CLERGYMAN'S
POCKET DIARY
AND VISITING BOOK.

186....

ARRANGED BY JAMES PORTER, D.D.

New York:
PUBLISHED BY CARLTON & PORTER,
200 MULBERRY-STREET.

P R E F A C E.

THE objects of this work are: 1. To furnish our pastors with a book embracing the conveniences of a Pocket Diary and Visiting Book in one volume. 2. To arrange it so that it may answer their purpose two years if necessary. Hence we have omitted the unit in the figures representing the year except in the calendar. Those who wish to use the book more than one year can do so by pasting in a new calendar. We have also omitted the letters from the Diary indicating the day of the week, for the same reason. 3. This plan saves the publishers the expense of getting up a new set of plates every year, (which the sales would not justify,) and the loss which often accrues from printing an overstock. This form, except the calendar, will be good for any year until 1870, unless some intervening General Conference should adopt a new order, requiring an alteration in the pages relating to the Book Concern or the Annual Reports. 4. Another object is to place in the pockets of preachers the information which they need in acting as agents for books and periodicals, and the benevolent societies of the Church.

It is not presumed that the book will please every one. Some will regret that we did not insert this, and others that we omitted that. But it must be remembered that the work is designed to be carried in the pocket always and everywhere, and if made to embrace too much it would be too large, or so huddled as not fully to answer the purpose contemplated.

The blanks left for an index can be filled so as readily to find any memorandum that may be made.

METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,

200 Mulberry-street, New York,

(NEAR BROADWAY, BETWEEN BROOME AND SPRING-STREETS.)

BOOK BUSINESS.

CARLTON & PORTER, Agents,

PUBLISH BIBLES, COMMENTARIES, SINGING BOOKS, HYMN BOOKS, DICTIONARIES, BIOGRAPHIES, GIFT BOOKS, ETC.,

Making some four hundred volumes, besides a great variety of other works in the departments of Biblical Literature, Experimental and Practical Religion, etc., etc., etc. Also more than twelve hundred bound volumes of

SABBATH-SCHOOL LIBRARY BOOKS,

THE LARGEST LIST PRINTED IN THIS COUNTRY.

Besides multitudes of Question Books, Hymn Books, Picture Books, Catechisms, Cards, and Tracts, adapted to children of all ranks and ages. They are ordered and prized by schools of all denominations. Then we have a large list of other works, beautifully illustrated, for gift-books for children and youth, which are equal to any in the land.

Shall Methodists use Methodist books and periodicals, or purchase of other denominations?

The charge that our Sabbath-school books are dearer than those of the American Sunday-School Union is not true, if we except their ten dollar and smaller libraries, which they sell at more than double their library price when ordered from their General Catalogue. Be not deceived.

Agents.—All the traveling ministers of the Methodist Episcopal Church who are in full connection are regularly authorized agents of the Methodist Book Concern. Preachers on trial in the conferences, and local preachers employed to fill vacant appointments, who act as agents for periodicals and purchase of books, are requested to forward the cash with their orders, or, if they wish an account opened, to send a recommendation from the presiding elder of the district. A little reflection will show the propriety of this, as the brethren referred to are generally entire strangers to the Book Agents. Presiding elders will please furnish a list of those they feel willing to recommend at an early period after the session of their conference.

Discounts to Preachers.—On General Catalogue and Tract Books we allow 30 per cent. for cash, and 20 per cent. on time.

Bibles, 20 per cent. for cash, and 12½ per cent. on time.

Books on Sale from other publishers, from 10 to 20 per cent. on time, and from 20 to 30 per cent. for cash.

Sunday-school Books.—No discount is allowed preachers on these books, except on cash bills of $50 and upward, when we will allow 10 per cent.

Cash and Credit.—The cash discount above offered will be allowed on bills for books which are paid within ninety days of their date. Books purchased on credit must be paid for in six months, or, at least, at the next session of the Annual Conference to which the purchaser belongs.

Risk and Freight.—The Concern assumes the risk of all shipments of books, and pays the freight by transportation lines (not by express) where bills amount to $50 or more. Shipments of less than $50 are at the risk of the purchasers, who also pay the freight. Money sent to the Agents in payment for books is at the risk of the purchaser.

Depositories.—This Concern has three regular Depositories, namely:

At BOSTON, MASS., 5, Cornhill, J. P. MAGEE, Agent.
At PITTSBURGH, PA., REV. J. L. READ, Agent.
At BUFFALO, N. Y., H. H. OTIS, Agent.

These Depositories give the preachers the same discounts, credits, etc., that are given at New York; but preachers are earnestly desired to make all their credit purchases at one place.

Full supplies of our books may be had also of POE & HITCHCOCK, Cincinnati, Ohio; W. M. DOUGHTY, Chicago, Ill.; PERKINPINE & HIGGINS, and the Conference Depository at Philadelphia, Rev. A. MANSHIP, Agent; I. P. COOK, and ARMSTRONG & BERRY, Baltimore; INGRAM & BRAGG, Cleveland, Ohio, and many others.

Catalogues are always free, and we wish each preacher to have a supply for himself, the Sabbath-school teachers, and others.

Sent to preachers gratis on application.

The Good News, $8 per hundred copies, $1 per ten copies, beginning with April or October, and running one year. Orders for the GOOD NEWS must INVARIABLY be accompanied by the cash, and no order will be answered for less than ten copies. This is published for the Tract Society.

Postage on the Missionary Advocate in the State where published is three cents; out of the State, six cents. The publishers will prepay the postage at the rate of four cents, where packages of twelve or more copies go to the same address. The postage on the Good News is three cents in the State where published, and six cents in other States, but will be prepaid on the receipt of three cents per copy, where sixteen copies or more go to the same address.

Advertising.—Price of Advertising in Christian Advocate and Journal, 20 cents per line; in the Quarterly Review, $15 per page.

Remittances.—Agents are required to remit as soon and as largely as practicable by draft on New York or in money; but they are not authorized to send more than $10 in one letter by mail at the risk of the Concern. And they are expected to pay up in full for all orders at each session of their respective Annual Conferences.

FRIENDLY HINTS.

1. In writing to the Agents, give your town, county, State, and Conference distinctly at the top of your sheet.
2. Write what relates to books on one sheet or slip, and what relates to periodicals on another. And if you have a word for an editor, or anybody else, write it on another sheet still.
3. Write in a good round plain hand just what you want, and no more.
4. Bear in mind that we do not know your superintendents, or other officials, and always indorse their application for grants, or orders for books or periodicals where credit is asked, and have the bill charged to you.

(D. D. WHEDON, D.D., Editor.)

A commission of 20 per cent. is allowed to agents for subscribers to either of these periodicals. For ten new subscribers to the Ladies' Repository, sent in one letter, a bound volume is given as a special premium; or the agent, if he prefers it, may have the current volume for himself in numbers as it is issued. This rule applies to agents sending subscribers to New York, Chicago, and Boston, as well as to Cincinnati. But to obtain this premium the ten new subscribers must always be sent in one order.

REMITTANCES.

For Periodicals.—The Concern will take the risk of all moneys remitted by our agents for periodicals. Care must be taken, in all cases where practicable, to procure drafts, or to send by express or private conveyance. When this cannot be done, send by mail, taking care to procure the largest and most current notes.

For Books.—The Concern will not take the risk of money forwarded for books unless sent in amounts of $50 or over, and with the orders. Remittances for books which have been charged to account, are in all cases at the risk of the purchasers.

MISCELLANEOUS.

1. Agents will please attach the name of the conference of which they are members directly after their signatures. A constant observance of this will save us much trouble.

2. In writing to the Agents, or to the editors, always write on separate sheets of paper, or separate letters. Sending communications to the editors in business letters to the Agent always gives trouble.

3. It is very desirable to have all accounts due the Concern paid at each annual conference. We request agents to bear this in mind, and prepare to pay accordingly. In any event, the periodical money must be paid; and if any part of the account is left unpaid, it must be for books, and even for this a note must be given bearing interest from date. The condition of the Concern requires prompt and full payment.

The conditions on which the gratuitous numbers of the Missionary Advocate are issued are :

1. That the spirit of the Chapter on Missions is carried out on the station or circuit.—See Discipline, p. 207.

2. That the funds raised on the credit of the General Missionary Cause be sent to the Treasurer of the Parent Missionary Society at the earliest practicable period.

3. That the application for the gratis numbers be made invariably by the pastor, and one or more of the members of his Missionary Committee.

✎ This application should come forward every year, and if possible during the months of February and March, as the March number is the last for the year. The new volume commences April 1. Will the brethren renew their applications?

SUNDAY-SCHOOL UNION OF THE M. E. CHURCH.

BUSINESS ADDRESS.

All communications respecting statistics, and the general business of the Sunday-School Union of the Methodist Episcopal Church, should be addressed to the Corresponding Secretary, Rev. D. WISE, D.D., 200 Mulberry-street, New York.

Funds should be remitted to the Treasurer, S. J. GOODENOUGH, at the same place; J. M. PHILLIPS, Cincinnati; J. P. MAGEE, Boston; W. M. DOUGHTY, Chicago; J. L. READ, Pittsburgh; or H. H. OTIS, Buffalo.

Applications for aid in behalf of Sunday-schools should be addressed to the Corresponding Secretary at New York; to J. M. PHILLIPS, Secretary of the Committee at Cincinnati; to J. P. MAGEE, Secretary of the Committee at Boston; to W. M. DOUGHTY, the Secretary of the Committee at Chicago; to J. L. READ, Pittsburgh; or to H. H. OTIS, Buffalo.

FORM OF APPLICATION FOR AID.

Applications for aid should be signed by the preacher in charge, and also, if practicable, by the Presiding Elder of the District. Every application should state distinctly :

1. The name of the school and place for which aid is asked, and the Conference, District, and Appointment to which it belongs.

2. The average number of persons worshipping in the congregation to which the school is attached.

3. The average number of teachers engaged in the school.

4. The average number of scholars attending.

5. The average number of scholars able to read.

6. The number and kind of books on hand.

7. Amount raised per year on the circuit or station to aid the Sunday-School Union.

8. The precise manner in which books should be forwarded.

9. The Post-office, County, and State where the applicant may be addressed by mail.

Various other particulars might be added, according to the circumstances of the case.

Grants are often delayed for want of full information respecting some important points overlooked by the applicants.

When books are granted, notice is sent to the applicant of the amount of the grant, and of the time and manner of forwarding.

The receipt of books from the Union ought always to be acknowledged. Statements respecting their usefulness should also be made to the Union in due time.

METHODIST TRACT SOCIETY.

This Society was instituted by the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1852.

Presidents, the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Corresponding Secretary, Rev. DANIEL WISE, D.D.

Treasurer, J. B. EDWARDS, Esq., Methodist Book Concern, New York.

The object of this Society is to promote the circulation of evangelical tracts and books. It desires every preacher, 1. To organize a corps of tract distributors in every Society under his charge. 2. To take up a tract collection for the Parent Society. 3. To claim, if necessary, tracts and Good News to the value of half the amount of his collection, for the use of his tract distributors. 4. If his Church is too poor to take a collection or to buy tracts, the Society desires, on proper application, to make suitable grants of tracts, providing his Church will be responsible for their circulation.

Where annual conferences employ conference agents and colporteurs the Society assumes no responsibility.

Considerable funds are annually required by this Society to meet the wants of our German, Swedish, and Norwegian work. Perhaps it is nowhere more useful than in the foreign department of its work.

Donations should be transmitted to the Treasurers, as above.

Tracts are sold at fifteen pages for one cent, or twenty pages when five dollars' worth or more are ordered.

A WORD OF ADVICE.

Before starting to Conference, be sure that your statistical report is carefully made out. Your station, whether large or small, is a part of the whole, and should be accurately represented.

Get your money for benevolent purposes changed into bills or gold—as large as possible—and thus save the treasurers of the societies much labor.

Take the earliest opportunity to hand to the persons appointed to receive them, your statistics and benevolent moneys; and thus save them the trouble of finding you to get them.

While at home, make it a point of conscience to present to the people of your charge the claims of all our benevolent objects. If the people are too poor to contribute to all or any of them, they will be poorer still if you do not preach about them.

SCRIPTURE LESSONS.

Is there not an appointed time to man upon earth? are not his days also like the days of a hireling? Job vii, 1.

When a few years are come, then I shall go the way whence I shall not return. Job xvi, 22.

For I know that thou wilt bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living. Job xxx, 23.

Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace. Psa. xxxvii, 37.

Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints. Psa. cxvi, 15.

For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. Phil. i, 21.

For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better. Phil. i, 23.

I would not live always. Job vii, 16.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Psa. xxiii, 4.

There the wicked cease from troubling; and there the weary be at rest. Job iii, 17.

If a man die, shall he live again? Job xiv, 14.

For I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth. Job xix, 25.

Now that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Luke xx, 37.

For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. 1 Cor. xv, 53.

Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live. John xi, 25.

So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. 1 Cor. xv, 54.

For we know that, if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. 2 Cor. v, 7.

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. Rev. xxi, 4.

And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign forever and ever. Rev. xxii, 5.

And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God: Job xix, 26.

Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another; though my reins be consumed within me. Job xix, 27.

For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living. Luke xx, 38.

And whosoever liveth, and believeth in me, shall never die. John xi, 26.

O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? 1 Cor. xv, 55.

The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. 1 Cor. xv, 56.

But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory, through our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Cor. xv, 57.

We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. 2 Cor. v, 8.

SCRIPTURE LESSONS.

WHEREFORE, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned. Rom. v, 12.

What man is he that liveth, and shall not see death? shall he deliver his soul from the hand of the grave? Psa. lxxxix, 48.

For dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return. Gen. iii, 19.

Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live forever? Zech. i, 5.

When a few years are come, then I shall go the way whence I shall not return. Job xvi, 22.

For I know that thou wilt bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living. Job xxx, 23.

There is no man that hath power over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no discharge in that war; neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it. Ecc. viii, 8.

The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labor and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away. Psa. xc, 10.

For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust. Psa. ciii, 14.

As for man, his days are as grass: as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth. Psa. ciii, 15.

For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more. Psa. ciii, 16.

Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble. Job xiv, 1.

He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not. Job xiv, 2.

Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it. Ecc. xii, 7.

Watch therefore; for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh. Matt. xxv, 13.

Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest. Ecc. ix, 10.

Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning; Luke xii, 35.

And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding; that, when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately. Luke xii, 36.

Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching. Luke xii, 37.

For we must all appear before the judgment-seat of Christ. 2 Cor. v, 10.

FUNERAL OF AN INFANT.

SCRIPTURE LESSONS.

BUT when David saw that his servants whispered, David perceived that the child was dead: therefore David said unto his servants, Is the child dead? And they said, He is dead. 2 Sam. xii, 19.

Then said his servants unto him, What thing is this that thou hast done? thou didst fast and weep for the child, while it was alive; but when the child was dead, thou didst rise and eat bread. 2 Sam. xii, 21.

And he said, While the child was yet alive, I fasted, and wept: for I said, Who can tell whether God will be gracious to me, that the child may live? 2 Sam. xii, 22.

But now he is dead, wherefore should I fast? can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me. 2 Sam. xii, 23.

And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them; and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. Mark x, 13.

But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of God. Mark x, 14.

Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. Mark x, 15.

And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them. Mark x, 16.

And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them, Mark ix, 36.

Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me; and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me. Mark ix, 37.

And they brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them. Luke xviii, 15.

But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. Luke xviii, 16.

Verily, I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, shall in no wise enter therein. Luke xviii, 17.
