CHOIR AND CONGREGATION:

A

COLLECTION OF MUSIC,

ON A

NEW PLAN,

FOR THE

SERVICE OF SONG IN THE HOUSE OF THE LORD.

BY

GEO. F. ROOT.

CINCINNATI:
PUBLISHED BY JOHN CHURCH & CO.
CHICAGO: THE ROOT & SONS MUSIC CO.
(Music Electrotyped by R. R. MEREDITH & SONS, 187 Clark St., Chicago.)

Entered, according to Act of Congress, in the year 1875, by JOHN CHURCH & Co., in the Office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington.

EXPLANATORY.

TUNES are "old" because they are good. Thousands of competitors for public favor, which started in the race with them, have dropped away, and are forgotten. Those that remain are rich in memories and associations, and are now well nigh indispensable to musical worship.

Still, choirs are not willingly confined to their use. With higher musical culture is naturally the desire to make use of higher musical powers than the old tunes require; and this added to the inclination of all to enjoy music for its own sake, has led extensively to such choir performances as tend to place the "old tunes," and the singing of them, lowest in the musical services of the church, a rank as unjust to their merits as it is hurtful to their influence.

"Performers" and "an audience" are certainly not the true elements of a worshiping assembly. There should be neither "lookers on" to see others worship, nor persons to be entertained by what is done. All should receive the instruction, all should unite in the prayers, all should join in the singing, and, more important still, there should be union and co-operation on the part of all, however varied their conditions and attainments.

So far as the music is concerned, when the trained voices sing, the people should neither listen as outsiders who have no part, nor as an audience, to be entertained; and when the familiar tunes are sung, the trained voices should not lose interest by feeling that their best powers are not called into action.

But how shall all have something suitable to do, and yet all co-operate harmoniously toward the truer objects of church music? This question, it is the object of these further explanations, and of this book, to answer.

There is not a familiar hymn that has not some Scripture or other words appropriate to it for illustration, introduction or preparation. There is not a standard tune that may not receive new interest by an appropriate prelude. Let the choir sing such words as illustrate, lead to, and prepare for, the familiar hymn and tune, in music that is suited for that object rather than for vocal display, and then let "all the people" join in the tune as a chorus or climax, and, it is confidently asserted, the following results will be realized:

1st. The musical effect not being at its best without the voices of the congregation to make the tune a climax; and the climax not being reached without the illustration and preparation by the choir, a need is created—of the choir for the people, and of the people for the choir—that forms a basis for union, good will and mutual co-operation.

2d. The congregation, seeing just what the words mean that the choir sing, and why they are sung—watching their progress, and feeling their appropriateness as they prepare for, and lead to, the final song—are much removed from the temptation now so common, to listen to the trained voices for musical entertainment instead of devotional assistance; and the choir realizing the higher nature of their work, will be equally relieved from the temptation (or perhaps necessity) also common, to sing for the mere entertainment of their listeners.

3d. A new and better interest in the Solos, Duets, Quartets and Anthems of the choir will spring up. Heretofore the more religious the meetings of a church, the less trained choir performances were wanted; the obvious reason being that they subserved little, if any religious use; but the plan of CHOIR AND CONGREGATION will lead surely and safely to a union of musical culture and worship: for who can sing, "He is despised and rejected of men," "My faith looks up to Thee" or "Now is the accepted time," "Hear, O sinner, mercy hails you" or "They be many that fight against me," "My soul, be on thy guard," and not feel their appropriateness in the most religious meetings of the church?

The "tune services" in CHOIR AND CONGREGATION, although limited by the hymns and tunes upon which they are founded, have a wide range, and will be found appropriate to all occasions of public worship, and to almost all the subjects of sermons in Christian churches. They can be used wherever hymns or anthems would be in order;—the minister giving them out. (See Index.)

That the "services" may not be too long, a majority of the hymns are abbreviated, generally to three verses; but it is believed that they are not less pointed and complete for the omissions. The anthem is sung but once.

The "Responsive Services," from p. 250 to p. 270, especially the shorter ones, are designed to precede one of the prayers of the general service. The people rise, and minister and people lead up to the act, which he continues alone, as their mouthpiece. It is believed that these responses of choir and congregation will induce a more general feeling of participation, and bring all, so to speak, nearer to the prayer. Those especially useful for this purpose, begin with the First Psalm, page 256.

The longer of these services may, perhaps, find a regular place in the general service; but whether so or not, they will be excellent as occasional exercises, for example, "The Seven Promises," on receiving members into the church, "Show us Thy mercy," "Fast Day," etc.

The antiphonal reading and singing should be closely connected. As soon as the reading closes, the response begins, and vice versa. In earnest passages a little anticipation will have a good effect.

The value of short, simple, appropriate sentences, both before and after prayer, when sung in a subdued and reverent manner, is now well known so that no explanation is needed of the pieces from page 270 to page 292, excepting that some may be connected together, or with the Responsive Services.

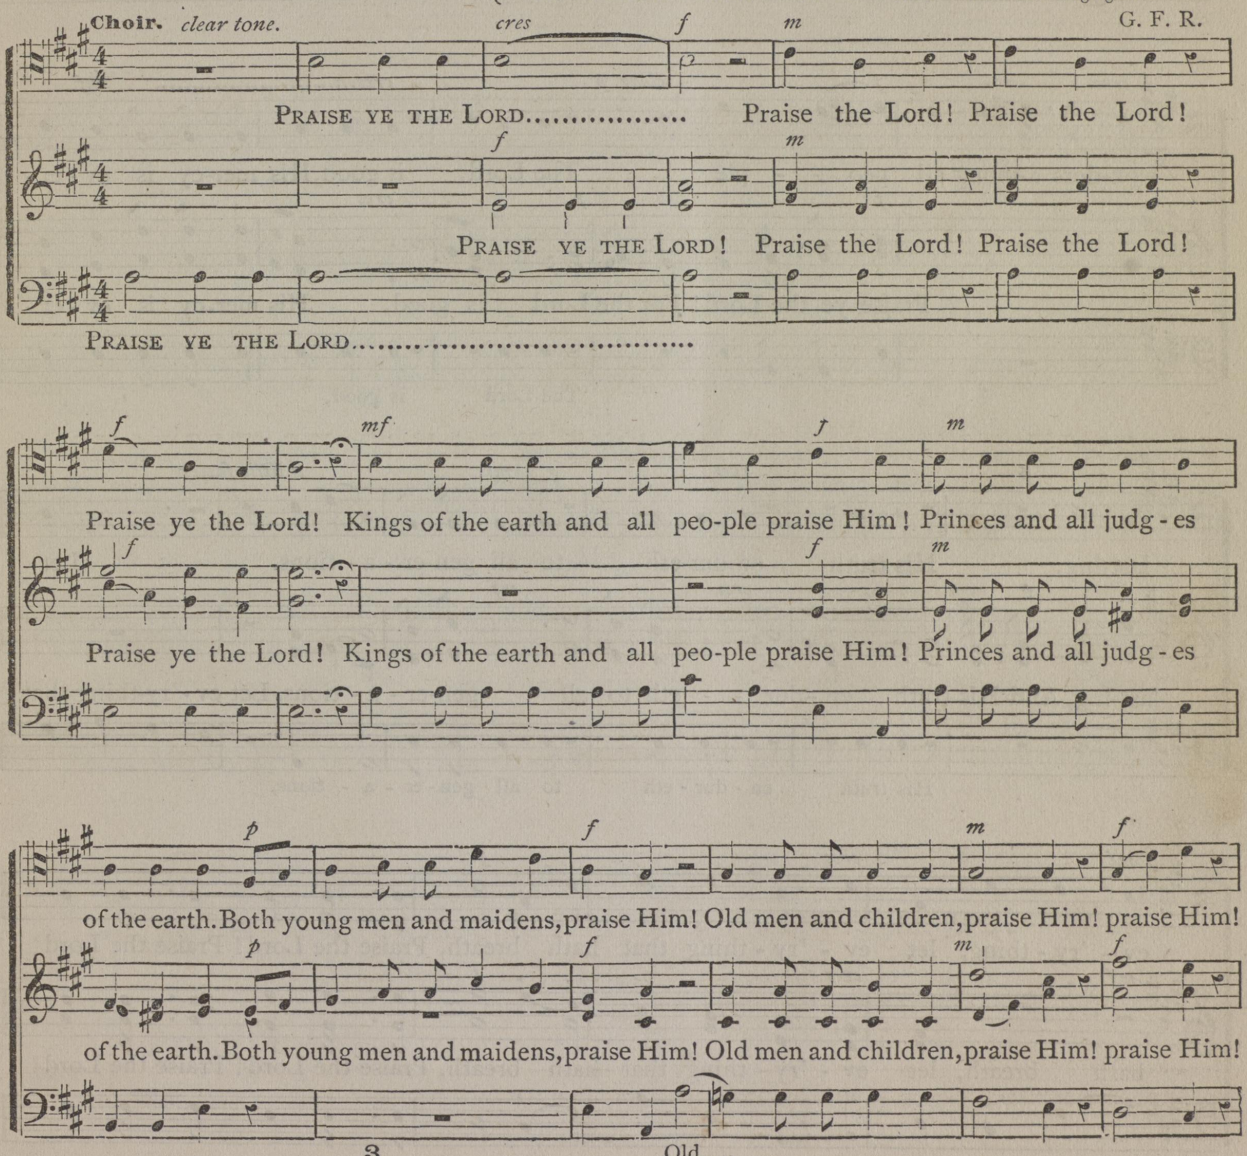

The sentences and pieces "during collection" are in series. Two, three, four, or more, may be sung in connection. This is to enable the choir to make their singing longer or shorter, according to the time of collection. Series may be formed by selecting according to keys, anywhere in this department of the book.

Let teachers, or choristers, and choirs, who desire to interest their communities in this subject, first meet themselves, and prepare their part of these services, and then on some convenient evening invite "all the people" to join in their practice; and, while seeking the musical results which may be obtained by right qualities of tone, correct phrasing, distinct articulation and careful dynamic shadings, it is hoped that the main object of this book will be kept in mind, and that it may prove to be of real use to "the Service of Song in the House of the Lord."

Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.

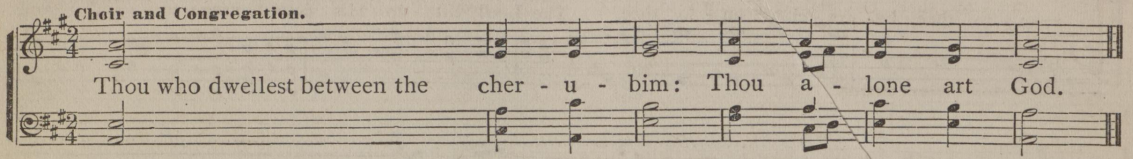

Choir and Congregation

Minister. II.

Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them; for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate Me; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me, and keep My commandments.

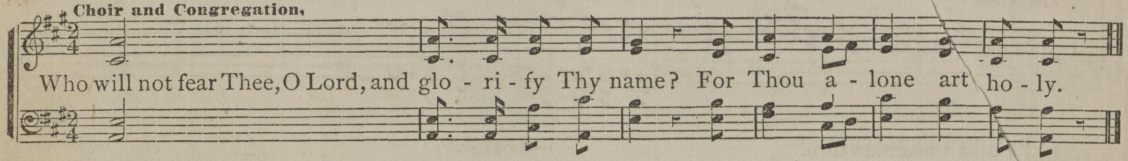

Choir and Congregation.

Minister. III.

Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain; for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain.

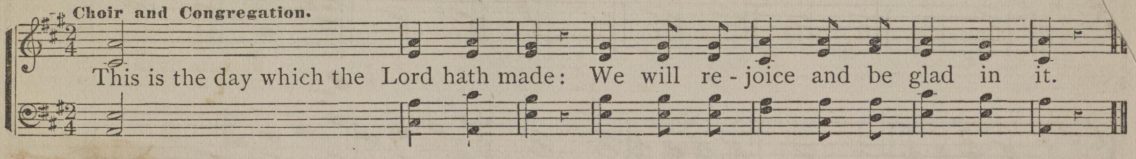

Choir and Congregation.

Minister. IV.

Remember the Sabbath-day to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath-day, and hallowed it.

The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord: And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength.

And the second is like unto it: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the Law and the Prophets.

To him that overcometh, will I give to eat of the hidden manna; and will give him a white stone; and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

He that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of My Father. And I will give him the morning star.

Turn Us Again.

(From Ps. lxxx.)

Minister.

Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, Thou that leadest Joseph like a flock; Thou that dwellest between the cherubims, shine forth. Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh stir up Thy strength, and come and save us.

Choir and Congregation.

Minister.

O Lord God of hosts, how long wilt Thou be angry against the prayer of Thy people? Thou feedest them with the bread of tears; and givest them tears to drink in great measure. Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbors: and our enemies laugh among themselves.

Choir and Congregation. (Chant as above.)

Turn us again, O God of hosts, and | cause Thy face to | shine: And | we | shall be | saved.

Minister.

Return, we beseech Thee, O God of hosts: look down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine; and the vineyard which Thy right hand hath planted, and the branch that Thou madest strong for Thyself. It is burned with fire, it is cut down: they perish at the rebuke of Thy countenance. Let Thy hand be upon the man of Thy right hand, upon the son of man whom Thou madest strong for Thyself. So will not we go back from Thee: quicken us, and we will call upon Thy name.

Choir and Congregation.

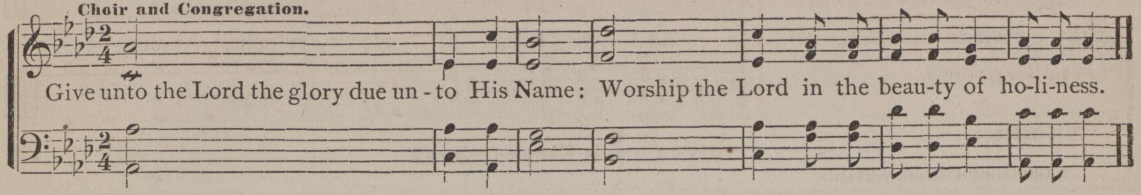

Give unto the Lord.

Choir and Congregation.

Minister.

Blessed are the people that know the joyful sound: they shall walk, O Lord, in the light of Thy countenance.

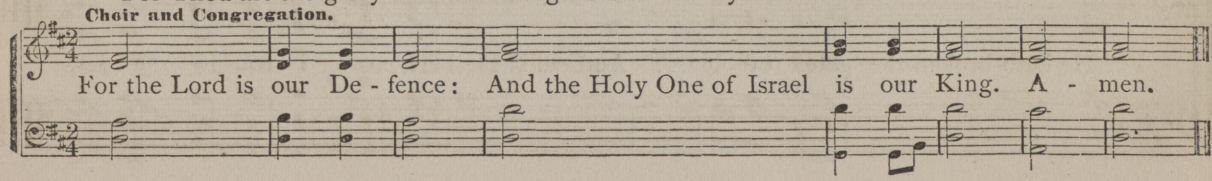

Choir and Congregation.

Minister.

For Thou art the glory of their strength: and in Thy favor our horn shall be exalted.

Choir and Congregation.

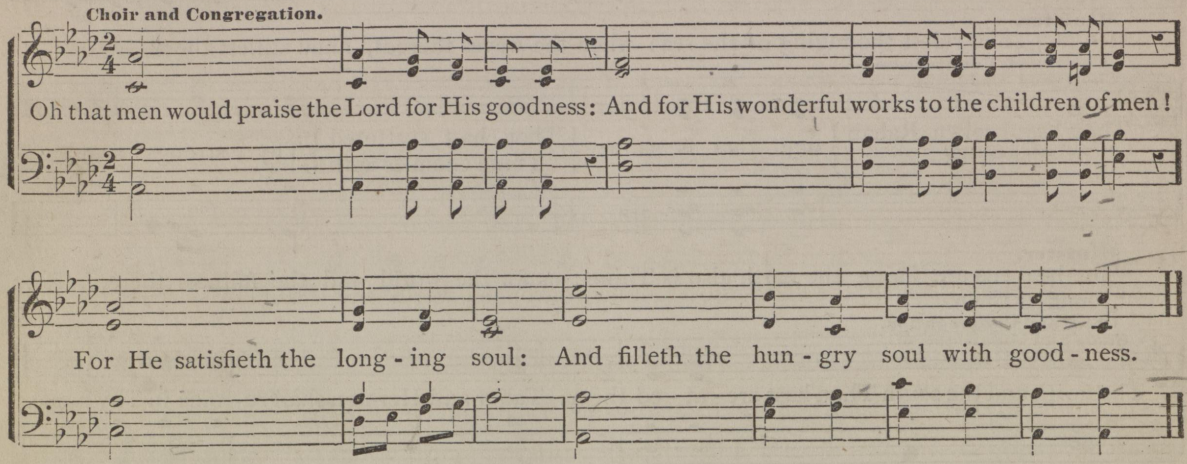

Oh that Men would Praise.

(From Ps. cvii.)

Minister.

O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is good: for His mercy endureth forever. Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, whom He hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy; and gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south. They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in. Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them. Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and He delivered them out of their distresses. And He led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation.

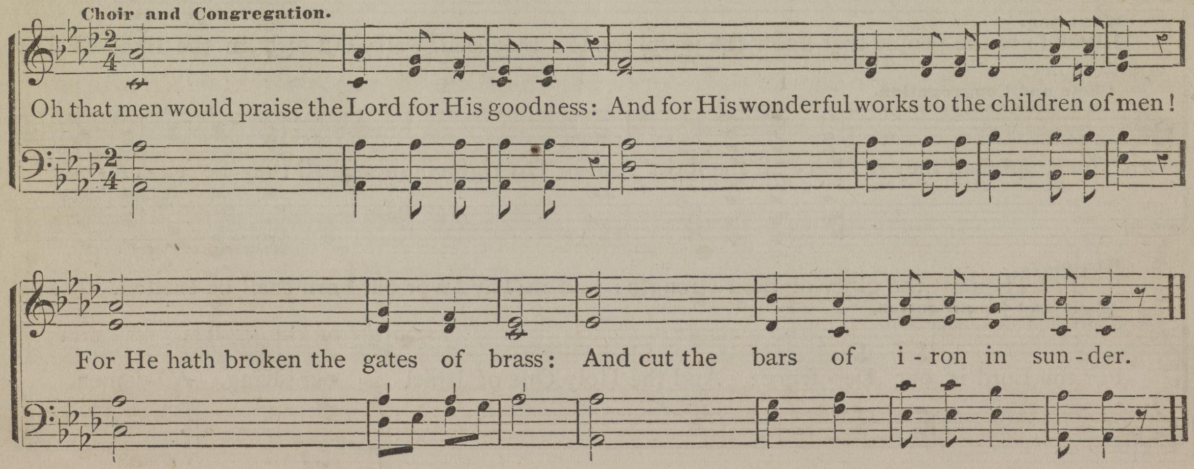

Choir and Congregation.

Minister.

Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron; because they rebelled against the words of God, and contemned the counsel of the Most High. Therefore He brought down their heart with labor; they fell down, and there was none to help. Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and He saved them out of their distresses. He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and brake their bands in sunder.

Choir and Congregation.

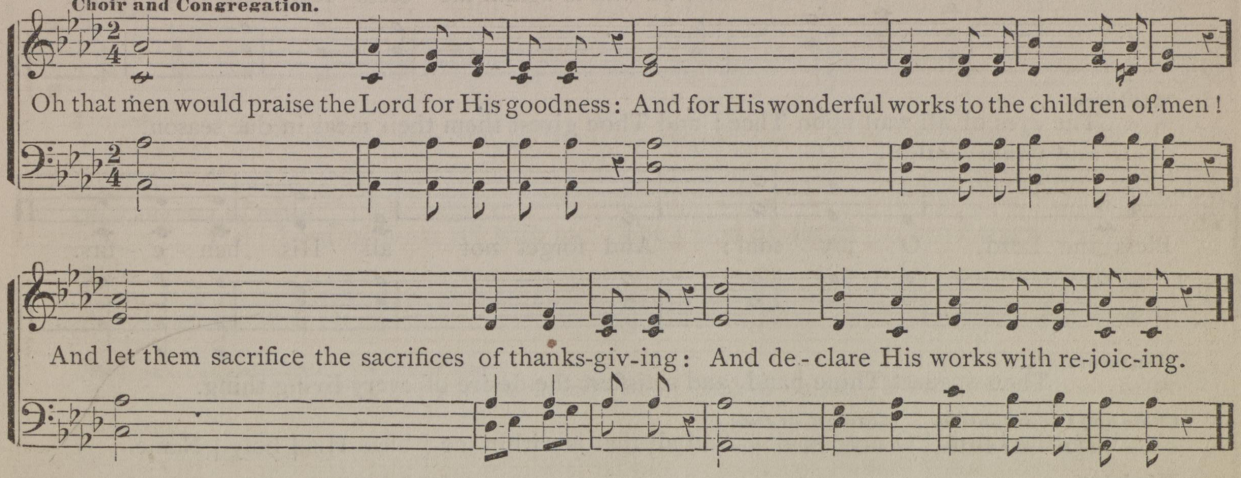

Oh that Men would Praise.—Concluded.

Minister.

Fools because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted. Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat; and they draw near unto the gates of death. Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble, and He saveth them out of their distresses. He sent His word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions.

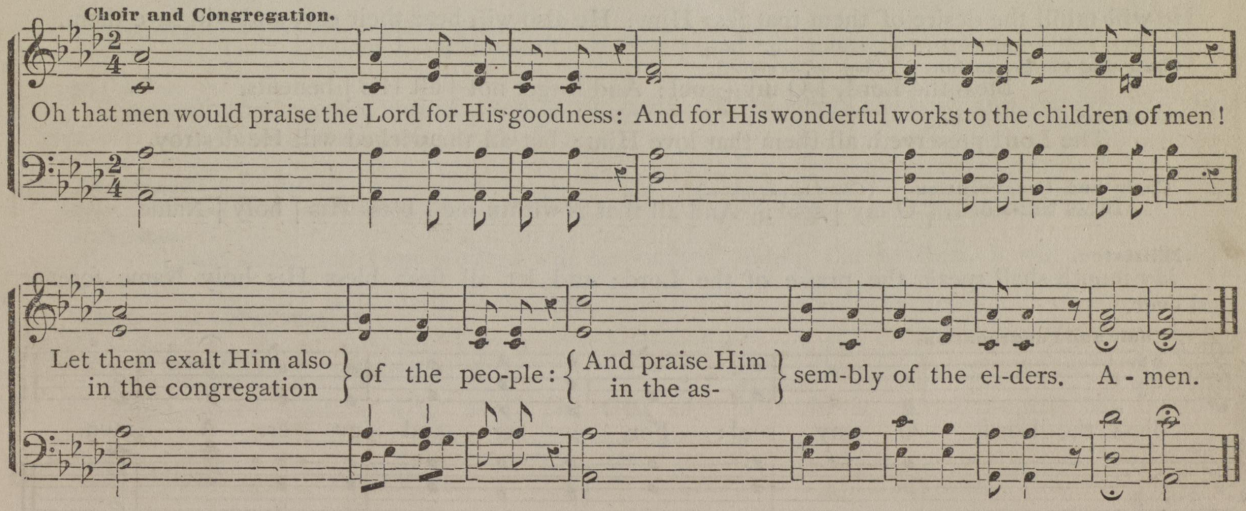

Choir and Congregation.

Minister.

They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters; these see the works of the Lord, and His wonders in the deep. For He commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof. They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: their soul is melted because of trouble. They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wit's end. Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble, and He bringeth them out of their distresses. He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still. Then are they glad because they be quiet; so He bringeth them unto their desired haven.

Choir and Congregation.

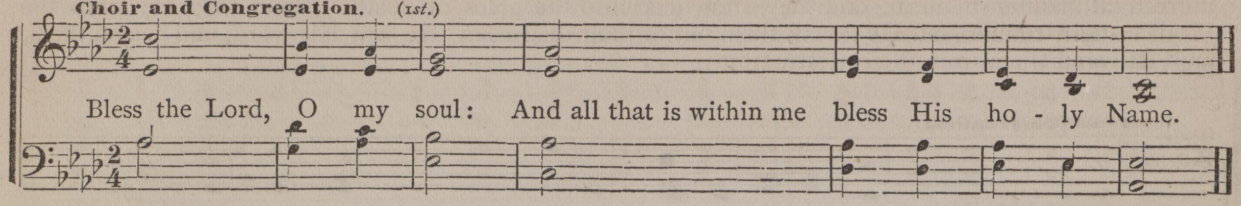

Bless the Lord, O my Soul.

(From Ps. cxlv.)

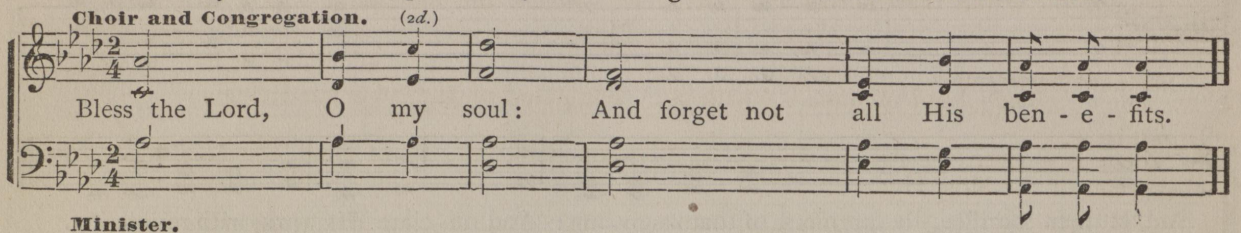

Minister.
The Lord upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all those that be bowed down.

Choir and Congregation. (1st.)

Choir and Congregation. (Chant 1st, as above.)
Bless the Lord, | O my | soul:|| And all that is within me | bless His | holy | Name.

Bless the Lord, | O my | soul: And forget not | all His | benefits.

Choir and Congregation.

Show Us Thy Mercy, O Lord.

(From Dan. ix.)

Minister.

O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love Him, and to them that keep His commandments. We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from Thy precepts and from Thy judgments.

Choir and Congregation.

Minister.

O Lord, righteousness belongeth unto Thee; but unto us confusion of face, as at this day, because we have sinned against Thee.

Choir and Congregation. (Chant as above.)

Show us Thy mercy, O | Lord: And | grant us Thy sal- | vation.

Minister.

To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against Him: neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in His laws, which He has set before us.

Choir and Congregation. (Chant as above.)

Show us Thy mercy, O | Lord: And | grant us Thy sal- | vation.

Minister.

Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servants, and their supplications, and cause Thy face to shine upon Thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake.

Choir and Congregation.

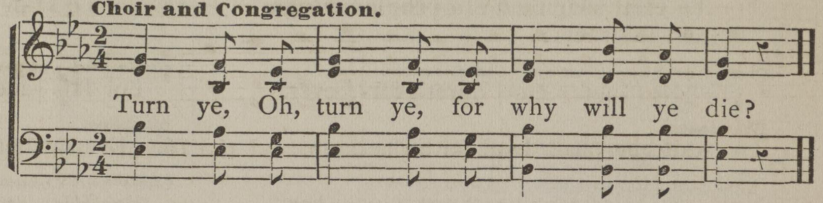

Turn Ye.

(From Ezek. xviii.)

Minister.

When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and comitteth iniquity, and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he hath done shall he die.

Choir and Congregation.

Minister.

Again, when a wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive.

Choir and Congregation. (Chant as above.)

Turn ye, Oh | turn ye, for | why will ye | die?

Minister.

Because he considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

Choir aud Congregation. (Chant as above.)

Turn ye, Oh | turn ye, for | why will ye | die?

Turn Ye.—Concluded.

Minister.

Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord God. Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin.

Choir and Congregation. (Chant as above.)

Turn ye, Oh | turn ye, for | why will ye | die?

Minister.

Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel.

Choir and Congregation. (Chant as above.)

Turn ye, Oh | turn ye, for | why will ye | die?

Minister.

For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God: wherefore turn yourselves, and live ye.

Choir and Congregation.

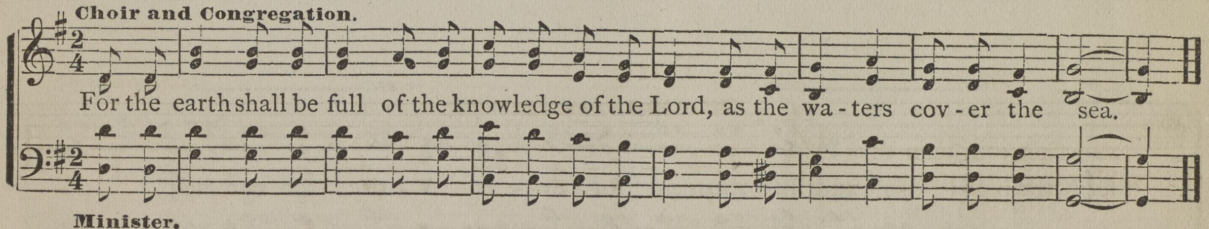

For the Earth shall be Full.

(From Isa. xi.)

Minister.

And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots. And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon Him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord; and shall make Him of quick understanding in the fear of the Lord: and He shall not judge after the sight of His eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of His ears. But with righteousness shall He judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and He shall smite the earth with the rod of His mouth, and with the breath of His lips shall He slay the wicked. And righteousness shall be the girdle of His loins, and faithfulness the girdle of His reins.

Choir and Congregation.

Minister.

The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them. And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

Choir and Congregation. (Chant as above.)

For the | earth shall be | full of the | knowledge of the | Lord, as the | waters | cover the | sea.

Far from mortal cares retreating	28
Father of mercies, send Thy grace	218
Father of our spirits, hear	246
Father, whate'er of earthly bliss	163
Fear not, little flock	207
For a season called to part	246
For His mercy	267
For the day is far spent	241
For the earth shall be full	269
For Thine is the kingdom	279
For unto us a Child is born	95
For whosoever	295
From all that dwell	3
From every stormy wind that blows	149
From Greenland's icy mountains	134
From the dark grave	102
From the recesses	291
From the rising of the sun	18
Gently, Lord, O Gently lead us	160
Give ear	273
Give glory to God in the highest	60
Give thanks to God	52
Give to our God immortal praise	68
Give unto the Lord	260
Glorious things of thee are spoken	126
Glory to God in the highest	93
Glory to Thee, my God, this night	234
God be merciful unto us	8, 257
God is greatly to be feared	261
God is love	196
God is not unrighteous	218
God is our refuge and strength	75, 280
God of mercy, God of grace	168
God so loved the world	182
Go ye into all the world	116
Great God, attend while Zion sings	16
Great God, how infinite art Thou	310
Great God, to Thee my evening song	244
Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised	44
Great peace have they	293
Hail to the brightness	113
Hallelujah! for the Lord	54
Hark, hark the notes of joy	40
Hark, how the choral song	19
Hark, my soul, it is the Lord	148
Hark, on that sigh	223
Hark, ten thousand harps and voices	54
Hark, the herald angels sing	93
Have mercy upon me, O God	151
Have Thou respect	280
Hear me when I call	285
Hear my cry	280
Hear my cry [men's voices]	289
Hear, O Lord	283
Hear, O sinner, mercy hails you	136
Hear our prayer	279
Hear our prayer to heaven	277
Heavenly Father	278
Heavenly Spirit, may each heart	135
Help me	274
He is despised and rejected of men	162
He shall give His angels charge	244
He that dwelleth	234
He that soweth little	298
Hide not Thy face	272
High in Thy glory	277
His going forth is from the end of the heavens	89
Ho! every one that thirsteth	145
Holy, holy, holy!	48, 284
Holy Lord	288
Holy Spirit	285
How are Thy servants blessed	242
How charming is the place	16
How dread are Thine eternal years	172
How excellent is Thy loving kindness	78
How firm a foundation	207
How gentle God's commands	140
How long, dear Savior	118
How lovely is Zion	122
How lovely the feet of the messengers	132
How pleased and blest was I	22

	PAGE.
How sweet, how heavenly	189
If any man thirst, let him come	147
If any man will come after Me	138
If Thou, Lord	283
If we confess	291
If ye endure chastening	174
If ye keep My commandments	201
I laid me down and slept	21
I love the volume of Thy word	104
I love Thy kingdom, Lord	32
I love to hear the story	98
I'm but a stranger here	226
I'm not ashamed to own my Lord	185
In all my vast concerns with Thee	158
In mercy, Lord, remember me	243
In My Father's house are many mansions	226
In the cross of Christ I glory	178
In the last days it shall come to pass	128
In the morning they are like grass	220
In the time of trouble He shall hide me	149
I press forward toward the mark	307
It is a good thing to give thanks	25
I was glad when they said unto me,	22, 32
I will arise	276
I will lay me down in peace	247
I will lift up mine eyes	13
Jerusalem the golden	230
Jesus, I my cross have taken	138
Jesus, lover of my soul	144
Joy to the world, the Lord is come	95
Just as I am	289
Kingdoms and thrones to God belong	84
Laborers of Christ, arise!	216
Lay not up for yourselves treasures	141
Let all the lands with shouts	12
Let every mortal ear attend	145
Let everything that hath breath	30
Let my mouth be filled with Thy praise	50
Let the beauty	304
Let the words	284
Let the people praise Thee, O God	6
Let us lay aside every weight	212
Let your heart	296
Let your light	306
Let Zion and her sons rejoice	130
Lift up to God the voice of praise	86
Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields	134
Lord, at this closing hour	248
Lord, dismiss us with Thy blessing	249
Lord, Thou hast been our dwelling	172
Lord, what love have I	176
Lord, when Thou didst ascend	76
Lord, when we bend before Thy throne	152
Love divine, all love excelling	182
Love one another	189
Majestic sweetness sits enthroned	100
Make a joyful noise	66
May the peace	287
More sweet than odors	305
My days are gliding	188
My faith looks up to Thee	162
My God, how endless is Thy love,	71, 78
My God, my Father, blissful name	174
My God, the covenant of Thy love	200
My heart shall join	34
My sheep hear My voice	206
My soul, be on thy guard	155
Nearer, my God, to Thee	194
No change of time shall ever shock	80
Not every one that saith unto Me, Lord, Lord	216
Not unto us	52
Now may the increase	294
Now therefore	290
O be joyful	35
O bless our God, ye people	60
O come let us sing	56
O come let us worship	276
O could I speak the matchless worth	46
O give thanks unto the Lord	62
O give us rest	283
O God, our help in ages past	75
O happy day that fixed my choice	202
O happy is the man who hears	176
O Israel, trust thou in the Lord	306
O Lord God of hosts	290
O Lord our God, hear	278
O Lord our Lord, how excellent	12
One privilege my heart desires	72
On the mountain's top appearing	132
One there is above all others	209
O Paradise	229
O praise ye the Lord	70
O render thanks to God above	58
O that men would praise	262, 302
O that the Lord would guide my ways	110
O Thou that hearest prayer	270
O Thou to whom all creatures bow	44
O Thou who driest the mourner's tear	169
Our days are as the grass	167
Our soul waiteth for the Lord	271
Out of the depths have I cried	156
O where shall rest be found	166
O worship the Lord	274
O Zion, that bringest good tidings	86
Praise God, from whom all blessings flow	6
Praise to God, immortal praise	56
Praise to Thee, Thou great Creator	36
Praise waiteth for Thee, O God	36
Praise ye the Lord	3, 34
Precious in the sight of the Lord	225
Remember the Sabbath day	24
Return, my soul, and sweetly rest	210
Return, we beseech Thee	286
Rise, my soul	232
Safely through another week	24
Safe, O Lord, if Thou art near	247
Salvation, O the joyful sound	187
Save, Lord	282
Save Thy people	270
Savior, breathe an evening blessing	239
Scarcely for a righteous man will one die	209
Search me, O God	274
Seek ye My face	275
Seek ye the Lord	266
Show us Thy mercy	268, 272, 282
Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou Me	148
Sing to the Lord a new made song	88
Sing unto God, ye kingdoms	84
Sister, thou wast mild and lovely	223
So fades the lovely blooming flower	220
Softly fades the twilight ray	237
Softly now the light of day	236
Soon may the last glad song arise	128
So shall my head be lifted high	72
So teach us to number our days	278
Sun of my soul, Thou Savior dear	92
Surely the Lord is in this place	288
Sweet is the work, my God	25
Sweet was the time	184
Teach me Thy statutes	110
The beauteous day	304
The day is far spent	239
The earth is the Lord's	258
The eyes of all wait upon Thee	296
The heavens declare Thy glory	106
The law of love	254
The law of the Lord is perfect	104
The Lord bless thee and keep thee	249
The Lord hath made bare His holy arm	88
The Lord Himself, the mighty Lord	198
The Lord is good to all	68
The Lord is gracious and full of compassion	58
The Lord is in His holy temple	273
The Lord is my rock and my fortress	80
The Lord is my Shepherd	198, 204
The Lord is my strength and song,	70, 313
The Lord is the portion of mine inheritance	199
The Lord is thy keeper	238
The Lord of hosts is with us	265
The Lord our God be with us	287
The Lord reigneth	38
The Lord's Prayer	290
The morning light is breaking	124
The people of the Lord	173
Therefore all things whatsoever	301
There is a land of pure delight	227
There is a stream	112
There's a bright eternal day	188
There shall no evil befall thee	242
The Savior calls	146
The seven promises	255
The ten blessings	252
The ten commandments	250
The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad	130
The word of the Lord is right	106
They be many that fight against me	155
They shall hunger no more	227
They that sow in tears	300

	PAGE.
They that wait on the Lord	180
They wandered in the wilderness	160
Thine, O Lord, is the greatness	281
This is the day the Lord hath made	10
Thou art gone to the grave	219
Thou art my hiding place	144
Thou art my portion, O my God	199
Thou carriest them away	153
Thou from whom we never part	236
Though faint, yet pursuing	135
Though He slay me, yet will I trust	194
Though your sins be as scarlet	184
Thou openest Thine hand	71
Thou turnest man to destruction	167
Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace	202
Through Thy protecting care	21
Thus far the Lord hath led me on	238
Thy brother shall rise again	219
Thy name, almighty Lord	18
Thy sun shall no more go down	92
Thy testimonies are wonderful	108
Thy will be done	291
To God, in whom I trust	13
To God, the only wise	248
To our Redeemer's glorious name	42
To the hills	276
To thy pastures fair and large	206
Triumphant Zion, lift thy head	120
Trust in the Lord	306
Turn us again	259
Turn ye, O turn ye	268
Unto Him that loved us	286
Wait on the Lord	275
Walk about Zion	126
Watch therefore	214
We have sinned	279
Welcome, delightful morn	10
We praise Thee, O God	48
When martialed on the nightly plain	90
When shall the voice of singing	118
While my Redeemer's near	204
While with ceaseless course the sun	153
Whither shall I go from Thy Spirit	158
Who can understand his errors	290
Who shall ascend into the hill	173
Who will not fear Thee	281
Whosoever shall be ashamed of Me	185
Whosoever will come after Me	178
Why art thou cast down, O my soul	165
Why do we mourn departing friends	221
Why stand ye here all the day idle	216
Why will ye waste in trifling cares	141
With joy we hail the sacred day	7
With my substance I will honor	298
With one consent let all the earth	35
Work in the vineyard	216
Worthy is the Lamb that was slain	83
Ye Christian heralds, go proclaim	116
Ye hearts with youthful vigor warm	180
Ye tribes of Adam, join	30
Yes, the Redeemer rose	102
Your harps, ye trembling saints	171
Zion stands with walls surrounded	122
