A MESSAGE FROM THE RABBI

I remember opening my first law office. I had a Tandy 1000 and a Daisy wheel printer that operated at, what was then break neck speed, 10 characters per second.

I had a state of the art set up. The only problem was that this printer made lots of noise, so it took a padded sound buffering case to make it functional (that and a whole table on which to put it). It was amazing! I could produce documents that could be changed at will. I don't know how law offices operated before computer. Either legal secretaries had lots more patience or the practice was far less complex. In any event, I became near addicted to this wonderful technology, and as it upgraded, so did I. I was not a techno-file. I never had a Palm Pilot and am not looking for a computer watch, but I did try to keep a computer that would run the necessary software and usually carried a cell phone. I became very thankful for this blessing, and then, true to form for most of us, thankfulness left and I began to take it for granted. I was once again reminded of the importance of computer technology in my life this past week. My computer crashed while I was out of town. As I stood at the computer shop and begged for help, I would have given or promised almost anything to get it back and whole. As I write this article, I realize that I am once again blessed, I promise never to take my computer for granted again. This sounds so much like the way we approach each other and God. New relationships are special. They are exciting and fresh. Eventually, we often times forget to keep them special, and we begin to take them for granted, or "upgrade" them as our social status or geography changes. We do this with God, too. In the midst of our angst we make all sorts of promises. "If only You get me through this . . ." is a frequently heard phrase that many of make and begin to honor. Yet after the prayer is answered, we fall back into usual patterns as time goes on, forgetting the blessing for which we felt indebted. It seems as though, in this same way, we take our tradition for granted. We look at the Torah and talk about its wonder, but do not spend enough time engaging it. Rabbi Eric Yoffie, the President of the American Reform movement, offered us a solution to this dilemma. At the recent Biennial convention of the Reform Movement, introduced an initiative seeking Reform Jews to reinvest ourselves in Torah study. His idea is that we should spend ten (10) minutes each day studying Torah. Short lessons will be planned and available on line, with a goal of making Torah again relevant to our lives. Candidly, I endorse the initiative and would hope that we all take the opportunity to dive back into our tradition and study, even ten minutes a day. Call the office for details.

HAPPY CHANUKKAH!

SHABBAT AROUND THE DINNER TABLE

Friday night, December 19, is our monthly Shabbat Around the Dinner Table beginning at 6:00 PM. Michael Hustedde will participate at the Shabbat Dinner Service and will celebrate his Bar Mitzvah on Saturday, December 20 at 10:30 AM. This is also the night of Erev Hanukkah. Bring your menorah and we will light the first candle together.

In honor of Michael's Bar Mitzvah, the Hustedde family will provide entries. Please plan to bring a vegetable or salad to feed six to eight people. Join us for this special evening. PLEASE call the Temple office at 269-2979 and let us know that you will be there, (hopefully by Thursday, the 18th!) so that we may properly prepare. See you Friday, December 19.

Mark Novak
Renée Brachfeld
ARTISTS IN RESIDENCE WEEKEND
DECEMBER 5-7

Temple Adath Israel is hosting an exciting and very different artists in residence weekend December 5 – 7. Our guests will be Mark Novak & Renée Brachfeld, a dynamic husband-wife storytelling duo, who draw their material from the warmth and richness of the Jewish tradition. Renée is a storyteller and juggler, and Mark is a cantor and musician. Their unique skills as performers emanate from more than two decades of experience delighting audiences at synagogues, JCCs, schools, churches, festivals, and community events nationwide. Mark and Renée present Artist-in-Residence weekends at synagogues throughout the United States, enriching Jewish communities with performances and workshops for both adults and families. The weekend is planned with something for everyone!

Mark and Renée will lead Friday evening worship services with Rabbi Mark Kline when we honor our Temple Preschool in connection with our 100th anniversary celebration. Services will begin at 6:30 PM.

On Saturday morning at 10:30 AM, Mark will conduct a special worship workshop, "The Art of Prayer: The Spiritual Magic of the Niggun", an interactive exploration of the power of the niggun to enhance prayer.

Saturday evening at 8 PM. Temple's Social Hall will be transformed into a cabaret theater for the performance of "This Ain't Your Bubbe's Yiddish Theater", a rollicking, touching, soulful, thought provoking, and funny celebration of the warmth and richness of Jewish culture. Mark and Renée weave together a vibrant and joyful performance brimming with folk tales, music, and contemporary stories drawn from Hebrew, Yiddish, Sephardic and American Jewish sources. Your Bubbe will like it and so will you!

Sunday morning at 9 AM, our guests will lead an In Service Teacher Training with religious school teachers, providing teachers with tools for utilizing storytelling in the classroom. Special sessions will then be held for religious school classes.

WOW! What a weekend this will be. Mark the date on your calendar and plan to be here!

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL 1904-2004

This is the third in a series of excerpts from the hundred year history of Temple Adath Israel.

By 1945, the Temple had grown to 132 families and we had completed a garden in the rear of the Vestry, equipped it with a barbecue grill, and dedicated it to the members of the Congregation serving in the Armed Forces. Rabbi Lewis returned from active duty and the Congregation, after much discussion, decided to build a prefab house for him at the corner of Woodspoint and Fincastle Roads, which was later sold and replaced by a house at 304 Culpepper Road where our rabbis continued to live until 1961.

The Sunday School, under the direction of Fannie Miller, a long-time superintendent and a splendid teacher using the NFTS curriculum, operated in both Lexington and Frankfort, while Jane Scherago commuted to Danville each week to teach the eight children of that community. Our religious school, in addition to becoming a model for other Sunday Schools throughout the region, was also bursting at the seams with the pre-war baby crop. Now the post-war crop was being planted, as the soldiers came home.

As usual, there wasn't enough money to expand, what with inflated post-war prices, so we waited -- again. When Rabbi Lewis resigned to go to California, the Board proposed a 30% increase in salary in order to offer the next rabbi a competitive salary.

The next rabbi was Sidney Ballon of Columbia, S.C. who was accompanied by his wife Jean, a cousin to the Hymson-Levenson clan, and their three children. Rabbi Ballon was the first of our rabbis to wear ceremonial robes on the pulpit. That innovation, the beginning of a Temple bulletin, the birth of the Brotherhood and the institution of children's services on Saturday mornings were his major changes. The names of the children who attended were listed in the Bulletin, as either reward or incentive. As always, overcrowding in the Sunday School was a major problem. The Board purchased the Williams house next door, providing classrooms for 50 students, but there was still a need for more room to accommodate the religious school growth.

Finally, plans were approved and the contract awarded to Morris L. Levy, a long-time Temple member whose four children had all been confirmed here, to build a $34,000 extension to the Temple behind the Williams House, which could then be rented out, since we would no longer use it for Sunday School rooms.

The trials and tribulations of our need, of building the addition and raising the money were expounded in an opus written by Irving and Ada Gail and used at a fundraising evening.

Based on the musical, "South Pacific," the title was "South Prolific" and the parodies were performed by members of the Board. The play, one of several created by that talented couple, was a huge success and raised a lot of money. Here is an excerpt, sung to the tune of "There is Nothing Like a Dame" by that variably talented cast:

We got children, lots of those,
Sundays we go on a spree,
It's a habit, I suppose,
When they go to school, we're free...
We got time for fun and pleasure
And we propagate the race...

But what ain't we got?
We ain't got SPACE!

Now with architect and plan,
We attacked the building code...
On the march with every man,
How the tempers did explode!
We present the finished product
Of our efforts, high and low,

But what ain't we got?
We ain't got DOUGH!

Now we've got the building built,
Now we've got the space we need
But we're mortgaged to the hilt.
Hell, we hardly own the deed.
Now we've got the rooms and closets
And a place we're proud to show...

But what ain't we got?
We ain't got DOUGH!

OUTREACH NEWS

OUTREACH GROUP BEGINS PROGRAMS

Outreach offers support and learning opportunities for intermarried couples, Jews-by-Choice, and all others who are seeking information about Judaism. Adopted in 1981 by the UAHC, Outreach provides programs that help participants deal positively with the issues presented by intermarriage and conversion. The program is meant to make everyone feel more comfortable practicing Judaism and participating in the Jewish Community. Stacy & Art Dunahue have graciously agreed to chair this group this year and as you will see from the upcoming schedule, they are doing a great job. Be sure to join the Outreach group and learn together.

On December 23, 2003 at 7 PM, Outreach will share Hanukkah and Latkes (Place to be announced).

Beginning in January, 2004, the 3rd Thursday of each month will be Outreach Night at TAI. Watch the bulletin for any changes in place of meetings.

TUESDAY BRIDGE CLUB

The Tuesday Bridge Group meets in the Temple Library beginning at 11 AM. Bring your lunch and play until 2 PM. You don't have to be an expert to join. This group is going strong, so if you like to play bridge, here's your chance to join and socialize with fellow Temple members.

If you wish to join in, please check with other players or the Temple office each week to see if the group is playing.

100TH ANNIVERSARY NEWS

100th Anniversary Trivia Contest

Answer the following questions and turn in at the Temple office. Get those noggins working and turn in your answers as soon as possible. The first entry received with all correct answers will receive a $5 gift certificate to use at the Temple gift shop.

If no one gets all questions correct, the first entry received with the most correct answers will be the winner. Here they are, have fun with the Temple history.

1. How many members have dual memberships with the Synagogue?
2. How long has John McDonald been the Temple Administrator?
3. How many husband & wives have both been Temple President?
4. How many people have been Religious School Directors?
5. How many people have been President of Temple Adath Israel?

Temple Archives In Danger!!!!

Lowell Nigoff and Garry Hoover of the 100th Anniversary Committee need help identifying individuals in photos in our Temple archives. These pictures, dated from the early 1900's until the 1990's, are an irreplaceable part of our history and are in DANGER of becoming obscure, as many are not identified.

If you would like to help, please give us a call and we will arrange to meet you at the Temple. We know you will enjoy looking at these photos as much as we have, and your help will be greatly appreciated.

An additional note: On October 4, Renee Hymson, Lowell Nigoff and I, (Harriett Rose) spent a couple of hours identifying the people in some old pictures that have been sent in for the 100th Anniversary Year archives. It was really fun and we enjoyed it, but there are faces we know whose names won't come to mind. They have left Lexington but were here long enough to participate or they are children whose looks now don't resemble their early pictures. If you can help identify these people, call Lowell Nigoff at 278-5220 to add your expertise to this search of names.

ADULT EDUCATION NEWS

Larry Kant continues the course "Finding A Jewish Path While The Ground Shifts Beneath Us". It will be meeting Sunday mornings once a month. Larry's purpose is to make scholarships accessible to lay people so that biblical texts come alive in a way that makes Torah meaningful for class participants.

The group will go through the texts very carefully to show how close reading (including Midrash) can fundamentally alter the interpretation of stories. Please join us on December 14 at 10 AM in the Temple library.

Other class dates are January 11, February 8, March 14, and April 18.

TEMPLE HONORS RELIGIOUS SCHOOL PRINCIPALS AND TEACHERS

On Friday November 14, as part of the 100th Anniversary celebration, the Temple honored our current and past Religious School teachers and principals. There was a special dinner followed by a Shabbat service where the Temple recognized their contributions and celebrated their service to the youth of the Temple over many generations.

Jane Grise, Debbie Masters, Elayne Crystal and Anita Baker sign the Temple Adath Israel Educator's timeline tallit. Ida Waldman lights the shabbat candles prior to dinner. Past Religious School principals who attended the dinner: Sybil Stern, Jo Belin, Judi Wurmser, Harriett Rose, Marsha Rose and Current Director Jane Grise.

PRESCHOOL NEWS

Laura Creamer—Director

November was a busy month in our preschool classrooms. We spent a lot of time exploring the fall season through our 5 senses, and enjoyed many fun and interesting lessons surrounding the holiday of Thanksgiving. Our students dressed up as Pilgrims and Native Americans, and came together for a Thanksgiving feast that was enjoyed by all! It was fun to recognize how much we have to be thankful for! Since Hannukah will occur during our Winter Break, we will spend the beginning of December learning all about the holiday and we will have an early celebration with latkes, dreidles, menorahs and more! The Preschool Shabbat will be on December 5th at 6:30 PM.

Our Holiday Shopping Fair was a wonderful success!! A BIG thank you to all of the organizers, vendors and shoppers!!

I also would like to thank the Preschool Committee for all of their time and effort and investment in our Preschool! Mimi Kaufman, Rebecca Young, Jackie Sugarman, Eve Stern, Laura Rosenberg, and Dave Brown are an incredible group of people and are wonderful to work with!

I can't believe it, but registration for the 2004-2005 school year begins January 1, 2004. The enrollment policy is as follows:

January 1-January 19 – Pre-registration for class members and siblings. A sibling is defined as a sister or brother of a child attending TAI Preschool presently or who has graduated from the four year old class.

January 20-January 31 – Pre-registration for Temple members

February 1 – Pre-registration open to the community.

There are still a few openings in our 3 year old and 4 year old classes. For more information about Temple Adath Israel Preschool call Laura Creamer at 269-2979. Happy Hannukah!

FROM THE FIRST GRADE CLASS

Anita Mersack, Teacher

The first graders have been busy studying the holidays that come at the beginning of the school year. These are the things they remembered and liked.

We made Torah for Simchat Torah and we made a pointer to go with it. We got to decorate a cover, too.

Sara Suhl

We learned how to say head and good morning in Hebrew—rosh and boker tov. Eli Meece

We got to shake the lulav and smell the etrog.

Jacqueline Engel

We ate apples and honey on Rosh HaShanah

Rachel Kaplan

We made a circle-shaped challah for Rosh HaShanah.

Samantha Reaguer

We made cheese sandwiches together for the Hope Center.

Ryan Dunahue

We made apples and shofars for the bulletin board.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NEWS

Jane Gris —Director

November was filled with lots of activities at Religious School and more activities will be coming in December. On November 7th, our Fourth Grade class led our Shabbat Around The Dinner Table Service. They did a beautiful job of picking out their favorite colors and relating these colors to Shabbat. Thanks to Elissa Brown for her coordination of this service. On November 14th, we honored our Religious School Directors and teachers with a wonderful Chinese dinner. Our students decorated placemats and cards for the past principals and all of our teachers. On December 7th, we will be having Renee Brachfield and Mark Novak come and delight us with Jewish Storytelling. December 14th is the Hanukah Fair. Come and enjoy the celebration.

Last month, I updated everyone on the activities of our 9th and 10th graders. This month, I want to focus on the new programs that we have developed for 7th and 8th grade. The 7th graders have had a full program learning about other religions. They have visited a variety of churches and have had many interesting visitors come into the classroom. In January, our kitchen will be filled with delicious smells as the class will have the opportunity to cook with Bobbi Fried. They will make brisket, honey cake, challah, and lots of other tasty dishes. They will also learn about Jewish humor with Drew Fried while their culinary creations are cooking. In February, the 7th graders will start a wonderful unit on Jewish identity with Wendy Waltman.

The 8th graders have spent this fall learning about Judaism through film. They have watched films about anti-Semitism in the 50's. They have also watched Jewish-related films such as the Marx Brothers. Corey Erdmann has been the "Film Director" and teacher for this class. The students have also been introduced to Yiddish and Sholom Aleichem with Etta Pollan and have had fun learning about the Bintel Brief (the Jewish version of Ann Landers) with Fran Bloom.

Thanks to all of these great teachers for giving their time to our Religious School and helping us to educate our children.

TRYB NEWS

On October 19, TRYB went to the UK Children's Hospital to volunteer after Sunday School. We played bingo with the patients, and after two exciting rounds, we went from room to room with the gigantic toy cart. Every child picked their favorite items, including books, stuffed animals, and a various assortment of games. We all had a great time, and it was a great opportunity for all of us to give back to the community.

OTHER NEWS

THE KOLLEL STUDY GROUP

The Kollel Study group meets Saturdays at 9 AM, on alternate weeks, alternating with Torah Study. These groups bring together people who love study and matters of the mind.

The Torah Study group is leisurely studying and discussing the five books of Moses...sentence by sentence. At present after many years it has reached the last book, Deuteronomy.

Feel free to attend any time, and join the lively discourse in a friendly, supportive environment.

HANDCRAFTERS & STITCHERS NEEDED

If you are a handcrafter or a stitcher of any kind, would you like to meet as a group on a weekly or bi-weekly basis at the Temple for a get together? We are looking for 15 to 20 people who knit, cross stitch, quilt, or do any type of needlework to meet and work on their projects and schmooze for about an hour.

We now have four people who have expressed interest. Please call the Temple office at 269-2979 and join this great group of people.

SUKKOT FOOD DRIVE 2003

A big THANK YOU! to all Temple members who donated food during our annual food drive.

We topped last year's total of 3,299 lbs by 277 lbs. We collected 3,576 pounds this year.

December 14

On Your Calendar

The Social Action Committee, with help from the Religious School, is once again sponsoring a Hanukkah Carnival, yard sale, and silent auction to be held on Sunday, December 14, 12 PM at Temple Adath Israel.

Fun for singles and families, young and "mature". Spend your money for good causes and take home wonderful art objects, plants, tools, pottery, and much more. We want this sale to be bigger than the last one, so please donate your items as soon as possible. As always, your items are tax deductible and a donation receipt will be available at the office when you bring your items in.

The Social Action Committee wishes to thank you in advance for your donations to this year's fund raiser.

SOCIAL ACTION NEWS

MITZVAH OF THE MONTH FOR DEC.-JAN.

The Social Action Committee continues its Mitzvah of the Month by selecting St. Vincent de Paul Society as the recipient of $54 from the Tzedakah/Social Action Fund for the months of December and January.

The Society is an international Catholic lay volunteer organization working with the poor and disadvantaged that was founded 200 years ago in Paris, France by Frederic Ozanam. Last year the Society distributed $200 million to the poor in the US. The Society in Lexington has 4 conferences that financially receive support from the parishioners of Christ the King, Mary Queen of the Holy Rosary, St. Peters and Elizabeth Ann Seton. These donations are distributed to clients that call our food hotline. We provide approximately four clients a day Monday thru Friday a food voucher that can be used at a local grocery store. Anyone who calls the food hotline that has not been helped in the last four months is eligible for a food voucher. The food vouchers are distributed by St. Vincent volunteers by making a home visit. Make you contribution to the Temple Tzedakah Fund or directly to the St. Vincent DePaul Society Christ the King Conference, 200 ColOny Blvd., Lexington, KY 40502.

We are still collecting General Mills "Box Tops" for Education" for Ashland Elementary. The box is located on the Rabbi's office door. For more information, please contact Dianne Bazell at 278-3042.

HOPE CENTER DINNERS

Volunteer help needed!!! Temple Adath Israel will be providing food, cooking, serving, and cleaning up at the Hope Center for Christmas Dinner on December 25, and also for January 2nd.

This is your chance to do a community mitzvah and be part of the Temple's caring and outreach to the Lexington community. If you would like to volunteer to help, please contact Lowell Nigoff at 233-1173 (days) or 278-5220 (evenings) or e-mail at killshot@iglou.com.

The TAI Social Action Committee announces an additional opportunity to serve our wider community. We will be preparing and serving dinner at the Hope Center on March 28. Please contact Nancy Schoenberg at 323-8175 or at nesch@uky.edu. If you can donate special food items (i.e. fresh fruit or dessert), or wish to make a cash donation or can help prepare the dinners, we'd love to have you help us!

Sisterhood News

FROM THE PRESIDENT, MARCIA BROWN

Did you solve the mystery? What a delightful evening we had on November 16...Kudos to Jana Lazur and her committees for a very enjoyable and profitable evening. The evening provided great food, great entertainment, auction items and most of all good friends joining together for a fun evening and supporting a good cause. Religious school and other worthwhile sisterhood projects benefited from the evening's proceeds. A big THANK YOU to everyone that joined in the fun and also to those who were unable to attend, but so generously supported our efforts. How about a pajama party? Have I sparked your curiosity... mark your calendars...on December 17th we have a special program planned. Sisterhood means so much to our Temple and all of our members mean so very much to sisterhood. It is never too late to join sisterhood....there are many more programs and projects coming up....we have only just begun!! Your participation will have an impact on our Temple and enrich your life, as well. Don't forget it is time to start shopping....the gift shop is stocked with many gift items, dreidels and of course, menorahs and candles! I want to wish everyone a very happy Hanukah.

Our children are our connection to the Jewish future. In order to insure that this Jewish future is strong and vital, we bring our children to religious school and Hebrew school, attend services, and celebrate the Jewish holidays. Whenever possible, we further our own Jewish education so that we can teach our children about the values, history, ethics and ideals of our Judaism.

Living in a small Jewish community, the missing link in our children's growth as Jews is the chance to experience Judaism on a daily basis. You can find this at Goldman Union Camp Institute.

For the last several years, Temple Adath Israel has had one of the largest contingents of children at G.U.C.I. Each camper returned with a better understanding of his or her Judaism and Jewish identity.

I want you seriously to consider our regional Reform Jewish camp as a place for your child to spend 4 weeks this summer. Judaism teaches us to be the best we can be in all that we do. G.U.C.I. provides a Jewish atmosphere for this to take place. A brochure about the camp is available in the Temple office.

The Temple and CKJF have set aside funds for scholarships. Please call the Temple office about how to receive scholarship help. Funds are limited, but we will do everything we can to get your child to camp.

Remember the spaces fill up quickly, so get your application in as soon as possible!

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL MISSION STATEMENT

Adath Israel Congregation is a Reform Congregation, affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations (UAHC). This congregation is established to maintain a Temple of facilities for communal worship in the tradition of Reform Judaism, to provide a religious school for the instruction of children, and to engage in other activities to promote the fundamental principles of Judaism.

PLEASE LET US KNOW!!!

As a result of patient confidentiality, some area hospitals will not release to us the names of Jewish patients when our Temple office calls. Therefore, Rabbi Kline and the Temple are relying on you to let us know when someone is in the hospital. Please call us when you know about someone going into the hospital. Your help in this matter is invaluable.

SHEVAT-TEVET 5764

A MESSAGE FROM RABBI MARC KLINE

I heard my friend Rabbi Joe Black's new album. He has written a very cute song proclaiming that Valentine's Day is not a Jewish holiday. So, when is a non-Jewish holiday, a holiday for Jews? This is an interesting question that has plagued us for centuries. We finally have found a way to claim Columbus Day – after all – he was either Jewish, himself, or at least his crew was – fleeing the expulsion or the orders of the Spanish Inquisition. This we know. So – we celebrate a day in honor of great accomplishments by and/or on the behalf of Jews. I have another friend, Ted Kliman (an artist) who celebrates the 25th of December as the most famous Jewish birthday in history. I am not sure, though, that we should seek to claim that day for ourselves. Nor does it matter that the dating of Easter actually follows the Jewish calendar. Thanksgiving has its roots in Sukkot, and the Pilgrim's search for an authentic way to celebrate the harvest, so I guess it counts. As to the fourth of July, well – independence is a good thing and the constitution allows us the freedom to be Jewish. But, what about Valentine's Day? My wife tells me that if we as Jews should not celebrate Valentine's Day, then I need find another excuse to bring home flowers and presents on that day. But, what about the holiday itself?

The truth is that very little is known about the three St. Valentine's. What is known is that on a day previously dedicated to their memory, the birds began their mating season. According to Geoffrey Chaucer's Parliament of Fowles we read: "For this was sent on Seynt Valentyne's day, when every foul cometh ther to choose his mate (sic)." The celebration is completely devoid of connection to the holiday's namesake, and hence, devoid of religious character. We are taught in the Talmud, "Dina malchutah dina – the law of the land we live in is the law we live by." The Reform Movement has understood this to mean that we must live as part of the community, with the community celebrating with our community, as well. Many have understood this at a lot of different levels, and we all participate in the wrestling match over boundaries. What is appropriate or inappropriate. Where is the line? "It's only a tree with lights." "It's only a box of chocolate." I'll be candid, I don't know where the line is, and don't know that I have the right to draw it for anyone but me. Did I sit in Santa's lap and hunt eggs? Yeah, I think I remember doing so. Am I any less Jewish? No. I do think that it boils down to this: If we instill in our children a love for that which is affirmatively Jewish – teaching them Jewish values (continued on page 2)

The President's Line

Well, it is now official! On January 30th, Marc Kline was installed as Rabbi at Temple Adath Israel, Lexington, KY. It was a wonderful service with Rabbi Lane Steinger, Reverend Leo Woodberry, and Steve Dropkin in attendance. I hope you didn't miss it.

Be sure to come to the Purim Ball on March 6th. This is part of our grand 100th Anniversary Celebration. See you there.

The delegates at the last Biennial approved the name change Union for Reform Jews serving Reform Congregations in North America. Also approved were initiatives, two of which emphasized placing Torah at the center of our lives while the others are directed into the community.

The initiative I would like to mention today is 10 Minutes of Torah. The Union will deliver by e-mail, a short piece on Jewish text, issue, or topic five days a week to those who sign up. As Rabbi Yoffie said, "If we make time to answer our cell phones a dozen times a day and to check our e-mail five times an hour surely we can find ten minutes to contemplate words that nourish the soul." Just log on to www.urg.org/torah/ten

Conclusion of Rabbi Yoffie's Biennial sermon:

Yes, we are children of Abraham's vision. And even though we number far fewer than the stars in the sky, the promise has been kept. God has given us the strength to live through tragedy with the human spirit unbroken. God has made us the people of eternity. And God has lit a flame in the Jewish soul that no force on earth can ever extinguish.

and involving them in congregational life, then running after an egg with friends or cousins should not be a threat (unless the event itself is a religiously focused one). This is especially true in our community where our children have so many non-Jewish family members. The key will have to be found in who our children believe they are and what that means, and not in the choices of events in which they participate. We cannot both raise them in interfaith homes (or extended families) and at the same time pretend that the non-Jewish components do not exist. We do, however, have a greater burden then, to make sure that they learn to keep perspective and to keep their activities in perspective. . . . So, I guess I could have told Cindy that the flowers are for Tu B'shvat (a little late) and the chocolates with nuts are of the foods left over from the holiday Seder. But that would lessen the gift and be dishonest. Perhaps there is a Jewish answer to every situation. Perhaps we need to work to make sure our children understand them. Amen.

OUTREACH NEWS

Outreach Programs Continue

Outreach offers support and learning opportunities for intermarried couples, Jews-by-Choice, and all others who are seeking information about Judaism. Adopted in 1981 by the UAHC, Outreach provides programs that help participants deal positively with the issues presented by intermarriage and conversion. The program is meant to make everyone feel more comfortable practicing Judaism and participating in the Jewish Community. Stacy & Art Dunahue graciously agreed to chair this group this year and now that Art has been called for duty to serve our country, Stacy will carry on the great job they started together. Be sure to join the Outreach group and learn together.

Outreach will meet the 3rd Thursday of each month. Watch the bulletin for any changes in place of meetings.

TUESDAY BRIDGE CLUB

The Tuesday Bridge Group meets in the Temple Library beginning at 11 AM. Bring your lunch and play until 2 PM. You don't have to be an expert to join. This group is going strong, so if you like to play bridge, here's your chance to join and socialize with fellow Temple members.

If you wish to join in, please check with other players or the Temple office each week to see if the group is playing.

2004 WORLD FILM FESTIVAL

"Left Luggage." will be shown Tuesday evening, Feb. 24, at 7:00 p.m. in the theatre in the Central Public Library (downtown). The film showing is free and open to the public, and will be followed by a reception in the Library hosted by Hadassah.

For details on the film check the website:
www.oneworldfilmfestival.com or phone Annette Mayer at 266-6073.

100TH ANNIVERSARY NEWS

100th Anniversary Trivia Contest

Answer the following questions and turn in at the Temple office. Get those noggins working and turn in your answers as soon as possible. The first entry received with all correct answers will receive a $5 gift certificate to use at the Temple gift shop.

If no one gets all questions correct, the first entry received with the most correct answers will be the winner. Here they are, have fun with the Temple history.

1. How many students are in the Preschool?
2. How many Brotherhood Presidents have served since TAI began?
3. How many Sisterhood Presidents have served since TAI began?
4. Who is the oldest member of the Temple?
5. Which Temple couple have been married the longest?

GUESS WHO'S COMING TO DINNER?

Circle March 26, 2004 on your calendar and watch for a special invitation.

You are invited to join who's coming to dinner for dessert following services and a presentation by Gary Zola, historian from HUC.

To find out who's coming to dinner, search the remainder of the bulletin for the answer.

Trip to Cincinnati Museum Center

Temple Adath Israel's Programming Committee has planned a trip to the Cincinnati Museum Center to view the block-bluster exhibit St. Peter and the Vatican: The Legacy of the Popes. The exhibit features more than 300 pieces of art, historical documents and venerated objects from the Vatican Museums.

Our group will leave on a chartered mini-coach from the Temple at 9:00 AM on February 29 for 11:30 AM admission to the museum. After viewing the exhibit, we will go for lunch at Cincinnati's First Watch Restaurant. Our return to Temple will be around 5 PM. The per person price for this event is $30.00. This includes admission to the museum and a seat on the chartered bus. To make your reservations, send your payment to Temple by February 11. No reservations will be held without full payment.

OTHER NEWS

THE KOLLEL STUDY GROUP

The Kollel Study group meets Saturdays at 9 AM, on alternate weeks, alternating with Torah Study. These groups bring together people who love study and matters of the mind. The Torah Study group is leisurely studying and discussing the five books of Moses...sentence by sentence.

Feel free to attend any time, and join the lively discourse in a friendly, supportive environment.

February & March Schedule is 2/7, 2/21, 3/6, and 3/20.

CRAFT & KIBBITZ

We continue to look for people to join us for the Handcrafters group. The times may change in order for more people to participate. Watch your bulletin or an e-mail to keep informed of the days and times of the meetings.

Please call the Temple office at 269-2979 and join this great group of people.

PROUD OF OUR TEMPLE DOCTORS

WRITTEN BY BILL WENNEKER

I happened to be in the waiting room of Health South Surgical Center and realized that 3 of the doctors operating there were Temple members.

Our doctor, was Dr. Bruce Belin, who grew up with our sons. He has the bed side manner, knowledge and warmth of someone very special.

I observed from a distance Dr. Douglas Katz describing to a black family, the just completed eye surgery. Since I did not know him, I asked the woman he had talked to who he was. The reason I asked about him was he was so caring and funny as he described the patient and the procedure. His humor and personality were real.

The third doctor was Dr. Warren Frank, who I know only to say hello. He, many years ago, when my mother was in the hospital, saw I was worried and asked if he could help in any way. Yes we are very honored to have such wonderful doctors and members in our congregation.

BOOKS!

Volunteers in the Adopt-a-school program at Ashland Elementary have discovered that kindergarten level and easy reader story books are urgently needed for classroom use. Used books are welcome. There is a donation box in the lobby of the Temple.

SOCIAL ACTION NEWS

MITZVAH OF THE MONTH FOR FEBRUARY

The February recipient of the Mitzvah of the Month donation will be the WinterCare Energy Assistance Fund. During this year, the Temple will be donating $100 to each recipient organization in honor of our 100th anniversary. WinterCare is a program designed to help low income Kentuckians pay their heating bills. WinterCare was started by Kentucky Utilities in 1983 and has been adopted by 22 other utility companies. Utility customers may add $1.00 or more to their bills and KU will contribute 25 cents per dollar donated. WinterCare distributes that money to help more than 8,400 people in nearly 3,000 households each winter. Donations can be made to the Social Action/Tzedakah Fund at the Temple office.

We are still collecting General Mills "Box Tops for Education" for Ashland Elementary. The box is located in the main hallway. For more information, please contact Dianne Bazell at 278-3042.

HOPE CENTER DINNERS

The TAI Social Action Committee announces an additional opportunity to serve our wider community. We will be preparing and serving dinner at the Hope Center on March 28. Please contact Nancy Schoenberg at 323-8175 or at nesch@uky.edu. If you can donate special food items (i.e. fresh fruit or dessert), or wish to make a cash donation or can help prepare the dinners, we'd love to have you help us!

FOOD TRANSPORT!

We have expanded our participation in the Kentucky Harvest Food Rescue Program and need a few more volunteers to work for one hour a month, transporting day-old bread. Our routes run from the Beaumont Kroger to the Salvation Army on Main Street and from the Hartland Kroger to the Community Action Council on Georgetown Road. Pick-ups are on Mondays anytime between 8 AM and Noon. Please contact Karen Petrone at 226-9145 to volunteer.

Sisterhood News

FROM THE PRESIDENT, MARCIA BROWN

Here we are...it is 2004...we have made resolutions to organize, get in shape, get involved and prioritize our lives. I can't think of a better way than to join in the Sisterhood activities and programs for the coming months!!! Sisterhood has so much to offer, whether you want to become more involved in the Temple community and would like to meet and socialize with the women of TAI, or be involved in the Lexington community. We welcome new and old faces with open arms!! It is never too late to send in your dues, even if the notice got buried in all those year end papers!! Our program in December was an informative evening with a delicious brunch for dinner and gave those in attendance a venue for donating some new and warm pjs for families in need at the Spouse Abuse Center. We had a presentation from the Spouse Abuse Center and Fran Morris from CKJF. On Super Bowl Sunday we spent a fun, relaxing afternoon playing games and schmoozing with friends. A nice way to spend a cold winter day!! Coming up this month, on February 15, we will host the annual Valentine dinner for the residents of the Florence Crittenton Home. We will provide a delicious dinner, fun activities and friendship for a few hours for some very special young ladies. We will join hands with the women of the Jr. League and the Women Black Achievers for this event. It is a great community event...just to see the smiles and joy on the young girls' faces is definitely worth giving a few hours of our time. If you have not been able to participate in any program this year why not start with this worthwhile event!!! Also, this month, we will gather for a kitchen shower. It is time to replenish some very much needed items for our kitchen! We have many programs planned. So please watch the calendar and I look forward to seeing all of the women at TAI!!!!

ARZA NEWS

Social Justice Theme of IMPJ Retreat

The Israel Movement for Progressive Judaism sponsored a Shabbat program on the theme of social justice for rabbis, lay leaders, and staff. The Leo Baeck Education Center in Haifa was cited for its pioneering program to integrate Ethiopian immigrant students in the school. Kol Haneshama Congregation was lauded for building a unique relationship with residents of a home for adults with developmental disabilities. A "social justice market" featured a summer camp for children from an underprivileged neighborhood in Tel Aviv run by the Young Adult Leadership Forum and Beit Daniel Congregation, as well as other projects sponsored by affiliated congregations.

NEW MEMBERS JOSEPH & YEH HSIN AUER

Joseph & Yeh Hsin met while both were playing chamber music in Boston.

They are both musicians by trade and love. Joseph is currently in medical school at UK and hopes to graduate in 2005. Yeh Hsin is at home preparing for their twin boys that will arrive soon and enrich their lives.

After the birth of the twins, both Joseph & Yeh Hsin hope to be participating in various Temple and community activities.

Joseph is the son of Stephen & Jane Auer. The Temple Board and staff welcome them to the Temple family. May their affiliation with TAI be a joyous one.

A Once In A Lifetime Opportunity

Temple Adath Israel's Programming Committee has planned a trip to the Cincinnati Museum Center to view the block-buster exhibit St. Peter and the Vatican: The Legacy of the Popes.

The group will leave on February 29 at 9 AM in a chartered mini-coach for the 11:30 AM admission to the Museum. After the exhibit, we will go to lunch at Cincinnati's First Watch Restaurant.

We will return to Temple around 5 PM. Price per person is $30. Make your reservation today with payment. No reservations will be held without full payment.

MARCH FOR FREEDOM OF CHOICE!

On April 25, 2004, the Reform Movement will join with pro-choice organizations including the National Organization for Women, Planned Parenthood, and NARL/Pro-Choice America for a march in Washington, DC to protect women's reproductive rights. You too can be a part of this historic event—for more information, please visit the web pages at www.rj.org/choice, or contact the Religious Action Center of Reform Judaism at 202-387-2800, choice@rac.org.

PRESCHOOL NEWS

Laura Creamer—Director

After a long and restful Winter Break, our preschoolers are happy to be together once again. We are especially enjoying our special art sessions with Mrs. Boyer from LASC. She brings so many wonderful ideas and art activities to our classrooms! We are planning our second annual "Preschool Family Dinner and Art Enrichment Showcase" for early spring. This is a casual evening for dining together and watching our preschoolers display some of the things they are learning in the areas of visual arts, music, and creative movement.

Enrollment for the 2003-2004 school year is underway. Please call Laura Creamer at the Preschool office, 269-2979, for more information.

GOLDMAN UNION CAMP INSTITUTE

Our children are our connection to the Jewish future. In order to insure that this Jewish future is strong and vital, we bring our children to religious school and Hebrew school, attend services, and celebrate the Jewish holidays. Whenever possible, we further our own Jewish education so that we can teach our children about the values, history, ethics and ideals of our Judaism.

Living in a small Jewish community, the missing link in our children's growth as Jews is the chance to experience Judaism on a daily basis. You can find this at Goldman Union Camp Institute.

For the last several years, Temple Adath Israel has had one of the largest contingents of children at G.U.C.I. Each camper returned with a better understanding of his or her Judaism and Jewish identity.

I want you seriously to consider our regional Reform Jewish camp as a place for your child to spend 4 weeks this summer. Judaism teaches us to be the best we can be in all that we do. G.U.C.I. provides a Jewish atmosphere for this to take place. A brochure about the camp is available in the Temple office.

The Temple and CKJF have set aside funds for scholarships. Please call the Temple office about how to receive scholarship help. Funds are limited, but we will do everything we can to get your child to camp. Remember the spaces fill up quickly, so get your application in as soon as possible!

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NEWS

Jane Gris —Director

We are off to a busy start in 2004. Our 5th and 6th graders are busy preparing to lead services. The 5th grade will lead services on Friday, March 19th and the 6th grade will lead Saturday morning services on Saturday, March 6th. March 21st is our annual Mitzvah Day where all classes will have the opportunity to assist members of our community.

Last fall, I began updates of our 9th and 10th grades. I want to continue with updates on our 7th and 8th grade classes. Our 7th graders have completed a wonderful unit on comparative religions with Roy Meckler. In January, they started a great unit on cooking and Jewish humor with Bobbi and Drew Fried. They will be making brisket, honey cake, challah and other delicious food while enjoying an introduction to Jewish humor. After they complete this unit, they will move to a study of Jewish identity with Wendy Waltman. This will be an important opportunity to explore relationships with each other and our community.

Our 8th graders have also completed a new unit on Jewish film. They watched School Ties, Crossing Delancey, A Gentleman's Agreement, as well as some new Israeli films. They also did a great job in helping prepare for the Hanukkah Fair. Thanks to Cory Erdmann for helping to develop this new course. Thanks also to Etta Pollan, who introduced the class to the stories of Sholom Aleichem, and to Fran Bloom, who introduced the students to the Bintel Brief. In January, the 8th graders were working on a variety of wonderful art projects with Linda Noffsinger. They will be doing felting, which is the creation of wool pieces of art from beautiful wool fibers, as well as other art projects. In February, the class will explore Jewish law and the Bet Din with Jeff Davidson. They will end the year in May with the study of Aging issues with Nancy Schoenberg and the exploration of the writings in Ecclesiastes with Jeff Davidson. Thanks to all of our teachers who take time out of their busy schedules to help educate our youth. Finally, a big thanks to Gay Adelstein and the Social Action committee for another very successful Hanukkah Fair. The proceeds from the Fair will help to fund social action projects for our Religious School. We appreciate all of their energy and support!

SUMMER IN ISRAEL

Attention teenagers (and their parents). This summer, the NFTY is once again offering L'Dor V'Dor, a life-changing five-week trip to Israel and Eastern Europe. Participants will live at Kibbutz Tzuba, a secure facility in the mountains outside Jerusalem, while they explore Israel from border to border. They'll snorkel in the Red Sea and float in the Dead Sea; walk the winding streets of the Old City of Jerusalem and crawl through the caves of the Maccabean revolt; visit the sacred Western Wall and spend three days and nights camping under the starry skies of the Negev Desert. There will be opportunities to befriend Israeli teenagers, and chances to learn from the inhabitants of Kibbutz Yahel, the first Reform kibbutz in all of Israel. NFTY L'Dor V'Dor is the only summer program the Reform Movement is offering in 2004, and NFTY will be accepting applications up to the cutoff date of May 1. For more information, visit the web site at www.nfty.org/travel/2004.html, or contact Gadi Dobkin, Coordinator of NFTY travel programs at 212-452-6517, Gdobkin@urj.org.

SUMMER CAMP SCHOLARSHIPS

Anyone in need of scholarship funds for the NFTY Summer Camp, please contact an Executive Board member with your request. The Board members are, Judith Hersh, Starr Gantz, David Brown, Albert Kaplan, David Shraberg, and Marilyn Lieber.

NEW BOOK FROM THE UAHC PRESS

In a new book from the UAHC Press, author Elyse M. Goldstein approaches issues of women and Judaism from a new, contemporary perspective. "Seek Her Out" provides insight into Torah, halachah, and difficult questions of faith, such as: How does the portrayal of women in the Torah affect our view of women's place in Judaism? What is a woman's role in the synagogue and traditional rituals? And how should we speak about divinity? For more information, visit the UAHC Press web site at 222.uahcpress.com or contact the Press toll-free at 888-489-8242, Press@urj.org.

FOR MUSIC LOVERS ONLY!

This summer, there will be myriad opportunities for lovers of Jewish music to sing, play, and simply enjoy themselves. The Fourteenth Annual North American Jewish Choral Festival, scheduled for July 11-15, brings together conductors, composers, and fans of Jewish choral music for five days of workshops, study, and performances—as well as fun and friendship. At Mifgash Musicale, August 1-5 at HUC-JIR's Cincinnati campus, singers, accompanists, and choir leaders will take part in an in-depth study of liturgy and repertoire for the High Holy Days, as well as beginning and advanced Torah cantillation. Students will have the chance to work with composers-in-residence, Bonia Shur and Ben Steinberg, and also visit the historic Isaac M. Wise Plum Street Temple. And if you're interested in becoming a song leader at a religious school or summer camp, be sure to check out the Havah Nashirah Song Leader's Institute, June 4-6 at the Union's Olin-Sang-Ruby camp institute in Wisconsin. There, participants will learn and share new songs, hone songwriting skills, and learn techniques from the best song leaders around. For more information about these opportunities, visit the web site at www.urj.org/music, or contact the Department of Worship, Music, and Religious Living at 212-650-4226.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL MISSION STATEMENT

Adath Israel Congregation is a Reform Congregation, affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations (UAHC). This congregation is established to maintain a Temple of facilities for communal worship in the tradition of Reform Judaism, to provide a religious school for the instruction of children, and to engage in other activities to promote the fundamental principles of Judaism.

PLEASE LET US KNOW!!!

As a result of patient confidentiality, some area hospitals will not release to us the names of Jewish patients when our Temple office calls. Therefore, Rabbi Kline and the Temple are relying on you to let us know when someone is in the hospital. Please call us when you know about someone going into the hospital. Your help in this matter is invaluable.

MARCH 2004

VOL. 71 NO. 7

ADAR-NISAN- 5764

FROM RABBI MARC AARON KLINE

I remember spring, it is that beautiful time when the flowers bloom, the green returns to the grass, and the foliage warms the naked tree limbs. I also remember it happening a lot earlier. While I remember Cincinnati winters, I did not remember how long they last, and I find it interesting as people speak of the mild winter that we are currently enjoying. I guess it is a matter of perspective. In fact, I guess that for most things in life, perspective is far more controlling than any factual reality. Who caused the Civil War? Well, I guess it depends on which state in which one is reared.

The Torah is subject to much the same scrutiny. While the words do not change, we find ourselves in a continual search for yet another new meaning hidden deep within the bowels of the text. Actually, since the vowels applied to the text were late added, and possibly presented many changes in reading and understanding, that the true meanings intended by the authors are found deep in the vowels of the text (my apologies for the bad pun).

Actually, the magic of the book is that it becomes a different book every time it is read. Even though the words don't change, our new life experiences change how we understand them. The story of Noah meant something very different to me as a child, than it does as an adult, and each year, it continues to evolve. The timelessness of the Torah is the very reason why we are timeless. The story is as much about my life as it was about any other figure in the text. As we approach the Purim and Passover holidays, we have to remember that we are not allowed to reign ourselves to yesterday's interpretations of the text's effect on our lives. In fact, on Purim, we are commanded to get so drunk that we cannot tell the difference between Mordechai and Haman. Now, while I do not believe the command is a literal one, it does mean that we have to start over, from square one. We cannot rely on our prejudices of even right and wrong, in our decision making. Each idea has to spring from new thought, new commitment, and new data. Lest this sound too bizarre, we need to remember that this is the very essence of t'shuvah. When we ask God for forgiveness, we ask that the slate be wiped clean – without prejudice. When someone does his / her t'shuvah with us, we are to do the same. Our perspective and our perception must come from the position of healing.

The assumption is that if we can wipe out the prejudices that have tainted or trained our perceptions, that we will be left with the very basic presumption that we are just. If

Temple Adath Israel Is Creating It's Own Kind Of March Madness

March's calendar provides an incredible array of events as part of our 100th Anniversary Celebration. On March 5, Temple Sisterhood (a.k.a. Women of Reform Judaism) will be honored and they will lead our Shabbat worship service.

The next evening, March 6, is the 100th Anniversary Purim Ball. There will be a catered dinner, open bar, and DJ entertainment. You're invited to come in the dress of your favorite decade.

Rabbi David Ellenson will be our guest speaker at worship services on March 12. Rabbi David Ellenson is the President of Hebrew Union College- Jewish Institute of Religion, and is, by acclaim of Jewish leaders in and across the Jewish world, as one of the premier scholars of our time. He is a teacher's teacher and a Rabbi's Rabbi. Rabbi Ellenson will be here to share in our celebration and to share with us, his perspective, hopes, and thoughts about where Judaism, and in particular – Reform Judaism, is headed in the future.

Guest performers Judith Kaplan Ginsburgh and David Syme will perform a concert of music and song in our Temple social hall on March 13.

Former Temple Rabbis and Temple confirmands are invited to a reunion on March 26, when Rabbi Gary P. Zola will speak. Rabbi Gary P. Zola is the Executive Director of the American Jewish Archives. As he helps us celebrate our 100th anniversary, he will bring us into our country's 350th Jewish anniversary, as well. His discussions and presentations come from one of the world's finest and most complete Judaica collections. His sessions will help us move back and forth through our own history, allowing us much greater insight to our own cultural and religious foundations in this Commonwealth and the greater land of opportunity. Rabbi Zola is a historian with expertise in the history of Jews in the early years of the United States.

The calendar is packed with educational and entertaining programs. Come join us and celebrate our 100 years!

ADULT EDUCATION NEWS

"Finding A Jewish Path While The Ground Shifts Beneath Us". meets on Sunday mornings once a month.

The group is going through the texts very carefully to show how close reading (including Midrash) can fundamentally alter the interpretation of stories. Please join us on March 14 at 10 AM in the Temple library. The next class is April 18.

we allow ourselves to continually re-ground ourselves at that pivotal point, a starting point of justice, then we can work on not repeating the mistakes of history, not repeat the patterns of pain, and more freely move forward to a place where tzedakah becomes a way of life, not an activity in our lives. May our Purim t'shuvah be sweet and may it bring us joy, individually and as a community.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES NOTES:

At the February 3rd meeting, the Temple Board

- Voted to accept the recommendation of the Executive Committee on staff compensation levels for the upcoming budget year.
- Voted to recognize Martin Luther King Day as a Temple holiday.

BOOKS & BAGELS!!!

What could be better than Books and Bagels? The TAI Social Action Committee will be hosting its 3rd fun-filled fundraiser in support of service programs such as the "Adopt-a-School" program at Ashland Elementary.

On Sunday, March 21, from 9-12 noon, a USED BOOK SALE will take place at the Temple. Please help by:

1. Donating used books in good condition (adult and children's)
2. Purchasing books and bagels on March 21.

A bin has been placed in TAI's entrance hall for your donations. Join us as we bring together these two great Jewish traditions (food and learning) and raise some money in the process. For further information, please contact Anne Graff (264-9424) or Austin/Susan Cantor (278-2530)

TUESDAY BRIDGE CLUB

The Tuesday Bridge Group meets in the Temple Library beginning at 11 AM. Bring your lunch and play until 2 PM. You don't have to be an expert to join. This group is going strong, so if you like to play bridge, here's your chance to join and socialize with fellow Temple members.

If you wish to join in, please check with other players or the Temple office each week to see if the group is playing.

GUESS WHO'S COMING TO DINNER?

Circle March 26, 2004 on your calendar and watch for a special invitation.

You are invited to join who's coming to dinner for dessert following services and a presentation by Rabbi Gary P. Zola, historian from HUC.

To find out who's coming to dinner, search the remainder of the bulletin for the answer.

Did you find the answer in the February bulletin? If not, keep looking.

100TH ANNIVERSARY NEWS

GUEST ARTISTS TO PERFORM A CONCERT OF MUSIC AND SONG SATURDAY, MARCH 13 7:30 PM

As part of our 100th Anniversary celebrations, guest artists Judy Kaplan Ginsburgh and David Syme will be performing in our Temple Social Hall. Judy is a professional singer and recording artist who has won many awards, including twice receiving the prestigious Parent's Choice Award. Many people are familiar with her highly praised Havdalah Pajama music concert for Jewish families. Judy is currently a cantorial soloist at Touro Synagogue in New Orleans, Louisiana. David is a Juillard trained pianist who has performed in Lincoln Center, Kennedy Center and in major music halls throughout Europe. He has represented the U.S.A. in international piano competitions in Moscow and Warsaw to critical acclaim. His extensive recording career includes 20 CD's with orchestras such as the Royal Philharmonic, the London Philharmonic, the Vienna Symphony, and the Mineria Orchestra of Mexico City. His Gershwin concert with the Mexico City Symphony is shown repeatedly on ARTS TV stations. Because of the tremendous exposure of this video clip, David is becoming known as a definitive interpreter of Gershwin.

Together, Judy and David will present an evening that will include Jewish traditional and heritage music as well as classical and popular standards. A reception will follow the concert.

Judy Ginsberg will perform in concert with David Syme on March 13th.

ADULT EDUCATION NEWS

TORAH STUDY

Rabbi Kline conducts Torah Study in the TAI library, Saturdays at 9 AM on alternate weeks. He is joined by a congenial group that brings together members of TAI and others, who following, the ancient tradition of Judaism, love study and matters of the mind. The present study centers on the Book of Deuteronomy. If you enjoy wrestling with problems of life and faith, join this friendly group. March schedule is 3/13 and 3/27.

KOLLEL STUDY GROUP

Joe Engelberg leads this study of fundamental ideas of Jewish life and thought. Among these are spirituality, the nature of God, a critique of Biblical and traditional injunctions and laws, Jewish history, principles of the Reform movement, the relation of Judaism to Christianity, Islam, and Buddhism. The purpose of the Kollel group's study is not to assert these principals as eternal truth, nor to refute them, but to discover what wisdom there is in them and to expand upon them. Drop in any time and join in the provocative and friendly discussion. March Schedule is 3/6 and 3/20.

Torah Study & Kollel alternate. Enter the library any Saturday, all year, at 9 AM, for study and discussion, a little prayer, and Kiddush.

SOCIAL ACTION NEWS

BOX TOPS STILL NEEDED

We are still collecting General Mills "Box Tops for Education" for Ashland Elementary. The box is located in the main hallway. For more information, please contact Dianne Bazell at 278-3042.

HOPE CENTER DINNERS

The TAI Social Action Committee announces an additional opportunity to serve our wider community. We will be preparing and serving dinner at the Hope Center on March 28. Please contact Nancy Schoenberg at 323-8175 or at nesch@uky.edu. If you can donate special food items (i.e. fresh fruit or dessert), or wish to make a cash donation or can help prepare the dinners, we'd love to have you help us!

FOOD TRANSPORT!

We have expanded our participation in the Kentucky Harvest Food Rescue Program and need a few more volunteers to work for one hour a month, transporting day-old bread. Our routes run from the Beaumont Kroger to the Salvation Army on Main Street and from the Hartland Kroger to the Community Action Council on Georgetown Road. Pick-ups are on Mondays anytime between 8 AM and Noon. Please contact Karen Petrone at 226-9145 to volunteer.

BOOKS!

Volunteers in the Adopt-a-school program at Ashland Elementary have discovered that kindergarten level and easy reader story books are urgently needed for classroom use. Used books are welcome. There is a donation box in the lobby of the Temple.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

The Temple will be participating in an Interfaith Habitat for Humanity Build in the spring along with 13 other religious organizations. We are looking for a coordinator (or pair of coordinators) now. Later, we will be recruiting volunteers to help with the build. Please call Anne Graff (264-9424) or Susan Cantor (278-2530) if you are interested.

SUMMER IN ISRAEL

Attention teenagers (and their parents). This summer, the NFTY is once again offering L'Dor V'Dor, a life-changing five-week trip to Israel and Eastern Europe. Participants will live at Kibbutz Tzuba, a secure facility in the mountains outside Jerusalem, while they explore Israel from border to border. They'll snorkel in the Red Sea and float in the Dead Sea; walk the winding streets of the Old City of Jerusalem and crawl through the caves of the Maccabean revolt; visit the sacred Western Wall and spend three days and nights camping under the starry skies of the Negev Desert. There will be opportunities to befriend Israeli teenagers, and chances to learn from the inhabitants of Kibbutz Yahel, the first Reform kibbutz in all of Israel. NFTY L'Dor V'Dor is the only summer program the Reform Movement is offering in 2004, and NFTY will be accepting applications up to the cutoff date of May 1. For more information, visit the web site at www.nfty.org/travel/2004.html, or contact Gadi Dobkin, Coordinator of NFTY travel programs at 212-452-6517, Gdobkin@urj.org.

PHOTO DIRECTORY

We have arranged two additional dates for Temple families to have their portraits taken for inclusion in the Temple's "memory book" which will be printed in the late spring of this year. These dates are Thursday, April 8th and Wednesday, April 14th. In October, 135 families availed themselves of the opportunity of having their portraits taken. We would like to include as many of our 320 families as we possibly can in the book! Every family/individual who has their portrait taken will receive a FREE 8x10 portrait as well as a free copy of the book. The Temple also will receive additional free pages to use for our own material within the book. Please let us know that you are interested in having your portrait taken (if you have not done so already) by contacting Marilyn Lieber (266-1240) so that we can schedule your appointment.

FOR MUSIC LOVERS ONLY!

The Fourteenth Annual North American Jewish Choral Festival, scheduled for July 11-15, Mifgash Musicale, August 1-5 at HUC-JIR's Cincinnati campus

If you're interested in becoming a song leader at a religious school or summer camp, be sure to check out the Havah Nashirah Song Leader's Institute, June 4-6 at the Union's Olin-Sang-Ruby camp institute in Wisconsin.

For more information about these opportunities, visit the web site at www.urj.org/music, or contact the Department of Worship, Music, and Religious Living at 212-650-4226.

GOLDMAN UNION CAMP INSTITUTE

Our children are our connection to the Jewish future. In order to insure that this Jewish future is strong and vital, we bring our children to religious school and Hebrew school, attend services, and celebrate the Jewish holidays. Whenever possible, we further our own Jewish education so that we can teach our children about the values, history, ethics and ideals of our Judaism.

Living in a small Jewish community, the missing link in our children's growth as Jews is the chance to experience Judaism on a daily basis. You can find this at Goldman Union Camp Institute.

For the last several years, Temple Adath Israel has had one of the largest contingents of children at G.U.C.I. Each camper returned with a better understanding of his or her Judaism and Jewish identity.

I want you seriously to consider our regional Reform Jewish camp as a place for your child to spend 4 weeks this summer. Judaism teaches us to be the best we can be in all that we do. G.U.C.I. provides a Jewish atmosphere for this to take place. A brochure about the camp is available in the Temple office.

The Temple and CKJF have set aside funds for scholarships. Please call the Temple office about how to receive scholarship help. Funds are limited, but we will do everything we can to get your child to camp.

Remember the spaces fill up quickly, so get your application in as soon as possible!

BROTHERHOOD PROGRAM APRIL 18

How can you directly and significantly help the State of Israel?

Temple Adath Israel Brotherhood is proud to host

PRESCHOOL NEWS

Laura Creamer—Director

We are all enjoying winter and all it brings at TAI Preschool, but we are looking forward to Spring! Our 2 ½ and 3 year old classes spent the month of February learning about winter, while our 4 year old class explored the circus, had a fun Valentine's Day, and learned all about the rain forest. All of our classes celebrated Tu B'shevat through music, art, stories and a special snack.

We are busy planning for our Spring Fundraiser, on May 2nd. We will have a wonderful silent auction and bake sale, so be on the lookout for our tables in the hallways on that last day of religious school. We will have many special items to bid on!

Temple Adath Israel Preschool registration and enrollment for the 2004-2005 school year is now underway. Our wonderful and nurturing teaching staff will return for another exciting and fun-filled year, and we plan to fill out our enrollment to capacity. For more information about our preschool, to schedule a visit, or to enroll your child for the coming year, call Laura Creamer at 269-2979.

FAFTY GOES BOWLING MARCH 14

On Sunday, March 14, all of Temple Adath Israel Fourth and Fifth grade students are invited to go Bowling. Everyone will meet in the Temple social hall immediately following religious school dismissal where you can eat a brown bag lunch you should bring from home. From there we'll carpool to the Collins Bowling Lanes on Southland Drive for a 1 PM reservation.

Kids game cost $2.75; adults cost $4.00. Kids bowling shoe rental will be free.

RSVP to Lisa Miller 263-9870 so we can reserve the appropriate number of lanes and arrange transportation.

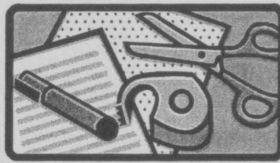

MSTYG NEWS

On Saturday, February 7th., 21 of the TAI MSTYG members spent a fun evening and night together. We started the evening with a wonderful Flaming Havdalah service led by the Gerall family and Corey Kline. It was truly something to behold. Havdalah was followed by some mixers and a rip-roaring game of Jewish Jeopardy emceed by the illustrious Rabbi Kline and Josh, who also helped with the games. Our arts and crafts project for the night was decorating and signing pillowcases and t-shirts so the kids would have a souvenir of the event. We ended our night with "Bend It Like Beckham", a movie selected by the girls, since they were victorious at Jewish Jeopardy. All of the kids seemed to have a great time and even went to bed at a fairly reasonable hour.

MSTYG would like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Gerall, the entire Kline family, Linda Noffsinger, Toni Reiss, Mr. McKee and Mr. Engel for helping make this night a success. We look forward to having more fun events like this really soon.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NEWS

Jane Gris —Director

On February 8, we had the opportunity to celebrate Tu B'Shevat. Tu B'Shevat is a wonderful holiday that gives us the opportunity to develop environmental awareness with our students. As we conducted a Tu B'Shevat seder with our students, we stressed the importance of preserving our environment. Our first and second grade students had the opportunity to go to Ohavay Zion and participate in their seder. These exchanges are important for our students to develop a wider range of Jewish connections and friendships.

On March 21st, we will be conducting our second annual Mitzvah Day. Our students will participate in some Social Action project in our community. If you have information about places in the community that need assistance, please contact me so that we can make arrangements to help out. If you would be willing to help drive students to various locations, please let me know. This is a great chance for our Jewish community to demonstrate that we are committed to principles of Tikkun Olam.

We are in the process of planning our schedules and programming for next year. We always welcome your input regarding programs that your children enjoyed, things we can improve, and schedules that work or do not work for your family. Our first year Hebrew program for our third grade students has been extremely successful and we plan to continue this program next year. Finally, if you are interested in teaching a regular class, special classes, or Hebrew, please give us a call.

TRYB NEWS

Over the Martin Luther King Jr. weekend (January 18-19) the TRYB hosted a lock-in where participants discussed diversity and how it applied to our lives today. Local Jewish teens as well as students from around the region met on Sunday afternoon and enjoyed many informational activities, a song session, and some free time to socialize. Discussion focused on gender/race issues and how exposed we are to other cultures around us.

On Monday morning, participants could either join the MLK march downtown or watch "The Two Sides of Jasper", chronicling the hate-crime trial in Jasper, Texas three years ago. All in all, the weekend was very successful as we had a great turnout and learned a lot about others and ourselves. Thanks to everyone who helped put on this outstanding program!

Sisterhood News

FROM THE PRESIDENT,
MARCIA BROWN

February was a busy month for Sisterhood. We hosted, along with the Jr. League, the Florence Crittenden Valentine's dinner for 9 residents. The girls made bracelets and picture albums and then we dined together, girls and members of both groups. I am not sure who had more fun, the girls or the volunteers! How nice to join hands with another women's group for a worthwhile community project. Also, we threw a kitchen shower, and enjoyed lunch or dinner, whichever suited our schedules! It was a very profitable event for what we can now refer to as our well stocked kitchen. All temple members benefit from our kitchen facilities, so I thank all those who participated in stocking our kitchen for the future. I hope everyone will appreciate the new items and help Sisterhood to keep the kitchen "just like home."

March is always our Mitzvah Crib month. Please donate new baby items that will be donated to a local children's charity. The crib will be located in the Temple foyer. We have some annual events coming up, so plan ahead and mark your calendars!

Sisterhood Shabbat
Congregational Passover Seder

These are just a few programs we have planned....other ideas and projects in the works!!

"As they say...better late than never!!! If you still have not joined Sisterhood, please consider becoming a part of our vital Temple women's group. Why join???? Sisterhood needs the support of all the women of our congregation. We welcome and need your strengths, your ideas, and time. Sisterhood members band together in friendship for programs that benefit our Temple and community, for social activities, study and most of all, our own individual growth. Sisterhood allows every woman an outlet to be creative, make new friendships, while at the same time being a strong collective voice and presence in our congregation. We join together to educate and socialize, fundraise for our religious school and other worthwhile projects, and in the process make lifelong friendships!! As an organization, Sisterhood supports the Yes Fund. Every time you send a donation for a Uniongram or purchase Yes Fund cards in our gift shop you are helping to support the Jewish Braille Institute of America, World Union for Progressive Judaism, Hebrew Union College and the Union of American Hebrew Congregations. Please know that every donation does make a difference!

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL MISSION STATEMENT

Adath Israel Congregation is a Reform Congregation, affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations (UAHC). This congregation is established to maintain a Temple of facilities for communal worship in the tradition of Reform Judaism, to provide a religious school for the instruction of children, and to engage in other activities to promote the fundamental principles of Judaism.

PLEASE LET US KNOW!!!

As a result of patient confidentiality, some area hospitals will not release to us the names of Jewish patients when our Temple office calls. Therefore, Rabbi Kline and the Temple are relying on you to let us know when someone is in the hospital. Please call us when you know about someone going into the hospital. Your help in this matter is invaluable.

Nisan-Iyar 5764

A Message from the Rabbi

Welcome to the Passover season. This is the time when families gather; friends are welcomed into our homes, and the story of our people finds its way into the dinner table discussion -- on at least one very special night. As we gather to read the Haggadah, partake of the symbolic foods, and participate in a ritual dating back thousands of years, we find ourselves both transported back in time and propelled into the future. The holiday begins with the reminder that "Avadim Hayinu l'Pharaoh b'Mitzrayim" -- "We were servants to Pharaoh in Egypt." We start the evening sitting in the flesh pots of Egypt, awaiting redemption, skeptical even as its promise stirs the air. As Moses came to the people Israel, he brought increased hardship upon them. While many argue that it was this increased burden that allowed the people to really appreciate their eventual freedom, at the time that the taskmasters imposed the increased work-load, no one really believed that Moses would actually accomplish his task of freeing Israel. We look at our problems, and too often, we sit and stare at them. We feel powerless to make a difference, and even when people offer help, they really only add to our burden. Not only are we stuck in our dilemma, but we now also feel guilty over turning away the offers of assistance from friends and loved ones. Until that moment when we do actually find ourselves ready to face our trauma, we sit, as did Egypt, caught in an increasingly oppressive quandary.

As we march through the Seder, we move forward in time. We learn that it is our responsibility to make freedom real. Were it not for the faith of Nachshon (the Rabbi's teach that he dove into the waters of the Sea, causing them to part), we would have been trapped and destroyed -- either physically at the sword of Pharaoh's charioteers or morally, as we marched back into Egypt, into an even harsher servitude. While Moses stood on top of the rock and prayed to God, asking for some miracle of deliverance,

THE PRESIDENT'S LINE

Spring, a new beginning, has finally arrived! The birds are happily chirping and building their nests, the magnificent bulbs are blooming, the trees are budding, and all is right with the Temple. Temple life is also very busy. The grand 100th celebration will be coming to a superb finale. Rabbi Eric Yoffie, President of the Union for Reform Judaism, will be a guest speaker at services and Julie Silver, singer/songwriter, will be performing at Singletary Center. I wish you all a happy Pesach and look forward to seeing everyone join together as a Temple community to celebrate the second Seder together. I know I will see you at these special events.

We have just enjoyed a fun Purim Carnival that TRYB put together for all. A special todah rabah to all TRYB members for all their endeavors and wonderful accomplishments. You are super!

I urge everyone to turn on and tune in to Ten Minutes of Torah. This is an opportunity to connect with Jewish text, issues, and topics. The messages are refreshing and invigorating. It is a way to bring the teachings of Torah into our busy lives.

Nachson created the miracle. The message the Rabbis send forward is clear enough. In facing the traumas that plague our world, we are responsible for the eventual "cure". If we do not say "Hinaeni -- Here I am God" then we condemn ourselves to retreating back into our pain and a perpetuation of our trauma. For those of us who wait for some divine intervention, an answer to a prayer for help, the seder tells us that our prayer can only be answered if we reach to meet God and make heaven and earth touch. Pirke Avot teaches us, "If I am not for myself, who will be for me." Our sages taught that miracles occur when we make the prayer of our heart become the deed of our being.

As the Seder concludes, we look to the future, "Bashana haba-ah bi-rushala-yim -- next year in Jerusalem." For those freed from Egypt, next year was a metaphor for the finish line in their trek across the wilderness. It represented the land of milk and honey, the place where we would be slave to no man, serving only the source of life and freedom. It is this journey that we travel still, each year, as we gather around the Seder table. We know then that the purpose of the Seder is not to create some miraculous vortex in time, where a supernatural interruption in nature wipes away all that plagues the world. It will take a year of work and dedication. Over the next year ... if we focus; if we work with integrity; if we dedicate ourselves to healing; and if we commit our souls to repairing our world ... then we can claim to be approaching the age where peace will reign -- the conclusion of the journey our ancestors began several thousand years ago. Jerusalem is then not a city in the Middle East, but a state of being -- of peace ... even right here in Lexington, Kentucky. It is the promise of a loving community, an extended family, a sacred relationship and an unqualified spiritual partnership. It is the blessing promised to us through our ancestors Abraham and Sarah and the prayer we offer on behalf of our children and our children's children. May this year, be the year we make it come true.

FROM OUR REFORM KIBBUTZIM

A message from Ron Bernstein and the Reform Kibbutzim:

It has been a rough winter in the desert. At first we were rain starved, and now, almost too much rain. But, I can now start communicating about the work we do at Kibbutz Yahel and Kibbutz Lotan. I know that I had spoken of sending these earlier, thank you for the patience. Let me start by describing how a common phenomenon in the desert (and one which probably more people have heard about, seen in movies and maybe imagined) plays itself out in the Arava. Place yourselves in the Arava desert, at Yahel as the sun is about to rise over the Edom Mountain range in the east. We have a slight desert morning chill, and a barely noticeable breeze from the Northeast. The sun peeps over the mountains, spreading its rays over the houses first and then the fields below. The air is noticeably warmer, but also the breeze that was coming from the Northeast suddenly comes to a standstill. Being a veteran desert person and also a farmer, I suspect the worst. In an hour my suspicions are confirmed as the wind is now coming from the Southwest. To a veteran desert farmer that means one thing-- DUSTSTORM. At 10:00, as I glance to the SW, I see with alarm the huge cloud of dust and sand closing in on Yahel, and within 5 minutes we are completely engulfed by powerful, unrelenting winds and burning dust. As I drive, I cannot see more than ten yards in every direction. Ten minutes ago I could see the kibbutz a mile to the west and the Edom Mountains to the east. Now I could not even see the tender barreling towards me, and only at the last split second was I able to avert an accident.

During the dust storm that can last from 5-10 hours, our houses are covered in a fine layer of dust. Even though I closed my windows there is not a chance to hermetically seal a house in the Arava storms. Some years we may experience a storm once every two weeks from early March to mid-April. On the other hand, some years we experience two storms a week from mid-February till mid-May like last year. Last week we had one from Thursday afternoon until Friday mid-morning. Damage? Last year the storms occurred during the flowering of the pomelo, causing a 40% decrease in yield. Plastic hothouses are blown away. But we survive as our ancestors have for thousands of years. And the reason is simple. The Arava is an incredibly beautiful setting, one which I would not trade for anywhere.

OUTREACH NEWS

Outreach offers support and learning opportunities for intermarried couples, Jews-by-Choice, and all others who are seeking information about Judaism. Adopted in 1981 by the UAHC, Outreach provides programs that help participants deal positively with the issues presented by intermarriage and conversion. The program is meant to make everyone feel more comfortable practicing Judaism and participating in the Jewish Community. Stacy & Art Dunahue graciously agreed to chair this group this year and now that Art has been called for duty to serve our country, Stacy will carry on the great job they started together. Be sure to join the Outreach group and learn together. Outreach will meet the 3rd Thursday of each month. Watch the bulletin for any changes in place of meetings.

Dinner 6:00 PM

Meeting 7:00 PM

Watch your mail for additional details.

ADULT EDUCATION

Rabbi Kline conducts Torah Study in the TAI library, Saturdays at 9 AM on alternate weeks. He is joined by a congenial group that brings together members of TAI and others, who following, the ancient tradition of Judaism, love study and matters of the mind. The present study centers on the Book of Deuteronomy. If you enjoy wrestling with problems of life and faith, join this friendly group. April schedule is 4/10 and 4/24.

KOLLEL STUDY GROUP

Joe Engelberg leads this study of fundamental ideas of Jewish life and thought. Among these are spirituality, the nature of God, a critique of Biblical and traditional injunctions and laws, Jewish history, principles of the Reform movement, the relation of Judaism to Christianity, Islam, and Buddhism. The purpose of the Kollel group's study is not to assert these principals as eternal truth, nor to refute them, but to discover what wisdom there is in them and to expand upon them. Drop in any time and join in the provocative and friendly discussion. April Schedule is 4/3 and 4/17.

LARRY KANT ADULT JEWISH GROWTH CLASS

"Finding A Jewish Path While The Ground Shifts Beneath Us". meets on Sunday mornings once a month. The group is going through the texts very carefully to show how close reading (including Midrash) can fundamentally alter the interpretation of stories. Please join us on April 18 at 10 AM in the Temple library.

BOX TOPS STILL NEEDED

SOCIAL ACTION

We are still collecting General Mills "Box Tops for Education" for Ashland Elementary. The box is located in the main hallway. For more information, please contact Dianne Bazell at 278-3042.

MITZVAH OF THE MONTH

The Social Action Committee has selected the Bluegrass Animal Welfare League for the Mitzvah of the Month. During this year, the Temple will be donating $100 to each recipient organization in honor of our 100th Anniversary. The Bluegrass Animal Welfare League (BAWL) is a non-profit organization, incorporated in 1989, whose goals are to promote community education related to the humane treatment of animals and the development of a spay/neuter subsidy program. Currently, in 2004, BAWL is providing funds for a humane education program in 89 elementary schools in the Central Kentucky area. This educational program, offered by the Humane Society of the United States, includes a monthly newspaper and activities book that teaches children about animals and the environment. BAWL also works with local veterinarians and sends vouchers to assist people in need to pay for the surgery costs of spaying and neutering their pets. For more information or if you are interested in volunteering with annual fundraisers such as Picnic with the Pups or the Pet Festival, contact Virginia Morris, Director BAWL at 873-0975. Donations can be made to BAWL P.O. Box 4704, Lexington, Kentucky, 40544.

THE PRESIDENT'S LINE (from page 1)

April 25th is the date of our congregational meeting. At that time my mantel of presidential responsibility (sometimes heavy but more often a joy) will be passed on. Many thanks to all for allowing me to serve as your President. What an honor and pleasure it has been.

From Covenant of the Heart

Reach out as far and as high as you can Reach out with love as freely as you can.

Love the people, love the birds, and the bees.

Love the flowers, plants, and trees.

Reach out and listen to those that need understanding.

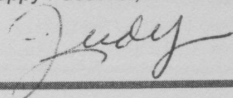

But most of all, reach out and give comfort to those who have a need.

And another think: reach out and give all you can for you will see—The young and the old will spend many glorious returns.

Kindness and love and respect is all we have to give.

May we (as a community) give this in abundance.

Happy Passover,

100th ANNIVERSARY NEWS

As the penultimate event of our Centennial Celebration, the Temple will host Rabbi Eric Yoffie, President of the Union of Reform Judaism.

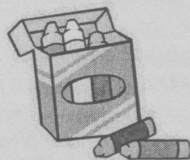

To begin the evening we will hold a dinner to which all members are invited. A catered, buffet style dinner is planned with an approximate cost of $10 per person.

Everyone will receive an invitation to the dinner through the mail.

Please make every effort to attend this special event.

Please see the information on the upcoming events on pages 11 and 12.

PRESCHOOL

Laura Creamer, Preschool Director

March was a great month in the preschool. We learned about Purim, made groggers and had a great time shaking them when we heard Haman's name! The 2 1/2 and 3 year old classes are starting to talk about Spring and all that it brings! The 4 year old class learned about different countries in March. They really enjoyed having some parents come in to talk about their native countries and cultures and they loved their Mexican festival.

We had a great time at our Spring Family Night when our families brought a pot luck supper and the children sang some songs for us!

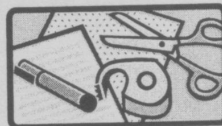

Registration for the 2004-2005 school year is now in progress and classes are filling up quickly. TAI Preschool offers half day classes for 2 1/2, 3, and 4 year olds students (pre-K). Early drop-off and extended day options are also available.

Our professional and caring teachers engage our students in exciting daily activities that foster a love for learning and the confidence to explore personal creativity. The curriculum is inclusive of Jewish learning activities, and celebrations. For more information about preschool enrollment, call Laura Creamer at 269-2979.

Our Spring Fund Raiser will be Sunday, May 2nd with an excellent Silent Auction and yummy bake sale! Mark your calendars and be sure to come out to support TAI Preschool!! Happy Passover!!!

Please note: A man's ring was found in the Temple parking lot.
If you lost your ring, call to

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Jane Gris , Youth Education Director

March was a great month where we started with a wonderful Purim celebration, enjoyed the music of Judy Ginsburgh, and ended with our second annual Mitzvah Day. We must thank the TRYB for a wonderful Purim Carnival that was a truly miraculous event. The TRYB worked hard on Saturday evening to prepare for the carnival. After the TRYB left, our building was burglarized and many of the signs and games were destroyed. In two hours on Sunday morning, the TRYB came together and re-created a beautiful carnival. Our children thoroughly enjoyed the event and never knew that there had been a problem. Thanks to all of our TRYB members who worked so hard to make this possible.

I also want to take this opportunity to thank all of the students, teachers, and parents who have made it possible for us to assist the HOPEMobile each week. The HOPEMobile is an outreach program that serves the homeless on the streets of Lexington. Each weekday a team of individuals provide food, medical services, and referrals to homeless individuals. Our religious school parents and classes are assisting the HOPEMobile in their efforts to provide food for the homeless.

Each Saturday, a religious school parent picks up day-old bread, muffins, rolls, and cookies from Great Harvest in Palomar Center. The bread is brought to the Temple and one religious school class makes cheese, bologna, or peanut butter sandwiches. The sandwich fillings are being purchased from the religious school Tzedakah funds. The religious school parent then takes the sandwiches and all of the bread and other items from Great Harvest to the Hope Center where they are distributed to the homeless from the HOPEMobile on Mondays. This is a wonderful opportunity to move great food to those in need and to teach our children to assist our community.

SISTERHOOD

From the President Marcia Brown

Busy, Busy, Busy... March proved to be a busy month...Sisterhood Shabbat was a spiritual, energizing and special service. Our speaker, Jo Stamler-Thompson inspired and educated the congregation about Sisterhood. The past presidents of Temple Adath Israel Sisterhood were recognized and honored. What a moving sight to see so many dedicated and amazing women gather together on the Bimah to be honored. These women paved the way for our Sisterhood to become what it is today and we thank them from the bottom of our hearts. It was a beautiful and creative service and I thank Nancy Redmon for all her hard work. The Mitzvah Crib was located in the Temple foyer, thanks to LisaMarie DeYoung and Regina Meade. A big thank you to all who graciously donated items. The charities chosen this year were The Nest and The Center for Women & Children. The items will be distributed to families who are in need and meet certain requirements set by community social workers and case workers. This is just one of the many worthwhile community service projects Sisterhood takes pride in doing. Another thank you is in order to the Temple members who were being so generous in either donating items or making a donation for our kitchen. Taking care of the kitchen, which all Temple members reap the benefits, is just one of the many Sisterhood functions and projects we are involved in. THANK YOU!

Mark April 6 on your calendars! The Congregational Seder is one of the most widely attended events sponsored by the Sisterhood. Rose Rita Wurmser, Leona Stern, Connie Grobstein, and Mary Engel, can do this dinner for usually over 200 people in their sleep! We always look forward to the delicious dinner and being together as a community! Please join other families from our community and come together to celebrate this special holiday. Also, please volunteer your cooking expertise or time to help set up or do clean up. This always is a wonderful evening, because it is such a group effort. (continued next column)

Also, in April, Sisterhood will join with Brotherhood for a program full of gardening tips...Spring is here!! Coming up is the District 10 Biennial in Cincinnati. The conference provides Sisterhood the opportunity to learn, meet and schmooze with Sisterhood members from our district. If anyone is interested in attending, please let me know. This is a great venue to get fresh ideas, get energized, and make new friends.

I always mention that is not too late to become a member of our Sisterhood, it is a heartfelt plea...we have many, many wonderful and exciting programs and worthwhile projects planned. The time has come for a new regime for our Sisterhood. If you would like to become an active board member...we need your ideas, your creativity, and we need YOU! Please let me know if you would be interested in joining our board, in any capacity, for the 2004-2006 term. Our programs and projects continue to go on with sometimes just a few participants, but just think of the effect when we all give our time and energy to better our Temple, our community and ourselves! That is what Temple Adath Israel Sisterhood is all about!!! Hope to see you all in April. Happy Passover!

L'Shalom,
Marcia

COMMUNITY NEWS

MARCH FOR FREEDOM OF CHOICE!

On April 25, 2004, the Reform Movement will join with pro-choice organizations including the National Organization for Women, Planned Parenthood, and NARL/Pro-Choice America for a march in Washington, DC to protect women's reproductive rights. You too can be a part of this historic event—for more information, please visit the web pages at www.rj.org/choice, or contact the Religious Action Center of Reform Judaism at 202-387-2800, choice@rac.org.

SUMMER IN ISRAEL

Attention teenagers (and their parents). This summer, the NFTY is once again offering L'Dor V'Dor, a life-changing five-week trip to Israel and Eastern Europe. Participants will live at Kibbutz Tzuba, a secure facility in the mountains outside Jerusalem, while they explore Israel from border to border. They'll snorkel in the Red Sea and float in the Dead Sea; walk the winding streets of the Old City of Jerusalem and crawl through the caves of the Maccabean revolt; visit the sacred Western Wall and spend three days and nights camping under the starry skies of the Negev Desert. There will be opportunities to befriend Israeli teenagers, and chances to learn from the inhabitants of Kibbutz Yahel, the first Reform kibbutz in all of Israel. NFTY L'Dor V'Dor is the only summer program the Reform Movement is offering in 2004, and NFTY will be accepting applications up to the cutoff date of May 1. For more information, visit the web site at www.nfty.org/travel/2004.html, or contact Gadi Dobkin, Coordinator of NFTY travel programs at 212-452-6517, Gdobkin@urj.org.

CRAFT & KIBBITZ

We continue to look for people to join us for the Handcrafters group. The times may change in order for more people to participate. Watch your bulletin or an e-mail to keep informed of the days and times of the meetings.

Please call the Temple office at 269-2979 and join this great group of people.

GOLDMAN UNION CAMP INSTITUTE

Our children are our connection to the Jewish future. In order to insure that this Jewish future is strong and vital, we bring our children to religious school and Hebrew school, attend services, and celebrate the Jewish holidays. Whenever possible, we further our own Jewish education so that we can teach our children about the values, history, ethics and ideals of our Judaism.

Living in a small Jewish community, the missing link in our children's growth as Jews is the chance to experience Judaism on a daily basis. You can find this at Goldman Union Camp Institute.

For the last several years, Temple Adath Israel has had one of the largest contingents of children at G.U.C.I. Each camper returned with a better understanding of his or her Judaism and Jewish identity.

I want you seriously to consider our regional Reform Jewish camp as a place for your child to spend 4 weeks this summer. Judaism teaches us to be the best we can be in all that we do. G.U.C.I. provides a Jewish atmosphere for this to take place. A brochure about the camp is available in the Temple office.

*The Temple and CKJF have set aside funds for scholarships. Please call the Temple office about how to receive scholarship help. Funds are limited, but we will do everything we can to get your child to camp. Remember the spaces fill up quickly, so get your application in as soon as possible!

TUESDAY BRIDGE CLUB

The Tuesday Bridge Group meets in the Temple Library beginning at 11 AM. Bring your lunch and play until 2 PM. You don't have to be an expert to join. This group is going strong, so if you like to play bridge, here's your chance to join and socialize with fellow Temple members.

If you wish to join in, please check with other players or the Temple office each week to see if the group is playing.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL MISSION STATEMENT

Adath Israel Congregation is a Reform Congregation, affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations (UAHC). This congregation is established to maintain a Temple of facilities for communal worship in the tradition of Reform Judaism, to provide a religious school for the instruction of children, and to engage in other activities to promote the fundamental principles of Judaism.

PLEASE LET US KNOW!!!

As a result of patient confidentiality, some area hospitals will not release to us the names of Jewish patients when our Temple office calls. Therefore, Rabbi Kline and the Temple are relying on you to let us know when someone is in the hospital. Please call us when you know about someone going into the hospital. Your help in this matter is invaluable.

APRIL 23—RABBI ERIC YOFFIE WILL SPEAK AT SERVICE

RABBI ERIC YOFFIE
PRESIDENT
UNION FOR REFORM JUDAISM

"When the torch was passed, we knew we were embarking on a new year, a new approach to congregation life, and a new commitment to Torah." Rabbi Marc Kline of Temple Adath Israel in Lexington, KY stated further, "When Rabbi Eric Yoffie became President of the Reform Movement in North America, we knew that the traditions of over 130 years were to be both proudly protected and pushed to evolve." The proud commitment to tradition in the midst of a changing modernity is the character of the Reform Jewish movement. As President of the movement, Rabbi Yoffie stands in the line of leadership that have built a representation of over 1.5 million North American Jews, in over 900 Temples and Synagogues. In 1999, the Jewish Forward named Rabbi Yoffie the number one Jewish leader in America, referring to him as a "tribune of the next generation."

In celebrating its 100th Anniversary, Temple Adath Israel will welcome Rabbi Yoffie to address the congregation and attendant community at Shabbat worship, Friday, April 23rd. Services will begin at 7:30 PM. The message of social justice and spiritual commitment that has been the core of Rabbi Yoffie's rabbinate has also been the legacy of Adath Israel's first one-hundred years. The Temple's commitment to its own family and to the greater Lexington community has given it a proud reputation and a hopeful jump into its next one-hundred years of service. "Having Rabbi Yoffie here will be a testimony to the reputation that our Temple enjoys in the world's Reform movement." Temple President, Judy Hersh is proud to have served the congregation over the planning and celebration of this anniversary. "What a tremendous and awesome privilege it is to be Temple President during this time. I have inherited an office passed through great leaders in our history, and have the blessing to be able to start the next one-hundred years of leadership tradition." Rabbi Kline added, "In many ways, we represent the proud history of Reform Judaism. To have this legacy affirmed by Rabbi Yoffie on our anniversary provides us with the brightest step into the future."

Installed as president of what is now the Union for Reform Judaism, in June 1996, Rabbi Yoffie has led the Reform movement in an exciting new direction, moving congregational life toward greater attention to Torah study and adult literacy, and giving special emphasis to religious school education and youth.

Rabbi Yoffie has also been deeply involved in issues of social justice and community concern. A prominent spokesperson for sensible gun control, he was the only religious leader to appear at the Million Mom March in May of 2000. He has been a strong voice for new directions and a warning of relations between the Catholic Church and the Jews, as a former executive Director of the Association of Reform Zionists of America, he has also worked tirelessly in Israel on the matters of religious and political pluralism. Well at home in the Prime Minister's office, Rabbi Yoffie is also a respected dignitary in the many capitals of the world.

The celebration continues Saturday night, April 24, with a concert by an amazing talent, Julie Silver at Singletary Center. Admission is free, though a donation of children's books for the Ashland Elementary School Library would be appreciated. The concert is at 7:30 PM.

JULIE SILVER IN CONCERT—APRIL 24—SINGLETARY CENTER

JULIE SILVER

"Chazak, chazak v'nitchazek!" That's right. Temple Adath Israel has finished yet another chapter of its story. No differently than we do as we finish a book of the Torah, we wish each other the age old blessing for strength. In honor of its 100th Anniversary, both the celebration of the past and the hope for the future, the Temple invites one who put the words of this blessing to music. Singer/songwriter, Julie Silver, is one of the biggest stars of Jewish contemporary music.

At 7:30 PM on April 24, 2004, Julie will come to Lexington to share a night of humor, storytelling, and of course music, music, music. A reception in honor of the artist and the Temple's celebration will follow.

"Few performers engage audiences as quickly or with as much warmth and soul as Julie Silver. Simply put, Julie's ability to read her audiences combined with her remarkable comic timing make for an evening audiences talk about for weeks..." (Artist Booking International) Julie has been entertaining audiences for years through her career as a cantorial soloist, her experience as a youth group song leader, and her excellence as an artist-in-residence. She really knows how to touch the souls of all generations. "Julie walks into a community and changes it forever." Temple Adath Israel Rabbi, Marc Kline has known Julie for nine years. "She walked on to the stage at the Biennial convention in Atlanta and mesmerized a crowd of four thousand. She was as awed by being on that stage as we were listening to her musical calls for justice, for celebration, and for love."

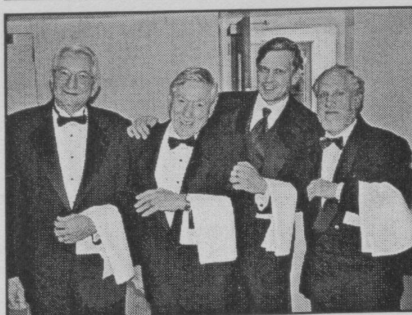

Julie has a diverse style, consisting of both liturgical-based music, social justice incitement, as well as new American Jewish ballads. Her music is inspiring, engaging, exciting, emotional, and spiritual. As her music has matured through the publication of the first four albums (Together, Chazak: From Strength to Strength, Walk With Me, and Beyond Tomorrow), her humility and engaging charm has remained unchanged. With her latest album, Notes from Montana, she firmly demonstrates her lifelong passion for social justice. It is with honor, pleasure, and excitement that Temple Adath Israel invites the Lexington community to enjoy an evening of celebration with the amazing Julie Silver.

Please join us on April 24, 2004 at the Singletary Center in Lexington, Kentucky for this joyous event. Admission is free, but in keeping with the Temple's commitment to its work in the community, there is a request that attendees bring a children's book that can be added to the Ashland Elementary School Library. Temple Adath Israel has adopted the school and its members spend a great deal of time mentoring and supporting the great work that happens within the walls of this progressive school. For more information about the concert, the volunteer opportunities available at the school, or any other facet of the Temple's 100th Anniversary, please contact the Temple office at (859) 269-2979. We look forward to seeing you there!

Iyar-Sivan 5764

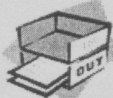

A Message from the Rabbi

When Moses met God atop Mt. Sinai, he asked, "When I get to Egypt and start telling Pharaoh what to do, whom shall I say sent me?" God responded with the quizzical "Ehyeh asher ehyeh." Translating this has been problematic, to say the least. Depending how one interprets these words, one might find themselves anywhere from the most fundamentalist movements in Judaism or at home in a Tibetan Buddhist Temple. The word "eyeh" can refer to the past, present, or future tense of the verb "to be". Literally, it can be read as a past, present or future tense of "I am." Quite simply, God exists. The "Yod Hey Vav Hey" associated with God's name is then not a proper noun, but an affirmation of "BEING." And according to the late Martin Buber, this sense of being -- sense of God -- is to be individually experienced. God is open to interpretation. That is, in many religions, a radical thought. It is, though, the essence of Judaism. Since we are approaching Shavuot, I want to recommend a book on the subject: "Finding God," by Rabbis Daniel Syme and Rifat Sonsino. The book contains about twenty different Jewish Views of what God is..

Having opened the door to a discussion of God's nature here, I will go the step further and argue that the most important piece of Buber's understanding of the "I - Thou" relationship is not God. The most important partner in that relationship is you. Even under the most fundamentalist ideologies, if we refuse to act, God most often remains powerless. We choose who and what to be and how to see and approach God. In so choosing, we demonstrate that being made in God's image allows a great deal of freedom: no one has the market cornered on the nature of God.

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

The 100th Anniversary Celebration of Temple Adath Israel has come to a close. A heartfelt thank you goes to Anita & Harold Baker, Annette & Tomas Milch, H., John McDonald, Rabbi Kline, and the entire committee for their work and effort over the past several years. We rediscovered our past, and are ready to move on to our future.

Use of scrip is very vital to the Temple. One hundred Kroger cards are currently being used, and produced an income of $7,500 this past year. To those persons, I say, "Todah Rabah". Thank you. Let's aim higher! Find that card Ben sent you months ago, or pick up a new one for yourself, family members, or even friends. The Kroger card can also be used in the pharmacy. If you don't shop at Kroger's, Slone gift certificates are readily available as well as Meijer applications.

The Shavuot and Confirmation service is May 25th. Come join this celebration of our Temple youth, the future of Reform Judaism.

Thank you to Sisterhood and Temple for making Installation 2004 a success.

L'Shalom,

Starr

Likewise, we choose what attributes are to define us and what involvements and relationships are to occupy our thoughts, our time, and our attention. Those that fill our calendar are the ones at the top of our priority list. Admitting that we make choices is not necessarily a bad thing. There are many good reasons for choosing one event over another, or even one person over another. At some real level, the criteria upon which you choose is not even always left up to you. If a program fills some need in your life, it will become a priority choice. We all have needs. We answer these needs by seeking the "right fit." There was a time when activities such as Temple life were hard-wired into our calendar and into our fiber. We live in a very different world today. We have greater access to many more opportunities than did our parents or grandparents. So, we have more choices to make. Sometimes, there is not enough time for everything we want to choose, and thus -- some things can not be included. Knowing that we want you to make Temple a priority in your life, we need to make you a priority in Temple life. We need to know what you seek. We need to know what we can do to fill holes that exist, and enhance the celebrations you already enjoy. We really need to accept the responsibility that comes along with Temple membership. We need to provide each other with an extended family.

On Shavuot, we celebrate receiving the Torah at Sinai. In the eyes of our sages, each of us is a living Torah. Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel said that we do not need more Torah books. We need more Torah people. At this holiday season, we need to celebrate receiving each other. We need to become more proficient at welcoming each other and engaging each other -- being a blessing for each other. As we succeed in this extension of ourselves, we will find ourselves being more compassionately received and welcomed by each other. Have a great last holiday before summer!

PLANNING AHEAD FOR PROGRAMS

Some of the programs in the works for the 2004-05 fiscal year are:

- A trip to the Louisville Glassworks Museum
- A congregational Tu B'Shevat seder on January 24
- Packing for College -- a workshop for teens & parents
- New Initiatives from the Membership committee:
- B'ruchim Haba-im (Warm Welcome) - an effort by a group of Temple members to welcome new members
- Sunday Schmoozes -- a coffee and bagel get together for parents of children in religious school

Help develop the programs for our Temple community by submitting your ideas to Toni Reiss, Program Coordinator.

GOLDMAN UNION CAMP

GOLDMAN UNION CAMP INSTITUTE

Our children are our connection to the Jewish future. In order to insure that this Jewish future is strong and vital, we bring our children to religious school and Hebrew school, attend services, and celebrate the Jewish holidays. Whenever possible, we further our own Jewish education so that we can teach our children about the values, history, ethics and ideals of our Judaism.

Living in a small Jewish community, the missing link in our children's growth as Jews is the chance to experience Judaism on a daily basis. You can find this at Goldman Union Camp Institute.

For the last several years, Temple Adath Israel has had one of the largest contingents of children at G.U.C.I. Each camper returned with a better understanding of his or her Judaism and Jewish identity.

I want you seriously to consider our regional Reform Jewish camp as a place for your child to spend 4 weeks this summer. Judaism teaches us to be the best we can be in all that we do. G.U.C.I. provides a Jewish atmosphere for this to take place. A brochure about the camp is available in the Temple office.

The Temple and CKJF have set aside funds for scholarships. Please call the Temple office about how to receive scholarship help. Funds are limited, but we will do everything we can to get your child to camp. Remember the spaces fill up quickly, so get your application in as soon as possible!

OUTREACH NEWS

Outreach offers support and learning opportunities for intermarried couples, Jews-by-Choice, and all others who are seeking information about Judaism. Adopted in 1981 by the UAHC, Outreach provides programs that help participants deal positively with the issues presented by intermarriage and conversion. The program is meant to make everyone feel more comfortable practicing Judaism and participating in the Jewish Community. Be sure to join the Outreach group and learn together. Outreach will meet the 3rd Thursday of each month. Watch the bulletin for any changes in place of meetings.

ADULT EDUCATION TORAH STUDY

Rabbi Kline conducts Torah Study in the TAI library, Saturdays at 9 AM on alternate weeks. He is joined by a congenial group that brings together members of TAI and others, who following, the ancient tradition of Judaism, love study and matters of the mind. The present study centers on the Book of Deuteronomy. If you enjoy wrestling with problems of life and faith, join this friendly group. May schedule is 5/8 and 5/22.

KOLLEL STUDY GROUP

Joe Engelberg leads this study of fundamental ideas of Jewish life and thought. Among these are spirituality, the nature of God, a critique of Biblical and traditional injunctions and laws, Jewish history, principles of the Reform movement, the relation of Judaism to Christianity, Islam, and Buddhism. The purpose of the Kollel group's study is not to assert these principals as eternal truth, nor to refute them, but to discover what wisdom there is in them and to expand upon them. Drop in any time and join in the provocative and friendly discussion. May Schedule is 5/1 and 5/15, 5/29.

HEBREW MARATHON

May 23 & 30 from 2-5:30 PM

Rabbi Kline will conduct a Hebrew Marathon. Learn to read Hebrew in two afternoons. Call the Temple office to get your name on the list to attend these two events.

SOCIAL ACTION

BOX TOPS STILL NEEDED

We are still collecting General Mills "Box Tops for Education" for Ashland Elementary. The box is located in the main hallway. For more information, please contact Dianne Bazell at 278-3042.

MITZVAH OF THE MONTH

The Social Action Committee has selected the Bluegrass Animal Welfare League for the Mitzvah of the Month. During this year, the Temple will be donating $100 to each recipient organization in honor of our 100th Anniversary. The Bluegrass Animal Welfare League (BAWL) is a non-profit organization, incorporated in 1989, whose goals are to promote community education related to the humane treatment of animals and the development of a spay/neuter subsidy program. Currently, in 2004, BAWL is providing funds for a humane education program in 89 elementary schools in the Central Kentucky area. This educational program, offered by the Humane Society of the United States, includes a monthly newspaper and activities book that teaches children about animals and the environment. BAWL also works with local veterinarians and sends vouchers to assist people in need to pay for the surgery costs of spaying and neutering their pets. For more information or if you are interested in volunteering with annual fundraisers such as Picnic with the Pups or the Pet Festival, contact Virginia Morris, Director BAWL at 873-0975. Donations can be made to BAWL P.O. Box 4704, Lexington, Kentucky, 40544.

TAI CINEMA

TAI CINEMA OF 2004 PRESENTS A TREASURY OF JEWISH FILM

The TAI Cinema has compiled a film library including Yiddish and Israeli films with English subtitles. The films range from the 1930's, starring actors from the Yiddish theatre, to contemporary Israeli film.

Donation for nosh and film -
$2.00

Join us on May 30, 2004 AT 3 PM for the next film
"Brivele Der Mamen"
(A letter to Mother).

The June 27th film will be Song of the Siren.

CRAFT AND KIBBITZ

We continue to look for people to join us for the Hand-crafters group. The times may change in order for more people to participate. Watch your bulletin or an e-mail to keep informed of the days and times of the meetings.

Please call the Temple office at 269-2979 and join this great group of people.

Please send your new e-mail address to Sandee at Sandee@textai.org so you can receive the weekly e-mail news. Many people have been dropped by the service due to incorrect e-mail addresses. We need your help to keep the data base updated.

TUESDAY BRIDGE CLUB

The Tuesday Bridge Group meets in the Temple Library beginning at 11 AM. Bring your lunch and play until 2 PM. You don't have to be an expert to join. This group is going strong, so if you like to play bridge, here's your chance to join and socialize with fellow Temple members.

If you wish to join in, please check with other players or the Temple office each week to see if the group is playing.

MAZAL TOV

To Bruce & Rachel Belin on the birth of their son, Benjamin, on March 31, 2004. Bob & Jo Belin are the proud grandparents.

Dr. Harriett Rose, on being chosen for the fourth annual Henry Clay High School Hall of Fame. She will be installed as a 2004 honoree at the Hall of Fame Banquet on 6 PM, Friday, May 13 at Henry Clay Cafeteria.

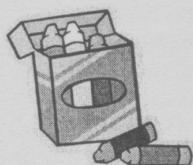

Congratulations to Jordan Bryan and Tristan Smith on being selected to participant in the Lexington Sister Cities Commission exchange program to Japan. The ambassadors will be staying with families in Toyota City and Shizunai, Japan. Over the two week program in June; they will attend middle schools, tour many sites as well as visit (the Japanese) horse country.

Condolences To

To Regina Meade, on the death of her uncle, John Floyd, on April 8, 2004.

To Joe Miller, Samye Miller, Freda Miller, and Faith Miller Cole, on the death of their aunt, Bernice Herman, on April 20, 2004

PRESCHOOL

Laura Creamer, Preschool Director

Happy Spring!!! We at the Preschool are so happy to see Spring and all it brings!!! We have been spending a lot of time outside, planting, playing and running!!! We planted flowers on our playground so that we could enjoy them while we are outside playing, so come on around to the back of the building to see what we have done. We enjoyed our Spring Break, and came back to learn about Passover and to have our seders!! We are so glad that so many parents could come in and celebrate with us!

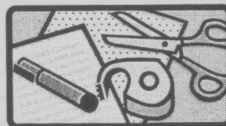

Many thanks to all of our parents who have volunteered in the classrooms this year. A special thanks to Melinda Fitzcharles, who has come once a month to do some wonderful artwork with the 3 and 4 year old classes; Eve Stern, who has spent a lot of time in the 4 year old classroom, doing all kinds of cooking and craft projects; and Beth Ellen Rosenbaum, who has spent time doing lots of musical things with the 3 year olds.

Don't forget about our Spring Fund Raiser on May 2nd, as we will have lots of fun and exciting things to bid on during the Silent Auction and delicious things to eat at our Bake Sale!

We are beginning to wind down this school year and to look forward to next year!!! Our Closing Program will be Tuesday, May 18th at 6:30 pm. There are many fun and exciting things planned for next year, and there are still spaces available in all classes, so if you or someone you know is interested in the Preschool, please call Laura Creamer at 269-2979.

Please note: A man's ring was found in the Temple parking lot.
If you lost your ring, call the Temple office at 269-2979.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Jane Gris , Youth Education Director

Our concluding month of Religious School has been filled with many varied programs. On April 11th, our 4th, 5th, and 6th grade classes assisted with our Passover Fair for the younger grades. The 4th graders planned wonderful games and the 5th and 6th graders helped our younger students learn about the Passover Seder. On April 18th, classes had the opportunity to learn about Yom Hashoah. In addition, they started preparing a time capsule in honor of our 100th Anniversary. On our final day of Religious School, our 3rd grade class will be conducting a tour of Israel for our religious school students and we will bury our 100th Anniversary time capsule.

At the end of this year, we will be conducting evaluations for all Hebrew students. We will also be offering two sessions this summer so that students can continue to work on their Hebrew skills. Letters will be sent home with more information about this program.

We are busy preparing for next year. Pre-registration will be conducted again this year in May. Our new pre-registration program has definitely helped us in planning for the upcoming year. We are extremely fortunate that most of our teachers are returning next year. However, if anyone is interested in teaching, please contact me. Thanks so much to all of our wonderful teachers and parents who have made this year so successful.

TEACHER'S NEEDED

We are planning for the 2004-2005 school year, and we are looking for teachers for the following classes. We look forward to a year of fun and education. Would you like to be a part of shaping our children's Jewish learning experience. It will benefit our children and give you many kudos for your mitzvah.

If you are interested in teaching, please contact Jane Gris  at Temple 269-2979.

SISTERHOOD

From the President Marcia Brown

Let all who are hungry, come and eat"....I believe we take that to heart with our TAI Congregational Seder. I want to extend a very big THANK

YOU to our Seder committee, Rose Rita Wurmser, Leona Stern, Mary Engel and Connie Grobstein. These women are very dedicated and provide our Temple with a wonderful meal so that we can all come together as a community and celebrate Passover each year. Also, thank you to all those who support, cook, set up and clean up for the evening. I honestly think it just gets better every year!

The District 10 Biennial happened in April, in Cincinnati. Although it was on a very busy weekend for our Temple, the culmination of our 100th Anniversary, a few of our Sisterhood members, Anita Mersack, Judy Hersh, Marilyn Lieber and Rebecca Young, found the time to attend the Saturday session and luncheon. At the luncheon, Anita Mersack was presented with the Deborah award from our Sisterhood. We are very proud of this award, and Anita is a very deserving recipient. Mazal Tov to Anita. The biennial is a wonderful venue for women to learn and schmooze with women from other Sisterhoods. Women of Reform Judaism (WRJ), The Federation of Temple Sisterhoods, represents 100,000 women in 600 local Sisterhoods throughout the United States, Canada, and 13 other countries and is an affiliate of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations. Our District 10 is one of 12 districts, which includes Sisterhoods from seven states.

WRJ supports youth activities for high school and college age students, rabbinical education, including scholarships for students from the former Soviet Union, nursery schools in Israel, daycare centers on the three Hebrew Union College/Jewish Institute of Religion campuses, services to local sisterhoods, as well as special projects. Our Sisterhood is so important, not only to our Temple, but in the big picture.

April was a busy month.... Sisterhood sponsored dinner for the Temple Annual Meeting and Installation. Mazel Tov to Starr as she becomes President of Temple Adath Israel. We also, wish a heartfelt Thank You to Judy for serving our Temple these last two years. We are so proud to have Sisterhood members go on to lead our congregation in so many important roles.

Sisterhood also sponsored the annual Teacher Appreciation breakfast. Thank you to Mimi Kaufman for coordinating the breakfast. The Hebrew and Religious school teachers spend their valuable time teaching and mentoring our youth. These teachers are so important to our children's future, and we thank them.

Looking ahead...May will bring a fun program full of gardening and planting tips. Also, our closing dinner and installation are on the calendar. So watch your mail for flyers and invitations!

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL MISSION STATEMENT

Adath Israel Congregation is a Reform Congregation, affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations (UAHC). This congregation is established to maintain a Temple of facilities for communal worship in the tradition of Reform Judaism, to provide a religious school for the instruction of children, and to engage in other activities to promote the fundamental principles of Judaism.

PLEASE LET US KNOW!!!

As a result of patient confidentiality, some area hospitals will not release to us the names of Jewish patients when our Temple office calls. Therefore, Rabbi Kline and the Temple are relying on you to let us know when someone is in the hospital. Please call us when you know about someone going into the hospital. Your help in this matter is invaluable.

FROM THE RABBI

The summer is coming to an end. As we look back, we hope that it has been fruitful. We take stock of what we have done, and what we have not done. We realize that as full as the summer has been, there are still too many things on our list that did not get done. There is, after all, only 24 hours a day. Time is precious, though we do not always realize it until we stop and think about all the things we try to cram into small blocks of time. Even then, more often than not, we end up disappointed that there is not more of it. How many of us have said, "If only I had a couple extra days, I would ..."? Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel, zt"l, taught us that time is sacred. It is the most sacred of the measures of existence. We can walk through space again. We can have conversations over again. We can renew friendships. We can never, though, walk through time again, at least not with even the most up to date technology. I guess we could argue then, that there is not a minute to waste. The problem we then face is simple. How do we fit more into the daily schedule that is already too full? We are all already over programmed. We have too much going on, to be able to worry about wasting time.

Perhaps the problem is not that there is not enough time. Perhaps it is not even that we don't fill the schedule as fully as possible. Perhaps it is how we view what we do during the time that we have scheduled. It is not just a job. It is the source of our family security. It is not just a trip to the store, it is a chance to meet and greet the people who live in our neighborhoods. It is not just transportation getting the children from event to event, it is an opportunity to share even precious moments in each other's lives. Our problem is not that there is not enough time and not that we don't use it wisely. Our problem is that we don't celebrate our use of it. The problem is that we do not take the chances that exist in the midst of our busy day to feed our soul, build our relationships, or expand our boundaries. Solutions range from the simple task of actually talking at the dinner table, creating reminders for one's self to celebrate even the most random of moments throughout the day.

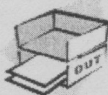

School will be back in session soon. Our lives return to some sense of normal as the activities of the normative year pick back up (though I realize for many that the normal cycle took no summer vacation). As we assess our agenda for the fall, we need to make sure that we add in some component of celebration for each day. Don't just Adath Israel is more than just a Temple. As a congregation, we worshipped on Friday evening, July 2, with over 250 people of a variety of faiths from the Lexington community. As we celebrated Shabbat, we truly felt the meaning of our religious freedoms and our ability to join together and pray for peace in unity. It was a service that all of us there will remember each Fourth of July.

This summer come try a new service, whether it be one led by a Temple congregant or one held in the courtyard. These are all experiences that build positive Jewish memories.

L'Shalom,
Starr Gantz, President

PROGRAMMING NEWS

A DIFFERENT KIND OF ONEG SHABBAT

After the August 13th 6 PM worship service, everyone is invited to come together for dinner at Portobello's restaurant. The back room has been reserved for our group for 7:30 PM. Please call the Temple office to RSVP so that we can give the restaurant an accurate head count. RSVP by August 10.

Watch for these programs coming this fall:

PACKING FOR COLLEGE: Where does Judaism fit?

A workshop series for 11th grade students and their parents that address the criteria parents and their students develop when choosing colleges. This experimental workshop helps guide the process with values, clarification exercises, and discussion. A panel discussion with community professionals will be held at the first workshop on October 17. To register for this workshop series, contact Toni Reiss at 269-2979 or coordinator@lextai.org.

THE RED TENT: a book discussion and tent party

With the help of the URJ study guide, we will explore the themes in Anita Diamant's extraordinary book, The Red Tent. Diamant uses biblical fragments and midrashic inventions to tell the engrossing tale of Dinah, while exploring the relationship between her mothers Leah, Rachel, Bilhah, and Zilpah, their husband, Dinah's father, Jacob, and Laban, her grandfather.

The date for this program will be in the September bulletin.

YOM KIPPUR MEMORIAL BOOK

It is a tradition of long standing to honor the memory of departed ones and friends with special acts of kindness and Tzedakah during the High Holy Days. One opportunity for an act of remembrance is offered through the Memorial Book, which is passed out to the congregation just prior to the Yizkor service on Yom Kippur afternoon. Names on the Temple's memorial tablets, as well as the names of those who died in the past year, are automatically listed in the booklet.

A $25 per family donation is required. Memorial Book funds are used throughout the year for special Temple purposes including supporting the High Holy Days choir, printing new family services for Shabbat and Holy Days and more.

All listings under a personal heading (i.e. "Remembered by...") will appear only by request. Detach this form and send it to the Temple office along with your contribution made payable to Temple Adath Israel Memorial Fund. Requests must be received no later than Wednesday, September 29, 2004.

work, smile and appreciate that you enjoy your work. Make sure you thank the people who make your life more whole. Make sure that you appreciate yourself. As we prepare for the High Holiday season, we have to be mindful that our tradition teaches that when offered the choice between the sacred and the mundane, we must pursue the sacred. When we have the chance to turn a mundane experience into a blessing, we are obligated to do so. In the midst of the t'shuvah for the past year that we will look to accomplish, we need to make sure that we find cause for celebrating the year that has past, as well. Welcome back!

Jewish Family Education:

"Training Wheels" Group Forming To Provide Jewish Family Education. Hadassah sponsors an exciting program, Al Galgalim (Training Wheels), for parents and grandparents with children ages 2-5. Through songs and fun-filled activities adults and children learn together to celebrate Shabbat and the Jewish Holidays. Al Galgalim gives families the tools and skills to build Jewish identity and experience the joys of Jewish living. Prior knowledge is not necessary. This group will be led by Elissa Brown and Beth Pitman, Hadassah trained facilitators. Please join us on August 22nd to learn more about our exciting program. For further information, please call Elissa 619-5707.

Please send your new e-mail address to Sandee at Sandee@lextai.org so you can receive the weekly e-mail news. Many people have been dropped by the service due to incorrect e-mail addresses. We need your help to keep the data base updated.

ADULT EDUCATION

TORAH STUDY

Rabbi Kline conducts Torah Study in the TAI library, Saturdays at 9 AM on alternate weeks. He is joined by a congenial group that brings together members of TAI and others, who following, the ancient tradition of Judaism, love study and matters of the mind. The present study centers on the Book of Deuteronomy. If you enjoy wrestling with problems of life and faith, join this friendly group.

August/September schedule is 8/14, and 8/28; 9/11.

KOLLEL STUDY GROUP

Joe Engelberg leads this study of fundamental ideas of Jewish life and thought. Among these are spirituality, the nature of God, a critique of Biblical and traditional injunctions and laws, Jewish history, principles of the Reform movement, the relation of Judaism to Christianity, Islam, and Buddhism. The purpose of the Kollel group's study is not to assert these principals as eternal truth, nor to refute them, but to discover what wisdom there is in them and to expand upon them. Drop in any time and join in the provocative and friendly discussion.

August/September schedule is 8/7 and 8/21; 9/4 and 9/18.

HEBREW MARATHON AUGUST 29 FROM 1-6:30 PM

CRAFT AND KIBBITZ

We continue to look for people to join us for the Handcrafters group. The times may change in order for more people to participate. Watch your bulletin or an e-mail to keep informed of the days and times of the meetings.

Please call the Temple office at 269-2979 and join this great group of people.

TUESDAY BRIDGE CLUB

The Tuesday Bridge Group meets in the Temple Library beginning at 11 AM. Bring your lunch and play until 2 PM. You don't have to be an expert to join. This group is going strong, so if you like to play bridge, here's your chance to join and socialize with fellow Temple members.

If you wish to join in, please check with other players or the Temple office each week to see if the group is playing.

MAZAL TOV

To Sam Frankel, grandson of Harold & Kay Frankel who graduated from Mason High School in Mason, OH, cum laude and received his diploma with honors and award of merit. He spent several weeks in Israel with his Uncle Bill Frankel who works for Birthright Israel. On his return to the US he was a camp counselor at Eddie Isaacs Camp in NY and in the fall will attend Northern Kentucky University.

To Larry Newman for receiving the 2004 Kentucky Medal of Honor Award from the Kentucky Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors. This is the most prestigious and highest honor the Association awards.

To Gavin & Christy Roth on the birth of their son, Teague Hayden, on June 28, 2004.

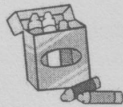

To Amy Crystal on her engagement to Joey Regen. Both attend college in Boston. Amy is the daughter of Dr. Ralph & Elayne Crystal.

NEW MEMBER HIGHLIGHT

Dr. Gavin, Christy, & Lexi Roth

Gavin, Christy & Lexi moved to Lexington from Oregon to be closer to their families in Cincinnati and Chapel Hill. They have two dogs, Misty & Oreo, that the family enjoys taking for walks. The family also enjoys all outdoor activities and would be pleased to see children's activities at the Temple. Lexi is 19 months old and Gavin and Christy added to their family with the birth of Teague Hayden on June 28, 2004. The Board of Trustees and Temple community welcome them to the Lexington area and the Temple family.

PRESCHOOL

Laura Creamer, Preschool Director

I hope that everyone has had a wonderful Summer and we at TAI Preschool are looking forward to the 2004-2005 school year!!! We are so excited to have Elissa Brown in her new position as the Lead Teacher in the 2 ½ and 3 year old classes!! Elissa has so many wonderful ideas and I know she is looking forward to the year. And as always, we are proud that Tammy Bradley will be back with us to lead the 4 year old class. She brings such warmth and knowledge to the classroom and she is looking forward to another fun filled year!

Rosh Hashanah is coming (believe it or not!) and we will once again be selling our Rosh Hashanah baskets as our Fall Fundraiser. The baskets were lovely last year (if I may say so myself!), so be on the lookout for the order form! Be sure to order one for your family, friends, neighbors, Rabbi, and religious school teachers!!!

There are many fun and exciting things planned for this year, and there are still spaces available in all classes, so if you or someone you know is interested in the Preschool, please call Laura Creamer at 269-2979. Enjoy the rest of your summer!!

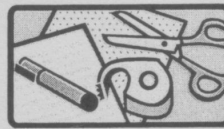

HADASSAH'S ANNUAL DONOR CAMPAIGN

Coming off a stellar year in which the Lexington Chapter of Hadassah exceeded all its quotas from National, we are striving to repeat our success during the 2004-2005 campaign. Under the leadership of Chair, Judy Hersh, we hope to reach all new and continuing members of Hadassah during the Phonathon in October. Watch for further announcements in August and September and please plan to give generously. Hadassah counts on each of you to further its medical, educational and social programs in Israel and the U.S.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Jane Gris , Youth Education Director

We are busy preparing for the opening day of Hebrew/Religious School on September 12th. In July, we had our annual teacher potluck dinner where we began our planning for the year. In August, I will be traveling to the Union's camp in Oconomowoc, Wisconsin with Corey Kline to participate in an intensive program on Hebrew Instruction. We look forward to meeting with the author of the Mitkadem program that we are now using with our Hebrew students as well as other Hebrew specialists. Corey will be teaching our 4th and 5th grade Hebrew students.

This year we are continuing our focus on Hebrew education. Elissa Brown will be teaching our 3rd grade students. Rabbi Kline will continue instructing our 6th graders. We are adding two additional components to Hebrew. Stephanie Barrett will be offering a beginning Hebrew class for parents from 9:30 to 10:30. Registration forms will be sent out in August for this class. This class will give parents an opportunity to learn Hebrew with their children – please give it a try – it will be fun. Stephanie will also be teaching a conversational Hebrew class for our 8th grade students. We hope that this will give our students an opportunity to continue their Hebrew education past the Bar/Bat mitzvah stage.

This year we will also have increased programming with the students at Ohavay Zion Synagogue. Each class will meet with their counterpart in the Synagogue at least once during the year for special programming. Our ninth grade classes will have a joint class in the fall on the Holocaust with Rachel Belin. Our eighth graders will also get together with the Synagogue class to enjoy Jewish film. This coordination is extremely beneficial for our community.

Finally, it you have not yet turned in your registration forms, please do so at your earliest convenience. Our teachers need to have the opportunity to prepare for your children. No registrations will be accepted on the first day of Religious School.

PLEASE NOTE: Someone has borrowed the film "The Hitchhiker". Please return the film to the library as soon as possible as it is needed to prepare for Religious School this year. Thank you, Jane Grise, Youth Education Director

Help needed for Break-the-Fast

Because a large number of people attend Break-the-Fast, Sisterhood needs several volunteers to help with this event. In particular, we'll be making kugel on Sunday morning, Sept. 19, and doing last-minute preparations on Erev Yom Kippur and Yom Kippur, Sept. 24 and 25.

If you'd like to help, call Mary Engel at 252-3734 for specifics.

If you plan to attend Break-the-Fast, please bring a salad, vegetable, gelatin mold or dairy (non-meat) dish for 6 to the temple. It's best to bring it in the afternoon when you attend services because storage space is limited in the kitchen.

Also, we want to have ample seating for Break-the-Fast, so RSVP to the Temple office at 269-2979.

Temple Adath Israel Bulletin

SEPTEMBER 2004

Elul-Tishri 5764-5765

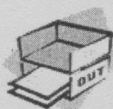

FROM THE RABBI

My article for this month is going to be relatively brief (remembering that the briefs I wrote as a lawyer averaged 40 pages, I am not sure that this says much). We will be sharing enough ideas over the coming month. I will have enough opportunity to spill my thoughts before you, and I have decided to make this short and to the point. As we approach the high holidays, we are accustomed to brow beating ourselves and worrying about all we have done in the previous year -- whether or not our names will be inscribed in the book of life for the year to come. How much energy do we put into thinking about what we did with the inscription we were gifted last year? Did we live as much as we could, or did we just turn the pages of the calendar? Did we help others to be able to live at a greater level than they would have been able to without our love and assistance? When faced with the celebrations of the past year, did we offer a fair amount of thanks? Was there as much thanks relative to the amount of disdain or concern over the challenges that we faced? In the offering of thanks, how did we give other people reasons to be thankful?

This year, we are joining with the Union for Reform Judaism in concentrating our efforts on the battle against poverty. I should really say that the URJ is joining us, and many congregations that do similar work, for in going through the list of suggested activities we found that we are already so involved. Our goal then, for this year is get more deeply involved, and to get more people in our families involved. This work is not the work of the social action committee. This is the work of the congregation, and it is a work of many dimensions. We will find that in performing this work, we learn that poverty comes in many forms. Certainly the poverty of which we think most often is economically based. Fortunately, for the most part, this congregation does not see a lot of that within our family, so we need to reach out to others. But there is a spiritual dimension to poverty, as well. Imagine having no ability to pay your bills. Imagine someone telling you to get a good job so that you would have money to pay your bills. Imagine looking at your children who need care and your lack of training to attract a good job. Imagine the utter frustration of the catch 22 in which you find yourself. This is the all too often story of our spirit. We lack the tools to be spiritually fulfilled, and while people are telling us to pray and to study, we find the hurdles on the path to even the beginning to be overwhelming. We do not pray for we do not know how to pray or what to do with prayer. We do not

Rosh HaShanah celebrates God's most precious and final creation, the day humanity came into existence. We are given the opportunity to face God, to report on the good and the bad in our world, and to ask God to continue to have confidence in us as we seek to fulfill God's charge of Tikkun Olam, repairing the world.

As you spend the days between Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur reflecting, consider your commitment to Reform Judaism and the Temple community. The High Holy Days can lead to a renewal of spirit and energy for us all. I wish each of you a sweet and healthy New Year filled with peace and happiness.

PROGRAMMING NEWS

UPCOMING PROGRAMS:

PACKING FOR COLLEGE: Where does Judaism fit?

The dates are set for this exciting workshop for 11th grade students. The first meeting which will be for both parents and students will be on Sunday, October 17. Subsequent workshops, for the students only, will be on October 31 and November 7. All workshops will be held at the Temple and will be from 6- 8 PM. On October 17 we will start with a pot luck supper at 5:15 PM. For more information, contact Toni Reiss, Program Coordinator at 269-2979 or e-mail at coordinator@lextai.org.

THE RED TENT: a book discussion and tent party

With the help of the URJ study guide, we will explore the themes in Anita Diamant's extraordinary book, The Red Tent. Diamant uses biblical fragments and midrashic inventions to tell the engrossing tale of Dinah while exploring the relationship between her mothers Leah, Rachel, Bilhah, and Zilpah, their husband, Dinah's father, Jacob, and Laban, her grandfather.

GET OUT THE VOTE 2004

A voter registration table will be set up in the Temple lobby on Sunday, September 12, 19, and 26 with voter registration forms. Any one who would like assistance getting to the polls on Election Day, Tuesday, November 2, should contact Toni Reiss at 269-2979.

YOM KIPPUR MEMORIAL BOOK

It is a tradition of long standing to honor the memory of departed ones and friends with special acts of kindness and Tzedakah during the High Holy Days. One opportunity for an act of remembrance is offered through the Memorial Book, which is passed out to the congregation just prior to the Yizkor service on Yom Kippur afternoon. Names on the Temple's memorial tablets, as well as the names of those who died in the past year, are automatically listed in the booklet.

A $25 per family donation is required. Memorial Book funds are used throughout the year for special Temple purposes including supporting the High Holy Days choir, printing new family services for Shabbat and Holy Days and more.

All listings under a personal heading (i.e. "Remembered by...") will appear only by request. Detach this form and send it to the Temple office along with your contribution made payable to Temple Adath Israel Memorial Fund. Requests must be received no later than Wednesday, September 20, 2004.

study for the same reasons. We create the excuse of time commitments, but we also know that our schedule accommodates that which we want it to accommodate. And through it all, we call spirituality a waste of time, never having scratched the surface to see its core value. Thusly, even while we have fine homes and good jobs, we remain spiritually impoverished.

Join in the fight against all poverty this year. Find deeper meaning to your membership at Temple; to the engagements with our family. Help in the cause of helping others to engage the joys of life, as well.

ADULT EDUCATION

TORAH STUDY

Rabbi Kline conducts Torah Study in the TAI library, Saturdays at 9 AM on alternate weeks. He is joined by a congenial group that brings together members of TAI and others, who following, the ancient tradition of Judaism, love study and matters of the mind. The present study centers on the Book of Deuteronomy. If you enjoy wrestling with problems of life and faith, join this friendly group.

September/October schedule is 9/11, 10/2, 10/16, and 10/30.

KOLLEL STUDY GROUP

Joe Engelberg leads this study of fundamental ideas of Jewish life and thought. Among these are spirituality, the nature of God, a critique of Biblical and traditional injunctions and laws, Jewish history, principles of the Reform movement, the relation of Judaism to Christianity, Islam, and Buddhism. The purpose of the Kollel group's study is not to assert these principals as eternal truth, nor to refute them, but to discover what wisdom there is in them and to expand upon them. Drop in any time and join in the provocative and friendly discussion.

September/October schedule is 9/4, 9/18, 10/9, and 10/23.

RABBI KLINE BEGINS ADULT EDUCATION CLASSES IN SEPTEMBER

Rabbi Kline will conduct Adult Ed. Classes beginning in September. These classes are free and open to Temple members and the Lexington Community.

Wednesday, September 1 and 8 will be at 7 PM. "How Do You Spell T'Shuvah?: A Look at the High Holidays"

Wednesday, September 22, class will be at 12:15 PM. "When Will the Messiah Come?"

HEBREW COURSES OFFERED

Rabbi Kline will also be offering Adult Education Classes at 3 and 4:15 PM for a seven week session.

"Hebrew Through Our Prayer Book—Beginning Hebrew" on Sundays, beginning September 12 at 3 PM

"Introduction to Judaism" on Sundays, beginning September 12 at 4:15 PM

Cost of each program is $10 for single members, $15 for member couples.

$18 for single non-members and $20 for non-member couples

Check must accompany registration. Please fill out the form below and mail to Temple Adath Israel, 124 North Ashland Avenue, Lexington, KY 40502 no later than September 8, so the correct number of materials can be prepared.

MAZAL TOV

To Dr. John Harrison and son, Alex, who will be participating in the ALA Bike Trek to raise money for the American Lung Association's 100th Anniversary Fund Drive on September 18, 19 & 20..

If you would like to sponsor John and Alex, the sign-up sponsor sheet is located on the bulletin board in the Temple office.

To Dr. Douglas & Linda Katz, on the birth of their son, Noah Evan, on August 5, 2004.

To Allison Plavin, who was placed on the Dean's List at Indiana University with a 4.0 GPA. Allison, the daughter of Marc Plavin & Toni Reiss, is majoring in both history and criminal justice and is in the Honor's College.

To Penny Miller & Stuart Harris on their marriage on September 5, 2004.

A SPECIAL THANK YOU!!!

A special thanks to the following people who answered the phones at the Temple during staff vacation time. Your help is much appreciated. Thanks to Stephanie Barrett, Leah Bourne, Judy Engelberg, Ira Gewirtzman, Mimi Kaufman, Cindy Kline, Marilyn Lieber, Regina Meade, Annette Milch, Etta Pollan, Bill Spickard, and Rebecca Young.

Also thanks to Joshua Kline for help with answering the phones and to J. C. Bourne who has performed many Mitzvahs for the Temple. We are proud of our young teens who show caring, responsibility, and community pride by taking the time to volunteer for whatever needs to be done at the Temple.

PRESCHOOL

Laura Creamer, Preschool Director

Hello from the Preschool! The school year has begun and we are having such a good time!! The children are so excited to see old friends and to meet new ones! We are having a wonderful time exploring new materials, doing art projects, and learning something new every day! We are so excited to learn about Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur. We will start our art and music time this month and can't wait to spend time with Mrs. Fitzcharles and Mrs. Logsdon!

We will be picking apples for our Rosh HaShanah baskets on Sunday, September 12th at Boyds Orchard, so anyone interested in helping us and spending some time at the orchard, please contact the preschool. Thanks to all who ordered baskets, and we will be delivering them a few days before Rosh HaShanah.

L'shana Tovah!!

YOUTH GROUP NEWS

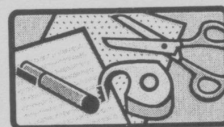

TRYB BARBECUE at Josh Kline's house

TRYB has set September 19 as the date of their opening program. All high school 9th graders are invited to attend and participate in electing their representative to the TRYB. This year's calendar will include many traditional TRYB activities such as the Purim Carnival, but your input for new programs is wanted. Come on Sunday, September 19 and help plan a year of educational, religious and social programs for ALL of Temple's high school students.

EIGHTH GRADE ADVENTURE

On September 12th, eighth grade students are going to the IMAX at the Louisville Science Center to see PULSE: A Stomp Odyssey. We will meet at Temple at 9:45 AM, carpool to Lynn's Paradise Café in Louisville for an 11:30 reservation for brunch, and then go to the IMAX Theater for the 2 PM movie. This movie explores music across many continents and cultures and has received rave reviews. After the movie, we will carpool back to the Temple for a 5 PM pick up time. Students will need to bring $6 for the cost of the movie plus money for brunch. Advanced registration is required. Contact either Jane Gris  or Toni Reiss at 269-2979.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Jane Gris , Youth Education Director

Thanks to the generosity of the Mersack Fund, Corey Kline (our new 4th and 5th grade Hebrew teacher) and I had the opportunity to attend the Union of Reform Judaism's conference on Hebrew education at the Olin Sang Ruby Camp Institute in Oconomowoc, Wisconsin. Cheri Silver, the author of the URJ's new Mitkadem Hebrew Program, and many educators from around the country, gathered to learn new techniques for teaching Hebrew.

This year our Hebrew program will expand beyond last year. We will be introducing Hebrew words to our Pre-K through first graders through games and song. In second grade, we will use the Ramah 1 book from the Mitkadem Program so that students will be introduced to all of the Hebrew letters and their sounds. In third grade, students will use Ramah 2 from this Program to learn letters, vowels, and begin reading. Our 3rd and 4th graders will finish their Ramah 2 book from last year and progress to Ramah 3 and beyond where they will be introduced to a variety of prayers. In these levels, students progress at their own pace and can complete lessons and activities on an individual basis. Classrooms will have listening centers where students will listen to prayers. Students will regularly read individually with teachers to gain reading mastery. Our 6th graders will also use this method to deepen their understanding of a variety of prayers. To review, our regular school schedule is as follows:

10:15 to 12:15 class for Temple Tots through 2nd grade and 7th through 9th grade.

9:30 to 12:15 class for 3rd through 6th grade

11:00 to 1 PM class for Confirmation class

Once a month, on the first Sunday of the month, we will be having a school-wide assembly at 12:00 PM. We invite parents to join us for this service/assembly. This year, 3rd and 4th grade classes will have Religious School core content from 9:30 to 11:00 and Hebrew instruction from 11:00 to 12:15. 5th and 6th grades will have Hebrew at 9:30 followed by Religious School. This change was made to permit one of our teachers to teach both 4th and 5th grade classes during the morning.

SISTERHOOD

From the President Marcia Brown

L'shana Tova,

I want to wish everyone a very happy and healthy New Year. With the New Year approaching, it is time to think of and get in gear for Sisterhood! I would like to encourage all the women of Temple Adath Israel to join Sisterhood this year. The women of TAI are an integral piece of the congregation, our local community and most of all to each other. Our Temple depends on our support, in more ways than we realize. Our religious school children benefit greatly from our annual fund raiser, we sponsor Break-the-Fast, the Congregational Seder, the Mitzvah Crib, among many other worthwhile projects and events. I guess you will have to keep a close eye on the calendar for all the wonderful and meaningful programs that we have in the works!! We encourage any time, support, ideas or just your presence at our programs and meetings.

Please watch for an invitation to our September program...welcoming new members and a chance for the old members to reconnect. Also, please join the congregation for Break-the-Fast after Yom Kippur services.

Looking forward to a great year...please join us!!!

Help needed for Break-the-Fast

Because a large number of people attend Break-the-Fast, Sisterhood needs several volunteers to help with this event. In particular, we'll be making kugel on Sunday morning, Sept. 19, and doing last-minute preparations on Erev Yom Kippur and Yom Kippur, Sept. 24 and 25.

If you'd like to help, call Mary Engel at 252-3734 for specifics.

If you plan to attend Break-the-Fast, please bring a salad, vegetable, gelatin mold or dairy (non-meat) dish for 6 to the temple. It's best to bring it in the afternoon when you attend services because storage space is limited in the kitchen.

Also, we want to have ample seating for Break-the-Fast, so RSVP to the Temple office at 269-2979.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

UK DONOVAN SCHOLARS PROGRAM

The Donovan Scholars Programs at UK and Lexington Community College offer free college classes for persons aged 65 and older and free special classes for persons aged 60 and older. Free enrichment classes are held in community locations and offered in many subjects. For more information and a list of classes offered for the year, contact Judy Henselman at 257-2656 for more information.

DONOVAN FORUM

The Forum is open to all persons regardless of age and offers educational programs each Tuesday and Thursday during the spring and fall semesters. The programs are held at the Lexington Senior Citizens Center, 1530 Nicholasville Road from 3:30-4:30 PM. For more information on these programs contact June Horn at 257-2656 or e-mail june.horn@uky.edu. A list of programs is posted on the bulletin board in the Temple office.

ATTENTION COLLEGE STUDENTS AND PARENTS

The Temple would like to keep your student updated on Temple news. Please call the Temple office and give us your students college address so they can receive the Temple bulletin and other important news that will come throughout the year. The College Committee thanks you in advance for your help in obtaining all student addresses.

FINDING A JEWISH PATH WHILE THE GROUND SHIFTS BENEATH US

This class will take place this year on the following dates: 9/26/04, 10/24/04, 11/21/04, 12/19/04, 1/23/04, 2/13/04, 3/20/04, 4/17/04, and 5/22/04. This is a adult discussion group led by Larry Kant that studies traditional Jewish sources in novel ways as we seek to reclaim a modern Jewish path. As in previous years, times are on selected Sundays from 10:00 am until 12 noon. This year our theme will be Difficult Bible Passages."

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL MISSION STATEMENT

Adath Israel Congregation is a Reform Congregation, affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations (UAHC). This congregation is established to maintain a Temple of facilities for communal worship in the tradition of Reform Judaism, to provide a religious school for the instruction of children, and to engage in other activities to promote the fundamental principles of Judaism.

PLEASE LET US KNOW!!!

As a result of patient confidentiality, some area hospitals will not release to us the names of Jewish patients when our Temple office calls. Therefore, Rabbi Kline and the Temple are relying on you to let us know when someone is in the hospital. Please call us when you know about someone going into the hospital. Your help in this matter is invaluable.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

BOARD NOTES

Resolution passed by Temple Adath Israel Board of Trustees, August 4, 2004

WHEREAS, a basic tenet of Judaism is Tikkun Olam
WHEREAS, Temple Adath Israel has a long standing tradition of helping those in need

WHEREAS, the Union for Reform Judaism has adopted a resolution calling upon Reform congregations to engage in efforts to ameliorate poverty,

THEREFORE, the Board of Trustees of Temple Adath Israel commits to joining this effort by participating in the URJ initiative 5765: A Year of Focus on Poverty.

5765: A YEAR OF FOCUS ON POVERTY

Temple Adath Israel has a long tradition of working in our local, national and global communities to ameliorate poverty. Temple members have contributed to Mazon, given food to the Sukkot food drive, helped to build Habitat for Humanity homes, donated books, backpacks, and school supplies to the children of Ashland Elementary School, and served meals at the Hope Center. These are but a few examples of the many ways that Temple members have given of themselves to help others. Through committees, congregational programs, and individual efforts, our commitment to Tikkun Olam is often focused on helping those in need. The Union for Reform Judaism has offered us the opportunity to join their initiative to proclaim 5765: A YEAR OF FOCUS ON POVERTY. Under this umbrella, the many programs that are already in existence can be augmented by new programs that will all be designed around this theme. Below is a skeleton schedule of some of these programs:

9/16-10/6	High Holy Days Food Drive
10/15	Children's Defense Fund Shabbat
11/15	Thanksgiving food baskets
12/10	Chanukah/Ner Shel Tzedakah: a night of gifts for those in need
3/25	Purim collection of matanot l'evoyim (gifts for the poor) and hamantashen for The Hope Center
4/24	Pesach chametz collection – bring yours to Temple to donate to God's Pantry
5/5-12	Clean out your Closets – bring gently worn clothing to be donated to local shelters

Through the course of the year, there will be special Shabbat services and sermons (some by guest speakers) to address the issue of poverty.

WELCOMING Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur: Two Services for the Home

Yom Kippur

(Because Yom Kippur is a fast day, the Erev Yom Kippur meal must technically be eaten before Yom Kippur and its fast begin. The candles are therefore lit after the meal to mark the formal beginning of Yom Kippur and the beginning of the fast. Kiddush is also not said at this meal because kiddush can only be said after the lighting of the candles. Once the candles are lit, however, the fast has begun and so the wine for kiddush and hence the kiddush are not appropriate.)

MOTZI Before the Meal

According to Maimonides (of the twelfth century), "Free will is given to every human being. If we wish to incline ourselves towards goodness and righteousness, we are free to do so; and if we wish to incline ourselves towards evil, we are also free to do that. By our own faculty of intelligence and understanding we can distinguish between good and evil, doing as we choose. The power for this choice between good and evil is altogether in our hands."

As we approach Yom Kippur we pray for the power to make worthy choices all through this year. May our hands do good. May our hands always lead us towards blessing.

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו, מלך העולם, נמוציא להם מן
הארץ.

Ba-ruch a-ta, A-do-nai Elo-hei-nu me-lech ha-olam, ha-motzi lechem min ha-aretz.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who brings forth bread from the earth.

LIGHTING OF HOLIDAY (AND SABBATH) LIGHTS After the Meal

The holiest day of the year is about to begin. Let us use it well. May it be for each one of us a day of renewal. May it help us overcome what is evil in us and strengthen what is good. May it bring us closer to our real selves and make us more loyal to our people and our traditions.

Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur are the great festivals of the Jewish year. They draw us to the synagogue with their promise of repentance and new beginnings, although each festival also offers opportunities to bring something precious into our homes. The meals that precede services can themselves also become special, and it is in that spirit that this pamphlet is offered to you and your family. The blessings and readings enclosed (Hebrew and/or English) are yours to use as you wish in welcoming the New Year. Shana Tova!

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו, מלך העולם, אשר קדשנו
במצותיו וצונו להדליק נר של (שבת ושל) יום
הכפורים.

Ba-ruch a-ta, A-do-nai, Elo-hei-nu melech ha-o-lam asher ki-de-shanu be-mitsvo-tav vi-tsi-vanu le-had-lik ner shel (Shabbat ve-shel) Yom ha-kippurim.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who has made us holy with commandments and commanded us to kindle the lights of (Shabbat and) Yom Kippur.

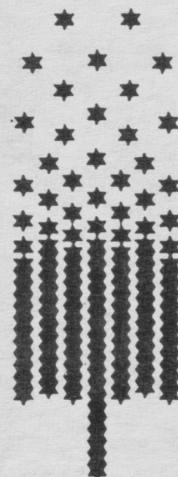

SHE-HE-CHE-YA-NU

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו, מלך העולם, שהחינו וקיימנו
והגיענו לימן הזה.

Ba-ruch a-ta, A-do-nai E-lo-hei-nu, me-lech ha-o-lam, she-he-che-ya-nu ve-ki-ye-ma-nu ve-hi-gi-a-nu laz-man ha-zeh.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who has kept us alive, sustained us, and enabled us to reach this moment.

May each of us be sealed in the Book of Life for a good year!

A final note: Tzedakah is always part of Jewish life. As it is traditional to give tzedakah at times of joy such as births and weddings, it is also Jewish custom to give tzedakah on the occasion of each of the festivals, including Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Helping promote any worthy cause may be one more way for you and your family to start out the New Year.

Rosh Hashanah

LIGHTING OF HOLIDAY (AND SABBATH) LIGHTS

(Light candles)

With the setting of this evening's sun, united with Jews in every place and every time, we will proclaim a new year of hope. May the light of God show us the paths we can follow to do good and create a world of peace. Let the fire we kindle be a warming flame that brings our family closer together and leads us into a year of health and wholeness.

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו, מלך העולם, אשר קדשנו
במצותיו וצונו להדליק נר של (שבת ושל) יום טוב.

Ba-ruch ata Ado-nai Elo-hei-nu melech ha-olam asher ki-de-sha-nu be-mits-vo tav ve-tsi-va-nu le-had-lik neir shel (Shabbat ve-shel) Yom Tov.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who has made us holy with commandments and commanded us to kindle the lights of (Shabbat and) this "Yom Tov" Festival.

BLESSING OF CHILDREN

(At this point parents may wish to bless their children. A traditional prayer follows, although any words—even a silent prayer—can suit the moment. Some parents might want to place their hands on their children's heads. Others might hold their children's hands.)

May the Lord bless you and keep you.
May the Lord look kindly upon you and be gracious to you.
May the Lord bestow all blessings upon you and give you peace.
Amen.

BLESSINGS FOR THE MEAL

(A round challah is used to symbolize the continuously unfolding cycle of life.)

In a world of famine we have been blessed with plenty. In a world of hunger we have been blessed with sustenance. May this be the year in which we share the blessing of bread with all who are in need.

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו, מלך העולם, המציא להם מן
הארץ.

Ba-ruch ata Ado-nai Elo-hei-nu melech ha-olam ha-motzi lechem min ha-aretz.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who brings forth bread from the earth.

KIDDUSH FOR ROSH HASHANAH

(Holding the cup)

We praise You, O God, and give thanks for the year that is gone: for life, health, and strength; for home, love, and friendship. May our cup of life be filled with blessings in the year ahead. We praise You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, Creator of the fruit of the vine.

Ba-ruch a-ta, A-do-nai, E-lo-hei-nu, me-lech ha-o-lam,

ha-zi-ka-ron.

ברוך אתה, יי מלך על
כל הארץ, מקדש
(השבת ויום הזכרון).

(Before drinking the wine continue as follows.)

SHE-HE-CHE-YA-NU

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו, מלך העולם, שהחיינו וקיימנו
והגיענו לזמן הזה.

Ba-ruch a-ta, A-do-nai E-lo-hei-nu, me-lech ha-o-lam, she-he-che-ya-nu ve-ki-ye-ma-nu ve-hi-gi-a-nu laz-man ha-zeh.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who has kept us alive, sustained us, and enabled us to reach this moment.

(The wine is drunk.)

(Slices of apple are dipped in honey and before eating the following is said.)

Lord our God and God of our people, may the new year be good and sweet for us.

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו, מלך העולם, בורא פרי העץ.

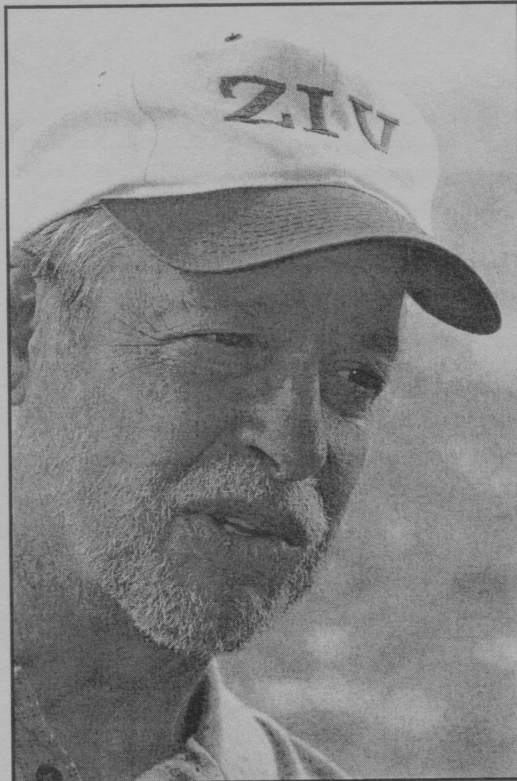

Ba-ruch ata Ado-nai Elo-hei-nu melech ha-olam bo-rei pri ha-etz.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the Universe, Creator of the fruit of the tree, Creator of the sweetness in life.

(After the meal Birkat Hamazon can be said. The text is available in the Temple office.)

If You Don't Know Danny Siegel, You Should

by Deborah Biskin Levine

Ask any college kid, yeshiva student or ten year old in Hebrew school who has met Danny Siegel and they will remember the experience. Danny makes an impression. He is perpetual motion with ideas and thoughts that capture the imagination. But unlike many charismatic personalities, he's also extremely modest. "Don't you dare refer to me as a mitzvah hero, I'm just a guy who finds these good people and brings attention to what they do", he booms, "I just knew I wanted to spend my life hanging out with good people--they bring quality out in all of us."

At 4 a.m., Danny's day--which is almost always devoted to tzedakah, begins. He writes poetry, answers e-mails, talks on the telephone, sends out curricular materials, and organizes speaking engagements. Constantly on the road in the United States and Israel, he highlights various small but deserving tzedakah projects and "mitzvah heroes" through his Ziv ("radiance") Tzedakah Fund. After people hear him talk about programs and individuals, they write him checks--large and small.

Over the past 18 years, Danny has given away $3 million to such causes. "Recently a family wrote to me. They had just had their third baby. They felt they didn't need baby gifts from friends and relatives. They were fortunate--they had enough. So included in their baby announcement was a card that asked people to make their contributions to Ziv. The money was used for people who needed to have funerals for babies and couldn't afford them. These people thought of other people's needs in their time of great joy."

Danny's mitzvah heroes are an amazing bunch. He intrigues his audiences by talking about people like Janet Marchase who has devoted herself to finding loving homes for infants with Down syndrome, or the Chicken Lady of Jerusalem, Clara Hammer, now well into her 80's, and her friend the butcher, Mr. Hacker, who provide fresh chicken and chopped meat for 110 impoverished Israeli families every Shabbat.

Danny's journey began in 1975 when he traveled to Israel with $955 from friends and relatives to give to tzedakah. When he returned to the United States, he wrote a letter describing where their money had been donated. The next time he went to Israel, he took even more contributions with him. Eventually, from this personal approach to performing mitzvot, Ziv was born.

"I don't fund raise--I'm very subtle and low key" explains Danny. He finds money for his causes by publishing twice a year the Ziv report, which describes each project. "People read about the mitzvah heroes, and they send money. The typical contributions are small--so there are lots of people involved. Hebrew school kids fill up tzedakah boxes for specific projects like Mitzvah Dolphins."

Danny tries to spread his message of giving tzedakah to young people. "There is not much of a connection between Hebrew school, day school or yeshiva education and tzedakah. I try to help kids form those connections. I show them how easy it is to do a mitzvah--that the ability is within all of us," he says.

"I know that if more kids became involved in doing things for others there would be fewer problems with drugs, alcohol abuse and suicide. It makes people feel good to help--and to be around good people."

"Most adults define who they are by what they do. I wake early in the morning and write poetry. I hope to have written a few decent pages. But when I'm able to write a check for a person's rent for the next month--that's who I am."

Dear Temple Member,

One of the most important rights that we have as Americans is the right to vote. It is a right that we must not take for granted; a right that is doubly precious because it has been ours so rarely in Jewish History.

For the past eighty years, American Jews have voted in overwhelming numbers. This magnified our role in American political life. We were able to assert our values, protect our interests, and defend the rights of all Americans because we cared enough to participate in the democratic process.

Unfortunately, this is no longer the case. There may be close to one million eligible Jews who do not vote. Temple Adath Israel has joined a nationwide effort to reverse this trend.

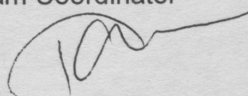

As part of this national campaign, we are initiating a VOTER REGISTRATION DRIVE. Our main goal is to provide you access to voter registration forms and to assist those who need help getting to the polls. To register, stop by the Temple on a Sunday morning either September 12, 19 or 26. A table with Kentucky's registration forms will be set up to assist you. If you can't stop by, call me at Temple and I will mail you a voter registration form to complete. You must register by October 4 to be eligible to vote in this November's election.

If you have moved, changed your name since you voted last or if you have not voted in the last four years, your name will have been removed from the voter rolls. If you aren't sure if you are registered, please contact the County Clerk, Don Blevins at 859-255-8683. If you plan to be out of town on Election Day, you may request an absentee ballot in advance from the county clerk office. Additionally, experts agree that a disproportionate number of unregistered Jews are of college age. Therefore, it is important to encourage your children age 18 and above to register to vote. Feel free to pick up voter registration forms at Temple to mail to them.

If you have any questions, you can contact the local Board of Elections by calling them at 502-573-7100. You may also access the information on line at www.elect.ky.gov.

Again, the registration deadline is October 4, so please register to vote, encourage you friends and family to register to vote as well. Participating in the democratic process is a privilege and a responsibility we all share. If you need assistance to get to the polls, please contact Toni Reiss at Temple and she will make arrangements to assist you. Please be sure to register and vote on Election Day, Tuesday, November 2.

B'Shalom,
Toni Reiss, Program Coordinator

You Think That One Vote Doesn't Make a Difference?

In 2000, George W. Bush was elected president by winning the state of Florida by 537 VOTES.

In 2000, Al Gore won the popular vote by a margin of only .51%.

In 1994, Congressman Sam Gejdenson (D-CT) was re-elected to the United States House of Representatives by 21 VOTES.

In 1997, a Vermont State representative was seated as an apparent one-vote-winner, 570 to 569. He resigned when the State House determined, after a recount, that he had actually lost to his opponent BY ONE VOTE.

In 1989, a Lansing, Michigan School District funding proposition failed after a recount produced a tie vote 5,147 FOR, AND 5,147 AGAINST. This resulted in a school district budget reduction of $2.5 million.

In 1994, two candidates tied for a seat in the Wyoming House of Representatives with 1,941 votes each. A recount produced the same result. The winner was declared when A PING-PONG BALL BEARING HIS NAME WAS PULLED FROM THE GOVERNOR'S COWBOY HAT in a drawing before the State Canvassing Board.

Think Again.

FROM THE RABBI

I am reminded of a story that Rabbi Jack Reimer tells. In light of the hurricanes that have devastated so many homes over this past month, I thought that this might be appropriate. He speaks of a Soviet cosmonaut, who went up in space for a 313 day journey, the year before Hurricane Andrew. Imagine his first conversations back. Speaking to his wife, "Darling, it is so good to be back home here in Leningrad." And she must have said to him, "I hate to tell you this, dear, but there is no Leningrad anymore. Now it is St. Petersburg." Surprised, he must have said, "Really? No Leningrad? How can that be? Lenin was the father of communism?" "Yes, dear," she responded. "I hate to tell you this, dear, but there is no more Communism." And he must have said, "Really? How could Gorbochov have allowed this to happen?" Her response would be, "I hate to tell you this, dear, but there is no more Gorbochov." And he must have said, "Really? You mean the hardliners are now in charge?" "No, dear, the hardliners are out, and Yeltsin has taken over." To this he would have responded, "Really? You mean Yeltsin is now the head of the Soviet Union?"

And she must have said to him, "No, dear. I hate to tell you this, but there is no longer a Soviet Union." Exasperated, he must have felt like he was having a Maalox moment, to which she responded, "I'm sorry, dear, but we don't have any Maalox." And he must have said, "At least some things never change." Imagine going away from one world and coming back to one completely different than the one you left, yet in the midst of it all, you have not changed a bit. For the rest of the world, the dissolution of the Soviet Union was part of our world's political evolution. Shocking? Certainly it was shocking, but as the handwriting became clearer on the wall, for it not to have fallen would have been the greater shock. For those of us who lived through that time, and watched it happen - maybe even taking credit in some way for the birth of democracy in its smaller states - the event was wonderful, but our lives adjusted to the news.

This is the case in so many of our lives. We continue with the small details in our lives, the resignation to never hear, isolating ourselves from each other, coming and going only to the events we want and paying attention only to that meeting's agenda while there. While the world continues to spin, our world view continues to narrow. One day, we emerge from our cocoons and find ourselves lost in this brave new world around us. While we know that we have missed so much, we hold the system responsible for having been left behind in the process. (Continued on page 4)

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

The words "hineh ma tov u manaim shevet achem gam yachad" mean "how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to dwell together." Our congregation is not complete unless we are all here. Put Temple activities on your weekly calendar. From worship services to Consecration and Simchat Torah, to adult education or religious school, to committee meetings, to our fight to end poverty, come join in the numerous ways you can be a part of our Temple family. And, that would be good.

L'Shalom,

PROGRAMMING NEWS

PACKING FOR COLLEGE: Where does Judaism fit?

A workshop series for 11th grade students and their parents that addresses the criteria parents and their students develop when choosing colleges. This experimental workshop helps guide the process with values clarification exercises and discussion. A panel discussion with community professionals will be held at the first workshop on October 17. To register for this workshop series, contact Toni Reiss at 269-2979 or coordinator@lextai.org.

THE RED TENT: a book discussion and tent party

Enter for the first time or revisit Anita Diamant's THE RED TENT on OCTOBER 27 from 7:30 – 9 PM. You are invited to join in a lively discussion of this thought provoking and extraordinary book. The Red Tent reads like a midrashic telling of the biblical narrative about Dinah, daughter of Jacob and his wives. Using the URJ's book discussion guidelines, we will explore in particular the themes of identity and memory. Light refreshments will be served. Please RSVP to the Temple office by October 25 to allow us to ensure proper arrangements.

Commit to joining in the party. Grow with us and even where we diverge in our wants, know that being part of each others experience is the blessing far greater than getting what we want. Getting what we want is temporal. Being who we want to be, and with whom we want to be, is the much greater blessing. The world will continue to change around us. If we want to help shape the direction it flows, then we must commit to being involved in the change.

My family wishes our whole community a Shanah Tova m'tukah. May it be a sweet year and may we meet the challenges of our changing world together.

NOTE: My family and I thank all of you who sent us the beautiful Rosh HaShanah basket we received.

ADULT EDUCATION

TORAH STUDY

Rabbi Kline conducts Torah Study in the TAI library, Saturdays at 9 AM on alternate weeks. He is joined by a congenial group that brings together members of TAI and others, who, following the ancient tradition of Judaism, love study and matters of the mind. The present study centers on the Book of Deuteronomy. If you enjoy wrestling with problems of life and faith, join this friendly group.

October schedule is 10/2, 10/16 and 10/30.

KOLLEL STUDY GROUP

Joe Engelberg leads this study of fundamental ideas of Jewish life and thought. Among these are spirituality, the nature of God, a critique of Biblical and traditional injunctions and laws, Jewish history, principles of the Reform movement, the relation of Judaism to Christianity, Islam, and Buddhism. The purpose of the Kollel group's study is not to assert these principles as eternal truths, nor to refute them, but to discover the wisdom there is in them and to expand upon them. Drop in any time and join in the provocative and friendly discussion.

October schedule is 10/9 and 10/23.

Rabbi Kline's Adult Ed. Classes

The classes started in September and will continue on the following dates. If you are taking these classes, please note the dates on your calendar.

Sundays October 3, 10, & 17

Beginning Hebrew begins at 3 PM
Introduction to Judaism begins at 4:15 PM

Please send your new e-mail address to Sandee at Sandee@lextai.org so you can receive the weekly e-mail news. Many people have been dropped by the service due to incorrect e-mail addresses. We need your help to keep the data base updated.

RABBI KLINE OFFERS WEDNESDAY ADULT ED CLASSES AT 12:15 PM & 7 PM

These classes cover varied topics that relate to Judaism and are of interest to the Lexington community. They are free and open to all. The topic will be announced in the Wednesday Temple Adath Israel Weekly News e-mail. Please come join us for an informative discussion of topics.

October 6	7 PM (topic to be announced)
October 13	7 PM (topic to be announced)
October 20	12:15 PM (topic to be announced)
October 27	12:15 PM (topic to be announced)

November subjects will be announced in the November bulletin.

THE TEMPLE LIBRARY NEEDS YOUR HELP

If you received a book from Danny Siegel on Sat., Sept. 11th, would you please, call the Temple. He evidently, gave out Temple books and we'd like to know where they are.

The Temple Library Committee thanks you for your help in keeping our library up to date.

Thank you, Bobbi Fried
Library Committee Chair

THANK YOU!!

To the Baker, Hymson, and Straus families for the beautiful flowers provided for the pulpit and library for Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur. Harold & Anita Baker and Gene & Barbara Straus donated the pulpit flowers for Rosh HaShanah in memory of Freda & Ben Roos and Maree & Barnett Winters. The Yom Kippur flowers were donated by Harold & Anita and Evelyn Hymson in memory of Ida & Morris Baker, Gloria Baker Siegel, and Maurice Hymson. Ben & Ruth Baker donated flowers for the library for Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL MISSION STATEMENT

Adath Israel Congregation is a Reform Congregation, affiliated with the Union of Reform Judaism (URJ). This congregation is established to maintain a Temple of facilities for communal worship in the tradition of Reform Judaism, to provide a religious school for the instruction of children, and to engage in other activities to promote the fundamental principles of Judaism.

CRAFT AND KIBBITZ

We continue to look for people to join us for the Handcrafters group. The times may change in order for more people to participate. Watch your bulletin or an e-mail to keep informed of the days and times of the meetings.

Please call the Temple office at 269-2979 and join this great group of people.

TUESDAY BRIDGE CLUB

The Tuesday Bridge Group meets in the Temple Library beginning at 11 AM. Bring your lunch and play until 2 PM. You don't have to be an expert to join. This group is going strong, so if you like to play bridge, here's your chance to join and socialize with fellow Temple members.

If you wish to join in, please check with other players or the Temple office each week to see if the group is playing.

KROGER CARD MEIJERS OR SLOAN'S SCRIP

Did you just buy groceries, stamps, flowers, have photos developed or fill prescriptions? Did you use your Kroger card or scrip? There will be no soliciting...no calling...no asking for donationsyou are going to make these purchases anyway.... so why not earn money for Temple Adath Israel at the same time? Just use your Kroger card, Meijer's or Sloane's scrip and participate in an ongoing fundraiser. Temple earns a percentage of what you spend at these stores. It is that easy! If you need a card or more scrip, please contact the Temple office.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

From the President, Marcia Brown

I hope all who came to our opening program at the Mad Potter enjoyed themselves. A little creative energy is always good!! We welcome the presence of a few new faces, as well as our loyal returning members! We need not just a few good women, but all the women of TAI!!!! There are a few committee and board positions open...if you would like to get involved even just a little, please let me know. Please mark your calendars...on October 3, a fun, family afternoon in the Sukkah, a potluck lunch and our families can join in the decorating of our Sukkah. On the evening of October 20, Sisterhood will host our New Member event. Watch the mail for your invitation. A big thank you to Mary Engel and Connie Grobstein and the crew for coordinating a wonderful Break the Fast. Your time is so appreciated!! It means so much to celebrate the holidays as a community. Our invitations to join Sisterhood have gone out in the mail. Please make it a priority to become a member of a worthwhile organization! We look forward to an enlightening and very rewarding year.

PRESCHOOL

Laura Creamer, Preschool Director

Hello from the Preschool! It has been a very busy month!! The 2 ½ and 3 year old classes have been talking about feelings and manners and making some fun art projects to take home. They are also learning Hebrew with Ms. Brown! Mrs. Logsdon has been teaching us about music and singing fun songs! The 4 year olds have been learning all about the ocean, the zoo, and exploring the farm. They took a trip to Double Stink Hog Farm and had such fun picking pumpkins and taking a hay ride! We talked all about Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur and LOVED dipping our apples in honey! We also had a great time at Boyds Orchard picking apples for our Rosh HaShanah baskets! A big thank you to everyone who helped support the Preschool by ordering the baskets and a heartfelt thanks to Tom & Eve Stern for all the goodies from Israel. A special thank you to Mimi Kaufman for all her hard work that made this a very successful fundraiser!

We are looking forward to the cooler weather and learning all about Autumn. The firefighters will be visiting us in October and we will talk about fire safety. I hope that everyone had a good High Holy Day season and has a happy Autumn!

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL BOOK FAIR
NOVEMBER 7—10 AM TO 1 PM
GREAT JEWISH CHILDREN'S BOOKS FOR HANUKKAH!

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Jane Gris , Youth Education Director

Religious School is off to a great start this year. On August 29th, we held a teacher in-service program where about 15 teachers and 5 high school student aides came together to learn and plan for the upcoming year. Rabbi Kline did a wonderful session on innovative ideas for classroom lesson plans and Marcia Mermelstein, the URJ Regional Educator from St. Louis, introduced our teachers to the new Chai Curriculum from URJ.

At our opening day of Religious School, 130 students registered. We were fortunate to start the year with Danny Siegel who spoke about social action and inspired our students to take the initiative to make our world a better place. On September 26, our 6th grade class conducted a holiday fair and taught our younger students about Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur. On September 12th, our eighth graders took a trip to Louisville for brunch at Lynn's Paradise Caf  and the showing of PULSE: A Stomp Odyssey. On September 26th, the class saw the play Witness at the Lexington Children's Theatre. Both of these events tie in with their unit on film and drama.

If you have not already registered, please consider signing up for our Adult Hebrew class on Sunday mornings. We are meeting from 9:30 to 10:15 in the 8th grade classroom. Stephanie Barrett is teaching the class and it is a great introduction to basic Hebrew. No prior knowledge is required so join us and learn with your children.

PLEASE LET US KNOW!!!

As a result of patient confidentiality, some area hospitals will not release to us the names of Jewish patients when our Temple office calls. Therefore, Rabbi Kline and the Temple are relying on you to let us know when someone is in the hospital. Please call us when you know about someone going into the hospital. Your help in this matter is invaluable.

Temple Adath Israel Bulletin

NOVEMBER 2004

Cheshvan-Kislev 5765

FROM THE RABBI

Let me first thank everyone for a wonderful holiday season and for a wonderfully full Preschool holiday basket. We truly are blessed to be here.

By the time you get this, we will be on the cusp of electing the next man to fill the office of President of the United States of America. Whether that person is the incumbent or the challenger is yet to be seen, but there is one thing that we must all recognize. As Jews, this election has been an embarrassment to all concerned. The name calling and back biting that has defined this and most elections of recent memory, serve only to let our children know that it is okay to break all the rules of decency when it comes to attaining power. Given the rules that bind us to a system of ethics, and ethical behavior, both of the major parties have failed in maintaining any sense of decorum or self respect. As an American, I find it horribly odd that we welcome this month with such horrible behavior, only to end it with Thanksgiving – thanking God for the opportunity to live in this great land – the one whose electoral process all but requires us to bludgeon each other in order to create a government.

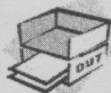

I will have a hard time celebrating Thanksgiving this year, regardless of who wins this election. The reputations that have been demeaned, the dignity that has been tossed aside, and the utter lack of concern for civility disillusion one whose life is based in the hope that we might help bring about the coming of Messiah. With the current state of affairs in our government, I see the society that claims to be the most civilized in the modern world, to be in truth, one of the most inhospitable and barbaric. That many of you read this and say, "Oh come on Rabbi, it is only an election," proves that we have become absolutely desensitized to the way in which we hurt each other. I am reminded of a time in history when we faced destruction because of our harshness towards each other. The Talmud teaches us that the Second Temple fell because one man humiliated his neighbor, and no one stopped him from doing so. I am reminded of the pogroms that people stood by and watched; the beatings that people cheered; and the Holocaust wherein 13 million lives were taken because no one said, "Enough." I am reminded of the words of the great martyr Janus Korczak, who, on the way to Treblinka said, "A plea on

The High Holy Days at TAI were truly spiritual and moving. The Temple came together as a community to welcome the New Year with friends and family. I had the opportunity to meet many of the new Temple families and I hope the holidays were as rewarding for you. The success of the services are in thanks to the hard work and dedication of not only the Rabbi, but many others who gave of their time and energy for those days. To all of you who participated, I offer my genuine thanks.

Committees are meeting, a variety of events and programs are scheduled throughout the fall. Check the calendar, mark the dates to come to the Temple and experience the richness we have to offer.

L'Shalom

SISTERHOOD NEWS

From the President, Marcia Brown

Sisterhood is off to a great start!! So far we have created some beautiful pottery (absolutely in the eyes of the beholder), decorated our Sukkah, welcomed new members, schmoozed and also, sponsored Break the Fast. What a beautiful afternoon we had to decorate our Sukkah. Our families performed a mitzvah and had lots of fun doing it, together! Our New Member coffee was an informal and wonderful venue to meet and greet new and old members, alike. We learned what Sisterhood can do for you and hopefully what you can do for our Sisterhood! A delightful evening! It is always very encouraging to see new faces attending our programs and working on projects. Our hope is for every woman, and now our little sisters, to become a member of Sisterhood. By now all women have received the notification of our new dues structure. By participating in the higher levels of contribution, this will allow Sisterhood to perform more mitzvahs for our community and mostly for our Temple and also, to provide more programming. So, thank you to our members who are rising to those levels. The months are flying by and the holiday season is almost upon us. Please visit our gift shop, we are constantly adding new items and there are many beautiful items for your Chanukkah shopping...and we all know there is always time for shopping!! And speaking of shopping...Sisterhood will be hosting an evening of shopping. So, mark your calendars and watch your mail for more information.....November 17 will be the night. We have much more on our calendar for the coming months. So, please join us and once again, we welcome all new members.

L'shalom

Marcia

ADULT EDUCATION

TORAH STUDY

Rabbi Kline conducts Torah Study in the TAI library, Saturdays at 9 AM on alternate weeks. He is joined by a congenial group that brings together members of TAI and others, who, following the ancient tradition of Judaism, love study and matters of the mind. The present study centers on the Book of Deuteronomy. If you enjoy wrestling with problems of life and faith, join this friendly group.

November schedule is 11/13 and 11/27.

KOLLEL STUDY GROUP

Joe Engelberg leads this study of fundamental ideas of Jewish life and thought. Among these are spirituality, the nature of God, a critique of Biblical and traditional injunctions and laws, Jewish history, principles of the Reform movement, the relation of Judaism to Christianity, Islam, and Buddhism. The purpose of the Kollel group's study is not to assert these principles as eternal truths, nor to refute them, but to discover the wisdom there is in them and to expand upon them. Drop in any time and join in the provocative and friendly discussion. November schedule is 11/6 and 11/20.

THE TEMPLE LIBRARY NEEDS YOUR HELP

If you received a book from Danny Siegel on Sat., Sept. 11th, would you please, call the Temple. He evidently, gave out Temple books and we'd like to know where they are.

The Temple Library Committee thanks you for your help in keeping our library up to date.

Thank you, Bobbi Fried
Library Committee Chair

FINDING A JEWISH PATH WHILE THE GROUND SHIFTS BENEATH US

This class will take place this year on the following dates: 11/21/04, 12/19/04, 1/23/05, 2/13/05, 3/20/05, 4/17/05, and 5/22/05. This is an adult discussion group led by Larry Kant, that studies traditional Jewish sources in novel ways as we seek to reclaim a modern Jewish path. As in previous years, times are on selected Sundays from 10:00 am until 12 noon. This year our theme will be "Difficult Bible Passages."

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL MISSION STATEMENT

Adath Israel Congregation is a Reform Congregation, affiliated with the Union of Reform Judaism (URJ). This congregation is established to maintain a Temple of facilities for communal worship in the tradition of Reform Judaism, to provide a religious school for the instruction of children, and to engage in other activities to promote the fundamental principles of Judaism.

CRAFT AND KIBBITZ

We continue to look for people to join us for the Handcrafters group. The times may change in order for more people to participate. Watch your bulletin or an e-mail to keep informed of the days and times of the meetings.

Please call the Temple office at 269-2979 and join this great group of people.

TUESDAY BRIDGE CLUB

The Tuesday Bridge Group meets in the Temple Library beginning at 11 AM. Bring your lunch and play until 2 PM. You don't have to be an expert to join. This group is going strong, so if you like to play bridge, here's your chance to join and socialize with fellow Temple members.

If you wish to join in, please check with other players or the Temple office each week to see if the group is playing.

KROGER CARD MEIJERS OR SLONE'S SCRIP

Wouldn't you like to contribute to Temple Adath Israel without a phone call or letter of solicitation? It is as easy as just going to the grocery store and taking care of your family's needs!!! Just use your Kroger card, Meijer's or Slone's scrip! You are going to make these purchases anyway.... so why not earn money for Temple Adath Israel at the same time and participate in an ongoing fundraiser. Temple earns a percentage of what you spend at these stores!! For the month of September, Temple earned $1042.00 from 56 members' participation! Just think if all Temple families participated!! If you need a card or more scrip, or have any questions, please contact the Temple office.

behalf of respect for the here and now, for today. How can we assure life in the future, if we have not learned how to live consciously, and responsibly in the present? Do not trample, hold in contempt or sell the future into bondage. Do not stifle it, rush or force it. Respect every single moment, as it will pass and it will never again be repeated." When we allow ourselves to sink to the levels of indecency that allow us to applaud men and women who see it as their job to undo the dignity of another, we have sold our future into bondage. As I think about what people have to do, just to become our leaders, I have to look at the story of the pilgrims and wonder if it is not this very epidemic that they fled. As they sought freedom from the oppression and the indignities of a government doing "business as usual," we must, as well. There can be no greater hurt than one caused by a loss of faith and trust. This is especially true when the trust was asked for by the one in breach.

But, if this is all that I have to offer, then I have abdicated my right and my obligation as an American to make matters better. If I allow myself to wallow in the muck of this mudslinging, I become part of the problem and by no means part of the cure. To remain silent and resign myself to just accepting whatever happens as "business as usual" is to say to my children that this is the American ideal. So, I feel that I have to write this. I have to speak out. I have to build in to Thanksgiving a call to remembrance, a reminder of the original cause of our celebration. So, this year, at my thanksgiving table, we will have our traditional turkey (fried and smoked for variety). And, we are going to have an apple pie for there is nothing more American than an apple pie. We are going to do more than eat. We are going to retell the story of why people came here at all. As a Jew, I look to this day as the insurance policy that provides me safety and security for the future. So long as people remember why the Pilgrims came, we know that freedom of dignity and respect is secure in our land. Where that memory fades, we invite trouble. Do more than just eat at this holiday. Commit to awakening in your family and guests the dream for a better call to leadership and a stronger, more vibrant tomorrow.

THANK YOU!

A very special thank you to Arthur & Marilyn Lieber for their gracious donation of the new bimah handrails. The donation was made in celebration of the Lieber's 50th wedding anniversary.

Thanks to Arthur and Marilyn for your beautiful addition to our Sanctuary.

PRESCHOOL

Laura Creamer, Preschool Director

October was such a fun month at TAI Preschool and we are looking forward to a busy November! In October, the firefighters came to visit, the staff went to a wonderful KAECE conference, and the teachers loved all the drawings, flowers and tokens they received for Teacher Appreciation Week! Our students have had a great time exploring the fall season through a wide variety of activities incorporating the five senses.

With Thanksgiving just around the corner, the children are beginning to get excited about their preparations for their classroom Thanksgiving Feast. We are busy planning our Family Spaghetti Nite on Thursday, November 18th. Also of note, "Mr. Jim" Holifield of Holifield Photography will be at preschool on Wednesday, November 3rd and Thursday, November 4th for individual student and classroom portraits. Order forms need to be turned in by the day of the portrait sitting.

There are still a few spaces left in all of our classes. Spread the word, and call Laura Creamer at the preschool, at 269-2979 or 269-1915 for more information.

Avery: I like drawing Hebrew letters on the board.

Samantha: I like when we get cupcakes.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Jane Gris , Youth Education Director

We are looking for mentshes. What is a mentsh? According to the Yiddish dictionary, a mentsh is a "special person....a person with worth and dignity, one who can be respected." We are going to be selecting mentshes of the month in our religious school so that we can recognize students who exemplify these qualities. We hope that every student will be recognized as a mentsh during the year because we believe that all of our students have mentsh potential. We will make these awards at our monthly assemblies. Please remember that we will be having assemblies in the Sanctuary on the first Sunday of each month at 12:00 for religious school students and parents.

Please come to our Religious School Jewish Book Fair on November 7th from 9:30 to 12:30. This will be a great opportunity to buy Jewish books, CDs, and games. Come and do some great shopping and support the Religious School.

Pre-K and Kindergarten, Debbie Masters & Kaye Kaplan Teachers

The Pre-K and Kindergarten students have started the school year off at a very fast pace. We have learned about and celebrated Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, Sukkot, and Simchat Torah. Both classes had a lot of fun making shofars, Sukkah decorations, and flags. We also celebrated the New Year by having apples and honey. We enjoyed attending the Holiday Fair, which had various holiday activities.

Besides learning about all of the holidays, the Kindergarten class spent time preparing for Consecration. They did a wonderful job. We plan on having a very busy year filled with lots of fun and learning.

PLEASE LET US KNOW!!!

As a result of patient confidentiality, some area hospitals will not release to us the names of Jewish patients when our Temple office calls. Therefore, Rabbi Kline and the Temple are relying on you to let us know when someone is in the hospital. Please call us when you know about someone going into the hospital. Your help in this matter is invaluable.
