Throughout this annual you will find many pictures which do not make much sense. However, they are vaguely connected with the school. We hope you will enjoy the annual.

The Dedication

Since the annual has been dedicated previously to two of the faculty members, only one faculty member who has been with us this year is represented here by a picture. The Senior Class of 1955 wishes to dedicate this annual to Dr. Morris B. Cierley, Miss Anna B. Peck and Mr. Leon Porter.

In the opinion of the members of the Senior Class, these three people are of the highest caliber because they strive to uphold the standards of democracy for which our school stands.

Energy is the mainspring of their action and when our zeal was gone, they inspired us with encouragement and enthusiasm.

Honor, integrity, and fairness are the very personification of their character. They are admirable because they taught us the value of these qualities.

Because of their outstanding character and strong determination they were able to instill in us the value of preserving the higher things of life.

As a result of their diligent work and unselfish devotion, each graduate understands fully the price and value of education.

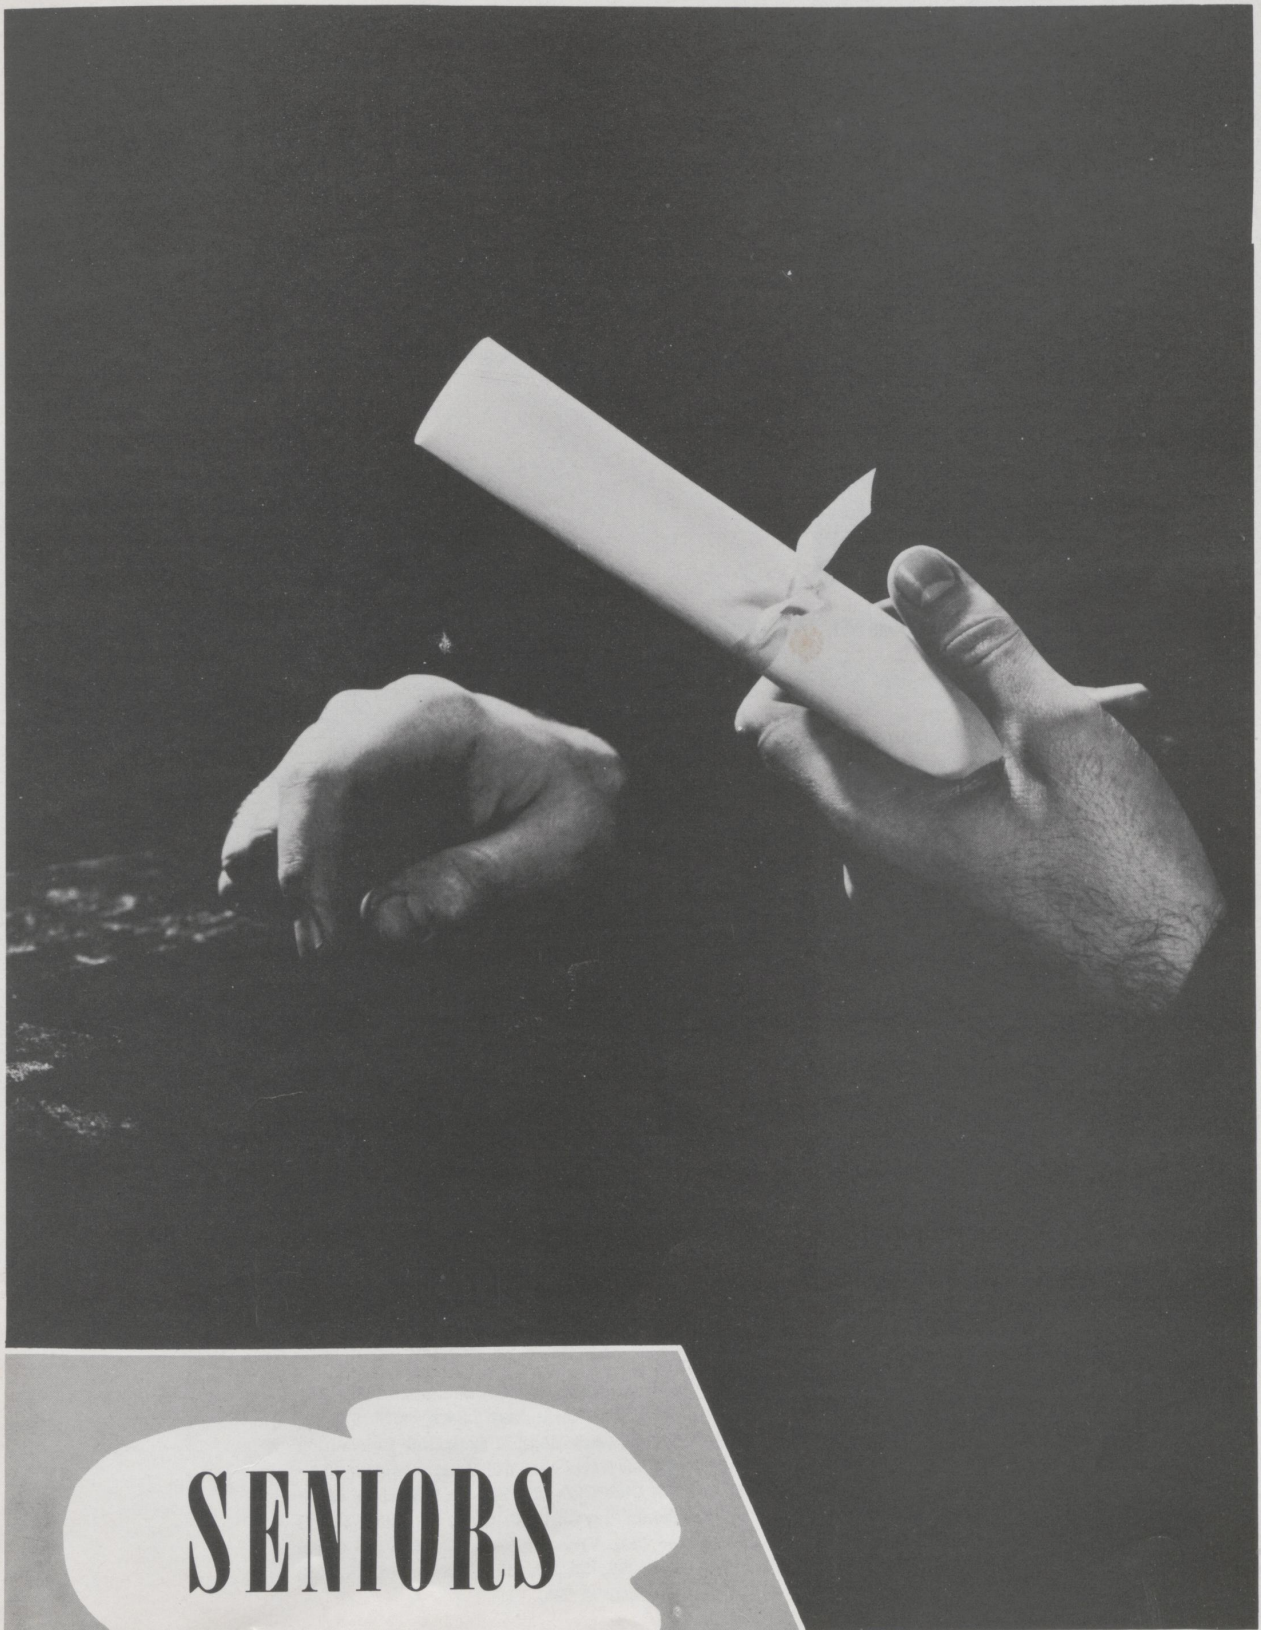

The Faculty

The faculty this year was nearly the same as in previous years. There were only three changes in the staff. First of all, Dr. Morris Cierley replaced Dr. Lyman Ginger as the director of the school. Edward Shemaleya was the new Physical Education director and also the new basketball coach. Eddie McNabb took over the driving training course. During the first semester, Miss Anna B. Peck resigned temporarily due to her illness and Mr. Frank Bean replaced her until the end of the term. Again, in the second semester ill health forced Miss Peck to retire and Mrs. Rodnell Lunde finished out the term for her. This qualified faculty devotes time and interest in preparing lives for the future.

The most important student organization, the Student Government, has a flourishing year. President Jim Farris introduced a program of handling only important cases instead of many trivial ones. This policy was very effective and was accepted enthusiastically by the student body. This is an essential factor to good Student Government for without this support the organization is useless and without force. Everyone in school serves of the court at one time or another, and each class has two permanent representatives. The officers, elected by the entire high school student body, were: Jim Farris, president; T. Kinkead, vice-president; Lucy Sharp and Carolyn Arnett, secretaries.

The Glee Club

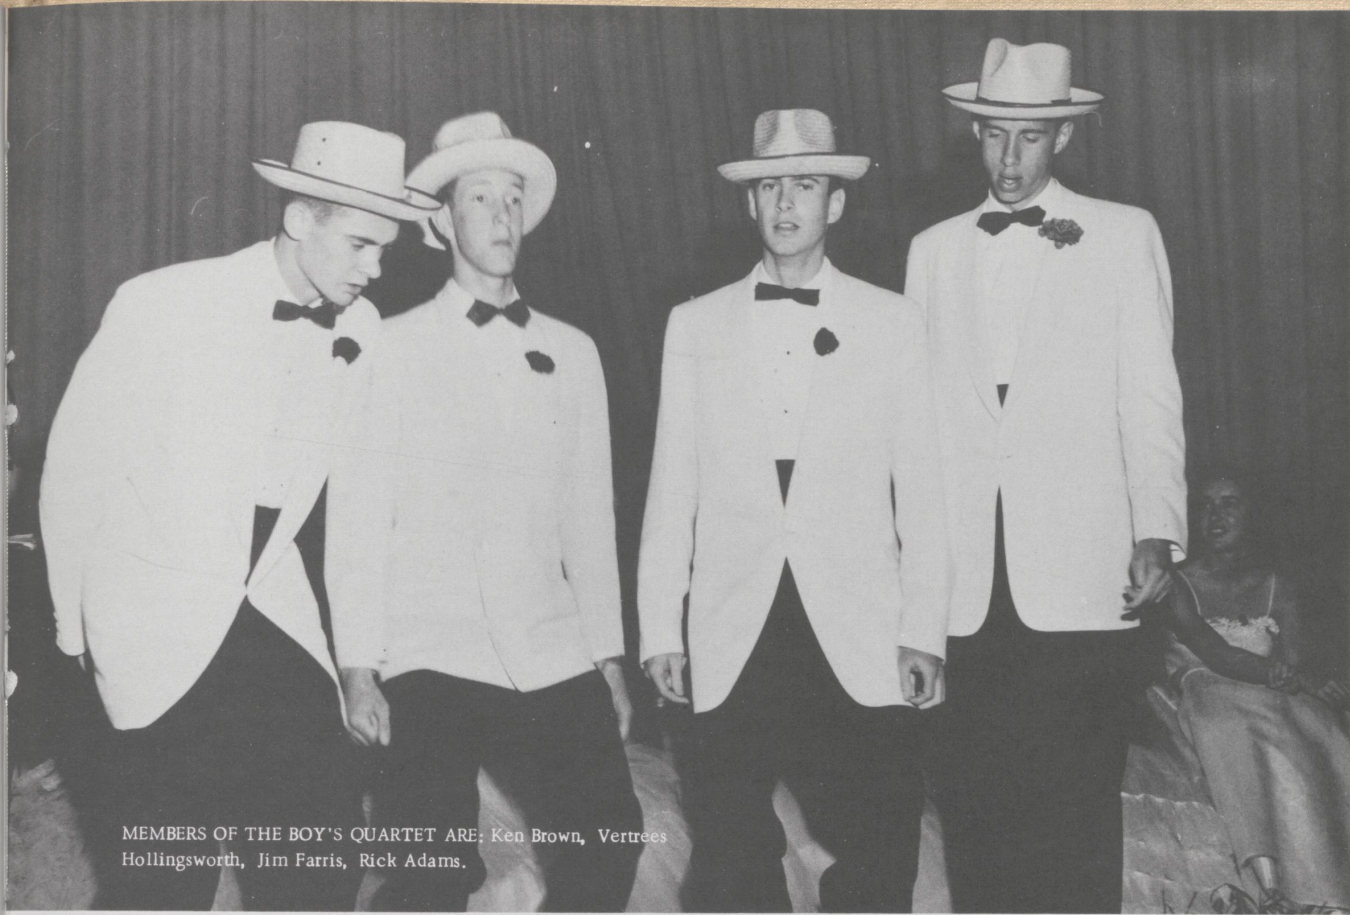

The Glee Club had a most successful and happy year. There were eighty nine members who performed for a Christmas and Spring program. The officers were Ken Brown, president; Vertrees Hollingsworth, vice-president; and Julie Hessel, secretary-treasurer. The group was under the direction of Mrs. Fred Osborne.

The Little Choir had a very prosperous year in that it had many invitations to sing. In the fall, the members performed before the Kiwanis Club. In the spring, the group provided the music for the DAR Memorial service. A Superior rating was awarded to Little Choir in the music contest. They sang at both of the school programs and also at graduation. The officers were Carolyn Arnett, president; Peggy Nunn, vice-president; Hannah Hargett, secretary-treasurer; and Louise Scott, reporter. Junior High Glee Club.

The Senior Dance

Jingle bells, jingle bells--what a gala event the Senior Christmas Dance was! The theme of the party was Pink Christmas, the trees flocked with pink and the snowflaked ceiling reflecting the roseate glow. The music was furnished by Charlie Blair. After the dance Jimmy Whittenburg entertained the members of the Senior Class at his home. A snow that evening inspired all with the Christmas spirit.

Through a highly successful year they gave complete coverage of all U-High activities. The speech class put out the spring issue. Under the capable guiding hand of Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, the high quality of the U-High Lights was maintained throughout the year.

The Senior Play

Early this year the seniors gave their annual play. Under the directorship of Miss Taylor, the play, "All In The Family" was highly successful. It shows what happens to an average American family when the explosive question, "Are parents people?" is thrown in their midst. The results were most humorous. THE LEADING PARTS WERE PLAYED BY: Carolyn Arnett, the teacher; Laura Weinman, the daughter; Ann Vimont, Mrs. Miller; Rick Adams, Biff, the boy friend; Ken Brown, the son; Vertrees Hollingsworth, Mr. Miller; Bob Odear, the neighbor, Mr. Graybill.

The Beta Club

Under the guidance and leadership of Lucy Sharp, president, and the faculty sponsor, Grace Anderson, the Beta Club had an exciting year. One of the big things they accomplished was cleaning up the faculty rest room. In November the club attended the State Convention in Louisville. Lucy Sharp was secretary of the convention while Nancy Brown was our candidate for succession. She was defeated, however, by a margin of one vote. The Beta Club also sold Cokes and popcorn at the basketball games and, from their profits, they were able to contribute $100.00 to the Glee Club for the purchase of some new robes. Another of the highlights was the installation of two new Beta Club Chapters at Lafayette and Henry Clay.

The officers were: Ann Vimont, president; Louise Scott, vice-president; Betty Honaker, secretary; Pope McLean, treasurer. Later on in the year, a party was given after the U-High-Midway game. Sandwiches and cokes were served and dancing took place in the rec-room. Throughout the year, the Pep Club sold candy and tags at the basketball games and also decorated the gym. The Pep Club was host to the Regional and State basketball games. Members of the Pep Club and students who were working for membership sold programs at both events. To top off the success of the year, the Pep Club held a banquet in honor of the swimming and basketball teams as well as the cheerleaders. Tommy Bell, friend to U-High in the field of basketball, was the guest speaker. Chairmen of all the committees were recognized. The outstanding old member award was given to Anne Parker. The outstanding new member award was given to Nancy Harding and Diana Brown. The members of the basketball and swimming teams were awarded with certificates. The cheerleaders were awarded with letters. All the new members were recognized.

The Purples

The University High School basketball team, piloted for the first time by Ed Shemaley, had a good season. Early in the year an election was held and Jim Farris was made captain for the year. Off to a slow start, the team improved steadily and at mid-season they started a long win streak only to be broken in the last game. The Purples were plagued with bad breaks all through the year. They lost one of the starting five, Ken Brown, who had already completed eight semesters, of competition, in January and two others of the starting lineup by disciplinary action. Three of the Purples were awarded Honorable Mention on the All-State Basketball Team. These were: Jim Farris, Skipper Adams, Jim Ward.

The Cheerleaders

Perhaps the most decisive factor to the success of the basketball team is spirit and support. There is no better symbol of pep and support than U-High's cheer-leading squad. Under the coaching of Miss Phyllis Kloecker, this bevy of beauties helped maintain enthusiasm throughout the entire season.

The Junior Prom

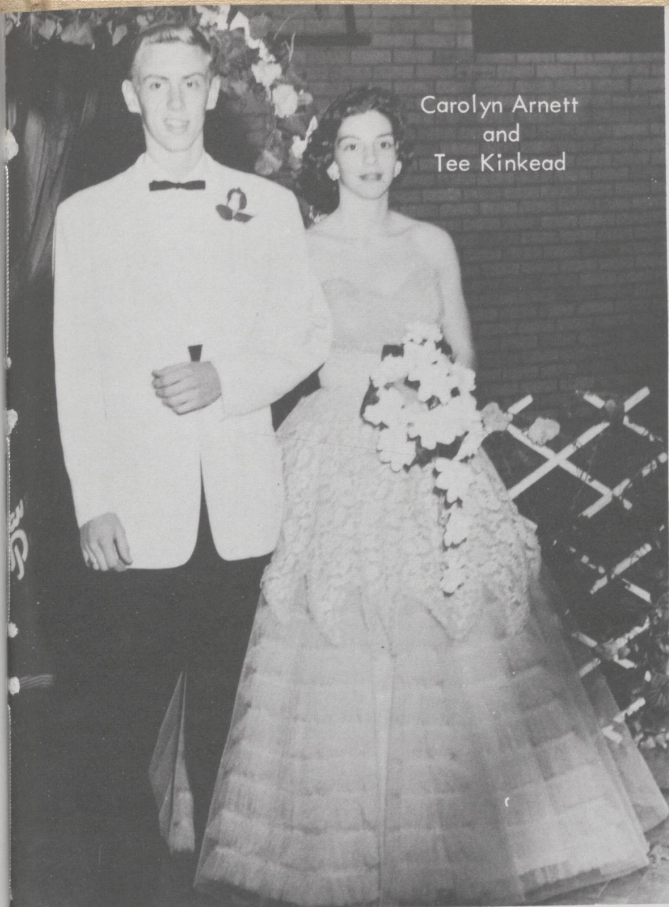

This spring the Junior Class honored the Seniors with their annual Junior Prom. The gym was decorated to resemble an old southern plantation, complete with spanish moss. The queen was crowned on the steps of the southern mansion. The music was furnished by Dave Parry. The prom court was elected by the popular vote of the Junior Class. Members of the court were: Nancy Brown, Hannah Hargett, Barbara Harper, Nancy Marr, W.R. Brown, Worley Harper, Bobby Miller, Tommy Rich, Lucy Alexander, Carolyn Arnett, Mary Lane Reed, Lucy Sharp, Laura Weinman, Skipper Adams, Jim Farris, Tee Kinhead, Jim Ward. The President of the Junior Class, Joe Hagin, reigned as King and Lucy Alexander, reigned as Queen. The scroll bearer was John Ward and the crown bearer was Ann Dudley Ward, his sister. This was perhaps the most beautiful prom in the annals of University High. Following the prom Barbara Hymson entertained with a party at her home.

The Social Committee

Lynn Bryant, Ben Russell, Lucy Sharp, Jim Ward, Virginia Paul Van Meter, and Sam Ward were members of the Social Committee. During the year they regulated the social functions of the school. This year they introduced the policy of allowing the Frosh to attend the Junior Prom. They also said that any alumnae could attend the school's dances without bids.

The Convocation Committee

Ken Brown, Helen Tyler, Mary Lynne Davis, Ann Moody, Wayne Haffler, and Libby Lou Hoverkamp were members of the Convocation Committee. The duty of this committee is to plan the convocation programs for the year. Thanks to their long hours of labor we enjoyed many interesting convocation programs.

CHAMPIONSWIMMING TEAM

The University High School swimming team again this year was a dominant figure in high school swimming. They annexed for the first time the Class B Championship of the State. Although there was little preparation for the State Meet by our swimmers, the trophy was brought home. The coach of this year's squad was none other than our own Jack Miller, a member of past teams. He donated his time and effort to the success of the team. Led by stalwart Skipper Adams, the Purples appeared to be too strong for their foes. With many young swimmers present on the squad, the outlook for future University High teams against Class B schools is brilliant. Skipper Adams held his championship form, sweeping the diving championship. Our relay team managed to win a first place ribbon also. Meanwhile our team garnered enough points to out-strip all others. It is long hours of practice that makes a champion. It was only through the combined efforts of these boys and their coach that this great honor was brought to our school. The entire student body owes a vote of thanks to Jack Miller and his fine swimming team, who gave of themselves for the honor of their school.

CANDIDATES FOR BOYS STATE

THREE OF THE CANDIDATES FOR BOY'S STATE WERE: Wick Russell, Tommy Rich, Bobby Miller. Boys State is an organization of the American Legion which strives to develop better government. It will be held again this year at Fort Knox. It is a great honor for any boy to attend. There were several other boys, who were candidates for this honor, who were not here when the picture was taken.

THE JUNIOR CLASS

The conservative juniors, under the guidance and leadership of Mr. David McMurry, spent a very relaxed year. Relaxed except for the time they sold magazine subscriptions and for the time in which they spent the money, by giving the Prom, that they had made. An election was held early in the year by which Joe Hagin was elected president. The other officers were: Hannah Hargett, vice-president; Nancy Brown, secretary; Dudley Williams, treasurer.

The sophisticated Sophomores, under the tutelage of Mary West, had an eventful and exciting year. Early in the year an election was held. Those elected were: John Mitchell, president; Marshall Rose, vice-president; Betty Maxson, secretary; Betty Lehman, treasurer.

The Junior High Student Government is to their part of the school as the Student Government is to the high school. This group maintains order without resorting to faculty control. Support of the students is necessary to this organization. Each class is represented by two students who meet with the three officers. This group is fundamental to our self government. This is an advantage held by University High Students that is not held by the majority of the students of the state. A good job was done under these officers: Ernest Clarke, president; Claggett Weinman, vice-president; Lucy Manly, secretary-treasurer.

The Seventh Grade

MEMBERS OF THE SEVENTH GRADE WERE, FIRST ROW: Len Cox, Bunny Hartford, Linda Wheeler, Suzanne Griffin, Judy Gross, Betty Brown, Mary Duncan, Dick Chamberlain. The Seventh Grade set a new precedent this year by giving a dance; this was the first time the younger set had attempted to have a dance. The class also had a picnic. Under the supervision of Miss Carl, the Seventh Grade held two elections for officers. Results of the first semester election were: president, Bobby Reeves; vice-president, Carolyn Stivers; secretary, Clay Brock; treasurer, Frank Bean. Officers for the second semester were: president, Rufus Lisle; vice-president, Louise Prior; secretary, Judy Gross; treasurer, Jeanne Shaver.

The Junior High Basketball team had a good season under Ed Shemaleya. Team spirit ran high during the first season for Ed Shemaleya and boasted a five to eight record. Their conference record was five to six which put them in the semi-finals with Lafayette. In the city tournament they placed fourth. All and all they had a good season.

The Fifth And Sixth Grades

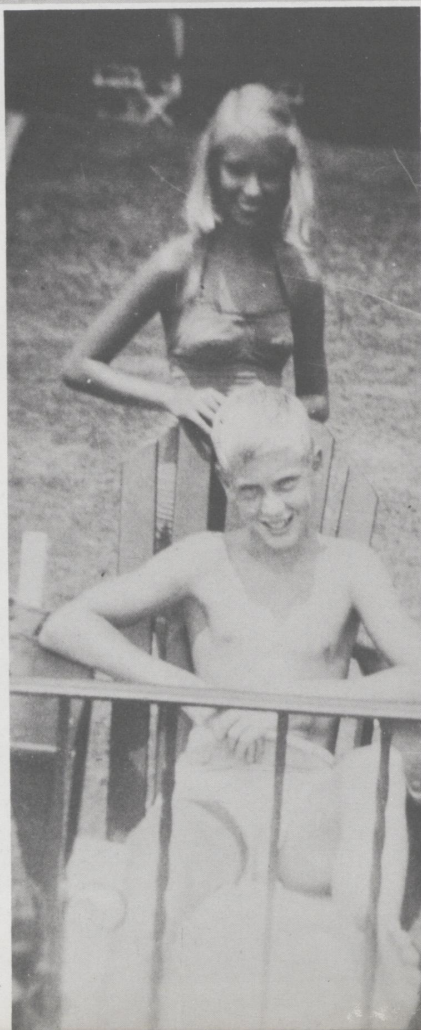

JUNIOR HIGH PEP CLUB

Thanks to the hard work of this organization the "Baby Purples" had the full support of the school. The Junior High Pep Club started off the year by electing officers. They were: Lucy Milward, president; Margaret K. Lisle, vice-president; Alice Kinkead, secretary; Willie Ann Newbury, treasurer; Bill Taylor, sergeant at arms. At the beginning of the second semester a new set of officers were elected. They were: Parkes Riley, president; Elsie Barr, vice-president; Gerda Sanders, secretary; Bill Combs, treasurer; Ernest Clarke, sergeant at arms. The members of the Pep Club were very active during the year. They sold candy at the Junior High games as well as making posters for these games. The fine spirit that the Junior High team showed against all competition may be attributed to the fine support given them by the Pep Club. Few of us realize the important part that the Pep Club plays in the sports program at school. Without them our teams could not have had the successful season that they obtained with the support of the Pep Club. The Annual Staff wishes to give their congratulations to the Junior High Pep Club for a job well done.
