

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

The OVFTY is once again sponsoring a trip to Washington, D.C., to express today's youth's opinion on recent world diplomacy. Equally important, participants will concern themselves with the POSSIBLE annexation of Israeli territory obtained during the 1967 war to establish an autonomous state for Palestinian Arabs, as well as to determine personally if the United Nations is a viable world institution. For further details and for applications, contact Allen Mandelbaum, 269-3547.

(A reminder - Application deadline is January 25, 1975.)

Our next meeting will be January 12th at 1:30 P.M. in the Temple Vestry. This week youth group will be baking their famous and delicious Challah. Members will be taking baking orders throughout this week. If you are unable to contact a TYG member, feel free to call Jeff Doctrow, 277-9656.

Youth Group would like to offer a belated thank-you to Dr. Mark Luckens who recently spoke at a youth group dinner meeting on the topic, "Mysticism."

OVFTY's Regional Convention will be held in Cincinnati, Ohio, February 14-17. Requests for applications are being taken by Jack Miller.

From the Rabbi's Desk

Last month we devoted a Sabbath evening to a consideration of the Union Camp Institute and three outstanding TYG'ers from Nashville were here and told us the story of Union Camp Institute in song, poetry and movie. The following evening Rabbi Paul Menitoff was also here and spoke to the Temple Board on the subject, spelling out the financial ills of the camp, that it is about $75,000 in the red.

This camp is supported by the congregations in the general Ohio Valley-Midwest area of our country and is used by our children during the summer - but not in sufficient numbers. There were empty spaces, and as a result an operating deficit. If this continues, the camp will have to be closed.

In Rabbi Menitoff's talk to the Board he pointed out that just one more camper from each of the congregations in our area would take the camp out of the red and make it pay for itself. Last summer we sent two campers (not counting TYG'ers to OVFTY). This year if we can send one more camper - and every other congregation does likewise - the camp will be filled.

So if your child is thinking of going to camp, consider Union Camp Institute. It has many advantages and deserves our support. And if you would like to help lower the indebtedness of the camp, checks will also be accepted for that purpose.

The enclosed brochure with application will give you more specifics about the camp.

Religious School

On January 5, the Primary Assembly will have a Worship Service. And on January 12, the Junior Assembly will see the film, "Brotherhood of Man."

The Bible lesson for January 5 is Micah 6:6-8 and we shall discuss how we should worship God.

There will be a teachers meeting for all teachers in the Primary and Junior Assemblies, as well as auxiliary staff on January 5 at noon. Coffee will be served.

Mr. Eugene DuBow, Midwest Regional Director of The American Jewish Committee, will be our next Scholar-in-Residence. He will speak to students of the Senior Group on Friday, January 10 at 4:30 P.M. in the Library. His topic will be "American Jewish Youth: Good, Bad, or Indifferent?"

ADULT EDUCATION

THE QUALITY OF OUR FAMILY LIFE

This year the Adult Education Committee will focus on family life. All families face conflict, day-to-day problems in relating to one another, failures in communication among its members. Our purpose is to offer members of the congregation the opportunity to increase the quality of their family life, to heighten understanding and communication between family members. All of us want to lead as happy a family life as possible. We hope this series will help in the achievement of that goal.

A series of five films, secured from the State Department of Human Resources, Educational Branch, will be shown on January 12, 19 and 26 and February 2 and 9 (9:45 - 11:45 A.M.) at the Lexington Oral School, 158 North Ashland Avenue, which is just down the street from the Temple. A discussion, question and answer period - a "thinking-together session" will follow the film. A psychiatrist or psychologist will lead each discussion.

January 12 - Love, Susan - This film deals with parent-child misunderstanding. Its purpose is to help family members recognize and cope with parental misunderstanding and mistreatment, and to help them understand how both parents and children can unintentionally cause conflicts within even a loving family. Discussion leader - Dr. Leonard Lipton.

January 19 - But Names Will Never Hurt? This film deals with the nature of prejudice; how prejudice separates one person from another and affects the feelings of everyone concerned. Its purpose is to help people recognize situations where prejudice and discrimination exist and to help them express and deal with the feelings aroused by prejudice. Discussion leader - Dr. Aaron Mason.

January 26 - Breakup - This film deals with the impact of divorce upon parents and children: the fear, anger, guilt and anxiety which this situation arouses in family members. Its purpose is to help people deal with family breakup in a sensitive, effective manner. Discussion leader - Dr. Nat Sandler.

February 2 - In My Memory - This film deals with the death of a loved one. Its purpose is to explore the meaning of death and to help people develop ways of dealing with the feelings brought about by the death of a family member or a friend. Discussion leader - To be announced.

February 9 - Buy and Buy - This film deals with the impact of T.V. advertisement on our lives. Its purpose is to help parents guide their children into wise decisions in the face of conflicting emotions and group pressure. Discussion leader - To be announced.

Reserve these five Sunday mornings and plan to attend these enlightening and thought provoking family life sessions.

NEXT SCHOLAR-IN-RESIDENCE

EUGENE DUBOW

Mr. Eugene DuBow, the Midwest Regional Director for The American Jewish Committee, will be our next Scholar-in-Residence, speaking to the congregation on Friday, January 10, 1975. Mr. DuBow's topic will be, "The American Jewish Community: Tasks for Tomorrow", and will deal with some of the salient problems that will face us during the coming year - the Mid East, Soviet Jewry, the economy.

Mr. DuBow is a graduate of the University of Kentucky and holds a masters degree from the New York University Center for Human Relations and Community Studies. He has a long history of work in communal and social service in both welfare and correctional areas, prior to coming to the American Jewish Committee.

Mr. DuBow will also talk with members of the Senior Group in Religious School at 4:30 P.M., followed by a Sabbath dinner for the students and their families at 6:00 P.M.

KEEP THE PROMISE

The film production of Elie Wiesel's play, "Zalmen or The Madness of God", premiered at Carnegie Hall as part of the 1975 UJA National Conference, will be telecast nationally over the Public Broadcasting Service on January 8, 1975.

In the author's own words.. "This is my song of songs to the spirit of resistance and defense. To the joy and celebration of Soviet Jewry. The action which takes place could happen today, and in fact it does. For never before as Jews have we been so alone. Never before has there been such need for unity and solidarity."

We have been urged to bring this telecast to the attention of everyone in our community.

From the Rabbi

During the last week of December Alana and I attended a Marriage Encounter weekend. We had been told about this wonderful kind of experience last summer by some dear friends in New Hampshire, and they had described at length what it had meant and done for them. And so we decided we would try it too.

Marriage Encounter is for couples who have a good marriage, as a means of making their marriage even better. The techniques which are used enable each couple, on their own and in complete privacy, to learn how to communicate, with an openness to each other which they most likely never experienced before. It encourages husband and wife to probe feelings which may have been bottled up for years and which surface in ways they had never anticipated. And as these long suppressed feelings come tumbling out to one another, a depth of love of which neither person had been fully aware also comes to light and their good marriage becomes even better.

As a result of our experience, a number of things have begun to occur for us. We are being urged to become presenters at future sessions of Marriage Encounter. Rabbinic couples are needed, although it is primarily a layman's movement.

We have been in touch with some of the six other couples in Lexington who have also participated in Marriage Encounter, although under the auspices of the Roman Catholic Church, which has its own set up for weekends, but which works closely with the Jewish expression of Marriage Encounter after the weekend is over.

And we have continued our own personal growth as a couple, using the techniques we learned on our Encounter weekend.

It was truly a loving experience for us and we would be delighted to share it with members of this congregation who might like to know more about it and what it can do for their marriages. If you are interested, please let us know.

NCJW is a member organization of 100,000 Jewish women dedicated to helping all those in need through volunteer programs in community services, education and social action here and in Israel.

Lexington Section, National Council of Jewish Women has long enjoyed the outstanding distinction of active participation in community affairs.

NEW UNION PRAYERBOOKS

A completely revised prayerbook - "Gates of Prayer", will be published by the Central Conference of American Rabbis this winter. The congregation has ordered 150 of these new books to replace our current Union Prayerbooks. If you wish to contribute to a fund to pay for these books and to have any of them inscribed in honor or in memory of dear ones, please contact the Temple office. Cost of the books is $7.00 per copy.

JUDAISM MUST BE PRACTICED

There is a story told about a rabbi and a soapmaker who went for a walk together. The soapmaker said: "What good is religion? Look at the trouble and the misery in the world after thousands of years of teaching about goodness, truth and peace - after all the prayers and sermons and teachings. If religion is good and true, why should this be?"

This line of reasoning troubled the rabbi, but he said nothing. They continued walking until the rabbi noticed a child playing in the gutter. The child was filthy with mud and grime.

Then the rabbi said: "Look at that child. You say that soap makes people clean, but see the dirt on that youngster? Of what good is soap? With all the soap in the world, that child is still filthy. I wonder just how effective soap is, after all?"

The soapmaker protested and said: "But, Rabbi, soap can't do any good unless it is used!"

"Exactly," replied the rabbi. "So it is with Judaism or any religion. It isn't effective unless it is applied and used."

RABBI SIDNEY BALLON

A number of members of the congregation have indicated a desire to put up a memorial plaque on the Yahrzeit Board for Rabbi Sidney Ballon and expressed an interest in establishing a temporary fund for this purpose. To this end, contributions may be sent to the Temple office, appropriately marked. These plaques cost $250 and the monies collected in this way become part of the Endowment Fund.

Remember also thy Creator in the days of thy youth, or ever the evil days come, and the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them; or ever the sun and the light and the moon and the stars be darkened, and the clouds return after the rain, and the dust return to the earth as it was, and the spirit return to God who gave it.

This is the end of the matter; all hath been heard; fear God, and keep His commandments, for this is the whole duty of man.

YOUTH KIDDUSH

The Worship Committee which has sponsored the participation of our children in the Kiddush Service is concerned about some of the negative aspects which have become apparent.

Family worship is encouraged and heartily endorsed. However, to make the service a pleasurable and meaningful one for all of our members we recommend that participation in this portion of the service be limited to children of Sunday School age. We have asked the Religious School to teach the words and tune of the Kiddush so that the children who participate can do so properly. We do not believe that participation should consist only of drinking a cup of grape juice in front of the congregation.

We would also encourage our members to observe the following to enhance the mood in the sanctuary: 1) Please try to observe decorum prior to the start of the service by limiting conversation as some of our members use this period for meditation. 2) We would recommend that children sit together with their families to allow closer supervision and to limit the "social" activity during the worship service. The Oneg Shabbat following worship provides ample opportunity for socializing. 3) Children who become noisy or otherwise disruptive during the worship service should be removed promptly out of consideration for others.

To encourage members with school age and pre-school children to attend services, a trained baby sitter will be available on the nights Youth Kiddush Service is scheduled. A fee of $1.00 per child will be charged. The next Youth Kiddush is scheduled January 17.

Rabbi's Message

This past week I completed four years as President of the Friends of the Lexington Public Library, a community responsibility which has brought me a great deal of pleasure and satisfaction.

When we first came to Lexington, over ten years ago, the Public Library was a real "step-child" institution. Few people used it. It was pitifully underfinanced by the city; it was not a place that was friendly and inviting. And when I started to complain about what I found, rather than understanding that my comments were intended to improve library service, I became persona-non grata to both the librarians and the trustees.

However, in the past decade, I have seen vast improvements occur. The library is moving ahead rapidly. While it is still not adequately financed, it is vastly better than what it was. Community use of the library continues to increase regularly. It is a friendly place to go. We are beginning to develop a branch library system. The library is coming to be accepted as a worthwhile facet of our Lexington community.

Though there is still a great deal to be done to bring the library up to the national standards for a community of our size, a very fine beginning has been made. And it was fascinating taking part in the efforts that were necessary to help this one small facet of our city improve in order to keep pace with the general growth of Lexington.

Religious School

On January 19, the Primary Assembly will see the film, "Anastole", the lovely story of a mouse. And on the 26, the Junior Assembly will have a Music Assembly.

The Teachers meeting originally scheduled for January 5 has been rescheduled for January 26 at noon. Teachers, please bring your lunch. Dessert and coffee will be provided.

The Bible lesson for January 19 is Habakkuk 2:18-19 and we shall discuss how we put trust in modern idols and how false they are.

Once again we shall be having a Religious School contest. Consult your teacher for the topic for your grade.

SUNDAY MORNING PARKING

PARENTS - Please do not park on the north side of the parking lot, facing the Temple on Sunday mornings. Use the center and far spaces. We ask this for the safety of your children.

BAT MITZVAH

RANDI HELAINE ROSENTHAL, daughter of Dr. & Mrs. Gerald Rosenthal, will celebrate her Bat Mitzvah on Saturday, February 1, 1975 at 10:30 A.M. in the sanctuary.

Members of the congregation are cordially invited to worship with Randi on this happy occasion and to join her for kiddush luncheon immediately following the service.

Baby Sitter Service will be available

ADULT EDUCATION

Our second film, in a series of five films, will be The Frailty of Man to be shown at the Lexington Oral School, 158 North Ashland Avenue, on January 19th from 9:45-11:45 A.M. A discussion question and answer period - a "thinking together session" will follow the film.

This film deals with prejudice against various religious and ethnic groups including Anti-Semitism. The impact of prejudice upon the individual and ways of dealing with prejudice are emphasized. Discussion leader will be Dr. Aaron Mason.

RABBI SIDNEY BALLON

A number of members of the congregation have indicated a desire to put up a memorial plaque on the Yahrzeit Board for Rabbi Sidney Ballon and expressed an interest in establishing a temporary fund for this purpose. To this end, contributions may be sent to the Temple office, appropriately marked. These plaques cost $250 and the monies collected in this way become part of the Endowment Fund.

Welcome

We are delighted to welcome Mr. & Mrs. Dennis C. Wolf of 3515 Yates Creek Pike, Apt. 50 into our congregational family. Mr. Wolf is store manager of Pier 1 Imports and Mrs. Wolf is a program development specialist - Ohio Valley Regional Medical Program. The phone number is 272-6738

We are also happy to welcome Prof. & Mrs. Joseph Kuc and their children, Paul, Rebecca, and Miriam, as members of the congregation. Prof. Kuc is in the Plant Pathology Department at the University of Kentucky. They reside at 141 Louisiana Avenue and the phone number is 269-6404.

TKO BENEFIT PERFORMANCE

Studio Players will be presenting a performance of "Dial 'M' for Murder" on Thursday, January 23 at 8:30 P.M. for the benefit of TKO. Tickets are $2.50 each and can be obtained through Mary Ellen Solomon, 709 Cumberland Road, Lexington, 40503.

Freda Lerner and Joe Marks are among the cast in this play.

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

Little has been said about TYG's last meeting. However, last Sunday, youth groupers enjoyed an entire afternoon baking Challah. Many were baked for congregants of both Temple and Synagogue. We plan to continue this practice if a goodly number of persons are interested. Orders may be placed by contacting Steve Derer, 278-1012.

We also plan to start a new program next month. A flyer, put out by TYG's newspaper committee, will contain a calendar of events. Hopefully this project will eliminate the frantic efforts of several TYG'ers finding post cards giving time, date and place of meetings and mailing to members. Contact Theresa Lee, 278-3966, if you are interested in assisting this committee.

Applications were given to members for the OVPT Regional Folk-moot (conclave) in Cincinnati. Additional applications have been requested by Steve which may be offered in limited quantities. Interested persons may contact Steve Derer. Plans are being made for chartered bus service. Watch for further information.

Many TYG'ers have expressed a belated interest in OVPT's Washington, D.C. Social Action Seminar. All applications must be postmarked by January 25th. Cost of this year's excursion will be $130. This fee includes transportation, room and meals. If you are interested, call Allen Mandelbaum, 269-3547.

Our next meeting, a dinner meeting, will be on January 26th at 5:30 P.M. in the Temple Vestry. The program will include a special surprise on recent world political activity.

UNION CAMP INSTITUTE

Union Camp Institute is:

...for Jewish children in search of a substantial and lasting Jewish experience

...for Jewish children interested in rediscovering ethical and spiritual values in a unique summer camp setting

...for Jewish children who enjoy creative expression with their friends through carefully supervised and programmed activities

...for Jewish children who enjoy exciting sports in the midst of lush greenery and modern facilities

...a camp that cares about you and is accredited by the American Camping Association

If you did not receive the brochure about the camp and an application form in a previous Bulletin, please call the Temple office, 266-3251.

We have received a number of checks for UCI as a result of our publicity on its dire straits. Additional monies will be most welcome. Make out your checks to Union Camp Institute and mail them to the Temple office.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

The Teachers' meeting has again been rescheduled - this time to February 2. We hope there will be no conflicts this time!!

On January 26, the Junior Assembly will have a music assembly and on February 2, the Third Grade will present a program for the Primary Assembly. All parents are invited to come see it.

The next Scholar-in-Residence will be Dr. Samuel Greengus of Hebrew Union College. He will speak to the members of the Senior Group on Friday, February 7, at 4:30, at which time he will present an illustrated talk on Ancient Israel and the excavations at Tell Gezer. Dr. Greengus has participated in these excavations and so can talk from first hand knowledge. The dig is under the direction of the HUC Biblical and Archeological School in Jerusalem.

The Bible passage for January 26 is Amos 3:2 and we shall discuss how when we know better, more is expected of us and so we are a greater disappointment to others when we fail to do what we should.

SUNDAY MORNING PARKING

From the Rabbi's Desk

We read a good deal in the papers these days about the situation of Jews in other countries. The problems of Soviet Jewry are reported on with regular frequency. We also hear of the plight of Jews in Syria. This week I received a letter from a college friend who is a rabbi in Buenos Aires.

There are approximately a half million Jews in Argentina. About half of them are native born and most live in Buenos Aires. Their situation has become most precarious, as his letter indicates. I quote two paragraphs, because they tell the story in such vivid terms.

"I think I can honestly say that during the 15 years that I have been working in Argentina, I have not lived through moments that are so anxiety ridden. Since the death of Juan Domingo Peron on the 1st of July and the swearing in of his wife, Maria Estela Martinez de Peron, there have been over 160 assassinations of public personalities. There is no bonafide figure of the millions of pesos, even dollars, that have been paid in ransom. If I have written to you in the past that Argentina is a seething cauldron, in the last few months it has become a veritable firebrand. Violence is the law of the land, with leftists destroying the rightists and vice-versa. Peronism was a huge umbrella to all shades of the spectrum of Argentine political life, and when the old master juggler was still alive, he was somehow able to maintain a proforma peace. Now the king is no more and Peronism has been unmasked and shown up to what many have always suspected: a dufflebag of secondhand, grandiloquent sounding, but empty phrases, full of sound and fury and signifying very little indeed.

The most serious new element in the picture is the growing Arab presence with its consequent antisemitic and antisemitic propaganda machine. Indeed, antisemitic activity is rapidly increasing, with the present Rector of the University of Buenos Aires speaking in terms reminiscent of classic antisemitic arguments of the 1930's. According to him, one must be either "for Christ or against Christ, either, a Marxist or a Justicialista" (Peronist). Thus, the possibilities for a pluralistic democratic state, at the moment, are dim indeed. In an interview published in Brazil's leading newspaper "Estado de Sao Paulo" on Sunday, November 10th, the anonymous head of the Argentine Anticommunist Alliance quoted freely from the "Protocols of Zion" and identified the enemies of Argentina as the Jews and international socialism.

What is happening to our fellow Jews in Argentina is not generally known. We need to know, for we may be called upon to help them if this situation continues to grow worse."

William J. Leffler

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

Youth Groupers - next meeting will take place in the Temple Vestry on January 26th at 5:30 P.M. Along with a dinner, Youth Group members will enjoy a fascinating program on "The Judenraut." All members are urged to attend.

Many interesting activities are coming forth from both OVPTV and NPTV offices. Youth Group hopes to take part in a project founded by NPTV to support training centers for the psychological rehabilitation of children who have been victims of Arab terrorism. Including fund raising endeavors, this includes a community education program.

From the OVPTV offices in coordination with OVPTV's forthcoming Washington, D. C. social action seminar, Youth Group members will take part in an extensive week end of informative seminars on recent world diplomacy at their annual regional convolve. Rabbi David Saperstein from the Religious Action Center in Washington will travel to Cincinnati to speak to Youth Group members on the trip as well as assist in several of the seminars.

Elections for U.C.I. Toot leaders are to be held in Cincinnati. Responsible and interested candidates are needed. For persons unfamiliar with the responsibilities such a position would entail, please contact OVPTV President, Ellen Eskind. All candidates wishing to run for the three high posts are asked to submit their names to Ellen no later than February 1.

Youth Group is again preparing for a Creative Worship Service. Many new ideas on Youth Group's "Traditional" approach to their worship services have been submitted. Do you have any constructive criticism? If so, please contact Steve Derer.

erous contribution to the UJA generated by a successful rummage sale.

It was a tremendous effort, a marvelous result and we at UJA are very much heartened that our young people are concerned with such serious things and we do want to congratulate them, their officers, and advisors for such participation in our every day serious endeavors.

Deeds and actions like these make Lex-

DR. SAMUEL GREENGUS, HUC PROFESSOR, SCHOLAR-IN-RESIDENCE, FEBRUARY 7/TH

Dr. Samuel Greengus, Professor of Semitic Language at HUC-JIR in Cincinnati, will be our next Scholar-in-Residence, on Friday, February 7, 1975. Dr. Greengus will speak to the congregation after Sabbath Services on the subject: "The Problem of Sarah, Abraham's Wife and Sister," and will deal with some new findings on the interpretation of the stories in Genesis 12:10-20 and 20:1-18.

At 4:30 P.M., Dr. Greengus will talk with the members of the Senior Group in Religious School on the subject of the Tell Gezer Excavations in Israel, in which the HUC Biblical and Archaeological School in Jerusalem has been involved. He will show slides to illustrate his talk.

Dr. Greengus did his undergraduate work at the University of Illinois and his graduate work at the Oriental Institute of the University of Chicago. He also pursued advanced Hebrew studies at the Hebrew Theological College in Chicago.

Dr. Greengus has been teaching at HUC-JIR since 1963 and has participated in the excavations at Tell Gezer. He has also been a visiting lecturer at the University of Dayton and at Antioch College. In the past, Dr. Greengus has served on the staff at OVPTV in Zionsville.

We look forward to his visit.

NOTICE

Rabbi Samuel Goldenson was one of the early rabbis of this congregation. He subsequently served a congregation in Albany, N. Y. and eventually was rabbi of Temple Emanuel in New York City. A volume of his sermons and lectures is being published in book form by Temple Rodef Shalom of Pittsburgh, Pa. and being offered to members of this congregation on a complimentary basis because of Rabbi Goldenson's association with us. If any of our members might wish a copy of this volume, entitled "World Problems and Personal Religion", he may obtain it by writing:

From the Rabbi's Desk

A couple of months ago Rabbi Ira Youdovin, the American Director of the World Union for Progressive Judaism, was our Scholar-in-Residence. He spoke to us at that time about the situation of Liberal Judaism in Israel and the problems that faced Jews there who wished to be religious, but not orthodox. He also spoke of the financial woes of Liberal Judaism in Israel and of their struggle to maintain their synagogues.

In an effort to support non-orthodox Judaism in Israel, the World Union is planning a massive campaign to raise many thousands of dollars to build a World Education Center in Jerusalem. At the same time, there is the on-going need for our financial support of the network of institutions which Reform Judaism has already established in Israel - synagogues, schools, youth programs, etc. To support this latter facet of Liberal Judaism in Israel, the Joint Commission on Israel of the Reform Movement is again asking every family of a UARC affiliated congregation to participate in a $5.00 per family voluntary contribution for this work.

And so I am asking you to aid this effort as a member of our congregation. Your checks should be made out to "Israel Commission" and mailed to me at the Temple office. I will in turn forward them to the Israel Commission to insure that Temple Adath Israel is credited properly.

I look forward to your support of this facet of Reform Judaism overseas.

Religious School

On February 2, the Primary Assembly will have a program presented by the 3rd grade at 11:00 A.M.

On February 9, both Assemblies will be treated to the presentation of a play on Soviet Jewry by the 6-7th grade workshop at 10:30. The play, directed by Roni Dennis, was written by the members of the workshop. All parents are invited to attend.

TEACHERS! Don't forget the meeting at noon on February 2. Bring lunch. Coffee and dessert will be provided.

On March 2, the fifth grade will hold the annual auction for the Leo Baeck School to have a chance for good play equipment but we need toys and things of interest to adults. Thank you.

The Bible lesson for February 2 is Amos 3:3-5 and we shall discuss cause and effect and its relation to our behavior.

Temple Youth Group

Elections for UCI toot leaders are to be held in Cincinnati. Responsible and interested candidates are needed. For persons unfamiliar with the responsibilities such a position would entail, please contact OVPY President, Ellen Eskin. All candidates wishing to run for the three high posts are asked to submit their names to Ellen no later than February 1st.

Youth Group's next meeting will be Sunday, February 9th at 1:30 P.M. in the Temple Vestry.

SISTERHOOD

To The Members of Adath Israel Sisterhood:

Thank you for the beautiful memories I shall carry with me always of the honor paid me for my fifty years of membership in Sisterhood. It was truly an occasion to remember; the beautiful courage, the life membership pin (which I shall wear with pride), the gathering of loving friends, and finally, the realization of how much my affiliation had meant to me through these many years.

If what I have contributed to Sisterhood in service and devotion has helped in any way, please believe that what I have received in return is much more rewarding than what I have given. Again, my thanks for the honor you have paid me and for your warm expressions of friendship -

Most sincerely,

Hilda Abraham

FIFTH GRADE BICENTENNIAL PROJECT

As part of an American Revolution Bicentennial project of the fifth grade, famous Jewish-American patriots' biographies will be published each week in the Bulletin. The first in the series is Haym Salomon. Benji Wirtschafter is in charge of the project.

HAYM SALOMON (1740-1784)

Financier - Banker of the American Revolution - Patriot

One of the best known among Jewish-American patriots was Haym Salomon, the financier who helped raise money to carry on the American Revolution and later, save our emerging nation from economic collapse.

Born in Poland, Salomon came to America to seek his fortune, reaching New York in 1772. Proficient in several languages, he also possessed an unusual knowledge of finance, having many contacts among European bankers.

In America, Salomon achieved success as a trader and allied himself with the Revolutionary effort, by joining the Sons of Liberty. Late in 1776, he was twice arrested for his activities and imprisoned by the British. Fortunately, he managed to escape execution both times.

For the next two years, while free and conducting "business as usual", Salomon helped American and French prisoners escape and encouraged soldiers to desert to the American forces. In July, 1777 he was married to Rachel Franks. But in 1778, about to be arrested as a spy, he escaped to Philadelphia. There, he soon re-established himself by selling bills of exchange. In June, 1781, Robert Morris, the Superintendent of Finance, engaged Salomon to help with the young country's finances. He negotiated all the loans raised in France and Holland, pledging his personal faith and fortune, and personally advanced large sums to such men as James Madison, Thomas Jefferson, and other patriotic leaders who testified that without his aid they could not have carried on in the cause.

Salomon died in January, 1785, at the age of 44. His fortune had been devoured equipping military units, paying foreign agents and the salaries of government officials, and aiding many members of his own family. He left only a modest estate to his young wife and four children.

But Haym Salomon left a far larger legacy. The memory of a lifetime of dedication, loyalty and altruism to his family, to his friends and to his country. In 1981, an impressive statue of George Washington, flanked by Haym Salomon and Robert Morris, was unveiled in Chicago. As a symbol, as a man, and as a Jewish-American, Salomon earned this memorial.

Sermon - And After You Die?

Synopsis - There is a concept of life after death in Judaism. We just do not emphasize it.

From the Rabbi's Desk

This past week Alana and I went to see "The Man in the Glass Booth". It was a powerful and moving film dealing with the post-World War II era and the confusion of guilt that occurred as a result of the Holocaust. The film starred Maximilian Schell (whom I am told is Swiss and not German) and Lawrence Pressman, whom some of us know as David Pressman from Cynthia's.

While I would not want to reveal the surprise ending of the film, which certainly was shaking in a number of ways, the film portrays for us a number of attitudes we find among Jews.

The Israelis were very proud and assertive of their Judaism, but also still trying to understand the general submissiveness of the Jews of the Holocaust.

There were some Jewish girls at a dinner whose only concern seemed to be their physical pleas. For them Judaism as a religion meant nothing. It was a subject about which to joke in off color terms.

There was Charlie Cohn, played by David Pressman, who was a yes man. He bent in whichever direction he was told; he was spineless. His Judaism was based on ignorance.

There was Rudin, the tailor. He seemed to question nothing. His Judaism appeared matter of fact.

And there was Goldman, the main character - a man torn by guilt for surviving the Holocaust, to whom Judaism was a source of internal turmoil and confusion and for which he sought answers to unanswerable questions.

Jews come in all sizes and shapes, with many different outlooks on life, with many different attitudes toward life. Some of us reflect the very best of our religious values and tradition, others reflect a total denial of our religious values and tradition. Most of us are somewhere in between. Among other things, this movie provides us with one more opportunity to look at ourselves as Jews, to see some of the ways in which Jews behave, and to ask ourselves - What sort of Jew am I? If I were portrayed as a Jew in a film, would I approve of what I see?

MUSIC MUSIC MUSIC

Save the evening of Sunday, March 9, for an evening of Jewish Music with Cantor Stephen Richards of Indianapolis! Come for supper, stay for music.

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS!

We are delighted to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Nematollah Shakib into our congregational family. Mr. Shakib is retired. They reside at 2050 Fontaine Road and the telephone number is 269-2596.

Religious School

On February 9, our Little Theatre Group will present a play on Soviet Jewry at 10:30 for both assemblies and all parents. This group, under the direction of Roni Dennis and made up of 6 and 9th graders, wrote the play and have produced it as their workshop.

Both assemblies will have a workshop on February 16th.

The Bible lesson for February 9 is Amos 4:6-11 and we shall discuss how we often have to be punished before we learn how to behave. In this passage Amos describes the punishments of God, and that still the people did not return unto Him.

February 9 is the last session of this block in Senior Group.

The annual auction for the benefit of the Leo Baeck School will be held in the Temple Vestry at 11:00 A.M. on March 2. The fifth grade is in charge and Polly Goldman and Josh Wirtschafter are the auctioneers. They urge all parents and friends and members of the congregation to come and participate in this worthy project. The money realized from this effort will be used to help buy play equipment for the Leo Baeck School in Haifa, Israel.

In honor of Tu B'Shevat, the 5th grade has donated money to plant a tree in Israel.

The next block of Senior Group starts February 16th. Check your schedules to see what you are signed to take.

THANKS

Thanks to the Lexington Section of the National Council of Jewish Women for the donation of Fabric of My Life by Hannah G. Solomon, to the Temple Library.

Thanks to Human Levy for the contribution of a Hebrew type-writer to the Temple in memory of Mrs. Louis Ades.

FIFTH GRADE CLASSMATE

PAULA (Polly) COLIMAN, a 5th grader at James Lane Allen School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Goldman. She has one brother, Douglas Miles Goldman. Her ambition is to become a veterinarian and dog breeder because she truly loves animals. Her pets include a springer spaniel, "Clyde", 3 gerbils, "W", "Curly" and "Squirmy", a tankful of guppies and a pondful of goldfish. Her hobbies are horseback riding, reading, elementary dog training and playing the violin. Her favorite foods are smoked salmon, herring, whitefish and lobster. She loves Religious School and Hebrew School.

ADULT EDUCATION

Our last film in the 5-film series will be In My Memory to be shown at the Lexington Deaf Oral School, 158 North Ashland Avenue, on Sunday, February 9th from 9:45-11:45 A.M. A discussion question and answer period - a "thinking together session" will follow the film.

This film deals with the death of a loved one. Its purpose is to explore the meaning of death and to help people develop ways of dealing with the feelings brought about by the death of a family member or a friend. Discussion leader - Dr. Charles Schwartz.

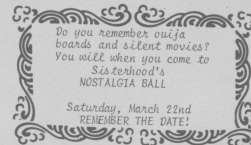

SISTERHOOD STUDY GROUP

The next session will be held Wednesday, February 12th at 9:30 A.M.

FAMILY WORSHIP

We shall celebrate Purim together.

124 North Ashland Avenue Lexington, Kentucky

Rabbi: William J. Leffler

President: Dr. Saul Rubin

Temple Administrator: Herman Straus

From the Rabbi's Desk

Purim is a festive holiday, a day of "joy" and "feasting" as the Book of Esther tells us. It is the holiday which marks our deliverance from the evil intentions of Haman and his plans to destroy us, and so well merits rejoicing as a result of our deliverance.

However our Jewish holidays are not intended to remind us only of the past. They also are intended to relate us to the occurrences of our own time, and so we need to relate Purim to current events.

And when we do this, there are many parallels that can be drawn. Certainly the surveillance of so many people which occurred during past administrations was an attempt at tyranny, of frightening the person who disagreed, or might think of disagreeing with policies of government. And we should rejoice that the occurrences of this activity are now being investigated by the same government which had brought it about.

We see the tyranny of the Soviet government and rejoice when each Jew is able to escape from that prison.

We encounter the tyranny of the Arab oil interests over world economy and we wonder what the outcome will be. Will we be able ultimately to rejoice, or will we succumb to their domination?

There are still many Hamans left in the world. Purim keeps reminding us of this.

William J. Leffler
Rabbi

BEST WISHES

for a speedy recovery to:

Mr. Paul Gilbert

Religious School

The fourth block of Senior Group begins on February 16th. Check your schedule for what courses you will be taking.

On February 16th both Junior and Primary Assemblies will have worship services.

On February 23rd the Primary Assembly will have a Purim celebration and the Junior Assembly will have a family worship, conducted by the fourth grade.

And, the event of the year - on March 2nd - The Annual Fifth Grade Auction for the benefit of the Leo Baeck School in Haifa. Save your money for some great buys!! Polly Goldman and Josh Wirtschafter are the auctioneers. Plan to attend. One and all! Parents and Children!

February 28th is our Religious School Sabbath. Worship and see what we have done. Much excitement!

The Bible lesson for February 16th is Amos 5:10-15 and we shall discuss ethical behavior toward the poor, the needy and the righteous.

FAMILY WORSHIP SERVICE

The next Family Worship Service will be held on Friday, February 21, at 6:30 P.M. Pot luck supper will be served after worship. As in the past, participants are requested to bring enough meat for their families and double the amount of vegetables for their needs.

Please remember to make your reservations in order to seat everyone. Call the Temple office by Thursday, February 20th.

BROTHERHOOD and SISTERHOOD

Guess who's cooking the dinner? Stanley Demos and "Bo" Wallace look out...The Brotherhood Chefs are going to make this meeting a once a year occasion not to be missed. The "good ladies" of the Sisterhood have been shooed out of the kitchen, and the men are taking over.

YOUTH KIDDUSH AND RELIGIOUS SCHOOL SABBATH

The next Youth Kiddush will be February 28th. Our fifth one. One more after that (April 4th) and we shall begin distributing Kiddush cups to the students who have attended six services.

This Sabbath Service will also be devoted to our Religious School. Plan to attend and see what our students have done this year.

CONGRATULATIONS TO

...Barnett Winters on his marriage to Mrs. Elsie Walker Grubbs. The wedding took place on Sunday, February 2, 1975.

FREE - BABY SITTING

The Worship Committee will provide free baby sitting service for Sabbath Worship from 7:45 to 9:45 during the months of March and April (except for April 18 when there is a family worship service). This service is being planned on an experimental basis to see how well it is received. If it is successful, the Worship Committee will arrange for sitters for Friday evening on a regular basis.

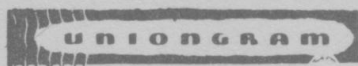

WORSHIP COMMITTEE QUESTIONNAIRE

The Worship Committee Questionnaire, asking whether you would like to participate in a Jewish Experiential Worship have been coming in very slowly. Some interest has been shown in the form of delving into Jewish commitment and what it means in the life of our congregation; however, many more returns are needed before the Worship Committee can evaluate its findings.

Don't let your pre-schooler miss out on this holiday fun time!!!

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

Youth Groupers, on February 9, enjoyed an informative discussion program on quota systems within major universities. A diverse amount of opinions and concern were expressed by members attending.

On February 22 at 8:00 P.M. in the Temple Vestry Temple Youth Group will sponsor for the second time a Square Dance. Our last one was a huge success and several congregational members and youth groupers expressed enthusiasm for a repeat performance. Admission for the dance is $1.00 and refreshments will be provided. Tickets may be purchased in advance from any youth grouper. Tickets will also be on sale at the door. Everyone is urged to attend.

Transportation information for Regionals was distributed to all TYG members at our last meeting. Chartered bus service will depart from the Temple parking lot at 3:30 P.M. February 13. The cost of this service will be $9.00, to be collected prior to departure. TYGers will leave Cincinnati at approximately 10:00 A.M. and are expected to arrive in the parking lot at 12:00 P.M. on Sunday.

A Special Note of Interest: Rabbi David Saperstein from the Religious Action Center in Washington, D.C. will join OVFTYites at this year's regional conclave. He will discuss the programming of the OVFTY Washington, D.C. Social Action Seminar as well as lead several workshops pertaining to the Regional Conclave theme.

FIFTH GRADE BICENTENNIAL PROJECT

As part of an American Revolution Bicentennial project of the fifth grade, famous Jewish-American patriots' biographies will be published each week in the Bulletin. The second in the series is Francis Salvador. Benji Wirtschafter is in charge of the project.

FRANCIS SALVADOR

The Salvador family were very devoted to the English crown. After leaving his wife and four children in England and emigrating into South Carolina, young Francis Salvador threw himself into revolutionary politics. One day he found some Jewish refugees who claimed that some Indians had burned their homes. Salvador rode to Major Williamson and made an army of forty men to attack the Indians. But it was in this campaign that he lost his life.

He was riding beside Major Williamson when he was shot in his left leg. He tried hiding in the bushes but was found immediately and left scalped. As soon as he gained his senses, he saw Major Williamson and asked if we had won. Williamson said yes and Salvador bade him farewell and died. So Francis Salvador was the first Jew who lost his life in the Revolution.

NOMINATIONS FOR BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The following is quoted for your information:

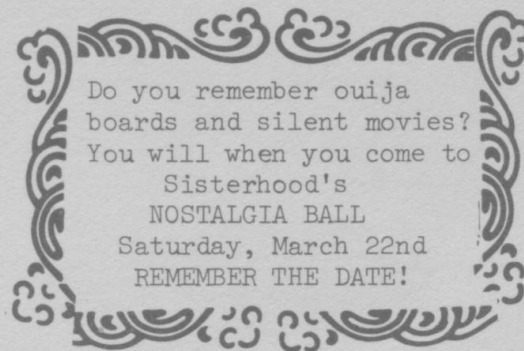

"Nominations for election to the Board of Trustees, in addition to those nominations to be made by the nominating committee, may be made by means of a nominating petition for each person sought to be nominated, which petition must contain the signatures and addresses of at least five (5) members of the Temple in good standing, no signature to be valid if the signator has signed more nominating petitions in any one year than the total number to be elected to the Board of Trustees, which nominating petitions, in order to be valid and acceptable, shall be mailed to the Co-Chairmen of the Election Committee, Hyman Shraberg, 3419 Brookhaven Drive (40502) or Harold Miller, 470 Boone Trail, Danville (40422) postmarked on or before the 29th day of March."

SPECIAL WORSHIP SERVICES

Special services on the subject of Freedom in Our Time are being planned for March. On March 14th the subject will be The Holocaust, March 21st, The Music of The Warsaw Ghetto, March 28th, The Struggle of Soviet Jewry.

SUNDAY MORNING PARKING

PARENTS - Please do not park on the north side of the parking lot, facing the Temple on Sunday mornings. Use the center and far spaces. We ask this for the safety of your children.

WELCOME

We are delighted to welcome Mrs. Sanda Sebastian and her two children into our congregational family. Mrs. Sebastian is a former Lexingtonian but now resides in Louisville at 870 Markham Lane. The telephone number is (502) 895-7303.

NEW DIRECTORS FOR UCI IN ZIONSVILLE

Two qualified young men have recently been hired to direct the Union Camp Institute in Zionsville, Indiana, replacing Rabbi Julian Cook, who has taken a congregation in Florida.

Joshua Arnold comes highly recommended from the UAHC Pennsylvania camp. His expertise is camp administration which he learned at that camp. He holds a Masters Degree in Urban Studies. Josh is 23 years old and single. He will live at the camp throughout the year in the director's cottage. Josh will be responsible for all areas of camp administration, the health and safety of the camp population and camper recruitment.

Mr. Arnold will be with us on February 19 at the joint Sisterhood-Brotherhood meeting.

Ronald Klotz has been on the Oconomowoc staff for years. For two of those years, he has served as an assistant director. Ron is 29 years old, married and a third year Hebrew Union College student. His area of camp expertise is programming and staff recruitment. These will be his primary responsibilities at Zionsville.

Union Camp Institute is:

...for Jewish children in search of a substantial and lasting Jewish experience

... for Jewish children interested in rediscovering ethical and spiritual values in a unique summer camp setting

... for Jewish children who enjoy creative expression with their friends through carefully supervised and programmed activities

... for Jewish children who enjoy exciting sports in the midst of lush greenery and modern facilities

... a camp that cares about you and is accredited by the American Camping Association

If you did not receive the brochure about the camp and an application form in a previous Bulletin, please call the Temple office, 266-3251.

DYING AND DEATH

If there are members interested, Rabbi Leffler will conduct a three session adult education course on the subject "Dying and Death", the evenings of February 18, 26, and March 5. If you would like to participate, please call the Rabbi. The class will be limited in size so that there may be group participation.

Rabbi: William J. Leffler

President: Dr. Saul Rubin

First Vice President: Jack L. Miller Secretary: Dr. Charles Gorodetzky

Second Vice President: Dr. Martin P. Kaplan Treasurer: Charles Stern

Temple Administrator: Herman Straus

The recent trip of Mr. Kissinger's to the Mid East, the efforts of Arab oil barons to purchase control of American banks and corporations, the remarks of General Brown at Duke Law School, the occurrence of Anti-Semitic outbursts (see elsewhere in this issue for one reaction to these) have begun to make us a little bit edgy. It is not our loyalty per se that is being questioned, but rather how we fit into American Society - are we really Americans or somehow a group apart?

For most of us this is a new question. We feel very much as Americans. This is our country, our nation. And yet we find people who want us to "go home", who accuse us of being an "Israel Lobby", of being able to carry two passports (I heard this one recently in a question and answer period.) Such talk is new to us. It frightens us. It distresses us. And yet it occurs, and with the economic situation what it is, may occur with greater frequency if our economic situation becomes more critical. This sort of possibility is not pleasant to consider. None of us appreciates the remarks or behavior that could occur. None of us wants to subject our children to this kind of occurrence.

And yet if we do find that such Anti-Semitic activity does increase, we shall need to have the wherewithal to withstand it, to evaluate its effect upon us, to consider how we shall react to it. There may not be any one way that is adequate for each of us. But as Jews, we shall have to turn to our tradition for strength to confront our choices.

These are apt to be stressful times for us as Jews. The synagogue can be a source of support during them, so that we know why we are Jews and what it means in the totality of our lives, despite what others may say or think.

William J. Leffler
Rabbi

THROUGHOUT the history of the Western world the Scriptures have been the great instigators of revolt against the worst forms of clerical and political despotism. The Bible has been the Magna Charta of the poor and of the oppressed; down to modern times no State has had a constitution in which the interests of the people are so largely taken into account, in which the duties so much more than the privilege of rules are insisted upon, as that drawn up for Israel in Deuteronomy and in Leviticus; nowhere is the fundamental truth that the welfare of the State, in the long run, depends on the uprightness of the citizen so strongly laid down. . . . The Bible is the most democratic book in the world.

THOMAS H. HUXLEY, 1825-1895.

FREE - BABY SITTING

The Worship Committee will provide free baby sitting service for Sabbath Worship from 7:45 to 9:45 during the months of March and April (except for April 18 when there is a family worship service). This service is being planned on an experimental basis to see how well it is received. If it is successful, the Worship Committee will arrange for sitters for Friday evening on a regular basis.

This service will start March 7th.

Religious School

On February 23, the Primary Assembly will celebrate Purim.

March 2 is the Auction for the Leo Baeck School under the auspices of the 5th grade. Polly Goldman and Josh Wirtschafter are the auctioneers. Come, buy, have fun. Support this worthwhile school in Haifa.

The Bible passage for February 23 is Amos 5:18-20 and we shall discuss how we often look forward to a great day and then when it arrives, find that it is not so great.

Celebrate Religious School Sabbath on February 28. Come and see what our students do in our school.

JEWISH EXPERIENTIAL WORKSHOP

Recently all members of the congregation were sent a letter describing a workshop sponsored by the Worship Committee and proposed for 1975-76. Replies were requested regarding your interest, or lack of same, in participating.

The proposed workshop will require your devoting one entire weekend, meeting in a small group with a trained leader, to examine your own attitudes about Jewishness. During the weekend we will discuss our expectations of Judaism, our understanding of the meaning of Judaism in our home, in our congregation, and in our every day life. We hope to learn about our Jewish roots and heritage, to discover our Jewish identity and to get to know other members of the congregation more intimately by sharing experiences and feelings relating to our common bond.

The cost will probably be between $7 and $10 which will help defray the expenses of a trained leader provided by the UAHC.

The Worship Committee would appreciate your returning the questionnaire promptly. If the questionnaire has been misplaced, please call Mrs. Thurman at 266-3251 regarding your interest. Negative replies are also requested.

YOUTH . ACTIVITIES

Youth Groupers enjoyed a tremendously successful regional conclave held in Cincinnati, Ohio last weekend. The theme of this year's event was American Jewish Agenda and we discussed the major social issues confronting American Jews today. Intensive workshops and study groups were prepared especially to explain the conclave's theme.

On February 22 at 8:00 P.M. in the Temple Vestry, TYG will sponsor a second Square Dance. Our last one was a huge success and several congregational members and youth groupers expressed enthusiasm for a repeat performance. Admission to the dance is $1.00 and refreshments will be provided. Tickets may be purchased at the door, or in advance from any TYG member. Join us with your family for an evening of entertainment.

Thanks to those youth groupers who baked hamantashen last Thursday night for the square dance. Your participation was greatly appreciated.

Several youth group members have expressed further interest in the OVFTY Washington, D.C. Social Action Seminar. Anyone interested, or in need of additional information, please contact Allan Mandelbaum, 269-3547.

OUR FINAL SCHOLAR-IN-RESIDENCE
THIS YEAR

RABBI P. IRVING BLOOM of Temple Israel, Dayton, Ohio, will be our fourth and final Scholar-in-Residence this year. He will be with us on Friday, March 7. He will speak at 4:30 P.M. to the members of the Senior Group on the topic, "The Three Covenants" and after worship services to the congregation on the subject, "Another Look at Mixed Marriage".

Rabbi Bloom is a graduate of the Hebrew Union College in Cincinnati and served as an Air Force Chaplain after ordination. He has been rabbi of Temple Israel since 1973, and previously held pulpits in Mobile, Alabama and New Orleans, Louisiana.

Rabbi Bloom has been active in many communal and civic organizations as well as serving as a member of the Executive Board of the Central Conference of American Rabbis.

INVITATION

Ohavay Zion Synagogue Sisterhood invites you to attend its Annual Purim Bazaar on Sunday, February 23rd - 12:30-5:00 P.M. COME FOR SUPPER! STAY FOR MUSIC!

Call the Temple to make reservations. We need to know how many to feed. If you do not want to eat, come after dinner at 7:30 P.M.

Remember also thy Creator in the days of thy youth, or ever the evil days come, and the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them; or ever the sun and the light and the moon and the stars be darkened, and the clouds return after the rain, and the dust return to the earth as it was, and the spirit return to God who gave it.

This is the end of the matter; all hath been heard; fear God, and keep His commandments, for this is the whole duty of man.

SISTERHOOD'S NOSTALGIA BALL
Saturday, March 22nd

(This editorial appeared in the Colorado Springs Gazette-Telegraph. It was written by William Aiken. Mr. Aiken is not a Jew, even as the Gazette-Telegraph is not a Jewish house organ or journal. It was Mr. Aiken's comment on the slogan which appeared during the recent flurry of Nazi scrawlings on Synagogues and other public buildings. This article was republished because it was thought that many readers would like to read it.)

REFLECTIONS ON THE REVIVAL OF A SLOGAN

"JEWS GO HOME"... Well, now, this is nothing new. Never in the past have you ever taken this gentle suggestion to move on. But, Heaven forbid, suppose just once, you thought that expression of a few sick people actually expressed the conviction of all the people in this wonderful land of ours, and all of you started to pack your bags and leave for parts unknown?

"Just before you leave, would you do me a favor? Would you leave your formula for the Salk vaccine with me before you leave? You wouldn't be so heartless as to let my children contact polio?

"And would you please leave your knack for government and politics, and persuasion, and literature, and good food, and fun and love, and all those things, and would you please leave with me the secret of your drive to succeed?

"And please have pity on us - please show us the secret of how to develop such geniuses as Einstein and Steinmetz and, oh so many others who have helped us all. After all, we owe you most of the A-Bomb, most of our rocket research and perhaps the fact that we are alive today instead of looking up from our chains and from our graves to see an aging, happy Hitler drive slowly by in one of our Cadillacs.

"On your way out, Jews, will you do me just one more favor? Will you please drive by my house and pick me up too? I'm just not sure I could live too well in a land where you weren't around to give as much as you have given to us. If you ever have to leave, love goes with you, Democracy goes with you, everything I and all my buddies fought for in World War II goes with you, God goes with you.

Just pull up in front of my house, slow down and honk, because so help me, I'm going with you, too."

SCRUPULOUS HONESTY

RABBI SAPHRA wished to dispose of one of his estates, for which he asked a certain price. An individual who had an inclination to purchase it, made him an offer, which, being much less than the real value of the estate, was refused. Some time after, the Rabbi, being in want of money, resolved in his mind to accept the sum offered. In the interim, the individual who had made the offer, desirous of possessing the estate, and ignorant of the Rabbi's determination, came and proposed to give him the sum first demanded. But the good Saphra refused to take it. "I have," said he, "made up my mind before thou camest, to take the sum thou didst first offer; give it me, and I shall be satisfied; my conscience will not permit me to take advantage of thy ignorance."

STAMPS FOR WELLINGTON

Commemoratives, higher denominations and foreign stamps continue to come into the Temple office for this project. Remember, the stamps cannot be torn or mutilated in any way, or they are not usable. So do not cut too closely to them if you cut them from the envelope.

JEWISH EXPERIENTIAL WORKSHOP

To further help explain what a Jewish Experiential Workshop is, we quote the description of one of the participants in such a workshop as it was reported in a Temple Bulletin:

"On January---, we traveled to _____ with the Rabbi and _____ to participate in what was called "The Jewish Experiential Workshop". We went mainly because we were curious as to how one can explore and raise Jewish consciousness.

There were approximately 50 participants and the Rabbis of _____, _____, and _____. Two facilitators from the UAHC led the workshop sessions. The group was divided into two units so that there could be more interaction.

We participated in all the workshop sessions which consisted primarily of exercises in which we explored and discussed our attitudes. In a non-threatening atmosphere we made choices, discussed them and questioned them. All these activities were planned so that we would become more conscious of our attitudes and values toward Judaism individually and collectively.

For us, it was a learning experience toward Judaism, Temple and community. These activities have stimulated us to search ourselves and explore our attitudes in more depth.

FIFTH GRADE BICENTENNIAL PROJECT

COLONEL ISAAC FRANKS

Isaac Franks was an American Jew born in New York in the year 1759. He fought under George Washington in the Battle of Long Horn Island and took part in the retreat to New York. For three months he was a prisoner of the British. Later he escaped in a row boat with only one paddle. For the next four years he was in the Quartermaster Division. During the last years of his life Colonel Isaac Franks received money from a Revolutionary pension and held some civil posts.

YOUTH KIDDUSH AND RELIGIOUS SCHOOL SABBATH

The next Youth Kiddush will be February 28th. Our fifth one. One more after that (April 4th) and we shall begin distributing Kiddush cups to the students who have attended six services.

This Sabbath Service will also be devoted to our Religious School. Plan to attend and see what our students have done this year.

THE JUNIOR CHOIR

Be sure to hear our Junior Choir at the Youth Kiddush on February 28. This group includes Karen Watkins, Missy Mandelbaum and Lee Mayer.

CAMP BLUE STAR GET-TOGETHER

Mr. Herman Popkin, owner and director of Camp Blue Star in Hendersonville, N. C. will be in Lexington for a "get-together" for prospective campers and staff and "alumni" on March 3, 1975 at 6:00. A delicatessen-type supper will be served. To be held at home of

DR. MICHAEL LERNER

Lexington, Ky. 40502

If interested, please call the Lerner at 278-7921 by February 27. Blue Star is a camp for Jewish boys and girls from ages 8 through 15 and older (as staff members).

NOTICE

On a recent Mike Wallace TV program there was a report on Syrian Jewry. David Schoenbrun responded to a question on this subject. To help clarify the record, we have included in this Bulletin a copy of a recent statement issued by the American Jewish Committee on the current plight of Syrian Jewry.

A letter to our Senators and Congressmen on the plight of these Jews would be appropriate. You might even send them the enclosure.

Rabbi's Message

In January, the Vatican issued a new statement on Jewish-Christian relations and redirected the attention of the Catholic Church once more to the need of Catholics for "dialogue" with Judaism, admitting that heretofore what has occurred has been primarily monologue - Catholics attempting to "witness" (a word in the statement that has some very negative connotations for us) to Christ and to convert us to their way of believing. The "Guidelines" for dialogue that the church issued were broad and in most conciliatory terms, and certainly a welcome change from what we have known historically as the Catholic attitude toward Judaism.

An International Jewish Committee on Interreligious Consultations responded to this statement and welcomed its intent. However, this committee expressed reservations about some of the theological assumptions underlying the Guidelines, as well as the lack of any reference to the land of Israel.

Nonetheless, such a statement as was issued in early January is worthy of noting. And what is also worthy of noting is how little affect it has had on the continuing non-existent inter-religious dialogue in Lexington. I was asked about the Jewish reaction to the statement by one of the Newman Club priests whom I see at meetings, but other than that - silence, no reaction from any of the Catholic Churches in Lexington.

The Jewish statement in response to the Guidelines points out appropriately that the statement is "an internal Catholic document". Perhaps they have just not gotten to considering it here in Lexington's Catholic churches as yet. On the other hand, I doubt whether the Vatican would have bothered issuing a statement on what they considered a "non-problem".

FREE - BABY SITTING

The Worship Committee will provide free baby sitting service for Sabbath Worship from 7:45 to 9:45 during the months of March and April (except for April 18 when there is a family worship service). This service is being planned on an experimental basis to see how well it is received. If it is successful, the Worship Committee will arrange for sitters for Friday evening on a regular basis.

AN EVENING OF JEWISH LOVE SONGS

CANTOR STEPHEN RICHARDS

Music from Columbia. He was ordained as cantor at the School of Sacred Music of the Hebrew Union College in 1969. He has served in many capacities in both Jewish and secular music activities and has been cantor at the Indianapolis Hebrew Congregation since 1972. We look forward to his being with us.

Since we shall need to know how many persons to expect for the dinner, please make reservations by calling Bobbi Baker, 266-6132 no later than March 7. If you cannot come for dinner, come afterwards for the program.

On Sunday evening, March 9, the Music Committee and the TYG will combine efforts and bring us an evening of Jewish music, featuring Cantor Stephen Richards of the Indianapolis Hebrew Congregation, singing "Love Songs of Our People."

We shall begin with a dinner at 6:30 P.M. cooked and served by the members of our Youth Group. Cost for this will be $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for children. After dinner Cantor Richards will present his program of Jewish music. It should not be a late evening and the entire family is invited to share in this presentation.

SCHOLAR-IN-RESIDENCE

RABBI P. IRVING BLOOM of Temple Israel, Dayton, Ohio, will be our fourth and final Scholar-in-Residence this year. He will be with us on Friday, March 7. He will speak at 4:30 P.M. to the members of the Senior Group on the topic, "The Three Covenants" and after worship services to the congregation on the subject, "Another Look at Mixed Marriage".

Rabbi Bloom is a graduate of the Hebrew Union College in Cincinnati and served as an Air Force Chaplain after ordination. He has been rabbi of Temple Israel since 1973, and previously held pulpits in Mobile, Alabama and New Orleans, Louisiana.

Rabbi Bloom has been active in many communal and civic organizations as well as serving as a member of the Executive Board of the Central Conference of American Rabbis.

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

The deadline for applications of those persons interested in the numerous staff positions open at Union Camp Institute, in Zionsville is fast approaching. Many person attending OVFTY's Regional Conclave were briefed on the requisites that such staff positions as counselor and maintenance crew members must have. If you were unable to attend these meetings, but are interested in working at camp, additional information and applications may be secured by writing UCI at 9349 Moore Road, Zionsville, Ind. 46077.

Once again TYG's Square Dance was considered a great success. Thanks to all TYG members who worked so diligently and the many congregational members who attended. A special thanks is due Mindy Doctrow and Cookie Gerson for their outstanding efforts.

Our next meeting will be roller skating at Champ's Roller-dome. We will meet at the Temple on Sunday, March 2 at 1:30 P.M. A caravan will be set up and transportation will be found for those in need of a ride.

Religious School

The big, annual auction for the benefit of the Leo Baeck School in Haifa will be held this Sunday, March 2, under the auspices of the Fifth Grade. Polly Goldman and Josh Wirtschafter will be the auctioneers. The time is 11:00 until noon. Come, enjoy, buy, help us assist this excellent school in Israel.

On February 9, the 6th Grade will conduct a Family Worship Service at 11:35. Parents are all invited. This service is for the Junior Assembly.

Passover vacation will be March 30 and April 6 .

The Bible passage for March 2 is Amos 5:21-24 and we shall discuss the relationship between morality and worship, and the need for both.

Rabbi P. Irving Bloom will meet with members of the Senior Group in the library from 4:30 until 6:00 P.M. He will discuss the topic "The Three Covenants". At 6:00 P.M. we shall have our Shabbat dinner for the families of Senior Groupers. Letters have been sent out. Please make reservations so we know how many people to expect.

JEWISH EXPERIENTIAL WORKSHOP

Recently all members of the congregation were sent a letter describing a workshop sponsored by the Worship Committee and proposed for 1975-76. Replies were requested regarding your interest, or lack of same, in participating.

The proposed workshop will require your devoting one entire weekend, meeting in a small group with a trained leader, to examine your own attitudes about Jewishness. During the weekend we will discuss our expectations of Judaism, our understanding of the meaning of Judaism in our home, in our congregation, and in our every day life. We hope to learn about our Jewish roots and heritage, to discover our Jewish identity and to get to know other members of the congregation more intimately by sharing experiences and feelings relating to our common bond.

The cost will probably be between $7 and $10 which will help defray the expenses of a trained leader provided by the UAHC.

The Worship Committee would appreciate your returning the questionnaire promptly. If the questionnaire has been misplaced, please call Mrs. Thurman at 266-3251 regarding your interest. Negative replies are also requested.

TZEDAKAH—JUSTICE

"NEITHER shalt thou favor a poor man in his cause" (Exodus 23. 3). It is one of the deep and fundamental traits of Judaism that whilst presupposing sympathy and commiseration with the poor and the hapless, it nevertheless fears that in a suit-at-law justice might be outraged in favor of the poor man even when he is in the wrong—outraged just because of his very distress. Sympathy and compassion are emotions that have their proper place and use, but even these noble feelings must be silenced in the presence of Justice. In this Scriptural command there is a height of conception, a sublimity of moral view, which compels the reverence of all.

WORSHIP COMMITTEE QUESTIONNAIRE

The Worship Committee Questionnaire, asking whether you would like to participate in a Jewish Experiential Worship have been coming in very slowly. Some interest has been shown in the form of delving into Jewish commitment and what it means in the life of our congregation; however, many more returns are needed before the Worship Committee can evaluate its findings.

BEFORE we can effectively combat anti-Semitism, we must first of all educate ourselves out of it, and out of the slave-mentality which it betokens. Only when we respect ourselves, can we win the respect of others; or rather, the respect of others will then come of itself.

SYRIAN JEWRY

The situation of Syrian Jewry is desperate. Reports such as have been found in a recent issue of National Geographic or aired on the Mike Wallace show would tend to indicate that Syrian Jewry has no problems.

Enclosed in this issue of the Bulletin is a detailed report on the conditions under which they live. After you read it, letters to the President and to our Senators and Congressmen would be an appropriate way of expressing your concern for their well being.

JEWISH MUSIC

On Sunday evening, March 9, the Music Committee and the TYG will combine efforts and bring us an evening of Jewish music, featuring Cantor Stephen Richards of the Indianapolis Hebrew Congregation, singing "Love Songs of Our People."

We shall begin with a dinner at 6:30 P.M. cooked and served by the members of our Youth Group. Cost for this will be $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for children. After dinner Cantor Richards will present his program of Jewish music. It should not be a late evening and the entire family is invited to share in this presentation.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

On March 9, the 6th grade will conduct a Family Worship at 11:35 for the Junior Assembly. All parents are invited. They will conduct a similar worship for the Primary Assembly on March 16.

On March 22, we shall have our Religious School observance of Pesach. It looks like an exciting time is planned.

The auction for the Leo Baeck School was great fun and very worthwhile. The 5th grade realized $112.94 from this auction.

The Bible passage for March 9 is Amos 7:10-13 and we shall discuss how we try to get rid of someone who tries to tell us something we don't want to hear. We see this in censorship of all kinds.

The school is the most original institution created by post-biblical Judaism.

WORSHIP SERVICE ON THE SUBJECT OF FREEDOM

The Sabbath Services for March 14, 21 and 28 will be devoted to the subject of freedom, an ideal that is a major topic in our forthcoming
Pesach celebration.

Our worship on March 14 will be a creative service, dealing with Freedom and the Holocaust and featuring a sermon on film.

The March 21 service will feature our choir singing songs of the Warsaw Ghetto, and the March 28th service will highlight the struggles of Soviet Jewry, the participants in "The Last Exodus" as Leonard Schroeter terms their efforts to gain their liberation.

All too frequently we take freedom for granted. Its message needs continual renewal.

FREE - BABY SITTING

The Worship Committee will provide free baby sitting service for Sabbath Worship from 7:45 to 9:45 during the months of March and April (except for April 8 when there is a family worship service.)
This service is being planned on an experimental basis to see how well it is received. If it is successful, the Worship Committee will arrange for sitters for Friday evening on a regular basis.

Parents are asked to escort their children to the Kindergarten room so that the sitters are properly introduced to their charges and can exercise adequate control.

Our advance and salvation, our retreat and destruction, are linked with the prosperity or failure of school and synagogue.

From the Rabbi's Desk

I was disappointed that so few members attended the recent Social Action Committee program at which Jim Barlow and Sharon Butler discussed the current situation in our Fayette County Schools. It was a worthwhile and enlightening evening, and I should like to share a few personal reactions that I had to it.

One was that the School Board is running scared. They seem to be very much afraid of the teachers and what might be the ultimate consequences of a union. To my question on this point, Mr. Barlow admitted that they were operating out of a negative approach, rather than a positive one. This is really unfortunate because it tends to paralyze them and make them reactors rather than permit them to take the initiative where it is necessary.

Secondly, the FCEA really did not seem to be particularly organized as to what their aims were beyond professional negotiations. The term sounds very fine or threatening, whichever one may find it, but if it is to be sold as a worthwhile innovation, we need to be far more aware of the benefits that would come as a result of it. Mrs. Butler really did not spell these out sufficiently.

And thirdly, Mr. Barlow assumed I was for the FCEA, when I have not as yet made up my mind. Rather, is it I just do not trust the School Board after they wasted my money on an integration suit, they tried to sneak in the distribution of Gideon Bibles and they put Rev. Green on the Board rather than Mr. Geals who was such a close runner up in the election. Such behavior does not elicit confidence and so I am skeptical of their opposition to the FCEA.

It was really a fine discussion. I was disappointed that so few members availed themselves of the opportunity to be part of it.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

On March 16, the Primary Assembly will have a worship service with Rabbi Leffler and the Junior Assembly will have music in the classroom.

On March 23, we shall have our Pesach Tasting Party from 11 to 12 noon. It should be a mouth watering event.

Spring vacation plans have been changed. Please note there will be school on March 30 and April 6. Vacation for the Primary and Junior Assemblies will be April 13 and 20. For the Senior Group only on April 13. The last block of Senior Group classes will start April 20.

The Bible passage for March 16 is Amos 8:11-12 and we shall discuss how the views of Judaism and the "words of the Lord" are food for our souls and give us spiritual strength.

Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting and Dinner is scheduled for April 27, 1975. All Committee Chairmen are expected to have their Committee reports in to the Temple office before April 14th if they are to be included in the booklet. Chairmen, please remember this date!

New Member Welcomed

We are delighted to welcome Mr. Leo C. Friedlander into our congregational family. He comes to us from Bricktown, New Jersey and resides at 820 Malabu Drive. The phone is 277-2910.

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

Important events are emerging for TYG in the near future. Many of them demand assistance and participation from our members. You are urged to glance through this column and select one, if not all, of the varied activities and get involved!

On April 6, TYG will sponsor a 20 mile hike in support of the Israeli Mogen David Adom, Israel's official red cross service. Our Jewish community is needed to help in the organization of this event. For further information, contact Andrea Friedman, 277-2089.

Thanks to TYGers who assisted in preparing and serving dinner for the musical program on March 9. Special thanks to Bobbie Baker and her mother, Mrs. Harold Baker, for an excellent job.

Next meeting is March 23 at 1:30 P.M. in the Temple Vestry. Plans concerning the Israeli Mogen Adom hike will be discussed by Allen Mandelbaum. The possibility for an outing to Kings Island will be discussed also. Committee meetings will be held to discuss future worship services. We are in need of three Havdalah services. For persons interested, please contact Leslie Levy, 266-2858.

Applications for sub-regionals in Huntington are forthcoming. For those interested, contact Steve Derer, 278-1012.

TYGers are needed to serve the meal at the congregational Seder on March 27. Call Steve Derer if you would like to do so.

A progressive dinner for TYGers is in its planning stages. Anyone with suggestions is asked to call Mindy Doctrow, 277-9656.

From the Rabbi's Desk

Every year or two one of the major circulation magazines has a feature article on American Judaism and the problems which we face at the moment. A few years ago they thought we were "vanishing"; today, they tell us that is no longer the case, and so they have shifted emphasis, as Time has done in its March 10, 1975 issue.

Today their center of concern for us is Israel - and they are most accurate, for peace in the Mid East and the future of Israel is a major area of concern for us as American Jews. We have a tremendous stake in what will occur there. The well being of our fellow Jews there is the goal of our UJA drive. How we feel about ourselves as Jews, to a large measure, is determined by the success of the State of Israel. The peace of the world may depend upon peace in that corner of it. From many viewpoints we look at Israel with grave concern and pray for peace.

But one of the facets of our concern which is often not spelled out is that our concern comes out of the very basis of our religion - that Judaism is the religion of a group of people and not held together by a specific theology. Our primary religious concern is for the welfare of other Jews and not for creedal agreement. And thus, though few of us have our immediate past in that land, as other ethnics in this country do in the country of their recent origin, we still feel a very close tie to it as the land of our forefathers, the land of God's Promise, the land of our "religious birth."

And so we react to what happens to Israel in a way which has no counterpart among other groups in this country. It often confuses them, and sometimes even us. But if we remember that Israel is first and foremost a religious manifestation for us, our on-going, active and obvious concern for her well-being and survival will be more clearly understood.

William J. Leffler
Rabbi

MOGEN DAVID ADOM

Mogen David Adom, Israel's equivalent to the Red Cross, is a fine example of this tradition of Pikuah Nefesh (saving a life) in action. Founded in Tel Aviv in 1918 and active in providing medical care for the soldiers of the Jewish battalions of World War I, MDA re-emerged after a dormant period in 1930 in response to the pressing need for first aid and ambulance services for the growing Jewish population of Palestine. Providing ambulance services 24 hours a day, the MDA ambulance fleet has grown to 350 vehicles and in 1969 transported almost 130,000 injured and ill over a distance of over four and a half million kilometers.

The seventy-five branches of MDA have learned to react instantly to all types of emergencies as the medical wing of the Haganah during World War II and throughout the 1948 War of Independence. Today, MDA acts as an auxiliary service to the Israeli Defence Forces and has been entrusted by Israel's Knesset to maintain first aid services for provisional hospitalization in times of stress for the inhabitants of the country.

FREE - BABY SITTING

The Worship Committee will provide free baby sitting service for Sabbath Worship from 7:45 to 9:45 during the months of March and April (except for April 8 when there is a family worship service.) This service is being planned on an experimental basis to see how well it is received. If it is successful, the Worship Committee will arrange for sitters for Friday evening on a regular basis.

Parents are asked to escort their children to the Kindergarten room so that the sitters are properly introduced to their charges and can exercise adequate control.

ANOTHER RABBI SPEAKS

The following is quoted from the Bulletin of Achduth Vesholom Congregation in Fort Wayne, Indiana of which Richard Safran is the rabbi:

"This past week two young people expressed to me what it means to be a Jew. One said, "I am a Jew by default." The other said, "I am a Jew because it gives me a wonderful way to live and to be a person." The first was expressed by a young man whose personal and family relationship to Judaism is, at best, an occasional visit on Sunday morning to our Religious School. The second was a young person new to Jewish life, who was in the process of deepening her commitment to Judaism. The heartache and reality of it all, is that they are both right.

There is no "magic" in being a Jew. You can make of it what you want. You can be a Jew by "default" - being born one but not affirming it or any other faith, but also not leaving it; or you can come to it open to the marvelous experiences and wonderful opportunities it grants you to deepen and enrich life. Being a "Jew" can be an empty and meaningless term, imposed upon you by someone else, or something you make your own as you bear witness to an ancient commitment that has illumined the world with its insights and truths. The danger that we face as American Jews comes not from the anti-Semite who would do us harm, but from the nice "born Jews" who would do little or nothing to hand to another generation the life, the spirit, the knowledge or the experiences of Judaism.

Have you asked your child recently what it means to be a Jew?

THE SACRED TONGUE

THE Synagogue service is essentially the expression of the soul of collective Israel. In the Synagogue we meet as Jews, there in prayer, in aspiration, in confession of faith, to carry on the stream of spiritual effort which has flowed unbroken through the ages ever since Israel became conscious of himself. Therefore the prayers will not merely voice private needs and modern ideas, but will chiefly speak of Israel. And so they will largely be in Hebrew, Israel's historic language. You may get rid of Hebrew, but with it you will get rid of the Synagogue too, of the Synagogue as a living organism, as the well-spring of Jewish feeling and the inspiration of Jewish life. Nor is this all. The claim of Hebrew, though bound up with the interests of public worship, yet transcends them. It will meet you whenever you open your Jewish history, whenever you open your Bible. As long as we remain Jews and call the Bible our own, the Tongue in which it is written must be inestimably sacred to us.

I AM A HEBREW

I WILL continue to hold my banner aloft. I find myself born—ay, born—into a people and a religion. The preservation of my people must be for a purpose, for God does nothing without a purpose. His reasons are unfathomable to me, but on my own reason I place little dependence; test it where I will it fails me. The simple, the ultimate in every direction is sealed to me. It is as difficult to understand matter as mind. The courses of the planets are no harder to explain than the growth of a blade of grass. Therefore am I willing to remain a link in the great chain. What has been preserved for four thousand years was not saved that I should overthrow it. My people have survived the prehistoric paganism, the Babylonian polytheism, the aesthetic Hellenism, the sagacious Romanism; and it will survive the modern dilettantism and the current materialism, holding aloft the traditional Jewish ideals inflexibly until the world shall become capable of recognizing their worth.

A MESSAGE FROM THE RABBI

Of all our Jewish celebrations, Passover is the one which epitomizes most clearly and vividly what it means to be a Jew. Over and over in the course of the Seder we affirm our participation in the saga of the Exodus. These events did not happen to someone else at some other time in history. They happened to us. And they happened in our lifetime - even if in actuality they were centuries ago.

The illustrations of this are numerous. The wicked son is castigated and excluded because he says "ye" and not "we". The text reminds us that "in each generation, each Jew should regard himself as if he too were brought out of Egypt." We were the ones who cried out to God for deliverance and it was He who delivered us from bondage.

Continually the Seder reminds us that "we are one" (which by the way is the UJA slogan this year). What happens to a part of the Jewish People, affects the rest of us. We react to the plight of Soviet Jewry and the oppression of Syrian Jewry. An anti-Semitic outburst in Argentina upsets us, and swastikas painted on a synagogue door gives us cause for alarm. The future of Israel concerns us greatly.

In a very real sense, we intuitively know that "we are one." It is our exodus from Egypt, our receiving the Torah at Sinai and our becoming a people as we entered the Promised Land that brought this about initially. This sense of oneness, and not theological agreement, binds us together as a religion.

Thus as we confront ourselves as Jews, we cannot forget our oneness. No matter how we may wish to escape it, it continually returns to our awareness. It makes it difficult to be a Jewish snob, to assimilate as an American and still remain a Jew, to overlook how one's behavior will reflect upon one's fellow Jews.

We are one! The extent of this truth bears some thorough consideration.

William J. Leffler

Tickets are $3 for students and $4 for adults. For information call Jo Ann Miller, 266-8627 or Anita Baker, 266-8675 or Joseph Marks, 266-1883, cast members.

Contributions of $5.00 per family are beginning to come into the Temple office in support of the Israel Commission's program. If you have not yet assisted in this effort, send your check in to the Temple office today.

HEBREW SCHOOL

There will be no Hebrew School Thursday, March 27, because of Pesach.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

On March 23, both Primary and Junior Assemblies will have a Pesach Tasting Party. Bring your taste buds and appetites.

On April 30, the Junior Assembly will have a family worship conducted by the 7th grade at 11:35. The Primary Assembly will have music in their classrooms.

On April 6, we shall celebrate Israel Independence Day from 11:00 until 12:00 noon.

Spring vacation for the Primary and Junior Assemblies is April 13 and 20. For the Senior Group, only April 13.

The Bible lesson for March 23 is Amos 9:7 and we shall discuss how God is the father of all mankind, even our enemies. He plays no favorites.

YOUTH ALIYAH

A "Magical, Musical Day for Youth Aliyah" will be held at 1 P.M. and 2:30 P.M. Sunday, April 13th at Diners Playhouse under the auspices of the Lexington Chapter of Hadassah.

Cast will include children from the spring production of "The Sound of Music", the Lexington Ballet Co., Richard Valentine and The Thieving Magpies, and Diner's Playhouse Childrens Theater Group.

Tickets are $2. Proceeds go directly to Youth Aliyah for its work in cultural enrichment programming for disadvantaged children of all faiths in Israel.

Mail your check to Mrs. Stephen Rosenfarb, 3430 Warwick Dr., or call for reservations at Diners Playhouse, 299-8407.

JEWISH EXPERIENTIAL WORKSHOP

URGENT - Please return your questionnaire for the Jewish Experiential Workshop. We need to have more of a response on this. Both yes and no.

Amy was born in Brookline, Mass., and lived in Cleveland, Ohio before moving to Lexington two years ago. Her favorite color is blue; entertainer, Olivia Newton Johns TV show, Gilligan's Island

WE ARE THE LIFELINE!

TYG is sponsoring a fund-raising hike for the Israeli Mogen David Adom. This hike will encompass approximately 20 miles, commencing at Shillito's Park.

We are in need not only for TYG members, but for Jewish children to help us in support of this worthy cause. As Israel grows, as the population expands, as border problems and other hostilities continue...the demand on the resources of Mogen David Adom increases. We are resolved to maintain the life-saving services of Mogen David Adom...with your help.

Additional information may be secured by contacting Steve Derer, 278-1012.

YOUTH . ACTIVITIES

Discussion of varied activities are in need of your attention. Again, let us review our forthcoming events:

April 6 - Israeli Mogen David Adom Fund-Raising Hike. This event is sponsored by TYG in cooperation with the American MDA. The hike will encompass 16 miles, beginning at Shillito's Park and ending at Jacobson Park. A lunch will be served to the participants. For further information, call Andrea Friedman, 277-2089.

March 23 - 5:30 P.M. meeting in the Temple Vestry. A discussion will be held regarding the hike. Committee meetings will be held also. We are in need of two creative Havdalah services, along with programming and fund-raising ideas. Applications for sub-regionals will be distributed. See Steve Derer if you need an application.

TYGers are needed to serve the meal at the congregational Seder on March 27. Call Steve Derer, 278-1012 if you would like to do so.

News from Brotherhood

Let's get on the phone today and convince your best friends that the place to be on Saturday, April 26, is with you at Brotherhood's Wine and Cheese Tasting Party, beginning at 8:00 P.M. in the Temple Vestry.

CHOIR MUSIC

From time to time, the choir will be using some of the newer music being published for use in the Temple worship services. The trend in recent years has been toward a rejection of the hymn-like, romantically harmonized responses that borrowed their style from Protestant church music. Instead, Jewish composers are returning to a more contemporary harmonic style in the accompaniment. The result is often a far more stark texture and greater rhythmic complexity than the sort of music found in the hymnals currently in use in the congregation and to which we have become accustomed. The goal seems to be to de-emphasize "prettiness" and to replace it with a more incisive sort of expression. This is in line with much 20th Century art, of course, and appears to be directly influenced by the agony that has characterized so much of our social, political, and religious life during this period.

MOGEN DAVID ADOM

Mogen David Adom's most pressing project in Israel today is its Colonel David Marcus Memorial Institute in Yafo. MDA's center is the only blood fractionation and processing plant in Israel. This blood bank can produce such vital blood components as plasma, red cells, and fibroinogen.

The activities of the MDA during the last 40 years have stretched beyond the original concept of Pikuah Nefesh, as found in the Talmud.

After the War of Independence, MDA went to Cyprus to work with the Jews interned there by the British. Mogen David Adom has continued to help newcomers to Israel to find relatives and friends. Along with the International Red Cross, MDA has set up a family message service between Israel and Arab Lands.

FREE - BABY SITTING

The Worship Committee will provide free baby sitting service for Sabbath Worship from 7:45 to 9:45 during the months of March and April (except for April 8 when there is a family worship service.) This service is being planned on an experimental basis to see how well it is received. If it is successful, the Worship Committee will arrange for sitters for Friday evening on a regular basis.

Parents are asked to escort their children to the Kindergarten room so that the sitters are properly introduced to their charges and can exercise adequate control.

YOUTH KIDDUSH

The next Youth Kiddush will be held Friday evening, April 4.

ISAAC MAYER WISE'S BIRTHDAY
(March 29, 1819)

Observed Friday evening,
March 28, 1975

The great organizer of the American Jewish community epitomizes the story of the Jew in the United States. An emigrant from Bohemia in 1846, he brought with him a deep commitment to a liberal interpretation of Judaism and a natural affinity for the American spirit of free inquiry and expression.

American Jewry at that time presented itself to Wise as a Jewishly uneducated, backward, disputatious, self-defeating anarchy - terms that he actually used to describe what greeted him on his arrival in America. It was his conviction that the two foremost needs of American Jewry were to unite Jewish congregations into an organized confederation, one of whose chief purposes would be to establish and maintain a seminary for the training of American rabbis to serve American congregations in the spirit of Liberal Judaism.

But his union of congregations was to serve other purposes as well. His biographer, Rabbi James G. Heller, wrote: "... (The Union) resolved to establish a publication society, and to work toward better observance of the Jewish Sabbath. It promulgated rules for the conduct and aid of 'Sabbath schools'". Implicit in all of Wise's work was the dream of building a Judaism to serve the ethical and spiritual needs of a new America.

In 1873 he founded the Union of American Hebrew Congregations in Cincinnati. In 1875 he founded the Hebrew Union College. In 1889 he founded the Central Conference of American Rabbis. This pattern of organization was later copied by the Orthodox and Conservative movement. A prolific writer, his German language Weekly, Deborah, and his English weekly, The American Israelite, recorded the birth pangs of American Judaism.

Wise was a master builder, and we are his inheritors. In Reform congregations throughout North America a special Sabbath service is dedicated to him and to the achievements which live long after him.

KIDS WANTED:'

TYG is in need of participants to hike for their fund-raiser. You will be asked to secure sponsors who will donate money to the Israeli Mogen David Adom for so much money every mile that you will walk. You will not have to walk in excess of 16 miles. Information will be passed out to you, along with permission slips to be signed by your parents, allowing you to participate in this humanitarian cause. Questions? Call Andrea Friedman, 277-2089.

STAMPS FOR WELLINGTON

Yes, we are still collecting them to send off. Just commemoratives, higher denominations and foreign stamps - they must not be torn, cut or mutilated in any way to be of use. Keep bringing them in.

New Member Welcomed

We are delighted to welcome Miss Laura A. Wides, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Norman Wides, into our congregational family. Laura is a clerk at the Wides Material Co. Her address is 310 Duke Rd., Apt. A and the phone number is 269-1536.

PASSOVER HAGGADAHS

The congregation will be using the new Passover Haggadahs this year for our congregational Seder. These Haggadahs, with beautiful watercolor productions by Leonard Baskin, are as much of an art work as an order for the service. However, the ones we shall be using are soft cover, and therefore the Worship Committee voted at its most recent meeting that they not be loaned for the first night's Seder, as we did with the old Union Haggadahs; however these will still be available for those who may wish to borrow them.

The new Haggadahs are on sale in the Sisterhood Gift Shop for $4.00 a piece, for those who wish to purchase them. The hard cover, collectors edition costs $17.50 and may be ordered also.

Copies of the watercolors reproduced in the Haggadah may be purchased through the Gift Shop also.

THE LIVING POWER OF THE JEWISH PROPHETS

THE moral feelings of men have been deepened and strengthened, and also softened, and almost created, by the Jewish prophets. In modern times we hardly like to acknowledge the full force of their words, lest they should prove subversive to society. And so we explain them away or spiritualize them, and convert what is figurative into what is literal, and what is literal into what is figurative. And still, after all our interpretation or misinterpretation, whether due to a false theology or an imperfect knowledge of the original language, the force of the words remains, and a light of heavenly truth and love streams from them even now more than 2,500 years after they were first uttered.

BENJAMIN JOWETT, 1817-1893.

Rabbi's Message

This past week I was in New York City and attended a rabbinic conference on Judaism and the Family. The three speakers, each in his own way, discussed the pressures which modern life places upon the family and how we as modern Jews tend to react to these influences. There was a good bit of discussion after each talk, as we tried to bring the topic into perspective for ourselves. A number of ideas worth mentioning were discussed.

One of these was that the "good old days" may not have been so good. They had their troubles too - unhappiness, disease, frustrations. It is just that we all have a tendency to romanticize the past, and so our current problems often loom larger by contrast.

A second idea was that we have all had a tendency to become "mementized". We want to be with it and so often go along with the current fad or idea, without thinking through what its logical conclusion might be and how it would affect us.

And thirdly, we tend to generalize and forget that each person, each family is different. Thus so much of what we read about or hear is not applicable to the individual where he is.

The role of the Jewish family has been central to Judaism. We have assumed this in the past. Perhaps our assumptions need to be reexamined. Hopefully this conference was only a start. Much more needs to be done.

William J. Leffler
Rabbi

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

On March 30, the Seventh Grade will conduct a Family Worship at 11:35 for the Junior Assembly. The Primary Assembly will have music and singing in their classrooms.

Let's celebrate Israeli Independence Day together! Fifth Grade students are planning a gala affair for this day. There will be a sample Israeli breakfast offered, a birthday cake, Israeli dancing and singing, displays, slides and music. The date of this fun day is April 6 at 11:00 A.M. Alex Weil is in charge of arrangements. Maybe the Senior Group will be invited to participate.

April 13 and 20 is spring vacation for the Primary and Junior Assemblies - only April 13 for the Senior Group.

The last block of classes for Senior Group begins on April 6. Be sure to check your schedules.

The final session of Religious School is May 18, as is Confirmation. Please note!

The Bible lesson for March 30 is Hosea 2:21-22 and we shall discuss what love means in terms of the relationship between people.

Have you thought about entering the Religious School Contest? Check with your teacher on this.

On March 30, the Fifth Grade will operate a Leo Baeck Boutique with gifts, toys, games, and records to be sold at very low prices. It will be held in the Fifth Grade room from noon until 12:10 and the proceeds will go to the Leo Baeck School in Israel.

From the Rabbi's Desk

The failure of Mr. Kissinger in his recent efforts to bring about a peace settlement in the Mid East is a source of concern and distress for us all. The hopes that we may have had that some sort of agreement between Israel and Egypt seems to have vanished and in their place have returned the specter of continuing terrorist attacks such as occurred recently in Tel Aviv, of retaliation raids by Israel on the guerrilla camps in Lebanon and the maintenance of tensions in the Sinai, with the PLO and with the Arab states surrounding Israel on every side. No nation can live a normal existence under such pressure. Peace cannot occur when diplomatic ties are not present.

We react to this distressing situation on two levels - as Americans and as Jews. As Americans we are greatly concerned for the behavior and the policy of our country in that part of the world, whether we can stand up to the pressures and pronouncements of the Arab leaders, and if we shall continue to support Israel as a democratic nation. As Jews we react on a religious level. We recall the terror of the Holocaust and fear for another one in Israel. We also are concerned for the well-being of our fellow Jews in Israel, for our future as Jews is very much entwined with their achievements and their successes. They are a part of what we feel as Jews about ourselves. Thus we need to recognize our concern on these two levels.

In order to help bring some of these feelings into better focus, I am enclosing a very fine letter which I received this past week from Rabbi Joseph Glaser, Executive Vice President of the Central Conference of American Rabbis. I think he presents both aspects of our reaction in a fine fashion and commend it to you.

William J. Leffler

A REMINDER FOR THOSE WHO WILL WALK

This Sunday, April 6th, is the date for Youth Group's MDA fund raising hike. Report to Shillito's Park at 1:30 P.M. to secure all necessary papers enabling you to walk. You must bring your sponsor sheet and permission slip. Dress smartly, and you may take a pocket radio, chewing gum, etc. Don't overdress. In the past, wearing two pairs of socks has been helpful for reducing chances of blisters. All parents should pick their children up at Jackson Park, NOT THE TEMPLE. Looking forward to seeing you there!

Religious School

Let's celebrate Israeli Independence Day together! Fifth Grade students are planning a gala affair for this day. There will be a sample Israeli breakfast offered, a birthday cake, Israeli dancing and singing, displays, slides and music. The date of this fun day is April 6 at 11:00 A.M. Alex Weil is in charge of arrangements. Maybe the Senior Group will be invited to participate.

April 13 and 20 is spring vacation for the Primary and Junior Assemblies - only April 13 for the Senior Group.

The final session of Religious School is May 18, as is Confirmation. Please note!

Have you thought about entering the Religious School Contest? Check with your teacher on this.

The Bible lesson for April 6 is Hagai 1:2-6 and we shall discuss doing things for our own comfort and not being concerned for the well being of the Temple.

YOUTH ALIYAH

A "Magical, Musical Day for Youth Aliyah" will be held at 1 P.M. and 2:30 P.M. Sunday, April 13th at Diners Playhouse under the auspices of the Lexington Chapter of Hadassah.

Cast will include children from the spring production of "The Sound of Music", the Lexington Ballet Co., Richard Valentine and The Thieving Magpies, and Diner's Playhouse Childrens Theater Group. Tickets are $2. Proceeds go directly to Youth Aliyah for its work in cultural enrichment programming for disadvantaged children of all faiths in Israel.

Mail your check to Mrs. Stephen Rosenfarb, 3430 Warwick Dr., or call for reservations at Diners Playhouse, 299-8407.

Sisterhood

The congregational Seder was great and enjoyed by all who attended. Sisterhood wishes to thank Rickie Kaplan and her committee for their untiring efforts in making this event so successful.

The Intra-Faith meeting will be held in the Temple Vestry on Wednesday, April 23rd, at 12:30 P.M. Our guests will be Sisterhood members of Ohavay Zion Synagogue. The program will be by members of the Lexington Musical Theater. Please mark your calendars and attend this meeting.

Youth Group News

Despite the roundball mania which has swept our city, you should still be abreast of all activities we are planning. Our primary concern is the MDA Hike on April 6th. Sponsors should have already been secured. The hike will begin at Shillito's Park at 1:30 P.M., ending at Jackson Park for a picnic lunch. Remember, cars will be on the scene to assist those unable to complete the 16-mile course.

Word is out that Jack Miller will walk the course, but will be paid double by his sponsors. If Jack can walk so can YOU! (Ambulance service will not be provided.....)

Don't forget that Subregionals for KITHOV will be held in Huntington, W. Va., on April 11-13. If you would like an application, contact Steve Derer, 278-1012.

A reminder for the hike - Don't forget your sponsor sheets and permission slips which MUST be signed by one of your parents.

THE KANNER PRIZE

The Kanner Prize will be given to an outstanding sophomore medical student at the Student Awards Day, Friday, April 11, at 1:00 P.M. on the 6th floor in the auditorium of the University of Kentucky Medical Center. The prize is given in memory of the late Dr. Irving Kanner.

MAN'S HUMANITY TO MAN

Don't forget! Sponsor a youngster participating in Youth Group's MDA Fund-Raising Hike today. Your sponsorship means that you pay a youngster so much money to the Israeli Magen Adom for every mile he/she walks during the hike. The maximum is 16 miles.

No one has come around to ask you for your sponsorship? You may do so by contacting Steve Derer at 278-1012. Your donation will be given to some youngster, who will walk in return.

Remember, all donations are tax deductible. Thank you for your continuing support.

MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER

Do you have a good marriage? Do you want to make it better? Marriage Encounter can do this for you in one weekend.

It is a highly personal, very meaningful experience that centers in on each couple attending the week end and permits them to know each other to a depth of awareness they had not known before.

It is truly a beautiful experience that every happily married couple deserves. If you want to know more about this exciting way to enrich your good marriage, call Rabbi Leffler or Alana.

FREE - BABY SITTING

The Worship Committee will provide free baby sitting service for Sabbath Worship from 7:45 to 9:45 during the month of April (except for April 18 when there is a family worship service.) This service is being planned on an experimental basis to see how well it is received. If it is successful, the Worship Committee will arrange for sitters for Friday evening on a regular basis.

Parents are asked to escort their children to the Kindergarten room so that the sitters are properly introduced to their charges and can exercise adequate control.

THE MAN AND HIS THREE FRIENDS

A CERTAIN man had three friends, two of whom he loved dearly but the other he lightly esteemed. It happened one day that the king commanded his presence at court at which he was greatly alarmed and wished to procure an advocate. Accordingly he went to the two friends whom he loved; and each refused to accompany him, the other offered to go with him as far as the king's gate, but not farther. In his extremity he called upon the third friend, whom he least esteemed, and he not only went willingly with him, but so ably defended him before the king that he was acquitted.

In like manner, every man has three friends when Death summons him to appear before his Creator. His first friend, whom he loves most, namely, his money, cannot go with him a single step; his second, relations and neighbors, can only accompany him to the grave, but cannot defend him before the Judge; while his third friend, whom he does not highly esteem—his good works—goes with him before the king, and obtains his acquittal.

FREE - BABY SITTING

The Worship Committee will provide free baby sitting service for Sabbath Worship from 7:45 to 9:45 during the month of April (except for April 18 when there is a family worship service.) This service is being planned on an experimental basis to see how well it is received. If it is successful, the Worship Committee will arrange for sitters for Friday evening on a regular basis.

MORE ABOUT CAMP SHALOM AND DIRECTOR, CAROL WIRTSCHAFTER

Carol's experiences in Israel should enhance the Jewish content at Camp Shalom. During her recent stay in Israel, Carol had a chance to study the Hebrew language at the Hebrew University, observe various youth group activities, and observe pre-school programs for Israeli children. After traveling extensively, she is very enthusiastic about sharing her experiences and ideas with our children this summer.

THE LIVING POWER OF THE JEWISH PROPHETS

The moral feelings of men have been deepened and strengthened, and also softened, and almost created, by the Jewish prophets. In modern times we hardly like to acknowledge the full force of their work, but they should prove subversive to society. And so we explain them away or spiritualize them, and convert what is figurative into what is literal, and what is literal into what is figurative. And still, after all our interpretation or misinterpretation, whether due to a false theology or an imperfect knowledge of the original language, the force of the words remains, and a light of heavenly truth and love streams from them even more than 2,500 years after they were first uttered.

Benjamin Jowett, 1817-1893.

Please Inform the Rabbi

When there are occasions of joy in your family: engagements, births, anniversaries, let the Rabbi know in order that he may share your joy. When there is illness in your family, the Rabbi is as interested to know of it as you are in his knowing.

If there are moments of sorrow when the presence of the Rabbi would be desired, inform him. Do not depend on someone else mentioning an event or an occasion important to you. It is the Rabbi's earnest wish to be present with the members on all occasions, but this is possible only if the information is received.

From the Rabbi's Desk

For the past quarter century or so, two new Jewish holidays are being celebrated. One of them is a joyous event, the other a day of mourning. One of them has been on our calendars since 1948, the other is still not found on every Jewish calendar.

The first - Yom Ha-atzmaut - Israel Independence Day fall on April 16th. It commemorates the modern-day miracle of the establishment of the State of Israel. For us as Jews this is first and foremost a religious event. A part of our people has reestablished itself in our ancient homeland. They have settled there and have once more made that country into a "land flowing with milk and honey." And so we rejoice at their accomplishments; we identify with them and feel a part of their achievements.

The other holiday is Yom Ha-Shoa - The Day of the Holocaust, falling on April 8th. It recalls the terror and the horror of the Nazi period and what it meant to us. And just as Yom Ha-atzmaut is a religious event for us, so too is Yom Ha-Shoa, for on it we relive the tragedy that befell us in those sad days. We recollect the depths of inhumanity to which mankind descended in that era and the beastiality to which human behavior sank, and that we bore the brunt of the venom of the Germans and the lack of concern of the rest of the world.

Two new holidays! Back to back! Degradation followed by glory! The epitome of Jewish history - that out of the depths of despair and hopelessness we have risen to ever newer heights of achievement. Two new holidays - each bespeaking the recurring miracle of Jewish existence, the inexplicability of Jewish history.

William J. Leffler

We are happy to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Cohen and their two children into our congregational family. Mr. Cohen is Division Manager at Prudential Insurance Co. Mrs. Cohen is a speech therapist. They reside at 3398-B Moundview Court and the phone number is 266-4292.

SPOTLIGHT ON SISTERHOOD INTRA-FAITH LUNCHEON

Sisterhood will celebrate Intra-Faith this month rather than our usual Inter-Faith meeting. Our guests for the Intra-Faith luncheon on Wednesday, April 23rd, will be the members of the Ohavay Zion Synagogue Sisterhood.

Please mark your calendar, and plan to attend the April meeting. We think Intra-Faith is a tremendous idea, but it won't be a real party without you.

After lunch, we will be entertained by soloists of the Lexington Musical Theatre Group, singing selections of their past performances. So, for a most enjoyable day, be sure to attend Sisterhood's Intra-Faith meeting on Wednesday, April 23rd at 12:30 P.M. in the Temple Vestry.

From the Rabbi's Desk -

A little over a week ago the annual meeting of the Ohio Valley Region of the Central Conference of American Rabbis was held here in Lexington. This was the first time that we had hosted this sort of meeting and it all went very well. Many of the members who came were from up north, where there was still snow took the occasion to enjoy our spring weather and to tour the Blue Grass.

The highlight of the meeting were the talks by Rabbi Larry Hoffman, who teaches liturgy at HUC-JIR in New York. He spoke of the evolution of Jewish worship, concentrating primarily on early prayer books of the 9th and 10th centuries, and eventually relating what he was saying to the forthcoming "Gates of Prayer" prayerbook, which hopefully we shall be receiving in a few months. He developed the most interesting thesis that Jewish worship is an attempt of the Jewish people to define itself in time, and that the liturgy and the structure and forms of worship have changed over the course of the centuries, and have been reflective of the assumptions, attitudes and life styles of many different Jewish communities.

His talks were most thought provoking and I think we shall see his thesis illustrated most interestingly when we begin to consider the new messages of the new prayerbook and to compare them with what we have been using and accustomed to for years. It should all be most enlightening for us.

UNION CAMP INSTITUTE

The latest word about registration for UCI at Zionville is that it is almost full for the summer. Ten places left in the first session, for boys only. Thirty places left in the second session. If you are thinking of going, register today!

CHEERS FOR OUR YOUTH

We are extremely proud of all of our young people who participated in the March on April 6 for the benefit of the Magen David Adom, the Israel Red Cross. Several of them completed the entire 16 mile course from Shillito's Park to Jacobson Park. As yet the full amount of money to be contributed to the Magen David Adom has not been totaled up, but we shall let you know shortly.

Below are a few photos of the event:

The group gathered at Shillito's Park

Along the way

Finally - Jacobson Park

The Temple Adath Israel Youth Group would like to take this occasion to thank those persons who contributed to the success of our fund-raising hike for MDA. In addition, TYG would like to thank those members of our Jewish community who were so great in sponsoring children who participated in our walk for this humanitarian organization. We have received word from MDA that the monies collected from our hike will be used completely for the Colonel David Marcus Blood Fractionation Plant in Jaffa, Israel.

Thanks to each and every one of you:

Polly Goldman, Gerald Dubilier, Ellen Dubilier, Steve Derer, Andrea Friedman, Cooky Gerson, Jeff Doctrow, Jack Miller, Brian Derer, Linda Wurms, Steve Abisch, Dottie Belin, Bill Frankel, Missy Mandelbaum, Lisa Engelberg, Debra Cohen, Lori Cohen, Alex Weill, Ami Vider, Ety Vider, Jonah Karp, Robert Abend, Terri Stein, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Friedman, Mr. and Mrs. I. From the Rabbi's Desk

Every time I read the local paper and see the lengthy list of divorces, I cannot help wondering what the reasons were that these marriages failed. What happened that caused the husband and the wife involved in each of these families to change their minds and to decide that their marriage was no longer a happy one, one that they wanted to have continue. Whatever it was that had drawn them together to become one no longer was present and so each went his separate way.

I also recall the Sabbath evening a few months ago when I discussed the crisis within the Jewish Family. In my talk I pointed out a number of sensitive areas of concern. We had a live discussion afterward, but I was amazed that no one really reacted to what I thought were crucial areas of Jewish family life today. We talked about more objective concerns - not love and affection and values and the intangibles we have to live with and which give marriage its real substance.

But as I ponder both phenomenon, I realize that marriage is a very personal experience. It involves sharing one's total life with someone else. It requires an openness to feelings and emotions for which most of us have had very little training, if any. From childhood our culture encourages us not to show our feelings, not to express any depth of emotion. We are expected to hide them, or if we do expose them, only let it be a little bit. Public expression of emotions embarrasses us. We think of them as showing weakness. And so we cover them over, even with our spouse, whom we love and with whom we try to share all of life, so that we do not share that intimate part of our life - and thus our marriage is weakened by this failure.

Marriage Encounter is designed to help us overcome this shortcoming. My sermon of April 11 deals with this wonderful experience that Alana and I have shared. If you might be interested, call us and we will be happy to discuss it at length.

Religious School

The closing session of Religious School for Primary and Junior Assemblies is May 18th. Dismissal at 11:00 A.M. The final session for Senior Group will be on May 11th.

On April 27th the Primary and Junior Assemblies will have music in their classrooms. The 7th grade is planning a worship service for May 4th.

Have you planned on entering the Religious School contest? Entries are due May 11th.

The Bible passage for April 27th is Malachi 2:10 and we shall discuss what the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man means.

MORE ON THE MARCH FOR THE MOGEN DAVID ADOM

We want to thank Warren Rosenthal and Jerry's for providing the hungry and tired marchers with food at the end of their trek. Their generous donation of fried chicken, potato salad, cole slaw and rolls for 65 people was most enthusiastically enjoyed.

We also wish to thank David Rubin for his participation.

A more detailed report will appear in next week's Bulletin.

MORE ABOUT CAMP SHALOM AND DIRECTOR CAROL WIRTSCHEFTER

Carol's experiences in Israel should enhance the Jewish content at Camp Shalom. During her recent stay in Israel, Carol had a chance to study the Hebrew language at the Hebrew University, observe various youth group activities, and observe pre-school programs for Israeli children. After traveling extensively, she is very enthusiastic about sharing her experiences and ideas with our children this summer.

Sisterhood

Since we are not going to have a regular Sisterhood business meeting for the month of April, because of our Intrafaith Luncheon, I thought that perhaps you would be interested in our report from the District Convention.

The Interim Board Meeting of District #9 of the National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods met in Steubenville, Ohio on April 8 and 9. I was accompanied to Steubenville by Anita Baker, Marilyn Lieber, Audrey Rubin and Leona Stern.

The theme of the convention was:

"To light a candle.....for leadership
.....for learning

There were small meetings among the president and vice-presidents and directors in this area and then there were larger, very informative workshops involving the whole district both on programming and on leadership.

We were very fortunate to have as speakers the president of NPTS, Mrs. Irving Benjamin, and if that wasn't enough, we also had her first vice president, Mrs. Joseph Maltzer. Both of them were stimulating, dynamic and charming. A lot was learned, a good time was had by all and we are looking forward to a large group of you attending the convention next spring in Louisville in April when our own Anita Baker will be installed as president of the District.

See you at the May 21st Sisterhood meeting.....

Rabbi's Message

The annual meeting this past Sunday was longer than usual, but it was a worthwhile one. Irv Stern's Future Planning Committee report, with its illustrated slides put the whole picture of our inertia into sharp focus. We have done nothing but talk for almost two decades now - which is really long enough.

And so I was pleased that the motion to collect $5,000 for a thorough study of the possible renovation and expansion of this building was passed. If it seems feasible, then we can move ahead. If not, then at least we will have studied the situation in detail and know where we stand and why.

And as I mentioned in my messages we need a proper Building Fund established. An Endowment Fund is fine, but its uses have been too amorphous and not obvious to the congregation - even though it has been used for a number of necessary and worthwhile projects. But it needs to be used in an obvious fashion so that members will be encouraged to contribute to it because they see what is done by this fund. And a Building Fund will then have one purpose, which we shall all know, and for which we can collect monies in an organized and directed fashion.

There is lots to be accomplished. Let's set about doing it.

William J. Leffler

YOUTH KIDUSH

Our Youth Kiddush services were so very successful that we shall have one more, so that those who received their Kiddush cups will have a chance to use them, and those who need only one more time to receive a cup can do so. This service will be held on Friday, May 23rd.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

The Bible passage for May 14th is Malachi 4:22 and we shall discuss how we often forget to live up to the Ten Commandments. Mt. Horeb is another name for Mt. Sinai.

On May 14th, the 6th grade will conduct worship services for the Junior Assembly.

On May 11th, the Junior Assembly will see the film "More" which deals with the fills of our consumer oriented society.

May 18th is our closing session and we shall have moving up exercises in the morning. At 2:00 P.M. we shall have our Confirmation services.

May 11th is the last session for Senior Group.

Rabbi's Message

May 11 is the last day of Religious School for the Senior Group and May 18 for the Primary and Junior Assemblies. The academic year went so very fast for me. It seems like only yesterday that it began. But it has been an exciting one again, with our children doing some marvelous things and enjoying their time in Religious School.

As the year draws to a close, there are a number of aspects of our Religious School I should like to share with you. Barbara Gorodetsky, who has been our Principal since 1968, is retiring from this position, though she will continue to take an active interest in our school. Her tenure has been a most exciting one, with some sweeping and major changes that took place, changes that have brought about inquiries from other congregations wanting to know what it is that we are doing and the possibility of using some of our ideas. Imitation is the highest form of flattery and so we have felt most pleased when this happened.

And during these seven years we have also seen our Religious School committee change greatly. It had been a quiet, uninvolved committee with few members showing up for meetings. Today it is a dynamic aspect of our congregation. At its last meeting a dozen persons spending two hours hotly considering and discussing some new proposals for next year's school. Much has changed here too, and it is pleasing to note.

What will happen next year, we cannot be certain. But I certainly hope that the momentum, the excitement and the involvement we have developed will continue to grow. There will be room for new persons to assist, new persons to participate. If you would like to be a part of this fascinating facet of our congregation, please let me know.

A "THANK YOU STORY"

A year ago when PHYLLIS SCHER and I agreed to "co-chair" the 71st Annual Dinner, we never dreamed the day would come when we had to actually plan, prepare and serve a meal for 108 Temple members.

The planning wasn't too difficult - you simply multiply your regular recipes by fourteen, converting cups into ounces - keeping in mind that two cups make a pint, and two pints make a quart = (or is it the other way around?) Then you go out and buy too much apricot nectar, not enough onion soup mix, too much cream cheese, but not enough chili sauce.

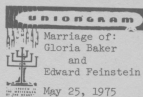

Now you are ready to prepare. For this, you gather up your friends and family such as LIBBY SCHER, SARA ANN LEVY, NANCY SCHER, and FLORENCE TRAVIS and spend an entire afternoon in the Temple kitchen looking for large spoons, trying to work the electric can opener, and sending out for all the things you forgot.

Meanwhile you are on the phone asking all the really good bakers you know to help provide the dessert buffet. There are many good bakers in town, but you call only the best: MORTY HALLICK, ROSE RITA WURMER, ALANA LEFFLER, MARGARET SILBAR, PENNY MILLER, JANIS DOCTROW, ALBERTA GERSON, ETHEL SCHWARTZ, ESTELLE GUTTMAN, AUDREY RUBIN and FLORENCE TRAVIS.

And finally the big day arrives. At noontime, you set the tables with the help of LIBBY, NANCY, AUDREY, ALANA, and LEONA STERN. JACK MILLER brings in the wine, and BOB SCHER goes after the ice. The table decorations come in unassembled, but within minutes KAYE FRANKEL has turned tin cans and planks of wood, a lot of greenery and a little bit of flowers into a dozen exquisite centerpieces. ANITA BAKER arrives early to take up her post at the door, and ROSE BRAZIN offers to serve the wine.

You experience one moment of panic - convinced the meat will turn cold while you are waiting for the noodle puddings to brown, but undaunted, LIBBY and BOB SCHER, MARGARET and STUART SILBAR, SARA ANN and KAYE take up their stations behind the buffet table while PHYLLIS, AUDREY, JANIS, NANCY and anyone else who looks available, rush back and forth, replenishing trays. Meanwhile RICHARD and his crew keep things running smoothly in the kitchen. And before you know it, the 71st Annual Dinner has been declared a success. We sincerely thank each and everyone of you. It simply could not have been done without your help.

Shavuot is the third of the agriculturally based festivals of the Jewish year. Following seven weeks after Pesach, this harvest festival serves again to remind the Jewish people of the closeness of our ancestors to the soil, and their dependence on nature for their livelihood. Shavuot, Pesach, and Sukot are characterized "pilgrimage festivals," for on these days Jews from all sections of Palestine brought thanksgiving offerings of their harvests to the Temple in Jerusalem.

Shavuot, once having represented only our natural world, later gained a spiritual dimension: the anniversary of the giving of the Torah on Mt. Sinai. It is largely the spiritual and cultural aspect of Shavuot that has imparted to the holiday its present significance.

Early 19th century Reform Jews, seeking to give women equal status in all religious obligations, created the ceremony of confirmation for both boys and girls on the holiday of Shavuot. Just as Moses received the Torah on Sinai according to traditional legend, and subsequently passed it to each succeeding generation of Jews, boys and girls completing their formal religious studies accepted the Torah on Shavuot.

While Confirmation was originally in many Reform synagogues, a replacement for bar mitzvah and, later bat mitzvah, it became an additional ceremony at the end of the 10th grade equivalent to graduation from the religious school.

The search for new religious forms has wrought radical changes in confirmation ceremonies through the country. In some synagogues, the young people write their own service; in others, the day has assumed greater importance as a time of commitment to study in the tradition of the Jewish people. In every congregation, confirmation has developed into a renewed search for Jewish identity among young people.

The religious ferment generated by the biblical prophets has entered the synagogue of today. Just as the radical reformers of the 19th century sought new meanings in Judaism for their time, Shavuot has become the focus of the search for new meaning for Jewish young people today.

STAMPS FOR WELLINGTON

The cartoon is still being filled. And when it is, we shall start another. Keep them coming in.

The following is quoted from Temple Topics of Temple Israel in New Rochelle, N. Y.

From The Rabbi

Jews are making a laughing-stock of themselves before the nation, and it is a very bad situation.

Since a great many of our very popular comedians are Jewish, and many of them are now using self-degradation for humor and specifically alleging that Jews are money-mad, lavish in living style, and can't do physical labor, etc., they are building and corroborating many already preexisting stereotypes in the American psyche.

It is one thing to be funny, but it is another thing to deprecate totally one's own group. The Nazis in Germany started their anti-Semitism with vulgar criticisms and derogations of Jews. Now we find our own people doing it for a laugh. With Cairo and Moscow spewing forth anti-Semitic canards that the entire Third World believes, this is no laughing matter.

The New York Times, in reporting the Academy Awards event, had a subheadline, "It was like a 'mega-Bar Mitzvah'." Is a Bar Mitzvah funny? Is everything that Jews do religiously humorous? Each of us can write to sponsors of TV programs where self-deprecating Jewish comedians appear and complain.

I intend to pursue this matter with the American Jewish Committee, the Anti-Defamation League, and the American Jewish Congress and see what else we can do about the problem.

As I read the newspaper day by day and their story after story of the events that brought the conflict in Vietnam and Cambodia to a conclusion, I feel so very sad. It was such a disheartening, debilitating war for us and for everyone else who was in it. It destroyed thousands of lives, both American and Asian; it left two countries devastated after years of bombing; it divided our nation and brought about such tragedies at the Kent State shootings (which were recently commemorated and now seem like such ancient history) and the other campus upheavals. It was indeed a sad time for our nation in so many ways.

And now we are receiving many of the refugees from this war, human beings - men, women and children - Oh, the children - who have sought the hospitality of our shores, the hospitality of a nation that spent millions of dollars in vain effort to save their country from what we thought was the wrong form of political government. How correct we were after all this carnage, still remains to be seen, but the refugees are now here and we shall have to find ways of making them welcome and a part of our nation. We brought their status about; we brought them here; we shall have to make them feel welcome.

And this sad war also raised new questions for us. What is patriotism - to support all American foreign policy or to object to some of it? - yet still to remain in good standing as an American. Is it more patriotic to help build or rebuild American lives, or to shoulder a gun for our military establishment? How do we distinguish between doing what our conscience says and what the law requires? How forgiving can we be of Americans who refuse to participate in an unpopular American policy, can we open our hearts to those who refused to fight and deserted - but who now seem to have been more correct in their assessment of the war than those who were not opposed to it?

As a nation, we are facing many challenges today. Let us hope that we have the strength and the fortitude to confront these challenges, as trying as they may be, for they are the real test of what we are in this generation.

Guns Do Kill People

There is an old family story that I used to hear when I was a youngster concerning my grandfather, who was an honorary member of the police department in New Rochelle, New York, and therefore he had a police pistol in his home. One night he thought he heard burglars in the house next door and in his official capacity decided that he would investigate and possibly capture whomever it might be. And so he started to hunt for his gun. After a few minutes of fruitless searching, he turned to my grandmother and asked her where it was. She very calmly told him that she had put it in the attic in moth balls, since she did not want anyone hurt by its just lying around the house. And so my grandfather's efforts to uphold the law that night did not materialize.

We used to laugh about this episode and yet it shows my grandmother's great wisdom. She had put the pistol away because she was afraid of it. It was not the sort of thing that she wanted in her home, where someone could inadvertently get hold of it and fire it. Guns can and do kill people, and she did not want to take any chances.

This incident happened 60 years ago, and yet it is as current as today, when we are witnessing a prolonged and heated debate on the subject of gun control - whether a person who wishes may have a gun in his home for whatever reason he thinks he needs one, or whether there should be limits on who can possess these kinds of weapons.

The momentum of this controversy is increasing steadily. Only a few weeks ago, Attorney General Edward H. Levi, in addressing the Law Enforcement Executives Narcotics Conference declared:

The pistol makes an individual in a city too powerful for his environment. It is a menace because it can be so readily hidden. It is a mechanism that translates passion or passing evil intent into destruction.

He then went on to discuss the ineffectiveness of current regulations and what might be possible approaches to gun control in 62 major metropolitan areas of our country.

The subject is emotionally charged with lines being drawn more and more distinctly on both sides. Those who favor no restrictive legislation contend that guns are not the problem, rather that people kill people. They further hold they need to have weapons in their homes for self protection, and that to license or control the possession of guns in any way is an infringement on their civil liberties.

Those who favor control do not agree and state their case in contrary terms. So let us look at the situation and see what we find.

First, people kill people. This statement is correct, except that it overlooks a major factor. Most of the killings are not done with bare hands. They involve weapons. People kill people with weapons, and the fatality rate for guns is five times what it is for knives, statistically the next deadliest weapon.

Second, a gun is a source of self protection. The questions that arise here are, from whom and how effectively. If it is from a burglar, chances are that the gun may not be within easy reach when we need it, or that the burglar is also carrying one and will not hesitate to use it on us if he is provoked. And if we should happen to shoot the burglar, we are in the wrong, as the courts have decided a number of times in cases of this nature.

On the other hand, if we think that we could use the gun against a foreign enemy, that is really self-delusion. Chances are that any invader will drop an atomic bomb on us first, so that we won't be around to do anything when and if he arrives.

And third, the contention that our civil liberties would be abridged by gun control laws. Here too the argument is specious, because the right to bear arms in the United States Constitution applies only to the right of states to have militia, and not to citizens arming themselves on their own. The anti-gun control arguments simply do not withstand scrutiny.

But let us go beyond these rationales for favoring or not favoring gun control legislation and consider the subject from a number of other vantage points.

From a Jewish viewpoint! Does our religion have anything to contribute to the discussion? Yes, most assuredly. Perhaps the most important awareness we can obtain is that the shedding of blood - Sh'fichut Damim, in Hebrew - is among the most reprehensible and greatest of all offenses in Jewish Law. The Bible places special emphasis on blood as the very life of each living thing and declares that one should not stand idly by the blood of his neighbor. In further exposition of this stricture, the rabbis extended the concern for shedding blood to include any kind of injury that might be caused, not just intentionally, but by accident or inadvertently, as the result, for instance, of having someone fall off a roof because we had failed to erect a parapet around it. The concern for life in Judaism - the other person's, as well as one's own - is of great importance and as Jews we are frequently admonished to be cognizant of this fact.

Yet when we look at the statistics in this country, the warning of the Bible and of our tradition comes into even sharper focus by contrast. For instance, 800,000 Americans (four times the number of people in Lexington) have been gunned down in this country in the Twentieth Century. Someone is wounded or killed by gunshot in this country every 90 seconds. Forth per cent of all firearms fatalities involve children between the ages of 1 and 19. Ninety four per cent of the policemen killed in the United States in 1973 were killed by firearms, and of this percentage, 61 per cent involved hand guns. Only 20% of all homicides in this country involve strangers. The rest are within the family - parents, spouses, children, supposed friends. These statistics are frightening, not just in numbers, but also who gets killed by guns, indicating that the majority of the deaths are not in the line of self-defense, at home, but are either accidents or occur in the heat of rage and anger, when emotions run high and when a deadly weapon ought not be available.

But let's consider the subject from another angle. Why should respectable citizens not be permitted to own guns and keep them in their homes; they can be used to protect one's freedoms and one's rights. Such high-sounding words - but against whom are we doing the protecting? The government? Perhaps we are justified in our suspicions after all of the recent revelations about wire tappings and secret surveillance. But what good is a gun in this kind of situation? Can a gun prevent the government snooping into our privacy? Can we stand off the FBI at the door by shouting - "Stay out or I'll shoot!" Or is not the American way to use the courts as the means for protecting ourselves and our property, of forcing the government to abide by its own laws? Only citizen concern, vigilance, and participation in the functioning of government is adequate safeguard. The use of a gun gets us no where and reduces the person who uses it to the level of the common criminal.

Another aspect of the question of self protection is that traditionally this has been the approach of the extremist groups - on the Left of the Weathermen and the Symbionese Liberation Army, and on the Right of the John Birchers and the Ku Klux Klan - all of whom have been willing to use weapons and force to deny the rights of others in order to assert their own cause. The argument for protection of one's rights quickly disappears under the scrutiny of this kind of examination.

There is still another facet to the subject which also ought to be considered and that is that violence is as American as apple pie. All one has to do is read the daily papers to learn of the latest acts of violence - the shootings, the robberies, the rapes, the murders. Or look at TV for an evening and see the mayhem on it - Ironsides, Policewoman, the Rookies, Harry O, Hawaiian Five-O, etc. - ad nauseum. The viewer can have his murder in any way he might wish, and even some that he might not find so appealing. Or consider the recent movies. The Godfather II won an Oscar! Just the story of a fun loving Italian family! And then consider - is this the kind of cultural setting in which a gun should be readily available to anyone who wishes to have one? I think not!

The debate rages. It is heated and enflamed by the passions of those who are involved. But unfortunately there is a lot of smoke hiding the facts, too much emotion obscuring the evidence. But the facts are obvious, once we get beyond the smoke screen of the emotion. Our nation needs to control the use of guns. Other than for the sportsman, there is no legitimate reason for continuing to permit these weapons to be freely obtainable by everyone in this country. I call upon our congregation to work for legislation to limit the private ownership of hand guns and ammunition, and to increase our awareness of the destructive force these weapons have upon human life.

YULI TARTAKOVSKY

Rabbi Leffler received a post card this week from Yuli Tartakovsky who is now in Tel Aviv and reunited with his sister who was able to get out of Russia over a year ago. It is heartening to learn that Jews in Russia for whom we have shown concern are getting out and settling in freedom in Israel.

Perhaps the next congregant who visits Israel will take the opportunity to meet Yuli.

Sidney Gall that Rabbi Leffler received in response to his sermon last spring on the subject of gun control. It is enclosed for your information and because the congregation believes that open discussion and the exchange of opinions of subjects of a controversial nature is both healthy and worthwhile.

Dear Bill,

I read your Friday evening sermon in the bulletin with great interest. I have, as you know, defended your every utterance as an inalienable right of every citizen. In our great country, founded on separation of church and state, I believe a rabbi should not speak subjectively on any subject other than that of a religious nature.

Bill, as you know, I am a federally licensed firearms dealer and abide by all the rules and regulations promulgated by the Treasury Department. For your own edification, all firearms have been registered since the 1937 Firearms Act. In 1968, a new set of regulations was passed by our congress strengthening the 1937 act. We continue to register every firearm sold and the act does limit those who may legally own or purchase a firearm.

In 1966, research conducted by Alan S. Krug, formerly an economist on the staff of Pennsylvania State University, showed there were 3,243,370 serious crimes committed in the United States. Firearms of all types, including zip guns, toy guns and alleged guns were involved in 109,734 or 3.4 per cent of these serious crimes.

The grand total of all crimes, excluding traffic offenses, in 1966, were in excess of 31 million. Serious crimes involving firearms constituted about 35/100 of one per cent (0.0035) of the total.

What this means in practical terms is that if firearms were to be completely eliminated from society, and no criminal substituted any other type of weapon for a firearm, the United States would still have 96.6 per cent of its serious crime, and 99.6 per cent of its total crime.

A much more positive approach to the rising crime rate would be "ban-the-criminal" rather than "ban-the-gun" campaign. The vast majority of serious crimes are committed by repeat offenders. Only one of every thirty convicted criminals ever spends time in prison, and then usually less than five years before parole. Yet more than 60 per cent of these are re-arrested within six months. (I would like to give credit to Mr. Charles Layson of Lexington for the research from which these statistics were gleaned.)

It is the consensus of many laymen (including police officers) that a mandatory prison sentence for the felonious use of a firearm would bring its use in crime to a screeching halt - much as the Lindberg Act halted 90 per cent of the kidnappings.

One last note, if all weapons were banned, would not organized crime move in and take over the firearms business as they did the liquor business during the life of the Volstead Act? Do they, the syndicate, not bring in heroin and other banned drugs in ever increasing quantities?

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Classes begin on September 14th. Please be certain that your registration forms have been sent to Roz Rozen.

TEACHERS - Please note times of teachers meetings, and save Saturday, October 18th for the Teachers Institute.

ROZ ROZEN - OUR NEW PRINCIPAL

Mrs. Roz Rosen has assumed the position of Principal of our Religious School. We are most pleased with her taking this responsibility and look forward to a fine year.

Roz has taught the 5th grade in our school for many years and is, among other things, the originator of our highly successful, yearly, auction for the benefit of the Leo Baeck School in Haifa. She received her MA in Education a year ago from Eastern Kentucky University and is highly qualified for her new post. She was also elected to the Temple Board this spring.

We extend our best wishes to Roz on this new responsibility with us.

TWO SERVICES PLANNED FOR SUKKOT EVE

On September 19th, the eve of Sukkot, we shall have two worship services in honor of the Holiday. At 7:00 P.M., the Youth Group will have its annual Sukkot service at the Temple Farm on Mt. Tabor Road. This will be followed by a cook out and a Shul-In.

The other service will be at 8:00 P.M. in the Sanctuary. Congregants are urged to attend either of these Holiday worship services.

HEBREW SCHOOL

Hebrew School starts Thursday, September 18 at 3:30 P.M. Please register your child by calling the Temple office. The fee is $10.00 for the year.

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

We would like to thank all those who came to the Selihot service which was a great success.

On September 19, Youth Group will have Sukkot services on the farm at 7:00 P.M. This will also mark the beginning of our Shul-In with Louisville.

We are having our Sub-regional Conclave here in Lexington the weekend of October 31-November 2. Parents, we may be calling on you soon for help to be a discussion leader or to see whether you will house some out-of-town youth groupers.

Let's have everyone turn up for our next meeting, the Shul-In and Sukkot Service on the 19th.

That's all,

Sermon - Do I Look? Or Am I Afraid of What I Might Find?

Synopsis -On the Sabbath of Repentance we are further urged to change our ways. But often taking a good hard look at ourselves can be very disquieting.

From the Rabbi's Desk

As I prepare for the forthcoming holidays and consider the world as I read about it in the newspapers, I am both heartened and concerned.

Certainly the long hoped for and prayed for peace between Israel and her neighbors may be starting to materialize. The reports are certainly encouraging. It seems almost too good to be real, especially when I recall the events of Yom Kippur two years ago. What will come to pass and how much can be actually accomplished still awaits the passage of time. But as Jews, we certainly enter the New Year with far greater hope for the peace of Israel than we have had in a long while.

And yet, I am also concerned as I write this message. The busing of school children in Louisville is about to begin. Again, only time will let us know the outcome, whether Judge Gordon's decision was a wise one or not. But I am concerned when I see Church groups helping to fight the decision, as I see in ads in the Courier. I am concerned when both gubernatorial candidates decry the Judge's decision and attempt to make it a political issue, when it is a legal one. I am concerned for the welfare of the children who will be bused and what will happen to them. The problems seem great and the emotional level hardly in keeping with what is needed to confront the situation rationally and calmly.

And there are other areas of concern - the leadership vacuum which we seem to have in our country, the political turmoil in India and Portugal, the economy. Ours is a challenging world! I pray that in the New Year mankind will have the real strength and character to confront these challenges and live with them rather than to succumb to them - which is certainly a possibility too.

We live in trying times. I pray that God will give us the wherewithal to withstand the tests of the New Year and to meet the events of the world with faith and courage that life is yet holy, even though this holiness may at times be hidden from us.

William J. Leffler

SOME INTERESTING FACTS

Do you know that there is now a second woman rabbi in Reform Judaism?

Marsha S. Bernstein was ordained in June at commencement exercises of the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion, held at Temple Emanuel in New York City. In addition, Mrs. Barbara Herman was invested as the first female cantor to be certified after completing a full course of studies at HUC-JIR School of Sacred Music. Although other women have served as cantors, Mrs. Herman is the first to be officially certified.

The Bible passage is Num. 29:1-6. This is one of the references in the Torah to Rosh Hashanah. What does it tell us to do? Have we changed? How?

At 11:00 the Primary Assembly will view a new filmstrip entitled The High Holy Days. This filmstrip follows two children and their parents preparing for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur and participating in the home and synagogue celebration of these holy days. Throughout the film, the pictures and narration stress concepts and values which have meaning for young children - particularly teshuvah (repentance), tephilah (prayer) and tzedakah (charity). Parents are invited.

The Junior Assembly will have a music program prepared by our musical directors, Cookie Gerson and Shirley Stern, starting at 10:30.

Rabbi's Message

The occasion of Sukkot reminds us that in ancient times, our forebears were primarily farmers and that this was their holiday of thanksgiving at the conclusion of the harvest year. Today a Jewish farmer is almost an anomaly. There are so very few. Most of us are urban dwellers and consumers - not rural persons and food producers - and so the way of life that Sukkot represents and the agricultural terms in which it speaks are quite foreign to our daily lives.

And yet the end product with which the holiday deals is still a necessity for us. Food! We need it to survive and the vagaries of the agricultural year - a drought in Iowa, a flood in the Delta region or hail in some other area - can well affect our dietary habits. So can the disposition of the crop, as we know from the discussion of the proposed sale of wheat to Russia. And of course the slice of the profit that each of the processors and middlemen take also determines how much our dollar will purchase. And so while we are both historically, physically and culturally very much removed from the sources of the holiday, what it has to tell us about an appreciation of the bounties of an agricultural year still has a great deal of influence upon our living standards and eating habits. The intertwining of cultural phenomenon lies just below the surface and our observance of Sukkot brings it into view once more, so that we urbanized, modern people not forget that we are still greatly dependent upon the bounties of nature for the sustaining of life - despite all of our modern cultural advances and conveniences. We could survive without air conditioning, TV, and automobiles, but not without food. Let us thank God once more for the abundance that we receive. Too often we merely take it for granted.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL IS IN SESSION

The first day of Religious School, September 14, was very exciting. Below we see our new Principal, Roz Rozen about to get to work in her new job and new students, Brooke Wirtschafter and David Blumenthal, enjoying a brief recess in the Temple garden.

Bible Passage for September 21 - Numbers 29:7-11

This is a reference to Yom Kippur. It discusses changes in observance since time of Bible. To "afflict your souls" was interpreted to mean fasting. How does fasting afflict our souls and what may we come to understand about ourselves when we fast?

Rabbi Leffler will conduct Sukkot services for the Junior Assembly at 10:30 and for the Primary Assembly at 11:00.

REMEMBER - TEACHERS MEETING - Sunday, September 21 from 8:45 - 9:15.

MOSHE DAYAN TO SPEAK AT UK COLISEUM ON SEPTEMBER 29

General Moshe Dayan will speak at 8:30 P.M. on Monday, September 29, at the UK Coliseum under the auspices of the UK Student Center Board. Tickets for this evening, which is open to the public, will be $2.00 general admission and 75¢ for persons holding UK ID cards.

Tickets may be ordered by mail from Room 203, UK Student Center, after September 15. For further information, you may call Sharon Horstmeier at 258-8867.

WELCOME - NEW MEMBERS

We are happy to welcome into our Temple family the following new members:

...Mr. & Mrs. Lewis Freiberg, Jr. who reside at 223 Leewood Drive in Frankfort, Ky. Mr. Freiberg is an associate professor at Kentucky State University. Their phone number is (502) 233-1749.

...Miss Nancy Scher, 3354 Post Road #26. Miss Scher is the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Stanley B. Scher and is a clerk in Criminal Court. Her phone number is 259-0531.

SISTERHOOD'S OPENING MEETING

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24th 12:30 P.M.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL VESTRY PRICE: $2.75

Sisterhood presents:
"EVERYTHING YOU ALWAYS WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT EXOTIC MID EASTERN FOODS, BUT WERE AFRAID TO ASK"...

For our opening luncheon we have a marvelous treat for us. The luncheon is being prepared under the direction of Mrs. Nematollah Shakib. The menu, which will feature stuffed grapevine leaves, comes from recipes Yafa Shakib brought with her when she came to Kentucky from Iran four years ago. Her capable assistants in the kitchen will be her daughter-in-law, Sallie, and Sallie's good friend, Barbara Gorodetzky. Not only are the recipes authentic, but so are the spices, as Mrs. Shakib uses only spices that she acquires on her trips back to the Mid East. And as an added treat, the recipes for everything served at the luncheon, along with information on where to purchase the necessary ingredients, will be made available to each and every Sisterhood member who attends the meeting.

AND, AS IF THAT WASN'T ENOUGH, SISTERHOOD'S OPENING MEETING WILL FEATURE A MUSICAL SKIT ENTITLED: "FLY TO THE MOON"

Narrator: ROZ ROZEN Moon Lady: MILLIE COHEN

ANITA BAKER
MARIE MAYER
JOANN MILLER
MARILYN LIEBER
KAREN EDELSTEIN

THIS HAS GOT TO BE THE MEETING OF THE YEAR..AND POSITIVELY NOT TO BE MISSED.

SISTERHOOD STUDY GROUP

Once more the Sisterhood Study Group will meet with Rabbi Leffler. The initial session will be on Wednesday, September 24, at 10:30, prior to the opening Sisterhood meeting. All members of Sisterhood are invited to attend. Future dates will be set to the convenience of those attending.

CONGRATULATIONS

...to Mr. Norman Wides on being appointed to the Board of Overseers of the HUC-JIR, Cincinnati Campus.

...to Mr. & Mrs. Robert McFeely on their recent marriage. Mrs. McFeely is the former Gail Meyers.

STAMPS

Sisterhood is still sending stamps to Wellington, New Zealand. Commemoratives, higher denominations and foreign stamps are needed. They cannot be torn, cut, or mutilated to be of value. Send them in or bring them to the Temple office. We'll ship them off.

YOUTH KIDDUSH

Once again we shall have our Youth Kiddush services. This year we have scheduled six of them, with the first on October 3rd. Silver Kiddush cups will be presented to each student in our Religious School, below Bar Mitzvah age, who attends all six with his parents.

From the Rabbi's Desk

The day after Yom Kippur I took our older daughter, Carrie, up to Oxford, Ohio, to start college. Other parents were there also, delivering their children to school, sending them off from home for the first time.

As I looked about at all of these students, eager to start the next phase of their lives, I recalled the day (it seems like only yesterday) that my parents took me up to college for the first time. The cycles of life continue on and we are caught up in them in so many ways.

Next week we celebrate Simchat Torah - another reminder of these cycles. We finish reading Deuteronomy and start Genesis once more and then circle the sanctuary carrying the Torah scrolls. There is no end to learning, just as there is no end to life.

And still a further reminder of the continuity of the generations will be the consecration of new students in our Religious School. With joy, with Simcha, we welcome these young children as they start their Jewish education. We rejoice in being able to hand on to them the Jewish traditions which we have received from the past and we pray that they will treasure it as a goodly inheritance and a guide for their lives, as they grow and mature - so that they in time will be able to hand it on to their children.

Simchat Torah is a happy holiday. One of the reasons is that it has so many aspects to it in which we can rejoice.

News from the Rabbi

Enclosed in this issue of our Temple Bulletin is a copy of a mailing sent out recently by the Union of American Hebrew Congregations with which we are affiliated. It relates to the Sinai Accords which now are before the Congress for ratification. I do hope you will read it and communicate to our Senators and Congressmen that it needs their support.

The need for a more peaceable approach to the Mid East situation is no better illustrated than by the furor that has recently been aroused on the UK campus by the scheduling of Moshe Dayan to speak in the Coliseum on September 29. The Arab students, who have been relatively quiet and uninvolved on the campus for many years, suddenly have become very vocal and obvious.

While we can understand the frustrations of these students and their feelings of consternation at the Student Center Board inviting Dayan, we also know that no one person can possibly speak for the Arab cause. They are too divided among themselves, one of the reasons that the Sinai Accord is so important. It is a step toward peace, of beginning the reconciliation which is so very much needed in the Mid East.

The Israelis are our co-religionists. They need our support in this new effort to end the hostilities in their part of the world. Please write your Senators and Congressmen.

Bible Passage - September 28
Num. 29:12-39 This is a reference to Sukkot. How is it different from what we do? Students should gain an awareness that while one's roots are Biblical, many changes in observance have occurred. Do we like the changes.

The Junior Assembly will meet at 10:30 and view a filmstrip entitled "300 Years: Memorable Events in American Jewish History" which illustrates the highlights of the 300 years settlements in colonial days. The participation of Jews in the westward movement and in various explorations which extended American frontiers is depicted with stress on the development of the American Jewish community and all its religious institutions.

This filmstrip is first in a series of Bicentennial events scheduled for the Religious School. In the future, photograph exhibits will be shown as well as filmstrips and films and a Bicentennial play.

The Primary Assembly will view a film "Brothers and Sisters", which is a film on developing values.

COMMISSION ON

To: UAHC Board of Trustees; Congregational Presidents; Rabbis; Social Action Chairmen; Commission on Social Action; NFTS Leadership

Subject: EGYPTIAN-ISRAELI ACCORD

Within the past few days, representatives of the UAHC, NFTS and CCAR participated in a comprehensive briefing by Simcha Dinitz, Israel's ambassador to the United States, and Rabbi Alexander Schindler, UAHC President, met with President Ford as part of a delegation of the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations.

We are persuaded that the Israeli-Egyptian accord, despite obvious risks, represents a significant forward step for Israel and Egypt and could conceivably mark a genuine breakthrough on the road to a stable and just peace in the Middle East. We believe that the following potential gains must be weighed in judging the accord:

- 1) This is the first agreement ever made by an Arab state with Israel NOT compelled by the immediate aftermath of a war. Despite the Egyptian claim to the contrary, the terms of this accord go beyond pure military disengagement to some of the elements of a political settlement.
- 2) This accord severely reduces Soviet influence in the Middle East and greatly strengthens the United States role as peacemaker.
- 3) This accord has already unravelled the facade of Arab unity which has menaced Israel since 1973.
- 4) The accord demonstrates that Arab moderation achieves results while Arab extremism, terrorism and political exercises in the United Nations have not regained an inch of Arab soil.
- 5) The accord gives the parties a reasonable time to test the good faith of the other. Unlike an over-all Geneva settlement, which is impossible under present circumstances in any event, this is a limited accord which creates opportunities for Israel and Egypt to test each other's pledges without weakening Israel in the event of a breach.

The creation of a joint Israeli-Egyptian commission to supervise the execution of the agreement - as well as the sharing by Israel and Egypt of a major roadway on the southwestern reaches of the Sinai Peninsula - initiates that ongoing face to face contact between erstwhile enemies which is a precondition to peace.

- 6) The accord marks the restoration of close and mutual coordination between the United States and Israel. The dark days of "reassessment" are over and the United States will not only increase its military and economic aid, but also concert its strategy with Israel. At the same time, increased American involvement will place added pressure on Egypt to uphold the accord.

TEMPLE BOARD MEMBERS

Do not forget the Special Meeting on Sunday, October 5, at 7:30 P.M. at Uvray Zion Synagogue to discuss the possibility of the Lexington Jewish Community affiliating with the Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds. Your knowledge of the possible role and function of this national organization in our community is vital for you to discuss the subject at the Temple Board meeting on October 7th.

BABY SITTERS

Once again the Worship Committee will offer free Baby Sitting services for Friday evening Sabbath worship. This service is intended for those families who think that their children will be unable to sit through worship. Children who can sit and participate, are certainly most welcome to worship with the congregation.

We shall start this sitting service on Friday, October 10, and will usually have it available every Friday evening.

October 26 - Court Jester with Danny Kaye

November 2 - The Captain's Paradise with Alex Guinness

Supper of soup and sandwiches will be served at 5:30 P.M. and the films will start at 6:30. Please call the Temple for reservations for supper. We need to know how many persons to expect and to prepare for.

If you do not wish to come for supper, you are welcome to come at 6:30 just for the film.

Cost of the supper will be $1.00 per adult and 50¢ for children under 12.

From century to century, even unto this day, through the fairest regions of civilization, the Bible dominates existence. Its vision of life, morals, state and societies. Its Psalms are more popular in every country than the poems of the nation's own poets. Beside this one book with its infinite editions... all other literatures seem "faded light as day".

Rabbi's Message

This past month there were two attempts made on the life of President Ford, both of which fortunately were not successful. Many articles and editorials have been written in reaction to these incidents. The cries for gun control legislation are again being heard in our country. And rightly so. What we see here is only one illustration of the ills which can come to us when anyone who so wishes is able to obtain and have in his possession a weapon.

What the nature of the legislation should be to control the possession of firearms is still not clear to me. Surely we ought to find one that is workable. But what strikes me is the hue and cry against the registration of licensing of these deadly weapons. We do not seem to complain about drivers needing to license their cars or taking tests to see whether they know the rules of the road or how to handle their vehicle. Food handlers need health checks. Liquor stores need permits. Vendors need licenses and so do fishermen. There are many occupations and hobbies which are controlled by means of permits and tests. We see nothing wrong with so doing. They do not raise a furor as does the effort to control the use of guns.

Yet guns are deadly weapons. They ought not be used by a person not trained in their use - like an auto driver. They can kill - just as food can kill if not preserved properly. Their use as a form of sports activity can be just as legitimate as fishing.

Surely with our ingenuity we should be able to do better than we are currently in controlling the irresponsible possession and use of these deadly weapons. Too many lives depend on our ability to find a better way.

HONOREE SABBATH

Our Honoree Sabbath this year, when we recognize the achievements and contributions of a long time member of the congregation will be held on Friday, October 24th. Mark your calendar and be sure to be in Temple to add your wishes to those of the congregation on this happy occasion.

OUR SISTERHOOD WOMEN

Women...Women...Women...They're everywhere these days. They travel...they go into politics...you find them seated around the conference table, scrubbing for surgery, presiding over courts, and sometimes you even find them behind bars. Sisterhood will devote its programming for this year to the new emerging role of women. A great deal of time and thought has gone into preparing the following programs for our forthcoming Sisterhood meetings:

October 15, 1975 - WOMEN IN PRISON
Speaker: Mary H. Ritchie, Associate Supt. For Treatment at the Kentucky Institution For Women

November 19, 1975 - WOMEN IN LITERATURE
Speaker: Joy Hembree

January 21, 1976 - WOMEN IN COUNSELING
Speaker: Dr. Harriett Rose

February 16, 1976 - JEWISH WOMEN IN ENGLAND
Speaker: Charlotte Baer

March 17, 1976 - WOMEN IN POLITICS
Speaker: Thelma Stovall

April 28, 1976 - WOMEN'S DAY AT HEBREW UNION COLLEGE

Installation of Officers by ANITA BAKER

Mark your calendars and plan to attend on October 15.

THE MEANING OF THE SABBATH

An artist cannot be continually wielding his brush. He must stop at times in his painting to refresh his vision of the object, the meaning of which he wishes to express on his canvas. Living is also an art... The Sabbath represents those moments when we pause in our brushwork to renew our vision of the object.

From the Rabbi's Desk

Every year about this time I receive an annual "Schnorring" letter from Dr. Jacob H. Marcus at the American Jewish Archives in Cincinnati, asking for support of the Archives. And when there are funds in the Rabbi's Fund I respond by sending a check.

This year is a significant one for the Archives. The Hebrew Union College is celebrating its Centennial; our nation, its Bicentennial, and the Archives is a valuable depository of information concerning the role and place of Jewish American history.

The awareness of this facet of American life is important for us to know. For many of us, our families are rather recent immigrants to these shores, only within the past generation or two. But for others, America has been our home for five and even ten generations, or more. Twenty years ago we celebrated Three Hundred years of Jewish settlement on these shores. Much has happened during these years, however, we tend to think in terms of our own personal families and their experiences, rather than in the broader terms of which the Archives affords us. For this reason the maintenance of the records of Jewish participation in America is a valuable facet of the function of this facility.

As a part of our awareness of the role that we Jews have played in America, our first Adult Education speaker will be Mr. Leonard Gutroff, who will talk on this topic. (See elsewhere in this issue of the Bulletin). Also, the JOA Forum will have as one of its programs, Dr. Stanley Chyet, Director of the Archives, (see elsewhere also) together with a fine exhibit on American Jewish history, which will be on view in our vestry. This will take place in February.

American Jewish history is a fascinating subject. The Archives are well worth our support each year.

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS

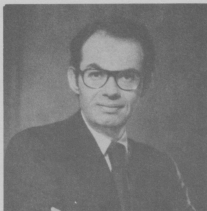

We are happy to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Colten into our Temple family. Mr. Colten is an architect with Gray, Coblin and Porter in Frankfort, Kentucky. They reside at 1705 Versailles Road and the phone number is 252-0166.

BABY SITTERS

Once again the Worship Committee will offer free Baby Sitting services for Friday evening Gabbath worship. This service is intended for those families who think that their children will be unable to sit through worship. Children who can sit and participate, are certainly most welcome to worship with the congregation.

We shall start this sitting service on Friday, October 10, and will usually have it available every Friday evening.

RABBI LEWIS BOGAGE TO BE OUR GUEST OCTOBER 17th & 18th

We are honored to have Rabbi Lewis B. Bogue, the Director of the Pennsylvania Council, UASB and Executive Director of the Federation of Reform Synagogues of Greater Philadelphia. Rabbi Bogue will preach from our pulpit on Friday evening and will conduct a Teachers Institute for our Religious School faculty and Committee members on Saturday, from noon until 4:00 P.M.

Rabbi Bogue is a native of Worcester, Massachusetts and a graduate of Clark University there. He was ordained at the Hebrew Union College in 1963 and served as Associate Rabbi of Central Synagogue in New York City, and Rabbi of Temple Micah in Denver before assuming his current position in 1971.

Rabbi Bogue is well qualified to speak to us on Friday evening on the topic of "The Jewish Family". He has served on the Board of Planned Parenthood and is a founder of the National Clergy Consultation Services on Abortion.

In addition, as Rabbi of Temple Micah, he was most instrumental in organizing an experimental Religious School, called the Micah Plan, which has been the prototype for many other religious school innovations in Jewish religious education.

Rabbi and Mrs. Bogue's relationship with Rabbi and Mrs. Leffler is warm and of long standing. The Bogaes' sabbat the Lefflers' apartment in 1959-60 as newlyweds, when the Lefflers' were in Israel.

We are delighted to have Rabbi Bogue with us.

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

It's almost arrived, and I'm not speaking of Heddy's baby but of the conclave! When Friday, October 17th pops up, approximately 90 out-of-town youth groups will invade Lexington. There is much to be done and only 1 short week left. If you have not been contacted to help with the conclave, call 269-1600 and tell Ricki "I care and I'll help".

On Friday, October 10, TYGers sang at the coliseum for the International Day celebration.

Don't forget to get your dues in and to send in your conclave applications.

To all, a simchonic week,
Love....

NOTICE

The enclosed letter in this week's Bulletin is printed at the request of Dr. Misha Payer, whose letter of transmittal read in part:

"You will note that I am taking issue with Mr. Gall not only on gun control, but also on his views on Judaism and on the role of the Rabbi as spiritual leader of his congregation. I feel it is extremely important to present to our members the other side on all these issues."

Sincerely,
Misha H. Payer

ATTEND SERVICES REGULARLY

SISTERHOOD

Plan now to be present at the next Sisterhood Luncheon meeting on Wednesday, October 15, at 12:30 P.M. at the Temple.
Program: WOMEN IN PRISON
Speaker: MRS. MARY H. RITCHIE

Mrs. Ritchie is Associate Superintendent for Treatment at Kentucky Institution for Women. She is a graduate of Kent School of Social Work, University of Louisville and was formerly employed by Jefferson County Juvenile Court for six years. For four years she was team coordinator at Park DuValle Neighborhood Health Center.

Make reservations with -

ATTENTION-SISTERHOOD COOKS

Due to circumstances beyond our control (Mrs. Shalib only knew the Persian names for the spices) some of the spices were omitted from the recipes handed out last Wednesday.

We've tracked down the English names and all spices are available at your favorite store or at Kentucky Coffee.

Add to the rice recipe - 1 T. coriander seed and 1/2 T. tumeric. Put these on the bottom of the pot with the oil. The amounts are approximate. You'll have to experiment.

When making the lima bean and onion mixture, sprinkle a little (1 tsp.) curry powder and tumeric and crushed cumin again - these amounts are approximate. TRY AND ENJOY!

Rabbi's Message

The grape vine has it that the new prayerbooks should be arriving shortly. They will be different both in format and words from the one which we have used since the mid 1940's. Some things in it we will like, other things we will find not to our liking. This is normal. No volume, put together by a committee, can ever please everyone.

Some of the more obvious changes will be in the amount of Hebrew used. There will be much more of it, permitting us to utilize more of our sacred language of prayer as well as to vary where and how we may use it in our worship. A number of theological ideas will be altered - most obviously the prayers for Zion - which were removed previously because of Reform's uncertainty of the political conclusions which might be drawn by those reading them. Today we are much more secure as Americans and prayers for Jerusalem do not upset us as they once did.

There will be more traditional. There will be a Half Kaddish between the Shema and The Amidah, reminding us that the Kaddish per se is not a mourners prayer, but a hymn of praise to God, that only one of these prayers was designated for the mourner, and that even that has no reference to death in it.

It will take a while to get used to the new prayerbook. As yet, the Worship Committee has not decided when and how we shall start to use it in our worship service. There are a number of possibilities. If you have any suggestions, contact Bob Belin, Saul Rubin, or Rose Brabin, the Co-Chairmen. It will take getting used to and we should like to do this in the best way possible.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Be looking for the latest edition of the Religious School Newspaper. Nancy Scher's 7th grade is busy gathering newsworthy items.

Mrs. Fannie Miller's senior class on Holocaust Literature is planning a moving, original worship service on the 26th. This will begin at 10:30 and the Temple community is invited to attend.

Bible Passage - October 19th Eccl. 3:11 - Discuss that there are lots of things that happen that we cannot understand. Consider the limits of human understanding - cite examples - weather, science, medicine, death, etc.

The Junior Assembly will have worship services in the sanctuary with Rabbi Leffler at 10:30.

The Primary Assembly will follow at 11:00 in the sanctuary with Rabbi Leffler.

Don't miss the first in a series of Jewish Bicentennial exhibits on display in the vestry.

Our first Scholar-in-Residence this year will be Rabbi Michael Cook of the Hebrew Union College. Rabbi Cook will be with us on Friday, November 14th.

The total world Jewish population now is more than 14 million. About 5 3/4 million Jews live in the United States. About half this number live within 50 miles of New York City. Los Angeles has the second largest number with 463 thousand.

The Adult Education Committee

The first two of four HUC students who will be with us this year for our Adult Education series will be Leonard Zukrow and Rabbi Alec Friedmann.

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

We are presently in the middle of our first 1975 KITOWN Subregional Conclave. There are approximately 100 kids here from all over the sub-region learning, working and playing!

Our next meeting will be Sunday, October 26th, at 1:30 P.M. We will be collecting for St. Jude's Hospital and then, will meet back at the Temple for dinner. Last year we won the city award for collecting the most money. Have a good weekend and a very L'chaic week.

Love.....

P.S. Good luck to Shirley, Glenn, and Ricki on a very successful conclave!

New Members

We are happy to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Presley Arnovitz and their two daughters, Cheryl and Tamara, into our Temple family. Mr. Arnovitz is technical director at Parker Seal Co. They reside at Rt. 2, Berea, Ky. and the phone number is 986-9766.

It also gives us great pleasure to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Michael Leftwich. Mr. Leftwich is an attendant at the Pay Less Oil Co. They reside at 729 East Main St. and the phone number is 266-8981.

INTERNATIONAL BICENTENNIAL FESTIVAL REVIEW

For the second year, the JEWISH COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION cooperated with local groups in presenting 72 cultural displays. We had a double booth on the main floor, displaying in one of them objects labelled with identifying information for 7 religious holidays. The other booth reproduced Gratz Park area as a background for historical information and posters honoring 1776 and famous Jews of early American history. On the concourse we sponsored a food booth, the proceeds of which will go to Camp Shalom.

It was a fun time as well as educational and fostered good-will amongst our neighbors. Plans are already under way for next year's Festival. How about getting an early start and volunteering?

Thanks a million to those who gave so graciously of their time, effort and talents, and also the ones who came to see and enjoy.

Special thanks are due Roz Rozen for much of the historical background information posters; to Gail and Ernie Cohen for their encouragement and all around assistance; to our mural artists: Mary Birenbaum, Barbara Derer and Gloria Katz; to Lloyd E. Beard of Stone Photography, Inc. who donated the 12' x 9' photographic paper for the mural; to Charlie Stern for duplicating our pass-out literature of one-line biographies of 20 famous Jews mentioned in the exhibit; to Jacob Wirtschafter who shared his cherished Israel posters for our display, and Cookie Wenneker for dashing around to locate them; to Alvin Goldman who did the manual work of setting up what looked like an impossible idea; to Judy Saxe for the leading of audience participation in Israeli folkdancing and all who participated with her during a horrible rain storm; and to our favorite accordianist, Larry Sherman who entertained every day in our booth. Judy and Bob Baumann worked out the displays for Shabbot, Succot and Passover; Judy Samson created the one for Purim; Jo Belin, Chanukah; Ida Waldman, Shevuot, and Janice Weil, the High Holy Days.

Our booth-sitters and guides were: Regina Benenson, Saul and Linda Blumenthal, Vinnie Dubilier, Mrs. Engelberg and Mimi; Bobbi Fried, Graham Friedenn, Mary Garner, Ben and Helen Goldfarb, Alvin Goldman, Rebecca Colton, Chuck and Barbara Gorodetzky, Ruth Klain, Helen Levy, Marie Mayer, Norine Milen, Carole and Jerry Rosenthal, Bill and Evelyn Sabes, Herma Stein, Ida Waldman, Esther Greenfield, Edna Shockat, Robert and Elizabeth Scher and Tracy Stone.

Sandell Greenfield deserves special accolades for creating, maintaining and supervising all aspects of the food booth under innumerable complications. A great many thanks to all the cooks, servers and EATERS!

Thanks are also due the Temple Youth Group for singing on stage, and the children of Daniel and Edna Shochat for being the Israeli children in the march of International children at the opening of the Festival.

From the Rabbi's Desk

The month of November is Jewish Book Month. This is an annual event sponsored by the Jewish Book Council of the Jewish Welfare Board, and enclosed in this issue of the Bulletin is the book mark prepared by the Council in commemoration of this event.

We Jews are a people of books. Our religion has been transmitted through literature - the Bible, rabbinic literature, ethical tractates and all sorts of modern writings - fiction, poetry, history, etc. Our Temple library has a wide assortment of this literature and every member is encouraged to use this facet of our congregation.

In my sermon for this coming week I shall review one of the new books in this library, perhaps the most authoritative book on the history of the Holocaust, the latest of many books on the subject, a book which has received great attention because of its thoroughness - The War Against the Jews - 1933-1945. It is not a pleasant book, but one that we need to recognize.

Also, this past week, we finally activated our Sisterhood Library Committee. New library policies have been established and hours set. We now need volunteers to help with the library. If you want to assist here, call Leona Stern. There is a great deal to be done to get the library into the condition that we would like - to make this good facility even better.

Jewish Book Month has many aspects to it.

RABBI COOK TO BE FIRST SCHOLAR-IN-RESIDENCE

RABBI MICHAEL J. COOK, Associate Professor of Hellenistic and Early Christian Literature at HUC, will be our first Scholar-in-Residence this year. He will be with us on Friday, November 14th. He will talk with the members of the Senior Group in Religious School at 4:30 on the topic: "A Jewish Understanding of the Christmas Story" and after our worship service on the topic: "Jewish Jurisprudence and The Trial of Jesus." Mark the date on your Sisterhood calendar!

HADASSAH TO BE RECOGNIZED

Our Sabbath worship service on November 7 will be in honor of the rededication of the Hadassah Hospital on Mount Scopus.

Religious School

Bible Passage - October 26 - Eccl. 3:13

Discuss how we need to enjoy our legitimate pleasures as a gift from God. What are some - good times, good foods, etc. But what about over doing? Why can it be bad?

The Junior grades will meet immediately upon arrival at 9:30-10:00 in the sanctuary where Leonard Zukrow, a 3rd year student at HUC will meet with them for a discussion concerning being Jewish in a Christian society. At 10:30, Fannie Miller's class on Holocaust Literature will present a moving original worship service in the sanctuary. The congregation is cordially invited.

The Primary grades will meet with Rabbi Leffler in the sanctuary at 11:00 for a worship service.

Religious School is buzzing with activity - Mindy Doctrow's 2nd grade is planning an original Chanukah play for November 23; Ida Waldman's 4th grade is busy rehearsing for a program to be given November 9 opening Jewish Book Month; Ronni Dennis' 6th grade is preparing for a tremendous garage sale to be held in the vestry on December 7.

ATTENTION - Sunday School Students and Teachers!

WANTED: "THE GOOD CITIZEN OF THE MONTH" from each class to be spotlighted on the 5th grade "Tree of Life". Your picture will be put on display in the vestry for all to see. Thank you.

Mrs. Cohen's 5th grade

This picture shows Linda Blumenthal's kindergarten class making challahs in the Temple kitchen. Baking challahs is one phase of a five part series presented to the youngsters for teaching the Sabbath. They have already made kiddush cups and candlesticks.

IMPORTANT - Primary teachers meeting on November 2 at 8:45 in the library.

CONGRATULATIONS TO:

Frances Moskowitz on her engagement to Mr. Jeffrey Winstock. The wedding will be a February event.

New Member Welcomed

We are happy to welcome Jerry B. Frockt into our membership. Mr. Frockt is Executive Director of Kentucky Association of Counties and is also owner of the Hanover Shoppe. He resides at 113 Iroquois Court and the phone number is 278-6209.

SISTERHOOD

SISTERHOOD ROUND-UP IN TEXAS

Sisterhood is proud of its delegates to the 30th Biennial Assembly of NPTS to be held November 6th to the 11th in Dallas, Texas, which is in conjunction with the 53rd UAHC Biennial. We have six members attending this year including ANITA BAKER who is President-elect of the Ohio Valley District, and MARILYN LIEBER who will be installed as a National Board member while at the Convention. Marilyn is already on the District Board along with LEONA STERN. Joining LEONA, MARILYN and ANITA are JANIS DOCTROW, our local "Prez", AUDREY RUBIN, our First Vice-President, and HELEN PARITZ who is a past National Board member.

How's that for representation! Our "Sisterhood Ladies" will join almost 1,000 other Sisterhood women in the challenging and stimulating atmosphere of a national Convention. And after four days of workshops, seminars, conferences and demonstrations, they will return (dead tired, but happy) to share their experiences, knowledge, and new ideas with us.

NEARLY NEW

*We're off and running like the races,
But we need contributions from new faces;
Clothes that are clean and in good repair,
Household goods that you want to share -
Bring to the Temple or Nearly New and a tax receipt will be sent to you.*

The Adult Education Committee

The first two of four HUC students who will be with us this year for our Adult Education series will be Leonard Zukrow and Rabbi Alec Friedmann.

Mr. Zukrow, a third year student, is a native of Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Before graduating from the University of Wisconsin with a degree in social work in 1973, he spent his junior year at the Hebrew University. He will talk to us on Sunday, October 26th from 10:00 A.M. until 11:45 at the Multipurpose Room of the Deaf Oral School on the subject "Immigration - The Jewish Experience in Coming to the U.S." This is a timely topic for the Bicentennial year.

Rabbi Friedmann, who is presently studying for his doctorate at HUC, is a native of Johannesburg, South Africa. Graduating with a degree in Bible from the University of Witwatersrand in 1968, he entered the Leo Baeck School in London for his rabbinic training, being ordained in 1971. He will discuss with us the situation of the Jews in his country on December 14th.

All members of the congregation are urged to attend.

LIBRARY COMMITTEE

On Wednesday, October 29, at 10:00 A.M. there will be a meeting in the Temple library of the Library Committee and anyone else who is interested in working in the library. It will be a workshop to learn how to operate our library for the benefit of those who will be working in the library. Please come if you are interested in helping.

Starting November 1, the following library hours will be observed:

Sunday morning - 9:30 to 12:00 Noon

Wednesday morning - 10:00 A.M. to 12:00 A.M.

Friday evening - After services

GENERAL LIBRARY RULES

1. The library may be used by members of the congregation and other persons who have been approved previously and whose names are on file in the library. Approval may be obtained from the Rabbi.
2. Books may be kept for a period of two weeks - renewable for another two weeks. Current novels are not renewable.
3. Books may be checked out by signing the card in the pocket on the back of the book and giving it to the Librarian.
4. Books lost, destroyed or not returned will be replaced at the expense of the borrower.
5. Overdue books will be charged at the rate of 25¢ per week.
6. If the library is not open, books may be returned to the Temple office.

BOOKS TO BE CHECKED OUT IN CONJUNCTION WITH RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

1. Books may be kept out for a maximum period of 8 weeks before being renewed.
2. Books must be checked out in the manner described above.

FAMILY FUN-FOOD-FILMS

Our next Family Fun Night will be Sunday, October 26, when we shall see the film "Court Jester" with Danny Kaye.

Supper of soup and sandwiches will be served at 5:30 P.M. and the films will start at 6:30. Please call the Temple for reservations for supper. We need to know how many persons to expect and to prepare for.

If you do not wish to come for supper, you are welcome to come at 6:30 just for the film.

Cost of the supper will be $1.00 per adult and 50¢ for children under 12.

Rabbi's Message

Once again I am appealing to the members of our congregation for your assistance of the Reform Jewish synagogues and programs in Israel. This has become a yearly appeal for me, to solicit $5.00 per family for the support of this facet of the World Union for Progressive Judaism.

As you may know, the only form of Judaism which is recognized in Israel is orthodox. Neither Reform nor Conservative Judaism have any official sanction whatsoever. The orthodox parties are part of the coalition government and see to it that, wherever possible, every stumbling block imaginable is placed in front of other forms of Judaism.

As a result, most Israelis are "Lo Datee" - "not religious". They do not attend synagogue or observe Jewish rituals. But many of these people are not even aware of non-traditional forms of Judaism, which might appeal to them and be the alternative kind of religion which they might wish. To provide this kind of alternative is a major task; it is part of what the World Union is attempting to do in Israel. And it is for this task that I am soliciting your support.

A flier is enclosed in this issue of the Bulletin to explain further this effort. I hope you will read it and then send me a check, made out to "Israel Commission - UAHC" for $5.00 for your family's contribution to this project.

Bible Passage - November 2
Eccl. 4:9-10 - Discuss having a good friend and what it can mean to us in life. To follow through on this Bible passage, the Primary Assembly will view the film "New Students, New Friends" at 11:00.

At 10:30 both the Primary and Junior Assemblies will see "A Jewish Little Red Riding Hood" presented by the Puppeteers of the Lexington Section, National Council of Jewish Women. The puppeteers bring their show to Lexington Children's hospitals and schools and it has been especially adapted for our Religious School. The public is invited.

There will be a Religious School meeting for Primary teachers on Sunday morning, November 2, from 8:45 - 9:15.

JEWISH BOOK MONTH

Jewish Book Month this year is being observed from October 31 to November 26th.

Many events are being scheduled to promote an interest in Jewish Books.

This year's theme is "A Bicentennial Celebration."

Many organizations will display posters containing the Bible sentence on the Liberty Bell. It reads: Proclaim Liberty Throughout the Land Unto All the Inhabitants Thereof."

Readers are encouraged especially to study the history of Jews in America. Hundreds of new books of Jewish interest appear each year. They are in English, Hebrew, and Yiddish.

SCHOLAR-IN-RESIDENCE

RABBI MICHAEL J. COOK, Associate Professor of Hellenistic and Early Christian Literature at HUC, will be our first Scholar-in-Residence this year. He will be with us on Friday, November 14th. He will talk with the members of the Senior Group in Religious School at 4:30 on the topic: "A Jewish Understanding of the Christmas Story" and after our worship service, on the topic: "Jewish Jurisprudence and The Trial of Jesus". Mark the date on your Sisterhood calendar!

Rabbi Cook is the son of Rabbi and Mrs. Sam Cook, for many years, the director of MFT. He did his undergraduate work at Haverford College, from which he graduated magna cum laude in 1964. He was ordained as rabbi in 1970 at the HUC-JIR campus in New York City. He pursued his doctoral work at the Cincinnati campus and focused on the history and literature of the period of the Second Temple, with specialization in the area of New Testament.

ATTENTION

On Sunday, November 23rd, JCA is planning a Children's Hanukkah Party for youngsters 3 - 5 years of age. There will be refreshments, singing, dancing and crafts. 2:30 - 4:00 P.M. is the time at Temple Adath Israel. Admission is 25¢.

Youth Activities

Now the conclave is just a past memory and we're going to continue with some more activities. We had a meeting Sunday the 26th (believe it or not) and collected about $180.00 for St. Jude's Children's Hospital.

There will be a meeting on November 2nd at 1:30 P.M. which will be an open Board meeting with skating following.

Other forthcoming events are a camp reunion for OVFTY-toot and UOI on November 23rd in Louisville and our annual Hanukkah Carnival on December 7th. So we need everybody's help to keep it going. Have a happy halloween and see ya' Sunday. Miss you, Bill.

October 10, 1975

A Time To Die

Our Bible, in the Book of Ecclesiastes, declares that for "everything there is a season and a time", and throughout the ages this was assumed to be the case - especially for birth and death - which the rabbis commented were the most important events in a person's existence and were assumed to be beyond his control.

However modern technical, scientific, and medical knowledge have changed these ancient verities. Though children may not determine their own birth, parents today have many more options available to them than ever before regarding whether or not to have children, and if so when. As yet, a specific sex cannot be predetermined, but with all of the research that is occurring in the area of human reproduction, even this may soon be possible.

And at the other end of life, death too is not as uncontrollable as it was when the Preacher of Ecclesiastes wrote his words, or even a generation ago. Modern medical techniques have been able to lengthen the span of life through miracle drugs, new surgical methods, complex apparatus and machines of all kinds. What once were fatal illnesses and diseases that killed thousands of people each year, doctors are now able to control and to permit the person suffering from them to live many more useful and productive years.

This change in time concerning the beginning and end of life is no better illustrated than by the current controversy going on in New Jersey over the question of the termination of the extraordinary medical care being given to 21 year old Karen Anne Quinlan, who has been in a coma for five months. Miss Quinlan, who apparently became comatose as a result of an overdose of alcohol and drugs, has been kept alive by a mechanical respirator all this time, and her attending physicians, according to the New York Times, "have advised (her parents) that their daughter has suffered irreversible brain damage and would never recover." Based upon this information, Karen's parents have requested her physicians and the hospital to turn off the machine and thus end her life. However, this request has been denied because of "the growing controversy over malpractice suits and insurance costs" for physicians.

Thus we are confronted with a many sided issue. There is the legal aspect brought about by the threat of malpractice suits which triggered this case - a serious and growing concern of physicians across this country, and one which raises many questions for the courts as to what is acceptable medical practice and what is not acceptable - a matter which unfortunately has countless variables - such as equipment available, suggested techniques, training of physicians, etc.

There is also the medical question of: when is death? Is it when one stops breathing, as the rabbis used to believe? Is it when the heart ceases to beat, which is what has been accepted for centuries? Is it "the irreversible cessation of total brain function, according to usual and customary standards of medical practice", as the American Bar Association has declared, a definition which the American Medical Association has thus far rejected, perhaps because more study is needed as a result of such procedures as organ transplants and other new advances.

And then there is the moral question, which we have to confront - whether to deny life and affirm death, which is a complete reversal of our traditional Jewish outlook of L'Hayim - To Life. And it is this facet of the problem with which I should like to deal specifically this evening, bringing to bear our Jewish tradition upon this serious and complicated question of modern existence.

Judaism teaches that death is a part of life - even though it is neither a happy nor a pleasant part of what we have to face as human beings. The Biblical quote with which I began is illustrative of this view - There is a time to die. But it is the when of this quote which troubles us in such instances as the Quinlan case, and perhaps Judaism can help clarify this facet of the subject for us a little.

Our Jewish tradition does have a good bit to say on this matter. For instance, there are numerous strictures against hastening a person's death by removing his pillow to make him less comfortable, or doing anything that might be construed as part of the preparation for burial - such as closing his eyes, or his jaw, or stopping up his organs. The comparison is made to a flickering candle, that as soon as one touches it, its light is extinguished.

On the other hand, Moses Isserles, the 16th Century Polish scholar, permits the removal of "anything causing a hindrance to the departure of the soul, such as a clattering noise near the patient's home or salt on his tongue, since such (action) involves no active (hastening of death) but only the removal of the impediment." Isserles views were based on a 13th Century work, Sepher Hasidim. Emmanuel Jakobovits, in his classic study, Jewish Medical Ethics, devotes a number of pages to this topic and I have used his work as resource here.

A discussion of this same topic in a Reform Jewish context is found in Rabbi Solomon B. Freehof's book, Modern Jewish Responsa, in which he replies to a question from the late Dr. Nelson Glueck, President of the Hebrew Union College, which deals with organ transplants, as well as a question from Rabbi Benno Wallach of Texas dealing with this very subject of permitting a terminal patient to die.

In response to these questions, Rabbi Freehof covers the wide range of literature on the question of death and the moment of death, and states that "there is a great deal of debate as to when a person, although living, no longer has real viability." Thus we have no agreement, which is not unusual in Judaism, but we do have consensus, that life ought not be prolonged beyond what is a reasonable time for a person to die." As illustration, he cites the story of the rabbis who were present as Rabbi Judah HaNasi was dying in great pain.

The rabbis insisted on ceaselessly praying so that he be kept alive a little longer; but his servant-woman (who is often referred to with honor in the Talmud) threw an earthen jar from the roof in the midst of the praying rabbis in order to stop their prayers so that Rabbi Judah might peacefully die.

This, and numerous other discussions, led Dr. Freehof to conclude:

To sum up: If the patient is a hopelessly dying patient, the physician has no duty to keep him alive a little longer. He is entitled to die. If the physician attempts actively to hasten the death, that is against the ethics of Jewish law. In the case as described the term used in the question, 'to hasten death', is perhaps not correct, or at least should be modified. The physician is not really hastening death; he has simply ceased his efforts to delay it. If as is actually the fact in this case, he is merely preventing the delay of death, no sin has been committed by him.

As we see through the eyes of this fine scholar, the Jewish view on the subject provides us with a moral directive if we were asked to sit in judgment on the Quinlan case, to stop the respirator, as her parents have requested.

But there is also the personal side of the matter, the heart-rending, agonizing, anguishing questions - who am I to decide? How can I play God - especially for someone whom I love? When is enough life enough? And to these kinds of questions there are no easy answers - neither legal, nor medical, nor moral. These are the questions with which the individual in the situation has to struggle within himself, and chances are that whatever decision is made, will be an unhappy one, one filled with doubts and second thoughts. Yet that is also how life is. We can never be sure as we live about our most important decisions. Yesterday's certainties become tomorrow's uncertainties. There are no text book answers.

And so we remain, perhaps able to face the question academically, but always unsure of how we would decide, even if we knew all the facts, if the question confronting us concerned one of our loved ones. A truly agonizing decision - and yet as much a part of life as birth and death are also a part of life.

...Through your contribution of $5 or more to the Israel Commission of the Reform Movement.

Since 1967, funds raised in this annual campaign have sustained a living presence of Reform Judaism in Israel. Congregations have been established. Youth programs and educational seminars serve Israelis seeking to touch the beauty of Judaism. A Reform Kibbutz will soon give us roots in the very soil of our ancient Homeland.

Much remains to be done. We must break the stranglehold of Established Orthodoxy, and win full rights and recognition for our movement. We must extend our outreach, seeking to meet the spiritual needs of our Israeli brothers and sisters.

Your contribution will help Reform Judaism to make its contribution to the future of Israel and its people.

Reform Judaism in Israel

Why?

- Israel needs a vibrant Judaism to establish living links between its people and their religious heritage.
- The Israelis need a Jewish expression that speaks to their social and personal concerns.

What?

- Congregations
- Youth Activities
- Seminars
- Immigrant Programs
- The Reform Kibbutz

Who?

- Israeli Reform Judaism is for Israelis. It is rooted in the soil.
- Young Sabras are being prepared for future roles as rabbis and lay leaders.

Where?

- In cities, suburbs and towns, with Reform Jews throughout the land united by a National Council — the Va'ad Artzi.

Rabbi's Message

Once again I am appealing to the members of our congregation for your assistance of the Reform Jewish synagogues and programs in Israel. This has become a yearly appeal for me, to solicit $5.00 per family for the support of this facet of the World Union for Progressive Judaism.

As you may know, the only form of Judaism which is recognized in Israel is orthodox. Neither Reform nor Conservative Judaism have any official sanction whatsoever.

do not attend synagogue or observe Jewish rituals. But many of these people are not even aware of non-traditional forms of Judaism, which might appeal to them and be the alternative kind of religion which they might wish. To provide this kind of alternative is a major task; it is part of what the World Union is attempting to do in Israel. And it is for this task that I am soliciting your support.

A flier is enclosed in this issue of the Bulletin to explain further this effort. I hope you will read it and then send me a check, made out to "Israel Commission - UAHC" for $5.00 for your family's contribution to this project.

Religious School

Bible Passage - November 2
Eccl. 4:9-10 - Discuss having a good friend and what it can mean to us in life. To follow through on this Bible passage, the Primary Assembly will view the film "New Students, New Friends" at 11:00.

At 10:30 both the Primary and Junior Assemblies will see "A Jewish Little Red Riding Hood" presented by the Puppeteers of the Lexington Section, National Council of Jewish Women. The puppeteers bring their show to Lexington Children's hospitals and schools and it has been especially adapted for our Religious School. The public is invited.

Jewish Book Month this year is being observed from October 31 to November 29th.

Many events are being scheduled to promote an interest in Jewish Books.

This year's theme is "A Bicentennial Celebration."

Many organizations will display posters containing the Bible sentence on the Liberty Bell. It reads: Proclaim Liberty Throughout the Land Unto All the Inhabitants Thereof."

Readers are encouraged especially to study the history of Jews in America. Hundreds of new books of Jewish interest appear each year. They are in English, Hebrew, and Yiddish.

SCHOLAR-IN-RESIDENCE

RABBI MICHAEL J. COOK, Associate Professor of Hellenistic and Early Christian Literature at HUC, will be our first Scholar-in-Residence this year. He will be with us on Friday, November 14th. He will talk with the members of the Senior Group in Religious School at 4:30 on the topic: "A Jewish Understanding of the Christmas Story" and after our worship service, on the topic: "Jewish Jurisprudence and The Trial of Jesus". Mark the date on your Sisterhood calendar!

Rabbi Cook is the son of Rabbi and Mrs. Sam Cook, for many years, the director of NTTY. He did his undergraduate work at Haverford College, from which he graduated magna cum laude in 1964. He was ordained as rabbi in 1970 at the HUC-JIR campus in New York City. He pursued his doctoral work at the Cincinnati campus and focused on the history and literature of the period of the Second Temple, with specialization in the area of New Testament.

ATTENTION

On Sunday, November 23rd, JCA is planning a Children's Hanukkah Party for youngsters 3 - 5 years of age. There will be refreshments, singing, dancing and crafts. 2:30 - 4:00 P.M. is the time at Temple Adath Israel. Admission is 25¢.

Youth Activities

Now the conclave is just a past memory and we're going to continue with some more activities. We had a meeting Sunday the 26th (believe it or not) and collected about $180.00 for St. Jude's Children's Hospital.

There will be a meeting on November 2nd at 1:30 P.M. which will be an open Board meeting with skating following.

Other forthcoming events are a camp reunion for OVFTY-toot and UCI on November 23rd in Louisville and our annual Hanukkah Carnival on December 7th. So we need everybody's help to keep it going. Have a happy halloween and see ya' Sunday. Miss you, Bill.

The past few weeks there were two events which, though not intrinsically connected, are worth commenting upon. One was the statement by President Akin of Uganda before the UN General Assembly accusing Zionism of being a form of racism. The other was the death of the historian, Arnold Toynbee.

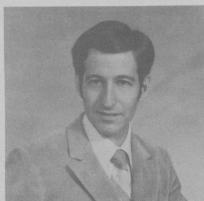

The connection that I make between these men is their great lack of understanding of what Judaism is. Akin's statement was certainly vicious and designed to be just one more example of the Anti-Israel stance of the so-called Third World Nations. Toynbee found that Judaism just did not fit into his theory of history and so called us a "fossil", in response to which the late Maurice Samuel wrote a book entitled "The Professor and The Fossil".

These events are worth noting because Judaism is frequently both misunderstood and maligned. To some degree we are accustomed to these attitudes toward our religion. We encounter them all too frequently and have to be on our guard against them - whether they occur out of malicious intent or ignorance.

It is truly sad that when people want to assert themselves, they often do so by putting down someone else - either because of hatred and ill will as Akin did, or because they really have not thought through what they are saying, as Toynbee did.

DRIVERS FOR FCI RESIDENTS

Arrangements have been made for members of our congregation to go out to the Federal Correctional Institute as a group to be briefed and cleared as drivers, in order to bring Jewish FCI residents to Sabbath Services and other activities within the Jewish community. Our concern for these persons is a much appreciated Mitzvah.

We shall be leaving the Temple at 11:30 A.M. on Thursday, November 20th and hopefully shall return by 1:00 P.M. This would be over the luncheon hour and it is hoped that we shall have a number of members willing to participate in this project. It deserves your support.

FROM THE DESK OF THE RABBI

This week fifteen members of our congregation were in attendance at the Biennial Assembly of The Union of American Hebrew Congregations in Dallas. For a congregation of our size (about 260 families), this was a goodly representation, an indication of our active interest and concern as a congregation.

The Biennial Assemblies are always interesting gatherings. During the plenary sessions the many resolutions are discussed and debated, often in an heated and emotional fashion by persons representing many different ideological and political viewpoints. These resolutions concern Israel, medical services, synagogue life and countless other issues of concern.

And there are also workshops on different topics - the place of women in the synagogue, funeral practices, the new prayerbook. Our delegation has been assigned to these, so that we have someone present for each session, to bring back to us the thoughts and comments that are shared during them.

But perhaps the most worthwhile aspect of the Biennial is what is not on the agenda - the many occasions to compare notes and swap ideas with persons from other congregations all over the country and to gauge how we compare with them in the many facets of our congregational life, and even to come home with some new ideas that we might wish to implement in our programming.

The Biennial is always a worthwhile meeting. Sometime within the next month those of us who attended will report to you, at a special meeting, the fruits of our gleanings from this experience. I hope you will be present to share our excitement.

William J. Leffler
Rabbi

BABY SITTING

Once again the Worship Committee is offering free Baby Sitting service for Friday evening Sabbath worship. This service is intended for those families who think that their children will be unable to sit through worship. Children who can sit and participate are certainly most welcome to worship with the congregation. This service will usually be available each Friday evening.

UNION CAMP INSTITUTE

Enclosed in this issue of the Temple Bulletin is information on the Union Camp Institute in Zionsville, Indiana. It is an excellent camp, a function of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, and well worth your considering as a place for your child to spend part of his vacation this summer.

We shall have someone here on December 13th to speak of the camp. If you are interested, phone the Temple office and put your name on the list for this visit.

Religious School

The Keren Ami Committee, consisting of representatives of classes 3 through 7, have met and decided to contribute to the "Share Hanukkah With the Children of Israel" program. This is UJA's annual holiday program which celebrates the right to freedom and is designed for children in Religious Schools to express their feelings of "oneness" with the children of Israel during this holiday period. The money collected during the months of November and December will be set aside for this project.

Bible Passage - November 16
Eccl. 4:17 - Discuss how we enter the Sanctuary and what we should think of in there, especially about our behavior.

There will be a Religious School teachers meeting for Junior Assembly teachers on Sunday, November 16, from 8:45 to 9:15 A.M.

The Dance Workshop, consisting of the 6th and 7th grades, will present a Bible Character play in dance form for all grades. The class in Folktales will present a program immediately following.

Rabbi's Message

The season of Thanksgiving is upon us once more. In our generation when world hunger has taken on such large dimensions, a holiday of this nature presents us with a fascinating dichotomy.

On the one hand it is an extremely appropriate holiday for our times. We need to express our thanks for the bounties of the harvest in which we are able to partake. We live in a land of relative plenty and for most of us food is not a scarce item. We eat well and even more than well.

On the other hand, the method in which we celebrate our holiday tends to belie the reality of today's food crisis. With the increase in world population, food is in short supply in many parts of the world. When we sit down to our usual sumptuous Thanksgiving dinners and stuff ourselves to the utmost, we fail to consider those people who lack just the simple basics of a decent diet.

Maybe our thanks could be expressed in a different fashion!

Akin to this subject, at the recent Biennial, there was a resolution on world hunger, urging that this subject be given "high priority in our synagogues...and Jewish communal institutions." And one of the ways suggested was that we "arrange the food and drink aspects of our social lives - public and private, including any synagogue related function where food and/or drink is served - with a moderation that reflects sensitive concern for the current crisis in food."

Have a moderate Thanksgiving!

HANUKKAH HOME DECORATING CONTEST

TYO is sponsoring a Hanukkah Home Decorating Contest on Sunday, December 7th. If your family wishes to enter this contest by having its decorations judged, please call Matt Doctorow, 277-9656. Judging will take place between 10:30 - 12:00 noon on Sunday, December 7th. A family prize will be given for the best decorated home and will be awarded during the Carnival. The Carnival is Sunday, December 7th. There are lots of games. The cost is $1.00 per person or $3.50 per family.

The giving of coins for Hanukkah commemorates the Maccabean victory, because only a few people could strike coins.

NORMAN WIDES NAMED TO BOARD OF OVERSEERS OF THE CINCINNATI SCHOOL OF THE HEBREW UNION COLLEGE JEWISH INSTITUTE OF RELIGION

Norman has two sons and one daughter. Graduated from the University of Kentucky, he is president of the Wides Material Company, and secretary-treasurer of Lexico Inc.

Norman is very active on several civic and religious committees including the Lions Club, B'nai B'rith, Life Scout, United Way of Blue Grass, Jaycees, March of Dimes and many more. As a member of our congregation he has served on our Board for 3 terms.

Mr. Wides was in Cincinnati when the HUC Board of Overseers of the Cincinnati school recently gathered for its first meeting. The new group represents Reform Jews primarily from the Midwest, south, and as far north as Toronto, Canada. At his first meeting he became more familiar with the College, its programs and people, and specifically the Cincinnati campus.

FAMILY WORSHIP

We shall celebrate Hanukkah together

124 NORTH ASHLAND AVENUE LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY
Rabbi: William J. Leffler

President: Jack L. Miller
First Vice President: Dr. Martin P. Kaplan Secretary: Joseph H. Miller
Second Vice President: Charles Stern Treasurer: Dr. Charles Gorodetsky
Temple Administrator: Herman Straus

The Rabbi's Message

Hanukkah means dedication and it marks the rededication of the Temple in Jerusalem by the Maccabees after its desecration by the Syrians under Antiochus Epiphanes.

It also ought to be a time when we consider our dedication and ask ourselves what it is to which we are dedicated - for what would we risk our lives as did the Maccabees of old?

This is a hard question for us. Life today seems to hold very little for which we would do this. The most obvious example would be our families. We would give up a great deal for the protection and salvation of our children and our spouses. They are our kin; when they are threatened, we become assertive and protective, and rush to their aid. This is natural.

But what else is there in our world today that requests our dedication? Vietnam destroyed our old views of patriotism and that it is good to lay down one's life for one's country for whatever reason our leaders may say.

Politics has long been out of favor for us as a reason for martyrdom, and we look with amazement at what is going on in Portugal. The struggles between the Catholics and Protestants in Northern Ireland, and the Moslems and Christians in Lebanon also leave us a bit confused. Yet these are examples of old-fashioned dedication still to be found in our world, even though we are not a part of it.

Job dedication is another manifestation of this ideal. We expect certain professional people to exhibit it. But it is lost to the factory worker and to many employees of big concerns.

And what of Jewish dedication? Where is it found? Among Soviet Jews? Perhaps. In Israel? Maybe. Among us? I wonder.

The Season of Dedication! A time to ask what it is to which we are still dedicated. Not an easy question, but then Judaism encourages us to ask the more difficult questions.

Have a happy "Dedication!"

William J. Leffler

The Temple Times

The 7th grade newspaper has gone to press and will be available for 10¢ in the Temple vestry after Friday night services and in the office during the week.

The Adult Education Committee

The second HUC student who will be with us this year for our Adult Education series will be Rabbi Alec Friedmann. He will speak to us on Sunday, December 14th, from 10:00 A.M. until 11:45 at the Multipurpose Room of the Deaf Oral School on the subject "The Situation of the Jews in South Africa."

Rabbi Friedmann, who is presently studying for his doctorate at HUC, is a native of Johannesburg, South Africa. Graduating with a degree in Bible from the University of Witwatersrand in 1968, he entered the Leo Baeck School in London for his rabbinic training, being ordained in 1971.

All members of the congregation are urged to attend.

FAMILY WORSHIP ON DECEMBER 5

Our next family worship service will be held on Friday, December 5, at 6:30 P.M., at which time we shall also celebrate the last night of Hanukkah. Pot luck supper will be served after worship. Participants are requested to bring enough meat for their family and double the amount of vegetables for their needs. In order to seat everyone, reservations should be made through the Temple office by Thursday, December 4.

NEW UNION PRAYER BOOK

The delegates to the recent UAHC Biennial Assembly in Dallas each received a complimentary copy of the New Union Prayer Book - Gates of Prayer. However, the congregational copies have not yet arrived, so we are still not able to begin using it for our Sabbath worship.

However, in order to begin familiarizing the congregation with some of the language of this new guide to worship, we shall be quoting during the coming weeks, the new wording of some familiar passages found in it:

"You shall love the Lord your God with all your mind, with all your strength, with all your being. Set these words, which I command you this day, upon your heart. Teach them faithfully to your children; speak of them in your home and on your way, when you lie down and when you rise up.

Bind them as a sign upon your hand; let them be a symbol before your eyes; inscribe them on the doorposts of your house, and on your gates.

Be mindful of all My Mitzvot, and do them: so shall you consecrate yourselves to your God. I, the Lord, am your God who led you out of Egypt to be your God; I, the Lord, am your God."

Our annual College Home Coming Service will be held on Friday, December 26th.

SPECIAL PRAYER FOR THE THIRD NIGHT OF HANUKKAH

Adapted from a Hanukkah Service by Leonard Winograd

- LEADER: This night is dedicated to the three's.
- FAMILY: Eight are the nights of Hanukkah.
- L: This night is dedicated to the three's.
- F: There are nine Hanukkah lights when you count the Shamash.
- L: This night is dedicated to the three's.
- F: Three times three is nine, the total of lights of Hanukkah.
- L: Jews have lived in Syria and Iraq for three THOUSAND years.
- F: Jews in Syria live in three cities.
- L: Damascus, Aleppo, and Kamishli. Tell me a "three" about Kamishli.
- F: Since 1967 Jews of Kamishli must report to the police three times each day, telling everywhere they have been. They can go to the movies if they get permission. They must paint their houses red as a warning to Moslems.
- L: Who knows a three about Aleppo?
- F: Jews of Aleppo are allowed to go three miles without permission. They can even go further with a written permit.
- L: Damascus has a lot of three's.
- F: There are three thousand Jews in Damascus.
- L: Three sisters, Sarah, Lora and Toni Zebah were murdered trying to escape to freedom in March, 1974. Three more: their cousin Eve Saad was also murdered as were two young men, Natan Shaya and Kassem Abadi.
- F: Human Rights are no "right" for Jews of Syria.
- ALL: Almighty God and Father, as we light the holy lights of Hanukkah on this third night, we think also of those Jews denied their rights. We think of all those who suffer in lands of oppression. Particularly, do we remember our brothers in Syria on this Hanukkah. Hanukkah celebrates the end of Wyrrian oppression under Antiochus 22 centuries ago. Today under Assad, Syrian oppression of our people is once again a reality. Inspire us to help as "Modern Maccabees" who would surely come to the aid of our fellow Jews held hostage in Syria. Let us pray and work that next year Hanukkah will celebrate truly the end of Syrian oppression under both Antiochus and Assad, that our brethren may have left captivity and live again in freedom.

Amen. . . Amen. . .

Rabbi's Message

One of the many sources of pleasure for a rabbi is to be able to help others find ways of increasing the meaningfulness of their Jewish experiences. And so it is with a great deal of pleasure that I am able to announce the establishment of the Ida Wides Baker Scholarship to provide funds for our teenagers to participate in UARC sponsored Israel Programs.

This Scholarship Fund has been set up under provision of the will of the late Ida Wides Baker, mother of Evelyn Hymson and Harold Baker, and has been a part of our Endowment Fund for many years now, without being used. However with the growth and increase of UARC sponsored programs for Temple youth in Israel, the monies from this fund will now be available to members of our Temple Youth Group on an annual scholarship basis to encourage their participation in the worthwhile programs.

I have visited some of these programs in Israel and met some of these young people from other congregations who have been in these groups and have been most impressed by what I saw. And so I am most pleased and excited by the prospects of having some of our teenagers come back and share their enthusiasm and experiences in our Youth Group and with the adults of the congregation.

The specifications of this scholarship are detailed elsewhere in this issue of the Temple Bulletin. I hope you will be as enthusiastic about the opportunities it opens up for us as I am. And if you have children, be sure they know also. It might be a goal for which they might like to start saving their allowance.

Our thanks go to Evelyn and Harold for this wonderful new facet to our Temple program.

William J. Leffler
Rabbi

THE TEMPLE LIBRARY

The Library Committee has been at work regularly - the catalogue cards have been checked and a list of missing books has been compiled. We urge everyone to check their bookshelves at home for the missing books which will soon be listed in the bulletin.

Many thanks to our devoted and tireless workers - Bob Lerner, Leo Michaels, Barbara Gorodetsky, and Caroline and Herman Straus.

ISRAEL COMMISSION

So far our congregation has contributed $95.00 for the UARC Israel Commission project. This represents only 17 families out of 260, not a very large percentage. So keep the checks for $5.00, made out to Israel Commission-UARC, coming in to the Temple office.

COLLEGE HOME COMING SERVICE

Our annual College Home Coming Service will be held on Friday, December 26th.

THE IDA WIDES BAKER SCHOLARSHIP

(To Provide Funds for Teenagers to Participate in UARC Sponsored Israel Programs)

SPECIFICATIONS

- 1) This scholarship is intended to provide funds for TYG members entering the 11th or 12th grades to participate in UARC sponsored or supported Israel programs, or, with committee approval, another Israel program of similar nature. The recipient (s) of funds from this scholarship is/are expected to utilize the funds within the twelve month period following their award.
- 2) Criteria for Eligibility
 - a. Be in the 10th or 11th grades of high school at time of application.
 - b. An active participant in Temple Adath Israel Youth Group for at least a year prior to applying, plus participation in school and community activities.
- 3) Application, in writing, with a 250 word or more essay, describing why the applicant wishes the scholarship, and for which program, must be submitted to the Rabbi by January 1 of the year in which the scholarship is to be awarded.
- 4) The scholarship committee will consist of Mr. Harold Baker, Mrs. Maurice Hymson, the Rabbi, the Temple President and the TYG advisor or advisors.
- 5) The scholarship (s) will be awarded in February of each year.
- 6) The scholarship money available will be a minimum of $250 and a maximum of $500, depending on the number of applicants and the funds available that year. A maximum of $1,000 per year will be used for this scholarship.
- 7) Recipients of these scholarships are expected to return from Israel and to active participation in the Temple Adath-Israel Youth Group for at least a year, sharing with other members the fruits of their experiences in Israel.

BOARD LEADERSHIP DINNER

The second Temple Board Leadership Dinner will be held on Thursday, December 11, at 6:30 P.M. in the Vestry. Our speaker will be Rabbi Paul Mentoff, Director of the Midwest Region of the UARC.

It will be a pot luck supper, with each family being asked to bring enough meat for itself and double the amount of vegetables. Coffee and dessert will be supplied.

Please call the Temple office for reservations, so we know how many places to set. All Board members are expected to attend.

STAMPS FOR WELLINGTON

Our canon is almost ready to be sent. Just a few more higher denominations and commemoratives and away to Wellington. Send or bring yours in to the Temple today. Be sure not to mutilate them in any way.

SAY IT WITH UNILONGRAMS

Marilyn Lieber, 266-1240, will take care of your messages to your relatives and friends, and the cost, no more than the price of a greeting card, supports a most worthwhile cause.

Adult Education

Our second Adult Education speaker this year will be Rabbi Alee Friedmann of South Africa who is presently studying for his doctorate at HUC. Graduating with a degree in Bible from the University of Witwatersrand in 1968, he entered the Leo Baeck School in London for his rabbinic training, being ordained in 1971.

Rabbi Friedmann will speak to us on Sunday, December 14th from 10:00 A.M. until 11:45 at the Multipurpose Room of the Deaf Oral School on the subject "The Situation of the Jews in South Africa". Plan to attend and learn about the Jews of that part of the world.

Youth Activities

It's here - the Carnival that is. All Youth Group members should be here at 12:00 sharp with cookies or a cake.

Leadership will be held on December 12-14 in Cincinnati. Lexington is sending four distinguished delegates: Bobbie Baker, Matt Tyser, Ricki Stein and Matt Detrov.

Keep the date, December 14 in mind, because that is the day when we get Louis and Hedy up on roller skates!

ATTENTION

Pursuant to Article III, Section 6 of the Temple By-Laws, there will be a special congregational meeting on Sunday evening, January 11, 1976 at 7:00 P.M., in order to raise the limit on Temple indebtedness "not to exceed an additional $200,000 more than the present debt limitation". The purpose of this increase in debt limit will be "for the purpose of the purchase of Israel Bonds, which are to be guaranteed by Temple members".

At this meeting, the procedure for purchasing the Bonds will be described, so that those present may know what specifically is involved.

All members are urged to attend, as we shall need a quorum of 15% of the membership present in order to conduct business.

FROM THE DESK OF THE RABBI

As I sit writing this message, the recent actions of the UN distress me greatly. The vote to permit the PLO to be part of the deliberations on the Middle East, not as an observer, but as an active participant is most distressing. They are not a nation, nor a government. No constituency elected Arafat to represent them. He is just another political strongman playing the deadly game of power politics.

As a Jew concerned for the future of Israel, I feel isolated. Even our government seems to be powerless in the face of the Arab-Communist bloc. We are outnumbered and outvoted. Once more the world seems to be closing in on us and we seem to be becoming the scapegoat for the world's frustrations and problems. This is indeed a troubling and distressing turn of events, reminiscent of many other times in history.

What can we do? There are not easy answers. We need to petition our government to support Israel's cause to the full - because it is to our benefit as Americans to support this bastion of democracy amid the dictatorships of the Mid-East. Also, as a nation, Israel is our one sure ally in that part of the world. We cannot permit her to go under. But as the United States faces the world, we also seem to have less friends. Israel's plight is also America's and we need to respond to it in any fashion we can.

These are trying times for us as Jews. The fate of Israel seems to hang in the balance. We need to be alert to whatever we are called upon to do. Our fate is very much tied to what happens to Israel.

NEW UNION PRAYER BOOK

The delegates to the recent UARC Biennial Assembly in Dallas each received a complimentary copy of the New Union Prayer Book - Gates of Prayer. The congregational copies arrived this past weekend, but in order to begin familiarizing the congregation with some of the language of this new guide to worship, we shall be quoting during the coming weeks, the new wording of some familiar passages found in it:

"Let Israel Your people, and all peoples, know peace for ever.

Let peace and freedom reign in all the world.

Let every wanderer come home from the bitterness of exile.
And may our eyes behold Your return to Zion in mercy.

Then will Jerusalem, the city of David, be the city of peace, the joy of all the world.

The land of Israel and its people will see freedom and peace.

IS YOUR CHILD BORED WITH SUMMER CAMP?

Try something different...the Union of American Hebrew Congregations' camp at Zionsville, Indiana.

We've prepared a new brochure that's as unique as our camp itself. Entitled "My Summer at Zionsville," it gives you a glimpse of the camp as seen through the eyes of a camper.

If you have a child entering fourth or higher next fall, send for a copy. Read it and we think you'll not want to send your child to an ordinary camp next summer.

For further information contact your rabbi, or the Camp Director, Ronald Klotz, 7003 Glenmeadow, Cincinnati, Ohio 45237, telephone (513) 631-6283.

JUNIOR ASSEMBLY (grades 4 - 7)

At 9:30, immediately upon entering, the Junior Assembly will go to the Sanctuary where Rabbi Alec Friedman of HUC will lead a discussion on Jews of South Africa.

PRIMARY ASSEMBLY

At 11:00, the Primary Assembly will view a film in the Vestry entitled "People Are Different and Alike." This film shows that it is easy to see differences among people - how they look, where they live, what they own. But people are more alike in the important ways; they need friendship and love, food and a place to live; they want an education, fun and happiness.

There will be no Religious School on Sunday, December 21 and Sunday, December 28 - Winter Vacation. The Third Block of Senior Group begins January 4, 1976.

NEW UNION PRAYER BOOK

The new Prayer Books have arrived, but in order to begin familiarizing the congregation with some of the language of this new guide to worship, we shall be quoting during the coming weeks, the new wording of some familiar passages found in it:

"In this quiet hour of worship we reflect upon the meaning of our lives. I harbor within - we all do - a vision of my highest self, a dream of what I could and should become. May I pursue this vision, labor to make real my dream. Thus will I give meaning to my life.

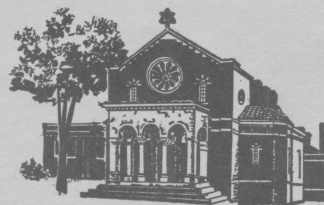

An artist in the course of painting will pause, lay aside the brush, step back from the canvas, and consider what needs to be done, what direction is to be taken. So does each of us on this Sabbath eve pause to reflect. As I hope to make my life a work of art, so may this hour of worship help me to turn back to the canvas of life to paint the portrait of my highest self.

May my efforts to grow in moral stature bring me the joy of achievement. And may I always hold before my eyes the vision of perfection we call by the name of God - and grow toward Him."

From the Rabbi's Desk

Over the course of the years I have been silent on the subject of Jewish families who feel compelled to have Christmas trees - for whatever justification they may give. This year, with Hanukkah already over a number of weeks prior to Christmas, the usual proximity of the two holidays on the calendar does not occur and so we cannot even jokingly refer to Hanukkah bushes.

A number of years ago I happened to call at the home of a member of our congregation who had a tree. It was a source of embarrassment for that person, who felt called upon to explain in great detail to me why it was in their home. His uneasiness at my discovery was so very obvious. But I wondered whether his discomfort caused him to think through his situation.

No matter how we look at it, the Christmas tree is one of the major symbols of the religious celebration of our Christian neighbors at this season. It is a quasi-religious symbol, as closely connected to Christmas as the menorah is to Hanukkah. And for a Jew to think otherwise, to consider it a secular observance because of the commercialization of the holiday, is to insult our Christian neighbors, as well as to delude himself.

Jewish parents sometimes justify the presence of their Christmas tree by using their children as scapegoats - they should not feel odd or left out. I wonder who is feeling odd or left out! We do not give our children birthday cakes when it is not their birthday so they should not feel odd or left out. We do not let them do whatever their friends do, just so that they will not feel odd and left out. As adults we have our own standards and apply them when we think them appropriate. The same applies to "Jewish" Christmas trees. Parents make this decision, not children.

Jewish children can be helped to feel secure in their Jewish identity by parents who assist them in this maturing process. A Jewish family with a Christmas tree only evidences parental insecurity and how they are passing it on to their children

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Karen Ami in November and December

The youngsters at Temple Adath Israel Religious School have put forth a very sincere effort in a program called "Share Hanukkah With the Children of Israel." This is the United Jewish Appeal's annual holiday program which celebrates the right to freedom. The children have raised a total of $42 in Karen Ami money and deserve a great deal of credit for their accomplishment.

Religious School's Karen Ami

January Project - Swing sets! Slides! Monkey Bars! Swimming Pools and a Hiking Path! That's what is in store for the children in Israel. As a birthday present to Israel, the children of America are helping to fund a park in Israel. All of the Karen Ami money that is collected in the month of January will be forwarded to the Jewish National Fund to help this extremely worthwhile project.

The sixth grade of Religious School is having a garage sale on Sunday, January 11, at 11:30 in the vestry of Temple Adath Israel. This money will be given to the Jewish National Fund. Any contributions from the congregation will be deeply appreciated.

Your support and guidance in all of our activities - your active participation - all of this spells success for this project. Without active congregation participation the children in Israel could not have such pleasures that are an essential in the childhood of a youngster. Your help is greatly appreciated.

There will be no Religious School on Sunday, December 21 and Sunday, December 28 - Winter Vacation. The Third Block of Senior Group begins January 4, 1976.

There will be a Primary Teachers meeting (Nursery -3rd grade) on Sunday, January 4, 1976, from 8:45 a.m. until 9:15 a.m. in the Temple Library.

COLLEGE STUDENTS

Would you like to spend your next academic year on a Kibbutz and also earn college credits? The UAMC has just the program for you. Contact Rabbi Leffler today for details. It may cost you less than attending college in this country.

Sisterhood

The next Sisterhood meeting will be held Wednesday, January 21, 1976, and we shall have as our speaker Dr. Harriett Rose whose subject will be "Women in Counseling." Mark this date on your calendar and plan to attend.

STAMPS FOR WELLINGTON

Our carton is ready to be sent to Wellington, but keep your higher denominations and commemoratives coming in to the Temple office. We'll start another carton. Be sure not to mutilate them in any way.

ADULT HEBREW CLASS

Learn to read the new Prayer-book. Adult Hebrew classes with the rabbi will begin on Monday, February 2, 1976 at 8:00 P.M. and will meet on successive Monday evenings, for as long as the class thinks necessary. If you are interested, call the Temple office to sign up.

BAKER SCHOLARSHIP

10th and 11th graders! Interested in an Israel program? Scholarship funds are available through the recently established Baker Scholarship Fund. Rabbi Leffler has information on the different programs for which these monies may be used. Apply now for the experience of your life! And if you are not sure about it, ask Bill Frankel.

From the Rabbi's Study

We start another year. Each year at this time we go through the same process. We look forward to what it will hold for us. We look back on the old year and breathe a sigh that it is over. We celebrate the passage of time and we hurry on toward the conclusion of our lives.

We live in a fast moving world. Speed has become a key word for us. And yet I wonder how much thought we give to this element in our lives as we speed through the years which are allotted to us, always planning for the future and what we shall do or be. This kind of outlook leaves us little time to enjoy and appreciate the here and now; it makes the present only a stepping stone to the future. And when that future arrives we cannot savor it because it too has become a stepping stone to our next future. An endless chasing after rainbows!

Our Jewish tradition would remind us to stop a moment and contemplate where we are, that we have arrived. Our She-hechi-ya-nu prayer is perhaps the best illustration of this - that God has kept us alive, sustained us and brought us to this time. How often do we give thanks for having survived until today so that we may enjoy its pleasures?

As we contemplate the new year ahead, let us also consider its blessings day by day.

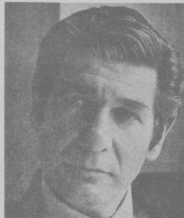

Happy New Year.

William J. Leffler
Rabbi

YOUTH KIDDUSH

Our next Youth Kiddush will be held on Friday, January 23rd.

RABBI BALFOUR BRICKNER NEXT SCHOLAR-IN-RESIDENCE

Rabbi Balfour Brickner, Director of the New York Federation of Reform Synagogues and the National Department of Interreligious Affairs and Co-Director of the National Commission on Social Action - all of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, will be our next Scholar-in-Residence, on Friday, January 16, 1976. He will speak to the Senior Group at 4:30 P.M. and with the congregation after worship services. Mark your calendar for his visit.

NEXT ADULT EDUCATION SESSION FEBRUARY 8, 1976

The third of our current series of Adult Education sessions on Sunday mornings will be held on February 8 at 10:00 A.M. at the Deaf Oral School. Mr. Steven Mock, a third year student at BUO will speak on the Pelasgas of Ethiopia, with whom he has worked.

BEST WISHES

For a speedy recovery to:
Mr. William Michalove

NEW UNION PRAYER BOOK

The new Prayer Books have arrived, but in order to begin familiarizing the congregation with some of the language of this new guide to worship, we shall be quoting during the coming weeks, the new wording of some familiar passages found in it:

"Each of us is a battleground for the struggle of sacred with profane. At times the profane seems to win the day. Love and truth are debased. Reason, our chief glory, is turned to evil ends. And in us the divine gift of compassion lies dormant; we fail to feel the anguish of others. How much we need You, O God, in days of trial! We need faith to live, faith in Your creative power that overcomes chaos and stirs all life toward a new and better world. We seek You, O God; thereby we grow in vision, as we elevate our souls beyond the sordid to the sacred. Your presence is the light piercing the darkness on our way, lighting our steps, making us see beauty and worth in all human beings. May our lips and our lives be one in serving You."

APPRECIATION

Thanks and appreciation to James Weil for his donation to the Temple of 200 shares of Philip Morris stock.

NEEDED

A bowler is needed for the Bowling League. If you are interested, contact Larry Goodman at 266-1360.

ISRAEL COMMISSION

So far our congregation has contributed $140.00 for the UAHC Israel Commission project. This represents only 28 families out of 260, not a very large percentage. So keep the checks for $5.00, made out to Israel Commission-UAHC, coming in to the Temple office.
