The Cincinnati Klezmer Project In A Sing-Along and Dance-Along Concert December 1, 2001 at 8 PM at Temple Adath Israel

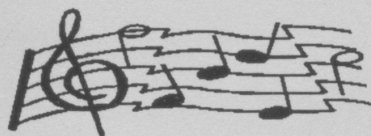

On Saturday, December 1, 2001, Temple Adath Israel will host a performance by the Cincinnati Klezmer Project. Founded in 1994, the group unites classic Klezmer music with rousing traditional dance tunes, modern Israeli folkdance, songs of the Yiddish Theater and community singing. Past performances include holiday concerts with the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra and a riverboat concert with the Huntington Symphony Orchestra.

The band that evening will feature: Michele Gingras, Professor of Clarinet at Miami University. She has performed as a soloist on four continents and released two CDs last year, 'Old World meets New World' - a collection of American clarinet compositions and Klezmer music, as well as "Klezmer's Greatest Hits" with the Cincinnati Klezmer Project. Irena Bernadsky, an expert in Ukrainian folk music, formerly played mandolin with the Kiev Radio Orchestra. Joshua Moss, pianist and director of the group, is a doctoral candidate in rabbinic literature at Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion. Steve Stuhlbarg on guitar and Chris Novy on drums complete the band, and dance leader Carolyn Levine will help people to participate in the traditional dance forms that accompany the music.

Klezmer music is the celebration music of the Jewish communities of Eastern Europe. Adopting and transforming elements of Moldavian, Bulgarian, Rumanian, Gypsy, and other folk music and dance forms, Klezmer music is everywhere influenced by the distinctive musical modes of Synagogue liturgy. In America, Klezmer music was influenced by jazz and swing. Modern Klezmer revival bands like The Cincinnati Klezmer Project draw on early recordings of immigrant celebration music, as well as Yiddish folk songs and songs of the Yiddish Theatre.

The performance on December 1 will include traditional Klezmer melodies: "doynas - soulful instrumental meditations in the style of Synagogue chant; "zhoks" - slow, sensual, Rumanian-style dances; "Husidls" - lively communal dances with tempos slow enough to allow for improvisations; and "Freylakhs" - high-speed celebration dances with the brakes removed. There will be music to listen to, to swing with, and to dance to.

Many of you might have missed the Temple Social Action Committee's addition to our bulletin over the last several issues. For nearly a year, the Social Action Committee used $54 from the Temple Tzedakkah Fund to make a contribution to a local Lexington agency and then highlighted that agency in the bulletin. The Committee's hope was that some of you might find this agency or organization worthy of your talents and that you might choose to do some volunteer work there. The upside is that we have used our Temple bulletin to make you aware of the things that are happening in Lexington and the downside is that we have nearly depleted the Tzedakkah Fund. At the recent Temple Board of Trustees meeting, the balance in the Fund was $74 and change.

I believe that it is important to continue contributing to agencies and organizations in our community. They need to know that we support their work. $54 (a triple chai contribution) may not seem like a lot of money, but to a non-profit organization any contribution is deemed worthy and important. Every church that I know of in this city sets aside a portion of its collections for benevolent work. They allocate hundreds, if not thousands, of dollars. In order for us to continue our Temple's benevolence in Central Kentucky I am appealing to you, this congregation's membership, to send in contributions to the Temple Tzedakkah Fund so that we can continue this good work. Over the past year we supported the following: Lexington Hearing and Speech Center, Hospital Hospitality House, Moveable Feast, YWCA Spouse Abuse Center, LexCare, New Opportunity School for Women, Minds Wide Open Art Center, and Harrison Elementary School.

Our Temple Social Action Committee is in the process of planning for the coming year. Now that the Habitat for Humanity project is over and the incredibly successful Temple food drive is past, the Committee can now concentrate on its next project or projects. Once this decision is made, the Committee will be looking for volunteers. If you have a suggestion for a major project, let me know about it and I will pass it on to the committee co-chairs Susan and Austin Cantor, and Anne Graff, or contact them directly. Participating in Tikkun Olam is an important part of who we are as Jews. It is up to each of us to make this world a better place for everyone. This can only be accomplished through the work of our hands.

One other thing: in a week or so we will begin the celebration of Hanukkah. Though this holiday is only a minor holiday on the calendar, still it represents an important part of our people's past. Judah Maccabee led the Jewish people in a revolt against the all-powerful Greeks who had oppressed the Jewish community in Palestine by denying them opportunity to celebrate Shabbat, study Torah, and circumcise their sons. The revolt was successful and Judaism and the Jewish people were saved. Unfortunately, this is a fight that we have had to fight too many times in too many places. We can only hope and pray for a time when tyranny and oppression cease in favor of tolerance and kindness. As you light your Hanukkah lights, let us all pray for this day to come soon for all people everywhere.

A Message From The President

Our Long-Range Planning process is moving forward and I want to update everyone on our progress. In addition to the 50 individuals who participated in the five small focus groups last year, we had over 80 individuals participate in the two large group sessions in February and March. Our Long-Range Planning Committee has now summarized the comments made by our members and we have forwarded these comments to all of our Temple committees to get additional input. I want to share these preliminary findings with you.

In the area of Worship, the following suggestions were made: create innovative worship services, invite guests to do sermons, and incorporate more participation from congregants in services. In addition, some members expressed a desire for more spiritual content to the service. Finally, many individuals wanted a book with music and songs so that the congregation could learn and follow the songs.

In the area of Religious Education, our members felt that it was important to address the needs of all ages and look for ways to link their learning. Many individuals wanted to see more education for the entire family. Our members also stated that we should bolster teacher training and support and consider having a professionally trained, full-time education director.

Summer programming was of interest to many. Many congregants expressed a desire that we keep the Temple open and active during the summer and that we have more activities for children and adults. One recommendation was to hire a student rabbi for 10 weeks to cover worship and educational programs while our Rabbi is on vacation and at camp.

In the area of Community, many members stated that we should work to make our Temple more welcoming, strengthen the hevra initiative so that congregants can join together with others of similar interests, and provide more activities and support for senior members, singles, and members without children.

Our Long-Range Planning Committee has now forwarded their summary to all Temple Committees to get additional input from everyone in our community. We need to prioritize the recommendations and develop a specific plan. If anyone is interested in reviewing the summary, copies are available in the Temple office. If anyone has further input, please let me know your thoughts. With the help of our Temple Board, our Temple Committees and you, I am certain that we can continue to grow and strengthen our community by planning for our future.

Sisterhood News

From the President's Desk
Sandra Heymann

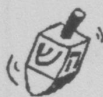

My Dear Sisterhood and Temple Friends:

As I prepare for my wonderful son Miles' Bar Mitzvah, I think of how very special and inspiring all of my Sisterhood friends have been to me. From the moment that I moved here, Ruth Baker greeted me with open arms (twelve years ago), Rose Rita, Judy and the entire Wurmser family welcomed us in their home, Holly Barnhill came into our lives with everything that she had to offer. Sandy Adland introduced me to a deeper sense of Sisterhood and Judaism. Marilyn Lieber taught me the important side of being part of the Temple community. Karyn Martin shared with me the true meaning of Sisterhood. These are just a few of the reasons why Sisterhood is so important to each and every one of us. Please, I ask that you join our Sisterhood today. If you still are unsure, I send you an open invitation to come to our December meeting. I promise that you will see what I mean about the caring community we share within our Sisterhood and congregation.

Thank you to Dr. Joanne Glasser for inspiring us with her words during our November program. Joanne, we are honored and proud to have you in our community. You are a true role model for all of us.

Once again, please join me in thanking all of the special star, moon and sun sponsors for our fund-raiser in October. If it were not for all of you we would not have been successful in our donor efforts. We raised over $7,000. Thank you to all of you who attended and once again a SPECIAL thank you to our patrons.

Happy Hanukkah to all. Back to the Bar Mitzvah preparation. Hope to see you all there!

PRESCHOOL NEWS

Sandy Adland, Director
E-mail – SAdland@aol.com

November is always a fun month for our Preschoolers. The weather turns a little cooler and we enjoy our playtime outside even more! All of our classes continue to learn about autumn and all of the changes that take place throughout the season in our everyday lives. Thanksgiving is such a wonderful holiday to celebrate with preschoolers. We learn about the relationship of the Native Americans and the Pilgrims, and how they helped each other to live. The holiday theme is not complete until we come together as a preschool family to share in a special Feast of Thanksgiving. Thanks to everyone who brought in special foods or paper goods to make the event so special.

Hanukkah will also be a very special time in our classes. We will hear Hanukkah stories, learn some Hanukkah songs, and celebrate by lighting the menorah, playing with dreidels, eating latkes, and making gifts for our families.

Our Wild, Wild West Preschool Fundraiser was an incredible success! We had a wonderful turn-out, and it looked like everyone had a "rip-roarin' time"! An EXTRA BIG thank you to the Preschool Committee and especially the Fundraising Committee Chairs for all of their time, effort, creativity, energy, and vision. Special thanks to Jana LaZur, Bonnie O'Neill, Kathleen Schwarcz, Rebecca Young, Mimi Kaufman, Nathalie Dhir, Laura Creamer, Susan Butler, Beth Engel, and Kathy Feinberg, who spent countless hours planning this special event. You are one group of incredible women, and I am so fortunate, as Preschool Director, to have you as our cheerleaders. Special thanks are also due to our parents and teachers who helped to make our fundraiser a tremendous success!

I can't believe I'm saying this already (where does the time go?), but registration for the 2002-2003 school year begins January 1, 2002. The enrollment policy is as follows:

January 1-January 13 – registration for class members and siblings. A sibling is defined as a sister or brother of a child attending TAI Preschool presently or who has graduated from the four year old class.

January 14-January 27 – registration for Temple members

January 28 – registration open to the public.

Remember, "Bagels and Blocks" meets every Monday morning (when preschool is in session) in the Temple library from 9:00 AM-10:30AM. If you have children ages 0-2, please bring your child and join us for a morning of fun, food, and "shmoozing"!

NEW MEMBER HIGHLIGHT TIFFANY BENJAMIN

Tiffany, John, and daughter, Nina, at her High School Graduation

Tiffany and her husband John, moved to Lexington from Madison, WI six years ago for the warmer weather, horses, and The Kentucky Ballet Theatre. Tiffany is a new books processor at the Lexington Public Library and she has attended U K's Mini Medical School and Citizen's Police Academy classes. Her husband, John, is the Budget Director for the Community Action Council.

Tiffany and her husband have been practicing transcendental meditation for 30 years and are interested in Ayurvedic health care.

Tiffany and John have three daughters, Heather, Hillary, and Nina Benjamin. Heather is a Theatre Arts graduate from the University of Louisville and now lives and works in Silver Springs, MD. Hillary is attending Midway College where she is taking equine studies, and Nina is a trainee with the Kentucky Ballet Theatre.

Tiffany feels she has much to learn as a new convert to Judaism and if anyone is interested in helping her and other new converts learn how to celebrate the home rituals of Shabbat, Havdalah, Sukkot, Hanukkah, Passover, etc, it would be a nice program to begin. Perhaps recommended books from the Temple Library and the Lexington Public Library could be particularly helpful to those converting to Reform Judaism.

FROM THE YOUTH EDUCATION DIRECTOR – Marsha Rose

I cannot begin to express my appreciation and gratitude to the Cookbook Committee co-chairs: Anne Graff and Julie Diamond McKee and their committee - Fran Bloom, Ruth Kramen, Mary Engel, Erin Gold, Linda Gerall, Miriam Graff, Ruth Poley, Etta Pollan, Linda Noffsinger, and Lisa Taulbee. Many, many, many hours have been devoted to producing a fabulous cookbook! Please plan on supporting the religious school by purchasing cookbooks. They will be ready for sale before Hanukkah. What great presents!!

I am sure that you are aware of the Thanksgiving baskets in the main hallway. It is very comforting to watch them being filled by religious school students' donations for God's Pantry. What a worthwhile project. Thanks to Anne Graff for coordinating this project. Our first through sixth grade classes go to God's Pantry one time during the year. They really enjoy this activity. This is an excellent opportunity for children to give their time and energy and to learn.

HAPPY HANUKKAH TO ALL!!!!

Goldman Union Camp Institute News

Entering 3rd through 10th grade children from synagogues across the Midwest are currently being enrolled for the coming summer program at our regional U. A. H. C. camp, The Goldman Union Camp Institute. Don't let your child miss this chance to join in the fun and friendship of G. U. C. I. A four-week session (a two-week session is offered for entering 3rd and 4th graders) at Goldman Camp is a unique experience. Campers participate in a full range of sports, arts, and Jewish programs, all offered within the exciting and motivating atmosphere of a Reform Jewish community of young people. There is simply no other experience like it.

Find out more about this wonderful opportunity for your child by picking up a 2002 Goldman Camp brochure from the Temple office, or call the camp directly at (317) 873-3361. You can e-mail the camp at gucioffice@aol.com.

From the Religious School Classes

THIRD GRADE, Laura Loventhal, Teacher

The third grade has learned about the fall holidays, Rosh HaShanah, Yom Kippur, and Sukkot. We made lists of many things about which we are sorry, and had a symbolic Tashlich. We listed behaviors that we will work on in the year to come and decorated our own sukkah.

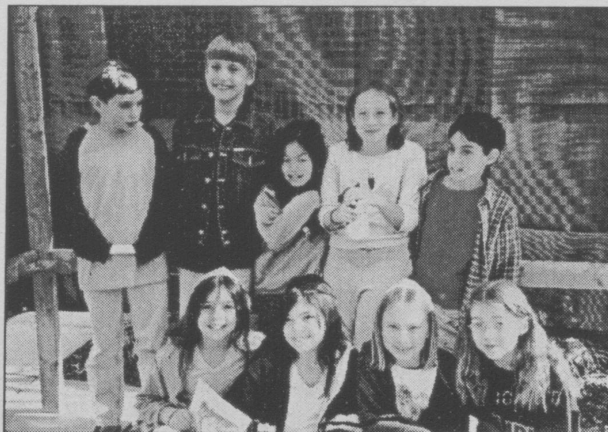

The third graders are beginning to learn the Hebrew alphabet and are practicing Shabbat and holiday blessings. Currently we are studying Jewish communities around the world. Each third grader will research and present a different country. We will soon be studying the Ten Commandments. In the spring, third grade will also learn about Israel. What a busy year!

FOURTH GRADE, Austin & Susan Cantor, Teachers

Religious School began just before the High Holidays, so we quickly jumped into learning about Rosh Hashanah—the Days of Awe, Yom Kippur, Sukkot, and Simchat Torah. Besides learning what the holidays were all about, everyone learned how to wish someone a happy new year in Hebrew. We all enjoyed saying the blessing over the lulav in the Sukkah (see picture below).

Now that the holidays have past, we are spending more time on Bible and history. We have been looking at the events covered in weekly Torah portions and discussing the major themes that each portion teaches us. In addition, the students have been responsible for bringing in an article about Judaism or Israel each week. Students have used newspapers, magazines, and the internet to find their articles, which they present in class. The students will also be writing book reports on books dealing with characters in the Bible or about Jewish holidays every 5 to 6 weeks.

On October 28th, the 4th grade went to God's Pantry, where we (students, parents and teachers) helped sort thousands of cans of food into different categories.

The worship committee, social action committee and high school youth group, TRYB, will be hosts of a musical duo, Warren Byrd and David Chevan, who will participate in our Friday evening 6 PM worship service and perform a song sermon. The specialty of this duo is in the interpretation of Jewish and African American sacred music. After worship services, we will have a potluck dinner. An African American church and their high school youth group will be invited to share this event with us. This special worship service will be the kickoff event for TRYB's MLK Social Action Weekend. SOCIAL ACTION MITZVAH OF THE MONTH FOR DECEMBER AND JANUARY

Over the past two years, the Social Action Committee has contributed $54 each month from the Tzedakah Fund to community service organizations for the Mitzvah of the Month Program. The non-profit groups have included: Kid's Café, moveable Feast, Minds Wide Open, The Nest, Harrison elementary School, Lexington Hearing and Speech Center, and many more. The Social Action Committee invites your suggestions for upcoming donations for 2002. We are particularly interested in funding smaller organizations that could really benefit from the $54 donation. Please contact Anne Graff at 264-9424 or AGraff8@aol.com with your ideas.

The selection for the "Mitzvah of the Month" for December is Russell Cave Elementary School's Family Resource Center. Kathy Sutphen, who runs the Family Resource Center, started the "Club de Madres" for the increasing number of Hispanic families attending Russell Cave Elementary School. Mothers with children at the school meet to learn about various health and educational topics. This worthwhile program could make good use of any additional financial help. Send your donations to Russell Cave Elementary School Family Resource Center; Attn: Kathy Sutphen, 3375 Russell Cave Road, Lexington, KY 40511 or make a contribution to the Temple Tzedakah Fund.

The selection for the "Mitzvah of the Month" for January is The Lexington Homeless Voice. The newspaper, initiated by a number of communities in the Lexington area is a paper written and run by people who are either homeless or went through that situation personally. The paper is a forum in which homeless people share their experiences of living on the streets, but is also a resource where they can advertise their skills and maybe connect with prospective employers. Copies are delivered to the Temple. Pick one up and read it - you will learn about a side of Lexington we rarely think about.

If would like to contribute to the paper, send your contribution to The Lexington Homeless Voice, PO Box 324, Lexington, KY 40588 or make a contribution the the Temple Tzedakah Fund.

A HANUKKAH GLOSSARY

HANUKKAH - A Hebrew word meaning "dedication". When the Jews had sent the Syrians down to final defeat, their first act was to cleanse the Temple in Jerusalem and remove the various pagan symbols and idols from it. They then held a ceremony dedicating the Temple once again to God. The holiday derives its name from the ceremony.

JUDAH MACCABEE - The name comes from the first letters of the Hebrew prayer Mi Kamocha Baelim Adonai ("Who is like Thee, O Lord!") inscribed on the Maccabean battle banner. Another reason that Judah was called the Maccabee is that he struck with the force of a mighty hammer. The Hebrew word for hammer is "makav". Judah became known as "The Hammer" or The Maccabee.

MACCABEES - Hebrew soldiers who fought the Syrians. Named after their leader, Judah the Maccabee.

MENORAH - Hanukkah candle holder. Contains places for 8 candles and a 9th candle, the shamus, is raised above the others. Each of the 8 candles represents one of the 8 days of Hanukkah.

DREIDEL - A four-sided top used on Hanukkah. Each side has a different Hebrew letter: nun, gimme! hay, and shin. This stands for "Nes gadol ha-ya sham" ("A great miracle happened there").

SHAMUS - Helper candle used to light all the other candles.

LATKES - Potato pancakes. Traditional Hanukkah delicacy.

MATTATHIAS the Hasmonean - Priest who started revolt against the Syrians. Father of Judah Maccabee.

THE STORY OF HANUKKAH

After the death of Alexander the Great (323 B.C.E.) his Empire was divided into two smaller kingdoms - Egypt to the south and Syria to the north.

In the year 175 B.C.E. there arose a new king in Syria - Antiochus IV. He was a harsh ruler and treated all those whom he conquered cruelly.

Antiochus sent officers to the cities of Judea to proclaim, "The king has ordered all his kingdom to become one people and that everyone should forsake his own laws and his own religion." The king commanded the people to break the Sabbath and ignore the holy Jewish festivals. He instructed the Jews to ignore their prayers and religious practices. An idol was placed on the altar of God and incense burned in its honor.

The king's officer came to the city of Modin and said to Mattathias, a priest who dwelt in Modin, "You are a great man and well-known in the city. Come and fulfill the king's command and you shall be counted among the king's friends." But Mattathias turned to the officer and answered in a loud voice, "Neither I or my sons nor any faithful Hebrews will ever worship an idol."

The Syrian officer called for another volunteer. When, in the sight of all the people, one of the Jews came forward to sacrifice to the idol, Mattathias was filled with anger, and struck him down.

Then Mattathias leaped to the top of the altar and shouted, "All those who are faithful to the Lord, follow me."

One of Mattathias' sons, Judah (called "The Maccabee"), became the commander-in-chief of the Hebrew army and led the people into battle. Never did people fight more bravely against such odds. Because they were dedicated to their religious heritage and to the principles for which it stood, they were filled with the courage and strength to achieve the final victory.

Judah, his brothers and all loyal Jews came to rededicate the Temple in Jerusalem. However, when the people gathered to celebrate the "rededication" the High Priest could find only one small jar of Holy oil with which to light the Ner Tamid (the Eternal Light). This was just enough oil to burn for one day. Then it was that a wondrous thing occurred. For the oil in the lamp burned for eight days!

In remembrance of this great occasion, Hanukkah - the Feast of Dedication - is observed every year for eight days, beginning with the twenty-fifth day of the month of Kislev.

Since the time of the Maccabees the battle for religious freedom has been fought over and over again throughout the world. After each victory, grateful men, women and children have dedicated themselves to their traditions and kept alive the remembrance of the struggle for religious freedom. As we celebrate the festival of Hanukkah, this year and every year, let us always give thanks for the freedom which our ancestors won so bravely. May we always treasure this precious possession, and ever seek to build a world in which all people may live in freedom and peace.

The candles are placed in the Hanukkah Menorah from right to left and kindled from left to right.

Blessed is the Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, for giving us life, for sustaining us, and for enabling us to reach this season.
(On the first night only)

As the Shamus (servant) candle is kindled, we say each day: As one candle may kindle many others and yet lose none of its own light, so Judaism has kindled the light of truth for many religions in many lands and still shines brightly through the eyes.

FIRST NIGHT - FREEDOM

We kindle these Hanukkah lights in memory of the dedication and courage of the Maccabees. Believing that they should be free to worship God as their hearts and minds dictated, they willingly gave their lives for freedom. Now, kindling these candles, we rededicate ourselves to work for the equal rights of all people, and for the realization of a society of democracy and freedom.

SECOND NIGHT - FAMILY

Tonight as we celebrate Hanukkah together we are conscious of our precious gift of family. So often we take one another for granted, forgetting to express our love and devotion. Let us, now, as we kindle these festive lights rededicate ourselves to sharing our interests and time with one another. Like the Maccabees of old, let us always face the tribulations and the joys of life united by our family bonds. Kindling these lights, we pray that through kindness and thoughtfulness, our love for one another will increase from strength to strength.

THIRD NIGHT - TORAH

On the third night of Hanukkah, we rededicate ourselves to the study of our tradition. As the Maccabees courageously fought to preserve our faith, we, too are duty-bound to sustain our heritage by deepening our understanding of it through study. By increasing our knowledge of Judaism we have become more sensitive to its abiding values, more aware of our responsibility to realize these values in our society. Study opens our minds and fortifies us against tyranny. Learning secures our freedom. Let us, then, as we kindle these candles rededicate ourselves to the study of our tradition.

FOURTH NIGHT - HOPE

Our ancestors have taught us that in hope a person's future is illumined and made creative. Ours are times when many people live in fear and great despair. Like the Maccabees, we need to build our lives on hope. Hope that ultimately, truth will triumph over superstition and confidence, that trust and understanding will finally depose superstition and tyranny. Now as we kindle these Hanukkah lights, may our eyes be directed to the loftiest visions of our faith.

FIFTH NIGHT - CHARITY

Our tradition tells us that during the Maccabean war for freedom, all Jews, both children and adults, contributed toward the cause of defeating the oppressor. There are many forms of oppression still existent in our world today. There are people afflicted by sickness, hunger, ignorance and prejudice. Tonight we, like our ancestors, put aside gifts of Tzedakah in order that we, too, may help to bring an end to oppression. We pray that the humble gifts we offer will provide food for the hungry, medicine for the sick, knowledge for the ignorant, and equal opportunity for those afflicted by prejudice. Now as we kindle our Hanukkah lights, let us rededicate ourselves to the ideal of Tzedakah, righteousness and justice, found in our Jewish tradition.

SIXTH NIGHT - SHALOM

The candles of Hanukkah remind us of our chosen mission as Jews. Like the Maccabees we seek to rededicate ourselves to the service of God. Today one of our foremost tasks is to secure peace in our troubled world. When we end disagreements through mutual understanding, when we seek to mend hurt and wounded feelings, we make peace a living idea. Then let us, as we kindle our Hanukkah candles, rededicate ourselves with renewed strength to the task of securing peace.

SEVENTH NIGHT - BROTHERHOOD & SISTERHOOD

Brotherhood and Sisterhood is founded upon a total respect for the liberty and freedom of all people. The Maccabees of old sought to protect themselves when their rights were violated. Our Hanukkah lights serve as a reminder that peace is secure only when we honor the precious liberty and property of our fellow neighbor. As we kindle these lights, let us rededicate ourselves to the cause of peace which alone can bring dignity to all everywhere.

EIGHTH NIGHT - FAITH

Tonight we kindle all the candles of our Hanukkah Menorah. Throughout the centuries the Menorah has been a symbol of our Jewish faith. Like the Maccabees, when they celebrated this festive holiday, we rededicate ourselves to the living of a more meaningful Jewish life. We pray that throughout this coming year, we may fulfill the ideals of freedom, Tzedakah, family, study, hope, shalom, brotherhood and sisterhood, all of which are symbolized by the candles of our Menorah.

HANUKKAH SONGS

MAOZ-TZUR - ROCK OF AGES

Ma-oz tsur y-shu-ati l-cha na-ch l-sga-be-ach
Ti-kon bet te-fi-la-ti v'sham to-dah n'za-be-ach
L'et ta-chin mat-be-ach mi-tzar ham-na-be-ach
(Az eg-mor be-shir miz-mor cha-nu-kat ha-miz-be-ach) 2

Rock of Ages, let our song Praise Thy saving power;
Thou, a-midst the raging foes, Wast our shelt'-ring tower.
Furious, they assailed us, But Thine arm availed us,
And Thy word... Broke their sword...
When our own strength failed us.

O HANUKKAH, O HANUKKAH

O Hanukkah, O Hanukkah
Come light the menorah!
Let's have a party,
We'll all dance the horah.

Gather 'round the table,

We'll give you a treat,
Dreidels to play with,
And latkes to eat.

And while we are playing
The candles are burning low
One for each night
They shed a sweet light,
To remind us of days long ago.

MY DREIDEL

I have a little dreidel,
I made it out of clay;
And when it's dry and ready
Then dreidel I shall play.
O dreidel, dreidel, dreidel,
I made it out of clay;
O dreidel, dreidel, dreidel,
Now dreidel I Shall play.
It has a lovely body,
With leg so short and thin;
And when it is all tired,
It drops and then I win.
O dreidel, dreidel, dreidel,
With leg so short and thin;
O dreidel, dreidel, dreidel,
It drops and then I win.
My dreidel is always playful,
It loves to dance and spin.
A happy game of dreidel,
Come play, now let's begin.
O dreidel, dreidel, dreidel,
It loves to dance and spin,
O dreidel, dreidel, dreidel,
Come play, now let's begin.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

FEBRUARY, 2002

VOL. 69 NO. 5

SHEVAT-ADAR 5762

My dear Temple friends, in light of the recent changes evident in the worship schedule in the opposite column, it is important to recognize other enhancements to the worship experience at TAI.

After weeks of engineering work and to no lack of expense, the new moveable pews are in operation. With the turn of each page of the prayer book (also automated so as not to lose the place of even the sleepest of congregants,) the pews will move one row closer. After the first turn of the page, the second row will rotate into the position of the first row with the first row sliding to the back of the column. This allows each congregant attending the service a chance to be fully awake in the first row and a nap when in the last row position.

Also, installed in every row are docking stations with key boards for your palm pilot or a place for a laptop to hook into the internet. This is important during the March madness basketball playoffs to not miss the most current score, to send email about the rabbi's latest joke or faux pas, or for just plain entertainment during the recitation of long Hebrew passages.

In order to facilitate the extremely busy lives of our Temple members we are not only instituting a new set of service times for Shabbat, but we are making a Shabbat a daily occurrence. Now you can come to Temple any day of the week, but only once a week, and celebrate Shabbat when it is most convenient. There will be a TV set up in the sanctuary with a videocassette of the rabbi leading a Shabbat service. You can sit in any row as it will eventually rotate to the front and the automatic page-turner will keep you in place. For a slight fee ($19.99 with a money back guarantee) you can rent an audiocassette that will actually do all the reading for you while you enjoy your own Shabbat experience. And for only $1 more, you can have the special seat elevator, which will make your standing and sitting much easier.

If you aren't satisfied with the rotating pews, videocassette rabbi, audiocassette reading and the elevator chair, then you can, free of charge, return and celebrate Shabbat one other time during the week or come to the live service still available on Friday evenings. There is no charge for this service.

May each of you have a very happy month of Adar and a lively Purim celebration.

A Message From The President

FRANKLIN B. MOOSNICK VISITING PROFESSOR IN JEWISH STUDIES FUND
PRESENTS

DR. HANNA LISS

Lexington Theological Seminary is proud to announce the first visiting lecturer funded by the Franklin B. Moosnick Visiting Professor in Jewish Studies Fund. Dr. Hanna Liss is making plans to be with us this spring to teach two courses. Dr. Liss earned her Ph.D. in Jewish Studies in 1995 from the Freie Universitat Berlin, Institute of Jewish Studies with the distinction Magna cum Laude. Dr. Liss is currently a Junior Professor for Bible and Jewish Exegesis at the Hochschule fur Judische Studien, Heidelberg, Germany. Her fields of study include: Hebrew Bible, Assyriology, Jewish Studies, Medieval and Modern Christian Philosophy and Religion. Dr. Liss specializes in the areas of Biblical Exegesis, Medieval Jewish Exegesis and Medieval Jewish Thought, Biblical Hermeneutics in Medieval, and Modern Judaism.

Provided the INS approves her entry into the United States, Dr. Liss will be teaching:

B 649-04: Biblical Characters and their Critique in Rabbinic Exegesis and in the Midrashim. In modern exegesis, the prophets represent the ideal of piety willed by God. In that, it differs in many points from the rabbinic understanding of the prophets. The class deals with the most famous (and "pious") biblical characters (i.e. Moses, Elia, Hosea, Amos, Isaiah, Jeremiah) and the critique of their behavior and self-assured manners within rabbinic literature and the later Midrashim. This course will be taught on Wednesday/Friday at 8:00 AM.

B 744-03: "Higher Criticism - Higher Anti-Semitism"? The Debate on the Hebrew Bible in 19th Century Germany. This course deals with the different approaches toward the Hebrew Bible in the Neo-Orthodox Movement as well as in Reform Judaism in the 19th and 20th Century Germany. It also focuses on the debate of Jewish Scholars with German Protestant Theologians (e.g. Julius Wellhausen). The class also gives a survey on development of Jewish biblical Exegesis from Moses Mendelssohn's Pentateuch-Commentary to 19th and 20th Century Bible exegesis represented by Kaufmann Kohler, Samson Raphael Hirsch, David Hoffmann, and Martin Buber. In addition, attention will be devoted to the ideological background of the so-called "Wissenschaft des Judentums" represented by Leopold Zunz, Abraham Geiger and others. This course will be taught on Monday at 6:00 PM

We invite members of your communities to take advantage of these classes as "provisional" students. A simple application process consisting of completion of a form, provision of a transcript verifying receipt of a bachelor's degree and a letter of reference from you will allow interested persons to audit the courses. A one-time payment of $100 per course covers all tuition and fees. Any books purchased is an additional cost outside of the course tuition and fees. Persons interested in taking the courses for credit would need to have further conversation with the Seminary. Packets are available from Ms. Shenita Sykes in the admission office of Lexington Theological Seminary at 631 South Limestone Street or call 252-0361 for further information.

FROM THE YOUTH EDUCATION DIRECTOR – Marsha Rose

Senior Block II has already begun. A very special thank you to our Senior Block I teachers. Our children have truly benefited from their expertise.

The teachers are: Evelyn Geller (Health Issues/Birth to Death); Jonathan Miller (Tikkun Olam); Linda Ravvin (Jewish History); and Rabbi Jon Adland (Confirmation).

On January 27, our third through sixth grade classes were joined by Ohavay Zion's third through sixth grade classes for a Tu B'Shevat Seder. What a wonderful experience for our children to have an opportunity to bond with the Ohavay Zion Synagogue children. Thank you to Josh Adland for facilitating this event.

The third grade will have a presentation at the Family Shabbat Service on February 8. The second grade will have their presentation at the Family Shabbat Service on March 8.

The fifth grade will lead the service on March 1. This is a great time to show our support for our children. All parents, grandparents, siblings and other family members are welcome to join us for these Shabbat Services.

Sisterhood News

From the President's Desk Sandra Heymann

My Dear Beautiful Sisterhood and Temple Friends,

Now that we are one month into 2002, I hope that this message finds you warm and well. May this New Year be one of peace, happiness, and good health for us all.

Our December meeting was full of surprises and excitement. Just by fluke, the Olympic torch passed by our Temple just before our program meeting and we all got a glimpse of history. It was pretty special. Our meeting was graced by the presence of several wonderful Sisterhood members along with our dynamic speaker, Janie Polk. Thanks to those of you who attended.

So what's happening this month? Please come to our "Lunch & Learn with Rabbi" program on Tuesday, February 19 at 12:30 PM where we will learn about the Feast of Esther. On February 10, we will also be joining the Junior League of the Bluegrass and the Women Black Achievers to host the Valentines dinner for the Florence Crittendon Home. This is a very special mitzvah and community project that we have been doing for the past three years. If you have never been involved or if you would like to participate, please call me! You will not be disappointed that you got involved. It is a true reward and blessing.

Looking ahead, March is Mitzvah Crib Month. The crib will be set up in the Temple foyer throughout the month of March. Collected baby supplies will be donated to a community agency in need of these items.

On a personal note, thank you to all of my Sisterhood friends who helped bake and make Miles' Bar Mitzvah so very special. You are all dear to my heart!

See you at the program. PLEASE COME!

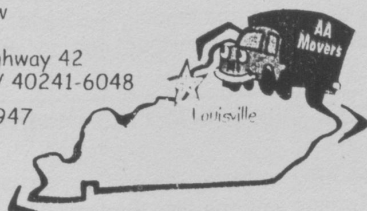

Warm regards,
Sandy

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL MISSION STATEMENT

Adath Israel Congregation is a Reform Congregation, affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations (UAHC). This congregation is established to maintain a Temple of facilities for communal worship in the tradition of Reform Judaism, to provide a religious school for the instruction of children, and to engage in other activities to promote the fundamental principles of Judaism.

PLEASE LET US KNOW!!!

As a result of patient confidentiality, some area hospitals will not release to us the names of Jewish patients when our Temple office calls. Therefore, Rabbi Adland and the Temple are relying on you to let us know when someone is in the hospital. Please call us when you know about someone going into the hospital. Your help in this matter is invaluable.

Letter to the Editor

I found the suggestions which emanated from the Long Range Planning process very interesting, especially those which would require personal effort from Temple members and a degree of involvement in personal service. When the question asking for people who would volunteer such energy in the two meetings I attended, the answers were noticeably smaller than those who endorsed the suggestion.

Although I concede that an enriched summer program might have appeal for some people, less compelling to me were a full-time professionally trained Education Director (anticipated cost $35,000) and a rabbinic substitute for ten weeks while we lend the Rabbi to GUCI and to cover his vacation (anticipated cost $10,000 and housing). I suggest that the Board ask for voluntary contributions on a continuing basis before any such suggestions are seriously considered. This means finding out how many people would raise their dues in amounts to cover such dreams.

Unfortunately, the people who participate in such future planning sessions are rarely those who seek the dues increases necessary to implement the changes, also the presentation of new ideas are rarely accompanied by estimated charges.

Board Member for Life (with voice and without vote),
 Dr. Harriett Rose

MEET THE CANDIDATES

On March 15, the congregants who are running for a Board of Trustees' position for the years 2002-2005 will be introduced. They are: Susan Cantor, Laura Creamer, Roger Fleischman, Joe Grobstein, Brian Hershinow, Ilyse Lonsbury, Albert Kaplan, Linda Noffsinger, Peter Sobel, and Leona Stern.

Come to the Shabbat service to meet the candidates. You will have the opportunity to talk with them at the Oneg Shabbat following services. Ballots were mailed in February. If you did not receive your ballot, please notify the Temple office as soon as possible.

At the end of this month of March, Jews around the world will gather to celebrate the festival of Passover or Pesach, as it is called in Hebrew.

The first night Seder is the most celebrated moment during our Jewish year. The Seder includes a retelling of our Jewish flight from slavery to freedom, as well as a special meal filled with symbols of this incredible historical experience. We come together as family and friends. We invite strangers or acquaintances. We create a festive atmosphere by setting a beautiful table and dressing up for the experience. Passover is a unique Jewish experience.

For many in the Jewish community, much work and preparation goes into the evening Seder. We clean our houses, change our dishes, and put away food that can't be consumed during the festival week. We parcel out responsibilities for the Seder meal. Who will make the dessert, the vegetables, the matzah balls, etc. As Pesach approaches, there is great energy in the air.

This may not be true for everyone. Some people don't have a place to celebrate Pesach. Not every Jew is connected with the organized Jewish community and some in the organized Jewish community don't know many people. We have the special second night Seder at Temple. I am eternally grateful to our Temple Sisterhood for organizing this and to all of the people who help prepare, set up, and clean up. Yet, on the first night, when many, if not most, Jews are celebrating in a home, there are some who don't or can't.

This year I am asking people to set an extra place or two at their first night Seder. Make your home available to the person in our community who could use a family at this festival meal. Call me at Temple or send me an email with the number of extra people you can handle and we will send you the names of people seeking a home Seder. At the same time, if you are interested in being hosted, you must also call or email me. Please don't wait until the last minute. This will facilitate our ability to handle the matching and pairing.

I wish for all of you a very Happy Pesach. This festival of freedom is a celebration of the human spirit. Let us remember our past to make a better future for all.

SPECIAL HEALING SERVICE SCHEDULED FOR SUNDAY EVENING MARCH 17TH.

Rabbi Laura Metzger from Louisville, KY, will lead a special and unique service at TAI on Sunday evening, March 17, at 7 PM. This service of healing helps those who are experiencing pain or loss, or are facing challenges in life, to have a spiritual experience that may ease these struggles. The service has special music to soothe the soul and creative liturgy, which is meditative and reflective. Our creative liturgy committee is working on some special prayers to add to this service.

Healing services are being held in many Jewish communities throughout North America. This is our first chance to be a part of this spiritual moment here at Temple Adath Israel. If you feel like this service may be helpful to you at this time or if you just want to try a new prayerful experience, come to Temple that evening.

Special Messages To Our Members

SOCIAL ACTION MITZVAH OF THE MONTH FOR MARCH

The Social Action Committee has selected GO Women as the March recipient of $54 from the Tzedakah/Social Action Fund. TAI members are encouraged to give either to the organization directly or to the Tzedakah/Social Action Fund to help keep this program going.

GO Women (Greater Opportunities for Women) is a community-based non-profit organization dedicated to promoting social and economic change that will especially benefit low-income women in Eastern and Central Kentucky.

Go Women helps women gain the necessary skills and self esteem to procure greater employment opportunities. This is accomplished through a free ten-week program that:

- exposes low-income women to a series of 20 workshops to improve their skills and confidence
- links low-income women with professional women mentors who have resources in their areas of interest.

Any woman over age 18 in Central or Eastern Kentucky is eligible to apply for the program. Western Kentucky counties in the Central Time Zone are outside the service area. Participants are chosen for the program based on need and the desire to make positive changes in their lives. Transportation to the meetings is provided for those who need it, as is child care. Women do not have to be unemployed, as long as they can arrange work schedules to attend most activities.

GO Women exposes low-income women to new ideas and experiences that allow them to bond with one another, gain greater self-confidence, enhance their communication skills, learn innovative ways of approaching problems, shape for themselves career-oriented plans for the future and prepare to take on leadership roles in the community.

The desired end result of these workshops and mentoring activities is that participants will gain challenging, lucrative and lasting employment in Kentucky's workforce. Not only empowering the individual women to raise above poverty and control their own lives, but also contributing to community building, the economic development of the region, and the redistribution of wealth, power and resources.

Hadassah Needs Volunteers

Hadassah Check It Out program and Sister to Sister would like to expand our group of volunteers. Our group provides a program to teach 11th & 12th grade girls self-breast examination so they will develop good life-skill habits that could one day save their lives. We want to teach young women to take responsibility for their own bodies.

We are looking for volunteers in several areas:

- Assist with teaching sessions
- Schedule teaching sessions with local high schools
- Coordinate information packets for hand-outs at each event

Special training sessions and certification will be provided to anyone who is interested in assisting with teaching sessions. Instruction and assistance will be provided for other areas.

If you are interested in helping with this program, please contact Janice Newman at 272-6807 or Susan Keller at 223-9241.

Hadassah Women's Discussion Group March Meeting

Join us for a viewing of "Seeds of Hatred", a video which explores the education of Palestinian school children. We will attempt to separate fact from fiction as we take a look at what these students are being taught about the Jewish religion and the Jewish people. Daniel Chejfec, Executive Director of CKJF, will facilitate the discussion. The group will meet at the home of Linda Ravvin, 1404 Meganwood Circle, on Thursday, March 21 at 7:30 PM. Call Linda at 269-4130 or Joan at 223-8066.

FROM THE YOUTH EDUCATION DIRECTOR – Marsha Rose

I encourage you to purchase additional cookbooks. The committee has worked a zillion hours to produce an excellent cookbook. The expenses have been met thanks to all of your financial support. However, to increase the profit,

I recommend that you purchase more cookbooks. What a wonderful way to try new Passover recipes and/or send gifts to friends and family. This is truly a wonderful fundraiser. In order to make it successful, we need you to buy cookbooks. Thank you for helping the TAI Religious School.

Our Senior Block is in the process of changing. Many creative ideas have been expressed. If you have any input as to curriculum, please do not hesitate to contact me. Our parents are one of our greatest resources. We are beginning to benefit from parent participation in the classroom. Yet, this is just the beginning. If you are interested in becoming more actively involved, please contact me. We also need more parent participation on the Youth Education Committee. New innovative ideas can be implemented with your help.

TAI & OZS Religious Schools Share Tu B'Shevat

From the Religious School Classes

Fifth Grade Class

Jane Gris , Teacher

Our Fifth Graders have had a very busy fall and winter this year. We have instituted a new Family Education program – Family Time. On three occasions this fall, parents have joined our class in exploring a variety of aspects of Jewish life. In our first session, each family was asked to bring their oldest Jewish ritual object. The objects ranged from a 100-year-old Seder plate to fairly modern Chanukah menorahs. In our next session, we explored the creation of Israel as a State and had a debate between the parents and students regarding whether Jews should have settled in Uganda or Israel. In our third session, students put together questions regarding our study of Jewish history and played "Who Wants to be a Millionaire" with the parents. Surprisingly, the students, who had composed the questions, won the game. At this session, we also discussed the meanings of our names and where our ancestors lived before settling in the United States.

Our major project for the spring is to prepare the service for March 1st. In addition to learning how the service is put together, we are examining prayers in other services and putting together the service with prayers that we find the most moving. After March 1st, we will have units on the elderly, life cycles, and social action.

Sixth Grade Class,

Al & Kaye Kaplan, Teachers

The sixth grade class is a large and busy one. They have been a fun class to teach. Our big project for the year will be our wine bottle rabbis. Watch for them in March in the display case of the Temple foyer.

PRESCHOOL NEWS

Sandy Adland, Director
E-mail – SAdland@aol.com

The school year is just flying by! All of our preschoolers are very excited about our upcoming Preschool Family Night Dinner and Arts Enrichment Showcase on Thursday evening, March 14th. They're practicing up a storm and look forward to entertaining their families!

Purim at preschool was so much fun. We made masks, read the megillah, sang songs, and especially enjoyed eating Hamentashen! Sadly, we said goodbye to our LASC art instructor Mrs. Boyer, who had her final sessions with our classes at the end of February. However, the GOOD news is, we welcome Judy Weickel back to our preschool! Mrs. Weickel taught our LASC art sessions last year, and will return again to our school for the remainder of the school year. Welcome back, Mrs. Weickel!

Enrollment for the 2002-2003 school year is currently underway. For more information about Temple Adath Israel Preschool, call Sandy Adland at 269-2979 or 271-3568.

Bagels and Blocks (for children ages 0-2 and their parents) is held every Monday morning from 9:00 AM to 10:30 AM in the Temple library. Please join us!

TRYB'S MLK Jr. WEEKEND PROGRAM A GREAT SUCCESS

The weekend of the celebration of the birthday of Martin Luther King Junior holds special meaning for the Temple's high school youth group, TRYB. The values that MLK Jr. spoke about so passionately are the very same values that we find in Torah, just spoken of with different language: help those in need, honor the elderly, help the infirm, welcome the stranger in our midst. TRYB took to heart this message and held a weekend long event of social action and education.

The weekend began with the inclusion of the music of Warren Byrd and David Chevan, Avadim Hayinu, in Friday evening's worship service. The high school youth group from St. Paul's AME church was invited to attend the service and potluck dinner that followed. It was a very unique experience to hear the traditional Jewish sacred music played with a jazz twist!

On Saturday, the student athlete volunteers from Americorps presented a series of educational programs on values, diversity, and prejudice. Our group of twenty had lively discussions on the many interesting topics raised. Saturday evening, Avadim Hayinu, presented a concert of jazz interpretations of the sacred music of the Jewish and African American traditions that was open to the congregation. There was an enjoyable post concert jam session in the youth lounge.

Sunday was the day for social action. TRYB visited the Homestead Nursing Home, baked cookies for Moveable Feast, and recorded children's books onto tapes to donate to the UK Children's Hospital. TRYB rented the YMCA for a lock-in on Sunday night. Some of the Americorps volunteers joined them for basketball and swimming.

The culmination of the weekend's program was participating in Monday's Martin Luther King Jr. March and listening to the guest speaker, Ossie Davis. I am very proud of the young adults who worked on planning this weekend and those that participated in the events. This being real life, there was a glitch here and there; nothing that can't be fixed for future events. This great bunch of kids took positive action to live the Jewish values that our Temple has taught them. I am very proud of them!

Upcoming Events

Are you interested in helping to organize this year's Women's Community Seder? Volunteers are needed to continue this emerging Lexington tradition. You can help with cooking, set up and clean up, music and dancing, or designing and leading the Seder. Contact Toni Reiss at 269-2979 or TAltoni@aol.com for more information.

Sisterhood News

From the President's Desk Sandra Heymann

Dear Sisterhood Friends,

Spring is approaching. I can smell it in the air. The trees will soon be blooming and the flowers will add color and warmth to our world. Just as all of you add to our Temple. The meaning of Sisterhood is YOU. Each and everyone of you.

The Florence Crittenton dinner on February 10 was a huge success. A big THANK YOU to LisaMarie Price and Jana Lazur along with their entire committee who put together one of the best Mitzvahs of the year.

Thank you to our dear Rabbi, Jon Adland, for leading us in an inspiring discussion and learning session during our Lunch and Learn - The Feast of Esther on February 19th. Rabbi Adland, we are so very blessed to have you in our lives. You continue to enrich our souls and keep us whole. The words "Thank You" never seem to be enough. We appreciate you and what you mean to our Sisterhood.

Please join us in March for our program (see the flier on this page). We will also hold a general membership business meeting before our dinner, so please come prepared to tell us what you would like to see Sisterhood accomplish in 2002.

Remember, if you have not paid your dues - it is that time. Dues are $30. Those that have paid in September 2001 - you are OK, those that have not, please send in your dues today! If you are uncertain if you have paid your dues this year, please call Marcia Brown, treasurer.

One more Mazal Tov before I close - Sisterhood member and special friend Joanne Glasser will be Inaugurated as President of Eastern Kentucky University this month. Joanne, we are all so proud of you. Mazal Tov!

With love,
Sandy

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL MISSION STATEMENT

Adath Israel Congregation is a Reform Congregation, affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations (UAHC). This congregation is established to maintain a Temple of facilities for communal worship in the tradition of Reform Judaism, to provide a religious school for the instruction of children, and to engage in other activities to promote the fundamental principles of Judaism.

PLEASE LET US KNOW!!!

As a result of patient confidentiality, some area hospitals will not release to us the names of Jewish patients when our Temple office calls. Therefore, Rabbi Adland and the Temple are relying on you to let us know when someone is in the hospital. Please call us when you know about someone going into the hospital. Your help in this matter is invaluable.

Representing Reform Judaism

Your Vote Can Make The Difference.

Reform Jews in America have a chance to send a message that we care deeply about our future and about the unity and continuity of all the Jewish people. We want a secure Israel and a peaceful region. We want an Israel with a strong voice for our shared progressive Jewish values - on women's rights and civil rights, religious freedom and the environment. We want an Israel that is truly democratic and pluralistic - more inclusive and tolerant of all Jews.

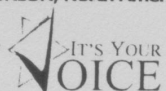

Other slates seek your vote with promises to fight for peace, pluralism and democracy, or for equality and social justice. But ARZA/WORLD UNION, North America has been taking bold, effective and unprecedented action on these issues for years. MAZON: A JEWISH RESPONSE TO HUNGER

March 2002

Dear Congregant:

As MAZON: A Jewish Response to Hunger marks the beginning of our 17th year, we write to thank you for your partnership with us in confronting the scandal of hunger.

We are deeply grateful for your concern and generosity. You have enabled MAZON to grant almost $26 million in our first 16 years, to organizations working to ease the pain of hunger for millions in the United States, in Israel and worldwide.

In 2001, MAZON granted more than $3 million. Since 1986 (when we awarded just $20,000) MAZON has grown to become one of the nation's largest and most respected private funders of domestic hunger-relief programs. Our work would not be possible without your support.

We hope you will continue to contribute to MAZON 3% of the cost of your simchas, to "let one who is hungry enter and eat" by participating in our annual Passover appeal, and by "leaving the corners of your fields" for the poor and the stranger during the High Holy Days.

Together, we can feed hungry people today and work for justice for them tomorrow. Thank you for being our partners in this holy work.

Sincerely,
David Napell
Chair

H. Eric Schockman, Ph.D
Executive Director

March, 2002

Dear Congregant

As Passover approaches, I urge you to share this celebration of freedom with those who remain enslaved by hunger and poverty. I ask you to do so by contributing to MAZON: A Jewish Response to Hunger the money you would have spent to feed one extra person at your seder table.

MAZON will grant your dollars wisely and strategically to organizations helping millions of poor and hungry people today and work for justice for them tomorrow. The dollars raised in our American Jewish community, in part through this annual Passover appeal, have transformed MAZON into one of the country's largest private funders of domestic anti-hunger programs.

In these times of economic uncertainty, hunger still remains a scandal in our country. Some 31 million Americans, including 12 million children, are hungry or at the very edge of hunger, unsure of where their next meal will come from.

Through MAZON, we can help them. Below is a Passover reading and a contribution form that I hope you will insert into the Haggadah and read at the point early in the seder when we say "Let all who are hungry enter and eat." By letting one who is hungry enter and eat, through a contribution to MAZON, your, your family and friends – all who are sitting at your seder table will give real meaning to that invitation.

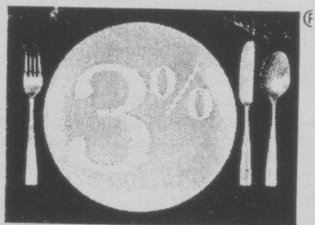

At Passover, I believe we are not only obligated but also blessed to use the freedom that we celebrate to free others who desperately need our help. Please do so by "letting one who is hungry enter and eat."

I wish you the joys of the Passover season.

L'Shalom,
Jon Adland, Rabbi

Baruch eloheinus sheb'tuvo he'vianu v'zikanu l'mitzvat matan mazon.

ITEMS NEEDED FOR THE SEDER PLATE

A. Charoset - Composed of chopped nuts and apples, cinnamon and wine, charoset represents the mortar used by the Jews in making bricks while they were slaves in Egypt.

B. Zeroa - The roasted shankbone or roasted wing of a fowl represents the sacrifice of the Paschal lamb.

C. Beitza - The roasted hard-cooked egg symbolizes the festival offering brought to the Temple.

D. Moror - The bitter herbs are represented by horseradish that has been freshly grated from the horseradish root. They symbolize the bitterness of slavery for the Jews in Egypt.

E. Karpas - You may use parsley or celery to represent Spring, which brings rebirth and redemption. It is dipped in salt water before it is eaten to remind us of the tears and sweat of the Jewish people in slavery.

F. Chazereth - On most Seder plates, there is another form of bitter herbs. It may be the root of the horseradish (ungrated) or watercress.

Wine Glasses - The glasses are filled with the traditional, Kosher for Passover wine.

Decanter of Wine - There should be enough wine to pour four cups for each individual. These represent the four divine promises of redemption found in Exodus 6:6-7. You will also need enough wine for serving during the meal.

Cup of Elijah - Fill a beautiful cup with wine and put it in a prominent place on the table to welcome Elijah, the prophet who heralds freedom and redemption.

Charoset - Although charoset goes on the Seder plate, extra charoset is served for making the Hillel sandwich and to eat during the meal. Rabbi Hillel, a great Jewish teacher who lived between 90 BCE and 70 CE may have invented this sandwich of charoset and moror (between two pieces of matzah) to represent the bitterness of slavery and the sweetness of freedom.

Candlesticks - The blessing over the candles is recited before the Seder begins.

Pillows - Pillows to lean on are traditionally placed on chairs, especially in the chair of the leader of the Seder, as a symbol of freedom from slavery.

SETTING THE SEDER TABLE

Seder Plate - The most important item on the table is the Seder plate, containing the symbolic foods. Seder plates are usually beautifully decorated, often with scenes from the Passover story or with Hebrew inscriptions.

Three Matzahs - The ceremonial matzahs are placed, one on top of the other, in a special matzah cover or in a napkin. According to a common interpretation, the matzahs represent the three divisions of the Jewish people; Kohen - priest; Levi - assistants in the Temple; Israelites - people of Israel.

Additional Matzah - Additional matzah is placed on a serving plate, for eating during the main meal.

Haggadahs - The Haggadah is the book that is read cover to cover during the evening. It includes the story, prayers, songs, rituals, and commentary that make up the Seder. Make sure you have one at each place.

Dish of Salt Water - Part of the Seder ritual is to dip the Karpas (parsley) into salt water, which represents the tears of the Jewish people while in slavery.

Among the foods that must contain the "Kosher l'Pesach" label and be certified for Passover use by rabbinical authority are:

Matzah, matzah flour, Passover noodles
Candles, cakes, cookies, jams and jellies
Cheeses, milk, and butter
Canned and processed foods, such as fruits, sauces, and soups
Salad oils, shortenings, vinegar
Beverages, wine and liquors
Vegetable gelatin
Relishes
Dried fruits
Horseradish

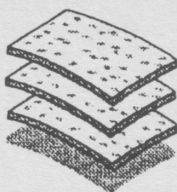

The following foods require no Kosher l'Pesach label if they are in unopened packages or containers or in a natural state:

Coffee, tea, and sugar (but not confectioners' sugar, because it contains cornstarch)
Salt, pepper, and spices (some herbs should be fresh)
All fruits and nuts
All vegetables except legumes such as peas, corn, and beans

Fruits and vegetables normally permitted for Passover use are permitted in their frozen state, provided they have not been cooked or processed in any way.

Chametz - foods with leavening - may not be eaten during Passover.

*All grains (wheat, rye, oats, barley, rice, kasha, spelt) or any of their derivatives
Leavened bread, cakes, biscuits, crackers, and cereals, and any store bought baked goods not labeled Kosher l'Pesach
Any product with flavoring made from grain alcohol, such as vanilla extract, brandy, beer, or liquor
Legumes such as corn, beans, soy beans, lentils, lima beans, and any product made from them*

THE SEARCH FOR CHAMETZ

All chametz must be removed from the house or separated by putting into a room, closet, or cupboard that is locked. Since during the year, chametz may work its way into every corner of the house and even into the household dust, a thorough housecleaning is considered part of the Passover preparations.

To further insure that no chametz will be found in the house during Passover, a final, ritual search (Bedikat Chametz) made after dark on the night before Passover. To add interest to the ceremony, especially for children, bread may be wrapped in a napkin and hidden around the house for family members to find. The family goes from room to room, using only a candle to light the way. Traditionally, a feather is used to brush the bits of bread into the wooden spoon.

The chametz is then tied up in a cloth along with the feather, the candle, and the spoon, and burned the next morning. There are blessings to accompany both the search for the disposal of chametz.

THE MATZAH OF UNITY

(To be recited during the Seder at Yachatz when breaking the middle Matzah)

We are about to take the middle matzah and divide it in half. As we break this matzah and set it aside, we link ourselves symbolically with all Jews who have lived in the former Soviet Union. We will not conclude our Seder until the missing piece of matzah is found and brought again to our table. This action reminds us of the indestructible unity which binds all Jews together as a world family.

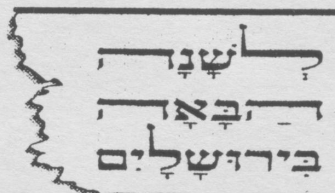

In Jewish tradition, matzah is "the bread of affliction," used on the road to redemption. As we celebrate Pesach, our festival of freedom, we know that the theme of the Exodus resonates in all that is happening around us. Jews of the Soviet Union resisted decades of suppression. Struggling to live as Jews, many sought valiantly to leave for Israel, the homeland of the Jewish people. Many suffered harassment; some endured prison and some lost their lives.

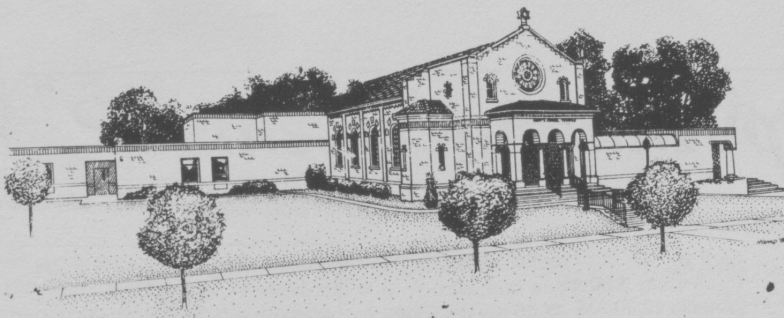

At last, most Jews can leave the place that represented a prison for so long. For now, the door to freedom remains open. We walk with them in their Exodus. Through Operation Exodus, we commit ourselves to help them in their quest for a new and better future for themselves and their children.

We also remember the several million Jews who still remain behind. We pledge our vigilance, our support, and our solidarity with them, as they endeavor to sustain their community and courageously resist anti-Semitism.

As Jews from the former Soviet Union and other countries settle in Israel by the hundreds of thousands, we know that their reunification with the Jewish people requires our caring and loving concern. May we be worthy of that challenge.

We pray that all Jews may find freedom this year in a world without war and with Israel at peace. Am Yisrael Hu Am Echad. May the Jewish people always be united!

NISAN-IYAR 5762

As I write this article in early March I am continuing to note with tremendous alarm the escalating violence in Israel. It is finally spiraling out of control. Suicide bombers and gunmen continue to shoot and murder Israeli civilians and soldiers while Israel responds with equal ferocity. There is no longer any rhyme or reason for the actions taken. Rather what is happening now is only a reaction to what happened the day before or sometimes hours before. I pray that somewhere, somehow someone's voice will rise over the bombs and say enough. This is enough murdering and killing and shooting and bombing and enough dead children and mothers and families. Enough!

What is worse for me is that I feel so helpless. Israel is a part of who I am as a Jew. Since Abraham received the call from God to leave his parents' home and go to Canaan, the land that God would show him, this place has been a part of who we are as people. When the Babylonians exiled us after the destruction of the First Temple, we longed to return to the land. When we went into the diaspora, we longed to return to the land. Throughout the ages Jews wrote about Israel, thought about Israel, visited Israel and even moved and settled in Israel.

By the middle of the 19th century, some Jews in Europe had had enough of the anti-Semitism and pogroms and realized that Israel was a place to go and resettle. Today, some 5,000,000 Jews live in this land. Yet, living there has always been contested and it continues for our brothers and sisters in Israel today. For the last 17 months the cost has been extremely high not only for the Jews, but for the Arabs contesting Israel's right to exist in the Middle East as well. I can't imagine any family not knowing someone who has died.

In April, this year, we observe Yom Hashoah (Memorial Day for the victims of the Holocaust) and celebrate Yom Ha'atzmaut (Israel Independence Day.) It is very important that we take time in our lives to reflect on the significant meaning of these two days. If we wonder why some fight so hard to stay in Israel, it is because this land is the land of refuge for the victims of the Holocaust. It is to Israel that our relatives came to rebuild shattered lives. Nothing will drive them from this sacred ground. Yom Ha'atzmaut marks the new beginning of Jewish life. With the founding of the State of Israel, we had a chance to finally govern ourselves without the yoke of anti-Semitism and Jewish hatred hanging around our necks. It hasn't been easy, this Jewish experiment we call Israel, but it is our experiment to see to its conclusion.

A Message From The President

Stage One of our Long-Range Planning process has been completed. Our Temple Committees, Executive Committee and Temple Board have reviewed the Long-Range Planning Committee's recommendations. At the March Board meeting, the Temple Board endorsed the Long-Range Planning Committee's recommendations and decided that the highest priority was the hiring of a Cantor. The Board stated that "we expect the role of a cantor to deeply enhance our worship services and enrich the entire Temple community, young and old, in numerous ways. This role would be a valuable tool to enable us to provide: awe inspiring services, year round continuity in the Temple, and valuable instruction and assistance to our youth as well as our adult members."

The Board also endorsed the idea that Committees should treat the year as a 12-month cycle and provide programs throughout the year and increase social activities during the summer. With respect to Worship, the Board agreed that we should strive to have services that are emotionally and spiritually inspiring, continue to introduce innovative worship services, and provide workshops to explain prayers and services.

In the area of Religious Education, the Board supported the hiring of a full-time Education Director, enhancing teacher training, building programs that linked adult and youth education, and planning trips for Senior Block that were supported by the congregation. With respect to Community, the Board agreed that we should support existing hevras and develop programming for under-served segments of the congregation such as older members and members without children. Finally, the Board stated that we should provide administrative support for any expanded professional staff and that we should plan for expanded/renovated facilities where necessary.

Thanks to everyone who participated in this process. Our Temple is certainly strengthened by the type of self-reflection that we undertook in this planning process. In Proverbs it is said, "When there is no vision, the people perish." In the Pirkei Avot it is said, "Who is Wise?"

My friends, let us not give up hope about the future of the Middle East. The violence will end. It must end and somehow co-existence will emerge, but until then we must be supportive and interested and engaged in the survival of this small piece of real estate we call Israel.

The one who learns from everyone." We now have a firm vision of where we want to go. We have this vision because we have had input from many segments of our congregation. Stage Two of the process will involve determining how these recommendations can be implemented.

Serving this congregation as President over the past two years has been an honor and a pleasure. The best part of the job has been to get to know so many wonderful individuals and to work with so many committed persons. Thank you for this opportunity

Social Action News

What could be better than BAGELS AND BOOKS? The TAI Social Action Committee is hosting a fun-filled fundraiser in support of its service programs which include providing meals at the Hope Center, arranging Thanksgiving baskets, and supporting winter heating programs.

On Sunday, April 21, from 9 AM to 12 noon, a used book sale will take place in the social hall. Please help by:

- * Donating used books in good condition (adult & children's).
- * Purchasing books and bagels on April 21st.

A blue receptacle has been placed in TAI's entrance hall for your donations. Most books will be priced under $1.00. Join us as we bring together these two great Jewish traditions (food and learning) and raise some money in the process. For further information, please contact Anne Graff at 264-9424 or Nancy Schoenberg at 323-8175.

El Salvador Chicken Project

Temple Adath Israel's Social Action Committee, in cooperation with Temple Shalom of Succasunna, New Jersey, is pleased to announce that we are supporting the El Salvador Chicken Project. The project provides you with great opportunity to practice tzedakah and at the same time help a poor family in El Salvador enrich its diet and increase its self-sufficiency.

The project is simple, but effective. Funds are used to provide Salvadoran families with chickens (18 hens and 2 rooster per family). The eggs from these hens provide a high quality protein source to improve the families' diets. In addition, extra eggs are sold in the market to provide income for the family.

The Chicken Project is one of several programs coordinated by the Foundation for Self-Sufficiency in Central America (FSSCA), a non-profit organization working in cooperation with a grassroots movement in El Salvador – the Coordinadora del Bajo Lempa. Other interrelated programs involve housing, non-violent conflict transformation, democratic participation and organization. During the past three years, the Coordinadora has been the recipient of a grant from the American Jewish World Service. You can learn more about the Chicken Project by going to the web site of FSSCA (<http://fssca.net>).

Here is how YOU can help. Your donation of just $5 buys a chicken for a needy family. Think about the blessings your family enjoys and consider the impoverished situation of the families in El Salvador that are still suffering from the consequences of earthquakes and Hurricane Mitch. Then consider donating at least one chicken for each person in your household. You can also ask your friends to make a donation.

Donations should be made payable to "Temple Adath Israel" and should be sent to the Temple at 124 N. Ashland Ave., Lexington, KY 40504. Please be sure to indicate that your donation is for the chicken project. Thanks for your support!

I cannot begin to express my appreciation to all of the teachers for their hard work and dedication that has been evident throughout the year. It is extremely rewarding to observe the children's bright smiles and excitement.

Parents continuously provide us with positive feedback.

Our students have benefited from the expertise of our teachers. A very special thanks to Bobbi & Drew Fried. They have just completed their seventh grade cooking and Jewish humor course. We now have many new "gourmet cooks!"

Linda Ravvin has taught Jewish History for the eighth grade Senior Block I and II. It is truly amazing how much your children have learned. Linda will continue to teach ninth graders an Israeli course for Senior Block III. We are really fortunate to have Linda as our teacher for the entire year. She is very learned and committed to providing the students with her vast knowledge.

Richard Greissman's ninth grade Social Action class was enjoyed by everyone. He has a gift to stimulate the students.

Daniel Chejfec's ninth grade Jewish Current Events class provided each child with a better understanding of our turbulent Mideast.

Alissa Brown was a welcome addition to our tenth grade class.

Fourth Grade

Austin & Susan Cantor, Teachers

The fourth graders have been having a busy year. On December 14, it was our turn to do a presentation for the Erev Shabbat service. Since it was Hanukkah and there are nine students in the class, we formed a human menorah. Art teacher, Linda Noffsinger, was most helpful in designing our costumes and in assisting our students in constructing them.

Another exciting event in December was the Fourth Grade Quiz Bowl. Prior to the event, students submitted questions. Competition was fierce as the teams tried to be the first to press the buzzer to demonstrate their knowledge. Our fourth grade parents kept score, ran the buzzer system, and cheered on the teams.

Our students are preparing to write an article on the current situation in Israel. In preparation, they have been looking for information in newspapers, magazines, and on the internet. In addition, they had the opportunity to interview Joshua Adland, who recently returned from his stay in Israel.

Seventh Grade

Bobbi & Drew Fried

Written by Ryann Schermer

The seventh grade has enjoyed their cooking class. They have spent the last five weeks cooking many marvelous things such as latkes, chicken soup, mandel bread, hamantashen, and several other wonderful goods. The different types of food were great and I really loved that we were able to take the recipes home.

Seventh graders were also taught Jewish humor following the cooking class taught by Mrs. Bobbi Fried. Dr. Andrew Fried told many jokes of "the old country: All of the seventh graders really loved his jokes and got quite a kick out of them.

Eight Grade

Linda Ravvin, Teacher

Written by the class

This year in religious school, we have learned all about Jewish history. We started with the destruction of the first Temple, and ended with the Holocaust. Our classes have been full of discussions and debates.

We have also seen movies about the lost tribes of Israel and the Holocaust. We have talked about Anti-Semitism, Jewish/Christian relations and we touched on modern day Israel.

Sisterhood News

From the President's Desk Sandra Heymann

Dear Sisterhood and Temple Friends,

Passover, what a beautiful and meaningful holiday for Jews all over the world. Here in our very own congregation we have grown accustomed to sharing the second night of Passover as a Temple community. WOW, what a feeling! This my friends is the meaning of Sisterhood. I often hear the question, "What is Sisterhood? Those of you who were able to join us for the seder will be able to answer this question.

A heartfelt thank you to Leona Stern, Rose Rita Wurmser, Connie Grobstein, and the entire Passover committee for making our community seder a true joy. All of these ladies give Sisterhood a meaning.

Our March Mitzvah Crib was also a true success. A special thank you to Nathalie Dhir for putting this most important Sisterhood program/mitzvah together. Giving is truly receiving. To Nathalie and those of you who participated, your graciousness touched many hearts. Thank you!

We had a terrific program in March. Learning about the Women's Hope Center was enlightening and heartwarming. Sandy Adland, thank you once again for your unique and fantastic programming.

This month we will have an open board meeting and general session. Look for details in this bulletin.

If you want to get involved on the Sisterhood Board, now is the time. Please call past president, Kaye Kaplan. Kaye is busy with her nominating committee selecting the new board and slate of officers for Sisterhood 2002-2004.

Don't forget, Sisterhood Shabbat is coming up, Friday, May 3. Want to be a part? Please call Sandy Adland today!

As I close, I would like to express my gratitude and love for the entire Adland family. We are so fortunate as a congregation to have each and every one of them in our lives. So often we take their talents for granted. I am so grateful to all of you. Josh, Rachel, Rabbi Jon and Sandy, you sure bring a whole different meaning to our congregation and world, especially Sisterhood. I couldn't pull off this presidency without you all.

Sisterhood love,
Sandra Heymann

PRESCHOOL NEWS
Sandy Adland, Director
E-mail – SAdland@aol.com

March was a busy month for our preschoolers. We welcomed Mrs. Weickel, from LASC, back to our staff, and the children have really enjoyed their art sessions with her.

Our Preschool Family Night Dinner and Arts Enrichment Showcase was a great success. Everyone enjoyed the informal dinner and conversation, the art display, and the animated performances by all of our classes. In addition, our preschoolers celebrated the coming of Passover by inviting their parents to their classroom seder. We enjoyed hearing the story of the Exodus, singing songs, and tasting the traditional seder foods.

Temple Adath Israel Preschool is currently enrolling for the 2002-2003 school year. For more information please call Sandy Adland at 269-2979 or 271-3568. Bagels and Blocks, a playgroup for children ages 0-2 and their parents, meets every Monday (during the school year) from 9:00 AM -10:30 AM in the Temple Library. Please join us!

Thank you to everyone who registered to vote in the World Zionist Congress Election!

It is now time to cast your vote for Slate 8!

Ballots will be mailed February 27th.

Completed ballots must be returned by April 5.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL MISSION STATEMENT

Adath Israel Congregation is a Reform Congregation, affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations (UAHC). This congregation is established to maintain a Temple of facilities for communal worship in the tradition of Reform Judaism, to provide a religious school for the instruction of children, and to engage in other activities to promote the fundamental principles of Judaism.

PLEASE LET US KNOW!!!

As a result of patient confidentiality, some area hospitals will not release to us the names of Jewish patients when our Temple office calls. Therefore, Rabbi Adland and the Temple are relying on you to let us know when someone is in the hospital. Please call us when you know about someone going into the hospital. Your help in this matter is invaluable.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

MAY 2002

VOL. 69 NO. 8

IYAR-SIVAN 5762

In the middle of the month of May, we celebrate the significant Jewish Holy Day called Shavuot. This day is the second of the three pilgrimage festivals (the other two being Pesach and Sukkot) when our ancestors were commanded to go up to Jerusalem with their offerings. For Shavuot, the sacrificial offering wasn't an animal, but grain from the early wheat harvest that was planted at Pesach seven weeks earlier.

Shavuot isn't only about making a pilgrimage to Jerusalem with an offering, it is also celebrated as the day when Moses received the Torah from God on Mt. Sinai. Tradition tells us that all Jews waited at the bottom of the mountain to hear the revelation by God to Moses, but in the end they only heard the first two commandments "I am your God and don't have any other Gods."

Today, most Reform Jewish congregations use the Holy Day of Shavuot to celebrate Confirmation. Confirmation is, in essence, the concluding ceremony of a child's formal Religious School education. The connection between Shavuot and Confirmation goes back to the 19th century. As Bar and Bat Mitzvah didn't exist within most Reform Jewish congregations, the idea of Confirmation was brought forth. It was tied to Shavuot so that just as Moses and the people received the Torah and declared their commitment to these laws and principles, so too do our young men and woman stand before God and do the same thing.

Confirmation is a service of declaration of a 10th grader's view of his or her Jewish world. It is a moment in Jewish time when a Jewish young man or woman tells the congregation gathered for this service what it means to be a Jew.

This year there will be eight young people from our congregation being Confirmed on Erev Shavuot, May 16th, beginning at 6:30 PM. Wouldn't it be wonderful if on that Thursday evening, members of this congregation would come to this service and support these wonderful young people at this holy moment? It has always been one of my dreams to see the Temple fill up for Confirmation with more than just relatives and friends, but with Temple members generally encouraged by these young people who continued their studies, many after their Bar/Bat Mitzvah, to the end. I am very proud of them and hope that you come and show them that you are too.

THE PRESIDENT'S LINE

Shalom,

It is with great pride that I humbly accept the role of President of Temple Adath Israel. This Temple is an important part of my life and I know that it also touches the heart and soul of every congregant from baby to bubbe and zayde. It is an awesome task to follow in the footsteps of our wise and devoted past presidents. I am assured that for the next two years I shall be able to count on your guidance and assistance.

I would like to extend a heartfelt thanks to the members of the board whose term now expires: Jo Belin, Fran Bloom, Kaye Kaplan, Leona Stern, and Janet Tamaren. I want to also extend a special thanks to John Harrison, our past secretary, and of course, roses and roses to you, Jane. You will all be missed. Thank you for your commitment to Reformed Judaism and to Temple Adath Israel.

I would like to welcome to the board: Roger Fleischman, Joe Grobstein, Brian Hershnow, Linda Noffsinger, Pete Sobel, and Leona Stern who was elected again to the board. I also want to welcome Al Kaplan, our next treasurer, and David Shraberg, secretary. I appreciate your valuable leadership skills and look forward to working with all of you. I would like to share this meditation with you. It is from covenant of the Heart and is written by Harriet Sherman.

We believe in tomorrow.

We believe as Jews dedicated to service to our Temple and to our faith, that we have the power to make tomorrow different than today.

We believe that ignorance, poverty, and lack of sensitivity to the feelings, needs or beliefs of others need not be permanent.

We believe in people despite all that we know about them.

We believe that there can yet, be a time of peace, a time of sisterhood and brotherhood, and a time of tranquility for ourselves, for our children, and for everyone who lives on this earth.

We believe that we can have a share in bringing the day closer, by the way in which we live throughout the year.

The world may smile at our dreamers, but no matter, we still believe

I am looking forward to a term filled with excitement, passion, vision and creativity.

A TRIBUTE TO KOLEINU

From Deborah Isenstadt

As I was cleaning up my files in preparation for my family's upcoming move to Connecticut this summer, I came across a memo dated November 8, 1998, sent to the Programming Coordinator, Toni Reiss and the then Worship Committee Chair, Starr Gantz. Its main content is reprinted below.

On Sunday, October 25, 1998, the Temple Adult Choir had an initial meeting to set a course for this new group. Here's what we propose as our initial goals:

1. FUN. We would like to think of the adult choir, primarily, as a group in which members get together to learn and enjoy singing and playing both Jewish liturgical and Jewish non-liturgical music. Our initial goals will be:
 - a. To form an enthusiastic group of members who together create a body of beautiful music that we can enjoy together.
 - b. To prepare to contribute our music to a single service (see 2 below). Perhaps as things progress the Adult Choir would become a regular part of our worship, but in general, this group would not be looked upon as a regular contributor to the worship service, at least initially.
 - c. If eventually we become a more routine part of worship services, to engender greater participation in song among the entire congregation present. (We do not want to be viewed as performers while the congregation sits silently.)
2. MODEST AMBITIONS. We are thinking of working toward a service in the spring e. g. April 23 or May 7 (1998), as our public debut, not to lead, but to contribute to a Shabbat service's music in some way.
3. CONVENIENT. We will probably meet on Sunday mornings, perhaps alternating between 10:30-12 noon and 12 noon -1:30, depending on member schedules, etc. This might mean that we need special arrangements for teachers interested in participating on occasion.
4. BUILD A MUSIC LIBRARY. We will start with music available through the Temple, Sandy Adland, and others. We can buy music as needed as we go.

This was the modest start of Koleinu, the now almost four-year-old Temple Adath Israel adult choir that, as it turns out, has done an amazing job of holding fast to and fulfilling its original vision even as we experienced surprising success as participants in and contributors to the Temple worship experience. Talk about fun: our rehearsals every few Sunday mornings include some solid singing practice bracketed and occasionally interrupted by an unlimited supply of schmoozing, the secret ingredient (I have discovered) to any non-food Jewish tradition! We also welcome anyone who can carry a tune, at any register, to join us – resulting in a wild and delightful mix of members of all backgrounds and generations (though only one gender, so far...Come on, boys!!) that collectively create a very joyful noise.

On May 31, 2002, Koleinu will sing its last service for the 2001-2002 TAI "season." This will also be my last service with the group before I move away from Lexington. I wanted to take this opportunity to thank, from the deepest places in my heart, all current and past Koleinu members for creating and sharing their talent and beauty with me and the congregation. Thank you to Elayne Crystal, Judy Engleberg, Sylvia Atkinson, Leah and Sheila Biel, Judy Miller, Dianne Bazell, Kay Israel, Laurie Clewett, Audrey Noble, Rudo Greissworth, Diane Svarlien, Colby Cohen-Archer, David and Celia Sogin, and other members that have come and gone from our group. Thank you, Debbie Sogin, for so seamlessly working with me to lead the group and providing the critical foundation of choral direction and keyboard support to advance our abilities and the beauty of our sound. Thank you, Rabbi Adland and the Worship Committee for your support of our amateur efforts. And thank you, congregation, for giving me and my Koleinu family the chance to grow and give and thrive in your midst.

As a parting gift to Koleinu, I have donated to the Temple, for Koleinu's use, 11 copies of the wonderful new, extremely comprehensive songbook "Shireinu," from which Koleinu can continue to draw selections that enrich the musical and worship experience of our congregation (without violating copyrights!). As a parting request, I would ask any members of the congregation who have enjoyed Koleinu to consider contributing a few dollars toward the purchase of a new electric piano for the Temple and Koleinu's use. Few are aware that Debbie Sogin has been lugging a keyboard that belongs neither to her nor the Temple back and forth every time we sing at services, a practice that no longer makes sense considering Koleinu's established presence in our service ritual. A good digital piano would cost $3,000. I also encourage congregants who love to sing to consider joining the group. Call any of the members mentioned above for more information on what it's like to participate and for a schedule of the next rehearsal, then show up!

With love and gratitude, I wish all of the congregation continued enjoyment of Koleinu in the years to come.

L' Shalom,

Deborah Isenstadt

PRESCHOOL NEWS

Sandy Adland, Director
E-mail – SADland@aol.com

April showers bring May flowers, and we are so excited that springtime has arrived! Speaking of flowers, please take time to admire the flower garden on our playground, planted by our 4 year old class. We look forward to watching our flowers grow! It is hard to believe that the school year is almost over. Our students have grown in so many wonderful ways. We have been truly blessed to have wonderfully supportive parents, a team of creative, caring and talented early childhood professionals, and an outstanding group of preschoolers.

For the students who will return to our school next year, we look forward to seeing you in August for another exciting year. For those who will not be returning, we thank you for sharing this year with us. You will be missed very much, and we wish you the very best in the days and years ahead. Please come back to visit us! Our door is always open. Our Spring Program, which culminates the school year, is scheduled for Tuesday, May 28th at 7:00 PM in the Temple Adath Israel Social Hall.

Temple Adath Israel is currently enrolling students for the 2002-2003 school year. For more information, please call Sandy Adland at 269-2979 or 271-3568.

SOCIAL ACTION MITZVAH OF THE MONTH FOR MAY

The Social Action Committee continues its 'Mitzvah of the Month' program with a contribution of $54 from the Tzedakah/Social Action Fund. TAI members are encouraged to give either to the organization directly or to the Tzedakah/Social Action Fund to help keep this program going. This month our contribution is a donation to Goodwill Industries, which has been used to help the Waweru family from Kenya through a difficult time.

Cyrus Waweru, his wife, and their five children are from Nairobi, Kenya. Two of the daughters, Maureen and Carolyn, came to Kentucky on student visas three years ago to attend Kentucky State University. Maureen suffered severe head trauma and hip damage as a passenger in an automobile accident in early August 2001, and was a patient at Cardinal Hill Hospital for an extended period of time. Her father, a manager at the Acesafe Forex Bureau in Nairobi, took a leave of absence to evaluate her condition and realized her chances for recovery were greater in Lexington. He decided to seek housing and employment in order to move his family from Kenya to Lexington so his 21-year-old daughter, Maureen could continue therapy. With the assistance of others, Mr. Waweru has obtained temporary housing and furnishings. Mr. Waweru thanks you for providing him and his family with gift certificates from Goodwill.

The mission of Goodwill Industries of Kentucky, Inc. is to help people with disabilities and other disadvantages achieve and maintain employment to gain a better quality of life. Organized in 1923, Goodwill Industries of Kentucky is a private, not-for-profit, 501(c)(3) organization governed by a Board of Directors. Goodwill provides individuals with disabilities and people who are disadvantaged an opportunity to improve their quality of life through employment and job training services. With 39 donated goods and employment centers within 20 miles of 80% of all Kentuckians, Goodwill is the most widespread employer of people with disabilities and disadvantages in the Commonwealth. In 2001, Goodwill Industries of Kentucky paid more than $4.23 million in wages to people with disabilities. Goodwill's services focus on reducing or eliminating barriers to employment and self-sufficiency and are conducted in the community and at the work-site. Services may incorporate independent living skills training, financial skills training; career development; work skills training; literacy and math tutoring; and placement and retention into gainful employment.

Cash donations to Goodwill may be sent to the Bluegrass Division Office at 275 Gold Rush Road, Lexington, KY 40503. Goodwill welcomes donations of gently used clothing, accessories, wares, and household items at any of the center locations. Call 1-800-889-8775 for donation centers near you. Donations of driveable vehicles can be made at the Division Office.

FROM THE YOUTH EDUCATION DIRECTOR – Marsha Rose

As the saying goes, "Time Flies When You're Having Fun". How true this statement is. I cannot believe that four years have passed since I began as the Youth Education Director (besides a few years ago when I previously was honored with this position).

I would like to thank the many, many, many people for all of their assistance, dedication, and support throughout the years. Teachers have worked hard to provide your children with a quality Jewish education. Rabbi Adland and John McDonald have constantly been very helpful. Linda Ravvin and Starr Gantz have been delightful to work with. Parents were always willing to become active participants. Thank you! Thank you!

Please continue to stay involved. Your child truly benefits when you continue to make Religious School a priority.

FROM THE RELIGIOUS SCHOOL CLASSES

FIFTH GRADE/SECOND YEAR HEBREW

Stephanie Barrett, Teacher

This year's fifth grade class, a particularly cohesive group of students, nears the end of second-year Hebrew. Our text books have presented us with a familiar Shabbat prayer and basic vocabulary in each chapter. We have enjoyed some additional, free-style practice analyzing Hebrew words. These bright, enthusiastic students grow ever more adept at spotting key root-words within larger words. They dissect prefixes and suffixes from these recurring roots in the individual prayers we study. They are on their way to pretty sophisticated functionality in Hebrew!

I enjoy our lessons so much that I hate to see the year drawing to a close.

אזנם תלמידים נחמדים וחכמים!

ISRAELI DANCE - Stephanie Barrett, Teacher

In one arena, Israelis and Palestinians – not to mention the other surrounding Arabs – don't see eye-to-eye. The problem has persisted for generations even to this day.

In another arena, Israel's annual folk dance festival showcases the newest works by talented choreographers and composers. An Israeli bumper sticker reads "Folk Dancing: The National Sport of Ha-Aretz!" It's a widely loved, popular past time.

I recently choreographed a dance to "נוֹלָדָתִי לְשָׁלוֹם" "I Was Born for Peace", an upbeat trilingual song. As you notice by the title, the song's central theme is Peace.

Each Religious School class dances this with me when we meet, translating our prayer for peace into movement. The song's Hebrew, English and Arabic verses seamlessly weave together a model of what could be. I thank all the Religious School students from the shy, but joy-filled 4-year-olds to the more sophisticated and spirited 5th graders for spreading this prayer a little further with me each time we dance.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL MISSION STATEMENT

Adath Israel Congregation is a Reform Congregation, affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations (UAHC). This congregation is established to maintain a Temple of facilities for communal worship in the tradition of Reform Judaism, to provide a religious school for the instruction of children, and to engage in other activities to promote the fundamental principles of Judaism.

PLEASE LET US KNOW!!!

As a result of patient confidentiality, some area hospitals will not release to us the names of Jewish patients when our Temple office calls. Therefore, Rabbi Adland and the Temple are relying on you to let us know when someone is in the hospital. Please call us when you know about someone going into the hospital. Your help in this matter is invaluable.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

JUNE/JULY 2002

VOL. 69 NO. 9

SIVAN-AV 5762

Let me first begin by thanking all the people who helped make Rachel's Bat Mitzvah celebration a memorable event for the entire Adland family. So many people pitching in to lend a hand underscored the concept of community. I am so proud of everything that Rachel has done in her life and who she is as a person and a Jew.

It is hard to believe that my two children have come of age as Jewish adults, read from the Torah and Haftarah, and led Shabbat services. Now, as I wind down from the Bat Mitzvah high that I am on I want to change from one child to the other.

At the end of April, my son Joshua was elected as the new president of NFTY-OV (North American Federation of Temple Youth-Ohio Valley region.) Josh is not the first president of NFTY-OV from this congregation, but adds his name to a wonderful growing list of leaders from Temple Adath Israel. Josh has seen the larger Jewish community beyond the borders of the Bluegrass. Through NFTY-OV Joshua has sought to be a part of this wider Jewish world as a participant and now as a leader.

In her article this month, Toni Reiss, our wonderful program coordinator, discusses youth group at Temple Adath Israel. What I want is for you also to realize that there is youth group beyond Temple Adath Israel. In recent years our participation in NFTY-OV has waned. Though I am not exactly sure why this has happened I believe that most of it comes down to priority and commitment of parents and youth.

Our youth today are very busy. When the choice is between an extra-curricular activity and going out of town to a NFTY-OV event, youth group is usually found on the short end of the stick. Despite what you might hear about these conclaves, the NFTY-OV events are well organized, focused, chaperoned, and filled with positive values and role models. It is about Jewish singing, praying, studying, and socializing with other Jewish youth. It is about our Jewish future.

Just one year, I would like to see a number of our children say yes to NFTY and say yes to building and creating a Jewish future. Participation in NFTY-OV is a challenge Josh will have to face over the next year. I know that he is up to it, but we can make that challenge easier by seeing to it that our children are in attendance. It helps to insure a Jewish future.

Rabbi Jon Adland

THE PRESIDENT'S LINE

Shalom,

"Summertime...and the living is easy." This may be, but not at Temple

Adath Israel and surely not for this president. Come join us for our awesome services in the courtyard, and inspirational Havdalah service and picnic at the home of Janice Kuperstein and Kay Israel, or a fun night at the ballpark. Please read the bulletin for all the special services and events that have been planned. I hope you all enjoy the lazy days of summer.

We celebrated Confirmation, as a Temple community on May 16. What a special evening that was! Congratulations to Zachary Brown, Jordan Corwin, Sam Frankel, Jackie Glasser, Jason Heymann, Rachel Leep, Zachary Moscow, and Andrea Waldman. I am proud of all of you. Although you have completed your formal educational journey in Judaism, I know you will still be actively involved at Temple. I invite this congregation to support our youth and to be part of this celebration next year.

Marsha Rose has resigned the position as youth education director. I would like to thank Marsha for her years of service to our youth. You did a splendid job and we will certainly miss you. We will miss your warm smile, vivacious personality, and positive energy.

I can hardly wait for the upcoming religious school year to start. I would like to welcome Jane Gris  as our new youth education director. Jane already has many exciting, innovative, and soul searching plans formulated. Jane will make "things" happen. A new curriculum designed by UAHC will be implemented in grade two. This curriculum will also be implemented in all other grades when published. I am looking forward to working with Jane in the future.

Have you noticed our magnificent new bookcase? Thank you to Ken and Alberta Gerson and Larry & Ida Gerson for their generous donation.

From the Covenant of the Heart

*O God of all people,
You have planted within our hearts the seeds of love and peace.*

*You have given us hands with which to help one another.
On our shoulders You have placed mantles of responsibility, and You bestowed upon us intellects that raise us above all other creatures.*

May we, with wise decisions, carry out our responsibilities with understanding and justice.

May we clasp each other with love; and may we find peace among ourselves, and within ourselves as we celebrate this day and every day.

Judy

Rachel Plavin's Bat Mitzvah

When the thirteenth birthday of a child in our congregation approaches, the family is usually in the midst of the hectic preparations for a Bar or Bat Mitzvah. As the thirteenth birthday of our daughter, Rachel Plavin, approaches, we find ourselves in a situation more unique to our family. We celebrated the occasion of our daughter Alison's Bat Mitzvah and keenly felt the significance of the event. Being called to the Torah and making note of the transition to personal responsibility for a Jewish life in front of family and friends was a moving and meaningful event. So in contemplating a Bat Mitzvah for Rachel, we had to give serious thought to the meaning of the event for Rachel. We sincerely thank Rabbi Adland, Chas Hite, Debbie Masters, and Holly Pessin Barnhill who approached us about a Bat Mitzvah for Rachel and offered their support in whatever we chose to do.

Rachel was born with Tuberous Sclerosis and its numerous debilitating features. Seizures, hemiparesis and severe developmental delays and learning disabilities are everyday challenges to Rachel's life. To study for a traditional Bat Mitzvah was out of the question. What other options were there and what would be the meaning of pursuing any of them? What would Rachel know of the significance of the event? What would it mean for her to be a daughter of the commandments?

Rachel is not able to learn and recite the commandments. She does not know that religions exist in the world. But Rachel does know what it means to practice a spiritual life. She does not know this from study of Torah and other philosophies. Rachel knows this because the spirit of God lives within her in the purest form. Rachel lives in the moment. She gives freely of her love and affection. Rachel shares whatever she has with others without a thought of whether or not there will be enough for her. She may become angry, but never for very long and always with total forgiveness for those who have angered her. She does not judge people by how they look or the position they may hold. Only a loving heart carries any weight with her. Rachel does not spend time comparing her life to others or wanting what she does not have. She is accepting of the life that she has, despite the numerous obstacles that are in her way. It is easy to say that this is because she cannot understand that life is different for others. We are not sure that is so. And even if that is the truth, it does not diminish the fact that Rachel lives her life in accordance to the greatest teachings of the greatest teachers: To love and forgive and to treat others as you would have them treat you.

So Rachel has accepted the teachings that we hope each Bar or Bat Mitzvah will accept. She has become a daughter of the commandments with little fanfare and through the grace of God. In honor of Rachel's Bat Mitzvah, we ask that you participate in a Mitzvah project. We have enclosed an envelope addressed to the National Tuberous Sclerosis Alliance in this month's Temple bulletin. Please open your hearts and your wallets and make a donation in honor of Rachel's Bat Mitzvah. A gift of $18, the traditional chai to celebrate life, would be especially meaningful. The monies you send will be spent on research into the prevention of Tuberous Sclerosis and on ways to assist the families whose lives have been greatly affected by it. Thank you very much.

A Special Thank You to the Gerson Family

The beautiful new bookcase at the rear entrance of the sanctuary was donated by the Gerson family. It was made by the Barber Cabinet Company. The Temple is most appreciative of Ken & Alberta Gerson and Larry & Ida Gerson for their generosity.

Thank You from Koleinu

On behalf of the members of Koleinu (Adult Choir), we want to thank Deborah Isenstadt and Deborah Sogin for all their hard work and excellent direction in getting us to where we are today. It is so gratifying to hear Temple members come up to us and thank us for what we are adding to the service with our singing. Without these two very musically talented ladies we would not be able to have accomplished all that we have these past few years. Also, we would be remiss to leave out David Sogin for all his talent and playing the viola so beautifully with us during many of the services.

We want to add a special thank you to Deborah Isenstadt for purchasing music books for us to use. Unfortunately, she is leaving us and moving with her family. When we use the books we will think of her and her generosity to TAI (both in time and cost for donating the books). Good luck to you, Deborah, and your family on this upcoming move.

Also, we are always looking for more people to join. Speak with either Deborah about joining the group. Speaking personally, it adds a very spiritual meaning to the service to be able to sing to and with the congregation.

Shalom,
Elayne Cryatal

SOCIAL ACTION NEWS

The Social Action Committee would like to thank all who participated (donors and buyers) in the "Books & Bagels" used book sale. We raised over $800 which will be used for social action programming. Thanks to those who enthusiastically helped sort, set up, and sell books. Linda Noffsinger, Swanson-Schoenberg family, Graff family, Rose Rita Wurmser, Robin Tremblay, Austin & Susan Cantor, Paul Kaplan, Lisa Taulbee, Diamond-McKee family, Ray Archer, Colby Cohen-Archer, Bruce Engel, Ilyse Lonsbury, Donna Farrar, and John McDonald. This was truly a "fun fundraiser" and we look forward to seeing your books back again next year!

OTHER NEWS

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL AVON FUND RAISER

The Religious School Avon Fund Raiser did quite well for the short period of time that we had to work with.

The Religious School raised $3011.45. The class pizza party was won by the 1st Grade, Mrs. Mersack's class. The $50 savings bond was won by Marshall Roorda and the gift basket was won by Barbara Straus.

We sold over 115 bottles of Bug Guard plus there were about 20 orders from the other page flyer.

We wish to thank all of you who ordered products and supported the TAI Religious School. We hope to extend and enlarge this fund raiser next year with different products in the offering.

A special thank you to Linda Ravvin, who ordered 20 bottles of Bug Guard to donate to Camp Young Judaea-Midwest. Linda's order gave a $62.50 profit to the Religious School.

Thanks also to Samye Miller who ordered 5 bottles of the Bug Guard and donated it to Camp Shalom

IMPROVED KROGER SCRIP PROGRAM

Beginning in June, Kroger will change their certificate program to the Kroger gift card. Now you will be able to support the Temple by buying one card, one time instead of purchasing paper certificates on a weekly or monthly basis. The cards can be recharged at any Kroger register in any amount up to $500.00, and the Temple will still receive 5% of any amount recharged. Perhaps best of all, when recharging your card you can pay with cash, check or credit card. So now you can support the Temple and still earn those points or miles!

The Temple will have a supply of cards in various denominations to begin this new program. Please contact the Temple office at 269-2979 and make arrangements to purchase your gift card. They will be available in the office or we will even deliver them to you.

During the past year, the Temple raised almost $4500.00 through the sale of Kroger and Meijer scrip, and less than 50 families regularly participated. Imagine the total that we could achieve if we could get even half of the congregation involved in this program! Call us today and help support Temple Adath Israel.

YOM KIPPUR MEMORIAL BOOK

It is a tradition of long standing to honor the memory of departed ones and friends with special acts of kindness and Tzedakah during the High Holy Days. One opportunity for an act of remembrance is offered through the Memorial Book, which is passed out to the congregation just prior to the Yizkor service Yom Kippur afternoon.

Names on our Temple's memorial tablets as well as the names of those who died in the past year are automatically listed in the booklet.

A $25 per family donation is required. Memorial Book funds are used throughout the year for special Temple purposes including supporting the High Holy Days choir, printing new family services for Shabbat and Holy Days, and more.

All listings under a personal heading (i.e. "Remembered by...") will appear only by request. Detach this form and send it to the Temple office along with your contribution made payable to Temple Adath Israel Memorial Fund. Requests must be received no later than Monday, September 9, 2002.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

I will keep this short and sweet since this is quite new to me...I would like to thank Sisterhood for offering me the opportunity and chance to serve as president. I look forward to the challenges and commitment this office holds. The installation dinner was beautiful and inspiring. Thank you Kaye for a lovely evening. I want to congratulate and welcome the new executive and board and committee chairs. We have some awesome shoes to fill and a tough act to follow. Thank you to the past board for a great year! I hope the new regime will bring lots of new friendships and fresh ideas for the coming year. Sisterhood is so important in so many ways. We are so important to our Temple congregation, our local community, and most of all, to each other.

I encourage all women of Temple Adath Israel to take this opportunity and join Sisterhood. You can make a difference! Every one of you can offer a new prospective and idea for the community, Temple involvement, women's issues, or just on a social level. We hope to provide everyone with a little something that may interest you!!!

Thank you again...have a wonderful summer...can't wait to see you all in the fall and start fresh.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL MISSION STATEMENT

Adath Israel Congregation is a Reform Congregation, affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations (UAHC). This congregation is established to maintain a Temple of facilities for communal worship in the tradition of Reform Judaism, to provide a religious school for the instruction of children, and to engage in other activities to promote the fundamental principles of Judaism.

PLEASE LET US KNOW!!!

As a result of patient confidentiality, some area hospitals will not release to us the names of Jewish patients when our Temple office calls. Therefore, Rabbi Adland and the Temple are relying on you to let us know when someone is in the hospital. Please call us when you know about someone going into the hospital. Your help in this matter is invaluable.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

AUGUST 2002

VOL. 70 NO. 1

AV-ELUL 5762

Reading the letters to the editor this morning indicated to me that evidently I missed quite an event on July 2nd, at Applebees Park. The minister of the Clay's Mill Road Baptist Church took this opportunity of a so-called "Patriotic Event" to say that if you aren't a Christian you aren't really an American and that if you aren't like us then we don't want you here. It seems that this refrain of the United States is a Christian nation continues to become ever more prevalent with each passing year. With the ruling by the 9th District Court concerning the pledge of allegiance, I suspect that we will hear this song sung more often. Without God in our pledge or God in our schools or God posted on every public building, the United States is doomed.

I am not sure why people can't accept diversity of religious beliefs, social beliefs, political beliefs, etc. I know that part of it is that great word we read from our High Holy Day mahzor, prayerbook, xenophobia. According to the dictionary, a xenophobe is a person unduly fearful or contemptuous of strangers or foreigners, especially as reflected in his political or cultural views. As Jews, we have been on the recipient end of xenophobia for centuries and it has cost our people dearly. We should not ever be silent when others threaten our right to exist, live, move about, or whatever within any community or country where we live.

Not only that, but our commitment to social justice for all people should be a model of our congregation's life. We should do everything within our power to see that we encourage diversity in our community for all people regardless of gender, sexual preference, race, or religion. Anytime an opportunity comes to us to be active or vigilant for others we should avail ourselves. There is a movie titled "Trembling Before God" that depicts the reality of life for homosexual Orthodox Jews. The movie has received incredibly positive reviews. We are trying to bring this movie to Lexington so not only we, as Jews, will be accepting and tolerant of homosexual Jews, but so we can get the word out that being homosexual does not diminish one's spiritual, moral or ethical persona. To show this movie in a conservative community like Lexington would be a bold move. At the same time it would show that this congregation continues to be on the forefront of social justice for all people.

Why people like the minister mentioned above can think that their narrow-minded views will go unchallenged and without criticism is beyond me. What makes us all better people is the ability to tolerate all people of all beliefs and all ways of life. We must do whatever we can to promote this attitude and if we do then there will be "liberty and justice for all."

Rabbi for Adath

THE PRESIDENT'S LINE

Shalom,

It's August. I hope you are having a relaxing, happy, and peaceful summer. This is the magical time of year when we reenergize and reinvigorate our mind, body, and spiritual soul. This is also the time of the year we put the finishing touches on old business and make plans for the coming year.

We are now in the midst of putting Temple committees together. If you have not yet responded please do so. Temple really needs your support and involvement.

I want to thank Koleinu, our adult volunteer choir, for all they have done for this congregation. I admire and appreciate each and everyone of you. Your music, dedication, and your spirit has touched my soul. Koleinu has given us their time, their energy, and their spirituality in song. Now it is time for us to give to them. They are in need of a digital piano. I encourage, actually I'm begging you to pull out those checkbooks and make a donation to this cause. I know I am.

August 25th is the opening day of religious school to be followed by the Brotherhood picnic. I hope to see y'll at the picnic (having a child or children in the religious school is not a requirement for attendance).

Music and lyrics from Debbie Friedman

*Nasim shalom to-va-u-v'ra-cha
Chien va-che-sed v'ra-cha-min*

Let the light of your presence
Be the light of our lives
Grant us happiness, mercy and peace
May the peace of Israel join hands with the world
And our passion for justice increase.

Let the light of Your Torah
Be the light of our dreams
Grant us goodness, grant us blessings and love
May our yearning for peace be a blessing for the world
As the olive branch soars with the dove.

Judy

YOM KIPPUR MEMORIAL BOOK

It is a tradition of long standing to honor the memory of departed ones and friends with special acts of kindness and Tzedakah during the High Holy Days. One opportunity for an act of remembrance is offered through the Memorial Book, which is passed out to the congregation just prior to the Yizkor service Yom Kippur afternoon.

Names on our Temple's memorial tablets as well as the names of those who died in the past year are automatically listed in the booklet.

A $25 per family donation is required. Memorial Book funds are used throughout the year for special Temple purposes including supporting the High Holy Days choir, printing new family services for Shabbat and Holy Days, and more.

All listings under a personal heading (i.e. "Remembered by...") will appear only by request. Detach this form and send it to the Temple office along with your contribution made payable to Temple Adath Israel Memorial Fund. Requests must be received no later than Monday, September 9, 2002.

HELP NEEDED FOR BREAK-THE-FAST

Because a large number of people attend Break-the-Fast, Sisterhood needs several volunteers to help with this event. In particular, we'll be making kugel on Saturday morning, September 14, and doing last-minute preparations on Erev Yom Kippur on September 15 and 16.

If you can help, please call Mary Engel at 252-3734 for specifics. If you plan to attend Break-the-Fast, please bring a salad, vegetable, gelatin mold or dairy (non-meat) dish for 6 people to the Temple kitchen. It is best to bring it in the afternoon when you attend services because storage space is limited.

We want to have ample seating for Break-the-Fast so please RSVP to the Temple office at 269-2979.

The goal of this course is to bring the non-Hebrew reader into the world of the Hebrew reader. At the end of this course, a graduate will be able to follow the Hebrew readings at services and, with a little practice, begin reading with the congregation.

Class dates are:

September 23, 30;
October 14, 21, 28;
November 4, 11, 18, 25;
December 2, 9, 16

BASIC JUDAISM

FROM THE YOUTH EDUCATION DIRECTOR – Jane Gris 

Greetings from TAI Religious School. We have been very busy this summer getting ready for the opening day of Religious School on August 25. In order to better communicate with parents, I have written a Parent Handbook that will be distributed to each family on August 25th. This Handbook contains a description of the curriculum for each grade level from Temple Tots through Senior Chai and an introduction to all of our teachers. As I was writing the teacher section, I was extremely impressed with the high quality of our teachers, their extensive background in education, and their involvement with our Jewish community. We have a wonderful Religious School faculty who are fine role models for our children. Our returning teachers and our many new teachers are busy meeting and planning for the upcoming year.

The Handbook also outlines all of our school policies such as attendance, behavior, school trips, and school cancellation. The Handbook concludes with a school calendar for the year. This should serve as a handy reference guide to school programs and activities throughout the year.

At the beginning of August, I will have the opportunity to attend the CAJE Conference in San Antonio, Texas. CAJE is the Coalition for the Advancement of Jewish Education. CAJE sponsors a yearly conference where educators from around the country come together to learn about Jewish education. I will be attending a special session for principals for three days and then will be participating in the curriculum sessions for another four days. This is an incredible opportunity to bring back exciting programming for our school. Thanks to the Mersack Fund for making this educational opportunity possible. In September, I will give you a full report on the Conference. I hope everyone enjoys the rest of their summer.

CD PLAYERS NEEDED

Technology moves on and we are being left behind. We have tape recorders but do not have any CD players. If anyone has a CD player that could be donated to the Temple Religious School, please drop it off at the Temple office. We would appreciate it very much. We could use several so more classes will have access at the same time.

FROM THE PROGRAM COORDINATOR

Toni Reiss - E-mail TAIToni@aol.com

The expression is "to assume makes an 'ass' out of 'u' and 'me'".

So I will not presume to assume. I am going to write about Temple Adath Israel's youth group programs. I may write about things that you know and currently practice, in which case think of this as a review, support for your actions and a thank you note. If I write of new ideas and information, think of this as an invitation to broaden your participation by adding your ideas and your presence to a vital part of our congregation's life.

Often when we speak of TAI's youth groups we talk in code. For instance, we often assume that you know that FAFTY is the youth group for Fourth And Fifth grade Temple Youth. FAFTY requires no membership dues. The parents of our students organize educational, recreational, and social action programs for the children during the course of the year. Flyers are mailed home to each student prior to each event with the necessary information. ALL students are encouraged to attend.

MSTYG, you may have guessed by now, is the Middle School Temple Youth Group. Again, no dues are required and all are invited. The children and their parents work together to plan events that will interest this age group. The seventh and eighth grade students have the opportunity to participate in a regional youth group conclave each year. This conclave, sponsored by NFTY, North American Federation of Temple Youth, brings together youth groups from the mid west region for a weekend of varied programs. Our high school youth group, TRYB, Temple Reform Youth of the Bluegrass, runs differently than the younger youth groups. This group elects officers to run various aspects of their programming and governing and collects dues. A portion ($18 per member) of TRYB's dues goes to NFTY. In addition to recreational and social action programs and participation in regional and national youth group events, each year TRYB runs the Temple's Purim carnival, holds a fundraising event through the sale of Passover chocolates, and leads two worship services. Though governed by the elected officers, TRYB relies on parental assistance, guidance and support.

This ends the factual portion of my presentation. Let's move along now to the philosophical portion: Why should children participate in Jewish youth groups? Do you know the answer?

Perhaps the answer is that we live in a town with a small Jewish population and our children are always in the minority. It can be exciting to contribute to the diversity of a community, school or team. Sometimes, however, it takes the support of people who have similar values and practices to sharpen and strengthen our own identities. Youth group programs give our children the opportunity to experience being part of a group without feeling different and separate.

Or maybe it is a bit more complicated. As parents, we strive to imbue our children with values that are inherent in our Judaism: practicing loving kindness, giving tzedakah, learning to put the practices of Torah into everyday life. The programs of our youth group provide an opportunity to participate in activities based upon these values. Children need to learn through experience, not just classroom teachings. And children often learn best from each other. So a Jewish youth group affords our children the time and space to play and act "Jewishly" together.

Perhaps we are drawn to support youth groups for a more selfish or self-centered reason. Perhaps we see that youth groups are one of the most vital ways to keep our children connected to their Jewish identity, culture and community. We may be self serving and using our children's participation in youth groups as a way to assure ourselves that Judaism will continue when we are gone because we have passed our connection to Judaism to our children. The death of six million Jews during the Holocaust greatly affected the numbers of Jews alive today. Maybe the participation in Jewish youth groups and it's contributing strengthening of Jewish identity in our children is our way of honoring those who died and making their memories a blessing.

These are my ruminations about the importance of Jewish youth groups. You may have ideas of your own, equally important, that I have over looked. Either way, I invite you to consider what I have written and plan to spend some time supporting your child's participation in the youth group for his or her age group.

BACK PACK GIVEAWAY NIGHT AT APPLEBEE'S PARK.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

SEPTEMBER 2002

VOL. 70 NO. 2

ELUL 5762-TISHRI 5763

First of all, I am so pleased to announce that we have secured a date and place to show the acclaimed film "Trembling Before God." The date is November 7 and the place is the Lexington Public Library. More information will follow about this film and how to get tickets, but please reserve Nov. 7th, to come and view this incredibly powerful movie about being gay and a member of the Orthodox Jewish community.

In a few days we will begin the observance of our High Holy Days. Yes, they will begin in early September. Yes, that seems early, but if you remember we celebrated Passover last spring on March 27th. Yes, we will begin Hanukah the Friday night of Thanksgiving weekend. I don't need to dwell on how the Jewish calendar works, so suffice it to say that the Jewish calendar is 354 days long. As needed (7 times every 19 years) an extra month is added so that the holidays can stay in their appropriate seasons. This spring we will have such a leap month and Passover will begin on the evening of April 16th.

The Holy Days are much more than just a moment on the Jewish calendar. They are an important moment for us as Jews and as human beings to confront this past year and consider what we need to do in the coming year. The liturgy in the different services is designed to bring out of us different emotions. It asks us different questions, urging us to contemplate different actions, as well as reflecting on who we are and what we can be. Taken together, the services are seen as part of a larger whole. Certainly an individual can come to just one service, but by attending the whole gamut of services, the full impact of the Holy Days is realized.

This year the High Holy Days encompass 9/11. I know that this day will produce its own emotional responses for every one of us. We will be asking ourselves about where we were that morning and that week, and we will be trying to remember how we responded to this tragedy. Some of us lost personal friends or knew others who did. Some of us were just bystanders watching the reality of this event just unfurl before us. We were all touched in some way. The words and prayers of the High Holy Days can help us heal or just contemplate this last roller coaster of a year.

When we hear the sound of the shofar, may the sound awaken within us the will to struggle against evil in all its forms. May the notes ascend to the very top of heaven and awaken God to our need for his strength in these difficult times. May we together as a community recognize through community, prayer, tzedakah, family, kindness, compassion, and love are the strengths needed to build a better world.

THE PRESIDENT'S LINE

The start of another exciting, rewarding, and productive year for Temple Adath Israel is approaching.

There may be challenges and obstacles ahead to overcome, but I have faith that all is possible if we all come together and work as a caring Temple community. This should be a wonderful year.

These are troubled times. Anti-semitism and world terrorism does exist. We must make our Temple and Temple community strong and vibrant. This needs to be the very core and fiber of our existence.

As I have said repeatedly, Mitzvot matters and Tzedakah counts. We are as a congregation amazingly talented, gifted, creative, and hard working. Please share your hearts and souls with us. We desperately need volunteers. Come join in. If you cannot commit to a committee, then commit to a one-time mitzvah such as cooking for Break-the-Fast, setting up the sukkah, working with the religious school, helping out with the youth groups, or even doing a workshop. All this just because you care. Please make the commitment. Where would we be without you?

From the Covenant of the Heart

The future is ours to create-
What a terrifying thought!
Who are we to be entrusted

With such a mission,
Such a challenge,
Such a responsibility?

How do we know what to do?
Where do we start?

We call upon our heritage-
Rich and embracing
Filled with love and support
Never defeating, always reassuring it strengthens us in mind, body, and soul.
Foremost in our thoughts-
Not to disappoint those who came before us,
Those who sanctioned us with the precept to do what is right
to help those in need to be sensitive to the feelings of others to refrain from hurting anyone.

MITZVAH PROJECT

My name is Katie-Rose Taulbee. My Bat Mitzvah is this September. For my mitzvah project, I helped out at the James Lane Allen Elementary Summer School.

I am collecting school supplies for their Family Resource Center. When you are shopping for school supplies, this fall, it would be great if you could pick up some extra supplies for the kids at this school.

I would appreciate it and so would they. There will be a collection box in the lobby. Thank you.

HELP NEEDED FOR BREAK-THE-FAST

Because a large number of people attend Break-the-Fast, Sisterhood needs several volunteers to help with this event. In particular, we'll be making kugel on Saturday morning, September 14, and doing last-minute preparations on Erev Yom Kippur on September 15 and 16.

If you can help, please call Mary Engel at 252-3734 for specifics. If you plan to attend Break-the-Fast, please bring a salad, vegetable, gelatin mold or dairy (non-meat) dish for 6 people to the Temple kitchen. It is best to bring it in the afternoon when you attend services because storage space is limited.

We want to have ample seating for Break-the-Fast so please RSVP to the Temple office at 269-2979.

High Holy Days Food Drive

As the Holy Days approach, remember there will be hungry people in Lexington this winter. We can easily help by taking an empty food bag when you attend Erev Rosh HaShanah or Rosh HaShanah services at TAI. Take the bag home and bring it back to the Temple filled with canned goods and other non-perishable foods. All collected food will be given to God's pantry, an emergency food bank that provides food for hungry people in Fayette and nearby counties.

We have been doing this for several years and have collected more each year (between 2,000 & 3,000 lbs). Please give generously again this year.

Lunch and Learn to unroll texts of the Five Megillot (scrolls)

The Wednesday "Lunch and Learn" study session will study the Five Megillot during this coming year. Most of us are familiar with the scroll of Esther (Megillat Esther) that is read at Purim. Did you know that there are four other Biblical books called scrolls? These are Ecclesiastes, Lamentations, Songs of Songs, and Ruth. According to tradition, each of these Biblical books is read at a particular holiday. Ecclesiastes is read at Sukkot. Lamentations is read at Tisha B'Av. Song of Songs is read at Pesach. Ruth is read at Shavuot.

The Wednesday "Lunch and Learn" study group will read and discuss each of these books this year. Copies of the books will be available in the Temple office, but if you have a Bible, just read them there. "Lunch and Learn" begins at 12:30 PM on the following Wednesdays. Bring your lunch and come and learn. We meet in the Temple library.

October 2, 9, 23—Ecclesiastes
December 4, 11—Lamentations
February 5, 12, 26—Esther
March 12, 26—Song of Songs
May 7, 14—Ruth

CAN YOU SOUND THE SHOFAR?

פאת השדה

This is the fast I have chosen ... to share your bread with the hungry...

Isaiah 58

Although we live in an era of unprecedented abundance, 12 million American children go to school hungry, unable to concentrate and learn. Millions of elderly people live with hunger each day, uncertain of where their next meal is coming from. And millions more struggle under the crushing weight of hunger and poverty.

For the last five years, thousands of Jews have given life to the tradition of tzedakah and tikkun olam by supporting "The Corners of Our Fields," a High Holy Days appeal that seeks funds for MAZON: A Jewish Response to Hunger and food for local charities.

The appeal has raised more than $4.4 million and over six million pounds of food.

The Reform, Conservative and Reconstructionist movements and Hillel International have again joined with MAZON in "The Corners of Our Fields. And again, we ask you to join in this extraordinary act of Jewish pluralism.

As you look inward during these High Holy Days, MAZON asks that you reach outward to those in need. Please give to MAZON what you would have spent to feed yourself and your family on Yom Kippur. Your tax-deductible donation will support our grantmaking to programs that provide food, help and hope to hungry people in our country, in Israel and throughout the world.

Yes, I/we will leave "The Corners of Our Fields" for the poor and the stranger during the High Holy Days by giving money to MAZON: A Jewish Response to Hunger.

It is a tradition of long standing to honor the memory of departed ones and friends with special acts of kindness and Tzedakah during the High Holy Days. One opportunity for an act of remembrance is offered through the Memorial Book, which is passed out to the congregation just prior to the Yizkor service Yom Kippur afternoon.

Names on our Temple's memorial tablets as well as the names of those who died in the past year are automatically listed in the booklet.

A $25 per family donation is required. Memorial Book funds are used throughout the year for special Temple purposes including supporting the High Holy Days choir, printing new family services for Shabbat and Holy Days, and more.

All listings under a personal heading (i.e. "Remembered by...") will appear only by request. Detach this form and send it to the Temple office along with your contribution made payable to Temple Adath Israel Memorial Fund. Requests must be received no later than Monday, September 9, 2002.

FROM THE YOUTH EDUCATION DIRECTOR – Jane Gris 

I am writing this article as I fly back from the CAJE Conference in San Antonio ("Coalition for the Advancement of Jewish Education"). This was an incredible opportunity to learn from leading Jewish educators in the United States and Israel and to share experiences with other teachers, directors, and rabbis. More than fifteen hundred Jewish educators from nine countries and 43 states attended the conference. Nearly 500 sessions dealt with every aspect of Jewish education including congregational schools, day schools, family and informal education. Sessions dealt with diverse topics from "Reaction to 9/11" to "Mitzvah Clowning."

I first attended an intensive 12-hour program for principals of religious schools. I then attended a wide variety of sessions. Etti Serok, the Director of the Frankel Center for Jewish Family Education in Jerusalem, gave a fascinating program on a new curriculum that has been developed in Israel to teach bible to families. The approach examines the 13 sections in Genesis and relates each section to important issues facing families such as sibling rivalry, hospitality, and family relationships.

Danny Siegel, an author known for his work in tzedakah, gave practical workshops on empowering our children to become involved in improving our world. Danny writes about mitzvah heroes around the world and encourages us to emulate their actions. Seymour Rossel, a rabbi and the author of many books that we use in our religious school, gave a six hour sessions titled "Being Alive in the Classroom-Secrets of the Master teachers. I also had the opportunity to attend sessions on art, music, Yiddish, teen issues, nature study, family education, and outreach.

Several themes emerged from this conference. First, the education of our children is critical to the survival of Judaism. Our children must be educated so that they will become active members of our Jewish community. It is clear that this will only happen if our students are active participants in this process. Second, we must continuously build community in our classrooms and school so that our children will want to be members of our community. Third, family education is a wonderful way to educate our children and build community in our school and our congregation.

As we begin our New Year, I wish everyone L'Shana Tova. May this year be a year in which we all continue to learn and deepen our understanding and commitment to learning, prayer, and deeds of loving-kindness.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL MISSION STATEMENT

Adath Israel Congregation is a Reform Congregation, affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations (UAHC). This congregation is established to maintain a Temple of facilities for communal worship in the tradition of Reform Judaism, to provide a religious school for the instruction of children, and to engage in other activities to promote the fundamental principles of Judaism.

PLEASE LET US KNOW!!!

As a result of patient confidentiality, some area hospitals will not release to us the names of Jewish patients when our Temple office calls. Therefore, Rabbi Adland and the Temple are relying on you to let us know when someone is in the hospital. Please call us when you know about someone going into the hospital. Your help in this matter is invaluable.

WELCOMING Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur: Two Services for the Home

Yom Kippur

(Because Yom Kippur is a fast day, the Erev Yom Kippur meal must technically be eaten before Yom Kippur and its fast begin. The candles are therefore lit after the meal to mark the formal beginning of Yom Kippur and the beginning of the fast. Kiddush is also not said at this meal because kiddush can only be said after the lighting of the candles. Once the candles are lit, however, the fast has begun and so the wine for kiddush and hence the kiddush are not appropriate.)

MOTZI Before the Meal

According to Maimonides (of the twelfth century), "Free will is given to every human being. If we wish to incline ourselves towards goodness and righteousness, we are free to do so; and if we wish to incline ourselves towards evil, we are also free to do that. By our own faculty of intelligence and understanding we can distinguish between good and evil, doing as we choose. The power for this choice between good and evil is altogether in our hands."

As we approach Yom Kippur we pray for the power to make worthy choices all through this year. May our hands do good. May our hands always lead us towards blessing.

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו, מלך העולם, המוציא לחם מן
הארץ.

Ba-ruch a-ta, A-do-nai E-lo-hei-nu me-lech ha-olam, ha-motzi lechem min ha-aretz.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who brings forth bread from the earth.

LIGHTING OF HOLIDAY (AND SABBATH) LIGHTS After the Meal

The holiest day of the year is about to begin. Let us use it well. May it be for each one of us a day of renewal. May it help us overcome what is evil in us and strengthen what is good. May it bring us closer to our real selves and make us more loyal to our people and our traditions.

Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur are the great festivals of the Jewish year. They draw us to the synagogue with their promise of repentance and new beginnings, although each festival also offers opportunities to bring something precious into our homes. The meals that precede services can themselves also become special, and it is in that spirit that this pamphlet is offered to you and your family. The blessings and readings enclosed (Hebrew and/or English) are yours to use as you wish in welcoming the New Year. Shana Tova!

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו, מלך העולם, אשר קדשנו
במצותיו וצונו להדליק נר של (שבת ושל) יום
הכפורים.

Ba-ruch a-ta, A-do-nai, E-lo-hei-nu melech ha-o-lam asher ki-de-shanu be-mitsvo-tav vi-tsi-vanu le-had-lik ner shel (Shabbat ve-shel) Yom ha-kippurim.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who has made us holy with commandments and commanded us to kindle the lights of (Shabbat and) Yom Kippur.

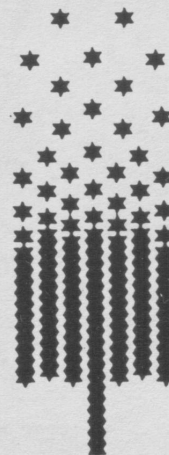

SHE-HE-CHE-YA-NU

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו, מלך העולם, שהחיינו וקיימנו
והציענו לזמן הזה.

Ba-ruch a-ta, A-do-nai E-lo-hei-nu, me-lech ha-o-lam, she-he-che-ya-nu ve-ki-ye-ma-nu ve-hi-gi-a-nu laz-man ha-zeh.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who has kept us alive, sustained us, and enabled us to reach this moment.

May each of us be sealed in the Book of Life for a good year!

A final note: Tzedakah is always part of Jewish life. As it is traditional to give tzedakah at times of joy such as births and weddings, it is also Jewish custom to give tzedakah on the occasion of each of the festivals, including Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Helping promote any worthy cause may be one more way for you and your family to start out the New Year.

Rosh Hashanah

LIGHTING OF HOLIDAY (AND SABBATH) LIGHTS

(Light candles)

With the setting of this evening's sun, united with Jews in every place and every time, we will proclaim a new year of hope. May the light of God show us the paths we can follow to do good and create a world of peace. Let the fire we kindle be a warming flame that brings our family closer together and leads us into a year of health and wholeness.

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו, מלך העולם, אשר קדשנו
במצותיו ואננו להדליק נר של (שבת ושל) יום טוב.

Ba-ruch ata Ado-nai Elo-hei-nu melech ha-olam asher ki-de-sha-nu be-mits-vo tav ve-tsi-va-nu le-had-lik neir shel (Shabbat ve-shel) Yom Tov.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who has made us holy with commandments and commanded us to kindle the lights of (Shabbat and) this "Yom Tov" Festival.

BLESSING OF CHILDREN

(At this point parents may wish to bless their children. A traditional prayer follows, although any words—even a silent prayer—can suit the moment. Some parents might want to place their hands on their children's heads. Others might hold their children's hands.)

May the Lord bless you and keep you.
May the Lord look kindly upon you and be gracious to you.
May the Lord bestow all blessings upon you and give you peace.
Amen.

BLESSINGS FOR THE MEAL

(A round challah is used to symbolize the continuously unfolding cycle of life.)

In a world of famine we have been blessed with plenty. In a world of hunger we have been blessed with sustenance. May this be the year in which we share the blessing of bread with all who are in need.

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו, מלך העולם, המציא להם מן
הארץ.

Ba-ruch ata Ado-nai Elo-hei-nu melech ha-olam ha-motzi lechem min ha-aretz.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who brings forth bread from the earth.

KIDDUSH FOR ROSH HASHANAH

(Holding the cup)

We praise You, O God, and give thanks for the year that is gone:
for life, health, and strength; for home, love, and friendship. May our cup of life be filled with blessings in the year ahead. We praise You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, Creator of the fruit of the vine.

Ba-ruch a-ta, A-do-nai, E-lo-hei-nu,
me-lech ha-o-lam,
bo-rei pe-ri ha-ga-len.

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו,
מלך העולם,
בורא פרי הגפן.

(The following paragraph may be added to the Kiddush.)

Ba-ruch a-ta, A-do-nai E-lo-hei-nu, me-lech ha-o-lam, a-sheba-char ba-nu mi-kol am,
ve-ro-me-ma-nu mi-kol la-shon
ve-ki-de-sha-nu be-mits-vo-tav.

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו,
מלך העולם, אשר
בחברנו מכל עם,
ורוממנו מכל לשון,
וקדשנו במצותו.

Va-ti-ten la-nu, A-do-nai E-lo-hei-nu, be-a-ha-va et yom
(ha-sha-bat ha-zeh, ve-et yom) ha-zi-ka-ron ha-zeh, yom te-ru-a, mik-ra ko-desh, zai-cher li-tsi-at Mits-ra-yim.

ותתן לנו, יי אלהינו,
באהבה את יום
(השבת הזה, ואת יום)
הזכרון הזה, יום תרועה,
מקרא קודש, וזכר ליציאת
מצרים.

Ki va-nu va-char-ta ve-o-ta-nu ki-dash-ta mi-kol ha-a-mim, u-de-va-re-cha e-met ve-ka-yam la-ad.

כי בחרת אותנו קדשת
מכל העמים, וידברך אמת
ונקם לעד.

Ba-ruch a-ta, A-do-nai me-lech al
kol ha-a-rets, me-ka-deish
(ha-sha-bat ve-) Yis-ra-eil ve-yom ha-zi-ka-ron.

ברוך אתה, יי מלך על
כל הארץ, מקדש
(השבת ואשראל יום הזכרון).

(Before drinking the wine continue as follows.)

SHE-HE-CHE-YA-NU

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו, מלך העולם, שהחיינו וקיימנו
והגיענו לזמן הזה.

Ba-ruch a-ta, A-do-nai E-lo-hei-nu, me-lech ha-o-lam, she-he-che-ya-nu ve-ki-ye-ma-nu ve-hi-gi-a-nu laz-man ha-zeh.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who has kept us alive, sustained us, and enabled us to reach this moment.

(The wine is drunk.)

(Slices of apple are dipped in honey and before eating the following is said.)

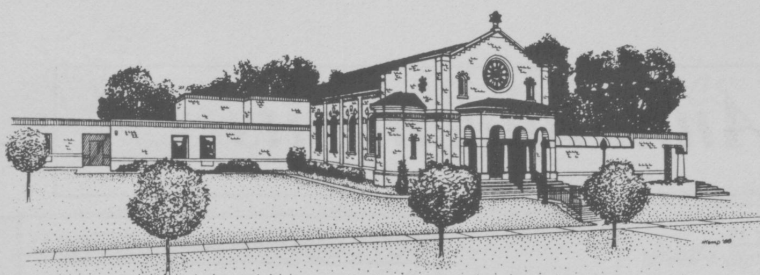

Lord our God and God of our people, may the new year be good and sweet for us.

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו, מלך העולם, בורא פרי העץ.

Ba-ruch ata Ado-nai Elo-hei-nu melech ha-olam bo-rei pri ha-etz.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the Universe, Creator of the fruit of the tree, Creator of the sweetness in life.

(After the meal Birkat Hamazon can be said. The text is available in the Temple office.)

FAITHS OF THE WORLD

On the third Tuesday evening of the month from October to June, a guest speaker will discuss a particular faith of the world. The program will start at 7:30 PM. Rabbi Jon Adland and Toni Reiss, Program Coordinator will be serving as moderators. Guest Speakers have been asked to address the following:

- Define your concept of God. How does the individual form a relationship with and communicate with God?
- How do you pray? (When, where, with whom, lead by whom, and what prayers are said)
- What are your beliefs about creation, the meaning of life and what happens after death?
- What are your teachings about how to relate to the world in general (e.g. social action, evangelizing, proselytizing, intermarriage, segregation)

FROM THE YOUTH EDUCATION DIRECTOR – Jane Grisé

Religious School is off to a wonderful start this year. On August 18th, we held a teacher in-service program where 10 teachers came together to learn and plan for the upcoming year.

We discussed innovative teaching techniques, our goals for our students, and our plans for the year. Our teachers agreed that we must build community in our classrooms and our school so that our students feel connected and positive about Judaism.

At our opening day of Religious School, 125 students registered. Registration is expected from another 12 students as well as 5 Temple Tots and 6 senior high students for the Senior Chai program. In addition, four high school students will be serving as Aides in the Religious School. With 141 students in our school, our classrooms are full and Sunday mornings are very lively at TAI.

Several special events have occurred during the month of September. First, on September 22nd, we had our first Sukkot Fair for the 4 year olds through 6th graders. Sukkot is a wonderful festival of thanksgiving where we give thanks for the abundance of the fall harvest and for the protection afforded to the Israelites while they wandered in the Sinai Desert. In our Sukkot Fair, each class had the opportunity to make decorations for the Sukkah, go into the Sukkah and learn the appropriate blessings, pretend to be wandering in the desert, and learn about the custom of the Ushpizin. Ushpizin means "guests" and during Sukkot we are encouraged to invite guests to our Sukkah. At the Fair, the 5th and 6th grades dressed up as different Jewish heroes and tried to convince the younger classes that they were the best Jewish hero. The younger classes had to decide which heroes they wanted to invite to their Sukkah.

On September 27th, our Kindergarten celebrated Consecration during the holiday of Simchat Torah. Finally, our 8th and 9th graders started working on the play Fiddler on the Roof. A parent meeting will be held on September 29th at 10 AM for all 8th and 9th grade parents so that we can coordinate responsibilities for this play. Thanks to Debbie Sogin, who will be directing the play, and Sandy Heymann who is assisting in many, many ways with the production. We look forward to a wonderful performance.

Preschool News

Sandy Adland,
Preschool Director

Fall is beginning to fill the air around preschool. This month the children will celebrate the season by exploring the changes in nature and in the way we dress, what we eat, how animals prepare for the winter, and participating in other fall-related activities.

We will mark Fire Safety and Prevention Week with a visit by the firefighters and their fire truck from Station #3.

Fall Parent/Teacher Conferences are scheduled for Thursday, October 10. Preschool is not in session that day, but childcare will be offered to parents during their conference period.

"Bagels and Blocks" is underway! If you have a child age newborn – 2 years of age, please join us every Monday morning from 9:00 AM-10:30 AM in the Temple Library for food, fun, playtime, and great conversation!

ATTENTION COLLEGE STUDENTS & PARENTS OF COLLEGE STUDENTS

The Temple College Committee would like the names and current addresses of all college students so they can be sent greetings from the Temple for all holidays. We would also like to include any Jewish students from out of town who are currently studying in Lexington.

Sisterhood News

FROM THE PRESIDENT,
MARCIA BROWN

L'shana Tova, I want to wish everyone a very happy and healthy New Year. With the start of the New Year it is time to get in gear for Sisterhood!!! I want to encourage all the women of Temple Adath Israel to join Sisterhood this year. The women of Temple Adath Israel Sisterhood are an integral part of our Temple congregation, our local community and most of all to each other. Our Temple depends on our support, in more ways than we realize. Our religious school children benefit greatly from our annual fundraiser; we sponsor Break the Fast, the Congregational Seder, the Mitzvah Crib, among many other worthwhile projects and events. And speaking of fundraising, please save November 23 on your calendar for a very entertaining and special evening, which will benefit our religious school. Also, coming up on the evening of October 16, please come and refine your etiquette, with Sisterhood & Social Graces. We welcome back our old members and extend our open arms to welcome a new community of women. WE NEED YOUR TALENTS, YOUR IDEAS... WE NEED YOU...JOIN US!!!!

WORSHIP COMMITTEE NEWS

The Worship Committee is happy to announce that $1,000 has been contributed to the piano fund, and would like to thank all of those who have responded to previous requests. If that does not include you, YOUR donation is still needed. Please let the new year be a good year and let Koleinu be the recipient of your tzedakah. The adult choir adds a great deal to the spiritual life of the congregation and the digital piano is an investment that would enrich not only the choir, but all who would hear and sing in worship.

BULLETIN DEADLINE

The deadline for the next bulletin is October 8 for November events & announcements

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL MISSION STATEMENT

Adath Israel Congregation is a Reform Congregation, affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations (UAHC). This congregation is established to maintain a Temple of facilities for communal worship in the tradition of Reform Judaism, to provide a religious school for the instruction of children, and to engage in other activities to promote the fundamental principles of Judaism.

PLEASE LET US KNOW!!!

As a result of patient confidentiality, some area hospitals will not release to us the names of Jewish patients when our Temple office calls. Therefore, Rabbi Adland and the Temple are relying on you to let us know when someone is in the hospital. Please call us when you know about someone going into the hospital. Your help in this matter is invaluable.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

NOVEMBER 2002

VOL. 70 NO. 4

CHESHVAN-KISLEV 5763

I believe that what defines us as human beings is the way we act and care about those less fortunate, and the compassion for those who struggle to find a place in this world.

This November the confluence of those two ideas comes together and the joining together of these two flows into our early Hanukkah celebration at the end of November.

On November 7, at the Central Library, Temple Adath Israel, along with Hadassah, the Lexington Havurah, Senior Chai, and the UK Departments of Women's Studies and Judaic Studies, will sponsor the movie "Trembling Before God." This critically acclaimed movie brings to light the struggle within Orthodox Judaism of the homosexual community. I am proud that these groups stepped forward to sponsor this movie. It will help teach others that religion and alternative lifestyles are not mutually exclusive. I want every person to be accepted in society and in their religious communities. "Trembling before God" demonstrates that it is possible, but it isn't always easy.

November is also Thanksgiving. For years our Religious School and Social Action Committee have teamed up to prepare Thanksgiving baskets to give to God's Pantry. These baskets are then distributed to the needy. This is only one example of the good work our congregation does to remember those less fortunate. I am proud of the Religious School which is making sandwiches for the HopeMobile each Sunday. I am proud of our Social Action Committee for taking the notion of Tikkun Olam to heart and creating an ongoing program of social action possibilities at Temple Adath Israel.

How do these two, the movie and the baskets, flow into Hanukkah? This holiday is our celebration of religious freedom. We remember and give thanks for the freedom won for us by Judah Maccabee and his followers. This freedom is the same freedom demanded and desired by all people, no matter who they are today. During our celebration of Hanukkah today, we share our joy by giving gifts to others. By participating in a food drive or making baskets, or painting a hospitality house or collecting things, we are giving gifts to others.

May this November be for us a month dedicated to learning more about who we are as human beings and what we can do to help define our place in this world through our acts and thoughts. If we do this, we will all be truly blessed and the Messianic age drawn near.

Rabbi Jon Allard

THE PRESIDENT'S LINE

Can you believe it is November? Can you believe Thanksgiving soon will be here and the very next day is Hanukkah?

Hanukkah – what a joyous time of the year! What a glorious time of year! It is a time for gelt, latkes and sigfanoit, Hanukkah candles, blessings and songs, dreidels spinning, excitement, and love. This is a time to remember the miracle of the lights, our ancestor's victory, and the rededication of the Temple in Jerusalem. This is a special time for family, friends, and Temple community to celebrate together and to care for one another. It is a time to remember our roots and traditions.

We were very fortunate to have had Rabbi Samuel Joseph from Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion as our scholar-in-residence the weekend of October 18-20. Thank you to the Maurice Hymson Adult Programming Fund for underwriting this series. Rabbi Joseph was informative as well as entertaining. The delicious Chinese Shabbat Dinner before the Erev Shabbat service was a great way to mingle with Temple friends. I love my pot stickers. You don't want to miss another occasion such as this one. Join me at the next one.

I must thank all the Gersons (Albert, Ken, Ida, and Larry) for their donation of another grand new bookcase. Thanks for all that you do.

From Covenant of the Soul

*Today, Adonai, we bring you our gifts:
Not precious metals, brightly colored textiles, animal skins, spices, oils, or precious stones.
Instead we bring You gifts of the heart, of mind, of spirit, as well as the work of our hands.
We bring You the compassion we show to our families,
to our friends, to those in need.
We bring You the gifts of intellect, the study of Torah, of Talmud, of our tradition.
We bring You the gifts of faith in our power to change things, of hope that one day this will be the world
You wanted to create.
Adonai, please accept these gifts, and establish the work of our hands.*

SOCIAL ACTION NEWS

The TAI Social Action Committee has many exciting projects on our agenda for the New Year. First of all, we thank you for your enthusiastic participation in our annual High Holiday Food Drive. The Temple set a new record this year with 3,299 pounds of food collected for God's Pantry.

This year the committee will be involved in several new projects. Through the Adopt-a-School Program, we will be working one-on-one in the classrooms with the children of Ashland Elementary School, the school that is right around the corner. We will be helping religious school students prepare sandwiches for distribution by the Hope Center's HOPEMobile on an ongoing basis. The Social Action Committee plans to join with the Synagogue Social Action Committee and Tikkun Lexington to paint the Hospital Hospitality House, a facility for relatives of those who come to Lexington for medical treatment. In December we will sponsor a Hanukkah Carnival.

Our continuing projects include the annual blood drive, the Kentucky Harvest Food Rescue Program, the Mitzvah of the Month Program that donates funds to local charities and the "Books & Bagels" book sale fundraiser in the spring.

We seek your input to help us identify community agencies for the Mitzvah of the Month and future social action projects and we encourage your active participation in all social action projects. Please contact Social Action Committee chairs Austin & Susan Cantor at 278-2530 and/or Anne Graff at 264-9424 to join the Social Action Committee in tikkun olam.

ANNOUNCING A HANUKKAH CARNIVAL

IN EXCHANGE FOR A ROOM

Ann Baker, Ph.D. will: write, troubleshoot, tutor, child/elder/pet care, edit, cook, clean, etc. I am finishing research from a National Science foundation grant and need to generate a Lexington room by working evenings/weekends. Contact at 859-323-5491 or mouse@lamar.colostate.edu.

MITZVAH OF THE MONTH AND SOCIAL ACTION PROJECT

The Social Action Committee continues its "Mitzvah of the Month" program by selecting the Hospital Hospitality House as the recipient of $54 from the Tzedakah/Social Action Fund for the months of November and December. The Hospital Hospitality House welcomes the relatives and loved ones of seriously ill people coming from beyond the commuting distance of Fayette County for treatment in one of Lexington's area hospitals. Services offered include: sleeping areas, laundry facilities, bathing facilities, kitchen for meals and snacks, telephone, and a supportive environment with resident staff and companionship of others who share similar problems. There is no charge for the use of the facilities.

The Hospital Hospitality House is a non-profit, charitable organization that relies heavily on donations. They have requested help with painting several rooms, a hallway, and the winding stair rails of the over 100-year-old house. Let's join as a community. The Social Action Committee of the Temple and Synagogue and Tikkun Lexington need your participation! If you are interested in painting, please contact Anne Graff at 264-9424 (AGraf8@aol.com), Jana LaZur at Tikkun Lexington (CKJF) 268-0672 ext. 4, (tikkun@jewishlexington.org) or Ricki Rosenberg at 269-2300 (Rickirose1@aol.com). We will meet at the Hospital hospitality house at 342 South Limestone on November 10, 17, and 24, from 9:30 AM-11:45 AM (or later if you can). Coffee and donuts will be provided.

Donations of dishes, home accessories, and home cooked meals and baked goods would also be appreciated. Even if you don't paint, we invite you to visit the house to see if there is anything you can donate to help the Hospitality House achieve its goal as a "home away from home". Monetary donations can be made directly to: Hospitality House, 342 South Limestone St., Lexington, KY 40508

Preschool News Sandy Adland, Preschool Director

The month of November will be a busy one for our classes. Our students have had a great time exploring the fall season through a wide variety of activities incorporating the five senses. With Thanksgiving just around the corner, the children are beginning to get excited about their preparations for their classroom Thanksgiving Feast. Hanukkah follows, and we will learn about and celebrate the traditions of the holiday with songs, stories, traditional foods, games, and of course, lighting our menorah!

Also of note, "Mr. Jim" Holifield of Holifield Photography will be at preschool on Monday, November 4th and Tuesday, November 5th for individual student and classroom portraits. Order forms received at the end of last month need to be turned in on the day of the portrait sitting. Our "Preschool Family Night Dinner and Arts Enrichment Showcase" is scheduled for Sunday, November 24th at 5:30 PM in the Social Hall. We'll have pizza, latkes, an art exhibit, and entertainment by our classes!

If you have a child ages 0-2, please join us for Bagels and Blocks every Monday morning in the Temple library from 9:00-10:30 AM. There are a few spaces left in our 3 year old class. Spread the word, and call Sandy Adland at the preschool, at 269-2979, for more information.

FROM THE YOUTH EDUCATION DIRECTOR – Jane Gris 

SAVE THE DATES! On January 25th and 26th, 2003, our eighth and ninth grade classes, will be performing "Fiddler on the Roof." These students are doing a great job rehearsing, memorizing lines, and learning a variety of songs and dances. In connection with this play, our students are also learning about Yiddish, the Russian history of the time period, and a variety of other Sholom Aleichem stories. If anyone in the congregation is interested in joining the chorus and singing some of the songs with the class, just let me know.

October has also been a busy Social Action month at Religious School. We have started a new project to assist the Hope Center. The Hope Center has a HOPEMobile that travels around Lexington to provide basic food and clothing to residents in need. The team on the HOPEMobile consists of two case managers, a nurse and a coordinator. They make contact with homeless individuals who do not use available shelters. They also provide outreach and referral services to homeless people. Over 100 individuals are served each weekday. We have decided to deliver 100 peanut butter and jelly sandwiches to the HOPE Center each Sunday. These sandwiches will be distributed on Monday. Each Sunday, two religious school classes are paired together to make sandwiches. We started by having the Confirmation class work with our Kindergarten class and have continued to pair a younger grade with an older grade. Our students have done a great job and the Hope Center is delighted with our work. We have purchased the supplies for these sandwiches with Tzedakah funds that we collect each week. We have also received very generous donations of wonderful bread from the Bluegrass Bakery. Thanks very much to our parents who have volunteered to pick up bread from Bluegrass Bakery and to deliver the sandwiches to the Hope Center. Through this project, we are teaching our children important Jewish values of helping others in our community.

Sisterhood News

FROM THE PRESIDENT, MARCIA BROWN

Sisterhood is off to a great start! So far we have relaxed, met new people, schmoozed, and refined our etiquette. We have sponsored break-the-fast and made a donation to the Koleinu Fund for a new musical instrument. It is very encouraging to see new faces attending our programs and working on projects. I would like to thank Mary Engel and her committee for a wonderful break-the-fast. Your hard work and time is much appreciated.

November will prove to be a very busy month for our sisterhood. The gift shop is stocked and has many beautiful items for your Hanukkah shopping and we all know there is always time for shopping!! Also, mark your calendars...November 23. is the date for our annual fund raiser. This gala, fun-filled evening will help benefit our religious school and other worthwhile sisterhood projects. I hope all TAI families and friends come out and enjoy some family time while supporting our children.

We have so much more in store in the coming months, thanks to our programming vice, LisaMarie DeYoung. So please join us and once again, I welcome all new members.

L'Shalom,
Marcia

PLEASE LET US KNOW!!!

As a result of patient confidentiality, some area hospitals will not release to us the names of Jewish patients when our Temple office calls. Therefore, Rabbi Adland and the Temple are relying on you to let us know when someone is in the hospital. Please call us when you know about someone going into the hospital. Your help in this matter is invaluable.
