Hal Mumme Leads UK Into a New Era

Copy 1

The 1997 season opens a new chapter in the history of Kentucky football as Hal Mumme begins his first season as head coach of the Wildcats.

Fans and media will notice immediate changes in playing styles. Mumme's pass-oriented offense has produced big numbers at his previous schools, including 3,000-yard quarterbacks and 1,000-yard rushers. The defense will be an aggressive 4-3 scheme, the same system currently used by the Dallas Cowboys.

The Wildcats will sport a different look, thanks to new uniform and helmet designs. Mumme also is introducing a new junior varsity team in an effort to develop non-scholarship players who can play for the Wildcats.

It's also an exciting time in academic life. The UK Athletics Association will open a new facility for student-athletes, The Ohio Casualty Center for Academic and Tutorial Services, in January. That month also will see the grand opening of the University's new $58 million William T. Young Library.

In addition to the new people and places at UK, the 1997 campaign will include some milestones, too. Kentucky's next victory will be the 500th in school history. And, while in the midst of celebrating its 25th year in Commonwealth Stadium, the Athletics Association is finalizing plans for renovation and expansion of the stadium.

These are some of the many changes that will make 1997 Kentucky football "A Whole New Ballgame."

C. M. Newton (right), Kentucky Director of Athletics, introduced new coach Hal Mumme on Dec. 2, 1996.

Quarterback Tim Couch will play a central role in the new UK offense. The pass-oriented attack is one of several changes in store for 1997 Kentucky football.

Photo credentials will be issued only to accredited media outlets — daily newspapers, specialized publications and television stations.

Admission to the Commonwealth Stadium sidelines is by a combination of photo pass and armband. Photographers must sign in and present their credential at the UK Press Will Call table, located inside Gate Seven of Commonwealth Stadium, to obtain an armband.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking at Commonwealth Stadium is available on a limited basis. Requests for parking should be made when submitting press and/or photo credentials. The media parking area is located in the Yellow Lot just behind the West side (Alumni Drive) of Nutter Field House. The Yellow Lot is accessible via Alumni Drive.

PRESS BOX

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is for working media members ONLY. It is located on the West side (Alumni Drive) of Commonwealth Stadium between the upper and lower grandstands. The media entrance to Commonwealth Stadium is Gate Seven. Two press box elevators are located just to the left of the Gate Seven entrance.

The photo deck, radio booths, television booths, coaches booths, and VIP booths are located on the press box level of Commonwealth Stadium. All can be accessed via the press box elevator.

MEDIA WILL CALL

Media or photo credentials which have not been mailed can be obtained at the Media Will Call table, located just inside Gate Seven of Commonwealth Stadium. Media Will Call opens two hours prior to kickoff and closes 15 minutes following kickoff.

TELEPHONES

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is equipped with eight courtesy telephones with long-distance capabilities for use by the media on a first-come, first-served basis. The UK Media Relations Office strongly suggests each media outlet with deadline restrictions should order its own individual telephone line. Members of the media wishing to order phone lines can do so by contacting John Fuller of the UK Phone Services Depart-ment. His telephone number is (606) 257-7727. Please order phone lines at least one week in advance.

DARKROOM FACILITIES

Limited darkroom facilities are available in the Commonwealth Stadium press box. Photographers wishing to use the darkroom facilities should make arrangements with Tony Neely of the UK Media Relations Office at (606) 257-3838.

VISITING RADIO

The official visiting radio broadcast network should be designated in writing by the visiting team's sports information director or athletics director. Four phone lines will be made available, including two in the locker room area, at a cost to be determined by Mike Dodson of Host Communications (606) 226-4678.

Networks wishing to install additional telephone lines, either in the press box booth or locker room, can do so by contacting John Fuller of the UK Phone Services Department at (606) 257-7727.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

UK Coach Hal Mumme will conduct his postgame press conference in the Wildcat Den, located under the East grandstand in the UK football office complex. Mumme begins his postgame press conference approximately 15 minutes following the conclusion of the contest. The media entrance to the Wildcat Den is located in the northeast corner (nearest flagpole) of Commonwealth Stadium.

The Kentucky locker room is CLOSED to all members of the media. UK players requested for interviews are brought to the Wildcat Den following the conclusion of Mumme's press conference. Interview cards are distributed in the press box during the second half of the contest in order for members of the media to request Wildcats players.

The visitors' locker room is located at the northwest corner of Commonwealth Stadium. A press conference area is located just outside the visitors' locker room entrance. The visiting coach and players generally conduct their respective post-game comments from that area.

STATS 'N' STUFF

The UK Media Relations Office will provide a complete pregame packet (including facts sheets, flip card, and game program) approximately 30 minutes prior to kickoff. A complete running play-by-play, drive charts and team and individual statistics are made available at the conclusion of the contest. Quotes from coaches and players of both teams are also provided.

A FAX service is also available. FAX request forms will be issued during the second half to media members requesting them. Statistics and play-by-play may be accessed after the game via fax-on-demand. Contact the Media Relations Office (606) 257-3838 for details.

New Coaching Staff

The coaching staff assembled by Hal Mumme is a unique group — diverse in experience but unified in the quest to bring championship football to the University of Kentucky.

Three assistant coaches came with Mumme from Valdosta State University. Defensive coordinator/linebackers coach Mike Major is in his sixth coaching stop with Mumme, the fourth time that Mumme has been head coach and Major has been defensive coordinator. Defensive tackles coach Mike Fanoga and receivers coach Mike Leach were with Mumme at Valdosta State and Iowa Wesleyan and help ensure a smooth transition to the new offensive and defensive systems.

Another assistant who is familiar with the UK defensive scheme is cornerbacks coach Tim Keane. The defense is the variation of the "4-3" designed by Larry Lacewell, who is with the Dallas Cowboys. Keane and Lacewell developed the system while coaching together at Arkansas State.

Two of the new assistants have playing and coaching experience in both college and professional football. Offensive line coach Guy Morriss was a 15-year veteran of the NFL, an All-Pro lineman, and played in the Super Bowl. Since his playing days, he has been an assistant coach with the New England Patriots and Arizona Cardinals and his collegiate experience includes time with Mumme at Valdosta State. Darrell Patterson, who will coach the safeties at UK, has a wealth of defensive experience. He was a star player in the Canadian Football League and since his playing retirement has been a coach in college and the CFL.

Three more assistants, defensive ends coach Tom Adams, running backs coach Tony Franklin, and recruiting coordinator Claude Bassett, were long-time friends with Mumme and have joined one of Mumme's staffs for the first time. Adams got to know Mumme during their years as coaches in Texas. Mumme recruited Franklin's players when Franklin was a high school coach. In addition, Franklin is well-versed in the passing game, having constructed record-setting passing offenses at several of his high school coaching stops. Bassett and Mumme became acquainted when they were both coaching in the Western Athletic Conference.

For more biographical information on Coach Hal Mumme and the UK staff, see pages 40-54.

New Passing Offense

The Kentucky offense will have a new look in 1997. Coach Hal Mumme, who is also the offensive coordinator, has installed a pass-oriented offense patterned after the system used by Brigham Young. Mumme first became interested in the BYU style while he was an assistant at Texas-El Paso. Mumme adopted the scheme when he coached at Copperas Cove (Tex.) High School from 1986-88, then continued with it at Iowa Wesleyan and Valdosta State.

Productivity has been the name of the game for Mumme's offensive units. One of his Iowa Wesleyan teams led the NAIA in passing offense and the other two finished second. Mumme's Valdosta State teams set numerous school, conference. and national records.

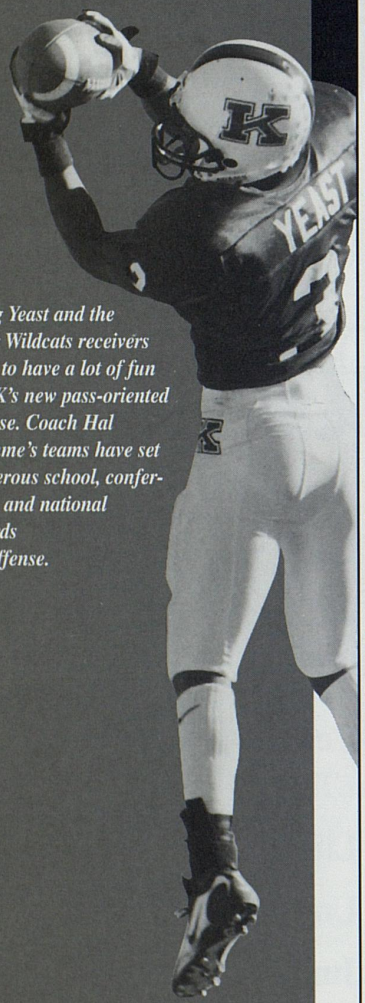

Last season at Valdosta State, for example, Mumme's offense averaged 38.8 points and 484.4 yards per game. The yardage breakdown was 328.9 passing yards and 155.5 rushing yards per game. The run-pass ratio was 40.5 percent running plays and 59.5 percent passing plays.

New Style of "4-3" Defense

Kentucky will continue to use a "4-3" defensive alignment, but with a different style of play. Kentucky's new 4-3 is based on the daring, aggressive system created by Larry Lacewell, the long-time college coach who is now with the Dallas Cowboys.

Defensive coordinator Mike Major will be in charge of teaching the new scheme. Major was the defensive coordinator for Mumme all five years at Valdosta State. Major's stop troops led the Gulf South Conference in various categories during those years and also achieved some top-10 national rankings. His teams posted six shutouts in five years. VSU had produced only four shutouts in the 10 years preceding Major's arrival.

Nine VSU players were named first-team All-GSC under Major's tutelage. Antonio Edwards was GSC Defensive Player of the Year in 1992 and went on to become a starting defensive end for the Seattle Seahawks. Four other Major-coached players also signed professional contracts.

Craig Yeast and the other Wildcats receivers hope to have a lot of fun in UK's new pass-oriented offense. Coach Hal Mumme's teams have set numerous school, conference, and national records for offense.

What's New at Kentucky?

New Academic Center

The University of Kentucky Athletics Association, a pioneer in the field of academic support for student-athletes, has taken another step in its commitment to education.

In 1981, UK opened the Center for Academic and Tutorial Services (CATS) — the first facility in the country dedicated exclusively to the academic support of student-athletes. Over the years, the services offered through CATS have grown, and so has the need for additional space.

Therefore, in January of 1998, UK will open the new Ohio Casualty Center for Academic and Tutorial Services. The UK Athletics Association has invested $2.4 million in the construction of the new center, including a $1 million gift from the Ohio Casualty Insurance Group. The center is located in Memorial Coliseum and is being constructed in the area formerly occupied by the coliseum pool.

The new center covers approximately 20,000 square feet — easily more than twice the size of the current CATS. The center will have a computer room that will house approximately 40 computers, a study area that will accommodate approximately 90-100 people, 25 tutoring rooms, a career development library, a community outreach office, and offices for the staff.

Stadium Renovations Underway

The University of Kentucky is in the process of renovating and expanding Commonwealth Stadium.

UK plans to expand seating capacity to between 60,000 and 70,000 by enclosing one or both ends of the stadium. UK also will construct new luxury boxes and other fan-oriented facilities.

The 1997-98 school year will be a time of decision for the stadium expansion. A feasibility study has been completed and additional research has been conducted, paving the way for the UK administration to begin finalizing plans.

Phase I of the process was completed during the summer of 1997. Restroom facilities were renovated and upgraded. In addition, the water systems and other infrastructure serving the stadium were expanded.

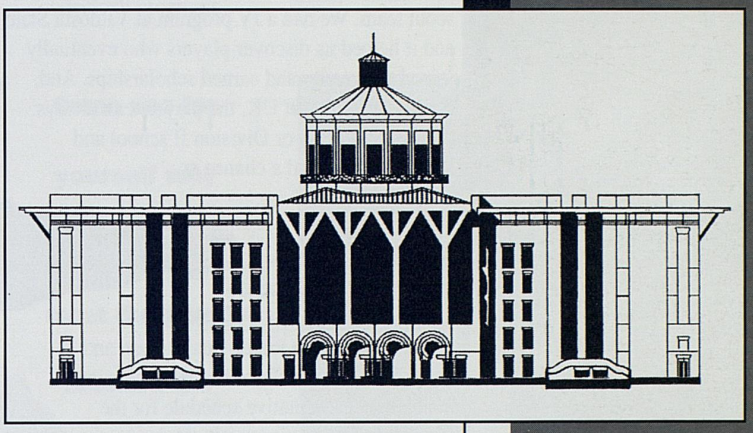

Phase I of the stadium expansion cost $2.7 million. A total of $24 million has been allocated for the project.

New Library

The latest addition to the educational landscape at the University of Kentucky is the new William T. Young Library.

Built at a cost of $58 million, the Young Library will be completed in the fall and is slated to open in January, 1998. Here are more facts about this magnificent structure:

- Size: the new library will cover 351,350 square feet — more than six football fields.
- Shelf capacity: if the bookshelf space were laid end-to-end, it would stretch 198,828 linear feet — that's more than 37 miles of shelf space.
- Seating capacity: the new library can seat more than 4,000 patrons at one time, a 355 percent increase over the current UK library. The seating on the fifth floor of the new library equals the capacity of the current UK library.

- Computer connections: every study table and study carrel in the new library will have an electrical outlet and a computer jack connected to the university's computer system.
- Flexibility: the library has a state-of-the-art electronic infrastructure that will enable UK to take full advantage of current and emerging technology. In addition, the five floors and basement of the structure are designed as open, flexible spaces, enabling the library to adapt its services and facilities to the future changes in the needs of UK students.
- Financing: The athletics department has its own special investment in the new library. UK Athletics is providing $3,200,000 on an annual basis to help pay for the $58 million building.

Above is an architect's drawing of the front of the building. A photo of the nearly-completed library is on page 135.

What's New at Kentucky?

New Junior Varsity Team

Coach Hal Mumme will begin a junior varsity team in 1997.

The team will be comprised primarily of walk-ons, in addition to a few scholarship players who are not being redshirted. The team will be formed at the beginning of the fall semester and practice for approximately one month before playing games.

The junior varsity team has a five-game schedule in October. The players will run the same offensive and defensive systems used by the Wildcats. The JV season will be capped with a scrimmage against the Wildcats redshirts. The top players from the JV team will join the varsity for the final two games of the season.

"This gives the players the opportunity to come and show that they can play at UK," Mumme said. "A player gets to run our offense and our defense, instead of running some other team's plays on the scout team. We had a JV program at Valdosta State and it helped us discover players who eventually joined the varsity and earned scholarships. And, if they can't play at UK, the players can always transfer to a I-AA or Division II school and know that they had a chance at a I-A program."

UK graduate assistant coach Chris Hatcher will be the head coach of the JV team. For more information on the junior varsity team and opportunities for walk-ons at UK, see page 20. Here is the tentative schedule for the 1997 Kentucky junior varsity team:

Day, Date	Opponent	Time

New Look Wildcats

The Kentucky football team will sport a new look in 1997.

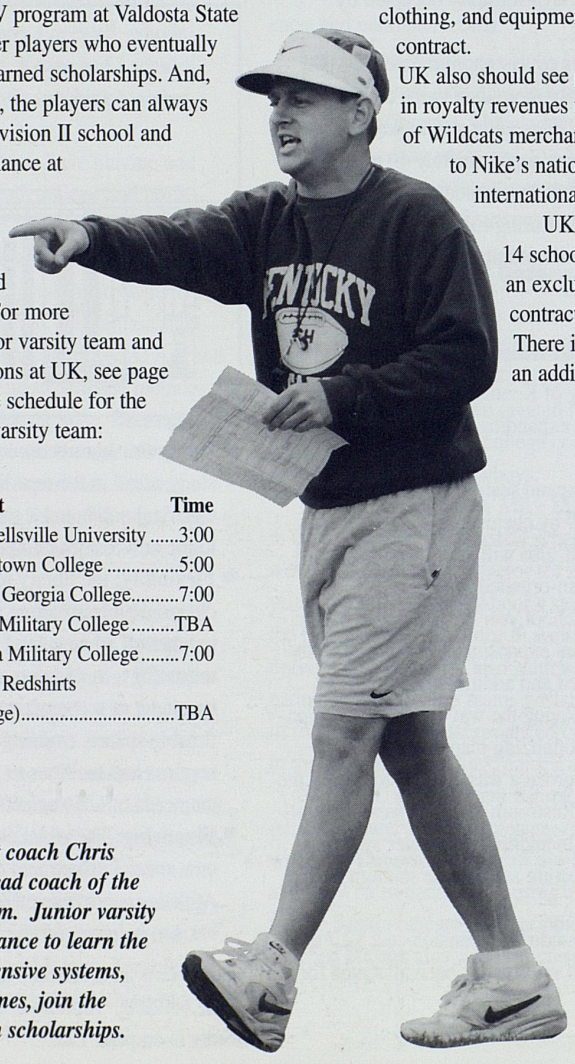

The Wildcats will wear new uniforms as part of the contract that UK signed with Nike in May, 1997. In addition to new game uniforms, Nike will supply practice gear for the Wildcats. The football team already had been using Nike shoes in recent seasons.

The new uniforms were not a finished product as this media guide went to press. (The uniform worn by Tim Couch on the cover of the media guide is the basic look, although more details will be added.)

The football team is included in an all-sports agreement signed with Nike. All 22 UK sports teams will use Nike shoes and equipment for the next five years, through the 2001-2002 school year. UK will receive more than $11 million in cash, clothing, and equipment during the contract.

UK also should see an increase in royalty revenues from the sales of Wildcats merchandise, thanks to Nike's national and international marketing.

UK is one of only 14 schools that have an exclusive all-sports contract with Nike. There is an option for an additional five years.

UK graduate assistant coach Chris Hatcher will be the head coach of the new junior varsity team. Junior varsity players will have a chance to learn the UK offensive and defensive systems, play a schedule of games, join the varsity team, and earn scholarships.

UK is Unique

Just what is a university?

Some point to buildings and think of brick and stone and mortar. Others focus on academics and think of classrooms and laboratories, books and test tubes, homework and examinations. Still others remember college life, fun and friends, and the excitement of leaving home for the first time.

Indeed, a university is all of these things, but perhaps most of all, the University of Kentucky is its people ... people who dream.

Take Dr. Charles Wethington, for instance. When Dr. Wethington assumed the presidency of UK, he saw a need and dreamed of a new library for the university. No way, he was told by well-meaning people. Too expensive. You'll never do it. Don't waste your time.

Dr. Wethington refused to let his dream go. He began an aggressive fund-raising program. Soon others began to share his dream, and now the $58 million William T. Young Library is ready to open its doors.

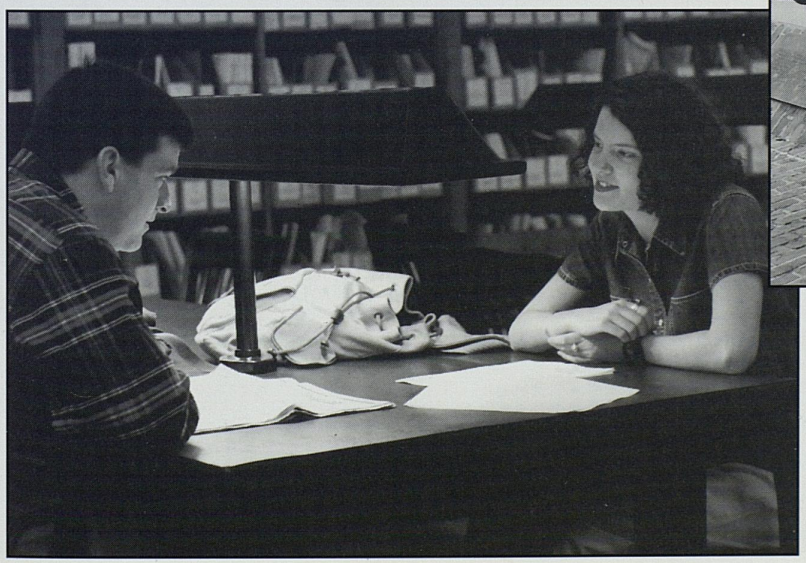

The University of Kentucky is the research doctor who dreams of a new way of ending suffering ... it's the economist who dreams of a happier life for the poor ... it's the agricultural specialist who dreams of a better way for the farmer to feed America, and the world ... it's the professor who dreams of a more effective way to teach her students ... it's the student who dreams of an "A" grade, then goes out and earns it.

UK is unique, a university on the move, with everything a student needs for a great education. Here are some of the unique facts about the University of Kentucky:

- UK has been rated as one of the Top 50 national schools for quality and value by U. S. News and World Report
- Students have a wide range of study with 84 majors from which to choose
- 98% of faculty have the highest degree attainable in their field
- 90% of classes have 40 or fewer students
- UK is among the nation's Top 20 schools in the recruitment of national merit scholars
- UK has been ranked as one of the nation's Top 100 schools for African-American students
- For those interested in postgraduate study, there are 96 master's and 59 doctoral programs

Come see for yourself why UK is unique ... meet the people ... share the dreams.

What the Players Say ...

"My classes are the best. Every teacher I've had is interested in what you think about class. They'll do anything for the students — meet you before or after class or spend extra time with the students."

"UK is small enough that it's not hard to get around. The teachers are interested in you. They're always willing to go out of their way to help you when you need it."

The finest indoor practice facility in the nation is on the campus of the University of Kentucky.

"The indoor facility is unbelievable. It makes it so much easier to work out. It's first class. I've never seen anything like it."

Even when the weather turns cold, there's a place where Kentucky football is hot.

That place is the Nutter Field House, a marvelous $8.5 million structure that is the home of the Wildcats on occasions of inclement weather.

The Nutter Field House has many benefits for the football team. First, it is the team's headquarters during the off-season winter conditioning program. When other teams are shivering in cold weather, or trying to run inside in cramped conditions, the Wildcats have a spacious, climate-controlled place for conditioning. Each athlete receives the maximum benefit from his workout.

Second, the Kentucky football team never has to miss a practice, or have the effectiveness of practice reduced, because of bad weather. The indoor facility is always ready.

Third, the field house assists in game preparation. When Kentucky plays an opponent whose field is artificial turf, the Wildcats can practice on the surface and be ready to play on Saturday.

Fourth, the players have a place to sharpen their individual skills whenever the Wildcats aren't practicing as a team.

"I don't think anyone has better facilities than Kentucky," Coach Hal Mumme says. "The Nutter Field House is the big diamond in the midst of a lot of jewels.

"Because of the field house, our guys can work out for football all year-round, regardless of the weather. It's critical in our off-season program."

Even more than an indoor practice field, the field house can accommodate the year-round needs of 12 Kentucky sports — football, baseball, softball, gymnastics, men's indoor and outdoor track, men's and women's golf, and men's and women's soccer.

"In my opinion, we already have in place the finest coaches in the country," UK Athletics Director C. M. Newton said. "The indoor facility means we have the ability to attract the finest student-athletes.

"This multi-purpose building has been a tremendous boost to all of our programs."

The Nutter Field House, which was dedicated in a ceremony on Sept. 2, 1993, covers more than 132,000 square feet and is located adjacent to the south end zone of Commonwealth Stadium. It is named for E. J. Nutter and his family for their support of and service to the university.

The Nutter Field House paid immediate dividends to the Kentucky football program. In its first year of existence, it served as the team's practice headquarters when the team earned a berth in the 1993 Peach Bowl.

The indoor facility features an actual playing field of 108,000 square feet, including a full-size artificial turf football field. The football field is surrounded by a six-lane, 290-meter track which expands to nine lanes down the straight-aways. Areas for field events are also included for the pole vault, high jump, and long jump. A 9,000-square foot gymnastics room is located in the front of the building and serves as the UK GymCats' home.

"The field house gives athletes a chance to work on their skills, especially in the off-season winter program. The team can practice any time, regardless of the weather. It opens doors for the team because we can always be together."

Littleton Ward

One of the most unique features of this multi-million dollar showplace is the electronic netting system. This system allows for different combinations of sports to practice safely, at the same time, by dividing the playing field. The nets can be lowered to separate the entire playing field from the track, or form four batting cages for baseball or driving ranges for golf. The playing field can be divided in halves to create two football, soccer, or baseball playing areas.

UK president Dr. Charles Wethington noted that the facility is used by the faculty, staff, and students, as well as varsity-athletes.

"This facility is very significant, not only to UK athletics, but to the entire University of Kentucky community," Wethington said. "The indoor facility should aid us in taking our football program to another level."

The height of the indoor facility is 72 feet at its apex. This height allows punting, and field goal targets sewn into the nets permit realistic PAT/field goal kicking during practices.

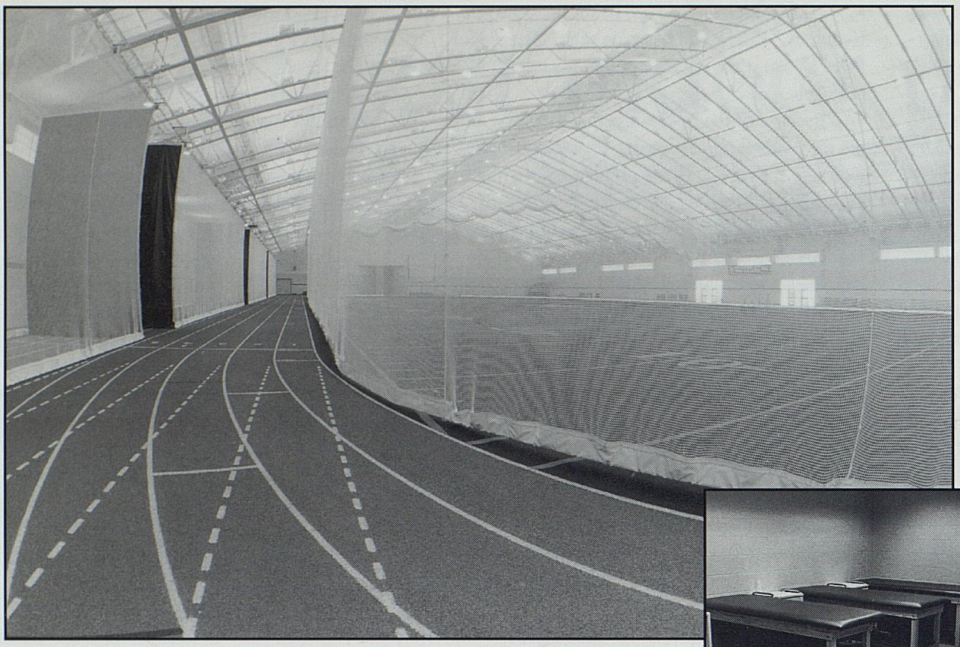

Also included in the facility is 3,000 feet of office space for the facility manager, receptionist, and coaches. The building also includes another 4,000 square feet of storage space.

Commonwealth Stadium

In regard to Commonwealth Stadium, the 1997 football season will be a time for looking back and looking forward.

Wildcats fans will look back as the school celebrates its 25th year in the stadium. It also is a time to look forward as the school administration makes the final decisions on the renovation and expansion of the stadium. UK has conducted feasibility studies and other research in preparation for finalizing plans.

A total of $24 million has been allocated for the project. The tentative plan is to increase seating capacity to a point between 60,000 and 70,000 by enclosing one or both ends of the stadium. In addition, luxury boxes and other fan-oriented facilities will be constructed.

Phase I of the project was completed during the summer of 1997. Several of the restroom areas were renovated and the water service for the entire stadium was expanded in anticipation of the upcoming construction. Phase I was completed at a cost of $2.7 million.

The 1997 season also will mark UK's first campaign under Hal Mumme, and the new coach eagerly awaits the opportunity to play in Commonwealth.

"Commonwealth Stadium is a beautiful place," Mumme said. "It's a very clean stadium, with great sight lines for the fans. The grass surface is top-notch. It's a great place for football."

Commonwealth Stadium has a current capacity of 57,800. It was completed at a cost of $12 million by the firm of Huber, Hunt, and Nichols. The stadium and parking areas rest on an 86-acre plot that was once the UK Experimental Station Farm grounds.

The most recent addition to the stadium was a $600,000 scoreboard and message center in the north end zone. The scoreboard is 19 by 78 feet in size.

The stadium was officially opened on Sept. 15, 1973, as the Wildcats moved into their new home after spending 48 years at Stoll Field/McLean Stadium across from Memorial Coliseum. Kentucky defeated Virginia Tech in the stadium opener, 31-26, as quarterback Ernie Lewis accounted for three touchdown passes to lead the Wildcats.

Since its opening, Kentucky has played 150 games within the friendly confines of Commonwealth Stadium. And indeed, an 82-64-4 record and a .560 winning percentage is evidence that Commonwealth is a home field advantage for the Wildcats.

Excellent attendance figures also have gone hand-in-hand with Kentucky football and Commonwealth Stadium. The Wildcats have averaged 54,037 fans in the 150 contests at Commonwealth since its inception. In fact, 8,105,510 spectators have witnessed Kentucky football at Commonwealth Stadium — that's more than twice the population of Kentucky.

The five-millionth person to attend a UK football game at Commonwealth Stadium was Jack Crowe of Lexington. Mr. Crowe walked through the gate as number 5,000,000 at 1 p.m. on Oct. 3, 1987, as Kentucky hosted Ohio.

Commonwealth Stadium has been home for the Kentucky Wildcats since 1973.

The official seating capacity at Commonwealth is 57,800, although standing-room only crowds will exceed that figure. A record crowd of 59,384 witnessed the 1996 season opener against Louisville.

All seating in Commonwealth Stadium is aluminum, with more than 30 percent of the aluminum seating either chair-back or bench-back.

An enclosed press box, which comfortably seats 110 members of the media, is located underneath the upper deck on the stadium's west side. Included in the press box area are eight private booths (four for VIPs), a photography deck, and two dining areas. The press box is served by two elevators.

The E.J. Nutter Training Facility

One of the nation's showcase football facilities rests on the southeast corner of the University of Kentucky campus.

The modern E. J. Nutter Football Training Facility ranks among the best in the country. Built at a cost of $5.7 million, the facility officially became the home of Kentucky Wildcat football in September 1987.

The Nutter Center, as it is called on the UK campus, encompasses over 48,000 square feet. It is located on Sports Center Drive, just across Cooper Drive from Commonwealth Stadium.

"You'll be hard-pressed to find a place that is better or more functional for players and coaches," said Coach Hal Mumme. "It's all in one place. The weight room is terrific. The training room is terrific. The video people are right there. The equipment room is the best I've ever seen. There are so many things that are helpful to players — racquetball courts, whirlpool, and so on. It's one of the top places in the nation."

Aside from dressing facilities, which feature large, personal lockers for every Kentucky football player, the Nutter Center is highlighted by a 9,000 square foot weight room. The weight room has 100,000 pounds of free weights alone in additionto numerous strength and conditioning machines.

The Nutter Center also has 11 meeting rooms, a state-of-the-art video and editing room for coaches' film, equipment and training rooms, staff and player lounges, a 60-yard sprint track, sauna and jacuzzi, an aerobics room, and three racquetball courts.

"You hear a lot of people say that it (the Nutter Training Center) is the best place they've been, that it is the best facility in college and pro football."

Lamont Smith

"It's very convenient and practical. Everything a player could want is under one roof. It's perfect."

A touch of Kentucky history is on display in the foyer area. The memorabilia case holds UK trophies from such games as the Great Lakes Bowl, the Sugar Bowl, the Cotton Bowl, the Peach Bowl, and the Hall of Fame Bowls. The case also displays UK's 1976 Southeastern Conference championship trophy.

The facility is named in honor of Ervin J. Nutter, a UK alumnus who contributed one million dollars to start the fund-raising campaign.

Players enjoy a spacious, comfortable locker room.

Ervin J. Nutter donated $1 million toward the construction of the Nutter Football Training Facility.

The Nutter gift to the UK Athletics Association was one of the largest gifts ever received by the UKAA.

"The University has been a great inspiration to me," Nutter said. "I do not feel as if I've given anything away. I'm just repaying what the University has done for me."

Nutter, a graduate of Hamilton (Ohio) High School, entered the UK College of Engineering and worked his way through college as an electrician. He left UK before graduation and passed the State of Ohio's examination for stationary engineers, becoming the youngest licensed stationary engineer in the state.

He worked three years for Procter and Gamble's Power Division before returning to UK to receive his bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering in 1943.

After serving with distinction with the engineering division at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Nutter became president of Elano Corporation. He later became president of Acme Screw Products of Dayton, Ohio.

While his unprecedented gift represented Nutter's love for the UK athletics program, his love for the University as a whole is well documented. Nutter served two terms (1966-68) as president of the UK National Alumni Association and four years as chairman of the UK Development Council Board.

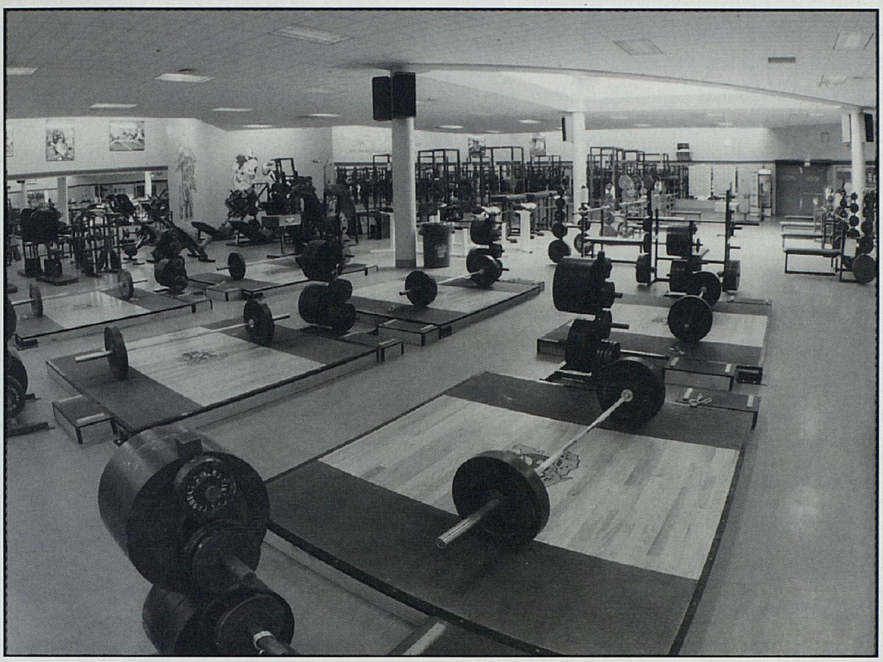

The E.J. Nutter Training Facility

Another important part in building the Nutter Center was the donation of $300,000 by Seth Hancock, a central Kentucky horseman. Hancock also played a key role in raising the necessary dollars for the facility as chairman of the united effort to raise $2.7 million from private donors.

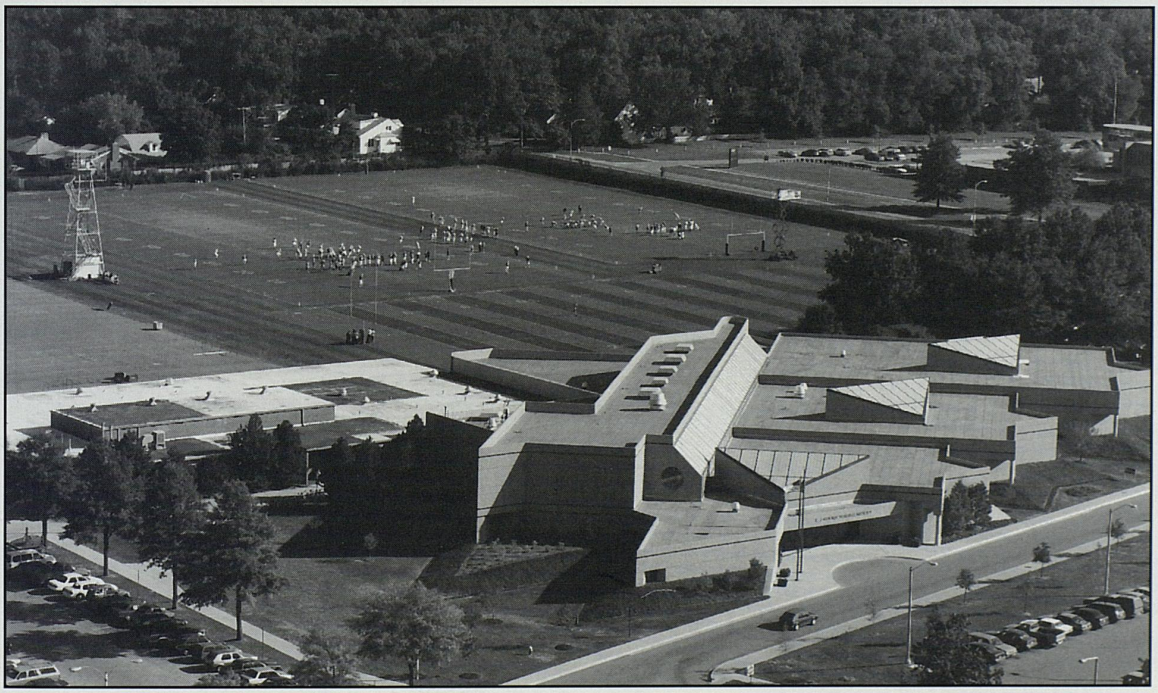

The ceremonial dedication of the Nutter Center took place on Sept. 11, 1987, with Nutter, Hancock, Jerry Claiborne (then UK head coach), Cliff Hagan (then UK athletics director), and former UK president Otis Singletary in attendance.

Kentucky Strength Program

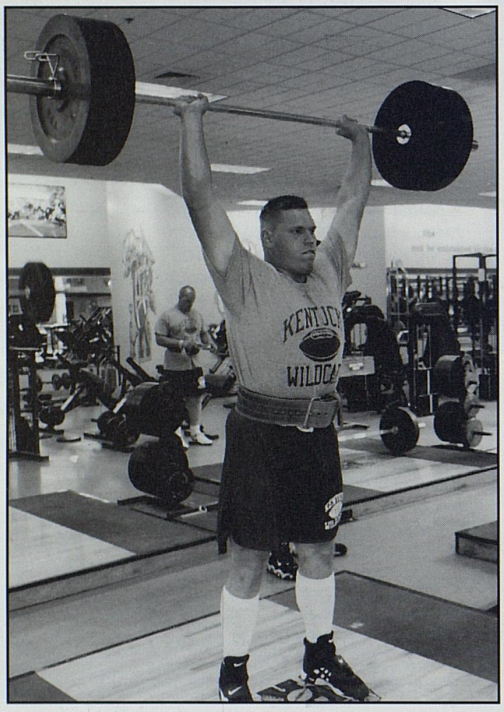

How good is the University of Kentucky strength and conditioning program? Let the players tell you.

"Our strength program is excellent. I've gained about 35 pounds since coming to UK. I'm also stronger and faster. They (the strength coaches) are very professional and have helped me become a better athlete. As far as I'm concerned, they're the best."

Senior wide receiver Tyler Siddens

"The strength program is as essential as eating and drinking. Like your parents prepare you to go into the world, they prepare you to go on the field. The way they set things up is unbelievable."

Senior defensive end Dele Ali

Offensive lineman John Schlarman makes a big lift in the clean-and-jerk.

"The strength coaches do a good job of getting us ready. They give plenty of individual attention and they give attention to everybody."

Senior defensive end Lamont Smith

"Coach Oviatt and Coach Shelley have so much knowledge about strength gains and weight management. There's so much more to it than lifting weights. They teach you how to take care of your body."

Senior offensive guard John Schlarman

"The coaches help us as much as possible, not just in weight training but also as people. They're very open and available to players."

Senior defensive tackle Thad Corbin

Rob Oviatt, a veteran strength mentor with experience in the Southeastern Conference and the Pacific 10 Conference, came on board as UK's head strength coach in the spring of 1995. He has methodically implemented a plan for power that includes' athletes bodies and minds.

"My role is to motivate athletes to motivate themselves," Oviatt explains. "The self-motivated person has endless possibilities in any area of life.

"If players know you care about them as people, and they see results (in the weight room), they'll do just about anything for you. I definitely care about them as people first, and hopefully my staff and I have put together a plan that will get them results."

Oviatt's blueprint for success combines goals of strength, speed, conditioning, and prevention of injury.

"Coach Oviatt and Coach Shelley have so much knowledge about strength gains and weight management. There's so much more to it than lifting weights. They teach you how to take care of your body."

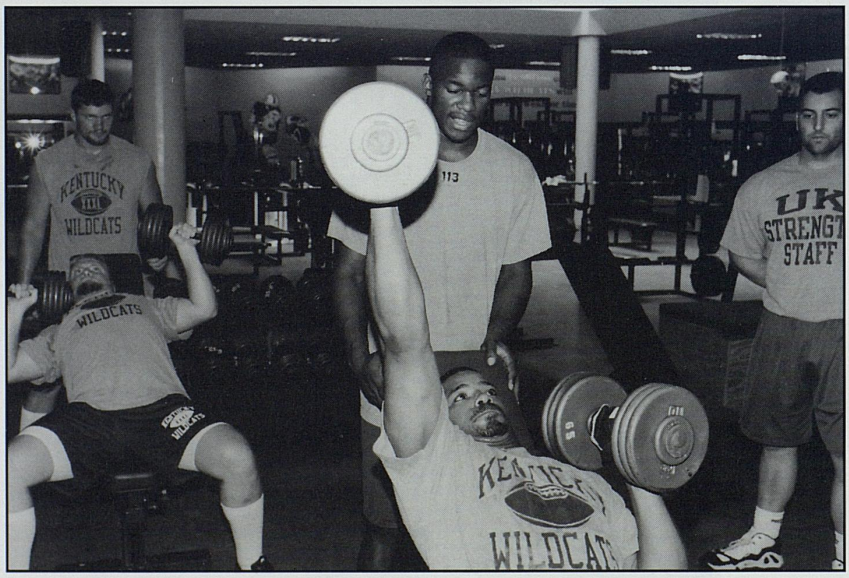

John Schlarman offensive guard

"Football is a game of the hips, legs, and lower back. Every movement on the field is initiated by those muscle groups," Oviatt says. "But strength alone is not enough. It's the speed at which you exert your strength that is the key to performance, the result being explosive power.

"Olympic-style lifts get the highest priority because they're the most specific to football — you must move heavy weights with speed. These are the most athletic lifts because they require coordination, balance, and flexibility in addition to strength."

The well-rounded Oviatt outlook also emphasizes:

- cardiovascular training:
- daily abdominal work;
- plyometic training, which teaches muscles to contract more quickly, efficiently, and powerfully;
- speed and agility training; and
- prevention of injury by training the entire body, with emphasis on the knee, ankle, and shoulder/neck areas.

Running back Wendell Childs handles the 65-pound dumbbells on the incline bench.

Kentucky Strength Program

Oviatt's strength and conditioning team includes assistant Aaron Shelley, graduate assistant Steve Dungan, and volunteer assistants Mark Dickinson and Jamie Givens. Shelley, a bodybuilding and weightlifting champion, also brings nutritional expertise to the staff.

"A strength program is a team effort," Oviatt says. "We have great assistants in the weight room, great support from the coaches and administration, and most important, hard-working and committed players. They're the ones doing the work. It all starts with the players."

The strength staff also has the complete support of Coach Hal Mumme, who has been impressed with what he's seen in Oviatt and his assistants.

"Rob Oviatt is a great strength coach," Mumme says. "He's knowledgable, diligent, hard-working, and he's a great teacher. When you combine Rob, his assistants, and our tremendous weight room, you have the makings of a great strength program."

In terms of facilities, Wildcats football players have one of the nation's best weight rooms.

For starters, the Nutter Center's weight room is 9,000 square feet. In free weights alone, UK has 100,000 pounds of equipment — 75,000 in free weights and 25,000 in dumbbells. Oviatt has added seven Olympic lifting platforms.

To complement the free weights, UK has an abundance of Nautilus equipment, stationary bicycles, and treadmills.

As far as records go, former offensive guard Jody Matthews holds the honor of being the strongest Wildcats football player to date. He owns personal records of 585 pounds in the bench press, 440 pounds in cleans, 735 pounds in Olympic squats, and 1,760 in total lifts.

Matthews broke the records held by Dermontti Dawson and Oliver Barnett, both of whom had extensive careers in the National Football League.

Center for Academic and Tutorial Services (CATS)

One of the cornerstones in the philosophy of University of Kentucky Athletics is a commitment to academic success.

Wildcats football players have done more than their share to achieve that goal. Here's a list of their accomplishments:

- Since 1980, Kentucky has placed 171 players on the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll, more than any other league school in that period;
- Last year, Kentucky had 20 players qualify for the SEC Honor Roll — a league record;
- Kentucky won the 1989 College Football Association Academic Achievement Award for having the highest graduation rate among Division I-A football programs. UK was the first SEC school to win that award and the Wildcats achieved honorable mention status on four other occasions.

"One of the strengths of Kentucky football has been the academic performance of our players," says Coach Hal Mumme. "Our coaching staff is dedicated to recruiting student-athletes who will succeed in the classroom as well as on the field. We are thankful to have such a great support system available for players."

Much of the credit for UK's academic success goes to the Athletics Association's academic support system — the Center for Academic and Tutorial Services, or simply, "CATS."

CATS opened in 1981, the nation's first academic center dedicated exclusively to student-athletes. It is located in Memorial Coliseum. Specifically designed for the student-athlete, the center contains a large general study area along with a computer facility, a classroom, and numerous rooms used for tutoring.

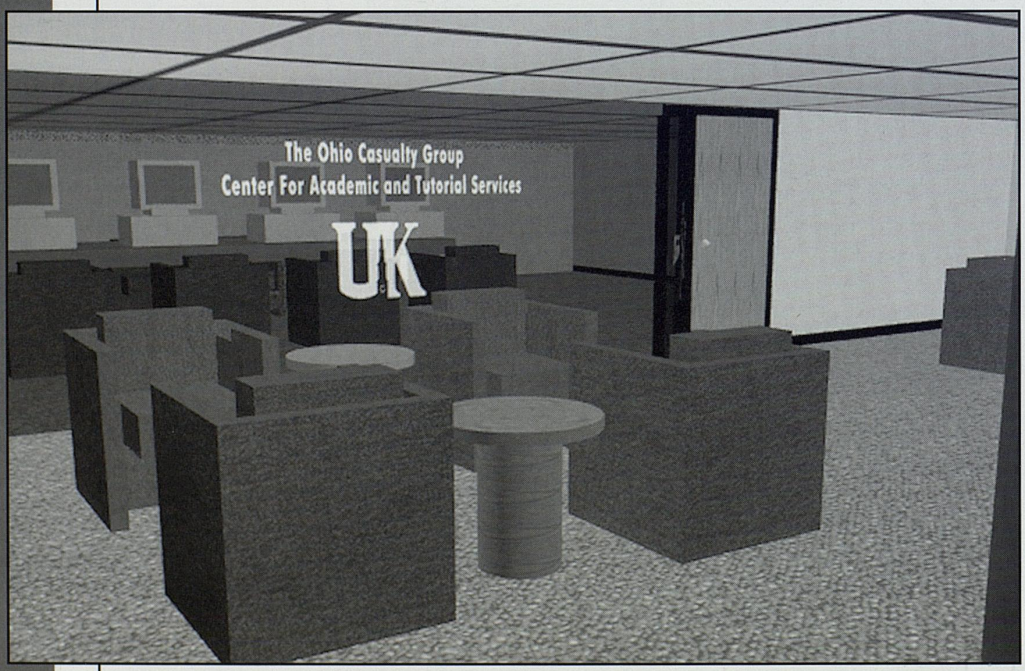

Over the years, the services offered by CATS have grown, and so has the need for additional space. The UKAA has responded to this need by the construction of a new CATS area, which is projected to be ready by January, 1998. The new facility will be called the Ohio Casualty Center for Academic and Tutorial Services, thanks to a one million dollar grant from the Ohio Casualty Insurance Group.

The new Ohio Casualty Center costs a total of $2.4 million and is constructed in the old Memorial Pool area. It covers approximately 20,000 square feet — easily more than twice the size of the current CATS. Features include a computer room which will house approximately 40 computers, a study area which will accommodate 90-100 people, 25 tutoring rooms, a career development library, a community outreach office, and offices for the staff.

Certainly a facility is a good start, but any program — especially in academics — is only as good as the people who run it. And UK is fortunate to have outstanding leaders in its academics support system.

"Working with the CATS program has helped build my time management skills and helped me learn how to study. They make sure you do well in school and make sure you graduate."

Center for Academic and Tutorial Services (CATS)

Bob Bradley, who oversees the CATS program, has been promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Student Services. Bradley also has become well-known nationally for his expertise in academics support services and takes on a new role this year as director of the regional office for the National Consortium of Academics and Athletics.

Barbara Deniston will supervise the day-to-day operations of CATS as the Director of Academic Services. The staff includes three Academics Counselors, Darren Bilberry, Lisa Buchanan, and Mike Haley, along with Melissa Dawson, Academic Skills Coordinator, and Staff Assistant Ann Sampson. CATS also employs six graduate assistants and numerous tutors, both from the University and surrounding community. UK has budgeted $890,900 for the operation of CATS in the coming year.

"We are extremely proud of what we have accomplished in the academic arena," Bradley says. "The CATS program is focused on winning in the classroom. We look at each student-athlete's individual needs, set goals, and develop strategies to attain those goals. Our center provides our student-athletes with a definite advantage over student-athletes at many other institutions. Our goal is to show that we care about the student as well as the athlete."

For the CATS staff, showing you care means more than helping athletes maintain eligibility, graduate, or win awards. The academics staff also prepares student-athletes for life after college with the Wildcat Career Development Program.

Staff member Mimi Parker coordinates the Career Development Program as it helps student-athletes look to the future through a step-by-step process which includes:

- mentoring and internships, which help determine career interests;
- career counseling;
- resume writing; and
- forming a career plan.

The Wildcat Career Development Program works closely with the University's Career Planning and Placement Center in order to provide additional assistance when needed.

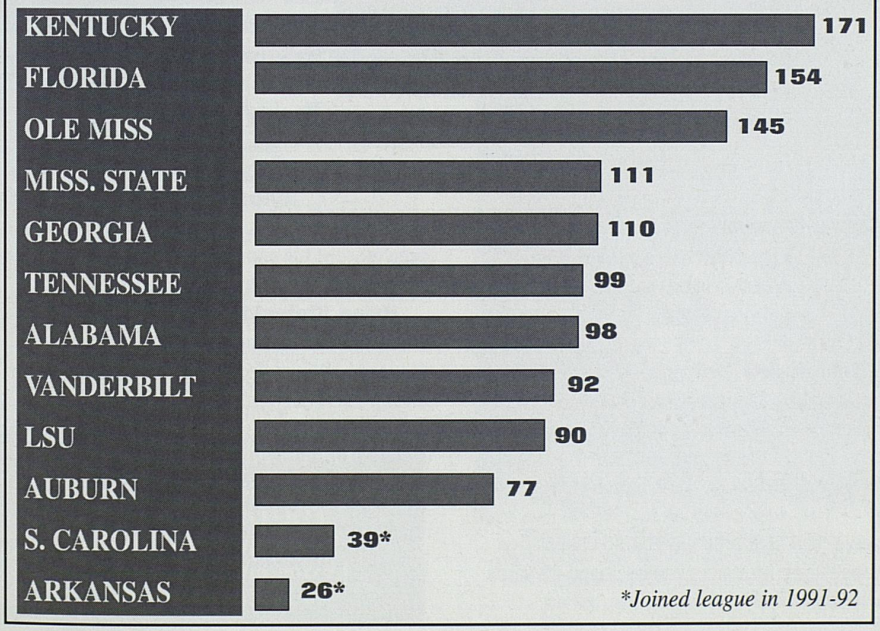

The success of UK's Career Development Program and other support services happens because of the emphasis placed on academics by Coach Mumme and his assistant coaches.

"I have been blessed at Kentucky to have coaches who have been committed to academic success," Bradley says. "Coach Mumme believes in the student-athlete concept. We are in agreement on the business of educating our student-athletes."

"One thing that really stands out about my time at Kentucky is CATS. Mr. Bradley, Barb Deniston, and the staff did a great job. We had access to computers, tutors, study halls ... It was very nice to have those resources available. Academically, it was great."

Walk-Ons Welcome at UK

Just because a young man doesn't have a football scholarship doesn't mean he can't play football at the University of Kentucky.

Several non-scholarship players — popularly known as "walk-ons" — are members of the Wildcats football team. Walk-ons will have even more opportunity under Coach Hal Mumme because Mumme has begun a junior varsity team, which will be comprised almost exclusively by walk-ons.

"The junior varsity program always has been important to us," Mumme says. "Unlike many schools, it's important to us that our walk-ons get a chance to play in games and show us what they can do. We've had players join the varsity and earn scholarships." (For more on the founding of the junior varsity team, see page eight.)

Mumme believes in awarding scholarships to deserving players and already has given a full grant-in-aid to punter Jimmy Carter, kicker Brian Johnson, defensive end Robert Jones, and wide receiver Tyler Siddens.

A total of 19 players have earned scholarships at UK in the 1990s, including linebacker Jeff Brady and kicker Doug Pelfrey, who have gone on to careers in the National Football League.

Here is a list of the players who have earned scholarships and their accomplishments:

Dele Ali, Defensive End, Marianna, Fla. — Three-year letterman and starting linebacker for the Wildcats last season, Dele moves to defensive end for the 1997 season.

Cliff Bailey, Offensive Guard, Trezevant, Tenn. — Saw his first game action during the 1996 season and was placed on scholarship.

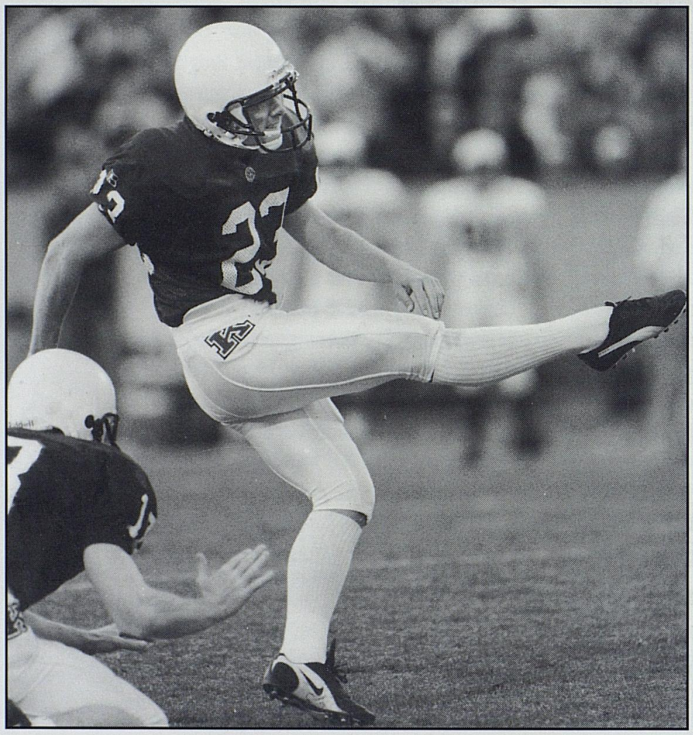

Ben Bird, Defensive End, New Richmond, Ohio — A UK track and field star in the shot put and discus throw, Ben was a two-year letterman at defensive end in 1995-96 and accounted for 26 tackles.

Jeff Brady, Linebacker, Melbourne, Ky. — Played at UK from 1987-90 and emerged as a starter as a junior and senior. He made 178 tackles during his career, including 11 for losses, and intercepted four passes. He has played six years in the National Football League and is currently with the Minnesota Vikings.

Tim Calvert, Flanker, Mount Washington, Ky. — Key member of the receiving corps from 1991-93, Tim's career totals include 34 receptions for 606 yards and two touchdowns.

Willie Cannon, Cornerback, Miami, Fla. — Three-year letterman who started at cornerback in 1993. Willie made four interceptions as a Wildcat, plus one in the 1993 Peach Bowl, and broke up 11 passes.

Jimmy Carter, Punter, Dunwoody, Ga. — UK's starting punter the last two seasons, averaging 35.6 yards (1995) and 39.5 yards (1996). He is entering his junior season with the Wildcats.

Brian Johnson kicks a field goal from the hold of punter Jimmy Carter. Johnson and Carter are among the four walk-ons who have been awarded scholarships by new coach Hal Mumme.

Mark Chatmon, Split End, Milwaukee, Wisc. — Three-year letterman who started as a senior in 1993. Mark caught 33 passes for 471 yards and two touchdowns and also caught a TD pass in the 1993 Peach Bowl.

Thad Corbin, Defensive Tackle, Springfield, Tenn. — Thad enters his senior year with the Wildcats. He has totaled 24 tackles over three seasons.

Harold Dennis, Wide Receiver, Radcliff, Ky. — Two-year letterman in 1995-96 as a wide receiver and kick returner. Harold caught five passes during his career and averaged 23 yards on 10 kickoff returns.

Bill Hawk, Punter, Santa Ynez, Calif. — UK's punter three years, 1989-91. His career average of 39.7 ranks as the fourth-best in school history.

Troy Hobbs, Split End, Miami, Fla. — Three-year letterman for the Wildcats (1991-93) who caught 18 passes for 207 yards during his career.

Brian Johnson, Kicker, Ripley, W. Va. — Two-year letterman who enters his senior season with the Wildcats. Brian led UK in scoring last season with 31 points and tied the single-season school record for extra-point accuracy.

Robert Jones, Defensive End, Crawford, Ga. — Sat out last season as a transfer and will see action at defensive end during the 1997 season.

Rob Manchester, Free Safety, Paducah, Ky. — Rob was a four-year letterman who saw extensive playing time on special teams.

Doug Pelfrey, Kicker, Edgewood, Ky. — Doug virtually re-wrote the record book during his three seasons (1990-92) as the Wildcats' kicker. He made 34-of-52 field goals, including eight from 50 yards or beyond. He won two games with last-second field goals. He was named first-team All-Southeastern Conference and is currently in the National Football League with the Cincinnati Bengals.

Matt Riazzi, Wingback, Kettering, Ohio — Four-year letterman from 1990-93. Matt's career totals feature 351 rushing yards on 57 carries (5.7 average) and 14 pass receptions for 145 yards. He also handled punt returns as a senior, bringing back 26 punts for 140 yards.

Tyler Siddens, Wide Receiver, Louisville, Ky. — A two-year letterman who has seen most of his game time on special teams, Tyler enters his senior season at UK.

Brian Sivinski, Kicker, Lexington, Ky. — Brian was the starting kicker in 1994 and 1995. He made 10 field goals and 28 extra points during those two seasons.

Medical Staff and Services

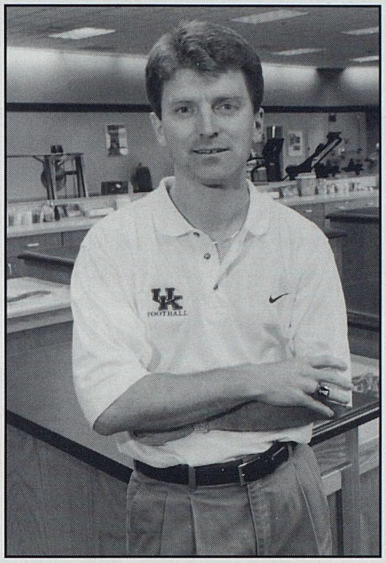

In the game of football, there is no substitute for proper health care and medical treatment. UK football is blessed to have a first-class medical staff, led by Head Athletics Trainer Jim Madaleno and Assistant Trainer Jeff Allen.

The UK training staff is comprised of six full-time trainers, additional graduate assistants, and approximately 20 student assistants. The trainers work closely with UK's five team physicians, Dr. David Caborn, Dr. Kim Clawson, Dr. Darren Johnson, Dr. John Perrine, and Dr. H. Spencer Turner. A variety of consultants, covering every medical specialty, are available. Altogether, the medical team handles the needs of athletes in 22 sports at UK.

"Jim Madaleno is the best in the business. He's proved that wherever he's been," says Coach Hal Mumme, who worked with Madaleno at Valdosta State. "We trust Jim implicitly. His decisions are never questioned by our coaching staff. No one decides who will practice or play except the trainers.

"In Jim, we have a trainer who's gotten Lawrence Taylor and Phil Simms ready to play in the Super Bowl," says Mumme, referring to Madaleno's time in the 1980s as a trainer with the New York Giants.

The UK trainers work in a superb area. The Nutter Center training room covers more than 5,000 square feet and includes ample space for taping and treatment. Inside the training room is a modern rehabilitation area and whirlpool therapy area, as well as physicians' and trainers' offices.

UK Trainer Jim Madaleno proudly displays the Super Bowl ring he earned during his years with the New York Giants.

"If it weren't for the trainers and doctors, I wouldn't even be playing. They really know how to rehabilitate you and get you back on the field. I'm really thankful to them and how much they know."

John Schlarman
offensive guard

"The medical staff does everything possible to take care of you. They not only think about your career, but also about you personally."

Equipment

The University of Kentucky football equipment room is under the able direction of veteran Equipment Manager Tom Kalinowski.

Kalinowski is in his 23rd year at UK, including four years as a student manager and 19 years in his current role. Kalinowski and his staff of approximately 12 student managers are involved in the daily maintenance of the student-athletes' equipment.

Proper fitting of equipment is a key component of injury prevention, and Kalinowski personally fits each player with the appropriate equipment — helmet, shoulder pads, shoes, etc. — according to height, weight, and position. Much of the uniforms and practice gear will be supplied to UK through the new contract with Nike.

Maintenance, repair, and cleaning of equipment is also vital in the prevention of injury, and the UK staff performs those duties on a daily basis.

Equipment Manager Tom Kalinowski displays the new helmet that will be used by the Wildcats in 1997. Kalinowski is known for his orderly equipment room.

"Tom keeps the best equipment — if you have to have it, you have the best of it. He gives individual attention to each player and takes care of our needs. He brings in specialists from the company if you have need for a special pad."

Dele Ali defensive end

"Tom gets the best equipment available. Whatever we get is top of the line and he makes sure you get properly fitted."

Lexington

This is Lexington, home of the University of Kentucky. Located at the heart of Kentucky's famous scenic Bluegrass region, Lexington combines the excitement of a metropolitan area with the hospitality of a Southern hometown atmosphere.

"People here are great. Lexington is a great area. I've really enjoyed living here. It feels like home now."

offensive guard

The city of Lexington is surrounded by beautiful countryside and horse farms.

With a population of 235,000, Lexington's size makes for the perfect college environment for the University. The city provides a wide range of activities for UK students and their visiting friends and families. For example, among other activities, Lexington visitors can:

- play golf on championship courses;
- tour the world-famous horse farms or visit the Kentucky Horse Park;
- sample the city's night life at the numerous restaurants and music clubs;
- explore the beautiful countryside;
- enjoy horse racing at the Keeneland Race Course and Red Mile Track;
- visit the historic homes;
- cheer on numerous sporting events, including UK's 22 sports teams and Lexington's pro hockey team, the Kentucky Thoroughblades.

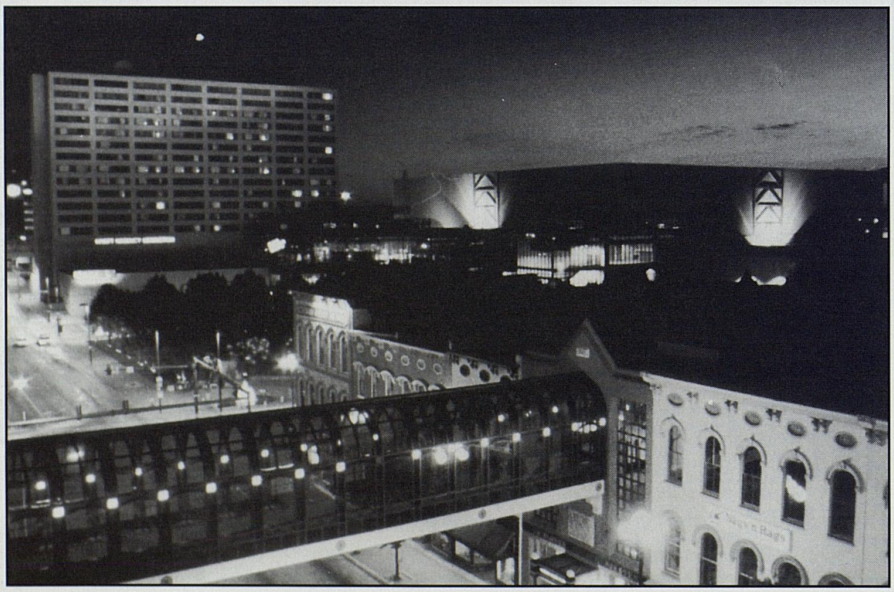

Thanksgiving through New Year's Eve is an especially beautiful time to visit Lexington, when the Horse Park's animated light display, "Southern Lights," warms the holiday season.

Lexington is a city to explore, from shopping and entertainment to one-of-a-kind restaurants and enjoyable accommodations — all within minutes of the UK campus.

The surrounding Bluegrass Region also has numerous tourist options: visit the Kentucky state capital in Frankfort; take a riverboat ride and revisit 19th-century America at the Shaker Village at Pleasant Hill; shop in Berea, the arts and crafts capital of Kentucky; see how bourbon is made at one of the area distilleries; or search for treasures from the past at one of 200 area antique shops.

Lexington residents and visitors to the area enjoy the hospitable, cosmopolitan environment. Lexington was rated as the 17th safest city in America, according to a 1995 report.

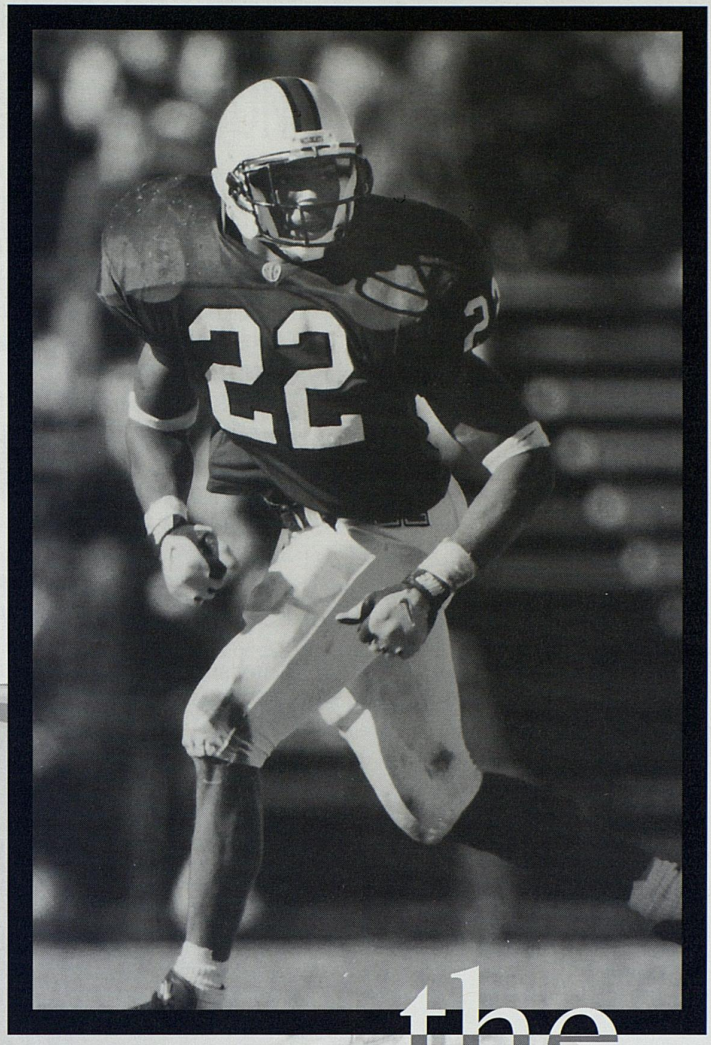

For more information on the entertainment opportunities in Lexington, call the Lexington Convention and Visitors Bureau at 1-800-845-3959.

(Notes: positions in parentheses denote the position the player played last season ... Last year's starting players are underlined)

THE 1997 FOOTBALL SEASON WILL, INDEED, BE A WHOLE NEW BALLGAME AT THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY.

From a pass-oriented offense to a different system of 4-3 defense — even down to new uniforms — the Wildcats will have a fresh, new look under first-year head coach Hal Mumme.

"Air Raid '97" is the theme for the offensive Wildcats, and there are sure to be plenty of footballs flying.

"We have three main philosophies on offense," said Mumme, who acts as his own offensive coordinator. "First, we want to throw short passes to players who can score. Second, we want to create space for our receivers and backs. And, third, we want to win the 'street fight' up front 50 or more times each game."

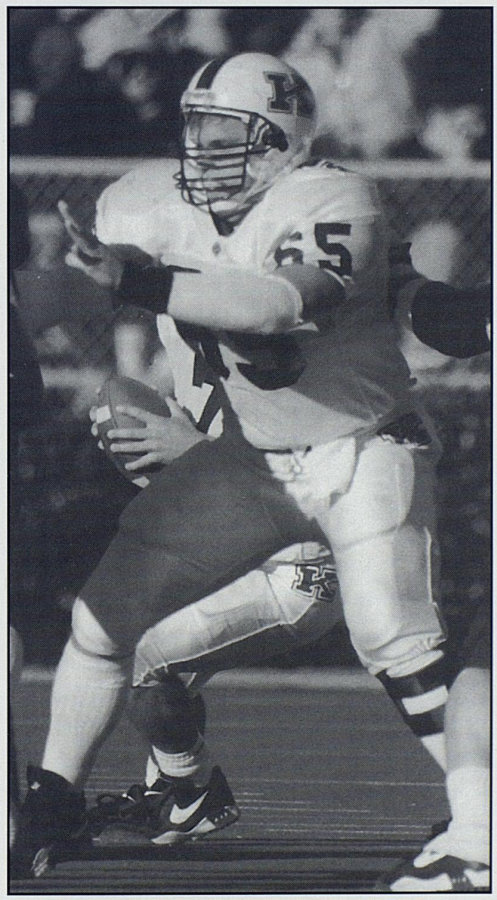

The air raid commander is sophomore quarterback TIM COUCH, who had a sensational spring in the new system. In four spring scrimmages, Couch completed 76.1 percent of his passes for 1,713 yards and 11 touchdowns.

Couch will throw to a variety of targets, evidenced by the fact that eight or more players caught at least two passes in the Blue-White Spring Game. Six veteran receivers return, led by junior CRAIG YEAST. Yeast has led the Wildcats in receiving the past two seasons, including 26 catches for 378 yards and two touchdowns a year ago. A number of others will be involved in the air traffic, including wide receivers KIO SANFORD, KEVIN COLEMAN, QUENTIN MCCORD, LANCE MICKELSEN, and CHAD SPENCER, halfback ANTHONY WHITE, and tight end JIMMY HALEY.

The fullback is primary ballcarrier in this offense and redshirt freshman WENDELL CHILDS finished the spring as the starter there. Also watch for White, who can play fullback and halfback and had a worthy spring as both a runner and pass receiver.

Winning the "street fight" will be the responsibility of the offensive line, where all five starters return from a year ago. The lineup is expected to include left tackle JONAS LIENING, left guard JEREMY STRECK, center JASON WATTS, right guard JOHN SCHLARMAN, and right tackle KRIS COMSTOCK. Schlarman has been UK's Most Outstanding Lineman the last two seasons and is the only senior on the forward wall. The other four are juniors.

On defense, Kentucky will employ a 4-3 alignment. The style of play will be based on the bold and aggressive system, created by long-time college coach Larry Lacewell, that is now used by the Dallas Cowboys. However, defensive coordinator Mike Major must not only teach a new system, but also deal with significant inexperience. Only four starters return from last season, two of whom are slated to move to new positions. Avoiding injuries and developing depth, especially in the linebackers and defensive backs, are vital.

It's a Whole New Ballgame: senior offensive guard John Schlarman will do a lot more pass blocking this year. He has been named the team's Most Outstanding Offensive Lineman each of the past two seasons.

"We made tremendous progress in the spring because we started from scratch and changed (the positions of) people to get more speed on the field," Mumme said. "The way we came along at the end of spring was good. I don't think we have a championship defense at this point but we have guys who will play hard every snap. I do know that we can't afford to get anybody hurt."

In the new scheme, the job of the defensive line is to penetrate and disrupt the opponent's backfield. Senior DELE ALI, who started at outside linebacker a year ago, moved to end during the spring and was a distributor of disruption. Senior LAMONT SMITH, the team's leading returning tackler and a starting outside linebacker last season, also moves to end but missed the spring because of a broken leg. Junior tackle MARVIN MAJOR, a member of the Freshman All-SEC team in 1995, returns to action after missing last season and should be a significant force. There is good depth, in ability and experience, in the defensive line.

The linebackers will be mostly inexperienced. Senior BOB HOLMBERG, a two-year backup, moves into the starting role in the middle. Two largely untested sophomores, JEFF SNEDEGAR and converted fullback LEE WESLEY, must come through at the outside linebacker posts.

The secondary also will see plenty of fresh faces, with senior cornerback LITTLETON WARD the only returning starter. Senior strong safety TREMAYNE MARTIN had an excellent spring and junior cornerback TONY WOODS, a starter early last season before suffering a season-ending injury, should also play key roles.

Special teams play could be a strength of the Wildcats. Senior kicker BRIAN JOHNSON has been steady and junior punter JIMMY CARTER continues to make progress. Senior Kio Sanford and junior Craig Yeast are breakaway threats as kickoff and punt returners.

Position-by-Position Outlook

(Returning players only; incoming freshmen will join the depth chart in August)

WILDCATS OFFENSE

Wide Receivers

X	Kevin Coleman	5-10	188	Jr-2L
	Garry Davis	6-2	195	Fr-RS
Y	Quentin McCord	5-10	167	So-1L
	Marvin Love	5-10	167	Jr-JC
	Tyler Siddens	5-11	167	Sr-2L
Z	Kio Sanford	5-11	180	Sr-3L
	Lance Mickelsen	6-3	170	Jr-JC
	Chad Spencer	6-4	211	So-1L

The coaching staff was pleased in the spring by the number of receivers who showed the ability to compete for playing time. There is good experience with five lettermen returning, along with a pair of junior college transfers.

Quentin McCord, Kevin Coleman, and Kio Sanford finished the spring as the starters at the X, Y, and Z receivers, respectively. Last season, McCord caught 12 passes, Coleman seven, and Sanford five ... Chad Spencer moved from tight end to receiver during the spring and handled the transition seamlessly. He was a Freshman All-SEC performer at tight end last season, catching 10 passes for 134 yards ... The juco transfers, Lance Mickelsen and speedy Marvin Love, will see action ... Senior Tyler Siddens, primarily a special teams player in the past, and Garry Davis hope to work their way into the mix ... Halfback Craig Yeast also will spend some time playing receiver.

Coach Mumme ...

"Wide receiver is the place where we probably had the most productive spring. It was the position that was most unknown simply because they hadn't caught a lot of balls, which is demanded in our offense. Mike Leach, our receivers coach, did a fabulous job in teaching them the intracacies of our offense. We're very pleased with their progress. The great news from the spring is that we have six or seven guys who can all catch the ball. I look for those guys to catch a lot of balls this year and make a lot of plays for us. This is a group that has a chance to be a very cohesive unit and be a unit that will make our offense go."

Tight Ends

TE	Jimmy Haley	6-3	238	So-1L
	Darrin Clark	6-5	239	Sr-2L

This should be a strong position for the Wildcats. Haley looked very good as a pass catcher in the spring with 16 receptions for 174 yards and three touchdowns during the scrimmages. Clark has been used as a blocker during his career but has good hands and should get a chance to display that ability this season.

Coach Mumme ...

"Jimmy Haley established himself in the spring as a guy who can make big plays. He is a big target and has great body control and very good hands. Tim Couch feels very comfortable throwing the ball to him. I think the same is true with Darrin Clark. We are anxious to take a look at (linebacker) Andy Dreisbach and (wide receiver) Garry Davis at tight end in the fall. We feel pretty comfortable at tight end."

Offensive Tackles

LT	Jonas Liening	6-8	304	Jr-2L
	David Berringer	6-4	288	Jr-2L
	Cliff Bailey	6-4	281	Sr-Sq
RT	Kris Comstock	6-8	315	Jr-2L
	Mike Webster	6-6	273	Jr-Tr
	Matt Armbrester	6-3	306	Fr-RS
	Michael Benjamin	6-4	276	Jr-Sq

Juniors Jonas Liening and Kris Comstock are returning starters at tackle but will flip positions in 1997, with Liening manning the left side and Comstock the right side. Liening suffered a broken leg toward the end of last season but appeared fully healed in the spring. Comstock's year of experience last season should be a benefit ... Converted defensive lineman Mike Webster showed ability in the spring and coaches are confident he can be a capable backup ... David Berringer gives experienced depth.

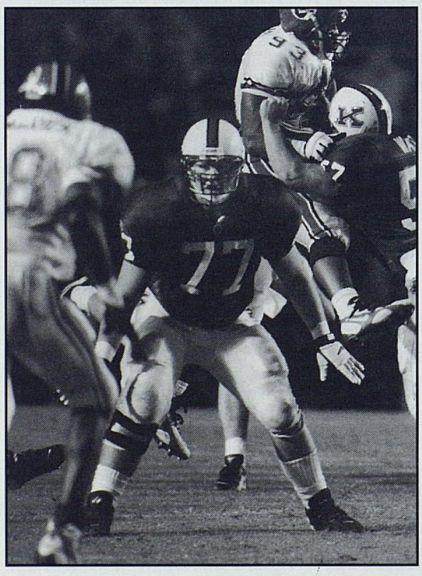

Coach Mumme ...

"Jonas Liening and Kris Comstock had great springs. The biggest problem of the spring was learning to play in an upright position as opposed to a three-point stance and learning to pass protect more. We were pleased with the way they came along. Mike Webster also had a good spring and finished in our top three. David Berringer had a good spring and continues to impress and Matt Armbrester has a chance to jump into that group also. I think they are a group who can come along as the season goes and as their technique gets better they're going to get better."

Offensive Guards

LG	Jeremy Streck	6-5	305	Jr-1L
	Omar Smith	6-3	273	So-1L
RG	John Schlarman	6-2	267	Sr-3L
	Mike Riddle	6-0	264	Jr-Sq

Senior John Schlarman is the leader of the UK offensive line. He has won the team's Most Outstanding Offensive Lineman Award each of the last two seasons. He has persevered through five major injuries and three knee surgeries during his career and appears to be fully healthy going into August ... Jeremy Streck should be much improved with a season of experience under his belt. He saw starting action at left tackle and right guard in 1996 ... Omar Smith gives the team a reserve with some game experience ... Mike Riddle won UK's Most Outstanding Scout Team Player Award last season.

Guard Jeremy Streck (77) and center Jason Watts (57) are returning starters in the offensive line.

Position-by-Position Outlook

Coach Mumme ...

"John Schlarman has been a standout for several seasons and is really a great player. We look for him to have a great season. He's healthy now and I think that right guard is the best spot for him. We feel that John's a guy who can handle, one-on-one, most of the defensive tackles that we're going to face. He's a tough player and everything you'd want from a student-athlete.

"In addition to John, Jeremy Streck had a good spring at left guard. He needs to keep improving on his technique and his consistency. Behind them, Omar Smith had a good spring."

Centers

C	Jason Watts	6-3	269	Jr-2L
	Aaron Daniel	6-3	265	Fr-RS
	Paul McGonagle	6-4	249	Jr-Sq

Jason Watts started all 11 games a year ago in his first season as a regular. He battled a shoulder injury last year but should be healthy going into the fall ... Redshirt freshman Aaron Daniel has ability and simply needs game experience.

Coach Mumme ...

"Jason Watts could be the best one (center) in our league, eventually. He's still young but we're very high on him. We feel good about Aaron Daniel's progress during the spring."

Quarterbacks

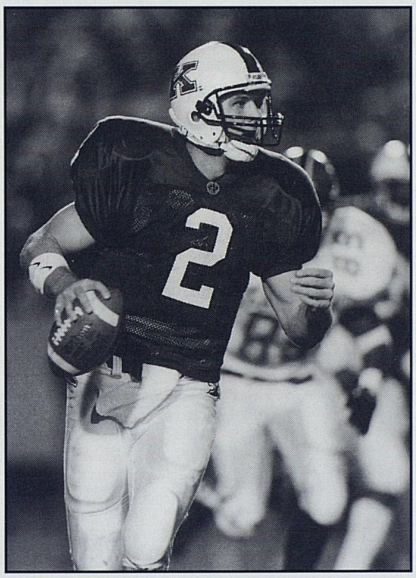

QB	Tim Couch	6-5	216	So-1L
	Brian Siddens	6-6	180	Fr-RS

Tim Couch flourished in the new pass-oriented offense during spring practice, completing 76.1 percent of his passes for 1,713 yards and 11 touchdowns in the four scrimmages. The coaches were most pleased with his ability to handle the mental challenges of playing quarterback in this offense ... Depth is a question mark with walk-on Brian Siddens the only returnee available ... Incoming freshmen Dustin Bonner and Pascal Trudeau also will contend for the backup role.

Coach Mumme ...

"The great thing we learned about Tim Couch in the spring is that he has a great passion for the game. You never have to tell him to study video and many times he is the last player to leave the field, working on little extra things. The relationship that has developed between Tim and Chris Hatcher, our graduate assistant for quarterbacks, is a real plus. We look for Tim to be the leader of our offense and have a great fall.

"Behind him, we'll have to count on the two young men we recruited. We'll have to do a good job of teaching them in the fall. We also have Brian Siddens, who made great strides in the spring."

Quarterback Tim Couch spearheads the UK attack.

Fullbacks

FB	Wendell Childs	6-2	227	Fr-RS
	A. J. Simon	5-11	218	So-Sq

Redshirt freshman Wendell Childs was one of the pleasant finds of spring practice. He played well in the scrimmages and combines good size with sprinter's speed, having won the 200- and 400-meter dash Kentucky state championships as a high school senior ... A. J. Simon also looked good in the spring and has the chance to earn playing time if he continues to play well in preseason camp ... Halfback Anthony White also can play fullback if needed ... Because of the lack of depth, this is a position where incoming freshmen could have an impact.

Coach Mumme ...

"Fullback is in the hands of Wendell Childs and Anthony White, depending on what formations we're in and what we intend to do on that particular play. Wendell had a good spring and is a big guy who was a dash champion in high school. He has a good future here. We discovered A. J. Simon in the spring. We like him a lot, he'll block and he'll run, and he is a pretty good receiver out of the backfield."

Halfbacks

HB	Anthony White	6-1	184	So-Sq
	Craig Yeast	5-9	165	Jr-2L

Anthony White was one of the stars of the spring. In the four scrimmages, he caught 23 passes for 212 yards and four touchdowns and rushed 28 times for 220 yards (7.9 avg.) and two touchdowns. He can also play the fullback position if needed ... Look for Craig Yeast to see plenty of action. He has been the team's leading pass receiver each of his first two seasons with the Wildcats. He caught 26 passes last year for 378 yards and two touchdowns.

Coach Mumme ...

"I think Anthony White is an ideal halfback for us. He has great running ability, is a very unselfish player, and will block when he needs to. He will play both halfback and fullback and be our main ballcarrier and pass catcher coming out of the backfield. As a sophomore, he'll only continue to improve. Craig Yeast is a guy with a lot of ability and has proved it on the field here. We have to get the ball in his hands. We'll also play him at receiver in the fall."

Position-by-Position Outlook

WILDCATS DEFENSE

Defensive Tackles

DT	Marvin Major	6-3	277	Jr-1L
	George Massey	6-3	277	So-1L
	Thad Corbin	6-3	272	Sr-3L
	Mike Piccione	6-4	244	So-Sq
DT	Matt Layow	6-3	234	Fr-RS
	Mark Jacobs	6-3	273	Jr-2L
	Gordon Crowe	6-3	291	So-1L

The defensive tackle slots rank as perhaps the deepest positions on the team ... Marvin Major returns after sitting out last season. He made 64 tackles in 1995 and was a Freshman All-SEC selection ... Mark Jacobs started all 11 games a year ago and made 44 tackles ... Redshirt freshman Matt Layow moved to tackle in the spring. His quickness made him hard to block and he enters August as a starter at one tackle ... Senior Thad Corbin and sophomores George Massey and Gordon Crowe give the unit talent and depth.

Coach Mumme ...

"We have about six players who are going to play key roles. Marvin Major is back and can play either position. Matt Layow had a good spring and has tremendous potential. George Massey, Mark Jacobs, Thad Corbin, and Gordon Crowe are working had to learn our scheme and gave us a good effort during the spring. Their play will determine a lot toward how well our defense plays this fall."

Defensive Ends

DE	Dele Ali	6-3	213	Sr-3L
	David Ginn	6-5	224	Sr-3L
	Miguel Viera	6-2	225	Jr-Sq
	Larry Morris	6-2	226	So-Sq
DE	Anthony Watson	6-3	245	So-1L
	Robert Jones	6-3	229	Jr-Tr
	Anwar Stewart	6-3	223	So-1L
	Grayson Smith	6-1	223	Fr-RS

Dele Ali, David Ginn, Miguel Viera, Larry Morris, Anwar Stewart, Grayson Smith, and injured Lamont Smith are all former linebackers who moved to defensive end during the spring ... The move of Ali was one of the best developments of the spring as his quickness made him extremely difficult to block. He made 45 tackles last season at outside linebacker ... Senior Lamont Smith (6-2, 241) broke a leg early in spring practice and didn't get an opportunity to show what he can do. He'll re-enter the picture in August and is the team's leading returning tackler with 52 stops a year ago ... Soph Anthony Watson showed outstanding potential last season and despite playing as a reserve, was second on the team in sacks with five ... Robert Jones is ready to play after sitting out a year as a transfer from West Georgia ... The playing time for Ginn, Viera, Morris, Stewart, and Grayson Smith will depend on the speed of their adjustment to playing end.

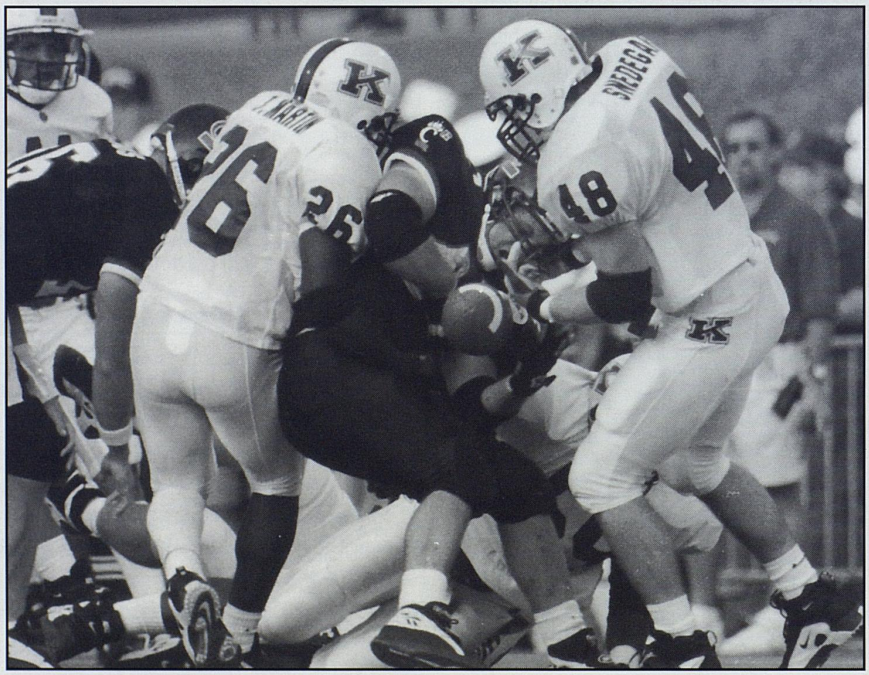

Coach Mumme ...

"We have depth at end and depth is required in our defense because we're going to roll a lot of players in there and we ask that they be able to play full speed all the time. Playing Dele Ali and Lamont Smith at end gives us more speed. Dele had a tremendous spring and is developing some great pass rush moves. Lamont is an unknown because of his injury in the spring. We're anxious to get him back and work with him. Other people who came on in the spring were Anthony Watson, Robert Jones, David Ginn, and Anwar Stewart. Miguel Viera and Larry Morris give us more depth at that position."

Linebackers

OLB	Jeff Snedegar	6-2	215	So-1L
	Filmore Wester	6-0	224	So-1L
	Michael Moss	6-0	201	So-Sq
MLB	Bob Holmberg	6-0	232	Jr-2L
	John Rader	6-5	225	Fr-RS
OLB	Lee Wesley	6-0	205	So-1L
	Shawn Smith	6-3	206	Jr-2L

Jeff Snedegar and Lee Wesley established themselves as starters on the outside during the spring. Snedegar gained experience last season as a backup and made 42 tackles. He also earned UK's Most Outstanding Special Teams Player Award. Wesley's move from running back to linebacker worked out extremely well. He simply needs playing time in order to develop ... Bob Holmberg moves into the starting role in the middle after two seasons as a top reserve. He made 29 tackles last season and played very well the last two games ... None of the reserves have significant game experience.

Strong safety Tremayne Martin (26) and linebacker Jeff Snedegar (48) step into starting roles in 1997.

Position-by-Position Outlook

Coach Mumme ...

"At middle linebacker, Bob Holmberg is a guy we're counting on to be a leader on the defense. He did a great job of that during the spring and we look for him to continue that. John Rader really came on in the spring and has a chance for a lot of playing time.

"On the outside, Jeff Snedegar and Lee Wesley had really good springs. Shawn Smith and Filmore Wester need to continue to improve in fall camp."

Cornerbacks

CB	Tony Woods	5-10	172	Jr-2L
	Eric Kelly	5-11	180	Fr-RS
	Marc Wilson	5-9	178	Jr-1L
CB	Littleton Ward	5-9	170	Sr-3L
	Shamseldeen Arulogun	5-10	174	So-Sq
	Andre' Hayslip	5-10	175	Fr-RS

Littleton Ward is the only returning starter in the secondary. He made 43 tackles a year ago and played his best football down the stretch of the season, with eight pass breakups and an interception in the final five games ... Tony Woods was a starter last season before being sidelined by a broken bone in his back. He was recovered by the spring and won a starting job ... The reserves are young but show promise.

Coach Mumme ...

"Coach (Tim) Keane is comfortable with Littleton Ward and Tony Woods. Shamsee Arulogun came on in the spring and showed some potential. Andre' Hayslip and Eric Kelly had moments in the spring but need to get more consistent in fall camp."

Safeties

SS	Tremayne Martin	6-0	197	Sr-1L
	Dorion Berry	6-1	172	So-1L
	Jeff Zurcher	6-0	195	Jr-1L
	Michael Gerrell	5-10	176	Fr-RS
FS	Marlon McCree	6-0	172	Fr-RS
	Chris Ford	6-1	174	Jr-2L
	Stephan Walters	6-0	184	Jr-1L

Tremayne Martin moves into the starting job at strong safety after making 32 tackles as a reserve last season. He played very well in the spring and made four interceptions during the scrimmages ... Marlon McCree, Dorion Berry, and Chris Ford battled at free safety during the spring and will resume their competition in the fall ... Jeff Zurcher and Stephan Walters have brief game experience and provide depth.

Coach Mumme ...

"Tremayne Martin had the best spring of the safeties. The other spot is up for grabs between Marlon McCree and Dorion Berry. We're counting on one of those guys to rise to the occasion during the fall camp. The other people who played there in the spring, Chris Ford, Jeff Zurcher, Michael Gerrell, and Stephan Walters have a chance to work in there as well."

Special Teams

K	Brian Johnson	5-8	164	Jr-2L
	Marc Samuel	5-10	159	Fr-HS
P	Jimmy Carter	6-0	176	Jr-2L
KOR	Kio Sanford	5-11	180	Sr-3L
	Craig Yeast	5-9	165	Jr-2L
	Quentin McCord	5-10	167	So-1L
PR	Kio Sanford	5-11	180	Sr-3L
	Craig Yeast	5-9	165	Jr-2L

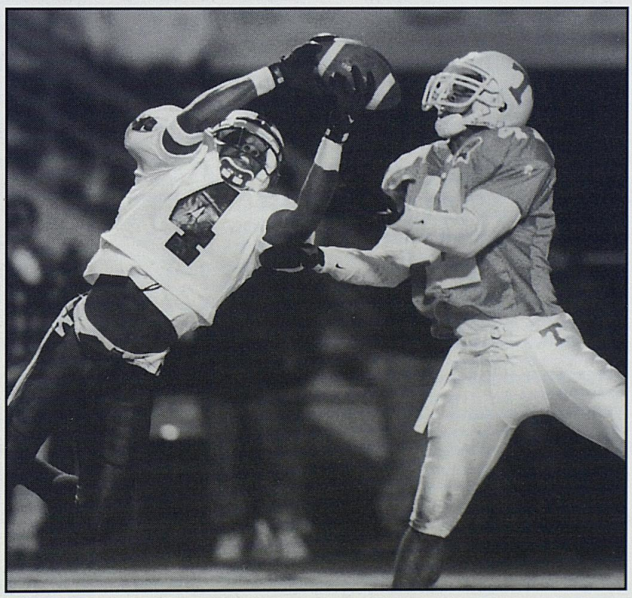

Brian Johnson retained his placekicking job during the spring. He has made 6-of-9 field goals, including 6-of-7 inside 40 yards, and all 25 extra points during his career ... Marc Samuel entered school last January and could be the kickoff man and handle long field goals ... Jimmy Carter is a two-year regular at punter. He improved his average from 35.6 in 1995 to 39.5 last year ... Incoming freshman Seth Hanson is a kicker and punter and could challenge at either spot ... Kio Sanford and Craig Yeast are experienced on punt and kickoff returns. Each has returned a kickoff for a touchdown during his career.

Coach Mumme ...

"At kicker, we'll go with Brian Johnson, who is pretty accurate from inside 40 yards. We'll probably use Marc Samuel to kick off. He has a little stronger leg and can hit the end zone more often. The punter will be Jimmy Carter. He had a good spring and adapted to our method of doing things. We have two good years left with him.

"The kickoff return guys will probably be Craig Yeast, Kio Sanford, and Quentin McCord. We're counting on Kio to do a great job and Craig has good experience with that also.

"At punt returns, we have Kio and Craig and we'll also look at some of the newcomers. We'll spend more time with it in the fall."

Cornerback Littleton Ward is the only returning starter in the secondary.

Kentucky Football History

The University of Kentucky was the first Southeastern Conference school to introduce football (1881). After a nine-year lull from 1882-1890, the school resumed the sport and has fielded a team since 1891, with the exception of the 1943 war year. UK has completed 106 seasons and has an all-time record of 499 wins, 471 losses, and 44 ties for a winning percentage of .514. Kentucky is a charter member of the Southeastern Conference, beginning in the 1933 football season, and won SEC championships in 1950 and 1976. The Wildcats have played in eight bowl games, the last in 1993, and won five.

QB is "Da Man"

The quarterback is "Da Man" in demand in the UK offense, and the Wildcats appear to be well-armed with sophomore Tim Couch.

Couch has the size (6-5) and rifle arm to be effective in the pass-oriented attack. In addition to his physical attributes, "Tim sees the field extremely well and also is a real student of the game," said Coach Hal Mumme.

Couch played extremely well during spring the four spring scrimmages, completing 76.1 percent of his passes (166 of 218) for 1,713 yards, 11 touchdowns, and five interceptions.

Couch came to UK in 1996 as the most prolific passer in the history of high school football. He set national records for completions (872), yardage (12,104), and touchdowns (133) from 1992-95. He was named 1995 National Player of the Year by Parade magazine and the Gatorade Circle of Champions.

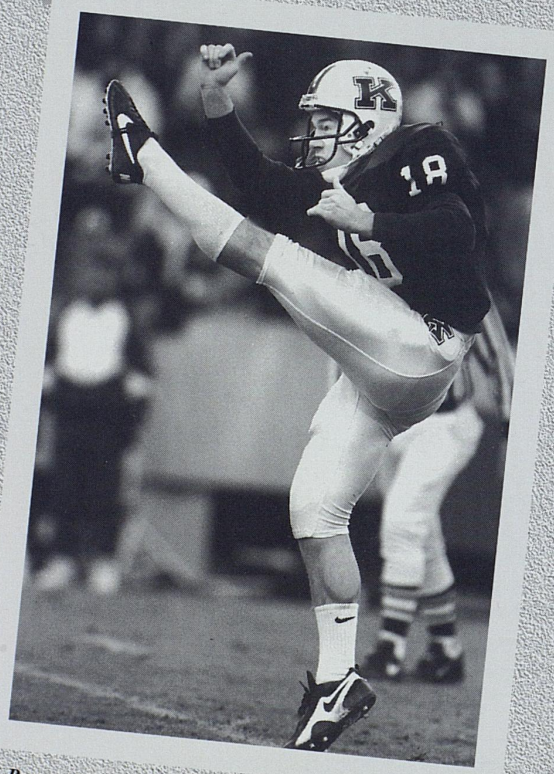

Quarterbacks have prospered in the Mumme system. While at Valdosta State, QB Chris Hatcher won the Harlon Hill Award, which goes to the national player of the year in Division II. Lance Funderburk was the 1996 Harlon Hill runner-up. Hatcher and Iowa Wesleyan quarterback Dustin Dewald are two of only eight quarterbacks who have thrown more than 100 touchdown passes in their collegiate careers.

Johnson, Carter Set Kicking Records

Kicker Brian Johnson and punter Jimmy Carter wrote their names into the Wildcats record book last season.

Johnson tied the record for extra point percentage in a season (1.000) by making a perfect 16-of-16 PATs. He has the second-highest single-season perfect total, following Joey Worley's 19-of-19 effort in 1986.

Carter tied the school record for most punts in a game (13 at Florida) and set new marks for most punts in a season (91), most punting yardage in a game (539 at Florida), and most punting yardage in a season (3,597).

Punter Jimmy Carter set four school records last season.

Playing for the Trophies

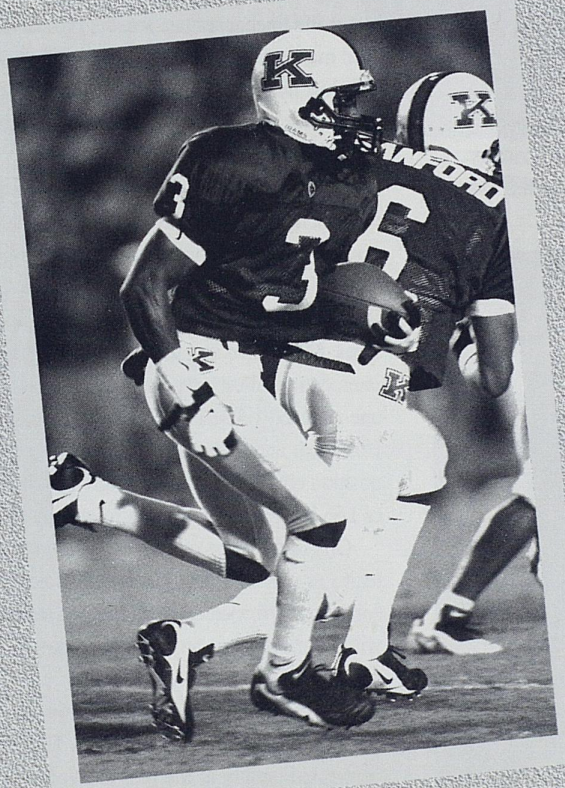

Three of Kentucky's regular season games have trophies that are awarded to the winning team.

The Wildcats retained possession of the Bourbon Barrel last season with a shutout win over Indiana. Louisville is in possession of the Governor's Cup and Tennessee has the Beer Barrel following victories against the Wildcats a year ago.

For more information on the UK trophy games, see pages 151-152.

Craig Yeast and Kio Sanford (background) form a capable kick return tandem. Each has returned a kickoff for a touchdown during his career.

Sanford, Yeast are Kick Return Threats

Senior wide receiver Kio Sanford and junior halfback Craig Yeast make a formidable kick return tandem for the Wildcats.

Sanford holds four SEC records for kickoff returns and ranks in the top 12 lists on six SEC career records for kickoff and total kick (punt and kickoff) returns. He has averaged 22.7 yards on kickoff returns, including one touchdown, and 7.2 yards on punt returns during his career. He also set UK's single-game record for punt returns last season against Louisville by averaging 33.3 yards on three returns.

Yeast shared return duties with Sanford last season and had some outstanding moments. Yeast averaged 34.6 yards on kickoff returns, including a 95-yard TD against South Carolina, and averaged 11.5 yards on punt returns.

1997 Spring Wrapup

Learning new systems was the primary focus as the Kentucky football team went through 15 practices under Coach Hal Mumme and his staff during 1997 spring drills.

"Overall, we were very pleased with the team's progress during the spring," Mumme said. "The players learned more here than our first spring at our previous schools (Iowa Wesleyan and Valdosta State)."

The offensive players showed fine aptitude for the new pass-oriented system. Quarterback Tim Couch showed both the physical and mental abilities that are needed. During the four spring scrimmages, Couch completed 76.1 percent of his passes (166 of 218) for 1,713 yards, 11 touchdowns, and only five interceptions. Given more opportunity to show their talents, the receivers responded by playing well. Primary targets during the spring included wide receivers Kevin Coleman (31 receptions for 389 yards), Quentin McCord (26-264, 1 TD), Chad Spencer (25-316, 4 TD), Kio Sanford (18-179, 1 TD), Lance Mickelsen (13-134, 1 TD), Marvin Love (9-104, 1 TD), and Garry Davis (9-90); tight ends Jimmy Haley (16-174, 3 TD) and Darrin Clark (11-85, 1 TD); and halfbacks Anthony White (23-212, 4 TD) and Craig Yeast (22-170).

White led the way in the running game with 28 carries for 220 yards and two touchdowns, averaging 7.9 yards per carry. A. J. Simon (32-150, 2 TD) and Wendell Childs (33-131, 3 TD) were the leaders from the fullback position.

The starting offensive line returned intact from a year ago. The majority of the linemen's time was spent on improving their pass blocking techniques.

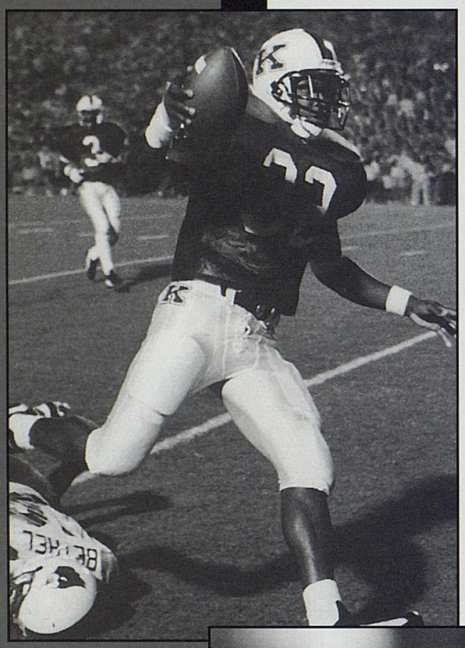

The challenges on defense included learning the new scheme, dealing with inexperience following the graduation of seven starters, and moving several players to new positions.

Work in the defensive line was highlighted by a pair of position moves. Senior Dele Ali, a starter at outside linebacker last season, proved to be a hard man to block from his new position at end. Redshirt freshman Matt Layow ended the spring as a starter at tackle after his move from linebacker.

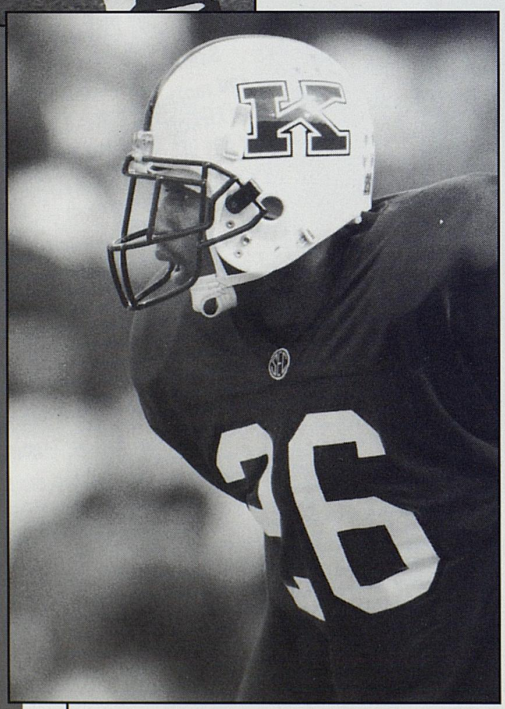

The linebackers and secondary will be relatively inexperienced but the young players impressed the coaches with their effort and enthusiasm. Three seniors, middle linebacker Bob Holmberg, strong safety Tremayne Martin, and cornerback Littleton Ward, will be counted upon for leadership in their areas. Martin had an outstanding spring with four interceptions during the scrimmages — including one returned 100 yards for a touchdown — and Holmberg and Ward also had pickoffs. Another position change that worked well was the move of Lee Wesley from fullback to outside linebacker.

One of the areas of stability was on special teams as punter Jimmy Carter and kicker Brian Johnson reaffirmed their positions. Special teams will get much more attention in August, Mumme said.

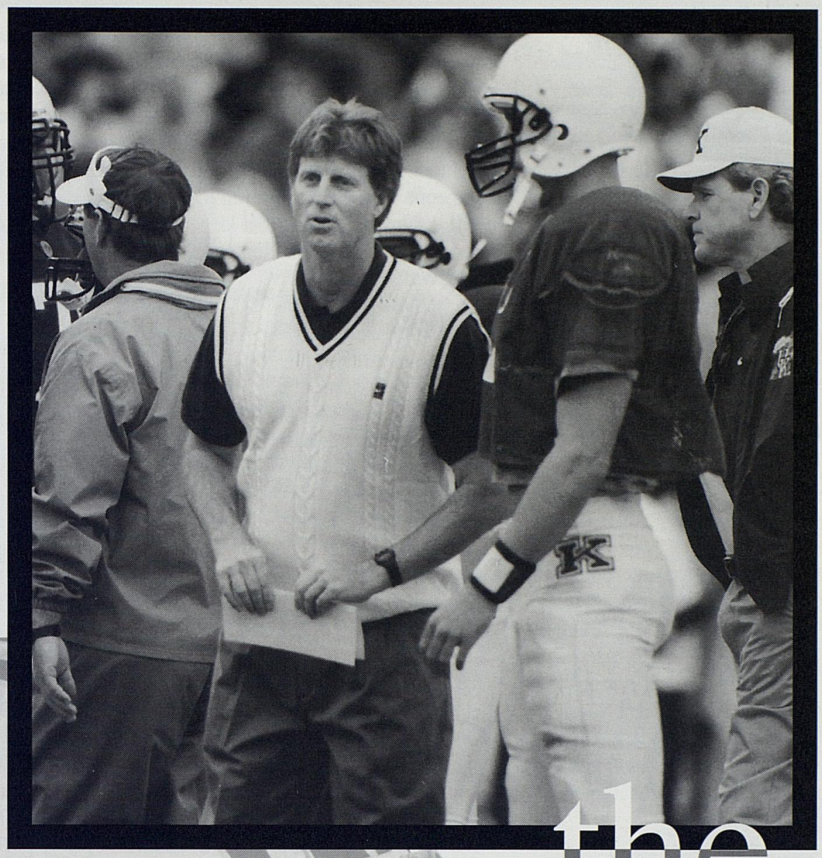

The spring practices concluded on April 26 with the Blue-White Spring Game. The Blue team, comprised mainly of the first-team offense and defense, defeated the second-team White squad 48-7. Couch completed 36 of 43 passes for 358 yards and four touchdowns. Halfback Anthony White scored four touchdowns, two each by rushing and receiving.

Halfback Anthony White, shown here in action from last season, excelled at both rushing and receiving during the spring. He totaled 432 rushing and receiving yards during the scrimmages and scored six touchdowns, including four scores during the Blue-White Spring Game.

Strong safety Tremayne Martin had four interceptions during the spring scrimmages, including one return for a 100-yard touchdown.

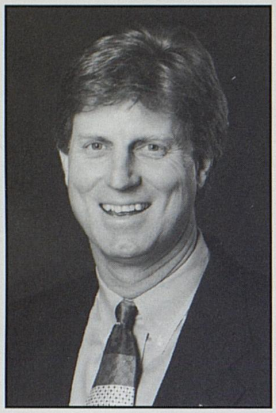

Hal Mumme and his coaching staff enter their first season at UK.

the Coaches

Head Coach Hal Mumme

At the introductory news conference for University of Kentucky Coach Hal Mumme, Athletics Director C. M. Newton — a former basketball coach — described his hire in hoops terms.

"I told Hal," Newton said, "that what we're looking for here is someone who will press, fast break, and shoot the threes on grass. He said, 'I'm your man.'"

And with that, Hal Mumme was named head coach of the Kentucky Wildcats football team on Dec. 2, 1996. The appointment of Mumme moves UK in a new direction of coaching and playing styles. Mumme will use a pass-oriented offense similar to the system that Brigham Young University has used so successfully for many years. The defense will be an attack-oriented 4-3 alignment, patterned after the system originated by long-time college coach Larry Lacewell and currently used by the Dallas Cowboys.

"Much like Coach (Rick) Pitino, who I gave the challenge of putting the fun back into Kentucky basketball, I see Coach Mumme as someone who can put the fun in Kentucky football. I think he'll bring that kind of excitement and that kind of fun to Kentucky football. Not only will it be fun, the fun (also) comes in winning and he's a proven winner."

> "I told Hal what we're looking for here is someone who will press, fast break, and shoot the threes on grass. He said, 'I'm your man.'"
> —C.M. Newton

Mumme's track record is impressive, having won in both a rebuilding situation and with an established program. He took over an 0-10 team at an NAIA school, Iowa Wesleyan College, and turned it into an immediate winner, eventually leading IWC into the national playoffs. Mumme then took over a good program at Valdosta State, an NCAA Division II school, and turned it into a national championship contender.

"I think Hal is uniquely qualified for this job," Newton said. "He's really prepared himself to coach at UK and in the Southeastern Conference. He's coached at every level — assistant coach and head coach in high school, offensive coordinator in Division I-A, and head coach on two levels in college. His playing style is exciting and will be fun to watch.

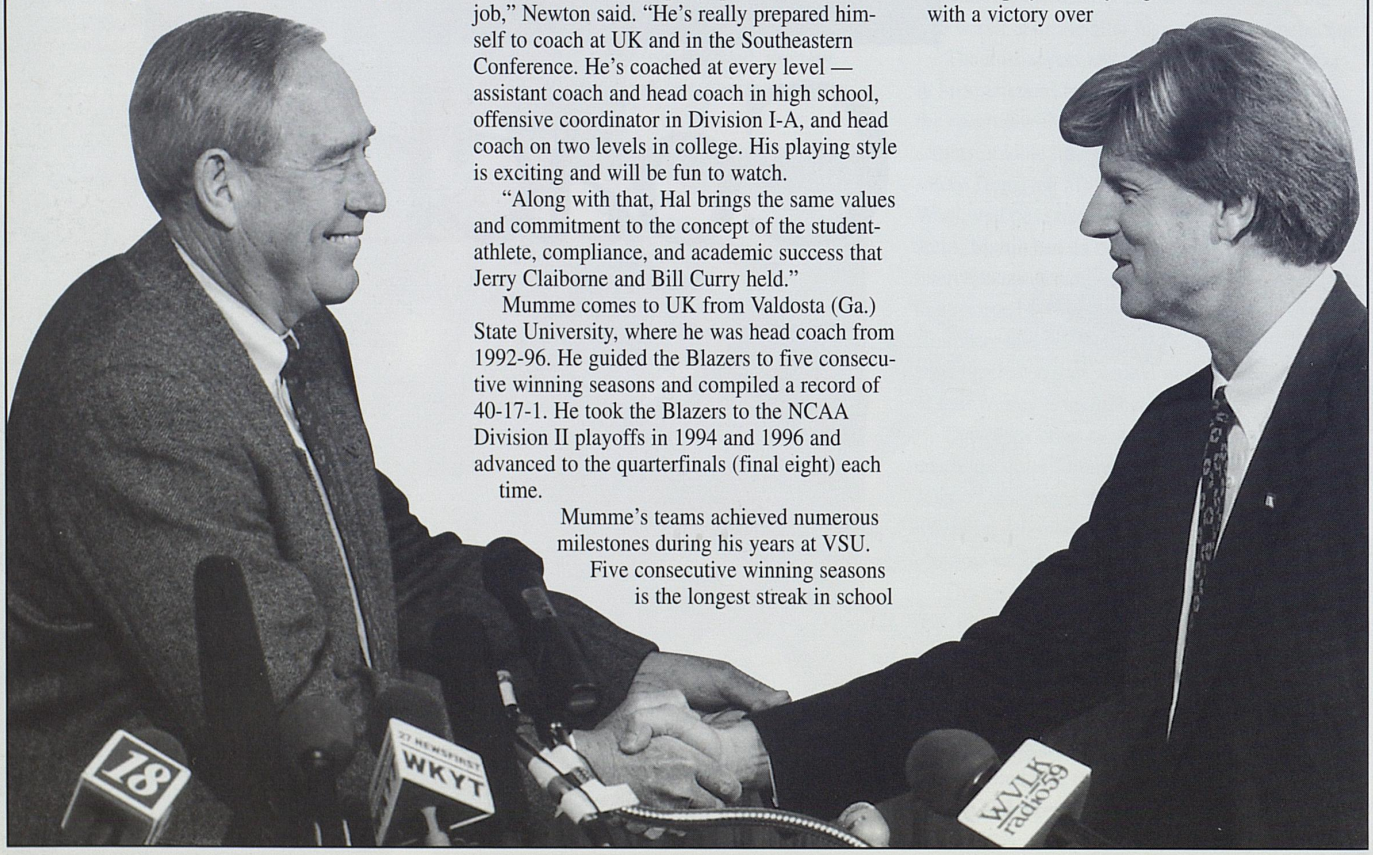

"Along with that, Hal brings the same values and commitment to the concept of the student-athlete, compliance, and academic success that Jerry Claiborne and Bill Curry held."

Mumme comes to UK from Valdosta (Ga.) State University, where he was head coach from 1992-96. He guided the Blazers to five consecutive winning seasons and compiled a record of 40-17-1. He took the Blazers to the NCAA Division II playoffs in 1994 and 1996 and advanced to the quarterfinals (final eight) each time.

Mumme's teams achieved numerous milestones during his years at VSU. Five consecutive winning seasons is the longest streak in school history. The Blazers have been ranked in the national top 20 consistently, inculding a No. 1 ranking at one point in the 1996 season. VSU finished second or higher in the Gulf South Conference in four of the five seasons, including the school's first conference championship in 1996. The '94 and '96 playoff appearances are the only ones in school history. Twenty-six Blazers were named first-team all-conference under Mumme.

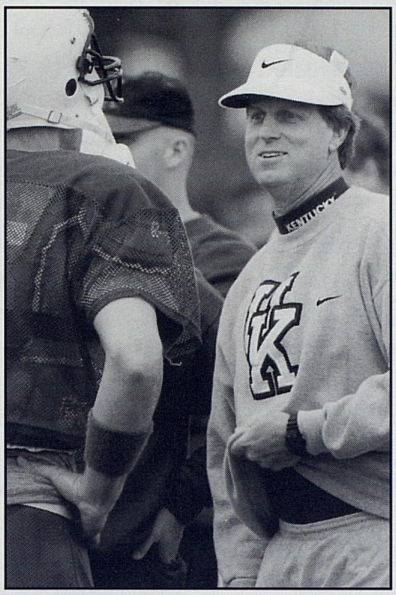

In 1992, Mumme's first squad at Valdosta State went 5-4-1. The 1993 season saw the Blazers go 8-3, the second-highest single-season win total in school history. In that season, VSU broke 66 school records, 22 conference records, and seven national marks.

The 1994 season was a breakthrough campaign for Mumme. His team set a school record for wins with an 11-2 mark. During the regular season, VSU posted a 31-14 upset of Central Florida, Sports Illustrated's preseason national champion in Division I-AA. It was VSU's first victory over a Division I-AA team. The Blazers' first national playoff entry began with a victory over Albany State before losing in the quarterfinals in overtime, 27-24, to eventual champion North Alabama. VSU was ranked sixth in the nation in the final poll, the first top 10 final ranking in school history. Along the way, VSU broke 80 school records, 35 conference records, and seven national marks. Quarterback Chris Hatcher (now a UK graduate assistant coach) was the Gulf South Conference Player of the Year and won the Harlon Hill Award as the Player of the Year in Division II. Mumme was chosen Georgia Coach of the Year by the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame.

Despite the loss of 20 starters, and a schedule that included four top-20 teams away from home and a Div. I-A team on the road, Mumme was able to put together a 6-5 record in 1995. The Blazers returned to national prominence in 1996 with a 10-3 record, including a playoff victory. Valdosta State won its first conference championship and Mumme was named Gulf South Conference Coach of the Year. Mumme was honored by his peers as in the American Football Coaches Association as the Region II Coach of the Year.

Throwing the football has been Mumme's trademark. From 1991-94, Hatcher completed 1,047 of 1,529 passes (68.5 percent) for 11,363 yards and 121 touchdowns. Hatcher continues to hold several national records for passing and total offense. Hatcher's successor, Lance Funderburk, threw for 7,932 yards and 64 touchdowns in the last two seasons. Funderburk was runner-up for the Harlon Hill Award and played in the East-West Shrine Game — only the fourth Division II player ever to be selected for that all-star contest. Funderburk also played in the Kelly Tires Blue-Gray Classic.

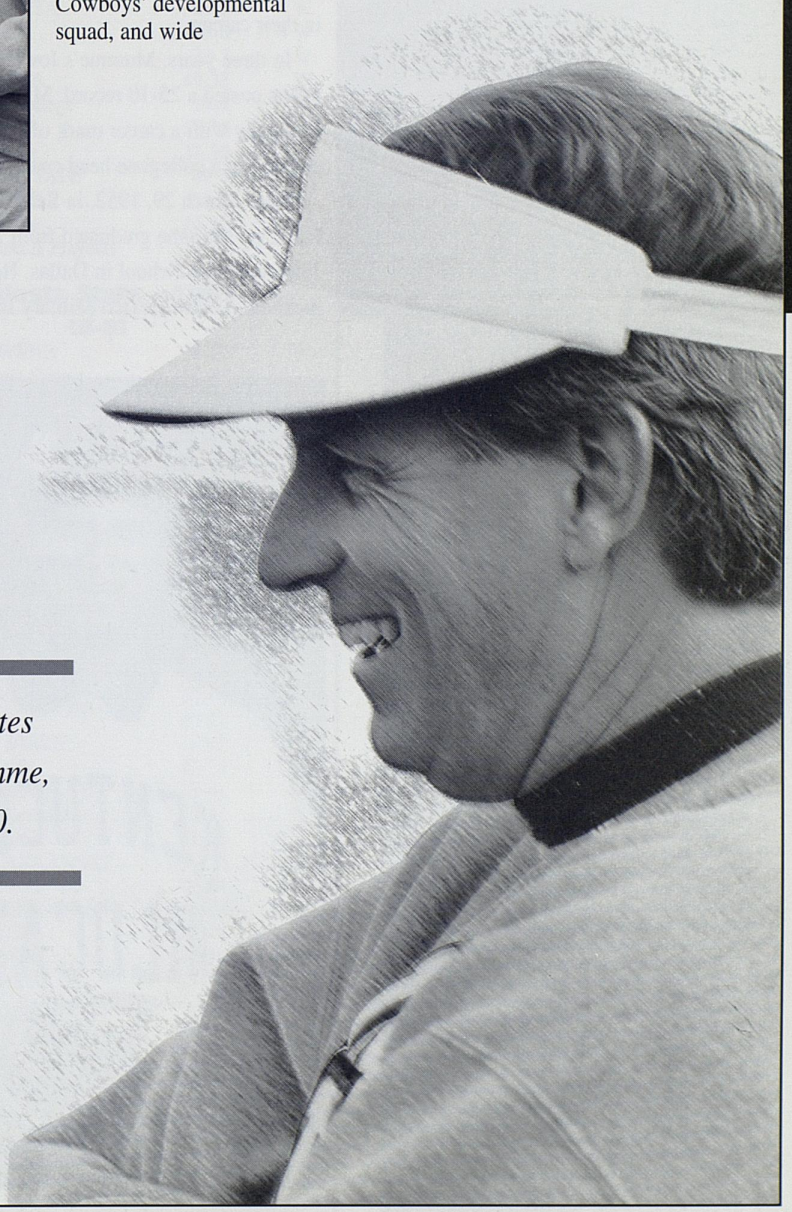

For more quotes about Hal Mumme, see page 220.

The running game also got its share of attention under Mumme. From 1992-94, running back Dominique Ross rushed for 3,237 yards and 36 touchdowns. Ross also set a Gulf South Conference record with 256 rushing attempts in the 1994 season. In 1996, Vontrell Mitchell rushed for 1,355 yards.

During his tenure at VSU, Mumme's defenses were known as bold, combative units. Mumme's 1994 team allowed a school-record low of 162 points, despite playing more games than any season in school history. Andre Hampton set a school career record with 36 sacks. Antonio Edwards notched 34 sacks as a Blazer and was named Gulf South Conference Player of the Year in 1992.

Edwards, who has gone on to become a starting defensive end for the Seattle Seahawks, is an indication of Mumme's success in player development at Valdosta. Ross has been a member of the Dallas Cowboys' developmental squad, and wide receiver Robert Williams has been a member of the Kansas City Chiefs' developmental squad. Seven players from Mumme's 1994 team signed contracts with National Football League or Canadian Football League teams.

Mumme arrived at Valdosta from Iowa Wesleyan College, where he orchestrated a complete turnaround in the NAIA school's football fortunes from 1989-91. Mumme inherited only three returning players from the '88 group that had posted an 0-10 record. The immediate reversal began with a 7-4 record in 1989 and got better each season. Iowa Wesleyan improved to 8-4 in 1990, followed by a 10-2 mark in 1991. He was named NAIA District Coach of the Year in 1989 and 1991.

Head Coach Hal Mumme

All three of Mumme's IWC teams made a postseason appearance. The 1989 team played in the inaugural Steamboat Classic. In 1990, the Tigers played once again in the Steamboat Classic and posted a victory. The 1991 team made the first national playoff appearance in school history and lost in the quarterfinals.

With the help of star quarterback Dustin Dewald, Mumme's 1990 team led the NAIA in passing offense and the 1989 and 1991 teams finished second nationally in passing. Dewald and Valdosta's Chris Hatcher are two of only eight quarterbacks in collegiate history who have thrown more than 100 touchdown passes in their careers.

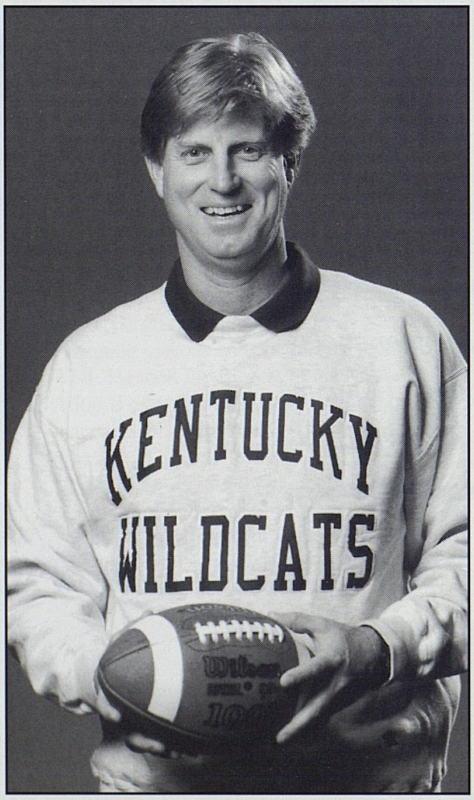

In three years, Mumme's Iowa Wesleyan teams posted a 25-10 record. Mumme comes to Kentucky with a career mark of 65-27-1 in eight seasons as a collegiate head coach.

Born March 29, 1952, in San Antonio, Texas, Hal Clay Mumme graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School in Dallas. He was a wide receiver at New Mexico Military Institute for two seasons, then played at Tarleton State, a Division II school in Stephenville, Texas. He graduated from Tarleton in 1975 with a degree in history. Mumme's debut as a coach came at Moody High School in Corpus Christi, Texas, from 1976-78. He was head coach at Aransas Pass (Texas) HS in 1979.

Mumme entered the collegiate ranks as the quarterbacks and receivers coach at West Texas State in 1980-81. He was the offensive coordinator at Texas-El Paso from 1982-85. While at UTEP, he developed a relationship with Brigham Young head coach LaVell Edwards, who had a profound impact on Mumme's offensive philosophy.

After leaving UTEP, Mumme became head coach and athletics director at Copperas Cove (Texas) HS. He coached at Copperas Cove from 1986-88 before moving to Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, for the head coaching position at Iowa Wesleyan.

Mumme married June Leishman and they have three children: Matt, Karen, and Leslie.

Quarterback Success Under Hal Mumme

Coach Hal Mumme has had notable success in the development of quarterbacks. Here are some of Mumme's quarterbacks and their achievements:

Victor Magee, West Texas, 1981—Newcomer of the Year in the Missouri Valley Conference; played professionally in the Canadian Football League.

Sammy Garza, Texas-El Paso, 1983-85—Set school record for completion percentage; enjoyed an 11-year career in the National Football League and the Canadian Football League.

Dustin Dewald, Copperas Cove High School, 1986, and Iowa Wesleyan College, 1989-91— Played for Mumme in high school, then earned NAIA All-America honors under Mumme at Iowa Wesleyan.

James Ritchey, Copperas Cove High School, 1988—Ritchey was a center until Mumme converted him to quarterback; Ritchey went on to Stephen F. Austin University and was a rookie with the Houston Oilers in 1996.

Chris Hatcher, Valdosta State, 1992-94—A two-year All-American, he won the Harlon Hill Award as the national player of the year in NCAA Division II.

Lance Funderburk, Valdosta State, 1995-96—Earned All-America honors and was runner-up for the Harlon Hill Award; entering his rookie season with the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Over the last five years, Hal Mumme led Valdosta State to a 40-17-1 record and appearances in the 1994 and 1996 NCAA Division II playoffs.

Head Coach Hal Mumme

A Conversation With Mumme...

Q: What was it about Kentucky that made you say, 'I want to come here.'?

A: "The first reason was the chance to coach in the best conference in the nation. If you are a competitor you always want to play against the best. We feel that we have a good system and we want the chance to coach it against the best.

"The fact that Kentucky has sold more than 30,000 season tickets a year, even though they have been through seven or eight years of losing, was impressive to me. This means that there is a good fan base and people like football. They have just been disappointed. The fact that the facilities are the best in the SEC also was a huge draw."

Q: When Kentucky Athletics Director C. M. Newton called and offered you the job, how long did it take you to accept?

A: "After I picked up the phone, about eight seconds."

Q: What are your objectives for the Kentucky program?

A: "We want to win the Southeastern Conference. That's our number one goal. How long that will take, I can't say. I do know that will always be our objective. That is what we will recruit for and that is the way we are going to coach."

Q: You work as your own offensive coordinator. How do you summarize your offensive philosophy?

A: "We want to throw the ball short, as many times as possible, to people who know how to score. That is what we tell the quarterbacks and receivers the first day.

"The second thing is to create space for people who can score. The things we do with formations and running and passing plays are to create space for those people.

"The third thing is to win the 'street fight' up front 50 or more times a game. If we do that, I think we can use our entire offense and attack any defense.

"Everybody thinks its complicated but it's really not. You can only play with 11 players. Our goal is to make the defense cover the entire field."

Q: What kind of run/pass ratio do you prefer?

A: "The magic number is around 40 or 50 passes a game. Then you get the defense leaning one way and you can hit them with the run 25 times or so and that can hurt them in a hurry."

Q: Obviously, the quarterback is very important in your offense and you have had some great ones. What does it take for a quarterback to succeed?

A: "Like a lot of offenses, we want a quarterback who is a good leader, has good pocket feet, has an overhand release, is instilled with the football aspects of the game, and has character. If you look at our other quarterbacks (at previous schools), they've all had those things."

Q: Define pocket feet and tell us why an overhand release is important.

A: "In our system, quarterbacks have to be able to move around. If you're going to throw it 50 times a game, he has to be able to slide his feet around the pocket, find throwing lanes, and occasionally escape the pocket. They have to able to keep their feet alive while focusing their eyes downfield."

"You can't have a quick release without an overhand ball. In our scheme, it's not important how much velocity you (the quarterback) have, what's more important is throwing on time to a position where the receiver can catch it and run with it."

Head Coach Hal Mumme

Q: On defense, you have spoken very highly of coordinator Mike Major. What gives you such confidence in him that you are able to turn the defense over to him?

A: "Mike and I have been coaching together since 1976. This is the sixth time we have worked together, the fourth time I have been head coach and he has been defensive coordinator. Mike understands our style of play on offense. There are times that we say, 'Stop them now or let them score.' You can't do that with a lot of defensive coordinators, but Mike understands our style of play.

"In terms of what we do on defense, there is not anyone who knows it better than Mike and there is not anyone who can adjust in the heat of battle better than him. That is why I am so comfortable with him."

Q: Why do you open your practices to media and fans?

A: "I think that players like crowds. I know when I was playing I liked to perform in front of crowds. It makes you practice better."

Q: What is philosophy on coaching your players?

A: "We endeavor to teach honest effort, communication, and loyalty to our team. If a young person comes to this university, gets a degree and learns traits of honest effort in everything they do on and off the field, learns how to communicate with people around them, and learns to be loyal to a great cause — in this case, Wildcats football — then we've taught them things they can carry into their lives and chosen occupations.

"To me, every team is like a piece of artwork. It's like a canvas and I get to be the artist and put all these things on there. I want to leave all these great memories for the kids, so they can come back 20 years from now, look on the wall, and say, 'Wasn't that a great team — that team was a work of art.' That's the way I think of it."

Q: How do you coach the players during the games?

A: "What we tell the players in the games is that there's only one important play and that's the next play. It doesn't matter if you threw an interception or a touchdown on the last play, the next play is what's important."

Q: When you selected your staff, you talked a lot about chemistry. What does that mean to you?

A: "I'm looking for guys who can get along and have the commitment to excellence and loyalty to accomplish our goal. You are not always looking for guys who can agree. You are looking for that mixture of coaches who are free to explain their own ideas, then have enough loyalty to go out on the field and do it one way once a decision is made.

"The thing we look for on defense is coaches who are all grounded on the fundamentals of our defense. They have all coached with Coach Major, or have coached the Lacewell system in the past. That was important to us. Offensively, it was the same thing. I wanted guys who I have been with and coached with, or spent a lot of time talking about our style of football."

Q: How important is your relationship with high school coaches?

A: "That's extremely important. High school coaches are the reason that college coaches have jobs. I always try to let them know they're the most important guys out there.

"We had the Georgia state high school clinic in Valdosta last year and what I told them (the coaches) is that they have the most important job in coaching. They get to work with hundreds (of players). I have the second-most important job because I work with less than 100 at any one time. There are about 204 schools in Kentucky that play football and I want to meet and get to know all the coaches."

Q: You have mentioned that you have been gratified by the reception you have gotten from the fans. Tell us about it.

A: "The thing that has amazed me as you go around the state is the people that come up to you and really let you know that they are pulling for you and are going to be there on Saturday, that they really want you to be successful and are proud to be wearing the blue and white."

Hal Mumme has made himself and his team very accessible to the media. All practices are open to the media and public. Coaches and players are available for interviews after each practice.

TOM ADAMS

Defensive Ends

Tom Adams III, an assistant coach at Southern Methodist University the past four years, begins his first season at Kentucky as defensive ends coach.

"Tom is a very smart coach and is well-versed in our style of pressure defensive play," Coach Hal Mumme said. "I've known him since 1985 when he was at Sam Houston State and we have stayed in contact over the years. We have always talked about coaching together."

Adams will be challenged immediately. Both starting Wildcats ends graduated and seven former linebackers were moved to end in the spring in order to give the team more speed at those positions. Last year's top reserve, Anthony Watson, returns.

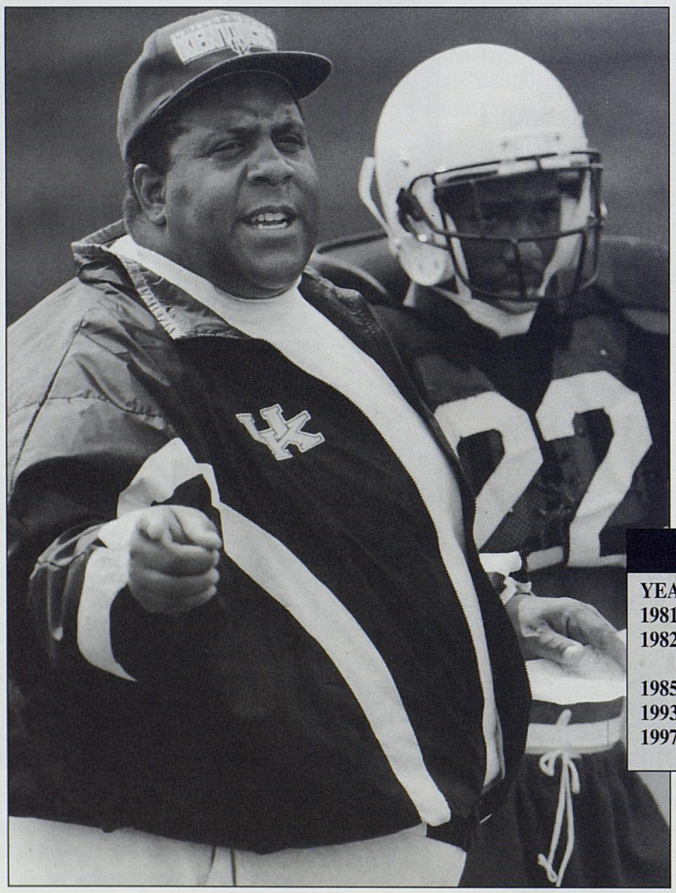

While at SMU, Adams coached defensive tackles, including two 1993 All-Southwest Conference performers, Chad Patton and Adam Voyles.

From 1985-92, Adams guided the defensive line at Sam Houston State. In his final season at SHSU, Adams' defensive line helped set a single-season school record with 47 quarterback sacks. In 1991, Sam Houston State won the Southland Conference and made the NCAA I-AA playoffs. Adams coached seven all-conference players and one All-American at Sam Houston State.

Adams got his first full-time coaching position at Wharton County (Texas) Junior College, where he led the offensive and defensive lines from 1982-85.

Adams played his college football at Rice. He won the team's Most Valuable Defensive Lineman Award in 1979 and 1980 and was the team captain during his senior season. He spent the 1981 season as a student assistant coach with the Owls' defensive line. He completed his bachelor's degree, with a double major in psychology and physical education, in 1982.

Adams and his wife, Rita, have three children — son Branch (14), and daughters Brandi (4) and Beth (2).

MIKE FANOGA

Defensive Tackles

Defensive tackles coach Mike Fanoga brings 10 years of collegiate coaching experience to the University of Kentucky as he begins his first season with the Wildcats.

Fanoga will oversee the tackles in 1997, perhaps the deepest positions on the team. Fanoga has a returning starter in Mark Jacobs, a returning starter from 1995 in Marvin Major, and returning lettermen Thad Corbin, Gordon Crowe, and George Massey. In addition, one of the best moves of the spring was the move of redshirt freshman linebacker Matt Layow to tackle.

Fanoga coached the defensive line the last three seasons under Hal Mumme at Valdosta State, helping the Blazers advance to the 1994 and 1996 NCAA Division II playoffs. Fanoga helped coach the 1994 VSU defense that allowed the fewest points (162) in school history. He also served as the team's recruiting coordinator in 1994-95.

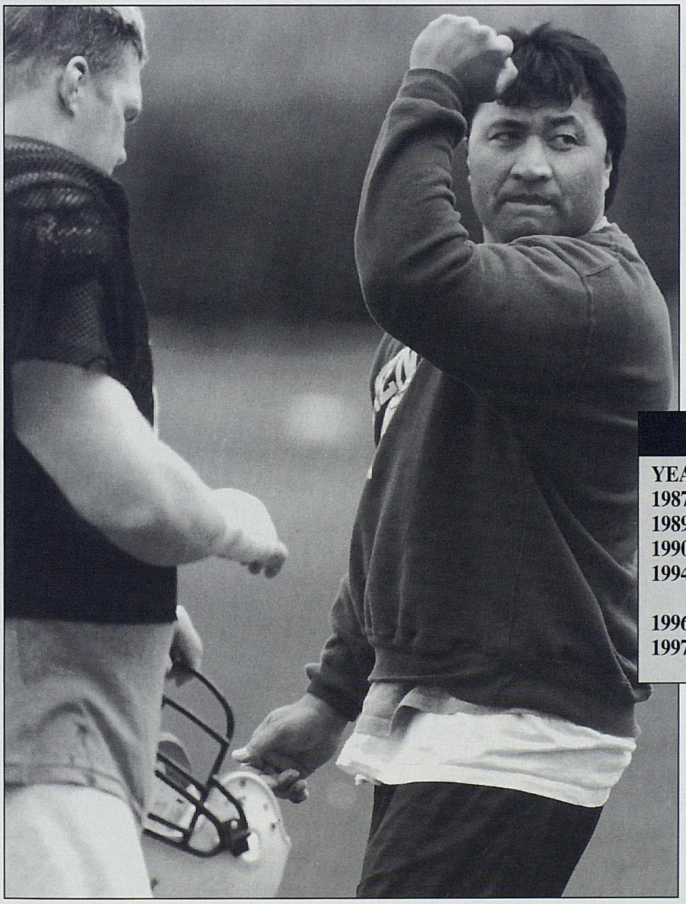

Under Fanoga's guidance at VSU, defensive end Andre Hampton finished his career in 1994 with a school-record 36 quarterback sacks. Hampton was named All-Gulf South Conference. In 1996, Fanoga coached another first-team all-conference player, defensive tackle Artie Ulmer, who was selected in the 1997 NFL draft by the Minnesota Vikings.

Fanoga coached the defensive line at Iowa Wesleyan from 1990-93, including the 1990-91 seasons under Coach Hal Mumme. IWC went to the NAIA national playoffs for the first time during the 1991 season. Before IWC, he coached at Livingston (Ala.) University in 1989.

Fanoga earned his bachelor's degree (1987) and master's degree (1988) at Texas El-Paso, where he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant in 1987-88. He also played defensive end and linebacker for the Miners and was a letterman in the 1985-86 seasons. He played two years at Snow College before transferring to UTEP.

"Mike is a tireless worker," Mumme said. "He's loyal, dependable, and a good role model for the players. He's very enthusiastic about his coaching."

Mike and his wife, Soana, have a one-year-old daughter, Sydney.

TONY FRANKLIN

Running Backs

Tony Franklin, a veteran high school coach in the state of Kentucky, joins the University of Kentucky staff as assistant coach for running backs.

Franklin will work with a talented, but inexperienced, group of backs in 1997. The tentative starters are fullback Wendell Childs, a redshirt freshman, and halfback Anthony White, a sophomore with limited game experience.

"I've known Tony since 1989 and have recruited his schools since then," Coach Hal Mumme said. "He is very knowledgeable in the passing game. I tried to get him to join us at Iowa Wesleyan and Valdosta State, but he never wanted to leave Kentucky."

Franklin spent 15 of the last 18 years as a head coach or assistant at six high schools within the state. Franklin has been head coach at Mercer County HS (1996), Calloway County HS (1989-91), and Murray HS (1983-85). Franklin's stops as an assistant include Mayfield HS (1993-95), Calloway County HS (1988), Daviess County HS (1981-82), Owensboro Catholic HS (1980), and Murray HS (1979).

As a head coach, Franklin led Mercer County to the 1996 playoffs. At Calloway County, he coached quarterback Pookie Jones, the state's 1989 "Mr. Football." Jones signed with Kentucky and became the Wildcats' starting quarterback. Franklin made significant improvements in the program during his time at Murray and was nominated by his coaching peers for the Kentucky Coach of the Year Award. Franklin's teams set records for passing at all three schools where he was head coach.

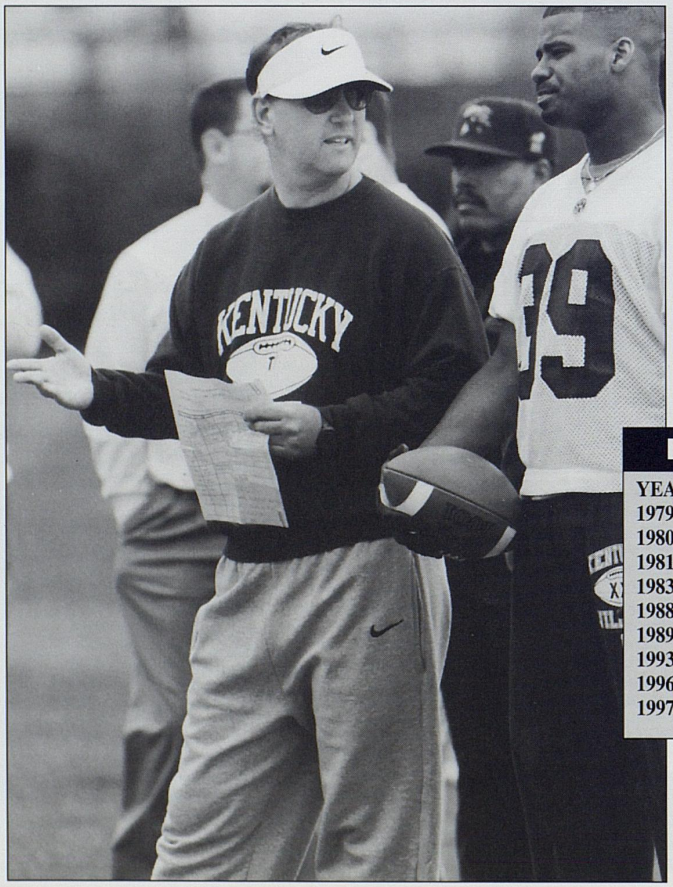

Another highlight of his high school coaching career came at Mayfield, where he was an assistant coach for the 1993 and 1995 state championship teams. Franklin also was nominated for the Ashland Oil Teacher of the Year Award while at Mayfield.

In 1986-87, he was president of Scouting Report of Texas, Inc., a company which helped more than 200 high school seniors obtain college scholarships. Franklin built the No. 2 organization among 38 nationwide franchises.

Franklin, a native Kentuckian, was an all-state running back/linebacker at Caldwell County HS.

He signed at Murray State and was the team's leading rusher as a freshman in 1976. He played two years at MSU before injuries ended his career. Franklin graduated from Murray with a degree in history and political science and obtained a master's from MSU in education and history.

Tony and his wife, Laura, have three daughters — Chelsea (12), Caroline (9), and Caitlin (8).

1997 Kentucky Assistant Coaches

TIM KEANE

Cornerbacks

Tim Keane, a 24-year veteran of collegiate coaching, including three seasons in the Southeastern Conference, joins Kentucky as cornerbacks coach.

"Tim brings with him a knowledge of the Southeastern Conference and a tremendous knowledge of our brand of the 4-3 defense," Coach Hal Mumme said. "I've known Tim for a long time. He's a natural fit for our staff. He also has a reputation as a great recruiter."

Keane comes to UK from Louisiana Tech, where he coached defensive backs for the last three seasons. Keane helped develop All-America cornerback Willie Smith, who led the nation in interceptions in 1995 and also was a two-year All-Big West selection. As a team, Tech improved from 3-8 to 5-6 to 6-5 during Keane's three campaigns.

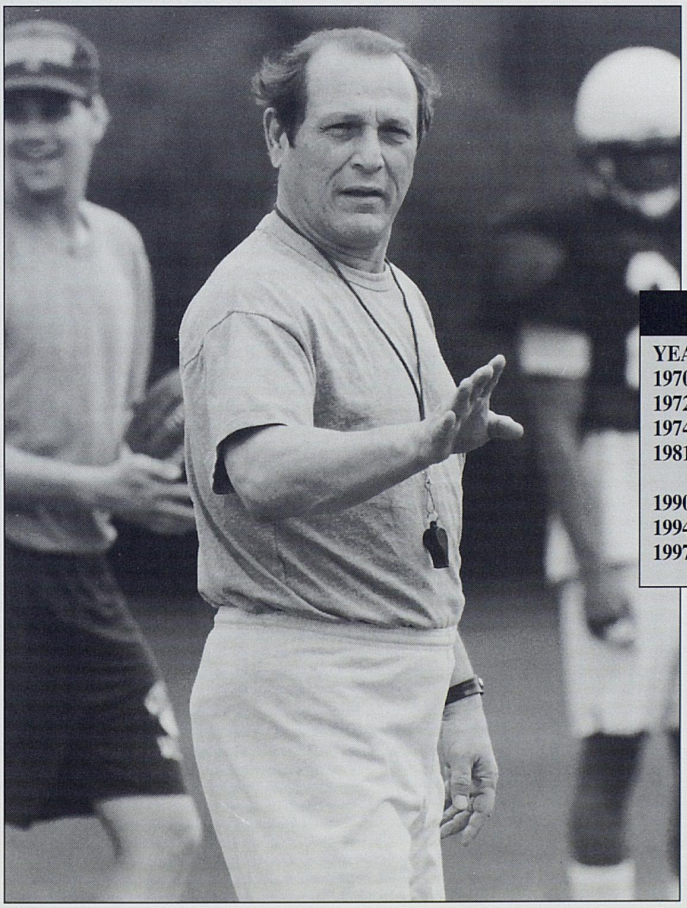

Prior to his stint at Tech, Keane coached the secondary at Tennessee from 1990-92. Tennessee posted a 27-8-2 record during that time, won the 1990 SEC championship, and played in the Sugar, Fiesta, and Hall of Fame Bowls. Safety Dale Carter was consensus All-American in 1991 and a two-year All-SEC choice. Cornerback Jeremy Lincoln was a first-team All-SEC pick in 1991. Both Lincoln and Carter are playing in the National Football League. Keane also helped develop safety Jason Parker, who was named to the Freshman All-SEC team in 1992.

For 18 seasons prior to coaching at Tennessee, Keane coached at his alma mater, Arkansas State. He began as receivers and quarterbacks coach in 1972 and moved to the secondary in 1974. He was defensive coordinator from 1981-89.

Under Keane's guidance as the coordinator, Arkansas State led Division I-AA in total defense in 1985. His 1988 unit led Division I-AA in turnover ratio. Arkansas State advanced to the I-AA playoffs from 1984-87 and finished as the national runner-up in 1986. Six of his Arkansas State defensive backs went on to play in the National Football League.

Keane was a three-year letterman at quarterback for ASU from 1965-67. Following his graduation in 1968, Keane began his coaching career at the junior high level. He was an assistant football coach at North Little Rock (Ark.) High School in 1970-71 before returning to Arkansas State. He earned a master's at ASU in 1973.

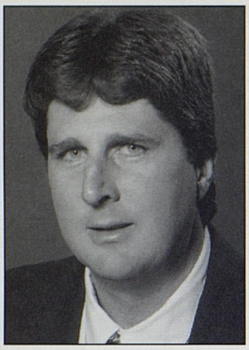

Keane has a 13-year-old daughter, Ashley.

MIKE LEACH

Receivers

Mike Leach, the offensive coordinator the last five seasons at Valdosta State University, will be in charge of the UK wide receivers and tight ends.

Kentucky has several wide receivers and tight ends returning and Leach will help them make the adjustment to the new pass-oriented offense installed by Coach Hal Mumme.

Leach helped Mumme guide the Blazers to a 40-17-1 record from 1992-96. The 1993 VSU offense broke 66 school records, 22 conference records, and seven national marks. VSU advanced to the national playoffs in 1994, with Leach's offense breaking 80 school records, 35 conference marks, and seven national standards. VSU returned to the NCAA Division II playoffs again in 1996.

In 1996, Leach was awarded the Division II Offensive Coordinator of the Year award by American Football Quarterly magazine. In addition to team and personal success, Leach also has mentored successful players at VSU. Quarterback Chris Hatcher won the 1994 Harlon Hill Award as the player of the year in Division II and QB Lance Funderburk was the Harlon Hill runner-up in 1996. Seventeen of his offensive players earned first-team All-Gulf South Conference honors.

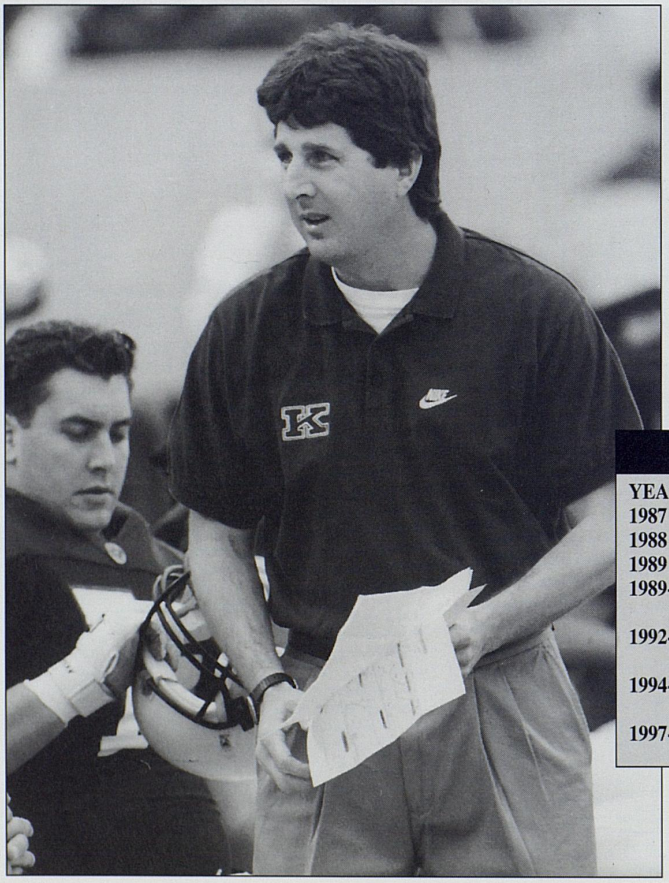

Leach first coached with Mumme at Iowa Wesleyan College from 1989-91. Leach was offensive coordinator and line coach at IWC, which led the NAIA in passing yardage in 1990 and finished second the other two seasons. The IWC offense passed for more than 11,000 yards in those three seasons and broke 26 national records. Winless the year before Mumme and Leach arrived, IWC battled its way into the NAIA national playoffs in 1991. IWC quarterback Dustin Dewald and VSU's Hatcher are two of only eight quarterbacks in collegiate history to pass for more than 100 touchdowns.

Leach also gained experience as head coach of the Pori, Finland, team in the European Football League (spring 1989), as an assistant coach at College of the Desert (1988) and at Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo (1987).

Leach graduated from Brigham Young University with honors in 1983 and earned a master's degree from the United States Sports Academy. He also earned a law degree and graduated in the top one-third of his class at the Pepperdine University School of Law.

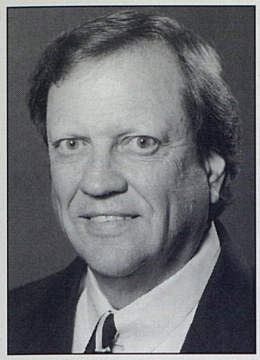

"The great thing about Mike is that he can coach any position on offense," Mumme said. "He's extremely bright as evidenced by his achievements in law school. He is invaluable at helping organize the practice schedule and our yearly routine for coaching offense. "He's a tireless recruiter and a lot of fun for our players."

Mike and his wife, Sharon, have three children — daughters Janeen (12) and Kim (7), and son Cody (1).

MIKE MAJOR

Defensive Coordinator, Linebackers

Mike Major, defensive coordinator on Coach Hal Mumme's staff the past five seasons at Valdosta State, will hold the same position and also coach the linebackers in his first season at UK.

Major will have to deal with significant inexperience in his first season with the Wildcats. Seven starters have graduated from last year's defense. Two starting linebackers return, but they have moved to defensive end, giving Major an eager but relatively inexperienced set of linebackers.

"Since I'm the offensive coordinator, I need a defensive coordinator I can turn it over to and trust," Mumme said. "There's nobody I trust on the sidelines more than Mike. He's a true student of the game and is a perfectionist. He's also great at making adjustments during the game."

As a position coach, Major guided the linebackers four years and the defensive backs during the 1993 season. The Blazers had a 40-17-1 record during those five years and advanced to the NCAA Division II playoffs in 1994 and 1996.

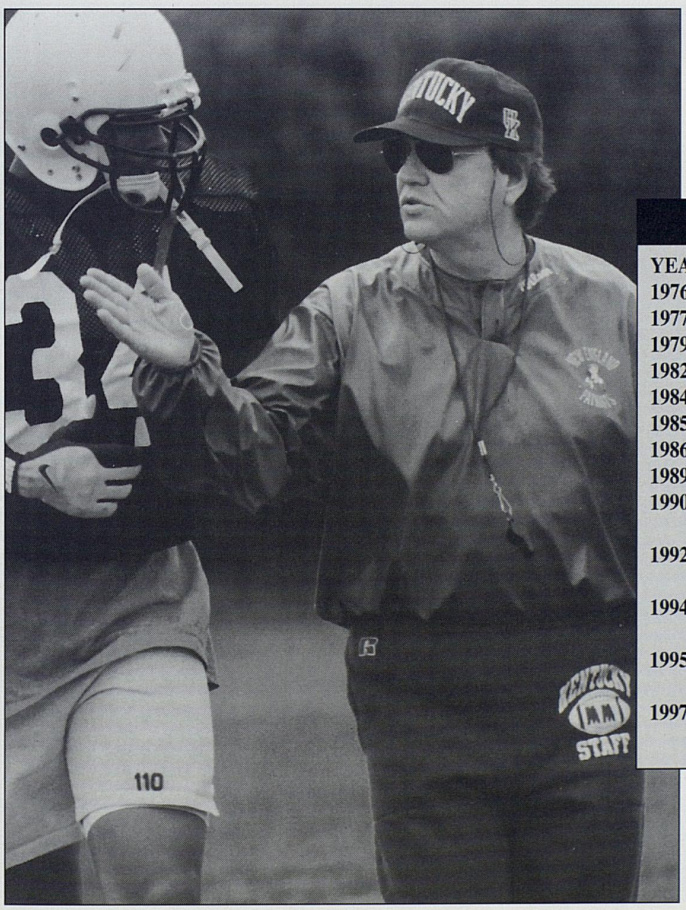

Major's defense set a school record in 1994 by allowing only 162 points — the fewest in VSU history. His defensive units led the Gulf South Conference in numerous statistical categories and achieved top 10 national rankings for defense. His teams posted six shutouts in five years. VSU had produced only four shutouts in the 10 years preceding Major's arrival.

Nine VSU defensive players were named first-team All-GSC under Major's tutelage. Antonio Edwards was GSC Defensive Player of the Year in 1992 and went on to become a starting defensive end for the Seattle Seahawks. Four other Major-coached Blazers also signed professional contracts, including tackle Artie Ulmer, who was selected in the 1997 NFL draft by the Minnesota Vikings.

Major earned his bachelor's degree from Stephen F. Austin in 1973 and also holds a master's from SFA. Major's coaching career began at several high schools in Texas, including Moody HS in Corpus Christi, where he first coached with Mumme. He also was with Mumme one year as an assistant coach at Texas-El Paso. Major rejoined Mumme at Copperas Cove (Texas) HS from 1986-88 and was the defensive coordinator at Iowa Wesleyan in 1989.

Major helped transform Iowa Wesleyan from an 0-10 team to a 7-4 team in his one season there. Major was an assistant coach for two years at Stephen F. Austin before going to Valdosta State.

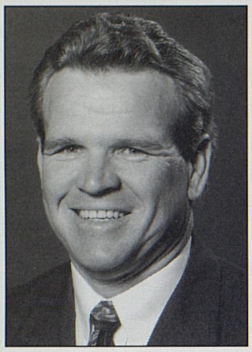

Mike and his wife, Laura, have two sons, Patrick (17) and Jordan (15).

GUY MORRISS

Offensive Line

Offensive line coach Guy Morriss, who spent last season as offensive line coach at Mississippi State University, brings to Kentucky 18 years of National Football League experience – 15 as a player and three as a coach.

"Guy knows more about pass protection than anybody I've ever coached with," Coach Hal Mumme said. "He has coached successfully on every level, from high school to the NFL. He's truly a player's coach, the type of person I'd want my son to be around."

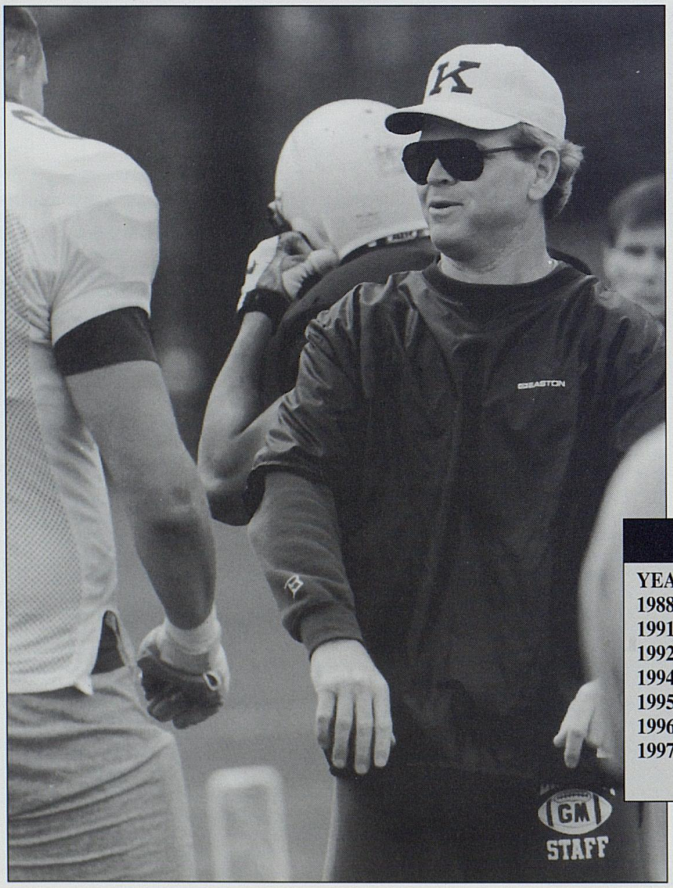

Morriss will be teaching plenty of pass protection at Kentucky as the Wildcats adjust to the new pass-oriented offense. Morriss has the good fortune of coaching five returning starters during his first season at UK.

Although Morriss is in his first season at Kentucky, this will be his second year of experience in the Southeastern Conference. Morriss coached the offensive line last season at Mississippi State. One of his Bulldog tackles, Brent Smith, earned first-team All-Southeastern Conference honors in 1996 and was a second-round selection of the Miami Dolphins in the 1997 NFL draft.

After his days as an All-Southwest Conference guard at Texas Christian University, Morriss went on to his 15-year career in the NFL. He spent 11 years with the Philadelphia Eagles and four with the New England Patriots. He was an All-Pro selection in 1981 and played in two Super Bowls.

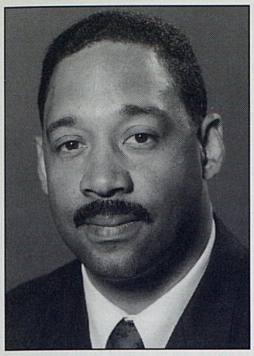

Morriss began his coaching career with the Patriots in 1988-89. He was the offensive coordinator at Mansfield (Texas) HS in 1991, then joined forces with Mumme at Valdosta State in 1992-93. He returned to the professional ranks with the Arizona Cardinals in 1994 and the Canadian Football League's San Antonio Texans in 1995.

Guy and his wife, Jackie, have five daughters — Colleen (27), Melanie (26), Kerry (24), Savannah Rae (10), and Austin Leigh (8).

DARRELL PATTERSON

Safeties

Darrell Patterson, who has playing and coaching experience in both the collegiate and professional ranks, will coach the safeties for Kentucky.

"Darrell brings a unique blend of coaching and recruiting abilities that we're very thankful to have," Coach Hal Mumme said. "He has a variety of coaching and playing experiences in the NFL, CFL, and colleges. He has recruited in Ohio and the Northeast, where we would like to have ties."

A native of Canonsburg, Pa., Patterson was an all-state linebacker in high school. He was named the 1979 Southwest Conference Newcomer of the Year at Texas Christian University and was an All-SWC linebacker during his career at TCU (1979-82).

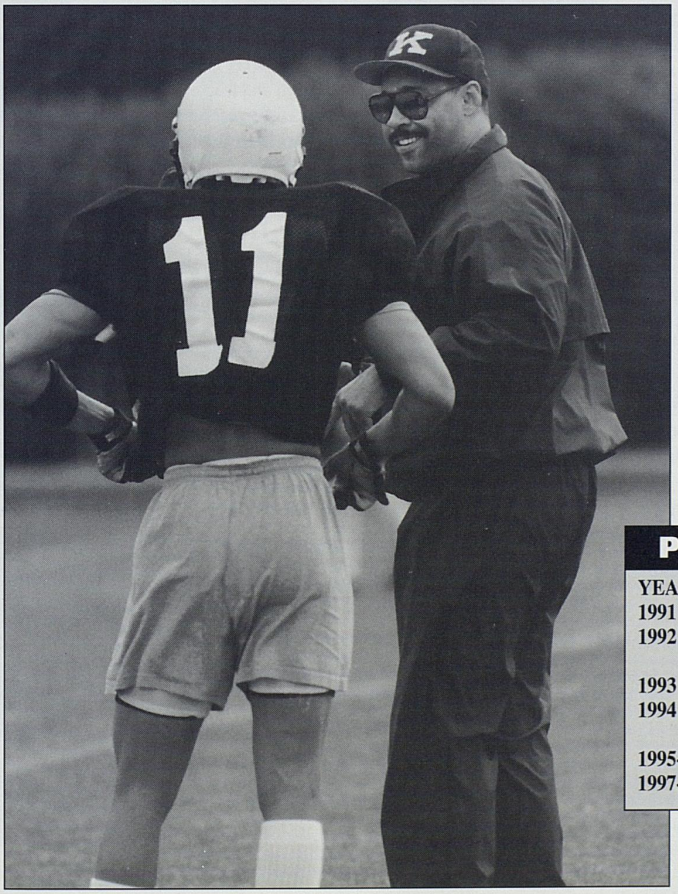

Patterson was a sixth-round pick of the New York Giants in the 1983 NFL draft. He was with the Giants and Buffalo Bills before enjoying a seven-year career in the Canadian Football League. Patterson played for Winnipeg from 1984-87 and helped lead the Blue Bombers to the 1984 Grey Cup championship. He played for Hamilton from 1988-90 and the Tiger-Cats were the Grey Cup runners-up in 1989.

Patterson began his coaching career in 1991 as an assistant coach who helped the British Columbia Lions advance to the playoffs. After a year with the Lions, he entered the collegiate ranks at Akron in 1992-93 as an assistant under Coach Gerry Faust. With the Zips, Patterson coached outside linebackers, nickel backs, and special teams. There, he helped develop New York strong safety Victor Green, who was second in the AFC in tackles in 1996, and linebacker Jason Taylor, who was selected in the third round of this year's NFL draft by the Oakland Raiders.

Patterson returned to the CFL in 1994 as special teams coordinator and defensive line coach for Ottawa. The Rough Riders advanced to the Grey Cup semifinals and two of his players — ends John Cropke and Dave Benefield — were named to the All-CFL team.

For the last two years, Patterson has been at Temple University in Philadelphia, Pa. He coached the defensive line for the Owls.

Darrell and his wife, Julie, have a son, Michael (7), and daughters Monika (3) and Meghan (2).

CLAUDE BASSETT

Recruiting Coordinator

Claude Bassett, a 23-year veteran of collegiate and high school coaching, serves as the recruiting coordinator for Coach Hal Mumme.

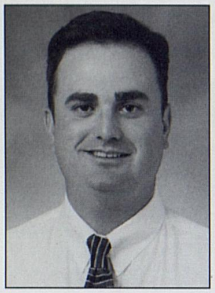

Bassett organizes the recruiting activities for a task he calls "the rebirth of Kentucky football." The efforts of Bassett and the new staff are being recognized already. National recruiting services have commented on the immediate, positive impact made by the Wildcats coaches.

"The growth of Kentucky football will take a tremendous concerted effort from all involved," Bassett said. "There must be a sense of urgency to our thoughts and efforts. We have the best facilities, the best staff, the best conference, and the most special people in the world. We are proud to be at the University of Kentucky and look forward to sharing all of this with the best student-athletes the Commonwealth and the country have to offer."

Bassett spent 11 seasons as an assistant coach at Brigham Young University and also was a successful high school coach in Utah, Arizona, and Texas.

Claude and his wife, Leslie, have four children — Jed (19), Annette (18), Camille (16), and Rebecca (14).

To contact Bassett, call (606) 257-3611. His fax number is (606) 323-3639. His e-mail address is bassett@pop.uky.edu.

SONNY DYKES

Graduate Assistant

Daniel "Sonny" Dykes has joined the Wildcats staff as a graduate assistant coach. His primary responsibilities will be to coach the tight ends, kickers, and punters. In addition, he will help graduate assistant Chris Hatcher coach the junior varsity team.

Dykes comes to Kentucky from Navarro Junior College in Corsicana, Tex., where he was an assistant coach the past two seasons. Last season, he was the quarterbacks and receivers coach and the passing game coordinator. Navarro posted a 7-4 record and reached the Texas junior college championship game. He coached the running backs in 1995 when Navarro posted an 8-2 record.

Dykes also coached running backs on the high school level at Pearce HS in Richardson, Tex., in 1994. He got his start in coaching as a baseball coach at Monahans (Tex.) High School in the spring of 1994.

The Louisville Game

(Attendance: 59,384)

Louisville's defensive corps scored two touchdowns and the Cardinals turned two blocked punts into 10 points to defeat Kentucky, 38-14, before a Commonwealth Stadium record crowd of 59,384.

UK started quickly, using a 62-yard Kio Sanford punt return to set up a six-yard touchdown dash by running back Ray McLaurin to take a 7-0 lead with 9:25 left in the first quarter. Sanford had a record-setting day for Kentucky. The junior set a UK single-game record by averaging 33.3 yards on punt returns (3 for 100 yards).

The Cardinals scored 17 unanswered second-quarter points to take a 17-7 lead at the half. In the second half, Kentucky freshman quarterback Tim Couch made his first appearance, throwing a 20-yard touchdown pass to Isaac Curtis, pulling the Wildcats to 24-14 at the end of the third quarter. In Couch's first collegiate game, the Hyden, Ky. native completed eight of 20 passes for 101 yards.

Louisville took control of the game in the fourth quarter, scoring two touchdowns to make the final score 38-14.

Kentucky was limited to 173 yards by an inspired Cincinnati defense and fell, 24-3, at Cincinnati's Nippert Stadium.

Cincinnati started the scoring with 5:38 left in the first quarter. Daryl Royal caught a 10-yard pass from Chad Plummer, putting the Bearcats up 7-0. Just over a minute later, UC scored again. Anthony Ladd blocked a UK punt and ran five yards for the score.

The Bearcats tacked on another score 40 seconds into the second quarter, when Plummer hit Robert Tate with a 37-yard strike. The Wildcats showed some life, with Brian Johnson kicking a 33-yard field goal as the first half ended.

Cincinnati's defense made the score hold up in the second half. UK running back Ray McLaurin was a bright spot for the Wildcats, gaining 82 yards on 19 carries.

The Indiana Game

(Attendance: 40,500)

In a game dominated by defense, the Kentucky Wildcats maintained control of the Bourbon Barrel by defeating the Indiana Hoosiers 3-0.

Brian Johnson kicked the game-winning 26-yard field goal with 14 seconds remaining in the game, sending the Commonwealth Stadium crowd home happy with Kentucky's first victory of the season.

Kentucky's win included several clutch plays. With 2:08 remaining and Indiana driving, UK's Lamont Smith intercepted Chris Dittoe's pass and returned it 15 yards, giving the Cats an opportunity for the win.

Then, on second-and-nine from IU's 39-yard line, quarterback Tim Couch slid down the line of scrimmage and pitched the ball to wideout Quentin McCord for a reverse that covered 31 yards, putting the Wildcats at the IU eight. After two running plays, Johnson kicked the game-winner.

The Florida Game

(Attendance: 85,422)

After an emotional victory over Indiana, the Wildcats were defeated by the eventual national champion Florida Gators, 65-0, at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium.

UF quarterback Danny Wuerffel, who won the 1996 Heisman Trophy, had a solid day, completing 21-of-31 passes for 279 yards and three touchdowns. Wuerffel's day did not go completely untainted, however. Free safety Kiyo Wilson picked off a Wuerffel pass in the second quarter, breaking his school-record streak of 121 consecutive passes without an interception.

With the Wildcats trailing 41-0 at the half, Jacquez Green closed any thoughts of a comeback, returning two straight UK punts for touchdowns. Both punts came early in the third quarter, with the first covering 66 yards, the second 79 yards.

The Alabama Game

(Attendance: 70,123)

Kentucky, pulling together after a loss at Florida, came to Alabama and went toe-to-toe with the Crimson Tide for the first half. But, turnovers cost UK, as the Tide scored 28 third-quarter points to defeat the Cats, 35-7, at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

In the first half, Kentucky played well, earning a 7-7 draw after 30 minutes. Alabama's Shaun Alexander scored the first touchdown of the game, running 10 yards for the score with 13:51 left in the first quarter.

The Wildcats answered when quarterback Billy Jack Haskins kept the ball on first down and scampered 41 yards for the touchdown. The third quarter proved fatal for Kentucky, however. 'Bama converted two early UK turnovers into touchdowns. Then, the Tide wore Kentucky down with its methodical running offense that burned the clock and didn't allow the Cats to rally. Dennis Riddle scored all four touchdowns in the third quarter, three by rushing and one on a 35-yard pass.

UK registered a season-high five sacks, including two by redshirt freshman Anthony Watson.

(Attendance: 50,500)

UK led the way after three quarters, but could not hold on, however, as South Carolina defeated the Wildcats, 24-14, in Lexington.

The Cats had a solid first half, led by Derick Logan and Craig Yeast. After playing a scoreless first quarter, the Gamecocks scored first. Reed Morton hit on a 42-yard field goal with 13:34 left in the second quarter.

Kentucky's Yeast took the ensuing kickoff 95 yards for a touchdown to make the score 7-3, UK. The kickoff return was the fourth-longest in school history. From there, Logan took over, rushing 16 yards for his first collegiate touchdown just before the end of the half. After the first half, Kentucky had a 14-3 lead.

The Gamecocks played a great second half, holding the Wildcats scoreless while tallying 22 points of their own. Running back Duce Staley scored two touchdowns in the half, en route to 193 yards rushing.

The LSU Game

(Attendance: 79,660)

Kentucky continued to have problems putting two good halves together, as LSU dumped the Wildcats, 41-14, in Baton Rouge. LSU scored the game's first 27 points before the Wildcats came alive in the second half.

The game did include some strong second-half running by Derick Logan (two touchdowns and 95 yards rushing on 32 carries). Quarterback Billy Jack Haskins also had a productive night, completing 13-of-17 passes for 172 yards. Haskins' favorite target was Craig Yeast, who had a career night, catching seven balls for 72 yards.

LSU's solid first half was too much for UK. The Tigers, ranked No. 13 in the nation, had 314 yards of total offense in the half. But Kentucky out-gained LSU in the second half, 204-151.

The Georgia Game

(Attendance: 34,000)

After learning earlier in the week that coach Bill Curry would not return for the 1997 season, Kentucky played with great emotion and defeated Georgia 24-17 on Homecoming.

Kentucky took control of the game in the third quarter after the two teams fought to a 10-10 halftime score. Led by Billy Jack Haskins, UK drove 80 yards on the second half's opening possession. Haskins scored on a six-yard run, giving Kentucky a 17-10 lead.

With just more than five minutes left in the third, Kentucky senior Van Hiles intercepted UGA quarterback Mike Bobo's pass, returning it deep into Bulldog territory. Kentucky tailback Derick Logan scored what proved to be the game-winning touchdown from a yard out, making the score 24-10 Wildcats.

Georgia scored a touchdown in the fourth quarter, but the UK defense stifled the Bulldogs for most of the second half. The Cats held on for the 24-17 win.

UK had many highlights in the win over the Bulldogs: defensive end Chris Ward had a sack for the sixth consecutive game; tailback Derick Logan had a school-record 41 attempts and gained 140 yards; linebacker Mike Schellenberger was named SEC Defensive Player of the Week for his 11-tackle, one-sack, one-interception effort (see next page); punter Jimmy Carter's 68-yard boot was the longest of his career and the eighth-longest in school history; and placekicker Tobin Anderson hit on a 49-yard field goal, the first attempt of his career.

Schellenberger Named SEC Player of the Week

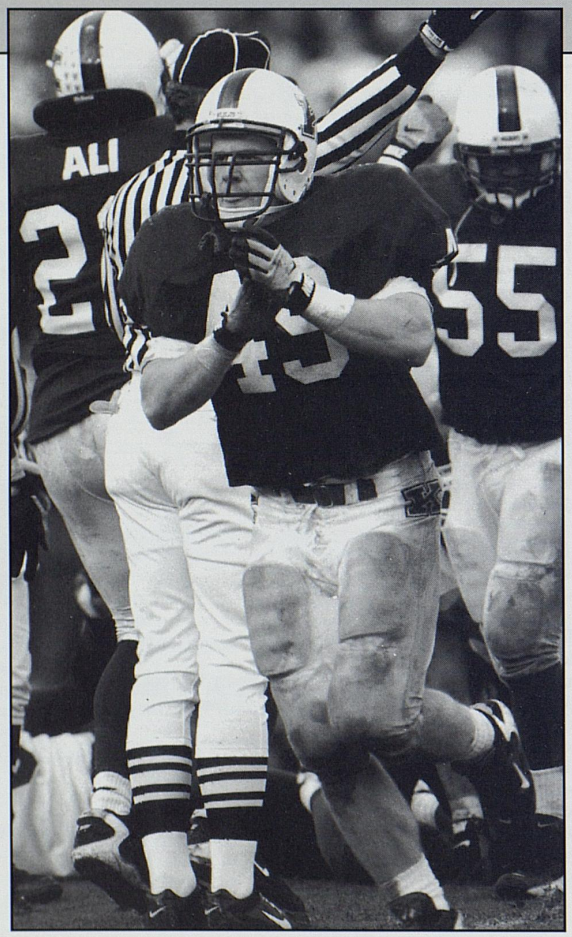

University of Kentucky middle linebacker Mike Schellenberger was named Southeastern Conference Player of the Week following the Wildcats' 24-17 Homecoming win over Georgia. The honor is selected by the SEC Office.

Schellenberger anchored UK's defensive effort with 11 tackles, including one quarterback sack, an interception, and a pass breakup. His interception in the third quarter ended a Georgia drive that had moved into Kentucky territory. His pass breakup came on a third-down play, ending a Bulldog possession.

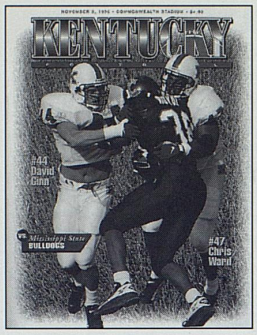

Kentucky limited Georgia to only 16 rushing yards. The longest run by a Georgia back was only eight yards. Schellenberger's interception was one of four turnovers created by the Wildcat defense.

Schellenberger was the eighth UK defensive player to win the player of the week award since it began in 1985. Before Schellenberger, the most recent Wildcat defender chosen was linebacker Marty Moore on Sept. 11, 1993.

Schellenberger finished the season with 77 tackles, one sack, four tackles for loss, four fumble recoveries, and five pass breakups. He was named UK's Most Outstanding Linebacker for the second consecutive season.

The Mississippi State Game

(Attendance: 26,500)

Freshman tailback Derick Logan rushed for 186 yards and passed for a touchdown, helping Kentucky to a 24-21 home victory over Mississippi State.

Logan's 186 yards broke Moe Williams' single-game record for rushing yards by a UK freshman. He also used a halfback option at the end of the first half to perfection, throwing a 55-yard touchdown pass to Craig Yeast in his first passing attempt as a collegiate player.

Another key to UK's win over the Bulldogs was the Wildcats' defense, led by senior defensive end Chris Ward. Ward had three sacks, extending his streak of games with a sack to seven. The Cats held Mississippi State to 119 yards rushing and held the Bulldogs scoreless in the fourth quarter to secure the victory.

The Kentucky offense rolled up 392 yards of total offense, mixing the pass and run, keeping MSU off balance.

The Vanderbilt Game

(Attendance: 33,000)

Playing its best game of the season, Kentucky crushed Vanderbilt 25-0, holding the Commodores to just 91 yards of total offense, including minus-29 yards rushing. It was the Wildcats' third consecutive home victory

The Wildcats dominated from start to finish, led by quarterback Billy Jack Haskins' career-high 217 yards passing and two touchdowns. Tailback Derick Logan had another solid outing, running for 132 yards, including a 70-yard jaunt.

UK started the scoring in the first quarter, when Craig Yeast took a short Haskins pass and turned it into a 57-yard touchdown. Lee Wesley's one-yard run in the second quarter, set up by a successful fake field goal, gave Kentucky a 14-0 lead at the half.

The Wildcats continued their success in the second half. Chris Ward sacked Vanderbilt quarterback Damian Allen in the end zone for a safety, upping UK's lead to 16-0. Ward recorded a quarterback sack for the eighth consecutive game and broke the single-season school record for sacks with 10.5. As a team, the Wildcats had a season-high seven sacks.

Tight end Isaac Curtis III, recipient of the earlier fake field goal pass, caught a three-yard TD and Brian Johnson tacked on a field goal late in the fourth quarter to make the final score 25-0.

The Tennessee Game

(Attendance: 102,534)

The Wildcats ended their season with a 56-10 loss at Tennessee in Bill Curry's last game as UK's head coach.

UK got on the board first when quarterback Billy Jack Haskins led the Cats on a six-play, 52-yard drive to open the game. Kentucky kicker Brian Johnson hit a 23-yard field goal, giving the Cats a 3-0 advantage.

Tennessee responded, scoring the next 14 points. Just before the end of the first quarter, the Wildcats struck again, this time finding paydirt. Haskins connected with Norman Mason on a 24-yard scoring strike with 2:22 left in the first quarter. The two teams ended the first quarter with UT leading 14-10.

From there, Tennessee scored the last 42 points to keep the Beer Barrel in Knoxville. Quarterback Peyton Manning led the way by completing 16 of 23 passes for 317 yards and three touchdowns.

SEC History

The Southeastern Conference was formed on Dec. 8-9, 1932, with 13 schools, including Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Louisiana State, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane, and Vanderbilt.

Frank L. McVey of Kentucky was the first president of the league. The office of commissioner was formed in 1940 in response to the growing amount of detail work involved in administering the league. The first commissioner was former Mississippi governor Martin Conner (1940-48), followed by Bernie Moore (1948-66), A. M. "Tonto" Coleman (1966-72), Dr. Boyd McWhorter (1972-86), Dr. Harvey Schiller (1986-90), and Roy Kramer (1990-present).

The first SEC champions were crowned in 1933 in baseball, basketball, football, and outdoor track. Cross country, golf, swimming, tennis, and indoor track were added later. The SEC began recognizing women's championships during the 1979-80 school year and women's athletics officially came under the auspices of the conference office on Sept. 1, 1984.

The SEC currently regulates nine men's sports and 11 women's sports. The men's sports are baseball, basketball, football, golf, swimming, tennis, and track (indoor, outdoor, and cross country). The women's sports are basketball, golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball swimming, tennis, track (indoor, outdoor, and cross country), and volleyball.

The University of Kentucky

The University of Kentucky was founded in 1865 as a land-grant institution, and the present name dates to 1916.

The campus in Lexington has 673 acres and is located just south of downtown. It consists of a graduate school, the University hospital and 16 colleges. The colleges are: allied health professions, architecture, arts and sciences, agriculture, business and economics, communications and information studies, dentistry, engineering, education, fine arts, human environmental sciences, law, medicine, nursing, pharmacy and social work. The graduate school offers 97 master's degree programs and 59 doctoral programs.

Enrollment on the campus in Lexington is more than 24,000 and includes students from every Kentucky county, every state, and more than 100 foreign countries. Full-time faculty numbers 1,796. Approximately 98 percent of the full-time faculty hold the highest possible degrees in their field. UK's faculty and staff attract more than $120 million in grants, gifts and contracts; and the University has been designated a Research University of the First Class by the Carnegie Foundation — one of just 59 public universities in the country.

The University attracts excellent students. The number of National Merit Scholars entering UK consistently ranks among the top 10 public universities in the country. The average ACT score for first-year students is four points above the national average.

The University of Kentucky Community College System is made up of 14 colleges throughout Kentucky. Enrollment numbers over 40,000. The colleges offer associate degrees in technical subjects, two-year programs toward a bachelor's degree, and a wide variety of continuing education, community service and business liaison programs. UK now educates 39 percent of all students going to private and public colleges in Kentucky.

The number of UK alumni is more than 150,000. Private support from alumni and friends of the University exceeds $30 million annually.

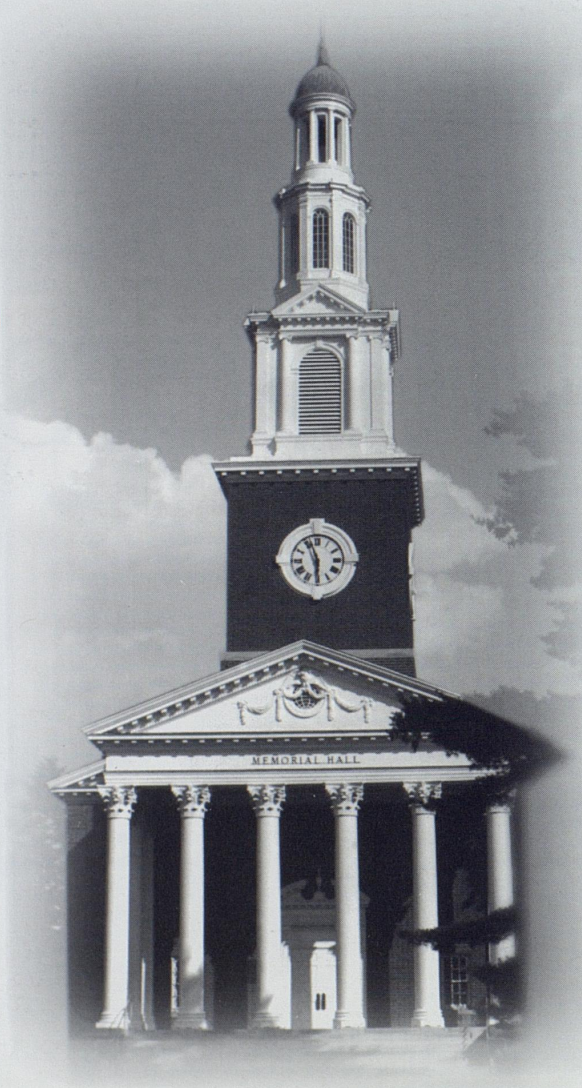

The University of Kentucky Library maintains more than 2.5 million volumes, the 49th largest collection in the country. Work is close to completion on the $58 million William T. Young Library that will serve the entire state thanks to the wonders of computers and technology. The six-floor facility will encompass more than 350,000 square feet and have seating for 4,000 people.

In addition, UK maintains 23 research centers which conduct applied research in areas as diverse as tobacco and health, aging, cancer, toxicology, equine health, mineral production, manufacturing systems, and public policy.

Several excel in the services offered to the public. The Center for Manufacturing Systems has assisted more than 500 small and mid-sized industrial firms in Kentucky. The Gluck Equine Research Center is recognized as one of only two of its kind in the world, offering continuing research into diseases of the horse.

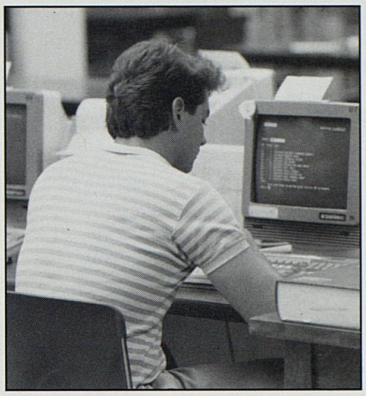

The UK College of Medicine is ranked third in the country in the quality of primary care training. The UK Hospital is ranked among the top 100 U.S. hospitals in the country by HCIA Inc. and Mercer Management Consultants. The UK College of Pharmacy consistently is ranked third in the country by U.S. News and World Report and is one of the few pharmacy schools in the country with the capability of developing a drug "from bench to bedside" due to its drug product evaluation unit.

The University is in the process of developing the Coldstream Research Campus, a 750-acre complex designed to attract high-tech companies desiring ties to the University. Negotiations are under way to execute leases with developers to construct several new commercial facilities on the research campus.

C.M. Newton, UK Director of Athletics

UK Athletics Director C.M. Newton has added another award to a career that glitters with achievement and honor.

In May, 1997, Newton was given the John Bunn Award by the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. The award recognized Newton for his lifetime of contributions to the sport, and is the highest honor given by the Hall of Fame other than induction.

The award capped another year of accomplishment for Newton. Highlights of 1996-97 included the opening of UK's new soccer/softball complex, signing a lucrative all-sports equipment agreement with Nike, and successfully completing the athletic association's year-long NCAA certification process.

Hired on April 1, 1989, Newton had a lengthy, impressive list of credentials and brought a sparkling reputation for integrity at a crucial time in the history of UK athletics.

In accepting the position, Newton outlined his goals by saying, "I have a resolve to try very hard to continue that great tradition, and at the same time, to do it totally within the NCAA and SEC rules and not sacrifice the academic integrity of this University."

Newton's term of service has been marked by athletic and academic achievement, dedication to rules compliance, the addition of three sports, expansion of facilities, and growth in revenues in response to the increasing financial pressures of collegiate athletics.

Newton came to UK after an illustrious basketball coaching career. In his last two seasons (1988 and 1989), he was named SEC Coach of the Year while leading Vanderbilt to a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances. He was also chosen the Kodak NABC District IV Coach of the Year in 1989. Newton was the head basketball coach and associate athletics director at Vanderbilt from 1982-89, compiling a 129-115 record. In 32 years of coaching at Transylvania, Alabama, and Vanderbilt, Newton compiled a 509-375 record. His Alabama teams won three consecutive Southeastern Conference championships.

Just as impressive was Newton's ability to produce winning teams that also possessed exceptional academic credentials. During Newton's tenure at Vanderbilt, 18 Commodores were named to the Academic All-SEC team, over 50 percent more than any other league school. In addition, all 21 of his seniors earned their diplomas.

Newton is highly regarded on the national level. He served 11 years on the board of directors of the National Association of Basketball Coaches. He worked six years on the NCAA Basketball Rules Committee, serving as chair of that elite group for five of those years. He was president of USA Basketball, the nation's governing body for all international basketball, from 1992-96. He is also a member of the prestigious NCAA Division I Basketball Committee and will become chair of that group in 1997-98. He is a member (and former chair) of the NCAA Committee on Basketball Issues.

Newton is prominent in international basketball circles as well. Currently, he represents North America on the 14-member FIBA Central Board. FIBA is the governing body for international basketball. He is a member of the COPABA Executive Board, which oversees international basketball in North, Central, and South America.

Newton also has international coaching accomplishments. He served as team manager, a combination coaching and administrative position, on the 1984 U.S. Olympic team that won the gold medal. Indiana coach Bob Knight, who tabbed Newton for the Olympic staff, called him "the finest gentleman in our business." In 1983 and 1987, Newton took his Vanderbilt squads to the Republic of China (Taiwan) to represent the United States in the R. William Jones Cup International Tournament, winning the gold medal in 1983 and the silver in 1987. He has also conducted coaching clinics in numerous countries.

Newton began his coaching career at Transylvania College (now Transylvania University) in Lexington. Recommended for the job by Coach Rupp, Newton guided Transy to a 169-137 record in his 12 years at the helm despite the handicap of a limited scholarship program.

In 1969, once again with the backing of Rupp, Newton answered a call from Paul "Bear" Bryant to take on the challenge of building the downtrodden Alabama basketball program. During his 12-year tenure, Newton orchestrated a complete turnaround in the Crimson Tide's basketball fortunes, compiling a sparkling 211- 123 record. In addition to the three SEC championships, Newton guided the Tide to two trips to the NCAA Tournament and four berths in the NIT. A satisfied Bryant once remarked "C. M. Newton is a winner, and that's important, but more than anything else, he wins or loses with class, and that's more important."

With few horizons left to conquer at Alabama, Newton resigned at the end of the 1980 season to accept a job as assistant commissioner of the Southeastern Conference. A year later, when Vanderbilt athletics director Roy Kramer was searching for a coach of national stature to head the Commodore basketball program, Newton was the obvious man for the job.

Newton was born Feb. 2, 1930, in Rockwood, Tenn. He grew up in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., where he was eventually named a charter member of that city's Sports Hall of Fame, along with Chris Evert, Julius Boros, and the late Brian Piccolo. After high school, Newton enrolled at UK on a basketball scholarship. He was a letterman on the Wildcats' 1951 national championship team. Also a standout baseball pitcher, Newton hurled in the New York Yankees minor league system before entering college coaching.

Newton and his wife, Evelyn, have three grown children — son Martin, and daughters Deborah and Tracy — and five grandchildren.

LARRY IVY

Senior Associate Director of Athletics

One needs only to look at the 1995 NCAA Convention to understand the high level of respect earned by Larry Ivy, Senior Associate Athletics Director at the University of Kentucky.

At the convention, Ivy was named the 1994 NCAA Business Manager of the Year. The award is the highest and most prestigious honor given by the College Athletic Business Managers of America (CABMA). The recipient of the annual award is selected by a vote of the CABMA membership from nominations submitted by more than 600 NCAA member institutions. The award serves as national recognition for Ivy's astute performance in managing the finances of the University of Kentucky Athletics Association (UKAA).

The talented Ivy, however, does much more in addition to his fiscal duties. As Senior Associate Athletics Director, Ivy serves in the absence of the Athletics Director in the day-to-day operation of the Athletics Association. He has daily responsibilities for the football and men's basketball programs as well as responsibility for operation of the ticket office, accounting, purchasing, data processing, facilities, maintenance, and grounds. In addition to those duties, Ivy is the game management director for all UK home football and basketball games. He has served as tournament manager for eight rounds of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament held in Lexington, including the 1985 Final Four, and for three Southeastern Conference Men's Basketball Tournaments. He currently serves as chair of SEC Men's Basketball Tournament Ticket Committee.

Now in his 21st year with the Athletics Association, Ivy was named Senior Associate Athletics Director in 1993 after being promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Internal Affairs in 1989. He had served as Assistant AD for 13 years after joining the UKAA staff in 1976. Ivy came to the University of Kentucky in 1969 as Director of Student Housing, moving from the University of Alabama.

A native of Huntsville, Ala., Ivy earned his undergraduate degree (1967) and master's in business administration (1968) from the University of Alabama.

He is married to the former Dorene Manchester of Paducah, Ky. They have one daughter, Kim Ivy, and one son, Rob Manchester.

Prior to her promotion, DeBoer was the Assistant Athletics Director for UK's non-revenue sports and the women's volleyball coach. In her nine seasons with the volleyball team, DeBoer led her Wildcats to an impressive 212-96 record, including three Southeastern Conference titles, two SEC Tournament championships, and the 1991 National Invitational Volleyball Tournament championship. DeBoer, the 1987 Tachikara National Coach of the Year, took UK to the Final Eight in 1987 and the NCAA Final 16 in 1988, 1990 and 1992. Several of her assistants moved on to head coaching positions at other Division I schools, including Mary Wise at Florida, Sharon Dingman at Butler, and Nona Richardson at Valparaiso University.

DeBoer spent four seasons as volleyball coach at Ferris State University prior to coming to UK. She led Ferris State to a pair of Great Lakes Conference championships. She was an advisor to the 1996 U.S. Olympics Volleyball Team and chaired the search committee for the 2000 Olympic Games coach.

DeBoer is also active on the UK campus. She has served as department chair for the United Way campaign and is currently a steering committee member of UK's "It's About Staff" comprehensive review of the university's compensation and classification system.

During his tenure as Assistant Athletics Director, Bradley oversaw the opening of the Center for Academic and Tutorial Services (CATS) in 1981, the first academic center for student-athletes in the nation. Under Bradley's direction, many UK student-athletes have been honored for their academic achievements, both on conference and national levels. In 1989, UK won the College Football Association's (CFA) prestigious academic achievement award, given to the University with the highest graduation rate among its football players.

Bradley is a past president of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics (N4A) and currently serves on the executive board of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS), a division of the Center for the Study of Sport in Society. Thanks to a one million dollar donation from the Ohio Casualty Insurance Group, UK will open a new academic center for student-athletes in 1998 and continue the University's national prominence as a university that places the student-athlete at the heart of the program. In addition to being recognized by Ohio Casualty, UK has been selected as a regional site for the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS). Bradley will serve as the Director of the new NCAS Regional Office.

As Associate Athletics Director, Bradley will also supervise the career development program, develop a sports counseling program, implement life skills programs for student-athletes and assist in departmental fundraising activities.

University of Kentucky Outreach Program

STUDENT-ATHLETES AT THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY FOR COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT THROUGH THE COMMUNITY OUTREACH PROGRAM, ALSO KNOWN AS "THE CATS' CAUSE."

Through "The Cats' Cause," community involvement has grown dramatically in recent years. Each athletic team receives questionnaires at the beginning of each semester to determine its players' interests in participating in civic and educational programs.

The Community Outreach Program got its start in 1990 when it was developed and coordinated by UK student-athletes. This project was established when student-athletes adopted the fifth-grade classes at a local inner-city school. The semester-long project matched athletes one-on-one with the school children. With the assistance of a UK athlete, the children were asked to set a goal for themselves. Then each week, the student-athletes met with the children and helped them accomplish their goals. The program was expanded to other Fayette County schools.

The Outreach Program has grown in several directions and student-athletes have participated in the following programs:

AMERICORPS: ATHLETES IN SERVICE TO AMERICA - This program, which began in 1995, addresses the issues of school success and violence prevention in hopes of keeping youth on the right track. It is sponsored by the UK Athletics Association, the Center for the Study of Sport in Society, and AmeriCorps, a national service project designed to help communities meet their education, public safety, human, or environmental needs through service. Ten former UK student-athletes are assigned to two elementary schools, one middle school, and one high school. The corps members work between 30-35 hours each week, serving as mentors, facilitators, and instructors. The corps members also conduct interactive workshops in the areas of media literacy, conflict resolution, cultural diversity, and the prevention of violence against women. The presentations are conducted at local schools, community agencies, and summer youth programs.

BUDDY PROGRAM (College of Education) - Student-athletes serve as role models for elementary students at local schools. Athletes help younger students develop self-esteem through weekly interaction.

CELEBRITY VISITOR TO HOSPITAL - Student-athletes visit patients at local hospitals, including rehabilitation facilities and veterans hospitals.

COMPREHENSIVE CARE - Student-athletes talk to 12-15-year-old emotionally disturbed youths about goal-setting.

COPI-CAT PEN PAL - Student-athletes who are matched with elementary students correspond throughout the academic year. As a pen pal to an elementary student, athletes encourage students to read.

D.A.R.E. GRADUATION SPEAKER - Student-athletes give motivational speeches to youth as part of the Drug Awareness Resistance Education Program.

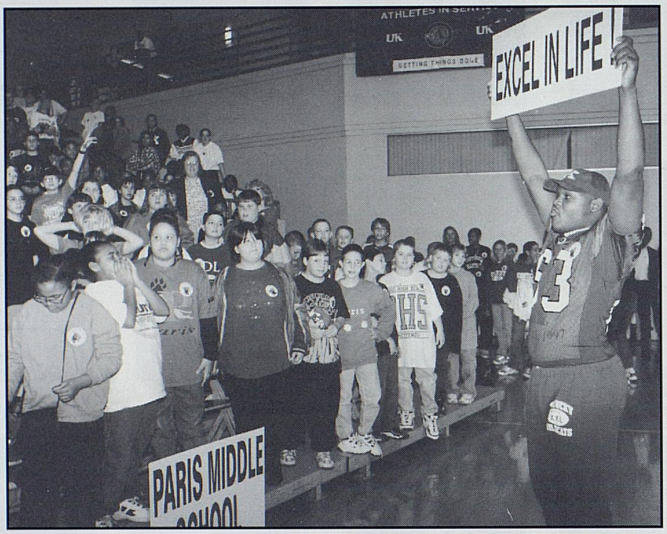

HOSPITAL BREAKFAST WITH SANTA - Each year, UK student-athletes assist the UK Hospital with a special Christmas breakfast for children at the hospital.

KENTUCKY EXCEL MENTOR PROGRAM - UK student-athletes serve as mentors for high school students participating in the Kentucky Excel Program. Kentucky Excel provides college scholarships for students who complete the program.

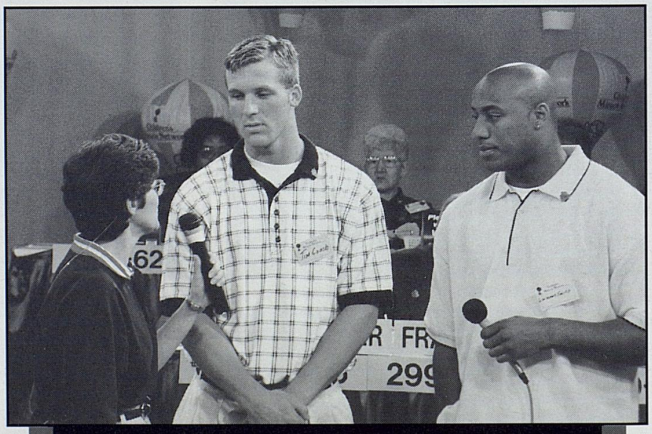

PARTNERS FOR YOUTH - UK student-athletes helped the Partners for Youth organization hold a summer festival for Lexington children.

SCHOOL SPEAKER - Student-athletes visit a number of local schools, speaking to children on a variety of topics, including the importance of an education, staying off drugs and promoting reading.

SCHOOLHOUSE ROCK - An "academic pep rally" in which UK student-athletes encourage youngsters in academic and social skills. More than 2,000 fourth- and fifth-graders, representing approximately 15 schools, came to Memorial Coliseum for the first Schoolhouse Rock in April, 1997.

Michael Benjamin was one of eight Wildcat football players who participated in the "Schoolhouse Rock" academic pep rally. More than 2,000 fourth- and fifth-grade students attended Schoolhouse Rock in UK's Memorial Coliseum in April.

Quarterback Tim Couch and linebacker Lamont Smith were celebrity guests at the 1997 Children's Miracle Network television special. Along with the other volunteers and celebrity guests, Couch and Smith helped raise approximately $600,000 for the UK Children's Hospital. The interviewer is Barbara Bailey of WKYT.

The Cats' Cause ..... and effect:

"The best program we have going at our school."

—School Teacher

"We talk about a lot of things. He (UK student-athlete) helps me to understand why I should get a good education."

—Elementary school student

"I like my buddy a lot. She helps me with my homework."

—Elementary school student

"For me, the most inspiring component of the program occurs during the school day when the Corps members interact as tutors and mentors in the classroom ... The regular, personal, individual or small group interaction pattern they have established in the classroom is providing the safety net that so many children need and which teachers appreciate."

—School administrator

"Please do not ever stop this wonderful program. It is one of the most beneficial that our students have ever experienced."

—School Teacher

"I like her (UK student-athlete) because she will sit down and listen to what I have to say."

—5th-grade student

"The program is so beneficial to our school, community, and most of all to our students who don't have much hope because of the lack of role models."

—School Teacher

"We as teachers often say the same things the college students do, but they listen to them many times when they don't hear us. I look forward to this great program each semester."

—School Teacher

"I like to see young people succeed. It's a high to see kids working together and accomplishing their goals. Participating in the Community Outreach Program allowed me to see kids reach their goals."

—Sterling Ward, former player

"Copi-Cat is a wonderful program. It's the best way to get my children to read books."

—Elementary school parent

"If our students want to do something important in life, they have to study as much as play. UK has one of the highest graduation rates and we emphasize that."

—School Teacher

Kentucky

"If the United States can be called a body... then Kentucky can be called its heart."

Noted Kentucky Author

Though the above words were written by one of Kentucky's favorite sons, any one of the millions of visitors to the Bluegrass State each year might nod in agreement.

Kentucky embodies the very essence of America, from majestic mountains and forests to vast sparkling lakes, from rolling acres of farm and pastureland to the hustle and bustle of metropolitan centers. And around every turn in the road, Kentucky's colorful past, which helped shape our country's character, is preserved and maintained for all to enjoy. The result is a state so diverse in travel and recreational opportunities that one is hard-pressed to name its equal.

If asked to describe Kentucky, one word that quickly comes to mind is horses. The Bluegrass region of Lexington and central Kentucky is internationally recognized as the Horse Capital of the World. Lexington is at the heart of the Bluegrass and it preserves the romantic tradition of the horse farms and is the hub of the multi-billion dollar horse industry.

Kentucky also is a land steeped in the rich history of our nation. Legendary pioneer Daniel Boone laid out Kentucky's second settlement at Fort Boonesborough and nearby, a hundred years later, the Shaker religious sect prospered at picturesque Shaker Village of Pleasant Hill.

Abraham Lincoln was born in Hodgenville (the one-room cabin is part of a National Historic Site). The plantation home that inspired Stephen Foster to write "My Old Kentucky Home" still stands at a state park of the same name. And the region that 200 years ago gave birth to one of Kentucky's most famous exports — bourbon whiskey — is dotted with world-famous distilleries.

"My Old Kentucky Home" in Bardstown is a Kentucky landmark.

KENTUCKY FACTS:

Kentucky is one of only four states in the nation designated as a commonwealth ... The state capital is Frankfort ... Kentucky has 40,395 square miles of land ... Population of the state is 3,713,000, according to the 1990 census ... The three largest cities in the state are Louisville, Lexington, and Owensboro ... The state bird is the cardinal ... The state flower is the goldenrod ... The state tree is the Kentucky Coffee Tree ... The state song is "My Old Kentucky Home" ... Kentucky has more miles of running water than any other state except Alaska ... Kentucky has 44 state parks which annually draw 15.8 million visitors ... Kentucky has the world's longest known cave system — Mammoth Cave — with over 300 miles of mapped passageways.

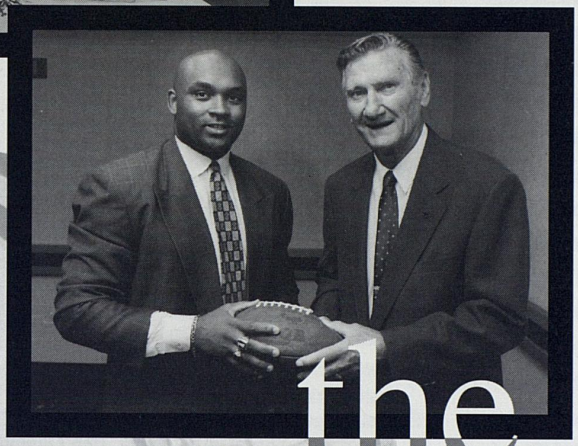

The Kentucky Derby — called "The Most Exciting Two Minutes in Sports" — is run each year at Louisville's Churchill Downs. Louisville is about a one-hour drive from Lexington.

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

From UK's first All-American, Clyde Johnson, to its last, Mike Pfeifer, from Professor A.M. Miller to Hal Mumme, from old Stoll Field to modern Commonwealth Stadium, from the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association to the Southeastern Conference, and with all the ensuing changes, Kentucky football holds a unique and storied tradition that began in 1881.

UK football holds a captivating list of firsts: UK was the first Southeastern Conference team to introduce football, which it did in 1881; UK played in the first and only Great Lakes Bowl in 1947, defeating Villanova, 24-14; Kentucky tackle Bob Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy, making him the first player from the SEC to claim the honor; the Wildcats' Nat Northington was the first black player to sign with a Southeastern Conference institution and the first to play in a league contest vs. Ole Miss in 1967. And in 1989, UK became the first SEC school to win the coveted College Football Association Academic Achievement Award for highest graduation rate.

In 106 seasons, Kentucky has participated in 1014 contests and owns 499 wins, 471 losses and 44 ties. The 499 victories rank 40th among Division 1-A programs in most wins. UK's overall winning percentage is .514.

Kentucky football has won two Southeastern Conference championships and appeared in eight bowls, claiming the CFA Academic Achievement Award on May 8, 1989. The Wildcats owned a graduation rate of 90 percent after 18 of 20 of their 1983 incoming freshman signees left UK with a diploma.

UK football has had 12 National Football League first-round draft choices, one Outland Trophy winner, 18 first-team All-Americans, five Academic All-Americans, 49 first-team All-SEC players and 187 Academic All-SEC selections.

Kentucky football got its start on Nov. 12, 1881. Kentucky, known in those days as A&M College, Kentucky State College and/or State University of Kentucky, defeated Kentucky University by the clumsy score of 7 1/4 to 1. The game of football resembled more of a rugby form and the scoring procedure is still unclear. Though football came to Kentucky in 1881, it quickly vanished after the three-game season. UK finished 1-2 in the inaugural campaign, but the lid was shut on UK football for the next nine seasons.

Football returned to the University of Kentucky in 1891, when UK defeated Georgetown College, 8-2, on April 10, 1891. The sport would not again be interrupted until the 1943 season because of World War II.

The first known head football coach at Kentucky was Professor A.M. Miller, a Princeton graduate. Miller began the 1892 season as head coach and led UK to a 2-2-1 ledger through five games. He was replaced by John A. Thompson at the conclusion of the 1892 campaign.

Some successful years in the early 1900s dot the UK record book. Kentucky finished 7-1 in 1903 under Coach C.A. Wright; 9-1 in 1904 under Coach F.E. Schact; 9-1-1 in 1907 with Coach J. White Guyn, and 9-1 in 1909 under E.R. Sweetland.

The greatest UK team of that era was the 1898 squad, known simply to Kentuckians as "The Immortals." To this day, the Immortals remain the only undefeated, untied, and unscored upon team in UK football history. The Immortals were coached by W.R. Bass and ended the year a perfect 7-0-0, despite an average weight of 147 pounds per player. Victories came easy for this squad, as the Immortals raced by Kentucky University (18-0), Georgetown (28-0), Company H of the 8th Massachusetts (59-0), Louisville Athletic Club (16-0), Centre (6-0), 160th Indiana (17-0) and Newcastle Athletic Club (36-0).

Besides Bass, two of the most successful coaches in the early stages of UK football were E.R. Sweetland and Harry Gamage. Sweetland compiled a 23-5 mark in three seasons (1909-10, 12). His best year was 9-1 in '09. Gamage, on the other hand, had the longest tenure of any head coach during the first 43 years of Kentucky football. Gamage took the reigns of the UK program in 1927 and remained until following the 1933 campaign. In between, Gamage led the Wildcats to a combined 32-25-5 record. His best season was 6-1-1 in '29.

One of Gamage's brightest moments came during the 1930 season. During the 57-0 blanking of Maryville, UK running back Shipwreck Kelly rushed for a school-record 280 yards in leading the Cats.

More than a decade after Gamage had left UK, a young man by the name of Paul "Bear" Bryant arrived on the scene at Lexington in 1946. Bryant quickly grabbed the UK program by the collar and turned the Cats into a national power.

Bryant took UK to eight consecutive winning seasons (1946-53) and helped the Wildcats claim their first Southeastern Conference championship in 1950. He also sent UK squads to four bowl games which included the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl, 1950 Orange Bowl, 1951 Sugar Bowl, and the 1952 Cotton Bowl.

The biggest win in UK football history came under Bryant. After leading Kentucky to its first SEC title and a 10-1 regular-season record, UK found itself matched with national champion Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl. The Wildcats scored early and held off the Sooners, 13-7, breaking Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak which is currently the seventh-longest in NCAA history.

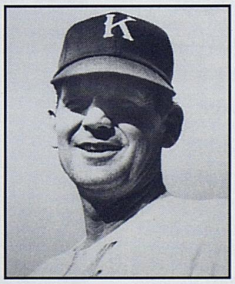

Also under Bryant, tackle Bob Gain became the first UK and SEC player to win the Outland Trophy in 1950. Other standouts in the Bryant era included George Blanda, All-American Babe Parilli, and eventual UK coach Jerry Claiborne.

Bryant left Kentucky following the 1953 season. He compiled an impressive 60-23-5 record in eight years. Bryant's 60 victories are still a UK football record for head coaches.

Blanton Collier had the uneasy task of following in Bryant's footsteps. Collier took over the Kentucky football program in 1954 and promptly led the Wildcats to a 7-3 record during his initial campaign.

Collier stayed eight years at UK as well, etching a 41-36-3 record from 1954 to 1961. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his 5-2-1 record against arch-rival Tennessee. He coached All-Americans Lou Michaels (1957-58) and Howard Schnellenberger (1955) at UK.

Charlie Bradshaw became the head mentor at UK in time for the 1962 season. Bradshaw, a UK graduate who lettered four years (1946-49), managed only a 25-41-4 record in seven seasons. One highlight of his coaching career featured an upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss early in the 1964 season. Bradshaw's Cats held off the Rebels, 27-21, in Memorial Stadium at Jackson, Miss., and ranks as one of UK's all-time biggest victories.

Coach Bryant led UK to eight consecutive winning seasons and four bowl games.

John Ray entered the scene in 1969 as head coach. In four years, Ray was 10-33. His biggest win came during his first year as Kentucky again victimized Ole Miss and Archie Manning. The Cats upset the Rebels, 10-9, at Lexington.

The Fran Curci era began in 1973, the same year Kentucky moved from ancient Stoll Field/McLean Stadium to spacious Commonwealth Stadium. Though Curci had only one winning campaign during his first three years, things got interesting beginning with the 1976 season. UK ended the '76 year with an 8-3 record and its second SEC championship.

Kentucky helped secure its second league title on the strength of a 62-yard touchdown pass from Derrick Ramsey to Greg Woods to beat Tennessee, 7-0, at Knoxville, Tenn. The victory clinched a berth in the Peach Bowl against North Carolina, UK's first postseason appearance in 25 years. Before a UK contingent estimated at 25,000, the Cats blanked the Tar Heels, 21-0.

The following year, Kentucky went on NCAA probation. Despite an early season loss at Baylor, the Wildcats rolled to an impressive 10-1 record doing it the hard way. Kentucky defeated Penn State (24-20) at University Park, Pa., defeated LSU (33-13) at Baton Rouge, La., blanked Georgia (33-0) at Athens, Ga., beat Florida (14-7) at Gainesville, Fla., and defeated Tennessee (21-17) at Lexington.

In the Curci era, players like Sonny Collins (UK career leader with 3,835 yards rushing), All-Americans Warren Bryant and Art Still and multi-talented Derrick Ramsey, wore the blue and white.

Curci stepped down following the 1981 season. In all, Curci worked nine years as UK head coach (longest of any UK football coach) and was 47-51-2 overall.

Jerry Claiborne answered the call of his alma mater in December of 1981 and was named the school's 31st head football coach. Claiborne had played at UK from 1946-49 and was an assistant coach under Bryant at UK in 1952-53.

His first campaign, 1982, was murderous from a schedule standpoint. The '82 UK schedule was rated as the nation's second-toughest and featured the likes of Oklahoma, Clemson, Auburn, LSU, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Kansas and Kansas State. The Cats were caught in the process of rebuilding and stumbled to an 0-10-1 record.

The winless mark would not deter Claiborne, however. In fact, his 1983 squad tied for the nation's most improved program with a regular-season record of 6-4-1. As a reward, the Hall of Fame Bowl offered an invitation and UK accepted to give the Cats their sixth bowl appearance.

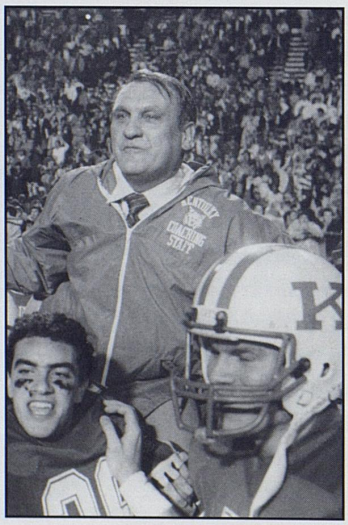

Kentucky improved in 1984, finishing with a 9-3 record which included a thrilling 20-19 victory over Wisconsin in the '84 Hall of Fame Bowl. The nine victories were the most by a UK squad since the 1977 season.

After the '84 campaign, Kentucky strung together 5-6, 5-5-1, 5-6, 5-6, and 6-5 records to close out Claiborne's career. He stepped down with a 41-46-3 record in eight seasons at UK. Claiborne and Bryant, to this date, ended their careers as the only two coaches to win at least five games in seven consecutive seasons.

During Claiborne's tenure, Kentucky captured its first national title by winning the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. UK led the SEC in Academic All-SEC Honor Roll selections (68) during the Claiborne era, including a league record of 17 players named to the 1989 Academic All-SEC Honor Roll.

Individually, quarterback Bill Ransdell played under Claiborne and left as UK's all-time leader in passing and total offense. Mark Higgs departed as the school's second-leading rusher and tackle Oliver Barnett set a UK record with 26 quarterback sacks.

On Jan. 8, 1990, Kentucky began a new era by hiring its 32nd head football coach in Bill Curry. The hiring came only a week after Curry guided his Alabama squad in the 1990 USF&G Sugar Bowl. Curry had led the Crimson Tide to a share of the SEC title and a 10-1 regular-season mark in 1989.

UK Coach Jerry Claiborne gets a free ride after the Cats' victory in the 1984 Hall of Fame Bowl.

Curry led Kentucky back to post-season play for the first time in nine years as the 1993 Wildcats finished third in the SEC Eastern Division (fourth overall) and qualified for the Peach Bowl in Atlanta, Ga., when the Wildcats lost to Clemson, 14-13, to finish 6-6 on the season.

Under Curry in 1993, UK recorded its first win over a ranked opponent since 1988, its first two-game SEC road winning streak since 1984, its first three-game SEC win streak and the most SEC wins since 1977. UK also recorded its first regular-season winning record since 1989.

In 1994, the Wildcats faced intrastate rival Louisville for the first time in 70 years and defeated the Cardinals 20-14 in front of a record 59,162 fans in Commonwealth Stadium.

The 1995 season was highlighted by tailback Moe Williams, who rushed for 1,600 yards, broke three SEC records, and broke or tied 15 school records. Williams had 429 all-purpose yards in a win at South Carolina, the second-highest single-game total in NCAA history.

Kentucky has maintained the high level of achievement in the classroom which was started by Jerry Claiborne. In 1996, UK led the league with 20 players on the SEC Academic Honor Roll, the 10th time in the past 13 years that UK led or tied for the league lead in most players honored.

Kentucky football enters a new era in 1997 as Hal Mumme takes control as head coach of the Wildcats.

CHRONOLOGY • 1880-1996

Below is a closer look at some of the traditions and history which has molded the past 104 seasons of Kentucky football. Some of the anecdotes were derived from the book, "The Wildcats," which was written by former UK Sports Information Director Russell Rice.

1A AND 1B

During the course of his legendary career, Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant was known as an innovator of introducing changes in the game of football. One change Bryant introduced during his tenure at Kentucky was the use of a unique number system to identify twins Harry and Larry Jones, who both lettered three years (1950-52) with the Wildcats. Harry wore 1A and Larry wore 1B. Harry led the Wildcats in all-purpose yardage in 1951 with 964 while Larry led UK in kickoff returns (21.1 avg) in 1952.

ALUMNI GAME

Wildcats Coach Hal Mumme started a new tradition by instituting an alumni game as part of the Blue-White Spring Football Game festivities. The alumni opened the 1997 spring game by playing one quarter of touch football. The White team won the quarter, 7-3, thanks to an eight-yard touchdown pass from Antonio O'Ferral to Jim Campbell. The Blue score came on a 20-yard field goal by Tommy Griggs. A unique twist is that the score counted as part of the varsity game, therefore the White team held a 7-3 lead when the varsity began play in the second quarter.

BEER BARREL

The traditional Battle for the Beer Barrel is the annual football game between Kentucky and Tennessee. Currently, the series is the third-longest of SEC teams vs. SEC teams (92 games) and trails only the Auburn-Georgia (100) and Ole Miss-Mississippi State (93) rivalries. The Beer Barrel Trophy is actually an old beer barrel painted blue, orange and white and is presented to the winner of the annual contest. Every score, since the origination of the trophy in 1925, is printed on the barrel. Two Wildcat followers, Guy Hugelet and Rollie Guthrie, wanted to come up with something symbolic to represent the great rivalry. Originally, they decided to use an old whiskey barrel as the trophy but the Women's Temperance Union made a stand against it since it was during the time of Prohibition. The duo went to another distributor, John Galvin, and settled on a beer barrel. Then as the Anti-Saloon League stepped in, Hugelet and Guthrie compromised by painting the words "ice water" on the barrel. The first time the trophy was awarded was in 1925 as UK defeated the Vols, 23-20. In 92 meetings overall, Tennessee leads the series 60-23-9.

BLUE AND WHITE

The University of Kentucky adopted blue and white as its official colors in 1892. Originally, UK students had decided on blue and yellow prior to the Kentucky-Centre football game on Dec. 19, 1891. The shade of blue came about when a student asked the question, "What color blue?" Richard C. Stoll, who lettered on the 1893-94 football teams, pulled off his necktie and held it up. The students adopted that particular shade of blue in Stoll's necktie. A year later, UK students dropped yellow for white.

BOURBON BARREL

The famed Bourbon Barrel is the trophy presented to the winner of the Kentucky-Indiana football game. This series, though beginning in 1893, is only 27 games old but has quickly become one of the fiercest, most competitive contests in the region. As far as the origination of the Bourbon Barrel is concerned, no one is certain where the idea started. A possible answer stems from the great distillery industry located in Kentucky and southern Indiana. The Bourbon Barrel is mounted on a board for traveling purposes. The trophy is actually a half-barrel and lists all scores of the 27-game series. A blue stripe is painted in the background for a Kentucky win and a red stripe for an Indiana victory. Indiana leads the series, 16-10-1. Several years ago, both schools agreed contractually to extend the series annually through the year 2000.

PAUL "BEAR" BRYANT

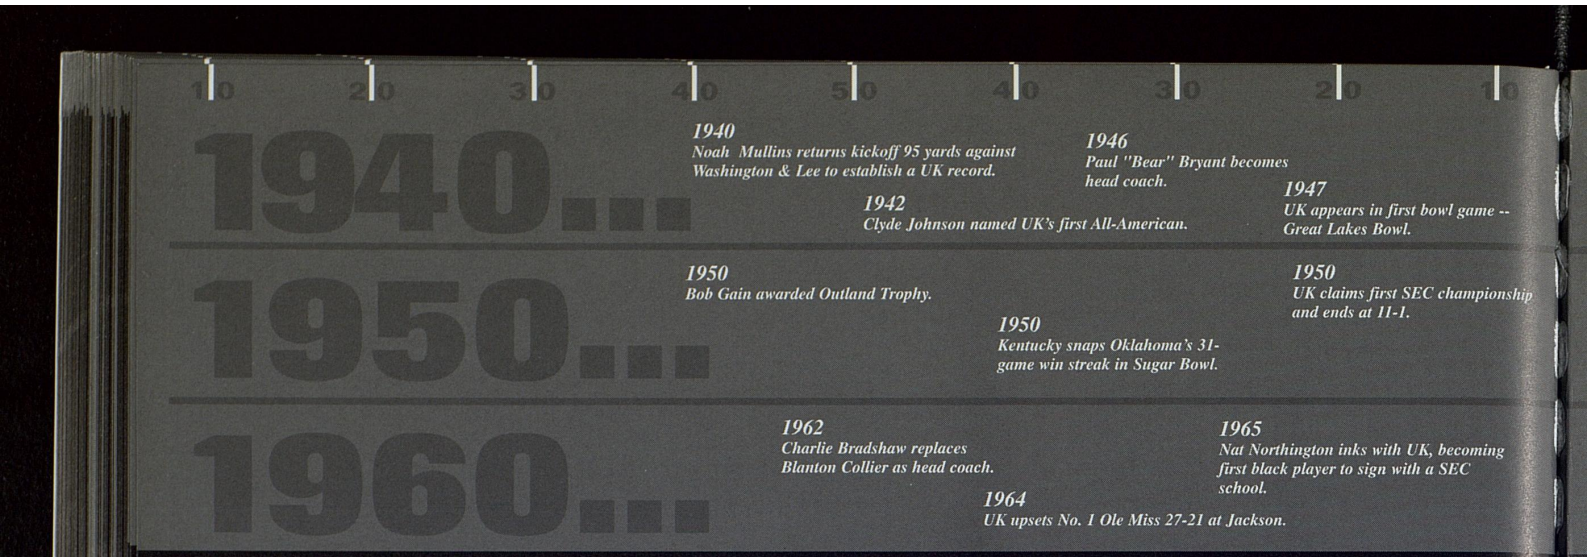

Paul Bryant is still the most successful coach in UK football history. Bryant spent eight years at UK (1946-53) and produced a 60-23-5 (.710 pct.) record. The 60 victories are the most by any UK football coach. He led the Wildcats to four bowl games and their first South- eastern Conference title in 1950. He coached such UK stars as George Blanda, Jerry Claiborne, Bob Gain, Babe Parilli, Doug Moseley, Wilbur Jamerson, and Steve Meilinger.

CHEERLEADERS

The Kentucky cheerleading squad won an unprecedented seventh national cheerleading championship in January at the competition sponsored by the Universal Cheerleaders Association. The cheerleaders have won the UCA national title in 1985, 1987, 1988, 1992, 1995, 1996 and 1997, and have been the runners-up on four occasions. Saleem Habash is coach of the cheerleaders and T. Lynn Williamson is the cheerleader advisor. A total of 36 students comprise the squad, 14 of whom represent the school at the championship. In addition, the Wildcat mascot, portrayed by Gavin Duerson, finished second nationally in the mascot division of the competition.

JERRY CLAIBORNE

After lettering three years (1946-49) as a player and serving two seasons (1952-53) as an assistant coach at Kentucky, Jerry Claiborne returned to his alma mater in 1982 as UK's 31st head football coach. Claiborne stepped down after 28 years as a collegiate head coach in 1989. He led the Wildcats to two bowls and four non-losing seasons. During his era, Kentucky placed more players (68) on the Academic All-SEC Honor Roll than any league school, including a record 17 in 1989. Claiborne also led UK to a national academic title by capturing the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. His eight-year UK record was 41-46-3. Overall, Claiborne finished 21st among Division I coaches with 179 career victories and 179-122-8 in all games.

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

CFA ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

The University of Kentucky became the first Southeast-ern Conference institution to win the College Football Association Academic Achievement Award after claiming the prestigious honor in 1989. The Academic Achievement Award is given to the CFA institution with the highest graduation rate of its football program based on a five-year period. UK had graduated 90 percent (18 of 20) of its incoming freshman signee class of 1983, thus earning the honor in May, 1989. A year earlier (1988), UK finished second with a graduation rate of 90.5 percent. Kentucky has earned honorable mention honors in 1988, '91, '93 and '94, for having graduated better than 70 percent of its players.

BLANTON COLLIER AND THE STAFF

Blanton Collier had the challenge of following Paul Bryant as head football coach at the University of Kentucky. But, Collier posted a fine 41-36-3 record in eight seasons at UK. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his record against arch-rival Tennessee which stood at 5 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie. Standouts such as Howard Schnellenberger, Lou Michaels, Tom Hutchinson, Bobby Cravens, Calvin Bird and Irv Goode played under Collier. One fascinating item in Collier's tenure was the football coaching staff he assembled in 1959. The 1959 UK coaching staff included Collier, Ed Rutledge, Howard Schnellenberger, Ermal Allen, Don Shula, John North, Bob Cummings, and Bill Arnsparger.

FRAN CURCI

The Fran Curci era (1973-81) was one of ups and down at the University of Kentucky. Curci remained at UK for nine seasons, the longest tenure of any UK football coach, and posted a 47-51-2 record. The ups consisted of sharing the 1976 Southeastern Conference title with Georgia, a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina in the '76 Peach Bowl, and a 1977 squad which boasted a 10-1 record and No. 5 national ranking. The down was probation which forced the '77 squad to miss a certain bowl invitation.

DiGIURO SCHOLARSHIP

The Trent DiGiuro Memorial Scholarship was established in the autumn of 1994 in honor of the Wildcat offensive guard who died in July of that year. The scholarship is awarded each year to a walk-on football player who has completed his eligibility, maintained a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.5, and has exemplified the dedication, determination, hard work, and leadership typified by Trent DiGiuro. If there is no suitable walk-on candidate that year, the scholarship will go to a team manager or trainer who meets the above criteria. The scholarship was established by DiGiuro's family and friends. The 1997 winner of the scholarship was Wildcats trainer Patrick Sininger.

FORWARD PASS

The first forward pass attempted by a University of Kentucky football player was thrown on Oct. 13, 1906, by quarterback Earl Stone as the Wildcats faced Eminence Athletic Club. This was the first year the forward pass was legalized by national rules. Accounts from this early contest do not indicate if the first forward UK pass was completed.

GOVERNOR'S CUP

The Governor's Cup was created in 1994 as the trophy for the winner of the Kentucky-Louisville game. Donated by Kroger at a cost of $23,000, the Governor's Cup stands 33 inches tall and weighs 110 pounds. The trophy's base and upright columns are hand-milled black marble. The glass components are comprised of Optic grade crystal. All metal parts are 23-karat, gold-plated brass. The cup itself is solid pewter with a 23-karat gold-plated finish. The Governor's Cup was designed by Kendall Costner and sculpted by James Corcoran of Bruce Fox, Inc. The UK-U of L series was renewed in 1994 with the Wildcats winning the game, 20-14.

HOMECOMING GAMES

As in the case of most institutions, Homecoming football games are special. Kentucky is no exception. Alumni and old friends converge on the UK campus each fall for Homecoming Day, highlighted by a Kentucky football game. The Homecoming Queen and her court are presented in horse-drawn carriages which gives the event a distinct, Kentucky flavor. The first Homecoming Day occurred on Nov. 25, 1915, as Kentucky defeated Tennessee, 6-0. Though records are sketchy, Kentucky has hosted a Homecoming game every year since 1946 and owns a 39-12-0 record in those 51 contests.

THE IMMORTALS

Simply known as "The Immortals," the 1898 University of Kentucky football squad still remains as the only undefeated, untied, and unscored on Wildcats club in school history. The Immortals outscored opponents 180-0 while posting a perfect 7-0-0 record. Roscoe Severs served as team captain under coach W.R. Bass. The closest of all seven games was a 6-0 victory over Centre College.

CAWOOD LEDFORD

The legendary "Voice of the Wildcats" was none other than Cawood Ledford. For 39 years, Cawood called Wildcats football and basketball. His voice alone symbolized UK Athletics. Cawood called his last UK football game vs. Tennessee on Nov. 23, 1991, and retired from the microphone following the 1991-92 basketball season.

MINUS NINETY-THREE

The University of Kentucky holds the Southeastern Conference record for fewest yards allowed rushing in a single game. Kentucky limited Kansas State to a minus-93 yards on the ground as UK defeated Kansas State, 16-3, on Sept. 19, 1970, at Lexington. Kentucky defenders sacked KSU quarterbacks Lynn Dickey (2) and Max Arreguin (5) a total of seven times while intercepting three of their passes. Ironically, KSU outgained UK in total offense 214-107 as Dickey and Arreguin combined for 307 yards in the air.

THE FIRST NIGHT GAME

The University of Kentucky was one of the first institutions to play intercollegiate football at night. The first UK home night game was played on Oct. 5, 1929, at Stoll Field as Kentucky defeated Maryville, 40-0. Kentucky did not play more than one home night game per season until 1946.

CHRONOLOGY • 1880-1996

NIGHT GAMES

The University of Kentucky began holding its October home football games during the evening hours in 1949. UK and Keeneland Race Course, located in Lexington, have enjoyed a close relationship through the years and assist in giving UK faithful an opportunity to enjoy two of the Commonwealth's best-loved events in October — football and horse racing. With the traditional post time at Keeneland for the thoroughbred races at 1 p.m., UK began moving its October home games to night during the 1949 season. The only occasion UK has not conducted its October home games in the evening is to accommodate television. Kentucky's all-time record in night games is 92-93-4.

NAT NORTHINGTON

Nat Northington of Louisville became the first black player to sign with the University of Kentucky and a Southeastern Conference institution. Northington signed a national letter-of-intent with UK in December of 1965. He later became the first African-American football player to play in an SEC vs. SEC game, appearing in the UK-Ole Miss game at Lexington on Sept. 30, 1967.

OUTLAND TROPHY

Two-time All-American Bob Gain is the only player in University of Kentucky football history to be awarded the Outland Trophy, signifying the best interior lineman in collegiate football. Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy after helping lead UK to its first Southeastern Conference title and a 10-1 regular-season record. Besides being the first UK player to claim the award, Gain was also the first SEC player to be given the award.

PRINCE CHARLES OF WALES

The Kentucky Wildcats gave Prince Charles of Wales his first taste of American football on Oct. 22, 1977. That's right, Prince Charles' first football game was the UK-Georgia matchup at Athens. Prince Charles was introduced to UK Coach Fran Curci and All-American Art Still at halftime. After looking at the 6-6 Still, Charles said, "You're a tall one aren't you?" Still and Co. blanked the Bulldogs on this day, 33-0, on their way to a 10-1 record.

RED DOC, BLACK DOC

A pair of cousins named William Rodes played football for the University of Kentucky during the early 1900s. To distinguish one from the other, one was nicknamed "Red Doc" and the other "Black Doc." William "Red Doc" Rodes lettered three years (1909, 11-12) as a 140-pound halfback and defensive end. William "Black Doc" Rodes lettered two years (1915-16) as quarterback. Black Doc was considered by many to be one of the best open-field runners in that era. He also placekicked and personally delivered UK's 6-0 victory over Tennessee in 1915 with field goals of 45 and 43 yards.

RUSSELL RICE

Longtime UK sports information director Russell Rice is the walking, talking historian when its comes to Wildcats Football. Rice retired from the UK Athletics Department in 1989 after serving 18 years as sports information director. He came to UK in 1967 as assistant SID under Ken Kuhn, then was named sports information director in 1969. Rice authored the book, "The Wildcats, Kentucky Football," which details Kentucky football and its history. At his retirement party, Rice was given a lifetime "Press Pass" to the Common-wealth Stadium press box.

STOLL FIELD/McLEAN STADIUM

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was the first home for Kentucky football. The stadium was located adjacent to Memorial Coliseum and served as UK's football home since 1916. The University Board of Trustees voted to name the playing field "Stoll Field" and the actual grandstand structures as "McLean Stadium," thus the often confusing double names. Stoll Field was named in honor of the late Judge Richard C. Stoll, a prominent alumnus, trustee and benefactor of UK. Stoll Field was dedicated on Oct. 14, 1916. McLean Stadium was dedicated on Nov. 1, 1924, in memory of Price Innes McLean, a regular center on the 1923 UK squad who died as a result of injuries sustained in the Kentucky-Cincinnati game on Nov. 6, 1923. The final seating capacity of Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was 37,000 during its last year of use, 1972.

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was home to Kentucky football for 56 years (1916-1972). The seating capacity was 37,000 when the Wildcats played their final game inside the stadium in 1972, defeating Vanderbilt 14-13 on November 11.

UK CHRONOLOGY • 1880-1996

THE THIN THIRTY

When Blanton Collier stepped down as head football coach at Kentucky following the 1961 season, UK promptly named former Wildcats player Charlie Bradshaw as its 28th coach. Bradshaw inherited a squad of 88 players left from Collier's 5-5-0 team in '61. Bradshaw promised his new UK squad hard work and talked of training to an absolute peak of condition. His conditioning tactics took their toll as more than 50 players left the squad, leaving 30 to open the season against Florida State and prompting the name "Thin Thirty." The Thin Thirty finished 3-5-2 on the season with victories over Detroit (27-8), Vanderbilt (7-0) and arch-rival Tennessee (12-10). The ties were against Florida State (0-0) and Georgia (7-7).

TURNAROUNDS

One of the biggest turnarounds in collegiate football happened at the University of Kentucky during the 1982 and 1983 seasons. Jerry Claiborne had replaced Fran Curci as head coach prior to the '82 campaign. Claiborne inherited a program in shambles and faced the nation's second-toughest schedule which featured Oklahoma, Clemson, Auburn, LSU, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Kansas and Kansas State. Not surprisingly, Kentucky finished 0-10-1 in 1982 with only a 13-13 tie with Kansas keeping the Wildcats from an 0-11 slate. However, Claiborne turned the heat up in 1983 and went to work. UK reeled off consecutive wins against Central Michigan (31-14), Kansas State (31-12), Indiana (24-13), and Tulane (26-14) to start the season. The Cats also defeated LSU (21-13) and Vanderbilt (17-8) to finish the campaign with a 6-4-1 record. The turnaround, which tied Memphis State for the biggest turnaround in 1983, earned Kentucky a berth in the 1983 Hall of Fame Bowl.

VICTORY KICKS

The University of Kentucky defeated the Louisville YMCA, 12-6, in 1900. What is so unique about this contest is Kentucky did not run a single offensive play. Instead, Kentucky punted on first down each time it had the football and eventually scored on a pair of fumbles by the Louisville YMCA club which had occurred in their own endzone.

WILDCATS NICKNAME

The nickname "Wildcats" became synonymous with UK shortly after a 6-2 football victory at Illinois on Oct. 9, 1909. Commandant Carbusier, then head of the military department, told a group of students in a chapel service following the game that the Kentucky football team had "fought like wildcats." The nickname grew in popularity and was adopted by the university.

WINNING STREAK

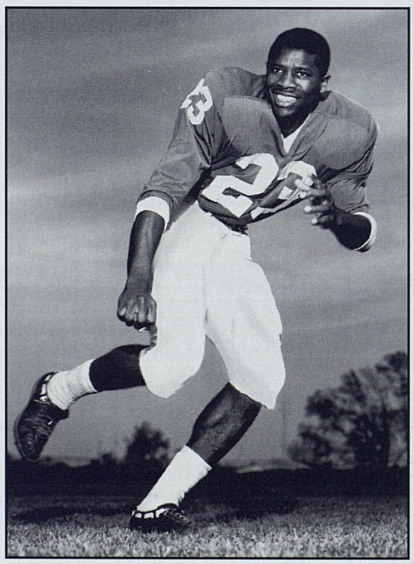

For the most part, the most famous winning streak in Kentucky football history is the one the Wildcats ended. The stage was set as UK faced Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl. Kentucky was coming off its first Southeastern Conference title and brought in a 10-1 record. Oklahoma entered as national champions and riding a 31-game winning streak. A pair of Wilbur Jamerson scores - a 22-yard pass from Babe Parilli and a one-yard run - was all UK needed in picking up a 13-7 upset of the Sooners and thus ending the 31-game streak. Today, the 31-game winning streak by Oklahoma ranks as the seventh-longest in NCAA history.

THE YEAR (1977-78)

Perhaps the most successful year in UK Athletics occurred during the 1977-78 academic year at the University of Kentucky. The 1977 Wildcats football squad, under Fran Curci, raced to a 10-1 record and ended the year ranked No. 5 by The Sporting News. Highlights were victories over North Carolina (10-7), West Virginia (28-13), Penn State (24-20), LSU (33-13), Georgia (33-0), Florida (14-7) and Tennessee (21-17). On the basketball side, UK wrapped up its fifth NCAA title by defeating Duke, 94-88, at St. Louis. The UK basketballers ended the campaign with a 30-2 record under Joe B. Hall.

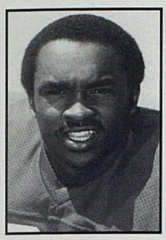

THE YEAR (1950-51)

An argument to the most successful year in UK Athletics is the 1950-51 academic year. UK football, under Paul Bryant, ended the 1950 regular season with a 10-1 record and ranked No. 7 nationally by both A.P. and U.P.I. The Wildcats then proceeded to snap national champion Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak with a 13-7 victory in the Sugar Bowl. On the basketball front, Adolph Rupp gave UK its third national title by defeating Kansas State, 68-58, at Minneapolis, Minn. The Wildcats ended the year 32-2. Current UK Athletics Director C.M. Newton was a letterman on that squad.

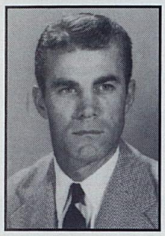

Nat Northington was the first African-American football player to sign with a Southeastern Conference school and in 1967 was the first to play in an SEC vs. SEC game.

GREAT LAKES BOWL

Kentucky 24, Villanova 14

1947 The Kentucky Wildcats made their first appearance on the bowl scene in the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl and came away with a 24-14 victory over Villanova before a crowd of 14,908 at Cleveland Municipal Stadium.

Kentucky, in its second year under head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, finished at 8-3 on the season with the victory.

Quarterback-placekicker George Blanda gave Kentucky an early 3-0 lead in the first quarter. Blanda connected on a 27-yard field goal to put the Cats up and it remained that way until halftime.

In the third quarter, UK's Jim Howe scampered 29 yards for a score. Blanda added the PAT and Kentucky led 10-0 after three periods.

Bill Boller scored both Kentucky touchdowns in the fourth period, romping 15 yards on a handoff from Blanda and racing 49 yards to paydirt with an interception. Blanda added both PATs to round out the Kentucky scoring.

Villanova also added a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns, but it was not enough as Kentucky captured its first bowl victory in school history.

ORANGE BOWL

Santa Clara 21, Kentucky 13

1950 Kentucky committed three turnovers and let a seven-point halftime lead slip away in dropping its first major bowl game, 21-13, to Santa Clara in the 1950 Orange Bowl before a crowd of 64,816.

The Wildcats, 9-3, scored their first touchdown early in the second quarter as a result of a Santa Clara turnover. UK's John Netoskie recovered at fumble at the Wildcat 49 to set up Kentucky's first score. The Wildcats drove 51 yards in 14 plays as Wilbur Jamerson hammered over from two yards. Bobby Brooks added the PAT to make it 7-0.

Kentucky wasted a golden scoring opportunity late in the second quarter when Babe Parilli found Bill Leskovar for a 45-yard completion to the SC 3 with time running out. Leskovar and runningmate Don Phelps each were stopped short on their respective rush attempts and the clock ran out before UK could score. The Wildcats led 7-0 at halftime.

UK coach Paul "Bear" Bryant said afterward he should have sent in a pass play just before the half. "If it failed," he said, "the clock was killed then we could have tried a field goal."

A short, 9-yard punt by Phelps set up Santa Clara's first score in the third quarter. After taking over on the SC 46, Bronco quarterback John Pasco hit Larry Williams on a 25-yard pass. Santa Clara eventually scored on a one-yard sneak by Pasco to tie the game, 7-7.

Santa Clara scored again later in the third period, thanks in part to a pass interference call against Kentucky. Hall Haynes went over from 4 yards to make it 14-7 after three quarters.

Parilli led Kentucky right back, hitting Emery Clark on a 52-yard touchdown strike. Brooks, however, missed the tying PAT, breaking a personal streak of 18 straight, as Santa Clara led 14-13 with 12 minutes left in the contest.

Santa Clara managed to hold off the Cats and added an insurance score with less than a minute left, a 16-yard TD run by Buster Wraith.

SUGAR BOWL

Kentucky 13, Oklahoma 7

1951 Kentucky arrived on the national football scene and stunned national champion Oklahoma, 13-7, to capture the 1951 Sugar Bowl before 82,000 at New Orleans.

The Wildcats, 11-1, displayed a tough defense and opportunistic offense in snapping Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak, the longest in the nation at that time. More than 13,000 Kentucky fans made the long trip to New Orleans to watch the Southeastern Conference champions pick up their school record 11th win.

Under the direction of coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, Kentucky continually confused the favored Sooners with different defensive looks. The Wildcats used three tackles much of the time, causing OU quarterback Claude Arnold to hasten his playmaking.

Inflicting the most damage on the Sooners was Walt Yowarsky, a tackle who had played less than five minutes on the defensive side of the football in 1950. Yowarsky operated at left end, next to Outland Trophy winner Bob Gain, and repeatedly sliced into the Sooner backfield to break up passes and to make Arnold hurry his hand-offs and laterals.

Yowarsky recovered a fumble on the OU 22 that set up UK's first touchdown. On the very next play, Babe Parilli hit Wilbur Jamerson in the right corner of the end zone for the Kentucky marched 81 yards in the second quarter to go up 13-0. Jamerson dove over from the one to cap the drive, but Gain missed wide on the PAT.

The Wildcat defense, ranked number two in the nation, showed Oklahoma why late in the third quarter. The Sooners drove 67 yards with the second-half kickoff, sitting at the UK 3 with a first-and-goal. Yowarsky helped UK turn back the Sooners, throwing an OU runner for a five-yard loss on third down and Oklahoma eventually turned the ball over on downs.

Yowarsky, voted the game's MVP, thwarted another OU threat in the fourth quarter as he recovered a fumbled punt.

Oklahoma did score with seven minutes to play as Billy Vessels hit Merrill Green on a 17-yard pass for the touchdown. Jim Weatherall added the PAT.

The Wildcats managed to hold on to the football for all but one play the rest of the way to claim a stirring 13-7 win.

COTTON BOWL

Kentucky 20, TCU 7

1952 Quarterback Babe Parilli threw for two touchdowns to lead the Kentucky Wildcats to a 20-7 victory over the TCU Horned Frogs in the 1952 Cotton Bowl before a crowd of 75,349 at Dallas, Texas.

Parilli, who completed 8 of 20 passes for 85 yards, tossed both touchdown strikes to Emery Clark. With the victory, the Wildcats ended the season at 8-4.

Kentucky got on the scoreboard first, as Parilli found Clark for the first of two TDs. Parilli hit Clark with a five-yard toss to culminate a 53-yard scoring march. Harry Jones added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after one quarter.

In the second period, UK got its second touchdown when Parilli and Clark hooked up again. This time, Parilli found Clark on a 13-yard TD strike to cap a 57-yard drive. Jones missed on the PAT attempt and UK settled for a 13-0 lead in the second period with a little over 10 minutes left.

The Wildcat defense made that 13-point lead stand up until halftime as the Horned Frogs drove four times deep into UK territory. Led by All-American guard Ray Correll, the Wildcats turned TCU away on drives to the UK 4, 24, 5 and 2-yard lines to take a 13-0 lead at intermission.

TCU's Bobby Jack Floyd sliced the UK lead to 13-7 when he galloped 43 yards on a sweep. Floyd's run capped an 80-yard scoring drive which took only four plays. Keith Flowers added the PAT with 1:12 left in the third period.

Kentucky ended any thoughts of a TCU comeback, thwarting the only two Horned Frog offensive drives in the fourth period and scoring an insurance touchdown as well. Ed Hamilton sealed the UK victory with a three-yard score off left tackle with 3:33 left. Jones added the PAT for the final 20-7 score.

The Wildcats, after a 25-year absence from the post-season bowl scene, returned in fine fashion as Kentucky completely smothered the Tar Heels. Kentucky outgained North Carolina 334-108 in total yards, limiting the Tar Heels to just five first downs and forcing five UNC turnovers.

After a scoreless first half, Kentucky went to work in the third period after UNC quarterback Matt Kupec fumbled at the Tar Heel 21. UK's James Ramey recovered and the Wildcats were in business.

Seven plays later, Stewart busted over from the one for the touchdown. John Pierce added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after three quarters.

Stewart sent the 37,000-plus Kentuckians, who had followed UK to the Peach Bowl, into a frenzy with his second touchdown early in the fourth quarter. The Wildcats marched 57 yards in 9 plays as Stewart capped the drive with a 13-yard gallop behind All-American tackle Warren Bryant. Pierce was good on the PAT and Kentucky led 14-0 with 13:01 left to play.

The Big Blue had to go only 47 yards for their final score. Kentucky faced a fourth-and-one from the UNC 3 with a little over three minutes remaining. Once again, Stewart (104 yards on 19 carries) got the call and he picked up both - the first down and the touchdown. Pierce was true on the PAT and UK had put the game away.

Stewart tied the Peach Bowl record for most touchdowns and scoring with the 3 TDs and 18 points. He was named the game's MVP. The Most Valuable Defensive Player of the game was UK linebacker Mike Martin, who helped hold the Tarheels to just over 100 yards.

HALL OF FAME BOWL

West Virginia 20, Kentucky 16

1983 Kentucky won much of the statistical battle but lost the war in dropping a tough 20-16 decision to the West Virginia Mountaineers in the 1983 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham.

The Wildcats, in a bowl for the first time since 1976, outgained West Virginia 306-288 in total offense and held the edge in first downs 19-18 and passing yards 216-88. But 17 second-half points by West Virginia were too much for the Wildcats to overcome.

West Virginia scratched first as placekicker Paul Woodside connected on a 39-yard field goal late in the first quarter.

Kentucky countered with 10 points in the second stanza to take a 10-3 lead at halftime.

The Wildcats marched 54 yards in eight plays for their first score. Facing a third-and-three from the WV 26, Kentucky used some razzle-dazzle as Tony Mayes swept right, then threw-back to quarterback Randy Jenkins in the left corner of the endzone for the TD. John Hutcherson added the PAT and UK led 7-3 with 10:59 left in the second period.

Jenkins hit two big passes late in the second quarter to help set up a 32-yard field goal by Hutcherson. Jenkins connected with Joe Phillips for a 19-yard pass play and then hit George Adams for a 14-yarder as Hutcherson connected with 38 seconds left in the half.

WVU kicker Paul Woodside fooled everyone to begin the second half. Woodside tried an on-side kick to start the half and then recovered it to give the Mountaineers the football at the UK 48. Eight plays later, QB Jeff Hostetler found Rich Hollins for a 16-yard TD strike. Woodside added the PAT and it was 10-10 with 11:10 left in the third quarter.

West Virginia scored twice in a span of two minutes early in the fourth quarter to take a commanding 20-10 lead. Hostetler capped off a 10-play, 81-yard drive with a 2-yard scoring toss to Rob Bennett to make it 17-10 with 11:15 left to play.

Two plays later, West Virginia took over after an interception of a Jenkins pass at the UK 16. The interception set up a 23-yard field goal by Woodside as the Mountaineers went up 20-10 with 9:18 remaining.

Kentucky freshman quarterback Bill Ransdell led the Wildcats back, marching UK 92 yards in 11 plays following the kickoff. Ransdell hit Phillips for a 13-yard scoring toss to make it 20-16 with 5:50 left. Hutcherson missed the PAT.

The Wildcats got one more shot, but could get no further than the UK 37.

HALL OF FAME BOWL

Kentucky 20, Wisconsin 19

1984 Kentucky's Joey Worley booted a career-long 52-yard field goal with just under nine minutes remaining to give the Wildcats a thrilling 20-19 victory over the Wisconsin Badgers in the 1984 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham.

Worley, a freshman, helped Kentucky overcome a nine-point deficit in the second half with his school and bowl record field goal.

Wisconsin jumped on top early, scoring twice in the first quarter. Todd Gregoire nailed a 40-yard field goal just under four minutes into the game and Michael Howard hit Thad McFadden with a 3-yard TD pass. Gregoire added the PAT and the Badgers led 10-0 with 5:34 left in the opening period.

Gregoire added another field goal, this one from 27 yards, to make it 13-0 with 7:05 left in the second period.

Kentucky got on the board after safety Paul Calhoun intercepted a Howard pass to give UK possession at the Badger 42. It took Kentucky just five plays to score as Marc Logan went over from nine yards. Worley added the PAT to cut the deficit to 13-7 with 1:29 left in the half.

Wisconsin was not through. The Badgers used four running plays, two passes and a costly 15-yard penalty to move the football to the UK 3 with two seconds left in the half. From there, Wisconsin decided on a Gregoire field goal (20-yarder) to take a 16-7 edge at halftime.

Kentucky narrowed the gap to 16-10 on a 22-yard field goal by Worley with 11:28 left in the third quarter. But Gregoire responded with a 40-yarder two minutes later to move the count back to nine, 19-10.

Behind UK quarterback Bill Ransdell, the Wildcats marched 82 yards in 11 plays later in the quarter to get within two, 19-17. Ransdell hit Logan on a screen pass to cover the final 27 yards and with the Worley PAT, UK was back in it with 26 seconds left in the third quarter.

The next time Kentucky got the ball, Ransdell moved the Cats into position for Worley's 52-yarder. Starting from the UK 22, tailback Mark Higgs got the call four consecutive times, then it was Adams' turn the next four plays. Facing a fourth-and-two at the UW 34, Worley nailed the game-winner with 8:55 left.

Wisconsin came back and marched to the UK 8 with less than two minutes left. With the Badgers facing a fourth-and-six, Gregoire was called on for his fifth field goal attempt. This time, the snap from center was bobbled and UK had sealed the victory.

Clemson 14, Kentucky 13

1993 The Wildcats met the 24th-ranked Clemson Tigers in the 26th annual Peach Bowl and came within one minute of winning their sixth bowl in eight tries. But a Clemson TD in the closing seconds sent UK home with a 14-13 loss.

Kentucky took the opening kickoff and marched down the field to the Clemson two-yard line, where what appeared to be a QB Pookie Jones-to-WB Alfonzo Browning TD was instead a turnover when Browning fumbled the ball while attempting to extend it over the goal line.

Clemson took over on its own one and proceeded to march 99 yards for the game's first score, a two-yard TD plunge by TB Emory Smith. The PAT gave the Tigers a 7-0 lead. Clemson ran the ball 15 times and attempted only three passes in the drive.

Kentucky was stopped again at the one-yard line before the Wildcats finally scored on Nicky Nickels' 34-yard FG in the second period, making the score Clemson 7, Kentucky 3.

UK captured the lead early in the fourth quarter when Jones hit WR Mark Chatmon with a five-yard TD pass, making it UK 10, Clemson 7. Nickels added another FG, this one from 26 yards, to extend UK's lead to 13-7. But after Dan Ariza's 55-yard punt pinned the Tigers inside their own 18-yard line, QB Patrick Sapp hit Smith with a 57-yard screen pass to move Clemson into scoring position. With less than a minute remaining, LB Marty Moore intercepted a Sapp pass, but fumbled it back, giving Clemson a second chance. The Tigers capitalized when Sapp hit WR Henry Smith with the game-winning 21-yard TD pass. Kentucky got the ball back with less than 20 seconds remaining, but could move no farther than its own 40.

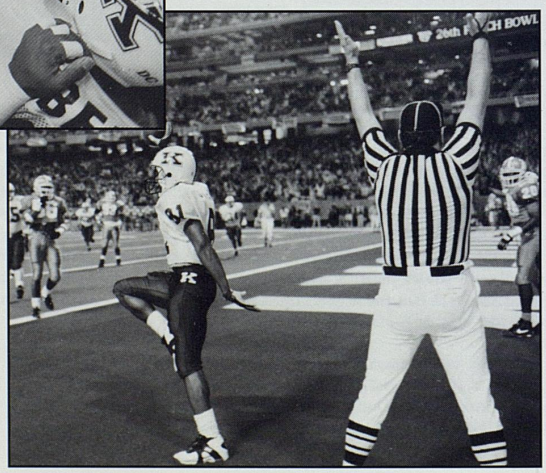

FS Melvin Johnson hauls in a Tiger running back.

Kentucky returned to a bowl game for the first time in nine years.

FL Randy Wyatt looks for running room.

Bishop's Theft Gives UK Victory

DARRYL BISHOP of Louisville, whose final season was 1973, remains the UK leader in career interceptions with 14 . . . One of his most notable interceptions took place on Nov. 6, 1971, at Dudley Field in Nashville . . . With UK and Vanderbilt knotted at 7-7 and less than 50 seconds to play, Kentucky elected to punt facing a 4th-and-8 situation from its own 44 . . . Walter Overton made a fair catch at the Commodore 30, giving Vandy a first down . . . After QB Steve Burger lost four yards on the first play, the Commodores elected not to use a timeout . . . Then as time expired, Burger lofted a pass toward receiver Gary Chesley . . . The ball never got to Chesley as Bishop picked off the aerial and raced 43 yards for the winning score, giving UK a 14-7 victory on the game's final play.

Kentucky Wildcats on the Air

When talk arises about sports in the Commonwealth of Kentucky, chances are the talk surrounds the University of Kentucky Wildcats.

Once again, the University of Kentucky will package one of the most comprehensive radio and television networks among Division I-A institutions. Both radio and television networks will blanket the Commonwealth and touch much of the nation.

Sports Communications, Inc., which owns the radio rights for UK football and men's basketball, had compiled a radio network of 81 stations as this book went to press. More stations will be added before the season begins.

WVLK-AM/FM of Lexington again serves as the flagship station for the UK Football Radio Network. Two stations on the network feature a clear-channel 50,000-watt signal, including WHAS (840 AM) in Louisville and WSAI (1530 AM) in Cincinnati.

As a member of the Southeastern Conference, Kentucky participates in the three national and regional television agreements signed by the league. The SEC is in the second year of a four-year deal with CBS that provides for a regionally — or nationally—televised SEC Game of the Week. Kentucky had two games televised by CBS last season.

ESPN and espn2 also have a contract with the SEC and pick up a number of league games. Kentucky has had five games televised by ESPN or espn2 in the last four seasons.

Another Southeastern Conference television package is produced and regionally syndicated by Jefferson-Pilot Sports. Each league school makes at least two appearances on JP Sports during a two-year contract period. Kentucky is guaranteed for at least two appearances on the JP Sports SEC Game of the Week during the 1997 season.

In addition, the university has negotiated its own contract for televised games. The UK Football Television Network features full-game, tape-delay action of all Wildcats home games and selected away games that are not televised by CBS, ESPN, espn2, or JP Sports. The network serves approximately 13 markets in and around the Commonwealth. Sports Communications, Inc., administers the network with WKYT-TV of Lexington as the telecasts' producer.

For the 1997 football season, the UK Radio/Television Broadcast Team consists of seven members, including Tom Leach, Jeff Van Note, Dick Gabriel, Dave Baker, Rob Bromley, Derrick Ramsey, and Mike Dodson.

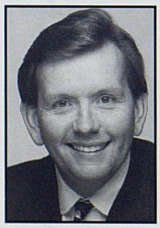

The biggest change for '97 occurs in the radio broadcast booth, where Tom Leach takes over the play-by-play duties from Ralph Hacker, who called Wildcats play-by-play from 1992-96. A 1983 graduate of Kentucky, Leach begins his ninth season as a member of the UK broadcast team. Previously, he had anchored the halftime and postgame scoreboard shows on the UK Radio Network. Along with Dick Gabriel, Leach co-hosted the postgame radio call-in show, "Wildcats Sportsline." The duties Leach held in earlier seasons had not been assigned for '97 as this book went to press.

Leach currently serves as news/sports director for radio station WVLK-AM/FM in Lexington. He began as a news/sports reporter for WVLK in 1984. Leach, a native of Paris, Ky., is a three-time winner of the Associated Press "Best Sports Program" award. He also won an Eclipse Award in 1993 for his thoroughbred racing coverage and is known for his knowledge of the racing industry.

Former UK letterman Jeff Van Note (1966-68) enters his fourth season as the expert analyst on the UK radio broadcasts. Van Note, who had an 18-year NFL career with the Atlanta Falcons, remains popular in that area and has a radio call-in show in Atlanta on weekdays.

Dave Baker, a native of Franklin, Ohio, begins his ninth year on the UK broadcast team. He is involved with the programming of "Countdown to Kickoff," the one and one-half hour pregame radio show.

Baker has spent 15 years on the sports staff of WKYT-TV in Lexington. He began at WKYT in 1982 following his graduation from Georgetown (Ky.) College. He was named WKYT's weekend anchor in 1984 and played an instrumental part in the founding of his station's award-winning "Sports Spectrum," a 20-minute comprehensive sports show on Saturday evenings. Baker also hosts a popular Sunday morning radio talk show.

Gabriel, a 1978 graduate of Kentucky, enters his ninth year as a member of the UK broadcast team. He works in the dual capacity of sideline reporter for both the UK Radio and Television Networks, an intriguing task he has handled during the 1992, 1993, 1995, and 1996 seasons. Previously, he spent four years (1989-91, 1994) on the broadcast team solely as sideline reporter for the UK Radio Network.

After the games, Gabriel has been co-host, along with Tom Leach, of the "Wildcats Sportsline" call-in show.

Gabriel, sports manager for WKYT-TV, came to Lexington from Dallas, Tex., where he was executive producer of Host Communications' Southwest Conference Football Radio Network.

As a student at UK, Gabriel was named the Outstanding Journalism Graduate in 1978. He called play-by-play for Wildcats football and basketball games on student radio station WBKY and served as sports editor for the Kentucky Kernel, UK's student newspaper. Following graduation, he served as sports director for WVLK AM/FM in Lexington.

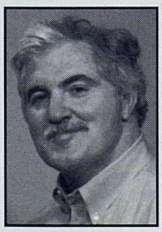

On the delayed television broadcasts, play-by-play is provided by Rob Bromley. Bromley is set for his 18th year on the UK Television Network. He has also handled the roles of analyst and sideline reporter in the past. Bromley also has served as producer and co-host of the Kentucky football and men's basketball coaches' television shows.

Bromley has been a member of the WKYT-TV sports staff for 19 years, including the past 16 as sports anchor. Bromley is a graduate of Butler University in Indianapolis and worked as a sports anchor in Lima, Ohio, prior to joining the WKYT-TV staff in 1977.

Assisting Bromley with the delayed television broadcasts is expert analyst Derrick Ramsey. A first-team All-SEC quarterback in 1977 as a Wildcat senior, Ramsey provides opinion and commentary on the delayed television broadcasts. Ramsey enjoyed a 10-year NFL career with the Oakland/Los Angeles Raiders (1978-83), New England (1983-85), and Detroit (1987).

Ramsey returned to the university full-time in 1995 as a member of the community relations office. He earned a promotion last year and now serves as Director of Development and Community Relations for the Lexington campus.

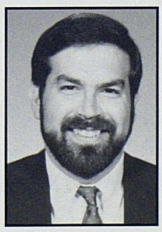

Working behind the scenes to pull the broadcasts together is the job of Mike Dodson, who enters his fifth year as a member of the UK broadcast team. Dodson, director of broadcast operations of the UK Radio and Television Networks, is the technical engineer for all game-day Wildcats football and men's basketball broadcasts.

What They Say About Hal Mumme...

The hiring of Hal Mumme brought an outpouring of positive reaction.

Here are some quotes from articles published in the Lexington Herald-Leader, Louisville Courier-Journal, and The Cats' Pause.

"His reputation is one of a wide-open coach with a wide-open system."

Alvis Johnson, Harrodsburg (Ky.) High School Head Coach

"He did a miracle here (at Iowa Wesleyan) ...He could sell ice cubes to Eskimos."

Keith Cohorst, Sports Editor of the Mount Pleasant (Iowa) News

"I'm one of his greatest fans and supporters. There's more to him than football — he cares about his players — and that's important when you're a single parent with two sons who depend on you."

Dean Chandler, father of a Valdosta State player

"C. M. Newton and the athletics board made a wise choice. He's young, he's a winner, and he holds to the high standards that (former coaches) Jerry Claiborne and Bill Curry did about the conducting of an athletic program —putting the student-athlete first."

Edward T. (Ned) Breathitt, Chairman of the UK Board of Trustees and former Governor of Kentucky

"Looking across the nation at young coaches who have a chance to be everything a university would want, one of the top names is Hal Mumme. He's proven himself as a head coach on three levels. He has an excellent offensive mind and has the charisma and personality to recruit."

Grant Teaff, Director of the American Football Coaches Association

"If I could say one thing to the players at Kentucky, it would be this: 'Listen to Coach. Believe in him. Believe in his system. You will win.'"

Sean Pender, Valdosta State player

"I don't think there's anybody in the country who knows more about throwing the football than Hal Mumme. I don't look forward to playing him. I can tell you that."

Mickey Matthews, Georgia linebackers coach; also coached with Mumme at West Texas State and Texas-El Paso

"He's the perfect guy for the University of Kentucky right now. He's just a great, great offensive mind. I think he can go to the NFL right now and score points. I've seen what he's done here, and it's just amazing. He brings a fresh air to the football field. He's definitely a guy of the '90s. Times are changing. A kid has to have fun, and he's aware of that."

Milt Miller, Lowndes County (Ga.) High School Head Coach

"I met him a couple of years ago when he spoke at a clinic. I was very impressed with the things he was doing offensively... he's going to be very well received. He has great rapport with other coaches, and he is captivating in the way he approaches the game."

Sam Harp, Danville (Ky.) High School Head Coach

"If you're a quarterback and you play for Kentucky, get ready to throw the ball. And if you're a wide receiver, I only have one thing to say to you. Get ready to have some fun, baby."

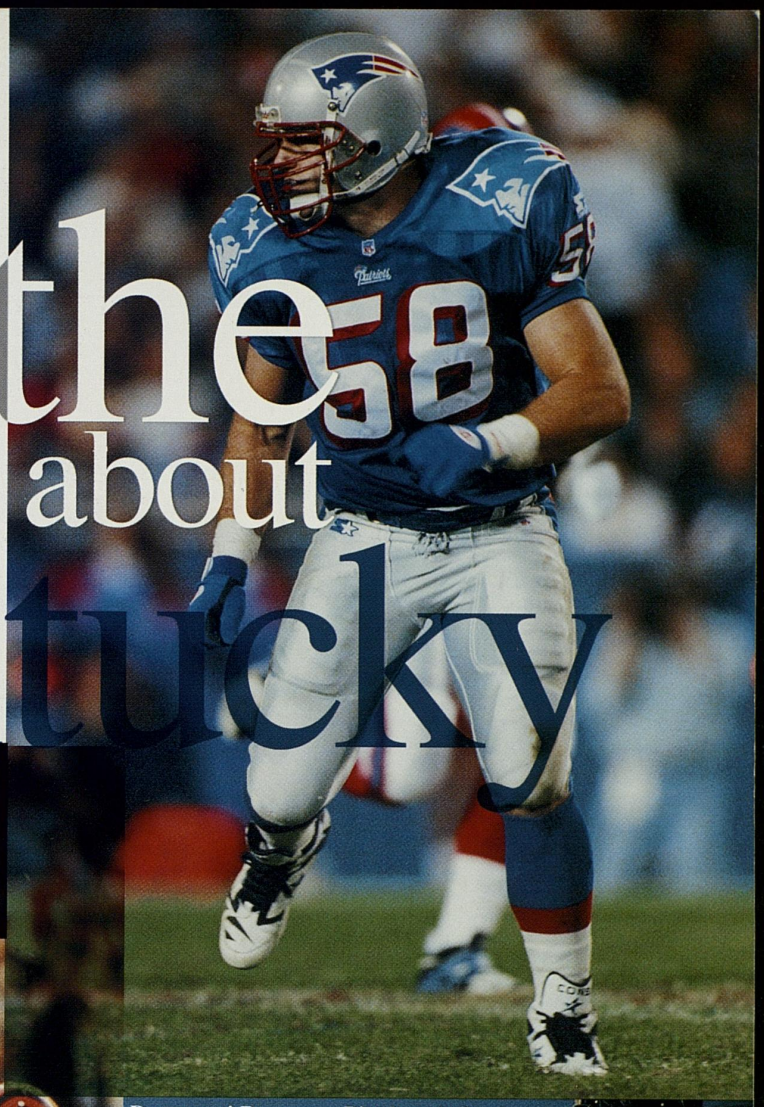

Tirrell Andrews, Valdosta State player

"Hal is a bright, young, energetic, and enthusiastic coach. He is well-versed in the wide-open offense of the '90s. He's been able to recruit players and he's also developed players. He's a real favorite of the Georgia high school coaches."

Jeff Van Note, former UK player and current UK Radio Network analyst

what the pros say about Kentucky

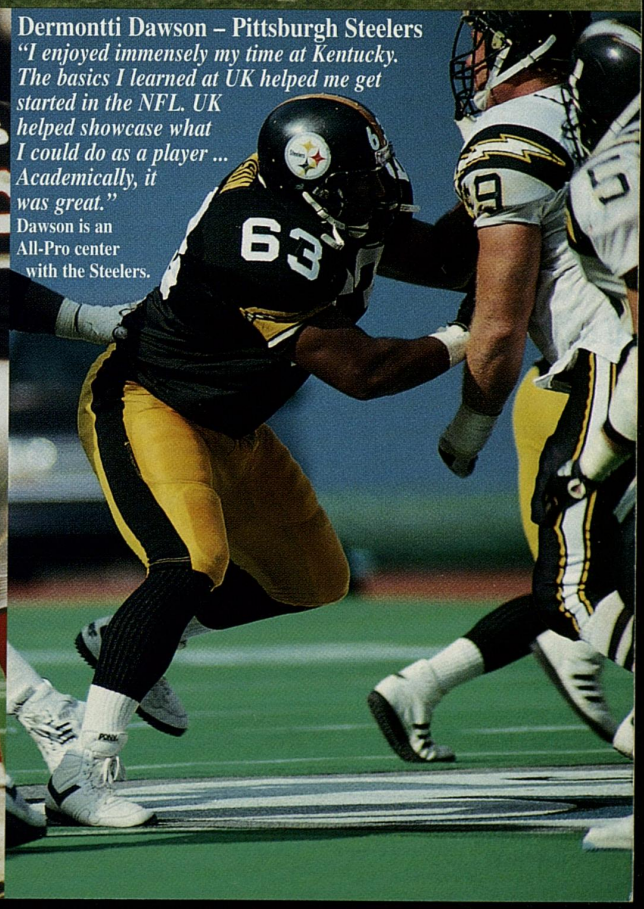

Marty Moore – New England Patriots
"At Kentucky, I learned a lot about discipline, hard work, and what it takes to play in this league, but they wanted you to get your education before you thought about playing pro football. Playing at UK was a great experience for me."
Moore is in his fourth season with the Patriots and has played in the Super Bowl.

Doug Pelfrey – Cincinnati Bengals
"Like a lot of other kids in Kentucky, I grew up wanting to play for the Wildcats. I was lucky enough to live out my childhood dream to play for UK. Academically and athletically, UK is a great institution."
Pelfrey enters the 1997 season with the Cincinnati Bengals as the NFL's all-time leader in career field goal accuracy (81.2 percent).

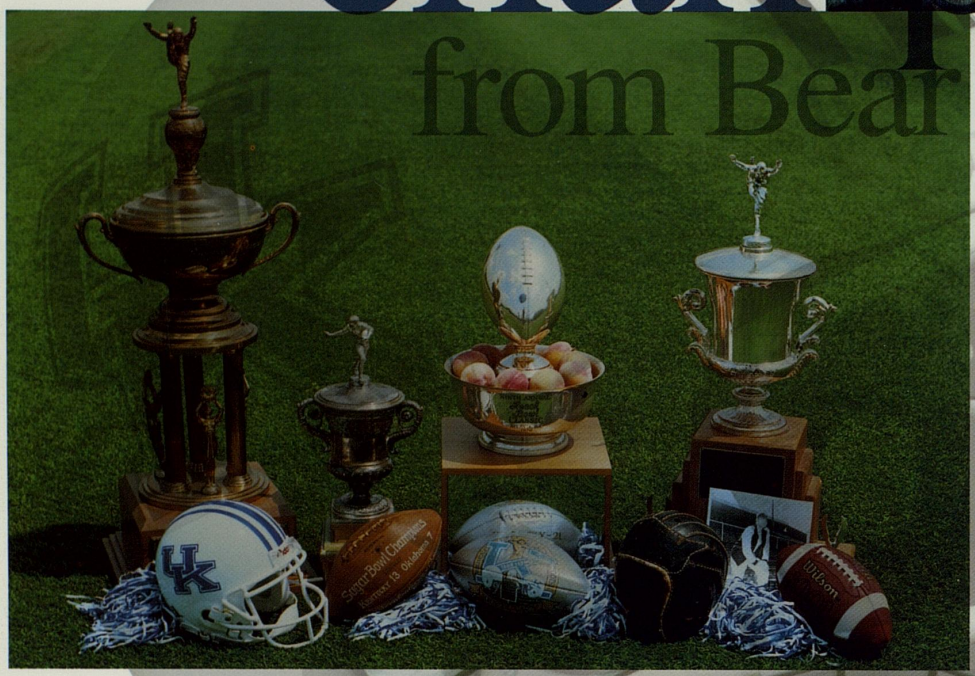

Dermontti Dawson – Pittsburgh Steelers
"I enjoyed immensely my time at Kentucky. The basics I learned at UK helped me get started in the NFL. UK helped showcase what I could do as a player ... Academically, it was great."
Dawson is an All-Pro center with the Steelers.

The Kentucky cheerleaders won their seventh national championship last January. The cheerleaders have won the Universal Cheerleaders Association national title in 1985, 1987, 1988, 1992, 1995, 1996, and 1997 and have been the runners-up on four occasions.
