The 1991 edition of Kentucky Football is a source of information for the media covering the Wildcats this fall. Additional information is available upon request, including press releases, photographs, film clips and slides. Contact the UK Sports Communications Office at (606) 257-3838 for additional needs. Please take a moment to review pages two and three of this publication to help answer any questions regarding media services and policies.

GAME SERVICES

PRESS BOX

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is for working media only. It is located on the west side (Alumni Drive) of the stadium between the upper and lower decks. Entrance to Commonwealth Stadium by the media should be made at Gate 7 (media gate). Two elevators serve the press box and are located just inside Gate 7. Each seat on press row is equipped with a power outlet and has access to a telephone jack. The photo deck, which is located just below the press box, is accessible via the press box elevators. Radio and coaches booths are located on the press box level. Admittance to the press box is by credentials only.

PRESS CREDENTIALS

Credentials for working media and photographers for Kentucky's home games against Miami, Kent, Ole Miss, LSU, Cinncinnati and Tennessee will be handled by Joey Howard, Associate Sports Information Director.

Requests for press credentials – season or single game – should be submitted in writing by sports editors or sports directors of accredited media outlets on company letterhead. Requests for season passes should be submitted by Aug. 18. Requests for single games should arrive at the UK Sports Information Office one week in advance.

The University of Kentucky follows the guidelines set forth by the NCAA and the Southeastern Conference in governing the issuance of credentials.

Season credentials will only be granted to daily newspapers and television/radio stations which cover UK Football on a regular basis – weekly press conferences and all home games. Otherwise, television/radio stations and weekly newspapers will be granted credentials on a single-game, space-available basis.

All credential requests should be sent to: Joey Howard, Associate Sports Information Director, UK SID Office, Memorial Coliseum, Lexington, KY 40506.

Admission to the Commonwealth Stadium sidelines is by combination photo pass and an armband. Photographers must present their own credential at the Media Will Call table at Gate 7 to obtain an armband.

MEDIA WILL CALL

Press or photo credentials which have not been mailed can be obtained at the Media Will Call table located at Gate 7 on the west side (Alumni Drive) of Commonwealth Stadium. Media Will Call will open approximately two hours before kickoff and close 15 minutes after kickoff. Armbands and flip cards for photographers will also be available at the Media Will Call table.

TELEPHONES

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is equipped with eight courtesy telephones with long-distance capabilities for use by the media on a first-come, first-served basis. The UK Sports Communications Office strongly suggests each media outlet with deadline restrictions to order their personal phone lines. Members of the media can order phone lines by calling John Fuller of the UK Phone Services – (606) 257-7727 – at least one week prior to the game.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking at Comonwealth Stadium is available on a limited basis. Requests for parking should be made when submitting press and/or photo credentials. The media parking area is located in the Blue Lot just behind the west side (Alumni Drive) of Commonwealth Stadium. The Blue Lot is accessible via Alumni Drive. Please use Tates Creek or Nicholasville Roads to gain access to Alumni Drive.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

UK head coach Bill Curry will conduct his postgame press conference in the Wildcat Den which is located in the football office complex under the east side of Commonwealth Stadium. Curry will begin his postgame conference approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the contest. The media entrance to the Wildcat Den will be in the Northeast corner of Commonwealth Stadium (closest to flagpole).

The Kentucky locker room will be CLOSED to all members of the media. The UK SID staff will bring 1 or 2 players to the Wildcat Den at the conclusion of the Curry conference. Then following a 25-minute cooling off period which begins at the game's conclusion, requested players will be brought to the Wildcat Den for interviews.

Interview cards will be distributed in the press box during the second half to allow media members to request which UK players are needed for interviews.

The visitor locker room is located at the Northwest corner of Commonwealth Stadium. A press conference area is located just outside the visiting locker room entrance. The visiting coach will conduct his postgame conference from that location.

PRESS SERVICES

The UK Sports Communications Office will provide a complete pregame packet (including fact sheets, flip card and game program) approximately 30 minutes prior to kickoff. During the contest, UK will provide a complete play-by-play and statistical report of the game. Quotes from both coaches and UK players will also be available. The UK Photo Services provides a game Photo Packet which is delivered to the press box late in the fourth quarter. Each packet will be available to those requesting the service and contains 5-7 photos of the game. This service is offered by John Mitchell and the UK Photo Services in cooperation with the UK Sports Information Office.

Telecopier (FAX) service is also available. Contact Joey Howard when requesting telecopier service.

DARKROOM FACILITIES

Limited darkroom facilities are available in the Commonwealth Stadium press box. Photographers wanting to use the darkroom facilities should make arrangements through the UK Sports Information Office.

VISITING RADIO

The official visiting radio broadcast network should be designated in writing by the visiting team's Sports Information Director or Athletics Director. Three phone lines will be made available in the visiting broadcast booth at a cost of $65 per line, unless a prior agreement has been arranged through Ben Osborne of Host Communications – (606) 253-3230.

Those networks needing to install additional phone lines, either in the press box or locker room area, can do so by contacting John Fuller of the UK Phone Services at (606) 257-7727.

DAILY/WEEKLY SERVICES

CURRY TUESDAY PRESS CONFERENCE

UK head football coach Bill Curry will conduct his weekly press conferences every Tuesday of game week in the Wildcat Den. The Tuesday press conferences will start on Sept. 3.

The opposing coach, in most cases, will be available via a phone hook-up.

At least five players will be in attendance each Tuesday for interviews. If you would like to request a particular player, please contact the UK Sports Information Office by 5 p.m. ET on Monday.

Please check with Joey Howard (606) 257-3838 for times.

CURRY SUNDAY TELECONFERENCE

Bill Curry will conduct a 20-minute press conference via telephone hook-up from the Wildcat Den each Sunday following a game. Please contact the UK Sports Information Office for further information if you would like to take part in the teleconference.

Radio sportscasters should note the phone hook-up is broadcast quality.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE SERVICES

The Southeastern Conference Communications Office, headed by Director Mark Whitworth, offers a variety of services to the media during the year.

UK head coach Bill Curry is available each Wednesday on the SEC Coaches Teleconference for a 10-minute period. Video highlights and interviews of each SEC school is available via satellite feed also each Wednesday morning. Another service is a 24-hour bulletin board which the media can access over the phone by computer. The bulletin board contains notes, statistics, rosters and depth charts of each Southeastern Conference school and is updated each week.

For further information on these services, contact Mark Whitworth of the SEC Office at (205) 985-3690 or Joey Howard of the UK SID Office at (606) 257-3838.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews must be coordinated through the UK Sports Communications Office. Players are available ONLY during the lunch hour and after practice at the Shively Sports Complex.

The UK Sports Communications Office will make every effort to arrange telephone interviews when necessary. Player telephone numbers are not given out, and players are instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted by telephone. The procedure UK follows is for the players to contact media members at a pre-arranged time.

Player interviews are allowed beginning on Monday and must be completed by Wednesday evening on game weeks.

The Kirwan I dormitory, the Donovan Hall dining area, team locker rooms and the training room are considered private team areas. These areas are OFF-LIMITS to the media unless accompanied by UK SID personnel.

FOOTBALL PRACTICE

Kentucky football practices are generally open to the media. If you wish to attend practice, however, it is MANDITORY to pick up a practice credential. Contact Joey Howard at the UK Sports Information Office to request practice credentials. Practices usually begin at 3:30 pm ET.

Kentucky on the Air

WHEN TALK ARISES ABOUT SPORTS IN THE COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY, CHANCES ARE THE TALK SURROUNDS THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY WILDCATS.

The University of Kentucky will again package one of the most comprehensive radio and television networks among Division 1-A institutions. Both radio and television networks will blanket the Commonwealth and touch much of the nation.

Sports Communications, Inc., which owns the radio rights for UK football and basketball, expects to compile a radio network with over 90 radio stations. WVLK-AM/FM of Lexington will once again serve as the flagship station for the UK Football Radio Network. The feature attraction of the network is clear-channel WHAS (840 AM) of Louisville. WHAS, a 50,000-watt radio station, blankets over two-thirds of the United States and can be heard in 40 states.

The UK Football Television Network features full-game, tape-delay action of all Wildcats home football games. The Network is also one of the nation's largest and serves approximately 14 markets in and around the Commonwealth. Sports Communications, Inc., administers the network with WKYT-TV of Lexington as the telecast's producer.

In the radio booth, Cawood Ledford enters his 39th and final season as the play-by-play voice of the Wildcats. Ledford will be teammed with Ralph Hacker on road games and non-UKTV televised games. Dave Baker, who joined the UK Radio Network in 1989, handles the color commentary for the remaining balance of home games. Dick Gabriel returns as sideline reporter and Tom Divine begins his 11th season as technical director.

For UK Television Network games, Hacker calls the play-by-play action with former UK All-American Sam Ball providing the color and Rob Bromley serving as sideline reporter.

CAWOOD LEDFORD

Now in his 39th season of broadcasting Wildcats games, Cawood Ledford is truly a legend in the Commonwealth. In many drug stores and barber shops across the state, conversations usually begin with "Well, Cawood said last night..."

In June, Ledford announced the 1991 football and 1991-92 basketball seasons would be his last behind the microphone.

The Harlan County native (actually Cawood, Ky.) has been named Kentucky's Sportscaster of the Year on 20 occasions. He is president of his own Lexington-based company - Cawood Ledford Productions - and has produced many award-winning radio and television sports programs.

His brisk, informative style in calling Kentucky football and basketball action led to his induction into the Kentucky Journalism Hall of Fame.

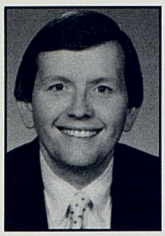

RALPH HACKER

Ralph Hacker will serve as color commentator on radio and call the play-by-play on UKTV this fall for the Wildcats.

Hacker, president and general manager of radio station WVLK in Lexington, is in his 20th season on the UK Networks. Besides his actual game commentary, Hacker also conducts the pregame, halftime and postgame radio shows in both football and basketball.

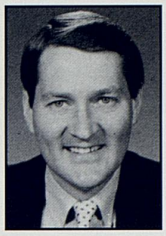

In addition to his UK Network duties, Hacker has ventured into network television during the past seven years. He has called football and basketball games for Jefferson-Pilot, ESPN, the NCAA, and CBS.

DAVE BAKER

Dave Baker, a native of Franklin, Ohio, joins the UK Radio Network for color commentary on most Wildcats home games. He is in his 3rd season on the UK Network.

Baker became a sports reporter for WKYT-TV in 1982 following his graduation from Georgetown College. He was named weekend anchor in 1984 and was instrumental in the founding of WKYT's Sports Spectrum show on Saturday nights. That particular show was named best sports program in Kentucky by the Associated Press in 1988 and 1989.

ROB BROMLEY

Rob Bromley begins his 12th year on the UK Television Network and will continue to serve as producer of the Bill Curry TV Show again this fall.

Bromley has served as sports anchor at WKYT-TV since 1980. He is a graduate of Butler University in Indianapolis and worked as a sports anchor in Lima, Ohio, prior to joining the WKYT-TV staff in 1977.

Bromley will conduct pregame and halftime interviews from the sideline on the UK Television Network during the 1991 football season.

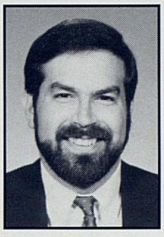

SAM BALL

Sam Ball begins his 1st season on the UK Television Network as color commentator.

Ball, a former All-American at Kentucky, lettered three years (1963-65) as offensive tackle under Coach Charlie Bradshaw. He was named first team All-American by United Press International, Football Writers of America and the Sporting News in 1965. He was a 1st-round draft choice of the Baltimore Colts. He spent five years with the Colts and was a teammate of UK Coach Bill Curry.

Last August, Ball was one of 12 former players to have his jersey (No. 73) retired by the University of Kentucky. His son, Shane, is currently a player on the 1991 Wildcats squad.

DICK GABRIEL

Dick Gabriel enters his 3rd year with the UK Radio Network and will again serve as sideline reporter.

Gabriel, a 1978 graduate of Kentucky, has spent the last five years as sports manager for WKYT-TV. He came to Lexington from Dallas, Texas, where he was executive producer of Host Communications Southwest Conference Football Radio Network.

As a student at UK, Gabriel was named the Outstanding Journalism Graduate in 1978. He called play-by-play for Wildcats football and basketball games on student-station WBKY radio and served as sports editor for the Kentucky Kernel, UK's student newspaper. Following graduation, he served as sports director for WVLK AM/FM in Lexington.

1991 outlook

LOOK TO ATTITUDE AND TOUGHNESS AS KEY IN '91

Attitude and toughness. Toughness and Attitude.

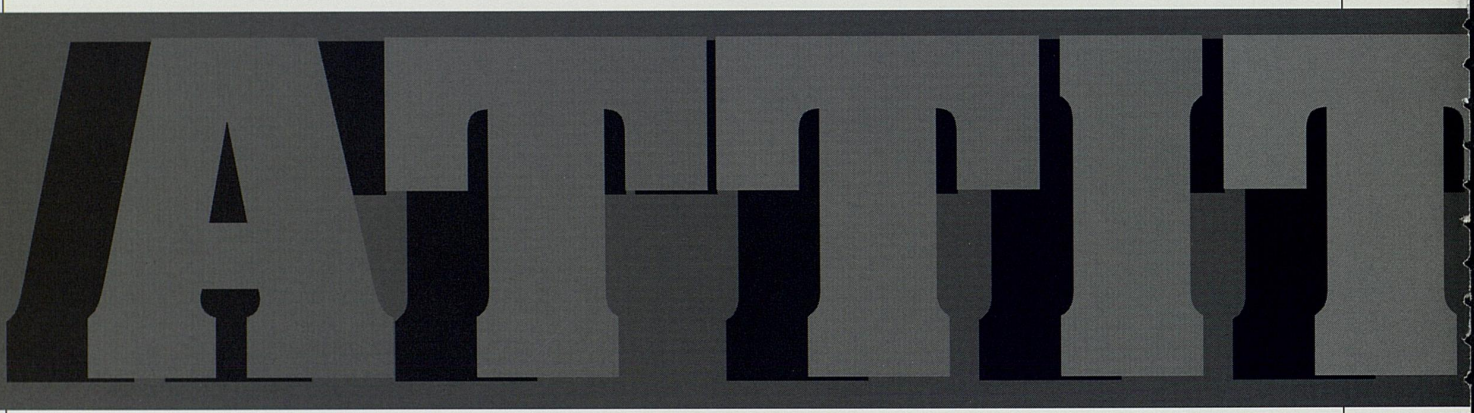

Either way, Coach Bill Curry must confirm those two elements exist in his 1991 Kentucky Wildcats.

"Alot of things have to happen for us to compete for the Southeastern Conference title and we expect them to happen," Curry says. "This team has to be all of what I believe it is in terms of attitude and toughness. This team must fulfill my belief in them."

As simple as it sounds, the '91 storyline is attitude and toughness.

Kentucky does return 44 lettermen, including 14 starters, from its 4-7 squad a year ago. A year in the Curry system will be a huge advantage for the returnees, an advantage last season's squad never had. Advantages or not, the Wildcats did manage to place fifth in the final Southeastern Conference standings — UK's highest finish since 1984 — with a 3-4 mark but lost standouts such as linebacker Randy Holleran and tailback Al Baker via graduation.

"On the surface, you'd look at us and say Kentucky is not as good this year because there is no (Randy) Holleran or (Al) Baker," Curry said.

"That's wrong. You can't measure the heart of a team with a stopwatch or a set of scales."

Curry thinks the difference between his first and second Wildcats squad will be those elements — attitude and toughness.

"We will be more aggressive," said Curry. "We'll be tougher, physically and mentally tougher. It was obvious in the spring. If you just watched the spring game of '90 and came back for the game this past spring, the thing which would stick out would be blow delivery — pure 'ol smash 'em."

But Curry, who is 61-60-4 in 11 seasons as a collegiate coach, knows his Kentucky squad has to improve in several key areas to seriously challenge for the SEC crown.

"For starters, our coaching staff has to do a great job this year," Curry said. "The defense against the run and the deep ball must improve drastically. Special teams play must improve drastically. And, at least one quarterback is gonna have to grab the bull by the horns and become a leader."

Five returning players make up the UK quarterback derby. Senior Freddie Maggard, juniors Brad Smith and Ryan Hockman, and redshirt freshmen Pookie Jones and Mike Kinney are all capable of leading the pro-multiple Kentucky offense.

Maggard (6-2, 215) begins the fall as the No. 1, based on his depth chart position at the time of a shoulder injury last year. He didn't get a chance to compete for the starting spot in the spring. His '91 spring drills consisted of rehabilitation for a surgically-repaired rotator cuff.

Maggard has the most experience of the five — 18 starts under his belt — and is ranked seventh on the Wildcats career list for passing with 2,566 yards and 12 touchdowns. His injury, which occurred against North Carolina, limited the Cumberland native to just nine games last fall. Maggard managed to complete 109 of 188 passes for 1,051 yards and six touchdowns.

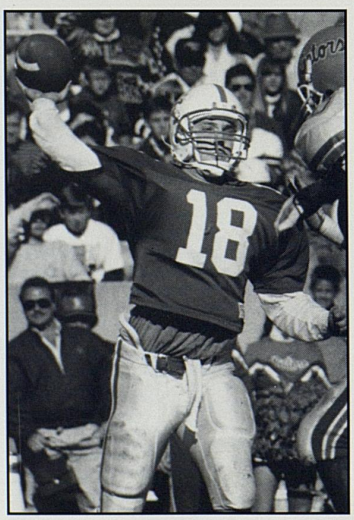

Behind Maggard is a deadlock at No. 2 with Smith, Hockman, and Jones. After 15 days of spring ball, no one emerged as a clear-cut starting quarterback.

Smith (6-3, 202) started four games in Maggard's absence in 1990. He was 2-2 as a starter before a season-ending knee injury sidelined him late against Georgia. In all, Smith hit 80 of 156 passes for 796 yards and five touchdowns. His spring stats were the most impressive of any UK signal-caller — 26 of 33 passing for 271 yards and three TDs.

Hockman (6-2, 192) made the most of his two backup appearances last fall. Against Florida and Tennessee, he completed 25 of 42 passes for 277 yards and two touchdowns.

Though still yet to take a varsity snap in a contest, Jones (6-1, 192) is the most talented of the quarterbacks. His mobility and arm strength are added pluses to the UK passing game. Consistency and experience may be the only things keeping this former "Mr. Kentucky" from the No. 1 spot.

And Kinney (6-3, 205), who is just a notch behind at No. 3, is a pure drop-back passer. An inconsistent spring slipped him just below the trio of Smith, Hockman, and Jones.

Freddie Maggard enters the fall as UK's No. 1 quarterback.

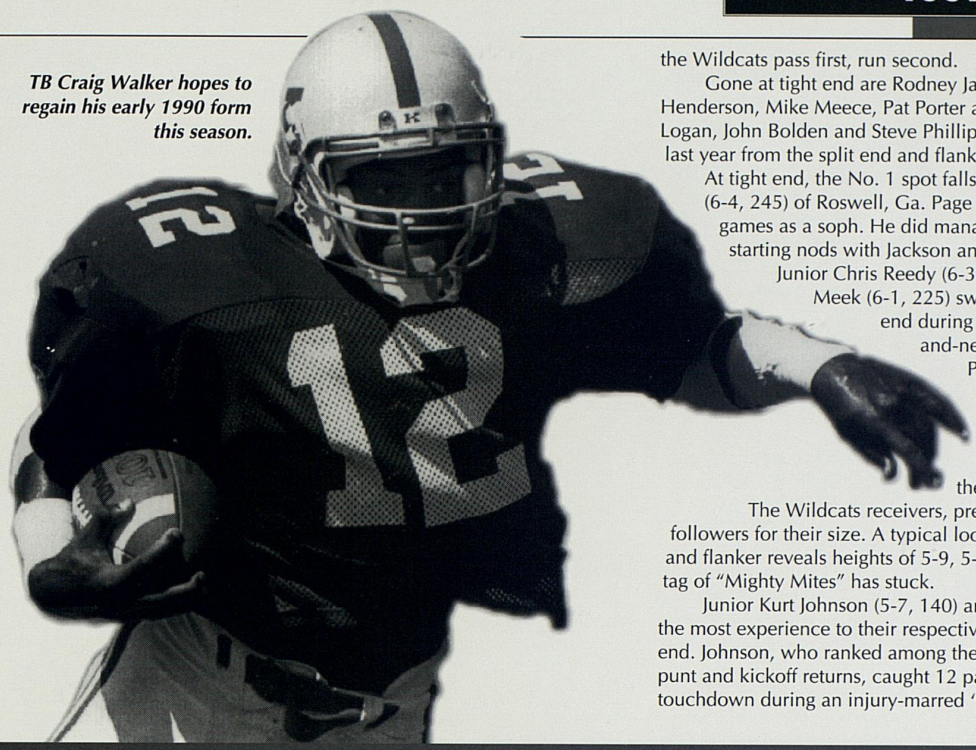

"I don't care which one of them is our starting quarterback," Curry says, "but one of them has to step forward."

One clear-cut starting spot in the UK offensive backfield is at fullback, a place where multi-talented sophomore Terry Samuels (6-2, 240) resides. His surge midway through the '90 season allowed Curry to send Baker from fullback to tailback and create a potent one-two punch with Samuels.

"Terry brings great enthusiasm, strength and intensity into our offense," Curry said. "He's a highly intelligent person and can do so many things with the football."

Samuels proved his switch from tight end to fullback two springs ago was a productive one. Last season, Samuels rushed for 325 yards (4.5 avg.) and caught 34 passes for 223 stripes and two touchdowns. He was named to the Knoxville NEWS-SENTINEL All-SEC Freshman team as a starter in six games.

Behind Samuels is junior Tim Harris (5-10, 190), who moved to fullback from tailback in the spring.

TB Craig Walker hopes to regain his early 1990 form this season.

UDE8

Harris gained 13 yards in just two contests last fall before a hamstring injury ended his season. Senior walkon Dale See (5-6, 227) is listed at No. 3.

Finding an adequate replacement for Baker, who earned All-SEC second team accolades in 1990, is the top priority at tailback for Curry. The list of candidates — senior Mike Thomas, junior Craig Walker, and redshirt freshmen Clyde Rudolph and Donnie Redd — have been plagued by injuries or have little or no game experience.

Thomas (5-11, 205) missed spring drills with a stomach disorder. Various ailments, including a knee sprain, limited him to just seven games and 124 yards rushing last year. Walker (5-10, 201) was bothered by an ankle injury after gaining 195 yards (3.3 avg.) in four starts in '90. His best effort was 90 yards rushing in UK's 20-17 victory over Central Michigan.

Both Rudolph (5-7, 166) and Redd (5-7, 165) are promising speedsters but have no game experience. Rudolph, who doubled in track during the spring, gained 57 yards on 11 carries in the Bank One Blue-White game. It was his only major scrimmage of the spring due to his track commitment. Redd led all UK runners in the three spring scrimmages with 169 yards (4.3 avg.) and two touchdowns.

New offensive coordinator Rick Rhoades, who inherited those duties when Tommy Bowden left for Auburn last December, has another concern in the area of receiving when it comes to lack of game experience. And rightfully so, since Kentucky lost five tight ends and three receivers due to graduation. Those numbers are strong when considering the Wildcats pass first, run second.

Gone at tight end are Rodney Jackson, an All-SEC performer, Bobby Henderson, Mike Meece, Pat Porter and Scott Rayburn. Also gone are Phil Logan, John Bolden and Steve Phillips who combined for 56 receptions last year from the split end and flanker spots.

At tight end, the No. 1 spot falls on the shoulders of junior Neil Page (6-4, 245) of Roswell, Ga. Page caught 11 passes for 65 yards in 10 games as a soph. He did manage two starts last season, sharing starting nods with Jackson and Henderson.

Junior Chris Reedy (6-3, 240) and redshirt freshman Omri Meek (6-1, 225) switched from other positions to tight end during the spring. Both enter the fall neck-and-neck in the battle for No. 2 behind Page. Reedy, who moved from offensive guard, was used primarily as a long-snapper in 1990. Meek sat out last season as a redshirt and originally lined up at strike (OLB) on the Wildcats defensive unit.

The Wildcats receivers, presently, are best known to UK followers for their size. A typical look down the depth charts at split end and flanker reveals heights of 5-9, 5-8, 5-9, 5-7, 5-9, and 5-10. Thus, the tag of "Mighty Mites" has stuck.

Junior Kurt Johnson (5-7, 140) and senior Neal Clark (5-9, 170) bring the most experience to their respective starting spots at flanker and split end. Johnson, who ranked among the nation's Top 15 two seasons ago in punt and kickoff returns, caught 12 passes for 114 yards and one touchdown during an injury-marred '90 campaign. Clark came to UK as a walkon, earned a scholarship, and made 8 receptions for 110 yards last season. His most noise came on special teams with a team-high 18 tackles.

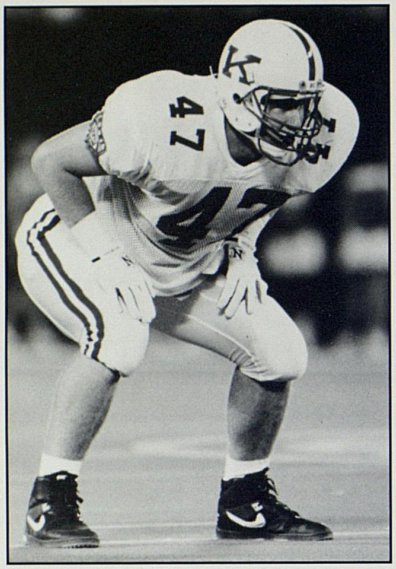

Behind Johnson are sophomores Troy Hobbs (5-9, 130) and Scott Gilley (5-10, 185). Another soph, Brian Evans (6-0, 175), will be lost until October due to a knee injury during spring drills. Evans caught five passes for 74 yards last year and has the only practical game experience of the receiving corps besides Johnson and Clark.

At split end, walkons Mark Chatmon (5-8, 155) and Tim Calvert (5-9, 160) are coming off excellent springs. Chatmon led UK in receiving in the spring scrimmages with nine catches for 130 yards (14.4 avg.) and two touchdowns. Calvert had four receptions for 44 yards and 1 TD.

An area Rhoades is not as concerned about is up front. Four of five starters return in the Wildcats offensive trenches as only All-SEC guard Joel Mazzella is gone. This group primarily was responsible for Kentucky becoming an offensive force down the stretch. In fact, UK averaged 372 yards per game in its final six contests of 1990.

Tackles Greg Lahr (6-5, 290) and Chuck Bradley (6-5, 290), both preseason All-SEC selections, left guard Todd Perry (6-5, 280) and center Matt Branum (6-2, 267) started no fewer than 10 games each, last season.

Lahr, elected offensive team captain for the upcoming season, missed spring drills because of a thigh injury (puncture wound). He'll return at 100 percent when camp opens in August and move from left to right tackle. Bradley, who started 11 games at right tackle in '90, moved to the

Perry, according to Curry, had the most consistent spring of all UK offensive linemen. And Branum was voted the squad's Most Improved Offensive Lineman following April drills.

The biggest question mark is the void left by Mazzella at right guard. Junior Jody Matthews (6-0, 255) moved from nose guard/defensive tackle in the spring. Sophomore Wesley Jackson (6-3, 265) and redshirt freshman Shane King (6-3, 300) were switched from tackle to right guard. Matthews will enter the fall at No. 1, but Jackson and King are close behind. Another candidate, junior Travis Hahn (6-3, 260), could challenge. Hahn missed all of the spring with a back injury but should return in August. His versatility allows him to play all five offensive line positions.

Other promising players among the UK offensive wall include redshirt freshman Mark Askin (6-5, 285) at right tackle, Alabama-transfer Chip Garner (6-1, 255) at center, soph David Parks (6-2, 257) at right guard, former defensive end Eugene McClellan (6-3, 273) at right tackle, and junior T.J. Maynard (6-4, 260) at left tackle.

Defensively, Curry has cited needed improvement against the run and deep ball. In 1990, Kentucky allowed 187 yards rushing per game and gave up 18 touchdown passes.

Senior Joey Couch (6-1, 250) can help the Wildcats efforts against the run at nose guard. Couch, elected defensive team captain, returns to his regular post in the middle where he has 22 consecutive starts. Last season, he made 84 tackles, recorded a team-high six sacks, and blocked two kicks.

Junior Jon Collins (5-10, 245), sophomore Barry Rich (6-1, 260), redshirt freshman John Merkle (6-3, 258) and soph Jon Lawson (6-0, 230) should provide relief at nose guard. Collins has the most experience and had 23 tackles and 1 sack in '90.

Jerry Bell (6-3, 275), a senior from Louisville, can be the stabilizing force on the front wall if he remains healthy. He did in the spring and was voted the Most Improved Defensive Lineman during the drills. Neck and shoulder problems limited him to nine games and 29 tackles a year ago. In 1989, Bell was healthy and tallied 88 hits, one sack and four TFLs.

Redshirt freshmen Damon Betz (6-4, 275) and Robert Stinson (6-4, 260), along with junior Brad Shuford (6-3, 270), are battling for the No. 2 slot. Shuford has the edge in varsity action with 14 tackles in three starts last year.

Junior Dean Wells (6-3, 234) and senior Derrick Thomas (6-2, 233) are the bookends to UK's multiple defensive front. Wells made 68 tackles and 2 sacks while starting 10 games at strike (strongside OLB) last fall. He led the team with 17 QB pressures. Thomas was busy recording 47 stops and one sack at defensive end. He drew 11 starting assignments and did make one interception, that in the season-finale against Tennessee.

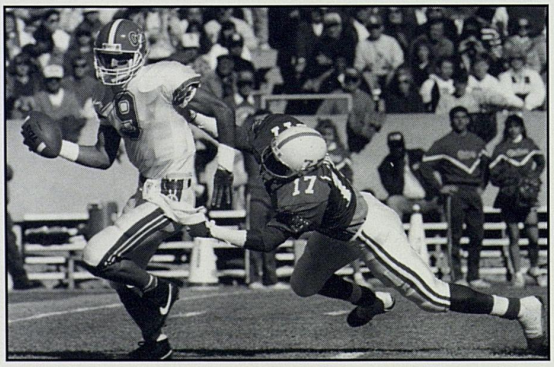

Sophomore Zane Beehn (6-4, 235) is an up-and-coming defensive standout behind Wells. In '90 as a true freshman, Beehn had 26 stops at strike and another seven on special teams. Redshirt freshmen Roger Sullivan (6-3, 232) and Mickey Webster (6-2, 215) follow at No. 3 and 4.

Senior Jim Graves (6-6, 245) picked up his first varsity letter as a backup at end and strike last year. He'll begin this August as No. 2 end. Graves had 15 tackles and one sack in 10 games as a junior. Another promising prospect at end is redshirt freshman Aaron Purdie (6-4, 250). Purdie will enter fall at No. 3.

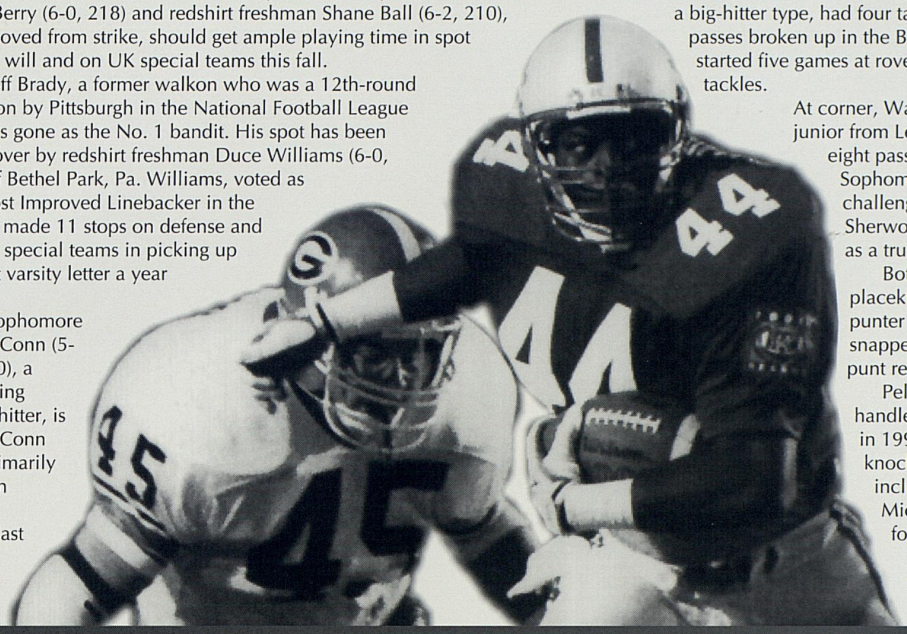

Inside linebackers, Randy Holleran (mike) and Billy Swanson (will), combined for 267 tackles last fall and have graduated. Sophomore Marty Moore (6-1, 234) and junior Reggie Smith (6-3, 223) earned the right to replace Holleran and Swanson during the spring at mike and will linebacker, respectively.

Moore played in nine games as a redshirt freshman. He made 15 tackles on defense and another eight on special teams. His career-high of six stops came against Florida. Smith, who has added 20 pounds to his frame, chalked up 22 hits in 11 games last fall. His special teams play also produced eight tackles.

James "Stink-Rat" Simpson (6-1, 240), a redshirt freshman from Louisville, is listed at No. 2 behind Moore. Another Louisville product, sophomore Sean Smith (5-11, 220), is No. 3.

Larry Jackson was credited with 3 sacks in just 5 starts at Rover last fall.

LINESS

Sophomore Ken Johnson (5-11, 205) made the most of his switch from bandit to will during the spring. Johnson changed positions mid-way through the drills and won the No. 2 spot on the depth chart. Walkon Steve Berry (6-0, 218) and redshirt freshman Shane Ball (6-2, 210), who moved from strike, should get ample playing time in spot duty at will and on UK special teams this fall.

Jeff Brady, a former walkon who was a 12th-round selection by Pittsburgh in the National Football League Draft, is gone as the No. 1 bandit. His spot has been taken over by redshirt freshman Duce Williams (6-0, 200) of Bethel Park, Pa. Williams, voted as the Most Improved Linebacker in the spring, made 11 stops on defense and five on special teams in picking up his first varsity letter a year ago.

Sophomore Darryl Conn (5-11, 200), a promising heavy-hitter, is No. 2. Conn was primarily used on special teams last season and made 14 stops, second only to Clark's 18.

Over at rover, senior Larry Jackson (5-11, 192) and sophomore Bill Campbell (5-10, 175) make a solid one-two combination. Jackson, who had a perfect 4.0 GPA last spring and is married, started five games in 1990. He was credited with 17 stops, including three sacks. Campbell played in all 11 games and got his first varsity start against Tennessee. He finished with 22 tackles, including a career-high nine vs. Florida.

Defensive backfield Coach Rick Smith returns five of his top six secondary players the Wildcats used last fall. All three starters are back — Gary Willis (6-1, 180) at hit, Brad Armstead (6-0, 185) at safety, and Sterling Ward (5-11, 175) at corner — from a unit which allowed 190.3 yards passing per game just 12 months ago. Only four-year regular Chris Tolbert is missing.

Willis, a senior from Gainesville, Fla., played all three backfield positions last fall which included nine starts at hit and one at free safety. He ended his junior season with 42 tackles and a team-high 13 passes broken up. Behind Willis is sophomore Don Robinson (6-1, 180), another player who juggled football and track during the spring. Robinson made 10 stops in nine games as a true freshman last year.

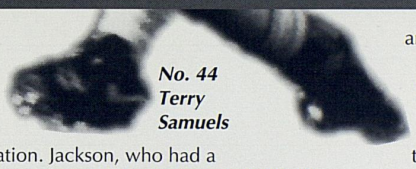

Armstead, a junior from Henderson, made 10 starts as a soph. He was fourth on the team in tackles (83) and third in passes broken up (4). In the last two seasons, he owns 15 starts. Armstead warded off a serious challenge from redshirt freshman Melvin Johnson (5-11, 184) and former rover Salim Shahid (6-3, 189) in the spring to remain No. 1. Johnson, a big-hitter type, had four tackles, one fumble recovery and two passes broken up in the Bank One Blue-White game. Shahid started five games at rover last season and ended with 23 tackles.

At corner, Ward started all 11 games a year ago. The junior from Lexington made 70 tackles and broke up eight passes from his corner spot last season. Sophomore Adrian Sherwood (5-11, 175) will challenge Ward in August for the No. 1 spot. Sherwood had 14 tackles and one interception as a true freshman.

Both specialists return in 1991 — placekicker Doug Pelfrey (5-11, 178) and punter Bill Hawk (6-0, 190). Gone are long-snapper Dean Wilks, holder Steve Phillips, and punt returner Chris Tolbert.

Pelfrey, who started at UK as a walkon, handled all placement duties for the Wildcats in 1990. He made 24 of 25 PATs and knocked in 10 of 16 field goal attempts, including game-winners vs. Central Michigan and Georgia. Pelfrey is a right-footed, soccer-style kicker.

Junior Don Rubin (5-9, 185) and walkon Brent Claiborne (5-9, 166) are ample backups to Pelfrey.

No. 44 Terry Samuels

Hawk averaged 40.3 yards per punt last year, landing 10 inside the opponents' 20 yardline. His best outing came in the finale against Tennessee, averaging 49.8 yards on five punts. Currently, Hawk is eighth on the UK list in career punting with a 38.8 average on 131 punts.

Reedy, who handled all long snaps for UK in three games last year, will return to full-time duty this fall. Rover Travis Powers (5-11, 185) and quarterbacks Ryan Hockman and Pookie Jones will get a look at holder.

Kurt Johnson should continue to handle punt and kickoff returns. Last year, Johnson averaged 4.4 yards on just seven punts and 22.1 yards on 13 kickoff returns.

Curry's biggest concern on special teams is coverage units. The Wildcats allowed three touchdowns on kick returns last season, including two in one game (Georgia).

Though this '91 Wildcats squad does have holes to fill, Curry holds back no feelings about the prospects of this team.

"The Kentucky fans are gonna love this team," Curry says. "That's all I can tell you. We're gonna fly around. We're never going to be out of a game.

"The biggest part in a sport like football is in the area of focus, the mental preparation, and the toughness factor."

And that's where Curry hopes his squad will excel — attitude and toughness.

RIAZZI LEADS WHITES TO 26-16 WIN IN BANK ONE BLUE-WHITE GAME

Sophomore tailback Matt Riazzi scored two touchdowns, one on a 57-yard punt return, to lead the White team to a 26-16 victory over the Blue in the 4th-annual Bank One Blue-White Game at Commonwealth Stadium on April 20.

Riazzi, a walkon from Kettering, Ohio, rushed for a game-high 61 yards on seven carries. He scored on a 33-yard run around right end to give the Whites a 23-9 lead with just over 11 minutes to play.

Individually, tailback Clyde Rudolph, a redshirt freshman from Pensacola, Fla., gained 57 yards on 11 carries for the Whites. Junior Ryan Hockman completed six of 10 passes for 55 yards and redshirt freshman Pookie Jones completed two of five tosses for 25 yards, both for the Whites.

For the Blue team, fullback Terry Samuels rushed for a team-high 42 yards on eight carries. Junior Brad Smith completed an impressive 14 of 15 passes for 160 yards and two touchdowns — a four-yard toss to Tim Calvert and a three-yard pass to Donnie Redd. Redshirt freshman Mike Kinney was good on two of four passes for 10 yards for the Blues.

CURRY ANNOUNCES CAPTAINS, SPRING AWARDS

Seniors Greg Lahr and Joey Couch were named permanent team captains for the 1991 University of Kentucky football squad, Coach Bill Curry announced on April 24.

Lahr, a 6-5, 290-pound offensive tackle from Pickerington, Ohio, has started 20 consecutive games at left tackle. He will be the offensive captain. Couch, a 6-1, 250-pound nose guard from Paintsville, recorded 84 tackles and a team-high six quarterback sacks last season. Couch will serve as defensive captain. Both have earned three varsity letters entering the 1991 campaign.

"We are very pleased to see the growth and development of leadership on this team," Curry said. "In leaders, our staff is looking for a consistent, powerful, positive presence. We have that in Greg and Joey."

This is the second consecutive year Curry has named captains prior to the completion of a football season. In 1990, the Wildcats elected quarterback Freddie Maggard and linebacker Randy Holleran as permanent team captains in mid-season.

Curry also handed out 13 various awards for outstanding performance during the '91 spring drills. The following are the award-winners:

1991 Kentucky Football Column Notes

Quarterbacks Freddie Maggard (top) and Brad Smith split starting assignments during the 1990 season.

Maggard Returns to No. 1

QB Freddie Maggard will begin fall drills as UK's No.1 quarterback on the depth chart, according to head coach Bill Curry...Maggard, who had started 15 consecutive games for UK before a shoulder injury sidelined him in the first half against North Carolina last fall, will be placed at No. 1 due to Curry's policy regarding injuries...All injured players have the opportunity to keep their status on the depth chart at the time each was injured...And since Maggard was unable to compete for the No. 1 job in the spring because of his shoulder rehabilitation, he will have that opportunity at the beginning of fall drills...Bracketed together at the No. 2 spot are three QBs — Brad Smith, Ryan Hockman, and Pookie Jones...Statistically, Smith had the better of that trio in three major spring scrimmages, completing 26 of 33 passes for 271 yards and 3 TDs...Smith also completed 14 of 15 passes for 160 yards and 2 TDs in the Bank One Blue-White game on April 20.

1990 Kentucky Opponents Have .535 Winning Pct.

A quick glance at Kentucky's 4-7-0 record from the 1990 season does not tell the whole story...The Wildcats' schedule had something to do with that as the 11 opponents combined to post an overall record of 65-56-5 during the season...Four of those teams went to post-season bowls (Indiana, Ole Miss, Tennessee, Central Michigan) and a fifth (Florida) would have if not for NCAA sanctions.

Look For The Same Aerial Game In 1991

Even though Kentucky changed offensive coordinators in the off-season, do not expect many changes in the Wildcats offensive philosophy in 1991...Last year's offensive coordinator, Tommy Bowden, departed for Auburn last December...Coach Bill Curry promptly named offensive line coach Rick Rhoades as offensive coordinator in mid-December...As both Curry and Rhoades promised, the 1991 spring did not offer major face-lifts...In fact, Rhoades primarily refined what had been good for UK during the 1990 season — the passing game...Last year, Kentucky established new single season marks for pass completions (216) and passes attempted (390)...The 2,152 yards through the air was the 2nd-best seasonal total at UK as the Wildcats averaged 195.6 yards per contest and an impressive completion percentage of .554...In the three major scrimmages during the '91 spring, the Wildcats averaged 184 yards per skirmish and completed 53 of 96 passes with one interception for a percentage of .552...Indeed, look for the same in the UK passing game in 1991.

Kentucky Has Unique Defensive Terminology

Kentucky's defensive terminology is a bit confusing to the average football fan...The basic alignment is similar to a 4-4-3 look...Here's an easier way to apply the terms with standard football lingo:

Front Four — Strike (OLB), Tackle, Nose, End (OLB)
Inside Linebackers — Mike, Will
Strong Safeties — Bandit, Rover
Secondary — Hit (CB), Free Safety, Corner.

Wildcats Sport Small Senior Class

In 1991, the Kentucky Wildcats will have just 13 seniors included on the overall roster...By comparison, the 13 is smaller than the last two seasons when UK had 18 seniors in 1990 and 23 in 1989...Looking at the 1987 freshman signee list, a total of 25 players were signed by the Wildcats...Of that figure, only seven players are left on the UK roster who were original scholarship signees (Jerry Bell, Joey Couch, Jim Graves, Larry Jackson, Freddie Maggard, Derrick Thomas, and Gary Willis)...Four of the 14 came to UK as walkons (Neal Clark, Bill Hawk, Bob Paschal, Dale See) while tailback Mike Thomas was a 1988 signee.

Column Notes of Interest

••Kentucky has led or shared the lead in Academic All-Southeastern Conference selections in six of the last seven years. In 1990, UK placed a league-high of 13 players on the Academic All-SEC Honor Roll including '91 returnees Jim Graves, Ryan Hockman, Larry Jackson, Greg Lahr, Freddie Maggard, Todd Perry, Brad Smith, Dean Wells, and Gary Willis.

••Kentucky owns a 65-44-4 record (.584 pct.) in all 113 games played at Commonwealth Stadium since its opening in 1973. However, the Wildcats are an impressive 21-7 (.750 pct.) in its last 28 games at home.

••The switch to night games in September and October could be attributed to the Wildcats' recent success under the lights at home. UK has won eight consecutive games at Commonwealth Stadium under the lights, the last loss coming in 1986 to Georgia. In that span, UK has defeated Ole Miss, Virginia Tech, Southern Illinois, Vanderbilt, Rutgers, LSU, Mississippi State and Georgia.

••Kentucky is 22-4 since the beginning of the 1984 season when a Wildcats running back gains 100 yards-or-more in a contest.

••Senior nose guard Joey Couch is tops in tackles among returning defensive linemen in the Southeastern Conference. Couch posted 84 tackles and 6 QB sacks as a junior during the 1990 season. The next closest to Couch among league returnees is Walter Tate of Auburn with 78 stops.

NG Joey Couch (48) had 84 tackles in '90.

"The Origins of the Black Watch"

"THEY ADVANCED WITH RAPIDITY, DISCHARGED THEIR PIECES WHEN WITHIN MUSKET LENGTH OF THE ENEMY, THEN THROWING THEM DOWN, DREW THEIR SWORDS AND...DARTED WITH FURY ON THE ENEMY, THROUGH THE SMOKE OF THEIR OWN FIRE.

THE CHARGE OF THE BLACK WATCH

Coach Bill Curry first introduced the idea of the "Black Watch" unit while at Georgia Tech in 1985.

The Black Watch is an elite unit which presently defends Edinburgh Castle in Scotland. Curry encountered the Black Watch by coincidence on vacation with his family in England and Scotland.

"I was so impressed by the precision and the discipline of the Black Watch that I came back and suggested to our staff we use the name for our elite defensive unit," Curry said. "It worked very well with the players. We developed a kind of pride in our defensive unit which was an added dimension to our team. We went on to have an outstanding season and the rest of it is history. We're seeking to do the same thing here at Kentucky."

Curry's Yellow Jacket squad finished 9-2-1 and defeated Michigan State in the All-American Bowl in '85, the season the Black Watch was installed.

Curry and his staff introduced the Black Watch to Kentucky in July, 1990. It is under the supervision of defensive coordinator Larry New. All-Southeastern Conference linebacker Randy Holleran was the first player chosen to the Black Watch at UK. Nose guard Joey Couch was added in mid-September (1990). With the graduation of Holleran, strike Dean Wells was voted in at the conclusion of the '91 spring drills to bring the membership to two entering the fall.

"Members of this elite unit can only be selected by its own membership," Curry said. "Coach New, along with Joey (Couch) and Dean (Wells) will select the next members."

"Black Watch" members are recognized by their unique helmet features. The members wear black face masks and have thin, black striping around the helmet's blue "K" and single stripe.

The origination of the Black Watch began in Scotland during the early 1700s as bands of outlaws and cattle raiders infested the Highland border country. Fueds developed among the Highland chiefs, thus these leaders began advocating the stealing of cattle or levying of black-mail against their neighboring rivals then turning around and blaming the crimes on "broken men and common criminals".

Black-mail had become an out-of-control old Border and Highland custom. Mails were the rents paid on Scottish estates, and black-mail was the payment of law-abiding men to raiders or "freebooters" in return for a promise their stock would not be lifted or their estates burned.

Such lawlessness usually went unchecked by the Highland chiefs and unpunished by the Scottish government generally because there was no army large enough to police the mountain regions. In 1725, a few of the chiefs in the central and southwestern Highlands were given commissions to raise six companies of a "Watch", a police force for the supression of cattle-stealing. These eager young men, from the Jacobite and Whig clans, took service in the "Am Freiceadan Dubh" or the Black Watch. The group took its name from both the putting down of the black-mail levied against the Highlanders and from the somber black, navy and dark green colors of its tartan uniforms.

Ultimately this group of loyal clansmen, who were said to have "uncanny natural abilities", formed into the 42nd Regiment. This 1st Battalion of the Black Watch is the oldest corps of Highlanders in the British Army. Later in Flanders (1795), the soldiers of the Black Watch became identified with the wearing of a red plume or feather in their helmets, an honor they earned after pushing back a superior French Army.

John S. Farmer, author of "The Regimental Records of the British Army", said that hardly a campaign has been conducted or a battle fought in which the Black Watch has not participated. And always, he said, with bravery and frequently with conspicious gallantry."

BILL CURRY

HEAD COACH

Bill Curry begins his second season as head football coach at the University of Kentucky and his 12th overall as a collegiate head coach.

Though his initial Kentucky squad finished just 4-7-0 during the 1990 season, the Wildcats did post a 3-4-0 record in Southeastern Conference play. The three league wins were the most for a UK team since 1984 (3) and the fifth-place finish was the best by UK, also since '84.

Academically, the Wildcats tied for the SEC-lead with Ole Miss for most Academic All-SEC Honor Roll selections. Kentucky and Ole Miss each had 13 players selected to the team, marking the sixth time in the last seven years UK has led or tied for the lead in Honor Roll selections.

Indeed, the '90 campaign could have been better but Curry did see a lot of positives.

"I'll always be disappointed if we're not 12-0 and I mean that," Curry said. "But the old thing that Will Rogers said, that I've quoted before, 'You can be on the right track and still get run over if you're sitting still'. We're on the right track and we're moving in the right direction. The speed will vary. But there's no question where this program is going."

The reason is simple - Curry expects nothing less than "Championship Performance".

Minutes before Curry was named the University of Kentucky's 32nd head football coach on Jan. 8, 1990, he told his first Wildcats squad about the intricacies of performing on a championship level.

"I told our squad I'm interested in championship performance, championship people, championship academics, and championship football," Curry said. "I'm not interested in anything less than that. That's what we are about. A championship performance in everything."

Curry's football pedigree weighs heavily in his expectations of championship peformance. After all, he did play and work under three of the most successful coaches the game of football has ever known — Bobby Dodd, Vince Lombardi, and Don Shula.

Curry, 48, lettered three years (1962-64) as a collegian at Georgia Tech under Dodd and served as team captain his senior campaign. Dodd compiled an impressive 22-year record of 165-64-8, including Southeastern Conference titles in 1951 and 1952, at Georgia Tech.

After earning his Bachelor's Degree in industrial management from Georgia Tech in 1965, Curry began his professional career under Lombardi with the Green Bay Packers. He played on two Packer teams which won the National Football League titles (1965-66), including the first Super Bowl on Jan. 15, 1967. The legendary Lombardi guided Green Bay to five NFL championships in seven years during the 1960s.

And following the 1967 season, Curry was traded to the Baltimore Colts and eventually became All-Pro in 1971. His mentor for three seasons at Baltimore was Don Shula, who today is the winningest active coach in the NFL and has appeared in more Super Bowls (6) than any other coach.

Those credentials alone have made Curry into the type of coach that really understands what demands must be met in order to succeed.

Indeed, those qualities opened the eyes of UK Athletics Director C.M. Newton when his search began to replace Jerry Claiborne, who stepped down after eight seasons with the Wildcats. But Newton took an interest in another side of Curry. The side which Newton said reflected these three words — dignity, class and integrity.

"William A. (Bill) Curry is recognized by many to be at the very top of his profession," said Newton during his introduction of Curry to the media. "He has been credited for the dignity, class and integrity with which he conducts his football programs, both on and off the playing field."

Curry has that rare mix of both worlds.

"We intend to be champions here at the University of Kentucky on the football field," Curry said. "We've been champions here at UK in the classroom and will continue to do so. And we will do it with class and dignity, and do it the right way."

Curry came to Kentucky from the University of Alabama. His overall record of 26-10 at Alabama was the Crimson Tide's most successful three-year total since Paul "Bear" Bryant compiled a 27-8-3 record his final three campaigns (1980-82). In 1989, Curry led Alabama to a 10-1 regular-season mark and a share of the Southeastern Conference title. He took three Crimson Tide teams to bowls — 1987 Hall of Fame Bowl, 1988 Sun Bowl and the 1990 USF&G Sugar Bowl.

In all, Curry owns a 61-60-4 record in 11 seasons as a collegiate head coach.

Curry, a native of College Park, Ga., signed a scholarship with the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets after a fine prep career at College Park High School. At Georgia Tech, Curry helped lead the Yellow Jackets to a 21-9-1 record and a Bluebonnet Bowl berth during his final three seasons. He shared team captain honors with Johnny Gresham during the 1964 campaign.

His professional football career began at Green Bay in 1965. Before his professional career was over 10 seasons later, Curry played at Green Bay (1965- 66), Baltimore (1967-72), Houston (1973) and with the Los Angeles Rams (1974). Curry played in one World Championship Game, three Super Bowls and was selected to the 1971 and 1972 Pro Bowls. A knee injury forced him to retire in 1975.

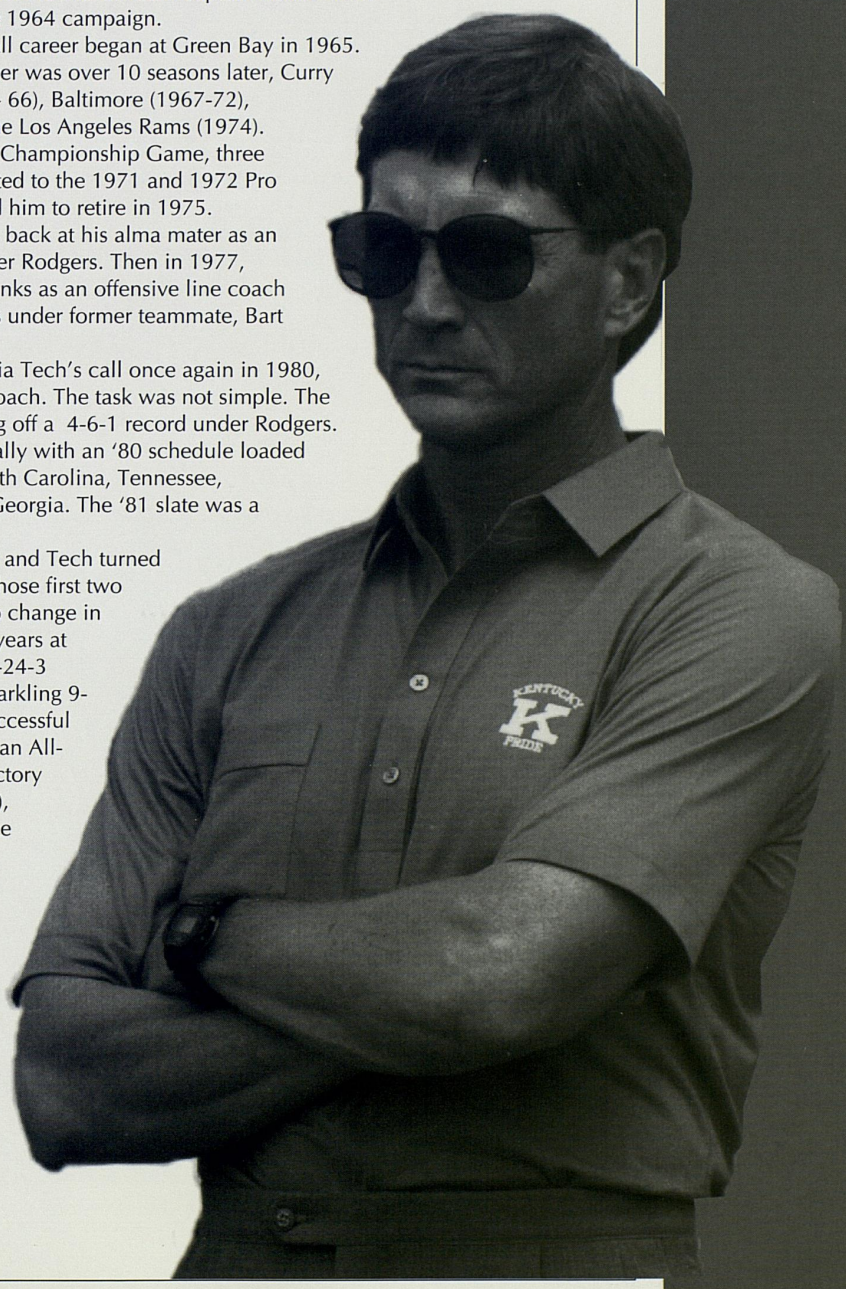

A year later, Curry was back at his alma mater as an assistant coach under Pepper Rodgers. Then in 1977, Curry returned to the pro ranks as an offensive line coach with the Green Bay Packers under former teammate, Bart Starr.

Curry answered Georgia Tech's call once again in 1980, this time as head football coach. The task was not simple. The Yellow Jackets were coming off a 4-6-1 record under Rodgers. It did not get easier, especially with an '80 schedule loaded with Alabama, Florida, North Carolina, Tennessee, Auburn, Notre Dame and Georgia. The '81 slate was a mirror-image.

Understandably, Curry and Tech turned in 1-9-1 and 1-10 records those first two seasons. But things begin to change in 1982. During his final five years at Tech, Curry produced a 29-24-3 ledger which included a sparkling 9-2-1 season in 1985. The successful '85 campaign earned Tech an All-American Bowl bid and victory over Michigan State (17-14), Tech's first bowl appearance since 1978.

The success of Curry's teams has not slowed down. In his last seven years as a head coach, Curry owns an impressive 50-28-3 (.636 pct.) record.

Curry was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year in 1985, by the Associated Press and ACC Sportswriters, and was named the 1987 Southeastern Conference

Coach of the Year by United Press International, and the 1989 SEC Coach of the Year by A.P. and the NASHVILLE BANNER.

A special honor came Curry's way following the 1989 season as well. Curry was named the '89 Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year, in honor of his former collegiate mentor. The award stands for a more noble aspect of college coaching.

"Nothing could mean as much to me as this award," Curry said. "Coach Dodd had such a tremendous influence on my life."

Curry is not comfortable in recognizing individuals in a team game. He points to the motto the 1990 Kentucky Wildcats followed: "Together We Win!".

"There is really no such thing as a coach of the year," Curry says. "There is such a thing as a staff of the year. Our American system tends to recognize individuals for what teams really accomplish and to be recognized that way in 1985, 1987 and 1989 in two different conferences, with different faces on our staff and with different teams, must really mean the family idea must work."

"A large part of what we're trying to promote in our young people of America is the importance to recapture the family emphasis. A good team or a good staff is nothing but a good family."

It is that type of family that has also shaped Curry into the coach and into the man he is. That credit belongs to his parents - Mr. and Mrs. Bill Curry, Sr.

"The older I get, the more I understand how much my dad shaped me coaching- wise, and both my mom and dad as a human being," Curry said. "And also my high school coach, Bill Badgett. He truly was the toughest, most demanding of all the coaches that I have played for."

Curry is also a past president (1973-75) of the NFL Players' Association and has served on the American Football Coaches Ethics and Rules Committees.

Curry is married to the former Carolyn Newton of College Park, Ga. Carolyn has a Ph.D. in history and teaches in the history department at UK. They have two children — Kristin, 23, a 1989 graduate of the University of Virginia who currently resides in San Francisco, and Billy, 20, who is a third-year center on the University of Virginia football team.

Questions & Answers with Bill Curry

Q What will be the most prominent difference between the 1990 and 1991 Kentucky football teams?

A "We will be more aggressive. We'll be tougher, physically and mentally tougher. It will be obvious. It was obvious in the spring. If you just watched the spring game of '90 and came back for the spring game of '91, the thing which would stick out would be blow delivery — pure 'ol smash'em. That will be the biggest difference."

Q Aside from that difference, how does this 1991 team compare to the 1990 Wildcats squad?

A "On the surface, you'd look at us and say Kentucky is not as good this year because there is no (Randy) Holleran, a proven All-SEC linebacker type. There is no (Al) Baker, a 220-pound man that can run like the wind coming out of the backfield. There is no 6-2 Phil Logan lining up at wide receiver that can come smoking across the middle and catch the ball on the dead run as he did late in the season. And there is no All-SEC offensive lineman returning like (Joel) Mazzella, although there are some potentials. So, you would look at us and say, 'well, there is no way (Kentucky) can be as good as they were last year'. That's wrong. You cannot measure the heart of a team with a stopwatch or a set of scales. The reason we'll be better is because of what I mentioned before. The biggest part in a sport like football is in the area of focus, the mental preparation, and the toughness factor. The Kentucky fans are going to love this team, that's all I can tell you. We're gonna fly around. We're never going to be out of a game. You may have us down and have us by the throat, but I believe we're going to come back on alot of people, if necessary."

Q For Kentucky to compete for the league title in 1991 and go bowling, what has to happen?

A "Alot of things have to happen and we expect them to happen. The team has to be all of what I believe it is in terms of attitude and toughness. It's been a long time since I've deceived myself in that area so I think I'm right. This team has to fulfill my belief in them. That's the most important thing that has to happen. The coaching staff has to do a great job this year. A year ago, we did not do a great job in my opinion but we'll be better this year because the group has been together. At least one quarterback is gonna have to grab the bull by the horns and become a leader. I don't care which one of them it is, but one has to do it. The defense against the run must improve drastically. The defense against the deep ball must improve drastically. The special teams play must improve drastically, and it will. When you think the way we're teaching our players to think, when they are in better shape, worked harder, moved quicker for another whole year, then those things which are regarded as breaks and bounces, start to go your way. Those turnovers that we didn't get a year ago, we get to the ball before the opponent. That's what has to happen.

Q Kentucky has put together back-to-back, solid recruiting years. Is that what it will take to get this program where you want it to be?

A "It's gonna take that kind of recruiting year after year after year. I'm talking about at least five years, at least five great recruiting classes, before we can consider this to be a truly solid program. That does not mean we can't win the championship before then. I expect to win it this year. I expect to win the championship every year. But to have a truly solid program that sustains itself year after year requires that you continue to sign outstanding classes year after year. And the only reason is the people we play have really great athletes. So, our objective will be to improve each year. We fully expect to be better in recruiting this year than we were a year ago. Frankly, I believe that's a must. It's our only chance to compete."

Q What did you learn about the Kentucky football program, itself, last year?

A "I really see this football program as a sleeping giant. There have been various efforts to revive it, or wake it up so to speak. Some of them had success and others did not. But this is the first time someone like Jerry Claiborne has been on the scene for eight straight years to build the most solid base on the things that matter the most. Things like honesty, integrity, a great educational system headed by Bob Bradley and Barb Deniston, great facilities and he is still working at that. Then you add to the mix a sense of overall direction because C.M. Newton shows up a couple of years ago. And then, add to the mix a basketball coach named Rick Pitino who is not threatened by football succeeding and is anxious for football to succeed. He recruits for us and shows up in our locker room before the game. Those are the things that have never existed at Kentucky, at least according to my information. So, all of those things have a kind of pull to the student-athletes and to the folks who have lived in Kentucky and have wanted for football to succeed for so many years. And as a result, they sign and come and play. Folks buy tickets and express interest. The media writes about the program in the papers and covers us very well. The image of the state football program outside the state has taken a moderate step forward. The image of the state football program inside the state has taken a quantum leap forward for all of those reasons and that's what we needed. That's a good springboard. But that's all it is. We have to take it from here and build upon all those benefits. That is the plan."

Q Now that it has been a year, what can you tell everyone about your Kentucky experience away from the football field?

A "When I talk about Kentucky, it is very easy for me to be enthusiastic. Kentucky is one of the most beautiful places in the world. I thought it was nice before we came here, but I didn't know it was this beautiful, aesthetically. Carolyn and I, along with our children, have found the surroundings and the climate to be so beautiful on a daily basis, we're just excited to get up and see what we see. The campus setting, the stadium and all the facilities work that has been done here fits into that Bluegrass pattern which is dominant in the actual living environment. My wife has some great opportunities to express her skills and her abilities here, in the classroom, in the public arena, speaking to groups that are interested in her area — women's history. To just have a Ph.D. and strut around with Ph.D. written after you name is totally foriegn to Carolyn Curry. Carolyn wants to do something with all this work she has done and Kentucky has given her that opportunity. All we need to do is remain patient, get this football team to perform the way I know it will, and this will be an absolutely wonderful place to be.

Q You've commented on the people of Kentucky in the past year or so. Could you explain further?

A "The people, and it has been well documented, have greeted us in a way probably very few in our business have been greeted. We'll be eternally grateful for that. There are probably alot of places as friendly as the state of Kentucky but I don't know where they are. I've lived alot of places, but, there is something just friendlier about this part of the world. That speaks not to the greeting of the coaches' families, but just folks. If I'm in my jeans and going out to get a tire for the wheelbarrow or something, and nobody knows who I am and I'm covered with dirt, the attitude of the people is just friendly. It kinda reminds me of Middle-Sized Town, America, in the '50s. The common thread seems to be a desire to make people feel welcome. That really helped us in recruiting. The families and the players really noticed that and commented on it. The great recruiting year was more a product of presenting what the University of Kentucky and this area is like, than it was any particular genius on our part."

Q Recently, the media has reported of a possible meeting between Kentucky and Louisville in football. The two schools have not met since 1924. Why all of a sudden the interest in possibly reviving the series?

A "Football is a very demanding game. It is a very demanding business. It attracts the most competitive people. For me to come here, to have in my mind to build a championship program — SEC and national championship level — and for there to be an outstanding team in the same sport in the same state and for me to say, 'I would like not to play them for the fear of helping them out', that doesn't have a spot in my computer. That doesn't go in. I'm a competitor. We came here to compete. We are aggressive. We are not shrinking violets. We want to play whoever we ought to play and I'm the one that has to make those decisions. In my opinion, it would be ludicrous for two outstanding football programs to be in the same state to not even tee it up and see who is the best. Plus, you find out where football teams are the best and that's between the white lines. You don't do it sitting at a bar, you don't do it sitting around a hot stove, you don't do it sitting on the porch whittling. The reason I love football because its so honest. Once you cross those white lines, it's the most honest place in the world because you can't hide. So, for me to come here and say those kinds of things, then say, 'Oh, excuse me I'm afraid of playing someone in our own state' — what kind of leadership is that? We are at the present time, as we write this media guide, exploring the possibilities with the officials at Louisville. I have the highest respect for Howard Schnellenberger. He was a great player at this very school. He's done a great job with that program. There are some obstacles to playing the game, but we are seeking ways to overcome those obstacles rather than to take a negative approach."

Q What do the additions of Arkansas and South Carolina do for the Southeastern Conference?

A "What I said earlier was I didn't know and didn't think (the SEC) would know for years exactly what their addition does for the league. But, there are some immediate results which have been beneficial to us. First of all, I'm very impressed with their programs, from meeting their people and just hanging out with them at the SEC meetings. I've admired Frank Broyles for a long time and am very impressed with King Dixon. Both coaches are sharp young guys and know what they are doing. They both have great fan support. So, I know a little bit more about them. And of course, Frank Broyles is an old Yellow Jacket and you know about those guys — those guys are sharp. Or at least we think we are. The most immediate impact of their addition is the divisional setup with the resulting championship game. NCAA rules say you have to have 12 teams in order to have a playoff game. Well, that gives us 12 quality teams, 12 quality institutions and now we've got the playoff game. I'll guarantee you the other leagues are scrambling to find a way to compete because we've been pro-active instead of reactive and we will now have the biggest game in the country — the SEC Championship Game. I think the addition of those two schools facilitated that process. Selfishly, I think it helps Kentucky enormously. For us to look at a 12-team league, or a 10-team league right now, and aim for the best record over a whole season is one thing. It's a very different thing to look at a chance to beat six of those teams, record-wise, and get into the title game. It's very different. We've got a much better chance about doing that than we would have if there were no playoff. I'm real excited about it. Playing eight games in the SEC is the downside. That makes it tougher for the teams that are trying to work their way up the ladder. Teams with less depth and less overall talent, right now, are gonna suffer more because of the added game. Eventually, we will compete talent-wise and it won't make that much difference. But I think right now, it may hurt us for a year or two."

WHY NOT KENTUCKY?

by Billy Reed,
Sports Illustrated

A LOOK AT THE FINAL COLLEGE FOOTBALL RANKINGS OVER THE PAST DECADE OR SO REVEALS THAT MANY OF THE TRADITIONAL POWERS HAVE REMAINED STRONG: NOTRE DAME, NEBRASKA, MICHIGAN, PENN STATE, to name a few. But there also has been an influx of new names, programs that went through long periods of defeat and despair before finally getting turned around: Miami, Georgia Tech, and Colorado, among others.

So . . . why not Kentucky? Why can't Bill Curry turn the Wildcat program into one of the new kids on the Top 20 block? Why shouldn't UK fans look forward to the glorious fun of someday cheering their team in a bowl game on New Year's Day?

No good reason, really. In this, the university's 101st season of varsity competition, the opportunity for success may be greater than ever. Consider the good news:

Commonwealth Stadium ranks among the nation's finest and can be easily expanded when the time comes. Even in lean years, UK has enjoyed a large and loyal following.

The UK practice and training facilities are excellent, with a new indoor facility on the horizon.

The Wildcat program ranks high nationally in academics, consistently challenging the likes of Notre Dame, Duke, Virginia, and Penn State for the award given by the College Football Association to the university that graduates the highest percentage of its players.

High school football in the state has never been better, meaning that more blue-chip prospects are being produced.

And the Southeastern Conference's expansion to 12 teams and two divisions will mean a post-season championship playoff, beginning in 1992, that will only further certify the league as the nation's best.

Clearly, it's an exciting time for UK football, rife with more anticipation and optimism than has ever been felt around Lexington since the early 1950s, when the young Paul "Bear" Bryant was taking the Wildcats to the Sugar, Orange and Cotton bowls. After almost four decades of indifferent results, Kentucky football seems to be moving inexorably in the right direction.

When Curry talks about playing football at "a championship level", he's referring to the caliber of play and quality of attitude that he learned as a college player under Bobby Dodd at Georgia Tech and as an All-Pro center under Vince Lombardi at Green Bay and Don Shula at Baltimore. Sine becoming a head coach in 1980, he has rebuilt winners, first at his alma mater, where he took the Yellow Jacket program from 1-9-1 to 9-2-1 in six years, and then at Alabama, where his third Crimson Tide team made the university's first Sugar Bowl trip in a full decade.

Now, at Kentucky, Curry is in his second year of building upon the foundation laid by Jerry Claiborne, whose eight-year reign always will be remembered as a time in which UK football regained respectability both on and off the field. Curry was the perfect choice to replace Claiborne in that both cling dearly to the same kind of fundamental, old-fashioned values. Both believe that all things are possible through hard work, that every player is a student first and an athlete second, and that winning is important only if it's achieved fairly and within the rules.

Having said all that, it also should be pointed out that Curry understands completely that all coaches ultimately are judged mostly by the won-lost record. He would have it no other way. Everything else aside, Curry loves football for the sheer competition of it. He believes it's the best game of all because it tests a man's body and mind unlike any other. To men such as Curry, football men through and through, perspiration is the sweetest perfume of al, a bloody nose the ultimate badge of honor. And there is no excuses in defeat, just as there is no gloating in victory. The game is fair and the scoreboard tells no lies.

"To men such as Curry, football men through and through, perspiration is the sweetest perfume of all, a bloody nose the ultimate badge of honor. And there is no excuses in defeat, just as there is no gloating in victory. The game is fair and the scoreboard tells no lies."

What's interesting about Curry's elemental love of the game is that football coaching has become so much more complex and demanding. The modern coach must be as much of a corporate CEO as he is a sideline strategist, and Curry fits the role easily. Handsome, articulate, polished, and intelligent, Curry can put on his business suit and make a slick impression on recruits, alumni, donors and the media. He doesn't mind this part of the job, understands it's a crucial part of it, but he also will tell you that he's most at home on the sidelines, amid the sound and fury of a game, where every Saturday is a test of a man's ability, determination, and will.

Passion. And urgency. Those are the things you notice most about Curry. They are always there, lurking beneath the surface, even when he's relaxing. He wants to give UK fans, especially all those who have persevered through so many years of disappointment, a winner of which they can be proud. He wants to deliver it right now, today, even though he knows it will take time. He refuses to accept mediocrity and has no time for those who don't share his vision what Wildcat football can be.

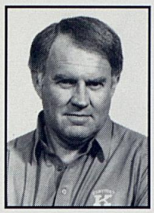

Why not Kentucky?

That's the question that brought Curry to Lexington and the one that will drive him until he's able to share the answer with the rest of the college football world. Kentucky will get there. You can count on it. At least, that's what Bill Curry says, and who's to argue with a man who just won't abide any effort that's not directed toward the championship level?

Assistant Coaches: Cropp/Dickey

JOHN CROPP

Tight Ends (Vanderbilt, 1961)

John Cropp begins his 1st season as an assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. Overall, he begins his 14th campaign as a collegiate assistant coach.

Cropp, a 1961 graduate of Vanderbilt University, officially became a member of the UK Coaching Staff on April 9, 1991. He came to Kentucky after spending the last 3 years as Assistant Athletics Director for Compliance at Vanderbilt. His responsibilities will include coaching the Wildcats' tight ends.

Ironically, Cropp began his coaching career while in the Army (1963-64). He coached Army division football for 2 years while stationed in Germany.

After fulfilling his service requirements, Cropp was named assistant football coach at Southwest High School in Atlanta (1965-66). He coached 2 UK players at Southwest — QB Bernie Scruggs and OG Bob Finnell.

Cropp got his first head coaching position in 1967 at Tennessee High School in Bristol, Tenn. In 6 years, Cropp compiled an impressive 48-15-3 record with 2 state AAA titles (1971-72) and the 1972 mythical "national championship". He won 35 of his last 36 games at Tennessee High, including a stretch of 25 consecutive victories.

Cropp returned to his alma mater in 1973 as an assistant coach under Steve Sloan. He helped lead the Commodores to the 1974 Peach Bowl and a 7-3-2 record.

He followed Sloan to Texas Tech (1975-77) as tight ends and receivers coach, Ole Miss (1978-82) and Duke (1983). At Ole Miss, Cropp was offensive coordinator and running backs coach for the Rebels. His 1980 offense at Ole Miss led the Southeastern Conference averaging 389.6 yards per outing. He continued his role as offensive coordinator/running backs coach at Duke for one season.

In 1984, Cropp returned to his alma mater again as an assistant coach, this time under George MacIntyre. He coached the running backs in '84 and served as offensive coordinator in 1985.

He entered private business for 2 years (1986-87) before returning to Vanderbilt as an athletics administrator in June of 1988.

As a player, Cropp earned 3 varsity letters at Vanderbilt (1959-61) as a guard/linebacker. He received the 1961 Wade-Looney Memorial Award as a senior at Vanderbilt.

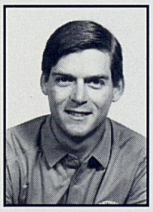

Cropp and his wife, Mary Ann, have 2 grown children — Karen, a graduate of Ole Miss, and David, a graduate of Vanderbilt.

DARYL DICKEY

Quarterbacks (Tennessee, 1985)

Daryl Dickey begins his 2nd season as an assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. His responsibilities include coaching the UK quarterbacks and coordinating film exchange with opponents.

Dickey, 30, is in his 3rd year as a collegiate assistant coach. He officially became part of the Kentucky staff on Jan. 21, 1990, after spending 1 season as quarterback coach at Florida State.

Most Kentuckians remember Dickey from his collegiate days as quarterback of the Tennessee Volunteers. In 1985, Dickey helped lead the Vols to a 9-1-2 record and the Southeastern Conference title. He was named Most Valuable Player in the 1986 USF&G Sugar Bowl after engineering Tennessee's 35-7 victory over Miami (Fla.).

Following a brief stint with the San Diego Chargers of the National Football League in 1986, Dickey returned to his alma mater as graduate assistant coach for 2 years (1987-88). He moved to Florida State for the 1989 season.

At Florida State, Dickey helped mold Seminole quarterback Peter Tom Willis who ended the '89 season ranked 7th nationally in total offense (273.1 ypg) and passing efficiency (150.7 pts). For the season, Willis threw for 3,124 yards and 20 touchdowns as FSU posted a 10-2 record and a victory over Nebraska in the Fiesta Bowl.

Last season under Dickey, Kentucky quarterbacks completed over 55 percent of their passes while throwing for the second-highest total of passing yards (2,152) in school history. In fact, UK quarterbacks set school marks for pass completions (216) and passes attempted (390) during the 1990 season.

Dickey is married to the former Kendall George of Knoxville. They have 1 daughter, Karis, who was born on June 12, 1990. His father, Doug Dickey, is the athletics director at the University of Tennessee.

TODD FUGETT

Volunteer Assistant (East Central, 1985)

Todd Fugett begins his 2nd season as volunteer assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. Overall, Fugett enters his 5th season as a collegiate assistant coach.

Fugett, a 1985 graduate of East Central (Okla.) University in Ada, Okla., is responsible for working with the Wildcats bandits and rovers on the defensive side. He has also worked with the UK Football walkon program. He officially became a member of the Wildcats Coaching Staff on March 24, 1990.

Several of his players at UK have received accolades during Fugett's first season. Senior bandit Jeff Brady was a 12th round selection of Pittsburgh in the National Football League Draft. Sophomore bandit Duce Williams earned Most Improved Linebacker honors during the '91 spring drills and sophomore rover Bill Campbell earned Most Improved Defensive Back honors also in the spring.

Fugett came to Kentucky after spending one year (1989) at Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, Mo. At Missouri Western, he served a dual capacity as strength coach and defensive backfield coach.

"Todd brought with him a lot of energy to our program," UK Coach Bill Curry said. "He is a dynamic, young football coach and has been successful at everything he has attempted all the way back to his high school days."

He began his coaching career in the fall of 1985 as an assistant coach at Blanchard (Okla.) High School. After one year in the prep ranks, Fugett was named graduate assistant coach at Tennessee under Johnny Majors in 1986. At Tennessee, he worked with the Volunteers' wide receivers.

Fugett then moved to Baylor (1987-88) as a graduate assistant under Grant Teaff. While at Baylor, he worked with the Bears' defensive backs under current-UK assistant Rick Smith.

BILL GLASER

Defensive Line (Bellarmine, 1965)

Bill Glaser begins his 15th season as an assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. Overall, Glaser enters his 16th season as an assistant on the collegiate level. His responsibilities include coaching the Wildcats defensive tackles and nose guards, and coordinating the annual Bill Curry Football Camp during the summer.

Glaser, 48, came to the University of Kentucky in 1977 from Morehead State University. He has worked for 3 head coaches at UK — Fran Curci, Jerry Claiborne, and Bill Curry. Glaser was the only full-time UK assistant retained by both Claiborne and Curry.

Glaser, a native of Louisville, graduated in 1965 from Bellarmine College and participated in baseball while completing his undergraduate studies. He graduated in 1961 from St. Xavier High School and lettered 3 years as an offensive guard and linebacker.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, St. Xavier, in 1965 as an assistant football and baseball coach. Glaser was named head baseball coach in 1970 and in 4 seasons, compiled a 112-48 record. In 1974, Glaser was named head football coach and promptly led St. Xavier to back-to-back state titles and a two-year slate of 25-0-0.

Glaser was named defensive coordinator at Morehead State in 1976 where he completed work on a master's degree. A year later, he moved to UK as defensive line coach under Curci. In the Claiborne era, Glaser coached the UK defensive guards.

He is married to the former Mary Ann Jensen of Louisville. They have 3 children — Angie, 24, David, 23, and Clare, 11.

JOHN GUY

Asst. Head Coach/Football Operations
Outside Linebackers & Kickers
Special Teams Coordinator
(North Carolina A&T, 1973)

John Guy begins his 2nd season as assistant head coach for football operations and outside linebackers coach at the University of Kentucky. He begins his 1st season at UK as special teams coordinator.

Guy, 40, coaches the strike and defensive end positions as well as the UK placekickers. As assistant head coach, his responsibilities include the maintainance of all UK football facilities and assumption of head coaching duties in the absence of Bill Curry. He officially joined the UK staff on Jan. 14, 1990.

Overall, Guy begins his 19th season as a collegiate assistant coach.

Guy lettered 4 years as a defensive back and placekicker at North Carolina A&T. He was named to the Mid-Eastern Athletic All-Conference team and Academic All-Conference team in 1972. Guy earned his Bachelor's degree in psychology from North Carolina A&T in 1973.

His 1st college coaching position followed in 1974 as defensive line coach at North Carolina under Bill Dooley. Guy remained at North Carolina for 5 seasons and also earned his Master's degree in 1974 from UNC.

In 1978, Guy moved to Virginia Tech as assistant coach, and then to Duke as outside linebackers coach in the same year. Guy remained at Duke for the next 3 seasons before joining Bill Curry's staff at Georgia Tech in 1981, where he also coached outside linebackers at Tech.

Guy, who has worked with Curry the longest of any current UK staff member, moved to Alabama in 1987 as outside linebacker and placekicker coach.

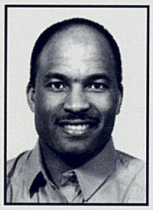

Guy has recruited and coached several outstanding outside linebackers, including Lawrence Taylor, Pat Swilling, Derrick Thomas, George Bethune and Anthony Smith.

WALTER LEWIS

Running Backs (Alabama, 1984)

Walter Lewis begins his 2nd year as an assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. He is responsible for coaching the Wildcats running backs.

Lewis, 29, enters his 3rd campaign as a collegiate coach. He came to Kentucky from the University of Alabama after spending 1 season as running backs coach with the Crimson Tide under Bill Curry. He officially became a member of the UK staff on Jan. 14, 1990.

During his 1st season as an assistant coach, Lewis coached junior Siran Stacy at Alabama. Stacy finished 4th in the Southeastern Conference with 1,079 yards rushing and 17 touchdowns. He rushed for over 100 yards on 6 occasions.

In 1990, Lewis coached senior fullback-tailback Al Baker at UK. All Baker did was rank 5th in the SEC in rushing (70.9 ypg) and catch 35 passes which helped in his 10th round selection by New York Jets in the NFL Draft.

Lewis was a standout quarterback at the University of Alabama during his collegiate days. Lewis, a native of Brewton, Ala., completed 286 of 504 passes for 4,257 yards and 29 touchdowns as a 4-year letterman with the Crimson Tide. He also accounted for 1,433 yards and 13 touchdowns rushing.

He directed Alabama to its final 2 touchdowns in the 28-17 victory over Auburn in 1981, giving Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant his 315th victory. He also quarterbacked the Crimson Tide to a 21-15 victory over Illinois in the 1982 Liberty Bowl, which was to be Bryant's last game.

Lewis was named All-Southeastern Conference in 1983 and elected permanent team captain with Randy Edwards during his senior year. He was named Most Valuable Player in Alabama's 28-7 victory over SMU in the 1983 Sun Bowl.

Professionally, Lewis played with the Memphis Showboats of the USFL, Montreal of the Canadian Football League, and New England of the National Football League.

Lewis and his wife, Rena, are both graduates of the University of Alabama School of Engineering. They have 2 children — John Walter, 3, and Leigh Kristin, 6 mos.

Assistant Coaches: New/Phillips

LARRY NEW

Defensive Coordinator/LBs
(Illinois, 1965)

Larry New is in his 2nd season as defensive coordinator and assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. His responsibilities include complete supervision of the Wildcats defense and coaching the UK inside linebackers.

New, 47, came to Kentucky from the University of Alabama where he was a defensive line coach for 3 years under Bill Curry. He officially joined the UK staff on Jan. 14, 1990.

Overall, New begins his 27th season as a collegiate assistant coach.

New lettered 2 seasons (1962-63) as nose guard at the University of Illinois. He helped lead the Illini to a 17-7 victory over Washington in the 1964 Rose Bowl and played in the now-defunct College All-Star game at Soldier Field in Chicago. One of his teammates at Illinois was Dick Butkus, a former NFL All-Pro linebacker. Prior to his final 2 seasons at Illinois, New had also garnered All-America honors at Conners State Junior College in Werner, Okla.

He began his collegiate coaching career at Wheaton College as defensive coordinator in 1965. After 3 years at Wheaton, New moved to Division I coaching and joined Dan Devine as defensive line coach at Missouri (1968-70), then Frank Broyles in the same capacity at Arkansas (1971-74).

In 1975, New began a 7-year coaching stint under Jim Carlen at South Carolina. New served as defensive line coach during his first 5 years under Carlen then was promoted to defensive coordinator in 1980.

New joined Bill Curry at Georgia Tech in 1982 as defensive line coach. He remained on Curry's staff through 1986 at Georgia Tech and for 3 years at Alabama.

Education-wise, New owns an associate degree in music from Conners State Junior College (1962). He earned both a B.A. degree in music and a B.S. degree in physical education at Illinois in 1965. New later earned his Master's degree in physical education and Specialist's degree in physiology of exercise at Northern Illinois (1968).

He is married to the former Mary Kilbert of Morgantown, W.Va.

JOKER PHILLIPS

Wide Receivers (Kentucky, 1986)

Joker Phillips begins his 1st season as an assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. His responsibilities include coaching the Wildcats flankers and split ends.

Phillips, a 1986 graduate of Kentucky, joined the UK Coaching Staff officially as an on-the-field coach on Dec. 12, 1990. He was promoted to receivers coach following the departure of 1990 UK offensive coordinator Tommy Bowden.

Phillips was a four-year letterman (1981-84) as a Wildcats receiver and helped lead UK to the 1983 and 1984 Hall of Fame Bowls. His best season was in 1984 with 28 receptions for 305 yards and 5 touchdowns. Currently, Phillips ranks 6th on the UK career list with 75 receptions for 935 yards and 9 TDs.

He played briefly in the National Football League and the Canadian Football League and was a member of the 1987 Washington Redskins team which won Super Bowl XXII. The past two summers, Phillips has participated in the NFL Coaching Fellowship program with the Redskins. He has assisted Redskins coach Jack Burns with the Washington receivers during training camp and preseason.

Phillips began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Kentucky (1988-89) under Jerry Claiborne and was responsible for the Wildcats receivers. In 1990, he was named assistant recruiting coordinator under Bill Curry at Kentucky. Phillips worked with UK recruiting coordinator Tommy Limbaugh last year and coordinated the Wildcats walkon program.

"Joker has shown his commitment to our program," Curry said. "He did a fine job as assistant recruiting coordinator for us last year. As expected, he did that same type of quality job with our receivers during the spring."

Phillips lettered 3 years in football, basketball, and track at Franklin-Simpson High School at Franklin.

RICK RHOADES

Offensive Coordinator/OL
(Central Missouri State, 1970)

Rick Rhoades begins his 1st season as offensive coordinator at the University of Kentucky and his 2nd as an assistant football coach. His responsibilities include complete supervision of the Wildcats offense and coaching the offensive line.

Rhoades, 44, came to Kentucky from the University of Alabama where he was offensive tackle/tight end coach for 1 year under Bill Curry. He officially joined the UK staff on Jan. 14, 1990.

In all, Rhoades begins his 11th season as a collegiate football coach. This will be his 7th as an assistant coach. He spent 3 years as head coach at Division II power Troy (Ala.) State and 1 year as head mentor at Southern Illinois.

Rhoades lettered 4 years in football and baseball at Central Missouri State. After earning his Bachelor's degree in education from Central Missouri in 1970, he began coaching on the high school level at Mountain Brook in Birmingham, Ala. His 1976 squad, which included former Alabama star Major Ogilvie, captured the state title with a 14-0-0 record.

In 1981, Rhoades moved to the collegiate level as offensive coordinator at North Alabama. He spent another 2-year stint (1983-84) as defensive coordinator at Troy State, which included a NCAA II national title in 1984, before becoming a head collegiate coach.

Rhoades was named head coach at Troy State in time for the 1985 season. In 3 seasons, Rhoades led the Trojans to the 1986 Gulf South Conference championship and the 1987 NCAA II national title.

As a result of the national championship, Rhoades was chosen as NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association and by The Sporting News.

In 1988, Rhoades moved to 1-AA Southern Illinois at Carbondale as head coach. He led the Salukis to a 4-7 record during his 1st season, which included a 24-10 loss to Kentucky at Commonwealth Stadium.

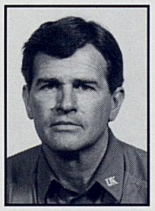

Rhoades left Southern Illinois in 1989 for Alabama. Rhoades and his wife, Elizabeth, have 2 sons — Robert, 16, and John, 10.

JERRY BELL

Defensive Tackle, 6-3, 275, Sr-3L, Louisville (DeSales)

BELL FACT: Coming off his best spring at the University of Kentucky and was voted the squad's Most Improved Defensive Lineman for the 1991 spring session.

OUTLOOK: Projected as starter at defensive tackle in UK's multiple scheme... Has not reached his full potential as a player due to various injuries throughout his UK career... If he can remain healthy, he has the kind of ability to dominate the line-of-scrimmage and could push for all-star honors... UK Coaching Staff feels he could play a huge role in the Wildcats improvement against the run... Bothered by pinched nerves (neck/shoulder) for much of the last 3 seasons... Remained injury-free during spring drills which directly attributed to his impressive performance on the field... Bench presses 390 pounds, squats 530.

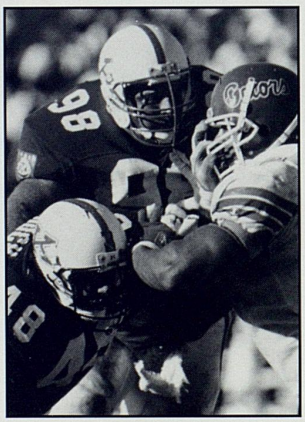

1990 (JUNIOR): Played in 9 games, drawing starting assignments in 5 at defensive tackle... Pinched-nerve ailment and ankle sprain (vs. Ole Miss) limited playing time... Missed Mississippi State and LSU contests due to ankle sprain... Finished the season with 29 tackles, including 2 TFLs... Season-high 5 tackles in Wildcats 28-21 victory over Vanderbilt... Credited with 4 stops vs. Indiana, North Carolina and Tennessee... Moved from defensive guard to defensive tackle during '90 spring as Wildcats switched from "wide-tackle six" alignment to multiple scheme with the coaching change.

1989 (SOPHOMORE): Played in 10 games, drawing starting assignment in 9 contests at left guard... Ranked 3rd on squad in tackles with 88, despite missing 1 game (Florida)... Had 1 sack (-7) and 4 TFLs (-9)... Posted double-digit tackles in 3 games — Tennessee (18), Auburn (14), and Alabama (12)... Averaged 8.8 tackles per game... Averaged 10.8 tackles in 6 SEC games... Participated in 445 plays, 44.5 per game.

1988 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN): Played in 10 games at left guard with 5 starts... Named to FOOTBALL NEWS Freshman All-America team... Also named to the KNOXVILLE NEWS-SENTINEL All-SEC Freshman team... Ended season with 54 tackles, 1 sack and 2 TFLs... Best outing of 9 tackles came in 16-10 upset of 11th-ranked Georgia... Posted 8 stops vs. Tennessee... In all, participated in 433 plays while averaging 43 per game.

1987 (FRESHMAN): Played briefly in season-opening contest as true freshman... Suffered season-ending stress fracture in right shin ... Received medical hardship ruling... Had played only 11 plays against Utah State before suffering injury.

HIGH SCHOOL: Three-year starter at DeSales High under head coach Don Hettich... First team All-State as senior... Played in Kentucky-Tennessee All-Star game... Rated by several publications as Kentucky's best defensive lineman prospect during senior season.

PERSONAL: Full name is Jerry Lee Bell... Born May 26, 1969 in Louisville... Son of Jerry and Mary Bell... Social work major... Expected date of graduation is spring 1992.

CIVIC SERVICE: Participated in the Copi-Cat program (Fall '90) which involved writing letters to children at Huntertown Elementary in Versailles offering encouragement to read... Fayette County Education Association spelling bee judge (Feb. '91)... Ronald McDonald House volunteer... Teen Leadership practicum involving counseling junior high and high school students... National Kidney Foundation Wildcats Run and Walk.

GREG LAHR

Offensive Tackle, 6-5, 290,
Sr-3L, Pickerington, Ohio (High)

LAHR FACT: Elected by teammates as the permanent 1991 Kentucky offensive team captain.

OUTLOOK: Projected as the starter at right offensive tackle... Moved from left tackle in off-season... Expected to be used at both left and right tackle as UK's swing tackle in a three-man rotation of Lahr, Mark Askin and Chuck Bradley... Named Preseason All-Southeastern Conference first team by Birmingham POST-HERALD... Missed '91 spring drills due to a puncture wound (upper thigh)... Will be at 100 percent when Wildcats open fall drills in August... Has started 20 consecutive games at offensive tackle... Intense competitor ... If he plays the way the UK Coaching Staff feels he's capable, Lahr should be in line as UK's third consecutive offensive tackle to earn All-SEC laurels, following standouts Greg Kunkel (1986-87) and Mike Pfeifer (1986-89)...Member of UK Leadership Committee, a panel chosen by the players as a representative means in discussions with Coach Bill Curry ... Bench presses 380 pounds and squats 580... Ranked 4th on squad with clean of 365.

1990 (JUNIOR): Started all 11 games at left offensive tackle... Named to the Academic All-SEC Honor Roll for the second consecutive year... Earned Wildcats Pride awards for efforts vs. Georgia and Mississippi State... Led UK offensive linemen in average plays per game (73)... Had career-high 91 offensive plays in 26-24 victory over Georgia as Wildcats controlled football for 35 minutes.

1989 (SOPHOMORE): Played in all 11 games as swing tackle, starting the final 9 games at left offensive tackle... Earned 2nd team Academic All-American honors with 3.76 GPA in finance... Also named to the Academic All-SEC Honor Roll... Graded above 70 percent in 10 of 11 games... Graded above 80 percent in 4 games... Turned in a season-high grade of 85 percent on 42 plays in 31-0 blanking of Cincinnati... Graded 83 percent on 62 plays in 15-11 victory over Vanderbilt... Helped UK churn for 292 yards on the ground with 81 percent grade on 92 plays vs. Rutgers... Tallied 81 percent on 40 snaps at Georgia... In all, participated in 642 plays with a high of 92 in 33-26 victory over Rutgers... Averaged 58.4 plays per outing... 3rd among UK offensive linemen with 14 Cat Paw Awards for big plays.

1988 (FRESHMAN): Only true freshman to play for Wildcats... Forced into action with injuries to tackles Mike Pfeifer and Tom Crumrine... Picked up 1st varsity letter after appearing in final 6 games... Named to FOOTBALL NEWS Freshman All-America team and Knoxville NEWS-SENTINEL Freshman All-SEC team... Graded a career-high 92 percent on 25 plays against All-American Trace Armstrong of Florida in Cats 24-19 loss... Also credited with 83 percent grade on 37 plays in 24-10 victory over Southern Illinois... Named to the UKAA Honor Roll with a perfect 4.0 GPA in initial semester at UK... Season average grade of 78.6 percent... Participated in 98 plays while averaging 16.3 per game.

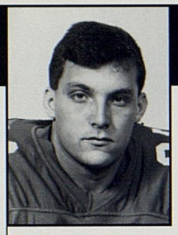

HIGH SCHOOL: Three-year starter as offensive guard and defensive tackle at Pickerington High under coach Jack Johnson... First team All-State by Associated Press and United Press International... Selected to COLUMBUS DISPATCH All-Star team... All-District and All-Ohio Capital Conference... Squad's most valuable defensive lineman as senior... 2nd team All-Conference as sophomore and junior... Three-year letterman in wrestling... Won Ohio Capital Conference heavyweight title 3 consecutive years... National Honor Society.

PERSONAL: Full name is Gregory Scott Lahr... Born 12-9-69 in Columbus, Ohio... Son of Robert and Shirley Lahr... Finance major... Expected date of graduation is May '92.

FREDDIE MAGGARD

Quarterback, 6-2, 215, Sr-2L, Cumberland (High)

MAGGARD FACT: Enters the 1991 season ranked 7th on the UK career list for passing yards with 2,566 and needs 434 more yards to become only the 5th passer in UK history to throw for 3,000 yards.

OUTLOOK: Enters August drills listed at No. 1 at quarterback... Missed '91 spring drills due to rehabilitation of right shoulder injury... Did not have a chance to compete for No. 1 in spring, so Curry will give him a chance to return to starting spot at beginning of fall... Most experienced of all UK signal-callers... Prior to injury, had started 15 consecutive games at QB... Had surgery on throwing shoulder last January to repair slight tear in rotator cuff... Is expected to be at 100 percent when varsity reports... Initially injured shoulder in 2nd quarter on pass attempt against North Carolina... A true competitor... Ultimate team player... Courageously led Wildcats on dramatic 4th-quarter, 66-yard drive in final 2 minutes against Georgia in obvious pain due to shoulder ailment... If arm recovers as expected, could possibly entertain thoughts of playing baseball with UK Wildcats in spring like former teammate Steve Phillips (SE in football; OF in baseball) did in '91... Fastball clocked at 90-mph as prep pitcher which prompted the Kansas City Royals to draft him as a senior... Member of UK Leadership Council which is the players' voice in matters of discussion with Coach Bill Curry.

1990 (JUNIOR): Saw action in 9 games, getting the starting nod in 7... Elected permanent offensive team captain by teammates... Academic All-SEC Honor Roll... Right shoulder injury against North Carolina forced him to sidelines for Ole Miss and LSU contests... Did pooch punt 2 times for 31 yard average against Mississippi State in only action in that 3-game span... Forced to sideline early in 1st quarter with 7-0 lead against Tennessee when he reinjured shoulder... Completed 109 of 188 passes for 1,051 yards and 6 TDs, all team-highs... Turned in career-high performance by hitting 27 of 46 passes for 282 yards and 2 TDs in loss to Indiana... His 27 completions and 46 attempts vs. Indiana were the 2nd-highest UK single-game marks in school history... Passed for over 150 yards vs. Rutgers (174) and Florida (192), but suffered 3 interceptions in each contest... Had completed 5 of 7 passes for 43 yards before leaving Tennessee game after reinjuring shoulder.

1989 (SOPHOMORE): Won the starting nod at quarterback from senior Chuck Broughton in August and never relinquished it... Started all 11 games to earn 1st varsity letter... Academic All-SEC Honor Roll... Completed 130 of 231 passes for 1,515 yards and 6 touchdowns... Owned sparkling completion percentage of .563... His touchdown-to-interception ratio (6-12) was low, but had 4 TD passes dropped... Finished the season ranked on UK season list Top 10 in 6 categories — completions (5th), pass attempts (4th), passing yardage (7th), completion percentage (5th), most offensive plays (2nd, 334), and total offense (8th, 1446)... Threw for a season-high 217 yards on 18 of 29 passing vs. Auburn... Best overall outing came at Florida with 15 of 21 passing for 144 yards and 1 TD... Did have streak late in season with 58 consecutive passes without an interception... Ranked 7th in the SEC in pass efficiency (109.55) and 5th in completion percentage... Also finished 7th in league in total offense (131.5 ypg)... Led UK in Cat Paws with 60... Named by UK Coaching Staff as Offensive Back of the Week on 3 occasions... Participated in 737 plays... Averaged 67 snaps per game.

1988 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN): Limited to brief backup duty in 5 games... Shoulder injury during August drills hampered throwing motion much of the fall... Was used on UK kickoff return unit and had 1 return of 6 yards vs. Alabama.

1987 (FRESHMAN): Redshirted after arthroscopic knee surgery in fall... Began UK career as free safety but switched to quarterback in spring '88.

HIGH SCHOOL: Three-year letterman as quarterback-free safety at Cumberland High under Coach Ron Cain... All-State selection as senior... Participated in Kentucky-Tennessee All-Star game... As a senior, passed for 1,500 yards and 13 TDs while rushing for 985 yards and 8 TDs... Ended career with 26 pass interceptions from free safety position... Led Cumberland to Class A state runnerup in 1986... Lettered 4 years in baseball and 3 years in basketball... All-State pick on the baseball diamond... All-Conference in both baseball and basketball... National Honor Society and Beta Club.

PERSONAL: Full name is Freddie Wayne Maggard, II... Born 12-16-68 at Hazard... Son of Fred and Pat Maggard... Earned his undergraduate degree in communications in May 1991... Currently plans on 2nd degree in marketing.

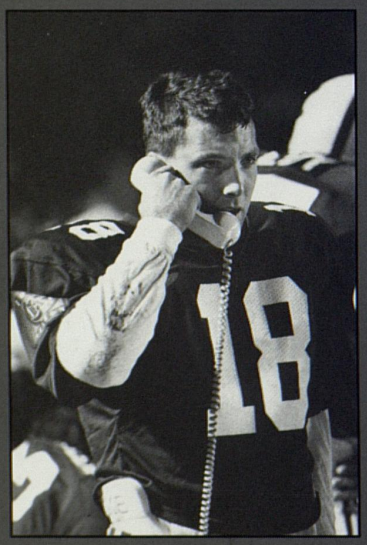

CIVIC SERVICE: Participated in Big Buddy program with Maxwell Elementary School (Spring '89)... Spelling Bee judge for Fayette County Education Association (Spring '90)... Veterans Hospital celebrity visitor (Fall '87-'90)... Has been guest speaker at numerous elementary school graduations and banquets.

44 TERRY SAMUELS

Fullback, 6-2, 240,
So-IL, Louisville (Male)

SAMUELS FACT: Only Wildcats player selected to the 1990 Knoxville News-Sentinel Freshman All-Southeastern Conference team.

OUTLOOK: Projected to start at fullback this season... Ranked 4th-best fullback in country by NCAA FOOTBALL PREVIEW magazine... Could become one of the top offensive backs in the SEC and country if he continues to improve on his redshirt freshman season performance... Gave UK offense a huge lift in midseason last year when he moved into starting role at fullback... Allowed Coach Bill Curry and his staff to move Al Baker to tailback, creating a dynamite 1-2 punch in the Wildcats backfield... Though 6-2, 240, he is an outstanding receiver... Has best hands on squad... His uncanny ability to catch the football is primarily because of his days at tight end in high school... Just starting to come into his own as a runner due to his lack of experience lining up in an offensive backfield... Earned the "Big Hitter" award during latest spring session... Switched from tight end to fullback during '90 spring drills.

1990 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN): Played in 10 games, getting the starting nod in final 6 contests... First collegiate start vs. Mississippi State... Did not play in UK's 24-8 loss at Rutgers... Ranked 2nd on squad in rushing (325 yards) and 3rd in receiving (34 rec.)... Averaged 4.5 yards per carry on 72 attempts... Also ranked 2nd on team in all-purpose yards (57.5 ypg), averaging 5.3 yards per play... Best overall game came in 17-15 victory over Mississippi State... Rushed for 51 yards on 11 carries vs. the Bulldogs and had 7 receptions for 57 yards, including both UK touchdowns on catches of 3 and 15 yards... Churned for a career-high 76 yards rushing on 18 carries, including 3 receptions for 34 yards, in 26-24 victory over Georgia... Also had fine rushing efforts vs. Vanderbilt (75) and Tennessee (60)... Caught at least 2 passes in a game on 8 occasions... Best receiving games vs. Mississippi State (7-57), Florida (7-28) and Tennessee (5-41)... Caught at least 1 pass in final 9 games of season.

1989 (FRESHMAN): Redshirted.

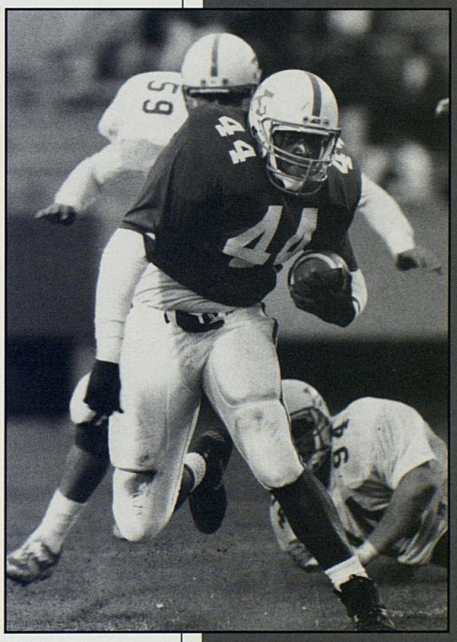

HIGH SCHOOL: Three-year letterman as tight end and linebacker at Louisville Male High under Coach Jim Jordan... Second team All-State by COURIER-JOURNAL... Named to Kentucky-Tennessee All-Star team... LINDY's All-Kentucky team... Had 21 pass receptions for 400 yards and 4 TDs as senior... Had 71-yard TD reception vs. Southern... Also returned punts and kickoffs... Returned kickoff 70 yards for a touchdown vs. Jeffersontown... Helped lead Bulldogs to a 3-year record of 28-6, which included 3 consecutive state playoff appearances... Also lettered in basketball and track.

PERSONAL: Full name is Terance Eugene Samuels... Born 9-26-70 at Louisville... Son of Findy Samuels... Social work major.

CIVIC SERVICE: National Kidney Foundation Wildcats Run and Walk (April '91) which helped raise over $32,000.

56 DERRICK THOMAS

Defensive End, 6-2, 233, Sr-2L, Lexington (Bryan Station)

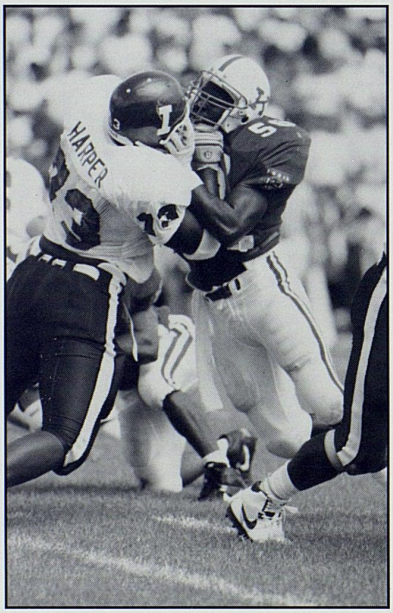

THOMAS FACT: Played at same high school as did 3 other former UK standouts — Cornell Burbage (NY/NJ Knights), Dermontti Dawson (Pittsburgh Steelers), and Marc Logan (Miami Dolphins).

OUTLOOK: Enters fall workouts returning to his No. 1 spot at defensive end in UK's multiple attack... The defensive end position in the Wildcats scheme is similar to a weakside outside linebacker... Will either stand or be positioned in a 3-point stance... One of the most consistent performers on the UK defensive unit... Made smooth transition from inside linebacker to defensive end during '90 spring drills... UK Coaching Staff feels his quickness is an asset in applying quarterback pressure... Bench presses 345 pounds... Ranked 7th on squad in cleans (355)... Ended spring on high note with 3 tackles and 2 sacks in Bank One Blue-White game.

1990 (JUNIOR): Started all 11 games as defensive end... Ended the season with 47 tackles, including 1 sack (-5) and 1 TFL (-1)... Was 4th on squad with 5 QB pressures... Best effort came in loss to Rutgers... Credited with tying his career-high of 6 tackles and added 3 QB pressures and 1 sack against the Scarlet Knights... Had 5 tackles, 1 TFL and 1 interception at Tennessee... Tipped an apparent screen pass from Tennessee quarterback Andy Kelly, then caught the deflection for his 1st collegiate interception and set up UK's 2nd score against the Vols... Also recorded career-high 6 tackles against Indiana and run-oriented Vanderbilt... Made presence felt on special teams with 4 tackles in limited action... Earned Wildcats Pride awards for efforts vs. Rutgers, Mississippi State and Tennessee... Named Co-Most Improved Defensive Lineman along with Jody Matthews for his performance during '90 spring drills.

1989 (SOPHOMORE): Played in all 11 games as backup inside linebacker... Also used on kick coverage teams... Earned 1st varsity letter... Credited with 26 tackles, including an even 13 solos and 13 assists... Recovered 1 fumble vs. North Carolina... Had high of 6 tackles vs. Indiana and Cincinnati... Posted 4 stops at Georgia... Participated in 220 plays, including a high of 38 in 17-14 victory over Indiana... Averaged 20 plays per game.

1988 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN): Had played in 3 games (Kent State, Alabama, and LSU) before suffering ankle fracture to end his season...Credited with 4 tackles...Season-high 2 stops vs. Kent State...Also had 1 tackle vs. Alabama and LSU...Participated in 32 plays, including a high of 12 against Kent State.

1987 (FRESHMAN): Redshirted.

HIGH SCHOOL: Four-year letterman as linebacker at Bryan Station High under Coach Steve Parker...One of the top linebackers in state as senior... Second team All-State...Participated in Kentucky-Tennessee All-Star game... Permanent team captain junior and senior seasons... President of Bryan Station Letterman's Club.

PERSONAL: Full name is Derrick LaRon Thomas... Born 9-24-69 at Lexington ...Son of Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas... Social work major... Expected to complete his undergraduate degree during the '91 summer session.

1990 review

THOUGH 4-7, WILDCATS MAKE MOST OF THE TRANSITION

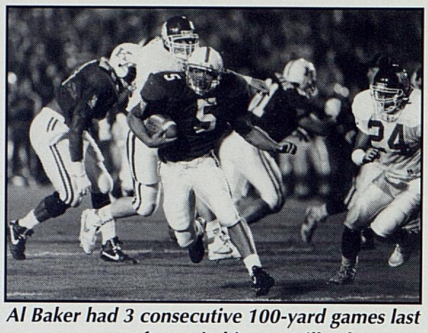

Chalk up the 1990 Kentucky season to transition.

No, the Wildcats did not celebrate their 100th season of intercollegiate football with a Southeastern Conference championship. Nor a bowl game. Not even a winning season, according to wins and losses.

Changes occurred from all angles — a new coaching staff directed by Bill Curry; a new pro-multiple offense desiring to pass first, run second; a new attacking multiple defense; and a new championship mind-set.

But despite all the obstacles of learning as-you-play, the 1990 Kentucky Wildcats had a legitimate shot at the SEC title riding a 3-2 league mark as late as Nov. 17. Though the final numbers do not tell the true story — 4-7 overall — it does look much better than an 0-10-1 mark the last time Kentucky football got a face-lift in 1982.

"No one can deny that our team definitely improved," Curry said. "They really came on in the latter part of the season, and it was good to see."

Al Baker had 3 consecutive 100-yard games last season after switching to tailback.

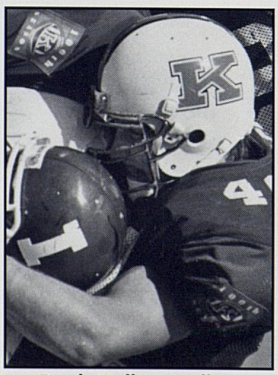

Individually, Al Baker and Randy Holleran turned in banner senior campaigns. Baker led UK in rushing (780 yards) and scoring (72 points) while finishing second in receiving (35 receptions). He was named second team All-SEC by Associated Press and was a 10th round selection by the New York Jets in the National Football League Draft. Holleran paced the Wildcats defenders with a team-leading 174 tackles and turned in a school-record 29 hits vs. LSU. He was a first team All-SEC selection.

TRANS

The Wildcats had three wins against four losses in SEC tilts, good enough for fifth place. The three league victories and fifth-place finish were the best for a UK team since 1984. Though '90 was not filled with tons of success, Curry credits the positives to his 18 seniors.

"Down the stretch, especially in the first year (of a coaching change), you can run into an ugly situation, particularly with the older players," Curry said. "Instead, this whole team held together and fought like crazy. The contribution of the older players was a huge positive for us. In fact, I think the whole team sticking together and showing steady improvement is what I would have to say was the highlight of the year."

The steady improvement was a 3-3 overall mark in the Wildcats final six games. And in that same stretch, a once sputtering offense suddenly began to roll to an average of 372.8 yards per game.

Randy Holleran collects 1 of his 174 tackles against Indiana.

Tight end Rodney Jackson and offensive guard Joel Mazzella were both named to the Associated Press All-SEC second team. Split end Phil Logan ended his career in third place on the UK list for receptions (83). And senior bandit Jeff Brady lived his dream — turning a collegiate career which began as a walkon into a 12th round draft choice of the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Looking at the '90 schedule, Curry stated so many times about the importance of the fourth quarter. That one segment of a 60-minute contest, he said, would likely determine the wins and losses of this Wildcats team. In eight of UK's 11 games, the outcome was decided in the final stanza as UK went 4-4 in those contests with wins over Central Michigan, Mississippi State, Georgia and Vanderbilt.

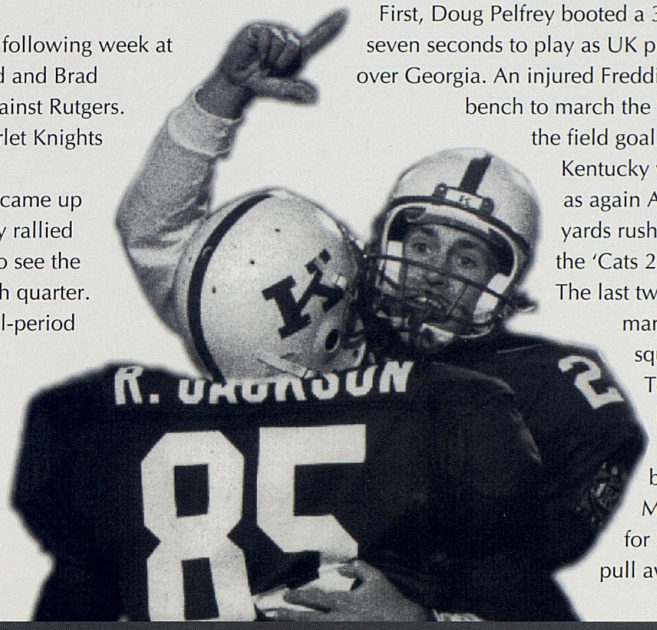

As fate would have it, the fourth quarter challenge came early as in the season-opener against Central Michigan. A 32-yard field goal by Doug Pelfrey and an interception by Brady in the final period preserved a 20-17 victory.

Eight turnovers settled the issue the following week at Giants Stadium as QBs Freddie Maggard and Brad Smith combined for six interceptions against Rutgers. A 21-point second quarter gave the Scarlet Knights enough room for a 24-8 win.

Two gallant efforts by the Wildcats came up short the following two weeks. Kentucky rallied from a 17-0 deficit to tie Indiana, only to see the Hoosiers strike for 28 points in the fourth quarter. Then, North Carolina managed two final-period field goals to drop UK 16-13 at Chapel Hill.

Conference play was no different. The effort was again evident at Oxford on Oct. 5 but the scoreboard showed Ole Miss 35, Kentucky 29. A sack and resulting fumble gave Ole Miss an easy touchdown early in the fourth quarter which was the difference. The Rebels had to hold on for a 35-29 victory as Kentucky controlled the football for the final eight minutes.

Homecoming was a welcome sign for this young and gritty Wildcats squad. Although wearing a 1-4 collar, a crowd of 56,375 witnessed Kentucky block three field goals to wrestle a 17-15 victory from Mississippi State and run its Homecoming win streak to eight.

A pair of field goals by LSU's Pedro Suarez in the fourth quarter overshadowed a 159-yard rushing effort by Al Baker as the Tigers edged the Wildcats 30-20 at Tiger Stadium. Kentucky had pulled to within 24-20 early in the third, but crossed midfield only once the rest of the way.

Other home dates with Commonwealth Stadium was just the medicine for this Kentucky squad the next two weeks. First, Doug Pelfrey booted a 32-yard field goal with just seven seconds to play as UK pulled out a 26-24 victory over Georgia. An injured Freddie Maggard came off the bench to march the Wildcats 66 yards to set up the field goal. And on Nov. 10, Kentucky went to 3-2 in league play as again Al Baker shined with 151 yards rushing and two touchdowns in the 'Cats 28-21 win over Vanderbilt. The last two weeks produced an 0-2 mark against a pair of Top Ten squads — Florida and Tennessee. A brief 9-7 UK lead vanished from the passing abilities displayed by Gator QB Shane Matthews as Florida struck for 24 second-quarter points to pull away. Then at Knoxville, it took 21 third-quarter points by Tennessee to erase a 21-7 UK lead as the Vols marched one step closer to the Sugar Bowl.

Yes, the 1990 season was a year of transition, a year of change. But Curry believes his troops are on the right path to success.

"You can be on the right track and still get run over if you're sitting still," said Curry, who was stealing a quote from Will Rogers. "We're on the right track and we're moving in the right direction, and the speed will vary. But there's no question where this program is going."

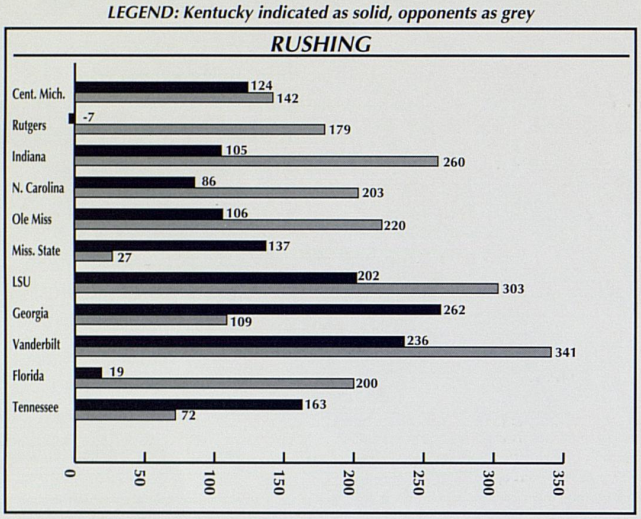

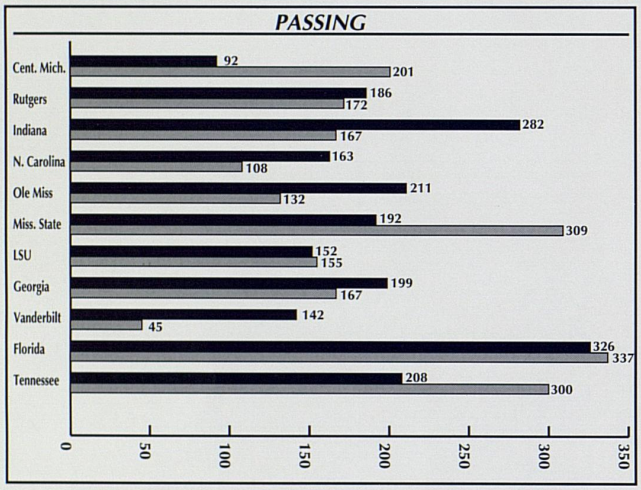

Doug Pelfrey leaps into the arms of Rodney Jackson after kicking his game-winning field goal vs. Georgia.

LEGEND: Kentucky indicated as solid, opponents as grey

KENTUCKY 20, CENTRAL MICHIGAN 17

Sept. 1 at Lexington • Attendance—57,550

The Kentucky Wildcats celebrated the kickoff of their 100th football season and the beginning of the Bill Curry era by turning back pesky Central Michigan, 20-17, at sun-drenched Commonwealth Stadium.

Though the Wildcats ran their opening day winning streak to four games, the victory did not come easily. It took 13 second-half points by UK and a gutsy defense which held the Chippewas scoreless on three fourth-quarter drives into Wildcats territory to give Curry his first victory at Lexington.

Statistically, Central Michigan had the better of it with 343 total yards to UK's 216. The Chippewas also held the edge in first downs (21-15), rushing (142-124) and passing (201-92). But it was Kentucky who held the football for just under nine minutes in the fourth quarter which was enough for PK Doug Pelfrey to nail a 32-yard field goal with 12:23 to play and break a 17-17 deadlock.

The Kentucky special teams set up the Wildcats first score. Nose guard Joey Couch burst through the line to block Dennis NIcholl's punt attempt. Linebacker Marty Moore gathered the pigskin and ran the football to CMU's three yard-line. One play later, FB Al Baker went over for the score to make it 7-0 with 1:21 left in the opening period.

Central Michigan made it, 14-7, at intermission behind the determined play of QB Jeff Bender. First, Bender hit Ken Ealy on a 42-yard scoring strike with a minute gone in the second quarter. Bender next scampered 13 yards to paydirt midway through the period to give the Chippawas a seven-point lead.

Kentucky quickly responded at the beginning of the third quarter. QB Freddie Maggard capped a 42-yard drive in six plays by connecting with FL John Bolden on a seven-yard scoring toss. Pelfrey added the PAT to knot the count at 14-14 with 10:32 left in the third quarter.

On the Wildcats' next drive beginning at midfield, Maggard promptly hit Kurt Johnson and Al Baker on a pair of short passes to set up Pelfrey. From there, Pelfrey calmly drilled his first collegiate field goal try from 50 yards to give UK a 17-14 edge.

Nicholl added a 20-yard field goal for the Chippewas with 1:36 left in the third, before Pelfrey rang up the game-winner on UK's next offensive drive early in the final quarter.

RUTGERS 24, KENTUCKY 8

Sept. 8 at East Rutherford, N.J. • Attendance—21,141

A 21-point second quarter by Rutgers and eight Kentucky turnovers were too much for the Wildcats to overcome as the Scarlet Knights took a shocking 24-8 victory at Giants Stadium.

In quite a contrast from a week earlier when UK did not committ one turnover, the Wildcats were intercepted six times and lost fumbles on two other occasions. The six interceptions tied a school record which had been duplicated twice prior—vs. LSU (1965) and vs. West Virginia (1969).

Kentucky did have its moments, though. Like in the first quarter when the Wildcats blocked a pair of Rutgers' field goals to thwart separate drives. And again in the second quarter when Dean Wells blocked another field goal try. Or in the third stanza when LB Randy Holleran personally stopped the Scarlet Knights' four plays inside the UK five.

But Rutgers used the big play and a short amount of time—less than two minutes—to build an almost insurmountable 21-0 lead at halftime. All total, Rutgers used one play on a scoring drive, four plays on another while using an interception return for yet another score in the second period.

One play after a Bill Hawk punt, QB Tom Tarver hit Chris Brantley for a 38-yard score to make it 7-0 with 9:19 left in the second quarter. Again one play after the Knights' John Benestad had his 30-yard field goal blocked, QB Freddie Maggard overthrew Rodney Jackson as RU's Willie Wilkes hauled in the misfire and ran 19 yards for the score, 14-0 with 4:30 left in the half. Then on Rutgers next drive and facing a fourth down at the UK 32, Tarver beat the Wildcats blitz and found James Jenkins for a 32-yard strike to end the four-play drive with 1:56 left until halftime.

Benestad added a 39-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter to extend the margin to 24-0.

Kentucky did manage to get on the board late. Maggard marched the Wildcats 88 yards in 12 plays to keep UK from being shutout for the first time since 1985. Maggard ended the drive by connecting with SE Phil Logan on a 36-yard scoring toss with one minute left. TB Craig Walker caught the two-point pass from Maggard to make the final 24-8.

Statistically, Rutgers owned the advantage in total offense (351-179) and in time of possession (36:34 to 23:26). The most amazing statistic of the evening was UK's minus-seven yards rushing. Tekay Dorsey of Rutgers turned in a game-high 110 yards rushing on 23 attempts. Maggard completed 19 of 31 passes for 174 yards and backup Brad Smith completed just one of eight passes for 12 yards. Each suffered three interceptions. Tarver hit nine of 15 passes for Rutgers for 172 stripes and two touchdowns.

INDIANA 45, KENTUCKY 24

Sept. 15 at Lexington • Attendance—58,150

Indiana used a 28-point fourth quarter to squelch a gallant Kentucky comeback as the Hoosiers regained the Bourbon Barrel with a 45-24 victory in front of the fourth-largest (58,150) crowd in Commonwealth Stadium history.

The 28 points by Indiana were the most scored in one quarter by an opponent against the Wildcats, breaking the previous high of 24 when Bill Curry's Alabama squad rallied for a 31-27 win over UK in 1988. But though the 28-spot by Indiana was impressive, Kentucky used a bundle of guts on three long drives to rally from a 17-point deficit early.

A Trent Green eight-yard run put the Hoosiers on top 17-0 with 7:19 left in the second quarter. From there, the Wildcats marched 82 yards on 11 plays to get on the scoreboard just before the half. An 11-yard pass from QB Freddie Maggard to FL John Bolden capped the drive to make it 17-7 at halftime.

Kentucky again used impressive, long drives to open up the third quarter and knot the score at 17-17. A 13-play, 54-yard drive ended on a 25-yard field goal by Doug Pelfrey with 10:08 left in the period. One possession later, Maggard guided the Wildcats 86 yards in 13 plays with FB Al Baker going over from one yard to tie the score with 2:55 left in the third quarter.

Indiana did not blink. On its next possession, the Hoosiers converted three third downs and one fourth down in going 80 yards in 14 plays. Vaughn Dunbar put IU in the lead for good by scampering 11 yards around right end for a 24-17 lead with 11:55 left in the contest.

Lightning struck quickly again for Indiana four plays later. Rob Turner hauled in a punt from UK's Bill Hawk, shedded a tackler, and raced 64 yards down the right sideline for the score. Turner helped set up IU's next score by grabbing a 35-yard aerial from Green to put the Hoosiers in business inside the UK 10. And finally, the Indiana scoring ended following an interception of a Brad Smith pass which gave the Hoosiers possession on the UK 23.

Maggard, who ended the day hitting 27 of 46 passes for 282 yards (all career highs), got the Wildcats on the board one last time with a 41-yard scoring toss to Bolden with 12 seconds left.

NORTH CAROLINA 16, KENTUCKY 13

Sept. 22 at Chapel Hill • Attendance—43,000

Placekicker Clint Gwaltney kicked a pair of fourth-quarter field goals to lift the North Carolina Tar Heels to a come-from-behind, 16-13, victory over Kentucky on an overcast afternoon at Kenan Stadium.

Gwaltney's kicks erased a 13-10 UK lead. Gwaltney hit a 37-yard field goal with 10:06 left in the contest to tie the game. Then, Gwaltney added the game-winner from 50 yards with 4:31 remaining to give the Tar Heels the victory.

Statistically, North Carolina did own the edge in rushing (203-86) and total offense (311-249). But a controlled passing attack gave the Wildcats the advantage in passing yards (163-108), first downs (18-13) and time of possession (34:39-25:21).

Kentucky looked impressive on its first possession of the game. The Wildcats marched 60 yards in 14 plays to get on the board while converting two, fourth-down situations. Doug Pelfrey scratched the scoreboard by hitting a 37-yard field goal to give UK a 3-0 lead with 6:48 left in the opening period.

A two-yard run by Natrone Means and a 21-yard field goal by Gwaltney had given the Tar Heels a 10-3 advantage with just over three minutes left in the first half. But Kentucky closed strong, marching from its 24 to score in final three minutes.

Backup QB Brad Smith, who entered early in the second quarter when starter Freddie Maggard injured his right shoulder, hit SE Phil Logan on 17 and 16 yard tosses, connected with FB Al Baker for nine yards and TB Craig Walker for eight yards to move UK to the UNC 25. Then with just 10 seconds left in the half, Smith found Baker in the left flat. Baker broke a tackle and scampered across the middle of the field and scored in the right corner of the end zone to knot the count, 10-10, at halftime.

Kentucky appeared to be on its way to victory number two of the season when Pelfrey knocked in a 32-yard field goal with just 3:12 left in the third quarter. But North Carolina rallied for six points in the final 15 minutes to pick up the victory.

Individually, Eric Blount of North Carolina led all rushers with 114 yards on 21 carries. For the Wildcats, TB Mike Thomas had 34 stripes on just seven totes. Smith ended the afternoon with 11 pass completions in 21 attempts for 118 yards and one touchdown. Maggard was five of nine for 45 yards before he left with the shoulder injury.

OLE MISS 35, KENTUCKY 29

Oct. 6 at Oxford, Miss. • Attendance—27,000

Kentucky could not overcome a 21-point deficit as the Wildcats dropped their Southeastern Conference opener to Ole Miss, 35-29, on a hot and humid afternoon at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

Again, the big play victimized the Wildcats. Ole Miss used a 58-yard punt return by Vincent Brownlee to set up one score and Shawn Cobb recovered a fumble by Cats QB Brad Smith in the end zone for another.

But despite trailing 35-14 with just under nine minutes left to play, Kentucky never gave up.

QB Brad Smith, making his first collegiate start in place of injured Freddie Maggard, engineered an early 54-yard drive to put Kentucky in front 7-0 in the first quarter. TB Mike Thomas highlighted the march with a 32-yard run to set up a four-yard scoring jaunt by Al Baker.

The Rebels made the score, 14-7, at halftime thanks to a pair of scoring runs by Maurice Shaw (1 yard) and Randy Baldwin (15 yards).

Brownlee's punt return gave Ole Miss the football on the UK 23 on its second drive of the third quarter. From there, FB Ed Thigpen carried four times and finally scored on a one-yard plunge to push the lead to 21-7 with 9:28 left in the quarter.

Smith drove UK 80 yards in 11 plays following the ensuing kickoff to pull the Wildcats back to within seven, 21-14. In fact, Smith put the final touches on the drive by scampering in from 13 yards on a quarterback draw with 5:01 left in the third.

Baldwin, who led all rushers with 88 yards, answered for Ole Miss with a touchdown run of 21 yards off an option-pitch from Tom Luke. Then six minutes into the fourth quarter, Reb LB Pete Harris blind-sided Smith on a pass attempt around the UK 18. The ball was knocked loose and bounced into the endzone where Cobb pounced on it to give Ole Miss a comfortable 35-14 cushion with 8:59 remaining.

Smith then took the Wildcats 80 yards in 12 plays, delivering on a crucial fourth-and-nine situation with a 12-yard toss to FB Terry Samuels. He pulled the Cats to within 35-21 by hitting SE Phil Logan on a 21-yard post pattern for the score with 2:40 left.

PK Doug Pelfrey gave the Wildcats new life on the following on-side kick attempt. After almost missing the ball on the tee, Pelfrey outwrestled the Rebs' Camp Roberts for the loose pigskin to give UK the football on its own 39. Smith again marched Kentucky to the endzone as Baker knocked it over from one-yard as time expired. Smith then hit TE Neil Page on the two-point try to make it 35-29 on the game's last play.

KENTUCKY 17, MISS. STATE 15

Oct. 13 at Lexington • Attendance—56,375

Kentucky ran its Homecoming winning streak to eight games and captured its first Southeastern Conference win in the process, stopping Mississippi State, 17-15, on a cool night at Commonwealth Stadium.

The victory by the Wildcats snapped a four-game losing streak and moved UK to 1-1 in league play. But as was the case in Kentucky's previous three games—Indiana, North Carolina and Ole Miss—this one was also decided in the fourth quarter.

Nose guard Joey Couch preserved UK's slim two-point margin by knocking down a 48-yard field goal attempt by MSU's Chris Gardner with 3:26 left to play. The block was one of three on the evening by Kentucky. Earlier, the Wildcats had blocked a pair of field-goal attempts by Joel Logan, both coming in the second quarter.

This contest also marked the debut of UK's new-look offensive backfield as Terry Samuels lined up at fullback and Al Baker moved to tailback. The results for Kentucky were very good. Samuels churned for 51 yards rushing to go with seven pass receptions for 57 yards and two touchdowns. Baker led all rushers with 79 yards and had four receptions for another 48 stripes.

Kentucky led 10-0 at the half, thanks to a 20-yard field goal by Doug Pelfrey and a three-yard TD toss to Samuels from QB Brad Smith. The latter ended a 73-yard march in 10 plays.

Mississippi State got on the board early in the third quarter as Logan hit a 28-yard field goal to make it 10-3 with 11:40 left in the period. Two possessions later, Samuels scored again to extend the Wildcats lead to 17-3. Samuels scored on a 15-yard strike in the flat from Smith.

The Bulldogs, behind the brilliant passing of Tony Shell, came within a successful field goal of pulling this one out. Shell drilled a 50-yard scoring toss to Willie Harris to make it 17-9 with 2:39 left in the third quarter after the PAT failed.

Shell, who finished 16 of 30 passing for 309 yards, made it interesting after finding Jerry Bouldin on a 23-yard TD pass to pull the 'Dogs to within 17-15 with 14:22 remaining in the contest. Shell's two-point pass to Bouldin was incomplete to leave UK holding a two-point edge.

UK marched from its 26 to the MSU 8 on the ensuing drive. But a 25-yard field goal by Pelfrey, which would have given the Wildcats a five-point lead, sailed wide. That miss set the stage for Couch's heroics.

LSU 30, KENTUCKY 20

Oct. 20 at Baton Rouge • Attendance — 64,720

LSU tailback Harvey Williams rushed for a career-high 213 yards and one touchdown to lead the Tigers to a 30-20 victory over Kentucky in a wild Southeastern Conference shootout at Tiger Stadium.

Williams engaged in a high octane battle with Wildcats tailback Al Baker as the duo rushed for nearly 400 yards. Baker turned in a career-high as well, gaining 159 yards on 17 attempts and scoring once.

The difference in this contest was simply a 17-point, second-quarter by the Tigers. Though LSU jumped out to a 7-0 lead on a 60-yard TD sprint by Williams with less than two minutes gone in the first quarter, Kentucky rallied to take a 10-7 lead into the second period.

Baker knotted the score at 7-7 with 11:44 showing in the opening period on a 30-yard dash around right end. PK Doug Pelfrey pushed UK in front with a 29-yard field goal later in the period.

Pedro Suarez evened the count for LSU at 10-10 just one minute into the second quarter with a 31-yard field goal. Pelfrey then moved UK back in front at 13-10 with 5:59 left in the half to cap a 36-yard drive in 10 plays.

But LSU struck quickly to knock 14 points on the board before halftime. Chad Loup and Todd Kinchen ended an 88-yard drive in only four plays with a 45-yard TD hookup with 5:03 left. Then Williams put the final touches on a 59-yard march with a 4-yard grab of a Loup pass with but 14 seconds remaining, pushing LSU to a 24-13 advantage at intermission.

Kentucky closed the gap to open the third quarter. QB Brad Smith led the Wildcats on an 80-yard scoring drive in just eight snaps. Smith punched it in from one yard to cut the deficit to 24-20 with 11:27 left in the third.

That would be all of the scoring for Kentucky on this evening. The Wildcats only penetrated LSU territory once in the final stanza and came up empty as Pelfrey missed on a 49-yard attempt with five minutes to play.

LSU iced the contest with a pair of Suarez field goals in the fourth quarter. Suarez nailed kicks from 37 and 40 yards to give LSU the victory.

Defensively, UK linebacker Randy Holleran etched his name in the Wildcats record book. Holleran established a new school record with 29 tackles in the contest.

KENTUCKY 26, GEORGIA 24

Oct. 27 at Lexington • Attendance — 55,225

PK Doug Pelfrey booted a 32-yard field goal with seven seconds remaining to give Kentucky a thrilling 26-24 victory over the Georgia Bulldogs in Southeastern Conference action at Commonwealth Stadium.

Despite an overwhelming advantage by Kentucky in total offense (461-276) and possession time (35:01 to 24:59), the Wildcats had to use a gutsy 66-yard drive in 11 plays to set up Pelfrey's heroics.

Kentucky dodged many a bullet on this evening. Georgia picked up a pair of scores on kick returns. Then the Wildcats had to call on an injured Freddie Maggard late in the fourth quarter to take over at quarterback when starter Brad Smith went down with a season-ending injury. But, each time Kentucky responded with the answer.

The Wildcats spotted Georgia a 10-0 lead. Shannon Mitchell hauled in a five-yard pass from Greg Talley in the first quarter and PK John Kasay added a 27-yard field goal in the second.

Kentucky rallied to tie the score at 10-10 in the final six minutes of the second period. First, flanker Kurt Johnson wiggled into the endzone on a 14-yard TD pass from Smith with 6:18 left. And Pelfrey knotted the count on a 29-yard field goal with 50 seconds remaining in the half.

A 12-yard run by Al Baker, who rushed for a game-high 133 yards, moved the Wildcats in front, 16-10 with 9:46 left in the third quarter. Pelfrey's PAT attempt was blocked and almost proved deadly for the Cats. Georgia did not stay down long as Andre Hastings wasted no time with the ensuing kickoff and raced 89 yards up the middle of the field to score. Kasay added the PAT and it was 17-16 in favor of the Dawgs with 9:31 to go in the third quarter.

Baker notched his second TD of the evening later in the period on a one-yard run. His score ended a long march of 84 yards in 13 plays to give UK a 23-17 lead with 4:31 left in the third.

It remained that way until Chuck Carswell grabbed a Bill Hawk punt, eluded a tackler, and raced down the right sideline 69 yards for a touchdown. Kasay made it 24-23 Georgia with the PAT as only 6:19 was left in the contest.

Maggard hit Phil Logan on a 22-yard pass on the first play of the winning drive which began at the UK 20. After a three-yard gain by Baker, Maggard hit Logan again for eight yards and fullback Terry Samuels for 17 to move the pigskin to the Georgia 30. Maggard then connected with TE Rodney Jackson two plays later for 10 yards, setting up Pelfrey's kick.

KENTUCKY 28, VANDERBILT 21

Nov. 10 at Lexington • Attendance — 50,400

Tailback Al Baker rushed for over 100 yards for the third consecutive game in leading Kentucky to a 28-21 victory over the Vanderbilt Commodores at Commonwealth Stadium.

Baker picked up 151 yards on 25 carries and scored twice to move Kentucky to a 3-2 mark in Southeastern Conference play. He previously gained 159 yards vs. LSU and 133 against Georgia during the last two weeks.

QB Freddie Maggard, making his first start since the North Carolina contest, hit 15 of 25 passes for 142 yards and one touchdown. His TD strike of five yards to FL John Bolden iced the victory for Kentucky with just over 10 minutes left to play.

This was an offensive free-for-all. Kentucky netted 378 yards of total offense which included 236 yards on the ground. Vanderbilt posted 386 total yards with 341 rushing, on the strength of a precision wishbone attack.

Baker put Kentucky on top 7-0 on a four-yard run with 7:08 left in the first period. His score ended a 65-yard march in 13 plays. Vandy quickly answered as Mark Johnson rambled over from seven yards to make it 7-7 with 4:20 left in the opening stanza.

Backup tailback Mike Thomas moved UK ahead 14-7 on a bruising two-yard run over right tackle two minutes into the second quarter. But again, the Commodores came right back and went 81 yards in nine plays to knot the score at 14-14. Fullback Carlos Thomas scored from two yards as 7:37 remained in the half.

Kentucky was able to take a 21-14 lead into the dressing room at halftime as Al Baker capped a 75-yard, 13-play drive. His nine-yard run with 2:20 left until halftime pushed the Wildcats back in front.

Commodore QB Marcus Wilson drove Vanderbilt to paydirt to open the third quarter. Wilson scored on a sneak from one yard with 10:31 left in the third period to tie the game at 21-21.

Exactly one quarter later (10:31), Bolden hauled in his five-yard strike from Maggard to give UK the winning margin. The big play to set up the winning drive came a series earlier as UK punter Bill Hawk rested a punt on the Vandy 1. After the Commodores managed a first down on a roughing the punter call four plays later, Vandy could not escape from deep inside its territory and punted from its own 14. Chris Tolbert fielded the punt and gave the Wildcats field position at the Commodore 46 to begin the drive.

FLORIDA 47, KENTUCKY 15

Nov. 17 at Lexington • Attendance — 55,140

The Florida Gators took advantage of four first-half turnovers by Kentucky to take a 47-15 victory over the Wildcats at Commonwealth Stadium.

Again, Kentucky surrendered a big quarter as Florida erased a 9-7 deficit with 24 points in the second period. The 31-9 halftime deficit was too much for the gutsy Wildcats to overcome as Kentucky evened to 3-3 inside the Southeastern Conference.

Kentucky led twice in the opening period. First, bandit Jeff Brady sacked Gator QB Shane Matthews in the endzone for a safety with 10:50 left as the Wildcats led 2-0. A 52-yard interception return by Godfrey Myles put Florida back on top 7-2 one minute later. Kentucky again took the lead behind the efforts of TB Al Baker. Facing a 3rd-and-12 from the UK 27, QB Freddie Maggard tossed a screen pass to Baker in the right flat. Baker did not stop until he reached the endzone 73 yards later. Doug Pelfrey added the PAT and UK was up 9-7 with 7:45 to go in the first quarter.

Matthews hit two of his four TD passes to move Florida back in front for good. Matthews connected on 17-and 19-yard scoring strikes to Ernie Mills to put the Gators up 21-9 with 6:07 remaining until halftime. Kelvin Randolph added an eight-yard run and Arden Czyzewski booted a 30-yard field goal as the half ended to make it 31-9 at intermission.

Matthews added a pair of TD tosses, one in each of the third and fourth quarters, to up the margin to 44-7. The 37 unanswered points by Florida was enough to give the Gators a 6-1 league record.

Backup QB Ryan Hockman relieved Maggard for his first collegiate action under center and led Kentucky 82 yards in 11 plays early in the final period. Hockman scored on a one-yard sneak to make the score 44-15 with 11:24 left. A two-point pass failed.

Czyzewski knocked in a 40-yard field goal with 7:32 left to round out the scoring.

Hockman produced good numbers in the relief role, hitting 10 of 13 passes for 134 yards. Maggard was 19 of 31 for 192 stripes and one TD but did throw three interceptions. On the other side, Matthews completed 20 of 37 passes for 303 yards and four TDs.

TENNESSEE 42, KENTUCKY 28

Nov. 24 at Knoxville • Attendance — 92,243

The Kentucky Wildcats raced to an early 21-7 lead but could not hold on as the Tennessee Volunteers moved one step closer to the 1990 Southeastern Conference crown with a 42-28 victory at Neyland Stadium.

For Kentucky, the makings of a major upset in this Battle for the Beer Barrel were evident for most of the afternoon. Kentucky led in most statistical categories — first downs (19-17), rushing (163-72) and possession time (37:15-22:45) — and trailed by one yard in total offense (372-371). But as in the case of the 1990 season, the big quarter continued to be a pain in the Wildcats side as Tennessee erupted for 21 points in the third period to squelch the upset bid.

Kentucky took the opening kickoff and did not stop until the endzone. Tailback Al Baker capped a 62-yard drive with a one-yard TD plunge on the 11th play to give UK a 7-0 lead with 9:57 left.

Two series later, Kentucky took over at the Vol 20 thanks to Derrick Thomas' interception of a deflected Andy Kelly pass. And two plays later, backup quarterback Ryan Hockman hit Phil Logan for a nine-yard scoring toss to give UK a 14-0 lead with 5:20 left in the period. Hockman entered when starting QB Freddie Maggard left with a shoulder injury with eight minutes remaining.

Tennessee needed one play to close the gap. Kelly hit Carl Pickens on a 71-yard TD strike to pull the Vols to within 14-7. But Kentucky extended its lead with 6:29 left in the second quarter as holder Steve Phillips hit TE Rodney Jackson on a 22-yard pass off a fake field goal. Pelfrey's PAT made it 21-7.

A crucial intentional grounding penalty as Hockman overthrew TE Rodney Jackson on UK's next possession, moved the Wildcats back inside their 10. On the next play, TB Mike Thomas fumbled to set up a 12-yard TD toss from Kelly to Alvin Harper. That made it 21-14 at halftime.

Tennessee scored 21 points in a span of six minutes to open the third quarter. Pickens hauled in a 12-yard pass from Kelly, Anthony Morgan grabbed a 22-yarder from Kelly and Dale Carter ran 41 yards with an interception return to make it 35-21 with 8:35 left in the third.

Kentucky did fight back as Hockman guided the Wildcats on a 55-yard drive in 13 plays to pull within seven, 35-28. Hockman ended the march with a four-yard TD toss to Logan with 7:37 left to play in the fourth quarter. But, Tennessee iced the game on its next possession as Pickens caught a 25-yard TD strike from Kelly to make it 42-28.

The Southeastern Conference can exclaim another first during the 1990-91 academic year—the addition of Arkansas and South Carolina to the 10-team league—which marked the first invitations extended since the league's inception in 1933.

These 12 institutions head into the '90s with new-look league formats and scheduling. The SEC adopted an eight-game football schedule last fall. In addition, the 12 schools will divide into two, six-team divisions. And in football, the two division winners will square-off in a championship game as Dec. 5, 1992, is the target date for the initial contest at Birmingham.

Though Arkansas and South Carolina will not be eligible for a football championship until the '92 campaign, both institutions will compete for all other league titles beginning the 1991-92 academic year.

The 12 universities of the Southeastern Conference began athletic competition with each other almost 100 years ago when most were members of the Southeastern Intercollegiate Athletics Association (SIAA). Seven institutions attended the SIAA organizational meeting of faculty representatives called by Dr. William L. Dudley of Vanderbilt in Atlanta on Dec. 22, 1894.

The seven-member SIAA expanded to 19 institutions in 1895 and by 1920 there were 30 members. The larger schools reorganized as the Southern Conference at a meeting in Gainesville, Fla., Dec. 12-13, 1920. Professor S.V. Sanford of Georgia called the meeting and served as the first president. Despite an original limit of 16, the membership grew to 23 by 1928. At one time or another the SIAA and the SC included most of the Southern colleges from Virginia to Texas.

The 13 members west and south of the Appalachian Mountains reorganized as the Southeastern Conference at the annual SC meeting of Dec. 8-9, 1932, in Knoxville, Tenn. The 10 coast members remained in the Southern Conference. Dr. Frank L. McVey of Kentucky was elected president of the new conference whose charter members were: Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Louisiana State, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt. (Sewanee withdrew Dec. 13, 1940, while Georgia Tech and Tulane followed on June 1, 1964, and June 1, 1966, respectively). McVey held an informal meeting of the school presidents Feb. 16, 1933, in Birmingham, Ala., then the first full meeting in Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 27.

The new SEC discovered both stature and stability by designating voting power to the presidents of the member institutions. They determined the policies of the league and through the years it has been the principal source of strength in the evolution of the league, with particular reference to eligibility regulations and academic requirements. The office of the commissioner was formed in 1940 in Jackson, Miss., due to the great amount of detail work developing, especially in recruiting and eligibility. Former Mississippi Governor Martin S. Conner took office as commissioner Aug. 21, 1940, as an extension of the authority of the presidents.

The office was moved to Birmingham, Ala., with the appointment of Bernie H. Moore as the second full-time commissioner on Feb. 21, 1948.

The conference office has remained in Birmingham ever since. In that span from 1946 to 1991, the SEC has had four commissioners—A.M. (Tonto) Coleman, Dr. H. Boyd McWhorter, Dr. Harvey W. Schiller and Roy F. Kramer.

Current commissioner Roy F. Kramer came into office in 1990. Kramer had spent the last 12 years as athletics director at Vanderbilt and had served on numerous NCAA committees.

The first SEC champions were crowned in 1933 in four sports (baseball, basketball, football and outdoor track). The league's inaugural championship event a basketball tournament held Feb. 24-28, 1933, in Atlanta, Ga. Records show the first men's team title for cross-country was awarded in 1935, while golf and swimming were added in 1937. The league later began hosting championships in tennis (1953) and indoor track (1957).

In 1973-74 the SEC first awarded the Bernie Moore Trophy, symbolic of the league's premier men's athletic program. Points are awarded based on the member institutions' conference finish in all sports.

In the 1979-80 academic year SEC championships for women were recognized in basketball, tennis and volleyball. The following year golf, gymnastics, swimming and track and field were added. The administration of women's athletics officially came under the auspices of the conference office on Sept. 1, 1984. A women's all-sports champion has been awarded every year since 1983-84.

As the SEC begins its seventh decade of competition in 1991, the conference regulates nine sports for both its men's and women's programs as follows:

Men - baseball, basketball, football, golf, swimming, tennis and track (cross country, indoor and outdoor).

Women - basketball, golf, gymnastics, swimming, tennis, track (cross country, indoor and outdoor) and volleyball.

SEC Announces Divisions/Scheduling Formats

The presidents of the new-look Southeastern Conference voted on Nov. 29, 1990, to adopt an eight-game football schedule beginning in 1992.

Arkansas and South Carolina, added last Aug. 1 and Sept. 25, respectively, have extended the SEC from 10 to 12 teams. Both Arkansas and South Carolina will compete for the league championship in football beginning in '92. As a result, the conference will now be divided into two divisions — East and West. The East division has Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, South Carolina, Tennessee and Vanderbilt. The West divisionincludes Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, LSU, Ole Miss and Mississippi State.

The football schedule, which will feature a championship game on Dec. 5, 1992, between divisional winners, is set for Birmingham's Legion Field. A 5-2-1 scheduling format in league games will allow each school to play all five of its divisional opponents along with two permanent opponents and one rotating opponent for the other division every year. Below are the non-divisional permanent opponents for each school:

East Division
Florida (Auburn, LSU)
Georgia (Ole Miss, Auburn)
Kentucky (LSU, Mississippi State)
South Carolina (Mississippi State, Arkansas)
Tennessee (Arkansas, Alabama)
Vanderbilt (Alabama, Ole Miss)

West Division
Alabama (Tennessee, Vanderbilt)
Arkansas (South Carolina, Tennessee)
Auburn (Georgia, Florida)
LSU (Florida, Kentucky)
Ole Miss (Vanderbilt, Georgia)
Mississippi State (Kentucky, South Carolina)

The remaining four non-divisional opponents will be played on a rotating basis, ensuring an institution will play every conference member at least twice during an eight-year period.

The University

THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

From its modest beginnings in 1865, when it was known as State College, the University of Kentucky has grown into one of the nation's most outstanding institutions of higher learning. As a comprehensive land-grant university, UK offers an educational experience that cannot be matched anywhere in the Commonwealth.

In fact, only a small number of institutions across the nation can offer the wealth of opportunities that awaits students at UK. At Kentucky, there is a tradition of value.

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY FACTS

History

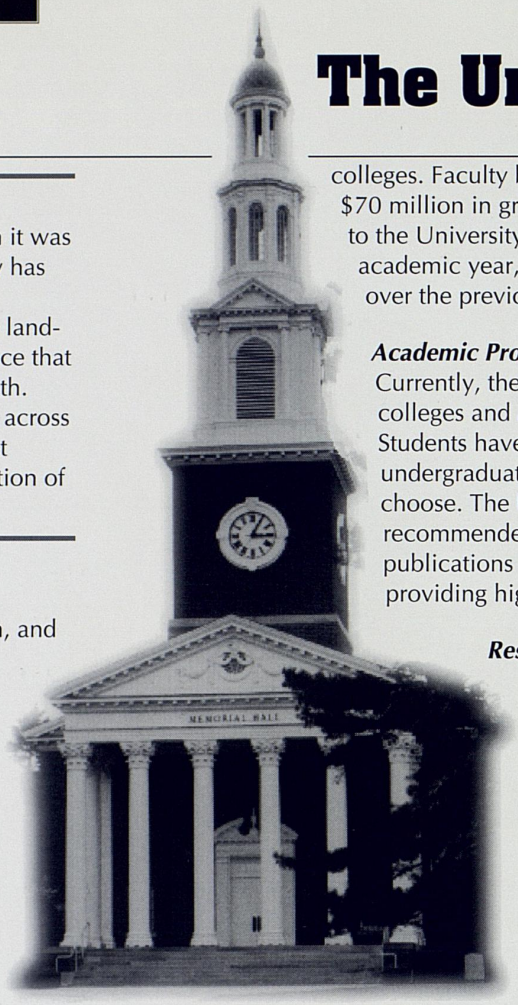

UK was founded in 1865 as a land-grant institution, and the present name dates to 1916. The Lexington campus has 673 acres. Dr. Charles T. Wethington, Jr., is UK's 10th president.

Students

The University of Kentucky now has more than 63,000 students with 23,000 on the Lexington campus and 40,000 at the 14 community colleges across the state. UK now educates 37 percent of all students in Kentucky attending a public or private college or university. There are 4,600 students now enrolled in graduate school with 86 master's and 58 doctoral programs offered.

Faculty

There are 1,566 full-time faculty on the Lexington campus and another 1,050 faculty in the community colleges. Faculty brought in more than $70 million in grants, contracts and gifts to the University during the last academic year, a 17 percent increase over the previous year.

Academic Programs

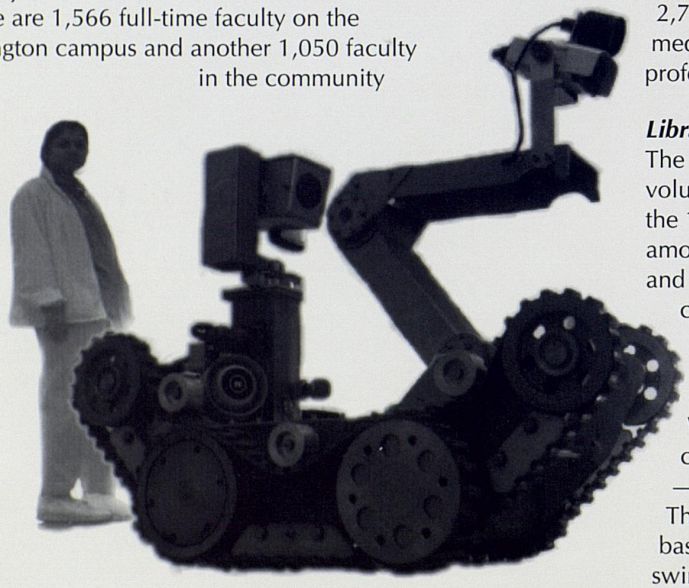

Currently, there are 17 academic colleges and a graduate school. Students have a choice of 108 undergraduate majors from which to choose. The University is recommended in five books or publications for its value in providing higher education.

Research

UK ranks among the Top 100 research institutions in the nation, and is one of only 45 public universities in the United States - the only one in Kentucky - to be classified as a Research University of the First Class.

Medical Center

The Albert B. Chandler Medical Center, including a 461-bed hospital, is located on the Lexington campus. Over 2,700 students are enrolled in its five colleges - medicine, dentistry, nursing, pharmacy, and allied health professions.

Library

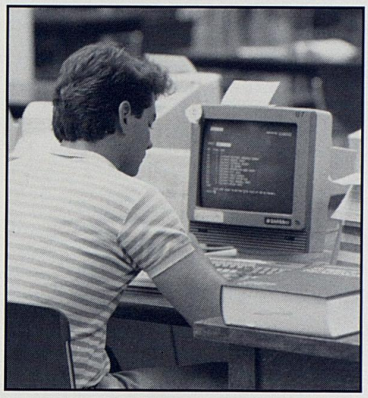

The UK Library System contains more than two million volumes and is inter-connected by computer with each of the 14 community colleges. The library is ranked 55th among all university research libraries in North America and the University has announced a fund-raising campaign to build a new $40 million library in future years.

Sports

With the addition of men's soccer last year, the current number of UK sports on the varsity level is 18 — 9 men's sports, 8 women's sports, and 1 coed sport. The men's sports consist of football, basketball, baseball, cross country, indoor/outdoor track, tennis, swimming, golf, and soccer. For the women, UK sponsors basketball, volleyball, swimming, golf, tennis, gymnastics, cross country, and indoor/outdoor track on the varsity level. The one coed sport in rifle. The UK's men basketball team has been prominent nationally for 50 years under the leadership of four coaches, ranging from Adolph Rupp to Rick Pitino. The UK football program also offers the excitement of top-level competition in the Southeastern Conference and is headed by Coach Bill Curry.

Charles T. Wethington University President

Charles T. Wethington Jr., was named the University of Kentucky's 10th president on September 18, 1990, after serving as interim president for nine months. Prior to assuming the post, he served as Chancellor of the UK Community College system since 1982.

Wethington began his career in higher education in 1965 as an educational psychology instructor on the Lexington campus of the University and entered administration two years later when he was named director of Maysville Community College. In 1971 he moved to the system office in Lexington as assistant vice president, becoming vice president of the Community College System in1981.

In the University reorganization of 1982 he was named chancellor of the UK system, one of the three major sectors of UK.

Under his leadership the Community College System has set enrollment records and added an entire new college at Owensboro.

Wethington earned his master's and doctorate degrees at UK after completing his undergraduate work at Eastern Kentucky University.

The Casey County native has been active on the national higher education scene, serving as legislation committee chairman of the National Council of State Directors of Community and Junior Colleges before moving to the chairmanship in l985.

He has been vice chairman of the Executive Council of the Southern Association of College and Schools' Commission on Colleges, and was a member of the search committee for the executive director of the Commission.

He has held membership on the Joint Commission on Federal Relations of the Association of Community College Trustees and the American Association of Community and Junior Colleges, and has served as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Wethington also is chairman of the Bluegrass State Skills Corporation board of directors, a member of the Board of Visitors of the Community College of the Air Force, a member of the Southern Region Education Board and member of its Executive Committee. He has been in demand nationally in the accreditation process of community and junior colleges.

During 1957-61 he served as a crypto-linguist in the U. S. Air Force Security Service. He studied Russian at Syracuse University, 1958-59.

Wethington, born Jan. 2, 1936, in Merrimac, Ky., is married to the former Judy Woodrow Wethington, a Danville native. They have a son, Kennan, 22, and a daughter, Lisa, 25, and live in Lexington.

C.M. Newton
UK Director of Athletics

When Charles Martin (C. M.) Newton became the University of Kentucky's seventh Director of Athletics on April 1, 1989, he hit the ground running.

Newton's first order of business was to bring respectability back to a basketball program hit hard by an NCAA investigation. He did so by hiring New York Knickerbockers head man Rick Pitino to coach the Wildcats. A few months later, Newton was faced with the task of hiring a football coach to replace the retiring Jerry Claiborne. Newton again rose to the occasion, luring Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year Bill Curry from the University of Alabama to lead the UK program.

Newton has scored with UK fans again and again. He announced that UK's football and basketball games would once again be carried on Louisville's clear-channel, 50,000-watt WHAS Radio, for the first time since 1986. He kicked off a fundraising campaign to build a new indoor practice facility adjacent to Commonwealth Stadium. And he announced the addition of varsity soccer to the UK Athletics program.

After a little more than two years on the job, Newton has become one of the most popular public figures in the Commonwealth of Kentucky. In addition to a lengthy, impressive list of credentials, Newton brought to Kentucky a sparkling reputation of integrity at a crucial time in the history of UK Athletics.

Newton capped an illustrious basketball coaching career by leading his final Vanderbilt University team to a 19-14 record, a second-place SEC finish and its second consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance during the 1988-89 season. He was named SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and also received the Kodak NABC District IV Coach of the Year award. Newton served as head basketball coach and associate athletics director at the Nashville school from 1982 to 1989, compiling a 129-115 record. In 32 years of coaching at Transylvania, Alabama and Vanderbilt, Newton compiled a 509-375 record overall, ranking among the top 10 active coaches in the game in terms of total victories. His Alabama teams won three consecutive Southeastern Conference championships. He finished his career ranked second in career victories in Southeastern Conference games to his mentor, Coach Adolph Rupp.

Perhaps more impressive, however, was Newton's ability to produce winning teams that also possessed exceptional academic credentials. During Newton's tenure at Vanderbilt, 18 Commodores were named to the Academic All-SEC team, over 50 percent more than any other league school. And including his last graduating class, all 21 seniors received their diplomas.

Newton is highly regarded on the national level. He has served on the board of directors of the National Association of Basketball Coaches. He worked six years on the NCAA Basketball Rules Committee, serving as chairman of that elite group for five of those years. He currently serves as vice president of USA Basketball, the nation's governing body for international basketball, and as chairman of its Games Committee, which is responsible for all international competition, including the Olympic Games.

Newton has literally circled the globe to promote the game of basketball. He served as team manager, a combination coaching and administrative position, on the 1984 U.S. Olympic team that won the gold medal. Indiana coach Bob Knight, who tabbed Newton for the Olympic staff, called him "the finest gentleman in our business."

Newton began his coaching career at Transylvania College (now Transylvania University) in Lexington. Recommended for the job by Coach Rupp, Newton guided Transy to a 169-137 record in his 12 years at the helm despite the handicap of a limited scholarship program.

In 1969, once again with the backing of Rupp, Newton answered a call from Paul "Bear" Bryant to take on the challenge of building the downtrodden Alabama basketball program. During his 12-year tenure, Newton orchestrated a complete turnaround in the Crimson Tide's basketball fortunes, compiling a sparkling 211-123 record. Newton guided the Tide to two trips to the NCAA Tournament and four berths in the NIT. A satisfied Bryant once remarked "C. M. Newton is a winner, and that's important, but more than anything else, he wins or loses with class, and that's more important."

With few horizons left to conquer at Alabama, Newton resigned at the end of the 1980 season to accept a job as assistant commissioner of the Southeastern Conference. A year later, when Vanderbilt athletics director Roy Kramer was searching for a coach of national stature to head the Commodore basketball program, Newton was the obvious man for the job.

Newton was born Feb. 2, 1930, in Rockwood, Tenn. He grew up in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., where he was eventually named a charter member of that city's Sports Hall of Fame, along with Chris Evert, Julius Boros, and the late Brian Piccolo. After high school, Newton enrolled at UK on a basketball scholarship. He was a letterman on the Wildcats' 1951 national championship team. Also a standout baseball pitcher, Newton hurled in the New York Yankees minor league system before entering college coaching.

Newton and his wife, Evelyn, have three grown children — son Martin, and daughters Deborah and Mrs. Tracy Thompson — and three grandchildren.

UKAA Administrative Staff

JOHN BOSTICK
Assistant Director of Athletics/Compliance

John Bostick is in his third year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association as Assistant Athletics Director for Compliance.

Bostick, a native of Winfield, Ala., was named to his post on June 1, 1989. Prior to that, he had spent eight years as an assistant basketball coach at Vanderbilt University under C. M. Newton.

In all, Bostick was an assistant coach under Newton for 20 years (12 at Alabama, eight at Vanderbilt). He has spent 32 years as a coach on either the high school or collegiate level. His head coaching record in the prep ranks was 178-102 in 10 seasons.

Bostick, who earned his bachelor's degree from Florence State in 1957, earned a master's degree from Alabama in 1969. He picked up 11 varsity letters during his collegiate playing days, which is a school record at Florence State (four in baseball and basketball, three in football).

He is married to the former Betty Cotton of Florence, Ala.

BOB BRADLEY
Assistant Director of Athletics/Academics

Bob Bradley is in his 14th year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association, coming aboard in 1977.

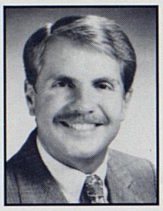

Bradley, a native of Hornell, N.Y., supervises all academic affairs regarding the UK Athletics program, including the operation of the CATS (Center for Academic and Tutorial Services) Center. He has also instituted a career development program for UK student-athletes.

During Bradley's tenure, UK student-athletes have consistently been honored for their academic achievements, both on a conference and national level. In 1989, the UK football program won the College Football Association's prestigious Academic Achievement Award, given to the University with the highest graduation rate among its football players over a five-year period. UK received Honorable Mention status in 1991.

Bradley graduated from Hornell High School and earned his degree at Salem College in 1971. He earned his Master's degree in 1972 from the University of Kentucky in educational psychology and counseling. He is a past president of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletes (NYA).

Prior to joining the UKAA staff, he served as coordinator of career counseling and director of financial aid for the Lexington Technical Institute.

Bradley is the son of Delores Bradley and the late Charles Bradley of Hornell. He is single.

CHRIS CAMERON
Assistant Director of Athletics/ Communications

Chris Cameron is in his fourth year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association. He was named Assistant Athletics Director for Communications in April of 1991 after serving as Sports Information Director for three years.

Cameron, a native of Ashland, directs all public relations efforts for UK's 18 varsity sports, as well as the day-to-day operation of the UK Sports Information office. He has served as a media coordinator for several Southeastern Conference and NCAA championship events, including the 1989 NCAA Southeast Regional, the United States Olympic Festival and the Kentucky Derby. His publications have won numerous national awards. He is a former national chairman for the CoSIDA/GTE Academic All-America program, and a former member of the CoSIDA publications committee.

Cameron is a 1982 UK graduate, where he was a student assistant in the SID office for three years. He served as assistant and associate sports information director, then director of promotions at the University of Florida from 1982 to 1987. He was communications director at Production Ink, a Gainesville, Fla., public relations firm, from 1987 to 1988.

Cameron is single.

KATHY DeBOER
Assistant Director of Athletics/ Non-Revenue Sports

Kathy DeBoer is in her sixth year as Assistant Athletics Director at the University of Kentucky.

DeBoer, who doubles as the women's volleyball coach, supervises the operation and administration of non-revenue sports at UK.

In six years at Kentucky, DeBoer has led her Wildcats volleyball squads to an impressive 158-75 record, including three Southeastern Conference titles and two SEC Tournament championships. DeBoer, the 1987 Tachikara National Coach of the Year, has taken UK to the NCAA Final Eight in 1987 and the NCAA Final 16 in 1988 and 1990. This past summer, her two primary assistants were named head coaches at Southeastern Conference schools — Mary Wise at Florida and Sharon Dingman at Auburn.

DeBoer spent four seasons as volleyball coach at Ferris State University prior to coming to UK. She led Ferris State to a pair of Great Lakes Conference championships.

DeBoer received her bachelor's degree from Michigan State in 1978 and finished her MBA at Kentucky in 1988.

She is married to Mark Pittman of Lexington.

GENE DEFILIPPO
Associate Director of Athletics/External Affairs

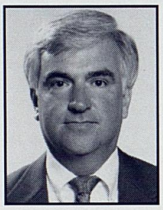

Gene DeFilippo is in his fifth year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

DeFilippo, a native of Florence, Mass., was named Assistant Athletics Director for Marketing, Promotions and Fundraising in January, 1987 and promoted to Associate Athletics Director in 1989. His main responsibilities include all marketing and promotional matters concerning UK Athletics and fundraising as director of the Blue-White Fund.

He earned his undergraduate degree and graduated with cum laude honors from Springfield College in 1973. The following year, he served as a graduate assistant coach at Tennessee, where he earned his Master's degree in educational administration (1974).

DeFilippo served as football offensive coordinator from 1975-79 at Youngstown (Ohio) State, then was an assistant coach at Vanderbilt the next three years. He moved from coaching to administrative assistant at Vanderbilt under athletics director Roy Kramer. After two years, he was named director of athletics at the University of South Carolina at Spartanburg.

He and his wife, Anne, have three children — Christine, John and Mary.

LARRY IVY
Associate Director of Athletics/ Internal Affairs

Larry Ivy is in his 15th year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association. He was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Internal Affairs in 1989 after serving as Assistant AD for 13 years.

Ivy, a native of Huntsville, Ala., joined the University of Kentucky in 1969 as Director of Student Housing, moving from the University of Alabama. He joined the UKAA staff in 1976. He is responsible for all activity related to the internal affairs of the Association, including the ticket office, accounting, payroll, purchasing, data processing, facilities, maintenance and grounds.

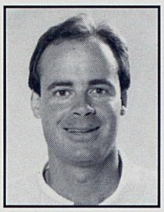

Aside from those duties, Ivy serves as game manager for all UK home basketball games. He has also served as tournament manager for the 1985 NCAA Final Four, 1982 and 1986 Southeastern Conference Basketball Tournaments, and four NCAA Mideast/Southeast Regionals (1977, '80, '84, '89). He currently serves as chairman of the SEC Basketball Tournament ticket committee.

Ivy earned his undergraduate degree (1967) and MBA (1968) from the University of Alabama. He is married to the former Lorain Darnell of Paducah. He has one daughter, Kim.

KENTUCKY ATHLETICS IN 1990-91

Kentucky sent four teams to NCAA championships which highlighted the 1990-91 academic calendar.

Three women's teams qualified for NCAA championship play—basketball, golf, and volleyball. Under Coach Sharon Fanning, the Lady Kats basketball squad enjoyed a fifth place finish in Southeastern Conference play. Coach Bettie Lou Evans guided the Lady Kat golf team to fourth place in the tough SEC while the Wildcats volleyball squad, under Kathy DeBoer, ranked second in the SEC.

On the men's side, tennis consistently ranked in the nation's Top 20 all year. Under Dennis Emery, the Wildcats tied for third in the SEC before heading to the NCAAs. Rick Pitino and his Basketball 'Cats ended the '90-'91 regular season with the SEC's best record but was unable to participate in postseason play due to NCAA sanctions.

Kentucky finished sixth in the All-Sports Trophy race in the SEC among women's teams with 38.5 points. The Wildcats placed eighth in the Bernie Moore All-Sports Trophy race among men's SEC teams with 29.5 points.

UK football

The E.J. Nutter

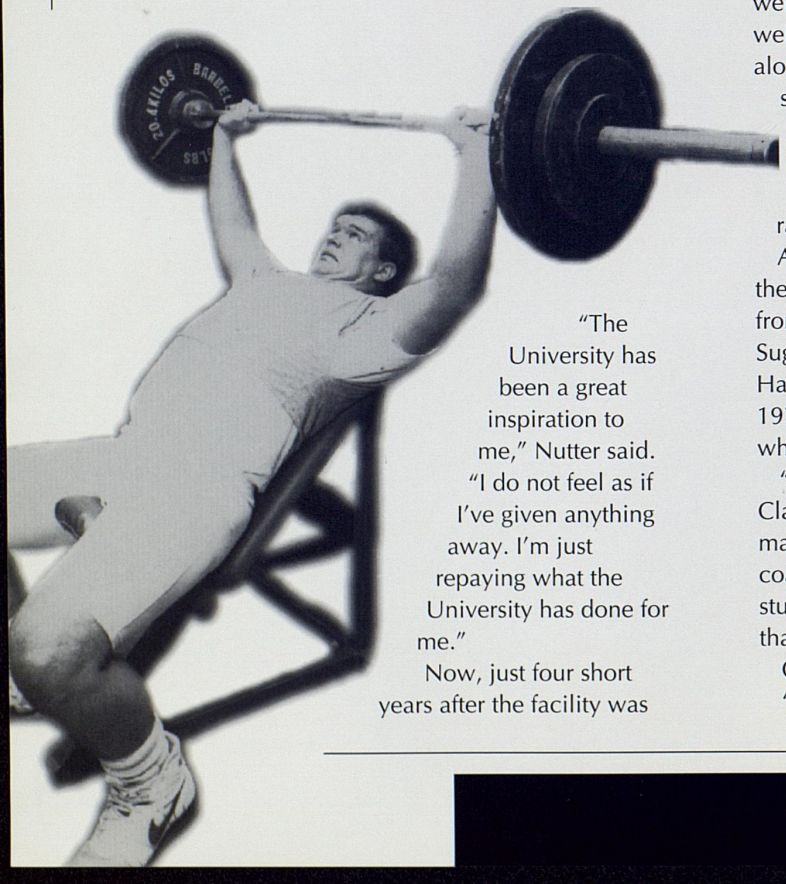

One of the nation's showcase football facilities rests on the southeast corner of the University of Kentucky campus.

The ultra-modern E.J. Nutter Football Training Facility ranks among the best in the country, bar-none. Built at a cost of $5.7 million, the facility officially became the home of Kentucky Wildcat Football in September 1987.

The Nutter Center, as it is called on the UK campus, encompasses over 48,000 square feet and is built adjacent to the Shively Sports Complex. It is located on Sports Center Drive, just a rock's throw away from Commonwealth Stadium.

"I have not seen everyone's new facilities, but the Nutter Center is the finest that I have seen," UK coach Bill Curry says. "It is the best planned and the most spacious facility I know of. Combined with our spacious practice area, the Nutter Center gives us the most beautiful football complex that I have ever been associated with."

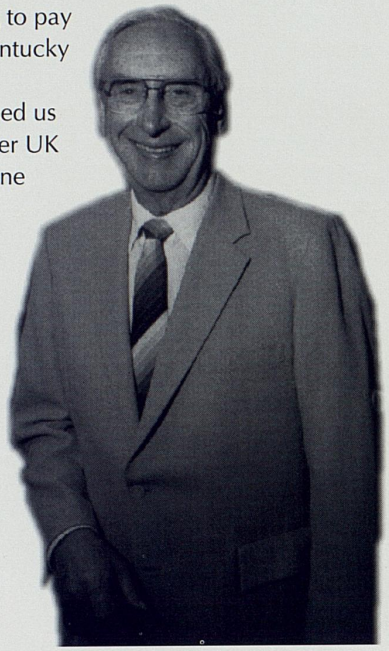

The new Wildcat facility is named after Ervin J. Nutter, a UK alumnus who contributed one million dollars to get the fund-raising campaign started for construction to begin. The Nutter gift to the UK Athletics Association is the largest single grant received by the Association.

"The University has been a great inspiration to me," Nutter said. "I do not feel as if I've given anything away. I'm just repaying what the University has done for me."

Now, just four short years after the facility was completed, the Nutter Center is beginning to pay dividends to the Kentucky Football Program.

"It definitely helped us in recruiting," former UK coach Jerry Claiborne said. "Of course, the number one thing in recruiting is winning, but this beautiful facility will really amaze you."

Ervin J. Nutter donated $1 million towards the construction of the Nutter Football Training Facility.

Aside from new dressing facilities which feature large, personal lockers for every Kentucky football player, the Nutter Center is highlighted by a 9,000 square foot weight room. The weight room has over 100,000 pounds of equipment alone. The Nutter Center also has 11 meeting rooms, a state-of-the-art video and editing room for coaches' film, equipment and training rooms, staff and player lounges, an interview area, a 60-yard sprint track, sauna and jacuzzi, an aerobics room, and three raquetball courts.

A touch of Kentucky Football history is on display in the foyer area. The memorabilia case holds UK trophies from bowl games such as the Great Lakes Bowl, the Sugar Bowl, the Cotton Bowl, the Peach Bowl and the Hall of Fame Bowls. The case displays the 1950 and 1976 Southeastern Conference championship trophies which the Wildcats earned.

"This is a facility built with the players in mind," said Claiborne, who helped spearhead the financial drive to make the Nutter Center possible. "It does not have coaches' offices like other facilities. Instead, we had the student-athlete in mind in the design and planning and that's how we wanted it to be."

Curry plans no changes in that respect.

"It is a priviledge to get to work in a facility such as this everyday," Curry said. "The planning and design with the student-athletes at heart is what we're about today.

"Jerry Claiborne's most important accomplishments during his eight years at Kentucky were in the human arena. But his picture, which hangs in the Nutter Center, is a reminder to us just how much he loved this University. For Jerry and Mr. Nutter and the other contributors who helped make this facility possible, they have left a legacy that will surely be exciting to build on."

Nutter, a graduate of Hamilton (Ohio) High School, participated in the ground-breaking ceremonies in August 1986. Nutter entered the UK College of Engineering following high school and worked his way through college as an electrician. He left UK before graduation and passed the State of Ohio's examination for stationary engineers, becoming the youngest licensed stationary engineer in the state.

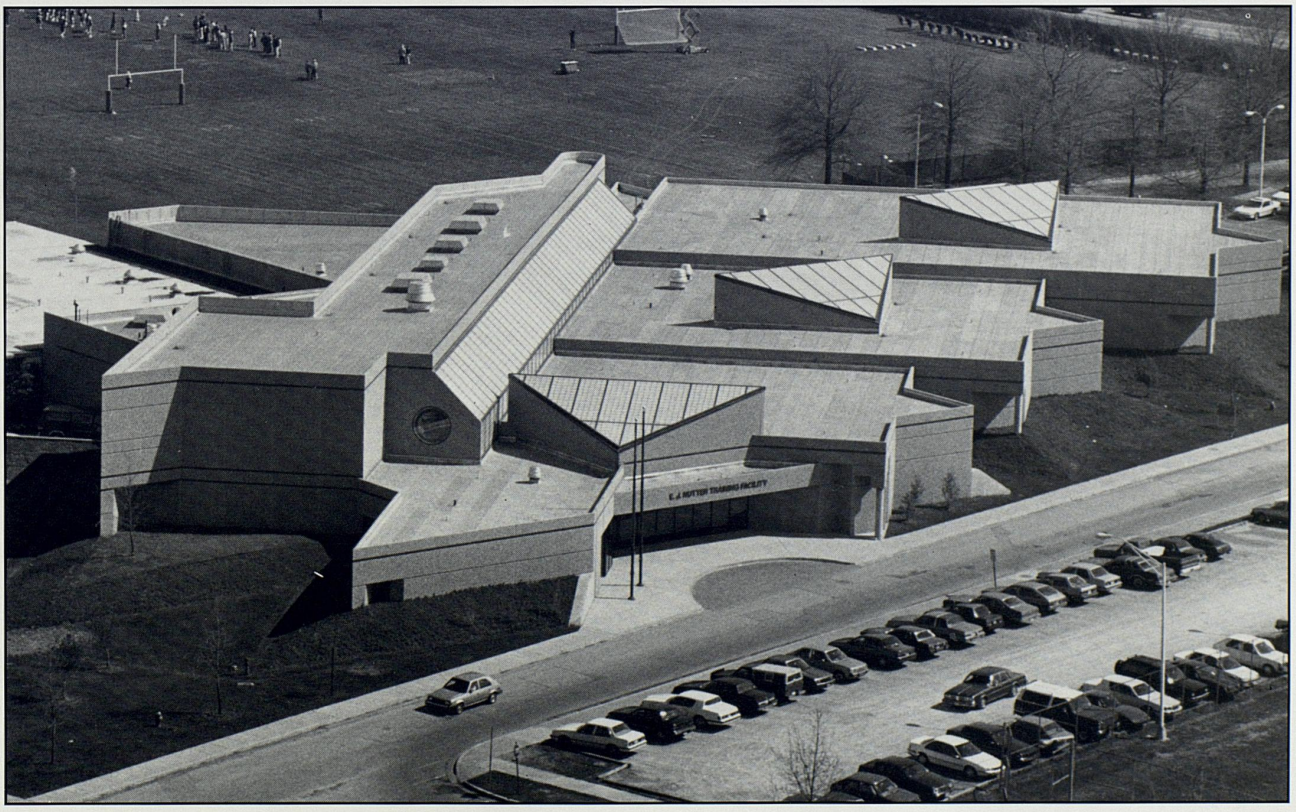

He worked three years for Proctor & Gamble's Power Division before returning to UK to receive his bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering in 1943.

After serving with distinction with the engineering division at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Nutter became president of Elano Corporation. He later became president of Acme Screw Products of Dayton, Ohio.

While the unprecedented gift represents Nutter's love for the UK athletics program, his love for the University as a whole is well documented. Nutter served two terms (1966-68) as president of the UK National Alumni Association and four years recently as chairman of the UK Development Council Board.

Another important part in building the Nutter Center was the donation of $300,000 by Seth Hancock, a central Kentucky horseman. Hancock also played a key role in raising the necessary dollars for the facility as chairman of the united effort to raise $2.7 million from private donors.

The ceremonial dedication of the Nutter Center took place on Sept. 11, 1987, with Nutter, Hancock, Claiborne, Cliff Hagan (then UK athletics director), and Otis Singletary (former UK president) all in attendance.

The Nutter Center is over 48,000 square feet in size.

CATS CENTER

The University of Kentucky continues to keep the term "student-athlete" in the proper prospective — student first, athlete second.

For that reason, the University of Kentucky opened the nation's first academic center for student-athletes in 1981. The academic center is known as the Center for Academic and Tutorial Services or simply "CATS".

"WE ARE EXTREMELY PROUD OF WHAT WE HAVE ACCOMPLISHED IN THE ACADEMIC ARENA".

CATS is located inside Memorial Coliseum. The center, specifically designed with the student-athlete in mind, contains a large general study area along with numerous smaller rooms used for tutoring. CATS expanded during the past academic year and added a language library, additional tutoring rooms, a media center and a new computer facility.

"Our CATS is one of the best academic services in the land and that's based on results," UK coach Bill Curry said. "For Kentucky to be up there with Duke and Virginia and Notre Dame is a real tribute to first, the student-athletes, but also to our academic support staff headed by Bob Bradley."

What Curry is refering to when talking about Duke, Virginia, and Notre Dame is the annual College Football Association award which goes out to the institution with the highest graduation rate for 1-A football programs. The award, named the CFA Academic Achievement Award, was given to Kentucky in 1989 for graduating 90 percent of its incoming 1983 freshman class. Kentucky is the only other school to win the award outside that trio.

"We get more response from parents who visit us on the CATS program than any other part of our program," Curry says. "Parents are really excited about it."

Curry is also excited about the combined effort former UK coach Jerry Claiborne and his staff put forth as well. Since 1982, Kentucky has placed 81 players on the All-Southeastern Conference Honor Roll which is more than any league school in that period. In 1989, the Wildcats set a new league record with 17 players named to the SEC Honor Roll. And during the 1991 spring semester, UK football had 24 players achieve a 3.0 GPA or above.

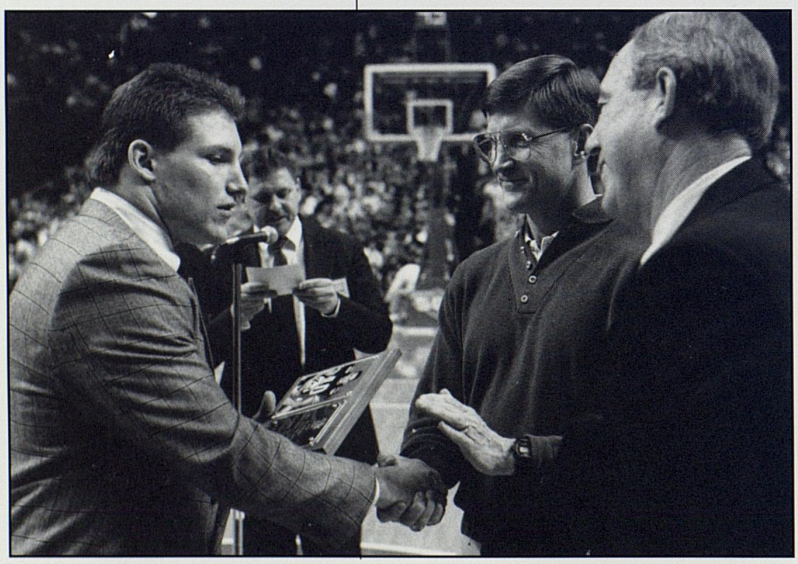

"With winning the CFA award and leading the SEC in Honor Roll picks, it certainly let everyone know we were serious and still are serious about making sure our athletes receive their degree," Claiborne said.

Bob Bradley, Assistant Athletics Director for Academics, supervises the CATS program. Bradley is assisted by Barbara Deniston, Director of Student-Athlete Development, her assistant, Sheila Breeding, and two Academic Counselors, Mike Jenkins and Mike Haley. CATS also employs six graduate assistants and numerous tutors, both from the University and surrounding community. Currently, the UKAA budgets close to $500,000 per year for CATS.

"We are extremely proud of what we have accmplished in the academic arena," Bradley says. "The CATS program is focused on winning in the classroom. We look at each student-athlete's individual needs, set goals and develop strategies to attain those goals. Our Center (CATS) provides our student-athletes with a definite advantage over student-athletes at many other institutions. Our goal is to show that we care about the student as well as the athlete."

Bradley also says its helps to have head coaches like Claiborne and Curry that place such a strong emphasis on academics.

"Many support systems across the nation do an excellent job at helping their student-athletes," Bradley said. "I have been blessed at Kentucky in having Jerry Claiborne. He really believed in the student-athlete concept. The same holds true for Bill Curry. We are in total sync in the business of educating our student-athletes."

The philosophy at the University of Kentucky is this: Colleges should be able to afford the student-athlete with every opportunity to succeed not only in athletics, but in academics as well. Looking at recent statistics in Academic Honor Roll selections and graduation rates, Kentucky is standing by its philosophy.

"We will continue to support our academic staff to the hilt," Curry said. "We're very excited about the work Bob Bradley and his staff have done. We will not accept anything less from our players. We talk about championship performance, we expect championship academics, too."

At UK, CATS will certainly play an instrumental part in keeping student-athletes at championship performance in the classroom and on the field.

100 WILDCATS ACHIEVE 3.0 GPA DURING '91 SPRING

Sixteen University of Kentucky student-athletes were named to the Athletics Director's Honor Roll for achieving the highest grade point average in their respective sports for the 1991 spring semester.

In addition, UK Athletics Director C.M. Newton announced that eight student-athletes, including two members of the UK football team (Larry Jackson and Mike Meece), achieved a perfect 4.0 average for the spring semester. A total of 100 achieved an average of 3.0 or above.

"These young people are winners in the academic and athletics arenas", Newton said. "We are proud of them for their hard work and of (Assistant Athletics Director) Bob Bradley and our CATS (Center for Academic and Tutorial Services) staff."

Members of the Athletics Director's Honor Roll included: BASEBALL — Paul Corum (4.0); WOMEN'S BASKETBALL — Jennifer Gray; MEN'S BASKETBALL — Jeff Brassow; FOOTBALL — Larry Jackson (4.0), Mike Meece (4.0); WOMEN'S GOLF — Tonya Gill; MEN'S GOLF — John Cain; GYMNASTICS — Michele Ogden; RIFLE — Jaime Ponton (4.0); WOMEN'S SWIMMING — Jodi Schwab; MEN'S SWIMMING — Jay Smith (4.0); WOMEN'S TENNIS — Susan Klingenberg; MEN'S TENNIS — Sam Stinnett (4.0); WOMEN'S TRACK — Michele Schwegman (4.0); MEN'S TRACK — James B. Commonwealth Stadium

When it comes to football, Kentucky-style, there is certainly no better place than home — Commonwealth Stadium.

Beautiful Commonwealth Stadium, built in 1973, is one of the nation's showcases for football arenas. The stadium is located on the southeast corner of the University of Kentucky campus, convenient to both Cooper and Alumni Drives.

Commonwealth Stadium was built at a cost of $12 million by the firm of Huber, Hunt and Nichols, Inc. The stadium, including parking areas, rests on an 86-acre plot of what was once the UK Experimental Station Farm grounds.

"Aesthetically, Commonwealth Stadium is the prettiest in America, "UK coach Bill Curry said." I've always thought this since I first witnessed a game here in 1975 as a pro scout.

"In just a year's time, I've learned there is simply not another place I'd rather be on a Football Saturday than Commonwealth Stadium. The atmosphere, especially on a Saturday night, is magical and very conducive to winning. It's an ideal college setting."

The stadium took on a new look last fall with the addition of a $600,000 scoreboard and message center located in the North end zone. The scoreboard is 19 by 78 feet in size, almost 3.5 times the size (12 by 19) of the original scoreboards which had been in place since 1973.

The stadium was officially opened on Sept. 15, 1973, as the Wildcats moved into their new home after spending 48 years at Stoll Field/McLean Stadium across from Memorial Coliseum. Kentucky defeated Virginia Tech in the stadium-opener, 31-26, as quarterback Ernie Lewis accounted for three touchdowns to lead the Wildcats.

"Aesthetically, Commonwealth Stadium is the prettiest in America".

Since its opening, Kentucky has played an even 113 games within the friendly confines of Commonwealth Stadium. And indeed, a 65-44-4 record and a .593 winning percentage can attest Commonwealth is a "home-field advantage" for the Wildcats.

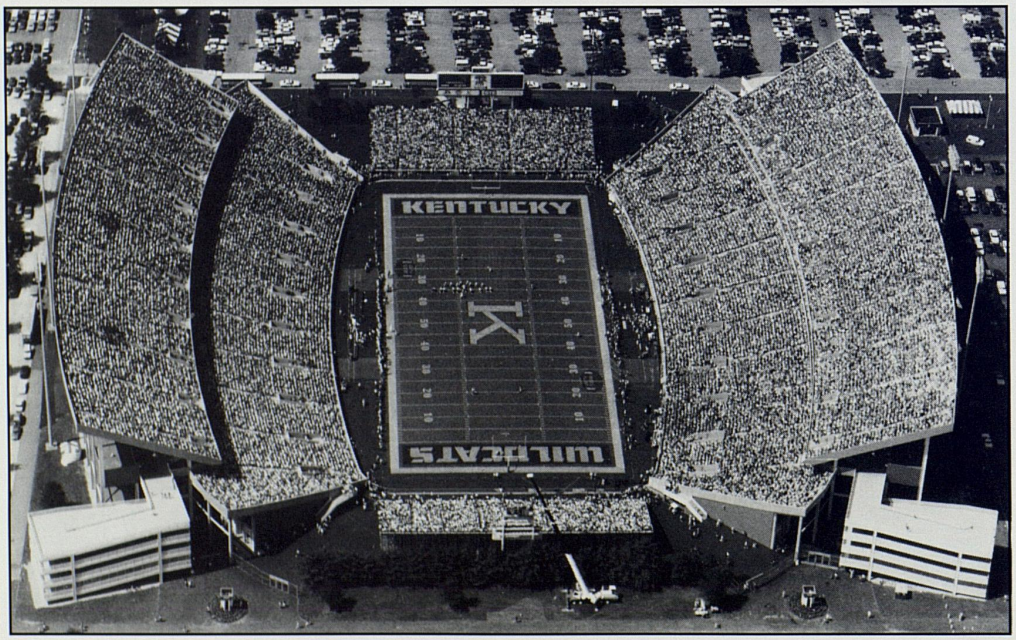

Excellent attendance figures have also gone hand-in-hand with Kentucky football and Commonwealth Stadium. The Wildcats have averaged 55,217 spectators in the 113 contests at Commonwealth since its inception. In fact, 6,239,539 spectators have witnessed Kentucky football at Commonwealth Stadium — that's approximately 1.7 times the population of Kentucky.

The five-millionth person to attend a UK football game in Commonwealth Stadium was Jack Crowe of Lexington. Mr. Crowe walked through the turnstile as number 5,000,000 at 1 pm on Oct. 3, 1987, as Kentucky hosted Ohio.

The official seating capacity at Commonwealth Stadium is 57,800, though standing-room only crowds will exceed that figure. As was the case on Oct. 12, 1985, as a Commonwealth Stadium-record crowd of 58,345 witnessed the Wildcats defeat Mississippi State 33-19. The second largest crowd, incidently, was a week earlier as 58,230 watched Kentucky defeat Clemson 26-7 on Oct. 5.

All seating in Commonwealth Stadium is aluminum, with more than 30 percent of the aluminum seating either chair-back or bench-back.

An enclosed press box, which comfortably seats 110 members of the media, is located underneath the upper deck on the stadium's west side. Included in the press box area are eight private booths (four VIPs), a photography deck, and two dining areas.

Commonwealth Stadium is home sweet home for the Wildcats.

UK Indoor Practice Facility

GENERAL FACTS

Location: Southeast section of the University of Kentucky campus, adjacent to Commonwealth Stadium...Site is current game-day Yellow parking lot which is behind the South (Tates Creek Road) end zone.
Cost: $7,000,000
Size: Approximately 133,500 square feet (present Nutter Center structure is 48,000 square feet...Height will be 65 feet at apex.
Features:  Actual playing field area of 115,000 square feet (450 x 225).
 Full-size artificial turf football field.
 Six-lane, 340-yard track (360 meters).
 Areas for track and field events (high jump, pole vault, shot put).
 Computerized Net System which forms baseball batting cages and golf driving range.
 Gymnastics room of 10,000 square feet.
 Men's and Women's transient locker rooms (50 x 25 each).
 Storage area of 5,000 square feet.
 Gymnastics, track, and building operator's offices and lobby of 2,000 square feet.

Notes: The height (65 feet) and netting system will allow punting and placement kicks for football practice...The average indoor track size across the country is 200 meters while the UK indoor track will be approximately 360 meters...The unique netting system will also allow a full infield and outfield baseball practice...Commonwealth Stadium's football playing field will run perpendicular to the playing field inside the indoor facility.
Construction Dates: Begin — August 5, 1991.
Completion — August, 1992.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING . . .

Dr. Charles Wethington, Jr., University of Kentucky President

"This facility is very significant not only to UK Athletics, but to the entire University of Kentucky community. The indoor facility should aid Bill Curry in taking our football program to another level."

C.M. Newton, UK Director of Athletics

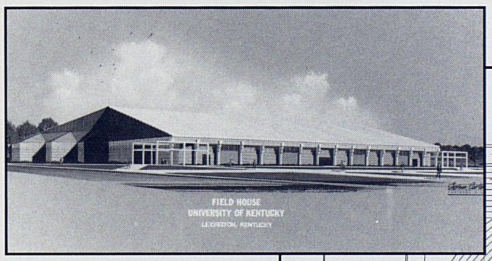

"We already have the finest coaches in the country, and with the addition of the indoor facility, which I consider the final piece of the puzzle, we will have what we need to attract the finest student-athletes. The facility will be a multi-purpose building, something that will be a tremendous boost to our football, men's and women's track, men's and women's golf, gymnastics, baseball and other programs."

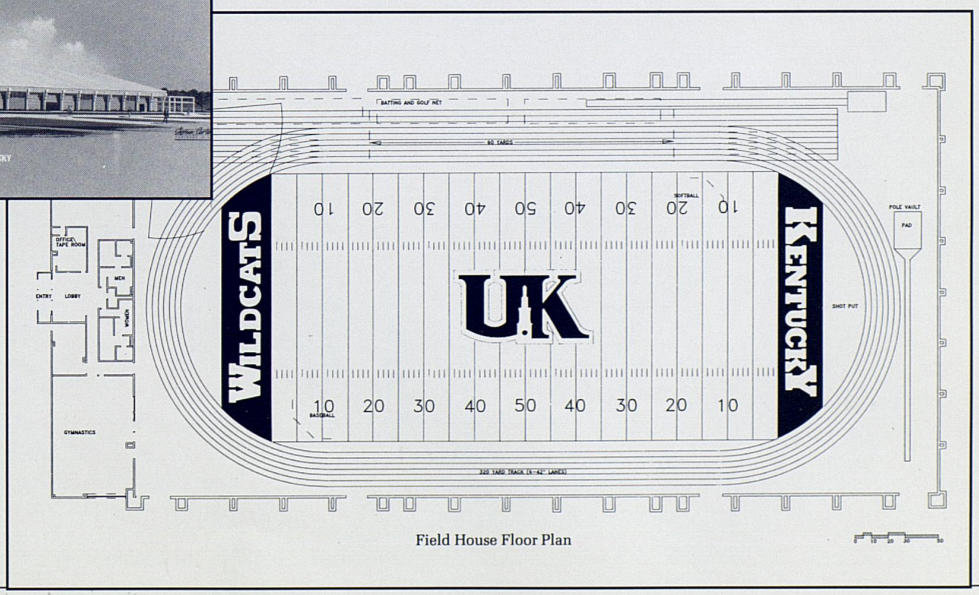

Bill Curry, UK Football Coach

"The indoor practice facility is extremely valuable to us from three perspectives — 1) togetherness of our athletics programs, 2) performance, and 3) recruiting. In recruiting, what this facility says to all prospective student-athletes is that Kentucky intends on winning in football also. We have made a $7 million committment in that direction. The unique thing about a facility such as this one is the ability to do everything indoors we could do outdoors. The computerized net system would even allow punting. We will never miss another practice because of weather."

Tom Simpson, Men's Golf Coach

"The indoor facility will be the biggest addition to our athletics department since Commonwealth Stadium."

Field House Floor Plan

Kentucky Strength Program

Just a quick glance at the weight room in the Nutter Football Training Facility is enough to know the University of Kentucky is serious about strength training.

The addition of Coach Bill Curry has not diminished the importance strength training plays in Southeastern Conference football. If anything, the significance of the UK strength program under Curry has magnified.

Curry, a former center at Georgia Tech and in the National Football League, knows the edge in football lies in the weight room.

"We have a sign mounted in the Nutter Center weight room," Curry says. "The statement says 'There is no substitute for strength and no excuse for the lack of it'.

"Our players are required to read it everyday. That sums up our approach to strength training. We want to be the best conditioned football team, not only in the Southeastern Conference, but in the country. Games are won in the fourth quarter and that's where great physical conditioning comes into play."

As far as facilities go, Wildcats football players have one of the nation's best weight rooms to work with.

"The facility is unbelievable," Curry said. "I can't imagine anyone needing anymore than what we have in our weight facility."

"THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE FOR STRENGTH AND NO EXCUSE FOR THE LACK OF IT".

For starters, the UK weight room is 9,000 square foot. In free weights alone, UK has 100,000 pounds of equipment — 75,000 in free weights and an additional 25,000 in dumb bells.

To complement the free weights, UK has an abundance of Nautilus equipment, stationary bikes and treadmills.

According to Curry, another aspect which is a plus for UK is the strength coach Mike Florence. Curry thinks Florence is the perfect individual for the task at hand.

"We're very blessed here at Kentucky to have Mike Florence as our strength coach," Curry says. "My first indication to the type of job he does is that our squad is relatively strong, even though we lost a lot of strong players to graduation. But after watching him work, I know Mike has that rare blend of a calm presence but with a driving discipline. That's exactly what a strength coach has to have."

As far as UK records go, former All-Southeastern Conference tackle Oliver Barnett holds the dubious honor of the strongest Cat. In 1989, Barnett set a UK mark by lifting a total of 1,655 pounds in three lifts (bench, squat and clean). He shattered the old mark of 1,570 by Dermontti Dawson. Both are on NFL rosters, Barnett with the Atlanta Falcons and Dawson with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

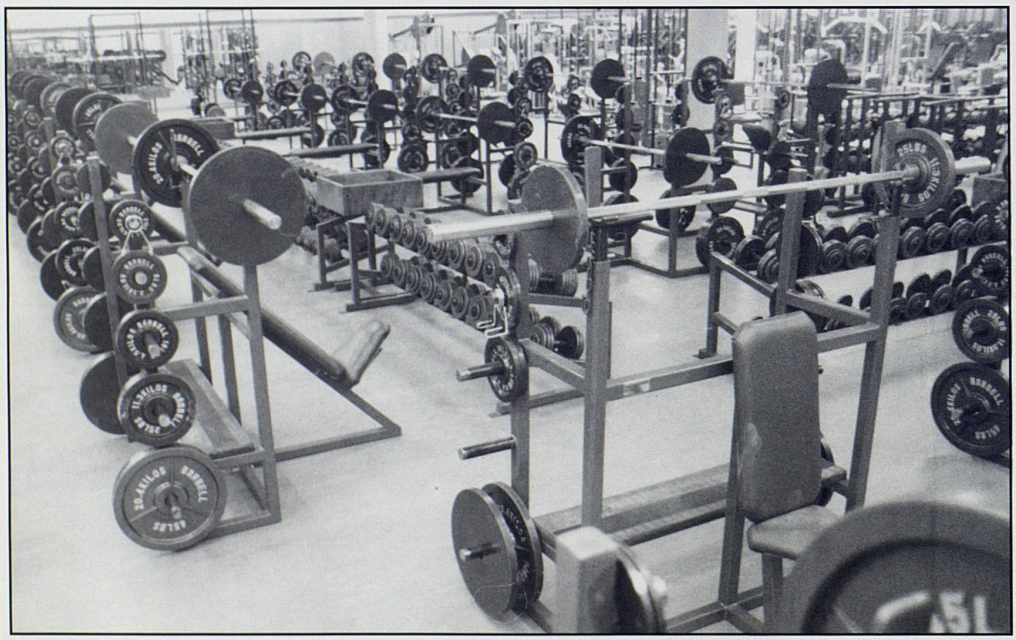

For the current Cats, below is a list of 1991 leaders in several categories.

Bench Press: 530, by Jody Matthews.

Clean: 400, by Jody Matthews and Dean Wells.

Olympic Squat: 655, by Jon Collins.

Total Lifts: 1,560, by Joky Matthews.

The Nutter Center Weight Room encompasses 9,000 square feet with over 100,000 pounds of equipment.

Health and Equipment

The Kentucky Football Program is concerned about the health of its athletes.

The Kentucky medical staff takes a back seat to no one. Three team physicians — Dr. James Andrews, Dr. Mary Lloyd Ireland, and Dr. John Perrine — and a first class training staff handle all athletes' needs on a daily basis. Headed by trainer Al Green, associate Sue Stanley and assistant JoAnn Hauser, the UK Football training staff also consists of three graduate assistants and 12 student assistants.

"I think our training staff — our trainers, graduate assistants, student assistants and team physicians — are among the very best in the business," former UK coach Jerry Claiborne said. "We've had some serious injuries, but the rehabilitation of those injuries was outstanding.

"On a day-to-day basis, our training staff does as good a job with our athletes as anyone in the country."

"ON A DAY-TO-DAY BASIS, OUR TRAINING STAFF DOES AS GOOD A JOB WITH OUR ATHLETES AS ANYONE IN THE COUNTRY."

Current UK coach Bill Curry concurs.

"I've been extremely impressed with our medical staff headed by Al Green," Curry says. "Our staff has an excellent rapport with our players and that's important. Our team physicians are outstanding."

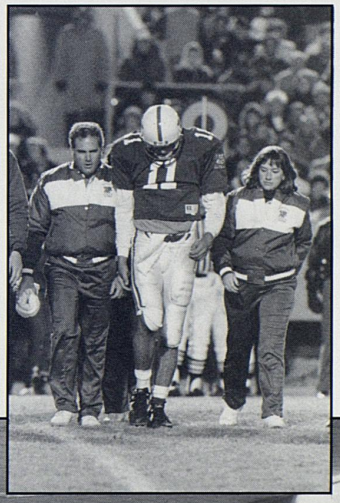

The Nutter Center training room is also first rate. The training room is over 5,000 square feet and includes ample space for taping and treatment, as well as a separate rehabilitation room, physician's and trainer's offices.

Equipment and proper fitting is another key element in an athlete's health. UK equipment manager Tom Kalinowski personally fits each player with the appropriate equipment — helmet, shoes, shoulder pads, etc... — according to height, weight and position.

In all, Kalinowski estimates UK spends $2000 per player on equipment ranging from practice to game gear — another area which UK does not take a backseat.

Kalinowski and his staff of 10 student assistants are involved in daily maintainance, repair and cleaning of each athlete's equipment. These procedures are necessary as another measure in prevention of injuries.

Indeed, an athlete's health is important at Kentucky.

Trainer Al Green and Associate Trainer Sue Stanley assist injured QB Brad Smith.

The 5,400 square foot Nutter Training Room has ample space for taping and treatment.

Lexington - the city Kentucky - the state

LEXINGTON

This is a place where the past and present meet and mesh gracefully.

Where downtown skyscrapers overlook thousands of acres of lush pastures, home to Kentucky's most famous resident - the horse.

This is Lexington, home of the University of Kentucky.

Lexington is one beauty of a city. John O. Simonds, a nationally-known landscape architect and the author of several books on land use, calls the Bluegrass area a "national treasure. The Bluegrass area is superlative countryside." Lexington is the heart of the Bluegrass, the metropolitan shopping, commercial and entertainment hub of eastern Kentucky.

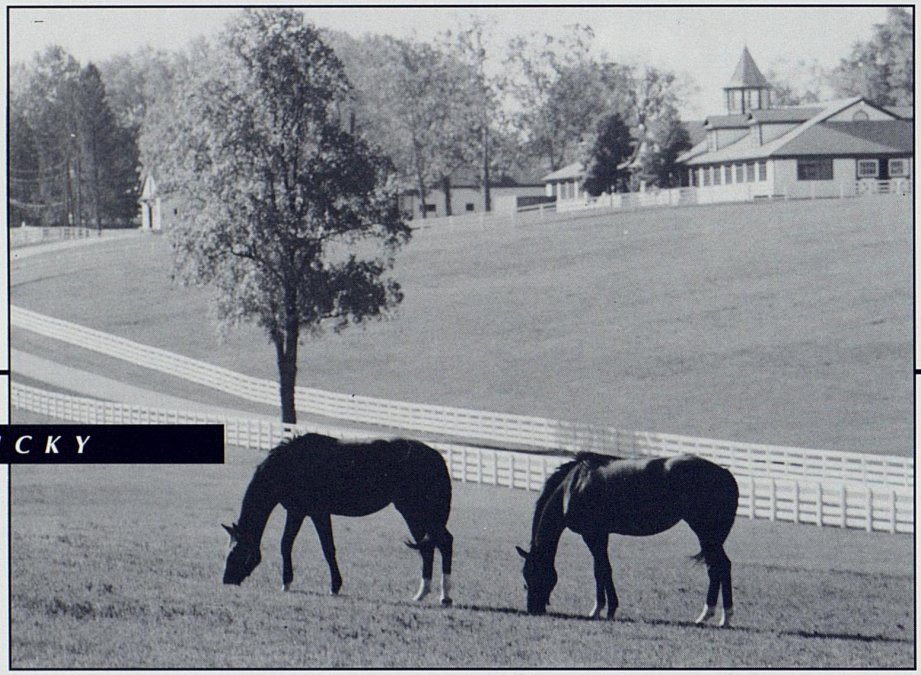

Lexington has all the attractive qualities of a major metropolitan area, but it is small...and there is an overlay of what can be described as Blue Grass tradition to go along with such major companies as IBM, Ashland Oil (Valvoline), Jerrico, Island Creek Coal, Toyota and many other nationally known firms that have major plants or headquarters in the area.

With a population of around 225,000, Lexington is small enough to provide the perfect college atmosphere for the University of Kentucky. But it is also large enough to offer the cultural opportunities usually reserved for larger cities.

The city offers UK students much in the way of entertainment: a Philharmonic Orchestra, Chamber Music Society, the Lexington Singers, a Council of the Arts, and a local Ballet Company. Movie theaters, international restaurants, coffee-houses, top-ranked acts of all types at fabulous Rupp Arena in the Lexington Center, historical landmarks, parks, thoroughbred and harness racing, fine fishing in lakes, ponds, and streams, and the internationally famous Kentucky Horse Park, all in easy distance of the UK campus, are just a few attractions of Lexington and the University of Kentucky.

A recent statewide poll indicated that the Lexington area is the most popular place to live, work and play in Kentucky, and it's an area most residents would not seriously consider leaving.

Lexington, Kentucky — one beauty of a city.

KENTUCKY

"If these United States can be called a body... then Kentucky can be called its heart." — Jesse Stuart

Though the above words were written by one of Kentucky's favorite sons, any one of the millions of visitors to the Bluegrass State each year might nod in agreement.

Kentucky embodies the very essence of America, from majestic mountains and forests to vast sparkling lakes, from rolling acres of farm and pastureland to the hustle and bustle of major metropolitan centers. And around every turn in the road, Kentucky's colorful past, which helped shape our country's character, is preserved and maintained for all to enjoy. The result is a state so diverse in travel and recreational opportunities that one is hard pressed to name its equal.

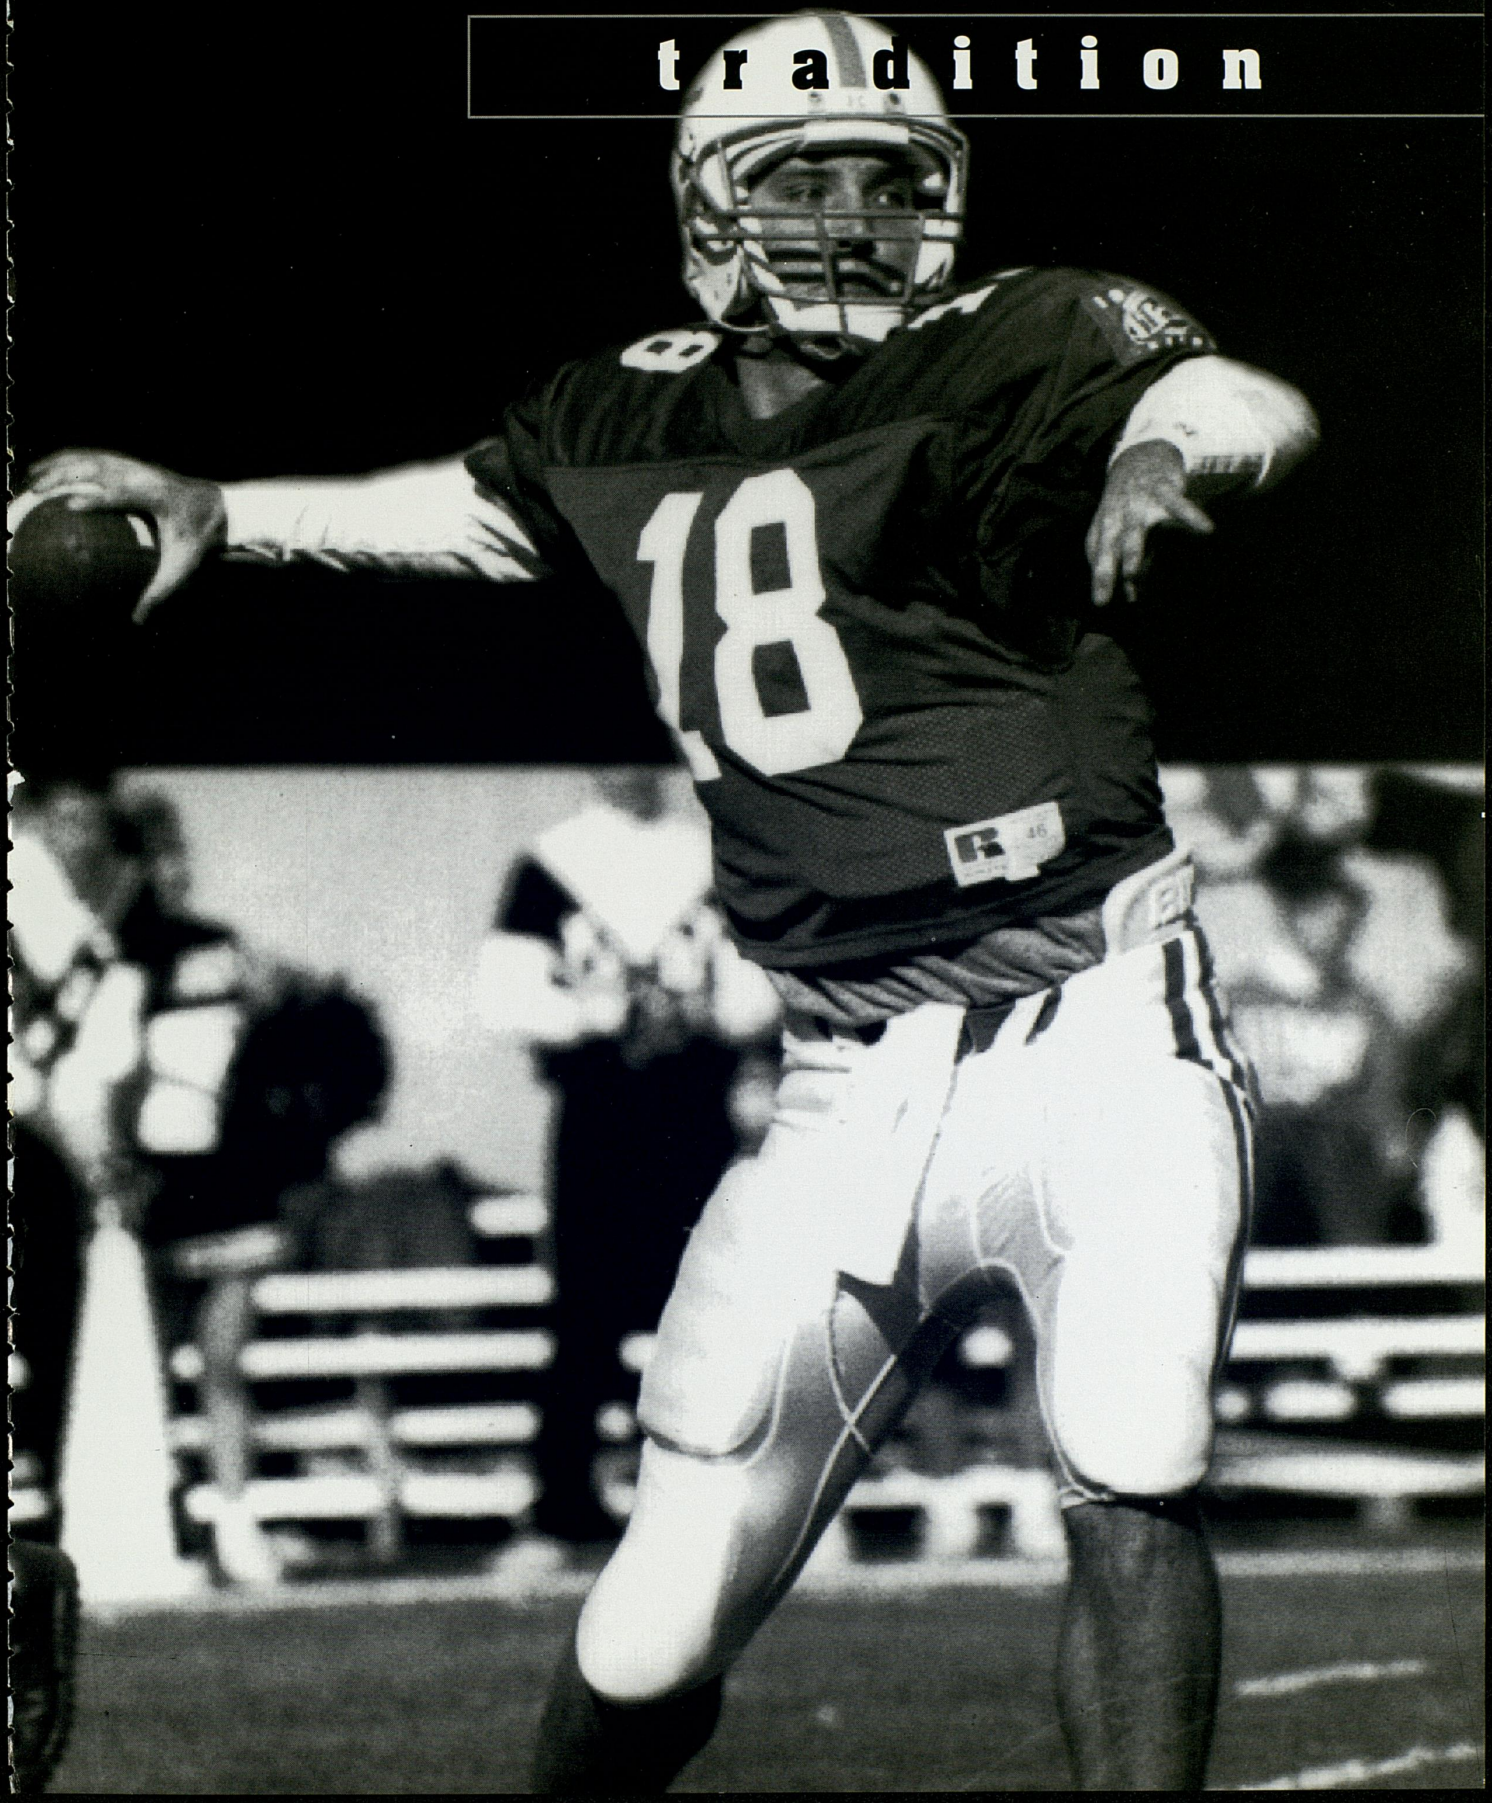

If asked to describe Kentucky, the first word to come to mind would probably be horses. And the description would be accurate, since the Bluegrass region of central Kentucky is internationally recognized as the Horse Capital of the World. Lexington, in the heart of the Bluegrass, preserves the romantic tradition of the horse farms and is the hub of the multi-billion dollar horse industry.

Kentucky is also a land steeped in the rich history of our nation. Legendary pioneer Daniel Boone laid out Kentucky's second settlement at Fort Boonesborough, and nearby, a hundred years later, the Shaker religious sect prospered at picturesque Shaker Village of Pleasant Hill.

Abraham Lincoln was born in Hodgenville (the one-room cabin is part of a National Historic Site). The plantation home that inspired Stephen Foster to write "My Old Kentucky Home" still stands at a state park of the same name. And the region that 200 years ago gave birth to one of Kentucky's most famous exports — bourbon whiskey — is dotted with world-famous distilleries.

KENTUCKY FACTS: Kentucky is one of only four states in the nation designated as a commonwealth... The state capital is Frankfort...Kentucky has 40,395 square miles of land...Population of the state is 3,728,000...The three largest cities in the state are Louisville, Lexington and Owensboro...The state bird is the cardinal... The state song is "My Old Kentucky Home"... The state flower is the golden rod...The state tree is the Kentucky Coffee tree...Kentucky has more miles of running water than any other state except Alaska...Kentucky has 44 state parks which annually draws 15.8 million visitors... Kentucky has the world's longest known cave system — Mammoth Cave — with over 300 miles of mapped passageways.

university of kentucky

Kentucky Football enters its second century of competition on Sept. 7, as the Wildcats host Miami (Ohio).

From UK's first All-American Clyde Johnson to its last Mike Pfeifer, from Professor A.M. Miller to Bill Curry, from old Stoll Field to modern Commonwealth Stadium, from the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association to the Southeastern Conference, and everything else along the way, Kentucky Football holds a unique and storied tradition which began in 1881.

UK Football holds a captivating list of firsts. For starters, UK was the first Southeastern Conference team to introduce football, which it did in 1881. Secondly, UK played in the first and only Great Lakes Bowl in 1947 while defeating Villanova, 24-14. Thirdly, Kentucky tackle Bob Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy making him the first player from the SEC to claim the honor. In another first, the Wildcats' Nat Northington was the first black player to sign with a Southeastern Conference institution and the first to play in a league contest, that vs. Ole Miss in 1967. And finally, UK became the first SEC school to win the coveted College Football Association Academic Achievement Award for highest graduation rate, doing so in 1989.

In 100 seasons, Kentucky has participated in 947 contests and owns 477 wins, 426 losses and 44 ties. The 477 victories ranks 38th among Division 1-A programs in most wins. UK's overall winning percentage is a nice .527 in all games played. Kentucky football has won one national championship, two Southeastern Conference championships and appeared in seven bowls. The national title came on the academic side as UK claimed the CFA Academic Achievement Award on May 8, 1989. The Wildcats owned a graduation rate of 90 percent after 18 of 20 of their 1983 incoming freshmen signees left UK with a diploma.

Other numbers for fodder include UK football with 32 head coaches, 12 National Football League first-round draft choices, one Outland Trophy winner, 18 first-team All-Americans, five Academic All-Americans, 45 first team All-SEC players and 99 Academic All-SEC selections.

Kentucky football got its start on Nov. 12, 1881. Kentucky, known in those days as A&M College, Kentucky State College and/or State University of Kentucky, defeated Kentucky University by the clumsy score of 7 1/4 to 1. The game of football resembled more of a rugby form and the scoring procedure is still unclear.Though football came to Kentucky in 1881, it quickly vanished after the three-game season. UK finished 1-2 in the inaugural campaign, but the lid was shut on UK football for the next nine seasons.

Football returned permanently to the University of Kentucky in 1891. UK defeated Georgetown College, 8-2, on April 10, 1891, to signify the rekindling of the pigskin to Lexington. The sport would not again be interrupted until the 1943 season because of World War II.

The first known head football coach at Kentucky was Professor A.M. Miller, a Princeton graduate. Miller began the 1892 season as head coach and led UK to a 2-2-1 ledger through five games. He was replaced by John A. Thompson at the conclusion of the '92 campaign.

Some successful years in the early 1900s dot the UK record book. Kentucky finished 7-1 in 1903 under Coach C.A. Wright; 9-1 in 1904 under Coach F.E. Schact; 9-1-1 in 1907 with Coach J. White Guyn, and 9-1 in 1909 under E.R. Sweetland.

ASHLAND TRIMS BUFFALOES, 73-0

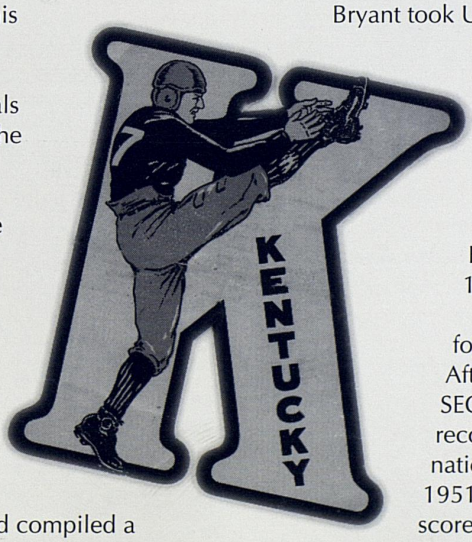

EPPINGS HOPE TO EVEN SERIES

The greatest UK team of that era was the 1898 squad, known simply to Kentuckians as "The Immortals". To this day, the Immortals remain the only undefeated, untied, and unscored upon team in UK football history. The Immortals were coached by W.R. Bass and ended the year a perfect 7-0-0, despite an average weight of 147 pounds per player. Victories came easy for this squad, as the Immortals raced by Kentucky University (18-0), Georgetown (28-0), Company H of the 8th Massachusetts (59-0), Louisville Athletic Club (16-0), Centre (6-0), 160th Indiana (17-0) and Newcastle Athletic Club (36-0).

Besides Bass, two of the most successful coaches in the early stages of UK Football were E.R. Sweetland and Harry Gamage. Sweetland compiled a 23-5 mark in three seasons (1909-10, 12). His best year was 9-1 in '09. Gamage, on the other hand, had the longest tenure of any head coach during the first 43 years of Kentucky football. Gamage took the reigns of the UK program in 1927 and remained until following the 1933 campaign. In between, Gamage led the Wildcats to a combined 32-25-5 record. His best season was 6-1-1 in '29.

One of Gamage's brightest moments came during the 1930 season. During the 57-0 blanking of Maryville, UK runningback Shipwreck Kelly rushed for a school-record 280 yards in leading the Cats.

More than a decade after Gamage had left UK, a young man by the name of Paul "Bear" Bryant arrived on the scene at Lexington in 1946. All Bryant did was quickly grab the UK program by the collar and turned the Cats into a national power.

Bryant took UK to eight consecutive winning seasons (1946-53) and helped the Wildcats claim their first Southeastern Conference championship in 1950. He also sent UK squads to four bowl games which included the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl, 1950 Orange Bowl, 1951 Sugar Bowl, and the 1952 Cotton Bowl.

The biggest win in UK football history came under Bryant. After leading Kentucky to its first SEC title and a 10-1 regular-season record, UK found itself matched with national champion Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl. The Wildcats scored early and held off the Sooners, 13-7, breaking Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak which is currently the seventh-longest

Also under Bryant, tackle Bob Gain became the first UK and SEC player to win the Outland Trophy in 1950. Other standouts in the Bryant era included George Blanda, All-American Babe Parilli, and former UK coach Jerry Claiborne.

Bryant left Kentucky following the 1953 season. He compiled an impressive 60-23-5 record in eight years. Bryant's 60 victories is still a UK football record for head coaches.

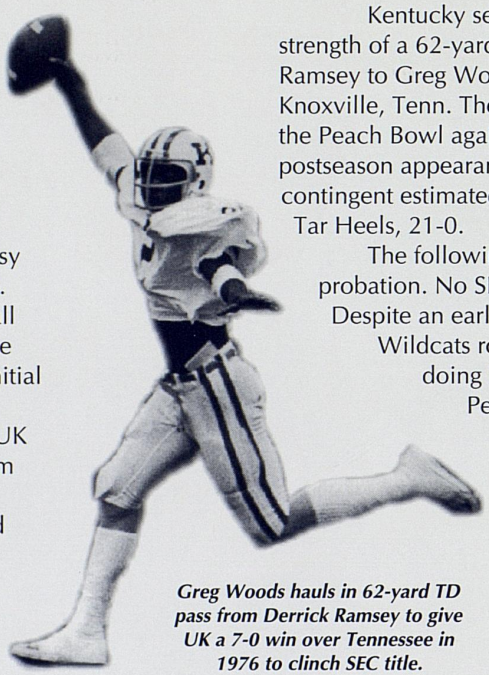

Blanton Collier had the uneasy task of following in Bryant's footsteps. Collier took over the Kentucky football program in 1954 and promptly led the Wildcats to a 7-3 record during his initial campaign.

Collier stayed eight years at UK as well, etching a 41-36-3 record from 1954 to 1961. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his 5-2-1 record against arch-rival Tennessee. He coached All-Americans Lou Michaels (1957-58) and Howard Schnellenberger (1955) at UK.

Charlie Bradshaw became the head mentor at UK in time for the 1962 season. Bradshaw, a UK graduate who lettered four years (1946-49), managed only a 25-41-4 record in seven seasons. One highlight of his coaching career featured an upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss early in the 1964 season. Bradshaw's Cats held off the Rebels, 27-21, in Memorial Stadium at Jackson, Miss., and ranks as one of UK's all-time biggest victories.

John Ray entered the scene in 1969 as head coach. In four years, Ray was 10-33. His biggest win came during his first year as Kentucky again victimized Ole Miss and Archie Manning. The Cats upset the Rebels, 10-9, at Lexington.

The Fran Curci era began in 1973, the same year Kentucky moved from ancient Stoll Field/McLean Stadium to spacious Commonwealth Stadium. Though Curci had only one winning campaign during his first three years, things got interesting beginning with the 1976 season. UK ended the '76 year with an 8-3 record and its second SEC championship.

Greg Woods hauls in 62-yard TD pass from Derrick Ramsey to give UK a 7-0 win over Tennessee in 1976 to clinch SEC title.

Kentucky secured its second league title on the strength of a 62-yard touchdown pass from Derrick Ramsey to Greg Woods to beat Tennessee, 7-0, at Knoxville, Tenn. The victory also clinched a berth in the Peach Bowl against North Carolina, UK's first postseason appearance in 25 years. Before a UK contingent estimated at 25,000, the Cats blanked the Tar Heels, 21-0.

The following year, Kentucky went in facing probation. No SEC title hopes or bowl hopes. Despite an early season loss at Baylor, the Wildcats rolled to an impressive 10-1 record doing it the hard way. Kentucky defeated Penn State (24-20) at University Park, Pa., defeated LSU (33-13) at Baton Rouge, La., blanked Georgia (33-0) at Athens, Ga., beat Florida (14-7) at Gainesville, Fla., and defeated Tennessee (21-17) at Lexington.

In the Curci era, players like Sonny Collins (UK career leader with 3,835 yards rushing), All-Americans Warren Bryant and Art Still and multi-talented Derrick Ramsey, wore the blue and white.

Curci stepped down following the 1981 season. In all, Curci worked nine years as UK head coach (longest of any UK football coach) and was 47-51-2 overall.

Jerry Claiborne answered the call of his alma mater in December of 1981 and was named the school's 31st head football coach. Claiborne had played at UK from 1946-49 and was an assistant coach under Bryant at UK in 1952-53.

His first campaign, 1982, was murderous from a schedule standpoint. The '82 UK schedule was rated as the nation's 2nd-toughest and featured the likes of Oklahoma, Clemson, Auburn, LSU, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Kansas and Kansas State. The Cats were caught in the process of rebuilding and stumbled to an 0-10-1 record.

The winless mark would not deter Claiborne, however. In fact, his 1983 squad tied for the nation's most improved program with a regular-season record of 6-4-1. As a reward, the Hall of Fame Bowl offered an invitation and UK accepted to give the Cats their 6th bowl appearance.

Kentucky improved in 1984, finishing with a 9-3 record which included a thrilling 20-19 victory over Wisconsin in the '84 Hall of Fame Bowl. The nine victories were the most by a UK squad since the 1977 season.

After the '84 campaign, Kentucky strung together 5-6, 5-5-1, 5-6, 5-6, and 6-5 records to close out Claiborne's career. He stepped down with a 41-46-3 record in eight seasons at UK. Claiborne and Bryant, to this date, ended their careers as the only two coaches to win at least five games in seven consecutive seasons.

During Claiborne's tenure, Kentucky captured its first national title by winning the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. UK led the SEC in Academic All-SEC Honor selections (68) during the Claiborne era, including a league record of 17 players named to the 1989 Academic All-SEC Honor Roll.

Individually, quarterback Bill Ransdell played under Claiborne and left as UK's All-time leader in passing and total offense. Mark Higgs departed as the school's 2nd-leading rusher and tackle Oliver Barnett set a UK record with 26 quarterback sacks.

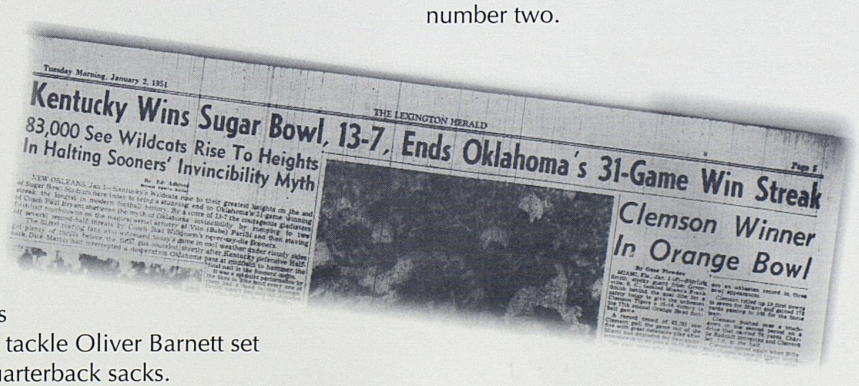

UK Coach Jerry Claiborne gets a free ride after the Cats' victory in the 1984 Hall of Fame Bowl.

On Jan. 8, 1990, Kentucky began a new era by hiring its 32nd head football coach in Bill Curry. The hiring came only a week after Curry guided his Alabama squad in the 1990 USF&G Sugar Bowl. Curry had led the Crimson Tide to a share of the SEC title and a 10-1 regular-season mark in 1989.

Curry led the Wildcats to a 4-7-0 mark during the '90 campaign, UK's 100th season. The biggest improvement came in the area of the SEC as the Wildcats finished fifth with a 3-4 mark, the most league wins since 1984.

And from all indications, Curry is the man to lead Kentucky football back to the point of success it once experienced as the Wildcats enter century number two.

Below is a closer look at some of the traditions and history which has molded the past 100 seasons of Kentucky football. Some of the anecdotes were derived from the book, "The Wildcats", which was written by former UK Sports Information Director Russell Rice.

IA AND IB

During the course of his legendary career, Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant was known as an innovator of introducing changes in the game of football. One change Bryant introduced during his tenure at Kentucky was the use of a unique number system to identify twins Harry and Larry Jones, who both lettered three years (1950-52) with the Wildcats. Harry wore 1A and Larry wore 1B. Harry led the Wildcats in all-purpose yardage in 1951 with 964 while Larry led UK in kickoff returns (21.1 avg) in 1952.

BEER BARREL

The traditional Battle for the Beer Barrel is the annual football game between Kentucky and Tennessee. Currently, the series is the third-longest of SEC teams vs. SEC teams (86 games) and trails only the Auburn-Georgia (94) and Ole Miss-Mississippi State (87) rivalries. The Beer Barrel Trophy is actually an old beer barrel painted blue, orange and white and is presented to the winner of the annual contest. Every score, since the origination of the trophy in 1925, is printed on the barrel. Two Wildcat followers, Guy Hugelet and Rollie Guthrie, wanted to come up with something symbolic to represent the great rivalry. Originally, they decided to use an old whiskey barrel as the trophy but the Women's Temperance Union made a stand against it since it was during the time of Prohibition. The duo went to another distributer, John Galvin, and settled on a beer barrel. Then as the Anti-Saloon League stepped in, Hugelet and Guthrie compromised by painting the words "ice water" on the barrel. The first time the trophy was awarded was in 1925 as UK defeated the Vols, 23-20. In 86 meetings overall, Tennessee leads the series 54-23-9.

BIG THREE BOWLING

Soon after Paul Bryant arrived at Kentucky in 1946, the Kentucky Football Program quickly hit the bowl scene. Kentucky made its initial postseason appearance in the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl in Cleveland. Two years later, UK Football began arriving on the doorsteps of the Big Four, well, three of the Big Four. Kentucky made consecutive trips to the 1950 Orange Bowl, the 1951 Sugar Bowl and the 1952 Cotton Bowl under Bryant. The Wildcats were 2-1 in the Big Three. By today's standards, consecutive trips to the Cotton, Sugar, and Orange Bowl would be a powerful measuring stick for a collegiate football program. The only Big Four Bowl missing is the Rose Bowl.

BROWN GRASS

The turning of seasons occur in Commonwealth Stadium, too. From September when the Wildcats open a football campaign to the close in November, Commonwealth Stadium takes on a different look. That different look is in the turf. The natural grass playing surface at Commonwealth Stadium is a thick layer of bermuda. As the season slowly begins to turn from fall to winter, so does the bermuda from green to brown. The early-morning frosts in late October start the seasonal changes in the bermuda. As a result, the Wildcats play their November home games on brown grass.

BOURBON BARREL

The famed Bourbon Barrel is the trophy presented to the winner of the Kentucky-Indiana football game. This series, though beginning in 1893, is only 21 games old but has quickly become one of the fiercest, most competitive contests in the region. As far as the origination of the Bourbon Barrel is concerned, no one is certain where the idea started. A possible answer stems from the great distillery industry located in Kentucky and southern Indiana. The Bourbon Barrel is mounted on a board for traveling purposes. The trophy is actually a half-barrel and lists all scores of the 21-game series. A blue stripe is painted in the background for a Kentucky win and a red stripe for an Indiana victory. Indiana leads the series, 13-7-1. Two years ago, both schools agreed contractually to extend the series annually through the year 2000.

PAUL "BEAR" BRYANT

Paul Bryant is still the most successful coach in UK Football History. Bryant spent eight years at UK (1946-53) and produced a 60-23-5 (.710 pct.) record. The 60 victories are the most by any UK football coach. He led the Wildcats to four bowl games and their first Southeastern Conference title in 1950. He coached such UK stars as George Blanda, Jerry Claiborne, Bob Gain, Babe Parilli, Doug Moseley, Wilbur Jamerson, and Steve Meilinger.

JERRY CLAIBORNE

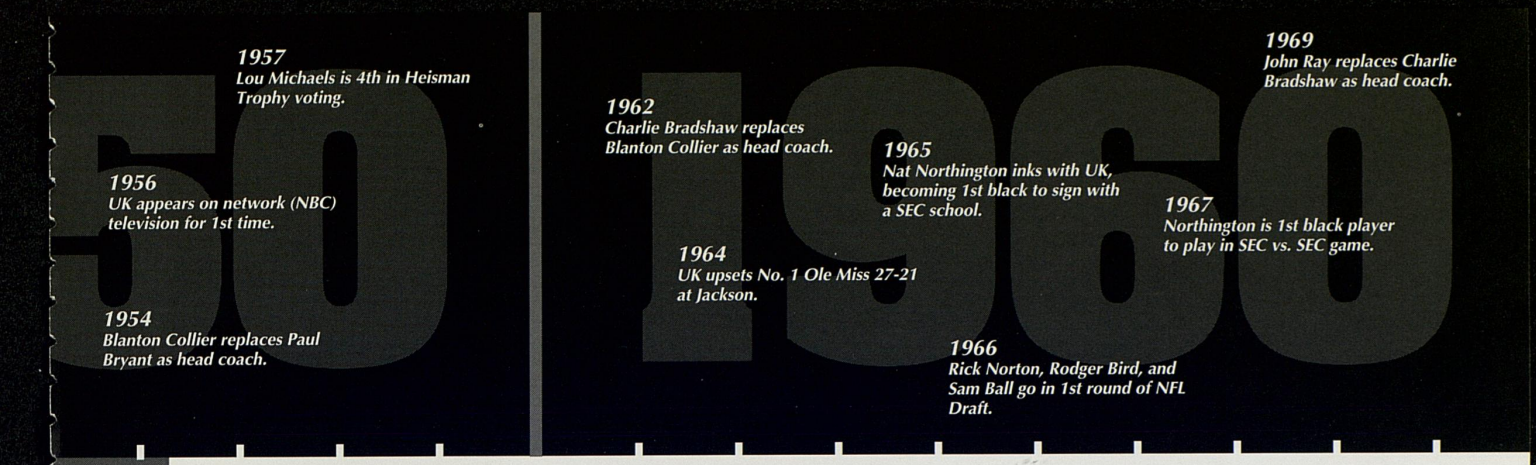

After lettering three years (1946-49) as a player and serving two seasons (1952-53) as an assistant coach at Kentucky, Jerry Claiborne returned to his alma mater in 1982 as UK's 31st head football coach. Claiborne stepped down after 28 years as a collegiate head coach last November. He led the Wildcats to two bowls and four non-losing seasons. During his era, Kentucky placed more players (68) on the Academic All-SEC Honor Roll than any league school, including a record 17 in 1989. Claiborne also led UK to a national academic title by capturing the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. His eight-year UK record was 41-46-3. Overall, Claiborne finished 21st among Division I coaches with 179 career victories and 179-122-8 in all games.

CFA ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

The University of Kentucky became the first Southeastern Conference institution to win the College Football Association Academic Achievement Award after claiming the prestigious honor in 1989. The Academic Achievement Award is given to the CFA institution with the highest graduation rate of its football program based on a five-year period. UK had graduated 90 percent (18 of 20) of its incoming freshman signee class of 1983, thus earning the honor in May, 1989. A year earlier (1988), UK finished second with a graduation rate of 90.5 percent. Kentucky earned Honorable Mention honors in 1991 with a graduation rate of 70.0 percent.

BLANTON COLLIER AND THE STAFF

Blanton Collier had the misfortune of following Paul Bryant as head football at the University of Kentucky. But, Collier posted a fine 41-36-3 record in eight seasons at UK. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his record against arch-rival Tennessee which stood at 5 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie. Standouts such as Howard Schnellenberger, Lou Michaels, Tom Hutchinson, Bobby Cravens, Calvin Bird and Irv Goode played under Collier. One fascinating item in Collier's tenure was the football coaching staff he assembled in 1959. The 1959 UK Coaching Staff included Collier, Ed Rutledge, Howard Schnellenberger, Ermal Allen, Don Shula, John North, Bob Cummings, and Bill Arnsparger.

chronology 1880 - 1990

FRAN CURCI

The Fran Curci era (1973-81) was one of ups and down at the University of Kentucky. Curci remained at UK for nine seasons, the longest tenure of any UK football coach, and posted a 47-51-2 record. The ups consisted of sharing the 1976 Southeastern Conference title with Georgia, a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina in the '76 Peach Bowl, and a 1977 squad which boasted a 10-1 record and No. 5 national ranking. The down was probation which forced the '77 squad to miss a certain bowl invitation.

FORWARD PASS

The first forward pass attempted by a University of Kentucky football player was thrown on Oct. 13, 1906, by quarterback Earl Stone as the Wildcats faced Eminence Athletic Club. This was the first year the forward pass was legalized by national rules. Accounts from this early contest do not indicate if the first forward UK pass was completed.

GREAT LAKES BOWL

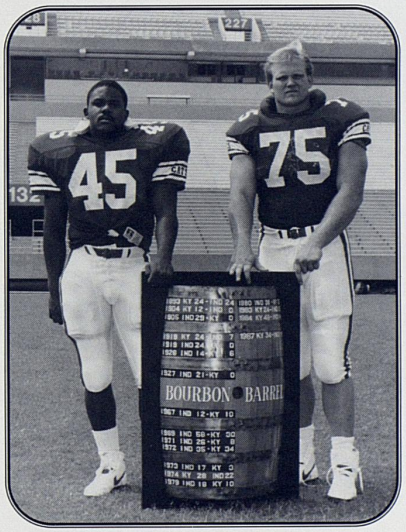

The first bowl appearance by the University of Kentucky football program came in 1947 in the inaugural Great Lakes Bowl at Cleveland, Ohio. Kentucky, led by George Blanda and Bill Boller, rolled past Villanova, 24-14, in front of 14,908 people at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium. The unique item about this particular bowl game is the Great Lakes Bowl folded the next year, thus leaving UK and Villanova as the only two schools to ever appear in the bowl.

HOMECOMING GAMES

As in the case of most institutions, Homecoming football games are special. Kentucky is no exception. Alumni and old friends converge on the UK campus each fall for Homecoming Day, highlighted by a Kentucky football game. The Homecoming Queen and her court are presented in horse-drawn carriages which gives the event a distinct, Kentucky flavor. The first Homecoming Day occurred on Nov. 25, 1915, as Kentucky defeated Tennessee, 6-0. Though records are sketchy, Kentucky has hosted a Homecoming game every year since 1946 and owns a 35-10-0 record in those 45 contests.

THE IMMORTALS

Simply known as "The Immortals", the 1898 University of Kentucky football squad still remains as the only undefeated, untied, and unscored on Wildcats club in school history. The Immortals outscored opponents 180-0 while posting a perfect 7-0-0 record. Roscoe Severs served as team captain under coach W.R. Bass. The closest of all seven games was a 6-0 victory over Centre College.

Former Wildcats Mike Pfeifer (75) and Chris Chenault (45) display the UK-IU Bourbon Barrel.

CAWOOD LEDFORD

The legendary "Voice of the Wildcats" is none other than Cawood Ledford. For the last 38 years, Cawood has called Wildcats Football and Basketball. His voice alone, symbolizes UK Athletics. Current UK Coach Bill Curry has fond memories of Cawood. "I remember those Saturday nights at College Park, Ga. I'd turn on the radio and listen to Cawood calling the action from old Stoll Field. He certainly is a huge part of Kentucky Football."

MINUS NINETY-THREE

The University of Kentucky holds the Southeastern Conference record for fewest yards allowed rushing in a single game. Kentucky limited Kansas State to a minus-93 yards on the ground as UK defeated Kansas State, 16-3, on Sept. 19, 1970, at Lexington. Kentucky defenders sacked KSU quarterbacks Lynn Dickey (2) and Max Arreguin (5) a total of seven times while intercepting three of their passes. Ironically, KSU outgained UK in total offense 214-107 as Dickey and Arreguin combined for 307 yards in the air.

NIGHT GAME

The University of Kentucky was one of the first institutions to play intercollegiate football at night. The first UK home night game was played on Oct. 5, 1929, at Stoll Field as Kentucky defeated Maryville, 40-0. Kentucky did not play more than one home night game per season until 1947.

NAT NORTHINGTON

Nat Northington of Louisville became the first black player to sign with the University of Kentucky and a Southeastern Conference institution. Northington signed a national letter-of-intent with UK in December of 1965. He later became the first black football player to play in a SEC vs. SEC game, appearing in the UK-Ole Miss game at Lexington on Sept. 30, 1967.

OCTOBER NIGHT GAMES

The University of Kentucky began holding its October home football games during the evening hours in 1949. UK and Keeneland Race Course, located in Lexington, have enjoyed a close relationship through the years and assist in giving UK faithful an opportunity to enjoy two of the Commonwealth's best-loved events in October — football and horse racing. With the traditional post time at Keeneland for the thoroughbred races at 1 p.m., UK began moving its October home games to night during the 1949 season. The only occasion UK has not conducted its October home games in the evening is to accomodate television.

OUTLAND TROPHY

Two-time All-American Bob Gain is the only player in University of Kentucky football history to be awarded "The Outland Trophy", signifying the best interior lineman in collegiate football. Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy after helping lead UK to its first Southeastern Conference title and a 10-1 regular-season record. Besides being the first UK player to claim the award, Gain was also the first SEC player to be given the award.

RED DOC, BLACK DOC

A pair of cousins named William Rodes played football for the University of Kentucky during the early 1900s. To distinquish one from the other, one was nicknamed "Red Doc" and the other "Black Doc". William "Red Doc" Rodes lettered three years (1909, 11-12) as a 140-pound halfback and defensive end. William "Black Doc" Rodes lettered two years (1915-16) as quarterback. Black Doc was considered by many to be one of the best open-field runners in that era. He also placekicked and personally delivered UK's 6-0 victory over Tennessee in 1915 with field goals of 45 and 43 yards.

RUSSELL RICE

Longtime UK sports information director Russell Rice is the walking, talking historian when its comes to Wildcats Football. Rice retired from the UK Athletics Department in 1989 after serving 18 years as sports information director. He came to UK in 1967 as assistant SID under Ken Kuhn, then was named sports information director in 1969. Rice authored the book, "The Wildcats, Kentucky Football", which details Kentucky football and its history. At his retirement party, Rice was given a lifetime "Press Pass" to the Commonwealth Stadium press box.

STOLL FIELD/McLEAN STADIUM

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was the first home for Kentucky Football. The stadium was located adjacent to Memorial Coliseum and served as UK's football home since 1916. The University Board of Trustees voted to name the playing field as "Stoll Field" and the actual grandstand structures as "McLean Stadium", thus the often confusing double names. Stoll Field was named in honor of the late Judge Richard C. Stoll, a prominent alumnus, trustee and benefactor of UK. Stoll Field was dedicated on Oct. 14, 1916. McLean Stadium was dedicated on Nov. 1, 1924, in memory of Price Innes McLean, a regular center on the 1923 UK squad who died as a result of injuries sustain in the Kentucky-Cincinnati game on Nov. 6, 1923. The final seating capacity of Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was 37,000 during its last year of use, 1972.

THE THIN THIRTY

When Blanton Collier stepped down as head football coach at Kentucky following the 1961 season, UK promptly named former Wildcats' player Charlie Bradshaw as its 28th coach. Bradshaw inherited a squad of 88 players left from Collier's 5-5-0 team in '61. Bradshaw promised his new UK squad hard work and talked of training to an absolute peak of condition. His conditioning tactics took their toll as over 50 players left the squad, leaving 30 to open the season against Florida State and prompting the name "Thin Thirty". The Thin Thirty finished 3-5-2 on the season with victories over Detroit (27-8), Vanderbilt (7-0) and arch-rival Tennessee (12-10). The ties were against Florida State (0-0) and Georgia (7-7).

TURNAROUNDS

One of the biggest turnarounds in collegiate football happened at the University of Kentucky during the 1982 and 1983 seasons. Jerry Claiborne had replaced Fran Curci as head coach prior to the '82 campaign. Claiborne inherited a program in shambles and faced the nation's 2nd-toughest schedule which featured Oklahoma, Clemson, Auburn, LSU, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Kansas and Kansas State. Not surprisingly, Kentucky finished 0-10-1 in 1982 with only a 13-13 tie with Kansas keeping the Wildcats from an 0-11 slate. However, Claiborne turned the heat up in 1983 and went to work. UK reeled off consecutive wins against Central Michigan (31-14), Kansas State (31-12), Indiana (24-13), and Tulane (26-14) to start the season. The Cats also defeated LSU (21-13) and Vanderbilt (17-8) to finish the campaign with a 6-4-1 record. The turnaround, which tied Memphis State for the biggest turnaround in 1983, earned Kentucky a berth in the 1983 Hall of Fame Bowl.

VICTORY KICKS

The University of Kentucky defeated the Louisville YMCA, 12-6, in 1900. What is so unique about this contest is Kentucky did not run a single offensive play. Instead, Kentucky punted on first down each time it had the football and eventually scored on a pair of fumbles by the Louisville YMCA club which had occurred in their own endzone.

WINNING STREAK

For the most part, the most famous winning streak in Kentucky football history is the one the Wildcats ended. The stage was set as UK faced Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl. Kentucky was coming off its first Southeastern Conference title and brought in a 10-1 record. Oklahoma entered as national champions and riding a 31-game winning streak. A pair of Wilbur Jamerson scores - a 22-yard pass from Babe Parilli and a one-yard run - was all UK needed in picking up a 13-7 upset of the Sooners and thus ending the 31-game streak. Today, the 31-game winning streak by Oklahoma ranks as the 7th-longest in NCAA history.

THE YEAR (1977-78)

Perhaps the most successful year in UK Athletics occurred during the 1977-78 academic year at the University of Kentucky. The 1977 Wildcats football squad, under Fran Curci, raced to a 10-1 record and ended the year ranked No. 5 by THE SPORTING NEWS. Highlights were victories over North Carolina (10-7), West Virginia (28-13), Penn State (24-20), LSU (33-13), Georgia (33-0), Florida (14-7) and Tennessee (21-17). On the basketball side, UK wrapped up its 5th NCAA Title by defeating Duke, 94-88, at St. Louis. The UK Basketballers ended the campaign with a 30-2 record under Joe B. Hall.

THE YEAR (1950-51)

An argument to the most successful year in UK Athletics is the 1950-51 academic year. UK Football, under Paul Bryant, ended the 1950 regular season with a 10-1 record and ranked No. 7 nationally by both A.P. and U.P.I. The Wildcats then proceeded to snap national champion Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak with a 13-7 victory in the Sugar Bowl. On the basketball front, Adolph Rupp gave UK its 3rd national title by defeating Kansas State, 68-58, at Minneapolis, Minn. The Wildcats ended the year 32-2. Current UK Athletics Director C.M. Newton was a letterman on that squad.

1989
Kentucky sets SEC record with 17 players on Academic All-SEC team.

1985
Record 58,345 at Commonwealth Stadium vs. Miss. State.

1989
UK earns CFA Academic Acheivement Award.

1990
Bill Curry becomes UK's 32nd head football coach.

1990
UK retires 12 jerseys.

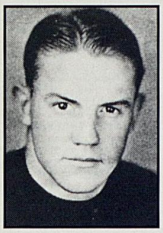

1989
Jerry Claiborne resigns after eight seasons.

1990
UK opens 100th season with win over Central Michigan.

1987
UK moves into $6 million E.J. Nutter Football Training Facility.

CFA Academic Achievement Award

Claiborne's emphasis on classroom brings UK football academic award

By SCOTT FOWLER
Staff Writer

LEXINGTON, Ky. — Although Jerry Claiborne doesn't follow his football players to every class, they study as though he is sitting on their shoulders.

More evidence of that came yesterday when the University of Kentucky won the College Football Association Academic Achievement Award. By graduating 90 percent of its players out of the incoming class of 1983, UK placed itself in the select company of Duke, Notre Dame and Virginia — who until yesterday had been the only recipients of the award since it was created in 1981.

"I know how important academics are, and our staff knows how important they are," Claiborne said yesterday. "Most of our players want to be in that 1 percent of players who go on to play professional football. But 99 percent of them won't get that, and you've got to have that academic background to fall back on. ... We're very interested in our players obtaining that degree, and they know it."

Bob Bradley, an assistant UK athletics director and the head of the school's Center for Academic and Tutorial Services, supervises the academic-support system for all sports, which includes tutoring and monitoring each player's academic progress.

UK's football players attend mandatory study halls, punching a time card to show how much time they have spent there.

The system has worked. Eighteen of the 20 players who entered UK in 1983 had graduated by the summer of 1988, which the survey specified as the cutoff date. A year ago UK reported it graduated 19 of 21 players from the incoming class of 1982 (90.5 percent), only to be beaten out by Notre Dame, which had a 100 percent graduation rate. UK was among the top five schools last year.

Those two years haven't been a fluke. During Claiborne's seven-year tenure at UK, the school also has led the Southeastern Conference in academic all-SEC selections.

The College Football Association includes 66 Division I-A programs, with Big Ten and Pacific 10 schools being the most prominent non-members. The organization received 53 survey responses to this year's questionnaire. The overall graduation rate reported was 49.7 percent, a slight decline from last year's all-time high of 50.7 percent.

UK officials hailed the football team's achievements yesterday, as well as Claiborne's role.

"This is a fitting tribute to the kind of football program we have at the University of Kentucky," UK President David Roselle said. "It is also a fitting tribute to coach Claiborne, whose emphasis on academics in a competitive athletics program has made this award possible.

UK athletics director C. M. Newton said he would be proud of the award even if he hadn't moved to UK from Vanderbilt recently.

"As an alumnus of the university, it's really a great source of pride," Newton said. "Even if I weren't here, I'd feel that. It all goes back to that one guy, the head coach. If education is not important to the head coach, then his players don't graduate. If it is important to him, it will be important to his players. I couldn't be prouder of Jerry and his team."

Claiborne said Bradley and his staff at the CATS center deserve much of the credit for the award. Bradley said, "I think congratulations have to go to coach Claiborne. ... Many support systems across the country do an excellent job at helping their student-athletes. I am blessed at Kentucky in having Jerry Claiborne. He really believes in the student-athlete. We are totally in sync."

The Memphis Touchdown Club will present the award to UK officials in December at the Liberty Bowl luncheon in Memphis, Tenn. Claiborne hopes his team will be preparing for a bowl game of its own then.

"We're all delighted to win this award," said Claiborne, who has a 35-41-3 record during his career at Kentucky. "But we want to win that other championship, too."

DICKY LYONS 22, WEST VIRGINIA 7

That's correct, when Kentucky met the West Virginia Mountaineers on Nov. 4, 1967, at Lexington, halfback Dicky Lyons did a little of everything in helping the Wildcats earn their first victory of the season.

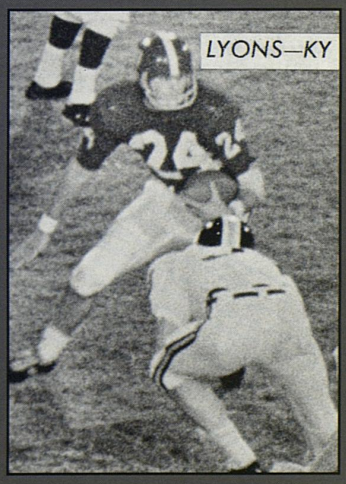

UK entered the contest with an 0-6 record, with its highest offensive output of 14 points in a 24-14 loss to Virginia Tech a couple of weeks earlier. On this afternoon, Lyons scored all 22 points to lead the Cats to a 22-7 victory over West Virginia.

Lyons put Kentucky ahead first, 6-0, with a three-yard run in the first quarter. After the Wildcats had fallen behind, 7-6, Lyons booted a 33-yard field goal with 27 seconds left in the half to give UK a 9-7 lead at intermission.

The score remained the same until the fourth quarter. In the final period, Lyons hit paydirt with two additional runs – one and three yards – and added a PAT to make the final margin, 22-7.

On the afternoon, Lyons carried the football 19 times for 51 yards. Lyons also returned two kickoffs for 33 yards, returned 1 punt for 26 yards and punted 7 times for 260 yards, averaging 37 yards per punt. Lyons hit 1 of 1 field goals and 1 of 2 PATs.

Lyons was named Southeastern Conference Back of the Week after leading UK to its first victory of 1967. The Wildcats finished the year 2-8. By the way, Lyons' 22 points was the most points scored by UK during the '67 campaign. In the final three games of the year, Kentucky defeated Vandy 12-

WILDCAT MASCOT

The Wildcat mascot originated during the 1976-77 academic year at the University of Kentucky and serves as a friendly ambassador for the University at all football and basketball events and several academic functions.

The original Wildcat mascot was Gary Tanner. He set the precedent for future Wildcat mascots in dazzling and entertaining the huge crowds at Commonwealth Stadium and Rupp Arena.

In the 1980's, Terry Barney served as the Wildcat mascot and began a tradition that is carried out at every UK football game. After each UK score, Barney ran to the endzone in front of the Wildcats student section and did one-arm push ups for every point Kentucky had scored.

Today, that custom still applies. The crowd counts simultaneously with each push up. Then, once the push ups are finished, the Wildcat mascot leads the spelling of C-A-T-S.

The most one-arm push ups delivered by the Wildcat mascot in most recent seasons came in UK's 41-0 blanking of Utah State to open the 1987 season. In all, the Wildcat mascot did 184 one-arm pushups on the afternoon which included 105 in the first half alone.

BLUE AND WHITE

The University of Kentucky adopted Blue and White as its official colors in 1892. Ironically, blue and white were not the original colors UK had used for its athletics teams.

UK students had decided on blue and yellow prior to the Kentucky-Centre football game on Dec. 19, 1891. The shade of blue, which is between a royal and navy blue, came about when a student asked the same question, "What color blue?"

At that time, Richard C. Stoll (who lettered in football at UK in 1893-94) pulled off his necktie and held it up. The students then proceeded to adopt that particular shade of blue in Stoll's necktie. A year later, UK students dropped yellow for white.

For printing purposes, the UK athletic teams use PMS 293 blue.

GREAT LAKES BOWL

Kentucky 24, Villanova 14

1947 The Kentucky Wildcats made their first appearance on the bowl scene in the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl and came away with a 24-14 victory over Villanova before a crowd of 14,908 at Cleveland Municipal Stadium.

Kentucky, in its second year under head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, finished at 8-3 on the season with the victory.

Quarterback-placekicker George Blanda gave Kentucky an early 3-0 lead in the first quarter. Blanda connected on a 27-yard field goal to put the Cats up and it remained that way until halftime.

In the third quarter, UK's Jim Howe scampered 29 yards for a score. Blanda added the PAT and Kentucky led 10-0 after three periods.

Bill Boller scored both Kentucky touchdowns in the fourth period, romping 15 yards on a handoff from Blanda and racing 49 yards to paydirt with an interception. Blanda added both PATs to round out the Kentucky scoring.

Villanova also added a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns, but it was not enough as Kentucky captured its first bowl victory in school history.

ORANGE BOWL

Santa Clara 21, Kentucky 13

1950 Kentucky committed three turnovers and let a seven-point halftime lead slip away in dropping its first major bowl game, 21-13, to Santa Clara in the 1950 Orange Bowl before a crowd of 64,816.

The Wildcats, 9-3, scored their first touchdown early in the second quarter as a result of a Santa Clara turnover. UK's John Netoskie recovered at fumble at the Wildcat 49 to set up Kentucky's first score. The Wildcats drove 51 yards in 14 plays as Wilbur Jamerson hammered over from two yards. Bobby Brooks added the PAT to make it 7-0.

Kentucky wasted a golden scoring opportunity late in the second quarter when Babe Parilli found Bill Leskovar for a 45-yard completion to the SC 3 with time running out. Leskovar and runningmate Don Phelps each were stopped short on their respective rush attempts and the clock ran out before UK could score. The Wildcats led 7-0 at halftime.

UK coach Paul "Bear" Bryant said afterward he should have sent in a pass play just before the half. "If it failed," he said, "the clock was killed then we could have tried a field goal."

A short, 9-yard punt by Phelps set up Santa Clara's first score in the third quarter. After taking over on the SC 46, Bronco quarterback John Pasco hit Larry Williams on a 25-yard pass. Santa Clara eventually scored on a one-yard sneak by Pasco to tie the game, 7-7.

Santa Clara scored again later in the third period, thanks in part to a pass interference call against Kentucky. Hall Haynes went over from 4 yards to make it, 14-7, after three quarters.

Parilli led Kentucky right back, hitting Emery Clark on a 52-yard touchdown strike. Brooks, however, missed the tying PAT breaking a personal streak of 18 straight as Santa Clara led 14-13 with 12 minutes left in the contest.

Santa Clara managed to hold off the Cats and added an insurance score with less than a minute left, a 16-yard TD run by Buster Wraith.

SUGAR BOWL

Kentucky 13, Oklahoma 7

1951 Kentucky arrived on the national football scene and stunned national champion Oklahoma, 13-7, to capture the 1951 Sugar Bowl before 82,000 at New Orleans.

The Wildcats, 11-1, displayed a tough defense and opportunistic offense in snapping Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak, the longest in the nation at that time. More than 13,000 Kentucky fans made the long trip to New Orleans to watch the Southeastern Conference champions pick up their school record 11th win.

Under the direction of coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, Kentucky continually confused the favored Sooners with different defensive looks. The Wildcats used three tackles much of the time, causing OU quarterback Claude Arnold to hasten his playmaking.

Sugar Bowl . . .Inflicting the most damage on the Sooners was Walt Yowarsky, a tackle who had played less than five minutes on the defensive side of the football in 1950. Yowarsky operated at left end, next to Outland Trophy winner Bob Gain, and repeatedly sliced into the Sooner backfield to break up passes and to make Arnold hurry his hand-offs and laterals.

Yowarski recovered a fumble on the OU 22 that set up UK's first touchdown. On the very next play, Babe Parilli hit Wilbur Jamerson in the right corner of the end zone for the touchdown. Gain added the PAT to make it 7-0 in the first quarter.

Kentucky marched 81 yards in the second quarter to go up 13-0. Jamerson dove over from the one to cap the drive, but Gain missed wide on the PAT.

The Wildcat defense, ranked number two in the nation, showed Oklahoma why late in the third quarter. The Sooners drove 67 yards with the second-half kickoff, sitting at the UK 3 with a first-and-goal. Yowarsky helped UK turn back the Sooners, throwing an OU runner for a five-yard loss on third down and Oklahoma eventually turned the ball over on downs.

Yowarsky, voted the game's MVP, thwarted another OU threat in the fourth quarter as he recovered a fumbled punt.

Oklahoma did score with seven minutes to play as Billy Vessels hit Merrill Green on a 17-yard pass for the touchdown. Jim Weatherall added the PAT.

The Wildcats managed to hold on to the football for all but one play the rest of the way to claim a stirring 13-7 win.

COTTON BOWL

Kentucky 20, TCU 7

1952 Quarterback Babe Parilli threw for two touchdowns to lead the Kentucky Wildcats to a 20-7 victory over the TCU Horned Frogs in the 1952 Cotton Bowl before a crowd of 75,349 at Dallas, Texas.

Parilli, who completed 8 of 20 passes for 85 yards, tossed both touchdown strikes to Emery Clark. With the victory, the Wildcats end the season at 8-4.

Kentucky got on the scoreboard first, as Parilli found Clark for the first of two TDs. Parilli hit Clark with a five-yard toss to culminate a 53-yard scoring march. Harry Jones added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after one quarter.

In the second period, UK got its second touchdown when Parilli and Clark hooked up again. This time, Parilli found Clark on a 13-yard TD strike to cap a 57-yard drive. Jones missed on the PAT attempt and UK settled for a 13-0 lead in the second period with a little over 10 minutes left.

The Wildcat defense made that 13-point lead stand up until halftime as the Horned Frogs drove four times deep into UK territory. Led by All-American guard Ray Correll, the Wildcats turned TCU away on drives to the UK 4, 24, 5 and 2-yard lines to take a 13-0 lead at intermission.

TCU's Bobby Jack Floyd sliced the UK lead to 13-7 when he galloped 43 yards on a sweep. Floyd's run capped an 80-yard scoring drive which took only four plays. Keith Flowers added the PAT with 1:12 left in the third period.

Kentucky ended any thoughts of a TCU comeback, thwarting the only two Horned Frog offensive drives in the fourth period and scoring an insurance touchdown as well. Ed Hamilton sealed the UK victory with a three-yard score off left tackle with 3:33 left. Jones added the PAT for the final 20-7 score.

PEACH BOWL

Kentucky 21, North Carolina 0

1976 Kentucky tailback Rod Stewart scored three touchdowns to lead the Wildcats to a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina before a sellout crowd of 54,132 in the 1976 Peach Bowl at Atlanta, Ga.

The Wildcats, after a 25-year absence from the post-season bowl scene, returned in fine fashion as Kentucky completely smothered the Tar Heels. Kentucky outgained North Carolina 334-108 in total yards, limiting the Tar Heels to just five first downs and forcing five UNC turnovers.

After a scoreless first half, Kentucky went to work in the third period after UNC quarterback Matt Kupec fumbled at the Tar Heel 21. UK's James Ramey recovered and the Wildcats were in business.

Seven plays later, Stewart busted over from the one for the touchdown. John Pierce added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after three quarters.

Stewart sent the 37,000-plus Kentuckians, who had followed UK to the Peach Bowl, into a frenzy with his second touchdown early in the fourth quarter. The Wildcats marched 57 yards in 9 plays as Stewart capped the drive with a 13-yard gallop behind All-American tackle Warren Bryant. Pierce was good on the PAT and Kentucky led 14-0 with 13:01 left to play.

The Big Blue had to go only 47 yards for their final score. Kentucky faced a fourth-and-one from the UNC 3 with a little over three minutes remaining. Once again, Stewart (104 yards on 19 carries) got the call and he picked up both - the first down and the touchdown. Pierce was true on the PAT and UK had put the game away.

Stewart tied the Peach Bowl record for most touchdowns and scoring with the 3 TDs and 18 points. He was named the game's MVP. The Most Valuable Defensive Player of the game was UK linebacker Mike Martin, who helped hold the Tarheels to just over 100 yards.

HALL OF FAME BOWL

West Virginia 20, Kentucky 16

1983 Kentucky won much of the statistical battle but lost the war in dropping a tough 20-16 decision to the West Virginia Mountaineers in the 1983 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham.

The Wildcats, in a bowl for the first time since 1976, outgained West Virginia 306-288 in total offense and held the edge in first downs 19-18 and passing yards 216-88. But 17 second-half points by West Virginia were too much for the Wildcats to overcome.

West Virginia scratched first as placekicker Paul Woodside connected on a 39-yard field goal late in the first quarter.

Kentucky countered with 10 points in the second stanza to take a 10-3 lead at halftime.

The Wildcats marched 54 yards in eight plays for their first score. Facing a third-and-three from the WV 26, Kentucky used some razzle-dazzle as Tony Mayes swept right, then threw-back to quarterback Randy Jenkins in the left corner of the endzone for the TD. John Hutcherson added the PAT and UK led 7-3 with 10:59 left in the second period.

Jenkins hit two big passes late in the second quarter to help set up a 32-yard field goal by Hutcherson. Jenkins connected with Joe Phillips for a 19-yard pass play and then hit George Adams for a 14-yarder as Hutcherson connected with but 38 seconds left in the half.

Attendance - 42,000

WVU kicker Paul Woodside fooled everyone to begin the second half. Woodside tried and on-side kick to start the half and then recovered it to give the Mountaineers the football at the UK 48. Eight plays later, QB Jeff Hostetler found Rich Hollins for a 16-yard TD strike. Woodside added the PAT and it was 10-10 with 11:10 left in the third quarter.

West Virginia scored twice in a span of two minutes early in the fourth quarter to take a commanding 20-10 lead. Hostetler capped off a 10-play, 81-yard drive with a 2-yard scoring toss to Rob Bennett to make it 17-10 with 11:15 left to play.

Two plays later, West Virginia took over after an interception of a Jenkins pass at the UK 16. The interception set up a 23-yard field goal by Woodside at the Mountaineers went up 20-10 with 9:18 remaining.

Kentucky freshman quarterback Bill Ransdell led the Wildcats back, marching UK 92 yards in 11 plays following the kickoff. Ransdell hit Phillips for a 13-yard scoring toss to make it 20-16 with 5:50 left. Hutcherson missed the PAT.

The Wildcats got one more shot, but could get no further than the UK 37.

HALL OF FAME BOWL

Kentucky 20, Wisconsin 19

1984 Kentucky's Joey Worley booted a career-long 52-yard field goal with just under nine minutes remaining to give the Wildcats a thrilling 20-19 victory over the Wisconsin Badgers in the 1984 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham.

Worley, a freshman, helped Kentucky overcome a nine-point deficit in the second half with his school and bowl record field goal.

Wisconsin jumped on top early, scoring twice in the first quarter. Todd Gregoire nailed a 40-yard field goal just under four minutes into the game and Michael Howard hit Thad McFadden with a 3-yard TD pass. Gregoire added the PAT and the Badgers led 10-0 with 5:34 left in the opening period.

Gregoire added another field goal, this one from 27 yards, to make it 13-0 with 7:05 left in the second period.

Kentucky got on the board after safety Paul Calhoun intercepted a Howard pass to give UK possession at the Badger 42. It took Kentucky just five plays to score as Marc Logan went over from nine yards. Worley added the PAT to cut the deficit to 13-7 with 1:29 left in the half.

Wisconsin was not through. The Badgers used four running plays, two passes and a costly 15-yard penalty to move the football to the UK 3 with two seconds left in the half. From there, Wisconsin decided on a Gregoire field goal (20-yarder) to take a 16-7 edge at halftime.

Kentucky narrowed the gap to 16-10 on a 22-yard field goal by Worley with 11:28 left in the third quarter. But Gregoire responded with a 40-yarder two minutes later to move the count back to nine, 19-10.

Behind UK quarterback Bill Ransdell, the Wildcats marched 82 yards in 11 plays later in the quarter to get within two, 19-17. Ransdell hit Logan on a screen pass to cover the final 27 yards and with the Worley PAT, UK was back in it with 26 seconds left in the third quarter.

The next time Kentucky got the ball, Ransdell moved the Cats into position for Worley's 52-yarder. Starting from the UK 22, tailback Mark Higgs got the call four consecutive times, then it was Adams turn the next four plays. Facing a fourth-and-two at the UW 34, Worley nailed the game-winner with 8:55 left.

Wisconsin came back and marched to the UK 8 with less than two minutes left. With the Badgers facing a fourth-and-six, Gregoire was called on for his 5th field goal attempt. This time, the snap from center was bobbled and UK had sealed the victory.

KENTUCKY HOMECOMING RECORD

(Since 1946)

35 Wins, 10 Losses, 0 Ties

Homecoming is a special occasion at the University of Kentucky as alumni and old friends converge on campus and Commonwealth Stadium each fall. The horse-drawn carriages assist in presenting the Homecoming Queen and her court, a distinctive taste of Kentucky indeed.

On the football field, the Wildcats have won eight Homecoming games in a row and own a 35-10-0 record since 1946 in these contests. This year, Cincinnati will serve as the UK annual Homecoming foe.

UK Upsets No. 1 Ole Miss Behind Kestner

RICK KESTNER of Stone had the best day of any Kentucky receiver during his junior campaign in 1964 . . . Kestner hauled in nine passes for 185 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Wildcats to a 27-21 upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss at Mississippi Memorial Stadium in Jackson . . . In the third quarter, Kestner was on the receiving end of a 32-yard halfback pass from Rodger Bird to give UK a 13-7 lead . . . Kestner added two additional scores on tosses from QB Rick Norton (60 and 23) as the Wildcats rallied from 14-13 and 21-20 deficits late in the second half for the upset.

Lyons Sets SEC Mark for Kick Returns

DICKY LYONS of Louisville established a Southeastern Conference record for kick return yards against LSU on Oct. 21, 1967, at Tiger Stadium . . . Lyons returned eight kicks (4 punts, 4 kickoffs) for a record 235 yards and one touchdown . . . With LSU leading 9-0, Lyons returned the second-half kickoff 95 yards for a score to cut the deficit to 9-7 . . . That was as close as the Wildcats would get as LSU prevailed 30-7 . . . Lyons returned four punts for 65 yards on the evening and four kickoffs for 160 stripes.

Worley's 52-yard Field Goal Lifts Cats

JOEY WORLEY of Oakwood, Va., made Kentucky's last bowl appearance a memorable one by kicking the Wildcats past the Wisconsin Badgers, 20-19, in the 1984 Hall of Fame Bowl at Birmingham . . .Worley was true on a 52-yard field goal attempt with 8:55 left to play to give UK the winning margin, capping a 48-yard drive . . .Worley also added a 22-yard field goal in the third quarter and two PAT kicks to help the Wildcats cause.

Willis Puts Toe in Victory Over Rutgers

KEN WILLIS of Owensboro scratched the UK Record Book on Oct. 14,1989, by scoring 15 points via the kicking game which eclipsed the old mark of 14 held by Joey Worley . . . The 15 points established a new Wildcats mark for most points scored by a kicker in a single game . . . Willis connected on four of four field goals (20, 19, 28, 20) and three PATs for the record . . . His record-breaking kick came following a 69-yard TD run by Alfred Rawls with 3 minutes remaining . . . Willis added the PAT for his 15th point of the night.

Calhoun Booms UK-Record 80-Yard Punt

PAUL CALHOUN of Louisville launched the longest punt in UK modern history on Sept. 27, 1983, against the Indiana Hoosiers at Commonwealth Stadium . . . After UK could not generate a first down from its own 17 late in the first quarter, Calhoun boomed the Wildcats out of trouble with an 80-yard punt which died on the Hoosier 3-yard line . . . Kentucky trailed 3-0 at the time of the punt . . . On the afternoon, Calhoun punted six times for a 50.6-yard average, third-best on the UK single game list (minimum five punts) . . . Calhoun added three tackles and one interception from his free safety post in leading the Wildcats to a 24-13 victory.

Johnson Ties SEC Record with 100-Yard Return

KURT JOHNSON of Paducah gave Kentucky faithful a moment to remember on Oct. 28, 1989, against Georgia at Sanford Stadium . . .Kentucky trailed 34-17 following a 34-yard run by Rodney Hampton with 2:45 left to play . . . On the ensuing kickoff by John Kasay, Johnson retreated to the back of the end zone and made an over-the-shoulder catch some eight yards deep . . . Instead of downing the football, Johnson brought it out and never stopped until he reached pay dirt, 100 yards (actually 108) later . . .The kickoff return of 100 yards is the longest in UK history and ties the SEC existing mark of 100 yards . . . Georgia went on to win 34-23.

Bishop's Theft Gives UK Victory

DARRYL BISHOP of Louisville remains as the UK leader in career interceptions with 14, despite the fact his final campaign was some 18 years ago in 1973 . . . The most unusual interception in his career took place on Nov. 6, 1971, at Dudley Field in Nashville . . . With UK and Vanderbilt knotted at 7-7 and less than 50 seconds to play, Kentucky elected to punt facing a 4th-and-8 situation from its own 44 . . . Walter Overton made a fair catch at the Commodore 30, giving Vandy a first down . . . After QB Steve Burger lost four yards on the first play, the Commodores elected not to use a timeout . . . Then as time expired, Burger lofted a pass toward receiver Gary Chesley . . . The ball never got to Chesley as Bishop picked off the aerial and raced 43 yards for the winning score, giving UK a 14-7 victory on the game's final play.

Still Flattens 'Dogs, Propels 33-0 Win

ART STILL of Camden, N.J., almost single-handedly destroyed the Georgia offense on Oct. 22, 1977, at Sanford Stadium . . . Still set a UK single-game record for most tackles-for-losses with five in leading the Wildcats to a 33-0 blanking of the Bulldogs . . . All total, Still was credited with 14 tackles, 1 sack, and 5 TFLs as Kentucky limited Georgia to just 127 yards of total offense . . . Just after Joe Bryant had given UK a 3-0 lead midway through the second quarter with a 51-yard field goal, Still sacked 'Dog QB Jeff Pyburn to force Georgia to punt . . . Kentucky's Mike Martin blocked the punt and the Wildcats scored on a one-yard TD pass nine plays later as the rout began.
