Danville, Kentucky,

April 9th 1866-

John B. Bowman, Esq;
Dear Sir:

Yours of the 7th was duly received, containing the note for which I send a receipt enclosed. I today presented to S^r Dunlap the note due from him, & his immediate reply was - "I don't intend to pay it," - He further said, that at the time he gave the note he made a specific agreement with yourself that in case he left Kentucky - the note was to be void: that he had little or no property left him upon his departure from Kentucky - and was not even in a condition to pay it; that he would write to you probably concerning the matter, & requested me to inform you of these facts, which I hereby do. - Upon inquiry subsequent to your former letter, I understood that the real estate which he holds in town was his own property - The County Clerk today informed me that the deed was to his wife from the former proprietor - I know of no other property which he possesses save his personal property & ~~office furniture~~ - As he is practicing here, however, I should judge the debt could be made by garnishing some of his ~~debts~~ ^{debtors} if his personal property is insufficient - I await your direction from the knowledge of these facts -

I also presented H. Hamilton's note to him & his reply was, "I am unable to pay it;" stating further that you had agreed some time ago, when he was broken up, "to let the thing go" & he had supposed the note was laid aside - that he was now not in a condition to pay it - was making but little money (I shined judge from appearances his business was pretty fair.) & if he could make some money he would pay it. His property has been made over to his wife consisting of House & Lot. He is now engaged in the Grocery business as partner with another individual. So far as I can learn he conducts the business in his own name, though doubtless he would prove when levied on by execution, that he was merely the agent of his wife.

I regret to learn these facts - rather different from my first impressions - as they serve to show that the Spirit of Christianity is not always present where its form appears - Both men owe the notes, with interest, though neither seems willing to pay - I will await your further directions - - - - - Mason Talbot is conducting business as a Druggist at Stamford - whether his property belongs to himself, or wife, I am unable to say. He is doing a fine business I am informed. If you will send over his note, I will present it; if not paid, will ascertain his condition pecuniarily, & proceed further as you may suggest.

Apr 10

Very truly,

Samuel R. Smith

Dear Sir

Your letter of the 19th

Just is just received enclosing for collection one note on Ben J Perkins for one hundred dolls. dated Augst 31st 1858, one fifth of sd note payable twelve months after date and the residue in four equal annual installments thereafter.

One note on R. B. McKynolds for one hundred dollars dated August 31st 1866, one on Jas P. Billingsly for one hundred and fifty dollars dated Augst 30th 1858, and one on J. H. Billingsly for one hundred dollars dated Augst the 28th 1858. The ^{last} three payable on the same terms and conditions as to amounts and times of the first described note against Perkins -

B. J. Perkins and R. B. McKynolds are solvent - Jas. P. Billingsly is hopelessly insolvent badly broken about the condition of J. H. Billingsly are not advised will enquire. Sent to Mr Perkins office and demanded him on his note, refused to pay because of the removal of the Institution which I presume will be the excuse in each case. Shall I see those that are solvent? Very truly your friend J. H. Soley

Or Sir

Your favor of the 19th in closing fifteen notes on donors to Ky University came safely to hand. You say 20 notes, this is a mistake there were only fifteen. You enclosed to me the next day two other notes on the estates of deceased persons, in all 17 notes, all of which I have been handed over to Bro W. S. Frank for collection. Enclosed you will find Bro Frank's receipt for the same. Please make your charges against him in accordance with his receipt.

With kindest regards remain

Harrodsburg, Ky
March 14th 1867

Mr. Jno. B. Bowman

Dear Sir

I received your letter of the 11th containing the following notes for collection of money due the University.
L. H. Spillman's note of $180⁰⁰/₁₀₀ dated April 18th/63
H. Pasmoris " " $58⁰⁰/₁₀₀ " Sept 29th "
Herod Gore " " $250 " July 1st/62
I presented them to the respective parties, and they refused to pay them, stating as their reason, that the consideration upon which they were given had failed, that the University should be permanently located at Harrodsburg, and they even went so far as to invite me to sue Spillman, seemed to be surprised, and said that he would write to you about it, shall I go on, and bring suit? if so, you must send me a bond for costs, as it is required by law, or rather I will prepare one, and send it to you, when the suits are filed. I saw Ben Allen and Kyle and Leandrewell about the certificates of stock belonging to Ben C. Allen in Ky W, and they told me that you had the papers to that effect. Cardwell says that he lodged them with you, and that you promised to attend to it for him, and thus that matter stands. See to it, and write me what your recollection is upon this subject. The parties are urging me to collect the money, as soon as possible, and this is the reason why I am so anxious to have it done. I saw Chat Fairbank this morning and he told me to write you, that he would pay you, next week, the money collected for you, by him, Moberly & Fallis. How are you and all of your folks getting along? and especially your good lady: it would afford me great pleasure, I assure you, to see all of my university friends; I expect to be over there in June, as I was chosen to address the Alumni, and expect to fulfill my engagement so to do. What is Prof. Neville doing? Still an old bachelor? he ought to be hung, or compelled to support a wife for not taking care of one heretofore. Give my kindest regards to them all, and be sure to remember me to Miss Belle.

Yours &c

Geo. B. T. Davis

WILLIAM BALLINGER,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,

Office, Main St., over First National Bank.

Shoekuk, Iowa, Oct 21st 1867

Received of J. B. Bauman treasurer of Ky University a note upon Wm Thompson for one thousand dollars dated Dec. 3rd 1855 and with credits upon it to wit: - $500.
without date & one hundred and five dollars dated June 8th 1863 - for collection, and which shall be collected and the proceeds forwarded; or otherwise duly accounted for according to law

Wm Ballinger

Mr Bauman:-

Father has doubtless acquainted you with his interview with col- Thompson, and of course nothing but a suit at law will settle the controversy. The col- will not only contest your right to collect the residue of the note with its accrued int-but will demand return of the money already advanced.

The ensuing term of the District Court (which is the proper tribunal to adjudicate this matter) will be held next February so that ample time will be given for the thorough preparation of the case.

I will have the best counsel obtainable associated with me, and will ~~shortly~~ apprise you of what we may require in the way of documents &c. Of course you will send whatever you may regard as material in the cause.

I take this occasion to express my obligation to Ky university for a very prosperous term with you, and to thank its Regent, President & Faculty that they were kind enough to consider me a faithful student and desire my return to the college.

I feel a pride in Ky university and now that I am just entering upon my Professional career it may be that occasion will present itself for promoting its success and if so, you shall have the endeavors of your pupil to that end - very truly
