

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

DEC. 2000 – JAN. 2001

VOL. 68 NO. 5

KISLEV-TEVET-SHEVAT 5761

Hanukah is a joyous holiday. It is filled with songs, foods, celebrations, games and gifts. It is blessed by the increase of a candle each night for eight nights. As the light increases so does our joy. (Are not most of us moved by the sight of a fully lit Hanukah menorah on the last night.) Hanukah is the only extended Jewish holiday (Passover and Sukkot are examples of two others) that doesn't really change from night to night. The only difference in celebration is that on the first night we say three blessings and on the other seven nights we say two blessings.

Though it is a minor holiday on our yearly calendar of holidays and holy days, it certainly stands quite tall. Many of us look to Hanukah as our Jewish beacon of light in December. Though we don't want to overplay it, we relish the fact that during this busy holiday season we have something to look forward to or hold on to. Hanukah is a holiday of depth and meaning. It reminds us of why we are Jews and what it means to be a human being. Hanukah teaches us about courage and conviction and community. Hanukah teaches us about faith and belief and commitment. Hanukah teaches us about leadership and life.

In modern times, Hanukah also teaches us about the act of giving. It is true that we give gifts to our relatives and friends. It is a chance to reach out and say that I care about you or that I love you. We shouldn't forget though that there are a lot of people out there who have no one to receive a gift from or even give a gift to. We shouldn't forget about all of these people. Some of these people are Jewish, most of them are not, but they could all use the gift of love in some way or form.

Maybe this year at Hanukah, send a donation to one of our many Lexington or Central Kentucky agencies that work with those who are alone, who feel unloved and unwanted. Whether it is the Hope Center, the Salvation Army, the Nest or any of the several places in town, which could let someone know that someone else cares.

The Maccabees fought to preserve Judaism and its way of life for us. Let us fight for the life of so many who have lost hope by sharing with them the light of our menorah.

Rabbi Jon Adland

A Message from the President

This past fall, the Temple's Social Action Committee and the Synagogue's Men's Club started thinking about the possibility of participating in the Lexington Habitat for Humanity's program to build a home for a qualified low income family. After several meetings and many discussions, we decided to join forces in this endeavor. The entire Jewish community in Lexington has now decided to come together to sponsor and build a house through the Lexington Habitat for Humanity.

Lexington Habitat is the local affiliate of Habitat for Humanity International. Habitat has built 154 homes in Lexington and serves families of low income who meet Habitat's home ownership requirements. Families are selected based on their need for housing, their ability to pay and their willingness to work with Habitat. All families must agree to provide 250 to 500 hours of "sweat equity" by working on their own home or other Habitat homes and by attending workshops on parenting, financial management and home maintenance. Each family has a $38,000 mortgage, which is repaid over 20 years.

As a Habitat sponsor, we are required to raise $35,000 and provide volunteers to actually assist in the building of the home. We hope to build this house in May and June of 2001. To participate in a build this spring, we must make formal application for sponsorship by the end of December. For this reason, a community-wide appeal will be going out at the beginning of December to begin raising the necessary funds. Please support this project. If you are interested in assisting with the build in any way, please contact the Temple office. This is an incredible opportunity for the Jewish community to work together for a wonderful goal.

MUSIC NEWS

This year the Sunday morning schedule allows our Religious School students to have more Jewish music experiences than in the recent past. Individual as well as combined grade levels meet for 30 minute music sessions. During that time, the students are exposed to a variety of songs that address Shabbat and holiday celebrations, liturgy, and Jewish values. During the year we will listen to music recorded by famous contemporary Jewish singers/songwriters, and we'll also explore traditional melodies as well.

Mazel Tov to the members of our TAI Makhela who recently accompanied Jewish singer/song-writer Doug Cotler during his recent appearance in Lexington. They did an outstanding job!

The Makhela is open to all Temple children in kindergarten through fifth grade. The Makhela meets monthly during Religious School hours, and they lead the congregation in song during Family Shabbat services each month. Contact Sandy Adland at 269-2979 to become a member. It's not too late to join!

Sisterhood News

From the Sisterhood President – Sandy Heymann

A Covenant of the Soul

Deep within, deep within.

Our mothers guarded a sacred promise: they would teach with ageless wisdom, they would nurture with silent strength, they would heal with courageous love. We, who are their daughters, traverse bridges of time. We gaze into the past to see ourselves. Now we possess their eternal pledge: A covenant of the soul. We, who are teachers, build eternal bridges. Guiding through our deeds, shaping with our hands, touching with our dreams. Each moment overflows with insight, with creativity, with passion. We, who are nurturers, protect eternal bridges. We are shield and shelter, shepherding with confidence, allowing heartsongs to soar and embraced souls to reach. Each moment overflows with comfort, with sustenance, with freedom. We who are healers repair eternal bridges. Whispering of desire and hope, weaving together life prayers, risking love. Divine sparks refill shattered vessels. Each moment overflows with bravery, with spirit, with trust in ourselves and in God. We, who are their daughters, renew our faith in their solemn oath: A covenant of the soul. Each of our moments overflows with blessing. We are the guarantors of the promise. The journey continues through us. The journey continues through us.

Rabbi Rachel Hertzman

My Dear Temple Friends:

As we approach the end of the year 2000, I reflect on many things. This year has been full of change and choices. Even as I type this letter to you, we have yet to name a new President of the United States. Hopefully as you are reading this, that will not be the case any longer.

The year 2000 has had a lot of meaning for me. One, I turn 40 at the end of this year. I made myself a promise ten years ago when I came to Lexington. I promised myself that I would be strong in my Jewish Community and that I would hopefully become a leader in the Women of Reform Judaism by the year 2000. My dream came true. It gives me such pleasure to serve as your Sisterhood President. But something is missing,

That something is YOU. We have such a great group of women here at Temple Adath Israel, but our Sisterhood membership is weak. We are down to 57 members. Won't you please take a moment of your time, send in your $30 dues and join our Sisterhood today. What a great present that would be, for me, for you, for our congregation!

I also want to say that many of our current and past members have made such a difference in our Temple lives. I must mention a special note about our very own Marilyn Lieber. Marilyn has just been appointed as a member of the Midwest Council of the Hebrew Union Board of Trustees. Congratulations to our dear past Temple president and Sisterhood president and very active Sisterhood Board member – Marilyn, you make us so proud!

My friends, we at Temple Adath Israel are a tremendous Sisterhood. We are strong, we are caring, we are hard working and we have so many intelligent, exciting

A special Sisterhood "Thank You"

Sandy Adland, you are talented beyond words.

We are so lucky to have you as our program chair! Thank you so much to you, your committee, and to all of the Sisterhood members who helped with our November program, "To Save A Life" Domestic Abuse in the Greater Community and in the Jewish Community. We learned so much from this very special program.

A special thanks to Sisterhood Members Gayle Dorio and Judy Hersh for picking out our most beautiful Sisterhood Lounge furniture. Gayle, you have a remarkable eye for interior design. You are making our home SO warm and delightful. We LOVE your taste! WOW, you made us all very proud.

wonderful women. PLEASE JOIN SISTERHOOD

TODAY! If you have not yet attended a TAI Sisterhood program, I personally invite you to come to our December meeting. Of course, we hope that every Temple woman joins Sisterhood. But, if you just need a sneak peek first, please come to our December program. We need all of you to make us whole. We need your ideas, your talents, and your friendship. Sisterhood builds lasting friendships. I hope to see you this month.

Before I close, allow me to send a bit of extra Sisterhood love to all of my friends, family and Temple Members as the year 2000 comes to a close. May the New Year in America be full of warmth, health, and beauty to all of you!

Arts & Crafts Class

Linda Noffsinger, Teacher

There have been lots of excited faces filing in and out of the art room in the last two months! A number of projects have been created by your children. Some of the projects have been related to recent holidays – apple & honey plates, handmade journals to record events for the new year, and miniature sukkahs. Also, the children have made some wonderful and very colorful pictures using chalk. One class made chalk sketches of the “days of creation” and another used the chalk to depict aspects of Abraham’s life.

My class goals include having the children focus on a Jewish theme, often from their class curriculum or around an upcoming holiday. I begin by describing the project and often show a sample to provide a better understanding of the technique to be used. I strive to encourage each child’s creativity and ideas around the basic concept. The result is a unique and special creation.

Our projects are often developed based on a variety of boxes, tubes, boards, and scoops. It’s terrific to see the children taking materials that have already been useful in our homes and turn them into something else! What a terrific way to exemplify the importance of the three R’s (reduce, reuse, and recycle). Reusable materials are always welcome. If you’re cleaning out closets and run across something you think would be part of a great project, call me! In particular, I am looking for the following items: lightweight cardboard jewelry boxes, all sizes (tops and bottoms); jar lids, all sizes (washed and dried please); shoulder pads; Tide detergent scoops.

SOCIAL ACTION NEWS

Help Cook for & Serve at the Hope Center on December 25 and January 7

The Temple has volunteered to prepare and serve dinner at the Hope Center on Christmas Day. If you would like to participate, please contact Lowell Nigoff at 233-1173 or at 276-5220. This is a wonderful Mitzvah that many temple members do each year. Please join in and help again this year.

The TAI Social Action Committee invites you to help prepare and/or serve a meal to the 100+ Hope Center clients on Sunday, January 7, 2001. We need your help to cook lots of food (all ages invited) and to serve the meal (ages 13+ needed, but any age can go to the Hope Center). Please call Nancy Schoenberg at 323-8175 or 277-2273 or email: nesch@pop.uky.edu to pledge your much needed help on this important project!

The Social Action Committee will also be collecting needed items for the Hope Center during the month of December that we will deliver to them on January 7. Please support the Month of Hope project by donating supplies. The Hope Center reports shortages of the following items: razors, combs, deodorant, toothbrushes, shampoo, soap, lotion, highlighters and spiral notebooks for the AA program. Regular, travel size and hotel samples are all appreciated.

Social Action "Mitzvah of the Month"

The Social Action Committee continues its "Mitzvah of the Month" program with a contribution of $54 from the Tzedakah Fund. TAI members are encouraged to donate to the organizations directly or to the Tzedakah Fund to help keep the program going.

The December recipient is Movable Feast, which prepares and delivers hot, freshly cooked meals 365 days a year to people living with AIDS or HIV-related illnesses and disabilities. Clients also receive bags of groceries twice a week, that provide one-third of their nutritional needs. Movable Feast also needs volunteers to help prepare and deliver the meals and to help with data entry and office support, especially during holidays and summers when there are fewer student volunteers in town. After brief training, volunteers sign up to help whenever they are available. If you are interested in volunteering, call (859) 252-2867. To contribute, send a check to: Movable Feast Lexington

PO Box 367
Lexington, KY 40588

Movable Feast can also be reached by fax number 231-7899 or email at FeastLex@aol.com.

The January recipient will be WinterCare. This is a program designed to help low income Kentuckians pay their heating bills. WinterCare was started by Kentucky Utilities in 1983 and has been adopted by 22 other utility companies. Utility customers may add $1 or more to their bills and WinterCare distributes that money to help more than 8,400 people in nearly 3,000 households each winter.

The Springs of Jewish Life — by Chaim Raphael and The Secret Jews — by Joachim Prinz

Reviewed by David M. Glixon

Chaim Raphael, the author of The Springs of Jewish Life, has been on the faculties of the universities of Oxford and Sussex. In a rather special way he traces Jewish history from the tiny areas of its origin in Biblical times to our survival and presence throughout the world.

His references to what Judaism did for Christianity and Islam, and how those other branches of monotheism returned the favor, provide a linkage between the two quite different books that are the subject of this review.

Some of the obvious key words of our painful relationship are Inquisition, Marranos, pogrom, Diaspora, Holocaust, and Intifada. As we are well aware, each of the concepts that they represent, originating like the dropping of a pebble into a pond, grew from ripples to storm waves. Yet they also nourished "the springs of Jewish life. Flowing powerfully in ancient times," Raphael emphasizes, "they are, by a miracle, still life-giving today." His aim was to track down, in the dim past, the origin of the secret energy that keeps Judaism active.

He dwells at some length on two momentous periods. The first — rarely explored in non-specialist works — dates from the fifth century B.C.E. to the Roman era; the second, from the time in which Judaism and Christianity began to go their separate ways.

But Raphael also touches on a much earlier history, some of it having only come to light with the discovery in 1928 of the civilization of Ugarit, a coastal town in Syria and a great metropolis in the early twelfth century B.C.E. — a period of Israelite settlement in Canaan. In language like that used in the Psalms to glorify the powers of God, the Ugarit epics extol the powers of Baal, and make the images in the Psalms more understandable.

Raphael cites recent Middle East archeological findings that seem to resolve certain conflicts between the accounts — in Genesis and Numbers — of the size of the groups that followed Moses out of Egypt. Likewise there are the questions about a serious discrepancy in the dates of Hebrew settlements in Jericho and elsewhere. Not that it matters, for — as the author admits — whether the Bible stories are realistic or mythical "the undying theme of Israelite history transcends the analyses of scholarship."

There is an absorbing section on the 500-year stretch following Nebuchadnezzar's capture of Jerusalem, the temporary exile of the Jews to Babylonia, the heartening re-establishment of the Temple, and the political and intellectual effects of the arrival of the Macedonians under Alexander in the fourth century B.C.E. (Incidentally, Raphael suggests that our lack of familiarity with the Greek — influenced apocrypha has been depriving us of a literature just as striking and significant as the canonical Ecclesiastes.)

A crucial point in the book is the account of the split between the Jews who accepted Jesus as the Messiah and those who refused. But there have survived few contemporary reports of what went on between the two groups after the Crucifixion, and after the destruction of the Temple in 70 C.E. Its loss stimulated our forefathers "to intensify study and observance of the Torah, through which our strength as God's people could return."

Sporadic invasions of Palestine resulted in the forced removal of hundreds of Jewish captives by sea and land. A vast Jewish population arose in Syria, Egypt, and Babylonia, and it is estimated that the total had expanded within the Roman empire to nearly seven million.

The later and most significant shift, or course, was the movement of Jews to areas throughout Europe. One chapter deals with the horrendous events in fourteenth-century Spain and Portugal, where forced conversions to Christianity gave rise to the Marranos. Raphael concludes with a perceptive overview of Jews in present-day America. All in all, The Springs of Jewish Life is an inspirational eye-opener. (The call # is 900.R8.)

For an intriguing and fuller picture of the Marranos we turn to The Secret Jews by Joachim Prinz, author, rabbi, and former president of the American Jewish Congress. One of his most memorable stories is that of Uriel Da Costa, who, because of his stubborn courage, underwent a record number of excommunications from Jewish groups. He was born in 1585 into a wealthy neo-Christian Portuguese family descended from Marranos. After first becoming a priest, Da Costa was deeply affected by his studies of the Old Testament, and at the age of thirty he moved to Amsterdam in order to embrace the religion of his forefathers.

There and in subsequent travels he accused the Jews of not acting in accordance with the laws of Moses. A fundamentalist, Da Costa defied every congregation, and was successively excommunicated in Amsterdam (twice), Venice, and presumably other Ashkenazic communities. Finally, in despair, he committed suicide at the age of fifty.

Dr. Prinz gives instances of the thousands of quasi-Christians and Marranos who practiced remnants of forgotten Jewish rituals. They have existed — and many still do — in places as distant as Majorca, the Canary Islands, Jamaica, the Near East, Argentina, Turkey, and Greece. The Secret Jews will rivet your attention. (The call # is 900.5p3.)

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

FEBRUARY 2001

VOL. 68 NO. 6

SHEVAT-ADAR 5761

As some of you are aware, I am organizing a trip to Israel at the end of December 2001. A number of people have indicated interest in this 12-day/10-night trip. I am hoping that more of you will contact me as well. Though I had been thinking of leading this trip at this time for some time now, I believe that it is vitally important that the American Jewish community show solidarity and support for our brothers and sisters in Israel during this recent crisis.

I chose not to write anything about the current situation in Israel until now. By the time you receive this bulletin the situation may have changed. Hopefully, the change will be for the better. I chose not to write in hopes of a solution being found to the current crisis now going on and not saying something I would later regret. Now the time has come for me to tell you, in brief, how I feel and what I think about the latest uprising, Israel's response and the attempt at mediation by the United States.

I think the Palestinians made a huge political mistake by rising up against the Barak led government. Though Barak had little power left in Israel, he was still the best hope for the Palestinians in gaining rights and territory. This Intifada only hardened the position of the right wing in Israel and moved many in the center to the right. Where the possibility for negotiation once existed, now a cease-fire and cooling down period must take place. At first I thought that the Israeli response was too harsh, but the longer the Intifada went on, the more I realized that the Israeli army was truly defending Jews of Israel. The terrorist attacks on citizens by bombing buses or ambushing cars, only heightens the tension instead of moving things toward a conclusion. It is with great sadness that so many people had to die. Let us hope that for both sides these deaths are not in vain, but part of a cruel road to an everlasting peace.

I think that the Clinton peace plan, though somewhat flawed, goes to the heart of what both sides want. I think that the Palestinians would be foolhardy not to take it seriously and that Israel should come out in full support. I don't know exactly what to do with the Temple mount, but complete sovereignty isn't necessary, nor would losing total control of this unique place be wise. I think the settlements can continue to exist, but the territories surrounding them should go back to the Palestinians. The realities of this plan are tough, but the time is now to say yes to the future and no to the deaths of our children.

Supporting Israel blindly is not the right thing to do, but supporting Israel's right to exist inside of safe and secure borders is very important to affirm. Going to Israel says a lot right now to a country whose (continued on page 4)

A Message from the President

Many of us come to Temple to find community and become part of a community. Over twenty-five years ago, the Hevrah movement started in Reform Judaism to try to create this sense of community in Temples. Hevrot (which means groups) are small groups of Temple households and members who get together outside of Temple to socialize, study, observe holidays, celebrate life cycle events, and just play.

Hevrot are great ways to get to know people at Temple more closely and informally. As members of Hevrot get to know one another, the groups are often like extended families. Members become very supportive of one other. Hevrot not only enrich and strengthen their members - they often play key roles in a variety of areas of Temple life. Over the years, we have had several Hevrot at Temple Adath Israel and some have continued for many years. At other Temples, with longer Hevrah histories, some Hevrot have existed for twenty-five years. Members celebrate together and comfort each other in times of loss or difficulty.

In an effort to help our members become better connected to each other, the Programming Committee is initiating the creation of new Hevrot. On Saturday evening, February 24th, there will be a Hevrah Kick-Off potluck supper. At that time, you will have the opportunity to eat some great food, enjoy conversation (with child-care and a movie for the kids), and learn more about the Hevrah program. The Programming Committee will provide sign-up forms so that you can express personal preferences for your Hevrah. For example, you can choose to be with folks your own age or a multi-generation group.

Hevrot are a great way to find a warm place in what can sometimes feel like a big Temple. They are a wonderful opportunity to meet some wonderful people and enjoy. Join us on February 24.

FROM THE YOUTH EDUCATION DIRECTOR – Marsha Rose

We are very fortunate to have Rhoda Cantor as our fourth grade teacher. She has replaced Sheryl Rade, who has moved out of town. Rhoda also teaches first year Hebrew on Monday. Marcy Schultz, is not only our third grade teacher, but our new Drama teacher as well. Welcome to our dedicated staff!

Our Parents' meeting held on December 10 was quite successful. It is always beneficial for everyone to brainstorm. One excellent idea that will be implemented next year is that we are adding Library to our Sha'at Tarbut classes. Leona Stern, our librarian, is very excited to have the opportunity to read to the younger children and supervise the older students with research. We will be continuing these wonderful meetings every other month. Our next meeting will be February 11 at 10 AM in the Sanctuary. Please plan on attending. This is an innovative way to acquire positive and negative feedback from parents. We are all working toward the same goal; to provide your child with the best possible Religious School education. Your participation is essential!

Please note our calendar change. Religious School WILL have classes on APRIL 1. There will be NO classes on April 8 & April 15 due to Spring Break.

FROM THE PROGRAM COORDINATOR – Toni Reiss

From and About the Programming Committee Deborah Isenstadt, Chairperson

Reviving Hevrot and thinking about changes that need to happen given the growing interfaith nature of our congregation have pre-occupied the Programming Committee this year so far.

The Programming Committee was formed in 2000 by the Temple Executive Board, in recognition that a committee was needed to take a broad view of the congregation and identify and fill programming gaps in order to enhance and enrich Temple life for our diverse membership. How can we be more of a warm and welcoming community for everyone at Temple? Whose needs have changed or gone unnoticed, and what will we do to serve them? These are the (big) exciting questions we're grappling with on the Programming Committee. We meet monthly and invite you to come any time to bring your own thoughts and ideas to the table. (Call the office for our next meeting date).

Upcoming Events

February 24, Saturday at 6 PM Hevrah Kick-Off Potluck Supper

Join the programming committee for a great meal and good conversation as we start our Hevrah initiative. You will get a feel for what Hevrot are and how they can add something really special to our lives as Temple members. President Jane Grise describes Hevrot in her column this month (see front page). Our potluck on February 24 will give you a chance to learn more about the Hevrah concept and, if you like what you hear, to sign up to join a Hevrah that suits your style and interests! To make the February 24 Potluck accessible and enjoyable for all, we'll have childcare and a movie for kids, and will provide transportation for anyone who needs it. Call the Temple to RSVP for the Potluck and to reserve a ride or a child care spot. RSVP to the Temple office by February 20.

One World Films Presents "VOYAGES"

The One World Film Festival will sponsor a showing of the film "Voyages" on Sunday, March 4, at 2 PM, at the Central Library Theater, 140 E. Main St. The showing is open to the public without charge, and will be followed by a reception.

"Voyages" was filmed in 1999, and voted the best feature film at the Jerusalem Film Festival. Directed by Emmanuel Finkiel in French, Yiddish, and Polish with English subtitles.

This is a film about the Holocaust, but one that is set in the present with no flashbacks to the time period. "Voyages" tells three linked stories focusing on the lives of three elderly Jewish women who find themselves facing new situations and struggling to make sense out of their history.

Rivka and her husband take a bus tour from Warsaw to Auschwitz and their relationship changes. In Paris, Regina receives a phone call from a man who claims to be her aging father whom she thought had died in the camps. Vera searches Tel Aviv for a long-lost cousin and becomes acquainted with Rivka.

The director weaves a tapestry of these lives, incorporating threads of memory, tenuous associations, humor and sadness. This is a poignant film that subtly explores the legacy of genocide.

Anyone willing to help provide refreshments for the reception is asked to contact Annette Mayer at 266-6073.

Rose Rita Wurmser's Kugel – Serves 6-8

Warning: This is not a low-calorie, low cholesterol dish, and it won't taste nearly as good if you try to make it so. For best results, do not substitute ingredients. Use whole milk not reduced fat, regular cream cheese not light, eggs, not egg substitute, and Kellogg's corn flakes that you crush yourself, not the pre-crushed corn flakes. HOWEVER, margarine can be substituted for butter, and pineapple juice can be used instead of apricot nectar.

Preheat oven to 350 degrees and grease rectangular (8 X 12 or somewhat smaller) pan.

Cook until done, then drain 3/4 bag extra wide noodles.

Add to warm, drained noodles:

1/2 to 3/4 stick butter

3 ounces cream cheese

1/2 cup sugar

1 cup apricot nectar (it's with the canned fruit juice at Kroger)

1 cup milk

3 eggs, beaten (add last so mixture has had time to cool a bit)

Combine for topping:

1 cup crushed corn flakes

3/4 stick butter

1 teaspoon cinnamon

1/4 cup sugar

Pour noodle mixture into greased pan, add topping and pat it down. Bake at 350 degrees for 45-60 minutes, until kugel is set.

New Member Highlight

Dr. Daniel, Diana, Benjamin, & Clara Medalie

The Medalie family moved to Lexington after many years of mobility. They have lived in Pittsburgh, Boston, New York City, and San Francisco. They are looking forward to settling down at last.

Daniel and Diana enjoy travel, reading, and photography. Their twin children, Benjamin and Clara, attend the TAI Preschool.

The Board and staff welcome them to the congregation and the community and hope their affiliation with the Temple will be a rewarding one.

Esteban Hecht & Sol Paz

Esteban is originally from Ecuador. He graduated from the University of Kentucky in December 1998 with a degree in Hotel & Restaurant Management. He is about to begin a new job as a Sales Manager at the Sheraton Suites in Lexington.

Sol is from Venezuela and is a recent graduate of the University of Kentucky with a degree in Architecture and is currently working for GRW Engineers in Lexington. They are engaged and planning to wed in May of 2001.

Esteban and Sol enjoy going out with friends for movies and dining. They enjoy coming to the Temple for Friday services and meeting people from the community. Both of them feel the Temple has a good variety of programs for the Temple community.

The TAI Board and staff welcome them to the Lexington community and the Temple family.

Bar Mitzvah

COMMITTEE NEWS

Social Action "Mitzvah of the Month"

The Social Action Committee continues its "Mitzvah of the Month" program with a contribution of $54 from the Tzedakah Fund. TAI members are encouraged to donate to the organizations directly or to the Tzedakah Fund to help keep the program going.

The February recipient is The YWCA Spouse Abuse Center. The YWCA Spouse Abuse Center provides shelter and counseling for domestic violence victims and their children in 17 counties of the Bluegrass District. Services include a 24-hour Crisis line; safe, temporary housing; legal and hospital advocacy; and community education about domestic violence. Individual and group counseling, play therapy, and supervised recreational activities are offered to help children deal with trauma. A "Safe School" operated within the Center allows children to continue their K-12 education while in the Shelter. The location of the Shelter is confidential for the safety of the residents and staff. Monetary donations can be mailed to:

YWCA Spouse Abuse Center
PO Box 8028
Lexington, KY 40533

Volunteer opportunities include hospital advocate (providing support to domestic violence victims at hospital emergency rooms), crisis volunteer for 24-hour Crisis Line, and children's volunteer advocate (assist with field trips, tutor, participate in small group activities). Volunteers are also needed to assist with Outreach and public education. For questions, call the Volunteer Coordinator at 255-9808.

Hope Center

On Sunday, January 7, several Temple families served dinner to approximately 200 people at the Hope Center. The participants enjoyed preparing and serving the meal and the Hope Center clients were very appreciative. A special thanks goes to Nancy Schoenberg for organizing the event, to Lowell Nigoff and Anne Graff for procuring the food and to the Graffs, Tapias, Cohen-Archers, and Schoenberg-Swansons for their good humor and hard work.

We had so much fun and felt that we were helpful so that we'd like to see if we can arrange to serve dinner at the Hope Center on a more regular basis, perhaps every other month. If you are interested in helping with this project, either by preparing, donating or serving food, please give Nancy a call at 323-8175 or e-mail: nesch@pop.uky.edu.

Also, many thanks to all who participated in December's Month of Hope, where personal care and other useful products were collected. We brought them over to the Hope Center on January 7. If you have additional personal care items that you wish to donate to the Hope Center, please contact Nancy Schoenberg at 323-8175 or Colby Cohen-Archer at 271-6972..

A Special Message from the President Jane Gris 

As we begin the year 2001, the real millennium, Temple Adath Israel faces many challenges. At the December 2000 Board of Trustees meeting, the Board reviewed our budget and budget projections and determined that we would not be able to meet our budget with the current level of membership contributions. Three factors contributed to this problem. First, projected membership contributions were $13,000 less than estimated. Second, projected income from Kroger scrip was $1,500 less than predicted. Third, projected income from building usage was down $3,750. Finally, heating costs are expected to increase 40%.

The Board voted to send a letter to all members paying from $250 to $2,000 in membership contributions to request voluntary contributions and to ask that our membership participate in the Kroger scrip program. As a result of this appeal, we have received over $7,000 in donations from 31 families.. We have even received donations from families who heard about the appeal but did not receive a letter because they contribute over $2,000 in membership contributions. In addition, many members have indicated that they will begin buying Kroger scrip. Thanks to everyone who has contributed and/or offered to buy scrip.

It is important to recognize that our budget problems are not new. For three of the last four years, we have balanced our budgets by using our savings. The only difference this year is that we may use up our entire savings. Now we must prepare a budget for the Temple that is based upon current membership contributions, not our savings account. The Budget Committee needs your input and assistance in formulating the Temple Budget. This Budget will determine our priorities and goals for the coming years. We need to review each line in our budget to determine if an activity or program is essential.

We also need to determine if our current levels of membership contribution are appropriate. While our minimum membership contribution level is currently $580, 142 families are below this level. This number represents over a third of our Temple membership. While it costs $1080 per family unit to operate our Temple, only 83 families contribute at this level - that is less than a quarter of our congregation.

Finally, we need to find the volunteers, participants, and ideas to make our Kroger scrip program a success. If each family unit purchased $200 in Kroger scrip each month, we would have an additional $30,000 in income each year. This would solve our budget problem without any change in our programs or membership contribution levels.

If you are interested in participating in the budget process, please call the Temple office. If you can help sell scrip on a Friday night or Sunday morning, give me a call. To purchase Kroger scrip, just call the office. Your help would be greatly appreciated.

SPECIAL PRESENTATIONS

Patricia Madsen, judge and current candidate for the Master's of Arts in Judaic Studies at the University of Denver, will present the following programs on February 4, at Temple Adath Israel.

10-10:45 AM Meet the Maid of Ludmir, a Virgin Rebbe When Nice Jewish Women Weren't Supposed to Be Either

Hannah Rachel Werbermacher, born around 1805 in the Ukraine, acquired learning, prayed like a man, and held court like any other Chasidic Tzaddik and that's just the first part of her life. Prepare to be surprised by her remarkable story.

11 AM-12 PM From Communal Barbecue to Communal Prayer: Where Jewish Liturgy Comes From

Hebrew Bible sets out the clearest possible rules for how to worship the Divine: send the odor of roasting meat heavenward in the courtyard of the Temple. But what did the Holy One want after the Temple was destroyed? We will explore liturgy as the new avodah, the new sacrificial service to God, from the 1st Century CE to yesterday morning.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

MARCH 2001

VOL. 68 NO. 7

ADAR-NISAN 5761

On March 2nd, we will celebrate the 125th anniversary of Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion. Our guest speaker will be Rabbi Stacia Deutsch. Rabbi Deutsch is the Director of the Outreach Education Department and Coordinator for the Hebrew Union College's Department of Adult Jewish Learning and Living. I hope that you will come to the Erev Shabbat service and listen to Rabbi Deutsch describe the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion (HUC-JIR).

For those of you who are unfamiliar with HUC-JIR, let me tell you simply that this is where most Reform Jewish rabbis attend seminary in order to be ordained as a rabbi. There are four campuses of this seminary. The oldest is in Cincinnati, OH. The others are in New York City, Los Angeles, and Jerusalem. All HUC-JIR students spend their first year in Jerusalem studying Hebrew and learning about Israel. I began my study in 1976 in Jerusalem and was ordained at the Cincinnati campus in 1982.

Temple Adath Israel has had 19 rabbis in its nearly 100 years. I have to believe that all of them received their training in Cincinnati. Many of our early rabbis weren't ordained, but rabbinical students who rode a train down from Cincinnati, officiated at services, maybe taught a little Religious School and then traveled back across the river. It wasn't until the 1930's that rabbis began to stay for several years before moving on to larger congregations.

You may not know it, but every dues paying member of this congregation supports the seminary. Our dues go the UAHC (Union of American Hebrew Congregations) and a portion of those dues are then sent to HUC-JIR. The Reform movement recognized early on that supporting and sustaining an American Rabbinical Seminary was critical to Reform Judaism surviving in this country.

I am sure that Rabbi Deutsch will tell us more about the seminary and its role in Reform Jewish life today. I am indebted to the College-Institute for the education it provided me and the support it gave me on my journey toward becoming a rabbi.

Please come to Temple on March 2nd and join me in our congregation's celebration of 125 years of HUC-JIR and to our long standing relationship we have had with it and its product: your rabbis.

Rabbi Jon Adland

A Message from the President

As spring begins to approach, there are lots of exciting opportunities to get involved with TAI activities.

First, our Long Range Planning Committee will be conducting three Large Group Meetings on February 25 and March 4 to examine worship, religious school, summer activities, the role of the Temple in our community, the needs of different segments of our members and any other issues that you think need to be addressed. The five initial focus groups were very successful and provided a great deal of information for our Planning Committee. We need everyone to participate in the Large Group Meetings to make sure that our plans for the future are sound and meaningful.

Second, the Jewish Community has filed a formal application to build a Habitat House in May and June. We now need volunteers to help with a variety of important jobs such as construction, food, telephoning, and publicity. We need all types of assistance and have a job for everyone who is interested in this project. Please help provide a home for a family.

Third, thanks to the efforts of Outreach Chair Wendy Waltman, a new informal discussion group has been formed. This group, B'nai Avraham V'Sarah, provides Jews-by-choice with the opportunity to meet several times during the year to discuss a variety of issues such as integration, acculturation, and assimilation into the Jewish community. The first meeting will be held February 25 at Wendy's home.

Finally, we have some very interesting speakers scheduled for services in March. On March 2, Rabbi Stacia Deutsch from Hebrew Union College will speak as part of our celebration of the 125th anniversary of HUC. On March 23, our Oneg Shabbat speaker will be Larry Johnson who will speak on the subject of African Americans and Jews. Mr. Johnson is the Vice-President of the Humanitarian Center for Diversity, Program Chair of the Mayor's Youth Violence Prevention Program, a member of the Lexington Commission on Race Relations, and a member and past President of the Lexington Network.

A Call For Your Best Recipes

We are excited to announce our plans for a 2001 Temple Adath Israel Cookbook! This cookbook will contain favorite recipes and holiday foods that reflect our Jewish heritage. Proceeds from the cookbook sales will benefit the TAI Religious School. Family is a beautiful and important part of our lives. Please be part of the TAI family tree recipe collection.

We need the help of every Temple family to make this project a success. Please share lots of your best recipes with us, adhering to Temple dietary guidelines. Categories include: appetizers, dips and beverages, soups, salads and vegetables, breads and rolls, main dishes – vegetarian/Meat, poultry, fish, and desserts. We would also like to include a section on Holiday foods.

In the comments section, feel free to share your stories about the recipes or honor the memory of family members who have prepared it. Our hope is that this cookbook will reflect our Temple family traditions and be a keepsake for our children. We also plan to involve the Religious School children by incorporating their art in the cookbook.

Recipe forms and boxes for the completed recipes will be located in the hallway, office and library. Photocopies recipes are welcome (please include your name.) You can also e-mail recipes to: Anne Graff at AGraff8@aol.com. We would like to have all the recipes by March 25.

Thank you so much for your participation. If you have any questions, or would like to be involved in the Cookbook Committee, please call Julie McKee (255-5646), Anne Graff (264-9424), or Lisa Taulbee (277-6374).

The Women's Community Seder

Back by popular demand, this year's Women's Community Seder will be on April 12, 2001, at 6:00 PM at Ohavay Zion Synagogue.

Last Passover, more than 70 women of all ages and from all areas of our Jewish community came together for an evening of joyous celebration. It is no exaggeration to say the event received rave reviews. A few sample comments from evaluations of the evening:

- "The seder was outstanding. It was a very special evening and had everything you could want in a women's seder - it was meaningful, spiritual, informative, sensitive, musical and nurturing of everyone's spirit."
- "It was wonderful that women from different parts of our Jewish community in Lexington were able to come together to take part. Thank you for making this possible."
- "A wonderful combination of traditional and contemporary rituals."
- "A very positive, fun, and spiritually rewarding experience. It's wonderful to see that women from across the whole community can join together, work together, and benefit together."

The committees for this year's seder are forming, and could use more volunteers. Call the chair(s) to sign on:
 Janice Newman - Set-up and Clean-up – 272-6807
 Judy Baumann - Food preparation – 223-1299
 Toni Reiss and Sandy Adland - Publicity and Registration – 269-2979
 Deborah Isenstadt & Judy Levy - Seder service – 269-5542

News From Last Month

TRYB

Last month members of TRYB, our senior high school youth group, led our Friday evening Shabbat services. It was great to see so many of this group participate in a creative service.

Hevrah Kickoff

The hevrah concept is a way to help people within the congregation connect as small groups for mutually satisfying reasons. Some folks gather to form extended families to celebrate holidays, some gather to study or discuss ethical, religious or social issues, some gather to go out for a good time, some gather to perform community services and some gather for all of these reasons. The Temple will be a resource to the hevrahs, helping them to develop the structure (or non-structure) and programs that will allow the hevrah members to thrive. Whatever your personal interests, we will work with you to find a hevrah that suits you. Please look at the registration form below and send it back to the Temple office if you are interested in participating in a hevrah

Sisterhood News

From the Sisterhood President – Sandra Heymann

Here we are entering spring, the flowers will soon begin to bloom and the leaves turn green. The sun will beam down bright rays of light to fill our hearts with joy. There are many events and happenings coming up in our Sisterhood. I hope that you all will join us for a spring full of sharing and learning.

On Saturday and Sunday, March 24-25, Lexington and Temple Adath Israel Sisterhood will be the proud hosts of the Women of Reform Judaism – District 1– Leadership Conference. The conference is open to all Sisterhood members. Registration is only $60 per delegate. The registration deadline is March 1. If you are interested in attending (which I hope ALL of you are), please call Sandy Heymann at 224-4230 and I will send you a registration form. Or you may pick one up in the Temple office. Registration includes: first timers session, all general sessions, Saturday dinner and Sunday brunch, plus a work shop full of exciting ideas to strengthen our Sisterhood. We still need volunteers to help with table centerpieces, registration, selling uniongrams, baking, working the hospitality room and putting together the welcome bags. If you are willing to help, please call Sandy Heymann as soon as possible.

Our March Sisterhood meeting is a combined open Board Meeting/Ladies Night Out on Monday, March 19, at 7 PM at Imperial Hunan in Woodhill Shopping Center. RSVP to the Temple office at 269-2979 by Friday, March 16.

Mazal Tov! Our Sisterhood has achieved a level of distinction on the Youth Education and Special Projects (YES) Fund Honor Roll for 1999-2000. Rabbinical students, Reform youth and many special projects for Sisterhoods will benefit because our Sisterhood chose to make a significant financial commitment to the YES fund. I personally would like to thank Marilyn Lieber for all her hard work, contribution and dedication, along with Judy Hersh, Anita Mersack, Bobbi Fried, Kaye Kaplan, Bonnie Sobel and many other Sisterhood members that have worked hard to keep our YES fund going.

The Circle of Service & Lifeline are individual contributions to the YES Fund. Circle of Service members are Sandy Adland, Anita Mersack, Ruth Baker, Helen Paritz, Kaye Kaplan, Barbara Straus. Lifeline members are: Anita Baker & Marilyn Lieber.

Also a special recognition to Marilyn "AKA Dorothy" Lieber for her continuing Circle of Service. Marilyn is listed with 6 stars in the current WRJ Book of Honor. Dorothy, you are such a role model to us all!

A Special Sisterhood Thank You

On behalf of the Board of Directors of the Florence Crittenton Home, the residents, the staff, and our very own Sisterhood, THANK YOU, Eleanor Benblatt for the most beautiful hand made baby blankets. Eleanor you are a dear! You bring the meaning of Sisterhood to life!

We now have an updated, beautiful and interesting history scrap book that was completed by Anita Baker. Anita, we thank you so much for all of your hard work and creativity. You are a gem! Anita has asked that we also update our president's book. We need 5 X 7 or 8 X 10 photos of our last three Sisterhood Presidents. Could you all please get them to Anita as soon as possible? Thank you.

March is Mitzvah Crib Month. Please bring your donation of baby supplies to the baby crib in our Temple foyer throughout this month.

Before I close, please allow me to give one more Mazal Tov to Wendy Waltman and Starr Gantz for organizing such a special Mitzvah that we as a Sisterhood did along with the Junior League and Women Black Achievers. On February 11, at the Temple, we helped host a special Valentine dinner for the girls at the Florence Crittenton Home. I doubt anyone will realize just how special, important, and cared for we made the girls feel. This was an ultimate mitzvah project. Wendy and Starr, thank you for giving many of us this gift. Giving really is receiving. And to the MANY wonderful Sisterhood and Temple members, who helped, I say a heartfelt THANK YOU to each and every one of you. You give Sisterhood that special meaning.

One more thing – to our program chair, Sandy Adland, I constantly tell myself how lucky I am to have you by my side. You are amazing! Our programs are the VERY BEST in the district.

Shalom to all!

PLAY BALL!

Temple Adath Israel "Maccabees" is looking for adult male softball players. Contact the Temple office or Jon Adland at 269-2979 or JAdland@aol.com. Games are on Monday evenings and begin in April.

PRESCHOOL NEWS FROM

Sandy Adland, Director

Registration for the 2001-2002 school year is now in progress and classes are filling up quickly. T.A.I. Preschool offers half day classes for 2 ½, 3, and 4 year old students (pre-K). Early drop-off and extended day options are also available. Our professional and caring teachers engage our students in exciting daily activities that foster a love for learning and the confidence to explore personal creativity. The curriculum is inclusive of Jewish learning, activities, and celebrations. We are especially proud of the Arts Enrichment Program that offers all of our students weekly sessions in the areas of visual arts, music, and creative movement, instructed by specialists in these fields. For more information about preschool enrollment call Sandy Adland at 269-2979.

We're renovating our playground over Spring Break! Preschool is purchasing a new multi-faceted climbing structure and also replacing the pea gravel with a softer ground covering of wood chips.

I recently flew to NYC to attend the first time ever Early Childhood Conference for Directors of the Reform movement's early childhood programs. The conference, sponsored by the UAHC Department of Jewish Education, focused upon the importance of early childhood programs within our Temples. Plans to create an organization of these Early Childhood Directors, under the auspices of the UAHC, is currently in progress.

Our "Bagels and Blocks" playgroup that meets each Tuesday morning continues to grow and strengthen. The January guest speaker was Elise Wallace of Parent's Place, who led a discussion on a variety of topics including discipline and sibling rivalry.

On Monday evening, March 5th at 5:45 PM, T.A.I. Preschool will hold its first ever "Preschool Family Dinner and Arts Enrichment Showcase" in the Temple Social Hall. After families share dinner together, the classes will demonstrate a taste of what they have learned in the areas of music, movement, and visual arts. We're "reaching for the stars" at Temple Adath Israel Preschool!

New Member Highlight

Marcos Oliveira and Gabriela Rennebeck-Oliveira

Marcos and Gaby are originally from Brazil. They were married in St. Louis, MO, in 1991 and lived in Austin, TX, until 1999 when they moved to Lexington.

Marcos is an Assistant Professor at UK and Gaby is a post-doctorate in Biological Sciences at UK. Gaby loves animals but now her passion is her bundle of joy, their new son, Izaak Thomaz.

Both of them love the outdoors; hiking, camping, and jogging. Gaby loves tennis, one of her top sports as a teen and she is always looking for a partner to play. They are grateful to members of the TAI community with a special thanks to the Saturday morning Torah Study group and to Rabbi Adland. They like all of the programs currently offered by the Temple and their goal is to take the time to get to know all of them, one at a time.

The Temple staff and congregation welcome them to the community and the Temple family.

Social Action "Mitzvah of the Month"

The Social Action Committee has selected LexCare as its "Mitzvah of the Month" for the month of March. LexCare will be the recipient of $54 from the Tzedakah Fund. TAI members are encouraged to give either to the organization directly or to the Tzedakah Fund.

LexCare currently participates in two projects: 1) distribution of diapers for families with children, and 2) "We can make a difference", a program designed to distribute donations to those in temporary, financial need.

For information about LexCare, call 233-7779 or send contributions to LexCare, PO Box 1328, Lexington, KY 40588.

Please Let Us Know!!

As a result of patient confidentiality, some area hospitals will not release to us the names of Jewish patients when our Temple office calls.

Therefore, Rabbi Adland and the Temple are relying on you to let us know when someone is in the hospital. Please call us when you know about someone going into the hospital. Your help in this matter is invaluable.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

APRIL 2001

VOL. 68 NO. 8

NISAN-IYAR 5761

The spring festival of Pesach is a truly special time for the members of the Jewish community. We celebrate the importance of freedom as we remember our liberation from the slavery we endured in Egypt. We affirm our connection to Jews from all ages of Jewish history by participating in a Seder. Though the celebration of Pesach may have changed since the days of King David, we have always marked this moment in the spring with sacred traditions.

In the CCAR Haggadah, the Haggadah that we use at our Temple's second night seder, the emphasis is not only on liberation from bondage, but on remembering that we were once strangers in a strange land. We are reminded, if not also taught, and commanded, to take care of the stranger in the midst of our community.

On a particularistic notion that refers to the new members of our community, how many of us introduce ourselves to a new or unfamiliar face at service or when at Temple for any program or occasion? How many of us go out of our way to call a new member family and welcome them into our community? I urge you to remember, as we are reminded during the seder, that you were also once strangers in a strange land and that someone reached out to you.

The stranger doesn't only reside in our congregational community, but in the greater community as well. We should especially consider those who are less fortunate than ourselves. The Seder says, "Let all who are hungry come and eat." We may not be able to feed every hungry person, but at this season we can at least try. In this bulletin there is a letter from MAZON, A Jewish Response to Hunger. Small contributions from people like you and me at Pesach usually add up to hundreds of thousands of dollars that feed hungry people all over the world. Another possibility is to bring some canned goods that you don't or can't eat at Pesach, or the pastas and bean packages that you might put away for the week and put them in the God's Pantry blue barrel. Pesach is a special time as we nourish our bodies, feed our souls, and remember the stranger who dwells in our midst.

Special Announcements

April 1, 2001

DEAR CONGREGANT,

As Passover approaches, I urge you to share this celebration of freedom with those who remain enslaved by hunger and poverty. I ask you to do so by contributing to MAZON: A Jewish Response to Hunger the money you would have spent to feed one extra person at your seder table.

MAZON will grant your dollars wisely and well to organizations helping millions of poor and hungry people in the United States, in Israel, and in poor countries worldwide. In its first 15 years, MAZON has granted nearly $23 million to help feed hungry people today and work for justice for them tomorrow. The dollars raised in our American Jewish community, in part through this annual Passover appeal, have transformed MAZON into one of the country's largest private funders of domestic anti-hunger programs.

Despite an unprecedented economic boom, hunger remains a scandal in our country. Nearly 31 million Americans are hungry or at the very edge of hunger, unsure of where their next meal will come from.

At Passover, I believe we are not only obligated but also blessed to use the freedom that we celebrate to free others who desperately need our help. Please do so by "letting one who is hungry enter and eat." I urge you to send a donation to MAZON: A Jewish Response to Hunger, 12401 Wilshire Blvd. Suite 303, Los Angeles, CA 90025-1015

I wish you the joys of the Passover season.

L'Shalom,

Jon Adland, Rabbi

ADULT JEWISH GROWTH

B'nai Avraham V'Sarah Discussion Group

B'nai Avraham v'Sarah is a new group at Temple Adath Israel, formed to openly discuss issues of special concern to Jews-by-Choice and those undergoing conversion. Our first meeting was successfully held on February 25, 2001. A discussion of the article "True Believers" from the December 2000 issue of Moment Magazine made for some very interesting conversation.

Our next meeting will take place on Sunday, May 20, 2001 at 7:30 PM at the home of Outreach chairperson, Wendy Waltman, 2213 Abbeywood Rd. Our topic on that evening will be a discussion of the book Turbulent Souls by Stephen J. Dubner. This book was not only a New York Times best seller, but also picked by UAHC as one of the significant Jewish books that every Reform Jewish person is encouraged to read. This fascinating memoir touches on issues of faith, religious individuation, and their impact on one family's life. It is available at all local book stores as well as at The Lexington Public Library. The study guide is available on the web at <http://uahc.org/books/dubner.html> or by contacting Wendy who will deliver a copy to you in person! Please RSVP to Wendy Waltman at 272-8324

It is hard to believe that we are ready to begin Senior Block III. What a wonderful, stimulating, educational experience our children have had!

Our eighth graders benefited from Jane Grisé, Beth Glazier-McDonald, Debbie Masters, and Linda Ravvin. Our ninth graders were fortunate to have Linda Ravvin, Richard Greissman, and Marvin & Sandy Heymann. Tenth graders enjoyed Jonathan Miller, Daniel Chefec, Rabbi Adland and Samye Miller. Next block teachers will be Larry Kant and Lauren Higdon in eighth grade; Jeff Davidson, Cindy Ellsworth, Karyn Martin and Beth Glazier-McDonald for ninth grade; and Rabbi Adland and Samye Miller for Confirmation Class.

Bobbi & Drew Fried just completed their Jewish Cooking and Jewish Humor Class. Roy Meckler was the seventh grade teacher first semester. Sandy Heymann will complete the seventh grade curriculum with a course about Jewish Identity.

Our Religious School would not be successful without the hard work and dedication of these teachers. I cannot begin to express my appreciation for their excellent teaching. Our children have benefited from their expertise. A very special thank you to all of you!

Reminder: April 1, the Religious School will be having a Passover Fair. If you are interested in assisting us, please contact me immediately. Thanks for your help. Call Marsha Rose at 263-9606.

PRESCHOOL NEWS FROM Sandy Adland, Director

We are all looking forward to the approach of springtime after a very cold winter! March was a busy time at pre-school. We were visited by McGruff the police dog, and also by Miss Jennifer, a Dental Assistant from Dr. Juliette Keller's office. We had a great time celebrating Purim by making masks and groggers, hearing the story of Purim, and of course, making and eating hamentashen! Our Preschool Family Night and Arts Enrichment Showcase was a fabulous success, with almost all of our families in attendance.

Our classroom Passover seders will be held on Tuesday, April 3rd and Wednesday, April 4th during regular class times. All of our preschool families are invited to share this celebration with their children. Enrollment for the 2001-2002 school year is in progress. Spaces are still available in the 2 ½ year old class. For more information about the preschool call Sandy Adland at 269-2979.

FROM THE CLASSROOMS

7th Grade Class – Bobbi & Drew Fried, Teachers

The seventh grade students have been studying cooking and Jewish humor. Some of the students' thoughts about the class include:

- ◇ The 7th grade is working on a fun, interactive unit on Jewish cooking and Jewish humor. It is a delicious, entertaining way for us to learn about our culture.
- ◇ The 7th grade is cooking and studying Jewish humor. It's a lot of fun and so far we've cooked brisket, hamentashen, and more!
- ◇ The 7th grade class has made hamentaschen, challah, brisket, rugelah and latkes in our cooking segment.
- ◇ In this class, we cook kosher food and learn about their history. We also learned what Jewish people like to make fun of.
- ◇ In our cooking, we have made a lot of food and for our Jewish humor we have told Jewish jokes..

TRYB NEWS

This year in the TRYB we have been extremely busy. In January, we hosted a region-wide program called "The 30 Hour Famine". In this event we learned about social action and social justice, worked at God's Pantry and Shriner's Hospital, went ice skating, and participated in the Martin Luther King Day March downtown. Thirty people in all attended. We had about 10 from out-of-town and 20 from Lexington.

In February, we hosted an Erev Shabbat service, and sent three delegates to the NFTY Biennial Convention in Los Angeles. There we were among 1,600 teens and 400 advisors from around the continent.

The first weekend in March, three teens went to Columbus for the Ohio Valley Regional Convention. Our Purim Carnival was held on March 11.

HAPPY PASSOVER FROM THE RELIGIOUS SCHOOL AND TEMPLE YOUTH GROUPS!

FROM THE PROGRAM COORDINATOR – Toni Reiss

Take Me Out to the Ballgame - May 20!

We are all excited to have baseball here in Lexington so we're organizing a trip to the ballpark to see the Lexington Legends play. Lexington's Jewish organizations (TAI, OZS, the Lexington Havurah, Hadassah, CKJF) are working together to plan a great event for everyone. For only $11.00 per person, we will have an all you can eat kosher hot dog lunch (with potato chips and Pepsi products) and reserved seats in the ballpark. On May 20 our picnic will begin at 1 PM and the ballgame starts at 2:05 PM. To order your tickets, send a check or money order with a self addressed, stamped envelope to Toni Reiss at Temple Adath Israel, 124 North Ashland Ave., Lexington, KY 40502

Jewish Artists showcased at the Huntington Museum Of Art

I am trying to gauge member interest in traveling together to Huntington, West Virginia to attend this special exhibition. The exhibit will only be on view from May 5 – July 29, 2001. If you are interested in going, call Toni Reiss at 269-2979.

News From Last Month

Update on the TAI Hevrah Initiative The Hevrah kick off was a very enjoyable evening for the fifty or so folks who came out for a potluck dinner, an educational Havdalah service presented and lead by Paula Harrison, and some great table discussions! Those that completed registration forms will be contacted shortly about the formation of the four new hevrot that will be starting at TAI as a result of this initiative.

It's not too late to complete a registration form and join a Hevrah. It never will be; the Hevrah initiative will be an ongoing program to serve TAI members who desire to be a part of a small group of people with shared interests. If you are interested, send your completed form to Toni Reiss at the Temple office, 124 N. Ashland Ave., Lexington, KY 40502.

Sisterhood News

From the President, Sandra Heymann

My Dear Sisterhood and Temple Members,

April Showers bring May flowers and Passover too!

That saying always brings a smile to my face. I love Passover, the meaning of this special holiday, our traditions, our Jewish ways. What a beautiful time of the year.

Please allow me to start with saying thank you to EVERYONE who attended our March meeting with Rabbi Sharon Cohen. We had over 50 Sisterhood members and guests attend this wonderful lunch.

Those of who helped with our leadership conference, what can I say – you all deserve a million dollars and then some. I thank you, WRJ thanks you, and our Sisterhood thanks you all for giving up your time and caring enough to help show WRJ that Temple Adath Israel has the best Sisterhood in District 10. A special thank you to Karyn Martin. Thank you for sticking by my side and making things work for all of us.

Those of you who would like to help with the Congregational Passover Seder (Sunday, April 8), we need your help! Please call Rose Rita Wurmser at 277-0217 as soon as possible. PLEASE volunteer to help make this seder extra special. What would we do without our dear Rosie. Please support her and her committee.

Mark April 27 on your calendar. The Temple will install the new Board of Trustees and Sisterhood is providing a special Oneg. Everyone, please bring a baked good for this special evening and come to services and give Mazel to our new Temple Board members.

The Nearly New collection is nearly gone. It seems that this great program that has been in place for years has reached its end. Our dear Elayne Crystal has done a marvelous job with this program and we thank you Elayne! May will be our last month for Nearly New. Please only bring us items that are in mint condition. We will not be able to accept any items after May.

We hope to see you all at the April program. Watch your mail for details. Until then, Happy Passover to you and your families.

Shalom to all!

Sandra Heymann

100th ANNIVERSARY COMMITTEE NEWS

100th Anniversary Committee Makes Great Strides

Chas Hite, Chairperson

On June 9, 2001, TAI will officially be 97 years old. Nu? Well, the significance is, beginning after Yom Kippur 5764 (October, 2003) and culminating in April 2004, TAI will have a nearly year-long Centennial Celebration!

The 100th Anniversary Committee and its member sub-committees, have already been hard at work delving into historic archives, planning events and proposing memento/keepsake possibilities.

The activities sub-committee has already formulated a tentative schedule which will include Shabbat services honoring past Sisterhood and Brotherhood officers, past Religious School workers, past TAI Presidents, and former Rabbis.

The Shabbat of April 23, 2004 begins the penultimate weekend. TRYB has been honored by being asked to lead the Erev Shabbat service (current 5th through 9th grades – THIS MEANS YOU!) Rabbi Yoffie, President of the UAHC will be here in Lexington to share our congregation's simcha and honor us with a speech. Saturday night will be a dinner/dance/concert with a known artist such as Julie Silver, El18hteen, or Dan Nichols. Sunday may have a TAI family picnic, after Sunday School. (We are hoping the teachers will spend a few minutes of class time that morning talking about the Centennial.)

Please mark your calendars, and enter these dates into your Palm Pilots now – it will be a very special time in the life of this congregation. And for those of you with any energy left;... Monday April 26, 2004 is Yom Ha'atzmaut – Eretz Y'Israel's 56th birthday!

Please watch this space for the 100th Anniversary slogan and logo contests! Our next meeting is April 17, 7:30 PM at Temple Adath Israel.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY HOUSE

The Jewish Community of Lexington still has $22,000 left to raise for the Habitat House that we, together are building for a family in need. We cannot build this house as a community if we do not raise the funds. Thank you to all who have already generously contributed. For those of you who have not yet given, or to those who want to give more, here is a great way to do it.

As a fundraiser, the Jewish community is organizing a Silent Auction for Sunday, April 29, 2001 along with a spaghetti dinner (location/time TBA).

We hope to be auctioning gift baskets, event tickets, crafts, art, special books, and much more. The religious school and other various Jewish organizations are being asked to donate items for the themed baskets. Let us know your donation idea or what you would be willing to donate. Please contact Laura Loventhal O'Dell at 605 Centennial Lane, Lexington, 40502. Or you may call Laura with your idea at 266-8395, or e-mail her at LauraSueLove@hotmail.com. Please send in your idea, call, or e-mail by April 15th. Thank you for your ideas, and input to this wonderful project!

ITEMS NEEDED FOR THE SEDER PLATE

A. Charoset - Composed of chopped nuts and apples, cinnamon and wine, charoset represents the mortar used by the Jews in making bricks while they were slaves in Egypt.

B. Zeroa - The roasted shankbone or roasted wing of a fowl represents the sacrifice of the Paschal lamb.

C. Beitza - The roasted hard-cooked egg symbolizes the festival offering brought to the Temple.

D. Moror - The bitter herbs are represented by horseradish that has been freshly grated from the horseradish root. They symbolize the bitterness of slavery for the Jews in Egypt.

E. Karpas - You may use parsley or celery to represent Spring, which brings rebirth and redemption. It is dipped in salt water before it is eaten to remind us of the tears and sweat of the Jewish people in slavery.

F. Chazereth - On most Seder plates, there is another form of bitter herbs. It may be the root of the horseradish (ungrated) or watercress.

Wine Glasses - The glasses are filled with the traditional, Kosher for Passover wine.

Decanter of Wine - There should be enough wine to pour four cups for each individual. These represent the four divine promises of redemption found in Exodus 6:6-7. You will also need enough wine for serving during the meal.

Cup of Elijah - Fill a beautiful cup with wine and put it in a prominent place on the table to welcome Elijah, the prophet who heralds freedom and redemption.

Charoset - Although charoset goes on the Seder plate, extra charoset is served for making the Hillel sandwich and to eat during the meal. Rabbi Hillel, a great Jewish teacher who lived between 90 BCE and 70 CE may have invented this sandwich of charoset and moror (between two pieces of matzah) to represent the bitterness of slavery and the sweetness of freedom.

Candlesticks - The blessing over the candles is recited before the Seder begins.

Pillows - Pillows to lean on are traditionally placed on chairs, especially in the chair of the leader of the Seder, as a symbol of freedom from slavery.

SETTING THE SEDER TABLE

Seder Plate - The most important item on the table is the Seder plate, containing the symbolic foods. Seder plates are usually beautifully decorated, often with scenes from the Passover story or with Hebrew inscriptions.

Three Matzahs - The ceremonial matzahs are placed, one on top of the other, in a special matzah cover or in a napkin. According to a common interpretation, the matzahs represent the three divisions of the Jewish people; Kohen - priest; Levi - assistants in the Temple; Israelites - people of Israel.

Additional Matzah - Additional matzah is placed on a serving plate, for eating during the main meal.

Haggadahs - The Haggadah is the book that is read cover to cover during the evening. It includes the story, prayers, songs, rituals, and commentary that make up the Seder. Make sure you have one at each place.

Dish of Salt Water - Part of the Seder ritual is to dip the Karpas (parsley) into salt water, which represents the tears of the Jewish people while in slavery.

Among the foods that must contain the "Kosher l'Pesach" label and be certified for Passover use by rabbinical authority are:

Matzah, matzah flour, Passover noodles
Candles, cakes, cookies, jams and jellies
Cheeses, milk, and butter
Canned and processed foods, such as fruits, sauces, and soups
Salad oils, shortenings, vinegar
Beverages, wine and liquors
Vegetable gelatin
Relishes
Dried fruits
Horseradish

The following foods require no Kosher l'Pesach label if they are in unopened packages or containers or in a natural state:

Coffee, tea, and sugar (but not confectioners' sugar, because it contains cornstarch)
Salt, pepper, and spices (some herbs should be fresh)
All fruits and nuts
All vegetables except legumes such as peas, corn, and beans

Fruits and vegetables normally permitted for Passover use are permitted in their frozen state, provided they have not been cooked or processed in any way.

Chametz - foods with leavening - may not be eaten during Passover.

*All grains (wheat, rye, oats, barley, rice, kasha, spelt) or any of their derivatives
Leavened bread, cakes, biscuits, crackers, and cereals, and any store bought baked goods not labeled Kosher l'Pesach
Any product with flavoring made from grain alcohol, such as vanilla extract, brandy, beer, or liquor
Legumes such as corn, beans, soy beans, lentils, lima beans, and any product made from them*

THE SEARCH FOR CHAMETZ

All chametz must be removed from the house or separated by putting into a room, closet, or cupboard that is locked. Since during the year, chametz may work its way into every corner of the house and even into the household dust, a thorough housecleaning is considered part of the Passover preparations.

To further insure that no chametz will be found in the house during Passover, a final, ritual search (Bedikat Chametz) made after dark on the night before Passover. To add interest to the ceremony, especially for children, bread may be wrapped in a napkin and hidden around the house for family members to find. The family goes from room to room, using only a candle to light the way. Traditionally, a feather is used to brush the bits of bread into the wooden spoon.

The chametz is then tied up in a cloth along with the feather, the candle, and the spoon, and burned the next morning. There are blessings to accompany both the search for the disposal of chametz.

THE MATZAH OF UNITY

(To be recited during the Seder at Yachatz when breaking the middle Matzah)

We are about to take the middle matzah and divide it in half. As we break this matzah and set it aside, we link ourselves symbolically with all Jews who have lived in the former Soviet Union. We will not conclude our Seder until the missing piece of matzah is found and brought again to our table. This action reminds us of the indestructible unity which binds all Jews together as a world family.

In Jewish tradition, matzah is "the bread of affliction," used on the road to redemption. As we celebrate Pesach, our festival of freedom, we know that the theme of the Exodus resonates in all that is happening around us. Jews of the Soviet Union resisted decades of suppression. Struggling to live as Jews, many sought valiantly to leave for Israel, the homeland of the Jewish people. Many suffered harassment; some endured prison and some lost their lives.

At last, most Jews can leave the place that represented a prison for so long. For now, the door to freedom remains open. We walk with them in their Exodus. Through Operation Exodus, we commit ourselves to help them in their quest for a new and better future for themselves and their children.

We also remember the several million Jews who still remain behind. We pledge our vigilance, our support, and our solidarity with them, as they endeavor to sustain their community and courageously resist anti-Semitism.

As Jews from the former Soviet Union and other countries settle in Israel by the hundreds of thousands, we know that their reunification with the Jewish people requires our caring and loving concern. May we be worthy of that challenge.

We pray that all Jews may find freedom this year in a world without war and with Israel at peace. Am Yisrael Hu Am Echad. May the Jewish people always be united!

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

MAY 2001

VOL. 68 NO. 9

IYAR-SIVAN 5761

This month the Lexington Jewish community will begin building a house for Habitat for Humanity. I am thrilled that we have undertaken such a project. Please remember that the build takes several work sessions and workers are needed every step of the way. What is done at the end is just as important as what takes place at the beginning. Putting up trim is just as necessary as building walls. Building such a house makes very real the spiritual of "Tikkun Olam"—the completion of making the world whole.

I am thrilled that energy abounds in our congregation to have summer programs. Without question we go dormant in the summer. Part of this is my fault. I go to camp and take vacation. I have witnessed, thanks to the great efforts of Toni Reiss and the programming committee, and other individuals interested in summer Temple life, that enormous possibilities exist for this community to be active and exciting during the summer. I urge you to watch the bulletin for the announcements of all these upcoming summer events.

Finally, I would like to take a moment of personal privilege. At the end of this month, we will hold the annual Temple Adath Israel Confirmation Service. This special service is held on the eve of Shavuot. Shavuot is one of our three major festivals and commemorates the giving of the Torah at Sinai. It also marks the end of our Temple's formal religious education program. My son Joshua is in this year's Confirmation class. It will be my honor this year to offer him his blessing.

It is bittersweet to see the end of his religious school days. I have thoroughly enjoyed teaching him during this Confirmation year and have loved watching him grow into the Jewish man he is becoming. I know that our children must grow up, but does it have to happen so quickly.

I hope this congregation and our home have provided for him the Jewish background that he will need to lead a Jewish life. I know that we don't have enough time to teach our children all they need to know about being a Jew. I know that parents do all they can to supplement and enrich what we do at Temple. But is it enough? I want our children to not only be Jews, proud Jews, but to participate actively in Jewish life in the years to come. Confirmation is one step along this road, but an important and meaningful step nonetheless.

Mazal Tov to all of the members and families of this year's Confirmation Class. May it be just one more step along the road of a positive Jewish life.

Rabbi Jon Adland

A Message from the President

Many thank yous are in order as we begin our new Temple year. First, thank you for everyone's wonderful response to our Long Range Planning process. In addition to the 50 individuals who participated in the five small focus groups, over 80 individuals participated in the two large group sessions in February and March. The sessions focused on the areas of Worship, Religious Education, Summer Programming, Community and Connections, and Dues and Finances. Many interesting ideas were suggested by our members. Our Long Range Planning Committee is now hard at work to make recommendations for the implementation of these ideas.

As the Long Range Planning process continues, we must keep in mind two things that are essential to the festival of Shavuot that we celebrate this month. First, as we shape our future, we must remember the Ten Commandments. These Commandments set forth how we should relate to other people as well as God. All of our plans must carry forth the visions set forth in these Commandments.

Second, we must remember the story of the Book of Ruth that we read at Shavuot. Ruth, originally a Moabite, was essentially the first Jewish convert. After her Jewish husband died, Ruth told her mother-in-law Naomi that "where you go, I will go...your people shall be my people, your God shall be my God." About a third of our congregation is composed of interfaith families. About 60 individuals in our congregation have, like Ruth, chosen Judaism. All of our planning for the future must incorporate the needs of everyone in our congregation.

Thanks also to everyone who has helped and who will help with our Jewish Community Habitat House. The house will be built at 438 East 4th Street in Lexington. It will be a four bedroom, 2 bath, 1 story home. The family that will move into the house is Rebecca Lewis and her five children. Please come and help us build. Every level of expertise is needed. Please do everything you can to help us raise the necessary funds to complete this wonderful project.

Joe

FROM THE YOUTH EDUCATION DIRECTOR – Marsha Rose

Thank you to all of our wonderful, dedicated staff and parents for making our Passover Fair a success. It was truly rewarding to observe our four-year olds through sixth grade making Matzo Brei and Charoses. They also participated in art activities, Hebrew games and drama. Parent, teachers and children enjoyed the stimulating activities. The best compliment of all was when Senior Block students asked to participate. Perhaps next year all of the Religious School students will have the opportunity to be an essential part of this exciting program.

It is hard to believe that the school year is almost over. Many, many thanks to all of our caring, devoted teachers. What a challenging year we have had. Your children have truly benefited from our teachers' expertise.

As the planning stages begin for next year, I encourage you to become active participants. If you are interested in becoming an essential part of Religious School or the Youth Education Committee, please do not hesitate to contact me at 263-9606.

Please Let Us Know!!

As a result of patient confidentiality, some area hospitals will not release to us the names of Jewish patients when our Temple office calls. Your help in this matter is invaluable.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

JUNE/JULY 2001

VOL. 68 NO. 10

SIVAN/TAMMUZ/AV 5761

We are in the midst of a quiet, but strong renaissance of Jewish life at Temple Adath Israel. It is quite exciting to witness this from my perspective as rabbi. There are more people today, adults and children, committed to making Judaism a priority in their lives than there was a decade ago. At so many of the activities at Temple, whether it is educational, social, social justice or something else, there are always people participating, as well as people leading. It isn't just a handful, but a dozen or two dozen or even more.

Though I can't pinpoint the exact cause of this resurgence, I believe that it has to do with the desire of people to center and bring stability to their lives. Judaism has been here for a long time and will continue to be here. Judaism has rules, ethics, traditions, celebrations, and prayer. Judaism can bring a kind of sense to the craziness of the world that is constantly around us. We are bombarded by messages, by visions of violence, by traumatic problems each and every day. Judaism offers us a respite and a place to gain strength. Judaism reminds us that not all is out of control.

Listen to the words of Rabbi Elazar ben Azarya in Pirkei Avot (The Sayings of our Fathers), "Without Torah, there is no social order; without the social order, there is no Torah. Without wisdom, there is no conscience; without conscience, there is no wisdom. Without knowledge, there is no understanding; without understanding, there is no knowledge. Without sustenance there is no Torah; without Torah, there is no sustenance."

My friends, I am grateful for what this congregation is and what it is becoming. We are alive Jewishly. We are working toward Tikkun Olam. We are teaching this generation and the next, Torah. We are a Jewish place that believes in and practices Jewish values. We are a place for all of us to center our lives, learn Torah, and give meaning to each breath.

A Message From The President

We have just about done it! As of the writing of this article, we have raised $25,000 of the $35,000 we need to build our house. At our April 29th Spaghetti Dinner, we came together as a Jewish community and raised close to $10,000 in about two hours. This dinner was a momentous event for our community in many ways.

We had the opportunity to meet Rebecca Lewis and her six delightful children who will all be moving into the house. We had the opportunity to bid on wonderful silent auction items donated by our members and many local businesspersons. And most importantly, we had the opportunity to dispel several myths that have been floating around in our community. Myth #1 - Temple members will not go to the Synagogue to participate in an event. While 100 individuals called to state that they were coming to the dinner, well over 200 people actually appeared. Many of these folks were Temple members. As people poured into the Social Hall, we realized that we did not have enough tables or chairs - we had only set up for 170. Rabbi Cohen graciously led us to the basement where we carried tables and chairs up to provide more seating room. The positive atmosphere in the Synagogue's Social Hall was truly wonderful. Not only did Temple members go to the Synagogue, we all had the chance to talk to each other and we all had a great time.

Myth #2 - Men cannot cook. Not only can our men cook quite well, they can prepare food for 150 and magically turn it into food that serves 250. The spaghetti was great. The salad was delicious. Everything looked good as well. Our Brotherhood and the Synagogue's Men's Club worked together as a very effective team.

Myth #3 - The Jewish community cannot work together because of our differences. This myth has been completely disproved. Our Habitat Dinner demonstrated, hopefully once and for all, that this community can come together, can work extremely effectively together, and can accomplish anything it desires. We can have a wonderful time with each other. Yes, we have philosophical differences. Yes, we have different views on some religious practices. Yes, we sometimes have disputes about various things. However, in the end, we are a community of extremely talented people. We are a community of very kind, generous, and giving people. We can be an incredibly powerful force for good in this community.

Now that these three myths have been dispelled, I would suggest that we begin a new chapter in our Jewish community. Let's continue to figure out ways to join together to perform good deeds in our community. Let's make sure that we continue to create a community for our children and their children that is filled with positive images of each other. There is really no limit to what we can accomplish together. Let's come together and have fun.

Any help collecting these items for the Dialysis patients would be appreciated.

3rd Grade Marcy Schultz, Teacher

The last few weeks, 3rd grade has been studying early Bible characters. We constructed a family tree and visually made the relations between Abraham, Sarah, Isaac, Rebecca, Jacob, Esau, Leah, Rachel, Joseph, Benjamin, and many more.

The students were assigned one Bible character to research at home and share with the class. the students did a wonderful job and learned incredible information and more importantly, an overall knowledge and understanding of the founding Jewish characters.

The third graders have been a fabulous class all year long. We have learned together, respected each other, and had fun studying our religion together. Have a wonderful summer.

5TH GRADE Jane Gris , Teacher

We began this year by learning about Shabbat, prayer, and our Friday night service and on February 23, our fifth graders led the Friday night service.

We went to Mayfair Manor in March and had fun playing bingo with the residents and talking with them.

In our life-cycle unit, we explored Jewish customs dealing with birth and bar/bat mitzvah and found our bar/bat mitzvah Torah portions. We also learned about the Mishnah and Gemara and created our own interpretations of Biblical text.

We had a short unit on social action and learned about tzedakah, gemilut chasadim, and other Jewish concepts of giving. We ended the year by learning about the importance of the human body in Judaism and talked with the sixth grade class about middle school.

PRESCHOOL NEWS FROM

Sandy Adland, Director

We have had one of our best years ever! Thanks to our excellent staff, our children had an exciting year filled with many opportunities for learning and growing. We are grateful to our preschool families for their continual support throughout the school year, and we are thankful to have had such a sweet group of children to share our mornings with. Thanks also to Rabbi Adland for sharing Shabbat with us every Friday morning, to John McDonald and "Mr. Alonzo" for all of their help throughout the year, and to Beth Engel for chairing the Preschool Committee.

We had a year filled with "new"; a new early drop-off program, a new family event entitled "Preschool Family Night Dinner and Arts Enrichment Showcase", a new program entitled "Bagels and Blocks" for parents and children ages 0-24 months, a new logo designed by our own Lisa Miller, and a newly renovated playground!

Temple Adath Israel Preschool has an opening for an Assistant Teacher for the 2001-2002 school year. The job is easy, fun, worthwhile, and rewarding. For more information call the preschool office at 269-2979.

Please Let Us Know!!

As a result of patient confidentiality, some area hospitals will not release to us the names of Jewish patients when our Temple office calls. Therefore, Rabbi Adland and the Temple are relying on you to let us know when someone is in the hospital. Please call us when you know about someone going into the hospital. Your help in this matter is invaluable.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

AUGUST 2001

VOL. 68 NO. 11

AV-ELUL 5761

The Reform Jewish community made two crucial decisions this June. The first one came from the UAHC and the second one from the Central Conference of American Rabbis (CCAR.) Each decision has far reaching implications. Each decision was made with great thought, though one was made in haste while the other took years.

In early June, Rabbi Eric Yoffie, president of the UAHC, decided to cancel all Reform Jewish youth trips to Israel this summer. Though he believes deeply in supporting the State of Israel, he refuses to use our children as political pawns in this conviction. He couldn't guarantee the safety of these kids. The leaders of Israel have condemned Reform Judaism and our leaders for this decision. They believe that we are abandoning Israel in her time of need.

I can tell you that many parents were relieved that Rabbi Yoffie made this decision. Sandy and I would have sent Josh on his trip if NFTY (the national youth arm of the Reform movement) had said the trips were going. We believe that going to Israel must be a part of each child's Jewish experience. We understand that there may never be a perfect time to go to our homeland. Yet, like many others, we understood that right now might not be the best of all times. I remain convinced that solutions will be found if the bombings stop and the snipers cease, but if terrorism is the only means there will never be an end. My December trip is still going forward because we can go and make a visit and statement at the same time.

The other decision came from the CCAR in its passage of the new Reform Jewish Guidelines for Conversion. This document came out of a committee that I chaired from 1995-1999. The document is strong and traditional, but it is only a set of guidelines for a rabbi to follow. If a rabbi doesn't believe in using the mikveh for conversion, then it won't be suggested. If a rabbi doesn't want to use a Beit Din, then it won't happen. Yet, offering traditions as part of the initiation into formal Jewish life demonstrates that being a Jew has opportunities and responsibilities.

For born Jews, living a Jewish life begins at birth. For new Jews, living a Jewish life should begin with the preparation for that life. We should teach as much as we can and encourage as much as we can. Yet, like all Reform Jews, the final determination for that Jewish life rests with the Jew-by-Choice. Making informed decisions is the soul of Reform Judaism. What I must do is teach them as much as I can and encourage as often as I can.

A Message From The President

By now, everyone should have received our annual Committee mailing. It is interesting that our Temple By-Laws require that each member be notified of the names of all Committee chairpersons and that each member be provided with a response card to sign up for notification of committee meetings. Our By-Laws were clearly written to encourage participation.

While each and every committee is important and needs your input, there are two committees that would greatly benefit from your interest - Scrip and Caring Friends. The Scrip Committee organizes and sells scrip from Kroger - they may be expanding to include Meijer's and other stores. Kaye Kaplan and Ben Baker have graciously agreed to co-chair this Committee. Our Annual Budget has projected that we will earn $3,000 from the sale of scrip this year. To achieve this goal, we must sell $60,000 of Kroger scrip by April 30, 2002. Kaye and Ben need your help to meet and, hopefully, exceed this goal.

The Caring Friends Committee, chaired by Leona Stern, also needs your assistance. This Committee was formed to provide assistance to Temple members in times of illness and family need. For some reason, we have had a difficult time generating interest in this Committee even though it is one of the most important committees that we have. We need committee members who would be willing to call Temple members who are ill, bring bimah flowers to people in the hospital or at home, bring food, or simply send a card. During our son's surgery this summer, I was once again reminded how wonderful it is when friends take the time to call, bring a meal, or send a card. If everyone would contribute one hour of time each year, we could certainly make our congregation a more caring community. Please call Leona and let her know that you are willing to help.

PRESCHOOL NEWS

After a quiet summer, we are beginning to gear up for another fantastic school year at Temple Adath Israel Preschool. Our staff is complete, and our enrollment has reached its capacity! Returning to our staff this year are Tammy Bradley, Lead Teacher for the 4 year old class, and Leslie Jennings, Assistant Teacher for the 2 ½ and 3 year old classes. Both of these women bring professionalism, enthusiasm and a tremendous amount of heart to their positions on our staff, and we are so fortunate to have them with us for the coming year.

In addition, we proudly and warmly welcome two new teachers; Robin Tremblay, our new Lead Teacher for the 2 ½ and 3 year old classes, and Lisa Rolle, our new Assistant Teacher for the 4 year old class. We have assembled a truly wonderful staff!

The next few weeks will be spent preparing the classrooms and planning exciting, fun-filled lessons and activities for our preschoolers. The first day of preschool for the 3 and 4 year old classes is Monday, August 20th, and the first day of preschool for the 2 ½ year old class is Tuesday, August 21st. We're looking forward to a great year!

Yom Kippur Memorial Book

It is a tradition of long standing to honor the memory of departed ones and friends with special acts of kindness and Tzedakah during the High Holy Days. One opportunity for an act of remembrance is offered through the Memorial Book, which is passed out to the congregation just prior to the Yizkor service Yom Kippur afternoon.

Names on our Temple's memorial talets as well as the names of those who died in the past year are automatically listed in the booklet.

A $25 per family donation is required. Memorial Book funds are used throughout the year for special Temple purposes including supporting the High Holy Days choir, printing new family services for Shabbat and High Holy Days, and more.

All listings under a personal heading (i.e. "Remembered by...") will appear only by request. Detach this form and send it to the Temple office along with your contribution made payable to Temple Adath Israel Memorial Fund. Requests must be received no later than Monday, September 17.

Please Let Us Know!!

As a result of patient confidentiality, some area hospitals will not release to us the names of Jewish patients when our Temple office calls. Therefore, Rabbi Adland and the Temple are relying on you to let us know when someone is in the hospital. Please call us when you know about someone going into the hospital. Your help in this matter is invaluable.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

SEPTEMBER 2001

VOL. 69 NO. 1

ELUL 5761-TISHRI 5762

Our High Holy Days begin the evening of September 17th with the Erev Rosh Hashanah service. Over the next three weeks, we will hold services for Rosh Hashanah, Shabbat, Shabbat Shuvah, Yom Kippur, Sukkot, and Simchat Torah.

These services will use a variety of prayer books including Gates of Repentance, Gates of Prayer, and on Shabbat Shuvah the old UNION PRAYER BOOK. As with all of our services at Temple, there will be different kinds of music including Marilyn Langley, the High Holy Day choir, the TAI Makhela, Sandy Adland, and Koleinu.

This variety of worship and music is indicative of the diversity of our congregation. The members of Temple Adath Israel come from many different backgrounds: traditional, Reform, as well as not born Jewish. Our membership is interested in spirituality, social action, social, Israel, fellowship, and Jewish education. Some members participate actively and some less so. There are any numbers of demographics you can apply to our congregation that displays our make up.

The goal of our Temple programs is to reach as many people as possible in a number of ways. There are programs or services for all age groups. Yet, announcing the programs, holding the services, running the educational opportunities is only as successful as those who come and participate. I would love to see every person in this congregation find at least one thing that interests them and attend, plan, or support that interest. I would love for people who tend to ignore what Temple has to offer to be brave and try one new thing at Temple during this coming year.

Each of you is the strength of this congregation. Each of you has something to offer. Each of you can make a difference in our Jewish life at Temple Adath Israel.

The beginning of the Jewish year opens up great possibilities for all us. The Holy Days demand that we take a look at who we are and determine what we can do to improve ourselves and our lives in the year to come. We confront the difficult decisions we made over the past year, the words we can't take back, and the actions we now regret. We also remember where we made a difference and the kind word spoken freely.

My prayer at these High Holy Days is that each of you will find a way to make Temple a significant part of your life. Enrich our community with your uniqueness. Enable our community to embrace your ideas and thoughts. Contribute to who we are and make all of us better for it.

Shanah Tovah u'metukah. May this year be a year of health, growth, and a true deepening of the spirit.

Rabbi Jon Adland

A Message From The President

As the High Holidays approach, I think about new beginnings and new opportunities in relationship to our Temple community. We are told that the world is sustained by three things: Torah, worship, and loving deeds. As we assess our personal and community goals for the year 5762, we can examine these three areas of our lives.

Education has always been a priority in Judaism. We must continue to make the education of our children and ourselves a priority in our Temple. We must figure out ways to educate our children so that Judaism is a positive force in their lives. We need to make Temple a place where they want to be. Renee Rittner, Regional UAHC Educator for the Midwest Region, recently conducted a teacher workshop and she posed the following interesting question - How do you want your students to remember their religious school experience as they look back upon it as 40-year-old adults? If each educational experience is planned with this question in mind, we can begin to look at the long-range implications of our actions.

In this coming year, we will have a wide variety of worship opportunities. From outdoor Friday night services to services that use the "old" Union Prayer Book, you will find many different types of services. In addition, we are still in the process of developing new types of services with new liturgy. Come to our Selichot service and watch a wonderful movie. Or come to Tashlich and picnic and fish. Even come to a "regular" Friday night service and listen to our beautiful choirs and sing. Whatever your preference, experience worship this year.

We must always be dedicated to tikkun olam, the perfection of our world. We must perfect our own community as well as the larger world around us. The creation of a greater sense of community in our Temple is central to our existence as a community. The hevrah movement is an attempt to break members into small groups with common interests and give members the opportunity to get to know each other and form closer bonds. If you are in a hevrah, help get your group organized. If you are not in a hevrah, think about joining one.

The old Union Prayer Book was the main prayer book of Reform Judaism until the 1975 publication of Gates of Prayer.

At the September 21st, 7:30 PM, Shabbat Shuvah service, we will use this prayer book once again as the liturgy for our Sabbath service.

SELICHOT AT TAI September 8, 2001

9-10 PM movie and discussion "Women at

10 PM Selichot Service

Selichot is a penitential service held on a Saturday night before Rosh HaShanah. The service prepares people for the Holy Days. As a part of this service, we will change the Torah covers to the Holy Day white.

CAN YOU SOUND THE SHOFAR?

Last year at the conclusion of the Yom Kippur service there were several people who sounded the final Tekiah Gedolah consecutively. Are there other proficient shofar blowers in our congregation?? Rabbi Adland would like to hear from you and give you a tryout. Call 269-2979 and let him hear YOU sound the shofar.

Help needed for Break-the-Fast

Because a large number of people attend Break-the-Fast, Sisterhood needs several volunteers to help with this event. In particular, we'll be making kugel on Sunday morning, Sept. 23, and doing last-minute preparations on Erev Yom Kippur and Yom Kippur, Sept. 26 and 27.

If you'd like to help, call Mary Engel at 252-3734 for specifics.

If you plan to attend Break-the-Fast, please bring a salad, vegetable, gelatin mold or dairy (non-meat) dish for 6 to the temple. It's best to bring it in the afternoon when you attend services because storage space is limited in the kitchen.

Also, we want to have ample seating for Break-the-Fast, so RSVP to the Temple office at 269-2979.

Rachel wish each of you a happy,

Sukkot Harvest Festival Coming October 7

Mark your calendar and reserve the date of October 7 for the Sukkot Harvest Festival at Garrett's Farm. This is a family event you won't want to miss.

All details will be in the October bulletin. We look forward to a large group attending this year.

We have many chances to perfect our larger world. Our successful Habitat project is one example. It is hard to believe that in January the Presidents of each Jewish organization in Lexington met in my living room to determine if a Habitat project was feasible and six short months later we collected over $35,000 and built the house.

As our new year begins, I hope that we will all be sustained by Torah, worship, and loving deeds. I also hope that we can all continue to sustain our community by our ideas and actions as we learn, worship, and make this world a better place.

Etrog & Lulav Available

If you are interested in purchasing an Etrog set for Sukkot, please contact the Temple office no later than Friday, September 14.

The cost of the set, which includes the Etrog and Lulav, is $42 for the Standard Set. Other more deluxe sets are available. Call the Temple office for more details on the other prices.

MAZON:
A Jewish Response
To Hunger

The Corners of Our Fields

In cooperation with Mazon: A Jewish Response to Hunger and the Religious Action Center of Reform Judaism, the Temple Adath Israel Social Action Committee is sponsoring the annual Sukkot Canned Food Drive.

Last year we collected more than 2,000 pounds of food. Our contribution was added to the approximately one million pounds of food collected nationwide and the $667,000 life-giving dollars raised.

Beginning with Erev Rosh Hashanah and continuing to the end of Sukkot on October 12, you are encouraged to fill your bag with non-perishable food items and bring it to the Temple foyer. Remember, only you can make a difference.

This program is sponsored by the following organizations:
The United Synagogue of conservative Judaism, Rabbinical Assembly, Union of American Hebrew Congregations, Central Conference of American Rabbis, Jewish Reconstructionist Federation, and Reconstructionist Rabbinical Association

High Holy Days Food Drive

No matter what the stock market does, there will be hungry people in Lexington this winter. How can you help? That's easy. When you come to Erev Rosh HaShanah or Rosh HaShanah services at TAI this year, you will be given an empty shopping bag. Just take the bag home and bring it back to the Temple filled with canned goods and other non-perishable foods. All the collected food will be given to God's Pantry, an emergency food bank that provides food for hungry people in Fayette and nearby counties.

We have been doing this for several years and usually collect between 2,000 and 3,000 pounds of food. Please give generously again this year.

Yom Kippur Memorial Book

It is a tradition of long standing to honor the memory of departed ones and friends with special acts of kindness and Tzedakah during the High Holy Days. One opportunity for an act of remembrance is offered through the Memorial Book, which is passed out to the congregation just prior to the Yizkor service Yom Kippur afternoon.

Names on our Temple's memorial talets as well as the names of those who died in the past year are automatically listed in the booklet.

A $25 per family donation is required. Memorial Book funds are used throughout the year for special Temple purposes including supporting the High Holy Days choir, printing new family services for Shabbat and High Holy Days, and more.

All listings under a personal heading (i.e. "Remembered by...") will appear only by request. Detach this form and send it to the Temple office along with your contribution made payable to Temple Adath Israel Memorial Fund. Requests must be received no later than Monday, September 17.

FROM THE YOUTH EDUCATION DIRECTOR – Marsha Rose

On July 30, Renee Rittner, Regional Educator for UAHC presented an extremely productive workshop for our teachers. We also had representation from Ohavay Zion Synagogue. Numerous interesting ideas were discussed. What a beneficial afternoon! We will continue to communicate with Renee along with other resource people. It is rewarding to discover that our UAHC dues contribute to this new department, so critical to all religious schools throughout the country.

Our qualified and dedicated teaching staff is as follows: 4 year-old, Debbie Masters; Kindergarten, Wendy Waltman; 1st Grade, Anita Mersack; 2nd Grade, Beth Glazier McDonald; 3rd Grade, Laura Loventhal; 4th Grade, Susan and Austin Cantor; 5th Grade, Jane Gris ; 6th Grade, Kaye & Al Kaplan; 7th Grade, Roy Meckler, Bobbi & Drew Fried, and Sandy Heymann; Senior Block; Evelyn Gellelr, Jonathan Miller, Linda Ravvin, Richard Greissman, Daniel Chejfec, Oliver Leaman, Samye Miller, and Jeff Davidson; Art Teacher, Linda Noffsinger; Israeli Dancing, Stephanie Barrett; Library and Bible Stories, Leona Stern; Music, Sandy Adland; Assistants, Josh Adland, Rudo Greissworth, Jeremy Gantz, and Ben McDonald.

I wish to thank Linda Ravvin for her dedication to our religious school. Linda has agreed to be the chairperson for the Youth Education Committee. I look forward to working with her and her committee this year. Thanks again, Linda.

My very best wishes to all for a healthy and happy new year!

Sisterhood News

From the President's Desk Sandra Heymann

Dear Sisterhood & Temple Members,

Hello to all my friends. This year Sisterhood is planning several exciting and unique events for all of our Temple members. Please plan to join us today. You should be receiving a letter from our membership chairperson soon regarding dues and our special opening program on Wednesday, September 12. Sandy Adland has been hard at work securing wonderful speaker, Lisa Kaplan, from WLEX-TV Channel 18 in Lexington. We hope that you all will plan to attend. Even if you have never been to a sisterhood program in the past, I personally invite you all to join us in September.

Sisterhood is for everyone and is about everyone. We all make Judaism stronger. Women are the important keys to our beautiful tradition.

In October we will once again be dazzled with fall fashions as Jo Ross, Fashion Director from Louisville, KY along with Fayette Mall show off exciting fashions for the fall. This exciting fund raising activity will occur on Saturday, October 6 at 7 PM. Ticket information will be out shortly. If you would like to participate and be a model, the door is open – please call Karyn Martin at 278-1913 or Sandy Heymann at 224-4230 as soon as possible. We need all models of every age and size.

Every woman in our Temple plays an important role in the meaning of Sisterhood. Please get involved today!

Shalom and Love!

Please Let Us Know!!

As a result of patient confidentiality, some area hospitals will not release to us the names of Jewish patients when our Temple office calls. Therefore, Rabbi Adland and the Temple are relying on you to let us know when someone is in the hospital. Please call us when you know about someone going into the hospital. Your help in this matter is invaluable.

WELCOMING ROSH HASHANAH: A SERVICE FOR THE HOME

Lighting of the Yom Tov (and Sabbath) Lights (Light Candles)

With the setting of this evening's sun, united with Jews in every place and every time, we will proclaim a new year of hope. May the light of God show us the paths we can follow to do good and create a world of peace. Let the fire we kindle be a warming flame that brings our family closer together and leads us into a year of health and wholeness.

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו, מלך העולם, אשר קדשנו
במצותיו וצונו להדליק נר של (שבת ושל) יום טוב.

Ba-ruch Ado-nai Elo-hei-nu melech ha-olam asher ki-de-sha-nu be-mitz-vo-tav ve-tzi-va-nu le-had-lik neur shel (Shabbat ve-shel) Yom Tov.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who has made us holy with commandments and commands us to kindle the lights of (Shabbat and) this "Yom Tov" Festival.

BLESSING OF CHILDREN

(At this point parents may wish to bless their children. A traditional prayer follows, although any words - even a silent prayer - can suit the moment. Some parents might want to place their hands on their children's heads. Others might hold their children's hands.)

May the Lord bless you and keep you.
May the Lord look kindly upon you and be gracious to you.
May the Lord bestow all blessings upon you and give you peace. Amen.

KIDDUSH FOR ROSH HASHANAH

We praise You, O God, and give thanks for the year that is gone: for life, health, and strength; for home, love and friendship. May our cup of life be filled with blessings in the year ahead. We praise You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, Creator of the fruit of the vine.

WELCOMING YOM KIPPUR: A SERVICE FOR THE HOME

(Rosh HaShana and Yom Kippur are the great festivals of the Jewish year. They draw us to the synagogue with their promise of repentance and new beginnings, although each festival also offers opportunities to bring something precious into our homes. The meals that precede services can themselves also become special, and it is in that spirit that this pamphlet is offered to you and your family. The blessings and readings below (Hebrew and/or English) are yours to use as you wish in welcoming the New Year. Shana Tova!)

Lighting of the Yom Kippur (and Sabbath) Lights

The holiest day of the year is about to begin. Let us use it well. May it be for each one of us a day of renewal. May it help us overcome what is evil in us and strengthen what is good. May it bring us closer to our real selves and make us more loyal to our people and our traditions.

MOTZI - Before the meal

According to Maimonides (of the twelfth century), "Free will is given to every human being. If we wish to incline ourselves towards goodness and righteousness, we are free to do so; and if we wish to incline ourselves towards evil, we are also free to do that. By our own faculty of intelligence and understanding we can distinguish between good and evil, doing as we choose. The power for this choice between good and evil is altogether in our hands."

As we approach Yom Kippur we pray for the power to make worthy choices all through this year. May our hands do good. May our hands always lead us towards blessing.

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו מלך העולם,
המוציא לחם מן הארץ.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

OCTOBER 2001

VOL. 69 NO. 2

TISHRI-CHESHVAN 5762

The evening of October 1st, we begin the celebration of the Jewish festival of Sukkot. It is one of the three main festivals on the Jewish calendar. The holiday lasts one week and culminates with the celebration of Simchat Torah as we conclude the cycle of reading the Torah and begin it all over again. The first and last days of the festival of Sukkot are holy days observed by worship and a cessation from work. All throughout the holiday, we are commanded to dwell in a sukkah, a temporary hut that provides some relief from the weather, but still has the feel of living out in the wilderness. The sukkah reminds us of our days as a people wandering through the Sinai desert pursuing our destination of the Holy Land of Canaan. In many Jewish homes, especially in Orthodox or observant families, families not only eat their meals in the sukkah, but they sleep in them as well.

The festival of Sukkot is also observed in connection with the fall harvest. The sukkah is often decorated with things like pumpkins, gourds, cornstalks or other fall kinds of things. In many congregations like our own, a food drive is held, which is symbolic of the harvests long ago.

Finally, along with the visible symbol of the Sukkah, there are the four species of etrog, palm, myrtle and willow (the last three comprising the lulav). These are shaken in a particular way each day after a special blessing is said. We shake the lulav in six directions acknowledging God's presence in every place we turn.

What is sad is that this once magnificent holiday, probably the most celebrated holiday during the days that the Temples stood in Jerusalem, languishes almost forgotten by most Jews in this country. This holiday has something for everyone. For children who like to decorate, the sukkah provides a great opportunity. For the social action minded, there is collecting food for those less fortunate. For the Jew with a sense of history, this holiday recalls a most significant part of our history. For the Jew who wants ritual, this holiday is filled with grand and daily opportunities.

It may be too late this year to make your own sukkah, but you can visit the one at Temple. The lulav and etrog are always available. You can come on Oct. 5th. After services we will visit the sukkah and give everyone a chance to fulfill the mitzvah of the lulav. Next year you may be inspired to have a sukkah of your own.

Chag Sameach—Happy Sukkot to all of you.

Rabbi Jon Adland

A Message From The President

During the festival of Sukkot we celebrate this month, there is a custom which is called the tradition of the Ushpizin. In this tradition, the Sukkah walls were hung with tablets bearing the names of seven ushpizin, or special guests, whom we invite to be with us, one each day. The traditional guests were Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, Moses, Aaron, and David. Guests were invited based upon their good deeds to the community.

During this season of Sukkot, I would like to invite the following guests to our Sukkah because of their contributions to our Temple Board of Trustees:

Ben Baker and Kaye Kaplan for their work on Scrip; Barbara Barr and Leona Stern for their efforts in Caring Friends; Jo Belin for insuring fair and equitable elections; Fran Bloom for creating a wonderful Film Club and Adult Education programs; Mike Burrell & Dale Schermer for their Brotherhood programming;

Gayle Dorio for helping to beautify our Temple; Paul Engel and David Leep for volunteering to figure out our Budget; Sandy Heymann for all of her work as Sisterhood President; Debra Isenstadt for all of her contributions to programs and music;

Alan Kaplan and Jerry Sander for taking care of our Personnel & Properties issues; Arthur Lieber for serving as the Temple's representative to CKJF; Linda Ravvin for taking an active role in Youth Education; David Shraberg for welcoming our new and prospective members; Janet Tamaren for planning worship programs; and Wendy Waltman for helping us incorporate outreach issues into all of Temple life.

In addition, I would like to invite Judy Hersh Starr Gantz, David Brown, John Harrison, and Marilyn Lieber for all of their service on the Executive Committee and their day-to-day contributions to Temple life.

All of these individuals are very special people who should be recognized for the time and effort they give to our Temple. Thank you.

Jane

From the President's Desk Sandra Heymann

Sisterhood is busier than ever planning events for all members. Please look for special announcements in the mail or on a flier in the bulletin. We are hoping that Sisterhood can touch all of our Temple members in a very positive way.

This month will bring us fun and joy as we celebrate fashion at our Stars Will Shine Sisterhood Fashion Show on October 6 at 7 PM in the Temple social hall. This event is for all families and will help support our Temple youth. Tickets are $10 and can be purchased at the door or by calling Marcia Brown, Sisterhood Treasurer at 271-4239. Also in October, we will have our annual welcome new members progressive dinner. See article on this page. This is definitely an event you won't want to miss. Bring your friends! If you have not paid your dues for this year (beginning last month), please do so now. Dues are only $30. Sisterhood is about love. Sisterhood is about beauty. Sisterhood is about caring. Sisterhood is about you! I hope to see you all on October 6 at our fund raiser.

From Outreach Chairperson Wendy Waltman

Over the last year I have been lucky enough to chair the Outreach Committee at TAI. During this time, I have immersed myself in readings and lectures about this wide ranging topic, which affects a large segment of our Temple population. This group includes Jews-by-choice, those interested in choosing Judaism, intermarried couples, children and parents of intermarried couples, and born Jews looking to strengthen their connection to Judaism. Outreach programming actively supports any and all who are engaged in this journey. With this concept in mind, the Outreach Committee at Temple Adath Israel has started planning this year's programming.

The B'nai Avraham v'Sarah Group, which successfully debuted last winter, openly discusses issues of special concern for persons who have chosen Judaism. Our next meeting is Sunday, October 7, 2001. The theme is "The Tent in the Tent." We will be having dinner in my sukkah at 2213 Abbeywood Road from 6-8 PM. We will be discussing the topic of ancestry using the book The Red Tent by Anita Diamant. This fascinating best seller is available at all local bookstores and libraries. The study guide is available on the web at <http://uahc.org/books/diamant.html>. Please RSVP to Wendy Waltman at 272-8324 or at walt4@lex.infi.net.

For those of you who have ever thought about whether or not conversion is an option for you, we are creating a group named HINENI (meaning "here I am") to explore issues related to this topic. We are looking to involve people who are at all stages of their spiritual life. We are looking to involve people who are actively involved in the conversion process, those considering conversion, and ESPECIALLY those who are wondering what this process would mean in their own lives. We will only meet 5-6 times starting in late October, at a time convenient to all participants. It is our goal to make this an environment where life decisions can be discussed in a confidential and pressure free atmosphere. Please contact Wendy Waltman or Rabbi Adland for more information.

Finally, there has been discussion about forming a group addressing the needs of Interfaith couples in our congregation. We are still in the early planning stages of this, and would love input. It is not our intention to separate these couples from the congregation, but to perhaps address the special needs of these families. If you would like to be involved, or have any ideas, please give me a call.

Everyone is invited to drop in for

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

NOVEMBER 2001

VOL. 69 NO. 3

CHESHVAN-KISLEV 5762

By the time you read this bulletin article it will be close to two months since the terrible tragedy took place in New York, at the Pentagon, and in Pennsylvania. I am writing about one month after the terrorist acts. They are still so fresh in my mind. The whole thing is still so hard to comprehend.

Until September 11th, terrorism was basically confined to other places, not the United States. We would read about car-bombings or suicide bombers in any number of locales around the world. We would read about the number of people killed and injured. We might feel sad that in some far-away place children were murdered or orphaned or maimed. It was always far away. We could compartmentalize it, relegating it to some far off place in our brain. We can't do this any longer.

Other places included Israel. We read about suicide bombers and car bombs as if they were a part of the week's schedule in Israel. "Those people" meaning Israelis were used to heightened security and the possibility of another terrorist incident, as if that made it all right. If terrorism existed elsewhere it was tolerated as long as it didn't touch our holy ground. Now it has and we are in pain. The same pain felt by thousands of other families who have lost loved ones over the past decades. For the first time we now can understand what so many Israelis have tried to tell us.

We tried to ease the pain through worship and prayers. The Friday following the destruction of the WTC and the deaths at the Pentagon and in Pennsylvania, our sanctuary was filled with people who wanted to pray, think, worship, contemplate, sing, and be together with community. It was time for tears and hugs and handholding and God. Some who came were mourning for friends who died or for friends feeling deep pain. Some who came were thanking God that their loved ones were spared. Some who came just needed to be with others. I was overwhelmed by the numbers, but found tremendous comfort in being with my Temple family. God's presence was felt that evening. God gave us comfort and hope and peace and blessing.

The days ahead are not going to always be easy. We may need another moment or many other moments like the evening of Sept. 14th. Let's hope not, but we may. It is time for the world to take a stand against terrorism no matter how small or large the act or incident. Terrorism never wins, but in the process many are losers. It is time for the human beings on this planet to find a different way to settle grievances or air differences. Turning a plane into a missile certainly isn't the solution. Killing innocent people isn't the solution. There are better and more productive ways. Let us pray that we learn how to use them soon and in our day.

Rabbi Jon Alden

A Message From The President

Once upon a time, there was a synagogue that had fallen on hard times. Only five members were left - the cantor and four others who were over 60 years old. A retired rabbi lived in the mountains near the shul and the five members asked the rabbi if he could offer any advice that might save the shul. The cantor and the rabbi spoke at length but when asked for advice, the rabbi simply responded by saying, "I have no advice to give. The only thing I can tell you is, the Messiah is one of you."

The cantor returned to the shul and told the four members what the rabbi had said. In the months that followed, the old shul members pondered the words of the rabbi. "The Messiah is one of us?" they each asked themselves. As they thought about this possibility, they all began to treat each other with extraordinary respect on the off chance that one among them might be the Messiah. On the off chance that each member himself might be the Messiah, they also began to treat themselves with extraordinary care.

As time went by, people visiting the shul noticed the aura of respect and gentle kindness that surrounded the five old members of the small shul. Hardly knowing why, more people began to come back to worship at the old synagogue. They began to bring their friends, and their friends brought more friends. Within a few years, the small shul had once again become a thriving congregation, thanks to the rabbi's gift.

Our congregation, like the old shul, has many Messiahs - most definitely more than four. Like the old shul, we also have many opportunities to treat each other and ourselves with extraordinary respect and care. While the tragic events of September 11, 2001 have changed us all, these events cannot challenge the strength of our community. As Thanksgiving approaches this month, let us give thanks for our congregation and community and let us vow to do everything we can to continue to build a shul filled with respect, kindness, and caring for all.

TEMPLE TRIP TO ISRAEL IN DECEMBER 2001

Rabbi Jon and Sandy Adland are planning to lead a trip to Israel in late December, 2001. The trip would last 12 days and 10 nights. If you are interested, please contact Rabbi Adland so that he can add your name to the list of those who have already expressed interest.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

Andy Weiner has offered to teach a three-part program on "How to Lead Others Using Emotional Intelligence." Andy says that all three components are interdependent and thus, you must commit to all three programs which will be conducted on Sunday mornings between January and March 2002.

If you are interested in attending the program, please call TAI at 269-2979 and indicate a desire to attend by December 3rd. If we get ten people we will proceed.

PRESCHOOL NEWS

October was a very busy month for our preschoolers. Everyone loved celebrating Sukkot! We decorated a sukkah in each of our classrooms. We learned about the significance of the lulav and etrog, and ate our snack inside of the Temple's sukkah in the courtyard. For Simchat Torah we visited the sanctuary, learned about the Torah, and made Israeli flags.

Also in October we recognized Fire Safety and Prevention Week. Our preschoolers especially enjoyed visiting with the firefighters from Station Number 3 and having a personal tour of their fire truck! Our Fall Festival Fundraiser is in the works, and it will be here before we know it! Save the date and "saddle up" for some time in the Wild Wild West on Sunday, November 18th at 12:00 noon in the Social Hall. We hope everyone will stop in for good food, great fun, and a chance to do some early Chanukah shopping for family and friends. Don't forget about Bagels and Blocks every Monday morning from 9 to 10:30 AM in the Temple library. Happy Fall!

News on Past Event – Sukkot Picnic

We could not have had a more beautiful day than Sunday, Oct. 8, for our Sukkot picnic at Garrett's farm. Over 65 people shared lunch, apple and pumpkin picking and pumpkin painting on a wonderful fall day. Though apple cider slushies were available, many went for the delicious spiced hot apple cider. Special thanks go to Mike Burrell and Dale Schermer for constructing a Sukkah for us at the Farm site.

The Cincinnati Klezmer Project December 1, 8:00 – 10:00PM

On Saturday evening, December 1, Temple Adath Israel will host a performance by The Cincinnati Klezmer Project. FROM THE YOUTH EDUCATION DIRECTOR – Marsha Rose

It is truly rewarding when parents take an active part in their child's education. There are numerous ways to help. Our Room Parents will assist the classroom teacher throughout the year. They are: 4 year-old: Jerry Suhl & Sylvia Cerel Suhl; Kindergarten: Ken Slepian & Karen Petrone; First: Gordon Hutner & Dale Bauer; Second: Andrea Tapis; Third: Bill Grisé & Linda Ain; Fourth: Liz Piercy & Roger Fleischman; Fifth: Carol & Ron Hustedde; Sixth: Anne Graff; Seventh: Diane & Marty Friedman; Eighth: Linda & Jeff Noffsinger & Holly Barnhill; Ninth: Karyn Martin; and Tenth: David & Peggy Leap.

I thank you for agreeing to help our teachers and your children.

There are not words to express our appreciation for Wendy Waltman. She has spent a zillion hours planning and implementing an excellent kindergarten program. Our very best wishes to Wendy, John and their boys on the arrival of their new child. We look forward to Wendy's return.

I want to thank Beth Engel and Carol Kaplan in advance for taking over Wendy's responsibilities. This is a perfect example of two caring parents willing to give their time for their children and others.

If you would like to help in any way, even substitute, please do not hesitate to contact me.

From the Religious School Classes

Four Year Old Class – Debbie Masters, Teacher

The four-year-old class will be busy having fun and learning this year. We began the year becoming familiar with the Temple. Throughout the school year we will learn about Jewish symbols, Holidays, and Bible stories. We will also begin to learn Hebrew letters, songs, and prayers. Many of these lessons will be taught through art, music, Israeli dance, movies, reading books, puzzles, and games. Our class is always on the go and full of energy. On Sunday mornings if you pass us in the hallway and it looks as though we are on a search, we will be playing I SPY. As we learn about different Jewish symbols, we go through the Temple in search of the symbols that we are learning about. This is one of our favorite games. We look forward to having a great year.

From the Religious School Classes

Kindergarten Class – Wendy Waltman, Teacher

Our Kindergarten class is off to a fantastic start. We are six boys and three girls, strong and full of energy! In October, we were busily preparing for Consecration. We completed our Creation unit – including making a wonderful creation mural. We began learning about Rosh HaShanah and tasting apples and honey. Yom Kippur activities included making a class prayerbook, and putting on our own production of "Jonah and the Whale". The children have especially enjoyed learning songs with Sandy Adland. After we completed our Sukkot and Simchat Torah Units, we began our Temple Unit with each child "making" themselves into parts of the Torah. I want to also personally thank all of the Kindergarten parents for all of their support and enthusiasm this year!!!!

First Grade – Anita Mersack, Teacher

The First Grade has been very busy learning about the holidays that came at this time of year. Rosh HaShanah is the beginning of the Jewish New Year. We learned the Hebrew words Rosh (head) and Shanah Tova (Happy New Year). We ate apples and honey for a sweet year and made New Year cards. The second holiday we studied was Yom Kippur. This is the holiday when we say "I'm Sorry" to God and each other and think about how we can become better people. We learned the Hebrew word Yom (day).

Sukkot is the holiday when we thank God for the fall harvest. We made and decorated sukkahs and learned the Hebrew word Today (thank you). We went into the sukkah, said the blessing over the lulav and shook the lulav and etrog in all directions to show that God's goodness is everywhere. Simchat Torah is the holiday when we complete the reading of the Torah and begin to read it from the beginning again. We looked at all the parts of a Torah and made our own model Torahs.

Second Grade – Beth Glazier McDonald, Teacher

The Second grade is building a mitzvah chain. We are trying to see how many good deeds we can do this year. We are also learning about the Jewish holidays: Rosh HaShanah, Yom Kippur and Sukkot. We all had the chance to work on our shofar blowing skills.

TEMPLE FOOD DRIVE: BEST EVER!!!

This year's Sukkot Food Drive was the best ever. We collected 3,022 pounds of food for God's Pantry. (We filled 10 barrels and there was at least 3-4 barrels more of food on the floor.) Thank you to Bruce Engel, Anne Graff and the Temple Social Action Committee for all of its work in preparing the bags and seeing the project through. Thank you also to everyone who took the time to shop for and bring in a bag or two of food.

Yahrzeit These we remember....

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL MISSION STATEMENT

Adath Israel Congregation is a Reform Congregation, affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations (UAHC). This congregation is established to maintain a Temple of facilities for communal worship in the tradition of Reform Judaism, to provide a religious school for the instruction of children, and to engage in other activities to promote the fundamental principles of Judaism.

PLEASE LET US KNOW!!!

As a result of patient confidentiality, some area hospitals will not release to us the names of Jewish patients when our Temple office calls. Therefore, Rabbi Adland and the Temple are relying on you to let us know when someone is in the hospital. Please call us when you know about someone going into the hospital. Your help in this matter is invaluable.
