BIENNIAL NOTES

Below are Excerpts from the Biennial Digest of the recent UAHC Biennial in Los Angeles. Additional comments will be printed in succeeding weeks.

CONFERENCE OF CONGREGATIONAL PRESIDENTS WELL ATTENDED

A pre-biennial convocation of congregational presidents and officers was held on Thursday, November 4. The afternoon session was attended by 155 temple officers, from 109 congregations. Thirty of the United States were represented, in addition to Canada and the Virgin Islands.

Of the congregations represented, 50 were from synagogues with 500 members or less, 32 were from synagogues with 501 to 1000 members, and the remaining 27 represented congregations with membership of 1001 or more.

The conference heard from Alan V. Iselin, chairman of the UAHC Long Range Planning Committee, and from Vice President Rabbi Alexander M. Schindler, about the dynamic exercises, designed by Dr. Leonard J. Fein, to induce change in the synagogues by encouraging a change in the attitude of their members.

The conference discussed the report and recommendations of the Committee to Re-evaluate the Entire Program of Fiscal Support for the Reform Movement, headed by Philip M. Klutznick, and reported to the presidents by UAHC Vice Chairman, Harry K. Outmann.

The congregational officers and their wives joined the UAHC Board of Trustees at a dinner which was notable for a complete absence of speeches. The occasion was purely social. No head table, no "we" and "they", just one big happy family, the way it ought to be.

Synopsis - We pay our honor to a long time, devoted, hard-working member of our congregation, for years of dedicated service.

NAME
by Carl Sandburg
There is only one horse on the earth and his name is All Horses.
There is only one bird in the air and his name is All Wings.
There is only one fish in the sea and his name is All Fish.
There is only one man in the world and his name is All Men.
There is only one woman in the world and her name is All Women.
There is only one child in the world and the child's name is All Children.
There is only one Master in the world and His children cover the earth and they are All God's Children.

On God.

We see God when evening brings rest and calm to the world and ourselves; we sense His presence when morning awakes us to a new day, with new possibilities of fulfilling our highest potential. God is the Power bringing night and day in orderly sequence, moving the planets and stars in their majestic harmonious patterns, creating the seasons on schedule.

Rabbi's Message

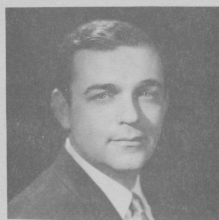

A year ago at about this time of year, we were involved at the show trials of 13 persons in Leningrad, 11 of them Jews, who supposedly planned to flee the country and who were given severe sentences for their mismanaged efforts. I was in Jerusalem during these trials and recall well the demonstrations that went on around the clock. And similar responses occurred in other parts of the world - not just among Jews, but among all peoples who were concerned at the cruelty of justice being perpetrated by the Soviets. The worldwide outcry brought about a reduction in sentence for two of the defendants from death to 15 years, and also "reportedly cost the jobs of some of the hard-liners in Leningrad who managed the trial," as reported in the New York Times this past week.

The Russians are not as impetuous to world opinion as we might think, according to the Times article. Emigration figures for 1971 reached a record level of 15,000 for "much more than had been expected when Moscow's emigration policy was first liberalized last spring." And sources tend to think "that enough pressures have developed for the relatively high level of emigration to continue and perhaps to increase in 1972."

And the pressures continue. A three day hunger strike of Jews in prison and in nine Soviet cities received worldwide publicity last week. Demonstrations continue in the Free World in support of Soviet Jews. We in Lexington have aided also. We have sent petitions to Washington, cards and books to Jews in Russia. There is still much to be done to aid them. Let us not slacken our efforts in the new year.

JEWISH COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION

Cantor Saul Z. Hammerman (pictured above) will appear with Cantor Melvin Linterman, both of Baltimore, Maryland, in our first program of the 1972 Forum Series at Ohavay Zion Synagogue, Sunday, January 23 at 8:00 P.M.

Cantor Hammerman has been singing professionally since he was eight years old and at age nine made his stage debut in a Yiddish show called Yankels, starring Molly Picon.

He is a graduate of the Cantors Conservatory of America and the American Theatre Wing and was engaged as Cantor in Passaic, N. J. In 1952 he began as Cantor at the well-known Beth El Congregation in Baltimore. For the past 19 years he has concertized nationally and his recording of Jewish music has been acclaimed throughout the United States as well as abroad.

In 1954 he married his accompanist, Aileen, a graduate of Peabody Institute of Music and an accomplished musician and together they have given many recitals and have produced a program called "Around The World in Music", combining the music of many lands.

Tickets are $25.00 for patrons, $5.00 for a series ticket, and $1.50 for out-of-town guests. All students are admitted free. For tickets write Mrs. Robert Belin, 3469 Flintridge Drive, Lexington, Ky. (40502) or call 272-4379. Tickets are also available at the Temple office.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Vacation is over and classes resumed with enthusiasm on January 2.

On January 9, there will be a Music Assembly conducted for both the Junior and Primary Assemblies.

On January 16, the Junior Assembly will see the film, "Life from the Dead Sea", and the Primary Assembly will be presented a program by the First Grade.

On January 23, the Junior Assembly will see the filmstrip, "Masada - Mountain of Memory", and the Primary Assembly, the filmstrip, "So God Made the World."

There will be a teachers meeting for all teachers on January 30 from 12:15 until 2:00. Come prepared to swap teaching ideas and techniques.

The Bible portion for January 9 is Ex. 2:11-12 and we shall discuss righteous indignation, why we feel this way at times and what we should do when we do feel this way.

HEBREW SCHOOL

Hebrew Classes begin again on January 20, 1972.

STAMPS FOR WELLINGTON

Stamps continue to come in for this worthwhile project. A large packet was sent off to Prof. Minn the early part of the week. Your response has been most gratifying. Keep them coming. It is such an easy thing to do to save stamps and yet it is so much appreciated by the members of Temple Sinai in Wellington.

Remember, be careful with the stamps. Do not tear, cut or mutilate them in any way. Damaged stamps are worthless.

SPECIAL SABBATH

For the past four years now we have set aside a Sabbath Service in January to honor a member of the congregation who, over the course of years, has devoted much time and energy for the benefit of the congregation. This year we shall honor a person who fits this criterion very well. Since the presentation is to be a surprise, we cannot announce it publicly, but be present and join in the tribute.

SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE

The Temple Social Action Committee will meet on January 12 at 7:30 P.M. in the Temple Library. At that time they will discuss with some of our teenagers the situation in our public schools. Complaints have been heard, but the committee wishes to look into things first hand and see whether the situation merits our attention.

This committee is also sponsoring an informative program on The Hunter Foundation Plan for Medical Care in Fayette County on Thursday, February 3 at 8:00 P.M. in the Temple Vestry. Speakers and panelists will be announced later.

SCHOOL DESK SALE

The Religious School Committee is selling a number of extra wooden arm-chair desks formerly used in the Religious School. There are large and small size desks. The price is $5.00. If you are interested, call the Temple office or come by and have a look.

CONGREGATION AFFILIATES WITH TKO

At the January Board Meeting, the Temple Board voted unanimously to have Temple Adath Israel affiliate with the Temporary Kentucky Organization.

The following is the part of the report of the Social Action Committee, given at the Board Meeting, pertinent to this decision:

"On the evening of December 8, we held an extensive interview with Tom Ramsey, the Director of TKO. At the meeting with Mr. Ramsey, the Social Action Committee examined, in detail, his personal background, the history of TKO, the organizational and financial structure of TKO, its decision-making structure, its accomplishments to date, and its activities. To summarize our findings, TKO was initiated by Mr. Ramsey who has had a number of years experience with various social action agencies both in organizing and operating them. His most recent experience prior to coming to Lexington was in Eastern Kentucky where he worked with the Pike County Citizens Association. Early in January of 1971, Mr. Ramsey organized a state-wide meeting attended by a wide range of community organizations for the purpose of exploring what are the major social action concerns of such organizations and how they might more effectively accomplish their goals. Each participating organization contributed one hundred dollars to provide the financing for this meeting. Out of this meeting emerged two organizations: Save our Kentucky, an organization whose present primary purpose is to combat strip mining, and TKO. The concept of TKO is to coordinate and strengthen the social action efforts of all community groups. It expects to eventually have a state-wide operation comprised of regional chapters. The goal of the state-wide structure would be to legislatively promote those social action causes concerning which a general consensus has been reached amongst the affiliated social action groups. Lexington is the first such chapter. In January, Mr. Ramsey plans to begin organizational activities in Louisville for the purpose of establishing a similar chapter for that region.

TKO began its operations on April 12 of 1971. It presently has approximately twenty member organizations, each member organization contributing annual dues of twenty-five dollars. The twenty-five dollar membership contribution does not come close to meeting annual budget expenses, necessitating considerable fund-raising activities by TKO. The basic expenses of TKO are to support the full-time organizational activities of Tom Ramsey. These expenses are set forth in the budget and are clearly at a very minimal level of support. Each associated organization designates one delegate and one alternate to TKO. The policy-making body of TKO is the delegates council which meets monthly. It also elects officers. The officers constitute the organization's steering committee, coordinating its operations. The officers meet weekly.

The operating units of TKO are its committees. These are structured in accordance with areas of social action concern and membership is open to any interested person. Among those committees which have already been quite active in the community are: the solid waste disposal committee which is participating with the University of Kentucky and individual citizens studying ways to recycle garbage and other waste; the newspaper recycling committee which has an active project going throughout the community collecting newspapers at various pick-up points for recycling purposes; and the inner-city concerns committee which has been quite active in promoting the continuance of bus service in the city of Lexington.

After the meeting with Mr. Ramsey the Committee weighed the merits of TKO, its constituent organizations and key personnel, and agreed that we should become an affiliate organization.

Rabbi's Message

The past few weeks you may have noted the article in the Bulletin announcing Mr. Ehud Lador's forthcoming visit to Lexington on February 16. In addition you may also have received an announcement in the mail advertising his talk at the UK Student Center, as well as the invitation dinner for him prior to his public address. These are two events which every member of the congregation ought to attend if at all possible.

The situation in the Mid East is precarious. The Russians have been building up their influence in that area in support of the Egyptians. The Jordanian government has suffered assassinations. There have been no peace talks to settle any of the visuals resulting from the Six Day War in 1967.

Whether we acknowledge it or not, the destiny of Israel will have a great affect upon us. We walked proud when she won her conflicts in 1948, 1956 and 1967. As Jews we are identified with her. We cannot escape or deny this relationship; therefore, we need to know what is occurring in the Mid East and what Israel is doing to try to bring about a peaceful solution to her problems.

The evening with Mr. Lador is an important one for you to attend. Libby Russell tells me the dinner reservations are coming in slowly. Don't delay on this. And bring your bridge group, mah jongg group, bowling league or judo class to hear him at the Student Center.

STAMPS FOR WELLINGTON

The following letter has been received from Professor W.G. Minn of Temple Sinai, Wellington, N. Z., explaining what he does with the stamps. So, keep them coming.

Dear Rabbi Leffler,

Used New Zealand stamps are sold to one of our larger dealers. Higher values are cleaned off paper if they are in fine condition. The others and the values below 6¢ are sold on paper by pound weight - about 5 pounds a year - rather less than we used to collect. Overseas stamps, if in fine condition, are sent to one of our auctions. Others are left on paper and sold by weight.

We don't make as much money as in earlier years - so many forget to save them. In this financial year I do not expect to get more than 14 New Zealand dollars. The stamps sent through you have not accumulated enough yet to send for auction but will probably go forward later this year.

A few overseas stamps I can sell privately - a much better proposition as in auctions one does not get nearly as much - usually not more than 1/4 catalogue value.

Many thanks to those who help us.

Sincerely yours,
W.G. Minn

THE WORLD AS I SEE IT

"The most beautiful thing we can experience is the mysterious. It is the source of all true art and science. He to whom this emotion is a stranger, who can no longer pause to wonder and stand in rapt awe, is as good as dead; his eyes are closed. This insight into the mystery of life, coupled though it be with fear, has also given rise to religion. To know that what is imperceptible to us really exists, manifesting itself as the highest wisdom and the most radiant beauty which our dull faculties can comprehend only in their most primitive forms - this knowledge, this feeling, is at the center of true religiousness. In this sense, and in this sense only, I belong in the ranks of devoutly religious men."

RABBI'S MESSAGE

This past week I was in New York to be with my family to celebrate my Step-father's 75th birthday. It was a quiet evening - just my Mother, the six boys and their wives at the restaurant. It was a delightful evening, a real Simcha to be together on such a happy and important event in the life of a loved one; worth the time I took from a busy schedule to go.

In contrast, immediately upon my return I had to officiate at a funeral. For this event also, a family had come together - to support one another in their hour of grief. They too were pleased to see one another, but not under the circumstances which brought them together.

The comparison is one we often overlook. Life is all too short. We do not think twice of dropping everything when there is a death in the family, to be present at the funeral and where the bereaved are settling Shiva. And yet for a Simcha, we are less apt to react this way. We tend to feel more hesitant to take the time and money to go. But aren't our priorities just reversed? Should we not be together for the happy times, the Simchas. Then are the events which add meaning to life and our relationships. They are the producers of the warm memories. The next time someone invites you to join them for a joyous occasion, accept the invitation. Life can use more of such events. There are always enough of the opposite.

BIENNIAL NOTES

Below are excerpts from the Biennial Digest of the recent UAHC Biennial in Los Angeles. Additional comments will be printed in succeeding weeks.

DEDICATION OF NEW BUILDING OF HEBREW UNION COLLEGE

On the "hazy sunny" Friday morning of November 5, a caravan of buses and cars transported the several hundred delegates of the UAHC and the NPTS to the handsome new California School of the Hebrew Union College--Jewish Institute of Religion. The dedication service of the College--Institute began with a processional led by Cantor William Sharlin and three other cantors, two of them playing guitars.

Rabbi Edgar F. Magnin, Wilshire Boulevard Temple, delivered the invocation and the official welcome was given by HUC--JIR Administrative Board member, Jack Skirball. Honorary degrees were conferred by President Alfred Gottschalk upon Dr. Dorothy B. Chandler, patroness of the performing arts; Dr. John R. Hubbard, president of the nearby University of Southern California, and Louis Kraft, architect of the School of Jewish Communal Services.

UAHC President, Dr. Maurice N. Eisendrath, confirmed the degrees, as the UAHC is the patron body of the College--Institute, and S. L. Kopald, Jr., chairman of the Board of Governors of the HUC--JIR, spoke of the aspirations which culminated in the day of dedication.

The major address was given by Dr. Hubbard, who paid tribute to the vital work of the seminary and to Dr. Gottschalk. Dr. Hubbard stressed the value to the students of the University of Southern California, and to the entire Southern California community, of the resources and scholarship available through the new school's library and faculty.

The ceremonies and the building itself were deeply impressive and the overwhelming reaction of those who were present was one of unqualified approbation for a brilliant dream faithfully translated into an inspiring reality.

RABBI'S MESSAGE

If you have teenagers who are members of the Youth Group, you will know that they are about to have some 180 other teenagers beginning to arrive in Lexington on February 3 for a long week-end of activities - a Conclave. These OVFTYites will be coming from communities up and down the Ohio Valley for the 25th Annual Regional Conclave of the Ohio Valley Federation of Temple Youth. It will be a fully scheduled week-end for them, with study, worship, meetings and socializing and a good bit of enthusiasm.

It is an honor for our TYG to have been chosen to host this week-end, and they have belatedly been working very hard to fulfill their responsibilities. Housing and transporting such a large number of people is a major chore and it has been planned. Worship services for Friday evening and Saturday morning have to be written and rehearsed. This is being done. Study programs are being organized. This is a big job for such a large number of people. Sisterhood and Brotherhood are helping feed the guests during the week-end.

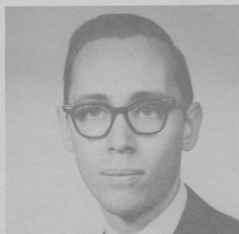

The Conclave week-end will be a busy, exciting time for our youngsters - a chance to renew old friendships and make new ones, to explore their Judaism further, to swap program ideas. The noise level will be high. Hopefully the results will be worth all of the excitement and to-do.

From the Rabbi's Desk

The past month I have been teaching a course in Religious School on creative worship, which has been a most interesting experience. During it, the class was required to re-think many of its assumptions about Jewish worship and what it is. We went back to the Bible and read what it was then - sacrificial worship. We read some of the details of what went on as they are described in the Mishnah. And then we arranged and carried out a simulated, daily sacrificial service - in the vestry using a stuffed lamb as a burnt offering. The class was most impressed by the nature of Temple worship and its difference from what we know in the Synagogue.

We also had to ask what is "Jewish worship"? - a question which they had not really thought through. After some discussion, it became obvious that not everything that they think is worship, can be really labelled "Jewish worship." There are limits.

And so we looked into the prayer book for direction, to see what is there. As a result, we began to write and to see what we could create that was Jewish worship. I think the class has worked well. We shall see later this month, when they conduct the fruit of their efforts for the Religious School on February 13 and then, with proper modifications, lead the congregation in worship on February 25. Plan to be in Temple the latter date, not only to worship with our youngsters, but also to learn what else has been going on in Religious School this year.

From the Rabbi's Desk

The past week in the Temple has been a busy one. As I looked about, I was amazed at the activities which were going on in different parts of the building.

The vestry seemed to be in continual use. The regular exercise class met twice, as did the YWCA's Yoga class. One evening the Women's Club Fellowship was holding its rehearsal here. Sol Alinsky held a question and answer session under the auspices of YKO. And the Youth Group was busy preparing for their Conclave. The Library was the scene of our monthly Temple Board meeting and a Council of Jewish Women's Board meeting. And over the week and the whole building was overflowing with OVFTYites. There were kids in every nook and cranny, and they were augmented on Sunday by our own Religious School children. Friday evening even the balcony of the sanctuary was full and on Sunday morning the front of the Sanctuary was the only place to put the overflow number of suit cases of the TYGers.

Fortunately, this was not a typical week of activity at the Temple. I doubt whether I could survive if this sort of goings on was regular. Nonetheless, it does illustrate some of the uses to which our building is put. The facilities are used not just by Temple organizations, but serves a wider community as well.

As I evaluate it, this is good. An empty building is useless. It serves no purpose. A building that has groups and people coming to it and using (not abusing) its facilities is fulfilling the needs of people. This is what our Temple should be doing. It should be a place for people to do things that people do - meeting, exercising, studying, worshipping. I would never want to see us close our doors to people who wish to use Temple Adath Israel's facilities as they are doing. We should be both pleased and proud that we are able to fulfill part of this need in Lexington.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Our Fifth Grade classmate this week is Ben Henry Levy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Levy. Ben attends Lexington School where he enjoys math, drama and physical education, especially football. When he grows up he hopes to be an attorney. Ben has two sisters, Amy and Laura, and a brother, David, and a Corgi named Demigh. His favorite foods are steak, lobster and blueberry pie. He enjoys building models, playing cards and watching TV. Ben will be the auctioneer when the Fifth Grade has its auction for the benefit of the Leo Baeck School.

The Bible passage for February 13 is Ex. 22:20 and we shall discuss how we should treat new persons in our neighborhood or classroom.

The next group of classes in the Senior Block begins February 20.

On February 27, the Seventh Grade will conduct Worship Services for the Primary and Junior Assemblies.

Don't forget the Religious School Contest. Prizes to be awarded at Closing Exercises in May.

Social Action

The Social Action Committee of Temple Adath Israel will sponsor a meeting in the Temple Vestry Tuesday, February 29, 1972 at 8:00 P.M. Dr. Joseph Engelberg, professor of physiology and bio-physics at the U.K. Medical Center, will speak on the Hunter Foundation Program. The program will be a comprehensive discussion of community medical care. There will be a time for questions and answers. Watch for further details.

BEN HENRY LEVY

On February 13, the Junior Assembly will have a Family service at 11:20, written and conducted by the Creative Worship Class. The Primary Assembly will see the filmstrip, "Three Brave Friends."

On February 20, the Junior Assembly will see the filmstrip, "Leo Baeck", in preparation for the Fifth Grade auction for the benefit of the Leo Baeck School (which Tzila attends) on March 12.

SCHOOL DESK SALE

The Religious School Committee is selling a number of extra wooden arm-chair desks formerly used in the Religious School. There are large and small size desks. The price is $5.00. If you are interested, call the Temple office or come by and have a look.

ADULT HEBREW CLASS

An adult Hebrew class is being organized by Mrs. Ilana Iddan. Persons who are interested in taking this course are urged to call her at 277-1260.

YOUTH

"The 25th OVFTY Regional Conclave was terrific!" Everyone, all 160 out of town conclavers, said this as they left Lexington. Yes, it was a good conclave. All the work the TYG put into it proved worthwhile. For the new OVFTYites, it was a great opportunity to meet people and for those who have been in OVFTY a while, it was a great chance to see old friends and renew old friendships. For some, it was the last time to see their friends, for some it was just the beginning. Again, we'd like to thank all the wonderful people in the congregation who helped us!

Our next TYG meeting will be Saturday, February 12th. The Temple cinema will feature "Wait Until Dark" starring Audrey Hepburn. It's a great movie. Bring a date if you like. The movie begins at 8:00 P.M. sharp.

"Justice for Soviet Jews" bumper stickers will be given out in the Temple Vestry Sunday morning between 8:45 and 9:45 A.M. Those who have paid for theirs, please try to come and pick yours up. We shall deliver the rest. Sorry it took so long, but please remember your duty and put it on your car.

Thank you, and until next week -
Shalom

PURIM 5732 - (14 Adar)

Monday evening, February 28 and Tuesday, February 29, 1972

Purim is a holiday based on a biblical short story, the Book of Esther. It is a marvelous tale filled with heroes and villains with whom people can easily identify: Mordecai, the hero of the day, who defies those bent on destroying the Jews; his grand-niece (and adopted daughter) Esther, who risks her life for the people of Israel; Haman, the wicked prime minister, who insulted and protected King Ahasuerus, and Vashti, the jilted queen.

But Jews were able to see even more easily than others their common lot in the persecution and ultimate triumph of Mordecai and his co-religionists in Persia. The story of oppression was too familiar; the happy ending was one which lent hope in the most perilous of times for the Jewish people.

So, Purim, a holiday which has almost no home observance, and whose synagogue ritual is limited virtually to the reading of the lengthy story of Esther - the Megillah - has become one of the most popular in Jewish folk lore. Not only were the dearest hopes of the Jewish people manifest, but the natural hostility against the perfidious tyrants under whom Jews lived could be healthily - and safely - expressed.

Thus, the normally serious mood of the synagogue is turned, as if by magic, into a carnival spirit. Noise-makers, greggers, pots, pans, foot stamping, booing - all are allowed when the name of that symbolic tyrant Haman is read from the Megillah. Cheers for heroes Mordecai and Esther fill the highest canopy of the most noble and stately sanctuary.

Boys and girls dress up in costume and replay the familiar story of the Book of Esther, especially the contest which, the story relates, Esther won because of her gentle beauty.

The gaiety is increased by parades, special three-corner pastry (haman-tashen, called in Israel oznei haman), and even the sending of gifts of food to friends, called shalach manot.

There will be a question and answer period at the end of the program. Everyone is most cordially invited to attend.

Rabbi's Message

In the newspaper this week I read a short article about a young lady who had posed for Play Mate of the Month for Playboy Magazine and then had second thoughts about this kind of exposure, and so she went to Hugh Hefner and persuaded him to cancel her appearance. She had a change of heart, according to the article, because she felt that this kind of exhibitionism was immoral. She decided that the $5000 for such an assignment was not worth what she had to do to earn the money.

The article was interesting not just because we do not often read of Hugh Hefner being told such things, but because in our day and age we are all too accustomed to thinking that principles are a thing of the past, that people no longer behave on the basis of what is right or wrong, but what is expedient, what brings in the most votes, what makes us popular, what is most profitable.

The contrast is also relevant when we think of the Purim story and Mordecai's unwillingness to bow down to Haman. Despite the dangers inherent in going counter to Haman's decrees, Mordecai's principles prevailed. No man was to be worshipped as a god. Only God deserved this kind of adoration.

The comparisons are rather stark. Principle versus other reasons for doing what we do. At Purim time we might give some thought to our own behavior in the light of this standard.

The Importance of Confirmation

One Confirmation whose previous behavior made her a most unlikely candidate for confirmation was asked why she was going through with it. Said she: "It's because I saw an item on the social page the other day: 'No wedding announced unless confirmed.'"

The Purpose of Life

The purpose of life is not to be happy. The purpose of life is to matter, to be productive, to have it make some difference that you lived at all. Happiness, in the ancient, noble sense, means self-fulfillment and is given to those who use to the fullest whatever talents God or luck or fate bestowed upon them. Happiness lies in stretching to the farthest boundaries of which we are capable, the resources of the mind and heart.

From the Rabbi's Desk

This past week Rabbi Schwab and I attended a meeting in Chicago sponsored by UJA, at which Mr. Nathan Peled, Israel's Minister of Absorption spoke about the problems arising from the increasing number of Jews who are being permitted to leave the Soviet Union and are coming to Israel. There were only 1000 persons in 1970; last year the number increased to 13,000. The anticipated number for 1972 is 35,000.

We cannot be certain why the Russian government has allowed so many Jews to leave nor how long this present Exodus will continue. However, we can be certain of some things. Jews are now leaving the Soviet Union in large numbers. We must help them. We cannot have made all the contention that we have and then leave them stranded once they arrive in Israel. Funds have to be available so that these people can be housed, retrained, and integrated into Israeli life. Mr. Peled estimates that from the moment a Jew renounces his Soviet citizenship (the first step necessary to get out of Russia) until he is established in his new surroundings costs $10,000 per person -- a goodly amount. And these funds cannot come only from the Jews of Israel. They will have to come from us also.

Judaism teaches us it is a Mitzvah to save a life. We were not too successful in this regard in the 1930's and early 40's. Today we have another opportunity on a large scale to fulfill this Mitzvah once more. I pray we will be equal to this task.

COMMITTEE MEETINGS

Social Action Committee open meeting Tuesday, February 29, 1972 8:00 P.M. Temple Vestry

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

On February 27, the Seventh Grade will conduct worship services for both the Junior and Primary Assemblies.

Our Purim Program will be held on March 5 with a Megillah reading and an assembly directed by the Fifth Grade, and with the Third Grade acting the different parts in the play.

March 12, the Primary Assembly will have a music assembly and the Junior Assembly will have an opportunity to get a piece of the action at our annual Fifth Grade auction for the Leo Baeck School. Ben Levy will be our auctioneer.

The Bible passage for February 27 is Ex. 27:20-21 and we shall discuss the symbolism of the Eternal Light in the Sanctuary.

STAMPS FOR WELLINGTON

Stamps are coming in for Wellington in increasing numbers. However, many of them have been cut from the envelope and cut too close to the stamps so that edges are removed. Unfortunately this makes the stamp worthless. It is mutilated. When you cut, leave some room around the stamp. The little extra paper is not going to make that much difference in our postage. SO KEEP THEM COMING!

LEO BAECK SCHOOL AUCTION

The auction is March 19. If you have items you wish to donate, bring them to the Temple office. All kinds of things are needed.

Art is a lie that enables us to realize the truth.

The Social Action of Temple Adath Israel will sponsor a meeting in the Vestry Tuesday, February 29 at 8:00 P.M. Dr. Joseph Engelberg, professor of physiology and bio-physics at the U.K. Medical Center, will speak on the Hunter Foundation Program which is a pre-paid comprehensive health care system developed to help low income families.

Dr. Engelberg helped formulate the plan which has been in process for the last 4 years. A question and answer period will be held. All interested persons are cordially invited.

BAR MITZVAH

JEFFREY ALAN DOCTROW, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Doctrow, will celebrate his Bar Mitzvah on Saturday, March 4, 1972 at 10:30 A.M. at Temple Adath Israel. All members and friends are invited to share with Jeff in this happy event. Mr. and Mrs. Doctrow will honor their son with a reception in the vestry immediately following the services.

SCHOOL DESK SALE

The Religious School Committee is selling a number of extra wooden arm-chair desks formerly used in the Religious School. There are large and small size desks. The price is $5.00. If you are interested, call the Temple office or come by and have a look.

TRIP TO ISRAEL

Rabbi Leffler is considering planning another tour to Israel for the first two weeks of March, 1973. If you might be interested, please let him know so that he may have some indication of the possible response to such plans.

NOMINATIONS FOR BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The following is quoted for your information:

"Nominations for election to the Board of Trustees, in addition to those nominations to be made by the nominating committee, may be made by means of a nominating petition for each person sought to be nominated, which petition must contain the signatures and addresses of at least five (5) members of the Temple in good standing, no signature to be valid if the signator has signed more nominating petitions in any one year than the total number to be elected to the Board of Trustees, which nominating petitions, in order to be valid and acceptable, shall be mailed to the Co-Chairmen of the Election Committee, Hyman Shragberg, 3419 Brookhaven Drive (40502) or Jack L. Miller, 1920 Blairmore Road (40502) postmarked on or before the 18th day of March."

DR. CYRUS GORDON TO SPEAK AT JEWISH FORUM

Dr. Cyrus Gordon of Brandeis University will be our speaker for the next Jewish Forum. "Navigation and Jewish History" will be the subject of his talk to be held Sunday, February 27th in the Temple Vestry. Dr. Gordon is the founder of the Department of Mediterranean Studies at Brandeis and has specialized training in Semitic, Classical and Indo-Iranian languages and culture. His current interest is marine exploration and excavation. Just last year he helped his Israeli students excavate King Solomon's seaport at Ezion-geber.

This promises to be a most interesting evening. Contact Mrs. Robert Belin, 3469 Flintridge Drive, 272-4379, for ticket information.

Arabbi saw a man give a penny to a beggar publicly. He said to him: Better had you given him nothing than cut him thus to shame.

The following was received by Rabbi Leffler February 22nd from Mrs. Zalia Bellon, Hon. Sec. of the South Australia Liberal Congregation:

Dear Rabbi Leffler,

Once again I have to thank you and your Congregation for your generous donation to our Religious School.

We have this month received four separate parcels of books all in good order and condition and I am sure that they will be put to good use by our students.

We are fortunate this year to have as our voluntary i.e. unpaid Headmaster, the Professor of Mathematics of our local Flinders University who, like myself, is an ex-South African. We have also got the voluntary services of three other adult members of the congregation and five young assistants so that this year looks like being a very successful one for the School. We only have a little over 30 pupils so you can see that they will be well cared for.

We are starting to organize a proper library and have been given a record player and some Jewish and Israeli records, so all augurs well for 1972.

This year we hope to have a visit (unofficial) of Dr. Nell Hirschberg from North Carolina. She is a Sisterhood Executive and I met her at Jerusalem Conference in 1968. We have also had the pleasure of Dr. Mrs. Bamberger visiting us and also Dr. Mrs. Mihalay so we are not quite off the beaten track. If any of your congregants are joining the ever increasing number of Americans to visit South Australia, be sure you give them my address.

Once again thanks to our "big brothers and sisters" in Kentucky.

Kindest regards,
Zalia Bellon

TEMPLE YOUTH GROUP

This Sunday, March 5, 1972 the Temple Youth Group will meet at 12:30 P.M. Remember this time, as it is a new one for afternoon meetings. We are going bowling. Transportation will be provided. We shall meet at Temple as usual.

Our last meeting, two weeks ago, was one concerning Zero-Population Growth. We had an interesting speaker who brought out some controversial points which sparked a good discussion.

On April 14, NPTV is sponsoring a meeting in Washington, D.C. TYGers will spend two days speaking to Congressmen concerning the plight of Soviet Jews in Russia. Our main goal will be to persuade President Nixon to make a statement before he goes to Moscow and that he will speak to the officials there on this topic.

OVPTV Spring Subregionals are in Huntington on March 24-26. Nashville TYG will probably come to Lexington on the 23rd, spend the night and ride the bus with our TYG to Huntington. The theme of this convocation will be the "Exodus".

FROM THE RABBI'S DESK

This past week I was in Cincinnati for the installation of Dr. Alfred Gottschalk, the fifth president of HUC-JIR. It was a very exciting series of events - a dinner Wednesday evening at the Netherlands Hilton, the installation service on Thursday morning at the historic Plum Street Temple and then a luncheon at the College.

Dr. Avraham Harman, currently president of the Hebrew University, spoke at the dinner and directed his remarks to the needs of world Jewry for the remaining years of this century. He spoke of our concern for Soviet Jewry, for Israel and for the Jew in our country and the need to know who and what we are so that we can cooperate in meeting our problems. Dr. Gottschalk spoke movingly on Thursday morning of his memories of Kristallnacht in Germany. He recalled that frightful night and his dream of helping to put the "pieces of Judaism back together." The service at Plum Street was most beautiful and inspiring. The HUC choir sang beautifully, adding even more to the importance of the moment. And the festivities continued at the College, the seminary where I spent five years and from which so many Reform Rabbis have been ordained.

My overall impression of those two days is one of continuity, the passing of our tradition from generation to generation. On the dais at the dinner was the Rabbi who had officiated at Dr. Gottschalk's Bar Mitzvah and wedding. The daughter of the man who donated the new library building at HUC sat at our table. The service was held in the Plum Street Temple, the same building in which Isaac M. Wise had preached and prayed. The Torah reading in the service dealt with Moses' selection of Joshua as his successor. In the academic procession were rabbis from every part of our country, and from abroad. The members of the HUC choir will be rabbis in a few years. Wherever I looked, this historic continuity was obvious. The new and the old side by side. Life continues. And as Jews we are urged to be cognizant of this continuity. It is built into our religion, which is the religion of an historic group of people.

Being present at this installation renewed my awareness of this continuity. It was a moving experience.

BROTHERHOOD

Save March 22nd at 8:00 P.M. for an important meeting pertaining to the problems of Soviet Jewry. Dr. Dan Jacobs, Political Science professor of Miami University of Ohio, will be our speaker.

CHESS

If there is someone in the Lexington Jewish Community who would like to perform a Mitzvah by playing chess with a shut-in, please contact Rabbi Leffler.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

The Megillah will be read on March 5 at 10:30 for the Junior Assembly and at 11:00 for the Primary Assembly, after which they will see a play presented by the 3rd and 5th grades. Hamantaschen and drinks will be served by the Sisterhood Religious School Committee.

On March 12, the Primary Assembly will have worship services and the Junior Assembly will see the film, "Change of Heart."

On March 19, the Junior Assembly will have an auction for the benefit of the Leo Baeck School conducted by the 5th grade.

Have you started working on your project for the Religious School contest? Prizes will be on display shortly.

The Bible passage for March 5 is Ex. 31:1-11 and we shall discuss putting our skills to use for good and holy purposes.

Because Public School vacation is April 8 - 16, Spring vacation in Religious School will be April 19. Therefore the first session for the last Block of classes for the Senior Group will start April 2 instead of April 8. Please mark your calendar accordingly.

PAPER DRIVE

Are you saving old newspapers? If not, start today! And bring them in to the Temple. The large van, donated by Factory Services, in the rear of the parking lot is for the deposit of old newspapers. Help fill it up!

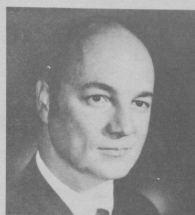

ADULT HEBREW CLASS

An adult Hebrew class is being organized by Mrs. Ilana Iddan. Persons who are interested in taking this course are urged to call her at 277-1260.

RABBI HACHEN TO SPEAK MARCH 17

Rabbi David S. Hachen, director of the Northeast Lakes Council of the UARC, will be our fourth out of town speaker this year. He will talk with the members of our Senior Group in Religious School from 4:30 to 6:00 P.M. on the subject, "The Role of Youth in the Synagogue." After services he will speak to the adults on the subject, "The Synagogue in Future Shock."

Rabbi Hachen was ordained at HUC in 1952 and served as a chaplain in the Navy for two years. Subsequently he has served congregations in Wantagh, New York, Norwalk, Conn. and Rockdale Temple in Cincinnati. Rabbi Hachen has his doctorate in education from Columbia University.

Steve Wides, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wides, who won State Champion in the High School State Gymnastics Meet held February 26 in Louisville. He has also won regionals at Bryan Station High School.

Sisterhood

The annual Interfaith Luncheon will be held Wednesday, March 22, at 11:30 A.M. Dr. Dan Jacobs of Miami University of Ohio, will be the speaker along with a film, "Let My People Go." The program of the afternoon will deal with Soviet Jewry.

If a Sisterhood member wishes to bring a non-Jew, please submit name and church affiliation to Alberta Gerson, 278-1474, before March 4 so that they may be included as Sisterhood guests.

Due to the difficulty involved in planning a meal, two days preceding any Sisterhood sponsored luncheon or dinner will be cut-off date for reservations. Anyone desiring reservations after that time will be given cancellations as they occur, or encouraged to come in after the meal has been served.

NOMINATIONS FOR BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The following is quoted for your information:

"Nominations for election to the Board of Trustees, in addition to those nominations to be made by the nominating committee, may be made by means of a nominating petition for each person sought to be nominated, which petition must contain the signatures and addresses of at least five (5) members of the Temple in good standing, no signature to be valid if the signator has signed more nominating petitions in any one year than the total number to be elected to the Board of Trustees, which nominating petitions, in order to be valid and acceptable, shall be mailed to the Co-Chairmen of the Election Committee, Hyman Shraberg, 3419 Brookhaven Drive (40502) or Jack L. Miller, 1920 Blairmore Road (40502) postmarked on or before the 18th day of March."

FAMILY WORSHIP SERVICE

Family worship should be a part of our congregational life. On the cover of this issue, you will see that on March 10 we shall have a service of this nature.

We shall have our worship at 6:30 instead of 8:00 P.M. At about 7:00 we shall move into the vestry for a potluck supper, after which we shall join in singing some Jewish songs - some new, some familiar.

For the potluck dinner, each family is asked to bring enough meat for its members attending, plus one other dish (vegetables, potatoes or salad) for twice the number in the family attending. Dessert and beverage will be supplied by the Sisterhood.

Children born in January, February and March will be blessed during the worship.

Here is a fine opportunity for the congregation to worship together as a family and to spend a pleasant Sabbath evening. Plan to attend on March 10 with your children.

ENDOWMENT FUND COMMITTEE

The Endowment Fund of Adath Israel is now eleven years old; yet through the years it has become apparent that many members of the congregation do not realize how important this fund is, especially in relation to federal estate taxes. We would welcome the opportunity to discuss with any member the advantages and satisfaction of a planned gift which will benefit both your children and grandchildren as well as our Temple.

In order to give full consideration to this worthy purpose, please consult your attorney, tax consultant and any member of this committee.

LET MY PEOPLE GO!

Dr. Dan N. Jacobs, Professor of Political Science at Miami University of Ohio, will speak to the Lexington Jewish Community on March 22, 1972 at 8:00 P.M. at Temple Adath Israel. His subject will be "Let My People Go: Soviet Jewry Passover, 1972". This will be an educational forum with no solicitations.

Dr. Jacobs was born in Irvine, Ky. and has received degrees from Harvard, Yale, and Columbia Universities. He has a certificate from the Russian Institute of Columbia and has taught at Hunter College, Indiana University and San Francisco State.

He is a noted and well published authority on Russia and the problems of Jews trying to live in the Soviet Union. He has been in constant contact with Jews in Russia and is painfully familiar with their plight, as well as their ardent desire to emigrate to Israel. His many travels and studies to the USSR and Eastern Europe are the added touches that make Dan Jacobs a most qualified and eminent authority on the situation in Russia today.

Come! Listen! You cannot afford to miss this open meeting! Dr. Jacobs' visit to Lexington is sponsored by the Temple Brotherhood in cooperation with all the Jewish organizations of Lexington. (We apologize for the errors and omissions in the flier you received in the mail.)

DR. DAN N. JACOBS

TEMPLE YOUTH GROUP

Bruce Miller has officially won the award for the best bowler in the TYG.

Important events in the upcoming month - Spring Sub-Regionals in Huntington are March 24-26. Transportation will be by bus, and it has been arranged that Nashville will come to Lexington on Thursday night and go with us to the conclave.

The Washington trip has been changed to May 2-4. Those interested in going on this OVFTY sponsored program, please contact Jack Miller sometime before Spring Vacation. TYGers will be going to Washington on buses and will spend two days lobbying with congressmen. The main goal of the trip will be to persuade President Nixon to make a statement that he will discuss the plight of Soviet Jews with Russian officials when he goes to Moscow.

TYG is in charge of selling Soviet Jewry buttons, bumper stickers, posters, and stamps to those persons in attendance at the Dan Jacobs program. We need a good turnout! It will certainly be an informative and beneficial program. Please attend.

There will be no movie this month - it has been changed to April.

FROM THE RABBI'S DESK

One of the debates currently going on in our country concerns the possibility of amnesty for those who have claimed selective conscientious objection to our war in Vietnam. Some of them have fled our country and settled in Canada or Sweden. Others have remained and faced jail, as Don Pratt did here in Lexington.

The question is a difficult one to face because it has so many facets. Certainly those who risked life and limb in Vietnam have grounds for feeling that those who were not willing to do likewise ought not be excused, now that most of the action is over. And the families of those who died there certainly would have grounds for complaining about the lack of participation of the dissenters.

On the other hand, we were among the nations that held the Nuremberg trials, and refused to accept the answer "I was ordered to" as a legitimate answer for military crimes. If we told Nazis they should have refused to obey their government, should there not be the same possibility permitted Americans? Unfortunately, we have so far not been willing to face this issue.

There is still another question to be asked - what about the conscience of the selective objectors? We cannot say that they are all cowards. Surely many of them are quite sincere and have spent many hours agonizing over the question of military service. Their choice was not an easy one. And they have to live with themselves. Political dissent need not be criminal.

And above all of these questions on the specific issue, there is the broader question of patriotism. Just what is patriotic - to fight for one's country? To be honest in the paying of one's income taxes? To teach children in a ghetto school? To work for ecology? To vote? There are many answers - and some of them may be superior to fighting for one's country. It is a new question. We ought to give it some thought.

From the Rabbi's Desk

During the past couple of weeks you have been receiving information about the forthcoming visit to Lexington of Professor Dan Jacobs of Miami University. Professor Jacobs is a leading scholar on the subject of Soviet Jewry and so we are most fortunate to have him able to come and speak to us on this subject. I urge you to attend the evening program which is for the entire Jewish community.

His subject should be of vital concern to us all. If many of our parents or grandparents had not left Europe and we had survived the Holocaust, we might find ourselves in the situation which confronts the Jews of Russia. Thus, our good fortune is not something we ought to take for granted, but we need to show our gratitude also. And, in part, this gratitude can be shown by our knowledge, concern and action on behalf of those Jews who are suffering the oppression of political, cultural and religious slavery in the USSR.

Thus there is more to do beyond just hearing Professor Jacobs. We can send petitions and cards to the President, participate in demonstrations, help the emigrants to settle in their new homes when they are able to leave Russia.

During the coming weeks you will hear of these possible courses of action. But first, be informed. Come hear Professor Jacobs.

Bring Your Family

This Friday Night.

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Congregant,

Within a few days you will be receiving a letter from the Finance Committee regarding dues for fiscal 1972-1973. Please read this carefully and try to understand the needs of your Temple.

Our Fair Share program is successful, yet, we need more money in order to maintain the high standards and services which you need and deserve. We are asking you to reconsider dues paid this year, and to increase these if at all possible. There is no need to emigrate the many cost increases occurring daily, as everyone is fully aware of this.

Our average needed is $270 per member. However, please understand that this is an average which includes those unable to pay or able to pay only a few dollars. We are a religious institution, and as such, those more fortunate should carry the weight of those less able to pay.

Think of what having a vibrant, active Temple in Lexington means. Not only for those who worship regularly on Friday night but for many other reasons. The Temple and Rabbi are here to serve you from birth to death, and the many times in between for religious education, Bar Mitzvah, Confirmation, Weddings, etc. Think of this city with no Temple, and I feel sure you will stretch your budget and pledge larger dues than before.

Thanks in advance for the increases which I feel sure will be received.

Very truly yours,
Stanley B. Seher
President, Temple Adath
Israel

LET MY PEOPLE GO!

Dr. Dan N. Jacobs, Professor of Political Science at Miami University of Ohio, will speak to the Lexington Jewish Community on March 22, 1972 at 8:00 P.M. at Temple Adath Israel. His subject will be "Let My People Go: Soviet Jewry Passover, 1972". This will be an educational forum with no solicitations.

Dr. Jacobs was born in Irvine, Ky. and has received degrees from Harvard, Yale, and Columbia Universities. He has been in constant contact with Jews in Russia and is painfully familiar with their plight, as well as their ardent desire to emigrate to Israel. His many travels and studies to the USSR and Eastern Europe are the added touches that make Dan Jacobs a most qualified and eminent authority on the situation in Russia today.

Come! Listen! You cannot afford to miss this open meeting! Dr. Jacobs' visit to Lexington is sponsored by the Temple Brotherhood in cooperation with all the Jewish organizations of Lexington.

The Perfect Faith Of The Indifferent . . .

It is said that the age of miracles is past. The times when faith and prayer parted the seas to let a people pass, when a burning bush brought its revelations. Yet we see perfect faith expressed every day and all around us. The perfect faith of the citizen who expects good government without voting or even knowing who represents him in congress or the senate. The perfect faith of the parent who turns his children over to a school in which he himself has never set foot to meet with teachers or to know and understand the problems of the school which tries to do a job for each child.

And so it is with the Temple. The perfect faith of the uninvolved who expect the Temple to be there, ready for use, when a marriage has to take place, a child to be named, others to get a religious education, Bar Mitzvah, Confirmation, and finally a Rabbi to comfort a family at the time of death.

Here is the perfect faith of the indifferent who have not shared in building the Temple, in maintaining its facilities or been part of the continuity of Jewish life. And here is the miracle, not past but ever present, that it is time that everyone bask in the benefits of this miracle and know the deeper meaning that is to be found there?

From the Rabbi's Desk

The first Seder is March 29th and the preparations for this annual event are under way. The supply of Matzo has been laid in, and the other Pesach food is on order.

However, all of the activity has to be related to the intrinsic message of the Holiday. To celebrate just for the excitement or the joy of a holiday, really negates the basic purpose.

Thus as we sit down at our Seder, we ought to dwell "at length" on the significance of our observance. We ought to be reminded of the importance of freedom and that if it were not for our forefathers, we might have been consumed in the Holocaust. The ability to move from place to place when freedom is threatened has made us wanderers in history. Our attachment to this ideal has usually been greater than our attachment to the geography or political state in which we resided.

Perhaps the modern day significance of this attachment ought to be considered as part of our celebration this year.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT PASSOVER

- Q. What does the name of the holiday mean?
A. PESACH, translated Passover, comes from Exodus, where the 10th Plague is described. It is stated that God saved the Jewish people by passing over their houses as He smote the houses of the Egyptians.
- Q. When did these events take place?
A. About 3500 years ago.
- Q. What is the significance of the Passover Holiday?
A. It commemorates the deliverance by Moses of the Jews who had been enslaved in Egypt by a new Pharaoh.
- Q. How is Passover observed?
A. A family ritual, known as the Seder service is held. Special foods, symbols of the Egyptian bondage, are prepared, and the narrative of the enslavement and deliverance are read. Matzo is eaten instead of bread.
- Q. What does the word Seder mean?
A. Seder is a Hebrew word meaning Order or procedure. The Seder is not only a dinner but also a religious celebration.
- Q. What does Hagadah mean?
A. It is a Hebrew word meaning "The Story." It is also the name of the book from which we read the service for the Seder.
- Q. Why do we eat Matzo instead of bread on Passover?
A. The meaning of the Hebrew word Matzo is "unleavened." As the Jews hurriedly left Egypt, they had no time to bake their bread, so they took along dough and baked it in the sun while traveling.
- Q. What do the special foods served at the Seder signify?
A. The MOROR, Hebrew for bitter, is a bitter herb, usually horseradish. It is eaten as a remembrance of the bitter life of our forefathers when they were slaves in Egypt. The CHAROSSA, is a mixture of nuts, apples, raisins, cinnamon and wine. We eat it to remember the bricks our ancestors made in Egypt and the mortar they used in building the palaces and Temples for the Pharaohs.
- The PARSELY and SALT WATER are eaten to indicate that Pesach is a Spring Festival. The parsley is dipped in the salt water to make us think of the tears the Jewish mothers shed when their sons were taken from them.
- The SHANK BONE is a remembrance of the Paschal lamb. When the Jews left Egypt they offered a lamb sacrifice to show their thanksgiving for their freedom.
- The ROASTED EGG is the symbol of the free will burnt-offering brought on every day of the Passover feast, during the existence of the Temple in Jerusalem.
- The FOUR CUPS OF WINE are used as a token of festivity as in all Jewish ceremonies of rejoicing. The four cups represent the four promises made to our ancestors when they were freed from Egyptian slavery. These were: "And I will take you out" of the land of bondage; "And I will save you"; "And I will free you" from slavery; "And I will take you" to be a chosen people.
- The CUP OF ELIJAH is a large goblet of wine which is placed on the table supposedly for Elijah, an invisible guest. There is a legend that before the world will have everlasting peace, Elijah will appear to announce it. We express our wish and hope for the arrival of this great messenger by providing a special cup of wine, and by opening the door to admit the expected guest.
- The AFKOMEN meaning "desert or after-meal" is a special piece of matzo which is hidden at the beginning of the Seder. At the end of the meal, a prize is given to the child who finds the matzo.

- Q. When does Passover begin this year?
A. On the evening of Wednesday, March 29.
- Q. How long does it last?
A. Seven days.
- Q. By what other names is Passover known?
A. The "Festival of Matzo," the "Festival of Freedom," and the "Festival of Spring."

Stubborn hypocrites
Standing in a row marching in crusade against the blasphemous youth, glass in hand, walking on the edge of the line as their lawyer talks deals with the judge.
Sister
Shouting the truth of the law while hooded men enforce it, not obey it,
and the white streaming mass passes the yellow line to explode into black funeral processions for the innocent humanity.
This white man's shade of grey truth, flamboyantly crushing all that waits before him, has too much color for the black and he walks always in darkness on the well-lighted central park
bipod row
hiding in the shadows to assimilate into nothing.
The huddling liquid makes the shaded lies drift away into

From the Rabbi's Desk

One of the terms which I hear used from time to time, and which distresses me each time I hear it is "a good Jew." It is a term which does not make sense to me. Its definition usually revolves about ritual observance, and its opposite is "a bad Jew," again usually having a ritual connotation to it.

By contrast, I prefer the term "responsible Jew" and its opposite, "irresponsible Jew." I think these have more meaning for us. They refer not just to one's participation in ritual matters, but to a much broader scope of activities - ritual, cultural, educational, social concerns, etc.

The matter comes to mind as a result of Al Vorspan's talk last Sunday and the discussion which followed. He spoke of Jewish withdrawal from the general community which he finds occurring today, (Rabbi Hachen had made the same point to me the week before) and he pointed out that while it may be understandable, to some degree, these communal and general problems are ours too and we cannot forsake them. If American society disintegrates because of strife and conflict within our country, American Jewry will be destroyed also. If the world explodes because of war and hatred, Jews will explode with it. There are no more ghettos for us! For us to retreat to a psychological ghetto at this time might well be disastrous in many ways.

On the other hand, for us only to be within the general community is inadequate for us as Jews. It denies our roots, our tradition, our heritage. We forgo the source of strength which is ours - our Judaism.

Thus I agree with Al on this point, but I would emphasize that our choice is not one or the other - but both - our participation in Judaism - worship, Israeli causes, etc., as well as in general and communal activities. The "responsible Jew" is the person who has both aspects of concern within his life.

HIGH HOLY DAY SEATING ABROAD

Once again the Commission on Synagogue Administration, in co-operation with the World Union for Progressive Judaism, has adopted an official Request for High Holy Day Seating Abroad procedure. Congregational members who are planning a trip abroad which will encompass the 1972 Holy Days should notify the Temple office so that they may be provided with the necessary forms in adequate time to complete arrangements.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

There is no Religious School on April 9. Spring vacation.

The last Block of the Senior Group begins on April 2. Confirmation is on May 21 at 2:00 P.M.

On April 2 the Junior Assembly will see the filmstrip, "Dr. Leo Baeck, Man of Faith", and the Primary Assembly will see the film, "Don't Get Angry".

April 16 the Seventh Grade will conduct a worship service for both Assemblies.

On April 23 the Sixth Grade will conduct a worship service for the Junior Assembly and the Third Grade will present a program for the Primary Assembly.

On April 30 the Junior Assembly will have a film entitled "Blue Sky" and the Primary Assembly will have a worship service conducted by the Sixth Grade.

Closing date for entries in the Religious School contest is April 30. Check with your teachers and have a look at the prizes in the display cabinet. They are outstanding Jewish books.

The Fifth Grade Auction on the 19th was very successful. About $70.00 was raised for the benefit of the Leo Baeck School in Haifa. This is the largest amount raised to date by our auction for this cause. Ben Levy did a fine job as auctioneer.

We want to thank the ladies who helped with the Model Seder. They were: Jo Belin, Vinnie Dubilier, Colleen King, Rose Rita Wummer, Deborah Mack and Carol Wirtschafter.

The Bible lesson for April 2 is Lev. 10:1-2 and we shall discuss not following the rules and what can happen as a consequence.

HELP YOUR TEMPLE GROW FOR YOU AND YOUR CHILDREN

SISTERHOOD

As chairman of this year's interfaith program, there are many people who must be thanked for work above and beyond the call of duty in connection with this successful day. Mr. Charles Stern printed more than his share of material, the last of which was printed the morning of the program. Mr. I.H. Stern, Jr. who took time out of his busy day to show the film, Mrs. Richard Campbell who handled all of the publicity, Mrs. Avram Levine, Mrs. Irvin Cohen and Mrs. David Doctrow who compiled and worked on much of the visual material we used that day and last but not least, Mrs. Charles Stern who really did not have to do all she did, after all she is supposed to supervise. As the day and the evening fell into place we found that many jobs were overlapping and hence some unusual names on this list. If there have been any omissions on the afternoon program, please forgive me. The work these people did was a sincere and monumental task and to these people and all the rest, my most heartfelt thanks for a job very well done.

Many thanks to these very fine ladies who baked and added much to the success of this program: Mesdames Harold Baker, Jerome Cole, Stephen Edelstein, Maurice Elias, Martin Gebrow, Laurence Ginsburg, Irving Kanner, Martin Kaplan, Leonard Lerner, Ben Miller, Robert Miller, I.A. Paritz, Saul Rubin, Ben Shrubert, Eugene Straus, and Herschel Weil.

To Pray or Not To Pray?

Every member of every congregation should read the following article. It was written by Rabbi Michael Shatz and appeared in the Bulletin of his Temple, Congregation Gates of Prayer, New Orleans. The first one in your family who reads this article is urged to share it with every other member of your family.

"From time to time we get complaints from people that they really oughtn't to have to pay the full cost of temple membership because they attend services only once or twice a year, or they are interested only in the religious school, or they avail themselves sparingly of some other function of the Congregation. They feel that they should not be put on the same basis as those who draw upon the facilities of the Temple more extensively.

"These people seem to think of the synagogue in terms of a theatre or a concert hall. If you want to see a particular play or hear a particular concert, you don't have to support the whole institution for the entire year. You just buy a ticket for a single performance.

"For one thing, a temple program has to go on all the year around. A particular person may be choosy about going to Sabbath worship, but the synagogue has to be open and functioning every Sabbath, whether he comes or not. Likewise, we may not need the services of the rabbi except on rare occasions, but a rabbi has to be supported the year around in order to be available when he is needed.

"Some of us argue that, since we have no children in the religious school, we ought not to have to pay the same dues as those who do. We forget that the training of the next generation of Jews is a religious duty incumbent on every one of us. "No, we don't all think for single performances, because what we offer is an all-around service that is essential to every Jew. It is what our business people call a "Package Deal." And, considering what we offer, the price of annual dues is still one of the biggest bargains we can get anywhere."

WE THANK YOU . . .

Recently Temple Adath Israel received a very thoughtful gift from members of the congregational family.

We wish to thank Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Mayer for the gift of the rebound prayerbook and hymnals which you see in the sanctuary.

Our thanks to you.

KEEP THE PROMISE

The Israeli Government estimates that it will be faced with the resettlement of approximately 70,000 new immigrants this year - most from Russia, most penniless. Its defense budget will probably increase. War with its Arab neighbors is a constant and imminent threat. Permanent peace is a dream as far away as ever.

The more fortunate Jews of the Diaspora are called upon again to assist the Israeli Government in the onerous task of arranging for the bare necessities of the olim. By responding to this call, Jews, who enjoy the fruits of freedom here, can help the less fortunate adjust to a new way of life and be in a position to make their contribution in the future.

Jim Levenson, chairman of the Central Kentucky United Jewish Appeal, and Dr. David Wekstein, secretary-treasurer, opened the 1972 campaign with a letter addressed to the Jewish community of Central Kentucky. The campaign motto, "KEEP THE PROMISE", along with knowledge of the above facts tells most of the story.

KEEP THE PROMISE...give generously this year to UJA. The drive will be announced by letter, by newspaper, by radio and by TV and telephone during the month of April

DID YOU KNOW?

THAT:
The first Jewish community was established in Japan in 1864. Today there are about 1,000 Jews in Japan, most of whom live in Tokyo, where the Beth David Synagogue has existed since 1968. - The Japanese have shown much interest in Israel. Many have visited the Jewish State and there are about 100 " kibbutzim " in Japan. Hebrew is offered at Tokyo University. It was the Emperor's brother who established a School of Oriental Studies. - He is very good in Hebrew.

THAT
There are 5,000 Jews left in Syria today out of 50,000 who lived there before 1948? While thousands demonstrated near the UN to protest the imprisonment and torture of Syrian Jews, first-hand reports reached Paris of new Syrian cruelties. - In New York, Mayor John Lindsay proclaimed "Save Syrian Jewish Day."

MIAT

In the Spanish island of Majorca, the Jewish community just received official recognition from the Spanish government. Thus the Jewish residents of Majorca can now legally establish a synagogue, use the Torah and other religious books, and have a rabbi in Madrid, in Barcelona and in Melaga. Majorca's Jewish history goes back almost 1000 years. Centuries later, under the rule of the Moors, the island's capital, had 3 synagogues.

In 1492, when Spain turned Christian, the Jews were expelled. Some Jews who remained in Spain, were called Marranos - and in Majorca they were named Chuetas (Jehowah-worshippers). Chuetas were of Jewish ancestry, they were not - and are not Jews.

In 1960, Isabel Elieshuw Moner - a wealthy Chuetas, went to Jerusalem. She publicly requested the Israeli government to allow her to return to Palma to try to open a synagogue and was denied permission by the government, but she was allowed to visit Israel. A group of British and Moroccan origin, recently convened the first Jewish meeting in Palma, in 1962. Since then, many Chuetas came back and asked to join in giving thanks to the official recognition of the community by the Spanish government.

Rabbi's Message

During the month of April the Central Kentucky United Jewish Appeal will begin its annual appeal for funds. I urge that you support this worthwhile cause to the very fullest of your financial ability.

In many large Jewish communities there are countless calls upon the community to support a wide number of worthy Jewish causes - both local and distant. We in the Blue Grass do not have these many requests coming to us. I find the situation both fortunate and unfortunate. It is unfortunate because such requests for funds can make us cognizant of the wide scope and variety of Jewish charitable efforts the world over. And so for the most part, we are uninformed. On the other hand, we are fortunate to have one community-wide organization which is able to collect our funds and to distribute them in our name to a large number of worthy causes. And for this latter, we should be both thankful and generous in our support of the UJA.

A couple of weeks ago many of us heard Dr. Dan Jacobs describe the plight of Soviet Jewry and the needs of those persons who wish to emigrate to Israel. Eighty percent of what we contribute to the Central Kentucky UJA goes toward their support. Our contributions to this drive are one way of indicating both our concern for them and our compassion for the suffering they have known. It is also a Mitzvah for us to do this, for it helps in redeeming persons who have known hardship and oppression for far too long.

Again, let me urge your fullest support of the forthcoming campaign.

ALEF - BET

There is a perfectly beautiful passage in the Talmud (Shabbath 104a) illustrative of the noble Jewish approach to life. It goes back 18 centuries yet is as fresh as this morning's inspiration.

"Little children come to the Bet-Hamidrah (School) and say things the like of which were not said even in the days of Joshua (the successor to Moses):

They say: Alef-Bet means Alef-Binah (learn wisdom).
Gimmel-Dalet means Gmel-dalim (do for the poor).
He-Wav represents the name of the Holy One Blessed Be He. (The Hebrew name for God consists of four letters - Yod-He-Wav-He)."

The passage goes on through the Hebrew alphabet given each letter its meaning.

We note that teaching of the alphabet in those days involved more than rote-training in abstract linguistic symbols. Letters were con- creined in words - and the words were weighted with ethion. This is the special factor in Jewish education: not mere abstraction nor parroting but reality and thinking - and reality is always rooted in the ethical and the moral.

1. Alef-Bet - learn wisdom. Learn not knowledge, but wisdom. Knowledge is neutral and can be veered to evil. Wisdom is knowledge tested in life's experience. Wisdom is knowledge with human and humane motivation and direction. Alef-Bet means learn wisdom.

2. Gimmel Dalet means do for the poor. Early in life see the poor, recognize the poor, feel for the poor, do for the poor. Do not just study the poor and pile up statistics but lift the poor out of poverty. Do to the degree that the poor will be able to do for themselves.

3. He-Wav is a part of the name of God. The name of God is the Spirit of God. Invoking His name is the key to striving to emulate Him. And this - "Imitatio Dei" - is the highest religious act of the Jew.

Here we have something of an idea of the aims and purposes of Jewish education.

AMERICA

God built Him a continent of glory and filled it with treasures uncounted. Then He called unto a thousand peoples, and summoned the bravest among them. And out of the bounty of earth and the labor of men, out of the longing of hearts and the prayers of souls, out of the memory of the ages and the hopes of the world, God fashioned a nation in love, blessed it with a purpose sublime, and called it - America!

ON ISRAEL

We are not establishing a state devoid of values. The return of the Jewish People to its ancient homeland is interrelated with its continuity and the renewal of its spiritual and traditional values, the heritage of our ancient sages and prophets. It is the tying together of the strings of our spiritual creativity which were severed two thousand years ago.

From The Rabbi's Desk

The struggle between the Protestants and the Catholics in Northern Ireland has been going on for a goodly number of months now and one of the quips one hears is that it is safer to be a Jew in that country than a Christian.

The situation is a sad one. One would think and perhaps even hope that people professing the same basic religious beliefs would be able to get along with one another. However as we see, this is not the case. Death and destruction have taken their sad toll in that small country. And as non-Christians we look on with limited understanding - as well as horror and dismay.

However, the whole "bloody" picture ought not be as foreign to us as we might initially think. What we see is the tragic and result of prejudice - of thinking of other people as non-people, of dehumanizing them because they are different. This sort of thing has happened repeatedly in history. Every violent death in times of oppression and war has been the product of this kind of thinking.

We Jews have known this attitude countless times throughout our history, with the Holocaust being the most recent and horrendous example. But we ought not think that just because we have been the object of prejudice that we are free from them. This is not the case. The prejudice between the Sephardic and Ashkenazic communities in this country was part of the subject of "The Grandees" by Birmingham. And the antagonisms between German and Russian Jews are only really disappearing in our time. And in Israel the attitudes of the European Jew toward the non-European are still not very amicable.

We all have our prejudices. The real test is how we are able to control them. The Northern Irish are not doing very well. Hopefully they will regain the control they have lost, and do so before much more innocent blood is shed.

YOUR FAIR SHARE

Temple Adath Israel has a membership of approximately 226. Its activities are almost too numerous to mention. Its value to the community especially to the Jewish community can best be described by an inspection of the listed functions on the Bulletin calendar and add to that the myriad activities of the Rabbi, the teachers of the Religious School, the various Temple organizations, and the Temple officers and you get an idea of how large and important an organization we are.

We, the 226 members, have the responsibility of supporting these activities from a financial viewpoint. It will take approximately $61,000 to do an adequate job. This means that each membership should contribute an average of $270 to the Temple to accomplish this requirement. As of this date pledges from 90 members have been received with total pledges of $24,821 which meets the required average. There are 130 persons to be heard from. If you are one of these, please mail your pledge in immediately to the Temple office. Remember our need and make your pledge sufficient.

This is a year in which many decisions must be made relating to future activities. Do your fair share so that our future activities can be adequately financed.

OLIM

Regardless of their wealth or abilities in their native lands, they leave everything and arrive in Israel with only the clothes on their backs. To see the promise land, to live in freedom, to work for its future success, they gave their all. They "KEPT THE PROMISE".

This year the UJA asks Central Kentucky to "KEEP THE PROMISE" by making a generous gift to UJA. A large percentage of this money will be used to help get these new immigrants resettled in Israel. UJA also helps numerous social action, health, religious, and educational organizations here at home - yes, even in Lexington.

This is my second year as chairman of UJA. I have been most gratified by the cooperation of the Jewish community in Central Kentucky. It is a big job to contact everyone - it takes a lot of time. This year I shall again need your cooperation in making this campaign the success expected of us.

Together let's "KEEP THE PROMISE" to the Olim. When you receive your pledge card, answer immediately because the Olim can't wait.

TEMPLE YOUTH GROUP NEWS

The next TYG meeting will be this Sunday, April 16, 1972, at 1:30 P.M. We are very happy to present as our guest speaker, Laura Wides, who has recently returned from a kibbutz in Israel. She is going to speak to us about some of her experiences there and her general impression of the country. It really should be very interesting.

On April 21, the TYG will lead the congregation in worship with the service presented at the OVFTY convalesce in February. The service will begin at 8:00 P.M. There will be an Oneg Shabbat following the service at the home of Gloria Baker. All TYGers are cordially invited.

The Washington trip is coming upon us rapidly. Hopefully all TYGers who want to go have sent in applications. Those who have not received one and wish to go, contact Gloria, 266-8675 immediately. They should be in.

Those of you who are considering running for a TYG office, it's getting to be that time of year again. Elections are going to be on May 7 at 5:30 P.M. at the Temple.

May 12-14 is the weekend of delegates, which are in Zionsville. More information on that later.

Until next week,
Shalom

STAMPS FOR WELLINGTON

Our carton is almost ready to be sent. Just a few more stamps will fill it up. Send yours in to the Temple today. Be sure not to mutilate them in any way.

H-E-L-P!

To date 110 out of 226 members of our Temple have responded by mailing in their pledge cards for 1972-1973 membership dues. We are anxiously waiting for the other 116 members to respond so we will know where we stand.

The 110 persons responding have pledged $29,161 versus $27,071 for the year before, an increase of $2,090. The average pledge is now about $265. We need an average of $270 to meet the real financial needs of the Temple.

If you have not responded, please send in your pledge card today. Try to increase, voluntarily of course, and help us reach our objective. If you have already responded and now decide you can do more, simply write a note to the Finance Chairman, c/o Temple Adath Israel, 124 North Ashland, and indicate that you want to voluntarily increase your dues and state the amount.

THANKS, AND H-E-L-P!

A Difference Between Worship and Prayer

The purpose of the synagogue service is "worship," not "prayer." And there is a crucial difference between worship and prayer.

Prayer is personal, a pouring out of one's innermost feelings. Worship is communal, a pouring in of the community's ideals. Prayer is voluntary and spontaneous. It reflects an immediate personal need. Worship is obligatory and planned. It reflects God's eternal demands. Prayer is seeking out God in a sea of mystery. Worship is finding God in an island of certainty. Prayer is the revelation of man. Worship is the revelation of God. Man prays to God in a moment of grief and loneliness. Man worships God with joy and camaraderie.

"Therefore, if you must pray — stay home! The synagogue is no place for prayer. The choir's chanting, the rabbi's preaching and your neighbor's snoring will prove insurmountable impediments to praying. Prayer should be expressed in the stillness of your privacy, not mouthed mechanically among the people."

Peace cannot be kept by force. It can only be achieved by understanding.

THE JEWISH COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION

"Sallah", the gentle, endearing story of an unlettered Oriental Jew's successful campaign against entrenched bureaucracy and 20th century civilization, will be shown Sunday, April 23, 1972, at 8:00 P.M. at Temple Adath Israel. Sallah (Haym Topol) is a bearded, seemingly humble man with a wife and seven children (as well as an imminent addition). The family arrives in the new state of Israel in 1949, with hopes for a luxurious life. Instead, they are assigned to a one-room ramshackle house in a Maabara (temporary camp). In order to secure permanent housing, Sallah needs 1000 pounds. However, he is an individualist, who does not believe in working. He excels only in the Oriental game of Shesh-besh (Backgammon), from which he hopes to make a living. The film shows how Sallah manages to get a new home, and at the same time outwit those who would force him to join the community's cooperative efforts. Sallah clashes with the Europeans, the Kibbutz leaders, the housing authorities and the government apparatus, but in the end, he gets what he wants by outwitting his enemies in an extremely clever fashion. Along the way, the film provides a number of romances, many humorous debates and hilarious satires of political corruption.

Sallah is expertly played by Haym Topol, the young Israeli actor who has been cast as Tevye in Norman Jewison's production of FIDDLER ON THE ROOF.

From the Rabbi's Desk

Over the past number of years, the language department at UK has had a day long conference on foreign languages, to which scholars have come to present and discuss learned papers. One of these sessions was on Hebrew. However, the University is in the process of phasing out its Hebrew department and so has discontinued the Hebrew language conference.

Because of this situation and because it was felt that the conference on Hebrew was important and ought not be discontinued, the Hebrew Union College has decided to be the sponsor of this annual event.

Thus it was that a couple of weeks ago I went up to Cincinnati for an afternoon to hear some of the papers presented by Christian and Jewish scholars at this year's meeting, the first at HUC. It was an enjoyable few hours. I had a chance to visit the Rare Book Room in the HUC Library, which is always a treat, as well as to hear three of the papers. But what thrilled me the most was that Rabbi Schwab had been asked to read a paper and I had the opportunity to be present at that session. His work was stimulating and worthwhile and I was most pleased to be present to hear him. We need many opportunities when persons of different outlooks can gather to exchange ideas in this way. I look forward to attending future conferences of this nature at HUC.

SPOTLIGHT on SISTERHOOD

SALLY PRIESAND TO SPEAK AT CLOSING
SISTERHOOD MEETING

Miss Sally Priesand, who will be the first woman rabbi, will speak on May 17 at the closing Sisterhood meeting. Miss Priesand, known affectionately as "Rabbi Sally", will be ordained this June 3 at the Hebrew Union College in Cincinnati. Miss Priesand is a native of Cleveland and attended the University of Cincinnati and HUC-JIR undergraduate program and was graduated in 1968 with a BA in English. During her years of rabbinic study at HUC she has served congregations in Champaign, Ill., Milwaukee, Wis., Jackson, Mich., and is currently a rabbinic intern at the Isaac M. Wise Temple in Cincinnati.

The luncheon will be held at the Ramada-Imperial House at 12:30 P.M. Reservations may be made by calling Bea Rosenthal, 266-1382.

MISS SALLY PRIESAND

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

CLASSMATE OF THE WEEK

The 5th grade classmate of the week is Phillip Gail Levy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Erle Levy. Phillip has three sisters - Laura, Leslie, and Lisa, and a boxer dog named "Tiger". He is a 5th grader at Cassidy School and likes to collect rubber bands, coins, and stamps. His favorite food is steak and his ambition is to become a lawyer and Supreme Court Justice.

PHILLIP GAIL LEVY

Don't forget your entry for the Religious School Contest has to be in by April 30.

On April 23, the 6th grade will conduct a family worship service for the Junior Assembly and the 3rd grade will present a program for the Primary Assembly.

On April 30, the Junior Assembly will see the film, "Blue Sky", and the Primary Assembly will have a worship service conducted by the 6th grade.

On May 7, both Junior and Primary Assemblies will see a film. On that day, students in the Senior Group will be given the curriculum for next year and given an opportunity to select their courses for 1972-1973. On May 14, the 7th grade will meet with Mrs. Gorodetsky, who will discuss how our Senior Group operates and answering any questions. They will be given copies of the curriculum and asked to make their selections. Both courses and teachers will be listed in the curriculum.

Classes will be dismissed at 11:00 on May 14 and there will be a teachers meeting from then until noon.

The Bible lesson for April 23 is Lev. 19:18 and we shall discuss what it means to love our neighbors as ourselves.

Judaism Needs Guts as Matter of Survival

A Judaism which has only organizations, socializing and fund-raising cannot speak to souls in crisis. Parents whose Judaism is just talk or just for their children cannot expect their children to buy it.

A Judaism without prayer or study or guts will not hold the sensitive or the unhappy or the brilliant. They will seek out alternatives and many will find the Church.

We must not be surprised at this outcome. Our bland and thoughtless Judaism will not forever win the new generation. They will demand something serious and deep. If we do not offer them Maimonides and Buber, they will find Tillich and St. Thomas. If we do not help them read the Bible, they will find someone who can. If we don't find in our faith a way to suffer, to live and to serve, they will look somewhere else.

— Rabbi Arnold J. Wolf

UJA DRIVE OPENS APRIL 30

The 1972 Central Kentucky UJA Drive opens officially on April 30 with a gathering at the Kentucky Training Center at 8:00 P.M. with coffee and cake. The need this year is great, due to the increased immigration of Soviet Jews to Israel. All members are urged to attend this meeting and to support this vital drive.

"PLEDGE CARDS"

WHO'S AFRAID OF THE BIG BAD
PLEDGE CARD?

Do you shake in your boots at the sight of a pledge card? Why? The United Jewish Appeal doesn't want your money, but needs it desperately.

UJA doesn't expect anyone to give beyond his means.

UJA isn't going to turn your pledge card over to a collection agency or take you to court if circumstances prevent you from meeting the pledge.

Could it be that you turn pale at the point of a pledge card, not because UJA is asking too much, but rather, because the card may reveal how much you are holding back for yourself?

How about facing up to the pledge card like a man?

KEEP THE PROMISE!

USE OF TEMPLE FACILITIES

We have many organizations and groups using our Temple facilities and we are pleased to be able to accommodate them in this way. However, we are finding that not everyone checks with the Temple office and clears the time and date, which has caused confusion. Please be certain that this is taken care of by your group, so that proper arrangements can be made for you.

MAY 14 Annual Meeting and Dinner

Important Reports, Messages, Discussions, Election . . .

A delicious dinner will be prepared by members of the Sisterhood for this occasion. If your schedule does not permit you to attend the dinner, please make arrangements to attend the meeting. Reservations which must be accompanied by check made payable to Temple Adath Israel Sisterhood will close positively May 12. Cost will be only $2.50 per person including wine with your dinner.

Please mark the date, May 14, on your calendar at 6:30 P.M. and plan to attend this most important event.

AUCTION

Council does it again! On Wednesday, April 26th, Mrs. James Frankel, 212 Chinoe Road will be hostess to the Lexington Council of Jewish Women's second annual spring auction. For admission to this delightful gourmet "pot luck" luncheon and fun-filled afternoon, you should bring an item or items which you no longer have need for or room for but which you're sure will be just right for one of those lucky ladies on April 26th. The money which our talented Council auctioneer will collect will be used in a number of ways: 1. toward the purchase of an educational TV for a disadvantaged Israeli kindergarten under Council's ship-a-box program, 2. toward specific books and educational materials for Council's mini-library, Council's Suitcase Theatre and other local projects - present and new next year. The time is 12 noon. If you plan to bring a guest, please notify Anita Baker, 266-8675. For babysitting information call Sheila Levine, 277-2431. If further questions, call Susan Callier, 266-1344.

UNITY DAY

April 30th is the Day of Unity in concern for Soviet Jewry. The following Resolution was adopted the evening that Dr. Dan Jacobs spoke to the Jewish community on the situation of Soviet Jewry:

A RESOLUTION adopted on March 22, 1972, by the Jewish Community of Lexington, Kentucky, petitioning the President of these United States to appeal to the leaders of the Soviet Union on behalf of the Jews in Russia.

WHEREAS, discrimination against Soviet Jews exists in all phases of life: in education, public life and professions, in cultural life and in religion; and

WHEREAS, discriminatory practices have included the following a ban on the existence of religious schools, one theological seminary which has recently been closed, the closing of hundreds of synagogues, the closing of Jewish cemeteries, the sentencing to death of Jews for so called economic crimes and for the crime of trying to leave the Soviet Union, a ban on the publication of prayer books, Bibles and Hebrew calendars, a ban on the manufacturing of prayer shaws; and

WHEREAS, a Soviet Jew who wishes to escape from a life, which has become intolerable, after applying for an exit visa, must endure a prolonged period of mental, physical and emotional agony; and

WHEREAS, we the members of the Jewish community of Lexington, Kentucky, protest the violation of the human rights of more than three million of our brethren, who are citizens of the U.S.S.R.; and

WHEREAS, the laws of our nation assume the self-evident truth that life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness are inalienable human rights;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it resolved by the Jewish Community of Lexington, Kentucky:

That we hereby petition Richard M. Nixon, the President of these United States to appeal to the Soviet Union:

1. To restore its Jewish citizens to a position of equality with its citizens of all other nationalities of the Soviet Union.

2. To permit its Jewish citizens to freely practice, enhance and perpetuate their culture and religion by removing all discriminatory measures designed to restrict this freedom.

3. To make available the institutions, schools, text books and materials necessary to teach Jewish children the languages, the history, the beliefs, the practices and the aspirations of the Jewish people.

4. To permit the Jews of Russia freely to develop Jewish communal life and to associate and work with Jewish communities and groups inside and outside the Soviet Union.

5. To use all the means at its disposal to eradicate anti-semitism.

6. To permit Soviet Jewish families, separated as a result of the Nazi holocaust to be reunited with their relatives abroad.

From the Rabbi's Desk —

This month our local WA drive gets underway and every member of the Jewish community will be asked to contribute to this worthy cause.

In my discussions with the local leaders of our WA I have an opportunity to sharing in their thinking and also to discuss the plans they have for this annual drive. And in the recent weeks two disturbing things have caught my attention and which I think ought to have wider publicity.

The first is that I learned that only half of our Temple membership contributes to this campaign. To me this fact is disgraceful. It speaks of a congregation that does not understand the Jewish concept of Tzedakah — that it is right and proper for each of us to share of our wherewithal with those less fortunate than ourselves. Such impecuniousness might be more understandable if we were living in poverty or deprivation, but when one looks at the scale of living, the cars, the clothes, the extravaganzas of Lexington Ferry, I find this kind of tight-fistedness inexcusable and a blot on the responsible Jewish conduct of the members of Temple Adath Israel.

Secondly, at the "large donors" evening on April 16, twenty pledge cards were turned in for a total of $14,000. Sam Rosenberg, the speaker, was noticeably disappointed at the response and said so publicly. I agree with him. If this is the leadership in our community, it is surely a poor showing and certainly no example for the followership. In other communities, such "leadership" would be laughable.

A couple of years ago one of our Religious School classes was studying Tzedakah and the teacher was trying to convince them that Jews were generous people. The students would not believe him and so he had to bring in a current issue of Fortune to prove his contention. The children would not believe him because they knew their parents too well. The 1972 WA campaign is a good time to begin to alter the tightwad image we have created for our children over the years. Let us be generous in our support.

Mail

The following letter was received by Mrs. Edith Weil, Representative of the National Jewish Welfare Board:

Dear Mrs. Weil,
In behalf of our hospital patients, I want to express my sincere appreciation to the members of your organization for sponsoring the very nice St. Patrick's Day party. The men look forward to this party each year.

The refreshments of homemade cakes and ice cream were really outstanding and the patients want you to know how much they enjoyed them. They also appreciated the canteen books which you gave as prizes for the bingo games.

Gratitude most deeply felt is often the hardest to express. We hope, however, that this letter will convey to some extent our genuine appreciation for this contribution to our hospital program.

Sincerely yours,

From the Rabbi's Desk

The annual Temple meeting will be held on Sunday evening, May 14, at 6:30 P.M. in the Temple Vestry. This is the one time in the congregational year when we all get together to consider and discuss the program and the directions in which we are going.

This year there are a number of reasons that I would especially urge your attendance.

One is to hear and consider the report of the Future Planning Committee. Chuck Gorodetzky and Erle Levy have done a fine job and it is the first time in many years that this committee has provided a realistic and constructive view into our future, if the discussions of merged facilities do not bear fruit. The plans are exciting and deserve our attention.

Secondly, you ought to hear first hand of our financial situation. All the letters in the world are not as good as being present for a discussion, where you can have your questions answered. There are problems, but let us meet them together.

And thirdly, we had a very exciting year. It is heartwarming to review it together. This pleasure should be shared with every member.

Letters have been sent out about the meeting. Send in your reservations. Be present. And as Jr. Stern says: "See you there."

Come prepared to enjoy!

On May 7 also, Mrs. Gorodetzky will distribute the curriculum for the Senior Group for next year and answering any questions. Students will be asked to sign up for courses before the start of School in September, with choices being given on a first come basis. So don't delay if you want the courses you select.

May 14 is our closing session. Classes will be dismissed at 11:00. There will be a teachers meeting from 11:00 until noon. Prizes will be given out for the Religious School contest.

The Bible lesson for May 7 is Lev. 25:10 and we shall discuss freedom and what it means to be able to return to one's family after being a slave.

From the Rabbi's Desk

The Religious School year ends this Sunday, as you will note that column, and while I am not one for bragging or boasting, I can't help myself in this regard. We had a most exciting year of it and I want to thank and praise all of the teachers and students who worked so hard and well to make it turn out this way.

I must admit that I started the year with misgivings. The changes we planned to make in the 8 - 10th grades were extensive and I was not able to find any other Reform Religious School giving their students the freedoms we contemplated. Nonetheless, we went ahead and took the chance, I suspect because Barbara and I still liked our program better than what we read other congregations were doing.

And the results seemed to indicate that somehow what we were doing was right. There was excitement in the Jewish art class and the Jewish cooking class. There was novelty in producing one's own films and slides, in having a mock sacrificial service in the vestry (of all places). There was creativity in making stained windows and preparing a Confirmation Service from scratch in six weeks. There was something new and different being done almost every session. I found it hard to keep abreast of all the projects and the techniques being used. And all of this in addition to the programs, films, and plays of the lower grades.

Sunday morning was a jumping place in the Temple this year. It was just great! And I want to thank in print everyone who contributed to making our Religious School efforts so fine. Without your support and interest, it could not be done.

Next year's syllabus is being distributed to the students this Sunday. There will be more exciting classes, all of which have limits on the number of students who can enroll. It will be first come, first served. Don't let your child be disappointed. We hope to make next year even more appealing to our students than this one was - a major task for us all

The congregational year is winding down. The annual meeting has taken place, new officers and board members installed, reports given and review of our activities made. Just a couple of Bar Mitzvahs and our weekly summer services will maintain us until the High Holidays in the fall. From my personal standpoint, the comparative quiet of the forthcoming season will be a welcome day.

But the quiet of the summer should also be productive. It should be a time when we stop to view our activities and evaluate where we have been as a congregation and where we ought to go in the future. We have had our successes. But they are now past history. What should we be doing next year or even five years hence?

And what about our own personal lives? The relative quiet of the summer should give us a chance to consider this aspect of things also. Too often we are on a tread mill, just spinning our wheels and really getting nowhere. We do nothing significant with our lives. We waste our time and just dissipate our energies. Summer affords us an opportunity to reevaluate this facet of our beings also. We ought to take a long, serious look at ourselves. It may prove most worthwhile.

Let us each enjoy the summer in his own way, so that comes the fall we may begin again with refreshed souls and renewed spirits.

William J. Leffler
Rabbi

I BELIEVE: A PERSONAL CREDO

BY SALLY PRIESAND

I believe in God. I believe in the worth of the individual. I believe in Judaism as a way of life. I believe that Judaism is worth preserving. I believe that Judaism is especially relevant today in a world which seeks peace and brotherhood, in a world which is struggling to establish equality among men and to recognize the merit of every individual, in a world which demands that words be joined by deeds.

I believe that the Jewish past, present, and future are united and cannot be separated, that the Jewish present is lived by drawing on the tradition of the Jewish past and working toward the fulfillment of the Jewish future. I believe that study is a necessity in understanding our heritage.

I believe that a rabbi is a scholar, a teacher, a preacher, a leader, a counselor, a comforter, a preserver of Judaism, and a human being. I do not believe that it is the responsibility of the rabbi to live Judaism for his congregants; they must fulfill their own obligations as Jews and as individuals.

I believe in the mission of Israel. I believe that the children of Israel were chosen not in the sense of superiority, but in the sense of responsibility. I believe that the idea of the covenant forms the basis of the Jewish birthright, a birthright which has been passed from generation to generation in prosperity and in persecution, a birthright for which our people have lived and died, a birthright which now belongs to us.

I do not believe that it is easy to be a Jew. The road of history has been a difficult one. The Egyptians oppressed us, but we escaped. The Romans persecuted us, but we survived. The Spanish and the English barred us from their shores and we wandered across the face of the earth. The Germans tried to exterminate us, but a remnant endured. And now we have returned to our ancient homeland, but even there we are daily threatened by our Arab neighbors. No, it is not easy to be a Jew. It takes courage: it takes fortitude; it takes guts, for the Jew has become the conscience of the world. To be a Jew means that you are keenly aware of all that is happening around you. To be a Jew means that you cannot stifle the voice of conscience that cries out at all the hatred and violence and injustice that we see in the world today. To be a Jew means that you are willing to aid your fellowman, not because there is something in it for you, but because he is a human being, a child of God, your brother. To be a Jew is the feeling you get when you walk into a temple and see the Torah, in all its beauty, lifted from the Ark and hear the words of the Rabbi: "This is the covenant which dedicates Israel to the One and Eternal God. This is the Torah, the pillar of right and of truth. This is the Law that proclaims the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of man." And suddenly five thousand years flash before your mind and you consider how many of our ancestors have died that no harm might come to this most prized possession and you pray: "God, let me be worthy." To be a Jew is the feeling you get when two hundred voices break the stillness of the synagogue as Jews from all over the world raise their voices together to recite the Shema. To be a Jew is the exultation you feel when you hear the news that your brothers in Israel have been successful in defeating their enemies who try desperately to obliterate them from the face of the earth. To be a Jew is the warmth with which you respond when fellow Jews and fellow human beings are in danger. To be a Jew is the satisfaction you experience when Arthur Goldberg is appointed Ambassador to the United Nations or when Nelly Sachs wins the Nobel Prize for Literature or when Albert Sabin receives worldwide acclaim for discovering the oral polio vaccine or when Richard Tucker sings in the Metropolitan Opera. To be a Jew is the pride you feel at your son's Bar Mitzvah, the joy you experience as your daughter stands under the chupah, the naches you glean from your grandchildren, the sorrow you feel at the loss of a loved one. To be a Jew is chicken soup and matzos balls, challah and chopped liver, bagel and lox, knishes and noodle kugel.

I believe in Israel as the land of our heritage. I believe that all Jews who wish to live there should be allowed to do so. I believe that the Diaspora is equally important. I believe that we should learn to live at peace with our brothers in the Diaspora rather than attempting to abolish it.

I believe that we have a responsibility to contribute to that great storehouse of history, culture, and tradition which stretches back into time. I believe that we must provide a meaningful Jewish experience for our children. I believe that Judaism must be practiced in every facet of our lives with every fiber of our beings. I believe that we can and should be proud of our heritage, for our people have contributed much to the history of mankind. I believe that we can develop a meaningful and viable and living Judaism for today and that we have the responsibility to do so.

I believe that our tradition summons us to greatness. The mountain is high; the journey is long; the tasks are great; perhaps we will not finish the work which lies ahead, but as we have been taught in the Mishnah that is no reason to desist from it. Indeed, we owe it to ourselves, to our children, to our ancestors, and to our God to move forward on the long road of Jewish achievement that we might truly say: "Yes, Lord, You are our God, and we are Your People."

ROSH HASHANAH MESSAGE of the PRESIDENT of
HEBREW UNION COLLEGE-JEWISH INSTITUTE OF RELIGION

Another Jewish year has ended. In our long history it will be but a small moment in the eternal constellation of our people's destiny. In our individual minds, the occasions of the day will be forgotten, but the measure of elation or despair, of achievement or failure will color our feelings and shape our expectations.

There was much to be grateful for -- in this country, the waning of violent extremism that tore at the fibers of our society; in Israel, if not peace at least the absence of war; in Russia the unbendable courage of Jews that sent many of them on the way to Israel. There was and there continues to be much to be concerned about. We need to remain vigilant about the rights of man - a millennial concern of the Jewish people. We need also to stand loyally and dependably alongside our brothers to create that overarching unity which needs to become characteristic of the Jewish people.

And so, as the year turns, may all of us pray for a good new year giving us hope in the promises of the future, courage to meet the obstacles on our way, and renewed faith in the living strength of our heritage.

Alfred Gottschalk

HIGH HOLY DAYS 5733
(1 Tishri through 10 Tishri)

ROSH HASHANAH

Friday evening, September 8, 1972
Saturday, September 9, 1972

YOM KIPPUR

Sunday evening, September 17, 1972
Monday, September 18, 1972

The quality and character of the High Holy Days differ from all other holidays in the Jewish year. The ten day period, beginning with Rosh Hashanah on the first of Tishri and concluding with Yom Kippur on the tenth of Tishri, is known as Yamim Noraim - the Days of Reverence. These two holy days are not connected with any historical event in the life of the people of Israel, nor is the theme agricultural in nature as are all other festal days. In a very basic sense, the Yamim Noraim are the most personal of the Jewish holy days, speaking only incidentally to the community of Israel. The message is to each person as an individual, requiring him to search his inner being, his life-style, his values, his relationships with others. The noble ethical values of the Jewish people are held up as a yardstick through worship in the synagogue, but the responsibility remains with the individual to measure his own life. This is a concept of great sophistication, requiring each of us to exercise incredible insight into ourselves, and the ability to make the necessary changes in our life style.

The origins of Rosh Hashanah as the New Year and Yom Kippur as the Day of Atonement are obscure. Casual mention may be found in the Bible by the careful researcher. The Yamim Noraim are a later development in Judaism, characteristic of a religion having emerged from its agricultural origins.

Cloaked in layers of mysticism and homiletical interpretations over the centuries, the single most telling symbol of Rosh Hashanah is the blowing of the shofar - the ram's horn. Today, the shofar calls on Rosh Hashanah morning remind us of the serious introspection demanded of us during the coming ten days, and the sounds of the tekiah, teruah, sevarim have a bone-chilling effect, reaching to the marrow of the human soul.

The feeling of Yom Kippur is not one of mourning, but rather one of seriousness. The Kol Nidre chant sets the tone for the day of fasting and soul-searching. More a legal formula than a prayer, it expresses the idea that man's plans and promises, no matter how earnest, cannot always be fulfilled. In the coming year - as in the past year - promises made to God and to the worshipper himself may be wiped clean from the slate. However, those commitments made to one's fellow man are not so easily eradicated: this is an issue between man and man.

The Hebrew word chet is usually translated in English as "sin." This, however, is not a translation which carries the message of the Hebrew. Chet has its origins in archery, and the term is used to indicate "missing the mark." Such is the Jewish concept of sin - the missing of one's goal, losing sight of the important things in life. Among those spelled out for the congregation are sinning through word of mouth, abuse of power, disrespect for parents and teachings, exploitation of one's neighbor.

The most poignant moment of the day comes in the Ne-ilah Service, the very last moments of Yom Kippur as the sun's shadow covers more and more of the earth. "Thou desirest not the death of the sinner, but that he return to Thee and live. Wide open are the gates of Thy forgiveness to all who truly seek to be reconciled with Thee," says the Union Prayer Book. "Trusting in Thy gracious promise, we have come before Thee, O Father, conscious of our guilt, yearning for Thine altars of peace. Condemned by the judge within us, we reflect sorrowfully on a life misused and filled with regrets, on opportunities neglected and resolves come to naught," the liturgy continues.

Then, as if in a final reminder, the great call of the shofar is sounded, and the Yamim Noraim comes to a close.

TEMPLE YOUTH GROUP

Despite the starting of school this past week, TYG'ers have been very busy. Rehearsals for the Selichot Service to be held Saturday, September 2 at 10:30 were held every day and there was a General Board Meeting Thursday, August 31, to prepare and program the first meeting. Our first Fall meeting will be a dinner meeting at 5:30 P.M. on September 3 at the Temple. An interesting program is being planned, so we hope to have a large turn-out.

The Temple Youth Group taught Israeli dancing to the congregation after services last Friday night. If the reaction is positive, we look forward to making this a regular practice.

Welcome home to our Youth Group members who attended O.V.F.T.Y.-TOOT at U.C.I. in Zionsville, Indiana. They are: Don Stern, Howard Gerson, Bruce Miller, Jeff Wurmser, Sharon Frankel, Leslie Lipton, Laura Sue Levy, Pay Silber, Jeff Puttenberg and Jill Edelson. We know (firsthand!) that they had some trouble staying awake the first few days of school.

See you all on Sunday!

RABBI'S MESSAGE

Once again we start a New Year and I see the Temple calendar in front of me, with some of the dates already spoken for through next fall. We do not waste time at Temple Adath Israel.

And as I look at the calendar it looks like we shall be having an interesting and inspiring year. Our annual Sukkot service will be held outdoors, on the Mt. Tabor Road property, and written and conducted by our Youth Group. We shall have three Family Night worship services, similar to the successful one we held last year. The first one, on September 29th, will also be in honor of Consecration.

We have four out of town speakers lined up for the year: Rabbi Jack Spiro, Director of the Commission on Jewish Education of the UAHC; Mr. Seymour Brief, who is with the American Jewish Committee; Rabbi Aaron B. Ilson of Temple Sinai in Pittsburgh, and Dr. Michael Meyer, Professor of History at HUC.

Mrs. Audrey Friedman, editor of Alternatives in Religious Education, heard of our program and has labelled it a "Scholar-in-Residence" program, which sounds very impressive and I think we shall use it.

The Adult Education Committee is planning a five session series for November and December. The Social Action Committee will be having some meetings on subjects of current importance. The Worship Committee will be critiquing the text of a new revision of the Union Prayer Book. There will be an Ohio Valley Council UAHC Biennial in Cincinnati next month. And of course our auxiliaries will be having their functions also.

So it really looks like a varied, exciting and inspiring year for us. Don't be bashful. Join in. Congregational activities are open to all members.

William J. Leffler
Rabbi

SISTERHOOD

Our first meeting for the New Year will be held Wednesday, September 27th at 12:30 P.M. in the Vestry. The program is: "Learning From Our Children", starring some of our Temple preschoolers. Price is $1.50.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Religious School starts on September 10. All classes will be in session that day. If you have not preregistered your child, this will be done in the Library and there is a $1.00 late registration fee.

On September 10, the Primary Assembly will see the filmstrip, "The High Holy Days" and the Junior Assembly the film, "Birds", which deals with the absurdity of discrimination.

On October 24, the Junior Assembly will see the film, "Count Your Blessings", which deals with Sukkot and the Second grade will present a program for the Primary Assembly.

The Bible lesson for September 10 is Numbers 6:21 and 30:3 and we shall discuss what a vow is, why we make them and why we have to be careful with them.

GREATNESS

A man is as great as the dreams he dreams,
As great as the love he bears,
As great as the values he redeems,
And the happiness he shares.
A man is as great as the thoughts he thinks,
As the worth he has attained,
As the fountains at which his spirit drinks,
And the insight he has gained.
A man is as great as the truth he speaks,
As great as the help he gives,
As great as the destiny he seeks,
As great as the life he lives.

TEMPLE MAIL

The following was received from Rabbi Balfour Brickner, Director of Commission on Interfaith Activities, UAHC:

Dear Friend:

Thank you for responding so generously to our emergency Flood Relief Fund appeal. Your check has been placed in a special fund and will be used to help our congregations get back on their spiritual feet.

We are already receiving requests from a number of our affected congregations. Your gift will be of great assistance to them. We are all deeply appreciative of your kindness.

Sincerely,

Balfour Brickner

TEMPLE YOUTH GROUP

The Youth Group has been busy during the past week as the New Year began. We led the congregation in Israeli dancing after Friday night services, presented the Selichot Service, and had the first fall meeting all in one weekend.

The first meeting got us off to a good start with dancing and singing after dinner. Then we had a business meeting and everyone found out how much work we're going to be doing.

The Worship Committee is now starting to prepare for the Sukkot Service, and the Program Committee will be in charge of the Shul-in to be held after the service on September 22. We also will have a Break-the-Fast dinner after Yom Kippur at 8:00 P.M. on September 18 and we are babysitting for High Holy Day Services.

Anyone with complaints can call 000-0000 (no telling who you will get, but it should be interesting.)

HEBREW SCHOOL

Hebrew School starts on Thursday, September 21. Those who wish to register children are requested to call the Temple office. As in the past, fees are $10.00 for the year per student.

THANK YOU

Rabbi and Mrs. Leffler wish to thank the many members of the congregation who sent them Rosh Hashanah cards and to extend in return their warmest wishes for a happy and healthy New Year.

From the Rabbi's Desk

The world is still in a turmoil from the horrible events at the Munich Olympics. The world reaction of distress and concern has subsided a little; but now it appears that fighting may break out anew in the Middle East, not a very auspicious way to start a New Year. Hopefully it is not an ill omen.

As I continued to ponder the events of that week, a news release came across my desk which compiled the reaction of different religious groups to the massacre in the Lod Airport last May. They were all filled with outrage and described a number of memorials that were held for those who were slaughtered.

However, as I compared the reaction to the two incidents the number of comparisons began to stand out very clearly.

The United Nations reacted quickly to the outbreak of fighting after the May massacre. World Jewry reacted immediately with prayer and loud protest after the Munich terrorism. Even though many of those who were killed in Lod were Christian pilgrims, the outcry from this major world religion, while it did occur, was nowhere as vocal. When we compare the murder of 26 persons and the wounding of 80 in Lod to the murder of the 11 hostages in Munich, the difference in reaction becomes stark.

What the outcome of this horrendous deed and its aftermath will be is difficult to say. Hopefully it will not precipitate a new outbreak of hostilities. Both our prayers and our efforts for peace will be sorely needed in the New Year.

William J. Leffler
Rabbi

Religious School

The first session of Religious School went very well. Excitement ran high over the new and interesting courses we are offering this year. The Junior Assembly saw a fine film on prejudice and the Primary Assembly saw a new film strip on the Holidays.

On September 24, Mrs. Jacobs' second grade will present a program on the Holiday of Sukkot and the Junior Assembly will see a film, "Count Your Blessings".

Consecration is September 29 and there will be a Family Worship Service that evening, at 6:30. Since dinner will be after the service, it is suggested that your children have a snack to tide them over until food is served.

On October 8, the Primary Assembly will see a film "Shalom Israel" which presents a view of Israel with an interesting musical accompaniment and the Junior Assembly will see a film entitled "An Occurrence at Owl Creek Bridge," which centers about an incident in the Civil War and the hanging of a saboteur.

The Bible passage for September 17 is Num. 6:22-27, the Priestly Blessing, and we shall discuss what a blessing is and what it can mean to the students.

We have a number of new faculty members this year:

Mrs. Judy Gewirtzman in the Pre-Kinderergarten, a most welcome former teacher; Mrs. Shelley Portnoy in the Third Grade; Dr. Harriette Rose in the Senior Group, a returnee after many years; Mr. Craig Singer in the Senior Group; Laura Lou Levy and Leslie Lipton with our music and dance program, and Mr. I.H. Stern, Jr. in the Audio-Visual program - a welcome returnee also.

TEMPLE YOUTH GROUP

The TYG is very busy preparing for several projects that are coming up. On September 22, we will be presenting the Sukkot Service at the chapel on Mt. Tabor Road. Practices are under way - we hope to see a lot of people there.

The same evening, the Youth Group is having a shul-in with the two youth groups from Louisville. They will be arriving after 4:30 that Friday and will come to the service. Afterwards we will return to the Temple where there will be all night programming.

Now that we've made sure the Worship and Program committees have plenty to do, we can check on the other members of TYG. A Hagigah is being planned for February and there will be more on that later. Several fund raising projects are being arranged, study sessions will be programmed and the youth group has decided to redecorate the TYG Room. If anyone has suggestions please contact us.

On Yom Kippur, there will be babysitting provided by TYG, which will also be having a Pot Luck Break-the-Fast dinner at the home of Jill Halson at 8:00 P.M. If you need directions or information, call her at 269-3931. She probably will not be there.

Happy 5733 to all from us and
Shalom.

TEMPLE MAIL

The following letter was received by Rabbi Leffler this past week from Rabbi John Levi of Temple Beth Israel, Melbourne, Australia:

Dear Bill,

Your Torah Mantle has arrived as a Rosh Hashanah present for us. It is in excellent condition. I can't understand how we have merited it, but it is very welcome and we are pleased.

Brian Fox has arrived and my work load has totally altered (for the better.) It is wonderful to have him back and it is a great delight to have a fellow HUC graduate as a new colleague. We not only come from the world, we speak the same language, we have been trained in the same way - and all this is very important.

With best wishes for a happy New Year and with many thanks, I am

Yours sincerely,

Many "happineses" do occur in our congregants' lives, and The Temple would like to share those moments with you. Needless to say, our temple can't congratulate you if someone in the family neglects to call in the good news. We want to hear about new babies, marriages, special birthdays and honors.

You can help us in this effort by keeping The Temple office abreast of these occasions.

PARENTS, PARENTS, PARENTS!

If your child is away at school and you want him to receive the Temple Bulletin, please call the Temple office, 266-3251 and give Mrs. Thurman the address. RABBI'S MESSAGE

The observance of Sukkot, with the building of the lovely Sukkah and the aromas of fall that fill it, pointedly reminds us of the end of another agricultural year - that the cycle of planting and harvest has come to an end once more for now. Only a few months ago we anticipated the return of green to the countryside, and now that season is about over and the hues of fall are upon us. Life moves so very rapidly before our very eyes!

And there are other cycles that we note at this time. The Torah cycle begins once more. Just as with the seasons, there is no end, so too with the reading of the Torah, there is no end. We conclude Deuteronomy and begin Genesis immediately. Learning does not cease. It goes on and on.

And within our congregation, the same thing occurs. We observe the consecration of new students in our Religious School. Life goes on and on. A new generation of children begins their Jewish education. They are wonderful, delightful children, our children. They represent the cycle of our lives and will eventually be the harvest of our efforts in life. They merit our most tender love and attention for them to mature into worthwhile people. On the fragile Sukkah of our lives, these children will be the fruit of our efforts. May they be beautiful to behold!

TEMPLE YOUTH GROUP

Well, the High Holy Days are over for another year. We've finished baby-sitting for another year. We've atoned for last year's sins and we're ready to begin on some new ones.

The whole TYG fasted on Yom Kippur for the Break-the-Fast dinner although some of us fasted faster than others, and those of us who don't believe in fasting, maybe at least fasted until breakfast. The dinner was a success, although we did stand outside for twenty minutes counting the stars (a few of our members had to witness three stars with their very own eyes before eating) and a flat tire delayed a couple more people from eating - but they really were not hungry anyway.

At the time this is being written TYG is busy preparing for an exciting weekend. It is planned as follows: dinner at Temple Friday night, then Sukot services at the Chapel, and then back to Temple for a whole night of programming and...fun. Louisville TYG is supposed to join us for the affair.

Fall subregional applications are going out now, but beware - Jack is guarding them. If you try hard enough, maybe it would be possible to steal one.

Well, happy Sukot everybody and
Shalom

Letter

The following was sent to Prime Minister Golda Meir, Jerusalem, Israel, by Mrs. David M. Levitt, President of NPTIS, on September 6th:

Dear Madam Prime Minister:

We send the deepest sympathy of our grieving hearts to you, to the families of the slain Israelis, to the nation of Israel and to our fellow Jews throughout the world with whom we share this tragic, great loss to our people and to humanity. Young people, dedicated to the highest Olympic ideals of sportsmanship, brotherhood and courage, have been senselessly killed by evil hatred. This is a Kol Nidre of the soul for all people of good will of whatever race or creed.

We shall continue to press, on behalf of the Officers and more than 100,000 members of the National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods, women's agency of Reform Judaism - as well as personally for ourselves - the Government of the United States to use every method and influence to build with other nations a greater protection of innocent human beings. Only as we change the climate of violence everywhere in the world and spirit will we rear a genuine memorial to our Munich victims and their predecessors, who have lost their lives in the long history of mankind's persecutions of our own and other peoples.

This tragedy, like earlier Arab terrorism, can only strengthen the determination of our people everywhere that Israel shall continue to be an example of extraordinary fortitude and valor, as well as an inspiration to mankind.

Sincerely,

Norma Levitt
President

RABBI'S MESSAGE

This past week a Torch was dedicated in Louisville, marking the beginning of the 25th anniversary of the founding of the State of Israel. It was an impressive and exciting ceremony, with a large number of dignitaries present to mark this important milestone.

Israel plays a significant role for us today. It literally arose out of the ashes of the Holocaust. Its achievements have made us stand taller as Jews. Its military efforts have been remarkable. Its social and medical advances have been the source of world acclaim. Its tourist business has boomed. It is truly a unique country and as Jews, we feel a part of it.

However, at the advent of this silver anniversary of its founding, I think it is about time that we began to make a much needed distinction in how we view this remarkable nation. For too long there has been a confusion which has disturbed me - between Israel as a viable political entity among other nation states and Israel as a pushke.

If Israel is going to survive as an independent nation, then we are going to have to begin to act toward her as a nation in the same way as we do toward other nations. Where we disagree with her political decisions, we should be able to voice these differences without having to fear other Jews call us "traitor." When we set standards of behavior for nations, there ought not be a special one for Israel. When we purchase Israel Bonds, we should do so as a business investment and not as a charitable contribution.

These distinctions are still very much blurred, even after 25 years, and I feel it is now time that we began to separate them. This means that we can still be pro-Israel and question her political policies. We do this about American decisions without having to face all kinds of approbation. It means that we need to stop thinking of Israel as only populated by Tzadikim, but rather by human beings with the full range of human foibles. It means that we shall have to make a much greater distinction between a UJA drive and a Bonds for Israel dinner.

Admittedly, the distinction is a difficult one to make. Our ties of affection for Israel are very strong. But if she is going to be permitted to mature as a nation, I feel strongly that we shall have to help her in this way.

CONGRATULATIONS

Shayna Elaine Lerner has arrived - September 26, 1972 - the gift of Freda and Mike Lerner. Happy grandparents are Dr. & Mrs. Sherman Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lerner.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

The Religious School continues to buzz with activity and excitement. There is so much going on! The large storage room under the Vestry has been cleared and our music and dance program is being held there. The Senior Group music course is being held in the TYG Lounge. There really is not a corner of unused space on Sunday. It is a jumping place.

On October 1, the fourth grade will present a program about the Jewish wedding at 10:30.

On October 8, the Junior Assembly will see the film, "An Occurrence at Owl Bridge" which deals with the hanging of a saboteur in the Civil War, at 10:30, and the Primary Assembly will see the film, "Shalom Israel" at 11:00. Parents are invited to attend all assembly programs.

The Bible passage for October 1 is Num. 11:18-20 and we shall discuss how we can have too much of a good thing and the need for moderation.

SISTERHOOD

As College Youth Chairman for the Sisterhood of Adath Israel, it is my job to see that all students in our area get home hospitality and/or transportation to Temple whenever they request it. This year twenty students from Eastern and the University of Kentucky requested this service in order to observe the High Holy Days. On their behalf, I would like to thank those members of this congregation and of Ohavay Zion who provided this hospitality.

It is also part of my job to send to the regional chairman the names of our own students who are attending schools elsewhere, so they can benefit from this same service. Please send to me the names, addresses and telephone numbers of your out of town students. Thank you.

ADULT EDUCATION CLASSES

The community has had several study groups in the past on contemporary Jewish literature, so we thought it might be interesting to study our ancient heritage. Therefore, we are planning 5 successive Monday night sessions on the following subjects:

November 13 - Bible
November 20 - Apocrypha
November 27 - New Testament
December 4 - Mishnah and Talmud
December 11 - Midrash

Mark your calendar now. We'll be meeting at 7:30 P.M. at the Temple.

CHASIDISM: THE INNER LIFE

A weekend Institute for 7th and 8th grade students at the camp in Zionsville, Indiana. Dates are November 3-5, 1972. Institute consists of a look at Chasidic thought and way of life, worship, songs, study material, etc. Register now! Fee is $20.00. A deposit of $5.00 is necessary to reserve a place. Reservations are due by October 13th. If you are interested, please call the Temple office.

TEMPLE YOUTH GROUP

Well, the shul-in is over (therefore the Sukot service is over too since it came before). The first batch of Louisville kids came in at 6:30 at which time we all promptly, starvantly, devoured supper. Then we all rushed out to the chapel for Sukot services. If anyone was still hungry, they could eat fruit. ---Back to the Temple again, this time for the night. Bus #2 finally arrived. The night was filled with Israeli dancing (and waiting too - would you believe), singing, a movie - not x-rated, unfortunately, a midnight snack (at 2:30 A.M. naturally) a friendship circle, and

(This is a fill-in-the-blank. Pick an answer and send it to TYG, Temple Adath Israel. Winners will be announced).

We had our good-bye friendship circle at 9:30 (for those of us who could wake up - or had never gone to sleep). -- Then people began leaving, amidst sad good-byes and promises to meet again. Lexington kids stumbled home - or tried - and into bed.

NEW NEWS - our "Baby Member of the Month" (this is a big honor) is Cookie Gerson on all her hard work on our Worship Committee and in the rest of the Youth Group. She adds another guitar to the group and another willing volunteer. (She must be crazy!) So all you other Baby Members have something to work for.

Isn't everybody dying to know what's coming up next in the Youth Group. I don't know so I can't tell you, but we'll let you know before it happens (we hope). Anyway - be happy, and
Shalom

We are compiling the history of Temple Adath Israel for permanent preservation; this is an enormous and fascinating endeavor, and we need your help. If anyone is in possession of older photographs, letters, papers of any sort pertaining to this congregation, we would like to see them. This includes any minutes from board meetings or committee meetings.

We will welcome any additions to our permanent archives, or we will have copies made and return the original to the owner. Please contact Fanny Miller, 266-2400 or Sara Ann Levy, 266-2856.

Sermon - Jewish Jesus Freaks

Synopsis - One of the more recent manifestations we are finding among Jewish Youth are the "Jews for Jesus" movement. What are some of the reasons for this and what might be some reactions we might have?

RABBI'S MESSAGE

I always enjoy sharing good news and compliments with you. The other kinds of reactions circulate well enough, but often we fail to hear those things which are really worth sharing. And so I should like to convey to you some of the comments and reactions which I have received about our Religious School program.

In August, there was Teachers Institute in Cincinnati. In all, eleven persons attended, seven from our school. That, in and of itself, speaks well for our teachers. But over and above just the numbers game, we all came away with the distinct feeling that what we are doing is correct and worthwhile. Much of what was discussed and suggested, we have already accomplished. It is so nice to have others say you are on the right track.

And a week and a half ago I found out that the two Reform Congregations in Louisville are attempting to adopt our Senior Group program in their schools. This is a real compliment, since we often feel that congregations in larger cities do things better, just because they are bigger and have more expertise available. But it is not so, and we should be justly proud of what we have here.

The Religious School is a major budget item for us. It continues to be an exciting facet of our congregation. Stop by and see what makes it this way.

UNVEILING

The unveiling for Julius Weinberg will be held Sunday, October 15, 1972 at 2:00 P.M. in the Lexington Cemetery.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

On October 8, the Junior Assembly will see a remarkable film entitled "An Occurrence at Owl Creek Bridge", which depicts the hanging of a saboteur during the Civil War. The Primary Assembly will view the film, "Shalom Israel", which is a view of Israel with an interesting musical accompaniment. The showings are at 10:30 and 11:00.

On October 22, both assemblies will have a musical assembly.

The Seventh Grade will conduct worship services on October 29.

The Bible passage for October 8 is Num. 13:31-33 and we shall discuss how, when we are afraid of something, we manufacture all sorts of additional fears.

Because of the Sub-regional Conclave, the Senior Group classes will not meet on October 29. Therefore the Second Block, which starts October 22 will run until December 3. All those enrolled in the Senior Group, please note this change!

The 5th grade auction to raise money for the Leo Baeck School in Haifa, Israel is early this year - November 12. If anyone would like to donate articles, please bring them of the 5th grade classroom of Religious School. Please plan to attend this worthy affair on November 12, Sunday morning at 10:30.

The Religious School Music and Dance classes have been a big success, being led by Leslie Lipton and Laura Levy (LILL), and starting now, one grade per week will be formally noted in the Bulletin as being the most spirited and enthusiastic Music and Dance class. (When?) This week we salute the 5th grade (Mrs. Rosi Rosen, teacher). They are: Janna Weill, Jennifer Tucker, Jacob Wirtschatter, Jeff May, Lee Mayer, Missy Mandelbaum, Robin Stivers, Shari Eldot, and Sharri Sellers.

Come on, you guys! See if you can win next week!

There is no room for God in him who is full of himself.

BROTHERHOOD BANTER

Brotherhood is off and running with a year of social activities and Temple work projects which should be exciting and interesting for everyone.

A few pioneers have paid their dues for this year. Please don't be the last on your block! Send a check for $12.00 today to Lou Rubin, "Keeper of the Coin". We'll even send you back an official membership card!

Once again this year Brotherhood members ushered at the High Holy Days services and for the first work project of the year provided the sukkah at the Mt. Tabor outdoor chapel.

FLASH! IMPORTANT!! ATTENTION!!!

Save the night of October 25 at 8:00 P.M. for the first (and really big) social activity of the Brotherhood year! There'll be something for everyone and we're especially looking forward to meeting new Temple members. More news will follow. Your only obligation at this point is to MARK YOUR CALENDAR FOR OCTOBER 25th.

Can you use a paint brush or hammer? Are you willing to spend a little time in the spirit of true brotherhood helping the Temple? If so, please watch the Bulletin for requests to join work parties. If it's not your kind of party, there'll be other kinds too.

ADULT EDUCATION CLASSES

The community has had several study groups in the past on contemporary Jewish literature, so we thought it might be interesting to study our ancient heritage.

Therefore, we are planning 9 successive Monday night sessions on the following subjects:
 November 13 - Bible
 November 20 - Apocrypha
 November 27 - New Testament
 December 4 - Mishnah and Talmud
 December 11 - Midrash

Mark your calendar now. We'll be meeting at 7:30 P.M. at the Temple.

TEMPLE YOUTH GROUP

Well, its October now and the TYG executive board has scheduled a lot of new and interesting activities. A complete list and calendar of coming events (to let you know what you're getting into) is included in our second issue of announcements, ANNOUNCEMENTS! - (the TYG newspaper - or reasonable facsimile thereof) - which, by the way, should be out by the time this column is published. For our next issue, we would appreciate any letters to the editor - songs, sayings, gossip, or anything else that is printable from TYGers. We're even selling classified ads (we have to pay for stamps somehow).

Our calendar for October includes a meeting the 8th on what is anybody's guess. Come and find out. Then, if possible, we hope to go roller skating the 15th, maybe we can try Israeli dancing on roller skates. We'll be trick or treating for UNICEF the 26th, then subs in Nashville 27-29th. Since freshmen can go to conclaves this year, we'll all be going, won't we? Nashville has a lot of nice kids - and Opryland, so it should be lots of fun.

Anybody with gripes or complaints can now call our official complaint-receiver, whose name is listed in our newspaper, but who shall remain nameless here (for fear that she'll kill me. She doesn't know that she has had this great honor bestowed upon her yet.)

Have a happy day and
 Shalom

TYG NEWS or WHAT'S HAPPENIN'!

We ended this week with a "do your own thing" meeting. (It wasn't exactly planned that way, but that's what happened.) First there was a business meeting (we think), then the group broke up into committees, all getting a lot of work done - right, gang? Finally, after all this, we got down to the important part of the meeting - volley ball and kite flying. For 10 points - who's missing a scarf - the kite mysteriously ended up in the electrical wires as the tall liked the view from there.

The planning of all this activity (not including getting the scarf lost) took place at a general board meeting. Somehow we managed to discuss about everything under the sun but TYG - "Get your driver's license!", "Pass the M & M's", "Let's have a party!" until finally you could have heard a pin drop (I thought milliners used pins, not Millers.) The respectful silence lasted about thirty seconds after the explosion. Then we went home.

We've planned lots of exciting events for October and November. Coming attractions include roller skating (good healthy fun), selling candy for the Kidney Foundation, and don't forget the party afterwards, and subs in Nashville. If anyone feels they don't have enough work to do, call Allen Mandelbaum or Jill Edelson - I'm sure they can locate something for you to do. (Anybody know how to work a mimeograph machine?) Complaints go to C.W.D. or the thus far non-existent suggestion box in the Temple Vestry.

Shalom

HELP!

The Religious School class in Temple Adath Israel Archives sends an urgent appeal to the congregation.

We are compiling the history of Temple Adath Israel for permanent preservation; this is an enormous and fascinating endeavor, and we need your help. If anyone is in possession of older photographs, letters, papers of any sort pertaining to this congregation, we would like to see them. This includes any minutes from board meetings or committee meetings.

We will welcome any additions to our permanent archives, or we will have copies made and return the original to the owner. Please contact Fanny Miller, 266-2400 or Sara Ann Levy, 266-2858.

SISTERHOOD

The next Sisterhood Luncheon Meeting will be held Wednesday, October 18 at 12:30 P.M. The speaker will be William McCann, author of the Merger Bill. Theme for the afternoon will be "Let Us Learn About City-County Merger." Make your reservations with Bea Rosenthal, 266-1382.

On the Sisterhood Anniversary calendar there is a correction to be made. Please notice that on the calendar Hanukkah is listed as being December 19 when actually the first day of Hanukkah is December 1.

UNVEILING

The unveiling for Julius Weinberg will be held Sunday, October 15, 1972 at 2:00 P.M. in the Lexington Cemetery.

From the Rabbi's Desk

A rabbi is often involved in activities of the general community, not only as some sort of official representative of the Jewish community to these activities, but also because he may have a specific interest in a specific activity or organization.

One of my hobbies over the course of years has been libraries. As a religious teacher, I know the importance of books as a source of knowledge and information. And as a person I know that the quality of the library is often a clue to the intellectual climate of a community.

Thus when we came to Lexington, some eight years ago, I was aghast at the inadequacy of the Public Library. It was decades behind the time in facilities, book collection, services and outlook. And so I began to question what was going on and request proper service for myself. Some people became upset, but I discovered that I also had the support of the State Librarian and other people who know what a good library can and ought to be. And over the years, my interest in the library has remained high.

Therefore, this past Sunday, as President of the Friends of the Library, I was just delighted to be able to MC the festivities of the opening of the first branch library in Lexington. It was truly an exciting afternoon. Judge Stephens and Mayor Petit were present to cut the ribbon. Over 400 persons came to inspect the new facility on Southland Drive. We have a devoted member of our congregation on the Library Board.

Things have improved immensely for us as a community. We are able to speak of a library system which is becoming adequate for our community. It is exhilarating to be part of progress like this.

TEMPLE YOUTH GROUP

If you are a TYGer or parent you know that we are extremely busy this month. We're doing all sorts of neat stuff, and some hard work too.

For our meeting October 15 we went skating. Even now, not being able to walk because of the blisters it gave me I say it was lots of fun. Just one question: How does one stop without running smack into the wall? Oh well, we only did a few things against the rules there (thirty of forty.) Then we went back to Temple, and after an excellent dinner, we played volleyball. Then, freezing, we went home.

We have two starving children that need food - Max, the coke machine (we get a commission) and Maxine, the newspaper van in the parking lot. Please help us feed them.

All you TYGers know how much you love Israeli dancing. Well, if you want a record order blank form for the music, contact Sharon Frankel at 277-7568.

Our extra special good deed for October will be selling candy for the Kidney Foundation on October 26. We'll meet in front of Henry Clay High School at 7:00 P.M. to sell the candy. Then, if we're lucky, we'll have a party afterwards.

The next day we leave for Nashville subregionals. We depart promptly (ha!) at 12:00 noon from the Temple. To help pay the cost of transportation, we're planning two fund raising projects - selling challah, and a leaf rake. (If you wish to have your yard raked Sunday, October 22, call Darrell Katz at 272-3194.) Industrious, aren't we? (Poor is closer.)

Lisa Rovin has asked me to announce the Hagigah that we will have February 16-18. The Hagigah is an Arts Festival, and is a regional event. Anyone interested in helping us out with housing people please call Don Stern, 277-0350, or Cookie Gerson, 277-4474. Also, any TYG member who does not know what committee he is on for the Hagigah, call Lisa Rovin, 277-9734.

We expect to see all our members at the leaf rake on Sunday, October 22, at 1:00 P.M. at the Temple ready to work. Right, gang!

Those who will be attending the subregionals in Nashville are:

Jeff Moosnick	Cindy Derer	Greg Frankel
Larry Scher	David Lieber	Joel Lieber
Carrie Leffler	Ray Silber	Claudia Silber
Susan Abisch	Laura S. Levy	Leslie Lipton
Robbie Stein	Don Stern	Allen Mandelbaum

RABBI'S MESSAGE

This coming Friday, October 27, marks the beginning of Jewish Book Month. It is an annual event sponsored by the Jewish Book Council of America, which also issues an annual on Jewish literature. We have enclosed in this issue of the Bulletin a book mark which I hope you will use to remind you of this celebration.

Books have always played a special role for us as Jews. Our tradition has been one of intellectual inquiry and investigation, discussion and debate. Much of this consideration has been transmitted to us through our literary tradition - a tradition which was not intended only for an elite, but for all Jews, so that every Jew might know what it means to be Jewish in his daily life situation.

Today the scope of Jewish literature is wider than it ever has been. Jewish novels are on the best seller list. Jewish authors abound. Israel is the topic of countless books. Jewish thought and problems attract both Jewish and non-Jewish writers. There is a wealth of literature for us to read, enjoy, and learn from. A good selection of these books can be found in the Temple Library. It is a good place to start.

RABBI'S MESSAGE

The current Presidential campaign has been another lack luster one so far. There certainly are lots of issues that need airing and debate - Vietnam (an old one already and one we are all tired of by now), pollution, welfare, education, the economy, urban problems, etc. But nobody seems to be excited about them. The noise level is "underwhelming."

I can't help wondering about this strange kind of silence. It ought not be, when I consider the enormity of the problems. And they beg for attention.

Perhaps, as a nation, we are all worn out. The riots and turmoil of 1965-70 have taken their toll on us. We have been sapped of our energies and just can't get up enough enthusiasm to show a commensurate amount of interest in what is occurring and what we are being asked to confront. And so the whole show is a lack-luster one:

We also seem to have lost interest in moral questions. The Watergate Incident, the Russian Grain deal, the ITT deal, the suit of the woman whose phone calls at the Fontainebleau were halted by the Republicans do not seem to rouse the moral indignation of our country. We seem hypnotized by the soothing words of non-involvement of our President. I cannot help contrast this lethargy with the furor at the end of the Truman administration over graft and the vicious cost episode of the Eisenhower administration. By comparison, they were "peanuts," but at least there we had some sort of indignation that could be aroused.

As a concerned observer, I find both of these silences most distressing. They are not very complimentary of the American people.

TYG NEWS

Beloved friends and neighbors! By the time this appears, we should be in Nashville, except in case of natural or otherwise disaster. Parents: When your own darling child returns, have a nice soft bed ready for him. You'll understand why when you see us getting off the bus Sunday afternoon.

Speaking of busses - This one has unfortunately resisted all our efforts to lose cost. Despite our most valiant efforts at making money to help lighten the load, the bus cost appears to be essentially the same as it began.

Oh well, we had fun making challah. When we kneaded the bread we played a game called, "Who do you hate most in the world" and that's who the dough became. We also made a few amazing discoveries (that dough sticks to your hands, and clothes, and hair - yech! and homework and challah do not mix too terribly well.)

Baking leaves and other assorted yard jobs was our second project. To sum it up - Why couldn't the wind have blown the day before instead of Sunday so all the leaves would be down and people would want their leaves raked?

The TYG is scheduled to sell Kidney Foundation candy Thursday, October 26. We'll let you know what happens.

By the way, did you see LLL's picture in the October, 1972 issue of Reform Judaism?

HAPPY HALLOWEEN!!

MUSIC INSTITUTE

A one day Music Institute is being planned for Sunday, November 5, from 2:00 until 5:00 P.M. in the Temple vestry.

Mr. Dan Bleicher, Director of Music at Wise Center in Cincinnati will be here and discuss our entire music program, bringing new suggestions and ideas to us. Anyone interested in attending is most welcome.

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

It's November now and TYG nas lots of things coming up this month, but before we disclose them, there are a few things we did in October that were interesting (as usual).

The Youth Group did sell Kidney Foundation candy and the natives must have been hungry because it sold well. Maybe as the next TYG fund raising project we should make candy instead of challah to sell.

Yes, and then there was Nashville - Music City, U.S.A. You can be sure of one thing - Opryland will not forget us in a hurry. (Highly, tightly!...) We had a hayride that had to be seen to be believed - 140 people in three trucks? And Jack told the whole group a famous Jack Miller ghost story, "Room for One More." Copies will be included in our next newspaper. (And if you can figure out the plot or ending, then your mind is almost as strange as Jack's).

November's Baby Member of the Month is: (drum roll) - Jeff Moosnick! He's designing and working on our Lexington Banner, which we want to take to Regionals, and he is another one of those rare animals called "Volunteer". Congratulations, Jeff!

Important - We have a meeting Sunday, November 5th at 5:30 P.M. and more specific plans will be made for the rest of November - mostly Jack's 949th birthday!

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS-

We are delighted to welcome into our congregational family Mr. and Mrs. Steven J. Becker, 1729 South Lime, Apt. 2. Mr. Becker is a 3rd year dental student at the University of Kentucky. Their phone number is 277-5540.

From the Rabbi's Desk

This coming Tuesday is election day. As far as I am personally concerned, the whole business is a dull affair. I am not enthusiastic about any of the candidates for Congress for whom I will have to vote. And the Presidential choice leaves me rather unmoved also. McGovern seems the lesser of two not too good choices. The leadership vacuum we are suffering in this country today is most distressing.

On the other hand, if one can overcome the lack of enthusiasm on a national and state level, the local election can give one a little glimmer of hope. The possibility of a unified, merged government for Lexington-Fayette County is a ray of light for our local, crazy, patchwork quilt pattern of government. It gives us the opportunity to confront our future as one united community and to face its challenges together, rather than split between two governments, each going its own way, but hopefully cooperating when necessary. Certainly no plan is ever perfect; there will always be details that will need adjusting and altering. But in the overall, as many of the details as possible seem to have been worked through and if the referendum passes, we shall all be able to face the future as one united community, without the current and often senseless politically produced difficulties that we find.

Merger is neither a panacea, nor the beginning of Utopia for us. But it certainly is a major step toward making Lexington in fact the one community that it is in spirit. I do hope it will have your support on the 7th.

Religious School

On November 19, the Third Grade will present a pageant at 11:00 and the Junior Assembly will see the film, "The Fish," which illustrates that wishes do not always bring happiness.

On November 26, the Junior Assembly will have Israeli dancing at 10:30 and the Primary Assembly will have the same at 11:00.

The Bible passage for November 5 is Num. 24:10-11 and we shall discuss how we often get angry when someone tells us something we do not want to hear, but is correct.

From The Rabbi's Desk

This past Tuesday was our monthly Temple Board meeting. It lasted a little longer than usual, and was not over until 10:00 P.M. And despite the fact that it was election night, the Library was full and no one left early, as is sometimes the case.

As I sat and listened to the many committee reports and the discussions that ensued, I was continually amazed at the high level of interest and enthusiasm that was reflected in what I was hearing. There was no pettiness or irrelevant chatter. It was all business and worthwhile discussion.

The Religious School Committee presented a report on its efforts to support and improve our program - a program whose format is being copied by both Reform Congregations in Louisville. The Worship Committee report dealt with the proposed revision of the Prayer Book and our correspondence about it with both the CCAR and other congregations. The Music Committee report dealt with the Music Institute of the previous Sunday and how helpful it was, as well as ways of further upgrading our Temple Choir. The Future Planning Committee report dealt with the proposed "Merged Facilities Proposal" and was a thorough critique of the strengths and weaknesses of what had been presented earlier to the Board. The whole meeting was at this fine level.

As I look back on what went on and try to gauge the functioning of our congregation, I see a picture that looks very good. We are able to see our strengths and our problems, and we are moving ahead to confront them. It is a source of enjoyment to be the rabbi of this kind of congregation!

William J. Leffler

NEW PRAYER BOOK

Rabbi Leffler has received one copy of a proposed new Prayer Book. In order to test congregational reaction to it, we shall be using mimeographed extracts from it for the next month or so. Your reactions to it - in writing are earnestly and urgently requested by Stanley Rose and Leonard Lerner, Co-Chairmen of the Worship Committee. Don't be bashful! Be honest!! The Union Prayer Book is on the way out. Are these the changes you want?

ADULT EDUCATION

This year's Adult Education Series begins Monday, November 13 and will run for five consecutive Monday evenings, starting at 7:30 P.M. It will be a survey course of ancient Jewish literature - the Bible, the Apocrypha, the New Testament, the Mishnah, the Talmud and the Midrash. There will be no charge for the course.

If you wish to attend, please phone the Temple office so that we may have information on an anticipated number of participants.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NOTES

The next Scholar-in-Residence is Mr. Seymour Brief on December 8. Senior Group, please note if you plan to attend.

On November 12, the Fifth Grade will hold its auction for the benefit of the Leo Baack School at 11:15. Please note change in time schedule.

On November 19, the Third Grade will present a program for the Primary Assembly at 11:00 and the Junior Assembly will see a film entitled "The Fish", which will show that wishes do not always bring happiness.

On November 26, both Assemblies will have Israeli dancing.

The Bible reading for November 12 is Num. 20:7-11 and Num. 27:12-14 and we shall discuss how often when we do not follow what someone tells us to the letter, it can have unfortunate consequences.

The following poem entitled Hanukkah was written by Jennifer Tucker, a 10 year old student in the 5th grade of our Religious School:

Hanukkah, Hanukkah,
is coming up,
If you wish hard you might get a pup, or you might get a pretty cup.

Hanukkah, Hanukkah,
is a fun, fun time;
'Cause you get presents
for eight days.
Hanukkah, I hope is on its way.

HEBREW SCHOOL

There will be no Hebrew School on Thursday, November 23 - Thanksgiving Holiday.

NOTICE

If anyone has the book entitled The Wise Men of Helm in their possession, please return it to the Library.

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

EVERYTHING YOU ALWAYS WANTED TO KNOW BUT WERE AFRAID TO ASK!

All you lucky people (especially TYGers) get to find out now what we're doing in November. We have planned to attend services at Ohavay Zion Synagogue on the 17th with an oneg and party afterwards where we shall work on the Hanukkah Carnival; on the 25th, an entire evening for the family beginning with Havdalah services, then dinner and Israeli dancing, and a study group on Israel.

And now, the moment we've awaited! "Room for One More" by Jack Miller:

Not too long ago, a few minutes from here, there was a shack. The two men who lived there disappeared, but they did not come to town very often so nobody knew them, and nobody cared anyway. In their place a man appeared. While he was at the shack, a hearse came by three different nights with a man in front who said, "room for one more". The man forgot it and went to town and entered an elevator just after the operator (a suspicious looking character) said (one guess) "room for one more". The elevator crashed and all were killed (wait-that's not the end.) Later, part of a statue was stolen from a rich man and people went to the shack to look for it. Instead, they found three graves. The first two men (brutally murdered) and the third man - epitaph "Room For One More" - who was the murderer?

The End. Yeah, Jack! (I don't understand this story.)

Shalom

The following poem was written by Sharon L. Frankel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Frankel and a member of our Senior Group in Religious School:

WHAT'S HAPPENED?

Who can tell me?
Who was it?
I think not me,
You think not you.

Who knows? could it be,
everyone?

Who cares?
That's the problem -
No one does.
We used to.
We used to be one,
Now,
We are many.
What's happened to us?
To everyone,
No one comes any more
When someone calls.

APATHY??

Not caring!!!
We used to care
I think?
Coming when needed,
Looking out for one another.
What's happened?
Are we too good for one another
With our noses in the air?
Is it too much to ask,
To care?
I think not.
Maybe;
It might be a better world
If everyone,
Cared for one another.
Let's try
I will.

RABBI'S MESSAGE

Over the years that I have worked at NARCO, I have come to realize that, unfortunately, we Jews are more susceptible to the malady of drug abuse than any other middle class group in our country today. Although I have not researched this conclusion, as you will see, it is a rather obvious one.

First, alcoholism was not our problem traditionally. "Shiker is a guy" is indicative of how we looked upon the alcoholic. And one could not use liquor as an escape and still say "L'hayim." But there is no such toast for drug abuse. So we have no Jewish defense against this "malady."

Furthermore, our position in American society adds to our problem.

Drug abuse is an urban affliction. It requires the anonymity of a major urban area for the abuser to operate. The majority of American Jews live in the megalopolis areas of our country.

The drug abuser tends to come from a socio-economically upward mobile family in which the father has been so busy making a living and the mother so involved in outside activities that they have had little time for personal attention to their children, and so have compensated by purchasing things for them, and so the children have become "over-things". Many Jews are in this category.

And the drug abuser is bright. He cannot survive and be stupid. And our children are bright. Just look at the percentage that go to college.

And thus we are extremely vulnerable to this problem. Not a pleasant thought, but one worth considering, nonetheless.

William J. Leffler, Rabbi

FAMILY WORSHIP ON DECEMBER 1

Our second Family Worship service this year will be held on Friday, December 1 at 6:30, followed by a pot luck Sabbath dinner, the kindling of the Hanukkah candles and the singing of Hanukkah songs.

Those who attend are asked to bring enough meat for their family and twice the amount of vegetables or salad for their family. Dessert wine and coffee will be supplied by the Sisterhood.

Sandra Gebrow is chairman of the Sisterhood committee. Reservations should be made by calling the Temple office, 266-3251. We need to know how many places to set.

SCHOLAR-IN-RESIDENCE

Mr. Seymour Brier, director of the Ohio-Kentucky Region for the American Jewish Committee will be our Scholar-in-Residence on December 8. He will speak to the students of the Senior Group at 4:30 and to the adult congregation after services. His discussion will deal with the subject of the Jewish community today.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

The Fifth Grade Auction for the benefit of the Leo Baeck School was a noisy success. $57.13 was raised for this school in Haifa which Trile Strauss attends. We also have another connection with it. Harold Baker is a member of its Board of Directors.

On November 10th, the Third Grade will present a program for the Primary Assembly and the Junior Assembly will see the film, "The Fish", which illustrates that wishes do not always bring joy and happiness.

On November 26th, both assemblies will have Israeli dancing and on December 3rd and 10th, worship services.

Winter vacation in Religious School is December 17, 24, and 31. Classes resume January 7th.

The Hanukkah Carnival is on December 3rd. Save the date!!

The Bible Passage for November 19th is Num. 32:1-27 and we shall discuss our responsibility to a group.

We shall again have a Religious School contest. Subjects are:

- Grade 3 - Drawing with short essay on one of the Holidays
- Grade 4 - Handiwork on some aspect of the Jewish Life Cycle
- Grade 5 - Handiwork dealing with an ethical problem
- Grade 6 - An essay on a prophet
- Grade 7 - An essay on what you feel to be an important difference between American and Israeli youth.

Senior Group - Anyone in the Senior Group may participate in the Religious School contest by writing an essay concerning material studied in any one of their courses.

SYMPATHISTS

Our Congregation joins the other members of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations in expressing its sadness at the death of Mr. Sidney I. Cole, beloved Chairman of the Board of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations on October 28, 1972 in Chicago, Illinois. May his memory be for a blessing to us all.

JEWISH COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION

The JCA Hanukkah Party for 3 - 5 year olds will be held Sunday, November 26, 1972, from 2 - 4 P.M. Admission is 25¢ and each child is asked to bring a 50¢ wrapped gift. RSVP - Marilyn Galt, 272-1674

TEMPLE YOUTH GROUP

Wow! We're so busy getting ready right now. For what? Everything. In chronological order we have the evening of activities on November 25th, which is for the entire congregation, then the Hanukkah Carnival on December 3rd, and the Hagigah in February. That sounds far away, but don't be fooled - people are calling for housing, programs have to be arranged, applications have to be sent out, a booklet has to be written, all finished before the conclave begins. (At least, that's the way it's supposed to be. Last year we discovered it doesn't always happen that way.)

The most threatening of these activities is the evening of activities which will include a Havdalah service (free) and dinner and Israeli dancing (with a slight service charge - $2.00 for adults, and $1.25 for children.)

Youth Groupers - come and work and get a free dinner cooked by Cindy, Leslie, Wendy, Cooky, Carrie, (on second thought...) Members of the congregation - come and have fun!

Every TYG'er should have received a flyer about the Hanukkah Carnival telling which committee they're on. So, be preparing your booths.

Let's see, meeting at Temple Monday, 4:30, Tuesday, 4:30 Thursday night, 7:30, and Sunday, 1:30.

Shalom

WHEN YOU ARE IN THE HOSPITAL...

The four local hospitals all have files for the use of clergymen which list the religious preference of the patients. It is from this file that the Rabbi and the Temple office are able to know when our members are hospitalized.

However, the names of our members can only appear in the file when your religious preference is given at the time of admittance and placed on the hospital records. Please be certain that this is taken care of for you when you enter the hospital. Unfortunately there have been a number of instances recently when this was not properly noted and the Rabbi only learned of the congregants being ill through the thoughtfulness of friends.

It is a small matter, but it does make things run more smoothly.

STAMPS FOR WELLINGTON

Finally, NTS is discussing our project and hopefully other synagogues in our country will support this effort with us. In the meantime, keep the stamps coming in. It takes a lot of stamps to fill up a carton.

CAN YOU HELP??

B'nai B'rith needs volunteers to do a real "Mitzva."

We need at least 20 people to replace and relieve workers at St. Joseph and Central Baptist Hospitals on Christmas day. No menial tasks are included. You will be used in the admissions office, information booths and gift shops. Each shift is no longer than 4 hours. Wives of members are also welcomed. A card is enclosed in a letter to you and hopefully we wish you will return it immediately.

B'nai B'rith is a service organization and this program is service and good community relations.

COLLEGE HOME COMING

Our annual College Home Coming service will be held on Friday, December 22. The sermon will be delivered by Mr. Steven J. Mason, the first Confirmand of Temple Adath Israel to enter the Hebrew Union College.

From the Rabbi's Desk

Once again we are celebrating Hanukkah, the holiday of lights and latkes, when we commemorate the bravery of the Maccabees and their fight for religious freedom.

Unfortunately as it is, their struggle was only the first of many efforts of this nature throughout Jewish history. Under the Romans it was often difficult to be a Jew. Throughout the centuries of Church domination of Europe we suffered persecutions. Under the Moslems in North Africa and Arabia, we have known trials and tortures. And today our brethren in the Soviet Union are feeling the sting of a government that would wish them to be something other than Jewish. Hanukkah is by no means a holiday that speaks only of a distant past - but rather of an on-going past and even of the present.

However, it does not speak to our current situation in this country. The virulent Anti-Jewish manifestations of a few decades ago no longer exist. Our children really do not know what Anti-Semitism is - as I saw pointed out this past week in a Religious School discussion. The immediacy of the meaning of religious freedom is not a burning issue for them as it has been in so much of our history. And as a result, the alleviation of Hanukkah may hold little significance for them beyond kindling some candles and receiving some presents. To convey its real message may take some serious effort on our part. We ought not take for granted that they appreciate the blessings of religious freedom. It is too precious a freedom to handle so lightly.

William J. Leffler

SCHOLAR-IN-RESIDENCE

Mr. Seymour Brief, Director of the Ohio-Kentucky area of the American Jewish Committee, will be our next Scholar-in Residence on Friday, December 8.

Mr. Brief is a graduate of City College of New York and holds a Masters Degree from that institution. He has also worked on his doctorate at Case Western Reserve University. In addition to his work in this country, he has worked closely with the Jewish Agency in Israel.

Mr. Brief will meet with the members of the Senior Group in Religious School from 4:30 until 6:00 and will lead a discussion on the topic: "Jewling It - American Style." After services, he will speak to the adult congregation on the subject: "Your Jewish Community and Mine."

We look forward to his visit.

December 3rd is the last class for this block for the Senior Group. Next block begins January 3rd. Other classes do not start vacation until December 17th.

THANK YOU, BROTHERHOOD

On Tuesday evening, November 28, the following members of Brotherhood formed a work party and painted the Temple office: Bob May, Lou Rubin, Larry Ginsburg, and Steve Portnoy. Please come by and see what a change has been made. Thanks again to these members of the Brotherhood.

TYG EXCITEMENT

In the middle of everything else that's happening, guess who decides to have a birthday. Never mind, Jack and Happy Birthday.

The Havdalah service and program is over. We did achieve a monumental feat - we got some adults to try Israeli dancing and they enjoyed it more than they'll admit. We could see by the puzzled expressions on some faces that they were thinking, "They prefer this to nice close slow dancing!"

Next week's project is the Hanukkah Carnival. That will be lots of fun for the kids - and this year we have special adult only activities too. (No strip tease artists, sorry.) Cost is $1.00 for admission and the first set of tickets. Extra tickets are 50¢ a set. There will be a TYG play and cartoons. So, come - everybody!!

This month's Baby Member is yet to be announced. Keep this in mind, Baby Members, and be nice to Board Members. Actually, maybe we should make Jack this month's Baby Member.

Happy Hanukkah!
Shalom

HELP FOR FOOD PROGRAM

Malnutrition is still very much a problem in Lexington and LARC (The Lexington Association of Religious Communities) wants to help confront it. Volunteers are needed to assist the Salvation Army social workers in their case study program. If you can help, call 272-1042.

Come Join The Fun If You Dare!

TYG HANUKKAH CARNIVAL

The annual Hanukkah Carnival, sponsored by the Temple Youth Group, will be held December 3rd at 2:00 P.M. The price will be $1.00 per person which includes 10 tickets, with extra tickets on sale - 10 for 50¢. There will be games, crafts booths, delicious food and fun filled cartoons. In addition, this year we will have adult bingo, a bake sale and challah sale (homemade by the TYG), plus two terrific plays. So please come and have a wonderful day!

The University of Kentucky Hillel Foundation is looking for someone interested in spending about 10 hours per week working with the Jewish students on campus. The hours are flexible. The work is not hard. No experience is necessary! For more information, please call Sherry Cohen, President, at 252-1131 or 252-7173.

From The Rabbi's Desk

More than a year ago, both our Congregation and the Synagogue appointed a joint committee to consider the possibility of some sort of merged or shared facilities. This committee has worked long and hard to prepare a plan which they thought was both practical and workable. At long last, in October, they presented the fruit of their efforts simultaneously to a special meeting of both the Temple and Synagogue Boards.

Their suggestions included a building with two sanctuaries, two kitchens, a large social hall which can be subdivided a number of ways, separate office facilities and a large religious school wing. To oversee this facility, and in addition to the governing structures of each congregation, there will be another corporation composed of the two congregations. It is a unique and interesting proposal that is being made.

Serious discussion of the proposal is now underway in the Temple and Synagogue Boards. In addition, our Future Planning Committee, Worship Committee, and Religious School are meeting to consider how this kind of venture would affect our functioning in specific areas of congregational life. There are also meetings to be planned with corresponding committees of the Synagogue to consider whether existing differences can be ironed out between us - and there are many.

The committee, consisting of Bob Miller, Ken Gerson, Steve Edelstein, Steve Callier, Leon Cooper, and Mike Ades, has presented both congregations with an exciting idea. Whether it is workable as things now stand is a matter of great concern to us all. The Board and our committees will be exploring every aspect of it that we can discover. Your comments and questions are certainly more than welcome by Stan Scher, the committee proposing this new facility, the chairman of the committees investigating the proposal, and by me.

Before any action can be taken on this matter, it will need the approval of our committees, of the Board, and of the congregation, so let us join in the discussions. A large part of the future of Judaism in Lexington and how we shall function as a community depends on our accepting or rejecting this proposal.

SPECIAL THANKS

The Temple extends its appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Morris Brazin for their donation of paint for the Rabbi's study and Mrs. Thurman's office.

Religious School

No Religious School for the Senior Block until January 7th. December 10th is the last day for the Primary and Junior Assemblies until January 7th. Enjoy!!

The Bible Passage for December 10th is Deut. 5:7-10 and we shall discuss how the worship of idols gets in the way of worshipping God.

The Brotherhood has undertaken to paint the Religious School wing of the Temple. They will be doing it room by room over the course of the year. For a sample of their handiwork, come see how bright and cheery Mrs. Thurman's office is now. The halls and classrooms will be next. Watch the Bulletin for announcement of the next painting party and lend a hand - for Brotherhood and the Religious School!

STAMPS FOR WELLINGTON

We received a letter this week from Professor Minn in Wellington thanking us for sending stamps. He tells us they are receiving many, but can always use more. So keep them coming in to the Temple office. But remember, they cannot be torn or mutilated in any way.

HONOREE TO BE CITED JANUARY 12th

MARK YOUR CALENDAR! Our special Sabbath worship honoring a devoted member of our congregation is scheduled for January 12th. Be present to share in this happy occasion.

HELP FOR FOOD PROGRAM

Malnutrition is still very much a problem in Lexington and IARC (The Lexington Association of Religious Communities) wants to help confront it. Volunteers are needed to assist the Salvation Army social workers in their case study program. If you can help, call 272-1042.

TEMPLE YOUTH GROUP WORK

Another big TYG project is finished. This one paid off a little (!) - better than most of the others. Exact figures not known, and besides, that's a state secret.

We know the congregation enjoyed the Hanukkah Carnival, although, during parts of the TYG play (we won't say which ones) some remarks were heard like: "What kind of a place are we in?" These people probably wondered right through the black jack, roulette, and bingo games (and they say this is for kids).

It's time for us to start thinking of Regionals in Columbus now. (I want an application) - "No, I want an application, and I worked more than you, so there!" Well, those of us who were left behind are just going to have parties every night, you just wait and see.

It's almost time for another issue of announcements, announcements, announcements. I say almost because it was due out a week ago; but you can blame it on the high school teachers of Fayette County. Maybe by winter vacation we'll get it done. We have had some people submit things to be published, and we will accept anything which passes Jack's approval (too bad, guys). Reminders - you can buy a classified ad for - a special Hanukkah special - one small nickel this month. Call Leslie Lipton, 277-4362.

We hope to have a special surprise for TYGers very soon.

Shalom

HEBREW SCHOOL VACATION

There will be no Hebrew School on December 21st and 28th. Winter vacation.

The following is taken from The Temple Bulletin of the Indianapolis Hebrew Congregation in Indianapolis, Indiana, and is by Rabbi Murray Saltzman.

BETWEEN YOU AND ME

No time during the year presents the Jewish community with so critically focused questions surrounding identity than the winter season. The city is aglow with light, song, decoration, and holiday preparation. Who wants to be an outsider to this? With a pressing intensity, the issue of Jewish difference and Jewish loyalty stirs the heart so yearningly touched by gaiety and nostalgia at every turn.

The fact is, everyone, at one place or another in the course of life, is an outsider. Even when one is of a majority culture or religion, the human condition impels an awareness of apartness, aloneness, difference. Some lovingly embrace the sense of being an outsider. Non-conformity is made a virtue. Most are uncomfortable and try somehow to compensate for that inevitable sense of apartness. But in particular, the member of a minority group is exposed to this while often failing to recognize its universality.

How we deal with being an outsider as Jews has special significance. Whatever rationalizations are used by those who decorate their home with Christmas appurtenances, there is no denying the reality that it is their particular way of managing the issue and of compensating for being an outsider.

The importance of what we do lies in what we are saying to ourselves and our children in the manner we manage apartness. There is a time to conform and a time to preserve uniqueness. And in both cases, the fundamental issue is the value and moral character we impart to life by the choice we make.

The courage to manage apartness, or being an outsider, has implication on how our children will manage to maintain or surrender their convictions in all other areas of life. To be like everyone else, even at the cost of sacrificing Jewish integrity, is no light decision.

Sanctuary Decorum

This is a House of God. You have come to worship. Wherever people do things together they show standards of courtesy and mutual restraint. If the atmosphere of reverence is to be preserved for the worshippers it is required of us all that we never speak to each other from the moment we cross the threshold until after the final blessing; that we come early and do not leave until after the closing blessing; that regardless of circumstance we never trespass on the sacred quiet of the Sanctuary and the mood of reverence for God and man that is the witness of a living faith.

RABBI'S MESSAGE

This coming Sabbath evening we shall observe our annual Home-coming service for our college students, and we have many of them. It is always nice to welcome them home for vacation, and for me personally, to greet them in the Sanctuary.

This year, as our student speaker, we shall have Steve Mason, the first confirmand from this congregation to have enrolled at the Hebrew Union College. Steve is the son of Jessie and Aaron Mason, who moved from Lexington only last spring, but who still have ties in Lexington and have already been back to visit us.

Steve is in his first semester at the Cincinnati campus. Last year he spent the academic term in Jerusalem at the HUC campus there. And so he has had an opportunity to study and experience a great deal so far in his training.

I look forward to sharing the pulpit with Steve and to greeting you and our college students this coming Sabbath.

TEMPLE YOUTH GROUP NEWS

Preparations for the Hagigah were slowly but surely begun at the last TVG meeting. This arts festival, which will occur February 16-18, is a regional affair, so it has to be good - and it will, of course. Jack and Lisa may end up with grey hair first, but eventually it will all be done (we hope). The theme of the conclave will be freedom, and it involves study of music, art, literature, and dancing. Right now, the main concern is to get the various committees working. So we have our vacations cut out for us, since there must be a complete tentative schedule and everything else completed for inspection at our next meeting on January 7.

Most of the other Youth Group news is comprised of what isn't happening. For instance, the newspaper isn't out (or even begun), the TVG room isn't redecorated, we haven't heard from any of the regular committees - but fund raising and worship, - in about two months. Oh well, you can't have everything.

A happy thought - Vacation is only four days away!! 12 days without school - what bliss!!!

Shalom

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Honorable mention went to: David Eizenbaum, Neil Lerner, Lisa Ginsburg, David Gorodetzky, Ellen Dublier, Amy Gorodetzky, Mark Vennetky, Michael Eizenbaum, Mike Willits, Robbie Doctrow, Susie Portnoy, and Mark Gorodetzky.

The following letter was received by the members of our Fifth Grade from Trila Strauss, of the Leo Baack School, and who lived with the Harold Bakers a year ago. It is in response to a check for the receipts from their auction for the school, held on November 12th:

Dear Fifth Grade, Rabbi, and Congregation,

Happy Hanuka! Hope it will be a nice one, and your carnival, which was very exciting last year, will come out successfully.

We were very glad to hear from you, by getting the money ($57.13) you raised in your "noisy" auction.

Since I have the closest connections from anybody in the Leo Baack School with Temple Adath Israel, I thank you so much, dear friends, in the school's name.

Our school is getting bigger and bigger (sure your contribution helps us). When I entered the high school, in 1969, we were 280 students, and right now, we are approximately a thousand.

I wish you a good year at your religious school.

Sincerely yours,
Trila Strauss

Shown below, in the course of the auction are, from left to right: Jenna Weil, Robin Stivers, Jacob Wirtschafter, Alan Jacobson, and Lee Meyer.

Religious School resumes January 7th for all students. There will be no Hebrew School on December 21st and 28th. Bar Mitzvah classes will not meet on December 25th and January 1st.

From the Rabbi's Desk

We are about to enter a new year. It is a time of reflecting upon the past one and seeing what has occurred, as well as looking forward to the future. What will there be?

1972 was a year of triumphs and tragedies, of achievements and disappointments. Men went to the moon and back and we gloried in their success. Eleven Israeli athletes were slaughtered in Munich and we mourned their loss. And in between there were hopes for the end of hostilities in Vietnam, some long and lack luster election campaigns, no peace in the Middle East. On balance, many people will be pleased that this year is gone and a new one is about to start.

But what is apt to occur in the new year? More efforts to end the war, new scientific information on diseases which have plagued mankind, peace in the Middle East, a new outbreak of hostilities, - the possibilities are countless and we will not know until they happen.

However, as we approach all of what the future holds in store, we need to keep in mind the basic injunction of Judaism - that we should sanctify life - that we should raise the events we encounter above the ordinary and routine and inject into them an awareness of the holiness which makes life special for us. Only by so doing can life's joys have real significance. For life to be full, both aspects have to be present. Thus, how we confront the events of the new year will be one more test of what each of us is as a human being.

May it be a happy new year.

William J. Leffler
Rabbi

Well, there have been no new TYG meetings, parties, fund raising projects, or services since the last Bulletin, but you can be sure that doesn't mean there is nothing to do. To state a few examples, the Hagigah program committee has to program the entire weekend, including getting leaders for all the groups which is no easy job. The food committee has to arrange for food to be ready when the program committee appoints. They have a choice between McDonalds and pizza for what people will eat. The booklet committee has to print all the crucial information for conclave attenders, and like last year will probably end up doing it the week before the Hagigah. The worship committee has two huge services and three friendship circles to write. All are to be finished by January 7. Who believes it??

We're redecorating our TYG room, including carpet and new furniture. Hopefully it will be finished in time for the Hagigah.

Oh, by the way - at this time of year there are others not as fortunate as ourselves. There are starving children living in our midst. Please help!! Feed Max (coke machine) and Maxine (paper van)!

Shalom

NOTICE:

PLEASE CHANGE THIS DATE!!

From the Rabbi's Desk

We are about to enter a new year. It is a time of reflecting upon the past one and seeing what has occurred, as well as looking forward to the future. What will there be?

1972 was a year of triumphs and tragedies, of achievements and disappointments. Men went to the moon and back and we gloried in their success. Eleven Israeli athletes were slaughtered in Munich and we mourned their loss. And in between there were hopes for the end of hostilities in Vietnam, some long and lack luster election campaigns, no peace in the Middle East. On balance, many people will be pleased that this year is gone and a new one is about to start.

But what is apt to occur in the new year? More efforts to end the war, new scientific information on diseases which have plagued mankind, peace in the Middle East, a new outbreak of hostilities, - the possibilities are countless and we will not know until they happen.

However, as we approach all of what the future holds in store, we need to keep in mind the basic injunction of Judaism - that we should sanctify life - that we should raise the events we encounter above the ordinary and routine and inject into them an awareness of the holiness which makes life special for us. Only by so doing can life's joys have real significance. For life to be full, both aspects have to be present. Thus, how we confront the events of the new year will be one more test of what each of us is as a human being.

May it be a happy new year.

William J. Leffler
Rabbi

Well, there have been no new TYG meetings, parties, fund raising projects, or services since the last Bulletin, but you can be sure that doesn't mean there is nothing to do. To state a few examples, the Hagigah program committee has to program the entire weekend, including getting leaders for all the groups which is no easy job. The food committee has to arrange for food to be ready when the program committee appoints. They have a choice between McDonalds and pizza for what people will eat. The booklet committee has to print all the crucial information for conclave attenders, and like last year will probably end up doing it the week before the Hagigah. The worship committee has two huge services and three friendship circles to write. All are to be finished by January 7. Who believes it??

We're redecorating our TYG room, including carpet and new furniture. Hopefully it will be finished in time for the Hagigah.

Oh, by the way - at this time of year there are others not as fortunate as ourselves. There are starving children living in our midst. Please help!! Feed Max (coke machine) and Maxine (paper van)!

Shalom

PROPERTY ACQUIRED

The Temple, through action of the Board of Trustees, has just purchased property on Hanover Avenue. This purchase was made at a very fair price. The lot backs up to our present property, and has a 10 foot common boundary with our present parking lot. The Trustees felt that an outlet to our property would greatly enhance the use of and the value of our present facility.

The financing of this purchase will be with monies partly from the Endowment Fund, and partly through subscription. When asked to donate for this purchase please be generous.

From the Rabbi's Desk

A couple of months ago, the National Hillel office sent me a questionnaire about the activity of Jesus People on the UK campus. We filled out the questionnaire informing them that their efforts were minimal and seemed to have no effect or influence upon the Jewish students here. A few weeks ago, the New York Times report on the results of this survey indicated that what we find here appears to be the case on most campuses and that our young people are not being bothered by these groups.

During the recent vacation I had an opportunity to chat with some of our Temple college students and asked them about this situation on their respective campuses. They all agreed with the findings of the survey, that even though they knew of Jesus People on campus, they had not been bothered by them.

On the other hand they did voice another concern, and that was that they were beginning to realize their limited preparation for discussion with such people. They felt a real lack in Jewish background.

As I look at our Religious School efforts, I can see their words being a real challenge to us. But I also heard them speak of their parents and their participation in Judaism, as well as the Judaism that they wished for in their homes. In a recent issue of a Jewish magazine, I read the plaint of a Jewish college student who said of the adults - "They say that they are eager to strengthen Jewish identity, but they only talk."

As I listen to our young people speak of their college experiences, I wonder how we fit in to their comments - not just as a formalized congregational structure - but also as parents. Can we say that our deeds match our words?

TYG ACTIVITIES

Happy New Year! (That is 1973, even though it is still 5733, but now 1973 and 5733 match because they're only 3760 years apart. Understand?)

Anyway, a new issue of announcements is in the process of being given out. It will have news, a calendar, classified ads, gossip, and all the other interesting things.

Hagigah preparations proceed. Remember, committee members, the Hagigah is only six weeks away. It should be one of the most thought provoking experiences any of us will attend.

Regionals - over!! The KITOWN newspaper, Jews' News, was given out in Columbus, along with everything else that went on. Tell us, just exactly what did happen that everyone came home and went straight to bed - some not waking for hours and hours? We can guess...

Now that our vacation is over, we're hoping for snow. The last vacation was all too short, a two week blizzard would certainly be helpful - how about starting the 8th of January? Cross your fingers!

Our New Years Resolution:

SPREAD A LOT OF SUNSHINE!
