JULIAN M. CARROLL
Governor of Kentucky

Julian Morton Carroll became Kentucky's 58th governor on Dec. 28, 1974, succeeding Wendell H. Ford, who was elected to the U.S. Senate. Born in McCracken County in 1931, Carroll attended Paducah Junior College after graduating from Heath High School. He was graduated from the University of Kentucky in 1954 and received his law degree from UK in 1956. Before becoming governor, Carroll served three years as lieutenant governor and ten years as a member of the Kentucky House of Representatives. He is an active member of the Optimist Club and a former Jaycee. He attained the highest office in Kentucky for laymen of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in 1966-67 when he was named moderator of the Kentucky Synod. The Governor and his wife, Charlann, have three children.

JERRY CLAIBORNE
Maryland Head Coach

Success and Jerry Claiborne are synonymous in academics and athletics, first as an outstanding student athlete at the University of Kentucky, as the head football coach at Virginia Polytechnical institute, and as the head football coach at the University of Maryland.

Claiborne was named the "Sporting News" National Coach Of The Year for 1974 after leading the Terrapins to two consecutive bowls and developing the nation's outstanding lineman in Randy White.

When Claiborne arrived at College Park The Terrapins had recorded a 25-66 record during the previous nine years. In three years he has his program established and has a record of 21-11-1, made two bowl trips, been named the ACC Coach Of The Year and received attention as national Coach Of The Year the past two years.

He was named the Coach of the Year in the ACC by the Atlantic Coast Conference Sportswriters Association in 1973, the first Maryland coach to receive this honor since the late Jim Tatum was honored in 1955. He was named the District III Coach Of The Year by the American Football Coaches Association in 1973 and was one of the top four in their national balloting. He was runner-up for National Coach of the Year honors in the United Press poll and in 1974 was the Sporting News National Coach Of The Year.

The 1973 Terrapins met Georgia in the Peach Bowl and the 1974 team met Tennessee in the Liberty Bowl. Both teams were ranked in the top 20 and were the second and third highest scoring teams in Maryland football history. They were the seventh and eighth Maryland teams to win eight games in a single season and the sixth and seventh bowl teams in 82 years of competition at College Park.

He developed the first winning team in College Park since 1962 and only the undefeated 10-0 team of 1955 surpassed the 1973 & 1974 record in the past 20 years.

His ability to motivate and develop football players is recognized by the press and professionals alike as 11 players were drafted by the National Football League off the 1974 team, two more signed with the NFL as free agents, one went to Canada as a free agent and two others have joined the World Football League.

The ACC sportswriters have voted 12 players to the All-ACC team during the past three years including six in 1974 while only 12 were named during the previous 12 years.

Claiborne is no newcomer to building winning football programs. In 1963, his third year at Virginia Tech, he was named Southern Conference Coach Of The Year after leading the Gobblers to a 8-2 record. In 1966 he led Virginia Tech to the Liberty Bowl and was named the District III Coach Of The Year and in 1968 he again returned to the Liberty Bowl with the Gobblers.

In 13 years as a head coach he has won over 61 percent of his games, ranking among the top 25 active coaches in the nation. He has been honored with coaching duties in the Blue-Gray and coaches All-American Game. His program at Virginia Tech produced four All-American players and he has surpassed this in three years at Maryland.

In 1949 Claiborne was named the outstanding senior on the University of Kentucky's Orange Bowl team. He was a outstanding defensive back while playing for Paul Bryant at UK.

He was a superior assistant while serving with Coach Bryant at Kentucky, Texas A & M and Alabama. He has also served with Frank Broyles at Missouri and Eddie Crowder at Colorado.

Coach Claiborne was born in Hopkinsville, Kentucky, where he had outstanding athletic and academic careers in high school and continued the same at UK.

During his senior year at UK the defensive secondary, of which he was a member, established and still holds the NCAA record for pass interception returns.

In addition to his outstanding athletic endeavors, he was held in high esteem academically, elected into several honorary leadership-scholarship organizations including lamp and cross and omicron delta kappa. He was also selected as the outstanding senior in the college of education and graduated from Kentucky with high distinction, accumulating a 2.7 out of a possible 3.0 grade point average.

In 1968 he was elected to the University of Kentucky Alumni Hall of Fame.

Claiborne began his coaching career at Augusta Military Academy as head football coach and basketball mentor. The first year his basketball team won the state prep championship and the second year his football team won the state championship.

After two years at the Academy, Claiborne returned to his alma mater as assistant coach with Paul Bryant. After two seasons, Bryant moved to Texas A&M and with him went Claiborne as defensive coordinator. In two years Texas A&M was the Southwestern Conference champion and Claiborne's defense led the league.

When Claiborne arrived at Maryland the Terps were ranked last in the ACC in defense. The Terps have led the league in defense the past three years and ranked nationally in both offense and defense.

Game Three

MARYLAND

THE UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND—College Park, Md. Enrollment—24,128; Athletic Director—Jim Kehoe; Football Coach—Jerry Claiborne; Publicist—Jack Zane; Colors—Red and white; black and gold.

SERIES HISTORY: The Wildcat-Terp battles began with a 6-6 deadlock in a 1931 match at College Park. The Terrapins were coming off an undefeated season and were defending national champion (losing to Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl) when they came to Lexington to return the game in 1954. Although All-America quarterback Bernie Faloney was gone, they still had Dick Bielski, a battering ram fullback, and co-captain John Irvine, a brilliant linebacker. Maryland won, 20-0, to spoil Blanton Collier's debut as UK coach. Kentucky won two years later at College Park to even the series 1-1-1.

LAST MEETING: Nov. 3, 1956 (College Park), UK 14, UM 0—Little Ivan Curnutte scored from the nine-yard line and Billy Mitchell returned a punt 78 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter as the Wildcats beat the Terrapins on a cold, rainy day before 20,000 hardy souls at College Park. Kentucky out-gained Maryland, 160-118 on the ground, but the Terrapins had the edge in passing, with six completions in 18 attempts for 71 yards while the Cats failed to connect on three tries. Jack Gallagher intercepted a Terrapin pass. Curnutte punted seven times for 257 yards while three Maryland punters punted the same number of times for 261 yards in a bruising battle.

1975 OUTLOOK: Maryland lost 16 starters and both kicking specialists from the 1974 team that recorded an 8-3 record and landed a berth in the Liberty Bowl. However, 31 lettermen are back, and lettermen are expected to start at every position with the exception of the kicking specialists and only two are sophomores. While the defense should once again be strong, it does not have a dominant figure such as Randy White. Jim Brechbiel, the defensive left half-back, is a "Big Play" athlete and the leader in the secondary that will have two new starters joining him. Brechbiel in two years of starting duty (he took over midway his sophomore year) has intercepted nine passes, returned them for 106 yards and a touchdown, blocked two punts through the end zone for safeties, blocked three field goal attempts and an extra point attempt. A sprinter on the track team, he has excellent speed and quickness and has gained experience playing behind Louis Carter. He joined the varsity midway through his freshman year and has gained 938 yards on 202 carries (including 5 for 41 in 1973 Peach Bowl Game) for an average of 4.6 yards per carry. He has also caught 13 passes for 246 yards.

Report from Warren White, UK graduate assistant who scouted Maryland: Maryland has a tough 6-2 defense that comes right at you. Their defensive end, No. 21, LeRoy Hughes, is very quick and moves around a lot. He will give you a good shot. Joe Campbell, No. 79, a tackle, is the best defensive football player they've got. His coaches compare him to Randy White.

Linebackers are the heart of the Maryland defense. Bradd Carr had 27 tackles after their first two games. Kevin Benson is a fine senior linebacker who calls the defensive signals.

Maryland operates on offense out of a power-I formation and throws the ball a lot. John Schultz, No. 37, is a 5-10, 190 lb. wingback who started as a freshman, got hurt and then earned a second letter in his sophomore year. He is probably their best all-around athlete. He and No. 44, Jamie Franklin, run back kickoffs.

Their fullback is a big kid (6-3, 210) named Tim Wilson who is a real good blocker who likes to come straight ahead at people. They use four people in their backfield, alternating two fullbacks and two tailbacks, all good football players.

The receivers are excellent. Kim Hoover is the favorite, but Vince Kinney also catches the ball well. I saw Maryland go for a two-point conversion. They just send everyone around the corner and give the ball to Schultz, who is super tough. So is Maryland. Much tougher than Kansas.

DR. OTIS A. SINGLETARY
University President

President of the University since 1969 has been Dr. Otis A. Singletary, who came from the University of Texas, Austin, where he was executive vice chancellor for academic affairs. He earlier had been director of the Job Corps program for the Office of Economic Opportunity, and chancellor of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

He is the eighth president of the University. Unique recognition of his service to the institution came recently from the UK Alumni Association, which presented him its Alumni Service Award—an honor rarely bestowed upon a non-alumnus of the University.

CLIFFORD O. HAGAN
Director of Athletics

Cliff Hagan took over as UK athletic director July 1 of this year. One of the all-time great basketball players at UK, he played on teams that won 86 of 91 games and an NCAA championship (1951). The 1954 team, undefeated in 25 games, elected not to play in the national tournament. Hagan set a dozen SEC records and an NCAA record of 528 rebounds as a junior. He averaged 29 points a game, led the nation in rebounding, and scored a then-UK record 51 points against Temple in 1954.

He was All-American at UK, All-Pro with the St. Louis Hawks and player-coach of the Dallas Chaparrals. He was named the 1958 Texas "Professional Coach of the Year." He was named assistant athletic director at UK January 1, 1972.

Fran Curci

Head Football Coach

In 1974, his second year as head coach of the Wildcats, Fran Curci gave the University of Kentucky its first winning season (6-5) since the 1965 team finished 6-4. The Wildcats also tied for fourth in the SEC, their highest finish in nine years. Curci subsequently was awarded a new five-year contract.

"We obviously have been pleased with the progress made during Coach Curci's first two years at the University of Kentucky," Dr. Otis A. Singletary, UK president, said, "and we look forward to his continuing contributions in the days ahead."

During the seven years before Curci came to Lexington, the Wildcats finished 3-6-1 in 1966, 2-8 in 1967, 3-7 in 1968, 2-8 in 1969, 2-9 in 1970, 3-8 in 1971 and 3-8 in 1973.

Despite losing All-Conference runner Sonny Collins for the last 2½ games of the 1974 season, Curci's forces still were in line for a Liberty Bowl bid when they fell to Tennessee at Knoxville after upsetting bowl-bound Vanderbilt and Florida before ABC-TV cameras on consecutive weekends in Commonwealth Stadium.

Reputed as one of the nation's finest recruiters, Curci has worked long and hard to attract fine talent to Lexington and his first two Wildcat squads have featured a host of freshmen and sophomores playing prominent roles. Freshman Art Still was Southeast "Lineman of the Week" in the LSU game last season and was named first team defensive end on the Football News' Freshman All-American team. Warren Bryant, named All-SEC with Sonny Collins, was selected to that magazine's Sophomore All-American.

Curci produced the first two UK All-Americans since 1965 as center Rick Nuzum was honored by Newspaper Enterprise Association and Elmore Stephens was named first team on the Time Magazine squad chosen by professional scouts. Stephens was drafted in the second round by Kansas City, Nuzum in the fifth round by Los Angeles and linebacker Tom Ehlers by Philadelphia.

Curci also had one of his Wildcats honored nationally for the second year in a row as Tom Ranieri was selected "Line-man of the Week" by the Associated Press for his play at noseguard against Florida. He was named an Academic All-America first team member.

In 1973, Sonny Collins was the AP's national "Back of the Week" and a member of the UPI's "Backfield of the Week" for his fine performance against Mississippi State.

Curci's first UK squad had a record of five wins and six losses against tough competition, including six teams involved in bowl games. Kentucky tied Florida and Georgia for fifth place in the conference. Better yet, nobody romped over the Wildcats. They led mighty Alabama, 14-0, at halftime before falling, 28-14, and led LSU, 21-7, at intermission before losing, 28-21, in Baton Rouge. In each case, Curci felt a lack of depth was the cause of the Wildcat loss.

Upset victims included Georgia, Mississippi State and nationally ranked Tulane, which came to Lexington with an undefeated record.

At the end of the season, many honors were accorded Curci, including United Press International "SEC Coach of the Year," Inside Kentucky Sports "Kentucky Coach of the Year," and Courier-Journal "Man of the Year" in Kentuckiana sports.

One of his big problems upon arriving in Lexington was to convince the players and fans that Kentucky could win; after an opening victory over Virginia Tech, he told the squad that a person would have thought they had lost, they had to learn to win. By the end of the season, the Wildcats became known as a team that never gave up, and twice came from far behind to lose by only two points to bowl-bound teams.

Curci came to U.K. from his alma mater, the University of Miami, Fla., where he was head coach two years. He started his career as freshman coach there in 1962 after making All-America and playing as a 5-foot-9, 152 lb. quarterback for the old Dallas Texans of the AFL.

In four years, his Hurricane freshman teams won 12 and lost two games. He then served as a varsity assistant two years (1966-1967), with the Hurricanes participating in bowl games both those years.

Curci was tapped by the University of Tampa in 1968 to see what he could do about a faltering football program; in three campaigns, he wrote one of the most amazing success stories in college football.

In his first year, he put together a 7-3 season, including victories over Mississippi State and Tulane. That earned for him the Florida Sports Writers Association "Coach of the Year" award, a recognition repeated in 1970. His 1969 season was a brilliant 8-2 affair. His 10-1 record in 1970 also included a 31-14 triumph over Miami and brought the Tampans the nation's No. 1 College Division ranking as well as bringing Curci College Division "Coach of the Year" runner-up honors.

He took over as Miami grid boss Dec. 19, 1970, and left the program there in good shape for his successor.

Curci has been selected four times to coach in all-star games. He assisted Bear Bryant with the South team in Tampa's first annual American Bowl game four years ago, then served as South head coach the next year. He helped Charlie McClendon of LSU and Alex Agase of Northwestern direct the East in the Coaches All-America football game at Lubbock, Texas, and was co-South coach with Bill Battle of Tennessee in Miami's Shrine North-South game in 1972.

A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., Curci played his high school ball in Miami, where he lettered three years as a quarterback at Archbishop Curley High and was All-City, All-Conference, Catholic All-State and his team's Most Valuable Player.

At the University of Miami, he was known as the "Mite-y Magician." Playing at 152 pounds, he parlayed intelligence and desire to become All-America as a senior in 1959 after receiving honorable mention All-America and winning acclaim as one of the foremost sophomore football stars in the country in 1957.

His record-shattering feats at Miami included breaking of seasonal and career marks for total offense, most passes thrown, most passes completed and most yards gained on passing. He also was co-holder of the record for most TD passes thrown.

He rolled up 2,767 yards rushing and passing during his varsity career, breaking a total offense record that had stood for more than two decades.

As a senior, he captained Miami and climaxed his career by engineering a stunning upset (18-23) over Big Ten champion Michigan State.

After graduation in 1960 with a degree in marketing, he played one year with the Dallas Texans and then served as a lieutenant in the Army, coaching and playing football for the Fort Eustis team, which won the National Service championship in the Missile Bowl.

He is married to the former Miss Patricia Ann Taylor of Louisville. They have four children, Angela 14, Frankie 12, Mary Teresa 11 and Jimmie 9.

The 24-hour Banker. Sunup. Sundown. Ready when you are.

Time was, banks could pretty much set their own hours. And the hours were convenient to everyone, except their customers.

Then First Security installed the 24-Hour Banker at six of their convenient locations. Now times have changed.

Using your First Security card or First Security BankAmericard, plus your own secret code number, the 24-Hour Banker can handle most of your everyday banking transactions. From deposits and withdrawals to transfers and payments.

The 24-Hour Banker. Always open, 7 days a week. Only at First Security National Bank. Now, more than ever, big enough to bend a little.

'DISTINGUISHED ACHIEVEMENT IN RESEARCH'

A behavioral scientist, engineer, entomologist
and mathematician
are 1975 research award winners

By BETTY TEVIS

For "distinguished achievement in research and creative arts," four University of Kentucky professors last May won $500 prizes from the University of Kentucky Research Foundation (UKRF).

These 1975 winners, selected by a 5-member faculty committee, all happen to be researchers: a behavioral scientist, an engineer, an entomologist and a mathematician. Their work was selected because it is innovative and creative, because it has brought prestige to UK, and because the recipients have the potential to continue the same quality of research along the same lines.

Though the award is given, technically, as a recognition of research over a two-year span, it is also a reflection upon the entire research career and potential of the recipient. All four of the most recent winners have the good researcher's "burning desire to excel, lives wrapped up in their work, the capacity to lose themselves in their work—in fact they can't help it," as Dr. Wyman Dorough, UK's associate dean for research puts it.

The 1975 awards were given for research in such diverse areas as alcoholism, causes of motor vehicle accidents, decision making under uncertainty, and control of insect pests on Kentucky farms.

Dr. Robert Straus, professor and chairman of the UK College of Medicine's Department of Behavioral Science, began his study of alcoholism when as a Yale graduate student he was hired to help interview men on skid row in New Haven. He has spent 30 more years studying alcohol and dependency, resulting in the publication of numerous articles, book chapters and books. Among them are "Drinking In College" (1953), "Alcohol and Society" (1973), and "Escape From Custody" (1974), the life history of one alcoholic man as reflected in his letters to Straus from 1945 until the man's death in 1972.

Straus came to UK in 1956 as a member of the Medical Center's planning staff. He has been recently elected to the Institute of Medicine, a prestigious assembly within the National Academy of Sciences.

"I am very grateful," the medical educator says, "for the opportunity to study a subject for a long period of time. I hope the recent trend toward short-term research, as evidenced by grants of 2-3 years instead of for 5 years or longer, is being reversed and that young faculty people won't be pressured into quick projects but will instead be encouraged to do sustained research on the same subjects over longer periods."

DR. ROBERT STRAUS began his study of alcoholism more than 30 years ago.

DR. BOBBY C. PASS is doing research with the alfalfa weevil.

Dr. John Hutchinson, now a national consultant on traffic safety and an active researcher at UK with grants from the Federal Highway Administration and the U.S. Department of Transportation, used to be, as a college-age driver, a "high self tester" as many young males are. ("How fast can I go?" "Can I bluff this truck?" "Can I beat that light?") After years of what he describes as "close calls," young Prof. Hutchinson began asking, "Couldn't there be better tolerance built into driving for drivers like me?" His research career since then, in Illinois and since 1964 at UK, has been directed at vehicle and highway safety.

At UK, Hutchinson has directed a multi-disciplinary inquiry (psychiatrist, traffic engineer, surgeon, pathologist, metallurgist, behavioralists) into traffic accidents in Lexington—Fayette County; he's finishing a statewide study of recreational vehicle accidents which seems to show trailer-towing as the most influential cause. He's looking at fixed road obstacles like utility poles and trying to find if installing such devices as breakaway poles will significantly reduce highway deaths and injuries.

Dr. Bobby C. Pass, professor and chairman of the UK Department of Entomology, grew up on a north Alabama farm, near which his father ran a small country store. He was acquainted even then with the problem of insects attacking forage crops, a subject which has absorbed his research energies since he began work in 1962, upon joining UK's faculty, on the biology and control of the alfalfa weevil.

With six other researchers at six other universities, Pass shares a grant for the study of this weevil, the control of which may be effected by both chemical and organic means. Pass sees a future time when an individual farmer may be able to ask a programmed computer when and how and what controls to apply to weevils and other pests at what cost to the farmer.

"We're trying to manipulate the insect's environment," Pass says, "but we still have a long way to go." One project has been the introduction through the Department of Agriculture of a parasite (a wasp that stings weevils, but not people), and an attempt to determine what pesticides have the least effect on the helpful parasite.

Pass's research project, "Principles, Strategies and Tactics of Pest Population Regulation and Control in the Alfalfa Eco-

DR. ROGER WETS is a mathematician whose research has to do with decision-making.

UK has a sound reputation for research system," has been sponsored by the National Science Foundation (NSF), the Environmental Protection Agency and the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Pass is president-elect of the North Central Branch of the Entomological Society of America.

Dr. Roger Wets began research while still in graduate school on stochastic programming, which is an abstract and theoretical approach to decision-making under uncertainty. His current inquiries along this line are funded by a National Science Foundation grant.

His work has practical applications in resource allocation, production planning, control of physical systems and economic planning. Simply stated, Wets' research is concerned with the most efficient use of time and resources, when many of the elements in the decision are uncertain or unknown.

Dr. Wets has become an international authority on stochastic programming and it was he who initiated an NSF-funded international conference on the subject last summer at the University of Kentucky.

Wets, a native of Belgium, is an energetic and dynamic teacher-scholar. Among his interests are local politics, sports, hiking and other outdoor activities.

The four UKRF winners are indicative of the superior quality of research at UK. For those also interested in quantity, UK set new records for research in fiscal year 1974-75, receiving almost $25.3 million for 812 projects.

"The large increase in research funds over the past few years is striking evidence of the sound reputation for research that this institution has established," says UK President Otis A. Singletary. "This is a tribute to the many dedicated scientists and researchers throughout the University community."

DR. JOHN HUTCHINSON, right, is now a national consultant on traffic safety.

STADIUM INFORMATION

FIRST AID—The University of Kentucky provides, for your convenience and welfare, First Aid Stations on the ground level on both sides of the stadium. On the West side is Room 156, the East side Room 172. An ambulance is available at each corner of the stadium. Twenty doctors on duty are spotted in each section of the stadium and are easily accessible to Boy Scouts and ushers. Two golf cart ambulances are equipped for immediate aid and located on the second level on each side of the stadium. Persons with any type of chronic medical problem are requested to leave their name and seat location with the nurse on duty at either First Aid station. A person in need of assistance with a health emergency should report the situation immediately to the nearest Boy Scout or usher.

CARDIAC CARE—In cooperation with the University Medical Service, the University of Kentucky provides a cardiac resuscitation program.

LOST AND FOUND—Lost and found articles should be reported or turned in to an usher or a security officer. You may wish to write to the director of public safety (305 Euclid Avenue) and describe lost articles which will be returned if found.

CROWD NOISE PENALTY—Uncontrolled crowd noise can result in a five yard penalty against your team. Please observe quarterback and official's signals for quiet.

NO HORNS—Horns are not permitted in Commonwealth Stadium and will be picked up at gates. Be considerate and allow your neighbor to enjoy the game. Keep portable radios at a low volume.

GATE INFORMATION—All gates are open two hours before game time. Parking lots are open three hours before game time. All stadium exits will be opened after the game. Please do not leave the stadium during the game or at half-time if you plan to re-enter. No "Pass-out" tickets will be issued and you will not be permitted to re-enter.

FIELD REGULATIONS—Spectators must keep off the playing field at all times and after the game. Spectators must use the stadium ramps for exits.

LIQUORS—Alcoholic beverages are strictly prohibited within the stadium as are all food and drink containers including hard surfaced materials of any type, bottles, cans, thermos bottles, ice bags, ice chest, and any object related to above. Gate personnel are instructed to enforce this rule in the interest of safety.

PUBLIC ADDRESS—Messages for the public address announcer are acceptable only in emergencies and must be approved by the Sports Information Director at the Press Box.

SIGNS—Signs and barriers are restricted for Commonwealth Stadium in accordance with University regulations and policies established by the Public Safety Division.

PARKING—More than 5,000 parking spaces are located in four lots around the stadium, along with a bus-camper lot. Some areas are set aside for Blue & White Fund members, handicapped persons, staff and the press. Located nearby on the campus are many free parking spaces in University lots. Shuttle buses carry passengers to and from the campus lots and the stadium.

GENERAL TICKET POLICY FOR STADIUM

- All persons must have a ticket
- No pass out checks permitted at any gate
- All sales final
- Tickets cannot be refunded or replaced if lost, stolen or destroyed
- The University of Kentucky Athletic Association reserves the right to revoke tickets by refund of purchase price
- Holder of tickets to University of Kentucky athletic events agrees to abide by stadium and University Policies
- Tickets may not be sold on University of Kentucky premises (parking lots, stadium grounds, etc.) except by authorized personnel

Chevette.

Chevrolet's new kind of American car.

- Chevette is international in concept, design and heritage. It incorporates many engineering features proved around the world.
- Its wheelbase is 94.3 inches. And overall length is 158.7 inches.
- Its turning circle, compared with that of any foreign or domestic car, is among the smallest.
- It gives you more head room and front leg room than some leading foreign cars.
- It can carry cargo up to four feet wide.
- It's basically a metric car. And, as you know, the metric system is on its way to becoming the standard American measurement.
- It has a standard 1.4-litre engine, with a 1.6-litre engine available (except on the Scooter).
- It comes with a self-service booklet.
- It's a two-door hatchback, with seating for four in the standard Chevette, Rally, Sport and Woody versions. A two-passenger version, the Scooter, is also available.
- It is sold and serviced by every Chevrolet dealer in America—all 6,030 of them.

A Fighting Methodist by Any Other Name?

by LARRY GUEST, Orlando (Fla.) Sentinel Star

The very heavy thinkers in the University of Southern Mississippi Alumni Association gathered over doughnuts one day back in the early '60s and decided the nickname for the school's athletic teams was outdated.

The seed was planted in the minds of a few student leaders and before long, it was duly decreed that Southern's practitioners of sport would be known as Generals; no longer as Southerners. Perhaps the latter tag seemed somewhat incongruous when applied to the school's outstanding basketball team of that era. For when the pep band completed the National Anthem and broke into a spirited rendition of Dixie, the five starting Southerners who took the floor would have been hard-pressed to distinguish between hominy grits and collards. They hailed from the Bronx, Brooklyn, New Jersey, Illinois and Indiana.

However, as has been the case with so many other nickname changes, the new monicker didn't stick. In less than a year, Generals no longer appeared in official references to the squads, marking a decisive victory for those supporters who continued to cheer the Southerners ingrained in their loyalties.

Subsequently, as confirmation of the Civil War outcome seeped down from Appomattox, the heavy thinkers renewed their effort to rid USM of its provincialistic nickname. And just a decade after the first misfire, Golden Eagles was successfully adopted via a nickname contest.

Nickname changes—or aborted attempts—are liberally sprinkled throughout the history of collegiate athletics. A fight song provided Tulane with the Green Wave, replacing Greenbacks, a handle that might have red-faced the school's athletic business manager during the attendance slump of the mid-sixties when the average number of paying customers at Tulane home games dipped to a budget-pinching 14,000.

Many, many seasons have come and gone since Cornhuskers replaced Bugeaters at Nebraska—for reasons which should be painfully apparent. Although the many recent victims of Alabama football teams may find it hard to believe, the Crimson Tide was once the Thin Red Line.

And, while in the crimson area, a student attempt to change Indiana's Hoosiers to the Crimson Bulls fortunately never got off the ground. Same for an aborted try to have the Purdue Boilermakers become the Riveters. Riveters?

Oh, well. That wouldn't have been much more unusual than the current St. Louis University Billikins. Don't feel culturally deprived if your neighborhood zoo fails to contain a herd of billikins. It's actually a Chinese God who was supposed to bring good luck. The mascot is a god much like Hoy-Tay—squat, fat little guy with a big belly—giving your humble reporter hope for new employment if I ever leave the newspaper business.

Another newspaperman, Wallace Abbey, is generally credited with applying the Wildcat tag to Northwestern much to the relief of peace-loving clergymen. The school's football team had previously molested opponents under guise of being Fighting Methodists.

Ask a grad of Western Carolina or Vermont what a Catamount is and watch him stutter. They've cheered for Catamounts since their freshman year probably unaware that it's actually a general name given to any of various wild cats, and short for cat-a-mountain.

Many schools took the easy route by merely embracing their state's accepted mascot or nickname, i.e., Tennessee Vols, Illinois Illini, Indiana Hoosiers, Minnesota Gophers, etc.

No bickering between alumni and students. No nickname contests. Think of the fun they missed.

Others were more original . . . California Irvine Anteaters, Colby College White Mules, and the Tufts Jumbos to name a few.

October 9 - 12 at Memorial Coliseum

Festival Highlights Kentucky's Heritage

The second annual International Bicentennial Festival is set for October 9-12 in the University of Kentucky Memorial Coliseum.

An array of some 100 exhibit booths manned by approximately 3,500 volunteers and continuous entertainment provided by over 2,500 professional and nonprofessional talent has been collected under one roof for the 33-hour festival.

Mrs. Kenneth V. L. Miller, Festival Chairman, said, "We hope all who attend the Festival will gain a better understanding of Kentucky's interdependence with the world both past and present." She also stressed that the Festival is "a unique opportunity to combine an educational and fun experience for the entire family."

In addition to the numerous cultural booths and hourly entertainment, the festival will feature 20 food booths. French quiche and roasted chestnuts in newspaper cones, German cookies, Greek pastries, East Indian curried rice and pappadum, and salami and rye sandwiches prepared by the Jewish community are but a few of the foods which will be sold at the festival.

Italian, Oriental, Latin American-Mexican, Mormon-Pioneer, and Cuban foods will also be sold. For Americans who prefer only American food there will be hot dogs, potato chips, soft drinks, cotton candy, popcorn, American cookies, and Soul Food.

"We hope the many varieties of educational opportunities, foods, and entertainment make our festival akin to an inexpensive walking tour of the world," Mrs. Miller said.

The Festival's bicentennial emphasis includes demonstrations of early Kentucky crafts such as shoemaking, quilting, blacksmithing, soap making, basket weaving, and printing on a hand press.

Ashland Community College will share in this bicentennial celebration by exhibiting its collection of Appalachian Wedding Gowns, dated from 1870 to 1960.

The days of the riverboat will be recalled when Benny Powell of Danville demonstrates the two calliopes he designed and made.

The Centre College faculty ensemble directed by Dr. Marilyn Somville will recreate the music of Anthony Philip

A model of the Triple Tier Machine Gun will be included in an IBM exhibit of Leonardo da Vinci inventions.

Heinrich, a Bohemian composer.

Heinrich was responsible for a historic first in Lexington, Kentucky, when he assembled a group of professional and amateur musicians on Wednesday, November 12, 1817, to perform a Beethoven symphony—the first ever played in America.

The Centre ensemble will play Heinrich's "Dawning of Music in Kentucky" or "The Pleasures of Harmony in Solitude" which he composed while living in a cabin near Bardstown in 1818.

Entertainment for the 33-hour Festival is scheduled hourly with each show lasting approximately 35 minutes. Kentucky and international folksingers and folk dancers, the Kentucky Homemakers Chorus, and the Charles Little Black Chorus from UK are among the numerous groups who will entertain throughout the four-day festival.

Bicentennial drama will be represented at the Festival in the form of two Kentucky puppeteer groups. In addition, Transylvania College will sponsor a historic dialogue between General Marquis de Lafayette, Constantine Rafinesque and M. John James Audubon.

Festival art is highlighted by the nationally renowned IBM exhibit of the models of Leonardo da Vinci's inventions which will be on display free of charge in the front corridor of the coliseum.

A Festival first is the construction of a large fabric sculpture which will cover the ceiling of UK's Memorial Coliseum. The grand opening, set for 8:00 p.m. on Oct. 9 includes a parade led by a Kentucky Bagpipe Band and children of the world escorting Kentucky's Governor Julian Carroll and other dignitaries. The University of Kentucky massed choruses, directed by Sara Holroyd also will present a medley of American music arranged especially for the bicentennial celebration.

Sunday, October 12, there will be continuous sacred programs including bell and vocal choruses and interpretive religious dances.

A total of 22 international cultural exhibits will be grouped in four diamond-shaped clusters centered with an island of yellow mums which will be sold to benefit Kentucky children's cancer research.

Demonstrations of numerous international crafts and skills also are planned. For example, Japanese children will demonstrate and sell Origami (paper folding), and Japanese women will make and sell silk flowers.

The Spanish-speaking countries will be represented by a booth which will create a total cultural environment. Persons manning the booth will demonstrate and sell various crafts.

Free to all who enter also are printed handouts listing Kentucky firsts in the United States—such as the fact that Mother's Day was first celebrated in Kentucky.

The Festival runs from 6:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. Thursday, October 9; from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m., Friday, October 10; from 12:00 noon to 12:00 midnight Saturday, October 11; and from 12:00 noon to 6:00 p.m. Sunday, October 12.

Admission is $1.00 for adults and $0.50 for children. Friday, October 10, school children accompanied by a teacher or parent may enter for 25 cents.

Each money-making project in the Festival is sponsored by a non-profit organization. Any profits made from the door receipts will go to the International Book Project, based in Lexington. The International Book Project is a non-profit agency which arranges for books and technical journals to be distributed in more than 50 countries. Since 1966, IBP has distributed approximately 893,000 books and other publications.

$5 Million Addition to UK Medical Center Provides

A SHOT IN THE ARM FOR KENTUCKY HEALTH CARE

By BETTY TEVIS

For the critically ill and for all the people of Kentucky, the three-floor, $5 million addition to UK's Albert B. Chandler Medical Center is an extension of the University's concern for the health of the Commonwealth.

This morning, the new wing was formally dedicated; but its service began long before that with the admission of the first patient on July 23 into the centralized intensive care section on the second floor. The new out-patient pharmacy in the new lobby has been in busy use for a month; the new front doors were opened about the same time and patients have entered, and left, with the life of the hospital continuing at its same rhythm, uninterrupted.

Equipment and personnel are continually being moved into new spaces provided for them, and that will continue through September.

At this morning's ceremonies, the guests included Governor Julian M. Carroll, UK President Otis A. Singletary, UK's board of trustees chairman William B. Sturgill, Medical Center vice president Dr. Peter P. Bosomworth, former Governor A.B. Chandler, former Medical School Dean William Willard, and Richard Wittrup, first administrator of University Hospital.

The new addition, under construction for nearly three years, contains:

- ✓ One of the most modern and comprehensive sections for the intensive care of cardiac, medical/surgical and respiratory cases in the nation.

- ✓ An expanded cancer treatment center that will utilize the Clinac 18 linear accelerator.

- ✓ A modernized outpatient pharmacy equipped with an elaborate drug retrieval system.

- ✓ A highly sophisticated cardiac catheterization laboratory (to be opened in five months) which will be both centralized and computerized.

- ✓ Additional space for expanded services in X-ray and radiation medicine.

- ✓ A new entrance and front lobby, additional offices and classrooms, staff lounge and a new recreation area and sun roof for psychiatric patients.

Patient care is the reason for the new addition, the first major expansion since University Hospital opened in 1962. The project was intended to expand, modernize and humanize existing services of University Hospital.

"The opening of this major addition to the University Hospital is another significant step in our continuing effort to serve the people of the Commonwealth," said President Singletary. "We hope all Kentuckians will share our pride in this expansion of these services."

The new ICU (intensive care unit) combines three different units on one floor, and brings to 76 the total of hospital beds for the care of acutely ill patients (including 17 for critically ill newborns).

Says Dr. Mark Ravin, chairman of the College of Medicine's Department of Anesthesiology, who is medical coordinator for the intensive care section: "Centralization of beds allows us to use personnel and equipment more efficiently. It permits us to have constant physician supervision and direction of patient care. By virtue of their specific training and cumulative intensive care experience, nurses in this section will have particular patient-oriented skills."

The new intensive care section has larger rooms than most, with windows, clocks, calendars and colorful reclining chairs to keep the acutely ill patient aware of the outside world and thus aid in his recovery.

New registered nurses, all graduates of a three-week critical care course, provide direct patient care. They can provide emergency resuscitative measures and administer therapeutic procedures, said Wilma Harwell, associate director of UK nursing services.

IT'S DESIGNED 'TO EXPAND, MODERNIZE, AND HUMANIZE EXISTING SERVICES OF THE UK HOSPITAL.'

Besides registered nurses and specialized physicians, patients in intensive care will be watched by a 24-hour critical-care team. Routine, non-medical tasks in the unit will be provided by para-medical people, thus freeing nurses and doctors to devote all their efforts to patient care.

The cardiac unit has five medical or coronary and three surgical or cardiac beds. The medical/surgical unit has 10 beds, and the respiratory unit has seven beds. In the new respiratory therapy unit, next to the respiratory ICU, are five cubicles with breathing devices.

When the cardiac catheterization unit opens five months hence, it will be among the most sophisticated in the U.S., with a central laboratory and computerized systems for monitoring patients. With this facility, doctors will be able to test patients continuously during operations and crises.

With Diagnostic Radiology located on the third floor of the new Medical Center addition, the X-ray service on the second floor thus has space for expansion.

It is a handsome new building, as seen by the visitor, with a landscaped approach, a lighted mural over the entrance, striking lettering on the front facade, comfortable chairs in the lounge and a cheery coffee shop.

But it is what the new $5 million addition does for hospital patients that makes it important. It is its service to people and not its beauty that commends it to the Commonwealth.

A $5 million patient-care addition to the UK Albert B. Chandler Medical Center was dedicated in ceremonies this morning.

What's In A Name? From Cat Blue To Ruppian

University of Kentucky sports fans have responded enthusiastically to the K-Men's Association contest to select a name for the new Wildcat mascot, a four-month-old tom from South Dakota.

While many of the names contain Cat in some form, there are also several suggestions that the mascot be named in honor of Adolph Rupp, who coached UK basketball teams for 42 years.

"The name I have chosen for the new UK Wildcat mascot combines two notables of Kentucky," Ed Hawkins writes from Louisville. "The late race horse Ruffian and former coach Rupp to form the name Ruppian."

The Rev. Ralph Shepperson of Webster and John Wilson of Crittenden want to call it ADOLPH while Thomas Bach and Ginger Clayton of Louisville suggest the name BARON or THE BARON. Mrs. Lonnie Edlin of Louisville suggests RUPPIE.

"I would like to suggest the name CAT BLUE," Mrs. Pat Pezzarossi of Louisville writes. "The music from the movie (Cat Bellew, starring Lee Marvin and Jane Fonda) could be his song. Plus it would fit any UK sport."

Ms. Charlotte Jones of Oxford, Ohio, and Larry D. Mitchell of Lexington were thinking along the same line when they suggested CAT B'BLUE. Mrs. Jodie Sherman of Louisville wants to call it BIG BLUE.

"Since the scientific name for the North American wildcat is Lynx Fetus Rufus, writes Jerry L. Bishop of Louisville, "I submit that the new mascot be called by his last name RUFUS." Thomas R. McMahan of Campbellsville suggests L. RUFUS KAT.

Mrs. Henry Foushee of Lexington and Betty Van Hoy of Sonora like CAT NIP. "As you know," Mrs. Foushee says, "cats are pretty smart these days and call for their favorite brand of cat food 'Meow' and since cats all love catnip you just might have a flock of cats on the field sometime when they learn CATNIP will be there."

Billy S. Chandler of Manchester has three suggestions: "SCAT—these letters are used in the name 'Cats' and would apply to all sports at UK; STAC—This is merely the reversal of the letters 'Cats' and has appeal since it is a short and snappy name; TUCKY—This of course denotes Kentucky, and since the word Kentucky is often used in a shortened manner, TUCKY seems applicable and appealing.

George H. Brown Jr. of Louisville likes KYMBA, explaining: "This name has many possibilities. Kentucky Mascot for Big-time Athletics; Kentucky Mascot for Boisterous Alumni; Kentucky Means Big-time Athletics. This name is also synonymous with Simba, denoting the lion."

Jennifer Smith of Mt. Washington thinks KINETIC is a good name "because it is a form of energy that is in the process of working, bowling over other teams. Joedy Smith of Danville wants it named ISAAC in honor of Isaac Shelby, who was the first (1792-76) and fifth governor (1812-16) of Kentucky.

"The name I submit is CLAWS," reports E. M. Shaughnessy Jr. of Louisville. My daughter Karen submits KY (pronounced Ki); my daughter Janet submits BLUEGRASS; my son Ed II submits AWESOME."

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen D. Moss of Nicholasville like KLAWEED, or CLAUDE, or CLAWED; James H. Muller Sr. of Louisville also likes CLAWS. George Balf of Louisville prefers BLUEGRASS.

"LI'L ABNER CAT because Kentucky is supposed to be the home of LiL Abner and there is a Dogpatch in the state," suggests Finoa J. Lambert of Corydon, Ind. "Also Li'l Abner is stronger than anyone, so it just seems to me a logical choice."

Joe P. Turpin of Hustonville was really thinking when he came up with the idea of "taking the first two letters of the names of three of our outstanding players—Collins, Campassi and Hite, which would be COCAHI."

Here are some other suggested names:

Andy Wagoner, Horse Cave—WILLIE; John W. Journey, Louisville—MAYNARD; Pat Nalley, Louisville—WILLIE WHOMP'EM; Robert Bryant, Louisville—LEXKY; Mrs. Dennis L. Mudd, West Point—KY BABE, or GOLDEN ROD, or GO CAT; Mrs. Darrell Watson, Waynesville—BOURBON; L. G. Lowe, Dayton—U-KEE or UKEE; Jeffrey E. Journey, Louisville—PERSIVAL; Scott Fitzhugh, Louisville—TUFFY; Mrs. L. E. Huddle, Louisville—K-BABY, KAT-BABY, CAT-BABY; John S. Connolly, Louisville—GO.

Five-year-old Richie Tobertge of Ludlow says it should be named RIP. Jimmy Thomas of Louisville likes HERMES, "the Greek god of speed and light—typical of the Wildcats." Jack Dundon of Louisville submits WILEY, Andy Rose of Louisville SCAT CAT, Donna Schmidt of Louisville VICTORY WILDCAT, Charles Blackshear of Louisville KING TUCKER THE FIRST; Thelma Mason of Rockport TOUCHDOWN (T. D.), Jim Alexander of Bowling Green VICTORY; Suzanne Alexander of Bowling Green COL. PIGSKIN and W. B. Mason of Rockport CHAMPION.

"Name the cat SHIVE, in remembrance of Bernie Shivley (former UK athletic director)," urges Donald E. Rough of Louisville. Pat Thorne of Louisville likes UKIE (pronounced U-kee) while the Rev. Gerald K. Dixon of Columbus, Ohio, leans to WINNER. Ms. Nancy Mills of Versailles likes PHOENIX, Ronald D.

Elliott of Lexington KY TOP CAT, Mark Whitelet of LaGrange WILLIE THE WILDCAT and Kenny Waddell of Sonora suggests CATASTROPHE.

Editor's Notebook

Jerry Claiborne, who holds the UK record for pass interceptions in a season (nine in 1949) and was a mainstay on the Wildcat Orange Bowl team that was recognized as the best all-around defensive unit in the nation, returns to his alma mater today with a Maryland team that is noted for both its defensive and offensive prowess.

The Terps are fresh from a 34-7 conquest of North Carolina for their 11th ACC victory in a row and are 2-1 for the season, having opened with a 41-0 victory over Villanova before losing, 26-8, to Tennessee at Knoxville.

Despite the loss of All-America tackle Randy White, linebacker Harry Walters and safety Bob Smith via the graduation route, the Terp defense is still a veteran one. Lettermen start at every position.

Heading the Terp defense are halfback Jim Brechbiel, end LeRoy Hughes, guard Paul Divito, linebacker Kevin Benson and tackles Ralph Risher and Joe Campbell.

Terp quarterback Mark Manges was injured in the Tennessee game, but his replacement, Larry Dick, came off the bench and did an excellent job against the Vols. Dick started against North Carolina and finished the day with nine of 12 passes for 137 yards and a touchdown and 11 carries for 33 yards.

In a series that began in 1931, the Wildcats and Terps have one win each and have tied a game . . . the tie game (6-6) was the series opener in 1931. Maryland won, 20-0, in 1954 and UK 14-0 in 1956.

The 1949 Wildcat team set national records in yards returned on intercepted passes (719 vs. 580 by Texas in 1943) in a season and in a single game (240 vs. Mississippi on six interceptions).

The Wildcats that year allowed an average of 153.8 yards and 4.8 points per game. They had 569 rushing plays, second to Wyoming (626) and an SEC record (old record: 549 by Georgia in 1947).

They set a conference single game record for net yards allowed rushing (one vs. The Citadel). The 1949 Wildcats also tied an SEC single game record by limiting The Citadel to two first downs.

Claiborne's nine interceptions beat the SEC record of eight set by Clyde Ehrhardt of Georgia in 1942 and tied by Eli Marchich of Georgia in 1948, but J. W. Sherrill of Tennessee intercepted 12 in 1949 to establish the mark that stands today. Claiborne returned his nine interceptions 130 yards. The Wildcats as a team intercepted 29 passes that year.

The game Claiborne remembers most during his UK career was a 6-0 loss to Tennessee in 1949. "Those were the only points scored against us in the SEC that year and we lost the championship," he said. "We never won the championship while I was in school (or before or afterward either)."

Claiborne was an offensive end and defensive safety on the '49 team which beat LSU, 19-0, Ole Miss, 47-0, and Florida, 35-0, before playing Tennessee.

"I guess the game I recall most fondly is the one against Ole Miss that year," he said. "I intercepted three passes that day."

Claiborne started his first game as a freshman linebacker and blocking back in Bear Bryant's single wing in 1946. When Bryant went to the T-formation the next year, George Blanda played quarterback and Claiborne played linebacker. However, he had a hernia operation in January and did not play much in 1947. He was a defensive and offensive end in '48 and an offensive end and defensive safety in '49. He caught 12 passes for 117 yards in 1948 and five passes for 54 yards in 1949.

Kentucky's Sonny Collins has carried 44 times for 253 yards this season, bringing his career totals to 573 carries (one shy of the SEC record 574 set by John Musso of Alabama in 1969-70-71) and 2,938 yards (157 yards shy of the SEC record of 3,095 set by Eddie Price of Tulane in 1946-47-48-49).

The Wildcats' Ramsey, a sophomore backup to junior Cliff Hite, gained 41 yards on 14 carries and now is the team's second leading rusher with 123 yards on 28 carries. Steve Campassi has carried 31 times for 114 yards.

Mike Siganos had a 43-yard punt return against the Jayhawks to bring his season total to eight returns for 117 yards. Greg Woods got UK's first pass interception of the season in that game.

Basketball Staff Busy With Pre-season Details

By JACK PERRY

UK Assistant Sports Information Director

An exception to the old saying, "While the Cat's away, the mice will play," is UK head basketball coach Joe B. Hall's staff.

While Hall is lecturing at a United States Air Force sponsored basketball clinic in Germany and England, assistant coaches Dick Parsons, Leonard Hamilton and Lynn Nance are busy checking off a long list of duties Hall left for them to complete during his absence.

Responsible for the purchase of all basketball equipment is Parsons, who also sees that freshmen are properly fitted in game uniforms and other necessary attire.

"We'll use around 160 pairs of shoes a year," he said, "and sometimes it is difficult to find the sizes in the style we use. Sizes range from Truman Claytor's and Reggie Warford's size 11 to Mike Phillips' 16-D. Included in new equipment are seven-dozen basketballs and 130-dozen socks."

While Parsons is lining up equipment and organizing scouting duties against this year's opponents, Hamilton and Nance are occupied with details leading up to the recruiting season.

"We are in the process of tabulating data on prospects and determining those we feel have a bonafide interest in Kentucky," said Nance. "With the new recruiting rules put into legislation by the NCAA, we can not afford to recruit an athlete who shows only marginal interest in our institution."

The coaching staff is not alone in the hustle of pre-season preparation. Members of the team are involved in a voluntary physical conditioning program open to all UK students. After two weeks work on the nautilus weight equipment at Shively Sports Center, the group has taken to the track for a running program designed to increase speed and endurance.

Meanwhile, Hall has been sharing the lectern with South Carolina coach Frank McGuire and Southeastern Conference official Jack Manton at Ramstein AFB, Germany, and Mildenhall AFB, England.

The two-time Southeastern Conference Coach-of-the-Year, who was accompanied by his wife Katharine, will return to the States this week and participate in a series of clinics.

They are: Sept. 26, Binghamton, N. Y.; Sept. 27-28, Daytona Beach, Fla.; Oct. 1, Denver; Oct. 3-4, Myattsville, Md.; Oct. 5, Portland, Ore., and Oct. 18, UCLA.

Assistant coach Dick Parsons makes final inventory check prior to basketball picture day October 14.

Assistant coaches Lynn Nance (left) and Leonard Hamilton (right) discuss recruiting assignments for the coming season. Both coaches will be out of town this week.

BEST OF LUCK

To The 1975 Football Wildcats

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY "WILDCAT" MARCHING BAND

September 27, 1975

UK vs. Maryland

PREGAME

The UK Band again presents the music of George Gershwin, including "Strike Up the Band", "But Not For Me", "'S Wonderful", "Summertime", and "I've Got Rhythm".

HALFTIME

The "Wildcat" Band uses no theme for today's halftime show. Rather its emphasis is on good music and precision drill. You will hear the exciting processional march "Crown Imperial", the popular "I'll Play For You", and two Chicago hits, "Mongo" featuring the Kentucky Sweethearts, and "Old Days", featuring twirlers Carol Bowers and Diane Christian. Also featured is trumpet soloist Vincent DiMartino on a medley of tunes arranged for solo and marching band. DiMartino is the trumpet teacher in the UK School of Music. Concluding the show is the moving "Brian's Song".

University of Kentucky School Songs

ON, ON, U. OF K.

On, On, U. of K.
We are right for the fight today.
Hold that ball and hit that line;
every wildcat star will shine.
We'll fight, fight, fight for the blue and white,
as we roll to that goal, varsity.
And we'll kick, pass and run
'till the battle is won,
and we'll bring home the victory.

U.K. ALMA MATER

Hail Kentucky, Alma Mater!
Loyal sons and daughters sing;
sound her praise with voice united;
to the breeze her colors fling.
To the blue and white be true;
badge triumphant age on age.
Blue the sky that o'er us bends;
white Kentucky's stainless page.

MY OLD KENTUCKY HOME

The sun shines bright in the old Kentucky home,
'Tis summer, the people are gay;
The corn-top's ripe and the meadow's in the bloom
While the birds make music all the day.
The young folks roll on the little cabin floor
All merry, all happy and bright;
By'n by hard times comes a-knocking at the door
Then my old Kentucky home, Good-night!
Weep no more my lady, Oh! weep no more today!
We will sing one song for the old Kentucky home
For the old Kentucky home, far away.

There's more to electricity than meets the plug

Our first responsibility is to supply the electricity you need when you need it — all that's needed, 24 hours a day. Growing needs. For home, business, and industry.

But making sure that everyone in our service area has all the electricity needed is just part of the picture.

Take the problems involving the environment, for example. Reddy's working with scientists and researchers to clean up air pollution, improve and expand sewage treatment, filter pollution out of lakes and streams, and replace old-fashioned polluting processes with clean electrical systems.

In fact, in the area of environmental control equipment on which patents have been issued, more than 90 per cent require electricity.

Reddy Kilowatt makes things happen environmentally!

TV service technicians name Zenith for the two things you want most in color TV.

I. Best Picture.

In a recent nationwide survey of independent TV service technicians, Zenith was named, more than any other brand, as the color TV with the best picture.

Question: In general, of the color TV brands you are familiar with, which one would you say has the best overall picture?

Answers:

Zenith.....	36%
Brand A.....	20%
Brand B.....	10%
Brand C.....	7%
Brand D.....	6%
Brand E.....	3%
Brand F.....	2%
Brand G.....	2%
Brand H.....	2%
Brand I.....	1%
Other Brands.....	3%
About Equal.....	11%
Don't Know.....	4%

Note: Answers total over 100% due to multiple responses.

II. Fewest Repairs.

In the same survey, the service technicians named Zenith as the color TV needing the fewest repairs. By more than 2-to-1 over the next brand.
