From the Rabbi's Desk

In the life of a congregation, a rabbi has many functions. He has to teach, counsel, conduct worship services, provide ideas for programs and countless other activities which fill out the hours with challenging and varied activity.

However, no congregation can function only with a rabbi. There have to be congregants who participate also - who attend the class sessions, who have problems and need advice, who attend worship, who carry out ideas and projects for the congregation. It is certainly not a one man operation by any means.

As your rabbi, I am very much aware of this need for congregants who fulfill these obligations, who serve our congregation in countless little ways. The dedication and devotion of such people often goes unnoticed and without recognition. We take their participation for granted and fail to appreciate how they contribute in unassuming ways.

As a congregation, we feel that this oversight should not occur and so five years ago began a yearly ceremony of honoring members who have given of themselves to the congregation, in ways in which all of us benefit.

Our annual ceremony is this Friday evening during services. It is an occasion for thanks and for expressing our gratitude to a member who has been a source of strength to us all. Come to services and join in this worthwhile occasion. The honorees are much deserving.

William J. Leffler

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

On January 14, the Junior Assembly will have a music assembly and the Primary Assembly will see the film, "This Is Our Tarn", which deals with a children's farm on a Kibbutz. On this same Sunday, the Seventh Grade will have a surprise speaker.

On January 21, the First Grade will present a program at 11:00. Parents are invited to attend. The same day the Junior Assembly will see the film, "The Clubhouse Boat".

On January 28, the Sixth Grade will present a program at 10:30 and the Primary Assembly will see the film, "Purim", depicting the celebration of the Holiday in Israel.

Our next Scholar-in-Residence program is February 9. Rabbi Aaron B. Elson of Pittsburgh will be our speaker.

The Bible reading for January 14 is Deut. 5:16 and we shall discuss how we honor our parents and why this commandment is one of the ten.

WELCOME New Members

We welcome into our congregational family the following:

...Dr. & Mrs. Lee Stock and their son, Aric Louis, age 4. Dr. Stock is a resident in the ophthalmology department at the Medical Center. Mrs. Stock is a psychologist. They reside at 2044 Dorset Drive and the phone number is 255-2739.

...Dr. & Mrs. Gerald Rosenthal and their three daughters, Randi, age 11; Amy, age 8; and Julie, age 6. Dr. Rosenthal is in the biology department at U.K. They reside at 2341 Southview Drive and the phone number is 277-4065.

...to Mr. & Mrs. Joseph H. Miller and their son, Stephen Aaron, age 1. Mr. Miller is an associate attorney with the firm of Gess, Mattingly, Samner, and Atchison and the son of Dr. & Mrs. Sherman E. Miller. They reside at 3448 Bellmeade Road.

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

For the first time in one whole month we had a meeting. It was wonderful to be back! (?) Well, anyway we had an inspiring speaker, programmed by our hardworking, industrious, diligent program committee. Even though the speaker was a school teacher, nobody got sick (except maybe from leftover spaghetti). Mr. Seltzer even gave us some information with which to blackmail Jack and it is all written down. This information is for sale at a very reasonable price to any TYGer. (Say, 25¢)

We have new carpet! Yeah! The only thing we request is your help in keeping it new. Please be careful of cigarette ashes, paint, glue, or other damaging substances on the carpet. We hope to add more furniture soon, and hopefully by the time of the Hagigah, we'll have the room re-done. Neat, huh?

January is birthday month. There are at least three people with birthdays, probably more. So, happy birthday to you all, and just wait until you get to go through the spanking machine!

Just wait until you see what's coming up next week. Tune in same time, same place next Saturday.

Shalom

Sermon — No Other Gods!

Synopsis — The First Commandment tells us of God, but how do we respond to it?

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL

Rabbi's Message

January 18th was Tu B'Shevat, the New Year of the Trees. But it is the depths of winter here and for us such a celebration seems incongruous, out of place. Who would think of going out and working in the garden at this time of year? Of planting trees? And yet we celebrate.

This kind of a holiday reminds us once more of the ties which we as Jews have to the land of Israel - not only to the modern state, but to that specific geographic area. So many of our holidays revolve about it. Pesach, Shevuot, and Sukkot harken back to the agricultural calendar of ancient Palestine. Hanukkah celebrates the cleansing of the Temple in Jerusalem. Tisha B'Av marks the destruction of that same Temple. The land of Israel has a significant place in Judaism and we are reminded of this importance by Tu B'Shevat.

And the holiday also reminds us of the need of a concern for our natural environment, as symbolized by trees. One merely has to look at the devastation which strip mining leaves in its wake, the destruction caused by forest fires, the results of soil erosion and see how important trees are to our survival. An awareness of the need for this concern is built into Judaism by our observance of such a holiday. For us "ecology" is not a new slogan.

Tu B'Shevat, a minor holiday on our calendar, and yet just one more example of the many facets of life about which we can consider when we contemplate our Judaism.

STAMPS FOR WELLINGTON

Two small cartons of stamps were sent to Wellington last month. We now have a larger carton and it is more than half full. Help it along, so that we can send it off too.

YOUTH : ACTIVITIES

WE'RE COMING!

In case you can't guess, that's the OVFTY kids warning us that they're getting ready to come for the Hagigah. It is less than a month now. Are we ready?? Are we half ready??? Are we a fourth ready!!!! (Well, that's closer anyway). Please help Lisa!! She's working so hard, but she can't do it all herself. So, everybody has to help because the Hagigah just has to be fantastic. This means committees have to meet (yes, kids, more than once a month) At the next TYG meeting, we'll expect committee reports. You have been warned!!

Well, our other projects are proceeding slowly. The Youth Group room furniture is in the process of being purchased. We want it to be all done for the Hagigah, so we can put our Lexington Banner in the nice furnished room - like Nashville.

For anyone who still does not know that a Hagigah is an OVFTY Arts Festival, or who wants more information, call Lisa Rovin, 277-9734. THINK SNOW!!!!

Shalom

Sermon - Jewish Law and Reform Disorder

Synopsis - There is increasing discussion in Reform Judaism about Halachah, about Jewish Law. Is it time for us to begin to restore some of it?

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL

From the Rabbi's Desk

This past week I attended a rabbinic meeting on a major campus at which we discussed the current situation on the campus and what our Jewish youth are into. Some of it was most heartening to hear. Jewish studies programs are beginning to grow and flourish. Jewish students are interested in studying Jewish sources and finding out more about the roots and the teachings of Judaism. It was most heartening to hear these aspects of campus activities.

On the other hand, some of the other discussion I heard was less heartening, though not really surprising. It dealt with the leapfrogging of involvement which so many students exhibit - two months of intensive interest in this activity and three months in that and so on. Into each of these activities the students threw themselves, searching for "identity" and "meaning", which is really a part of the maturing, experimental aspects of growing up, I suspect. However, what distressed me the most was the adult pandering to this form of behavior as if it were the essence of maturity and not something less than mature.

Perhaps the basic problems are the needs for perspective and for a sense of humor. For an adult two or even six months of interest in an activity is not very long. For a young person it may seem like ages. And we also need to be able to laugh - both at our adult concerns and hang ups - as well as the concerns of young people. There is so much non-sense in our world today that we let pass as sense. It really gets us confused.

Nonetheless, it was a worthwhile meeting.

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

Wonders of wonders, miracles of miracles - all committees are GO for the Hagigah, and all committee chairpersons should be keeping Lisa, Allen, and Jack totally informed.

A Youth Group meeting was held Sunday, January 21st. The executive board was there doing its thing. It was decided that Youth Group will sell Soviet Prisoner-of-Conscience stars to the congregants who want them. More information will be released as it comes in. The board also decided that TYG business will wait until after Sunday School so that class will not be disturbed. This should please the teachers and Mrs. Goro-detzky.

Hagigah applications have been passed to Lexington. Jack is numbering them and keeping track of who gets which applications to make sure that Lexington applications don't find their way into the hands of out-of-town people.

Our Youth Group is finally starting on its banner which Jeff Moosnick designed. Yes team!

Our baby member for this month is Robbie Stein. He has been given this honor (?) because he held the rope for Laura. Congratulations Robbie and keep up the good work!

The next TYG meeting is scheduled for Sunday, February 4 at 1:30 P.M. in the Temple Vestry. Meanwhile, think BROW!

RABBI'S MESSAGE

The past few weeks have been notable ones. President Johnson's death and the advent of the cessation of hostilities in Vietnam captured the attention of us all. As it has been pointed out, Mr. Johnson's death one day before the announcement of the truce was ironic.

However, as I watch the events unfold (and perhaps my impressions will change between the time I write these words and the time you read them), there are lots of other ironic contrasts also.

The long awaited "peace" has arrived, and it did so with minimal fanfare, considering the shouting of the doves over the past few years. They appear not to be too certain of what will happen after the publicity pictures and are taking a wait and see attitude. I must admit that I think they are wise in this. Too much has occurred (is there a Bach Mai Hospital - for instance) to make us cynical of what our government spokesmen have to say.

I see church services of Thanksgiving in our community, and while I appreciate the attitudes which would bring about such an outpouring of religious feeling, I wonder where these people were in the concerns for "peace" prior to this time. The silence in Lexington had been loud.

And thirdly, I think we have to be ever so careful with our use of the word "peace". It is deceptive. It does not "break out" like war, but is a process - a long, slow process which takes time for us to work toward. And so despite the quiet sighs of relief and the returning of the POW's and MIA's, we ought not think that "peace" has arrived. There will be lots of "non-peace" remaining in our world and with the feelings of exhausted relief that have greeted this cease fire, we shall be hard pressed to prevent ourselves from thinking of peace in static terms, that at long last it has arrived. No, our struggles will continue, they will just be different.

Let us pray that we will be able to meet the changes of this new situation with reasonable success.

URGENT ACTION REQUESTED ON VANIK BILL re: MOST FAVORED NATION STATUS FOR SOVIET UNION

Within the next ten days Congressman Charles Vanik (D-Ohio) plans to re-introduce a bill to withhold "Most Favored Nation" trade status from countries who violate international standards, including the charging of exorbitant exit fees for citizens who wish to emigrate. This, of course, would affect the Soviet Union, which is very eager to accelerate its trade with the United States.

At this date, 150 Congressmen have already signified their willingness to co-sponsor the measure, but Congressman Vanik is hoping a majority (218) of the House members will agree to co-sponsor by the time the legislation is ready to be introduced. Congressman Breckenridge's office has called Rabbi Leffler and indicated his great concern for this Bill after reading the sermon enclosed in last week's Bulletin, and that he intends to join in its sponsorship.

All local and national Jewish agencies are joining in a campaign to solicit additional co-sponsors. Letters from members of this congregation should be sent to him, indicating our support of him in this regard. He needs to know we care enough for Soviet Jewry to voice our concern.

HADASSAH

Hadassah's monthly meeting will be held Tuesday, February 6 at 9:30 A.M. at the home of Mrs. Bea Milner, 706 Brook Hill Drive. Mrs. Sylvia Plutchok will give a lecture, the topic being "Arts of the Jews through the Ages".

The following letter was received by Rabbi Leffler on January 31st from Senator Walter D. Huddleston, our Senator from Kentucky:

Dear Rabbi Leffler,

Thank you very much for your recent letter and the enclosed copy of two sermons you have given

I understand your concern about the emigration problems of Soviet citizens, particularly the Soviet Jews. As you know, Senator Jackson submitted legislation during the 92nd Congress to deny most favored nation status to the Soviet Union as well as the opportunity to participate in U. S. government credit programs unless it altered its emigration policies. Due to the press of business at the close of the session, no final action was taken on the measure. Senator Jackson has announced plans to re-introduce his amendment when appropriate legislation is considered in the Senate, and it is my intention to support such legislation.

Again, thank you for writing; I appreciate hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Walter D. Huddleston

Rabbi Leffler also has been informed by Congressman John Breckenridge that he will be a co-sponsor of the amendment.

RABBI'S MESSAGE

The past few weeks I have been reading a number of studies about American Jews and the attitudes we hold, the behavior we manifest and the possibilities for things in the future. These studies have been conducted by well trained social researchers and attempt to correlate the data so that we may have a good look at ourselves, our assumptions and our expectations for the future.

In all of these studies, the phrase "good Jew" is used as a basis for asking opinion questions. As I read the studies, I could not help react to such a loaded term, for its opposite is a "bad Jew" and who wants to be that?

Much more appropriate would be the term "responsible Jew". Such a phrase would tell us much more. It would help provide a scale against which we could measure the behavior of the people involved in the study. We could ask such questions as:

- 1) Is the person a responsible Jew if he belongs to a synagogue?
- 2) Is the person a responsible Jew if he attends worship on a regular basis?
- 3) Is the person a responsible Jew if he supports Jewish charities to the very best of his ability?
- 4) Is the person a responsible Jew if he is concerned for the survival of Israel or Soviet Jewry?

And on and on we could go, asking such questions - as well as asking the opposite - is he a responsible Jew if he does not do these things?

All too often we overlook our responsibilities as Jews. Questions of this nature can bring them back into focus for us once more.

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

The meeting February 4th was a loose ends meeting. The Hagigah plans are reaching their final stages, but it would help move things along even faster if all Lexington youth groupers would get their application and a twelve dollar check in to Lisa. After a week and a half, more Lexington applications should have been received. Get them to Lisa soon.

Our next meeting will be the Hagigah, February 16 - 18; so everyone get rest so you won't sleep through any of the fun.

RABBI'S MESSAGE

This past week we all witnessed on TV the disembarking of the POW's from Vietnam and the excitement of the families of these men as they sat in their homes and saw their loved ones getting off the planes at Clark Field. It was an emotionally laden moment for all of the people involved, and one they had all been awaiting for a long time.

However, as I contemplated what I was seeing on my screen, I could not help but think also about all of the other wars in the history of mankind and all of the other lives that have been either disrupted or destroyed in man's long history of warfare. So many lives needlessly wasted, so many families separated from loved ones. So much heart break. It is sad!

In contrast are our prayers for peace - God's most precious gift - for which we yearn. Let us hope that these men may be able to return to their families in peace and that after so long a period of separation, that they may be able once more to find a place for themselves within the family circles which have yearned for their return from war so long.

ETERNAL LIGHT ON WBKY-FM

Sunday evenings at 6:30 P.M. WBKY-FM is pleased to present "The Eternal Light," a program for the entire family, dramatizing the universal values of Jewish tradition. This program has been guided by the basic Judaic teaching that moral and spiritual excellence are not confined to any one group.

This week's program, by Morton Wishengrad, is the story of Rebecca Gratz, social reformer, early leader in Jewish education and model for Rebecca in Sir Walter Scott's Ivanhoe. This program is the first in a series on the lives and contributions of women.

AN EVENING OF JEWISH SONGS

Martha Schlammé, internationally famous folk singer, will appear at 8:00 P.M. Sunday, February 18th at Ohavay Zion Synagogue in the 1973 Jewish Community Association Forum Series.

Miss Schlammé, whose concerts have been heralded in Europe, Canada and America as "lifting the folk song to high art," will present "An Evening of Jewish Songs." She sings in 16 languages and is perhaps best known for her role as "Jenny" in the New York City Opera presentation of "The Three-Penny Opera" in the 1960's. She has had roles on Broadway and in television specials on BBC, CBS and NBC.

A reception honoring Miss Schlammé will be held after her performance Sunday night, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Ades, for the Forum's Patrons.

Single performance tickets are available only for out-of-town guests of Forum Series ticket holders, but full series tickets at $5.00 for adults will be on sale at the door. All Forum programs are free to students including college undergraduates, graduate students and Donovan Scholars.

TYG NEWS

The Hagigah went well. I think almost everyone had fun - even Lisa. On the whole, things ran smoothly, except that some of the major group leaders had to leave early. Nothing happened that couldn't be fixed.

The Lexington banner is really good looking. Many thanks to Jeff Moonnick and workers.

The TYG lounge has beautiful furniture, mostly in golds and yellows. We have a large couch, three chairs, three tables, an out-of-tune piano and Max, the Coke machine.

The next TYG meeting is a dinner meeting scheduled for Sunday, February 25th at 5:30 P.M. in the Temple vestry. The program is uncertain.

From the Rabbi's Desk

This past week end was a loud one at the Temple. Seventy-five to one hundred teenagers are just not quiet - and one would not expect them to be still. As a matter of fact, one of the measures of a good Youth Group function of this nature is the noise. It indicates the level of excitement.

But it was not all noise. At times the building was quiet, when the T'v'ers were in their workshops. And the degree of quiet was also an indication of the success of what was occurring. If they had not been interested, they would have been into other things.

Our Temple Youth Group is really to be congratulated for the fruit of their efforts. The Hagigah was a marked success. Especially to be singled out is Miss Rovin, who was week end chairman. She did a fine job. And so did everyone else who worked hard - the Youth Group members, the adults who volunteered to work with the kids in the study sessions and workshops, the parents who housed our out-of-town guests and who chauffeured them back and forth, the Sisterhood and Brotherhood who each provided a meal at Temple for the participants.

Our Temple Youth Group is really an outstanding one. It is events like this which help us maintain our reputation. All those involved are to be lauded.

NOMINATIONS FOR BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Nominating Committee, chaired by Dr. Saul Rubin and made up of six other present Board and non-Board members appointed by the Temple President, will soon meet to select a slate of 10 to 15 nominees.

In addition, the Temple By-Laws provide for nominations to be made by petition. Each person so nominated should present a petition containing the signatures and addresses of at least five (5) members of the Temple in good standing. For the signature to be valid, the signator must not sign more than five petitions, which is the total number to be elected to the Board. The petition should be mailed to the Co-Chairman of the Election Committee, Hyman Shrabers, 3419 Brookhaven Drive (40502), postmarked on or before the 19th day of March.

The Nominating Committee will welcome all petitions or suggestions. If you have any questions, please contact Dr. Rubin.

Five new Board members are elected each year for a three year term. In addition, separate elections are held for three Board members who represent outlying areas. Ballots will be mailed to the entire congregation at the close of the nominating period.

"Don't Call Us..."

We have been receiving many complaints about late delivery of the Bulletin. The fault lies not with us but with the Post Office, which seems to have finally succumbed to late deliveries. A call to your local station or sub-station may perhaps help to speed delivery.

LETTER OF APPRECIATION

The following are excerpts from a letter received this week by Rabbi Leffler from H. K. Emanuel, President of Temple Sinai in Wellington, New Zealand:

Dear Rabbi Leffler,

Under separate cover, we are sending you a copy of our last Bulletin in which appreciation was expressed of your practical assistance to Professor Minn in your thoughtful forwarding of the batch of used stamps for us.

Professor Minn has concentrated on this work for the Temple for some years now and the resulting proceeds of his work help our funds considerably each year.

We are mindful of the interest you have always taken in the advancement of our Temple and Congregation and the High Holydays' paroches, which you forwarded to us through the late Mr. Kraus, particularly remind us of your kindness when those High Holydays come round.

Thank you again for the stamps.

Yours sincerely,
H. K. Emanuel
President

The Social Action

The Temple Social Action Committee met on Tuesday night, February 20th, and resolved by unanimous vote to organize a challenge to the recently announced intention of the Fayette County Board of Education to distribute Gideon Bibles to students in the public schools. A lawsuit may be required.

If you are a parent of one or more students in our school system between the 5th through 8th grade inclusive, your participation is invited. Every attempt will be made to gather a large number of qualified plaintiffs, and to make the challenge an inter-religious effort.

The separation of Church and State has long been considered vital to minority religious groups. It is important that we guard against its erosion. If you will join us, call Chairman Nat Sandler for more details at 254-3844 or 269-1150 or Rabbi Leffler at 266-3251.

RABBI'S MESSAGE

As you noticed in last week's Bulletin, the Social Action Committee resolved to challenge the decision of the Fayette County School Board to permit the distribution of Gideon Bibles to students in grades 5-8, on a volunteer basis. The reactions to the decision have been very positive and the suit is being pursued, in conjunction with the Central Kentucky Chapter of the Civil Liberties Union.

There are a number of facets to this action which ought to be mentioned.

First, the legal aspect. What the School Board is proposing is of questionable constitutionality and appears to violate the First Amendment. John Breckenridge issued an opinion to this effect in 1968 when he was State Attorney General. There are also court cases which would support our view.

Second, there is the moral aspect. If we do not respond to this assault on our liberties, then we have no grounds to respond at a later date. We could only cry self interest, but not base our concern on moral grounds because we were silent the first time something occurred. This is a lesson we learned from the Holocaust.

And third, there is the conversionist thrust of some segments of Christianity that feel the necessity to sell their faith. This kind of behavior is understandable on their part; it is just unfortunate when they extend it into areas of public domain where it does not belong.

Hopefully the forthcoming suit will be an educational experience for four of the members of the School Board as well as the Gideons. Only time will tell.

Our last Scholar-in-Residence this year will be Rabbi Michael A. Meyer, Professor of Jewish History at Hebrew Union College. He was born in Berlin, Germany and is a graduate of UCLA and HUC, receiving his doctorate degree from the latter school. In 1970-71 he was Visiting Senior Lecturer at the University of Haifa and 1971-72, at the University of the Negev.

Rabbi Meyer is the author of The Origins of the Modern Jew: Jewish Identity and European Culture in Germany, 1749-1824. Among his articles are "The Problematics of Jewish Ethics," Central Conference of American Rabbis Journal June 1968; "Beyond Particularism: On Ethical Culture and the Reconstructionists," Commentary, March 1971 and "Judaism After Auschwitz," Commentary June 1972. His reviews are included in the Reconstructionist, American Jewish Historical Quarterly, American Historical Review, Commentary, and Judaism.

We are looking forward to his visit with us on Friday, March 30th.

Religious School

We want to thank Stuart and Margaret Silbar for the very fine production of "A Sick Purim" which they produced and directed for us this past Sunday. The entire performance was outstanding and a real delight for all who attended. All of those who participated in it are to be congratulated too. Participants were: Karen Dubilier, Patti Frankel, Renee King, Lisa Levy, Anita May, Suzan Rovin, Pam Tucker, and Linda Wurmser.

On March 4, the fourth grade will conduct a Family Worship at 11:20. Parents are invited.

On March 11, the Primary and Junior Assemblies will see the film, "On Herbert Street", which discusses the value of friendship.

March 18 is a third grade program at 11:00 and a seventh grade program at 10:30. Parents are invited to attend.

March 25, the sixth grade will conduct services for the Junior Assembly at 11:20.

Spring vacation is April 8 and 15.

The Bible reading for March 4 is Deut. 6:6-7 and we shall discuss how we fulfill God's commandments.

We are delighted with the singing of our Junior Choir last Friday night - Stacey Bloomfield, Edie Leffler, Donny Mack and Tom Stern. Michelle Mack was not able to join them. We hope they will sing again. And we thank Marilyn Lieber and Joann Miller for working with them. The choir was an interest group of grades 6 and 7.

NOMINATIONS FOR BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Nominating Committee, chaired by Dr. Saul Pubin and made up of six other present Board and non-Board members appointed by the Temple President, will soon meet to select a slate of 10 to 15 nominees.

In addition, the Temple By-Laws provide for nominations to be made by petition. Each person so nominated should present a petition containing the signatures and addresses of at least five (5) members of the Temple in good standing. For the signature to be valid, the signator must not sign more than five petitions, which is the total number to be elected to the Board. The petition should be mailed to the Co-Chairman of the Election Committee, Hyman Shraberg, 3419 Brookhaven Drive (40502), postmarked on or before the 19th day of March.

The Nominating Committee will welcome all petitions or suggestions. If you have any questions, please contact Dr. Rubin.

Five new Board members are elected each year for a three year term. In addition, separate elections are held for three Board members who represent outlying areas. Ballots will be mailed to the entire congregation at the close of the nominating period.

FAMILY WORSHIP ON MARCH 16

Our last Family Worship service this year will be held on Friday, March 16, at 6:30 P.M. followed by a pot luck Sabbath dinner. Come celebrate Purim together.

Those who attend are asked to bring enough meat for their family and twice the amount of vegetables or salad for their family. Dessert, wine and coffee will be supplied by the Sisterhood.

Sandra Gebrow is chairman of the Sisterhood committee. Reservations should be made by calling the Temple office, 266-3251. We need to know how many places to set.

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

We had a meeting Sunday, February 25th. It was quite productive. First, we heard from Rick Rose and Rabbi Leffler. They discussed the current issue of the Gideon Bibles and the school board's decision concerning their distribution.

Then we had a business meeting. We hope to have a retreat with Nashville and West Virginia Youth Groups. Nothing is definite yet, but Don is working on it.

Attention!! Maxine, the newspaper van residing in the Temple parking lot, is in need of nutrition. If you have any old newspapers you don't want, tie them up and bring them to Maxine. She'll love you for it. Remember, these old newspapers are recycled.

TYG missed Jack last Sunday. He's in Spain. He won't even be back for our next meeting.

SPECIAL MEETING!! SPECIAL MEETING!!

All members of the Youth Group are requested to attend an important Youth Group meeting this Sunday, March 4, at 2:30 P.M. in the Temple Vestry.

Because of the serious situation involving distribution of New Testament Bibles in the public schools, it is important that we involve ourselves and our families in an effort to present our views to the appropriate officials.

Every member is requested to invite and bring one or more parents to this special meeting. We will attempt to organize an appearance by students and their parents before the Board of Education at its next official meeting.

The filing of a lawsuit is one helpful action. Our appearance could be still another. Please make every effort to join us.

STAMPS

A few more stamps are needed to mail off the next carton to Wellington. Bring them in to the Temple office so that we can send them to our friends Down Under.

LETTER OF APPRECIATION

The following is a letter received this week by Rabbi Leffler from Leonard A. Banks, brother of Richard Banks who was recently hospitalized here in Lexington:

Dear Rabbi Leffler,

On behalf of my mother and myself, I wish to express our deepest thanks to you for your kindness during our unexpected stay in Lexington. The warmth and sincerity of you and your family and the members of your congregation helped my mother's and my spirit throughout this ordeal.

I am pleased to report that Richard is making tremendous progress and it is only a matter of time before he leaves the convalescent hospital and returns home. The doctors do not foresee any residual effects on Richard in future years.

I told Richard about all the people who came to visit him in Lexington and especially your daily visits and he was deeply touched that people who did not know him would actually take the time to visit him.

Once again, I would like to say thanks for all that you did for us and I hope that we can meet again soon under much more pleasant circumstances.

Give my regards to your wife and family.

Yours sincerely,
Leonard A. Banks

WAR AND PEACE

War is a bore
Which people don't like
Cause it makes people fight
Day and night.
People die and others cry.
Families upset, people in debt.
Riots roar, police soar.
So don't fight cause others might.

Peace is a dream
Which not many people have seen.
It makes people happy and others snappy.
Peace only comes after a war
And that's a bore.
Peace is great
'Cause you can make it right.
So don't fight
'Cause others might.

The poem above was written by Doug Kessler, a 6th grade Religious School student at Congregation Beth Israel in Houston, Texas.

Rabbi's Message

The first question that was asked of Alan Pollack when he spoke about Russian Jewry in January was "What can we do?"

On the surface the answers to this question seem so very insignificant compared to the enormity of the problem. However, he did say there were things that can be done to show that we care and have not forgotten their situation.

One of these things is to phone a Jew in the Soviet Union, a person who has placed his life on the line by requesting to leave that country.

On the surface, this suggestion seems rather far out. How will we know whom to call? What will we say? What about language barriers?

Where there is a will, there is a way. And on March 4th, we placed a call from the Temple office to Dr. Aleksander Tiemkin in Moscow. Dr. Tiemkin is a physicist who has lost his job, and his wife in his efforts to go to Israel. His daughter is being held incommunicado by the Russian police. He is desperate and our call helped buoy his spirits. We did something worthwhile for him.

Mischa Fayer spoke with Dr. Tiemkin in Russian, Hebrew, and French, so there was no language barrier. The Hillel at UK paid for the phone call. We have done it once. It was very exciting!! And especially was it thrilling to know what it must have meant to Dr. Tiemkin. Let us hope that this will be only the first of such calls from Lexington. There may be individuals who would like to place calls on their own. Now that I know how it is done, I'd be happy to pass the information on to others who would like to phone also.

Brotherhood

Did you know that the Brotherhood supports the Jewish Chautauqua Society, which sends rabbis to speak on college campuses. Contributions to this worthwhile cause can be made through the Temple office.

A gift to the Jewish Chautauqua Society in memory or in honor of someone loved is a thoughtful gift.

Every gift provides material aid in furthering our program of teaching the truth about Jews and Judaism to college students. The JCS interfaith program is unduplicated, and is an accepted and respected part of the educational scene. Students are reached on a non-denominational plane in an academic environment where they seek new ways to improve the quality of life.

Every contribution is acknowledged with a letter of receipt to the donor and is deductible for tax purposes.

A tribute card is sent to the family of the deceased or the honoree, with the name or names of the donor. The amount of the gift is not indicated.

COUNCIL OF JEWISH WOMEN

Anthea Boarman, Director of the Kentucky Child Advocacy Council, will address the Council of Jewish Women in the library of Temple Adath Israel March 14 at 12:30. She will speak on Juvenile Justice. Ms. Boarman is former Juvenile Court Judge of Fayette County. Dessert and coffee will be served. If desired, call Carolyn Siegel regarding baby sitting.

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

Jack is back! He handed out applications to Evansville Sub-regionals Tuesday. For those who didn't see him Tuesday night, Jack is growing a beard.

The meeting last Sunday bombed out. Only six people showed up. So after the short meeting was over we went outside and played soccer. Our next meeting on March 18 at 5:30 will have better attendance, won't it gang?!

Maxine, the big van in the parking lot, is hungry for more papers. They emptied her this past Monday so now she needs more food. Remember, please, to tie the papers up and if you do tie them, tie them securely.

BUDGET COMMITTEE

The Budget Committee will be meeting shortly to consider the 1973-74 Temple Budget. All committees are asked to submit their budget requests to Stanley Scher as soon as possible, so that the information will be available for the budget discussions.

PURIM 5733
(14 Adar)

Saturday evening, March 17 and Sunday, March 18, 1973

Purim is a holiday based on a biblical short story, the Book of Esther. It is a marvelous tale filled with heroes and villains with whom people can easily identify: Mordecai, the hero of the day, who defies those bent on destroying the Jews; his grand-niece (and adopted daughter) Esther, who risks her life for the people of Israel; Haman, the wicked prime minister, who insulated and protected King Ahasuerus, and Vashtim the jilted queen.

But Jews were able to see even more easily than others their common lot in the persecution and ultimate triumph of Mordecai and his co-religionists in Persia. The story of oppression was too familiar; the happy ending was one which lent hope in the most perilous of times for the Jewish people.

So, Purim, a holiday which has almost no home observance, and whose synagogue ritual is limited virtually to the reading of the lengthy story of Esther - the Megilah - has become one of the most popular in Jewish folklore. Not only were the dearest hopes of the Jewish people manifest, but the natural hostility against the perfidious tyrants under whom Jews lived could be healthily - and safely - expressed.

Thus, the normally serious mood of the synagogue is turned, as if by magic, into a carnival spirit. Noisemakers, greggers, pots, pans, foot stomping, booing - all are allowed when the name of that symbolic tyrant Haman is read from the Megilah. Cheers for heroes Mordecai and Esther fill the highest cranny of the most noble and stately sanctuary.

Boys and girls dress up in costume and replay the familiar story of the Book of Esther, especially the contest which, the story relates, Esther won because of her gentle beauty.

The gaiety is increased by parades, special three-corner pastry (hamantashen, called in Israel oznai haman), and even the sending of gifts of food to friends, called shalach manot.

But the essential message of Purim is never lost. Over the centuries, Jews have suffered at the hands of cruel oppressors, but none have yet been able to destroy the people of Israel. Not Czars, Hitlers or Soviet commissars can conquer the indomitable spirit of the Jewish people. Am Yisrael Chai! The people of Israel lives, and will continue to live!

From the Rabbi's Desk

Every year at Purim, when I explain to the children in the lower grades of Religious School that the word Purim means lots, I get the feeling that they understand this word to be synonymous with a great deal, such as: I want lots of Hamantaschen. And so I have to continue explaining that that is not what is intended, but rather by chance or happenstance.

When one thinks about it, the idea that we were to be destroyed by Haman by a chance selection of a date is rather distressing. It implies that we were not important enough for him to have been deliberate in his efforts.

However when we further consider this use of drawing lots, we see that there are many times in life when we do things by chance, perhaps on a lark, without any real plan to what we are doing - we "muddle through" as the British would put it.

We read of people who enter into marriage in this way, choose careers, bear children, purchase homes, and do other things in this fashion. We can wonder about many of the activities of our government being of this nature. Life has many "chancy" things to it, which occur by "lots". Sometimes they work out successfully, other times not. One can wonder, however, what the success rate might be if there were a little bit more sound planning done in life's major decisions. This is worth asking.

The date of Purim was selected by lots. How many other things in life occur in the same haphazard fashion?

William J. Leffler
Rabbi

JEWISH COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION

As an added special offering of the JCA Forum, we are delighted to present Dr. Bernhard Abrahamsson at 8:00 P.M. Sunday, March 25th, at Temple Adath Israel.

Dr. Abrahamsson, a native of Sweden, has been on a leave of absence from the University of Denver Graduate School of International Studies to serve as the scientific director of the Israel Shipping Research Institute in Haifa. He holds a B.A. degree in business administration from the Bernard Baruch School of the city college of New York and the Ph. D. degree in international economics from the University of Wisconsin.

His subject will be: "The Middle East and the Energy Crisis: Oil and Turmoil."

STUDY HEBREW AT HOME THROUGH THE MAGIC OF CASSETTES

TA-KOL, a "Home Ulpan," combining the latest techniques of the cassette with the texts of a carefully prepared correspondence course, offers you the opportunity of studying Hebrew at home in twenty lessons.

Ktav Kol, an Israeli educational organization, in association with the Department of Education and culture of the World Zionist Organization, makes it possible for you to study each lesson at your own speed, take an oral as well as a written exam at home, and then have your exams corrected and marked by a tutor orally and in writing.

This is a new and ideal method for you, or your whole family, to learn Hebrew and further extend your ties with Israel. This course gives you a conversational vocabulary of 1,000 words.

The TA-KOL cassettes are approved and recommended by Hebraic experts and by the UAHC Department of Continuing Education, who have arranged for a 10% discount for members of our congregation. If you are interested, contact the Temple office today.

BETWEEN YOU AND ME

We Jews react to the wrong thing-. And often the reactions reek with hypocrisy.

Someone writes an anti-semitic letter and a local newspaper publishes it. The Jewish community sends immediate protestations! Everyone is prepared to man the battlements to defend the honor of Judaism.

'Key 73" promises to convert the country to Christianity. National Jewish leaders raise a raucous cry in protest. Organizations turn out letters of instruction on how to deal with the attack against the integrity of Judaism and wholesome interfaith relations.

No one protests and no organizations are aroused to sacrificial efforts over the fact that a majority of our community fails to make contributions to the Federation when Jewish lives are at stake in Soviet Russia.

There are no broad scale attacks aimed at reversing the declining commitments to Jewish values in the home. We face statistical evidence of an increase in divorce, delinquency and drug addiction. These are emergencies which we are not aroused against, rather we accept them as the price of an American accommodation.

Temples throughout the country are experiencing a severe financial pinch, yet no one proclaims urgent concern over the weakening of an institution central to Jewish survival.

In a community like Indianapolis a major effort to initiate an Adult Institute of Jewish studies may attract 200 participants. This we will hail as an important success because we know that Jewish priorities do not place Jewish education above television.

When we plan activities and programs for the Jewish community which enhance the cultural and spiritual quality of Jewish life, the technique for encouraging participation is to emphasize its social status rather than its inherent merit. Still, no one mobilizes a delegation to alter this sorry reality.

We protest for Jewish integrity, honor and dignity, but fail to see that these are fundamentally the result of what we are and do as Jews who live our Judaism. This is the hypocrisy of the issue. No anti-semitic letter and no missionary effort can produce fear when there is strength, conviction, commitment, and integrity in the Judaism we live. We are willing to battle those on the outside who attack us, but we are indifferent to our own apathy, ignorance, and deficiencies which are far more dangerous and inimical to our existence.

THE MESSIANIC HOPE

WHEN the harp of Judah sounded, thrilled with the touch of inspiration Divine, among the echoes it waked in the human heart were those sweet sounds whose witcheries transport the soul into the realms of happiness. That melody has been our source of courage, our solace and our strength, and in all our wanderings we have sung it. It is the music of the Messianic age, the triumph-hymn to be one day thundered by all humanity, the real psalm of life as mankind shall sing it when Israel's world-task of teaching it shall have been accomplished. Its harmony is the harmony of the families of the earth, at last at peace, at last united in brotherhood, at last happy in their return to the One Great Father.

H. PEREIRA MENDES, 1852—1937.

HAVE we not all one father?
Hath not one God created us?
Why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother,
Profaning the covenant of our fathers?

MALACHI, 2, 10.

On the Judgment Day, the Holy One, blessed be He, will call the nations to account for every violation of the command: Thou shall love thy neighbour as thyself, of which they have been guilty in their dealings with one another.

From the Rabbi's Desk

Mark and Eleanora Yampolsky are beautiful people! Those who missed their talk to us on the 15th about their experiences in Russia and the efforts of Jews to leave that country missed an opportunity to learn first hand of the experience of two persons who have been successful in their desires to get out. I taped Mark's talk and you may borrow it if you would like to hear what he had to say.

One of the suggestions that he made for something meaningful for us to do was to adopt a Russian Jew, to write to him and even phone him, to show him our concern for his plight and to strengthen him in his efforts to leave Russia. Elsewhere in this issue of the Bulletin, you will find information on the two young people that the Yampolskys' gave us and whom they know personally.

Here is an opportunity for us in this congregation and community to do something significant. I hope that we will assume this responsibility and offer them the moral support they so desperately need.

When you mail a letter, would you let me know and when you receive a reply of any sort, also let me know. I should like to keep a log of our efforts in this project. Here is an important, life saving Mitzvah in which we can all join.

If, during spring house cleaning, you find some old texts that you no longer wish to keep, bring them in to the Temple office. A new congregation in Australia will be more than happy to use them.

DUES

Notices for the Fourth Quarter have been sent out. Dues are now due. Help us meet our Budget for the last two months of the fiscal year.

Brotherhood

Did you know that the Brotherhood supports the Jewish Chautauqua Society, which sends rabbis to speak on college campuses. Contributions to this worthwhile cause can be made through the Temple office.

A gift to the Jewish Chautauqua Society in memory or in honor of someone loved is a thoughtful gift.

Every gift provides material aid in furthering our program of teaching the truth about Jews and Judaism to college students. The JCS interfaith program is unduplicated, and is an accepted and respected part of the educational scene. Students are reached on a non-denominational plane in an academic environment where they seek new ways to improve the quality of life.

Every contribution is acknowledged with a letter of receipt to the donor and is deductible for tax purposes.

A tribute card is sent to the family of the deceased or the honoree, with the name or names of the donor. The amount of the gift is not indicated.

YOUTH • ACTIVITIES

This past Sunday's meetings was well attended. Youth Group helped reaffirm the old cliché "Kentucky Fried Chicken is finger-licking good."

When our fingers were clean, two projects started. Some people went down to the TYG lounge to help hang and create posters. The other group went into the kitchen and made candles. Both groups exhibited creativity.

Maxine, the newspaper van is still capable of holding more papers, especially if they are securely tied with string.

All TYGers going to Evansville, Indiana for the Subregional Conclave (March 30-April 1) must attend the transportation meeting at the Temple on Tuesday, March 27 at 7:30 P.M. It will be short, so the sooner everyone gets to the Temple, the sooner everyone can go home.

JEWISH COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION

As an added special offering of the JCA Forum, we are delighted to present Dr. Bernhard Abrahamsson at 8:00 P.M. Sunday, March 25th, at Temple Adath Israel.

His subject will be: "The Middle East and the Energy Crisis: Oil and Turmoil."

Yuli is a 25 year old engineer in heat transfer. He is single and lives with his mother, Esther, and sister, Frida. He was imprisoned with Mark Yampolsky after trying to place a wreath on the grave at Babi Yar in September '72. The Russians tried to draft him but have changed their minds. She was arrested in Moscow in December 1972 for an attempt to hand out a petition in defense of victims of the first Leningrad trial and sent out of Moscow, accompanied by KGB agents and army men. On the way to Frunze, the soldiers tried to push her from the train. It is possible to call her through the second woman in the same situation and whose name is Ella Godes, but they speak only Russian. The phone number is 51-449.

When you send a letter, do not say anything anti-Soviet. Speak only of our concern and what we are doing to help. If possible, type the letter.

From the Rabbi's Desk

I suspect that most of the congregation knows that one of my prime community interests over the course of the years has been the Lexington Public Library. When we arrived in Lexington more than eight years ago I was appalled at its inadequacies and decided that I would try to do something to improve the situation. At first doing anything was difficult, however within the past few years, this community facility has been making tremendous strides in the services that it is providing the reading public, as well as the worthwhile publicity that it is receiving in the media.

I have been President of the Friends of the Library now for more than two years, and in this capacity during the past year have been involved in two exciting events. The first occurred last October when I was the master of ceremonies at the opening of the first branch library in the community, to which more than 400 people came to inspect this new facility. And the second occurred this month, when I was with a group of Library Trustees who went over to Frankfort to view a check for $10,000 from the Governor to be used to purchase books and other loanable items for this branch.

There are many areas of community service available to the individual citizen of Lexington. I have had a great deal of pleasure participating in one of them and seeing it bear fruit, in part, as a result of my efforts.

Rabbi's Message

A week ago I attended a "trilogue" (tripart dialogue) in Nashville. It was the first inter-religious discussion of this nature that I had been to since before the Six Day War. The misunderstanding triggered by that event had almost killed them and indicated how ineffectual they had been. However, time passes and both people and groups start over.

This "trilogue" was co-sponsored by the American Jewish Committee (Rabbi Rudin of that organization, who spoke here a few years ago was present), and it was significant in that the other two groups present were Southern Baptists and Roman Catholics, neither of whom have had much experience of this nature. On the other hand, we Jews have had a great deal of experience talking with non-Jewish groups, and so much of what was discussed was not new to me.

This difference in previous dialoging participation causes an interesting phenomenon to occur. It places the church people at a decided disadvantage. They really do not know what to say or how to react. They are on very unfamiliar ground and they frequently show a lack of understanding of our Jewish problem. And it is for this very reason that more of these dialogues are needed - both on a regional level, as well as on a local level. If we are to continue living in a religiously pluralistic nation, open and frank inter-religious discussion will have to occur. Such meetings as the one in Nashville serve to foster better understanding, even if the apparent consequences seem limited at the time.

We recently sent off another carton of stamps to New Zealand, and are starting to fill still another carton. If you have not been saving used postage stamps yet, do so today. YOUTH ACTIVITIES

Well, another conclave has come and gone. Some people were happy to see it end, and others were not so happy. The seniors were in the latter group. This conclave was to be their last.

There is nothing new to report since the conclave was the big Youth Group function last week, but there are a few reminders to repeat:

1. Maxine, the newspaper van is still hungry.
2. The Youth Group is having a crafts sale on April 9th from 9:00 A.M. until 3:00 P.M.
3. The Youth Group meeting scheduled for April 15th has been changed to April 8th.

SAVE THE JEWS IN RUSSIA

The following are the names of two Soviet Jewish activists who need our help in getting out of Russia:

1. Tartakovsky, Yuli
Bratislavaya Ulitsa 6, Kvartira 50*
Kiev
Ukrainian SSR
USSR

Yuli is a 25 year old engineer in heat transfer. He is single and lives with his mother, Father, and sister, Frida. He was imprisoned with Mark Yampolsky after trying to place a wreath on the grave at Babi Yar in September '72. The Russians tried to draft him but have changed their minds. His phone number in Kiev is 52-8982, if you wish to phone him.

2. Schtromwasser, Faina
Frunze - 33
Shevchenko Ulitsa 142*
Kirghiz SSR

(*Please note change for Russification.)

Faina is 20 years old and has a fiance in Israel. Her application to go to Israel has been refused several times without any reasons. She was arrested in Moscow in December 1972 for an attempt to hand out a petition in defense of victims of the first Leningrad trial and sent out of Moscow, accompanied by KGB agents and army men. On the way to Frunze, the soldiers tried to push her from the train. It is possible to call her through the second woman in the same situation and whose name is Ella Godes, but they speak only Russian. The phone number is 51-449.

When you send a letter, do not say anything anti-Soviet. Speak only of our concern and what we are doing to help. If possible, type the letter.

Mail it registered, air mail, with return receipt requested. Ask for insurance on the letter of up to $13.00, which is free. Say there is something of value in the letter - perhaps a piece of art work. Postage will cost $1.51 per ounce. If neither the receipt nor the letter is returned after one month, file a tracer at the post office. If nothing happens within another month, file a claim for the insurance money, which may take several months to get and can be used to send more letters.

Let's all get behind this effort, and keep the Temple office posted on what you do.

And if you would like your letter to be sent in Russian, Mischa Payer would be delighted to translate it for you. Just give him a call.

RABBI'S MESSAGE

Pesach is the holiday on which we are reminded of the importance of freedom. Every year at this season we rehearse the saga of our exodus from Egypt and what it should mean to us in contemporary terms. And since we all tend to be forgetful, as well as to take for granted what we experience daily, this yearly reminder is necessary.

And as you know, we have been reminded of the preciousness of freedom also by the visit of the Yampolskys' last month. Their description of the fear and the intimidation suffered by the Jews of Russia is living proof that the freedom of movement, association, religion, thought, etc., that we take so for granted is not universally known. And so once again I urge you to write to Kull Tartakovsky and Faina Schtroumsover, if you have not done so already. Make freedom "a personal thing", a Pesach.

And this past week I heard the description of the situation of the Jews of Syria and Iraq, which also speaks to us of the urgency of freedom. Only about 5000 Jews remain in these countries but they are virtual prisoners there. They cannot walk the streets in safety. They are beaten, harassed and murdered. They are desperate and need our help, with letters to our government and John Seal at the UN expressing our gravest concern for their lives.

Pesach is the time of freedom. We know it. Let's raise our voices in concern for those who do not.

From the Rabbi's Desk

Every year, at about this time, we begin our annual drive for the UJA and other Jewish charities. This year, the kick off evening will be on Sunday, April 29, in the Temple Vestry, at which time we will not only formally begin our local drive, but also honor five past chairmen of our local campaign - Leon Cooper, Shelly Derer, Jimmy Levenson, Stan Rose, and Harold Baker. All of these men have served us with distinction and we should all be present to thank them publicly.

In addition, we need to support the UJA Campaign. It is the one major fund raising effort in our Jewish community and distributes funds in our name both in Israel as well as in this country.

In the past, I have been personally embarrassed when I have considered the limited amounts of money which Lexington Jewry has contributed for this purpose. I have participated in the soliciting of funds, and persons whom I have contacted have given me stories about their limited means which are way out of keeping with the standard at which they live. Such obvious prefabrications are a source of discomfort to me, even though they may not disturb the person who is telling them to me. I certainly hope I won't be embarrassed in this way when I call this year.

Mark the 29th. Express your appreciation to those who have served us. Support the UJA and please let's all give appropriately this year. I don't want to be embarrassed as in the past.

FROM THE RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Classes resume on April 22. This is the start of the last block of classes for the Senior Group. Confirmation class sessions start. Confirmation is June 3rd. There is a great deal to be done between now and then.

On the 22nd both assemblies will celebrate Passover with a model Seder. Each class will have some part in the program.

The deadline for the Religious School Contest is April 25th. Watch for prizes in the display cases in the Vestry.

On April 29th the Fifth Grade will present a program in honor of the 25th anniversary of the State of Israel.

On May 6th the Primary Assembly will have a program of Israeli dancing and the Junior Assembly will see the film, "The Ghetto Pillow," which deals with Ghetto life in Eastern Europe.

The Bible passage for April 22 is Deut. 15:7-8 and we shall discuss giving to Keren Ami, UJA and other charities, and whether just financial support is really enough to do.

BROTHERHOOD

Brotherhood's next work party will be Wednesday, April 25th at 7:30 P.M. at the Temple. We are still painting classrooms. Come on and join us, MEMBERS.

On Wednesday, May 30th, we will have our annual "Night At The Trots" at 6:30 P.M. Make your reservations with Harold Frankel, 277-7568 or Dave Doctrow, 277-9656. Let's start these phones ringing!!

YOUTH . ACTIVITIES

I'm sorry to keep confusing the dates and events I give you. Communication lines have been crossed, but this information is as correct as Jack and I can get it.

There is definitely going to be a Crafts Sale on April 29. The sale will last most of the day starting in the morning at 10:00 and continuing until 3:00 P.M. All youth groupers are going to spend the afternoon of Sunday, April 22, making things. This will be right after Sunday School and the Retreat, so parents don't need to wait at the Temple for their youth groupers.

This Crafts Sale is an important youth group fund raiser. TYG needs money for partial scholarships to OVFTY toot and other activities which are youth group oriented.

Speaking of OVFTY toot, the applications are in. If you want one, contact Jack or the Rabbi. Delegate applications are also in - but only a few, so call Jack soon if you want one. The cost for delegates is only $16. There is no transportation fee because Jack will be driving.

TYG is getting involved with Soviet Jewry again. We have ordered Soviet Jewry envelopes and are ordering more Soviet greeting cards. Allen just ordered them so they won't be here for a while yet. More on this later.

TYG is going on a retreat the weekend of April 20-22. We will have dinner at the Temple at 6:00 sharp. Call Don Stern or Susan Abisch for a reservation.

Please don't forget to feed Maxine, the newspaper van.

ATTENTION

Anyone entering 8th or 9th grade next fall who is interested in being a Counselor-in-Training at Camp Shalom this summer, please contact Camp Director Roni Rosenthal, 269-2872.

ISRAEL TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OBSERVANCE

In honor of Israel's Twenty Fifth Anniversary, a program of readings and slides will be jointly sponsored by Temple Adath and Ohavay Zion Synagogue at 7:30 P.M. in the Temple Vestry. NEWS ON SOVIET JEWS

We have received word from the Student Struggle for Soviet Jewry that Alexander Tiemkin's daughter, Marina, was kidnapped from her father's apartment on February 19, 1973, (we spoke with him in March) has been found in a Pioneer Youth camp in Tuopsi, near Sochi, on the Black Sea, and is under intensive psychological pressure to give up her desire to go to Israel. Her father went to see her and after two hours was forcibly expelled from the camp.

We have also learned that the Poltinnikovs' (Eleanora Yampolsky's parents) are still detained in Russia. However, Senator Henry Jackson has personally taken an interest in the case and the State Department has said it would make representations to the Kremlin on their behalf. Additional effort is still needed to get them out.

KEY '73: KNOW HOW TO ANSWER

LAW AND LOVE

A most unfortunate misconception held by many uninformed or biased Christians is that "Judaism is a religion of law, while Christianity is a religion of love." This startling distortion of the real nature of Judaism sometimes serves those who proceed thereafter to denigrate Judaism, dismissing it as harsh and mechanical "legalism," unresponsive to the human condition.

In Judaism, law and love are not mutually exclusive categories. Law does not exclude love. As a matter of fact, the giving of law at Sinai, is seen as evidence of God's love for man. The Jewish prayerbook proclaims God's love for mankind: "With everlasting love Thou hast loved the house of Israel, Thy people;" it sets forth, too, how that divine love is manifested in the world: "Torah and commandments, statutes and ordinances hast Thou taught us. Therefore, O Lord our God, when we lie down and when we rise up, we will meditate on Thy statutes: we will rejoice in the words of Thy Law and in Thy commandments forever; for they are our life and the length of our days, and we will meditate on them day and night. Mayest Thou never take Thy love away from us. Blessed art Thou, O Lord, Who lovest Thy people Israel."

Finally, it is important to realize that the Hebrew term Torah, which yields the English word law, has a much different ring; it means divine instruction, or teaching. Jewish law, hence, is instruction, designed to regulate man's life and to enhance the quality of that existence; it includes law; it is more than mere law.

Whence the misunderstanding and distortion? Some early Christians saw love and law as incompatible, for example, Paul. Understanding law in a more narrow sense, he believed that the Law stood in the way of true belief. For Paul, law implied a responsibility on the part of man to do specific things, but, he held, man was unreliable to the point of virtual incapacity, and hence the Laws of Moses were beyond man's ability. Man was helpless to achieve anything; if a man was to be "saved," it was not because of what man did, but because of God's grace.

In principle, accordingly, Paul declared the Laws of Moses obsolete and annulled. Paul was a most influential voice in early Christianity, but not the only voice; contrast Matthew vs. 5:17-18, wherein Jesus says, "Think not that I have come to abolish the law and the prophets; I have come not to abolish them but to fulfill them. For truly, I say to you, till heaven and earth pass away, not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the law until all is accomplished." If law was so bad, why did Jesus endorse it, and insist on its complete fulfillment?

Christianity is saddled with the dilemma of views both disparaging law and endorsing it. Those Christians who scorn Judaism as a legalism are citing only one theme in Judaism, and not the totality of it.

At the point where Christianity scorns law and lacks all confidence in mankind, Judaism and Christianity part company.

In Judaism, it is not sufficient to say: Be charitable. Help the poor and needy. Be just. Lead an ethical life. Justice and a healthy society emerge from LAWS which guide men in the proper directions. Judaism cannot accept a society in which "faith" and "divine grace" suffice. Judaism is a way of life, with Torah the guide, or at least the textbook.

Judaism holds fast to the belief that law is fundamental to man's existence. But adherence to law in no way rules out the existence of divine love. Law and love are both principles of Judaism. There is in Judaism no echo of the disparagement of law found in aspects of Christianity. The Jewish view is well expressed in Psalm 119:41-48.

"Let thy steadfast love come to me, O Lord, . . . my hope is in thy ordinances. I will keep thy law continually.

THE MESSIANIC HOPE

WHEN the harp of Judah sounded, thrilled with the touch of inspiration Divine, among the echoes it waked in the human heart were those sweet sounds whose witcheries transport the soul into the realms of happiness. That melody has been our source of courage, our solace and our strength, and in all our wanderings we have sung it. It is the music of the Messianic age, the triumph-hymn to be one day thundered by all humanity, the real psalm of life as mankind shall sing it when Israel's world-task of teaching it shall have been accomplished. Its harmony is the harmony of the families of the earth, at last at peace, at last united in brotherhood, at last happy in their return to the One Great Father.

H. PEREIRA MENDES, 1852-1937.

The following are the names of two Soviet Jewish activists who need our help in getting out of Russia:

- Yuli is a 25 year old engineer in heat transfer. He is single and lives with his mother, Esther, and sister, Frida. He was imprisoned with Mark Yampolsky after trying to place a wreath on the grave at Babi Yar in September '72. The Russians tried to draft him but have changed their minds. His phone number in Kiev is 52-8982, if you wish to phone him.

- Faina is 20 years old and has a fiancée in Israel. Her application to go to Israel has been refused several times without any reasons. She was arrested in Moscow in December 1972 for an attempt to hand out a petition in defense of victims of the first Leningrad trial and sent out of Moscow, accompanied by KGB agents and army men. On the way to Frunze, the soldiers tried to push her from the train. It is possible to call her through the second woman in the same situation and whose name is Ella Godes, but they speak only Russian. The phone number is 51-449.

When you send a letter, do not say anything anti-Soviet. Speak only of our concern and what we are doing to help. If possible, type the letter.

Mail it registered, air mail, with return receipt requested. Ask for insurance on the letter of up to $13.00, which is free. Say there is something of value in the letter - perhaps a piece of art work. Postage will cost $1.51 per ounce. If neither the receipt nor the letter is returned after one month, file a tracer at the post office. If nothing happens within another month, file a claim for the insurance money, which may take several months to get and can be used to send more letters.

Let's all get behind this effort, and keep the Temple office posted on what you do.

And if you would like your letter to be sent in Russian, Mischa Fayer would be delighted to translate it for you. Just give him a call.

FAR from having become 1,900 years ago a stagnant religion, Judaism has ever remained "a river of God full of living waters," which, while running within the river-bed of a single nation, has continued to feed anew the great streams of human civilization.

From the Rabbi's Desk

The 5th of Iyar is the Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of the founding of the modern State of Israel. On our secular calendar, this date occurs on the 7th of May this year, and it is one that merits celebration.

Thirty years ago, if some one had told us that the State of Israel would be a reality in five years, we would have laughed in his face. We were in the depths of the Second World War. The Nazi reign of terror was going full blast. The death camps and the crematoria were working overtime. It was a time of despair for our People. And yet we sang Ani Ma-amin - I Still Believe.

And rightly so; Judaism is a religion for optimists. The Israeli national anthem, Ha-Tikvah - The Hope, is perhaps a prime example of this optimism. But without such an outlook, Israel would never have come to be. The land was not hospitable; the settlers, not trained in pioneer living. And yet despite all obstacles, we celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the State of Israel - a modern day miracle, wrought by optimists.

Our congregational celebration on May 2nd will be a religious one, for the reality of Israel is not only political, but religious. We shall try to see Israel through the eyes of Jewish tradition, as well as the reality of human beings. A moving program has been planned for that evening. It will not be elaborate or long - but hopefully will be one that will express our thanks to God for having kept us alive, sustained us, and permitted us to participate in this significant occasion in the history of His People.

William J. Leffler
Rabbi

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

Friday, April 20, was the start of the retreat. There were kids here from Evansville, Huntington, Williamson, and Charleston and of course, Lexington. We started with a wonderful meal cooked by youth groupers and then we dressed for services. Afterwards, there were activities most of the night which started with a discussion led by Rick Rose. The discussion was followed by candle making and then the movie "RPM".

Saturday morning, after services we piled into cars and drove to Jenny Wiley State Park. There we had a picnic of matzah sandwiches. The rooms were ready at 1:30 and after staying up most of Friday night, we were glad!

After an afternoon of boating, hiking, sleeping and running around, we had dinner. Then more running around. At 11:00 P.M. there was a Havdalah Service led by the group and at 12:00, a friendship circle. By this time everyone was tired out, although some people managed to keep going.

Sunday we returned home and even though only 20 people were present at Jenny Wiley, the retreat was a success.

Special recognition goes to: Susan Abisch, Chairman, Don Stern, movie and candle wax; Sharon Frankel, driving and food; Laura L. Levy, study groups and services.

Please don't forget about the crafts sale on April 29th. The youth groupers all pitched in and created things (to sell) this past Sunday after the retreat.

P.S. Please feed Maxine.

Alexander Temkin with his daughter, Marina
(Smuggled out of Russia)

43 year old Alexander Temkin, a theoretical physicist and candidate of Physics and Mathematics forcibly separated from his daughter in Mid-February and detained, is now free. He awaits trial on charges of "insulting the militia" by allegedly calling them "fascists." According to the Soviet Criminal Code (Article 192-1), the offense is punishable by "deprivation of freedom for a term not exceeding six months, or by correctional tasks for a term not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding 100 rubles."

Subsequent to his application for emigration in April 1972, Temkin was dismissed from his post at the Institute of Petroleum-Chemical Synthesis. His interest in emigrating was not shared by his wife, Maya Markovna Raiskaya, who initiated divorce proceedings in May 1972. A Moscow district court "annulled" the marriage and granted the mother custody of their 14 year old daughter, Marina. Nevertheless, Temkin received permission to leave for Israel with his daughter, October 19, 1972. It is reported that Ms. Temkin's refusal to permit her daughter to leave, in spite of Marina's avowed desire to do so resulted in the visa being changed, on October 23, to apply only to Temkin himself.

At a press conference held on January 15, 1973, at the Moscow apartment of a Jewish activist, Aleksei Tumerman, both father and daughter reaffirmed their determination to leave for Israel together. On January 17, a court decision deprived Temkin of his parental rights. One month later the girl was seized and taken from her father. Up-to-date reports give no further information as to the whereabouts of Marina other than that she is in an "undisclosed Soviet institution for children on the outskirts of Moscow."

During the January 15th press conference Marina stated: "I want to go to Israel very much. I have been dreaming of this for long and I shall never give this up, no matter how they threaten me and how they force me to forget this. I want very much to go to my Homeland with my papa, whom I love very much...I am wearing a Magen David - the ancient symbol of my people. I have left the pioneer organization and I shall never again put on a pioneer tie. Everyone must understand that I am not a Soviet schoolgirl, but an Israeli girl; and the judges must also understand this. Our situation is becoming more and more difficult, from trial to trial...Help us! I beg you very much! In two days it might be too late."

From the Rabbi's Desk

This Sunday is our annual Congregational meeting. It is the one official time when the entire membership of Temple Adath Israel is invited to get together to evaluate our past achievements, as well as discuss the future course of our Temple.

A great deal has occurred during the past year. We have had some outstanding programs and projects. Interest has been high, even though participation was varied. A great deal of time and thought was spent on the proposal for a joint facility with Chavay Zion, and even though this proposal was not accepted, it did help us to sharpen our ideas and goals for the Temple.

But we now have to move ahead. The Future Planning and Building and Grounds Committees are both urging us to take decisive action in relation to our current building. We have been "band aiding" for too long now. This cannot go on much longer without some dire consequences. We need to face this problem squarely.

And we need also to consider, as we so often do, the role of the Temple in the life of each member. Are expectations being met? Are there unvoiced needs? Where are our weaknesses and our strengths?

The annual meeting is the time to consider these questions. Let us do so together.

William J. Leffler
Rabbi

HOW TO RATE A SERMON (A Suggested Code)

'G'—Generally acceptable to everyone. Full of inoffensive, puerile platitudes; usually described as "Wonderful!"

'Q'—For more mature congregations. At times this sermon even makes the "Truth" relevant to today's issues; may even contain mild suggestions for change. Often described as "challenging" or "thought provoking," even though no one intends to take any action or change any attitudes.

'R'—Definitely restricted to those not upset by truth. This sermon "tells it like it is." Threatening to the comfortable; most often described as "disturbing."

'X'—Positively limited to those who can handle explosive ideas. This sermon really "socks it to 'em." . . . always described as "shocking" or "in poor taste." The minister who preaches this sermon better have an outside source of income and have his life insurance paid up.

THE PLACE OF GOD IN MODERN LIFE

Since the time of Abraham, the Jew has searched through the world proclaiming the unity of God and denying the divinity of Chemoah and Milton and all the host of little local Baah and Ashmora less than the unitary God of the spirits of all flesh. The modern world has no room for gods who take the armies of one nation under their special protection. It can give no place to a God who gives salvation only to the elect of a creed practicing certain rites or uttering certain professions of faith. Rejecting the newly discovered unity of mankind, the modern world is forced more and more to a recognition of the universal God. The fundamental Jewish teaching of the unity of God is found to be not a sign of poverty of spiritual imagination, nor a cold negation, nor a mathematical proposition, but the farthest reaching of all spiritual truths. We are coming to see God not in a blinding maze of national and sectarian mirrors, but in one universal mirror in which God can be seen as one, supreme, universal.

RABBI'S MESSAGE

The ancient city of Jerusalem had many gates and one of them was known as the Watergate. We read about it in Nehemiah, Chapter 3, the Haftarah portion that Jerry Guttman will read this Sabbath for his Bar Mitzvah. It was before this gate that Ezra the Priest assembled all of the people on Rosh Hashanah so many years ago. He then read to them from "The law of God distinctly, gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading." Thus for him and those assembled, the Watergate was a place from which morality and proper behavior was heard and was to be learned.

For us today, this word, Watergate, has a very different connotation. It is hardly a symbol of law and order, but rather has it become a word which connotes deceit, treachery and certainly a disdain for all that our legal processes symbolize.

The revelations concerning the modern Watergate are still being made and with each new bit of information the walls of our government appear to be more and more shaky to me. My trust in our leadership becomes less and less.

It is really most amazing to find reference to the Watergate in the Haftarah portion in the context in which we find it and see the comparison with its modern day name-sake. Perhaps the building in Washington might have been better named after one of the other ancient gates to Jerusalem, one on the south rather than one of the west.*

RABBI'S MESSAGE

Every year, just prior to Mother's Day, our Temple Sisterhood conducts a special Sabbath Service for us. It is one in which the role of the woman in Judaism is usually considered (or reconsidered).

However, this year, the service was a different one. It was not merely a tribute to mother, but to parents, in the most touching and heart felt way. Laura Lou Levy, who was president of TYG this year, and who will be graduated from Henry Clay in a few weeks, expressed her thanks to her parents for all of the blessings they have given her as their child. The sermon was so moving, that I have asked Laura's permission to enclose it in this issue of the Bulletin.

In our day, when the term "generation gap" has been so very greatly discussed, we tend to overlook the "non generation gap" aspects of parent-child relationships. But they still do exist, even though we may not be continually aware of them. Thus it is more than heartening to have a specific example of the love and affection that one child has for her parents and to have her express it so beautifully. I commend Laura's words to you.

REAL FUN EVENING!

INVITATION

Sue and Ted Friedman cordially invite you to attend the Bas Mitzvah of their daughter, Greta, on Friday, June 8, at 8:00 P.M., at Chavay Zion Synagogue. A reception in Greta's honor will immediately follow the service.

Bas Mitzvah

LISA ANN LEVY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erle Levy, will celebrate her Bas Mitzvah on Saturday, May 19, 1973, at 10:30 A.M. in the sanctuary.

All friends and relatives are cordially invited to worship with Lisa on this happy occasion and to join her for Kiddush luncheon immediately following the service.

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

Last Sunday, the new, enthusiastic executive board met. We made up our calendar of meetings for next year. The first one is September 9. I'm sure that everyone will want to write it down. Now, we'll have something to look forward to all summer. There's only 113 days to go.

But for this year...On May 27, we are going to have a cookout on the Weil Farm. It will be for dinner and we will leave the Temple at 4:00 P.M. The idea is that this is the first meeting of the freshmen. This way they can see what youth group is really like.

Also - on June 16, there is a possibility that we will go to King's Island with the Cincinnati youth group. Please nag Allen, because I want to ride the merry-go-round.

NOTICE

Summer services will begin Friday, the 8th of June.

RABBI'S MESSAGE

This will be the last Temple Bulletin before the advent of summer. The slower pace of Temple activities does not warrant our publishing a professional printed Bulletin. However, as in the past, members will be receiving the weekly newsletter to keep you posted of events. However, those persons on our extended mailing list do not receive the newsletter.

The change in our publication schedule however, does not mean that the Temple has closed down for the summer. Sabbath worship continues at 8:00 P.M., although in an abbreviated fashion and we do not have an Oneg Shabbat.

But more importantly, the summer months are a time of reflection and planning, activities which are more difficult to do during the busier seasons. Temple committees are being organized, as the letter from Dr. Rubin has indicated. And many of these committees will be meeting to plan for the fall. Our Religious School program will be evaluated and details for next year will be worked out. Our Temple auxiliaries will consider their programs and projects. New families will be moving to town and we shall want to greet them and encourage them to join the Temple.

There is lots to do. It won't be quiet, just different. And if you have any ideas you would like to have us consider during the coming months, let me know. I'm always willing to try something once. It may well prove successful and we can benefit from your suggestion.

In any event, whatever you may do, have an enjoyable summer.

William J. Leffler
Rabbi

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

Last weekend, six of us went to Zionsville for Delegates. The main event of the weekend was Ray Silber getting elected OVFTY Social Action National Board Member. He would like any ideas from us about social action projects for small and large groups. If you are creative, please help.

Voted on at Delegates was getting Cincinnati back into KITOWN. If all goes as planned, they will be back in at the end of June. First 51% of the members of the youth groups must sign a petition. Lexington, of course, voted aye on this issue.

Don't forget the cook out this Sunday at the Weil Farm. It is at 4:00 P.M. and be on time! Encourage the 9th graders to come.

TROTS

On Wednesday, May 30th, Brotherhood will have its annual "Night At The Trots" at the Red Mile at 6:30 P.M. Cost is $5.25 per person. Make your reservations with Harold Frankel, 277-7568 or Dave Doctrow, 277-9656. Let's start these phones ringing NOW!!

From The Rabbi's Desk

Our family's trip to the ocean in Maine (I sometimes feel like a lemming) was delightful as ever. We rested, enjoyed the company of dear friends whom we only see when in New England, and appreciated the lack of a daily schedule and the ring of the telephone. But all that is over, a part of the summer which is past and now we get back to the more normal routines of life.

Plans for the coming congregational year are well underway. Committees have been meeting, discussing and formulating programs. Hopefully the yearbook will be published soon. Religious School starts on September 9. Our High Holiday worship services begin with Selichot on Saturday evening, September 22, conducted once again by members of the Temple Youth Group.

As I participate in the committee meetings and listen to some of the plans for the forthcoming year, it looks like it will be another exciting one for us. Three of the four "Scholar-in-Residence" programs are set. We should have some exciting Adult Education programs (based on some of the Religious School courses). We should begin to move ahead with some of the suggestions of our Future Planning committee.

There is a great deal being planned. I look forward to joining with you in helping to implement these programs.

William J. Leffler
Rabbi

FROM THE RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Religious School classes begin on Sunday, September 9. Classes will be held as follows:

Pre-Kindergarten - 10:30 - 11:00
Primary and Junior Assemblies: 9:30 - 11:00
Senior Group - 9:30 - noon

There will be a teachers' meeting for all teachers except Senior Group from 11:00 - 12:00.

Late registration on September 9 will be permitted. However, please note that there is a penalty for late registration as described in the curriculum as sent during the summer.

The Bible passage for September 9 is Proverbs 1:7 and we shall discuss how a fool harms himself when he does not learn.

On September 16 the Junior Assembly will have a music assembly and the Primary Assembly has a worship service.

On September 23 both Assemblies will see the film, "The Hat", which investigates ways people have of getting along with one another.

HEBREW SCHOOL

Classes begin October 11. Registration fee is $10.00 per student. Parents are urged to call the Temple office to register their children.

From the Rabbi's Desk

The High Holidays are fast upon us. Each year as I contemplate them and their significance, I also wonder about their effect upon our lives. Their intent is to have us look at what we have done, at our actions, at our words, at the way we react and behave as we live our lives - and then to see what we can do to change some of the less admirable qualities we possess.

Theoretically, this is a very fine purpose. But I often ask myself, do I see any result from this effort within my own behavior? Am I different because of it? And as I search my soul, I try to see just one or two facets of myself that I have altered because of the experience of the Holidays.

And as a rabbi, I also tend to ask the same sort of question about members of the congregation. What sort of effect has this season had upon them? Are they more patient, more devoted, less abrasive, more concerned? Sometimes it is difficult to discover; other times it is obvious. But either way, it is worth considering.

May you celebrate a meaningful New Year and find blessing in the Book of Life.

Religious School

Classes got off to a good start on September 9. There was a minimum of confusion and by the end of the session it looked like everything was running smoothly. We are having 3 year olds in our nursery school class this year on an experimental basis. We do hope it proves successful. Alycia Rosen is working with this group, in addition to Judy Gevitzman, who taught the 4 year old students last year.

On September 16 the Junior Assembly will have a music assembly and the Primary Assembly has a worship service.

On September 23 both Assemblies will see the film, "The Hat", which investigates ways people have of getting along with one another.

On September 30 the Primary Assembly will have a music assembly and the Junior Assembly, a worship service.

The Bible passage for September 16 is Prov. 6:16-17 and we shall discuss the problems of naughty eyes and why God should hate them.

Rabbi's Message

The High Holidays have many themes that are woven through our liturgy - repentance, contrition, confession, etc. They appear in many places in our prayer book. And among them also is the theme of forgiveness.

Most of us tend to respond to this latter theme as it relates to God's forgiving us for what we have done during the past year. On the other hand it has other aspects to it, one of which is our need to forgive those who have offended us.

Grudges and animosity serve little useful purpose - they embitter the person who holds them; they sour the relationships between people; they can even effect those not directly involved.

As we enter this High Holiday season, we ought to take the opportunity to ask ourselves whether we should not take this occasion to forgive someone whom we think offended us. Maybe he did not really know he did it. Maybe he did not mean for what he did to be as offending as we interpreted. There is often another side to the situation which we do not know.

The High Holidays are a time for us to search our ways. Here is a way that might stand some renewed searching.

Religious School

Our Religious School program is well underway and it looks like it will be even a better year than last. Sunday morning is a beehive of activity, with something going on in almost every nook and cranny of the building. So far the only room not used is the furnace room - the unfinished basement under the sanctuary.

On September 23, the Primary and Junior Assemblies will see the film, "The Hat", which investigates ways to get along with one another.

On September 30, the Primary Assembly will have a music assembly and the Junior Assembly, a worship service.

On October 7, both Assemblies will see the film "Lost Puppy", which will help us consider how seriously we take our responsibilities.

Consecration Services will be held on October 19 at our first Family Worship Service. All new students in our school will be consecrated at that time.

The Bible passage for September 23 is Prov. 6:16-17 and we shall discuss why God hates a lying tongue.

Simchat Torah services will be held on Wednesday, October 17 at 7:00 P.M. All students are urged to attend.

The following letter was received by Rabbi Leffler on September 19th from Yuli Tartakovsky, one of the two persons that the Yampolskys' suggested we write to in Russia. Yuli was a demonstrator at Babi Yar and put in jail by the Soviets.

Dear Mr. Leffler,

I was happy to get a letter from you. That is a big honor for me.

Firstly, excuse me that I answer to you so late. I was in difficult situation, then I was absent, then my mother became ill. She is still in a hospital.

There is no change in my situation. I live with my mother. My sister, Frieda, lives in Israel now. A few months ago we decided to send her alone. She is 19 years old and wants to study. We have no relatives in Israel. She lives in a kibbutz. Now she lives at Netzer-Sereni, 70-395. She is happy to live in Israel, but worries about us and we worry very much about her.

I'm an engineer - thermophysic; my mother, an economist. My father died 5 years ago. He was a good Jew and knew Hebrew very well.

I'd like to congratulate you, your family, relatives and friends with Rosh Hashanah wishes. I wish you and all your relatives and friends to be happy and healthy in the next year. Happy Holiday!

The best regards from my mother, Esther.

Sincerely,
Yuli Tartakovsky

ROSH HASHANAH MESSAGE OF THE PRESIDENT OF HUC-JIR

As the New Year approaches, we find ourselves in the troughs and peaks of emotion. We are thankful for what appears to be the cessation of American military involvement in the Far East. We rejoice in the celebration of the quarter-century anniversary of the State of Israel and the centennial year of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations. Still we are poignantly aware of how far a distance we must yet travel along the road to terrestrial peace, of how refractory and unabating are the tensions of the Middle East and now, palled by the events of Watergate, of how uncertain is the future of all religious values in our nation.

At no time in the history of our country, and perhaps of the world, has there been a greater need to return to the moral and ethical principles of the Bible. At no time has there been a greater urgency to articulate courageously the time-tested principles by which according to our tradition men may live and not die, to recognize that the survival of all mankind depends upon our adherence to the admonitions of Micah the Prophet "to do justly, love mercy and walk humbly with your God."

The opportunity to build a better world must be accompanied by the obligation of each of us to participate in its creation. May this recognition fire us with strength of purpose so that we may yet thrill, undisturbed in gratitude to God, at a better and more peaceful world in the year and years to come.

The following was received by Rabbi
Leffler on Monday, September 17th:

Dear Good Friend,

If ever there were a time for renewal, that time is now. With moral leadership so widely discredited, with dark clouds of dishonor hovering over us, this Rosh Hashanah, ushering in our Union Centennial, summons us anew to seek, with the Psalmist "a clean heart and a steadfast spirit," to bring hope and healing to the wounded soul of our fellowmen.

At this close of my thirtieth year of stewardship of our precious Union, I pour forth my deepest appreciation to all who have upheld my hands and sustained my spirit and I pray for my rare gifted successor unnumbered years of similar blessing.

With heartfelt gratitude and fond New Year good wishes, I am

Faithfully,

Maurice N. Eisendrath

A LICENSE TO FEEL

Kentucky youngsters and their teachers and parents will have a rare opportunity this fall when two series premiere on Kentucky Educational Television. A child-centered series, INSIDE/OUT, and its adult corollary, ECHOES OF CHILDHOOD, will take a positive look at feelings.

Loving, hurting, enjoying, fearing, choosing and hating are explored as normal reactions to day-to-day happenings. INSIDE/OUT will ask children to examine those feelings and consider how they want to deal with them. ECHOES OF CHILDHOOD will inform adults about INSIDE/OUT. Of more significance will be the memories of childhood conjured up by ECHOES OF CHILDHOOD to remind adults of their important role in the emotional growth and development of children.

INSIDE/OUT was funded by a national consortium of state departments of education and television networks which contributed over half a million dollars to its development and production. ECHOES OF CHILDHOOD will be produced in Kentucky and is being co-sponsored by the State Departments of Education and Mental Health and Kentucky Educational Television.

Council of Jewish Women in conjunction with KET is sponsoring parent viewing groups. These are sessions where parents of children viewing INSIDE/OUT in classroom will have the opportunity to meet for discussion in the evening. This is not limited to Council members.

INSIDE/OUT is geared for children in fourth through sixth grades. Since not all teachers feel comfortable in handling this subject there is no guarantee your child will be involved; therefore it will be necessary to contact your child's teacher or principal to know whether your child will be watching this fall.

ECHOES OF CHILDHOOD premieres Tuesday, September 25, at 7:30 P.M. and INSIDE/OUT premieres Tuesday, October 2, at 9:45 A.M.

Please contact Marilyn Gall, 272-1674 for additional information and interest in participating in the parent viewing groups.

STAMPS FOR WELLINGTON

A recent Bulletin of Temple Sinai, Wellington, N. Z., described the excitement that the congregation was experiencing at being able to have a student rabbi from London spend two months with them.

Our contribution of used postage stamps to them, helps them to be able to afford the expenses entailed in bringing someone such a great distance to minister to them for even such a short while. Let's keep the stamps coming in. We should be able to send off another package in a couple of weeks at the rate the stamps have been coming into the Temple office.

We take Jewish books for granted. New congregations in Australia are in sore need of them. If you have any that you no longer use, bring them to the Temple and let our Sisterhood mail them to Australia for this purpose.

Rabbi's Message

The Torah tells us that on Yom Kippur we should "afflict" our souls. This rather undefined phrase was interpreted by the rabbis to mean that Yom Kippur was to be a fast day, a day on which we were to forego food in order to make ourselves uncomfortable and that we should pay greater heed to the message of the Holiday.

When we look at it, this kind of activity is anachronism; discomfort is an aspect of life which modern man has managed almost to remove from life. If we are in physical pain we take a pill to alleviate it. If we have emotional distress we take another pill to help us get over our distress. We air condition our homes, offices, stores, and cars so that the heat will not make us uncomfortable, and we heat them to a temperature where we will not need a sweater. At every turn we try to provide ourselves with convenient items so that we will have instant access to what we want when we want it. We want creaturely comforts and are most upset when they are not present.

In this light then, the discomfort that fasting can cause is most unusual. We so seldom experience any discomfort today. So since we still have this tradition within the Holiday, and one day without food would not hurt most of us, let's use this opportunity to be uncomfortable, and permit our distress to aid us in the soul searching of Yom Kippur.

Bettie Miller, Edie Weil, Hilda Abraham, Jean Stern, Janice Weil, Hermoine Baer, and Fanny Miller made the task of being president of Sisterhood seem a most fulfilling one.

From the Rabbi's Desk

Sukkot is our fall harvest festival, a time when we express our thanks to God for the bounties of the field. And since we live in an area where farming is an important industry, we are more apt to be aware of this facet of our existence than an urban or suburban dweller.

In our observance of this holiday, we shall meet to worship at 5:30 P.M. on Wednesday, October 10, on the Temple property on Mt. Tabor Road - a farm - where the smells and the sounds of agriculture will surround us. And once again the members of our Temple Youth Group will lead us in worship with a special service which they have written for the occasion.

As a part of our expression of thanksgiving, everyone present for this service is asked to bring one item of non-perishable food, which will be collected and contributed to the Salvation Army for their food bank program. A representation of this organization will be present also to accept our donations.

Join us for worship on Sukkot and express your thanks to God through prayer, song and a donation of food to someone who has less than we do.

Happy Sukkot.

William J. Leffler

(Sister of Robert Mickler)

Our Religious School Sukkot celebration will be on October 7 for pre-kindergarten through 5th grade from 11:30 A.M. to 11:50, in the Temple garden, weather permitting. Each student is asked to bring a fruit or a branch of a tree to help decorate the Sukkah. There will be songs and refreshments as part of the program.

On October 7 also, both assemblies will see the film, "Lost Puppy", which deals with how seriously we take our responsibilities.

On October 14, the sixth grade will conduct Family Worship for both assemblies at 11:35.

On October 21, the 3rd grade will present a program for the Primary Assembly and the Junior Assembly will have a Worship Service.

The Bible passage for October 7 is Prov. 6:16-17 and we shall discuss why God hates a heart that devises wicked thoughts.

Consecration Services will be on October 19 at our first Family Worship Service. All new students in our Religious School will be consecrated at that time. They are:

David Edelstein	Douglas Goldman
Marc Lerner	Scott Levine
Sara Mason	Rebecca Mersack

AMNESTY? - OR NOT?

The following resolution will be presented for debate and vote at the forthcoming Biennial Assembly of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations:

Resolution on
AMNESTY

Submitted to and approved by
Commission on Social Action

We are deeply gratified by the cease fire accord presently in force in Vietnam. It has brought cessation to a war we have long opposed and for which we saw neither moral nor legal sanction.

We express our most reverent hope that this cease fire will ripen into an abiding and lasting peace, and that it will provide the needed opportunity to reconcile the deep domestic divisions which so embitter our society. It is time now to "bind up the wounds of the nation."

In our considered judgment, based on the Jewish religious demand always to temper justice with mercy, the first way to affect this healing process is by Congress granting unconditional amnesty to those young men who found, early or late, that they could not participate in that war and so either went to prison, resisted, or deserted. As we make peace with our enemies, let us also make peace with these, our youth.

We call upon Congress to grant unconditional amnesty as an act of reconciliation and compassion that can help speedily to reunite the American people for the key tasks of Justice and peace which lie ahead.

Recommended for approval by the
Interim Advisory Resolutions Committee
August 21, 1973 One abstaining vote recorded

What do you think about it?

In order to help you be better informed, attend a program of our Social Action Committee on the subject on Wednesday, October 31, at 8:00 P.M. in the Temple Vestry.

Prior to discussion we shall see a film entitled Amnesty or Exile which contains interviews with staffers at the Toronto Anti-Draft Programme, Senator McGovern, Henry Schwartzchild of the ACLU, a psychiatrist, and five draft resisters. Interviews with Pentagon spokesmen and Ft. Dix military personnel provide contrasting balance to the film.

Our delegates to the Biennial will appreciate knowing your views when it comes time for them to vote.

MILLS-VANIK BILL

The Mills-Vanik Bill which is concerned with trade relations with Soviet Russia will be offered on the floor of the House of Representatives on October 18. Letters from us to Congressman Breckenridge to vote for the Vanik sponsored "ban on credit extension to those countries restricting emigration," will let him know how we feel about the plight of Soviet Jewry. Don't delay!

In accordance with the Constitution and By-Laws of the UAHC, the Interim Advisory Resolutions Committee held a meeting on August 21, 1973, and reviewed resolutions submitted for consideration by the 52nd General Assembly of the UAHC, to be held November 9 - 13, 1973, in New York City. We shall print for you in forthcoming bulletins those resolutions which are recommended for action.

Resolution on NATIONAL PRIORITIES

The Jewish tradition is distinguished by its sensitive concern for the poor, the weak, the sick, the elderly, the disinherited, and the stranger at the gate, both at home and overseas. Accordingly, the Union of American Congregations has consistently supported governmental initiatives to eliminate poverty, inequality, and social injustice, both in American life and, through sensitive programs throughout the years, for the advancement of many peoples.

The Union of American Hebrew Congregations is deeply concerned with the cutbacks in social programs initiated by the Administration. While we are fully cognizant of the need to curtail inflationary economic policies, we oppose curtailment at the expense of social programs aimed at aiding the poor and disadvantaged.

The Administration's assertions, that many of the social programs initiated by previous administrations have resulted in heavier burdens for the already overburdened taxpayer, disregard the fact that these programs have assured social and economic benefits for poor people across the country, many of whom have, for the first time, become taxpayers themselves.

We recognize that not every social program of the federal government has worked effectively. All of them need continuing evaluation. But to abandon, decimate and impound needed programs of housing, health, education, welfare, employment, transportation, consumer affairs, community action, and the environment at this stage of our history would constitute a betrayal of the American dream for millions of people.

We are also disturbed that, in his insistence upon his unqualified right to impound funds appropriated for social programs enacted by the Congress, the President has impaired the Constitutional rights of the Congress and has imperiled the separation of powers which undergirds our freedoms.

The Union of American Hebrew Congregations, therefore, urges the Congress to reorder budgetary priorities so that social programs are not eliminated which have enabled a large segment of the poor to move forward. Instead, we urge that these programs be improved and enlarged so that more Americans may achieve a better standard of life.

We call upon our constituencies, as well as religious and lay leadership throughout the nation, to speak to the conscience of America, so that years of social progress will not be lost in the name of economic policies which discriminate against those who are impoverished.

SOVIET JEWRY

With the recent capture of four Soviet Jews enroute to Austria by Arab terrorists and the capitulation of the Austrian government to their demands to close Austrian facilities for the transit of these people, the situation of Soviet Jewry has worsened. Thus our efforts to assist them need to be strengthened.

One of the ways we can do this is to purchase Prisoner of Conscience medallions, the funds from the sale of which go to this cause. In addition, when we wear them, we are reminded of the plight of our brethren in Russia and our need to be concerned for them. These medallions are on sale at the Temple office for $2.00, in gold or silver.

ROSH HASHANAH WISHES

Rabbi & Mrs. William Leffler want to thank all the members of the congregation who were so kind in expressing their thoughtful wishes for the New Year and to reciprocate these wishes to all. May it be a year of peace and spiritual enrichment.

SUKKOT SERVICE

Entry to the Mt. Tabor Road property has been changed, so that we now go through the front yard of the farm house. This is closer to Richmond Road than the old entry. There will be a person at the gate to direct traffic.

STAMPS FOR WELLINGTON

A recent Bulletin of Temple Sinai, Wellington, N.Z., described the excitement that the congregation was experiencing at being able to have a student rabbi from London spend two months with them.

Our contribution of used postage stamps to them, helps them to be able to afford the expenses entailed in bringing someone such a great distance to minister to them for even such a short while. Let's keep the stamps coming in. We should be able to send off another package in a couple of weeks at the rate the stamps have been coming into the Temple office. If you wish to include unused, commemorative stamps, these too are most welcome.

From the Rabbi's Desk

Once more Israel is at war. Four times in a quarter of a century! A most discouraging record for any nation, and especially for a young nation born out of the ruins and ruined lives of the Holocaust.

And yet peace in the Middle East is illusive. Israel offers to sit down at the peace table and talk without any pre-conditions and the Arab nations refuse to do so. Diplomats go back and forth with new proposals. The need for Arab oil adds fuel to the conflict. The problem of refugees both Arab and Jewish beclouds the issues. It is a most volatile situation which has sadly ignited once more.

As Jews we cannot help but feel a kinship with Israel and her plight. The attack upon her on Yom Kippur was treacherous and no doubt specifically planned for that day. Our prayers, our efforts, our hearts will be with her in these trying days. For us as Jews, this is certainly not a very auspicious way to start a New Year, but let us hope that out of this conflict a settlement will be reached, one that will bring about the peace in that part of the world for which we have prayed for so long.

Religious School

The Bible passage for discussion on October 14 is Prov. 6:16-18 and we shall consider why God hates feet that are swift in running to evil.

The Sukkot celebration of the Primary Assembly through 5th Grade was great. A Sukkah was built in the Weil Garden by the Brotherhood and decorated by the students. Songs were sung, the Lulav and Esrog, blessed and refreshments were served.

On October 14, the 6th Grade will have a music assembly.

On October 21, the 3rd Grade will have a program for the Primary Assembly and the Junior Assembly will have a Worship Service.

On October 28, the Junior Assembly will see the film, "Trick or Treat", which deals with responsibilities and the Primary Assembly will see the film "Woof-Woof", which discusses tolerance.

October 14 is the last session of the first block for the Senior Group. The second six week block begins on October 21. We will meet at the Temple at 2:45 P.M.

Also this month - Saturday, October 13, many of the members of youth group will be going down south (Nashville) for a shul-in. The participants include Lexington, Nashville, and Evansville.

On October 16, we will be selling candy for the Kidney Foundation. Everyone will meet at our beloved president, Jeff Ruttenberg's house, 820 Brook Hill Drive, at 7:00 P.M.

AMNESTY? - OR NOT?

The following resolution will be presented for debate and vote at the forthcoming Biennial Assembly of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations:

Resolution on
AMNESTY

Submitted to and approved by
Commission on Social Action

We are deeply gratified by the cease fire accord presently in force in Vietnam. It has brought cessation to a war we have long opposed and for which we saw neither moral nor legal sanction.

We express our most reverent hope that this cease fire will ripen into an abiding and lasting peace, and that it will provide the needed opportunity to reconcile the deep domestic divisions which so embitter our society. It is time now to "bind up the wounds of the nation."

In our considered judgment, based on the Jewish religious demand always to temper justice with mercy, the first way to affect this healing process is by Congress granting unconditional amnesty to those young men who found, early or late, that they could not participate in that war and so either went to prison, resisted, or deserted. As we make peace with our enemies, let us also make peace with these, our youth.

We call upon Congress to grant unconditional amnesty as an act of reconciliation and compassion that can help speedily to reunite the American people for the key tasks of Justice and peace which lie ahead.

Recommended for approval by the
Interim Advisory Resolutions Committee
August 21, 1973 One abstaining vote recorded

What do you think about it?

In order to help you be better informed, attend a program of our Social Action Committee on the subject on Wednesday, October 31, at 8:00 P.M. in the Temple Vestry.

Prior to discussion we shall see a film entitled Amnesty or Exile which contains interviews with staffers at the Toronto Anti-Draft Programme, Senator McGovern, Henry Schwartzchild of the ACLU, a psychiatrist, and five draft resisters. Interviews with Pentagon spokesmen and Ft. Dix military personnel provide contrasting balance to the film.

Our delegates to the Biennial will appreciate knowing your views when it comes time for them to vote.

From the Rabbi's Desk

As of this writing the "Yom Kippur War" continues. Hopefully, however, the Israelis will be able to be victorious before you receive this issue of the Bulletin.

But regardless of how long the war lasts, Israel will suffer serious problems as a result of it and there will be a great deal to be done for her. So far over 100,000 young adults have volunteered to go over and help, as have over 700 physicians. I have even had a call from a nurse in Richmond who wished to volunteer. Fortunately, helping hands are not lacking.

And there are other needs. Life will have to return to a sense of normalcy once more - families reunited, or having to learn how to live without a loved one killed in the war. The wounded will need treatment. Destroyed buildings and facilities will need rebuilding. And here, helping hands will not be sufficient. There will have to be funds, a great deal of money to pay for what is needed.

It is to this latter end that our Central Kentucky UJA Emergency Fund is working, daily sending our money to UJA in New York, to be added to the monies coming in from all over our country for this purpose. If you have not already dug deep to aid in this vital work, do so today. Do not delay! The need is urgent! Send your check to:

Central Kentucky UJA Emergency Fund

REV. WALTER K. PRICE TO TALK

NOVEMBER 9

The Reverend Walter K. Price of Woodland Baptist Church will talk to the congregation at Sabbath Worship, Friday, November 9. Rev. Price, a neighbor and friend of Rabbi Leffler, has been using the Temple Library with regularity over the past year and is well read on Jewish Bible commentary. He is the author of a number of scholarly works, including a new book, Abraham: Pilgrim of Eternity, to be published this coming year and which utilizes much of the material he has garnered from our Temple Library.

Rev. Price is a native of Lexington and a graduate of Henry Clay High School and the University of Kentucky, and Southern Baptist Seminary in Louisville. He has been pastor of Woodland Avenue Baptist Church since 1961.

The Music Committee is anxious to obtain reactions of the Congregation to the High Holiday music and to know the opinions of the Congregation regarding the music with a cantor or without a cantor. SOVIET JEWRY

Word has been received that Yuli Tartokovsky, whose letter appeared a few weeks ago in our Bulletin, has been given permission to leave Russia. Hopefully our efforts assisted him in receiving this permission.

On the other hand, Victoria Poltinnikov, Eleanora Yampolsky's sister, was jailed for a few days for having demonstrated at Babi Yar on September 29.

Prisoner of Conscience medallions are still available at the Temple office. Let's keep up our efforts.

BOOKS FOR AUSTRALIA

If you are having a garage sale, don't sell your Jewish books. Bring them into the Temple so we may send them to young congregations in Australia.

RESOLUTION PASSED AT CCAR CONVENTION IN ATLANTA
JUNE, 1973

RESOLUTION OF THE COMMITTEE ON MIXED MARRIAGE

The Central Conference of American Rabbis, recalling its stand adopted in 1909 "that mixed marriage is contrary to the Jewish tradition and should be discouraged" now declares its opposition to participation by its members in any ceremony which solemnizes a mixed marriage.

The Central Conference of American Rabbis recognizes that historically its members have held and continue to hold divergent interpretations of Jewish tradition.

In order to keep open every channel to Judaism and K'lal Yisrael
for those who have already entered into mixed marriage, the CCAR calls upon its members:

1. to assist fully in educating children of such mixed marriage
as Jews;
2. to provide the opportunity for conversion of the non-Jewish spouse, and
3. to encourage a creative and consistent cultivation of involvement in the Jewish community and the synagogue.

RESOLUTIONS FOR UAHC BIENNIAL

In accordance with the Constitution and By-Laws of the UAHC, the Interim Advisory Resolutions Committee held a meeting on August 21, 1973, and reviewed resolutions submitted for consideration by the 52nd General Assembly of the UAHC, to be held November 9-13, in New York City. We shall print for you in forthcoming bulletins those resolutions which are recommended for action.

Resolution on EQUAL RIGHTS AMENDMENT

The Union of American Hebrew Congregations has consistently favored equality of opportunity without discrimination as to race, religion, national origin or sex. Indeed, the equality of women in religious life is a principle which distinguishes Reform from other branches of Judaism.

State legislatures throughout the country either have been or presently will be, called to vote on ratification of the proposed 27th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States - the Equal Rights Amendment. This amendment states that equality of rights under law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex, and gives Congress the power of enforcement.

The Equal Rights Amendment recognizes the inherent rights and concomitant responsibilities of women as co-equal with men. If adopted, it would rectify longstanding injustices which have deprived women of education, employment, and financial opportunities equal to those of men, as well as end discriminatory public laws which have contributed to a second-class status for women in American society. Illustrations of such discriminations are innumerable as indicated in the attached fact sheet.*

We support the proposed Equal Rights Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which would make unconstitutional discrimination on the basis of sex, and we urge our congregations and affiliates to press for adoption of the Amendment.

ROSH HASHANAH SERMON

Rabbi Leffler's sermon on Rosh Hashanah evening has generated a good bit of discussion. It was included in last week's Bulletin as well as his talk on Jewish Identity.

Two of the more controversial parts of the sermon will be the subject of discussion on forthcoming Friday evenings. The first part, mixed marriage, will be considered on Friday, October 26 in a discussion in the Vestry. The second part, on our split loyalties, will be considered on Friday, November 30.

If on a spring night I went by
And God were standing there,
What is the prayer that I should cry
To Him? This is the prayer:
O, Lord of Courage grave,
O, Master of this night of spring,
Make firm in me a heart too brave
To ask Thee anything!

AMNESTY? - OR NOT?

The following resolution will be presented for debate and vote at the forthcoming Biennial Assembly of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations:

Resolution on

AMNESTY

Submitted to and approved by
Commission on Social Action

We are deeply gratified by the cease fire accord presently in force in Vietnam. It has brought cessation to a war we have long opposed and for which we saw neither moral nor legal sanction.

We express our most reverent hope that this cease fire will ripen into an abiding and lasting peace, and that it will provide the needed opportunity to reconcile the deep domestic divisions which so embitter our society. It is time now to "bind up the wounds of the nation."

In our considered judgment, based on the Jewish religious demand always to temper justice with mercy, the first way to affect this healing process is by Congress granting unconditional amnesty to those young men who found, early or late, that they could not participate in that war and so either went to prison, resisted, or deserted. As we make peace with our enemies, let us also make peace with these, our youth.

We call upon Congress to grant unconditional amnesty as an act of reconciliation and compassion that can help speedily to reunite the American people for the key tasks of justice and peace which lie ahead.

Recommended for approval by the
Interim Advisory Resolutions Committee

RABBI'S MESSAGE

The pace of events in Washington surrounding the Watergate Incident has been moving so fast this past week that I could not help be delighted by our daughter Carrie's recent comment that she is glad that she is taking history in high school now, because when these events get into the text books in five years or so, it will be just too confusing.

And this is really so. One day the President says "no" to Judge Sirica's hearing the tapes and the next day he says "yes". The Senate Subcommittee holds public hearings and it sometimes becomes difficult to differentiate them from testimony at a courtroom trial. The "dirty tricks" and illegal activities of those involved in the affair sound like "Mission Impossible." The list of characters involved grows and grows.

As a result of what we are seeing, indignation within the American public continues to rise. Telegrams, urging the impeachment of President Nixon flood the Western Union office in Washington. Each new day finds us eager to hear the next installment - like a soap opera.

However, as we look at the whole sorry mess, let us not forget that all of the participants, not only those who are specifically implicated in this sad situation, are human beings. They all have had their questionable activities and under the counter dealings. Thus those standing in judgement will not be "pure as the driven snow." On the other hand, if this matter is to be brought to any kind of conclusion, we shall have to operate within the limits of the human beings elected and appointed to carry out our system of justice and hope that despite their prior failings that at least this time we can trust them to be reasonably honest and above board in their actions and decisions. Let's not forget that we still live in the time prior to the Days of the Messiah.

REV. WALTER K. PRICE TO TALK

NOVEMBER 9

The Reverend Walter K. Price of Woodland Baptist Church will talk to the congregation at Sabbath Worship, Friday, November 9. Rev. Price, a neighbor and friend of Rabbi Leffler, has been using the Temple Library with regularity over the past year and is well read on Jewish Bible commentary. He is the author of a number of scholarly works, including a new book, Abraham: Pilgrim of Eternity, to be published this coming year and which utilizes much of the material he has garnered from our Temple Library.

Rev. Price is a native of Lexington and a graduate of Henry Clay High School and the University of Kentucky, and Southern Baptist Seminary in Louisville. He has been pastor of Woodland Avenue Baptist Church since 1961.

MUSIC COMMITTEE

The Music Committee is anxious to obtain reactions of the Congregation to the High Holiday music and to know the opinions of the Congregation regarding the music with a cantor or without a cantor. Your opinion will help the committee to decide what we shall do in this regard next year. To register your views, please call the Chairmen, Dr. & Mrs. Lloyd Mayer at 266-7356 or the Co-Chairman, Mrs. Arthur Lieber at 266-1240 or send a note to the Temple office.

STAMPS

The number of stamps that come into the Temple office continue to grow in volume. This easy way of aiding Temple Sinai in Wellington, New Zealand is a real Mitzvah on our part. The congregation there is affiliated with the World Union for Progressive Judaism, which is headquartered now in Israel, and because of the war, will be less able to attend to the immediate needs of Jewry elsewhere. Therefore our stamps will help take up this slack.

JEWISH COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION

FUEL CONSERVATION EFFORT

At the recent JCA Board meeting, a resolution was passed urging the members of the Central Kentucky Jewish community to make a commitment to conserve gasoline and to agree to do so by car pooling and using public transportation whenever possible, as well as to conserve other fuels, such as electricity, by limiting the use of lighting appliances, heating and air conditioning to the greatest extent possible.

This resolution has three goals:

1. To demonstrate the support of Central Kentucky Jewry for the government's campaign in this regard to a possible fuel shortage as a result of the Mid East Conflict.
2. To have a general impact on the seriousness of the fuel crisis on all citizens of Central Kentucky.
3. To motivate other citizens, both here and elsewhere, to exhibit similar concerns.

Once JCA is able to obtain sufficient agreement to this resolution, an announcement of it will be issued to the media.

REFORM JUDAISM MARKS 100 YEARS DURING 1973-74 AND ESTABLISHMENT
OF UNION OF AMERICAN HEBREW CONGREGATIONS BY I. M. WISE

In 1846, a Bohemian born Rabbi, Isaac Mayer Wise, arrived on the American Continent, determined to develop a Judaism able to flourish in the free spirit of the new democracy.

During his early years Wise served pulpits in Albany (Beth El Congregation) and B'nai Jeshurun (Isaac M. Wise Temple) in Cincinnati. Through his weekly newspaper "The Israelite" he pressed for his dream, the unification of Jewish religious life in America, including the cooperation of existing synagogues under the banner of a single organization, the formation of a seminary to train rabbis and the establishment of a rabbinic association.

Wise did not bring Reform Judaism to this continent; the first congregation was founded in Charleston, South Carolina in 1824 and Baltimore's Har Sinai Verein in 1842.

He recognized, however, that central institutions were needed if Jewish religious life was to grow and flourish. After numerous obstacles, Wise's goal became a reality when on July 8, 1873 representatives of 34 congregations from 28 cities met to establish the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, the first such institution of its kind in America.

Two years later Wise also founded his seminary, Hebrew Union College, another first for Jewish life on the North American Continent.

It did not take long for the rabbinic leader to achieve a complete amalgamation of existing liberal synagogues when in 1878 he convinced East Coast Jewish leadership, affiliated with the Board of Delegates of American Israelites, to join the UAHC and as a "Union" carry out the nurturing of religious life, philanthropic work and social justice.

In 1889 The Central Conference of American Rabbis was formed and combined with the UAHC and HUC. These three bodies represent the major institutions of Reform Judaism.

Today we are part of a UAHC family consisting of 710 congregations in the United States and Canada. There are 13 UAHC regional offices assisting the congregations in all phases of their activities, such as religious education, worship, youth, finance, membership drives, social action and community relations, and inter-religious activities.

For the past three decades the guiding light and inspiration for more than one million Reform Jews has been the UAHC President, Rabbi Maurice N. Eisendrath. After his retirement at the end of this year, he will continue as President of the World Union. The new UAHC President will be Rabbi Alexander M. Schindler who will assume office on January 1, 1974.

THE JERUSALEM POST WEEKLY

With all of the struggle going on in Israel today, one way of knowing almost first hand what is going on is to subscribe to an Israeli newspaper. The one paper printed in English and able to give you this information is the Jerusalem Post, available in an overseas weekly edition, air mailed every week from Jerusalem. Subscription rate is $25 for one year, $45 for two years and $65 for three years. Subscription blanks are available at the Temple office.

ALL that is best in the ethics of the modern world, in so far as it has not grown out of Greek thought, or Barbarian manhood, is the direct development of the ethics of old Israel. There is no code of legislation, ancient or modern, at once so just and so merciful, so tender to the weak and poor, as the Jewish law.

Our topic of brainstorming today is involvement; but, before we promise to get involved in something, we usually want to know whether or not it is worthwhile.

I have been told ever since we moved here that there are too many Jewish women's organizations, and that Sisterhood is a bore. If the latter is true, it is because you lack the enthusiasm to change this image -- but hopefully today, we can start with your brainstorming ideas and at least try.

I would like to take one minute to refute the charge of "just another women's organization." First of all, our purpose is not fulfilled by any other group, for we are religiously motivated modern Jewesses, exercising our influence upon Jewish and non-Jewish life through the congregation.

Who else supports their children's religious school and provides teachers?

Who else furnishes camperships to our N.F.T.Y. youth and grants in aid to Rabbinic students at H.U.C?

Who else provides fellowships to worthy young men to train as Reform Rabbis in foreign countries?

Who else supplies the Jewish Braille Institute of America in New York City with Braille, large type and talking books of Judaica for the blind all over the world?

We do all these things, and much more, so let's find out now how we can incorporate your ideas to do them better and with more enthusiasm.

It is much easier to play tennis, golf and bridge than to study and get involved in Judaism - not a popular "in" thing to do - so I've been told. But let this be our answer

If I am not for myself, who will be?
But if I am only for myself, what am I?
And if not now, when?

From the Rabbi's Desk

The Israeli-Arab war was more than double the length of the 1967 conflict, but it seemed like an eternity. We eagerly listened to each newscast, anxious to know the latest events, hopeful that the casualties would be few, anxious for a quick truce.

And now this conflict is over and hopefully the nations involved will be able to sit down at the peace table and talk about the differences which have smoldered for so long and which brought about this tragic conflict. There is nothing that we desire more than for peace in this troubled part of the world. And to achieve peace, people have to be willing to talk to one another and to share the burden of their mutual concerns.

On a level closer to home this may also be necessary. When Mr. Kerem of the Israeli Consulate spoke here in Lexington a few weeks ago, we heard the questions of the Arab students at UK and the attitudes that they reflected by their queries of our speaker. Perhaps we, as a community might do a small part by being peace makers at a local level and opening discussions with these students.

I am also distressed by rumors that I hear about a local merchant, of Arab background, about whom unpleasant rumors have been circulating. From all I have been able to ascertain, they are not correct and are a disservice to this fine gentleman. I certainly pray that we will establish peace in this facet of our community also.

This recent war has had many tragic aspects - not only on an international scale, but on a local one. There is little we can do to ameliorate the international problems. There is a good deal that we could do to ameliorate the local aspect of the situation.

SCHOLAR-IN-RESIDENCE

MR. JON STEIN, a fourth year student at Hebrew Union College, will be our first speaker for our Scholar-in-Residence this year. Mr. Stein is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania with the B.S. degree in Economics, earning the M.A.H.L. degree at HUC in 1973. He was a social worker with the American Red Cross in Philadelphia, 1969-70; youth group advisor, Main Line Temple, Philadelphia, 1967-70; former president of the Pennsylvania Federation of Temple youth and is currently youth group advisor, Wise Temple, Cincinnati and assistant to the director, UCI, Zionsville, Indiana.

Mr. Stein will visit with us on Friday, November 16th. At 4:30 he will speak to Senior Group students of our Religious School on the subject "Israel and You" and at 6:00 there will be a Shabbat dinner for Rabbi Stein, the students and their parents. At 7:00 he will review with parents the high points of the earlier discussion and at 8:30 he will speak to the congregation on the subject "Jewish Youth Today: Their Identity and Our Crisis". Mark this date and plan to attend.

JEWISH COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION

FUEL CONSERVATION EFFORT

At the recent JCA Board meeting, a resolution was passed urging the members of the Central Kentucky Jewish community to make a commitment to conserve gasoline and to agree to do so by car pooling and using public transportation whenever possible, as well as to conserve other fuels, such as electricity, by limiting the use of lighting appliances, heating and air conditioning to the greatest extent possible.

This resolution has three goals:

1. To demonstrate the support of Central Kentucky Jewry for the government's campaign in this regard to a possible fuel shortage as a result of the Mid East Conflict.
2. To have a general impact on the seriousness of the fuel crisis on all citizens of Central Kentucky.
3. To motivate other citizens, both here and elsewhere, to exhibit similar concerns.

Once JCA is able to obtain sufficient agreement to this resolution, an announcement of it will be issued to the media.

If you have not yet been called to cooperate in this effort, please call:

Mrs. Louis Dubilier, 277-0549
Mrs. Mischa Fayer, 277-1756

Mrs. Alan Bloomfield, 266-6867

HADASSAH

The November meeting of Hadassah will be held on Wednesday, November 7th at 9:30 A.M. at the home of Mrs. Louis Dubilier, 665 Bayswater Way.

Miss Lorraine T. Kroetch, director of the Re-Education Program for Children in Lexington, will be guest speaker. She will discuss how this program provides preventative and rehabilitative mental health services for behaviorally or emotionally disoriented children.

In addition, Mrs. Phillip Berger will discuss how youth aliyah is rehabilitating the children of new immigrants to Israel through its Fostering Project and new Day Care Centers.

SPLIT LOYALTIES

The second evening discussing Rabbi Leffler's Rosh Hashanah sermon will be November 30, at which time we shall talk about our split loyalties as Jews.

What Maimonides Said About Synagogue

" In every place where there are ten Jews it is incumbent upon them to establish an institution where men may enter to pray on every occasion for prayer - and such an institution is called a Beth Hakneseth. And the Jews in the community compel one another to build for themselves a synagogue and to acquire a Torah. And when a synagogue is built it should be built on a high place in the city - and it should be taller than all the buildings in the community."

UAHC COLLEGE EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

"The UAHC College Education Department announces a new 'outreach' program to help relieve the alienation process that affects many college freshmen. The JUDAH PROGRAM will allow visiting high school students the chance to meet a student from the College Education Department mailing list; to be shown around the campus; fed information concerning religious and campus activities and opportunities; and simply meet a person in the same environment. The introduction will be affected by contacting Marc Pearl, Co-ordinator of the College Education Department, 838 Fifth Avenue, New York City 10021. Our college rep will meet the potential fellow student when an interview has been arranged or at any other time the student is planning to visit the school. As Genesis, Chapter 44, shows, Judah became a fine example of what a brother in Judaism could and should be to his fellow men and women. Our Judah Program carries on the ideas and ideals of that Judaism."

THE ART OF GETTING ALONG

Sooner or later a man, if he is wise, discovers that life is a mixture of good days and bad, victory and defeat, give and take.

He learns that a man's size is often measured by the size of the thing it takes to get his goat . . . that the conquest of petty irritations is vital to success.

He learns that he who loses his temper usually loses.

He learns that carrying a chip on his shoulder is the quickest way to get into a fight.

He learns that buck-passing acts as a boomerang.

He learns that carrying tales and gossip about others is the easiest way to become unpopular.

He learns that everyone is human and that he can help to make the day happier for others by smiling and saying "Good morning!"

He learns that giving others a mental lift by showing appreciation and praise is the best way to lift his own spirits.

He learns that the world will not end when he fails or makes an error; that there is always another day and another chance.

He learns that listening is frequently more important than talking, and that he can often make a friend by letting the other fellow tell his troubles.

He learns that all men have burnt toast for breakfast now and then and that he shouldn't let their grumblings get him down.

He learns that people are not any more difficult to get along with in one place than another and that "getting along" depends about ninety-eight per cent on his own behavior.

PARENTAL IDEALS

"Just before she went off to college, Laura Levy preached the guest sermon at the invitation of her rabbi, Rabbi William Lefrier, 124 N. Ashland Ave., Lexington, Ky. and what she said was enchanting. She described the way her parents reared her, from babyhood on. In one part of her talk, which is so fetching it's worth fetching, she said: 'My parents gave me a basis for everything I am and will be - a capacity to love and care, a strong sense of self, integrity and honesty. An open mind...Where did they find these ideals with which to tutor me? I think, from Judaism.'"

From The Rabbi's Desk

When you receive this issue of the Temple Bulletin, I shall be in New York attending the Biennial of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations. This meeting will be significant in a number of ways.

First, it is the 100th anniversary of the founding of the Union, and there will be festivities marking this occasion. A century ago, the number of Jews in this country was quite small, congregations often struggling for their existence and rabbinic leadership quite limited and all of European training. Today the situation is very different. There are over 5 million Jews in our country, there are thousands of congregations scattered across our country - some very large, others rather small and there is a dynamic, American trained rabbinat, not just for Reform congregations but for almost all congregations. We see a big change here.

Second, Rabbi Maurice Eisendrath, who has been the president of the UAHC for a quarter of a century, will be retiring and his place will be taken by Rabbi Alexander Schneider, a young and dynamic person (who, by the way was a scholar-in-residence three or four years ago) who has been ably trained for this position. His assumption of office will then place the leadership of Reform Judaism (UAHC, CCAR and RUC) in the hands of men all under 50 years of age. And so we are not only entering a new century for Reform, but Reform is now in the hands of men who will reach their prime in this second century of our existence.

And a third significant aspect of the Biennial is the proposal to change the name of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations to the Union of Reform Judaism, a change which I heartily support. The old name was too vague; the new name is definitive. The old name still reflects the 19th century insecurity of German Jews to use the word Jew and its related words. We have fortunately outgrown this insecurity, and this change will so reflect our maturity. Even titles need updating in this fashion.

We shall have a large delegation attending the Biennial and the Sisterhood Biennial which occurs at the same time. I am sure they will all find the sessions interesting and stimulating and a great help in evaluating our own congregational efforts.

William J. Leffler

BOOKS

JEWISH BOOK MONTH

November 16 - December 16

We are about to begin Jewish Book Month, a yearly celebration sponsored by the Jewish Book Council of America. The aims of the Council are:

"To infuse in both young and old the traditional ardent zeal for Jewish knowledge through reading the Jewish classics as well as contemporary works.

To encourage the establishment of Jewish book shelves as an integral part of the home environment.

To help augment Jewish book collections in libraries of synagogues, schools, centers, and other institutions, and to stimulate their utilization for enriching club programs, study circles, discussion groups, and the like.

To make available books of Jewish interest for promoting reciprocal inter-faith understanding and cooperation."

With these aims in mind, you should be encouraged once again to use the Temple Library. We are continually purchasing new books of Jewish interest and of course have many classic ones also.

Enclosed in this issue of your Bulletin is a booklet from the Jewish Publication Society of America cordially inviting you to become a member of their book club.

SOCIAL ACTION

WHAT WOULD YOU DO IF...?

Your rabbi recently preached a sermon against religion in the public school. Excerpts were carried in the daily newspaper. Your Christian neighbor, in the course of a casual conversation with you in the back yard asks: "Why is it that you Jews are against God in the public schools?"

SCHOLAR-IN-RESIDENCE

MR. JON STEIN, a fourth year student at Hebrew Union College, will be our first speaker for our Scholar-in-Residence this year. Mr. Stein is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania with the B.S. degree in Economics, earning the M.A.B.L. degree at HUC in 1973. He was a social worker with the American Red Cross in Philadelphia, 1969-70; youth group advisor, Main Line Temple, Philadelphia, 1967-70; former president of the Pennsylvania Federation of Temple youth and is currently youth group advisor, Wise Temple, Cincinnati and assistant to the director, UCI, Zionsville, Indiana.

Mr. Stein will visit with us on Friday, November 16th. At 4:30 he will speak to Senior Group students of our Religious School on the subject "Israel and You" and at 6:00 there will be a Shabbat dinner for Rabbi Stein, the students and their parents. At 7:00 he will review with parents the high points of the earlier discussion and at 8:30 he will speak to the congregation on the subject "Jewish Youth Today: Their Identity and Our Crisis". Mark this date and plan to attend.

YOM KIPPUR SHEMI SERVICE

A brief special service of concern for the State of Israel will be held on Sunday, November 18, at 7:00 P.M. in our Sanctuary. This service, called Yom Kippur Semei (a second Yom Kippur) will be a joint worship service of both Temple Adath Israel and Ohavay Zion Synagogue, and Rabbi Leffler and Rabbi Schwab will officiate at it.

Let us join together as a community to proclaim our worshipful concern for our co-religionists in Israel.

ISRAEL

The recent Israeli-Arab war has taken a heavy toll on our Reform Congregations in Israel. Their rabbis have been in the front lines (not as rabbis but as soldiers). Their members have also fought for their country. But because of the nature of the Israeli political structure, these congregations do not get the financial support of the government that traditional congregations do. Thus with the increased pressure on the Israeli economy, our Reform congregations there will be severely strapped for funds and in greater need of our support than ever before.

We can help. We can contribute $1.00 per person to the Israel Commission of the UARC, to send to the Reform Congregations in Israel. Send your check for an appropriate amount to the Temple, made out to the "Israel Commission - UARC", and we shall forward it to them for you.

"A book is the most delightful companion...An inanimate thing, yet it talks...it stimulates your latent talents. There is in the world no friend more faithful and attentive, no teacher more proficient...It will join you in solitude, accompany you in exile, serve as a candle in the dark, and entertain you in your loneliness. It will do you good, and ask no favor in return. It gives, and does not take."

YOM KIPPUR SHENI SERVICE

A brief special service of concern for the State of Israel will be held on Sunday, November 18, at 7:00 P.M. in our Sanctuary. This service, called Yom Kippur Sheni (a second Yom Kippur) will be a joint worship service of both Temple Adath Israel and Ohavay Zion Synagogue, and Rabbi Leffler and Rabbi Schvab will officiate at it.

Let us join together as a community to proclaim our worshipful concern for our co-religionists in Israel.

STAMPS FOR NEW ZEALAND

We have an even larger canon of stamps just about ready to be mailed off to Temple Sinai in Wellington. A few more stamps will do it. Keep them coming into the Temple.

From the Rabbi's Desk

The UARC Biennial this past week was an emotionally laden meeting - with mixed sadness and exultation.

The sadness was occasioned by the sudden death of Rabbi Maurice N. Eisendrath, the President of the UARC for the past 30 years. He was to have finished his term of office at the meeting but passed away on Erev Shabbat, just as the sessions were to start, immediately before the opening worship service. What should have been Dr. Eisendrath's final message to the Union was read by Rabbi Alexander Schneider, with amazing composure and self control. Though he was no longer present in body, Maurice's spirit remained with us and we were moved by his words from beyond pale of death.

On Sunday, Maurice's funeral was held at Central Synagogue in its inspiring century old sanctuary. It was a solemn, dignified service, warm and befitting of the person he was. It was also an ironically fitting conclusion to his lengthy and public career. His constituency gathered for his funeral.

The exalting aspects of the meeting were found in other facets of the five days. Alex Schneider was installed as President of the UARC in a most beautiful and inspiring service held in the sanctuary of Temple Emanuel. I have known him for 15 years and worked closely with him when he was the Director of the New England region. He is a fine and capable person and will do an excellent job of directing the future course of the Union.

In addition, many of the discussion sessions were most worthwhile and informative and permitted us to place our congregational functioning in perspective - both with what other congregations do, as well as with the challenges which the future will pose for us. And these challenges will be great, according to the forecasts of those who spoke.

The meeting is now over; its program, now history. Now we settle back to consider how some of the ideas and experiences we garnered there can be adapted for our needs.

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

OVFTY is planning an event over Winter Vacation. It is called a Kallah-Haggigah and will consist of a four day "mini-OVFTY-toot" at UCI in Zionsville, Indiana. At the event kids will learn about a selected theme from both the arts and study standpoint. And more important, they will learn how to plan TYG programs around the theme. The theme is ISRAEL and I'm sure you all know how important that will be during the next few months to all of us as Jews and Americans.

If it sounds exciting, it should. The dates for the function are projected as December 20-23 (maybe to the morning of the 24th). However the price will be a little bit steeper than for past events. The cost for each kid will be $10.00 a day (only $9.00 if we get 40 kids at the event and $8.00 if we get 60 kids). So the cost for four days should be from $20.00 to $30.00 plus transportation. If you want to attend, contact Jack Miller today.

SPOTLIGHT on SISTERHOOD

Post N.F.T.S. Biennial

Theme - Commit Thy Works unto the Lord:
Sisterhood Deeds and Dreams

The 60th Anniversary Biennial Assembly was one of happiness, learning, installation of a new N.F.T.S. president, and of sadness.

- A. Happiness was: Jane Evans, N.F.T.S. Executive Director for 40 years, being told of the "Jane Evans Meditation Garden" and being presented an El Al Airline ticket to Israel.
2. Our Sisterhood receiving three honor badges - those being the Leo Baeck Sisterhood Library, YES Fund, and Friends of the World Union.
- B. Learning was: Joint UAHC/NFTS Mini Plenaries. They were:
1. Mitzvot, Authority and Freedom, the Problems of the Modern Jew.
 2. Israel: The Evolving Relations between the State and the World Jewish Community.
 3. The Jewish Family: What kind of Family Life Can Best Preserve and Transmit Jewish Values.
 4. What can We Affirm - About God and Man in a World of Seeming Chaos?

Suffice it to say, the Lexington delegation made the effort to disperse itself to all of the mini-plenaries.

There were eleven different Sisterhood workshops. We attended those that we felt would most benefit our Sisterhood.

C. Installation: Our outgoing president is Mrs. David Levitt. Her accomplishments are many. Our new president is Mrs. Irving Benjamin from Cincinnati, Ohio. We, in District #9, are most honored. She is the second N.F.T.S. president from our district.

D. Sadness: We of Sisterhood were shocked and saddened by the sudden demise of Rabbi Maurice Eisendrath. May God grant Mrs. Eisendrath and family peace.

Our Sisterhood is not without problems, but as always, after participation in various workshops, I find that our problems are small and few.

This was the first Biennial for Sandra Gebrow and Colleen King and they attended as delegates. Their enthusiasm and desire to learn was a delight for me. I feel that when this year is over, I can join that "grand group of past presidents", knowing that there will always be those who will continue with our own "Sisterhood Deeds and Dreams".

RABBI'S MESSAGE

This past week end I received a long distance call from Nat Sandler in Memphis. Their six year old daughter, Elissa, had just died of leukemia in St. Jude's Hospital. This was the first tragedy of that nature which we have had in the congregation in quite a while, and so we have been fortunate.

Elissa was a darling child. She held such promise for the future. She was bright and outgoing, bubbling with excitement and expectation. The opportunities for her to live a full and productive life were many. And yet in only three months (which seemed an eternity) all of these hopes and dreams were destroyed. And as a congregation, we mourn with the Sandlers and share in their grief.

But this kind of event gives us all cause to stop and consider life, for we all tend to take it so for granted. We take unnecessary chances, we put ourselves in danger, we abuse our physical beings without thought of what such behavior might do to our lives.

We see this kind of self destructive behavior in so many ways today - drug abuse, alcoholism, the ever quickening pace of living, the emphasis on the here and now forms of hedonism as reflected in Playboy Magazine, the instant thrills that we seek in life. They are all part of our current lack of thought about the totality of life and of our place in this broad picture.

I frequently ask the patients at NARCO: if you were to die tomorrow, what would there be to say at your funeral? This is rather a startling question, but one which is worth considering.

As we join the Sandlers in their sorrow, perhaps we ought to take this occasion of death to consider life also.

William J. Leffler.

The following is quoted from a recent letter from Jerusalem by Rabbi Richard Hirsch, Executive Director of the World Union for Progressive Judaism.

"As a rabbi, I have been in frequent contact with death. Normally, the question tormenting the family when a young person dies is 'why?' The rabbi is called upon again and again to respond to the profound theological questions arising out of personal tragedy. But here in Israel, no one asks 'why?' I have not heard the words, 'why my son?' 'why me?' Here everyone knows why. I stand in humble awe. The Jewish people lives. We know why we came here, why we stay here, why we fight here, why we are prepared to die here. Can it be that the willingness to die is rooted in the will to live?"

THE WAR AND THE JERUSALEM SCHOOL OF THE COLLEGE-INSTITUTE

During the recent weeks of battle, the Jerusalem campus of Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion was a microcosm of all that is Israeli life. Faculty, students and staff were totally involved in the civilian campaign to maintain the standards of normalcy in Israel's daily existence. Students of the Jerusalem School aided with all of their talents in every imaginable capacity. One young man, trained as an electrician, was of immeasurable service to a Kibbutz in the outskirts of Jerusalem. Some delivered food, gas for homes, packed pills at a pharmaceutical factory; others amused children at a hospital for the crippled, did the children's laundry while on 24-hour shifts and sandbagged the youngsters' living quarters; still others were on guard duty or performed custodial services at hospitals, museums, radio and television headquarters; and some versatile Rabbinic students even traveled from Jerusalem to entertain troops at army bases or to aid at Kibbutzim in Beersheva and the Jordan Valley.

On campus, lists were compiled of available homes for soldiers for their use while on leave in Jerusalem - places where they could make phone calls, sleep, have a meal, shower; signs were posted that the School's bombshelter was available to the public; and Haga, the Civil Defense Force, used the campus as a headquarters. All of the younger male members of the maintenance staff were immediately called up - the first one in fact, was summoned while he was ushering at the Yom Kippur service. Other staff members were assisting on the homefront day and night - they baked bread in a factory or they helped in the x-ray quarters of Hadassah Hospital.

TEMPLE YOUTH GROUP

On November 18, we had a 1:30 meeting. Mr. Michael Ades spoke about the Anti-Defamation League. Questions were asked following his talk.

At this meeting, Darrell Katz gave a report on what's been done concerning the Spring Sub-Regional and Mindy Doctrow gave a report on the Chanukah Carnival which will be held December 16. Committee assignments for Carnival and Sub-Regionals were handed out.

Also, at the meeting we broke up into our regular committees - Worship, Program, etc. These have been changed, so make sure you now know your committee assignment.

NEXT MEETING - December 2. This will be very important. If you plan to work on the carnival, you must be present.

SOCIAL ACTION

What would you do if.....?

Your rabbi has arranged with the mayor of the city for the presentation of a nine-foot Chanukah Menorah to the city which is to be erected in front of the City Hall. One member of the board of the temple has introduced a resolution urging the congregation not to go ahead with this presentation because he considers this action a violation of separation of Church and State.

YOUTH CHOIR

Our Temple Youth Choir, under the direction of Marilyn Lieber and Marie Mayer, will sing for the first time as part of our worship service on Friday, December 7th.

Members of the choir are:
Shari Eldot, Edie Leffler, Lori Ginsburg, Renee King, Stacy Bloomfield, Loren Mayer, Lee Mayer and Ian Shabetai.

THE WAR AND THE JERUSALEM SCHOOL OF THE COLLEGE-INSTITUTE

During the recent weeks of battle, the Jerusalem campus of Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion was a microcosm of all that is Israeli life. Faculty, students and staff were totally involved in the civilian campaign to maintain the standards of normalcy in Israel's daily existence. Students of the Jerusalem School aided with all of their talents in every imaginable capacity. One young man, trained as an electrician, was of immeasurable service to a Kibbutz in the outskirts of Jerusalem. Some delivered food, gas for homes, packed pills at a pharmaceutical factory; others amused children at a hospital for the crippled, did the children's laundry while on 24-hour shifts and sandbagged the youngsters' living quarters; still others were on guard duty or performed custodial services at hospitals, museums, radio and television headquarters; and some versatile Rabbinic students even traveled from Jerusalem to entertain troops at army bases or to aid at Kibbutzim in Beersheva and the Jordan Valley.

On campus, lists were compiled of available homes for soldiers for their use while on leave in Jerusalem - places where they could make phone calls, sleep, have a meal, shower; signs were posted that the School's bombshelter was available to the public; and Haga, the Civil Defense Force, used the campus as a headquarters. All of the younger male members of the maintenance staff were immediately called up - the first one in fact, was summoned while he was ushering at the Yom Kippur service. Other staff members were assisting on the homefront day and night - they baked bread in a factory or they helped in the x-ray quarters of Hadassah Hospital.

Indeed, as one of the students put it, "Studying at the Jerusalem School of the College-Institute is learning the living lessons of Judaism."

The Youth Group is having its annual Chanukah Carnival on December 16 at 3:00 P.M. There will be a movie called "The Secret Tunnel" and cartoons. Then there will be food, games, prizes, bingo, a haunted house and much more! The price will be $1.00 per person or $2.50 per family with 10 tickets included per person. Extra tickets will be sold 10 for 50¢. It will be a whole day of fun, so come and see us, and help us celebrate a Happy Chanukah!

The Youth Group is selling crates of Jaffa oranges from Israel at the Chanukah Carnival this year. These will cost $12.50 a crate and the majority of the money will go back into Israel's economy. If you don't want a whole crate, you could split one with a friend. At this time of Israel's troubles, every bit of money helps! And besides they are delicious oranges.

There will be a meeting at 5:30 on December 2. Everyone must be willing to work! We will be working on our booths for the Chanukah Carnival. Think of some new ideas for the booth you are working on!!

As usual, we will have a complete selection of Hanukkah items in our shop this year: menorahs, candles, dreidels, candy, gelt, decorations, games, toys and gifts. The shop is open every day, Monday through Friday from 9:00 A.M. until 4:00 P.M. every Friday night following services; and during Religious School hours.

The next Family Worship will be held Friday, December 21. Watch for further details in forthcoming bulletins.

from the Bulletin of The Temple,
Cleveland, Ohio:

Ten years ago on Thanksgiving Day my father died. At our service this Thanksgiving weekend we will remember and renew the commitments we shared. It is tempting to see the time of his death as the end of an era. President Kennedy had been assassinated, the Cold War was on, and the era of relative security seems to end. If one looks back with nostalgia to the future there is a temptation to feel sorry for having endured the burdens of the past ten years. There has been so much relief from the burdens of Vietnam, inflation, Arab belligerence, racial unrest, Greece, Chile, apartheid, Watergate.

While I am tempted to despair, I encourage myself that there has never been a quieter time in the history of the world. Dr. Silver kept his strength and his hope despite two world wars, the Holocaust, the Depression, the Palmer Raids and McCarthy witch hunt, unwanted Jewish refugees, the British White Paper, Korea, the 1948 attack on Israel and the Suez crisis. We do not have more headaches, just our own. The world does not owe excessive demands to us only the demands of character and courage which have always tested men and women.

From the Rabbi's Desk

Two months ago the entire community was shocked, outraged and numbed by the brutal triple murder of the Rev. John Barnes and his two children. This horrible crime was senseless in every way and brutal to the ultimate degree. Words were hard to find to express our revulsion by what had occurred and our utter lack of pity for the two men who had done this contemptible killing.

Once the initial shock had worn off, another reaction set in - calls for the reinstatement of the death penalty in Kentucky, a punishment that had been curtailed by a recent Supreme Court decision. Petitions were circulated within the county. Newspaper articles reported the reaction of legislators. Citizens wrote letters to the editor. Most reactions were in support of capital punishment.

This issue is not a simple one. It has many moral overtones and raises some serious questions on the moral right of the state to take life. It raises the question of vengeance and why we feel the need to take someone else's life. We need to ask whether capital punishment is a deterrent to murder. It heightens the problems of the inequities of our legal system between the wealthy and powerful and the poor and powerless.

Capital punishment is not a simple matter of saying: "Kill the murderer." It is complex and has many facets, and they all reflect upon each of us - for they bespeak the kind of society in which we live.

The Social Action Committee has arranged a program for December 6 in which this subject will be probed in depth by persons for and against this method of justice. Be informed. Attend this program.

From The Rabbi's Desk

Two weeks ago I had the pleasure to spend three days with a fifth year student at HUC who came to Lexington to find out what the daily routine of a rabbi is like. His visit was part of a course assignment and was arranged by one of his Professors. This sort of a program is a new idea and one which I heartily applaud.

The young man, Ben Beliak, arrived on Sunday evening and we wasted no time. We began immediately to discuss the purpose of his visit and to talk about many of the facets of the active rabbinate which he will soon be experiencing. And then Ben was with me the next three days - visiting the sick in the hospital, attending a Worship Committee meeting, spending the day at NARCO, sitting in on Bar Mitzvah class, meeting with a TYG committee, having lunch with our Sisterhood - wherever I was he was and as we went about the day we talked continually. I explained many of the facets of congregational life; we discussed things which go on but which did not occur during his brief visit; we spoke of resources available to us both within Lexington and for which we have catalogues. We tried to leave no aspect of congregational life unexplored.

It was a really wonderful three days. Ben is a delightful, bright and alert student and will make a fine rabbi. His questions and comments helped me to focus on subjects I had not thoroughly considered before. All in all, a most worthwhile experience. I look forward to doing it again.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. BEN STEINBERG
December 2, 1973
Lexington, Kentucky
(Wife of Mr. Ben Steinberg)

Excerpts from the Eulogy for Rabbi Maurice N. Eisendrath delivered by Rabbi Roland B. Gittelsohn - November 11, 1973:

* * * * *

Hatzvi Yisrael al bamotecha chalal, ech naflu giborim. The beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places, how are the mighty fallen. I am distressed for thee, my brother Jonathan, very pleasant hast thou been unto me.

The last words of lament over his fallen beloved friend Jonathan. These are now my words of lament over my departed friend Maurice.

So much has been said about Maurice in the last thirty-six hours, about his prophetic courage, his impatience in the face of immorality, his sturdy battles for economic justice and civil rights, for integrity in business and in government and above all - for peace. I cannot presume to tell you anything about this that you do not know. Nor can I be so audacious or foolish as to add anything to what he did for our movement and for Jewish life. He took our Union from a less than modest suite of offices on West 6th Street in Cincinnati and brought us to New York and put it on the map. The geographic shift only symbolized that greater ideological transition for which he was responsible.

Maurice rescued us from becoming as Reform Jews a transient sect and made us into a permanent movement within Jewish life. He brought us back into the mainstream. He returned us to K'lal Yisrael. And he did this most especially by gathering about him the most superb staff of young laymen and young rabbis ever to serve any national Jewish organization. Wherever another man - truthfully told - might have tried to elevate himself by choosing only mediocre staff members. Maurice reached out for the finest and the best. And not for yes-men and women, not only for those who would agree with him. He constantly surrounded himself with the goading and the pressure of those who he knew disagreed with him. He never demanded conformity or agreement. Some of my most precious hours with him were hours that we spent battling and arguing one with the other. Our arguments cemented our friendship and love, at least as much as did our agreements. This was the public Maurice - bold, brave, sometimes even a little brash, strong, resolute, courageous, always prophetic.

But a few of us, my beloved friends, were privileged to know the private Maurice - soft, tender, loving, considerate and passionate - and always kind. The Maurice who called me on the long distance telephone nearly five years ago when he knew that I was anticipating surgery, just to reassure me that he had had the same operation and I shouldn't worry - it really wasn't going to be that bad. The Maurice who, in the midst of a frantically busy schedule, flew with Rita to Boston to surprise me for my sixtieth birthday party. The Maurice whose private courage was just as magnificent as his public courage.

Alex referred to Maurice's love for young people. Probably the two last people other than his family to see him late Friday afternoon, were two Israeli high school girls who somehow managed in typically Israeli manner to elude all the watchmen and guards. Maurice had come upstairs from the Friday afternoon plenary session exhausted, stretched himself out on the bed, eager to grasp a half-hour of rest. When the two Israeli girls came into his room he could have been excused if he had been impatient and asked them to leave - but he didn't. He asked them if they were E.I.E. students and they said, "Yes." And his face lit up - he proceeded to discuss things with them with animation and love.

There was no generation gap with Maurice. He was perhaps the truest authentic model for Jewish young people in our world today. This was the private Maurice who made the public Maurice possible. We shall miss him. We shall miss him with deep and lasting pain. No one of us - no two, three, or six of us will be able to take his place. But all of us together led by Alex will now do each his best. This we promise you, Maurice, this we promise!

I am distressed for thee, my brother Maurice. Very pleasant hast thou been unto me. Shalom.

ADULT EDUCATION

This year the Adult Education Committee will present a series of six speaker-discussion series on consecutive Sunday mornings (9:45-11:45 a.m.). The purpose of this program is to consider various matters of Jewish interest and concern. Emphasis will be placed on informal discussion and exchange of ideas. Coffee and doughnuts will be served!

A fee of $3.00 will be charged for the six sessions. This money will be used to cover the cost of refreshments and administrative expenses. Space is limited for this excellent program. Feel free to register even if you cannot attend all six sessions. Please reserve your space by calling Mrs. Thurman at the Temple office, 266-3251; David Doctrow, 277-9656 or Rozanne Sedler, 277-0521.

ISRAEL

The recent Israeli-Arab war has taken a heavy toll on our Reform Congregations in Israel. Their rabbis have been in the front lines (not as rabbis but as soldiers). Their members have also fought for their country. But because of the nature of the Israeli political structure, these congregations do not get the financial support of the government that traditional congregations do. Thus with the increased pressure on the Israeli economy, our Reform congregations there will be severely strapped for funds and in greater need of our support than ever before.

We can help. We can contribute $1.00 per person to the Israel Commission of the UAHC, to send to the Reform Congregations in Israel. Send your check for an appropriate amount to the Temple, made out to the "Israel Commission - UAHC", and we shall forward it to them for you.

We have supported Israel in her hour of need. Let us do the same for our Reform Congregations in Israel too.

Temple Mail

The following was received from Jacob Wirtschafter, now living in Israel with his parents:

Shalom,

I have been to Masada, Haifa, the Dead Sea, Jericho, a Kibbutz in the Gdan, the Kennedy Memorial, the Israel Museum, the Western Wall and the Hadassah Chagall Windows.

I better tell you all about the war. At 2:30 P.M. Yom Kippur, air raid sirens rang. Everybody went to the balcony of our apartment. My father, uncle, neighbor and I unlocked the shelter. We had to bring water there. There was a blackout and we taped paper to windows. For two days we didn't go to school. My school is at an absorption center about 10 kilometers from Jerusalem.

We had air raid practice 3 times a day for the next week. During that time we had to have water in the tub just in case the pipes were bombed. We see tanks and soldiers on the road. Every day we see helicopters bringing the wounded to Hadassah where my dad works.

I am learning Hebrew and agriculture, Reading (Hebrew of course) and in a few weeks we will start the Tanach.

Love,
Jacob Wirtschafter

The Youth Group is selling crates of Jaffa oranges from Israel at the Chanukah Carnival this year. These will cost $12.50 a crate and the majority of the money will go back into Israel's economy. If you don't want a whole crate, you could split one with a friend. At this time of Israel's troubles, every bit of money helps! And besides they are delicious oranges.

SOCIAL ACTION

WHAT WOULD YOU DO IF???

At a meeting of the Temple Board, which coincidentally occurred the day following a Supreme Court decision ruling against prayer in public schools, several influential members angrily asked why Jewish agencies were involved in these cases. They were particularly upset by statements in the press of rabbis favoring the decision. "It's none of our business," one said. They were fearful for the relations of the Jewish community with the non-Jewish community, and demanded that Jewish organizations should avoid any identification with this issue. "After all," they said, "how does it look for Jews to be against the Bible and prayers?" In fact, one individual said, "On this issue we should be on the other side."

NOTICE - BOARD MEMBERS

BECAUSE OF THE NEW YEAR HOLIDAY, WE WILL HAVE OUR NEXT MEETING ON WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 2, 1974 AT 8:00 P.M. IN THE TEMPLE VESTRY.

ENCOURAGE THE CREATION OF JEWISH LITERATURE

FROM
STUDY

Hanukkah starts December 19 this year, with the kindling of the first candle. Elsewhere in the Bulletin you will see the blessings translated for you, as well as a small article on the holiday.

At a recent discussion in the vestry, one of the participants got up and stated that he thought that we should do away with our celebration of Hanukkah because the later Maccabees became such despots. As I considered his suggestion, I realized that what he was doing was "throwing out the baby with the bath water." Despite the failings of our heroes' descendants, Hanukkah continues to have a message for us -- or better messages for us.

It can remind us of the need to stand up for what we believe is right. Old Mattathias was certainly a worthy illustration of this ideal.

It can teach us the perils of assimilation. If all Jews at that time had become Hellenists, Judaism would not have survived. The lures were great, but we overcame them. The same challenge faces us today.

It can teach us the need for determination. Certainly the Maccabees had to be strong in the face of the might of Antiochus. It would have been much easier to have acceded to his power.

It can inspire us to greatness. The Maccabees were originally not just leaders. But they saw a mission to be accomplished and accepted the responsibility. We all are confronted with tasks of this nature and need to rise to the occasion.

No, Hanukkah still has relevance if we look for it. I pray that each candle you light this week will bring you a new message from this ancient holiday ceremony.

Hag S'meyach!

William J. Leffler
Rabbi

HANUKKAH

Hanukkah begins on the 24th day of Kislev - December 19, 1973
Ends on December 27, 1973

The temptation is almost irresistible, particularly in light of current events in the Middle East, to emphasize the military aspect of the Maccabean victory over the Syrians in 165 B.C.E. Physical prowess, a primitive hang-over from the days when man was judged by his ability to subjugate nature and his enemies by brute force because he knew no other way, still outranks moral prowess as the measure of virility. But it has never been the Jewish criterion of manliness, and even today the hard-pressed Israelis deplore the need to destroy rather than to build.

Antiochus was not so much bent upon the physical destruction of the Jews; he had a greater goal. He wanted them to forsake their Judaism in favor of paganism. He was not the only enemy of the Jewish religion; he was only among the first. For he, and many after him, clearly recognized that as long as Judaism survived, its moral teachings would make the world unsafe for pure greed, cruelty, physical power, ignorance and dictators to thrive unchallenged.

His armies, of course, like those of others later, could not kill the Idea so powerful, so compelling, so passionately central to its adherents, that to die for it was the least of their worries. The Jews suffered ridicule for it, poverty, ostracism, and every other form of death-in-life that ugly minds could contrive. The Jews lived for their Idea.

* * * *

That is why, when some people say that they can be Jewish without knowing Judaism, they are wrong. Our enemies of the past and the present have sought to kill our Idea, of which our persons are merely the visible symbol. They have yet to learn what we know: that if Judaism dies, the light of the world dies with it.

WORSHIP COMMITTEE

At a recent meeting of the Temple Board, the following recommendations of the Worship Committee were approved:

1. Regular participation of our Youth Choir.
2. Participation of our children in singing Kiddush at Sabbath worship.
3. Participation of girls in grades 4-7 in blessing the Sabbath Candles at worship.
4. Students in grades 8-10 in Religious School to read the translation of the Torah portion at Sabbath worship.

STAMPS FOR WELLINGTON

We have received a large number of stamps this past week and we're just delighted. Keep them coming! Just tear the corner of the envelope where the stamp is. Don't try to cut it too close and mar the stamp or to tear the stamp off the envelope. Our friends in New Zealand will take care of preparing the stamps for sale.

ISRAEL

The recent Israeli-Arab war has taken a heavy toll on our Reform Congregations in Israel. Their rabbis have been in the front lines (not as rabbis but as soldiers). Their members have also fought for their country. But because of the nature of the Israeli political structure, these congregations do not get the financial support of the government that traditional congregations do. Thus with the increased pressure on the Israeli economy, our Reform congregations there will be severely strapped for funds and in greater need of our support than ever before.

We can help. We can contribute $1.00 per person to the Israel Commission of the UAHC, to send to the Reform Congregations in Israel. Send your check for an appropriate amount to the Temple, made out to the "Israel Commission - UAHC", and we shall forward it to them for you.

We have supported Israel in her hour of need. Let us do the same for our Reform Congregations in Israel too.

ADULT EDUCATION

This year the Adult Education Committee will present a series of six speaker-discussion series on consecutive Sunday mornings (9:45-11:45 a.m.) The purpose of this program is to consider various matters of Jewish interest and concern. Emphasis will be placed on informal discussion and exchange of ideas. Coffee and doughnuts will be served!

A fee of $3.00 will be charged for the six sessions. This money will be used to cover the cost of refreshments and administrative expenses. Space is limited for this excellent program. Feel free to register even if you cannot attend all six sessions. Please reserve your space by calling Mrs. Thurman at the Temple office, 266-3251; David Doctrow, 277-9656 or Rozanne Sedler, 277-0521. These sessions will be held at the Lexington Oral School, 158 North Ashland Avenue.

What Would You Do If...?

The morning newspaper comes out with large, black headlines, "High Court Bans Bible and Prayer". On the editorial page the newspaper attacks "the excommunication of God from the public school" and warns of the "great threat of secularism to the American way of life by a litigious minority". It concludes by calling for a constitutional amendment "as the only way left for the majority to remove this roadblock to the right to worship when and where you please". If you wanted to write a letter to the editor on this subject, what would you say?

HOME OBSERVANCE OF THE FESTIVAL OF HANUKKAH

Before the Menorah at the time of lighting the candles the following may be recited:

On this festival of Hanukkah we rededicate ourselves to Thee and to Thy service. As we kindle the Hanukkah lights in our home, may the light of Thy presence and Thy truth shine forth to dispel all darkness and lead all men unto Thee.

Praised be Thou O Lord our God Ruler of the world who hast sanctified us by thy commandments and bidden us to kindle the Hanukkah lights.

*Boruch Atta Adonai Elohaynu Melech Ha-olam ahshayr
Kiddshahnu b'mitzvohtav v'tzeevavnu l'hahdleek nayr shel Hanukkah.*

Place the candles in the menorah from right to left and kindle the candle on the extreme left first each night. After the first candle is lighted recite the following and kindle the remaining lights:

Praised be Thou O Lord our God Ruler of the world, who didst wonderful things for our fathers, in days of old, at this season.

Boruch atta Adonai Elohaynu melech ha-olam sheh-ah-sah neeseem lah-ahvohtaynu bah-yamim ha-hem bazman ha-zeh

On the first evening the sh'hechiyahnu is also recited.

Hanukkah Hymn

Rock of Ages, let our song Praise Thy saving Power
Thou, amidst the raging foes, Wast our shelt'ring tower
Furious they assailed us, But Thine arm availed us
And Thy word broke their sword When our own strength failed us.

What Would You Do If....?

The school superintendent says that the school system would enforce the ban of the Supreme Court where the ruling is applicable to local school system practices. He added that he was uncertain as to its relevance to existing practices. The school board, under strong pressure from irate parents to reprimand the superintendent for indicating acceptance of the Court decision, indicates it will not tamper with current practices in the schools, including religious holidays and Bible reading. You are a member of the temple youth group and urge the Temple to take a stand against the superintendent. What do you say?

From The Rabbi's Desk

Earlier this month, David Ben Gurion, the first Prime Minister of the State of Israel, passed away at the age of 87. His life had spanned perhaps the most decisive years in Jewish history in the last twenty centuries, including the founding of the Zionist movement, two World Wars, the Holocaust and the establishment of the modern State of Israel.

Ben Gurion, affectionably known as Hanakhen, "the old man" by the Israelis, was not always the most popular leader. He often was dictatorial and resigned a number of times in order to get his way in the government.

Ben Gurion was also an ardent Zionist and ired the American Jewish community by declaring publicly that Judaism in the Galun had no future and the only place for a Jew to live was in Israel. As a result, the smaller number of American Jews who made aliyah disappointed him greatly.

Despite these shortcomings, Ben Gurion's stature in modern Jewish history is unsurpassed. It was he who presided at the creation of the State of Israel and who guided its destinies for the first decade and a half of its existence. He had to fight hard for the implementation of many of his policies, which often proved to be unpopular although necessary. He was a crusty leader and despite his shortcomings, much respected and loved. With his death, a significant era in modern Judaism has ended.

May his memory be a source of strength as we confront the challenges still facing our brethren in the State of Israel.

Religious School News

Winter vacation for the Senior Group is December 9-30; for the Primary and Junior Assemblies, December 23 and 30. All classes resume on January 6, with the Third Block of classes starting for the Senior Group on that day. Check your choices!

On January 6, the Primary Assembly will see the film, "What Liberty and Justice Mean" and consider how we find these in everyday life, and the Junior Assembly will see the film, "Now What", which follows man's progress from the Stone Age to the future.

On January 13, the 5th grade will conduct our annual auction for the benefit of the Leo Baeck School in Haifa. Because of the recent war, this school needs our support more than ever. Bring in items for the 5th grade to auction! Both Junior and Primary Assemblies will attend the Auction.

Parents are requested to inform Barbara Gorodetsky, the Religious School Principal, if their child will have guests in Religious School. We welcome visitors, but do like to know when an extra youngster is in the building for the morning.

ISRAEL

The recent Israel-Arab war has taken a heavy toll on our Reform Congregations in Israel. Their rabbis have been in the front lines (not as rabbis but as soldiers). Their members have also fought for their country. But because of the nature of the Israeli political structure, these congregations do not get the financial support of the government that traditional congregations do. Thus with the increased pressure on the Israeli economy, our Reform congregations there will be severely strapped for funds and in greater need of our support than ever before.

We can help. We can contribute $1.00 per person to the Israel Commission of the UARC, to send to the Reform Congregations in Israel. Send your check for an appropriate amount to the Temple, made out to the "Israel Commission - UARC", and we shall forward it to them for you.

We have supported Israel in her hour of need. Let us do the same for our Reform Congregations in Israel too.

SALVATION ARMY NEEDS OUR HELP!

This community agency is in need of cooperation and help from other congregations in Lexington. The need is as follows:

1. Contributions of food for the city-county food program which they are willing to coordinate: canned fruits and vegetables, canned or preserved meats, and such staple foods as rice, macaroni, dried fruits. These are sought throughout the year.

2. Volunteers are needed throughout the year, at the first of each month, to pack staple foods and vegetables for storage and for later distribution. Such help saves professional staff time, and provides a more effective work schedule.

You may phone the Salvation Army to arrange suitable hours - 252-7706.

RABBI'S MESSAGE

The outlook for peace in the Mid East looks hopeful. The opening session of the Geneva conference, after some initial problems, seems to have produced a start in the direction of working out some sort of peaceful solutions to the problems of the past quarter century in that distressed part of the world.

It is certainly not a simple matter to solve, but complex and with many old and new problems - the Palestinian refugees, the possible return of some conquered territory, shipping rights, etc.

Two additional matters have also come to the fore recently. One is Israel's complaint to the International Red Cross of atrocities committed on the P.O.W's by Egyptian and Syrian troops. We have received a detailed account of some of these incidents and they will be distributed to the Jewish community of Lexington through the Problems and Affairs Committee of J.C.A. I do hope you will read this material. It has received little press coverage but certainly bears upon the future of the peace. You may also wish to react to this information in an appropriate fashion.

And secondly, the aftermath of the Yom Kippur War has once more raised the specter of Anti-Semitism for us. The oil embargo and the resultant fuel shortage can all too easily be blamed on Israel and, as American Jews, we can experience the backlash of people's frustrations over the lack of gasoline. Some persons are already warning us of this. On the other hand, a recent Gallup Poll indicates that Americans support of Israel is greater now than in the past three months.

What things will be is still uncertain. But we do need to be alert to the possibilities.

William J. Leffler
Rabbi

HAVDALAH IS COMING JANUARY 26TH

Havdalah is the religious ceremony that marks the outgoing of the Sabbath and is the counterpart of the Kiddish with which we consecrate its start. This ceremony declares that our day of rest and worship is over and that the work week has formally begun once more.

We shall celebrate it as a new part of our congregational worship on January 26. Plan to attend. It is a brief ceremony, held at sundown.

LEO BAECK SCHOOL AUCTION

Items are desperately needed for the auction sponsored for the Leo Baeck School in Haifa on January 13. Please bring items to the Temple or send them with your child on the 6th. All adults of the congregation are invited to attend the auction also.

Rabbi Samuels, director of the school, has written of their desperate need for funds. Here is a way we can help and have fun with our children as we do so. The auction will be from 11:15 until noon.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Winter vacation ends January 6 with classes for the entire Religious School resuming.

SENIOR GROUP! CHECK YOUR SCHEDULES.

On January 6, the Primary Assembly will see the film, "What Liberty and Justice mean" and consider how we find these in everyday life, and the Junior Assembly will see the film, "Now What", which follows man's progress from the Stone Age to the future.

On January 13, the 5th grade will conduct our annual auction for the benefit of the Leo Baeck School in Haifa. Because of the recent war, this school needs our support more than ever. Bring in items for the 5th grade to auction! Both Junior and Primary Assemblies will attend the Auction.

We welcome visitors with your children but please call your child's teacher in advance so that he or she can be prepared.

Save your gift boxes and bring them to Religious School. We need 8X10 or larger ones to use for display bases.

Teachers:

There will be a teachers institute and workshop on Saturday, January 12 from noon until 4:30 P.M. The schedule is:

- 11:30 - 12:30 - Luncheon served by the Sisterhood Religious School Committee
- 12:30-2:30 - Institute with Rabbi Paul Menitoff, Director of Mid-West Region, UAHC
- 2:30-4:30 - Workshop on Arts and Crafts with Kaye Frankel

All teachers are expected to attend.

JCA FORUM

On Sunday, January 6, 1974, "The Kibbutzniks Are Coming" will be heard at Ohavay Zion Synagogue as part of the JCA 1973-74 Forum Series. Songs will be heard in Israeli Kibbutzim by young Israeli artists, Gila Ronen and Tuval Fater. Mark your calendar for this marvelous treat. The time is 8:00 P.M.

SPECIAL CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

A special congregational meeting will be held on Sunday, January 13, 1974, at 8:00 P.M. in the Temple Vestry to discuss a proposal for the congregation to purchase Israel Bonds. At the same meeting, if this proposal is approved, we shall need to make a constitutional revision permitting us to increase the limit on congregational indebtedness.

SOCIAL ACTION

What Would You Do If...?

You are an officer in the Citizens for Public Schools. In this body you have become friendly with a Negro physician. You recently learned that your business will make it necessary for you to move out of the community. When you casually mention this to him, he asks whether it might be possible for him and his wife to look at your house.

SALVATION ARMY NEEDS OUR HELP!

This community agency is in need of cooperation and help from other congregations in Lexington. The need is as follows:

1. Contributions of food for the city-county food program which they are willing to coordinate: canned fruits and vegetables, canned or preserved meats, and such staple foods as rice, macaroni, dried fruits. These are sought throughout the year.

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

The TYG Carnival was a great success. The movie "Soap Box Derby" was excellent. Booths were all a great success with the exception of the haunted house (it was so scary, the kids were frightened off. Every one went home with a cake from the cake walk (even if it took all their tickets to get one). Youth Group wishes to thank Mr. Jerome Wurmser for his help.

After the carnival, those who stayed to clean up received applications for Regionals which will be held in Nashville.

Next meeting - January 6, 1974.
