COLUMBUS R. MELCHER, former Dean of Men, has been known to students of the University of Kentucky since his entrance to the Modern Languages department in 1907, when he accepted the position of Assistant Professor, teaching both German and French.

In the twenty-seven years that Dean Melcher has been associated with the University he has been teacher, friend, consultant, and advisor to his students. His versatility, brilliance, and the humanness of his ideals have endeared him to both student body and faculty alike.

In 1910, when the movement toward the creating of a Dean of Men's position began to be felt throughout the country, Kentucky searched its faculty for a man of ability and character for this office. In 1914, there were two schools in the United States having a Dean of Men. The third, Dean Melcher, took up his duties as such that year.

Last year marked another outstanding event, for Dean Melcher was made Dean Emeritus at that time, an honor he holds with only two other Deans, Dean Clark of Illinois, and Dean Coulter of Purdue. One of his most cherished possessions is the monogrammed watch the students of the University presented to him on that occasion. There is an O. D. K. key dangling from the chain of that watch, a key worn bright with the passing of years.

Born in April of 1863, at Vevay, Indiana, of a German father and French mother, Dean Melcher was graduated from Vevay High School and Hanover College. He received both his A. B. and A. M. degrees from Hanover. He studied for three years in Germany, attending the Universities of Munich and Leipsig. In 1896 Dean Melcher received his LL. B. from the University of Louisville. He studied at the University of Chicago during 1900 and 1901.

Dean Melcher has held many and various positions in the educational field he has pursued. He was Principal of the Vevay High School from 1885 to 1886; Superintendent of Schools at Carrollton, Kentucky, from 1889 to 1895; he was secretary to a member of Congress during the Spanish-American War; Principal of Reynolds Presbyterian Academy at Albany, Texas, from 1901 to 1902; Professor of Ancient and Modern Languages at Hanover College from 1902 to 1907; President of the Lexington School Board from 1912 to 1915; and President of the National Association of Deans of Men during 1925 and 1926.

It is altogether fitting and proper that the student body of this campus should show their appreciation to this man by dedicating this year's KENTUCKIAN to him; for Dean Melcher has been one of the pillars of this institution for many years. He has always had the interest of the students in mind. You will recall that he had quite completed his own education when he came here.

Dean Melcher's travel and various occupations have served to give him a keen appreciation of life. His German character is perfectly evident in his blue eyes and fair complexion, his kindly attitude, his pleasant sense of humor. Here is a man worth knowing, a man whose friendship should certainly be cherished by those who possess it, and above all, a man of whom Kentucky has just cause to be more than proud.

SOPHOMORES

Oh! not all the pleasures that poets may praise,—
Not the wildering waltz in the ball-room's blaze,
Nor the chivalrous joust nor the daring race,
Nor the swift regatta, nor the merry chase,
Nor the rural dance on the moonlight shore,—
Can the wild and fearless joy exceed of a fearless leap on a fiery steed.

JUNIORS

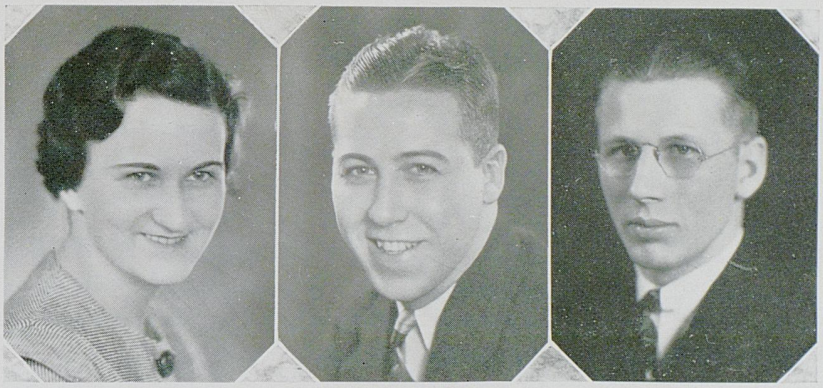

ON DERBY DAY

It's Derby Day in 'Tucky,
Excitement everywhere.
"They're off!" a mighty chorus
Breaks through the balmy air.
Fair horse, of thee we sing,
For youth must have its fling
On Derby Day.

Speed on, thou fleetest blue-blood!
Two minutes and you've won!
And fifty thousand voices
Acclaim Kentucky's son.
Fair horse, of thee we sing,
For thoroughbred is king
On Derby Day.

—William H. Nicholls

S E N I O R S

To the Class of '34 and to all students of the University during the past year are credited no small amount of accomplishments. Some of these, it is true, are too insignificant to go down through the history of old Kentucky, but there is one cause for which they fought which will stand out in her history for many rush weeks, homecomings, and graduations yet to come — the drive toward the erection of a Student Union Building.

The April 1933 edition of the University of Kentucky Bulletin stated the following question:

> "From the standpoint of the average student what is probably the most needed building on the campus?"

And answered:

> "A Student Union and Relations Building where all student organizations, activities, and relationships may be adequately housed under one roof. Such a building is badly needed, and some way should be found to finance it."

Prompted by this challenge, Omicron Delta Kappa, campus leadership fraternity, successfully aroused the enthusiasm of the student body through a sensible plan of finance, and instilled in them a determination which will culminate into the realization of a Student Union Building.

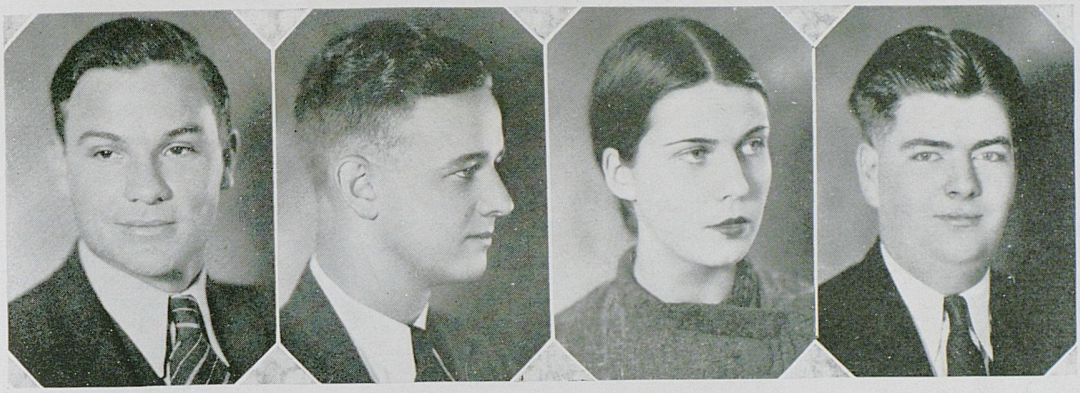

An early September edition of The Kentucky Kernel announced that they were making a substantial donation toward the fund which was followed by donations from several loyal alumni and faculty. The student body took up the call by beginning a tense year's drive to see their dream come true while time found them still capable of cherishing fresh memories of their school. Benefit dances sponsored by various clubs and honorary fraternities, tag day sales, and donations from every social fraternity and sorority on the campus to be made until the project is completed — this was the message of an enthusiastic student body to those in authority as to how hard they were willing to work in order to have a Student Union Building.

At the time of this printing, through the untiring efforts of those in authority, the Board of Trustees has granted the University president the power to petition the United States Government for a loan with which to build the priceless dream of somewhat over two thousand students. If the loan is granted, which is practically assured, the goal will be reached, and work will begin on the erection of the building during the coming summer months — a dream which even the most highly imaginative student failed to visualize when the drive was started.

Leaders are needed for the success of the undertaking, and to the Class of '34 goes much of the credit for being the captains of such an effective campaign. As the benediction is given at the conclusion of their commencement exercises, and the class files out of the gymnasium as graduates, they take with them the most profound respect and admiration of the student body. Unselfishly, the Class of '34 has spent time and energy toward the promotion of a project from which they, knowingly, would gain only the satisfaction of seeing their task gloriously finished.

May the Class of '34 continue to work as willingly, wholeheartedly, and effectively at their life's work as they have done during their last days at the University on the Student Union Building Fund. They leave with the distinction of having successfully propagated one of the greatest advancements in student life in the history of their Alma Mater.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The staff of any yearbook represents a hard working group of individuals who receive little or no credit for their assigned work which, for many, continues despite mid-semester quizzes, and even final examinations. In short, they are the "unsung heroes" who have made possible your 1934 KENTUCKIAN as you now see it.

There are always a few whose work on a project stands out above others, and without whose unselfish assistance some of the finer points of editing could not have been achieved. Particularly into this classification does "Dave" Griffith fall. His efficiency in handling the usual publication troubles has been more than any editor could ask of any one assistant.

The Lafayette Studio's convenient and excellent service and the handling of pictures for the Yearbook has been greatly appreciated by the editor. Their cooperation and compliance with all negotiations has been a pleasure seldom experienced by any staff of the KENTUCKIAN.

To the staff proper, many thanks are offered to Ben F. Taylor and Cameron Coffman for their dependable and effective assistance on all phases of the task confronting the 1934 editor. Gratitude is expressed to Louis Chipps and Mary Edith Bach for their admirable work in filing and obtaining vital information so necessary to the comprehensiveness of this book. Seldom will any editor find such loyal and willing workers on his staff. May they all continue to work as zealously in their respective fields in the years to come.

MUSIC

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

An organization open to men students interested in singing. Besides appearing on many University programs, the group makes annual trips to neighboring towns, attends the Kentucky Educational Association meetings in Louisville each year, and presents a concert arrangement of an opera with the Girls' Glee Club. A key is presented to each man who has participated in the club for three years.

BACK IN OLD KENTUCKY

I want to get back
Where the swift-trained feet
Of the race-horse thunder,
Its music sweet.
I want to get back
To the old-time stream,
To sit on the bank
And fish and dream.
I want to get back
Yes, the good Lord knows,
I want to get back
Where the Bluegrass grows,
Back in old Kentucky.

Athletics

FOOTBALL

EVEN though the 1933 football season was not the most disappointing in the history of the Wildcats, likewise in no manner could it be termed the most successful. Nevertheless, a season which produced such games as the Big Blue's 7-6 triumph over the Rambling Wreck of Georgia Tech and four other victories has at least these happy memories in spite of the five losses which balance the ten-game campaign.

From the opening game against Maryville, the Wildcats were an enigma to their followers. The sports writers said that they couldnt win, yet they did. Then the sports writers said that they could win—and they didn't.

At the beginning they were called offenseless wonders, yet they defeated Maryville, Sewanee, Georgia Tech, and Cincinnati on successive Saturdays. Then came games against Washington and Lee and Duke, among others, in which the Cats showed power to out-gain their opponents—and the Big Blue lost.

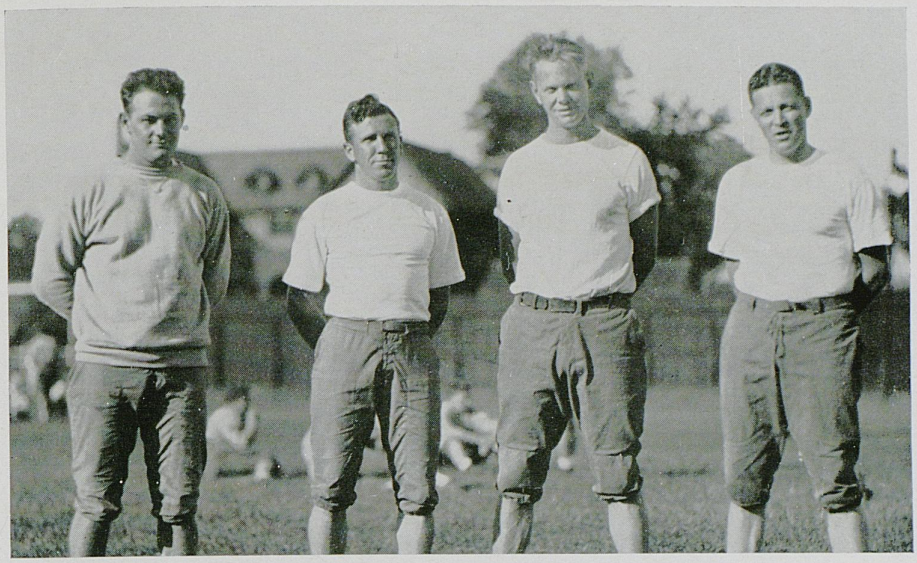

CAPTAIN KREUTER

The only respite from defeat in the late season was a victory over V. M. I.'s Flying Kaydets. Alabama, Tulane, and Tennessee enjoyed something in the nature of a field day against the Wildcats, and there you have the season in a couple of nutshells.

In spite of the very difficult schedule, the Cats had a rather promising outlook as the fall opened, since the material seemed to be the best in years. A squad of 44 hopefuls reported to Coach Gamage at the first practice, although many lacked experience.

M'MILLAN

MILLER CAMPBELL SHIVELY GAMAGE

Even so, before the second game of the season had become history, it was evident that something was amiss. The Wildcats were outplayed by Sewanee and managed to win only by a 77-yard return of a punt by "Pug" Bach. Then on the following Saturday when the Kentucky supporters were very much afraid that the Golden Tornado of Georgia Tech might turn the game into a track meet, the Big Blue evidenced a fighting spirit, turning them back.

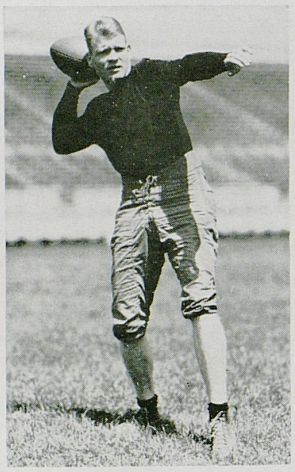

Following such a glorious battle the Kentucky fans began to feel that perhaps the Cats had found themselves, and some began to dream of achieving that elusive, yet ever-beckoning, championship. Then hopes and expectations dropped considerably when the margin of victory over Cincinnati was a field goal, booted by the unerring Kercheval, and the next week saw "Kentucky's Hope" fade before the Gallant Generals of W. and L. All in all, it was a most contradictory season, with the Cats finally concluding their football play with the rank of ninth, among the 13 teams of the new organized Southeastern Conference.

ASSISTANT CAPTAIN KERCHEVAL

The 1932 letter men elected Howard "Dutch" Kreuter to captain the 1933 squad, but Ralph Kercheval served in this capacity during a number of games, and the end of the season saw Kreuter and "Bud" Davidson, captain of the '32 team, on the bench and not in uniform. Moreover, the team that played against Tennessee was composed for the most part of men who had started the season as reserves.

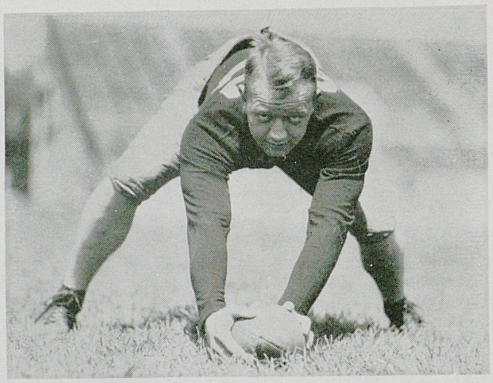

His contract having expired, Harry Gamage announced prior to the Thanksgiving day game, that he would leave Kentucky at the end of the season, after seven years at UK. Chet Wynne was selected to pilot the Cats for the next three years.

PRICHARD

Kentucky's shining light for the 1933 season was Ralph Kercheval, undoubtedly one of the best football players ever to trod Stoll field. "Kerchy" along with Ernest Janes, a center of the highest rank accomplished the "iron man" act by playing 60 minutes of almost every game. He was not only one of the finest punters in the country, but also one of the best passers, runners, tacklers, and blockers. In addition, he called signals, and was aptly called "Kentucky's one man football team." In spite of the team's many defeats he received national recognition by being placed on the All-American squad, and was given first honors in the Southeastern Conference. Joe Rupert, All-Southern end in 1932, made the second All-Conference team and was the first choice of the captains of the Big 13. "Kerchy," Bach, and Kreuter all played very successfully in post-season all-star games.

Eleven men finished their collegiate football career with the 1933 Wildcats. The senior backs were: Ralph Kercheval, Stanley "Pug" Bach, Tom Cassady, and L. E. Asher. The linemen were: Owen B. Murphy, Douglas Parrish, and Burton Aldridge, tackles; O. L. Davidson and Ray Fehrman, guards; and Howard Kreuter and John Frye, ends.

TICHENOR

Kentucky, 46; Maryville, 2

In the season's opener, played September 23 under the flood lights of Stoll field, 34 Kentucky men saw service. The contest was unique in that the Wildcats never punted, while in the games that followed, Kercheval's mighty kicking foot played an important part in the "kick, pass, and pray" type of play that the Wildcats displayed in action.

JEAN

It was Kerchy's intention to punt once in first quarter when the Cats had been backed up to their 13-yard stripe, but the pass from center was over his head and he found it necessary to recover the ball over the goal line, thus giving the Highlanders a safety, their only score of the game.

"Little Bo" McMillan flashed some excellent broken-field running, scoring two touchdowns and paving the way for another; while Kercheval, behind the best interference the Cats mustered during the contest, scored from the 40-yard line.

Kentucky, 7; Sewanee, 0

Surprised by Sewanee's inspired type of game and their greatly underestimated strength, especially on the defense, Kentucky was almost unable to function offensively and was held to three first downs to four for the University of the South until the final period when "Pug" Bach gathered in a punt on his own 33-yard line and rambled through the entire Sewanee team for the only score of the game.

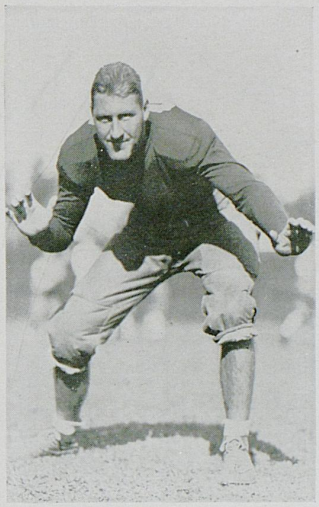

The Cats could not get their aerial attack to function and completed only one pass. However, the defense was good and the work of O. B. Murphy and "Honus" Wagner was especially outstanding. Numerous times these two tackles broke through and downed the Sewanee ball carrier in his tracks.

This first football contest in the new Southeastern Conference was attended by Governor Laffoon and Col. Dan Beard, founder of the Boy Scouts movement.

Kentucky, 7; Georgia Tech, 6

This game was indeed the high spot of the season for Kentucky and all their defeats can not detract from the glory achieved in this battle. This Tech eleven defeated Duke in the final contest of the season after the Blue Devils had won nine games and were the outstanding contenders for an invitation to the Rose Bowl.

The offense of the Big Blue was not outstanding, but the fighting spirit manifest was more than impressive; their defense was not to be overcome by Tech's force, and Kercheval's superb kicking. No one who saw the Wildcats drive relentlessly for a touchdown in the first period, who saw Kerchy place the oval squarely between the uprights for the point that was to win the game, who saw Tech then come back with a battering assault to score early in the second quarter and after having missed the extra point to rage furiously against the Big Blue through what seemed to be an endless length of time, only to be halted three times within the very shadow of the goal posts by the inspired Wildcats of Kentucky, no one, indeed, will soon forget it.

WAGNER

OLAH

To pick out any one for special honors from a group in which every player was fighting for all he was worth seems almost unfair, but at least two men made heroes of themselves in this game. Gene Shanklin, starting a game for the first time in replacing Jack Jean, who was out with a shoulder injury, played the entire 60 minutes in an absolutely faultless manner. O. B. Murphy, lightest man in the Cat line was the mainstay of the line. He crashed through to break up plays so often that it looked as though he had been placed in the Georgia Tech backfield.

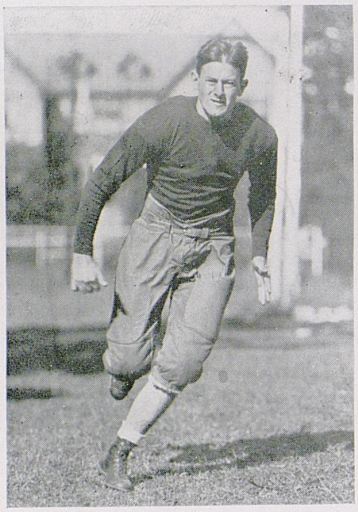

Kentucky, 3; Cincinnati, 0

With three minutes left to play in a contest in which the Ohioans had rolled up ten first downs to six for Kentucky, Kercheval kicked a field goal for the only score of the game after the ball had been put into position by McMillan's return of a Bearcat punt.

In spite of large yardage gained by the Bearcats, they were seldom very deep in Kentucky's territory and the game seemed destined to end in a scoreless tie until Kercheval's kick saved the day (or rather the night, since it was the Wildcats' third and last game played under the flood lights.) The largest crowd ever to witness a football game in Cincinnati jammed the bowl on Carson field to witness the Kentucky-U. C. struggle.

O. B. Murphy received a fracture of the sinus bone during the first period that ended his football career. The entire contest was a rough and tumble affair, and a few plays after Kentucky's score there ensued a fight between players of the two teams that bid fair to end in a free for all, but the matter was well handled by the referee and the game continued in an orderly manner.

Kentucky, 0; Washington and Lee, 7

This was the first of the many inconsistencies of the Wildcats' season, and those who witnessed the game could hardly believe that this was the same team that had fought so nobly against Georgia Tech. Playing in a sluggish manner the Kentuckians, even though gaining eight first downs to seven, were unable to halt the scoring thrusts of the Generals and emerged from the contest on the short end of a 7-0 count.

The Generals drove almost the entire length of the field in the third period and scored on a shovel pass from Seaton to Sawyer and barely missed scoring again a short time afterwards when a field goal failed by inches.

JANES

SHANKLIN

This was the first defeat at the hands of W. and L. in four years. Last season the Cats trounced the Generals overwhelmingly 54 to 7. Kentucky lost an excellent tackle in this fray as Bill Tichenor, a sophomore, injured his neck to the extent of two fractured vertebrae, thus bringing an end permanently to his days of football combat.

Kentucky, 7; Duke, 14

For the thirteenth time a Wallace Wade team defeated Kentucky, and for the fourth time an aggregation of Blue Devils from Duke, although outgained, outplayed, and outfought in every instance, were able to overcome the Wildcats.

The Cats displayed their best offense of the season and richly deserved at least a tie. Indeed, had it not been for a couple of fumbles at critical moments a different story might have been written into the records.

The first Duke score came in the early minutes of play after Bach fumbled Laney's punt, which was recovered by Wentz near the goal line. In the second quarter the Big Blue drove from their own 29-yard line to the Duke 17-yard line. From this position Kercheval tossed a pass far over into the corner of the end zone to Johnny Frye.

Duke showed its best offensive power in the third quarter and although being repulsed several times, once on the one yard line, they were not to be denied and after a 28-yard run by Cornelius, he scored as the quarter ended.

Kentucky had two last quarter opportunities to score when passes slipped off the fingers of the potential receivers. Freddie Crawford, Duke's All-American tackle, failed to show his strength and most of the Cat gains were over his side of the line.

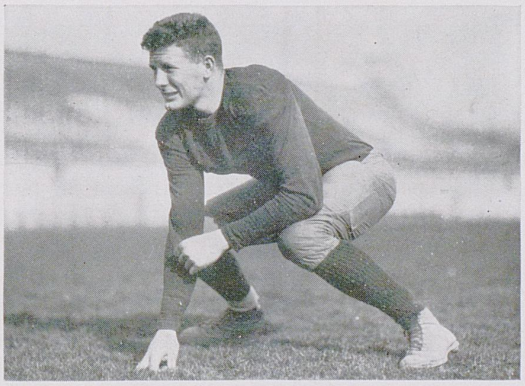

Kentucky, 0*; Alabama,* 20

Even though outplayed from the opening whistle, the Cats were able to stem the Tide during the first quarter, but after Millard Howell's 54-yard sprint for a score on the first play of the second stanza, there was no doubt as to what would be the outcome of the tilt.

MILLER

Alabama gained on every type of play almost at will, while Kentucky could scarcely dent the Crimson Tide's defense until the game was almost over when its passing attack began to function. Kerchy tried a place-kick from the 26-yard stripe in the first quarter but it fell short.

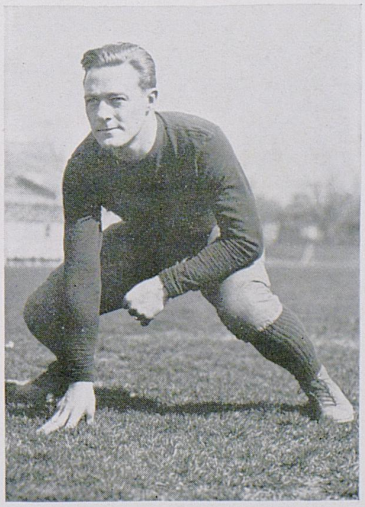

PARRISH

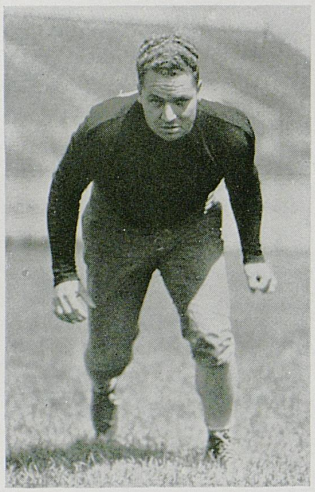

Alabama's two other touchdowns were the culmination of a series of drives through and around the line which began in their own territory. The Tide made two other touchdowns which were called back because of penalties. The final statistics show that Howell out-kicked Kercheval, but Kerchy was called upon to kick ten times during the game and every time the ends rushed him so that his kicks were hurried. His punts averaged 46 yards.

Kentucky, 21*; V. M. I.,* 6

Although four of the regulars were injured in the tilt with the Tide, the men who filled these places came through in great style and, led by Kercheval and Bach, the Wildcats had little trouble in scoring three touchdowns against the Flying Squadron. Kentucky had the ball on the one-yard line with a first down as the game ended.

ALDRIDGE

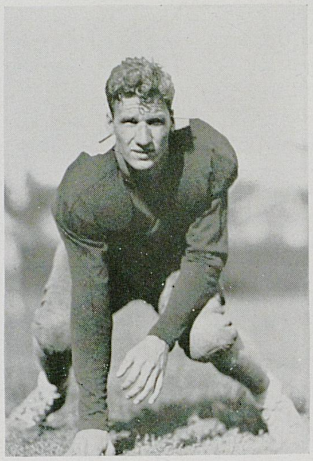

KELLY

The many reserves who took part in the game put forth a very creditable performance. The Flying Squadron scored in the second quarter after a brilliant 68-yard march with Bill Smith making most of the gains.

Kentucky, 0; Tulane, 54

If the Georgia Tech contest was the brightest spot of the season, this game was indeed the darkest. Even after their other defeats the Cats were conceded a fair chance of stopping the Wave, but the Greenies, led by "Little Preacher Roberts," scored four times in the first quarter and once in the second.

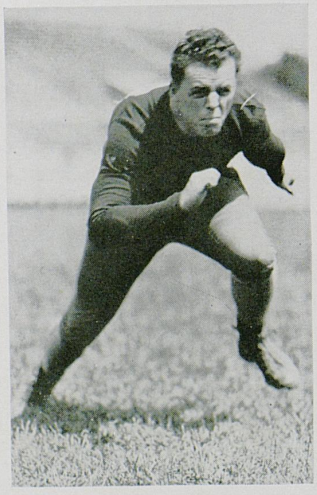

DARNABY

After Tulane's first onslaught, which started with a 75-yard sprint by Roberts, Coach Gamage substituted freely and the Wave was unable to score in the second half while the Wildcats threatened twice. The Cats' best opportunity was muffed when Joe Rupert barely missed a pass over the goal line.

The Kentuckians seemed to have been stricken by the suddenness of the Green Wave's attack and their defense improved immensely after the first quarter, but the recovery was too late. After the boys had shed their heavy blue jerseys they suffered less from the terrific heat and their play was much better.

Kentucky, 0; Tennessee, 27

Once more the Vols paraded forth with the cherished Keg before the thousands of homecoming spectators on Stoll field and soon afterwards proceded to take the same Keg back to the city of Knoxville. This time the Tennesseans did not carry off the trophy in high glee, but seemed more or less to sympathize with the hapless Wildcats.

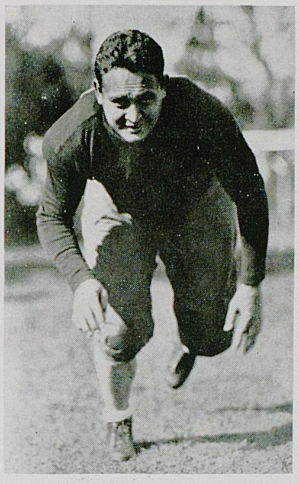

FISH

Eight of the eleven who started the game against the Volunteers were reserves, and although these men did the best they could, the Orange clad team was simply too much for them. The Vols scored twice in the first quarter, once on a 56-yard jaunt by Beattie Feathers, and once on a pass over the goal line from Vaughn to Pounders.

BACH

At no time did the Cats make a serious scoring threat, but in the third quarter Kercheval attempted a field goal from the 38-yard line, which was partly blocked. In the final period they were able to reach the 22-yard line, but McMilian's attempt to pass over the goal line from this point was intercepted.

LETTERMEN FOR SEASON

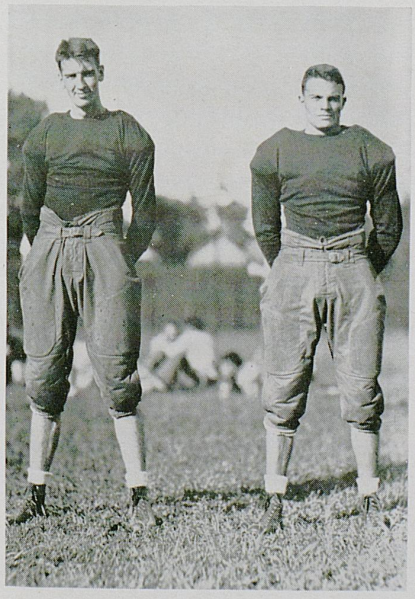

At the conclusion of the season a banquet was held at which the gold footballs and letters were presented, but it was decided to postpone the election of a captain until next fall.

AYERS

Twenty-six letters, an unusually large number, were awarded to the following: Ralph Kercheval, Howard Kreuter, O. L. Davidson, Stanley Bach, Ernest Janes, Burton Aldridge, John Frye, O. B. Murphy, Douglas Parrish, Tom Cassady, L. E. Asher, Clarence Ayers, Jack Jean, James Darnaby, William Fish, William Jobe, Norris McMillan, Arperd Olah, Robert Pritchard, Joe Rupert, Eugene Shanklin, Sheldon Wagner, Harry Walker, William Jacobs, W. J. Tichenor, and Henry Kelley, and a manager's "K" to Lloyd Featherston. Henry McCown was selected as manager for the 1934 season.

The results of the 1933 season: Kentucky 46, Maryville 2; Kentucky 7, Sewanee 0; Kentucky 7, Georgia Tech 6; Kentucky 3, Cincinnati 0; Kentucky 0, W. and L. 7; Kentucky 7, Duke 14; Kentucky 0, Alabama 20; Kentucky 21, V. M. I., 6; Kentucky 0, Tulane 34; Kentucky 0, Tennessee, 27.

MURPHY FRYE

The 1934 schedule includes ten games: Sept. 22—Maryville at Lexington; Sept. 29—Washington and Lee at Lexington; Oct. 6—Cincinnati at Cincinnati; Oct. 13—Clemson at Lexington; Oct. 20—North Carolina at Chapel Hill; Oct. 27—Auburn at Lexington; Nov. 3—Alabama at Lexington; Nov. 10—Southwestern at Memphis; Nov. 17—Tulane at Lexington; Nov. 29—Tennessee at Knoxville.

Playing hard and fast football, the University freshman team provided stiff scrimmage competition for the varsity eleven and developed enough plays to easily defeat the Rats from Vanderbilt University, 19 to 6, but failed in their only other game when a blocked kick rolled behind the Kentucky goal line to give the Tennessee freshmen a 7 to 0 victory. The Southeastern Conference allows only two games for freshman football teams.

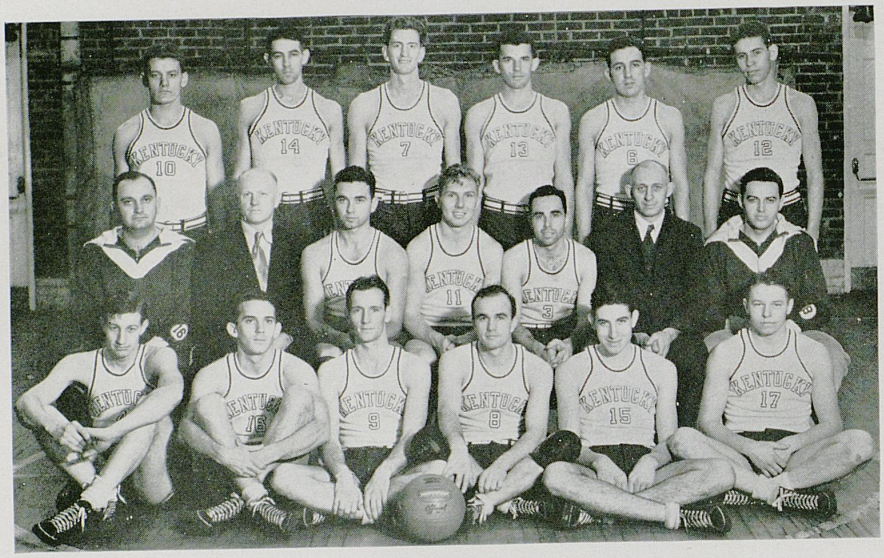

Bert Johnson was the outstanding man for the Kittens. Alternating between quarterback and halfback, Johnson battered his way through both opponents for long gains while his punting kept Kentucky out of the danger zone several times. Two other former Ashland High school players, Kouns and Farris, proved themselves ready for varsity competition.

Coach Pribble started Farris as fullback in the first game with Walker as halfback but shifted the two before the second game. Walker was a hard, shifty driver. Meyers proved himself the best of the centers while Ward, Rodes, Wallace, linemen, were the only others who started both games. Coach Pribble used Bryant, Bates, Seller, and Terry in other line positions and developed a fast charging forward wall that could withstand punishment from the varsity.

Numerals were awarded at the end of the season to: Auping, Bates, Bryant, Crawford, Durham, Enneking, Farris, Forsythe, Greenwell, Harris, Siler, Johnson, Kouns, Martin, Myers, Murphy, Neverdoski, Orr, Rodes, Fowler, Sullivan, Carry, Donovan, Walker, Wallace, and Ward.

BASKETBALL

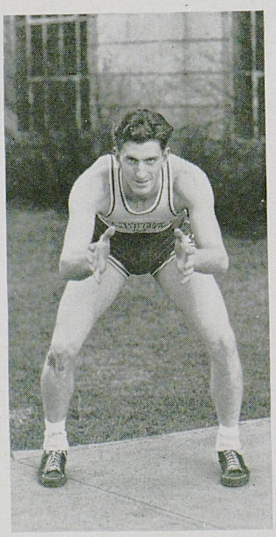

VARSITY BASKETBALL

With only two regulars back to form the nucleus of his team Coach Adolph Rupp's Wildcat basketeers looked forward to a somewhat mediocre 1933-34 basketball season, but developing fast, they piled up a brilliant record of 24 consecutive wins to tie the record set by Duquesne University.

The Wildcats went to the Southeastern Conference tournament as the top-heavy favorites but were upset in their first game by the University of Florida. The loss was a surprise to everyone. To followers of basketball it illustrated again what may occur when an over-confident team off form meets the desperate underdog whose "flash in the pan" brilliancy is in top form for the game.

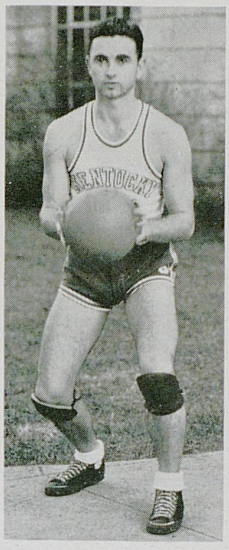

The two outstanding games of the year were with Alabama and Cincinnati. The Tide was conceded to have the best team in the South. They were as fast as the 'Cats and were far larger in height and weight. Luck seemed to be with Kentucky the first time they defeated Alabama at Birmingham, 33 to 28, but when they defeated the Red Elephants again in a return game in Lexington, 26 to 21, there was no doubt that Kentucky had the best basketball squad in the Southeastern Conference.

DE MOISEY

Cincinnati brought down a team that fought Kentucky to a standstill and only by their extreme good work in the second half were the Kentuckians able to win.

Captain John "Frenchy" DeMoisey was the outstanding player on the Big Blue quintet and was named all-conference forward for the second consecutive year. He was also mentioned on the all-American team. DeMoisey played his best brand of ball and it was in this last year that he developed his deadly free-wheeling shot to its utmost accuracy. He was a brainy captain, a clean opponent, and extremely popular with the fans and his teammates.

LAWRENCE

Davis, the pint-sized guard, played a great game of ball all season to make all-conference and all-American mention. Tucker and Lawrence worked together in a smooth passing attack that was hard to stop. Their teammates showed appreciation for their excellent work by electing them co-captains for the following year.

Anderson, guard, and the fifth of the first team combination, was a colorful and dependable player at all times. Fast on his feet he was an unequalled ball hawk whose ability at the backboard was nothing short of uncanny. Time and again his breaking up of the opponent's passing attack saved the game for Kentucky.

Besides DeMoisey, Evan Settle and C. D. Blair were the graduating seniors of the group.

This season's team was the fourth coached by Adolph Rupp and in spite of material and experience, came up to, if not surpassed, his great teams of the past. With the splendid group of unbeaten freshmen coming up next year it seems that Rupp can be depended on to turn out another championship team.

Kentucky, 53; Alumni 20

To open the season, the Wildcats played a practice game against the Alumni, but nothing could be denoted from this fray, inasmuch as the Alumni were all in poor condition and their lack of organization could not give any competition whatsoever to the varsity. It did show, however, that the boys were hitting the basket and that they had a team with potential scoring power that could be worked into a real threat.

Kentucky, 41; Georgetown, 12

The first intercollegiate game of the year was against the Georgetown Tigers. They put up a stiff fight against Kentucky in the first half but the Big Blue soon found the weaknesses and warming to their task easily routed the Bengals. Coach Carey Spicer, former Big Blue star athlete, could not compete against Coach Rupp's Big Blue.

Kentucky, 48; Marshall, 26

Maintaining their better than a-point-a-minute record for the current season, Coach Rupp's boys registered their third victory at the expense of Coach Tom Dandelete's Thundering Herd from Marshall College. Marshall College had an excellent team that developed an enviable record in their own conference and in the first minutes of their tilt with Kentucky the game took on a dangerous aspect. However, the Big Blue soon located the weak spots and easily pulled away to a substantial lead.

With the start of the second half, Rupp freely substituted his men to show the crowd that he also had some substitutes that could play ball.

Kentucky, 31; Cincinnati, 25

Cincinnati gave Kentucky their first real test of the year. Coached by the all-American football player, Tay Brown, the Bearcats had a fast aggregation, superior both individually and as a team. Austing, the center, proved to be one of the high point men of their conference.

The game had no sooner started when it was obvious that the 'Cats were in for the battle of their lives. Austing employed a short pivot shot that was deadly and netted the first eight points for his team. DeMoisey couldn't seem to guard this man, trying as hard as he could. With only nine minutes of the first half remaining the Bearcats were out in front by a 13 to 9 score. The Wildcats spurted desperately and at half-time Cincinnati was trailing by two points. The Bearcats employed a passing attack that went from sideline to sideline, the object being to draw the opponents out to the sides, leaving the center unprotected. This would then give them the opportunity to break in fast with a block play and a crip. The wily Rupp was cognizant of this fact, however, and instructed his men to stay inside and guard for that type of play. His method proved effective to the point that not once were the Bearcats able to score on this type of basketball tactics.

DAVIS

After a rest period that Big Blue team came out on the floor with a burst of speed that gave them a 31 to 25 victory. DeMoisey was shown a different way to guard against Austing's pivot shot and that threat was practically eliminated. Davis was high point man with 11 points.

The game, although played hard, was clean fought and close. In the estimation of many of the fans it was as good a game as has been seen in the Alumni gymnasium.

Kentucky, 32; Tulane, 22—Kentucky, 42; Tulane, 29

Making their first trip south during the Christmas holidays, the Wildcats paid a visit to New Orleans where they encountered Tulane on two consecutive nights and defeated them both times. The Cats were beginning to function like a big-time club and took the measure of Tulane with ease.

The first night the Big Blue, somewhat tired from their long trip, were shooting rarely but these few shots were accurate as they outplayed the hard scrapping Green Wave. DeMoisey gave the fans a treat when it came to scoring as he scored the first ten points of the first game. DeMoisey did not limit himself to any type of bucket shooting but made them by free-wheeling, follow-up, crip, and from the field.

In the second half, Tulane tightened their defense around him and then Davis cut loose to score 11 points and take high point honors.

The first night's game took the stamina and heart out of Tulane and they played a listless and sluggish game. Kentucky substituted freely in this game or the score would have been much more than it was.

The game was cleanly played and few penalties were given out. In a way these two wins were gladly accepted by the Wildcats after the way the football team has been losing to the Green Wave.

TUCKER

Kentucky, 44; Tennessee, 23

The Cats were successful in their last invasion of the Southland and with Captain DeMoisey and "Primer" Davis in top form, the Cats had an easy time in defeating the Tennessee Vols in the Memorial Field House at Knoxville. Tennessee, with the best team they had had in five years, was expecting to do things to the Wildcats.

Never threatened, the Kentuckians led by wide margins. The score was 24 to 5 at the half. DeMoisey and Davis were allowed to start and show their wares which they did by amassing 20 and 10 points respectively. Davis was in fine form and except for being weak on free throws did considerable damage to the Tennessee offense. DeMoisey made 17 of his points in the first half, but his recent attack of influenza was apparent in the second half.

The second half of the game was more even, Kentucky only scoring two points more than Tennessee. Anderson did an outstanding brand of guarding for Kentucky, constantly breaking up Tennessee's passes and holding his man scoreless. His excellent work kept Tennessee from gaining possession of the ball and became a threat in the second half.

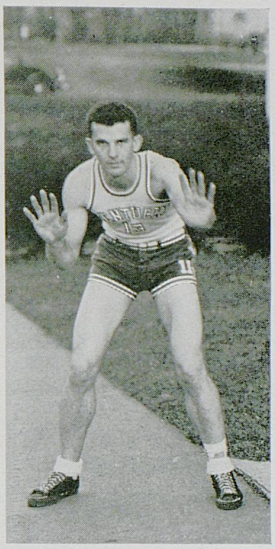

Lawrence did a good job at his forward position and Lewis held up the center position in great shape when he was substituted for DeMoisey in the second half. A capacity crowd was out for the game.

Kentucky, 55; Sewanee, 16

Substitutes started for Kentucky and they operated slowly and somewhat raggedly but soon warmed up into an irresistable, smooth-working, high-scoring combination. Tucker took high point honors with 14 to his credit, while Lewis was second with eight points.

Sewanee's desperate attempts to work the ball into scoring territory failed because of the close work of the Kentucky guards.

Kentucky, 33; Alabama, 28

B. DAVIS

A capacity crowd filled the gym at Birmingham to see the Crimson Tide go down to a 33 to 28 defeat at the hands of the Wildcats in one of the most thrilling games of the year. At the half the score stood 17 to 15 with the Cats on top, but with the beginning of the second frame the Tide brought forth a surprise attack that carried them into the lead. This was soon overcome by the Wildcats and they played a slower, more cautious game for the rest of the fray.

At the start of the game both teams were undefeated. Alabama was rated to have the best team in the south. With such players as Connaster, Kimbrough and Walker—all players with a national recognition—it is easy to understand why they were supposed to have the best ball club.

The accuracy of the shooting and passing was a thing to note in this game. After DeMoisey was out of the game on fouls Lewis did a good job at center and controlled the tip-off a good share of the time he was in action.

BLAIR

Kentucky, 26; Alabama, 21

Over 4,500 people jammed the Alumni gym to see the Wildcats trim the Crimson Tide in a return engagement.

The Blue team displayed a skill that surpassed all other demonstrations of the season to win this twenty-first consecutive victory. The Tide tried every trick of the game they knew in an effort to pierce the air tight defense of the Kentuckians.

The Tidesmen had every advantage over Kentucky—reach, weight, size, and speed. They practically controlled the ball three-fourths of the time. Their gaining the tip-off was never stopped. The main cause of the victory was that the Cats sank eight out of eight free throws and Lawrence, with uncanny marksmanship, made ten points while Davis was right behind with nine.

Kentucky, 49; Georgia Tech, 29

The Wildcats, through over confidence, played a ragged and uninspired game. By defeating Tech they tied Notre Dame's record of 22 consecutive victories.

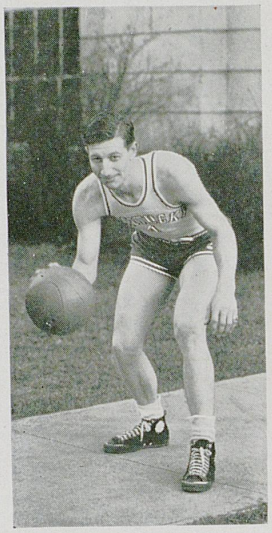

Georgia Tech used a queen system of offense. They weaved the ball back and forth across the front of the field and to the sidelines. This would tend to make the players move out from under the basket, whereupon a Tech man would cut in fast for a crip at the end of a long pass from the outside. This system failed as the long passes were not completed.

At the start of the second half, Coach Rupp sent in an entire new team. This quickened the game a little but the handling of the ball did not improve.

Kentucky, 60*; Sewanee,* 15

Flashing a crushing, unstoppable offense, Kentucky's point-a-minute conference champions used every man on the squad to drop Sewanee 60 to 15 for their twenty-third victory.

Coach Rupp's new combination of Lewis at center and DeMoisey at forward started the route in the middle of the first half after a somewhat sluggish start. The score stood 21 to 7 at the half. During the rest period the new combination got some good advice from Coach Rupp and starting with the second half they burst into full swing and led by Lewis, who was high man with 16 points, the regulars ran up 22 points in 15 minutes.

JEROME

Davis sat on the sidelines resting for the tournament but the substitutes went in to carry on almost as well as their bigger brothers and sometimes at a faster clip. Their guarding was nothing short of sensational. The second period was more than half over before Sewanee could score again. Then for a short period of three minutes, Pearson, the diminutive Sewanee forward, went on a one-man scoring spree to ring up two field goals and two foul throws.

The remainder of Sewanee's three points were made via the foul route. The game was fast and cleanly played, much unlike the game with Georgia Tech. DeMoisey was second highest point man, scoring 12 points during the short time he was in the fray. Lawrence, Jerome, Settle, Tucker, and the backboard genius, Anderson, all came in for a good measure of praise.

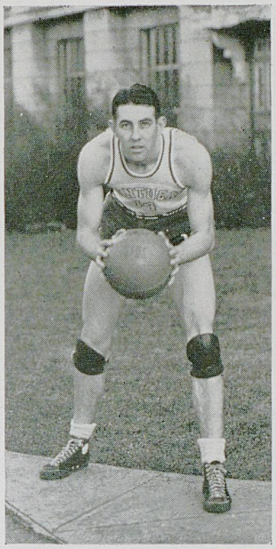

SETTLE

Potter's and Blair's long shot accuracy received considerable applause from the enthusiastic fans. Taylor, Tierney, and Davis finished in the lineup for Kentucky in a brilliant ball-hawking manner that showed their coaching and five-man teamwork.

Kentucky, 47*; Vanderbilt,* 27

Playing their last conference game for the current season the Wildcats won their twenty-fourth consecutive victory. Captain "Frenchy" DeMoisey, playing the last game on his Alma Mater's home floor, put finis on his basketball career in one of his most outstanding net games. Scoring 25 points, 21 of which were garnered in the first half, DeMoisey was phenomenal in his ability to score from all angles and manners. Whether it was on the end of a fast break, a field goal, a foul throw, or his special brand, the "free-wheeler" DeMoisey scored. He dropped a couple of free-wheelers from the corners of the court that had the Vandy boys talking to themselves.

Vanderbilt played a fast, excellent game, especially in passing. At the start of the second half, Coach Rupp kept the same lineup, but after it had gotten under way, he substituted his entire second team "Primer" Davis, who had been out of the game because of an injured shoulder, went in the last two minutes of play, and as he came onto the floor he received considerable applause.

LEWIS

SOUTHEASTERN TOURNAMENT

Kentucky went to the tournament as the favorite. They drew a bye for the first round and Florida for the second. Florida possessed a fair team which had played less games inside the conference than outside. In the past few years Florida had entered as the underdog and had in two cases knocked the favorites out of the running. Although this was mentioned no one conceded Florida a chance of upsetting Kentucky as to all indications it seemed that Kentucky and Alabama were ceded to play in the finals.

The Cats were so engrossed on playing Alabama for the finals that they did not give any thought to Florida. The court was new with a particularly poor lighting arrangement. This lighting arrangement was the cause of poor shooting as the percentage of shooting that the Blue team did at Atlanta is the poorest record for them. The 'Gators played in desperation. There was no question they were "on." Kentucky played sloppy and sluggish ball, continually losing control of the ball. In spite of Kentucky's lack-lustre playing they were always about even in the scoring and the Cats had several chances to win the game which they failed to take advantage of. Foul shooting which has always been such a strong point with Kentucky was extremely bad since they made about 10 per cent of their usual quota. Lawrence could not seem to get going and did not score a point.

At half time the score stood 22 to 21 with Florida on the long end. A few minutes after the second frame opened the Wildcats started connecting with the basket and took the lead once by a 27 to 24 score. It seemed as though the great "power house" was at last beginning to click but the rally was short-lived as the 'Gators made three baskets in succession to take the lead which was never overcome.

In the last few minutes the Cats gave everything they had to get some markers, leaving their defense wide open, but their energy was of no avail and they went down in defeat after playing a game that did not in any way show the brand of ball that the Big Blue could really play.

LETTERS ARE AWARDED

The annual Lexington Alumni banquet was held at the Phoenix hotel for the squad upon their return from the tournament. More than 200 guests were present to see the awards of letters to 11 varsity players and numerals to 10 freshmen. S. A. "Daddy" Boles made the presentation of the varsity letters and Len Miller, freshman coach, made the presentation of the numerals. Miss Marguerite McLaughlin presided as toastmistress for the affair. Speeches were made by Pres. Frank L. McVey, Coach Adolph Rupp, and the retiring captain, John "Frenchy" DeMoisey.

Lawrence and Tucker were named co-captains for the following season. Those receiving letters were: Capt. John DeMoisey, Garland Lewis, Dave Lawrence, Sam Potter, Evan Settle, Herbert Jerome, Jack Tucker, Berkley Davis, Milerd Anderson, C. D. Blair, and Bill Davis.

A letter was also given to Carey Burchett, manager. George Campbell was named manager for next year.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

With the greatest collection of freshman basketball players ever assembled at the University, Coach Len Miller developed a team that went through a season of 16 games without defeat and scored victories over the best high school and college freshman teams and many independent athletic clubs in the state.

Led by the charging LeRoy Edwards, and Ralph Carlisle, center and forward respectively, the Kittens ran up huge scores over over all opponents and in only two cases were held to less than 40 points.

Players who were awarded numerals at the end of the season were: James Atchison, Courtland Bliss, Ralph Carlisle, Howard Dale, John Donahue, LeRoy Edwards, James Goforth, Russell Ellington, Charles Heinrich, and Cyril Young.

TRACK

VARSITY TRACK

Coach "Bernie" Shively's varsity track team traveled through the 1933 season in fair fashion, winning two out of four meets. They won their dual meets from Vanderbilt and Berea and lost by close margins to Georgia Tech and Tennessee. At the close of the season Coach Shively took Captain Baker and Captain-elect Doug Parrish to the Southeastern Conference track meet at Birmingham where they accumulated six points to give Kentucky eighth place.

The season was considerably more successful than the record of wins indicates in that several outstanding men were discovered who will be invaluable to the team for the 1934 season.

"Red" Parrish, the most consistent winner on the team, accumulated 81 points in the three meets in which he participated. He was not in the Berea meet because of his father's illness. Doug was undefeated in the hurdles and established a new University record in the 120-yard high hurdles, going the route in 15:3. At the Southeastern Conference meet Parrish placed third in the high hurdles and fifth in the low hurdles. As a reward for his good work, Doug was elected captain for the 1934 season.

Kercheval, the football star, did good work with the javelin and in the high jump. Captain Baker was invaluable to the team with the points he gained in the distance events. Charlie Gates, Armer Mahan, and Joe Rupert were the promising sophomores of the group.

The following men received letters in track: Carroll Ball, Douglas Parrish, Malcolm Foster, Ellis Johnson, Tom Cassady, Armer Mahan, Charlie Gates, Howard Baker, Harry Emmerich, Gene Miller, Ralph Kercheval, Frank Seale, Joe Rupert, and Sam Tuttle. A manager's "K" was awarded to manager Robert Adams. J. Frank Adams was named manager of the track team for the following year.

Kentucky, 64½; Vanderbilt, 52½

Making their first appearance of the season and performing for the most part in a driving rain, the Wildcat track squad, led by Doug Parrish, conquered the Vanderbilt Commodores 64½ to 52½ on April 21 on Stoll field. In spite of the soggy track and cold wind the Cats operated very impressively to take their first meet of the season.

Vandy's vaunted mile relay team fell victims to the Kentucky quartette composed of Foster, Parrish, Johnson, and Cassady, all football men. This victory was the crowning glory of the afternoon as the Commodores have had an undefeated relay team for many years.

"Red" Parrish gained the cognomen "one-man track team" in this meet as he was undefeated in all six events that he entered. He took first place in the 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, 100-yard high hurdles, 220-yard low hurdles and tied for first place in the pole vault. He also was a member of the winning relay team.

Georgia Tech, 67; Kentucky, 64

Victory in the mile relay gave the Georgia Tech track team a three-point victory over Kentucky in a hard fought meet before a large crowd on Stoll field. Although the Cats were in the lead most of the afternoon they could not pile up enough points to assure a victory.

Parrish was again the big point-getter for the Blue team, scoring 17 points of his team's total. His best performance was seen when he established a new University record of 15.3 in the 120-yard high hurdles, and won the low hurdles in the fast time of 25.3. He also placed second in the 220-yard dash, third in the hundred, and second in the pole vault.

BAKER PARRISH

Captain Howard Baker had little difficulty in capturing the two-mile event and placing second to Mahan in the mile run. In the two-mile grind he trailed his competitors in the early laps but sprinted in the final circuit to win handily.

Armer Mahan, a promising sophomore, ran a nice race in the mile to win over Baker by a narrow margin. The pace was too grueling, however, as he was forced to drop out of his other specialty, the half-mile, which was taken by Charles Gates.

The field events were fairly evenly divided with the Wildcats doing better than was expected when the season opened. Ralph Kercheval won the javelin throw and placed second in the broad jump. Frank Seale placed second in the shot put as Dean of Tech heaved the iron ball 43 feet, 6 inches to win the event. Sam Tuttle again won the discus throw with Joe Rupert taking third position.

In the mile relay, the first two men opened up a slight lead but Davenport and Galloway, running in third and fourth position for Georgia Tech's sprinters, finally gained the victory for the "Ramblin' Wreck." Galloway, the sprint star for the visitors, was in exceptionally fine form and won both the 100 and 220-yard dashes in fast time.

The summary:

100-yard dash—Galloway (T) first; Moore (T), second; Parrish (K), third. Time :09.9.

220-yard dash—Galloway (T), first; Parrish (K), second; Kelley (T), third. Time :22.4.

440-yard dash—Davenport (T), first; Cassady (K), second; Foster (K), third. Time :52.7.

Half-mile—Gates (K), first; Davenport (T), second; Baker (K), third. Time 2:05.7.

Mile—Mahan (K), first; Baker (K), second; Geggenheimer (T), third. Time 4:45.2.

Two-mile run—Baker (K), first; Campbell (T), second; Gatewood (T), third. Time 10:41.9.

120-yard high hurdles—Parrish (K), first; Emmerich (K), second; Dean (T), third. Time :15.3.

220-yard low hurdles—Parrish (K), first, McMichael (T), second; Dean (T), third. Time :25.3.

MILLER

High jump—York (T), first; Tuttle (K), second, and Miller (K), tied for second place. Height 5 feet, 6 inches.

Javelin—Kercheval (K), first; Lackey (T), second; Dean (T), third. Distance, 166 feet, 5 inches.

Discus—Tuttle (K), first; Dean (T), second; Rupert (K), third. Distance, 122 feet 5 inches.

Pole Vault—Cummings (T), first; Parrish (K), second; Kercheval (K), third. Height, 11 feet.

Shot put—Dean (T), first; Seale (K), second; Lackey (T), third. Distance, 42 feet 5 3-4 inches.

Relay—Georgia Tech. Time, 3:33.1.

Kentucky, 96½; Berea, 34½

Taking eleven first places, tying for one more, and gaining a majority of the firsts and seconds, the Wildcat track team scored an impressive 96½ to 34½ win over the Berea track squad at Berea in the third meet of the season.

The Cats competed without the star sprinter and pole vaulter, Doug Parrish, but "Cuzey" Foster showed his old time form to aid the Big Blue by turning in a win in the century. Foster was clocked in :9.9 seconds, which was a new record for the Berea track.

The Cats were superior in every event except the pole vault and low hurdles, and tied for a first in the high jump. Howard Baker, ace distance man, accounted for two first places by coming home in both the mile and two-mile events. Carter, Berea miler and two-miler, gave Baker a fight in both races but the Cat captain flashed from behind and closed the gap both times to win handily.

Johnny Carter led the field almost all the 440, but gave way to a Berea threat on the back stretch and Ellis Johnson driving like a miniature steam engine raced from behind to win, as Tom Cassady finished a close second.

Charlie Gates, the Big Blue's promising sophomore half-miler, displayed good form in annexing his second consecutive win in this event.

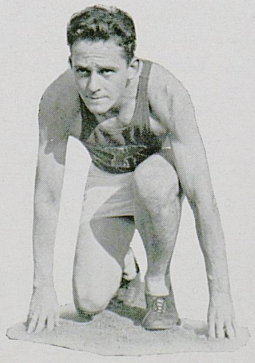

Ball, Cassady, and Foster finished one, two, three in the 220, hardly a step apart. The time was fairly fast, with the winner being clocked in :22.5.

Joe Rupert took firsts in both the discus and shot put as the Cats swept these events. Kercheval won the javelin throw with a nice heave of 177 feet 3 inches. Kerchy got away one of his best throws of the year in the spear throw and took high honors for the afternoon with 13 points.

The Mountaineers presented a galaxy of star performers in the jumps and pole vault. With Parrish out of the lineup, the Cats had little chance to win the pole vault as both of the Bereans vaulted 11 feet, three inches and failed to break their tie. Don Braden, making his first appearance of the year for the Wildcats, tied with Gibson of Berea for a first in the high jump, both men going out at 5 feet, 8 inches. Kercheval took a first in the broad jump, but Berea accounted for the other two awards.

In the mile relay, the issue was never in doubt after Cassady had opened up on the back turn and the remaining runners, Carter, Johnson, and Foster protected the lead and won by a good margin.

Emmerich won the high hurdles, with Wyatt, Berea, second. Emmerich broke his stride in the 220 lows and Wyatt won as Emmerich slid across the final line, with Kercheval a close third.

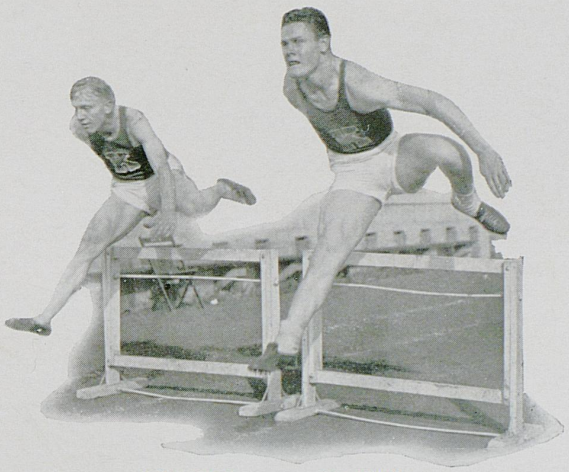

CARTER

Tennessee, 66; Kentucky, 51

Although Doug Parrish contributed more than his share of points, his team mates could not give him the necessary support, and the Wildcat track team dropped a 66 to 51 decision to the Tennessee Vols in the final meet of the season.

Parrish continued his winning way by taking firsts in the 100 and 200-yard dashes, both hurdle events, and placing second in the pole vault.

EMMERICH KERCHEVAL

Two track records were shattered by the Tennessee invaders as they pushed on to victory over the Cats. Pounders, Tennessee, heaved the shot 44 feet 5 inches to set a new record in that event, with his mate, Franklin, taking second position. They reversed the order in the discus throw with Franklin taking first place.

In the mile run, Stout, covered the distance in 4:33.1, which bettered the former mark set by Jake O'Bryant in 1931, by an even two seconds. Stout had little difficulty in taking the event.

Tom Cassady lost to Pugh of Tennessee by inches in the 440. The race was so close that many fans believed that Cassady was the winner.

Wolfe, the ace half-miler of the visitors, turned in a sensational performance in his specialty, running the distance in 1:59.2 and easily winning over Charlie Gates, the lone Wildcat entry.

Howard Baker, the Cat captain, made his usual good showing in capturing the two-mile event in 10:26. He held back until midway in the final circuit and then unleashed his sprint which carried him over the line in front.

Tennessee's relay team clicked off the mile in excellent time to clinch the victory.

The summary:

Shot put—Pounders (T), first; Franklin (T), second. Distance, 44 feet, 4½ inches.

Pole vault—Brown (T), first; Parrish (K), second. Distance, 11 feet, 6 inches.

Mile run—Stout (T), first; Baker (K), second. Time, 4:33.1.

Discus throw—Franklin (T), first; Pounders (T), second. Distance, 125 feet, 1 inch.

440-yard dash—Push (T), first; Cassady (K), second. Time, :52.8.

100-yard dash—Parrish (K), first; Clark (T), second. Time, :9.9.

120-yard high hurdles—Parrish (K), first; Emmerich (K), second. Time, :15.5.

880-yard run—Wolfe (T), first; Gates (K), second. Time, 1:59.2.

Javelin throw—Kercheval (K), first; Fuller (T), second. Distance, 166 feet, 2 inches.

High jump—Sherid (T) and McPherson (T), tied for first. Height, 5 feet, 6 inches.

Two-mile run—Baker (K), first; Woodall (T), second. Time, 10:26.

220-yard low hurdles—Parrish (K), first; Emmerich (K), second. Time, :25.9.

Broad jump—Pounders (T), first; Kercheval (K), second. Distance, 22 feet, 1½ inches.

Mile relay—Tennessee (Pugh, Fuller, Dorsey, Wolfe). Time, 3:32.

HOCKER

FRESHMAN TRACK

In their only start of the season, Coach M. E. Potter's freshman track team overwhelmed the Cadets of Millersburg Military Institute by the score of 102 to 18 and displayed unexpected versatility and strength. A lack of adequate competition was the reason no other meets were scheduled.

Led by Norris McMillan, who won the 100-yard dash, 200-yard low hurdles, and the javelin throw, and scored more points than the entire Cadet team, the freshmen showed competitive spirit and the prospects of becoming strong varsity material. Besides winning first in the three events, McMillan was second in the broad jump and a member of the winning half-mile relay team.

The relay team, composed of four backfield men of the freshman football squad—McMillan, Ayers, Pritchard, and Gilmer—easily out-distanced their prep school rivals. The performances of Jobe, Olah, and Bertolini in field events were particularly outstanding.

Since freshman track was started at the University several years ago, the calibre of individuals and the team as a whole has improved considerably. Each year the freshman track team is able to send on to varsity competition stars who have shown sufficient strength to compete against Southeastern Conference competition.

Numerals were awarded to the following at the end of the season: C. T. Ayers, Langan Hay, Robert Heckman, R. L. Graves, Doty Jackson, Henry Kelly, J. N. McMillan, Sam Potter, Robert Pritchard, Fred Thompson, Leonard Van Arsdale, and J. M. White.

MINOR SPORTS

VARSITY TENNIS

Matched against some of the finest college tennis teams in the country, Coach H. H. Downing's varsity team, although defeated on several occasions, won victories over ranking southern and middle-western colleges. A long southern trip, taken before weather permitted competition on the outside University courts, showed that the Wildcat netmen, with practice on clay courts before such a trip, would be of sufficient strength to compete with any college team in the country.

Following their long journey, the Wildcat team won three straight victories over Berea College, St. Xavier University, and the University of Indiana, before losing to the University of Illinois, Ohio State University and the University of Cincinnati. The varsity team ended the season with a second win over the Berea College netmen.

Roger Klein, captain, failed to develop into his 1932 form until late in the season while Howard Wilson, playing in number one position in every match, was the outstanding player of the team. At the end of the season, Wilson was elected captain for 1934 but later was ruled ineligible by the Southeastern Conference for already having played four years of college competition. George Yost, the only other returning letterman, was elected alternate captain at the end of the season and automatically became captain for 1934.

Kentucky, 3; Emory, 5

After traveling 400 miles of a 2,000 mile trip and with little time left to rest before their match with one of the strongest teams in the south, the Kentucky net team lost a close match with Emory University by the score of 5 to 3. Had the Wildcats been accustomed to the summer weather and the play on outside courts, they might have won easily.

Wilson and Yost were the only Kentucky men to win from the Georgians in singles competition. In the doubles, Howard and Braden overcame Emory's first ranking doubles combination. Every match was closely fought and the Kentucky team showed strength in virtually every position.

Kentucky, 0; Alabama, 7

Showing the strain of their long trip to Atlanta and their match with Emory University, the Wildcats succumbed to the onslaught of the Crimson Tide of Alabama by the score of 7 to 0. In spite of the fact that they were unable to win a match from the Tide, several of the matches were close. Howard, Smith, and Yost won sets from their opponents with Yost almost upsetting the highly ranked Alabama netter who was his opponent.

Kentucky, 0; Tulane, 7

Against perhaps the strongest college team in the country and playing in the famous Tulane bowl, the Wildcat team fought against almost hopeless odds in losing to Tulane 7 to 0. Yost was the only Kentucky man to win a set from a Tulane player but other matches were fought point for point. Kendall Cram and Eddie Sutter were the leading Tulane players, each holding high national collegiate rankings.

Kentucky, 8; Berea College, 0

A few days rest after returning home and the Wildcat team was ready to begin its home stand against visiting squads. Berea College, with an unusually strong team, was unable to win a set as Kentucky came through by the score of 8 to 0. Wilson nearly lost the first set of his match but won 8-6, 6-3. Captain Klein lost the only set for Kentucky but won his match 6-4, 3-6, 6-2. Smith and Wilson proved unbeatable in number one doubles while Klein and Yost won the second doubles match.

Kentucky 6; St. Xavier, 1

St. Xavier University of Cincinnati brought to Kentucky a team of seasoned players who displayed great skill and court tactics. However, they were able to win but one match when Braden lost 6-4, 8-6. Wilson, Yost, Smith, and others were outstanding for Kentucky.

Kentucky, 5; Indiana, 4

Apparently on a winning streak, Coach Downing's' men overcame the highly rated University of Indiana team in a match that wasn't decided until the last ball had been hit giving Kentucky the final doubles contest and the match by the score of 5 to 4.

Wilson, Yost, and Howard won in the singles while Braden, Klein, and Smith lost close matches which tied the score at three points apiece. In the doubles play, Wilson and Smith gave the Wildcats the lead again but Klein and Yost lost their chance to give the Kentucky team a victory. In the final doubles match with the score tied at four-all, the combination of Braden and Howard gave the Wildcat's a narrow victory in undoubtedly the most exciting match of the season.

Kentucky, 0; Illinois, 7

Against the champions of the Big Ten Conference, Illinois, the Wildcats put up stiff opposition but failed to win a match. Wilson, playing his best tennis of the season, won the first set of his match but lost the next two, 6-4, 5-7, 1-6. Turner Howard lost a hard match by the score of 9-7, 7-5, while the doubles combination of Wilson and Smith lost by the score of 6-4, 3-6, 2-6.

Kentucky, 2; Ohio State, 5

Unable to win a match against the three top ranking players of Ohio State, the Wildcats had to depend on the strength of their last three players to win the two matches of a 5 to 2 loss to the Ohio University. Braden and Howard won for Kentucky with Yost making a strong bid for victory in another match. The Kentucky doubles combinations failed to function effectively against the outstanding team of the Big Ten school.

Kentucky, 3; Cincinnati, 6

Loss of three doubles matches, when the score was tied at three points apiece at the end of singles competition, gave the University of Cincinnati a victory over the Wildcats by the score of 6 to 3. Johnson, Howard, and Braden won for Kentucky in the singles. These matches left the Wildcats in no condition to cope with the strong Cincinnati doubles teams.

Kentucky, 7; Berea College, 0

The 1933 varsity tennis team closed its season with a 7 to 0 victory in its second engagement with Berea College. Those who received letters were: Captain Roger Klein, Howard Wilson, K. P. Smith, George Yost, Turner Howard, Donald Braden, Johnson, and Manager Earle Graham.

FRESHMAN TENNIS

Although defeated in their last match of their short season, the freshman tennis team showed strength in winning matches from University High, Winchester and Henry Clay High schools. The greenies lost their last match of the season to Berea Academy.

University High school fell before the freshmen in their first match, losing by the score of 6 to 1. Charles Randall, playing in number one position, lost to David Randall, giving University High its one point. George Tulloch, Stahr, Moore, and Harralson won singles matches while the teams of Tulloch and Randall, and Moore and Harralson won in doubles.

In their second match of the season, the freshmen easily defeated Winchester High school by the score of 7 to 0. The only close match of the afternoon was number one singles in which Randall lost the first set but came back to win the last two, giving Kentucky a one-sided win. A change in the lineup brought Sam Warren to number three position in singles and shifted Stahr to number two in place of Tulloch who was unable to play. Doubles were played by Randall and Warren, and Stahr and Moore.

With two victories already to their credit the freshmen made it three straight by overwhelming the netmen of Henry Clay High school, Lexington, by the score of 7 to 0. Although several matches were close, the high school team did not have a chance against their older opponents.

Playing without their first two ranking men, the freshman netmen lost their last match of the season to Berea Academy by the score of 5 to 2. In the only matches won by the Kittens, Sam Warren defeated the number two ranking Berea player in singles, and Moore, ranking one place lower, overcame his opponent. The doubles teams of Warren and Collins, and Moore and Harralson were decisively beaten as were Stahr, Collins, and Harralson in singles.

Numerals were awarded to the following men: Charles Randall, George Tulloch, Sam Warren, Elvis Stahr, James Moore, and James Harralson.

GOLF

Hampered by unseasonable weather, Coach J. C. Jones' varsity golf team failed to develop winning form until near the end of its campaign but defeated the University of Cincinnati twice and lost to Eastern State Teachers College golfers by close margins in their two encounters with the Big Blue.

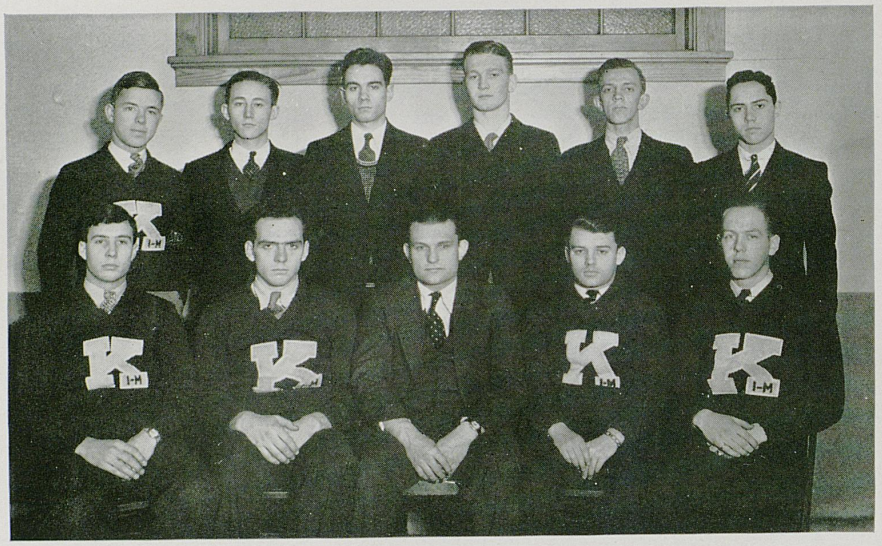

For the first time in the history of sports at the University, a freshman golf team was sponsored. The yearlings engaged in eight games, winning three and losing five.

Aided by the return of three varsity lettermen, the team tried hard against the University of Dayton but lost both the matches because of lack of practice. The University of Cincinnati golfers bowed to the Wildcats twice by decisive scores and toward the end of their season the varsity seemed to have reached true form.

Captain Evan Settle, Fred Hardwick, J. D. Haggard, and Willard Meredith formed the regular team and were awarded letters at the end of the season. Jack Steele was manager.

The Kitten golf team defeated Eastern State Teachers College twice and Male High school, Louisville, once to score their three victories. The University of Louisville frosh and du Pont Manual, Louisville, conquered the Kittens twice each, while Male came back after losing once to win a close decision.

Numerals were awarded at the end of the season to Jack Mohney, Louis Hillenmeyer, James Irvin, and Flippen.

INTRAMURAL

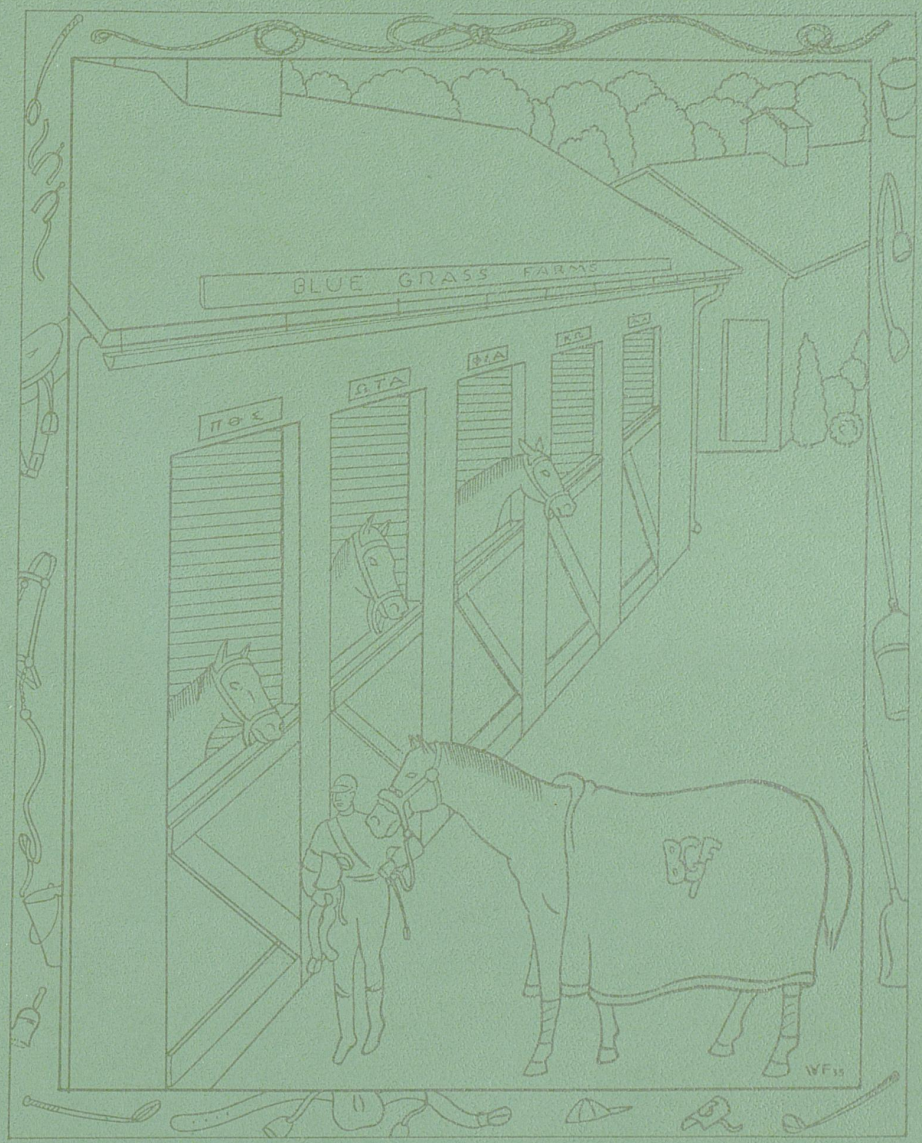

More than half of all men students participated in the 18 Intramural events sponsored by the department in charge of C. W. Hackensmith during the last year. Competition in individual sports and success in team sports gave the trophy for the greatest number of points scored in events throughout the year to Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity for the third time in five years the large loving cup has been offered.

Individual trophies and medals are given to the winning teams and their members in all competition while the student participating in the most number of events is awarded a trophy at the end of the year. Charles Bringardner, a member of Sigma Chi, won the award last year.

The program of the department is divided into three seasons, fall, winter, and spring, with many of the sports offered in the fall repeated in the spring. Among those are: tennis, singles and doubles; golf, individual and twosomes; and horseshoes, singles and doubles. Winter sports include handball, singles and doubles, free throwing, boxing, wrestling, basketball, volleyball, fencing, and bowling. In the spring competition is held in diamond ball, track, and cross country in addition to the individual sports that are also held in the fall.

Intramural standings for 1932-33 were as follows:

Sigma Alpha Epsilon	765	Kappa Sigma	203
Sigma Chi	564	Lambda Chi Alpha	170
Independent A. C.	497	Phi Delta Theta	120
Alpha Tau Omega	407	Alpha Sigma Phi	117

TO A THOROUGHBRED

Pride of fair Kentucky's heart,
Product of our grass of blue,
Bravest of the stalwart brave —
Thoroughbred, we hail to you.

Fair of form and fleet of foot,
Forever in our hearts you stand.
With your hoof-beats, wondrous steed,
A million hearts throb through the land.

Youth gone, you can certainly
Glory in your life of ease,
For blue-blood sons will carry on
Your long line of victories.

— William H. Nicholls

NATIONAL SOCIETY OF PERSHING RIFLES

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

COMPANY C, FIRST REGIMENT

The University of Kentucky chapter of Pershing Rifles has won the regimental drill championship for the past two years. A large share of the credit is due to Mr. George A. Knight, drill master, whose superior drill and command is probably not to be found in the U. S. Army today. Lieut. P. E. LeStourgeon is also commended for his active interest in the drills as faculty advisor. The best of the basic men from the R. O. T. C. regiment are recommended by their instructors as potential members for Pershing Rifles.

IN KENTUCKY

The songbirds are the sweetest in Kentucky.
The thoroughbreds are fleetest in Kentucky.
Mountains tower proudest,
Thunder peals the loudest,
The landscape is the grandest
And politics — the damndest, in Kentucky.

ALPHADELTATHETA STABLE

Colors: Turquoise blue, scarlet and silver.

Dope: Small stable, moderate speed, steady, with a few feature "flashy" inmates who keep the barn in the running; always manages to get at least half of its 4-year-old fillies in the Grand Fnish; proud of the quick disappearance of its horses' pictures from the front entrance; loses two of its best bets this spring, Robinson and Brumagen.

Entries: Dorothy Martin and Phitaupledge John Duval (rumored they will run the grand finish in June); Nancy Alverson and some Triangle; Margaret Scottow and Triangle Hamilton Greenup; Yvonne Sylvester and Sigalf Harold Bell.

Mud-horse Possibilities: Lois ex-lead horse Robinson and Kenneth Keys and Alfasig Jimmy Scholl. (Lois says, "I've been like this for three years); Hallie Downing and Dan Alexander with young Dave Griffith as a possible "purely platonic" substitute; Edna Brumagen, who is said to be pinned, but who says "if I am I don't know it"—(we consider this a mud horse possibility.

CHIO STABLES

Colors: Cardinal and straw.

Dope: With so many fillies "going into the coffin," the Chios found it necessary to move into the elite Smith stables; in spite of the addition of filly Crane, still find trouble in keeping the stable warm; proved this wasn't a one-horse campus by grabbing 29 new fillies last fall. (See Winchell ritual).

Entries: Marjorie Wiest ,newly elected lead horse (president to you, Muggs) and Professor Niel Plummer,

TRIDELT STABLE

Colors: Silver, gold and blue.

Dope: Are planning to run a grudge race with the Kappas after regular racing season . . . reasons seem to be over a stray filly by name of Eubank; the prize will be the next Derby candidate that enters the University track from Paducah; have yet to enter a handicap race, but are destined to win the Linden walk handicap and the SAE claiming race in the fall; Delts have attempted to inveigle them into a claiming race for several years. (It seems that the Delts and Tridelts are sister and brother stables; the Tridelts have yet to claim them . . . . Hence "The Claiming Handicap."

KAYDEE STABLES

Colors: Olive green and pearl white.

Flower: White rose.

Dope: A congenial bunch of unbroken fillies; winning many races; losing others; the lead horse, Elizabeth Jones, has won the Turnbull Handicap and is leading in the Bastin Derby; the entire Stable was entered in the Stroller Claiming Race and won with the maiden Phyllis Caskey, after Elizabeth Jones caught the distemper and was "scratched". The owners of this lodge entered a large field in the Kentucky (Kernel) Derby; this field composed of Willie Hughes Smith, Jane Ann Mathews, Lorraine Lepere, Dorothy Whalen, Nancy Becker, and Mary Carolyn Terrell, have almost crowded the other entries from the track. stand spectators at this "Grand Finish" of the great Derby. It was a swift race and betting ran high. Most of the money lost was on third and fourth places. Those were tense seconds for the audience . . . . It's Smith and Evans ahead! It's the deanie! They're neck and neck!" were shouts heard in the stand. Deany surprised a good many people with her unlooked for swiftness in the race. Her speed was especially commendable considering the impedimenta which she carried along, handcuffs and cudgel, but it was no use. Rice and Liz outdid her on the home stretch. But it was a great race, folks! It was a great race!

Results are as follows:

First place or WIN (by 15 lengths) conceded to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shelden Vance (nee Alice Caskey Lang, tridelts principal politician and promoter, and Hank Vance, phidelt cowboy) because they were laps ahead, with a two-year marriage secret . . . and on the U. K. track.
