'til the BATTLE IS WON

EVERY SEC GAME ON CBS, ESPN

With the biggest TV contract in the history of college football, every SEC football game will be televised live on CBS or ESPN. Shown here is Ventrell Jenkins' game-winning touchdown in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, televised by ESPN.

THREE STRAIGHT BOWL WINS

Under Coach Rich Brooks, Kentucky has won postseason games in three consecutive seasons for the first time in school history with bowl wins over Clemson, Florida State and East Carolina. Quarterback Mike Hartline (far right) was named UK's Most Outstanding Offensive Player in the Liberty Bowl victory.

"Kentucky is here to stay as a competitor in the (SEC) East."
– Tom Luginbill, ESPN/Scouts Inc.
WINNING STREAK
Kentucky enters the 2009 season with a streak of 14 consecutive non-conference wins. It is the nation's second-longest active streak. Shown here are the Wildcats celebrating with the Governor's Cup, which is awarded each year to the winner of the UK-Louisville game.
BIG WINS FOR THE WILDCATS
In the last three seasons, Kentucky victories include:
• No. 1 LSU in its national championship season
• Georgia
• Clemson, Music City Bowl
• Louisville
• Florida State, Music City Bowl
• East Carolina, Liberty Bowl

Why High School All-Americans Choose KENTUCKY

"I believe Kentucky is a program on the rise, with a lot of potential. I liked the coaches a lot. The facilities are great. It doesn't get any better than the Nutter Training Center, the field house, and everything else. Lexington is also a great area."

— Will Fidler, a PrepStar All-American from Henderson, Ky.

"The coaches were real and honest, not made up. I felt more comfortable here. Lexington is a nice city, a good college town, not too big and not too small."

— Micah Johnson of Ft. Campbell, Ky., an All-American by Rivals.com, EA Sports, Parade, SuperPrep, and PrepStar magazines

"It was the support of the coaches and players, and how much everyone wanted me to be here. And I knew Kentucky is a great institution, academically and athletically."

— Mike Hartline, a PrepStar All-American from Canton, Ohio

"People say when you get to that one school, you get that certain feeling. The first time I stepped on (the UK) campus, I got that feeling."

— Ryan Mossakowski, a SuperPrep and PrepStar All-American from Frisco, Texas

"I came to Kentucky for the opportunity to play in the SEC, and because of the great coaches and great people."

— Morgan Newton of Carmel, Ind., an All-American by MaxPreps and SuperPrep, Parade, The Sporting News and ESPN/Rise magazines

Recruits often mention the honest, open approach of the UK Coaching Staff as a prime reason to become a Wildcat.

Making a MAJOR IMPACT

Kentucky had a Freshman All-American in four consecutive seasons under coach Rich Brooks. UK was among the nation's top five teams for playing true freshmen in 2005 and 2006.

Cornerback Trevard Lindley (right) was named first-team Freshman All-America in 2006 by Rivals.com, The Sporting News, and the Football Writers Association of America.

Offensive tackle Justin Jeffries (No. 76 above) was one of four Wildcats who were named to the 2006 SEC All-Freshman Team.

Multi-talented Randall Cobb played quarterback, wide receiver and punt returner last season and was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team at quarterback. By the end of the 2008 season, he was the only player in the nation who was his team's starting quarterback and punt returner.

Football in the BLUEGRASS

Kentucky has broken the school record for attendance each of the last two seasons, once again ranking in the nation's top 25. On game day, Commonwealth Stadium usually becomes the third-largest city in Kentucky.

UK cheerleaders have won 17 national cheerleading championships, including 13 of the last 15 years.

At left, thousands of fans regularly turn out for the Cat Walk that greets the UK players and coaches when they arrive at the stadium. Later, the noise level at Commonwealth Stadium reaches a deafening crescendo when the Wildcats take the field.

"I love game day at Commonwealth. It really is one of the reasons I went to Kentucky. You have thousands of fans waiting on you to arrive at the Cat Walk, screaming and yelling for you. The excitement continues to build as you wait for the game to start. And when those bright lights turn on at Commonwealth, you can't compare that to anything."

— Wesley Woodyard, Denver Broncos

"Putting on that jersey makes you feel good — a sense of pride, wearing that number and representing your school, knowing all the people are cheering for us ... The fans are always riled up in Commonwealth. It gets your blood pumping."

— David Johnson, former All-SEC free safety

Former Kentucky linebacker Terry Clayton, who is deaf, could not hear the crowd noise at Commonwealth Stadium. "But," Clayton said, "I can feel the rumble!"

Fabulous FACILITIES

In its commitment to providing the finest in football facilities, the University of Kentucky has ...

- Built a new locker room at Commonwealth Stadium
- Installed a Bermuda grass playing surface at the stadium, including a superb drainage system that maximizes player safety and maneuverability
- The Nutter Training Center, which features a spacious weight room, a new locker room, new state-of-the-art team meeting area, player lounge and support facilities
- Constructed the Tim Couch Practice Fields, including two beautiful grass fields and a sports-turf field, stadium-style lights and drainage system
- Installed a new FieldTurf playing surface in the Nutter Field House, which features a full 100-yard field. FieldTurf is the same surface used by 22 National Football League teams

"They expect us to be the best, so they give us the best [facilities]. There's an atmosphere of winning, and it rubs off on you."

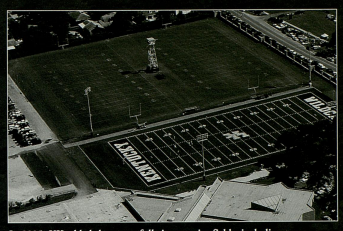

— James Whalen, former UK All-American and NFL veteran

The Wildcats' weight room features 15 Olympic lifting platforms, more than 100,000 pounds of free weights, and numerous specialized strength and conditioning machines.

"UK has better facilities than many NFL teams I've seen. They are updated, spacious and state-of-the-art."

— Glenn Holt, Minnesota Vikings

In 2005, UK added three new full-size practice fields, including two beautiful grass surfaces and a sports turf field. A drainage system and stadium-style lights are part of the project, giving the Wildcats a state-of-the-art practice area.

Kentucky has constructed six new football facilities since 2005, increasing the safety, convenience and efficiency of the Wildcats.

UK has installed a new playing surface in the Nutter Field House, which features a full 100-yard field.

More Fabulous FACILITIES

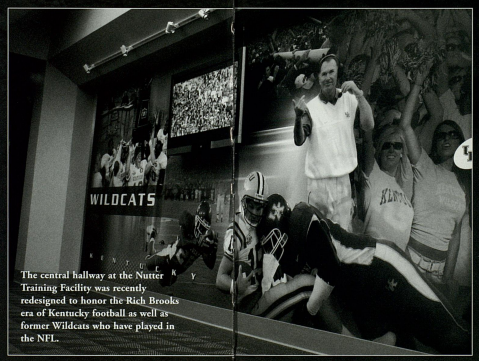

The new locker room in Nutter Training Center (above) is filled with spacious oak lockers. Each locker has a padded seating bench, an electrical outlet and is larger than the old lockers. The Wildcats also enjoy a beautiful, comfortable locker room in Commonwealth Stadium (below).

Kentucky's new team meeting room features comfortable seating for the players and state-of-the-art technology for film study.

The central hallway at the Nutter Training Facility was recently redesigned to honor the Rich Brooks era of Kentucky football as well as former Wildcats who have played in the NFL.

Kentucky Offense
ON THE MOVE

"The offense Brooks is running now, with Joker Phillips as coordinator and Randy Sanders as quarterbacks coach, is the most varied, most exciting, most effective — let's come right out and say it, the best offense in UK football history."

— John Clay, Lexington Herald-Leader

"Coach Phillips has the perfect system for offensive-minded players. It gives people a chance to make plays, make runs and catch balls. It's a system that helped make me the player I am today."

— Jacob Tamme, Indianapolis Colts

Quarterback Mike Hartline received an ESPN "Helmet Sticker" for leading the Wildcats to a dramatic come-from-behind win over Arkansas and also was chosen as UK's Offensive Most Valuable Player for the Wildcats' victory in the Liberty Bowl.

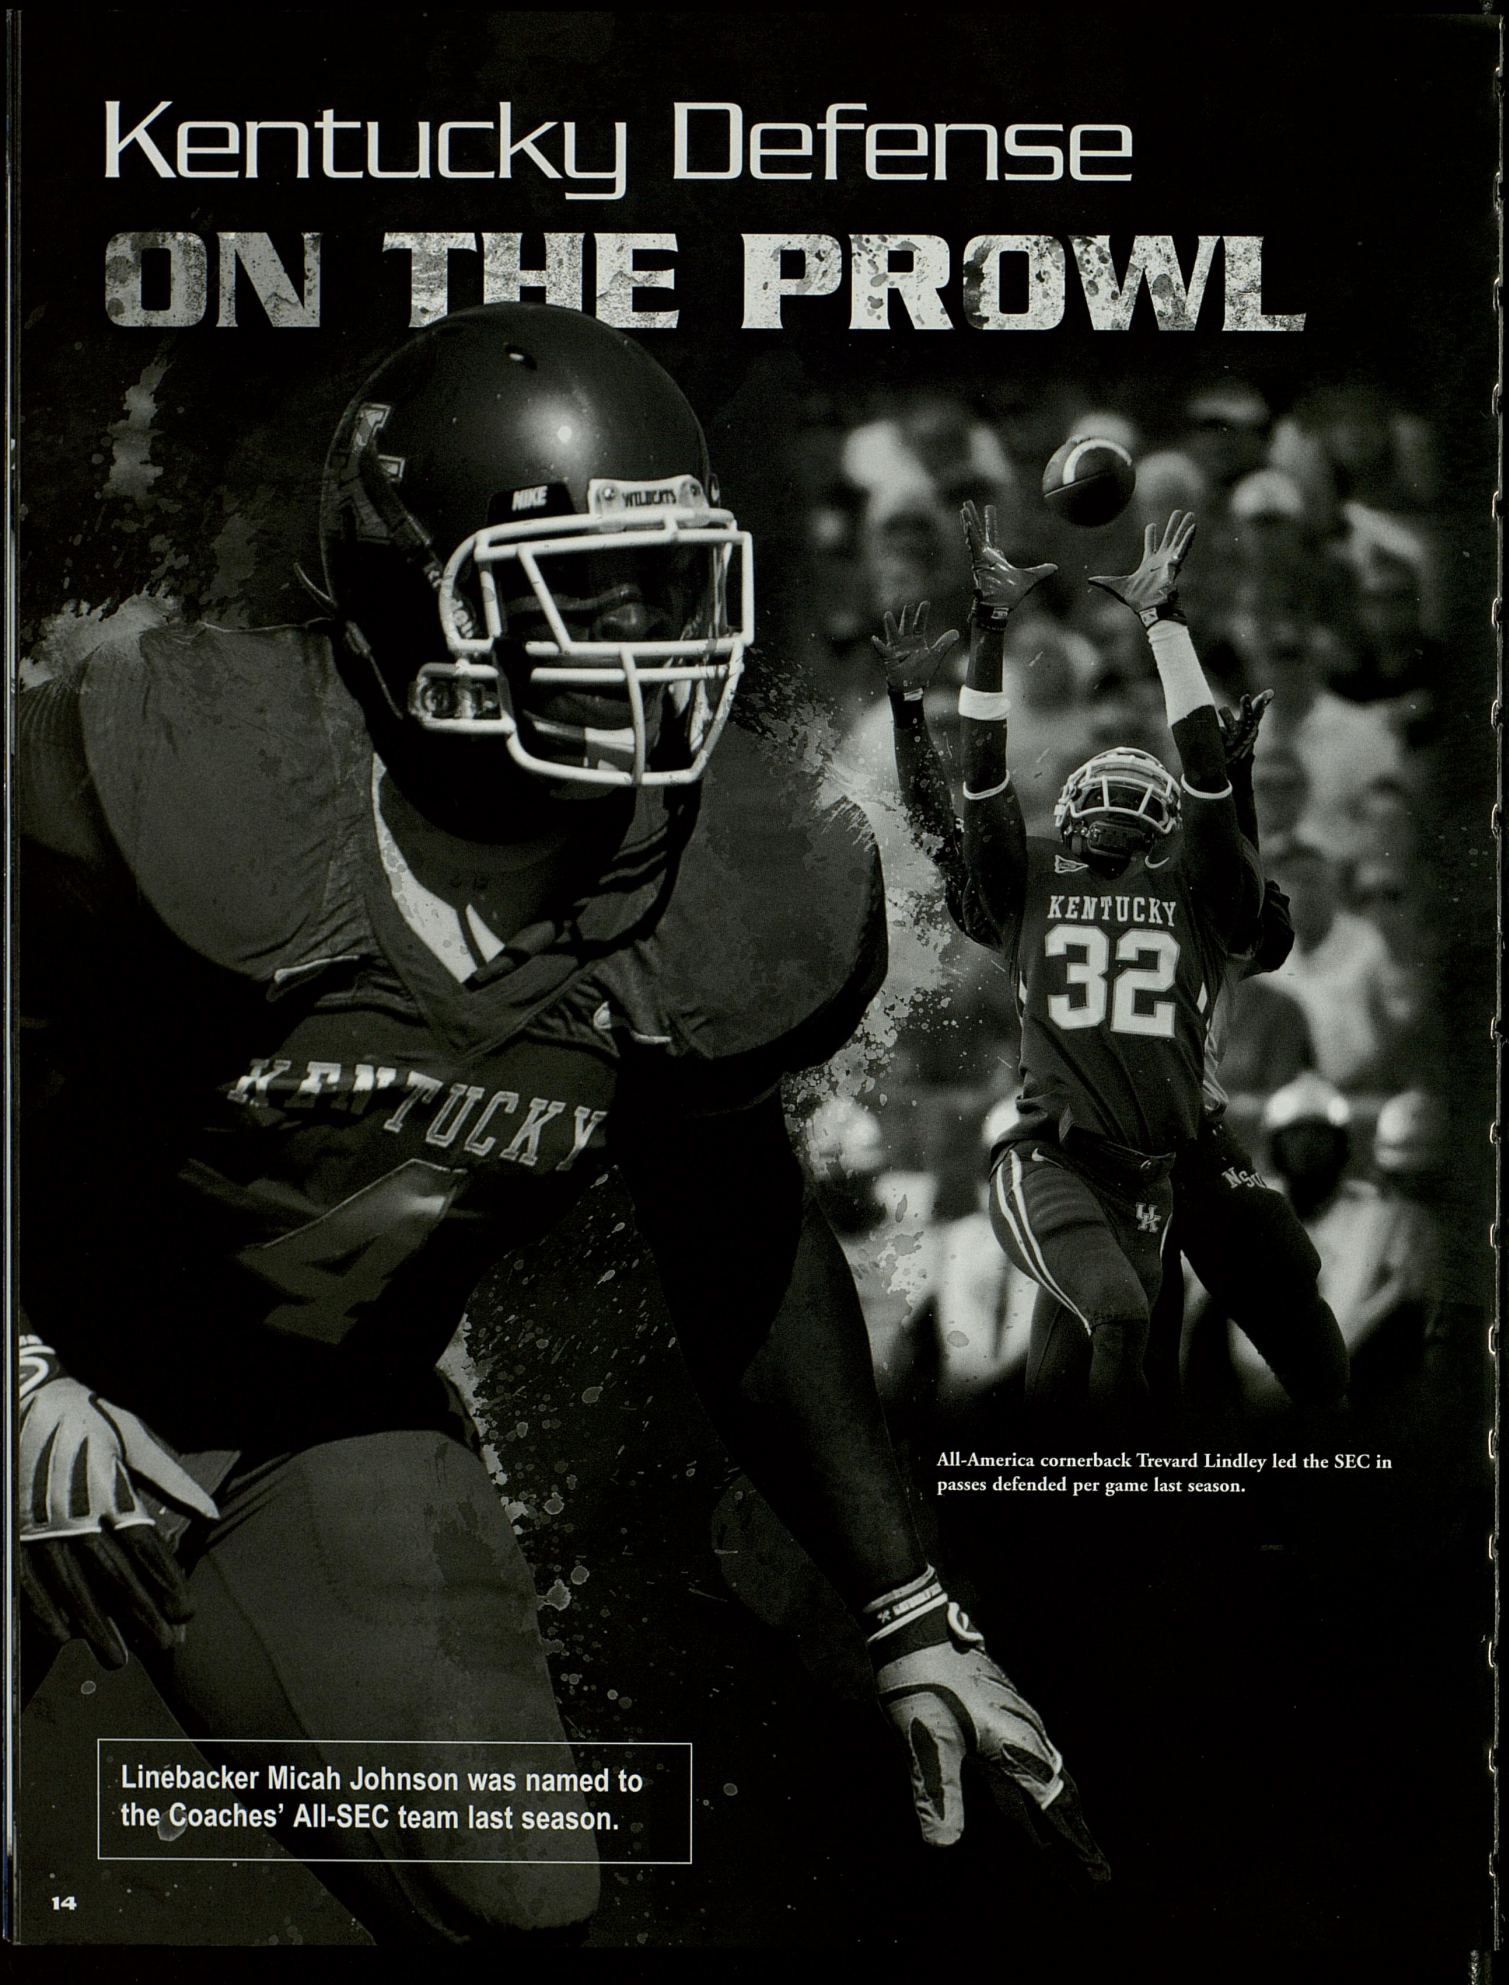

UK's offensive line, featuring senior Zipp Duncan, ranked fourth in the nation last season in fewest quarterback sacks allowed.

UK Highlights under Offensive Coordinator Joker Phillips ...

- School record 475 points in one season
- 5,764 yards total offense in one season
- Balanced attack has featured 3,000-yard passers, 1,000-yard receivers and 1,000-yard rushers
- Over the last two years, seven UK offensive players have signed NFL contracts

Kentucky Defense
ON THE PROWL

All-America cornerback Trevard Lindley led the SEC in passes defended per game last season.

Linebacker Micah Johnson was named to the Coaches' All-SEC team last season.

The Kentucky defense has made dramatic progress under coordinator Steve Brown. UK was the nation's most improved team in total defense over the last two seasons.

Linebacker Wesley Woodyard led the SEC in tackles in 2007 and now plays for the Denver Broncos. "Coach Brown's knowledge definitely prepared me for the NFL. When I first got to the Broncos, we ran a very similar defense to the one we ran at Kentucky," Woodyard said.

UK Highlights under Defensive Coordinator Steve Brown ...

- Improved from 99th to 35th in the nation in scoring defense
- Improved from 118th to 40th in the nation in total defense
- Wildcat players led the SEC in tackles and total passes defended
- UK defense scored game-winning touchdown in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl

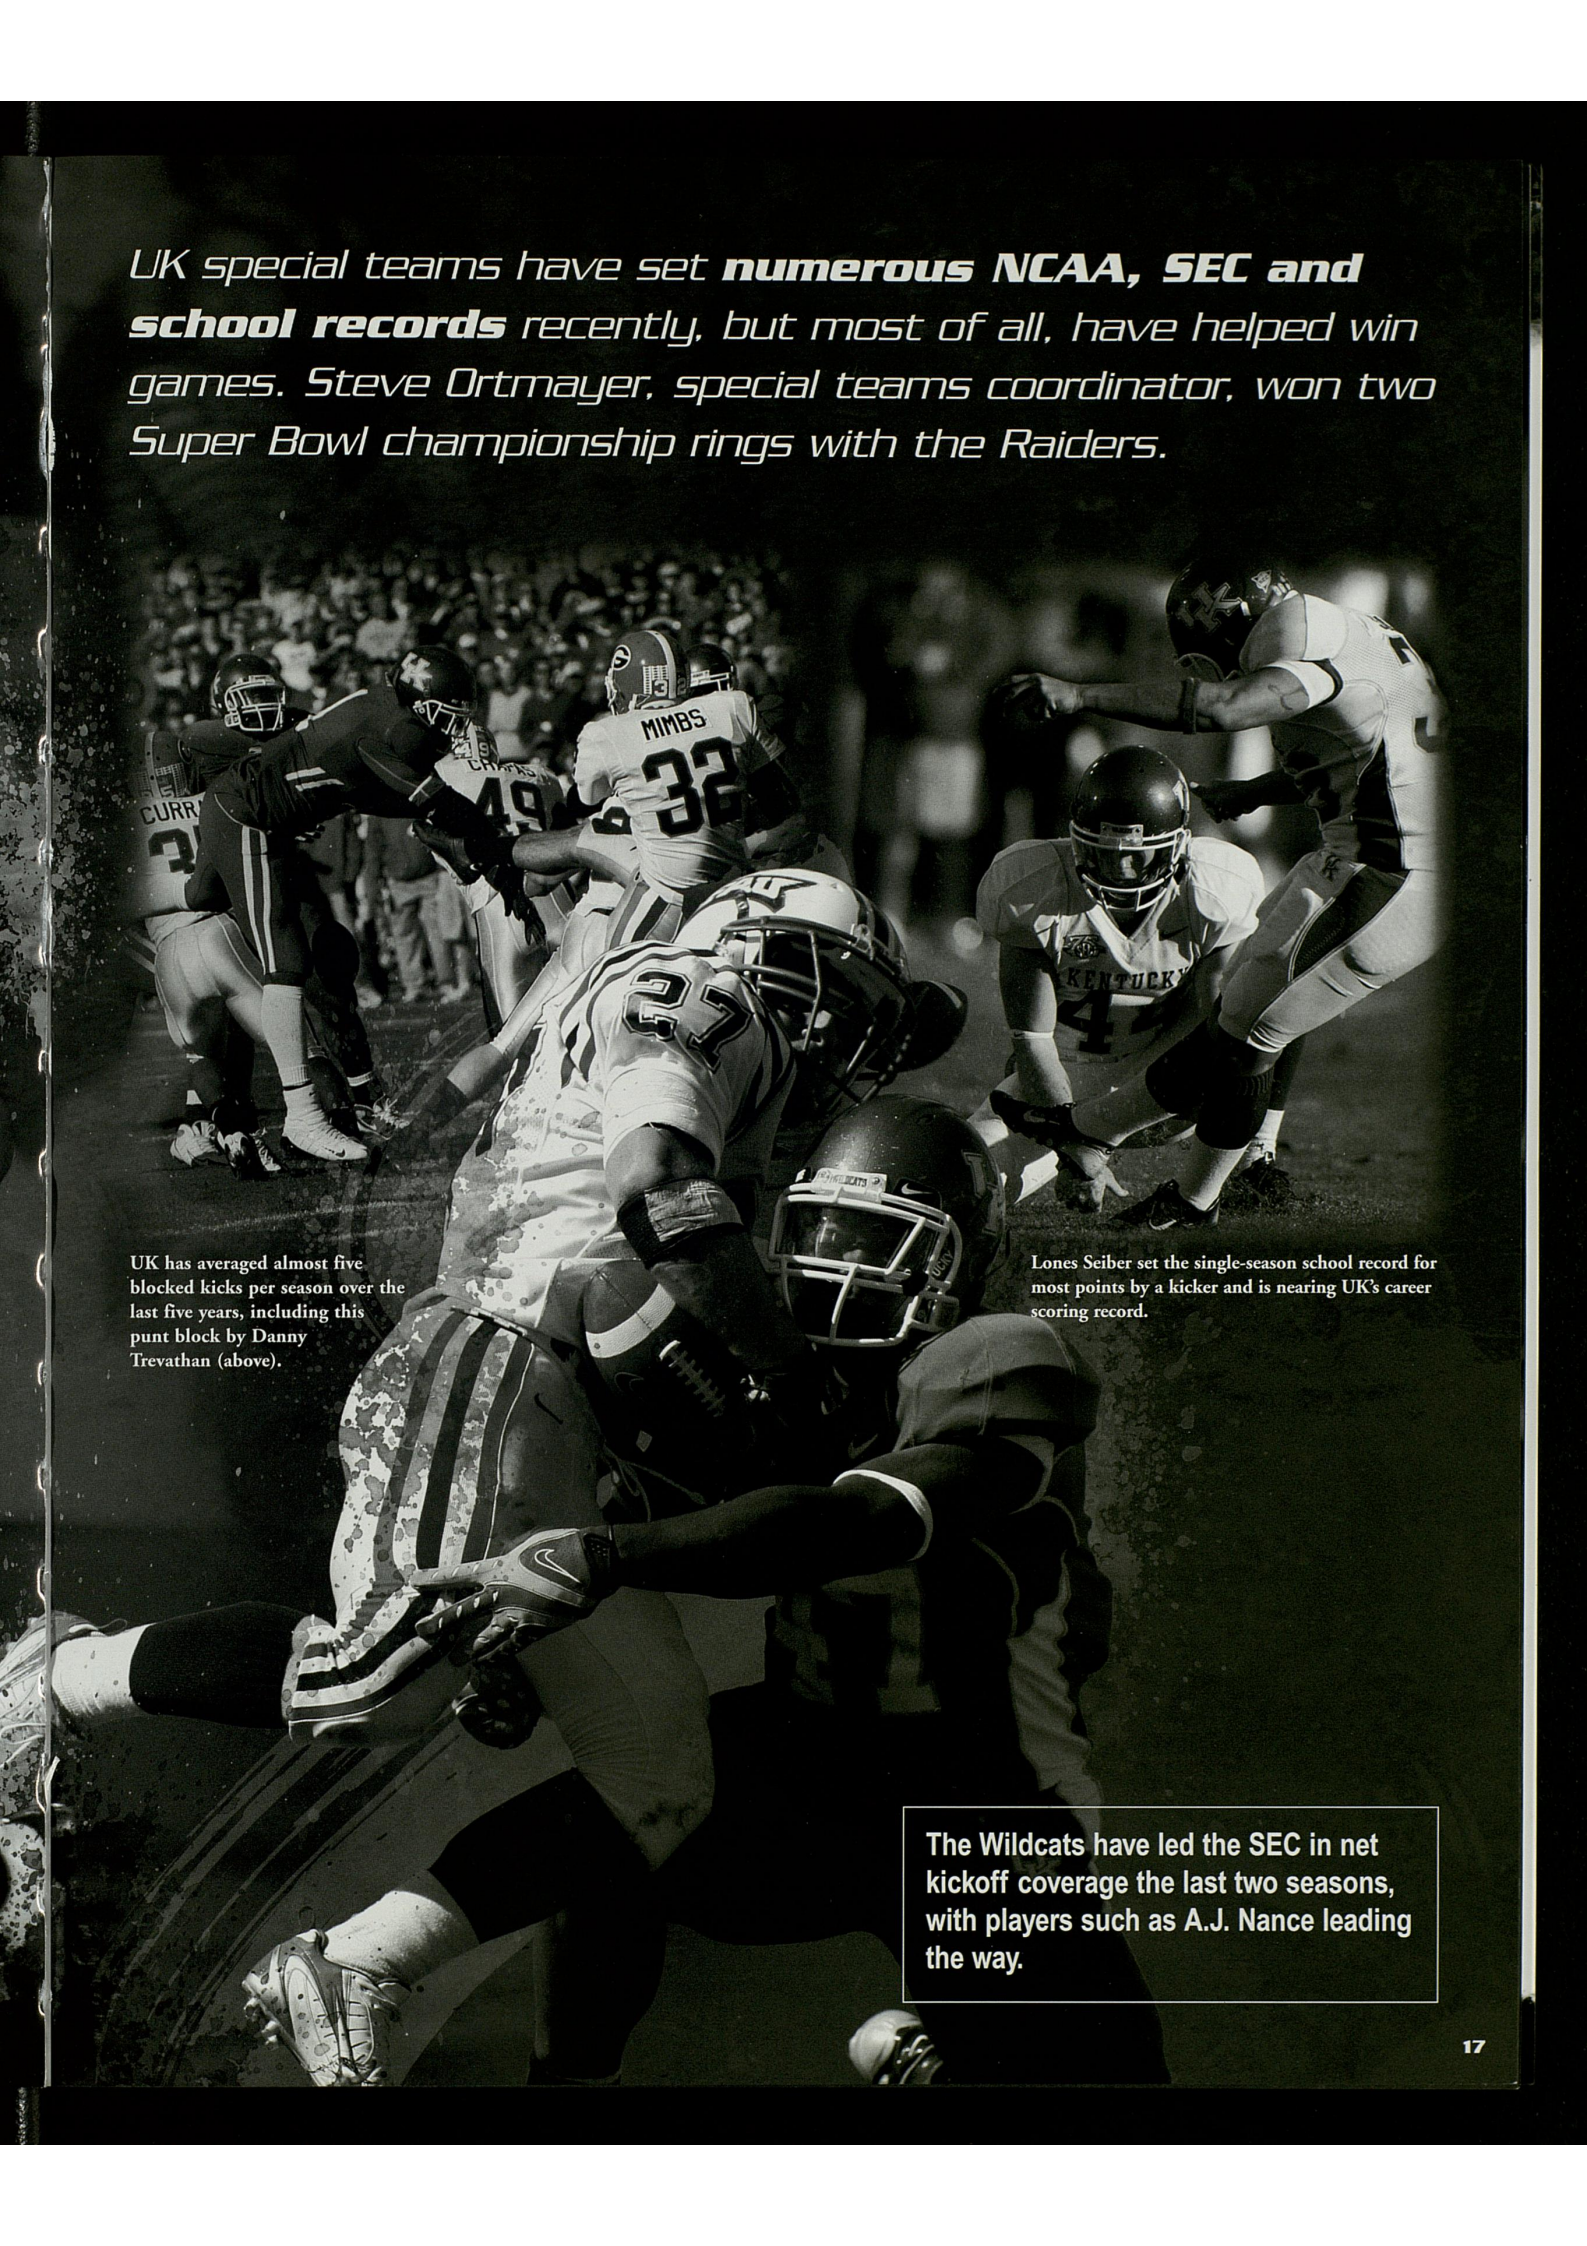

Making a Difference
SPECIAL TEAMS

SPECIAL TEAMS HIGHLIGHTS UNDER STEVE ORTMAYER ...

- Special teams made a decisive game-changing play in each of UK's three-consecutive bowl wins (2006-07-08)
- UK led the SEC in net kickoff coverage (2007 and 2008)
- UK led the SEC and ranked third in the nation in kickoff returns (2008)
- All-SEC punter Tim Masthay led the league in punting (2008)
- Keenan Burton is the SEC's all-time career leader for kickoff return average (2007)
- Lones Seiber set the single-season school record for most points by a kicker (2007)
- UK led the nation in punt return average. UK was the only team to rank in the nation's top 10 in punt and kickoff returns (2006)
- Broke the school records for punt and kickoff returns and was the only team to rank in the nation's top five in both categories (2005)
- Kicker Taylor Begley became the No. 3 scorer in school history and set a UK-record streak of 93 consecutive extra points (2005)
- Rafael Little led the SEC in punt return average (2005)
- Blocked nine opponent kicks, a school record (2004)
- Derek Abney tied the NCAA record for most kick return touchdowns in a career and earned All-America honors (2003)

UK special teams have made a decisive play in each of UK's three-consecutive bowl victories, including David Jones' 99-yard kickoff return for a touchdown – the longest KO return in Liberty Bowl history.

UK special teams have set numerous NCAA, SEC and school records recently, but most of all, have helped win games. Steve Ortmayer, special teams coordinator, won two Super Bowl championship rings with the Raiders.

UK has averaged almost five blocked kicks per season over the last five years, including this punt block by Danny Trevathan (above).

Lones Seiber set the single-season school record for most points by a kicker and is nearing UK's career scoring record.

The Wildcats have led the SEC in net kickoff coverage the last two seasons, with players such as A.J. Nance leading the way.

The Facts about CATS

- Kentucky was the first school in the nation to open an academic center dedicated exclusively to student-athletes
- The current CATS was built at a cost of $2.4 million and includes:
- Spacious study areas and tutoring rooms
- 20,000 square feet of space
- A career development and life skills resource center
- Community outreach office
- CATS has a full-time staff of 11, plus numerous graduate assistants and tutors
- UK spends approximately $1,500,000 each year for the operation of CATS
- UK has been chosen as an NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills "Program of Excellence" based on commitment to academics, athletics, community service, career development and personal development
- The nationally acclaimed CATS staff includes Bob Bradley and Barb Deniston, both winners of the National Academic Advisor of the Year Award

Winning in the CLASSROOM

"One thing that really stands out about my time at Kentucky is CATS. Mr. Bradley, Barb Deniston, and the staff did a great job. We had access to computers, tutors, study halls — it was very nice to have those resources available. Academically, it was great."

— Dermontti Dawson, former Wildcat and All-Pro center with the Pittsburgh Steelers

Academic accomplishments by the Kentucky football program include:

- 100 percent graduation for UK's 2006 senior class that also won the Music City Bowl
- UK has had a first-team Academic All-American in each of the last four seasons
- Kentucky led the nation in Academic All-Americans in 2005 and 2007
- Since 1984, Kentucky has placed more players on the SEC Academic Honor Roll than any other school
- Hayden Lane and Jacob Tamme won the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year Award, the first league school to have back-to-back winners
- Kentucky football has won the Academic Achievement Award for having the nation's highest graduation rate

Strength & Conditioning
BIGGER, FASTER,

Marc Hill has earned the title of Master Strength and Conditioning Coach. He has been the strength coach for seven bowl teams and a national champion basketball team. Under the leadership of Hill and his staff, Kentucky had a member of the All-America Strength Team for seven consecutive years.

"Coach Hill is so practical about everything we do. Everything we do in the weight room, even the smallest detail, pertains to what we do on the field."

— Former Wildcat Marlon McCree, an eight-year NFL veteran

STRONGER

With the help of UK's speed-building program, the Wildcats have made significant improvement in overall team speed in recent years. Shown here is David Jones, who signed with the Baltimore Ravens.

The SEC
SECond to NONE

Did You Know?

- Southeastern Conference teams have won the last three national championships.
- SEC teams have played and won more bowl games than any other conference.
- In 2008, the SEC led all conferences with the most players on NFL rosters.
- The SEC led all conferences with the most selections in the 2009 NFL Draft.

"There is nothing like SEC football. The atmosphere was unbelievable in every stadium we played. If you are trying to get to the NFL, the SEC should be your first stop."

— Glenn Holt, Minnesota Vikings

"You have to bring your best game every Saturday in the SEC. I see a lot of those guys in the league."

— Jacob Tamme, Indianapolis Colts

"Playing in the SEC is a dream come true. The competition in the SEC is 'level 10' every Saturday."

— Steve Johnson, Buffalo Bills

Kentucky's recent big SEC wins include comeback victories over Georgia in 2006 (at top, background) and Arkansas in 2008 (below) as well as a three-overtime upset victory over eventual national champion LSU (above) in 2007.

What They've Said About the SEC ...

"The reality is this: it's the SEC's world and we're all just living in it."

— The Sporting News

"That the SEC deserves to be number one is something you know instinctively."

— Lindy's Magazine

"The depth of the SEC is obvious every year we talk about it."

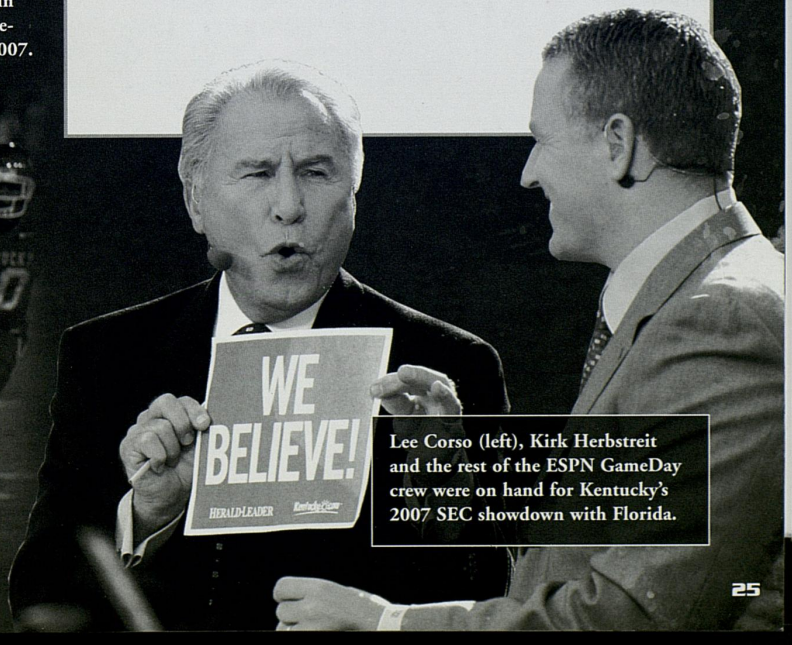

— Kirk Herbstreit, ESPN

"The SEC is the gold standard for college athletics."

— Mike Aresco, CBS

— Mike Bianchi, Orlando Sentinel

Lee Corso (left), Kirk Herbstreit and the rest of the ESPN GameDay crew were on hand for Kentucky's 2007 SEC showdown with Florida.

Kentucky is in high demand by postseason bowl games and it's easy to understand why. Approximately 250,000 Wildcat fans have attended UK's last five bowl games, setting the bowl attendance record four times.

"It was an amazing experience to walk out on the field and see the stands. It was one big bowl of blue and white Cat fans. It was just such a nice thing to go to a bowl game with so much fan support."

— UK Wide Receiver Keenan Burton reacting to UK's fan attendance at the Music City Bowl

College Coaches with NFL EXPERIENCE

"Coach Brooks was especially helpful because of his NFL experience. He taught me a lot because he'd been there. He is a great guy to learn from."

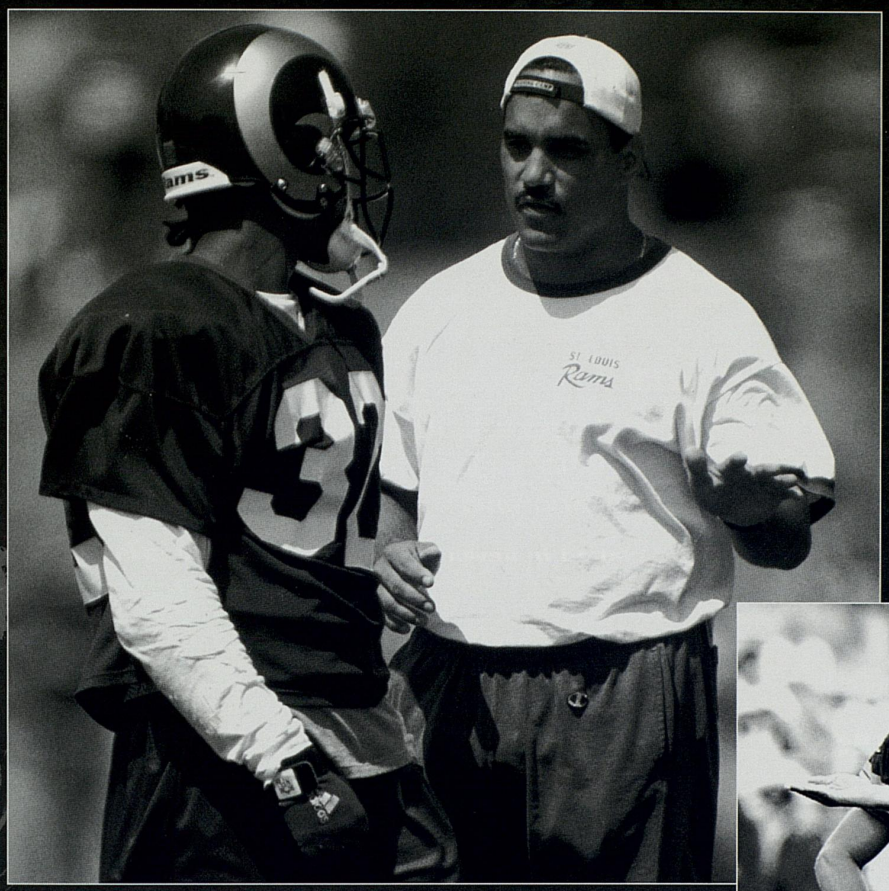

—Jared Lorenzen, former UK quarterback and NFL veteran

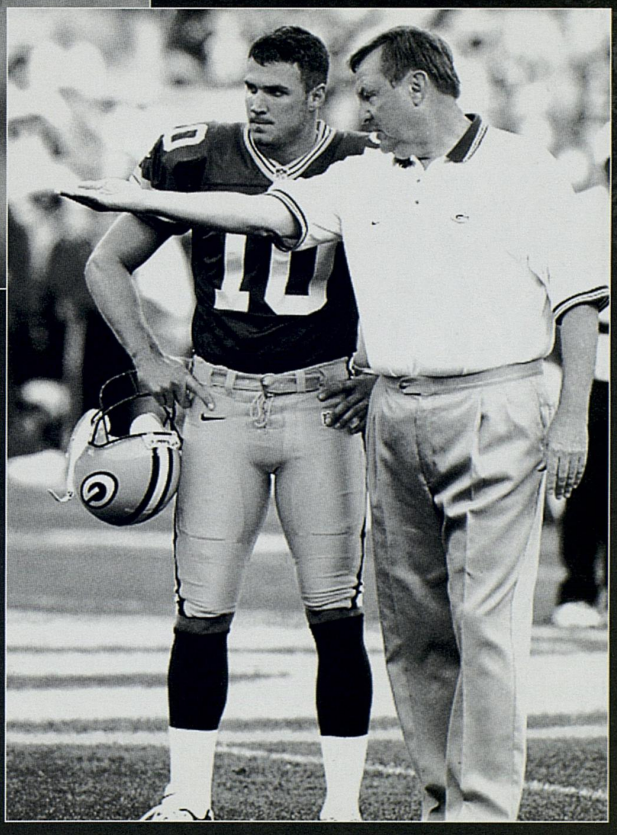

Rich Brooks served as Head Coach of the St. Louis Rams and was defensive coordinator for Atlanta when the Falcons went to the Super Bowl.

After playing for Kentucky, Joker Phillips was a pro wide receiver with the Washington Redskins and Toronto Argonauts.

The UK coaching staff has 56 years of pro football experience, including 15 playing seasons and 41 years in coaching or administration. Kentucky's Head Coach, Offensive Head Coach, Defensive Coordinator and Special Teams Coordinator all have experience in the NFL.

Steve Brown (left) coached six years with the St. Louis Rams and played eight years for the Houston Oilers.

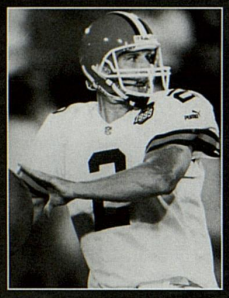

Steve Ortmayer has 25 years of NFL coaching and administrative experience and won two Super Bowl championships while with the Raiders.

Larry Brinson won a Super Bowl championship ring as a member of the Dallas Cowboys.

Tim Couch — Cleveland Browns

"I loved playing at Kentucky. The fans are great and it meant a lot to play in front of them ... Playing in Kentucky's passing offense and playing in the SEC helped me get ready for the pros. The quarterback has a lot of responsibility in the system and the speed in the SEC is better than any conference in the country. It gets you ready for the NFL."

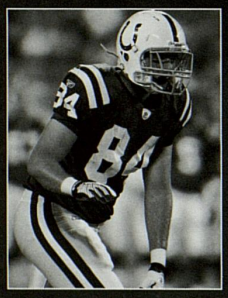

Couch was the NFL's No. 1 draft pick in 1999.

Dermontti Dawson — Pittsburgh Steelers

"I enjoyed my time at Kentucky immensely. The basics I learned at UK helped me get started in the NFL. UK helped showcase what I could do as a player ... Academically, it was great."

Dawson was an All-Pro center and played in seven Pro Bowls. He played 13 years for the Steelers.

Jacob Tamme — Indianapolis Colts

"The coaching staff at the University of Kentucky, in my opinion, is the best in the country. I wouldn't have rather played anywhere else. And the game-day atmosphere at Commonwealth Stadium is awesome."

Jacob Tamme was a first-team All-SEC tight end and first-team Academic All-American. He is in his second season with the Colts.

Artose Pinner — Detroit Lions

"Playing at Kentucky, week-in and week-out, you know you are playing against the top talent in the nation in the Southeastern Conference. Every week you get the opportunity to play against a ranked team and you get to measure yourself as to how you stand against the best of the best. Playing at UK taught me to have discipline and structure in my life in a way that would correlate to the NFL."

Pinner played five seasons in the NFL.

DEWAYNE ROBERTSON

Denver Broncos

"Kentucky definitely prepared me for everything I'm experiencing. I learned the same things at UK that I'm being taught in the NFL. The facilities at Kentucky are great. Everything I have in the NFL, I had access to at Kentucky. If I had to do it over again, I wouldn't change a thing. I would choose Kentucky every time."

Robertson was the No. 4 pick in the first round of the 2003 NFL Draft. He has played six easons with the New York Jets and Denver Broncos.

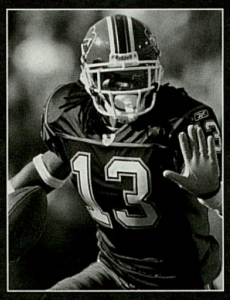

JARED LORENZEN

New York Giants

"The SEC is the best conference in the nation. We are constantly playing against SEC players in the league (NFL) ... Coach Brooks was especially helpful (in preparing for pro football) because of his NFL experience. He taught me confidence, how to work toward the positive."

Lorenzen spent three seasons with the Super Bowl champion New York Giants.

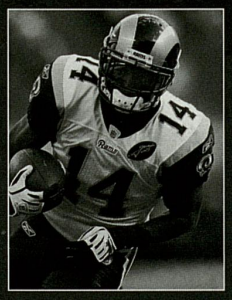

STEVE JOHNSON

Buffalo Bills

"Playing for Coach Brooks is easy. When you have a coach that is 100 percent there for his student-athletes that makes it easy for you to give 100 percent. It's like doing a favor for a best friend, you don't want to let him down ... The game-day atmosphere is like the movie '300' before they went into battle. It's you and your brothers. It gives you competitive goosebumps."

Johnson is entering his second season at Buffalo.

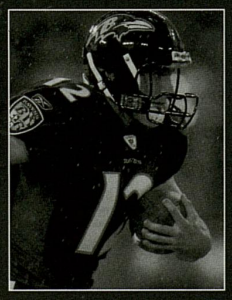

KEENAN BURTON

St. Louis Rams

"Coach Brooks is the ultimate professional. Without you even knowing it, he gets you prepared for the next level. Coach Phillips and his offense definitely helped me become a professional. UK's offense helped me move up the depth chart in the NFL because of the attention to detail and proficiency in running routes."

Burton is in his second year in St. Louis.

DEREK ABNEY

Baltimore Ravens

"Competing in the SEC at a high-caliber program like Kentucky really helped me. To be able to play football and finish my degree was great ... the emphasis on academics was always there. The facilities are second to none — awesome — with the most recent technology. And the fans are incredible, the best fans a player could have."

Abney was a first-team All-American and set numerous NCAA and SEC records for kickoff and punt returns at Kentucky.

National Award WINNERS

The all-around talents of Kentucky football players have been recognized by winning national awards for performance on the field, in the classroom and in service.

Linebacker Terry Clayton, who overcame a severe hearing impairment to play college football, received the Rudy Award as the nation's most inspirational player. Attending the presentation were Coach Rich Brooks (left) and award namesake Daniel "Rudy" Ruettiger (right), former Notre Dame player and subject of the movie Rudy.

Punter Tim Masthay, left, was a two-year Academic All-American as named by ESPN The Magazine. Kentucky led the nation in Academic All-Americans in 2005 and 2007 and has had a first-team Academic All-American each of the past four years.

Quarterback Mike Hartline (not pictured) receieved an ESPN "helmet sticker," signifying one of the nation's best performances of the week, for leading the Wildcats to a come-from-behind victory over Arkansas.

Quarterback André Woodson was the AT&T National Player of the Week for UK's wins over Louisville and Florida Atlantic. Presenting the trophies was Dave Weller of AT&T. Woodson also was named National Player of the Week by Rivals.com for the win over LSU.

Honors for former UK tight end Jacob Tamme (now with the Indianaspolis Colts) included:

- Fourth-team All-America
- Academic All-America
- Bobby Bowden Award from the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (shown above) for being a faith model on the field, in the classroom and in the community
- National Scholar-Athlete Award, including an $18,000 scholarship, from the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame

Prime Time EXPOSURE

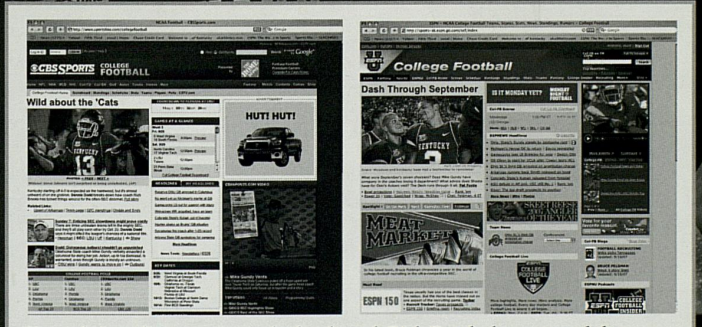

Every SEC game this season will be televised on CBS or an ESPN affiliate.

- The Southeastern Conference's new contracts with CBS and ESPN make the SEC the nation's most-televised conference
- Every SEC game this season will be televised on CBS or an ESPN affiliate
- Kentucky has played in some of the most-watched games in college football in recent seasons, including the highest-rated program in the history of ESPN Classic

"You have all of the exposure you could ever want by playing in the SEC."

— Jacob Tamme, Indianapolis Colts

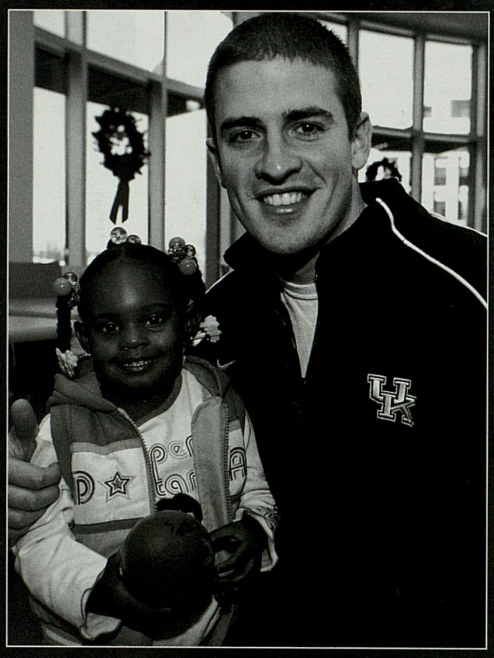

Kentucky's gridiron success under head coach Rich Brooks has captured the excitement of college football fans throughout the nation.

Making a Difference in THE COMMUNITY

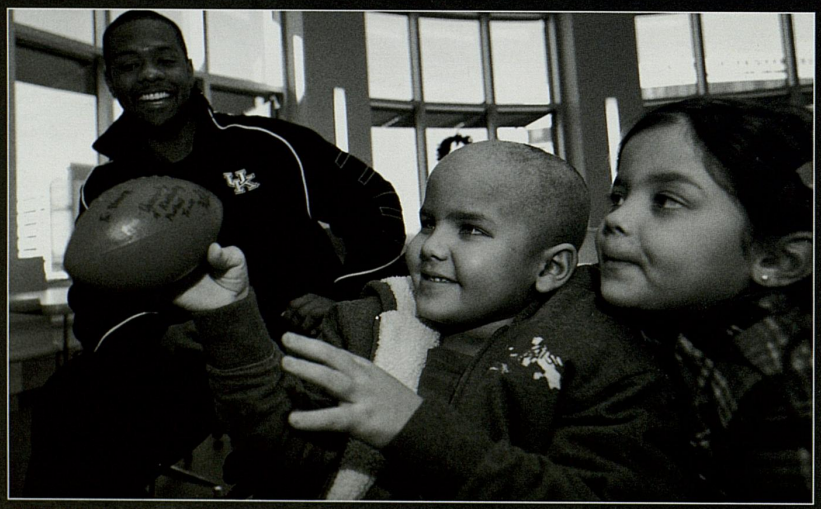

Many Kentucky players choose to take part in the UK Athletics community service program and have been honored for their dedication. UK ranks second in college football history for the number of players on the National Good Works Team.

Mikhail Mabry had some fun teaching passing technique when some Wildcats visited St. Jude's Children's Hospital during the week of the Liberty Bowl.

LEXINGTON

Lexington is one of the nation's top five college sports towns as selected by Forbes magazine. The University of Kentucky is the center of attention!

Lexington at a Glance

Location: Within a day's drive of 75% of the U.S. population.
Population: Lexington-Fayette County – 260,512
Time Zone: Eastern
Average Temperatures: (F°)
Spring – 74° high, 34° low
Summer – 86° high, 61° low
Fall – 79° high, 36° low
Winter – 54° high, 23° low
Annual Precipitation: 44.6 inches

"Lexington is the perfect college town. My experience was amazing, from football, to campus, to Keeneland, to downtown. It's not too big and not too small. It is just perfect." -- Jacob Tamme, Indianapolis Colts

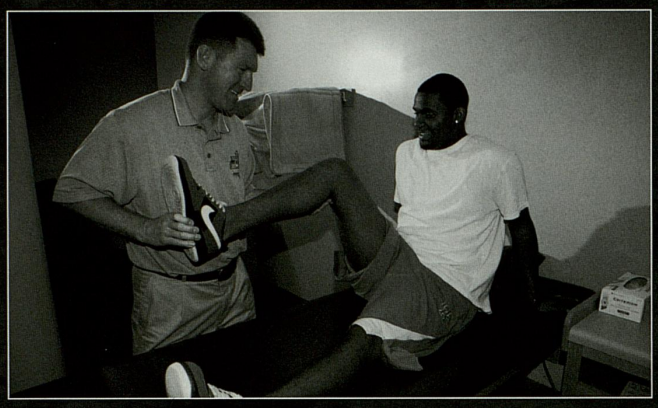

In addition to being the home of Kentucky basketball, Rupp Arena (above) hosts numerous concerts and cultural events throughout the year. At right, Keeneland Race Track is open every April and October.

The Finest in MEDICAL CARE

The Kentucky Football Medical Team is led by athletic trainer Jim Madaleno, formerly with the NFL's New York Giants. Madaleno works with six team doctors and a variety of consultants, covering every medical specialty, in order to give UK the finest medical care.

UK athletic trainer Jim Madaleno has earned the trust of the Kentucky players in the prevention and care of athletic injuries.

"Jim (Madaleno) is very upfront with you. He does an excellent job of getting you ready to play. Jim's been with the world champion Giants in the NFL, so he knows what he's talking about."

— Dennis Johnson, former SEC Defensive Player of the Year and NFL veteran

Wildcats Wear NIKE

"Nobody can compete with Tom (Kalinowski, pictured above). He is one of the best guys there and he loves his job. And, being sponsored by Nike is something everyone wants. That was another big reason I chose Kentucky." – Wesley Woodyard, Denver Broncos

UK Football has an exclusive contract with Nike to provide the most up-to-date uniforms and practice gear. Equipment managers Tom Kalinowski and Aaron Wasson are specialists in the fitting of equipment to maximize comfort and safety of the players.

Coach of the Future
JOKER PHILLIPS

Recruits who sign with Kentucky don't have to worry what will happen if there is a coaching change while they are at UK – they already know. With an eye toward the future, UK has appointed Joker Phillips as the next head coach of the Wildcats following the eventual retirement of Rich Brooks.

What They're Saying About Joker Phillips ...

"Phillips' credentials certainly scream head coach. He's been an outstanding position coach, ace recruiter, master motivator and his (2006-07) offenses at UK have been a pair of the best in school history. [His] ability to connect with players, their families and coaches may be his greatest strength."

— Matt May, The Cats' Pause

"Even when he was recruiting me, and when I got here as a freshman, he seemed like a head coach. He shows that just in the way he goes about his business."

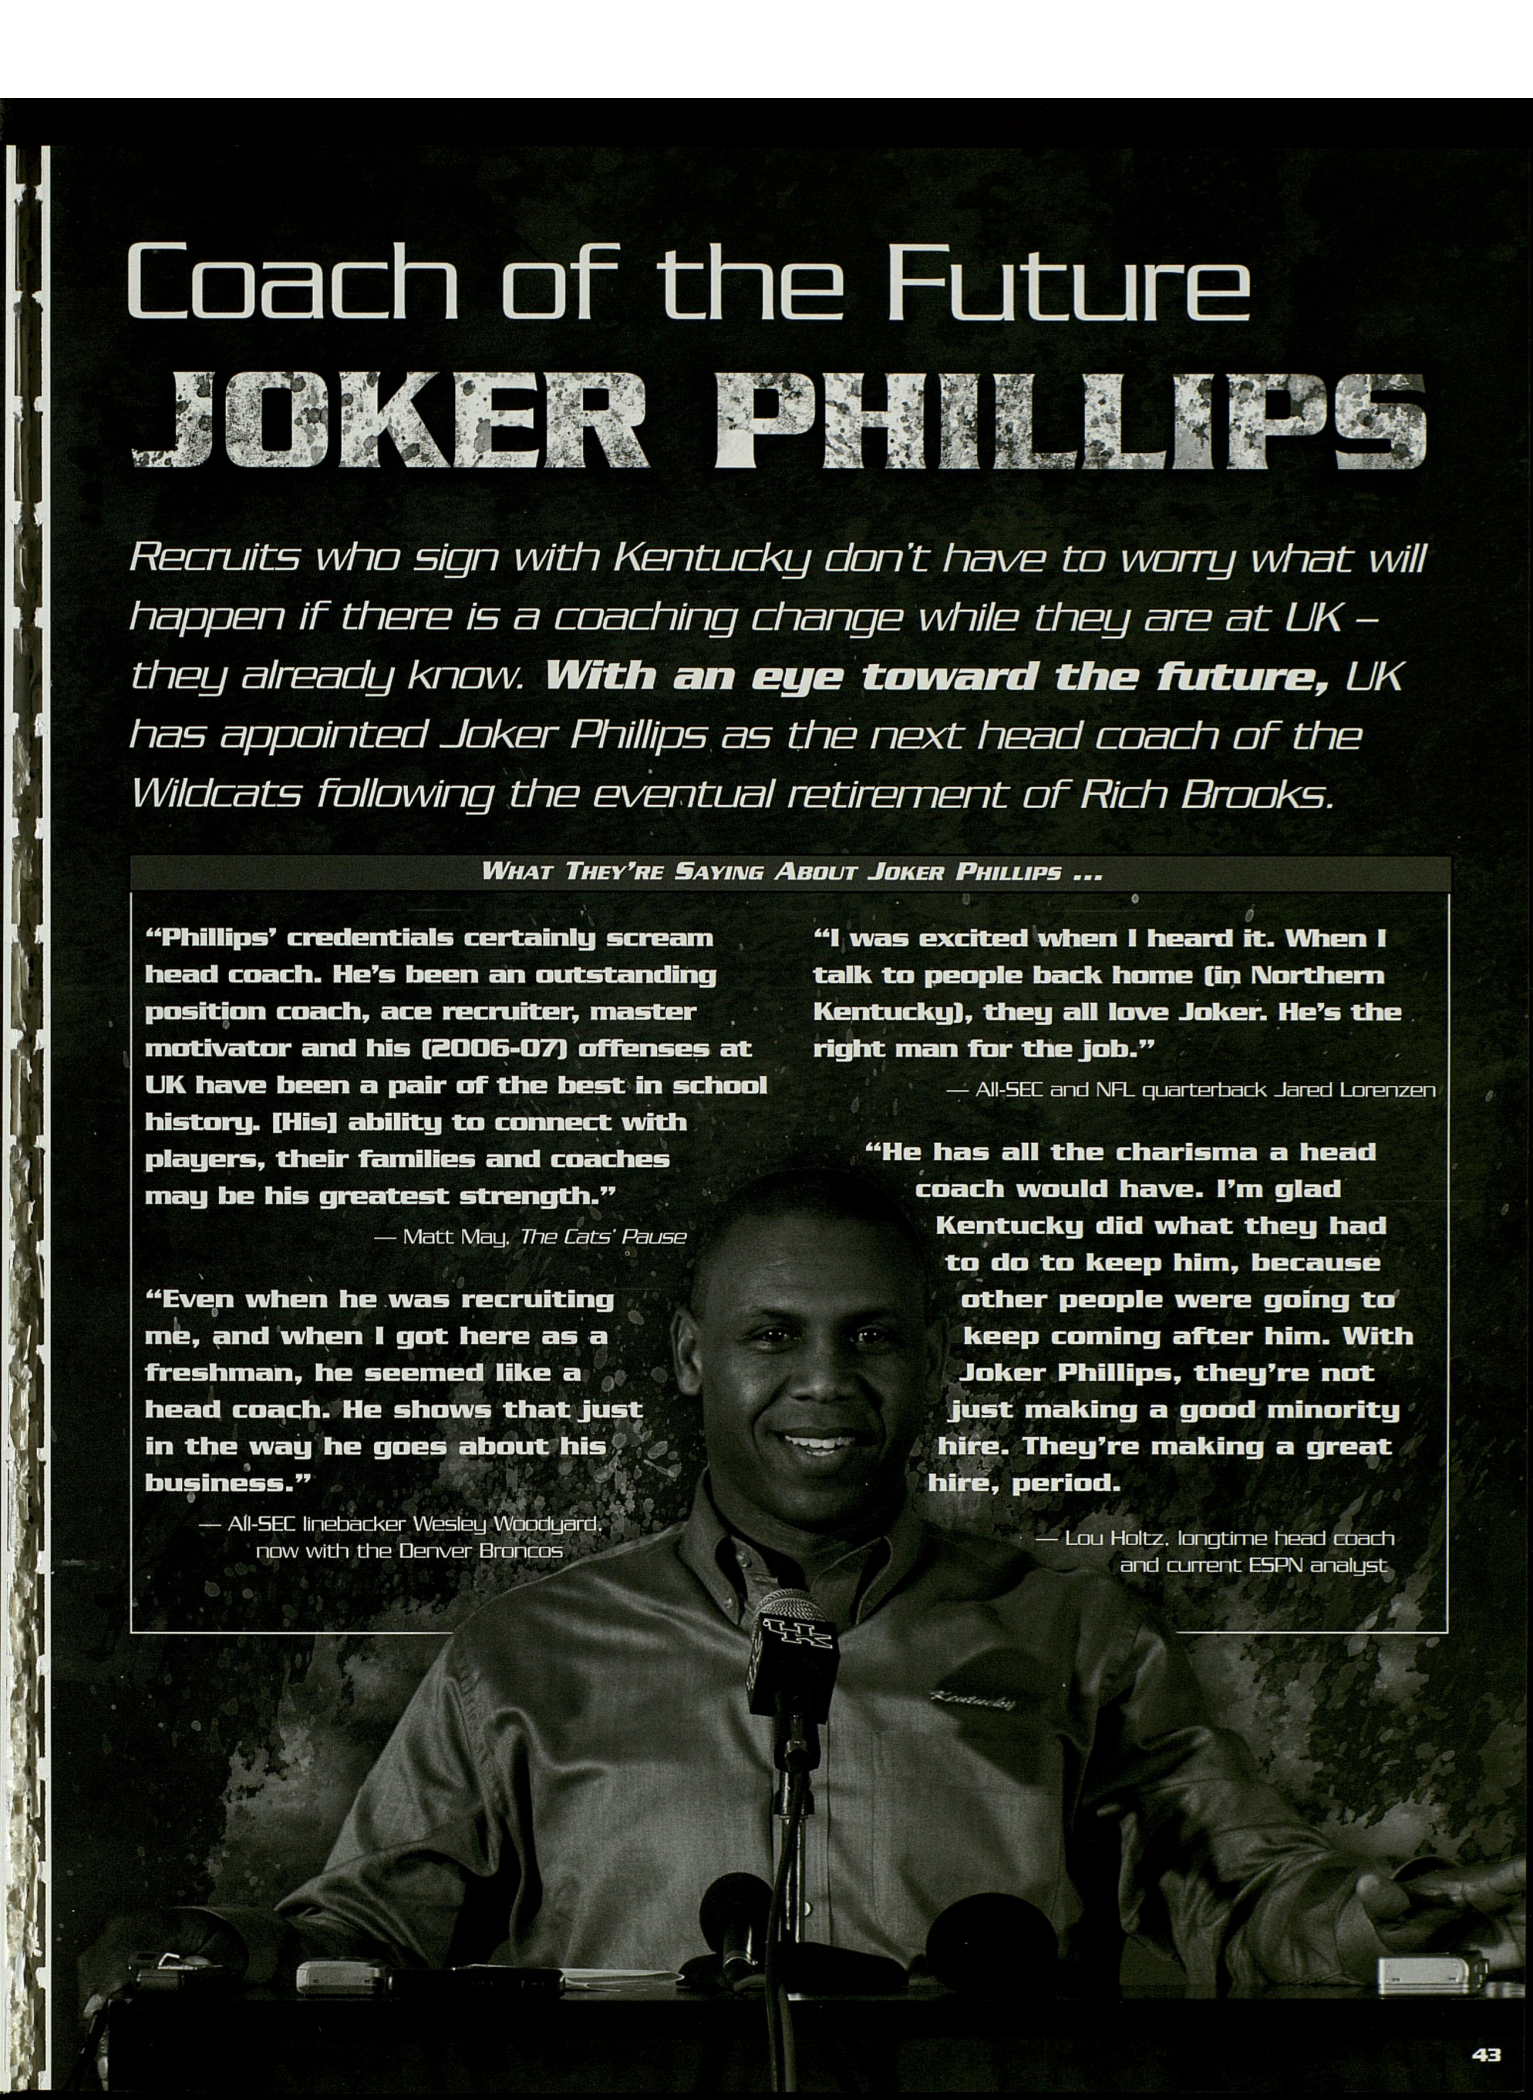

— All-SEC linebacker Wesley Woodyard, now with the Denver Broncos

"I was excited when I heard it. When I talk to people back home (in Northern Kentucky), they all love Joker. He's the right man for the job."

— All-SEC and NFL quarterback Jared Lorenzen

"He has all the charisma a head coach would have. I'm glad Kentucky did what they had to do to keep him, because other people were going to keep coming after him. With Joker Phillips, they're not just making a good minority hire. They're making a great hire, period.

— Lou Holtz, longtime head coach and current ESPN analyst

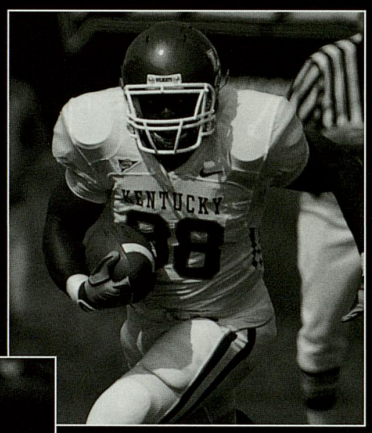

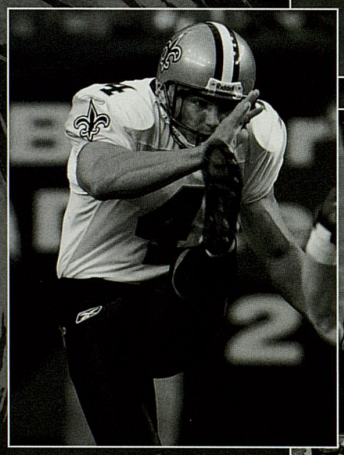

Walk-ons Succeed AT KENTUCKY

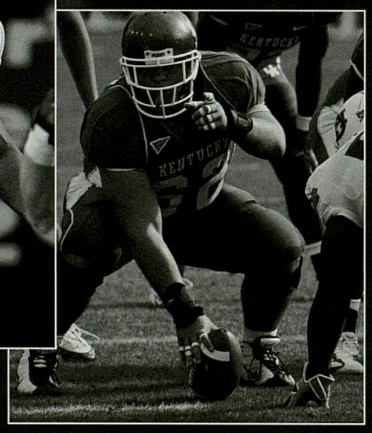

Walk-ons have a history of success at Kentucky, with many of them earning starting roles, national awards and full scholarships. UK has had a walk-on in the regular starting line-up every year since Rich Brooks became head coach.

Former Wildcat tight end James Whalen was a first-team All-American and went on to play for the Dallas Cowboys.

John Conner (top right), Kentucky's current starting full-back, came to UK as a walk-on. He has scored five touchdowns in his Wildcat career. Center Matt McCutchan (bottom right) was one of five walk-ons in the starting lineup when the Wildcats defeated Clemson in the 2006 Music City Bowl. Former walk-on Glenn Pakulak (below) was the National Special Teams Player of the Year at UK and now punts for the New Orleans Saints.

"You can go to Kentucky, work hard, and even as a walk-on you can get your shot to play. Not a lot of programs allow that to happen."

— Glenn Pakulak, punter for the New Orleans Saints

From Coach Rich Brooks

"Obviously, it is of the utmost importance that our coaches, athletic staff, and fans stay compliant to the NCAA rules involving recruiting. The NCAA rules do not allow fans to call, write, send electronic messages or make in-person contact with prospective student-athletes, or their families, on behalf of the University of Kentucky.

"It is permissible for you to recommend a prospective student-athlete to us. If you would like to recommend a player, please write or call the UK football office (Nutter Training Center, Lexington, Ky., 40506, phone 859-257-3611). Give us the player's name and the high school he attends. The coaching staff will take it from there. Please do not contact the player, his family or his coaches on our behalf. Thank you for your cooperation."

The NCAA Rules and You

Compliance with NCAA rules is of the highest priority for our athletics program and institution. As a member of the NCAA, the University of Kentucky is responsible for the actions of its boosters and fans. Even the best-intentioned action on your part may be a violation of NCAA rules. Please contact the UK Compliance Office if you have any questions regarding what is permissible. We encourage our boosters and fans to "Ask Before You Act."

Inquiries should be directed to Sandra Bell, UK Senior Associate Athletics Director, at this address:

Sandra Bell, Compliance Office
University of Kentucky Athletics
Joe Craft Center
338 Lexington Avenue
Lexington, KY 40506-0604
Phone: (859) 257-6482
E-mail: sbell@uky.edu

If, for any reason, you are uncomfortable reporting a violation or a concern directly to the athletics department, you may use the "ComplyCat" hotline. The ComplyCat hotline can be reached by dialing 1-877-898-6072.

Representatives of Athletic Interests — "Boosters"

A representative of Kentucky's athletic interests, or "booster," is anyone who:

- Has ever participated in or is currently a member of the various athletic department support groups;
- Has purchased season tickets;
- Has made a donation to the athletics program;
- Has assisted or been requested (by the athletics department staff) to assist in the recruitment of prospects; examples -- writing, texting or e-mailing a prospect; participating in a chat room with a prospect; posting on a prospect's personal website, such as MySpace or Facebook; talking to a prospect on the phone or in person;
- Has helped arrange summer and/or vacation employment for student-athletes or provided benefits to student-athletes; or
- Has been involved, in any way, in the promotion of UK's athletic program.

Recruiting

Only UK coaches and athletic department staff may be involved in the recruiting process. Boosters are prohibited from contacting a prospective student-athlete or members of his/her family by telephone, letter, text, e-mail, personal website posts, or in person. This prohibition remains in effect until the prospect attends class as a full-time student in a fall or spring term at UK.

Prospective Student-Athlete

In the sport of football, a prospective student-athlete is a person who has started classes for the ninth grade.

Extra Benefits

Prospective and current student-athletes may not receive extra benefits. An extra benefit is any special arrangement to provide a student-athlete or his/her family a benefit not authorized by NCAA legislation. Extra benefits would include, but are not limited to:

- Cash or loans in any amount;
- Co-signing or arranging a loan;
- Gifts or free services (such as airline ticket, restaurant meal, etc.);
- Use of an automobile;
- Rent-free or reduced-cost housing;
- Money for, or a guarantee of, bail or bond;
- Employment of a student-athlete at a rate higher than the wages paid for similar work; and
- Payment to a student-athlete for work not performed.

Your commitment to helping the University of Kentucky comply with the letter and spirit of the rules of the NCAA and SEC is greatly appreciated.

2009 Wildcat SEASON outlook

KEEP MAKING HISTORY

As a veteran football coach, Rich Brooks has a keen sense of history. He and his Wildcats have made plenty of it the last three years, winning bowl games in three consecutive seasons for the first time ever at the University of Kentucky. There have been several other milestones as well, but rather than savor the success, Brooks would rather look at the tasks ahead.

"There are a lot of issues going into the season," Brooks said. "One major improvement will need to come from offensive production. Scoring more points comes when you convert third down. Our third-down offense was not good enough last year, so we need to improve that.

"On defense, there is always concern when you lose players (seven starters, three key reserves) who perform at a high level. Replacing (punter/kicker) Tim Masthay will be the biggest question mark for us. How do you replace a guy who put the opponent's field position so far back?"

In addition to these specific goals, the coach also has his eye on the big picture.

"We want to make Kentucky football a consistent year-to-year winner," Brooks summarized. "We still need to prove that we can compete at the highest level of the Southeastern Conference. We have proved that at times in the last three years, but certainly not consistently."

The quest for that consistency resumes in August with the beginning of preseason practice.

KEEP MOVING FORWARD

The Kentucky offense had to be virtually rebuilt a year ago after massive graduation losses from the 2007 squad. The '08 attack was a mostly inexperienced crew, but the coming season should reflect the benefits of those growing pains.

Always pushing, though, Brooks' lofty goals won't be met by the simple maturation process.

"The experience gained by young and first-time players will make us a better offensive team, but the normal progression will not be enough," Brooks said. "We need to step it up a bit to get back to our 2006 and 2007 levels of production."

After adjusting the offense to fit the youthful personnel of a year ago, Brooks and offensive chief Joker Phillips believe the Cats can return to a more wide-open version of the pro-style attack that set multiple school records in '06 and '07.

Junior quarterback Mike Hartline did a good job in leading the green offensive troops last year. He threw for 1,666 yards and nine touchdowns during the season and was the offensive most outstanding player of UK's victory in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. Sophomore Randall Cobb showed playmaking ability as a passer, runner and pass catcher a year ago, accounting for 1,055 yards and 11 touchdowns. He is expected to see occasional action at quarterback this season in a "Wildcat" formation, but the coaches would like to keep his dynamic talents at wide receiver the majority of the time. Junior Will Fidler continues to show improvement as the backup QB. A pair of highly regarded freshmen, Ryan Mossakowski and Morgan Newton, will join the competition in August.

In addition to Cobb, there will be intense competition at the wideouts between junior Kyrus Lanxter, sophomores Gene McCaskill, Aaron Boyd and Matt Roark, and talented redshirt freshman E.J. Fields. Junior-college transfer Chris Matthews hopes to make an immediate impact.

The tight end position is in good hands with a trio of seniors, T.C. Drake, Maurice Grinter and Ross Bogue.

Speedster Alfonso Smith (313 yards last season) and hard-running Moncell Allen (202 yards) return at tailback. Another speedster, Derrick Locke (303 yards), should be back after missing the second half of last season because of injury.

"Alfonso and Moncell had good springs," Brooks said. "Hopefuly, the return of a healthy Derrick Locke will bring more explosiveness to the offense."

Senior John Conner, a punishing blocker and hard-nosed runner, is a valuable asset at fullback. Senior A.J. Nance is a reliable backup.

Departed All-SEC performer Garry Williams will be missed in the offensive line, but otherwise much experience is available up front, led by returning senior starters Zipp Duncan, center Jorge Gonzalez and right tackle Justin Jeffries. Duncan, a two-year regular at guard, has moved into Williams' old spot at left tackle.

Former starter Christian Johnson, also a senior, is back at left guard after a redshirt season. Sophomores Stuart Hines and Jake Lanefski are having an excellent battle at right guard.

Brad Durham and Billy Joe Murphy provide veteran depth at the tackles. In addition, five redshirt freshmen give plenty of choices and competition in the line.

"Early on (in August), it will be important to look at the new players, whether it be at quarterback, receiver or running back, and see who may be ready to step in to help with offensive production," Brooks said. "Overall, we need to make sure we are moving the ball more consistently and scoring more points."

KEEP 'EM STOPPED

The Kentucky defense has made significant progress over the last two seasons, as the appointment of defensive coordinator Steve Brown coincided with the maturing of a young group.

UK has improved from 118th in the nation in total defense (2006) to 67th (2007) to 40th last year. In the same time frame, UK has gone from 99th to 80th to 35th in the nation in scoring defense.

However, there is much rebuilding to do on defense, where seven starters and three capable reserves have departed.

"I would hope that we can continue to progress with young players," Brooks said. "I hope we can do a better job of tackling and giving up fewer big plays. If we can do that, and the offense can help us by converting third downs, and we can get off the field on defensive third downs, then we will see the defensive production continue to improve.

"We have a good nucleus returning," said Brooks, referring primarily to two Wildcats who considered the National Football League draft but chose to stay at UK. "The return of (cornerback) Trevard Lindley and (linebacker) Micah Johnson soothes the transition from what could have been a catastrophic loss, to one that is middle of the road."

The defense will undoubtedly be much younger this season, but the inexperience doesn't bother the coach.

"It really doesn't," Brooks said, "because some players have emerged and shown they are capable to play at this level. As we add the young players to the returning veteran players, we have a good mix. The speed factor continues to be impressive."

Senior tackle Corey Peters will lead the charge up front. Peters has improved his big-play performance each season and has 16 tackles for loss and 7.5 sacks in his career.

Junior Ricky Lumpkin is the heir apparent at the tackle slot vacated by All-SEC honoree Myron Pryor. Shane McCord provides veteran help at tackle and junior-college transfer Mark Crawford made a good impression in the spring.

The defensive end slots will be very young, as no end on the roster has made a tackle in a college game. Young talents Chandler Burden, Collins Ukwu and Taylor Wyndham will be in the mix for playing time and the coaches are hopeful that junior-college transfer DeQuin Evans will be ready to contribute quickly.

Johnson, who earned Coaches' All-SEC honors last season with 93 tackles, will be counted on to anchor the defense at middle linebacker. Well-seasoned senior Sam Maxwell, who has 58 career tackles, appears ready for a full-time starting role. He can play either outside linebacker.

Developing another starter at outside linebacker and additional linebacker depth is a priority. Sophomore Danny Trevathan made a strong showing in the spring. Senior Mikhail Mabry, junior Jacob Dufrene, sophomore Ronnie Sneed and redshirt freshman William Johnson are also in the picture.

Lindley was a second-team All-American and consensus first-team All-SEC choice last year. Entering his fourth year as a starter, he totals nine interceptions and a UK career-record 34 pass breakups. He had four picks and 11 PBU last season.

Sophomore Randall Burden has come on strong at the other corner, but will be challenged by the return of former starter Paul Warford, back after a redshirt season.

There is excellent competition and depth at the safeties with seniors Calvin Harrison and Ashton Cobb and sophomores Winston Guy, Matt Lentz, Taiedo Smith and Greg Wilson.

KEEP KICKING

There is an enormous hole on special teams following the departure of Tim Masthay, who played a vastly underrated role in field position as an All-SEC punter and booming kickoff man.

Sophomore Ryan Tydlacka is likely to take over the punting duties. He averaged 37.1 yards last season as the team's "pooch" punter, showing a deft ability to drop the ball inside the opponent's 20-yard line.

Senior kicker Lones Seiber is the No. 2 scorer in school history with 232 points, including 38 of 63 field goals during his career. He will resume his competition with Tydlacka, who made 3-of-6 field goals last year, including a 51-yarder.

The potential for kick returns is exciting. Winston Guy and Derrick Locke averaged 29.1 and 28.5 yards per kickoff return, respectively. Randall Cobb averaged 8.4 yards per punt return.

KEEP REACHING FOR MORE

In speaking with Brooks, one gets the sense of a restless urgency – so much to be done before the fray reaches peak intensity in September – as he eyes the potential prizes that could be won.

"I will be very disappointed if we do not achieve bowl eligibility for the fourth year in a row," Brooks said. "I am looking for much bigger things in the future of Kentucky football."

CAT SCRATCHES

BACK-TO-BACK-TO-BACK SUCCESS

Kentucky won seven games last season, including a victory over East Carolina in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, after posting identical eight-win campaigns and championships of the Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl in both the 2006 and 2007 seasons.

The success marked a series of milestones for the Wildcats:

- First time in school history to win bowl games in three consecutive seasons
- First time to win at least seven games in three consecutive seasons in 58 years, since 1949-51
- UK is one of only 11 NCAA teams that have won bowl games the last three seasons
- UK is one of only five SEC teams to go to bowl games each of the last three years, joining Alabama, Florida, Georgia and LSU

COACHING STAFF ADJUSTMENTS

The Kentucky coaching staff had no changes in personnel from last season, although three assistants had adjustments in title or responsibility over the winter.

Joker Phillips' title changed from offensive coordinator to head coach of the offense. He will continue to have overall responsibility for the offense and call the plays on game day. (Phillips also is Kentucky's head coach of the future when Rich Brooks retires.)

Quarterbacks coach Randy Sanders adds the title of offensive coordinator. He will continue to work closely with Phillips in the development of the offensive system and weekly game plan.

In being named offensive coordinator, Sanders has given up his duty of recruiting coordinator. That responsibility has been added to linebackers coach Chuck Smith.

Senior kicker Lones Seiber is the No. 2 scorer in school history with 232 points.

DEFENSIVE NUMBERS IMPROVED

Kentucky's defensive yardage and points allowed have shown significant reductions during the last two seasons. The advancement coincided with the maturing of a young group of players along with the appointment of Steve Brown as defensive coordinator in 2007.

The Wildcats' total defense is the nation's most improved over the last two years, reducing yardage allowed by 121 yards per game during that span. UK moved up from 118th in the nation in 2006, to 67th in 2007, to 40th last year.

UK's scoring defense improved from 99th to 80th to 35th in the nation during the same time span.

CATS CALL DELAY OF (NFL) GAME

Cornerback Trevard Lindley and linebacker Micah Johnson went through the National Football League evaluation process in January, but both elected to return to Kentucky for their senior seasons.

Lindley was a second-team All-American and consensus first-team All-Southeastern Conference pick last year, notching four interceptions and 11 pass breakups.

Johnson was a first-team Coaches All-SEC choice in 2008. Despite missing two and one-half games because of injury, he garnered 93 tackles and led the team with 13 tackles for loss.

WELCOME BACK

Two former starters who redshirted last season, senior offensive guard Christian Johnson and junior cornerback Paul Warford, have returned for 2009.

Johnson, the brother of UK All-SEC linebacker Micah Johnson, has totaled 36 games and 15 starting assignments in his career. He is battling to regain his position at left guard.

Warford was a starting corner in 2007, charting two interceptions and nine pass breakups. He is among several contenders to succeed the graduated David Jones.

COBB'S JOBS

Randall Cobb got immediate playing time last year as a freshman quarterback, wide receiver and punt returner. By the end of the regular season, he was the only player in the nation who was his team's starting quarterback and regular punt returner.

The coaching staff would like to play him primarily as a wide receiver in 2009, with spot duty at QB in a "Wildcat" formation when the offense needs a change of pace. At any rate, the shifty Cobb is likely to earn extensive action this fall.

Mike Hartline started most of last season at quarterback, completing 55.3 percent of his passes for 1,666 yards and nine touchdowns. He was named UK's Most Outstanding Offensive Player in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

QB competition also will include junior Will Fidler and two freshman signees, Ryan Mossakowski and Morgan Newton.

KENTUCKY WILDCATS

POSITION CHANGES WORKED WELL

The Kentucky coaching staff made several changes during spring practice which seemed to work well:

* Senior Zipp Duncan, a two-year starter at offensive guard, has a new home at left tackle.
* Senior Sam Maxwell, a part-time starter at strongside linebacker during his career, worked at weakside linebacker in the spring and now can play either position.
* Sophomore Winston Guy moved from cornerback to free safety during the spring and showed significant potential at his new position.

INJURY UPDATE

Tailback Derrick Locke hopes to be at full speed in August after recovering from a knee injury sustained last season. Locke played in seven games a year ago, rushing for 303 yards, catching 23 passes for 195 yards and averaging 28.5 yards on kickoff returns.

Starting right tackle Justin Jeffries (shoulder), cornerback Paul Warford (foot) and linebacker Brandon Thurmond (knee) look to be ready for full participation after sitting out the spring because of injuries.

"FOUGHT LIKE WILDCATS"

This year marks the 100th anniversary of the birth of the University of Kentucky athletic nickname, the "Wildcats."

On Oct. 9, 1909, the Kentucky football team won at Illinois, 6-2. In chapel service the morning after the game, Commandant Philip Carbusier, then head of the military department, told a group of students that the team "fought like wildcats."

The nickname grew in popularity and was officially adopted by the football team in 1911.

SCHEDULE NOTES

Kentucky's always challenging schedule includes six teams that played in bowl games last year, along with Eastern Kentucky, a participant in the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision playoffs.

Kentucky has an interesting twist to open the season. The Wildcats will kick off the campaign Sept. 5 against Miami (Ohio) at a neutral site, Cincinnati's Paul Brown Stadium ... The Wildcats' home opener is Sept. 19 against in-state rival Louisville … The non-conference schedule also features home dates against Louisiana-Monroe and Eastern Kentucky … The Cats last played ULM in 2006, coming from behind in the fourth quarter to win a 42-40 nailbiter … Nearby foe EKU was the Ohio Valley Conference champion last season. The Cats last hosted the Colonels in 2007.

Kentucky begins the Southeastern Conference slate Sept. 26 at home against defending national champion Florida, followed by a home date against the Gators' opponent in the 2008 SEC Championship Game, Alabama … UK's first true road game is Oct. 10 at South Carolina … Auburn replaces Arkansas as the rotating opponent on the SEC schedule. The Wildcats' last game at Auburn was in 2004 … The Homecoming game is on Halloween vs. Mississippi State.

Opponents with new coaches this year include Mike Haywood at Miami, Gene Chizik at Auburn, Dan Mullen at Mississippi State and Lane Kiffin at Tennessee.

CATSCELLANEOUS

- Kentucky enters the 2009 season with a streak of 14 consecutive non-conference wins. It is the nation's second-longest active streak behind LSU. It is the longest for UK since a 17-game non-conference win stretch from 1954-60.
- Just six years into his term at Kentucky, Coach Rich Brooks already ranks fifth on the UK career win list.
- With Joker Phillips and Steve Brown as offensive and defensive coordinators, Kentucky is the first school in Southeastern Conference history to have African-Americans in those roles at the same time.
- Since mid-season 2006, Kentucky has won 20 of its last 32 games. Included in that stretch are nine games in which UK has come from behind in the fourth quarter to win the game.
- Much of Kentucky's recent success has come from winning close games. The Wildcats are 9-4 in the last 13 games decided by six points or less.
- Kentucky has had a first-team Academic All-American each of the last four years. UK and Penn State are the only teams that accomplished that feat from 2005-08.
- Senior kicker Lones Seiber has 232 points as a Wildcat, just 14 away from the UK career record set by Joey Worley in 1984-87.
- Senior cornerback Trevard Lindley already holds the UK career record for pass breakups with 34 and will look to add to that total in the coming season.
- The Kentucky cheerleaders have won an unprecedented 17 national championships, including 13 of the last 15, at the annual Universal Cheerleaders Association competition.

HEAD COACH
RICH BROOKS

Coach Rich Brooks has become a maker of milestones for the University of Kentucky football program.

By advancing to the 2006 and '07 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl and the 2009 AutoZone Liberty Bowl, Brooks joined Paul "Bear" Bryant as the only two coaches in school history to go to post-season games in three consecutive seasons. Brooks scored an unprecedented feat as the first Kentucky coach to win three straight bowls. He also extended UK's non-conference win streak to 14 in a row, currently the nation's second-longest active string.

Simply going to post-season play last season was a remarkable achievement for the Wildcats, who had massive graduation departures from 2007, then sustained major losses to key personnel during the 2008 campaign. Despite the obstacles, the team reflected Brooks' hard-nosed attitude and fought its way to a third-straight bowl game.

The 2008 success added to the milestones achieved in the 2007 season:

- Kentucky had back-to-back eight-win seasons for the first time since 1976-77.
- The Wildcats reached the nation's top-10 rankings for the first time in 30 years.
- UK's thrilling triple-overtime win over eventual national champion Louisiana State was the team's first triumph over a No. 1-ranked team in 43 years.
- Victories over LSU and then-No. 9 Louisville marked the first time in 43 years that the Wildcats knocked off two top-10 teams in the same season.

The accomplishments were a continuation of the 2006 campaign, when Kentucky went 8-5, marking UK's most wins and first bowl victory in 22 years.

Just six years after beginning to rebuild a troubled program, Brooks already is on the top-five list for victories among the 35 men who have been head coach at Kentucky.

Brooks took charge of Wildcat football on Dec. 30, 2002, inheriting a team burdened by the effects of a severe NCAA probation. He began by attracting a top-notch, diverse group of coaches. The UK staff is well-respected in the industry, having received numerous offers from professional and college teams, and features a broad range of experience in pro, college, and high-school football.

Naming Joker Phillips and Steve Brown as offensive and defensive coordinators made UK the first school in Southeastern Conference history to have African-Americans in those positions at the same time.

On the field, the effects of patient coaching and tireless recruiting have become apparent. Following the '06 season, Brooks was recognized for his performance by the Kentucky chapter of the National Football League Players Association Alumni. The NFL alumni gave him the Blanton Collier Award in recognition of his on-the-field accomplishments and off-the-field steadiness that were hallmarks of Collier, the former UK and Cleveland Browns head coach. Brooks was a finalist for the 2007 Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year Award.

The Kentucky offense has made numerous achievements in recent seasons. Under Brooks, Kentucky has had a 3,000-yard passer twice (Andre' Woodson, fourth player in school history to do so), a 1,000-yard rusher twice (Rafael Little, sixth player in school history to do so), and 1,000-yard receivers (Keenan Burton and Steve Johnson, third and fourth players in school history).

After the aforementioned players graduated in 2007, the maturing Wildcat defense set the tone in 2008. Over the last three seasons, UK has improved from 118th in the nation in total defense (2006) to 67th (2007) to 40th last year. In the same time frame, UK has gone from 99th to 80th to 35th in the nation in scoring defense.

Special teams often have been a bright spot under Brooks' term at UK. For example, the Wildcats fielded the nation's top overall punt and kickoff return teams in 2005 and 2006. School and national records have been set for blocked kicks. Kentucky kickers have set scoring records.

Brooks' teams also have posted accomplishments in the classroom. UK has had a first-team Academic All-American for four consecutive seasons, with only one other school in the nation able to make that claim. In 2005, UK led the nation by having three players win a place on the Academic All-America squad.

The team's accomplishments and Brooks' vision for Kentucky football are readily apparent to potential recruits. UK's 2009 class of signees is regarded by national and local observers as the school's best in many years.

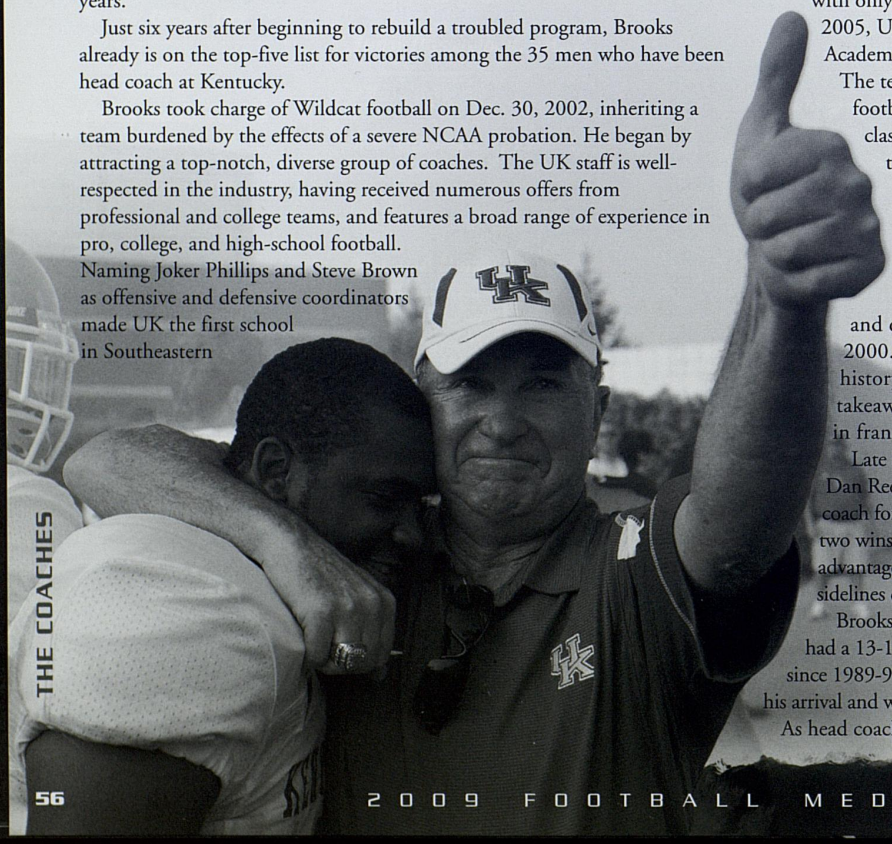

In addition to his coaching and recruiting, Brooks has made numerous public and charitable appearances while at UK and has been very accessible to the media in order to communicate his plan for Wildcat football.

Prior to Kentucky, Brooks was the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons from 1997-2000. The 1998 campaign was the most successful in Falcons' history. With Brooks' defense generating a league-leading 44 takeaways, Atlanta advanced to its only Super Bowl appearance in franchise history.

Late in the '98 season, Brooks took over the team when head coach Dan Reeves developed health problems. Brooks was the interim head coach for the final two games of the regular season, and the Falcons' two wins clinched the division championship and home field advantage in the divisional round of the playoffs. Reeves returned to the sidelines during the playoff games.

Brooks was head coach of the St. Louis Rams in 1995-96. The Rams had a 13-19 record in those two seasons, the team's best two-year stretch since 1989-90. The Rams won only nine games in the two years prior to his arrival and won just nine games in the two years following his departure.

As head coach at the University of Oregon from 1977-94, Brooks won more games than any previous coach in school history. After taking over a downtrodden program in '77, the milestones came steadily:

- The Ducks' 6-5 record in 1979 was the first winning mark since the 1970 season and Brooks was named Pacific-10 Conference Coach of the Year and the District IX Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association; the school also set a record for average home attendance, the first of four times that mark was shattered under Brooks' leadership;
- Back-to-back winning seasons in 1979-80 was the first time that feat had been accomplished in 16 years;
- Oregon reached the national rankings during the 1987 season for the first time in 17 years;
- Oregon defeated Tulsa in the 1989 Independence Bowl, the Ducks' first bowl berth and eight-win season in 26 years;
- Oregon followed with a bid to the 1990 Freedom Bowl, the first back-to-back bowl berths in school history;
- UO returned to the Independence Bowl in 1992;
- The 1994 season was Brooks' best; the Ducks captured nine wins, the most since 1948; won the school's first outright Pacific-10 championship and played in the Rose Bowl for the first time in 37 seasons; Brooks won the Bear Bryant Award as the National Coach of the Year by the Football Writers Association of America, and became the first coach in school history to take the Ducks to four bowl games.

Additional achievements at Oregon included Brooks' sterling 14-3-1 record against arch-rival Oregon State in the annual game known as the "Civil War." Oregon also broke various attendance records in six consecutive years from 1987-92, including marks for total home attendance, average home attendance, and single-game attendance. His teams advanced to four bowls in the last six seasons.

Brooks coached many of the top players in school history. When he left the school after the '94 season, he had coached the top three passers in school history, including future NFL performers Chris Miller and Bill Musgrave, and also produced the school's all-time leading rusher. Brooks' Oregon teams featured five first-team All-Americans, 32 first-team all-conference performers, two first-team Academic All-Americans, two winners of the Morris Trophy (emblematic of the top lineman in the Pac-10), and 39 NFL draft choices.

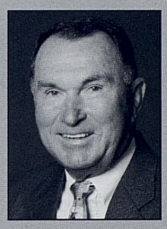

Brooks also had strong coaching staffs at Oregon. Three former assistants, Mike Bellotti, Bob Toledo, and Bill Maskill, went on to head coaching jobs on the collegiate level and several of Brooks' assistants ascended to jobs in the NFL ranks.

In addition to his guidance of the Ducks, Brooks served as a head coach and/or assistant coach in several post-season all-star games, including the East-West Shrine Game, the Blue-Gray Classic, the Senior Bowl, the Hula Bowl, and the Japan Bowl. While at Kentucky, he's added the IntaJuice North-South All-Star Game to that list.

Brooks' combination of administrative skills and coaching acumen prompted the Oregon administration to offer him the dual role of director of athletics and head football coach, which he performed from 1992-94. In recognition of his numerous contributions to the school, Oregon named its football field "Brooks Field" in his honor in 1995.

And, it's worth noting that the programs Brooks built were on solid foundations for the future. After his departure from Oregon, the Ducks posted nine straight winning seasons. Three years after leaving St. Louis, the Rams won the Super Bowl, with then-coach Dick Vermeil giving Brooks credit for helping begin the process to the title.

What They've Written About Rich Brooks ...

"... the school's startling success in football is all about Brooks."
— John Adams, Knoxville News-Sentinel

"Brooks can flat-out coach."
— Ivan Maisel, ESPN.com

"Rich Brooks took over a program on life support and made it relevant again."
— Cory McCartney, SI.com

"OK, we're taking nominations for the most underrated coach in the SEC the last few seasons. Rich Brooks gets my vote ..."
— Chris Low, ESPN.com

"Brooks has consistently comported himself with honor in how he's dealt with the players and assistant coaches who have entrusted their futures to him. Brooks hasn't put his own fate ahead of the long-term best interests of his players."
— Mark Story, Lexington Herald-Leader

"With Brooks, the phrase 'built to last' is always right there, just below the surface. It describes who he is and what he believes in."
— Bart Wright, Greenville (S.C.) News

"He's not a gimmick guy. He's a balance guy. Let's run it. Let's throw it. Better yet, when the opportunity arises, let's go for the throat. Let's throw it down the field."
— John Clay, Lexington Herald-Leader

"For the class he has shown under criticism, and for the grace he has shown in victory, Kentucky has no finer sportsman this year than Rich Brooks ... [Brooks has] restored a sense of pride, credibility and respect."
— Eric Crawford, Louisville Courier-Journal, on his choice for the 2006 Kentucky Sportsman of the Year

Born in Forest, Calif., Brooks competed in football, basketball, baseball, track, and boxing at Nevada Union High School in Grass Valley, Calif.

He began his collegiate career at Oregon State from 1959-62 under Coach Tommy Prothro, considered one of the top offensive strategists in the history of football and the man Brooks credits as having the greatest influence on his coaching philosophy.

Brooks was a single-wing tailback on the freshman team, then played defensive back for three years on the varsity. He was a part-time starter as a defensive back as a sophomore, then became a regular starting DB the next two seasons. As a senior, he nabbed five interceptions for a team that went 9-2 and won the Liberty Bowl. He also was a reserve quarterback in addition to playing in the secondary.

He completed his bachelor's degree in 1963 and stayed in Corvallis to work on his master's degree and help coach the OSU freshman team. After completing his master's, Brooks became an assistant coach in 1964 at Norte Del Rio High School in Sacramento, Calif.

In 1965, he returned to his alma mater as an assistant coach. He guided the defensive ends and later the defensive line for a total of five seasons. During that span, OSU had two final rankings in the nation's top 15, finished second in the Pac-8, and Brooks coached All-Americans Jess Lewis and Jon Sandstrom.

Brooks rejoined Prothro in 1970 as linebackers coach at UCLA, then moved with Prothro to the NFL's Los Angeles Rams in 1971-72 as special teams and fundamentals coach. Brooks returned to Oregon State as defensive coordinator in 1973, then went back to the NFL in 1974-75 as defensive backs and special teams coach for the San Francisco 49ers. He coached linebackers at UCLA in 1976, helping the Bruins to a top-20 final ranking, before accepting the head coaching position at Oregon shortly after the season.

Brooks met his wife, Karen, when he coached her powder-puff football team when they were students at Oregon State. They have four adult children—daughters Kasey and Kerri and sons Denny and Brady—and five grandchildren.

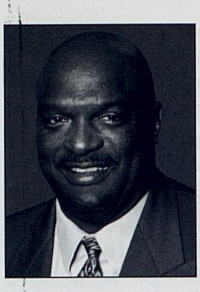

When not with football or his family, Brooks is an avid fisherman and also enjoys golf.

RUNNING BACKS COACH

LARRY BRINSON

Larry Brinson, a former National Football League running back with a track record of coaching accomplishments, is in his third season with the Kentucky Wildcats.

Brinson had a 1,000-yard rusher in 2007, his inaugural year on the UK staff, as Rafael Little surpassed the millenium mark. Tailback Tony Dixon also had a career-high 411 yards and freshman Derrick Locke made key contributions en route to 521 yards.

As a team, Kentucky rushed for more than 2,000 yards, the first time the Wildcats reached that level since 1995.

Last season, tailbacks Tony Dixon, Alfonso Smith and Moncell Allen posted career-high rushing totals and Locke was on his way to a career-best season when he was sidelined by injury.

Brinson came to Kentucky after having coached running backs for 23 years on the staff of Ken Hatfield at Air Force, Arkansas, Clemson, and Rice. Hatfield's teams were usually running-oriented on offense, putting Brinson's players on center stage.

After helping Air Force win the 1983 Independence Bowl in his first season as an assistant coach, Brinson went to Arkansas. The Razorbacks played in a bowl game all six seasons with Brinson on staff, including two appearances in the Cotton Bowl after winning the 1988 and '89 Southwest Conference championships. Arkansas also played in one Orange Bowl, two Liberty Bowls, and the Holiday Bowl during his time in Fayetteville.

Arkansas was ranked in the nation's top 20 in rushing all six years that Brinson was there. One of his top Razorback rushers was Barry Foster, who went on to lead the National Football League in rushing in 1992.

Brinson moved to Clemson in 1990, going to the Hall of Fame, Citrus, and Peach Bowls during his four seasons there. Clemson ranked ninth, eighth, and sixth nationally in rushing in the 1991-93 seasons.

Brinson went with Hatfield to Rice in 1994 and coached 12 years with the Owls. Rice had some dominating ground attacks during those years, often finishing in the nation's top-10 rushing teams.

Rice won a share of the 1994 Southwest Conference championship as the Owls ranked ninth in the nation in rushing. The Owls led the nation in rushing in 2004, ranked second in 1997, 2001, and 2003, and were third in the country in 1996. The school record was set in 1997 when the Owls ran for 332.7 yards per game and also rushed for 306.5 yards per game while leading the nation in 2004. His backs earned all-conference honors four times during his term there.

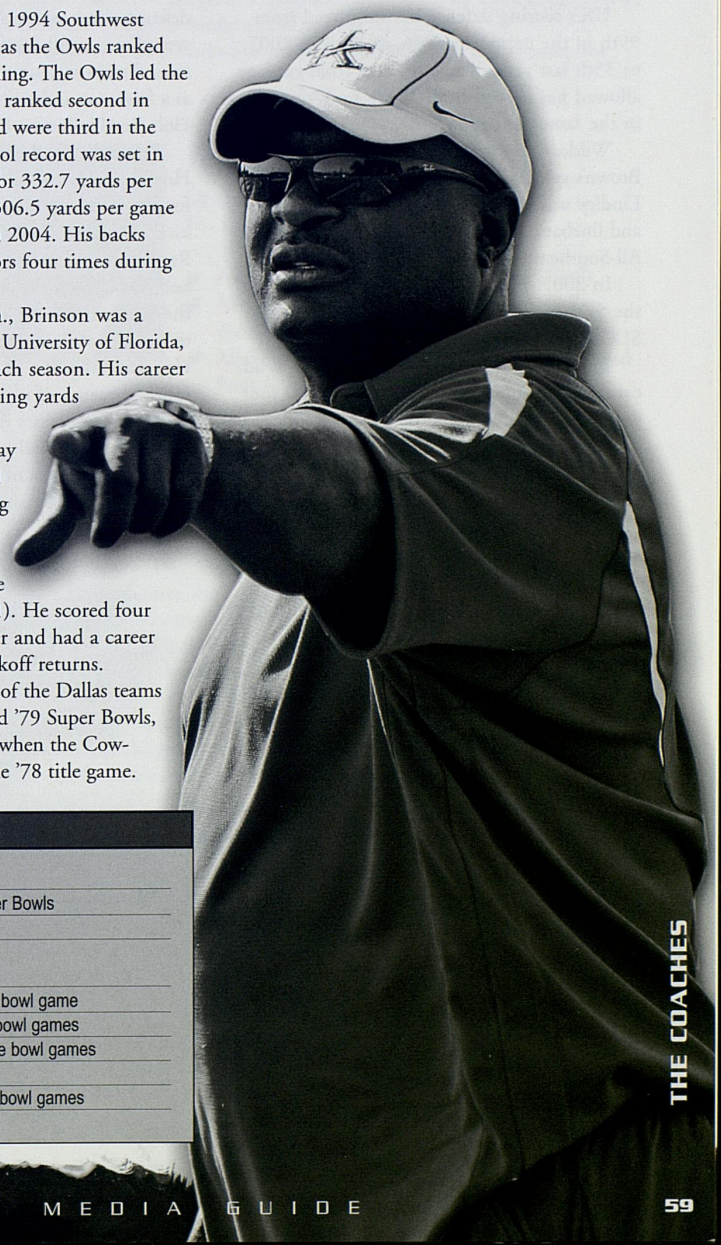

A native of Miami, Fla., Brinson was a four-year letterman at the University of Florida, playing in a bowl game each season. His career totals featured 1,105 rushing yards and nine touchdowns.

Brinson went on to play five years in the National Football League, including three seasons with the Dallas Cowboys (1977-79) and two years with the Seattle Seahawks (1980-81). He scored four touchdowns as a pro player and had a career average of 21 yards on kickoff returns.

Brinson was a member of the Dallas teams that played in the 1978 and '79 Super Bowls, including a championship when the Cowboys defeated Denver in the '78 title game.

All totaled, Brinson has extensive post-season and championship experience. As a player, he participated in four bowl games, three NFL playoffs, and two Super Bowls (including one championship). As a coach, he has been involved in 12 bowl games and three conference championships.

Brinson has a son, Kody, and daughters Ashly and Olivia.

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

STEVE BROWN

The Kentucky defense has made noticeable improvements in the two seasons that Steve Brown has been the Kentucky defensive coordinator.

By following Brown's basic plan — put players in position to attack and play as aggressively as possible — the Wildcats have significantly decreased points and yardage allowed.

UK's scoring defense has improved from 99th in the nation in 2006, to 80th in 2007, to 35th last year. The Wildcats' total yardage allowed has moved from 118th to 67th to 40th in the same time span.

Wildcat players have flourished under Brown's system. Last season, cornerback Trevard Lindley was named second-team All-America and linebacker Micah Johnson was a first-team All-Southeastern Conference choice.

In 2007, linebacker Wesley Woodyard led the SEC in tackles and was a consensus All-SEC selection.

Brown is in his seventh season on the Wildcat staff. He guided the UK secondary for four years until Coach Rich Brooks tabbed him as the defensive coordinator.

As a 14-year playing and coaching veteran of the National Football League, and as a former player and coach under Brooks, Brown had been an obvious choice to join the Kentucky coaching staff in 2003.

Brown's acumen has been apparent during his term with the Wildcats.

Individually, safety Muhammad Abdullah was named second-team All-Southeastern Conference for three consecutive years (2003-05).

Under Brown's tutelage, cornerback Antoine Huffman set the Kentucky career record for pass breakups (now broken by Lindley) and three UK defensive backs were selected for a Freshman All-SEC team.

In 2006, safety Marcus McClinton was one of the nation's leaders in generating turnovers with four interceptions and five fumbles caused. And, Lindley emerged as a top-flight cover corner, earning first-team Freshman All-America accolades.

Brooks and Brown first became acquainted during the collegiate recruiting process, when Brown went to Oregon to play for the Ducks. He was a four-year letterman from 1979-82 as a defensive back and kick returner. He was a four-year choice as All-Pacific 10, first team as a senior, second team as a junior, and honorable mention as a freshman and sophomore. He played in the Hula Bowl following his senior year.

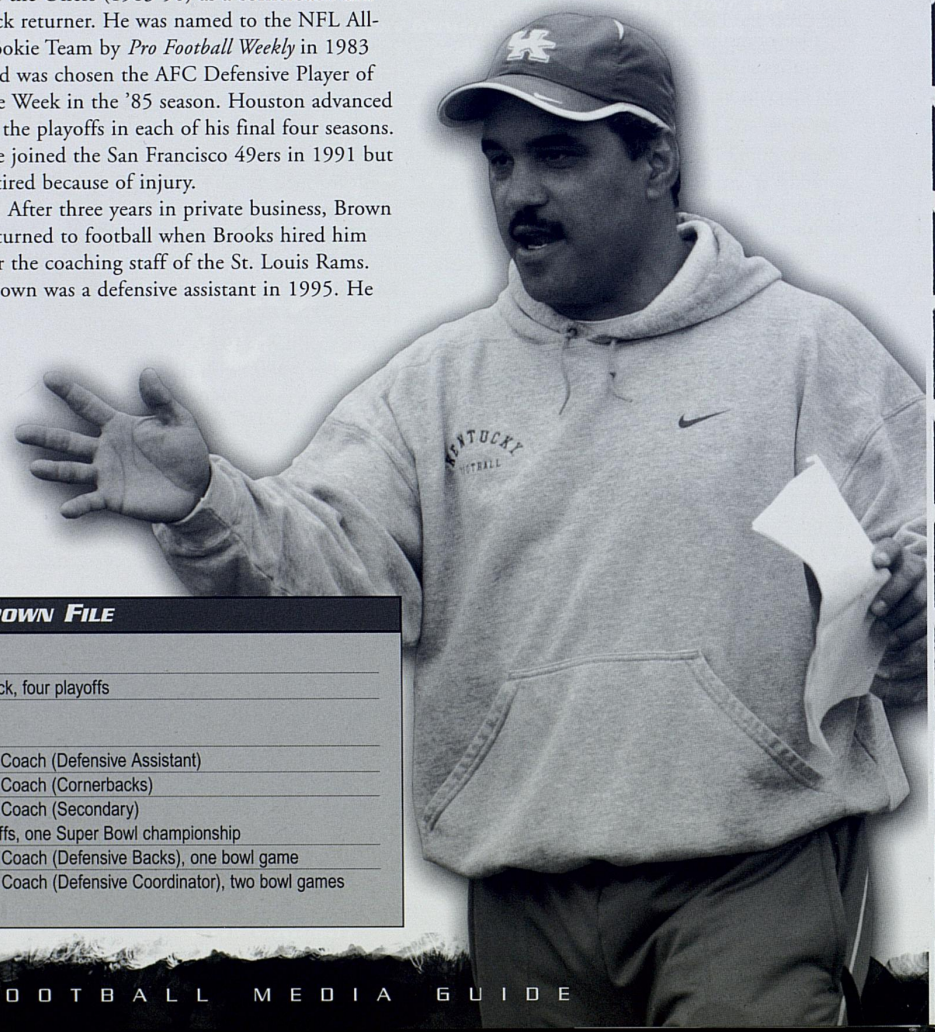

Brown was a third-round draft pick by the Houston Oilers in 1983. He played eight years for the Oilers (1983-90) as a cornerback and kick returner. He was named to the NFL All-Rookie Team by Pro Football Weekly in 1983 and was chosen the AFC Defensive Player of the Week in the '85 season. Houston advanced to the playoffs in each of his final four seasons. He joined the San Francisco 49ers in 1991 but retired because of injury.

After three years in private business, Brown returned to football when Brooks hired him for the coaching staff of the St. Louis Rams. Brown was a defensive assistant in 1995. He was promoted to cornerbacks coach in 1996-97, then was given responsibility for the entire secondary from 1998-2000.

In the 1999 season, the Rams intercepted 29 passes, the fourth-highest total in franchise history, and Todd Lyght became the first Rams defensive back to earn a Pro Bowl berth in 10 years. The season was capped with a 23-16 win over Tennessee in the 2000 Super Bowl. St. Louis also qualified for the playoffs following the 2000 season.

When Brooks called Brown again, this time to join the coaching staff at Kentucky, Brown was eager to rejoin his former coach.

Brown and his wife, Michele, have two sons, Cole and Jared. Brown graduated from Oregon with a degree in English literature.

OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

JIMMY HEGGINS

Coach Jimm Heggins' offensive lines have played a key role in the recent resurgence of Kentucky football.

Last season, the UK O-Line ranked fourth in the nation in fewest sacks allowed and 11th in the country in fewest tackles for loss allowed. And, despite massive graduation losses from the 2007 offense, Kentucky went to the AutoZone Liberty Bowl and won a third-straight bowl game.

It was a continuation of the success enjoyed by Heggins, who arrived at Kentucky in 2005. With the help of Heggins' forward wall, UK improved its scoring offense and total offense each of his first three years on the staff. The Wildcats won a pair of Music City Bowl championships in 2006-07.

One of his best coaching jobs came in 2006, as injuries sidelined nine linemen during the season. Heggins had to field eight different starting lineups during the bowl campaign, with six different players starting at the right guard position.

Heggins' group will have plenty of competition this year with the return of three starters, six additional lettermen and five redshirts.

Heggins came to UK from Florida State, where he enjoyed great success during his 19 years with the Seminoles.

"The players that Jimmy coached at Florida State speak to the type of coach he is. When you have that many All-Americans and National Football League players, you know you have someone who can coach sound, fundamental football," Brooks said.

At FSU, Heggins coached nose guards (1986-89), tight ends (1990-91), and tackles and tight ends (1992-93) before taking over all of the offensive line in 1994. In his 19 years at FSU, the Seminoles went 195-38-2, won The Associated Press national championship in 1993 and 1999, and went to 19 consecutive bowl games, including six Sugar Bowls, five Orange Bowls, three Fiesta Bowls, two Gator Bowls, and one All-America Bowl, Blockbuster Bowl, and Cotton Bowl. Since joining the Atlantic Coast Conference in 1992, the Seminoles have won 11 league championships.

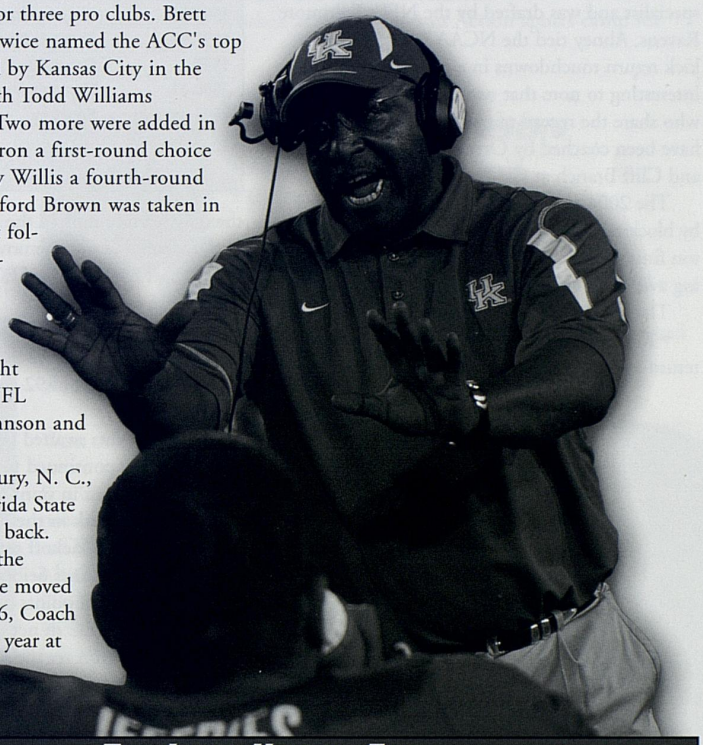

After Heggins was named offensive line coach in 1994, Florida State O-Linemen earned All-America honors 12 times, including eight first-team All-America choices. His offensive linemen garnered 18 first-team All-ACC selections and 12 second-team All-ACC picks.

Heggins coached 10 Seminole offensive linemen who were selected in the National Football League draft. Seattle selected Walter Jones with the No. 6 overall pick in 1997 and he started for the Seahawks as a rookie. Tra Thomas was selected with the 11th pick of the 1999 draft by Philadelphia. Both have become All-Pros. In fact, FSU's 1996 offensive line produced three NFL players with Clay Shiver starting at center for the Dallas Cowboys in 1997 and Todd Fordham having played for three pro clubs. Brett Williams, who was twice named the ACC's top blocker, was selected by Kansas City in the 2003 draft along with Todd Williams (Tennessee Titans). Two more were added in 2005, with Alex Barron a first-round choice by St. Louis and Ray Willis a fourth-round pick by Seattle. Milford Brown was taken in a supplemental draft following the 2002 season. In addition to his offensive line protégés, Heggins coached a pair of tight ends who enjoyed NFL careers in Reggie Johnson and Lonnie Johnson.

A native of Salisbury, N. C., Heggins went to Florida State in 1974 as a running back. After two seasons in the offensive backfield, he moved to nose guard in 1976, Coach Bobby Bowden's first year at FSU, and was named the team's most outstanding defensive player.

After graduation, Heggins became an assistant football coach and head track and field coach at South Miami (Fla.) High School. He began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at East Carolina and Florida State. He coached the running backs at Western Illinois and Eastern Michigan, and the defensive ends at Southwestern Louisiana, before returning to his alma mater.

He has two daughters, Andrea and Lauren.

ASST. HEAD COACH/SPECIAL TEAMS & TIGHT ENDS COACH

STEVE ORTMAYER

Steve Ortmayer has multiple duties on the Kentucky football staff, including assistant head coach, special teams coordinator, and tight ends coach.

Ortmayer's special teams have posted numerous accomplishments in his six seasons.

In 2003, Derek Abney led the SEC in kickoff returns, earned All-America honors as a return specialist and was drafted by the NFL's Baltimore Ravens. Abney tied the NCAA record for most kick return touchdowns in a career (8) and it is interesting to note that two of the three players who share the record of eight kick return TDs have been coached by Ortmayer—Abney at UK and Cliff Branch at Colorado.

The 2004 season saw UK set a school record by blocking nine opponent kicks. Anthony Thornton finished his career with the third-highest punting average in school history.

The accomplishments were abundant in 2005:

• Kentucky broke the school records for kickoff return average and punt return average, and was the only team to rank in the nation's top five in both kickoff and punt returns;

• Rafael Little led the SEC in punt returns and all-purpose yardage;

• kicker Taylor Begley concluded his reliable career as the No. 3 scorer in school history and a school-record streak of 92 consecutive extra points; and

• the Wildcats swatted six opponent kicks.

Milestones continued to accrue in 2006, as UK led the nation in punt returns and was the only school to rank in the nation's top 10 in both punt and kickoff returns.

In 2007, Lones Seiber set the school record for most points by a kicker in a season, UK led the SEC in net kickoff coverage and Keenan Burton set the SEC career record for kickoff return average (min. 50 returns).

At tight end, Jacob Tamme earned first-team All-SEC honors in 2006 and '07 and was drafted by the Indianapolis Colts.

Last year, UK again led the SEC in kickoff returns and net kickoff coverage, ranking third nationally in KO returns. Tim Masthay was the first-team All-SEC punter after leading the league in that category.

In 2009, Ortmayer must replace the valuable Masthay, who handled punting, kickoffs and placekick holding, along with a new punt returner and placekick snapper.

Ortmayer has plenty of experience to handle those tasks. His 25 years in the NFL includes 18 seasons as special teams coach and 19 years as director of football operations. Obviously, he held dual roles during much of his time in the NFL, a testament to his energy, efficiency, and organizational ability.

Ortmayer spent the majority of his NFL career with the Oakland/Los Angeles Raiders and coached the special teams for the 1981 and 1984 Super Bowl champions. He also coached special teams with the Kansas City Chiefs and Green Bay Packers, and held administrative positions with the San Diego Chargers and St. Louis Rams. It was in St. Louis that Brooks and Ortmayer worked together for the first time.

Ortmayer's special teams skill was best displayed in 1991 when his Raiders squad was ranked first in the NFL by the Dallas Morning News, using a statistical analysis of 17 special teams categories.

Ortmayer's collegiate experience began in 1967 at the University of Colorado. He moved to Georgia Tech in 1974 before beginning his career in pro football.

All totaled, Ortmayer has participated in eight college bowl games and eight NFL playoffs.

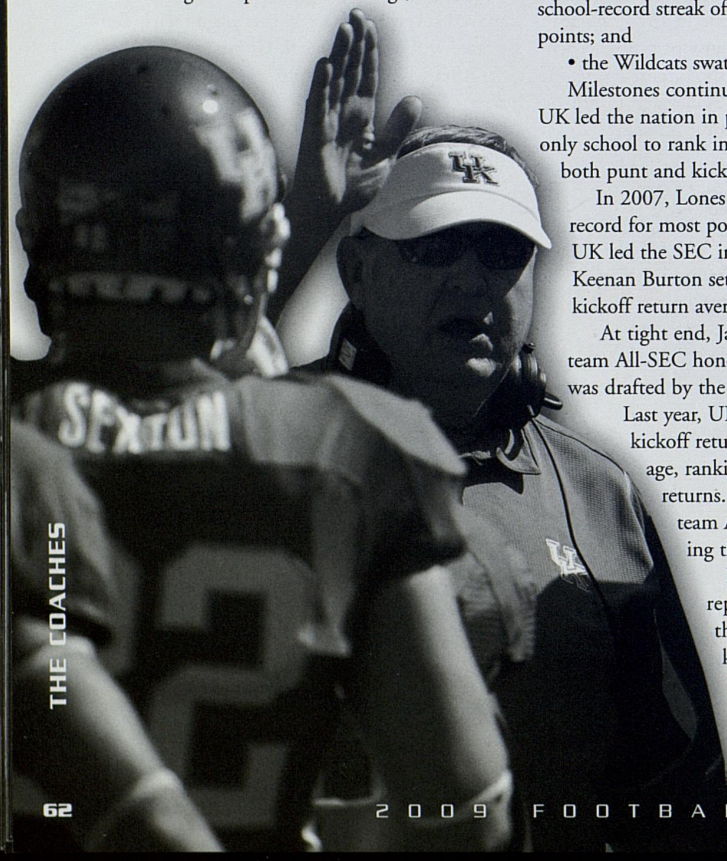

Born in Painesville, Ohio, Ortmayer grew up in Nashville, Tenn., and Dallas, Tex. He played one season at Vanderbilt before transferring to La Verne (Calif.) College and playing three seasons there.

Ortmayer and his wife, Merylee, have two sons, Beau and Cody.

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

RICK PETRI

A coach with a long history of developing outstanding players, Rick Petri enters his fifth season as the defensive line coach at Kentucky.

Taking over a group that was thin in numbers and experience when he arrived in 2005, Petri (pronounced "PE-tree") has patiently built the Wildcat D-Line. The results are showing, as Petri was a finalist last year for the national Defensive Line Coach of the Year award by FootballScoop.com.

Individually, end Jeremy Jarmon received All-Southeastern Conference recognition the last two seasons and tackle Myron Pryor was an All-SEC performer last year.

These are only some of the list of highly accomplished players Petri has coached during his career, which includes 16 years in the Southeastern Conference.

Petri came to UK from Ole Miss, where he coached the defensive tackles for six seasons. He joined the Rebel staff in Dec. 1998, in time to help coach the team in the Independence Bowl. The Rebels were bowl-eligible for the next five seasons and played in four more bowl games, capped by a 10-3 record and Cotton Bowl victory in the 2003 season. Two of Petri's tackles, Kendrick Clancy and Jesse Mitchell, earned first-team All-Southeastern Conference honors. Clancy was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the third round of the 2000 National Football League Draft and has been in the league for nine seasons.

A native of St. Louis, Mo., Petri graduated from the University of Missouri-Rolla. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Pittsburg State in 1977-78. He went to Arkansas State in 1979, where he worked as a part-time coach with the offensive line. He was elevated to full-time assistant in 1980 and coached the defensive line until 1988.

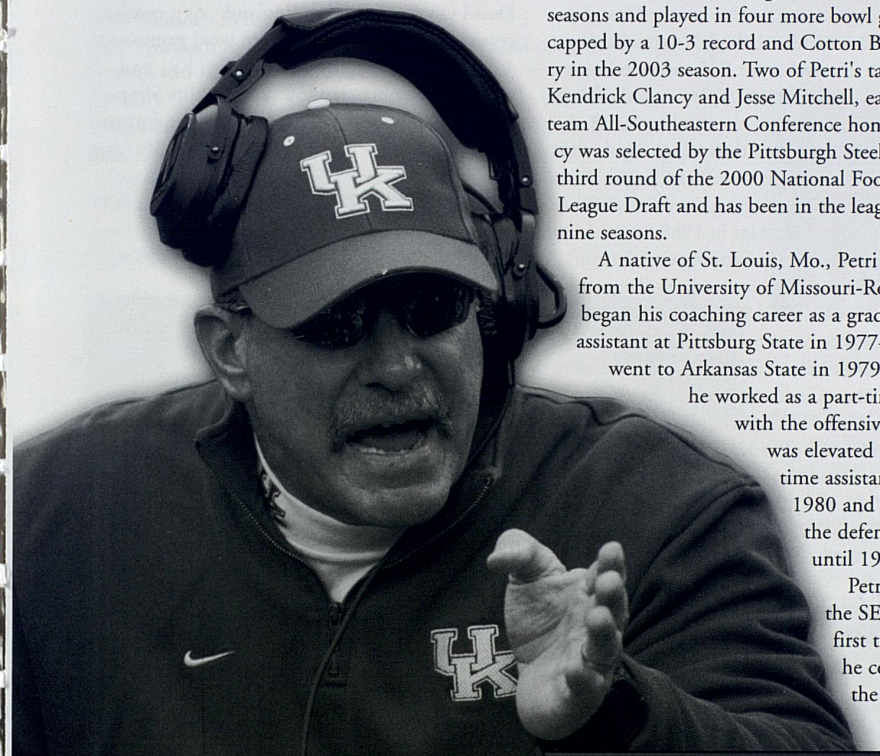

Petri entered the SEC for the first time when he coached the Ole Miss defensive line from 1989-91. The Rebels advanced to two bowl games and Petri mentored defensive tackle Kelvin Pritchett, a first-round NFL draft pick who enjoyed a 14-year career with the Detroit Lions and Jacksonville Jaguars.

After a year coaching the defensive tackles at Louisiana Tech, Petri went to Miami (Fla.) for three seasons with the Hurricanes. Petri coached consensus All-America and Lombardi Award-winning lineman Warren Sapp and helped guide the 1994 Hurricane defense which led the nation in scoring defense and total defense. In addition, Petri coached All-America defensive end Kevin Patrick and defensive end Kenard Lang, who was named Big East Rookie of the Year. Miami played in the Fiesta Bowl and Orange Bowl during his time there.

While with the Hurricanes, Petri coached three future NFL first-round draft choices — Sapp (Tampa Bay, 1995), Lang (Washington, 1997), and Kenny Holmes (Houston, 1997). Sapp, of course, was a multi-year Pro Bowl selection and was the 1999 NFL Defensive Player of the Year. Lang was a nine-year NFL vet with the Denver Broncos, Cleveland Browns, and Washington Redskins. Holmes played several seasons in the league with Tennessee and the New York Giants.

After Miami, Petri took over defensive-end responsibilities at South Carolina from 1996-98. He developed John Abraham, a first-round pick by the New York Jets who spent five years with that club and is now with Atlanta.

Petri and his wife, Marsha, have two sons, Brad and Kory.

HEAD COACH OF THE OFFENSE/WIDE RECEIVERS COACH

JOKER PHILLIPS

Joker Phillips, offensive head coach and wide receivers coach at Kentucky, also is the head coach of the future at his alma mater.

That announcement was made in January, 2008, as Phillips agreed to become the Wildcat head coach following the eventual retirement of Rich Brooks. Phillips' success as offensive coordinator, frequent interest from other schools and his popularity in the Commonwealth prompted Brooks to recommend the move to UK officials.

When Phillips became coordinator in 2005, UK's total offense and scoring average went up three straight seasons, culminating in a school-record 475 points in 2007.

After massive graduation losses from the '07 team, Phillips rebuilt an inexperienced attack. Despite the youth, the Wildcats still managed to finish in the top half of the SEC in scoring offense last season while helping the Wildcats win a third-consecutive bowl game.

Since coming back to his alma mater in 2003, Phillips has coached some of the most productive wide receivers in Kentucky history, including Derek Abney, Keenan Burton, Steve Johnson and Dicky Lyons. Burton (St. Louis) and Johnson (Buffalo) are currently in the National Football League.

In addition to coaching, Phillips is extremely involved in recruiting. He served as UK's recruiting coordinator in 2003-04, giving up that post after taking on the offensive coordinator role. He has been identified as one of the nation's top recruiters by SI.com and Rivals.com.

Phillips has gained additional coaching experience by working post-season all-star games. He was the winning head coach in the 2005 Magnolia Classic. Following the 2006 season, he was an assistant on the winning squad in the IntaJuice North-South All-Star Game.

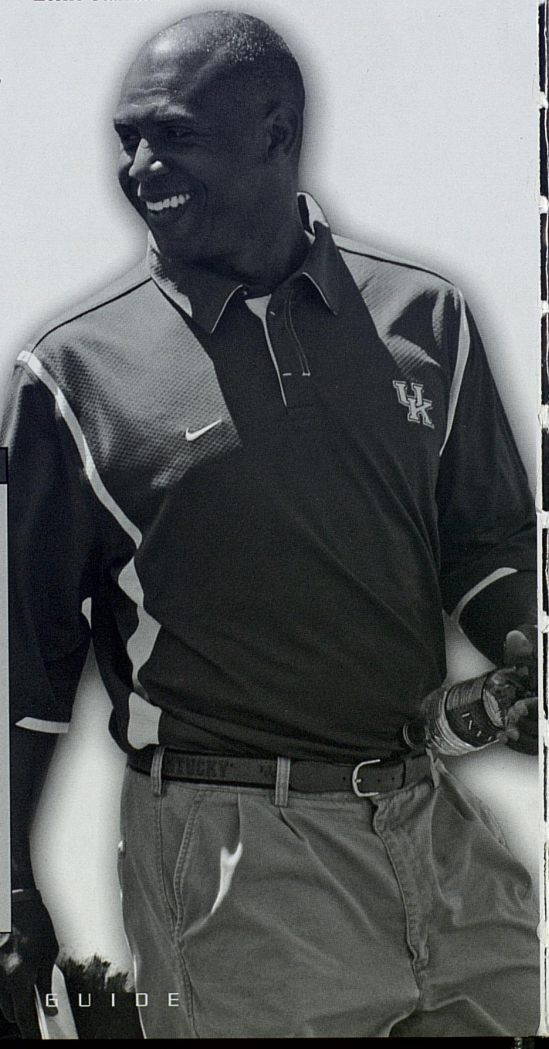

Phillips is a familiar face around Kentucky football. He played at UK from 1981-84 and was on the football staff from 1988-96. As a player, Phillips helped lead the Wildcats to appearances in the Hall of Fame Bowl in his junior and senior seasons. He finished his playing days tied for fifth on the UK career receiving list with 75 catches for 935 yards and nine touchdowns. He went on to play a total of three professional seasons with the Washington Redskins of the National Football League and with Toronto of the Canadian Football League.

Phillips began his coaching career at his alma mater as a graduate assistant in 1988-89. In 1990, he served as an assistant recruiting coordinator. He was a full-time assistant coach, in charge of the wide receivers, from 1991-96. In 1991, under Phillips' guidance, wide receiver Neal Clark broke the school single-season record for pass receptions with 47 catches. Clark's mark stood for six years. Another protégé, Kio Sanford, set three Southeastern Conference records for kickoff returns in 1994. Craig Yeast, who became the SEC's career leader in receptions, played his first two seasons under Phillips in 1995-96.

Phillips returned to UK from South Carolina, where he coached the wide receivers during the 2002 season. Gamecock newcomer Troy Williamson had an outstanding rookie campaign, earning consensus SEC All-Freshman honors. He went on to be the No. 7 pick in the first round of the 2005 NFL Draft.

Phillips also has coached at Cincinnati (1997-98), Minnesota (1999-2000), and Notre Dame (2001). At Minnesota, Phillips guided first-team All-Big 10 wide receiver Ron Johnson, who went on to play for the Baltimore Ravens. Although he spent only one season with the Fighting Irish, Phillips placed two wideouts in the NFL, Javin Hunter with Baltimore and David Givens with New England. As a coach, seven of his teams have gone to bowl games.

Phillips is a native of Franklin, Ky., and was a three-sport standout at Franklin-Simpson High School. He is married to the former Leslie Stamatis.

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS COACH

RANDY SANDERS

Randy Sanders certainly has had an eventful three years with the Kentucky football team.

As quarterbacks coach, Sanders' guidance helped Andre' Woodson develop from an inconsistent performer into one of the top quarterbacks in the nation. Seemingly overnight, Woodson blossomed as a player and a field general, leading the Wildcats to some of the most memorable victories in school history, including a pair of Music City Bowl championships.

Along the way, Woodson led the Southeastern Conference in passing yardage, total offense, and touchdown passes, including an SEC record of 40 TD tosses in 2007. He earned All-SEC honors both seasons and was drafted by the NFL's New York Giants.

Sanders went back to square one last season. He did a masterful job of melding the inexperienced talents of then-sophomore Mike Hartline and freshman Randall Cobb into a capable tandem. The QB duo led the Wildcats to a third-consecutive postseason victory in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

During the season, Hartline earned SEC Player of the Week honors and was Kentucky's Offensive Most Valuable Player of the Liberty Bowl while Cobb was named to the Freshman All-SEC team.

In addition to coaching the quarterbacks, Sanders will have additional duties this year as offensive coordinator. In that role, he will work with Joker Phillips in the development and guidance of the Wildcat attack.

In taking on the task, Sanders gave up his responsibility of recruiting coordinator, which he handled in 2008.

Prior to Kentucky, Sanders spent 22 seasons (1984-2005) as a player and coach at the University of Tennessee, including the last seven as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He was named offensive coordinator after the 1998 regular season when David Cutcliffe became head coach at Ole Miss. Sanders' first game as offensive coordinator was the 1999 Fiesta Bowl when the Volunteers defeated Florida State for the national championship.

A native of Morristown, Tenn., Sanders was a quarterback on the Tennessee football team from 1984-88. He earned four varsity letters and was a four-year member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll. He remained with the team as a volunteer assistant coach, helping coach the quarterbacks, in 1989-90 under Coach Johnny Majors.

Sanders was promoted to full-time assistant coach in 1991, working with the wide receivers in 1991-92. New head coach Phillip Fulmer named him running backs coach and recruiting coordinator in 1993. Sanders stayed in those roles through '98, recruiting the players that took Tennessee to the national title, before moving to offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach following Cutcliffe's departure.

While Sanders was on the Tennessee coaching staff, the Vols had a record of 162-46-2 (.776) and won four SEC championships and six Eastern Division crowns in addition to their national title. The Vols played in 16 bowl games, including four Citrus Bowls, three Fiesta Bowls, three Cotton Bowls, two Peach Bowls, and once each in the Sugar, Orange, Hall of Fame, and Gator bowls.

Sanders and his wife, Cathy, have two daughters, Kelly and Kari.

LINEBACKERS COACH/RECRUITING COORDINATOR

CHUCK SMITH

Chuck Smith enters his fifth season as the linebackers coach at his alma mater.

Upon his arrival, Smith inherited a very young set of linebackers, a group whose development has mirrored the progress of the team.

In 2005, Wesley Woodyard ranked fourth in the Southeastern Conference in tackles and was named honorable-mention All-SEC. Braxton Kelley was an immediate hit at middle linebacker and earned Freshman All-America accolades.

In '06, Woodyard was second in the league in tackles and earned Coaches' All-SEC honors. Micah Johnson was chosen for the SEC All-Freshman squad.

The 2007 season saw Woodyard lead the league in tackles, earn consensus first-team All-SEC honors and finish his career as one of the top-10 tacklers in school history.

Kelley, Johnson and Johnny Williams continued the productivity last season. Johnson was chosen first-team Coaches' All-SEC and Kelley garnered second-team all-league laurels.

The linebackers helped Kentucky advance to — and win — two consecutive Music City Bowls and a Liberty Bowl, the first time in school history that UK has won postseason games following three-straight seasons.

And, despite the departure of Woodyard (Denver), Kelley (Denver), and Williams (Jacksonville) to the National Football League, Johnson and fellow senior Sam Maxwell return to spearhead the Cat linebackers in 2009.

Smith added the duties of recruiting coordinator in February. Smith's organizational abilities, football smarts and likeable personality make him a natural for the responsibility. He also serves as director of the UK summer camps.

Success is familiar territory for Smith, who is one of the most accomplished coaches in the history of Kentucky high school football. He came to UK from Boyle County High School in Danville, where he compiled a 142-33 record in 13 seasons. He built Boyle County into a juggernaut in the Class AA and Class AAA ranks, winning five consecutive state championships—a state record—from 1999-2003.

Smith's teams won the Class AA titles in 1999 and 2000 with perfect 15-0 records. Reclassification changed Boyle County to Class AAA in 2001, but that was no obstacle for the Rebels, as they won the crown with another 15-0 mark. The winning streak ended at 47 games (second-longest in Kentucky history) during the 2002 regular season, but Boyle County went on to win the state championship again. The 2003 team returned to perfection with a 15-0 slate and state title. Smith's 2004 squad went 12-3, with a loss in the state finals ending the state-record streaks of five consecutive championships and 29 straight playoff victories.

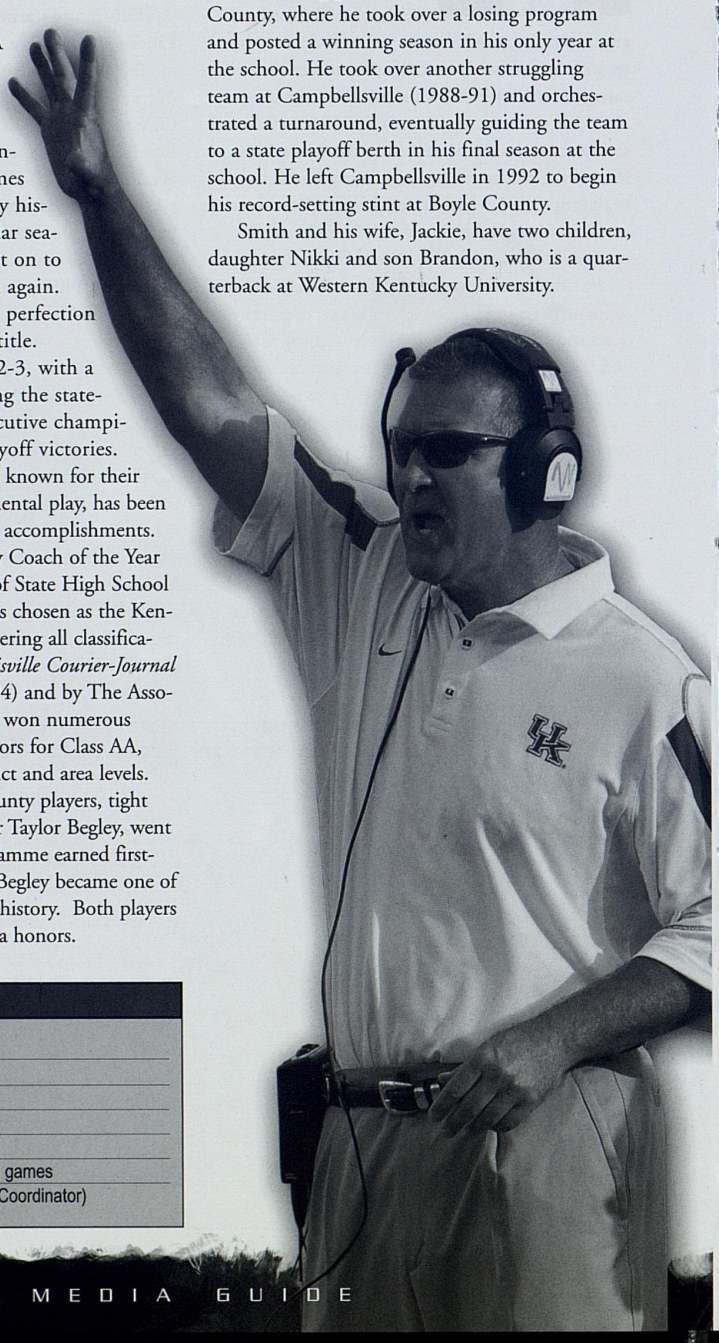

Smith, whose teams were known for their work ethic and solid fundamental play, has been recognized frequently for his accomplishments. He was named the Kentucky Coach of the Year by the National Federation of State High School Associations in 2003. He was chosen as the Kentucky Coach of the Year, covering all classifications, four times by the Louisville Courier-Journal (1999, 2000, 2001, and 2004) and by The Associated Press in 1999. He has won numerous other Coach of the Year honors for Class AA, Class AAA, and on the district and area levels.

Two of Smith's Boyle County players, tight end Jacob Tamme and kicker Taylor Begley, went on to great careers at UK. Tamme earned first-team All-SEC honors while Begley became one of the leading scorers in school history. Both players earned Academic All-America honors.

Born in Louisville, Ky., Smith was an all-state linebacker at Jeffersontown High School. He was a UK letterman from 1978-80 as a linebacker under Coach Fran Curci. Smith was second on the team in tackles as a senior with 133 stops and was third on the team in tackles his junior year with 95.

Smith's coaching career began as an assistant coach at Mercer County from 1983-86. His first head coaching position was in 1987 at Allen County, where he took over a losing program and posted a winning season in his only year at the school. He took over another struggling team at Campbellsville (1988-91) and orchestrated a turnaround, eventually guiding the team to a state playoff berth in his final season at the school. He left Campbellsville in 1992 to begin his record-setting stint at Boyle County.

Smith and his wife, Jackie, have two children, daughter Nikki and son Brandon, who is a quarterback at Western Kentucky University.

SECONDARY COACH
CHRIS THURMOND

Chris Thurmond, a coaching veteran with experience in the Southeastern Conference and Big 12 Conference, made an immediate impact in his first season as the secondary coach at Kentucky.

Under Thurmond's guidance, cornerback Trevard Lindley earned second-team All-America honors and set the UK career record for pass breakups. Both senior starters in the secondary went on to sign National Football League contracts, cornerback David Jones with Baltimore and free safety Marcus McClinton with New England. The defensive backs certainly did their share in the overall progress shown by the Wildcat defense.

For the upcoming season, Thurmond task is to identify new regulars to join Lindley in the defensive backfield. Senior safeties Ashton Cobb and Calvin Harrison and junior cornerback Paul Warford have significant game experience. The work in the spring also was encouraging, as head coach Rich Brooks cited the improvement made by young DBs such as cornerbacks Randall Burden and Cartier Rice and safeties Matt Lentz, Winston Guy, Taiedo Smith and Greg Wilson.

Thurmond came to Kentucky from the University of Houston, where he coached the cornerbacks and was recruiting coordinator for two seasons. He helped the Cougars advance to the 2006 Liberty Bowl and 2007 Texas Bowl, serving as interim head coach for the Texas Bowl after Art Briles left for another coaching position. In 2006, Cougar cornerback Willie Gaston was a second-team All-Conference USA selection and went on to play for the NFL's Baltimore Ravens.

Prior to Houston, Thurmond spent three years as the cornerbacks coach at Texas A&M, highlighted by a trip to the Cotton Bowl following the 2004 campaign.

Thurmond's experience in the Southeastern Conference came as cornerbacks coach at Alabama in 2001-02. The Crimson Tide won the 2001 Independence Bowl. In 2002, Alabama led the SEC and ranked third nationally in total defense, posting the best record in the SEC Western Division. While at Alabama, eight players he coached or recruited signed National Football League contracts.

Thurmond also has worked at Tulsa (1983-91, 1994), East Carolina (1992-93), Texas Christian (1995, 1998-2000), and Oklahoma (1996-97), coaching the cornerbacks or the entire secondary during those stints.

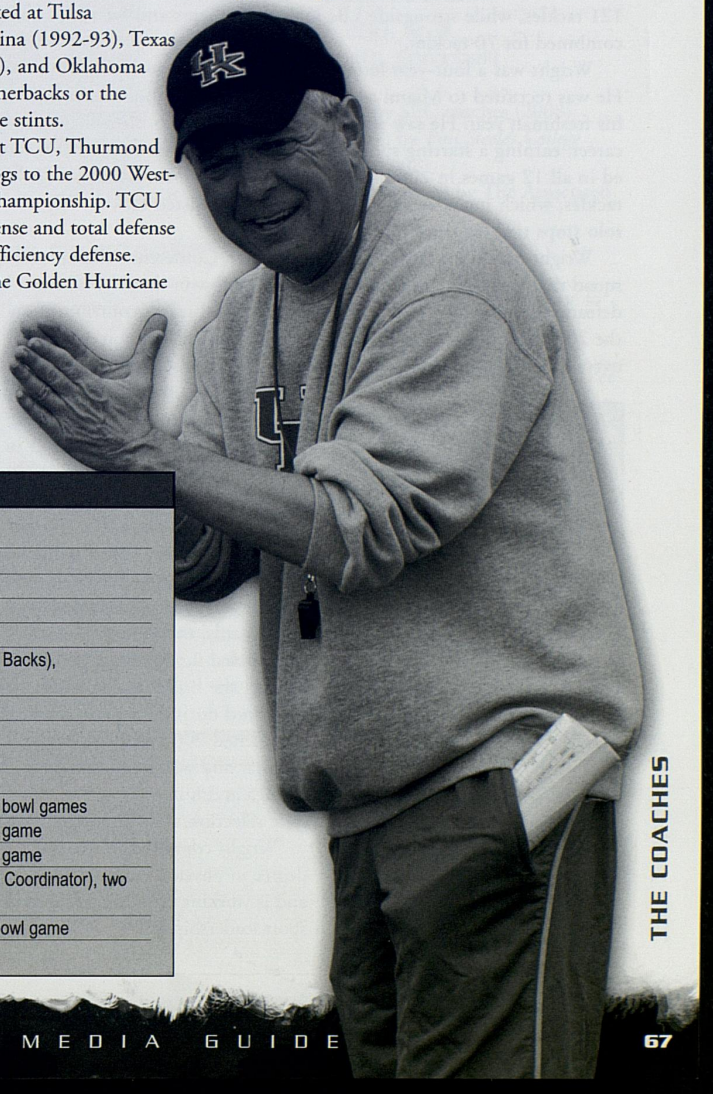

During his second term at TCU, Thurmond helped guide the Horned Frogs to the 2000 Western Athletic Conference co-championship. TCU led the nation in scoring defense and total defense while ranking third in pass efficiency defense.

While at Tulsa in 1991, the Golden Hurricane ranked among the nation's leaders in pass defense efficiency. Tulsa capped the season with a win in the Freedom Bowl. Thurmond has coached in nine bowl games during his career. Ironically, his first post-season appearance came in the 1989 Independence Bowl against Rich Brooks' Oregon squad.

During his collegiate career, Thurmond has coached or recruited numerous athletes who have gone on to the NFL, including current pros Roman Harper (New Orleans), Mark Anderson (Chicago), Charlie Peprah (Green Bay) and Anthony Madison (Pittsburgh).

A native of Sand Springs, Okla., Thurmond graduated from the University of Tulsa in 1975. He spent seven years as a high school coach in Oklahoma, including head coach at his alma mater, Charles Page HS, before entering the collegiate ranks.

Thurmond and his wife, Paula, have a daughter, Paige.

Graduate Assistant Coaches

Dontae Wright

Graduate Assistant/Defensive Line

Dontae Wright is in his third year as a graduate assistant coach after playing four years at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. He will aid the UK defensive staff and help coach the defensive line.

Along with coaching his position, Wright has a lead responsibility in breaking down opponent film, organizing scouting reports, handling "self scout" of UK tendencies, running the scout team, and helping with on-campus recruiting.

Last season with Wright's help, the Cats' starting defensive line of Jeremy Jarmon, Corey Peters, Myron Pryor, and Ventrell Jenkins formed a formidable wall and combined for 34 tackles for loss and 15.5 quarterback sacks. Jarmon and Pryor were named All-SEC while Jenkins was the Most Valuable Player of the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

In 2007, Wright assisted the linebackers and saw much success as Wesley Woodyard led the SEC in tackles with 139 stops, earned consensus first-team All-SEC honors and is now with the Denver Broncos. Middle linebackers Braxton Kelley and Micah Johnson combined for 121 tackles, while strongside LBs Johnny Williams and Sam Maxwell combined for 70 tackles.

Wright was a four-year letterman for the RedHawks from 2003-06. He was recruited to Miami as a safety but moved to linebacker during his freshman year. He saw action in 48 games during his collegiate career, earning a starting spot at outside linebacker as a senior. He started in all 12 games in 2006 and finished fourth on the team with 65 tackles, which included 45 solo stops and 20 assisted tackles. His 45 solo stops tied for third on the team.

Wright played on the 2003 Mid-American Conference championship squad that went 13-1 overall, 8-0 in MAC and won the GMAC Bowl by defeating Louisville, 49-28. He also was a special teams contributor on the 2004 Miami squad that won the MAC Eastern Division, went 8-5 overall, 7-1 in the MAC, and appeared in the Independence Bowl. In 2005, he was a reserve linebacker and special teams contributor when the RedHawks went 7-4 overall, 5-3 in the MAC, and finished as MAC East co-champions.

Among his other duties, Dontae Wright will again assist in coaching the UK defensive line after working primarily with the linebackers during the 2007 season.

A native of Louisa, Ky., Wright attended Lawrence County High School, where he played both quarterback and safety. He rushed for 1,011 yards, threw for 592 yards, and totaled 2,306 all-purpose yards, helping the Bulldogs compile a 40-10 record during his prep career. He was named 2001 area co-player of the year and was an all-conference, all-area and honorable mention all-state selection after his senior season.

Wright completed his bachelor's degree in physical education at Miami and is working on a master's degree in sport leadership at UK.

Matt McCutchan

Graduate Assistant/Offensive Line

Former Kentucky center Matt McCutchan is in his second season as a graduate assistant after rejoining his alma mater in June of 2008. McCutchan works with the offense, and his duties include analysis of opponent film, preparing scouting reports, conducting "self scout" of UK tendencies, overseeing the scout team, and assisting with on-campus recruiting. He also will help coach the Wildcat offensive line.

Last season, McCutchan helped the offensive line lead the SEC and tie for fourth nationally in the sacks against category, allowing only 13 sacks on the season. The line, anchored by All-SEC selection Garry Williams, also ranked 11th in the nation in tackles for loss allowed with 4.23 per game.

Prior to coaching at UK, he attended a mini-camp with the Kansas City Chiefs and a training camp with the Los Angeles Avengers. He also was an assistant offensive line coach at his alma mater, Lebanon (Ohio) High School, during the 2007 season.

McCutchan was a three-year starter (2004-06) for Kentucky after transferring from the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, Md. He began as a walk-on but eventually earned a scholarship, starting in all but one of his 31 career games. Under McCutchan's leadership in the offensive line, the Wildcats defeated Clemson in the 2006 Music City Bowl. He was twice named the Southeastern Conference Lineman of the Week during his career and he earned UK's Most Outstanding Offensive Lineman award in 2005.

Matt McCutchan was a three-year starting center for the Wildcats. "Matt wasn't the biggest lineman, but he was one of the best in the SEC because of his hard work and dedication," said Coach Rich Brooks.

McCutchan attended the Naval Academy Preparatory School in 2000 and played right guard. He spent the 2001 and 2002 seasons at the Naval Academy but did not see varsity action due to injuries. He received a rare sixth season to complete his eligibility because of the injuries sustained at the Academy.

McCutchan, a member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 2005, graduated in 2006 with a degree in economics. He is currently working on a master's degree in sport leadership.

A native of Lebanon, Ohio, McCutchan attended Lebanon High School where he was first-team all-state as a junior and second-team all-state as a senior, playing tackle on offense and tackle and end on defense.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACHES

MARC HILL

Director of Strength and Conditioning

Marc Hill is entering his 11th year at the University of Kentucky, his fourth as Director of Strength and Conditioning for all sports.

Hill oversees the strength program for all 22 UK teams in addition to his direct supervision of football.

Under Hill's guidance the Wildcats have won three consecutive bowl games and seven times a Kentucky player has been named to the All-America Strength Team by the National Strength Coaches Association. Because of his dedication to the student-athlete and commitment to UK, the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa) named him Master Strength and Conditioning Coach in 2008, the highest honor given in the strength and conditioning profession.

Hill came to UK from the University of Arizona, where he worked from 1995-99 as the strength coach for the men's basketball and baseball teams and assistant strength coach for the football team. He was a graduate assistant coach in the 1994-95 school year.

During Hill's five years in Tucson, Arizona went to three bowl games. As strength coach for the men's basketball team, Hill worked with the 1997 national championship team that defeated Kentucky in the title game.

Hill is a native of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, and was an all-state honoree as a football linebacker and a baseball outfielder at Mt. Pleasant HS. He stayed in Mt. Pleasant being recruited to play linebacker at Iowa Wesleyan College. Hill was a four-year starter at IWC from 1990-93, team captain as a senior, and went to the NAIA national playoffs in 1991. After graduating, he began his coaching career at Arizona where he received a master's degree in exercise science in 1997.

Hill is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist by the National Strength and the CSCCa. He recently finished a three-year term on the Gatorade Sports Sciences Institute Advisory Board.

Marc and his wife, Jenny, have sons Dalton Mikel and Cogan Dean, and a daughter, Brookelyn Marie. Jenny, a former athlete at the University of Arizona, was named the 1996 Player of the Year in softball.

CHAD HUTSKO

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Chad Hutsko is in his fifth year as Kentucky's assistant strength and conditioning coach for football. He also serves as the head strength and conditioning coach for the nationally-ranked rifle team, helping the Wildcats finish in the top five nationally the past three years.

Hutsko, who joined the UK staff in March of 2005, is no stranger to the UK football program. The native of McKeesport, Pa., began his coaching career with the Wildcats as an intern in the weight room from 1994-96.

Following two seasons at UK, Hutsko spent four years at the University of Pittsburgh as an assistant strength coach. He served as a volunteer coach in the Pitt weight room during the summers of 1996 and 1997 before being hired as the assistant strength coach in 1998. In his four seasons at Pitt (1998-01), the Panthers advanced to two bowl games. He also worked with the baseball, softball, and volleyball teams while at Pitt.

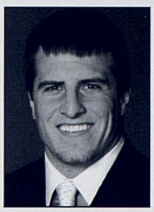

Hutsko has trained many successful student-athletes in his career, including 2000 Biletnikoff Award winner Antonio Bryant.

In 2002, Hutsko moved into personal training, spending three years (2002-05) at the Oxford Athletic Club in Monroeville, Pa. He also served as the head strength coach at South Allegheny High School in Liberty Boro, Pa., and Clairton (Pa.) High School during that time.

Hutsko graduated from Penn State with a degree in health education and is a certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist by the National Strength and Conditioning Association and the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association.

RYAN DEVRIENDT

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

After a six-month stint in the private sector, Ryan DeVriendt begins his third season overall, his first in a new role as an assistant strength coach. He will work specifically with the football and baseball team.

The past two seasons, DeVriendt served as an intern under Coach Marc Hill, assisting with football, baseball and the track and field throwers.

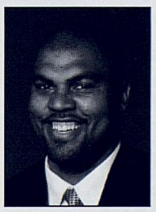

DeVriendt is a native of Sherrard, Ill., and attended Central College in Pella, Iowa, where he was a four-year letterman on the wrestling team. He was twice named Central's Most Valuable Wrestler and also earned Most Valuable Freshman honors. He served as a team co-captain for three consecutive seasons and received the Lawrence Award as the team's hardest worker. He received a bachelor's degree in exercise science/health promotion.

DeVriendt was a four-sport standout (in football, baseball, wrestling and track and field) at Sherrard High School. As a linebacker, he was named his team's Defensive Player of the Year and was the Area Player of the Year. Offensively, he was named Sherrard's Offensive Player of the Year as a senior running back. He was a state runner-up in wrestling as a junior and placed fourth during his senior season. He also was a state qualifier in the pole vault.

DeVriendt is a certified member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

JORDAN HICKS

Strength and Conditioning Intern

Jordan Hicks is in his first season as an intern with the UK strength and conditioning staff. He will work with football, baseball and track throwers.

Hicks, a former NFL defensive lineman and long snapper, played two seasons at Southern Illinois University before transferring to Georgetown College in 2002. As a defensive lineman, he helped the Tigers win three Mid-South Conference football championships (2002-04), including a runner-up finish in the 2002 NAIA national championship game. He graduated in 2005 with a degree in kinesiology and a minor in psychology.

After college, Hicks spent three years in the pro ranks, including stints with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Oakland Raiders and Hamburg Sea Devils (NFL Europe). He also played one season in the Arena Football League.

During his prep career, Hicks played football and basketball at Lebanon High School in Lebanon, Ohio. On the gridiron, he was an All-State, All-Conference and All-Southwest Ohio performer as a defensive end. He returned to his alma mater in 2006 and served as an assistant coach for the freshman football team while monitoring the in-season weight program.

FOOTBALL SUPPORT STAFF

SHANE FANNIN

Director of Kentucky Sports Video

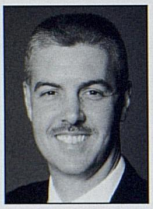

Shane Fannin is in his second year at the University of Kentucky as the Director of Sports Video.

Prior to joining the UK team in December of 2007, Fannin owned and operated Digital Blue, a video production business. Additionally, he spent time as a member of WKYT-TV in Lexington.

Fannin graduated from Morehead State University with a major in communications and a minor in marketing/public relations. A native of Morehead, Ky., Fannin is married to Ganan Fannin. The couple has three children, Clay, Cali and Ciah.

GARY FOXWORTH

Football Coaching Video Coordinator

Gary Foxworth enters his 13th year as Coaching Video Coordinator for the UK football team.

Foxworth is responsible for staffing of the athletic video office as well as the daily video of the Wildcats' practices. He also is responsible for video of all home and away football games and is the contact for the opponent video exchange and opponent film breakdowns. He also helps handle the numerous media requests for video highlights.

In 2006, Foxworth received the SEC Video Coordinator of the Year Award by the Collegiate Sports Video Association.

Foxworth joined UK from Eastern Kentucky University, where he was the production manager for the school's media resources department for eight years. He earned a degree in broadcasting from EKU in 1989. Foxworth also was a student assistant for two years in the media resources department before joining the staff full-time upon his graduation.

Foxworth is Lexington native and a graduate of Lafayette High School. He and his wife, Kimber, have a son, Austin, and daughter, Jessica Ann.

STEVE HELLYER

Director of Football Operations

Steve Hellyer is in his seventh year as the Director of Football Operations at Kentucky, his 32nd year in collegiate athletics.

Hellyer is responsible for assisting head coach Rich Brooks in all football administration duties, as well as serving as the liaison to compliance, academics, and other university areas. He also is responsible for team travel, coordinating clinics, pre-season training camp, football budget and supervising the football support staff.

Hellyer's stint in collegiate athletics began as the Sports Information Director at Texas-Arlington (1975-77) and Drake University (1977-82). He then accepted the same position at Oregon in 1982 before being named the Assistant Athletics Director of Media Services for the Ducks in 1990. Hellyer was responsible for the promotion and publicity for Oregon's 15 sports, including coordinating team travel and scheduling for football for four seasons. He also arranged four bowl trips for the Ducks. He served as a member of the NCAA men's and women's Division I outdoor track and field committee from 1993-96.

In 1996, Hellyer moved to the Director of Football Operations under Coach Mike Bellotti. He spent three years in that role then left the university in 1999 to become a consultant/executive director for the Eugene Airshow 2000. He was the media and public relations manager for the XFL's San Francisco Demons in 2001 and served as a consultant/executive director of the Iowa Greyhound Association in 2002.

Hellyer is a native of Des Moines, Iowa and a graduate of Drake University with a degree in journalism. He and his wife, Jeanine, have two grown children — son Syd Saks and daughter Sarah Saks.

TOM KALINOWSKI

Equipment Manager

Tom Kalinowski enters his 32nd year as Equipment Manager for the Kentucky football program.

Kalinowski, a native of Middletown, Conn., received his undergraduate degree from Kentucky in 1978. He had served as a student manager at UK, beginning in 1974 until his graduation. Kalinowski was named Head Football Equipment Manager in 1978.

Kalinowski is a Certified Equipment Manager as designated by the American Equipment Managers Association. He has served on advisory boards for two equipment manufacturing companies, Shutt and Bike.

He graduated from Xavier High School in Middletown in 1974. At Xavier, Kalinowski was student manager for the football, baseball and basketball programs.

Kalinowski and his wife, Vicki, have two sons, Ian and Cody.

JIM MADALENO

Director of Sports Medicine/
Head Athletic Trainer—Football

Jim Madaleno enters his fifth year as Director of Sports Medicine at Kentucky, his 13th year as the Head Athletic Trainer for the Wildcats' football team.

Madaleno came to UK from Valdosta State University, where he was head athletic trainer from 1989-97 and also served as Assistant Athletics Director for Sports Medicine. Madaleno also worked as the undergraduate curriculum director for an athletic training education program that has been accredited nationally.

Madaleno began his athletic training career as a student athletic trainer at Michigan State University, where he graduated in 1980. He was a graduate assistant athletic trainer at Florida State in 1980-81 and earned a master's in the department of movement science.

Madaleno first went to Valdosta State in 1982 with the inception of the school's football program as the school's first full-time athletics trainer.

In 1985, Madaleno took an assistant athletics trainer's position with the New York Giants. He was with the team when the Giants defeated Denver in the 1987 Super Bowl.

In 1988, Madaleno joined the renowned Hughston Sports Medicine Clinic in Columbus, Ga. He specialized in high school relations and promoted the need for certified athletic trainers on the high school level. However, Madaleno missed the day-to-day relationships with athletes and the excitement of competition, so he returned to Valdosta State in 1989.

In addition to his bachelor's and master's degrees, Madaleno is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association and in the state of Kentucky.

He is a native of Dearborn, Mich. Jim and his wife, Paddy, have two children, Kiley Ann and Ryan James.

DAN MEARS

Assistant Director of Football Operations

Dan Mears is in his fifth season as a member of the football staff, his third as assistant director of football operations. He is responsible for assisting the recruiting coordinator with all aspects of the organization, including on-campus arrangements and video procurement and management. In addition, he is familiar with all facets of football operations and player relations and performs those duties as necessary.

Mears, a native of Lakewood, Ohio, attended South Carolina from 1999-2004 where he served as a recruiting graduate assistant and recruiting intern under former Gamecock assistant and UK's current offensive head coach Joker Phillips. After graduating with a bachelor's degree in sport and entertainment administration, he followed Phillips to Kentucky, where he became a recruiting assistant until being promoted to his current position in July of 2007.

BRAD NALLY

Sports Video Production Coordinator

Brad Nally begins his third year as a member of the University of Kentucky staff as the Sports Video Production Coordinator.

Nally previously spent time as the Director of Creative Services at WKYT-TV in Lexington. He also was a member of the video production staff for the Hammond Communications Group in Lexington.

A native of Versailles, Ky., Nally graduated from Eastern Kentucky University in 1997 with a degree in broadcasting/mass communications. He and his wife, Sarah, have a daughter, Peyton.

AARON WASSON

Assistant Equipment Manager

Aaron "Pooh" Wasson enters his sixth year as assistant equipment manager for the football program.

A native of Winchester, Ky., Wasson began as a student assistant in the football equipment room in 1996. In 2001, he was hired to lead the equipment responsibilities for the Lexington Horsemen of the National Indoor Football League. While a member of the Horsemen staff, Wasson interned at Kentucky, assisting in the operations of the football equipment room. That internship eventually led to a full-time position in 2003 as equipment manager of UK's Olympic sports.

From 2003-06, Wasson oversaw the daily equipment responsibilities of the baseball, softball and men's and women's soccer programs while assisting in the football equipment room. He was a part of the historic 2006 baseball season that resulted in the Wildcats winning their first-ever SEC Championship and being selected as a NCAA Regional host, another first for the program.

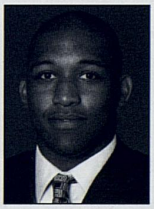

Since 2006, Wasson has overseen the operations of the University's exclusive athletic apparel and equipment contract with Nike. His responsibilities include the purchasing, receiving, inventory and budgeting of Nike apparel and equipment for all 22 sports as well as the administrative departments at UK. In addition to his responsibilities on the equipment staff, Wasson also assists in hosting NCAA and SEC championship events, including the 2006 NCAA Baseball Lexington Regional and the 2007 NCAA Men's Basketball First and Second Rounds in Rupp Arena.

Wasson has a bachelor's degree in organizational management and is currently working on his master's degree in sport leadership. Wasson is married to the former Bonnie Menges of Rowlett, Texas.

Randall Cobb II

Quarterback/Wide Receiver, 5-11, 188, So-1L
Alcoa, Tenn. (Alcoa)

- SEC All-Freshman Team by SEC Coaches (2008)
- UK Most Outstanding First-Year Player by UK coaches (2008)
- SEC Freshman of the Week vs. Arkansas by the SEC office (2008)

Dynamic playmaker at quarterback, wide receiver and punt returner ... Showed noteworthy maturity and versatility by playing all three positions as a true freshman ... By November of last season he was the only player in the nation who was the team's starting quarterback and primary punt returner ... Expected to play primarily as a wide receiver this season, with occasional action at quarterback in the "Wildcat" formation ... Throws left-handed.

2007 (Freshman): Named to the SEC All-Freshman team at quarterback ... Played in 11 games, starting four games at wide receiver and then the last four games of the regular season at quarterback ... Won his first QB start at Mississippi State and is believed to be the only UK true freshman QB to start and and win an SEC road game since freshmen became eligible in the early 1970s ... Rushed for a season-high 82 yards and three touchdowns vs. Georgia ... Threw for a season-best 144 yards vs. Vanderbilt ... Playing in the Arkansas game as a wide receiver, he caught two touchdown passes in the final 4:15 to give the Wildcats a dramatic 21-20 come-from-behind victory over the Razorbacks ... Wore uniform No. 12 in the Arkansas game as a tribute to Dicky Lyons, who had suffered a season-ending injury the previous week ... Was named SEC Freshman of the Week for his effort vs. Arkansas ... Missed all of one game and most of two others because of a high ankle sprain sustained vs. Middle Tennessee.

High School: Named "Mr. Football" for Class AA in Tennessee … Dual-threat quarterback from perennial power Alcoa HS … Alcoa won four-consecutive state championships, the last two with Cobb at the offensive controls as the starting QB … Team posted a 27-3 mark during his two campaigns as a starter … As a senior, completed 89 of 139 passes (64.0 percent) for 1,765 yards, 22 touchdowns, and only two interceptions … Rushed for 793 yards, a 9.0-yard average per carry, and 13 touchdowns … During his junior season, threw for 1,893 yards, 25 TDs, and just four interceptions … All-state as a junior and senior … Coached by Gary Rankin … Reunited at Kentucky with a former Alcoa teammate, wide receiver Kyrus Lanxter … One of the top-11 prospects in Tennessee by the Orlando (Fla.) Sentinel … One of the top-20 prospects in Tennessee, according to Rivals.com … Projected as a defensive back by Scout.com, he is listed as one of the nation's top-100 DBs by that service … Four-year member of the track team, competing in the 100- and 200-meter dashes, along with the 4x100- and 4x200-meter relays … Finished third in the state in the 100 his senior year, with a best time of 10.75 seconds … Clocked a personal-best 21.89 in the 200 … His 4x100 relay unit was second in the state his junior year … An all-district basketball player as a junior … Honor-roll student … Named to Who's Who Among American High School Students.

Personal: Born in Maryville, Tenn. … Son of Randall Sr. and Tina Cobb … A cousin, Shannon Mitchell, played football for Georgia and the NFL's San Diego Chargers … Another cousin, Billy Williams, played football at Tennessee and the NFL's St. Louis Rams … Considering a major in kinesiology and an eventual career in coaching.

Community Cats: Participated in events as Leestown Middle School (2008), Pine Meadows Healthcare (2008) and Shriner's Hospital (2009).

2008 GAME REVIEWS

KENTUCKY 27, LOUISVILLE 2 // 8.31.08

With senior tackle Myron Pryor leading the way, the Kentucky defense generated five turnovers, scored two touchdowns and set up another TD as the Wildcats posted a season-opening 27-2 victory over Louisville at Papa John's Cardinal Stadium.

The Wildcat defenders turned in a dominant performance, limiting the Cardinals to 205 yards total offense. It marked the first time since 1996 that Kentucky kept an opponent offense from scoring.

UK led 3-0 in the second quarter when Pryor got the ball rolling, literally, as he caused a fumble that safety Ashton Cobb scooped up and ran 28 yards for a touchdown. Later in the quarter, Pryor teamed with Micah Johnson to stop Louisville on a 4th-and-1 play from the Wildcat 21-yard line.

The defense struck again in the fourth quarter to put the game away. Cornerback Trevard Lindley intercepted a pass and returned it inside the 10-yard line, setting up a seven-yard touchdown run by Tony Dixon. Pryor, a native of the Derby City, capped the game by picking by a fumble and racing 72 yards for a touchdown. It was the first time since 1986 that Kentucky had two defensive touchdowns in a game.

Special teams also played a role. Tim Masthay had an outstanding game on punts and kickoffs as Kentucky controlled the contest of field position. Lones Seiber converted two field goals and freshman Matt Roark blocked a Louisville field-goal attempt.

In his first collegiate start, quarterback Mike Hartline completed 16 of 31 passes for 147 yards. Freshman Randall Cobb was the leading receiver with three catches for 31 yards. Dixon led the rushing with 27 yards and one touchdown.

KENTUCKY 38, NORFOLK STATE 3 // 9.6.08

The Kentucky defense kept Norfolk State out of the end zone and freshman quarterback Randall Cobb led three touchdown drives as the Wildcats won the home opener, 38-3, at Commonwealth Stadium.

The Wildcat defenders turned in another commanding performance, holding the Spartans to 164 yards total offense and eight first downs. It was the first time since 1958 that UK has not yielded a touchdown in the first two games of the season. Cobb started the game at wide receiver, then moved to quarterback later in the first quarter. He scored his first career touchdown with an 18-yard scamper in his first series under center. On UK's next possession in the second quarter, Cobb added his second rushing touchdown on a one-yard quarterback sneak. Minutes later, Cobb connected with Dicky Lyons on a 14-yard touchdown pass for the Wildcats' third consecutive touchdown in as many series.

After a Norfolk State field goal before halftime, UK responded in the third quarter as quarterback Mike Hartline marched the Wildcats down the field for a 23-yard Lones Seiber field goal.

In the fourth quarter, Derrick Locke scored a career-long rushing touchdown of 68 yards. Running back Moncell Allen finished the scoring with a three-yard touchdown, the first of his career. The UK backfield gained 297 yards, including 16 yards by Tony Dixon, making the senior captain the 30th player in school history to rush for 1,000 yards.

On special teams, Tim Masthay continued booming kickoffs, notching six touchbacks in the game as UK again had the advantage in field position. Masthay also averaged 44 yards per punt.

KENTUCKY 20, MIDDLE TENN. ST. 14 // 9.13.08

Senior cornerback Robbie McAtee made good on his first career start with his tackle of a Blue Raider wide receiver just short of the goal line with no time remaining to secure a 20-14 Wildcat victory over Middle Tennessee at Commonwealth Stadium.

McAtee stopped Middle Tennessee's Eldred King at the one-yard line after King hauled in a 61-yard "Hail Mary" pass from Joe Craddock. The pass was set up after Middle Tennessee blocked a UK field goal attempt and returned the ball to the MTSU 38-yard line with eight seconds remaining.

Kentucky surrendered its first touchdown of the season in the first quarter as the Blue Raiders scored on a 62-yard pass.

After McAtee recovered a Middle Tennessee fumble, the Wildcats knotted the score when Mike Hartline connected with Maurice Grinter on a one-yard touchdown pass late in the first quarter. The Wildcats went into halftime with a three-point lead after a Lones Seiber 40-yard field goal in the second quarter. However, the Blue Raiders regained the lead midway through the third quarter after a 22-yard touchdown catch.

Kentucky fought back to take the lead on Derrick Locke's six-yard touchdown reception from Hartline. A 25-yard field goal by Seiber closed the scoring and gave the Wildcats their final margin of victory. This marked the seventh time in the last 21 games that UK has come from behind in the fourth quarter to win the game.

Hartline posted career highs by completing 28 of 47 passes for 254 yards and two touchdowns and was named SEC Offensive Player of the Week. Wide receiver Dicky Lyons grabbed a career-best 12 passes.

On defense, Micah Johnson led the way for UK with nine tackles, tying his career high, before he left the game late in the second quarter with an ankle injury. Fellow linebacker Braxton Kelley added seven tackles for the Wildcats to eclipse 200 stops in his career. The pair helped UK hold the Blue Raider ground attack to just 31 yards, the fewest allowed since the Mississippi State game in 2006.

KENTUCKY 41, WESTERN KENTUCKY 3 // 9.27.08

The Kentucky offense was running on all cylinders in the Wildcats' first game against Western Kentucky, totaling 398 yards of total offense and scoring five touchdowns against the Hilltoppers. All four UK tailbacks accounted for the five Wildcat scores in the 41-3 decision at Commonwealth Stadium.

Junior Jeremy Jarmon's sack of WKU's K.C. Black on the first play from scrimmage set the tone for the Wildcat defense. Kentucky thwarted the Hilltopper passing attack, limiting WKU to just 15 total passing yards, the lowest opponent output through the air since 1994, while making four quarterback sacks. Wildcat defenders held their opponent without a rushing touchdown for the fourth consecutive game this season and contained the Hilltoppers to just eight first downs and 157 total yards on the day. Seniors Braxton Kelley and Myron Pryor led UK with six tackles apiece, while Corey Peters accounted for two of the sacks.

Freshman Ryan Tydlacka debuted as UK's field goal kicker by booting his first collegiate field goal attempt 45 yards through the uprights to conclude the Wildcats' opening drive of the game.

UK senior offensive captain Tony Dixon scored on a one-yard plunge in the second quarter to extend the Wildcat lead. After a Hilltopper field goal, sophomore Derrick Locke returned the ensuing kickoff 100 yards to put UK up by 17-3. Locke became the fifth Wildcat all-time to return a kickoff the length of the field for a score.

In the third quarter, junior Alfonso Smith scored a career-long 35-yard rushing touchdown to cushion the UK advantage. Minutes later, Hartline threw a two-yard TD pass to sophomore Moncell Allen, his first career touchdown reception. Dixon added a two-yard rushing score on the opening drive of the fourth quarter. Late in the game, Tydlacka made a 33-yard field goal to cap the scoring for the Wildcats.

On special teams, the Kentucky kicking game was perfect as junior Lones Seiber went five-for-five on extra points in addition to Tydlacka's two field goals on two tries. Senior Tim Masthay continued his mastery of kickoffs, booting seven in the game with three touchbacks, adding to his league-leading total.

ALABAMA 17, KENTUCKY 14 // 10.4.08

Alabama jumped out to an early lead but had to withstand a second-half Kentucky rally as the Crimson Tide held on to nip the Wildcats, 17-14, at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

Coming into the game, Alabama had dominated its opponents 74-0 in the first quarter and this game was no different. In the opening period, UK's defense gave up its first rushing touchdown of the season, a 78-yard run by Alabama running back Glen Coffee. Later in the quarter, the Tide's Rolando McClain picked up a fumble and returned it for a score, giving UA a two-touchdown lead.

It stayed that way until the third quarter. UK got on the scoreboard after quarterback Mike Hartline led a quick touchdown drive on two long pass plays. The first play was a 36-yard toss to tailback Derrick Locke, who led the Wildcats with 170 all-purpose yards, including career-highs of 81 yards on eight receptions. On the next play from scrimmage, Hartline connected with senior Dicky Lyons on a 26-yard touchdown pass. Lyons' scoring reception was the 18th of the wide receiver's career and tied him for third on UK's all-time touchdown reception list. Lyons ended the game with six catches for 63 yards.

In the fourth quarter, Alabama ate up the clock with a 15-play, 76-yard drive that lasted 8:10 and resulted in a Crimson Tide 24-yard field goal with 2:12 to go. Down two scores, Kentucky's two-minute offense went to work, driving 78 yards in 92 seconds, capped by a 48-yard touchdown pass from Hartline to DeMoreo Ford. The Crimson Tide got the ensuing kickoff and ran out the remaining seconds of the game on offense.

Kentucky showed a CBS national television audience why it ranks among the best in the country for scoring defense. UK defenders held Alabama to a season-low 17 points while allowing the Tide just 106 yards through the air. The Wildcats also grabbed three turnovers and sacked the quarterback three times.

Junior Trevard Lindley led the Wildcat secondary with three pass breakups to set the all-time record at UK with 29 career deflections. Senior captain Braxton Kelley led the defense with a career-high 13 tackles and also caused a fumble.

SOUTH CAROLINA 24, KENTUCKY 17 // 10.11.08

South Carolina set up two touchdowns with special teams plays, then came from behind in the fourth quarter to defeat Kentucky, 24-17, at Commonwealth Stadium.

Kentucky opened the scoring when cornerback Trevard Lindley picked off a Chris Smelley pass and returned it 28 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter. However, the Gamecocks quickly responded as USC's Captain Munnerlyn returned the ensuing kickoff 84 yards. The return set up a 16-yard touchdown pass from Smelley to wide receiver Kenny McKinley on the next play, knotting the score at seven.

In the second quarter, USC regained the lead after Gamecock Jordin Lindsey blocked a 21-yard UK field goal attempt and Munnerlyn scooped up the ball and returned it 81 yards for a touchdown. But later, UK's Shomari Moore forced a USC fumble, recovered by safety Marcus McClinton, that set up a touchdown drive capped off by Tony Dixon's two-yard plunge into the end zone to tie the score. UK took the lead going into halftime after freshman Ryan Tydlacka booted a career-long 51-yard field goal.

The teams missed three field goals in a scoreless third quarter, two by USC and one by UK. The Gamecocks made a change at quarterback in the quarter, substituting Stephen Garcia for Smelley. UK senior defensive tackle Myron Pryor promptly welcomed Garcia to the game with two second-half sacks. In the fourth quarter, Gamecock kicker Ryan Succop connected on a 42-yard field to tie the score. USC's next drive proved to be the difference in the game, resulting in a seven-yard touchdown pass from Garcia to tight end Weslye Saunders.

The Kentucky defense forced four turnovers, interceptions by Lindley and Moore along with fumble recoveries by McClinton and Johnny Williams. Returning to action after missing two games because of a sprained ankle, junior linebacker Micah Johnson topped all UK defenders with a career-high 12 tackles.

On offense, sophomore tailback Derrick Locke led the team in both rushing and receiving yards for the second consecutive week as part of his 146 all-purpose yards in the game.

KENTUCKY 21, ARKANSAS 20 // 10.18.08

Kentucky sophomore quarterback Mike Hartline connected with freshman Randall Cobb on two touchdowns against Arkansas in the final five minutes of the game to match the greatest fourth-quarter comeback in school history and defeat the Razorbacks, 21-20, during Homecoming at Commonwealth Stadium.

The Wildcats trailed 20-7 in the final stanza. The record comeback began with 4:56 to play when Arkansas' De'Anthony Curtis fumbled after being hit by Johnny Williams and the ball was recovered by Ashton Cobb at the Arkansas 41-yard line.

Two plays later, Hartline threw a 32-yard pass to Cobb for a touchdown to trim the lead to six points with just over four minutes left. The Kentucky defense came up big, causing a three-and-out series to force a Razorback punt. Two plays later, Hartline connected with Cobb again on a 21-yard toss for a touchdown. With the made extra point, UK earned the deciding margin.

Senior free safety Marcus McClinton preserved the win with an interception at the Arkansas 47-yard line on the final Razorback drive of the game. In 2004, UK fell behind Vanderbilt by a 13-point margin before pulling out a 14-13 win.

Arkansas opened the scoring in the first quarter. After an interception put the Razorbacks in business at the UK 11-yard line, Michael Smith scored on a two-yard run. Smith had an outstanding game, rushing for 192 yards on 35 carries. Arkansas made it 14-0 at halftime when Smith tallied on a 21-yard pass from quarterback Casey Dick.

Arkansas extended the advantage to 17-0 with a field goal early in the third quarter. The Wildcats bounced back when junior tailback Alfonso Smith took a swing pass from Hartline and raced 71 yards for a touchdown. The Hogs got another field goal in the fourth quarter to set up the Wildcat comeback.

Linebackers Braxton Kelley and Micah Johnson paced the defense with 15 tackles each, career bests for both players. McClinton also tied his career high with nine stops to go along with his game-clinching interception.

Offensively, Hartline completed 17 of 32 aerials for 239 yards and a career-best three touchdowns. Smith caught five passes for 108 yards, the first 100-yard game of his career.

FLORIDA 63, KENTUCKY 5 // 10.25.08

Two blocked punts by Florida special teams early in the first quarter set up UF touchdown drives from inside the Kentucky five-yard line to give the No. 5 Gators a 14-point cushion en route to a 63-5 defeat of the Wildcats in Ben Hill Griffin Stadium.

The Gators controlled both sides of the ball in the first quarter as the defense allowed UK just one first down while the UF offense posted four touchdowns. Late in the quarter, UK junior Trevard Lindley set up the Wildcats inside the UF 40-yard line after intercepting Florida's Tim Tebow and returning it three yards to the UF 37-yard line. It was Lindley's fourth interception of the season and ninth of his career.

UK's Lones Seiber got the Wildcats on the scoreboard with a 27-yard field goal midway through the second quarter, completing a 14-play, 76-yard drive. However, Florida took a 42-3 advantage into the locker room at halftime after UF's Tebow rushed for his second touchdown of the day just before intermission. Through the air, Tebow completed 11 of 15 passes for 180 yards on the day, with two touchdowns.

The third quarter began like much of the first half for the Wildcats as UF's Ahmad Black intercepted a pass during the first play of the second half and returned it for a touchdown to extend the Florida lead. UK added a safety in the fourth quarter for its final score.

Freshman quarterback/wide receiver Randall Cobb sparked the UK offense by rushing for a career-high 52 yards on nine carries. He also completed 9-of-18 passes for 78 yards and corralled two catches for seven yards in the game.

Senior linebacker Braxton Kelley led the defense with 11 tackles. He has totaled over 10 tackles three times this season and eight times in his career while recording at least three tackles in 20 consecutive games. Lindley deflected a pass to go with his interception.

KENTUCKY 14, MISSISSIPPI ST. 13 // 11.1.08

Freshman quarterback Randall Cobb led two touchdown drives and freshman Matt Roark's fourth-quarter block of a Mississippi State point-after-touchdown attempt proved to be the difference in a 14-13 Wildcat victory at MSU's Davis Wade Stadium.

The victory was Kentucky's sixth of the season, making the Wildcats bowl-eligible for the third straight year and marking the first time since 1954-56 that UK has won at least six games in three consecutive seasons.

MSU got on the scoreboard in the first quarter when Tyson Lee threw a 29-yard touchdown pass to Brandon McRae for a 7-0 advantage and the score held until halftime.

Cobb, making his first collegiate start at quarterback, drove the team to score on the first two possessions of the second half. The quarterback capped the first drive by scrambling for a five-yard rushing touchdown. On the next offensive series, the Wildcats appeared to stall on their own 27-yard line, but junior fullback A.J. Nance advanced the ball for a first down on a fake punt. Later on the 82-yard drive, Cobb completed a three-yard touchdown pass to junior tight end Maurice Grinter to give the Wildcats a 14-7 lead.

MSU's Lee rallied the Bulldogs with a 10-yard touchdown strike to Arnil Stallworth to begin the fourth quarter. However, Roark's block of the extra-point attempt gave the Wildcats the deciding one-point margin.

The UK defense held on the rest of the way. MSU had a 27-yard field goal attempt hit the upright, the Wildcats stopped the Bulldogs on downs during the next possession and then senior cornerback Robbie McAtee's first career interception with 49 seconds remaining snuffed out the home team's final threat.

The Wildcat defenders allowed just 43 rushing yards during the game and sacked the quarterback four times. Junior linebacker Micah Johnson led the UK defense in tackles for the fifth time this season, stopping the Bulldogs nine times. Senior defensive end Ventrell Jenkins had a hand in two quarterback sacks for a total loss of 18 yards.

GEORGIA 42, KENTUCKY 38 // 11.8.08

In a game that saw six lead changes in the second half, Georgia got the final score and held on for a 42-38 shootout win over Kentucky.

An 11-yard touchdown pass from Georgia quarterback Matthew Stafford to wide receiver A.J. Green gave the Bulldogs the decisive touchdown with just under two minutes remaining. On UK's final drive of the game, UGA defensive lineman Demarcus Dobbs secured the win by intercepting a pass at the Georgia 18-yard line with 46 seconds left in the game.

Stafford opened the game with a quick scoring drive, commencing with a 29-yard touchdown pass to Mohamed Massaquoi. Tailback Knowshon Moreno scored a six-yard run on the Bulldogs' second drive. Kentucky responded with a 15-play, 60-yard scoring drive of its own as tailback Tony Dixon rushed three yards for a touchdown.

In the second quarter, Cobb punched in a score from two yards out to even the score at 14. But Georgia responded with a seven-yard TD from Stafford to Shaun Chapas.

Midway through the third, Wildcat Danny Trevathan blocked a punt which was recovered by A.J. Nance at the Georgia nine-yard line. On the next play, Cobb rushed for a nine-yard touchdown to give Kentucky its first lead of the game, 24-21. The Bulldogs retook the advantage after Moreno rumbled 20 yards for his second score of the game.

In the fourth, UK's Dixon rushed for a 14-yard touchdown to regain the lead, 31-28. But Moreno countered with an 18-yard touchdown score of his own to put Georgia back on top. UK replied immediately when Winston Guy returned the kickoff 96 yards to the UGA four-yard line. Three plays later, Cobb scored on a 1-yard plunge for his third rushing touchdown of the day. UGA's Massaquoi set up the game-winning TD on a 78-yard pass from Stafford.

Kentucky rushed for 226 yards, the most in an SEC game since UK ran for 228 vs. Vanderbilt in 2002. Cobb, Dixon and Alfonso Smith all gained at least 60 yards. The last time UK had three rushers with 60 or more yards in an SEC game was in 1995 against LSU.

VANDERBILT 31, KENTUCKY 24 // 11.15.08

Kentucky posted a strong rally in the second half but it was not enough to overcome Vanderbilt as the Commodores defeated the Wildcats, 31-24, on Senior Night in Commonwealth Stadium.

Cornerback/wide receiver D.J. Moore led the Commodores with two touchdown receptions and two interceptions. In the first quarter, quarterback Chris Nickson tossed a 25-yard touchdown pass to Moore on VU's first drive of the game and then they connected again on the Commodores' next drive, this time on an 18-yard scoring reception.

But the Wildcats got a spark of momentum in the second quarter when UK's Myron Pryor blocked a 42-yard field goal attempt and David Jones returned the ball 57 yards for a touchdown to cut the Commodore lead in half. Late in the second, Nickson completed a one-yard touchdown pass to Brandon Barden to increase the lead. VU's Bryant Hahnfeldt added a 39-yard field goal with two seconds in the half giving the Commodores a 17-point advantage going into the locker rooms.

Early in the third, Wildcat Alfonso Smith caused Moore to fumble a punt return that was recovered by UK's Michael Schwindel at the VU 12-yard line. Four plays later, Tony Dixon rushed for a three-yard touchdown. Later, the Wildcats tacked on a Lones Seiber 25-yard field goal to make it a one-score game, 24-17.

Vanderbilt's Jared Hawkins rushed for a four-yard touchdown to open the fourth quarter. But Kentucky responded minutes later when Cobb dashed around the left side 10 yards into the end zone to cut the margin to seven points. UK's defense held the Commodores to just 16 total yards offense on three fourth-quarter drives but Moore's second interception with 2:07 to go dashed any hopes of a late Wildcat comeback.

On defense for UK, linebacker Micah Johnson led the team in tackles for the third-straight game and seventh time this season with 12 stops of the Commodores. Defensive end Jeremy Jarmon posted a season-high six tackles against Vanderbilt, including two for a loss of 11 yards while also forcing a fumble. Linebacker Johnny Williams increased his team-leading quarterback sack total to five by taking down VU's Nickson for a 12-yard loss in the third.

TENNESSEE 28, KENTUCKY 10 // 11.29.08

After taking a three-point lead in the first quarter at Tennessee, Kentucky could not hold on as the Volunteers scored 28 unanswered points to send UT's departing head coach, Phillip Fulmer, out with a 28-10 victory in his final game at Neyland Stadium.

On the opening drive of the game, the Wildcats moved the ball inside the UT 25-yard before getting stalled by penalties. Freshman Ryan Tydlacka's "pooch" punt pinned the Volunteers inside their five-yard line. Subsequently, UK's defense pushed UT backwards and forced a three-and-out series. Kentucky got on the scoreboard on its next drive with a Lones Seiber 40-yard field goal, which tied his season-long distance. The Volunteers missed a 31-yard field goal attempt with less than a minute in the quarter.

Both defenses held their opponents in check in the second quarter with six consecutive offensive three-and-out drives. Tennessee took advantage of field position late in the half by taking over in UK territory after forcing UK to punt from inside its own five. With two seconds left in the half, the Wildcat defense forced Tennessee into a decision on a fourth-and-goal situation from the UK one-yard line. UT decided to go for a touchdown and Jonathan Crompton converted a one-yard quarterback sneak with no time remaining to give the Volunteers a four-point lead going into the locker rooms.

The Volunteers started on offense in the second half and quickly added to their lead with a 63-yard touchdown strike from Crompton to Denarius Moore on the third play of the quarter.

Tennessee opened the fourth quarter by capping an 80-yard drive with a five-yard rush into the end zone by Lennon Creer to increase the UT lead. Later on its next drive, Gerald Jones scored on a two-yard run after his 55-yard scramble three plays prior. Kentucky struck back quickly two minutes later with a touchdown drive of its own. Quarterback Mike Hartline connected with E.J. Adams on a 35-yard pass during the drive to set up Alfonso Smith's one-yard plunge into the end zone a few plays later.

Linebacker Micah Johnson led the UK defense in tackles for the fourth-straight game and eighth time this season by stopping 12 Volunteers, including a sack of Crompton. Braxton Kelley added eight stops to his team-leading tackle total this season while Myron Pryor posted a sack and another tackle for a loss in the game.

KENTUCKY 25, EAST CAROLINA 19 // 1.2.09

AUTOZONE LIBERTY BOWL, MEMPHIS, TENN.

Defensive end Ventrell Jenkins scored the game-winning touchdown on a 56-yard fumble return as the Kentucky Wildcats defeated East Carolina 25-19 in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl and won their third-straight bowl game for the first time in school history.

With the game tied at 19 and less than four minutes remaining, UK defensive tackle Myron Pryor knocked the ball away from an ECU running back. The 6-foot-2, 285-pound Jenkins scooped up the ball, stiff-armed a Pirate lineman, and thundered his way down the sideline towards the end zone. The senior from Columbia, S.C., pulled a double move on East Carolina quarterback Patrick Pinkney with a devastating stiff arm – knocking an earpad out of Pinkney's helmet -- and a high step. Jenkins said the next thing he remembered was lying in the end zone with his teammates on top of him.

Jenkins' return capped a big Kentucky comeback. East Carolina led 16-3 at halftime, but senior cornerback David Jones gave a huge lift to the Wildcats by opening the second half with a 99-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. It set a record for the longest kickoff return in the 50-year history of the Liberty Bowl.

Kentucky's lone offensive touchdown came minutes after Jones' kickoff return. Sophomore wide receiver Kyrus Lanxter caught a pass from quarterback Mike Hartline, broke a tackle, and made a nice inside move to avoid another defender and get into the end zone for a 19-yard touchdown reception. Lones Seiber's extra point tied the game at 16 and the teams traded field goals before Jenkins' game-winning fumble rumble.

Following Jenkins' TD, Kentucky got a huge break when East Carolina accidentally downed the kickoff on its own one-yard line. With the help of two pass breakups from freshman cornerback Randall Burden, who was subbing for injured All-American Trevard Lindley, the UK defense forced a punt. UK took over with 2:34 to play and senior tailback Tony Dixon clinched the victory with six straight running plays, grinding out two first downs to run out the clock.

Dixon led all rushers with 89 yards on a career-high 28 carries. Hartline completed 19 of 31 passes for 204 yards and a touchdown. Lanxter set career highs with five catches for 46 yards.

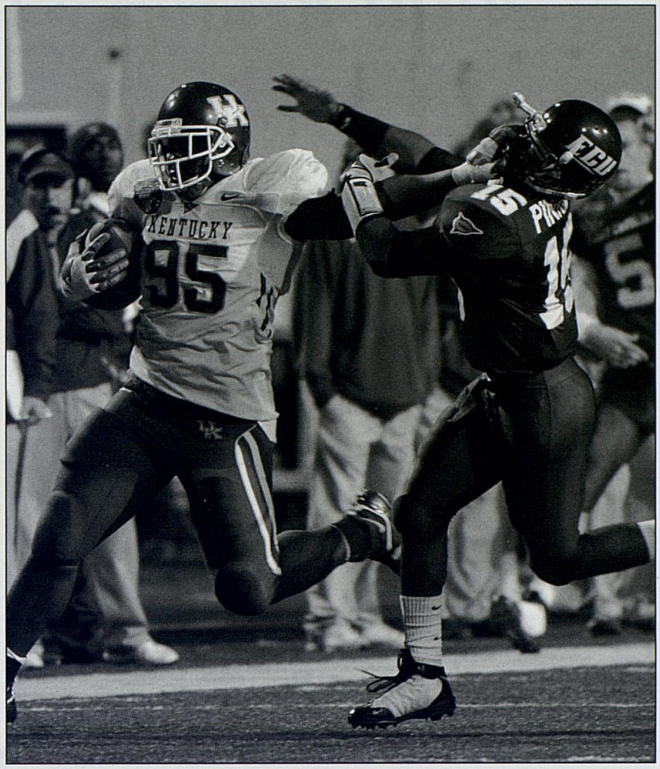

Kentucky's defense held up its end of the bargain with several big plays, totaling nine tackles for loss, three quarterback sacks, seven pass breakups and the game's decisive touchdown. Senior linebacker Braxton Kelley made eight tackles, 2.5 tackles for loss and one sack. Defensive tackle Myron Pryor went out with a bang with a career-high seven tackles, one for loss, the caused fumble and a pass breakup.

East Carolina took an early 10-0 lead in the first quarter after a Ben Hartman field goal and a 28-yard rushing touchdown by Brandon Simmons. Kentucky got on the board midway through the second quarter with a 21-yard field goal by Seiber, but 12 seconds later East Carolina increased its lead with an 80-yard touchdown pass from Pinkney to Darryl Freeney. That gave the Pirates a 16-3 lead at halftime and set the stage for UK's second-half heroics.

Jenkins was named the game's overall Most Valuable player, while Hartline and Kelley were selected UK's most outstanding offensive and defensive players, respectively. After all the bowl games were completed, Jones and Pryor were named to "All-Bowl Teams" by various college football websites in honor of their outstanding performances.

David Jones changed the game's momentum by opening the second half with a 99-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, the longest return in the 50-year history of the Liberty Bowl.

Defensive end Ventrell Jenkins scored the game-winning touchdown with his 56-yard "fumble rumble," including a stiffarm that knocked an earpad out of the opponent's helmet.

Randall Cobb caught two TD passes from Mike Hartline in the final 4:15 of the game for a 21-20 win over Arkansas, tying the record for largest fourth-quarter comeback in school history. Cobb wore No. 12 in the game in honor of injured teammate Dicky Lyons.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL HISTORY

From UK's first All-American, Clyde Johnson, to its most recent, Trevard Lindley; from Professor A.M. Miller to Coach Rich Brooks; from old Stoll Field to Commonwealth Stadium; from the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association to the Southeastern Conference; and with all the ensuing changes, Kentucky football holds a unique and storied tradition that began in 1881.

UK football holds a captivating list of firsts: UK was the first Southeastern Conference team to introduce football, which it did in 1881; UK played in the first and only Great Lakes Bowl in 1947, defeating Villanova, 24-14; Kentucky tackle Bob Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy, making him the first player from the SEC to claim the honor; the Wildcats' Nat Northington was the first African-American player to sign with a Southeastern Conference institution and the first to play in a league contest – vs. Ole Miss in 1967. And in 1989, UK became the first SEC school to win the coveted College Football Association Academic Achievement Award for highest graduation rate.

In 118 seasons, Kentucky has participated in 1,156 contests and owns 560 wins, 552 losses and 44 ties. The 560 victories rank 44th among NCAA Bowl Subdivision (formerly Division I-A) programs in most wins.

Kentucky football has won one national championship, two Southeastern Conference championships and appeared in 13 bowls.

UK football has had 15 National Football League first-round draft choices, one Outland Trophy winner, 22 first-team All-Americans (selected 26 times), 14 Academic All-Americans (selected 17 times), 71 first-team All-SEC players (selected 95 times), and 435 Academic All-SEC selections.

As part of its rich and proud football heritage, Kentucky has claimed one national championship, won two SEC championships, and appeared in 13 bowls.

Kentucky football got its start on Nov. 12, 1881. Kentucky, known in those days as A&M College, Kentucky State College and/or State University of Kentucky, defeated Kentucky University by the clumsy score of 7 1/4 to 1. The game of football resembled more of a rugby form and the scoring procedure is still unclear. Though football came to Kentucky in 1881, it quickly vanished after the three-game season. UK finished 1-2 in the inaugural campaign, but the lid was shut on UK football for the next nine seasons.

Football returned to the University of Kentucky in 1891, when UK defeated Georgetown College, 8-2, on April 10, 1891. The sport would not again be interrupted until the 1943 season because of World War II.

The first known head football coach at Kentucky was Professor A.M. Miller, who the students asked to coach despite his admitted limited knowledge of the game. Miller began the 1892 season, then graciously stepped aside later in the year for John A. Thompson, who had more experience with the sport.

Some successful years in the early 1900s dot the UK record book. Kentucky finished 7-1 in 1903 under Coach C.A. Wright; 9-1 in 1904 under Coach F.E. Schact; 9-1-1 in 1907 with Coach J. White Guyn, and 9-1 in 1909 under E.R. Sweetland.

The greatest UK team of that era was the 1898 squad, known simply to Kentuckians as "The Immortals." To this day, the Immortals remain the only undefeated, untied, and unscored upon team in UK football history. The Immortals were coached by W.R. Bass and ended the year a perfect 7-0-0, despite an average weight of 147 pounds per player. Victories came easily for this squad, as the Immortals raced by Kentucky University (18-0), Georgetown (28-0), Company H of the 8th Massachusetts (59-0), Louisville Athletic Club (16-0), Centre (6-0), 160th Indiana (17-0) and Newcastle Athletic Club (36-0).

Besides Bass, two of the most successful coaches in the early stages of UK football were E.R. Sweetland and Harry Gamage. Sweetland compiled a 23-5 mark in three seasons (1909-10, 12). His best year was 9-1 in '09. Gamage took the reins of the UK program in 1927 and remained until following the 1933 campaign. In between, Gamage led the Wildcats to a combined 32-25-5 record. His best season was 6-1-1 in '29.

One of Gamage's brightest moments came during the 1930 season. During the 57-0 blanking of Maryville, UK running back Shipwreck Kelly rushed for a school-record 280 yards in leading the Cats.

More than a decade after Gamage had left UK, a young man by the name of Paul "Bear" Bryant arrived on the scene at Lexington in 1946. Bryant quickly grabbed the UK program by the collar and turned the Cats into a national power.

Bryant took UK to eight consecutive winning seasons (1946-53) and helped the Wildcats claim their first national championship and Southeastern Conference championship in 1950. He also sent UK squads to four bowl games which included the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl, 1950 Orange Bowl, 1951 Sugar Bowl, and the 1952 Cotton Bowl.

The biggest win in UK football history came under Bryant. After leading Kentucky to its first SEC title and a 10-1 regular-season record, UK found itself matched with defending national champion Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl. The Wildcats scored early and held off the Sooners, 13-7, breaking Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak which is currently the ninth-longest in NCAA history.

In the 1990s, research by Jeff Sagarin, who compiles the Sagarin Computer Ratings for USA Today, indicated that UK is the national champion for the 1950 season under that ranking system.

Also under Bryant, tackle Bob Gain became the first UK and SEC player to win the Outland Trophy in 1950. Other standouts in the Bryant era included George Blanda, All-American Babe Parilli, and eventual UK coach Jerry Claiborne.

Bryant left Kentucky following the 1953 season. He compiled an impressive 60-23-5 record in eight years. Bryant's 60 victories are still a UK football record for head coaches.

Blanton Collier had the task of following in Bryant's footsteps. He stayed eight years at UK as well, etching a 41-36-3 record from 1954 to 1961. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his 5-2-1 record against arch-rival Tennessee. He coached All-Americans Lou Michaels (1957-58) and Howard Schnellenberger (1955) at UK.

Charlie Bradshaw became the head mentor at UK in time for the 1962 season. Bradshaw, a UK graduate who lettered four years (1946-49), managed only a 25-41-4 record in seven seasons. One highlight of his term at UK came in 1964, a 27-21 upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss in Jackson, Miss.

John Ray entered the scene in 1969 as head coach. In four years, Ray was 10-33. His biggest win came during his first year as Kentucky again victimized Ole Miss and Archie Manning. The Cats upset the Rebels, 10-9, in Lexington.

The Fran Curci era began in 1973, the same year Kentucky moved from ancient Stoll Field/McLean Stadium to spacious Common-wealth Stadium. Though Curci had only one winning campaign during his first three years, things got interesting beginning with the 1976 season. UK ended the '76 year with an 8-3 record and its second SEC championship.

Kentucky helped secure its second league title on the strength of a 62-yard touchdown pass from Derrick Ramsey to Greg Woods to beat Tennessee, 7-0, at Knoxville, Tenn. The victory clinched a berth in the Peach Bowl against North Carolina, UK's first postseason appearance in 25 years. Before a UK contingent estimated at 25,000, the Cats blanked the Tar Heels, 21-0.

The following year, Kentucky went on NCAA probation. Despite an early season loss at Baylor, the Wildcats rolled to an impressive 10-1 record doing it the hard way. Kentucky defeated Penn State (24-20) in University Park, Pa., defeated LSU (33-13) in Baton Rouge, La., blanked Georgia (33-0) in Athens, Ga., beat Florida (14-7) in Gainesville, Fla., and defeated Tennessee (21-17) in Lexington.

In the Curci era, players like Sonny Collins (UK career leader with 3,835 yards rushing), All-Americans Warren Bryant and Art Still and multi-talented Derrick Ramsey, wore the blue and white. In all, Curci worked nine years, the longest term of any UK head coach.

Jerry Claiborne answered the call of his alma mater in December of 1981 and was named the school's 31st head football coach. Claiborne had played at UK from 1946-49 and was an assistant coach under Bryant at UK in 1952-53.

After an 0-10-1 mark in Claiborne's first season, his 1983 squad tied for the nation's most improved program with a regular-season record of 6-4-1. As a reward, the Hall of Fame Bowl offered an invitation and UK accepted to give the Cats their sixth bowl appearance.

Kentucky improved in 1984, finishing with a 9-3 record which included a thrilling 20-19 victory over Wisconsin in the '84 Hall of Fame Bowl.

Claiborne won 41 games during his eight seasons with the Wildcats. Claiborne and Bryant are the only two UK coaches to win at least five games in seven consecutive seasons.

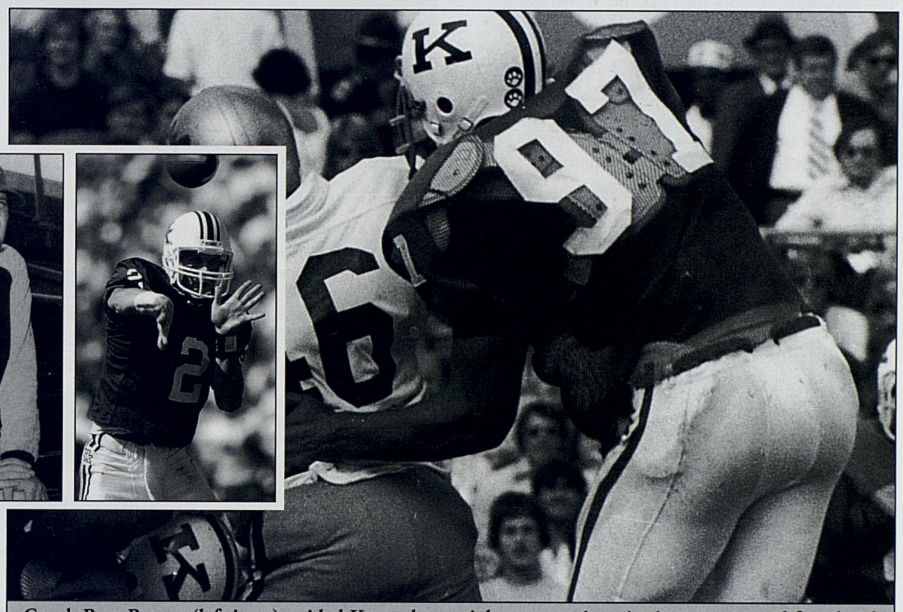

During Claiborne's tenure, Kentucky captured the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. UK led the SEC in SEC Academic Honor Roll selections (68) during the Claiborne era, including a then-league record of 17 players named to the 1989 honor roll.

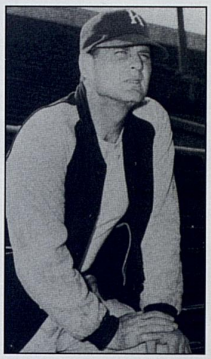

Individually, quarterback Bill Ransdell played under Claiborne and left as UK's all-time leader in passing and total offense. Mark Higgs departed as the school's second-leading rusher and tackle Oliver Barnett set a UK record with 26 quarterback sacks.

After Claiborne's retirement, Bill Curry took over as head coach in 1990. Curry returned UK to the bowl scene in 1993 as the Wildcats played in the Peach Bowl.

In 1994, the Wildcats faced intrastate rival Louisville for the first time in 70 years and defeated the Cardinals 20-14 in front of a then-record 59,162 fans in Commonwealth Stadium.

The 1995 season was highlighted by tailback Moe Williams, who rushed for 1,600 yards, broke three SEC records, and broke or tied 15 school records. Williams had 429 all-purpose yards in a win at South Carolina, the second-highest single-game total in NCAA history.

Coach Bear Bryant (left inset) guided Kentucky to eight consecutive winning seasons and four bowl games from 1946-53. Other legendary UK football names include Art Still, who earned consensus first-team All-America honors at defensive end in 1977 and All-America quarterback Tim Couch (right inset), who led Kentucky to its first New Year's Day Bowl appearance in 47 years in the 1999 Outback Bowl.

The arrival of Coach Hal Mumme in 1997 unleashed a lightning bolt of enthusiasm for Kentucky football. Mumme's dynamic "Air Raid" offense put UK among the national leaders in passing yardage and total offense and the '97 team broke or tied 51 school records and 15 Southeastern Conference records.

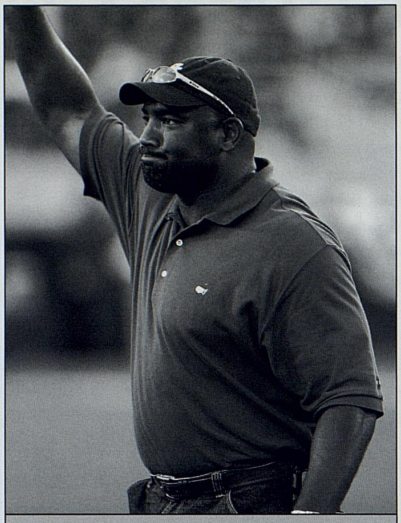

Kentucky returned to the bowl scene in 1998 when the Wildcats won seven games. Quarterback Tim Couch was a first-team All-American, SEC Player of the Year, and a finalist for the Heisman Trophy while rewriting NCAA, SEC, and UK record books. Wide receiver Craig Yeast became the leading pass catcher in SEC history. The Wildcats capped their season by playing Penn State in the Outback Bowl, the school's first New Year's Day bowl game in 47 years.

Following the Outback Bowl season,

Commonwealth Stadium was expanded. UK enclosed both end zones and added personal suites in time for the 1999 season, boosting seating capacity to 67,606. The Wildcats celebrated the stadium expansion with another bowl season. All-America tight end James Whalen helped lead UK to the 1999 HomePoint.com Music City Bowl, marking the school's first back-to-back bowl appearances since 1983-84.

Guy Morriss coached the Wildcats in 2001-02. He guided UK to seven wins in '02, but the Wildcats could not go to a bowl game because of NCAA probation. Derek Abney returned six kicks for touchdowns, more than any player in one season in NCAA history, and was named first-team All-America along with punter Glenn Pakulak. Pakulak emerged as the best punter in school history and won the Mosi Tatupu Award as National Special Teams Player of the Year.

Inheriting a roster weakened by probation was the major obstacle for Rich Brooks when he took over as head coach in 2003. Brooks' rebuilding efforts began bearing fruit in 2006. The Wildcats had their best season in 22 years by winning eight games, including a win over Georgia and a 28-20 upset of highly favored Clemson in the Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl.

Seven-time NFL All-Pro center Dermontti Dawson was one of the former Wildcat football players inducted into UK Athletics' inaugural Hall of Fame class in September 2005.

Led by quarterback Andre' Woodson, tailback Rafael Little, wide receiver Keenan Burton, tight end Jacob Tamme and linebacker Wesley Woodyard, the 2007 season contained some of the most exciting moments in school history.

UK notched its first win over a Top-10 opponent in 30 years with a dramatic comeback victory over No. 9 Louisville. UK reached the Top-10 rankings for the first time since 1977 and the popular "ESPN GameDay" crew made its first visit to campus. UK also knocked off No. 1-ranked LSU -- the eventual national champion -- with a 43-37 triple-overtime thriller. The campaign was capped with another Music City Bowl win, this time over traditional power Florida State.

Led by a maturing defense, the momentum continued in the 2008 season when the Wildcats defeated East Carolina in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. That marked the first time in school history that UK won bowl games in three consecutive seasons.

Wildcat Traditions & Legends

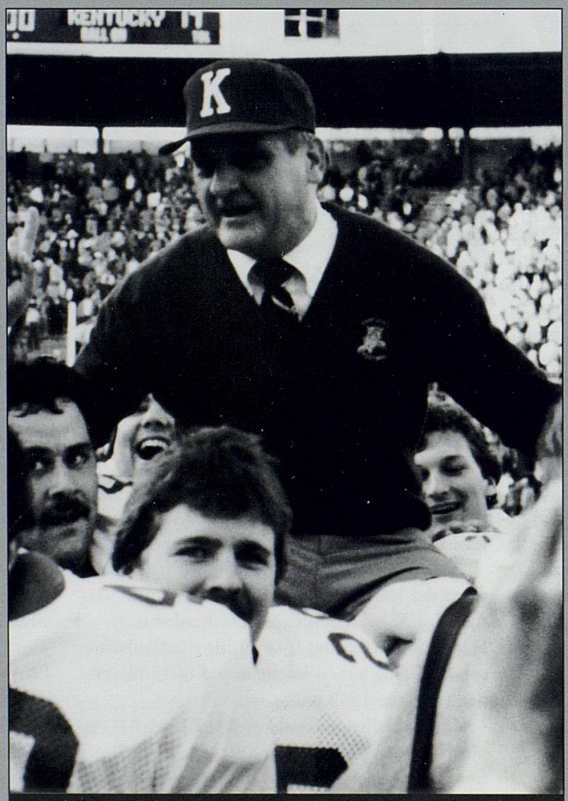

Below is a closer look at some of the traditions and history which has molded the past 118 seasons of Kentucky football. Some of the anecdotes were derived from the book, "The Wildcats," which was written by former UK Sports Information Director Russell Rice.

1A And 1B

During the course of his legendary career, Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant was known as an innovator of introducing changes in the game of football. One change Bryant introduced during his tenure at Kentucky was the use of a unique number system to identify twins Harry and Larry Jones, who both lettered three years (1950-52) with the Wildcats. Harry wore 1A and Larry wore 1B. Harry led the Wildcats in all-purpose yardage in 1951 with 964 while Larry led UK in kickoff returns (21.1 avg) in 952.

Blue and White

The University of Kentucky adopted blue and white as its official colors in 1892. Originally, UK students had decided on blue and yellow prior to the Kentucky-Centre football game on Dec. 19, 1891. The shade of blue came about when a student asked the question, "What color blue?" Richard C. Stoll, who lettered on the 1893-94 football teams, pulled off his necktie and held it up. The students adopted that particular shade of blue in Stoll's necktie. A year later, UK students dropped yellow for white.

Coach Jerry Claiborne gets a victory ride following UK's win at Tennessee in 1984. Claiborne was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2000.

Jim Brown, Superfan

When it comes to Kentucky football, Jim Brown has seen it all. With the exception of his World War II military service in 1944, Brown has seen every UK home game—and a lot of the away games—since 1938. Entering the 2008 season, he has attended a streak of 409 consecutive home games. For an extended feature on Brown and his love for the Wildcats, see page 140.

Paul "Bear" Bryant

Paul Bryant is still the most successful coach in UK football history. Bryant spent eight years at UK (1946-53) and produced a 60-23-5 (.710 pct.) record. The 60 victories are the most by any UK football coach. He led the Wildcats to four bowl games and their first Southeastern Conference title in 1950. He coached such UK stars as George Blanda, Jerry Claiborne, Bob Gain, Babe Parilli, Doug Moseley, Wilbur Jamerson and Steve Meilinger.

UK Cheerleaders 17-Time National Champions

The Kentucky cheerleading squad won an unprecedented 17th national cheerleading championship in 2009 at the competition sponsored by the Universal Cheerleaders Association. The cheerleaders have won the UCA national title in 1985, 1987, 1988, 1992, 1995-2002, 2004-06 and 2008-09 and have been the runners-up on five occasions. Jomo Thompson is coach of the cheerleaders and T. Lynn Williamson is the cheerleader advisor. A total of 40 students comprise the squad, 16 of whom represent the school at the championship.

Jerry Claiborne

After lettering three years (1946-49) as a player and serving two seasons (1952-53) as an assistant coach at Kentucky, Jerry Claiborne returned to his alma mater in 1982 as UK's 31st head football coach. Claiborne stepped down after 28 years as a collegiate head coach in 1989. He led the Wildcats to two bowls and four non-losing seasons. During his era, Kentucky placed more players (68) on the SEC Academic Honor Roll than any league school, including a then-record 17 in 1989. Claiborne also led UK to a national academic title by capturing the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. His eight-year UK record was 41-46-3. Overall, Claiborne finished 21st among Division I coaches with 179 career victories and 179-122-8 in all games. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in Aug. 2000.

CFA Academic Achievement Award

The University of Kentucky became the first Southeastern Conference institution to win the College Football Association Academic Achievement Award after claiming the prestigious honor in 1989. The Academic Achievement Award is given to the CFA institution with the highest graduation rate of its football program based on a five-year period. UK had graduated 90 percent (18 of 20) of its incoming freshman signee class of 1983, thus earning the honor in May, 1989. A year earlier (1988), UK finished second with a graduation rate of 90.5 percent. Kentucky earned honorable mention honors in 1988, '91, '93 and '94, for having graduated better than 70 percent of its incoming freshman class.

Blanton Collier And The Staff

Blanton Collier had the challenge of following Paul Bryant as head football coach at the University of Kentucky. But, Collier posted a fine 41-36-3 record in eight seasons at UK. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his record against arch-rival Tennessee which stood at 5 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie. Standouts such as Howard Schnellenberger, Lou Michaels, Tom Hutchinson, Bobby Cravens, Calvin Bird and Irv Goode played under Collier. One fascinating item in Collier's tenure was the football coaching staff he assembled in 1959. The 1959 UK staff included Collier, Ed Rutledge, Howard Schnellenberger, Ermal Allen, Don Shula, John North, Bob Cummings and Bill Arnsparger.

Bear Bryant's Sugar Bowl champion Wildcats earned the 1950 national title, according to the Sagarin computer ratings.

Fran Curci

The Fran Curci era (1973-81) was one of ups and downs at the University of Kentucky. Curci remained at UK for nine seasons, the longest tenure of any UK football coach, and posted a 47-51-2 record. The ups consisted of sharing the 1976 Southeastern Conference title with Georgia, a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina in the '76 Peach Bowl, and a 1977 squad which boasted a 10-1 record and No. 5 national ranking. The down was probation which forced the '77 squad to miss a certain bowl invitation.

DiGiuro Scholarship

The Trent DiGiuro Memorial Scholarship was established in the autumn of 1994 in honor of the Wildcat offensive guard who died in July of that year. The scholarship is awarded each year to a walk-on football player who has completed his eligibility, maintained a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.5, and has exemplified the dedication, determination, hard work and leadership typified by Trent DiGiuro. If there is no suitable walk-on candidate that year, the scholarship will go to a team manager or trainer who meets the above criteria. The scholarship was established by DiGiuro's family and friends. The 2008 winner of the scholarship is wide receiver Sean Murphy.

Forward Pass

The first forward pass attempted by a University of Kentucky football player was thrown on Oct. 13, 1906, by quarterback Earl Stone as the Wildcats faced Eminence Athletic Club. This was the first year the forward pass was legalized by national rules. Accounts from this early contest do not indicate if the first forward UK pass was completed.

The goalposts came down after UK's 1997 overtime win against Alabama.

Goalposts

The Commonwealth Stadium goalposts have been torn down twice since the stadium opened in 1973.

They were first toppled on Oct. 4, 1997, following Kentucky's 40-34 overtime win vs. Alabama. It was Kentucky's first victory against the Crimson Tide in 75 years, prompting the UK student body to storm the field. "If I weren't so old, I'd have torn them down myself," said then-UK Athletics Director C. M. Newton.

It happened again on Nov. 4, 2006, after the Wildcats' dramatic 24-20 triumph over Georgia. It was UK's first win over the Bulldogs in 10 years and the crowd brought down the east goalpost.

Citing safety concerns, UK has installed collapsible goalposts, which will prevent repeats of the popular -- but potentially dangerous -- celebration ritual.

Governor's Cup

The Governor's Cup was created in 1994 as the trophy for the winner of the Kentucky-Louisville game. Donated by Kroger at a cost of $23,000, the Governor's Cup stands 33 inches tall and weighs 110 pounds. The trophy's base and upright columns are hand-milled black marble. The glass components are comprised of Optic grade crystal. All metal parts are 23-karat, gold-plated brass. The cup itself is solid pewter with a 23-karat gold-plated finish. The Governor's Cup was designed by Kendall Costner and sculpted by James Corcoran of Bruce Fox, Inc. The UK-U of L series was renewed in 1994 with the Wildcats winning the game, 20-14.

Homecoming Games

As is the case of most institutions, Homecoming football games are special. Kentucky is no exception. Alumni and old friends converge on the UK campus each fall for Homecoming Day, highlighted by a Kentucky football game. The first Homecoming Day occurred on Nov. 25, 1915, as Kentucky defeated Tennessee, 6-0. Though records are sketchy, Kentucky has hosted a Homecoming game every year since 1946 and owns a 46-17 record in those 63 contests.

The Immortals

Simply known as "The Immortals," the 1898 University of Kentucky football squad still remains as the only undefeated, untied, and unscored on Wildcats club in school history. The Immortals outscored opponents 180-0 while posting a perfect 7-0-0 record. Roscoe

In 1965, Nat Northington became the first African-American football player to sign with an SEC school.

Severs served as team captain under coach W.R. Bass. The closest of all seven games was a 6-0 victory over Centre College.

Cawood Ledford

The legendary "Voice of the Wildcats" was none other than Cawood Ledford. For 39 years, Cawood called Wildcats football and basketball. His voice alone symbolized UK Athletics. Cawood called his last UK football game vs. Tennessee on Nov. 23, 1991, and retired from the microphone following the 1991-92 basketball season.

Mascots

The Wildcat mascot originated during the 1976-77 academic year at Kentucky. Gary Tanner was the original Wildcat, dancing and entertaining thousands of UK fans at Commonwealth Stadium and Rupp Arena during athletic events.

Today, the Wildcat mascot also attends several academic functions as well and generally serves as a friendly ambassador for the University.

Scratch, another costumed mascot, was unveiled in August of 1996. During UK games, the Wildcat and Scratch entertain with enthusiastic dances and cheers.

"Blue" is UK's 'live' wildcat mascot. "Blue" has a permanent residence in the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife's Salato Wildlife Center three miles west of Frankfort on US 60 and is on display and free to view by the public. Through the years, UK has had other official live mascots with colorful names. Records indicate that the first wild animal, named "Tom," was given to the University in 1921. Other live mascots followed, including "TNT, " "Whiskers," "Hot Tamale" and "Colonel."

Minus Ninety-Three

The University of Kentucky holds the Southeastern Conference record for fewest yards allowed rushing in a single game. Kentucky limited Kansas State to minus-93 yards on the ground as UK defeated Kansas State, 16-3, on Sept. 19, 1970, in Lexington. Kentucky defenders sacked KSU quarterbacks Lynn Dickey (2) and Max Arreguin (5) seven times while intercepting three of their passes. Ironically, KSU outgained UK in total offense 214-107 as Dickey and Arreguin combined for 307 yards in the air.

National Champions

Kentucky is the 1950 national champion, according to Jeff Sagarin, who handles computer rankings for USA Today. Sagarin, who has generated computer ratings since the 1970s, has reconstructed earlier seasons and his computer rates the Wildcats as tops for the 1950 campaign.

At the time, the national champs were crowned after the regular season but before the bowl games. UK finished the regular season with a 10-1 record and No. 7 ranking before knocking off No. 1 Oklahoma, 13-7, in the Sugar Bowl. Four teams can lay claim to the 1950 title, according to the official NCAA record book. Six selectors went with Oklahoma (final record 10-1), six picked Tennessee (11-1), two chose Princeton (9-0), and one – the Sagarin ratings – named Kentucky (11-1).

The First Night Game

The University of Kentucky was one of the first institutions to play intercollegiate football at night. The first UK home night game was played on Oct. 5, 1929, at Stoll Field as Kentucky defeated Maryville, 40-0. Kentucky did not play more than one home night game per season until 1946.

Night Games

The University of Kentucky began holding its October home football games during the evening hours in 1949. UK and Keeneland Race Course, located in Lexington, have enjoyed a close relationship through the years and assist in giving UK faithful an opportunity to enjoy two of the Commonwealth's best-loved events in October — football and horse racing. With the traditional post time at Keeneland for the thoroughbred races at 1:10 p.m., UK began moving its October home games to night during the 1949 season. The only occasion UK has not conducted its October home games in the evening is to accommodate live national or regional television.

Nat Northington

Nat Northington of Louisville became the first black player to sign with the University of Kentucky and a Southeastern Conference institution. Northington signed a national letter-of-intent with UK in December of 1965. He later became the first African-American football player to play in an SEC vs. SEC game, appearing in the UK-Ole Miss game in Lexington on Sept. 30, 1967.

Outland Trophy

Two-time All-American Bob Gain is the only player in University of Kentucky football history to be awarded the Outland Trophy, signifying the best interior lineman in collegiate football. Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy after helping lead UK to its first Southeastern Conference title and a 10-1 regular-season record. Besides being the first UK player to claim the award, Gain was also the first SEC player to be given the award.

The Prince of Wales

The Kentucky Wildcats gave Prince Charles, the Prince of Wales, his first taste of American football on Oct. 22, 1977. That's right, Prince Charles' first football game was the UK-Georgia matchup at Athens. Prince Charles was introduced to UK Coach Fran Curci and All-American Art Still at halftime. After looking at the 6-6 Still, Prince Charles said, "You're a tall one aren't you?" Still and Co. blanked the Bulldogs on this day, 33-0, on their way to a 10-1 record.

Red Doc, Black Doc

A pair of cousins named William Rodes played football for the University of Kentucky during the early 1900s. To distinguish one from the other, one was nicknamed "Red Doc" and the other "Black Doc." William "Red Doc" Rodes lettered three years (1909, 11-12) as a 140-pound halfback and defensive end. William "Black Doc" Rodes lettered two years (1915-16) as quarterback. Black Doc was considered by many to be one of the best open-field runners in that era. He also placekicked and personally delivered UK's 6-0 victory over Tennessee in 1915 with field goals of 45 and 43 yards.

Russell Rice

Longtime UK sports information director Russell Rice is the walking, talking historian when it comes to Wildcats football. Rice retired from the UK Athletics Department in 1989 after serving 18 years as sports information director. He came to UK in 1967 as assistant SID under Ken Kuhn, then was named sports information director in 1969. Rice authored the book, "The Wildcats," which details Kentucky football and its history. At his retirement party, Rice was given a lifetime "Press Pass" to Commonwealth Stadium.

Since his retirement from UK, Rice has written a weekly historical column for The Cats' Pause magazine and he continues to be a rich historical resource for the UK media relations office.

Kentucky Fight Song

On, on U of K, we are right for the fight today,
Hold that ball and hit that line,
Every Wildcat star will shine,
We'll fight, fight, fight,
For the blue and white,
As we roll to that goal, varsity,
And we'll kick, pass and run,
'til the battle is won,
And we'll bring home the victory.

My Old Kentucky Home

The sun shines bright on my old Kentucky home,
'Tis summer, the people are gay;
The corntop's ripe and the meadow's
in the bloom,
While the birds make music all the day.

(Chorus)
Weep no more, my lady!
Oh! Weep no more today!
We will sing one song for my old Kentucky home,
For my old Kentucky home far away.

The young folks roll on the little cabin floor,
All merry, all happy, and bright;
By-n-by hard times come a-knocking at the door,
Then my old Kentucky home, goodnight!

UK Alma Mater

Hail Kentucky, Alma Mater!
Loyal sons and daughters sing;
Sound her praise with voice united;
To the breeze her colors fling.
To the Blue and White be true;
Badge triumphant age on age;
Blue, the sky that o'er us bends;
White, Kentucky's stainless page.

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was the first home for Kentucky football. The stadium was located adjacent to Memorial Coliseum and served as UK's football home since 1916. The University Board of Trustees voted to name the playing field "Stoll Field" and the actual grandstand structures as "McLean Stadium," thus the often confusing double names. Stoll Field was named in honor of the late Judge Richard C. Stoll, a prominent alumnus, trustee and benefactor of UK. Stoll Field was dedicated on Oct. 14, 1916. McLean Stadium was dedicated on Nov. 1, 1924, in memory of Price Innes McLean, a regular center on the 1923 UK squad who died as a result of injuries sustained in the Kentucky-Cincinnati game on Nov. 6, 1923. The final seating capacity of Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was 37,000 during its last year of use, 1972.

The Thin Thirty

When Blanton Collier stepped down as head football coach at Kentucky following the 1961 season, UK promptly named former Wildcats player Charlie Bradshaw as its 28th coach. Bradshaw inherited a squad of 88 players left from Collier's 5-5-0 team in '61. Bradshaw promised his new UK squad hard work and talked of training to an absolute peak of condition. His conditioning tactics took their toll as more than 50 players left the squad, leaving 30 to open the season against Florida State and prompting the name "Thin Thirty." The Thin Thirty finished 3-5-2 with victories over Detroit (27-8), Vanderbilt (7-0) and arch-rival Tennessee (12-10). The ties were against Florida State (0-0) and Georgia (7-7).

100th Anniversary of Wildcats Nickname

The nickname "Wildcats" became synonymous with UK shortly after a 6-2 football victory at Illinois on Oct. 9, 1909. Commandant

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was home to Kentucky football for 56 years (1916-1972).

Philip Carbusier, then head of the military department, told a group of students in a chapel service following the game that the Kentucky football team had "fought like wildcats." The nickname grew in popularity and was adopted by the university.

The 2009 season marks the 100th anniversary of the nickname.

Winning Streak

Kentucky ended one of the longest winning streaks in college football history when the Wildcats faced Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl.

Kentucky was coming off its first Southeastern Conference title and brought in a 10-1 record. Oklahoma entered as national champions and riding a 31-game winning streak. A pair of Wilbur Jamerson scores - a 22-yard pass from Babe Parilli and a one-yard run - was all UK needed in picking up a 13-7 upset of the Sooners.

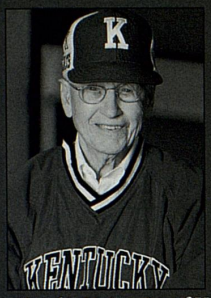

At the time, the 31-game winning streak was the fifth-longest in NCAA history and today it still ranks as the ninth-longest in NCAA history.

The Year (1977-78)

Perhaps the most successful year in UK Athletics occurred during the 1977-78 academic year at the University of Kentucky. The 1977 Wildcats football squad, under Fran Curci, raced to a 10-1 record and ended the year ranked No. 5 by The Sporting News. Highlights were victories over North Carolina (10-7), West Virginia (28-13), Penn State (24-20), LSU (33-13), Georgia (33-0), Florida (14-7) and Tennessee (21-17). On the basketball side, UK wrapped up its fifth NCAA title by defeating Duke, 94-88, at St. Louis. The UK basketballers ended the campaign with a 30-2 record under Joe B. Hall.

The Year (1950-51)

An argument to the most successful year in UK Athletics is the 1950-51 academic year. UK football, under Paul Bryant, ended the 1950 regular season with a 10-1 record and ranked No. 7 nationally by both A.P. and U.P.I. The Wildcats then proceeded to snap national champion Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak with a 13-7 victory in the Sugar Bowl. Kentucky has been named national champion for the 1950 season by the Sagarin Ratings. On the basketball front, Adolph Rupp gave UK its third national title by defeating Kansas State, 68-58, at Minneapolis, Minn. The Wildcats ended the year 32-2.

Kentucky Superfan
Jim Brown

When it comes to Kentucky football, Jim Brown has seen it all.

The last time the 90-year-old Brown missed a University of Kentucky home football game, Franklin D. Roosevelt was president, bread cost a few cents a loaf, and Bear Bryant was just a cub.

When Brown settles in for the home opener, in Section 129, Row 41, Seat 22, it will mark his 410th consecutive UK home football game, with one exception that we'll get to later.

"I'm all for Kentucky football," Brown said. "I liked football from an early age, when I was a little kid in Western Kentucky. Football was the big thing in the 1920s and I followed UK in the sports pages."

Brown's streak began in 1938 when he came to Lexington to attend UK. A standout halfback in high school, he had hoped to play for the Wildcats, but was unable to try out for the team because he had to work his way through school. That didn't stop him from going to the games. In fact, it took a world war to separate Brown from Kentucky football.

"I was in a race with Uncle Sam to graduate before I got inducted into the service," Brown said. "I graduated in 1942 and got sent to Wright Field in Dayton. You couldn't get gasoline, and I didn't have a car anyway, so I caught the train from Dayton to Cincinnati to Lexington to see the games that season. I didn't miss any games in 1943 because, like a lot of schools, UK didn't field a team that year."

World War II finally got bigger than Kentucky football in 1944. Brown was a navigator/bombardier on a B-25 in Asia, part of a squadron called the "Burma Bridge Busters," definitely too far for a weekend excursion to catch the Cats. But he was discharged just in time for the 1945 season, and he hasn't missed a home game since.

(An interesting side note is that the "Burma Bridge Busters" were the subject of a 2003 documentary by the History Channel. Brown was one of the members of the squadron who was interviewed and featured in the documentary.)

A member of what has become known as "The Greatest Generation," Brown helped build America – literally. He was involved with the construction business, a lumber company, and in real estate.

Even his marriage had a tie to Kentucky football. He married Carolyn Rodes, daughter of William "Black Doc" Rodes, a UK football star in 1915-16.

The Browns didn't always live in Lexington. They lived in Carrollton from 1952-63, and in Winchester from 1965-78. All the while, he kept turning out to see his favorite team.

"I always worked on Saturday mornings (at the lumber company). I left a lot of people standing in the store, saying 'I have to go to Lexington,'" Brown recalled with a laugh. "I wasn't trying to set a record. It just happened."

Brown's favorite gridiron memories involve the 1949-50-51 teams that played in the Orange, Sugar, and Cotton Bowls, along with the mid-1970s teams that won an SEC championship and a Peach Bowl.

"People who go back that far feel that our 1950 team probably was our best," said Brown, referring to the Wildcat squad that is the 1950 national champion, according to the Sagarin computer ratings. "(Quarterback) Babe Parilli was as good at deception as anyone I've ever seen. I was in a game in Atlanta against Georgia Tech, and a Tech fan was sitting beside me. He said, 'It looks like Parilli is shaking hands with everybody in the backfield before he hands the ball off.'

"That bunch in 1977 was probably the second-best team we've had," Brown continued. "They had a lot of terrific athletes, especially (future NFL stars) Art Still and Derrick Ramsey."

As much as he enjoys talking about the past, Brown is just as excited about the present and future. After 52 years of marriage, wife Carolyn passed away in 1999. He married again in 2002, and new wife Mary Anne Goodson Brown also is a UK grad.

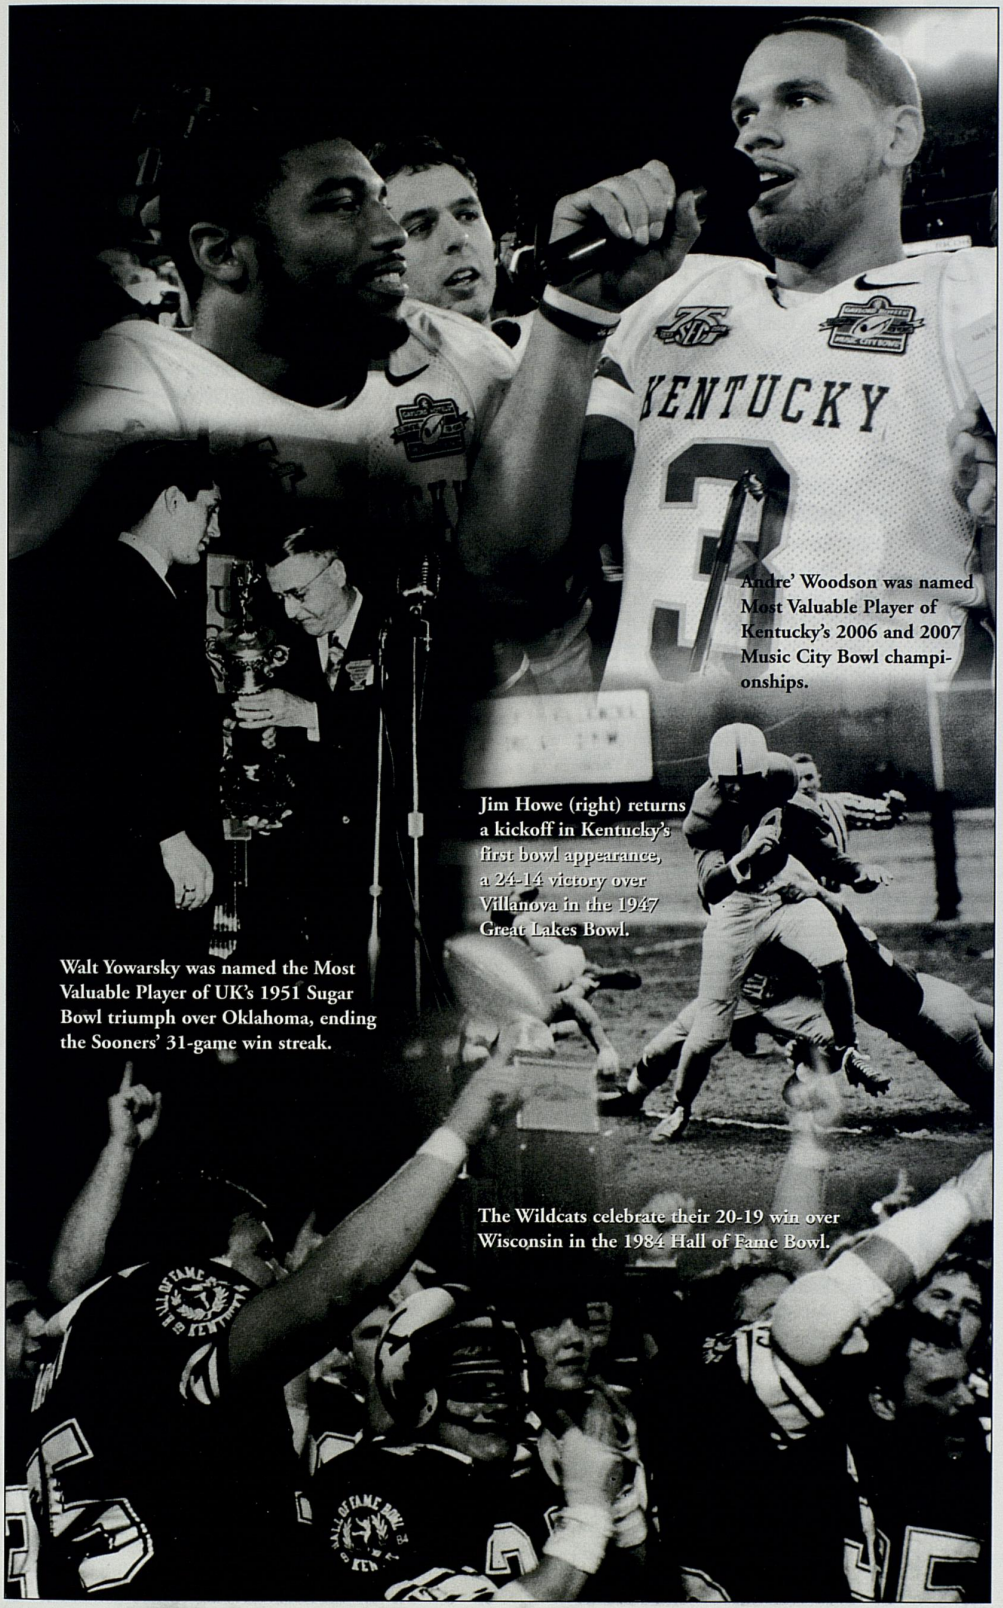

Brown is happy with the progress made at the University.

"We're going in the right direction with the new AD (Mitch Barnhart) and President (Lee) Todd. The whole university is charting an exciting course."

Brown plans to continue going to Kentucky games as long as possible. And, he's a model of faithfulness in more than football. He has a 43-year streak of perfect attendance at the Lexington Rotary Club. He's also a pillar of Crestwood Christian Church, where he is an elder emeritus. Asked about his consistency, Brown replied in what must be the understatement of the year.

"I've always had a tendency to be loyal," he said.

TEAM RECORDS

UK Upsets No. 1 Ole Miss Behind Kestner

Rick Kestner hauled in nine passes for 185 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Wildcats to a 27-21 upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss at Mississippi Memorial Stadium in Jackson in 1964 . . . In the third quarter, Kestner was on the receiving end of a 32-yard halfback pass from Rodger Bird to give UK a 13-7 lead . . . Kestner added two additional scores on tosses from QB Rick Norton (60 and 23) as the Wildcats rallied from 14-13 and 21-20 deficits late in the second half for the upset.

Bishop's Theft Gives UK Victory

Darryl Bishop of Louisville, whose final season was 1973, remains the UK leader in career interceptions with 14 . . . One of his most notable interceptions took place on Nov. 6, 1971, at Dudley Field in Nashville . . . With UK and Vanderbilt knotted at 7-7 and less than 50 seconds to play, Kentucky elected to punt facing a 4th-and-8 situation from its own 44 . . . Walter Overton made a fair catch at the Commodore 30, giving Vandy a first down . . . After QB Steve Burger lost four yards on the first play, the Commodores elected not to use a timeout . . . Then as time expired, Burger lofted a pass toward receiver Gary Chesley . . . The ball never got to Chesley as Bishop picked off the aerial and raced 43 yards for the winning score, giving UK a 14-7 victory on the game's final play.

DR. LEE T. TODD, JR., PRESIDENT

Lee T. Todd, Jr. became the 11th president of the University of Kentucky on July 1, 2001, after serving as senior vice president of IBM's Lotus Development Corp. President Todd is the sixth UK alumnus to hold the presidency.

President Todd has concentrated his efforts and energies on helping his alma mater achieve a greater level of national prominence. He launched the University of Kentucky's Top 20 Business Plan in December 2005. The plan is a quantitative analysis highlighting what it will take for UK to achieve its state-mandated goal of building a Top 20 public research university. Widely hailed as the first business plan by a public university in the nation, UK's plan garnered widespread national attention. It has been featured by national media outlets and recognized by peer institutions, as several higher education leaders have visited UK's campus to learn more about the Business Plan approach.

He continues to champion UK's outreach efforts. President Todd launched a university-funded research program called the Commonwealth Collaboratives. The initiative features 36 of UK's top research teams, who are focused on solving the intrinsic problems that have held the state back from reaching its full potential. It is part of UK's effort to ensure that its research hits the ground in Kentucky and changes lives throughout the Commonwealth.

President Todd has spearheaded an effort to revitalize health care in Kentucky. In June 2006, UK unveiled the Commonwealth's Medical Campus of the Future, a multi-phased project aimed at providing Kentuckians with cutting-edge, 21st century health care. As part of the revamped academic medical campus, UK will construct a new, one million square foot University of Kentucky Albert B. Chandler Hospital and a new College of Pharmacy.

President Todd is Chair of the Board of Directors and Executive Committee for the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities (APLU). He also is President of the Southeastern Conference (SEC) Executive Committee. President Todd serves on the Equitable Resources Board of Directors and is chair of the Kentucky Council on Postsecondary Education's STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics) Task Force. He is chair of the National Consortium for Continuous Improvement in Higher Education's (NCCI) Leveraging Excellence Award selection panel. President Todd also is a member of the Business Higher Education Forum and the Council on Competitiveness.

He is married to the former Patricia Brantley, a UK graduate who earned her master's degree from Simmons College in Boston. They have two adult children, UK graduates Troy and Kathryn.

MITCH BARNHART, DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Mitch Barnhart is in his eighth year at the University of Kentucky, with unparalleled accomplishments in his past and unprecedented goals for the future.

When he arrived in 2002, Barnhart's first move was to totally support all 22 varsity sports with the maximum number of scholarships and coaches, along with the facilities, equipment and support staff needed to make those teams successful.

The commitment to fully fund every sport produced never-before-seen successes in UK athletics, with first-ever Southeastern Conference championships in baseball, men's golf and women's tennis.

Perhaps the biggest on-field turnaround has been in football, where Barnhart's hire of Rich Brooks has led the Wildcats to bowl wins in three consecutive years, the first time that has been accomplished in UK's 117 seasons in the sport.

In order to make the dreams a reality, Barnhart spearheaded record-breaking growth in philanthropic giving, ticket sales and a comprehensive multi-media rights agreement.

Barnhart's connection to UK student-athletes is evident by his individual interaction and dedication to provide the support services necessary to meet their needs. UK Athletics spends more than $1.5 million annually on its nationally renowned Center for Academic and Tutorial Services. He also began the CATSPYs, an annual awards program that honors the best of UK Athletics.

Additional initiatives begun under Barnhart's leadership include the UK Athletics Hall of Fame and the Joe Craft Center, a $30 million facility that includes new practice and administrative space for a variety of sports.

Barnhart's influence reaches far beyond the fields of competition. Despite athletics' urgent financial needs, Barnhart initiated a $1.2 million annual contribution to the University's scholarship program, a contribution that is being increased to $1.7 million this year.

Social responsibility in the Commonwealth of Kentucky is a priority for Barnhart, who has been extremely active in community service and encourages the UK athletics staff to do the same.

Not content with past successes, Barnhart's ambitious course for the future was revealed with his recent announcement of the "15x15x15" plan. The goals are to win at least 15 conference or national championships and rank among the NCAA's top 15 athletic programs by 2015 – all of which would represent unprecedented achievements for UK Athletics – while continuing to expand UK Athletics' service to the local community and commonwealth of Kentucky. Another goal of the initiative is a cumulative 3.0 grade-point average for UK's 500 student-athletes.

Barnhart arrived at Kentucky from Oregon State, where he served four successful years (1998-2002) as athletics director. Before his term at OSU, he worked in athletics administration posts at Tennessee (1986-98), Southern Methodist University (1983-86), Oregon (1983) and San Diego State (1982-1983).

Barnhart, 50, is a native of Kansas City, Kan. He received his bachelor degree from Ottawa University (Kansas) in 1981 and a masters in sports administration from Ohio University in 1982.

He and his wife, the former Connie Brown, have three children, Kirby, Blaire and Scott.

KENTUCKY ATHLETICS

Our Mission

The University of Kentucky has a goal to become one of America's 20 best public research universities. In support of that goal, the University of Kentucky Athletic Association (UKAA) is dedicated to having a nationally prominent program with integrity, while keeping the focus on the student-athlete.

Our vision is to educate our student-athletes through graduation and compete for championships in all sports within a framework of fiscal responsibility, with a commitment to diversity in all areas, and to be compliant with university, state, SEC and NCAA rules and regulations. A high-energy departmental culture will be established that values integrity, sound fiscal policy and excellence in developing student-athletes to their full potential in academics and in competition.

UKAA'S Five Principles

The UKAA uses the following five principles, which reflect the commitment to excellence and mission of the department:

- Be accountable and socially responsible
- Possess integrity
- Keep the focus on the student-athletes
- Provide sound fiscal management
- Compete for championships

COVERING KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Credentials for working media and photographers for UK's home football games should be requested through the Internet at this site: www.sportssystems.com/Kentucky.

Requests for season passes should be submitted no later than July 31. Requests for single games should be made as far in advance as possible.

The University of Kentucky follows guidelines set by the NCAA and the Southeastern Conference in issuing credentials.

On a space-available basis, season credentials are granted to daily newspapers, magazines, radio stations and television stations that cover the UK football program on a regular basis – i.e., weekly news conferences and all home games. Additional requests are granted on a space-available basis.

Credentials will not be mailed. On game day, credentials may be picked up at media will call, located between gates 11 and 12 of Commonwealth Stadium, beginning two hours prior to kickoff. Credentials also may be picked up at the Media Relations Office in the Joe Craft Center, Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Approved parking passes will be mailed in advance.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS

Photo credentials will be issued only to accredited media outlets - daily newspapers, specialized publications and television stations.

INTERNET CREDENTIALS

Only the official website of each participating institution and representatives of contractual rights-fee paying media will be granted access. Other media representatives not earning credentials through the criteria listed above will not be granted credentials to UK football games for the purpose of staffing a website.

SEC INTERNET REAL-TIME POLICY

By acceptance and use of an SEC media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions for any and all athletic events hosted by the SEC and its member institutions:

1. The SEC and its member institutions grant a media organization a limited license to use certain gathered information on the media organization's own Internet or online site beginning at the start of an athletic event and up to the conclusion of such event, all subject to the following limitations and conditions:

(a) No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes. Such still photographs

DAILY/WEEKLY SERVICES

SUNDAY TELECONFERENCE

University of Kentucky Coach Rich Brooks conducts a weekly teleconference on most Sundays following Wildcats football games. The teleconferences are up to 20 minutes in length with the primary purpose of reviewing the previous day's game. The starting time is TBA.

Media members can participate in the teleconference by dialing a MEDIA ONLY telephone number which can be obtained from the UK Media Relations Office.

The teleconferences will begin on Sept. 6 and run through Nov. 22. No teleconference is planned for Sept. 13, the Sunday after UK's open dates. Please contact the UK Media Relations Office (859) 257-3838 for further information.

MONDAY NEWS CONFERENCE

Coach Rich Brooks will conduct a weekly press conference on most Mondays during the season. The news conferences will be conducted in the Wildcat Den at Commonwealth Stadium. Parking is available outside Gate One of Commonwealth Stadium. Media members may access the Wildcat Den at Gate Three of the stadium.

Selected Wildcat football players will be available at the press conferences. The weekly news conferences will begin on Monday, Aug. 31 and continue on Mondays thereafter. News conferences conclude on Nov. 23. No news conference is scheduled for Sept. 7, the Monday prior to UK's open date.

The news conference schedule is as follows:

- lunch is from 11:15 a.m. to noon
- UK player interviews from 11:45 a.m. to 12:05 p.m.
- UK Olympic sports coach from 12:05 to 12:15 p.m.
- Coach Rich Brooks from 12:15 to 12:35 p.m.

TUESDAY VIDEO HIGHLIGHTS

The University of Kentucky video office will provide a highlight feed on Tuesdays during the season. The feed will begin on Aug. 25 and conclude on Nov. 24. There will be no feed on Sept. 8, the Tuesday of UK's open date.

The video feed will include Wildcat highlights and interviews from the previous day's news conference.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE SERVICES

The Southeastern Conference Media Relations Office, headed by Charles Bloom, offers a variety of services to the media throughout the year.

SEC head football coaches are available each Wednesday via teleconference. Each coach is given seven minutes to address media questions about his upcoming football game. The starting date and telephone number will be available to the media by contacting the SEC Media Relations Office at (205) 458-3010.

This is the schedule for the Wednesday teleconferences, all times Eastern:

11:00 a.m. . . . . Les Miles, LSU
11:10 a.m. . . . . Steve Spurrier, South Carolina

The SEC Internet address is accessible for media and public usage at www.secsports.com. The website is updated continuously with information on all 12 conference schools and their sports. The SEC also operates a media-only site. Media should contact the SEC Media Relations Office for access information.

WILDCAT PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews must be coordinated through the UK Media Relations Office.

Approximately 3-5 players are usually available at the Monday news conference. Depending on class schedules or other commitments, most players are available to the media after practice, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. Post-practice interviews will be conducted at the Nutter Training Facility or by telephone. On game days, interviews will be granted only after the conclusion of the contest.

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a "call-back" basis only. Individual player telephone numbers WILL NOT be given to members of the media. Players are instructed NOT to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The UK Media Relations Office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete. Other special requests are handled on a case-by-case basis.

The university dormitories, dining halls, team locker and weight rooms, and team training rooms are considered private team areas. These areas are OFF-LIMITS to the media unless accompanied by UK Media Relations Office personnel.

Radio Call-in Shows/Internet Chats

As specified by the Southeastern Conference, no league players will be allowed to participate in live radio shows or on live chat sessions on a non-institutional website.

Internet

The official University of Kentucky athletics Internet site is UKathletics.com. Statistics and game notes are available on the website.

For home games, live in-game statistics and a live blog are available on the website. After the game, notes and quotes also will be posted on the web.

Football Practice

Most Kentucky football practices are closed to the media, although interviews are available after practice. Media members should contact the UK Media Relations Office, (859) 257-3838, for practice times.

must be used on a time-delayed basis, that is at least five (5) minutes after the happening of the event depicted by the still photograph.

(b) It is agreed that video tape is NOT to be used on an Internet or online site (except that video tape may be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly-scheduled news program).

(c) While a game is in progress, the use of textual statistical information is time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., updates pertaining to score, injuries and national, conference or institutional record-breaking performances, a condensed half-time story) so that an organization's Internet or online game coverage does not undercut the authorized and rights-paying fee organization's rights to play-by-play accounts of the game and/or exclusivity as to such rights.

This policy is in effect for all SEC sporting events, including championships. The limitations for each sporting event are listed below:

Soccer: Five times per half; one at halftime

Football: Three per quarter; one at halftime

Cross Country: Ten per day/session

Basketball: Five times per half; one at halftime; two times per overtime period

Indoor Track & Field: Ten per day/session

Gymnastics: Ten per session

Baseball and Softball: one every half-inning (includes extra innings)

Outdoor Track and Field: Ten per day/session

Golf: Ten per day/session

Tennis: Ten per day/session

2. Any proposed media use on an Internet or online sight of the game information that is more detailed and/or more than described above will require separate written authorization by the SEC and/or its member institutions. However, such written authorization will not permit the use of game information in entertainment contexts and will not authorize game coverage that, due to immediacy or detail, constitutes or approaches a play-by-play account of a game.

3. Should any of these conditions be breached, the SEC and/or its member institutions will issue a written warning for the first violation. If this violation occurs during the last game of the institutions' regularly-scheduled season, the media organization may not be credentialed for the SEC Football Championship Game. A second violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials to cover future football games hosted by the SEC and/or its member institutions.

Game Services

Media may not shoot video or still photos during 11-on-11 sessions of practice. Video is not to be used on an Internet or online site (except that video tape may be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly scheduled news program).

Media Parking

Media parking at Commonwealth Stadium is available on a limited basis. Requests for parking should be made when submitting media and/or photo credentials. The media parking area is located in the Blue Lots at Commonwealth Stadium. The Blue Lots are accessible via Alumni Drive.

Media Will Call

Approved media or photo credentials can be obtained at the Media Will Call table, located between gates 11 and 12 of Commonwealth Stadium. Media Will Call opens two hours prior to kickoff and closes 15 minutes following kickoff.

Press Box

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is for working media members only. It is located on the south side (Alumni Drive) of Commonwealth Stadium between the upper and lower grandstands. The media entrance to Commonwealth Stadium is between gates 11 and 12.

The photo deck, radio booths, television booths, coaches booths, and VIP booths are located on the press box level of Commonwealth Stadium. All can be accessed via the press box elevators.

Telephones

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is equipped with six courtesy telephones with long-distance capabilities for use by the media on a first-come, first-served basis. Members of the media wishing to order phone lines can do so by contacting Larry Bell or Tom Lilly of the UK Phone Services Department. The telephone number is (859) 257-0712. Please order phone lines as far in advance as possible.

Wireless Internet

The Commonwealth Stadium press box offers free wireless internet service to media members. Instructions will be provided in the press box on game day.

For further questions, contact Susan Lax, UK Association Media Relations Director, in seat 94 of the press box.

Visiting Radio

The official visiting radio broadcast network personnel should be designated in writing by the visiting team's sports information director or athletics director. Two phone lines (including one ISDN) will be made available in the broadcast booth, plus one phone line and two dry pair in the locker room area, at a cost to be determined by Mike Dodson of IMG Sports, (859) 226-4678.

Networks wishing to install additional telephone lines, either in the press box booth or locker room, can do so by contacting Larry Bell or Tom Lilly of the UK Phone Services Department at (859) 257-0712.

The field-level photo area is located in Room 144, in the southwest portal leading off the field (same portal as used by the visiting team). There will be a pregame meal and soft drinks served in the room. Flip cards will be available. Statistics and play-by-play sheets will be brought to the room during the game. Eight network phone lines (first-come, first-served) have been installed.

Post-Game Interviews

UK Coach Rich Brooks will conduct his post-game news conference in the Wildcat Den, located under the north grandstand. Brooks begins his post-game news conference approximately 20 minutes following the conclusion of the contest. The media entrance to the Wildcat Den is located in the northwest corner (nearest flagpole) of Commonwealth Stadium.

The Kentucky locker room is CLOSED to all members of the media. UK players requested for interviews are brought to the Wildcat Den following the conclusion of Brooks' news conference. Interview cards are distributed in the press box during the second half of the contest in order for members of the media to request Wildcats players.

The visitors' locker room is located at the southwest corner of Commonwealth Stadium. A press conference room is located next to the visitors' locker room. The visiting coach and players generally conduct their post-game comments from that area.

UK ON THE AIR

The University of Kentucky is in the midst of a landmark 10-year deal for the University's expanded multi-media marketing rights.

The agreement was signed in 2005 with IMG College (formerly Host Communications) and Gray Television. IMG, UK's radio and television partner for most of the past three decades, teams with Lexington TV station WKYT to pay the University $80.5 million during the term of the contract, making it one of the most lucrative deals of its kind in NCAA history.

In addition to radio and TV rights for football and men's basketball, the Big Blue Network also features women's basketball and baseball, corporate sponsorships, stadium and arena signage, and the official athletics website, UKathletics.com.

IMG has compiled a network of 57 radio stations, including two stations – WHAS (840 AM) in Louisville and WCKY (1530 AM) in Cincinnati – with a clear-channel 50,000-watt signal.

The agreement with IMG enhances UK's national and regional broadcasting presence. Also enhancing UK's national presence is the Southeastern Conference's new 15-year deal with ESPN and CBS. Every SEC football and men's basketball game will be available via CBS or an ESPN affiliate, beginning in 2009.

ESPN's deal, reportedly worth more than $2 billion, will have rights to every SEC home football game not on the CBS package and all league matchups will be shown on some outlet, including at least 20 a year on ESPN or ESPN2. That includes two primetime Thursday night matchups and Saturday night games.

In addition to the SEC TV pacts, the Big Blue Network features full-game, tape-delay action of all Wildcats home and selected away games that are not televised by CBS or ESPN. The network serves eight over-the-air stations and Fox Sports Net South on cable.

For the 2009 football season, the UK radio broadcast team consists of play-by-play announcer Tom Leach (21 years with the network, 13th season on play-by-play), former Wildcat Jeff Piecoro (eighth season) as the analyst, pregame host/sideline reporter/post-game host Dick Gabriel (21th season), and pregame analyst Oscar Combs (13th season).

The TV crew includes Rob Bromley (30th season) on play-by-play, with the analyst and sideline reporter to be determined. Working behind the scenes to pull the broadcasts together is the job of Mike Dodson, Vice-President for Broadcasting at IMG College. He is in his 16th year as the technical engineer for all game-day UK football and men's basketball broadcasts.

NEW FACILITIES

Featuring state-of-the-art technology, in recent years, UK has built:

- New locker rooms at Nutter Training Center and Commonwealth Stadium
- New outdoor practice fields
- New indoor practice fields
- New team meeting room

NATIONAL AWARD WINNERS

Kentucky football players have won several national awards over the last two seasons, including:

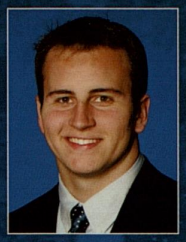

- All-America
- Academic All-America and National Scholar-Athlete Award
- Bobby Bowden Award from the Fellowship of Christian Athletes
- Rudy Award for the nation's most inspirational player
- National Player of the Week
- National Good Works Team for Community Service

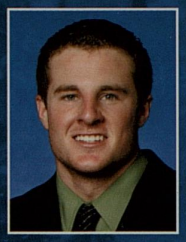

Punter Tim Masthay (right) received honors for All-America, Academic All-America and the National Good Works Team.

CURRENT CATS ALREADY GRADUATED

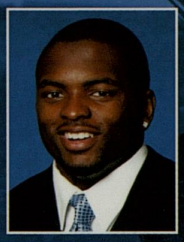

Four current Wildcats (from left) – Zipp Duncan, Mikhail Mabry, Trevard Lindley and Ross Bogue – already have graduated as they head into their senior season. Every senior on UK's three-consecutive bowl teams has graduated or signed an NFL contract with the goal of coming back to finish his degree.

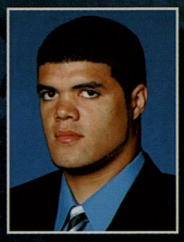

UK SENIORS hope to be the first class in school history to go to four-straight bowl games.

16 WILDCATS GO TO THE NFL

COACHES HAVE NFL EXPERIENCE
