PREFACE

The publication herewith presented, an index to the probate cases filed in Rusk County, Texas, is number 201 of the Texas series of counties. The publication is intended to meet the requirements of day-to-day usage by the officials of the county, attorneys, businessmen, and other citizens who have occasion to consult probate case records for the proper conduct of their affairs. The publication may be used by historians and genealogists to obtain references to unpublished source material.

The names of the deceased persons, minors, and other principals are arranged alphabetically, with reference to the filing date of the case and the case number. The following numbers were not used as case numbers: 1, 27, 45, 49, 57, 63, 74, 93, 103, 179, 189, 191, 194, 201, 239, 241, 251, 307, 326, 359, 362, 375, 477, 515, 578, 584, 613, 617, 620-623, 744, 830, 849, 906, 942, 1014, 1273, 1463, 1540, 1541, 1582, 1640, 2354, 2613, 2834, 2852, 2854, 3133, 3426, 3468, 3479, 3517, 3562, 3575-3661.

In Rusk County, all probate records are in the custody of the county clerk. Probate case papers are kept in 123 steel file drawers in the county clerk's vault. The papers of each case are in an individual file jacket, and cases are arranged numerically according to case numbers.

Since the transfer of territory from one county to another has affected probate jurisdiction and has determined the county in which the probate case should have been filed, a map and table of territorial changes are included herein. Notations concerning present location and availability of records pertinent to Rusk County follow:

Harrison County, Marshall, all records extant.

Nacogdoches County, Nacogdoches, all records extant.

San Augustine County, San Augustine, all records extant.

Shelby County, Center, records destroyed by fire in 1882.

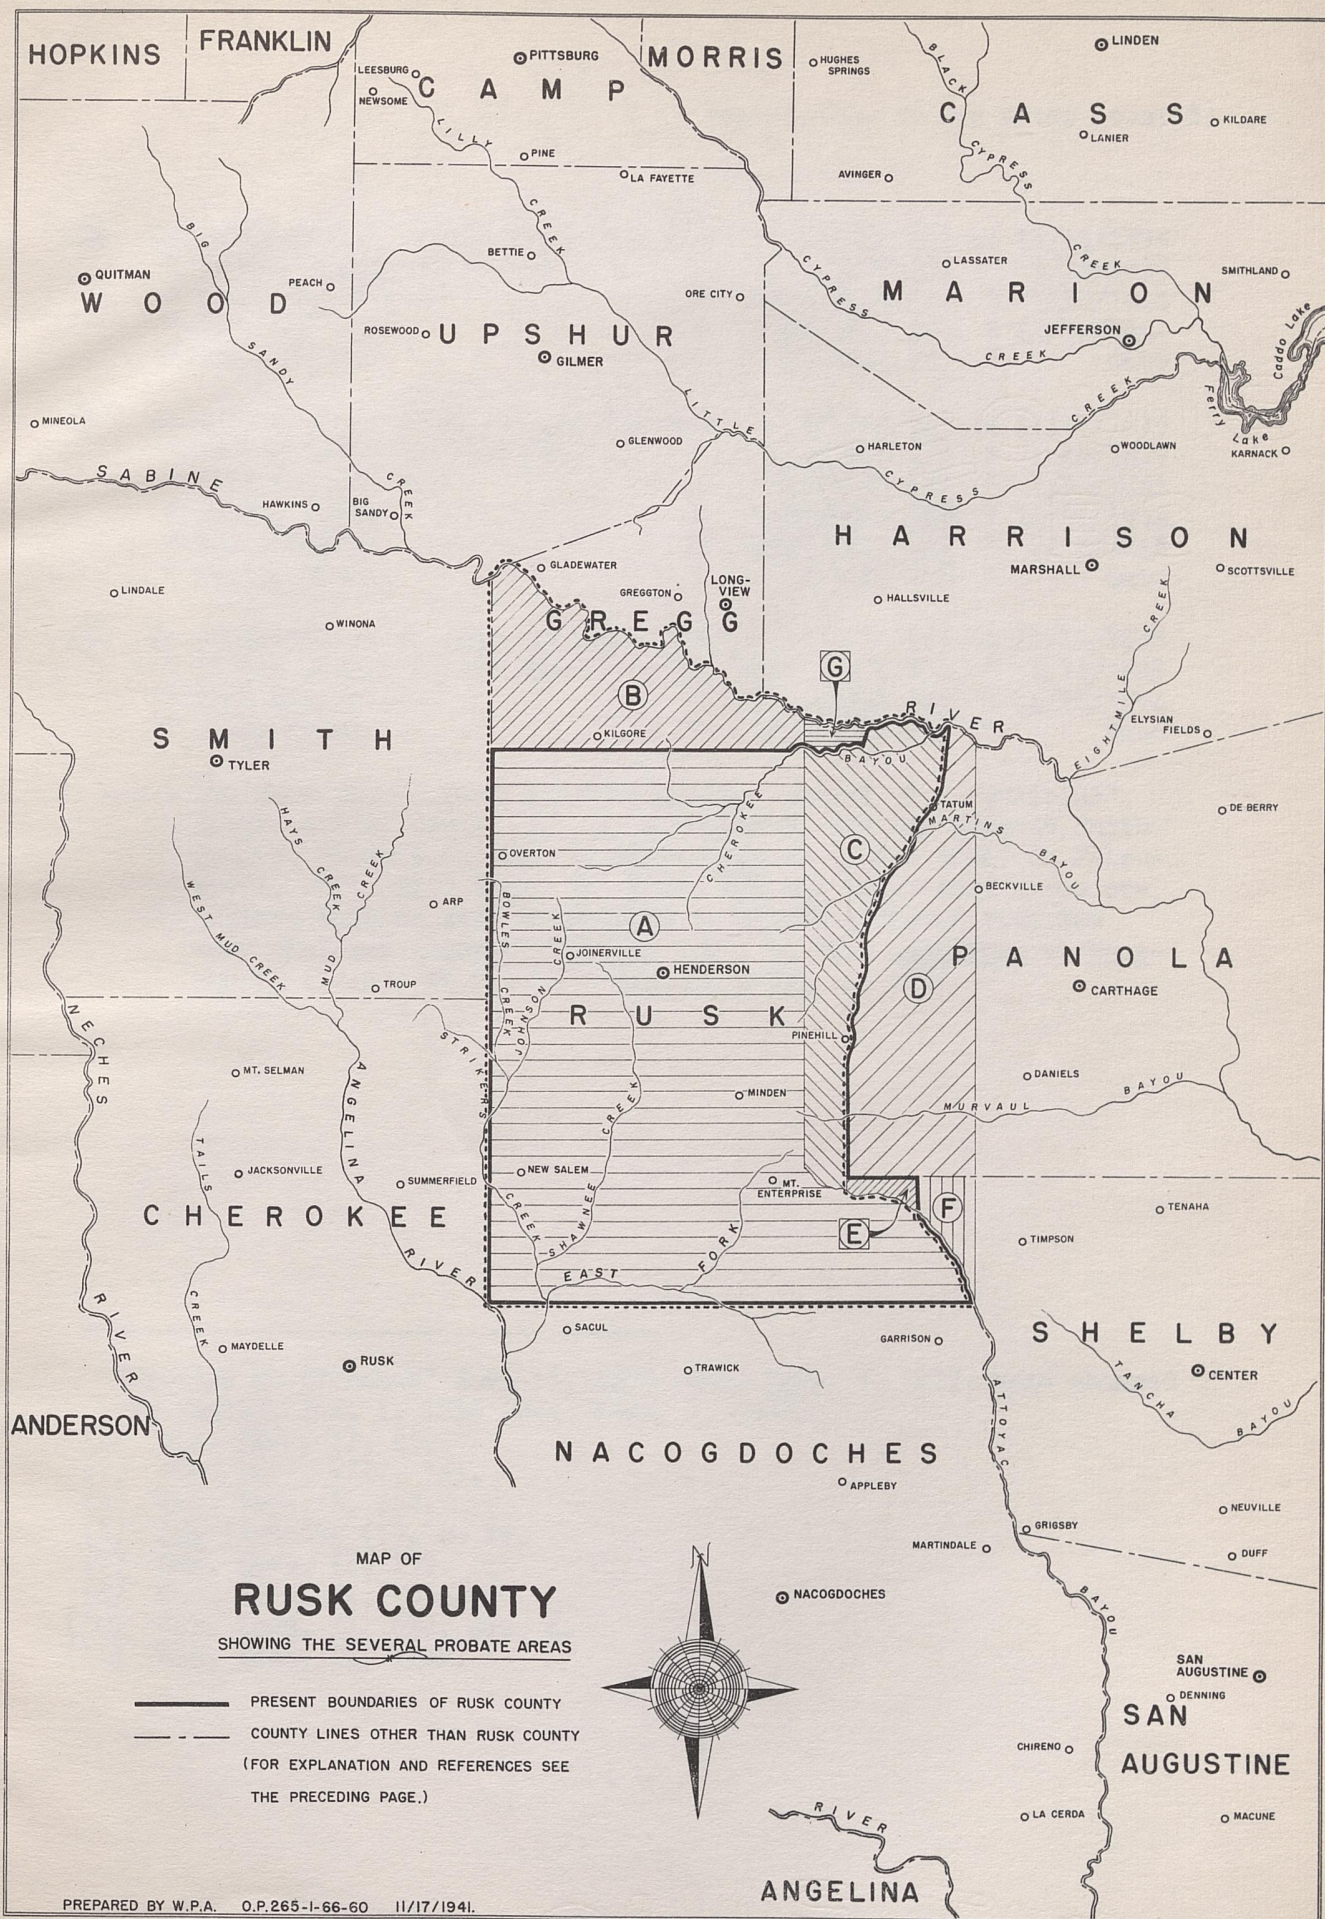

EXPLANATION OF THE MAP AREAS

Note: All of the map areas were in the municipality and/or county of Nacogdoches until the earliest date given below for each particular area. (1)

*Created as "Tenehaw" Nov. 11, 1835 (Gam. Laws, I, 532); name changed to Shelby, Jan. 1, 1836 (Gam. Laws, I, 1025).

- (1) It is assumed that the municipality of Nacogdoches (see Eugene C. Barker, Readings in Texas History, p. 132) had jurisdiction over all the territory that was later constituted the Department of Nacogdoches (Gam. Laws, I, 281).
- (2) Gam. Laws, II, 859.
- (3) Gam. Laws, VIII, 181.
- (4) Gam. Laws, I, 352.
- (5) The district of "Tenehaw" of the municipality of San Augustine was made a separate municipality in 1835, centering around the town of Nashville (present Center), but its boundaries were not defined (see Gam. Laws, I, 532). It is assumed that the municipality of Tenehaw, later renamed Shelby and which as such became one of the original counties of the Republic of Texas, included all the northern part of San Augustine north of the northern line of the municipality of Sabine created in 1835 (see Gam. Laws, I, 993), and north of the San Augustine-Shelby line as defined in 1837 (see Gam. Laws, I, 1394).
- (6) Gam. Laws, I, 1390.
- (7) Gam. Laws, II, 159.
- (8) Gam. Laws, II, 1054.
- (9) Gam. Laws, II, 1337.

- - - The area within the dotted lines was created as a "judicial" county called Smith (not to be confused with the present Smith County, because no part of the territory is the same) on February 1, 1842 (Gam. Laws, II, 759), but was apparently never organized because acts attempting to create judicial counties were declared unconstitutional early in 1842 (Stockton v. Montgomery (1842), in Dallam's Texas Reports, p. 473).

*Created as "Tenehaw" Nov. 11, 1835 (Gam. Laws, I, 532); name changed to Shelby, Jan. 1, 1836 (Gam. Laws, I, 1025).
