three questions and Dorothy and I only knew the first. We were both about ready to sink through the floor. Believe me, I brought my History home tonight. L.A.C.

 Friday, March 27. Cool.

Thank goodness today is the last day I have to wear my Balkan before it is washed again. We had to have our translations in today and Dorothy and I had ours all done. In Latin today we had our vocabulary match as usual. We also had a visitor. I had to begin at the end as I was at the head last time. First I just went up one. Then the next time I jumped up four and was third from the head. I thought I was going to have to stay there all the rest of the period when first I went. It started with boy just below me and came clear back to me. It happened that I pronounced it right and so I went up to the head and stayed there the rest of the period. Fifth period as had been agreed we went to Miss Parsons to get the verses for the invitations to the initiation. Sixth period we had our lunch in the cafeteria. In History today Dorothy and I had our lesson. Roland was to be in the play this afternoon and neither Mama nor Mrs.

 Reynolds would let us go. Since we couldn't go Dorothy and I stood on the corner of Johnston and North Broadway and watched the characters go past. The King and Queen were awfully pretty. We were expecting Vetter to dinner to - night but when I got home Mama said Mrs. Vetter called up and said they couldn't come. Mama wanted to take a little car-ride this afternoon. We went down to Twenty and back. At the drug store there on Twenty we got some alum and the "Woman's Home Companion". The car jolted Mama quite a little but I think it did her good just the same. Gladys A. Coryell Saturday, March 28. Warm.

When I got up today I put on my little waist and blue skirt. I had my spring housecleaning today.
 I took my brush and a hairpin and got nearly all the dirt out of it and then washed. Next I took my comb, a rag and some benzine. I had to wet the rag with benzine and then rub it between the teeth.
 It is so white and pretty now. When I was cleaning my room a thought struck me how nice it would be to have it all changed around. So I asked Mama if I could and she said yes. So my room is all different now, even the pictures. Mama and I had lunch together out in the kitchen today. After dinner I put on my sweater and cap and then went down to the store to get some meat, apples and tapioca. When I got back Mama wanted to go on another car-ride. This time we went clear out to twenty-third street. There we got off and sat down on a bench until the car came going towards home. We really went to far, as I was afraid, and Mama was awfully tired when we got home again. Mama called up Prof. Better and asked if they could come out tomorrow. He said they could. I had to take my bath tonight. I have finished, "Tillie & Menneste Maid," & "The Barrier." etc.

Sunday, Mar. 29, Warm.

I laid in bed until about half-past nine this morning. I did not go to Sunday-School and Church today. Bradford had kept my rolls and mush cakes warm in the oven. I put on my pink middie and combed my hair down in two braids with two bows at the top. Professor and Mrs.

 Vetter came quite a little while before Daddy got home from church. We had a three course dinner. The middle course being salad and crackers. As usual Professor entertained us with a lot of funny stories. Then I read the "Go to F Heaven, Go to Hell" piece and they seemed to enjoy it. It started into rain about 4 o'clock and at 5 it rained real hard.
 Professor and Mrs. Vetter didn't leave until about 2. Daddy went with them to Twenty as Professor was kind of scared about slipping on the pavement. After reaching the papers and everything I started on "May Gerson, her book".
 Monday, Mar. 30 Warm

I wore my pink dress today to school.
 As today was tennis day I took my Tennis-racket and ball with me of course. I also took my lunch today.
 When I was on the car the racket seemed awful small for the case.

and so I opened it up and there I had Dorothy's tennis racket, ball and case. When I got to Dorothy's I gave my call and Dorothy came running out with my tennis things. She told me that she had been sick all day yesterday and that her mother wasn't going to let her go until afternoon at least. She told me, though, that she was going to try and get to school for Sat. and wanted me to carry her tennis things up along with mine. When I got to school I put the things away in the locker and then got my Marianelle and began to translate. In Spanish Dorothy Mc Carthy sat with me. Besides Dorothy, Helen McCreery and Clara Andrie were also absent. The third period I sat with Genobia. Dorothy didn't get there by Sat. time after all. Fifth period I took my racket and suit and changed up at the Gym. Likewise Genobia, but as it was so much up in the Gym yard they took Gym down on the tennis court and I didn't had get to play. Sixth period I ate lunch with Zenobia and then studied English the rest of the period. As I was going to my locker at the end of the sixth I saw Dorothy and a joyful reunion occurred.

 In Geometry Dorothy had a problem given to her and neither she nor I knew how to do it. All of the sudden the proof came to me and I wrote it down and gave it to her. But she didn't have time to read it before Mr. Goldthwaite called upon her.
 Of course she couldn't do it so I volunteered and explained the problem. In Dramatics we changed our room to the Study Hall for good. We listened to them practise the "Courtship Under Difficulties" all period. Immediately after Dramatics Dorothy and I went up to our classroom and there met Miss McCarthy. I asked her if she had my paper corrected yet and she said that she had. She gave it to me and I got B+.
 There wasn't a single question that I got all wrong. She then gave me a quarter of the 2¢ that she sold my Spanish book for. On the way home Dorothy and I stopped in the store and spent ten cents on a box of marshmallows. But they made me sick and were more like all-day suckers than marshmallows. At Dorothy's stopped in to get that Norman Angell business and then I got a great big bouquet of yellow roses. I had quite a little studying to do tonight. Gladys Cayell.

Tuesday, March 31. Warm.

I wore my pink again today. I got a little bit of an earlier start today. Dorothy was just about ready when I got there. Dorothy had ten cents and on the way to school we stopped at a store and got a dime's worth of lemon drops. As soon as we got our things put away we went to the library and started to copy our History. The third period we finished it but it took the whole period and didn't leave any time for anything else. Fifth period was Gym today and we had dancing all period. I just perfectly love to dance. It was the funniest thing that happened when Dorothy and I were dancing. We were dancing along just as fine as you please when all of a sudden my ribbon slipped down over my face and I found a necklace around my neck. Miss Worthen had us go through a certain dance and she picked those out that did it best. Dorothy and I were the second picked out. This noon Dorothy and I started a game of singles in tennis. The score was 1 all when Helen Clark & Dorothy Doran interrupted us to practise for the tournament. In Geometry Mr. Goldthwaite gave us a little quiz about a Geometry problem and not a single person got it I don't think. In History Miss McCarthy gave us all a sheet of foolscap paper and told us that we should write about "The Growth of Parliament" with or without our books. But we were to put on our paper whether we used our books or not. 94 was easy. Neither Dorothy nor I had to use our books. I forgot to say that in Geometry we got our notebooks back. Dorothy got A and I got B+. After school Dorothy and I played tennis until 3:30. Dorothy and I against Zena and Ester Richt. They beat 7 to 5. But Dorothy and I are learning I had to help Bradford with the dishes tonight because she wanted to go to church.

Wednesday, April 1,

Warm.

Today is April fools day. Also John Battys birthday. Dorothy fooled me first thing by giving me a hollow walnut. I afterwards fooled Zenobia on the same walnut. I got my spelling paper back today. I got a 100 and so did Dorothy. Dorothy and I went into Miss McCarthy's little room and gave our Latin to each other. Dorothy and I intended to play tennis this noon so we changed our shoes and took our rackets and caps with us to study. If all was we could go right down to the

to court after the bell rang. Soon after the in bell rang Virginia Hayes came in and asked if there were three girls who would like to play tennis this period. There were four girls raised their hands but Miss Leslie finally picked out Margaret Armstrong and Dorothy and I. We played doubles all fifth period. Virginia and Margaret against Dorothy and I. We beat them a love game. We had eaten our lunch in matches so Dorothy and I had nearly all the sixth period to play singles in. I beat Dorothy six to three.
In Dramatics Dorothy and I to and all the other kids had to sit and listen to that crazy "Courtship Under Difficulties" Thursday, April 2, 1914. Warm.

We had made arrangements for Dorothy, Zora, Miss Parsons and I to play tennis today. I wore my white midie and my white pleated skirt. I think I looked awfully nice too. When I got to Dorothy's, she came out with the delightful news that she couldn't play tennis this afternoon because she had to go down town with her Aunt Vera. When we got to school we found out that Miss Parsons couldn't play either so that's the way it went.

 Fifth we had gymnasium again. Miss Worthen divided us into two companies and then gave us our examination.
 We had to take for a partner the one whose number came next to ours. I had Gopal Duhammel. Then Miss Worthen played a dance through on the Victor and then we had to dance it. The dance turned out to be the ace of diamonds.
 Gopal said she didn't know it and wouldn't try it so we had to stand there looking on while everybody else danced. After class I went up and told Miss Worthen all about it and so she told Dorothy and I to dance one all by ourselves then. It happened that she played one that I knew better than any of the others so I think Dorothy and I acquitted ourselves quite well. We had our lunch in the cafeteria this noon. We had a banana special (mock). We finished our lunch in a little time and as there was no one on the Girls' Court we went down and played tennis. I beat Dorothy 2 to 1. Dorothy and I went to Miss Blunt after History and took out scholarship blanks. I got Miss McCarthy to sign for History and she gave me B+. Gladys A. Coryell Friday, April 3. Warm

I wore my white middie and skirt again today. When I was walking up to the school today I discovered I had left my scholarship blank at home. So when I got to school I got another one from Miss Blunt. Dorothy and I then went to Miss Parsons and got her to sign us for English and Dramatics. We both got A in both. In Spanish Miss Murphy gave us both A-. In Latin Miss Spencer gave me A and Dorothy A-. In Latin we had our vocabulary match and Miss Spencer had no nominate somebody to give out the words. I nominated Howard and he nominated me. Howard won so I took my usual place at the foot of the line. I got up to the head through. In Study-Hall Dorothy and I ate all of her lunch. After the ringing of the bell Dorothy and I got some candy and then went down and played Tennis. When we quit the score was 4 all. In Geometry Mr. Goldthwaite gave Dorothy B+ and myself B. This afternoon I threw my tennis-slippers in the wastebasket. When I got home I washed and combed my hair all over again. About a quarter to six who should arrive but Bampa and we had the Wilsons and Esther invited. About a quarter after six they arrived. Esther had on a new silk dress and looked awfully nice in it too. We had lots and lots of fun. Esther borrowed my book, "The Harvester". They went home soon after nine. I have finished reading body "May I remember look" and "Glenary School Days". I liked the last one. ^{clandy} Saturday, April 4, 1914. Cool.

I didn't want to get up this morning.
I finally did though. We had a good breakfast as usual. After breakfast I made all three beds and then dusted.
After cleaning up and combing my hair, Mama told me to get her white pique shirt and she would use about making it over for me. After looking it over she decided she couldn't do anything with it until she had a pattern. After lunch I helped with the dishes and then started to do fancy-work. It rained a little while. After it quit raining I took my skates and went out. Skated with John Batty up and down Beruice (Today was Mr. McKenzies funeral) After skating a little while I came back home and read. Mama has got her centipede almost done. I had to take a bath tonight. Lx.

Cool.

It rained all night and was still raining this morning. As I had nothing else to wear I wore my white middie and skirt to church today. Mrs. Baker didn't come till way late and we thought she wasn't going to come at all. But she did. Lucy was there also. As soon as we got to our class-room Mrs. Baker told us she couldn't stay and then said she wanted myself and Doris to help with the collection Easter. But Doris was going to be away and so she told Juanita to. Lucy taught us the lesson. We all got new quarterlies today. I sat in church with Ruth Hopkins and Lucy. After church I went down to Butters to take their book back and to get some more for Mamma to read. When it was too late I discovered that I had left my Bible and things in the basement in the church. Badly and I got some candy down at Ave. 90 while we were waiting for a car. Bradford got us a good dinner. This afternoon she left us and Mama and I are kind of glad of it. I read nearly all afternoon and evening. I didn't go to bed until after nine o'clock. ~~MC~~

Monday, April 2, 1914.

Warm.

We all had the pleasure of getting up to a breakfast prepared by Daddy this morning. When I woke up my whole right arm was paralyzed. I didn't have a bit of feeling in it and I couldn't move my fingers. It soon got over that though. After breakfast I had the pleasure of clearing up the table and washing the dishes all by myself. I gave the dishes a good cleaning and cleaned up the tea-bottle and stove. After that I swept the kitchen, made the three beds, except the living room, cleaned up my slippers, blacked my high shoes and finally cleaned up myself.

Bampa went home this morning. About one o'clock Mama put on our wraps and then we went down town. We got off the car at eighth street and then went over to Kaufmangers. Mama got me some black tennis-slippers and then I got myself the prettiest flowered hair-ribbon. Then Mama and I went up to the second-floor. We were looking at some dresses when Mrs. Hopkins and Ruth came up. Maria bought me a new dress. It is a blue checked trimmed with white. It is awfully pretty and it is made in a style that I like fine. After buying the dress we went over to look at the hats. After buying a shirt for Daddy we closed the transfer slip up and then Mama waited on a seat while I got some candy. Then Mama and I had some hot chocolate after which we came home. ET

Tuesday April 7, 1914. Warm.

Today is wash-day. Beessie brought her duntie with her and they are more than making the work fly. Bessie's auntie washed the dishes and so all I had to do was to make the three beds and run over the dining-room with a carpet sweeper. After getting my hair combed, Mamma cut down my pink hat and we discussed trimmings for it. Soon after a hamburger came with my dress, tennis-slippers and Daddy's shirt. But I seemed to be under a hex for the tennis-slippers were too short and the dress didn't fit at all.

 Bessie got dinner for us today and it turned out to be a good one. We had fried ham, omelet, strawberries and cream and chocolate cake. Bessie's Aunt washed the dishes again this noon, for which I was very thankful.
 Soon after lunch I took my skates and started to skate but soon de-sisted as Anita and Zelma proved too irresistible. I played with them for quite awhile. Anita and I got Zelma to walk from one to the other. Then we went down to see the rabbits. After that I came home and embroidered. As I had run out of the brown floss I worked on my lazy-daisy centerpiece. I have got two of the circles done. Mama finished hers today, all but the french knots. After supper I darned two stockings.

Warm

Today has been a nice day all day long. After I washed the dishes and while I was making the bed, Mama cleaned up the refrigerator. I swept the dining-room a little and then combed my hair. I put on my pink middie and skirt, silk stockings, slippers and my new flowered hair ribbon. Mama then suggested my taking the ribbon off of my winter hat and putting it on my pink-hat. We did and Mama trimmed it up so that it looked real nice. After that we took the car and went down town. We got off at eighth street and we walked over to Hamburger's. There we took the things back. I saw some real pretty yellow-flowered hair-ribbon that Mama and I liked and bought some. When we went to try on tennis shoes we had a lot of trouble. The fours were all too small and the $4\frac{1}{2}$ are way too big. We finally had to get $4\frac{1}{2}$ and then some in-soles.

While we were at Hamburger's we also got a middy pattern and a skirt pattern ^{4 loose stockings without ribs,} the goods for a middy and a skirt and some jetum to black our hats. When we had gotten through our shopping at Hamburger's we went to the Chocolate Bar for lunch. After lunch we went across the street to the Alhambra. There was one picture that was good "Diplomatic G-Lo". After that we went to Bullock's. We got some lace for my princess-slip and a black moire hair-ribbon. At Hamburger's we had met Mr. Black and Mrs. McMillan.

Here we met Mrs. Howell. Mama was tired when we got home and so was I. After supper and after the dishes were washed I called up Esther and asked if she could play tennis tomorrow with me. But she couldn't because she had another engagement.

Thursday, April 9,

Cloudy.

I was sort of glad to get out of bed this morning. While I was washing and making the beds, Mama cleaned out the cooler and the closet on the screen porch. After my dishes were washed I called up Esther to see if she could play with me tomorrow. She said she could so we made arrangements to meet at 54 and Monte Vista at half-past two. Before Mama and I had got ourselves cleaned up in the front rooms Mrs. Roberts' came in. She was circulating a petition for Mr. Roberts. She didn't stay long, only about fifteen minutes. Soon after Hamburgers came with all the things. While Mama cut out my skirt I blacked my hat. It took over three coats and used up the bottle. Before lunch I had to go over to the store and get bread, boiled ham and apples. After lunch I combed my hair and then worked on my skirt. I got it done all but the hem and the band stitched. - E.

Friday, April 10, Winifred.

Thank-goodness it didn't rain today as I was afraid it would. It is hot and most awfully windy.

After breakfast, I cleared up the table and then made the beds while the dish-water got hot. Mama and I together finished my skirt this morning. I got the lunch today.

While we were eating Esther called up and wanted to know if I would just as soon come earlier. Of course

I would. I put on my new skirt and my middie, my stockings with out ribs and my tennis shoe and black hair ribbon. I left at ten minutes after one. I got off at 53 as Mama wanted me to collect the rent. I then I went on up to 54 and found Esther waiting for me. When we got down to the courts, Verne and Harry Bland were playing. Esther took Harry and I had Verne. Verne and I beat the first set and Harry and Esther beat the second. By that time Verne had arrived and so she and Harry played the next set with us. We beat that set too, so Verne and I beat two sets out of three. The boys are dandy players. After the third set it was time for me to come home and so I took the red car. At 43 I got a bottle of catsup as Mama wanted me to and then came on home. I got home at 10 minutes past five. Gladys A. Conyell.

 Saturday, April 11, 1914. Warm

When I woke up this morning I didn't feel a bit like getting up, I was sore and tired. We were all out of eggs so we didn't have much breakfast this morning. After breakfast I washed the

I dishes, swept the kitchen floor, made the beds, cleaned my room thoroughly also the living-room and dining room, swept the sewing-room and then got lunch. While I cleaned the front rooms Mama sewed the lace on my princess slip. After lunch I washed the dishes and then cleaned myself up while Mama took a bath.
 Mama told me I could ask Dorothy to play tennis with me for awhile this afternoon so I went down and called her up on the phone. But she couldn't and soon after I came home Mama and I went down to the Green-house.
 We didn't buy anything though. After my bath and when I was putting Mama to bed, Mama asked me if I wanted to wear my summer underwear and of course I did and so in the morning I am to put it on for good. I am awfully interested in the "Rosary," Gladys A. Boyell and my work finished. I put on my new princess slip, my party dress, silk stockings, slippers and my blue-satin hair-ribbon. Also my black hat and my coat. As there were no cars in sight when Daddy and I got down to twenty we went into the drug-store and got a grape-phosphate. We missed one car while we were doing so too but we got there on time. As Juanita wasn't there this morning Mrs. Baker told Ruth to help with the collection. I took one of the center aisles. The plates were so full that the collection just slid off and wouldn't stay on. After church there was a wedding but nobody I knew and anyhow it was an invitation affair. I read all afternoon until about half-past four when we all got ready and went over to Professor Vetter's. Mama wore her new old rose dress and I the same as I wore in the morning. The Greens were at church tonight. The cantata was quite good and Mrs. Black had a solo. At Professor's we had new crackers, olives, pears and chocolate.

Monday, April 13, Hot.

It was hot again today. I hated to start in school again so. I wore my balkan and my new shirt. When I got to Dorothy's it was early yet so I went in and waited for her. Nothing much happened in the school-life until the fifth period which was tennis. Dorothy and I only had time to play a half of a set. I beat her 3 to 1. Then Genobia and I played and I beat her 3 to 0. Then we went up and took a shower on our face and feet, after which we went down to the courts after first finishing our lunch. There were two girls playing when we got down there so we played doubles. Dorothy and I got beat, though I don't remember the exact score. Just after Dramatics Milton took two pictures of the club. I had a dime to spend so Dorothy and I got two glasses of grape-juice which was cold before walking home. After I got home I gave Mama's had a coat of blacking and then finished red "The Rosary." It is a clandy book and awfully interesting. I know a new phrase for I should worry, and is in the Bible. It is I should manifest extreme agitation. Gladys A. Coryell

Hot.

I wore the same dress as I did yesterday.
 This morning as I was scrubbing my hair I found a dollar of daddy's in the closet. I asked him if finders were keepers and he said it depended whose it was. He said that if he were the finder why then finders should be keepers.
 I told him those were my views of the case too and I had just found a dollar of his and I was going to keep it too. He took it with quite good grace too. I told Dorothy about it on the way to school. We haven't got the invitations out yet for the banquet.
 When we got to school Dorothy and I looked up about Joan of Arc for History but only got started by the time the bell rang.
 Fifth period we had gym as usual and ish we learned a new dance. I & is the Farm ch dance. I think it is kind of nice. Right new after gym we dressed quickly and ate the all of our lunch except the box of strawberries and drinking our bottles of grape juice. When the bell rang we ran right down to the tennis - courts and two - played a whole set. I beat Dorothy 6 to 2. my After Geometry Dorothy and I asked her the if we came Wednesday if she would just as soon let us off today. I he said she would so Dorothy and I got ready to go over to her house and write the invitations. On the way down we stopped in the store and got our grape-juice bottles opened. When we got to Dorothy's we went right to work on the old invitations. We spoiled nearly all of them and so we had to go down on Broadway to get some more cards. We got through the invitations at last by five o'clock.

Then Dorothy showed me her white dress and then I came home.

Wednesday, April 15,

Hot.

Dorothy and I went sort of early this morning as we wanted to give the invitations out and then we had some Spanish to get also. When we got to school we went to work on our Spanish then when the first bell rang we gave out the invitations to all the kids we could find. When we gave Milton his he showed us the pictures he took of us Monday. Both pictures are quite good of me. I forgot my money for lunch today. After fifth study Dorothy and I went down to the tennis courts. When the bell rang the game - score was 2 to 4 in Dorothy's favor and the score 40-30 in my favor. In English today Miss Parsons asked if we had all the invitations out and we told her yes. In History Miss McCarthy was sorting the papers which sent in our marks in certain subjects. She came over and showed us each one of our slips and we both got a in Spanish. When we were walking home Miss Spencer caught up with us and we told her about getting a in Spanish. Miss Spencer said we were both going to get a in Latin.

75.

She also said that she was only giving 7 a's and she was only giving 7 a's among a hundred pupils. After supper this evening when it was just about time to go to bed I jumped up real quick out of the chair and fell down and almost broke my arm. I sprained my wrist real bad and I bent the bone a little up towards my elbow. Mama bandaged it and helped me get into bed. It ached and hurt like everything and I was so nervous I shook as if I had a chill and my teeth chattered. Elsie & I Thursday, April 16. Not

My arm is still hurt this morning.
Mama didn't hardly want me to go to school today at all and she said if I didn't feel like staying for me to get excused and come home. As I could not get my arm into the position to put on either of my middies I put on my new dress and wore my sweater. Everybody wanted to know what was the matter with my arm at school. I certainly gained notoriety enough about it. I had 35¢ for lunch today. I didn't take gym today on account of my arm nor did I play Tennis at noon or after school. We had a meeting of the club this noon period in the cafeteria. Dorothy and I had to go and put in an order for some groceries for our banquet and so after school we started out. We went in at every store we came across but we couldn't find any good oranges until we had gotten clear down to Daly. After we had ordered every thing we could think of I walked back to Dorothy's and we figured out costumes for Zenobia and Milton who were our charges. After getting them arranged I came home. Gladys Boyd

Friday, April 12

I wore the same dress as I did yesterday today. So school my took my party dress and princess slip and were my hair-ribbons and slippers.

 I also took my things which were to go to the costumeing and some pink roses and fern for Dorothy and I to wear. Dorothy had a lot of things to carry. Miss Murphy read us our marks in Spanish. Dorothy, Helen and I were the only A's. The rest of the girls got B and all the boys got C.
 Right after the fourth period Dorothy and I went to Miss Blum's and got permits to be excused fifth and sixth period to go down and get the groceries on the way down Dorothy and I stopped in at Bellans and got a cherry-sundae. It tasted awfully good, as it was so hot and as we had such a load to carry we took the car back but even then were late to English. We asked Miss Mc Carthy if we could be excused from History at 2:30 and she told us we could. We went right to the dressing rooms and dressed up and then went down to entertain the initiates until the girls should be ready. It happened they weren't ready until a quarter of five. For the banquet we had orange-salad, bread and butter sandwiches, olives, orange ice and chocolate cake. We also had the favors which were bonbons. After supper we dressed the initiates up. We dressed Milton up in my red felt hat with a feather stuck in it, my nose on him and an apron thrown across his shoulders. Zenobia was dressed in Mr. Reynolds' duster with the legs tied around with a string, her head wrapped around with a bath-towel and two brown feathers pinned on it for ears and court-plaster torn and stuck on her cheeks. Miss Parsons thought I on sea was finely dressed up - But John Hittinger and Victor Kendrick looked two funny for any use. We made the boys act out the Jabberwocky and the Girls the Mock Turtle's tale. Then we all hove to and helped clear everything up. Milton wished to keep the nose case, I left him.

 When everything was cleared up and we were all ready to go it was eight o'clock and pitch dark. Dorothy and I were scared and Miss Parsch got Spontaco to walk down with us. He carried both of our suit-cases too. At Alta street Miss Smith, Dorothy's Aunt met us so we only had Spontaco go with us to Johnston and Broadway.
 As my tickets weren't good after six o'clock and I didn't have any money I had to borrow carfare from Klynch's and then Miss Smith took me to the carline. She told me that Daddy had called up at their house. When I got home it was a quarter of nine and I was just dead. Mamma had been hair dyed and I am so glad. La

Hot

I was awfully tired this morning and didn't want to get up. My arm still hurts me some. After breakfast I made my bed and then walked around the yard a while. Afterwards I took the scissors and cut a bunch of Ail Buxine roses and some yellow and pink roses. After that I picked all the old blossoms of the rose-bushes.

When I came in again I dusted and then we had lunch. After lunch Mamma and I did up the breakfast and lunch dishes. I read "Richard Garret" all afternoon and evening until I took my bath. I didn't even comb my hair.

Sunday, April 19.

Hot.

Today has been the hottest day we have had this year. I wore my white middie and white skirt today and my new yellow-flowered hair-silken. I got to Sunday School quite early today. Because Daddy and I walked across. Ruth McKenzie was out to church and Sunday School today for the first time. In class time it was arranged that we have a class-meeting made at Margaret Hadio to select a new president. Mama came to church this morning and Ruth Hopkins and I sat with her. It was so warm all day that we couldn't do anything but sit around and read. I finished up "Richard Carvel." I like it fine.

Monday, April 20.

Hot.

Mama Today was warm too. I wore my middie and white shirt today too.

After Spanish and when we went to our classroom we were met with the joyful news that we wouldn't get our Report Cards until after the seventh period. But Miss McCarthy showed us all ours anyway. Dorothy and I got just the same, 4 A's and 3 B's. The A's were in, Latin, Spanish, English and Dramatics. The B's were in Geometry, History and Gym. In Latin today Miss Spencer went off and left the class to study. Three boys cut up while she was gone but Irene, Dorothy and I studied our Latin. When Miss Spencer came back she told us that Miss McSellan had reported our noise and so she said the whole class would have to stay tenth period Wednesday. That made me so mad that whenever she called on me to recite I told her I didn't know or I had lost the place or something. Then she thought we had ~~been~~ ^{been} ~~tricked~~ ^{tricked} so she told us we could study the rest of the period. I didn't want to study because I knew my lesson so I just closed my book and looked at her all the time. If she had said anything to me I was going to tell her that I had done nothing to deserve a tenth period and so I was starting to learn it. Dorothy and I have ~~verred~~ ^{verred} her our enemy and have sworn not to smile at her or anything. The fifth Dorothy and I played tennis. When we got down on the courts some boys were playing so we played doubles. My partner and I beat Dorothy and her partner every game. In dramatic we voted on our pen and then Miss Parsons read some of "Miss Lirization" When I got home I mended my silk stockings and then got ready to go out to the surprise party on Mrs.

 Black. Soon after we got up to Mrs.
 Roberts they came. Dorothy and Mrs.
 Black were awfully surprised. After dinner away - we had to make a speech and Dorothy and I went away from the table. If I had of been called on I would of said this "Friends, Americans, countrymen, lend me your ears. I come not to bury the stags, Mrs. Black and Dorothy but to praise them. In praising them I will do my utmost to please them therefore will quit down." Etc.

Tuesday, April 21, Cool.

Today was quite cool. And by fifth period it started in to rain.
 For a wonder I didn't forget my Report Card. I did some Geometry going on the car to school. This morning Dorothy and I got mad at each other about a trivial thing and wouldn't speak to each other. When the 12 period period was about over I made up my mind I would smile at Dorothy and hope she didn't come back that I would be the last of her. Well she laughed back and then came over and sat with me and that was the last of our madness. Miss Spencer is as crazy as ever. In Gym we danced for about half of the period but had to quit on account of the rain. We ate our lunch all up in the Gym and only had our oranges to eat the sixth period. As there was to be a meeting of the old members of the Lock and Bashin Club Dorothy and I went in the cafeteria. Right after the eighth period Dorothy and I changed coats. She put on my sweater and I put on her blue sport coat. Just as we got to her house it began to rain so Dorothy took me over to the car with an umbrella of theirs. As it rained I didn't get to go to the class meeting.

Wednesday, April 22, Rainy

It was raining yet today and Mamma didn't want me to go to school but I wanted to go. It was real cold and I put on my winter union suit.

Dorothy and Black got 10¢ worth of candy on the way to school to eat in the period. As we went in the building

Miss Parsons said us and she gave Dorothy the play "Hop o' my thumb" in which she is to take the leading part in, to read. In reading it I liked like to part awfully well and am going to ask Miss Parsons if I can try for it. Dorothy wants me to too.

The ninth period Miss Parsons read the names and the parts which they are to have. She had me down for the Marchioness but she forgot to read it and so my name wasn't read one during the whole period. Right after that period Dorothy and I went to Miss Spencer and commenced to eat our canody. We had a vocabulary match and had piles of fun. I would not have missed it for a picnic. We don't like Miss Spencer, though. Etc.

Thursday 23 April. Warm

I changed back to my summer underwear again today. When Dorothy and I got to school we hunted up Zona and got the money to pay Mr.
Dickison which we proceeded to do. Also enough to pay the grocers. Fifth period we took Gym as usual and danced all the period nearly. As soon as the bell rang Dorothy and I ran down on the courts and played singles the whole period. We both were awfully out of practice as something I don't just know what. We took our rackets to History this afternoon so we could run right down and get the courts as today is our tennis afternoon.
We played two sets against different partners and lost both of them but we are learning. When we got up to our locker we found out that my key was lost so we had to go back to the courts and hunt for it. It happened that we found it which was very lucky. Then Dorothy and I went down to pay the grocery bill. On the way to the grocery we got some ice-cream cones. When I got home I was awfully tired. E.C.

Friday, April 24. Warm.

I wore my dress today. It is the only dress I have for school all the others are middie. When we got to school we started in to translate Spanish. In Spanish class Miss Murphy read a notice which said that all pupils of high-school grade were to listen to the S.A. High Glee Club just before lunch and there was to be no third period. Accordingly after Spanish we went to Latin and there we had a Spelling Match as usual. I got to the head as usual but Dorothy wasn't doing so good as usual and she got clear down at fourth place. Fifth we had study so we just kept our seats and therefore had good ones for the concert. It was certainly dandy and our glee-club isn't in it with theirs. They had several songs, a recitation, two quartets, a violin solo, a steel guitar solo, and a quintet. The chorus' encores were dandy. The first one was Johnny Smoker, Johnny Smoker.

 Then the next one was "Let her sleep" and I liked it best of all. It started out real lively but kept getting drowsy all the time. When they all began yawning and stretching and dropping down one by one until there was only one left. He was a quavering away with his eyes shut and singing "Let her sleep". All of a sudden he stretched and yawned and woke up.
 When he saw all the others were down he hastily sat down himself.
 We didn't play tennis this noon.
 On History today I knew all of my Lesson nearly by heart. When I got home I really had a surprise party myself for there were a whole lot of women here and they had come and brought the lunch and surprised Mama. They had brought enough lunch so that it made our supper too. Gladys A. Long.

 Saturday, April 25, 1905.

I was as tired as usual when I got up this morning. I washed and wiped the dishes, swept the kitchen and hall, dusted the front-rooms and my bedroom and finally, cleaned myself up. After Mama took her bath we went down town. We went into a good many stores but didn't buy a thing except a dish-map. We were going in the Morisco theater and see the "Girl Behind the Counter" but it didn't look good so we went into Chimes. They had on a pretty good program. I liked one especially well "Colonel Hecza Lian" after that we went down to Maine St. to take our car but first stopped in at the Pig'n Whistle to get a frozen orange phosphate. It was certainly good. I had to take a bath tonight. E.H.

Sunday, April 21. Warm.

I wore my pink dress to Sunday-School today. We got there real early. Ruth McKenzie was there when I got there and we talked to-gether a long time. She invited me up to her house this afternoon and I accepted on the approval of Mama. I asked Ruth Hopkins who they elected for President last Tuesday and she said that Mrs. Baker wasn't going to appoint one. Mama came to church this morning and sat with her of course. We had some missionaries from Honolulu to speak to us and service held until 20 minutes of 2. After dinner I got out of washing dishes because I went over to Ruth's. Silly hadn't seen me for so long?

expected her as much as could be to look at me but when she saw me she jumped upon me and kissed me.
 Ruth and I made some Darnity and it turned out simply lovely. Ruth came over for a little while and brought the baby. She is awfully cute. When they were gone we played and sang and tried over some charts. At six o'clock I started home. I certainly had a fine time.

Monday, April 27,

I wore my pink dress and rubbers today. When Dorothy and I arrived at school we translated Spanish. We got called on in class too. She marked me A- in her book but I don't know what she marked Dorothy. Third period Dorothy and I studied some Latin.
 Fourth period we had a Latin test which was easy. I think I got pretty good on it. Fifth period we played tennis. We played three games for a set. The first set Dorothy stood Geneva and I and she beat us 3 to 0. The next set I stood Geneva and Dorothy and I beat them 3 to 0. Noon period we played tennis too. We played three games and then a girl came down and stood us and we played three games that way. Miss Parsons wanted me to stay after school as she wanted to have the try-out between John and David for Dick Swiggler. David got it and I am glad for it. I didn't get home until 4:40.

Warm.

I wore my pink dress again today. Dorothy was waiting for me this morning. When we got to school we translated as usual but didn't get called on in class. The third period neither Gene, Dorothy or I had anything to do and so Gene drew us pictures. In Latin we got our papers back and Dorothy and I got B. In Gym today we learned a new dance and then reviewed the old ones. Dorothy and I started to play tennis this noon but were interrupted by Albertina and Gladys Woodhouse who wanted to play their game for the tournament. Gladys won 8-6. The eighth period was lengthened on account of a lecture being given to the grammar-school grades. Therefore History period was shortened. Dorothy was awfully lucky today and found a quarter. On the way home we stopped in and got a grape-juice drink. Mama got me some long white silk gloves. Go

Wednesday April 29.

Rainy

When I woke up this morning it was raining. The bed felt so comfortable that I hated to get up. I took part of my lunch to school today. I took lettuce sandwiches and a deviled egg and then Dadly gave me a nickel. It was cold this morning. I wore my little dress and then my sweater and coat both. Dorothy was soon ready when I got to school. On the way to school 94.

we stopped and spent the rest of the quarter in candy. Miss Murphy called on me to translate and I translated several paragraphs. Instead of the third period classroom we went to hear a lecture on Peace. We had our lunch in the cafe. Teria as it rained. In Geometry we got our papers back and I got all my problems right but missed one definition. Gladys A. Loyell

April 30, Thursday.

Look.

We got up sort of late this morning. I wore my pink dress and pink bow today. Dorothy was ready when I got to her house this morning. Miss Murphy called on me again to translate this morning. The third period Dorothy and I had to bring to light some arithmetic books and I had to pay the whole sum of two cents. In Gym Miss Worthen had us go through all she was going to have us do on Visitor's day. Lunch period Dorothy and I played tennis. I beat the set 3-1. In Geometry we had our little review and now are starting in Book II which is all about circles. History was very dry as usual. After school Dorothy and I watched until half-past five the games between Poly and Lincoln. Paul lost his set to the handsome one but Tom won his. In the doubles one Lincoln beat the first set but I didn't stay to see the next. Church is the one that I have designated as the handsome one. I fell quite in love with him. He is just the type that I admire. He is of an athletic build dark skin and eyes and black hair.

Friday, May 1. Rainy

When I woke up this morning it was raining. I won my little chess. By the time I got to Dorothy's it was raining real hard. Miss Murphy called on me to translate again today. We had spelling today and I know I missed one word but I think that is all. Dorothy and I were awfully hungry so we went in to Miss Mc Carthy's little room and ate some sandwiches and studied Latin. In Latin we had a spelling match instead of a Vocabulary match. I did not get to the head this time. In Study-hall we studied Geometry and then read "Timothy's quest" which we had gotten out of the library. Also we studied English. We had our lunch in the cafeteria today and I got fish and mashed potatoes. In Geometry I couldn't remember those propositions a bit and nobody else seemed able to do so either which quite provoked Mr. Goldthwaite. In History we had a very dull time but that is usual. It wasn't raining after school so Dorothy and I batted a few balls on the tennis court and then ran half the way home to overtake Miss Spencer who ought to be digni-fixed by the prefix of "Miss" and would better, called Ether Jean. ^{Ex.}

Saturday, May 2, Cool.

It was clear today and there was sort of a cold wind blowing. I did the usual Saturday work which if you want to know you may find by looking back to previous Saturdays and then took my bath. After my bath I put on nice clean clothes and then combed my hair while Mamma took her bath. About that time it was time for lunch which we proceeded to have. After lunch I paraded myself in my new white pique skirt and Balkan blouse and then, after putting on my wraps, we went down town. We went first thing to Doctor Whiting and who should we see in the reception room but Mrs. Mason and Lowell.
Soon after Doctor Whiting came and examined me and then gave me a treatment and then gave Mamma treatment. After we left the Doctor's office we looked for a hat for me but didn't find one. Afterwards we were tired so Mamma bought some candy and some gum and then we went into a Moving-Picture show on the sly as Mamma styles it. By the time that was over with it was half past five and time to meet Daddy at the cafeteria. After supper we went to another Moving Picture show and then came home. On the car coming home a man sat down beside me whom I knew but Mamma didn't. A harmless little conversation followed while Mamma watched me like a hawk. It tickled me to see her because she thought sure he was what you call a nasher. SS

Sunday, May 3. Cloudy.

It has been a dark day all day today. I was just about ready to get up this morning when Mamma called me. It rained a little this at morning. Mama wasn't feeling after very good today and I didn't want gum to go to church so I just stayed 4- home. I tried a new way of na combing my hair. It is parted and then pompaded in front and al-ver coiled around in back. I like it fine but I can't do it myself and it don't stay good. I read nearly all tua morning until after dinner. I didn't help with the dishes this noon. After dinner I read but towards evening I played. Then Mama and I played didn't church hymns together. She played way down in the base and I way up in the treble while Mama sang me soprano, Daddy tenor and myself alto. We certainly had quite a as medley of music. Gladys played dy. Monday, May 4. Cool.

ay It looked like it was going to to rain all day today but it didn't. a I wore my pink dress today. In Spanish today we had songs and a visitor.

The third period Dorothy and I looked over the geometry lesson and then read our story-book. In Latin we had a poem to copy and Dorothy and I learned the first six lines of it. The fifth Dorothy and I played tennis and we certainly had a time of it. There was no net up and our balls were as dead as a dornail and so there was some tennis-game down then on the court the fifth and sixth periods. Nothing out of the ordinary happened in either Geometry or English. In Dramatics Miss Parson took up the whole period and a little over to settle about the plays and when they were to be memorized and when are free periods were. After school I went into Dorothy's and got some pansy-plants. When I got home I planted my pansies and started out to make some Divinity but as there wasn't any Kero ended up by making fudge. It turned

ed. out good too. Then I practised a half an hour and then got supper. I prepared potatoes, chipp - beef gravy and tuna salad. after wiping the dishes I practised another half hour and then sat down to read and study.

Tuesday, Mar. 5.

Nice

Today was a fine day. I wore my ballan - blouse and blue skirt today. In Spanish we sang all period. In roll - call we read our book some. Nothing special happened in Latin. In Gym we had Clean Up day. Florence, Stevens, Dorothy and I were all in one group. Each group had to go up on the hill side and get a waste - basket - full of papers. Most of the kids stuck to the roads but we went out in the grass and got our basket full long before anyone else did. After that we danced and formed our ranks as we were to be on visitor's day. Florence and I headed the line. At noon we played tennis and

Dorothy and I got some fine visitors in and kept the Ball in motion quite awhile. In English we got up a program for visitors' day. We planned to act out Oryth in pantomime and we decided on Pandora. Right after English we went to our classrooms for about twenty minutes to have some notices read to us and then have some invitations for Visitor's day distributed to us. For Geometry we had a test of five problems but only had a twenty-minute period and so some people only got one problem done, some two and none did three.
Dorothy got two done and I got three.
I am sure they are all right too.
Nothing special happened in History.
I don't believe there ever does. After school, I went over to Dorothy's and we started to string ourselves a Tango necklace but they turned out to be only half the length we wanted them. Mamma and I had our supper alone this evening. 78.

Wednesday, April 6. Cool.

It was awfully foggy this morning when I first awoke. I wore the same dress that I did yesterday. I took my lunch to school today. Docto was soon ready when I got there. We sang songs a little over half the period in Spanish and then read from Marienela until the period ended. Nothing else happened of much account in the morning until noon when we played tennis. Dorothy and I played against Clara Arch and Eliza Lowrey. We beat them 2 to 2. In English they acted out the myth of Pandora and Zona was chosen as Pandora. We got our Geometry papers back. Dorothy got B and I got A. We had another bet of two propositions but both Dorothy and I failed on it. I could have thought of the figures I knew how to prove them but I couldn't think of the figures to save me. I thank-goodness today was Wednesday and we didn't have to go to History. Miss Parsons had the Courtship under Difficulties people go through their piece and it was terribly funny. After that period the characters had flash-light photographs taken of them which were to appear in the Tribune the following morning. I practiced some this evening, in fact quite a little.

Thursday, May 7. Wagon

At last the wonderful visitor's day has arrived. I wore my white middie and white pleated skirt. When Dorothy and I arrived at school the visitors had begun to arrive. We didn't have any visitors though after all though we went through the program just as if we had of had. We only had a five minute roll-call this morning and then went to our fourth-period recitations. In Latin we had a vocabulary match. Fifth period was gym and we had about thirty or forty minutes visitors up there. Miss and Worthen after our drill was only going to have no dance two dances but she finally ended by having no dance and every dance we had ever had. At the end of the first dance Dorothy and I had to run in the office and sew up a hole that had mysteriously sprung in my stocking and at the end of the last dance my garter broke, because it didn't show on account of my gymnasium bloomers but I felt uneasy all the time.

 Right after the fifth period came the seventh and Miss Parsons sent us down in the Study Hall to sew curtains as soon as Virginia came with the goods. As Virginia hadn't come yet as we ate our lunch then and as soon as Virginia came started to work.
 Mr. Gint gave us a case slip right through the ninth and we worked as hard as we could all the time. Once when Virginia and I were standing up on a chair together and sewing we fell and the whole line of curtains broke and came down with us. Thus we gave a little side-show to the audience ourselves. When we should have been in Geometry Mr.

 Goldthwaite came in and monkeyed around and then sat down and played us a little air on the piano. When he finished playing why we, who were behind the curtain clapped and the visitors who were waiting for the program to begin began clapping too. When I arrived home I asked Mamma if we were going to McKenzies this afternoon and then to the Progressive dinner or not and she said we were. So I immediately got ready as fast as I could. While doing so Mamma told me that the Whitings had killed their automobile on the track and before they could jump a train had collided with them killing Mr. Doctor Whiting, severely injuring Mrs. Doctor Whiting and perhaps fatally injuring Lorenzo Whiting. Also that Lily and Robert had stood on the porch and seen the whole thing occur. It seems awful.

As soon as I was ready we went over to McKenzies and stayed until six o'clock.
 Ruth wanted to borrow a white shirt and about five o'clock we went up to Wilsons. They showed us the request the court their grandfather was making of them and then we went on the porch.
 After about a half an hour Ruth and I went home. There Ruth combed her hair and changed her dress and then we all went down to Gingers for needle and soup. After that was finished we proceeded to Roberts where we were served with meat - loaf, potatoes and gravy, a head and butter, and jam. After we had were through with that we went down to Messengers and had a fruit-salad.
 It would have been good but it had olive-oil in the dressing. After that came the long walk and we walked down to Hale's where we had cake and punch. When we got home Mama and I were tired to death.

Friday, May 8,

Nice.

I wore my Balkan and long blue skirt today. Nothing special happened in Spanish. Today was our regular Spelling day but we didn't have it. In Latin we had a Spelling Match. I got to the head again today. Fifth period was Study and Dorothy had just settled ourselves when in walked Miss Parsons and got Florence Stevens and I excused to have some try-outs for the play. She first tried out Florence for the inn-keeper in the "Far Away Princess" and then she had Florence and I do our separate parts in the "Top o' my thumb" play. Florence has got Rose's part for sure and Miss Parsons thinks I am going to get Lyle's part. In the sixth period Dorothy and I played tennis. There were two boys, John Sahmer and Brooks Montgomery, playing and so we played doubles, Brooks and Dorothy, John and I. In none of the afternoon classes were interesting and so I won't relate any more of today.

Saturday, May 9,

Nice

We all laid in bed until late today. After breakfast I washed the dishes, swept the kitchen and then made my bed. Instead of cleaning house afterwards we started on my new middy and got it about half done before we had to stop. After lunch I took my bath and then went up to Highland Park to get my hat. Then I went down town to meet Mama wearing my new hat. As I got down there a little early I went into Coulter's and talked with Juanita awhile. Mama met me at Robinson's about a quarter after four and we went in there and got myself the prettiest crepe for a dress. It has pink roses buds in it. After that we went to the picture theater across from the cafeteria and then to the latter for supper. After supper we had some pennies and Mama and I got weighed. Mama weighed $131\frac{1}{2}$ and I weighed $98\frac{1}{2}$. After supper we went down to the Alhambra and saw the next issue of Lucille Dore. Diddy was being initiated into Knights of Pythias Order but he didn't get home until two o'clock.

Sunday, May 10

Fine.

Daddy and I went to Sunday - School early in order to stop in and leave Mary's solo with Miss Robinson and let her have time to practice the accompaniment before Sunday School time. Ruth Hopkins wasn't there today. After Sunday - School I went home because I didn't feel like staying to church. On the way home I rode in the car with Helen Radford. I got off at 4:30 and walked across to home. After I had set the table for dinner I read until time to put the dinner on the stove. After dinner Daddy and I washed the dishes then I read and helped to eat up our box of candy. Daddy slept nearly all afternoon. In the evening Mama and I sang and then walked about the yard for a little while. Gladys Coryell.

Monday, May 11,

I wore my middie and long white skirt today. Nothing special happened until fifth period which was tennis period. Bill played with us this period so we had a full set. Bill and Zenobia played against Dorothy and I. Dorothy and I beat the set 6 to 1. At noon we played again. Dorothy and I against Lara Andrew & Eliza Severy. We beat them too. Seventh period Dorothy asked Miss Parsons if we were going to give Dick Swiveller and the Marchioness scene at the Animated Quarterly. Miss Parsons said she didn't know yet but she thought that they wouldn't but would probably give the Nicholas Nickleby scene. That made me kind of mad and Dorothy too but I didn't say anything. In Dramatics though Miss Parsons made the announcement that the Marchioness scene would be given at the Animated Quarterly and the Nickleby scene wouldn't and she set David and I right to work practising. She kept us practising too until about four o'clock. Dorothy stayed with me so I had her for company in going home. Tuesday, May 10.

Nice
Mama kept me out from school this morning so that I could go over to Mrs. Tumblers and let her get my measurements.

for making my crepe dress. When I got back to school it was just about the middle of the fifth period. After Miss Worthen had let the girls go and dress I went in and found Dorothy and Helen. Dorothy was awfully glad to see me and she told me that Miss Parsons was worried to death thinking that she would have to cancel our scene. After Dorothy got dressed I went up to Miss Parsons and set her mind at rest and then Dorothy and I went down and played Tennis with Clara and Eliza. This time they beat us. In Geometry we had a little test of four problems and I think I got mine all right. After History David and I practised with Miss Parsons. I walked over to Dorothy's and got an old dress of hers and then went home to get my costume ready for the dress rehearsal down at the Starland which is to be tomorrow.

Wednesday, May 13

I packed all my clothes ready for the rehearsal in the little satchel this morning.

On the way up to the school Dorothy and I stopped in a little store and got six sheets of tissue-paper to make my bonnet. When we got to school I left my things in Miss Parsons office and then hunted her up to see if she would get us out of study-hall the fifth to make the bonnet. If so she proceeded to do and also got us out of classroom the next third. After Spanish Dorothy and I went down to Miss Parsons office and made my bonnet and then went to Latin. In Latin nothing more than usual happened. The fifth Dorothy and I ripped the ticks out of the dress and then sewed it around the bottom to make it longer. In the sixth Dorothy and I started a set by ourselves and ran the game score up to two all when Clara and Eliza came down. They beat us another set again today. Nothing special happened in English. In Geometry we got our papers back. Dorothy and I both got 75 as we both missed the second one. In Dramatics David and I rehearsed and for food, I had hash.

beans and a slice of bread. After that we all went down to the Starland and rehearsed. Miss Parsons complimented me afterwards and said I did just fine. Also she said that in the acting scene where I look out of the corner of my eye at David that the whites of my eyes showed fine. ^{Yes}

I wore my little dress today also. In Gymnasium we had to play ball and it so happened that Dorothy and I were on opposite sides. I would rather dance any day than play the games. We play tennis this noon as usual. In History Miss McCarthy took down all the names of those who were to be in the animated quarterly. In the tenth period David and I were to practise with Miss Parsons and Dorothy stayed too. It was almost five o'clock before we were through and then I went way over on the other side of town to Mrs. Tumblers and had my dress fitted. Mama was there. When we were waiting for the car Mama displayed a we package of candy waifers which she possessed and which made me very glad. We stopped off down town and had supper and then went over to the Woodley Theater and saw "The Old Curiosity Shop".

 Of course they had to run their old weeklys and everything else until they finally came to the Marchioness and Dick Swiveller scene and then that wasn't worth seeing according to my notion. Directly after that was over we went home and to bed. Gladys A. Doyell Friday, May 15, Fine.

I wore my little dress again today. In going off to school I came pretty near forgetting the plate. But I really remembered everything. On the way to school Dorothy and I stopped in at the store and got some orange nectar for our beer.
 Up at the school I saw Esther Wilson who was visiting our school with Doris. In Spanish I yawned all period. In classroom we had spelling. After it was over with Miss Parsons came in and arranged that I should not go to any more classes today. The fourth and part of the fifth David and I practised. The sixth we all put our lunches together in Miss Parsons' room and had a picnic-lunch. Just after the eighth period we all went down to the Astor Theater. But when we got down there we were all enlightened by the fact that they refused to open the doors for us and so we all had to troop back to the school where the boys' glee club sang for us and the boys' and girls' gym clubs performed for us. Mr. Rinney said that we would probably give the whole thing over in S. A. High's auditorium some time next week. After I got all cleaned up myself Dorothy and I cleaned Miss Parsons' little room all up for her. When she came in and found it all nice and clean she was very pleased and she actually kissed Dorothy and I. From then Miss Parsons has become my true affinity. Gladys Conyell.

P. S. Rode home on the car with Miss Peterson. She is very nice but not as nice as Belle Esmond.

I slept late this morning. In the morning Mama and I cleaned. Mama took a bath and then we had lunch. After lunch we laid around and did just about as we pleased. After a while I went over on Pasadena Avenue and got some candy and a can of beans for supper. The candy was good. Thelma brought my dress home today. I think it is very pretty. I also think I look grown up in it. Gladys Cuyell Sunday, May 17, Fine.

Today was awfully nice. I didn't need to wear my coat at all and so got a chance to wear my long white silk gloves. When Ruth saw me this morning she thought my dress was awfully long. The picnic proposition was decided today. It was decided to have a wine-roast and a marshmallow toast next Saturday from three to seven. I sat in church today with Olive Mosley. I read all the afternoon and in the evening I read and played.

I wore my little dress today and had my middy along to wear in tennis. I asked Miss Parsons when the Animated Quarterly was to be given and she said that she didn't know but thought that it was to be given Wednesday at S. A. High. In tennis today Genevieve took it in her head that she would get more practice by standing us two and so of course we beat her a fore set. On Dramatics we went through the Dick Swiveller scene once and then stayed after school to go through it again. David held hands and said his last farewell when he bolted through the door.

I wore my pink middy and skirt today. In Gym we played ball again and this time Dorothy and I got on the same side. This noon Dorothy and I played tennis. In English we were met with the astounding news that the Animated Quarterly was to be given Wednesday.

Thursday and Friday in our own Study Hall. Notices had been sent around the fifth period but as I was in gym at that time I didn't get the notice. In practising afterschool with Miss Parsons I asked her what periods I would get out at and she told me during the performances I wouldn't have any after-noon classes at all. Of course that tickled me immensely. Gladys, A. Loyell.

Wednesday, May 20, Cool.

I wore my pink again today. David and I were supposed to rehearse the third period but as it was shortened to five minutes and the seventh period put before lunch we didn't have time. The fifth period Dorothy and I went over to the cooking-room and made some Guernsey Ade for the afternoon's performance. The seventh which was the next period was when David and I rehearsed. The eighth and ninth periods I spent in getting dressed and painted up. When my thing finally came on I was scared to death. In the eating scene I got my mouth so full that I thought I never could choke it all down. When the curtain opened on our playing cards one hour later the curtain broke and Miss Parsons was so busy with it that she forgot to ring the bell and so we had to keep on playing until she remembered. Zenobia finally reminded Miss Parsons of it as I had afterwards. Zenobia told me too that the boys said, "I bet they have forgotten their lines or are doing something they oughtn't to do." But on the whole I think we did pretty well and I got lots of compliments. Gladys Corryell.

May 21, Thursday. Nice.

This morning I was quite tired which was nothing so very ^{much} out of the usual. I had to take Gymnasium this morning much as I disliked to.

Sunday July 29,

Hot

Well here it is the 29th of July 1917 that I, Gladys Conyell, a very different girl from the one who just wrote the opposite page, am going on with the journal. Various important and unimportant things have happened. Dorothy, alas, is no more my bosom friend and as for true affinites Miss Parsons, now Mrs. Cleve, fails to fill the bill. For past months all my waking and sleeping moments have been devoted to the thinking of Miss Beaver and now at home I have a living reminder of her in the small animated person of Beaver, my kitten.

He is playing with a spool while I am writing. This morning before the dishes were even cleared from the table Uncle Carl came along in his big Studebaker car and stayed for nearly half an hour. That naturally made me late to Sunday School as Mama is sick, thus leaving me to do all the work.

Four of my little girls were out today which is pretty good considering that it is vacation time. I didn't stay to church today but came home and read and that is all I have been doing this afternoon except when Beaver distracts me which is surprisingly often I just asked Beaver if this journal was to his taste and he said it was - proving his statement by trying to chew it up. He just gave Mama and I a bad three-quarters of an hour trying to find him. For some reason he felt unusually playful and didn't want to be put out in the store-house. Before he has been very compliant when I put him out, but this time I no sooner let go of him than he ran out like a streak and was gone.

Monday, July 31.

"So here has been dawning another blue day
I think, will you let it slip useless away For out of eternity this day was born Into Eternity it must return

I think, will you let it slip useless away."

I like that I can remember when Miss Peterson put that up on the black-board for us in English and I memorized it. If Mama insists and I have to go to College I guess I will have to paraphrase in the following fashion and use it for a motto.

So here has been dawning another blue year I think, will you spend it in sighing and tears? etc.

I forgot to put in yesterday's account that Mr. Culbert came to me during the Sunday School hour and asked if I would not play for the Buchestra the next three weeks as Catherine is to be away. I told him I would if I was here but I dread going to practise Saturday night. I am scared to death they will put something before me that I can't read off at sight or else it will be in sharps. If it would be in sharps the trouble is that I would have to play it that way as I don't think it would sound very good for me to play in flats and have everybody else playing in sharps. I missed something by not going to League last night. The Morleys were all there and the Moores. Oliver Beau-brought the whole Morley family in his car. Ruth H. says that he is short and kind of fat and lots older than Oliver. He also explains said that Oliver looked so cute, that she wore her hair all over the top of her head. which explanation was very lucid. I certainly did feel lousy today, in fact Maria had to give me a little first-aid treatment.
 As I spent most of my waking hours in sleeping I have nothing more to recount. Oh yes, I must tell about Weaver. I had tied a string on to a spool and he played with that. He would draw the string all up and swallow about half of it, I guess, and then take hold of the spool spool and pull all the string out. He choked himself several times. Well I am sleepy and wish so good-night.

Tuesday, July 31. Cool.

It is very demoralizing to me to have Mamma sick. Instead of getting all my work done up quickly I spend my time talking to her. I didn't get cleaned up until about twelve and then went over to the store and got some bananas and chocolate and vanilla ice-cream for lunch. We had mock banana special and (deciding that wasn't enough) cottage cheese. I don't know whether that is a good combination or not, I know something made me sick. That reminds me of one of the poems James Foley recited to us at school. Certain naughty things would happen and the children when called to account wouldn't know just who did it but Somebody did. After finishing another one of my "A" books (The Pilgrims of the Plains) I put on my thimble and started for Mrs. Post to sew for the Red Cross. On the way I paid Dr. Chapin's bill,

1965

Thus ending her career with Mama and I. There werent many sewing today, just Rowland and Julia McCable, Hazel Thomas, Marie (and she left at three) and Ruth. They said they had an awfully good lunch creamed salmon, bread + jelly, fruit, potato chips and I've forgotten what else. I did quite a little considering I am such a slow worker I think. I made three button-holes, sewed on two buttons, and fasted in a hem and an under arm seam. Oh yes I ran in a tape in a pajama suit. I got home about five, I guess.
The ~~five~~ back door was locked and who do you suppose let me. Nobody but Vivian Sinder herself. We had quite a little visit before supper and over the dishes (Daddy had to go to Drill) and then after getting everything cleaned up we had some more visit. Of course she asked to me to play, so I did, the only things I can play now. I went clear through the whole repertoire of my own compositions and she thought they were awfully pretty. Pardon me for saying it, but I do too. Then we all sang some and then I showed her my Kodak pictures, she managed to pick me out in most all of the pictures tho' she didn't recognize nize me in some.

Wednesday, August 1

Another day, pretty soon another night and then some more sleep, thank goodness! Last night after retiring to our room and putting on our "robes de nuit" (This comes from the Dub-Dub "Her Diary") we did not go to sleep as sensible people do and indeed how could we, being as neither one of us was sensible. No sir, I lit an incense stick, we cuddled down between the sheets and then I read the those two poetical letters Aunt Ella sent me at the time I left came into prominence, and then all my poems, all should I have said poems? I believe I would better have put rhymes or jingles but I am writing with an indelible pencil and I can't erase it. Vivian got up at a quarter past five this morning and as Maria had to wash then I also was awakened. After she left I managed to catch forty or fifty links before breakfast for which I was duly thankful. I had a little extra work this morning on account of I saw. He got some grease on the kitchen floor and that had to be cleaned up and also the idiosyncrasy Ruth Hopkins called up this afternoon and said that her mother said that Mrs. Gatch said that Mr. Norton said (that sounds like gossip doesn't it but I kind of imagine it's true) that Mrs. Stagg is very ill, that she had another stroke and that they have brought her home from the Beach. Well I spent the afternoon in reading Gertrude Atherton's "The Conqueror." I didn't think I'd like it at all but as I get further into it, it gets quite interesting. It is about Alexander Hamilton. After supper Mama and I walked up past Stagg's and I guess either the Hopkins or Mrs. Gatch's must have had a pipe-dream. There were no signs of the Stagg's so I guess it really was gossip.

Thursday, August 2.

Warm.

We all got up early this morning. That is, early for us, at seven o'clock as it was wash-day, one of those domestic catastrophes which occur every two weeks. However it is an inevitable one, one we could not do without, and just as inevitable is the ironing day which follows. Since Mama and I have been doing our own ironing I certainly have dreaded wash-day and its attending ironing days. I really got a letter from Dorothy today, I thought probably she had forgotten all about her promise to write to me.

According to her letter she and Edward are having a grand time, & he has organized a choir up there (in Sacramento) and sings a solo every Sunday. Also has learned to drive a Baron Dix. After lunch and the dishes I read a while and then laid down. I never sleep in the daytime (unless I'm sick) but my eyes get so heavy and my brain so foggy I just have to relax. Daddy came home early this evening which was fortunate as we went out. He got an invitation by this morning's mail to a private presentation of Harry Crouch in "Intolerant" or "The Mother-in-Law" and "Not Scotch" at Trinity Auditorium this evening. It had in the corner "Admit two" and as Mama didn't feel like going I got to go. I wore my yellow dress, yellow coat, black pumps and stockings and pink hat. (I see right now that I am going to have trouble every time I wear that yellow dress as Beaver thinks the wash with the tassels on the ends is a play thing invented especially for him.) We got down at Trinity about eight o'clock (the performance was to begin at 8:15) and the place was crowded. We had to sit at one side under the balconies but it was at the back of the Auditorium so that we could see pretty good. There was a big crowd outside the Auditorium that didn't have tickets so I suppose they threw open the doors when the performance began. I imagine there was a lot of movie actors in the audience, there was a vaudeville actor in back of me and some kind of an actor at the side of me. Before they threw the first picture on the screen a man went up on the platform and made a speech. He said that Harry Aouch was a big jeweller, but that he had been persuaded to appear in these two pictures and if he took well tonight with this audience he might forsake jewels for the screen. Between the two pictures the Los Angeles Scottish Band, the same that appeared in "Hot Scotch", paraded up and down and finally went up on the platform playing the Bag-Pipes and drum. When I first heard them I thought, "My! What a discord!" but after I got used to it I kind of liked it. If I could only manage my Indian clubs like the drummer managed his drumsticks, I would feel real smart. The picture were fairly good, I didn't care for them especially though. Instead of transferring on the way home, we walked across to Main. Daddy really offered of his own free will to buy some candy, the shame of it was that I had such a dreadful stomach-ache I could only eat a couple of pieces.

Friday, August 3,

Hot.

I had some very interesting dreams last night. One was about Barbara, Sylvia, Lizzie and myself and the other was the worst one about Miss Beaver and myself. I would give almost anything if it would come true. I dreamed that I wasn't a bit afraid of her anymore, and that I talked to her and put my arm around her and that she actually kissed me. It was as light as a feather and just brushed my cheek. But oh the thrill that went to my very soul! We didn't get through our morning until two o'clock today. We have such big workings to do in the summer-time, especially me. We were going to go down to Miller's this afternoon and see Jane Lee in the "Two Little Impos" but Mama didn't feel like going. After I got cleaned up I went over to Mrs. Skinner and had a chocolate malted milkshake and brought one home to Mamma. I called Lizzie up this afternoon to ask her if she was going to Miss Johnson's. Tomorrow she said that she was, so I told her that I would bring her the picture then. I put it in the pocket of my green ruffled dress so as to be sure I wouldn't forget it this time. Mamma and I did something new for a change, today. Neither one of us felt like reading so Mamma had me look at a picture and then look away and tell what I saw, and then afterwards she had me read a little bit and tell what I read. After supper Mamma and I went up to the sunbeam. Winifred Kingston and Douglas Fairbanks appeared in "Buenos Aires". It was pretty good. Marguerite Clark is coming there next Friday "I'm the pretty sister of Jose" and I want to see that. Saturday, August 4. 1906.

Mamma and I had to get up and get our own breakfast this morning as Daddy had to leave early. I am glad we did too, as the breakfasts we get ourselves always taste so much better. Mamma got ready right away after breakfast, and went down town, while I did up the little work and then got cleaned up myself. I put on my green ruffled dress, my green silk stockings and black pumps, my green velvet band on my hair, and my green ear-rings, and then went up to the Library, I + was a long hot walk and my glass-full of cold Lemonade soon tasted good when I got home. Mamma got home from town about half-past twelve. She brought me a new middie (which I certainly needed) and a little crepe dressing-sack. At a quarter past two I left the house and met Barbara at 28 and Dayton as we had arranged. I had to wait twenty minutes before a car came along, but thank goodness she was on the first one that came along. My I'm glad we don't live out in Eagle Rock, it's so far and the cars run so far apart. On the car, Barbara and I told each other all the news. She said that she saw Miss Weaver up at the Y.W. last Saturday.

 She sure is lucky. I think she must carry a rabbit's foot around with her some place, because she met her down town just before she went to Yosemite with her, and then seeing her last Saturday. At Central Ave. and Colorado Blvd we met Elizabeth Pershie. We were afraid we would be the first ones (and we would have been too) so we waited till the next car and then dodged behind the station to let Lizzie, Ruth Rucker and Miss Vanglyt (or whatever her name is) ahead of us. That was all that came, so I'm glad our bunch decided to go. Miss Johnson lives in a cute little place and think of it, she made most of the furniture herself. It's swell, she made her dresser, dining-room table and chairs, piano bench, several other chairs, clock-case, cedar chest and several other things. She teaches school at Seventh St. School and Western Ave. We went out on a little side-porch and it was real nice and cool out there. Miss Johnson showed us the note that Miss Weaver wrote to her in reply. I was the first one to lay hands on it. I would like to have kept it. It's like the funniest scrawl, something like this Marguerite Seaver, only lots bigger and different. We had strawberry ice-cream and cake, and it tasted mighty good. Miss Johnson took us for a long walk on our way to the car. There was only one redeeming feature about it and that was that we passed a peach orchard and Lizzie swiped a peach for each of us. On the car home Fizzie + Barbara sat together and Elizabeth and I turned a seat back and so faced them. I got home just in time to eat a little supper and then go over to Cuckston practice. When I got there Ephey was picking nit the "Old Baker Bucket" with one finger on the pious. I'm glad he told me what it was, I didn't recognize it myself. We had quite an interesting conversation until the others came. He told me that he went to Redondo Lake Thursday, I asked him where that was and he said "Oh I don't mean Redondo Lake, I mean Redondo Park, Redondo Beach, that's it." I'm afraid I didn't acquit myself very well at the practice, I know I was scared to death.

Sunday, August 5.

Hot.

Beaver woke ~~this~~ me up this morning by jumping up on my bed and purring. At first I thought it was something inside of me that was making that noise, and thought that I must be pretty bad off, until I clear woke up and realized it was Beaver. I had to be over at the Sunday School at 9:30 on account of playing, so that necessitated my hurrying around some as there were only the three wreslers we didn't play our piece (The Richmond Blues). I guess I didn't make any very bad breaks but I died of heart failure every minute. Everybody in my class was out today but Margaret and everybody studied their lesson but Belue. I got the dinner today. That is I put it on the table, everything was ready. We had green beans off of our own vines and they tasted so good. After dinner, Daddy got me a nice lot of candy and made some lemon-ade. I read until about League time and then got ready and went over to League. We had a big attendance out tonight, I don't see how it ever happened. Ruth Hopkins was presented with an Epworth League pin as she got the highest average of anyone during the Contest. Rowland and Ruth and I walked home together. Rowland had three pieces of fudge that Hazel Thomas gave her, so we each had a piece. When I got home I found fruit all over the place. Jimmy Cortelyou had sent a lot of peaches, saucer peaches, apricots and satsuma plums down by Daddy.

135

Monday, August 6.

Warm.

Today is the day that Barbara goes to the country and Sizzie goes to the Beach for a month and perhaps two while I "Brighten the Corner Where I am." Mama

136 put up a quart of plum butter and a quart of apricot butter, from the fruit that Jimmy gave us, so I did the rest of the work. After cleaning up this morning, instead of sitting down and reading, I (what do you think?) crocheted. I decided I would get Mama's cap done, as far as I could, so Miss Black could show me how to finish it up when she got home. Mama and I were both tired so we laid down and didn't have lunch till two o'clock. We had some of our plum butter and apricot butter and then finished up yesterday's watermelon. In the afternoon I crocheted and read (my usual stunt). After supper Papa went over to Annandale to an entertainment given for the Home Guards, and Mama went over to the Communions to a Billy Sunday Prayer Meeting, thus leaving "Little Sister" alone. Miss McCorkle called up and asked me if I was going to sew for the Red Cross to-morrow that she had a nice lot of towels for me to hem. I told her that I didn't know, she also told me some news, that Edith Holst Bennett had had a little baby-girl born this morning and that both Edith and the baby were doing nicely. At last I have finished the "Conqueror". I feel fully qualified to spend an hour talking about Alexander Hamilton now I'm glad I read it, but I'm most awfully glad I'm through with it.

137

Tuesday, Aug. 7.

Warm.

Mama was going to have me have my picture taken in my graduating dress, today but Mrs. Buggs wasn't home so she couldn't dress my hair, and so we decided to postpone the agony until the next week.
About eleven o'clock we went down town, Mama and I and Mama exchanged her waist. That took every bit of half an hour and then we had some lunch. After dining around at Hambriger's for awhile we walked slowly up to the Broadway and sat there on the Balcony for another half-hour. At two o'clock Mama bought some candy and then we walked over to Chines Auditorium and saw Marguerite Clark in the "Amazons" Marguerite Clark awfully cute and sweet and all that but I didn't care much for the plot. They had some music and an awfully pretty little dance also. When the lights went on I saw Bessie Hopkins and Virginia Moses in the audience. This evening after supper Barbara called me up and invited me out to spend the day with her tomorrow. She said it was sort of short notice that that she had just arrived home from the country. Of course I accepted with pleasure. I have been wanting to go out to Barbara's for quite a while. I wanted to see what kind of a house she lived in.

Wednesday, Aug. 8.

Warm.

Beaver woke me up this morning, jumping on my bed and walking all over me. Mama and I got our own breakfast again this morning. I did all ~~up~~ the house work up this morning to pay Mama for mending my white robe. After taking a bath, and dressing I started off for Barbara's. I had to transfer at the Plaza. It was the first time in my life I ever transferred there, and I thought I would be scared but I wasn't. I didn't have a hard time at all finding Barbara's house. He was out waiting for me. They live in a great big house. It is awfully nice and well furnished too. Barbara's room is real cute. It is all fixed up in pink acetone. We had a real nice long talk in the living room and then I went out into the kitchen and watched her prepare the lunch. There were ~~the~~ just the four of us there, Miss Ely, Helen and Barbara and I. We had an awfully good lunch, Minced Ham, potato chips, tuna salad and bread and butter. Then for dessert we had chocolate corn starch pudding, and the best little cakes. We did up the dishes and then visited for the rest of the day. Of course the main topic of conversation was Miss Beaver. What more uplifting subject could we talk about, I would like to know. When I finally arose to go it was 10 after four and of course I had to sample all the fruit she brought home from the country (it was awfully good too) and see her dresses, her movie scrap-book so that it made me quite late getting home. Barbara sent a dozen pieces of awfully good fudge home to Mama and I brought home "The Mistress of the Whetstone". I certainly had an awfully good time. I like Barbara awfully well anyhow. I have her classed in the three girls that I like best in the whole wide world. They are Barbara, Daisy and Gertrude. Mama wasn't home when I got there but she came soon after. The Stagg came home from the Beach today.

Thursday, Aug. 9

Warm.

This morning Mama and I got up early. We wanted to take the nine o'clock car to Newport but we didn't get around in time, and so we had to wait for the ten o'clock car, which came in awfully late. They were running 25¢ excursion to Seal Beach for the day and and, as Seal Beach is on the Newport line, we got caught in the awfulest jam. I just trembled when I got out of the gate. I felt so weak and there was one poor little boy got knocked down. I don't know whether he was trampled on or not. I don't see what people bring children for in such crowds. I think it is dangerous. As luck would have it both Mamma and I got seats on the outside, though not together. My seat-mate was a nice looking fellow, I guess he must have been a Doctor, he had a little black leather case, and he started up a conversation. There were so many delays etc. that we didn't get to Newport until twelve o'clock and then we had quite a time finding where Aunt Dursell lived. We finally found out at the Banks, and when we got up there Aunt Dursell and Jessie were just sitting down to lunch. They got up and fixed a little more for us, and then we all had lunch together. (I sure was hungry) Aunt Dursie and I washed the dishes while Jessie got ready to go to Whittier. About two o'clock Aunt Ella Vander came and so we all went over to Aunt Nettie's and visited until the 3:15 car when Jessie left. After that Mama, Aunt Dussie, Aunt Nettie and I all walked down town while Aunt Dussie and Aunt Nettie did their trading. We had supper quite early but we sat and talked until eight o'clock and finally decided to do the dishes; after we had cleaned things up we went over to Aunt Nettie's. They had a wheezy old organ over there (the awfulest thing) and Maria sang "At Dawning" and my Knight-hood one. Then I sang "The Kaiser" and "Marguerite"; after that we had recitations beginning with Robert's and ending with my "Grasshopper" one. Mama said it was too funny to watch Aunt Ella and Mrs. Swindler they were both in such sympathy with the piece, and Margaret said Aunt Ella giggled too. After talking over there, and some more at Aunt Dussie's we went to bed.

144

145

Friday, Aug. 10

Friday morning on the "Day of the Submarine" We had just finished breakfast when everybody went flying down the street calling "Submarine" So we flew too. It was real interesting to watch it. Everytime it submerged it would throw out a cloud of smoke to conceal it. Aunt Dussie and I tried to get a picture of it but it went away before we could. When we went back to the house I lay back on a canvas chair out on the porch and read a book I had started the previous day, until the submarine was sighted again. This time Aunt Dussie and Mama didn't go down to watch it but Aunt Nettie and I did. We took a picture of it too, but I don't know whether it will come out good or not, they threw out a cloud of smoke just as I snapped it. Aunt Nettie and I sat out on the sand, waiting for it to come back again and watching the ladies bathing for quite awhile, but it didn't come back so we went back to the house. Pretty soon there was another call, that submarine was running submerged, so we went out again. Some of the time all you could see would be the periscope sticking up out of the water and some of the time it would dive down, and you couldn't see anything of it. After lunch we all went over to Aunt Nettie's until Aunt Ella went home and then Mama, Aunt Dussie, Aunt Nettie went down town while I stayed at the house and read. Aunt Nettie invited us over to their house for supper, so we all went over for ried fish. After supper Aunt Nettie washed the dishes while I dried them. We all went to bed early as we were up late last night.

146

147

Saturday, Aug. 16

Warm

We were very late in getting up this morning. While we were just eating breakfast Anna Tomlinson came over and showed us three of her paintings that she had done while she had been here. After breakfast, Aunt Dussie went down on the sand to get a Kodak picture of all the children in their bathing suits, and while she was gone, Mamma and I hurried and got all the work done. While we were waiting for a car to come along and take us to Balboa, Aunt Dussie helped me to make a blue tie out of crochet cotton. It just matches the blue in the jumper I wear with my white embroidered work and looks awfully nice with it I think. We didn't go clear down to Balboa by car but got off at East Newport and walked down by the Bay. By the time we got down to Balboa we were ready for something to eat and so we went into the Dutch Kitchen and had lunch. After lunch we walked around and explored the town, and Aunt

1248

Doris brought a couple of Japanese lanterns to hang in her cottage, and some molasses popcorn. We took the 2:15 car back to Newport and then cleaned up ready to go back to S. A. I didn't dare wash my face, for fear the water would aggravate my sunburn and believe me I have some sunburn, even my eyelids are a bright crimson and the tip of my nose has started to peel already. We took the 3:15 car back to S. A. but we didn't land in Los Angeles until 5 o'clock. When we arrived home, the usual disorder greeted us, even the dishes hadn't been washed. I went over to Steven's and got Beaver and I was mighty glad to see him again. I'm finding how people get attached to cats. But I love Beaver, double, once for himself and once for his name. Just think only about 5 weeks more & Gymnasium will commence again. I went over to Orchestra practice this evening, but there was such a few there, that I came home at a little after eight, as it wasn't worth while practicing much.
