TYG HONORED

The Temple Youth Group has been honored through its selection as host city for a Tri-State Conclave to be held during the weekend January 12-14.

The Tri-State area is a sub-division of the Ohio Valley Federation Temple Youth. OVFTY includes the states of Ohio, West Virginia, Kentucky, Indiana, and parts of Tennessee. Delegates from the youth groups and congregations throughout this section share periodically in Conclaves and Conclavettes for the purpose of religious inspiration, prayer, study and social contacts, all worthy practices within the framework of the Temple. Our Youth Group is to be congratulated for its merit in achieving the distinction as host group.

"A TIME TO GROW UP"

Youth and the problems of teen-agers are themes currently receiving prominent publicity and interest in periodicals both professional and popular. The responsibilities and obligations associated with the process of maturation are being brought to the attention of our youth, especially through the influence of Temple Youth Groups and their emphasis upon civil rights, humane considerations and national justice.

On Friday evening, January 12, the Temple Youth Group of Lexington will serve as the host for the Tri-State Conclave scheduled for that weekend. As his sermon topic for that night, the Rabbi will speak on "A Time To Grow Up." The usual Sabbath Social sponsored by the Sisterhood will follow the Worship Service.

TYG TO MEET

The Temple Youth Group will conduct its next meeting on Sunday, January 7, at 5:30 P.M., in the Temple Vestry. It will be a dinner meeting. The guest speaker will be Mr. Harvey Fields, Ohio Valley Federation Temple Youth's Advisor from Cincinnati. Mr. Fields is an upper classman at the Hebrew Union College, preparing to enter the Reform Rabbinate upon his ordination. His message will concern itself with the forthcoming Conclave in which Lexington will host delegates from Tri-State (a division of OVFTY), Louisville and Cincinnati. All TYG members are encouraged to attend this meeting which will undoubtedly prove most informative and interesting.

"JUDAISM'S BEST SELLER"

On Sunday, January 7, at 9:30 A.M., Rabbi Rothman will begin a new series of three lectures dealing with the theme "Judaism's Best Seller." In this series the Rabbi will analyze the Bible as literature and present its historical development. The series will continue with its second and third meetings on January 21 and 28.

LIBRARY BOOKS

The Temple Adath Israel Library exists for the sole purpose of serving congregants interested in reading matter of Jewish and allied themes. To do so efficiently requires a system that must have the cooperation of borrowers. When books are borrowed for a specified length of time, they must be returned so that others waiting may have an opportunity to use them.

The following books are missing:

"Where Judaism Differed" by Silver.

"Certain People of the Book" by Samuel.

"Look Back, Mrs. Lot" by Kishon.

"College Guide for Jewish Youth" by B'nai B'rith.

"This Land, These People" by Ribalow.

"Jewish Customs and Ceremonies"
by Edidin.

A PURPOSE IN LIFE

A purpose gives meaning to life. It is like the hub in a wheel — with every spoke fitted into it to make a strong and perfect circle. Without such a hub, spokes will not radiate evenly and your wheel will lack strength, will tend to break apart on the first good bump it hits. Given a strong hub, a strong purpose, a person can take a surprising number of shocks and bumps on the outside rim without sustaining permanent damage.

"ACHIEVING EQUALITY UNDER THE LAW"

(From the resolutions of the 46th Assembly of the UAHC)

The Union of American Hebrew Congregations has consistently opposed all forms of racial segregation because of our fundamental belief in the equality of all men under God. We have joined with all Americans of good will in continuing efforts to vindicate in every section of our land the American dream of human equality.

Recognizing that there are many approaches to the safeguarding of equal protection under law, we salute the men and women of various faiths and races who have risked their freedom and their personal safety to assert through direct, non-violent action the equal dignity of every American under the law.

We are also deeply heartened by the significant forward strides taken in recent months by such communities as Atlanta, Memphis, and Dallas. We commend those public authorities and religious leaders in these and other cities who have courageously guided their communities through a peaceful transition and helped them to meet the moral challenge of desegregation with dignity and respect for law and order.

There are positive indications of our increased determination as a nation to eradicate the barriers of segregation which still divide Americans from each other. The firmness of the federal courts, the vigor of the United States Justice Department in defense of equal rights, the fresh initiatives being undertaken by the President in the exercise of moral and executive leadership, the strengthened program of the President's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunities and other governmental agencies, and the spread of needed anti-discrimination laws to a large number of states and communities...all these are earnest examples of progress and expressions of a national will.

We especially hail the United States Commission on Civil Rights, whose recent milestone reports have charted the urgent, unfinished business which remains in extending to every American the full measure of his dignity and rights as an American citizen. We associate ourselves with the Commission's plea for new federal legislation to safeguard equality of opportunity for all Americans in education, housing, employment and the right to vote.

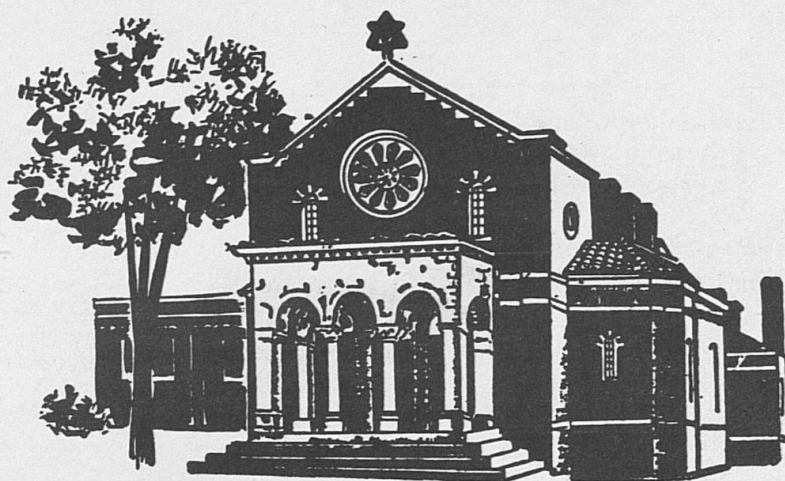

Specifically, we support the Commission's recommendations that (1) effective legislation be enacted by the Congress to assure the right to vote to all Americans, thus ending the abuse of such devices as literacy tests to support racial discrimination; and (2) the President of the United States issue an Executive Order stating the national objective of equal opportunity in housing and directing all federal agencies to shape their policies and practices to this goal; and that this order apply to, among other agencies, the Federal Housing Authority, Veterans Administration, Federal National Mortgage Association, and those agencies supervising financial institutions engaged in home mortgage loan business.

Gratifying as is the progress of recent years, we are painfully aware of the long climb which stretches ahead of us as a nation. Our next Biennial will take place in 1963...one hundred years after the Emancipation Proclamation. We are humbled by the knowledge that if democracy cannot end segregation, segregation may end democracy. We pledge ourselves, as individual Americans and as inheritors of the dream of one brotherhood under one God, to be zealous for the dignity and rights of our neighbors as we would have them to be of ours.

We appeal to our own members and congregations, as to all men and women of good will, to redouble their efforts toward the elimination of all forms of racial injustice and to strive unceasingly to complete the mission of equal rights and full opportunities under the law.

"THE MEANING OF JUDAISM"

By Michael Ades, Senior at University of Pennsylvania

(From a sermon preached at our Temple on Friday, December 29, 1961)

I should like to talk briefly about some ideas and thoughts concerning the meaning of Judaism which, I believe, are shared by many of my fellow students, as well as myself.

To begin, I feel somewhat uneasy being here tonight. I recall how smoothly my Confirmation service went several years ago, how happy we were that the long process was finally over. What a relief; no more Sunday School, in fact, no more religion for awhile, at least on a compulsory basis. We were free to practice how and when we pleased. We knew that Confirmation was supposed to be the beginning of a full, life-long religious experience, but not so soon. After all, what fifteen or sixteen year-old is not more interested in school activities, parties, sports, or even NFTY Conclaves than such Confirmation class questions as, what is God, or why reform Judaism instead of Orthodox or Conservative, or even why Judaism rather than Christianity? College life soon dominated our time; religious activities could wait until afterwards. What good would it do us in college anyway? So many of us thought, and many of us still think now.

So you see now why I feel somewhat ill at ease participating in this service, for I have not actively participated or even rarely attended a Friday night service for the past six years since Confirmation. And this service, well, it is only an annual affair; so the least we can do is participate to keep everyone reassured that the younger generation has not flown completely out of this world. See, we are here, we have not forsaken our religion.

But somewhere along the way, we have begun to question intellectually many hitherto taken-for-granted things, and religion is among these. All of us have thought often and seriously about God, about the role of religion in our lives, and the part that emotion or faith plays in our religion. Why, you may rightly ask us, have we bothered to even consider these theoretical religious questions, when at the same time we have refused to be active in the traditional rituals of Jewish life?

An answer to this question may provide some indications regarding our future religious activity.

First of all we have bothered over these religious questions because we realize the tremendous affect that religion has had in our own lives. We were continually exposed to Judaism in our homes, through Sunday School and NFTY, throughout the formative years of our lives. As much as we fought it at times, a lot was inculcated in us. We may have forgotten now what year the Second Temple was destroyed in; but we did learn the significance of the various rituals; we became aware that religion, both on an institutional and a personal basis, could play a vital part in our lives; and we did at times have private religious experiences which were vividly meaningful then, and still are.

Secondly, we have dwelt over these religious questions as an integral part of our present college experience. This experience, has been in a sense an intellectual awakening to, or awareness of the world of ideas...that neat, brilliant, narrow world bounded by the textbook, the library, our professors and our fellow students. This experience has also been natural and healthy and essential to the fuller development of us as responsible human beings. Because it is this stage that we are going through now, it is necessary to consider our present religious inactivity in the context of this temporary environment of little worldly responsibility, and inevitably loosening home and religious ties. Now perhaps our abstention from the rituals of Judaism becomes more understandable. We do not unhesitantly act and participate, but rather we hold our religion up for examination, to see if it passes the tests that Philosophy or History or Biology are measured by. But you object that religion is not a proper subject to measure and to test for validity or utility, that it has a more profound significance; we agree with you, but we still continue trying to measure the immeasurable. This is where many of us are now. What then, for our future relations to Judaism following this natural, but temporary, period of uncertainty.

One of the few ideas about this future which most of us do whole-heartedly accept is the role that Judaism must play in the upbringing of our own children. Judaism should be for them, as it was and is for us a basic framework on which can be planted and nurtured those precious moral and ethical values, on which can be nourished the rich and proven heritage that has inspired previous Jews to surmount obstacles and that we need to carry on successfully our daily lives in such a complex world. Our religion, we feel, is absolutely indispensable in what will be the most important, challenging, and rewarding task in our lives: the raising of our own children.

Fine so far. But how about us personally? Can Judaism have other meanings for us? How many times have we heard how it serves as a rallying point in adversity, a source of consolation in moments of sorrow, an inspiration for deeds of social and human justice, a refuge at one time, at others a home. Judaism is these things too, we agree and they are good. But we still insist on going further, deeper, however, for we know that a truly religious person enjoys all of these, while in addition, he possesses one other quality....faith. Perhaps this is what we are searching for. Curious how elusive it is when so many are hunting it; how serious that it has evaded us when it is so desperately needed.

What is faith? To each it means something a little different, but we all know its common meanings....trust, or confidence, or belief in the doctrines of religion, as Webster says. Others may think it the bonds of love or the essential harmony of nature.

Defining faith, though, is not the most important point. What is significant to us is the reason why we are striving for it. We need it to resolve our constant and seemingly endless doubts, to provide a foundation on which to build our philosophy of life, and finally we need faith to give us the hope and confidence that we can determine our own futures as individuals, as Jews, and as members of mankind.

We do have hope and confidence in our futures, perhaps because unknowingly we do have faith. Our search is neither foolish or fruitless, however, for the harder we search for faith, the deeper we probe ourselves and others, and the sooner we shall comprehend that ultimately our future lies in our own hands. Our faith must be in ourselves and our fellow man.

"THE ROUND-ABOUT WAY"

When God decided to free the children of Israel, he led them in a circuitous route through the desert to the Promised Land. It took them forty years to attain their goal. Why did God do it just that way? Is there anything we can learn from this in our lives? On Friday, January 19, at 8:00 P.M., Rabbi Rothman will discuss these and similar questions in a sermon entitled "The Round-About Way."

SISTERHOOD MEETING

Copies of the book may be obtained from the Rabbi's secretary, in the Temple office.

"INFLUENCE BY OTHERS"

Judaism is not an isolated phenomenon. It did not originate suddenly without contacts. Our religion grew out of adopting and adapting from other cultures and religions amongst whom our predecessors found themselves. The usual Sabbath Social sponsored by the Sisterhood will follow the Worship Service.

If you come at me with your fists doubled, I think I can promise you that mine will double as fast as yours; but if we differ from one another, understand why it is we differ from one another, just what the points at issue are, we will presently find that we are not so far apart after all, that the points on which we differ are few and the points on which we agree are many and that if we only have patience and the candor and the desire to get together, we will get together.

SAYING FROM THE TALMUD

He who knows that he knows nothing possesses knowledge indeed.

TEN COMMANDMENTS OF FRIENDSHIP

1. SYMPATHY is the soil in which the seed of friendship grows. Until one can look upon all his brothers with love and care, he cannot be or become a friend.
2. HONESTY gives friendship its virility. Without it the seed will be sterile and never bear fruit.
3. HUMILITY is the gentle rain without which the growing plant becomes dry and brittle. Without an attitude which is both humble and teachable, no friendship can develop and thrive.
4. TOLERANCE: No one of us is perfect, and if we expect perfection in a friend we shall be disillusioned. Patience is a virtue, and a friend is not easily provoked.
5. CRITICISM of another is essential to a growing friendship and to an honest relationship. To fail to offer helpful criticism for fear of hurt is to fail to help a friend to grow. It is like the pruning of the vine that its later growth may be the more luxuriant. Never criticize, however, until first you can sympathize.
6. DON'T GOSSIP: The habit of carrying about evil tidings casts a blight upon friendship's flower. Gossip is the grub from which emerges the cutworm of suspicion to sever the taproot of trust which nourishes friendship's life.
7. BE ON HAND WHEN NEEDED: There are times when every one of us desperately needs someone to take over for us until we can adjust and compose ourselves. Be on hand when that moment comes in the life of your friend. He'll never forget it, nor will you.
8. HAVE A POOR MEMORY FOR WRONGS: Most wrongs are unintentional. Most slights are fancied. Forget them.
9. HAVE A GOOD MEMORY FOR ANNIVERSARIES: A little appreciation is worth its weight in gold. It always repays its trouble in a thousand ways. It is, as the poet said, "the little nameless unremembered acts of kindness and of love" which make up "the best portion of a good man's life."
10. TO MAKE A FRIEND, BE ONE: There are two people in a Temple — one finds it friendly and the other cold. Each projects his own attitude into the outer situation. If you want a Temple to be a friendly Temple, be friendly.

THE BIBLE

"We search the world for truth; we cull
The good, the pure, the beautiful
From graven stone and written scroll,
From all old flower-fields of the soul;
And, weary seekers of the best,
We come back laden from our quest,
To find that all the sages said
Is in the Book our mothers read."

"WORLD PEACE"

(From the resolutions of the 46th Assembly of the UAHC)

The prophets of Israel first gave the world the vision of universal peace. This vision has become a stark necessity if mankind is to survive in this age of unimaginable weapons. Despite the darkening shadows and the mounting dangers of our time, we reaffirm our undimmed faith in man's capacity to establish God's Kingdom on earth. True to the optimistic spirit of Judaism, we refuse to accept defeatism, to subside into numb resignation. Rather, we pledge ourselves anew to the most urgent religious challenge on the agenda of mankind: to achieve a just and enduring peace.

Accordingly, we:

1. Deeply deplore the resumption by the U.S.S.R. of nuclear testing in the atmosphere. The leaders of the Soviet Union have demonstrated a contempt for the opinions of mankind, a callous disregard for the health of generations not yet born, and a brutal effort to intimidate governments and peoples through sheer terror.
2. Commend our government for its policy of restraint in regard to nuclear testing in the atmosphere. We warmly endorse the statement of President Kennedy that the United States will never resort to nuclear testing in the atmosphere for psychological reasons or political expediency.
3. Rededicate ourselves to join hands with other religious groups in preserving and strengthening the United Nations. The world body has been gravely weakened by the death of Dag Hammarskjold and by the damage inflicted by the Communist bloc abroad and the extreme right in the United States. Men of good will, of all faiths, must rally to keep alive the vision of a world of law and justice.
4. Commend the United States and Canada for intensified efforts to achieve universal, enforceable disarmament and urge that all such efforts be carried forward with the greatest of urgency and imagination. In this regard, we express gratification that the United States Congress has established an Arms Control and Disarmament Agency to augment and accelerate studies and planning in this field.
5. Pledge our support to the United Nations program of "Freedom From Hunger," which is designed to enlist the moral resources of the world behind a program to alleviate hunger which now shadows and haunts the lives of two-thirds of the people of the world.
6. Commend the President of the United States on the establishment of the Peace Corps, which is an act of vision and faith worthy of the ideals of the United States of America.
7. Pledge ourselves to study the problems threatening world peace and to seek, in all ways possible, to translate religious principles into concrete action.

SAYINGS FROM THE TALMUD

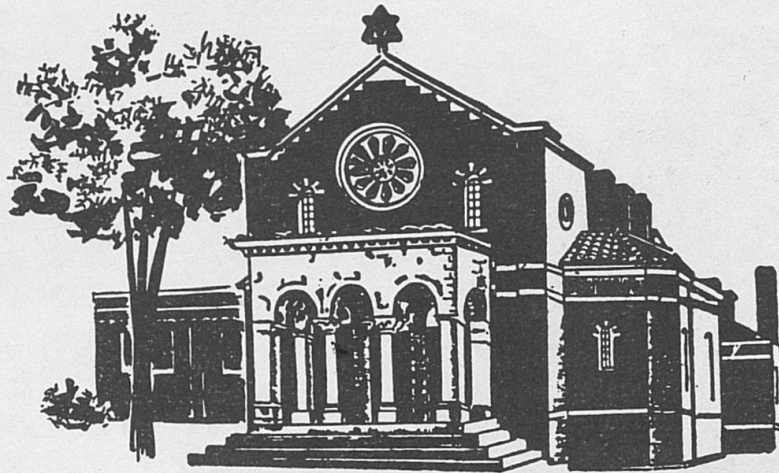

Men should be careful not to give their wives any cause for tears, for God counts their tears.

A man should eat and drink beneath his means, clothe himself within his means, and honor his wife above his means.

A man who injures his fellow man commits a worse sin than one who robs a temple.

The series will be devoted to an analysis of the above questions together with other points of interest. The series will continue through February 11 and 18 and will begin at 9:45 A.M. each of the three Sundays. The entire Temple family is invited to attend these sessions. SISTERHOOD PRESIDENT'S BIENNIAL REPORT

by Mrs. Irving Kanner

(In two installments)

Thank you for sending me to the NFTS Biennial Convention in Washington. It was a most rewarding experience to your delegates. I hope we can bring you some of the inspiration we received.

It was a most impressive assembly - 1000 NFTS delegates and official visitors, plus the 3000 UAHC lay leaders and rabbis, with whom we held joint sessions every evening and joint workshops two mornings. It was dramatic, because it was held in our Nation's beautiful capitol, under the shadow of the greatest threat our Nation and the world have ever known. The questions uppermost in our minds were, "What is to become of our world", and "What can we do to prevent the threatened destruction of mankind." Our eloquent speakers, without exception, were aware of the seriousness of our times, yet nowhere was there a note of defeatism. The feeling was that we must be strong as a Nation, we must be prepared for any eventuality, but that we must work for Peace. The only hope for our world is through the application of our great religious principles, the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of man. This is the essence of Judaism, with its emphasis upon deeds. There was great importance stressed at both UAHC and NFTS meetings, of Social Justice.

The Resolutions passed by the NFTS Assembly were in support of these ideals. The first, entitled "Justice For All", commended and promised to stand behind all efforts of local, state, and national governments and officials who seek to remedy "inequities which have been visited upon racial, ethnic or religious groups." Only by the combined efforts of all can these goals become a reality. "Thus would we, through study of issues and support of solutions, redeem for ourselves and others the promise of justice, freedom, and opportunity."

The second resolution was a protest to the United States Government against giving U. S. funds or support to peoples and nations which seek to discriminate against U.S. citizens because of race or religion. This refers to the Arab League boycott against American companies having American Jews among their owners, officers, or directors in their employ. There have also been objections by the Arab League to U.S. military and civilian personnel of the Jewish faith serving in bases built in an Arab country with U.S. funds; and American tourists, whose travel routes or religious faith do not meet with their approval, have been blacklisted by Arab countries. All this has occurred in spite of strong anti-bias legislation passed by our Congress during the first half of its 87th Session.

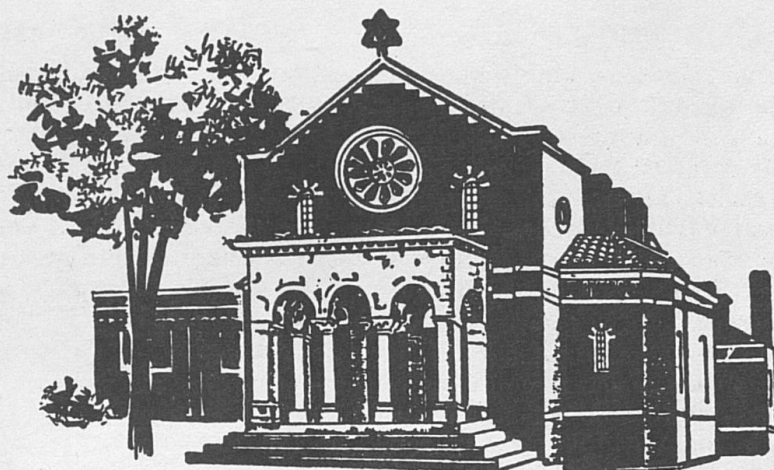

The third resolution seeks to encourage our young people to serve their country in the Peace Corps. It commends the governmental leadership which recognizes the value of "people to people" contact in furthering world amity and in offering unselfish assistance to nations and peoples who would advance themselves. The fourth resolution calls upon our Government to continue support of the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency.

This is only part of the work of our National organization. As members of an individual Sisterhood, we sometimes forget that we are part of one of the largest Jewish women's organization in the world, composed of 595 Sisterhoods in the U.S. and nine foreign countries, representing 106,000 women. Our goal is the same as that of Judaism itself, to translate into action our belief in the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man. Through NFTS we support the education of Rabbis, the establishment of camps for our Youth, assistance to reform congregations in other lands and the dissemination of a wealth of educational material to local Sisterhoods. Our President and Executive Director took part in the Washington Conference on Aging last year, and we have accredited nongovernmental observers to the U.S. Mission to the U. N.

"LINCOLN AND MOSES"

The Bible is not just a volume that speaks out of the archaic past. It serves as our inspiration for the present. Moses, whom Maimonides called the greatest prophet of all, stands as a beacon light, guiding those who would minister and serve the needs of man, striving for justice, equality and freedom for all. This theme found its echo in many generations following his day. In fact, we in the United States have been blessed with leaders who embodied parallel and similar convictions of purpose. In his sermon of Friday, February 16 at 8:00 P.M., the week of Lincoln's Birthday, the Rabbi will address himself to these similarities and will speak on the subject of: "Lincoln and Moses."

The Temple Brotherhood and Sisterhood has set Tuesday, February 27, at 6:00 P.M., as the date and time for their joint dinner-meeting. SISTERHOOD PRESIDENT'S BIENNIAL REPORT

To come down to a more personal level, Mrs. Monsky, in her keynote address, put into words a most important question. "What can one woman do?" She did not pretend to have all the answers, but there is much that women "can, have, and will do." Sisterhood women have a grave responsibility in helping to fashion the world in which our children live. "We cannot have a double standard - one for ourselves and one for our children. We dare not delude ourselves into thinking that we can train young people to be spiritually-minded, altruistic, and sound of character, at the same time that we exemplify selfishness and materialistic concerns. It is vital that we recognize the extent to which our own deeds (or misdeeds) structure the personality of our children."

Sometimes we become so involved in the means, we forget our goals. Mr. Donald Mintz, president of NFTY, sent a message of thanks to all of you, the "Sisterhood women who chauffeur and cook, and who send Uniongrams." The future of NFTY depends upon women who perform these tasks faithfully.

Your Uniongram money also provides five scholarships to students from foreign countries, who will return to their own lands to bring Reform Judaism to their countrymen. Mr. Mordecai Schreiber, from Uruguay, brought their message of gratitude to us. He told us that many Jews throughout the world have lost their identity. Reform Judaism can save them, but the task which he and his fellow foreign students face is a difficult one.

Mr. Bernard Mehlman, Cincinnati, President Student Council HUC-JIR and and NFTY delegate to WUPJ in 1959, thanked us on behalf of the students for our assistance to their seminaries through our Uniongram money and through Sisterhood Shares in the Development Funds. The latter made possible the re-modeling and refurbishing of the dorm we built in 1925. This dormitory, which was re-dedicated last May, now bears the name, NFTS Dormitory. (Yes, the men have fun over the name).

Our leaders stressed the need for adult education, not to fill in the gaps in our childhood education, but as a continuing process. We are especially urged to strengthen our committee on Peace and World Relations.

It is interesting to note that intra-faith as well as inter-faith activities are carried on by many of our Sisterhoods and are of great value. If we do not learn to get along with our neighbors, how can we expect to learn to get along with the rest of the world?

You might be interested to know that other Sisterhoods have adopted the plan of assigning every member to serve at "Ongei Shabbat" after Friday evening services. One young woman said, "This brings women to services who would not come otherwise, and often they find they like it, and come back." It also makes every member a participant in at least this one Sisterhood activity, so that she feels she really "belongs."

We were urged to encourage our women as individuals to participate in as many organizations working for the betterment of our communities as they could manage, because every little thing we do for good is important in making this a better world.

There was much talk about the emancipation of women. Miss Jane Evans, our executive secretary, recommended a resolution that we request the UAHC to study the ordination of women as Rabbis, and bring their findings to the Biennial in 1963. This was passed overwhelmingly, but not unanimously.

I wish there were time to tell you about all the wonderful people who spoke, the beautiful play we saw and the impressive religious services.

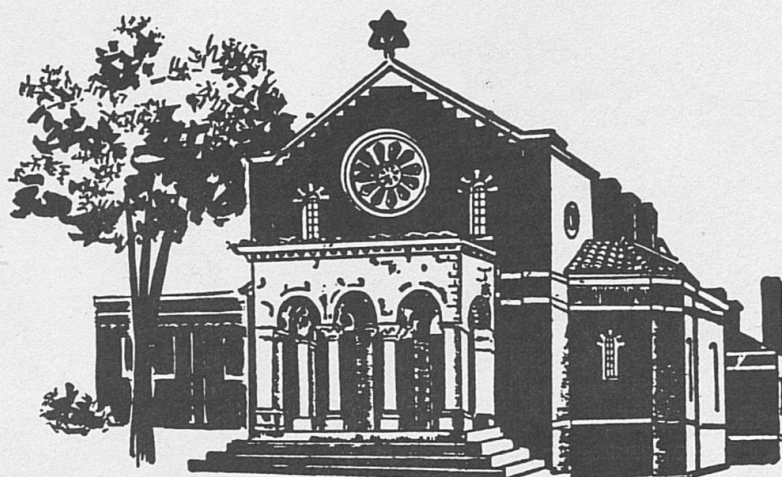

The Assembly closed with the beautiful Worship Service of Installation. We were especially proud because our own Helen Paritz was installed as a national board member. This is an honor she richly deserves for her many years of patient and devoted service to Sisterhood. We are grateful for the honor she brings to us.

Thank you again for sending me and my sister representatives to this inspiring national convention.

Sincerely yours,
/s/ Esther Kanner

Dear Friend:

I recently had the opportunity to read your report of our Biennial Assembly in your Temple Bulletin and cannot refrain from dropping you just a line of appreciation for your thoughtful and provocative presentation. I felt that this was one of the greatest of our conventions and it is heartening that so many others share this view.

I pray that through your enthusiastic and skillful reporting of the momentous events which occurred in Washington that in the future substantially more of your members will become actively engaged in your Congregation and in the affairs of our Union. At our 1963 Biennial I shall look forward to seeing more and better informed delegates from your Temple and look forward to seeing you there too.

With repeated thanks and warm personal regards, I am

FROM THE RESOLUTIONS OF THE
46TH ASSEMBLY OF THE UAHC
"MIGRANT FARMERS"

In recent years, the American conscience has been aroused by the many privations and discriminations visited upon America's migratory farm workers. These men and women, who perform such useful and necessary work for all of us, experience distress and disadvantages which make them the "excluded" or "forgotten" Americans.

Because of our commitment to human dignity and social justice, the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, at this Biennial Assembly, calls upon the federal government and all state governments and interstate agencies, to take vigorous action to seek a humane solution for this important social problem.

We urge our national Commission on Social Action, and all congregations, to conduct educational programs to make our membership aware of and sensitive to the unjust abuses experienced by these workers and the human suffering involved in this social issue. We call upon the Commission on Social Action to join with like-minded groups of all faiths to ameliorate this problem of social distress and to seek through legislation and education to raise the status of these farm workers from the present level of degradation and to a position of dignity and equality in accordance with our religious and democratic traditions.

"RELIGION IN PUBLIC EDUCATION"

We reaffirm the positions jointly set forth by the Synagogue Council of America and the National Community Relations Advisory Council, to both of which organizations the Union of American Hebrew Congregations belongs, in their document entitled "Safeguarding Religious Liberty." We continue to cherish the conviction that the maintenance and furtherance of religion are the responsibility of the synagogue, the church, and the home, and not of any agency of government including the public schools.

For this reason, we continue to believe that religious practices, such as Bible reading, prayer, singing of hymns, religious holiday observances, and bacchalaureate exercises, do not belong in public education.

A vigilant maintenance of church-state separation is the best safeguard of religious liberty for all Americans.

On Sunday, March 4, Rabbi Rothman will begin a new series of Sunday Morning Adult Education Courses. His subject for this month is "The Inside Story of the Crusades", and will consider a development and growth of anti-Jewish sentiment in Europe. Crusades, inquisitions and pogroms will be analyzed.

As in every Adult Education Course, previous attendance is no prerequisite. You are welcome to attend these and any other Temple sponsored Adult Education programs. All Sunday morning classes begin at 9:45 A.M. and are conducted in the Temple Vestry. The second and third meetings of this series will be held on the 11th and 25th. What does it mean being a Jew, to be a member of the Jewish Religion? What is the faith of Judaism? To whom is Judaism directed? What purpose is there to faith? These and similar questions will be discussed and analyzed by the Rabbi in his sermon of Friday evening, March 2, at 8:00 P.M. The usual Sabbath Social sponsored by the Sisterhood will follow the Worship Service.

WITH GRATITUDE

The Temple family extends its appreciation to Bob Fleishman for his original musical compositions presented as a part of our regular worship service on Friday, February 9. ONE HUMAN RACE

The Bible story of Adam and Eve, father and mother of the whole human race, told centuries ago the same truth that science has shown today: that all the people of the earth are a single family and have a common origin. Science describes the intricate make-up of the human body: all its different organs cooperating in keeping us alive, its curious anatomy that couldn't possibly have 'just happened' to be the same in all men if they did not have a common origin. Take the structure of the human foot, for instance. When you list all the little bones and muscles and the joints of the toes, it is impossible to imagine that that would all have happened twice. Or take our teeth: so many front teeth, so many canines, so many molars. Who can imagine finding the same arrangements in two human species if they weren't one family?

The fact of the unity of the human race is proved, therefore, in its anatomy. It is proved also by the close similarity in what all races are physically fitted for. No difference among human races has affected limbs and teeth and relative strength so that one race is biologically outfitted like a lion and another biologically like a lamb. All races of men can either plow or fight, and all the racial differences among them are in nonessentials such as texture of head hair, amount of body hair, shape of the nose or head, or color of the eyes and the skin. The white race is hairiest, but a white man's hair isn't thick enough to keep him warm in cold climates. The negro's dark skin gives him some protection against strong sunlight in the tropics, and white men often have to take precautions against sunstroke. But...today white men in hot countries wear sun helmets and protect themselves with clothes and rub their skin with suntan oil. Very darkskinned people in the north, too, can add cod-liver oil and orange juice to their diet, and, if they need to, take a vitamin pill or two.....

The races of mankind are what the Bible says they are - brothers. In their bodies is the record of their brotherhood.

"The Races of Mankind", by Professors Benedict and Weltfish, Columbia University Anthropologists. Published by Public Affairs Committee.

IDEALS OF REFORM

I

"...A Judaism firm out of knowledge, liberal out of conviction, unshakable through attachment to the lastingly significant and enduringly beautiful that survive the fragility of transient custom, endlessly concerned with the totality of Israel and the entirety of mankind."

Rabbi Nelson Glueck, Pres.

Institute of Religion.

II

"...As the Reform Congregation of Lexington, Kentucky, we are committed to the principles of Reform Judaism and to its perpetuation. Our Temple's concern is with Jewish orientation, Jewish teaching and community service. Our emphasis is upon human need; spiritual or tangible. To be associated with this movement and with this congregation in its expressed purposes and manifest concretizations is to be deemed by all affiliates as an honor."

A BUSINESSMAN'S FAITH

I am a businessman-I am concerned with raw materials, with markets, with costs, with profits, with wages, with dividends, but I have never permitted my business concerns to obscure my spiritual interest. I feel a deep faith in God...I know that man does not live by bread alone. Faith in God gives life significance. When I give my time and effort to religious causes, I feel I am helping to perpetuate the most powerful influence for good in the world. Judaism has blessed humanity in the past; it will bless it also in the future. I want to do my share in making its influence effective in the world to the end that men shall live by the moral law, recognize the things they have in common, and know the one God of all.

TEMPLE MAIL

(The following is from a letter received by the Rabbi)

February 10, 1962

Dear Rabbi Rothman,

Mr. Kenneth Mayer, President of the Temple Brotherhood, called this morning and asked me to be chairman of a committee to form a Jewish Men's Luncheon Club. The main purpose of such a group, aside from the fellowship, would be to discuss different Jewish subjects that would be educational and interesting to the business-men.

For proper guidance and direction, we feel you would be the best qualified and the logical selection for our discussion leader, bringing pertinent subjects to the group. Would you be available to serve in this capacity for one luncheon meeting a month? Details as to time, place, etc., must be worked out. This we shall do in a committee as soon as we find out your feelings in this matter.

Looking forward to hearing from you, I am

Sincerely yours,

AN OPEN LETTER FROM THE RABBI

Dear Temple Member,

Our Temple is fortunate in having affiliated organizational arms that serve to assist us in our planned programs and in the attainment of our goals. A prime concern which we share with the Brotherhood and the Sisterhood is the perpetuation and advancement of Reform Judaism. This can be partially achieved in two main areas; adult education and youth education. In the area of the former, the Temple sponsors monthly book reviews and Sunday morning study courses. The bulletin adds to this through its messages and quotations of adult religious interest. In the area of youth education, the Temple and its arms sponsor the Temple Youth Group and the Religious School. B/L

Annually, in consideration of the above and in the fulfillment of its laudible self-imposed task of assisting in the perpetuation of the ideals for which we stand, the Temple Sisterhood has sponsored a Dinner-Dance to raise funds needed in support of our Religious School. You are urged, therefore, to attend and share in the forthcoming Sisterhood program on Saturday, March 31, at 7:00 P.M., at the Holiday Inn. The proceeds will be donated to your Religious School.

I look forward to seeing each of you there and to participate in what will undoubtedly prove to be a most enjoyable and memorable occasion. With best regards from house to house, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Robert A. Rothman

"AND NOW FOR INNER-SPACE"

You may have heard the story of the little boy who was told that we are planning to fire a rocket that would hit the moon. Said he, "I hope that they don't hit God!"

Man is reaching outward at a fantastic speed. Only three years ago the flight of a man in outer space was a dream. On February 20th it became a reality. The U.S. is to be congratulated on this scientific achievement. But we have long delayed in our intensive exploration of man, the discoverer of science. What of the inner-man? How shall we view mankind? Are we racing pell mell towards the era-sure of our race as we know it? Does man change by virtue of his spacial conquests? The Rabbi will address himself to these and similar questions in his sermon of Friday, March 9, at 8:00 P.M.

"THE INSIDE STORY OF THE CRUSADES"

The March series of Sunday morning Adult Education courses begins on Sunday, March 4, with a study of the development and growth of anti-Jewish sentiment in Europe. The second session will meet on March 11, and the third on March 25. All sessions meet at 9:45 A.M., in the Temple Vestry and are conducted by the Rabbi. They are open to Temple members and their guests.

"HARASSMENT OF JEWISH LEADERS BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN"

(From the resolutions of the 46th Assembly of the UAHC)

The 46th General Assembly of the UAHC is profoundly troubled by the steadily mounting harassment of Jewish leaders in the U.S.S.R. The recent arrests, secret trials, and convictions of these leaders in Leningrad and Moscow on the ground of "contact with foreign powers" clearly indicates the avowed intention of Soviet authorities to seal off its Jewish community from any relationship with the their coreligionists throughout the world and to liquidate their spiritual and cultural resources.

We call upon the Board of Trustees and the Commission on Social Action to make careful inquiry into the total problem and to take such steps, in cooperation with Jewish and other agencies, as will ameliorate the situation of Soviet Jewry.

OVC SUMMER CAMP

An expanded summer camping program, including a four-and-a-half-week Junior Session for boys and girls 11 through 14, has been announced by the 1962 Union Camp Institute at Zionville, Indiana.

The camp is owned and operated by Reform congregations of the Ohio Valley Council, Union of American Hebrew Congregations. It is centrally-located near Indianapolis to serve members of congregations in the five-state OVC region.

Details of the 1962 program are contained in a new brochure now at our Temple office. The brochure describes the opportunities for young, teen-agers and adults to participate in a program which provides recreation, religious fellowship and a memorable summer camp experience.

In addition to the Junior Session, the camp will be the site for Teacher's and Youth Advisors' Institute for adults and for two Institutes sponsored by the Ohio Valley Federation of Temple Youth.

A popular counselor-in-training program, introduced last season, will again be held to assist selected young people in developing leadership skills.

The camp is located on 52 acres of wooded countryside, 17 miles from downtown Indianapolis. Since its purchase by congregations in 1958, facilities and program events have been continually improved and enlarged.

The camp was accepted as a member of the American Camping Association, the national professional association dedicated to maintaining high standards of leadership and facilities, in 1960.

Ray Solomon, camp director for the past three years, will return in 1962. Mr. Solomon is a member of the faculty of the Cincinnati Public Schools system and holds a Masters degree in administration.

Harvey Fields, a fourth-year student at the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion, also returns as camp program director.

Further information and application forms are available at the Temple office.

HEBREW UNION COLLEGE - JEWISH INSTITUTE OF RELIGION

The number of students of the Hebrew Union College - Jewish Institute of Religion at its three campuses, Cincinnati, New York and Los Angeles, is the highest in its history. Total enrollment in all departments in 1961-62 is 819; 211 of them are in the rabbinic department. The rabbinic students come from 30 states and the District of Columbia and from Canada, England, France, India, Israel, Japan, Uruguay and Turkey.

"PURIM AND PURPOSE"

Almost every Jewish holiday or festival took place either in Israel or on the way to it. Purim is unique in that its theme is neither centered about Israel nor does it stress God's intervention or relationship to the occasion. Its scene is set in Persia and its chief male character is Mordecai with the chief female character being Queen Esther. Why was this book named after that heroine included in the Bible? Why was Purim included in the annual holiday cycle? These and other questions will be discussed by the Rabbi in his sermon of Friday, March 16, at 8:00 P.M., the Sabbath Eve prior to Purim.

BOOK REVIEW GROUP TO MEET

The monthly book review group will meet on Wednesday, March 28, at 8:00 P.M., in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Munich, 224 Barrow Road, according to an announcement by the Temple Adult Education Chairman, Mr. Sam Milner. The book to be discussed and reviewed is "The Great Debate: Our Schools In Crisis" by C. Winfield Scott. Discussion leader will be Mrs. Richard Hanau, a teacher in our local school system. Books may be obtained in the Temple office from the Rabbi's secretary at $1.95 each.

REFORM JUDAISM IN ISRAEL

The World Union for Progressive Judaism has just announced that it has purchased land and buildings in Jerusalem to house Israel's first permanent Reform Synagogue. Since our great rabbinical seminary, the HUC-JIR, will open a Graduate School in Jerusalem later this year, Reform Judaism will be represented by two fine institutions in the Israeli capitol.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL PURIM PROGRAM

The Temple Religious School will celebrate Purim with a program and Megillah reading on Sunday, February 18. The schedule for the day is as follows:

9:45-10:00 A.M. - Children meet in class and attendance is taken.

10:00-10:30 A.M. - Reading of the Megillah in the sanctuary attended by all classes. Groggers will be distributed before its reading.

10:30-11:30 A.M. - Purim program in the Vestry consisting of a five-minute prepared skit presented by each class in turn.

11:30-12:00 noon - Return to classes.

SUNDAY MORNING ADULT SERIES

The Sunday Morning Adult Education Series for March will continue with its second meeting on March 11, at 9:45 A.M., in the Temple Vestry. The subject this month is "The Inside Story of the Crusades", and considers a development and growth of anti-Jewish sentiment in Europe. The third and final meeting of this series is scheduled for March 25. March 18, will be devoted to a Purim program, details of which are to be found elsewhere in this bulletin.

PASSOVER STUDY PROGRAM

Plans are now being made for a one-morning session scheduled for a Sunday in April which will be devoted to a study of Passover, its customs, history and purpose. This session will be conducted by the Rabbi and will be sponsored by the Brotherhood and Sisterhood. It will meet in our Temple Vestry at 9:45 A.M., and last until 11:00 A.M. PURIM, FEAST OF LOTS

Purim, the Feast of Lots, one of the most joyous of Jewish festivals, begins this year at sunset, Monday, March 19.

The holiday commemorates an episode in ancient Persia when the Jewish people narrowly escaped massacre at the hands of a despot, Haman. His plot to purge the Jews was foiled by the courageous intervention of Queen Esther, the Jewish wife of King Ahasuerus, and her foster-father, Mordecai.

The story of Purim is related in the Book of Esther, one of the most widely known books in the Bible. The word Purim means "lots," and the Bible recounts how lots were cast daily before Haman so that he could fix a day for the slaughter.

The name "Haman" has forever been identified in Jewish History, and, indeed, in the literature of Western civilization, with cruel oppressors, evil despots and dictatorships. Mordecai's refusal to prostrate himself before Haman is regarded as the symbol of free men's determination to defy tyrants.

Purim is a jubilant holiday, marked in the synagogue by songs, prayers of thanksgiving, and by the reading of the Book of Esther from a special scroll or Megillah. Children who flock to synagogues for the reading are invited to wave noise-makers and stamp their feet to drown out the dread name of "Haman" whenever it occurs in the text. Purim pageants, plays, masquerades and balls underscore the joyful spirit of the holiday. Other important features of the celebration include the exchange of gifts, gifts to the poor, and festive dinners in the Jewish homes.

Universal Purim themes at synagogue services are the need to combat bigotry, especially in recent manifestations such as the desecration of houses of worship. Purim ritual in the Union Prayerbook used in Reform congregations throughout the land reads:

"Strengthen us to combat prejudice, injustice and oppression when they strike not only against us but against men of whatever race or belief. May we strive unceasingly for the triumph of truth and right over falsehood and wrong. Thus we shall be united in a true covenant of brotherhood and peace. Amen."

Judaism and the Five-Day Week

by Elena V. Greenfield

WHEN I WAS a child, I asked my mother why our Sabbath was on Sunday. When she explained it to me, I then asked, "Why doesn't Daddy come with us to services?"

Men must work on Saturday, I was told, in order to make a living.

Today, with the five-day week prevailing throughout so much of our society, that answer no longer holds.

Today it would be possible for more people to worship on Saturday morning. But, alas, they don't.

What a pity! No hour is more delightful than a Sabbath morning in temple. Isaac Mayer Wise "invented" the idea of a late Friday night service in order to "preserve" the Sabbath for Jewish worship in America. And the Friday night service is here to stay.

But the Sabbath morning service is a different experience and if you have never discovered its charm, you ought to.

Friday night you're still weary from the day's work; on Saturday morning, chances are you're a bit more rested. If you bring your children with you Friday night you're worried about their being up so late; you've got no such worry on Saturday morning. If yours is one of the new sanctuaries, both the art work in the interior and the beauties of nature outside the temple are more visible in the morning than they are in the evening.

Indeed, the entire atmosphere on Saturday morning is most conducive to worship.

And the service is enchanting. The rabbi seems less hurried. He reads from the Torah and his sermon is taken directly from Scripture. Whereas, on the eve of Sabbath the rabbi seems more interested in the world's problems, on the morn he seems more interested in our problems. The

Gems from the Sabbath Morning Worship Service

We would not close our eyes to the evils that beset our path, but struggle manfully to turn them into stepping stones leading upward unto Thee.

When selfishness and greed prompt us to wrongdoing, may the sense of Thy nearness restrain our desires and save us from degradation.

Quickened by Thy spirit, may we learn how to ennoble the things of earth by sanctifying them to Thy service.

May we never be tempted to profit by impoverishing and degrading the lives of others.

Open up within the desert of our souls the living fountain of Thy love that our lives may be brought to flower in the beauty of Thy goodness.

—The Union Prayerbook, published by the Central Conference of American Rabbis. Newly Revised, Volume I.

remarkable and paradoxical mixture of calmness and stimulation, which is the essence of Judaism, seems to work on Sabbath mornings. Of course, the combination is not so paradoxical; what a genuine worship experience does is to allay our fears about minor things which we tend to magnify during the week and simultaneously stimulate us to achieve those important aims which we often neglect.

The liturgy on Sabbath morning is magnificent. Some of the passages, I think, exceed in literary beauty some of those in the Friday night readings. And, for variety, there are five different services.

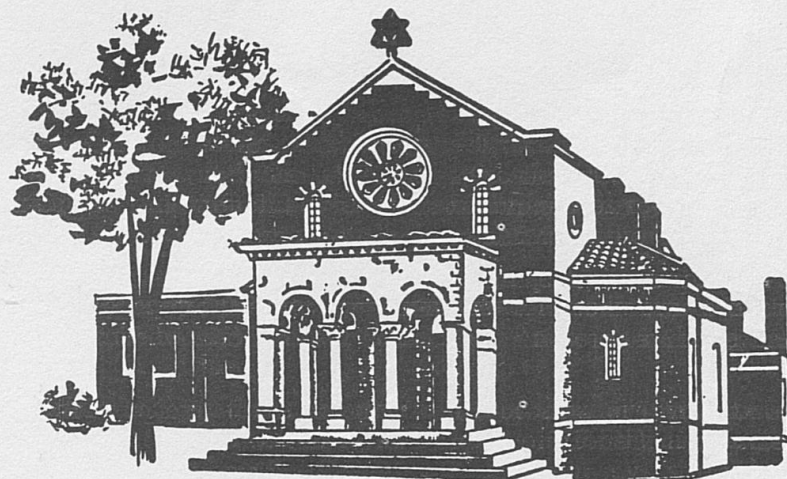

Perhaps your only exposure to the Saturday morning service has been at a Bar Mitzvah. I do not mean to belittle Bar Mitzvahs, but I submit that you really can't capture the flavor of the service when you are waiting in suspense to listen to the young man of the morning. To capture the true mood of that service you must try it when there is no Bar Mitzvah. Chances are it will become a habit, and a most helpful one.

Some people say that religious services are so repetitious that they become boring. I have found that the people who say that are people who seldom attend services. Those who go often do not become weary of them. On the contrary, they grow so attached to them that it is truly a habit, but one capable of providing continuous exaltation. I, for one, have been a Sabbath-attender since childhood and have found fresh delight in the services through the years.

Sociologists are asking what are people going to do with their added leisure time, as the work-week is continually reduced. I submit that what we do with that time is a test of what we are. If you are wise, you will explore the Sabbath morning worship custom. That hour in temple can make the rest of the week more significant.

"OVERCOMING THE SENSE OF LONELINESS"

Our world is inhabited by billions of people. Towns have given way to cities, cities to metropolis and metropolis to megalopolis. Yet books are constantly being published that are concerned with the loneliness of man within this crowd of people. In his sermon of Friday, March 23, at 8:00 P.M., the Rabbi will discuss the implications of loneliness and some religiously-oriented, suggested remedies. His sermon is entitled "Overcoming the Sense of Loneliness." The usual Sabbath Social sponsored by the Sisterhood will follow the Worship Service.

On Wednesday, March 28, at 8:00 P.M., the monthly book review group will meet in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Munich, 224 Barrow Road. The following chapters have been selected by Mrs. Hanau for discussion: Two, three, five, eight and nine. Books may be obtained in the Temple office from the Rabbi's secretary at $1.95 a copy.

SISTERHOOD DINNER-DANCE

DATE: March 31
TIME: 7:00 P.M.
PLACE: Holiday Inn
THEME: "THE PEPPERMINT LOUNGE"
PURPOSE: To raise funds in support of our Religious School.

(President Kennedy's response to Rabbi Eisendrath's presentation of a Torah at the recent 46th Biennial of the UAHC)

I want to express my great satisfaction in welcoming you to the White House again, and to tell you how grateful I am for your generosity. These Torahs I know have special significance for you, and particularly this one, which is so intimately associated with the founder here in the United States, one which was brought from Europe and which has been part of your life. So I am doubly appreciative to you for being willing to part with it and present it to us here today.

I think, as the Rabbi said, that the significance of this ceremony is not merely a gift of an ancient document, but that in a very real sense the great issue today is between, as he said, the supremacy of the moral law which is initiated, originated and developed in the Bible, and which has special application here today.

I have never felt that we should attempt to use the great impulse towards God and towards religion, which all people feel, as an element in a cold war struggle. Rather, it is not an arm, it is the essence of the issue...not the organization of economy so much but as the supremacy of moral law, and therefore the right of the individual, his rights to be protected by the state and not be at the mercy of the state.

In the Inaugural Address, to which the Rabbi mentioned. I said that the basic issue was that the rights the citizens enjoyed did not come from the state but rather from the hand of God. And it is written here. And it is written in the Old and the New Testaments.

So I am grateful to you, and I want you to know that in coming here today I think it symbolizes the happy relations which exist between all religious groups, and must continue to exist in this country, if we are to be worthy of our heritage.

So, Rabbi, I am grateful to you. There is no gift which could please me more.... and I am delighted to welcome you to your house.

"GOVERNMENTAL AID TO PAROCHIAL SCHOOLS"

(From the resolutions of the 46th Assembly of the UAHC)

The Union of American Hebrew Congregations has always been deeply committed to the principle of the separation of church and state, which has safeguarded religious liberty for all men in this free land.

The devotion of our Union to the separation of religion and the state, and our equally deep commitment to public education as a cornerstone of the American democratic process, impel us at the 46th Biennial Assembly to reaffirm our opposition to any form of governmental aid to elementary and secondary schools under the supervision or control of any religious denomination or sect -- Catholic, Protestant, or Jewish.

Our opposition to such governmental grants, loans, and other forms of fiscal aid to parochial schools does not imply any lack of regard or respect for religiously-sponsored institutions of education. We respect the right of any religious denomination to establish and administer its own educational institutions. We applaud their contributions to the cultural and spiritual diversity of our nation, and we urge those religious groups which have parochial schools to continue to support them without passing this responsibility on to the government.

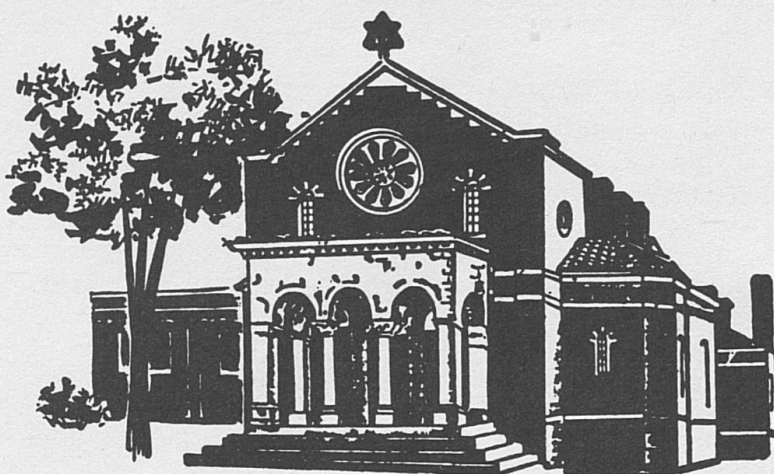

CREED

I wish I were big enough to honestly admit all my shortcomings; brilliant enough to accept flattery without it making me arrogant; tall enough to tower above deceit; strong enough to welcome criticism; compassionate enough to understand human frailties; wise enough to recognize my mistakes; humble enough to appreciate greatness; staunch enough to stand by my friends; human enough to be thoughtful of my neighbor and righteous enough to be devoted to the love of God.

"THE PROPER CONDUCT"

The function of the Bible is to teach us about faith in God and its application in earthly relationships. This is clear. But when we read from the Book of Leviticus we are loathe to find any connection between the expressed purpose of the Bible and this the third Book in it. What relationship can possibly be determined between the garments of the Temple-ministering Priests and human action? What tie between a mitre and the Almighty? In his sermon of Friday, March 30, at 8:00 P.M., the Rabbi will discuss the interpreted importance of the Book of Leviticus for our day. His sermon is entitled: "The Proper Conduct." The usual Sabbath Social sponsored by the Sisterhood will follow the Worship Service.

SUNDAY MORNING ADULT EDUCATION

The third and final session for the March series of Sunday Morning Adult Education study sessions will be conducted on March 25, at 9:45 A.M. The Rabbi will conclude his series on "The Inside Story Of The Crusades." All Sunday morning sessions are conducted in the Temple Vestry.

JCS FILM

"Grant Us Peace," a film presentation of the Jewish Chautauqua Society, will be shown on WKYT-TV on Sunday, March 25, from 2:00 to 2:30 P.M. It offers a timely message bringing into focus the ethical concepts of Judaism which stress that the pursuit of peace is the most important of religious obligations.

The JCS is an organization devoted to the promotion and dissemination of Jewish knowledge and information sponsored by the National Federation of Temple Brotherhoods.

JEWISH MEN'S LUNCHEON CLUB

The newly-formed Jewish Men's Luncheon Club will have its first meeting on Wednesday, March 28, at 12:15 P.M., in the Lotus Room of the Kentuckian Hotel, according to an announcement by the Co-Chairman, Mr. Harry Miller. This Club will meet on a once-a-month basis for lunch and a discussion led by Rabbi Rothman. Participants may choose their luncheon from the menu of the hotel. Free parking is provided for all in attendance. The Club's meeting will last until 1:30 P.M., and will meet on the last Wednesday of every month, excluding the summer months.

These arrangements have been made due to the request and extremely favorable response of our Temple members. It is not too late for those who have not enrolled to do so. If you are interested please communicate this to the Rabbi's secretary or to the Co-Chairmen, Messrs. Maurice Hymson and Harry Miller.

KEREN AMI COUNCIL MEETS

The Religious School Keren Ami Council met on February 25, at 10:00 A.M. All the representatives were present and the meeting was led by the President, Steven Bing, of the Ninth Grade. Discussions dealt with charitable organizations and the contributions to them to be made by our Religious School.

Following the meeting, officers of the group, Steve Bing, Neil Marks and Jeanne Wikler, made reports to classes of our school's lower division. In attendance at the meeting were Mrs. Ruth Barrett, Principal, and the Rabbi.

"HOLY; WHOLLY AND SOLELY"

We are exhorted throughout most of the Bible to "be holy, for I the Lord your God, am holy." But the Bible doesn't just leave it at that. It says more. It defines holiness for us. The Book of Leviticus, the third Book of the Bible from which we are currently reading on the Sabbath, explains what we are to understand by the use of the word "holy." In his sermon of Friday, April 6, at 8:00 P.M., the Rabbi will analyze the meaning of holiness in his sermon entitled "Holy; Wholly and Solely." The usual Sabbath Social sponsored by the Sisterhood will follow the worship service.

RABBI'S CALENDAR

In addition to his regular duties during the month of March, Rabbi Rothman made the following public appearances:

INTERFAITH FELLOWSHIPS AT HUC-JIR

One of America's most effective inter-faith programs operates on the Cincinnati campus of Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion. Promising young Protestant and Catholic scholars, preparing for academic or preaching careers in theological schools and churches of their denomination, do their graduate work at the College-Institute. Most are in residence two or three years, thus acquiring a deep understanding of Judaism and Jewish life.

Since 1947, when the program was started, 91 Christian Fellows have studied at the College Institute; the present number of Fellows is 15.

Former Christian Fellows now teach at Colgate Rochester Divinity School; Berkeley Baptist Divinity School; Drake University Divinity School; Vanderbilt University School of Religion; and numerous other academic institutions.

"...Authentic faith is more than an echo of tradition. It is a creative situation, an event. It is an act of the whole person, of mind, will and heart ... Faith comes out of awe, out of an awareness that we are exposed to His presence, out of anxiety to answer the challenge of God, out of an awareness of our being called upon."

"NO EASY ANSWERS"

In June of 1961, a book written by Philip M. Klutznick went into its second printing, obviously a well-received and relatively popular volume. On the jacket of that book is the following statement: " 'No Easy Answers' is one man's opinion of where Jewish life in America is heading. . . that man being one of the foremost Jewish leaders of our generation. There are no easy answers, says Mr. Klutznick, to the complexities and confusion of Jewish life in America. In the 4000-year adventure of Jewish peoplehood the principles of a faith have remained intact but the setting has changed radically from one civilization to another. "

" . . . He rejects the doom-sayers for 'looking down when they should be looking up. . . so that they can see the cup is not half empty, it is half full' . "

Mr. Klutznick is currently serving as a member of the U.S. Mission to the United Nations and U.S. Representative to the Economic and Social Council. He is past-President of the B'nai B'rith. Rabbi Rothman will discuss this book from the pulpit on Friday, April 13, at 8:00 P.M. The usual Sabbath Social sponsored by the Sisterhood will follow the Worship Service.

TEMPLE MAIL

(The following is a copy of a letter received by Mr. Sylvan Lebow, Executive Director of the Jewish Chautauqua Society).
February 16, 1962

Dear Mr. Lebow:

I should like to report to you that Rabbi Robert A. Rothman visited our campus Wednesday, February 14, and represented your society in a most commendable manner. He spoke to our chapel service and met with two classes -- one in church history, the other in systematic theology -- and answered questions for about an hour and a half, following an all school luncheon. He made a very favorable impression upon our seminary community, and we are looking forward to other opportunities, not only of having him visit our campus, but of going to visit his Temple.

Thanking you for making him available to us, we remain,

Sincerely,
/s/ Dwight E. Stevenson
College of the Bible

PASSOVER HAGADDAHS

DEAF-ORAL SCHOOL

Since September, 1961, our Temple has played host to the Lexington Deaf-Oral School. This non-sectarian school was established by Parents of Hearing Impaired Children and the Optimist Club of South Lexington to teach speech and lip-reading to deaf pre-schoolers who might never learn to speak or understand without such training. Nine children between the ages of two-and-a-half and five years are presently enrolled (plus one on "leave" with his father and the 100th Division). The school is under the expert direction of Miss Norma Harris. All the children have severe hearing losses and as a result began school understanding and saying practically nothing. They are now beginning to talk and lip-read. Even with the powerful hearing aids used, these children will never hear spoken language and will always need special classes to learn to talk, understand, read and write, as do you and I.

The school is supported in part by the two sponsoring organizations and the Crusade for Children. But mostly, it is supported by the generous donations of members of the community. The school's Board of Directors is now conducting the 1962 fund raising drive to obtain the funds necessary for continuing this worthy project. If you are interested in further information, or would care to observe the program, please contact Mrs. James Frankel, Secretary of the Board of Directors, or Miss Norma Harris, School Director.

TEMPLE SPONSORS CUB SCOUTS

Cub Scout Pack 222, sponsored by Temple Adath Israel, now has three active dens serving twenty-four boys. Three Boy Scouts, members of troops at other institutions, serve as Den Chiefs. Seven adults function as Cubmaster, Pack Committee members and Den Mothers. A program of adventure, learning, patriotism, and fun in a group with widely varied religious and racial backgrounds gives these boys a great opportunity to grow. Parent participation is required, and assures rich experiences for adults, too. The annual Boy Scout Exposition, April 27 and 28, at Tattersalls Warehouse on South Broadway will give all an opportunity to see the program in action.

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION RESOLUTION

(The Lexington Ministerial Association adopted the following resolution on Race Relations unanimously in its monthly meeting on February 26, 1962. The Rabbi is a member of this Association).

The Lexington Ministerial Association is an inter-racial and voluntary fellowship of religious leaders in the Lexington area. The members thereof share a vital concern for the welfare of the community, as evidenced by the fact that on January 25, 1960, members of the Association adopted a resolution urging the desegregation of churches, hotels and theaters. This is to re-affirm our belief that an objective of the Judeo-Christian society is to bring about a voluntary removal of all barriers of race, in the belief that all peoples have been created of God, are of equal intrinsic value, and have distinctive contributions to make to the world welfare.

We are happy to note that some of our community institutions are desegregated, but we are equally unhappy to observe that discrimination still seems to prevail in others. It is our understanding that few, if any, of the churches of Lexington have any adopted rules or policies of any discriminatory nature. If so, we urge the congregations to reconsider such policies. We believe in the general rule that all who come into places of business in an orderly manner in order to purchase goods or services, should be given the best for which they can pay, and in the most courteous manner. We believe that the principle that all people of all races are entitled to equal opportunities, is morally right.

Therefore, we urge church and community leaders to unite in working toward the goal of removing any enforced segregation of races which may exist.

TIME IS BUT A BLANK SPACE

Remember that time is but a blank space - absolutely worthless unless we write upon it with our deeds. The days and the years are valuable only in the proportion and the measure of what we do with them.

PASSOVER - SPRING FESTIVAL OF FREEDOM

The first holiday festival that the Jews celebrated in ancient times was that of Passover. People came to the sanctuary of Jerusalem from all parts of the then-known world to offer their sacrifices as a token of thanksgiving for having come through another winter safely. Passover, however, implies something more than just a Spring festival. It speaks to us today of principles and values which we must hold precious and preserve. In his sermon of Friday evening, April 20, at 8:00 P.M., the Rabbi will discuss these principles in his sermon entitled: "Passover-Spring Festival of Freedom." The usual Sabbath Social sponsored by the Sisterhood will follow the worship service.

TYG MODEL SEDER

Our Temple Youth will have as its dinner meeting program for Sunday, April 15, a model Seder to be conducted by the Rabbi in our Temple Vestry at 5:30 P.M. The guests will be the officers and representatives of the Lexington Federation of United Church Women and the Altar Societies of the five Roman Catholic parishes in Lexington. Following the serving of coffee in the Vestry, a worship service will be conducted in the Sanctuary by the Rabbi. A discussion of "The Essence of Judaism" will be led by him. Mrs. David Paritz is in charge of the refreshments and Mrs. I. A. Paritz serves as Sisterhood Chairman for this program. All Sisterhood members are cordially invited to attend and share in this morning's activities.

CONFIRMATION PARENTS INVITED

On Sunday, April 29, parents of children in the Confirmation Class are invited to attend the morning's classes and share in the day's activities with their children. THE VOICE OF WISDOM

The proper study of a wise man is not how to die, but how to live.

A man who desires to help others by counsel or deed will refrain from dwelling on men's faults, and will speak but sparingly of human weakness. But he will speak at large of man's virtue and power, and the means of perfecting the same, that thus men may endeavor joyously to live, so far as in them lies, after the commandment of reason.

PASSOVER

Jews everywhere will once again rehearse mankind's first uprising against human bondage as we celebrate the week-long Festival of Passover, which begins at sunset, Wednesday, April 18.

As told in Scriptures, the origin of the Passover story centers about the command made by Moses of Pharaoh that the Israelite slaves be set free. Never before in history had resistance against human servitude been suggested, and the Egyptian monarch spurned the words of Moses. Our holiday of Passover marks the successful outcome of Moses. The idea of liberty is stressed in the hymns, the prayers, and the rituals.

It is a family Festival, as well, which centers that aspect of it around the Seder, the Festival meal which takes place on the first night (and for some, the second night also) of the holiday.

TEMPLE PASSOVER SEDER

The Temple Passover Seder, sponsored by the Sisterhood, will be conducted by the Rabbi on Thursday, April 19, at 6:00 P.M., in the Vestry. Reservation forms have been sent to you with information as to cost, etc. Please complete those forms and mail to the address suggested on it.

MY TEMPLE

Brick and stone and wood do not make a synagogue. They make a building. People make a Synagogue. It's people that give the brick and the stone a character and a personality. As you and I walk by the Temple we do not say, "That's a House of Worship." We say, "That's MY Temple." And the word "my" tells the whole story. There is an intimate bond between the building and us. We belong to each other—not merely in a public, communal sense, but in an intimate kind of way.

The Temple is no mere building. It is newly born babes and little children, and young men and women, and just-married husbands and wives. It is middle age and old age. It is companionship and loyalty and love and hope. The Temple is memory; it is dear ones, the living and the dead. "It is MY Temple: for my life is anchored there."

"IT'S JUST TOO BAD"

In a nation and culture increasingly concerned with the material and the tangible, human life and human beings take on less significance and importance. Newspapers are filled not only with destruction at home, but with the brutal killings of defenseless and confused people in almost every part of the world. It tends to develop a callousness and we begin to suffer from fibrosis of the soul. The cry seems to be "It's just too bad, but after all what is there to be done...?" In his sermon of Friday, April 27, at 8:00 P.M., the Rabbi will address himself to the meaning of life and the significance of death in his sermon entitled "It's just too Bad." Why I Go To Temple

BY SAMUEL B. FINKEL

To achieve emotional relaxation and spiritual exhilaration by insulating myself through meditation against the clamor and clatter of my daily routine.

To give audible expression to my resolve to attain the maximum unfoldment of my better self.

To strengthen my determination to accept gracefully the fact of the impermanence of the individual and to replenish my confidence that because each of us is a link in the never ending chain of time each of us has within him a spark of eternity.

To ask for divine help to pattern my life on the principle that life has a meaning and purpose and direction beyond human understanding.

To pay my respects to my forefathers and to set an example to my offspring through the overt affirmation of my Jewishness by reason of my attendance at services.

To record my gratification that I belong to an ancient and honorable people dedicated to justice, learning, charity and sanctity.

To acknowledge the indebtedness of our people to the synagogue for its ceaseless and dedicated efforts through its rabbis and lay leaders to clarify, codify and interpret Judaism, thereby assuring the physical, cultural and spiritual continuity of Jewry.

To recall the heroic deeds of our ancestral leaders; the teachings of our prophets; the wisdom of our sages; and to resolve to live by their example and in their spirit.

To avow my spiritual dependence on a supreme power outside of man, which, although I am unable scientifically to explain, I accept on faith and acknowledge as the guiding force of life in every form.

To commune through prayers with this power, which in accord with the precepts of Judaism I regard as God—and the only God.

Samuel B. Finkel, past president of the National Federation of Temple Brotherhoods, is executive vice-president of the Dropsie College for Hebrew and Cognate Learning. Your reactions to this statement, your personal views and your comments would be gratefully received. The statement may be reprinted in temple and Brotherhood Bulletins.

"ETHICS AND MORALS"

It is within the framework of justice and love that man has attempted to construct and develop the society and civilization with which we are familiar. In the words of the immediate past-president of the American Bar Association, Whitney N. Seymour: "A central theme of our national history has been the struggle for justice under law and the preservation of the dignity and liberty of the individual. The struggle has gone on through wars, economic, social and technological changes which have vastly altered the outward aspects of our world. All who comprehend the meaning of today's events in the world realize that we are facing now the greatest challenge of all to the concept of individual dignity and freedom under law which means so much to our country and to men everywhere."

Law Day, 1962, will be celebrated on May 1st. In his sermon of Friday, May 4, at 8:00 P.M., the Rabbi will discuss the relationship of law to religion. The title is "Ethics and Morals." The usual Sabbath Social sponsored by the Sisterhood will follow the Worship Service.

ORIGIN OF EARLY AMERICAN JEWS

The general assumption is that Sephardic Jews (of Spanish descent) predominated in early America and that the Ashkenazim (Jews from Central and Eastern Europe) did not come to America until well into the 19th century. Based on sources available in the American Jewish Archives of Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion, its director, Professor Jacob R. Marcus, discovered that as early as the 1730's Ashkenazim already constituted a majority of American Jews.

The American Jewish Archives was founded in 1947 and is located on the Cincinnati campus of Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion.

So much historical documentation has been collected by the Archives that the personalities to which these sources refer number at least one million.

"CHAMPING AT THE BIT"

Holiness is the theme of the Book of Leviticus. Associated with the concept of holiness is that of isolation and restriction. We in our society today prefer to think of all men as equal and homogeneous. Does the Book of Leviticus speak to our contemporary world? Can we derive any guidance or inspiration from its emphasis upon holiness? These and questions of a similar nature will be discussed by Rabbi Rothman in his sermon of Friday, May 18, at 8:00 P.M., entitled "Champing At The Bit." The usual Sabbath Social sponsored by the Sisterhood will follow the Worship Service.

TYG TO MEET

The Temple Youth Group will conduct its May dinner meeting on Sunday, May 20, at 5:30 P.M., at the Temple. Officers for the coming year will be installed. The program for the day will consist of a box dinner followed by folk dancing. All TYG members are urged to attend this meeting.

THE PREACHER

What does a preacher do, my son?

Well, his time is his own, which means he is always on the job. You see, the man who is cursed with punching in a time-clock in the morning is also blessed with the privilege of punching one out in the evening. The preacher heals, though without pills or knife. He is sometimes a lawyer, often a social worker, something of an editor, a bit of a philosopher, an entertainer, a lecturer, a salesman, a handy decorative piece for public functions, a local representative for every relief movement in the land. He is supposed to be a scholar as well as a promotional man. People come to see him and he goes to see people continually, and he rejoices with exceeding joy when in the midst of this an opportunity arises to be of genuine personal spiritual help. He visits the sick, marries people, buries the dead, labors to console those who sorrow, and to admonish those who sin, and labors to stay sweet when chided for not calling enough. He spends considerable time in keeping people out of each other's hair and more time in trying to scramble out himself with the least possible loss.

Oh, yes—and between times he prepares a sermon and preaches it on the Sabbath, to those who don't happen to have any other engagement for the holiday. Then on Monday he smiles when some jovial chap roars, "What a job—one hour of work a week!"

SENATOR LEHMAN ANSWERS QUESTIONS

Hon. Herbert H. Lehman was asked a number of questions by Steven Schlusel, a pupil in the Religious School of Temple Beth-El of Great Neck. His reply, which appeared in a bulletin of that Congregation, was as follows:

Dear Steven:

I have just received your letter of November 16, and even though my desk is piled high with work, I hasten to answer it, since I believe the questions you ask are of importance.

1. I believe that all religions play a useful and very necessary part in people's lives, and I respect all religions that teach belief and faith in God. I am a Jew both by birth and by conviction. It satisfies my spiritual needs and I have a strong faith in its teachings.

2. I do not believe that being a Jew has either helped or harmed me in my public life. I believe that generally speaking the American people choose their public officials by their impression of the man or woman, and although of course bias and prejudice still exist to some degree in this country, in my opinion it is far less than it was 30 or 40 years ago.

3. Yes; I have found prejudice; both as a youngster and as an adult, but I believe to a very great extent these can be overcome by an individual or group by showing that they are not justified. As I have said, there is no doubt that social prejudice still exists, but I do not believe that it greatly handicaps a person in taking an active part in the worthwhile things of life. Whether a boy or a man may join a particular fraternity or club is of no great importance. The important thing is to demonstrate that you are a good citizen, willing to bear your share of the responsibilities of citizenship as well as its blessings.

4. You ask whether I have a comment to make to my fellow Jews who may want some day to become publicly known and feel that Judaism may hold them back because of either discrimination or prejudice. My answer is that I think any man who is seeking public office and allows his ambition to affect his religious affiliation is not worthy of the confidence of his fellow citizens. I know of very few instances in which a man was looked down upon because he was a Jew. On the other hand, I know of many instances where a man who sought to hide his religion lost the respect of his fellow citizens.

I am glad you asked me these questions. Apparently you are a very young boy and have your whole life before you. Mine is rapidly coming to a close. My advice, in a word, is: Never be ashamed of being a Jew. Never try to hide it. Never try to compromise with your convictions because they may not agree with those of the group in which you find yourself.

Thank you for your letter. I hope what I have said may give you something to think about now and in later years.

With kindest regards and warm wishes,

/s/ Herbert H. Lehman
Former Governor of the State of New York,
U.S. Senator and Director-General of UNRRA

"THOU SHALT TEACH THEM"

Religious values and ideals cannot be perpetuated in a vacuum. That which we hold dear must be handed down to succeeding generations. For this purpose we have the institutions of religion. To this end do religious institutions foster and maintain Religious Schools. But a school is only as effective as are its teachers. Curricula may be outstanding, texts may be superb, but, in the last analysis, it is the faculty that determines the effectiveness of any school. On Friday, May 25, at 8:00 P.M., Temple Adath Israel will honor its own Religious School faculty. The Rabbi's sermon for that evening will be devoted to "Thou Shalt Teach Them." The congregation is cordially invited to participate in the Kiddush in the Vestry immediately following the service.

THIS I BELIEVE

"As one who tries to remain youthful in his thinking and feeling, I have struggled against facts and experience on behalf of belief in the good and the true. At the present time when violence, clothed in life, dominates the world more cruelly than it ever has before, I still remain convinced that truth, love, peaceableness, meekness, and kindness are the violence which can master all other violence. The world will be theirs as soon as ever a sufficient number of men with purity of heart, with strength, and with perseverance, think and live out the thoughts of love and truth, of meekness and peaceableness."

TEMPLE MAIL

May 1, 1962

Dear Rabbi Rothman,

Thank you very much for allowing our Senior High young people to come to talk with you at the Temple last weekend. I know how many times you are called on to meet with special groups, and I appreciate your being willing to give of your time to us.

Let me say, first of all, that they liked you as a person. The group attending the Friday evening service was very much impressed by your sermon. When young people leave and can talk over what has been said, you know that they have heard. One of the ideas they talked about was this: "Life is not a goblet to be emptied, but a measure to be filled."

Many of the group, as you could see, are very young, and this was their first trip to the Temple. They were very much interested and I am sure they will carry a lasting impression of this visit with them.

Thank you again.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ Mary Scott Wilds, Director of Christian Education
Second Presbyterian Church

"THE CONQUEST OF FEAR"

With the coming Sabbath, Jewish congregations throughout the world begin the reading from Scripture's fourth book, the Book of Numbers. There are many themes that constitute this portion of the Bible, but the most outstanding is that of the spies who were sent by Moses to search the land of Canaan, the Promised Land, and to report their findings. The majority view was a negative one, yet it was not acceptable to Moses and the Children of Israel. It had been based not upon sound judgment, but rather upon fear. On Friday, June 1, at 8:00 P.M., the Rabbi will discuss the meaning of fear and the role it plays in our lives in his sermon entitled "The Conquest Of Fear." The usual Sabbath Social sponsored by the Sisterhood will follow the Worship Service.

PEACE DESTROYER

What happens on a large scale is but a symptom of what is done in the privacy of many lives. The man who cannot live in peace with his neighbor, the mischief-maker or secret ill-wisher or slanderer or liar, the adulterer or undutiful son or negligent parent or lawbreaker — by his conduct, which even behind locked doors is never wholly private — keeps peace from the world. He does on a miniature, what on a larger scale makes mankind destroy itself.

"REFORM JUDAISM: AN HISTORIC CHAIN"

Because of our group's choice of the names Reform, Progressive or Liberal, we have been classified by many as newcomers to the Jewish scene. But the principle of change and adaptation has always been part and parcel of Judaism. Without this inner flexibility, we would not have survived to this day. In his sermon of Friday, June 8, the Rabbi will discuss the historicity of reform in Judaism in a sermon entitled "Reform Judaism: An Historic Chain." The usual Sabbath Social sponsored by the Sisterhood will follow the Worship Service.

CONFIRMATION CLASS DAY

The Confirmation Class of 1962 cordially invites the Congregation of Temple Adath Israel to participate in the Sabbath Morning Service and Class Day Exercises in the Sanctuary on the morning of Saturday, June 9, at 11:00. The Sabbath Service will be conducted by the Rabbi as usual. However, the sermon will be omitted in order that the Class Day Exercises may be concluded approximately at noon.

Erna Abraham will present the Class History; Michael Baker will offer the Class Prophecy; a typical Confirmation weekend will be presented by Stanley Gordon; Susan Jacobs will offer the Class Will; the Class Analyst will be Samye Miller; Jeffrey Rosenzweig will discuss Class Purposes, and the Class Poet will be David Shraberg.

SHAVUOS

The Festival of Shavuos, also known as the Feast of Weeks or Pentecost, will be celebrated this year beginning at sunset, Thursday, June 7. One of the most colorful holidays of the Jewish calendar, Shavuos marks the handing down of the Ten Commandments to Moses on Mt. Sinai. In Biblical times, the holiday was an agricultural festival, celebrating both the wheat and barley harvest and the appearance of the first fruits following the Spring planting. The term Pentecost is used because the Festival is observed on the 50th day following the first day of Passover.

In addition to the Ten Commandments, which tradition teaches were handed down to the Children of Israel just 50 days after the Exodus, Shavuos also is associated with the Book of Ruth, with its rural setting and the story of a woman who voluntarily converted to the Jewish faith.

The Service of Confirmation coming at the conclusion of the 9th grade of Religious School was originated in 1831 in Germany. When first introduced by Reform Jewish leaders in America, Confirmation was bitterly contested by non-Reform Jews. It has now become an integral part of the total American-Jewish scene serving to enhance the intrinsic beauty of this our Feast of Weeks, Shavuos.

EXCERPTS FROM A LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT OF HEBREW UNION COLLEGE
JEWISH INSTITUTE OF RELIGION

Dear Friend,

Our new building in Jerusalem, which will house the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion Center of Biblical Studies and Archaeology and thus become our fourth campus, is nearing completion. The overwhelmingly friendly and even enthusiastic interest of the people of Israel in our School and its Reform Synagogue in Jerusalem is heart warming. The prospect of having in the land of the Bible an Institute dedicated to the scholarly investigation of the Bible and its land is exciting. Highest academic circles in many countries eagerly await its opening. In establishing our Jerusalem Center, we are continuing and strengthening the tradition of the Hebrew Union College, which since its inception has put the greatest emphasis on Bible and Biblical studies.

Three times in its history of the Society of Biblical Literature, composed of this country's outstanding and predominantly Christian Bible Scholars, elected Rabbis as their president. Each of these men was of the faculty of our School: Dr. Julian Morgenstern, Dr. Sheldon H. Blank and Dr. Samuel Sandmel.

Presently eleven members of our faculty specialize in Biblical and related scholarship, and this does not take into account a number of our historians and philologists whose fields touch on the languages and the history of the Bible.

To my mind, of course, come also the numerous alumni of our School, scholarly rabbis and teachers whose learned contributions to Biblical studies appear most regularly as books or in article form. It is a special source of gratification to me that fourteen of our former Christian Fellows who did graduate work at the Hebrew Union College are presently serving as professors of Bible in prominent universities and distinguished divinity schools.

It is not numbers that count but the continuous purpose of our College, through modern learning, to maintain the Bible as an ever fresh source of our religion.

Rabbi Nelson Glueck

THIS UNFINISHED WORLD

The wisdom of God is shown in that he left the world unfinished that we might have the interest and delight in taking the raw material and putting the world together. He left the oil in the trap rock, the aluminum in the clay, the paper in the pulp, the electricity in the clouds. He left the forest unfelled, the mountains unsurveyed, the canals undug; the tunnels unbored. He left the music unwritten, the poetry undreamed, and the dramas unplayed. He left inventions unapplied, and cities unbuilt. He left mind and character unperfected, that we might really be the children of God - created in His own image, with latent powers to take the raw materials and put the old world together.

TO BE HONORED

MR. RICHARD ALLISON

On Friday, June 8, at 8:00 P.M., Mr. Richard Allison will be honored for his completion of 25 years of devoted service as a member of the Choir of Temple Adath Israel, according to an announcement by the Choir Committee Chairman, Mr. Warren Rosenthal and our Choir Director, Mrs. Harold Baker.

Born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Mr. Allison was educated at Transylvania College and the University of Kentucky, receiving a Bachelor of Science degree. He has been the superintendent of the Lexington Cemetery since 1936, Business Manager of the Central Kentucky Youth Symphony Orchestra from 1953 to 1962, on the Salvation Army Advisory Board, a director of Spindletop Hall, a member of the Lexington Rotary Club, a Consultant Landscape Architect in charge of all plantings on the Transylvania campus and a Ruling Elder of the Second Presbyterian Church.

He is married to the former Clara Elizabeth Hunley and they have three daughters, Betty, Peggy and Cathy.

TEN GOOD REASONS FOR BELONGING TO OUR TEMPLE

1. Because in times like these when organized evil is so potent it is all the more important for the forces of good to be organized to make their impact felt in human life.
2. Because it will give you satisfaction to take those vague impulses for good you feel all the time, and harness them up to a group and a program for action and influence.
3. Because our Temple does stand for that natural and human approach to religion, unclouded by the vagaries of a lingering supernaturalism and a supine other-worldiness.
4. Because in this Temple neither children nor adults are afraid to ask questions.
5. Because the early grounding in religion which children receive in our Religious School is of a kind that will not be challenged and discredited by college and other adult experiences.
6. Because our kind of religion respects the integrity and ability of men, and calls upon them not merely to accept a predigested faith but to think and fashion a religious faith for themselves.
7. Because unless we are willing to undertake some responsibility for carrying on and enriching the spiritual heritage we have received from previous generations, we are falling far short of our obligations as citizens.
8. Because, after all, this spiritual heritage is the most important and most valuable thing in life to all of us, and its support and enhancement properly placed is one of the first obligations of human life.
9. Because in the Temple you meet people who care about other people.
10. Because this Temple has the kind of religion suited to a world in which individuals are growing in intelligence and in competence, and to a world gradually evolving universal values. —Exchange

A FATHER'S DAY PRAYER (Father's Day, June 17)

Build me a son, O Lord, who will be strong enough to know when he is weak, and brave enough to face himself when he is afraid; one who will be proud and unbending in honest defeat, and humble and gentle in victory.

Build me a son whose wishbone will not be where his backbone should be; a son who will know Thee—and that to know himself is the foundation stone of knowledge.

Lead him, I pray, not in the path of ease and comfort, but under the stress and spur of difficulties and challenge. Here, let him learn to stand up in the storm; here let him learn compassion for those who fail.

Build me a son whose heart will be clear, whose goals will be high; a son who will master himself before he seeks to master other men; one who will learn to laugh, yet never forget how to weep; one who will reach into the future, yet never forget the past.

And after all these things are his, add, I pray, enough sense of humor, so that he may always be serious, yet never take himself too seriously. Give him humility, so that he may always remember the simplicity of true greatness, the open mind of true wisdom, the meekness of true strength.

Then I, his father, will dare to whisper: "I have not lived in vain."

GEMS FROM OUR RELIGIOUS HERITAGE

Every man is led upon the path he wishes to tread.

Better is it to be among the persecuted than among the persecutors.

—Talmud

THE PURPOSES OF THE TORAH

(Rabbi Moses ben Maimon (1135-1204), known as Maimonides, was the greatest of all medieval Jewish philosophers and scholars.)

The general object of the Torah is twofold: the well-being of the soul and the well-being of the body. The well-being of the soul is promoted by correct opinions communicated to the people according to their capacity. Some of these opinions are therefore imparted in a plain form, others allegorically, because certain opinions are in their plain form too difficult for the capacity of the common people. The well-being of the body is established by proper management of the relations in which we live one to another, and must be the first objective. It is treated in the Torah in a most careful and detailed manner, since the well-being of the soul is possible only after that of the body has been secured.

The physical wants of man must therefore be met first. But no man can procure all his needs by himself, but can satisfy his wants only through collective effort, since man, as is well known, is by nature gregarious.

The spiritual perfection of man consists of his becoming an actually intelligent human being; i.e., he knows about the things in existence all that a person is capable of knowing. Such knowledge can not be obtained by virtuous and moral conduct, but only through study, philosophical inquiry and research.

The true Torah of our teacher Moses, aims first at the establishment of good mutual relations among men by removing injustice and creating the noblest feelings, and secondly it seeks to train us in faith, and to impart correct and true opinions when the intellect is sufficiently developed. Scripture clearly mentions the twofold perfection, and tells us that its acquisition is the object of all the divine commandments, "And the Lord commanded us to do these statutes, to fear the Lord our God, for our good always, that he might preserve us alive, as it is this day."

— Maimonides, "Guide for the Perplexed"

ISRAELI LIBERAL SYNAGOGUE DEDICATED

On April 14, 1962, the first synagogue of Liberal Judaism in Israel was dedicated. For the occasion, the noted thinker and author, Professor Martin Buber, offered the following words of greeting:

"I am happy to extend greetings to you on the occasion of the dedication of your synagogue. God grant that it become one of the sites whereupon the ground will be prepared for the revitalization of our people's faith.

The religious condition of the people of Israel in its own land is a pathological one. This situation arises essentially out of the historic fact that Judaism in the period of 'its call to freedom' (The Emancipation) did not bring forth a reformation but essentially a reduction. Because of this, when the Ingathering of the Exiles began, there did not exist a firm basis for rejuvenating the vitality of the religious faith of Israel.

Secularism, on the one hand, in spite of its slogans of messianism, has in practice no aim beyond that of self-preservation and survival. Traditionalism, on the other hand, is content with a rigid guarantee that traditional forms will be preserved, without an earnest desire to initiate any improvement in the life of the society which is, indeed, the initial step in transforming the contemporary world into 'a kingdom of God'.

These two forces, the force of secularism and the force of traditionalism, stand opposed to one another, but the presence of a third force is lacking. It may be that the future of the people of Israel depends more on the rise of this third force than it does on external factors. A beginning should be made, however modest it may be, in the process of awakening this third force for the valid revitalization of faith. All who are prepared to participate wholeheartedly in this beginning will be truly blessed."

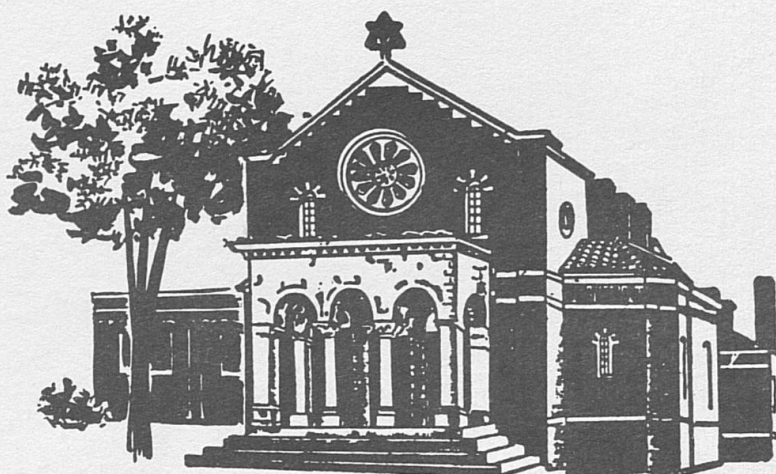

HERO OR COWARD

Great occasions do not make heroes or cowards; they simply unveil them to the eyes of men. Silently and imperceptibly, as we wake or sleep, we grow strong or we grow weak, and at last some crisis shows us what we have become.

THE TEN DAYS OF PENITENCE IN THE RABBINIC TRADITION

"Seek ye the Lord while He may be found" (Isa. 55:6). Said Rabbah bar Abuha: "He may be found" during the ten days between Rosh Hashonoh and Yom Kippur. (Rosh Hashonoh 18a)

"Seek ye the Lord while He may be found" - during the ten days of Teshuvah, when He is resting among you. (Tanhuma, Haazinu) "Thou makest me to know the path of life" (Ps. 16:11). Said Israel to God, "Make us to know the path of life." Said the Holy One, blessed be He, to them, "Lo, here are ten days for you to do penitence between Rosh Hashonoh and Yom Kippur." (Menorat ha-Maor, Ner. 3).

"They walk, O Lord, in the light of Thy countenance" (Ps. 89:16) - during the ten days between Rosh Hasonoh and Yom Kippur. (Midrash Tehillim).

ROSH HASHONOH PRAYER

"Remember us in Thy mercy, O Lord, as we enter upon the New Year. Judge us in Thy kindness and direct our destinies in mercy. As Thou dost remember us in goodness, so may we be mindful of our need for Thee and of our obligation to serve Thee. Grant us the courage, the wisdom and the patience to bring the message of Thy power and Thy love to all Thy children, that every soul may praise Thee, O Thou Who remember-est the covenant."

From the Union Prayer Book, Vol.II

Nursery service will be available during the High Holy Day Services (note bulletin item) for children eight years of age or under. Parents are urged to bring older children with them to worship in the main Sanctuary of the Temple.

TYG OFFICERS

(L.to R.) Karen Levy, Corresponding Secretary, Louis Rubin, President, and Ronnie Rosenberg, Vice-President. Not included were Michael Hanau, Recording Secretary, David Shraberg, Treasurer, and Stanley Gordon, Historian.

Plans for the coming year are now being formulated by the officers and members of the Temple Youth Group, assisted by their Program Advisor, Mr. Jack Miller. The programs and activities for the year promise to serve as a source of inspiration, education and wholesome sociability for the TYG members. If you are a High School student, you are eligible to join our Temple Youth Group and share in its activities. For further information, please contact the TYG officer.

TYG PARENTS MEETING

Parents of members of our Temple Youth Group are invited to join in a meeting on Wednesday, September 26, at 8:00 P. M. in the Rabbi's home, according to an announcement by the Temple Youth Group Hospitality Advisors, Mr. and Mrs. George Gordon. The Temple Youth Group is planning a broad and variegated program for this year which requires the assistance and support of the parents if it is to succeed. Implementation of the planning will be discussed at this important meeting.

HIGH HOLY DAY SEATING

As has been the policy of our Temple in the past, seats for the High Holy Days will not be assigned. With dual services during the evenings of Rosh Hashonoh and Yom Kippur, ample seating should be available for all. All seats will be on a first-come, first-served basis. We urge you to come early in order to obtain the seat of your choice.

CHILDREN'S WORSHIP SERVICES

On Rosh Hashonoh Afternoon, Saturday, September 29, and on Yom Kippur Afternoon, Monday, October 8, Worship Services will be conducted by the Rabbi for the children of our congregation. Both services will begin at 1:30 P.M., and will last approximately one-half hour. All of our Temple children are invited to attend.

NEW MEMBERS' AND RESIDENTS' DINNER

A steak dinner for new members and residents of the congregation and community was held in the Temple on Saturday, September 8, sponsored by the Sisterhood. This well-attended and highly successful evening was due primarily to the efforts of the volunteer hosts and hostesses. The Sisterhood members who participated were: Mesdames Harold Frankel, Aaron Klein, William Michalove, I. A. Paritz, Warren Rosenthal, and Ben Shraberg. To assist them were: Messrs. Ben Goldfarb and Aaron Klein. Mrs. Charles Stern served as reservations co-ordinator. Chairman of the Committee was Mrs. Hugo Bloomfield.

NURSERY SERVICE

Nursery service for children under eight years of age, will be available during the High Holy Day Services according to the following schedule:

Rosh Hashonoh Evening during the first service.
Rosh Hashonoh morning from
10:00 A.M. to 12:00 noon.
Shabbas Shuvah evening.
Yom Kippur evening during the first service.
Yom Kippur morning from
10:00 A.M. to 12:00 noon.

PARKING FOR SERVICES

With the innovation of two services for Rosh Hashonoh Evening the matter of parking becomes of some concern. In order to help alleviate this difficulty you are urged to join in car pools when driving to the Temple. Each family that joins with another instead of driving its own car, eliminates that much extra congestion.

To aid those who will be arriving for the second service, those who attend the first service are urged not to delay or tarry in the area but to vacate the parking space they hold in order to permit others to park without undue difficulty.

The second service will begin exactly on schedule and we would prefer that no one be unnecessarily delayed in joining and participating in the entire Worship Service. Your cooperation is needed if we are to successfully effect these plans.

CEMETERY MEMORIAL SERVICE

A tradition of Temple Adath Israel is that of conducting a Memorial Service at the Lexington Cemetery's Jewish Section on the Sunday between Rosh Hashonoh and Yom Kippur. This year the services will be held at 2:00 P.M., on Sunday, September 30. Prayer Books will be supplied at the Cemetery.

ROTHMANS' RECEPTION

Rabbi and Mrs. Rothman extend an invitation to attend a Rosh Hashonoh reception to be held in the Temple garden on Rosh Hashonoh afternoon, Saturday, September 29, from 2:30 P. M. to 4:30 P. M.

TEMPLE MAIL

(Excerpts from a recent letter received by Herschel Weil and written by his son, Walter, while on a tour of Israel)

I can well understand your exuberance over this country (Israel). I had often heard how human beings can exert unexpected mental and physical strength in the midst of crisis. Israel is a living example of this. What a spirit these people have!

These people have no opportunity to be apathetic. Only when one's self preservation is at stake can the limits of human ability be manifest. No wonder great culture has emerged from oppression.

The most striking experience has been to observe the agriculture..... seeing parts of Israel that were as barren as other parts..... in 1948. Perhaps Israel is more brilliant because on its surface one finds the present framed by the past.... green fertile land surrounded by rocky wasteland.....

A CONFIRMAND'S POEM

(Delivered by David Shraberg of the Confirmation Class of 1962 during Class Day, June 9, 1962)

When a seed is rooted firmly
And nourished in the ground,
It soon blooms in flowers of glory
Creating greater beauty for all around.

The Rabbi, Temple, and others have rooted
Us firmly in Jewish life, nourishing our minds.

We hope to help all men
With the hope of helpful finds.

Finds of beauty and love;
Finds of unity and peace;
Finds that shall induce all men
To make all hate cease.

As there is hope for the sun
When earth is clothed in night,
So do we hope to lead all men
With the flame of Jewish torches shining bright.

The blind cries, "There is no hope!"
"No hope for me, for you, nor all the rest!"

But we know of a key in this world
That leads to life's treasure chest.

This key stands before us;
It shines so that with it we can lead,

With all the others on that path
To more peace to those in need.

The key is that of religion
And knowledge and love is its price.
We are bound to learn and love
To convert to goodness avarice.

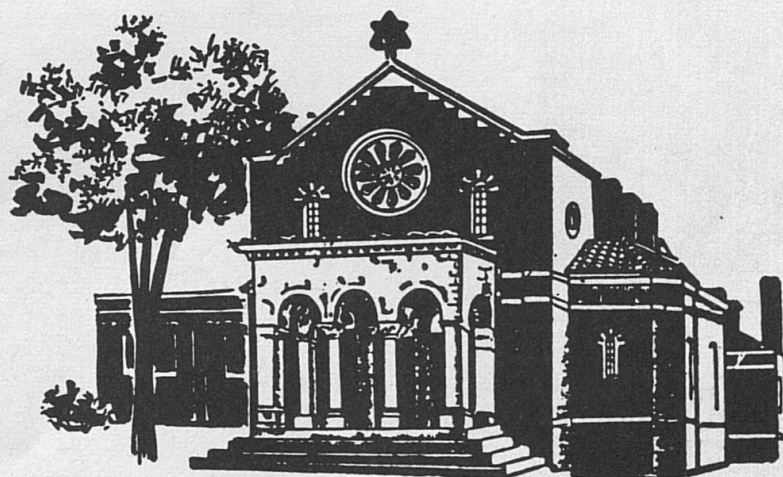

We stand here as Confirmands
As new floral blooms in a world old,
With our object to study and learn,
That key to find and hold.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

NEW YEARS GREETINGS FROM NATIONAL SISTERHOOD PRESIDENT

Dear Friends:

L'Shono Tovo Tikosevu!

As again we contemplate this message of hope which has been expressed by countless generations through the years on the High Holy Days, we are reminded yet another time of the wondrousness of God, through whose goodness and mercy we have life. Through service to religion, education and humanity we have the opportunity to give added purpose and meaning to life. May we, therefore, as another year unfolds, rededicate ourselves to the translation of the principles of faith into deeds for the benefit of others.

May you, your dear ones and all mankind be inscribed in the Book of Life for a good year.

Sincerely,

/S/ Mrs. Irving E. Hollobow
President, National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods

OPEN LETTER FROM THE RABBI

Dear Friends,

I am extremely grateful to each and every one of you who helped to make our High Holy Day Services so outstandingly successful. The ease with which large numbers of worshippers were seated during double and single worship services was remarkable and gratifying. But it did not just happen. It represented careful planning on the part of all involved. The Officers, Committees, Ushers, Choir and, indeed, our entire membership deserve praise for their efforts.

To each and every one I extend most cordial personal greetings. May God bless every household, with health, happiness and peace.

Sincerely yours,

Robert A. Rothman,
Rabbi

CONSECRATION SERVICE

In Reform Judaism, the Feast of Conclusion, marking the end of the Sukkot Season, is observed with a special consecration of children entering the Religious School for the first time. This service will be held on Friday, October 19, at 7:30 P. M. in our Temple Sanctuary.

An important feature of this Family and Consecration Worship Service will be the presentation of a miniature Torah to each Consecrant, a personal gift of the Rabbi. They will be carried by the children in a procession around the Sanctuary led by representatives of their predecessors. A grandfather of one of the Consecrants, a father and an older brother will be selected to represent the three generations and to lead the procession. At the conclusion of the service, a photograph of the Consecration Class will be taken so that it can become part of the photographic history of Temple Adath Israel.

Every child entering the Religious School in the Nursery, Kindergarten or First Grade for the first time, is invited to participate in the Consecration Service and to receive his miniature Torah.

For this Sabbath Evening only, Worship Services will begin at 7:30 P. M.

For his sermon the Rabbi will discuss a simplified story of creation, entitled "And God Created You".

"PEACE, PEACE, THERE CAN BE PEACE"

The United Nations was born out of man's yearning for peace in a world torn by war and destruction. Since its inception, the UN has been plagued by criticism and disunity. The United States has been urged by some groups to withdraw its support from the UN. On Wednesday, October 24, UN Day was celebrated throughout the world. In his sermon of Friday, October 26, at 8:00 P. M., the Rabbi will discuss the role of the UN as a factor in world peace in his sermon entitled "Peace, Peace, There Can Be Peace".

TYG STUDY GROUP

Our TYG is starting its annual Study Group with a first meeting on Sunday, November 11, at 2:00 P. M., in Stan Gordon's home, 808 Westchester Drive, in Lansdowne Estates. To receive the Na'aseh V'Nishma Certificate, our TYG must conduct a minimum of nine study sessions. To earn credit for each session we must have at least fifteen members attending. Not only does your attendance help in getting this year's certificate but it gives you an opportunity to share your insights with other members of the TYG on subjects relating to Judaism. Come, share and participate in these sessions for your own benefit as well as for the good of our TYG.

SISTERHOOD HAND CRAFT WORKSHOP

We know there is Sisterhood hand craft talent, because the clicking of knitting needles at Sisterhood meetings is sometimes deafening. So why not join in the fun and creativity at the Sisterhood Hand and Needle Craft Workshop this THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25, at 10:00 A. M. at Temple. Come with ideas that we can exchange with each other for Bazaar gifts such as aprons, bags, decorated sweaters, etc. Some of these gift items can be completed in one sitting. And, the proceeds from the sale of these hand-made gifts will go to your Sisterhood. If you can't knit, you can sew. If you can't sew, you can paint. If you can't paint, you can glue - and anyone can glue. Busy hands breed happy minds. Join the fun and learn some clever new ideas for things that you can make at home, meetings, or even watching T. V.

That's this Thursday, at 10:00 A. M. at the Temple - Sisterhood Hand and Needle Craft Workshop. Call Jeanette Gordon, 7-7571, for further information.

REV. BROOKS TO SPEAK

REV. GEORGE G. BROOKS

On Friday Evening, November 2, at 8:00 P. M., our Temple will have as its guest preacher the Rev. George G. Brooks of the Unitarian Church of Lexington. Mr. Brooks is a native of Pleasantville, New York, who received degrees from Amherst College, the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and the Harvard Divinity School. He served Unitarian Churches in Danvers, Massachusetts, Saco, Maine, and Dunkirk, New York, prior to his coming to Lexington last spring. He is a member of many organizations actively concerned with mental health, civil liberties and the improvement of race relations. His sermon is entitled: "Prayers and a Sick Society."

The Service will be conducted by the Worship Committee and a Sabbath Social sponsored by the Sisterhood will follow in the Temple Vestry.

Rabbi Rothman has been invited to share in the Worship Service of Temple Israel, Columbus, Ohio, and to deliver the sermon that evening. The occasion for his visit to that city is the Bar Mitzvah of his brother-in-law. The Rabbi previously served that congregation as its Associate Rabbi.

ADULT EDUCATION STUDY GROUP

Matt Barrett will lead a discussion on "Ritual and the Sabbath" at the second meeting of the Adult Study Group in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rose, 367 Colony Road, on November 12, at 8:00 P. M. The basis for the discussion will be two pamphlets, which are on sale at the Temple office for 35¢ each.

Among the questions to be discussed are the following: Can a "good Jew" ignore Sabbath and ritual? Why has Sabbath observance declined? What can be done to revive it? Should stores remain open on Sabbath and Sunday? Does ritual assist in the quest for the good life? Why do people cling to rituals? What rituals are ignored by Reform Jews and why? What rituals are returning to Reform Judaism?

There will also be a brief review of last session's interesting discussion, "What Is A Jew?" and "Judaism and Ethics".

Co-Chairmen Dorothy Munich and Mike Adelstein point out that all Temple members may attend; attendance at the first meeting is not a prerequisite. People coming, however, are urged to obtain copies of the pamphlets so that the discussion will be more stimulating.

JEWISH MEN'S LUNCHEON CLUB

On Wednesday, November 14, at 12:15 P. M., at the Kentuckian Hotel, the Jewish Men's Luncheon Club will hold its monthly meeting. Rabbi Rothman will lead the discussion. Each meeting is a separate unit and previous attendance is no prerequisite.

SOCIAL ACTION

TOURS OF

KENTUCKY VILLAGE

The Social Action Committee of our Temple recently sponsored a stimulating discussion led by a panel consisting of Mr. Lloyd Lindsey, Juvenile Officer with the Lexington Police Department; Mr. Robert McClure, Superintendent of Kentucky Village; and Dr. Roswell Fine, Associate Professor of Psychiatry at U. K. Medical Center. The program was very well received by those in attendance and the Social Action Committee is encouraged to promote further meetings for the Temple in the near future.

Mr. McClure, in the course of his remarks, extended an invitation to our entire Temple to visit Kentucky Village whenever possible. Those interested are invited to contact Mr. McClure directly, or Mr. Stanley Rose, Social Action Committee Chairman, for arrangements. Visits may be made on an individual basis or by groups.

The gratitude of all who were privileged to attend is extended to our panel members of the evening.

The next Social Action Committee sponsored program for the Temple family will be on Sunday, November 18, at 8:00 P. M., in the Temple Vestry. Please watch forthcoming bulletins for further information.

TYG DINNER MEETING

On Sunday, November 4, at 5:00 P.M. the Temple Youth Group will conduct its November dinner meeting in the Temple Vestry. The program for that meeting will feature Stuart Rubin of Columbus, Ohio, who is the President of OVFTY (Ohio Valley Federation of Temple Youth). He will speak about the activities and programs of OVFTY, the region of which our TYG is a part. All TYG members are urged to attend.

SISTERHOOD STUDY GROUP

The next meeting of the Sisterhood Study Group will be on Wednesday, November 7, at 10:30 A. M., in the Temple Library. The subject being discussed is "The Bible: Its Influence and Development." Sessions are conducted by the Rabbi and last for one hour. The group meets on the first and third Wednesdays of every month. No textbooks are required and previous attendance is no prerequisite.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION INSTITUTE

The Ohio Valley Federation of Temple Sisterhoods and the Ohio Valley Council of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations sponsored a Teacher's Training Institute at Temple Agudath Achim in Ashland, Kentucky, on October 21, 1962. Three representatives from our Religious School attended - Dr. and Mrs. Charles Schwartz and Mrs. Matthew Barrett.

Rabbi Sylvan D. Schwartzman, Professor of Religious Education at the HUC-JIR, gave a lecture and discussion on "Planning An Effective Lesson" and "Understanding the Bible". Rabbi Jerome Goldstein presented a discussion on "Basic Jewish Beliefs". The Institute proved to be most informative and extremely constructive for those attending. We hope, in the future, to sponsor a similar institute in Lexington.

BAS MITZVAH

The Rabbi and Officers of Temple Adath Israel have the honor to announce the Bas Mitzvah of Joyce Lynn Rosenberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rosenberg, 1070 Lakewood Drive, on the morning of Saturday, November 10, at 11:00 A. M.

"PRAYERFUL, PROPHETIC AND PROGRESSIVE"

The Bible is not an ancient book dedicated solely to antiquated themes. It speaks to us in our times. It addresses itself to our concerns and our hopes. Our Torah passage for this Sabbath speaks of Abraham's search for God and purpose in life. In his sermon, Friday, November 9, the Rabbi will discuss the meaningful import of Abraham's search and commitment and its application to contemporary times.

ADULT EDUCATION STUDY GROUP

This coming Monday, November 12, at 8:00 P. M., the Adult Study Group will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rose, 367 Colony Road, to discuss "Ritual and the Sabbath" under the direction of Matt Barrett. Background material for the meeting is available in two pamphlets, which may be obtained in the Temple office from Mrs. Waits for 35¢ each. Attendance at the previous meeting is no prerequisite.

JEWISH BOOK MONTH

November 16 through December 16 is being celebrated as Jewish Book Month. The late Rabbi Felix Mendelsohn first projected this idea which has grown stronger with the years. It serves to remind the "People of the Book" of the mighty role the book has performed in its life and history. "The Book" which is the literal meaning of the word "Bible" is Israel's greatest contribution to the world. Jewish Book Month reminds us of the Jewish ideal that demands the literary as a prerequisite to the piety. It has been aptly said, "To add a library to a house is to give that house a soul." Celebrate Jewish Book Month by obtaining and reading books of lasting Jewish interest.

JEWISH MEN'S LUNCHEON CLUB

On Wednesday, November 14, at 12:15 P. M., at the Kentuckian Hotel, the Jewish Men's Luncheon Club will hold its monthly meeting. Rabbi Rothman will lead the discussion. Each meeting is a separate unit and previous attendance is no prerequisite.

Not only does your attendance help in getting this year's certificate, but it gives you an opportunity to share your insights with other members of the TYG on subjects relating to Judaism. Come, share and participate in these sessions for your own benefit as well as for the good of our TYG.

TYG AFTERNOON MEETING

The TYG will conduct its November afternoon meeting at 2:00 P. M., on Sunday, November 18. "MODERN IDOL WORSHIP"

Worship of God is generally through prayers, meditations or sacrifices. As there is a variety in worship there are variations in the views held about God. Man's understanding changes with his cultural sophistication. But does it always? Is idol worship really a thing of the past? Do we not bow the head and bend the knee before modern idols? On Friday, November 16, the Rabbi will discuss this possibility in a sermon entitled, "Modern Idol Worship".

MRS. STANLEY ROSE TO SPEAK

The afternoon TYG meeting for this month will be on November 18, at 2:00 P. M. in the Temple Vestry. In addition to an important discussion of the forthcoming Kallah, the program will feature a presentation and discussion by Mrs. Stanley Rose. Mrs. Rose was trained and educated in Lexington Elementary and High Schools and received her religious training in our Temple. She is currently working on her doctoral degree in that field and is engaged in college counseling at the University of Kentucky's Counseling Service. She is a member of Lorelei (honorary music sorority), Psi Chi (professional Psychology fraternity), American Personnel and Guidance Association, and The Association of College Admissions Counselors. Mrs. Rose is the mother of two members of our TYG, Ricky and David.

Her subject is: "Adjustment to College Life." All TYGers are urged to attend.

Mr. Henry Buchanan, president of Protestants and Other Americans United for Separation of Church and State. Following the panel presentation, the audience will be invited to share in the discussion through questions and comments. The meeting will take place in the Temple Vestry.

This will be a dinner meeting with the meal served at 6:30 P. M. All Brotherhood members are encouraged to attend and invite a guest.

BROTHERHOOD HANUKKAH PARTY

Brotherhood members have begun planning and programming for this year's Hanukkah Party, according to an announcement by Co-chairmen Stanley Scher and Al Strauss and the Board representative, Charles Stern. They anticipate more new and exciting innovations for the Hanukkah Party scheduled for Sunday, December 23. Watch this bulletin for further information.

THE JOY OF SERVICE

The Jew believes that the true service of God is incomplete without the joy that comes from the heart. When a Rabbi said in the Talmud that man will be called to account for depriving himself of the good things which the world lawfully allows, surely this was the way of saying that the world is full of God. It is full of the beautiful and the good in which joy abounds, and to reject that joy is to reject God.

THE SABBATH THEME

"WHAT IS NEW ABOUT THANKSGIVING?"

For many years, the President of the United States has proclaimed the fourth Thursday in November as Thanksgiving Day. A respondent note is struck in the Jewish heart with the announcement of this proclamation. For thanksgiving to God is an act that we Jews have performed from the beginning of time; it is in perfect consonance with the best that is Jewish. On Friday, November 23, at 8:00 P. M., the Rabbi will discuss the Jewish response to the establishment of Thanksgiving in a sermon entitled, "What Is New About Thanksgiving?"

"IT IS GOOD TO GIVE THANKS UNTO

The sermon, to be offered by these students, will be a composite selection of inspirational Psalm verses. Its title will be, "A Sermon in Psalms."

YOUTH GROUP NEWS

TYG TO MEET

The next meeting of the Temple Youth Group will be on Sunday, December 2, at 2:00 P. M. Plans will be presented regarding the four-state Kallah scheduled for December 7-9 in our city. All TYGers are urged to register for the Kallah and to attend this final planning meeting.

A PROPER SITE

During the construction of the new Jerusalem School of Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion, devoted to Biblical and Archaeological studies, which will be opened next year, Dr. Nelson Glueck, President of the College, noticed a semi-circular, vertical white limestone ridge. To his eyes, the trained eyes of an archaeologist, this appeared to be the kind of artificially carved escarpment under which tombs or burial caves are found.

Sure enough, preliminary soundings have already revealed a series of burial caves and in all probability others will be found - on the very grounds of the school.

Also found on the grounds was an ancient Byzantine lamp some 15 centuries old. It will be used in the School Chapel at the first Kiddush service when the school opens.

In Our Tradition
FRIDAY NIGHT IS FAMILY NIGHT

AN OPEN LETTER FROM THE TYG KALLAH CHAIRMAN

Our Temple Youth Group has been honored this year by being invited to host a week-end of study for a group of Jewish teen-agers from surrounding states. This is called a Kallah. There are two each year in our region.

The honor for this week-end and the opportunity for service is not limited to the TYG alone. The entire Congregation can gain from this experience, as well. Not only will Youth Groupers work to make our week-end a success, but the Sisterhood and Brotherhood will have a great part to play.

Our real goal is not only for the young people to gain from this program, but for our Congregation to benefit from it, also. In the next few days, as adults in our Congregation, you will receive a call, if you haven't yet, asking you to "put up" one or two visitors for the week-end. This is your opportunity to participate in the program. Gail Levy, our Housing Chairman, has tried her best to include all of you in the week-end plans. This is understandably difficult. If you would like to be a part of this exciting occasion, will you please call Gail at 6-6107, and tell her you are available. We will try to have a guest housed in your home, if possible.

To make clear our plans and your part in them, here is a brief outline of our week-end's schedule:

Friday afternoon: 3:00-6:00 P.M.: Visitors arrive and are taken to hosts' home for Sabbath dinner.
8:00 P.M. Worship Services at Temple.
9:15-11:30 P.M.: Social gathering in the Temple.
12:00 midnight: Curfew.

Saturday: 9:00-11:00 A.M.: Study sessions at Temple.
11:00-12:00 noon: Worship Services at Temple.
12:00-1:00 P.M.: Sisterhood prepared lunch at Temple.
1:00-3:00 P.M.: Study sessions at Temple.
3:00-6:00 P.M.: Free time.
6:00-11:30 P.M.: Dinner, lecture, dance and program at a downtown hotel.
12:00-12:45 A.M.: Open House
1:00 A.M.: Curfew

Sunday: 10:00-11:30 A.M.: Brotherhood breakfast in the Temple Vestry.
All Morning: Hosts and transportation committee members will be delivering the guests to their point of departure.

In addition to the above mentioned areas wherein the Congregation may have an opportunity to help us, many of our members will be called, if they haven't as yet, to invite them to lead some of our study and discussion groups, or help with a luncheon, or even drive our guests from one place to another.

I urge you to join us this week-end. Come to Services on Friday Night and to our Creative Youth Group Service on Saturday Morning. Sit in on our study sessions. Help make this week-end a great success for not only our Youth Group but our entire Congregation. If you would care to obtain further information, please call me at 6-5085. See you next week-end.

Sincerely yours,
/S/ Ricky Rose, Chairman
Kallah Committee

The Sabbath Theme

"WHERE AM I?"

Jacob was traveling toward Haran at his father's request in order to find a wife from among his distant relations. It was a journey that required more than just one day and Jacob slept along the way. The passage tradition assigned for this week deals with the vision that Jacob saw in his dream and his awakening in fear. In his sermon for Friday night, November 14, the Rabbi will discuss the dream and Jacob's awakening, analyzing the intent and import of this passage. His sermon is entitled, "Where Am I?"

Temple Mail

Dear Rabbi Rothman,

This is just a short note to let you know how much we enjoyed and appreciated our relationship with Temple Adath Israel and with you.

We were certainly overwhelmed by the Jewish Community spirit and were impressed by the level of Jewish education offered to our children and to ourselves.

We were very sorry that our stay in Lexington was too short to take complete advantage of all that was offered. However, we would like to show in some manner our feelings and therefore enclose a donation to the Temple Library Fund.

Our best wishes to Temple Adath Israel and personal regards to you and Mrs. Rothman.

Sincerely,
/S/ Laurie & Irving Spar

Dear Rabbi Rothman,

On behalf of our Junior High young people and Counselors, I want to thank you for the very splendid presentation recently. Your graphic description of the faith and history of your people certainly strengthened and enhanced the already deep respect these young people have for Judaism.

We are appreciative of your taking time to do this for us. We trust we will be able to reciprocate at your convenience in the near future.

Thank you again.

Sincerely,
/S/ Donald R. Herren, Minister

HOME SERVICES FOR HANUKKAH

Hanukkah begins at sunset, Friday, December 21; the first candle should be kindled that evening. Light one additional candle each evening until eight are kindled on Friday evening, December 28.

Before kindling the lights, hold the lighted Shammash in your hand and pronounce the following blessings:

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם. אֲשֶׁר
קִדְּשָׁנוּ בְּמִצְוֹתָיו וְצִוָּנוּ לְהַדְלִיק נֵר שֶׁל חֲנֻכָּה:

Praised be Thou, O Lord our God, King of the whole world, who hast made us holy by Thy Commandments and bidden us kindle the Hanukkah lights.

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם. שְׁעָשָׂה
נִסִּים לְאַבוֹתֵינוּ בְּיָמִים הָהֵם בְּזֶמַן הַזֶּה:

Praised be Thou, O Lord our God, King of the whole world, who performed miracles for our forefathers at this season in those days.

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם. שְׁהַחֲיָנוּ
וְקִיָּמָנוּ וְהַנִּיעָנוּ לְזֶמַן הַזֶּה:

(For the first night only)

Praised be Thou, O Lord our God, King of the whole world, who kept us alive, sustained us, and permitted us to celebrate this joyous festival.

The Sabbath Theme

"PESSIMISTS ARE DEAD WRONG"

Each generation has in it its fair share of pessimists who view the future with fear and despair. These disheartened people see the light of humanity grow dimmer all the time. Hanukkah, the Festival of increased Lights, is drawn out of our Jewish history to dispel the negativeness of those who would live in the shadow of life. In his sermon of Friday, December 21, the first night of Hanukkah, the Rabbi will discuss the optimistic nature of this holiday and its ever constant relevance to each generation and its needs.

COLLEGE HOMECOMING SABBATH

This Friday evening, December 28, our Temple will celebrate its Annual College Homecoming Sabbath. The service will be conducted by students of colleges and universities who are home during the vacation period. Services will begin at 8:00 P. M., and will be followed by our Sabbath Social in the Temple Vestry. This Sabbath is an opportunity for friends to share individual experiences in distant and near schools of higher learning and is an eagerly awaited occasion. The Temple warmly welcomes returning students home and invites all of the congregational family to share in this Sabbath of Homecoming.

ARE ONE

MAN'S TRUE TASK

"So many people go through life filling the storeroom of their minds with odds and ends of a grudge here, a jealousy there, a pettiness, a selfishness - all ignoble. The true task of a man is to create a noble memory, a mind filled with grandeur, forgiveness, restless ideals, and the dynamic ethical ferment preached by all religions at their best."

"HOW TO TURN YOUR CHILD INTO A CROOK"

(The following was recently issued by the Archdeacon of Chesterfield to his Church of England parishioners)

Drawing a bead on indulgent parents,
the Venerable Dr. Talbot Dilworth-
Harrison listed these twelve "rules"
in his parish magazine:

1. Begin from infancy to give the child everything he wants.
2. When he picks up bad words, laugh at him.
3. Never give him any spiritual training.
4. Avoid the use of the word "wrong".
5. Pick up everything he leaves lying around - books, shoes and clothes.
6. Let him read any printed matter he can get his hands on.
7. Quarrel frequently in the presence of the children.
8. Give the child all the spending money he wants. Never let him earn his own.
9. Satisfy his every craving for food, drink and comfort. Denial may lead to harmful frustration.
10. Take his part against neighbors, teachers and policemen. They are all prejudiced against your child.
11. When he gets into real trouble, apologize for yourself by saying,
"I never could do anything with him."
12. Prepare for a life of grief. You will have it.
