ABBREVIATIONS USED IN THE INDEX.

North—signifies the place is North of Louisville, preceded by the distance in miles.

South—signifies the place is South of Louisville, preceded by the distance in miles.

East—signifies the place is East of Louisville, preceded by the distance in miles.

West—signifies the place is West of Louisville, preceded by the distance in miles.

Ry—signifies the place is located on one or more railways. The name of each place is followed by the County in which it is located.

County Seats are printed in black faced type.

The names of hotels and boarding houses are given where it has been found practicable to do so. Hotels which give reduced rates to members of the League of American Wheelmen are marked *

The names of Local Consuls are given for the convenience of members of the L. A. W.

The following index contains the names of Cities, Towns, Villages, etc., in Kentucky found upon this map. The index does not include those places shown in Indiana and Ohio.

The map is drawn to a scale of five miles to an inch, and the various places named in the index may be found by observing their combined distances North or South and East or West of Louisville, Ky.

For example, Bardstown is given in the index as BARDSTOWN, Nelson Co., Ry. 29 South, 16 East, Newman House,* L. B. Samuels, Local Consul L. A. W. indicating that it is the County Seat of Nelson County; is located on a railway; is 29 miles South of Louisville and 16 miles East of Louisville; that the Newman House gives reduced rates to members of the L. A. W., and that Mr. L. B. Samuels is Local Consul of the L. A. W. The marginal figures 00, 10, 20, 30, 40, etc., just inside the border of the map indicate the distances in miles from Louisville, measured in Northerly or Southerly and Easterly or Westerly directions.

SOME NOTED BLUEGRASS FARMS.

The Bluegrass region is indeed justly famed, and weeks might be profitably and enjoyably spent in inspecting the magnificent farms and breeding establishments in which it abounds. Of the five hundred or more farms devoted more especially to the raising of fine stock, many of them having an almost national reputation, a few have been included in the following list:

Alexander, A. J. "Woodburn." This is one of the largest and perhaps the most noted farm in the State, famed alike for its hospitality and for the beauties with which nature has endowed it. It is situated on the North and South sides of the Old Frankfort Pike, about 7 miles South and 57 miles East of Louisville, and extends from the Spring Station Pike Eastwardly.

Woodburn may be reached from Frankfort by several routes. The best for driving is to take the Georgetown Pike Eastwardly about 7 1-2 miles to the Spring Station Pike; thence by the Spring Station Pike to the Old Frankfort Pike; thence Eastwardly by the Old Frankfort Pike about 1 1-8 miles.

A more picturesque route, however, is to take the Glen's Creek Pike as far as the toll gate, 6 3-4 miles South of Frankfort; thence Northeastwardly by the Millville Pike 2 miles to the Versailles Pike; thence Southwardly on the Versailles Pike 5-8 of a mile to the Ducker's Station Road. The pikes to this point are excellent. Turning Eastwardly from the Versailles Pike to Ducker's Station, a distance of 7-8 of a mile, the road is very bad in places. From Ducker's Station to Woodburn via the Old Frankfort Pike, the distance is 4 1-6 miles, 2 5-8 miles of which is rather poor riding.

To reach Woodburn from Lexington proceed to Midway via the Leestown Pike and Weisenberg's Mill, a distance of 14 miles; thence Southwardly via the Versailles and Midway Pike 2 1-8 miles to the Old Frankfort Pike; thence Westwardly via the Old Frankfort Pike 2 1-4 miles to Woodburn, passing en route Asher Stock Farm, Meadowthorpe, Springdale, Spring Hill, Bethel Star, Village View, Maple Grove, and Nantura Stock Farms.

A more direct route, though less desirable road for wheeling, is to proceed by the Old Frankfort Pike from Lexington to Woodburn, passing en route, Wilke's Lodge, Westminster, Oak Hill, Goodwood, Highland, Ashgrove, Steele Place, Patrick Place, La Belle, James Place, Martin Park and Nantura Stock Farms.

Boswell, Hart "Boswell Place," 1 1/2 miles North of Lexington on the West side of the Russell's Cave Pike; the home of Nancy Hanks.

Clay & Woodford, "Raceland" 2 miles West of Paris, on the North side of the Paris and Georgetown Pike.

Coxie, J. S. "Dixiana," 6 1/2 miles North of Lexington on the East side of the Russell's Cave Pike, North of the Iron Works Road.

Enright, C. J. "Elmendorf," 6 miles North of Lexington on the West side of the Maysville and Paris Pike.

Ferguson, J. R. "Burr Oak," 2 miles West of Stamping Ground, Scott County, on the North side of the Stamping Ground and Frankfort Pike.

Ford, B. W. "Castleton," 4 1/2 miles North of Lexington, on the North side of the Iron Works Road, East of the Newtown Pike.

Graham & Conley, "Brier Hill," 6 1/2 miles East of Lexington on the South side of the Bryant's Station Pike.

Harp, H. Clay, "Cedar Grove," 8 miles North east of Lexington on the East side of the Paris and Maysville Pike, South of Lemmon's Mill Pike Crossing.

Harper, F. B. "Nantura," North side of the Old Frankfort Pike, East of Woodburn farm, and just West of the Versailles and Midway Pike. May be reached from Frankfort, Lexington or Midway by the same routes described above for reaching Mr. A. J. Alexander's farm, Woodburn.

Ireland Bros., "Woodvale," 6 miles West of Paris on the South side of Paris and Georgetown Pike, West of the Russell's Cave Pike.

Kenney, W. H. "Kentucky," 6 miles Northeast of Lexington on the North side of the Iron Works road, and West of the Paris and Maysville Pike.

Leigh, Eugene, "La Belle," 6 miles West of Lexington on the North side of the Old Frankfort Pike.

McDowell, H. C. & Son "Ashland," 1 mile South of Lexington on the West side of the Richmond Pike.

Megibben, T. J. Co. "Edgewater," 1 1/2 miles West of Lair,

Harrison Co. on the North side of Megibben Pike (the latter is not shown on the map.)

Pepper, Jas. E. "Meadowthorpe," 1 1/2 miles Northwest of Lexington on the East side of the Leestown Pike.

Redmond, J. G. "Redmond," 2 miles West of North Middletown, Bourbon County, on the North side of the Paris and North Middletown Pike.

Shropshire, A. P. & Sons "Bellevue," 9 miles West of Paris on the South side of the Paris and Georgetown Pike and West of the Russells Cave Pike.

Swope, John B. "Carlla," 3 miles South of Midway on the West side of the Versailles and Midway Pike.

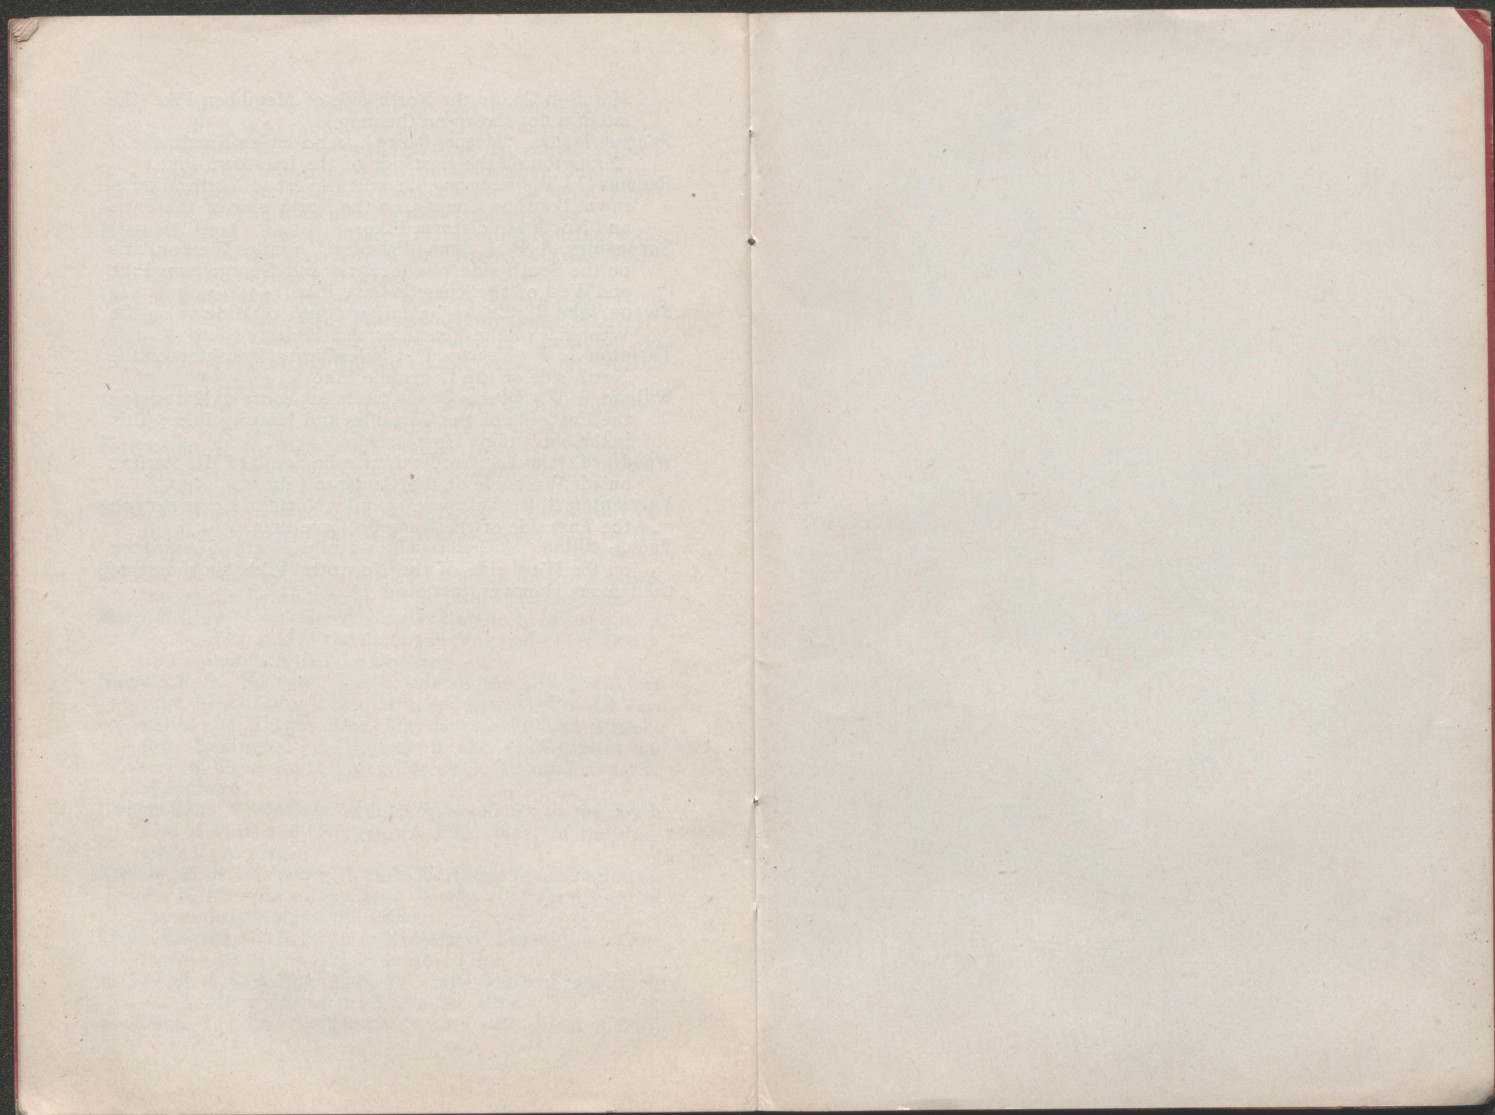

Tarleton, L. P. "Fleetwood," 3 miles West of Frankfort on the North side of the Louisville Pike.

Watson, G. W. "Bosque Bonita," 4 miles South of Midway on the East side of the Versailles and Midway Pike; this is the old Buford Homestead.

Woodford, John T. "Woodford," 1 mile South of Mt. Sterling on the West side of the Camargo Pike.

Yarrington, J. D. "Lakeview," 3 miles North of Lexington on the East side of the Russell's Cave Pike.

Young, Milton. "McGrathiana," 2 1/2 miles North of Lexington on the West side of the Newtown Pike, the home of the famous Hanover, just dead.
