NO. 9

1987 - 5747

JANUARY 9, 1987

IN THIS CORNER

At the December TAI Board of Trustees meeting, our Social Concerns Committee, under Dr. Martin Kaplan's leadership, presented a resolution which enables us to continue fighting hunger. The resolution ties us into a national organization called MAZON (food) which is a Jewish response to hunger. Through Mazon, we voluntarily add 3% to the cost of our celebrations; Bar/Bat Mitzvahs, weddings, birthdays, anniversaries, any joyous occasion - as an offering to help defeat the scourge of hunger here at home and around the world. Think how meaningful it can be for a young person to know that a portion of his or her joy is set aside to include those in need - and that our joy is, thereby, increased. Think how meaningful it can be for all of us to know that our good times are also times of good.

Our Social Concerns Committee included in its resolution that families may choose to donate the 3% directly to a local organization.

Regardless to which organization we contribute, Mazon or locally, we do it because Jews are a caring and compassionate people; we were slaves unto Pharaoh in Egypt, and we cannot sit idly by, passive witnesses to starvation and death, to hunger and suffering.

We do it because we care. Here, at last, is a tragedy that can be averted, here is a horror we can do something about. And here we are, a people with energy and resources, a people blessed with the capacity to act.

REFORM YOUTH EJECTED FROM TEL AVIV COMMUNITY CENTER

Tsofei Telem, the Israeli Reform Youth Movement, is an integral part of the Israeli Scouts. Nonetheless, its Tel Aviv chapter is not recognized by the municipality of Tel Aviv as being a legitimate part of the scouting program. As a result, the Reform scouts in Tel Aviv have been denied the funding and a meeting place which all other scout groups in the city receive.

Until recently, a local community center had unofficially permitted the troop to use its facilities. However, the municipality, under pressure from Orthodox elements in the local government, has now ordered the community center to eject the scouts, leaving them with no place to meet.

ARZA - The Association of Reform Zionists of America -- has strongly protested this action. In a cable to Tel Aviv Mayor, Shlomo Lahat, ARZA President Rabbi Charles Kroloff stated that "this is a grave offense to America's 1.5 million Reform Jews." Lahat was asked to rescind the community center's order and to extend to the Reform scouts all the rights, privileges and funding which are currently extended to other scouting groups.

NO. 10

1987 - 5747

JANUARY 23, 1987

IN THIS CORNER

The last several months saw non-stop frenzied activity in our building. At the end of December and the beginning of January, I finally had time to draw a slow deep breath, exhale and reflect. I see success in much of our programming and decision-making.

On Friday nights we added a family service once-a-month to encourage families with infants and older to come for a Shabbat worship experience. It is so important for our children to realize and acknowledge that our sanctuary belongs to everyone. The energy and warmth created on those special nights by our children and our children's choir, refreshes my personal spirituality, sustaining me until the next family night.

Adult Education blossomed under the direction of Jeff Davidson's committee chairmanship. He encourages the consideration of varying types of programs. This spring we will hold a four session discussion on Israel. Not the typical travelogue, but issues of substance which will certainly cause us to consider our commitment; hopefully enhancing it even more.

Torah Study and Shabbat morning worship has started well. Once-a-month we gather in the library, discuss the weekly sidra (portion) and then hold a worship service. A pleasant and soothing way to begin a Shabbat day.

This is only a touch of our newness. As long as programs are supported, they will run. When the alternative occurs, then we will find other new ideas to replace the old.

Spring is coming, it is time to take another deep breath.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

PLEASE NOTE!

Please let us know if you are interested in enrolling your child in our 3 year old Religious School program on Sundays for 1987-88. The child must be three years old by September 30, 1987 to be eligible.

It is very important for you to contact the Temple office or Marsha Matthews at 266-9606. We definitely need a minimum number to justify the continuation of the class.

6TH GRADE

Our class is currently discussing the life cycle events such as birth, marriage and death and the difference between Jewish and non-Jewish views and ceremonies commemorating them. We will discuss the concept of "Holiness" as it applies to Jewish prayer and ritual.

We continue to have an ongoing "Jews in the News" discussion. We will make video documentaries on significant recent Jewish events in the form of a news broadcast to show to the other students.

Fred Pollock
Teacher

7TH GRADE

Marcia Risk and Roy Meckler are teaching a Sunday school course on religions other than Judaism. This winter, nine seventh graders will visit churches here in Lexington, have representatives of other religions visit their class and discuss other religions on Sunday mornings. At the present time, Marcia and Roy hope to visit Catholic, Baptist, Unitarian, Mormon, Quaker and Disciples of Christ services.

In addition to these services, the class will have a guest from China to discuss Confucianism and Buddhism. Also, a visitor will come to discuss Catholicism with the class.

By learning about other religions, the students hope to learn more about themselves. The instructors hope this course will lead to greater acceptance and understanding of religions other than Judaism.

YOUTH EDUCATION COMMITTEE

The YEC met 1/13/87 with Rabbi Jon Adland and adopted several of his proposals of innovative planning for future years.

1. The YEC with the direction of the Rabbi will plan a winter retreat weekend to the Goldman Union Camp Institute in Zionsville. Students who choose to attend the retreat will do so in lieu of one Senior Block course. The approximate cost will be $40.
2. The rabbi was given permission and backing from the committee to begin to investigate ideas for and plan for a Confirmation Class trip to New York. The first trip would be offered to students of the Confirmation Class of 1988 and those confirmations classes of 1987 and 1986 would be invited. Successive trips would be planned for every other year after the first trip.
3. Marsha Matthews will begin to investigate the interest for a post confirmation class to be taught by the rabbi on Wednesday nights beginning in the fall of 1987.
4. The committee approved of the rabbi organizing and planning a human sexuality course to be offered over the duration of one weekend to our Temple teens.
5. With help from the Worship Committee, the YEC will organize programming for children ages 3-8 to take place during the High Holy Day services. The programming would consist of worship, singing and arts and crafts. The children would be divided into three age groups and programming would be appropriate to each age category. The YEC will need the help of the congregation in order for this to be successful. The intent of alternative programming is to have the High Holy Days be a meaningful experience for our young children and families.

SPRING RETREAT

Dear Congregants,

We would like to take this opportunity to give you a more personal note regarding the Temple's upcoming retreat. Last year we attended the first retreat, which was held at Natural Bridge State Park. As new members of the congregation, we thought it would be a nice opportunity to meet new people and spend some quiet time away from day-to-day concerns in Lexington. We went not knowing what to expect. To our delight, we met friendly and interesting people. Over the course of the two days, we had the opportunity to discuss topics of concern to all of us: change within ourselves, within the congregation and within Judaism. We also had time to socialize with other participants, as well as enjoy quiet walks around Natural Bridge. We agreed it was time well spent, and we look forward to future retreats.

A second retreat is scheduled for March 28 and 29 at Butler State Park. This year, discussions will focus on personal communication style and methods of expressing our Jewishness. We and the other retreat organizers chose these topics because they are of deep interest to us, and we hoped they would be of interest to others of you as well. As was true last year, the retreat will also allow participants the opportunity to make some new friends, as well as escape from the city and enjoy some of Kentucky's most beautiful scenery. Please consider joining us. We're sure you'll enjoy it.

Sincerely,

Mark & Tina Simpson

TU B'SHEVAT SEDER

Tuesday, February 13, 1987, we will hold a Tu B'Shevav Seder/Shabbat dinner (pot luck of course). Tu B'Shevav is the New Year of the trees - Rosh Ha-Ilanot - and is usually set aside for a celebration of nature. The seder will acknowledge various aspects of nature through a special liturgy. Family night services with our children's choir will follow at 7:30 P.M. RSVP to TAI so that we know you are coming.

NEVER GET ANGRY

Rabbi Yitzchok Meltzin never got angry at another person. If someone insulted him, he always ignored it. He said, "It is wrong to insult someone and if this person did so it is because he lacks the necessary understanding. Why should I be angry at someone for his ignorance?" (Traus Hamussar, vol. 2, p. 392)

Blue Boxes

How many of you remember seeing a blue box (JNF box) in the house when you were children? If not in your own house, perhaps there was such a box in a grandparent's or relative's house?

I have a number of these blue boxes -- the box whose idea started early in the century. For some, this box was the only link with Judaism and with the far-away promised land of Israel. With the quarters, dimes, nickels and even pennies put in the blue boxes, land redemption was accomplished in Israel. Every coin helped then and still helps today.

Let me know if you want one or have a filled one that needs to be exchanged for an empty one.

REGUESH means friendship and identification: the sharing, bringing together and participation of Jewish youth, its background and culture. REGUESH celebrates the union of body and soul; REGUESH dances!

Having performed throughout Argentina, Uruguay, Brazil, Israel and the United States, this group of young men and women who had grown up in the O.H.A. Macabi of Buenos Aires, Argentina, come to our community to rejoice in the sharing of our cultural heritage of dance and song.

VOLUME 54

NO. 11

1986 - 5747

FEBRUARY 6, 1987

IN THIS CORNER

The relationship between Jews and Catholics took one step forward last spring and one step backward last month. In Rome, in April 1986, Pope John Paul II became the first leader of the Roman Catholic Church to visit a Jewish house of worship. At that visit the Pope said that the Church "deplores" anti-Semitic acts "at any time by anyone." Though the Pope's historic visit did not erase 2,000 years of anti-Semitism, often Church encouraged, it did make clear at that time that Rome is determined to continue on the road toward respect for and acceptance of Jews. Omitted in his speech was any reference to Israel which the Vatican refuses to recognize. Yet, the visit was a step forward.

Eight months later the Vatican stepped backward, settling into their traditional view of Israel. When Theodore Herzl visited the Pope of his day to ask for support for a Jewish homeland, the Pope replied that the Vatican could never recognize a Jewish homeland because Jews had rejected Jesus' divinity. Today, nothing has changed. Cardinal O'Connor's trip to Israel included scheduled meetings with Prime Minister Shamir, President Herzog and Foreign Minister Peres, but the Vatican scrubbed these meetings reiterating its stance against church representatives meeting Israeli leaders in their offices.

Part of the Vatican's reasoning is based on the occupied territory problem, but the Vatican didn't recognize Israel in 1948-1967 when there was no occupied territory.

TU B'SHEVAT SEDER

Friday, February 13, 1987, we will hold a Tu B'Shevav Seder/Shabbat dinner at 6:00 P.M. (pot luck, of course). Tu B'Shevav is the New Year of the trees - Rosh Ha-Ilanot - and is usually set aside for a celebration of nature. The seder will acknowledge various aspects of nature through a special liturgy. Family night services, with our children's choir, will follow at 7:30 P.M. RSVP to the Temple office so we know you are coming. Deadline for reservations is Feb. 10th.

Another reason for the cancellation of meetings was that the Vatican seeks to maintain good relations with Arab and other Moslem countries. Like other Western states, it does so at Israel's expense.

In order for Jewish-Catholic relations to move forward, the Vatican must recognize Israel. Nice synagogue speeches are appreciated, but positive action is the only language which will help resolve 2,000 years of conflict. Anything less is patronizing, harkening back to the bad old days of Catholic-Jewish relations.

Rabbi Jon Adland

ISRAEL TRIP PLANNING MOVES FORWARD

Rabbi Adland has selected a travel agent and an itinerary for the late February-early March, 1988 Israel trip. The trip will last 15 days and 13 nights and will visit a good part of Israel. In early April, a brochure will be mailed to everyone in the Temple Adath Israel community with rates, cost and other important information. A general meeting will follow. For more information, contact Rabbi Adland at Temple.

TORAH STUDY CONTINUES FEB. 7th

Our once-a-month Torah study and Shabbat worship will meet at 9:30 A.M. on February 7th. We study the weekly sidra (Torah portion) using the Reform Jewish Torah Commentary. The Worship Committee, using the money from the Memorial Book Fund, recently purchased 10 copies bringing the total of copies in the library to 14. Study and prayer are a wonderful and peaceful way to begin a Shabbat Day.

OUTREACH MUSIC WORSHIP OPEN TO ALL

On Wednesday evening at 7:30 P.M., February 25th, Outreach will hold a workshop to teach some of the songs used on a regular basis during our Erev Shabbat worship. Music is a vital part of worship and the more people singing, the more beautiful is the worship experience. Come and let us learn together.

SOCIAL CONCERNS

The Temple Social Concerns Committee has established an on-going program of assistance by the congregation to these agencies:

1. Clothing Bank - bring used clothing, especially men's winter clothing to the Temple office. Overcoats are especially needed; also work clothing including jeans, shirts and shoes.
2. Donation of canned goods and other non-perishable food items. Please bring one or more items each time you visit the Temple. There is a collection box located in the cloak room. A cash/check contribution can also be made.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

PRE-KINDERGARTEN CLASS

In the pre-kindergarten class we have been focusing on identifying caring actions and doing good deeds. The children saw and discussed the filmstrip of "King Solomon and The Bee" (with its moral "be nice to others and they will be nice to you some time in the future".)

We are working on sharing and being considerate of others in class and at home. When I asked the children to tell me a good deed they do at home, they answered as follows:

Ben Wides - get myself dressed and clean my room.

Brent Harris - help my dad work on the car.

Greg Baker - help my mom put my clothes away.

Lealah Pollock - play nicely with my brother, Joseph.

David Eidelson - clean my room.

Amit Nizan - help dad and mom wash the dishes, sometimes. I also help clean up my room.

Alex Popkin - get ready for my bath all by myself.

Justin Wides - help my brother clean up his room.

Joel Harrison - put things away for my mom.

Matthew Higdon - help my grandma bake in the kitchen.

Jackie White - was absent this day.

Elayne Crystal, Teacher

1ST GRADE

The first grade has started a unit on Shabbat. We will learn songs, blessings, foods and Hebrew words associated with Shabbat and ways to celebrate the day of rest. We have each made a kiddush cup and will make Shabbat candlesticks. We will study Havdalah, which signals the end of Shabbat. We will make spice boxes and have a Havdalah service.

Anita Mersack
Teacher

THREE YEAR OLD CLASS

The 3 year old class has been continually heightening their Jewish experiences. This past month, we completed our unit on the senses, with a culminating activity designed to explore the world through Jewish senses. One activity that was a great success was the making of "bagel faces" for the sense of taste. The children designed faces (bagels) with cream cheese, jelly, raisins, honey, etc., but the best part, of course, was the eating of it.

Beginning this month, the class is working on the unit "Our Family". Along with sharing photographs/pictures of their families, the children are learning the Hebrew terms associated with each family member.

Riki Lawrence, Teacher

LEXTY

On Sunday, February 8, at 12:30 P.M. in the Youth Lounge, LEXTY will discuss "Cults". Stephen Miller will lead the youth group on this most important topic. Please plan on attending.

LEXTY wants your help!! LEXTY members have made beautiful Mezuzot Naturale (hand painted beautiful shells mounted on walnut bases.

Each one is unique and attractive and comes in three sizes ($6, $8 and $10), and are suitable for inner or outer doors. They make delightful gifts.

In February, members of LEXTY will attend the national NFTY convention in Washington, D. C. Your tax deductible donations will help with expenses as well as other programs for Temple Youth Group.

Contact Stephanie Russell at 272-3860 for more information. LEXTY members will be calling to take your Mezuzot order(s). Please support our youth group when we call. Thank you.

Don't miss the next Mitzvah Corps meeting, Tuesday, February 24, at 12 noon sharp! It will be a brown bag lunch, and as usual, we will supply the drinks.

We were lucky enough to get Mr. Beatty from the Police Department to speak to our group. His subject will be "Crime Prevention" and other related subjects that we, as senior citizens, should be made aware of.

Since we did not have a January meeting, we would love to have a large turnout for this meeting.

Now, I have a few surprises lined up for our next 3 meetings! These will be a lot of fun filled programs so I don't want anyone missing out. All of the following are on Tuesdays so please don't make any other appointments. Mark these dates on your calendar.

March 24

April 22

May 26

That's all I will tell you at this time, but I can assure you, lots of fun is in store for you. Be sure and watch the Temple Bulletin for more information on these dates.

Hope to see you all on February 24th.

RABBI KULWIN TO SPEAK FEBRUARY 20TH

Rabbi Clifford Kulwin will speak at Temple services on Friday, Feb. 20th. He is the director of South American Affairs at the World Union for Progressive Judaism.

Rabbi Kulwin was ordained from HUC in Cincinnati in 1983. After ordination, he left the U.S. to take the pulpit at the Associacao Religiosa Israelita in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. He returned last fall to assume his present position as well as begin work full time on a doctorate in Jewish history at Columbia University.

VOTE ARZA IN WORLD ZIONIST ELECTIONS

In the past, Israeli leaders have pointed to the results of the WZO elections to justify their claim that religious pluralism and Reform rights are not a major concern of American Jews. ARZA believes that by sending a large delegation to the Congress, we can demonstrate to those leaders our deep conviction that Israel, for her own sake and for the sake of the Jewish people, must guarantee religious rights to all its citizens, and must offer a middle way between religious zealotry and barren secularism.

No matter how many Zionist organizations you may belong to, you should receive only one mail ballot in May. When it comes, cast your vote for the ARZA slate and return the ballot as quickly as possible.

We welcome to ARZA -

Mr. & Mrs. Steven Bram
Dr. & Mrs. Austin Cantor

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

VOLUME 54

NO. 12

1987 - 5747

FEBRUARY 20, 1987

IN THIS CORNER

"Memory roots us firmly in the past," says the book Gates of the Seasons. "A living past provides for a meaningful present and hope for the future."

On Yom Kippur, late in the afternoon, we join together in a ceremony called Yizkor - remember. This service reminds us that time moves swiftly forward and bids us, "Number our days that we may grow wise in heart." Jewish memory is composed of sacred moments which, when remembered, inspire us to live our lives according to certain Judaic values.

Gates of the Seasons says, "For Jews, the inspiring figures in both the remote and recent past remain as constant companions and role models. They teach by precept and example. Their story is our story. Their courage, wisdom and goodness are a permanent challenge. The memorial service, Yizkor, is an act of faith that goodness does not die with a person but exists in the memory of those who remain alive."

Most of us are not completely aware that Yizkor is recited four times a year: Yom Kippur afternoon, the last day of Pesach and Sukkot (Atzeret/Simchat Torah), and on Shavuot. Thus, we are encouraged to remember our parents, siblings, peers, relatives, or children often forging a chain between our generation and the past.

OUTREACH MUSIC WORSHIP OPEN TO ALL

On Wednesday evening at 7:30 P.M. on February 25th at Temple Adath Israel, Outreach will hold a workshop to teach some of the songs used on a regular basis during our Erev Shabbat worship. This workshop will be led by Anita Baker, Sandy Adland and our Temple organist, Jackson Chadwell. Music is a vital part of worship and the more people singing, the more beautiful is the worship experience. Come and let us learn together.

RETREAT REMINDER

Registration deadline date

February 27, 1987 for the TAI Spring Retreat at Butler State Park on March 28 and 29th.
(Registration form has been inserted in this Bulletin).

For more information, contact the Temple office.

The Worship Committee voted to renew these times of remembrance beginning with Pesach. On the last morning of Pesach, on April 20th at 8:00 A.M., Temple Adath Israel will hold Yizkor services. The time was fixed so that those who work may attend Yizkor. The next Yizkor service will be on June 3rd at 8:00 A.M., on Shavuot. I encourage you to add this special time into your Jewish life. Let us remember together. Rabbi Clifford Kulwin

PLEASE NOTE

The new furniture for the religious school rooms has arrived. This leaves us with teachers' desks that we have no place to store.

The religious school would like to sell the desks with the proceeds going to the religious school.

If anyone who donated a desk to the Temple would not like the item he or she donated sold, please contact the Temple office. If you have no objections to the selling of the desks, please call the Temple office to let them know you are one of the donors so that when it is sold the donation can go in your name.

SOCIAL CONCERNS

The Temple Social Concerns Committee has established an on-going program of assistance by the congregation to these agencies:

1. Clothing Bank - bring used clothing, especially men's winter clothing to the Temple office. Overcoats are especially needed; also work clothing including jeans, shirts and shoes.
2. Donation of canned goods and other non-perishable food items. Please bring one or more items each time you visit the Temple. There is a collection box located in the cloak room. A cash/check contribution can also be made.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Senior Block III six week courses have just been completed. Our warmest thanks to Rick Arenstein, Nancy Sethi and Janet Tamaren for their excellent teaching skills.

Senior Block IV begins February 15 - March 22.

JEWISH ART

The Second Commandment says "you shall not make yourself a sculptured image." We reviewed Jewish art from ancient times (murals of Dura Europos) and from the middle ages (illuminated manuscripts) and saw how the Second Commandment was differently interpreted during different times.

We discussed our families' roots in Eastern Europe and looked at the "Precious Legacy" exhibit, religious and other heirlooms from Czech Jewry. Finally, we looked at the work of 20th century artists (Chagall and others). We also started a needlepoint canvas on a Jewish motif.

We learned verbs, the days of the week, numbers, expressions and slang. We made up a rap for the numbers, played monopoly and were fined $50 if we said something in English. We bargained for our snacks and drew pictures of Jews in order to learn the parts of the body.

JEWISH COOKING

We cooked a lot of traditional Jewish recipes, including kichleech chicken soup with home made noodles, bobke, bagels, blintzes and hamantashen. We had a lot of fun cooking and enjoyed eating all of the dishes, while learning about the tradition behind each one. Our favorite recipes were the bobka and the chicken noodle soup.

TORAH SCROLL ARRIVES

On Wednesday, February 4th, our Torah Scroll arrived, shipped to us from the Westminster Synagogue in London. It is magnificent. Listed as scroll number 835, the Torah is from a Czech town in Northern Bohemia called Turnov. The community was established in the 16th century. A 17th century cemetery still exists. Turnov reached its greatest population in the early 20th century but shrunk by the 1930's. The entire population was deported in 1942. In 1942, our Torah was sent to Prague and remained until it was shipped to London in 1964.

At this time, a committee is designing a case to house the Torah. We will dedicate our new Torah on Friday, April 24th during services. That night is Yom HaShoah, a service dedicated to the memory of the victims of the Holocaust. A special service will be used. Please mark your calendars, save that Friday, and let us rejoice at the renewed life we gave this special Torah Scroll.

TAI ISRAEL TOUR

The dates for the TAI Israel Tour to be led by Rabbi Jon & Sandy Adland are now fixed. REFORM LEADERS JOIN ARZA SLATE

The presidents of all national Reform institutions have agreed to run on the ARZA slate in the upcoming elections for the World Zionist Congress. The presidents have urged Reform Jews and members of all Zionist organizations to vote for ARZA in the election.

The following Presidents have agreed to join the Reform slate: Rabbi Alexander M. Schindler, UAHC; Dr. Alfred Gottschalk, Hebrew Union College; Rabbi Jack Stern, Jr., Central Conference of American Rabbis; Delores K. Wilkenfeld, National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods; Gerard Daniel, World Union for Progressive Judaism; Carl J. Burkons, National Federation of Reform Brotherhoods; and Rabbi Charles A. Kroloff, ARZA.

Reform Jews who are paid-up members of ARZA or of any other Zionist organization will receive a mail ballot in May and are asked to return the ballot with a vote for ARZA. The ARZA platform calls for developing a middle way between religious zealotry and barren secularism in Israel. ARZA is the only major Zionist organization which regularly advocates Reform rights, religious pluralism and equitable funding for Reform institutions in Israel.

GREAT SUMMER JOBS

Once again Camp Shalom is in need of counselors from June 7-26th.

We are looking for adult and junior counselors who enjoy being outdoors and work well with children.

For more information, contact the CKJF office at 252-7622 or Janice Crane at 278-0119.

ISRAEL BONDS

Reform congregations throughout North America will join together in an unprecedented program which is of special interest to the million Jews who purchased Israel Bonds in 1972 and 1973, the year of the Yom Kippur War.

If you are one of the million Jewish families who rallied behind Israel by purchasing Israel Bonds during the 1973 emergency, Israel wants to say "thank you" by paying the full amount of interest as if the bonds were held to maturity -- up to 22 months of advanced interest provided you buy a new bond or Israel Certificate with a higher value.

Representatives of the Bond Organization will be in our congregation on Purim Night/Day (March 14/15), to help with the simple reinvestment procedure.

Remember, bonds bought in 1972 as well as 1973 are eligible for this advance interest.

Please check your safe deposit box. Bring your 1972-1973 Israel Bonds to our Temple and reinvest in Israel's future.

Women pledging a minimum of $200 to the 1987-CKJF-UJA Campaign are invited to take part in this exciting evening, along with their escorts. The program will be followed by a dessert and coffee reception and solicitation.

Please call the CKJF office (252-7622) for reservations.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

VOLUME 54

NO. 13

1987 - 5747

MARCH 6, 1987

ON THE SIDE

Purim, which occurs on the 14th of Adar, celebrates the events described in the Book of Esther (Megilat Esther). The holiday is observed in a carnival like atmosphere of merriment and rejoicing. Our children dress in costume, shake greggers (noise-makers), and make significant amounts of noise.

Purim is about anti-Semitism, hatred and cruelty. It is also about survival. As we hear the Megilat Esther read, we learn about King Ahashuerus who chooses Esther to be his queen unaware of her Jewish identity. We meet Mordechai, Esther's cousin, who saves the King and is so honored. We also learn of the evil Haman, the paradigm of anti-Semites, who tries to rid King Ahashuerus' Shushan kingdom of Jews because Jews are different. With Mordechai's urging, Queen Esther alerts the King of her fate, that Haman wants to kill her because she's Jewish. It is Haman who dies on the gallows.

Purim teaches us about survival; a message carried forth into every generation. Many Haman's have come and gone, we survive. Judaism provides us with so much life content and positive outlooks that in the most difficult years, Judaism sustained, and in the good years of Judaism enhanced, making tomorrow worthwhile. By understanding Jewish values, traditions, mitzvot and history, each of our lives may be filled with deeper meaning.

Purim is a happy story - a story of survival and triumph in our lives and in our community, make this Purim an everlasting one.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

2ND GRADE

In recent weeks, the 2nd grade class studied Bible stories and learned about famous Bible people such as Adam and Eve, Noah and Abraham. Also, we learned about Jewish Life Cycle Events and related them to "growth and change" experiences in nature. We explored the similarities and differences between the U.S. and Israel including the areas of agriculture, housing, terrain and climate. The class really enjoyed hearing a guest speaker talk about her experiences in Israel! In honor of the holiday we made Tu B'Shevat pictures which we sent to a group of Ethiopian children.

Sandy Adland, Teacher

5TH GRADE

The 5th grade has been studying about Solomon's Temple in Jerusalem. Marty Friedman helped the class build a scale model of the Temple based on archeological data.

Next week we will begin learning about Israel and the Hebrew language.

Diane Friedman
Teacher

3RD GRADE

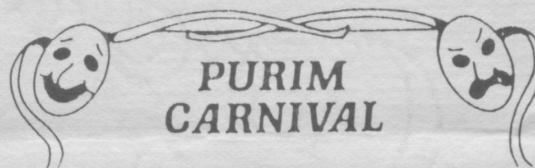

The third grade has been busy with a unit on Israel. We started off comparing the U.S., Canada and Israel in terms of size, population and the percent of Jewish people in the country. It was interesting to see that even though Israel has a much higher percent of Jews than the U.S., there are actually more Jews in the United States since the population is so much larger. We looked at pictures from Israel of synagogues, Christian churches and Moselem mosques. We didn't realize that there were so many religions in Israel. We also looked at different types of people found in Israel and how to identify them by the types of clothing they wear. It sure is different from what we are used to seeing.

Beth Mersack, Teacher

4TH GRADE

Fourth grade has been studying the prayer service, both the order of the service and the meanings of specific prayers. It has been a rather intense learning time for us, demanding more from the students and the teacher than our previous religious school objectives. However, it has been exciting to observe the change in attitude from apathy to enthusiasm and pride as the students prepare for their morning worship service presentation.

Phyllis Russell, Teacher

SPRING STYLE SHOW
MARCH 24, 1987
12:00 NOON

MEMBERS
INVITED

Spring is just around the corner; and aren't we all anxiously awaiting it! If you are like me, the first thing that comes to my mind is getting out my spring wardrobe and also buying new clothes.

The Mitzvah Corps is having its first Spring Style Show; Tuesday, March 24th at 1:00 P.M.

Mrs. Julia Satterwhite has graciously volunteered to put on a style show for the Mitzvah Corps.

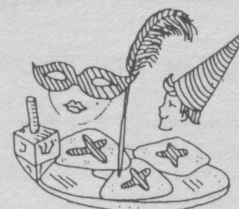

Besides knowing what clothes to wear, hair style, make-up, etc., she is experienced in all phases of "looking pretty".

Mrs. Satterwhite has a certificate from New York in personal development, charm, poise and personality. She also has a masters degree in business and education. Mrs. Satterwhite taught for 27 years. I could go on and on, but I want you to see for yourselves how terrific Mrs. Satterwhite is, so be sure to put this date down for Tuesday, March 24th at 12:00 noon, brown bag lunch, style show at 1:00 P.M.

The clothes for the style show will be furnished by Henri's.

Don't miss out, I guarantee this will be one of our most interesting meetings. See you March 24th. Be there!

ARZA POLL SHOWS ISRAELIS REJECT ULTRA-ORTHODOX INFLUENCE

According to a poll commissioned by ARZA, 75% of Israelis feel that the influence of the ultra-Orthodox is increasing in Israel, and 67% of Israelis find this trend to be disturbing. In a similar poll taken a year ago, only 51% of Israelis were disturbed by increased ultra-Orthodox influence. Experts attribute the increase to violent outbursts by certain elements of the ultra-Orthodox community, such as the destruction last year of bus shelters by ultra-Orthodox Jews who were offended by advertising posters that appeared on the shelters. The poll also demonstrated that 77.1% of Israelis reject the proposition that religion should determine the laws of the State.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

VOLUME 54

NO. 14

1987 - 5747

MARCH 20, 1987

IN THIS CORNER

Last October, on Rosh HaShanah, I delivered a message of great concern to the Liberal Jewish community. I spoke regarding the Jewish Agency's lack of response to a request for increased allotments for programs in Israel. Approximately, $\frac{1}{4}$ of 1% of the 20 million asked for was given. As a result, the Liberal side of American Jewish communities began discussing a possible withdrawal from the UJA campaign unless a more favorable allotment is forthcoming in 1987.

At this time, I am quite pleased to announce that this year's allocation will be substantially increased. During my recent meeting in Cincinnati, both the president of Hebrew Union College and the president of my rabbinic conference felt good about the development. Next year, Reformed Jewish programs in Israel will receive $1.642 million dollars for the following: Absorption of Reform immigrants, Reform Scouting, HUC-JIR, Youth Hostels and more.

Now that a breakthrough in negotiations has occurred (and probably will get better) it is important that we support our brothers and sisters in Israel. There are other issues which still must be resolved such as Mi Yehudi - who is a Jew - but these are separate from the UJA and Jewish Agency. With the money now available, Reform Judaism can continue to dig in its roots and attract those Jews who want a spiritual experience, but not on Orthodox grounds. I am pleased. I hope you are too.

MAJOR SPEAKER OF THE YEAR

WOLF BLITZER
MARCH 22, 1987

Wolf Blitzter, noted journalist and author, will be the Temple's major speaker of the year this Sunday, March 22 at 7:30 P.M. in the Temple's auditorium.

He will speak to us on "What's Going On In Israel - Domestic Strains"

This program is free and open to the public.

Sponsored by Temple Adath Israel Adult Education Committee.

KINDERGARTEN

Kindergarten class is learning some wonders of the spring season by observing the events taking place in the Magic Garden. The bird egg in the nest of the magic tree has opened to let out a baby bird to join the mother and father bird.

For the next few weeks, the class will be very busy preparing for their coming program. Channel 18, call letters - CHAI (of course) will be going on the air. Notices will be sent home with the exact date.

Bea Levy, Teacher

FIRST GRADE

The first grade has been studying the upcoming holiday of Purim. We heard the story of Purim and discussed the personalities and actions of the Purim characters. Then, using construction paper, yarn, cotton balls and glue, we each made a Purim character from a balloon. We differentiated the meaning of the words cruel and cruelty in the Book of Esther. We spent one Sunday making hamantaschen for ourselves and our families.

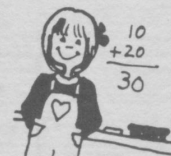

In our continuing study of mitzvot, we have talked about emet (truth) and hashavat evaydah (returning lost property).

We went into the sanctuary and, on a piece of paper, drew all the things we saw that made it a "Jewish place." Some of the things we found were the Torah, Ark, eternal light, Ten Commandments, yad, and lots of Jewish stars. Back in our classroom, we made a bulletin board of these objects.

Anita Mersack, Teacher

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

SIXTH GRADE

"Fiddler on the Roof" was performed in the sixth grade class over a three week period. The students read the play and the musical scenes were provided by the Broadway recording.

Benjamin Hoffman was not quite a Zero Mostel, but excellent as Tevye. Adam Meckler gave a brilliant performance as Lazar Wolf. David Stegman was inspired as the Rabbi. Laura Loventhal, in the part of Tzeitel was matchless. Doug Weinberg was quite revolutionary as Perchik. Angie Newman, as Chava, was exuberant. Billy Breault was tailored perfectly to be Motle. Rebecca Miller, as Hodel was magnificent. Herman Richman and Aaron Sander played multiple parts with quick character changes that were genius.

For a kosher group, there were quite a few hams. This was the highlight of the theatrical season.

Fred Pollock, Teacher

HOSPITALITY AT PASSOVER

Each year we read in the Hagaddah "let all who are hungry come and eat."

It is a mitzvah for all Jews to have a space at a Pesach (Passover) Seder Table. At this time, anyone who has or thinks he/she will have room, please contact Temple. Let us make sure that every Jew in this community can celebrate Passover.

WOLF BLIZTER BOOK IN HARDBACK

LIBRARY NEWS

Many thanks to the two families who have made recent donations to the Temple library...

Marjorie and Lenny Lerner have donated The Coming Cataclysm by Reuven Balka. It talks of the rift between Orthodox and Reform Jews.

JoAnne and Robert Randall have given us many books which will be ready for use soon.

Other new books to the library:

A Picture Book of Israel by David Adlen - a fine book for 4-7 year olds.

A Picture Book of Jewish Holidays by David Adlen - a simple explanation of each holiday - for 4-7 year olds.

My Very Own Rosh Hashanah by Judyth Saypol - this book tells what the holiday is and has songs, blessings and stories for 5-8 year olds.

REFORM DEDICATES WORLD CENTER IN JERUSALEM

Approximately 300 Reform leaders from around the world attended the dedication of the new World Center for Progressive Judaism in early November. The World Center is a joint project of the Hebrew Union College and the World Union for Progressive Judaism. The Center provides the Reform movement in Israel with a centerpiece around which it hopes to rally Israelis seeking a spiritual alternative to establishment Orthodoxy. Three buildings were dedicated in Nov.: the Skirball Center for Biblical and Archaeological Research of the Hebrew Union College, the Turpin Torah Center of HUC, and the 240 bed World Union youth hostel.

The dedication ceremonies were boycotted by Israel's Religious Affairs Minister, Zevulun Hammer, who was invited to participate in the celebration. Hammer represents the National Religious Party in the Knesset.

Reform leaders see the new Center as a major advance in its efforts to step up Reform activities in the country and to make Reform Jews equal participants in the building of the Jewish state. You can do your share to help advance Reform rights in Israel by casting your vote for ARZA in the upcoming elections for the World Zionist Congress. If you are a paid-up member of ARZA or any other Zionist organization, you will receive a mail ballot in May. A vote for ARZA is a vote for Reform rights and recognition in Israel, and for equitable funding for Reform institutions.

The next meeting of the Outreach Group will be on Wednesday, March 25th at 7:30 P.M. at Temple. The topic will be "The Passover Seder".

YOM HASHOA

Yom HaShoa is a day set aside by the Jewish community to remember and reflect on the events of and the people who perished in the Holocaust. This year, on Friday, April 24th at 8:00 P.M., we will observe Yom HaShoah. That evening will be a memorable one for all who attend. Rabbi Adland is creating a special service; Dr. Tom McCullough of Centre College will speak as a Christian responding to the Holocaust, and we will rededicate a Torah once thought lost, but which has a new life and home.

In order to complete the service, Rabbi Adland is seeking names of those Adath Israel family members who perished in the Holocaust. Please call or send the names to the office. All names must be received by April 21st.

Please save the date. Let us join together as a community and mourn the past and celebrate the future.

WHY VISIT ISRAEL?

A question that is often asked. Israel is our country, filled with Jews from all backgrounds. Israel is our history revealed to us through excavations, museums and existing structures. Israel is a cultural center for Jewish life with literature, music and drama created in the land for us by Jews everywhere. Israel is alive.

Please consider joining Rabbi and Mrs. Adland when they lead a trip to Israel in February-March of 1988 and see this precious land.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

VOLUME 54

NO. 15

1987 - 5747

APRIL 3, 1987

IN THIS CORNER

This year our congregation agreed to be a participating partner in Mazon: A Jewish Response to Hunger. In my latest mailing from this extraordinary organization, dedicated toward raising money and distributing this money to various local programs in the United States and around the world, was the following plea:

"This year, as for centuries past, Jews everywhere will begin their Passover Seder with the words 'Let all who are hungry enter and eat.'"

"As never before, we know how many are hungry, here at home, in our own communities and around the world."

"The poor are not helped by our rhetoric, no matter how compelling."

"And so, this Passover, a fifth question: Can we transform our words of welcome into a collective act of loving kindness?"

"Consider: if a stranger were to knock on our door and ask for our help, would we not reach out to him, to her? For were we not ourselves strangers in Egypt?"

"Consider: a stranger is knocking on our door; around the world, a billion strangers."

"Please welcome them this Passover."

We can participate in Mazon by adding a 3% surcharge to the cost of our Seder. Bring or send your Passover checks to me at Temple after your Seder and I will send them to Mazon. No check is too small to help fight hunger.

Have a good Pesach and a meaningful Pesach.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Senior Block IV has now been completed. Many thanks to Rabbi Adland, Confirmation class; Fannie Miller, Holocaust class and David Wachtel, Social Values class for their hard work and dedication to TAI Religious School.

Senior Block V begins March 29th and ends May 17th.

Marsha Matthews, Principal

SEVENTH GRADE

The seventh grade class in Sunday School has now visited three different church services. They have attended a Catholic, Baptist and a Unitarian service on respective Sundays. They have also been visited by the Catholic priest, Father Moore, and they have had a panel discussion on mixed marriages between Christians and Jews. They will be visited by Quakers on the 29th and have had a visit from a Chinese citizen who spoke on Confucianism and Taoism as well as Buddhism. The class is fascinated with discovering other religions and attending these services with the opportunity to talk with the leaders in these other religions as well as the members of many of these churches.

Roy Meckler
Marcia Risk Freedman, Teachers

Religious School students enjoying the Purim Carnival sponsored by LEXTY.

THE HOLOCAUST CLASS

The Holocaust class used two textbooks this year: Never to Forget - the Jews of the Holocaust and Hitler's War Against the Jews. These textbooks discuss Jewish values to be considered in coming to terms about what happened and making sure the world will not see it happen again. The Holocaust was an important, world-shaking event, not only for Jews but for humanity as a whole. In our study, we examined the sequence of events that led to this terrible occurrence, and also how Jews and Judaism have been dedicated to ethical ideals which stand against cruelty and immorality.

We had two speakers who experienced the horrors of Nazi Germany, Dr. Oscar Haber and Mr. David Osser. We are deeply appreciative to them for discussing their personal experiences with us. We also used materials to supplement our textbooks: video tapes, newspapers and magazine clippings, posters, pictures and charts.

Fannie Miller, Teacher

CONFIRMATION CLASS

Confirmation is now a twelve week program. During the last several weeks, we touched on the subject of God, Jewish identity, and Reform Judaism. Beginning in April, we will begin preparing for our Confirmation ceremony by organizing and writing the service. I believe that our 1987 Confirmation Class has had pause to consider who they are as Jews and what directions they might follow in their future Jewish lives.

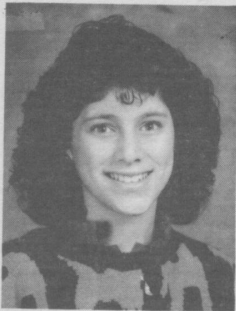

Rabbi Jon Adland, Teacher

FROM THE TREASURER'S POCKET

All dues pledges for 1986-1987 need to be paid before April 30th. If everyone pays his/her pledged amount, we will be very close to having a balanced budget.

Each family will be receiving their 1987-1988 dues request soon. The Temple's expenses will probably increase by 5%. However, a 4% increase per member will be all that is needed to balance next year's budget. So please pledge as generously as you can.

ISRAELI ORTHODOX PARTY PROPOSE DANGEROUS NEW LEGISLATION

What may be the most dangerous piece of religious legislation ever to be seriously considered in Israel's 37-year history has been proposed by the Sephardic Tora Guardians Party, known as Shas. Under the proposed law, the authority of Israel's Orthodox rabbinical courts would be substantially increased. The rabbinical courts now have limited jurisdiction in matters involving divorce, marriage, death and other issues of personal status.

ARZA and the Reform movement in Israel are committed to opposing this legislation. You can help by voting for ARZA in the upcoming elections for the World Zionist Congress. ARZA is the only Zionist organization which is actively involved, day after day, in the struggle for Reform rights and religious pluralism in Israel. If you are a paid-up member of any Zionist organization, you are entitled to vote in the election for the Congress. Mail ballots will be received in mid-May. Return your ballot with a vote for ARZA and Reform.

SCHOLARSHIP MONEY FOR GUCI OR OVFTY-TUTE

If anyone is interested in receiving scholarship money to help send a child to GUCI or OVFTY-TOOT, please submit a request in writing to Rabbi Adland by April 17th. All requests are confidential.

TWO REQUESTS

We are still looking for spaces at Seder tables for individuals who may want to celebrate Passover on the first night. If you have a space or two, please contact the office as soon as possible.

Also, if you want the name of a relative who perished in the Holocaust read during our Yom HaShoa service on April 24th, then please send it to Temple by April 22nd. Thank you.

ANYTOWN SELECTING DELEGATES

Anytown is a week-long leadership workshop, June 7-13, sponsored by the National Conference of Christians and Jews. The camp setting offers sports, recreation and hikes in addition to its program developing cultural awareness, communication skills, self-image enhancement, and race relations.

Incoming high school juniors and seniors from all over Kentucky bring to Anytown and each other the experiences of their diverse cultural, ethnic, religious and economic backgrounds. They are supervised by carefully selected staff and advisors who bring their own diverse experiences and expertise to share with and guide the delegates.

If you are interested in becoming a delegate to Anytown, Kentucky, applications are available from the CKJF office (252-7622) or NCCJ (277-4434). Fees for the week are $175 including meals, transportation and housing. Partial camperships are available to those requiring financial aid.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

VOLUME 54

NO. 16

1987 - 5747

APRIL 17, 1987

IN THIS CORNER

We will hold our annual Yom HaShoa service at 8:00 P.M. on April 24th. Yom HaShoa is the day set aside by the Jewish community to remember the victims of the Holocaust. This is a sad memory knowing that 6,000,000 Jews perished, including 1,000,000 children. Nothing that we do can match the pain and trauma of the Holocaust. None of us was untouched by this event. If we didn't lose a family member, then we know someone who did. If we didn't live through it, then we know someone who did. The power of the Holocaust continues to affect much of Jewish thought and action, as well as give deeper meaning to the State of Israel.

This year at our service, we will rededicate a Torah which was confiscated by the Nazis during WW II, sent to Prague along with 1,564 other Torah scrolls, and left lying limply on their side until the early sixties. When the Westminster Synagogue in London negotiated and received the scrolls, a process began to find homes for them throughout the world.

In early February, scroll #835 became our responsibility. It came to us because so many of you contributed to the Torah Scroll Fund. A case has been built to house it on the Bimah. Now it is time for us to come together to celebrate the scroll's new life. We will use it, read it, and attempt to learn deeper meanings and insights in this special service on this important night.

OVFTS ANNUAL MEETING

In spite of our surprise snow storm, the Interim Board Meeting of the Ohio Valley Federation of Temple Sisterhoods was held in our Temple on March 31st and April 1st. A special thank you to all who gave their time and energy to this event. Joe Wile (Wolf Wile Co.), Steve Kocen, (First Security) and Rose Brazin contributed "goodies" to make our delegates feel welcome in our community. Betty Rosenthal provided a personalized horse farm visit for those who braved the elements. And we all agree that Rose Rita Wurmser can give any caterer a run for his money. But will she do weddings? Twenty-nine Sisterhood members (plus a couple of husbands) worked to make things run smoothly for our visitors from fifteen Temples in our District. Bravo!

REFORM LEADERS URGE VOTE FOR

The national leaders of Reform Judaism have appealed to Reform Jews to vote for ARZA in the elections for the World Zionist Congress. Among those issuing the appeal were Rabbi Alexander M. Schindler, President of the UAHC; Dr. Alfred Gottschalk, President of the Hebrew Union College; Rabbi Jack Stern, Jr., President of the CCAR; Dolores Wilkenfeld, President of NFTS; and Carl Burkons, President of NFTB. The leaders stated that the time has come for Reform Jews and Reform concerns to play a central role in the deliberations of the World Zionist Organization.

While all organizations work to strengthen Israel, only ARZA works day in and day out on the issues that we care about as Reform Jews.

ARZA works every day for:

- Religious rights and full equality for all Jews in Israel
- Equitable funding for Reform and Conservative religious institutions in Israel
- The Reform pioneers at our three Reform settlements (Yahel, Lotan, and Har Halutz)
- A State of Israel committed to prophetic Judaism and social justice

ARZA works every day against:

- The fanaticism of Rabbi Yitzhak Peretz, former Interior Minister, who stated that Reform Jews are leading Israel to "annihilation and destruction"
- The intolerance that leads to the disruption of Reform synagogue services in Jerusalem
- Repeated attempts to divide the Jewish world by amending the Law of Return

If you are a member of ARZA or of any other Zionist organization, you will receive a mail ballot during the 3rd week in May. It will list the names of 9 Zionist organizations. The Reform movement urges you to mark the ballot for ARZA (slate #5), and then to return it in the envelope provided.

You may vote for ARZA even if you are not an ARZA member but belong to another Zionist organization. Please remember: A vote for ARZA is not a vote against any other group. It is a vote for religious rights for Reform Jews in Israel.

Even if you belong to more than one Zionist organization, you should receive only 1 ballot, and can only vote once. BUT, IF YOU HAVE AN ARZA COUPLE MEMBERSHIP, EACH PERSON SHOULD RECEIVE A BALLOT, AND EACH IS ALLOWED TO VOTE.

A few days before getting the ballot, you will receive in the mail a booklet with the candidate lists for all 9 organizations. ARZA's list consists of 152 national and local leaders of Reform Judaism, plus alternates. The number of delegates that ARZA sends to the Congress will depend on the percentage of the total vote that ARZA receives.

ARZA IS THE ONLY ORGANIZATION THAT MAKES REFORM RIGHTS ITS TOP PRIORITY.

BECAUSE YOU CARE ABOUT ISRAEL'S ETHICAL AND RELIGIOUS FUTURE, VOTE ARZA, SLATE #5.

NAT SANDLER SELECTED AS ARZA REPRESENTATIVE

We are proud to announce that a member of our congregation, Dr. Nat Sandler, has been selected to be one of approximately 200 leaders from around the country who will represent Reform Judaism on the ARZA slate in the World Zionist Congress election.

Dr. Sandler was chosen for this honor in recognition of his commitment to Israel and his service to Reform Judaism. ARZA - the Association of Reform Zionists of America -- is the Israel arm of the Reform Movement. ARZA works to strengthen Israel politically and financially. As a Reform organization, it is particularly concerned with promoting religious rights in Israel, Progressive Judaism in Israel and equitable funding for Israel's non-Orthodox religious institutions.

Members of ARZA and of all other Zionist organizations are entitled to vote. Mail ballots will arrive during the third week in May. If you have a couple membership in ARZA, both spouses will receive ballots and may vote. Please remember that a vote for ARZA is a vote for Dr. Nat Sandler, for religious rights and full equality for Reform Jews in Israel.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

VOLUME 54

NO. 17

1987 - 5747

MAY 1, 1987

IN THIS CORNER

Seven youth in our congregation complete their formal Hebrew education in May. They studied and mastered the Hebrew alef-bet, reading and writing, and an understanding of the siddur (prayerbook). Temple Adath Israel congratulates these students with a hearty Mazal Tov on their accomplishment: Randy Fine, Laura Loventhal, Rebecca Miller, Angie Newman, Abigail Randall, Aaron Sander and Douglas Weinberg.

Enrollment in Hebrew School usually means preparation for a Bar or Bat Mitzvah. Bar/Bat Mitzvah disappeared as a life cycle ceremony near the beginning of the Reform Jewish experience in this country. The reasons varied for its removal, but Confirmation was created (borrowed from Protestantism is more correct) as the functioning ceremony.

Since the 1950's, Bar/Bat Mitzvah found its way back into Reform Judaism. Today, Confirmation still includes more participants, but more and more members of Reform Jewish congregations insist that their children become Bar/Bat Mitzvah. The two ceremonies are unique and different in intent and form. A Bar/Bat Mitzvah is an individual experience. Thirteen year old boys and girls are very much self-centered in their worldly approach. To encourage a positive group experience at that age is a devastating ordeal both for the youth and teacher.

FAMILY POT LUCK DINNER

Our final Family Shabbat pot luck dinner will be May 1, at 6:00 P.M. Everyone who attends this community Shabbat celebration enjoys the positive warm feelings that Shabbat fosters. All you need is a main course plus either a vegetable or salad and your family.

IN THIS CORNER (cont'd)

Bar/Bat Mitzvah teaches about the performance of mitzvot to the new Jewish adult, but leaves out the deep reasons of why. Confirmation, on the other hand, is a group communal experience. Confirmation concludes the formal religious school education as our youth confirm their commitment to Judaism. Deeper understanding of mitzvot and Jewish values are taught so that our youth will see the benefit of living Jewish lives.

I believe that it is important and worthwhile that we send our children to Hebrew school, that they have a Bar/Bat Mitzvah ceremony, and that they participate in the group Confirmation ceremony. Each holds value, but together they add to our youth's Jewish identity.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Our Passover Seder was a great success this year. It was exciting to see all of the classes participate in the preparation of the seder. The children enjoyed making charoses, hard-boiled eggs, matzah covers, decorating cups for the oppressed Jews throughout the world, napkin holders, creating centerpieces and even setting the table.

Thank you to the Sisterhood for helping to provide the food. A very special thanks to Sandy Adland and Elayne Crystal for conducting the services for the 3 year olds through second grade and to Rick Arenstein for leading the service for third through seventh grades.

Marsha Matthews
Principal

FOUR YEAR OLD CLASS

It has been an exciting Passover in our class. The children made matzah (with paint and straw blowing), went on a matzah hunt, played Passover Concentration and learned many songs about Passover. I think their favorite song was "Listen King Pharoah -- please let my people go."

The next few weeks we will be learning about Shevuot, Yom Ha'atzmaut and doing a special project for the end of the year.

Parents of these children should feel proud of how they have matured and developed this year. I can hardly believe it will soon be over; I look forward to starting again next fall.

Elayne Crystal
Teacher

FIRST GRADE CLASS

The first grade class has been discussing Israel. We learned about Jerusalem, the capital Tel Aviv - the largest city, and Haifa - the major port. We talked about the climate, the languages spoken and the different people who live in Israel. We also viewed slides of the country.

In preparing for Passover, we studied the holiday from the historical perspective and how it is celebrated today. We learned that the haggadah is an historical diary of the Jewish people. We made a time-line of pictures of the Passover story as described in the haggadah. We model seder. We had fun working a crossword puzzle using Passover words.

SEDER

Joseph Burg, a leader of Israel's National Religious Party for the last 40 years, recently warned in a New York press conference that ARZA and Reform Judaism are "trying to muscle in on the Zionist movement" in upcoming elections for the World Zionist Congress. Burg expressed fear that if Reform Jews score a victory in the elections, they will use their position to seek equal status for the Reform movement in Israel, and will try to limit allocations to Israel's non-Zionist yeshivas, which urge their students to avoid service in the Israeli army. Burg attacked Reform Judaism for its failure to recognize the "absolute necessity of having the religious law of Israel (the halukah) as the one and only law in order to preserve the character" of the Jewish state.

Burg had come to the United States in order to mobilize the Orthodox Zionist world for the Congress elections. He called on American Orthodoxy to resist "encroachments" by Reform elements. The reason for his strident attacks is that the stakes in the election are high. The World Zionist Congress is officially charged with representing the interests and concerns of Diaspora Jewry to the Government of Israel. A large Reform delegation, committed to pluralism and Reform rights, could not be ignored by Israeli leaders. In addition, the Congress controls an annual budget of $60 million, which is spent on cultural, educational and youth programs. A large ARZA presence would insure that, for the first time, Reform-sponsored programs would receive a fair share of those funds.

You can help the Reform movement to achieve its goals and win a major victory in the election by voting for the ARZA slate. You will receive a mail ballot in May. A vote for ARZA is a vote for Reform Judaism.

SOCIAL CONCERNS

SPECIAL GUEST AT TEMPLE SERVICES
MAY 29TH

Social justice is a recurring theme for Judaism. Based on the present economics and social climate in the United States, what is in store for us?

The Social Concerns Committee is sponsoring Dr. Joseph Krislov, professor of economics from the University of Kentucky as the guest speaker for May 29, 1987 after Shabbat services.

Dr. Krislov will discuss social justice and other issues in his talk to the congregation.

IN THIS CORNER

At my recent Central Conference of American Rabbis convention, two themes emerged from the discussions and addresses. First, kedusha--Holiness appeared. Kedusha is that value or quality which we search for in our lives. Holiness is difficult to describe in words, but can be felt at moments when we achieve or contribute something which brings us into a direct relationship with the divine.

Most of us, I believe, consider that an encounter with God will be realized only with thunder or lighting, or something which says that this is a Holy moment. We pass over those human moments that seem insignificant, but truly add to the kedusha of the individual, and even more so, the world. One problem is that we do not always see the world through our Jewish eyes. Thus, we miss an opportunity to reflect on our heritage or to teach our children that what we our doing has been done for centuries by our ancestors. Kedusha is possible at all times.

This led to the next theme: the Reform Jew. For many years, Reform Jews perceived Judaism as the absence or negation of tradition or ritual. That is not what Reform Judaism taught. Rather, Reform Judaism, her rabbis and lay leaders, struggled with the harmonization between the religious and secular worlds, attempting to balance and stabilize these two integrating them into one.

One speaker noted that we need to consider not the Jew, but Jewish. How do we as Jews display our Jewishness in our daily lives? This is a great concern to rabbis and Reform Jewish leaders. Each of us in our personal lives must ask not what we are, but how we utilize what we are to enhance our lives, the lives of our family and those others with whom we are in contact. Tradition provides us with mitzvot, life cycles, holidays, tzedakkah, and deeds of lovingkindness. If we remember that each of these is a way to kedusha and a way to enhance Reform Judaism, then we will encounter the divine.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

FROM THE PRINCIPAL

We have had a very successful school year. I wish to offer my appreciation to Connie Loventhal, Rick Arenstein and the rest of the Religious School Committee for their help and support. Rabbi Adland has been a great asset to us and the staff has done a terrific job. In fact, all of our teachers are returning next year! Senior Block teachers are already working on their courses.

Many thanks to Carol Arenstein, Betsy Bennett, Faith Cole, Michelle Erdmann, Bobbi Fried, Terry Goldfarb, Gloria Harris, Paula Harrison, Nancy Hoffman, Sally Kocen, Connie Loventhal, Ranelle Mackey and Lynn McCreary for their help with the teacher appreciation luncheon.

Marsha Matthews, Principal

SENIOR BLOCK - "BIBLE OVERVIEW"

We have thoroughly discussed the Ten Commandments. The teacher would read a familiar passage in the Bible and the students would locate it. For example, during Passover, they found how the Bible corresponded with the Haggadah. The class also discussed the 23rd Psalm and psalms for the hospital, Jonah and the Whale, Deuteronomy, "clean and unclean", proverbs, Job and the writings of KETUBAH. The students discovered that to live a Jewish life is to live a giving life and to extend a helping hand.

Norman Allweiss, Teacher

BAT MITZVAH

We invite you to worship with us at the Bat Mitzvah of our daughter, Rhoda Ann, on Friday, May 15, 1987 at 8:00 P.M. at Temple Adath Israel.

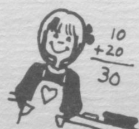

An Oneg Shabbat will follow the service. You are also invited to an open house at our home at 2833 Yellowstone Parkway starting at 8:00 P.M. on Saturday, May 16th.

Susan and Austin Cantor

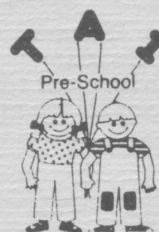

SENIOR BLOCK - "DEATH AND DYING"

Death is part of life. Our students who took "Death and Dying" now understand that. In this course, the students were introduced to the concept of dying with dignity and the Hospice Movement. We studied Jewish rituals and traditions surrounding death - the funeral service, burial and the mourning period. We toured the Lexington Cemetery and Milward's Funeral Home. In addition, the students studied grief, wrote ethical wills, obituaries and letters of condolence.

Library News

The library of Temple Adath Israel would like to thank the Robert Randall family for their donation of the book In Face of Danger by Mona Koz. This novel is for young adults aged 12 to 15. While residing with a German family, English born Ann Lindsay discusses that Fran Meixner, whose son is a member of the Hitler Youth, is hiding two Jewish girls in the attic.

New books have been arriving at the library and are being processed for use by the congregation. Some of these new books are:

The Physician by Noah Gordon - This novel is set in 11th century England and tells the story of a man who poses as a Jew to learn medicine in the schools of Persia.

Security on Armageddon-Israel's Nuclear Strategy by Louis R. Beres - This non-fiction work examines Israel's military policies and nuclear capability.

Breaking The Silence by Walter Lagneur - This is the story of Edward Schulte, a German industrialist, who risked everything to tell the world of the fate of Jews in Hitler's Europe.

My Sister's Wedding by Richard Rosenblum - This children's book describes a Jewish wedding and all preparations; it is set in the 1940's.

The Encyclopedia of the Jewish Religion edited by R.J. Zwi Werblowsky - a one-volume encyclopedia which was first published in Israel has concise entries and cross-reference to lead to complementary terms.

Good-bye, Glamour Girl by Erika Tanor - A young adult novel for ages 10 and up - set in World War II Manhattan; this story is of a young German girl who moves to America to leave Hitler and Vienna.

Isaac Bashevis Singer - The Story of a Storyteller by Paul Kresh - a biography of this well known Jewish author is presented in this book for young adults for ages 10 to 15.

FIFTH SABRA REFORM RABBI ORDAINED IN JERUSALEM

On November 6, 1986, Uri Regev became the fifth Sabra to complete the Israeli rabbinical program of the Hebrew Union College in Jerusalem. Rabbi Regev will work as an instructor in Israel. He currently serves as director of ARZA's Law of Return Action Center.

Reform leaders see the training of Israeli-born rabbis as a matter of great significance for the future of Progressive Judaism in Israel. The Reform movement's prospects in Israel will depend on its ability to develop an indigenous leadership, both lay and rabbinic. Rabbi Regev's ordination is another important step in this direction.

You can help advance the cause of Reform rights in Israel by casting your vote for ARZA, the Reform Zionist organization, in the upcoming elections for the World Zionist Congress.

SPECIAL GUEST AT TEMPLE SERVICES MAY 29, 1987

Social justice is a recurring theme for Judaism. Based on the present economic and social climate in the United States, what is in store for us?

The Social Concerns Committee is sponsoring Dr. Joseph Krislov, professor of economics at the University of Kentucky as the guest speaker for May 29th, 1987 after Shabbat services.

Dr. Krislov will discuss social justice and other issues in his talk to the congregation which is entitled "The Social Climate of the 90's."

On Tuesday, May 26th at 12 noon sharp, the Mitzvah Corps will have its closing pot luck luncheon. It would be very helpful if all of you would come about 15 or 20 minutes earlier so we can set up buffet tables together.

So "listen up" all you good Jewish cooks, for this your time to shine.

Our guest entertainer will be June McCubbin, with compliments of the U.K. Chautauqua Series. June calls her presentation "Music with a Smile". Many of you probably remember her well.

So do come, you will be glad that you did. It will be so good to see you.

MAY 29, 1987

IN THIS CORNER

This is my last bulletin article for this year. A glorious year it has been for this congregation with the introduction of new programs and enhanced participation by the congregational community. There is still one area of significant importance to this Temple's welfare that must be addressed not only by committee, but everyone who cares about the future of TAI.

Every congregation's strength is in membership. Not just getting new members, but welcoming them into our congregational family with love, warmth and caring. When a new family or individual moves to Lexington and contacts the Temple concerning membership, we must be prepared to respond with appropriate signs that we want them to share their Judaism with us.

Our membership committee is discussing various methods of response to potential new members. This is the time of year to consider membership. The summer is the period when we gain most of our new families. Several ideas are on the table for attention. We are looking for people who will host new members for a Shabbat dinner and then come with them to Erev Shabbat services. The same holds true for those families with no relations in town at holiday celebrations. Wouldn't it be nice to provide a family setting at Passover or Rosh Hashanah or Yom Kippur for our new members?

50 YEARS

MRS. SHERMAN E. MILLER TO BE HONORED

At our Shabbat service on Friday, June 5, 1987, the Youth Education Committee and the Temple Sisterhood will honor Mrs. Sherman E. Miller for her countless years of teaching our Jewish youth.

Mrs. Miller began teaching in our Religious School when she was seventeen years old. She was an outstanding teacher then, and is an outstanding teacher now. She inspires our Jewish youth, instilling in them a sense of Jewish pride and heritage. Mrs. Miller's winning combination of love of youth, love of Judaism and love of study makes her an invaluable asset to our Religious school. She has taught Jewish History, Holidays and Festivals, and Holocaust as well as a host of other subjects to our Junior and Senior High students. When asked what was her favorite course, she replied, "I love them all". What other answer could one expect from such a dedicated teacher who has been able to impart her love of Judaism unto our children!

We want to invite the entire congregation to join with the Temple Sisterhood, the Youth Education Committee and the Miller family in a long overdue recognition of one of our finest teachers, Mrs. Sherman E. Miller.

THE PERFECT RABBI

The results of a computerized survey indicate the perfect rabbi preaches exactly fifteen minutes. He condemns sin but never upsets anyone. He works from 8:00 A.M. until midnight and is also a janitor. He makes $50 a week, wears good clothes, buys good books, drives a good car and gives about $50 weekly to the poor. He is 28 years old and has preached 30 years. He has a burning desire to work with teenagers and spends all of his time with senior citizens. The perfect rabbi smiles all the time with a straight face because he has a sense of humor that keeps him seriously dedicated to his work. He makes 15 calls daily on congregation families, shut-ins and the hospitalized, and is always in his office when needed. If your rabbi does not measure up, simply send this letter to six other synagogues that are tired of their rabbi, too. Then bundle up your rabbi and send him to the synagogue at the top of the list. In one week, you will receive 1,643 rabbis and one of them will be perfect. Have faith in this procedure. One congregation broke the chain and got its old rabbi back in less than three months.

A LETTER OF THANKS

To Rabbi Jon Adland,

I want to thank you for all the help you gave me with the Passover Seder which I arranged during the National Association of Insurance Commissioner's meeting in Lexington. Without your help, I could not have arranged that Seder and made it the success which I am told it was. Unfortunately, because of the death of my father on Monday morning, April 13th, I was unable to attend the Seder. However, many of the attendees told me that it was a very meaningful evening for them. I know that those who took over for me made special mention of how much help you had given me and the loan by Temple Adath Israel of the Hagaddahs and other items.

It is heart warming to know that one can go into a community where one is not known and still find Jews who are willing to help another when the holidays arrive. Please accept my heartfelt thanks and express my thanks also to your congregation for all of the help.

Sincerely,

Rachel Rivlin
VP & Assoc. General
Counsel, Lexington
Insurance Company

NO. 2

1987-5747

SEPTEMBER 11, 1987

IN THIS CORNER

The excitement begins to build at Temple Adath Israel as we prepare for the New Year. The summer passed quickly, but not without a few significant moments. ARZA, our Reform Jewish Zionist organization, won a major victory in the World Zionist Organization's elections, capturing 33 seats which landed it in second place behind Hadassah. Our local agency, Community Kitchen, received a significant grant from MAZON, a Jewish organization fighting hunger in America. This was partly a result of the many individuals who have participated by sharing their good fortune with those who are in need.

During the months of July & August, many of our committees met to prepare for this year. Soon, you will receive an Adult Education brochure detailing much of the coming year's activities. Please note that on Sunday evening, September 13th, our major speaker, Nehama Aschkenasy will deliver her talk. Outreach, Singles, Young Couples and LEXTY are well planned with wonderful programs. Religious School, Sisterhood and Brotherhood will be in high gear as you read this article.

I am excited that so much is happening in our beautiful building. During the coming months, I hope many of you will take advantage of our Temple's programming. I look forward to seeing all of you.

On behalf of Sandy and Joshua, L'Shana Tova - A Happy New Year. May this year be filled with happiness, sweetness, health and renewed commitment to our Temple and Reform Judaism.

Nehama Aschkenasy, Ph.D. Noted author and lecturer will speak at Temple Adath Israel on Sunday, September 13 from 8 to 9 P.M.

An Informal presentation and pot luck dinner from 5:15 to 7:30 P.M. will also be held at the Temple.

Both events are open to the public and free of charge.

 (2nd row) Shayna Lerner, Joshua Randall, Brian Nigoff, Melinda Mersack and Joshua Fried

The children from our congregation, along with Rabbi Jon and Sandy Adland, and Joshua attended our Regional Reform Jewish Camp, Goldman Union Camp Institute, in Zionsville, Indiana. For nine of the ten, it was their first experience at G.U.C.I. and for all a great time. Hopefully, more of our youth will attend next summer. The camp offers Judaism, sports, arts and crafts and Jewish children, all set in a total Reform Jewish setting. Later this fall more information will be available. Keep this 4 week summer alternative an option for your children.

MEMORIAL BOOKLET

It is a tradition of long standing to honor the memory of departed ones and friends with special acts of kindness and Tzedakah during the High Holy Days. One opportunity for an act of remembrance is offered through the Memorial Booklet.

Though there is no charge for such requested memorial listings, it is hoped that most people will be pleased to make a donation of at least $5 per name.

The Memorial Booklet Fund not only pays for the booklet, but has also been used to enhance worship services through the purchase of new hymnals and Torah commentaries.

Names on our sanctuary's memorial tablet as well as the names of those who died in the past year are automatically listed in the booklet. All listings under a personal heading (i.e. "Remembered by...,") will appear only by request. Detach this form and send to the Temple office. Include a donation if you wish, making your check payable to Temple Adath Israel. Requests must be received by Friday, September 18, 1987.

HIGH HOLIDAY INFO

Temple Adath Israel membership cards for the adults in the family who are Temple members in good standing will be sent via the mail. These cards are to be presented for admission to High Holy Days services. Tickets for out-of-town guests should be obtained as soon as possible from the Temple office.

Baby sitting will be available at the 7 P.M. service on both Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur.

During the morning service, there will be programming for 3 year olds through third grade and babysitting for children under 3. A letter with details will be mailed at the end of August.

PARKING FOR HIGH HOLY DAYS SERVICES

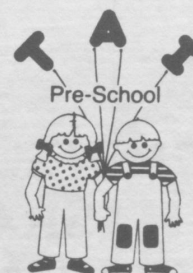

In the event that our parking lot is filled to capacity, the Ashland Avenue Baptist Church has again been kind enough to allow us the use of its parking lots during our services, except on Wednesday, September 23rd. (Rosh Hashanah Eve) Do not use the church lots that evening, as they will need them. At other times, please do not park in the staff spaces beside the church. The parking lots we may use are located behind 155 N. Ashland and behind 713 Franklin.

We earnestly solicit your cooperation in maintaining an atmosphere of quiet dignity and reverence in the Sanctuary.

Even a few whispered words can disturb the mood of prayer.

BABYSITTING AVAILABLE FRIDAY NIGHTS

TAI is again proud to offer babysitting during Friday evening services. There is no charge for this service. Children and infants are welcome. Parents must supply diapers. We offer this program so that parents of young children can attend services freely and comfortably. Babysitting is offered every Shabbat except Family nights (the second Friday of each month) and when noted in the Bulletin.

TAI PRE-SCHOOL

There will be a seminar sponsored by TAI Preschool held in the Temple library each Wednesday for 6 weeks beginning September 16th to through October 21st from 9:30 A.M. to 11:30 A.M. This course is called "Parent's of 3's, 4's & 5's" and it is led by Elise Wallace of Parent's Place. She will be discussing the characteristics of these specific age groups and answering questions on handling discipline and other problems that may be puzzling parents. The cost is $36 for the six week session. If you are interested in registering for this highly informative class, please call Parent's Place at 268-4292.

Sally Kocen, Director

YOUNG COUPLES

There are approximately 50 young couples in TAI. The young couples group (YCG) will be scheduling one event per month starting this September with a wine and cheese party. Details about each event will be given in later bulletins. A complete schedule of activities for the year will be mailed to you in the near future. We encourage and solicit your support/participation. We hope to have a great turn-out for our September event.

BULLETIN DEADLINE

The next Bulletin deadline for articles to be published is August 27th. This will cover weeks of 9-11 thru 9-18. It will be mailed the week ending September 11th.

HAVE YOU CHECKED THE TEMPLE LIBRARY RECENTLY? Books may be checked out during daily office hours, Sunday mornings and Friday evenings.

The Library Committee wishes to thank Mr. & Mrs. Sam Marks of Louisville for their donation to purchase a children's book for the library. With this donation, we have acquired Anne Frank Remembered by Miep Gies. This book is written by Anne Frank's friend whose family hid the Franks during the war.

The following books have been added to the Temple Library:

Semites and Anti-Semites - An Inquiry Into Conflict and Prejudice by Bernard Lewis - deals with Anti-Semitism in the Middle East between the Arabs and the Jews.

The Secret Mission of Christopher Columbus by Simon Wiesenthal - this book, written originally in German, relates Columbus' connection with the Jews.

MEMORIAL BOOKLET

It is a tradition of long standing to honor the memory of departed ones and friends with special acts of kindness and Tzedakah during the High Holy Days. One opportunity for an act of remembrance is offered through the Memorial Booklet.

Though there is no charge for such requested memorial listings, it is hoped that most people will be pleased to make a donation of at least $5 per name.

The Memorial Booklet Fund not only pays for the booklet, but has also been used to enhance worship services through the purchase of new hymnals and Torah commentaries.

Names on our sanctuary's memorial tablet as well as the names of those who died in the past year are automatically listed in the booklet. All listings under a personal heading (i.e. "Remembered by...") will appear only by request. Detach this form and send to the Temple office. Include a donation if you wish, making your check payable to Temple Adath Israel. Requests must be received by Friday, September 18, 1987.

SEPTEMBER 25, 1987

IN THIS CORNER

This month the United States Senate is considering the appointment of a new Supreme Court Justice. President Reagan submitted Judge Robert Bork's name for consideration. His nomination has caused quite a stir among liberals and civil rights groups in this country who believe that Judge Bork will undermine many of the gains and strides this country has made regarding civil rights. These groups are lobbying hard to stop the Bork nomination, saying he would vote to reverse decades of progress in such areas as abortion, affirmative action and civil liberties.

The Union of American Hebrew Congregations opposes Bork's nomination as his judicial decisions run contrary to many of the resolutions adopted at Biennial Conventions. In particular, the UAHC is concerned about Bork's record regarding Church-State, civil rights, women rights, and privacy.

Lawyers are closely divided on whether Judge Bork should be confirmed to the Supreme Court. They question Bork's criticism of Roe v. Wade, the Court's 1973 landmark decision that banned most state restrictions on abortion; Bork's firing of Watergate special prosecutor Archibald Cox; and the effect Bork would have on the Supreme Court's direction, moving it from center left to the right.

SUKKOT INVITATION

Rabbi Jon & Sandy Adland cordially invite the Temple Adath Israel community to their second annual Sukkot Open House - Sunday, October 11, from 3:00 - 5:00 P.M. at 4557 Prince Albert Way.

In the event of rain, the Open House will be held at the Temple auditorium from 3-5 P.M.

I am concerned that Bork will reverse some of the important gains that minorities have successfully won through previous court decisions. If you feel as I do, then write to Senator Ford and express your opinion. According to information I received, his vote is a swing vote. It could be crucial in determining whether Judge Bork wins Senate confirmation or not. Let us act now to preserve the liberties of this land.

NO. 4

1987-5748

OCTOBER 9, 1987

'N THIS CORNER

On Wednesday evening, October 14, at 7:00 P.M., we will hold our annual Consecration ceremony. Reform Jewish practice assigned the Consecration ceremony to the celebration of Simchat Torah, the day we rejoice over the Torah. Just as begin reading the first words from the book of Genesis, so too, do we honor the beginning of our children's religious education.

This year's Consecration class is: Ryan Cole, Amy Rosner, Jackie White, Ben Wides, Justin Wides. We congratulate these children on their Consecration and we anticipate lives filled with Torah and good deeds.

The fact that Consecration falls on Simchat Torah reminds us that Judaism is a religion in which the family plays an important role. As parents, we see that our children attend Religious School, celebrate the Holidays, and develop a feeling for being Jewish. TAI helps the family celebrate Judaism by offering Family Shabbat Pot-Luck dinners, Family Night Shabbat Services, as well as Sunday morning Adult Education to help parents with their Jewish knowledge making it easier to teach their own children.

This year on Simchat Torah, let us join with our Consecration Class and celebrate Torah, Judaism, and our next generation of Jewish adults.

Rabbi Jon Adland

SUKKOT YIZKOR SERVICE

OCTOBER 15, 1987

Jewish tradition specifies that we hold Memorial Services four times a year: Yom Kippur, at the end of Sukkot, Pesach and Shavuot.

Our Sukkot Yizkor Service will be held on Thursday morning, October 15 at 8:00 A.M. Please take this opportunity to gather as a community to remember those who came before us.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Religious School has had a very exciting beginning. I want to thank Carol Arenstein and Connie Loventhal for their help on Registration Day; Rick Arenstein, Chairman of the Youth Education Committee and Sally Kocen, Co-Chairman, for their assistance whenever needed; and Chela Kaplan for taking photographs of our Religious School families.

Alice Weber will be our Sunday School Hebrew teacher this year. We now have 141 students enrolled who are fortunate to have super teachers.

Please come visit us!

Marsha Matthews
Principal

3 YEAR OLD CLASS

The three year old class is off to a great start, with Joshua Adland, Leah Biel, Debbie Cohen, Joseph Pollock, Hart Cole, Joel White and Brian Silberman. Holiday celebrations have been the focus of our first few classes, though we will soon begin a unit on the Jewish Senses. We look forward to a fun year of learning and discovery of the children's sense of being Jewish.

Riki Lawrence, Teacher

4 YEAR OLD CLASS

In the four year old class we are working on the importance in Judaism of sharing and helping others. We do this each week by giving to Tzedakah. The children are also learning that we use the same word in Hebrew for hello and goodbye-Shalom.

We have been studying the High Holy Days and will be learning and talking about each holiday as it appears.

Betsy Wides, Teacher

KINDERGARTEN

We have been busy in Kindergarten learning about the High Holy Days. We celebrated the birthday of the world for Rosh HaShanah. Also, we learned the story of King Solomon and the Bee.

The children discussed how we should be nice and kind to others as one day they may be able to help us. We then applied this to how bees help us by making honey which we use for Rosh HaShanah.

What a nice treat it was to have apples and honey for snack. Thank you, bees, for all your hard work in providing us with a Sweet New Year.

Elayne Crystal, Teacher

CONSECRATION

Consecration of our Religious School students will be on October 14 with service starting at 7:00 P.M. The following children are included in this year's consecration class:

Ryan Cole, son of Robert & Karen Cole

Amy Rosner, daughter of Lewis & Ellen Rosner

Jackie White, daughter of Danny & Gigi White

Ben Wides, son of Steve & Adrienne Wides

Justin Wides, son of Mark & Yvonne Wides

SISTERHOOD NEWS

SISTERHOOD OFF TO A PROMISING YEAR

Our opening luncheon was a tremendous success. The menu featured a salad bar, provided by the Sisterhood Board members, followed by an ice cream sundae bar.

Chuckles, giggles and guffaws filled the auditorium as Dr. Michael R. Nichols spoke and joked about humor and its healing power.

The Sisterhood Board provided a tasty lunch and special thanks are due to Janet Zusman, Hospitality Chairman and to Harriet Rose, Program Chairman.

Thanks to the efforts of co-chairs, Betsy Wides and Mindy Heller, and their committee, the Wine & Cheese Party was an enjoyable affair. Music and candle light (and lots of wine and cheese) helped turn the Temple library into a warm gathering place to meet new and greet old members.

Both of these events were well attended. Let's keep up the enthusiasm and participation.

OCTOBER SISTERHOOD MEETING JOINT EFFORT FEATURING FILM AND SPEAKER

Our Sisterhood will join with Hadassah and the Sisterhood of Ohavay Zion Synagogue on Tuesday, October 13 at the synagogue, 2048 Edgewater Court, for two showings of "Avanti Popolo": 9:00-11:30 A.M. and 8:00-10:30 A.M.

The Israeli film explores the feelings of Israeli and Arab soldiers following the 1967 war. Chava Cohen, the cultural representative from Israel (Schlichta) stationed in Louisville, will lead a discussion following each viewing of "Avanti Popolo".

Sisterhood members are encouraged to select the most convenient meeting time and to bring guests to this exciting and informative event. Refreshments will be served and your RSVP to the Temple office would be greatly appreciated.

BLOOD DONOR HONOR ROLL FOR AUGUST

You are all terrific. Sisterhood and I thank you. We already are off to a great start.

Come on now friend, you that have never given, try it, you'll like it and you'll feel good about yourself. All others, do continue to give.

Lore Gutmann Pappas, R.N.
Blood Drive Chairman

ATTENTION ALL TEMPLE MEMBERS

BE ON THE LOOKOUT

While taking inventory of our silver, I have found that eight (8) trays are missing from the Temple. Sometimes leftovers are taken home after a Bar/Bat Mitzvah or wedding. Please check to see if you have one of the Temple's silver trays. We use these trays quite frequently and need to see if the lost ones can be found.

Also, please look into the ice bin next to the refrigerator at the Temple where we have stored containers left by people bringing in food. Please take your containers home.

Bobbi Fried
House Chairman

THANKS TO ALL

I want to thank all the children who attended the High Holy Days Children's Program. I hope you all had fun learning about Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur.

A very special thanks goes to all the parents and youth group members who so willingly volunteered their time to help the children have a delightful and meaningful Holy Day program. Believe me, this could not have been successful without each and everyone of you. I know the children enjoyed the music portion led by Mike Lerner and listening to Cokie Hymson blow the shofar. Thank you both very much.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

VOLUME 55

NO. 5

1987 - 5748

OCTOBER 23, 1987

IN THIS CORNER

Jewish life holds many experiences which can be affirmed on a daily, weekly, monthly, or yearly cycle. Revealing these aspects of Judaism to our children is one of the many responsibilities of being a Jewish parent. On a daily basis, we can say HaMotzi before eating our meal, therefore thanking God for the food we are about to eat. Weekly, we bring our children to Religious School, enhancing their Jewish awareness and deepening their understanding about our people's past and present. Yearly, we celebrate the holidays and festivals as they appear on the Jewish calendar explaining to our children their significance thus affirming the holidays place of honor in our Jewish lives.

Commencing on November 13, for the second year, Temple Adath Israel will offer a monthly family program:

Family Shabbat Services. On the second Friday night of each month, beginning at 7:30 P.M., we will hold a worship experience for families with children from infants and older. During these services, our children whose birthdays fall during that month are offered a special blessing, and I will tell an appropriate story.

Most importantly, family attendance at this worship service sets a positive Jewish example for our children, telling them that prayer is good, that our Temple is important, and that Judaism relies on the community for its continued strength. I hope that each of you, young and old, will attend our family night services. Let us make this an inter-generational experience our children will hold onto as they grow and mature into adult Jews.

Rabbi Jon Adlant

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

SENIOR BLOCK I - ISRAEL'S LAST TWENTY YEARS - Rick Rose Teacher

This course has consisted of readings and discussions of historical developments in Israel since the Six Day War.

Subjects of concentration include current movements toward international peace conferences, and toward bilateral negotiations with individual Arab nations; matters of conflict between religious and secular Jews; the adjustment of Israel to the necessity to govern territories occupied since 1967; pressures on democratic ideals caused by the necessity to protect against terrorism; and demographic patterns endangering Israel's status as the Jewish State as the non-Jewish population rises.

We have also looked at the last twenty years of the Palestine Liberation Organization, and discussed whether Israel should permit the PLO to represent Arabs in the West Bank, Golan Heights, and Gaza in negotiations in the future.

SENIOR BLOCK I - ISRAEL: AN HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE OF THE MODERN STATE - Jeremy Popkin, Teacher

Our Senior Block class has been learning about the history of the Zionist Movement and the creation of the State of Israel.

Members of the class now know such facts as that Theodore Herzl was not the first Zionist and that the Zionists had to fight the British as much as the Arabs to create an independent Jewish State. Our class will wind up with a viewing of the film "Exodus" and a discussion of Israeli history from 1948 to 1967.

FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Senior Block I - will be completed on October 25, 1987. November 1, 1987 begins Senior Block II. Many thanks to Fannie Miller, Jeremy Popkin, and Rick Rose for a superb teaching job. The next senior block teachers will be Rabbi Adland, Fannie Miller and Susan Miller.

SENIOR BLOCK - JEWISH HISTORY I- Fannie Miller, Teacher

These students in the Senior Block course in Jewish History I - have completed the first part of their study. This course dealt primarily with the period in which Judaism was formed and grew to maturity, to the time of the American Revolution. Emphasis was placed on Jewish History in relation to World History - how Jews have affected the non-Jewish world and been influenced by it. The text we used was "My People - Abba Eban's History of the Jews."

MAZAL TOV

To Randy and Marianne Waldman on the birth of their daughter, Lyndsey Elizabeth Waldman, on Friday, October 2, 1987. Grandparents are Ida & Lester Waldman.

To Mark and Mary Simon on the birth of their daughter, Nora Karen Simon, on Sunday, October 11, 1987.

To Mary Birenbaum on being elected 2nd vice president of the Wilderness Road Girl Scout Council.

To LEXTY on receiving the Tikkun Olam Award. This award is for the Youth Group that fulfilled high programmatic goals in the areas of Myself - My World - My Judaism. This award was received for the 1986-87 year. Stephen Miller was program vice-president during this period.

SOCIAL CONCERNS COMMITTEE

What is Temple Social Action?

Temple social action is the process of translating the principles of Judaism into action in our committee, the nation, and the world, throughout the Synagogue. It is the contemporary expression of the passion for social justice which characterized the prophets of Israel and which is intrinsic in Judaism.

Members of the Temple are involved with several local organizations, and in a personal way are carrying forward these principles. One visible reminder is the food collection for God's pantry currently going on at the Temple. As was done last year, clothing is also needed and will be collected. The details for the clothing collection will be published in a later bulletin.

The Community Kitchen, which is a non-profit, multi-service organization, providing "life sustaining/life rebuilding" services free of charge to the homeless and poor of Lexington, is an organization the Temple has been working with. While donations of food, clothing, and money are always needed, so is the more personal commitment of time and effort from volunteering. They have need for people to help serve meals on Wednesday mornings and to help counsel "clients" through their "personal needs department" on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday mornings. If you are interested in helping those less fortunate and in enriching your own life by volunteering, please call Ms. Alpha Pierce, Volunteer Coordinator for the Community Kitchen at 255-4547.

In addition, the Congregation might form a group of 4 to 8 people to work at the Community Kitchen once a month on a regular basis. This would either be on a weekend or on a Monday night. If you are interested please contact Martin Kaplan or Jo Belin, co-chairman.

The committee is open to all members of the congregation and seeks your help and ideas in developing and organizing for these and other activities. Please join us at our next meeting at the Temple, Monday, November 9 at 7:45 P.M.

BROTHERHOOD NEWS

The first two meetings are history. The first meeting was extremely well attended thanks to the efforts of the officers and especially the membership chairman, Austin Cantor. Plans for the year were discussed including those for increased programming. Many in attendance stayed to help erect the Succah. Special thanks to Austin Cantor and Martin Friedman who helped to finish construction, to Jerry Wurmser who delivered the corn stalks and to Harold Frankel who provided the corn stalks.

Special thanks also to all of the Brotherhood members and board members who ushered for the High Holy Day services.

We have planned programs through the year, not only for Brotherhood members but for all the congregation. Watch for announcements.

For those of you with good intentions, but poor memories, it is never too late to pay Brotherhood dues. These can be sent to the Temple, Martin Friedman or Paul Goldfarb.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

IN THIS CORNER

In the most recent issue of Moment magazine, a letter to the editor was printed from a couple who recently returned from a trip to the Soviet Union. While in the USSR, they visited with four "refusenik" families. The couple commented on the fact that three of the four families asked for copies of this American Jewish monthly periodical. Evidently, this magazine is carried into the Soviet Union by American travelers and left there for Soviet Jews to read. An editor's note followed the letter saying, "To give Moment regularly to a "refusenik", see our special refusenik gift subscription offer."

This is an intriguing idea. If we can't bring Soviet Jews to Judaism, let's bring Judaism to the Soviet Jews. Pamela Braun Cohen, national president of the Union of Councils for Soviet Jews writes, "When you bring Moment to "refuseniks", it's like bringing them gold."

Each person who pays for a subscription will learn the name of the Soviet Jewish citizen who receives the magazine. (Inside this bulletin is a subscription form with other details.) There is reason to hope that the citizen-to-citizen subscription drive will be successful in the era of glasnost. Moment promises that any refusal by the Soviet government to deliver the magazine will be followed with further steps taken to make delivery possible. At this time seven U.S. Representatives and two U.S. Senators are participating in this new idea. I hope each of you will participate in this unique idea. In any way that we can improve the quality of Jewish life for our brothers and sisters in the Soviet Union, we must take that opportunity.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

FROM THE PRINCIPAL

FIRST GRADE

Anita Mersack, Teacher

In first grade we have been studying the many holidays that come at the beginning of our school year. We blew the Shofar, and ate apples and honey for Rosh HaShanah, made New Year Resolutions for Yom Kippur, made a lulav for Sukkot, and made a Torah for Simchat Torah. We will soon start to learn about Mitzvot. We are also enjoying learning Hebrew with Alice Weber.

SECOND GRADE

Sandy Adland, Teacher

The second grade class is off to a great start. We spend several weeks learning about Rosh HaShanah, Yom Kippur, Sukkot and Simchat Torah through games, songs, storytelling, and other learning activities. The students even learned how to perform the shofar calls. Recently we explored changes around us in nature in order to learn about Jewish life cycle events. In addition, we viewed and discussed an array of Jewish ceremonial objects, relating them to their corresponding holiday. Our favorite activity thus far? Learning to braid challah!

THIRD GRADE

Beth Mersack, Teacher

The third grade is off to a great start this year. With 18 students, we always have an enthusiastic class that is ready to participate! Our first couple of weeks were spent on holiday studies and crafts. Now we are learning about God's creations. We took a nature walk and learned Hebrew words for some of the things we saw including flowers, grass and the sky. This past week we made a sharing table of things that were all created by God such as rocks, shells, water and twigs. We then made a collage that was titled "I think of God when...".

FOURTH GRADE

Phyllis Russell, Teacher

It is a time for apples, honey and fasting
and for the blasting of the Shofar.

There is no doubt about it,
the New Year is here.
Because the air is crisp
and clear

By Emily Fried

Fourth grade students have been celebrating the holidays by composing verses for New Year cards, eating apples and honey and hanging decorations in the Temple succah.

We have also toured the Temple noting the many special services and functions it provides for the Jewish community.

Our future lessons will include recognition of the Torah and Talmud, and writing our "Talmud - Fourth Grade."

HOW TO WARM UP THE TEMPLE AT THE ONEG SHABBAT

- Greet the people whom you know, but spend time with those whom you do not know. Make a point of getting to know one or two people to whom you have never talked before.

- If you are not certain whether a person is a visitor or an old member, a word of greeting usually brings out the fact very quickly.

- Who breaks the ice? The chances are that if you do not know who he is, he does not have much of an idea who you are either. Don't pretend to know his name if you really don't. You might have to introduce him to somebody who walks up, and then what?

- Watch for unfamiliar faces standing around nursing a coffee cup and looking lost. Try to avoid forming tight little knots with your cronies. This discourages those who see all the chumminess. They think you are cold to "outsiders."

- Bring the newcomer over to meet the rabbi for a word of personal welcome.

- Tell the newcomer about the various activities of the Temple.
This may be tough; you have to find out about them yourself first! All of this is calculated to send people away with a sermon in their mind and a song in their heart. A friendly temple is not a happenstance; it is YOUR creation.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

VOLUME 55

NO. 6

1987-5748

NOVEMBER 20, 1987

IN THIS CORNER

The Goldman Union Camp Institute, G.U.C.I., in Zionsville, Indiana is our Reform Jewish summer camp for children entering fourth grade and up. Last year ten of our youth attended this fine summer camp. This year we hope even more will go.

G.U.C.I. offers Jewish opportunities for our youth that living in Lexington, Kentucky we can't offer them. Spending four weeks in a total Jewish environment with youth from all over the Midwest can enhance and develop a child's sense of Judaism and being Jewish. At camp, along with the traditional camp activities of swimming, sports, and arts&crafts, the G.U.C.I. camper is exposed to Jewish learning including Hebrew and a study theme for the session. They also sing Hebrew and Jewish songs, observe Shabbat, discover new Jewish friends, and live Judaism. The positive nature of this Jewish camping experience can be attested to by the numbers of former campers who continue to live Jewish lives and participate in the Jewish community either as congregational lay leaders or Jewish professionals: rabbis, cantors, Jewish educators, social workers, and Jewish agency directors.

I sincerely believe that Goldman Union Camp Institute is a great Jewish camp. I have never met an individual who did not have a successful summer during one of the two four week sessions. (There are two four week sessions. All of the TAI campers attended the first session.) I would be happy to talk with any interested congregant about the possibility of sending their child to G.U.C.I. It is a significant part of our Jewish future.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

FIFTH GRADE

Diane Friedman, Teacher

The Fifth Grade has been very active this year as we learn to see the world through Jewish Eyes.

Some of our projections have been a New Year's "7 Days of Creation" mural, fables based on the Proverbs and Kosher cooking. Life cycle events are soon to follow.

Come by and see our yellow brick road wind its way to Tzedakah City!

busy over the past 2 months. We have talked about all aspects of Judaism. We have visited Hebrew Union College in Cincinnati and the new Conservative Synagogue (Ohavay Zion) here in Lexington. At HUC we were given an extensive tour of the campus and the museum. At Ohavay Zion we were welcomed by Rabbi Smith and the religious school classes. They told us about conservative Judaism, we sang songs with them and were given a tour of the beautiful new Synagogue. We will be inviting the religious school classes over to our class in the spring.

SIXTH GRADE

Fred Pollock, Teacher

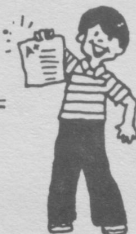

Over the past few months we have had a mini-Yesheva in our classroom with discussion of the Torah using the text "Being Torah". The meaning and interpretation of the texts have led to discussions that have had surprising depth. The students have asked questions that would cross a Rabbi's eyes.

Also, we have studied famous Jews in history and the students gave excellent reports on famous people such as Marc Chagall and Anne Frank.

SEVENTH GRADE

Elise Mandel
Roy Meckler, Teachers

The seventh grade comparative religion class has been extremely

On another Sunday, we had a guest who talked about keeping Kosher and trying Kosher foods at the large grocery stores in the Lexington area. We have also recently introduced Christianity in the class discussion. We will be having two elders from the Mormon Church (The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints) coming to talk with us.

At the end of November, we will be visited by a Catholic Father from a local church. On the next weekend, we will visit a Catholic service.

Our class will be studying the Christian religion until early spring and will visit Baptist and other Protestant groups. We are looking forward to an exciting year.

CHILDREN'S CHOIR AND DANCE

Sandy Adland, Teacher

The children's choir is practicing diligently in preparation for the upcoming Family Shabbat Service. Approximately 20 children regularly attend our Sunday morning choir rehearsal. They sound really terrific and I encourage you to hear their beautiful music at our Family Shabbat Services. Remember it's never too late for you to join.

The Israeli dance session for children held on November 1st was lots of fun. 7 children participated. We learned two dances, Zemer Atik and Hine MaTov.

During our next class on January 17, 1988, we will review the two dances and learn some more. Come and join us!

BULLETIN DEADLINES

The next bulletin deadline is December 3rd. This will cover the weeks 12-25, 1-1 and 1-8.

The second bulletin deadline is December 17th. This will cover the weeks 1-8, 1-15 and 1-22.

HAPPENINGS

JHSTYG

Our newly formed Junior High School Temple Youth Group, grades 6-8, will hold its first event on December 5th as we go bowling, then to Dairy Queen.

The cost is $6 and must be pre-paid by December 3rd. Let us join together and have a wonderful time.

RABBI KLOTZ, G.U.C.I. DIRECTOR AT TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL - DECEMBER 11

During the Family Night Shabbat on December 11th, Rabbi Ron Klotz, Goldman Union Camp Institute Director, will join us for services. Immediately following services, Rabbi Klotz will show his camp slide show and answer questions. Jewish camp is important for strength of our Jewish future and the excitement of the Jewish present.

TODAH RABAH HOWARD KEMP

The past several Bulletins' new look is a result of the talents of our new member Howard Kemp, a graphic artist. He volunteers his time to lay out and enhance our Bulletin's beauty and style. The Executive Committee and Board of Trustees offer their most sincere Thank You.

OUTREACH - DECEMBER 2ND

At our December Outreach meeting at 7:30 P.M., we will discuss the "December Dilemma." In families where the partners are from two different religious backgrounds, the month of December with its holidays may present significant problems or increased tension and pressure. This evening, we will discuss the issues of the month and learn how others cope with the "December Dilemma."

This meeting will take place at Dan & Jacalyn Sosin's home, 241 Melbourne Way (276-4386).

STEPHANIE & HOWARD KEMP

Howard and Stephanie Kemp moved to Lexington from Hollywood, Florida in August 1987. Howard is originally from Cincinnati and Stephanie is from New York. They have two children, Jessica, 9 1/2 and Michael, 4 months.

Howard does freelance art work and design. He is also Mr. Mom to Michael while Stephanie works during the day. In Florida, Howard was also a clinical social worker and family therapist. He hopes to get involved in private practice in Lexington in the future. Howard jogs, reads, does woodwork, and enjoys music. Howard is also responsible for the beautiful layout of our Temple Bulletin.

Stephanie is the new Head Nurse of Central Baptist Hospital's growing Labor and Delivery Department. She enjoys sewing, cooking, reading and in Florida she used to scuba dive. She is also a certified childbirth education instructor.

Jessica is active in Temple activities, dance, flute, chorus and horseback riding. She is very happy at Lansdowne Elementary and has many new friends.

Michael, at four months, contemplates world events and is trying to figure out how to get his pacifier back in his mouth when it falls out.

BOOKS TO SOVIET JEWS

At the last Temple Board meeting, a motion was passed to spend $250 out of the Tzedakah Fund to send Jewish religious books to Soviet Jews. This project is being coordinated through the World Jewish Congress. This organization believes that this recent era of glasnost provides an excellent opportunity to increase the Jewish resources inside the Soviet Union. (Note article on sending Moment magazine to Soviet Jewish families.) TAI participates in this worldwide Jewish project with pride and hope for the Soviet Jews.

DECEMBER 4, 1987

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Our congregation was represented (by twelve congregants) at the 59th General Assembly of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods, and North American Federation of Temple Youth held in Chicago, October 29 to November 3, 1987. Rabbi Adland, Arthur and Marilyn Lieber, Ben and Ruth Baker, David and Cheri Rose, Mary Birenbaum, Becky Birenbaum, Stephen Miller, Anita and I.

Over 800 Reform congregations from around the country came together to discuss the Jewish challenges of the 80's, from new family configurations to the impact of social and political change on the congregation. We discussed common needs and goals such as program development, Outreach, prayer, the educational use of TV and video, computers, synagogue music, adult education, AIDS, summer camps, religious and day schools, ARZA, leadership training, synagogue management, caring community, Israel, social action, Soviet Jewry and more.

The meetings lasted over 12 hours a day divided into general, group, and committee meetings. The activities are outlined in the Biennial notebook that I placed in the Temple library. Please read Rabbi Schindler's Presidential address. His words make a message powerful enough to reach into every one of our souls.

The meetings were not all talk. We had the opportunity to participate in many workshops where we interacted with people from congregations of similar size. We discussed topics from membership recruitment and motivation to balancing the budget.

On the exhibit floor, over 60 booths displayed the work of book and music publishers, Israel summer programs for teenagers, and fine artwork by many artists. Rabbi Adland began our efforts to attract a multidiscipline art exhibit to our Temple.

Shabbat was worth all the effort to attend the Biennial. Can you imagine the sensation felt being part of 4,000 committed Jews in one room gathered for worship and enveloped in the stirring melodies of a cantorial ensemble? As the author of the Biennial Summary, included in my notebook, stated, "It was there that we all understood instinctively why we had come; to renew our faith; to rejoice in our growing strength; to touch the past, and, perhaps, to glimpse the future."

During the five days, our delegates moved the Reform movement along some new paths and reaffirmed some old values. We considered resolutions ranging from a smoking ban in congregations and work places, legislation to provide primary health care needs, congregational child-care centers, broadening the use of Jewish music in worship, continuing efforts to avoid change in Israel's Law of Return, and continuing our efforts to halt Israel's involvement with South Africa.

The Reform movement is the largest and the fastest growing area of Jewish life. Please consider joining us for the Regional Assembly to be held in Louisville, October, 1988.

ARZA NEWS

KIBBUTZ YAHIEL IS 10

Kibbutz Yahel, the first Reform settlement in the State of Israel, recently celebrated its 10th anniversary. The following are some facts on Yahel, one of the Reform movement's proudest achievements:

-- The Kibbutz population stands at approximately 200, of whom 41 are children.

-- Yahel produces onions, melons, corn, grapes and pomelos, and has the largest pomelo orchard in Israel.

-- Yahel's dairy produces 1,883,000 liters of milk per year, the maximum allowed by the government.

-- Yahel's second largest industry is its tourism and seminar center, which hosts Reform high school and college groups during the summer months. It is now hoping to develop programs for trade union and kibbutz groups to increase its winter occupancy.

-- In the program sponsored by ARZA, Dr. Michael Chernick of the Hebrew Union College spends every summer teaching Talmud and rabbinics at Yahel.

-- Yahel's major challenge today is to find an industry that will provide jobs for its growing population. Yahel is searching for an industry that will employ between 15 and 20 workers, with the potential to increase that number each year.

If you have suggestions for an industry, or if you would like to visit Yahel while in Israel, contact the ARZA office, 838 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10021.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

KINDERGARTEN CLASS

Elayne Crystal, Teacher

We have been focusing on Bible stories and have seen interesting filmstrips from the TAI library. ("Noah's Ark", the story of creation and "David and Goliath".) The children enjoyed creating a Noah's Ark picture and there are still some on display in the room. It is funny to see the children's ambivalence about leaving their work at school. They are very anxious to take it home to show their parents. They did agree to leave their paintings of teachers at TAI for the next week. Be sure to come by our room to see them while they are still on display. They are also learning Hebrew letters and enjoy playing Hebrew letter games with Alice Weber.

THREE YEAR OLD CLASS

Riki Lawrence, Teacher

The three year olds are nearing the end of their unit on Jewish senses. Some of the special activities consisted of making a Besamin box (for the sense of smell), making Jewish glasses (for the sense of sight), and listening and painting to Jewish music (for the sense of hearing). The unit was topped off by a field trip to the Manhattan Bagel Co., where the children were given a demonstration of making bagels and a taste, too!

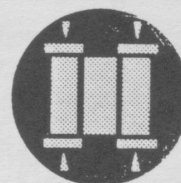

FOUR YEAR OLD CLASS

Betsy Wides, Teacher

Since the High Holy Days, the four year old class has been discussing different Jewish symbols found throughout the Temple and in their home.

We have made models of Torah, Mezuzahs, Tzedakah Boxes and the Star of David. Each week we review our previous lessons and repeat the words we have learned in Hebrew for hello, goodbye, Sabbath, thank you and parts of our bodies.

COMMENCING EARLY FEBRUARY

The INSIDE ISRAEL program provides an ideal opportunity for college students and high school graduates to become integrated into Israeli lifestyles. The program offers a remarkably wide variety of opportunities in a relatively short period of time. Acquisition of a workable knowledge of Hebrew and an introduction to the history of modern and ancient Israel are central to the program. Extensive travel throughout Israel and development of a personal connection with the people and the land of Israel make for a most meaningful experience. MID APRIL-JUNE: Transfer to Kibbutz Yahel (the first Reform Kibbutz), volunteer work at Kibbutz Yahel, Negev camping trip, continuation of general touring program (Massada, Ein Gedi, Eilat) in conjunction with seminars focusing on kibbutz life and more of the above.

PRE-PAY YOUR DUES

Pre-payment of 1988-89 Temple dues not only helps the Temple, but can have important tax advantages on your 1987 tax return. If you would like to help the Temple in this way, please send a check in the appropriate amount to Temple Adath Israel in care of the Treasurer.

ORGAN FUND

For the past few weeks we have been able to enjoy the rich sounds of our beautiful new organ, but we still need about $2,000 to completely pay for it. The organ is being purchased entirely through donations. Please keep the Organ Fund in mind when considering donations to the Temple.

MAZAL TOV

To Deborah Miller, daughter of Joe and Suzanne Miller, on her role and performance as Annie in the recent Lexington production of that show.

Chanukah

This special holiday of eight nights tells us about our ancestors who fought and died to preserve their Judaism. Judah Maccabee and his brothers recognized the value of living as a Jew and defeated King Antiochus and his army who sought to persecute and defeat us.

As we light our lights and rejoice, let us remember that Hanukkah is a celebration of Religious Freedom; to be Jewish and observe it.

CHANUKAH BLESSINGS

The lights of Chanukah are a symbol of our joy. In time of darkness, our ancestors had the courage to struggle for freedom: freedom to be themselves, freedom to worship in their own way. There was a victory of the weak over the strong, the few over the many and the righteous over the arrogant. It was a victory for all ages and all peoples.

With living memory, our people was plunged into deepest darkness. But we endured; the light of faith still burns brightly and once again we see kindled the flame of freedom. Our people Israel has survived all who sought to destroy us. Now, through love and self-sacrifice, we labor to renew our life.

Let the lights we kindle shine forth for the world. May they illumine our lives even as they fill us with gratitude that our faith has been saved from extinction time and again.

(The candles are placed in the Menorah from right to left, and kindled from left to right)

IN THIS CORNER

Hanuka is a magnificent holiday. Even though it is observed as a minor celebration on the Jewish calendar (no abstinence from work or other restrictions such as apply to Pesach or Yom Kippur) the reason for Hanuka is important and timeless. We observe the festival of lights, Hanuka, to remember our peoples' first fight for religious freedom from oppressors attempting to deny our ancestors the opportunity to be Jewish. The simplicity of Hanuka's celebration, the lighting of an additional candle each night on the Hanuka menorah until the last night when all eight candles plus the shammas are burning, adds to the splendor of the meaning of Hanuka.

Yet, in 20th century America, the role Hanuka plays in the Jewish community changed with this society's increased emphasis on the commercial aspects of the winter season. Now our children have one eye on the menorah and the other on the gift wrap. It appears as if the struggle for religious freedom continues even today as we attempt to maintain our Jewish identities in the face of trees, lights, tinsel, and music which permeate our senses with every step we make on our daily rounds in the community. We are inundated with another religion's holiday celebration and many individuals who believe that this holiday belongs to everyone.

As Jews, we are not forced to observe holidays that are not ours in the same manner the Syrian-Greeks imposed their beliefs and observances on the Jews during the time of Mattathias and Judah the Maccabee. There is no punishment of death or imprisonment if we light a menorah or say a blessing. But if we are annoyed with the present atmosphere which surrounds Christmas, the hype of commercialism--presents and Santa--and mourn the loss of the spiritual meaning of Christmas; if we decline invitations to office parties or homes where Christmas celebrations are held, we are seen as outcasts or humbugs.

If we are to celebrate Hanuka as a battle for religious freedom, to worship as we see fit without imposition of others, then our battle is not over. We still have not found a land of true religious freedom as Christmas is a national holiday, Sunday is the cultural Sabbath, and religion is still found in our public institutions.

Rabbi Jon Adland

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Rabbi Adland's third year of his three year contract would have begun on August 1, 1988. Rabbi Adland has dedicated himself to our congregation and he has been so warmly received by us that the Temple Adath Israel Board of Trustees has unanimously voted him a new three year contract with a substantial increase in compensation. Rabbi Adland has accepted the contract which will be presented at our annual Congregational Meeting in April 1988 for congregational approval.

The past 1 1/2 years has been a period of growth with membership surpassing 290 families for the first time in history and more than 140 children in Religious School. We have more and varied programs for the entire spectrum of our congregation. Committees are functioning with dynamic leadership and it is not unusual to have more than 120 people at a family Shabbat service. The Temple is the place to be many days and nights of the week. Those of you who have been so active throughout the year have been responsible for getting so many of our uninvolved members more active. Thank you. I get a real high out of coming to a bustling Temple. See you at Temple.

ARZA NEWS

ARZA-SPONSORED ISRAEL RELIGIOUS ACTION CENTER OPENS

The Israel Religious Action Center opened its doors in Jerusalem this summer. The Center, which is sponsored by ARZA, advocates religious rights for Reform Jews and all Israelis and counters the growing extremism of Israel's Orthodox parties. Among other activities, the Center initiates and finances legal action to reverse religious discrimination, educates Knesset members and government officials about Reform Judaism, and testifies before Knesset committees on social and religious issues. It plays a vital role in combatting the never-ending attempts by Israel's Orthodox parties to amend the Law of Return. ARZA leadership expects that in the near future, the new center will play the same critical role in Israeli society that the Reform Religious Action Center in Washington plays in the United States. You can help by joining ARZA. Contact Nat Sandler, ARZA Chairman at 269-1150 or Rabbi Adland at 269-2979.

five (5) members of the Temple in good standing, no signature to be valid if the signator has signed more nominating petitions in any one year than the total number to be elected to the Board of Trustees, which nominating petitions, in order to be valid to the Chairperson of the Nominating Committee, Ben Baker, 342 Jesselin Dr., Lexington, KY. 40503, postmarked on or before the 30th of January, 1988."

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Senior Block II has just been completed. We thank Fannie Miller, Susan Miller and Rabbi Adland for a super teaching job!

Senior Block III begins January 10 - February 14. Rabbi Adland will be teaching Confirmation Class, Fannie Miller's class will be Holocaust, and David Wachtel will teach Social Values.

Marsha Matthews, Principal

INTRODUCTION TO JEWISH LAW

Susan Miller, Teacher

The Jewish Law class began with an overview of what law (as we know it) is, including the history and types of law and how laws are made, changed, and enforced.

We studied the many sources of Jewish Law: Torah, Mishnah, Midrash, Talmud, Codes and Responsa. A typical lesson included reading a Mishnah context. It was fun updating the cases with our own factual situations, and we discovered that the heart of the Jewish ethical and legal approach applies in the kind of world in which we live.

Additionally, we surveyed the Orthodox, Conservative and Reform views of the Jewish Law and how these are manifested in ritual practices.

ADULT B'NAI MITZVAH CLASSES

Adults who want to have a Bar/Bat Mitzvah can accomplish this through B'nai Mitzvah. This course is in two parts: Hebrew and Judaica. The Hebrew is for those who are familiar with the Alef-Bet. (Either completion of Basic Hebrew or prior knowledge of Hebrew is required.) The Hebrew will culminate with the members of B'nai Mitzvah leading services and reading Torah.

JEWISH HISTORY II

Fannie Miller, Teacher

The students in the Senior Block course in Jewish History have completed Part II of their study. The text we used was My People, Abba Eban's History of the Jews.

This course began with Jewish History during the American Revolution, a study of the Jews in Eastern Europe, the wave of immigration to the United States, and a review of American Jewry since World War II. Throughout this study we related Jewish History with World History.

We have examined the four thousand year long story of our people and discussed how Jews have played a special role in the life of the world. We concluded with a discussion of what it means to be a good Jew in today's world.

TANACH

Rabbi Adland, Teacher

The Jewish or Hebrew Bible is made up of three sections: Torah, Nevi'im (Prophets), and Ketuvim (Writings). The students in this course surveyed Tanach reading passages from almost every book. The first week was spent learning how Tanach was redacted and how long it took. The second week we learned about the contents of the Torah, its divisions and outline. The third week we concentrated on the prophets and their messages. The last week we digested the eclectic Book of Writings which includes Ruth, Esther, Psalms and Proverbs.

The Judaica will concentrate on text and a greater depth in certain areas of Jewish knowledge.

The class dates are: Jan. 11, 18 & 25
Feb. 1, 8, & 15 - March 21 & 28
April 4, 11, 18, & 25 - May 2, 9, 23, & 26. B'nai Mitzvah Service on May 27, 1988.

If you need further information, please contact the Temple office.

Mary was born in Southern California and attended Cal State University where she studied journalism. She was the associate editor of the "Thoroughbred of California" for several years before moving to Lexington in 1985. Mary wrote a book titled "A History of the Thoroughbred" which was published in 1983. Mary is currently a free lance writer.

Mark and Mary met in California in 1983. They both enjoy travel, reading, horses and horse racing. Mark and Mary visited Israel in March 1985. The above picture is of Mark and Mary in Tel Aviv.

Mark and Mary have one child named Nora Karen who was born October 11, 1987.

Temple Adath Israel welcomes the Simon family to the congregation.

BEING A SMALL CONGREGATION IS DIFFERENT

Being a small congregation is different. It's different quantitatively, of course. We don't have as many members as they have in large congregations. But, even more so it's different qualitatively from large congregations. There are things they have that we don't.

But, there are other things -- very important things -- that we have that they don't. And a lot of them are spending a lot of time and money trying to capture -- or recapture -- that something that we have.

- WE HAVE A SENSE OF FAMILY. We have members we are close to, members we get along with, and members who drive us crazy. But there aren't enough of us that we can afford to get uppity. We need each other. And so we care about each other, and we know that every last one of us is important. We aren't an institution. We're still people.
- WE HAVE A SENSE OF TENACITY. We know how fragile our presence is and how important it is that we stay alive, stay involved, and stay together -- no matter what. So we do.
- WE HAVE A SENSE OF INVOLVEMENT. When organizational research indicates that most organizations operate on an average level of involvement of 5 percent of the membership, it's rewarding to know that most of us are involved most of the time.
- WE HAVE A SENSE OF PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY TO THE CONGREGATION. When everyone depends on you, you tend to carry through. You might not always want to, but you do what you have to do, and you usually end up glad that you did.

■ WE HAVE A SENSE OF TOLERANCE. We often exist in areas isolated from mainstream Jewish life, where many (if not most) of our marriages are (or were) mixed, and where some of our best friends aren't Jewish. And our kids' best friends aren't Jewish. And our survival may depend less on turning in on ourselves than on sharing what we have with others so they can see that we have something worth working for.

■ WE HAVE A SENSE OF INTIMACY WITH OUR RABBI. We really get to know the rabbi, one-on-one. And the rabbi gets to know us.

■ WE HAVE A SENSE OF CONTINUITY. Our children grow up with close, personal role models of all ages. We have a wide diversity in age range, but we aren't big enough to stratify by age. So nobody thinks about age. We're just us.

■ WE HAVE A SENSE OF COMMUNITY. In a very real way, we are Judaism in our respective communities. We realize that we have the responsibility to carry on the traditions of Judaism in places not ordinarily known for their Jewish culture. And we do it with all the enthusiasm and energy we can summon. Because there's nobody to do it but us.
