Yours of the 6th was rec'd last week, and read with great surprise. I have my understanding that you had, two years ago, turned the ^{against me} suit over to Mr. ^{Reynolds} Thayer, ^{Customs} and at the latter's request the Exec. Com.
~~had~~ engaged additional counsel (Judge ^{of the City} Hunt) to aid him. It seemed strange also that having been employed by the Exec. Com., who, with the initials of the members of the Board of Censors, also had power to withdraw the suit, or to compromise it, you should, without any instruction from them, ~~and~~ even without any consultation with them, accept ^{any} proposed compromise. ~~The Exec. Com.~~ Will you please inform me who has in charge the suit of the Commission against Sandusky, yourself or Mr. Thayer. If the former, I shall be glad to have the

Dear Sir:

Your letter of 11th Inst came to hand to day.

We did not understand that the Executive Committee had the sole authority in a case of this kind.

Beides even if we had known this as Messrs Austin & Sweeney represented that they had authority to settle this Quit, we could hardly have questioned their right. knowing as we did the position the gentlemen occupy both in and out of the University,

We have performed legal services for the University several times at the instance of Mr Rogers without knowing whether he had authority and as the fees were promptly paid we supposed his acts were ratified. And of course we supposed the acts of these gentlemen Devany & Hunter would be perfectly satisfactory, likewise.

It was late Saturday afternoon when they instructed us to compromise and said it must be done at once as Mr Clay was going to take Depositions unless the matter was arranged.

Further the gentlemen still claim they had the authority to settle this suit against Clay.

Mr McMILLAN employed Mr Russell Mann to represent him in his absence from home.

The Employment was temporary and Mr Mann so understood it, and Mr McMullan pays him out of his fee according to a well known custom of lawyers — charging no more than he would have charged if alone in the case.

Mr Mann says there is a mistake about his requesting additional counsel, and that he did not request it.

We have charge of Sunday Case & will push it.

We are very sorry there was any misunderstanding on the part of Sunny & Hunter as to their rights

Yours &c

Dear Sir,

The case of Sandusky is set for Friday (22nd).

His attorneys will try to criticize the case on the ground that Sandusky is sick and can not attend.

They want to know upon what terms you will compromise the suit,

Whether as Clays suit was settled, and if not, whether if they would pay balance of princ. costs and attys fees. You would compromise.

If you are unwilling to compromise perhaps you had better be in attendance tomorrow

Agreed to accept 500 + 50 + 695

Costs + attorney's fees (Paris)

50 = Judge fees

Dear Bro. — Your letter received some days ago. Will say in reply that my subscription to the Gymnasium was made on condition, that it should be completed by last Sept. and I was to take the money that I would pay for a membership down town, and give it to the one at the College. But it wasn't completed in Sept. and I took membership down in town, therefore I don't think you should hold me responsible for the subscription I made.

Dear Sir:

Replying to your favor Oct. 25th, I beg to say that the Capital Stock has been valued to $50,000., in accordance with the permission of the Comptroller of the Currency, by setting apart that amount out of the assets of the Bank to be collected and paid pro rata to the Shareholders.

Consequently, Kentucky University owns 10 shares in the Bank as it now exists, and will get her proportionate part for the other 10 shares out of the amount collected on the notes I have mentioned.

A new Bank was organized: the Charter of the old was merely extended for 20 years.

We should be obliged if you would send up the old Certificate, and we will issue a new one as above.

explain to you why I have not paid the note due.
The Church I am preaching for has paid enough

This because of the stringency of money matters.
I hoped all along they could collect up & this

Dear Sir:—

I have been working considerably on my lecture course & reading since my arrival here & so have not pressed my monograph on Higher Education in Ky to a final conclusion. I propose now however to begin putting it into final form & wish some further continuation of the kind cooperation you have already extended to me in the work. First in regard to Ky. University proper I would be pleased to know as early as convenient a few facts which I know I shall need to complete my article. I will indicate just what these are in the form of questions:—

- (1) When was Ky Univ. moved from Georgetown to Hannibalburg (I have seen it stated both 1839 & 1840)? Summer of 1839.
- (2) What important changes since 1878 when the separation from the A. M. College ^{occurred} ~~took place~~, have taken place (if any) in its plan of management, in its curriculum (including new departments), & in its ~~fundamental~~ buildings & apparatus (Education has been fully introduced has it not?)?

- (3) Have any important benefactions been received since those raised mainly by Mr. Burman & if so, from whom & for what special purpose; also what is the approximate total of the present property & funds?
- (4) What is the approximate total of the alumni of Ky. Univ (exclusive of those of Transylvania) & what would you specially mention that any of them has accomplished?
- (5) Would you designate any object as a special aim of the Univ. for the future?

I will also ask you to please give one corresponding answer to the last four questions, or kindly refer them to some member of its Faculty who will give the answer in reference to the College of the Bible. I would also like to know in regard to it just how its management is provided for as a separate institution associated with Ky. Univ, the courses it offers & the degrees it confers with their conditions, also its different presidential administrations since 1878 with any thing of special interest in each which you would mention.

I have secured very good photographs of the early Transylvania buildings from the Caldwell's Memoirs you kindly lent me & will soon return it with the other pamphlets sent me some time ago by President Lins. Thanking you for your very kind cooperation, I remain

Very sincerely yours,

A. F. Lewis.

Dear sir and friend:

I corresponded with my father about the matter of John Graham's subscription of Twenty Dollars toward the liquidation of the debt of the university, and he finally referred me to Bro. Graham himself. The latter said he was very sorry he had neglected to answer your communication, having fully intended to do so. It seems, from his statement, that he promised my father last fall to contribute Twenty Dollars toward the debt of K. U. Afterwards, he meditated upon the matter of the pitiable financial plight of our church here — having no building or lot and only being able to keep a minister through the help of State Missions — and determined that he ought to give all he could spare to the work here. So he wrote my father and considered

The matter ended. It must be that his letter to my father miscarried or that, in some way, he failed to cancel the pledge before handing the list to you.

My dear Sir and Bro.:— There is an error in the list of names which Bro. Cave left with you. I simply hold a number of notes, or pledges, which were made by various people when he spoke here. I have mentioned it from the pulpit; but, up to this date, I have received no response. I had begun to think that these parties had settled with the Faculty, or with Bro. Cave. Campbell, Wallace, Armstrong, Jennings, Jones, Jno. B., Maxey, Williamson & Graham. Let me in explanation say that I did not see Bro. Lloyd Davis, the new pastor at Paris, but spoke freely to Bro. Swerney and several other brethren. Bro. Simsley cheerfully agreed at first, but wrote to me since that some of the officers objected, but I am sure they will respond to a kind and earnest appeal. I think Mayfield will help also through the influence of their new pastor, Bro. Joe Serpance. The most cordial brethren at a distance are, I think, brethren Winder, Earls, Lloyd, Richmond, Harrison, Danville and McClintock, Shelbyville. I fully expected an average of over $100. from them, and arranged to visit them on Sunday as I did Lancaster & Mt. Sterling. I had great confidence in presenting the subject personally and arousing an interest in the churches. My judgment in the wisdom of the plan has constantly strengthened. If I can serve you let me do so at any time. With best wishes, I remain,

Yours very truly,
R. Linn. Gave.

7-21-00,

Dear Bro. White,

I have no recollection of giving Bro. Lane a subscription of $25⁰⁰.

He requested that sum of me and said that he hoped I would subscribe that amount when he made a call upon the South Eldham Church for help for the University. My recollection is that I replied, "I will give you something and will decide upon the amount when you make the call upon the church".

He never made the call upon the church.

Very truly,

John A. Phelps.
