Dear sir, Yours recd and in explanation, state, my subscription & note was given to J B Bonman on special condition, that I would pay it if able to do so, was then under a heavy debt which have never yet been able to discharge & the $285⁰⁰ pd on the note was pd in Furniture & ought not to have been paid in justice to myself and family. J B B. knew all the circumstances in the case & hence when he instituted suit on several sub-notes here, he paped me - my heart and sympathy are still in & for the institution & it would afford me great pleasure to settle the $215⁰⁰ but am not yet able. I have never lost sight of it & at the earliest day that I am able will with pleasure take it in. but cannot as yet release the conditions on which the note was given.

Respectfully yours John A Dickinson
