THE MOHIAN OF 1924

Published by the

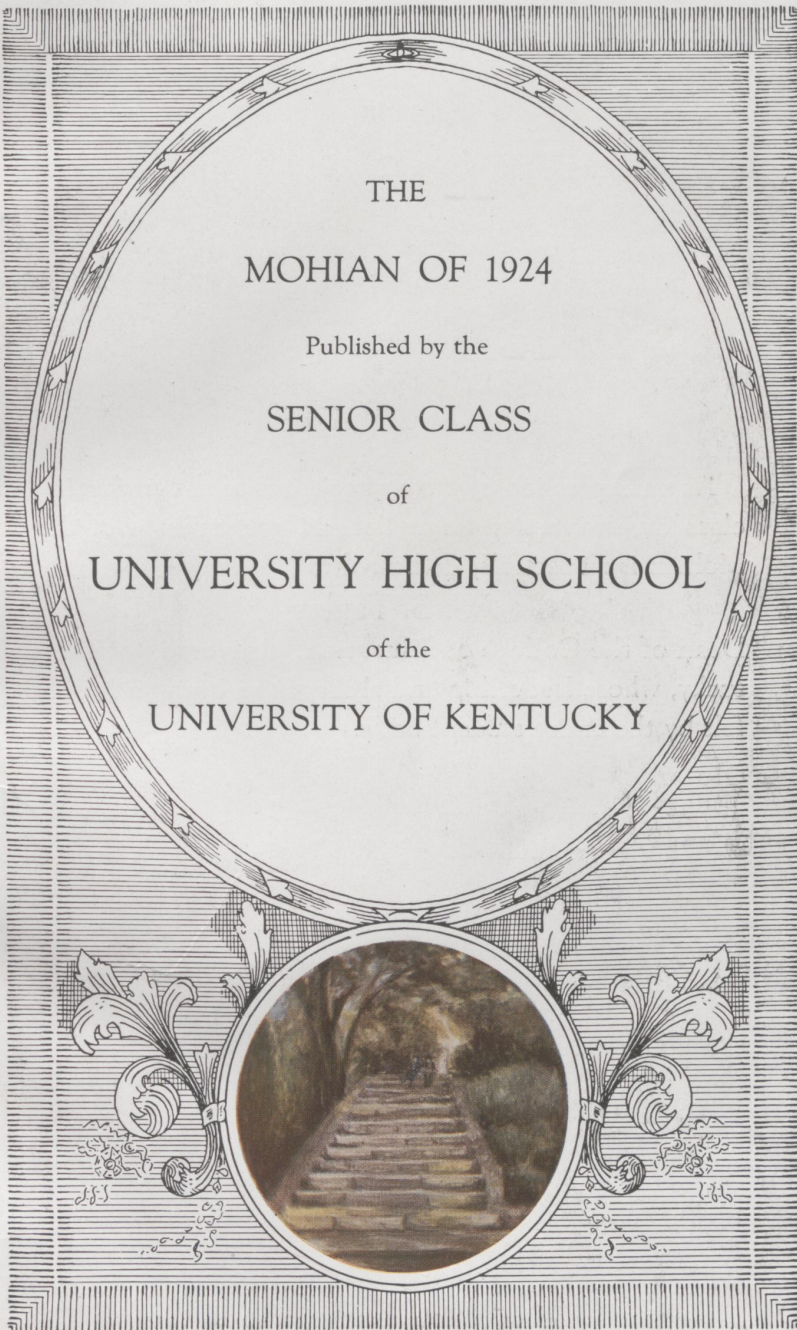

SENIOR CLASS

of

UNIVERSITY HIGH SCHOOL

of the

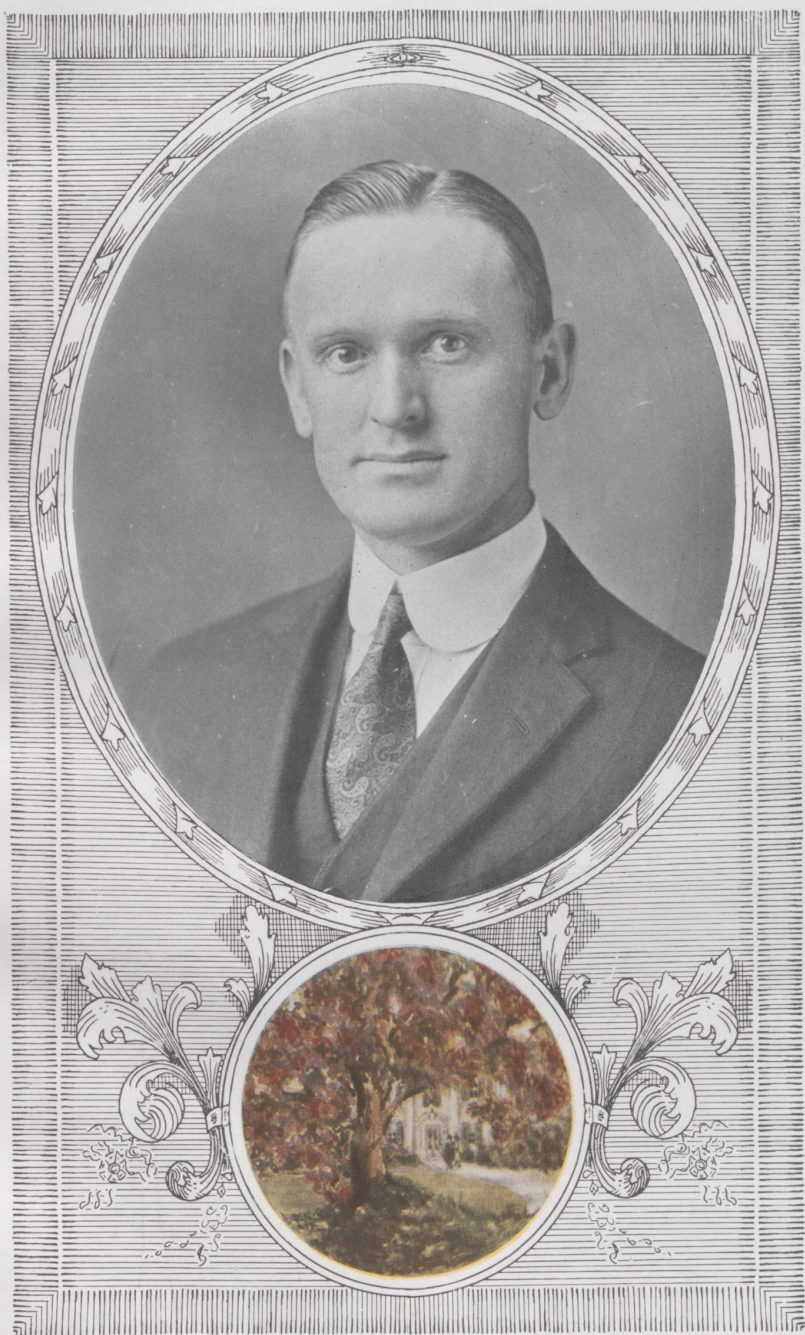

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

As an expression of the appreciation of the graduating class of University High School, this volume of the Mohian is respectfully dedicated to

W. S. Taylor

Dean of the College of Education, University of Kentucky, whose leadership and ability have been so keenly felt by the entire student body.

FOREWORD

This book is published that in later years each member of the class of '24 may have with him some memories of deeds of his student days.

If we have failed in this task, we can only say that we have tried. But if we have pleased you, we shall feel that our work has been, in a measure, a success.

LUCY WHITWORTH

At the opening of school in the second semester, the entire faculty and student body were astounded to learn of the serious illness and later of the death of Miss Lucy Whitworth. No words that we can say here will express our sorrow, because Miss Whitworth as we knew her, was loved by all who came in contact with her.

She was a true friend of every one in school and in her passing, we have all suffered a great loss.

NANCY MORGAN JONES

Nancy is so full of pep and life that one can not be near her long without feeling the same way. She has the lead in the play this year besides being in almost every other activity here. It's little wonder that a girl like Nancy should be the most popular girl as well as a million other things.

JAMES ALLEN HULETT, JR.

Jimmie is a man of affairs. And most of the affairs may be traced to the west side of North Broadway. He can sure be depended upon in any thing that he undertakes. Try to find someone who doesn't like Jimmie. It can't be done, for who could help liking a boy with as good a disposition and as much "fighting blood" as he has. The general verdict is that Jimmie's an all right boy.

LESLIE CLAYTON NEFF

"Barney's" one of the few who have been at old "Marvel High" for four years, but we don't hold that against him. He is the kind of a fellow you're glad to meet and to know. He's interested in athletics, girls, and everything except classes. Foot Ball '22, '23. Mgr. '22. Base Ball '22, '23. '24. Mgr. '24.

KENNETH EDWIN MAUSER

Kenneth is Leslie's "shadow", or perhaps it's just the opposite, but anyway they're always together. He has been with us four years, too, and everybody's learned to like him—even the boys. This shows his social standing among the fairer sex, but that's not half. When you say athletics, you're saying Kenneth at the same time.

MARY WILGUS LUXON

Laughing or smiling all of the time and doubly so when there's a man around, but Mary's pretty and her smiles are well worth winning. She has only been here this last semester, but she's become a real part of the school.

LEWIS VAN PELT ROOT

When Lewis first appeared in our fair city, the feminine element became distinctly war-like; conquest was in the air. But by some mysterious compromise it suddenly ended. Lewis is a whole constellation at track and when it comes to holding down first base, he's as much at home as he is in any girl's fraternity house in town.

19 MOHIAN 24

CATHERINE WRENN SMITH

We now take pleasure in introducing "Kitty". She has been a member of the school for three and a half years and we feel that it couldn't continue if she left. She has taken a prominent part in all school activities. She was terribly interested in foot-ball, especially a big handsome left tackle.

MATT HADEN MOISE

There's a certain dry wit that Haden has that classes him alone as our Senior humorist; but outside of that he has a bright future ahead of him. He agrees with us in that he is a very necessary member of the student body, for he is responsible for the jokes in both the Mohian and the Index.

WILLIAM BASS BROCK

Willie's the most popular Senior and it's perfectly natural that he should be, for there's not an activity that he hasn't some part in, and there's not a single student who does not know him. He has the business sense of the class and every member looks up to him.

LeRoy has always been an absolute part of the school. He stands for, in the minds of the whole of University High, all that goes to make up a real boy. He well merits this opinion, for he obtained the honor of Valedictorian of the Senior Class.

SEPTA FURLONG

A mercenary girl; you never see her that she does not have a "Nichols" on her mind. Cute—that's the word to describe "Sept" from the curve of her boyishly shingled head to the tip of her little retrousse nose. We're wondering what Christine will do when she goes.

WILLIAM FRYE SHOEMAKER

Every one likes Frye, even to the teachers who refuse to ever let him into class again at least twice a week, but then he has a way with 'em. He has exceptional talent in dramatics and takes part in nearly all productions. If you want to see him work, just suggest giving a school dance and he'll be the leader in preparations.

KATIE MAE STIVERS

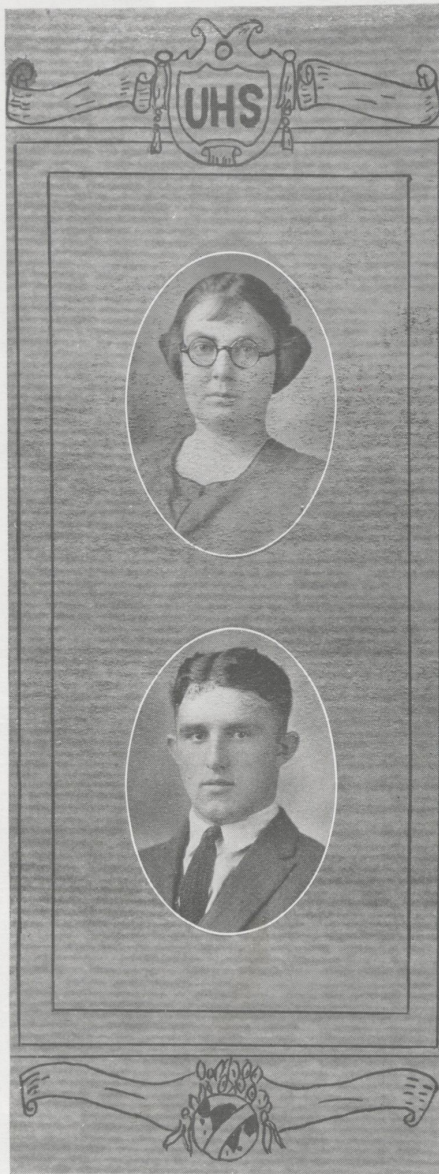

As for being a musician, Katie Mae has everyone in the school surpassed. Even Shorty keeps quiet when she's at the piano. She hails from Pineville, Kentucky and we'll always think well of that place for giving us Katie Mae.

ROBERT GLENN STOKES

"Bob" possesses something that not another person in school has and that is red hair. He hails from Farmington, Ky. The school certainly has a valuable student in him, for he is a veritable shark in all athletics including geometry.

19 MOHIAN 24

JANE MCKINNEY

Of all the Senior girls, there's not a one more popular than Jane. Joviality is her middle name because she's never been seen in a bad humor. As to class room standards, Jane's just the type the teachers can depend upon every day. Though her recitations aren't brilliant outbursts, they're the kind that mean places on the honor rolls.

WAYNE THOMPSON

Wayne is another of our county lads. He is always keen for athletics or a fight. Seriously he's hard boiled and admits it. During the last year Wayne has been better known as "Lemon". If you want to know why, ask any one of the '24 foot ball squad. Despite all these serious drawbacks, Wayne's a wonderful fellow and we'll all miss him.

BLANCHE LOUISE SHANNON

Louise cast her lot with us in mid-year. She hails from Franklin, Tennessee. She came too late to take part in many activities, but nevertheless she has won a place in the hearts of faculty and students and we're all proud to have had her for a classmate.

EMMETT WILLIAM MILLS

Emmett came to us three years ago from Frankfort High School. As a student he wouldn't carry off many first honors, but he makes up for this in athletics and his contributions to school humor and merriment.

EVALEE FEATHERSTONE

Who doesn't remember Evallee as a little freshman back in 1920 with curls down her back. She's from Georgetown, but has certainly stood by this school with all the loyalty of a Lexingtonian. When she goes, it will seem unnatural for the familiar trio of Featherstone, Treacy and Duncan to be no more.

LUCIAN THOMPSON

Known to most of the students as Wayne's cousin. But this was because he was with us for so short a time, for the ones of us who did get to know him well found in him a true, clean-cut friend. He's at State now and we're sure expecting big things from him.

19 MOHIAN 24

CHARLES SIDNEY MICHLER

There's one characteristic of Charles' that we all know and that's his passion for debating. We don't wonder at that for he has considerable oratorical ability and a deep, fine voice that gives strength to all that he says.

HARRY V. JEORG

19 MOHIAN 24

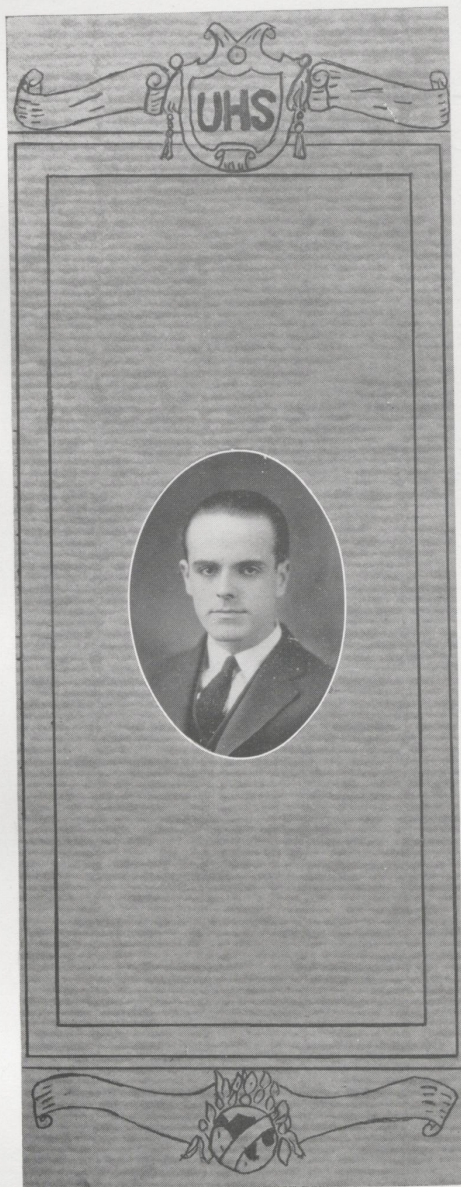

ANN DELCHER

Ann came to us last semester from Senior High School. She likes boys or I should say boy, as she may be found any noon hour in the lower hall with a certain Sigma Beta Xi. Mary Luxon and Ann are fast friends.

ADRIAN SKINNER

Another Senior High student or it might be more fitting to say shiek. Adrian is reported to have studied one night in March, but we are sorry to say that the report could not be confirmed.

19 MOHIAN 24

HARRY O'REAR

Studious and courteous and a little too timid, but we like Harry fine. He is Winchester's representative to the school, having attended Clark County High before he came to us this last semester. Harry is another of our musically inclined Seniors, and his ability on a piano has afforded us some very enjoyable entertainment.

TO MODEL

Here's to good old Model
As we called her in the past,
To her white and brilliant purple—
Our colors tried and fast.

We hate to have to leave you,
Old Comrades, big and true;
But come what may along Life's way,
We'll always think of you.

Of you and all the good times
We've had together here
In the Autumn and in the Winter
And the Springtime of the year.

Of the fun we've had in classes
And the conquests we have made
In books and sports and in the hearts
Of those with whom we've played.

It all will be a pleasure
To recall in days to be,
When future Model students
Come to sit upon our knee.

Septa Furlong.

PROPHECY

In the year 1940, I was living in Kentucky, just a few miles from Lexington in the far-famed Blue Grass Region.

One evening about twilight as I sat alone on the steps of the broad veranda, Aunt Patsy came out to remove the tea service. Being in a retrospective mood I took one of the cups, poured the tea leaves into it, and asked Aunt Patsy to read them for me, and tell, if possible, of the lives of my former classmates.

After much persuading and urging, she finally consented to see what the leaves would tell her. The things she foretold, I will now relate.

Willie, having overcome his bashfulness, has become Dean Brock at Hamilton College, a very select school for girls. Here he is continually surrounded by members of the fair sex.

Frye Shoemaker has realized his ambition, and is now leading man in a very successful revue on Broadway. He has taken for his partner in business and in life Septa Furlong, who will always be remembered as "Petunia Muggins."

On every sport page there are pictures and head-line write-ups of Kenneth Mauser, who has just pitched Georgetown to a pennant winner of the Big League.

Haden Moise has taken up a business in which he has always shown ability and is now putting forth all of his efforts in the production of a bigger, better humorous, college publication.

No one remembers Jeorg as Harry V., but as "Knockout Jeorg", his name in the sporting world, he is the pride of two continents. Emmett Mills is his manager and has wonderful ability in arranging bouts as well as in the publicity end of the game.

Robert G. Stokes has become manager of the Ford Manufacturing Company. His success is being accompanied by a steadily increasing fortune, and the name of Stokes has become a password in the world of finance.

Katie Mae Stivers and Jane McKinney are running a very select school for girls, specializing in lines and all kinds of dancing. They have become quite famous, due to their development of several very popular new steps.

LeRoy Miles is a construction engineer and is succeeding wonderfully in his work in South America.

Dear old Jimmie has become immensely wealthy by putting on the market the nifty little sport roadster known as Hulett's Yellow Peril.

Mary Luxon and Adrian Skinner have settled down together on a little farm in Arkansas and seem to be very happy.

Lucian Thompson, after receiving his degree at a well known American college, went to Europe to study farther in the field of science. He remained on that continent and to-day he is one of the foremost scientists of the world.

Leslie Neff and Wayne Thompson felt the call of the ancients and are now at the head of an expedition in Asia where they are excavating for the remains of King Tut's Grandson.

Thirty-one

19 MOHIAN 24

Evalee Featherstone runs a chic little French hat shop in Georgetown and is making a great amount of money from the trade of tourists who are forced to detour through that fair city on account of bad roads.

Louise Shannon has returned to her home in Tennessee after a very successful speaking tour of the North. She is President of the Women's Rights League of the United States and Mexico.

Harry O'Rear is in Chicago. There he is studying under a world famous master of the art of music. Altho living the life of the idle rich, he wanders the streets every night in hope that he find one known as Florence Murray.

Charles Michler is, as we could doubtless guess, a famous orator and statesman, which has gained for him the love of the whole republican party. As a side line, or perhaps it would be better to say hobby, he is head of a chain of florist shops throughout the country.

As to our class beauties, Lewis Root is head coach of all athletics at Yale where he is turning out championship teams in all branches of sport. Catherine Smith is now Mrs. Theodore Strader and is living happily in a very beautiful suburb of Philadelphia. They are very wealthy as Mr. Strader is Vice-President of a nationally advertised soft drink company.

Thus ended the prophecy as Aunt Patsy had seen it in the tea leaves. The hearing of old names, some almost forgotten, brought back in that wonderful land of memory, the past days spent at dear old University High.

Nancy Jones.

CLASS HISTORY

Just four years ago this crowd of boys and girls who are graduating this year were just starting on the long and rocky road to the presidency by getting the best of education.

As is the usual procedure the very excellent senior class of that bygone day, proceeded to rub it in on us. No other persons paid any attention, so we just attended to our own affairs. However, it was not long before the first football game of the season, and at this time we began to engage the attention of the different classes as well as the enmity of some.

The morning before the game we met for the purpose of sending the boys off with a cheer. Well, needless to say, we led them all in cheering and everything else.

On the left side of the study hall hangs a picture presented by us, this was the first picture presented by any class.

During the next two years we entered into all forms of activities. LeRoy Miles and Wm. Brock led the class to this signal victory. LeRoy Miles, Kenneth Mauser, Wayne Thompson, and Emmett Mills were outstanding in athletics while Wm. Brock attended to the literary side of the class. In the spring of 1923 LeRoy Miles received the cup for the best all around student.

At this time the girls of the class began to receive notice in the different athletic and literary activities. They organized a basket ball team, which on the whole was very successful. They also made great progress in the dramatic line.

This year we were joined by several new members who adapted themselves to the spirit of the class in a very creditable manner. These new members entered enthusiastically into the spirit of the school. Going out and making football team and helping to win many victories. After the Christmas holidays we were joined by Louis Root of Louisville Male High School who was in addition to the base ball and track team.

LeRoy Miles and Wm. Brock carried off highest honors of the Senior Class. This ends the eventful work of the 1924 Senior Class.

Charles Michler.

"CLASS WILL"

We, the members of the Senior Class, having spent four years in this institution of learning, and having reaped the benefits and gains thereof, do, on departing these halls, wish to leave to the other members of the afore mentioned institution, such goods and chattels for which we can find no use in the future.

Therefore, for no other reason, we do hereby will, bequeath and otherwise bestow the following property to the less fortunate scholars.

To the Junior Class, we leave the golden key of knowledge and our dilapidated note-books.

To the Sophomore Class, we give the art of kidding the practice teachers.

To the Freshman Class, we leave our sophistication and technique.

Nancy Jones, being known as the most popular girl in school, would like to leave her old line to Thelma Walker, in the hopes that she may follow in her foot-steps.

Lewis Root leaves his speed and Valentino ways to Warren Bain, whom he hopes may find some suggestions to add to his own system.

LeRoy Miles, who is known as the "perfect lover!", leaves, with no regrets, his book on "Why Girls Leave Home", to Bill Hall, our shiek, who will no doubt carry on the above name.

To Ferdinand Wiemann, Fry Shoemaker leaves his nerve and brass and it is well known that little Ferdie can make use of it.

Jane McKinney, the fairy toe dancer, leaves her accomplishments to Alma Young, the vivacious Freshman.

Harry V. Jeorg, after much persuasion, leaves to Charles Harris, a few of his years and whiskers.

To Nettie Wells, Catherine Smith will leave some of her beauty as she will not need it now that Theodore is firmly hooked.

Wayne Thompson, the noted writer and after dinner speaker, leaves to Alex Poulos his ability to write themes.

Haden Moise, whose motto is "Speech is silver and silence golden", leaves his noise and idle prattle to William Dale, who is quite a demure young lad.

William Brock leaves his loyalty and his do or die spirit to the entire student body. We all know that he has some to spare and it is fitting that he should take pity on us other poor mortals.

In the same spirit, Leslie Neff leaves to the girls of the chorus, his voice, with the help of which they should all lead a very successful life from a musical standpoint.

Emmett Mills also leaves behind him numerous souvenirs of athletic trips as well as the ability to collect same to Burt Sims.

Thirty-four

19 MOHIAN 24

Kenneth Mauser passes on to Stan Evans his ability to be a "Drug Store Cowboy". He hopes that by this bequest that a certain sedan will never want for inhabitants.

Evallee Featherstone, with best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, leaves her magician's ability in running a Buick to all so unfortunate as to own one of same.

Ann Delcher bequeaths to Elise Bureau her vamping ways so that some use may be made of the lower halls during the noon hours.

Mary Luxon wills her smiles to Ruth Scarborough so that the art of ensnaring the male specie may be perpetuated.

Adrian Skinner leaves his quiet, homelike ways to Donald Forman hoping that Don will sober up and that something may be made of him.

JUNIOR CLASS

Yes, these are the Juniors. Right in their proper place, too. That is, just after the Seniors. But they are important, even if they do admit it, because they make up a large part of the school athletically, scholastically, and in all student activities.

There was never a better looking, or better natured group of boys and girls collected together in one class. We don't dare say anything more good about them, for as it is, they think they run the school. They really don't, but they're developing nicely into leaders under the Seniors' tutelage.

Too bad that the number of boys and girls could not have been more nearly equal; but the boys should be able to handle their two to one odds.

SOPHOMORES

According to an ancient sage, the meaning of the word Sophomore is "wise fool". While we do not try to prove that the said sage was correct, we do state and firmly believe that our Sophomore Class can boast of some rare dumb-bells.

Athletically, Bailey, Dale, and Poulos uphold the traditions of the class. This is, however, only one branch of their accomplishments, as they are gifted in many "walks of life".

When the members of this class become Seniors, the success of the school is assured for one year at least.

FRESHMEN

Last, but not in their own minds, least; come the Freshmen. Thirteen of 'em. It's sure tough luck to start as hard a thing as a high school career with such an unlucky number in the class.

However, notwithstanding an over abundance of dumbness, the class seems to be developing the old "Marvel" High spirit in that the supply of excuses for admittance slips is not waning.

This class should try, if possible, to develop some real loyalty toward the school if they ever hope to reach the status of 100% high school students. This does not apply to the class as a whole as two or three of them took part in athletic contests, but their attendance and support at the scene of "battle" was sadly lacking.

AN APPRECIATION

It was with deepest regrets that we learned of the resignation of Professor H. P. Fling as principal of University High School.

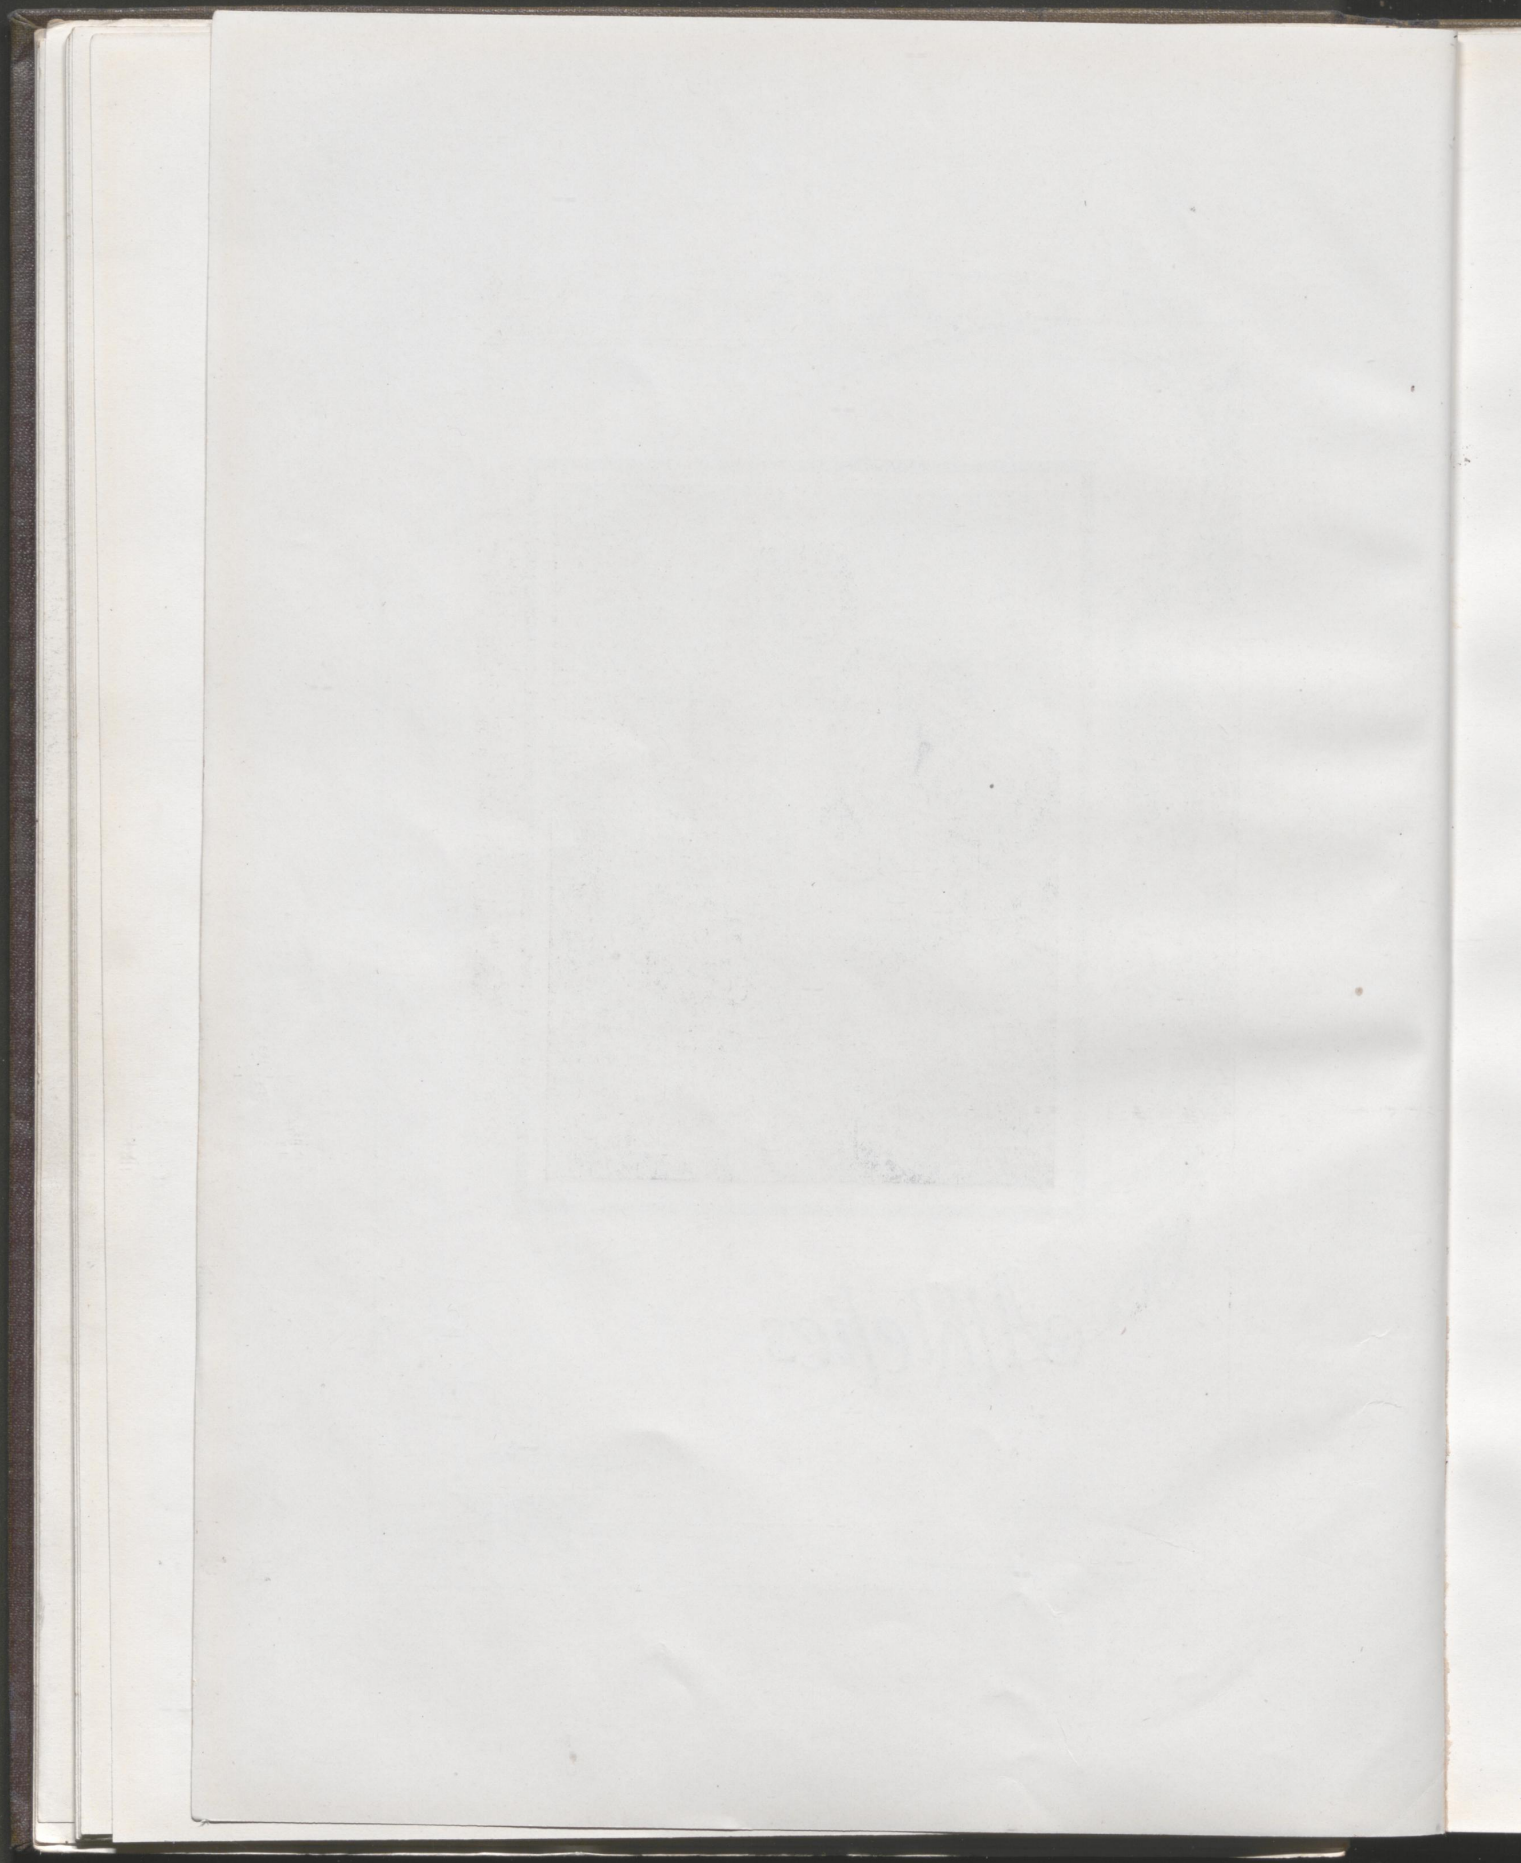

It is fitting that, at this time, we attempt to express our appreciation of all that he has meant to the student body as a whole and to each of us individually. Through his undying efforts many advancements have been made in the school and we shall always remember and thank him for them.

We take this opportunity to wish him the greatest success in his future career.

THE PLAYERS

Captain Wiemann played a clean, hard game all season. He was a good leader for his men and always put pep into them. He played at left half and was the best line plunger on the team.

Kenneth Mauser played end the first few games but was shifted to the back field where he played right half and called signals from this position. His experience was a great help to the team.

Fentress Bailey played full back and always made his presence known to the opposing team by his consistent line plunging.

Robert Wrenn, Captain elect, played a good hard game at quarter back position. Robert could always be counted on for gains.

Wm. Hall played half back the first game but was later shifted to left end. At this position he played a steady game breaking up interference and covering fumbles.

Theodore Strader, who played left tackle was our star punter. After leaving the squad on account of an injury the team missed his steady punting.

Wayne Thompson showed great football ability by playing almost every position on the team. He was very useful on the offensive as well as on the defensive and was our best contender for All-State honors.

Robert Stokes, the fiery, red headed demon at left guard, played a good clean game all season. Was especially effective at blocking all plays that came anywhere near him on the defence.

Leslie Neff played an exceptionally good game at center where he passed the ball with great accuracy. He was very valuable on defense work.

LeRoy Miles, the star right tackle, was always ready when called upon to open the holes in the line and was responsible for many of the gains thru his side of the line.

L. P. Southern was very good at right end where he broke up many end runs and passes.

Burt Sims played a good game at halfback. He was a good line plunger and his punting was appreciated after Strader was injured.

Haden Moise always gave a good account of himself in the games he played in. He was especially good in the Cynthiana game.

William Heizer showed prospects of developing into a good halfback as was showed by his performance in the Massie game.

H. V. Jeorg came to us a little late but he succeeded in winning a place at right guard where he played a hard game. His best game was against Cynthiana.

Substitutes:—James Hulett, Robert Thompson, William Dale, Stanford Evans, Warren Bain, Thomas Jones, Asa Jewell and Don Forman.

Coach Jagers was responsible for making the team what it was. He gave his time, which he could have used in a far more profitable way to the development of the team. All that he asked in return was that the boys play a good, clean, hard fought game.

19 MOHIAN 24

William Brock was the manager and he arranged an exceptionally good schedule for the season. The school owes its thanks to Brock because he was very instrumental in securing the new uniforms.

To the University of Kentucky we extend our thanks for the aid given us in securing the uniforms, for the use of Stoll Field, and the support given us throughout the season.

THE GAMES

U. H. S.—0.....Madison—12

The first game of the season was played with the strong Madison team. The University boys played well and fought hard, but were outplayed by the more experienced Madison team. The score at the end of the half was 6—0. Wayne Thompson played best for University in this game. Shoemaker received a sprained knee in this game which kept him out for the rest of the season.

U. H. S.—6.....Versailles—7

University Hi went to Versailles for the second game. The teams were very evenly matched and neither side scored in the first half. In the third quarter Versailles made seven points. In the last few minutes of play Sims made a touchdown for University but Strader failed to kick goal. Sims starred for University.

U. H. S.—0.....M. M. I.—25

The University Hi team played its next game at Millersburg with the Millersburg Military Institute. M. M. I. had a very strong team altho University held them for downs on their one yard line. Most of M. M. I.'s points were made on passes which University was unable to break up. Wayne Thompson and Mauser starred for University.

U. H. S.—12.....Massie—21

The fourth game was played at Massie School in Woodford County. The field was in bad condition due to the fact that the dust was very thick. Captain Wiemann made a touchdown for University on the fifth play. Three men were knocked out in this game and their places were taken by substitutes who made a touchdown on straight line plunges. Massie made two touchdowns on passes and the other one on a ball covered back of the goal. The team showed its best form of the year considering that several of the first team men were injured. Wiemann and Bailey made the touchdowns for University.

U. H. S.—0.....Carlisle—25

At Carlisle University played its worst game. The team had not fully recovered from the injurys received at Massie which probably accounted for the poor playing. University fell under the attack of their sweeping end runs and passing attack. Hall played best for University. There seems to be some sort of a jinx about Carlisle because two years in succession the boys have played their worst game there and always with a whitewash score.

Forty-eight

U. H. S.—6.....Danville—0

Danville came to Lexington for the next game. University was out weighed but made up for it in speed. Danville was outplayed thruout the game but University could not concentrate its attack when near the goal. This is shown by the fact that University made fourteen first downs to Danville's two. University made its touchdown in the first quarter. The remainder of the game was fought very hard, but neither side scored. Wayne Thompson made the Touchdown for University.

U. H. S.—0.....Georgetown—30

University Hi brought Georgetown to Lexington for the next to last game of the season. Georgetown was the much heavier and more experienced team. University put up a very game fight and held Georgetown to a single touchdown in the first half. In the last half Georgetown opened up with a series of end runs and passes that University Hi could not break up. Miles was the individual star for University Hi.

U. H. S.—13.....Cynthiana—0

The final game of the season was played at Cynthiana. This was one place where University Hi outweighed their opponents. The Cynthiana boys put up an exceptionally good fight but University made sixteen first downs to their opponents three. Wrenn and Mauser made the touchdowns and Bailey made the point after touchdown by catching a pass over the goal. The whole University team played their best game of the year and showed fine form.

PLAYERS

Captain Mauser, center, was the only veteran on the team. His ability was proven by the fact that he was high point man for the season.

"Red" Wiemann was a fast, shifty forward and was always a stellar floor man in all games.

"Old Age" Jeorg started his basket ball career this year. At forward, his ability and luck were always responsible for a large percentage of the score.

Bob Wrenn showed in all the games and his guarding was very valuable to the entire team.

"Firpo" Bailey lived up to his name, showing a fighting spirit in every game. His grim determination to win was a constant inspiration to every member of the team.

Burt Sims was a general utility man, having played at nearly every position. His work at back guard was, however, superior to that at other positions.

Emmett Mills did not have the opportunity to play in every game, but in those that he did play, he displayed some excellent floor work and an uncanny ability to shoot.

Elijah Stivers participated in a majority of the games, and was always to be counted upon to bring in his share of the points. He was especially good at the tournament, where he really "hit his stride."

BASE BALL

We regret that the base ball season opened too late for a picture to have been taken and printed at this time.

However there are a few things that should be given due publicity at this time.

Wayne Thompson was elected captain by last year's letter men, while Leslie Neff was selected as manager. In this capacity he arranged a number of very excellent trips for the players.

The line-up follows:

1b		Root
2b		Stivers
3b		Neff
lf		Bailey
cf		Mills
rf		Dale
ss		Jeorg
c		Wayne Thompson, Capt.
p		Mauser

Substitutes: Poulos, Zink, Thompson.

Mr. Lawrence Burnham, coach of U. of K. freshmen team, has charge of this branch of athletics.

TRACK TEAM

Interest in track has been revived to a large extent this spring. For the past two or three years, the students have not taken part in this branch of sport, but Mr. R. E. Jagers, who had charge of football and basket ball this year, has had considerable success as a track coach and is sponsoring this activity.

A track meet between the different classes resulted in the following scores:

Seniors	52
Juniors	28

A team is to be selected to represent the school in both the city and the state track meets.

Robert G. Stokes, our star distance man, has the honor of being captain of the team.

COACH R. E. JAGGERS

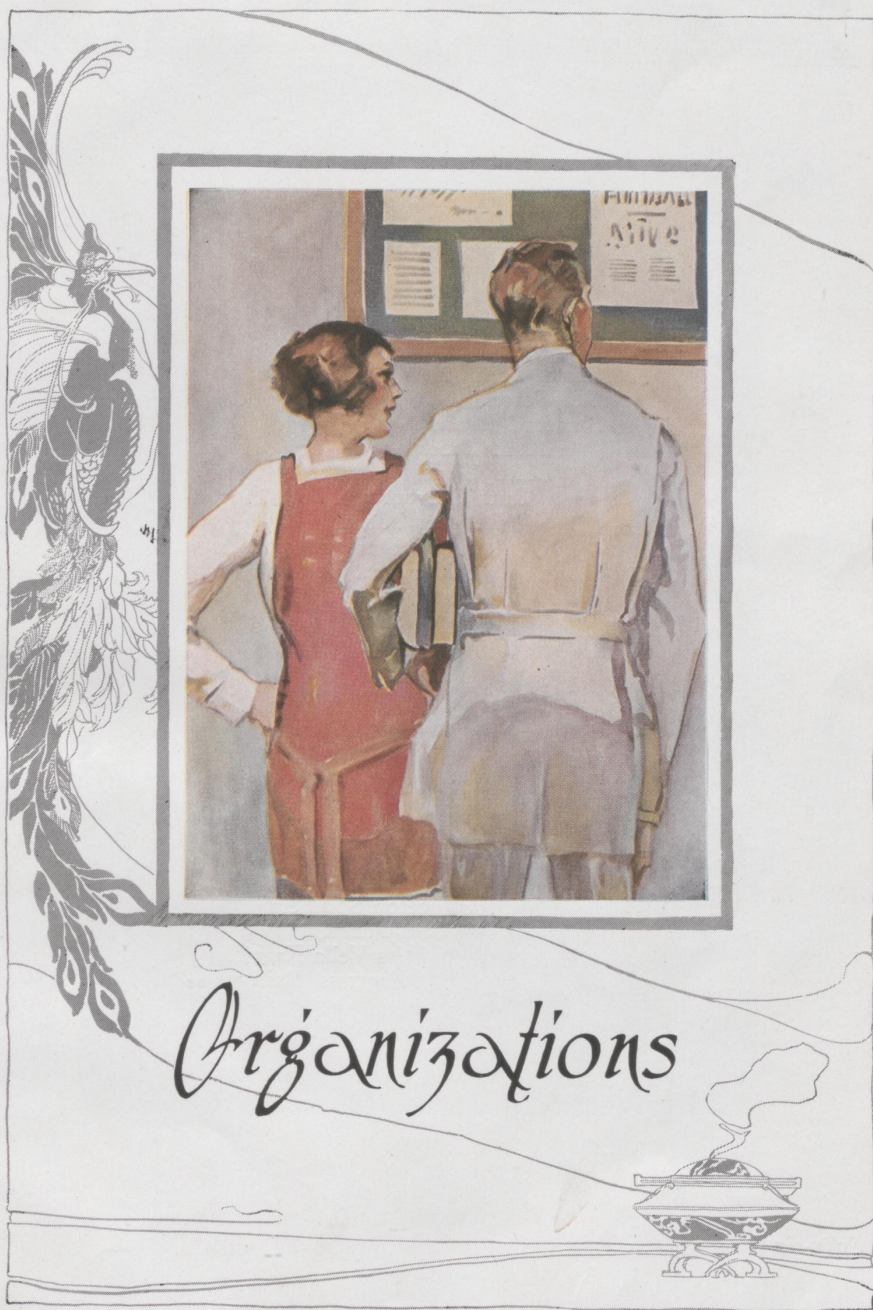

In the past, the chief difficulty of athletic activities at University High School has been the inability to secure a director of athletics.

However, this year the school was fortunate enough to secure the services of R. E. Jagers of Marion, Ky., on the academic staff.

His interest in sports caused him to give his services to the boys as coach of foot ball, basket ball and track.

University High School owes Mr. Jagers a debt that it can never pay for his services, and we take this opportunity to express, in a very small way, our gratitude to him.

We found Mr. Jagers to be a keen lover of clean sport and fair play and wherever he goes, those who come into contact with him cannot help profiting by this characteristic.

FOOTBALL

It was a huge success, but from the spirit, the flight and the cooperation that the individual members of the team put into the games, we have won many victories. The squad started out at the beginning of the season with a dearth of substitutes. In fact many of the first string men were never played in a game. About all of the work was done by the regulars.

At a football game Robert Wren was the 1924 football captain. He has been a valued member of the team for the last two years. He will make a fine manager. At the same time elected manager, a member of the team. The school has had some good games. The team has been able to take the place of Mr. Wren. The team has been able to take the place of Mr. Wren.

CHRISTMAS

I
The house on the hill is all covered with snow,
The boughs of the trees are all bright and low,
The faces of the children are all so bright,
Because the night is so bright.

All day long the children are playing,
The toys are all left out on the lawn,
The tinkle of the bells is heard all day long,
And not a soul is to be seen,
The toys are all left out on the lawn,
St. Nicholas is gone, with his head.

V
What joy and what rapture is known the next day,
All in the house are so merry and gay,
For Christmas cheer is abroad o'er the earth,
And we are reminded of the Savior's birth.

STUDENT COUNCIL

At a chapel period in November, the idea of partial student government was presented by Professor Fling. The plan was readily adopted by the students, and representatives were chosen from each class.

Meetings were held at stated intervals, at which much time was consumed. The only visible results of this organization was the granting of two half holidays by the faculty.

This year the council did not have the backing of the entire school, but it is hoped that in future years much good can be accomplished by it.

The members of the council are as follows:

Senior—Wayne Thompson, Nancy Jones, William Brock.

Junior—Martha Duncan, Bob Wrenn, Ferdinand Wiemann.

Sophomore—Fentress Bailey, Elizabeth Harrison.

Freshmen—Lasarre Bradley, Woolfolk Barrow.

OFFICERS

Chairman—William Brock.

Vice Chairman—Ferdinand Wiemann.

Secretary—Nancy Jones.

Vice Secretary—Fentress Bailey.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL

The following members of the student body represented their respective classes and organizations on the Athletic Council. This body was responsible for all athletics in as much as the publicity, finances, etc. were concerned.

THE ALUMNI

'20

Dan Bowmar attended the University but since he isolated himself by going to Versailles we know little about him.

Elizabeth Vaught also left Lexington and she, too is on our missing list.

'21

Edward Anglin is still at the University, inhaling chemistry. He is upholding his old scholastic standing and is also a member of the track team.

Thomas Fennell is traveling for an engraving firm in Indianapolis. He comes to Lexington once in a while and we're always glad to see him.

Thomas Berry and Mr. John Cramer are still working hard and the result is that we still have the Phoenix Hotel.

As we always predicted, Emmett Bradley is making quite a name for him-self at State. There was a write up about him in a local paper recently. (Success)

Jeanette Lampert is another of our representatives at U. K. From all reports she is still upholding her former records.

Herman Michler may still be found holding down the counters at Klein Michler's. As usual he is a loyal supporter of his former school.

Rollin Curtis is still in town. He plays the saxophone with the "Night Riders."

Louise Foster, Mrs. Stivers, lives in Lexington. We see her just often enough to know that she does.

Katherine Fuller is advancing Education, by passing on some of her knowledge, gained at "Old Model".

Frank McVey, Jr. didn't enter his father's institution of learning and as a result he is now a Junior at Ann Arbor.

George Michler is at U. K. As a side line, he still helps Mr. Giovannoli run the Leader.

Margaret Smith is married and is living in Washington, D. C.

John Webb is again exposed to Agriculture at the University. It may take this time.

Maurice Buckles is at the University of Louisville conquering medicine.

George Graves, Jr. attends Columbia University in New York City,

Melbourne Mills airs an officer's uniform at the University of Kentucky, where he is studying Engineering.

The following are on the missing list and any report of them would be appreciated:

Elizabeth Greathouse, Louise Smedley, Helen Wells, and Holman Wilson.

Janet McVey attends her father's school. Brilliant girl, from all reports.
Lawrence Thomas is in Lexington.
Since her pilgrimage to Winchester nothing is known of Carrie Greathouse.
Blanche Spencer is a student at a business college in the city.
Margaret Baker is still carrying off popularity contests at the University.
Dorothy Endel is at home in Lexington.
Nancy Beard is on the missing list.
Archie Schular is straw boss at the Henry Clay Insurance Co.
Al Ginocchio carries on a campaign against horse racing at the Fayette Cigar Company every evening. All are invited.
John Sutton, from last reports, is still in Florida.
John Ott confirms all of Al's views.
Burnley Thompson helps his father gather eggs at his father's farm on the Winchester Pike.
Gus Smith spends most of the time tearing up Mormon cars.
Talbert Hopkins and Ernest Reynolds help each other do nothing.
Jack Pates is in U. K. He is seeking knowledge in the College of Engineering.
Hal Steele helps his papa sell Mormons.
Joe Bradley still holds forth at the University.
Hamilton Rice keeps the chairs dusted in the Phoenix Lobby.
S. B. Triplett is also at the University.
Josephine Sharp is in Lexington.
Alex Rose '21, and Elizabeth Dale continue to see each other once in a while.
James Murphy wears out shoe leather up and down Main Street.

'23

Chester Malick started to State. Chester Malick resigned.
Benham Sims pushes a Dodge around for the Loveridge Poster Company.
Charles Blocher headed south and is reported in Florida now.
Judson Willett has changed his location of repose to the University.
Louis Feese still pushes his yellow Nash around town.
Kyle Whitehead is an S. A. E. at U. K. He is also the freshman cheer leader.
Jeff Edmonds, an Alpha Sigma Phi pledge, is at McVey's school. He also plays the saxophone with the "Night Riders".
Wilbert Blackburn helps make paths through the U. K. campus.
R. P. Moloney helps Wilbert.
Milton Hager is at home on East High Street.
Ormond McGlone inhales medicine at State.
Clifford Bartram goes to the University sometimes. He struts a Phi Kap pin.

Sixty-nine

19 MOHIAN 24

Bernard Gorman attends State. He's a Sigma Nu. He parks his Buick in front of a certain house on Limestone. That's all, there isn't any more.

Arminta Smith is now Mrs. J. C. Hart. She and the Mr. are reported living peacefully at Clintonville, Ky.

Nellie Furlong has joined the ranks of the idle since graduation, and is happily doing nothing but "breaking in" a new car.

Marshall Taylor attends the University and is an S. A. E. pledge. He is even reported to have been in class a few times.

Williams Watkins is a Pi Kappa Alpha at State. We see him quite often on the campus.

Nat Hall has overcome some of his bashfulness and was seen with a girl one day last week. Anyway, Nat is at State and hangs out at the Sigma Nu house.

Pat McGuffey and eighty-six other freshmen practice base ball on Stoll Field every afternoon. Pat is studying law.

Ethel Morgan has not been seen for some time and we regret that she must be placed on the missing list.

Rowlett Giles is a member of the ranks of labor. We don't know how or where, but that report was turned in to us.

Virginia Boyd is taking the A. B. course at State. She's a Kappa Kappa Gamma.

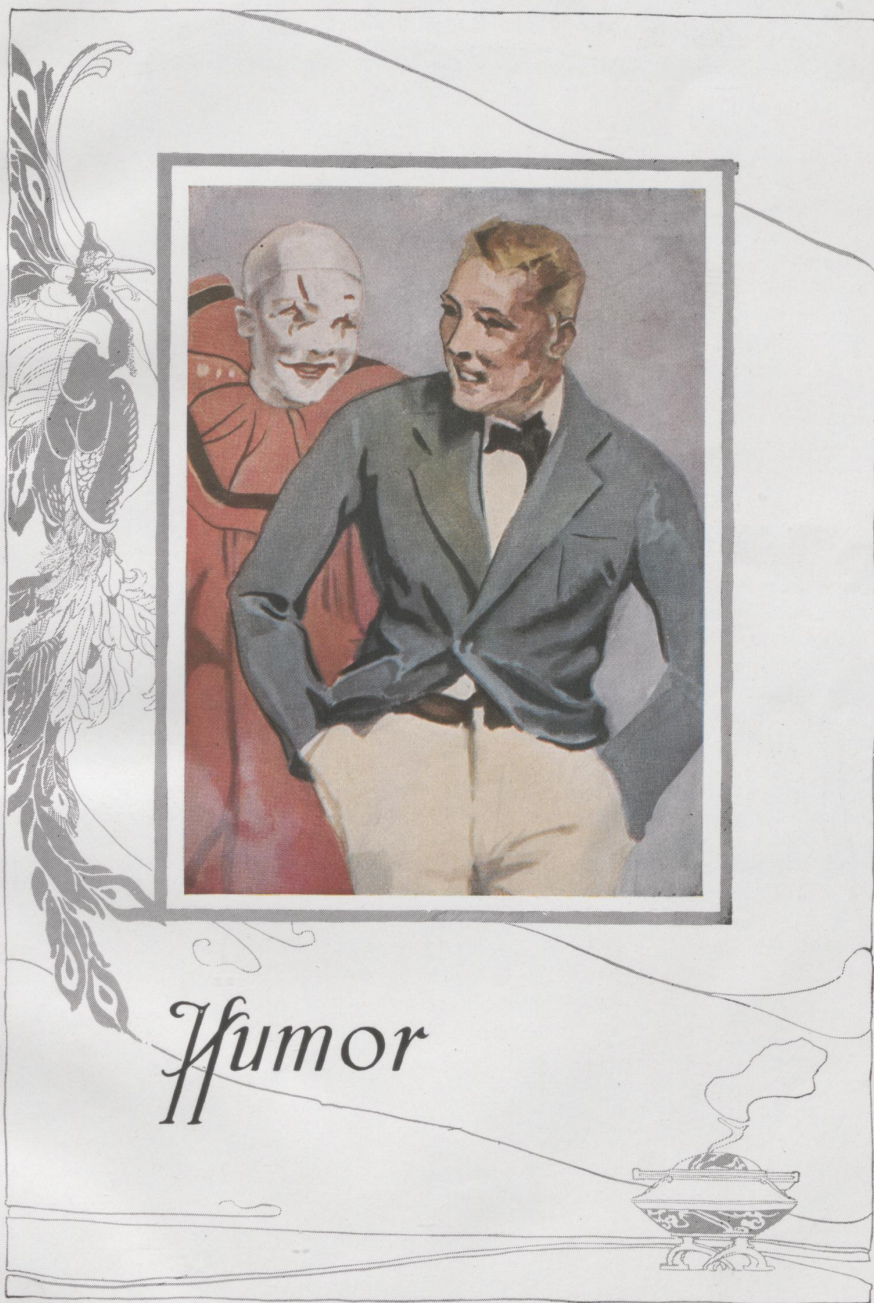

Alice Ragland is upholding her former scholastic record at U. K.

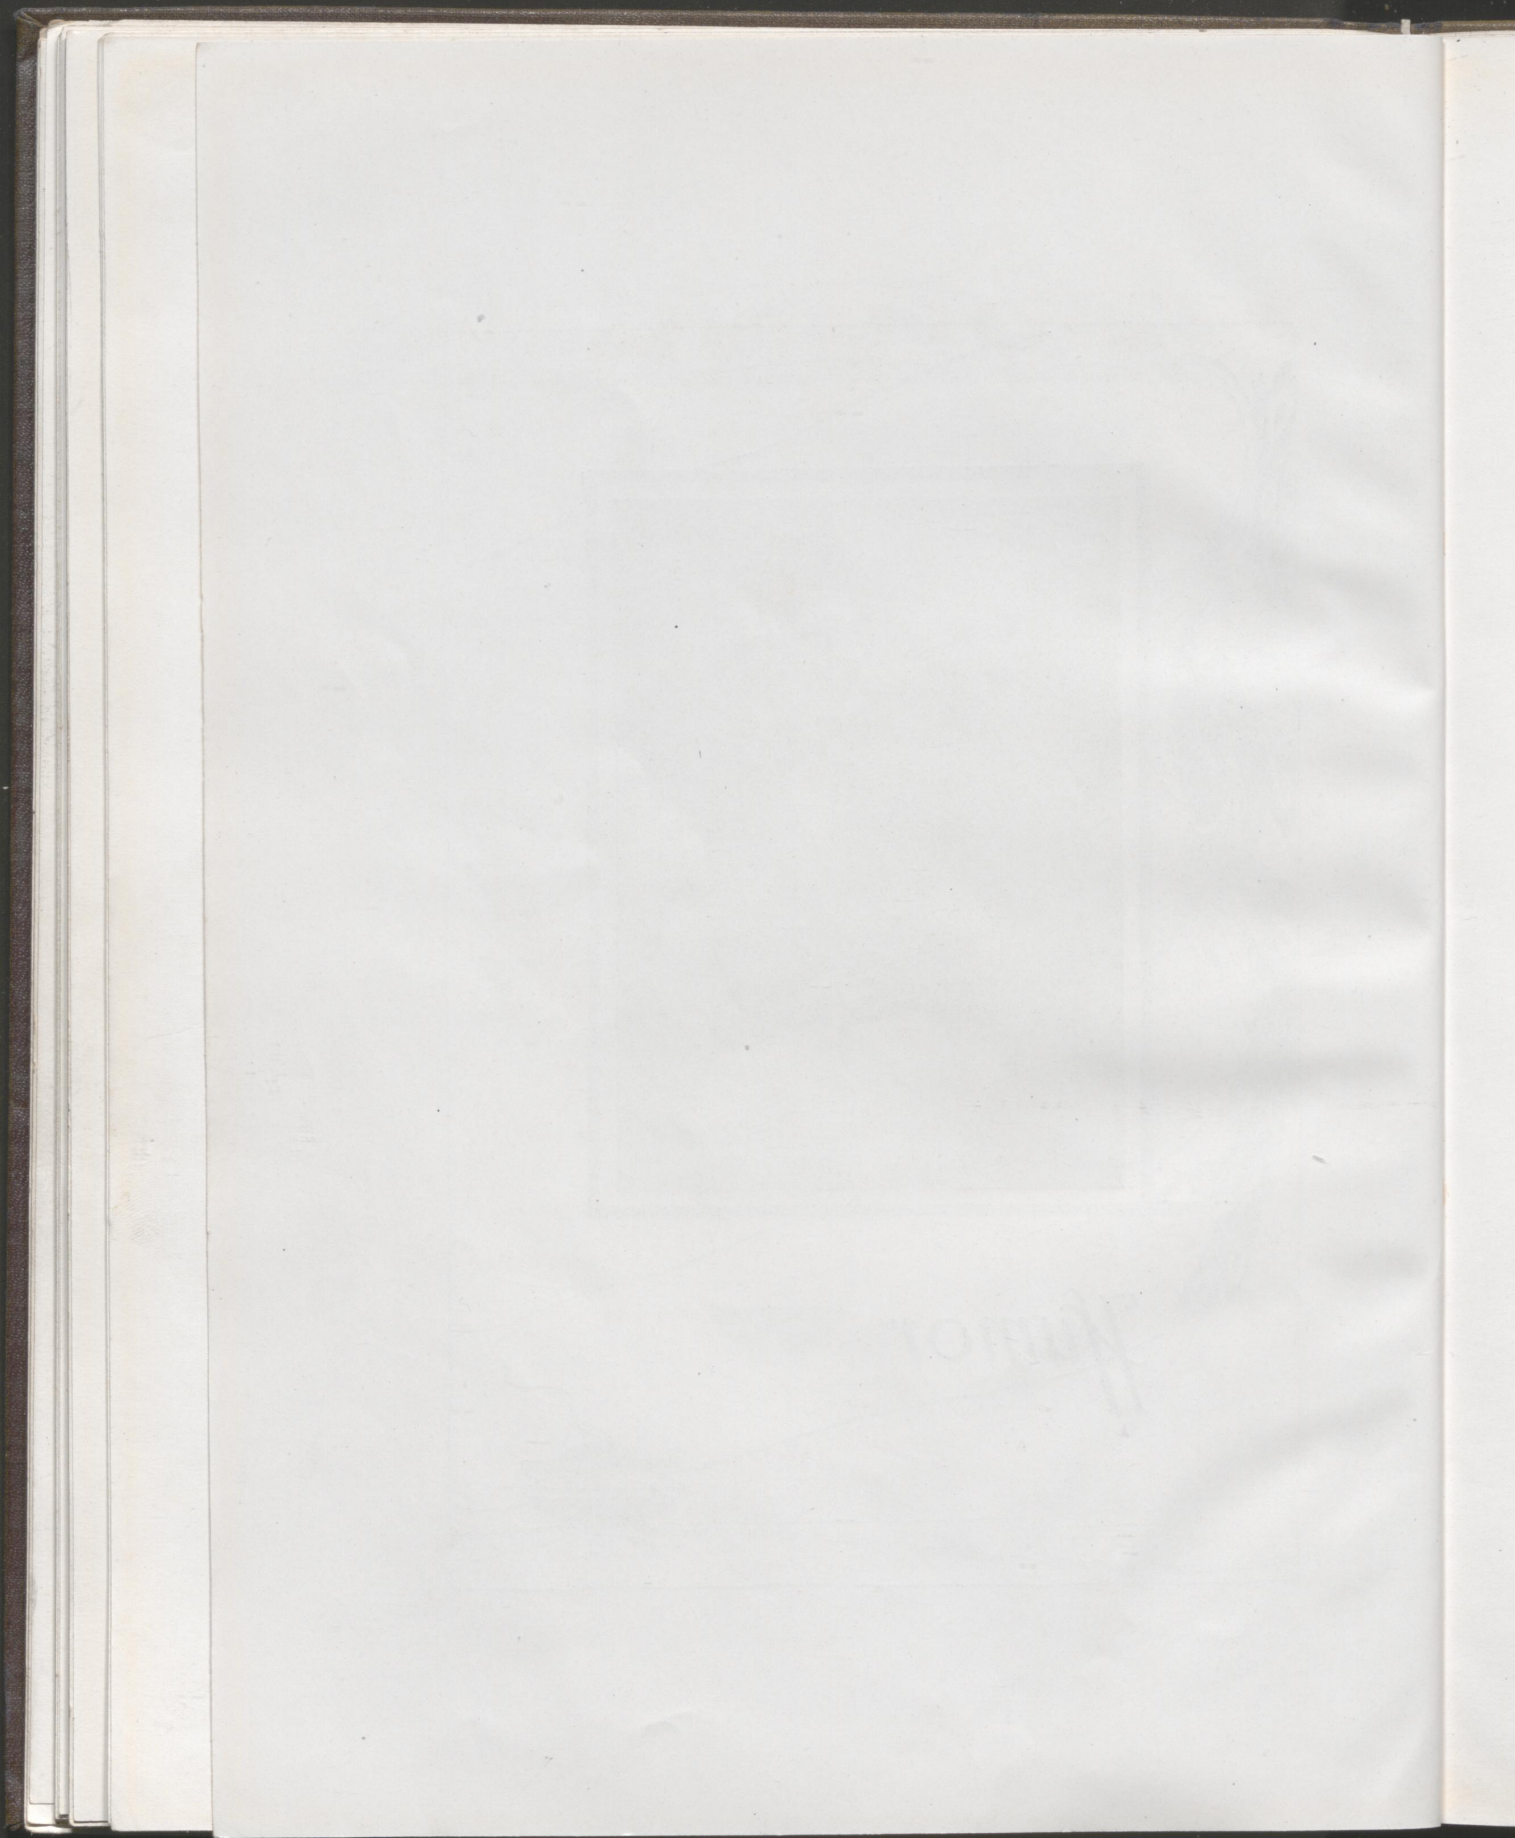

Roger Treacy is in Lexington. He spends the major part of his time in the family "hack".

Virginia Heizer is an Alpha Delta Theta at the University. She even calls on us once in a while.

Sarah Myers is another of our campus representatives.

THE 1924 MOHIAN

Takes this opportunity to introduce its advertisers

Few people realize the tremendous task confronting the present day annual staff of a small high school. In the first place it seems almost foolish to many people for such a school to undertake this task, but once it is begun it must be carried through.

The greatest problem is the question of finance. A leather bound book of one hundred pages costs in the neighborhood of six hundred dollars. Realizing about two hundred dollars from subscriptions, four hundred must be raised by advertisements.

On the following pages you will see the names of local firms who have backed this annual and have made it possible. Although they may not receive large benefits from the money invested they have shown the spirit by which year books are made possible and by patronizing them you will be doing the 1924 Mohian Staff a personal favor.

ON THE FRONT STEPS

Bill. Hello! Hello there!
Willie. Why hello! It was so windy I couldn't see you.

GOOD REASON

Barber. You look talented.
Frosh Sims. That's why I want my hair cut.

Dear Editor: My baby has a bad habit of falling out of bed. What shall I do?
Dear Madam: Put him to sleep on the floor.

SINKING IT IN

Prof. Fling. Ferdinand, your last paper was very difficult to read. Your work should be so written that even the most ignorant could understand it.
Wiemann. Yes, sir. What part didn't you understand?

VERY NATURAL

Moise. You and I disagree.
Hall. On what?
Moise. I don't think you're so hot.

PAGE THE PLUG NICKLE

Johnson (dashing madly into the infirmary, holding tightly to his head).
Give me something for my head.
Busy Doc. I wouldn't take it as a gift.

THE AWFUL TRUTH

Wrenn. What I want to know is, am I a bass or a baritone?
Mr. Goetz. No, you are not.

PLAYED BY PAPA

Harris. Do you believe there's a devil?
Gay. No, it's like Santa Claus. It's your father.

In Selecting A University

For a College education there are five things to be taken into consideration:

1. The man at the head of the institution.
2. The scholastic standing and the ability of the teaching staff.
3. The location and advantages of environment.
4. Equipment, buildings, laboratories and libraries.
5. Cost.

In all these respects the University of Kentucky commends itself to those seeking a higher institution in which to carry on their education.

All departments, including Liberal Arts, Sciences, Agriculture, Law, Education, Mining, Civil, Electrical and Mechanical Engineering.

The government needs trained men and women; college training will bring the result.

NOT DRUNK, JUST A FRESHMAN

Bailey (entering room). You're drunk. I saw you running around here in a circle.
Sims. No, sir, I'm not drunk. I was just trying to read the name of a Victrola record while it was playing.

ETIQUETTE

Bain. Do you ever leave a dance before the last gun is fired?
Harrison. Yes; usually after the last stag's shot.

Get some pretty good grades?
Well, none you couldn't pull with a Ford.

MERE TECHNICALITY

Jack. I thought you promised that you wouldn't smoke any more.
Brock. I did.
Jack. But you are smoking as much as ever.
Brock. Well, that isn't any more, is it?

TRUE TO LIFE

She. Why do you call your car the Paul Revere?
Bill. Because of the midnight rides.

SOFT PEDAL, HARD HEAD

Burt. I fell last night and hit my head on the piano.
R. Thompson. Hurt yourself?
Burt. No, luckily I hit the soft pedal.

MIDDLE AGES

The Guard. Did you send for me, my lord?
Lord. Yes, make haste. Bring me the can-opener. I've got a flea in my knight clothes.

You certainly are crazy about women.
Why shouldn't I be? Half of my parents were women.

The following were selected as the most needed things to make the life of the students more bearable:

Rest-rooms.
Bar-room.
Bootlegger.
No Study Hall.
Swimming pool.
Free lunch.

HALL, NOT ROCKFELLOW

Jimmie. Have you seen your girl lately?
Hall. No, I quit going out there because she made such suggestive remarks.
Jimmie. What?
Hall. Yes, she was always suggesting shows and places we could go to.

DEEP STUFF! DWELL ON IT

So you have never attended college.
No, I got my knowledge through the mail.
I see.
Yes.

VERY DEFINITE

Little Haden. Daddy, how big is a whale?
Papa Moise. What kind of a whale?
L. H. Oh, a big whale.
P. M. How big?

Our idea of an easy job is that of picking the blooms off a century plant.

ENCOURAGING

Jeorg. Wow, that razor does pull.
Barber. Oh, that's all right. I'll get the whiskers off if the handle doesn't break.

MAKES NO DIFFERENCE

Dear Editor: I want to know how long babies should be nursed?
My dear Mrs. Evans. The same as short ones.

PLANE

Drunk. Shay, offisher, where ish Main Street?
Law. You are standing on it.
Drunk. No wonder I couldn't find the shing.

HE DID TAKE CHANCES

Miss Hays. I just read an article on the discovery of Napoleans's bones.
Tommy Jones. I didn't know that he was a gambling man.

SNICKERS

Haden. Why so peeved?

Bill. Aw, I wrote home for money to buy knickers and they refused, and bawled me out besides. They said they told me I would get tired of long trousers if I put them on so soon.

Who is your favorite prof?

He died a couple of months ago.

Do you know how the rats get in here?

Naw.

Uh-huh.

Forman. I'd like to see something cheap; in a felt hat.

Clerk. Try this on. The mirror is at your left.

"I'm all set," said the sun as he disappeared over the horizon.

Stivers. Did the base ball hit you in the face?
Neff. No, I had my mouth open.

Many a true word is spoken through false teeth.

He. Would you rather take a walk or be kissed?
She. You know I have a sprained ankle.

Didn't I meet you in New Orleans last winter?
Don't think so—I was never in New Orleans in my life.
Neither was I—it must have been two other fellows.

Miss Daniel (at zoo). What is that monkey acting so funny about?
Keeper. Oh, don't bother about him, lady. He's just looking for the key to the elephant's trunk.

Walter Camp has made the All-American football team more times than anybody else.

TAKEN FOR GRANTED

Skinner. I dreamt I was married last night.
Luxon. Were we happy?

MODERN TRAGEDY

Johnson. I wish to ask you a question concerning a tragedy.
Miss Karrick. Well?
Johnson. What is my grade?

MORAL—DON'T TALK

Wayne. D-d-d y' know, I believe I've found what makes me s-stuttah.
Barney. Really.
Yawse; I've been watching myself very carefully and I've discovered that I never stuttah except when I t-t-try to t-talk.

SALESMAN BAIN

Warren. I hear that you need a bright, industrious, good-looking salesman.
Employer. I do. Whom do you suggest?

NOT ALWAYS

Coach. Why didn't you turn out for track practice yesterday?
Lewis. I had a date, sir.
Coach. Had a date, did you?
Lewis. Yes, sir, but I didn't break training. A miss is as good as a mile, you know.

Rebecca. Did Lewis blush when his track suit split up the side?
Martha. Why, I wasn't looking.

O'Rear. Judging by the way you pick girls you must have played the races.

Evans. Why so?

O'Rear. You seem to pick them according to form.

May I kiss you?
I should say not.
—But she didn't.

SO THEY TELL US

She. What is the last thing I take off before going to bed?
He. Why, I don't know.
She. My toes off the floor.

She. Jack said he'd kiss me or die in the attempt.
He. Good gracious, did you let him?
She. Well, you haven't seen any funeral notice have you?

THEY'RE EGG OTISTICAL

Are those eggs fresh?
They haven't said anything to me yet.

RIGHT BY GUM

Willie (seeing a carton of chewing gum in the hall). What's the idea of the gum?
Bill. Oh, we're going to wax the floor for our dance.

BAD BUSINESS

You mustn't. I've a tainted mouth.
What do you mean?
Tain't to be kissed.
