Prof Henry H White
Dear sir I see there is a note fallen into your hands given by me to John Bourman And I find it in the hands of an officer for collection I only have to say when I gave that note I had the means to pay that note & intended to pay it but I am sorry to say that things have changed my property was then, is now in the hands of others I was sued and I gave up my property to be sold and it was sold and did not bring by thirteen hundred dollars of Executions remaining against me to day yet I wrote to Brother Bourman & asked him to please give me my ^{note} back he told me he could not but said it should never come against me The sheriff gave my wife one thousand dollars and we bought five acres of gov ground built a house where we are to day I am now nearly 68 years old And am afflicted from Rheumatism for two years And I am not able to pay that note and ask you if it is possible give it back to me
